Key Lessons from Isaiah 39

- Pride opens the door to downfall: Hezekiah’s pride in displaying his treasures led to a prophecy of future loss and exile.
- Earthly treasures are temporary: What seems secure can be taken away; true security is in God alone.
- God sees beyond our short-term comfort: Hezekiah was relieved there would be peace in his time, but the judgment would fall on future generations.
- We must live with generational responsibility: Our choices can affect our children and grandchildren—faithfulness today matters for tomorrow.
- Prophecy prepares God’s people: Even when judgment is declared, God gives warnings so His people can understand His justice and mercy.

“The Obedient Servant of the Lord”

Israel’s Sin, Not God’s Weakness

1 This is what the Lord says:

“Where is your mother’s certificate of divorce, with which I sent her away?

Or to which of My creditors did I sell you?

No, it was because of your sins you were sold, and because of your transgressions your mother was sent away.

Cross References: Jeremiah 3:8; Deuteronomy 24:1; Isaiah 52:3

2 When I came, why was there no one to respond?

When I called, why was there no one to answer?

I turn rivers into desert;

their fish rot for lack of water and die of thirst.

Cross References: John 1:11; Numbers 11:23; Exodus 14:21

3 I clothe the heavens with darkness

Cross References: Isaiah 13:10; Revelation 6:12; Joel 2:31

He opens My ear to listen like a disciple.

Cross References: Proverbs 1:31; Isaiah 65:13; Jeremiah 2:13

Key Lessons from Isaiah 50

- Unshakable confidence in God: The Servant's boldness comes from trusting God's vindication, not human approval (vv. 7–9).
- A choice of trust: Those who fear the Lord must walk by faith, not by their own sparks of human effort. Trusting in self-made fire leads only to sorrow (vv. 10–11).

Introduction to the Book of Jeremiah

“Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I set you apart...” – Jeremiah 1:5

Title and Meaning

The title Jeremiah comes from the name of its central prophet, Yirmeyahu in Hebrew, meaning “Yahweh exalts” or “Yahweh throws down.” Both meanings reflect the dual nature of Jeremiah’s ministry: God would exalt His word through Jeremiah, yet also “throw down” nations in judgment. In Hebrew tradition, the book is simply called Jeremiah. Jeremiah is often called the weeping prophet because of his deep grief over Judah’s sins and impending judgment. His words combine warning, lament, and hope, making this one of the most personal and emotional books of the Bible.

Author and Date

Jeremiah, son of Hilkiah, from the priestly town of Anathoth, is traditionally regarded as the author. He ministered as a prophet for over 40 years, from about 627 BC (during the reign of King Josiah) until after the fall of Jerusalem in 586 BC. Baruch, Jeremiah’s faithful scribe, recorded many of his messages (Jeremiah 36:4). The book was likely compiled in stages, with Baruch helping preserve Jeremiah’s prophecies and historical events surrounding Judah’s downfall.

Purpose of Jeremiah

Jeremiah’s ministry was to call God’s people to repentance and to warn of judgment if they persisted in idolatry and injustice. The book teaches us:

- That God is holy and cannot overlook sin.
 - That God’s covenant people are accountable to His word.
 - That rebellion against God brings judgment, but repentance brings restoration.
 - That even in exile, God promises a new covenant written on the heart (Jeremiah 31:31–34).
- Thus, Jeremiah reveals both God’s righteous anger and His unfailing mercy.

Structure of Jeremiah

The book of Jeremiah is not strictly chronological, but it can be organized into major sections:

- 1. Call and Commission (Ch. 1)
 - • God calls Jeremiah as a prophet to the nations.
- 2. Prophecies of Judgment against Judah (Ch. 2–29)
 - • Rebukes for idolatry and social injustice.
 - • Warnings of coming destruction by Babylon.
- 3. Promises of Restoration (Ch. 30–33)
 - • The “Book of Consolation.”
 - • God promises to restore His people and make a new covenant.

- 4. The Fall of Jerusalem (Ch. 34–45)
 - Narratives of Judah’s final kings and Jerusalem’s destruction.
 - Jeremiah’s personal suffering and persecution.
- 5. Oracles against the Nations (Ch. 46–51)
 - Judgment against Egypt, Moab, Ammon, Babylon, and others.
- 6. Historical Appendix (Ch. 52)
 - A record of Jerusalem’s fall and the exile, paralleling 2 Kings 24–25.

Major Themes

- Covenant and Judgment: Judah broke God’s covenant, and judgment followed.
- Repentance and Hardness of Heart: God pleaded for repentance, yet the people resisted.
- False Prophets vs. True Prophets: Jeremiah often clashed with leaders who promised peace when judgment was near.
- Suffering in Ministry: Jeremiah faced rejection, imprisonment, and despair, showing the cost of faithfulness.
- The New Covenant: God promises a future covenant written on the heart, fulfilled in Christ.

Why Jeremiah Matters Today

Jeremiah speaks powerfully to a world that still wrestles with sin, injustice, and misplaced trust. It challenges us to:

- Examine our hearts for faithfulness to God.
- Trust in God’s word, not popular opinion.
- Remember that even in judgment, God offers hope through His promises.
- Look forward to the new covenant fulfilled in Jesus Christ, who writes His law on our hearts by the Holy Spirit.

Key Verse

“This is the covenant I will make with the people of Israel after that time,” declares the Lord. “I will put my law in their minds and write it on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people.” – Jeremiah 31:33 This verse captures Jeremiah’s central message: God’s ultimate plan is not just external law, but internal transformation through His Spirit.

- Forsaking God for false gods is like trading living water for broken cisterns (v. 13).
- Religious leaders failed in their duty—priests, prophets, and shepherds alike (v. 8).
- Israel’s sins could not be washed away by rituals; only God’s mercy can cleanse (vv. 22–23).
- Trusting in foreign powers instead of God brings only disappointment (vv. 18, 36–37).

- Jeremiah’s grief shows God’s broken heart over His people’s destruction (vv. 19–21).
- The vision of chaos (vv. 23–26) echoes Genesis 1:2, showing sin returns creation to disorder.

- Outward beauty and worldly alliances cannot save when God’s judgment comes (vv. 30–31).

Key Lessons from Jeremiah 5

- God looks for truth and justice, even in one person, as a reason to show mercy (v. 1).
- Outward religion without repentance is worthless—words must be matched by obedience (vv. 2–3).
- Sin blinds hearts and hardens people against correction (vv. 3–5).
- Rebellion opens the door for destruction: predators (lion, wolf, leopard) symbolize judgment (vv. 6–9).
- False prophets give false peace, but God’s Word is like fire that consumes deception (vv. 12–14).
- Sin deprives people of God’s blessings—rain, harvest, and peace (vv. 24–25).
- Corruption among leaders brings ruin when justice is neglected (vv. 26–28).
- God’s people often prefer lies to truth, but the end of such a path is devastation (vv. 30–31).

Key Lessons from Jeremiah 6

- God warns His people clearly before judgment comes, but stubborn hearts refuse to listen (vv. 10, 16–17).
- Outward religion—sacrifices and rituals—means nothing without obedience (v. 20).
- False leaders who declare “peace” when destruction is near are dangerous deceivers (vv. 13–14).
- God calls His people to walk in the “old paths” of righteousness, but many reject them (v. 16).
- The refining process of trials reveals whether faith is genuine—some are shown to be like “rejected silver” (vv. 27–30).
- True security is found only in returning to God, not in empty words or religious pretense.

- Shiloh’s destruction is a warning: no place, however sacred, is safe when people rebel against God (vv. 12–15).
- God sometimes tells His prophets not to pray for His people when judgment is certain (v. 16).
- Idolatry brings devastating consequences, even defiling God’s house itself (vv. 30–31).
- Judgment silences joy; rebellion leads to desolation (v. 34).

- The Lord alone is the living God and eternal King—creation itself testifies to His power and wisdom (vv. 6–13).
- Human leaders and shepherds fail when they abandon God, leaving His people scattered and broken (vv. 20–21).
- Life is not our own—we must seek God’s direction and correction in justice, not anger (vv. 23–24).
- Nations that reject God and harm His people will face His judgment (v. 25).

Key Lessons from Jeremiah 11

- God’s covenant is built on obedience: blessing follows faithfulness, but curses follow rebellion (vv. 3–5, 8).
- Persistent sin, even when warned by prophets, leads to judgment and separation from God’s mercy (vv. 7–11).
- Idolatry multiplies shame and emptiness—it cannot save in times of distress (vv. 12–13).
- Religious rituals without repentance are meaningless; God desires obedience over sacrifice (vv. 15–16).

- God defends His servants against plots of destruction, but those who resist His word will face judgment (vv. 19–23).

Cross References: Jeremiah 18:9; Isaiah 60:12; Zephaniah 2:5

Key Lessons from Jeremiah 12

- It is natural to wrestle with why the wicked prosper, but God sees beyond appearances and has appointed a day of judgment (vv. 1–4).
- Trials train God’s servants for harder battles ahead; if we struggle in small tests, how will we endure greater ones? (v. 5).
- Betrayal, even from family, may come to those who stand for God, but His strength sustains (v. 6).

- God disciplines His people for their sin, but He does not forget mercy—restoration is promised after judgment (vv. 7–15).
- Even the nations around Israel are invited into God’s covenant blessings if they turn to Him; but if not, destruction awaits (vv. 16–17).

Key Lessons from Jeremiah 13

- God uses vivid symbols (like the ruined linen belt) to show how sin makes His people useless when they refuse to cling to Him (vv. 1–11).
- Pride blinds people from hearing God’s word; true humility is required to walk in His light (vv. 15–17).
- Even kings and leaders are not exempt from judgment when they rebel against God (vv. 18–21).
- Sin is deeply ingrained in human nature—just as a leopard cannot change its spots, so sinners cannot change without God’s transforming power (v. 23).
- Trusting in lies and idols always leads to shame and judgment; only repentance can cleanse (vv. 25–27).

Key Lessons from Jeremiah 14

- Sin brings both spiritual and physical consequences—Judah’s rebellion led to famine, drought, and despair (vv. 1–6, 10–12).
- God’s people must not rely on outward rituals (fasting, offerings) without true repentance; otherwise, they are meaningless (v. 12).
- False prophets speak what people want to hear, but their lies bring ruin on themselves and their hearers (vv. 13–16).
- Jeremiah shows the heart of a true prophet—he weeps for his people even while delivering hard truth (vv. 17–18).
- Hope remains in God alone, who can bring rain, life, and restoration; idols and human solutions cannot save (vv. 19–22).

Key Lessons from Jeremiah 15

- Persistent rebellion leads to unavoidable judgment (vv. 1–4). Not even great intercessors like Moses or Samuel could turn aside God’s wrath once the nation hardened its heart.

- Sin brings isolation (vv. 5–9). Jerusalem’s rejection of God meant no one would pity or rescue her when judgment came.
- God’s messengers may face loneliness and reproach (vv. 10–11). Jeremiah was cursed and hated for speaking truth, yet God promised to preserve him.
- God’s Word sustains in suffering (v. 16). Jeremiah found joy and strength in God’s Word even when people rejected him.
- God equips His servants for endurance (vv. 19–21). Jeremiah was assured that though opposition would come, God Himself would defend, protect, and redeem him.

Key Lessons from Jeremiah 16

- Jeremiah’s life was a living sign (vv. 1–4). His celibacy symbolized the coming devastation, when families would be wiped out without hope of continuation.
- God removed joy from a rebellious people (vv. 5–9). No weddings, no feasts, no comfort—judgment stripped away every source of celebration.
- The cause of judgment was generational sin (vv. 10–13). Each generation hardened more, choosing idols over God’s covenant.
- God promises future restoration (vv. 14–15). A greater deliverance would surpass even the Exodus, as He would gather His people from every nation.
- God sees all sin and will repay justly (vv. 16–18). Nothing is hidden from His sight.
- Even the nations will one day recognize Yahweh alone as God (vv. 19–21). The emptiness of idols will give way to the acknowledgment of the Lord’s power and name.

Key Lessons from Jeremiah 17

- Sin leaves permanent marks (vv. 1–4). Judah’s rebellion was not surface-deep but engraved on their hearts.
- Where we place our trust determines our future (vv. 5–8). Trusting in man leads to barrenness, but trusting in God brings fruitfulness, even in drought.

Cross References: Nehemiah 4:5; Psalm 109:14; Luke 23:34

Key Lessons from Jeremiah 18

- God is the Potter, we are the clay (vv. 1–6). He has complete authority to reshape lives, nations, and destinies.
- Repentance changes outcomes (vv. 7–10). Judgment can be turned away if a nation humbles itself, but blessing can also be withdrawn if sin continues.
- The stubborn heart refuses hope (vv. 11–12). Israel chose their own ways instead of God’s path.
- Forgetting God leads to desolation (vv. 13–17). Idolatry always results in ruin.
- God’s messengers often face persecution (vv. 18–23). Jeremiah prayed for protection, but also cried out for God’s justice against those plotting against him.

- Idolatry leads to judgment (vv. 4–5). The worship of false gods, even to the point of child sacrifice, brought God’s fierce wrath.
- Sin transforms blessing into ruin (vv. 6–9). The Valley once associated with life and fertility would become a place of slaughter and shame.
- The shattered jar is irreversible judgment (vv. 10–11). Just as a clay jar cannot be restored once broken, so the nation would face destruction they could not escape.
- False worship defiles everything it touches (v. 13). Even their houses were polluted by idolatry.
- God’s word must be proclaimed boldly (vv. 14–15). Jeremiah declared the warning publicly in the temple courts, reminding the people that judgment comes because of hardened hearts.

Key Lessons from Jeremiah 20

- Speaking truth often brings persecution (vv. 1–2). Jeremiah was beaten and imprisoned for faithfully declaring God’s word.
- God’s word is irresistible (v. 9). Though Jeremiah felt crushed by rejection, the word of God burned within him, compelling him to speak.
- The Lord is a mighty warrior (v. 11). Jeremiah’s confidence was not in himself, but in the God who defends the righteous and brings justice.
- Prophets are human too (vv. 14–18). Jeremiah’s deep lament reveals the heavy emotional toll of ministry—yet even in despair, his honesty before God became part of his prophetic witness.
- Faithfulness does not guarantee comfort, but it ensures God’s presence (vv. 7–13). The prophet endured shame, but also found strength in knowing the Lord was with him.

“The Way of Life or Death”

Zedekiah Seeks Help from Jeremiah

1 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord when King Zedekiah sent Pashhur son of Malkijah and Zephaniah son of Maaseiah the priest to him, saying,

Cross References: Jeremiah 37:3; Jeremiah 38:1; 2 Kings 24:18

2 “Please inquire of the Lord for us, because King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon is making war against us. Perhaps the Lord will deal with us according to His miraculous deeds, so that Nebuchadnezzar will withdraw from us.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:5; Jeremiah 37:17; 2 Kings 19:15

The Lord’s Reply: Judgment, Not Rescue

3 Jeremiah answered them, “Tell Zedekiah,

Cross References: Jeremiah 37:17; Jeremiah 34:2; 1 Kings 22:14

4 ‘This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: I will turn back the weapons of war in your hands, those with which you are fighting against the king of Babylon and the Chaldeans who are outside the walls besieging you. I will gather them inside this city.

Cross References: Ezekiel 4:1; 2 Kings 25:1; Isaiah 22:3

5 I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and a strong arm, in anger, fury, and great wrath.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 5:15; Exodus 6:6; Jeremiah 32:37

6 I will strike down those who live in this city—both people and animals—and they will die of a terrible plague.

Cross References: Exodus 9:3; Ezekiel 14:19; 2 Samuel 24:15

7 After that, declares the Lord, I will give Zedekiah king of Judah, his officials, and the people who survive the plague, sword, and famine into the hands of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, into the hands of their enemies who seek their lives. He will strike them down with the sword; he will show them no mercy, pity, or compassion.”

Cross References: 2 Kings 25:7; Jeremiah 34:21; Ezekiel 12:13

The Way of Life and Death

8 “And to this people you shall say: This is what the Lord says: Behold, I set before you the way of life and the way of death.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 30:19; Deuteronomy 11:26; Matthew 7:13

9 Whoever stays in this city will die by the sword, famine, or plague. But whoever goes out and surrenders to the Chaldeans who are besieging you will live; he will escape with his life.

Cross References: Jeremiah 38:2; Jeremiah 38:17; Ezekiel 33:9

10 For I have set my face against this city for harm and not for good, declares the Lord. It will be given into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he will burn it with fire.”

Cross References: Amos 9:4; Leviticus 26:17; 2 Kings 25:9

Warning to the Royal House of Judah

11 “Concerning the house of the king of Judah, hear the word of the Lord:

Cross References: Jeremiah 22:1; Isaiah 7:13; Jeremiah 17:20

12 O house of David, this is what the Lord says: ‘Administer justice every morning. Rescue the victim of robbery from the hand of the oppressor, or My wrath will break out like fire and burn with no one to quench it, because of the evil you have done.’

Cross References: Isaiah 1:17; Zechariah 7:9; Amos 5:24

13 I am against you, Jerusalem, you who live in the valley, you rock of the plain, declares the Lord—you who say, ‘Who can come against us? Who can enter our dwellings?’

Cross References: Obadiah 1:3; Jeremiah 49:16; Isaiah 47:8

14 I will punish you according to the fruit of your deeds, declares the Lord. I will kindle a fire in your forests, and it will consume everything around you.”

Cross References: Jeremiah 17:27; Hosea 8:14; Micah 3:12

Key Lessons from Jeremiah 21

- False hope in God’s past miracles cannot replace obedience today (vv. 1–2). Zedekiah wanted deliverance without repentance, but God rejected that plea.

- God can fight against His own people (vv. 4–6). When rebellion persists, the Lord Himself becomes their adversary.
- There is always a choice (vv. 8–9). The Lord sets before His people the way of life and the way of death, calling them to surrender and live.
- Justice is non-negotiable (v. 12). God’s warning to the house of David highlights that leadership without righteousness brings destruction.
- False security is dangerous (v. 13). Trusting in walls, geography, or tradition is meaningless when the Lord sets Himself against a nation.

“The Kings of Judah Warned”

A Message to the King of Judah

1 This is what the Lord says: “Go down to the palace of the king of Judah and deliver this message:

Cross References: Jeremiah 21:11; Isaiah 7:13; 2 Kings 22:1

2 Hear the word of the Lord, O king of Judah, who sits on David’s throne—you, your officials, and your people who enter these gates.

Cross References: Jeremiah 17:20; 2 Samuel 7:16; Jeremiah 13:13

3 This is what the Lord says: Do what is right and just. Rescue the one who has been robbed from the hand of the oppressor. Do no wrong or violence to the foreigner, the fatherless, or the widow. Do not shed innocent blood in this place.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 24:17; Zechariah 7:10; Exodus 22:21

4 For if you truly carry out these commands, then kings who sit on David’s throne will continue to enter through the gates of this palace, riding in chariots and on horses, accompanied by their officials and their people.

Cross References: Jeremiah 17:25; Psalm 132:11; 1 Kings 2:4

5 But if you do not obey these commands, I swear by Myself, declares the Lord, that this palace will become a ruin.”

Cross References: Hebrews 6:13; Genesis 22:16; Micah 3:12

Judgment on the Palace

6 For this is what the Lord says concerning the palace of the king of Judah:

“You are to Me like Gilead, like the summit of Lebanon,
yet I will surely make you a wasteland, like towns no one lives in.

Cross References: Jeremiah 22:23; Amos 1:3; Zechariah 11:1

each with his weapon, and they will cut down your fine cedar beams and throw them into the fire.

8 Many nations will pass by this city and ask one another,
‘Why has the Lord done such a thing to this great city?’

Cross References: Deuteronomy 29:24; 1 Kings 9:8; Lamentations 2:15

9 And the answer will be:
‘Because they have forsaken the covenant of the Lord their God, and have worshiped and served other gods.’”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 29:25; 2 Kings 17:15; Judges 2:12

Warning Against Shallum (Jehoahaz)

10 Do not weep for the dead or mourn for him, but weep bitterly for him who is exiled, for he will never return or see his native land again.

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:34; 2 Chronicles 35:24; Ezekiel 19:4

11 For this is what the Lord says about Shallum son of Josiah, who succeeded his father Josiah as king of Judah but has gone from this place: “He will never return.

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:33; 2 Chronicles 36:1; Ezekiel 19:3

12 He will die in the place where they have taken him captive; he will never see this land again.”

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:34; Ezekiel 19:4; Amos 7:17

Warning Against Jehoiakim

13 Woe to him who builds his palace by unrighteousness, his upper rooms by injustice, making his own people work for nothing,
not paying them for their labor.

Cross References: Habakkuk 2:9; Micah 3:10; Leviticus 19:13

14 He says, “I will build myself a great palace with spacious upper rooms.”
So he makes large windows in it, panels it with cedar,
and decorates it in red.

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:1; Haggai 1:4; Jeremiah 22:6

15 Does it make you a king to have more and more cedar?
Did not your father Josiah have food and drink?
He did what was right and just,
and so all went well with him.

Cross References: 2 Kings 22:2; 2 Chronicles 34:2; 1 Kings 3:28

16 He defended the cause of the poor and needy, and so all went well.
Is that not what it means to know Me?
declares the Lord.

Cross References: Proverbs 31:9; Isaiah 1:17; Hosea 6:6

17 But your eyes and your heart are only on dishonest gain, on shedding innocent blood,
and on oppression and extortion.

Cross References: Micah 2:1; Isaiah 1:23; Habakkuk 2:12

18 Therefore this is what the Lord says about Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah: “They will not mourn for him:

‘Alas, my brother! Alas, my sister!’

They will not mourn for him:

‘Alas, my master! Alas, his majesty!’

Cross References: 2 Kings 24:6; 2 Chronicles 36:5; Jeremiah 36:30

19 He will have the burial of a donkey—dragged away and thrown outside the gates of Jerusalem.”

cry out from Abarim, for all your allies are destroyed.

you have not obeyed Me.

Cross References: Jeremiah 2:20; Jeremiah 3:25; Zechariah 7:11

22 The wind will drive away all your shepherds, and your allies will go into exile.
Then you will be ashamed and disgraced because of all your wickedness.

Cross References: Jeremiah 23:1; Ezekiel 34:2; Jeremiah 2:26

23 You who live in ‘Lebanon,’ nested in cedar buildings, how you will groan when pangs come upon you,
pain like that of a woman in labor!

Cross References: Jeremiah 22:6; Jeremiah 6:24; 1 Thessalonians 5:3

24 As surely as I live, declares the Lord, even if you, Coniah son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, were a signet ring on My right hand,
I would still pull you off.

Cross References: Haggai 2:23; 2 Kings 24:8; Song of Solomon 8:6

25 I will hand you over to those who seek your life, to those you fear—to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and to the Babylonians.

Cross References: 2 Kings 24:12; 2 Chronicles 36:9; Ezekiel 17:12

26 I will hurl you and the mother who bore you into another country, where neither of you were born, and there you both will die.

27 You will never return to the land you long to return to.”

Cross References: Jeremiah 22:11; Ezekiel 17:16; 2 Kings 25:27

28 Is this man Coniah a despised, broken pot, an object no one wants?
Why are he and his children hurled out, cast into a land they do not know?

Cross References: Jeremiah 19:11; Hosea 8:8; Psalm 31:12

29 O land, land, land, hear the word of the Lord!

Cross References: Isaiah 1:2; Jeremiah 6:19; Jeremiah 7:4

30 This is what the Lord says:
“Record this man as childless,

a man who will not prosper in his lifetime,
for none of his offspring will prosper, none will sit on the throne of David or rule anymore in Judah.”

Cross References: Matthew 1:12; 1 Chronicles 3:17; Haggai 2:23

Key Lessons from Jeremiah 22

- Justice is the foundation of leadership (vv. 1–5). Kings were judged not by their palaces but by their treatment of the oppressed.
- Disobedience turns blessings into ruins (vv. 6–9). Judah’s glory would be reduced to shame because they abandoned the covenant.
- God honors righteousness, not outward success (vv. 13–17). Jehoiakim built luxury but ignored justice; Josiah, by contrast, upheld the cause of the needy and was blessed.
- Earthly power cannot resist God’s decree (vv. 24–27). Even a “signet ring” king like Coniah could be cast aside when corrupt.
- God warns nations and leaders that pride, injustice, and idolatry always end in downfall (vv. 28–30).

a King who will reign wisely and do what is just and right in the land.

Cross References: Isaiah 11:1; Zechariah 3:8; Luke 1:32

and Israel will live in safety.
This is the name by which He will be called:
“The Lord Our Righteousness.”

Cross References: Jeremiah 33:16; 1 Corinthians 1:30; Isaiah 45:24

7 So the days are coming, declares the Lord, when people will no longer say, “As surely as the Lord lives, who brought the Israelites up out of Egypt,”

Cross References: Jeremiah 16:14; Exodus 20:2; Deuteronomy 6:12

8 but they will say, “As surely as the Lord lives, who brought the descendants of Israel up out of the land of the north and out of all the countries where He had banished them.” Then they will live in their own land.

Cross References: Jeremiah 16:15; Isaiah 43:5; Ezekiel 36:24

God’s Judgment on False Prophets

9 Concerning the prophets:
My heart is broken within me;
all my bones tremble.
I am like a drunken man,
like one overcome by wine, because of the Lord and His holy words.

Cross References: Jeremiah 4:19; Habakkuk 3:16; Psalm 6:2

10 The land is full of adulterers;
because of their unfaithfulness the land mourns,
and the pastures in the wilderness are dried up.
Their course is evil,
and their power is misused.

Cross References: Hosea 4:3; Jeremiah 12:4; Isaiah 24:5

11 “Both prophet and priest are godless; even in My temple I find their wickedness,” declares the Lord.

Cross References: Jeremiah 6:13; Ezekiel 22:26; Lamentations 4:13

13 “Among the prophets of Samaria I saw this repulsive thing:
They prophesied by Baal
and led My people Israel astray.

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:19; Hosea 13:1; Jeremiah 2:8

14 And among the prophets of Jerusalem
I have seen something horrible:
They commit adultery and live a lie.
They strengthen the hands of evildoers,
so that not one of them turns from wickedness.
They are all like Sodom to Me;
the people of Jerusalem are like Gomorrah.”

Cross References: Isaiah 1:10; Ezekiel 16:49; Deuteronomy 32:32

15 Therefore this is what the Lord Almighty says concerning the prophets:
“I will make them eat bitter food and drink poisoned water, because from the prophets of Jerusalem ungodliness has spread throughout the land.”

Cross References: Jeremiah 9:15; Lamentations 3:15; Jeremiah 8:14

Do Not Listen to False Prophets

16 This is what the Lord Almighty says: “Do not listen to what the prophets are prophesying to you; they fill you with false hopes. They speak visions from their own minds, not from the mouth of the Lord.

Cross References: Ezekiel 13:2; Jeremiah 14:14; 2 Peter 1:21

17 They keep saying to those who despise Me,
‘The Lord says: You will have peace.’
And to all who follow the stubbornness of their hearts they say,
‘No harm will come to you.’

Cross References: Ezekiel 13:10; Jeremiah 6:14; 1 Thessalonians 5:3

18 But which of them has stood in the council of the Lord to see or to hear His word?

Who has listened and heard His word?”

a whirlwind swirling down on the heads of the wicked.

Cross References: Jeremiah 30:23; Nahum 1:3; Zechariah 9:14

until He fully accomplishes the purposes of His heart.

you will understand it clearly.

yet they have run with their message;
I did not speak to them,
yet they have prophesied.

they would have proclaimed My words to My people and would have turned them from their evil ways and from their evil deeds.”

Cross References: Ezekiel 13:5; Jeremiah 25:5; Ezekiel 3:18

God Is Everywhere

23 “Am I only a God nearby,” declares the Lord,
“and not a God far away?”

Cross References: Psalm 139:7; Acts 17:27; Isaiah 66:1

so that I cannot see them?” declares the Lord.

False Dreams Condemned

25 “I have heard what the prophets say who prophesy lies in My name. They say, ‘I had a dream! I had a dream!’

Cross References: Deuteronomy 13:3; Jeremiah 29:8; Zechariah 10:2

26 How long will this continue in the hearts of these lying prophets, who prophesy the delusions of their own minds?

Cross References: Zephaniah 3:4; Micah 3:11; Jeremiah 5:31

27 They think they can make My people forget My name by the dreams they tell one another, just as their ancestors forgot My name through Baal worship.

Cross References: Judges 3:7; Jeremiah 2:32; Hosea 2:13

28 Let the prophet who has a dream recount the dream, but let the one who has My word speak it faithfully. For what has straw in common with grain?" declares the Lord.

Cross References: Numbers 12:6; Deuteronomy 13:1; 1 Corinthians 3:12

29 "Is not My word like fire," declares the Lord, "and like a hammer that breaks a rock in pieces?"

The Burden of the Lord

33 "When these people, or a prophet or priest, ask you, 'What is the burden of the Lord?' say to them, 'You are the burden, and I will cast you off,' declares the Lord.

Cross References: Isaiah 13:1; Habakkuk 1:1; Malachi 1:1

34 As for the prophet or priest or anyone who says, 'The burden of the Lord,' I will punish that man and his household.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 18:20; Jeremiah 28:16; Zechariah 13:3

35 Instead, each of you should ask your neighbor or your brother, 'What has the Lord answered?' or 'What has the Lord spoken?'

Cross References: Numbers 22:8; Malachi 3:16; Isaiah 8:20

36 But never again should you use the phrase, 'the burden of the Lord,' because everyone's own word becomes their burden, and so you distort the words of the living God, the Lord Almighty, our God.

Cross References: 2 Kings 24:20; Jeremiah 7:15; Hosea 9:17

40 I will bring on you everlasting disgrace—everlasting shame that will never be forgotten.”

Cross References: Daniel 12:2; Jeremiah 20:11; Psalm 44:13

Key Lessons from Jeremiah 23

- False shepherds bring judgment (vv. 1–2). Leaders who exploit or abandon God’s people are accountable to Him.
- God promises the Righteous Branch (vv. 5–6). A prophecy of Christ: the King from David’s line called “The Lord Our Righteousness.”
- God’s Word versus false visions (vv. 16–22). Dreams and man-made messages cannot replace God’s true Word.
- The Word of God is like fire and a hammer (v. 29). It purifies, convicts, and breaks through hardened hearts.
- God sees everything (vv. 23–24). No one can hide their lies or hypocrisy from Him.
- Perverting God’s Word brings destruction (vv. 33–40). To treat His message lightly or twist it leads to everlasting shame.

Jeremiah 24 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Vision of the Two Baskets of Figs”

The Vision of the Figs

1 The Lord showed me two baskets of figs placed in front of the temple of the Lord. This was after Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried away Jeconiah son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, along with the officials, the craftsmen, and the smiths, and had brought them to Babylon.

Cross References: 2 Kings 24:14; Amos 8:1; Jeremiah 29:2

2 One basket held very good figs, like early ripe ones. The other basket held very bad figs, so bad they could not be eaten.

Cross References: Hosea 9:10; Micah 7:1; Matthew 7:17

3 Then the Lord said to me, “What do you see, Jeremiah?”

I said, “Figs—the good figs are very good, but the bad figs are very bad, so bad they cannot be eaten.”

Cross References: Jeremiah 1:11; Amos 8:2; Zechariah 5:2

The Meaning of the Good Figs

4 Then the word of the Lord came to me:

Cross References: Jeremiah 1:4; Ezekiel 1:3; Hosea 1:1

5 “This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: Like these good figs, so I will regard with favor the exiles from Judah, whom I have sent away from this place to the land of the Chaldeans, for their good.

Cross References: Jeremiah 29:11; Jeremiah 32:37; Ezra 1:1

6 I will set My eyes on them for good. I will bring them back to this land. I will build them up and not tear them down; I will plant them and not uproot them.

Cross References: Jeremiah 1:10; Jeremiah 31:28; Amos 9:15

7 I will give them a heart to know Me, that I am the Lord. They will be My people, and I will be their God, for they will return to Me with their whole heart.”

Cross References: Ezekiel 36:26; Jeremiah 31:33; Deuteronomy 30:6

The Meaning of the Bad Figs

8 “But as for the bad figs—so bad they cannot be eaten—this is what the Lord says: I will deal with Zedekiah king of Judah, his officials, and the survivors left in Jerusalem, and those who remain in Egypt.

Cross References: Jeremiah 52:2; Ezekiel 17:20; 2 Chronicles 36:12

9 I will make them a horror and an offense to all the kingdoms of the earth. They will become a reproach, a byword, an object of ridicule, and a curse in every place where I drive them.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 28:37; Jeremiah 29:18; Psalm 44:14

10 I will send the sword, famine, and plague against them until they are destroyed from the land I gave to them and their fathers.”

Key Lessons from Jeremiah 24

- God can use exile for good (vv. 5–7). The captivity was not only judgment but also a refining process to restore His people to Himself.

- The “good figs” represent the humble remnant who submit to God’s discipline and are later blessed.
- The “bad figs” represent the rebellious—those who resisted God’s correction, trusting in politics or idols instead of His Word.
- True restoration is inward (v. 7). God promised to give His people a heart to know Him. Real salvation is not just return to the land, but return to God.
- Rejecting God leads to shame and destruction (vv. 8–10). Those who persist in rebellion become an example of judgment for others.

Cross References: Joel 1:19; Jeremiah 9:10; Zephaniah 1:18

38 Like a lion He has left His lair; their land has become desolate because of the sword of the oppressor and because of the Lord’s fierce anger.

Cross References: Hosea 5:14; Jeremiah 4:7; Jeremiah 50:44

Key Lessons from Jeremiah 25

- Persistent rejection of God’s Word brings inevitable judgment (vv. 3–7). For 23 years God sent prophets, yet the people refused to listen.
- God sets clear timeframes for His discipline (v. 11). The seventy years of captivity remind us that judgment has both a beginning and an end.

- Even God’s instruments of judgment are later judged (vv. 12–14). Babylon itself would face God’s wrath after being used to punish Judah.
- The “cup of wrath” is universal (vv. 15–29). No nation can escape God’s justice.
- God’s Word is like a roaring lion (vv. 30–38). His judgment shakes the earth, and His authority extends to all nations.

“Jeremiah on Trial for His Life”

Jeremiah’s Message in the Temple Courts

1 At the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah, saying,

Cross References: Jeremiah 7:1; 2 Kings 23:36; Jeremiah 36:1

2 “Stand in the courtyard of the Lord’s temple and speak to all the people of the towns of Judah who come to worship here. Tell them everything I command you; do not leave out a single word.

Cross References: Jeremiah 7:2; Deuteronomy 4:2; Acts 20:27

3 Perhaps they will listen and turn from their evil ways, and then I will relent from the disaster I intended to bring on them because of their evil deeds.

Cross References: Jonah 3:9; Jeremiah 18:8; Ezekiel 33:11

4 Say to them, ‘This is what the Lord says: If you do not listen to Me and follow My law, which I have set before you,

Cross References: Jeremiah 44:10; Leviticus 26:14; Deuteronomy 28:15

5 and if you do not listen to the words of My servants the prophets, whom I have sent to you again and again, though you have not listened,

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 36:15; Jeremiah 25:4; Zechariah 1:4

6 then I will make this temple like Shiloh, and this city an object of cursing among all the nations of the earth.”

Cross References: Jeremiah 7:14; 1 Samuel 4:10; Psalm 78:60

The People Seize Jeremiah

7 The priests, the prophets, and all the people heard Jeremiah speak these words in the Lord’s temple.

Cross References: Jeremiah 20:1; Amos 7:10; Jeremiah 36:5

8 But as soon as Jeremiah finished telling all the people everything the Lord had commanded him to say, the priests, the prophets, and all the people seized him and said, “You must die!

Cross References: Jeremiah 38:4; Matthew 26:65; Acts 7:57

9 Why do you prophesy in the Lord's name that this temple will be like Shiloh and this city will be deserted and without inhabitants?" And all the people gathered against Jeremiah in the Lord's house.

Cross References: Jeremiah 7:14; Micah 3:12; John 2:19

Jeremiah Defends His Message

10 When the officials of Judah heard these things, they went up from the king's palace to the Lord's temple and took their seats at the entrance of the New Gate.

Cross References: Jeremiah 36:12; 2 Kings 15:35; Jeremiah 38:7

11 Then the priests and the prophets said to the officials and all the people, "This man should be sentenced to death because he has prophesied against this city. You have heard it with your own ears!"

Cross References: Jeremiah 38:4; Acts 25:24; Matthew 27:1

12 But Jeremiah said to all the officials and all the people: "The Lord sent me to prophesy against this temple and this city all the things you have heard.

Cross References: Jeremiah 1:7; Amos 7:15; Acts 5:29

13 So now, reform your ways and your actions and obey the Lord your God. Then the Lord will relent and not bring the disaster He has pronounced against you.

Cross References: Jeremiah 7:3; Jonah 3:8; Ezekiel 18:30

14 As for me, I am in your hands; do with me whatever you think is good and right.

Cross References: Acts 21:13; John 18:23; Jeremiah 38:5

Cross References: Matthew 27:24; Deuteronomy 19:10; Jonah 1:14

The Officials and Elders Intervene

16 Then the officials and all the people said to the priests and the prophets, "This man should not be sentenced to die. He has spoken to us in the name of the Lord our God."

Cross References: Acts 5:39; John 7:51; Deuteronomy 18:22

17 Some of the elders of the land stepped forward and said to the entire assembly:

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:1; Ezra 10:8; Deuteronomy 21:19

18 "Micah of Moresheth prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah. He told all the people of Judah, 'This is what the Lord Almighty says: Zion will be plowed like a field, Jerusalem will become a heap of rubble, and the temple hill a mound overgrown with thickets.'

Cross References: Micah 3:12; Micah 1:1; 2 Kings 18:3

19 Did King Hezekiah or anyone else in Judah put him to death? Did not Hezekiah fear the Lord and seek His favor, and did not the Lord relent so that He did not bring the disaster He pronounced against them? We are about to bring a terrible calamity on ourselves!”

Cross References: 2 Kings 19:1; 2 Chronicles 32:26; Isaiah 37:1

The Example of Urijah

20 Now Uriah son of Shemaiah from Kiriath-jearim also prophesied in the name of the Lord. He prophesied the same things against this city and this land as Jeremiah did.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 7:1; Joshua 9:17; Jeremiah 26:12

21 When King Jehoiakim and his officers and officials heard his words, the king sought to put him to death. But when Uriah heard of it, he was afraid and fled to Egypt.

Cross References: 1 Kings 11:40; Matthew 2:13; 1 Kings 19:3

Cross References: Jeremiah 36:12; 2 Kings 24:8; Jeremiah 36:25

23 They brought Uriah out of Egypt and took him to King Jehoiakim, who had him struck down with the sword and his body thrown into the burial place of the common people.

Cross References: Matthew 14:10; 2 Kings 21:16; Hebrews 11:37

Jeremiah Spared

24 But Ahikam son of Shaphan supported Jeremiah and protected him, so that he was not handed over to the people to be put to death.

Cross References: 2 Kings 22:12; Jeremiah 39:14; Jeremiah 40:5

Key Lessons from Jeremiah 26

- Faithfulness to God’s Word may bring opposition (vv. 2–9). Jeremiah’s obedience put his life in danger, but he did not hold back the truth.
- True prophets call for repentance, not popularity (vv. 12–13). Jeremiah risked death to urge the people to change their ways.
- History provides lessons for the present (vv. 17–19). The elders recalled Micah’s prophecy in Hezekiah’s time, showing that repentance can turn away judgment.
- Not all messengers of God are spared (vv. 20–23). Uriah was killed, reminding us that faithfulness sometimes leads to martyrdom.
- God provides protection when it serves His purposes (v. 24). Jeremiah was spared through Ahikam’s support, showing how God can raise up allies even in dark times.

“The Yoke of Babylon”

The Symbol of the Yoke

1 Early in the reign of King Jehoiakim son of Josiah of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the Lord:

2 “This is what the Lord said to me: Make a yoke and straps, and put them on your neck.

Cross References: Jeremiah 28:10; Ezekiel 4:1; Isaiah 20:2

8 But if any nation or kingdom refuses to serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and will not put its neck under his yoke, I will punish that nation with sword, famine, and plague until I destroy it, declares the Lord.

Cross References: Jeremiah 21:9; Ezekiel 17:16; Jeremiah 38:2

9 Do not listen to your prophets, diviners, dreamers, soothsayers, or sorcerers who tell you, ‘You will not serve the king of Babylon.’

Cross References: Deuteronomy 18:10; Jeremiah 29:8; Isaiah 47:13

10 For they are prophesying lies to you, so that I may drive you far from your land and destroy you.

Cross References: Jeremiah 14:14; Jeremiah 29:9; Micah 2:11

11 But if any nation will submit to the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him, I will let that nation remain in its own land to till it and live there,” declares the Lord.”

Cross References: Jeremiah 40:9; Jeremiah 42:10; 2 Kings 25:22

Jeremiah Speaks to Zedekiah

12 I gave the same message to King Zedekiah of Judah: “Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon; serve him and his people, and you will live.

Cross References: Jeremiah 38:17; 2 Chronicles 36:13; Ezekiel 17:14

13 Why should you and your people die by the sword, famine, and plague as the Lord has decreed for any nation that refuses to serve the king of Babylon?

Cross References: Ezekiel 33:11; Jeremiah 21:8; Deuteronomy 30:19

14 Do not listen to the words of the prophets who say to you, ‘You will not serve the king of Babylon,’ for they are prophesying lies to you.

Cross References: Jeremiah 28:2; Ezekiel 13:22; Jeremiah 23:21

15 ‘I have not sent them,’ declares the Lord. ‘They are prophesying lies in My name. Therefore I will banish you, and you will perish—you and the prophets who are prophesying to you.’”

Cross References: Jeremiah 14:15; Deuteronomy 18:20; Jeremiah 29:9

Jeremiah Speaks to the Priests and People

16 Then I said to the priests and all the people: “This is what the Lord says: Do not listen to the prophets who keep telling you, ‘Soon the articles from the Lord’s temple will be brought back from Babylon.’ They are prophesying lies to you.

Cross References: Jeremiah 28:3; 2 Kings 24:13; Jeremiah 29:8

17 Do not listen to them. Serve the king of Babylon and live! Why should this city become a ruin?

Cross References: Jeremiah 38:20; Jeremiah 27:12; Deuteronomy 30:19

18 If they are truly prophets and if they have the Lord’s word, let them pray to the Lord Almighty that the remaining temple furnishings, the palace treasures, and the things still left in Jerusalem will not be carried off to Babylon.

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:24; Jeremiah 37:3; James 5:16

The Fate of the Temple Articles

19 For this is what the Lord Almighty says about the pillars, the bronze Sea, the movable stands, and the other items left in this city,

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:15; 2 Kings 25:13; 2 Chronicles 4:2

20 which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take away when he carried Jehoiachin (son of Jehoiakim king of Judah) into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon, along with all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem—

Cross References: 2 Kings 24:12; 2 Chronicles 36:10; Jeremiah 22:24

Cross References: Jeremiah 28:3; 2 Kings 25:14; Daniel 1:2

22 ‘They will be carried to Babylon and will remain there until the day I deal with them,’ declares the Lord. ‘Then I will bring them back and restore them to this place.’”

Cross References: Ezra 1:7; 2 Chronicles 36:20; Daniel 5:2

Key Lessons from Jeremiah 27

- God rules over all nations (vv. 5–6). The Lord gives kingdoms to whomever He pleases; history is in His hands.
- Submission to God’s discipline brings life (vv. 8–11). To resist Babylon was to resist God’s decree; those who submitted would live.
- False prophets bring false hope (vv. 9–10, 14–16). Empty promises of peace and quick deliverance led the people into ruin.
- God’s word may call for humble surrender, not triumph (vv. 12–13). Sometimes obedience to God means yielding rather than fighting.
- God promises restoration in His time (v. 22). Though judgment came, He would eventually bring His people and His temple vessels back.

Jeremiah 28 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The False Prophet Hananiah”

Hananiah’s Bold Prophecy

1 In that same year, early in the reign of King Zedekiah of Judah—in the fourth year, in the fifth month—Hananiah son of Azur, a prophet from Gibeon, spoke to me in the house of the Lord, in front of the priests and all the people.

Cross References: Jeremiah 27:1; Joshua 21:17; 1 Kings 22:11

2 He said, “This is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon.

Cross References: Jeremiah 27:2; Isaiah 9:4; Jeremiah 28:11

3 Within two years I will bring back to this place all the articles from the Lord’s temple that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon carried off to Babylon.

Cross References: Jeremiah 27:16; 2 Kings 24:13; 2 Chronicles 36:18

4 I will also bring back here Jeconiah (Jehoiachin) son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, along with all the exiles who were taken to Babylon, declares the Lord. For I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.”

Cross References: Jeremiah 22:24; 2 Kings 24:15; Jeremiah 29:10

Jeremiah’s Response

5 Then the prophet Jeremiah replied to the prophet Hananiah before the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of the Lord.

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:14; Jeremiah 26:12; Micah 3:8

6 He said, “Amen! May the Lord do this. May the Lord fulfill the words you have spoken by bringing back the articles of the Lord’s temple and all the exiles from Babylon to this place.

Cross References: Numbers 14:19; Jeremiah 17:15; 1 Kings 1:36

7 Nevertheless, listen to what I say in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people:

Cross References: Deuteronomy 18:19; Jeremiah 26:12; Ezekiel 3:17

8 The prophets who came before us long ago prophesied war, disaster, and plague against many nations and great kingdoms.

Cross References: Amos 1:1; Micah 3:12; Jonah 3:4

9 But the prophet who prophesies peace will only be recognized as truly sent by the Lord if what he proclaims actually comes to pass.”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 18:21; Ezekiel 33:33; 1 Kings 22:28

Hananiah Breaks the Yoke

10 Then Hananiah the prophet took the wooden yoke off Jeremiah’s neck and broke it in front of all the people.

Cross References: Jeremiah 27:2; 1 Kings 22:11; Zechariah 11:10

11 He declared, “This is what the Lord says: In the same way I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon off the neck of all nations within two years.”

At this, Jeremiah went on his way.

Cross References: Jeremiah 28:2; Isaiah 10:27; Nahum 1:13

The Word of the Lord Against Hananiah

12 After Hananiah had broken the yoke from Jeremiah’s neck, the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah:

Cross References: Jeremiah 28:1; Ezekiel 3:16; Jeremiah 1:9

13 “Go and tell Hananiah, ‘This is what the Lord says: You have broken a yoke of wood, but in its place you will have made a yoke of iron.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 28:48; Jeremiah 27:6; Leviticus 26:19

14 For this is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: I have put an iron yoke on the necks of all these nations to make them serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and they will indeed serve him. I have even given him control over the beasts of the field.”

Cross References: Jeremiah 27:6; Daniel 2:38; Daniel 4:25

Cross References: Jeremiah 14:14; Jeremiah 23:21; Ezekiel 13:22

16 Therefore, this is what the Lord says: I am about to remove you from the face of the earth. This very year you will die, because you have taught rebellion against the Lord.”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 13:5; Deuteronomy 18:20; Numbers 16:30

17 And in the seventh month of that same year, the prophet Hananiah died.

Cross References: Jeremiah 28:1; Numbers 16:32; Acts 5:5

Key Lessons from Jeremiah 28

- False hope is dangerous (vv. 2–4). Hananiah’s message was attractive but deceptive, promising peace where God had decreed judgment.
- True prophecy must align with God’s word and come to pass (vv. 7–9). Jeremiah reminded the people that a prophet of peace is proven only if their words are fulfilled.
- Symbolic actions have meaning (vv. 10–13). Breaking the wooden yoke symbolized resistance, but God declared a far heavier yoke of iron—Babylon’s rule was unavoidable.
- Rebellion against God leads to swift judgment (vv. 15–17). Hananiah’s death was proof that speaking lies in God’s name carries grave consequences.
- God’s truth may be hard but it preserves life (ch. 27–28 together). Jeremiah’s call to submit to Babylon seemed harsh, but it was God’s path of survival.

Key Lessons from Jeremiah 29

- Bloom where you’re planted (vv. 4–7). Even in exile, God’s people were to build, marry, and work for the good of their city. Faithfulness in hardship honors God.
- Beware of false voices (vv. 8–9, 21–23). False prophets promise shortcuts, but God calls His people to discern truth carefully.
- God’s timing is sure (vv. 10–11). Deliverance would not come instantly but after seventy years. God’s plans are for hope and peace, not ruin.
- Wholehearted seeking leads to finding (vv. 12–14). God promises to be found by those who search for Him sincerely.
- Sinful leaders bring shame (vv. 21–32). Those who misuse God’s name or lead His people astray face judgment, while the faithful are preserved.

- Obedience brings blessing: Because they kept their covenant, God promised Jonadab’s line would always have someone faithful before Him (v. 19).
- Israel’s shame in disobedience: The Rechabites’ loyalty to human tradition stood in contrast to Judah’s refusal to obey the living God (vv. 13–16).
- God rewards consistency: While Judah broke their vows, the Rechabites’ steadfastness became a living example of what true devotion looks like.

- Lesson for us today: If people can be faithful to earthly commands, how much more should we be faithful to the commands of God?

God Commands the Scroll to Be Rewritten

27 After the king burned the scroll containing the words that Baruch had written at Jeremiah's dictation, the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah:

Cross References: Isaiah 55:11; Matthew 24:35; 1 Peter 1:25

28 "Take another scroll and write on it all the words that were on the first scroll, which Jehoiakim king of Judah burned.

Cross References: Exodus 34:1; Isaiah 8:1; Habakkuk 2:2

29 Say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, 'This is what the Lord says: You burned that scroll and said, "Why did you write on it that the king of Babylon would certainly come and destroy this land and cause both people and animals to perish?"'

Cross References: Jeremiah 22:18; 2 Kings 24:1; 2 Chronicles 36:6

30 Therefore this is what the Lord says about Jehoiakim king of Judah: He will have no one to sit on the throne of David. His body will be thrown out and exposed to the heat by day and the frost by night.

Cross References: 2 Kings 24:6; Jeremiah 22:19; Ecclesiastes 6:3

31 I will punish him, his children, and his attendants for their wickedness. I will bring on them, those living in Jerusalem, and the people of Judah every disaster I pronounced against them, because they would not listen.”

Cross References: Exodus 20:5; 2 Kings 24:2; Jeremiah 25:9

32 So Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to Baruch son of Neriah, the scribe. And as Jeremiah dictated, Baruch wrote on it all the words of the scroll that Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire. And many similar words were added to them.

Cross References: Isaiah 30:8; Habakkuk 2:2; Deuteronomy 31:24

Key Lessons from Jeremiah 36

- God’s Word cannot be destroyed: Though Jehoiakim burned the scroll, God simply had it rewritten with even more words (vv. 27–32).
- Rebellion leads to judgment: The king’s arrogance and contempt for God’s Word sealed his fate (vv. 23–31).
- The faithful preserve truth: Jeremiah dictated, Baruch wrote, and God ensured His message endured despite opposition (vv. 4, 32).
- Disobedience blinds hearts: Unlike Josiah who humbled himself at God’s Word, Jehoiakim scoffed and dismissed it (vv. 24–25).
- Encouragement for believers today: No matter how people resist God’s Word, His truth will always prevail.

Cross References: Jeremiah 41:2; 2 Samuel 3:27; Proverbs 26:24

15 Then Johanan son of Kareah said privately to Gedaliah at Mizpah, “Let me go and kill Ishmael son of Nethaniah. No one will know it. Why should he take your life and cause all the Jews who have gathered around you to be scattered, leaving the remnant of Judah to perish?”

Cross References: 2 Samuel 3:27; Judges 9:5; Proverbs 27:12

16 But Gedaliah son of Ahikam said to Johanan son of Kareah, “You must not do such a thing, for what you are saying about Ishmael is not true.”

Key Lessons from Jeremiah 40

- God controls history: Even Babylon’s commander recognized that Judah’s fall was the direct result of disobedience to God (vv. 2–3).
- God preserves His servant: Jeremiah was spared and even given freedom and provision by his captors (vv. 4–6).
- Leadership requires trust in God’s plan: Gedaliah urged the people to stay in the land and live peacefully under Babylon, promising stability if they obeyed (vv. 9–10).
- Division and distrust bring danger: Despite warnings of betrayal, Gedaliah refused to believe the threat against his life—a decision that would soon bring tragedy (vv. 14–16).

Captives Taken

10 Then Ishmael carried away captive the rest of the people who were in Mizpah, including the king’s daughters and all who remained there—those whom Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, had entrusted to Gedaliah son of Ahikam. The People Plan to Flee to Egypt

16 Then Johanan son of Kareah and the army officers who were with him gathered up all the survivors from Mizpah—those whom Ishmael had taken captive after killing Gedaliah son of Ahikam. This included the men of war, the women, the children, and the eunuchs, whom they brought back from Gibeon.

- False appearances deceive: Ishmael met the pilgrims with tears but lured them to death, showing the danger of hypocrisy and hidden evil (vv. 5–7).
- God still preserves a remnant: Even in tragedy, some captives were spared and later rescued through Johanan's intervention (vv. 13–16).
- Fear leads to poor decisions: Instead of trusting God's plan, the people began moving toward Egypt, a place the Lord had warned against (vv. 17–18).

Key Lessons from Jeremiah 42

- Be sincere in seeking God’s guidance: The people pretended to want God’s direction, but their hearts were already set on Egypt (vv. 1–6, 20).
- God’s timing tests patience: Jeremiah waited ten days before receiving God’s answer, showing that we must wait on the Lord instead of rushing into our own plans (v. 7).
- Obedience brings security: God promised to protect and bless His people if they stayed in the land and trusted Him (vv. 10–12).
- Disobedience brings destruction: Choosing Egypt—the easy way—would only lead to the very sword and famine they hoped to escape (vv. 13–18).

- God sees through empty promises: Saying “we will obey” means nothing if the heart is already rebellious (vv. 19–22).

“The Rebellion in Egypt”

The People Accuse Jeremiah of Lying

1 When Jeremiah had finished speaking to all the people every word the Lord their God had sent him to declare,

Cross References: Jeremiah 26:8; Deuteronomy 32:45; Ezekiel 3:10

2 Azariah son of Hoshai, Johanan son of Kareah, and all the arrogant men said to Jeremiah, “You are lying! The Lord our God has not sent you to say, ‘Do not go to Egypt to settle there.’

Cross References: Jeremiah 20:1; 1 Kings 22:8; Jeremiah 26:11

3 It is Baruch son of Neriah who is inciting you against us, to deliver us into the hands of the Babylonians, so they may kill us or carry us into exile in Babylon.”

Cross References: Jeremiah 37:13; Jeremiah 38:4; Amos 7:10

4 So Johanan son of Kareah, all the army officers, and all the people disobeyed the voice of the Lord by refusing to stay in the land of Judah.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 15:24; Numbers 14:22; Nehemiah 9:16

The People Drag Jeremiah and Baruch into Egypt

5 Instead, Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers took the entire remnant of Judah—those who had returned from all the nations where they had been scattered to live in the land of Judah—

Cross References: 2 Kings 25:26; Jeremiah 41:17; Hosea 9:3

6 including the men, women, children, the king’s daughters, and every person Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, as well as Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch son of Neriah.

Cross References: Jeremiah 40:7; 2 Kings 25:26; Jeremiah 39:14

7 They did not obey the voice of the Lord. They went into Egypt, arriving at Tahpanhes.

Cross References: Ezekiel 4:1; Ezekiel 12:3; Isaiah 20:2

10 Then say to them, ‘This is what the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, says: I am going to send for My servant Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and I will set his throne over these stones I have buried here. He will spread his royal canopy above them.

Cross References: Ezekiel 29:19; Ezekiel 30:10; Daniel 2:37

Cross References: Ezekiel 30:24; Ezekiel 21:19; Zechariah 11:9

12 I will set fire to the temples of Egypt’s gods; he will burn them down and carry the idols away. He will wrap Egypt around him like a shepherd puts on his cloak, and he will leave there in peace.

Cross References: Ezekiel 30:13; Isaiah 19:1; Ezekiel 6:4

13 He will break the sacred pillars of Beth Shemesh in Egypt, and burn the temples of the gods of Egypt with fire.”

Cross References: Ezekiel 30:17; Isaiah 19:18; 2 Kings 23:5

Key Lessons from Jeremiah 43

- Pride blinds people to God’s truth: The leaders accused Jeremiah of lying rather than accepting the word of the Lord (vv. 2–3).
- Disobedience hardens rebellion: Even after promising to obey God in chapter 42, the people dragged Jeremiah and Baruch into Egypt against God’s command (vv. 4–7).
- God’s authority is unshakable: By burying stones at Pharaoh’s palace, Jeremiah gave a prophetic sign that Nebuchadnezzar’s throne would be established even in Egypt (vv. 8–10).
- False gods cannot save: The Lord declared that the idols and temples of Egypt would be destroyed by fire (vv. 12–13).
- God’s word always prevails: Even in foreign lands, God directs history according to His plan.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 30:19; Ezekiel 18:31; Jeremiah 21:8

8 Why do you provoke Me to anger by burning incense to the gods of Egypt, where you have come to live? You are bringing ruin on yourselves, becoming an object of cursing and reproach among the nations of the earth.

16 “We will not listen to the message you spoke to us in the name of the Lord!

Cross References: Jeremiah 7:27; Ezekiel 2:7; 2 Chronicles 25:16

17 Instead, we will certainly carry out the vows we made. We will burn incense to the queen of heaven and pour out drink offerings to her, just as we and our ancestors, our kings, and our officials did in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. Back then, we had plenty of food, we were well off, and we saw no disaster.

Cross References: Jeremiah 7:18; 2 Kings 23:5; Zephaniah 1:5

18 But ever since we stopped burning incense to the queen of heaven and pouring out offerings to her, we have had nothing, and we have perished by sword and famine.”

25 “This is what the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, says: You and your wives have declared with your mouths and fulfilled with your hands, ‘We will surely keep the vows we made—to burn incense to the queen of heaven and pour out drink offerings to her.’ Very well, keep your vows and do as you promised!

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:34; 2 Kings 25:6; Ezekiel 29:19

Key Lessons from Jeremiah 44

- Idolatry invites destruction: God makes clear that burning incense to false gods is what ruined Jerusalem, and the same sins will bring ruin in Egypt (vv. 2–8).
- History ignored is judgment repeated: The people forgot the lessons of their fathers and stubbornly repeated the same abominations (vv. 9–10).
- Rebellion hardens the heart: The people boldly declared they would continue worshiping the “queen of heaven” despite God’s warnings (vv. 15–19).
- God’s word stands above human vows: The Lord swore that His name would no longer be invoked by the Jews in Egypt because they had rejected Him (vv. 24–26).

- God proves His word by signs: Just as Zedekiah was handed over, Pharaoh Hophra would also fall—showing that God rules over kings and nations (v. 30).

Key Lessons from Jeremiah 45

- God’s servants also feel weary: Even faithful Baruch grew discouraged, feeling crushed by sorrow and unable to rest (v. 3).
- Perspective matters: While God’s judgment was certain over the land, He reminded Baruch not to focus on personal ambition or greatness (v. 5a).
- Life itself is a gift: In the midst of widespread destruction, God promised Baruch something precious—his life preserved (v. 5b).
- Seek faithfulness, not fame: The call of God is often to endurance and trust, not to personal glory.

Key Lessons from Jeremiah 52

- Sin brings destruction. Zedekiah's rebellion against God and Babylon led to Jerusalem's fall, famine, and devastation (vv. 2–11).
- God keeps His warnings. Everything Jeremiah prophesied came to pass: the city, temple, and leaders were destroyed (vv. 12–27).
- The temple is not a guarantee. Though it was glorious, even Solomon's temple was burned—God desires obedience above buildings (vv. 13–23).
- God preserves a remnant. Some poor of the land were left, and even Jehoiachin was shown mercy at the end (vv. 16, 31–34).
- Judgment is not the final word. Even in wrath, God leaves hope of restoration, pointing to future promises of return and redemption.

Introduction to the Book of Lamentations

“How lonely sits the city that was full of people!” – Lamentations 1:1

Title and Meaning

The English title Lamentations comes from the Latin Lamenta, meaning “weeping” or “dirges.” In Hebrew, the book is traditionally called Ekah, meaning “How,” taken from its opening word: “How lonely sits the city...” The title reflects the nature of the book: a collection of poetic laments mourning the destruction of Jerusalem in 586 BC by the Babylonians. Lamentations is a funeral song for a fallen city — Jerusalem, once glorious, now devastated. Yet woven into the grief are glimpses of faith, hope, and God’s mercy.

Author and Date

Lamentations is traditionally attributed to the prophet Jeremiah, known as the “weeping prophet.” While the book itself does not name its author, Jewish and Christian tradition strongly connect it to Jeremiah, who witnessed firsthand the fall of Jerusalem, the burning of the temple, and the exile of God’s people. The events described place its writing shortly after 586 BC, in the immediate aftermath of Jerusalem’s destruction.

Purpose of Lamentations

Lamentations was written to:

- Express the deep grief of God’s people over the destruction of Jerusalem and the temple.
- Provide a voice for suffering and pain in the aftermath of judgment.
- Teach God’s people to grieve honestly, yet turn their eyes back to God in hope.
- Affirm that sin brings judgment, but God’s steadfast love endures. It is both a national funeral dirge and a devotional book for suffering hearts.

Structure of Lamentations

Lamentations is composed of five poetic laments (chapters), each functioning as an individual song, but together forming a unified collection. Ch. 1 – Jerusalem’s Desolation The city mourns her ruin; her lovers have betrayed her. Ch. 2 – God’s Anger Against Zion The Lord has poured out His wrath and destroyed the temple. Ch. 3 – A Personal Lament and Hope Jeremiah speaks as a suffering man, yet declares: “Great is Your faithfulness.” Ch. 4 – The Severity of the Siege The horrors of famine and destruction are recounted in painful detail. Ch. 5 – A Prayer for Restoration The community cries out for God’s mercy and renewal. Chapters 1–4 are written as acrostic poems (each verse beginning with successive letters of the Hebrew alphabet), showing deliberate structure even in sorrow. Chapter 5 is a prayer of 22 verses (matching the Hebrew alphabet) but without acrostic form, showing raw grief without order.

Major Themes

- God’s Judgment on Sin – Jerusalem fell because of persistent rebellion against God.
- The Reality of Suffering – Lamentations gives voice to grief, showing it is not unspiritual to weep.
- The Faithfulness of God – In the darkest chapter (3), hope shines: “The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases” (3:22–23).
- Repentance and Prayer – The book calls the people to turn back to God in humility.
- Hope Beyond Despair – Even in judgment, God’s mercy is greater, pointing to future restoration.

Why Lamentations Matters Today

Lamentations teaches us how to process grief, pain, and national tragedy with honesty before God. It reminds us that:

- Sin has real consequences.
- It is right to grieve losses deeply.
- God’s mercies are new every morning.
- Even when everything falls apart, hope can be found in God’s character. For modern readers, it provides words for seasons of suffering and a model for clinging to God in hopelessness.

Key Verse

“The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases; his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.” – Lamentations 3:22–23 This verse captures the heart of Lamentations: even in sorrow and judgment, God’s mercy is the anchor of hope.

Introduction to the Book of Ezekiel

“Then I saw the glory of the God of Israel coming from the east. His voice was like the roar of rushing waters, and the land was radiant with his glory.” – Ezekiel 43:2

Title and Meaning

The name Ezekiel comes from the Hebrew name Yehezkel, meaning “God strengthens” or “God makes strong.” This title reflects the prophet’s calling to bring strength and hope to God’s people in the midst of judgment and exile. Ezekiel’s ministry came during one of Israel’s darkest periods — the Babylonian captivity.

Author and Date

The book is attributed to Ezekiel, son of Buzi, a priest taken into exile during the second deportation to Babylon in 597 BC (Ezekiel 1:1–3). His prophetic ministry began around 593 BC and continued for over 20 years until about 571 BC. Ezekiel lived and ministered among the exiles by the Kebar River in Babylon, speaking God’s word both to the captives in Babylon and to those still left in Jerusalem.

Purpose of Ezekiel

Ezekiel’s prophecy serves multiple purposes:

- To announce God’s judgment against Jerusalem and the nations because of sin and idolatry.
- To call the people to repentance, showing that sin has consequences but God is righteous in His actions.
- To reveal God’s glory and sovereignty, reminding Israel that even in exile, the Lord reigns over all nations.
- To offer hope of restoration, with promises of a new covenant, a new heart, a return to the land, and the vision of God’s glory filling a new temple.

Structure of Ezekiel

The book can be divided into four major sections: 1. Ezekiel’s Call and Vision of God’s Glory (Chapters 1–3)

- The vision of the throne chariot (Ch. 1)
- Ezekiel’s prophetic call and commission (Ch. 2–3) 2. Oracles of Judgment Against Jerusalem and Judah (Chapters 4–24)
- Symbolic actions of judgment (Ch. 4–7)
- The abominations in the temple and God’s glory departing (Ch. 8–11)
- Parables and warnings of destruction (Ch. 12–24) 3. Oracles of Judgment Against Foreign Nations (Chapters 25–32)
- Against Ammon, Moab, Edom, Philistia (Ch. 25)

- Against Tyre and Sidon (Ch. 26–28)
- Against Egypt (Ch. 29–32) 4. Oracles of Hope and Restoration (Chapters 33–48)
- The watchman’s call and personal responsibility (Ch. 33)
- Promise of new shepherds and a new covenant (Ch. 34–37)
- The vision of Gog and Magog (Ch. 38–39)
- The vision of the new temple and God’s glory returning (Ch. 40–48)

Major Themes

- God’s Glory: His presence departs from the temple (Ch. 10–11) but later returns in glory (Ch. 43).
- Judgment for Sin: Both Israel and the nations face consequences for rebellion.
- Individual Responsibility: Each person is accountable to God (Ch. 18).
- A New Heart and Spirit: God promises to replace hearts of stone with hearts of flesh (Ch. 36:26).
- Restoration and Hope: Dry bones live again (Ch. 37), pointing to God’s power to renew His people.
- The Sovereignty of God: Over Israel, the nations, history, and the future.

Why Ezekiel Matters Today

Ezekiel reminds us that:

- God’s holiness demands justice, but His mercy brings restoration.
- Even when it seems all hope is lost, God can breathe life into dry bones.
- God’s glory is not confined to buildings or borders—He is Lord everywhere.
- Renewal begins with transformed hearts and obedience to God’s Spirit.
- The ultimate fulfillment of Ezekiel’s visions points us to Jesus Christ, the Good Shepherd and the source of living water (John 10:11; John 7:37–39).

Key Verse

“I will give you a new heart, and I will put a new spirit in you. I will take out your stony, stubborn heart and give you a tender, responsive heart.” – Ezekiel 36:26 This verse captures Ezekiel’s central message: judgment is real, but God’s ultimate plan is redemption, transformation, and the renewal of His people.

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 1

- God reveals His glory in power and mystery – Ezekiel’s vision reminds us that God’s presence is awesome, radiant, and overwhelming (vv. 4–14, 26–28).
- The Spirit directs all movement – The living beings and the wheels did not act on their own but only moved wherever the Spirit led (vv. 12, 20–21).
- Heaven’s throne is above all creation – The creatures, wheels, and expanse point upward to the throne of God, where His glory reigns supreme (vv. 22–26).
- God’s glory brings humility – Like Ezekiel, when faced with God’s greatness, the only right response is to fall before Him in worship (v. 28).

- Fear must not control the messenger – God told Ezekiel not to fear their words, their looks, or their hostility, because his authority came from God, not people (vv. 6–7).
- God’s Word is our message, not our own – Ezekiel was commanded to speak only what God gave him, not to add or take away (v. 7).
- The Word is sometimes bitter but necessary – The scroll contained sorrow and judgment, showing that God’s truth confronts sin before it can heal (vv. 9–10).

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 3

- God’s Word must be taken in before it can be given out – Ezekiel had to eat the scroll, symbolizing that God’s messenger must first be filled with His Word (vv. 1–3).
- Rebellion resists truth – Israel would not listen, but Ezekiel’s task was obedience, not results (vv. 4–7).
- God equips His servants with strength – God made Ezekiel’s face as hard as flint so he would not fear opposition (vv. 8–9).
- The watchman’s responsibility – God holds His messengers accountable to warn both the wicked and the righteous; silence can make us guilty (vv. 16–21).
- God controls the messenger’s voice – Ezekiel could only speak when God opened his mouth, reminding us that true prophecy is God’s Word, not man’s (vv. 24–27).

Cross References: Deuteronomy 18:10; Exodus 22:18; Leviticus 19:26

23 therefore you will no longer see false visions or practice divination. I will rescue My people from your hands. Then you will know that I am the Lord.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 13

- False prophets speak from their imagination, not from God – They claim “The Lord says” when God has not spoken (vv. 2–7).
- Deception cannot stand – Lies of “peace” are like flimsy walls covered in whitewash; God’s storm will tear them down (vv. 10–15).
- God holds leaders accountable – False prophets and prophetesses harmed His people for selfish gain, but He promised to judge them (vv. 17–19).
- God rescues His people from deception – He will free His people from the traps of false leaders (vv. 20–21).
- Truth strengthens righteousness – Lies discourage the righteous and embolden the wicked, but God’s Word brings correction and life (vv. 22–23).

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 14

- Idolatry begins in the heart – God condemns not only physical idols but idols secretly set up in people’s hearts (vv. 3–5).
- True repentance is required – God calls His people to turn away from idols and detestable practices, not just outwardly but inwardly (v. 6).
- False prophets share the same judgment as deceived people – Both will be punished, because lies damage the whole nation (vv. 9–10).
- Righteousness is personal – Even the most righteous people like Noah, Daniel, and Job could only save themselves, not others, from God’s judgment (vv. 14–20).
- God’s judgments are purposeful – His actions are never without cause; they reveal His justice and ultimately lead survivors to acknowledge Him (vv. 22–23).

“Jerusalem Like a Useless Vine”

The Vine Compared to Other Trees

1 The word of the Lord came to me, saying,

Cross References: Isaiah 22:25; Zechariah 10:4; Exodus 27:19

4 No—it is only thrown into the fire as fuel. The fire burns up both ends and chars the middle. Is it good for anything then?

Cross References: Matthew 3:10; John 15:6; Isaiah 27:11

5 Even when it was whole, it was not useful for work. How much less can it be used for anything after the fire has consumed and burned it?”

- Without fruit, a vine is worthless – When God’s people do not fulfill their purpose, they are no different from useless wood (vv. 4–5).
- God’s judgment is consuming – Those who escape one disaster will face another until they recognize the Lord’s hand (vv. 6–7).
- Unfaithfulness ruins the land – Sin does not only affect people but brings desolation to the land itself (v. 8).

2 “Son of man, tell the people of Israel a parable.

Cross References: Judges 9:8; Matthew 13:3; 2 Samuel 12:1

5 He took some seed from the land and planted it in fertile soil by abundant waters, like a willow tree.

Cross References: 2 Kings 24:17; Psalm 1:3; Isaiah 44:4

6 It sprouted and became a spreading vine of low stature. Its branches grew toward him, and its roots stayed under him. It became a healthy vine, producing branches and new growth.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 36:13; Psalm 80:11; Jeremiah 52:3

7 But there was another great eagle with large wings and many feathers. The vine stretched out its roots and branches toward him, hoping to be watered.

8 Though it had been planted in good soil by abundant waters so it could produce fruit and become a splendid vine, it turned instead toward the second eagle.

Cross References: Jeremiah 2:18; Jeremiah 2:36; Isaiah 30:3

The Explanation of the Parable

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 36:13; Jeremiah 37:5; Isaiah 31:1

16 As surely as I live, declares the Lord God, he will die in Babylon, in the place of the king who put him on the throne, whose oath he despised and whose covenant he broke.

Cross References: Jeremiah 52:11; 2 Kings 25:7; Jeremiah 34:3

17 Pharaoh with his mighty army will be of no help to him in war, when ramps are built and siege walls are raised to destroy many lives.

6 Warriors dressed in blue, governors and commanders, handsome young men, skilled horsemen.

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 23

- Spiritual unfaithfulness is like adultery – Samaria and Jerusalem are pictured as unfaithful wives running after foreign nations and idols (vv. 1–21).
- Sin grows worse if unchecked – Jerusalem (Aholibah) became even more corrupt than Samaria (Aholah), showing how rebellion deepens without repentance (vv. 11–20).
- God allows judgment through former “lovers” – The nations Israel trusted in became the very instruments of her destruction (vv. 22–29).
- Idolatry defiles worship – Israel polluted God’s temple and Sabbaths while sacrificing children to idols (vv. 37–39).

- Judgment warns others – God’s punishment on Jerusalem and Samaria serves as a warning for others not to follow their path (vv. 45–48).

with those killed by the sword.
This is Pharaoh and all his multitude,” declares the Lord God.

- All human glory fades – Even the trees of Eden were humbled in comparison to Assyria’s fall (vv. 14–16).

“The Inner Temple and the Most Holy Place”

The Dimensions of the Temple

1 Then he brought me into the temple and measured the posts; six cubits wide on one side and six cubits wide on the other—the width of the tabernacle.

Cross References: 1 Kings 6:2; Exodus 26:22; Ezekiel 40:48

2 The doorway was ten cubits wide, and the sides of the doorway were five cubits on each side. He measured the length of the temple—forty cubits—and the width—twenty cubits.

Cross References: 1 Kings 6:2; 1 Kings 6:17; 2 Chronicles 3:3

3 Then he went inside and measured the doorposts—two cubits. The doorway was six cubits wide, and the width of the entrance was seven cubits.

Cross References: 1 Kings 6:31; 1 Kings 6:33; Ezekiel 41:2

4 He measured the room: twenty cubits long and twenty cubits wide. He said to me, “This is the Most Holy Place.”

Side Chambers of the Temple

5 Then he measured the wall of the temple—it was six cubits thick—and the side chambers were four cubits wide all around the temple.

Cross References: 1 Kings 6:6; Ezekiel 41:9; Ezekiel 41:6

6 The side chambers were in three levels, one above the other, thirty chambers on each level. They rested on supports projecting from the wall, but the temple wall itself was not used for support.

Cross References: 1 Kings 6:6; 1 Kings 6:10; Ezekiel 41:5

7 The side rooms widened as one went upward around the temple, for the structure became wider at each successive level. A stairway wound upward, leading from the lowest to the middle and then to the highest level.

Cross References: 1 Kings 6:8; Ezekiel 41:6; 1 Kings 6:6

8 I also saw that the temple had a raised platform all around; the foundations of the side chambers were six long cubits high.

Cross References: 1 Kings 6:6; Ezekiel 41:5; Ezekiel 40:5

9 The outer wall of the side chambers was five cubits thick, and there was an open space around the chambers inside.

17 all the way above the doors, to the inner rooms and the outer walls, was measured.

Cross References: Ezekiel 40:16; Ezekiel 41:20; 1 Kings 6:29

Cherubim and Palm Decorations

18 The interior of the temple was decorated with carvings of cherubim and palm trees. A palm tree was between each cherub. Each cherub had two faces:

Cross References: 1 Kings 6:29; Exodus 26:1; 1 Kings 6:32

19 The face of a man toward the palm tree on one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side. The carvings extended all around the temple.

The Altar and the Doors

22 There was a wooden altar, three cubits high and two cubits long. Its corners, its base, and its sides were of wood. The man said to me, “This is the table that stands before the Lord.”

“The Priests' Chambers and the Sacred Boundaries”

The Chambers on the North Side

1 Then he brought me out into the outer court, on the way toward the north, and he led me to the chambers opposite the open space, which faced the building toward the north.

Cross References: Ezekiel 40:44; Ezekiel 40:17; Ezekiel 41:10

2 The length was one hundred cubits, and the width was fifty cubits.

Cross References: Ezekiel 42:8; Ezekiel 40:47; Ezekiel 41:13

3 Opposite the twenty cubits which belonged to the inner court, and opposite the pavement of the outer court, was a gallery facing a gallery in three stories.

Cross References: Ezekiel 41:6; Ezekiel 40:17; Ezekiel 41:16

4 In front of the chambers was a walkway ten cubits wide, and inward a way of one cubit, with their doors facing north.

Cross References: Ezekiel 40:6; Ezekiel 41:11; Ezekiel 42:11

5 Now the upper chambers were narrower because the galleries took away more space than the lower and middle chambers of the building.

Cross References: Ezekiel 41:7; 1 Kings 6:6; Ezekiel 42:6

6 For they were in three stories but had no pillars like the pillars of the courts; therefore the upper level was set back more than the lowest and the middle levels.

Cross References: Ezekiel 41:6; 1 Kings 6:8; Ezekiel 42:5

7 The wall outside, which was parallel to the chambers toward the outer court, opposite the chambers, was fifty cubits long.

Cross References: Ezekiel 42:2; Ezekiel 42:8; Ezekiel 40:5

8 The chambers toward the outer court were fifty cubits long, while those facing the temple were one hundred cubits long.

Cross References: Ezekiel 42:2; Ezekiel 41:13; Ezekiel 40:47

9 Below these chambers was an entrance from the east, as one enters them from the outer court.

Cross References: Ezekiel 44:1; Ezekiel 40:6; Ezekiel 42:12

The Chambers on the South Side

10 The chambers were also located in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, opposite the separate place and opposite the building.

Cross References: Ezekiel 41:12; Ezekiel 42:1; Ezekiel 42:13

11 The passage in front of them was like the passage of the chambers toward the north; their length and width were the same, and their exits and entrances matched their design.

Cross References: Ezekiel 42:4; Ezekiel 42:1; Ezekiel 42:7

12 Likewise, there was a door at the head of the passage, the way directly in front of the wall toward the east, as one enters into them.

The Holy Use of the Chambers

13 Then he said to me, “The north chambers and the south chambers that face the separate courtyard are holy chambers where the priests who approach the Lord shall eat the most holy offerings. There they shall place the most holy things—the grain offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering—for the place is holy.

Cross References: Leviticus 6:16; Leviticus 6:26; Leviticus 7:6

14 When the priests enter, they shall not go out of the holy chamber into the outer court without first leaving there the garments in which they minister, for they are holy. They shall put on other garments before they approach the area designated for the people.”

Cross References: Exodus 28:43; Ezekiel 44:19; Leviticus 6:11

The Outer Measurements

15 When he had finished measuring the inner temple area, he brought me out by way of the east gate and measured it all around.

Cross References: Ezekiel 40:6; Revelation 21:15; Zechariah 2:2

16 He measured the east side with the measuring reed—five hundred reeds, by the measuring reed all around.

Cross References: Ezekiel 42:17; Ezekiel 45:2; Revelation 21:16

18 He measured the south side—five hundred reeds, by the measuring reed.

Cross References: Ezekiel 42:16; Ezekiel 42:19; Revelation 21:16

19 He turned to the west side and measured—five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed.

Cross References: Ezekiel 42:16; Ezekiel 42:20; Revelation 21:16

20 He measured on all four sides. It had a wall all around, five hundred reeds long and five hundred reeds wide, to separate the holy from the common.

Cross References: Revelation 21:17; Leviticus 10:10; Ezekiel 22:26

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 42

- God establishes holy order – Even the chambers and walkways of the temple are carefully measured, reminding us that God is a God of order (vv. 1–12).
- Holiness requires separation – The priests' chambers show the importance of distinction between what is holy and what is common. God calls His people to respect and protect what is sacred (vv. 13–14).
- Boundaries safeguard worship – The outer measurements define a clear separation between the holy temple and the profane world. God's presence demands reverence and boundaries (vv. 15–20).
- Sacred service requires sacred garments – The priests' garments represented holiness. Likewise, we must put off the old and put on the new life in Christ when serving God (v. 14; cf. Eph. 4:24).

Cross References: Ezekiel 37:26; Exodus 25:22; Revelation 21:3

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 44

- The holiness of God’s presence requires separation – The eastern gate is shut because the Lord Himself entered through it (vv. 1–3).
- God demands pure worship – Foreigners and the uncircumcised in heart were forbidden to minister in His sanctuary (vv. 6–9).
- Sin disqualifies from higher service – The Levites who went astray could serve in minor roles but could not approach God’s altar (vv. 10–14).
- Faithfulness brings greater privilege – The sons of Zadok, who remained loyal, were given the honor of serving directly before God (vv. 15–16).
- Priests are called to holiness – Their dress, conduct, marriages, teaching, and judgments all had to reflect God’s holiness (vv. 17–27).
- God Himself is their inheritance – True priests find their portion not in land or possessions, but in the Lord alone (vv. 28–31).

Introduction to the Book of Daniel

“But the people who know their God shall be strong, and carry out great exploits.” – Daniel 11:32

Title and Meaning

The name Daniel comes from the Hebrew Daniyyel, meaning “God is my judge.” This name reflects the central truth of the book: even when earthly kings judge and rule, the final authority belongs to the Lord. Daniel’s life and visions remind us that God is sovereign over history, nations, and kings, and that His kingdom will outlast all others.

Author and Date

The book is traditionally attributed to Daniel, a young Jewish exile taken to Babylon in 605 BC during the first deportation under King Nebuchadnezzar. Daniel served as a statesman and prophet through the reigns of Babylonian and Persian kings, including Nebuchadnezzar, Belshazzar, Darius, and Cyrus. Scholars generally place the writing of the book in the 6th century BC, during or shortly after the exile. The detailed historical knowledge and prophetic visions show divine inspiration and God’s control over future events.

Purpose of Daniel

The Book of Daniel was written to encourage God’s people in exile and to reveal His sovereign plan for the future. It teaches us:

- That God rules over kingdoms and history.
- That faithfulness is possible even in hostile, pagan cultures.
- That God vindicates those who remain loyal to Him.
- That history is moving toward the establishment of God’s eternal kingdom. Daniel is both narrative (stories of faith in action) and apocalyptic prophecy (visions of the future).

Structure of Daniel

Daniel divides into two main sections: 1. Historical Narratives (Chapters 1–6) God’s sovereignty displayed through Daniel’s life and his friends:

- Daniel and his friends in Babylon (Ch. 1)
 - Nebuchadnezzar’s dream of the statue (Ch. 2)
 - The fiery furnace (Ch. 3)
 - Nebuchadnezzar’s humbling (Ch. 4)
 - The handwriting on the wall (Ch. 5)
 - Daniel in the lions’ den (Ch. 6)
- 2. Prophetic Visions (Chapters 7–12) God’s plan for nations and the end of time:
- The four beasts and God’s eternal kingdom (Ch. 7)
 - The ram and the goat (Ch. 8)

- Daniel’s prayer and the prophecy of seventy weeks (Ch. 9)
- The vision of kings and kingdoms (Ch. 10–12)

Major Themes

- God’s Sovereignty: Kings rise and fall, but God rules over all.
- Faithfulness in Exile: Daniel and his friends remain loyal in a foreign land.
- God’s Protection: From the fiery furnace to the lions’ den, God delivers His faithful ones.
- Prophecy and the Future: God reveals the course of history, climaxing in His eternal kingdom.
- Hope and Endurance: Even in trials, God’s people are assured of final victory.

Why Daniel Matters Today

Daniel speaks directly to believers living in a world often opposed to God:

- How can we stay faithful in a culture that rejects God?
- How should we trust God when powerful forces seem unstoppable?
- How do we live with courage when obedience is costly? Daniel shows that faithfulness to God is possible even in exile and that God’s kingdom will prevail. The visions point forward to Jesus Christ, the Son of Man (Daniel 7:13–14), whose dominion is everlasting.

Key Verse

“And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed...” – Daniel 2:44 This verse captures the heart of Daniel: kingdoms of men rise and fall, but God’s kingdom is eternal and indestructible.

“Daniel and His Friends in Babylon”

The Captivity in Babylon

1 In the third year of King Jehoiakim’s rule over Judah, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came to Jerusalem and surrounded it.

Cross References: 2 Kings 24:1; 2 Chronicles 36:6; Jeremiah 25:1

2 The Lord gave Jehoiakim, king of Judah, into Nebuchadnezzar’s hand, along with some of the sacred items from the Temple of God. Nebuchadnezzar carried them back to the land of Babylon and placed them in the treasure house of his gods.

Cross References: 2 Kings 24:13; 2 Chronicles 36:7; Ezra 1:7

Young Men Chosen for Service

3 Then the king ordered Ashpenaz, the chief of his officials, to bring some of the young men of Israel from the royal family and nobility.

Cross References: 2 Kings 20:18; Isaiah 39:7; 2 Kings 24:15

4 They were to be healthy, good-looking, intelligent, and quick to learn, so they could be trained to serve in the king's palace. They were to be taught the language and literature of the Babylonians.

Cross References: Acts 7:22; Genesis 39:6; 1 Kings 3:12

5 The king assigned them a daily portion of food and wine from his own table. They were to be trained for three years, and after that, they would serve the king.

Cross References: 2 Kings 25:29; Jeremiah 52:33; Nehemiah 1:11

6 Among those chosen were four young men from Judah: Daniel, Hananiah, Mishaël, and Azariah.

Cross References: Daniel 2:17; Ezekiel 14:14; Ezekiel 28:3

7 The chief official gave them Babylonian names: Daniel was called Belteshazzar, Hananiah was called Shadrach, Mishaël was called Meshach, and Azariah was called Abednego.

Cross References: Genesis 41:45; 2 Kings 24:17; Daniel 4:8

Daniel Refuses the King's Food

8 But Daniel resolved in his heart not to defile himself by eating the king's food and wine. He asked the chief official for permission not to make himself unclean in this way.

Cross References: Leviticus 11:47; Exodus 34:15; 1 Corinthians 10:31

9 God caused the official to show kindness and respect to Daniel.

Cross References: Genesis 39:21; Proverbs 16:7; Exodus 3:21

10 But the official said, "I am afraid of my master the king. He has assigned your food and drink. If you look weaker than the other young men your age, the king would have my head."

Cross References: Esther 4:11; Proverbs 29:25; Ecclesiastes 8:3

11 Daniel then spoke to the guard whom the chief official had placed over him, Hananiah, Mishaël, and Azariah.

Cross References: Genesis 40:4; Nehemiah 1:11; Proverbs 15:1

12 He said, "Please test us for ten days. Give us only vegetables to eat and water to drink.

Cross References: Malachi 3:10; Judges 6:37; 1 Thessalonians 5:21

13 Then compare our appearance with the other young men who eat the king's food. After that, decide what you think is best."

Cross References: 1 Samuel 16:7; Genesis 41:4; Proverbs 23:1

14 The guard agreed and tested them for ten days.

Cross References: Job 23:10; James 1:3; 1 Peter 1:7

15 At the end of the ten days, Daniel and his three friends looked healthier and stronger than all the young men who ate the king's food.

Cross References: Proverbs 15:17; Isaiah 40:31; Psalm 1:3

16 So the guard continued to give them vegetables instead of the food and wine assigned by the king.

Cross References: Romans 14:2; Genesis 1:29; Daniel 10:3

God Gives Wisdom to Daniel and His Friends

17 God gave these four young men great knowledge, skill, and wisdom in all the writings and learning of Babylon. And Daniel could understand visions and dreams of every kind.

Cross References: 1 Kings 4:29; James 1:5; Genesis 41:38

18 At the end of the three years, the king commanded that all the young men be brought before him.

Cross References: Genesis 41:14; Esther 2:8; 1 Samuel 16:11

19 The king talked with them, and no one impressed him more than Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. So they entered the king's service.

Cross References: Genesis 41:39; Proverbs 22:29; 1 Samuel 16:18

20 In every matter of wisdom and understanding that the king questioned them about, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters in his whole kingdom.

Cross References: 1 Kings 4:30; Genesis 41:8; Exodus 7:11

21 Daniel remained there until the first year of King Cyrus.

Cross References: Ezra 1:1; Jeremiah 25:12; Daniel 10:1

Key Lessons from Daniel 1

- God is in control of history – Even though Babylon conquered Jerusalem, it was God who allowed it for His purposes.
- Faithfulness in small things – Daniel refused to compromise by eating defiled food, showing that obedience in little things leads to greater blessing.
- God honors faithfulness – The four young men were healthier and wiser because they trusted God rather than following the crowd.
- True wisdom comes from God – Human learning has limits, but God gives His people supernatural wisdom and understanding.
- God sustains His people in exile – Even in a foreign land, under pressure to conform, Daniel and his friends thrived because they stood firm in faith.

39 After you, another kingdom will rise, inferior to yours. Then a third kingdom, made of bronze, will rule over the whole earth.

40 Finally, a fourth kingdom, as strong as iron, will come. Just as iron crushes and smashes everything, so this kingdom will crush and break all others.

Cross References: Daniel 7:23; Revelation 13:7; Habakkuk 1:6

41 Just as you saw the feet and toes, partly clay and partly iron, this kingdom will be divided. It will have some of the strength of iron, but it will also be fragile like clay.

Cross References: Daniel 7:24; Revelation 17:16; Ezekiel 22:18

42 The toes, partly iron and partly clay, mean the kingdom will be partly strong and partly weak.

Cross References: Matthew 12:25; Mark 3:24; Daniel 11:4

43 And just as iron does not mix with clay, so these kingdoms will try to unite through human alliances, but they will not hold together.

Cross References: Ezra 9:2; 2 Corinthians 6:14; 1 Kings 11:1

44 In the days of those kings, the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed. It will never be conquered, but it will crush all these kingdoms and bring them to an end. It will last forever.

Cross References: Daniel 7:14; Isaiah 9:7; Luke 1:33

45 This is what you saw: the stone cut out of the mountain without human hands that crushed the iron, bronze, clay, silver, and gold. The great God has shown the king what will happen in the future. The dream is true, and the interpretation is certain.”

49 At Daniel’s request, the king appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to help govern the province of Babylon, but Daniel remained in the king’s court.

"The Vision of the Ram and the Goat"

Daniel's Vision by the Ulai River

1 In the third year of King Belshazzar's reign, I, Daniel, had another vision, after the earlier one.

Cross References: Daniel 7:1; Daniel 10:1; Numbers 12:6

2 In my vision I found myself at the fortress of Susa, in the province of Elam. In the vision I was standing beside the Ulai River.

Cross References: Nehemiah 1:1; Esther 1:2; Ezra 4:9

3 I looked up, and there before me stood a ram with two long horns. Both horns were high, but one was higher than the other, and the higher one came up last.

Cross References: Daniel 8:20; Daniel 5:28; Isaiah 13:17

4 The ram charged westward, northward, and southward. No animal could stand against it, and none could rescue from its power. It did as it pleased and became very great.

Cross References: Isaiah 45:1; Daniel 11:2; Jeremiah 51:11

5 As I was thinking about this, suddenly a goat with a prominent horn between its eyes came from the west, crossing the whole earth without touching the ground.

Cross References: Daniel 8:21; Daniel 11:3; Zechariah 9:13

6 It came toward the two-horned ram I had seen standing beside the river and rushed at it with furious power.

Cross References: Daniel 11:2; Proverbs 21:31; Isaiah 41:2

7 I watched as the goat attacked the ram furiously, shattering its two horns. The ram was powerless to stand against it; it was thrown to the ground and trampled. No one could rescue the ram from the goat's power.

Cross References: Daniel 8:4; Isaiah 10:6; Nahum 3:19

8 The goat became very great, but at the height of its power, the large horn was broken off. In its place four prominent horns grew up toward the four winds of heaven.

Cross References: Daniel 11:4; Daniel 7:6; Zechariah 2:6

The Little Horn

9 Out of one of them came another horn, which started small but grew exceedingly great toward the south, the east, and the Beautiful Land.

Cross References: Daniel 7:8; Ezekiel 20:6; Daniel 11:16

10 It grew until it reached the host of heaven, and it cast some of the starry host down to the earth and trampled on them.

Cross References: Revelation 12:4; Isaiah 14:12; Revelation 9:1

11 It exalted itself as high as the Prince of the host; it took away the daily sacrifice, and the sanctuary was thrown down.

Cross References: 2 Thessalonians 2:4; Daniel 11:31; 2 Kings 25:9

12 Because of rebellion, an army was given over to it to oppose the daily sacrifice. It threw truth to the ground and prospered in what it did.

Cross References: Daniel 11:31; Isaiah 59:14; Amos 8:11

13 Then I heard a holy one speaking, and another asked him, "How long will the vision be—the daily sacrifice, the rebellion that causes desolation, and the trampling of the sanctuary and the host?"

Cross References: Revelation 6:10; Daniel 12:6; Matthew 24:15

14 He said to me, “It will take 2,300 evenings and mornings; then the sanctuary will be cleansed.”

Cross References: Leviticus 16:30; Daniel 9:24; Hebrews 9:23

Gabriel Explains the Vision

15 While I, Daniel, was watching the vision and trying to understand it, suddenly one who looked like a man stood before me.

16 And I heard a man’s voice from the Ulai calling, “Gabriel, tell this man the meaning of the vision.”

Cross References: Luke 1:19; Daniel 9:21; Luke 1:26

17 As he came near, I was terrified and fell face down. He said to me, “Understand, son of man, that the vision concerns the time of the end.”

18 While he was speaking, I fell into a deep sleep with my face to the ground. But he touched me and helped me to stand.

19 He said, “I am going to tell you what will happen in the final time of wrath, for the end will come at the appointed time.

21 The shaggy goat is the king of Greece, and the large horn between its eyes is the first king.

22 The four horns that replaced the broken one represent four kingdoms that will arise from that nation, but none will have the power of the first.

Cross References: Daniel 11:4; Daniel 8:8; Zechariah 6:5

23 In the latter part of their reign, when sin has reached its full measure, a fierce king, skilled in intrigue, will arise.

Cross References: Daniel 11:21; Daniel 7:8; Daniel 11:32

24 His power will be mighty—but not by his own strength. He will cause astonishing destruction and succeed in whatever he does. He will destroy mighty men and the holy people.

Cross References: Revelation 13:2; Daniel 7:21; Daniel 11:33

25 He will use deceit to prosper, and in his arrogance he will destroy many who feel secure. He will rise up against the Prince of princes, but he will be destroyed—not by human power.

Cross References: 2 Thessalonians 2:8; Daniel 2:34; Revelation 19:20

26 The vision of the evenings and mornings that has been given is true. But seal up the vision, for it concerns the distant future.”

Introduction to the Book of Hosea

“When the Lord first began speaking to Israel through Hosea, He said to him, ‘Go and marry a prostitute...’” – Hosea 1:2

Title and Meaning

The name Hosea (Hebrew: Hôšēaʿ) means “salvation” or “deliverance.” It is closely related to the names Joshua and Jesus, which also carry the idea of salvation. Hosea’s name reflects the central message of his prophetic book: even in the midst of judgment for sin, God’s ultimate purpose is to save and restore His people.

Author and Date

The book is attributed to Hosea son of Beeri, one of the “minor prophets” (minor in length, not importance). Hosea ministered primarily in the northern kingdom of Israel during the eighth century BC, around the same time as Amos, Isaiah, and Micah. His prophetic career spanned the reigns of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah in Judah, and Jeroboam II in Israel (Hosea 1:1). This places Hosea’s ministry approximately between 755–715 BC, during a time of outward prosperity under Jeroboam II but deep moral corruption, idolatry, and political instability leading up to the Assyrian conquest of Israel in 722 BC.

Purpose of Hosea

Hosea’s message combines God’s holiness in judgment with His unfailing love in redemption. The prophet’s own marriage to Gomer, an unfaithful wife, serves as a living picture of Israel’s spiritual adultery and God’s patient, pursuing love. Hosea teaches us:

- That sin is spiritual adultery against God.
- That judgment is inevitable when people reject God’s covenant.
- That God’s love is relentless, seeking to restore His wayward people.
- That true salvation is found not in human alliances or idols, but in returning to the Lord.

Structure of Hosea

The book divides into two major parts: 1. Hosea’s Family as a Prophetic Symbol (Chapters 1–3)

- Hosea’s marriage to Gomer illustrates Israel’s unfaithfulness.
- The names of their children carry prophetic meaning: Jezreel (judgment), Lo-Ruhamah (“not loved”), and Lo-Ammi (“not my people”).
- God promises eventual restoration: “You are my people, and I am your God.” 2. Hosea’s Messages of Judgment and Restoration (Chapters 4–14)
- Ch. 4–10: Accusations against Israel for idolatry, injustice, and political corruption.
- Ch. 11: God’s fatherly love for Israel, despite their rebellion.
- Ch. 12–13: Rehearsal of Israel’s history of unfaithfulness and coming judgment.

- Ch. 14: Call to repentance and promise of healing, forgiveness, and blessing.

Major Themes

- Spiritual Adultery: Israel's idolatry is likened to marital unfaithfulness.
- Judgment and Exile: Sin leads to destruction, symbolized by the fall of Samaria to Assyria.
- God's Covenant Love (Hesed): Despite betrayal, God's steadfast love pursues His people.
- Repentance and Restoration: True hope lies in returning to the Lord, who heals and forgives.
- Christ as Fulfillment: Hosea points forward to Christ, the faithful bridegroom who redeems His unfaithful bride, the Church.

Why Hosea Matters Today

Hosea reminds us that God's love is both holy and relentless. It warns against the dangers of idolatry— not just of ancient statues, but of modern substitutes for God such as wealth, power, or pleasure. It calls us to examine our hearts: Are we faithful to the Lord, or chasing other "lovers"? Hosea also comforts us with the truth that God's mercy is greater than our sin. No matter how far we stray, He calls us to return and promises restoration through Jesus Christ, who fulfills the covenant love of God perfectly.

Key Verse

"I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely: for mine anger is turned away from him." – Hosea 14:4 This verse captures the heart of Hosea: God's judgment is real, but His love is deeper still. His desire is to heal, forgive, and restore all who turn back to Him.

Introduction to the Book of Joel

“And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh...” – Joel 2:28

Title and Meaning

The name Joel comes from the Hebrew Yo’el, meaning “Yahweh is God.” This powerful name reflects the central theme of the book: God’s sovereignty over nature, nations, and history. Unlike some prophets whose names highlight judgment or comfort, Joel’s name is a confession of faith—an anchor in times of crisis.

Author and Date

Joel, the son of Pethuel, is identified as the author. Beyond this, little is known of his personal background. The exact date of the book is debated among scholars, ranging from the 9th century BC (possibly during the reign of Joash) to the post-exilic period (5th–4th century BC). The lack of specific historical references suggests that Joel’s message is timeless, pointing to both immediate judgment and future hope under divine inspiration.

Purpose of Joel

Joel writes to awaken God’s people to the reality of sin, judgment, and repentance, while also pointing to ultimate restoration through the Lord. His prophecy teaches:

- That disasters—whether locust plagues or invading armies—are wake-up calls to return to God.
- That the “Day of the Lord” is certain, bringing judgment for the wicked and salvation for the repentant.
- That God desires heartfelt repentance, not empty rituals.
- That God promises to pour out His Spirit on all people, pointing to the coming of Christ and the birth of the Church (fulfilled in Acts 2).

Structure of Joel

The book of Joel is short but rich, dividing into three key movements: 1. The Plague of Locusts and Call to Repentance (Chapters 1–2:17)

- A devastating locust plague is described as both a natural disaster and a foreshadowing of the “Day of the Lord.”
- Joel calls priests, elders, and all people to fasting and repentance. 2. The Day of the Lord Announced (Chapter 2:18–32)
- God responds to repentance with restoration of the land.
- The promise of the outpouring of the Spirit on all flesh is given.
- The “Day of the Lord” is revealed as both judgment and deliverance. 3. Judgment of Nations and Blessing for God’s People (Chapter 3)

- The nations that oppressed Israel will face judgment.
- God will dwell in Zion, bringing peace, abundance, and holiness.

Major Themes

- The Day of the Lord – A central theme in Joel, describing both immediate and future times of divine intervention.
- Repentance and Renewal – God calls His people to return with fasting, weeping, and sincerity, promising healing and restoration.
- God’s Sovereignty – Over creation, history, nations, and judgment.
- The Outpouring of the Spirit – A prophetic glimpse of Pentecost and the global spread of the gospel.
- Judgment and Hope – While judgment is real, so too is God’s mercy for those who repent.

Why Joel Matters Today

Joel’s message is as urgent now as it was then. Natural disasters, wars, and crises remind us of human frailty and the need for God. Joel calls us to:

- Take sin seriously and repent wholeheartedly.
- Recognize that only God can save, not wealth, armies, or idols.
- Live in anticipation of the “Day of the Lord,” walking in righteousness and hope.
- Embrace the promise of the Spirit poured out on all who call upon the name of the Lord.

Key Verse

“And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be delivered...” – Joel 2:32 This verse captures Joel’s message of hope: though judgment comes, salvation is available for all who turn to the Lord.

Introduction to the Book of Amos

“Surely the Lord God will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets.” – Amos 3:7

Title and Meaning

The name Amos comes from the Hebrew ‘Amos, meaning “burden-bearer.” His name reflects his mission—carrying the heavy message of God’s judgment against sin and injustice. Amos was not a professional prophet but a shepherd and fig farmer from Tekoa in Judah. God called him to leave his humble work and proclaim His word to Israel.

Author and Date

Amos, son of a herdsman, is the author. He ministered during the reigns of Uzziah king of Judah (792–740 BC) and Jeroboam II king of Israel (793–753 BC). This was a time of prosperity, military strength, and outward religion—but also a time of deep corruption, idolatry, and social injustice. Amos likely prophesied around 760–750 BC, making him one of the earliest writing prophets, before Isaiah and Hosea.

Purpose of Amos

Amos delivers a message of judgment with a call to repentance. His purpose is clear:

- To expose Israel’s sins of idolatry, greed, and injustice.
- To declare that religious rituals without righteousness are worthless to God.
- To warn that God’s patience has limits—the “Day of the Lord” will bring judgment.
- To remind that God cares deeply about justice, righteousness, and how His people treat one another.
- To give hope that after judgment, God will restore David’s fallen kingdom and bless His people.

Structure of Amos

The book divides into three main sections: 1. Oracles of Judgment (Chapters 1–2)

- God pronounces judgment not only on Israel, but also on the surrounding nations. 2. Messages Against Israel’s Sin (Chapters 3–6)
- Israel is condemned for oppression of the poor, immorality, and empty worship.
- Calls to repentance are ignored, and “woes” are pronounced. 3. Visions of Judgment and Restoration (Chapters 7–9)
- Amos describes visions of locusts, fire, a plumb line, a basket of ripe fruit, and the Lord standing by the altar.
- The book ends with hope: the promise of restoration and blessing through the rebuilding of David’s house.

Major Themes

- Justice and Righteousness – God requires His people to live justly, not just perform rituals.
- The Day of the Lord – A warning that judgment will fall first on Israel for her sins.
- Social Sin and Oppression – God condemns exploiting the poor, corrupt courts, and dishonest trade.
- True Worship – God rejects empty sacrifices when the heart is far from Him.
- Hope Beyond Judgment – God promises to restore His people and include the nations in His plan.

Why Amos Matters Today

Amos reminds us that:

- God cares how we treat others—justice and compassion are central to true faith.
- Prosperity can blind us to sin if it is not rooted in obedience to God.
- Worship without righteousness is hypocrisy.
- God’s word warns before judgment, but He also offers mercy to those who repent.
- Ultimately, Amos points to Christ, the Son of David, through whom God restores His people and invites all nations into His kingdom (Acts 15:15–17).

Key Verse

“But let judgment run down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream.” – Amos 5:24 This verse captures the heart of Amos’ message: God desires justice and righteousness, not empty religion.

Introduction to the Book of Obadiah

“For the day of the Lord is near upon all the heathen: as thou hast done, it shall be done unto thee...”
– Obadiah 1:15

Title and Meaning

The name Obadiah comes from the Hebrew ‘Obhadyah, meaning “Servant (or Worshiper) of Yahweh.” True to his name, Obadiah faithfully delivers a message of God’s justice and sovereignty. His short book—the shortest in the Old Testament—focuses on the downfall of Edom, Israel’s proud neighbor and enemy.

Author and Date

Little is known about Obadiah himself beyond his name. The prophecy is traditionally attributed to him alone. Scholars debate the date of writing, with two main views:

- 9th century BC – during the reign of Jehoram (when Edom rebelled and attacked Judah).
- 6th century BC – shortly after the Babylonian destruction of Jerusalem (586 BC), when Edom joined in Judah’s downfall. Regardless of the exact time, Obadiah’s message remains timeless: God judges pride and treachery, and He defends His people.

Purpose of Obadiah

The book of Obadiah was written to:

- Announce God’s judgment against Edom for its violence, arrogance, and betrayal of Judah.
- Declare that the “Day of the Lord” will bring justice to all nations.
- Remind Israel that God’s kingdom will ultimately triumph over all opposition.
- Encourage God’s people to trust in His justice and ultimate deliverance.

Structure of Obadiah

Though brief, Obadiah’s prophecy has a clear flow: 1. Judgment on Edom (Verses 1–14)

- Edom’s pride and cruelty against Judah are exposed.
- God promises to bring them down from their lofty places. 2. The Day of the Lord and Judgment on the Nations (Verses 15–16)
- A universal principle: nations will reap what they sow.
- Judgment is not just for Edom, but for all who oppose God’s people. 3. Deliverance and the Kingdom of the Lord (Verses 17–21)
- Israel will be restored, and God’s people will possess their inheritance.
- The book ends with hope: “And the kingdom shall be the Lord’s.”

Major Themes

- The Sin of Pride – Edom’s arrogance and false security led to its downfall.

- Brotherhood Betrayed – Edom, descended from Esau, betrayed Judah, descended from Jacob.
- Divine Justice – God ensures that what nations and people sow, they will reap.
- The Day of the Lord – A theme that stretches beyond Edom to all nations.
- Hope of Restoration – Despite judgment, God promises deliverance and final victory for His people.

Why Obadiah Matters Today

Obadiah speaks to every generation:

- Pride goes before destruction—nations and individuals alike fall when they exalt themselves against God.
- God sees betrayal, violence, and injustice, and He will repay.
- The “Day of the Lord” is coming, reminding us to live in humility and righteousness.
- God’s people may suffer for a season, but His kingdom will stand forever.
- Obadiah points forward to the ultimate King—Jesus Christ—through whom the kingdom of God will be established in fullness.

Key Verse

“But upon mount Zion shall be deliverance, and there shall be holiness; and the house of Jacob shall possess their possessions.” – Obadiah 1:17 This verse captures both judgment and hope: while the proud fall, God’s people will inherit His promises and dwell securely under His rule.

Introduction to the Book of Jonah

“But the Lord prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.” – Jonah 1:17

Title and Meaning

The name Jonah comes from the Hebrew Yonah, meaning “dove.” The title reflects the prophet himself, who, like a dove, was restless and sought to flee rather than obey. Unlike most prophetic books, Jonah focuses not on the prophet’s message, but on the prophet’s personal struggle with God’s call and mercy toward others.

Author and Date

Jonah, the son of Amittai, is the central figure of the book and is traditionally considered its author. He ministered during the reign of Jeroboam II of Israel (793–753 BC), as referenced in 2 Kings 14:25. The book likely dates to the 8th century BC, though some scholars suggest a later composition reflecting on his story. Regardless, its inspired message remains timeless.

Purpose of Jonah

The book of Jonah was written to:

- Show God’s sovereignty over creation, nations, and individuals.
- Reveal God’s compassion, even for Israel’s enemies (the people of Nineveh).
- Expose the dangers of disobedience, pride, and lack of mercy.
- Teach that repentance can turn away God’s judgment.
- Point to God’s greater plan of salvation for all nations.

Structure of Jonah

The story unfolds in four short but powerful chapters: 1. Jonah’s Flight (Chapter 1)

- Jonah flees from God’s call, a storm arises, and he is swallowed by a great fish. 2. Jonah’s Prayer (Chapter 2)

- From the belly of the fish, Jonah cries out to God, and the Lord delivers him. 3. Jonah’s Mission (Chapter 3)

- Jonah finally goes to Nineveh, preaches repentance, and the city turns to God. 4. Jonah’s Anger and God’s Mercy (Chapter 4)

- Jonah resents God’s compassion, and the Lord teaches him a lesson about mercy using a plant.

Major Themes

- God’s Sovereignty – He controls nature, nations, and even Jonah’s destiny.
- Repentance and Mercy – Nineveh’s repentance brings forgiveness, showing God’s readiness to extend grace.

- God’s Universal Love – His compassion extends beyond Israel to all people.
- Prophet’s Struggle – Jonah represents the hardness of heart that resists God’s mercy for others.
- Foreshadowing Christ – Jonah’s three days in the fish prefigure Jesus’ death and resurrection (Matthew 12:40).

Why Jonah Matters Today

Jonah challenges us to:

- Obey God’s call, even when it is difficult or uncomfortable.
- Remember that God’s love reaches the people we may consider undeserving.
- Recognize that true repentance brings transformation and mercy.
- See Christ in Jonah’s story—the greater Prophet who willingly went to the grave for our salvation and rose again.
- Live as people of grace, extending to others the same compassion God has shown us.

Key Verse

“And he prayed unto the Lord, and said, I pray thee, O Lord, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I fled before unto Tarshish: for I knew that thou art a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil.” – Jonah 4:2 This verse captures the heart of Jonah: God is merciful, slow to anger, and full of compassion—even when His people resist sharing that mercy.

Introduction to the Book of Micah

“But thou, Bethlehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Israel...” – Micah 5:2

Title and Meaning

The name Micah comes from the Hebrew Mîkhāyāhû, meaning “Who is like Yahweh?” The title reflects the prophet’s central message: no one compares to the Lord in justice, power, or mercy (Micah 7:18). Micah’s prophecy calls both Israel and Judah to account for their sins, while also pointing to God’s future deliverance through the promised Messiah.

Author and Date

Micah of Moresheth (a small town southwest of Jerusalem) prophesied during the reigns of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah of Judah (about 740–686 BC). He was a contemporary of Isaiah, Hosea, and Amos. His ministry spanned a turbulent time of idolatry, corruption, Assyrian invasions, and social injustice. The book was likely compiled near the end of his prophetic career in the late 8th century BC.

Purpose of Micah

The book of Micah was written to:

- Expose the sins of both Samaria (Israel) and Jerusalem (Judah).
- Warn of God’s coming judgment through foreign powers like Assyria and Babylon.
- Call God’s people to repent, act justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with Him.
- Proclaim the hope of restoration and the coming reign of the Messiah.

Structure of Micah

Micah alternates between judgment and hope, with three major cycles: 1. Judgment on Samaria and Jerusalem (Chapters 1–3)

- God’s coming judgment for idolatry, injustice, and corrupt leaders. 2. Hope and Restoration (Chapters 4–5)
- The promise of peace, the mountain of the Lord, and the prophecy of the Messiah’s birth in Bethlehem. 3. God’s Case Against Israel and Final Hope (Chapters 6–7)
- God’s lawsuit against His people.
- The famous call to live justly, love mercy, and walk humbly (6:8).
- Closing with God’s forgiveness and covenant faithfulness.

Major Themes

- God’s Judgment – Sin brings consequences; nations and leaders will be held accountable.
- Social Justice – God condemns oppression, exploitation, and corruption.

- Messianic Hope – The ruler from Bethlehem will shepherd God’s people in strength and bring peace.
- True Worship – God desires justice, mercy, and humility, not empty rituals.
- God’s Faithfulness – Despite judgment, He will restore His people and remain true to His covenant.

Why Micah Matters Today

Micah speaks powerfully to every generation:

- God still hates corruption, injustice, and hypocrisy.
- God calls His people to live lives of integrity and compassion.
- Micah’s prophecy of Bethlehem points directly to Jesus Christ, fulfilled in Matthew 2:5–6.
- God’s final word is not judgment, but mercy and restoration for those who repent.
- Micah reminds us that no one is like the Lord—He forgives sin, delights in mercy, and keeps His promises forever.

Key Verse

“He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?” – Micah 6:8 This verse sums up the heart of Micah’s message: true faith is lived out in justice, mercy, and humility before God.

Introduction to the Book of Nahum

“The Lord is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that trust in him.” – Nahum 1:7

Title and Meaning

The name Nahum comes from the Hebrew Nahûm, meaning “comfort” or “consolation.” The title reflects the book’s dual message: comfort for God’s people, Judah, who suffered under Assyrian oppression, and judgment for Nineveh, the cruel capital of Assyria. Nahum’s prophecy assures God’s people that He is just and will not let the wicked go unpunished.

Author and Date

Nahum is identified as “the Elkoshite” (Nahum 1:1), likely referring to his hometown of Elkosh, though its exact location remains uncertain. His prophetic ministry is dated to the 7th century BC, most likely between 663 BC (the fall of Thebes, mentioned in 3:8) and 612 BC (the fall of Nineveh, which his prophecy foretells). Nahum’s words came during Judah’s struggles under Assyrian dominance, bringing hope of eventual deliverance.

Purpose of Nahum

The book of Nahum was written to:

- Proclaim God’s judgment on Nineveh and the Assyrian Empire.
- Remind God’s people that He is sovereign over nations.
- Show that God’s justice will triumph over cruelty and oppression.
- Encourage Judah to trust in God’s goodness and strength.

Structure of Nahum

Nahum’s prophecy is structured like a divine courtroom and battle scene: 1. God the Avenger and Protector (Chapter 1)

- The character of God as just, powerful, and good.
- His judgment against Nineveh and His care for those who trust Him. 2. The Siege of Nineveh (Chapter 2)
- Vivid battle imagery describing the downfall of Nineveh. 3. The Reasons for Judgment (Chapter 3)
- A list of Nineveh’s sins: bloodshed, deceit, idolatry, and cruelty.
- The certainty of God’s judgment and the end of Assyria’s power.

Major Themes

- God’s Justice – The Lord will not let the guilty go unpunished.
- God’s Sovereignty – He rules over nations and determines their rise and fall.

- Comfort for God's People – While the wicked are judged, God is a refuge for those who trust Him.
- The Fall of Human Pride – Assyria, once mighty, is reduced to nothing under God's hand.

Why Nahum Matters Today

Nahum reminds us that:

- No nation, empire, or power is beyond God's reach.
- Oppressors and evildoers will face God's justice in His time.
- God's people can find comfort in His goodness and strength, even in times of trouble.
- Nahum points to the greater victory of Christ, who conquers sin, death, and all evil powers.

Key Verse

"The Lord is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked: the Lord hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet." – Nahum 1:3 This verse captures both the patience and power of God: He is merciful, yet He will surely bring justice upon the wicked.

Introduction to the Book of Habakkuk

“The just shall live by his faith.” – Habakkuk 2:4

Title and Meaning

The name Habakkuk comes from the Hebrew Ḥăḇḥaqqûq, which means “embrace” or “wrestler.” The name reflects the prophet’s role as one who wrestles with difficult questions about God’s justice, yet ultimately embraces faith in Him. Unlike other prophets who primarily spoke to the people, Habakkuk’s book records a dialogue between the prophet and God.

Author and Date

Habakkuk identifies himself simply as “the prophet” (Habakkuk 1:1). Little is known about his background, but his writing style shows poetic strength and deep theological reflection. His ministry likely took place in Judah during the late 7th century BC (around 612–605 BC), just before Babylon rose to power and threatened Judah. This places Habakkuk during a period of violence, injustice, and looming invasion.

Purpose of Habakkuk

The book of Habakkuk addresses the tension between God’s holiness and the presence of evil in the world. It was written to:

- Confront the problem of injustice and violence in Judah.
- Question why God allows the wicked to prosper.
- Announce God’s plan to use Babylon as an instrument of judgment.
- Affirm that ultimate hope rests in trusting God’s sovereignty.

Structure of Habakkuk

The book is structured as a conversation and a hymn: 1. Habakkuk’s Questions and God’s Answers (Chapters 1–2)

- Habakkuk’s first complaint: “Why does God allow violence in Judah?”
- God’s answer: “I will raise up the Babylonians.”
- Habakkuk’s second complaint: “How can You use a wicked nation to judge us?”
- God’s answer: “The just shall live by faith,” with five woes against Babylon. 2. Habakkuk’s Prayer of Faith (Chapter 3)

- A poetic prayer describing God’s past deliverance.
- A declaration of trust: “Though the fig tree shall not blossom... yet I will rejoice in the Lord.”

Major Themes

- Faith in God’s Sovereignty – God’s ways may be mysterious, but He is always just.

- The Problem of Evil – Habakkuk wrestles with why God allows injustice, but learns to trust His plan.
- The Righteous Shall Live by Faith – This principle becomes central in the New Testament (Romans 1:17; Galatians 3:11; Hebrews 10:38).
- God’s Judgment on Nations – Babylon will be judged just as they were used to judge Judah.
- Rejoicing in God Alone – Even in loss and devastation, true joy is found in the Lord.

Why Habakkuk Matters Today

Habakkuk speaks to the struggle believers face when life seems unfair:

- Why do the wicked prosper?
- Why does God seem silent in suffering?
- Can we trust Him when we don’t understand? The answer is found in faith: trusting God’s character and sovereignty. The book ultimately points us to Jesus Christ, in whom God’s justice and mercy meet.

Key Verse

“The just shall live by his faith.” – Habakkuk 2:4 This verse is the heartbeat of Habakkuk and a foundation for New Testament teaching on salvation by faith. It calls God’s people to trust Him fully, even when circumstances seem dark.

Introduction to the Book of Zephaniah

“The great day of the Lord is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly...” – Zephaniah 1:14

Title and Meaning

The name Zephaniah comes from the Hebrew Ṣephanyāh, meaning “Yahweh has hidden” or “Yahweh protects.” His name may reflect either God’s protection of the prophet in troubled times or the hidden purposes of God revealed through prophecy. The book of Zephaniah is a strong and sobering proclamation of judgment, yet it also offers hope of restoration for those who humble themselves before the Lord.

Author and Date

Zephaniah is introduced as the great-great-grandson of Hezekiah, suggesting he may have been of royal descent (Zephaniah 1:1). He prophesied during the reign of King Josiah of Judah (640–609 BC), likely before Josiah’s reforms around 622 BC. This places Zephaniah in the late 7th century BC, just decades before Babylon’s invasion. He ministered alongside prophets such as Jeremiah and Nahum.

Purpose of Zephaniah

The book was written to warn of God’s coming judgment and to call the people to repentance. Its purpose includes:

- Declaring the certainty of the “Day of the Lord,” a time of judgment on Judah, surrounding nations, and the whole earth.
- Exposing Judah’s sins of idolatry, violence, corruption, and complacency.
- Calling God’s people to seek humility and righteousness.
- Offering hope of restoration for a purified remnant.

Structure of Zephaniah

The book is brief yet powerful, with three chapters: 1. Judgment Against Judah and the Nations (Chapter 1–2:3)

- Judah is condemned for idolatry and corruption.
- A call to repentance is issued: “Seek the Lord, all you humble of the land.” 2. Judgment on the Nations (Chapter 2:4–15)
- God announces judgment on Philistia, Moab, Ammon, Cush, and Assyria. 3. Restoration and Joy for the Remnant (Chapter 3)
- Jerusalem’s rebellion is exposed, but God promises to purify the peoples.
- The faithful remnant will rejoice as the Lord dwells in their midst.

Major Themes

- The Day of the Lord – A central theme, described as a day of wrath, darkness, and destruction.
- Judgment and Justice – God judges both His people and the nations for sin and pride.
- Call to Repentance – Zephaniah urges the humble to seek the Lord before judgment falls.
- Hope and Restoration – God promises to save a remnant and to be present among His people with joy and singing.

Why Zephaniah Matters Today

Zephaniah warns us not to grow complacent in sin or presume upon God’s patience. His words remind us that:

- God’s justice is universal—no nation is beyond His reach.
- The “Day of the Lord” points forward to the final judgment and the return of Christ.
- True security is found not in wealth, power, or ritual, but in seeking the Lord in humility.
- God’s ultimate goal is not destruction but restoration, culminating in His joyful presence with His people (Zephaniah 3:17).

Key Verse

“The Lord thy God in the midst of thee is mighty; he will save, he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will rest in his love, he will joy over thee with singing.” – Zephaniah 3:17 This verse reveals the tender heart of God—He is both a mighty warrior who saves and a loving Father who delights in His people.

Introduction to the Book of Haggai

“Consider your ways.” – Haggai 1:5

Title and Meaning

The name Haggai comes from the Hebrew Haggay, meaning “festive” or “festival of Yahweh.” His name may reflect the hope of restored worship and celebration after the exile. The book of Haggai is short but powerful, containing urgent calls for the people to rebuild the temple and renew their devotion to the Lord.

Author and Date

Haggai is identified as a prophet who ministered in 520 BC, during the reign of Darius I of Persia. This was about 18 years after the first group of exiles returned from Babylon under Zerubbabel (around 538 BC). The rebuilding of the temple had stalled due to opposition and discouragement. Haggai’s ministry, alongside the prophet Zechariah, reignited the people’s commitment to complete the temple by 516 BC.

Purpose of Haggai

The book was written to stir up the people of Judah to finish rebuilding the temple, reminding them that God’s presence and blessing were tied to their obedience. Its purpose includes:

- Confronting the people’s misplaced priorities—living in paneled houses while God’s house lay in ruins.
- Encouraging them with God’s promise of provision and presence.
- Pointing forward to the greater glory of the temple in God’s redemptive plan, ultimately fulfilled in Christ.

Structure of Haggai

The book consists of four short prophetic messages delivered over just a few months in 520 BC:

1A Call to Rebuild the Temple (1:1–15)

- The people are urged to put God first and rebuild His house. 2A Promise of Glory (2:1–9)
- God promises that the glory of the new temple will surpass the former. 3Blessings for Obedience (2:10–19)
- God reminds them that holiness cannot be transferred, but sin can; obedience brings blessing. 4A Promise to Zerubbabel (2:20–23)

- God affirms Zerubbabel as His chosen servant, foreshadowing the coming Messiah.

Major Themes

- Put God First – Priorities must be centered on God and His work.
- The Temple as God’s Dwelling – Rebuilding the temple symbolized God’s presence with His people.

- Encouragement in Discouragement – God’s promises sustain His people when they face obstacles.
- Future Glory – The “latter glory” points to Christ, in whom God’s presence dwells fully.
- God’s Sovereignty – He controls history, nations, and leaders to accomplish His plan.

Why Haggai Matters Today

The message of Haggai remains relevant:

- We are called to examine our priorities—do we build our own kingdoms while neglecting God’s?
- God’s presence with His people is more important than outward appearances.
- Christ Himself is the fulfillment of Haggai’s prophecy—the true temple where God dwells among us (John 2:19–21).
- In times of discouragement, Haggai reminds us that obedience brings blessing and God’s glory will ultimately be revealed.

Key Verse

“The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the Lord of hosts: and in this place will I give peace, saith the Lord of hosts.” – Haggai 2:9 This verse looks beyond the second temple to the coming of Christ, who brings the true glory and peace of God’s presence.

The Lord’s Word to His People

The People’s Obedience

12 Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, Joshua son of Jehozadak the high priest, and the whole remnant of the people obeyed the voice of the Lord their God and the message of the prophet Haggai, because the Lord their God had sent him. And the people feared the Lord.

Introduction to the Book of Zechariah

“Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of hosts.” – Zechariah 4:6

Title and Meaning

The name Zechariah comes from the Hebrew Zekharyah, meaning “The Lord remembers.” This is a fitting title, as the book emphasizes God’s faithfulness to remember His covenant promises to His people, even after exile. Zechariah delivers both words of encouragement and visions of hope, pointing God’s people toward ultimate restoration and the coming of the Messiah.

Author and Date

Zechariah, the son of Berechiah and grandson of Iddo (Zechariah 1:1), was both a priest and a prophet. He began prophesying in 520 BC, the same year as Haggai, during the reign of Darius I of Persia. While Haggai focused on motivating the people to rebuild the temple, Zechariah offered visions and promises that showed God’s greater redemptive plan beyond the temple walls. His ministry likely extended for several years, perhaps into the late 5th century BC.

Purpose of Zechariah

The book of Zechariah was written to encourage the returned exiles to rebuild the temple and renew their covenant loyalty. Beyond that, it points forward to God’s coming kingdom and the Messiah. Its purposes include:

- Encouraging the people with visions of God’s protection and presence.
- Revealing that the temple pointed to a greater fulfillment in the Messiah.
- Teaching that God’s Spirit, not human power, would accomplish His purposes.
- Giving prophetic glimpses of Christ’s first coming in humility and His future reign in glory.

Structure of Zechariah

Zechariah is one of the most complex and prophetic books of the Old Testament, often divided into two main sections: 1. Visions and Encouragement (Chapters 1–8)

- Eight night visions (Chs. 1–6) encouraging the people with God’s plans for Jerusalem.
 - Exhortations to repent and live righteously (Ch. 7).
 - Promises of future blessing, restoration, and God’s presence (Ch. 8).
- 2. Prophecies of the Messiah and the End Times (Chapters 9–14)
- The coming of the humble King riding on a donkey (9:9).
 - The Shepherd struck and the sheep scattered (13:7).
 - The final triumph of the Lord and His reign over all the earth (Ch. 14).

Major Themes

- The Lord Remembers – God is faithful to His promises and His covenant people.

- The Power of the Spirit – God’s work is accomplished not by human strength but by His Spirit.
- The Coming Messiah – Prophecies of Christ’s first and second coming are woven throughout.
- Hope and Restoration – God restores His people, His city, and His temple.
- The Day of the Lord – Zechariah points forward to God’s final judgment and ultimate reign.

Why Zechariah Matters Today

Zechariah is one of the most Christ-centered books of the Old Testament, often quoted in the New Testament. It reminds us that:

- God remembers His people and His promises, even in discouraging times.
- The Messiah has come in humility (Jesus’ triumphal entry, Matthew 21:5) and will come again in glory.
- God’s kingdom will ultimately triumph, bringing peace and restoration to all who belong to Him.
- Believers today are called to live in hope, looking forward to Christ’s return.

Key Verse

“Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of hosts.” – Zechariah 4:6 This verse captures the heart of Zechariah’s message: God’s purposes are not achieved through human strength, but through His Spirit working in and through His people.

Introduction to the Book of Malachi

“For I am the Lord, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.” – Malachi 3:6

Title and Meaning

The name Malachi comes from the Hebrew Mal'ākhi, meaning “my messenger.” This is fitting, as the prophet was God’s messenger to His people, calling them to renewed faithfulness after their return from exile. Some scholars suggest Malachi might even be a title rather than a personal name, but tradition treats it as the name of the prophet. The book is the final word of prophecy in the Old Testament before the 400 years of silence leading up to John the Baptist.

Author and Date

Malachi ministered to the people of Judah likely around 430–420 BC, during the time of Nehemiah’s leadership. The temple had already been rebuilt (516 BC), but the people had grown careless in worship, unfaithful in marriage, and doubtful of God’s justice. Malachi’s words rebuked their complacency and pointed them toward the coming of the Messiah.

Purpose of Malachi

The book was written to confront spiritual apathy and to call God’s people to covenant faithfulness. Its purposes include:

- Rebuking priests for corrupt worship and dishonoring sacrifices.
- Confronting the people’s sins of divorce, idolatry, and injustice.
- Reminding Israel of God’s unchanging love and faithfulness.
- Pointing forward to the coming of God’s messenger (John the Baptist) and the Messiah (Jesus Christ).

Structure of Malachi

Malachi is arranged as a series of disputations (arguments between God and His people), where God makes a charge, the people question it, and God responds with proof: 1God’s Love and Israel’s Doubt (1:1–5) 2Corrupt Priests and Worthless Sacrifices (1:6–2:9) 3Faithlessness in Marriage and Covenant (2:10–16) 4Questioning God’s Justice (2:17–3:6) 5Robbing God in Tithes and Offerings (3:7–12) 6The Coming Day of the Lord (3:13–4:6)

Major Themes

- God’s Unchanging Love – Despite Israel’s unfaithfulness, God remains faithful.
- True Worship Matters – God rejects half-hearted sacrifices and demands reverence.
- Faithfulness in Relationships – Covenant loyalty includes honoring marriage.
- God’s Justice – He sees injustice and will act in His time.
- The Day of the Lord – Malachi points forward to judgment and ultimate restoration.

- The Coming Messenger – A prophecy of John the Baptist preparing the way for Christ.

Why Malachi Matters Today

Malachi's message speaks powerfully to believers now:

- God calls us away from spiritual apathy into wholehearted devotion.
- Worship must be sincere, not routine or careless.
- God's people are to reflect His faithfulness in their relationships and stewardship.
- Malachi bridges the Old and New Testaments, preparing the way for Jesus Christ.

Key Verse

“But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.” – Malachi 4:2 This verse points to the hope of the Messiah, who brings healing, righteousness, and joy to those who fear the Lord.

Key Lessons from Malachi 2

- God demands holiness from leaders – Priests were called to honor Him, preserve knowledge, and teach truth. Their corruption brought judgment.
- Faithfulness matters – God values loyalty in worship, covenant, and relationships. Breaking covenant with Him or with others invites His discipline.
- Marriage is sacred – God hates divorce and treachery in marriage because it distorts His covenant love.
- God sees through false worship – Tears and offerings mean nothing when hearts are unfaithful.
- Justice belongs to God – Questioning His justice or redefining evil as good wearies Him; we must trust His righteous timing.

- Tithing is worship – Giving is a way of trusting God’s provision; withholding robs Him of honor.
- God remembers the faithful – He listens to those who fear Him and records their faithfulness in His book of remembrance.

Key Lessons from Malachi 4

- The Day of the Lord will bring judgment – For the wicked, it will be consuming fire, leaving nothing behind.
- The faithful will rejoice – Those who honor God’s name will experience renewal, healing, and victory over evil.
- God calls His people back to His Word – Remembering the law of Moses shows that God’s truth is enduring and foundational.

Title and Meaning

The term New Testament comes from the Latin Novum Testamentum and the Greek Kainé Diathékē, meaning “New Covenant.” It refers to the covenant God made through the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, fulfilling the promises of the Old Testament. While the Old Testament centers on God’s covenant with Israel through the Law, the New Testament proclaims the new covenant of grace, sealed in Christ’s blood (Luke 22:20).

Author and Date

The New Testament contains 27 books, written between c. AD 45–95 by apostles and close followers of Jesus under divine inspiration. Authors include Matthew, Mark, Luke, John, Paul, Peter, James, and Jude. Though written in different contexts—Gospels, letters, history, and prophecy—together they present one unified testimony: Jesus is the promised Messiah and Savior of the world.

Purpose of the New Testament

The New Testament reveals the fulfillment of God's redemptive plan. Its purposes include:

- To proclaim Jesus Christ as the Son of God and Savior.
- To record the life, teachings, death, and resurrection of Jesus.
- To establish the foundation and mission of the church.
- To instruct believers in faith, doctrine, and holy living.
- To reveal the ultimate hope of Christ's return and eternal kingdom.

Structure of the New Testament

The New Testament is organized into four main sections: 1. The Gospels (Matthew–John) Four portraits of Jesus' life, ministry, death, and resurrection. 2. Acts of the Apostles (Acts) The history of the early church and the spread of the gospel through the power of the Holy Spirit. 3. The Epistles (Romans–Jude) Letters written by apostles to churches and individuals, teaching doctrine, encouragement, and correction.

- Pauline Epistles: Romans through Philemon.
- General Epistles: Hebrews through Jude. 4. The Revelation (Revelation) Prophecy given to John about Christ's ultimate victory, the final judgment, and the new heaven and new earth.

Major Themes

- Jesus Christ, the Messiah – The fulfillment of Old Testament prophecy and the center of salvation history.
- The Kingdom of God – God's reign breaking into history through Christ and His church.
- Salvation by Grace through Faith – The heart of the gospel message.
- The Holy Spirit – Empowering believers and guiding the church.
- The Church – God's new covenant people, called to live in holiness and mission.
- Hope of Christ's Return – The promise of resurrection, judgment, and eternal life.

Why the New Testament Matters Today

The New Testament is the heart of Christian faith. It:

- Proclaims the good news of salvation in Christ.
- Reveals God's grace and the power of the cross.
- Provides the foundation for Christian belief, worship, and practice.
- Offers encouragement for living faithfully in a broken world.
- Assures believers of eternal hope through Christ's return.

Key Verse

“For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.” – John 1:17 This verse captures the contrast and fulfillment: the New Covenant in Christ completes what the Old Covenant began, bringing grace, truth, and eternal life.

Introduction to the Book of Matthew

“The book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.” – Matthew 1:1

Title and Meaning

The Gospel according to Matthew is the first book of the New Testament. The title comes from its traditional author, the apostle Matthew, also called Levi, a former tax collector whom Jesus called to be His disciple (Matthew 9:9). The word Gospel means “good news,” and Matthew’s Gospel proclaims the good news that Jesus is the promised Messiah, the King of Israel, and Savior of the world.

Author and Date

Matthew, one of the twelve apostles, is widely held to be the author. Early church fathers such as Papias and Irenaeus affirmed his authorship. The Gospel was likely written between AD 60–70, though some scholars suggest an earlier or slightly later date. It was originally written in Greek, though some early traditions suggest Matthew may have also composed an early version in Hebrew or Aramaic.

Purpose of Matthew

Matthew writes to present Jesus as the long-awaited Messiah and King foretold in the Old Testament. His purpose includes:

- To show that Jesus fulfills the Messianic prophecies of the Old Testament.
- To proclaim the Kingdom of Heaven as central to Jesus’ teaching.
- To demonstrate Jesus’ authority through His miracles, parables, and resurrection.
- To provide instruction for the life and mission of the church.

Structure of Matthew

Matthew organizes his Gospel around major discourses of Jesus, woven into the narrative of His life:

1. The Birth and Early Life of Jesus (Chs. 1–2) Genealogy, birth, visit of the Magi, and the flight to Egypt. 2. The Preparation for Ministry (Chs. 3–4) John the Baptist, Jesus’ baptism, and His temptation. 3. The Teachings and Works of Jesus (Chs. 5–25) Includes five major teaching sections, often seen as a parallel to the five books of Moses:

- The Sermon on the Mount (Chs. 5–7)
- The Mission Discourse (Ch. 10)
- The Parables of the Kingdom (Ch. 13)
- The Community Discourse (Ch. 18)
- The Olivet Discourse (Chs. 24–25) 4. The Passion, Death, and Resurrection (Chs. 26–28) The betrayal, crucifixion, resurrection, and the Great Commission.

Major Themes

- Jesus as the Messiah-King – The fulfillment of Old Testament prophecy.
- The Kingdom of Heaven – God’s rule breaking into human history through Christ.
- Fulfillment of Scripture – Over 50 direct quotations from the Old Testament show Jesus as the promised one.
- Discipleship and Mission – Jesus calls His followers to live in righteousness and spread the gospel.
- Judgment and Hope – Warnings of judgment and the promise of eternal life through Christ.

Why Matthew Matters Today

Matthew connects the Old Testament with the New Testament, showing that Jesus is the fulfillment of God’s promises to Abraham and David. It reminds believers that Christ is both King and Savior, calling His people to live under His lordship and to proclaim His kingdom to all nations. The Great Commission (Matthew 28:19–20) continues to define the mission of the church today.

Key Verse

“Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet...” – Matthew 1:22 This verse captures Matthew’s emphasis: Jesus is the fulfillment of God’s Word and the hope of all generations.

Key Lessons from Matthew 7

- Judge yourself before others – Hypocrisy blinds us; humility clears our vision.
- Persistent prayer is rewarded – Ask, seek, and knock, for God is a generous Father.
- The Golden Rule – Treat others the way you want to be treated; this sums up God’s law.
- Few choose the narrow way – The path to life is hard and requires true faith and obedience.
- Fruit reveals character – True prophets and true believers are known by their actions, not just their words.
- Empty religion is dangerous – Saying “Lord, Lord” without obedience leads to rejection.
- Obedience is the foundation – Building on Jesus’ words is the only way to stand firm when storms come.

Key Lessons from Matthew 11

- Faith is tested in hardship – Even John the Baptist questioned Jesus, yet Christ confirmed His mission through works of power and mercy.
- John was great, yet Christ’s kingdom is greater – Spiritual inheritance in the kingdom surpasses even the highest human honor.
- This generation rejected both John and Jesus – Unbelief finds excuses whether God speaks through austerity or fellowship.
- Judgment falls on the unrepentant – Greater revelation brings greater responsibility; rejected light brings heavier judgment.
- God reveals truth to the humble – Spiritual understanding is given to the childlike, not the proud.
- Jesus offers true rest – In a world of burdens, only Christ gives peace for the soul through surrender to His gentle lordship.

4 As he scattered it, some fell along the path, and the birds came and ate it up.

Why Jesus Spoke in Parables

10 The disciples came and asked Him, “Why do You speak to the people in parables?”

Cross References: Mark 4:10; Luke 8:9; John 16:25

11 He replied, “Because the knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom of heaven has been given to you, but not to them.

12 Whoever has will be given more, and they will have abundance. Whoever does not have, even what they have will be taken from them.

14 In them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah:

‘You will be ever hearing but never understanding;

you will be ever seeing but never perceiving.

Cross References: Isaiah 6:9; John 12:40; Acts 28:26

15 For this people’s heart has grown hard;

they hardly hear with their ears,

hear with their ears,

understand with their hearts, and turn,

and I would heal them.’

Cross References: Isaiah 6:10; Acts 28:27; Romans 11:8

16 But blessed are your eyes because they see, and your ears because they hear.

20 The seed on rocky ground is the one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy.

21 But since they have no root, they last only a short time. When trouble or persecution comes because of the word, they quickly fall away.

Cross References: Mark 4:17; 2 Timothy 1:15; Hebrews 6:6

22 The seed among the thorns is the one who hears the word, but the worries of this life and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, making it unfruitful.

23 But the seed on good soil is the one who hears the word, understands it, and produces a harvest—yielding a hundred, sixty, or thirty times what was sown.”

30 Let both grow together until the harvest. At that time I will tell the harvesters: First collect the weeds and tie them in bundles to be burned; then gather the wheat into my barn.”

Cross References: Malachi 4:1; Revelation 14:15; Joel 3:13

- The kingdom starts small but grows great – Like a mustard seed or yeast, God’s kingdom spreads until it transforms everything.
- The kingdom is worth everything – Treasure and pearl parables show that following Christ is worth total surrender.

3 Jesus replied, “And why do you break the command of God for the sake of your tradition?”

4 For God said, ‘Honor your father and mother,’ and, ‘Anyone who curses their father or mother must be put to death.’

Cross References: Exodus 20:12; Exodus 21:17; Deuteronomy 5:16

5 But you say that if anyone declares what might have been used to help their father or mother is ‘devoted to God,’

Cross References: Mark 7:11; Mark 7:12; Leviticus 27:9

6 they are not to honor their father or mother with it. In this way you nullify the word of God for the sake of your tradition.

Cross References: Mark 7:13; Titus 1:16; 1 Timothy 5:8

7 You hypocrites! Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you:

Cross References: Mark 7:6; Matthew 23:13; Matthew 6:2

8 ‘These people honor Me with their lips, but their hearts are far from Me.

14 Leave them; they are blind guides. If the blind lead the blind, both will fall into a pit.”

18 But the things that come out of a person’s mouth come from the heart, and these defile them.

19 For out of the heart come evil thoughts—murder, adultery, sexual immorality, theft, false testimony, slander.

Key Lessons from Matthew 21

- Jesus enters as King – He fulfilled prophecy by riding humbly into Jerusalem as the promised Messiah.
- Worship belongs to Him – The crowds and even children praised Him, declaring His kingship.
- True fruit matters – The cursed fig tree represents fruitless faith; God calls for genuine fruit in our lives.
- Jesus' authority is divine – His power and mission came directly from the Father, not from men.
- Obedience proves faith – The parable of the two sons shows that actions matter more than empty words.
- Rejecting God's Son brings judgment – The parable of the tenants warns that those who reject Christ will face destruction, but God's kingdom will advance through others who believe.

Key Lessons from Matthew 26

Jesus faced betrayal and suffering with submission to the Father’s will.

True worship costs something, as seen in the woman’s anointing.

The Lord’s Supper reminds us of Christ’s body and blood given for us.

Prayer is the believer’s strength against temptation.

Even when His followers failed, Jesus remained faithful to God’s plan of salvation.

Introduction to the Book of Mark

“The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.” – Mark 1:1

Title and Meaning

The Gospel according to Mark takes its name from its traditional author, John Mark, a companion of Peter and Paul. The word Gospel means “good news,” and Mark’s Gospel emphasizes the good news of Jesus Christ through His actions more than His long teachings. It presents Jesus as the Suffering Servant and the Son of God, who came not to be served but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many (Mark 10:45).

Author and Date

Early church tradition credits John Mark as the author, closely connected to Peter, whose eyewitness testimony likely shaped the narrative. Papias (AD 120) records that Mark served as Peter’s interpreter and wrote down what he remembered. The Gospel was probably written around AD 55–65, possibly in Rome, for a primarily Gentile (likely Roman) audience.

Purpose of Mark

Mark’s Gospel is urgent, action-driven, and focused on Jesus’ deeds. His purpose includes:

- To present Jesus as the powerful Son of God who came to serve and save.
- To highlight discipleship—following Jesus even through suffering.
- To encourage persecuted believers, especially in Rome, by showing Christ’s authority and sacrifice.
- To reveal the true identity of Jesus as the Messiah, often hidden at first, then fully revealed at the cross.

Structure of Mark

Mark’s Gospel moves quickly, often using the word “immediately.” It can be outlined in two main halves: 1. The Ministry of Jesus in Galilee (Chs. 1–8)

- Jesus’ authority demonstrated through miracles, healings, and teaching.
 - Growing crowds, but also growing opposition.
 - The question of His identity builds: “Who is this?” (Mark 4:41).
- 2. The Journey to the Cross (Chs. 9–16)
- Jesus teaches about His coming suffering, death, and resurrection.
 - The disciples struggle with understanding His mission.
 - The climax: the cross and the empty tomb.

Major Themes

- Jesus the Servant-King – He came to serve, heal, and ultimately give His life.

- The Power of Christ – Shown in miracles over nature, demons, disease, and death.
- Discipleship and the Cross – To follow Jesus means taking up one's cross (Mark 8:34).
- The Messianic Secret – Jesus often told people not to reveal His miracles or identity until the right time.
- Faith vs. Fear – A recurring contrast in how people respond to Jesus.

Why Mark Matters Today

Mark reminds us that the gospel is not just about words, but about the power of God revealed in Jesus Christ. In a fast-paced, suffering world, Mark gives believers confidence that Jesus is both powerful and compassionate, and that following Him requires courage and endurance. His closing words about the resurrection assure us of Christ's ultimate victory.

Key Verse

“For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.” – Mark 10:45 This verse summarizes the heart of Mark's Gospel: Jesus is the Servant-King who gave His life to save us.

Jesus Heals a Paralyzed Man

1 A few days later, when Jesus returned to Capernaum, the news spread that He was back home.

Cross References: Matthew 9:1; Luke 5:17; Matthew 4:13

2 Soon the house was so crowded that there was no room left, not even outside the door. Jesus preached the word to them.

3 Then four men came, carrying a paralyzed man on a mat.

Cross References: Matthew 9:2; Luke 5:18; John 5:5

4 Since they couldn’t get to Jesus because of the crowd, they made an opening in the roof above Him. After digging through, they lowered the mat with the man lying on it.

Cross References: Luke 5:19; Matthew 9:2; Ecclesiastes 11:6

5 When Jesus saw their faith, He said to the paralyzed man, “Son, your sins are forgiven.”

Cross References: Matthew 9:2; Luke 5:20; Luke 7:48

6 But some of the scribes sitting there thought to themselves,

Cross References: Matthew 9:3; Luke 5:21; Luke 5:22

7 “Why does this man talk like that? He is blaspheming! Who can forgive sins but God alone?”

Cross References: Matthew 9:3; Luke 5:21; Isaiah 43:25

8 Immediately Jesus knew in His spirit what they were thinking and said to them, “Why are you reasoning these things in your hearts?”

Cross References: Matthew 9:4; Luke 5:22; John 2:25

9 Which is easier: to say to this paralyzed man, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Get up, take your mat, and walk’?

Cross References: Matthew 9:5; Luke 5:23; John 5:8

10 But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins”—He said to the paralyzed man—

11 “I say to you, get up, take your mat, and go home.”

Cross References: Matthew 9:6; Luke 5:24; John 5:8

12 Immediately the man got up, took his mat, and walked out in full view of them all. Everyone was amazed and praised God, saying, “We have never seen anything like this!”

16 When the teachers of the law who were Pharisees saw Him eating with sinners and tax collectors, they asked His disciples, “Why does He eat with tax collectors and sinners?”

Cross References: Matthew 9:11; Luke 5:30; Luke 15:2

17 When Jesus heard this, He said to them, “It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick. I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners.”

Cross References: Matthew 9:12; Luke 5:31; 1 Timothy 1:15

A Question About Fasting

18 Now John’s disciples and the Pharisees were fasting. Some people came and asked Jesus, “Why don’t Your disciples fast like John’s disciples and the Pharisees do?”

Cross References: Matthew 9:14; Luke 5:33; Luke 18:12

19 Jesus answered, “Can the wedding guests fast while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.

20 But the time will come when the bridegroom will be taken from them, and on that day they will fast.”

22 And no one pours new wine into old wineskins. If he does, the wine will burst the skins, and both the wine and the skins will be ruined. No, new wine must be poured into new wineskins.”

Mark 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Parables of the Kingdom and the Power of Faith”

The Parable of the Sower

1 Jesus began to teach again by the lakeshore. A huge crowd gathered, so He got into a boat and sat in it on the water, while the people stood along the shore.

Cross References: Matthew 13:1; Matthew 13:2; Luke 8:4

2 He taught them many things using parables. He said:

Cross References: Matthew 13:3; Luke 8:4; Psalms 78:2

3 “Listen! A farmer went out to plant seed.

Cross References: Matthew 13:3; Luke 8:5; Isaiah 55:10

4 As he scattered it, some fell along the path, and birds came and ate it.

Cross References: Matthew 13:4; Luke 8:5; Matthew 13:19

5 Some fell on rocky ground where there wasn’t much soil. It sprang up quickly, because the soil was shallow,

Cross References: Matthew 13:5; Luke 8:6; Matthew 13:20

6 but when the sun came up, the plants were scorched, and since they had no root, they withered away.

Cross References: Matthew 13:6; Luke 8:6; James 1:11

7 Some fell among thorns, which grew up and choked the plants, so they produced no grain.

Cross References: Matthew 13:7; Luke 8:7; Jeremiah 4:3

8 But some fell on good soil. It grew, increased, and produced a harvest—some thirty, some sixty, and some a hundred times what was planted.”

Cross References: Matthew 13:8; Luke 8:8; Genesis 26:12

9 Then Jesus said, “Anyone who has ears to hear, let them hear!”

Cross References: Matthew 13:9; Luke 8:8; Revelation 2:7

The Purpose of Parables

10 When Jesus was alone, the twelve disciples and others around Him asked about the parables.

Cross References: Matthew 13:10; Luke 8:9; Matthew 13:36

11 He said, “To you has been given the secret of the kingdom of God, but to those on the outside, everything is spoken in parables,

Cross References: Matthew 13:11; Luke 8:10; 1 Corinthians 2:7

12 so that, ‘they may see but not perceive, and hear but not understand; otherwise they might turn and be forgiven.’”

Cross References: Isaiah 6:9; Matthew 13:14; John 12:40

The Meaning of the Sower

13 Jesus said to them, “Don’t you understand this parable? Then how will you understand any parable?

Cross References: Matthew 13:18; Luke 8:11; Mark 7:18

14 The farmer sows the word.

Cross References: Matthew 13:19; Luke 8:11; 1 Peter 1:23

15 Some people are like seed along the path, where the word is sown. As soon as they hear it, Satan comes and takes away the word that was planted in them.

Cross References: Matthew 13:19; Luke 8:12; 2 Corinthians 4:4

16 Others are like seed sown on rocky ground. They hear the word and immediately receive it with joy.

Cross References: Matthew 13:20; Luke 8:13; John 5:35

17 But since they have no root, they last only a short time. When trouble or persecution comes because of the word, they quickly fall away.

Cross References: Matthew 13:21; Luke 8:13; Matthew 24:10

18 Still others are like seed among thorns. They hear the word,

Cross References: Matthew 13:22; Luke 8:14; 1 Timothy 6:9

19 but the worries of this life, the deceitfulness of riches, and desires for other things choke the word, making it unfruitful.

Cross References: Matthew 13:22; Luke 8:14; 1 Timothy 6:10

20 But those who are like seed sown on good soil hear the word, accept it, and produce a crop—thirty, sixty, or a hundredfold.”

Cross References: Matthew 13:23; Luke 8:15; James 1:22

The Lamp and the Measure

21 Jesus continued, “Do you bring a lamp to put it under a basket or under a bed? No! You put it on a stand.

Cross References: Matthew 5:15; Luke 8:16; Luke 11:33

22 For nothing is hidden except to be revealed, and nothing concealed except to be brought into the open.

Cross References: Matthew 10:26; Luke 8:17; Luke 12:2

23 If anyone has ears to hear, let them hear.”

Cross References: Matthew 11:15; Luke 8:8; Revelation 3:22

24 He also said, “Pay attention to what you hear. With the measure you use, it will be measured to you—and even more.

Cross References: Matthew 7:2; Luke 6:38; 2 Corinthians 9:6

25 Whoever has will be given more; whoever does not have, even what they have will be taken away.”

Cross References: Matthew 13:12; Matthew 25:29; Luke 8:18

The Growing Seed

26 Jesus said, “The kingdom of God is like a man who scatters seed on the ground.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 3:6; 1 Corinthians 3:7; Isaiah 55:10

27 Night and day, whether he sleeps or gets up, the seed sprouts and grows, though he doesn’t know how.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 11:5; John 3:8; 1 Corinthians 3:7

28 The soil produces grain by itself—first the stalk, then the head, then the full grain in the head.

Cross References: Genesis 1:12; James 5:7; Isaiah 55:10

29 As soon as the grain is ripe, he puts in the sickle, because the harvest has come.”

Cross References: Joel 3:13; Revelation 14:15; Matthew 13:39

The Mustard Seed

30 Again He said, “What is the kingdom of God like? What parable shall we use to describe it?

Cross References: Matthew 13:31; Luke 13:18; Matthew 13:24

31 It is like a mustard seed, which is the smallest of all seeds when planted in the ground.

Cross References: Matthew 13:31; Luke 13:19; Matthew 17:20

32 Yet when it grows, it becomes the largest of garden plants, with such large branches that the birds of the air can nest in its shade.”

Cross References: Matthew 13:32; Ezekiel 17:23; Daniel 4:12

Jesus Calms the Storm

33 Jesus taught the word with many parables like these, as much as the people could understand.

Cross References: Matthew 13:34; John 16:12; Psalms 78:2

34 He did not speak to them without using a parable, but when alone with His disciples, He explained everything.

Cross References: Matthew 13:34; Matthew 13:35; John 16:25

35 That evening He said to His disciples, “Let’s go over to the other side of the lake.”

Cross References: Matthew 8:18; Matthew 8:23; Luke 8:22

36 Leaving the crowd behind, they took Him along in the boat, just as He was. Other boats were with Him too.

41 They were terrified and asked each other, “Who is this? Even the wind and the waves obey Him!”

Cross References: Matthew 13:54; Luke 4:22; John 7:15

4 But Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his own town, among his relatives, and in his own household.”

21 Finally the opportune time came. On his birthday, Herod gave a banquet for his high officials and military commanders and the leading men of Galilee.

“Tradition, Faith, and Healing”

Confrontation with the Pharisees

1 The Pharisees and some of the scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered around Jesus.

Cross References: Matthew 15:1; Luke 11:53; John 1:19

2 They saw some of His disciples eating bread with “unclean” (that is, unwashed) hands, and they found fault.

Cross References: Matthew 15:2; Luke 11:38; Romans 14:14

3 (The Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they wash their hands in a special way, holding to the tradition of the elders.

Cross References: Matthew 15:2; Colossians 2:8; Galatians 1:14

4 When they come from the marketplace, they do not eat unless they wash. They also hold many other traditions, such as the washing of cups, pitchers, kettles, and dining couches.)

Cross References: Matthew 23:25; Leviticus 11:32; Hebrews 9:10

5 The Pharisees and scribes asked Him, “Why don’t Your disciples walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashed hands?”

Cross References: Matthew 15:2; Mark 2:16; Luke 11:38

6 Jesus replied, “Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you hypocrites, as it is written: ‘This people honors Me with their lips, but their hearts are far from Me.

Cross References: Isaiah 29:13; Matthew 15:8; Titus 1:16

7 In vain they worship Me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.’

8 You set aside the command of God to hold on to human tradition—such as washing cups and pitchers—and you do many other similar things.”

Cross References: Matthew 15:3; Colossians 2:8; Isaiah 29:13

9 And He continued, “You skillfully reject the commandment of God to keep your own tradition.

Cross References: Matthew 15:3; Matthew 15:6; Mark 7:13

10 For Moses said, ‘Honor your father and mother,’ and, ‘Whoever curses father or mother must be put to death.’

11 But you say, ‘If a man declares something Corban (that is, dedicated to God), he no longer has to help his father or mother.’

12 In this way you no longer let him do anything for his parents.

13 Thus you nullify the word of God by your tradition that you have handed down. And you do many things like that.”

16 If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear.”

Cross References: Mark 4:9; Matthew 11:15; Revelation 2:7

17 After He had left the crowd and entered the house, His disciples asked Him about this parable.

18 He said to them, “Are you still without understanding? Don’t you realize that nothing entering a person from the outside can defile him?

19 It doesn’t go into the heart but into the stomach, and then out of the body.” (In saying this, Jesus declared all foods clean.)

20 He continued, “What comes out of a person is what defiles him.

21 For from within, out of the heart of man, come evil thoughts: sexual immorality, theft, murder,

22 adultery, greed, wickedness, deceit, lewdness, envy, slander, arrogance, and foolishness.

27 He told her, “First let the children be fed, for it isn’t right to take the children’s bread and throw it to the dogs.”

28 She replied, “Yes, Lord, but even the dogs under the table eat the crumbs the children drop.”

34 Looking up to heaven, He sighed deeply and said, “Ephphatha!” (which means, “Be opened!”).

35 At once the man’s ears were opened, his tongue was loosened, and he began to speak plainly.

The Authority of Jesus Questioned

27 They returned once again to Jerusalem, and while Jesus was walking in the temple courts, the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders came to Him.

Cross References: Matthew 21:23; Luke 20:1; Acts 4:7

28 They asked, “By what authority are You doing these things? Who gave You this authority?”

29 Jesus replied, “I will ask you one question. Answer Me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

30 John’s baptism—was it from heaven, or from men? Answer Me!”

31 They discussed it among themselves and said, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will ask, ‘Why didn’t you believe him?’

32 But if we say, ‘From men’...” they feared the people, for everyone held that John truly was a prophet.

33 So they answered Jesus, “We do not know.”

Jesus replied, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.”

“The Parable of the Vineyard, The Greatest Commandment, and the Widow’s Offering”

The Parable of the Wicked Tenants

1 Jesus began to teach the people with parables: “A man planted a vineyard. He put a fence around it, dug a pit for the winepress, and built a watchtower. Then he rented the vineyard to some farmers and went away on a journey.

Cross References: Isaiah 5:2; Matthew 21:33; Luke 20:9

2 At harvest time he sent a servant to collect his share of the fruit.

Cross References: Matthew 21:34; Luke 20:10; 2 Chronicles 36:15

3 But the tenants seized him, beat him, and sent him away empty-handed.

Cross References: Matthew 21:35; Luke 20:10; 2 Chronicles 36:16

4 He sent another servant; they struck him on the head and treated him shamefully.

Cross References: Matthew 21:36; Luke 20:11; Jeremiah 20:2

5 He sent still another, and they killed him. He sent many others; some they beat, others they killed.

Cross References: Matthew 21:36; Luke 20:12; Matthew 23:37

6 Finally, he had one left to send—his beloved son. He sent him last of all, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’

Cross References: Matthew 21:37; Luke 20:13; Hebrews 1:2

7 But the tenants said to one another, ‘This is the heir. Come, let’s kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.’

Cross References: Matthew 21:38; Luke 20:14; Genesis 37:20

8 So they seized him, killed him, and threw him out of the vineyard.

Cross References: Matthew 21:39; Luke 20:15; Hebrews 13:12

9 What will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come, destroy those tenants, and give the vineyard to others.

Cross References: Matthew 21:41; Luke 20:16; Romans 11:11

10 Haven’t you read this Scripture: “The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone;

Cross References: Psalm 118:22; Matthew 21:42; Acts 4:11

11 the Lord has done this, and it is marvelous in our eyes”?

Cross References: Psalm 118:23; Matthew 21:42; 1 Peter 2:7

12 The religious leaders knew Jesus was speaking this parable against them. They wanted to arrest Him but were afraid of the crowd, so they left Him and went away.

Cross References: Matthew 21:46; Luke 20:19; John 7:30

Taxes to Caesar

13 Later they sent some Pharisees and Herodians to trap Him with His words.

Cross References: Matthew 22:16; Luke 20:20; Mark 3:6

14 They came and said, “Teacher, we know You are a man of integrity. You aren’t swayed by others and teach the way of God truthfully. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar or not? Should we pay or shouldn’t we?”

Cross References: Matthew 22:17; Luke 20:22; Romans 13:7

15 But Jesus knew their hypocrisy. He asked, “Why are you trying to trap Me? Bring Me a denarius and let Me look at it.”

Cross References: Matthew 22:19; Luke 20:24; Matthew 22:18

16 They brought the coin, and He asked, “Whose image is this? And whose inscription?” They replied, “Caesar’s.”

Cross References: Matthew 22:20; Luke 20:24; Genesis 1:27

17 Then Jesus said to them, “Give back to Caesar what is Caesar’s, and to God what is God’s.” And they were amazed at Him.

The Sadducees and the Resurrection

18 Then the Sadducees, who deny there is a resurrection, came to Him with a question:

Cross References: Matthew 22:23; Luke 20:27; Acts 23:8

19 “Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man’s brother dies and leaves a wife but no children, the man must marry the widow to raise up offspring for his brother.

21 The second married her but also died without children. The same happened with the third.

22 In fact, none of the seven left any children. Last of all, the woman died too.

23 At the resurrection, whose wife will she be, since all seven were married to her?”

Cross References: Matthew 22:28; Luke 20:33; 1 Corinthians 15:12

24 Jesus replied, “Are you not in error because you do not know the Scriptures or the power of God?”

Cross References: Matthew 22:29; Luke 24:25; John 5:39

25 When the dead rise, they will neither marry nor be given in marriage; they will be like the angels in heaven.

Cross References: Matthew 22:30; Luke 20:36; 1 Corinthians 15:42

26 And about the resurrection of the dead—have you not read in the book of Moses, in the account of the burning bush, how God said to him, ‘I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob’?

Cross References: Exodus 3:6; Matthew 22:32; Luke 20:37

27 He is not the God of the dead but of the living. You are badly mistaken!”

The Greatest Commandment

28 One of the scribes came and asked Him, “Of all the commandments, which is the most important?”

29 Jesus replied, “The most important one is this: Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one.

30 Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.’

31 The second is this: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’ There is no commandment greater than these.”

Cross References: Leviticus 19:18; Matthew 22:39; Romans 13:9

32 The scribe said to Him, “Well said, Teacher. You are right in saying God is one and there is no other but Him.

33 To love Him with all your heart, understanding, soul, and strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself is more important than all burnt offerings and sacrifices.”

34 When Jesus saw that he had answered wisely, He said, “You are not far from the kingdom of God.” From then on, no one dared ask Him any more questions.

Cross References: Matthew 22:46; Luke 20:40; Acts 26:28

David's Lord

37 David himself calls Him ‘Lord.’ How then can He be his son?” The large crowd listened to Him with delight.

Cross References: Matthew 22:45; Luke 20:44; Revelation 22:16

Warning Against the Scribes

38 As He taught, Jesus said, “Beware of the scribes. They like to walk around in flowing robes and receive greetings in the marketplaces,

Cross References: Matthew 23:6; Luke 20:46; Matthew 6:5

39 they love the most important seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at banquets.

Cross References: Matthew 23:6; Luke 20:46; Luke 14:7

40 They devour widows’ houses and for a show make lengthy prayers. These men will be punished most severely.”

42 But a poor widow came and put in two very small copper coins, worth only a fraction of a penny.

Cross References: Luke 21:2; 2 Kings 4:2; 1 Kings 17:12

43 Calling His disciples to Him, Jesus said, “Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put more into the treasury than all the others.

Cross References: Luke 21:3; 2 Corinthians 8:12; 2 Corinthians 9:7

44 They all gave out of their wealth; but she, out of her poverty, gave everything—all she had to live on.”

Cross References: Luke 21:4; 2 Corinthians 8:2; 1 Kings 17:13

Key Lessons from Mark 12

- God's Son is the heir: The parable of the tenants points directly to Jesus, rejected yet exalted.
- We owe ultimate loyalty to God: Earthly duties exist, but God's claim is greater.
- God of the living: The resurrection is real, for God rules over life, not death.
- The greatest commandments: Love God fully and love others selflessly.
- True giving: God values sacrifice from the heart, not the amount given.
- Beware of hypocrisy: Outward religion without love and humility brings judgment.

- Persecution is part of the mission: Followers of Jesus will face trials, but the Spirit will speak through them.
- The gospel must go global: Before the end, the message of Christ will reach all nations.
- The tribulation will be severe: Yet God shortens the days for the sake of His chosen ones.
- Christ's return will be unmistakable: Unlike false prophets, His coming will be cosmic, glorious, and visible to all.
- Always be watchful: Since no one knows the exact hour, every believer must live ready for His return.

Introduction to the Book of Luke

“For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.” – Luke 19:10

Title and Meaning

The Gospel according to Luke is named after its author, Luke the physician (Colossians 4:14), a Gentile and close companion of the apostle Paul. Luke is the only non-Jewish writer of the New Testament. His Gospel, along with the book of Acts, forms a two-volume work dedicated to Theophilus, explaining the certainty of the Christian faith (Luke 1:1–4). Luke’s Gospel emphasizes Jesus as the Son of Man, highlighting His compassion for the poor, the outcast, and all nations.

Author and Date

Luke, the beloved physician and historian, is universally regarded as the author. His attention to detail, historical accuracy, and medical terminology support this. The Gospel was likely written around AD 60–62, before the destruction of Jerusalem (AD 70), and possibly during Paul’s imprisonment in Rome.

Purpose of Luke

Luke writes an orderly, researched account of Jesus’ life and ministry. His purpose includes:

- To give believers certainty about the truth of Jesus Christ (Luke 1:4).
- To present Jesus as the Savior for all people—Jews and Gentiles alike.
- To highlight Jesus’ compassion for the marginalized: women, children, the poor, lepers, tax collectors, and sinners.
- To show the work of the Holy Spirit and the role of prayer in Jesus’ ministry.

Structure of Luke

Luke’s Gospel is the longest and contains unique material not found in the other Gospels, including many parables. It can be divided into three main sections: 1. The Birth and Early Life of Jesus (Chs. 1–2) The miraculous births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the shepherds’ visit, and the boy Jesus in the temple. 2. The Ministry of Jesus (Chs. 3–19)

- Jesus’ baptism, genealogy, and temptation.
- His Galilean ministry filled with teaching, parables, and miracles.
- The “travel narrative” (Chs. 9–19) where Jesus sets His face toward Jerusalem, teaching in parables like the Good Samaritan, the Prodigal Son, and the Rich Man and Lazarus. 3. The Passion, Death, and Resurrection (Chs. 20–24)
- Jesus’ arrest, trial, and crucifixion.
- His resurrection and ascension into heaven.

Major Themes

- Jesus the Son of Man – Fully human and fully divine, identifying with humanity.
- Salvation for All – The gospel extends to Jews, Gentiles, rich, poor, and outcasts.
- Compassion and Mercy – Jesus cares for sinners, the poor, the oppressed, and the marginalized.
- Prayer and the Holy Spirit – Luke emphasizes prayer and the Spirit’s guidance in Christ’s mission.
- Joy and Praise – From the birth narratives to the resurrection, Luke highlights joy in God’s salvation.

Why Luke Matters Today

Luke shows us a Savior who came for all people, regardless of status or background. His Gospel reminds us that God’s kingdom welcomes the broken, the poor, and the outsider. Luke also emphasizes discipleship as a life of prayer, dependence on the Spirit, and compassionate service. His account inspires believers to live out Christ’s mission with humility and love.

Key Verse

“For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.” – Luke 19:10 This verse captures the heart of Luke’s Gospel: Jesus Christ, the Son of Man, came with compassion and power to rescue sinners and bring salvation to all.

Key Lessons from Luke 1

- God keeps His promises—even when they seem impossible, as with Elizabeth and Mary.
- Prayer is heard by God in His timing, not ours.
- Nothing is impossible with God—He is able to do what humanly cannot be done.
- Faith and obedience open the door to blessing; unbelief brings silence, as seen in Zechariah.
- True greatness comes from being a servant of the Lord, not from worldly position.
- Jesus is the eternal King, the promised Son of David, whose kingdom will never end.
- God lifts the humble, fills the hungry, and brings mercy to those who fear Him.

Key Lessons from Luke 2

- God works through ordinary people and simple places—Jesus, the Savior, was born in a manger.
- The good news of Jesus is for all people, not just a few.
- True worship begins with receiving God’s gift and giving Him glory, as the shepherds did.
- Jesus came as the fulfillment of prophecy, the light for the Gentiles and glory for Israel.
- God’s timing is perfect—Simeon and Anna show the power of patient faith.
- Jesus was fully human, growing in wisdom and strength, yet always about His Father’s business.
- God calls us to treasure His works and words in our hearts, just as Mary did.

Key Lessons from Luke 3

- Repentance must be genuine, producing fruit in how we live.
- Religious heritage cannot replace a true, personal relationship with God.

- Justice, honesty, and compassion are central to godly living.
- John prepared the way but pointed people to Jesus, the greater One who baptizes with the Spirit and fire.
- Jesus' baptism reveals His identity as God's Son, filled with the Spirit and approved by the Father.
- The genealogy shows that Jesus is both fully human, tracing back to Adam, and fully divine, the Son of God.

- Jesus' mission is Spirit-anointed: to bring good news, freedom, healing, and restoration.
- True prophets are often rejected by their own people.
- Jesus has authority over sickness and demons, proving He is the Son of God.
- The kingdom of God must be proclaimed everywhere, not just in one place.

- True discipleship is measured not by words but by obedience and fruit.
- Spiritual blindness is dangerous—we must examine ourselves before correcting others.

Key Lessons from Luke 7

- True faith trusts in Jesus’ authority without needing signs (the centurion).
- Jesus has compassion that brings life where there is death (the widow’s son).
- John the Baptist prepared the way faithfully, but the least in God’s kingdom has even greater privileges through Christ.
- Religious people may judge outwardly, but Jesus looks at the heart.
- Forgiveness produces love—those who grasp the depth of their forgiveness love Jesus deeply.

- The sign of Jonah warns of judgment but also points to Christ’s resurrection.
- Our spiritual vision must remain clear, filling us with light, not darkness.
- Religious hypocrisy that focuses on appearances while neglecting justice and love will face God’s judgment.

“Warnings, Watchfulness, and the Cost of Discipleship”

Key Lessons from Luke 12

- Hypocrisy is dangerous; God will reveal all hidden things.
- Fear God, not people; He values His children and knows them intimately.
- Confessing Christ openly leads to His acknowledgment before heaven.
- Greed and covetousness destroy the soul; life's worth is not found in possessions.
- Faith means trusting God's care rather than worrying about material needs.
- Watchfulness is vital: the Lord will return at an unexpected hour.
- Accountability is greater for those who know God's will—privilege brings responsibility.
- Christ's mission brings division as well as peace; loyalty to Him can divide households.
- Discerning the times and reconciling quickly are marks of wisdom.

3 I tell you, no! But unless you repent, you too will all perish.

34 "Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets and stone those sent to you, how often I have longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you were not willing.

Cross References: Matthew 23:37; 2 Chronicles 24:21; Psalm 91:4

35 Look, your house is left to you desolate. I tell you, you will not see Me again until you say, 'Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.'"

Cross References: Matthew 23:38; Matthew 23:39; Psalm 118:26

Key Lessons from Luke 13

- Tragedy is not always tied to personal sin, but repentance is essential for all.
- God is patient, but fruitlessness cannot last forever; judgment follows unrepentance.
- Compassion is greater than rigid tradition; the Sabbath was made for freedom.
- The kingdom of God starts small but grows with unstoppable influence.
- Entering God's kingdom requires striving through the narrow door—faith and obedience, not mere association.
- Salvation is global: people will come from every direction to the kingdom.
- Rejection of Christ brings desolation; but ultimately, Israel will one day recognize Him.

8 “When someone invites you to a wedding feast, do not take the place of honor, for a person more distinguished than you may have been invited.

24 I tell you, not one of those who were invited will get a taste of my banquet.”

The Cost of Discipleship

25 Large crowds were traveling with Jesus, and turning to them He said:

Cross References: Matthew 8:1; Mark 10:1; Luke 9:57

26 “If anyone comes to Me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters —yes, even their own life—such a person cannot be My disciple.

27 And whoever does not carry their cross and follow Me cannot be My disciple.

Cross References: Matthew 16:24; Mark 8:34; Luke 9:23

28 Suppose one of you wants to build a tower. Won’t you first sit down and estimate the cost to see if you have enough money to complete it?

Cross References: Proverbs 24:27; Proverbs 21:5; Proverbs 20:18

29 For if you lay the foundation and are not able to finish it, everyone who sees it will ridicule you,

30 saying, ‘This person began to build and wasn’t able to finish.’

Cross References: Genesis 11:8; Nehemiah 4:3; 1 Corinthians 3:10

32 If he is not able, he will send a delegation while the other is still a long way off and will ask for terms of peace.

33 In the same way, those of you who do not give up everything you have cannot be My disciples.”

Cross References: Luke 18:22; Matthew 19:21; Philippians 3:8

Salt Without Flavor

34 “Salt is good, but if it loses its saltiness, how can it be made salty again?

Cross References: Matthew 5:13; Mark 9:50; Colossians 4:6

35 It is fit neither for the soil nor for the manure pile; it is thrown out. Whoever has ears to hear, let them hear.”

Key Lessons from Luke 14

- True rest is found in compassion, not rigid rules; Jesus brings healing even on the Sabbath.
- Humility leads to honor; pride leads to shame.
- God’s invitation to the kingdom is for all, especially the outcasts; excuses bring exclusion.
- Following Jesus requires total surrender—discipleship is costly.

- A life without commitment to Christ is like salt without flavor—useless and discarded.

Cross References: Matthew 13:3; Mark 4:2; Psalm 78:2

6 and goes home. Then he calls his friends and neighbors together and says, ‘Rejoice with me; I have found my lost sheep.’

Cross References: Matthew 18:13; 1 Peter 2:25; Luke 15:9

32 But we had to celebrate and be glad, because this brother of yours was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.’”

Key Lessons from Luke 15

- Heaven rejoices over one sinner who repents more than over many who think they need no repentance.

- God searches for the lost with persistence and joy, like a shepherd for his sheep or a woman for her coin.
- The Father’s love is extravagant—He runs to meet the prodigal with compassion and restores him fully.
- Self-righteousness can blind us, like the elder son who refused to celebrate grace.
- God’s kingdom is about mercy, forgiveness, and restoration—no one is beyond His reach.

“Faithfulness, Wealth, and Eternity”

The Parable of the Shrewd Manager

1 Jesus told his disciples: “There was a rich man whose manager was accused of wasting his possessions.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 4:2; Luke 12:42; Matthew 25:14

2 So he called him in and asked, ‘What is this I hear about you? Give an account of your management, because you cannot be manager any longer.’

Cross References: Romans 14:12; Hebrews 13:17; Matthew 25:19

3 The manager said to himself, ‘What shall I do now? My master is taking away my job. I’m not strong enough to dig, and I’m ashamed to beg—

Cross References: Luke 15:17; Luke 18:4; Proverbs 20:4

4 I know what I’ll do so that, when I lose my job here, people will welcome me into their houses.’

Cross References: Luke 16:9; Proverbs 19:6; Proverbs 18:16

5 So he called in each one of his master’s debtors. He asked the first, ‘How much do you owe my master?’

Cross References: Matthew 18:24; 2 Kings 4:1; Nehemiah 5:7

6 ‘Nine hundred gallons of olive oil,’ he replied. The manager told him, ‘Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it four hundred and fifty.’

Cross References: 2 Kings 4:7; Matthew 18:27; Nehemiah 5:11

7 Then he asked the second, ‘And how much do you owe?’ ‘A thousand bushels of wheat,’ he replied. He told him, ‘Take your bill and make it eight hundred.’

Cross References: Matthew 18:27; Nehemiah 5:11; Ruth 3:15

8 The master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly. For the people of this world are more shrewd in dealing with their own kind than are the people of the light.

Cross References: Matthew 10:16; 1 Thessalonians 5:5; John 12:36

9 “I tell you, use worldly wealth to gain friends for yourselves, so that when it is gone, you will be welcomed into eternal dwellings.”

12 And if you have not been trustworthy with someone else’s property, who will give you property of your own?

Cross References: Genesis 39:4; Matthew 25:23; 1 Corinthians 4:2

13 No one can serve two masters. Either you will hate the one and love the other, or you will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money.”

Cross References: Matthew 6:24; 1 Timothy 6:10; Joshua 24:15

God Knows the Heart

14 The Pharisees, who loved money, heard all this and were sneering at Jesus.

Cross References: 2 Timothy 3:2; Luke 11:39; Matthew 6:24

15 He said to them, “You are the ones who justify yourselves in the eyes of others, but God knows your hearts. What people value highly is detestable in God’s sight.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 16:7; Proverbs 21:2; Luke 18:9

16 The Law and the Prophets were proclaimed until John. Since that time, the good news of the kingdom of God is being preached, and everyone is forcing their way into it.

Cross References: Matthew 11:12; Matthew 11:13; Luke 24:44

17 It is easier for heaven and earth to disappear than for the least stroke of a pen to drop out of the Law.

Cross References: Matthew 5:18; Matthew 24:35; Psalm 119:89

18 Anyone who divorces his wife and marries another woman commits adultery, and the man who marries a divorced woman commits adultery.”

31 He said to him, 'If they do not listen to Moses and the Prophets, they will not be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.'"

Cross References: John 11:53; John 12:10; 2 Corinthians 4:4

Key Lessons from Luke 16

- Be faithful in the small things, because integrity shows itself in the little before the great.
- Money is temporary; eternal riches are what matter most.
- God sees the true condition of the heart, not outward appearances or wealth.
- You cannot serve both God and money—only one will rule your life.
- The story of the rich man and Lazarus warns that ignoring the poor and living for self brings eternal loss.
- Scripture is sufficient witness; even miracles cannot persuade a hardened heart that rejects God's Word.

Key Lessons from Luke 17

- Sin will exist in the world, but believers must not be the cause of stumbling for others.
- Forgiveness must be offered repeatedly, just as God continually forgives us.
- Even the smallest faith, rooted in God, can accomplish the impossible.
- Our service to God is not for recognition, but simple obedience to duty.
- Gratitude matters—faith responds with thankfulness, not silence.
- The kingdom of God begins within the heart before it is revealed in glory.
- The coming of the Son of Man will be sudden, visible, and decisive—believers must remain watchful.
- Like Lot's wife, clinging to the world brings destruction; faith lets go and looks forward.

“Authority, Rejection, and the Living God”

Question of Authority

1 One day, as Jesus was teaching the people in the temple courts and proclaiming the good news, the chief priests and the scribes, together with the elders, came up to him.

Cross References: Matthew 21:23; Mark 11:27; John 2:18

3 He replied, “I will also ask you a question. Tell me:

4 John’s baptism—was it from heaven, or from men?”

Cross References: Matthew 21:25; Mark 11:30; John 1:33

5 They discussed it among themselves and said, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will ask, ‘Why didn’t you believe him?’

Cross References: Matthew 21:25; Mark 11:31; Matthew 3:5

6 But if we say, ‘From men,’ all the people will stone us, because they are persuaded that John was a prophet.”

7 So they answered, “We don’t know where it was from.”

Cross References: Matthew 21:27; Mark 11:33; John 9:29

8 Jesus said, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.”

12 He sent still a third, and they wounded him and threw him out.

18 Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces, but anyone on whom it falls will be crushed.”

32 Finally, the woman died too.

34 Jesus replied, “The people of this age marry and are given in marriage.

Key Lessons from Luke 20

- Jesus’ authority comes from heaven, not from men.
- Rejecting God’s Son leads to judgment, but the rejected stone becomes the cornerstone.

- Give to earthly rulers what is theirs, but give to God what belongs to Him—your whole self.
- The resurrection is real: God is the God of the living, not the dead.
- Christ is not merely David’s son; He is David’s Lord.
- Hypocrisy in religious leaders brings severe judgment; God values sincerity and humility.

Introduction to the Book of John

“In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.” – John 1:1

Title and Meaning

The Gospel according to John is named after the apostle John, the son of Zebedee and brother of James. Unlike the Synoptic Gospels (Matthew, Mark, and Luke), John’s account is distinct, focusing on the identity of Jesus as the eternal Son of God. John emphasizes that Jesus is the Word made flesh (John 1:14) and the Light of the world, who came to bring eternal life to all who believe in Him.

Author and Date

John the apostle, often referred to as “the disciple whom Jesus loved,” is traditionally regarded as the author. Early church tradition strongly supports this, and his firsthand eyewitness testimony is evident throughout the book (John 21:24). The Gospel was likely written between AD 85–95, making it one of the last New Testament books written.

Purpose of John

John’s Gospel is both deeply theological and evangelistic. His purpose is explicitly stated:

- To show that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God.
- To call readers to faith in Him for eternal life (John 20:31).
- To reveal Jesus’ divine identity through “signs” (miracles) and “I Am” statements.
- To provide assurance of God’s love and eternal life through Christ.

Structure of John

John’s Gospel is organized around seven miraculous signs and seven “I Am” statements, both pointing to Jesus’ divinity. It can be outlined as follows: 1. The Prologue (Ch. 1:1–18) The eternal Word became flesh and revealed God’s glory.

- 2. The Book of Signs (Chs. 1–12) Jesus performs miracles and teaches, revealing Himself as the Messiah and Son of God. Key signs include turning water into wine, feeding the 5,000, healing the blind man, and raising Lazarus.
- 3. The Book of Glory (Chs. 13–20) Focuses on Jesus’ final teachings, His death, and His resurrection. The cross is portrayed not as defeat but as glorification.
- 4. The Epilogue (Ch. 21) The risen Christ restores Peter and commissions His disciples.

Major Themes

- Jesus as the Word – He is eternal, divine, and the revelation of God.
- Light and Darkness – Christ brings truth and life to a dark world.
- Faith and Eternal Life – Belief in Jesus brings everlasting life.
- Love and Relationship – God’s love is revealed in Christ, calling us to love one another.

- The Holy Spirit – Promised as the Comforter and Guide for believers after Jesus’ ascension.

Why John Matters Today

John presents Jesus not only as a great teacher or miracle worker but as the eternal Son of God who offers eternal life. His Gospel calls us to personal faith in Christ, emphasizes the depth of God’s love, and assures us of His presence through the Spirit. It also teaches that eternal life begins the moment we believe in Christ, shaping how we live here and now.

Key Verse

“These are written that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.” – John 20:31 This verse sums up the entire purpose of John’s Gospel: belief in Jesus brings life.

Key Lessons from John 3

- To see and enter God's kingdom, we must be born again—by the Spirit, not by human effort.
- The Spirit works like the wind: unseen, mysterious, yet powerful.
- God's love is so great that he gave his only Son, offering eternal life to all who believe.
- Rejecting Christ leads to judgment; receiving him brings salvation and light.
- True followers walk in the light, letting their deeds show that God is at work in them.
- John the Baptist reminds us that Jesus must be exalted, while we humble ourselves.
- Belief in Christ brings eternal life, but rejecting him leaves a person under God's judgment.

- Jesus offers “living water”—eternal life through the Spirit—that satisfies the soul’s deepest thirst.
- True worship is not about a location but about worshiping God in spirit and truth.
- Jesus revealed himself as the Messiah to an outcast, showing that his mission is for all people.
- The Samaritan woman’s testimony brought many to Christ—our story can point others to him.

- Doing God’s will was Jesus’ true food, showing the importance of spiritual work over physical needs.
- The harvest of souls is ready—God calls us to sow, reap, and rejoice together in his work.
- Faith grows from hearing Jesus’ word and trusting it, as shown in the healing of the official’s son.

Cross References: Mark 10:51; Matthew 9:28; Acts 3:6

7 The man replied, “Sir, I have no one to help me into the pool when the water is stirred. While I am trying to get in, someone else goes down ahead of me.”

8 Then Jesus said to him, “Get up! Pick up your mat and walk.”

10 So the Jewish leaders said to the man who had been healed, “It is the Sabbath. It is not lawful for you to carry your mat.”

17 But Jesus answered, “My Father is always working, and so am I.”

Key Lessons from John 6

- Jesus provides for physical needs but points us to a greater truth: he is the Bread of Life.
- Faith is not about miracles and signs but about trusting Christ himself.
- Eternal life comes only through believing in Jesus, the one sent from heaven.
- Jesus' body and blood symbolize his sacrifice—true life is found in him alone.
- Many turn away from difficult truths, but true disciples remain because only Jesus has the words of eternal life.
- God draws people to Christ, and those who come to him will never be cast out.

Jesus and His Brothers

1 After this, Jesus stayed in Galilee. He would not go about in Judea because the Jewish leaders were looking for a way to kill him.

2 The Jewish Feast of Tabernacles was near.

4 No one who wants to be known does things in secret. If you do these works, show yourself to the world.”

5 For even his brothers did not believe in him.

7 The world cannot hate you, but it hates me because I testify that its works are evil.

11 Now at the feast the Jewish leaders were looking for him and asking, “Where is he?”

12 Among the crowds there was much whispering about him. Some said, “He is a good man.” Others replied, “No, he deceives the people.”

13 But no one would say anything openly for fear of the leaders.

15 The Jews were amazed and asked, “How did this man get such learning without having studied?”

22 Yet because Moses gave you circumcision (though it actually came from the patriarchs), you circumcise a boy on the Sabbath.

Cross References: Genesis 17:10; Genesis 17:12; Leviticus 12:3

23 Now if a boy can be circumcised on the Sabbath so the law of Moses will not be broken, why are you angry with me for healing a whole man on the Sabbath?

24 Stop judging by appearances and judge with right judgment.”

Division Over Jesus

25 Some of the people of Jerusalem said, “Isn’t this the man they are trying to kill?

Cross References: John 5:18; John 7:1; John 7:19

26 Yet here he is, speaking openly, and they are not saying a word to him. Could it be that the rulers really know that he is the Messiah?

Cross References: John 12:42; Luke 23:35; John 3:2

27 But we know where this man is from. When the Messiah comes, no one will know where he is from.”

Cross References: Micah 5:2; Isaiah 53:2; Matthew 13:55

28 Then Jesus cried out in the temple courts as he taught, “Yes, you know me, and you know where I am from. But I am not here on my own authority. The one who sent me is true. You do not know him,

Cross References: John 8:19; John 5:37; John 17:25

29 but I know him because I am from him and he sent me.”

30 At this they tried to seize him, but no one laid a hand on him, because his hour had not yet come.

32 The Pharisees heard the crowd whispering such things. Then the chief priests and the Pharisees sent guards to arrest him.

Cross References: James 1:1; 1 Peter 1:1; Isaiah 49:6

36 What did he mean when he said, ‘You will look for me, but you will not find me,’ and ‘Where I am, you cannot come’?”

38 Whoever believes in me, as Scripture has said, rivers of living water will flow from within them.”

40 On hearing his words, some of the people said, “Surely this man is the Prophet.”

42 Doesn’t Scripture say that the Messiah will come from David’s descendants and from Bethlehem, the town where David lived?”

48 “Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed in him?

51 “Does our law condemn a man without first hearing him to find out what he has been doing?”

53 Then each went to his own home.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:66; Judges 21:24; John 20:10

Key Lessons from John 7

- Even Jesus’ own brothers doubted him at first, showing faith must come personally, not by family ties.
- Jesus acted according to God’s timing, not human pressure.
- True teaching comes from God, and those who seek his will recognize it.
- The world hates Christ because he exposes its evil.
- Outward appearances can deceive; righteous judgment looks deeper.
- Jesus offers the Spirit as living water, bringing life and refreshment to believers.
- People remain divided over Jesus, but his words and works point clearly to him as the Messiah.
- Human leaders may reject him, but God’s plan cannot be stopped.

The Truth Will Set You Free

31 To the Jews who had believed him, Jesus said, “If you continue in my word, you are truly my disciples.

Cross References: 1 John 2:24; Colossians 1:23; John 15:7

32 Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.”

Cross References: Psalm 119:45; Romans 8:2; Galatians 5:1

33 They answered him, “We are Abraham’s descendants and have never been slaves of anyone. How can you say we shall be set free?”

Cross References: Matthew 3:9; Galatians 3:7; Romans 9:7

34 Jesus replied, “Truly I tell you, everyone who sins is a slave to sin.

Cross References: Romans 6:16; Romans 6:20; 2 Peter 2:19

35 A slave has no permanent place in the family, but a son belongs to it forever.

36 So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed.

Cross References: Isaiah 61:1; Romans 8:2; Galatians 5:1

37 I know you are Abraham’s descendants. Yet you are looking for a way to kill me, because you have no room for my word.

38 I am telling you what I have seen in the Father’s presence, and you are doing what you have heard from your father.”

Cross References: John 3:32; John 14:24; John 5:19

Children of the Devil

39 “Abraham is our father,” they answered. Jesus said, “If you were Abraham’s children, then you would do what Abraham did.

Cross References: Romans 4:12; James 2:21; Galatians 3:29

40 But now you are trying to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. Abraham did not do such things.

41 You are doing the works of your father.”

They protested, “We are not illegitimate children. The only Father we have is God himself.”

Cross References: Malachi 2:10; Deuteronomy 32:6; Isaiah 63:16

42 Jesus said to them, “If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and am now here. I have not come on my own; God sent me.

Cross References: John 5:43; 1 John 5:1; John 16:27

43 Why is my language not clear to you? Because you are unable to hear my word.

Cross References: Isaiah 6:9; John 10:26; Matthew 13:13

44 You belong to your father, the devil, and you want to carry out your father’s desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, not holding to the truth, for there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies.

Cross References: Genesis 3:4; 1 John 3:8; Genesis 4:8

45 Yet because I tell you the truth, you do not believe me!

Cross References: Isaiah 53:1; John 3:11; John 18:37

Jesus’ Claims About Himself

48 The Jews answered him, “Aren’t we right in saying that you are a Samaritan and demon-possessed?”

Cross References: John 4:9; John 7:20; John 10:20

49 Jesus replied, “I am not demon-possessed. I honor my Father, and you dishonor me.

50 I am not seeking glory for myself, but there is one who seeks it, and he is the judge.

51 Truly I tell you, whoever keeps my word will never see death.”

Cross References: John 11:26; John 5:24; 1 John 3:14

Cross References: Zechariah 1:5; Hebrews 11:13; 1 Peter 1:24

53 Are you greater than our father Abraham? He died, and so did the prophets. Who do you think you are?”

54 Jesus replied, “If I glorify myself, my glory means nothing. My Father, whom you claim as your God, is the one who glorifies me.

Cross References: John 17:5; John 12:28; Isaiah 42:8

55 Though you do not know him, I know him. If I said I did not, I would be a liar like you, but I do know him and obey his word.

“Jesus Heals a Man Born Blind”

The Healing

1 As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man who had been blind from birth.

Cross References: Exodus 4:11; Psalm 139:14; Mark 8:23

2 His disciples asked him, “Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?”

Cross References: Exodus 20:5; Ezekiel 18:20; Luke 13:2

3 Jesus answered, “Neither this man nor his parents sinned. This happened so the works of God might be displayed in him.

Cross References: John 11:4; Exodus 9:16; Ephesians 2:10

4 I must do the works of the one who sent me while it is day. Night is coming, when no one can work.

Cross References: John 4:34; Ecclesiastes 9:10; John 12:35

5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.”

Cross References: John 1:9; John 8:12; John 12:46

6 After saying this, he spit on the ground, made mud with the saliva, and put it on the man’s eyes.

Cross References: Mark 8:23; Mark 7:33; Genesis 2:7

7 He told him, “Go, wash in the Pool of Siloam” (which means Sent). So the man went, washed, and came back seeing.

Cross References: Isaiah 8:6; 2 Kings 5:10; Nehemiah 3:15

The Neighbors Question Him

8 His neighbors and those who had seen him begging asked, “Isn’t this the man who used to sit and beg?”

Cross References: Acts 3:2; Mark 10:46; Acts 3:10

9 Some said, “Yes, it’s him.” Others said, “No, he just looks like him.” But the man himself said, “I am the one.”

Cross References: John 4:26; Exodus 3:14; John 9:37

10 They asked him, “How then were your eyes opened?”

Cross References: Mark 10:51; Luke 18:41; Acts 9:18

11 He replied, “The man called Jesus made mud, put it on my eyes, and told me, ‘Go to Siloam and wash.’ So I went, washed, and then I could see.”

Cross References: Mark 8:25; John 9:6; John 9:7

12 They asked, “Where is he?” He answered, “I don’t know.”

Cross References: John 7:11; John 20:2; John 5:13

The Pharisees Investigate

13 They brought to the Pharisees the man who had been blind.

Cross References: Leviticus 13:2; Mark 1:44; Deuteronomy 17:9

14 Now the day on which Jesus had made the mud and opened the man’s eyes was a Sabbath.

Cross References: John 5:9; Mark 3:2; Luke 13:14

15 Therefore the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said, “He put mud on my eyes, I washed, and now I see.”

Cross References: John 9:11; John 9:26; Mark 8:25

16 Some of the Pharisees said, “This man is not from God, for he does not keep the Sabbath.” But others asked, “How can a sinner perform such signs?” So they were divided.

Cross References: John 3:2; Mark 2:24; John 7:43

17 Then they turned to the blind man and asked, “What do you say about him? It was your eyes he opened.” The man replied, “He is a prophet.”

Cross References: John 4:19; Deuteronomy 18:15; Luke 7:16

18 The Jewish leaders still did not believe he had been blind and received his sight until they called the man’s parents.

Cross References: John 9:24; Mark 6:6; Deuteronomy 19:15

19 They asked them, “Is this your son? Is this the one you say was born blind? How is it that he can now see?”

Cross References: John 9:2; John 9:1; Exodus 4:11

20 His parents answered, “We know this is our son, and that he was born blind.

Cross References: John 9:1; John 9:2; John 9:25

21 But how he can see now, or who opened his eyes, we don’t know. He is of age—ask him. He can speak for himself.”

Cross References: John 9:23; Job 32:7; John 9:11

22 His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jewish leaders, who had already decided that anyone who acknowledged Jesus as the Messiah would be put out of the synagogue.

Cross References: John 12:42; John 16:2; John 7:13

23 That is why his parents said, “He is of age; ask him.”

Cross References: John 9:21; Job 32:7; John 9:20

The Pharisees Question Him Again

24 A second time they summoned the man who had been blind. They said, “Give glory to God by telling the truth. We know this man is a sinner.”

Cross References: Joshua 7:19; 1 Samuel 6:5; John 9:16

25 He replied, “Whether he is a sinner or not, I don’t know. One thing I do know: I was blind, but now I see!”

Cross References: Acts 4:20; John 9:11; 1 John 1:1

26 Then they asked him, “What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?”

Cross References: John 9:10; John 9:15; John 9:11

27 He answered, “I already told you, and you did not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you want to become his disciples too?”

Cross References: John 9:15; John 9:10; John 6:67

28 Then they hurled insults at him and said, “You are this fellow’s disciple! We are disciples of Moses.

Cross References: John 5:45; John 1:17; Exodus 33:11

29 We know that God spoke to Moses, but as for this man, we don’t even know where he comes from.”

Cross References: Exodus 33:11; Numbers 12:8; Deuteronomy 34:10

30 The man answered, “That is remarkable! You don’t know where he comes from, yet he opened my eyes.

Cross References: John 9:25; John 3:2; John 7:27

31 We know that God does not listen to sinners. He listens to the godly person who does his will.

Cross References: Psalm 66:18; Proverbs 15:29; Isaiah 1:15

32 Nobody has ever heard of opening the eyes of a man born blind.

Cross References: Isaiah 35:5; Isaiah 42:7; Mark 8:23

33 If this man were not from God, he could do nothing.”

Cross References: John 3:2; Acts 5:38; John 15:5

34 To this they replied, “You were steeped in sin at birth; how dare you lecture us!” And they threw him out.

Cross References: Psalm 51:5; John 9:2; John 16:2

Spiritual Blindness

35 Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, and when he found him, he said, “Do you believe in the Son of God?”

Cross References: John 5:14; John 1:34; Matthew 16:16

36 The man asked, “Who is he, Lord, that I may believe in him?”

Cross References: Acts 8:37; John 1:38; John 4:29

37 Jesus said, “You have now seen him; in fact, he is the one speaking with you.”

Cross References: John 4:26; John 4:10; John 20:16

38 Then the man said, “Lord, I believe,” and he worshiped him.

Cross References: Matthew 14:33; John 20:28; Matthew 28:17

39 Jesus said, “For judgment I have come into this world, so that the blind will see and those who see will become blind.”

Cross References: Isaiah 6:10; Isaiah 42:19; Luke 4:18

40 Some Pharisees who were with him heard this and asked, “Are we blind too?”

Cross References: Matthew 15:14; Romans 2:19; Isaiah 42:19

41 Jesus replied, “If you were blind, you would not be guilty of sin; but since you claim you can see, your guilt remains.”

Cross References: John 15:22; John 15:24; Romans 1:20

Key Lessons from John 9

- Suffering is not always caused by personal sin—it can be a stage for God’s glory to be revealed.
- Jesus is the Light of the World, opening both physical and spiritual eyes.
- Obedience, even in small steps (“Go, wash”), leads to transformation.
- Bold testimony—“One thing I know: I was blind, but now I see”—is powerful against opposition.
- Religious pride blinds hearts, while humble faith opens eyes to truth.
- True disciples worship Jesus as Lord, recognizing him as the Son of God.
- Spiritual blindness is worse than physical blindness; only Christ can bring sight.

13 The man runs away because he is a hired hand and cares nothing for the sheep.

Division and Opposition

The Festival of Dedication

22 Then came the Festival of Dedication at Jerusalem. It was winter,

The Claim to Be God's Son

31 Again the Jews picked up stones to stone him,

32 but Jesus said to them, "I have shown you many good works from the Father. For which of these do you stone me?"

26 and whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?”

Cross References: John 6:47; John 8:51; John 3:16

27 “Yes, Lord,” she replied, “I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, who is to come into the world.”

28 After she said this, she went back and called her sister Mary aside. “The Teacher is here,” she said, “and is asking for you.”

29 When Mary heard this, she got up quickly and went to him.

30 Now Jesus had not yet entered the village, but was still at the place where Martha had met him.

31 When the Jews who had been with Mary in the house, comforting her, noticed how quickly she got up and went out, they followed her, supposing she was going to the tomb to mourn there.

Jesus Raises Lazarus

33 When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who had come along with her also weeping, he was deeply moved in spirit and troubled.

Cross References: John 13:21; Isaiah 53:3; Hebrews 4:15

34 “Where have you laid him?” he asked. “Come and see, Lord,” they replied.

Cross References: John 1:39; John 1:46; Psalm 46:8

35 Jesus wept.

Cross References: Luke 19:41; Hebrews 5:7; Isaiah 53:3

36 Then the Jews said, “See how he loved him!”

Cross References: John 11:3; John 15:13; 1 John 3:16

37 But some of them said, “Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?”

Cross References: John 9:6; John 9:32; Mark 8:23

38 Jesus, once more deeply moved, came to the tomb. It was a cave with a stone laid across the entrance.

Cross References: John 20:1; Matthew 27:60; Mark 16:3

39 “Take away the stone,” he said. “But, Lord,” said Martha, the sister of the dead man, “by this time there is a bad odor, for he has been there four days.”

Cross References: Genesis 50:26; John 19:40; Psalm 16:10

40 Then Jesus said, “Did I not tell you that if you believe, you will see the glory of God?”

41 So they took away the stone. Then Jesus looked up and said, “Father, I thank you that you have heard me.

42 I knew that you always hear me, but I said this for the benefit of the people standing here, that they may believe you sent me.”

The Plot to Kill Jesus

45 Therefore many of the Jews who had come to visit Mary, and had seen what Jesus did, believed in him.

Cross References: John 2:23; John 7:31; John 10:42

46 But some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done.

Cross References: John 9:13; Mark 3:6; Luke 6:11

47 Then the chief priests and the Pharisees called a meeting of the council. “What are we accomplishing?” they asked. “Here is this man performing many signs.

Cross References: Matthew 26:3; Acts 4:16; Mark 14:1

48 If we let him go on like this, everyone will believe in him, and then the Romans will come and take away both our temple and our nation.”

Cross References: Daniel 9:26; Luke 21:20; Mark 13:2

49 Then one of them, Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, spoke up, “You know nothing at all!

Cross References: Matthew 26:3; John 18:14; John 18:13

50 You do not realize that it is better for you that one man die for the people than that the whole nation perish.”

Cross References: John 18:14; Isaiah 53:5; 2 Corinthians 5:15

51 He did not say this on his own, but as high priest that year he prophesied that Jesus would die for the Jewish nation,

Cross References: Numbers 22:38; Isaiah 53:8; 1 Peter 2:24

52 and not only for that nation but also for the scattered children of God, to bring them together and make them one.

53 So from that day on they plotted to take his life.

Cross References: Matthew 26:4; Mark 14:1; Psalm 31:13

54 Therefore Jesus no longer moved about publicly among the Jews. Instead he withdrew to a region near the wilderness, to a village called Ephraim, where he stayed with his disciples.

Cross References: John 7:1; Matthew 4:12; Mark 1:45

55 When it was almost time for the Jewish Passover, many went up from the countryside to Jerusalem for their ceremonial cleansing before the festival.

Cross References: Exodus 19:10; 2 Chronicles 30:17; Numbers 9:10

56 They kept looking for Jesus, and as they stood in the temple courts they asked one another, “What do you think? Isn’t he coming to the festival at all?”

Cross References: John 7:11; John 8:21; John 1:38

57 But the chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that anyone who found out where Jesus was should report it, so they might arrest him.

Key Lessons from John 11

- Jesus allows delays so that God’s glory may be revealed in greater ways.
- Christ is not only the giver of resurrection but the Resurrection and the Life himself.
- True faith trusts Jesus even when death and loss seem final.
- Jesus shows his humanity by weeping and his divinity by commanding Lazarus to rise.
- Belief brings life; unbelief plots against the giver of life.
- The cross was not an accident but part of God’s plan, foretold even through Caiaphas’ words.
- Those who belong to Christ will be gathered together as one flock under his eternal care.

“The Anointing, the Triumphal Entry, and the Hour of Glory”

Mary Anoints Jesus

1 Six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus lived, whom he had raised from the dead.

Cross References: Matthew 26:6; Mark 14:3; John 11:1

2 A dinner was given in Jesus’ honor. Martha served, while Lazarus was among those reclining at the table with him.

Cross References: Luke 10:40; Mark 14:3; Matthew 26:6

3 Then Mary took about a pint of pure nard, an expensive perfume, poured it on Jesus’ feet, and wiped his feet with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume.

Cross References: Mark 14:3; Matthew 26:7; Song of Solomon 1:12

4 But Judas Iscariot, who was later to betray him, objected,

Cross References: Matthew 26:8; Mark 14:4; Matthew 26:14

5 “Why wasn’t this perfume sold and the money given to the poor? It was worth a year’s wages.”

Cross References: Mark 14:5; Matthew 26:9; Deuteronomy 15:11

6 He did not say this because he cared about the poor but because he was a thief; as keeper of the money bag, he used to help himself to what was put into it.

Cross References: John 13:29; Matthew 27:5; 1 Timothy 6:10

7 “Leave her alone,” Jesus replied. “It was intended that she should save this perfume for the day of my burial.

Cross References: Mark 14:8; Matthew 26:12; Mark 16:1

8 You will always have the poor among you, but you will not always have me.”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 15:11; Mark 14:7; Matthew 26:11

9 Meanwhile, a large crowd of Jews found out that Jesus was there and came, not only because of him but also to see Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead.

Cross References: John 11:45; John 12:17; John 6:2

10 So the chief priests made plans to kill Lazarus as well,

Cross References: John 11:53; Psalm 37:32; Acts 5:33

11 for on account of him many of the Jews were going over to Jesus and believing in him.

Cross References: John 11:45; John 11:48; Acts 5:14

The Triumphal Entry

12 The next day the great crowd that had come for the festival heard that Jesus was on his way to Jerusalem.

Cross References: Matthew 21:8; Mark 11:8; Luke 19:36

13 They took palm branches and went out to meet him, shouting, “Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessed is the King of Israel!”

Cross References: Psalm 118:26; Matthew 21:9; Leviticus 23:40

14 Jesus found a young donkey and sat on it, as it is written:

15 “Do not be afraid, Daughter Zion; see, your King is coming, seated on a donkey’s colt.”

Cross References: Zechariah 9:9; Matthew 21:5; Isaiah 62:11

16 At first his disciples did not understand all this. Only after Jesus was glorified did they realize that these things had been written about him and that these things had been done to him.

Cross References: John 2:22; Luke 24:8; John 14:26

17 Now the crowd that was with him when he called Lazarus from the tomb and raised him from the dead continued to spread the word.

Cross References: John 11:43; John 4:39; Acts 4:20

18 Many people, because they had heard that he had performed this sign, went out to meet him.

Cross References: John 11:47; John 2:23; John 20:30

19 So the Pharisees said to one another, “See, this is getting us nowhere. Look how the whole world has gone after him!”

Jesus Predicts His Death

20 Now there were some Greeks among those who went up to worship at the festival.

22 Philip went to tell Andrew; Andrew and Philip in turn told Jesus.

23 Jesus replied, “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.

27 “Now my soul is troubled, and what shall I say? ‘Father, save me from this hour’? No, it was for this very reason I came to this hour.

28 Father, glorify your name!”

Then a voice came from heaven, “I have glorified it, and will glorify it again.”

Cross References: Matthew 3:17; Matthew 17:5; 2 Peter 1:17

29 The crowd that was there and heard it said it had thundered; others said an angel had spoken to him.

30 Jesus said, “This voice was for your benefit, not mine.

31 Now is the time for judgment on this world; now the prince of this world will be driven out.

32 And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself.”

Cross References: John 3:14; John 8:28; Numbers 21:9

33 He said this to show the kind of death he was going to die.

Cross References: John 18:32; John 3:14; Matthew 20:19

34 The crowd spoke up, “We have heard from the Law that the Messiah will remain forever, so how can you say, ‘The Son of Man must be lifted up’? Who is this Son of Man?”

Cross References: Psalm 110:4; Isaiah 9:7; Daniel 7:14

35 Then Jesus told them, “You are going to have the light just a little while longer. Walk while you have the light, before darkness overtakes you. Whoever walks in the dark does not know where they are going.

Cross References: John 9:4; John 8:12; 1 John 2:11

36 Believe in the light while you have the light, so that you may become children of light.” When he had finished speaking, Jesus left and hid himself from them.

Cross References: Ephesians 5:8; 1 Thessalonians 5:5; John 8:59

The Unbelief of the People

37 Even after Jesus had performed so many signs in their presence, they still would not believe in him.

Cross References: John 20:30; John 2:23; Matthew 11:20

38 This was to fulfill the word of Isaiah the prophet:

“Lord, who has believed our message, and to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?”

Cross References: Isaiah 53:1; Romans 10:16; John 1:11

39 For this reason they could not believe, because, as Isaiah says elsewhere:

Cross References: Isaiah 6:9; Romans 11:8; Matthew 13:14

40 “He has blinded their eyes and hardened their hearts, so they can neither see with their eyes, nor understand with their hearts, nor turn—and I would heal them.”

Cross References: Isaiah 6:10; Matthew 13:15; Acts 28:27

41 Isaiah said this because he saw Jesus’ glory and spoke about him.

Cross References: Isaiah 6:1; Isaiah 6:3; John 1:14

42 Yet at the same time many even among the leaders believed in him. But because of the Pharisees they would not openly confess their faith for fear they would be put out of the synagogue;

Cross References: John 9:22; John 7:13; John 19:38

43 for they loved human praise more than praise from God.

Cross References: John 5:44; Galatians 1:10; Matthew 6:1

Jesus' Final Appeal

44 Then Jesus cried out, "Whoever believes in me does not believe in me only, but in the one who sent me.

45 The one who looks at me is seeing the one who sent me.

46 I have come into the world as a light, so that no one who believes in me should stay in darkness.

Cross References: John 1:9; John 8:12; John 9:5

47 If anyone hears my words but does not keep them, I do not judge that person. For I did not come to judge the world, but to save the world.

Cross References: John 3:17; John 8:15; Luke 19:10

48 There is a judge for the one who rejects me and does not accept my words; the very words I have spoken will condemn them at the last day.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 18:19; Mark 8:38; Revelation 20:12

49 For I did not speak on my own, but the Father who sent me commanded me what to say and how to say it.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 18:18; John 8:28; John 7:16

50 I know that his command leads to eternal life. So whatever I say is just what the Father has told me to say."

Key Lessons from John 12

- Worship of Christ, like Mary's costly act, is never wasted—it honors Jesus and points to his sacrifice.
- The triumphal entry shows Jesus as the true King, humble yet victorious.
- Following Christ means dying to self and living for eternal life.
- God himself confirmed Jesus' mission with a voice from heaven.
- The cross is both judgment on the world and victory over Satan.

- Many saw the signs yet refused to believe, showing the danger of loving human praise more than God’s approval.
- Jesus is the Light—rejecting his word brings judgment, but believing it brings eternal life.
