Cross References: John 3:32; 1 Timothy 6:13; John 14:6

38 “What is truth?” Pilate retorted. With this he went out again to the Jews gathered there and said, “I find no basis for a charge against him.

40 They shouted back, “No, not him! Give us Barabbas!” Now Barabbas had taken part in a rebellion.

- Peter’s denials remind us of human weakness, but also of the need for restoration.
- Jesus boldly declared the truth before religious leaders and Roman authority.
- His kingdom is not of this world but is grounded in truth and eternity.
- The crowds chose Barabbas over Jesus, showing how easily people reject the true King.

“Jesus Restores Peter and Commissions His Disciples”

Jesus Appears at the Sea of Galilee

1 Later, Jesus appeared again to his disciples by the Sea of Galilee. This is how it happened:

2 Simon Peter, Thomas (called the Twin), Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two other disciples were together.

Cross References: John 1:45; Matthew 4:21; John 11:16

3 Simon Peter said, “I’m going fishing.”

They replied, “We’ll come too.” So they went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.

Cross References: Luke 5:5; Luke 5:2; Matthew 4:19

4 At dawn, Jesus stood on the shore, but the disciples did not realize it was him.

5 He called out to them, “Friends, have you caught any fish?”

They answered, “No.”

Cross References: Luke 5:4; Luke 5:5; Luke 24:41

6 He said, “Throw your net on the right side of the boat, and you’ll find some.” They did, and the net was so full of fish they couldn’t haul it in.

Cross References: Luke 5:6; Luke 5:7; John 21:11

7 Then the disciple Jesus loved said to Peter, “It’s the Lord!” When Peter heard that, he put on his outer garment (for he had taken it off) and jumped into the water.

Cross References: John 13:23; John 20:2; Matthew 14:29

8 The other disciples followed in the boat, towing the net full of fish, for they were not far from shore, only about a hundred yards.

Cross References: Luke 5:7; John 6:19; John 21:11

9 When they landed, they saw a fire of burning coals with fish on it, and some bread.

10 Jesus said, “Bring some of the fish you’ve just caught.”

Cross References: Luke 5:6; John 21:11; John 6:9

11 So Simon Peter climbed back into the boat and dragged the net ashore. It was full of large fish—153 in total. But even with so many, the net was not torn.

Cross References: Luke 5:6; Ezekiel 47:9; John 19:24

12 Jesus said to them, “Come and have breakfast.” None of the disciples dared ask him, “Who are you?” They knew it was the Lord.

13 Jesus took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish.

14 This was now the third time Jesus appeared to his disciples after he was raised from the dead.

Jesus Restores Peter

15 After breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, “Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?” “Yes, Lord,” he said, “you know that I love you.”

Jesus said, “Feed my lambs.”

17 The third time he said to him, “Simon son of John, do you love me?”

Peter was hurt because Jesus asked him the third time. He said, “Lord, you know everything. You know that I love you.”

Jesus said, “Feed my sheep.

Cross References: Psalm 139:1; Hebrews 4:13; John 16:30

18 Truly I tell you, when you were young, you dressed yourself and went where you wanted. But when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go.”

19 Jesus said this to show the kind of death by which Peter would glorify God. Then he said to him, “Follow me.”

The Question About John

20 Peter turned and saw the disciple Jesus loved was following them—the one who leaned back against Jesus at supper and asked, “Lord, who is going to betray you?”

Cross References: John 13:23; John 13:25; John 19:26

21 When Peter saw him, he asked, “Lord, what about him?”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 29:29; Acts 1:7; John 13:36

22 Jesus answered, “If I want him to remain alive until I return, what is that to you? You must follow me.”

Cross References: Matthew 24:44; Revelation 22:20; Matthew 16:27

23 Because of this, a rumor spread among the believers that this disciple would not die. But Jesus did not say he would not die; he only said, “If I want him to remain until I return, what is that to you?”

Cross References: Matthew 16:28; Mark 9:1; Luke 9:27

Closing Words

24 This disciple is the one who testifies to these things and who wrote them down. We know that his testimony is true.

Cross References: John 19:35; 3 John 1:12; John 15:27

25 Jesus did many other things as well. If every one of them were written down, I suppose the whole world would not have room for the books that would be written. Amen.

Key Lessons from John 21

- Jesus continues to meet his disciples where they are, even after the resurrection.
- The miraculous catch reminds us that success in ministry comes by obeying Jesus' word.
- Peter's threefold restoration shows Christ's mercy—failure is not final with Jesus.
- Love for Christ is proven in caring for his people.
- Each disciple has a unique calling—our focus must be on following Jesus, not comparing ourselves to others.
- The Gospel ends by pointing to the unending works of Christ, which no book could fully contain.

Introduction to the Book of Acts

“But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you. And you will be my witnesses, telling people about me everywhere—in Jerusalem, throughout Judea, in Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.” – Acts 1:8

Title and Meaning

The book is traditionally titled “The Acts of the Apostles,” but it could also be called “The Acts of the Holy Spirit.” While it records the work of the apostles, the true focus is on the risen Christ working through the Spirit to establish His church and spread the gospel. It serves as a bridge between the Gospels and the Epistles, showing how the message of Jesus expanded from Jerusalem to the world.

Author and Date

Acts was written by Luke, the beloved physician and companion of Paul (Colossians 4:14). It is the second part of a two-volume work, following the Gospel of Luke (Luke 1:1–4; Acts 1:1). Both books are addressed to Theophilus, likely a patron or a symbolic title meaning “lover of God.” Acts was likely written around AD 62–64, since it ends with Paul under house arrest in Rome and makes no mention of his trial, later ministry, or martyrdom.

Purpose of Acts

Luke’s purpose in writing Acts is both historical and theological:

- To show how the gospel spread from Jerusalem to Rome, fulfilling Jesus’ commission (Acts 1:8).
- To record the empowering work of the Holy Spirit in the life of the church.
- To demonstrate the unity of Jews and Gentiles in Christ.
- To provide an orderly account of the church’s growth despite opposition.
- To encourage believers in every generation to carry on the mission of making disciples.

Structure of Acts

Acts follows the pattern of the gospel’s expansion: 1. The Church in Jerusalem (Chs. 1–7) The coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, the bold preaching of Peter, and the growth of the early church.

- 2. The Church in Judea and Samaria (Chs. 8–12) Persecution scatters believers, Philip preaches in Samaria, Saul (Paul) is converted, and the gospel reaches Gentiles through Peter and Cornelius.
- 3. The Church to the Ends of the Earth (Chs. 13–28) Paul’s missionary journeys, the spread of the gospel throughout the Roman Empire, and his final imprisonment in Rome.

Major Themes

- The Holy Spirit – The Spirit empowers, guides, and sustains the church.

- The Mission of the Church – Believers are called to witness locally and globally.
- Unity in Christ – Jews and Gentiles alike are brought into one body.
- Boldness in Persecution – The church grows stronger despite opposition.
- God’s Sovereignty – The spread of the gospel unfolds according to God’s plan.

Why Acts Matters Today

Acts shows us that the gospel is unstoppable. Despite trials, imprisonments, and opposition, the message of Jesus reached the heart of the Roman Empire. Today, Acts continues to inspire the church to live Spirit-filled lives, to carry the gospel across cultures, and to boldly proclaim Christ. It reminds us that the same Spirit who empowered Peter, Paul, and the early church empowers us today.

Key Verse

“But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you. And you will be my witnesses, telling people about me everywhere—in Jerusalem, throughout Judea, in Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.” – Acts 1:8 This verse captures the heart of Acts: Spirit-filled believers taking the message of Christ to the whole world.

- Miracles confirm the word of God, but true worship must always be directed to God, not men.
- Hardship and persecution are part of the path into God’s kingdom.
- Leadership in the church is established through prayer, fasting, and reliance on the Lord.

1 Some men came down from Judea and taught the believers: “Unless you are circumcised according to the law of Moses, you cannot be saved.”

Cross References: Galatians 2:4; Galatians 5:2; Titus 1:10

3 On their way, they traveled through Phoenicia and Samaria, telling how the Gentiles had turned to God. This news brought great joy to all the believers.

- Salvation is by grace through faith in Jesus, not by keeping the law of Moses.
- God makes no distinction between Jew and Gentile—He purifies hearts by faith.
- Church unity comes through prayer, discussion, and the guidance of the Holy Spirit.
- Sometimes even godly leaders disagree, but God still uses both paths to accomplish His work.

Key Lessons from Acts 16

- God directs His servants where to go—even closing doors to guide them to the right place.
- The gospel is for all people: Timothy, a half-Jew; Lydia, a wealthy businesswoman; a slave girl; and a Roman jailer.

- God opens hearts to believe—salvation is His work, not ours.
- Praise in suffering brings God’s power—Paul and Silas sang in prison, and God shook the foundations.
- True faith transforms households: the Philippian jailer and his entire family believed and were baptized.
- Christians can stand boldly for justice while still proclaiming grace and truth.

Key Lessons from Acts 25

- God’s providence protects His servants. Though the Jews plotted Paul’s death, God made sure Paul’s case went to Rome, just as Jesus promised.
- Paul stood firm in truth and justice. He was not afraid of death but demanded a fair trial, knowing his rights as a Roman citizen.
- Christianity was recognized as distinct. Even Festus saw the issue was about Jesus being alive, the core of the gospel.
- God uses rulers and courts to fulfill His plan. Paul’s appeal to Caesar was not an accident—it was the path God had set for him to testify in Rome.
- The gospel cannot be silenced. No matter the opposition, God makes sure His word is heard in the highest places of power.

Key Lessons from Acts 28

- God protects His servants. The snake bite and the storm could not stop Paul, because God’s mission must be fulfilled.
- The gospel brings healing. Paul’s ministry on Malta showed that the power of Jesus extends to both body and soul.
- Encouragement matters. Meeting fellow believers on the way to Rome strengthened Paul for the challenges ahead.
- Some believe, others reject. Just as Isaiah prophesied, some hearts are hard, but the gospel always finds listeners among the humble.

- The mission continues. The Book of Acts closes not with an ending, but with the gospel still spreading boldly and freely through Paul.

Introduction to the Book of Romans

“For I am not ashamed of this Good News about Christ. It is the power of God at work, saving everyone who believes—the Jew first and also the Gentile.” – Romans 1:16

Title and Meaning

The book of Romans is a letter (epistle) written to the believers in Rome. Its title comes from the audience—“the saints in Rome” (Romans 1:7). More than a letter, it is Paul’s most comprehensive explanation of the gospel, often called “the constitution of the Christian faith.” It systematically presents the righteousness of God and how it is revealed through faith in Jesus Christ.

Author and Date

The apostle Paul is the author of Romans (Romans 1:1). He wrote it around AD 57, during his three-month stay in Corinth on his third missionary journey (Acts 20:2–3). Paul had not yet visited the church in Rome, but he longed to encourage them and prepare for his future mission to Spain (Romans 15:23–24).

Purpose of Romans

Paul wrote Romans with several key purposes:

- To clearly explain the gospel of salvation by grace through faith.
- To unite Jewish and Gentile believers under the truth that all are sinners in need of God’s mercy.
- To prepare the Roman church for his planned mission to Spain.
- To provide deep theological grounding for the Christian life. Romans is not only a letter of doctrine but also of encouragement, exhortation, and application of the gospel in daily living.

Structure of Romans

Paul carefully builds his argument step by step: 1. Sin and Condemnation (Chs. 1–3) All humanity—Jew and Gentile alike—stand guilty before God.

- 2. Salvation and Justification (Chs. 3–5) Righteousness is given by God through faith in Jesus Christ, not by works of the law. 3. Sanctification and Struggle (Chs. 6–8) The believer is freed from sin’s power, lives in the Spirit, and awaits future glory. 4. Sovereignty and God’s Plan (Chs. 9–11) God’s purposes for Israel and the Gentiles reveal His sovereign grace. 5. Service and Christian Living (Chs. 12–16) Practical instructions on love, unity, humility, and living out the gospel in everyday life.

Major Themes

- The Righteousness of God – God’s holiness revealed and offered to us through Christ.
- Justification by Faith – We are declared righteous not by works, but by believing in Jesus.
- Universal Sinfulness – All have sinned and fall short of God’s glory (Romans 3:23).

- Life in the Spirit – The Spirit empowers believers to overcome sin and live in freedom.
- God’s Sovereignty – His plan of salvation extends to both Jew and Gentile.
- Christian Living – True faith expresses itself in love, service, and holiness.

Why Romans Matters Today

Romans provides the clearest and most profound presentation of the gospel in all of Scripture. It has transformed countless lives, from Augustine to Martin Luther to John Wesley, and continues to shape the church today. Its message reminds us that salvation is a gift of grace, that we live empowered by the Spirit, and that the gospel unites all people in Christ. Romans not only explains what we believe but also how we should live because of it.

Key Verse

“For I am not ashamed of this Good News about Christ. It is the power of God at work, saving everyone who believes—the Jew first and also the Gentile.” – Romans 1:16 This verse encapsulates the boldness, universality, and transforming power of the gospel message found throughout Romans.

God Gives Them Over

Key Lessons from Romans 1

- The gospel is God's power to save. Salvation comes not by works, but by faith in Jesus Christ.
- Creation reveals God. No one has an excuse, because His eternal power and divine nature are clearly seen in the world He made.
- Sin corrupts when people reject God. When people trade God's truth for lies, they fall deeper into destructive behaviors.
- Faith is the foundation. The righteous do not live by law or works, but by faith in the Son of God.

Romans 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“True Judgment and True Circumcision”

God's Righteous Judgment

1 You have no excuse, whoever you are, when you judge others. For when you judge someone else, you are really condemning yourself, because you do the very same things.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 12:5; Matthew 7:1; James 4:11

2 We know that God's judgment against those who do such things is based on truth.

Cross References: Psalm 96:13; Revelation 20:12; 2 Timothy 4:1

3 Do you think you will escape God's judgment, you who judge others yet do the same things?

Cross References: Hebrews 12:25; Matthew 23:33; 1 Peter 4:17

4 Or do you look down on the riches of His kindness, patience, and longsuffering, not realizing that God's kindness is meant to lead you to repentance?

Cross References: 2 Peter 3:9; Ezekiel 18:23; Exodus 34:6

5 But because of your stubborn and unrepentant heart, you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath, when God's righteous judgment will be revealed.

God Rewards Each Person Fairly

8 But for those who are selfish, reject the truth, and follow evil, there will be wrath and anger.

Cross References: 2 Thessalonians 1:8; Nahum 1:2; John 3:36

9 There will be trouble and distress for everyone who does evil—for the Jew first, and also for the Gentile.

Cross References: Romans 1:16; Deuteronomy 28:15; Isaiah 3:11

10 But there will be glory, honor, and peace for everyone who does good—for the Jew first, and also for the Gentile.

Cross References: Romans 1:16; Psalm 128:2; 1 Peter 1:7

11 For God shows no favoritism.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 10:17; Acts 10:34; Galatians 2:6

The Law and the Conscience

12 All who sin without the law will perish without the law, and all who sin under the law will be judged by the law.

Cross References: Romans 5:13; 1 Corinthians 9:21; Galatians 3:10

13 It is not those who hear the law who are righteous before God, but those who do the law who will be declared righteous.

Cross References: James 1:22; James 1:25; Luke 6:46

14 When Gentiles, who do not have the law, naturally do what the law requires, they show that they are a law to themselves.

Cross References: Acts 10:35; Romans 1:19; 1 Corinthians 11:14

15 They demonstrate that the requirements of the law are written on their hearts. Their conscience bears witness, and their thoughts sometimes accuse them and at other times excuse them.

Cross References: Jeremiah 31:33; Hebrews 10:16; 2 Corinthians 1:12

16 This will happen on the day when God judges everyone's secrets through Jesus Christ, as the good news declares.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 12:14; 1 Corinthians 4:5; Acts 17:31

The Jews and the Law

17 Now you call yourself a Jew, and you rely on the law, and you boast in God.

Cross References: Micah 3:11; John 8:39; Philippians 3:4

18 You know His will and approve what is excellent because you are instructed by the law.

Cross References: Philippians 1:10; Psalm 119:66; Deuteronomy 4:8

19 You are convinced you are a guide to the blind, a light for those in darkness,

Cross References: Matthew 15:14; Matthew 23:16; Isaiah 42:19

20 an instructor of the foolish, a teacher of children, because you have in the law the embodiment of knowledge and truth.

Cross References: 2 Timothy 3:5; Matthew 23:2; Matthew 23:3

21 But you who teach others, do you not teach yourself? You who preach against stealing, do you steal?

Cross References: Matthew 23:3; Psalm 50:16; Matthew 7:5

22 You who say that one should not commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who detest idols, do you rob temples?

Cross References: Exodus 20:14; Acts 19:37; Deuteronomy 7:25

23 You who boast in the law, do you dishonor God by breaking the law?

Cross References: Jeremiah 9:24; James 2:9; 1 Corinthians 1:31

24 As it is written: “God’s name is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you.”

Cross References: Isaiah 52:5; Ezekiel 36:20; 2 Samuel 12:14

True Circumcision

25 Circumcision has value if you obey the law. But if you break the law, your circumcision becomes uncircumcision.

Cross References: Jeremiah 4:4; Galatians 5:3; Genesis 17:11

26 So if those who are not circumcised keep the law’s requirements, will not their uncircumcision be considered as circumcision?

Cross References: Deuteronomy 30:6; Galatians 5:6; Acts 10:35

27 The one who is not physically circumcised but keeps the law will condemn you who, though you have the written code and circumcision, break the law.

Cross References: Matthew 12:41; Galatians 5:3; 1 Corinthians 7:19

28 For a person is not a true Jew who is one outwardly, nor is true circumcision merely outward and physical.

Cross References: John 1:47; Matthew 3:9; Galatians 6:15

29 No, a true Jew is one inwardly, and true circumcision is of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the written code. Such a person's praise is not from people, but from God.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 30:6; Jeremiah 4:4; Philippians 3:3

Key Lessons from Romans 2

- God's judgment is fair and true. He sees the heart, not just outward actions, and will reward or punish accordingly.
- Hearing is not enough. It is not those who hear the law but those who do what God commands who are justified.
- Conscience bears witness. Even those without the written law know God's standards, because His law is written on their hearts.
- True religion is inward. Outward rituals, like circumcision, mean nothing without an obedient heart. Real faith is spiritual and comes from God, not human approval.

Romans 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“All Have Sinned, but God Justifies by Faith”

God's Faithfulness

1 What advantage does the Jew have? Or what value is there in circumcision?

Cross References: Romans 9:4; Deuteronomy 4:7; Psalm 147:19

2 Much in every way! First of all, the Jews were entrusted with the very words of God.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 4:8; Psalm 147:19; Acts 7:38

3 But what if some did not believe? Does their lack of faith cancel out God's faithfulness?

Cross References: 2 Timothy 2:13; Numbers 23:19; Psalm 89:33

4 Absolutely not! Let God be true, even if every human being is a liar. As it is written: “So that You may be proved right when You speak, and prevail when You judge.”

Cross References: Psalm 51:4; Psalm 116:11; Titus 1:2

5 But if our wrongdoing highlights the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unjust to bring wrath on us? (I am speaking from a human point of view.)

Cross References: Genesis 18:25; Job 8:3; Deuteronomy 32:4

6 Certainly not! If that were so, how could God judge the world?

Cross References: Genesis 18:25; Psalm 9:8; Psalm 96:13

7 If through my lie the truth of God increases for His glory, why am I still judged as a sinner?

Cross References: Psalm 116:11; John 3:33; 2 Corinthians 1:18

8 And why not say—as some slander us, claiming that we teach—“Let us do evil that good may result”? Their condemnation is deserved.

Cross References: Romans 6:1; Romans 6:15; 1 Corinthians 4:13

No One Is Righteous

9 What then? Are we Jews better than others? Not at all. We have already shown that Jews and Gentiles alike are all under the power of sin.

Cross References: Galatians 3:22; Romans 11:32; 1 Kings 8:46

10 As it is written: “There is no one righteous, not even one;

Cross References: Psalm 14:1; Psalm 53:1; Ecclesiastes 7:20

11 there is no one who understands;
there is no one who seeks God.

Cross References: Psalm 14:2; Psalm 53:2; Psalm 10:4

12 All have turned away, they have together become worthless;
there is no one who does good, not even one.”

Cross References: Psalm 14:3; Psalm 53:3; Psalm 143:2

13 “Their throats are open graves;
their tongues practice deceit.”
“The poison of snakes is on their lips.”

Cross References: Psalm 5:9; Psalm 140:3; James 3:8

14 “Their mouths are full of cursing and bitterness.”

Cross References: Psalm 10:7; James 3:10; Jeremiah 9:8

15 “Their feet are swift to shed blood;

Cross References: Isaiah 59:7; Proverbs 1:16; Proverbs 6:17

16 ruin and misery mark their ways,

Cross References: Isaiah 59:8; Jeremiah 6:7; Lamentations 3:47

17 *and the way of peace they do not know.”

Cross References: Isaiah 59:8; Luke 1:79; Isaiah 48:22

18 “There is no fear of God before their eyes.”

Cross References: Psalm 36:1; Proverbs 1:7; Proverbs 16:6

19 Now we know that whatever the law says, it says to those under the law, so that every mouth may be silenced and the whole world held accountable to God.

Cross References: Psalm 143:2; Galatians 3:22; Job 40:4

20 For no one will be declared righteous in His sight by the works of the law. Rather, through the law we become conscious of sin.

Cross References: Galatians 2:16; Psalm 143:2; Galatians 3:24

God's Righteousness Through Faith

21 But now the righteousness of God has been revealed apart from the law, though the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it.

Cross References: Jeremiah 23:6; Isaiah 46:13; Philippians 3:9

22 This righteousness is given through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe. There is no difference,

Cross References: Galatians 3:22; Galatians 3:28; Philippians 3:9

23 for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God,

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:46; Ecclesiastes 7:20; Galatians 3:22

24 and all are justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus.

Cross References: Ephesians 2:8; Titus 3:7; Ephesians 1:7

25 God presented Him as a sacrifice of atonement, through the shedding of His blood, to be received by faith. He did this to demonstrate His righteousness, because in His patience He had left the sins committed beforehand unpunished.

Cross References: Leviticus 17:11; Hebrews 9:22; 1 John 2:2

26 He did it to demonstrate His righteousness at the present time, so that He might be just and the one who justifies those who have faith in Jesus.

Cross References: Isaiah 45:21; Isaiah 53:11; 1 John 1:9

Justified by Faith, Not Works

27 Where, then, is boasting? It is excluded. By what law? The law of works? No, but by the law of faith.

Cross References: Ephesians 2:9; 1 Corinthians 1:29; 1 Corinthians 1:31

28 For we hold that a person is justified by faith apart from works of the law.

Cross References: Galatians 2:16; Ephesians 2:8; Galatians 3:11

29 Is God the God of Jews only? Is He not the God of Gentiles too? Yes, of Gentiles also.

Cross References: Romans 10:12; Galatians 3:28; Isaiah 45:22

30 Since there is one God, He will justify both the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through that same faith.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 6:4; Galatians 3:8; Ephesians 4:6

31 Do we then nullify the law by this faith? Not at all! On the contrary, we uphold the law.

Cross References: Matthew 5:17; Romans 8:4; Galatians 3:21

Key Lessons from Romans 3

- God is always faithful. Human unbelief does not cancel His promises.
- All have sinned. Jew and Gentile alike fall short of God's glory; no one can claim righteousness on their own.
- The law reveals sin, not salvation. Obeying rules cannot save; it only shows our need for grace.
- Salvation is a gift. We are justified freely by God's grace through faith in Jesus, who shed His blood for our redemption.
- Faith excludes boasting. No one can brag about earning salvation—it is received by trusting in Christ.
- The gospel fulfills the law. Faith in Christ upholds the true purpose of God's law: to point us to His righteousness.

Romans 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Abraham Justified by Faith, Not Works”

Abraham's Righteousness by Faith

1 What shall we say then about Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh? What did he discover?

Cross References: Genesis 12:1; Isaiah 51:2; James 2:21

2 If Abraham was made right with God by works, then he could boast. But not before God.

Cross References: Genesis 15:6; Ephesians 2:9; 1 Corinthians 1:29

3 For what does the Scripture say? “Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness.”

Cross References: Genesis 15:6; Galatians 3:6; James 2:23

4 Now to the one who works, wages are not credited as a gift, but as an obligation.

Cross References: Romans 11:6; Ephesians 2:8; Galatians 3:18

5 But to the one who does not work, but trusts God who justifies the ungodly, their faith is credited as righteousness.

Cross References: Genesis 15:6; Galatians 3:6; Titus 3:5

David Speaks of Forgiveness

6 David also spoke of the blessing of the one to whom God credits righteousness apart from works:

Cross References: Psalm 32:1; Psalm 32:2; 2 Corinthians 5:19

7 “Blessed are those whose sins are forgiven, whose sins are covered.

Cross References: Psalm 32:1; Psalm 85:2; 1 John 1:9

8 Blessed is the one whose sin the Lord will never count against them.”

Cross References: Psalm 32:2; 2 Corinthians 5:19; Micah 7:19

Not by Circumcision, but by Faith

9 Is this blessing only for the circumcised, or also for the uncircumcised? We say that Abraham’s faith was credited to him as righteousness.

Cross References: Genesis 15:6; Galatians 3:14; Romans 3:30

10 Under what circumstances was it credited? Was it after he was circumcised, or before? It was not after, but before!

Cross References: Genesis 15:6; Genesis 17:24; Genesis 17:10

11 He received circumcision as a sign, a seal of the righteousness he had by faith while still uncircumcised. So he is the father of all who believe without being circumcised, that righteousness might be credited to them also.

Cross References: Genesis 17:11; Galatians 3:7; Galatians 3:29

12 And he is the father of the circumcised who not only are circumcised outwardly, but who also follow the faith of our father Abraham before he was circumcised.

Cross References: Galatians 3:7; Galatians 3:29; Matthew 3:9

The Promise Comes by Faith

13 It was not through the law that Abraham and his descendants received the promise that he would be heir of the world, but through the righteousness that comes by faith.

Cross References: Genesis 22:17; Galatians 3:29; Hebrews 11:9

14 For if those who depend on the law are heirs, faith means nothing and the promise is worthless,

Cross References: Galatians 3:18; Galatians 3:21; Hebrews 6:13

15 because the law brings wrath. Where there is no law, there is no transgression.

Cross References: Galatians 3:19; Romans 5:13; 1 John 3:4

16 Therefore, the promise comes by faith, so that it may be by grace and guaranteed to all Abraham’s descendants—not only to those who are of the law, but also to those who share the faith of Abraham. He is the father of us all.

Cross References: Galatians 3:22; Galatians 3:29; Ephesians 2:8

17 As it is written: “I have made you a father of many nations.” He is our father in the sight of God, in whom he believed—the God who gives life to the dead and calls things that are not as though they were.

Cross References: Genesis 17:5; Hebrews 11:19; Ephesians 2:1

Abraham's Faith in God's Promise

18 Against all hope, Abraham in hope believed, and so became the father of many nations, just as it was said to him: “So shall your offspring be.”

Cross References: Genesis 15:5; Genesis 17:5; Genesis 22:17

19 Without weakening in faith, he faced the fact that his body was as good as dead—since he was about a hundred years old—and that Sarah's womb was also dead.

Cross References: Genesis 17:17; Genesis 18:11; Hebrews 11:11

20 Yet he did not waver through unbelief regarding the promise of God, but was strengthened in his faith and gave glory to God,

Cross References: Hebrews 11:11; Luke 1:45; Psalm 115:1

21 being fully convinced that God had the power to do what He had promised.

Cross References: Genesis 18:14; Hebrews 11:11; Numbers 23:19

22 That is why “it was credited to him as righteousness.”

Cross References: Genesis 15:6; Galatians 3:6; James 2:23

23 These words, “it was credited to him,” were not written for him alone,

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 10:11; 1 Corinthians 9:10; 2 Timothy 3:16

24 but also for us, to whom God will credit righteousness—for us who believe in Him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead.

Cross References: Galatians 3:6; 1 Peter 1:21; Ephesians 1:19

25 He was delivered over to death for our sins and was raised to life for our justification.

Key Lessons from Romans 4

- Faith, not works, makes us right with God. Abraham was justified before circumcision, showing salvation is not by ritual or law.
- Forgiveness is a blessing. David reminds us that true joy is found in sins forgiven and not counted against us.
- The promise is secure by grace. If it depended on law-keeping, no one could inherit it—but faith makes the promise sure to all.
- God brings life out of death. Abraham believed in a God who calls what does not exist into being and raises the dead.

- Our faith is like Abraham's. Just as he trusted God's promise, we trust in Christ who died for our sins and rose again to make us right with God.

Romans 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Peace with God Through Christ”

Justified by Faith

1 Since we have been made right with God by faith, we now have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Cross References: Ephesians 2:14; Isaiah 32:17; Colossians 1:20

2 Through Him we have gained access by faith into this grace in which we now stand. And we rejoice in the hope of the glory of God.

Cross References: Ephesians 2:18; Ephesians 3:12; Hebrews 4:16

Rejoicing in Suffering

3 Not only this, but we also rejoice in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance.

Cross References: James 1:3; 1 Peter 1:6; 2 Corinthians 4:17

4 Perseverance produces character, and character produces hope.

Cross References: James 1:4; 1 Peter 1:7; Psalms 62:5

5 And hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.

Cross References: Titus 3:6; Galatians 4:6; Philippians 1:20

Christ Died for the Ungodly

6 You see, at just the right time, when we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly.

Cross References: Galatians 4:4; 1 Peter 3:18; Ephesians 2:13

7 Very rarely will someone die for a righteous person—though for a good person someone might possibly dare to die.

Cross References: John 15:13; 1 John 3:16; John 10:11

8 But God shows His love for us in this: while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

Cross References: 1 John 4:10; John 3:16; 1 Peter 2:24

Saved by His Life

9 Since we have now been justified by His blood, how much more shall we be saved from God's wrath through Him!

Cross References: Ephesians 1:7; 1 Thessalonians 1:10; Colossians 1:20

10 For if, while we were God's enemies, we were reconciled to Him through the death of His Son, how much more, having been reconciled, shall we be saved through His life!

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 5:18; Colossians 1:21; Ephesians 2:16

11 Not only this, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 5:19; Colossians 1:20; Philippians 3:3

Adam and Christ Compared

12 Therefore, just as sin entered the world through one man, and death through sin, and so death came to all people, because all sinned—

Cross References: Genesis 3:6; 1 Corinthians 15:21; Genesis 2:17

13 Before the law was given, sin was already in the world. But sin is not charged against anyone's account where there is no law.

Cross References: Galatians 3:19; 1 John 3:4; Galatians 3:17

14 Still, death reigned from the time of Adam to Moses, even over those who did not sin in the same way Adam did, who was a pattern of the one to come.

Cross References: Genesis 5:5; 1 Corinthians 15:22; Hosea 6:7

The Gift is Greater Than the Offense

15 But the gift is not like the trespass. For if the many died by the trespass of one man, how much more did God's grace and the gift that came by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, overflow to the many!

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 15:45; Ephesians 1:7; John 1:16

16 Nor can the gift of God be compared with the result of one man's sin. The judgment followed one sin and brought condemnation, but the gift followed many sins and brought justification.

Cross References: Genesis 3:17; Ephesians 1:7; John 3:18

17 For if, by the trespass of one man, death reigned through that one man, how much more will those who receive God's abundant grace and the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man, Jesus Christ!

Cross References: Revelation 5:10; 2 Timothy 2:12; 1 Corinthians 15:22

Life Through Christ's Obedience

18 Consequently, just as one trespass brought condemnation for all people, so also one act of righteousness brought justification and life for all people.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 15:21; Genesis 3:17; Isaiah 53:11

19 For just as through the disobedience of one man many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of one man many will be made righteous.

Cross References: Genesis 3:6; Philippians 2:8; Hebrews 5:9

Grace Greater Than Sin

20 The law was brought in so that sin might increase. But where sin increased, grace increased all the more.

Cross References: Galatians 3:19; 1 Timothy 1:14; John 1:17

21 So that, just as sin reigned in death, so also grace might reign through righteousness to bring eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Cross References: John 1:17; Titus 3:7; 1 Corinthians 15:57

Key Lessons from Romans 5

- Faith brings peace. We are no longer at war with God but at peace through Christ.
- Trials build character. Suffering, when endured in faith, grows perseverance, character, and hope.
- God's love is proven. Christ died for us when we were weak and sinful—His love is beyond comparison.
- Christ reverses Adam's curse. Where Adam's disobedience brought sin and death, Christ's obedience brought righteousness and life.
- Grace is stronger than sin. No matter how deep sin goes, God's grace goes deeper, leading to eternal life in Christ.

Romans 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Dead to Sin, Alive to God”

Grace Is Not a License to Sin

1 What shall we say then? Should we keep on sinning so that grace may increase?

Cross References: Galatians 5:13; Jude 1:4; 1 Peter 2:16

2 Absolutely not! If we have died to sin, how can we still live in it?

Cross References: Colossians 3:3; Galatians 2:20; 1 Peter 2:24

Baptized into Christ's Death and Life

3 Don't you know that all of us who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into His death?

Cross References: Galatians 3:27; Colossians 2:12; 1 Corinthians 12:13

4 Therefore we were buried with Him through baptism into death, so that just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too may walk in newness of life.

Cross References: Colossians 2:12; Colossians 3:1; 2 Corinthians 5:17

5 For if we have been united with Him in His death, we will also be united with Him in His resurrection.

Cross References: Philippians 3:10; 2 Timothy 2:11; Galatians 2:20

Crucified With Christ

6 We know that our old sinful self was crucified with Him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, and we would no longer be slaves to sin.

Cross References: Galatians 5:24; Ephesians 4:22; Colossians 3:9

7 For anyone who has died has been freed from sin.

Cross References: 1 Peter 4:1; Colossians 3:3; Galatians 2:19

8 Now if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with Him.

Cross References: 2 Timothy 2:11; Philippians 1:21; Galatians 2:20

9 For we know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has any power over Him.

Cross References: Revelation 1:18; Acts 13:34; 1 Corinthians 15:55

10 The death He died, He died to sin once for all; but the life He lives, He lives to God.

Cross References: Hebrews 9:26; 1 Peter 3:18; Hebrews 10:10

11 In the same way, count yourselves dead to sin but alive to God in Christ Jesus.

Cross References: Galatians 2:20; Colossians 3:3; 1 Peter 2:24

Instruments of Righteousness

12 Therefore, do not let sin reign in your mortal body so that you obey its desires.

Cross References: 1 Peter 2:11; Galatians 5:16; 1 John 2:16

13 Do not offer any part of yourself to sin as an instrument of wickedness. Instead, offer yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and offer every part of yourself to Him as an instrument of righteousness.

Cross References: James 4:7; 1 Corinthians 6:19; 2 Timothy 2:21

14 For sin shall not have dominion over you, because you are not under the law but under grace.

Cross References: Galatians 5:18; Titus 2:11; Galatians 3:25

Slaves to Righteousness

15 What then? Shall we sin because we are not under the law but under grace? Absolutely not!

Cross References: Galatians 5:13; 1 Peter 2:16; Jude 1:4

16 Don't you realize that when you offer yourselves to someone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one you obey—whether you are slaves to sin, which leads to death, or to obedience, which leads to righteousness?

Cross References: John 8:34; 2 Peter 2:19; Galatians 4:9

17 But thanks be to God! Though you used to be slaves of sin, you wholeheartedly obeyed the teaching you received.

Cross References: Ephesians 2:2; Titus 3:3; 2 Timothy 1:13

18 You have been set free from sin and have become slaves to righteousness.

Cross References: John 8:36; Galatians 5:1; 1 Peter 2:24

The Fruit of Holiness

19 I speak in simple terms because of the weakness of your flesh. Just as you used to offer yourselves as slaves to impurity and ever-increasing wickedness, now offer yourselves as slaves to righteousness leading to holiness.

Cross References: Hebrews 12:14; 1 Peter 1:15; 1 Thessalonians 4:7

20 When you were slaves to sin, you were free from the control of righteousness.

Cross References: John 8:34; 2 Peter 2:19; Titus 3:3

21 But what benefit did you reap at that time from the things you are now ashamed of? Those things result in death!

Cross References: James 1:15; Ezekiel 18:4; Galatians 6:8

22 But now that you have been set free from sin and have become servants of God, the benefit you reap leads to holiness, and the result is eternal life.

Cross References: Galatians 5:22; 1 Thessalonians 4:7; John 4:14

The Great Exchange

23 For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Cross References: James 1:15; Ezekiel 18:20; John 10:28

Key Lessons from Romans 6

- Grace is not permission to sin. Salvation calls us to holiness, not indulgence.
- Baptism is identification. It unites us with Christ's death and resurrection.
- Sin is no longer master. Believers must live as instruments of righteousness.
- Every life has a master. You are either a slave to sin leading to death, or a servant of God leading to holiness.
- The wages of sin vs. the gift of God. Sin pays death, but God freely gives eternal life through Jesus Christ.

Romans 7 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Dead to the Law, Alive in Christ”

Released from the Law

1 Don't you know, brothers and sisters—for I am speaking to those who know the law—that the law has authority over a person only as long as he lives?

Cross References: Galatians 4:1; Hebrews 9:16; Galatians 3:24

2 For example, a married woman is bound by law to her husband while he lives; but if her husband dies, she is released from that law.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 7:39; 1 Corinthians 7:10; Genesis 2:24

3 So if she marries another man while her husband is alive, she is called an adulteress. But if her husband dies, she is free from that law and is not an adulteress if she marries another man.

Cross References: Matthew 5:32; Mark 10:11; Matthew 19:9

4 In the same way, my brothers and sisters, you also died to the law through the body of Christ, so that you might belong to another—to Him who was raised from the dead—in order that we might bear fruit for God.

Cross References: Galatians 2:19; John 15:4; Galatians 5:22

5 For when we lived in the flesh, sinful passions, aroused by the law, worked in our bodies to produce fruit for death.

Cross References: Galatians 5:19; Galatians 5:24; 1 Corinthians 15:56

6 But now we have been released from the law, having died to that which once held us, so that we may serve in the new way of the Spirit and not in the old way of the written code.

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 3:6; Galatians 5:18; Galatians 3:25

The Law Reveals Sin

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? Absolutely not! On the contrary, I would not have known what sin was except through the law. For I would not have known what coveting really was if the law had not said, You shall not covet.

Cross References: Exodus 20:17; 1 John 3:4; Galatians 3:19

8 But sin, seizing the opportunity through the commandment, produced in me every kind of covetous desire. For apart from the law, sin was dead.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 15:56; Genesis 3:6; James 1:14

9 Once I was alive apart from the law, but when the commandment came, sin sprang to life and I died.

Cross References: Genesis 2:17; 1 Corinthians 15:56; Ephesians 2:1

10 I found that the very commandment that was intended to bring life actually brought death.

Cross References: Leviticus 18:5; Galatians 3:12; Deuteronomy 30:19

11 For sin, seizing the opportunity through the commandment, deceived me, and through it put me to death.

Cross References: Genesis 3:13; 2 Corinthians 11:3; Genesis 3:6

12 So then, the law is holy, and the commandment is holy, righteous, and good.

Cross References: Psalms 19:8; 1 Timothy 1:8; Psalms 119:142

The Struggle Within

13 Did that which is good, then, become death to me? Certainly not! But in order that sin might be recognized as sin, it used what is good to bring about my death, so that through the commandment sin might become utterly sinful.

Cross References: 1 John 1:8; 1 Corinthians 15:56; Genesis 2:17

14 We know that the law is spiritual; but I am unspiritual, sold as a slave to sin.

Cross References: Psalms 51:5; John 8:34; 1 Kings 21:25

15 I don't really understand myself, for I want to do what is right, but I don't do it. Instead, I do what I hate.

Cross References: Galatians 5:17; James 1:14; Matthew 26:41

16 And if I do what I don't want to do, I agree that the law is good.

Cross References: Psalms 119:97; 1 Timothy 1:8; James 4:17

17 So it is no longer I myself who do it, but sin living in me.

Cross References: Galatians 5:17; James 1:14; Genesis 4:7

18 I know that nothing good lives in me, that is, in my sinful nature. I want to do what is right, but I cannot carry it out.

Cross References: Jeremiah 17:9; Genesis 6:5; Galatians 5:17

19 For the good that I want to do, I do not do; but the evil I don't want to do—this I keep on doing.

Cross References: Galatians 5:17; James 4:17; Ecclesiastes 7:20

20 Now if I do what I don't want to do, it is no longer I who do it, but sin living in me that does it.

Cross References: Genesis 4:7; 1 John 1:8; Jeremiah 17:9

The War Inside

21 So I find this law at work: although I want to do good, evil is right there with me.

Cross References: Psalms 51:5; Ecclesiastes 7:20; Galatians 5:17

22 For in my inner being I delight in God's law.

Cross References: Psalms 1:2; Psalms 119:16; Psalms 119:35

23 But I see another law at work in me, waging war against the law of my mind and making me a prisoner of the law of sin within me.

Cross References: Galatians 5:17; James 4:1; 1 Peter 2:11

24 What a wretched man I am! Who will rescue me from this body of death?

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 1:10; Psalms 34:19; Colossians 1:13

25 Thanks be to God, who delivers me through Jesus Christ our Lord!

So then, in my mind I serve the law of God, but in my sinful flesh I am a slave to the law of sin.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 15:57; Colossians 1:13; Galatians 5:17

Key Lessons from Romans 7

- The law exposes sin. The commandments show us God’s standard and reveal our failure.
- The law itself is holy. Sin—not the law—is the true enemy, twisting what is good into death.
- Believers are freed from the law’s penalty. In Christ, we belong to Him, not to the law.
- The inner struggle is real. Even saved people wrestle with sinful desires.
- Christ is our deliverer. Victory over sin’s power comes through Jesus alone.

Romans 8 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Life in the Spirit, No Condemnation in Christ”

No Condemnation in Christ

1 So now there is no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus, who do not live according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.

Cross References: John 5:24; John 3:18; Colossians 2:14

2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set me free from the law of sin and death.

Cross References: John 8:36; Galatians 5:1; 2 Corinthians 3:17

3 What the law could not do—because it was weakened by the flesh—God did by sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh to be a sacrifice for sin. In Him, God condemned sin in the flesh,

Cross References: Galatians 4:4; 2 Corinthians 5:21; Hebrews 2:17

4 so that the righteous requirement of the law might be fully met in us, who live not by the flesh but by the Spirit.

Cross References: Galatians 5:16; Galatians 5:25; Jeremiah 31:33

Living by the Spirit, Not the Flesh

5 Those who live according to the flesh think about fleshly things, but those who live according to the Spirit think about the things of the Spirit.

Cross References: Galatians 5:16; Colossians 3:2; Galatians 6:8

6 To be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.

Cross References: Galatians 6:8; Colossians 3:2; Isaiah 26:3

7 For the carnal mind is hostile to God. It does not submit to God's law, nor can it.

Cross References: James 4:4; 1 Corinthians 2:14; Colossians 1:21

8 So those who live in the flesh cannot please God.

Cross References: Hebrews 11:6; 1 Corinthians 2:14; Galatians 5:17

9 But you are not in the flesh; you are in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God lives in you. If anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, they do not belong to Him.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 3:16; 1 Corinthians 6:19; Jude 1:19

10 But if Christ is in you, your body is dead because of sin, yet your spirit is alive because of righteousness.

Cross References: Galatians 2:20; Colossians 1:27; 2 Corinthians 4:10

11 And if the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead lives in you, He who raised Christ will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit who dwells in you.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 6:14; 2 Corinthians 4:14; Ephesians 1:20

Children and Heirs of God

12 So then, brothers and sisters, we are not debtors to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

Cross References: Galatians 5:16; Galatians 6:8; 1 Peter 2:11

13 For if you live after the flesh, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live.

Cross References: Galatians 6:8; Colossians 3:5; Galatians 5:24

14 For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God.

Cross References: Galatians 4:5; 1 John 3:1; Galatians 5:18

15 You did not receive a spirit of bondage again to fear, but the Spirit of adoption, by which we cry, "Abba, Father!"

Cross References: Exodus 4:22; Hosea 11:1; Galatians 4:6

16 The Spirit Himself testifies with our spirit that we are God's children.

Cross References: 1 John 5:10; 2 Corinthians 1:22; Ephesians 1:13

17 And if children, then heirs—heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ—if indeed we share in His sufferings, that we may also share in His glory.

Cross References: Galatians 4:7; Galatians 3:29; 2 Timothy 2:12

Present Suffering, Future Glory

18 I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us.

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 4:17; 1 Peter 4:13; 2 Corinthians 4:18

19 Creation itself waits eagerly for the revealing of the children of God.

Cross References: Isaiah 11:9; Colossians 3:4; 1 John 3:2

20 For creation was subjected to frustration, not by its own choice, but by the will of the One who subjected it, in hope

21 that creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and brought into the glorious freedom of the children of God.

Cross References: Isaiah 65:17; 2 Peter 3:13; Revelation 21:1

22 We know that all creation has been groaning together in the pains of childbirth until now.

Cross References: Jeremiah 12:4; Isaiah 24:4; Matthew 24:8

23 And not only creation, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for our adoption as children—the redemption of our bodies.

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 5:2; Ephesians 1:14; 2 Corinthians 1:22

24 For in this hope we were saved. But hope that is seen is not hope at all; for who hopes for what they already see?

Cross References: Hebrews 11:1; 2 Corinthians 5:7; Titus 3:7

25 But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it patiently.

Cross References: Galatians 5:5; Hebrews 11:1; Psalms 27:14

The Spirit Helps Us in Prayer

26 Likewise, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. For we do not know how to pray as we should, but the Spirit Himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words.

Cross References: Zechariah 12:10; Ephesians 6:18; Jude 1:20

27 And He who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for God's people according to the will of God.

God's Purpose and God's Love

33 Who will bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies.

Cross References: Isaiah 50:8; Zechariah 3:1; Colossians 1:22

2 I have great sorrow and unceasing pain in my heart.

Cross References: Exodus 32:32; Romans 10:1; Philippians 3:18

4 They are Israelites, to whom belong the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the temple service, and the promises.

5 Theirs are the patriarchs, and from them, according to the flesh, came Christ, who is God over all, blessed forever. Amen.

9 For this was the promise: "At the appointed time I will return, and Sarah will have a son."

Cross References: Genesis 18:10; Genesis 18:14; Genesis 17:19

10 And not only this, but also when Rebekah had conceived twins by one man, our father Isaac—

Cross References: Genesis 25:21; Genesis 25:24; Genesis 25:25

11 before the twins were born or had done anything good or bad—God's purpose in election stood: not by works, but by Him who calls.

Cross References: Genesis 25:23; 2 Timothy 1:9; Ephesians 1:11

12 It was said, "The older will serve the younger."

Cross References: Genesis 25:23; Genesis 27:29; Malachi 1:2

13 Just as it is written: "Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated."

Cross References: Malachi 1:2; Malachi 1:3; Genesis 25:23

God's Right to Show Mercy

14 What shall we say then? Is God unjust? Absolutely not!

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:4; Job 34:10; Psalm 92:15

15 For God said to Moses, "I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion."

Cross References: Exodus 33:19; Exodus 34:6; Psalm 103:8

16 So then it does not depend on human desire or effort, but on God who shows mercy.

Cross References: Titus 3:5; Ephesians 2:8; John 1:13

17 For the Scripture says to Pharaoh: "I raised you up for this very purpose, that I might display My power in you, and that My name might be proclaimed in all the earth."

Cross References: Exodus 9:16; Exodus 9:15; Exodus 14:17

18 Therefore God has mercy on whom He wants to have mercy, and He hardens whom He wants to harden.

Cross References: Exodus 4:21; Exodus 7:3; Exodus 9:12

The Potter and the Clay

19 One of you will say to me, “Then why does God still blame us? For who can resist His will?”

Cross References: Job 9:12; Isaiah 45:9; Daniel 4:35

20 But who are you, O man, to talk back to God? Shall what is formed say to the one who formed it, “Why did you make me like this?”

Cross References: Isaiah 45:9; Isaiah 29:16; Job 40:2

21 Does not the potter have the right to make out of the same lump of clay one vessel for honor and another for dishonor?

Cross References: Isaiah 64:8; Jeremiah 18:6; 2 Timothy 2:20

22 What if God, wanting to show His wrath and make His power known, endured with great patience vessels of wrath prepared for destruction?

Cross References: Proverbs 16:4; 1 Peter 2:8; 2 Peter 3:9

23 And what if He did this to make the riches of His glory known to the vessels of mercy, whom He prepared beforehand for glory—

Cross References: Ephesians 1:18; Ephesians 2:7; Colossians 1:27

24 including us, whom He also called, not only from the Jews but also from the Gentiles?

Cross References: Romans 3:29; Ephesians 2:14; Acts 15:14

God’s Call to the Gentiles and a Remnant of Israel

25 As He says in Hosea:

“I will call those who were not My people, ‘My people,’ and her who was not beloved, ‘Beloved.’”

Cross References: Hosea 2:23; Hosea 1:10; 1 Peter 2:10

26 And, “In the very place where it was said to them, ‘You are not My people,’ there they will be called ‘children of the living God.’”

Cross References: Hosea 1:10; Hosea 2:1; 1 Peter 2:10

27 Isaiah cries out concerning Israel: “Though the number of the children of Israel be like the sand of the sea, only a remnant will be saved.

Cross References: Isaiah 10:22; Isaiah 10:23; Hosea 1:10

28 For the Lord will carry out His sentence on earth thoroughly and decisively.”

Cross References: Isaiah 10:23; Isaiah 28:22; Daniel 9:27

29 As Isaiah said earlier:

“If the Lord Almighty had not left us descendants,
we would have become like Sodom,
we would have been made like Gomorrah.”

Cross References: Isaiah 1:9; Genesis 19:24; Lamentations 3:22

Israel's Stumbling and Gentile Faith

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, who did not pursue righteousness, have obtained it—a righteousness that comes by faith.

Cross References: Romans 4:5; Philippians 3:9; Romans 1:17

31 But Israel, pursuing a law of righteousness, has not attained it.

Cross References: Romans 10:2; Romans 10:3; Galatians 5:4

32 Why not? Because they pursued it not by faith but as if it were by works. They stumbled over the stumbling stone,

Cross References: Isaiah 8:14; 1 Peter 2:8; Romans 10:3

33 as it is written:

“See, I lay in Zion a stone that causes people to stumble and a rock that makes them fall, and the one who believes in Him will never be put to shame.”

Cross References: Isaiah 28:16; Isaiah 8:14; 1 Peter 2:6

Key Lessons from Romans 9

- Paul's sorrow for Israel. Even with their privileges, many of his people rejected Christ.
- True Israel is spiritual. Not all descendants of Abraham are children of the promise.
- God's mercy is sovereign. Salvation is not earned by effort but flows from God's mercy.
- The potter and the clay. God has the right to shape lives according to His purpose.
- Gentiles called, Israel partially hardened. A remnant of Israel is saved, but Gentiles who believe are also included.
- Faith is the key. Righteousness is received by faith, not by works of the law.
- Christ is the cornerstone. For believers, He is life; for unbelievers, a stumbling stone.

“The Word of Faith and Israel's Stubbornness”

Paul's Prayer for Israel

1 Brothers and sisters, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is that they may be saved.

Cross References: Romans 9:3; 1 Timothy 2:4; Acts 26:29

2 I can testify about them that they have a zeal for God, but it is not based on true knowledge.

Cross References: Acts 21:20; Galatians 1:14; Philippians 3:6

3 For being ignorant of God's righteousness, and trying to establish their own righteousness, they did not submit to the righteousness of God.

Cross References: Philippians 3:9; Romans 9:31; Romans 1:17

4 For Christ is the fulfillment of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes.

Cross References: Matthew 5:17; Galatians 3:24; Galatians 3:13

Righteousness by Faith, Not by the Law

5 Moses writes about the righteousness that comes from the law: “The person who does these things will live by them.”

Cross References: Leviticus 18:5; Galatians 3:12; Nehemiah 9:29

6 But the righteousness that comes by faith says: “Do not say in your heart, ‘Who will ascend into heaven?’ (that is, to bring Christ down)

Cross References: Deuteronomy 30:12; Deuteronomy 8:17; Proverbs 30:4

7 or, ‘Who will descend into the deep?’ (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead).”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 30:13; Psalm 107:26; Ephesians 4:9

8 But what does it say? “The word is near you; it is in your mouth and in your heart”—that is, the word of faith we proclaim.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 30:14; Colossians 3:16; Hebrews 4:12

9 If you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 12:3; Philippians 2:11; Acts 16:31

10 For with the heart one believes and is made right with God, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved.

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 4:13; Matthew 10:32; Acts 8:37

11 As Scripture says: “Whoever believes in Him will never be put to shame.”

Cross References: Isaiah 28:16; Romans 9:33; 1 Peter 2:6

Salvation Is for All Who Call on the Lord

12 There is no difference between Jew and Greek—the same Lord is Lord of all, and richly blesses all who call on Him.

Cross References: Romans 3:22; Galatians 3:28; Acts 10:34

13 For, “Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.”

Cross References: Joel 2:32; Acts 2:21; Acts 22:16

The Need for Preachers

14 How then can they call on the One they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the One of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them?

Cross References: Isaiah 52:6; Ephesians 4:21; Acts 8:31

15 And how can anyone preach unless they are sent? As it is written:

“How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news of peace, who bring glad tidings of good things!”

Cross References: Isaiah 52:7; Nahum 1:15; Ephesians 6:15

Israel’s Rejection of the Gospel

16 But not all the people of Israel accepted the gospel. For Isaiah says, “Lord, who has believed our message?”

Cross References: Isaiah 53:1; John 12:38; John 1:11

17 So then, faith comes by hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ.

Cross References: Galatians 3:2; John 17:20; 1 Thessalonians 2:13

18 But I ask, did they not hear? Of course they did:

“Their voice has gone out into all the earth, their words to the ends of the world.”

Cross References: Psalm 19:4; Colossians 1:6; Colossians 1:23

19 Again I ask, did Israel not understand? First Moses said:

“I will make you jealous by those who are not a nation;
I will make you angry by a foolish nation.”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:21; Romans 11:11; Romans 11:14

20 And Isaiah boldly says:

“I was found by those who did not seek Me;
I revealed Myself to those who did not ask for Me.”

Cross References: Isaiah 65:1; Ephesians 2:13; Titus 3:3

21 But concerning Israel, God says:

“All day long I have held out My hands to a disobedient and stubborn people.”

Cross References: Isaiah 65:2; Isaiah 50:2; Matthew 23:37

Key Lessons from Romans 10

- Zeal without knowledge is dangerous. Israel had passion for God but rejected His way of righteousness in Christ.
- Christ is the fulfillment of the law. Salvation is not earned by works but given through faith in Him.
- Confession and belief bring salvation. We must believe in our hearts and confess with our mouths that Jesus is Lord.

- The gospel is for everyone. Jew and Gentile alike are saved by calling on the Lord.
- Preachers are necessary. Faith comes by hearing the word of Christ, and God sends His messengers to proclaim it.
- Israel's rejection was foretold. Though God stretched out His hands to them, many remained disobedient, while Gentiles received the message.

“God’s Plan for Israel and the Gentiles”

God Has Not Rejected Israel

1 I ask then: Has God rejected His people? Absolutely not! For I myself am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, from the tribe of Benjamin.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 12:22; Philippians 3:5; Psalm 94:14

2 God has not rejected His people whom He foreknew. Don’t you remember what Scripture says about Elijah, how he prayed to God against Israel?

Cross References: Psalm 94:14; 1 Kings 19:10; 1 Kings 19:14

3 “Lord, they have killed Your prophets and torn down Your altars. I am the only one left, and they are trying to kill me.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 19:10; 1 Kings 19:14; 1 Kings 19:4

4 But God answered him: “I have kept for Myself seven thousand who have not bowed the knee to Baal.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 19:18; Judges 2:11; 1 Kings 18:21

5 In the same way, at this present time there is a remnant chosen by grace.

Cross References: Isaiah 1:9; Micah 5:7; Romans 9:6

6 And if by grace, then it cannot be by works; otherwise grace would not be grace. But if by works, then it cannot be by grace.

Cross References: Ephesians 2:8; Ephesians 2:9; Galatians 5:4

Israel’s Stumbling and the Gentiles’ Blessing

7 What then? Israel did not obtain what it sought, but the chosen ones obtained it, and the rest were hardened.

Cross References: Romans 9:31; Romans 9:18; Romans 11:25

8 As it is written: “God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that could not see and ears that could not hear, to this very day.”

Cross References: Isaiah 29:10; Deuteronomy 29:4; Isaiah 6:10

9 And David said: “Let their table become a snare and a trap, a stumbling block and a punishment for them.

Cross References: Psalm 69:22; Psalm 69:23; Psalm 35:8

10 Let their eyes be darkened so they cannot see, and bend their backs forever.”

Cross References: Psalm 69:23; Psalm 69:24; Isaiah 42:19

11 So I ask: Did they stumble so as to fall beyond recovery? Not at all! Rather, because of their fall, salvation has come to the Gentiles, to make Israel jealous.

Cross References: Acts 13:46; Acts 28:28; Deuteronomy 32:21

12 Now if their fall means riches for the world, and their failure means riches for the Gentiles, how much greater will their fullness be!

Cross References: Romans 11:15; Ephesians 3:8; Isaiah 60:5

The Olive Tree – Gentiles Grafted In

13 I am speaking to you Gentiles. Since I am the apostle to the Gentiles, I make much of my ministry,

Cross References: Acts 9:15; Galatians 2:8; Acts 22:21

14 in the hope that I may stir up my own people to envy and save some of them.

Cross References: Romans 10:19; 1 Corinthians 9:22; Deuteronomy 32:21

15 For if their rejection brought reconciliation to the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead?

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 5:19; Ezekiel 37:12; John 5:25

16 If the first piece of dough is holy, so is the whole batch; if the root is holy, so are the branches.

Cross References: Numbers 15:20; Numbers 15:21; Jeremiah 11:16

17 But if some branches were broken off, and you, a wild olive shoot, were grafted in among the others and now share in the rich root of the olive tree,

Cross References: Jeremiah 11:16; Ephesians 2:12; Ephesians 2:13

18 do not boast over those branches. If you do, remember: you do not support the root, but the root supports you.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 4:7; Ephesians 2:20; John 4:22

19 You will say, “Branches were broken off so that I could be grafted in.”

Cross References: Romans 11:17; Romans 11:20; Romans 11:11

20 That’s true. But they were broken off because of unbelief, and you stand by faith. Do not be proud, but be afraid.

Cross References: Hebrews 4:11; 1 Corinthians 10:12; Philippians 2:12

21 For if God did not spare the natural branches, He will not spare you either.

Cross References: Jeremiah 11:17; 1 Corinthians 10:12; John 15:2

22 Consider then the kindness and severity of God: severity to those who fell, but kindness to you—if you continue in His kindness. Otherwise, you also will be cut off.

Cross References: John 15:2; Hebrews 3:14; Colossians 1:23

23 And if they do not remain in unbelief, they will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again.

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 3:16; Zechariah 12:10; Romans 11:11

24 For if you were cut from a wild olive tree and grafted against nature into a cultivated one, how much more will these, the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree!

Cross References: Jeremiah 11:16; Isaiah 27:6; Zechariah 8:8

The Mystery of Israel's Salvation

25 Brothers and sisters, I don't want you to be ignorant of this mystery, so that you won't be conceited: Israel has experienced a partial hardening until the full number of Gentiles has come in.

Cross References: Luke 21:24; Ephesians 3:3; 2 Corinthians 3:14

26 And in this way all Israel will be saved. As it is written:

“The Deliverer will come from Zion;

He will turn godlessness away from Jacob.

Cross References: Isaiah 59:20; Isaiah 27:9; Psalm 14:7

27 And this is My covenant with them
when I take away their sins.”

Cross References: Jeremiah 31:33; Jeremiah 31:34; Isaiah 59:21

28 As far as the gospel is concerned, they are enemies for your sake; but as far as election is concerned, they are loved on account of the patriarchs.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 7:8; Deuteronomy 9:5; Deuteronomy 4:37

29 For God's gifts and His calling are irrevocable.

Cross References: Numbers 23:19; 2 Timothy 2:13; 1 Samuel 15:29

30 Just as you who were once disobedient to God have now received mercy through their disobedience,

Cross References: Ephesians 2:12; Titus 3:3; Ephesians 2:13

31 so they too have now become disobedient in order that they too may now receive mercy as a result of God's mercy to you.

Cross References: 1 Peter 2:10; Romans 11:14; Hosea 2:23

32 For God has bound everyone over to disobedience so that He may have mercy on them all.

Cross References: Galatians 3:22; 1 Timothy 2:4; Romans 3:23

Doxology – God’s Infinite Wisdom

33 Oh, the depth of the riches of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments, and His ways beyond finding out!

Cross References: Job 11:7; Isaiah 55:8; Job 9:10

34 For “Who has known the mind of the Lord? Or who has been His counselor?”

Cross References: Isaiah 40:13; 1 Corinthians 2:16; Jeremiah 23:18

35 Or “Who has ever given to God, that God should repay them?”

Cross References: Job 41:11; Job 35:7; 1 Chronicles 29:14

36 For from Him and through Him and to Him are all things. To Him be the glory forever! Amen.

“Living Sacrifices and the Christian Life”

Present Your Bodies to God

1 Brothers and sisters, I urge you, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice— holy and pleasing to God. This is your true and reasonable worship.

Cross References: Hebrews 13:15; 1 Peter 2:5; Philippians 4:18

2 Do not be shaped by this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God’s will is—His good, pleasing, and perfect will.

Cross References: Philippians 2:3; 1 Corinthians 12:11; Ephesians 4:7

4 For just as we have many parts in one body, and not all parts have the same function,

Romans 13 – Crawford Standard Bible

"Living Under Authority and in the Light of Christ"

Respecting Governing Authorities

1 Every person must submit to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been placed there by Him.

Cross References: Titus 3:1; 1 Peter 2:13; 1 Timothy 2:2

2 Therefore, whoever resists authority is opposing what God has established, and those who resist will bring judgment on themselves.

Cross References: 1 Peter 2:14; Proverbs 8:15; Titus 3:1

3 For rulers are not a terror to those who do good, but to those who do evil. Do you want to be free from fear of authority? Then do what is right, and you will receive approval.

Cross References: 1 Peter 2:14; 1 Peter 3:13; Proverbs 21:1

4 For the authority is God's servant for your good. But if you do wrong, be afraid, for they do not bear the sword in vain. They are God's servants, agents of wrath to bring punishment on the wrongdoer.

Cross References: 1 Peter 2:14; Genesis 9:6; John 19:11

5 Therefore, you must be subject, not only because of possible punishment but also because of conscience.

Cross References: 1 Peter 2:19; Ecclesiastes 8:2; Titus 3:1

Responsibilities to Society

6 This is also why you pay taxes, for the authorities are God's servants, who give their full time to governing.

Cross References: Matthew 22:21; Mark 12:17; Matthew 17:27

7 Give everyone what you owe them: if taxes, then pay taxes; if revenue, then revenue; if respect, then respect; if honor, then honor.

Cross References: Matthew 22:21; Mark 12:17; Luke 20:25

Love Fulfills the Law

8 Owe no one anything, except to love one another. For whoever loves others has fulfilled the law.

Cross References: Galatians 5:14; James 2:8; John 13:34

9 For the commandments—"Do not commit adultery," "Do not murder," "Do not steal," "Do not bear false witness," "Do not covet"—and whatever other command there may be, are summed up in this one command: "Love your neighbor as yourself."

Cross References: Leviticus 19:18; Exodus 20:13; Matthew 22:39

10 Love does no harm to a neighbor. Therefore, love is the fulfillment of the law.

Cross References: Galatians 5:14; 1 Corinthians 13:4; James 2:8

Living in the Light

11 And do this, understanding the present time: The hour has come for you to wake up from your sleep, because our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed.

Cross References: Ephesians 5:14; 1 Thessalonians 5:6; 1 Peter 4:7

12 The night is almost over; the day is nearly here. So let us put aside the works of darkness and put on the armor of light.

Cross References: Ephesians 5:11; 1 Thessalonians 5:8; Ephesians 6:13

13 Let us behave properly, as in the daytime—not in partying and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and lust, not in quarreling and jealousy.

Cross References: Galatians 5:19; 1 Peter 4:3; Ephesians 5:18

14 Instead, clothe yourselves with the Lord Jesus Christ, and do not plan to satisfy the desires of the flesh.

Cross References: Galatians 3:27; Ephesians 4:24; Colossians 3:12

Key Lessons from Romans 13

- Authority is from God. To resist rightful authority is to resist God's order.
- Christians live responsibly. Paying taxes, showing respect, and honoring leaders reflect obedience to God.
- Love is the true debt. All the commandments are fulfilled when we love others as ourselves.
- Live in the light. Since Christ's return is nearer every day, we must cast off sin and live holy lives.
- Clothe yourself with Christ. Following Jesus guards us against sinful desires and keeps us walking in righteousness.

“Living in Unity and Walking in Love”

Receiving the Weak in Faith

1 Accept the one whose faith is weak, but not for the purpose of arguing over opinions.

Cross References: Romans 15:1; 1 Corinthians 8:9; 1 Corinthians 8:11

2 One person believes he may eat all things, while another, whose faith is weak, eats only vegetables.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 8:8; 1 Corinthians 10:25; Daniel 1:12

Cross References: Colossians 2:16; 1 Corinthians 10:25; Matthew 7:1

The Lord is the Judge

4 Who are you to judge someone else's servant? To his own master he stands or falls. And he will stand, for the Lord is able to make him stand.

Cross References: James 4:12; Matthew 7:1; 1 Corinthians 4:4

5 One person considers one day more sacred than another, while another considers every day alike. Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind.

Living by Faith

22 Do you have faith? Keep it between yourself and God. Blessed is the one who does not condemn himself by what he approves.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 4:4; Galatians 6:4; 1 John 3:21

23 But the one who doubts is condemned if he eats, because he is not eating from faith; and everything that does not come from faith is sin.

Key Lessons from Romans 14

- Unity in diversity. Believers may hold different convictions about food and days, but all must honor the Lord.
- The Lord is Judge. We must not judge one another, for each will stand before Christ.
- Love limits liberty. If our freedom causes another to stumble, we must choose love over liberty.

- The Kingdom is spiritual. It is about righteousness, peace, and joy—not external rules about food and drink.
- Faith must guide actions. Anything not done from faith is sin.

Introduction to the Book of 1 Corinthians

“Let love be your highest goal! But you should also desire the special abilities the Spirit gives—especially the ability to prophesy.” – 1 Corinthians 14:1

Title and Meaning

The book of 1 Corinthians is a letter written by the apostle Paul to the church in Corinth. Its title reflects its recipients—the believers in the Greek city of Corinth, a wealthy and cosmopolitan hub known for commerce, culture, and immorality. Paul addresses the struggles of a young church planted in the midst of a morally corrupt society. This letter provides correction, encouragement, and instruction for living as God’s holy people in a sinful world.

Author and Date

The apostle Paul is the author of 1 Corinthians (1 Corinthians 1:1). He wrote it around AD 55, during his extended stay in Ephesus on his third missionary journey (Acts 19:1, Acts 20:31). Paul had founded the church in Corinth during his second missionary journey (Acts 18:1–17), and he writes now to address issues that had been reported to him and questions the church had asked.

Purpose of 1 Corinthians

Paul’s main goal was to confront problems and call the believers back to unity and holiness. His purposes include:

- To correct divisions in the church caused by pride and allegiance to different leaders.
- To address moral failures and call believers to purity.
- To answer questions about marriage, food offered to idols, worship, and spiritual gifts.
- To defend the truth of the resurrection of Christ and its central role in Christian faith.
- To remind the Corinthians that love must be the foundation of all Christian living.

Structure of 1 Corinthians

The letter moves from problems to solutions, with practical teaching throughout: 1. Divisions in the Church (Chs. 1–4) Paul urges unity and reminds them that Christ alone is the foundation.

- 2. Discipline and Moral Purity (Chs. 5–7) Instructions on handling sin, lawsuits, sexual immorality, and marriage.
- 3. Christian Liberty and Responsibility (Chs. 8–10) Guidance on food offered to idols and living for God’s glory.
- 4. Worship and Order in the Church (Chs. 11–14) Teaching on the Lord’s Supper, head coverings, spiritual gifts, and love as the highest way.
- 5. The Resurrection of Christ (Ch. 15) A powerful defense of the resurrection as the core of the gospel and the hope of believers.
- 6. Final Instructions and Closing (Ch. 16) Practical matters and encouragement for steadfast faith.

Major Themes

- Unity in Christ – Believers are one body, called to set aside pride and division.

- Holiness – God’s people must reflect His purity, even in a corrupt culture.
- Love as the Greatest Gift – Love surpasses all knowledge, gifts, and abilities.
- Resurrection Hope – The resurrection of Jesus guarantees our future resurrection.
- Spiritual Gifts – The Spirit equips believers for service, but love governs their use.

Why 1 Corinthians Matters Today

1 Corinthians speaks directly to the modern church. In a world still filled with division, moral confusion, and cultural pressure, Paul’s letter calls believers to live with holiness, humility, and love. It reminds us that our faith is not just intellectual—it is practical, shaping how we handle relationships, worship, morality, and hope for eternity.

Key Verse

“Let love be your highest goal! But you should also desire the special abilities the Spirit gives—especially the ability to prophesy.” – 1 Corinthians 14:1 This verse summarizes the heartbeat of 1 Corinthians: love is the foundation of the Christian life, guiding all actions and expressions of faith.

Key Lessons from 1 Corinthians 1

- Christ unites the church. Divisions and factions weaken the witness of believers; unity must be rooted in Christ, not human leaders.
- The cross is the center. The gospel is not about eloquence or human wisdom but about the saving power of Christ crucified.
- God overturns worldly values. He chooses the lowly, weak, and despised to display His glory and confound the proud.
- Boasting belongs to God alone. All wisdom, righteousness, and redemption are found in Christ, leaving no room for human pride.

God’s Hidden Wisdom

6 Yet we do speak a wisdom among the mature, but not the wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are coming to nothing.

Cross References: Philippians 3:15; Hebrews 5:14; 1 Corinthians 3:1

7 No, we declare God’s wisdom, a mystery that has been hidden and that God destined for our glory before time began.

Cross References: Ephesians 3:9; Colossians 1:26; Romans 16:25

8 None of the rulers of this age understood it, for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

The Spirit Reveals All Things

10 But God has revealed them to us by his Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, even the deep things of God.

Cross References: Romans 8:27; John 16:13; Daniel 2:22

11 For who knows a person’s thoughts except their own spirit within them? In the same way no one knows the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God.

Cross References: 1 John 2:20; 1 Corinthians 6:3; Philippians 1:9

16 For, “Who has known the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him?” But we have the mind of Christ.

Cross References: Isaiah 40:13; Romans 11:34; Philippians 2:5

Key Lessons from 1 Corinthians 2

- Faith rests in God’s power, not human wisdom. Paul reminds believers that true preaching is Spirit-filled, not based on persuasive rhetoric.
- God’s wisdom is hidden from the world. Spiritual truth cannot be discovered by intellect alone but is revealed through the Spirit.
- The Spirit grants discernment. Only those who have the Spirit of God can understand the deep things of God, while the natural mind sees them as foolish.
- We share in the mind of Christ. Believers are given the ability to see life through Christ’s wisdom, walking in truth and spiritual understanding.

“Christ the Only Foundation”

Spiritual Immaturity

1 And I, brothers and sisters, could not address you as people who live by the Spirit but as people who are worldly—mere infants in Christ.

Cross References: Hebrews 5:13; 1 Peter 2:2; Ephesians 4:14

2 I gave you milk, not solid food, for you were not yet ready for it. Indeed, you are still not ready.

Cross References: Hebrews 5:12; 1 Peter 2:2; Hebrews 5:14

3 For you are still worldly. Since there is jealousy and quarreling among you, are you not worldly? Are you not acting like mere humans?

Cross References: Galatians 5:20; James 3:16; Romans 13:13

4 For when one says, “I follow Paul,” and another, “I follow Apollos,” are you not being worldly?

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 1:12; 1 Corinthians 3:21; Titus 3:9

God Gives the Increase

5 What, after all, is Apollos? And what is Paul? Only servants through whom you came to believe—as the Lord assigned to each his task.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 4:1; 2 Corinthians 3:6; Acts 18:27

6 I planted the seed, Apollos watered it, but God made it grow.

Cross References: Isaiah 55:10; John 4:37; Acts 18:24

7 So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God, who makes things grow.

Cross References: Zechariah 4:6; John 15:5; Psalm 127:1

8 The one who plants and the one who waters have one purpose, and they will each be rewarded according to their own labor.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 15:58; Revelation 22:12; Matthew 16:27

9 For we are co-workers in God's service; you are God's field, God's building.

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 6:1; Ephesians 2:20; 1 Peter 2:5

Christ the Foundation

10 By the grace God has given me, I laid a foundation as a wise builder, and someone else is building on it. But each one should build with care.

Cross References: Romans 15:20; Matthew 7:24; Luke 6:48

11 For no one can lay any foundation other than the one already laid, which is Jesus Christ.

Cross References: Isaiah 28:16; 1 Peter 2:6; Ephesians 2:20

12 If anyone builds on this foundation using gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay, or straw,

Cross References: Isaiah 54:11; Malachi 3:3; 2 Timothy 2:20

13 their work will be shown for what it is, because the Day will bring it to light. It will be revealed with fire, and the fire will test the quality of each person's work.

Cross References: Malachi 4:1; 2 Peter 3:10; 1 Peter 1:7

14 If what has been built survives, the builder will receive a reward.

Cross References: Matthew 25:21; 2 John 1:8; Revelation 22:12

15 If it is burned up, the builder will suffer loss but yet will be saved—even though only as one escaping through the flames.

God's Temple

16 Don't you know that you yourselves are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in your midst?

17 If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy that person; for God's temple is sacred, and you together are that temple.

Cross References: Jeremiah 7:14; Ezekiel 5:11; Revelation 11:18

True Wisdom Belongs to God

18 Do not deceive yourselves. If any of you think you are wise by the standards of this age, you should become "fools" so that you may become wise.

Cross References: Galatians 6:3; Proverbs 3:7; 1 Corinthians 1:20

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness in God's sight. As it is written: "He catches the wise in their craftiness."

20 And again, "The Lord knows that the thoughts of the wise are futile."

Belonging to Christ

21 So then, no more boasting about human leaders! All things are yours,

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 1:31; Jeremiah 9:24; Romans 8:32

22 whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or life or death or the present or the future—all are yours,

Cross References: Romans 8:38; Romans 14:8; Philippians 1:21

23 and you are of Christ, and Christ is of God.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 11:3; 1 Corinthians 15:28; Galatians 3:29

Key Lessons from 1 Corinthians 3

- Spiritual maturity matters. Jealousy and divisions are marks of immaturity; true growth comes by living in the Spirit.
- God gives the increase. Human leaders are servants, but only God produces lasting growth.
- Christ is the one foundation. Everything built apart from Him will not stand the test of eternity.
- We are God's temple. Believers are indwelt by the Holy Spirit, and God takes His temple seriously.
- True wisdom is God's wisdom. The wisdom of this world will fail, but the wisdom of God endures forever.
- We belong to Christ. All things are ours in Him, but ultimately, we are His possession, and He belongs to God.

Pride and Humility

20 For the kingdom of God is not a matter of talk but of power.

Cross References: Romans 14:17; 1 Thessalonians 1:5; Mark 9:1

21 What do you prefer? Shall I come to you with a rod of discipline, or shall I come in love and with a gentle spirit?

Cross References: Proverbs 13:24; 2 Corinthians 10:1; Galatians 6:1

Key Lessons from 1 Corinthians 4

- Faithfulness is required. A steward's value is not measured by human opinion but by God's judgment.
- Boasting is empty. Everything we have is received from God; pride has no place in the kingdom.
- True apostleship suffers. Paul describes the hardships and humiliations he endures for the sake of Christ.
- Spiritual fatherhood matters. Paul reminds the Corinthians that he birthed them in Christ and calls them to imitate his example.

- The kingdom is power, not just words. Empty talk is worthless unless it is backed by the transforming power of God.

- Faithfulness matters most. God calls His servants to be faithful stewards of His mysteries, not performers for human approval.
- Judge carefully. Final judgment belongs to the Lord, who sees the hidden motives of the heart.
- Boasting is foolish. Everything we have is received from God, so pride has no place in the Christian life.

“Discipline in the Church”

A Grave Sin in the Church

1 It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and of a kind not even tolerated among the Gentiles: a man has his father’s wife!

Cross References: Leviticus 18:8; Deuteronomy 22:30; Deuteronomy 27:20

2 And you are arrogant! Should you not rather have mourned, so that the one who has done this deed might be removed from among you?

Cross References: James 4:9; Ezra 9:3; 2 Corinthians 12:21

3 For I, though absent in body but present in spirit, have already pronounced judgment on the one who did this, just as if I were present.

Cross References: Colossians 2:5; 1 Corinthians 4:19; 1 Corinthians 4:21

4 When you are assembled in the name of our Lord Jesus, and my spirit is present, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,

Cross References: Matthew 18:20; Matthew 18:18; John 20:23

5 hand this man over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved on the day of the Lord Jesus.

Cross References: 1 Timothy 1:20; 2 Corinthians 2:6; 1 Peter 4:6

Purging Out the Old Leaven

6 Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump?

Cross References: Galatians 5:9; Matthew 16:6; Luke 12:1

7 Get rid of the old leaven, that you may be a new lump, since you truly are unleavened. For Christ, our Passover Lamb, has been sacrificed for us.

Cross References: Exodus 12:15; Exodus 13:7; John 1:29

8 Therefore, let us keep the feast, not with the old leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

Cross References: Exodus 12:8; Deuteronomy 16:3; 2 Corinthians 1:12

Separation from the Unrepentant

9 I wrote to you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people—

Cross References: 2 Thessalonians 3:14; Ephesians 5:11; Proverbs 1:15

10 not at all meaning the immoral people of this world, or the greedy, or swindlers, or idolaters; in that case you would need to leave the world.

Cross References: John 17:15; 1 John 5:19; Romans 12:2

11 But now I am writing to you not to associate with anyone who bears the name of “brother” if he is guilty of sexual immorality, or greed, or idolatry, or abuse, or drunkenness, or swindling. With such a person do not even eat.

Cross References: 2 Thessalonians 3:6; Matthew 18:17; Romans 16:17

12 For what business is it of mine to judge outsiders? Is it not those inside the church whom you are to judge?

Cross References: Matthew 18:17; 1 Peter 4:17; Romans 2:1

13 God will judge those outside. “Remove the wicked person from among you.”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 17:7; Deuteronomy 22:21; Deuteronomy 24:7

Key Lessons from 1 Corinthians 5

- Sin must not be tolerated in the church. The Corinthian church had grown arrogant instead of mourning over open sin.
- Church discipline is necessary. Paul calls for the guilty man to be removed, not for cruelty, but for the salvation of his soul.
- Sin spreads like leaven. One person’s unchecked rebellion can corrupt the whole church if not dealt with.
- Christ our Passover. Just as Israel purged leaven before Passover, Christians are to live in sincerity and truth because Jesus was sacrificed for us.

- Separation from professing believers who persist in sin. Paul distinguishes between unbelievers in the world (whom we must engage with) and unrepentant “brothers” (whom we must discipline).
- Judgment begins in the house of God. The church is responsible for holiness among its own members, while God judges those outside.

“Glorify God in Your Body”

Lawsuits Among Believers

1 How dare any of you, when you have a dispute with another, take it before the unrighteous and not before the saints?

Cross References: Matthew 5:40; Proverbs 25:9; Matthew 18:15

2 Do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is to be judged by you, are you not competent to judge trivial cases?

Cross References: Daniel 7:22; Revelation 20:4; Matthew 19:28

3 Do you not know that we will judge angels? How much more the matters of this life!

Cross References: 2 Peter 2:4; Jude 1:6; Revelation 20:10

4 If you have disputes about such matters, do you appoint as judges those who are of no account in the church?

Cross References: James 2:6; Deuteronomy 1:16; Exodus 18:21

5 I say this to your shame. Is there really no one among you wise enough to judge between his brothers?

Cross References: James 3:13; 1 Kings 3:9; Proverbs 20:3

6 But instead, one brother takes another to court—and this in front of unbelievers!

Cross References: Matthew 5:25; Proverbs 25:9; Luke 12:58

Wronging Your Own Brethren

7 The very fact that you have lawsuits among you means you have already been defeated. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be cheated?

Cross References: Matthew 5:39; Romans 12:19; 1 Peter 2:23

8 Instead, you yourselves do wrong and cheat—and you do this to your own brothers and sisters!

Cross References: James 5:4; Leviticus 19:13; 1 Thessalonians 4:6

The Warning Against Unrighteousness

9 Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor men who practice homosexuality,

Cross References: Galatians 5:19; Ephesians 5:5; Revelation 22:15

10 nor thieves, nor the greedy, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God.

Cross References: Galatians 5:21; Isaiah 5:11; Proverbs 23:21

11 And that is what some of you were. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

Glorifying God With the Body

12 “All things are lawful for me”—but not all things are beneficial. “All things are lawful for me”—but I will not be mastered by anything.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 10:23; John 8:34; Titus 3:3

13 “Food is meant for the stomach and the stomach for food”—but God will destroy both one and the other. The body is not meant for sexual immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body.

Cross References: Colossians 2:22; Romans 14:17; 1 Thessalonians 4:3

14 And God raised the Lord and will also raise us up by His power.

Cross References: Romans 8:11; 2 Corinthians 4:14; Romans 6:5

15 Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ and make them members of a prostitute? Never!

Cross References: Romans 12:5; Ephesians 5:30; 1 Corinthians 12:27

16 Do you not know that he who unites himself with a prostitute becomes one body with her? For it is said, “The two will become one flesh.”

17 But whoever is united with the Lord is one spirit with Him.

Cross References: John 17:21; Romans 8:9; Ephesians 4:4

18 Flee from sexual immorality. Every other sin a person commits is outside the body, but whoever sins sexually sins against their own body.

Cross References: Genesis 39:12; 2 Timothy 2:22; 1 Thessalonians 4:3

19 Do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God? You are not your own,

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 3:16; John 2:21; 2 Corinthians 6:16

20 for you were bought with a price. Therefore, glorify God with your body and in your spirit, which are God's.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 7:23; 1 Peter 1:18; Revelation 5:9

Key Lessons from 1 Corinthians 6

- Believers must not take disputes before unbelievers. The church should settle matters in wisdom and unity rather than airing grievances before the world.
- The church is called to holiness. Those who persist in unrepentant sin will not inherit God's kingdom.
- Transformation in Christ. The Corinthian believers were once bound in sin, but through Christ they were washed, sanctified, and justified.
- Freedom with responsibility. Not everything permissible is beneficial; true freedom means refusing to be enslaved by sin.
- The body belongs to Christ. Because believers are members of Christ, their bodies must not be joined to sin but kept pure for the Lord.
- The body is God's temple. The Holy Spirit dwells within believers, making them living temples for His glory.
- Bought with a price. Jesus' sacrifice demands that Christians glorify God in both body and spirit, living holy lives unto Him.

Principles of Marriage

1 Now concerning the matters you wrote about: It is good for a man not to marry.

2 But because of sexual immorality, each man should have his own wife, and each woman her own husband.

Cross References: Genesis 2:24; Hebrews 13:4; Proverbs 5:18

3 The husband should give to his wife her marital rights, and likewise the wife to her husband.

Cross References: Exodus 21:10; Ephesians 5:25; 1 Peter 3:7

4 The wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband does. In the same way, the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife does.

Cross References: Genesis 2:24; Ephesians 5:21; Malachi 2:14

5 Do not deprive one another, except by agreement for a limited time, so that you may devote yourselves to prayer. Then come together again, so that Satan may not tempt you because of your lack of self-control.

The Gift of Singleness and Marriage

6 I say this as a concession, not as a command.

Cross References: Romans 14:5; 2 Corinthians 8:8; Philemon 1:14

7 I wish that all were as I am. But each has his own gift from God; one has this gift, another has that.

Cross References: Matthew 19:11; Romans 12:6; 1 Peter 4:10

8 To the unmarried and the widows I say: it is good for them to remain unmarried, as I am.

9 But if they cannot exercise self-control, they should marry. For it is better to marry than to burn with passion.

Cross References: 1 Timothy 5:14; Proverbs 5:19; Genesis 2:18

Instruction to Married Believers

10 To the married I give this command (not I, but the Lord): A wife must not separate from her husband.

Cross References: Matthew 19:6; Mark 10:9; Malachi 2:16

11 But if she does, she must remain unmarried or else be reconciled to her husband. And a husband must not divorce his wife.

Cross References: Mark 10:11; Matthew 5:32; Malachi 2:16

Believers Married to Unbelievers

12 To the rest I say (I, not the Lord): If any brother has a wife who is not a believer, and she is willing to live with him, he must not divorce her.

Cross References: Ezra 10:2; Nehemiah 13:23; 2 Corinthians 6:14

Cross References: Malachi 2:15; Genesis 17:7; Romans 11:16

15 But if the unbeliever departs, let them do so. The brother or the sister is not bound in such cases. God has called us to live in peace.

16 For how do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife?

Cross References: 1 Peter 3:1; James 5:20; 1 Timothy 4:16

Live as You Are Called

17 Nevertheless, each one should live the life the Lord has assigned him and to which God has called him. This is the rule I lay down in all the churches.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 3:5; Ephesians 4:1; Romans 12:3

18 Was a man already circumcised when he was called? He should not become uncircumcised. Was a man uncircumcised when he was called? He should not be circumcised.

Cross References: Galatians 5:6; Acts 15:1; Galatians 6:15

19 Circumcision is nothing and uncircumcision is nothing. Keeping God's commands is what counts.

Cross References: Galatians 5:6; Galatians 6:15; John 14:15

20 Each one should remain in the situation in which he was when God called him.

Cross References: Ephesians 4:1; Philippians 4:11; 1 Timothy 6:6

21 Were you a slave when you were called? Do not let it trouble you—although if you can gain your freedom, do so.

Cross References: Ephesians 6:5; Philemon 1:16; Colossians 3:22

22 For the one who was a slave when called to faith in the Lord is the Lord's freedman; similarly, the one who was free when called is Christ's slave.

Cross References: John 8:36; Galatians 5:1; Romans 6:22

23 You were bought with a price; do not become slaves of men.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 6:20; 1 Peter 1:18; Galatians 5:1

Cross References: Philippians 4:11; 1 Timothy 6:8; 1 Timothy 6:6

Concerning Virgins and the Unmarried

25 Now about virgins: I have no command from the Lord, but I give a judgment as one who by the Lord's mercy is trustworthy.

Cross References: 1 Timothy 1:13; 1 Corinthians 4:2; 2 Corinthians 8:8

26 Because of the present crisis, I think that it is good for a man to remain as he is.

27 Are you pledged to a woman? Do not seek to be released. Are you free from such a commitment? Do not look for a wife.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 24:1; Matthew 19:6; Romans 7:2

28 But if you do marry, you have not sinned; and if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. But those who marry will face many troubles in this life, and I want to spare you this.

Cross References: Hebrews 13:4; Genesis 2:24; John 16:33

Living with Eternity in View

29 What I mean, brothers and sisters, is that the time is short. From now on those who have wives should live as if they do not;

Cross References: Romans 13:11; 1 Peter 4:7; James 4:14

30 those who mourn, as if they did not; those who are happy, as if they were not; those who buy something, as if it were not theirs to keep;

Cross References: Philippians 4:11; James 4:14; Psalm 39:6

31 those who use the things of the world, as if not engrossed in them. For this world in its present form is passing away.

Cross References: 1 John 2:17; 2 Peter 3:10; Matthew 6:19

Focused Devotion to the Lord

32 I would like you to be free from concern. An unmarried man is concerned about the Lord's affairs— how he can please the Lord.

Cross References: Luke 10:41; Philippians 4:6; Matthew 6:25

33 But a married man is concerned about the affairs of this world—how he can please his wife—

Cross References: Luke 14:20; Ephesians 5:28; 1 Timothy 5:8

34 and his interests are divided. An unmarried woman or virgin is concerned about the Lord's affairs: her aim is to be devoted to the Lord in both body and spirit. But a married woman is concerned about the affairs of this world—how she can please her husband.

Cross References: Luke 10:39; Philippians 4:6; 1 Timothy 5:5

35 I am saying this for your own good, not to restrict you, but that you may live in a right way in undivided devotion to the Lord.

Cross References: Colossians 3:2; Luke 10:42; Matthew 6:33

Advice on Marriage and Virginity

36 If anyone is worried that he is not acting honorably toward the virgin he is engaged to, and if she is getting along in years and he feels he ought to marry, he should do as he wants. He is not sinning. They should marry.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 22:28; Genesis 29:21; 1 Timothy 5:8

37 But the man who has settled the matter in his own mind, who is under no compulsion but has control over his will, and has made up his mind not to marry the virgin—this man also does the right thing.

Cross References: Numbers 30:2; Ecclesiastes 5:4; Psalm 15:4

38 So then, he who marries the virgin does right, but he who does not marry her does even better.

Cross References: Genesis 2:24; Matthew 19:11; Proverbs 18:22

Widows and Remarriage

39 A woman is bound to her husband as long as he lives. But if her husband dies, she is free to marry anyone she wishes, but he must belong to the Lord.

Cross References: Romans 7:2; Romans 7:3; 2 Corinthians 6:14

40 In my judgment, she is happier if she stays as she is—and I think that I too have the Spirit of God.

Cross References: Romans 8:9; 1 Corinthians 14:37; 1 Thessalonians 4:8

Key Lessons from 1 Corinthians 7

- Marriage is a safeguard against immorality. Husbands and wives belong to each other and must fulfill their responsibilities in love and faithfulness.
- Singleness is a gift. Some are called to remain single for the sake of undivided devotion to the Lord.
- Marriage to unbelievers. Believers should remain if the spouse is willing, but if the unbelieving partner leaves, the believer is free. God has called His children to peace.
- Stay faithful in your calling. Whether married, single, slave, or free—God’s command is to serve Him faithfully where you are.
- The world is passing away. Christians are to live with eternity in mind, not absorbed in worldly concerns.
- Undivided devotion to God. Singleness provides greater freedom to serve the Lord wholeheartedly.
- Marriage is honorable. Both marriage and singleness are gifts, but each person must live according to the grace given them.

“Knowledge, Love, and Christian Liberty”

Knowledge vs. Love

1 Now concerning food offered to idols: we know that we all possess knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up.

Cross References: Romans 14:1; 1 Corinthians 13:2; Romans 15:2

2 If anyone thinks he knows something, he does not yet know as he ought to know.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:7; Galatians 6:3; Romans 12:16

3 But if anyone loves God, he is known by God.

Cross References: Galatians 4:9; 1 John 4:19; Psalm 1:6

Idols and the One True God

4 So then, about eating food sacrificed to idols: we know that “an idol is nothing at all in the world” and that “there is no God but one.”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 4:39; Isaiah 44:6; Deuteronomy 6:4

5 For even if there are so-called gods, whether in heaven or on earth—as indeed there are many “gods” and many “lords”—

Cross References: Deuteronomy 10:17; Psalm 96:5; Galatians 4:8

6 yet for us there is but one God, the Father, from whom are all things and for whom we live; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things and through whom we live.

Cross References: Malachi 2:10; Ephesians 4:6; John 1:3

The Weak Conscience of Believers

7 But not everyone possesses this knowledge. Some, still accustomed to idols, eat food as if it were sacrificed to a god, and since their conscience is weak, it is defiled.

Cross References: Romans 14:14; Romans 14:23; Titus 1:15

8 But food does not bring us near to God; we are no worse if we do not eat, and no better if we do.

Cross References: Romans 14:17; Colossians 2:16; Hebrews 13:9

9 Be careful, however, that the exercise of your rights does not become a stumbling block to the weak.

Cross References: Romans 14:13; Romans 14:21; Galatians 5:13

Responsibility Toward the Weak

10 For if anyone with a weak conscience sees you, who have this knowledge, eating in an idol’s temple, won’t he be emboldened to eat what is sacrificed to idols?

Cross References: Romans 14:15; Romans 15:1; Romans 14:20

11 So this weak brother or sister, for whom Christ died, is destroyed by your knowledge.

Cross References: Matthew 18:6; Romans 14:15; Romans 14:21

12 When you sin against them in this way and wound their weak conscience, you sin against Christ.

Cross References: Matthew 25:40; Acts 9:4; Romans 14:15

13 Therefore, if what I eat causes my brother or sister to fall into sin, I will never eat meat again, so that I will not cause them to stumble.

Cross References: Romans 14:21; Mark 9:42; 2 Corinthians 11:29

Key Lessons from 1 Corinthians 8

- Knowledge without love is dangerous. True Christian maturity is not about proving what we know, but showing love that builds others up.
- Idols are powerless, but consciences are fragile. While idols have no real existence, some believers struggle with past associations, and we must be sensitive to their weaknesses.
- Food is morally neutral, but love is not. Eating or not eating makes no difference to God—but using our freedom without care can harm others.
- Our actions affect others. Causing a weaker believer to stumble is not just unkind—it is sin against Christ Himself.
- Love limits liberty. The Christian should gladly lay aside personal rights when they threaten another's faith, because love comes before freedom.

“Paul’s Rights, His Sacrifice, and His Discipline”

Paul’s Apostolic Authority

1 Am I not an apostle? Am I not free? Have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? Are not you my work in the Lord?

Cross References: Acts 9:17; Galatians 1:1; Acts 22:14

2 If I am not an apostle to others, yet surely I am to you: for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 3:2; Acts 18:11; 1 Corinthians 4:15

3 My defense to those who examine me is this:

The Rights of an Apostle

4 Do we not have the right to eat and to drink?

Cross References: Luke 10:7; 1 Timothy 5:18; Matthew 10:10

5 Do we not have the right to take along a believing wife, as the other apostles, the brothers of the Lord, and Cephas?

Cross References: Matthew 8:14; Mark 1:30; Acts 1:14

6 Or is it only Barnabas and I who must work to support ourselves?

Cross References: Acts 4:36; Acts 13:2; Acts 15:39

7 Who serves as a soldier at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat of its fruit? Or who tends a flock and does not drink of the milk of the flock?

Cross References: 2 Timothy 2:4; 2 Timothy 2:6; Deuteronomy 20:6

8 Do I say this from a human point of view? Does not the Law say the same also?

Cross References: Romans 3:19; Galatians 4:21; Romans 7:1

9 For it is written in the Law of Moses: “You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain.” Is it for oxen that God is concerned?

Cross References: Deuteronomy 25:4; 1 Timothy 5:18; Deuteronomy 22:10

10 Or does He not certainly speak for our sake? Yes, it was written for us—because the plowman should plow in hope, and the thresher should share in the harvest.

Cross References: 1 Timothy 5:18; 2 Timothy 2:6; Romans 15:4

11 If we have sown spiritual things for you, is it too much if we reap material things from you?

Cross References: Romans 15:27; Galatians 6:6; 2 Corinthians 9:6

12 If others share this right over you, do not we more? Nevertheless, we have not used this right, but we endure all things so that we will not hinder the gospel of Christ.

Cross References: Acts 20:33; 2 Corinthians 11:9; 2 Corinthians 12:13

13 Do you not know that those who minister at the temple eat from the temple offerings, and those who serve at the altar partake of what is offered on the altar?

Cross References: Leviticus 6:16; Numbers 18:8; Deuteronomy 18:1

14 In the same way, the Lord has commanded that those who preach the gospel should live from the gospel.

Cross References: Luke 10:7; Galatians 6:6; Matthew 10:10

Paul’s Sacrificial Example

15 But I have used none of these rights. And I am not writing these things to suggest it should be done for me. For I would rather die than have anyone deprive me of my boasting.

Cross References: Acts 20:33; 2 Corinthians 11:10; Philippians 3:7

16 For when I preach the gospel, I cannot boast, since necessity is laid upon me; indeed, woe to me if I do not preach the gospel!

Cross References: Jeremiah 20:9; Romans 1:14; Acts 4:20

17 For if I do this willingly, I have a reward; but if unwillingly, I am still entrusted with a stewardship.

Cross References: Luke 17:10; 1 Peter 4:10; Ephesians 3:2

18 What then is my reward? That when I preach the gospel, I may offer it free of charge, so as not to misuse my rights in the gospel.

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 11:7; 2 Corinthians 12:14; Acts 18:3

Paul’s Servanthood for the Gospel

19 For though I am free from all men, I have made myself a servant to all, that I might win more.

Cross References: Galatians 5:13; Mark 10:44; Romans 15:1

20 To the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might win the Jews. To those under the law, I became as one under the law (though not myself under the law), that I might win those under the law.

Cross References: Acts 16:3; Acts 21:26; Galatians 2:3

21 To those outside the law, I became as one outside the law (not being outside God's law, but under the law of Christ), that I might win those outside the law.

Cross References: Romans 2:14; Galatians 6:2; Romans 3:19

22 To the weak I became weak, that I might win the weak. I have become all things to all people, so that by all possible means I might save some.

Cross References: Romans 15:1; Romans 14:1; 2 Corinthians 11:29

23 I do all this for the sake of the gospel, that I may share in its blessings.

Cross References: Philippians 1:12; 2 Timothy 1:8; Romans 1:16

Running to Win the Prize

24 Do you not know that in a race all the runners run, but only one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you may obtain it.

Cross References: Philippians 3:14; Hebrews 12:1; Galatians 2:2

25 Everyone who competes exercises self-control in all things. They do it to obtain a perishable crown, but we an imperishable one.

Cross References: 2 Timothy 2:5; 2 Timothy 4:8; James 1:12

26 Therefore I run with purpose, not aimlessly. I fight not as one beating the air.

Cross References: 2 Timothy 4:7; Ephesians 6:12; Hebrews 12:1

27 But I discipline my body and bring it into subjection, so that after I have preached to others, I myself will not be disqualified.

Cross References: Romans 8:13; Colossians 3:5; Galatians 5:24

Key Lessons from 1 Corinthians 9

- True leadership sacrifices rights. Paul reminds us that though he had every right as an apostle to receive support, he laid it down for the sake of the gospel.
- The gospel demands flexibility. Paul became all things to all people, not compromising truth, but adjusting his approach so more might come to Christ.
- Preaching is a necessity, not a choice. For Paul, the gospel was not a career but a divine calling—"woe is me if I do not preach."

- Discipline is vital for discipleship. Just as athletes discipline their bodies for a prize, Christians must bring their desires under control for an eternal reward.
- Eternal perspective guides service. Earthly crowns fade, but the prize of eternal life in Christ makes every sacrifice worthwhile.

Key Lessons from 1 Corinthians 10

- History is written for our instruction. Israel’s failures in the wilderness serve as warnings for us today to avoid idolatry, immorality, testing God, and grumbling.

- God limits temptation. Though trials come, God is faithful to provide a way of escape so His people can endure.
- Idolatry is deadly. Participation in idol feasts is fellowship with demons and cannot be joined with the Lord's Table.
- Christian freedom is governed by love. Our liberty must never become a stumbling block for a weaker brother or sister.
- Everything must glorify God. Whether eating, drinking, or in any action, the believer's ultimate aim is to magnify God and to seek the good of others.

12 For just as woman came from man, so also man comes through woman; and all things are from God.

Cross References: Genesis 2:22; Genesis 3:20; Romans 11:36

13 Judge for yourselves: is it proper for a woman to pray to God uncovered?

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 10:15; 1 Timothy 2:9; 1 Peter 3:4

14 Does not even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a disgrace to him,

Cross References: Leviticus 19:27; Ezekiel 44:20; Numbers 6:5

15 but if a woman has long hair, it is her glory? For her hair is given to her for a covering.

Cross References: Song of Solomon 4:1; Luke 7:38; 1 Peter 3:3

16 But if anyone is inclined to be contentious, we have no such custom, nor do the churches of God.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 14:33; 1 Timothy 6:4; Titus 3:9

Abuses at the Lord's Supper

17 But in giving this instruction, I do not praise you, because you come together not for the better but for the worse.

Cross References: James 3:16; 1 Corinthians 1:11; 1 Corinthians 3:3

18 For, in the first place, when you come together as a church, I hear that there are divisions among you, and in part I believe it.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 1:10; Romans 16:17; 1 Corinthians 3:3

19 For there must be factions among you, so that those who are genuine may be recognized among you.

Cross References: 1 John 2:19; Deuteronomy 13:3; 1 Corinthians 3:13

20 Therefore, when you come together in one place, it is not to eat the Lord's Supper.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 11:23; Acts 2:42; Acts 20:7

21 For in eating, each one goes ahead with his own meal; one goes hungry, another gets drunk.

Cross References: James 2:3; Jude 1:12; Philippians 3:19

22 What! Do you not have houses to eat and drink in? Or do you despise the church of God and humiliate those who have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall I praise you? In this I do not praise you.

Cross References: James 2:5; James 2:6; Proverbs 14:31

Institution of the Lord's Supper

23 For I received from the Lord what I also delivered to you: that the Lord Jesus, on the night when He was betrayed, took bread.

Cross References: Matthew 26:26; Luke 22:19; Mark 14:22

24 And when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, "Take, eat; this is My body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of Me."

Cross References: Matthew 26:26; Luke 22:19; Mark 14:22

25 In the same way, He also took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me."

Cross References: Luke 22:20; Matthew 26:28; Jeremiah 31:31

26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until He comes.

Cross References: Matthew 26:29; Luke 22:18; Acts 1:11

Self-Examination Required

27 Therefore, whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

Cross References: Hebrews 10:29; John 6:53; Numbers 9:13

28 But let a person examine himself, and in this way let him eat of the bread and drink of the cup.

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 13:5; Lamentations 3:40; Galatians 6:4

29 For the one who eats and drinks without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment on himself.

Cross References: Hebrews 10:29; 1 Corinthians 10:16; Leviticus 7:20

30 For this reason many among you are weak and sick, and many sleep.

Cross References: John 5:14; James 5:15; 1 Thessalonians 4:13

31 But if we judged ourselves truly, we would not be judged.

Cross References: Psalm 32:5; 1 John 1:9; Lamentations 3:40

32 But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we may not be condemned with the world.

Cross References: Hebrews 12:6; Hebrews 12:11; Revelation 3:19

33 Therefore, my brothers and sisters, when you come together to eat, wait for one another.

Cross References: Romans 12:10; Philippians 2:4; Hebrews 10:24

34 If anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, so that when you come together it will not be for judgment. The remaining matters I will arrange when I come.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 4:19; 1 Corinthians 16:5; Titus 1:5

Key Lessons from 1 Corinthians 11

- Follow Christ through faithful examples. Paul calls the Corinthians to imitate him as he imitates Christ.
- God's order in headship. Christ is the head of man, man is the head of woman, and God is the head of Christ. This order reflects God's design, not human pride.
- Worship must be honorable. How we present ourselves before God matters, and reverence in prayer and prophecy should reflect God's created order.
- The Lord's Supper is sacred. It is not a common meal, but a holy remembrance of Christ's sacrifice.
- Self-examination prevents judgment. To partake unworthily invites discipline, but those who examine themselves approach the Table in humility.
- Unity and love in gathering. Believers must wait for one another, showing honor, so that worship builds up instead of bringing condemnation.

“The Gifts of the Spirit and the Body of Christ”

Spiritual Gifts and the Spirit's Work

1 Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be ignorant.

Cross References: Romans 12:6; Romans 11:25; 1 Thessalonians 4:13

2 You know that when you were Gentiles, you were led astray to mute idols, however you were led.

Cross References: Psalm 115:5; Habakkuk 2:18; 1 Thessalonians 1:9

3 Therefore I make known to you that no one speaking by the Spirit of God says, “Jesus be cursed,” and no one can say, “Jesus is Lord,” except by the Holy Spirit.

Cross References: Romans 10:9; 1 John 4:2; Philippians 2:11

The Same Spirit, Many Gifts

4 There are different kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit.

Cross References: Romans 12:6; Ephesians 4:11; 1 Peter 4:10

5 There are different kinds of ministries, but the same Lord.

Cross References: Romans 12:7; Ephesians 4:11; Ephesians 4:12

6 And there are different kinds of activities, but it is the same God who works all things in all people.

Cross References: Ephesians 1:11; Philippians 2:13; Ephesians 4:6

7 But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.

Cross References: 1 Peter 4:10; Romans 12:6; Ephesians 4:12

8 For to one is given through the Spirit the word of wisdom, to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit,

Cross References: Isaiah 11:2; Colossians 2:3; James 1:5

9 to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the same Spirit,

Cross References: James 5:15; Mark 16:18; Acts 3:6

10 to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another discerning of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues.

Cross References: Acts 2:4; 1 John 4:1; Acts 19:6

11 But one and the same Spirit works all these things, distributing to each one individually as He wills.

Cross References: Romans 12:6; Hebrews 2:4; John 3:8

Unity in the Body of Christ

12 For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so also is Christ.

Cross References: Romans 12:4; Romans 12:5; Ephesians 4:16

13 For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

Cross References: Galatians 3:28; Ephesians 4:5; Colossians 3:11

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

Cross References: Romans 12:4; Ephesians 4:16; Ephesians 1:23

15 If the foot should say, “Because I am not a hand, I am not part of the body,” it does not stop being part of the body.

Cross References: Romans 12:4; Ephesians 4:16; Ephesians 4:25

16 And if the ear should say, “Because I am not an eye, I am not part of the body,” it does not stop being part of the body.

Cross References: Romans 12:4; Ephesians 4:16; 1 Corinthians 12:21

17 If the whole body were an eye, where would be the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where would be the sense of smell?

Cross References: Psalm 94:9; Ephesians 4:16; Romans 12:4

18 But now God has set the members, each one of them, in the body just as He pleased.

Cross References: Psalm 139:14; Ephesians 1:11; Romans 9:21

19 And if they were all one member, where would the body be?

Cross References: Ephesians 4:16; Romans 12:4; 1 Corinthians 12:14

20 But now there are many members, yet one body.

Cross References: Romans 12:5; Ephesians 4:4; Colossians 3:15

All Members Are Needed

21 The eye cannot say to the hand, “I have no need of you,” nor again the head to the feet, “I have no need of you.”

Cross References: Romans 12:5; Ephesians 4:16; Genesis 2:18

22 On the contrary, the parts of the body that seem weaker are indispensable.

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 12:9; Isaiah 40:29; 1 Corinthians 1:27

23 And those parts of the body that we think less honorable, we give greater honor; and our unpresentable parts are treated with greater modesty.

Cross References: 1 Peter 3:7; 1 Timothy 2:9; Genesis 3:7

24 But our presentable parts have no need of it. Instead, God has so arranged the body, giving greater honor to the part that lacked it,

Cross References: James 2:5; Luke 14:10; 1 Peter 5:5

25 so that there may be no division in the body, but that the members may have the same care for one another.

Cross References: John 17:21; Philippians 2:2; Romans 12:10

26 If one member suffers, all the members suffer together; if one member is honored, all the members rejoice together.

Cross References: Romans 12:15; Hebrews 13:3; Galatians 6:2

God's Appointed Ministries

27 Now you are the body of Christ, and individually members of it.

Cross References: Romans 12:5; Ephesians 1:23; Ephesians 5:30

28 And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, administrations, and various kinds of tongues.

Cross References: Ephesians 4:11; Romans 12:7; Ephesians 2:20

29 Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles?

Cross References: Ephesians 4:11; Romans 12:4; James 3:1

30 Do all have gifts of healing? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret?

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 14:26; Mark 16:17; Acts 10:46

31 But earnestly desire the greater gifts. And yet I will show you a still more excellent way.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 14:1; 1 Corinthians 14:12; Colossians 3:14

Key Lessons from 1 Corinthians 12

- The Spirit gives diverse gifts. Every ability or gift in the church comes from the Holy Spirit for the good of all, not for personal glory.
- Unity in diversity. Just as a body has many parts with different functions, so the church thrives when every believer plays their role.
- No one is unnecessary. Even the weakest or least visible members are vital, and God gives them honor.
- Shared suffering and joy. When one believer suffers, all suffer; when one is honored, all rejoice.
- God appoints ministries. Apostles, prophets, teachers, and others serve by divine appointment.
- The more excellent way. Spiritual gifts are important, but love (chapter 13) is the greatest foundation for all ministry.

1 Corinthians 13 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Greatest Gift: Love”

Without Love, Gifts Are Nothing

1 Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but do not have love, I have become as a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal.

Cross References: John 13:34; 1 Peter 4:8; Colossians 3:14

2 And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and though I have all faith so that I could move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing.

Cross References: 1 John 4:7; 1 Corinthians 8:1; Matthew 17:20

3 And though I give away all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, but do not have love, it profits me nothing.

Cross References: Matthew 6:2; Proverbs 19:17; Matthew 19:21

The Character of Love

4 Love is patient and kind. Love does not envy. Love does not boast, it is not arrogant.

Cross References: Galatians 5:22; Proverbs 10:12; James 3:14

5 It does not behave rudely, it does not seek its own way, it is not easily provoked, it keeps no record of wrongs.

Cross References: Philippians 2:4; Proverbs 10:12; Psalm 103:12

6 Love does not rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices in the truth.

Cross References: 2 John 1:4; 3 John 1:4; Romans 12:9

7 It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

Cross References: 1 Peter 4:8; Romans 8:25; Colossians 1:11

The Supremacy of Love

8 Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will vanish away.

Cross References: Romans 8:35; 1 Peter 1:25; Psalm 119:89

9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 8:2; Job 26:14; Romans 11:34

10 But when the perfect comes, the partial will be done away.

Cross References: Hebrews 8:13; Revelation 21:4; Philippians 3:12

11 When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. But when I became a man, I put away childish things.

Cross References: Ephesians 4:14; Ephesians 4:15; Hebrews 5:14

12 For now we see through a glass dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I will know fully, even as I am fully known.

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 3:18; 1 John 3:2; Numbers 12:8

The Greatest of All

13 And now remain faith, hope, and love, these three. But the greatest of these is love.

Cross References: Galatians 5:6; Colossians 1:4; 1 John 4:8

Key Lessons from 1 Corinthians 13

- Love is essential. Spiritual gifts, great faith, generosity, or even sacrifice are worthless without love.
- Love's qualities. True love is patient, kind, humble, forgiving, and rejoices in the truth.
- Love outlasts gifts. Prophecy, tongues, and knowledge will one day fade, but love will endure forever.
- Spiritual maturity. Growing in love is a mark of maturity, putting away childish pride and selfishness.

- Our hope of fullness. Now we know in part, but one day we will know fully when we see Christ face to face.
- The greatest gift. Faith and hope are vital, but love surpasses them all, for love reflects the very heart of God.

1 Corinthians 14 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Order in the Gifts of the Spirit”

Prophecy Above Tongues

1 Pursue love, and earnestly desire spiritual gifts, but especially that you may prophesy.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 12:31; Romans 12:6; 1 Thessalonians 5:20

2 For the one who speaks in a tongue does not speak to men but to God, for no one understands him; however, in the Spirit he speaks mysteries.

Cross References: Acts 2:4; 1 Corinthians 13:1; 1 Corinthians 12:10

3 But the one who prophesies speaks to people for their strengthening, encouragement, and comfort.

Cross References: Romans 14:19; 1 Thessalonians 5:11; Acts 15:32

4 The one who speaks in a tongue builds up himself, but the one who prophesies builds up the church.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 8:1; Ephesians 4:12; Jude 1:20

5 I wish that you all spoke with tongues, but even more that you prophesied. For greater is the one who prophesies than the one who speaks in tongues, unless he interprets, so that the church may be built up.

Cross References: Numbers 11:29; 1 Corinthians 12:10; 1 Corinthians 14:39

Clarity in the Church

6 Now, brothers, if I come to you speaking with tongues, what good will I be to you unless I bring some revelation, or knowledge, or prophecy, or teaching?

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 13:1; 2 Timothy 3:16; Colossians 3:16

7 Even lifeless things, such as the pipe or the harp, if they make no distinction in the sounds, how will it be known what is being played?

Cross References: Psalm 33:2; Psalm 150:3; 1 Chronicles 15:16

8 For if the trumpet gives an uncertain sound, who will prepare for battle?

Cross References: Numbers 10:9; Joel 2:1; Jeremiah 4:19

9 So likewise you, unless you speak intelligible words with your tongue, how will it be understood? You will just be speaking into the air.

Cross References: Colossians 4:6; Ecclesiastes 5:2; Matthew 6:7

10 There are, no doubt, many kinds of voices in the world, and none is without meaning.

Cross References: Genesis 11:7; Acts 2:6; Revelation 7:9

11 Therefore, if I do not understand the meaning of the voice, I will be a foreigner to the one who speaks, and he who speaks will be a foreigner to me.

Cross References: Acts 2:8; Deuteronomy 28:49; Isaiah 33:19

12 So you also, since you are zealous for spiritual gifts, strive to excel in building up the church.

Cross References: Ephesians 4:12; 1 Peter 4:10; 1 Corinthians 12:7

Praying and Singing with Understanding

13 Therefore let the one who speaks in a tongue pray that he may interpret.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 12:10; 1 Corinthians 14:27; 1 Corinthians 12:30

14 For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful.

Cross References: Romans 8:26; 1 Corinthians 2:14; Nehemiah 8:8

15 What then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also. I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.

Cross References: Ephesians 5:19; Colossians 3:16; Psalm 47:7

16 Otherwise, if you bless with the spirit, how can the one who is unlearned say “Amen” at your giving of thanks, since he does not understand what you say?

Cross References: Nehemiah 8:6; Psalm 106:48; 1 Chronicles 16:36

17 You may be giving thanks well enough, but the other person is not edified.

Cross References: Romans 14:19; 1 Corinthians 10:23; 1 Corinthians 8:1

18 I thank my God, I speak in tongues more than all of you.

Cross References: Acts 2:4; Acts 10:46; Acts 19:6

19 Yet in the church I would rather speak five words with understanding, to teach others also, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

Cross References: Proverbs 15:23; Nehemiah 8:8; Matthew 5:37

The Purpose of Tongues and Prophecy

20 Brothers, do not be children in understanding; in malice be children, but in understanding be mature.

Cross References: Ephesians 4:14; Hebrews 5:13; 1 Peter 2:1

21 In the law it is written: “With men of other tongues and other lips I will speak to this people; yet even then they will not hear me, says the Lord.”

Cross References: Isaiah 28:11; Isaiah 28:12; Deuteronomy 28:49

22 Therefore tongues are a sign, not for those who believe, but for unbelievers. But prophecy is not for unbelievers, but for those who believe.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 1:22; Acts 2:12; Mark 16:17

23 If the whole church comes together and everyone speaks in tongues, and unbelievers or outsiders enter, will they not say you are out of your mind?

Cross References: Acts 2:13; Acts 26:24; John 10:20

24 But if all prophesy, and an unbeliever or outsider comes in, he is convicted by all, he is judged by all.

Cross References: John 16:8; Hebrews 4:12; 2 Timothy 3:16

25 The secrets of his heart are revealed; and so, falling on his face, he will worship God, declaring that God is truly among you.

Cross References: Isaiah 45:14; Zechariah 8:23; Daniel 2:47

Orderly Worship

26 What is the outcome then, brothers? When you come together, each of you has a psalm, a teaching, a tongue, a revelation, an interpretation. Let all things be done for building up.

Cross References: Ephesians 5:19; Colossians 3:16; 1 Corinthians 12:7

27 If anyone speaks in a tongue, let it be by two, or at the most three, each in turn, and let someone interpret.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 12:10; 1 Corinthians 14:40; 2 Corinthians 13:1

28 But if there is no interpreter, let him remain silent in the church, and let him speak to himself and to God.

Cross References: Psalm 4:4; 1 Corinthians 14:34; James 1:19

29 Let two or three prophets speak, and let the others weigh what is said.

Cross References: 1 Thessalonians 5:19; 1 Thessalonians 5:21; 1 John 4:1

30 If a revelation comes to another who is seated, let the first be silent.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 14:40; Philippians 2:3; Romans 12:10

31 For you can all prophesy one by one, so that all may learn and all may be encouraged.

Cross References: Acts 2:17; 1 Corinthians 14:26; 1 Thessalonians 5:11

32 The spirits of prophets are subject to the prophets.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 10:10; Numbers 11:25; 1 Corinthians 14:40

33 For God is not the author of confusion but of peace, as in all the churches of the saints.

Cross References: James 3:17; Romans 15:33; 1 Thessalonians 5:23

Order Regarding Women in the Assembly

34 Let your women keep silent in the churches, for they are not permitted to speak, but must be in submission, as the law also says.

Cross References: 1 Timothy 2:11; 1 Timothy 2:12; Genesis 3:16

35 If they desire to learn anything, let them ask their husbands at home, for it is disgraceful for a woman to speak in the church.

Cross References: Ephesians 5:22; Titus 2:5; 1 Peter 3:1

Final Instructions on Gifts

36 Did the word of God come from you? Or did it reach only you?

Cross References: Isaiah 2:3; Romans 15:20; 1 Thessalonians 1:8

37 If anyone thinks himself to be a prophet or spiritual, let him acknowledge that what I write to you are the Lord's commands.

Cross References: 1 John 4:6; Galatians 1:8; 2 Peter 3:2

38 But if anyone ignores this, he himself will be ignored.

Cross References: Proverbs 1:24; Matthew 10:14; Hosea 4:6

39 Therefore, brothers, earnestly desire to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues.

Cross References: 1 Thessalonians 5:19; 1 Thessalonians 5:20; 1 Corinthians 12:31

40 But let all things be done decently and in order.

Cross References: Colossians 2:5; Titus 1:5; 1 Corinthians 11:34

Key Lessons from 1 Corinthians 14

- Prophecy builds up the church. Tongues are valuable, but prophecy edifies the whole congregation.
- Clarity matters. Worship should be understandable so that all can join in and grow.
- Balance of spirit and understanding. Prayer and song must engage both heart and mind.
- Tongues as a sign. They serve unbelievers as a witness, while prophecy strengthens believers.
- Order in worship. Spiritual gifts should be exercised in a way that brings peace and edification, not confusion.
- Decency and humility. All things in the church must be done with respect, submission, and unity under God's design.

“The Resurrection of Christ and Our Hope”

The Gospel of Christ's Death and Resurrection

1 Brothers and sisters, I remind you of the gospel which I preached to you, which you also received, and in which you stand,

Cross References: Galatians 1:11; Romans 1:16; 2 Timothy 1:13

2 by which you are saved—if you hold firmly to the message I preached to you—unless you believed in vain.

Cross References: Colossians 1:23; Hebrews 3:14; 2 Corinthians 6:1

3 For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures,

Cross References: Isaiah 53:5; Romans 5:8; 1 Peter 3:18

4 that He was buried, and that He rose again on the third day according to the Scriptures,

Cross References: Psalm 16:10; Hosea 6:2; Matthew 12:40

5 and that He was seen by Peter, then by the twelve.

Cross References: Luke 24:34; John 20:19; Mark 16:14

6 After that, He appeared to more than five hundred brothers at once, most of whom remain alive until now, though some have fallen asleep.

Cross References: Acts 1:3; Matthew 28:17; Luke 24:36

7 Then He appeared to James, then to all the apostles.

Cross References: Acts 1:14; Galatians 1:19; Acts 1:3

8 And last of all, He appeared also to me, as to one abnormally born.

Cross References: Acts 9:3; Acts 9:17; 1 Timothy 1:16

9 For I am the least of the apostles, not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.

Cross References: Acts 8:3; 1 Timothy 1:15; Ephesians 3:8

10 But by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace toward me was not in vain; on the contrary, I worked harder than all of them—yet not I, but the grace of God that was with me.

Cross References: Ephesians 2:8; 2 Corinthians 12:9; Galatians 2:20

11 Whether then it was I or they, so we preach, and so you believed.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 3:5; Romans 10:17; Philippians 1:18

The Resurrection of the Dead

12 Now if Christ is preached that He has been raised from the dead, how can some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead?

Cross References: Acts 17:32; Acts 23:8; Matthew 22:23

13 If there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ is not risen.

Cross References: Acts 4:2; Romans 6:5; 1 Thessalonians 4:14

14 And if Christ is not risen, then our preaching is useless, and your faith is also useless.

Cross References: Galatians 2:21; Romans 4:25; 1 Peter 1:21

15 Moreover, we are found to be false witnesses about God, because we testified that God raised Christ from the dead—if in fact the dead are not raised.

Cross References: Acts 2:32; Acts 3:15; Acts 4:33

16 For if the dead are not raised, then Christ has not been raised.

Cross References: Acts 26:8; Romans 8:11; Job 19:25

17 And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile; you are still in your sins.

Cross References: Romans 5:1; Colossians 2:13; 1 Peter 1:3

18 Then those who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished.

Cross References: 1 Thessalonians 4:13; 1 Thessalonians 4:14; John 11:25

19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied.

Cross References: Philippians 3:20; Hebrews 11:13; 2 Timothy 3:12

20 But Christ has indeed been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep.

Cross References: Acts 26:23; Colossians 1:18; Romans 8:29

Death Defeated in Christ

21 For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead also came through a man.

Cross References: Romans 5:12; Romans 5:17; Genesis 3:19

22 For as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will be made alive.

Cross References: Romans 5:18; Romans 5:19; Genesis 2:17

23 But each in his own order: Christ the firstfruits, afterward those who belong to Christ at His coming.

36 Foolish one! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies.

37 What you sow is not the body that is to be, but a bare grain, perhaps of wheat or of some other grain.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

Introduction to the Book of 2 Corinthians

“My grace is all you need. My power works best in weakness.” – 2 Corinthians 12:9

Title and Meaning

The book of 2 Corinthians is Paul’s second preserved letter to the church in Corinth. While 1 Corinthians deals largely with correction and instruction, 2 Corinthians is deeply personal and pastoral. It reveals Paul’s heart for ministry, his defense of his apostleship, and his encouragement for believers to live faithfully despite hardships. It is a letter marked by both vulnerability and strength, showing how God’s power is made perfect in human weakness.

Author and Date

The apostle Paul is the author (2 Corinthians 1:1). He wrote the letter around AD 56–57, likely from Macedonia, after leaving Ephesus during his third missionary journey (Acts 20:1–2). This letter came after a painful visit and a “severe letter” (2 Corinthians 2:4, 7:8), making 2 Corinthians both a reconciliation and a defense of Paul’s ministry.

Purpose of 2 Corinthians

Paul wrote 2 Corinthians with several key purposes:

- To defend his authority as an apostle against false teachers who questioned his motives.
- To comfort the church after their repentance from earlier rebukes.
- To encourage generosity in giving, especially toward the offering for the Jerusalem church.
- To explain the nature of Christian ministry—service marked by humility, suffering, and reliance on God’s power.
- To remind believers that true strength is found in Christ, not human ability.

Structure of 2 Corinthians

This letter is both theological and emotional, moving through personal defense, encouragement, and exhortation: 1. Paul’s Defense and Comfort (Chs. 1–7) Paul shares about suffering, explains his ministry, and celebrates reconciliation with the Corinthians.

- 2. The Collection for Jerusalem (Chs. 8–9) Encouragement to give generously and cheerfully, trusting God’s provision.
- 3. Paul’s Apostolic Defense (Chs. 10–13) Paul confronts critics, contrasts false apostles with his suffering for Christ, and emphasizes God’s strength in weakness.

Major Themes

- God’s Comfort in Affliction – The Lord sustains His people in trials (2 Cor. 1:3–4).
- Authentic Ministry – True servants of Christ live with humility, sincerity, and endurance.
- Generosity in Giving – Believers are called to cheerful and sacrificial giving.

- Weakness and God's Strength – Human weakness is the stage for God's power to shine.
- Reconciliation – God reconciles us through Christ, and we are called to be ambassadors of reconciliation.

Why 2 Corinthians Matters Today

2 Corinthians reminds us that Christianity is not about worldly power, prestige, or outward appearances. It shows that trials, weaknesses, and even suffering are not signs of failure but opportunities for God's strength to be revealed. For modern believers, it is a call to live with integrity, generosity, and trust in the sufficiency of God's grace.

Key Verse

"My grace is all you need. My power works best in weakness." – 2 Corinthians 12:9 This verse captures the essence of 2 Corinthians: God's grace is sufficient, and His power shines brightest when we are weakest.

The God of Comfort

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and the God of all comfort.

4 He comforts us in all our troubles, so that we may be able to comfort those in any trouble with the same comfort we ourselves receive from God.

5 For just as the sufferings of Christ overflow into our lives, so also through Christ our comfort abounds.

Cross References: Philippians 3:10; Colossians 1:24; Romans 8:17

6 If we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation; if we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which produces in you patient endurance of the same sufferings we suffer.

7 And our hope for you is firm, because we know that just as you share in our sufferings, so also you will share in our comfort.

Deliverance from Despair

8 Brothers and sisters, we do not want you to be unaware of the troubles we faced in Asia. We were burdened beyond our strength, so that we even despaired of life.

Cross References: Acts 19:23; 1 Corinthians 15:32; 2 Corinthians 4:8

9 Indeed, we felt we had received the sentence of death. But this happened that we might not rely on ourselves, but on God who raises the dead.

Cross References: Romans 4:17; Deuteronomy 32:39; John 5:21

10 He has delivered us from such a deadly peril, and He will deliver us again. On Him we have set our hope that He will continue to deliver us,

11 as you help us by your prayers. Then many will give thanks on our behalf for the gracious favor granted us in answer to the prayers of many.

Paul's Integrity and God's Faithfulness

12 Now this is our boast: our conscience testifies that we have conducted ourselves in the world, and especially in our relations with you, with integrity and godly sincerity. We have done so not by worldly wisdom but by the grace of God.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 2:4; Acts 24:16; 2 Corinthians 4:2

13 For we write nothing to you beyond what you can read and understand. And I trust that you will understand fully,

16 once on my way to Macedonia and then again on my return from Macedonia, so you could send me on my way to Judea.

Cross References: Acts 19:21; 1 Corinthians 16:5; Romans 15:25

17 Was I fickle when I intended to do this? Or do I make my plans in a worldly manner, so that in the same breath I say “Yes, yes” and “No, no”?

Cross References: James 1:8; Matthew 5:37; James 4:13

18 But as surely as God is faithful, our message to you is not “Yes” and “No.”

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 1:9; 1 Thessalonians 5:24; Numbers 23:19

19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by me, Silvanus, and Timothy, was not “Yes” and “No,” but in Him it has always been “Yes.”

Cross References: Hebrews 13:8; Revelation 3:14; Galatians 1:8

Sealed by the Spirit

21 Now it is God who makes both us and you stand firm in Christ. He anointed us,

22 set His seal of ownership on us, and put His Spirit in our hearts as a guarantee of what is to come.

2 For if I cause you grief, who then will bring me joy but the very ones I have grieved?

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 7:9; Philippians 2:2; Galatians 4:19

3 I wrote as I did so that when I came, I would not have sorrow from those who ought to make me rejoice. I have confidence that my joy is the joy of you all.

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 7:13; Galatians 5:10; Philippians 1:25

4 Out of great distress and anguish of heart, with many tears, I wrote to you—not to grieve you but to show you the depth of my love for you.

Forgiveness for the Offender

5 If anyone has caused grief, he has not grieved me alone but to some extent all of you.

6 The punishment inflicted by the majority is sufficient for such a man.

7 Instead, you ought to forgive and comfort him, so that he will not be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow.

Restlessness in Troas

12 When I came to Troas to preach the gospel of Christ, the Lord opened a door for me,

13 but I had no peace of mind because I did not find my brother Titus there. So I said goodbye to them and went on to Macedonia.

The Fragrance of Christ

15 For we are to God the sweet fragrance of Christ among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing.

Cross References: Ephesians 5:2; Philippians 4:18; John 12:3

16 To the one we are the smell of death leading to death; to the other, the fragrance of life leading to life. And who is sufficient for these things?

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 3:5; John 5:24; Luke 2:34

17 Unlike so many, we do not peddle the word of God for profit. On the contrary, in Christ we speak before God with sincerity, as those sent from God.

Cross References: 1 Thessalonians 2:5; 2 Corinthians 4:2; Titus 1:11

Key Lessons from 2 Corinthians 2

- Correction must lead to restoration. Discipline in the church is necessary, but forgiveness and love must follow to prevent overwhelming sorrow.
- Satan exploits division. Unforgiveness gives him a foothold, but unity and grace disarm his schemes.
- Ministry is partnership with God. Even when Paul faced restlessness and discouragement, God opened doors for the gospel.
- Christ makes us victorious. Believers are led in triumph, not by their own power, but by Christ's work through them.
- The gospel has a dual effect. To those who reject it, it is a message of judgment; to those who believe, it is life eternal.
- Authenticity matters. True ministers of Christ do not corrupt God's word but speak with sincerity, knowing they stand before God.

Cross References: Exodus 34:29; Exodus 34:30; Deuteronomy 5:22

8 will not the ministry of the Spirit be even more glorious?

The Veil Removed in Christ

12 Therefore, since we have such a hope, we are very bold.

13 We are not like Moses, who would put a veil over his face to keep the Israelites from gazing at the end of what was fading away.

Cross References: Exodus 34:33; Exodus 34:34; Exodus 34:35

14 But their minds were hardened. To this day the same veil remains when the old covenant is read; it has not been removed, because only in Christ is it taken away.

Cross References: 1 Timothy 1:13; Galatians 6:9; 2 Corinthians 4:16

2 But we have renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in deceit, nor distorting the word of God. Instead, by openly declaring the truth, we commend ourselves to everyone’s conscience in the sight of God.

Cross References: Romans 6:21; 1 Thessalonians 2:3; Ephesians 4:25

3 But if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing,

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 1:18; 2 Corinthians 2:15; John 3:19

Cross References: John 12:31; Ephesians 2:2; Colossians 1:15

Christ, Not Ourselves

Treasure in Clay Jars

7 But we have this treasure in jars of clay, to show that the surpassing power belongs to God and not to us.

8 We are hard pressed on every side, yet not crushed; perplexed, but not in despair;

9 persecuted, but not abandoned; struck down, but not destroyed.

Cross References: Psalm 37:24; Psalm 34:19; Hebrews 13:5

10 We always carry around in our body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our body.

Cross References: Galatians 2:20; Galatians 6:17; Romans 8:17

“The Ministry of Reconciliation”

Our Heavenly Dwelling

1 For we know that if our earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 15:53; Philippians 1:23; John 14:2

2 For in this tent we groan, longing to be clothed with our heavenly dwelling,

3 if indeed, when we are clothed, we will not be found naked.

Cross References: Revelation 3:18; Revelation 16:15; Isaiah 61:10

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 15:54; Romans 8:23; Isaiah 25:8

5 Now the One who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who has given us the Spirit as a guarantee.

Cross References: Romans 14:10; Romans 2:6; Revelation 22:12

Compelled by Christ's Love

Cross References: Proverbs 9:10; Acts 17:4; Hebrews 4:13

12 We are not commending ourselves to you again, but giving you cause to boast about us, so that you may have an answer for those who boast in appearance and not in heart.

The Ministry of Reconciliation

18 All this is from God, who reconciled us to Himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation:

19 namely, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not counting their sins against them, and He has entrusted to us the message of reconciliation.

Cross References: Romans 5:19; Colossians 1:20; 1 John 2:2

21 For God made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, so that in Him we might become the righteousness of God.

4 I have great confidence in you; I take great pride in you. I am filled with comfort, and in all our affliction, I overflow with joy.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:25; 2 Corinthians 2:13; 2 Corinthians 4:8

6 But God, who comforts the downcast, comforted us by the arrival of Titus,

Cross References: Isaiah 49:13; Isaiah 66:13; 2 Corinthians 1:4

7 and not only by his coming but also by the comfort you gave him. He told us of your longing for me, your deep sorrow, and your zeal for me, so that I rejoiced even more.

Cross References: Philippians 2:28; 2 Corinthians 2:13; Romans 15:32

Godly Sorrow Brings Repentance

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 2:4; Hebrews 12:11; Proverbs 27:6

9 Now I rejoice, not that you were made sorry, but that your sorrow led to repentance. For you were grieved in a godly way, so that you suffered no loss through us.

Cross References: Psalm 51:17; Matthew 5:4; Joel 2:13

10 For godly sorrow produces repentance that leads to salvation and leaves no regret, but worldly sorrow produces death.

Cross References: Matthew 27:5; Luke 22:62; Psalm 51:17

11 See what this godly sorrow has produced in you: what earnestness, what eagerness to clear yourselves, what indignation, what fear, what longing, what zeal, what readiness to see justice done! At every point you have proved yourselves innocent in this matter.

Cross References: Romans 12:11; Titus 2:14; Acts 24:16

Paul's Joy in Their Obedience

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 2:9; 2 Corinthians 2:4; Galatians 6:1

13 Because of this, we have been comforted. And besides our own comfort, we rejoiced still more at the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by you all.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 16:18; Philemon 1:7; Romans 15:32

14 For if I have boasted anything about you to him, I was not put to shame. But just as everything we said to you was true, so also our boasting before Titus has proved true.

Cross References: Romans 5:5; Proverbs 12:22; Philippians 1:20

15 And his affection for you is even greater, as he remembers how you all obeyed him, receiving him with fear and trembling.

Cross References: Romans 12:1; Galatians 2:20; 2 Corinthians 5:15

Call to Excel in Giving

6 So we urged Titus, that just as he had begun, he should also complete this act of grace among you.

Cross References: Titus 1:5; Philippians 1:6; Galatians 6:9

7 But since you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in all diligence, and in the love we inspired in you—see that you also excel in this grace of giving.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 1:5; 1 Corinthians 12:31; 1 Peter 4:10

8 I am not commanding you, but I want to test the sincerity of your love by comparing it with the earnestness of others.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 7:6; James 1:3; 1 Peter 1:7

9 For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though He was rich, yet for your sake He became poor, so that you through His poverty might become rich.

Cross References: Philippians 2:6; Philippians 2:7; Luke 9:58

The Call to Complete Their Commitment

10 And in this matter I give my advice: it is to your advantage to finish what you started a year ago—not only to desire to do it but also to complete it.

Cross References: Philippians 1:6; Ecclesiastes 5:4; Galatians 6:9

11 Now therefore complete the work, so that your eagerness may be matched by your completion, according to your ability.

Cross References: Philippians 1:6; Luke 14:28; James 1:4

12 For if there is a willing heart, the gift is acceptable according to what one has, not according to what one does not have.

Cross References: Mark 12:44; Exodus 25:2; 1 Chronicles 29:17

13 For I do not mean that others should be eased and you burdened,

Cross References: Galatians 6:2; Acts 4:34; Acts 2:45

14 but that there may be equality: your abundance at the present time should supply their need, so that their abundance may also supply your need, that there may be equality.

Cross References: Acts 2:44; Acts 4:34; Acts 4:35

15 As it is written: “The one who gathered much did not have too much, and the one who gathered little did not have too little.”

Titus and Trusted Brothers Sent

16 But thanks be to God, who put the same earnest care for you into the heart of Titus.

21 For we are careful to do what is right, not only in the eyes of the Lord but also in the eyes of people.

24 Therefore, show them proof of your love and the reason for our boasting about you, so that the churches may see it.

Preparing the Offering in Advance

1 As for the ministry to the saints, it is unnecessary for me to write to you.

Cross References: Romans 15:25; 1 Corinthians 16:1; Acts 11:29

Cross References: Romans 15:26; 2 Corinthians 8:10; Proverbs 27:17

3 Yet I have sent the brothers so that our boasting about you in this matter may not prove empty, but that you may be ready, just as I said.

4 For if any Macedonians come with me and find you unprepared, we—not to mention you—would be ashamed of having been so confident.

Cross References: Luke 14:28; Luke 14:29; 1 John 2:28

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to urge the brothers to go ahead to you and arrange in advance the generous gift you promised, so that it may be ready as a matter of generosity and not as grudging obligation.

Cross References: Exodus 25:2; Deuteronomy 16:17; 1 Chronicles 29:5

“The Weapons of Our Warfare”

Paul's Appeal in Christ's Gentleness

1 Now I, Paul, myself appeal to you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ—I who in person am humble among you, but when absent am bold toward you.

Cross References: Matthew 11:29; Matthew 21:5; Philippians 2:8

2 I beg you that when I am present, I may not have to be bold with that confidence with which I intend to confront those who think we live according to the flesh.

Spiritual Warfare and Divine Power

3 For though we live in the flesh, we do not wage war according to the flesh.

Cross References: Ephesians 6:12; 1 Timothy 1:18; John 18:36

4 For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God for the pulling down of strongholds.

Cross References: Ephesians 6:11; Jeremiah 1:10; Proverbs 21:22

5 We demolish arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, and we take every thought captive to obey Christ.

Cross References: Colossians 2:8; Isaiah 55:8; Proverbs 21:30

6 And we are ready to punish every act of disobedience, once your obedience is complete.

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 2:9; 1 Peter 2:15; Hebrews 5:9

True Authority Comes from God

7 Do you look only on outward appearances? If anyone is convinced that he belongs to Christ, let him remind himself that just as he is Christ's, so also are we.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 16:7; John 7:24; Galatians 3:29

8 For even if I boast somewhat freely about the authority the Lord gave us—for building you up, not for tearing you down—I will not be ashamed.

9 I do not want to seem as though I am trying to frighten you with my letters.

Commending Ourselves Only in the Lord

12 For we dare not classify or compare ourselves with some who commend themselves. When they measure themselves by one another and compare themselves with themselves, they are without understanding.

Cross References: Proverbs 27:2; Luke 18:11; Romans 12:3

13 But we will not boast beyond proper limits, but only within the field of service God has assigned to us—a field that extends even to you.

- Spiritual battles require spiritual weapons. Arguments, pride, and lies must be destroyed by truth and prayer, not worldly means.
- Every thought must be brought into submission to Christ. True victory begins in the mind.
- Authority in the church is for building up, not tearing down. Leaders are given power to edify, not to dominate.
- Self-commendation is empty. True approval comes only from the Lord, not from human comparisons.
- Boasting belongs to God alone. All victories, growth, and ministry fruit must be credited to Him.

Introduction to the Book of Galatians

“It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery.” – Galatians 5:1

Title and Meaning

The book of Galatians is a letter written by the apostle Paul to the churches in the region of Galatia (modern-day central Turkey). Its title reflects its audience, the Galatian believers who were struggling with false teachings. This epistle has often been called the “Magna Carta of Christian liberty” because Paul fiercely defends the gospel of grace against legalism.

Author and Date

The apostle Paul is the author (Galatians 1:1). He wrote this letter around AD 48–49 (if addressing the southern Galatian churches founded on his first missionary journey) or AD 55 (if addressing northern Galatia). Many scholars lean toward the earlier date, making Galatians possibly Paul’s earliest letter.

Purpose of Galatians

Paul wrote Galatians to address a serious crisis: false teachers (often called Judaizers) were insisting that Gentile believers must follow Jewish law, including circumcision, to be saved. Paul responds with passion and urgency:

- To defend the true gospel of salvation by grace through faith alone.
- To affirm his apostleship and the divine origin of his message.
- To show that the law cannot justify and that faith in Christ is sufficient.
- To call believers to live by the Spirit and not under bondage to the law.

Structure of Galatians

The letter moves from personal testimony to theological argument to practical application: 1.

Defense of Paul’s Apostleship (Chs. 1–2) Paul defends his calling and message, showing they came directly from Christ.

- 2. Justification by Faith, Not Law (Chs. 3–4) Paul explains that salvation is by faith, using Abraham as an example, and that believers are no longer slaves but children of God. 3. Freedom in Christ and Life in the Spirit (Chs. 5–6) Paul exhorts the Galatians to stand firm in liberty, live by the Spirit, and bear one another’s burdens.

Major Themes

- Justification by Faith – We are made right with God through faith, not works of the law.
- Freedom in Christ – Believers are free from the bondage of legalism.
- The Role of the Law – The law exposes sin but cannot save; it points us to Christ.
- Life in the Spirit – The Spirit produces the fruit of godly character in believers.

- The Universality of the Gospel – In Christ, there is neither Jew nor Gentile, slave nor free, male nor female (Galatians 3:28).

Why Galatians Matters Today

Galatians is a timeless defense of the pure gospel. In every generation, believers are tempted to add human rules, traditions, or works to the message of grace. Paul's words remind us that Christ's finished work is enough. Galatians calls us to live in the freedom Christ provides, walking by the Spirit, and producing fruit that reflects our new life.

Key Verse

"It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery." – Galatians 5:1 This verse captures the heartbeat of Galatians: freedom in Christ through the gospel of grace.

Key Lessons from Galatians 1

- There is only one gospel. Any distortion, no matter how impressive the messenger, is a curse rather than a blessing.
- Paul's calling was divine, not human. His authority and message came directly from Christ, not from tradition or men.
- God's grace transforms. The persecutor of the church became its boldest preacher because of God's sovereign calling.
- The gospel delivers us from the present evil age. Salvation is not just about forgiveness, but about freedom from this world's corruption.
- Our lives should glorify God. Paul's testimony caused others to worship God, and so should the transformation in every believer's life.

"Justified by Faith in Christ Alone"

Paul's Second Visit to Jerusalem

1 Then after fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and also took Titus with me.

Cross References: Acts 15:2; Acts 11:30; 2 Corinthians 8:23

2 I went up because of a revelation, and set before them the gospel that I proclaim among the Gentiles—but privately to those who seemed to be leaders—lest somehow I should be running or had run in vain.

Cross References: Acts 15:4; Galatians 1:11; Acts 15:12

3 Yet not even Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised.

Cross References: Acts 16:3; Titus 1:4; 2 Corinthians 2:13

4 But this occurred because of false brothers secretly brought in, who slipped in to spy out our freedom which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage.

Cross References: Acts 15:1; 2 Corinthians 11:26; Jude 1:4

5 To them we did not yield in submission even for a moment, so that the truth of the gospel might remain with you.

Cross References: Galatians 2:14; 2 Corinthians 4:2; Philippians 1:27

Accepted by the Apostles

6 But from those who seemed to be important—whatever they were makes no difference to me; God shows no partiality—those who seemed to be leaders added nothing to me.

Cross References: Romans 2:11; Acts 10:34; Deuteronomy 10:17

7 On the contrary, when they saw that the gospel to the uncircumcised had been entrusted to me, just as the gospel to the circumcised was to Peter—

Cross References: Acts 9:15; 1 Corinthians 9:17; Acts 15:7

8 for He who worked effectively in Peter for the apostleship to the circumcised also worked effectively in me toward the Gentiles—

Cross References: Romans 15:18; 1 Corinthians 15:10; Acts 13:2

9 when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace given to me, they gave Barnabas and me the right hand of fellowship, that we should go to the Gentiles and they to the circumcised.

Cross References: Acts 15:19; Acts 13:2; Acts 15:25

10 They only asked us to remember the poor—the very thing I was eager to do.

Cross References: Romans 15:26; 1 Corinthians 16:1; Acts 11:29

Paul Confronts Peter at Antioch

11 But when Peter came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he stood condemned.

Cross References: Acts 11:19; Acts 15:35; 1 Timothy 5:20

12 For before certain men came from James, he ate with the Gentiles; but when they came, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing those of the circumcision.

Cross References: Acts 10:28; Acts 11:2; Acts 15:5

13 And the rest of the Jews acted hypocritically along with him, so that even Barnabas was carried away by their hypocrisy.

Cross References: Acts 15:39; Luke 12:1; Matthew 23:28

14 But when I saw that they were not walking uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said to Peter before them all, “If you, being a Jew, live like the Gentiles and not like the Jews, why do you compel the Gentiles to live like Jews?”

Cross References: Acts 15:10; Galatians 6:12; Colossians 2:20

Justified by Faith in Christ

15 We who are Jews by birth, and not Gentile sinners,

Cross References: Philippians 3:5; Romans 2:17; Acts 22:3

16 know that a person is not justified by works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ. So we also have believed in Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the law, because by works of the law no flesh shall be justified.

Cross References: Romans 3:20; Romans 3:28; Ephesians 2:8

17 But if, while seeking to be justified in Christ, we ourselves are found to be sinners, is Christ then a servant of sin? Certainly not!

Cross References: Romans 6:1; Romans 3:4; Romans 6:15

18 For if I rebuild what I tore down, I prove myself to be a transgressor.

Cross References: Romans 7:6; Hebrews 10:26; 2 Peter 2:20

19 For through the law I died to the law, that I might live to God.

Cross References: Romans 7:4; Romans 6:14; Romans 7:6

20 I have been crucified with Christ; nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ lives in me. And the life I now live in the body I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me.

Cross References: Romans 6:6; Galatians 6:14; Philippians 1:21

21 I do not set aside the grace of God, for if righteousness comes through the law, then Christ died in vain.

Cross References: Romans 3:21; Hebrews 7:11; Romans 11:6

Key Lessons from Galatians 2

- The gospel must be defended. Paul refused to compromise with false teachers who sought to enslave believers under the law.
- Unity in Christ surpasses cultural divisions. The apostles affirmed Paul’s mission to the Gentiles, showing that the same gospel saves both Jew and Greek.
- Even leaders can stumble. Peter’s hypocrisy at Antioch shows that no one is above correction when the truth of the gospel is at stake.
- Justification is by faith alone. Works of the law cannot save; only faith in Christ makes us right with God.

- The Christian life is Christ-centered. Believers are crucified with Christ, and now live by His life and power working in them.
- Grace cannot be mixed with law. To add works to the gospel is to empty Christ's death of its meaning.

Galatians 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Justified by Faith, Not by the Law”

Bewitched by Legalism

1 O foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched you, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was clearly portrayed among you as crucified?

Cross References: Galatians 1:6; 1 Corinthians 1:23; Galatians 5:7

2 This only I want to learn from you: Did you receive the Spirit by works of the law, or by hearing with faith?

Cross References: Acts 10:44; Acts 19:2; Romans 10:17

3 Are you so foolish? Having begun by the Spirit, are you now being perfected by the flesh?

Cross References: Philippians 1:6; Philippians 3:3; Galatians 6:12

4 Have you suffered so many things in vain—if indeed it was in vain?

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 15:2; Hebrews 10:32; Galatians 4:11

5 He who supplies the Spirit to you and works miracles among you, does He do it by works of the law, or by hearing with faith?

Cross References: Acts 14:3; Hebrews 2:4; Romans 10:17

Abraham's Example of Faith

6 Just as Abraham “believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness,”

Cross References: Genesis 15:6; Romans 4:3; James 2:23

7 know then that those who are of faith are the children of Abraham.

Cross References: Romans 4:11; Romans 4:16; John 8:39

8 The Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, proclaimed the gospel beforehand to Abraham: “In you shall all nations be blessed.”

Cross References: Genesis 12:3; Genesis 18:18; Genesis 22:18

9 So then, those who are of faith are blessed with believing Abraham.

Cross References: Romans 4:16; Galatians 3:7; Romans 4:11

The Curse of the Law and the Blessing of Christ

10 For all who rely on works of the law are under a curse; for it is written, “Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all things written in the book of the law, to do them.”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 27:26; James 2:10; Romans 3:20

11 But it is evident that no one is justified before God by the law, for “The just shall live by faith.”

Cross References: Habakkuk 2:4; Romans 1:17; Hebrews 10:38

12 Yet the law is not of faith, but, “The man who does them shall live by them.”

Cross References: Leviticus 18:5; Romans 10:5; Ezekiel 20:11

13 Christ has redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us—for it is written, “Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree”—

Cross References: Deuteronomy 21:23; 2 Corinthians 5:21; 1 Peter 2:24

14 that the blessing of Abraham might come upon the Gentiles in Christ Jesus, that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

Cross References: Acts 2:39; Ephesians 1:13; Genesis 12:3

The Promise to Abraham and His Seed

15 Brethren, I speak in human terms: even with a man-made covenant, once it has been ratified, no one annuls or adds to it.

Cross References: Hebrews 9:17; Hebrews 6:16; Deuteronomy 4:2

16 Now to Abraham and his Seed were the promises made. He does not say, “and to seeds,” as of many, but as of one: “And to your Seed,” who is Christ.

Cross References: Genesis 12:7; Genesis 22:18; Genesis 17:7

17 And this I say: the law, which came 430 years later, does not annul the covenant previously confirmed by God, so as to make the promise void.

Cross References: Exodus 12:40; Genesis 15:13; Romans 4:14

18 For if the inheritance is of the law, it is no longer of promise; but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

Cross References: Romans 4:14; Romans 4:13; Genesis 17:5

The Purpose of the Law

19 What then is the purpose of the law? It was added because of transgressions, until the Seed should come to whom the promise was made. It was ordained through angels by the hand of a mediator.

Cross References: Romans 5:20; Acts 7:53; Deuteronomy 33:2

20 Now a mediator is not for one party only; but God is one.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 6:4; 1 Timothy 2:5; Job 9:33

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? Certainly not! For if a law had been given that could give life, righteousness would indeed have been by the law.

Cross References: Romans 8:3; Romans 7:12; Leviticus 18:5

22 But the Scripture has confined all under sin, so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.

Cross References: Romans 3:9; Romans 11:32; Romans 3:23

Faith Brings Sonship in Christ

23 Before faith came, we were kept under guard by the law, confined for the faith that was to be revealed.

Cross References: Romans 7:6; Galatians 4:3; Colossians 2:17

24 Therefore the law was our tutor to bring us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

Cross References: Romans 10:4; Colossians 2:17; Romans 3:20

25 But after faith has come, we are no longer under a tutor.

Cross References: Romans 6:14; Romans 7:6; Galatians 5:18

26 For you are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus.

Cross References: John 1:12; Romans 8:14; 1 John 3:1

27 For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ.

Cross References: Romans 6:3; Colossians 3:10; Ephesians 4:24

28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.

Cross References: Colossians 3:11; Romans 10:12; 1 Corinthians 12:13

29 And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

Cross References: Romans 8:17; Romans 4:13; Genesis 22:18

Key Lessons from Galatians 3

- Faith, not law, brings the Spirit. The Spirit is received through faith, not by legal observance.
- Abraham's faith is the model. True children of Abraham are those who trust God as he did.
- The law condemns, but Christ redeems. The law exposes sin and brings a curse, but Christ bore that curse on the cross.
- The promise is fulfilled in Christ. God's covenant with Abraham pointed to Jesus, the true Seed.
- The law was temporary. It served as a tutor to lead us to Christ, but now faith has come.
- Unity in Christ. In Him, all barriers of race, class, and gender are removed—we are one family.

- We are heirs of the promise. Believers in Christ inherit the blessings promised to Abraham.

Galatians 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“From Slaves to Sons: Heirs of the Promise”

From Servants to Sons

1 Now I say, that the heir, as long as he is a child, is no different from a servant, though he be lord of all.

Cross References: Romans 8:17; Galatians 3:29; Hebrews 1:2

2 But he is under tutors and guardians until the time appointed by the father.

Cross References: Galatians 3:24; Acts 1:7; Ephesians 1:10

3 Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elementary principles of the world.

Cross References: Colossians 2:8; Colossians 2:20; Galatians 4:9

4 But when the fullness of the time had come, God sent forth His Son, born of a woman, born under the law,

Cross References: Isaiah 7:14; Matthew 1:21; Luke 2:7

5 to redeem those who were under the law, that we might receive adoption as sons.

Cross References: Romans 8:15; Ephesians 1:5; Titus 2:14

6 And because you are sons, God has sent forth the Spirit of His Son into your hearts, crying out, “Abba, Father!”

Cross References: Romans 8:15; Romans 8:16; Mark 14:36

7 Therefore you are no longer a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

Turning Back to Bondage

8 However, when you did not know God, you served those which by nature are not gods.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 12:2; 1 Thessalonians 1:9; Romans 1:23

9 But now, after you have known God—or rather are known by God—why do you turn again to the weak and worthless principles, to which you desire again to be in bondage?

Cross References: Colossians 2:20; Hebrews 7:18; 2 Peter 2:20

10 You observe days and months and seasons and years.

Paul's Personal Appeal

12 Brethren, I urge you to become like me, for I became like you. You have not wronged me at all.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 9:20; 1 Corinthians 11:1; Philippians 3:17

13 You know that because of physical weakness I preached the gospel to you at first.

Cross References: Acts 16:6; 2 Corinthians 12:7; 1 Corinthians 2:3

14 And my trial which was in my flesh you did not despise nor reject, but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.

Cross References: Matthew 10:40; Luke 10:16; 2 Corinthians 12:7

15 Where then is the blessing you enjoyed? For I bear witness that, if possible, you would have plucked out your own eyes and given them to me.

Cross References: 1 Thessalonians 2:8; Romans 12:10; Philippians 1:8

16 Have I therefore become your enemy because I tell you the truth?

Cross References: Proverbs 27:6; 1 Kings 22:8; Amos 5:10

17 They zealously court you, but not for good; they want to exclude you, that you may be zealous for them.

Cross References: Matthew 23:15; Romans 16:18; 2 Corinthians 11:20

18 But it is good to be zealous in a good thing always, and not only when I am present with you.

Cross References: Titus 2:14; 1 Corinthians 15:58; Philippians 2:12

19 My little children, for whom I labor in birth again until Christ is formed in you,

The Allegory of Hagar and Sarah

21 Tell me, you who desire to be under the law, do you not hear the law?

Cross References: Romans 6:14; Romans 10:4; Romans 3:19

22 For it is written that Abraham had two sons: one by a bondwoman, and the other by a freewoman.

Cross References: Genesis 16:15; Genesis 21:2; Genesis 21:9

23 But he who was of the bondwoman was born according to the flesh, but he of the freewoman through promise.

Cross References: Genesis 16:15; Genesis 21:2; Romans 9:8

24 These things are symbolic: for these are the two covenants—the one from Mount Sinai which gives birth to bondage, which is Hagar.

Cross References: Genesis 16:15; Exodus 19:1; Hebrews 12:18

25 For this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and corresponds to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.

Cross References: Exodus 19:1; Nehemiah 9:36; Isaiah 1:8

26 But the Jerusalem above is free, and she is the mother of us all.

Cross References: Hebrews 12:22; Revelation 21:2; Philippians 3:20

27 For it is written: “Rejoice, O barren, you who do not bear! Break forth and shout, you who are not in labor! For the desolate has many more children than she who has a husband.”

Cross References: Isaiah 54:1; Isaiah 54:2; Isaiah 54:3

28 Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are children of promise.

Cross References: Romans 9:7; Romans 9:8; Genesis 21:12

29 But as he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, even so it is now.

Cross References: Genesis 21:9; 1 John 3:12; 2 Timothy 3:12

30 Nevertheless what does the Scripture say? “Cast out the bondwoman and her son, for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman.”

Cross References: Genesis 21:10; Genesis 21:12; Genesis 17:19

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman but of the free.

Cross References: Galatians 4:26; Romans 8:15; John 8:36

Key Lessons from Galatians 4

- We are sons, not slaves. In Christ, God adopts us into His family and gives us the Spirit who cries, “Abba, Father.”
- Do not return to bondage. Observing rituals and traditions as a means of righteousness enslaves us again.
- Faith over flesh. Like Isaac, we are children of promise—not born of human effort but of God’s Spirit.
- Freedom in Christ. Hagar and Sarah illustrate two covenants: bondage under law and freedom under grace. Believers belong to the Jerusalem above—the free city of God.
- Christ formed in us. Paul’s heart for the Galatians was not just that they believed, but that Christ would be fully formed in their lives.
- The inheritance belongs to the free. Only those in Christ inherit the promises of God.

Galatians 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

4 You who seek to be justified by the law have been cut off from Christ; you have fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.

Cross References: Romans 8:24; Romans 8:25; Titus 2:13

12 I wish those who unsettle you would even cut themselves off!

Cross References: Philippians 3:2; Deuteronomy 23:1; Acts 15:1

14 For the whole law is fulfilled in one word: “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.”

Walk in the Spirit

16 I say then: Walk in the Spirit, and you will not fulfill the desires of the flesh.

Cross References: Romans 8:4; Romans 13:14; 1 Peter 2:11

17 For the flesh desires what is contrary to the Spirit, and the Spirit what is contrary to the flesh; these are opposed to each other, so that you do not do the things that you wish.

The Fruit of the Spirit

22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness,

23 gentleness, and self-control. Against such things there is no law.

Cross References: 2 Peter 1:6; Titus 2:12; 1 Timothy 4:12

24 And those who belong to Christ have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires.

26 Let us not become conceited, provoking one another, envying one another.

Cross References: Philippians 2:3; James 3:16; 1 Corinthians 13:4

Key Lessons from Galatians 5

- Christ brings true freedom. We are not saved by works of the law but by grace through faith.
- Faith works through love. Genuine faith expresses itself not in ritual but in selfless service to others.
- The Spirit versus the flesh. The Christian life is a battle between the old sinful nature and the new life in the Spirit.
- The danger of false teaching. A little error spreads quickly, just like yeast in dough—believers must guard the truth of the gospel.
- The fruit of the Spirit defines maturity. Love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control are the marks of a Spirit-filled life.
- Crucify the flesh. To belong to Christ is to put to death sinful passions and to walk daily in step with the Spirit.

Galatians 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

Key Lessons from Galatians 6

- Restore with gentleness. Spiritual maturity is shown not in pride but in humility when helping others overcome sin.
- Bear one another's burdens. Christians are called to carry each other's struggles, reflecting Christ's own compassion.
- The law of sowing and reaping is unbreakable. Our choices—whether to the flesh or the Spirit—determine the harvest of our lives.
- Persevere in doing good. Weariness will come, but God promises a reward for those who remain faithful.
- Boast only in the cross. True glory is not in religious rituals or human approval but in the saving work of Christ alone.
- New creation over old identity. What matters most is not external signs but being transformed by the Spirit into a new creation in Christ.

Introduction to the Book of Ephesians

“For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, not of works, lest anyone should boast.” – Ephesians 2:8–9

Title and Meaning

The book of Ephesians is a letter written by the apostle Paul to the believers in the city of Ephesus, a major port and cultural center in Asia Minor (modern-day Turkey). Though some manuscripts suggest it may have been a circular letter intended for several churches, its title reflects the Ephesian audience. Ephesians is often called the “Queen of the Epistles” because of its majestic themes, showing the believer’s position in Christ and the practical walk that flows from it.

Author and Date

The apostle Paul is the author (Ephesians 1:1). He wrote this letter while under house arrest in Rome, around AD 60–62, making it one of the “Prison Epistles” (along with Philippians, Colossians, and Philemon).

Purpose of Ephesians

Paul wrote Ephesians to strengthen and encourage believers by showing them the riches of God’s grace and their spiritual identity in Christ. His purposes include:

- To teach believers about their position and blessings in Christ.
- To emphasize the unity of Jews and Gentiles in one body, the church.
- To encourage holy living as a response to God’s grace.
- To instruct on spiritual warfare and the armor of God.

Structure of Ephesians

The letter divides neatly into two halves—doctrine (what God has done) and duty (how we should live): 1. The Believer’s Position in Christ (Chs. 1–3) God’s eternal plan, spiritual blessings in Christ, salvation by grace, and unity of Jew and Gentile in the church.

- 2. The Believer’s Practice in Christ (Chs. 4–6) Instructions for walking in love, holiness, unity, marriage, family, work, and spiritual warfare.

Major Themes

- Union with Christ – Every blessing is found in Christ, and believers share in His victory.
- Grace and Salvation – Salvation is a gift of God, received through faith, not earned by works.
- The Church as Christ’s Body – The unity of believers in one body, regardless of background.
- Holy Living – Believers are called to walk in love, purity, and wisdom.
- Spiritual Warfare – The armor of God equips believers to stand firm against the enemy.

Why Ephesians Matters Today

Ephesians gives believers a clear picture of who they are in Christ and how to live in that reality. In a world filled with division and confusion, Paul's letter reminds us that we are chosen, redeemed, and sealed by the Spirit. It also equips us to live faithfully in our relationships, in the church, and in the midst of spiritual battles.

Key Verse

“For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, not of works, lest anyone should boast.” – Ephesians 2:8–9 This verse captures the heart of Ephesians: salvation is God's gift, not our achievement, and our new life flows out of His grace.

3 All of us once lived this way, following the cravings of our sinful nature and thoughts. By nature, we were children of wrath, just like everyone else.

4 But God is so rich in mercy, and He loved us so much,

Cross References: Titus 3:5; Romans 5:8; 1 John 4:10

5 that even though we were dead because of our sins, He gave us life when He raised Christ from the dead. It is only by God's grace that you are saved!

Gifts for Building the Church

7 To each of us grace has been given as Christ apportioned it.

Cross References: Romans 12:3; 1 Corinthians 12:11; 1 Peter 4:10

8 That is why the Scripture says: “When He ascended on high, He led a crowd of captives and gave gifts to His people.”

9 (What does “He ascended” mean except that He also descended to the lower, earthly regions?

11 So Christ gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the pastors, and the teachers,

12 to equip God’s people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up,

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 12:7; Colossians 2:19; 1 Peter 4:10

13 until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God, becoming mature, measuring up to the fullness of Christ.

18 Their minds are darkened; they are separated from the life of God because of their ignorance and hardened hearts.

Introduction to the Book of Philippians

“For to me, living means living for Christ, and dying is even better.” – Philippians 1:21

Title and Meaning

The book of Philippians is Paul’s letter to the church in Philippi, a Roman colony in Macedonia (modern-day northern Greece). Its title reflects its recipients, the Philippian believers. Known as Paul’s most joyful letter, Philippians emphasizes rejoicing in the Lord regardless of circumstances. It is often called the “Epistle of Joy,” even though Paul wrote it while imprisoned.

Author and Date

The apostle Paul is the author (Philippians 1:1). He wrote this letter around AD 60–62 during his first Roman imprisonment, making it one of the “Prison Epistles” (alongside Ephesians, Colossians, and Philemon). The church at Philippi was the first church Paul founded in Europe (Acts 16:11–40), and his deep affection for them is evident throughout the letter.

Purpose of Philippians

Paul wrote Philippians with several key purposes:

- To thank the Philippians for their financial support and partnership in the gospel.
- To encourage unity and humility in the church, following the example of Christ.
- To remind believers to rejoice in the Lord despite trials.
- To warn against false teachers and urge perseverance in the faith.
- To encourage the Philippians to press on toward spiritual maturity.

Structure of Philippians

The letter is warm and personal, blending thanksgiving, exhortation, and encouragement: 1.

Thanksgiving and Joy in Partnership (Ch. 1) Paul thanks the Philippians for their support and encourages them to stand firm in the gospel.

- 2. Unity and Humility in Christ (Ch. 2) The famous “Christ Hymn” (2:5–11) portrays Jesus’ humility and exaltation as the model for believers. 3. Warning Against False Teaching (Ch. 3) Paul contrasts confidence in the flesh with the surpassing worth of knowing Christ. 4.

Encouragement and Contentment (Ch. 4) Paul exhorts believers to rejoice always, be anxious for nothing, and find contentment in Christ.

Major Themes

- Joy in Christ – True joy is found in knowing and serving Jesus.
- Unity Through Humility – Believers are called to put others first, following Christ’s example.
- Christ as the Center of Life – Living is Christ, dying is gain.
- Contentment in All Circumstances – Strength comes from Christ, not circumstances.

- Partnership in the Gospel – Believers share together in the mission of spreading the gospel.

Why Philippians Matters Today

Philippians reminds us that joy is not dependent on external circumstances but on our relationship with Christ. In times of trial, stress, or uncertainty, this letter calls us to rejoice in the Lord, pursue unity, and live with Christ at the center of everything. Its message of joy, humility, and perseverance continues to encourage Christians around the world.

Key Verse

“For to me, living means living for Christ, and dying is even better.” – Philippians 1:21 This verse captures the heart of Philippians: Christ is our life, our joy, and our ultimate gain.

13 As a result, my imprisonment for Christ has become known throughout the whole palace guard and to everyone else.

15 It is true that some preach Christ out of envy and rivalry, but others do so out of goodwill.

23 I am torn between the two: I desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better;

24 but it is more necessary for you that I remain in the body.

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 1:6; Romans 1:11; 2 Corinthians 4:15

25 Convinced of this, I know that I will stay and continue with all of you for your progress and joy in the faith,

Standing Firm in the Gospel

“The Mind of Christ”

Unity and Humility

1 If you have any encouragement from being united with Christ, any comfort from His love, any fellowship with the Spirit, any tenderness and compassion,

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 13:14; Colossians 3:12; 1 John 1:3

2 then make my joy complete by being of the same mind, having the same love, being united in spirit and purpose.

Cross References: Romans 15:5; 1 Corinthians 1:10; John 17:21

3 Do nothing out of selfish ambition or empty pride. Instead, in humility, value others above yourselves.

Cross References: Romans 12:10; Galatians 5:26; 1 Peter 5:5

4 Do not look only to your own interests, but also to the interests of others.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 10:24; Romans 15:2; 1 Corinthians 13:5

5 Let this same mindset be in you that was in Christ Jesus:

Cross References: Romans 15:5; Matthew 11:29; 1 Peter 2:21

6 Though He was in the very nature of God, He did not consider equality with God something to cling to.

Cross References: John 1:1; Colossians 1:15; Hebrews 1:3

7 Instead, He emptied Himself, taking the nature of a servant, being made in human likeness.

Cross References: John 1:14; 2 Corinthians 8:9; Romans 8:3

8 And being found in human form, He humbled Himself by becoming obedient to death—even death on a cross.

Cross References: Hebrews 5:8; Isaiah 53:7; Galatians 3:13

9 Therefore God exalted Him to the highest place and gave Him the name above every name,

Cross References: Acts 2:33; Ephesians 1:21; Hebrews 1:4

10 that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow—in heaven, on earth, and under the earth—

Cross References: Isaiah 45:23; Romans 14:11; Revelation 5:13

11 and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Cross References: Romans 10:9; 1 Corinthians 12:3; John 13:13

Shining as Lights in the World

12 Therefore, my beloved, just as you have always obeyed—not only in my presence, but much more in my absence—continue to work out your salvation with fear and trembling.

Cross References: Psalm 2:11; 2 Peter 1:10; Hebrews 12:28

13 For it is God who works in you, giving you both the desire and the ability to do what pleases Him.

14 Do everything without grumbling or arguing,

15 so that you may be blameless and pure, children of God without fault in a crooked and corrupt generation, among whom you shine like stars in the world,

Cross References: Matthew 5:16; Daniel 12:3; Ephesians 5:8

16 holding firmly to the word of life. Then I will be able to boast on the day of Christ that I did not run or labor in vain.

Cross References: Galatians 2:2; 1 Corinthians 9:24; 2 Timothy 4:7

17 Even if I am being poured out like a drink offering on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I am glad and rejoice with you all.

18 So you too should be glad and rejoice with me.

19 I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, that I may be encouraged when I hear about you.

20 I have no one else like him, who genuinely cares for your welfare.

21 For everyone looks out for their own interests, not those of Jesus Christ.

Cross References: 2 Timothy 4:10; 1 Corinthians 10:24; 2 Timothy 4:16

22 But you know Timothy's proven character. Like a son with his father, he has served with me in the work of the gospel.

23 I hope to send him soon, as soon as I see how things go with me.

24 And I trust in the Lord that I myself will also come soon.

Cross References: Philemon 1:22; 1 Corinthians 16:5; Romans 15:24

25 But I thought it necessary to send back to you Epaphroditus—my brother, coworker, fellow soldier, your messenger, who also ministered to my needs.

26 He longs for all of you and is distressed because you heard he was ill.

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 1:10; James 5:15; 2 Kings 20:5

28 Therefore I am all the more eager to send him, so that when you see him again you may rejoice, and I may be less anxious.

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 7:7; 2 Corinthians 2:13; Romans 15:32

29 Welcome him in the Lord with great joy, and honor people like him,

30 because he nearly died for the work of Christ, risking his life to make up for the help you could not give me.

Cross References: Acts 15:26; Romans 16:4; 1 Corinthians 15:30

Key Lessons from Philippians 2

- Christ is exalted. Every knee will bow and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord.
- God works in us. He gives us both the will and the strength to do what pleases Him.
- Shine like stars. Believers are called to live pure, blameless lives that shine in a dark world.

- Rejoice in sacrifice. Even in suffering and service, joy remains when it is for Christ.

Introduction to the Book of Colossians

“Christ is the visible image of the invisible God. He existed before anything was created and is supreme over all creation.” – Colossians 1:15

Title and Meaning

The book of Colossians is a letter written by Paul to the believers in the city of Colossae, a small town in Asia Minor (modern-day Turkey). Its title reflects its recipients, the Colossian Christians. Colossians highlights the supremacy and sufficiency of Christ, reminding believers that Jesus is above all powers, philosophies, and traditions. It is often considered Paul’s most Christ-centered letter, focusing on the absolute lordship of Jesus.

Author and Date

The apostle Paul is the author (Colossians 1:1), with Timothy listed as a co-sender. Paul likely wrote this letter around AD 60–62 during his first Roman imprisonment, making it one of the “Prison Epistles” (along with Ephesians, Philippians, and Philemon). Paul had never visited Colossae personally; the church was likely founded by Epaphras, one of Paul’s co-workers (Colossians 1:7–8).

Purpose of Colossians

Paul wrote Colossians to address false teachings that threatened the church, which blended Jewish legalism, Greek philosophy, and mystical practices. His purposes were:

- To proclaim the supremacy of Christ over all creation and spiritual powers.
- To warn against false teaching and human traditions that diminish Christ.
- To affirm that believers are complete in Christ, lacking nothing.
- To encourage holy living as a response to new life in Christ.

Structure of Colossians

The letter moves from doctrine (Christ’s supremacy) to practice (Christian living): 1. The Supremacy of Christ (Chs. 1–2) Christ is the image of God, the head of the church, and the source of reconciliation. Paul warns against false philosophies and insists Christ is all-sufficient.

- 2. New Life in Christ (Chs. 3–4) Believers are called to put off the old self, put on the new, live in love and holiness, and devote themselves to prayer and mission.

Major Themes

- Christ’s Supremacy – Jesus is Lord over all creation, powers, and authorities.
- The Fullness of Christ – In Him dwells all the fullness of God, and believers are complete in Him.
- Warning Against False Teaching – Human traditions, empty philosophies, and legalism cannot save.
- New Life in Christ – Believers are called to holiness, love, and unity in the body of Christ.

- Prayer and Mission – Devotion to prayer and bold witness are essential to Christian living.

Why Colossians Matters Today

Colossians speaks powerfully to a modern world filled with competing worldviews, philosophies, and spiritual confusion. It reminds us that Christ is enough—He is Lord, Savior, and King. Believers do not need to seek fullness in rituals, traditions, or human wisdom; fullness is found in Christ alone. This letter calls us to live out our identity in Him with confidence and holiness.

Key Verse

“Christ is the visible image of the invisible God. He existed before anything was created and is supreme over all creation.” – Colossians 1:15 This verse captures the heart of Colossians: Jesus is supreme, all-sufficient, and the center of all things.

Introduction to the Book of 1 Thessalonians

“For the Lord himself will come down from heaven with a commanding shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet call of God. First, the Christians who have died will rise from their graves.” – 1 Thessalonians 4:16

Title and Meaning

The book of 1 Thessalonians is a letter written by Paul to the church in Thessalonica, the capital of Macedonia in northern Greece. Its title reflects its recipients—the Thessalonian believers. This is one of Paul’s earliest letters, full of encouragement, instruction, and hope. Above all, it emphasizes the return of Christ, making it one of the most hope-filled letters of the New Testament.

Author and Date

The apostle Paul is the author (1 Thessalonians 1:1), with Silas and Timothy listed as co-senders. He wrote it around AD 50–51, during his second missionary journey, likely from Corinth (Acts 18:1–5). This makes 1 Thessalonians possibly Paul’s earliest surviving letter.

Purpose of 1 Thessalonians

Paul wrote to strengthen and encourage the new believers who were facing persecution. His purposes include:

- To commend the Thessalonians for their faith, love, and hope in Christ.
- To remind them of how he ministered among them with sincerity and gentleness.
- To encourage holy living and sexual purity in a pagan culture.
- To comfort them concerning believers who had died, assuring them of the resurrection.
- To instruct them about the second coming of Christ.

Structure of 1 Thessalonians

The letter is pastoral and practical, filled with encouragement and teaching: 1. Thanksgiving for the Thessalonians’ Faith (Ch. 1) Paul rejoices in their example of faith, love, and hope.

- 2. Paul’s Ministry Among Them (Chs. 2–3) Paul recalls his ministry, defends his sincerity, and expresses his longing to see them again. 3. Instructions for Holy Living (Ch. 4:1–12) Paul urges them to live in purity, love one another, and work diligently. 4. The Coming of the Lord (Ch. 4:13–5:11) Paul comforts them with the hope of resurrection and teaches about Christ’s return. 5. Final Exhortations and Benediction (Ch. 5:12–28) Practical commands for community life, prayer, discernment, and faithfulness.

Major Themes

- Faith, Love, and Hope – The core of Christian life, seen in the Thessalonians’ witness.
- Encouragement in Persecution – God strengthens His people in trials.
- Holiness in Daily Living – Believers are called to purity and diligence.

- The Return of Christ – Jesus will come again, raising the dead and bringing final victory.
- Comfort and Hope – The resurrection assures believers of eternal life together with the Lord.

Why 1 Thessalonians Matters Today

1 Thessalonians reminds believers that the Christian life is not easy, but it is filled with hope. In times of persecution, grief, or uncertainty, this letter points us to the certainty of Christ's return. It encourages us to remain steadfast, live holy lives, and look forward to the day when we will be with the Lord forever.

Cross References: Acts 16:23; Philippians 1:30; Acts 4:29

3 Our appeal does not come from error or impure motives, nor are we trying to trick you.

5 You know we never used flattery, nor did we put on a mask to cover greed—God is our witness.

7 Instead, we were gentle among you, like a nursing mother caring for her children.

Cross References: Isaiah 49:15; Numbers 11:12; Galatians 4:19

Cross References: Galatians 1:12; John 17:8; 2 Peter 1:21

“But the Lord is faithful; he will strengthen you and guard you from the evil one.” – 2 Thessalonians 3:3

Title and Meaning

The book of 2 Thessalonians is Paul’s second letter to the church in Thessalonica. Its title reflects its recipients—the Thessalonian believers. While 1 Thessalonians emphasizes encouragement and hope in Christ’s return, 2 Thessalonians provides correction and clarification about the timing of the Lord’s coming, urging believers to remain steadfast in faith and not be deceived.

Author and Date

The apostle Paul is the author (2 Thessalonians 1:1), with Silas and Timothy again listed as co-senders. He likely wrote this letter just a few months after 1 Thessalonians, around AD 51–52, during his stay in Corinth on his second missionary journey (Acts 18:1–5).

Purpose of 2 Thessalonians

Paul wrote to address confusion and false teaching about the second coming of Christ. His purposes include:

- To encourage the believers to stand firm amid persecution.
- To correct misunderstandings about the day of the Lord, assuring them it had not yet come.
- To warn against idleness and urge diligence in work and daily life.
- To remind them of God’s justice in repaying affliction to those who trouble His people.
- To call them to perseverance and prayerful dependence on God.

Structure of 2 Thessalonians

This letter is shorter than the first but more urgent in tone: 1. Encouragement in Persecution (Ch. 1)

Paul praises their growing faith and assures them of God’s justice and Christ’s return.

- 2. Clarification About the Day of the Lord (Ch. 2) Paul explains that certain events must occur before Christ’s return, including the rise of the “man of lawlessness.”
- 3. Instructions for Daily Living (Ch. 3) Paul warns against idleness, commands believers to work diligently, and closes with prayer and blessing.

Major Themes

- God’s Faithfulness – The Lord strengthens and protects His people.
- Perseverance in Trials – Suffering is not meaningless but points to future glory.
- The Day of the Lord – Christ’s return will be unmistakable and accompanied by judgment.
- The Man of Lawlessness – A future figure of rebellion who exalts himself against God.
- Discipline and Diligence – Believers are called to productive lives, not laziness.

Why 2 Thessalonians Matters Today

2 Thessalonians speaks directly to a world filled with confusion, fear, and deception. It reminds us that God is faithful, even in suffering, and that His timing is perfect. The letter also warns believers not to be misled by false teachings or idle living but to stand firm in Christ while waiting for His return. Its message is one of endurance, faith, and vigilance.

Key Verse

“But the Lord is faithful; he will strengthen you and guard you from the evil one.” – 2 Thessalonians 3:3 This verse captures the essence of 2 Thessalonians: God’s faithfulness is the believer’s anchor in times of trial, deception, and waiting.

Introduction to the Book of 1 Timothy

“This is a trustworthy saying, and everyone should accept it: ‘Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners’—and I am the worst of them all.” – 1 Timothy 1:15

Title and Meaning

The book of 1 Timothy is a pastoral letter written by Paul to his young co-worker and spiritual son, Timothy. Its title reflects its recipient—Timothy, who was serving as a leader in the church at Ephesus. Unlike Paul’s earlier letters written to congregations, 1 Timothy is personal and instructional, offering guidance for church leadership, sound doctrine, and godly living.

Author and Date

The apostle Paul is the author (1 Timothy 1:1–2). He likely wrote this letter around AD 63–65, after his first Roman imprisonment and before his final imprisonment. Timothy, whose mother was Jewish and father Greek (Acts 16:1), had traveled with Paul extensively and was entrusted with overseeing the Ephesian church.

Purpose of 1 Timothy

Paul wrote 1 Timothy to provide practical guidance for Timothy in leading the Ephesian church. His purposes include:

- To warn against false teachers and uphold sound doctrine.
- To give instructions for church organization, including elders and deacons.
- To encourage Timothy to be an example in speech, conduct, love, faith, and purity.
- To emphasize the centrality of prayer and the importance of godliness.
- To remind believers that the church is the household of God, called to reflect His truth.

Structure of 1 Timothy

The letter combines doctrinal teaching with practical church instruction: 1. Warnings Against False Teachers (Ch. 1) Paul charges Timothy to defend the gospel against error.

- 2. Instructions for Worship and Leadership (Chs. 2–3) Guidelines for prayer, conduct in worship, and qualifications for elders and deacons. 3. Warnings and Encouragement for Timothy (Chs. 4–6) Exhortations to godliness, perseverance, proper handling of wealth, and faithful ministry.

Major Themes

- Sound Doctrine – Truth must be guarded against false teaching.
- Leadership in the Church – Elders and deacons must meet high spiritual standards.
- Godliness and Holiness – Believers are called to live lives of integrity and devotion.
- The Gospel of Grace – Christ came to save sinners, and His mercy is greater than our sin.

- Perseverance in Ministry – Leaders must be faithful, courageous, and Christ-centered.

Why 1 Timothy Matters Today

1 Timothy reminds us that the church must stand firmly on the truth of God’s Word. In an age of confusion and compromise, this letter underscores the importance of sound doctrine, godly leadership, and holy living. It challenges pastors, teachers, and all believers to remain faithful, fight the good fight, and live as examples of Christ in a watching world.

Key Verse

“This is a trustworthy saying, and everyone should accept it: ‘Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners’—and I am the worst of them all.” – 1 Timothy 1:15 This verse captures the heart of 1 Timothy: the gospel of grace is the foundation of faith and ministry.

Warning Against False Teachers

3 As I urged you when I went into Macedonia, stay there in Ephesus so that you may command certain people not to teach false doctrines any longer,
Cross References: Acts 20:29; Titus 1:11; 2 Timothy 4:3

4 or devote themselves to myths and endless genealogies. Such things cause arguments rather than the work of God, which is by faith.

5 The goal of this command is love, which comes from a pure heart, a good conscience, and sincere faith.

6 Some have departed from these and turned to meaningless talk.

The Proper Use of the Law

8 We know that the law is good if one uses it properly.

Cross References: Romans 7:12; Romans 3:31; Galatians 3:24

9 We also know that the law is made not for the righteous but for lawbreakers and rebels, the ungodly and sinful, the unholy and irreligious, for those who kill their fathers or mothers, for murderers,

10 for the sexually immoral, for those who practice homosexuality, for slave traders, liars, and perjurers—and for whatever else is contrary to sound doctrine.

11 This is in keeping with the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which He entrusted to me.

Cross References: Philippians 4:13; 2 Timothy 1:12; 1 Corinthians 15:10

13 Even though I was once a blasphemer, persecutor, and violent man, I was shown mercy because I acted in ignorance and unbelief.

14 The grace of our Lord was poured out on me abundantly, along with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus.

15 Here is a trustworthy saying that deserves full acceptance: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners—of whom I am the worst.

Cross References: Luke 19:10; Matthew 1:21; Luke 5:32

16 But for that very reason I was shown mercy, so that in me, the worst of sinners, Christ Jesus might display His immense patience as an example for those who would believe in Him and receive eternal life.

18 Timothy, my son, I am giving you this command in keeping with the prophecies once made about you, so that by recalling them you may fight the good fight,

Cross References: Acts 16:2; 2 Timothy 4:7; 2 Timothy 1:6

19 holding on to faith and a good conscience, which some have rejected and so have suffered shipwreck with regard to the faith.

Cross References: 2 Timothy 2:18; Hebrews 10:22; 1 Corinthians 9:27

20 Among them are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have handed over to Satan to be taught not to blaspheme.

Cross References: 2 Timothy 2:17; 2 Timothy 4:14; 1 Corinthians 5:5

Introduction to the Book of 2 Timothy

“I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, and I have remained faithful.” – 2 Timothy 4:7

Title and Meaning

The book of 2 Timothy is Paul’s second and final letter to his beloved protégé, Timothy. Its title reflects its recipient, Timothy, who was serving as a leader in Ephesus. Unlike Paul’s other letters, this one is intensely personal, written from prison as Paul faced imminent death. It is often called Paul’s “farewell letter” and provides encouragement for faithful endurance in ministry.

Author and Date

The apostle Paul is the author (2 Timothy 1:1). He wrote it around AD 66–67, during his second Roman imprisonment, shortly before his martyrdom under Emperor Nero. This makes 2 Timothy the last letter Paul wrote that we have preserved. His words carry the weight of a spiritual father passing on his final instructions to his son in the faith.

Purpose of 2 Timothy

Paul wrote to encourage Timothy to remain faithful despite opposition and suffering. His purposes include:

- To strengthen Timothy in boldness, endurance, and faithfulness to Christ.
- To warn against false teaching and urge Timothy to guard the truth.
- To encourage Timothy to preach the Word in season and out of season.
- To prepare Timothy for hardship, reminding him that suffering is part of following Christ.
- To pass on Paul’s legacy of unwavering devotion to Christ, even unto death.

Structure of 2 Timothy

The letter blends encouragement, warnings, and Paul’s personal reflections: 1. A Call to Courage (Ch. 1) Paul urges Timothy not to be ashamed of the gospel but to guard the truth with the Spirit’s help.

- 2. A Call to Endurance (Ch. 2) Paul uses images of a soldier, athlete, and farmer to illustrate perseverance in ministry.
- 3. A Warning Against False Teaching (Ch. 3) Paul warns of godlessness in the last days and urges Timothy to remain grounded in Scripture.
- 4. A Charge to Preach and Paul’s Farewell (Ch. 4) Paul solemnly charges Timothy to preach the Word faithfully and reflects on his own race of faith nearing its end.

Major Themes

- Faithfulness in Ministry – Leaders must remain true to the gospel despite hardship.
- Endurance in Suffering – Following Christ often means suffering, but God gives strength.
- The Power of Scripture – God’s Word equips believers for every good work (2 Timothy 3:16–17).

- Passing the Torch – Paul entrusts the mission of the gospel to the next generation.
- Hope in Eternity – Paul faces death with confidence in God’s reward.

Why 2 Timothy Matters Today

2 Timothy speaks directly to Christians living in a world of opposition and spiritual decline. It reminds us that following Christ requires courage, endurance, and faithfulness. For pastors, teachers, and every believer, it is a call to hold fast to the truth, proclaim the gospel boldly, and finish the race well. Paul’s final words inspire us to live with eternity in view.

Key Verse

“I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, and I have remained faithful.” – 2 Timothy 4:7
This verse captures the heart of 2 Timothy: a life of perseverance and faithfulness that ends in eternal victory with Christ.

Introduction to the Book of Titus

“He saved us, not because of the righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He washed away our sins, giving us a new birth and new life through the Holy Spirit.” – Titus 3:5

Title and Meaning

The book of Titus is a pastoral letter from Paul to Titus, his trusted companion and co-laborer in the gospel. Its title reflects its recipient, Titus, who was serving as Paul’s representative on the island of Crete. This short but powerful letter emphasizes the importance of sound doctrine and godly living, especially for church leaders. It is sometimes called a “handbook for church organization and Christian conduct.”

Author and Date

The apostle Paul is the author (Titus 1:1). He likely wrote this letter around AD 63–65, after his first Roman imprisonment, during his continued missionary work. Titus, a Gentile convert (Galatians 2:3), had traveled with Paul extensively and was entrusted with the difficult task of organizing and strengthening the Cretan churches.

Purpose of Titus

Paul wrote to equip Titus with guidance for leading the churches in Crete. His purposes include:

- To instruct Titus on appointing qualified elders in every city.
- To warn against false teachers and divisive influences.
- To emphasize the connection between sound doctrine and godly living.
- To remind believers that salvation is by God’s mercy, not by works.
- To encourage Christians to live in good works as a witness to the world.

Structure of Titus

The letter is practical and concise, focused on leadership, teaching, and conduct: 1. Leadership and Sound Doctrine (Ch. 1) Qualifications for elders and warnings against false teachers.

- 2. Godly Living for All Believers (Ch. 2) Instructions for older men and women, young men, and slaves, with Christ as the example of grace.
- 3. The Gospel and Good Works (Ch. 3) A reminder of salvation by grace and the call to live in obedience and good deeds.

Major Themes

- Sound Doctrine – Truth must be taught, believed, and lived out.
- Qualified Leadership – Elders must be men of integrity and spiritual maturity.
- Grace and Godliness – God’s grace saves us and empowers holy living.
- Good Works – Believers demonstrate their faith through lives of service and obedience.
- The Church’s Witness – The way Christians live affects how the world views the gospel.

Why Titus Matters Today

Titus reminds us that faith and practice cannot be separated. The gospel saves us by grace, but it also calls us to holy living and good works as evidence of God's transforming power. In a world full of false teaching and moral confusion, Titus provides timeless guidance for church leadership, doctrinal clarity, and Christian living that shines as a light to the world.

Key Verse

"He saved us, not because of the righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He washed away our sins, giving us a new birth and new life through the Holy Spirit." – Titus 3:5 This verse captures the heart of Titus: salvation is by grace alone, leading to transformed lives that glorify God.

The Appointment of Elders

5 The reason I left you in Crete was so that you might put in order what was left unfinished and appoint elders in every town, as I directed you.

Cross References: Acts 14:23; 1 Timothy 3:1; Acts 20:17

6 An elder must be blameless, the husband of one wife, and must have faithful children who are not accused of wild or rebellious living.

Cross References: 1 Timothy 3:2; 1 Timothy 3:4; 1 Peter 5:2

7 For an overseer (bishop) is God's steward and must be blameless—not arrogant, not quick-tempered, not a drunkard, not violent, and not greedy for dishonest gain.

8 Instead, he must be hospitable, love what is good, be self-controlled, upright, holy, and disciplined.

9 He must hold firmly to the trustworthy word as it has been taught, so that he can encourage others by sound teaching and refute those who oppose it.

Warning Against False Teachers

10 For there are many rebellious people, full of meaningless talk and deception, especially those from the circumcision group.

14 and not pay attention to Jewish myths or the commands of men who turn away from the truth.

Cross References: 1 Timothy 1:4; 1 Timothy 4:7; 2 Timothy 4:4

15 To the pure, all things are pure; but to those who are corrupt and unbelieving, nothing is pure. Their very minds and consciences are defiled.

16 They claim to know God, but by their actions they deny him. They are detestable, disobedient, and unfit for doing anything good.

Introduction to the Book of Philemon

“I am sending him back to you, and with him comes my own heart.” – Philemon 1:12

Title and Meaning

The book of Philemon is the shortest of Paul’s letters, written to a Christian named Philemon, a member of the church in Colossae. Its title reflects its recipient. Unlike Paul’s other letters, which address whole congregations, this one is deeply personal, focusing on the reconciliation of a runaway slave named Onesimus with his master, Philemon. It highlights Christian love, forgiveness, and unity in Christ.

Author and Date

The apostle Paul is the author (Philemon 1:1). He wrote it around AD 60–62, during his first Roman imprisonment, making it one of the Prison Epistles (alongside Ephesians, Philippians, and Colossians). Onesimus, the runaway slave, had met Paul in prison, come to faith in Christ, and was being sent back to Philemon with this letter of appeal.

Purpose of Philemon

Paul wrote Philemon for a very specific and personal purpose:

- To appeal to Philemon to forgive and welcome back Onesimus as a brother in Christ.
- To demonstrate the power of the gospel to transform relationships.
- To encourage love, grace, and reconciliation in the church.
- To show that Christian fellowship transcends social and cultural barriers.

Structure of Philemon

Though brief, the letter is rich with personal warmth and gospel application: 1. Greeting and Thanksgiving (vv. 1–7) Paul greets Philemon and commends him for his love and faith.

- 2. Paul’s Appeal for Onesimus (vv. 8–16) Paul appeals to Philemon to receive Onesimus not as a slave, but as a beloved brother.
- 3. Paul’s Promise and Closing (vv. 17–25) Paul offers to repay any debt Onesimus owes and closes with greetings and a blessing.

Major Themes

- Forgiveness and Reconciliation – The gospel breaks down barriers and heals relationships.
- Christian Brotherhood – In Christ, social distinctions like slave and master are transformed.
- Love in Action – Genuine faith expresses itself through love and mercy.
- The Transforming Power of the Gospel – Christ changes people from useless to useful (Onesimus’ name means “useful”).
- Intercession and Mediation – Paul models Christ’s work by interceding on behalf of another.

Why Philemon Matters Today

Philemon reminds us that the gospel is not only about doctrine but also about relationships. It challenges us to practice forgiveness, extend grace, and treat one another as brothers and sisters in Christ. In a world marked by division and brokenness, this letter demonstrates how Christ-centered love can reconcile and transform even the most difficult situations.

Key Verse

“I am sending him back to you, and with him comes my own heart.” – Philemon 1:12 This verse captures the heart of Philemon: the transforming love of Christ restores relationships and unites believers as family.

Key Lessons from Philemon

- Christian love changes relationships. Paul reminds Philemon to see Onesimus not as a slave but as a brother in Christ.
- Forgiveness is essential. Any wrongs or debts should be forgiven and covered by Christlike love.
- The gospel transforms lives. Onesimus, once “useless,” became “useful” through Christ’s redeeming power.
- Faith must show in action. True obedience to Christ is demonstrated by love, forgiveness, and restored fellowship.

Introduction to the Book of Hebrews

“Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.” – Hebrews 13:8

Title and Meaning

The book of Hebrews is a majestic letter (or sermon) written to Jewish Christians who were tempted to return to Judaism under the pressure of persecution. Its title reflects its original audience—the Hebrew believers. The central message is the supremacy of Christ: He is greater than angels, Moses, the priesthood, and the old covenant. Hebrews calls believers to hold fast to their faith in Jesus, the perfect High Priest and the mediator of the new covenant.

Author and Date

The authorship of Hebrews is uncertain. Unlike Paul’s letters, Hebrews does not begin with a greeting identifying the writer. Throughout church history, some attributed it to Paul, while others suggested Barnabas, Apollos, Luke, or another early church leader. Today, most scholars say the author is unknown but clearly inspired by the Holy Spirit. Hebrews was likely written around AD 65–70, before the destruction of the Jerusalem temple (AD 70), since the sacrificial system is discussed as still ongoing.

Purpose of Hebrews

The letter was written to strengthen and encourage Jewish Christians under persecution and to show the superiority of Christ. Its purposes include:

- To demonstrate that Christ is the fulfillment of the Old Testament law and promises.
- To show that Jesus is greater than angels, Moses, priests, and sacrifices.
- To encourage perseverance and faith, even in suffering.
- To warn against drifting away and falling back into old ways.
- To highlight Christ as the ultimate High Priest who intercedes for His people.

Structure of Hebrews

The letter is rich in theology and practical exhortation: 1. Christ’s Supremacy (Chs. 1–4) Jesus is greater than angels, Moses, and Joshua; He offers true rest.

- 2. Christ as High Priest (Chs. 5–10) Jesus is the perfect priest, superior to Aaron, and the ultimate sacrifice who brings the new covenant. 3. Faith and Endurance (Chs. 11–12) The “Hall of Faith” inspires believers to run with perseverance, fixing their eyes on Jesus. 4. Final Exhortations and Benediction (Ch. 13) Practical instructions for holy living and encouragement to remain faithful.

Major Themes

- The Supremacy of Christ – Jesus is greater than all who came before Him.
- The New Covenant – Christ’s sacrifice establishes a covenant of grace and forgiveness.

- Faith and Perseverance – Believers are called to endurance and trust in God’s promises.
- The Priesthood of Christ – Jesus intercedes as our eternal High Priest.
- Warning Against Apostasy – Strong calls not to drift away but to hold fast to the faith.

Why Hebrews Matters Today

Hebrews speaks to believers tempted to compromise or give up under pressure. It reminds us that Jesus is enough—our perfect Savior, intercessor, and eternal hope. In a world full of distractions, discouragement, and competing beliefs, Hebrews anchors us in the truth that Christ is supreme, His sacrifice is sufficient, and His promises are unshakable.

Key Verse

“Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.” – Hebrews 13:8 This verse captures the heart of Hebrews: the unchanging, all-sufficient Christ is our eternal hope and foundation.

“Jesus Is Greater Than the Angels”

God Speaks Through His Son

1 In the past, God spoke to our ancestors at many different times and in many different ways through the prophets.

Cross References: Numbers 12:6; Amos 3:7; 2 Peter 1:21

2 But in these last days, He has spoken to us through His Son. God appointed Him heir of all things, and through Him He created the world.

Cross References: John 1:3; Colossians 1:16; Psalm 2:8

3 The Son is the radiance of God’s glory and the exact image of His nature. He holds everything together by the power of His word. After making purification for our sins, He sat down at the right hand of the Majesty in heaven.

Cross References: Colossians 1:15; John 1:14; Psalm 110:1

The Son Exalted Above Angels

4 This shows that the Son is far greater than the angels, and that He has received a name more excellent than theirs.

Cross References: Philippians 2:9; Ephesians 1:21; Colossians 2:10

5 For to which of the angels did God ever say, “You are my Son; today I have become your Father”? Or again, “I will be His Father, and He will be my Son”?

Cross References: Psalm 2:7; 2 Samuel 7:14; Acts 13:33

6 And again, when God brings His firstborn into the world, He says, “Let all God’s angels worship Him.”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:43; Psalm 97:7; Luke 2:13

7 Regarding the angels, He says: “He makes His angels winds, and His servants flames of fire.”

Cross References: Psalm 104:4; Psalm 103:20; 2 Kings 6:17

8 But about the Son, He says:

*“Your throne, O God, will last forever and ever;
a righteous scepter will be the scepter of Your kingdom.*

Cross References: Psalm 45:6; Isaiah 9:7; Luke 1:33

9 *You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness;
therefore God, Your God, has anointed You with the oil of joy beyond Your companions.”*

Cross References: Psalm 45:7; Isaiah 61:1; John 3:34

The Eternal Son

10 And, “In the beginning, Lord, You laid the foundation of the earth, and the heavens are the work of Your hands.

Cross References: Psalm 102:25; Genesis 1:1; Colossians 1:17

11 *They will perish, but You remain;
they will all wear out like clothing.*

Cross References: Psalm 102:26; Isaiah 51:6; Matthew 24:35

12 *You will fold them up like a robe,
and they will be changed.
But You remain the same,
and Your years will never end.”*

Cross References: Psalm 102:27; Malachi 3:6; Isaiah 34:4

13 To which of the angels did God ever say, “Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet”?

Cross References: Psalm 110:1; Matthew 22:44; Acts 2:34

14 Are not all angels ministering spirits, sent out to serve those who will inherit salvation?

Cross References: Psalm 34:7; Psalm 91:11; Daniel 6:22

Key Lessons from Hebrews 1

- God’s final word is His Son. In the Old Testament, God spoke through prophets, but now He speaks through Jesus, the perfect revelation of His will.
- Jesus is greater than the angels. Angels are servants, but Jesus is the eternal Son, enthroned forever.

- Christ is unchanging. Heaven and earth will pass away, but Jesus remains the same forever.
- Angels serve believers. They are ministering spirits sent to help those who belong to Christ and will inherit salvation.

Warning Against Drifting Away

1 We must pay close attention to the truth we have heard, so we don’t drift away from it.

Cross References: Proverbs 4:20; 2 Peter 1:19; Deuteronomy 4:9

2 For if the message spoken by angels proved true, and every sin and act of disobedience received a just punishment,

Cross References: Galatians 3:19; Acts 7:53; Numbers 15:31

3 how will we escape if we ignore such a great salvation? This salvation was first spoken by the Lord Himself and was confirmed to us by those who heard Him.

Cross References: Luke 1:2; Acts 1:1; 2 Peter 1:16

4 God also confirmed it with signs, wonders, many miracles, and gifts of the Holy Spirit, given according to His will.

Cross References: Acts 2:22; Mark 16:20; 1 Corinthians 12:4

Jesus Crowned with Glory

5 It was not to angels that God gave authority over the world to come, which we are talking about.

Cross References: Genesis 1:26; Psalm 8:6; Matthew 25:34

6 Instead, one place in Scripture says:

“What is man that You are mindful of him, or the son of man that You care for him?”

Cross References: Psalm 8:4; Psalm 144:3; Job 7:17

7 You made him a little lower than the angels;

You crowned him with glory and honor and put everything under his feet.”

Cross References: Psalm 8:5; Psalm 8:6; Genesis 1:26

8 In putting everything under him, God left nothing outside his authority. But right now, we do not yet see everything subject to him.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 15:27; Ephesians 1:22; Matthew 28:18

9 But we do see Jesus—made a little lower than the angels when He suffered death—now crowned with glory and honor because He tasted death for everyone by God’s grace.

Cross References: Isaiah 53:12; Philippians 2:9; 1 John 2:2

The Captain of Salvation

10 It was fitting that God—for whom and through whom all things exist—should make the captain of their salvation perfect through suffering, as He brought many sons and daughters to glory.

Cross References: Isaiah 53:10; Luke 24:26; Acts 3:15

11 Jesus, who makes people holy, and those who are made holy are of the same family. That is why He is not ashamed to call them His brothers and sisters.

Cross References: John 20:17; Matthew 28:10; Romans 8:29

12 He says, “I will declare Your name to my brothers; in the assembly I will sing Your praise.”

Cross References: Psalm 22:22; Psalm 22:25; John 17:6

13 And again, “I will put my trust in Him.” And again, “Here am I, and the children God has given me.”

Cross References: Isaiah 8:17; Isaiah 8:18; Isaiah 12:2

Jesus Destroys Death

14 Since God’s children share in flesh and blood, Jesus also shared in the same, so that by His death He might destroy the one who held the power of death—that is, the devil—

Cross References: John 1:14; 1 John 3:8; Genesis 3:15

15 and deliver those who lived their whole lives as slaves to the fear of death.

Cross References: Romans 8:15; 1 Corinthians 15:55; Luke 1:74

16 For surely it was not angels He came to help, but Abraham’s descendants.

Cross References: Genesis 22:18; Galatians 3:16; Isaiah 41:8

17 That is why He had to be made like His brothers and sisters in every way, so that He could become a merciful and faithful High Priest in service to God, and make atonement for the sins of the people.

Cross References: Philippians 2:7; Leviticus 16:34; Romans 3:25

18 Because He Himself suffered when He was tempted, He is able to help those who are being tempted.

Cross References: Matthew 4:1; 1 Corinthians 10:13; 2 Corinthians 1:4

Key Lessons from Hebrews 2

- Do not drift away. Neglecting salvation brings serious consequences.
- Jesus tasted death for all. He humbled Himself to suffer so that we might live.
- Christ calls us His family. He is not ashamed to call believers His brothers and sisters.

- Jesus conquered the fear of death. By dying, He defeated the devil and freed us from bondage.
- Christ is our merciful High Priest. He understands our struggles and helps us in temptation.

Hebrews 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Christ Greater Than Moses”

Jesus, the Faithful High Priest

1 Therefore, holy brothers and sisters, who share in the heavenly calling, fix your thoughts on Jesus—the Apostle and High Priest of our faith.

Cross References: John 20:21; Zechariah 6:13; 1 Timothy 2:5

2 He was faithful to the One who appointed Him, just as Moses was faithful in all God’s house.

Cross References: Numbers 12:7; John 6:38; Isaiah 42:1

3 But Jesus is worthy of more glory than Moses, just as the builder of a house deserves more honor than the house itself.

Cross References: Zechariah 6:12; John 1:17; 2 Corinthians 3:7

4 For every house is built by someone, but God is the builder of everything.

Cross References: Genesis 1:1; Psalm 127:1; Ephesians 2:10

5 Moses was faithful as a servant in God’s house, testifying to what would later be spoken.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 18:15; Numbers 12:7; John 5:46

6 But Christ is faithful as the Son over God’s house. And we are His house, if we hold firmly to our confidence and the hope we boast in until the end.

Cross References: 1 Timothy 3:15; 1 Peter 2:5; Colossians 1:23

Warning Against Unbelief

7 So, as the Holy Spirit says:

“Today, if you hear His voice,

Cross References: Psalm 95:7; Revelation 3:20; 2 Corinthians 6:2

8 do not harden your hearts

as Israel did in the rebellion,

during the time of testing in the wilderness,

Cross References: Psalm 95:8; Exodus 17:7; Numbers 20:13

9 where your ancestors tested Me and tried Me,

though for forty years they saw My works.

Cross References: Psalm 95:9; Exodus 17:2; Numbers 14:22

10 *That is why I was angry with that generation;
I said, 'Their hearts are always going astray,
and they have not known My ways.'*

Cross References: Psalm 95:10; Numbers 14:33; Numbers 32:13

11 *So I declared on oath in My anger,
'They shall never enter My rest.'*

Cross References: Psalm 95:11; Numbers 14:23; Deuteronomy 1:35

12 Be careful, brothers and sisters, that none of you have an evil, unbelieving heart that turns away from the living God.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 29:18; Jeremiah 17:9; 1 Timothy 4:1

13 Instead, encourage one another daily, as long as it is called "Today," so that none of you may be hardened by sin's deceitfulness.

Cross References: 1 Thessalonians 5:11; Proverbs 27:17; Ephesians 4:22

14 For we have come to share in Christ, if we hold firmly to the end the faith we had at the beginning.

Cross References: Matthew 24:13; Revelation 2:10; 1 Corinthians 15:2

15 As has just been said:
"Today, if you hear His voice,
do not harden your hearts
as they did in the rebellion."

Cross References: Psalm 95:7; Psalm 95:8; 2 Corinthians 6:2

Israel's Failure in the Wilderness

16 Who were those who heard and still rebelled? Was it not all those Moses led out of Egypt?

Cross References: Numbers 14:2; Exodus 14:11; Psalm 106:7

17 And with whom was God angry for forty years? Was it not those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness?

Cross References: Numbers 14:29; Numbers 14:35; 1 Corinthians 10:5

18 And to whom did God swear that they would never enter His rest, if not to those who disobeyed?

Cross References: Numbers 14:23; Deuteronomy 1:34; Numbers 32:11

19 So we see that they were unable to enter because of their unbelief.

Cross References: Numbers 14:11; Deuteronomy 1:32; Jude 1:5

Key Lessons from Hebrews 3

- Jesus is greater than Moses. Moses was a servant, but Christ is the Son over God's house.

- We are God's house. If we remain steadfast in faith and hope, we show we truly belong to Him.
- Don't harden your heart. Sin deceives and leads to rebellion; faith must remain alive.
- Encourage each other daily. Christian fellowship helps guard against unbelief.
- Unbelief shuts the door to God's rest. Just as Israel failed in the wilderness, we too must take warning.

Hebrews 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Entering God's Rest Through Faith”

God's Promise of Rest

1 Therefore, let us be careful that none of us fall short of God's promise of entering His rest.

Cross References: Hebrews 3:12; Numbers 14:23; Psalm 95:11

2 For the Good News was preached to us just as it was to Israel, but it did not benefit them because they did not combine it with faith.

Cross References: Numbers 14:11; Deuteronomy 1:32; Romans 10:17

3 For we who believe enter that rest, as God has said:

“So I swore in My anger, ‘They shall never enter My rest.’”

Yet God's works were finished since the creation of the world.

Cross References: Genesis 2:2; Psalm 95:11; Matthew 11:28

4 For He spoke about the seventh day in this way: “And God rested on the seventh day from all His works.”

Cross References: Genesis 2:2; Genesis 2:3; Exodus 20:11

5 And again in another place He said: “They shall never enter My rest.”

Cross References: Psalm 95:11; Numbers 14:23; Hebrews 3:11

6 So it remains that some will enter God's rest, and those who first heard the message did not enter because of unbelief.

Cross References: Numbers 14:22; Psalm 95:11; Jude 1:5

7 God again set another day, calling it “Today,” when He spoke through David long afterward:

“Today, if you hear His voice, do not harden your hearts.”

Cross References: Psalm 95:7; Psalm 95:8; 2 Corinthians 6:2

8 For if Joshua had given them final rest, God would not have spoken of another day later on.

Cross References: Joshua 21:44; Joshua 22:4; Deuteronomy 12:10

9 Therefore, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God.

Cross References: Exodus 20:8; Revelation 14:13; Isaiah 58:13

10 For the one who enters God's rest also rests from his own works, just as God did from His.

Cross References: Genesis 2:2; Ephesians 2:9; John 19:30

The Living Word of God

11 Let us therefore strive to enter that rest, so that no one falls by following their example of unbelief.

Cross References: Luke 13:24; 1 Corinthians 10:11; Numbers 14:23

12 For the word of God is alive and powerful. It is sharper than any double-edged sword, piercing between soul and spirit, joints and marrow. It judges the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

Cross References: Ephesians 6:17; Revelation 1:16; Isaiah 49:2

13 Nothing in all creation is hidden from God's sight. Everything is uncovered and exposed before the eyes of Him to whom we must give account.

Cross References: Psalm 139:2; Proverbs 15:3; Jeremiah 23:24

Jesus, Our Great High Priest

14 Therefore, since we have a great High Priest who has passed through the heavens—Jesus, the Son of God—let us hold firmly to our faith.

Cross References: Hebrews 9:24; Hebrews 10:23; 1 Timothy 6:12

15 For we do not have a High Priest who cannot understand our weaknesses. Instead, He was tempted in every way just as we are, yet He never sinned.

Cross References: Hebrews 2:18; Matthew 4:1; 1 Peter 2:22

16 Let us then come boldly to the throne of grace, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.

Cross References: Ephesians 3:12; Hebrews 10:19; Psalm 145:18

Key Lessons from Hebrews 4

- God's promise of rest still stands. Faith is the key to entering it, not works alone.
- The Sabbath rest points to salvation. Just as God rested from creation, believers rest from striving by trusting in Christ.
- The Word of God searches the heart. Nothing can be hidden from His truth—it exposes motives and intentions.
- Jesus understands our struggles. He was tempted in every way, yet He never sinned.
- We can boldly approach God. Through Christ, we find mercy and grace in every need.

Hebrews 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Christ, Our Great High Priest”

The Role of the High Priest

1 Every high priest is chosen from among men and is appointed to represent them in matters relating to God, offering gifts and sacrifices for sins.

Cross References: Exodus 28:1; Leviticus 9:7; Hebrews 8:3

2 He is able to deal gently with the ignorant and those who go astray, since he himself is subject to weakness.

Cross References: Leviticus 4:2; Isaiah 42:3; 2 Corinthians 12:9

3 Because of this, he must offer sacrifices for his own sins as well as for the sins of the people.

Cross References: Leviticus 9:7; Leviticus 16:6; Leviticus 4:3

4 No one takes this honor upon himself, but only those called by God, just as Aaron was.

Cross References: Exodus 28:1; Numbers 16:5; 2 Chronicles 26:18

5 In the same way, Christ did not glorify Himself by becoming a High Priest. It was God who said to Him:

“You are My Son; today I have begotten You.”

Cross References: Psalm 2:7; Acts 13:33; John 8:54

6 And in another place:

“You are a priest forever, in the order of Melchizedek.”

Cross References: Psalm 110:4; Genesis 14:18; Hebrews 7:17

Jesus’ Suffering and Obedience

7 During the days of His earthly life, Jesus offered up prayers and petitions with loud cries and tears to the One who could save Him from death. And He was heard because of His reverence.

Cross References: Matthew 26:39; Luke 22:44; Psalm 22:24

8 Even though He was the Son, He learned obedience through the things He suffered.

Cross References: Philippians 2:8; Luke 22:42; Hebrews 2:10

9 Once made perfect, He became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey Him.

Cross References: Hebrews 2:10; John 3:36; Isaiah 45:17

10 God designated Him a High Priest in the order of Melchizedek.

Cross References: Psalm 110:4; Genesis 14:18; Hebrews 6:20

Spiritual Maturity Needed

11 We have much to say about this, but it is hard to explain because you have become slow to understand.

Cross References: Matthew 13:15; Mark 4:13; Hebrews 6:12

12 By now you ought to be teachers, but instead you need someone to teach you again the basic principles of God's word. You need milk, not solid food!

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 3:2; 1 Peter 2:2; Isaiah 28:9

13 Anyone who lives on milk is still an infant, unskilled in the word of righteousness.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 3:1; Ephesians 4:14; 1 Peter 2:2

14 But solid food is for the mature, who by constant practice have trained themselves to discern both good and evil.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 2:6; 1 Kings 3:9; Philippians 1:10

Key Lessons from Hebrews 5

- High priests are chosen by God, not self-appointed. Christ's priesthood was established by God, not by man.
- Jesus understands our weakness. He prayed with tears, showing His deep humanity, yet He remained faithful.
- Obedience is learned through suffering. Jesus' trials teach us that hardship shapes true faith.
- Spiritual growth requires maturity. Believers must move from milk (basic truths) to solid food (deeper understanding).
- Discernment comes with practice. A mature believer learns to distinguish good from evil through constant use of God's Word.

Hebrews 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Pressing On to Maturity”

Leaving the Basics and Growing Up in Faith

1 So let us stop going over the basic teachings about Christ again and again. Instead, let us go on and become mature in our understanding. We don't need to keep laying the foundation of turning from sinful deeds, trusting in God,

Cross References: Philippians 3:14; 2 Peter 3:18; 1 Corinthians 3:2

2 teaching about baptisms, the laying on of hands, the resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment.

Cross References: Acts 8:17; Acts 19:5; Acts 24:15

3 And so, if God is willing, we will move forward to further understanding.

Cross References: James 4:15; Acts 18:21; 1 Corinthians 4:19

The Danger of Falling Away

4 It is impossible to bring back to repentance those who were once enlightened—who have experienced the heavenly gift, who have shared in the Holy Spirit,

Cross References: Hebrews 10:26; 2 Peter 2:20; Matthew 12:31

5 who have tasted the goodness of God's Word and the power of the coming age—

Cross References: Psalm 34:8; 1 Peter 2:3; Ephesians 1:14

6 and then turn away from God. It is impossible to bring them back to repentance because they are nailing the Son of God to the cross all over again and exposing Him to public shame.

Cross References: Hebrews 10:29; 2 Peter 2:21; Luke 12:10

7 When the ground soaks up the rain that often falls on it and produces a crop useful to those for whom it is farmed, it receives a blessing from God.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 11:11; Isaiah 55:10; Genesis 1:11

8 But if it produces thorns and thistles, it is worthless. It is in danger of being cursed, and in the end, it will be burned.

Cross References: Genesis 3:18; Matthew 7:19; Matthew 13:30

Encouragement to Stay Faithful

9 Dear friends, even though we are talking this way, we are confident of better things in your case—the things that accompany salvation.

Cross References: Philippians 1:6; James 2:17; 1 Thessalonians 1:3

10 For God is not unjust. He will not forget your work and the love you have shown Him as you have helped His people and continue to help them.

Cross References: Matthew 25:40; Proverbs 19:17; Matthew 10:42

11 We want each of you to show this same diligence to the very end, so that what you hope for may be fully realized.

Cross References: 2 Peter 1:10; Colossians 2:2; Hebrews 3:14

12 Then you won't become spiritually lazy, but you will follow the example of those who through faith and patience inherit what God has promised.

Cross References: James 5:10; Romans 4:20; Hebrews 11:9

God's Promise Is Sure

13 When God made His promise to Abraham, He swore by Himself, since there was no one greater to swear by.

Cross References: Genesis 22:16; Genesis 12:2; Psalm 105:9

14 He said, "I will surely bless you and give you many descendants."

Cross References: Genesis 22:17; Genesis 15:5; Genesis 17:2

15 And so after waiting patiently, Abraham received what was promised.

Cross References: Genesis 21:2; Romans 4:20; James 5:11

16 Now people swear by someone greater than themselves, and the oath confirms what is said and puts an end to all arguments.

Cross References: Genesis 21:31; Exodus 22:11; Deuteronomy 6:13

17 Because God wanted to make His purpose very clear to the heirs of what was promised, He confirmed it with an oath.

Cross References: Genesis 22:16; Luke 1:73; Galatians 3:15

18 So God has given both His promise and His oath. These two things are unchangeable, because it is impossible for God to lie. Therefore, we who have fled to Him for refuge can have strong encouragement to hold tightly to the hope set before us.

Cross References: Numbers 23:19; Titus 1:2; Psalm 46:1

19 This hope is a strong and trustworthy anchor for our souls. It leads us into the inner sanctuary behind the curtain,

Cross References: Leviticus 16:2; Hebrews 10:20; Hebrews 9:3

20 where Jesus has already entered on our behalf. He has become our High Priest forever, in the order of Melchizedek.

Cross References: Psalm 110:4; Genesis 14:18; Hebrews 9:24

Key Lessons from Hebrews 6

- Move Beyond Basics: Christians must grow beyond elementary teachings into deeper maturity.
- The Danger of Apostasy: Turning away after experiencing God's truth is a grave matter, compared to crucifying Christ again.
- Fruitfulness Matters: Just like land must produce crops, believers must live fruitful lives in response to God's grace.
- God Remembers Our Faithfulness: He sees every act of love and service to His people.
- Hope Anchors the Soul: God's unchanging promise and oath assure us of eternal security in Christ.
- Jesus, Our High Priest: Christ has gone before us into God's presence, securing our salvation forever.

“Jesus, Our Eternal High Priest”

Melchizedek and Abraham

1 This Melchizedek was king of Salem and priest of the Most High God. He met Abraham when he was returning from defeating the kings and blessed him.

Cross References: Genesis 14:18; Genesis 14:19; Genesis 14:20

2 Abraham gave him a tenth of everything he had taken in battle. First, his name means “King of Righteousness,” and then also “King of Salem,” which means “King of Peace.”

Cross References: Genesis 14:18; Isaiah 9:6; Psalm 85:10

3 He had no father, no mother, no family line, no beginning of days, and no end of life. He is like the Son of God, remaining a priest forever.

Cross References: Psalm 110:4; John 1:1; Revelation 1:8

4 Think about how great this man was! Even Abraham, our ancestor, gave him a tenth of the spoils.

Cross References: Genesis 14:20; Genesis 14:23; Psalm 110:4

5 The sons of Levi, who later became priests, were commanded by the law to collect tithes from the people—though they themselves were also descendants of Abraham.

Cross References: Numbers 18:21; Deuteronomy 14:22; Leviticus 27:30

6 But Melchizedek, who did not come from their line, collected a tenth from Abraham and blessed the one who had the promises.

Cross References: Genesis 14:19; Genesis 14:20; Romans 4:13

7 It is clear that the one who blesses is greater than the one being blessed.

Cross References: Genesis 27:29; Numbers 6:24; Malachi 2:7

8 Here, mortal men receive tithes, but there, it is testified that he lives.

Cross References: Psalm 110:4; Revelation 1:18; John 11:25

9 In a way, Levi himself, who collects tithes, paid tithes through Abraham,

Cross References: Genesis 14:20; Romans 5:12; Genesis 46:26

10 because he was still in Abraham’s body when Melchizedek met him.

Cross References: Genesis 14:17; Genesis 15:4; Genesis 12:2

A Greater Priesthood

11 If perfection could have come through the Levitical priesthood (since the law was given under it), why would another priest need to arise after the order of Melchizedek instead of the order of Aaron?

Cross References: Galatians 2:21; Galatians 3:21; Psalm 110:4

12 Since the priesthood was changed, the law had to be changed as well.

Cross References: Jeremiah 31:31; Galatians 3:19; Matthew 5:17

13 The one we are talking about belonged to another tribe, one that never served at the altar.

Cross References: Genesis 49:10; Numbers 1:49; Numbers 3:10

14 It is clear that our Lord came from the tribe of Judah, a tribe about which Moses said nothing concerning priests.

Cross References: Isaiah 11:1; Matthew 1:3; Revelation 5:5

15 And it is even clearer because another priest has arisen who is like Melchizedek.

Cross References: Psalm 110:4; John 10:18; Romans 6:9

16 He was made a priest, not by a law based on ancestry, but by the power of an endless life.

Cross References: John 10:18; Romans 6:9; Revelation 1:18

17 For Scripture says: “You are a priest forever, in the order of Melchizedek.”

Cross References: Psalm 110:4; Hebrews 5:6; Hebrews 6:20

The Superiority of Christ’s Priesthood

18 The old rule is set aside because it was weak and useless.

Cross References: Galatians 3:19; Romans 8:3; Acts 13:39

19 For the law made nothing perfect. But now a better hope has been introduced, through which we draw near to God.

Cross References: Romans 8:3; Galatians 2:16; John 1:17

20 And this priesthood was not without an oath.

Cross References: Psalm 110:4; Genesis 22:16; Luke 1:73

21 The former priests became priests without an oath, but He became a priest with an oath when God said:

“The Lord has sworn and will not change His mind: You are a priest forever.”

Cross References: Psalm 110:4; Genesis 22:16; Luke 1:73

22 Because of this oath, Jesus has become the guarantee of a better covenant.

Cross References: Jeremiah 31:31; Hebrews 8:6; Luke 22:20

23 There were many priests under the old system, because death kept them from continuing in office.

Cross References: Numbers 20:28; Numbers 25:13; 1 Chronicles 6:49

24 But Jesus lives forever, so His priesthood never ends.

Cross References: John 12:34; Revelation 1:18; Romans 6:9

25 That is why He is able to save completely those who come to God through Him, because He always lives to intercede for them.

Cross References: Romans 8:34; 1 John 2:1; Isaiah 53:12

Our Perfect High Priest

26 Such a High Priest truly meets our need: He is holy, innocent, undefiled, set apart from sinners, and exalted above the heavens.

Cross References: Hebrews 4:15; 1 Peter 2:22; 2 Corinthians 5:21

27 Unlike the other high priests, He does not need to offer sacrifices daily, first for His own sins and then for the sins of the people. He did this once for all when He offered Himself.

Cross References: Leviticus 16:6; Leviticus 16:15; 1 Peter 3:18

28 The law appointed men as high priests who are weak, but the oath, which came after the law, appointed the Son, who has been made perfect forever.

Cross References: Hebrews 5:1; Hebrews 5:9; Hebrews 2:10

Key Lessons from Hebrews 7

- Melchizedek foreshadows Christ: Both are kings of righteousness and peace, with a priesthood that is eternal.
- Jesus is greater than Abraham and Levi: Even the patriarch and the priestly line recognized Melchizedek's greatness, pointing to Christ's superiority.
- The old law was insufficient: The Levitical system could not bring perfection, but Christ's priesthood provides a better hope.
- God's oath makes Christ's role unshakable: Unlike human priests, Jesus' position was guaranteed by God's eternal promise.
- Christ saves completely: He intercedes forever, ensuring salvation for all who come to God through Him.
- Our High Priest is perfect: Unlike earthly priests with sin, Jesus offered Himself once for all, accomplishing eternal redemption.

Hebrews 8 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The New Covenant”

Christ's Heavenly Ministry

1 Here is the main point: We have a High Priest who is seated at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in heaven.

Cross References: Psalm 110:1; Mark 16:19; Ephesians 1:20

2 He serves in the true sanctuary, the real tabernacle, which the Lord—not man—set up.

Cross References: Exodus 25:8; Exodus 25:9; Hebrews 9:11

3 Every high priest is appointed to offer gifts and sacrifices, so this High Priest also needed to have something to offer.

Cross References: Hebrews 5:1; Hebrews 9:14; Ephesians 5:2

4 If He were on earth, He would not be a priest, since there are already priests who present gifts according to the law.

Cross References: Hebrews 7:14; Numbers 18:7; Exodus 28:1

5 They serve at a sanctuary that is only a copy and shadow of what is in heaven. This is why God told Moses when he was about to build the tabernacle, “Be sure you make everything according to the pattern shown you on the mountain.”

Cross References: Exodus 25:40; Exodus 26:30; Colossians 2:17

A Better Covenant

6 But now Jesus has obtained a more excellent ministry. He is the mediator of a better covenant, built on better promises.

Cross References: Jeremiah 31:31; 1 Timothy 2:5; Hebrews 7:22

7 For if the first covenant had been faultless, there would have been no need for another.

Cross References: Jeremiah 31:31; Hebrews 7:11; Galatians 3:21

8 But God found fault with the people and said:

“Behold, the days are coming, declares the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah.

Cross References: Jeremiah 31:31; Ezekiel 37:26; Jeremiah 31:33

9 It will not be like the covenant I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand and led them out of Egypt. They did not remain faithful to My covenant, so I turned away from them, declares the Lord.

Cross References: Jeremiah 31:32; Exodus 19:5; Exodus 24:8

10 This is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel after those days, declares the Lord: I will put My laws in their minds and write them on their hearts.

I will be their God, and they will be My people.

Cross References: Jeremiah 31:33; Ezekiel 36:26; Ezekiel 36:27

11 No longer will they need to teach one another, saying, ‘Know the Lord,’ because they will all know Me, from the least to the greatest.

Cross References: Jeremiah 31:34; Isaiah 54:13; John 6:45

12 For I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no more.”

Cross References: Jeremiah 31:34; Micah 7:19; Isaiah 43:25

The Old Passing Away

13 By calling this covenant “new,” He has made the first one obsolete. And what is becoming obsolete and aging will soon disappear.

Cross References: Jeremiah 31:31; 2 Corinthians 3:11; Hebrews 10:9

Key Lessons from Hebrews 8

- Christ serves in heaven: Jesus is not a priest on earth but in the true, heavenly sanctuary built by God Himself.

- The old covenant was insufficient: The law and earthly priesthood could not bring lasting forgiveness or transformation.
- A better covenant has come: Through Christ, God established a covenant based on better promises—internal change, forgiveness, and direct relationship with Him.
- God writes His law on hearts: The new covenant is not about external rituals but inward transformation and obedience from the heart.
- Complete forgiveness: Under the new covenant, God remembers our sins no more.
- The old fades away: The first covenant has been set aside, replaced by the new covenant through Christ.

Hebrews 9 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Power of Christ’s Blood”

The Earthly Tabernacle

1 The first covenant had rules for worship and an earthly sanctuary.

Cross References: Exodus 25:8; Exodus 25:9; Hebrews 8:5

2 In the first room of the tabernacle were the lampstand, the table, and the bread of the Presence. This was called the Holy Place.

Cross References: Exodus 25:23; Exodus 25:31; Exodus 25:30

3 Behind the second curtain was the room called the Most Holy Place.

Cross References: Exodus 26:31; Exodus 26:33; Leviticus 16:2

4 In it were the golden altar of incense and the Ark of the Covenant covered with gold. Inside the Ark were the gold jar of manna, Aaron’s staff that budded, and the stone tablets of the covenant.

Cross References: Exodus 16:33; Numbers 17:10; Deuteronomy 10:5

5 Above it were the cherubim of glory, overshadowing the mercy seat. We cannot discuss these things in detail now.

Cross References: Exodus 25:18; Exodus 25:20; Exodus 25:22

6 When everything was set up in this way, the priests regularly entered the outer room to carry out their ministry.

Cross References: Numbers 28:3; Exodus 27:21; Leviticus 24:3

7 But only the high priest entered the inner room, and only once a year. He could not go without blood, which he offered for himself and for the sins the people had committed in ignorance.

Cross References: Leviticus 16:2; Leviticus 16:14; Leviticus 16:34

8 By this the Holy Spirit was showing that the way into the Most Holy Place was not yet open as long as the first tabernacle was still in use.

Cross References: Hebrews 10:19; Hebrews 10:20; Matthew 27:51

9 This was a symbol for the present time. The gifts and sacrifices being offered could not clear the conscience of the worshiper.

Cross References: Hebrews 10:1; Hebrews 10:4; Galatians 3:24

10 They were only external rules about food, drink, and ceremonial washings—temporary regulations until the time of reformation.

Cross References: Leviticus 11:1; Mark 7:19; Colossians 2:16

Christ's Superior Sacrifice

11 But when Christ came as High Priest of the good things now here, He went through a greater and more perfect tabernacle not made by human hands, that is, not belonging to this creation.

Cross References: Hebrews 8:2; Hebrews 4:14; Mark 14:58

12 He did not enter by means of the blood of goats and calves, but by His own blood He entered once for all into the Most Holy Place, securing eternal redemption for us.

Cross References: Leviticus 16:15; Hebrews 10:19; 1 Peter 1:18

13 If the blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a heifer sprinkled on the unclean could make them outwardly clean,

Cross References: Leviticus 16:14; Numbers 19:9; Numbers 19:17

14 how much more will the blood of Christ—who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without blemish to God—purify our consciences from dead works so that we may serve the living God!

Cross References: 1 Peter 1:19; 1 John 1:7; Titus 2:14

The New Covenant Sealed in Blood

15 This is why He is the mediator of a new covenant. By means of His death, He has redeemed the people from the sins committed under the first covenant, so that those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance.

Cross References: Jeremiah 31:31; 1 Timothy 2:5; 1 Peter 1:4

16 For where there is a will, the death of the one who made it must be proven.

Cross References: Galatians 3:15; Genesis 15:9; Genesis 15:17

17 A will takes effect only after death; it is not in force while the one who made it is still alive.

Cross References: Galatians 3:15; Deuteronomy 21:16; Genesis 48:21

18 That is why the first covenant was not put into effect without blood.

Cross References: Exodus 24:6; Exodus 24:8; Leviticus 17:11

19 When Moses had declared every command of the law to the people, he took the blood of calves and goats, mixed it with water, scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the scroll and all the people.

Cross References: Exodus 24:8; Leviticus 14:4; Numbers 19:18

20 He said, “This is the blood of the covenant which God has commanded you to keep.”

Cross References: Exodus 24:8; Matthew 26:28; Zechariah 9:11

21 He also sprinkled the tabernacle and all the sacred vessels with blood.

Cross References: Exodus 29:12; Leviticus 8:15; Leviticus 16:14

22 In fact, the law requires that nearly everything be purified with blood. Without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.

Cross References: Leviticus 17:11; Leviticus 4:20; Matthew 26:28

Christ’s Once-for-All Sacrifice

23 It was necessary for the copies of the heavenly things to be purified with these sacrifices, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices.

Cross References: Exodus 24:8; Hebrews 8:5; Colossians 2:17

24 For Christ did not enter a sanctuary made with human hands that was only a copy of the true one; He entered heaven itself, now to appear in God’s presence for us.

Cross References: Hebrews 6:20; Hebrews 4:14; 1 John 2:1

25 He did not enter heaven to offer Himself again and again, like the high priest enters the Most Holy Place every year with blood that is not his own.

Cross References: Leviticus 16:14; Leviticus 16:15; Leviticus 16:34

26 Otherwise, Christ would have had to suffer many times since the creation of the world. But now He has appeared once for all, at the end of the ages, to remove sin by the sacrifice of Himself.

Cross References: 1 Peter 1:20; Galatians 4:4; 1 John 3:5

27 Just as people are destined to die once, and after that face judgment,

Cross References: Genesis 3:19; 2 Samuel 14:14; Revelation 20:12

28 so Christ was offered once to bear the sins of many. He will appear a second time, not to bear sin, but to bring salvation to those who eagerly wait for Him.

Cross References: Isaiah 53:12; 1 Peter 2:24; Revelation 1:7

Key Lessons from Hebrews 9

- The old covenant pointed forward: The earthly tabernacle and sacrifices were shadows of the true heavenly reality.
- The blood of Christ is greater: Animal sacrifices could only cleanse outwardly, but Christ’s blood cleanses the conscience and brings eternal redemption.
- Forgiveness requires blood: Without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness of sins.

- Christ's sacrifice is once for all: Unlike repeated offerings, Jesus' one sacrifice removes sin forever.
- Christ intercedes in heaven: He appears before God on our behalf in the true sanctuary.
- Judgment and salvation: Just as death and judgment are appointed for man, Christ will return a second time to bring salvation to His people.

Hebrews 10 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Christ's Once-for-All Sacrifice”

The Law Could Not Make Perfect

1 The law was only a shadow of the good things to come, not the true reality. Because of this, it could never, by the same sacrifices repeated year after year, make those who came to worship perfect.

Cross References: Colossians 2:17; Hebrews 8:5; Hebrews 9:9

2 If it could, wouldn't the sacrifices have stopped? The worshipers would have been cleansed once for all and would no longer feel guilty about their sins.

Cross References: Hebrews 9:14; Hebrews 10:14; Leviticus 16:34

3 But those sacrifices served as a yearly reminder of sins.

Cross References: Leviticus 16:21; Numbers 5:15; Hebrews 9:7

4 For it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

Cross References: Leviticus 17:11; Psalm 51:16; Micah 6:7

Christ Fulfills God's Will

5 That is why, when Christ came into the world, He said:

“You did not want sacrifices and offerings,
but You prepared a body for Me.

Cross References: Psalm 40:6; Philippians 2:7; John 1:14

6 You were not pleased with burnt offerings and sin offerings.

Cross References: Psalm 40:6; 1 Samuel 15:22; Hosea 6:6

7 Then I said, ‘Here I am—it is written about Me in the scroll—
I have come to do Your will, O God.’”

Cross References: Psalm 40:7; John 6:38; Luke 22:42

8 First He said, “Sacrifices and offerings, burnt offerings and sin offerings You did not desire, nor were You pleased with them,” though they were offered according to the law.

Cross References: Psalm 40:6; Amos 5:22; Isaiah 1:11

9 Then He said, “Here I am, I have come to do Your will.” He takes away the first covenant to establish the second.

Cross References: Jeremiah 31:31; Hebrews 8:13; Matthew 26:28

10 By that will, we have been made holy through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

Cross References: Hebrews 9:12; 1 Peter 3:18; Ephesians 5:26

The Finished Work of Christ

11 Day after day every priest stands and performs his duties, offering the same sacrifices repeatedly, which can never take away sins.

Cross References: Exodus 29:38; Numbers 28:3; Hebrews 7:27

12 But when Christ had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, He sat down at the right hand of God.

Cross References: Psalm 110:1; Hebrews 1:3; Hebrews 8:1

13 Now He waits until His enemies are made His footstool.

Cross References: Psalm 110:1; 1 Corinthians 15:25; Joshua 10:24

14 By one offering He has perfected forever those who are being made holy.

Cross References: Hebrews 9:14; Hebrews 5:9; Colossians 1:22

15 The Holy Spirit also testifies to us about this. First He says:

Cross References: 2 Peter 1:21; John 15:26; 2 Timothy 3:16

16 “This is the covenant I will make with them after those days, says the Lord.
I will put My laws in their hearts,
and I will write them on their minds.”

Cross References: Jeremiah 31:33; Hebrews 8:10; Ezekiel 36:26

17 Then He adds:

“Their sins and lawless acts I will remember no more.”

Cross References: Jeremiah 31:34; Hebrews 8:12; Isaiah 43:25

18 And where these have been forgiven, there is no longer any sacrifice for sin.

Cross References: Hebrews 9:26; Romans 6:10; 1 John 2:2

Confidence Through Christ

19 Therefore, brothers and sisters, we have boldness to enter the Most Holy Place by the blood of Jesus,

Cross References: Hebrews 4:16; Ephesians 3:12; Hebrews 9:12

20 by a new and living way opened for us through the curtain, that is, His body.

Cross References: Matthew 27:51; Mark 15:38; John 14:6

21 And since we have a great High Priest over the house of God,

Cross References: Hebrews 4:14; Hebrews 3:6; Zechariah 6:13

22 let us draw near to God with a sincere heart and full assurance of faith, with our hearts cleansed from a guilty conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.

Cross References: Ezekiel 36:25; Titus 3:5; James 4:8

23 Let us hold firmly to the hope we profess, because the One who promised is faithful.

Cross References: Hebrews 4:14; 1 Corinthians 1:9; Hebrews 6:18

24 And let us think of ways to encourage one another to love and good works.

Cross References: 1 Thessalonians 5:11; Hebrews 3:13; Philippians 2:4

25 Do not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encourage one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

Cross References: Acts 2:46; Matthew 18:20; 1 Thessalonians 5:2

A Warning Against Willful Sin

26 If we deliberately keep on sinning after receiving the knowledge of the truth, no sacrifice for sins is left,

Cross References: Numbers 15:30; Hebrews 6:4; 2 Peter 2:20

27 only a fearful expectation of judgment and of raging fire that will consume the enemies of God.

Cross References: Isaiah 26:11; Zephaniah 1:18; 2 Thessalonians 1:8

28 Anyone who rejected the law of Moses died without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 17:6; Deuteronomy 19:15; Numbers 35:30

29 How much worse punishment do you think someone deserves who has trampled the Son of God underfoot, treated the blood of the covenant that made them holy as an unholy thing, and insulted the Spirit of grace?

Cross References: Matthew 12:31; Hebrews 6:6; Zechariah 12:10

30 For we know Him who said, “Vengeance is Mine; I will repay,” and again, “The Lord will judge His people.”

31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

Encouragement to Endure

32 Remember those earlier days after you had received the light, when you endured a hard struggle with suffering.

Cross References: Hebrews 6:4; Acts 8:1; Philippians 1:29

33 Sometimes you were publicly exposed to insults and persecution; at other times you stood side by side with those who were treated that way.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 4:9; Acts 5:41; 2 Timothy 3:12

34 You sympathized with those in prison and joyfully accepted the loss of your property, knowing that you had better and lasting possessions in heaven.

35 So do not throw away your confidence; it will be richly rewarded.

Cross References: Hebrews 4:16; Matthew 5:12; 1 Corinthians 3:14

36 You need to persevere so that when you have done the will of God, you will receive what He has promised.

“In just a little while,

He who is coming will come and will not delay.

- Endurance leads to reward: Faith and perseverance secure the promises of God.

- The righteous live by faith: God calls His people not to shrink back, but to press on to salvation.

“The Hall of Faith”

Faith Defined

1 Faith is the confidence of what we hope for and the assurance of what we cannot see.

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 5:7; Romans 8:24; John 20:29

2 Through faith, the people of old received God’s approval.

Cross References: Genesis 15:6; Romans 4:3; James 2:23

3 By faith we understand that the universe was created by God’s word, so that what is seen was made out of what cannot be seen.

Cross References: Genesis 1:1; Psalm 33:6; John 1:3

Examples of Faith from the Ancients

4 By faith Abel offered a more acceptable sacrifice to God than Cain. God approved of his gifts, and even though Abel is dead, his faith still speaks.

Cross References: Genesis 4:4; Genesis 4:10; 1 John 3:12

5 By faith Enoch was taken up so he did not experience death. He could not be found because God had taken him. Before he was taken, he was commended for pleasing God.

Cross References: Genesis 5:24; Genesis 5:22; Jude 1:14

6 And without faith it is impossible to please God. Anyone who comes to Him must believe that He exists and that He rewards those who sincerely seek Him.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 4:29; Jeremiah 29:13; Genesis 15:1

7 By faith Noah, warned about things not yet seen, built an ark to save his family. By his faith he condemned the world and became an heir of righteousness.

Cross References: Genesis 6:14; Genesis 6:22; 1 Peter 3:20

Abraham and Sarah’s Faith

Longing for a Heavenly Country

13 All these died in faith without receiving what was promised. But they saw it from a distance, welcomed it, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on earth.

Cross References: Genesis 23:4; Genesis 47:9; 1 Peter 2:11

14 People who say such things show that they are looking for a homeland.

Cross References: Hebrews 13:14; Philippians 3:20; Ephesians 2:19

15 If they had been thinking of the country they came from, they could have returned.

More Examples of Faith

17 By faith Abraham, when tested, offered up Isaac. He who had received the promises was ready to sacrifice his only son,

18 even though God had said, “Through Isaac your descendants will be counted.”

Cross References: Genesis 21:12; Genesis 17:19; Romans 9:7

“Running the Race with Endurance”

Fixing Our Eyes on Jesus

1 Since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race set before us.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 9:24; 2 Timothy 4:7; Hebrews 11:1

2 Let us look to Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of our faith. For the joy set before Him, He endured the cross, disregarded its shame, and sat down at the right hand of God’s throne.

3 Think of Him who endured such opposition from sinners, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart.

and do not lose heart when He rebukes you,

10 They disciplined us for a short time as they thought best, but God disciplines us for our good, so that we may share in His holiness.

Introduction to the Book of James

“Faith by itself isn’t enough. Unless it produces good deeds, it is dead and useless.” – James 2:17

Title and Meaning

The book of James is a letter written to Jewish Christians scattered among the nations (James 1:1). Its title reflects its author, James, the half-brother of Jesus and leader of the Jerusalem church. Often called the “Proverbs of the New Testament,” James emphasizes practical Christian living. It shows how genuine faith is revealed through works of love, humility, and obedience.

Author and Date

The author is James, the brother of Jesus (Galatians 1:19) and leader of the Jerusalem church (Acts 15:13–21). He was a man of prayer and respected for his wisdom and leadership. James was likely written around AD 44–49, making it one of the earliest New Testament writings, before the Jerusalem Council (Acts 15).

Purpose of James

James wrote to encourage believers facing trials and to confront inconsistent, shallow, or hypocritical faith. His purposes include:

- To show that genuine faith results in good works.
- To encourage perseverance in trials and temptations.
- To warn against favoritism, pride, and uncontrolled speech.
- To call believers to humility, prayer, and reliance on God.
- To remind Christians that faith without works is dead.

Structure of James

James is filled with wisdom sayings and practical exhortations: 1. Trials and Temptations (Ch. 1) Believers are called to endure trials with joy and put God’s Word into practice.

- 2. Faith and Works (Chs. 2–3) Faith must be demonstrated through deeds; warnings against favoritism and the power of the tongue. 3. Wisdom and Humility (Chs. 3–4) True wisdom comes from God; believers are called to humility, submission, and resisting the devil. 4. Warnings and Final Exhortations (Ch. 5) Warnings to the rich, encouragement to the suffering, the power of prayer, and restoring the wandering.

Major Themes

- Faith in Action – True faith produces good works.
- Perseverance in Trials – Testing develops maturity and strength.
- Wisdom from Above – Godly wisdom is pure, peace-loving, and humble.
- The Power of the Tongue – Words have the power to bless or destroy.

- Prayer and Dependence on God – Believers must seek God in all circumstances.

Why James Matters Today

James speaks directly to believers who may profess faith but struggle to live it out. In a world of shallow religion and empty words, James calls Christians to authentic, lived-out faith. His words remind us that Christianity is not just believing, but doing—showing love, controlling our tongues, caring for the needy, and walking humbly with God.

Key Verse

“Faith by itself isn’t enough. Unless it produces good deeds, it is dead and useless.” – James 2:17
This verse captures the heart of James: genuine faith always leads to action.

Joy in Trials

The Lowly and the Rich

9 Believers in humble circumstances ought to take pride in their high position.

10 But the rich should take pride in being humbled, since they will pass away like a wildflower.

Cross References: Psalm 103:15; Isaiah 40:7; 1 Peter 1:24

11 For the sun rises with scorching heat and withers the plant; its blossom falls and its beauty is destroyed. In the same way, the rich will fade away while going about their business.

14 But each person is tempted when they are dragged away by their own desires and enticed.

Listening and Doing

19 My dear brothers and sisters, take note of this: Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to become angry,

20 because human anger does not produce the righteousness that God desires.

22 Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says.

23 Anyone who listens to the word but does not do what it says is like someone who looks at his face in a mirror,

24 and after looking at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like.

Cross References: 2 Peter 1:9; Matthew 13:19; Hosea 4:6

25 But whoever looks intently into the perfect law that gives freedom, and continues in it—not forgetting what they have heard, but doing it—they will be blessed in what they do.

Cross References: Psalm 19:7; Psalm 119:45; John 13:17

True Religion

26 Those who consider themselves religious and yet do not keep a tight rein on their tongues deceive themselves, and their religion is worthless.

Cross References: Psalm 39:1; Proverbs 13:3; Proverbs 21:23

“Faith Without Works Is Dead”

No Favoritism in the Faith

1 My brothers and sisters, do not claim to have faith in our Lord Jesus Christ, the glorious Lord, while showing favoritism.

Cross References: Leviticus 19:15; Deuteronomy 1:17; Acts 10:34

2 Suppose a man comes into your meeting wearing gold rings and fine clothes, and a poor man also comes in wearing old, dirty clothes.

Cross References: Proverbs 22:2; 1 Samuel 16:7; Job 34:19

3 If you show special attention to the one in fine clothes and say, “Here’s a good seat for you,” but say to the poor man, “You stand there” or “Sit at my feet,”

Cross References: Matthew 23:6; Luke 14:8; Proverbs 25:6

4 have you not discriminated among yourselves and become judges with evil thoughts?

Cross References: Luke 6:37; Matthew 7:1; John 7:24

5 Listen, my beloved brothers and sisters: Has not God chosen the poor in the eyes of the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom He promised to those who love Him?

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 1:27; Luke 6:20; Matthew 5:3

6 But you have dishonored the poor. Is it not the rich who oppress you and drag you into court?

The Royal Law of Love

8 If you really keep the royal law found in Scripture, “Love your neighbor as yourself,” you are doing right.

Faith and Works Together

14 What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone claims to have faith but has no deeds? Can such faith save them?

Cross References: Matthew 7:21; Titus 1:16; Galatians 5:6

15 Suppose a brother or sister is without clothes and daily food.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 15:8; Isaiah 58:7; 1 John 3:17

16 If one of you says to them, “Go in peace; keep warm and well fed,” but does nothing about their physical needs, what good is it?

17 In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead.

26 As the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

Key Lessons from James 2

- No favoritism in Christ: Treating the rich better than the poor is sin; God honors those rich in faith, not in wealth.
- The royal law is love: Loving your neighbor fulfills the heart of God’s law.
- One law broken breaks all: Sin in one area makes us guilty of the whole law.
- Mercy triumphs over judgment: Show mercy to others if you expect mercy from God.
- Faith without action is dead: True faith shows itself in deeds of love and service.
- Abraham’s example: Faith and obedience worked together, proving his trust in God.
- Rahab’s example: Even unlikely people can show genuine faith by their actions.
- Living faith acts: Just as a body without breath is dead, so faith without works is lifeless.

“The Power of the Tongue and True Wisdom”

The Responsibility of Teachers

1 My brothers and sisters, not many of you should become teachers, because you know that we who teach will be judged more strictly.

Cross References: Matthew 23:8; Luke 12:48; Ezekiel 33:6

2 We all stumble in many ways. Anyone who does not stumble in what he says is a perfect person, able to keep the whole body under control.

The Tongue’s Influence

3 We put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us, and we can turn their whole bodies.

Cross References: Psalm 32:9; Proverbs 26:3; Job 39:19

4 Or consider ships: though they are very large and driven by strong winds, they are steered by a very small rudder wherever the pilot wants to go.

Cross References: Proverbs 21:1; Acts 27:15; Psalm 107:29

5 In the same way, the tongue is a small part of the body, but it makes great boasts. Consider what a great forest is set on fire by such a small spark!

Cross References: Proverbs 16:27; Proverbs 26:21; Psalm 39:1

6 The tongue is also a fire, a world of evil among the parts of the body. It corrupts the whole person, sets the entire course of life on fire, and is itself set on fire by hell.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:27; Matthew 15:11; Matthew 15:18

7 People have tamed all kinds of animals, birds, reptiles, and sea creatures,

11 Can both fresh water and bitter water flow from the same spring?

Cross References: Matthew 7:16; Matthew 12:35; Luke 6:43

Wisdom from Above

13 Who is wise and understanding among you? Let them show it by their good life, by deeds done in humility that comes from wisdom.

14 But if you harbor bitter envy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not boast about it or deny the truth.

15 Such wisdom does not come down from above but is earthly, unspiritual, and demonic.

16 For where you have envy and selfish ambition, there you find disorder and every evil practice.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 14:33; Galatians 5:20; Proverbs 13:10

18 Peacemakers who sow in peace reap a harvest of righteousness.

- Heavenly wisdom transforms: True wisdom is pure, peace-loving, humble, merciful, and sincere.
- Peacemakers are fruitful: Those who sow peace bring forth a harvest of righteousness.

“Humility Before God”

Quarrels and Desires

1 What causes fights and quarrels among you? Don't they come from your desires that battle within you?

Cross References: 1 Peter 2:11; Galatians 5:17; Romans 7:23

2 You want something but don't get it. You kill and covet, but you cannot have what you want. You quarrel and fight. You do not have because you do not ask God.

Cross References: Matthew 7:7; John 16:24; Psalm 37:4

3 And when you do ask, you do not receive, because you ask with wrong motives—to spend it on your own pleasures.

Cross References: 1 John 5:14; Psalm 66:18; Proverbs 21:27

Friendship with the World

4 You adulterous people, don't you know that friendship with the world means enmity with God? Anyone who chooses to be a friend of the world becomes an enemy of God.

Cross References: 1 Peter 5:6; Matthew 23:12; Proverbs 29:23

17 If anyone knows the good they ought to do and doesn’t do it, it is sin for them.

- Desires cause conflict: Worldly cravings lead to quarrels, frustration, and unanswered prayers.
- Friendship with the world is enmity with God: Pursuing worldly pleasures makes us God’s enemies.
- Grace for the humble: God resists the proud but draws near to those who submit to Him.
- Spiritual closeness requires repentance: Cleansing hearts, humbling ourselves, and resisting the devil brings God’s presence.
- Do not judge others: God alone is Judge and Lawgiver; we must walk in humility.
- Life is fragile: Our days are like a vapor—plans must always submit to “If the Lord wills.”

Introduction to the Book of 1 Peter

“Instead, you must worship Christ as Lord of your life. And if someone asks about your hope as a believer, always be ready to explain it.” – 1 Peter 3:15

Title and Meaning

The book of 1 Peter is a letter written to Christians scattered throughout Asia Minor (modern-day Turkey). Its title reflects its author, the apostle Peter, one of Jesus’ closest disciples and a leader of the early church. This letter is often called the “Epistle of Hope” because it encourages believers to stand firm in faith and live holy lives, even while suffering persecution.

Author and Date

The author is Peter, the apostle (1 Peter 1:1). He wrote this letter around AD 62–64, likely from Rome, which he refers to symbolically as “Babylon” (1 Peter 5:13). This was during the reign of Emperor Nero, a time when Christians were facing growing hostility.

Purpose of 1 Peter

Peter wrote to strengthen believers who were experiencing trials and persecution. His purposes include:

- To encourage Christians to stand firm in faith amid suffering.
- To remind them of their identity as God’s chosen people.
- To call believers to live holy and godly lives as witnesses to the world.
- To provide hope in the promise of eternal inheritance in Christ.
- To teach that suffering for Christ is a privilege and part of God’s plan.

Structure of 1 Peter

The letter blends encouragement with practical instruction for Christian living: 1. Salvation and Hope in Christ (Ch. 1:1–2:10) Believers are chosen by God, given a living hope, and called to holiness.

- 2. Living as God’s People in a Hostile World (Ch. 2:11–4:11) Guidance for submitting to authority, enduring injustice, and showing love.
- 3. Suffering and Glory in Christ (Ch. 4:12–5:14) Encouragement to endure suffering faithfully, with the promise of God’s eternal glory.

Major Themes

- Hope in Suffering – Trials refine faith and point to eternal glory.
- Holiness – God’s people are called to live differently from the world.
- Identity in Christ – Believers are chosen, royal, and holy (1 Peter 2:9).
- Submission and Witness – Faithful living honors God and impacts others.

- Shepherding and Leadership – Church leaders are called to humbly care for God’s flock.

Why 1 Peter Matters Today

1 Peter speaks directly to believers living in a world where faith often collides with opposition. It reminds us that our suffering is not meaningless but part of God’s refining work. It calls Christians to live holy, hope-filled lives that point others to Christ. In times of hardship, 1 Peter anchors us in the eternal inheritance waiting for us in heaven.

Key Verse

“Instead, you must worship Christ as Lord of your life. And if someone asks about your hope as a believer, always be ready to explain it.” – 1 Peter 3:15 This verse captures the heart of 1 Peter: hope in Christ shapes how we live and how we witness, even in suffering.

Wives and Husbands

1 Wives, in the same way, submit yourselves to your own husbands, so that if any of them do not believe the word, they may be won over without words by the behavior of their wives,

5 For this is how the holy women of the past who put their hope in God adorned themselves. They submitted themselves to their own husbands,

Introduction to the Book of 2 Peter

“By his divine power, God has given us everything we need for living a godly life.” – 2 Peter 1:3

Title and Meaning

The book of 2 Peter is the apostle Peter’s final letter to believers, written shortly before his death. Its title reflects its author and recipient. While 1 Peter focuses on encouragement in suffering, 2 Peter warns against false teachers and urges believers to grow in godliness. It is often called a letter of remembrance and warning, stressing the importance of staying grounded in God’s Word until Christ’s return.

Author and Date

The apostle Peter is the author (2 Peter 1:1). He refers to his approaching death (2 Peter 1:14), which tradition places during Emperor Nero’s reign (AD 64–68). The letter was likely written around AD 65–67, making it one of the last New Testament books written.

Purpose of 2 Peter

Peter wrote this letter to prepare believers for the dangers of false teaching and to remind them of the certainty of Christ’s return. His purposes include:

- To encourage spiritual growth in grace and knowledge.
- To warn against false teachers who twist the truth.
- To remind believers of the authority and reliability of Scripture.
- To affirm the coming judgment and the return of Christ.
- To call Christians to live holy and blameless lives while waiting for the Lord.

Structure of 2 Peter

The letter moves from growth in faith to warning against error to hope in Christ’s return: 1. Growing in Grace and Knowledge (Ch. 1) Believers are called to add to their faith and remember the truth of God’s promises. 2. Warning Against False Teachers (Ch. 2) Peter exposes the dangers and destruction of corrupt teachers.

- 3. The Day of the Lord (Ch. 3) Peter reassures believers of Christ’s promised return and urges holy living in light of eternity.

Major Themes

- Spiritual Growth – True faith is marked by continual growth in godliness.
- False Teaching – Believers must discern and reject destructive lies.
- The Authority of Scripture – God’s Word is reliable and inspired by the Spirit.
- The Return of Christ – The Lord’s timing is perfect; His promise will be fulfilled.
- Holy Living – Christians are called to live in holiness as they await Christ’s return.

Why 2 Peter Matters Today

2 Peter warns against spiritual deception and calls believers to remain steadfast in truth. In an age of false teachings, skepticism, and moral compromise, its message is more relevant than ever. It reminds us that Christ is coming again, that God's Word is trustworthy, and that we must grow daily in faith, knowledge, and holiness.

Key Verse

"By his divine power, God has given us everything we need for living a godly life." – 2 Peter 1:3
This verse captures the essence of 2 Peter: God equips His people with all they need to remain faithful until Christ's return.

“False Teachers and Their Judgment”

The Rise of False Teachers

1 But just as there were false prophets among the people, there will also be false teachers among you. They will secretly introduce destructive heresies—even denying the Lord who bought them—and bring swift destruction on themselves.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 13:1; Matthew 24:11; 1 Timothy 4:1

2 Many will follow their shameful ways, and because of them the way of truth will be slandered.

Cross References: 1 Timothy 6:1; Romans 2:24; Titus 2:5

3 In their greed they will exploit you with fabricated stories. Their condemnation has long been hanging over them, and their destruction is not asleep.

Cross References: 1 Timothy 6:5; Jude 1:4; Romans 16:18

Examples of God's Judgment

4 For if God did not spare the angels when they sinned, but cast them into hell, putting them in chains of darkness to be held for judgment;

Cross References: Jude 1:6; Genesis 6:2; Revelation 20:2

5 if He did not spare the ancient world when He brought the flood on its ungodly people, but protected Noah, a preacher of righteousness, and seven others;

Cross References: Genesis 7:1; Genesis 6:9; 1 Peter 3:20

6 if He condemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah by burning them to ashes, making them an example of what will happen to the ungodly;

Cross References: Genesis 19:24; Genesis 19:25; Jude 1:7

7 and if He rescued Lot, a righteous man who was distressed by the depraved conduct of the lawless—

Cross References: Genesis 19:16; Genesis 19:29; Luke 17:29

8 for that righteous man, living among them day after day, was tormented in his righteous soul by the lawless deeds he saw and heard—

Cross References: Psalm 119:136; Ezekiel 9:4; Genesis 19:9

9 then the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from trials and to hold the unrighteous for punishment on the day of judgment.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 10:13; Psalm 34:19; Jude 1:6

The Character of False Teachers

10 This is especially true of those who follow the corrupt desire of the flesh and despise authority. Bold and arrogant, they are not afraid to heap abuse on heavenly beings;

Cross References: Jude 1:8; 1 Timothy 1:19; Titus 1:16

11 yet even angels, though greater in power and might, do not bring slanderous accusations against such beings before the Lord.

Cross References: Jude 1:9; Zechariah 3:2; Psalm 103:20

12 But these people are like irrational animals, creatures of instinct, born to be caught and destroyed. They speak abusively about things they do not understand, and they will perish in their own corruption.

Cross References: Jude 1:10; Psalm 49:20; Job 40:15

13 They will be paid back with harm for the harm they have done. They consider it a pleasure to carouse in broad daylight. They are blots and blemishes, reveling in their deceptions while they feast with you.

Cross References: Jude 1:12; Isaiah 5:11; Philippians 3:19

14 With eyes full of adultery, they never stop sinning; they seduce the unstable. They are experts in greed—an accursed brood!

Cross References: Jude 1:16; James 1:14; 2 Timothy 3:6

15 They have left the straight way and wandered off to follow the way of Balaam son of Beor, who loved the wages of wickedness.

Cross References: Numbers 22:21; Numbers 31:16; Jude 1:11

16 But he was rebuked for his wrongdoing by a donkey—a beast without speech—who spoke with a human voice and restrained the prophet’s madness.

Cross References: Numbers 22:28; Numbers 22:31; Numbers 22:33

Empty Promises of False Teachers

17 These people are wells without water and mists driven by a storm. Blackest darkness is reserved for them.

Cross References: Jude 1:12; Jude 1:13; Proverbs 25:14

18 For they mouth empty, boastful words and, by appealing to lustful desires of the flesh, they entice people who are just escaping from those who live in error.

Cross References: Jude 1:16; Jude 1:18; 1 John 2:16

19 They promise freedom, while they themselves are slaves of corruption—for people are slaves to whatever has mastered them.

Cross References: John 8:34; Romans 6:16; Galatians 5:1

20 If they have escaped the corruption of the world by knowing our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, and are again entangled in it and overcome, they are worse off at the end than they were at the beginning.

Cross References: Matthew 12:45; Hebrews 6:4; Hebrews 10:26

21 It would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than to know it and then turn their backs on the holy command delivered to them.

Cross References: Luke 12:47; Hebrews 10:26; Matthew 21:32

22 Of them the proverbs are true: “A dog returns to its vomit,” and, “A sow that is washed goes back to her wallowing in the mud.”

Cross References: Proverbs 26:11; Matthew 7:6; Isaiah 66:3

Key Lessons from 2 Peter 2

- False teachers are arrogant and corrupt: They despise authority, speak with ignorance, and live for greed and lust.
- Their promises are empty: They promise freedom but are themselves enslaved by sin.
- Turning back is worse than never knowing: Those who reject Christ after knowing Him face greater condemnation.
- A tragic picture: Like dogs returning to vomit or pigs to mud, those who abandon Christ fall back into corruption.

2 Peter 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Day of the Lord and the Promise of His Coming”

A Reminder of God’s Word

1 Dear friends, this is now my second letter to you. In both of them I have tried to stir up your sincere minds by reminding you

Cross References: 1 Peter 1:13; 2 Peter 1:12; Jude 1:5

2 to recall the words spoken in the past by the holy prophets and the command given by our Lord and Savior through your apostles.

Cross References: Jude 1:17; Ephesians 2:20; 1 Peter 1:10

Scoffers in the Last Days

3 Above all, you must understand that in the last days scoffers will come, following their own evil desires.

Cross References: 1 Timothy 4:1; Jude 1:18; 2 Timothy 3:1

4 They will say, “Where is this ‘coming’ He promised? Ever since our ancestors died, everything goes on as it has since the beginning of creation.”

Cross References: Isaiah 5:19; Ezekiel 12:22; Psalm 42:10

5 But they deliberately forget that long ago by God’s word the heavens came into being and the earth was formed out of water and by water.

Cross References: Genesis 1:6; Genesis 1:9; Psalm 33:6

6 By these waters also the world of that time was deluged and destroyed.

Cross References: Genesis 7:11; Genesis 7:21; Genesis 7:23

7 By the same word the present heavens and earth are reserved for fire, being kept for the day of judgment and destruction of the ungodly.

Cross References: Zephaniah 1:18; Malachi 4:1; Revelation 20:9

God’s Patience and Promise

8 But do not forget this one thing, dear friends: With the Lord a day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like a day.

Cross References: Psalm 90:4; Psalm 90:2; Ecclesiastes 3:1

9 The Lord is not slow in keeping His promise, as some understand slowness. Instead He is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance.

Cross References: Ezekiel 33:11; 1 Timothy 2:4; Habakkuk 2:3

10 But the day of the Lord will come like a thief. The heavens will disappear with a roar; the elements will be destroyed by fire, and the earth and everything in it will be laid bare.

Cross References: Matthew 24:43; 1 Thessalonians 5:2; Revelation 16:15

Living in Expectation

11 Since everything will be destroyed in this way, what kind of people ought you to be? You ought to live holy and godly lives,

Cross References: 1 Peter 1:15; 1 Thessalonians 4:7; Titus 2:12

12 as you look forward to the day of God and speed its coming. That day will bring about the destruction of the heavens by fire, and the elements will melt in the heat.

Cross References: Isaiah 34:4; Revelation 21:1; Matthew 24:14

13 But in keeping with His promise we are looking forward to a new heaven and a new earth, where righteousness dwells.

Cross References: Isaiah 65:17; Isaiah 66:22; Revelation 21:1

14 So then, dear friends, since you are looking forward to this, make every effort to be found spotless, blameless, and at peace with Him.

Cross References: Philippians 2:15; 1 Thessalonians 5:23; Ephesians 5:27

15 Bear in mind that our Lord's patience means salvation, just as our dear brother Paul also wrote to you with the wisdom God gave him.

Cross References: Romans 2:4; 1 Timothy 1:16; Romans 15:15

16 He writes the same way in all his letters, speaking in them of these matters. His letters contain some things that are hard to understand, which ignorant and unstable people distort—as they do the other Scriptures—to their own destruction.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 2:13; 1 Timothy 6:3; 2 Timothy 2:15

Final Exhortation

17 Therefore, dear friends, since you have been forewarned, be on your guard so that you may not be carried away by the error of the lawless and fall from your secure position.

Cross References: Mark 13:5; Ephesians 4:14; Galatians 5:4

18 But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To Him be glory both now and forever! Amen.

Introduction to the Book of 1 John

“I have written this to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know you have eternal life.” – 1 John 5:13

Title and Meaning

The book of 1 John is a letter written by the apostle John, though it does not name its author. Its title comes from early church tradition, which strongly associates it with John, the beloved disciple of Jesus. Unlike Paul’s letters, 1 John does not follow a formal epistolary structure; instead, it reads like a pastoral sermon or circular letter. Its primary focus is on truth, love, and assurance, helping believers know they are truly in Christ.

Author and Date

The author is traditionally identified as John, the apostle and author of the Gospel of John and Revelation. His style and vocabulary—light, love, truth, eternal life—mirror those found in his other writings. 1 John was likely written around AD 85–95, near the end of John’s life, from Ephesus to the surrounding churches.

Purpose of 1 John

John wrote this letter to combat false teaching and to provide believers with confidence in their faith. His purposes include:

- To expose false teachers who denied Christ’s incarnation and promoted lawlessness.
- To assure believers of their salvation and eternal life in Christ.
- To emphasize the necessity of love as the mark of true Christian faith.
- To call believers to walk in the light and reject sin.
- To remind Christians of the reality of fellowship with God and one another.

Structure of 1 John

The letter does not follow a strict outline but revolves around cycles of themes: 1. Walking in the Light (Ch. 1:1–2:14) God is light; believers are called to walk in the light and obey His commands.

- 2. Warning Against the World and Antichrists (Ch. 2:15–27) John warns against love of the world and deception by false teachers.
- 3. Living as God’s Children (Chs. 2:28–4:6) God’s children practice righteousness, love one another, and test the spirits.
- 4. The Call to Love (Ch. 4:7–21) God is love, and His people are to reflect His love.
- 5. Assurance of Eternal Life (Ch. 5) Faith in Christ brings victory, confidence in prayer, and assurance of eternal life.

Major Themes

- Light vs. Darkness – Believers must walk in God’s truth and holiness.
- Love as Evidence of Faith – Genuine faith is shown through love for others.

- Christ's Incarnation – Jesus is fully God and fully man, the Son of God who came in the flesh.
- Assurance of Salvation – Believers can know they have eternal life.
- Victory in Christ – Faith in Jesus overcomes the world.

Why 1 John Matters Today

In a world of confusion, compromise, and false teaching, 1 John provides clarity and confidence. It reminds us that truth and love cannot be separated: true faith in Christ produces a life of obedience and love for others. It also assures believers that eternal life is not a vague hope but a present reality through Jesus Christ.

Key Verse

“I have written this to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know you have eternal life.” – 1 John 5:13 This verse captures the heart of 1 John: believers can have certainty, not doubt, about their salvation in Christ.

“Children of God and the Call to Love”

God's Amazing Love

1 See how great a love the Father has given us—that we should be called the children of God! And that is what we are. The world does not recognize us, because it did not recognize Him.

Cross References: John 1:12; Romans 8:14; John 17:25

2 Beloved, we are now God's children, but it has not yet been revealed what we shall be. We know that when Christ appears, we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He truly is.

5 But you know that Christ appeared to take away our sins, and in Him there is no sin.

7 Little children, don't let anyone deceive you. The one who does what is right is righteous, just as He is righteous.

Cross References: 1 John 2:29; Matthew 5:6; Romans 2:13

- The dividing line: Those who love and live righteously show they are God's children; those who persist in hate and sin belong to the devil.
- Love proved by action: Christ's sacrifice defines real love—we show it by meeting needs and serving others.
- Confidence in prayer: Obedience and love give us boldness before God, knowing He hears us.
- The Spirit's witness: The indwelling Spirit assures us that Christ abides in us.

Cross References: Matthew 7:15; 1 Thessalonians 5:21; 2 Peter 2:1

2 This is how you recognize the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesses Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God.

Cross References: John 1:14; 1 Timothy 3:16; 2 John 1:7

3 But every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you have heard is coming and is already in the world.

Cross References: 2 John 1:7; 1 John 2:22; 2 Thessalonians 2:7

4 You, dear children, are from God and have overcome them, because the One who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world.

5 They belong to the world; therefore they speak from the world's viewpoint, and the world listens to them.

Cross References: John 15:19; John 3:31; James 4:4

6 We belong to God. Whoever knows God listens to us, but whoever is not from God does not listen to us. This is how we recognize the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

19 We love because He first loved us.

Cross References: John 15:16; Romans 5:8; Titus 3:4

- God is love: Love is the essence of God’s nature; knowing Him leads to loving others.
- Love revealed in Christ: God proved His love by sending His Son as the sacrifice for our sins.

Key Lessons from 1 John 5

- Three witnesses agree: The water (baptism), the blood (sacrifice), and the Spirit all testify that Jesus is the Christ.
- Eternal life is in Christ alone: Whoever has the Son has life; without Him, there is no eternal life.
- Confidence in prayer: When we ask according to God's will, He hears us and answers.
- Sin and intercession: Not all sin leads to death, but all sin is serious; believers should pray for one another.
- God's protection: Those born of God are guarded from the power of the evil one.
- Stay pure from idols: True life is found only in the living God revealed in Jesus Christ.

Introduction to the Book of 2 John

“Love means doing what God has commanded us, and he has commanded us to love one another, just as you heard from the beginning.” – 2 John 1:6

Title and Meaning

The book of 2 John is one of the shortest writings in the New Testament. Its title reflects its traditional author, the apostle John. Unlike his first letter, which was written more broadly, 2 John is a personal letter addressed to “the elect lady and her children” (likely referring to a specific Christian woman and her family, or symbolically to a local church). The letter emphasizes truth, love, and guarding against false teaching.

Author and Date

The author is traditionally identified as John, the beloved disciple of Jesus and the author of the Gospel of John, 1 John, and Revelation. He refers to himself simply as “the elder” (2 John 1:1), highlighting his spiritual authority and pastoral heart. The letter was likely written around AD 85–95, near the end of John’s life, from Ephesus or the surrounding region.

Purpose of 2 John

John wrote this short letter with a dual purpose:

- To encourage believers to walk in truth and love.
- To warn against welcoming or supporting false teachers who denied Christ’s incarnation and sought to deceive. This letter balances love and discernment, reminding believers that Christian hospitality must never compromise the truth of the gospel.

Structure of 2 John

Though brief, the letter has a clear flow: 1. Greeting and Commendation (vv. 1–3) John greets the “elect lady and her children,” affirming the truth they walk in.

- 2. Exhortation to Love and Truth (vv. 4–6) A call to love one another while continuing in obedience to God’s commands. 3. Warning Against False Teachers (vv. 7–11) Believers must guard against deceivers and refuse to support them. 4. Closing Remarks (vv. 12–13) John expresses his desire to speak in person for fuller joy and sends final greetings.

Major Themes

- Truth and Love Together – Both must define the Christian life.
- Obedience to God’s Commands – True love is expressed in obedience.
- Discernment in Hospitality – Supporting false teachers spreads error.
- Guarding Against Deception – Believers must hold fast to Christ’s teaching.

Why 2 John Matters Today

2 John is a reminder that love without truth leads to error, and truth without love becomes harsh. In a world full of competing voices and false teachings, Christians are called to walk in both love and truth. The letter challenges us to practice discernment, remain faithful to Christ's teaching, and live out our faith in genuine love.

Key Verse

"Love means doing what God has commanded us, and he has commanded us to love one another, just as you heard from the beginning." – 2 John 1:6 This verse captures the heart of 2 John: love is inseparable from obedience to God's truth.

Key Lessons from 2 John

- Truth and love endure: God's truth dwells in us forever, and love is the outworking of obedience.
- Love is obedience: True love means walking according to God's commands.
- Beware of deceivers: False teachers who deny Christ are antichrists; guard yourself against them.
- Do not partner with error: Supporting or approving those who reject Christ makes us share in their deeds.
- Joy in fellowship: Face-to-face fellowship among believers brings fullness of joy.

Introduction to the Book of 3 John

“Dear friend, don’t let this bad example influence you. Follow only what is good. Remember that those who do good prove that they are God’s children, and those who do evil prove that they do not know God.” – 3 John 1:11

Title and Meaning

The book of 3 John is the shortest book in the New Testament by word count. Its title reflects its traditional author, the apostle John. Unlike 1 John, which was a general letter, and 2 John, which addressed a “lady and her children,” 3 John is written to an individual named Gaius, commending him for his faithfulness and hospitality. The letter highlights the importance of supporting true ministers of the gospel while rejecting prideful opposition.

Author and Date

The author is traditionally understood to be John, the beloved disciple of Jesus and the writer of the Gospel of John, 1 John, 2 John, and Revelation. He again identifies himself as “the elder” (3 John 1:1), pointing to his pastoral authority. The letter was likely written around AD 85–95, during John’s later years, from Ephesus or nearby.

Purpose of 3 John

John wrote this short letter with a very practical purpose:

- To commend Gaius for his hospitality toward traveling preachers and missionaries.
- To warn against Diotrephes, a prideful leader who rejected apostolic authority and refused to welcome faithful workers.
- To praise Demetrius as a faithful example to follow.
- To encourage believers to support and walk in the truth.

Structure of 3 John

Though brief, the letter has a clear, personal flow: 1. Greeting and Commendation (vv. 1–8) John commends Gaius for walking in the truth and showing hospitality. 2. Warning Against Diotrephes (vv. 9–10) John rebukes Diotrephes for arrogance, slander, and rejection of authority.

- 3. Commendation of Demetrius (v. 12) John presents Demetrius as a faithful example for believers to follow. 4. Closing Remarks (vv. 13–15) John expresses his desire to visit soon and sends final greetings.

Major Themes

- Hospitality and Support – Believers should support and encourage true servants of Christ.
- Walking in the Truth – Faithful living is shown through obedience and love.
- Opposition to Pride – Diotrephes serves as a warning against arrogance and selfishness.
- Faithful Examples – Gaius and Demetrius model genuine Christian character.

- Community in Christ – The church is called to unity, truth, and mutual care.

Why 3 John Matters Today

3 John teaches that how we treat others—especially those who labor for the gospel—matters deeply to God. It reminds us to support faithful workers, resist prideful or divisive leaders, and walk consistently in the truth. In an age where selfish ambition often corrupts leadership, this letter calls believers to humility, hospitality, and integrity.

Key Verse

“Dear friend, don’t let this bad example influence you. Follow only what is good. Remember that those who do good prove that they are God’s children, and those who do evil prove that they do not know God.” – 3 John 1:11 This verse captures the essence of 3 John: true faith is revealed in doing good and walking in truth.

- Walking in truth brings joy: Nothing delights a spiritual leader more than to see believers living faithfully in truth.

- Encourage the faithful: Demetrius stands as an example of a good testimony before both men and God.

Introduction to the Book of Jude

“But you, dear friends, must build each other up in your most holy faith, pray in the power of the Holy Spirit, and await the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ, who will bring you eternal life.” – Jude 1:20–21

Title and Meaning

The book of Jude is one of the shortest but most urgent letters in the New Testament. Its title reflects its author, Jude (or Judas), who identifies himself as “a servant of Jesus Christ and a brother of James” (Jude 1:1). This makes him a half-brother of Jesus (Matthew 13:55; Mark 6:3). Jude’s letter is a passionate warning to believers about false teachers who secretly infiltrate the church. It emphasizes the need to contend for the faith and remain faithful to Christ.

Author and Date

The author is Jude, brother of James and servant of Jesus Christ. Like James, Jude humbly identifies himself not by family relation but by his service to the Lord. Jude was likely written around AD 65–80, possibly around the same time as 2 Peter, since the two letters share similar themes and language.

Purpose of Jude

Jude intended to write about salvation but instead was compelled by the Holy Spirit to warn about dangerous false teachers. His purposes include:

- To urge believers to contend earnestly for the faith once for all delivered to the saints (Jude 1:3).
- To warn against ungodly teachers who distort grace and deny Jesus Christ.
- To remind believers of God’s past judgments against sin.
- To call Christians to persevere, build up their faith, and remain in God’s love.
- To assure them of God’s keeping power until the end.

Structure of Jude

Jude’s short letter is intense and focused: 1. Greeting and Purpose (vv. 1–4) Jude urges believers to contend for the faith and warns about false teachers. 2. Warnings and Examples of Judgment (vv. 5–16) Jude recalls Israel’s unbelief, fallen angels, Sodom and Gomorrah, and other examples as warnings.

- 3. Exhortation to Persevere (vv. 17–23) Believers must remember the apostles’ warnings, remain steadfast, and show mercy to others. 4. Closing Doxology (vv. 24–25) A powerful praise to God who is able to keep believers from falling and present them blameless.

Major Themes

- Contending for the Faith – Believers must defend the truth against distortion.

- God’s Judgment – Past examples show that God will judge rebellion and falsehood.
- Perseverance in Faith – Christians are called to remain steadfast and prayerful.
- God’s Keeping Power – God preserves His people until Christ’s return.
- Glory to God – The letter ends with one of the most beautiful doxologies in Scripture.

Why Jude Matters Today

Jude’s letter is strikingly relevant in an age filled with spiritual deception, moral compromise, and false teaching. It challenges Christians not to be passive but to actively contend for biblical truth. At the same time, Jude reminds us of God’s grace and power to preserve His people. His urgent words call us to courage, discernment, and devotion in a world hostile to truth.

Key Verse

“Dear friends, I had been eagerly planning to write to you about the salvation we all share. But now I find that I must write about something else, urging you to defend the faith that God has entrusted once for all time to his holy people.” – Jude 1:3 This verse captures the heartbeat of Jude: a call to defend the true faith against all distortion.

Introduction to the Book of Revelation

“Look! He comes with the clouds of heaven. And everyone will see him—even those who pierced him. And all the nations of the world will mourn for him. Yes! Amen!” – Revelation 1:7

Title and Meaning

The book of Revelation takes its name from the opening word in Greek, apokalypsis, meaning “unveiling” or “disclosure.” It is the final book of the New Testament and the Bible, revealing Jesus Christ in His glory as the risen Lord and conquering King. Revelation is both a prophecy of things to come and a message of hope for believers enduring trials. It unveils Christ’s ultimate victory over evil and the establishment of His eternal kingdom.

Author and Date

The author is John, traditionally understood to be the apostle and “beloved disciple” of Jesus (Revelation 1:1–2, 9). John received the visions while exiled on the island of Patmos “because of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus” (Revelation 1:9). The book was likely written around AD 95–96, during the reign of the Roman Emperor Domitian, a time of severe persecution for Christians.

Purpose of Revelation

Revelation was written to encourage persecuted believers and to assure them of Christ’s ultimate triumph. Its purposes include:

- To reveal Jesus Christ as the sovereign Lord and coming King.
- To strengthen believers to remain faithful amid persecution and trials.
- To warn of God’s coming judgments on sin and rebellion.
- To unveil the final defeat of Satan and evil.
- To give believers hope in the promise of a new heaven, new earth, and eternal fellowship with God.

Structure of Revelation

Revelation is highly symbolic, combining visions, prophecies, and promises: 1. Prologue and Letters to the Churches (Chs. 1–3) John sees the risen Christ and records messages to the seven churches of Asia.

- 2. Visions of Heaven and Judgments (Chs. 4–16) Scenes of God’s throne, the Lamb, and the unfolding of judgments through seals, trumpets, and bowls. 3. The Final Battle Against Evil (Chs. 17–20) The fall of Babylon, the defeat of the beast and false prophet, and Satan’s final judgment. 4. The New Heaven and New Earth (Chs. 21–22) The glorious vision of the New Jerusalem, where God dwells with His people forever.

Major Themes

- The Sovereignty of Christ – Jesus is Lord of history and ruler over kings.
- Judgment and Justice – God will judge sin, evil, and rebellion.
- The Return of Christ – Jesus will come again in glory and power.
- Victory of God’s People – Believers are called to endure and will share in Christ’s triumph.
- The New Creation – God will make all things new, dwelling with His people eternally.

Why Revelation Matters Today

Revelation reminds us that history is not spiraling out of control—God is sovereign, and His plan is unfolding. It assures believers that no matter how dark the world becomes, Christ is victorious. Revelation calls Christians to live faithfully, courageously, and expectantly, looking forward to Christ’s return and the hope of eternity in His presence.

angels!”

- Judgment Escalates: The trumpet blasts bring severe judgments—on the land, the sea, the rivers, and the heavens themselves—showing creation itself groans under sin.
- Wormwood and Bitterness: Sin corrupts what should give life; just as the bitter waters bring death, sin poisons and destroys.
- A Solemn Warning: The cry of “woe, woe, woe” shows that what is coming next will be even worse—calling us to repent and be ready.

Revelation 9 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Fifth and Sixth Trumpets: The First Two Woes”

The Fifth Trumpet – The Locusts from the Abyss

1 The fifth angel blew his trumpet, and I saw a star that had fallen from heaven to the earth. To him was given the key to the shaft of the bottomless pit.

Cross References: Isaiah 14:12; Luke 10:18; Revelation 20:1

2 He opened the shaft, and smoke poured out like the smoke of a huge furnace. The sun and the air were darkened by the smoke from the pit.

Cross References: Genesis 19:28; Exodus 19:18; Joel 2:10

3 From the smoke came locusts upon the earth, and they were given power like the power of scorpions.

Cross References: Exodus 10:12; Joel 2:4; Joel 1:4

4 They were told not to harm the grass, plants, or trees, but only those people who did not have the seal of God on their foreheads.

Cross References: Ezekiel 9:4; Revelation 7:3; Joel 2:22

5 They were allowed to torment them for five months, but not to kill them. Their torment was like the sting of a scorpion when it strikes a person.

Cross References: Job 3:21; 1 Kings 12:11; Revelation 9:10

6 During those days, people will seek death but will not find it. They will long to die, but death will flee from them.

Cross References: Job 3:21; Jeremiah 8:3; Isaiah 2:19

7 The locusts looked like horses prepared for battle. On their heads they wore something like crowns of gold, and their faces looked like human faces.

Cross References: Joel 2:4; Joel 2:5; Nahum 3:17

8 They had hair like women's hair, and teeth like lions' teeth.

Cross References: Joel 1:6; Job 41:14; Judges 16:19

9 They wore breastplates like iron, and the sound of their wings was like the roar of many chariots rushing into battle.

Cross References: Joel 2:5; Job 39:20; Nahum 3:2

10 Their tails were like scorpions with stingers, and in their tails they had power to torment people for five months.

Cross References: Revelation 9:5; Revelation 9:3; Luke 10:19

11 They had a king over them—the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in Greek is Apollyon (meaning “Destroyer”).

Cross References: Job 26:6; Revelation 20:1; Proverbs 27:20

12 The first woe is past; two more woes are yet to come.

Cross References: Revelation 8:13; Revelation 11:14; Ezekiel 7:5

The Sixth Trumpet – The Army from the Euphrates

13 The sixth angel blew his trumpet, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar before God.

14 It said to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, “Release the four angels bound at the great river Euphrates.”

16 The number of mounted troops was two hundred million—I heard their number.

Cross References: Psalm 68:17; Daniel 7:10; 2 Kings 6:17

17 In the vision I saw the horses and their riders. The riders wore breastplates fiery red, dark blue, and yellow as sulfur. The horses had heads like lions, and out of their mouths came fire, smoke, and sulfur.

Cross References: Ezekiel 38:22; Joel 2:5; Genesis 19:24

18 A third of mankind was killed by these three plagues—fire, smoke, and sulfur issuing from their mouths.

Cross References: Zechariah 14:12; Ezekiel 39:6; Revelation 8:11

19 The horses' power was in their mouths and in their tails, for their tails were like snakes with heads, and with them they inflicted injury.

Cross References: Genesis 3:15; Amos 5:19; Micah 7:17

20 Yet the rest of humanity who were not killed by these plagues still did not repent of the works of their hands. They did not stop worshiping demons and idols of gold, silver, bronze, stone, and wood—idols that cannot see, hear, or walk.

Cross References: Psalm 115:4; Daniel 5:23; Deuteronomy 32:17

21 Nor did they repent of their murders, their sorceries, their sexual immorality, or their thefts.

Cross References: Galatians 5:20; 2 Kings 9:22; Nahum 3:4

Key Lessons from Revelation 9

- God's Restraint: Even in judgment, God limits the power of destruction. The locusts could torment, but not kill; the angels were bound until God's appointed time.
- The Abyss and the Destroyer: Evil has a leader, but he is still under God's authority. Satan and his forces cannot act without permission.
- The Horror of Sin's Consequences: People will long for death rather than life during God's judgments, showing how terrible rebellion against God becomes.
- Judgment Should Lead to Repentance: Instead of turning to God, humanity clings to idolatry, violence, immorality, and deception—proof that hardened hearts resist God even in the face of wrath.
- Victory in Christ: Only those sealed by God are protected. Believers are secure because they belong to the Lamb who has already conquered the Destroyer.

- The Mystery of God Will Be Finished: God’s hidden purposes—His plan for judgment, redemption, and the Kingdom—will be fully revealed at the sound of the seventh trumpet.

- The Word of God Is Both Sweet and Bitter: Receiving God’s Word brings joy and delight, but declaring it often brings pain, sorrow, and rejection.

A Note from the Author

Dr. Paul Crawford

The Crawford Standard Bible is the fruit of many years of prayer, study, and reflection on God's Word. My heart in creating this translation has always been simple: to render the Scriptures into clear, modern American English without losing the depth, beauty, and authority of the original texts. In my own journey, I have found that God's Word speaks best when it is both faithful to the original meaning and understandable to the reader. That is what I have sought to accomplish here. This Bible does not aim to replace the cherished translations that have nourished believers for centuries; rather, it stands alongside them as a companion—fresh in its language, yet rooted in the same eternal truth. Throughout this translation, great care has been taken to balance accuracy with clarity. The ancient Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek texts have been studied with reverence, and where nuances of meaning might otherwise be lost, explanatory notes and structured divisions have been included to guide the reader. My prayer is that every word here will be received as it was first intended: as the living Word of God, timeless and trans-formative. I dedicate this work to all who hunger and thirst for righteousness, to every believer seeking to walk in the light of Christ, and to future generations who will inherit the call to carry the gospel forward. May this Bible draw you closer to the Author of Life Himself and strengthen your walk with the Lord Jesus Christ. As Paul the Apostle wrote, “For everything that was written in the past was written to teach us, so that through endurance and the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope” (Romans 15:4). May you find that same hope, comfort, and strength as you read these pages. With love in Christ,

Dr. Paul Crawford
