5 King Solomon and the entire community of Israel sacrificed sheep and cattle before the Ark—so many they couldn't be counted.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 5:6; 2 Samuel 6:13; 1 Kings 8:63

6 The priests brought the Ark of the Lord's covenant into its place in the inner sanctuary—the Most Holy Place—beneath the wings of the cherubim.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 5:7; Exodus 25:21; Exodus 26:33

7 The cherubim spread their wings over the Ark and its poles.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 5:8; Exodus 25:20; 1 Kings 6:27

8 The poles were so long that their ends could be seen from the Holy Place in front of the inner sanctuary, but not from the outside. They are still there today.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 5:9; Exodus 25:15; Numbers 4:6

9 Inside the Ark were only the two stone tablets Moses had placed at Horeb, where the Lord made a covenant with the Israelites after they came out of Egypt.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 5:10; Exodus 25:16; Deuteronomy 10:5

10 When the priests came out of the Holy Place, a thick cloud filled the Temple of the Lord.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 5:13; Exodus 40:34; Ezekiel 10:4

11 The priests could not continue their service because of the cloud, for the glorious presence of the Lord filled the Temple.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 5:14; Exodus 40:35; Isaiah 6:4

Solomon's Blessing to the People

(Verses 12–21)

12 Then Solomon said, “The Lord said He would dwell in thick darkness.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:1; Exodus 20:21; Psalm 18:11

13 I have built a glorious Temple for You, a place where You can live forever.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:2; Psalm 132:13; 1 Chronicles 28:6

14 Then the king turned and blessed the entire assembly of Israel as they stood.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:3; Numbers 6:23; 2 Samuel 6:18

15 He said, “Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, who with His own hand has fulfilled what He promised with His mouth to my father David.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:4; 2 Samuel 7:12; Luke 1:68

16 ‘Since the day I brought My people out of Egypt, I chose no city among the tribes of Israel to build a Temple for My name. But I chose David to rule My people.’

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:5; 2 Samuel 7:6; Deuteronomy 12:5

17 My father David wanted to build this Temple to honor the Lord.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:7; 2 Samuel 7:2; 1 Chronicles 22:7

18 But the Lord said, ‘It was good that you had the desire,

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:8; 1 Chronicles 28:2; 1 Chronicles 22:8

19 but you will not build it—your son will.’

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:9; 1 Chronicles 22:9; 1 Chronicles 28:6

20 Now the Lord has fulfilled His promise. I sit on David’s throne, and I have built this Temple for the name of the Lord.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:10; 1 Chronicles 29:23; 2 Samuel 7:13

21 I have provided a place for the Ark, which contains the covenant of the Lord made with our ancestors.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:11; Exodus 25:16; Deuteronomy 31:26

Solomon’s Prayer of Dedication

(Verses 22–53)

22 Solomon stood before the altar of the Lord in front of all the people and lifted his hands toward heaven.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:12; Exodus 9:29; Psalm 28:2

23 He prayed: “O Lord, God of Israel, there is no God like You in heaven or on earth. You keep Your covenant and show unfailing love to those who walk before You in wholehearted devotion.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:14; Deuteronomy 7:9; Nehemiah 9:32

24 You have kept Your promise to David my father; You spoke with Your mouth and fulfilled it with Your hand.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:15; 2 Samuel 7:25; Psalm 89:34

25 Now, O Lord, keep that promise: ‘You will always have a descendant to sit on the throne—if your descendants are faithful.’

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:16; 2 Samuel 7:16; Psalm 132:11

26 Now, O God of Israel, confirm that promise.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:17; 2 Samuel 7:25; Psalm 119:38

27 But will God really dwell on earth? The heavens cannot contain You—how much less this Temple!

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:18; Isaiah 66:1; Acts 7:48

28 Yet, Lord, listen to my prayer.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:19; Psalm 130:2; Daniel 9:17

29 May Your eyes be open toward this Temple night and day, the place You said You would put Your name. Hear the prayers I make toward this place.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:20; Psalm 34:15; Deuteronomy 11:12

30 Hear my prayer and the prayers of Your people. And when You hear, forgive.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:21; Psalm 5:7; Daniel 6:10

31 If someone wrongs another and is required to take an oath,

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:22; Exodus 22:11; Hebrews 6:16

32 then hear from heaven, judge between them, condemn the guilty, and clear the innocent.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:23; Deuteronomy 25:1; Psalm 7:8

33 When Israel is defeated because of sin and turns to You and prays,

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:24; Leviticus 26:17; Deuteronomy 28:25

34 hear from heaven, forgive them, and bring them back.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:25; Deuteronomy 30:2; Jeremiah 29:14

35 When the skies are shut and there’s no rain because of sin, but they turn and pray,

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:26; Deuteronomy 11:17; 1 Kings 17:1

36 then hear from heaven, forgive, teach them the right way, and send rain on the land.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:27; Deuteronomy 11:14; 1 Kings 18:45

37 If famine or disease or enemy siege strikes,

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:28; Deuteronomy 28:22; Joel 1:4

38 if anyone prays, acknowledging the plague in their own heart,

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:29; Philippians 4:6; 1 Timothy 2:1

39 then hear from heaven and forgive. You know every heart.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:30; 1 Samuel 16:7; Jeremiah 17:10

40 Do this so they may honor You as long as they live.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:31; Deuteronomy 4:10; Psalm 130:4

41 And when foreigners come from distant lands because of Your name—

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:32; Isaiah 56:3; Ruth 1:16

42 for they will hear of Your greatness—

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:32; Exodus 6:6; Deuteronomy 4:34

43 then hear their prayer too, so all nations may know and fear You, just as Israel does.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:33; Isaiah 56:7; Acts 10:35

44 When Your people go to war and pray toward this city and Temple,

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:34; Daniel 6:10; Numbers 31:6

45 then hear their prayer and uphold their cause.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:35; Psalm 20:1; Psalm 118:25

46 If they sin—and everyone does—and You exile them,

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:36; Ecclesiastes 7:20; Romans 3:23

47 but they repent in the land of their captors and say, ‘We’ve sinned,’

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:37; Leviticus 26:40; Nehemiah 1:6

48 and they pray toward this land and Temple,

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:38; Deuteronomy 30:2; Jeremiah 29:13

49 then hear from heaven,

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:39; Psalm 102:19; Deuteronomy 26:15

50 forgive their sins, and cause their captors to show them mercy.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:39; Psalm 79:8; Micah 7:18

51 For they are Your people, whom You brought out of Egypt.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 4:20; Deuteronomy 9:29; Exodus 19:5

52 Listen to their prayers, Lord.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:40; Psalm 130:2; 1 Peter 3:12

53 You set them apart as Your inheritance when You brought them out of Egypt through Moses.”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 7:6; Leviticus 20:26; Deuteronomy 14:2

Solomon Blesses the People Again

(Verses 54–61)

54 When Solomon finished praying, he rose from his knees and lifted his hands from heaven.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 7:1; Daniel 6:10; Ezra 9:5

55 He stood and blessed the whole assembly:

Cross References: Numbers 6:23; 2 Samuel 6:18; Luke 24:50

56 “Praise the Lord, who has given rest to His people as He promised. Not one word has failed.

Cross References: Joshua 21:45; Joshua 23:14; Deuteronomy 12:10

57 May the Lord our God be with us as He was with our ancestors.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 31:6; Joshua 1:5; Hebrews 13:5

58 May He turn our hearts to Him, to walk in His ways and obey His commands.

Cross References: Psalm 119:36; Philippians 2:13; Joshua 24:23

59 May my prayer be continually before Him day and night.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 6:6; Joshua 1:8; Psalm 1:2

60 Then all the earth will know that the Lord alone is God.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 4:35; Isaiah 45:22; 1 Kings 18:39

61 Let your hearts be loyal to Him and keep His commands.”

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 28:9; Deuteronomy 18:13; Matthew 5:48

The Dedication Offerings and Feast

(Verses 62–66)

62 The king and all Israel offered sacrifices to the Lord.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 7:4; 2 Chronicles 5:6; Leviticus 9:24

63 Solomon offered 22,000 cattle and 120,000 sheep as peace offerings.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 7:5; Numbers 7:88; 2 Chronicles 30:24

64 On that day, the king consecrated the center of the courtyard for burnt offerings, grain offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, since the bronze altar was too small.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 7:7; Exodus 20:24; 2 Chronicles 4:1

65 Solomon and all Israel celebrated a great festival—people came from as far as Hamath to the River of Egypt. It lasted fourteen days.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 7:8; Leviticus 23:34; Nehemiah 8:18

66 On the eighth day, Solomon sent the people home. They went joyfully and with glad hearts for all the good the Lord had done for His servant David and His people Israel.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 7:10; Deuteronomy 16:15; Deuteronomy 12:7

Key Lessons from 1 Kings Chapter 8

- God keeps His promises. → Solomon glorified God for fulfilling every word to David. → Joshua 21:45 — “Not one of all the Lord’s good promises to Israel failed.”
- God’s presence is holy and powerful. → The cloud filled the Temple, a sign of divine glory. → Exodus 40:34–35 — “The glory of the Lord filled the Tabernacle.”
- Prayer connects earth to heaven. → Solomon’s prayer intercedes for people in every life situation—sin, war, drought, exile. → James 5:16 — “The prayer of a righteous person is powerful and effective.”
- Even strangers are welcome in God’s house. → Solomon prayed that all nations would be drawn to the Temple. → Isaiah 56:7 — “My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations.”
- Repentance leads to restoration. → Solomon anticipated failure—but also God’s mercy to the repentant. → 1 John 1:9 — “If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive.”

God’s Warning to Solomon and the Expansion of His Kingdom

God Appears to Solomon Again

(Verses 1–9)

1 After Solomon completed the construction of the Lord’s Temple, the royal palace, and everything else he wanted to build,

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 7:11; 1 Kings 3:1; 1 Kings 6:1

2 the Lord appeared to him a second time, just as He had appeared earlier at Gibeon.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 7:12; 1 Kings 3:5; 1 Kings 11:9

3 The Lord said, “I have heard your prayer and the request you made before Me. I have set this Temple apart to be holy. My Name will be honored there forever. My eyes and My heart will always be there.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 7:12; Deuteronomy 12:11; 2 Chronicles 7:16

4 If you walk before Me faithfully, as your father David did, with integrity and uprightness—obeying all My commands—

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 7:17; 1 Kings 3:14; 1 Kings 2:4

5 then I will establish your royal dynasty over Israel forever, just as I promised David, your father, saying, ‘You will never fail to have a man on the throne of Israel.’

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 7:18; 2 Samuel 7:16; Psalm 89:4

6 But if you or your descendants turn away from Me and do not obey My commands, and instead worship other gods,

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 7:19; Deuteronomy 30:17; Deuteronomy 8:19

7 then I will remove Israel from the land I have given them. I will reject this Temple I have consecrated for My Name. Israel will become a proverb and a byword among the nations.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 7:20; Deuteronomy 28:37; Jeremiah 24:9

8 Though this Temple is majestic now, all who pass by will be appalled and scoff, asking, ‘Why has the Lord done such a thing to this land and this house?’

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 7:21; Deuteronomy 29:24; Micah 3:12

9 And the answer will be: ‘Because they abandoned the Lord their God, who brought their ancestors out of Egypt, and embraced other gods, worshiping and serving them. That is why the Lord has brought all this disaster upon them.’”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 7:22; Deuteronomy 29:25; Jeremiah 22:8

Solomon Gives Cities to Hiram

(Verses 10–14)

10 After twenty years, during which Solomon built the Temple and his royal palace,

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 8:1; 1 Kings 6:38; 1 Kings 7:1

11 he gave twenty towns in Galilee to King Hiram of Tyre, who had supplied him with cedar, fir wood, and gold as requested.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 8:2; 1 Kings 5:10; 1 Kings 5:6

12 But when Hiram came to inspect the towns Solomon had given him, he was not pleased.

Cross References: 1 Kings 5:1; 2 Samuel 5:11; 2 Chronicles 2:3

13 “What are these towns you’ve given me, my brother?” he asked. So he called them the land of Cabul (meaning “worthless”)—and that name remains.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 8:2; Joshua 19:27; Amos 1:9

14 Hiram still sent Solomon 120 talents of gold.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 8:18; 1 Kings 9:11; 1 Kings 10:14

Solomon’s Building Projects

(Verses 15–24)

15 This is the account of the forced labor Solomon conscripted to build the Temple, his palace, the terraces, the wall of Jerusalem, and the cities of Hazor, Megiddo, and Gezer.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 8:3; 1 Kings 11:27; Joshua 17:11

16 (Pharaoh king of Egypt had attacked and captured Gezer, burned it down, and killed the Canaanites living there. He gave the city to his daughter, Solomon's wife, as a wedding gift.)

Cross References: Joshua 16:10; Judges 1:29; 1 Kings 3:1

17 Solomon rebuilt Gezer, Lower Beth-horon,

Cross References: Joshua 16:3; Joshua 21:22; 2 Chronicles 8:5

18 Baalath, Tadmor in the wilderness,

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 8:4; Joshua 19:44; 1 Kings 9:19

19 all his storage cities, chariot cities, cavalry cities, and everything else he desired to build in Jerusalem, Lebanon, and throughout his empire.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 8:6; 1 Kings 4:26; 1 Kings 10:26

20 Solomon conscripted as forced labor the descendants of the remaining Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites—people the Israelites could not completely destroy.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 8:7; Judges 1:28; Joshua 9:27

21 Their descendants remain in Israel and served as laborers.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 8:8; Judges 1:28; Joshua 17:13

22 But Solomon did not enslave any Israelites. They served as soldiers, officials, commanders, chariot officers, and cavalry.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 8:9; Leviticus 25:39; 1 Kings 5:13

23 There were 550 officials overseeing the work and managing the labor force.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 8:10; 1 Kings 5:16; 1 Kings 4:7

24 Pharaoh's daughter moved from the City of David to the new palace Solomon built for her. Then Solomon constructed the supporting terraces.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 8:11; 1 Kings 3:1; 1 Kings 7:8

Solomon's Worship and Naval Fleet

(Verses 25–28)

25 Three times a year, Solomon offered burnt offerings and peace offerings on the altar he built for the Lord. He also burned incense before the Lord and completed all Temple worship practices.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 8:12; Exodus 23:17; Deuteronomy 16:16

26 King Solomon also built a fleet of ships at Ezion-geber, near Elath, on the shore of the Red Sea in the land of Edom.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 8:17; 1 Kings 22:48; 2 Chronicles 20:36

27 Hiram sent experienced sailors to join Solomon's crews.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 8:18; 1 Kings 10:11; Job 28:16

28 They sailed to Ophir and brought back 420 talents of gold, which they delivered to Solomon.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 8:18; 1 Kings 10:11; Job 22:24

Key Lessons from 1 Kings Chapter 9

- God honors faithful obedience, but warns against idolatry. → God confirmed His promise to Solomon but warned that turning to other gods would bring national ruin. → Deuteronomy 28:1–2, 15 — Blessings follow obedience; curses follow rebellion.
- God's blessings can be lost. → The Temple, though beautiful and filled with God's glory, could be rejected if Israel turned away. → Jeremiah 7:4–14 — The Temple cannot save a disobedient people.
- True greatness comes with responsibility. → Solomon expanded Israel's infrastructure and influence, but he also placed a heavy burden on others. → 1 Peter 5:2–3 — Leaders should not dominate, but serve willingly.
- Partnership with the world has limits. → Though Hiram was a friend, he was displeased with Solomon's gift of cities—perhaps signaling compromise or shortsightedness. → 2 Corinthians 6:14 — “Do not be yoked together with unbelievers.”
- Worship must be regular and sincere. → Solomon worshiped faithfully and made offerings three times a year, preserving Israel's sacred calendar. → Hebrews 10:25 — Do not neglect meeting together in worship.

Solomon's Wisdom and Wealth Astound the World

The Queen of Sheba Tests Solomon's Wisdom

(Verses 1–13)

1 When the queen of Sheba heard about Solomon's fame in connection with the name of the Lord, she came to Jerusalem to test him with difficult questions.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 9:1; Matthew 12:42; Psalm 72:10

2 She arrived with a massive caravan—camels loaded with spices, large quantities of gold, and precious stones. When she came to Solomon, she spoke with him about everything that was on her heart.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 9:1; Luke 11:31; Psalm 72:10

3 Solomon answered all her questions; nothing was too hard for the king to explain.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 9:2; 1 Kings 4:29; Proverbs 25:2

4 When the queen of Sheba saw all Solomon's wisdom, the palace he had built,

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 9:3; 1 Kings 7:1; 1 Kings 3:12

5 the food on his table, the seating of his officials, the service and attire of his attendants, his cupbearers, and the stairway that led to the Temple of the Lord—she was overwhelmed.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 9:4; 1 Kings 4:22; 1 Kings 10:21

6 She said to the king, “Everything I heard in my country about your achievements and wisdom is true.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 9:5; 1 Kings 4:34; Luke 11:31

7 But I didn’t believe it until I came and saw it with my own eyes. In fact, I wasn’t even told half! Your wisdom and prosperity far exceed what I heard.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 9:6; Matthew 12:42; 1 Kings 4:29

8 How happy your people must be! What a privilege for your servants to stand here day after day and hear your wisdom.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 9:7; Proverbs 8:34; Luke 11:28

9 Praise be to the Lord your God, who has delighted in you and placed you on the throne of Israel. Because of the Lord’s eternal love for Israel, He made you king to govern with justice and righteousness.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 9:8; 1 Kings 3:28; 2 Samuel 8:15

10 Then she gave the king 120 talents of gold, a great quantity of spices, and precious stones. Never again did such a quantity of spices arrive as what the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 9:9; Matthew 2:11; Psalm 72:15

11 (The fleet of Hiram that brought gold from Ophir also brought great quantities of almug wood and precious stones.)

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 9:10; 1 Kings 9:28; 1 Kings 9:27

12 The king used the almug wood to make supports for the Temple and palace, and also harps and lyres for the musicians. Such fine almug wood had never been seen in Israel before.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 9:11; 1 Chronicles 15:16; Psalm 150:3

13 King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba everything she desired—whatever she asked for—besides what he gave her from his royal generosity. Then she and her servants returned to her own land.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 9:12; 1 Kings 10:2; Luke 6:38

Solomon’s Wealth and Splendor

(Verses 14–25)

14 The annual revenue of gold that came to Solomon was 666 talents,

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 9:13; 1 Kings 9:28; 1 Kings 10:10

15 not including the income from traders, merchants, Arabian kings, and governors of the land.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 9:14; 1 Kings 4:24; Psalm 72:10

16 King Solomon made 200 large shields of hammered gold—each using 600 shekels of gold—

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 9:15; 1 Kings 14:26; 1 Kings 7:2

17 and 300 small shields of hammered gold, using three minas each. He placed them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 9:16; 1 Kings 14:26; 1 Kings 7:2

18 The king also made a grand throne of ivory and overlaid it with pure gold.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 9:17; Amos 3:15; Psalm 45:6

19 It had six steps, and the back of the throne was rounded at the top. Armrests were on either side of the seat, and two lions stood beside the armrests.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 9:18; Genesis 49:9; Revelation 5:5

20 Twelve lions stood on the six steps—one on each side. No other throne in any kingdom could compare.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 9:19; 1 Kings 10:23; 1 Kings 4:34

21 All of King Solomon's drinking vessels were gold, and all the utensils in the House of the Forest of Lebanon were pure gold. Silver was considered worthless in Solomon's day.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 9:20; 1 Kings 10:27; 2 Chronicles 1:15

22 The king had a fleet of ships at sea, working with Hiram's fleet. Once every three years they returned with cargoes of gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 9:21; Isaiah 60:9; Jonah 1:3

23 So King Solomon surpassed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 9:22; 1 Kings 3:13; Ecclesiastes 2:9

24 The entire world sought an audience with Solomon to hear the wisdom God had put in his heart.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 9:23; 1 Kings 4:34; Matthew 12:42

25 Year after year, everyone who came brought gifts—articles of silver and gold, garments, weapons, spices, horses, and mules.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 9:24; Psalm 72:10; Isaiah 60:5

Solomon's Military Power and Trade

(Verses 26–29)

26 Solomon gathered 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horsemen and stationed them in chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 9:25; 1 Kings 4:26; Deuteronomy 17:16

27 The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar wood as abundant as sycamores in the foothills.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 9:27; 2 Chronicles 1:15; Zechariah 9:3

28 Solomon's horses were imported from Egypt and Kue. His merchants bought them at the market price.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 9:28; Deuteronomy 17:16; Isaiah 31:1

29 A chariot from Egypt cost 600 shekels of silver, and a horse cost 150. They exported these to all the kings of the Hittites and to the kings of Aram.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 1:17; 1 Kings 9:19; Deuteronomy 17:16

Key Lessons from 1 Kings Chapter 10

- True wisdom is a gift from God, not man-made. → The Queen of Sheba was astonished not only by Solomon's wealth but by the wisdom that reflected God's hand. → James 1:5 — "If you need wisdom, ask our generous God."
- Blessings should point others to God. → Solomon's kingdom made the Queen of Sheba praise the God of Israel. → Matthew 5:16 — Let your light shine that others may glorify your Father in heaven.
- Earthly splendor cannot compare to eternal worth. → Solomon's unmatched luxury could not save him from future downfall. → 1 Timothy 6:17 — "Don't put your hope in uncertain riches."
- A grateful heart recognizes God's faithfulness. → Even a foreign queen recognized that Solomon's success was God-given. → Psalms 67:2 — "May your ways be known throughout the earth."
- Wealth can be a tool or a trap. → Solomon's riches brought him fame, but they also laid the groundwork for his future pride and idolatry. → Proverbs 11:28 — "Trust in your money and down you go."

Solomon's Fall and the Rise of Adversaries

Solomon's Heart Turns Away

(Verses 1–8)

1 But King Solomon loved many foreign women, including the daughter of Pharaoh, as well as women from the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians, and Hittites—

Cross References: Deuteronomy 17:17; Nehemiah 13:26; 1 Kings 3:1

2 from nations about which the Lord had told the Israelites, "You must not marry them, and they must not marry you, for they will surely turn your hearts away after their gods." Yet Solomon clung to these women in love.

Cross References: Exodus 34:16; Deuteronomy 7:3; Joshua 23:12

3 He had 700 wives of royal birth and 300 concubines, and his wives led him astray.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 17:17; Nehemiah 13:26; Song of Solomon 6:8

4 In his old age, Solomon's wives turned his heart after other gods, and his heart was not fully devoted to the Lord his God, as the heart of David his father had been.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 17:17; 1 Kings 15:3; 2 Kings 23:13

5 He followed Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians and Milcom the detestable god of the Ammonites.

Cross References: Judges 10:6; 2 Kings 23:13; 1 Kings 11:33

6 So Solomon did evil in the sight of the Lord; he did not follow the Lord completely as David his father had done.

Cross References: 1 Kings 3:14; 1 Kings 9:4; 2 Kings 23:13

7 On a hill east of Jerusalem, Solomon built a high place for Chemosh, the detestable god of Moab, and for Molech, the abomination of the Ammonites.

Cross References: Numbers 21:29; Leviticus 18:21; 2 Kings 23:13

8 He did the same for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and made sacrifices to their gods.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 12:30; 2 Kings 23:13; Exodus 34:16

God's Judgment Announced

(Verses 9–13)

9 The Lord became angry with Solomon because his heart had turned away from the Lord God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice

Cross References: 1 Kings 3:5; 1 Kings 9:2; 1 Kings 9:6

10 and had commanded him not to follow other gods. But Solomon did not obey the Lord's command.

Cross References: 1 Kings 6:12; Deuteronomy 17:17; Exodus 20:3

11 Therefore the Lord said to Solomon, "Because you have done this and have not kept my covenant and decrees, I will surely tear the kingdom away from you and give it to one of your servants.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 15:28; 1 Kings 12:15; 1 Kings 14:8

12 Nevertheless, for the sake of David your father, I will not do it during your lifetime. I will tear it out of the hand of your son.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 7:15; 1 Kings 11:34; 2 Kings 20:19

13 Even so, I will not take away the entire kingdom; I will give one tribe to your son for the sake of David and for the sake of Jerusalem, which I have chosen."

Cross References: 2 Samuel 7:16; 1 Kings 11:32; 1 Kings 11:36

Enemies Rise Against Solomon

(Verses 14–25)

14 Then the Lord raised up an adversary against Solomon—Hadad the Edomite, a member of the royal family of Edom.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 8:14; 1 Kings 11:23; 1 Kings 11:25

15 Earlier, when David had been in Edom, Joab the commander of the army had gone to bury the dead and struck down every male in Edom.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 8:13; 1 Chronicles 18:12; Psalm 60:1

16 Joab and all Israel stayed there for six months until every male in Edom was killed.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 8:14; 1 Chronicles 18:12; Numbers 24:18

17 But Hadad fled to Egypt with some Edomite servants of his father, while he was still a boy.

Cross References: Exodus 2:15; 1 Kings 11:40; Genesis 27:43

18 They set out from Midian and went to Paran, taking people with them, and came to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave Hadad a house, land, and provisions.

Cross References: Genesis 21:21; Numbers 10:12; Genesis 12:10

19 Pharaoh was so pleased with Hadad that he gave him in marriage the sister of his own wife, Queen Tahpenes.

Cross References: Genesis 41:45; 1 Kings 3:1; Genesis 41:37

20 She bore him a son named Genubath, whom Tahpenes raised in Pharaoh's palace among Pharaoh's own sons.

Cross References: Genesis 41:50; Exodus 2:10; Genesis 48:5

21 While in Egypt, Hadad learned that David and Joab were dead. He said to Pharaoh, "Let me go back to my homeland."

Cross References: Exodus 4:19; 1 Kings 2:34; 2 Samuel 7:12

22 Pharaoh asked, "What do you lack here with me that you want to return to your own land?" Hadad replied, "Nothing, but please let me go."

Cross References: Genesis 30:27; 1 Kings 11:14; 1 Kings 11:25

23 God also raised up another adversary, Rezon son of Eliadah, who had fled from his master Hadadezer, king of Zobah.

Cross References: 1 Kings 11:14; 2 Samuel 8:3; 1 Kings 11:25

24 Rezon gathered men and became leader of a band after David defeated the forces of Zobah. He went to Damascus, settled there, and became king.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 8:6; 1 Kings 15:18; 2 Samuel 8:3

25 He was Israel's enemy as long as Solomon lived, adding to the trouble caused by Hadad. Rezon ruled over Aram and loathed Israel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 11:14; 1 Kings 11:23; 1 Kings 15:18

Jeroboam's Rise and Prophecy

(Verses 26–40)

26 Another adversary was Jeroboam son of Nebat, an Ephraimite from Zeredah. His mother was Zeruah, a widow. He was one of Solomon's officials but rebelled against the king.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:2; 2 Chronicles 13:6; 1 Kings 11:40

27 Here is the story behind his rebellion: Solomon had built the Millo and repaired the wall of the City of David.

Cross References: 1 Kings 9:15; 1 Kings 9:24; 2 Samuel 5:9

28 Jeroboam was a capable man. When Solomon saw how industrious he was, he put him in charge of the entire labor force of the tribes of Joseph.

Cross References: 1 Kings 5:13; 1 Kings 12:4; 1 Kings 11:26

29 About that time, the prophet Ahijah from Shiloh met Jeroboam on the road. He was wearing a new cloak, and the two of them were alone in the field.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 15:27; 1 Kings 14:2; 1 Kings 11:31

30 Ahijah took hold of the new cloak he was wearing and tore it into twelve pieces.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 15:27; 1 Kings 11:31; 1 Kings 12:20

31 Then he said to Jeroboam, "Take ten pieces for yourself, for this is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: I am going to tear the kingdom out of Solomon's hand and give you ten tribes.

Cross References: 1 Kings 11:11; 1 Kings 12:15; 1 Samuel 15:28

32 (But for the sake of my servant David and the city of Jerusalem, I will leave one tribe for his son.)

Cross References: 1 Kings 11:13; 1 Kings 11:36; 2 Samuel 7:16

33 For they have forsaken me and worshiped Ashtoreth, Chemosh, and Milcom, and they have not walked in my ways nor kept my commandments as David did.

Cross References: 1 Kings 11:5; 1 Kings 11:7; 2 Kings 23:13

34 I will not take the whole kingdom from him, but I will let him remain ruler all his life for the sake of David, whom I chose and who obeyed my commands.

Cross References: 1 Kings 11:12; 1 Kings 11:13; 2 Samuel 7:15

35 But I will take the kingdom from his son and give you ten tribes.

Cross References: 1 Kings 11:31; 1 Kings 12:20; 1 Kings 11:13

36 I will give one tribe to his son so that David may always have a lamp before me in Jerusalem, the city I chose to put my name.

Cross References: 2 Kings 8:19; 1 Kings 15:4; 1 Kings 11:13

37 As for you, I will take you, and you shall rule over all that your heart desires—you shall be king over Israel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 11:31; 2 Samuel 7:8; 1 Kings 14:7

38 If you do whatever I command, walk in my ways, and do what is right, I will be with you. I will build you a lasting dynasty as I did for David and give Israel to you.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 7:11; 1 Kings 3:14; Deuteronomy 17:19

39 I will humble David's descendants because of this, but not forever."

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:24; 2 Samuel 7:14; 1 Kings 11:13

40 Solomon tried to kill Jeroboam, but Jeroboam fled to Egypt to Shishak king of Egypt and stayed there until Solomon died.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 12:2; 1 Kings 14:25; Exodus 2:15

The End of Solomon's Reign

(Verses 41–43)

41 The rest of the events of Solomon's reign, all he did, and his wisdom, are recorded in the Book of the Acts of Solomon.

Cross References: 1 Kings 4:32; 2 Chronicles 9:29; 1 Kings 14:29

42 Solomon ruled in Jerusalem over all Israel for forty years.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 9:30; 1 Kings 2:11; 1 Chronicles 29:27

43 Then Solomon died and was buried in the city of his father David. His son Rehoboam succeeded him as king.

Key Lessons from 1 Kings Chapter 11

- No one is above falling → Even Solomon, the wisest man, allowed his heart to turn from God. → 1 Corinthians 10:12 — "If you think you are standing strong, be careful not to fall."
- Love for the world can lead to ruin → Solomon's many wives led him into idolatry. → 1 John 2:15 — "Do not love the world or anything in the world."
- God disciplines out of covenant faithfulness → The kingdom was torn from Solomon's line because of sin, but not entirely for David's sake. → Hebrews 12:6 — "The Lord disciplines the one He loves."
- Disobedience has generational consequences → Solomon's disobedience brought division in the kingdom for his descendants. → Exodus 20:5–6 — God visits iniquity to the third and fourth generation, but shows mercy to thousands who love Him.

- God raises leaders for His purposes—even in judgment → Jeroboam’s rise and the adversaries were ordained by God as instruments of correction. → Daniel 2:21 — “He removes kings and raises up others.”

The Kingdom Divides: Rehoboam’s Pride and Jeroboam’s Idolatry

Rehoboam’s Harsh Reply Divides the Nation

(Verses 1–15)

1 Rehoboam went to Shechem, where all Israel had gathered to make him king.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 10:1; Joshua 24:1; 1 Kings 11:43

2 When Jeroboam son of Nebat heard about it—he was still in Egypt where he had fled from King Solomon—he returned.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 10:2; 1 Kings 11:40; 1 Kings 11:26

3 The people summoned Jeroboam, and together they came to Rehoboam and said,

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 10:3; 1 Kings 12:20; 1 Kings 11:31

4 “Your father put a heavy yoke on us. Now lighten the harsh labor and heavy burden he placed on us, and we will serve you.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 10:4; 1 Kings 4:7; 1 Kings 5:13

5 Rehoboam replied, “Go away for three days and then return to me.” So the people departed.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 10:5; 1 Kings 12:12; 1 Kings 12:24

6 Then Rehoboam consulted the elders who had served Solomon his father: “How do you advise me to answer these people?”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 10:6; Proverbs 11:14; 1 Kings 12:8

7 They replied, “If you will be a servant to these people today, and serve them, and give them a kind answer, they will be your loyal subjects forever.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 10:7; Proverbs 15:1; Matthew 20:26

8 But Rehoboam rejected the advice of the elders and consulted the young men who had grown up with him.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 10:8; Proverbs 1:25; 1 Kings 12:6

9 “What do you advise?” he asked them. “How should we respond to the people who say, ‘Lighten the burden your father placed on us’?”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 10:9; 1 Kings 12:4; 1 Kings 12:6

10 The young men replied, “Tell them: ‘My little finger is thicker than my father’s waist.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 10:10; 1 Kings 12:4; 1 Kings 12:14

11 My father laid on you a heavy yoke; I will make it heavier. He chastised you with whips, but I will discipline you with scorpions.’”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 10:11; 1 Kings 12:14; Deuteronomy 17:20 12 So on the third day, Jeroboam and all the people returned to Rehoboam as he had requested.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 10:12; 1 Kings 12:5; 1 Kings 12:24

13 The king answered the people harshly and rejected the elders’ advice.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 10:13; 1 Kings 12:8; Proverbs 15:1

14 He spoke according to the young men’s counsel, saying, “My father made your yoke heavy; I will make it heavier. My father chastised you with whips; I will do so with scorpions.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 10:14; 1 Kings 12:4; 1 Kings 12:11

15 The king did not listen to the people, for this turn of events was from the Lord, to fulfill the word spoken through Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 10:15; 1 Kings 11:31; 1 Kings 11:11

Israel Rebels Against the House of David

(Verses 16–24)

16 When all Israel saw that the king had refused to listen, they responded, “What share do we have in David? We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse. To your tents, O Israel! Look after your own house, David!” So the people of Israel went home.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 10:16; 2 Samuel 20:1; 1 Kings 12:19

17 But Rehoboam still ruled over the Israelites living in the cities of Judah.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 10:17; 1 Kings 11:13; 1 Kings 11:32

18 Then King Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was in charge of forced labor, but the people of Israel stoned him to death. King Rehoboam quickly mounted his chariot and fled to Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 10:18; 1 Kings 4:6; 1 Kings 5:14

19 So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 10:19; 2 Kings 17:21; 1 Kings 12:16

20 When the Israelites heard that Jeroboam had returned, they summoned him to the assembly and made him king over all Israel. Only the tribe of Judah remained loyal to David’s house.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 13:6; 1 Kings 11:31; 1 Kings 11:35

21 Rehoboam returned to Jerusalem and mustered the whole house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin —180,000 chosen warriors—to fight against Israel and restore the kingdom.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 11:1; 1 Kings 11:13; 1 Kings 15:6

22 But God's word came to Shemaiah the man of God:

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 11:2; 1 Kings 13:1; 1 Samuel 9:6

23 "Say to Rehoboam son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all the people of Judah and Benjamin:

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 11:3; 1 Kings 12:21; 1 Kings 14:21

24 This is what the Lord says: Do not go up to fight against your brothers the Israelites. Go home, every one of you, for this is my doing." So they obeyed the Lord and went home.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 11:4; 1 Kings 12:15; Proverbs 21:1

Jeroboam Leads Israel into Idolatry

(Verses 25–33)

25 Jeroboam fortified Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim and lived there. He also built up Penuel.

Cross References: Judges 8:8; Genesis 32:30; Joshua 17:7

26 Jeroboam thought to himself, "If the people go up to offer sacrifices at the temple of the Lord in Jerusalem, their loyalty will return to Rehoboam, and they will kill me."

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 11:16; 1 Kings 12:27; 1 Kings 11:31

27 So the king made two golden calves and said to the people, "It is too much for you to go to Jerusalem. Here are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up from Egypt."

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 11:16; Deuteronomy 12:5; 1 Kings 12:26

28 He set one calf in Bethel and the other in Dan.

Cross References: Exodus 32:4; 2 Chronicles 11:15; Hosea 8:5

29 This became a great sin, for the people worshiped the idols, traveling as far as Dan.

Cross References: 2 Kings 10:29; Amos 4:4; Judges 18:30

30 Jeroboam also built shrines on high places and appointed priests from all sorts of people, even though they were not Levites.

Cross References: Hosea 8:5; 2 Kings 17:21; Exodus 32:8

31 He instituted a festival on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, like the one held in Judah, and offered sacrifices on the altar.

Cross References: Numbers 3:10; 2 Chronicles 11:14; 2 Chronicles 13:9

32 At Bethel he sacrificed to the calves he had made and installed priests at the high places he had set up.

Cross References: Leviticus 23:34; 2 Chronicles 11:15; Amos 7:13

33 So on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, a date of his own choosing, Jeroboam offered sacrifices on the altar at Bethel. He burned incense and established a festival for the Israelites.

Cross References: 1 Kings 13:1; Amos 4:4; 1 Kings 12:32

Key Lessons from 1 Kings Chapter 12

- Leadership demands humility, not pride → Rehoboam's harshness cost him ten tribes of Israel. → Proverbs 15:1 — "A gentle answer turns away wrath."
- Listening to wise counsel brings stability → The elders gave wise advice, but Rehoboam chose flattery over wisdom. → Proverbs 11:14 — "In the multitude of counselors there is safety."
- God's plans often unfold through human failure → The split of the kingdom was God's will, even though it came through poor decisions. → Romans 8:28 — "God works all things together for good..."
- Fear leads to compromise and sin → Jeroboam feared losing control, so he turned to idolatry to hold on to power. → Proverbs 29:25 — "The fear of man lays a snare."
- False worship is attractive but destructive → Jeroboam's golden calves made worship convenient but led to national sin. → Exodus 20:4-5 — "You shall not make for yourself a carved image."

A Prophet's Warning and a Tragic Lesson in Obedience

A Man of God Confronts the Altar in Bethel

(Verses 1–5)

1 A man of God came from Judah to Bethel by the Lord's command. Jeroboam was standing by the altar to burn incense.

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:15; 1 Kings 12:33; 1 Kings 12:32

2 The man of God cried out against the altar: "O altar, altar! This is what the Lord says: 'A child named Josiah will be born into the house of David. On you he will sacrifice the priests of the high places who burn incense here. Human bones will be burned on you.'"

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:16; 2 Chronicles 34:5; Isaiah 46:9

3 He gave a sign that day: "This is the sign the Lord has spoken—this altar will split apart, and the ashes on it will spill out."

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:16; Isaiah 7:11; Exodus 4:8

4 When King Jeroboam heard the message from the man of God, he stretched out his hand from the altar and said, "Seize him!" But the hand he stretched out withered and he couldn't pull it back.

Cross References: Exodus 15:26; 2 Chronicles 26:19; Zechariah 11:17

5 At that moment, the altar split and the ashes poured out—just as the man of God had said would happen by the word of the Lord.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 18:22; 1 Kings 13:3; Isaiah 44:26

A Prophet Refuses the King's Hospitality

(Verses 6–10)

6 Jeroboam pleaded with the man of God, “Pray to the Lord your God and ask Him to restore my hand!” The man of God prayed, and the king’s hand was healed and returned to normal.

Cross References: James 5:16; Genesis 20:17; Exodus 8:8

7 The king said, “Come home with me and refresh yourself—I’ll reward you.”

Cross References: Numbers 22:17; 2 Kings 5:15; 1 Kings 13:15

8 But the man of God replied, “Even if you gave me half your palace, I wouldn’t go with you. I will not eat or drink anything in this place.

Cross References: 2 Kings 5:16; Numbers 22:18; 1 Kings 13:9

9 The Lord commanded me: ‘Do not eat bread or drink water or return by the same way you came.’”

Cross References: Numbers 22:20; 1 Samuel 15:22; 1 Kings 13:17

10 So he took another route and did not return by the way he had come to Bethel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 13:9; Proverbs 4:14; 1 Kings 13:17

A Deceptive Prophet Brings Disaster

(Verses 11–24)

11 Now an old prophet lived in Bethel. His sons told him everything the man of God had done and said.

Cross References: 1 Kings 13:1; 2 Kings 2:3; Amos 7:13

12 The old prophet asked, “Which way did he go?” They showed him the direction.

Cross References: 1 Kings 13:14; 1 Kings 13:9; 1 Kings 13:17

13 He said, “Saddle my donkey.” They did so, and he rode after the man of God.

Cross References: 1 Kings 13:23; Numbers 22:21; 2 Kings 4:24

14 He found him sitting under an oak tree and asked, “Are you the man of God who came from Judah?” “Yes, I am,” he replied.

Cross References: 1 Kings 19:4; 1 Kings 13:1; Judges 4:5

15 “Come home with me and eat bread,” the old prophet said.

Cross References: 1 Kings 13:7; Genesis 19:2; Judges 19:20 16 The man of God answered, “I can’t go back with you or eat or drink here.

Cross References: 1 Kings 13:8; Numbers 22:18; 1 Kings 13:17

17 God told me, ‘Don’t eat or drink anything there, and don’t return by the way you came.’”

Cross References: 1 Kings 13:9; 1 Kings 20:35; Deuteronomy 4:2

18 The old prophet lied: “I too am a prophet, and an angel told me by the Lord’s word to bring you back to my house to eat and drink.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:22; Galatians 1:8; 1 John 4:1

19 So the man of God went back with him and ate and drank in his home.

Cross References: 1 Kings 13:9; 1 Kings 13:17; Genesis 3:6

20 While they were sitting at the table, the word of the Lord came to the old prophet.

Cross References: Numbers 22:35; 1 Kings 13:26; Jeremiah 1:9

21 He cried out to the man of God: “This is what the Lord says: ‘You disobeyed God’s command and came back to eat and drink where you were told not to.

Cross References: 1 Kings 20:36; Deuteronomy 13:1; 1 Samuel 15:22

22 Therefore, your body will not be buried in your family tomb.’”

Cross References: 1 Kings 13:9; Deuteronomy 28:26; Jeremiah 22:19

23 After they had eaten, the prophet saddled the man’s donkey for him.

Cross References: 1 Kings 13:13; 1 Kings 13:27; Numbers 22:21

24 As he was on his way, a lion met him and killed him. His body was left on the road, with the donkey and the lion standing beside it.

Cross References: 1 Kings 20:36; 2 Kings 17:25; 1 Kings 13:26

The Prophet Mourns and Honors the Man of God

(Verses 25–32)

25 People passed by and saw the body lying in the road with the lion and the donkey beside it. Word reached the old prophet.

Cross References: 1 Kings 13:24; 1 Kings 13:11; 1 Kings 13:28

26 When he heard it, he said, “It is the man of God who disobeyed the Lord. The Lord gave him to the lion, as He warned.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 13:21; 1 Kings 13:9; Numbers 22:32

27 He told his sons, “Saddle the donkey.” They did.

Cross References: 1 Kings 13:13; 1 Kings 13:23; 1 Kings 13:24

28 He found the body in the road, with the donkey and lion still standing there. The lion hadn’t eaten the body or harmed the donkey.

Cross References: 1 Kings 13:24; 1 Kings 13:25; Numbers 22:23

29 The prophet picked up the body and laid it on the donkey, bringing it back to mourn and bury him.

Cross References: Genesis 50:1; 1 Kings 13:30; 2 Kings 23:17

30 He laid him in his own tomb and mourned over him: “Alas, my brother!”

Cross References: Genesis 23:2; Jeremiah 22:18; 1 Kings 13:31 31 He told his sons, “When I die, bury me beside this man of God.

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:17; 1 Kings 13:2; Genesis 50:25

32 Everything he spoke by the word of the Lord against Bethel’s altar and high places in Samaria will come true.”

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:19; 1 Kings 13:2; 2 Kings 17:24

Jeroboam Continues in Sin

(Verses 33–34)

33 Despite all this, Jeroboam didn’t turn from his evil ways. He continued to appoint anyone as priests for the high places.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:31; 1 Kings 12:33; 2 Chronicles 13:9

34 This became a great sin, and it eventually led to the downfall and destruction of Jeroboam’s dynasty.

Cross References: 1 Kings 14:10; 1 Kings 15:29; 1 Kings 16:12

Key Lessons from 1 Kings Chapter 13

- God confirms His word through powerful signs → The altar broke apart exactly as prophesied. → Isaiah 55:11 — “My word will not return to me empty...”
- Obedience to God must be complete, not partial → The prophet disobeyed a direct command and died for it. → 1 Samuel 15:22 — “To obey is better than sacrifice.”
- Not everyone who claims to speak for God is telling the truth → The old prophet lied, and it cost the man of God his life. → 1 John 4:1 — “Test the spirits to see whether they are from God.”
- Even when forgiven, consequences may still follow disobedience → The man of God’s mission succeeded, but his life was cut short. → Galatians 6:7 — “A man reaps what he sows.”
- Sin tolerated in leadership brings judgment on a nation → Jeroboam continued his idolatry, sealing his family’s fate. → Proverbs 14:34 — “Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a reproach...”

The Fall of Two Kings: Jeroboam’s Judgment and Rehoboam’s Shame

A Sick Child and a Prophet's Revelation

(Verses 1–6)

1 At that time, Abijah, the son of King Jeroboam, became very sick.

Cross References: 1 Kings 14:12; 2 Samuel 12:15; 1 Kings 13:34

2 Jeroboam told his wife, “Disguise yourself so no one knows you’re my wife. Go to Shiloh, where the prophet Ahijah lives. He’s the one who told me I would be king over Israel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 11:31; 1 Samuel 28:8; 1 Kings 14:4

3 Take ten loaves of bread, some cakes, and a jar of honey. Go to him—he will tell you what will happen to our child.”

Cross References: 1 Samuel 9:7; 2 Kings 4:42; 2 Kings 8:8

4 So Jeroboam’s wife went to Shiloh and came to Ahijah’s house. By this time, Ahijah was blind due to old age.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 4:15; Genesis 27:1; 1 Samuel 3:2

5 But the Lord told Ahijah, “Jeroboam’s wife is coming to ask you about her son, who is sick. Here’s what you are to say to her. When she arrives, she will pretend to be someone else.”

Cross References: 2 Kings 8:10; 2 Kings 5:26; 1 Samuel 16:7

6 As soon as she walked through the door, Ahijah said, “Come in, wife of Jeroboam! Why are you pretending to be someone else? I have a harsh message for you.”

God’s Judgment on Jeroboam’s House

(Verses 7–18)

7 “Go back and tell Jeroboam, ‘This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: I raised you from among the people and made you ruler over My people Israel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:2; 2 Samuel 7:8; 1 Kings 11:37

8 I tore the kingdom away from the house of David and gave it to you. But you have not been like My servant David, who kept My commandments and followed Me with all his heart.

Cross References: 1 Kings 11:11; 1 Kings 11:38; 1 Kings 15:5

9 Instead, you have done more evil than all who came before you. You made other gods, cast metal idols, and turned your back on Me.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:28; 2 Kings 17:16; Nehemiah 9:26

10 So I am going to bring disaster on your household. I will wipe out every male in your family, both slave and free. I will sweep away your dynasty like someone burns up dung until none is left.

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:3; 1 Kings 21:21; 2 Kings 9:8

11 Those who die in the city will be eaten by dogs. Those who die in the fields will be eaten by birds. The Lord has spoken.’

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:4; 1 Kings 21:24; 2 Kings 9:36

12 As for you, go home. The moment your feet enter the city, your child will die.

Cross References: 1 Kings 14:17; 1 Kings 13:34; 2 Samuel 12:14

13 All Israel will mourn for him and bury him. He is the only one in your family who will have a proper burial, because in him the Lord found something good.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 12:19; 1 Kings 14:18; 1 Kings 14:1

14 The Lord will raise up a king over Israel who will destroy the house of Jeroboam—sooner than you think.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:28; 1 Kings 16:9; 2 Kings 9:6

15 The Lord will strike Israel like a reed shaken in the water. He will uproot them from this good land and scatter them beyond the Euphrates River, because they made Asherah poles and provoked the Lord to anger.

Cross References: 2 Kings 17:6; 2 Kings 17:16; Deuteronomy 29:28

16 He will give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam, who caused Israel to sin.”

Cross References: 2 Kings 17:21; 1 Kings 15:30; 1 Kings 16:19

17 Jeroboam’s wife returned to Tirzah. Just as she stepped through the door, the child died.

Cross References: 1 Kings 14:12; 1 Kings 15:21; 1 Kings 16:8

18 They buried him, and all Israel mourned, just as the Lord had said through the prophet Ahijah.

The Deaths of Jeroboam and Rehoboam

(Verses 19–20, 29–31)

19 The rest of Jeroboam’s story—his wars and his reign—are recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:31; 2 Chronicles 9:29; 1 Kings 11:41

20 He reigned for twenty-two years. Then he died, and his son Nadab became king after him. ...

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:25; 1 Kings 15:28; 1 Kings 11:26

29 The rest of Rehoboam’s actions are recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 12:15; 1 Kings 11:41; 1 Kings 15:7

30 There was constant war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 12:15; 1 Kings 15:6; 1 Kings 15:16

31 Rehoboam died and was buried in the City of David. His mother's name was Naamah, an Ammonite woman. His son Abijam succeeded him.

Rehoboam's Reign in Judah

(Verses 21–28)

21 Meanwhile, Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, ruled in Judah. He was forty-one years old when he began to reign and ruled for seventeen years in Jerusalem—the city the Lord had chosen from all the tribes of Israel to place His Name. His mother was Naamah the Ammonitess.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 12:13; 1 Kings 11:36; 1 Kings 11:43

22 But Judah did evil in the Lord's sight. They provoked Him more than their ancestors ever had.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 12:1; Deuteronomy 32:21; 1 Kings 14:9

23 They built pagan shrines, sacred pillars, and Asherah poles on every high hill and under every green tree.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 12:1; Deuteronomy 12:2; Jeremiah 2:20 24 Male shrine prostitutes were in the land. They committed the same detestable practices as the nations the Lord had driven out before the Israelites.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 23:17; 2 Kings 23:7; 1 Kings 15:12

25 In the fifth year of Rehoboam's reign, Shishak king of Egypt attacked Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 12:2; 1 Kings 11:40; 2 Chronicles 12:9

26 He took all the treasures of the Lord's temple and the royal palace—including the gold shields Solomon had made.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 12:9; 1 Kings 10:16; 2 Chronicles 9:15

27 So Rehoboam made bronze shields to replace them and entrusted them to the guards at the palace gates.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 12:10; 1 Kings 10:17; 2 Chronicles 12:9

28 Whenever the king went to the Lord's temple, the guards carried the shields and then returned them to the guardroom.

The Rise of Asa and the Fall of Jeroboam’s House

Abijam’s Short Reign in Judah

(Verses 1–8)

1 In the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam of Israel, Abijam became king of Judah.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 13:1; 1 Kings 14:31; 2 Chronicles 12:16

2 He ruled in Jerusalem for three years. His mother was Maacah, the granddaughter of Absalom.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 13:2; 2 Chronicles 11:20; 1 Kings 15:10

3 Abijam followed all the sins of his father before him. His heart was not fully devoted to the Lord his God, like the heart of David his forefather.

Cross References: 1 Kings 11:4; 1 Kings 14:22; 1 Kings 15:14

4 Yet, for David’s sake, the Lord gave him a “lamp” in Jerusalem—allowing his son to rule and maintaining Jerusalem—

Cross References: 1 Kings 11:36; 2 Samuel 21:17; Psalm 132:17

5 because David had done what was right in the Lord’s eyes and had not turned aside from His commands all the days of his life, except in the matter of Uriah the Hittite.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 12:9; Psalm 51:1; 1 Kings 14:8

6 There was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam throughout Abijam’s life.

Cross References: 1 Kings 14:30; 2 Chronicles 12:15; 1 Kings 15:7

7 The rest of Abijam’s acts are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah. There was also war between Abijam and Jeroboam.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 13:3; 2 Chronicles 13:20; 1 Kings 14:19

8 Abijam died and was buried in the City of David, and his son Asa became king.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 14:1; 1 Kings 15:24; Matthew 1:7

Asa's Righteous Reign

(Verses 9–15)

9 In the twentieth year of Jeroboam's reign, Asa became king of Judah.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 14:1; 1 Kings 15:1; 2 Chronicles 16:13

10 He ruled for forty-one years in Jerusalem. His mother was Maacah, the granddaughter of Absalom.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 15:16; 1 Kings 15:2; 2 Chronicles 14:1

11 Asa did what was right in the eyes of the Lord, as David his ancestor had done.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 14:2; 1 Kings 15:3; 2 Kings 18:3

12 He expelled the male shrine prostitutes from the land and removed all the idols his fathers had made.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 14:3; Deuteronomy 23:17; 1 Kings 14:24

13 He even removed his mother Maacah from being queen because she had made an obscene Asherah pole. Asa cut it down and burned it in the Kidron Valley.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 15:16; 2 Kings 23:6; Exodus 20:3

14 Although the high places were not removed, Asa's heart remained fully devoted to the Lord all his life.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 15:17; 1 Kings 15:3; 1 Kings 22:43

15 He brought into the Lord's temple the silver, gold, and sacred items that he and his father had dedicated.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 15:18; 1 Kings 7:51; 2 Samuel 8:11

Asa's Conflict with Baasha

(Verses 16–24)

16 There was constant war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 16:1; 1 Kings 15:32; 1 Kings 15:6

17 Baasha fortified Ramah to block anyone from leaving or entering Asa's territory.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 16:1; Joshua 18:25; 1 Kings 15:22

18 So Asa took all the silver and gold remaining in the temple and palace treasuries and sent it to Ben-Hadad, king of Aram (Syria), who ruled in Damascus.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 16:2; 2 Chronicles 16:7; 1 Kings 15:19

19 Asa said, "Let there be a treaty between you and me as there was between our fathers. Break your treaty with Baasha so he will withdraw from me."

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 16:3; 1 Kings 20:34; 2 Chronicles 16:7

20 Ben-Hadad agreed and attacked the northern cities of Israel: Ijon, Dan, Abel-beth-maacah, all of Chinnereth, and the entire region of Naphtali.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 16:4; 2 Kings 15:29; Judges 18:29

21 When Baasha heard this, he abandoned his work on Ramah and moved to Tirzah.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 16:5; 1 Kings 14:17; 1 Kings 16:6

22 King Asa then drafted all of Judah—no one was exempt—to dismantle Ramah's stones and timber. He used them to fortify Geba and Mizpah.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 16:6; Joshua 18:24; 1 Kings 15:17

23 All Asa's acts, his power, and the cities he built are recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah. In his old age, Asa developed a disease in his feet.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 16:12; 2 Chronicles 16:9; 1 Kings 15:14

24 He died and was buried with his ancestors in the City of David, and his son Jehoshaphat succeeded him.

The Fall of Nadab and the Rise of Baasha

(Verses 25–34)

25 Nadab son of Jeroboam became king of Israel in the second year of Asa and ruled for two years.

Cross References: 1 Kings 14:20; 1 Kings 15:28; 1 Kings 14:9

26 He did evil in the sight of the Lord, continuing in his father's sin that led Israel into sin.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:28; 1 Kings 14:16; 2 Kings 17:21

27 Baasha son of Ahijah, from the tribe of Issachar, conspired against him. While Nadab and the army were besieging Gibbethon (a Philistine city),

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:15; 1 Kings 15:33; Joshua 19:44

28 Baasha killed him in Asa's third year and reigned in his place.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:33; 1 Kings 16:8; 1 Kings 14:14

29 As soon as he became king, Baasha struck down the entire family of Jeroboam, leaving none alive, fulfilling the word of the Lord spoken through Ahijah the Shilonite.

Cross References: 1 Kings 14:10; 1 Kings 14:14; 1 Kings 16:11

30 This happened because of Jeroboam's sins and the sin he caused Israel to commit, provoking the Lord to anger.

Cross References: 1 Kings 14:9; 1 Kings 16:13; Deuteronomy 32:21

31 The rest of Nadab's acts are recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:25; 1 Kings 14:19; 1 Kings 16:5

32 There was war between Asa and Baasha all their days.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:16; 2 Chronicles 16:1; 1 Kings 15:17

33 In Asa's third year, Baasha began to reign in Tirzah and ruled for twenty-four years.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:28; 1 Kings 16:6; 1 Kings 16:8

34 He did evil in the Lord's sight, following Jeroboam's sin and leading Israel to sin.

Key Lessons from 1 Kings Chapter 15

1. God shows mercy for the sake of His covenant → Judah was preserved “for David’s sake,” showing the lasting power of God’s promises. → 2 Samuel 7:15–16 2. Personal devotion matters even if the nation falters → Asa’s heart was perfect toward God even though high places remained. → 2 Chronicles 16:9 3. Righteousness may require hard decisions → Asa removed his own mother from authority because of idolatry. → Matthew 10:37 4. Sinful legacies bring destruction → Jeroboam’s sin resulted in the total annihilation of his family. → Galatians 6:7 5. Political alliances reveal spiritual compromise → Asa relied on Ben-Hadad rather than fully trusting the Lord in battle. → Psalms 20:7

1 Kings Chapter 16 — Crawford Standard Bible

From Baasha to Ahab: The Steady Fall of Israel

The Judgment Against Baasha

(Verses 1–7)

1 Then the word of the Lord came to Jehu son of Hanani, against Baasha, saying,

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 19:2; 1 Kings 14:7; 2 Chronicles 20:34

2 “I lifted you out of the dust and made you ruler over my people Israel. But you walked in the way of Jeroboam, leading my people to sin and provoking me to anger.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 2:8; 1 Kings 14:7; 1 Kings 16:19

3 Therefore, I will wipe out your descendants and make your house like the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat.

Cross References: 1 Kings 14:10; 1 Kings 21:21; 2 Kings 9:9

4 Anyone of yours who dies in the city will be eaten by dogs, and anyone who dies in the field will be eaten by the birds of the sky.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 14:11; 1 Kings 21:24; 2 Kings 9:36

5 The rest of Baasha's deeds and his might are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:16; 1 Kings 16:1; 1 Kings 16:7

6 Baasha died and was buried in Tirzah, and his son Elah became king.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:33; 1 Kings 16:8; 1 Kings 14:17

7 Through the prophet Jehu, the Lord declared judgment against Baasha and his house for his evil, for provoking the Lord to anger with the work of his hands, and for being like Jeroboam's house, which he also destroyed.

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:1; 1 Kings 15:29; 1 Kings 14:10

The Short Reign of Elah and Zimri's Treachery

(Verses 8–20)

8 In Asa's twenty-sixth year as king of Judah, Elah son of Baasha became king of Israel in Tirzah and ruled for two years.

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:6; 1 Kings 16:10; 1 Kings 15:33

9 Zimri, one of his commanders over half the chariots, conspired against him. Elah was in Tirzah, drinking heavily in the house of Arza, the palace steward.

Cross References: 1 Kings 20:16; Proverbs 31:4; 1 Kings 16:16

10 Zimri entered and struck him down in Asa's twenty-seventh year and became king in his place.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:27; 1 Kings 16:18; 2 Kings 9:24

11 Once Zimri took the throne, he killed the entire house of Baasha, leaving not one male relative or friend alive.

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:3; 1 Kings 15:29; 1 Kings 16:4

12 So Zimri destroyed all of Baasha's house, just as the Lord had spoken through Jehu the prophet.

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:1; 1 Kings 16:7; 1 Kings 14:10

13 This happened because of the sins of Baasha and Elah, by which they led Israel into sin and provoked the Lord with their worthless idols.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:30; Deuteronomy 32:21; 1 Kings 16:26

14 The rest of Elah's acts are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:8; 1 Kings 16:9; 1 Kings 16:20

15 Zimri reigned in Tirzah for only seven days. At that time, Israel's army was camped at Gibbethon, a Philistine city.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:27; 1 Kings 16:17; Joshua 19:44

16 When the army heard that Zimri had conspired and killed the king, they proclaimed Omri, the commander of the army, king of Israel that same day in the camp.

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:21; 1 Kings 16:23; 1 Samuel 11:15

17 Omri and all Israel marched from Gibbethon and besieged Tirzah.

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:15; 1 Kings 16:18; 1 Kings 14:17

18 When Zimri saw the city was taken, he went into the citadel of the royal palace, set it on fire around himself, and died.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 31:4; 1 Kings 16:10; Galatians 6:7

19 He perished for his sins—doing evil in the Lord’s sight and following Jeroboam’s ways, leading Israel into sin.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:34; 1 Kings 16:2; 1 Kings 12:30

20 The rest of Zimri’s acts, including his conspiracy, are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:9; 1 Kings 16:18; 2 Kings 9:31

The Rise of Omri

(Verses 21–28)

21 Then the people of Israel split into two factions: half followed Tibni son of Ginath to make him king, and half followed Omri.

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:16; 1 Kings 16:22; 2 Samuel 2:10

22 But Omri’s followers prevailed; Tibni died, and Omri became king.

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:23; 1 Kings 16:16; 2 Samuel 3:1

23 Omri began his reign in Asa’s thirty-first year and ruled over Israel for twelve years, six of them in Tirzah.

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:29; 1 Kings 16:28; Micah 6:16

24 He bought the hill of Samaria from Shemer for two talents of silver, built a city there, and named it Samaria after Shemer, the previous owner.

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:32; 1 Kings 20:1; 2 Kings 17:5

25 Omri did evil in the eyes of the Lord, doing even more evil than all the kings before him.

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:30; Micah 6:16; 1 Kings 16:19

26 He followed Jeroboam’s ways, leading Israel to sin with idolatry and provoking the Lord with their vanities.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:34; 1 Kings 16:13; 1 Kings 16:33

27 Omri’s other deeds and his might are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:23; 1 Kings 16:28; 1 Kings 16:24

28 Omri died and was buried in Samaria, and his son Ahab became king.

The Wickedness of Ahab

(Verses 29–34)

29 In Asa's thirty-eighth year, Ahab son of Omri became king of Israel. He ruled in Samaria for twenty- two years.

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:28; 1 Kings 22:39; 1 Kings 22:51

30 Ahab did more evil in the Lord's sight than all the kings before him.

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:25; 1 Kings 21:25; Micah 6:16

31 As if it were a trivial thing to walk in Jeroboam's sins, he married Jezebel, the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians, and began to serve and worship Baal.

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:19; 1 Kings 21:25; 2 Kings 9:22

32 He built a temple for Baal in Samaria and set up an altar to him.

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:24; 2 Kings 10:27; 2 Kings 3:2

33 Ahab also made an Asherah pole and provoked the Lord God of Israel to anger more than all the kings before him.

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:30; Exodus 34:13; 1 Kings 21:26

34 During Ahab's reign, Hiel of Bethel rebuilt Jericho. He laid its foundation at the cost of his firstborn son, Abiram, and set up its gates at the cost of his youngest son, Segub—fulfilling the word of the Lord spoken by Joshua son of Nun. (See Joshua 6:26.)

Cross References: Joshua 6:26; Joshua 6:21; 2 Kings 2:19

Key Lessons from 1 Kings Chapter 16

1. God raises and removes kings according to His justice → Baasha and Zimri show that power is temporary, but God's word is permanent. → Daniel 2:21 2. Idolatry brings judgment on households and nations → Repeated sins of Jeroboam led to total family destruction. → Exodus 20:5 3. Shortcuts and conspiracies end in self-destruction → Zimri's seven-day reign is a warning that sin is a poor foundation. → Proverbs 10:27 4. Evil escalates when left unchecked → From Jeroboam to Omri to Ahab, each king "did worse than all before him." → Romans 1:24–28 5. God's word is sure, even across centuries → Hiel's loss of his sons fulfilled Joshua's ancient prophecy. → Joshua 6:26; 1 Kings 16:34

1 Kings Chapter 17 — Crawford Standard Bible

Elijah the Tishbite and the God Who Provides and Raises the Dead

Elijah Proclaims a Drought

(Verses 1–7)

1 Elijah the Tishbite, from Gilead, said to Ahab, "As the Lord God of Israel lives, before whom I stand, there will be no dew or rain for these years except at my word."

Cross References: James 5:17; Luke 4:25; Deuteronomy 11:17

2 Then the word of the Lord came to him:

Cross References: 1 Kings 17:8; 1 Kings 18:1; Jeremiah 1:4

3 “Leave here, go eastward, and hide yourself by the brook Cherith, east of the Jordan.

Cross References: 1 Kings 19:4; Psalm 104:10; 1 Kings 19:8

4 You will drink from the brook, and I have commanded the ravens to feed you there.”

Cross References: Job 38:41; Psalm 147:9; Luke 12:24

5 So Elijah obeyed the word of the Lord and stayed by the brook Cherith.

Cross References: 1 Kings 17:3; Hebrews 11:8; 1 Kings 17:10

6 The ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning and in the evening, and he drank from the brook.

Cross References: Exodus 16:12; Psalm 34:10; Matthew 6:26

7 After a time, the brook dried up, because no rain had fallen in the land.

Cross References: 1 Kings 17:1; Amos 4:7; Deuteronomy 28:24

The Widow of Zarephath

(Verses 8–16)

8 Then the word of the Lord came to him:

Cross References: 1 Kings 17:2; 1 Kings 18:1; 2 Kings 1:3

9 “Go at once to Zarephath in Sidon and stay there. I have commanded a widow to supply you with food.”

Cross References: Luke 4:26; Obadiah 1:20; 1 Kings 16:31

10 Elijah went to Zarephath. At the city gate, he saw a widow gathering sticks. He called to her, “Please bring me a little water in a jar, so I may drink.”

Cross References: Genesis 24:17; John 4:7; 1 Kings 17:9

11 As she went to get it, he called again, “And please bring me a piece of bread.”

Cross References: Genesis 18:5; 1 Kings 17:13; Matthew 25:35

12 She replied, “As the Lord your God lives, I have no bread—only a handful of flour in a jar and a little oil in a jug. I am gathering a few sticks to cook this for myself and my son, so we may eat it—and die.”

Cross References: 2 Kings 4:2; 1 Kings 17:14; Ruth 1:21

13 Elijah said to her, “Do not be afraid. Go home and do as you have said. But first make a small loaf for me and bring it to me; afterward, make some for yourself and your son.

Cross References: Matthew 6:33; 2 Kings 4:43; Proverbs 3:9

14 For this is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: ‘The jar of flour will not be used up, and the jug of oil will not run dry until the day the Lord sends rain on the land.’”

Cross References: 1 Kings 17:16; 2 Kings 4:6; Philippians 4:19

15 She went and did as Elijah said, and there was food every day for Elijah, for the woman, and for her household.

Cross References: 1 Kings 17:14; Hebrews 11:6; Luke 4:26

16 The jar of flour was not used up, and the jug of oil did not run dry, in keeping with the word the Lord had spoken through Elijah.

Cross References: 1 Kings 17:14; 2 Kings 4:6; Malachi 3:10

Elijah Raises the Widow’s Son

(Verses 17–24)

17 After these events, the woman’s son became sick. His illness grew so severe that he stopped breathing.

Cross References: 2 Kings 4:20; John 11:14; 1 Kings 17:1

18 She said to Elijah, “What do you have against me, man of God? Have you come to remind me of my sin and kill my son?”

Cross References: John 2:4; Mark 5:7; Luke 5:8

19 Elijah said, “Give me your son.” He took the boy from her arms, carried him to the upper room where he was staying, and laid him on his own bed.

Cross References: 2 Kings 4:21; Luke 7:12; 1 Kings 17:23

20 He cried out to the Lord, “O Lord my God, have you brought tragedy on this widow I am staying with by causing her son to die?”

Cross References: 2 Kings 4:27; Psalm 88:14; John 11:21

21 Then he stretched himself over the child three times and cried out, “O Lord my God, let this child’s life return to him!”

Cross References: 2 Kings 4:34; Acts 20:10; 2 Kings 13:21

22 The Lord heard Elijah’s cry. The child’s life returned, and he revived.

Cross References: 2 Kings 4:35; James 5:16; John 11:43

23 Elijah picked up the child, carried him down from the room into the house, and gave him to his mother. He said, “Look, your son lives!”

Cross References: Luke 7:15; 2 Kings 4:36; Hebrews 11:35

24 Then the woman said to Elijah, “Now I know that you are a man of God and that the word of the Lord from your mouth is the truth.”

Cross References: John 4:19; 1 Kings 17:1; John 11:27

Key Lessons from 1 Kings Chapter 17

1. God is sovereign over nature → He can command droughts, control rain, and sustain His servants. → James 5:17 2. God provides in unexpected ways → He used ravens and a destitute widow to meet Elijah’s needs. → Philippians 4:19 3. Faith requires obedience even when resources seem insufficient → The widow obeyed and saw a miracle of daily provision. → Matthew 6:33 4. God has power over life and death → Elijah’s prayer brought the child back to life, showing God’s compassion. → Hebrews 11:35 5. Trials can lead to deeper faith → The widow recognized God’s truth and Elijah’s calling through her suffering and the miracle. → 1 Peter 1:6–7

Elijah on Mount Carmel: God Answers by Fire

Elijah Confronts Ahab

(Verses 1–16)

1 After many days, in the third year, the word of the Lord came to Elijah: “Go and present yourself to Ahab, and I will send rain on the land.”

Cross References: James 5:18; 1 Kings 17:1; Luke 4:25

2 Elijah went to present himself to Ahab. The famine in Samaria was severe.

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:5; Amos 4:6; 2 Kings 6:25

3 Ahab summoned Obadiah, the palace administrator. (Obadiah feared the Lord greatly.

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:12; Genesis 39:4; Daniel 1:8

4 When Jezebel killed the prophets of the Lord, Obadiah had hidden one hundred prophets in two caves, fifty in each, and supplied them with bread and water.)

Cross References: 1 Kings 19:10; 1 Kings 18:13; Hebrews 11:38

5 Ahab said to Obadiah, “Go through the land to all the springs and valleys. Perhaps we can find grass to keep the horses and mules alive, so we will not have to kill any animals.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:2; Joel 1:18; Jeremiah 14:6

6 They divided the land between them; Ahab went one way, and Obadiah went the other.

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:5; 1 Kings 18:16; Genesis 13:9

7 As Obadiah was on the way, Elijah met him. Obadiah recognized him, bowed, and said, “Is it really you, my lord Elijah?”

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:17; Genesis 18:2; Numbers 22:31

8 “It is,” he replied. “Go tell your master, ‘Elijah is here.’”

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:11; 1 Kings 18:14; 1 Kings 18:15

9 But Obadiah said, “What sin have I committed, that you are handing me over to Ahab to be killed?

Cross References: 1 Kings 19:2; 1 Kings 18:12; Genesis 20:9

10 As surely as the Lord your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom where my master has not sent to look for you. And when they said, ‘He is not here,’ he made them swear that they had not found you.

Cross References: 1 Kings 17:3; 1 Kings 19:14; 1 Kings 18:17

11 And now you tell me to go to my master and say, ‘Elijah is here’?

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:8; 1 Kings 18:14; 1 Kings 18:9

12 I don’t know where the Spirit of the Lord may carry you when I leave. If I go and tell Ahab and he doesn’t find you, he will kill me. Yet I, your servant, have worshiped the Lord since my youth.

Cross References: 2 Kings 2:16; Ezekiel 3:14; 1 Kings 18:3

13 Haven’t you heard, my lord, what I did when Jezebel killed the Lord’s prophets? I hid a hundred of the Lord’s prophets in two caves and supplied them with bread and water.

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:4; 1 Kings 19:10; Matthew 23:37

14 And now you say, ‘Go tell your master, Elijah is here.’ He will kill me!”

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:8; 1 Kings 18:11; 1 Kings 18:9

15 Elijah said, “As the Lord Almighty lives, whom I serve, I will surely present myself to Ahab today.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 17:1; 2 Kings 3:14; 1 Kings 18:1

16 So Obadiah went to meet Ahab and told him, and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:17; 1 Kings 18:6; 1 Kings 18:2

The Showdown on Mount Carmel

(Verses 17–40)

17 When Ahab saw Elijah, he said, “Is that you, you troubler of Israel?”

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:18; Joshua 7:25; Amos 7:10

18 Elijah replied, “I have not troubled Israel, but you and your father’s family have, because you have abandoned the Lord’s commands and followed the Baals.

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:31; 1 Kings 18:17; Deuteronomy 4:23

19 Now summon all Israel to meet me on Mount Carmel, along with the 450 prophets of Baal and the 400 prophets of Asherah, who eat at Jezebel’s table.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:33; 1 Kings 18:22; 1 Kings 18:40

20 So Ahab sent word throughout Israel and assembled the prophets on Mount Carmel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:19; Joshua 24:1; 1 Kings 18:21

21 Elijah approached the people and said, “How long will you waver between two opinions? If the Lord is God, follow Him; but if Baal is God, follow him.” But the people were silent.

Cross References: Joshua 24:15; Matthew 6:24; 1 Kings 18:26

22 Then Elijah said, “I am the only remaining prophet of the Lord, but Baal has 450 prophets.

Cross References: 1 Kings 19:10; 1 Kings 19:18; Romans 11:4

23 Bring us two bulls. Let Baal’s prophets choose one, cut it into pieces, and put it on the wood but not set fire to it. I will prepare the other bull and put it on the wood but not set fire to it.

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:33; Leviticus 1:7; 1 Kings 18:25

24 Then you call on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of the Lord. The God who answers by fire—He is God.” All the people said, “What you say is good.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:38; Leviticus 9:24; 1 Chronicles 21:26

25 Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, “Choose your bull and prepare it first, since there are many of you. Call on the name of your god, but do not light the fire.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:23; 1 Kings 18:26; Jeremiah 2:28

26 They took the bull and prepared it. They called on the name of Baal from morning until noon, shouting, “Baal, answer us!” But there was no voice; no one answered. They danced around the altar they had made.

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:29; Psalm 115:5; Isaiah 46:7

27 At noon, Elijah mocked them. “Shout louder!” he said. “Surely he is a god! Perhaps he is deep in thought, busy, traveling, or maybe he is sleeping and must be awakened!”

Cross References: Psalm 121:4; 1 Kings 18:29; Isaiah 44:17

28 So they shouted louder and cut themselves with swords and spears, as was their custom, until their blood flowed.

Cross References: Leviticus 19:28; Deuteronomy 14:1; 1 Kings 18:29

29 Midday passed, and they continued their frantic prophesying until the time for the evening sacrifice. But there was no response, no one answered, no one paid attention.

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:26; 1 Kings 18:36; Micah 3:4

30 Then Elijah said to all the people, “Come here to me.” They came to him, and he repaired the altar of the Lord, which had been torn down.

Cross References: 1 Kings 19:10; 1 Kings 19:14; Judges 6:28

31 Elijah took twelve stones, one for each of the tribes of Jacob, to whom the word of the Lord had come, saying, “Your name shall be Israel.”

Cross References: Genesis 32:28; Joshua 4:20; Exodus 24:4

32 With the stones he built an altar in the name of the Lord, and he dug a trench around it large enough to hold several gallons of water.

Cross References: Exodus 20:24; 1 Kings 18:30; Judges 6:26

33 He arranged the wood, cut the bull in pieces, and laid it on the wood. Then he said, “Fill four large jars with water and pour it on the offering and the wood.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:23; Leviticus 1:8; 1 Kings 18:34

34 “Do it again,” he said, and they did it again. “Do it a third time,” he ordered, and they did it the third time.

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:33; 2 Kings 13:18; John 21:17

35 The water ran down around the altar and even filled the trench.

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:32; 1 Kings 18:38; Judges 6:38

36 At the time of the evening sacrifice, Elijah stepped forward and prayed: “Lord, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, let it be known today that You are God in Israel, that I am Your servant, and have done all these things at Your command.

Cross References: Exodus 3:6; 1 Kings 18:21; John 17:4

37 Answer me, Lord, answer me, so these people will know that You, Lord, are God, and that You are turning their hearts back again.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:24; Psalm 86:17; Malachi 4:6

38 Then the fire of the Lord fell and consumed the burnt sacrifice, the wood, the stones, and the soil, and it licked up the water in the trench.

Cross References: Leviticus 9:24; 1 Chronicles 21:26; 2 Chronicles 7:1

39 When all the people saw this, they fell prostrate and cried, “The Lord—He is God! The Lord—He is God!”

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:21; Deuteronomy 4:35; Joshua 5:14

40 Elijah commanded, “Seize the prophets of Baal! Don’t let any of them escape!” They seized them, and Elijah brought them down to the Kishon Valley and slaughtered them there.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 13:5; Judges 5:21; 1 Kings 19:1

Rain Returns to the Land

(Verses 41–46)

41 Elijah said to Ahab, “Go, eat and drink, for there is the sound of heavy rain.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:1; James 5:18; 1 Kings 17:1

42 So Ahab went to eat and drink, but Elijah climbed to the top of Carmel, bent down to the ground, and put his face between his knees.

Cross References: James 5:17; 1 Kings 8:54; Daniel 6:10

43 “Go and look toward the sea,” he told his servant. The servant went and looked. “There is nothing,” he said. Seven times Elijah said, “Go back.”

Cross References: Genesis 8:12; Luke 18:1; James 5:18

44 The seventh time the servant reported, “A cloud as small as a man’s hand is rising from the sea.” Elijah said, “Go and tell Ahab, ‘Hitch up your chariot and go down before the rain stops you.’”

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:1; James 5:18; Matthew 16:3

45 Meanwhile, the sky grew black with clouds, the wind rose, and a heavy rain started falling. Ahab rode off to Jezreel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 21:1; Deuteronomy 28:12; James 5:18 46 The power of the Lord came on Elijah, and he tucked his cloak into his belt and ran ahead of Ahab all the way to Jezreel.

Cross References: 2 Kings 3:15; 1 Kings 19:1; Isaiah 40:31

Key Lessons from 1 Kings Chapter 18

1. God alone is worthy of worship → The showdown on Mount Carmel shows that idols are powerless. → Exodus 20:3 2. Faith sometimes requires public courage → Elijah stood alone against hundreds of false prophets. → Romans 8:31 3. Prayer connects God’s power to human need → Elijah prayed, and fire fell; he prayed again, and rain came. → James 5:17–18 4. God turns hearts through demonstration and truth → Israel repented when they saw God’s undeniable power. → Psalms 115:3

1 Kings Chapter 19 — Crawford Standard Bible

Elijah Flees, God Speaks in a Whisper, and Elisha is Called

Elijah Flees from Jezebel

(Verses 1–8)

1 Ahab reported to Jezebel everything Elijah had done, including how he killed all the prophets of Baal with the sword.

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:40; 1 Kings 16:31; 1 Kings 18:4

2 Jezebel sent a message to Elijah: “May the gods deal with me, and more so, if by this time tomorrow I do not make your life like one of theirs!”

Cross References: 1 Kings 19:10; Matthew 14:10; 1 Kings 18:4

3 Elijah was afraid and ran for his life. He went to Beersheba in Judah, leaving his servant there.

Cross References: 1 Kings 19:9; Jonah 1:3; Exodus 2:15

4 He traveled alone a day's journey into the wilderness, sat under a broom tree, and prayed to die. He said, "It is enough! Now, Lord, take my life. I am no better than my ancestors."

Cross References: Numbers 11:15; Jonah 4:3; James 5:17

5 Then he lay down under the broom tree and slept. Suddenly an angel touched him and said, "Get up and eat."

Cross References: 1 Kings 19:7; Psalm 34:7; Genesis 21:17

6 He looked, and there by his head was a cake baked over coals and a jar of water. He ate and drank and lay down again.

Cross References: Exodus 16:15; 1 Kings 17:6; John 6:31

7 The angel of the Lord came a second time, touched him, and said, "Get up and eat, because the journey is too much for you."

Cross References: Deuteronomy 8:2; Isaiah 40:29; Matthew 4:11 8 So he got up, ate, and drank. Strengthened by that food, he traveled forty days and nights until he reached Mount Horeb, the mountain of God.

Cross References: Exodus 24:18; Exodus 34:28; Matthew 4:2

God Speaks in a Gentle Whisper

(Verses 9–18)

9 Elijah went into a cave and spent the night there. Then the word of the Lord came to him: "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

Cross References: Exodus 33:22; Exodus 3:1; Genesis 3:9

10 He replied, "I have been very zealous for the Lord God Almighty. The Israelites have abandoned Your covenant, torn down Your altars, and killed Your prophets with the sword. I am the only one left, and now they want to kill me too."

Cross References: Romans 11:3; Numbers 25:11; 1 Kings 19:14

11 The Lord said, "Go out and stand on the mountain in My presence."

Cross References: Exodus 33:21; 1 Kings 19:12; Psalm 29:7

- A powerful wind tore through the mountains and shattered rocks, but the Lord was not in the wind.
- After the wind came an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake.

12 After the earthquake came a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire.

Cross References: Job 4:16; Psalm 46:10; 1 Kings 19:13

- After the fire came a gentle whisper.

13 When Elijah heard it, he pulled his cloak over his face, went out, and stood at the entrance of the cave. A voice said, “What are you doing here, Elijah?”

Cross References: Exodus 3:6; Isaiah 6:2; 1 Kings 19:9

14 He replied the same way: “I have been very zealous for the Lord. Israel has abandoned Your covenant, destroyed Your altars, and killed Your prophets. I am the only one left, and they want to kill me too.”

Cross References: Romans 11:3; 1 Kings 19:10; Jeremiah 20:9

15 The Lord said to him, “Go back the way you came, to the Desert of Damascus. When you arrive:

Cross References: 2 Kings 8:13; 2 Kings 8:15; 1 Kings 19:16

- Anoint Hazael king over Aram.

16 - Anoint Jehu son of Nimshi king over Israel.

Cross References: 2 Kings 9:6; 2 Kings 2:15; 1 Kings 19:19

- Anoint Elisha son of Shaphat from Abel Meholah to succeed you as prophet.

17 Whoever escapes the sword of Hazael, Jehu will kill; whoever escapes the sword of Jehu, Elisha will kill.

Cross References: 2 Kings 8:12; 2 Kings 9:24; 2 Kings 13:21

18 Yet I have reserved seven thousand in Israel—all whose knees have not bowed to Baal and whose mouths have not kissed him.”

Cross References: Romans 11:4; Romans 11:5; Revelation 3:4

The Call of Elisha

(Verses 19–21)

19 Elijah left and found Elisha son of Shaphat plowing with twelve pairs of oxen; he was driving the twelfth pair. Elijah went up and threw his cloak over him.

Cross References: 2 Kings 2:13; Luke 9:62; Matthew 4:20

20 Elisha left his oxen, ran after Elijah, and said, “Let me kiss my father and mother goodbye, and then I will follow you.” Elijah replied, “Go back; consider what I have done to you.”

Cross References: Luke 9:61; Genesis 31:28; Matthew 8:21

21 Elisha returned, took his pair of oxen, slaughtered them, and used the wooden plow as firewood to cook the meat. He gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he left to follow Elijah and became his servant.

Cross References: 2 Kings 3:11; Luke 5:11; Philippians 3:8

Key Lessons from 1 Kings Chapter 19

1. Even the faithful can feel fear and discouragement → Elijah fled and prayed to die, showing human weakness. → Psalms 34:18 2. God often works in quiet and subtle ways → His presence was not in wind, earthquake, or fire—but in a whisper. → Zechariah 4:6 3. God always preserves a faithful remnant → 7,000 in Israel had not bowed to Baal, showing hope even in dark times. → Romans 11:4–5 4. Following God requires full surrender → Elisha burned his plow, leaving his old life behind to serve God. → Luke 9:62

Ahab and Ben-Hadad: Two Battles and a Warning

Ben-Hadad Demands Surrender

(Verses 1–12)

1 Ben-Hadad, king of Aram (Syria), gathered his entire army with thirty-two allied kings, along with horses and chariots. He went up and besieged Samaria.

Cross References: 1 Kings 20:16; 2 Kings 6:24; 1 Kings 15:18

2 He sent messengers to Ahab, king of Israel:

Cross References: 2 Kings 18:19; 1 Kings 20:3; Isaiah 36:4

3 “Your silver and gold are mine. Your best wives and children are mine.”

Cross References: 2 Kings 18:14; Genesis 34:29; 1 Kings 20:5

4 Ahab replied, “My lord the king, I am yours, and all that I have.”

Cross References: 2 Kings 18:14; Proverbs 29:25; 1 Kings 21:4

5 But Ben-Hadad sent messengers again: “I will send my servants tomorrow to search your house and the houses of your officials. Whatever is valuable, they will take.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 20:3; 1 Kings 20:6; Judges 11:13

6 Ahab summoned the elders and said, “This man seeks to destroy us. He first demanded my wives, children, silver, and gold—I did not refuse him.”

Cross References: Joel 1:7; Habakkuk 2:8; 1 Kings 20:3

7 All the elders and the people said, “Do not listen or agree.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 20:8; 1 Samuel 8:4; Ezekiel 14:1

8 Ahab told the messengers, “Tell my lord the king: I will grant the first request, but this I cannot do.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:8; Proverbs 11:14; 1 Kings 20:9

9 Ben-Hadad raged and vowed to reduce Samaria to dust.

Cross References: 1 Kings 20:4; 1 Kings 20:10; 2 Kings 18:31

10 Ahab responded, “Tell him: Let not the one who straps on his armor boast like the one who takes it off.”

Cross References: Proverbs 16:18; 1 Kings 20:11; Isaiah 10:15

God Promises Victory

(Verses 13–21)

13 A prophet came to Ahab: “This vast army—God will deliver it into your hand today. Then you will know that I am the Lord.”

Cross References: Exodus 14:4; 1 Kings 20:28; 1 Samuel 17:47

14 Ahab asked, “By whom?” “By the young men of the provincial leaders.”

Cross References: Judges 7:7; 1 Samuel 14:6; 1 Corinthians 1:27

15 Ahab counted them—232 young men, plus 7,000 soldiers.

Cross References: 1 Kings 19:18; Judges 7:7; Judges 7:3

16 They went out at noon while Ben-Hadad and the thirty-two kings were drunk in their tents.

Cross References: Isaiah 28:1; Proverbs 23:30; Nahum 1:10

17 The young men went out first. The Syrians reported, “Men are coming out of Samaria!”

Cross References: Judges 7:19; 1 Samuel 17:48; 1 Kings 20:19

18 Ben-Hadad said, “Capture them alive, whether they come for peace or war!”

Cross References: 2 Samuel 2:14; Proverbs 16:18; 1 Kings 20:20 19 Israel struck decisively.

Cross References: Judges 7:16; 1 Kings 20:17; 2 Chronicles 13:15

20 Each man killed his opponent, and the Syrians fled. Ben-Hadad escaped on horseback.

Cross References: Judges 7:22; Deuteronomy 32:30; 2 Chronicles 13:15

21 Ahab went out, struck the horses and chariots, and inflicted a great slaughter.

Cross References: Exodus 14:28; Joshua 11:6; Psalm 20:7

The Prophetic Warning and Second Battle

(Verses 22–34)

22 The prophet said to Ahab: “Strengthen yourself. Next spring, the king of Aram will attack again.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 20:26; 2 Samuel 11:1; 1 Kings 20:13

23 Ben-Hadad’s advisers said, “Their God is a God of the hills; that is why we lost. Fight them on the plain and we will win.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 20:28; Exodus 15:11; Psalm 121:1

24 They replaced the kings with captains and rebuilt their army.

Cross References: 1 Kings 20:1; Proverbs 20:18; 1 Kings 22:31

26 The next spring, Ben-Hadad marched to Aphek.

Cross References: 1 Kings 20:22; 1 Kings 20:30; 2 Kings 13:17

27 Israel looked like two small flocks of goats, but the Arameans filled the land.

Cross References: Numbers 13:33; Judges 6:5; 1 Samuel 17:11

28 The man of God said: “Because Aram says the Lord is only the God of the hills, He will deliver this great army to you. Then you will know I am the Lord.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 20:23; Psalm 24:1; Isaiah 45:5

29 On the seventh day, battle began:

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 13:17; 1 Kings 20:21; Joshua 10:10

- Israel killed 100,000 soldiers in one day.

30 27,000 more died when a wall collapsed in Aphek.

Cross References: Jeremiah 49:27; Amos 1:4; 1 Kings 20:20

- Ben-Hadad fled to an inner room.

31 His officials said, “The kings of Israel are merciful. Put sackcloth on and ropes on our heads; ask for mercy.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 21:27; 2 Kings 6:30; Genesis 37:34

32 They did so, and Ahab called Ben-Hadad “my brother.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 20:33; 1 Kings 20:42; Obadiah 1:12

33 Ben-Hadad offered to restore Israelite cities and give Ahab streets in Damascus.

Cross References: 1 Kings 20:34; 1 Kings 20:42; 2 Chronicles 18:1

- Ahab made a covenant with him and let him go.

The Prophet Condemns Ahab

(Verses 35–43)

35 A prophet, by God’s command, asked another man to strike him. He refused.

Cross References: 1 Kings 13:2; 1 Kings 20:37; 1 Samuel 10:5

36 The prophet said, “Because you disobeyed the Lord, a lion will kill you.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 13:24; 2 Kings 17:25; Hosea 13:8

- And a lion killed him.

37 Another man struck and wounded the prophet.

Cross References: 1 Kings 20:35; 1 Kings 22:34; Zechariah 13:6

38 The prophet disguised himself with bandages and waited for the king.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 14:2; 1 Kings 20:41; 2 Samuel 12:1

39 He told a parable: “I guarded a prisoner in battle. If he escaped, my life would pay for his, or I’d owe a talent of silver. I was busy, and he escaped.”

Cross References: 2 Samuel 12:1; 2 Samuel 14:5; 1 Kings 20:40

40 Ahab said, “You have judged yourself.”

Cross References: 2 Samuel 12:7; 2 Samuel 14:13; 1 Kings 20:42

41 The prophet removed the disguise, and Ahab recognized him.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 14:2; 1 Kings 20:38; 1 Samuel 28:12

42 He said, “This is the Lord’s word: Because you let go a man I appointed for destruction, your life will pay for his life, and your people for his people.”

Cross References: 1 Samuel 15:9; 1 Samuel 15:23; Joshua 6:17

43 Ahab went to Samaria sullen and angry.

Cross References: 1 Kings 21:4; 1 Kings 22:8; Proverbs 19:3

Key Lessons from 1 Kings Chapter 20

1. God can give victory despite overwhelming odds → Israel’s “two small flocks” defeated a massive army. → Psalms 33:16–17 2. Partial obedience brings judgment → Ahab spared Ben-Hadad instead of fulfilling God’s command. → 1 Samuel 15:23 3. God proves His supremacy to the nations → The Lord showed He is God of both hills and plains. → Psalms 24:1 4. Covenants with the enemy can bring consequences → Ahab’s misplaced mercy cost him God’s favor. → 2 Corinthians 6:17

Naboth’s Vineyard and God’s Judgment on Ahab

Ahab Covets Naboth’s Vineyard

(Verses 1–7)

1 After these events, Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard near the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.

Cross References: 1 Kings 21:2; Leviticus 25:23; 1 Kings 18:45

2 Ahab said to Naboth, “Give me your vineyard so I can make it a vegetable garden because it’s near my house. I’ll give you a better vineyard for it, or if you prefer, I’ll pay you its value in silver.”

Cross References: Micah 2:2; Isaiah 5:8; Exodus 20:17

3 But Naboth replied, “The Lord forbid that I give you my ancestral inheritance!”

Cross References: Ezekiel 46:18; Numbers 36:7; Leviticus 25:23

4 Ahab went home angry and sullen because Naboth refused him. He lay on his bed, turned his face away, and refused to eat.

Cross References: 1 Kings 20:43; Genesis 4:5; Jonah 4:9

5 Jezebel his wife came and said, “Why are you so upset that you won’t eat?”

Cross References: 1 Kings 21:4; Nehemiah 2:2; 1 Samuel 1:8

6 He told her, “I asked Naboth for his vineyard, offering money or a trade, but he said, ‘I will not give you my vineyard.’”

Cross References: 1 Kings 21:2; 1 Kings 21:3; 1 Kings 21:7

7 Jezebel said, “Aren’t you the king of Israel? Get up, eat, and be happy. I will get you Naboth’s vineyard.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:31; Proverbs 12:4; Revelation 2:20

Jezebel’s Wicked Scheme

(Verses 8–16)

8 Jezebel wrote letters in Ahab’s name, sealed them with his seal, and sent them to the elders and nobles in Naboth’s city.

Cross References: Esther 3:12; 1 Kings 21:9; Esther 8:8

9 The letters said: “Proclaim a fast and seat Naboth in a prominent place among the people.

Cross References: Isaiah 58:4; Joel 2:15; 1 Kings 21:12

10 Set two worthless men to accuse him of cursing God and the king. Then take him out and stone him to death.”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 19:15; Deuteronomy 17:6; Matthew 26:60

11 The elders and nobles followed Jezebel’s instructions.

Cross References: 1 Kings 21:8; Exodus 23:2; 1 Kings 21:13

12 They proclaimed a fast and gave Naboth the seat of honor.

Cross References: 1 Kings 21:9; Isaiah 58:4; Amos 5:21

13 Two scoundrels falsely accused him publicly, saying, “Naboth has cursed God and the king!” They took him outside the city and stoned him to death.

Cross References: Matthew 26:59; Acts 6:13; Acts 7:58

14 They sent word to Jezebel: “Naboth is stoned and dead.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 21:15; 1 Kings 21:13; 2 Samuel 11:15

15 When Jezebel heard, she told Ahab, “Get up and take possession of Naboth’s vineyard. He’s dead.”

Cross References: 2 Samuel 11:27; 1 Kings 21:16; 1 Kings 21:19

16 Ahab went to seize the vineyard.

Cross References: 1 Kings 21:15; Micah 2:2; 1 Kings 21:18

Elijah Pronounces Judgment

(Verses 17–24)

17 Then the word of the Lord came to Elijah the Tishbite:

Cross References: 1 Kings 21:28; 1 Kings 18:1; 2 Samuel 12:1

18 “Go down to meet Ahab in Naboth’s vineyard. Tell him, ‘This is what the Lord says: Have you murdered and taken possession? In the place where dogs licked Naboth’s blood, dogs will lick your blood.’”

Cross References: 2 Samuel 12:1; 1 Kings 21:20; Amos 7:15

20 Ahab said to Elijah, “So you have found me, my enemy!” Elijah replied, “I have found you, because you sold yourself to do what is evil in the Lord’s sight.

Cross References: 1 Kings 21:25; 2 Kings 17:17; Romans 7:14

21 “The Lord says: I will bring disaster on you. I will wipe out your descendants, every male in Israel, slave or free.

Cross References: 1 Kings 14:10; 1 Kings 16:3; 2 Kings 9:8

22 I will make your house like Jeroboam and Baasha, because you have led Israel into sin.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:29; 1 Kings 16:11; 2 Kings 10:11

23 Concerning Jezebel the Lord says: ‘Dogs will devour Jezebel by the wall of Jezreel.’

Cross References: 2 Kings 9:10; 2 Kings 9:36; Psalm 68:23

24 “Anyone who dies from Ahab’s line in the city, dogs will eat; anyone in the countryside, birds will eat.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 14:11; 1 Kings 16:4; Deuteronomy 28:26

Ahab’s Repentance and God’s Mercy

(Verses 25–29)

25 There was no king as wicked as Ahab, who sold himself to do evil, urged on by his wife Jezebel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:30; 1 Kings 21:20; 2 Kings 21:9

26 He followed idols like the Amorites, whom the Lord drove out before Israel.

Cross References: Leviticus 18:25; Deuteronomy 18:9; 2 Kings 21:11

27 When Ahab heard this, he tore his clothes, wore sackcloth, fasted, and walked humbly.

Cross References: 1 Kings 21:29; Jonah 3:5; 2 Chronicles 33:12

28 The Lord said to Elijah:

Cross References: 1 Kings 21:17; 1 Kings 21:29; Jonah 3:1

29 “Do you see how Ahab has humbled himself? Because of this, I will delay the disaster until the days of his son.”

Key Lessons from 1 Kings 21

1. Coveting leads to greater sin → Ahab’s desire for Naboth’s vineyard led to murder and theft. → James 1:14–15 2. Influence can lead to destruction → Jezebel’s influence pushed Ahab into deeper sin. → 1 Corinthians 15:33 3. God sees every injustice → Naboth’s blood cried out, and God responded with judgment. → Genesis 4:10 4. Even the wicked can find temporary mercy through humility → Ahab’s brief repentance delayed judgment. → Psalms 51:17

The Last Days of Ahab and the Reign of Jehoshaphat

The Alliance at Ramoth-Gilead

(Verses 1–12)

1 For three years there was no war between Aram (Syria) and Israel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 20:34; 1 Kings 15:32; 2 Chronicles 18:1

2 In the third year, Jehoshaphat king of Judah visited Ahab king of Israel.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 18:2; 1 Kings 22:44; 2 Chronicles 18:1

3 Ahab said to his servants, “Do you know that Ramoth in Gilead belongs to us? Yet we are doing nothing to reclaim it from the king of Aram.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 18:3; Deuteronomy 4:43; Joshua 21:38

4 He said to Jehoshaphat, “Will you go with me to battle at Ramoth-gilead?” Jehoshaphat replied, “I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 18:3; 2 Kings 3:7; 2 Chronicles 19:2

5 But Jehoshaphat said, “First, let’s seek a word from the Lord.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 18:4; 1 Samuel 28:6; Numbers 27:21

6 Ahab summoned 400 prophets and asked, “Shall I go to war against Ramoth-gilead, or not?” They all said, “Go, for the Lord will give it to the king.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 18:5; Jeremiah 23:16; Jeremiah 14:14

7 But Jehoshaphat asked, “Is there no prophet of the Lord here, that we may inquire of Him?”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 18:6; 1 Kings 18:22; Jeremiah 42:3

8 Ahab said, “There is one more—Micaiah son of Imlah. But I hate him because he never prophesies anything good about me, only bad.” Jehoshaphat replied, “The king should not say that.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 18:7; Amos 5:10; John 3:20

Micaiah's Prophecy

(Verses 13–28)

13 The messenger who went to get Micaiah said, “All the prophets are giving a favorable word. Please let yours agree with them.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 18:12; Jeremiah 38:15; 1 Kings 22:14

14 But Micaiah said, “As surely as the Lord lives, I will only say what the Lord tells me.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 18:13; Numbers 22:38; Jeremiah 1:7

15 When he came, Ahab asked, “Shall we go to Ramoth-gilead, or not?” Micaiah answered sarcastically, “Go and prosper! The Lord will give it to the king.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 18:14; 1 Kings 22:6; Ezekiel 14:9

16 Ahab said, “How many times must I make you swear to tell me the truth in the name of the Lord?”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 18:15; Matthew 26:63; John 18:37

17 Then Micaiah said, “I saw all Israel scattered on the hills like sheep without a shepherd. And the Lord said, ‘These have no master; let each one return home in peace.’”

Cross References: Numbers 27:17; Matthew 9:36; Zechariah 13:7

18 Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, “Did I not tell you he never prophesies anything good about me?”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 18:17; 1 Kings 22:8; Amos 7:12

19 Micaiah continued, “I saw the Lord on His throne with all the host of heaven on His right and left. The Lord said, ‘Who will entice Ahab to go to Ramoth-gilead and fall there?’ A spirit said, ‘I will go and be a lying spirit in the mouths of all his prophets.’ The Lord said, ‘You shall succeed. Go and do it.’”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 18:18; Isaiah 6:1; Job 1:6

23 “So now the Lord has put a lying spirit in the mouths of all your prophets, for He has decreed disaster for you.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 18:22; 2 Thessalonians 2:11; Ezekiel 14:9

24 Then Zedekiah son of Chenaanah struck Micaiah on the cheek and mocked him.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 18:23; Jeremiah 20:2; Matthew 26:67

25 Micaiah replied, “You will see the truth the day you run and hide in an inner room.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 18:24; 1 Kings 20:30; Proverbs 28:1

26 Ahab said, “Put Micaiah in prison, feed him bread and water of affliction until I return safely.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 18:25; Jeremiah 20:2; Jeremiah 37:15

28 Micaiah said, “If you return safely, the Lord has not spoken through me. Hear this, all you people!”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 18:27; Deuteronomy 18:22; Micah 1:2

The Death of Ahab

(Verses 29–40)

29 Ahab and Jehoshaphat went to battle at Ramoth-gilead.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 18:28; 1 Kings 22:3; Proverbs 19:21

30 Ahab said, “I will disguise myself, but you wear your royal robes.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 18:29; 1 Samuel 28:8; 1 Kings 20:38

31 The king of Aram ordered his chariot commanders, “Fight no one except the king of Israel.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 18:30; 1 Kings 20:1; Proverbs 21:30

32 They mistook Jehoshaphat for Ahab, but he cried out, and they realized their mistake.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 18:31; Psalm 34:17; Psalm 50:15

34 Then a random arrow struck Ahab between the joints of his armor.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 18:33; 1 Kings 21:19; Proverbs 21:31

35 He stayed propped up in his chariot until evening and died as the sun set.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 18:34; 1 Kings 21:19; 1 Kings 22:38

38 They washed his chariot at the pool of Samaria, and dogs licked up his blood, as the Lord had spoken.

Cross References: 1 Kings 21:19; 1 Kings 21:23; Numbers 23:19

40 Ahab died and was buried; his son Ahaziah became king.

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:51; 2 Kings 1:2; 1 Kings 21:29

Jehoshaphat and Ahaziah

(Verses 41–53)

- Jehoshaphat (age 35) ruled Judah 25 years, walked in the ways of Asa, but did not remove the high places.
- He removed the last of the male shrine prostitutes from the land.
- His fleet to Ophir for gold failed.
- He died and was buried in Jerusalem; Jehoram his son reigned.
- Ahaziah son of Ahab reigned in Israel 2 years.
- He walked in the ways of Ahab and Jezebel, served Baal, and provoked the Lord to anger, continuing the sins of Jeroboam.

Key Lessons from 1 Kings 22

1. Seek God's Word, not popular opinion → 400 false prophets vs. 1 faithful Micaiah. → 2 Timothy 4:3
2. Rejecting God's warning leads to judgment → Ahab ignored truth and died exactly as God foretold. → Proverbs 29:1
3. God is sovereign even over spiritual deception → He allowed a lying spirit to accomplish His purposes. → Job 12:16
4. Sin leaves a legacy → Ahaziah followed his parents' idolatry and continued Israel's spiritual decline. → Exodus 20:5-6

Structure of the Book

- Chapters 1–17: The Kingdoms of Israel and Judah to the Fall of Israel
 - The ascension of Elisha
 - Miracles and prophetic words
 - A series of unfaithful kings in Israel
 - The fall of Samaria and the exile of Israel
- Chapters 18–25: The Kingdom of Judah Alone to the Fall of Judah
 - The reforming kings Hezekiah and Josiah
 - The Assyrian threat and Judah's deliverance
 - The rise of Babylon
 - The final, wicked kings of Judah
 - The destruction of Jerusalem and the exile

Spiritual Lessons

- Faithfulness to God and His covenant is paramount for both leaders and the people.
- God holds His people accountable for their sins, and judgment is the inevitable outcome of continued disobedience.
- Even in the darkest moments of a nation's decline, God provides a witness and a prophetic voice.
- True revival is possible, but it requires heartfelt repentance and a return to God's law.
- The book demonstrates the ultimate failure of human kings and the necessity of a divine King.

Jesus in 2 Kings

The constant failure of the kings of Israel and Judah, as documented in this book, highlights humanity's need for a perfect, sinless King—Jesus Christ. The powerful miracles of Elijah and Elisha (healing the sick, raising the dead, providing for the poor) serve as foreshadows of Jesus's own ministry and divine power. The book's focus on judgment and exile ultimately points to the need for a final, heavenly kingdom that will not be destroyed.

Key Verse

“The Lord had warned Israel and Judah through all his prophets and seers, ‘Turn from your evil ways. Observe my commands and decrees, in accordance with the entire Law that I commanded your ancestors to obey and that I delivered to you through my servants the prophets.’”

—2 Kings 17:13

Introduction to the Book of 2 Kings

The Decline and Fall of God's People

Title and Authorship

The book is named after the two divided kingdoms of Israel and Judah, which serve as its primary focus. It is a continuation of 1 Kings, detailing the reigns of the kings of both nations from the mid-ninth century B.C. to the fall of Jerusalem in 586 B.C. While the authorship is unknown, Jewish tradition attributes it to the prophet Jeremiah. It is most likely that an unknown editor or historian compiled the book, drawing from royal court records, prophetic narratives, and other historical sources. The final redaction was likely completed during or shortly after the Babylonian exile.

Historical Setting

Second Kings picks up the historical narrative where 1 Kings concludes. It spans a period of approximately 270 years, from the death of King Ahaziah of Israel (circa 853 B.C.) to the destruction of Jerusalem and the beginning of the Babylonian exile (586 B.C.). The book chronicles the ministries of the great prophets Elijah and Elisha, the fall of the northern kingdom of Israel to Assyria in 722 B.C., and the eventual downfall of the southern kingdom of Judah to Babylon.

Purpose and Themes

The primary purpose of 2 Kings is to provide a theological explanation for the destruction and exile of both Israel and Judah. The author argues that God's judgment was a direct consequence of the nations' persistent idolatry and covenant unfaithfulness. The book is not merely a historical record but a prophetic indictment against a people who abandoned their God.

Key Themes:

- The Consequences of Disobedience and Idolatry
- God's Sovereignty over His People and the Nations
- The Power and Authority of God's Prophets (Elijah and Elisha)
- The Importance of Faithful Leadership (Hezekiah and Josiah)
- God's Justice in Judgment and His Mercy in Giving Hope
- The Failure of Human Kings and the Need for a Perfect King

Structure of the Book

- Chapters 1–17: The Kingdoms of Israel and Judah to the Fall of Israel
- The ascension of Elisha
- Miracles and prophetic words
- A series of unfaithful kings in Israel
- The fall of Samaria and the exile of Israel

- Chapters 18–25: The Kingdom of Judah Alone to the Fall of Judah
- The reforming kings Hezekiah and Josiah
- The Assyrian threat and Judah’s deliverance
- The rise of Babylon
- The final, wicked kings of Judah
- The destruction of Jerusalem and the exile

Spiritual Lessons

- Faithfulness to God and His covenant is paramount for both leaders and the people.
- God holds His people accountable for their sins, and judgment is the inevitable outcome of continued disobedience.
- Even in the darkest moments of a nation's decline, God provides a witness and a prophetic voice.
- True revival is possible, but it requires heartfelt repentance and a return to God's law.
- The book demonstrates the ultimate failure of human kings and the necessity of a divine King.

Ahaziah Seeks Baalzebub and Elijah Calls Down Fire

Ahaziah’s Injury and Sin

(Verses 1–4)

1 After King Ahab died, Moab rebelled against Israel.

Cross References: 2 Kings 3:5; 1 Kings 22:40; 2 Kings 8:20

2 Ahaziah, Ahab’s son, fell through the lattice of his upper room in Samaria and was badly injured. He sent messengers and said, “Go, ask Baalzebub, the god of Ekron, if I will recover from this injury.”

Cross References: Matthew 12:24; 1 Kings 22:53; Leviticus 19:31

3 But the angel of the Lord said to Elijah the Tishbite: “Go meet the messengers and ask them, ‘Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are going to consult Baalzebub, the god of Ekron?’

Cross References: 1 Kings 19:5; 2 Kings 1:15; Psalms 34:7

4 “Tell the king: ‘You will never leave the bed you are lying on; you will surely die.’” Elijah then departed.

Cross References: 2 Kings 1:16; 1 Kings 21:19; Numbers 23:19

Elijah Identified

(Verses 5–8)

5 When the messengers returned, the king asked, “Why have you come back so quickly?”

Cross References: 2 Kings 1:3; 2 Kings 1:6; 1 Kings 18:8

6 They replied, “A man met us and said, ‘Return to the king and tell him, This is what the Lord says: Is it because there is no God in Israel that you consult Baalzebub? You will not get up from your bed; you will surely die.’”

Cross References: 2 Kings 1:3; 2 Kings 1:4; 1 Kings 21:19

7 The king asked, “What did he look like?”

Cross References: 2 Kings 1:8; 1 Kings 18:7; Matthew 3:4

8 They answered, “He was a hairy man with a leather belt around his waist.” The king said, “That is Elijah the Tishbite.”

Cross References: Matthew 3:4; Zechariah 13:4; Mark 1:6

Fire from Heaven

(Verses 9–15)

9 Ahaziah sent a captain with 50 soldiers to arrest Elijah. They found him sitting on top of a hill. The captain said, “Man of God, the king says, Come down!”

Cross References: Luke 9:54; Genesis 19:24; 1 Kings 18:38

10 Elijah replied, “If I am a man of God, may fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men!” Fire fell from heaven and killed them all.

Cross References: Leviticus 10:2; Numbers 16:35; Revelation 20:9

11 The king sent another captain with 50 men, who said, “Man of God, the king says, Come down quickly!”

Cross References: 2 Kings 1:9; 2 Kings 1:12; Luke 9:54

12 Elijah replied, “If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men!” Again, fire of God fell and consumed them all.

Cross References: Luke 9:54; Genesis 19:24; Job 1:16

13 A third captain with 50 went, but this one kneled before Elijah and pleaded, “Man of God, I beg you, spare my life and the lives of these fifty servants.

Cross References: Genesis 18:23; 2 Kings 1:14; Numbers 16:22

14 “Fire fell from heaven and killed the previous two captains and their men. Please, let us live.”

Cross References: 2 Kings 1:10; 2 Kings 1:12; Genesis 18:32

15 The angel of the Lord said to Elijah, “Go down with him; don’t be afraid.” So Elijah went with him to the king.

Cross References: 2 Kings 1:3; Isaiah 41:10; 1 Kings 19:5

Elijah’s Prophecy Fulfilled

(Verses 16–18)

16 Elijah told the king, “This is what the Lord says: ‘You sent messengers to consult Baalzebub, the god of Ekron. Is it because there is no God in Israel to consult His word? You will not leave your bed; you will surely die.’”

Cross References: 2 Kings 1:3; 2 Kings 1:4; 1 Kings 21:19

17 Ahaziah died, just as the Lord said through Elijah. His brother Jehoram became king because Ahaziah had no son.

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:53; 2 Kings 3:1; 1 Kings 17:16

18 The rest of Ahaziah’s deeds are recorded in the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:39; 2 Kings 8:23; 1 Kings 14:19

Key Lessons from 2 Kings 1

1. Seeking false gods brings judgment → Ahaziah looked to Baalzebub instead of the living God. → Exodus 20:3; Psalm 115:4–8 2. God defends His honor → The fire from heaven proved God’s supremacy and defended His prophet. → Hebrews 12:29 3. Humility can save your life → The third captain lived because he humbled himself before God’s servant. → James 4:6 4. God’s word always comes to pass → Elijah’s prophecy was fulfilled exactly. → Numbers 23:19

Elijah’s Departure and Elisha’s Double Portion

Elijah Prepares Elisha for His Departure

(Verses 1–6)

1 When the time came for the Lord to take Elijah into heaven in a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha left Gilgal together.

Cross References: Genesis 5:24; Hebrews 11:5; James 5:17

2 Elijah said, “Stay here, Elisha, because the Lord has sent me to Bethel.” But Elisha replied, “As surely as the Lord lives and as you live, I will not leave you.” So they went to Bethel.

Cross References: Ruth 1:16; 2 Kings 2:4; 2 Kings 2:6

3 At Bethel, a group of prophets came to Elisha and said, “Do you know the Lord will take your master away from you today?” He replied, “Yes, I know. Be quiet.”

Cross References: 2 Kings 2:5; 1 Kings 19:19; 2 Kings 2:9

4 Then Elijah said, “Stay here, Elisha, for the Lord has sent me to Jericho.” Elisha said again, “As surely as the Lord lives and as you live, I will not leave you.” So they went to Jericho.

Cross References: 2 Kings 2:2; 2 Kings 2:6; Ruth 1:16

5 The prophets in Jericho came to Elisha and said the same thing. He answered, “Yes, I know. Be quiet.”

Cross References: 2 Kings 2:3; 2 Kings 2:9; 1 Kings 19:19

6 Elijah said once more, “Stay here, Elisha, for the Lord has sent me to the Jordan River.” But Elisha replied, “I will not leave you.” And they continued on together.

Cross References: 2 Kings 2:2; 2 Kings 2:4; Ruth 1:16

The Final Journey and the Fiery Chariot

(Verses 7–12)

7 Fifty prophets followed at a distance as Elijah and Elisha stood by the Jordan River.

Cross References: 2 Kings 2:15; 2 Kings 2:17; 1 Kings 18:4

8 Elijah took off his mantle (cloak), rolled it up, struck the water, and the river parted so both men walked across on dry ground.

Cross References: Exodus 14:21; Joshua 3:14; Joshua 3:17

9 After they crossed, Elijah said, “Tell me what I can do for you before I’m taken away.” Elisha answered, “Please, let me receive a double portion of your spirit.”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 21:17; Numbers 11:17; Matthew 7:7

10 Elijah said, “You’ve asked a difficult thing. If you see me when I’m taken, it will be yours. If not, it won’t be.”

Cross References: Numbers 11:25; Numbers 27:20; 1 Kings 19:19

11 As they walked and talked, a chariot of fire with horses of fire suddenly appeared and separated them, and Elijah was taken up to heaven in a whirlwind.

Cross References: 2 Kings 6:17; Malachi 4:5; Hebrews 11:5

12 Elisha saw it and cried out, “My father, my father! The chariots and horsemen of Israel!” Then he tore his clothes in sorrow.

Cross References: 2 Kings 13:14; Genesis 37:34; Job 1:20

Elisha’s Ministry Begins

(Verses 13–18)

13 Elisha picked up Elijah’s mantle that had fallen and returned to the Jordan.

Cross References: 1 Kings 19:19; 2 Kings 2:8; 2 Kings 2:9

14 He struck the water with it and said, “Where is the Lord, the God of Elijah?” The waters parted, and Elisha crossed over.

Cross References: Exodus 14:21; Joshua 3:13; 2 Kings 2:8

15 The prophets who had been watching said, “The spirit of Elijah now rests on Elisha.” They came and bowed before him.

Cross References: 2 Kings 2:9; 2 Kings 2:10; 1 Samuel 10:6

16 They said, “Let us send 50 strong men to search for Elijah. Maybe the Spirit of the Lord dropped him on a mountain or valley.” Elisha said, “Don’t send them.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:12; 2 Kings 2:17; Ezekiel 3:14

17 But they insisted until he was embarrassed. So he said, “Fine, send them.” They searched for three days and found nothing.

Cross References: 2 Kings 2:16; 2 Kings 2:18; 1 Kings 18:12

18 When they returned, Elisha said, “Didn’t I tell you not to go?”

Cross References: 2 Kings 2:16; 2 Kings 2:17; Numbers 32:23

Elisha Heals the Water

(Verses 19–22)

19 The people of the city said to Elisha, “This town is nice, but the water is bad and the land is unproductive.”

Cross References: Joshua 6:26; 2 Kings 2:21; 2 Kings 2:22

20 Elisha said, “Bring me a new bowl with salt in it.” They brought it to him.

Cross References: Exodus 15:25; 2 Kings 4:41; Matthew 5:13

21 He went to the spring and threw in the salt, saying, “This is what the Lord says: ‘I have healed this water. It will no longer cause death or unfruitfulness.’”

Cross References: Exodus 15:25; Ezekiel 47:8; 2 Kings 4:41

22 And the waters have remained pure to this day, just as Elisha said.

Cross References: 2 Kings 2:21; Exodus 15:26; Ezekiel 47:9

Mocking Elisha Brings Judgment

(Verses 23–25)

23 As Elisha was going up to Bethel, some young boys came out of the city and mocked him, shouting, “Go up, you baldhead! Go up, you baldhead!”

Cross References: Genesis 21:9; Numbers 16:1; Proverbs 30:17

24 Elisha turned around, looked at them, and cursed them in the name of the Lord. Then two bears came out of the woods and mauled 42 of the boys.

Cross References: Leviticus 26:22; Deuteronomy 28:15; 2 Kings 17:25

25 From there, Elisha went to Mount Carmel, and then returned to Samaria.

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:19; 1 Kings 18:20; 2 Kings 4:25

Key Lessons from 2 Kings 2

1. God chooses successors and passes on His Spirit → Elisha received Elijah’s mantle and his prophetic calling. → 1 Kings 19:16; Acts 1:8 2. Persistence in following God brings reward → Elisha refused to leave Elijah’s side and received a double portion. → Luke 9:62; Hebrews 10:36 3. God still performs miracles through His servants → The Jordan River parted again, and the bitter waters were healed. → Mark 16:17–18 4. Mocking God’s servant is a serious offense → Disrespect toward Elisha was judged severely by the Lord. → Galatians 6:7; 2 Chronicles 36:16

2 Kings Chapter 3 — Crawford Standard Bible

Victory Over Moab by God’s Power

Jehoram Reigns Over Israel

(Verses 1–3)

1 Jehoram, son of Ahab, became king of Israel in Samaria during the eighteenth year of King Jehoshaphat of Judah. He ruled for twelve years.

Cross References: 2 Kings 1:17; 1 Kings 22:51; 2 Kings 3:3

2 He did evil in the Lord’s sight, but not as bad as his father and mother. He got rid of the Baal idol his father had made.

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:32; 1 Kings 16:33; 2 Kings 10:26

3 Still, he followed the sins of Jeroboam, who led Israel into idolatry, and he never turned away from them.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:28; 1 Kings 12:30; 2 Kings 10:29

Moab Rebels After Ahab’s Death

(Verses 4–8)

4 Mesha, the king of Moab, raised sheep and had paid tribute to Israel with 100,000 lambs and 100,000 rams' wool every year.

Cross References: 2 Kings 3:27; Amos 1:1; 1 Samuel 25:2

5 But after Ahab died, Moab rebelled against Israel.

Cross References: 2 Kings 1:1; 2 Samuel 8:2; Numbers 24:17

Cross References: 2 Kings 3:9; 1 Samuel 11:8; Judges 20:15

7 He sent a message to King Jehoshaphat of Judah: "The king of Moab has rebelled. Will you go to war with me against him?" Jehoshaphat replied, "Yes, I'm with you. My people and horses are like yours."

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:4; 2 Chronicles 18:3; 1 Kings 22:2

8 Jehoram asked, "Which way should we go?" Jehoshaphat said, "Through the wilderness of Edom."

Cross References: 2 Kings 3:20; Numbers 20:14; Judges 11:17

A Desperate March and a Prophetic Word

(Verses 9–20)

9 So the kings of Israel, Judah, and Edom marched for seven days, but there was no water for the army or the animals.

Cross References: Exodus 17:1; Numbers 20:2; Exodus 15:22

10 The king of Israel cried out, "Has the Lord brought us here just to hand us over to Moab?"

Cross References: Exodus 17:3; Numbers 21:5; Exodus 16:3

11 But Jehoshaphat said, "Isn't there a prophet of the Lord we can ask?" One of Jehoram's servants said, "Elisha, the son of Shaphat, is here. He used to serve Elijah."

Cross References: 1 Kings 19:21; 1 Kings 22:7; 2 Kings 22:14

12 Jehoshaphat said, "The word of the Lord is with him." So all three kings went to see Elisha.

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:5; 2 Kings 3:11; 1 Kings 17:24

13 Elisha said to the king of Israel, "Why come to me? Go ask your parents' false prophets." Jehoram replied, "No, the Lord brought us here to defeat us."

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:19; 1 Kings 18:40; 2 Kings 1:2

14 Elisha said, "If it weren't for King Jehoshaphat, I wouldn't even look at you.

Cross References: 2 Kings 3:11; 2 Kings 3:12; 1 Kings 17:1

15 Now bring me a musician." As the musician played, the Lord's hand came upon Elisha, and he said:

Cross References: 1 Samuel 10:5; 1 Samuel 16:23; 1 Chronicles 25:1

16 “This is what the Lord says: ‘Dig ditches all over this valley.

Cross References: 2 Kings 3:20; Isaiah 41:18; Psalms 107:35

17 You won’t see wind or rain, but this valley will be filled with water—enough for you, your animals, and your army.’

Cross References: Exodus 17:6; John 4:14; Isaiah 43:19

18 This is an easy thing for the Lord. He will also hand Moab over to you.

Cross References: 2 Kings 3:24; 2 Chronicles 20:15; Zechariah 4:6

19 Destroy every fortified city, cut down good trees, block up springs, and ruin every good field with stones.”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 20:19; Deuteronomy 20:20; 2 Kings 3:25

20 The next morning, during the offering of the morning sacrifice, water flowed in from Edom—filling the land.

Cross References: 2 Kings 3:9; Exodus 17:6; Psalms 78:16

God Delivers Moab Into Their Hands

(Verses 21–25)

21 When the Moabites heard the kings were coming to fight them, every man who could carry a weapon gathered at the border.

Cross References: 2 Kings 3:26; Judges 3:27; 1 Samuel 13:4

22 The next morning, the sun shone on the water, making it look red like blood.

Cross References: Exodus 7:20; Joel 2:31; Revelation 8:8

23 They said, “That’s blood! The kings must have fought and killed each other. Let’s go plunder them!”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 20:23; Judges 7:22; 1 Samuel 14:20 24 But when they entered the Israelite camp, Israel attacked and defeated them.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 20:24; 2 Chronicles 20:25; Judges 7:21

25 They destroyed the cities, threw stones into every good field, blocked up the springs, and cut down trees—just as Elisha said. Only Kir Hareseth remained, and even it was attacked by slingers.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 20:19; 2 Kings 3:19; Judges 6:5

A Shocking Sacrifice and Israel’s Withdrawal

(Verses 26–27)

26 When the king of Moab saw he was losing, he tried to break through to the king of Edom with 700 swordsmen, but failed.

Cross References: Numbers 22:4; Numbers 24:17; Judges 11:29

27 Then, in desperation, he took his oldest son, who was to be king after him, and sacrificed him as a burnt offering on the city wall. This act stirred great anger against Israel, so the Israelite army withdrew and returned home.

Cross References: Micah 6:7; Genesis 22:2; Judges 11:39

Key Lessons from 2 Kings 3

1. Superficial reforms don't change a wicked heart → Jehoram removed Baal's statue but continued in idolatry. → 2 Timothy 3:5; Isaiah 29:13 2. God's help may come in unexpected ways → No wind or rain, yet the valley filled with water. → Philippians 4:19; Isaiah 55:8–9 3. Prophets spoke only when led by the Spirit → Elisha needed a musician to calm his spirit before receiving God's word. → 1 Samuel 10:5–6; Ephesians 5:18–19 4. Victory is easy for the Lord → God said delivering Moab was a “light thing.” → Jeremiah 32:27; Romans 8:31 5. Human sacrifice is an abomination → The Moabite king's sacrifice caused deep horror and halted Israel's assault. → Deuteronomy 12:31; Psalm 106:37–38

2 Kings Chapter 4 — Crawford Standard Bible

Miracles of Elisha: Provision, Resurrection, Healing, and Multiplication

A Widow's Oil Multiplied

(Verses 1–7)

1 One day, the widow of a man from the group of prophets came to Elisha and cried out, “My husband is dead, and you know he feared the Lord. Now a creditor is coming to take my two sons as slaves!”

Cross References: Leviticus 25:39; Exodus 21:7; Nehemiah 5:5

2 Elisha asked her, “What can I do to help you? Tell me—what do you have in your house?” She replied, “Nothing at all, except a small jar of olive oil.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 17:12; Matthew 14:17; John 6:9

3 Elisha said, “Go around and borrow empty jars from all your neighbors. Don't just get a few—get as many as you can.

Cross References: 2 Kings 4:6; Exodus 3:22; 2 Kings 4:4

4 Then go into your house with your sons and shut the door. Pour oil from your jar into the other jars, setting each full one aside.”

Cross References: Matthew 6:6; 2 Kings 4:33; 1 Kings 17:19

5 So she obeyed, shut the door behind her and her sons, and began pouring. Her sons brought the jars, and she filled them.

Cross References: 1 Kings 17:14; 1 Kings 17:16; 2 Kings 4:6

6 When every jar was full, she said, “Bring me another.” But they replied, “There are no more.” Then the oil stopped flowing.

Cross References: 2 Kings 4:3; 1 Kings 17:16; Matthew 25:29

7 She went and told Elisha what happened. He said, “Now sell the oil, pay your debt, and you and your sons can live on what’s left.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 17:15; 1 Kings 17:16; Philippians 4:19

A Room for the Prophet

(Verses 8–17)

8 One day Elisha traveled to the town of Shunem. A wealthy woman urged him to stop for a meal, and from then on, he stopped by whenever he was in the area.

Cross References: Genesis 18:1; Genesis 18:8; Luke 10:38

9 She said to her husband, “I know this man who stops here is a holy man of God.

Cross References: 1 Kings 17:24; Luke 7:16; John 4:19

10 Let’s build a small room on the roof for him and furnish it with a bed, a table, a chair, and a lamp.”

Cross References: 2 Kings 4:8; 1 Kings 17:19; 1 Samuel 9:22

11 One day when Elisha came by, he went up to the room to rest.

Cross References: 2 Kings 4:10; 1 Kings 17:19; 2 Kings 4:32

12 He told his servant Gehazi, “Call the Shunammite woman.”

Cross References: 2 Kings 5:20; 2 Kings 4:25; 2 Kings 8:4

13 Elisha said, “You’ve gone to all this trouble for us. What can we do for you? Can we speak to the king or the commander on your behalf?” She answered, “I’m fine. I live among my own people.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 4:25; Micah 4:4; 2 Samuel 9:7

14 Later, Elisha asked Gehazi, “What can we do for her?” Gehazi replied, “She has no son, and her husband is old.”

Cross References: Genesis 18:11; Genesis 15:2; Genesis 16:1

15 Elisha said, “Call her.” When she stood in the doorway,

Cross References: 2 Kings 4:12; 2 Kings 4:13; Genesis 18:10

16 Elisha said, “By this time next year, you’ll hold a son in your arms.” She cried out, “Please, man of God, don’t get my hopes up!”

Cross References: Genesis 18:10; Genesis 18:14; Genesis 21:2

17 But she did become pregnant and had a son, just as Elisha had said.

Cross References: Genesis 21:2; Genesis 18:14; Romans 9:9

The Shunammite's Son Dies and Lives Again

(Verses 18–37)

18 When the child grew older, he went out to the fields one day.

Cross References: Ruth 2:4; 1 Samuel 1:20; Genesis 21:8

19 Suddenly he cried to his father, “My head! My head!” His father told a servant to carry him to his mother.

Cross References: Job 1:19; 2 Kings 4:20; Job 1:18

20 The boy sat on her lap until noon—and then he died.

Cross References: 2 Kings 4:32; 2 Kings 4:34; Job 1:19

21 She carried him up to Elisha's room, laid him on the bed, shut the door, and left.

Cross References: 2 Kings 4:4; 2 Kings 4:33; 1 Kings 17:19

22 She told her husband, “Send me a servant and a donkey. I need to go to the man of God.”

Cross References: Numbers 22:21; 2 Kings 4:24; 1 Kings 13:13

23 He said, “Why go today? It's not a special occasion.” She replied, “It will be all right.”

Cross References: Numbers 28:11; 2 Kings 4:26; Isaiah 1:13

24 She rode quickly to Mount Carmel where Elisha was.

Cross References: 2 Kings 4:22; 1 Kings 13:13; 1 Samuel 25:20 25 When Elisha saw her coming, he told Gehazi, “Look, it's the Shunammite woman.

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:19; 1 Kings 18:20; 2 Kings 2:25

26 Run to her and ask if everything is okay with her, her husband, and her son.” She replied, “Everything is fine.”

Cross References: 2 Kings 4:23; Genesis 43:27; Genesis 43:28

27 But when she reached Elisha, she grabbed his feet. Gehazi tried to push her away, but Elisha said, “Leave her alone. She's deeply troubled, and the Lord hasn't shown me why.”

Cross References: Matthew 15:23; Mark 10:14; Amos 3:7

28 She cried, “Did I ask you for a son? Didn't I say, ‘Don't get my hopes up’?”

Cross References: 2 Kings 4:16; Genesis 18:13; Genesis 18:14

29 Elisha said to Gehazi, “Take my staff and go! Don't stop to talk. Lay the staff on the boy's face.”

Cross References: Exodus 4:2; 2 Kings 4:31; Luke 10:4

30 But the boy's mother said, “I swear by the Lord, I won't leave you!” So Elisha went with her.

Cross References: Ruth 1:16; Ruth 1:17; 2 Kings 2:2

31 Gehazi arrived first and laid the staff on the boy, but there was no sign of life.

Cross References: 2 Kings 4:29; Exodus 4:20; 2 Kings 4:32

32 When Elisha got there, he saw the child lying dead on the bed.

Cross References: 2 Kings 4:21; 2 Kings 4:20; 1 Kings 17:19

33 He went in, shut the door, and prayed to the Lord.

Cross References: 1 Kings 17:20; 1 Kings 17:21; Matthew 6:6

34 Then he lay on the child—mouth to mouth, eyes to eyes, hands to hands. The child’s body grew warm.

Cross References: 1 Kings 17:21; Acts 20:10; 1 Kings 17:17

35 Elisha got up, walked around, and then repeated the act. Suddenly, the boy sneezed seven times and opened his eyes.

Cross References: 1 Kings 17:22; John 11:43; Mark 5:41

36 Elisha called the mother and said, “Take your son.”

Cross References: Luke 7:15; 1 Kings 17:23; Hebrews 11:35

37 She fell at his feet in gratitude, then picked up her child and left.

Cross References: 2 Kings 4:27; 1 Kings 17:23; Luke 17:16

Death in the Pot Healed

(Verses 38–41)

38 Later, Elisha returned to Gilgal during a famine. He told his servant, “Put on the large pot and cook stew for the prophets.”

Cross References: Genesis 41:54; 2 Kings 8:1; 2 Kings 6:25

39 One of them went out to gather herbs and unknowingly picked wild gourds, which were poisonous.

Cross References: Exodus 15:23; Deuteronomy 32:32; Deuteronomy 32:33

40 When the stew was served, they cried out, “Man of God, there’s death in the pot!”

Cross References: 2 Kings 4:41; Exodus 15:24; Exodus 15:25

41 Elisha said, “Bring me some flour.” He threw it into the pot and said, “Now serve it.” And the stew was safe to eat.

Cross References: Exodus 15:25; 2 Kings 2:21; Matthew 15:36

Bread Multiplied for a Hundred Men

(Verses 42–44)

42 A man came from Baal-shalishah, bringing Elisha 20 loaves of barley bread and fresh grain. Elisha said, “Give it to the people so they can eat.”

Cross References: Leviticus 23:10; Numbers 18:13; John 6:9

43 But his servant said, “How can I feed a hundred men with this?” Elisha repeated, “Give it to them. The Lord says: ‘They will eat and have some left over.’”

Cross References: Matthew 14:16; Matthew 14:17; John 6:9

44 So he served them, and they all ate and had leftovers, just as the Lord said.

Cross References: John 6:12; Matthew 14:20; Matthew 14:21

Key Lessons from 2 Kings 4

1. God meets needs through obedience and faith → The widow poured oil in faith, and God provided. → Philippians 4:19; Hebrews 11:6 2. Kindness to others opens doors to miracles → The Shunammite built a room and received a son—and resurrection. → Galatians 6:9–10; Matthew 10:41 3. Persistent faith holds on until breakthrough → The woman wouldn’t leave Elisha’s side until her son was raised. → Luke 18:1–8; 2 Corinthians 5:7 4. God brings healing even in desperate or dangerous situations → Whether “death in the pot” or famine in the land, God provided and healed. → 2 Kings 2:21; Mark 16:18 5. Little becomes much in God’s hands → Bread for a few fed many—foreshadowing Christ’s miracles. → John 6:9–13; 2 Corinthians 9:10

2 Kings Chapter 5 — Crawford Standard Bible

Naaman’s Healing and Gehazi’s Greed

Naaman the Leper Seeks Healing

(Verses 1–8)

1 Naaman was the commander of the Syrian army. He was highly respected by his king, for the Lord had given Syria victories through him. He was a mighty warrior—but he had leprosy.

Cross References: Luke 4:27; Numbers 12:10; Leviticus 13:2

2 During one of their raids, the Syrians had captured a young girl from Israel, and she became a servant to Naaman’s wife.

Cross References: Genesis 37:36; 2 Kings 5:3; 1 Samuel 30:2

3 One day, the girl said, “If only my master were with the prophet in Samaria! He could heal him of his leprosy.”

Cross References: 2 Kings 5:8; 2 Kings 5:1; Luke 4:27

4 Naaman told the king what the girl had said.

Cross References: 2 Kings 5:3; 2 Kings 5:5; 2 Kings 5:6

5 The king of Syria replied, “Go! I’ll send a letter to the king of Israel.” So Naaman left, taking 750 pounds of silver, 150 pounds of gold, and 10 sets of clothes.

Cross References: Genesis 45:22; 2 Kings 5:22; 2 Kings 5:23

6 The letter said, “I have sent my servant Naaman to you, so you can heal him of his leprosy.”

Cross References: 2 Kings 5:7; 2 Kings 5:8; 2 Kings 5:1

7 When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, “Am I God, with power over life and death? Why is this man asking me to heal leprosy? He’s looking for a reason to start a fight!”

Cross References: Genesis 30:2; Deuteronomy 32:39; 1 Samuel 2:6

8 But when Elisha the prophet heard what happened, he sent word to the king: “Why have you torn your clothes? Send the man to me, and he will know there is a prophet in Israel.”

Cross References: 2 Kings 5:15; 1 Kings 18:36; 2 Kings 5:7

Naaman’s Pride, Anger, and Healing

(Verses 9–14)

9 So Naaman came with his horses and chariot and stood at Elisha’s door.

Cross References: 2 Kings 5:10; 2 Kings 5:1; Luke 4:27

10 But Elisha didn’t come out—instead, he sent a messenger: “Go wash yourself seven times in the Jordan River, and your skin will be restored, and you’ll be clean.”

Cross References: Leviticus 14:7; John 9:7; Leviticus 14:9

11 Naaman was furious. He said, “I expected him to come out and wave his hand over the leprosy and call on the name of his God to heal me!

Cross References: 2 Kings 5:13; 1 Kings 18:37; 2 Kings 5:10

12 Aren’t the rivers of Damascus—the Abana and Pharpar—better than any river in Israel? Why can’t I wash in them and be clean?” He stormed off in anger.

Cross References: John 4:20; 2 Kings 5:10; 2 Kings 5:14

13 But his servants said, “If the prophet had asked you to do something difficult, wouldn’t you have done it? So why not do something simple—just wash and be clean?”

Cross References: 2 Kings 5:10; Matthew 11:30; 1 Samuel 15:22

14 So Naaman went down to the Jordan River and dipped himself seven times, just as the man of God had instructed. And his skin was restored like that of a young child—he was completely healed.

Cross References: Matthew 8:3; Luke 5:13; Leviticus 14:7

Naaman Acknowledges the One True God

(Verses 15–19)

15 Naaman and his entire entourage went back to Elisha. He stood before him and said, “Now I know there’s no God in all the world except in Israel! Please accept a gift from me.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:60; Luke 4:27; 2 Kings 5:8

16 But Elisha replied, “As surely as the Lord lives, whom I serve, I will not accept anything.” Naaman urged him, but he refused.

Cross References: Genesis 14:22; Genesis 14:23; Acts 8:20 17 Then Naaman said, “Please allow me to take home two mule-loads of earth, because I will never again offer sacrifices or burnt offerings to any god except the Lord.

Cross References: Exodus 20:5; Joshua 22:19; Exodus 20:24

18 But may the Lord forgive me in this one thing—when my master leans on my arm to bow in the temple of Rimmon, I must bow too. May the Lord pardon your servant in this.”

Cross References: 2 Kings 5:19; 1 Kings 19:18; 1 Corinthians 10:27

19 Elisha told him, “Go in peace.” So Naaman left.

Cross References: Mark 5:34; Luke 7:50; 1 Samuel 1:17

Gehazi’s Greed and Punishment

(Verses 20–27)

20 Gehazi, the servant of Elisha, thought, “My master let that Syrian off too easily by not accepting the gift he brought. As surely as the Lord lives, I’ll run after him and get something from him.”

Cross References: 2 Kings 5:26; Joshua 7:21; 1 Timothy 6:10

21 So Gehazi ran after Naaman. When Naaman saw him, he got down from his chariot and asked, “Is everything all right?”

Cross References: 2 Kings 5:20; Genesis 33:4; 1 Samuel 25:23

22 Gehazi lied and said, “Yes. My master sent me to say that two young prophets just arrived from the hill country of Ephraim. He asks for a talent of silver and two sets of clothing for them.”

Cross References: Acts 5:3; Genesis 44:1; Proverbs 12:22

23 Naaman replied, “Take two talents!” He insisted and gave him two bags of silver, each with a talent inside, along with two sets of clothes. Two of Naaman’s servants carried them for Gehazi.

Cross References: 2 Kings 5:5; 2 Kings 5:24; Joshua 7:21

24 When they reached the hill, Gehazi took the items and hid them in his house, then sent the men away.

Cross References: Joshua 7:21; Joshua 7:22; Proverbs 15:27

25 When he went in to see Elisha, the prophet asked, “Where have you been, Gehazi?” He replied, “I haven’t been anywhere.”

Cross References: Joshua 7:19; Joshua 7:20; Acts 5:3

26 But Elisha said, “Didn’t my spirit go with you when Naaman stepped down from his chariot to meet you? Is this the time to take money and clothes, olive groves and vineyards, sheep and oxen, male and female servants?

Cross References: Joshua 7:20; Joshua 7:21; 1 Timothy 6:10

27 Because of what you've done, Naaman's leprosy will cling to you and your descendants forever." And Gehazi left Elisha's presence covered in leprosy, white as snow.

Cross References: Numbers 12:10; Joshua 7:24; Galatians 6:7

Key Lessons from 2 Kings 5

1. God uses unlikely messengers → A nameless Israelite servant girl was the key to Naaman's healing. → 1 Corinthians 1:27; 2 Kings 5:2–3 2. Pride can block your miracle → Naaman almost missed his healing because the instructions offended his pride. → James 4:6; Proverbs 16:18 3.

God's ways are simple, but powerful → Just washing in the Jordan seemed too easy—but it brought complete healing. → Isaiah 55:8–9; John 9:7 4. Gratitude leads to worship → Naaman became a true worshiper of the Lord after being healed. → Luke 17:15–16; Psalm 116:12–13 5.

Greed corrupts and brings judgment → Gehazi's lie and covetousness led to a lifelong curse. → 1 Timothy 6:10; Acts 5:1–11

2 Kings Chapter 6 — Crawford Standard Bible

The Floating Axe Head (Verses 1–7)

1 The sons of the prophets said to Elisha, "Look, the place where we're staying with you is too small.

Cross References: 1 Kings 19:19; 2 Kings 2:3; 2 Kings 4:38

2 Let's go to the Jordan River and each cut a beam of wood so we can build a bigger house to live in." Elisha said, "Go ahead."

Cross References: Nehemiah 2:18; 1 Kings 5:6; Ezra 3:7

3 One of them asked, "Please come with your servants." And Elisha replied, "I will go."

Cross References: Ruth 1:16; Ecclesiastes 4:9; 1 Kings 19:20

4 So he went with them. When they got to the Jordan, they started cutting down trees.

Cross References: Genesis 12:4; Ruth 1:18; Acts 16:3

5 But as one man was chopping, the iron axe head flew off and fell into the water. He cried out, "Oh no, master! It was borrowed!"

Cross References: Exodus 15:25; 2 Kings 2:21; Matthew 14:29

6 Elisha asked, "Where did it fall?" The man showed him the spot. So Elisha cut a stick, threw it into the water, and the iron axe head floated.

Cross References: 2 Kings 2:14; 2 Kings 4:41; Ecclesiastes 10:10 7 Elisha said, "Pick it up." And the man reached out and took it.

Cross References: Job 42:10; Joel 2:25; 2 Kings 4:7

Elisha Foils the Syrian Army (Verses 8–23)

8 The king of Syria was making war plans against Israel. He told his officers, “We’ll camp at this spot.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 20:1; 1 Kings 22:31; 2 Chronicles 18:30

9 But Elisha sent word to the king of Israel: “Watch out. Don’t go near that place, because the Syrians are waiting there.”

Cross References: Amos 3:7; 1 Samuel 23:9; Psalm 139:2

10 So the king of Israel sent men to check it out. Time and again, Elisha warned the king, and he avoided those areas.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 19:11; Psalm 33:19; Proverbs 21:30

11 The Syrian king was furious and asked, “Which one of you is betraying me to the king of Israel?”

Cross References: Daniel 2:28; Job 12:22; Psalm 44:21

12 One servant replied, “None of us, my lord. It’s Elisha the prophet in Israel. He tells the king of Israel everything—even what you say in your bedroom!”

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 10:20; Luke 12:3; Job 12:22

13 The king ordered, “Go find out where he is so I can capture him.” Someone told him, “Elisha is in Dothan.”

Cross References: Genesis 37:17; 1 Samuel 23:22; Psalm 139:1

14 So he sent horses, chariots, and a large army by night. They surrounded the city.

Cross References: 1 Kings 20:1; Psalm 27:3; 2 Chronicles 32:1

15 The next morning, Elisha’s servant got up and saw the army. He said, “Oh no, master! What will we do?”

Cross References: Numbers 22:34; Exodus 14:10; Genesis 32:7

16 Elisha answered, “Don’t be afraid. Those who are with us are more than those with them.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 32:7; Romans 8:31; 1 John 4:4

17 Then Elisha prayed, “Lord, open his eyes so he can see.” The Lord opened the servant’s eyes, and he saw the hills full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.

Cross References: Psalm 34:7; Psalm 91:11; 2 Kings 2:11

18 As the army came toward Elisha, he prayed, “Lord, strike them with blindness.” And the Lord did.

Cross References: Genesis 19:11; Acts 13:11; Deuteronomy 28:28

19 Elisha said, “This isn’t the right road or city. Follow me, and I’ll take you to the man you’re looking for.” But he led them to Samaria.

Cross References: Isaiah 42:16; Psalm 25:9; John 16:13

20 When they arrived, Elisha prayed, “Lord, open their eyes.” And the Lord did—they were inside Samaria!

Cross References: Numbers 22:31; Genesis 21:19; Luke 24:31

21 The king of Israel saw them and asked Elisha, “Should I kill them, my father? Should I kill them?”

Cross References: 1 Samuel 24:10; Luke 9:54; 2 Samuel 16:9

22 Elisha said, “No! Would you kill prisoners of war? Give them food and water so they can return to their master.”

Cross References: Proverbs 25:21; Romans 12:20; Matthew 5:44

23 So the king prepared a big feast. After they ate and drank, he sent them home. After that, the Syrian raiders stopped attacking Israel.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:7; 1 Samuel 24:19; Luke 6:35

The Siege of Samaria (Verses 24–33)

24 Sometime later, Ben-Hadad king of Syria gathered his army and laid siege to Samaria.

Cross References: 1 Kings 20:1; 2 Kings 17:5; 2 Kings 18:9

25 The famine got so bad that a donkey’s head sold for 80 silver coins, and a small portion of dove droppings sold for five.

Cross References: Leviticus 26:26; Ezekiel 4:16; Deuteronomy 28:53

26 One day, the king of Israel was walking on the city wall when a woman cried, “Help me, my king!”

Cross References: 2 Samuel 14:4; Lamentations 2:11; 2 Kings 8:3

27 He replied, “If the Lord doesn’t help you, how can I? Do I have grain or wine?”

Cross References: Psalm 121:1; Psalm 60:11; Hosea 13:9

28 Then he asked, “What’s wrong?” She answered, “This woman said, ‘Give up your son so we can eat him today. Tomorrow we’ll eat mine.’”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 28:53; Leviticus 26:29; Lamentations 4:10

29 So we boiled my son and ate him. The next day, I said, ‘Now give up your son,’ but she hid him!”

Cross References: Lamentations 4:10; Leviticus 26:29; Deuteronomy 28:57

30 When the king heard this, he tore his clothes in grief. The people saw he was wearing sackcloth underneath.

Cross References: Genesis 37:34; 2 Kings 19:1; Joel 1:13

31 He declared, “May God punish me if Elisha still has his head by the end of the day!”

Cross References: 1 Kings 19:2; Jeremiah 26:11; Matthew 14:10

32 Meanwhile, Elisha was sitting in his house with the elders. The king sent a messenger ahead. Before he arrived, Elisha said, “That murderer’s son has sent someone to kill me. When he comes, hold the door shut. His master is right behind him.”

Cross References: Ezekiel 8:1; Ezekiel 20:1; John 20:19

33 While Elisha was still speaking, the messenger arrived and said, “This disaster is from the Lord. Why should I wait on God any longer?”

Cross References: Job 2:9; Exodus 5:22; Lamentations 3:26

Key Lessons from 2 Kings Chapter 6

1. God Cares About Your Needs – Even a lost axe head mattered to Elisha and to God. He sees the small and the large problems in our lives. 2. Spiritual Eyes See Victory – Elisha’s servant saw enemies; Elisha saw God’s army. Ask God to open your eyes to the spiritual reality. 3. Kindness Over Revenge – Elisha didn’t destroy his enemies when he could have. He showed mercy—just like God shows mercy to us. 4. Fear Breeds Rash Decisions – In the famine, desperation led to horrifying choices. Turning from God during crisis always makes things worse. 5. Don’t Blame God’s Messengers – The king blamed Elisha for the siege, but the problem was the people’s disobedience. True prophets speak truth, not popular opinion.

A Prophetic Promise of Deliverance (Verses 1–2)

1 Elisha said, “Listen to the word of the Lord. This is what the Lord says: By this time tomorrow, at the gate of Samaria, a measure of fine flour will sell for one shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel.”

Cross References: 2 Kings 4:42; Genesis 41:56; Psalm 107:9

2 One of the king’s officers, on whom the king leaned, responded to the man of God, “Even if the Lord opened the windows of heaven, could this really happen?” Elisha replied, “You will see it with your own eyes, but you won’t eat any of it.”

Cross References: Genesis 7:11; Malachi 3:10; Numbers 11:23

Four Lepers Discover a Miracle (Verses 3–8)

3 Meanwhile, four men with leprosy were sitting at the entrance of the city gate. They said to each other, “Why should we stay here until we die?”

Cross References: Leviticus 13:46; Numbers 5:2; Luke 17:12

4 If we go into the city, there’s famine and we’ll die. If we stay here, we’ll die. So let’s go to the camp of the Syrians. If they spare us, we live. If they kill us, we die.”

Cross References: Esther 4:16; 1 Samuel 14:6; Job 13:15

5 At twilight, they set out for the Syrian camp. But when they reached the edge of it, no one was there.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:9; Judges 7:21; Psalm 37:5

6 For the Lord had caused the Syrians to hear the sound of chariots, horses, and a great army. They thought Israel had hired the Hittite and Egyptian kings to attack them.

Cross References: Judges 7:21; 2 Chronicles 20:22; Leviticus 26:36

7 So they ran away in the twilight, abandoning their tents, horses, donkeys—everything. They fled for their lives.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 4:10; Isaiah 30:17; Judges 7:22

8 When the lepers reached the edge of the camp, they entered a tent, ate and drank, and carried away silver, gold, and clothes, and hid them. Then they went into another tent, took more things, and hid them too.

Cross References: Joshua 7:21; 1 Samuel 30:19; Numbers 31:11

Good News Shared and Verified (Verses 9–15)

9 Then they said to each other, “We’re not doing the right thing. This is a day of good news, and we’re keeping it to ourselves. If we wait until morning, punishment will come. Let’s go and tell the palace.”

Cross References: Isaiah 52:7; Ezekiel 33:6; Mark 16:15

10 So they went and called to the gatekeepers of the city, “We went to the Syrian camp, and no one was there—not a sound! The horses and donkeys are still tied up, and the tents are left just as they were.”

Cross References: Luke 24:9; Matthew 28:8; Acts 12:14

11 The gatekeepers shouted the news, and it was reported to the palace.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 4:12; Job 1:15; Luke 8:39

12 The king got up in the night and said to his officials, “I know what the Syrians are doing. They know we’re starving, so they left the camp to ambush us when we come out.”

Cross References: Joshua 8:4; 2 Samuel 17:1; 1 Samuel 23:22

13 One of his servants suggested, “Let’s send out some men with five of the remaining horses. We’ve got nothing to lose—they’re going to die anyway. Let’s send them to see what’s happened.”

Cross References: Numbers 13:17; Joshua 2:1; Numbers 13:2

14 So they took two chariots with horses, and the king sent them after the Syrian army to investigate.

Cross References: Joshua 2:1; Joshua 7:2; Judges 18:2

15 They followed the trail all the way to the Jordan River. The road was littered with clothes and equipment the Syrians had thrown away in their panic. The messengers returned and reported all of this to the king.

Cross References: Exodus 14:30; Psalm 68:12; Isaiah 33:23

Prophecy Fulfilled and Doubt Punished (Verses 16–20)

16 Then the people rushed out of the city and looted the Syrian camp. So a measure of fine flour sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel—just as the Lord had promised.

Cross References: Numbers 23:19; Joshua 21:45; 2 Kings 7:1

17 Now the king had put the same officer—who had doubted Elisha—in charge of the city gate. But when the people stormed out, they trampled him to death, just as Elisha had said.

Cross References: Luke 1:20; Hebrews 3:19; Deuteronomy 18:22

18 Everything happened exactly as Elisha had told the king: “Tomorrow at this time at the gate of Samaria, two measures of barley will sell for a shekel, and a measure of fine flour for a shekel.”

Cross References: Isaiah 55:11; Ezekiel 12:25; 2 Kings 7:1

19 The officer had said, “Even if the Lord opened the windows of heaven, could this happen?” Elisha replied, “You’ll see it with your own eyes, but you won’t eat any of it.”

Cross References: Mark 9:24; Luke 1:18; John 20:25

20 And that’s exactly what happened—he was trampled at the gate and died.

Key Lessons from 2 Kings Chapter 7

1. God’s Word Always Comes True — What Elisha prophesied seemed impossible, but it happened exactly as God said. Never underestimate the power of His promise. 2. Faith Brings Life; Doubt Brings Death — The officer mocked God’s word and died without tasting the blessing. Those who trust in God experience His provision. 3. Desperation Can Lead to Discovery — The lepers were outcasts, yet God used them to deliver the message of salvation. Sometimes, God works through the least expected people. 4. Blessings Aren’t Meant to Be Hoarded — The lepers said, “We do not well” when they kept the good news to themselves. When God blesses us, we are called to share it. 5. God Can Turn the Tide Instantly — In just one night, a starving city was flooded with food. God can reverse any situation when He moves.

2 Kings Chapter 8 — Crawford Standard Bible

A Mother’s Land Restored (Verses 1–6)

1 Elisha said to the woman whose son he had brought back to life, “Get up and leave with your family. Go live wherever you can, for the Lord has called for a famine, and it will last seven years.”

Cross References: Genesis 12:10; Genesis 26:1; Ruth 1:1

2 So the woman did what the man of God said. She left with her family and lived in the land of the Philistines for seven years.

Cross References: Genesis 26:1; Hebrews 11:8; Genesis 12:4

3 After the seven years, she returned from Philistia and went to appeal to the king for her house and land.

Cross References: 2 Kings 6:26; 2 Samuel 14:4; Ruth 4:3

4 Now the king had been talking with Gehazi, Elisha's servant, and asked, "Tell me about the great things Elisha has done."

Cross References: Acts 26:26; Psalm 71:17; Psalm 78:4

5 As Gehazi was telling the king how Elisha had raised a boy from the dead, the woman whose son was restored to life came in to appeal for her property. Gehazi said, "My lord the king, this is the woman! And this is her son, the one Elisha brought back to life!"

Cross References: Genesis 24:15; Esther 4:14; Proverbs 16:9

6 The king questioned her, and she confirmed the story. So he appointed an official to help her, saying, "Give her everything that belonged to her and all the income from her land since the day she left the country until now."

Cross References: Job 42:10; Joel 2:25; Exodus 22:1

Elisha Foretells Hazael's Rise and Violence (Verses 7–15)

7 Elisha traveled to Damascus. Ben-Hadad, king of Syria, was sick, and when he heard that Elisha was in town,

Cross References: 1 Kings 19:15; 2 Kings 5:1; Amos 1:3

8 he told Hazael, "Take a gift and go meet the man of God. Ask him, 'Will I recover from this illness?'"

Cross References: 1 Kings 14:2; 2 Kings 1:2; 1 Samuel 9:7

9 So Hazael went to Elisha, taking with him forty camels loaded with gifts. He stood before Elisha and said, "Your son Ben-Hadad, king of Syria, has sent me to ask, 'Will I recover?'"

Cross References: 1 Kings 14:3; Genesis 32:13; 2 Kings 5:5

10 Elisha replied, "Tell him, 'Yes, you will recover.' But the Lord has shown me that he will certainly die."

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:15; Genesis 20:3; Jeremiah 38:17

11 Elisha stared at Hazael until he felt awkward, then Elisha began to weep.

Cross References: Luke 19:41; Jeremiah 9:1; Luke 22:61

12 Hazael asked, "Why are you crying, my lord?" Elisha answered, "Because I know the evil you will do to Israel—you will set their fortresses on fire, kill their young men with the sword, dash their little ones to the ground, and rip open pregnant women.”

Cross References: Hosea 13:16; Amos 1:13; 2 Kings 15:16

13 Hazael said, “How could your servant, just a dog, do such horrible things?” Elisha answered, “The Lord has shown me that you will become king of Syria.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 19:15; 2 Samuel 9:8; 1 Samuel 17:43

14 When Hazael returned to Ben-Hadad, the king asked, “What did Elisha say?” Hazael replied, “He told me you would recover.”

Cross References: Proverbs 26:28; Jeremiah 28:15; Genesis 37:32

15 But the next day, Hazael took a thick cloth, soaked it in water, and smothered the king to death. Then Hazael became king in his place.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:27; 1 Kings 16:9; Amos 1:4

Jehoram and Ahaziah Reign in Judah (Verses 16–29)

16 In the fifth year of Joram son of Ahab, king of Israel—while Jehoshaphat was still king of Judah—Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat became king of Judah.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 21:1; 1 Kings 22:50; 2 Chronicles 17:1

17 He was 32 years old when he began to reign, and he ruled eight years in Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 21:5; 2 Chronicles 21:20; 1 Kings 22:42

18 He followed the ways of the kings of Israel, just as Ahab’s family did, because he had married Ahab’s daughter. He did evil in the Lord’s sight.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 21:6; 1 Kings 16:31; 2 Chronicles 18:1

19 But the Lord didn’t destroy Judah, because of His promise to David to maintain a lamp for him and his descendants forever.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 7:12; 1 Kings 11:36; Psalm 132:17

20 During Jehoram’s reign, Edom rebelled against Judah and appointed their own king.

Cross References: Genesis 27:40; 2 Chronicles 21:8; Numbers 24:18

21 So Jehoram went with his chariots to Zair. At night, he attacked the Edomites who had surrounded him and his commanders. The Edomite army fled,

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 21:9; Genesis 27:40; 2 Samuel 8:14

22 but Edom remained in rebellion against Judah to this day. Around that same time, Libnah also revolted.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 21:10; Genesis 27:40; Joshua 21:13

23 The rest of Jehoram’s deeds are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah.

Cross References: 1 Kings 14:29; 1 Kings 22:45; 2 Chronicles 24:27

24 Jehoram died and was buried with his ancestors in the city of David. His son Ahaziah became king in his place.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 21:19; 2 Chronicles 22:1; 1 Kings 2:10

25 In the twelfth year of Joram son of Ahab, king of Israel, Ahaziah son of Jehoram became king of Judah.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 22:1; 2 Chronicles 22:2; 2 Kings 8:16

26 Ahaziah was 22 years old when he became king, and he ruled in Jerusalem for one year. His mother's name was Athaliah, granddaughter of Omri, king of Israel.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 22:2; 2 Kings 11:1; 1 Kings 16:29

27 He followed the ways of Ahab's family and did evil in the Lord's sight, for he was related by marriage to Ahab's household.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 22:3; 2 Chronicles 18:1; Deuteronomy 7:3

28 He went with Joram son of Ahab to fight against Hazael, king of Syria, at Ramoth-Gilead. But Joram was wounded in battle.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 22:5; 1 Kings 22:29; 1 Kings 22:3

29 So King Joram returned to Jezreel to recover from his wounds, and King Ahaziah of Judah went down to see him.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 22:6; 1 Kings 22:34; 2 Kings 9:15

Key Lessons from 2 Kings Chapter 8

1. God's Warnings Are Meant to Protect – Elisha warned the woman about the famine, and because she obeyed, she was preserved and later restored. 2. God Restores What Was Lost – Not only did the woman get her land back, but she also received all the income it produced in her absence. 3. God Knows the Heart and Future of Leaders – Elisha saw that Hazael would bring great destruction. God's prophets are given insight not only into what is but into what will be. 4. Spiritual Compromise Leads to National Decline – Judah's kings, by aligning with Ahab's family, led their people away from God, even though God remained faithful to His promise to David. 5. Even Evil Men Can Be Instruments of God's Judgment – Though Hazael was cruel, God allowed him to rise as part of divine justice.

2 Kings Chapter 9 — Crawford Standard Bible

Jehu Is Secretly Anointed King (Verses 1–10)

1 Then Elisha the prophet called one of the young prophets and said, "Get ready, take this flask of oil, and go to Ramoth-gilead.

Cross References: 1 Kings 19:16; Exodus 12:11; 1 Kings 18:46

2 When you arrive, find Jehu son of Jehoshaphat, son of Nimshi. Take him aside from his fellow officers and bring him into a private room.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 16:12; 1 Kings 1:39; 1 Kings 19:16

3 Then pour the oil on his head and say, ‘This is what the Lord says: I anoint you king over Israel.’ Then open the door and run—don’t wait around.”

Cross References: 1 Samuel 10:1; 1 Samuel 16:13; Judges 9:8

4 So the young prophet went to Ramoth-gilead.

Cross References: 1 Kings 19:16; 1 Kings 22:3; 2 Kings 8:28

5 When he arrived, the army commanders were sitting together. He said, “Captain, I have a message for you.” Jehu asked, “For which one of us?” The young man replied, “For you, Captain.”

Cross References: Judges 3:19; 1 Samuel 16:4; 2 Kings 4:13

6 Jehu got up and went into the house. The prophet poured the oil on his head and said, “This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: I anoint you king over the people of the Lord, over Israel.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 15:1; 1 Kings 1:34; 1 Kings 19:16

7 You are to strike down the house of your master Ahab. I will avenge the blood of my servants the prophets and of all the Lord’s servants shed by Jezebel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:4; 1 Kings 21:19; Revelation 6:10 8 The whole family of Ahab will perish. Every last male—slave or free—will be cut off from Israel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 21:21; 1 Kings 14:10; 1 Kings 16:11

9 I will make Ahab’s house like the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat and like the house of Baasha son of Ahijah.

Cross References: 1 Kings 14:10; 1 Kings 16:3; 1 Kings 21:22

10 Dogs will eat Jezebel in Jezreel, and no one will bury her.” Then the prophet opened the door and fled.

Cross References: 1 Kings 21:23; 2 Kings 9:36; Psalm 68:23

Jehu Declared King (Verses 11–13)

11 Jehu returned to his officers, and one of them asked, “Is everything all right? What did that crazy man want with you?” Jehu replied, “You know how they talk.”

Cross References: Hosea 9:7; Jeremiah 29:26; 1 Samuel 21:13

12 “You’re lying,” they said. “Tell us what he said!” So Jehu told them, “He said, ‘This is what the Lord says: I anoint you king over Israel.’”

Cross References: 1 Samuel 16:13; 1 Samuel 10:1; 1 Kings 19:16

13 Immediately they hurried to take off their cloaks and laid them at his feet on the steps. Then they blew the trumpet and shouted, “Jehu is king!”

Cross References: 1 Kings 1:34; Matthew 21:8; 2 Kings 11:14

Jehu’s Conspiracy Against Joram (Verses 14–26)

14 So Jehu plotted against King Joram. Now Joram had been defending Ramoth-gilead against King Hazael of Syria,

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:9; 2 Kings 8:28; 2 Kings 15:10

15 but he had returned to Jezreel to recover from wounds received in battle. Jehu said, “If you are on my side, don’t let anyone escape to report this in Jezreel.”

Cross References: 2 Kings 8:29; 1 Samuel 27:11; Judges 3:26

16 Then Jehu rode in his chariot to Jezreel, where Joram was resting. King Ahaziah of Judah had also gone to visit him.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 22:7; 2 Kings 8:29; 1 Kings 21:1

17 A watchman on the tower in Jezreel saw Jehu’s company coming. He said, “I see a company of men.” Joram ordered, “Send a horseman to ask if they come in peace.”

Cross References: 2 Samuel 18:24; Ezekiel 33:6; Habakkuk 2:1

18 So the horseman rode out and said, “The king asks, ‘Do you come in peace?’” Jehu replied, “What do you know about peace? Fall in behind me.” The watchman reported, “He reached them but isn’t returning.”

Cross References: 2 Samuel 20:9; Jeremiah 6:14; 1 Kings 20:11

19 Then a second horseman was sent out. He asked the same, and Jehu gave the same reply.

Cross References: Jeremiah 8:11; Ezekiel 13:10; 2 Samuel 20:10

20 The watchman reported again, “He reached them, but he isn’t coming back either. The driving looks like Jehu son of Nimshi—it’s furious!”

Cross References: Nahum 2:3; Judges 5:22; 1 Kings 18:46

21 “Get my chariot ready!” Joram ordered. He and King Ahaziah rode out and met Jehu in the field of Naboth the Jezreelite.

Cross References: 1 Kings 21:1; 1 Kings 21:19; 1 Kings 21:16

22 When Joram saw Jehu, he asked, “Do you come in peace, Jehu?” Jehu answered, “How can there be peace as long as your mother Jezebel continues her idolatry and witchcraft?”

Cross References: Nahum 3:4; Revelation 2:20; 1 Kings 16:31

23 Joram turned to flee and shouted to Ahaziah, “Treachery, Ahaziah!”

Key Lessons from 2 Kings Chapter 9

1. God’s Word Always Comes True – Every detail of Elijah’s prophecy about Jezebel and Ahab’s house was fulfilled exactly as God said. 2. Jehu’s Zeal Was Divinely Ordained – Though violent, Jehu’s mission was to execute judgment on the wicked leadership that had corrupted Israel. 3. Sin Has Consequences – Ahab and Jezebel’s crimes were not forgotten by God, even years later. 4. God Raises Up Unexpected Instruments – Jehu, a military officer, became king not by royal succession but by divine appointment. 5. Justice Is Sometimes Swift and Severe – Jehu’s swift actions demonstrate how decisively God can act when His patience runs out.

2 Kings Chapter 10 — Crawford Standard Bible

Jehu Executes Ahab’s Descendants (Verses 1–11)

1 Ahab had seventy sons living in Samaria. Jehu wrote letters and sent them to the officials of Jezreel, to the elders, and to the guardians of Ahab’s sons. He said,

Cross References: Judges 8:30; Judges 9:5; 1 Kings 21:1

2 “As soon as this letter reaches you—since you have your master’s sons, chariots, horses, fortified cities, and weapons—

Cross References: Judges 9:2; 1 Kings 21:1; 2 Chronicles 21:3

3 choose the best and most qualified of his sons, put him on his father’s throne, and fight for your master’s house.”

Cross References: Judges 9:2; Judges 9:5; 2 Chronicles 22:10

4 But they were terrified and said, “Two kings couldn’t stand against him. How can we?”

Cross References: Joshua 2:9; Exodus 15:15; 2 Kings 9:24

5 So the palace administrator, the city governor, the elders, and the guardians sent this reply to Jehu: “We are your servants. We’ll do whatever you say. We won’t make anyone king. Do what seems right to you.”

Cross References: Joshua 9:8; 1 Samuel 11:1; 2 Samuel 15:15

6 Jehu sent another letter: “If you are really loyal to me and willing to obey, then kill the sons of your master and bring me their heads to Jezreel by this time tomorrow.” The seventy sons of Ahab were being raised by the city’s leading men.

Cross References: Judges 9:5; 2 Chronicles 21:4; 2 Kings 11:1

7 When the letter arrived, they slaughtered all seventy of the king’s sons. They put their heads in baskets and sent them to Jehu at Jezreel.

Cross References: Judges 9:5; 1 Kings 21:21; 1 Samuel 17:54

8 A messenger reported to Jehu, “They’ve brought the heads of the king’s sons.” Jehu said, “Pile them in two heaps at the city gate until morning.”

Cross References: 1 Samuel 31:9; 1 Samuel 31:10; Nahum 3:3

9 The next morning, he stood before the people and said, “You are innocent. I plotted against my master and killed him. But who killed all these?”

Cross References: 2 Samuel 3:28; Matthew 27:24; 1 Kings 2:32

10 Understand this: not a single word the Lord spoke against the house of Ahab will fail. The Lord has done what He promised through His servant Elijah.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 21:21; Joshua 21:45; Joshua 23:14

11 Then Jehu killed everyone who remained in Ahab’s family in Jezreel, including his leaders, close friends, and priests—leaving no survivor.

Cross References: 1 Kings 21:21; 1 Kings 16:11; 1 Kings 15:29

Jehu Slaughters Ahaziah’s Relatives (Verses 12–14)

12 Jehu then set out for Samaria. On the way, at a place called Beth-eked of the Shepherds,

Cross References: 1 Samuel 25:4; Genesis 38:12; 2 Samuel 13:23

13 he met some relatives of King Ahaziah of Judah. He asked, “Who are you?” They replied, “We’re relatives of Ahaziah. We’re here to visit the royal family.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 22:8; 2 Kings 9:27; Job 1:14

14 Jehu ordered, “Capture them alive.” His men captured all forty-two and killed them at the well near Beth-eked. None were left alive.

The Destruction of Baal Worship (Verses 18–28)

18 Then Jehu gathered the people and said, “Ahab served Baal a little; Jehu will serve him much.

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:31; Judges 6:31; 1 Kings 18:19

19 So call together all the prophets, priests, and worshipers of Baal. Don’t leave anyone out. I’m preparing a great sacrifice for Baal, and anyone who doesn’t come will die.” (But Jehu was deceiving them to destroy the worshipers of Baal.)

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:19; 1 Kings 18:40; Exodus 32:27

20 He said, “Proclaim a special assembly for Baal.” And it was announced.

Cross References: Joel 1:14; Joel 2:15; Amos 5:21

21 Jehu sent messengers all throughout Israel, and every Baal worshiper came. The temple was packed from one end to the other.

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:19; Exodus 32:3; 1 Kings 18:21

22 Jehu said to the person in charge of the robes, “Bring out garments for all the Baal worshipers.” So he did.

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:4; Zephaniah 1:8; Exodus 28:2

23 Then Jehu and Jehonadab son of Rechab entered the temple of Baal. Jehu said to the worshipers, “Check to make sure no one who serves the Lord is here—only worshipers of Baal.”

Cross References: Exodus 32:26; 1 Kings 18:21; 2 Corinthians 6:17

24 Then they went inside to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Meanwhile, Jehu had stationed eighty men outside. He warned them, “If you let any of them escape, you’ll pay with your own life.”

Cross References: Exodus 32:27; 1 Kings 20:39; Leviticus 24:18

25 As soon as the offering was done, Jehu ordered the guards and officers, “Go in and kill them. Let no one escape!” So they killed them with the sword. The guards and officers dragged out the bodies and went into the inner room of the temple.

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:40; Exodus 32:28; 2 Chronicles 15:13

26 They brought out the sacred pillars from the temple and burned them.

Cross References: Exodus 32:20; Deuteronomy 7:5; 2 Kings 23:4

27 They smashed the pillar of Baal, tore down the temple, and turned it into a public latrine—used to this very day.

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:8; 2 Chronicles 23:17; Judges 6:28

28 This is how Jehu wiped out Baal worship in Israel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 18:40; 2 Chronicles 23:17; Zephaniah 1:4

Jehu's Partial Obedience and Decline (Verses 29–36)

29 However, Jehu did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel to worship the golden calves in Bethel and Dan.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:28; 2 Kings 17:21; 1 Kings 13:33

30 The Lord said to Jehu, “Because you have done well in carrying out what was right in My sight and have carried out My judgment against Ahab’s house, your descendants will sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation.”

Cross References: 2 Kings 15:12; Exodus 20:5; Hosea 1:4

31 But Jehu was not careful to follow the law of the Lord God of Israel with all his heart. He did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam.

Cross References: 1 Kings 11:33; 2 Kings 17:22; 2 Chronicles 25:2

32 During Jehu’s reign, the Lord began to reduce the size of Israel. King Hazael of Syria defeated them throughout their borders—

Cross References: 2 Kings 8:12; Amos 1:3; Hosea 1:4

33 east of the Jordan, in all the land of Gilead, the territory of Gad, Reuben, and Manasseh—from Aroer by the Arnon River to Gilead and Bashan.

Cross References: 2 Kings 8:12; Numbers 32:1; Deuteronomy 3:10

34 The rest of Jehu’s deeds, everything he accomplished, and his military power, are recorded in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:27; 1 Kings 22:39; 1 Kings 14:29

35 When Jehu died, he was buried in Samaria. His son Jehoahaz succeeded him as king.

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:28; 2 Kings 13:1; 1 Kings 2:10

36 Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria for twenty-eight years.

Key Lessons from 2 Kings Chapter 10

1. God Keeps His Promises, Even in Judgment – Every word God spoke through Elijah about Ahab’s house came true, down to the detail. 2. Jehu’s Zeal Was Effective—but Incomplete – He destroyed Baal worship and executed judgment on Ahab’s house, but failed to turn fully from Jeroboam's idolatry. 3. Partial Obedience Isn't Enough – Though Jehu obeyed part of God's will, his failure to fully follow the Lord led to long-term consequences. 4. Religious Hypocrisy Can Be Weaponized – Jehu used deception to eliminate idolaters, showing how even evil can be turned against itself. 5. God Rewards Faithfulness—but Desires the Heart – Jehu was rewarded for doing what was right, but he missed God's deeper desire for wholehearted devotion.

2 Kings Chapter 11 — Crawford Standard Bible

Athaliah Seizes the Throne (Verses 1–3)

1 When Athaliah, the mother of King Ahaziah, saw that her son was dead, she arose and killed all the royal heirs.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 22:10; 2 Kings 8:26; 2 Kings 8:18

2 But Jehosheba, the daughter of King Joram and sister of Ahaziah, took Ahaziah's infant son Joash and secretly rescued him from among the king's sons who were being killed. She hid him and his nurse in a bedroom so that Athaliah would not find him and kill him.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 22:11; Exodus 2:3; Matthew 2:13

3 Joash remained hidden in the Temple of the Lord for six years while Athaliah ruled over the land.

Joash Is Crowned King (Verses 9–12)

9 The commanders carried out everything Jehoiada the priest ordered. They brought their men—those coming on duty and those going off duty on the Sabbath—and all assembled before Jehoiada.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 23:8; 1 Chronicles 27:1; 2 Samuel 23:8

10 Jehoiada gave the commanders the spears and shields that had once belonged to King David and were kept in the Temple.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 23:9; 2 Samuel 8:7; 1 Chronicles 18:7

11 The guards stood with weapons in hand, surrounding the king from the south to the north side of the Temple, in front of the altar and by the sanctuary.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 23:10; 1 Chronicles 12:33; Numbers 1:52

12 Then Jehoiada brought out the king's son, placed the crown on his head, gave him a copy of the covenant law, anointed him, and proclaimed him king. Everyone clapped their hands and shouted, "Long live the king!"

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 23:11; 1 Samuel 10:24; 1 Kings 1:39

Athaliah Is Executed (Verses 13–16)

13 When Athaliah heard the shouting of the guards and the people, she came to the Temple of the Lord.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 23:12; 1 Kings 1:41; 1 Kings 1:45

14 She looked and saw the young king standing by the pillar, as was customary, with the commanders and trumpeters beside him. All the people were celebrating and blowing trumpets. Athaliah tore her clothes and cried, "Treason! Treason!"

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 23:13; 1 Kings 1:34; 2 Samuel 13:31

15 Jehoiada the priest ordered the commanders, "Take her outside between the ranks, and anyone who follows her must be killed with the sword." For the priest had said, "Do not kill her in the Lord's Temple."

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 23:14; Numbers 35:25; Exodus 21:14

16 So they seized her and took her by the horse gate on the palace grounds, and there she was executed.

The Nation Returns to God (Verses 17–21)

17 Then Jehoiada made a covenant between the Lord, the king, and the people: they would be the Lord's people. He also made a covenant between the king and the people.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 23:16; Joshua 24:25; 2 Kings 23:3

18 All the people of the land went to the temple of Baal and tore it down. They smashed its altars and idols and killed Mattan, the priest of Baal, in front of the altars. Then Jehoiada appointed priests to serve in the Lord's Temple.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 23:17; Judges 6:25; 2 Kings 10:27

19 He gathered the commanders, the guards, and all the people, and together they escorted the king from the Temple to the palace through the Guard's Gate. The king sat on the royal throne.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 23:20; 1 Kings 1:46; 1 Chronicles 29:23

20 So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was peaceful because Athaliah had been killed with the sword near the palace.

21 Joash was seven years old when he became king.

Key Lessons from 2 Kings Chapter 11

1. God Preserves His Promises – Though the royal line of David was nearly wiped out, God preserved Joash to fulfill His covenant with David. 2. Courageous Faith Can Change History – Jehosheba's bold act of hiding Joash saved a generation and turned the course of the kingdom. 3. True Worship Must Replace False Worship – After Joash was crowned, the people tore down the temple of Baal and returned to worshiping the Lord. 4. Leadership Requires Covenant Commitment – Jehoiada led not only by restoring the king but by restoring the people's covenant with God. 5. Young People Can Lead with God's Help – Joash was only seven years old when he began to reign, reminding us that age does not limit God's ability to use someone.

2 Kings Chapter 12 — Crawford Standard Bible

Jehoash's Reign Begins (Verses 1–3)

1 In the seventh year of King Jehu, Jehoash began to reign. He ruled in Jerusalem for forty years. His mother's name was Zibiah, from Beersheba.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 24:1; 2 Kings 8:26; 2 Kings 11:21

2 Jehoash did what was right in the eyes of the Lord for as long as Jehoiada the priest instructed him.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 24:2; 2 Kings 11:17; 2 Chronicles 24:14

3 However, the high places were not removed. The people still sacrificed and burned incense there.

Jehoash Orders Temple Repairs (Verses 4–8)

4 Jehoash said to the priests, "All the money brought into the house of the Lord—whether from the census tax, personal vows, or voluntary offerings—

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 24:4; Exodus 30:13; 2 Kings 22:4

5 let the priests collect it from the people they know and use it to repair any damage found in the Temple.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 24:5; 2 Kings 22:5; 1 Kings 5:18

6 But by the twenty-third year of Jehoash’s reign, the priests still had not repaired the Temple.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 24:5; 2 Kings 22:3; 2 Chronicles 24:6

7 So King Jehoash summoned Jehoiada the priest and the other priests and asked, “Why haven’t you repaired the Temple? Stop collecting money from the people for yourselves. Use it only for the Temple repairs.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 24:6; Haggai 1:4; Haggai 1:9

8 The priests agreed to no longer collect money directly from the people and to let others take care of the repairs.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 24:5; Nehemiah 5:12; 2 Chronicles 24:14

A New System for Collecting and Using Funds (Verses 9–16)

9 Jehoiada the priest took a chest, drilled a hole in its lid, and placed it beside the altar on the right as one entered the Temple. The priests guarding the entrance put all the money brought into the Temple into this chest.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 24:8; Exodus 25:10; Mark 12:41

10 Whenever the chest was full, the king’s scribe and the high priest would come, count the money, and bag it up.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 24:11; 2 Kings 22:9; 2 Chronicles 24:14

11 Then they would give it to those overseeing the Temple work. These men paid the carpenters, builders,

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 24:12; 2 Kings 22:5; 1 Kings 5:18

12 masons, and stonecutters. They also purchased timber and dressed stone to repair the damage to the Temple and paid for all other repair costs.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 24:12; 1 Kings 5:18; 2 Chronicles 34:11

13 However, none of this money was used to make silver bowls, snuffers, basins, trumpets, or gold or silver items for the Temple.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 24:14; Exodus 25:38; Exodus 37:23

14 Instead, all the money was given directly to the workers to complete the Temple repairs.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 24:13; 2 Kings 22:6; 1 Kings 6:7

15 No accounting was required from the men who received the money, because they acted with complete honesty.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 24:12; 2 Kings 22:7; Nehemiah 13:13

16 The money from guilt offerings and sin offerings was not placed in the chest—it belonged to the priests.

Cross References: Leviticus 5:15; Leviticus 7:7; Numbers 5:8

Jehoash Pays Off Syria (Verses 17–18)

17 Then King Hazael of Syria attacked and captured Gath. He then turned to attack Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Kings 8:12; 2 Chronicles 24:23; Amos 1:3

18 Jehoash, king of Judah, took all the sacred items that had been dedicated by his forefathers—Jehoshaphat, Jehoram, and Ahaziah—as well as his own offerings and all the gold in the Temple and royal palace, and sent it to King Hazael of Syria. So Hazael withdrew from Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 24:23; 1 Kings 15:18; 2 Kings 16:8

The Assassination of Jehoash (Verses 19–21)

19 The rest of the acts of Jehoash and all he did are recorded in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 24:27; 1 Kings 14:29; 1 Kings 15:7

20 Jehoash's servants plotted against him and assassinated him at the house of Millo on the road to Silla.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 24:25; 2 Kings 14:5; 2 Chronicles 25:3

21 The men who killed him were Jozachar son of Shimeath and Jehozabad son of Shomer. They buried him in the City of David, and his son Amaziah succeeded him as king.

Key Lessons from 2 Kings Chapter 12

1. Godly Leadership Requires Ongoing Accountability Jehoash followed the Lord while Jehoiada the priest guided him, but long-term obedience depends on continuing spiritual accountability. 2. Neglecting God's House Brings Consequences The delay in repairing the Temple revealed a lack of urgency in honoring God. Worship and the upkeep of God's house should never be an afterthought. 3. Integrity in Stewardship Matters to God The Temple repair workers were trustworthy, and no oversight was needed. Their faithfulness is a model for how we should handle God's resources. 4. Compromise with the Enemy Isn't Victory Instead of trusting in God for deliverance, Jehoash gave away holy treasures to appease Hazael. This act of fear weakened the nation spiritually and politically. 5. Ungodliness and Disobedience Lead to Betrayal Despite early faithfulness, Jehoash's later actions brought about internal rebellion. A king once faithful to God was slain by his own servants.

Jehoahaz Reigns Over Israel (Verses 1–9)

1 In the twenty-third year of Joash, son of Ahaziah, king of Judah, Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, became king of Israel in Samaria. He ruled for seventeen years.

Cross References: 2 Kings 10:35; 2 Kings 10:36; 2 Chronicles 25:17

2 He did what was evil in the sight of the Lord. He followed the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who had led Israel into sin. He never turned away from them.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:28; 1 Kings 12:30; 2 Kings 10:31

3 So the Lord's anger burned against Israel, and He allowed them to fall under the power of King Hazael of Syria and his son Ben-Hadad for many years.

Cross References: 2 Kings 8:12; Judges 2:14; Judges 3:8

4 But Jehoahaz pleaded with the Lord for help, and the Lord listened. He saw how severely the king of Syria was oppressing Israel.

Elisha's Final Prophecy and Death (Verses 14–21)

14 Elisha became sick with the illness that would lead to his death. King Jehoash of Israel came down to visit him. He wept over Elisha and cried out, "My father, my father! The chariots and horsemen of Israel!"

Cross References: 2 Kings 2:12; 2 Kings 6:21; 2 Kings 5:8

15 Elisha told him, "Take a bow and some arrows." So he did.

Cross References: Ezekiel 4:1; 1 Kings 22:11; Jeremiah 51:63

16 Then Elisha said, "Put your hand on the bow." As the king did so, Elisha placed his hands over the king's hands.

Cross References: Numbers 27:18; Genesis 48:14; 2 Kings 4:34

17 "Open the east window," he said. The king opened it. "Now shoot," Elisha commanded. As he did, Elisha declared, "This is the Lord's arrow of victory over Syria. You will defeat them at Aphek until they are completely destroyed."

Cross References: 1 Kings 20:13; 1 Kings 20:28; 2 Kings 6:17

18 Then Elisha said, "Take the arrows and strike the ground." Jehoash struck the ground three times and then stopped.

Cross References: 2 Kings 13:19; 1 Kings 22:11; Ezekiel 4:1

19 The man of God became angry and said, "You should have struck five or six times! Then you would have completely defeated Syria. Now you will only defeat them three times."

Cross References: 1 Samuel 15:22; Judges 1:28; 2 Kings 13:25

20 Elisha died and was buried. Later that year, Moabite raiders invaded the land.

Cross References: 2 Kings 13:14; 2 Kings 24:2; 1 Samuel 25:1

21 As some Israelites were burying a man, they saw a band of raiders coming. So they quickly threw the dead man's body into Elisha's tomb. When the body touched Elisha's bones, the man came back to life and stood on his feet.

Israel Delivered Again by God's Mercy (Verses 22–25)

22 Throughout the reign of Jehoahaz, Hazael king of Syria continued to oppress Israel.

Cross References: 2 Kings 8:12; 2 Kings 10:32; 2 Kings 12:17

23 But the Lord was gracious to them. He had compassion and showed them mercy because of His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. He refused to destroy them or cast them from His presence—at least not yet.

Cross References: Exodus 2:24; Leviticus 26:42; Genesis 17:7

24 When Hazael died, his son Ben-Hadad became king in his place.

Cross References: 2 Kings 8:15; 2 Kings 8:28; Amos 1:4

25 Then Jehoash, son of Jehoahaz, recaptured the cities Ben-Hadad had taken from his father. Three times Jehoash defeated Ben-Hadad and recovered the cities of Israel.

Key Lessons from 2 Kings Chapter 13

1. Disobedience Brings Oppression Repeated sin, especially following in the ways of Jeroboam, brought God's judgment through Syrian domination. 2. God Hears the Humble Despite Jehoahaz's evil, his humble cry moved God's heart. God's mercy can still flow even in dark times. 3. Incomplete Obedience Limits Blessing Jehoash's half-hearted obedience—striking the ground only three times—symbolized his lack of full commitment, limiting Israel's victory. 4. God's Power Outlives His Servants Even after Elisha's death, God's power was so strong that it raised the dead—a reminder that God's Word endures beyond the grave. 5. God Remembers His Covenant Though Israel was rebellious, God did not reject them completely because of His promises to the patriarchs. His faithfulness is greater than our failures.

Amaziah Begins His Reign in Judah (Verses 1–6)

1 In the second year of Joash, son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel, Amaziah the son of Joash became king of Judah.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 25:1; 2 Kings 12:21; 2 Kings 13:10

2 He was 25 years old when he began to reign and ruled in Jerusalem for 29 years. His mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 25:1; 2 Kings 15:2; 2 Kings 8:26

3 He did what was right in the Lord's sight, though not like his ancestor David. He followed the example of his father Joash.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 25:2; 1 Kings 15:11; 2 Kings 12:2

4 But the high places were not removed; the people still offered sacrifices and burned incense on them.

Cross References: 2 Kings 12:3; 2 Kings 15:4; 1 Kings 15:14

5 Once his kingdom was secure, Amaziah executed the servants who had assassinated his father, the king.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 25:3; 2 Kings 12:20; 2 Kings 12:21

6 However, he did not kill their children, following what is written in the Law of Moses, where the Lord commanded, “Parents must not be put to death for their children, nor children for their parents. Each person must die for their own sin.”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 24:16; 2 Chronicles 25:4; Ezekiel 18:20

Victory Over Edom and Challenge to Israel (Verses 7–14)

7 Amaziah defeated ten thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt and captured the city of Selah, renaming it Joktheel, a name it still holds today.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 25:11; 2 Samuel 8:13; Psalm 60:1

8 After that, Amaziah sent messengers to King Jehoash of Israel (the son of Jehoahaz, grandson of Jehu), saying, “Come and face me in battle.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 25:17; 1 Kings 20:11; 2 Kings 13:12

9 But King Jehoash of Israel replied with a parable: “The thistle in Lebanon sent a message to the cedar in Lebanon, saying, ‘Give your daughter in marriage to my son.’ But a wild beast passed by and trampled the thistle.

Cross References: Judges 9:8; Judges 9:15; 2 Chronicles 25:18

10 You have defeated Edom, and now you’re arrogant. Be proud of your victory, but stay home. Why stir up trouble that will lead to your downfall—and Judah’s with you?”

Cross References: Proverbs 16:18; 2 Chronicles 25:19; Proverbs 18:12

11 But Amaziah refused to listen. So King Jehoash of Israel went to battle. He and Amaziah faced each other at Beth-shemesh in Judah.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 25:21; Joshua 15:10; 1 Samuel 6:9

12 Judah was defeated, and its army fled to their homes.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 25:22; Deuteronomy 28:25; Leviticus 26:17

13 Jehoash captured Amaziah and then went to Jerusalem. He tore down part of Jerusalem’s wall—about 600 feet—from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 25:23; 2 Kings 25:10; 2 Chronicles 32:5

14 He took all the gold and silver from the Temple and palace treasuries, along with some hostages, and returned to Samaria.

Jeroboam II Reigns Over Israel (Verses 23–29)

23 In the fifteenth year of Amaziah king of Judah, Jeroboam the son of Joash became king of Israel in Samaria. He ruled for 41 years.

Cross References: Hosea 1:1; 2 Kings 13:13; Amos 1:1

24 He did what was evil in the Lord's sight. He did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who had caused Israel to sin.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:28; 1 Kings 12:30; Amos 7:9

25 He restored Israel's borders from Lebo-hamath to the Dead Sea, just as the Lord had spoken through His servant Jonah son of Amittai, the prophet from Gath-hepher.

Cross References: Jonah 1:1; Amos 6:14; Numbers 34:8

26 The Lord saw how bitterly Israel was suffering—there was no one to help, not even a slave or free man left.

Cross References: Exodus 3:7; Judges 2:18; Deuteronomy 32:36

27 Still, the Lord had not said He would blot out the name of Israel, so He used Jeroboam to rescue them.

Cross References: Amos 9:8; Exodus 32:32; Deuteronomy 9:14

28 The rest of Jeroboam's acts, including his military successes and how he recovered Damascus and Hamath for Israel, are written in the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

Cross References: 2 Kings 14:25; Amos 6:13; Amos 6:14

29 Jeroboam died and was buried with the kings of Israel. His son Zechariah became king after him.

Cross References: 2 Kings 15:8; Hosea 1:1; 2 Kings 15:1

Key Lessons from 2 Kings Chapter 14

1. Partial Obedience Is Not Full Faithfulness Amaziah did what was right in God's sight—but only to a point. Like many kings before him, he failed to remove the high places, allowing compromise in worship. 2. Personal Responsibility in Judgment Amaziah obeyed God's law by not punishing the children of those who murdered his father—highlighting God's justice: each person is responsible for their own actions. 3. Pride Comes Before a Fall Amaziah's pride after defeating Edom led him into a foolish war with Israel—and Judah suffered for it. Pride blinds even the godly to danger. 4. God's Mercy Despite Rebellion Even though Israel continued in sin, God used Jeroboam II to rescue them—demonstrating God's compassion in the midst of judgment. 5. The Word of the Lord Stands Forever Jonah's prophecy was fulfilled in Jeroboam II's reign, reminding us that God keeps His promises through unexpected vessels—even flawed ones.

36 The rest of his deeds are written in the chronicles of Judah's kings.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 27:7; 1 Kings 14:19; 2 Chronicles 27:9

37 In those days the Lord began sending enemies against Judah: Rezin king of Syria and Pekah of Israel.

Cross References: Isaiah 7:1; Isaiah 7:4; 2 Chronicles 28:5

38 Jotham died and was buried with his ancestors in the City of David. His son Ahaz became king after him.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 27:9; 2 Kings 16:1; 2 Chronicles 28:1

Key Lessons from 2 Kings Chapter 15

1. Even Good Kings Can Have Flaws Azariah (Uzziah) did what was right, but his pride and disobedience led to leprosy (see 2 Chronicles 26). Righteousness requires humility and consistency.
2. God Fulfills His Word The prophecy to Jehu about four generations on Israel's throne came true exactly. God's promises—both for blessing and judgment—stand firm.
3. Cycles of Sin Bring Down

Nations Despite leader after leader rising in Israel, most followed the sins of Jeroboam. It led to civil unrest, assassinations, and ultimately, foreign captivity. 4. External Threats Reflect Internal Weakness The invasions by Assyria under Pul and Tiglath-pileser show that moral decay often precedes national vulnerability. 5. Leaders Set the Tone Judah experienced relative peace and blessing under righteous kings, while Israel suffered because its rulers consistently chose evil.

2 Kings Chapter 16 — Crawford Standard Bible

Ahaz Becomes King of Judah (Verses 1–4)

1 In the seventeenth year of Pekah son of Remaliah, Ahaz son of Jotham became king of Judah.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 28:1; Isaiah 7:1; 2 Kings 15:38

2 He was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he ruled sixteen years in Jerusalem. But he did not do what was right in the sight of the Lord his God, as David his ancestor had.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 28:1; 1 Kings 15:3; Isaiah 7:1

3 Instead, he followed the wicked practices of the kings of Israel. He even sacrificed his own son in fire, following the detestable customs of the pagan nations that the Lord had driven out before the Israelites.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 28:3; Leviticus 18:21; Deuteronomy 18:10

4 Ahaz offered sacrifices and burned incense on the high places, on the hills, and under every green tree.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 28:4; 1 Kings 14:23; Hosea 4:13

Judah Attacked and Ahaz Turns to Assyria (Verses 5–9)

5 Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah son of Remaliah, king of Israel, came up to fight against Jerusalem. They besieged Ahaz but were unable to defeat him.

Cross References: Isaiah 7:1; 2 Chronicles 28:5; Isaiah 7:6

6 At that time Rezin king of Syria recovered the city of Elath for Syria and drove out the Jews. The Syrians settled in Elath, and they remain there to this day.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 26:2; 1 Kings 9:26; 2 Kings 14:22

7 So Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-pileser, king of Assyria, saying, “I am your servant and your son. Come up and save me from the kings of Syria and Israel who are attacking me.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 28:16; Isaiah 7:17; Hosea 5:13

8 Ahaz took silver and gold from the Temple of the Lord and from the royal treasury and sent it as a gift to the king of Assyria.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 28:21; 1 Kings 15:18; 2 Kings 12:18

9 The king of Assyria responded by marching against Damascus. He captured it, took its people away to Kir, and killed Rezin.

Cross References: Amos 1:5; Isaiah 8:4; Isaiah 7:8

Ahaz Copies a Pagan Altar (Verses 10–16)

10 King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-pileser. While there, he saw a pagan altar. He sent a detailed sketch and description of its design to Urijah the priest.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 28:23; Exodus 25:40; 2 Kings 16:16

11 Urijah built the altar just as Ahaz had described, and it was ready by the time the king returned.

Cross References: 2 Kings 16:10; Exodus 25:40; 1 Kings 12:32

12 When Ahaz returned from Damascus, he approached the new altar and offered sacrifices on it.

Cross References: Leviticus 17:8; 1 Kings 12:32; 2 Chronicles 28:23

13 He presented his burnt offerings, grain offerings, and drink offerings, and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings on this new altar.

Cross References: Leviticus 1:9; Leviticus 3:1; Numbers 15:5

14 He then moved the bronze altar, which stood before the Lord, from its position in front of the Temple and placed it on the north side of the new altar.

Cross References: Exodus 27:1; 1 Kings 8:64; 2 Chronicles 4:1

15 King Ahaz commanded Urijah, “Use the great new altar for the morning and evening offerings, the king’s offerings, and the offerings of the people. Sprinkle all the blood on it. The bronze altar will be used only for me to seek guidance.”

Cross References: Exodus 29:38; Numbers 28:3; Malachi 2:7

16 So Urijah did everything as the king instructed.

Cross References: 2 Kings 16:11; Proverbs 29:12; 1 Kings 12:28

Ahaz Defiles the Temple (Verses 17–20)

17 King Ahaz then dismantled the bronze bases and removed the washbasin from them. He also removed the bronze Sea from the oxen that held it and placed it directly on a stone foundation.

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:27; 1 Kings 7:23; Jeremiah 52:17

18 He even took away the covered walkway used on the Sabbath and closed off the royal entrance to the Temple to appease the king of Assyria.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 28:24; Ezekiel 44:1; Nehemiah 13:22

19 The rest of Ahaz’s actions are recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 28:26; 2 Kings 15:36; 1 Kings 14:29

20 When Ahaz died, he was buried with his ancestors in the City of David. His son Hezekiah became king after him.

Key Lessons from 2 Kings Chapter 16

1. Rejecting God Leads to Desperation Instead of trusting in the Lord during times of war, King Ahaz turned to a foreign power (Assyria) and sacrificed sacred treasures to gain their favor. Relying on man over God brings long-term ruin. 2. Pagan Influence Corrupts Worship Ahaz saw a pagan altar in Damascus and brought its design back to Jerusalem, replacing true worship with imitation. Compromising God's standards to copy the world leads to defiled worship. 3. God's Temple Must Not Be Defiled Ahaz reordered, repurposed, and removed sacred furnishings from the Temple—all to please a foreign king. Holy things should be treated with reverence, not rearranged to suit politics or trends. 4. Even Evil Kings Shape a Nation Ahaz's reign was marked by idolatry, human sacrifice, and political compromise. His choices brought spiritual and national decline. Leaders have far-reaching influence—for good or for evil. 5. Hope Rises in the Next Generation Though Ahaz was wicked, his son Hezekiah would bring revival and reform. God's mercy often shines brightest after the darkest reigns.

2 Kings Chapter 17 — Crawford Standard Bible

Hoshea Reigns Over Israel and Rebels Against Assyria (Verses 1–6)

1 In the twelfth year of King Ahaz of Judah, Hoshea son of Elah began to reign in Samaria over Israel. He ruled for nine years.

Cross References: 2 Kings 15:30; 2 Kings 18:9; Hosea 10:7

2 He did evil in the eyes of the Lord, though not as badly as the kings of Israel who came before him.

Cross References: 2 Kings 3:2; 2 Kings 10:31; Hosea 13:11

3 King Shalmaneser of Assyria marched against Hoshea. Hoshea became his vassal and paid him tribute.

Cross References: 2 Kings 15:19; 2 Kings 18:9; Hosea 10:14

4 But the king of Assyria discovered Hoshea's conspiracy, for Hoshea had sent envoys to So king of Egypt and stopped paying his annual tribute to Assyria. So the Assyrian king arrested him and threw him in prison.

Cross References: Isaiah 30:1; Hosea 7:11; Ezekiel 17:15

5 Then the king of Assyria invaded all of Israel and laid siege to Samaria for three years.

Cross References: 2 Kings 18:9; Micah 1:6; Hosea 13:16

6 In the ninth year of Hoshea's reign, the Assyrians captured Samaria. They deported the people of Israel to Assyria and resettled them in Halah, Habor, near the Gozan River, and in the cities of the Medes.

Why Israel Was Exiled (Verses 7–23)

7 This happened because the people of Israel had sinned against the Lord their God, who brought them out of slavery in Egypt. They began to worship other gods

Cross References: Deuteronomy 6:12; Judges 2:12; Exodus 20:2

8 and followed the customs of the pagan nations the Lord had driven out, as well as the practices established by the kings of Israel.

Cross References: Leviticus 18:3; Leviticus 20:23; Deuteronomy 12:30 9 The Israelites secretly committed sins against the Lord their God. They built high places in all their towns, from watchtower to fortified city.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 12:2; 1 Kings 14:23; Jeremiah 3:6

10 They set up pagan images and Asherah poles on every high hill and under every green tree.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 12:2; 1 Kings 14:23; Isaiah 57:5

11 There they burned incense like the nations the Lord had destroyed. They did evil to provoke the Lord to anger.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:16; Psalm 78:58; Ezekiel 6:13

12 They worshiped idols, though the Lord had commanded, “You must not do this.”

Cross References: Exodus 20:3; Exodus 20:4; 1 John 5:21

13 Yet the Lord sent His prophets and seers again and again, warning them, “Turn from your evil ways. Obey My commandments and statutes—the laws I gave your ancestors through My servants the prophets.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 36:15; Jeremiah 25:4; Zechariah 1:4

14 But the people would not listen. They were stubborn as their ancestors who refused to believe in the Lord.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 31:27; Nehemiah 9:16; Jeremiah 7:26

15 They rejected God’s laws and covenant, and followed worthless idols, becoming worthless themselves. They imitated the surrounding nations, even though the Lord had warned them not to.

Cross References: Jeremiah 2:5; Psalm 106:35; Deuteronomy 29:25

16 They abandoned all the commands of the Lord. They made two golden calves, set up an Asherah pole, worshiped the stars, and served Baal.

Cross References: Exodus 32:4; 1 Kings 12:28; Deuteronomy 4:19

17 They sacrificed their sons and daughters in fire, practiced divination, and sold themselves to do evil. They provoked the Lord's fierce anger.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 18:10; Leviticus 20:2; 2 Chronicles 33:6

18 So the Lord became very angry with Israel and removed them from His presence. Only the tribe of Judah remained.

Cross References: Hosea 9:17; 2 Kings 23:27; Deuteronomy 29:28

19 But even Judah did not obey the commandments of the Lord. They followed the same evil practices that Israel had introduced.

Cross References: Jeremiah 3:8; Ezekiel 23:11; 2 Chronicles 36:14

20 So the Lord rejected all of Israel's descendants, allowing them to be plundered and eventually exiled.

Cross References: Judges 2:14; Psalm 106:40; Amos 3:2

21 From the time the kingdom split and Jeroboam was made king, Israel was led into sin and never turned back.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:16; 1 Kings 12:28; 1 Kings 12:20

22 They continued walking in Jeroboam's sins, and

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:30; 1 Kings 15:26; 1 Kings 15:34

23 the Lord finally cast them out, just as He had warned through His prophets. Israel was exiled to Assyria, where they remain to this day.

Cross References: Jeremiah 25:9; Amos 5:27; Hosea 9:3

Foreigners Resettle in Samaria (Verses 24–33)

24 The king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, Cuthah, Ava, Hamath, and Sepharvaim, and settled them in the cities of Samaria in place of the exiled Israelites.

Cross References: Ezra 4:2; Ezra 4:10; John 4:9

25 When they first lived there, they did not honor the Lord. So He sent lions among them, which killed some of them.

Cross References: Leviticus 26:22; Numbers 21:6; 2 Kings 2:24

26 The settlers sent word to the king of Assyria: "The people you resettled don't know how to worship the God of this land. That's why He sent lions to attack us."

Cross References: 1 Samuel 6:2; Deuteronomy 4:6; 2 Kings 17:41

27 So the king ordered: "Send back one of the Israelite priests we took captive. Let him live there and teach them how to honor the God of the land."

Cross References: Ezra 7:25; Malachi 2:7; Deuteronomy 33:10

28 So a priest returned and settled in Bethel, teaching the new inhabitants how to worship the Lord.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:29; Amos 7:13; Genesis 28:19

29 However, each nation still made its own gods and placed them in the high places the Samaritans had made.

Cross References: 2 Kings 17:41; 1 Kings 12:31; Ezekiel 20:32

30 The Babylonians worshiped Succoth-benoth, the men of Cuth worshiped Nergal, the people of Hamath worshiped Ashima,

Cross References: 2 Kings 17:31; Jeremiah 50:2; Isaiah 46:1

31 and the Avites worshiped Nibhaz and Tartak. The Sepharvites burned their children in fire as sacrifices to Adrammelech and Anammelech.

Cross References: Leviticus 18:21; 2 Kings 23:10; Jeremiah 32:35

32 So they worshiped the Lord, but also appointed their own low-born priests to offer sacrifices at the high places.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:31; 1 Kings 13:33; 2 Chronicles 13:9

33 They feared the Lord, but also served their own gods, just as they had before being resettled.

Cross References: Zephaniah 1:5; Matthew 6:24; 1 Kings 18:21

Mixed Worship Continues (Verses 34–41)

34 To this day, these people continue their former practices. They neither truly fear the Lord nor obey His statutes, decrees, and commands given to Jacob—whom He named Israel.

Cross References: 2 Kings 17:41; John 4:20; John 4:22

35 The Lord had made a covenant with them, saying: “You must not fear or serve other gods.

Cross References: Exodus 23:32; Judges 6:10; Exodus 20:5

36 I, the Lord, who brought you out of Egypt with great power and an outstretched arm—worship Me only.

Cross References: Exodus 20:2; Deuteronomy 6:13; Deuteronomy 10:20

37 Obey the laws I wrote for you.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 5:1; Deuteronomy 6:1; Psalm 78:5

38 Don’t forget the covenant I made with you.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 4:23; Psalm 105:8; Jeremiah 11:10

39 Fear Me, the Lord your God, and I will deliver you from your enemies.”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 13:4; Psalm 91:15; 1 Samuel 12:24

40 But they did not listen. They continued practicing their old religions.

Cross References: Judges 2:17; Jeremiah 7:24; Ezekiel 20:39

41 So the new settlers feared the Lord, but also served their idols—and so did their descendants, even to this day.

Cross References: 2 Kings 17:33; John 4:9; Ezra 4:2

Key Lessons from 2 Kings Chapter 17

1. God is Patient, But Judgment Comes Despite generations of rebellion, God sent prophets warning Israel to repent. When they refused, judgment finally came through exile. 2. Idolatry Brings National Ruin Worshiping other gods led Israel to moral decay and divine judgment. No nation can defy God's commandments and stand secure. 3. Superficial Worship Is Not Enough The resettled nations “feared the Lord” outwardly, but continued to serve false gods. God desires wholehearted devotion, not a blend of truth and lies. 4. God's Covenant Must Be Honored Israel broke the covenant repeatedly, ignoring both law and grace. God keeps His promises, but also His warnings. 5. Faith Cannot Be Compromised God is not one of many; He is the only One. Divided worship is ultimately disobedience.

Hezekiah Reigns with Righteousness and Trust in God

Hezekiah's Righteous Reign Begins (Verses 1–8)

1 In the third year of Hoshea son of Elah, king of Israel, Hezekiah son of Ahaz began to reign in Judah.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 29:1; Isaiah 36:1; 2 Kings 16:20

2 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abi, daughter of Zechariah.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 29:1; Isaiah 1:1; 2 Chronicles 29:2

3 He did what was right in the eyes of the Lord, just as his ancestor David had done.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 29:2; 1 Kings 15:11; 2 Kings 22:2

4 He removed the high places, smashed the sacred pillars, cut down the Asherah poles, and broke into pieces the bronze serpent that Moses had made, because the Israelites had been burning incense to it. He called it Nehushtan ("a piece of bronze").

Cross References: Numbers 21:9; John 3:14; 2 Chronicles 31:1

5 Hezekiah trusted in the Lord, the God of Israel. There was no king like him among all the kings of Judah, either before or after.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 32:8; Psalm 118:8; Jeremiah 17:7

6 He remained faithful to the Lord and did not turn from Him. He obeyed the commands the Lord had given Moses.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 10:20; Joshua 23:8; Deuteronomy 11:22

7 The Lord was with him, and he was successful in everything he did. He even rebelled against the king of Assyria and refused to serve him.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 32:23; Genesis 39:2; 2 Kings 17:4

8 He conquered the Philistines, all the way to Gaza, from watchtower outposts to fortified cities.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 28:18; 1 Samuel 6:17; Isaiah 14:29

Assyria Captures Samaria and Deports Israel (Verses 9–12)

9 In the fourth year of Hezekiah's reign (which was the seventh year of Hoshea king of Israel), Shalmaneser king of Assyria came to attack Samaria and laid siege to it.

Cross References: 2 Kings 17:5; Hosea 13:16; 2 Kings 17:3

10 After three years, in Hezekiah's sixth year and Hoshea's ninth, Samaria fell.

Cross References: 2 Kings 17:6; Hosea 10:7; Micah 1:6

11 The king of Assyria deported the Israelites to Assyria and settled them in Halah, Habor by the Gozan River, and in cities of the Medes.

Cross References: 2 Kings 17:6; 1 Chronicles 5:26; Deuteronomy 28:36

12 This happened because they disobeyed the Lord, violated His covenant, and refused to listen or obey His laws given through Moses.

Cross References: 2 Kings 17:7; Deuteronomy 28:15; Jeremiah 44:23

Sennacherib Invades Judah and Threatens Jerusalem (Verses 13–16)

13 In Hezekiah's fourteenth year, Sennacherib king of Assyria attacked all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them.

Cross References: Isaiah 36:1; 2 Chronicles 32:1; Isaiah 10:28

14 Hezekiah sent a message to the king of Assyria at Lachish, saying, "I have done wrong. Withdraw from me, and I will pay whatever you demand." So the king of Assyria demanded 300 talents of silver and 30 talents of gold.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 32:1; Isaiah 33:1; 2 Kings 16:8

15 Hezekiah gave him all the silver found in the temple of the Lord and in the royal treasuries.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 16:2; 1 Kings 15:18; 2 Chronicles 32:1

16 He even stripped the gold from the doors and pillars of the temple that he had overlaid and gave it to the king of Assyria.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:18; 2 Kings 12:18; 2 Chronicles 28:21

Assyrian Threats and Blasphemy (Verses 17–37)

17 Then the king of Assyria sent three officials—Tartan, Rabsaris, and Rabshakeh—with a large army from Lachish to King Hezekiah in Jerusalem. They came and stood by the aqueduct of the upper pool, along the road to the Fuller’s Field.

Cross References: Isaiah 36:2; Isaiah 7:3; 2 Chronicles 32:9

18 They called for the king, and Eliakim son of Hilkiah, who was in charge of the palace, along with Shebna the scribe and Joah son of Asaph the recorder, came out to meet them.

Cross References: Isaiah 36:3; Isaiah 22:20; Isaiah 22:15

19 Rabshakeh said to them, “Give this message to Hezekiah: ‘This is what the great king, the king of Assyria, says: What are you trusting in?’

Cross References: Isaiah 36:4; Isaiah 10:8; Psalm 20:7

20 You speak of having plans and strength for war, but they are just empty words. Who are you relying on, that you dare rebel against me?

Cross References: Isaiah 36:5; Isaiah 30:1; Proverbs 21:30

21 If it’s Egypt, you’re trusting a broken reed—it’ll pierce your hand if you lean on it. That’s exactly what Pharaoh does to everyone who trusts in him.

Cross References: Isaiah 36:6; Ezekiel 29:6; Isaiah 30:3

22 If you say, “We trust in the Lord our God,” isn’t that the one whose high places and altars Hezekiah removed? Didn’t he say you had to worship only at this altar in Jerusalem?”

Cross References: Isaiah 36:7; 2 Chronicles 32:12; 2 Kings 18:4

23 “Now make a deal with my master, the king of Assyria. I’ll give you 2,000 horses, if you can even find riders for them!

Cross References: Isaiah 36:8; Isaiah 31:1; Judges 5:22

24 How can you defeat even one of my master’s junior officers when you’re depending on Egypt for chariots and horsemen?

Cross References: Isaiah 36:9; Isaiah 31:1; Isaiah 30:16

25 Do you think I came up here without the Lord? The Lord Himself told me, ‘Go up and destroy this land.’”

Cross References: Isaiah 36:10; Isaiah 10:5; Isaiah 45:1

26 Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah said to Rabshakeh, “Please speak to us in Aramaic, not in Hebrew. We understand it. Don’t speak in Hebrew so the people on the wall can hear.”

Cross References: Isaiah 36:11; Isaiah 33:19; Nehemiah 13:24

27 But Rabshakeh replied, “My orders are for everyone—your king, your leaders, and the people who will be eating their own dung and drinking their own urine when the siege comes.”

Cross References: Isaiah 36:12; Deuteronomy 28:53; Lamentations 4:10

28 Then Rabshakeh stood up and shouted in Hebrew to the people on the wall: “Listen to the great king, the king of Assyria!

Cross References: Isaiah 36:13; 2 Chronicles 32:18; Nehemiah 13:24

29 Don’t let Hezekiah deceive you! He can’t save you!

Cross References: Isaiah 36:14; 2 Chronicles 32:15; Jeremiah 37:9

30 Don’t let him make you trust in the Lord, saying, ‘The Lord will rescue us.’ This city will not escape his hand.

Cross References: Isaiah 36:15; 2 Chronicles 32:11; 2 Chronicles 32:15

31 Don’t listen to Hezekiah! Make peace with me and come out. Then each of you can eat from your own vine and fig tree and drink from your own well—

Cross References: Isaiah 36:16; Micah 4:4; 1 Kings 4:25

32 until I come to take you to a land just like yours: a land of grain, wine, bread, vineyards, olives, and honey. You’ll live, not die! Don’t let Hezekiah mislead you with promises of the Lord’s deliverance.”

Cross References: Isaiah 36:17; Deuteronomy 8:7; Exodus 3:8

33 “Have any of the gods of other nations ever rescued them from the king of Assyria?

Cross References: Isaiah 36:18; Isaiah 10:10; 2 Chronicles 32:13

34 Where are the gods of Hamath, Arpad, Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah? Did they rescue Samaria?

Cross References: Isaiah 36:19; Isaiah 10:9; 2 Chronicles 32:19

35 What god has ever saved his land from my hand? Do you think the Lord can rescue Jerusalem?”

Cross References: Isaiah 36:20; 2 Chronicles 32:14; Exodus 5:2

36 But the people remained silent and didn’t answer a word, for the king had commanded, “Do not answer him.”

Cross References: Isaiah 36:21; Proverbs 26:4; Amos 5:13

37 Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah returned to Hezekiah with torn clothes and told him everything Rabshakeh had said.

Cross References: Isaiah 36:22; Genesis 37:34; Joel 2:13

Key Lessons from 2 Kings Chapter 18

1. True Leadership Requires Godly Trust Hezekiah didn’t just do what was right—he trusted deeply in the Lord. Real leadership is anchored in unwavering faith, not politics or military might. 2. Idols Must Be Torn Down Hezekiah didn’t just start fresh—he destroyed false religion, even relics like the bronze serpent that had become idols. Revival begins with radical obedience. 3. God’s Presence Brings Victory Because Hezekiah clung to the Lord, the Lord was with him and made him prosper. God honors loyalty with His favor. 4. The Enemy Will Try to Intimidate You Assyria used fear, lies, and confusion to shake Judah's confidence. Satan does the same today—questioning our trust in God and offering false promises. 5. God is Greater than the Strongest Enemy Though Rabshakeh mocked the Lord, God's power would soon be revealed. Never underestimate what God can do, no matter how loud the enemy shouts.

The Lord Delivers Jerusalem

Hezekiah Seeks God's Help (Verses 1–7)

1 When King Hezekiah heard what had been said, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth, and went into the Temple of the Lord.

Cross References: Isaiah 37:1; Joel 1:13; Jonah 3:6

2 He sent Eliakim (the palace administrator), Shebna the scribe, and the senior priests—also wearing sackcloth—to the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz.

Cross References: Isaiah 37:2; Isaiah 1:1; Jeremiah 21:1

3 They said to him, “This is what Hezekiah says: Today is a day of trouble, rebuke, and disgrace. It's like a woman trying to give birth, but there's no strength left to deliver the child.”

Cross References: Isaiah 37:3; Hosea 13:13; Isaiah 26:17

4 Perhaps the Lord your God has heard all the blasphemous words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria sent to insult the living God. Maybe He will punish him for what He's heard. So please pray for the few of us who are left.”

Cross References: Isaiah 37:4; Isaiah 10:20; Romans 9:27

5 When Hezekiah's officials arrived,

Cross References: Isaiah 37:5; 2 Chronicles 32:20; Jeremiah 37:3

6 Isaiah told them, “Give this message to your master: This is what the Lord says—Do not be afraid of the words you've heard, the insults the Assyrian king's servants have spoken against Me.”

Cross References: Isaiah 37:6; Deuteronomy 31:6; Isaiah 41:10

7 I will make him return to his own country after hearing a rumor, and there he will be killed with a sword.”

Cross References: Isaiah 37:7; 2 Chronicles 32:21; Isaiah 10:16

Assyria Tries Again to Intimidate Hezekiah (Verses 8–13)

8 Rabshakeh returned to his king and found him fighting against Libnah, because he had left Lachish.

Cross References: Isaiah 37:8; 2 Chronicles 32:9; Micah 1:13

9 Then he heard that Tirhakah, king of Ethiopia, was marching out to fight him. So he sent messengers back to Hezekiah with this message:

Cross References: Isaiah 37:9; Nahum 3:9; Isaiah 20:5

10 “Tell Hezekiah king of Judah: Don’t let the God you trust fool you into thinking Jerusalem won’t fall to the king of Assyria.

Cross References: Isaiah 37:10; 2 Chronicles 32:15; 2 Kings 18:29

11 You’ve heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all the nations—completely destroying them. Do you think you’ll escape?

Cross References: Isaiah 37:11; 2 Chronicles 32:13; 2 Kings 18:33

12 Were the gods of Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden in Thelasar able to rescue them?

Cross References: 2 Kings 17:6; Isaiah 37:12; Ezekiel 27:23

13 What happened to the kings of Hamath, Arpad, Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah?”

Cross References: Isaiah 37:13; 2 Kings 18:34; Isaiah 10:9

Hezekiah’s Prayer (Verses 14–19)

14 Hezekiah received the letter from the messengers, read it, and went up to the Temple. He spread the letter out before the Lord

Cross References: Isaiah 37:14; 2 Chronicles 32:20; Psalm 62:8

15 and prayed: “O Lord, God of Israel, You sit enthroned between the cherubim. You alone are God of all the kingdoms of the earth. You made heaven and earth.

Cross References: Isaiah 37:15; Psalm 80:1; 1 Samuel 4:4

16 Lord, bend down and listen! Open Your eyes and see! Listen to how Sennacherib has insulted the living God.

Cross References: Isaiah 37:17; Psalm 17:6; Daniel 9:18

17 It’s true, Lord, that the kings of Assyria have destroyed many nations.

Cross References: Isaiah 37:18; Nahum 3:1; Isaiah 10:13

18 They have thrown their gods into the fire, but they were not gods at all—just man-made statues of wood and stone. That’s why they were destroyed.

Cross References: Isaiah 37:19; Psalm 115:4; Isaiah 44:9

19 Now, Lord our God, rescue us from his power so that all the kingdoms of the earth will know that You alone are the Lord.”

Cross References: Isaiah 37:20; Psalm 83:18; Ezekiel 38:23

God Responds Through Isaiah (Verses 20–34)

20 Then Isaiah sent a message to Hezekiah: “This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: I have heard your prayer about Sennacherib king of Assyria.

Cross References: Isaiah 37:21; Psalm 65:2; 2 Chronicles 32:20 21 Here’s what the Lord has spoken against him: ‘The virgin daughter of Zion laughs at you. Jerusalem shakes her head in scorn.

Cross References: Isaiah 37:22; Lamentations 2:15; Isaiah 1:8

22 Who have you insulted and blasphemed? You’ve lifted your voice against the Holy One of Israel!

Cross References: Isaiah 37:23; Isaiah 1:4; Psalm 74:18

23 You sent messengers to mock Me, boasting, “I came with my chariots to the mountaintops of Lebanon. I cut down the best cedar and cypress trees. I entered the deepest forests.

Cross References: Isaiah 37:24; Isaiah 10:33; Isaiah 14:13

24 I dug wells and drank foreign waters. I dried up all Egypt’s rivers with the soles of my feet!”

Cross References: Isaiah 37:25; Isaiah 19:6; Isaiah 10:8

25 But haven’t you heard? I planned all this long ago. Now I’ve brought it to pass. You were meant to destroy fortified cities into ruins.

Cross References: Isaiah 37:26; Isaiah 46:10; Isaiah 10:5

26 That’s why their people had no strength. They were like plants in the field— like green shoots, scorched before they grew up.

Cross References: Isaiah 37:27; Psalm 103:15; Isaiah 40:6

27 I know where you live, when you come and go, and how you rage against Me.

Cross References: Isaiah 37:28; Psalm 139:2; Psalm 121:8

28 Because of your rage and arrogance, I will put My hook in your nose and My bridle in your mouth, and I will make you go back the same way you came.’

Cross References: Isaiah 37:29; Isaiah 30:28; Ezekiel 38:4

29 “Here’s a sign for you, Hezekiah: This year you’ll eat what grows by itself. Next year, you’ll eat what grows from that. But in the third year, you’ll plant and harvest, plant vineyards, and eat their fruit.

Cross References: Isaiah 37:30; Leviticus 25:5; Exodus 3:12

30 And the remnant of Judah will take root below and bear fruit above.

Cross References: Isaiah 37:31; Isaiah 27:6; Romans 11:5

31 For a remnant will go out from Jerusalem, and survivors from Mount Zion. The zeal of the Lord Almighty will accomplish this.

Cross References: Isaiah 37:32; Romans 9:27; Isaiah 9:7

32 “This is what the Lord says about the king of Assyria: He will not enter this city, shoot an arrow, march with a shield, or build siege ramps against it.

Cross References: Isaiah 37:33; Psalm 46:5; Isaiah 31:8

33 He will return the way he came. He will not enter this city.

Cross References: Isaiah 37:34; Psalm 33:10; 2 Chronicles 32:21

34 I will defend and save this city for My own sake and for My servant David’s sake.”

Cross References: Isaiah 37:35; Isaiah 31:5; 2 Samuel 7:16

The Lord Destroys the Assyrian Army (Verses 35–37)

35 That night, the angel of the Lord went out and killed 185,000 Assyrian soldiers in their camp. When the people got up the next morning, they saw the bodies—all of them dead.

Cross References: Isaiah 37:36; 2 Chronicles 32:21; Exodus 12:29

36 So Sennacherib king of Assyria broke camp and returned to Nineveh.

Cross References: Isaiah 37:37; Jonah 1:2; Nahum 1:1

37 One day, while he was worshiping in the temple of his god Nisroch, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer assassinated him with the sword. They escaped to the land of Armenia, and Esarhaddon his son became king in his place.

Cross References: Isaiah 37:38; 2 Chronicles 32:21; Nahum 1:14

Key Lessons from 2 Kings Chapter 19

1. God Listens to the Humble and the Faithful Hezekiah’s deep humility and prayer moved God to act. When we feel helpless, the best thing we can do is fall on our knees and seek the Lord. 2. The Enemy’s Threats Are Not Greater Than God’s Promises Assyria came with intimidation and blasphemy, but God responded with a mighty word. Never let fear override your faith in God’s power to deliver. 3. God is Jealous for His Name The Lord defended Jerusalem not because of their strength, but for the honor of His own name and the promise He made to David. 4. Divine Deliverance Comes in God’s Timing God gave a three-year sign for recovery. Sometimes He saves immediately, sometimes He works through process—but His victory is certain. 5. The Weapons of God Are Supernatural In one night, one angel destroyed 185,000 enemy troops. No enemy is ever too strong for God’s hand.

Hezekiah’s Illness, Recovery, and Babylonian Visitors

Hezekiah’s Sickness and Prayer (Verses 1–3)

1 Around that time, Hezekiah became critically ill. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz came to him and said, “This is what the Lord says: Set your affairs in order, because you are going to die. You will not recover.”

Cross References: Isaiah 38:1; 2 Chronicles 32:24; Job 30:23

2 Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall and prayed to the Lord,

Cross References: Isaiah 38:2; 1 Kings 8:38; James 5:13

3 saying, “O Lord, I beg You, remember how I’ve walked before You in truth and with a loyal heart, and how I’ve done what is good in Your sight.” And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

Cross References: Isaiah 38:3; Nehemiah 13:14; Psalm 56:8

God Heals Hezekiah and Extends His Life (Verses 4–7)

4 Before Isaiah had left the middle courtyard, the word of the Lord came to him:

Cross References: Isaiah 38:4; 1 Kings 17:2; 2 Samuel 7:4

5 “Go back and tell Hezekiah, the leader of My people, This is what the Lord, the God of your ancestor David, says: I have heard your prayer and seen your tears. Look, I will heal you. In three days, you will go up to the Temple of the Lord.

Cross References: Isaiah 38:5; Exodus 3:7; Psalm 6:8

6 I will add fifteen years to your life. I will also rescue you and this city from the king of Assyria. I will defend this city for My sake and for My servant David’s sake.”

Cross References: Isaiah 38:6; 2 Kings 19:34; 2 Samuel 7:12

7 Then Isaiah said, “Make a poultice of figs.” So they took it and applied it to the infected boil, and Hezekiah recovered.

Cross References: Isaiah 38:21; James 5:15; Exodus 15:25

The Miraculous Sign of the Shadow (Verses 8–11)

8 Hezekiah asked Isaiah, “What sign will the Lord give to prove that I’ll go up to His house on the third day?”

Cross References: Isaiah 38:22; Judges 6:17; Exodus 4:8

9 Isaiah replied, “Here’s your sign from the Lord that He will do what He promised: Should the shadow on the sundial move forward ten steps, or backward ten steps?”

Cross References: Isaiah 38:7; Judges 6:37; Joshua 10:12

10 Hezekiah answered, “It’s easy for the shadow to go forward. Instead, let it go back ten steps.”

Cross References: Isaiah 38:8; Joshua 10:13; Habakkuk 3:11

11 So Isaiah prayed, and the Lord made the shadow on the sundial of Ahaz move backward ten steps.

Cross References: Isaiah 38:8; Joshua 10:12; 2 Chronicles 32:31

Hezekiah’s Pride Before Babylon (Verses 12–15)

12 At that time Berodach-baladan, son of Baladan and king of Babylon, sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah, because he had heard that he had been sick.

Cross References: Isaiah 39:1; 2 Chronicles 32:31; Micah 4:10

13 Hezekiah welcomed the envoys and showed them everything in his treasure houses—the silver, the gold, the spices, the fine oil, his armory—everything in his palace. There was nothing in his kingdom that he didn’t show them.

Cross References: Isaiah 39:2; 2 Chronicles 32:25; Proverbs 16:18

14 Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and asked, “What did those men say, and where did they come from?” Hezekiah answered, “They came from a distant land—Babylon.”

Cross References: Isaiah 39:3; 2 Chronicles 32:31; Genesis 42:7

15 “What did they see in your palace?” Isaiah asked. “They saw everything,” Hezekiah replied. “There is nothing among my treasures that I didn’t show them.”

Cross References: Isaiah 39:4; 2 Chronicles 32:27; Deuteronomy 8:17

Prophecy of Babylonian Captivity (Verses 16–19)

16 Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Listen to the word of the Lord:

Cross References: Isaiah 39:5; Jeremiah 21:11; 1 Kings 22:19

17 The day is coming when everything in your palace—and all that your ancestors have stored up—will be carried off to Babylon. Nothing will be left, says the Lord.

Cross References: Isaiah 39:6; 2 Kings 24:13; 2 Chronicles 36:18 18 And some of your very own sons, your descendants, will be taken away. They will become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.”

Cross References: Isaiah 39:7; Daniel 1:3; Daniel 1:7

19 Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “This message from the Lord is good.” Then he added, “At least there will be peace and truth during my lifetime.”

Cross References: Isaiah 39:8; 1 Samuel 3:18; Job 1:21

Summary of Hezekiah’s Reign (Verses 20–21)

20 The rest of Hezekiah’s deeds—his strength and how he built a pool and tunnel to bring water into the city—are recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 32:30; 2 Chronicles 32:27; Isaiah 22:11

21 Hezekiah died, and his son Manasseh became king after him.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 32:33; 2 Kings 21:1; 2 Chronicles 33:1

Key Lessons from 2 Kings Chapter 20

1. God Listens to Honest Prayer Hezekiah's heartfelt plea and tears moved the heart of God. Our sincere prayers still reach the throne of grace. 2. God is Merciful, but His Mercy Comes with Responsibility Hezekiah received 15 more years of life. But those years included choices that would impact future generations. Time is a gift meant to be used wisely. 3. Signs Confirm God's Word, but Faith Pleases Him Most The miraculous reversal of the shadow was an incredible sign—but Hezekiah's trust in God's promise was what truly mattered. 4. Spiritual Pride Can Lead to Future Ruin Hezekiah showed off his wealth to Babylon out of pride or flattery. His actions opened the door to Babylonian interest, which would eventually lead to Judah's downfall. 5. Short-Term Thinking is Not Kingdom Thinking Hezekiah was content with peace during his lifetime, even knowing judgment would fall on his children. God's people must think generationally. 6. Legacy is More Than Projects—It's About Faithfulness Hezekiah built great things, but his spiritual choices also shaped his legacy. What we pass on spiritually matters more than what we construct materially.

Manasseh and Amon: Kings Who Led Judah into Darkness

The Reign of Manasseh (Verses 1–9)

1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he ruled in Jerusalem for fifty-five years. His mother's name was Hephzibah.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 33:1; 2 Kings 20:21; Isaiah 62:4

2 He did what was evil in the eyes of the Lord, following the detestable practices of the nations that the Lord had driven out before the people of Israel.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 33:2; Leviticus 18:24; Deuteronomy 18:9

3 He rebuilt the pagan high places that his father Hezekiah had destroyed. He built altars to Baal and made an Asherah pole, just like King Ahab of Israel had done. He also bowed down to all the stars in the sky and worshiped them.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 33:3; 1 Kings 16:32; 2 Kings 18:4

4 He even built altars in the Temple of the Lord, the place the Lord had said, "In Jerusalem I will put My name."

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 33:4; 1 Kings 8:29; Deuteronomy 12:11

5 In both courtyards of the Lord's Temple, he built altars to all the stars in the sky.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 33:5; Zephaniah 1:5; Jeremiah 19:13

6 He sacrificed his own son in the fire, practiced fortune-telling and witchcraft, and consulted with mediums and spiritists. Manasseh did great evil in the sight of the Lord, provoking Him to anger.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 33:6; Leviticus 18:21; Deuteronomy 18:10

7 He even placed a carved idol—an Asherah image—that he had made in the Temple, the very place the Lord had spoken of to David and Solomon, saying: "I will put My name in this Temple and in Jerusalem, the city I have chosen from all the tribes of Israel.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 33:7; 2 Samuel 7:13; 1 Kings 9:3

8 “If My people will obey all My commands, the entire law I gave through My servant Moses, I will never again make them leave the land I gave their ancestors.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 33:8; Deuteronomy 28:15; Joshua 23:15 9 But the people refused to listen. Manasseh led them to do more evil than the nations the Lord had destroyed before Israel.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 33:9; Deuteronomy 9:4; 2 Kings 17:11

God’s Judgment Announced (Verses 10–16)

10 Then the Lord spoke through His servants the prophets, saying,

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 33:10; Jeremiah 15:4; Amos 3:7

11 “Manasseh king of Judah has committed detestable sins, more evil than even the Amorites who lived here before Israel. He has caused Judah to sin with his idols.

Cross References: Jeremiah 15:4; 1 Kings 21:26; 2 Kings 21:2

12 So this is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: I will bring such disaster on Jerusalem and Judah that everyone who hears about it will be shocked and horrified.

Cross References: Jeremiah 19:3; 1 Samuel 3:11; Habakkuk 1:5

13 I will judge Jerusalem with the same standard I used for Samaria and the house of Ahab. I will wipe Jerusalem like someone wipes a dirty dish—wiping it and turning it upside down.

Cross References: Isaiah 34:11; Amos 7:8; Lamentations 2:8

14 I will abandon the remnant of My inheritance and hand them over to their enemies. They will be plundered and taken as spoils by all their enemies,

Cross References: Deuteronomy 31:17; Judges 2:14; Psalm 106:41

15 because they have done what is evil in My sight and have provoked My anger from the day their ancestors came out of Egypt until now.”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 9:7; Judges 2:11; Jeremiah 7:25

16 Manasseh also shed so much innocent blood that he filled Jerusalem from one end to the other—besides the sin he caused Judah to commit by doing what was evil in the Lord’s sight.

Cross References: 2 Kings 24:4; Jeremiah 2:34; Matthew 23:35

The Death of Manasseh (Verses 17–18)

17 The rest of the events of Manasseh’s reign, all he did, and the sins he committed, are recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 33:18; 2 Chronicles 33:12; 2 Chronicles 33:13

18 Manasseh died and was buried in the garden of his own palace, the Garden of Uzza. His son Amon succeeded him as king.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 33:20; 2 Kings 21:26; 1 Kings 2:10

The Reign and Assassination of Amon (Verses 19–26)

19 Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for two years. His mother's name was Meshullemeth, the daughter of Haruz from Jotbah.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 33:21; 2 Kings 21:1; 2 Kings 20:21

20 He did what was evil in the Lord's sight, just as his father Manasseh had done.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 33:22; 2 Kings 21:2; 1 Kings 15:26

21 He followed the example of his father and worshiped the idols his father had worshiped.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 33:22; 2 Kings 21:11; 1 Kings 22:52

22 He abandoned the Lord, the God of his ancestors, and refused to follow the Lord's ways.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 33:23; Judges 2:12; Jeremiah 2:13

23 Then Amon's own officials plotted against him and assassinated him in his palace.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 33:24; 2 Kings 12:20; 2 Kings 14:19

24 But the people of the land killed the conspirators and made Amon's son Josiah king in his place.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 33:25; 2 Kings 14:21; 2 Kings 11:1

25 The rest of Amon's actions are recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah.

Cross References: 1 Kings 14:29; 2 Kings 20:20; 2 Chronicles 33:23

26 He was buried in his tomb in the Garden of Uzza. Then Josiah his son became king.

Key Lessons from 2 Kings Chapter 21

1. Spiritual Leadership Shapes a Nation Manasseh's wicked leadership led Judah into greater idolatry than the pagan nations God once destroyed. Leaders influence destinies. 2. Disregard for God's Word Leads to Judgment God warned repeatedly through prophets, but Judah ignored His commands. Persistent sin brought irreversible consequences. 3. Idolatry Invites God's Wrath Manasseh built altars in God's house, worshiped the stars, consulted demons, and sacrificed his child. These extreme sins stirred divine anger. 4. Innocent Blood Cries Out Manasseh's violent reign was marked by the shedding of innocent blood. God does not overlook injustice or cruelty. 5. Rebellion Breeds Instability Amon followed in his father's wicked ways and was assassinated by his own servants. Sinful leadership often leads to chaos and destruction. 6. Hope Still Rises from Ruin Despite Manasseh and Amon's evil, Josiah would follow. God can raise up righteous leaders even from broken family lines.

Josiah's Reform and the Rediscovery of God's Word

Josiah Begins to Reign (Verses 1–2)

1 Josiah was only eight years old when he became king, and he ruled in Jerusalem for thirty-one years. His mother's name was Jedidah, the daughter of Adaiah from the town of Bozkath.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 34:1; 2 Kings 21:26; Jeremiah 1:2

2 He did what was right in the eyes of the Lord and followed the example of his ancestor David. He did not turn aside to the right or to the left.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 34:2; 2 Kings 18:3; 1 Kings 15:11

The Temple Repairs Ordered (Verses 3–7)

3 In the eighteenth year of Josiah's reign, he sent Shaphan, the son of Azaliah and grandson of Meshullam—the court secretary—to the Temple of the Lord.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 34:8; 2 Kings 12:10; 2 Kings 12:4

4 He said, "Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, so he can collect all the money that has been brought into the Lord's Temple. The gatekeepers have gathered this money from the people."

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 34:9; 2 Kings 12:4; 2 Kings 12:5

5 "Have the money handed over to the construction supervisors who are in charge of the Lord's Temple. Let them give it to the workers repairing the Temple—

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 34:10; 2 Kings 12:11; 2 Kings 12:12

6 to the carpenters, builders, and stonemasons. Also, use it to buy timber and cut stone to repair the building."

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 34:11; 1 Kings 5:17; 1 Kings 5:18

7 There was no need to audit the workers who received the money, because they acted with complete honesty.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 34:12; 2 Kings 12:15; 1 Chronicles 9:26

The Book of the Law Is Found (Verses 8–10)

8 Then Hilkiah the high priest told Shaphan the court secretary, "I have found the Book of the Law in the Lord's Temple!" He gave the scroll to Shaphan, who read it.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 34:14; 2 Chronicles 34:15; Deuteronomy 31:26

9 Shaphan returned to the king and reported, "Your officials have collected the money found in the Temple and have handed it over to the supervisors and workers."

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 34:16; 2 Chronicles 34:17; 2 Kings 22:4

10 Then Shaphan told the king, “Hilkiah the priest has given me a book.” And Shaphan read it aloud to the king.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 34:18; Nehemiah 8:3; Deuteronomy 31:11

Josiah’s Response to God’s Word (Verses 11–13)

11 When the king heard the words of the Book of the Law, he tore his clothes in sorrow.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 34:19; Joel 2:13; Ezra 9:3

12 Then he gave this order to Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Achbor son of Micaiah, Shaphan the court secretary, and Asaiah the king’s attendant:

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 34:20; Jeremiah 26:24; Jeremiah 36:12

13 “Go and ask the Lord for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, about the words in this book that has been found. The Lord’s great anger is burning against us, because our ancestors did not obey the words of this book. They have not done everything written in it about us.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 34:21; Deuteronomy 29:27; Deuteronomy 31:17

Huldah the Prophetess Delivers a Word from the Lord (Verses 14–20)

14 So Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam, Achbor, Shaphan, and Asaiah went to speak to the prophetess Huldah. She was the wife of Shallum son of Tikvah, son of Harhas, keeper of the Temple wardrobe. She lived in the Second District of Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 34:22; Judges 4:4; Exodus 15:20

15 She said to them, “This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: Tell the man who sent you—

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 34:23; 2 Chronicles 34:24; Jeremiah 26:18

16 this is what the Lord says: I will bring disaster on this city and its people, just as written in the scroll that the king of Judah has read.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 34:24; Deuteronomy 28:15; Jeremiah 19:3

17 Because they have abandoned Me and burned incense to other gods, provoking Me to anger with everything they’ve done, My wrath will be poured out on this place and it will not be quenched.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 34:25; Jeremiah 7:20; Jeremiah 44:3

18 “But go to the king of Judah who sent you to ask the Lord and tell him: This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says concerning the message you have heard—

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 34:26; Jeremiah 37:17; 2 Kings 22:13

19 Because your heart was tender and you humbled yourself before the Lord when you heard what I said against this city and its people—that they would become desolate and cursed—and because you tore your clothes and wept before Me, I have heard you,” declares the Lord.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 34:27; 2 Chronicles 7:14; Isaiah 66:2

20 “Therefore, I will allow you to die in peace. You will not see the disaster I am going to bring on this city.” So they brought the king this message.

Key Lessons from 2 Kings Chapter 22

1. God Honors a Tender Heart Josiah’s humility and repentance upon hearing the Book of the Law moved God’s heart. A soft heart before God invites mercy even in times of judgment. 2. The Word of God Awakens Revival The rediscovery of Scripture ignited spiritual reform. God’s Word has the power to reveal truth, convict hearts, and lead to transformation. 3. Leadership Matters Josiah’s personal commitment to righteousness shaped the entire nation’s direction. A godly leader can bring renewal to an entire people. 4. Judgment May Be Delayed But Not Always Canceled Though Josiah would not live to see the disaster, judgment was still coming due to generations of rebellion. God’s patience has a limit. 5. True Repentance Requires Action Josiah didn’t just weep—he sought God’s guidance, inquired of His prophets, and took steps to reform the people. Genuine repentance moves us to obey. 6. God Sees the Individual Amid National Sin Even when a nation is under judgment, God notices and responds to those who personally honor Him. Josiah was spared because of his personal walk.

2 Kings Chapter 23 — Crawford Standard Bible

Josiah’s Covenant and Reforms

The King Renews the Covenant (Verses 1–3)

1 Then the king summoned all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 34:29; 2 Kings 22:1; Deuteronomy 31:28

2 He went up to the Temple of the Lord, accompanied by all the people of Judah and Jerusalem—along with the priests, the prophets, and everyone from the least to the greatest. There in their presence, he read aloud all the words from the Book of the Covenant that had been found in the Lord’s Temple.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 34:30; Deuteronomy 31:11; Nehemiah 8:1

3 The king stood beside the pillar and made a covenant before the Lord. He pledged to follow the Lord, to obey His commands, regulations, and decrees with all his heart and soul. He vowed to carry out all the terms of the covenant that were written in the scroll. And all the people pledged themselves to the covenant.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 34:31; 2 Kings 11:14; Joshua 24:25

Cleansing the Temple and Destroying Idols (Verses 4–7)

4 Then the king ordered Hilkiah the high priest, the priests of the second rank, and the temple gatekeepers to bring out of the Lord’s Temple all the articles made for Baal, Asherah, and all the stars of the heavens. He burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of the Kidron Valley, and he carried the ashes to Bethel.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 34:3; Deuteronomy 7:5; 1 Kings 15:13

5 He removed the idolatrous priests whom the kings of Judah had appointed to burn incense at the pagan shrines throughout Judah and even in Jerusalem. He also removed those who burned incense to Baal, and to the sun, the moon, the constellations, and all the stars in the heavens.

Cross References: Zephaniah 1:4; Deuteronomy 17:3; 2 Kings 17:16

6 He removed the Asherah pole from the Lord's Temple and took it outside Jerusalem to the Kidron Valley, where he burned it. He ground it to dust and threw the dust on the graves of the common people.

Cross References: Exodus 32:20; Deuteronomy 9:21; 1 Kings 15:13

7 He tore down the living quarters of the male shrine prostitutes that were inside the Temple of the Lord, where the women wove coverings for the Asherah pole.

Cross References: 1 Kings 14:24; Deuteronomy 23:17; Hosea 4:14

Purging Pagan Worship Across Judah (Verses 8–14)

8 Josiah brought all the priests out of the towns of Judah and defiled the pagan shrines where they had burned incense—from Geba to Beersheba. He also destroyed the shrines at the entrance of the gate of Joshua, the governor of Jerusalem, located to the left of the city gate.

Cross References: 1 Kings 13:2; 2 Chronicles 34:5; 2 Kings 17:9

9 The priests who had served at the pagan shrines were not allowed to serve at the Lord's altar in Jerusalem, but they were allowed to eat unleavened bread with the other priests.

Cross References: Ezekiel 44:10; Ezekiel 44:12; Deuteronomy 18:6

10 Then the king desecrated Topheth, which is in the valley of Ben-Hinnom, so that no one could ever again sacrifice a son or daughter in the fire to Molech.

Cross References: Jeremiah 7:31; Jeremiah 19:5; Leviticus 18:21

11 He removed from the entrance of the Lord's Temple the horses that the kings of Judah had dedicated to the sun. They were near the room of an official named Nathan-melech, located in the courtyard. Josiah then burned the chariots dedicated to the sun.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 4:19; Ezekiel 8:16; Job 31:26

12 He tore down the altars that the kings of Judah had built on the roof of Ahaz's upper room, as well as the altars that Manasseh had built in the two courtyards of the Lord's Temple. He smashed them into bits and threw the rubble into the Kidron Valley.

Cross References: 2 Kings 21:5; Jeremiah 19:13; Zephaniah 1:5

13 The king also desecrated the pagan shrines east of Jerusalem, south of the Mount of Corruption, where King Solomon of Israel had built shrines for Ashtoreth, Chemosh, and Milcom—the detestable gods of the Sidonians, Moabites, and Ammonites.

Cross References: 1 Kings 11:7; 1 Kings 11:5; 1 Kings 11:33

14 He smashed the sacred pillars and cut down the Asherah poles. Then he desecrated these places by scattering human bones over them.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 12:3; 1 Kings 13:2; Exodus 23:24

Destroying Jeroboam's Altar at Bethel (Verses 15–20)

15 The king also tore down the altar at Bethel—the pagan shrine that Jeroboam son of Nebat had made when he caused Israel to sin. He burned down the shrine and ground it to dust, and he burned the Asherah pole.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:28; 1 Kings 13:2; Amos 7:10

16 As Josiah turned, he noticed several tombs in the hillside. He ordered that the bones be removed from these tombs, and he burned them on the altar at Bethel to desecrate it. This happened in accordance with the word of the Lord proclaimed by the man of God who had foretold these events.

Cross References: 1 Kings 13:2; 1 Kings 13:32; Jeremiah 8:1

17 Then Josiah asked, “What is that monument I see over there?” The people of the town replied, “It’s the tomb of the man of God who came from Judah and predicted what you have just done to the altar at Bethel!”

Cross References: 1 Kings 13:30; 1 Kings 13:31; 1 Kings 13:1

18 Josiah replied, “Leave it alone. Don’t disturb his bones.” So they did not burn his bones or those of the prophet from Samaria.

Cross References: 1 Kings 13:31; 1 Kings 13:21; 1 Kings 13:24

19 Josiah then removed all the shrines at the pagan high places in the towns of Samaria, just as he had done at Bethel. These shrines had been built by the kings of Israel and had made the Lord very angry.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:31; 1 Kings 13:32; Hosea 10:5

20 He executed the priests of the pagan shrines on their own altars, and he burned human bones on the altars to desecrate them. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

Cross References: 1 Kings 13:2; 1 Kings 13:32; 2 Kings 17:32

Celebrating the Passover (Verses 21–23)

21 Then the king gave this order to all the people: “Celebrate the Passover to the Lord your God, as it is written in the Book of the Covenant.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 35:1; Deuteronomy 16:1; Exodus 12:1

22 There had not been a Passover celebration like that since the time when the judges ruled in Israel, nor throughout all the years of the kings of Israel and Judah.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 35:18; Judges 2:17; 2 Kings 23:23

23 But in the eighteenth year of King Josiah's reign, this Passover was celebrated to the Lord in Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 35:19; 2 Kings 22:3; 2 Chronicles 35:1

Further Reforms and Devotion (Verses 24–27)

24 Josiah also removed the mediums and psychics, the household gods, idols, and every other detestable practice, both in Jerusalem and throughout the land of Judah. He did this in order to fulfill the requirements of the law written in the scroll that Hilkiah the priest had found in the Lord's Temple.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 18:10; Leviticus 19:31; 2 Chronicles 34:33

25 Never before had there been a king like Josiah, who turned to the Lord with all his heart and soul and strength, obeying all the laws of Moses. And there has never been a king like him since.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 6:5; Deuteronomy 4:29; 2 Kings 18:5

26 But the Lord did not turn from the fierceness of His great anger, which had been aroused against Judah because of all the sins that Manasseh had committed.

Cross References: 2 Kings 21:11; 2 Kings 21:15; Jeremiah 15:4

27 For the Lord had said, "I will also banish Judah from My presence, just as I have banished Israel. I will reject My chosen city of Jerusalem and the Temple where I said My name would be honored."

29 While Josiah was king, Pharaoh Neco, king of Egypt, marched toward the Euphrates River to help the king of Assyria. King Josiah went out to fight him, but Neco killed him at Megiddo when they met in battle.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 35:20; Zechariah 12:11; Jeremiah 46:2

30 Josiah's officers brought his body in a chariot from Megiddo to Jerusalem and buried him in his own tomb. Then the people of the land anointed Josiah's son Jehoahaz and made him the next king.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 35:24; 2 Chronicles 36:1; Lamentations 4:20

31 Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. His mother was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah from Libnah.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 36:2; Jeremiah 22:11; 1 Chronicles 3:15

32 He did what was evil in the Lord's sight, just as his ancestors had done.

Cross References: Jeremiah 22:11; Jeremiah 22:12; 2 Kings 23:37

33 Pharaoh Neco put Jehoahaz in prison at Riblah in the land of Hamath to prevent him from ruling in Jerusalem. He also demanded that Judah pay 7,500 pounds of silver and 75 pounds of gold as tribute.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 36:3; Jeremiah 22:11; Ezekiel 19:4

34 Then Pharaoh Neco installed Eliakim, another of Josiah's sons, to reign in place of his father. He changed Eliakim's name to Jehoiakim. Neco took Jehoahaz to Egypt as a prisoner, where he died.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 36:4; Jeremiah 22:10; Ezekiel 19:4

35 Jehoiakim taxed the people in order to pay the silver and gold demanded by Pharaoh Neco. He required each person to pay a tax in proportion to his wealth so that he could deliver the money to Pharaoh.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 36:4; 2 Kings 15:20; 2 Kings 15:19

36 Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eleven years. His mother was Zebidah, the daughter of Pedaiiah from Rumah.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 36:5; Jeremiah 1:3; Jeremiah 25:1

37 He did what was evil in the Lord's sight, just as his ancestors had done.

Key Lessons from 2 Kings Chapter 23

1. True Revival Requires Action Josiah didn't just listen to the Word—he acted on it. Real change came through cleansing, reforming, and re-establishing God's law. 2. Sin Has a Long Memory Even though Josiah was righteous, Judah still faced judgment for the accumulated sins of its past. Personal faithfulness doesn't always erase national consequences. 3. Leadership Shapes Legacy Josiah's bold reforms and integrity stood out in the history of Judah. His legacy was marked by obedience, courage, and a return to God's Word. 4. God's Mercy Is Extended but Not Endless God saw Josiah's heart and spared him from witnessing the nation's downfall. But the nation still reaped what had been sown for generations. 5. Spiritual Reformation Demands Total Cleansing Josiah left no idol or altar untouched. Restoration with God requires a complete break from all forms of idolatry and compromise. 6. The Influence of Scripture Is Transformative Everything Josiah did flowed from hearing the Word of God. Scripture has the power to awaken, convict, and direct a nation or individual back to truth.

The Fall of Judah Begins

Jehoiakim Rebels Against Babylon (Verses 1–4)

1 During Jehoiakim's reign, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came against Judah, and Jehoiakim became his servant for three years. But then he turned and rebelled against Babylon.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 36:6; Daniel 1:1; Jeremiah 25:1

2 Then the Lord sent enemy raiders against Judah—bands of Chaldeans, Arameans, Moabites, and Ammonites. He sent them to destroy Judah, just as He had warned through His prophets.

Cross References: Habakkuk 1:6; Deuteronomy 28:49; Jeremiah 35:11

3 All of this happened to Judah because the Lord had commanded it. He had decided to remove them from His presence because of all the sins committed by Manasseh.

Cross References: 2 Kings 21:11; 2 Kings 21:13; Jeremiah 15:4

4 This included the innocent blood that Manasseh had shed—he had filled Jerusalem with it. The Lord would not forgive this.

Cross References: 2 Kings 21:16; Jeremiah 2:34; Matthew 23:35

The Death of Jehoiakim and Rise of Jehoiachin (Verses 5–7)

5 The rest of the events of Jehoiakim’s reign and all that he did are recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 36:8; Jeremiah 22:18; Jeremiah 22:19

6 When Jehoiakim died, his son Jehoiachin became king in his place.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 36:8; Jeremiah 22:24; Jeremiah 22:30

7 The king of Egypt did not come out of his land again, because the king of Babylon had conquered everything from the Brook of Egypt to the Euphrates River that once belonged to Egypt.

Cross References: Jeremiah 46:2; Jeremiah 46:10; Jeremiah 25:1

Jehoiachin Surrenders to Babylon (Verses 8–12)

8 Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king, and he ruled in Jerusalem for three months. His mother’s name was Nehushta. She was the daughter of Elnathan from Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 36:9; Jeremiah 22:24; Ezekiel 19:5

9 He did what was evil in the eyes of the Lord, just as his father had done.

Cross References: Jeremiah 22:24; Jeremiah 22:28; 2 Chronicles 36:9

10 During his short reign, King Nebuchadnezzar’s army laid siege to Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 36:10; Ezekiel 17:12; Jeremiah 52:4

11 Then Nebuchadnezzar himself came to the city while his servants were still besieging it.

Cross References: Jeremiah 24:1; Ezekiel 17:12; 2 Chronicles 36:10

12 King Jehoiachin surrendered to the king of Babylon, along with his mother, his officials, his commanders, and palace attendants. Nebuchadnezzar took him prisoner in the eighth year of his reign.

Cross References: Jeremiah 22:24; Jeremiah 24:1; Ezekiel 17:12

The Exile to Babylon Begins (Verses 13–16)

13 Nebuchadnezzar took all the treasures from the Temple of the Lord and from the royal palace. He also cut in pieces all the gold items that King Solomon of Israel had made for the Temple—just as the Lord had said would happen.

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:48; 2 Kings 20:17; Jeremiah 27:19

14 He carried off all the people of Jerusalem into exile—including the commanders, the wealthy, the skilled craftsmen, and metal workers—ten thousand people in all. Only the poorest people were left in the land.

Cross References: Jeremiah 24:1; Ezekiel 1:1; Esther 2:6

15 He took Jehoiachin captive to Babylon, along with the king’s mother, wives, officials, and other important leaders.

Cross References: Jeremiah 29:1; Jeremiah 29:2; Ezekiel 19:9

16 The army also deported seven thousand strong warriors and one thousand craftsmen and metal workers—all who were capable of fighting. He brought them all to Babylon.

Zedekiah Made King (Verses 17–20)

17 The king of Babylon appointed Mattaniah, Jehoiachin’s uncle, as the new king in his place and changed his name to Zedekiah.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 36:10; Jeremiah 37:1; 1 Chronicles 3:15

18 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he ruled in Jerusalem for eleven years. His mother’s name was Hamutal. She was the daughter of Jeremiah from Libnah.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 36:11; Jeremiah 52:1; Jeremiah 1:3

19 Zedekiah did what was evil in the eyes of the Lord, just as Jehoiakim had done.

Cross References: Jeremiah 52:2; Ezekiel 17:15; 2 Chronicles 36:12

20 All of this happened in Jerusalem and Judah because of the Lord’s anger. Eventually, He banished them from His presence. And Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

Cross References: Jeremiah 52:3; Ezekiel 17:15; Jeremiah 27:12

Key Lessons from 2 Kings Chapter 24

Rebellion Against God Has Consequences Judah’s kings continually rejected God’s warnings. Their defiance led to judgment, exile, and destruction. The Word of the Lord Always Comes to Pass Everything that happened—sieges, exile, and loss—was foretold by the prophets. God’s Word is trustworthy, whether it brings comfort or conviction. God Remembers Innocent Blood The Lord would not overlook the violent sins of Manasseh. God values justice and holds nations accountable for shedding innocent blood. Even Powerful Kings Must Bow Both Jehoiakim and Jehoiachin were brought low. Earthly power cannot protect anyone from divine judgment. Mercy Can Still Be Found Though the nation fell under judgment, God's hand remained at work. The story of the exiles wasn't the end—but the beginning of a new chapter in His redemptive plan.

2 Kings Chapter 25 — Crawford Standard Bible

The Fall of Jerusalem and the End of the Kingdom of Judah

Babylon Besieges Jerusalem (Verses 1–3)

1 In the ninth year of King Zedekiah's reign, on the tenth day of the tenth month, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came with his entire army to attack Jerusalem. They camped around the city and built siege works all around it.

Cross References: Jeremiah 52:4; Ezekiel 24:1; Jeremiah 39:1

2 The city remained under siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah's reign.

Cross References: Jeremiah 52:5; Jeremiah 39:2; Ezekiel 24:2

3 By the ninth day of the fourth month, the famine in the city had become severe, and there was no food for the people.

Cross References: Jeremiah 52:6; Lamentations 4:9; Lamentations 2:12

Zedekiah Is Captured (Verses 4–7)

4 Then the city wall was broken through. That night, all the soldiers fled through the gate between two walls near the king's garden, even though the Babylonians had surrounded the city. They headed toward the Jordan Valley.

Cross References: Jeremiah 52:7; Jeremiah 39:4; Ezekiel 12:12

5 But the Babylonian army chased King Zedekiah and caught up with him on the plains of Jericho. His entire army had scattered and left him.

Cross References: Jeremiah 52:8; Jeremiah 39:5; Ezekiel 12:13

6 The Babylonians captured the king and took him to King Nebuchadnezzar at Riblah, where he was sentenced.

Cross References: Jeremiah 52:9; Jeremiah 39:5; Jeremiah 32:4

7 They killed Zedekiah's sons before his eyes, then gouged out his eyes and bound him with bronze chains and took him to Babylon.

Cross References: Jeremiah 52:10; Ezekiel 12:13; Jeremiah 39:6

The Destruction of Jerusalem (Verses 8–12)

8 On the seventh day of the fifth month, in the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar's reign, Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard and official of the Babylonian king, came to Jerusalem.

Cross References: Jeremiah 52:12; Jeremiah 39:8; 2 Chronicles 36:17

9 He burned down the Temple of the Lord, the royal palace, and all the houses in Jerusalem. Every important building was set on fire.

Cross References: Jeremiah 52:13; Lamentations 2:3; 2 Chronicles 36:19 10 Then the Babylonian army, under the captain of the guard, tore down the walls surrounding Jerusalem.

Cross References: Jeremiah 52:14; Lamentations 2:8; Nehemiah 1:3

11 Nebuzaradan took captive the people who were still in the city, including those who had surrendered and the remaining population.

Cross References: Jeremiah 52:15; Jeremiah 39:9; Lamentations 1:3

12 But he left some of the poorest people in the land to work the vineyards and fields.

Cross References: Jeremiah 52:16; Jeremiah 39:10; Jeremiah 40:7

The Treasures of the Temple Taken (Verses 13–17)

13 The Babylonians broke apart the bronze pillars in the Lord's Temple, along with the movable stands and the bronze basin (called the Sea). They took all the bronze to Babylon.

Cross References: Jeremiah 52:17; 1 Kings 7:15; Jeremiah 27:19

14 They also took the pots, shovels, wick trimmers, dishes, and all the bronze items used in the Temple.

Cross References: Jeremiah 52:18; 1 Kings 7:40; 1 Kings 7:45

15 The captain of the guard took away the firepans and basins—everything made of gold or silver.

Cross References: Jeremiah 52:19; 1 Kings 7:50; Exodus 25:38 16 The two pillars, the Sea, and the movable stands that Solomon had made for the Lord's Temple were too heavy to be weighed.

Cross References: Jeremiah 52:20; 1 Kings 7:47; 1 Kings 7:23

17 Each pillar was 27 feet tall with a bronze capital 4½ feet high, decorated with bronze latticework and pomegranates. The second pillar was the same.

Cross References: Jeremiah 52:21; 1 Kings 7:15; 1 Kings 7:20

The Leaders Are Executed (Verses 18–21)

18 Nebuzaradan took Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the assistant priest, and the three temple gatekeepers.

Cross References: Jeremiah 52:24; 1 Chronicles 6:14; Jeremiah 21:1

19 From the city he took a military commander, five of the king's advisers, the chief army registrar, and sixty other citizens.

Cross References: Jeremiah 52:25; Jeremiah 36:12; Jeremiah 29:25

20 He brought them all to the king of Babylon at Riblah.

Cross References: Jeremiah 52:26; Jeremiah 39:6; 2 Kings 25:6

21 There, in the land of Hamath, the king of Babylon had them executed. So the people of Judah were exiled from their land.

Cross References: Jeremiah 52:27; Deuteronomy 28:63; Deuteronomy 28:64

Gedaliah Made Governor (Verses 22–24)

22 King Nebuchadnezzar appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam as governor over the people who remained in Judah.

Cross References: Jeremiah 40:5; Jeremiah 39:14; Jeremiah 26:24

23 When the commanders of the Judean armies and their men heard about this, they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah. They included Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan son of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth, and Jaazaniah son of the Maacathite.

Cross References: Jeremiah 40:7; Jeremiah 40:8; Jeremiah 41:1

24 Gedaliah swore an oath to them and their men, saying, “Don’t be afraid to serve the Babylonians. Stay here in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and everything will go well for you.”

Cross References: Jeremiah 40:9; Jeremiah 40:10; Jeremiah 27:11

Gedaliah Assassinated (Verses 25–26)

25 But in the seventh month, Ishmael son of Nethaniah, who was of royal blood, came with ten men and assassinated Gedaliah. They also killed the Judeans and Babylonians who were with him at Mizpah.

Cross References: Jeremiah 41:1; Jeremiah 41:2; Jeremiah 41:3

26 Then all the people, from the least to the greatest, along with the army officers, fled to Egypt because they were afraid of the Babylonians.

Cross References: Jeremiah 41:16; Jeremiah 41:17; Jeremiah 43:5

Jehoiachin Released from Prison (Verses 27–30)

27 In the thirty-seventh year of Jehoiachin’s exile, on the twenty-seventh day of the twelfth month, Evil-merodach became king of Babylon. He released Jehoiachin from prison.

Cross References: Jeremiah 52:31; Psalm 106:46; Jeremiah 27:22

28 He spoke kindly to him and gave him a seat of honor higher than those of the other captive kings in Babylon.

Cross References: Jeremiah 52:32; Genesis 40:13; Genesis 41:14

29 Jehoiachin changed out of his prison clothes and ate regularly at the king’s table for the rest of his life.

Cross References: Jeremiah 52:33; Genesis 41:14; 2 Samuel 9:7

30 The king gave him a daily allowance for food as long as he lived.

Key Lessons from 2 Kings Chapter 25

Sin Leads to National Collapse Generations of rebellion finally led to the fall of Jerusalem. God's patience ran out, and judgment came as foretold. God Judges Leaders and Nations Zedekiah's rebellion and the sins of Judah's leaders brought shame and ruin. God holds leaders accountable for the people they lead. Even in Judgment, God Leaves a Remnant Though many were taken captive, some poor people were left behind. God always preserves a remnant for His purposes. Violence and Vengeance Lead to Chaos Gedaliah's assassination triggered fear and flight. Human vengeance only worsens broken situations. Hope Remains in Exile Even in Babylon, God showed mercy. Jehoiachin was lifted from prison and honored. Restoration always follows judgment in God's story.

Introduction to the Book of 1 Chronicles Crawford Bible Commentary

Title and Meaning The book is called 1 Chronicles because it begins a detailed record of the history of Israel from a genealogical perspective, with a strong emphasis on the Davidic monarchy and the temple. The Hebrew title, Divre Hayyamim, means “The Events of the Days” or “The Chronicles.” When the Old Testament was translated into Greek (the Septuagint), it was given the name Paralipomenon, meaning “Things Omitted,” because it supplements the narratives found in the books of Samuel and Kings.

Historical Context 1 and 2 Chronicles were originally a single work, traditionally attributed to Ezra the priest. The book was written for the post-exilic community in Jerusalem, likely between 450 and 400 B.C. The people had returned from Babylonian captivity to a land and city that were a shadow of their former glory. The temple had been rebuilt, but the nation lacked a king and was under foreign rule. This historical record was compiled to give the people a sense of their national and spiritual identity, reminding them of God’s faithfulness to His covenant promises.

Purpose of the Book The primary purpose of 1 Chronicles is to provide a theological history for the newly restored people of Israel. It emphasizes the legitimacy of the Davidic line of kings and the importance of the temple, the priesthood, and proper worship. By tracing the lineage from Adam to David and detailing David’s preparations for the temple, the book encouraged the disheartened community to have hope in God’s enduring promises, despite their current political weakness.

Major Themes

- The Davidic Covenant: The promises God made to King David regarding an eternal dynasty are the central theological focus.
- The Temple and Worship: The book highlights the central role of the temple in Israel’s life, detailing David’s elaborate plans and organization of the priests and Levites for worship.
- Genealogy: Extensive genealogies are used to establish the identity and legitimacy of the people of Israel, their tribes, and the priesthood.
- Hope for the Future: By focusing on God’s faithfulness to His past promises, the book instills hope in the post-exilic community for a future restoration.
- The Importance of Obedience: The account of King Saul’s death and King David’s life is presented to show the blessings of obedience and the consequences of disobedience.

Key Figures

- David – The central hero of the book, presented as a model king of Israel who prepared everything for the building of the temple.
- Solomon – David’s son and successor, who would ultimately build the temple.
- The Levites – The book provides a detailed account of the Levites’ organization for temple service, highlighting their crucial role in worship.

- Saul – David’s predecessor, whose tragic failure is contrasted with David’s righteous reign.

Spiritual Significance 1 Chronicles serves as a powerful reminder that God’s covenant promises are eternal and that our spiritual heritage is foundational to our identity. It shows that even after great failure and national judgment (the exile), God remains faithful. The book teaches that true restoration and hope for the future are found in returning to God's ordained worship and remembering His promises. Christ in the Book of 1 Chronicles The Davidic covenant is a direct foreshadowing of Jesus Christ. The promise of a king from David's line whose throne would be established forever finds its ultimate fulfillment in Jesus. The physical temple and its worship practices prefigure Christ, who is the true temple and the perfect high priest through whom all people can access God.

Outline of the Book of 1 Chronicles

- Genealogies from Adam to Saul – Chapters 1–9
 - The Death of Saul and the Rise of David – Chapters 10–12
 - The Reign of King David – Chapters 13–29
 - David brings the Ark to Jerusalem.
 - God establishes the Davidic Covenant.
 - David prepares for the temple's construction.
 - David's final instructions, prayer, and death. Key Verse 1 Chronicles 17:14 (CSB) – “I will appoint him over My house and My kingdom forever, and his throne will be established forever.”
- Key Lesson When we are confronted with hardship, we must look back to our spiritual heritage and remember God's faithfulness. Our hope for the future is not in our present circumstances, but in the enduring and eternal promises God has made to His people.

Key Lessons from 1 Chronicles Chapter 1

1. God's Promises Span Generations This chapter reminds us that God is involved in every generation—from Adam to Abraham, from Noah to Israel. 2. All Nations Come from One Source Whether from Shem, Ham, or Japheth, every nation traces back to Noah's sons, showing the unity of all mankind under God. 3. God Uses Lineage to Fulfill His Plan The chronicled genealogies point to the faithfulness of God in preserving the line that would bring forth the Messiah. 4. Leadership and Influence Began Early Even before Israel had kings, other nations were ruled and structured—preparing the context for God's people to stand apart. 5. History Matters in God's Story These names and lines show that every life has a place in God's unfolding plan, even those outside the main biblical spotlight.

Key Lessons from 1 Chronicles Chapter 2

1. God Works Through Generations: This chapter shows the unfolding plan of God through the line of Judah, leading ultimately to King David. God often works through family lines and generations to accomplish His purposes. 2. God Uses the Unlikely: Tamar, an outsider and a woman in a vulnerable position, became part of the lineage of the Messiah. God includes people others might exclude. 3. Every Name Matters to God: Though we may overlook long lists of names, each person played a role in the unfolding story of redemption. God remembers individuals, and their stories matter. 4. God Honors Obedience and Righteousness: Men like Boaz, Jesse, and David are highlighted as key figures, showing that faithfulness and integrity are honored by God. 5. Legacy Impacts the Future: Our choices, family structures, and spiritual heritage matter. What we do today can impact generations to come.

- Dalaiah,
- and Anani—seven in total.

Key Lessons from 1 Chronicles Chapter 3

1. God Keeps Lineage for a Purpose This chapter isn't just about names—it's about God's faithfulness to His covenant with David. The line from David to Zerubbabel shows how God preserves His promise, even through exile. 2. God Uses Imperfect People Many in this list (like Solomon, Rehoboam, and even Jeconiah) had personal failures. But God still worked through their lineage to fulfill His redemptive plan. 3. Jesus Came Through This Line Though not stated here, Matthew 1 traces Jesus' genealogy through this same line—through David, Solomon, and Zerubbabel. God's plan of salvation was unfolding even in exile. 4. Every Generation Matters God records each generation, showing that every life has value in His eyes. No name is meaningless in His plan. 5. Faithfulness in Hard Times Bears Fruit Zerubbabel helped rebuild the temple after the exile. His faithfulness echoes the hope of restoration that this chapter symbolizes.

Key Lessons from 1 Chronicles Chapter 4

1. God Honors Sincere Prayer The story of Jabez shows us that God listens to heartfelt, humble prayers. His request was simple, yet powerful—and God answered. 2. Even Ordinary Names Have a Place Though many names in this chapter seem obscure, every person listed mattered in God's plan. Your name, your story, and your place in God's family matter too. 3. Faith Can Bring Expansion Jabez asked for his territory to be enlarged. God still responds to people who believe big and trust Him for more—not just physically, but spiritually. 4. Legacy Is Recorded by Faithfulness

The record of Simeon's tribes and their conquests shows how obedience and unity can bring increase, even when others fade from history. 5. God Provides for His People The Simeonites found fertile and peaceful land, reminding us that God can lead us to rest and provision—especially when we walk by faith.

1 Chronicles Chapter 5 — Crawford Standard Bible

Reuben's Lost Birthright

1 Reuben was Israel's firstborn son, but because he dishonored his father by sleeping with his concubine, his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph, son of Israel. So the genealogy doesn't list Reuben as having the birthright.

Cross References: Genesis 49:3; Genesis 35:22; Genesis 48:5

2 Though Judah became the leading tribe and a ruler came from him, the actual birthright belonged to Joseph.

Cross References: Genesis 49:8; 1 Chronicles 28:4; 1 Chronicles 5:1

3 Reuben's sons were Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.

Cross References: Genesis 46:9; Exodus 6:14; Numbers 26:5

The Line of Joel and the Captivity of Beerah

4 Reuben's descendant Joel had a son named Shemaiah. Shemaiah's son was Gog, then came Shimei,

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 5:3; 1 Chronicles 5:8; Numbers 32:33

5 followed by Micah, Reaiah, Baal,

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 5:4; Numbers 26:5; 1 Chronicles 5:6

6 and Beerah. Beerah was a leader of the Reubenites, but he was taken as a captive by Tiglath-Pileser, king of Assyria.

Cross References: 2 Kings 15:29; 1 Chronicles 5:26; 2 Kings 17:6

7 Reuben's relatives, based on family lines, included leaders like Jeiel and Zechariah,

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 5:17; Numbers 26:7; 1 Chronicles 9:1

8 and Bela, the son of Azaz, son of Shema, son of Joel. Bela lived in Aroer and extended his territory all the way to Nebo and Baal-meon.

The Reubenites and the War with the Hagarites

9 To the east, Reuben's descendants lived as far as the edge of the wilderness near the Euphrates River, because they had many livestock in the land of Gilead.

Cross References: Numbers 32:1; Genesis 13:2; Numbers 32:26

10 During the time of King Saul, they fought against the Hagarites and defeated them. Afterward, they settled in their tents throughout the eastern region of Gilead.

Cross References: Psalm 83:6; 1 Chronicles 5:19; Genesis 25:12

The Tribe of Gad

11 The tribe of Gad lived next to them in the land of Bashan, reaching as far as Salcah.

Cross References: Numbers 32:34; Joshua 13:24; Deuteronomy 3:10

12 Their leaders were Joel (the chief), followed by Shapham, then Jaanai, and Shaphat in Bashan.

Cross References: Numbers 32:1; 1 Chronicles 5:11; Deuteronomy 3:13

13 Their relatives from their families included Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jachan, Zia, and Heber—seven men in total.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 5:11; Numbers 26:15; Genesis 46:16

14 These were descendants of Abihail, son of Huri, son of Jaroah, son of Gilead, son of Michael, son of Jeshishai, son of Jahdo, son of Buz.

Cross References: Genesis 22:21; Job 32:2; 1 Chronicles 5:15 15 Ahi, the son of Abdiel and grandson of Guni, was a leader of their family.

The Eastern Tribes Go to War

18 The tribes of Reuben, Gad, and the eastern half of Manasseh had 44,760 skilled warriors—men trained to carry shields and swords, skilled with bows, and experienced in battle.

Cross References: Numbers 1:20; Numbers 26:7; 1 Chronicles 12:37

19 They went to war against the Hagarites and their allies: Jetur, Naphish, and Nodab.

Cross References: Genesis 25:15; 1 Chronicles 1:31; Psalm 83:6

20 God helped them in the battle. The Hagarites and all their allies were defeated, because the tribes cried out to God for help during the battle. He answered their prayer because they trusted Him.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 20:20; Psalm 20:7; 2 Chronicles 13:14

21 They took a huge amount of livestock: 50,000 camels, 250,000 sheep, 2,000 donkeys, and 100,000 captives.

Cross References: Numbers 31:32; Judges 6:5; 2 Chronicles 14:15

22 Many of their enemies were killed, because the battle was God's doing. The Israelites lived in their place until the time of the exile.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 17:47; 2 Chronicles 20:15; 1 Chronicles 5:6

The Half-Tribe of Manasseh and Their Downfall

23 The eastern half-tribe of Manasseh lived in the land and multiplied from Bashan to Baal-hermon, Senir, and Mount Hermon.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 3:8; Joshua 13:11; Song of Solomon 4:8

24 These were their family leaders: Ephraim, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah, and Jahdiel. They were brave warriors, famous men, and respected leaders of their clans.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 5:18; Numbers 26:29; Joshua 17:1

25 But they were unfaithful to the God of their ancestors. They began worshiping the gods of the nations that God had driven out before them.

Cross References: Judges 2:11; Deuteronomy 31:16; Hosea 4:12

Assyrian Exile of the Eastern Tribes

26 So the God of Israel stirred the spirit of Pul (also known as Tiglath-Pileser), king of Assyria. He invaded and took away the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh. He deported them to Halah, Habor, Hara, and the Gozan River, where they remain to this day.

Cross References: 2 Kings 15:19; 2 Kings 17:6; 2 Kings 18:11

Key Lessons from 1 Chronicles Chapter 5

1. Honor Matters to God Reuben lost his birthright because of dishonor. Choices rooted in sin can have lasting consequences—even across generations. 2. Leadership and Blessing Are Separate Judah was given leadership, but the birthright went to Joseph. God can assign different roles to different tribes or people—according to His purposes. 3. Victory Comes Through Trust in God The eastern tribes won their battles not through strength alone but because they trusted God and cried out to Him. God responds to humble, believing hearts. 4. Faithfulness Determines Legacy Though these tribes were once mighty and blessed, they were later removed from the land because they turned to idols. Faithfulness to God is essential for lasting blessing. 5. God Judges His People Justly Even God's chosen people are not above discipline. When they forsook Him, He allowed Assyria to take them into captivity—a sobering reminder that God expects loyalty.

Key Lessons from 1 Chronicles Chapter 6

1. God Values Worship and Order The Levites had different assignments—some for worship, some for priestly work, and others for support roles. Every task mattered in God’s house. 2. Faithfulness Spans Generations The lineage from Aaron to the exile shows how God's calling can continue across centuries—if we remain faithful. 3. Music and Ministry Go Together David’s appointment of singers and musicians reminds us that worship through music is a vital part of ministering before the Lord. 4. Obedience Leads to Provision The Levites received cities and lands as God had promised—not for conquest, but because of their obedience and dedication to serving in His house. 5. God Honors Legacy in His Presence From Heman to Asaph to Ethan, the worship leaders had deep spiritual roots. God honors those who dedicate their families and talents to Him.

Key Lessons from 1 Chronicles Chapter 7

1. God Honors Generational Strength and Courage The chapter highlights thousands of warriors from various tribes, emphasizing that strength, bravery, and leadership were passed down through generations. 2. Legacy Isn't Just Numbers—It's Purpose Many are counted, but only some stories stand out—like Ephraim's sorrow and the building efforts of his daughter Sheerah. Our impact isn't measured by number alone, but by faith, character, and action. 3. Women Had Influence Too Sheerah, daughter of Ephraim, built cities—showing that even in a male-dominated record, God honored the legacy and achievements of women. 4. Faithfulness Leads to Readiness The 26,000 men of Asher and the large armies from Issachar, Benjamin, and others weren't just physically strong—they were prepared. God honors preparation. 5. Grief and Hope Can Coexist Ephraim's mourning over lost sons didn't stop God's purpose—He gave him another son, Beriah, and through him came a continued legacy, eventually leading to Joshua.

Key Lessons from 1 Chronicles Chapter 8

1. God Values Family History Though the list of names is long, it shows how every generation matters. God records families because each one plays a part in His larger story. 2. From Ordinary to Royal Saul, Israel's first king, came from a tribe not originally favored with kingship. God can raise anyone into leadership, regardless of background. 3. Legacy Is Not Just About You Men like Ulam and Azel left behind a legacy of strength and influence. The next generation carried on what they built. 4. God Remembers the Unremembered Even those whose stories we know little about—like Sheariah or Antothijah—were still important enough to be named in Scripture. God sees every person. 5. Strength in Generations The Benjamites were known for being warriors, archers, and leaders. A pattern of strength and courage ran through their line, showing how character can be passed down.

Key Lessons from 1 Chronicles Chapter 9

1. Faithfulness Is Remembered Even after exile, God preserved the names and duties of the faithful—priests, Levites, singers, and gatekeepers. God never forgets those who serve Him. 2. Everyone Has a Role in God's House From priests to porters, from singers to bakers—each task in the temple mattered. Your role, no matter how unseen, contributes to God's work. 3. Worship Requires Order The detailed organization of the Levites, singers, and gatekeepers shows that worship isn't random—it's holy, structured, and intentional. 4. The Line of Saul Continues The closing genealogy highlights Saul's descendants, including Jonathan and Micah, pointing to the continued relevance of his family—even after his fall. 5. God Restores What Was Lost Though Israel fell and went into exile, the return of families to Jerusalem and temple service shows God's faithfulness to restore His people and purpose.

1 Chronicles Chapter 10 — Crawford Standard Bible

The Battle of Mount Gilboa

1 The Philistines went to war against Israel, and the men of Israel fled before them. Many Israelites were killed on Mount Gilboa.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 31:1; 1 Samuel 28:4; 2 Samuel 1:4

2 The Philistines pressed hard after Saul and his sons, and they killed Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua—Saul's sons.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 31:2; 1 Samuel 14:49; 2 Samuel 1:4

The Death of King Saul

3 The battle turned fiercely against Saul. The enemy archers spotted him, and he was seriously wounded by their arrows.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 31:3; 1 Kings 22:34; 2 Samuel 1:6

4 Saul said to his armor-bearer, “Draw your sword and kill me before these uncircumcised Philistines come and torture me.” But his armor-bearer was too afraid and refused. So Saul took his own sword and fell on it.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 31:4; Judges 9:54; 2 Samuel 1:14

5 When the armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his sword and died with him.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 31:5; 2 Samuel 1:15; 2 Samuel 1:16

6 So Saul, his three sons, and his entire house died that day.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 31:6; 1 Samuel 2:34; 2 Samuel 21:12

The Aftermath and Philistine Triumph

7 When the Israelites living in the valley saw the army retreat and heard that Saul and his sons had died, they abandoned their towns and fled. The Philistines came and settled in those towns.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 31:7; 1 Samuel 4:10; 2 Samuel 1:4

8 The next day, the Philistines came to strip the dead and found Saul and his sons lying on Mount Gilboa.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 31:8; 1 Samuel 17:53; 2 Samuel 1:6

9 They stripped off Saul’s armor, cut off his head, and sent messengers throughout the land of the Philistines to spread the news to their idols and their people.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 31:9; 2 Samuel 1:10; 1 Samuel 17:51

10 They placed his armor in the temple of their gods and hung his head in the temple of Dagon.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 31:10; Judges 16:23; 1 Samuel 5:2

The Valor of Jabesh-Gilead

11 When the people of Jabesh-gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul,

Cross References: 1 Samuel 31:11; 1 Samuel 11:1; 1 Samuel 11:11

12 all the brave men of the town rose up, retrieved the bodies of Saul and his sons, and brought them back to Jabesh. They buried their bones under the oak tree in Jabesh and fasted for seven days.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 31:12; 1 Samuel 31:13; 2 Samuel 2:4

The Reason for Saul’s Downfall

13 Saul died because he was unfaithful to the Lord. He disobeyed the word of the Lord and even consulted a medium to get guidance,

Cross References: 1 Samuel 15:23; 1 Samuel 28:7; 1 Samuel 13:14

14 instead of seeking the Lord. So the Lord took his life and handed the kingdom over to David, the son of Jesse.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 16:13; 2 Samuel 5:3; 1 Samuel 13:14

Key Lessons from 1 Chronicles Chapter 10

1. Disobedience Has Consequences Saul's fall wasn't just a military loss—it was a spiritual collapse. His failure to obey God and his reliance on forbidden spiritual practices led to his death and the end of his dynasty. 2. God Requires Faithfulness The contrast between Saul and David is foreshadowed here. Saul turned away from God; David, though imperfect, would be a man after God's own heart. God honors those who seek Him. 3. Even Heroes Can Fall Saul was once chosen by God and anointed king, but even the mighty can fall if they reject God's ways. No one is above accountability. 4. Honor Amid Defeat The men of Jabesh-gilead displayed great courage and loyalty by rescuing and honoring Saul's body, reminding us that even in loss, valor and respect still matter. 5. God Is Sovereign Over Nations The chapter ends with a reminder that God removed Saul and gave the kingdom to David. Earthly kings rise and fall, but God's will always prevails.

1 Chronicles Chapter 11 — Crawford Standard Bible

David Is Anointed King of Israel

1 Then all the people of Israel came together to David at Hebron and said, "Look, we are your own flesh and blood.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 5:1; Genesis 29:14; Judges 9:2

2 Even when Saul was king, you were the one who led Israel in and out. And the Lord your God said to you, 'You will shepherd My people Israel, and you will be their ruler.'"

Cross References: 2 Samuel 5:2; 1 Samuel 18:16; Psalm 78:71

3 So all the elders of Israel came to David at Hebron, and he made a covenant with them there before the Lord. Then they anointed David king over Israel, just as the Lord had spoken through Samuel.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 5:3; 1 Samuel 16:13; 2 Samuel 2:4

David Captures Jerusalem

4 David and all Israel went to Jerusalem (called Jebus at the time). The Jebusites were living there.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 5:6; Joshua 15:63; Judges 1:21

5 The people of Jebus said to David, "You will never get in here." But David captured the fortress of Zion, which is now called the City of David.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 5:7; 2 Samuel 5:9; Psalm 48:2

6 David said, "Whoever attacks the Jebusites first will become the commander of my army." Joab, son of Zeruiah, went up first—so he became the commander.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 5:8; 1 Chronicles 27:34; 2 Samuel 2:13

7 David made the fortress his home, and that's why they called it the City of David.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 5:9; 2 Samuel 5:7; 1 Kings 8:1

8 He built up the city around it, from the Millo and onward. Joab rebuilt the rest of the city.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 5:9; 1 Kings 9:15; 1 Kings 11:27

9 David kept growing stronger and stronger, because the Lord of Heaven's Armies was with him.

David's Mighty Men: Heroes of Valor

10 These are the leaders of David's mighty warriors. They joined him in strengthening his kingdom, along with all Israel, to make him king—just as the Lord had promised concerning Israel.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 23:8; 1 Chronicles 12:38; 1 Chronicles 29:24

The First Three Mighty Warriors

11 Here is the list of David's mighty men:

Cross References: 2 Samuel 23:8; 1 Chronicles 27:2; 1 Chronicles 11:20

- Jashobeam, a Hachmonite, was the chief of the officers. He raised his spear and killed 300 men in a single battle.

12 Next was Eleazar, son of Dodo the Ahohite, one of the top three warriors.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 23:9; 1 Chronicles 27:4; 1 Samuel 17:11

13 He was with David at Pas-Dammim when the Philistines assembled there for battle. The Israelite army fled, but Eleazar stood his ground in a field full of barley.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 23:9; 1 Samuel 17:1; 1 Samuel 17:2

14 He and David defended it and struck down the Philistines. The Lord gave them a great victory.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 23:10; 1 Samuel 14:23; Judges 15:18

The Brave Act at Bethlehem's Well

15 Three of the thirty leaders went to David at the rock near the cave of Adullam, while the Philistine army camped in the valley of Rephaim.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 23:13; 1 Samuel 22:1; Psalm 57:1

16 David was in the stronghold, and the Philistine garrison was stationed in Bethlehem.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 23:14; 1 Samuel 22:4; 1 Samuel 22:5

17 David longed for water and said, "If only someone would give me a drink from the well near the gate of Bethlehem!"

Cross References: 2 Samuel 23:15; Micah 5:2; Ruth 1:19

18 So the three broke through the Philistine lines, drew water from the well near Bethlehem's gate, and brought it back to David. But he refused to drink it. Instead, he poured it out to the Lord

Cross References: 2 Samuel 23:16; 2 Samuel 23:17; 1 Samuel 7:6

19 and said, "God forbid I drink this! This is like the blood of the men who risked their lives." So he didn't drink it. These were the kinds of heroic deeds these three warriors performed.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 23:17; Leviticus 17:10; Deuteronomy 12:23

Abishai and Benaiah

20 Abishai, Joab's brother, was the leader of the next group of three. He raised his spear against 300 men and killed them, making him as famous as the top three.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 23:18; 1 Chronicles 18:12; 1 Samuel 26:6

21 He was more honored than the other two and became their commander, though he was not one of the original three.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 23:19; 2 Samuel 23:23; 1 Chronicles 11:25

22 Benaiah son of Jehoiada, a valiant warrior from Kabzeel, performed many great feats. He struck down two of Moab's mightiest men. He also went into a pit on a snowy day and killed a lion.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 23:20; 1 Chronicles 27:5; Joshua 15:21

23 He killed a huge Egyptian who was over seven feet tall and armed with a spear like a weaver's beam. Benaiah went against him with only a staff, grabbed the spear from the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with it.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 23:21; 1 Samuel 17:4; 1 Chronicles 20:6

24 These were the exploits of Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and he was famous among the three mighty men.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 23:22; 1 Chronicles 27:5; 1 Kings 2:34

25 He was held in greater honor than the Thirty, but he was not one of the Three. David put him in charge of his personal bodyguard.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 23:23; 1 Kings 1:38; 2 Samuel 8:18

The Thirty Valiant Warriors

26 Other valiant warriors were:

Key Lessons from 1 Chronicles Chapter 11

1. God Honors Covenant and Calling David's rise to kingship wasn't just political—it was the fulfillment of God's promise. When people submit to God's will, His plan unfolds. 2. True Leadership Is Earned Through Service David led Israel even before he wore the crown. He earned their trust long before he held their allegiance. 3. Victory Comes from God's Presence David grew stronger because "the Lord of Heaven's Armies was with him." Our success flows from God's favor, not just personal strength. 4. Loyalty and Courage Matter The mighty men risked their lives for David. Their faithfulness and valor are honored in Scripture—proof that bravery and loyalty don't go unnoticed by God. 5. Leadership Recognizes the Sacrifice of Others David refused to drink the water his men risked their lives to get. True leaders don't exploit the sacrifice of others—they honor it.

Loyal Men from Benjamin and Judah

16 Men from the tribes of Benjamin and Judah also came to David in his stronghold.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 22:4; 1 Samuel 22:5; 1 Samuel 23:29

17 David went out to meet them and said, “If you’ve come in peace to help me, I will gladly welcome you. But if you’ve come to betray me to my enemies—even though I’ve done no wrong—may the God of our ancestors see it and punish you.”

Cross References: 1 Samuel 24:12; 1 Samuel 26:10; Genesis 31:50

18 Then the Spirit of God came upon Amasai, the leader of the Thirty, and he said, “We are yours, David! We are with you, son of Jesse! Peace to you, and peace to those who help you, for your God is with you.” So David accepted them and made them leaders in his army.

Cross References: Judges 6:34; 2 Chronicles 24:20; Numbers 24:2

More Warriors Join David

19 Some men from Manasseh also joined David when he went with the Philistines to fight against Saul. But the Philistine leaders didn’t trust David and sent him away, thinking he might turn against them in the battle.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 29:4; 1 Samuel 29:6; 1 Samuel 28:1

20 When David returned to Ziklag, these men from Manasseh joined him: Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai—each a commander over a thousand troops in Manasseh.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 29:11; 1 Chronicles 7:14; 1 Chronicles 27:20 21 They helped David defeat raiding bands, for they were all brave and experienced warriors and became commanders in his army.

Cross References: Numbers 32:33; Joshua 22:4; Deuteronomy 3:18

Unity and Celebration at Hebron

38 All these warriors came to Hebron fully united in purpose—to make David king over all Israel. And all the rest of Israel agreed wholeheartedly.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 5:3; 1 Chronicles 11:1; 1 Kings 8:61

39 They stayed with David for three days, eating and drinking, because their relatives had made preparations for them.

Cross References: Nehemiah 8:10; Exodus 24:11; 2 Samuel 6:19 40 Neighbors from as far as Issachar, Zebulun, and Naphtali brought food on donkeys, camels, mules, and oxen—plenty of flour, fig cakes, raisin cakes, wine, oil, cattle, and sheep. There was great joy in Israel.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 25:18; 2 Samuel 17:28; 2 Chronicles 30:26

Key Lessons from 1 Chronicles Chapter 12

1. God Provides Loyal Help When You're in Hiding While David was on the run, God sent skilled warriors to support him. Even in our low seasons, God raises up the right people. 2. True Strength Is Found in Unity of Heart The warriors came from many tribes, but they were all united in purpose—to establish David as king. Unity is powerful when it's rooted in God's plan. 3. Discernment and Courage Go Together The men of Issachar “understood the times and knew what Israel should do.” Spiritual insight combined with bold action brings clarity to uncertain situations. 4. Service and Sacrifice Matter Those who couldn't fight still served—they brought food, supplies, and support. Everyone had a role, and all were part of the joy. 5. Victory Is a Community Celebration When David was made king, it wasn't just a coronation—it was a feast, a symbol of restoration. When God's will prevails, the whole community rejoices.

David Proposes to Bring Back the Ark

1 David consulted with all his commanders—those over thousands and hundreds—and with every leader.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 6:1; Exodus 18:21; 1 Chronicles 27:1

2 He said to the entire assembly of Israel, “If you agree, and if it is the will of the Lord our God, let's send word to the rest of our people throughout all Israel, including the priests and Levites in their towns and nearby lands, asking them to join us.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 6:1; Numbers 4:15; Deuteronomy 10:8

3 Let's bring back the Ark of our God, for we didn't seek it during the reign of Saul.”

Cross References: 1 Samuel 7:2; 1 Samuel 14:18; 2 Samuel 6:2

4 The whole assembly agreed, because everyone saw that it was the right thing to do.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 6:2; Exodus 19:8; Deuteronomy 1:14

The Ark Is Moved from Kirjath-Jearim

5 So David gathered all Israel, from the border of Egypt at the Shihor River to the entrance of Hamath, to bring the Ark of God from Kiriath-jearim.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 6:1; Joshua 13:3; 1 Samuel 7:1

6 David and all Israel went up to Baalah (that is, Kiriath-jearim in Judah) to bring up the Ark of God, the Lord who is enthroned between the cherubim—where His name is called upon.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 6:2; Exodus 25:22; 1 Samuel 4:4

7 They placed the Ark of God on a new cart and brought it from the house of Abinadab, with Uzzah and Ahio guiding the cart.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 6:3; 1 Samuel 6:7; Numbers 7:9

8 David and all Israel were celebrating before God with all their strength—singing songs and playing harps, lyres, tambourines, cymbals, and trumpets.

Uzzah Dies for Touching the Ark

9 But when they arrived at the threshing floor of Chidon, the oxen stumbled, and Uzzah reached out his hand to steady the Ark.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 6:6; Numbers 4:15; 1 Samuel 6:19

10 The Lord’s anger burned against Uzzah, and He struck him down for touching the Ark. Uzzah died there in the presence of God.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 6:7; Leviticus 10:2; Numbers 4:15

11 David was upset because the Lord had broken out in anger against Uzzah, so that place is still called Perez-uzzah (which means “the outbreak against Uzzah”).

Cross References: 2 Samuel 6:8; Genesis 38:29; Exodus 19:22

12 That day David was afraid of God and said, “How can I ever bring the Ark of God home to me?”

Cross References: 2 Samuel 6:9; 1 Samuel 6:20; Exodus 33:20 13 So David did not take the Ark to the City of David but instead took it to the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 6:10; 1 Chronicles 15:18; 1 Chronicles 16:5

14 The Ark of God stayed with the family of Obed-edom in his house for three months, and the Lord blessed him and everything he owned.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 6:11; 1 Chronicles 26:5; Genesis 39:5

Key Lessons from 1 Chronicles Chapter 13

1. God’s Presence Must Be Revered, Not Handled Casually Uzzah’s death reminds us that God’s holiness is not something to be taken lightly—even good intentions must align with God’s instructions. 2. Worship Must Flow from Obedience Though the celebration was joyful, the transportation of the Ark wasn’t done the way God prescribed (see Numbers 4:15). Reverence and obedience matter more than excitement. 3. Spiritual Leadership Includes Wise Counsel and Humility David first consulted the leaders and the people—he led with collaboration. But after Uzzah’s death, David paused and sought God more carefully. 4. God’s Presence Brings Blessing When Received Rightly While David paused in fear, Obed-edom welcomed the Ark into his home—and God blessed everything he had. The presence of God blesses those who honor it properly. 5. Fear of the Lord Is the Beginning of Wisdom David learned to treat the things of God with deep reverence. Sometimes, holy fear draws us back into right relationship with the Lord’s holiness.

David Defeats the Philistines with God's Help

8 When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over all Israel, they came out in force to find him. David heard about it and went out to face them.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 5:17; 1 Samuel 17:8; 1 Samuel 23:27

9 The Philistines came and spread out across the Valley of Rephaim.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 5:18; Joshua 15:8; Isaiah 17:5

10 David asked God, "Should I go out and fight the Philistines? Will You hand them over to me?" The Lord replied, "Yes, go. I will hand them over to you."

Cross References: 2 Samuel 5:19; Judges 20:23; 1 Samuel 23:2

11 So David and his men went to Baal-perazim, and there he defeated them. David said, "God has broken through my enemies by my hand like a raging flood." So they named that place Baal-perazim (meaning "The Lord of Breakthroughs").

Cross References: 2 Samuel 5:20; Isaiah 28:21; 2 Samuel 6:8

12 The Philistines abandoned their idols there, and David gave the command that they be burned.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 5:21; Deuteronomy 7:5; 1 Samuel 5:4

A New Strategy: Listening for God's Timing

13 Once again, the Philistines spread out across the valley.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 5:22; 1 Chronicles 14:9; Joshua 15:8

14 David again asked God what to do, and God said, “Don’t attack them directly. Circle around behind them and come at them near the mulberry trees.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 5:23; 1 Samuel 23:4; Judges 20:28

15 When you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the trees, move quickly. That will be the signal that God has gone out ahead of you to strike down the Philistine army.”

Cross References: 2 Samuel 5:24; Judges 4:14; Joshua 8:1

16 So David did exactly what God commanded. He and his men struck down the Philistine army all the way from Gibeon to Gezer.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 5:25; Joshua 10:10; 1 Chronicles 20:4

17 David’s fame spread everywhere, and the Lord caused all the nations to fear him.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 17:10; Joshua 4:14; 1 Kings 4:31

Key Lessons from 1 Chronicles Chapter 14

1. God Confirms His Calling in Time David recognized that God had truly established his reign. When God calls someone, He also brings affirmation and provision to carry out that calling. 2.

Victory Comes Through Seeking God’s Direction David didn’t rely on past strategies—he sought God each time. One victory doesn’t guarantee the same path next time. God’s guidance is fresh and specific. 3. Spiritual Discernment Requires Patience David waited to hear the sound in the trees before moving. Obedience to God’s timing is as important as obedience to His instruction. 4. Burn the Idols—Don’t Tolerate Them When the Philistines left their idols behind, David didn’t keep or reuse them—he destroyed them. We are to cast off and destroy what opposes the holiness of God. 5.

God Fights for His People The Lord of Breakthroughs (Baal-perazim) went ahead of David and gave the victory. God is not just watching—He’s actively working for those who trust Him.

1 Chronicles Chapter 15 — Crawford Standard Bible

David Prepares a Tent for the Ark

1 David built himself houses in the City of David. He also prepared a place for the Ark of God and set up a tent for it.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 6:17; 1 Chronicles 16:1; Psalm 132:5

2 Then David said, “Only the Levites may carry the Ark of God, because the Lord chose them to carry it and serve Him forever.”

Cross References: Numbers 4:15; Deuteronomy 10:8; Numbers 7:9

3 David assembled all Israel in Jerusalem to bring the Ark of the Lord to the place he had prepared for it.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 6:12; 1 Chronicles 13:5; 1 Chronicles 16:1

David Organizes the Levites

4 David gathered the descendants of Aaron and the Levites:

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 6:1; Numbers 3:17; Exodus 6:16

5 From the Kohathites: Uriel the leader and 120 relatives.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 6:2; 1 Chronicles 23:12; Exodus 6:18

6 From the Merarites: Asaiah the leader and 220 relatives.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 6:19; 1 Chronicles 23:21; Numbers 3:20

7 From the Gershonites: Joel the leader and 130 relatives.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 6:20; 1 Chronicles 23:7; Numbers 3:21

8 From the Elizaphanites: Shemaiah the leader and 200 relatives.

Cross References: Exodus 6:22; Numbers 3:30; 1 Chronicles 23:20 9 From the Hebronites: Eliel the leader and 80 relatives.

Cross References: Exodus 6:18; 1 Chronicles 23:19; 1 Chronicles 24:23

10 From the Uzzielites: Amminadab the leader and 112 relatives.

Cross References: Exodus 6:22; 1 Chronicles 23:20; Numbers 3:27

11 Then David summoned the priests Zadok and Abiathar, along with the Levite leaders: Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 15:4; 2 Samuel 15:24; 1 Chronicles 16:39

12 He said to them, “You are the heads of the Levite families. Purify yourselves, you and your fellow Levites, so you can bring the Ark of the Lord, the God of Israel, to the place I’ve prepared for it.

Cross References: Exodus 19:10; 2 Chronicles 29:5; 2 Chronicles 35:6

13 The first time, the Lord our God broke out in anger against us because we didn’t seek Him the proper way.”

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 13:10; Numbers 4:15; 2 Samuel 6:7

14 So the priests and Levites purified themselves in order to carry the Ark of the Lord, the God of Israel.

Cross References: Exodus 19:10; 2 Chronicles 29:15; 2 Chronicles 30:24

15 The Levites carried the Ark of God on their shoulders using the poles, just as Moses had commanded based on the word of the Lord.

Cross References: Numbers 4:15; Exodus 25:14; Deuteronomy 10:8

Worship Leaders and Musicians Appointed

16 David instructed the leaders of the Levites to appoint singers to lead the people in joyful songs, accompanied by musical instruments—harps, lyres, and cymbals.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 25:1; Psalm 150:3; 2 Chronicles 5:12

17 So the Levites appointed Heman son of Joel, along with Asaph son of Berechiah, and Ethan son of Kushaiah from the Merarite clan.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 6:33; 1 Chronicles 25:1; Psalm 88:1

18 Along with them were their second-rank relatives: Zechariah, Ben, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Elipheleh, Mikneiah, and the gatekeepers Obed-edom and Jeiel.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 16:5; 1 Chronicles 26:1; 1 Chronicles 15:24

19 The singers Heman, Asaph, and Ethan were to sound the bronze cymbals.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 25:1; Psalm 150:5; 1 Chronicles 16:5

20 Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah, and Benaiah played lyres tuned to Alamoth.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 15:18; Psalm 33:2; 1 Chronicles 25:2

21 Mattithiah, Elipheleh, Mikneiah, Obed-edom, Jeiel, and Azaziah played harps tuned to the Sheminith.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 15:18; Psalm 92:3; 1 Chronicles 25:3

22 Chenaniah, a skilled musician, was put in charge of the singing.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 25:7; 1 Chronicles 26:29; 2 Chronicles 34:12

23 Berechiah and Elkanah served as gatekeepers for the Ark.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 26:1; 1 Chronicles 9:19; 1 Chronicles 15:24

24 The priests Shebaniah, Jehoshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah, and Eliezer blew trumpets in front of the Ark of God. Obed-edom and Jehiah were also gatekeepers for the Ark.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 16:6; Numbers 10:8; 2 Chronicles 5:12

The Ark Brought to Jerusalem with Celebration

25 Then David, the elders of Israel, and the army commanders joyfully brought up the Ark of the covenant of the Lord from the house of Obed-edom.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 6:12; Psalm 132:8; 1 Chronicles 13:5

26 Because God was helping the Levites who carried the Ark of the covenant, they offered seven bulls and seven rams as sacrifices.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 6:13; 1 Chronicles 15:15; Leviticus 1:2

27 David was dressed in a fine linen robe, just like all the Levites who carried the Ark, the singers, and Chenaniah the choir director. David also wore a linen ephod.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 6:14; Exodus 28:6; 1 Samuel 2:18

28 So all Israel brought up the Ark of the covenant of the Lord with shouts of joy, blowing of ram's horns and trumpets, and the clash of cymbals and music played on harps and lyres.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 6:15; Psalm 47:5; Joshua 6:20

29 As the Ark of the covenant of the Lord was entering the City of David, Michal the daughter of Saul looked out the window. When she saw King David dancing and celebrating, she was filled with contempt for him in her heart.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 6:16; 2 Samuel 6:20; 1 Samuel 18:6

Key Lessons from 1 Chronicles Chapter 15

1. God Deserves Our Obedience in Worship The first attempt to move the Ark failed because God's order was not followed. This time, David ensured it was done properly—according to God's command. Reverence matters. 2. Worship Is a Community Event David involved priests, Levites, musicians, singers, and even gatekeepers. Worship wasn't a one-man show—it was a sacred act of national unity. 3. Joy Should Accompany God's Presence The return of the Ark was celebrated with singing, dancing, and rejoicing. When God is honored, celebration is appropriate. 4. Leaders Must Lead in Holiness David called the priests and Levites to purify themselves first. Those who serve in God's presence must be clean—set apart for His purpose. 5. Some Will Misunderstand Your Worship Michal despised David for his passionate praise. True worship may be misunderstood by others, but we worship for an audience of One.

41 With them were Heman, Jeduthun, and the rest who had been chosen and named to give thanks to the Lord—“His faithful love endures forever.”

Cross References: Psalm 136:1; 1 Chronicles 25:3; 2 Chronicles 5:13

42 Heman and Jeduthun also had with them trumpets and cymbals for those who played and praised God, as well as other instruments for sacred music. The sons of Jeduthun were assigned as gatekeepers.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 15:16; 1 Chronicles 25:1; 2 Chronicles 29:26

David Returns Home

43 Then all the people returned to their homes, and David went home to bless his own household.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 6:19; 2 Samuel 6:20; 1 Kings 8:66

Key Lessons from 1 Chronicles Chapter 16

1. Worship Must Be Organized and Intentional David appointed Levites, musicians, and priests with specific roles. Worship isn't haphazard—it involves preparation, order, and reverence. 2. Praise Is a Response to God's Presence When the Ark arrived, the people didn't just observe—they offered sacrifices, sang, and celebrated with thanksgiving and joy. 3. Public Thanksgiving Has Power David's psalm reminds the people to tell others about God's works and declare His glory among all nations. Worship is meant to be a witness. 4. God's Covenant Is Worth Remembering David's song praises God's promises to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Recalling God's faithfulness builds faith for the future. 5. The Lord Reigns Over All Despite the presence of many false gods in the world, the psalm boldly proclaims: "The Lord reigns!"—a truth worth shouting across the nations. 6. True Worship Involves Giving The people brought offerings, and David gave food and drink to all. Worship is not just singing—it's generosity, sacrifice, and celebration.

1 Chronicles Chapter 17 — Crawford Standard Bible

David Desires to Build a House for God

1 After David had settled into his palace, he said to Nathan the prophet, "Look, I'm living in a house made of cedar, but the Ark of the covenant of the Lord is under a tent."

Cross References: 2 Samuel 7:2; 1 Chronicles 22:1; Psalm 132:3

2 Nathan replied, "Do whatever is in your heart, for God is with you."

Cross References: 2 Samuel 7:3; 1 Kings 8:17; 2 Chronicles 1:9

God's Message to David

3 But that night, the word of God came to Nathan:

Cross References: 2 Samuel 7:4; 1 Samuel 3:4; Jeremiah 1:4

4 "Go and tell my servant David, 'This is what the Lord says: You are not the one to build a house for me to live in.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 7:5; 1 Kings 8:19; 1 Chronicles 22:8

5 From the day I brought Israel out of Egypt until now, I have never lived in a house. I have moved from tent to tent, and from one dwelling to another.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 7:6; Exodus 40:36; Acts 7:44

6 Wherever I went with all Israel, did I ever ask any of Israel's judges, whom I appointed to shepherd my people, "Why haven't you built me a house of cedar?"

Cross References: 2 Samuel 7:7; Judges 2:16; 2 Samuel 5:2

God's Covenant with David

7 “Now then, tell my servant David, ‘This is what the Lord of Heaven’s Armies says: I took you from the pasture, from tending sheep, and made you ruler over my people Israel.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 7:8; 1 Samuel 16:11; Psalm 78:70

8 I have been with you wherever you went. I destroyed all your enemies before you and made your name as great as the names of the greatest men on earth.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 7:9; Psalm 18:35; Genesis 12:2

9 I will provide a place for my people Israel and plant them there to live in peace. They will never be disturbed again, and violent people will no longer oppress them as they once did.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 7:10; Amos 9:15; Jeremiah 32:41

10 From the time I appointed judges to lead my people Israel, I will also subdue all your enemies. Furthermore, I declare to you that I, the Lord, will build a house for you!

Cross References: 2 Samuel 7:11; Judges 2:18; Deuteronomy 12:10

11 When your days are complete and you go to be with your ancestors, I will raise up one of your sons to succeed you, and I will establish his kingdom.

David Asks for the Promise to Be Fulfilled

23 “And now, Lord, let the promise you have made about your servant and his house be established forever. Do exactly what you have said.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 7:25; 2 Samuel 7:28; Numbers 23:19

24 Then your name will be honored forever, and people will say, ‘The Lord of Heaven’s Armies is the God over Israel!’ And the house of your servant David will be established before you.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 7:26; Malachi 1:11; Psalm 48:10

25 You, my God, have revealed to your servant that you will build a house for him. That is why your servant has found the courage to pray this prayer to you.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 7:27; Psalm 25:14; 1 Samuel 9:15

26 O Lord, you are God! You have promised these good things to your servant.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 7:28; Numbers 23:19; Titus 1:2

27 Now please bless your servant’s household so that it may continue forever in your presence. For you, O Lord, have spoken, and when you bless, it is blessed forever.”

Cross References: 2 Samuel 7:29; Genesis 12:3; Numbers 6:24

Key Lessons from 1 Chronicles Chapter 17

1. God's Plans Are Greater Than Ours David wanted to build a house for God, but God had a bigger plan—to build an everlasting kingdom through David’s line. 2. God Honors Humility and Faithfulness David’s heart to honor God with a temple was noble, and God rewarded him not with a building project—but with an eternal covenant. 3. God’s Covenant Points to Christ The promise of a throne established forever finds ultimate fulfillment in Jesus Christ, the Son of David. 4. God Keeps His Word From leading Israel out of Egypt to establishing David's kingdom, every step shows that God is faithful to His promises. 5. Gratitude Deepens Our Relationship with God David didn't just receive the promise—he sat before the Lord in humble gratitude and praised Him for His goodness and mercy. 6. God's Blessings Are Meant to Glorify His Name David asked for the promise to be fulfilled so that God's name would be exalted—not merely for his own benefit.

David's Victories Over His Enemies

1 After this, David defeated the Philistines and brought them under his control. He captured Gath and its surrounding towns from their hands.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 8:1; Joshua 13:3; 1 Samuel 17:4

2 He also defeated Moab, and the Moabites became his subjects and brought him tribute.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 8:2; Numbers 24:17; 2 Kings 3:4

3 David then defeated King Hadadezer of Zobah as far as Hamath, when Hadadezer went to restore his power at the Euphrates River.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 8:3; 1 Chronicles 19:16; 2 Samuel 10:16

4 David captured 1,000 chariots, 7,000 charioteers, and 20,000 foot soldiers from him. He crippled all the chariot horses, but spared enough for 100 chariots.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 8:4; Joshua 11:6; Deuteronomy 17:16

5 When the Arameans of Damascus came to help Hadadezer, David struck down 22,000 of them.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 8:5; 1 Chronicles 19:6; 2 Samuel 10:18

6 Then David set up garrisons in Aramean Damascus, and the Arameans became his subjects and brought him tribute. The Lord gave David victory wherever he went.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 8:6; 2 Samuel 7:9; Joshua 1:5

Wealth Dedicated to the Lord

7 David took the gold shields carried by Hadadezer's officers and brought them to Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 8:7; 1 Kings 14:26; 2 Chronicles 12:9

8 He also took a large amount of bronze from Tibhath and Cun, cities that belonged to Hadadezer. Solomon later used that bronze to make the bronze basin, the pillars, and other bronze items for the Temple.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 8:8; 1 Kings 7:15; 2 Chronicles 4:11

David Honored by Other Nations

9 When King Tou of Hamath heard that David had defeated the army of Hadadezer king of Zobah,
Cross References: 2 Samuel 8:9; 1 Kings 8:65; 2 Kings 14:28

10 he sent his son Hadoram to greet King David and bless him for defeating Hadadezer, who had often been at war with Tou. Hadoram brought with him all kinds of gold, silver, and bronze items.
Cross References: 2 Samuel 8:10; Psalm 68:29; Psalm 72:10

11 King David dedicated these gifts to the Lord, along with the silver and gold he had taken from all the nations: Edom, Moab, Ammon, the Philistines, and Amalek.
Cross References: 2 Samuel 8:11; 2 Samuel 8:12; 1 Chronicles 26:27

David's Control Over Edom

12 Abishai son of Zeruiah killed 18,000 Edomites in the Valley of Salt.
Cross References: 2 Samuel 8:13; Psalm 60:1; 2 Kings 14:7

13 David then stationed garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became his subjects. The Lord gave David victory wherever he went.
Cross References: 2 Samuel 8:14; Genesis 27:40; Numbers 24:18

David's Government Officials

14 So David reigned over all Israel, doing what was just and right for all his people.
Cross References: 2 Samuel 8:15; 1 Kings 10:9; Psalm 72:2

15 Joab son of Zeruiah was in charge of the army. Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was the royal historian.
Cross References: 2 Samuel 8:16; 2 Samuel 20:23; 1 Chronicles 11:6

16 Zadok son of Ahitub and Ahimelek son of Abiathar were the priests. Shavsha was the court secretary.
Cross References: 2 Samuel 8:17; 1 Chronicles 6:8; 1 Samuel 22:20 17 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and Pelethites (David's elite guards), and David's sons were his chief officials.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 8:18; 1 Chronicles 11:22; 2 Samuel 23:20

Key Lessons from 1 Chronicles Chapter 18

1. Victory Comes from the Lord David's military success wasn't due to strategy alone—Scripture repeats that "the Lord preserved David wherever he went." 2. Use Success to Honor God David didn't hoard the wealth he gained in battle. He dedicated the gold, silver, and bronze to the Lord as an act of worship and devotion. 3. God Fulfills His Promises In the previous chapter, God promised to establish David's kingdom and give him rest from his enemies. Chapter 18 shows the unfolding of that promise. 4. Good Leadership Establishes Justice David reigned with justice and righteousness over Israel. True godly leadership always seeks the good of the people. 5. Surround Yourself with Faithful People David's administration included trusted leaders—Joab, Jehoshaphat, Zadok, Benaiah—each fulfilling essential roles. Wise rulers appoint capable and loyal people.

David's Kindness Misinterpreted

1 After this, Nahash, king of the Ammonites, died, and his son Hanun succeeded him.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 10:1; 1 Samuel 11:1; Genesis 19:38

2 David said, "I will show kindness to Hanun, son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me." So David sent messengers to express sympathy concerning his father. When David's men arrived in Ammonite territory to offer condolences to Hanun,

Cross References: 2 Samuel 10:2; 1 Samuel 20:14; Genesis 21:23

3 the Ammonite officials said to Hanun, "Do you really think David is honoring your father by sending comforters? Isn't it more likely that his men have come to spy out the land, overthrow it, and gather intelligence?"

Cross References: 2 Samuel 10:3; Genesis 42:9; Nehemiah 6:6

4 So Hanun seized David's men, shaved them, cut off their robes at the hips—exposing them—and sent them away in disgrace.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 10:4; Isaiah 47:3; 2 Samuel 13:19

David's Men Shamed

5 When David heard what had happened, he sent messengers to meet his men, for they were deeply humiliated. The king told them, "Stay at Jericho until your beards grow back, then return."

Cross References: 2 Samuel 10:5; Leviticus 19:27; Isaiah 15:2

The Ammonites Hire Mercenaries

6 Realizing they had made themselves offensive to David, Hanun and the Ammonites sent 1,000 talents of silver to hire chariots and horsemen from Mesopotamia, Aram-Maacah, and Zobah.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 10:6; 1 Chronicles 18:5; 2 Samuel 8:3

7 They hired 32,000 chariots and the king of Maacah with his army. These forces came and camped near Medeba, while the Ammonites themselves gathered from their towns and prepared for war.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 10:6; Joshua 13:13; Genesis 24:10

8 When David heard this, he sent Joab and the entire army of mighty warriors.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 10:7; 1 Chronicles 11:10; 2 Samuel 23:8

The Battle Plan: Unity in the Face of Danger

9 The Ammonites came and arranged themselves for battle at the city gate, while the allied kings positioned themselves in the open field.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 10:8; Judges 20:20; 1 Samuel 17:2

10 When Joab saw they were surrounded—by enemies both in front and behind—he chose Israel’s elite warriors and lined them up against the Syrians.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 10:9; Genesis 14:15; Judges 7:16

11 The rest of the troops he placed under the command of his brother Abishai to face the Ammonites.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 10:10; 2 Samuel 2:24; 1 Chronicles 11:20 12 Joab said, “If the Syrians are too strong for me, you come help me. If the Ammonites are too strong for you, I’ll come help you.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 10:11; Joshua 1:9; Deuteronomy 31:6

13 Be strong and courageous! Let’s fight bravely for our people and the cities of our God. May the Lord do what seems good to Him.”

Cross References: 2 Samuel 10:12; Joshua 10:25; 2 Chronicles 32:8

Victory Over the Ammonites and Syrians

14 Then Joab and his troops advanced to fight the Syrians, and the Syrians fled.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 10:13; Leviticus 26:8; Deuteronomy 32:30

15 When the Ammonites saw that the Syrians had retreated, they too fled from Abishai and retreated into the city. Joab then returned to Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 10:14; Judges 9:55; 2 Samuel 20:22

The Syrians Regroup and Are Defeated Again

16 The Syrians, humiliated by their defeat, gathered reinforcements from across the Euphrates. Shophach, the commander of Hadadezer’s army, led them.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 10:16; 2 Samuel 8:3; 1 Kings 20:1

17 David was told of this, and he gathered all Israel, crossed the Jordan River, and arranged his troops against them. When the battle began,

Cross References: 2 Samuel 10:17; Joshua 3:17; 2 Samuel 17:22

18 the Syrians fled from Israel. David’s forces killed 7,000 charioteers and 40,000 foot soldiers. They also killed Shophach, the commander of the army.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 10:18; 2 Samuel 8:4; 1 Chronicles 18:4

19 When Hadadezer’s officials saw their defeat, they made peace with David and became his subjects. After that, the Syrians refused to help the Ammonites again.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 10:19; 2 Samuel 8:6; Joshua 9:15

Key Lessons from 1 Chronicles Chapter 19

1. Good Intentions Can Be Misjudged David tried to honor Nahash's son, but Hanun listened to poor advice and turned an act of kindness into a cause for war. We should be careful whom we listen to and not assume evil where none exists. 2. Disgrace Can Wound Deeply David respected the dignity of his men when they were humiliated by Hanun. True leaders care not only about victory but also about personal honor and healing. 3. Godly Courage Works Together Joab and Abishai exemplified unity under pressure. They made a plan and supported one another, trusting God with the outcome. Spiritual battles are best fought side by side. 4. God Fights for His People Both military victories—against the Ammonites and the Syrians—were made possible because God gave David success. When we walk in God's will, He defends us. 5. Your Enemies Will Think Twice After this chapter's defeat, the Syrians never helped the Ammonites again. God has a way of silencing the forces aligned against His people.

1 Chronicles Chapter 20 — Crawford Standard Bible

David Captures Rabbah

1 In the spring of the year, when kings typically go out to war, Joab led out the army and devastated the land of the Ammonites. He went and besieged Rabbah, while David stayed behind in Jerusalem. Joab attacked and destroyed Rabbah.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 11:1; 2 Samuel 12:26; 2 Samuel 12:29

2 David took the crown from the head of their king. It weighed a talent of gold and was adorned with precious stones. It was placed on David's head. He also carried off great amounts of plunder from the city.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 12:30; Psalm 21:3; Jeremiah 49:2

3 He brought out the people who were in the city and put them to work with saws, iron picks, and axes. David did the same to all the Ammonite cities. Then he and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 12:31; Deuteronomy 20:11; Joshua 9:21

War Against the Philistines and the Giants

4 After this, there was a battle with the Philistines at Gezer. During the fight, Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Sippai, one of the descendants of the giants, and the Philistines were defeated.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 21:18; 1 Chronicles 11:29; 1 Chronicles 27:11

5 Again there was war with the Philistines, and Elhanan son of Jair killed Lahmi, the brother of Goliath the Gittite. Lahmi's spear had a shaft as thick as a weaver's beam.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 21:19; 1 Samuel 17:4; 1 Samuel 17:50

6 Once more there was war at Gath, where there was a huge man with six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot—twenty-four in all. He too was descended from the giant.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 21:20; Genesis 6:4; Numbers 13:33

7 When he taunted Israel, Jonathan son of Shimea, David’s brother, struck him down.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 21:21; 1 Samuel 17:10; 1 Chronicles 2:13

8 These descendants of the giant in Gath were all defeated by David and his warriors.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 21:22; Joshua 11:22; Genesis 14:5

Key Lessons from 1 Chronicles Chapter 20

1. Even Great Leaders Can Stay Behind While Joab went to war, David remained in Jerusalem. This detail echoes a critical moment in David’s life (expanded in 2 Samuel 11), reminding us that spiritual idleness can open the door to temptation. 2. God Grants Victory Over Every Enemy The Israelites conquered Rabbah and subdued powerful Philistine warriors—even descendants of giants. God’s strength, not human might, ultimately secures the victory. 3. Faithful Servants Share in the Triumph Though David is the king, the chapter highlights the victories of his loyal men—Joab, Sibbecai, Elhanan, and Jonathan. God uses a team of the faithful to accomplish His purposes. 4. The Giants Still Fall The giants of Gath, descendants of the same stock as Goliath, continued to rise—but each one fell. No matter how big the opposition seems, those who defy God will fall before those who trust Him. 5. Honor Comes Through Obedience David wore a crown of gold, but true honor wasn’t in the crown—it was in the obedience to God’s calling to protect Israel and lead his people with courage.

1 Chronicles Chapter 21 — Crawford Standard Bible

David’s Sin in Numbering Israel

1 Satan rose up against Israel and provoked David to take a census of the people.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 24:1; Job 1:12; 1 Chronicles 27:23

2 So David said to Joab and the commanders of the army, “Go and count all the people of Israel from Beersheba in the south to Dan in the north. Bring me a report so I may know how many there are.”

Cross References: 2 Samuel 24:2; Judges 20:1; 2 Samuel 3:10

3 But Joab replied, “May the Lord make His people a hundred times more numerous than they are! But, my lord the king, aren’t they all your servants? Why do you want to do this? Why bring guilt on Israel?”

Cross References: 2 Samuel 24:3; Exodus 30:12; Deuteronomy 1:11

4 But the king’s command overruled Joab. So Joab left and went throughout all Israel. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 24:4; 2 Samuel 24:8; Numbers 1:2

5 Joab gave David the results of the census: there were 1,100,000 men who could handle a sword in Israel, and 470,000 in Judah.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 24:9; Numbers 1:46; 1 Chronicles 27:1

6 But Joab did not include the tribes of Levi and Benjamin in the count because the king's command was so offensive to him.

Cross References: Numbers 1:49; Numbers 2:33; Numbers 26:62

7 God was displeased with what had been done, so He struck Israel with a plague.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 24:10; Genesis 38:10; 1 Chronicles 13:10

David Repents and Is Given a Choice

8 Then David said to God, "I have sinned greatly by doing this. Please forgive me for this foolish act."

Cross References: 2 Samuel 24:10; Psalm 51:4; 2 Samuel 12:13

9 Then the Lord spoke to Gad, David's prophet:

Cross References: 2 Samuel 24:11; 1 Samuel 22:5; 1 Chronicles 29:29

10 "Go and tell David, 'This is what the Lord says: I offer you three choices. Choose one, and I will carry it out against you.'"

Cross References: 2 Samuel 24:12; Deuteronomy 30:19; Jeremiah 21:8

11 So Gad came to David and said, "This is what the Lord says:

Cross References: 2 Samuel 24:13; Leviticus 26:25; Deuteronomy 28:21

12 You must choose one of these: three years of famine, three months of fleeing from your enemies, or three days of the sword of the Lord—a plague throughout the land, with the angel of the Lord bringing destruction to every corner of Israel. Decide what answer I should take back to the One who sent me."

Cross References: 2 Samuel 24:13; Exodus 12:23; Amos 4:10

13 David said, "I'm in great distress. Let me fall into the hands of the Lord, for His mercy is very great. But do not let me fall into the hands of man."

Cross References: 2 Samuel 24:14; Psalm 51:1; Lamentations 3:22

The Plague and the Angel of the Lord

14 So the Lord sent a plague on Israel, and 70,000 people died.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 24:15; Numbers 16:49; Exodus 9:15 15 God sent an angel to destroy Jerusalem. But just as the angel was doing so, the Lord looked and relented concerning the disaster and said to the angel, "Enough! Withdraw your hand." The angel of the Lord was standing by the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 24:16; Exodus 32:14; Genesis 22:12

16 David looked up and saw the angel of the Lord standing between heaven and earth with a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. David and the elders, dressed in sackcloth, fell facedown.

Cross References: Numbers 22:31; Joshua 5:13; Jonah 3:6

17 David cried out to God, “Wasn’t it I who ordered the census? I am the one who has sinned and done wrong. But these people are like sheep—what have they done? Lord my God, let Your hand fall upon me and my family, but do not let this plague remain on Your people.”

Cross References: 2 Samuel 24:17; Ezekiel 34:2; Exodus 32:32

David Builds an Altar

18 Then the angel of the Lord told Gad to instruct David to build an altar to the Lord on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 24:18; 2 Chronicles 3:1; Genesis 22:9

19 So David went to do what Gad had told him in the name of the Lord.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 24:19; 1 Chronicles 29:29; 1 Samuel 15:1

20 When Ornan turned and saw the angel, he and his four sons who were with him hid themselves. Ornan was threshing wheat at the time.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 24:20; Judges 6:11; Ruth 3:2

21 As David approached, Ornan looked and saw him and came out from the threshing floor and bowed with his face to the ground.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 24:20; Genesis 23:7; Genesis 33:3

22 David said, “Sell me your threshing floor so I can build an altar to the Lord on it. Sell it to me for the full price, so the plague may be stopped.”

Cross References: 2 Samuel 24:21; Genesis 23:9; Numbers 25:8

23 Ornan replied, “Take it! Let my lord the king do what seems best to him. I give you the oxen for burnt offerings, the threshing tools for firewood, and the wheat for the grain offering—I give it all.”

Cross References: 2 Samuel 24:22; Genesis 23:11; Judges 6:26

24 But King David replied, “No, I insist on paying the full price. I will not take what is yours and give it to the Lord. I will not offer burnt offerings that cost me nothing.”

Cross References: 2 Samuel 24:24; Genesis 23:13; Mark 12:44

25 So David paid Ornan 600 shekels of gold for the site.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 24:24; Genesis 23:16; Jeremiah 32:9

26 David built an altar to the Lord there and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. He called on the Lord, and the Lord answered him with fire from heaven on the altar.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 24:25; Leviticus 9:24; 2 Chronicles 7:1

27 Then the Lord commanded the angel, and he put his sword back into its sheath.

Cross References: Joshua 5:13; Genesis 3:24; Exodus 12:23

The Future Site of the Temple

28 When David saw that the Lord had answered him at the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, he offered sacrifices there.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 3:1; Genesis 22:14; 1 Kings 9:3

29 At that time, the Tabernacle of the Lord, which Moses had built in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt offering were at the high place in Gibeon.

Cross References: 1 Kings 3:4; 2 Chronicles 1:3; Exodus 40:34

30 But David could not go there to ask the Lord for guidance, because he was afraid of the sword of the angel of the Lord.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 22:1; Genesis 22:2; Exodus 3:6

Key Lessons from 1 Chronicles Chapter 21

1. Even the Great Can Stumble David, a man after God's own heart, was provoked and made a prideful decision—counting the people out of insecurity or vanity. Even spiritual leaders are not immune to temptation. 2. True Repentance Takes Responsibility David didn't shift blame. He acknowledged his sin, confessed it, and sought mercy—not just for himself, but for the people under his care. 3. God's Mercy Triumphs Over Judgment Though judgment came, God's mercy was visible. He stopped the angel and accepted David's sacrifice, showing that even in wrath, He remembers mercy (Habakkuk 3:2). 4. Worship Must Cost Something David refused to offer God something that cost him nothing. True worship involves sacrifice—of pride, resources, and sometimes comfort. 5. God Turns Judgment into Redemption The very place of punishment became the place of worship and blessing. That threshing floor would eventually become the site of Solomon's Temple—a holy place born out of repentance.

1 Chronicles Chapter 22 — Crawford Standard Bible

David Declares the Temple Site

1 Then David said, "This is the site for the house of the Lord God, and this is the altar for Israel's burnt offerings."

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 3:1; 1 Chronicles 21:26; Genesis 22:2

David Prepares for the Temple Construction

2 David ordered all the foreigners living in Israel to be gathered together. He assigned stonecutters to shape large blocks of stone to build the Temple of God.

Cross References: 1 Kings 5:17; 2 Chronicles 2:2; Joshua 9:27

3 He also prepared an abundance of iron for nails and fittings for the gates and doors, and an immeasurable amount of bronze.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 29:2; 1 Kings 7:47; Exodus 25:3

4 He gathered a great supply of cedar logs as well, for the people of Sidon and Tyre had brought many cedar logs to David.

Cross References: 1 Kings 5:6; 2 Chronicles 2:16; Ezra 3:7

5 David said, “My son Solomon is young and inexperienced, and the Temple to be built for the Lord must be magnificent—famous and glorious in every land. So I will begin making preparations for it.” So David prepared materials in large quantities before his death.

Cross References: 1 Kings 3:7; 1 Chronicles 29:1; 2 Chronicles 2:5

David Charges Solomon to Build the Temple

6 Then he called for his son Solomon and gave him the assignment to build a house for the Lord, the God of Israel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 2:1; 1 Chronicles 28:6; Deuteronomy 31:7

7 David said to Solomon, “My son, I wanted to build a Temple to honor the name of the Lord my God.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 17:1; 2 Samuel 7:2; 1 Kings 8:17

8 But the word of the Lord came to me: ‘You have shed much blood and fought many wars. You are not to build a house for My name, because you have spilled so much blood on the earth in My sight.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 28:3; 1 Kings 5:3; 2 Samuel 7:5

9 But you will have a son who will be a man of peace. I will give him peace with his enemies on every side. His name will be Solomon, and during his reign I will grant peace and quiet to Israel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 4:25; Isaiah 9:6; 1 Chronicles 28:6

10 He is the one who will build a house to honor My name. He will be My son, and I will be his Father. And I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever.’

Cross References: 2 Samuel 7:13; Hebrews 1:5; Psalm 89:26

11 Now, my son, may the Lord be with you and give you success as you build the house of the Lord your God, just as He promised.

Cross References: Joshua 1:5; 1 Kings 8:20; 1 Chronicles 28:20 12 May the Lord give you wisdom and understanding as He puts you in charge of Israel so you may keep the Law of the Lord your God.

Cross References: 1 Kings 3:9; 1 Kings 3:12; Proverbs 2:6

13 Then you will succeed if you carefully obey the decrees and regulations the Lord gave to Moses for Israel. Be strong and courageous. Don’t be afraid or discouraged.

Resources and Workers Provided for Solomon

14 “Now look, with great effort I have provided for the construction of the Lord’s Temple: 100,000 talents of gold, 1,000,000 talents of silver, and so much bronze and iron that it cannot even be weighed. I have also gathered wood and stone, and you may add to them.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 29:4; 1 Chronicles 29:7; 1 Kings 10:14

15 You have a large number of skilled craftsmen—stonecutters, masons, carpenters, and people skilled in every kind of work.

Cross References: Exodus 31:3; 2 Chronicles 2:7; 1 Chronicles 28:21

16 The gold, silver, bronze, and iron are beyond measure. So get to work, and may the Lord be with you!”

David Commands the Leaders to Support Solomon

17 Then David ordered all the leaders of Israel to support his son Solomon.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 29:6; 2 Chronicles 1:2; 1 Chronicles 28:1

18 He said, “Isn’t the Lord your God with you? Hasn’t He given you peace on every side? He has handed over the people of the land to me, and the land is now subject to the Lord and His people.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 12:10; Joshua 21:44; 1 Kings 5:4

19 So now, devote your heart and soul to seek the Lord your God. Start building the sanctuary of the Lord God so that the Ark of the Covenant and the holy items of God may be brought into the Temple built to honor the Lord’s name.”

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 28:9; 2 Chronicles 5:7; Deuteronomy 4:29

Key Lessons from 1 Chronicles Chapter 22

1. Preparation Is a Form of Worship David couldn’t build the Temple himself, but he did all he could to prepare the way for Solomon. Even when we can’t fulfill a task directly, we can still honor God by preparing others to succeed. 2. God’s Call Is Specific and Sovereign Though David desired to build the Temple, God made it clear that it would be Solomon’s task. God chooses the right person for the right season—David was the warrior, Solomon would be the builder. 3. Leadership Means Empowering the Next Generation David not only passed the torch to Solomon but also rallied the nation’s leaders to support him. Wise leaders prepare successors and build support around them. 4. Success Depends on Obedience David’s charge to Solomon was centered on obedience to God’s Word. Strength, courage, and wisdom are only effective when grounded in faithfulness to God. 5. Every Heart Should Seek to Build God’s House David urged everyone to set their heart on seeking God and building His house. Our lives today should be centered around God’s presence, purpose, and praise.

1 Chronicles Chapter 23 — Crawford Standard Bible

David Appoints Solomon as King

1 When David was old and full of years, he made his son Solomon king over Israel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 1:1; 1 Chronicles 29:28; 1 Kings 1:35

2 He gathered together all the leaders of Israel, along with the priests and the Levites.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 28:1; 1 Chronicles 22:17; Deuteronomy 31:28

Levites Counted and Assigned Duties

3 The Levites were registered—every man thirty years old and older—and the total number of men was 38,000.

Cross References: Numbers 4:3; Numbers 4:47; 2 Chronicles 31:17

4 From this number, David assigned 24,000 to oversee the work on the Temple of the Lord, 6,000 to serve as officials and judges,

Cross References: Deuteronomy 16:18; 2 Chronicles 19:8; 1 Chronicles 26:29

5 4,000 as gatekeepers, and another 4,000 to praise the Lord with musical instruments that David had made for this purpose.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 25:1; 1 Chronicles 15:16; Psalm 150:3

6 Then David divided them into groups based on the three sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

Cross References: Numbers 3:17; Exodus 6:16; Numbers 26:57

The Descendants of Gershon

7 The sons of Gershon were Laadan and Shimei.

Cross References: Numbers 3:18; 1 Chronicles 6:17; 1 Chronicles 26:21

8 Laadan's sons were Jehiel (the chief), Zetham, and Joel—three in all.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 26:21; 1 Chronicles 29:8; Numbers 3:21

9 Shimei's sons were Shelomith, Haziël, and Haran—also three. These were the leaders of Laadan's families.

Cross References: Numbers 3:18; 1 Chronicles 6:20; Genesis 46:11

10 The sons of Shimei were Jahath, Zina, Jeush, and Beriah—four in total.

Cross References: Genesis 46:11; Numbers 3:21; Exodus 6:17

11 Jahath was the first, and Zizah was second. But Jeush and Beriah didn't have many sons, so they were counted as one family.

Cross References: Numbers 3:24; Numbers 26:5; 1 Chronicles 24:4

The Descendants of Kohath

12 The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel—four in all.

Cross References: Exodus 6:18; Numbers 3:19; Numbers 26:58

13 The sons of Amram were Aaron and Moses. Aaron and his descendants were set apart to dedicate the most holy things, to offer incense before the Lord, to serve Him, and to bless in His name forever.

Cross References: Exodus 28:1; Numbers 3:10; Hebrews 5:4

14 The sons of Moses, the man of God, were counted as part of the tribe of Levi.

Cross References: Exodus 2:22; Deuteronomy 33:1; Judges 18:30

15 Moses had two sons: Gershom and Eliezer.

Cross References: Exodus 18:3; Exodus 2:22; 1 Chronicles 26:24

16 The chief son of Gershom was Shebuel.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 26:24; Exodus 2:22; 1 Chronicles 24:20 17 Eliezer's only son was Rehabiah, and Rehabiah's descendants were many.

Cross References: Exodus 18:4; 1 Chronicles 26:25; 1 Chronicles 4:27

Other Kohathite Families

18 The chief of Izhar's descendants was Shelomith.

Cross References: Exodus 6:21; Numbers 16:1; 1 Chronicles 6:38

19 The sons of Hebron were Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.

Cross References: Exodus 6:18; Numbers 3:19; 1 Chronicles 24:23

20 The sons of Uzziel were Micah the first and Jesiah the second.

Cross References: Exodus 6:18; Leviticus 10:4; 1 Chronicles 24:24

The Descendants of Merari

21 The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. Mahli's sons were Eleazar and Kish.

Cross References: Numbers 3:20; Exodus 6:19; Numbers 26:58

22 Eleazar died without having sons—only daughters. Their cousins, the sons of Kish, married them.

Cross References: Numbers 27:1; Numbers 36:8; 1 Chronicles 24:28

23 Mushi's sons were Mahli, Eder, and Jeremoth—three in total.

Cross References: Numbers 3:20; 1 Chronicles 24:30; Exodus 6:19

Levites Assigned to Temple Duties

24 These were the descendants of Levi listed by their family heads. All were counted by name and assigned duties for service in the house of the Lord. This count included those twenty years old and older.

Cross References: Numbers 4:3; 2 Chronicles 31:17; Ezra 3:8

25 David said, “The Lord God of Israel has given His people peace so they can live in Jerusalem forever,

Cross References: Deuteronomy 12:10; 2 Samuel 7:1; Psalm 132:14

26 and the Levites will no longer need to carry the Tabernacle and its furnishings.”

Cross References: Numbers 4:15; Numbers 7:9; 1 Chronicles 15:2

27 So according to David’s final instructions, the Levites were registered starting from twenty years old and up.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 31:17; Numbers 8:24; Ezra 3:8

28 Their duty was to assist the descendants of Aaron with the service of the Lord’s Temple—in the courtyards, the rooms, and in the purification of all sacred items and other duties required in the Temple.

Cross References: Numbers 3:6; Numbers 18:2; Ezekiel 44:11

29 They were responsible for the sacred bread, the fine flour for grain offerings, the unleavened wafers, what was baked on griddles, what was fried, and all measurements and quantities.

Cross References: Leviticus 24:5; Leviticus 2:1; 1 Chronicles 9:32

30 Each morning and evening they were to stand and give thanks and praise to the Lord.

Cross References: Psalm 92:2; Exodus 29:38; 1 Chronicles 16:37

31 They also presented burnt offerings to the Lord on the Sabbaths, at the new moon festivals, and on appointed feast days, as prescribed and continually performed before the Lord.

Cross References: Numbers 28:9; Numbers 28:11; Leviticus 23:4

32 In this way they carried out their duties for the Tent of Meeting and the Holy Place, and helped their fellow Levites, the descendants of Aaron, in serving at the house of the Lord.

Cross References: Numbers 1:53; Numbers 18:5; Numbers 3:8

Key Lessons from 1 Chronicles Chapter 23

1. God Uses Every Generation Though David was old, he continued to lead by preparing the next generation—Solomon and the Levites—to serve in God's house. Age doesn't disqualify us from impacting the future. 2. Organized Service Reflects God's Order David assigned duties to thousands of Levites with specific roles. Worship, administration, and service in God's house require structure, accountability, and excellence. 3. Praising God Is a Sacred Duty The Levites weren't just workers—they were worshipers. 4,000 were assigned to praise the Lord daily with instruments. Worship should be central to our lives and ministries. 4. Generational Legacy Matters Even descendants of Moses were carefully counted and honored. Our service and legacy can extend well beyond our own lifetime when we live faithfully before God. 5. Every Role in God's House Has Value Whether preparing food, guarding gates, or leading worship, each Levite had a specific and sacred duty. In the body of Christ, every part matters and contributes to His glory.

The Divisions of the Priests

1 These are the divisions of the sons of Aaron: Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

Cross References: Exodus 6:23; Numbers 3:2; Leviticus 10:1

2 But Nadab and Abihu died before their father and had no children, so only Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests.

Cross References: Leviticus 10:2; Numbers 3:4; Numbers 26:61

3 David, with the help of Zadok from the descendants of Eleazar and Ahimelech from the descendants of Ithamar, organized them according to their assigned duties in the Temple.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 8:17; 1 Samuel 22:20; 1 Chronicles 18:16

Dividing the Priestly Families by Lot

4 More leaders were found among the descendants of Eleazar than among those of Ithamar, so they were divided accordingly. Sixteen family leaders came from the line of Eleazar and eight from Ithamar.

Cross References: Numbers 3:32; Ezra 8:2; Numbers 26:60

5 They were assigned duties by casting lots, all considered equal, because both Eleazar's and Ithamar's descendants were officers over the sanctuary and officers of God.

Cross References: Joshua 18:6; Proverbs 16:33; 1 Chronicles 25:8

6 Shemaiah son of Nethanel, a Levite and scribe, recorded their names in front of King David, the leaders, Zadok the priest, Ahimelech son of Abiathar, and the family leaders of the priests and the Levites. One family was chosen from Eleazar, then one from Ithamar, in alternating order.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 34:13; Nehemiah 12:23; Ezra 7:6

The 24 Priestly Divisions

7 The first lot fell to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah,

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 9:10; Nehemiah 11:10; Nehemiah 12:6

8 the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim,

Cross References: Ezra 2:39; Nehemiah 10:5; Nehemiah 12:15

9 the fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin,

12 the eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim,

Cross References: Nehemiah 3:1; Nehemiah 12:10; Nehemiah 13:4

13 the thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab,

Cross References: Exodus 40:15; Numbers 25:13; Leviticus 8:33

14 the fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer,

Cross References: Nehemiah 12:5; Jeremiah 20:1; Ezra 2:37

15 the seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Happizzetz,

Cross References: Nehemiah 10:20; Exodus 29:9; Numbers 18:7

16 the nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezkel,

Cross References: Ezra 10:23; Nehemiah 9:5; Ezekiel 1:3

17 the twenty-first to Jachin, the twenty-second to Gamul,

Cross References: Nehemiah 11:10; Numbers 3:3; Exodus 28:1

18 the twenty-third to Delaiah, and the twenty-fourth to Maaziah.

Cross References: Nehemiah 10:8; Ezra 2:60; Nehemiah 7:62

Their Temple Duties

19 These were the schedules of the priestly families, assigned to enter the Temple of the Lord according to the regulations given to them by Aaron their ancestor, as the Lord God of Israel had commanded.

Cross References: Numbers 3:10; Leviticus 8:35; Exodus 29:9

More Levite Assignments

20 These were the other descendants of Levi: From the descendants of Amram: Shubael, and from Shubael, Jehdeiah.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 23:16; 1 Chronicles 26:24; Exodus 6:18

21 From Rehabiah: the first was Isshiah.

26 From Merari: Mahli and Mushi; and from Jaaziah: Beno.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 23:21; Numbers 3:20; Numbers 26:58

27 The sons of Merari through Jaaziah were Beno, Shoham, Zaccur, and Ibri.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 23:21; 1 Chronicles 6:44; Numbers 3:20

28 Mahli's descendant was Eleazar, who had no sons.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 23:22; Numbers 27:1; Numbers 36:8

29 Kish's descendant was Jerahmeel.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 23:21; 1 Chronicles 2:9; 1 Samuel 27:10

30 The sons of Mushi were Mahli, Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the Levites, listed by their ancestral families.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 23:23; Numbers 3:20; Exodus 6:19

Casting Lots for Levite Duties

31 These Levite families also cast lots, just as their relatives the descendants of Aaron did, in the presence of King David, Zadok, Ahimelech, and the family leaders of the priests and Levites. The families of the oldest sons were treated the same as the youngest.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 24:5; 1 Chronicles 25:8; Proverbs 16:33

Key Lessons from 1 Chronicles Chapter 24

1. God Values Order in Worship David organized the priesthood into 24 divisions to ensure worship and service in the Temple was done decently and in order. Structure enables consistent and faithful service to God. 2. Faithfulness Continues Through Generations Although Nadab and Abihu died without children, the priesthood continued through Eleazar and Ithamar. God's work is not stopped by individual failures—it endures through obedient successors. 3. Leadership Is a Shared Responsibility David involved multiple leaders—priests, scribes, Levites, and princes—in distributing roles. Ministry is best sustained through collaborative leadership. 4. Every Role, Great or Small, Is Recorded Before God Even lesser-known Levites and families were counted and assigned work. God values every person who serves Him, no matter how public or private the role. 5.

No Favoritism in God’s House Lots were cast to assign duties, ensuring fairness. Whether a family was large or small, elder or younger, each had equal access to serve in the presence of God.

Musicians Appointed for Prophetic Worship

1 David and the army commanders set apart the sons of Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun for the ministry of music. These men were to prophesy with lyres, harps, and cymbals. The list of men assigned to this service is as follows:

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 15:16; 1 Chronicles 23:5; 2 Chronicles 5:12

2 From the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and Asarelah. These sons of Asaph served under their father’s direction and prophesied under the authority of the king.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 6:39; 2 Chronicles 29:30; Nehemiah 12:46

3 From the sons of Jeduthun: Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiiah, Hashabiah, Mattithiah, and Shimei—six in all. They served under their father Jeduthun, who prophesied using the harp to thank and praise the Lord.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 16:41; 1 Chronicles 9:16; Psalm 77:1

4 From the sons of Heman: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, Romamtiezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 6:33; 1 Kings 4:31; Psalm 88:1

5 These were all sons of Heman, who was the king’s seer. Heman spoke the words of God and was given the responsibility to sound the trumpet (“lift the horn”). God blessed him with fourteen sons and three daughters.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 2:1; 2 Chronicles 35:15; 1 Samuel 9:9

The Musicians and Their Duties

6 All these men served under the authority of their fathers—Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman—playing cymbals, harps, and lyres in the house of the Lord, following the king’s instructions.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 23:5; 1 Chronicles 6:31; 2 Chronicles 8:14

7 Together with their relatives, all of them trained and skilled in music for the Lord, they numbered 288.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 15:22; Numbers 8:24; 1 Chronicles 23:3

8 Young and old alike, teachers and students, cast lots for their duties—each family group assigned by lot.

32 The twenty-fourth to Romamtiezer—12.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 25:4; 1 Chronicles 6:33; Nehemiah 12:24

Key Lessons from 1 Chronicles Chapter 25

1. Worship Is Prophetic and Powerful Music in God's house was more than entertainment—it was a form of prophecy. These musicians sang and played under the inspiration of the Spirit. 2. Everyone Has a Role, Regardless of Status Young and old, teacher and student, were equally included. God uses the seasoned and the new to glorify Him. 3. God Desires Skillful and Ordered Praise David appointed the most gifted and well-trained to minister in music. Worship should be heartfelt and excellent. 4. Praise Was Central to Israel's Identity With 288 skilled musicians, Israel didn't treat worship as a side ministry—it was central. Praise was organized, prioritized, and prophetic. 5. Family Legacy in Ministry Matters Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun passed on their gifts and calling to their sons and even daughters. God honors generational faithfulness.

Gatekeepers and Their Assignments

1 These are the divisions of the gatekeepers: From the Korahite clan, there was Meshelemiah son of Kore, from the family of Asaph.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 9:19; 1 Chronicles 15:18; Exodus 27:16

2 The sons of Meshelemiah were: Zechariah the firstborn, Jediahel the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth,

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 9:21; 1 Chronicles 15:23; Numbers 3:25

3 Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, and Elieoenai the seventh.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 9:17; Numbers 4:27; 1 Chronicles 16:38

4 The sons of Obed-edom were: Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, Sacar the fourth, Nethanel the fifth,

Cross References: 2 Samuel 6:11; 1 Chronicles 13:14; 1 Chronicles 15:18

5 Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, and Peulthai the eighth—for God had blessed Obed-edom.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 6:11; Psalm 127:3; Genesis 30:27

6 His son Shemaiah also had sons who were leaders in their family because they were strong and capable men.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 12:8; 1 Chronicles 7:40; 1 Chronicles 26:12

7 The sons of Shemaiah were: Othni, Rephael, Obed, and Elzabad. His relatives Elihu and Semachiah were also strong and able men.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 11:26; 1 Chronicles 12:25; 1 Chronicles 26:9

8 All these were descendants of Obed-edom—they and their sons and relatives were strong men, capable for the work—62 in total.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 26:4; 2 Samuel 6:11; Psalm 128:3

9 Meshelemiah had 18 strong sons and relatives.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 26:1; 1 Chronicles 9:22; 1 Chronicles 12:33

10 Another gatekeeper was Hosah, from the Merari clan. He had sons: though Simri was not the firstborn, his father made him the chief.

Cross References: Genesis 48:14; 1 Chronicles 5:1; Numbers 3:20 11 The other sons of Hosah were Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, and Zechariah the fourth. In total, Hosah had thirteen sons and relatives.

Cross References: Numbers 3:33; 1 Chronicles 6:44; 1 Chronicles 23:21

Gate Assignments by Lot

12 These gatekeepers were organized into divisions, just like the leaders, to serve in the house of the Lord.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 23:6; 1 Chronicles 24:1; 2 Chronicles 23:4

13 Lots were cast for each gate, by family, whether large or small.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 25:8; Proverbs 16:33; Joshua 18:10 14 The lot for the East Gate fell to Shelemiah. Then for his wise son Zechariah, they cast lots, and the North Gate was assigned to him.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 26:1; 1 Chronicles 9:21; Proverbs 11:14

15 The South Gate went to Obed-edom, and his sons were given responsibility for the storerooms.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 26:4; 1 Chronicles 26:17; Nehemiah 12:25

16 Shuppim and Hosah were assigned the West Gate and the Shallecheth Gate on the upper road. Guards were placed opposite one another.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 26:10; 2 Kings 23:11; Nehemiah 12:25

17 Each day there were six guards at the East Gate, four at the North Gate, four at the South Gate, and two each for the storerooms.

Cross References: Numbers 3:38; Ezekiel 48:31; Revelation 21:13

18 At the Western complex (Parbar), there were four guards at the road and two at Parbar itself.

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:11; 1 Chronicles 26:16; Ezekiel 42:1

19 These were the gatekeeping divisions from the families of the Korahites and the Merarites.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 9:19; Numbers 26:58; 1 Chronicles 26:1

Temple Treasuries and Officials

20 Of the Levites: Ahijah was in charge of the treasuries of the house of God and the dedicated gifts.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 28:12; 1 Kings 7:51; 2 Kings 12:18

21 The sons of Laadan (from the Gershonite clan of Laadan) included the family leaders Jehieli,

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 23:7; Numbers 3:21; Exodus 6:17

22 and his sons Zetham and Joel. They were responsible for the treasuries of the house of the Lord.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 23:8; 1 Chronicles 29:8; 1 Kings 7:51

23 Other clans included the descendants of Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

Cross References: Exodus 6:18; Numbers 3:27; 1 Chronicles 23:12

24 Shebuel, a descendant of Moses' son Gershom, was the chief officer over the treasuries.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 23:16; Exodus 2:22; 1 Chronicles 26:20 25 His relatives through Eliezer were: Rehabiah his son, Jeshaiiah, Joram, Zichri, and Shelomith.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 23:17; Exodus 18:4; 1 Chronicles 26:26

26 This Shelomith and his relatives were in charge of all the dedicated gifts made by King David, the family leaders, commanders of thousands and hundreds, and other army leaders.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 8:11; 1 Chronicles 18:11; 1 Chronicles 26:20

27 They had dedicated part of the war plunder to maintain the house of the Lord.

Cross References: Numbers 31:50; 2 Samuel 8:11; Joshua 6:19

28 Everything dedicated by Samuel the seer, Saul son of Kish, Abner son of Ner, Joab son of Zeruiah, and others was under the authority of Shelomith and his relatives.

Judges and Regional Leaders

29 From the Izharites: Chenaniah and his sons were assigned to external duties for Israel—as officials and judges.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 15:22; Deuteronomy 16:18; 2 Chronicles 19:8

30 From the Hebronites: Hashabiah and 1,700 capable men were officials responsible for Israel west of the Jordan—for both the Lord’s work and the king’s affairs.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 27:17; Deuteronomy 16:18; Joshua 22:13

31 Among the Hebronites was Jeriah, the leader of his family. In the fortieth year of David’s reign, a genealogical search was conducted, and they found strong and capable men at Jazer in Gilead.

Cross References: Numbers 26:58; Joshua 21:11; 1 Chronicles 6:57

32 Jeriah’s relatives numbered 2,700 capable family leaders. King David appointed them as officials over the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, handling all matters related to God and the king.

Cross References: Numbers 32:1; Joshua 22:9; 1 Chronicles 5:18

Key Lessons from 1 Chronicles Chapter 26

1. Faithful Service Includes Guarding the House of God Gatekeepers weren’t just guards—they had spiritual significance. God honors those who protect sacred spaces. 2. Every Role Matters in God’s House Whether guarding a gate, managing treasuries, or handling civic affairs, each task was essential to the functioning of God’s work. 3. Legacy and Strength in Families Obed-edom and his descendants were known for strength and faithfulness. God’s blessings can ripple across generations. 4. Accountability and Stewardship Men like Shelomith were trusted with resources dedicated to the Lord. God expects those in leadership to manage resources with integrity. 5. Civic and Spiritual Leadership Go Together The Levites not only served in the temple—they also served as judges and administrators for the people. God’s kingdom covers both worship and justice.

David's Census and Its Limits

23 David did not count those under twenty years old, because the Lord had promised to increase Israel like the stars in the sky.

Cross References: Genesis 15:5; Genesis 22:17; Deuteronomy 1:10

24 Joab son of Zeruiah began the census but didn't finish it, because God's anger fell on Israel for it. As a result, the final count was never recorded in King David's official chronicles.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 21:1; 2 Samuel 24:1; 1 Chronicles 21:7

Officials Over the King's Possessions

25 Azmaveth son of Adiel was in charge of the king's treasuries. Jehonathan son of Uzziah was over the storehouses in the countryside, in cities, villages, and fortresses.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 12:3; 2 Chronicles 26:10; 1 Chronicles 26:20

26 Ezri son of Chelub managed the field workers who farmed the land.

29 Shitrai the Sharonite was over the cattle in the region of Sharon. Shaphat son of Adlai managed cattle in the valleys.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 5:16; Isaiah 65:10; 1 Kings 19:19

30 Obil the Ishmaelite was in charge of the camels. Jehdeiah the Meronothite managed the donkeys.

Cross References: Genesis 37:25; 1 Chronicles 12:40; Judges 5:10

31 Jaziz the Hagrite was over the flocks. All these officials were responsible for managing King David's property.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 5:10; Genesis 13:2; 1 Samuel 25:2

Royal Advisors and Counselors

32 Jonathan, David's uncle, was a wise counselor and scribe. Jehiel son of Hachmoni was responsible for educating the king's sons.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 21:21; 1 Chronicles 2:13; 1 Kings 4:3

33 Ahithophel was the king's chief counselor. Hushai the Archite was the king's companion.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 15:12; 2 Samuel 16:16; 2 Samuel 17:14

34 After Ahithophel came Jehoiada son of Benaiah, and also Abiathar. Joab was the commander of the king's army.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 8:16; 1 Kings 1:7; 1 Kings 2:35

Key Lessons from 1 Chronicles Chapter 27

1. God is a God of Order David's military and administrative structures reflect the importance of organization and planning in God's kingdom. 2. Every Role Has Value From commanders of armies to keepers of vineyards and flocks, every position had its place in serving the nation and the king. 3. God's Promises Surpass Human Calculation David refrained from counting those under 20 because he trusted God's promise to multiply Israel "like the stars." 4. Be Careful with Ambition and Pride The unfinished census reminds us that when leaders act in pride or outside of God's instruction, consequences follow. 5. Surround Yourself with the Wise David benefited from counselors like Jonathan, Ahithophel, and Hushai. Godly leaders seek wisdom from others.

1 Chronicles Chapter 28 — Crawford Standard Bible

David Assembles Israel's Leaders

1 David summoned all the officials of Israel to Jerusalem—the tribal leaders, the commanders of the divisions that served the king, the commanders over thousands and hundreds, the stewards of the king's and his sons' property, the officers, the mighty warriors, and all the brave fighting men.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 23:2; 2 Chronicles 1:2; Exodus 24:1

2 Then King David stood to his feet and said, "My brothers and my people, listen to me. I had it in my heart to build a house of rest for the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord and for the footstool of our God. I had made preparations to build it.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 7:2; 1 Chronicles 22:7; Psalm 132:5

3 But God said to me, 'You must not build a house for My name, because you are a man of war and have shed much blood.'

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 22:8; 2 Samuel 7:5; 1 Kings 5:3

God Chooses Solomon

4 "Yet the Lord God of Israel chose me from my whole family to be king over Israel forever. He chose the tribe of Judah to rule, and from the house of Judah, He chose my father's family. From among my father's sons, it pleased Him to make me king over all Israel.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 16:12; Genesis 49:10; Psalm 78:70

5 And out of all my sons—for the Lord has given me many—He chose Solomon to sit on the throne of the kingdom of the Lord over Israel.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 12:24; 1 Kings 1:30; 1 Chronicles 22:9

6 He said to me, 'Your son Solomon will build My house and My courts, for I have chosen him to be My son, and I will be his Father.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 7:13; 1 Chronicles 22:10; Hebrews 1:5

7 I will establish his kingdom forever if he remains faithful to obey My commands and laws, as he is doing now.’

Cross References: 1 Kings 9:4; 2 Samuel 7:12; 1 Chronicles 22:13

A Charge to Israel and Solomon

8 “So now, in the presence of all Israel, the assembly of the Lord, and with God listening, I charge you: carefully obey all the commands of the Lord your God. Then you will continue to possess this good land and pass it on to your descendants forever.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 4:1; Joshua 1:8; Deuteronomy 29:29

9 And you, my son Solomon, get to know the God of your father. Serve Him with a whole heart and a willing mind. For the Lord searches every heart and understands every motive behind our thoughts. If you seek Him, you will find Him; but if you abandon Him, He will reject you forever.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:61; Jeremiah 17:10; 1 Samuel 16:7

10 So take this seriously. The Lord has chosen you to build a house for His sanctuary. Be strong and do it.”

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 22:16; Joshua 1:9; Haggai 2:4

David Gives Solomon the Temple Plans

11 Then David gave Solomon the plans for the temple’s porch, buildings, storerooms, upper rooms, inner rooms, and the Most Holy Place—

Cross References: Exodus 25:9; Exodus 25:40; Hebrews 8:5

12 as well as the plans for all he had received by the Spirit concerning the courtyards, the surrounding rooms, the treasuries of God’s house, and the treasuries for the sacred things.

Cross References: Exodus 31:2; 1 Kings 6:2; Ezekiel 43:10

13 He also gave him instructions for the divisions of the priests and Levites, and for all the work related to the temple of the Lord, and for all the items to be used in worship.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 24:1; 1 Chronicles 23:6; Numbers 4:15

14 He specified the weight of gold for each item used in service and the weight of silver for all the silver items used in service.

Cross References: Exodus 25:39; 1 Kings 7:47; 1 Chronicles 22:14

15 This included the weight of gold for the gold lampstands and their lamps, and the weight of silver for the silver lampstands and their lamps, according to the use of each lampstand.

Cross References: Exodus 25:31; 1 Kings 7:49; Zechariah 4:2

16 He gave instructions for the weight of gold for each table used for the Bread of the Presence, and for the silver tables.

Cross References: Exodus 25:23; 1 Kings 7:48; Leviticus 24:5

17 He specified the weight of pure gold for the meat hooks, bowls, and cups, and the weight of gold for each gold basin, and silver for each silver basin.

Cross References: Exodus 25:29; Numbers 7:13; 1 Kings 7:50

18 He also gave the weight of refined gold for the altar of incense and for the gold chariot—that is, the cherubim that spread their wings and overshadowed the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord.

Cross References: Exodus 30:1; Exodus 25:18; Ezekiel 1:15

19 David said, “All of this was made clear to me in writing from the hand of the Lord. He enabled me to understand all the details of the plan.”

Cross References: Exodus 24:12; Exodus 31:18; Jeremiah 31:33

David’s Final Encouragement

20 Then David said to his son Solomon, “Be strong and courageous, and do the work. Do not be afraid or discouraged, for the Lord God, my God, is with you. He will not fail you or abandon you until all the work for the service of the house of the Lord is finished.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 31:6; Joshua 1:9; Hebrews 13:5

21 The divisions of the priests and Levites are ready to help you with all the work on God’s house. Every skilled worker will help you in every kind of task. The officials and all the people will fully support you.”

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 29:5; Exodus 35:25; 1 Chronicles 24:1

Key Lessons from 1 Chronicles Chapter 28

1. God Chooses According to His Purpose David wanted to build the temple, but God chose Solomon instead. God’s plans are not always the same as ours—but His purposes are perfect. 2. Obedience Secures God’s Promises Solomon’s future success depended on obeying God’s commands. God’s blessings often flow through faithful obedience. 3. Worship Requires Preparation David didn’t just have a vision—he made preparations. He gathered materials, organized people, and passed on clear instructions. True worship involves intention and diligence. 4. God Searches the Heart David’s words to Solomon highlight an eternal truth: God knows our hearts and thoughts. Sincere worship and service must come from a willing and devoted heart. 5. God Equips Those He Calls David reminded Solomon that God would not abandon him. When God assigns a task, He also provides the strength, people, and skill to complete it.

1 Chronicles Chapter 29 — Crawford Standard Bible

David’s Personal Offering and Call to Give

1 Then King David said to the entire assembly, “My son Solomon—the one whom God has chosen—is still young and inexperienced. The task is great, because this structure is not for a man, but for the Lord God Himself.

Cross References: 1 Kings 3:7; 1 Chronicles 22:5; 1 Chronicles 22:9

2 So I have done my best to provide for the house of my God: gold for the gold items, silver for the silver, bronze for the bronze, iron for the iron, and wood for the wood, along with onyx stones, inlaid stones of various colors, all kinds of precious stones, and large quantities of marble.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 22:14; Exodus 25:3; 1 Chronicles 22:2

3 And because of my devotion to the temple of my God, I am giving from my own private treasury of gold and silver in addition to everything I've already provided for the holy house.

Cross References: Psalm 26:8; Psalm 122:1; 2 Corinthians 9:7

4 This includes 3,000 talents of gold from Ophir and 7,000 talents of refined silver to overlay the walls of the buildings.

Cross References: 1 Kings 9:28; Job 22:24; 2 Chronicles 8:18

5 I am donating gold for gold things, and silver for silver items, and for every kind of work done by craftsmen. Now, who else is willing to consecrate themselves to the Lord today?"

Cross References: Exodus 35:29; 1 Chronicles 28:21; 2 Corinthians 8:12

The People Respond Generously

6 Then the family leaders, the tribal leaders of Israel, the commanders of thousands and hundreds, and the officials in charge of the king's work gave willingly.

Cross References: Exodus 35:27; Nehemiah 11:2; 1 Chronicles 29:9

7 They donated 5,000 talents and 10,000 darics of gold, 10,000 talents of silver, 18,000 talents of bronze, and 100,000 talents of iron.

Cross References: Ezra 2:69; Exodus 38:24; Haggai 2:8

8 Those who had precious stones gave them to the treasury of the house of the Lord, under the care of Jehiel the Gershonite.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 26:21; Exodus 25:7; 1 Chronicles 26:20 9 The people rejoiced at the willing response of their leaders, for they had given freely and wholeheartedly to the Lord. King David also rejoiced greatly.

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 9:7; Exodus 35:29; Nehemiah 12:43

David Praises the Lord

10 Then David praised the Lord in front of the entire assembly. He said: "Blessed are You, Lord, the God of Israel, our Father, forever and ever.

Cross References: Psalm 41:13; Psalm 72:18; 1 Kings 8:15

11 Yours, O Lord, is the greatness, the power, the glory, the victory, and the majesty. Everything in the heavens and on earth belongs to You. Yours is the kingdom, O Lord, and You are exalted as head over all.

Cross References: Matthew 6:13; Revelation 5:13; Psalm 145:11

12 Riches and honor come from You alone, and You rule over everything. Power and might are in Your hand, and it is by Your hand that people are made great and receive strength.

Cross References: Proverbs 8:18; 1 Samuel 2:7; Psalm 62:11

13 Now, our God, we thank You and praise Your glorious name.

David Acknowledges God's Provision

14 “But who am I, and who are my people, that we should be able to give this generously? Everything we have has come from You, and we have given You only what comes from Your hand.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 7:18; 1 Chronicles 17:16; Psalm 24:1

15 We are foreigners and strangers in Your sight, as were all our ancestors. Our days on earth are like a passing shadow, without hope of permanence.

Cross References: Psalm 39:12; Psalm 90:4; Hebrews 11:13

16 O Lord our God, all this abundance that we have provided for building You a temple for Your holy name comes from Your hand—it all belongs to You!

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 29:14; Haggai 2:8; Psalm 24:1

17 I know, my God, that You examine the heart and delight in integrity. With an upright heart I have willingly given all these things. And now I've seen with joy how Your people who are gathered here have also given to You freely.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 28:9; Jeremiah 17:10; 1 Samuel 16:7

18 O Lord, the God of our ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, keep this desire and thought in the hearts of Your people forever, and keep their hearts loyal to You.

Cross References: Exodus 3:15; Genesis 17:7; Psalm 51:10

19 And give my son Solomon a wholehearted devotion to obey Your commands, laws, and decrees, and to carry out the building of this magnificent structure I've made preparations for.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 3:9; 1 Kings 8:61; 1 Chronicles 22:11

Solomon Anointed King Again

20 Then David said to the entire assembly, “Now bless the Lord your God.” So all the people praised the Lord, the God of their ancestors, and they bowed low and worshiped the Lord and the king.

Cross References: Nehemiah 8:6; Psalm 95:6; 1 Samuel 24:8

21 The next day they offered sacrifices to the Lord and presented burnt offerings: a thousand bulls, a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs, along with their drink offerings and many other sacrifices for all Israel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:63; 2 Chronicles 7:5; Numbers 28:11

22 They feasted and celebrated joyfully before the Lord that day. And for a second time, they proclaimed Solomon son of David king. They anointed him before the Lord to be the ruler and Zadok to be the priest.

Cross References: 1 Kings 1:39; 1 Kings 1:34; 1 Chronicles 23:1

Solomon's Reign Begins, David's Life Ends

23 Then Solomon sat on the throne of the Lord as king in place of his father David. He prospered, and all Israel obeyed him.

Cross References: 1 Kings 2:12; 1 Chronicles 28:5; 2 Chronicles 1:1

24 All the officials and mighty warriors, as well as all of King David's sons, pledged their loyalty to King Solomon.

Cross References: 1 Kings 1:53; 1 Kings 2:13; 1 Chronicles 22:17

25 The Lord greatly exalted Solomon in the sight of all Israel and gave him royal splendor unlike any king before him in Israel.

Final Records of David's Life

29 The events of King David's reign, from beginning to end, are recorded in the writings of Samuel the seer, Nathan the prophet, and Gad the seer.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 9:9; 2 Samuel 24:11; 2 Samuel 7:2

30 These include everything about his reign, his power, and all the circumstances that surrounded him, Israel, and the kingdoms of the surrounding nations.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 29:29; 2 Samuel 8:15; 1 Kings 4:21

Key Lessons from 1 Chronicles Chapter 29

1. Generosity Flows from Devotion David's and the people's offerings came from hearts full of love for God. True generosity is a spiritual act of worship. 2. Everything Belongs to God David humbly recognized that all their wealth and possessions came from God. Giving to God is simply returning what is already His. 3. Praise and Worship Are Central David led the people not only in giving but in worshiping and thanking God together. Praise was foundational to their dedication. 4.

God Examines the Heart It's not just the gift, but the heart behind the gift that God values. David's upright heart pleased the Lord. 5. Leadership Transition Requires God's Help David prayed for Solomon to be loyal and obedient. Leaders need more than wisdom—they need wholehearted devotion to God.

redaction was likely completed during or after the Babylonian exile, drawing from royal annals, prophetic writings, and other historical records.

Historical Setting

Second Chronicles picks up the historical narrative where 1 Chronicles concludes, beginning with the reign of King Solomon (circa 970 B.C.) and his construction of the temple in Jerusalem. It spans a period of approximately 425 years, chronicling the reigns of the kings of Judah from the division of the kingdom to the decree of Cyrus the Great, which allowed the exiled Jews to return to Jerusalem (circa 538 B.C.). The book focuses exclusively on the kings of the Davidic line, tracing the covenant God made with David.

Purpose and Themes

The primary purpose of 2 Chronicles is to provide a theological history of the southern kingdom of Judah for the post-exilic community. It emphasizes the importance of faithful worship at the temple in Jerusalem and the consequences of disobedience to God's law. The author seeks to encourage the returning exiles by reminding them of their rich heritage, the covenant promises God made to David, and the hope of restoration that comes from repentance and obedience.

Key Themes:

- The Centrality of the Temple and Proper Worship
- The Davidic Covenant and God's Faithfulness to His Promises
- The Consequences of Obedience and Disobedience
- The Importance of Righteous Kingship
- The Role of Repentance and Revival in the Life of God's People
- God's Sovereignty and His Use of Foreign Nations for Judgment

Structure of the Book

- Chapters 1–9: The Reign of Solomon
 - Solomon's wisdom and wealth
 - The building and dedication of the temple
 - Solomon's prayer and God's covenant with him
 - The Queen of Sheba and Solomon's glory
- Chapters 10–36: The Kings of Judah
 - The division of the kingdom under Rehoboam
 - A series of kings, both good and evil
 - Emphasis on the reforming kings (e.g., Asa, Jehoshaphat, Joash, Hezekiah, Josiah)

Introduction to the Book of 2 Chronicles

The Rise and Fall of God's Chosen Dynasty

Title and Authorship

The book is titled “Chronicles,” a word derived from the Latin chronicon, meaning “annals” or “a record of events in the order of time.” While the books of 1 and 2 Chronicles were originally a single work, they were later divided into two parts in the Septuagint and subsequent translations. Second Chronicles focuses on the history of the southern kingdom of Judah, from the reign of Solomon to the Babylonian exile. Jewish tradition attributes the authorship to Ezra the scribe, a priest who was instrumental in the post-exilic community’s return to Jerusalem. While this is not certain, the book’s emphasis on the temple, the priesthood, and the restoration of worship aligns well with Ezra’s known priorities. The final redaction was likely completed during or after the Babylonian exile, drawing from royal annals, prophetic writings, and other historical records.

Purpose and Themes

The primary purpose of 2 Chronicles is to provide a theological history of the southern kingdom of Judah for the post-exilic community. It emphasizes the importance of faithful worship at the temple in Jerusalem and the consequences of disobedience to God’s law. The author seeks to encourage the returning exiles by reminding them of their rich heritage, the covenant promises God made to David, and the hope of restoration that comes from repentance and obedience. Key Themes:

- The Centrality of the Temple and Proper Worship
- The Davidic Covenant and God’s Faithfulness to His Promises
- The Consequences of Obedience and Disobedience
- The Importance of Righteous Kingship
- The Role of Repentance and Revival in the Life of God’s People
- God’s Sovereignty and His Use of Foreign Nations for Judgment

Structure of the Book

Chapters 1–9: The Reign of Solomon

- Solomon’s wisdom and wealth

- The building and dedication of the temple
- Solomon's prayer and God's covenant with him
- The Queen of Sheba and Solomon's glory

Chapters 10–36: The Kings of Judah

- The division of the kingdom under Rehoboam
- A series of kings, both good and evil
- Emphasis on the reforming kings (e.g., Asa, Jehoshaphat, Joash, Hezekiah, Josiah)
- The decline and eventual destruction of Jerusalem and the temple
- The Babylonian exile and the promise of return under Cyrus

Spiritual Lessons

- True prosperity and security for a nation depend on its faithfulness to God.
- The temple and corporate worship are vital for the spiritual health of God's people.
- God is a God of both justice and mercy, punishing sin but also offering forgiveness to those who repent.
- Faithful leaders can lead their people to revival and restoration.
- The book demonstrates that God's covenant with David remains intact, providing hope for the future of God's people.

Jesus in 2 Chronicles

The book's unwavering focus on the Davidic dynasty and God's promise to establish a king from this line forever points directly to Jesus Christ. The righteous kings (Hezekiah and Josiah) serve as types of the ultimate King who would perfectly lead His people. The temple, which is central to the book, finds its ultimate fulfillment in Jesus, who declared Himself to be greater than the temple and who, through His body, became the dwelling place of God. The constant cycle of sin, judgment, and repentance highlights the need for a final and perfect sacrifice that would permanently atone for sin, a role fulfilled by Jesus on the cross.

Key Verse

“The Lord will be with you as long as you are with him! If you seek him, you will find him. But if you abandon him, he will abandon you.” —2 Chronicles 15:2

2 Chronicles Chapter 1 — Crawford Standard Bible

Solomon Begins His Reign

1 Solomon, son of David, firmly established his rule over his kingdom, and the Lord his God was with him and made him exceedingly powerful.

Cross References: 1 Kings 2:12; 1 Chronicles 29:25; 1 Kings 1:37

2 Solomon then spoke to all Israel—to the commanders of thousands and hundreds, to the judges, and to all the leaders in Israel, the heads of the families.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:1; Exodus 18:21; Deuteronomy 1:15

3 He and the entire assembly went to the high place at Gibeon, because that's where the tabernacle of meeting with God was located—the one Moses, the Lord's servant, had made in the wilderness.

Cross References: 1 Kings 3:4; Exodus 40:2; 1 Chronicles 16:39

4 But the Ark of God had already been brought by David from Kiriath-jearim to the place he had prepared for it, because he had pitched a special tent for it in Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 6:17; 1 Chronicles 15:1; 1 Chronicles 16:1

5 The bronze altar that Bezalel son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made was still in front of the tabernacle of the Lord. So Solomon and the assembly sought the Lord there.

Cross References: Exodus 38:1; Exodus 31:2; 1 Chronicles 21:29

Solomon's Lavish Offering and Divine Encounter

6 Solomon went up to the bronze altar before the Lord at the tent of meeting and offered a thousand burnt offerings on it.

Cross References: 1 Kings 3:4; 1 Chronicles 29:21; Leviticus 1:3

7 That night, God appeared to Solomon and said, "Ask for whatever you want me to give you."

Cross References: 1 Kings 3:5; 1 Kings 9:2; James 1:5

8 Solomon said to God, "You showed great love and kindness to my father David, and now You have made me king in his place.

Cross References: 1 Kings 3:6; 2 Samuel 7:8; 1 Chronicles 28:5

9 Lord God, let Your promise to David my father come true. For You have made me king over a people as numerous as the dust of the earth.

Cross References: 1 Kings 3:7; 2 Samuel 7:12; 1 Chronicles 17:11

10 So now, please give me wisdom and understanding so I can lead this people properly. For who is able to govern this great people of Yours?"

Cross References: 1 Kings 3:9; James 1:5; 1 Kings 4:29

God Grants Solomon Wisdom—and More

11 God said to Solomon, "Because your heart desired this—and you didn't ask for wealth, riches, honor, the death of your enemies, or even a long life—but instead asked for wisdom and knowledge to lead My people over whom I've made you king,

Cross References: 1 Kings 3:11; Matthew 6:33; 1 Kings 3:10

12 I will give you the wisdom and knowledge you asked for. And I will also give you wealth, riches, and honor—more than any king before or after you will ever have.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 3:12; 1 Kings 10:23; Matthew 6:33

Solomon’s Growing Wealth and Power

13 Then Solomon left the high place at Gibeon, from in front of the tent of meeting, and returned to Jerusalem. And he ruled over Israel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 3:15; 1 Chronicles 16:39; 2 Chronicles 1:3

14 Solomon built up an army of chariots and horsemen. He had 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horsemen. He stationed them in the chariot cities and with himself in Jerusalem.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:26; Deuteronomy 17:16; 2 Chronicles 9:25

15 The king made silver and gold as common in Jerusalem as stones. He made cedar wood as plentiful as sycamore trees in the foothills.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:27; 2 Chronicles 9:27; Job 22:24

16 Solomon’s horses were imported from Egypt and Kue. The king’s merchants purchased them at the prevailing price.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:28; Deuteronomy 17:16; 2 Chronicles 9:28

17 A chariot from Egypt cost six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse cost one hundred and fifty. These were also exported to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Aram through Solomon’s merchants.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:29; Deuteronomy 17:16; 2 Chronicles 9:28

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 1

1. God Honors Humble Requests Solomon could’ve asked for wealth or power but chose wisdom to serve others. God honored that selfless desire. 2. Worship Prepares the Way for Revelation Solomon’s night of divine encounter followed a day of sacrificial worship. Worship opens the door to God’s voice. 3. God Can Do More Than We Ask Solomon asked for wisdom—and God gave him that and more. When our hearts are aligned with God’s will, He blesses abundantly. 4. Wealth and Influence Are Tools, Not Goals Solomon’s riches were a byproduct of his walk with God, not the end goal. Prosperity should serve God’s kingdom. 5. Leadership Requires Dependence on God Solomon acknowledged his need for divine wisdom. True leadership begins with surrender, not self-reliance.

2 Chronicles Chapter 2 — Crawford Standard Bible

Solomon Prepares to Build the Temple

1 Solomon made plans to build a house to honor the name of the Lord and also a royal palace for himself.

Cross References: 1 Kings 5:5; 2 Samuel 7:13; 1 Chronicles 22:6

2 He assigned 70,000 laborers to carry loads, 80,000 stonecutters to work in the mountains, and 3,600 supervisors to oversee the work.

Cross References: 1 Kings 5:15; 2 Chronicles 2:18; 1 Chronicles 22:2

Solomon Requests Help from King Hiram of Tyre

3 Solomon sent word to Hiram king of Tyre: “You dealt graciously with my father David by sending him cedar wood to build his palace. Please do the same for me.

Cross References: 1 Kings 5:2; 2 Samuel 5:11; 1 Chronicles 14:1

4 I am about to build a temple to honor the name of the Lord my God. It will be dedicated to Him for burning fragrant incense, presenting the bread of the Presence continually, and offering burnt sacrifices every morning and evening, on Sabbaths, new moons, and the appointed festivals of the Lord our God. This is a permanent ordinance for Israel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 5:5; 1 Chronicles 22:10; Exodus 30:7

5 The temple I am building must be magnificent, because our God is greater than all other gods.

Cross References: Psalm 95:3; Psalm 96:4; Psalm 135:5

6 But who can really build a house for Him? Even the highest heavens cannot contain Him! And who am I to build Him a house—except as a place to burn sacrifices before Him?

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:27; Isaiah 66:1; Acts 7:48

A Call for Skilled Craftsmen and Timber

7 “Now, please send me a skilled craftsman who is experienced in working with gold, silver, bronze, and iron, and with purple, crimson, and blue fabrics. He must also be capable of engraving and working alongside the craftsmen my father David provided in Judah and Jerusalem.

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:13; Exodus 31:3; Exodus 35:30

8 Also, send me cedar, juniper, and algum logs from Lebanon. I know your servants are skilled at cutting timber there. My workers will assist them,

Cross References: 1 Kings 5:6; 1 Kings 5:8; 1 Kings 5:10

9 because the temple I am going to build will be large and spectacular.

Cross References: 1 Kings 5:5; 1 Chronicles 22:5; 1 Kings 5:18

10 I will provide your lumberjacks with 20,000 cors of crushed wheat, 20,000 cors of barley, 20,000 baths of wine, and 20,000 baths of olive oil.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 5:11; Ezra 3:7; Ezekiel 27:17

Hiram’s Response and Praise to God

11 Then King Hiram of Tyre responded in a letter to Solomon: “Because the Lord loves His people, He has made you their king.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 5:7; 1 Kings 5:1; 2 Samuel 5:11

12 Hiram also said, “Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, who made the heavens and the earth. He has given King David a wise son, full of understanding and insight, who will build a temple for the Lord and a royal palace for himself.

Cross References: 1 Kings 5:7; 1 Kings 10:9; 1 Chronicles 29:10

Hiram Sends a Skilled Craftsman

13 I am sending you a master craftsman, Hiram-Abi.

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:13; 1 Kings 7:14; Exodus 31:2

14 He is the son of a woman from the tribe of Dan, and his father was a man from Tyre. He is skilled in working with gold, silver, bronze, iron, stone, and wood, and also with purple, blue, fine linen, and crimson fabrics. He is an expert engraver and designer and can execute any project assigned to him. He will work with your craftsmen and with those appointed by your father David.

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:14; Exodus 35:30; Exodus 31:3

15 Now then, please send the wheat, barley, olive oil, and wine you mentioned to your servants.

Cross References: 1 Kings 5:11; Ezekiel 27:17; Ezra 3:7

16 We will cut all the timber you need from Lebanon and float it in rafts down the coast to Joppa. From there, you can transport it up to Jerusalem.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 5:9; Ezra 3:7; Jonah 1:3

The Labor Force for the Construction

17 Solomon counted all the foreigners living in Israel, just as his father David had done, and found there were 153,600.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 22:2; 1 Kings 9:20; 2 Chronicles 8:7

18 He assigned 70,000 of them to carry loads, 80,000 to quarry stone in the mountains, and 3,600 to supervise the workers.

Cross References: 1 Kings 5:15; 2 Chronicles 2:2; 1 Kings 5:16

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 2

1. God’s Work Deserves Excellence Solomon didn’t cut corners—he called for the best materials and the most skilled workers. When serving God, nothing less than our best will do. 2. Worship Is the Heart of the Temple Solomon’s priority for the temple was not grandeur, but that it would be a place for constant worship—offering, incense, and presence. 3. God Uses People from All Backgrounds Foreigners like Hiram’s craftsmen were used by God in building the temple. God’s purposes often involve those outside our circles. 4. God Honors Humility Solomon recognized that he was unworthy to build a house for the God who cannot be contained by heaven itself. God blesses such reverence. 5. Unity in Purpose Creates Strength Israel, Tyre, and thousands of laborers worked together toward one goal—God’s glory. When people unite for God’s purpose, the results are extraordinary.

2 Chronicles Chapter 3 — Crawford Standard Bible

Solomon Begins Construction of the Temple

1 Solomon began building the Lord’s temple in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where the Lord had appeared to his father David. It was on the site David had chosen—the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

Cross References: 1 Kings 6:1; Genesis 22:2; 1 Chronicles 21:18

2 Construction started on the second day of the second month, in the fourth year of Solomon’s reign.

Cross References: 1 Kings 6:1; 2 Chronicles 3:1; 1 Kings 6:37

Dimensions and Design of the Temple

3 These are the measurements Solomon used for the temple of God, based on the old standard of cubits: The building was 60 cubits long and 20 cubits wide.

Cross References: 1 Kings 6:2; Ezra 6:3; 1 Kings 7:2

4 The porch in front of the temple was 20 cubits wide, matching the width of the building. It stood 120 cubits high and was overlaid on the inside with pure gold.

Cross References: 1 Kings 6:3; Ezekiel 40:48; 1 Kings 6:17

5 The main hall was paneled with cedar and overlaid with fine gold. He decorated it with carved palm trees and chains.

Cross References: 1 Kings 6:15; 1 Kings 6:29; 1 Kings 6:18

6 He adorned the temple with precious stones for beauty, and the gold used was from Parvaim.

Cross References: 1 Kings 6:21; Revelation 21:19; Isaiah 54:11

7 He overlaid the entire building—including the beams, doorframes, walls, and doors—with gold and carved cherubim into the walls.

Cross References: 1 Kings 6:29; 1 Kings 6:22; Exodus 25:18

The Most Holy Place and Its Glory

8 He built the Most Holy Place, 20 cubits long and 20 cubits wide, matching the width of the temple. He overlaid it with 600 talents of fine gold.

Cross References: 1 Kings 6:20; 1 Kings 6:16; Exodus 26:33

9 The gold nails used weighed 50 shekels, and even the upper rooms were covered in gold.

Cross References: 1 Kings 6:21; 1 Kings 6:22; Exodus 25:11

10 Inside the Most Holy Place, he made two sculpted cherubim and overlaid them with gold.

Cross References: 1 Kings 6:23; Exodus 25:18; Exodus 25:20 11 The combined wingspan of the cherubim was 20 cubits. One wing of the first cherub was 5 cubits and reached the wall; the other wing stretched 5 cubits toward the second cherub.

Cross References: 1 Kings 6:24; 1 Kings 6:27; Exodus 25:20 12 The second cherub's wings were also 5 cubits each, one touching the opposite wall and one touching the first cherub's wing.

Cross References: 1 Kings 6:26; 1 Kings 6:27; Exodus 25:20 13 Together, their wings spanned 20 cubits. They stood upright, facing toward the inner room.

Cross References: 1 Kings 6:27; Exodus 25:20; Exodus 37:9

14 He made the veil of blue, purple, crimson, and fine linen, and embroidered cherubim on it.

Cross References: Exodus 26:31; Matthew 27:51; Hebrews 10:20

The Front Pillars of the Temple

15 In front of the temple, Solomon erected two pillars that were 35 cubits tall each. The capitals on top of the pillars were 5 cubits high.

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:15; 2 Kings 25:17; Jeremiah 52:21

16 He made interwoven chains for the tops of the pillars and placed 100 decorative pomegranates on them.

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:17; 1 Kings 7:20; 1 Kings 7:18

17 He placed the pillars in front of the temple—one on the right and the other on the left. He named the one on the right Jachin ("He will establish") and the one on the left Boaz ("In Him is strength").

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:21; 2 Kings 25:17; Jeremiah 52:21

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 3

1. God's Presence Is Worthy of Our Best Solomon spared no expense—gold, jewels, intricate carvings—because God's dwelling place deserved the highest honor. 2. God's Promises Are Built on History The temple stood on Mount Moriah, the very place where God met with Abraham and David. God builds on His faithful history with His people. 3. Beauty Has Purpose in Worship The details—cherubim, gold, palm trees, pomegranates—pointed to glory, holiness, and fruitfulness, helping Israel grasp the majesty of God. 4. God's Holiness Requires Separation The veil reminded Israel that access to God's presence was limited. Only through sacrifice and purity could one draw near. 5. Symbolism Strengthens Identity The names of the two pillars—Jachin and Boaz—declared that God establishes and strengthens His people. These truths stood literally at the entrance of worship.

2 Chronicles Chapter 4 — Crawford Standard Bible

The Bronze Altar and the Sea

1 Solomon made a large bronze altar that was 20 cubits long, 20 cubits wide, and 10 cubits high.

Cross References: Exodus 27:1; 1 Kings 8:64; 2 Chronicles 4:19

2 He also made a huge round basin, called the Sea. It measured 10 cubits across from rim to rim and stood 5 cubits high. A line measuring 30 cubits circled around it.

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:23; Jeremiah 52:17; 2 Kings 25:13

3 Beneath the rim, it was decorated with figures of oxen encircling the basin—ten per cubit. They were cast in two rows as part of the basin itself.

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:24; Exodus 25:31; 1 Kings 6:29

4 The basin stood on twelve oxen statues. Three faced north, three west, three south, and three east. The Sea rested on top of them, and all their hindquarters faced inward.

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:25; Jeremiah 52:20; 1 Kings 7:44

5 The walls of the basin were about a handbreadth thick. Its rim was shaped like the rim of a cup or like a lily blossom. It could hold about three thousand baths of water.

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:26; Exodus 30:18; 1 Kings 7:38

6 He also made ten smaller washbasins. He placed five on the south side and five on the north side. These were used to rinse the offerings for the burnt sacrifices. But the large basin—the Sea—was for the priests to wash themselves.

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:38; Exodus 30:18; Exodus 30:20

Golden Furnishings and Utensils

7 Solomon made ten gold lampstands, according to the prescribed pattern. He placed five on the right side of the Holy Place and five on the left.

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:49; Exodus 25:31; Exodus 25:37

8 He made ten tables and placed them the same way—five on the right and five on the left. He also made one hundred gold basins.

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:48; Exodus 25:23; Exodus 25:29

9 He built the priests' courtyard, the large outer courtyard, and doors for the courtyard. He overlaid the doors with bronze.

Cross References: 1 Kings 6:36; 1 Kings 7:12; Exodus 27:9

10 He placed the Sea on the southeast side of the Temple.

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:39; 2 Chronicles 4:2; 1 Kings 7:25

Huram's Finishing Work

11 Hiram also made the pots, shovels, and basins. In this way, he completed the work he was doing for King Solomon for the house of God.

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:40; 1 Kings 7:14; Exodus 27:3

12 This included the two pillars, the two bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars, the two networks of chains to cover the bowl-shaped capitals,

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:41; 1 Kings 7:16; 1 Kings 7:20 13 and the four hundred pomegranates arranged in two rows on each network to decorate the capitals on the top of the pillars.

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:42; 1 Kings 7:20; 1 Kings 7:18

14 He also made the stands and the washbasins placed on each stand,

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:43; Exodus 30:18; 1 Kings 7:27

15 the large basin (the Sea) and the twelve oxen beneath it,

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:44; 2 Chronicles 4:4; Jeremiah 52:20 16 and the pots, shovels, meat forks, and all the other bronze items Hiram-abi made for King Solomon for the Lord's Temple. Everything was made of polished bronze.

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:45; 1 Kings 7:14; Exodus 27:3

17 The king had them cast in clay molds in the plain of the Jordan River between Succoth and Zeredah.

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:46; Genesis 33:17; Joshua 3:16

18 Solomon made all these things in such great quantities that the weight of the bronze could not be calculated.

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:47; 1 Chronicles 22:14; 1 Chronicles 22:16

The Golden Items for Worship

19 Solomon also made all the items for the house of God: the golden altar, the tables for the bread of the Presence,

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:48; Exodus 25:23; Exodus 30:1

20 the lampstands and their lamps of pure gold, to burn in front of the inner sanctuary according to the regulations,

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:49; Exodus 25:31; Leviticus 24:4

21 and the decorative flowers, lamps, and tongs—all made of pure gold.

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:49; Exodus 25:38; Exodus 37:23

22 He also made the wick trimmers, basins, spoons, and censers—all of pure gold. He made the doors for the entrance to the inner sanctuary (the Most Holy Place), as well as the main doors of the temple—all of gold.

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:50; Exodus 25:38; Exodus 30:1

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 4

1. God Deserves Excellence in Worship The sheer scale, beauty, and quantity of the temple furnishings show that Solomon spared nothing in glorifying God through craftsmanship and design. 2. Symbolism Reflects Holiness The twelve oxen under the Sea represented Israel's twelve tribes, and the gold and bronze reflected purity, glory, and durability—all qualities of God's nature. 3. Teamwork Builds God's House Solomon worked with Hiram and thousands of skilled workers. God's work involves many people with different gifts coming together. 4. Holiness Requires Preparation The Sea and the lavers reminded the priests that cleansing was necessary before offering worship. Our own spiritual preparation is vital when coming before God. 5. God's Glory Is Worthy of Sacrifice Solomon's use of the finest materials—gold, bronze, precious stones—was an act of reverence. Our worship today should reflect a heart willing to give God our best.

2 Chronicles Chapter 5 — Crawford Standard Bible

The Temple Is Completed

1 So Solomon completed all the work for the Lord's Temple. Then he brought in the items that his father David had dedicated—the silver, the gold, and all the furnishings—and stored them in the treasuries of the house of God.

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:51; 1 Chronicles 18:11; 1 Chronicles 26:26

The Ark Brought into the Temple

2 Solomon called together the elders of Israel, all the tribal leaders, and the heads of the ancestral families of the Israelites. They were summoned to Jerusalem to bring the Ark of the Lord's Covenant from the City of David, also known as Zion.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:1; 2 Samuel 6:12; 1 Chronicles 15:25

3 So all the men of Israel assembled before the king at the annual Festival in the seventh month.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:2; Leviticus 23:34; 1 Kings 8:65

4 When all the elders of Israel arrived, the Levites lifted up the Ark.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:3; Numbers 4:15; 1 Chronicles 15:2

5 The priests and Levites brought up the Ark of the Lord, along with the Tabernacle and all the sacred items that were in it.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:4; Numbers 4:15; 1 Chronicles 15:12

6 King Solomon and the entire assembly of Israel gathered before the Ark and offered so many sheep and oxen in sacrifice that no one could count or record the number.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:5; 1 Kings 3:4; 1 Chronicles 15:26

7 Then the priests carried the Ark of the Lord's Covenant into the inner sanctuary of the Temple—the Most Holy Place—and placed it beneath the wings of the cherubim.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:6; Exodus 25:22; Exodus 26:33

8 The cherubim spread their wings over the Ark and its carrying poles, shielding them.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:7; Exodus 37:9; Exodus 25:20

9 The poles were so long that their ends could be seen from the Holy Place in front of the inner sanctuary, but not from outside the Holy Place. And they are still there to this day.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:8; Exodus 25:15; Exodus 25:14

10 Inside the Ark were only the two stone tablets that Moses had placed in it at Mount Horeb, where the Lord had made a covenant with the Israelites after they came out of Egypt.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:9; Exodus 25:16; Deuteronomy 10:5

God's Glory Fills the Temple

11 When the priests came out of the Holy Place (all the priests who were present had purified themselves, regardless of their assigned divisions),

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:10; 2 Chronicles 29:34; 1 Chronicles 24:1

12 the Levite musicians—Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun—and all their sons and relatives stood on the east side of the altar, dressed in fine white linen and playing cymbals, harps, and lyres. They were joined by 120 priests sounding trumpets.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 15:16; 1 Chronicles 25:1; Psalm 150:3

13 The trumpeters and singers performed together in unison to praise and give thanks to the Lord. Accompanied by trumpets, cymbals, and other instruments, they raised their voices and sang: "The Lord is good; His faithful love endures forever!" At that moment, a thick cloud filled the Temple of the Lord.

Cross References: Psalm 136:1; Ezra 3:11; 1 Kings 8:10

14 The priests could not continue their service because of the cloud, for the glorious presence of the Lord filled the house of God.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:11; Exodus 40:34; Isaiah 6:4

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 5

1. God Keeps His Promises The completion of the Temple and the placing of the Ark signify that God's covenant with Israel was still alive and active. 2. Worship Unites God's People The unity of the singers, trumpeters, and worshippers shows that corporate worship brings powerful spiritual moments when God's people are of one heart and mind. 3. True Worship Invites God's Presence The cloud of God's glory filled the Temple when His people sincerely praised Him. God responds to heartfelt worship with His manifest presence. 4. Preparation Leads to Revelation The priests sanctified themselves before ministering, and it was after this preparation that God revealed His glory in the Temple. Holiness precedes encounter. 5. God Desires Our Best in Worship Lavish sacrifices, skillful music, and unified hearts remind us to offer God our absolute best in everything we do for Him.

2 Chronicles Chapter 6 — Crawford Standard Bible

Solomon Declares the Lord's Faithfulness

1 Then Solomon said, "The Lord has said He would dwell in a dark cloud.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:12; Exodus 20:21; Leviticus 16:2

2 But I have built You a magnificent temple, a place for You to live forever."

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:13; Psalm 132:13; Psalm 132:14

3 Then the king turned and blessed the whole assembly of Israel, while they all stood.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:14; Leviticus 9:22; Numbers 6:23

4 He said: "Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, who with His hands has fulfilled what He promised with His mouth to my father David, saying:

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:15; 2 Samuel 7:12; 1 Chronicles 17:11

5 'Since the day I brought My people out of Egypt, I haven't chosen a city from among the tribes of Israel to build a temple for My name to be there, nor have I chosen a man to rule over My people Israel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:16; Deuteronomy 12:5; Deuteronomy 12:11

6 But now I have chosen Jerusalem for My name to be there, and I have chosen David to rule over My people Israel.'

Final Plea and Blessing

40 Now, my God, I pray, may Your eyes be open and Your ears attentive to the prayers offered in this place.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:52; Psalm 130:2; Nehemiah 1:6

41 Now arise, Lord God, and enter Your resting place—you and the ark of Your strength. Let Your priests be clothed with salvation, and let Your faithful people rejoice in Your goodness.

Cross References: Psalm 132:8; Psalm 132:9; Numbers 10:35

42 O Lord God, do not reject Your anointed one. Remember Your unfailing love promised to David Your servant.”

Cross References: Psalm 132:1; Psalm 132:10; Isaiah 55:3

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 6

1. God Fulfills His Promises Everything Solomon experienced in the Temple was a fulfillment of God's word to David. 2. God's Presence Cannot Be Contained Even the highest heavens cannot contain God, yet He chooses to dwell with His people when they humbly call on Him. 3. Prayer Is Powerful and Personal Solomon intercedes not just for national sin but for individual burdens, foreign seekers, and exiled hearts—showing God's openness to all sincere prayer. 4. Repentance Leads to Restoration Over and over, the prayer emphasizes that when God's people repent and turn back, He hears and restores. 5. God Judges Justly and Knows Every Heart The prayer repeatedly appeals to God's perfect justice, because only He truly knows the hearts of people.

Fire from Heaven and the Glory of the Lord

1 When Solomon finished praying, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of the Lord filled the temple.

Cross References: Leviticus 9:24; 1 Chronicles 21:26; 1 Kings 18:38

2 The priests couldn't even enter the Lord's Temple because the glory of the Lord had filled it.

Cross References: Exodus 40:34; 1 Kings 8:11; 2 Chronicles 5:14

3 When all the Israelites saw the fire come down and the glory of the Lord over the Temple, they bowed down with their faces to the ground on the pavement. They worshiped and praised the Lord, saying, “He is good; His faithful love endures forever.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 5:13; Ezra 3:11; Psalm 136:1

The Dedication of the Temple

4 Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices to the Lord.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:62; 2 Chronicles 5:6; 1 Chronicles 29:21

5 King Solomon offered a sacrifice of 22,000 cattle and 120,000 sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:63; 1 Chronicles 29:21; Numbers 7:88

6 The priests performed their duties, and the Levites played the instruments the Lord had given them through King David for the purpose of praising the Lord. They sang, “His faithful love endures forever,” as David had directed. The priests blew their trumpets while all Israel stood.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 25:1; 1 Chronicles 15:16; 2 Chronicles 5:12

7 Solomon also set apart the central courtyard in front of the Lord's Temple, because there he offered the burnt offerings and the fat from the peace offerings. The bronze altar he had built was too small to hold all the offerings.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:64; 2 Chronicles 4:1; Exodus 27:1

The Seven-Day Festival and Assembly

8 At that time Solomon and all Israel celebrated the festival for seven days. A huge crowd had come from as far north as Hamath and as far south as the brook of Egypt.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:65; Numbers 34:8; 1 Kings 8:5

9 On the eighth day they held a solemn assembly, because they had celebrated the dedication of the altar for seven days and the festival for seven more days.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:66; Leviticus 23:36; Nehemiah 8:18

10 On the twenty-third day of the seventh month, Solomon sent the people home. They went away joyful and glad in heart for the goodness the Lord had shown to David, to Solomon, and to His people Israel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:66; Deuteronomy 16:15; Ecclesiastes 5:19

God Appears to Solomon

11 So Solomon completed the Temple of the Lord and the royal palace. Everything he had planned to do in the Temple of the Lord and in his own palace, he accomplished successfully.

Cross References: 1 Kings 9:1; 2 Chronicles 5:1; 1 Kings 7:51

12 Then the Lord appeared to Solomon at night and said: "I have heard your prayer and have chosen this Temple as the place for sacrifices.

13 When I shut up the heavens so there is no rain, or command locusts to devour the land, or send a plague among My people,

Cross References: Leviticus 26:19; Deuteronomy 28:23; 1 Kings 8:35

14 if My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray, and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sins and heal their land.

Cross References: James 4:8; Isaiah 55:7; 2 Kings 22:19

15 My eyes will be open and My ears attentive to the prayers offered in this place.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:29; 2 Chronicles 6:40; Psalm 34:15

16 I have now chosen and consecrated this Temple so that My name may be there forever. My eyes and My heart will always be there.

Blessing for Obedience, Judgment for Rebellion

17 As for you, if you walk before Me as your father David did, doing everything I command and keeping My laws and decrees,

Cross References: 1 Kings 9:4; 1 Kings 3:14; 1 Kings 2:4

18 then I will establish your royal throne, just as I promised your father David: ‘You will never fail to have a man to rule over Israel.’

Cross References: 1 Kings 9:5; 2 Samuel 7:12; 2 Samuel 7:16

19 But if you or your descendants turn away and abandon My commands and statutes that I have given you, and if you go and worship other gods and serve them,

Cross References: 1 Kings 9:6; Deuteronomy 28:15; Deuteronomy 30:17

20 then I will uproot Israel from My land, which I have given them. And I will reject this Temple I have sanctified for My name. I will make it a mockery and an example among all nations.

Cross References: 1 Kings 9:7; Deuteronomy 29:28; Jeremiah 24:9

21 And though this Temple is majestic now, all who pass by it will be appalled. They will ask, ‘Why has the Lord done such a thing to this land and to this Temple?’

Cross References: 1 Kings 9:8; Jeremiah 22:8; Lamentations 2:15

22 The answer will be: ‘Because they abandoned the Lord, the God of their ancestors, who brought them out of Egypt. They embraced other gods, worshiped them, and served them. That is why He has brought all this disaster upon them.’”

Cross References: 1 Kings 9:9; Deuteronomy 29:25; Judges 2:12

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 7

1. God Confirms His Presence with Fire and Glory God responded visibly to Solomon’s prayer, showing His approval with fire from heaven and filling the temple with His glory. 2. True Worship Leads to Humility and Unity The people bowed in awe and unity, giving glory to God for His goodness and mercy. 3. God Listens to Humble, Repentant Prayer Verse 14 shows the timeless power of repentance, prayer, and humility to bring healing and restoration to a nation. 4. Obedience Brings Blessing; Rebellion Brings Ruin God clearly lays out a choice—if Solomon and Israel remain faithful, they’ll be blessed. If they turn to idols, destruction will follow. 5. God’s Promises Are Conditional on Faithfulness The covenant with David continues through Solomon, but only if they walk in God’s ways.

Solomon’s Expansion Projects

1 After twenty years, during which Solomon had built the Lord’s Temple and his own royal palace,

Cross References: 1 Kings 9:10; 1 Kings 6:38; 1 Kings 7:1

2 he rebuilt the towns that Hiram had given him and settled Israelites there.

Cross References: 1 Kings 9:11; 1 Kings 9:12; 1 Kings 5:12

3 Solomon also went to Hamath Zobah and conquered it.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 18:3; 2 Samuel 8:3; 1 Kings 11:23

4 He rebuilt Tadmor in the wilderness and all the storage cities he had built in Hamath.

Cross References: 1 Kings 9:18; 1 Kings 9:19; Exodus 1:11

5 He also built Upper Beth-horon and Lower Beth-horon as fortified cities with walls, gates, and bars.

Cross References: 1 Kings 9:17; Joshua 10:10; Joshua 16:3

6 He built Baalath, and all the cities used for storing supplies, along with the cities for his chariots and horsemen, and anything else he desired to build in Jerusalem, Lebanon, and throughout his entire kingdom.

Foreign Labor and Israelite Officials

7 All the people who remained from the Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites—those who were not Israelites—

Cross References: 1 Kings 9:20; Joshua 9:1; Judges 3:5

8 their descendants who were still in the land—Solomon drafted them for forced labor, and they remain in that role to this day.

Cross References: 1 Kings 9:21; Judges 1:28; Joshua 16:10 9 But Solomon did not make the Israelites his slaves for his work. They served as soldiers, officers, commanders, chariot captains, and horsemen.

Cross References: 1 Kings 9:22; Leviticus 25:39; Deuteronomy 20:11

10 King Solomon had 250 chief officers who ruled over the people and supervised the work.

Cross References: 1 Kings 9:23; 1 Kings 4:7; 1 Kings 5:16

Solomon's Foreign Wife and Continued Worship

11 Solomon moved Pharaoh's daughter from the city of David to the palace he had built for her. He said, "My wife must not live in King David's palace, because the places where the ark of the Lord has come are holy."

Cross References: 1 Kings 9:24; 1 Kings 3:1; 1 Kings 7:8

12 Then Solomon offered burnt offerings to the Lord on the altar he had built in front of the Temple porch.

Cross References: 1 Kings 9:25; 2 Chronicles 4:1; Leviticus 1:3

13 He offered sacrifices daily according to the law of Moses—on the Sabbaths, new moons, and the three annual festivals: the Festival of Unleavened Bread, the Festival of Weeks, and the Festival of Tabernacles.

Cross References: Numbers 28:9; Leviticus 23:4; Numbers 29:1

Solomon Follows David's Instructions for Temple Service

14 In accordance with the directions given by his father David, Solomon appointed the divisions of the priests for their service, and the Levites for their duties—praising and assisting the priests as required each day. He also appointed the gatekeepers by division at each gate, just as David, the man of God, had commanded.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 23:6; 1 Chronicles 24:1; 1 Chronicles 26:1

15 All these duties were carried out exactly as the king had instructed the priests and the Levites, including the oversight of the Temple treasures.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 15:15; Numbers 4:15; 2 Chronicles 35:10

16 So all the work of Solomon was completed from the day the foundation of the Lord's Temple was laid until it was finished. The Temple of the Lord was completed.

Cross References: 1 Kings 6:38; 1 Kings 9:1; 2 Chronicles 5:1

Solomon's Trade Fleet

17 Then Solomon traveled to Ezion-geber and Eloth on the Red Sea coast in the land of Edom.

Cross References: 1 Kings 9:26; 2 Chronicles 20:36; 1 Kings 22:48

18 Hiram sent him ships commanded by seasoned sailors. They went with Solomon's servants to Ophir and brought back 450 talents of gold, which they delivered to King Solomon.

Cross References: 1 Kings 9:27; 1 Kings 9:28; 1 Kings 10:11

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 8

1. Solomon Continued to Build and Expand Solomon wasn't only a temple builder but also a planner of cities, infrastructure, and military outposts throughout his kingdom. 2. Foreigners Were Enslaved, Israelites Were Empowered Solomon reserved positions of labor for foreigners, but honored the Israelites with military and administrative roles—this reflects political structure and national distinction. 3. Solomon Respected the Holiness of God's Presence Even in his personal life, Solomon recognized that God's presence made a place holy and treated it accordingly, as seen with Pharaoh's daughter. 4. Faithful Worship Continued According to God's Law The daily offerings, festivals, and priestly duties were all carried out in accordance with the law of Moses and the instructions of David. 5. Solomon Honored His Father's Legacy David's organization of worship was preserved, showing that legacy and obedience are crucial in sustaining worship for future generations. 6. Partnerships Bring Provision Through cooperation with Hiram, Solomon gained skilled labor and wealth—partnerships aligned with God's purpose can yield great return.

2 Chronicles Chapter 9 — Crawford Standard Bible

The Queen of Sheba Visits Solomon

1 When the queen of Sheba heard about Solomon's fame, she came to Jerusalem to test him with hard questions. She arrived with a very large caravan, including camels loaded with spices, great quantities of gold, and precious stones. When she came to Solomon, she spoke with him about everything that was on her heart.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:1; 1 Kings 10:2; Matthew 12:42

2 Solomon answered all her questions. There was nothing too difficult for him to explain.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:3; 1 Kings 4:29; Proverbs 25:2

3 When the queen of Sheba saw Solomon's wisdom, the palace he had built,

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:4; 1 Kings 7:1; 1 Kings 10:5

4 the food on his table, the seating of his officials, the service and attire of his attendants, his cupbearers and their uniforms, and the stairway by which he went up to the Lord's Temple, she was overwhelmed.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:5; 1 Kings 4:22; 1 Kings 4:23

5 She said to the king, "Everything I heard in my country about your wisdom and your achievements is true.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:6; 1 Kings 10:7; Luke 11:31

6 I didn't believe it until I came and saw it with my own eyes. In fact, I wasn't told even half of your greatness. You far exceed the report I heard.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:7; Luke 11:31; 1 Kings 4:34

7 How happy your people must be! What a privilege for your officials to stand before you and hear your wisdom daily!

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:8; Proverbs 8:34; 1 Kings 4:34

8 Blessed be the Lord your God, who has delighted in you and placed you on His throne as king for the Lord your God. Because your God loves Israel and desires to establish them forever, He has made you king to govern with justice and righteousness."

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:9; 2 Chronicles 2:11; 1 Kings 5:7

9 Then she gave the king 120 talents of gold, a large quantity of spices, and precious stones. There had never been spices like those the queen of Sheba gave to Solomon.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:10; Psalm 72:15; Matthew 2:11

10 The servants of Hiram and Solomon, who brought gold from Ophir, also brought algum wood and precious stones.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:11; 1 Kings 9:28; 2 Chronicles 8:18

11 The king used the algar wood to make terraces for the Temple of the Lord and the royal palace, and to make harps and lyres for the musicians. Nothing like them had been seen before in Judah.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:12; 1 Chronicles 15:16; 2 Chronicles 5:13

12 King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba everything she desired—whatever she asked for—besides what he had already given her out of his royal bounty. Then she returned with her servants to her own land.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:13; 1 Kings 10:10; Luke 6:38

Solomon's Wealth and Splendor

13 The weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was 666 talents of gold,

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:14; 1 Kings 10:15; 2 Chronicles 1:15

14 not counting what the merchants and traders brought. All the kings of Arabia and the governors of the land also brought gold and silver to Solomon.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:15; 1 Kings 10:25; Ezekiel 27:20 15 King Solomon made 200 large shields of hammered gold—each containing 600 shekels of gold.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:16; 1 Kings 14:26; 2 Chronicles 12:9

16 He also made 300 smaller shields of hammered gold, each with 300 shekels of gold. He placed them in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:17; 1 Kings 7:2; 1 Kings 14:26

17 The king also made a great throne of ivory and overlaid it with pure gold.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:18; 1 Kings 10:19; 2 Chronicles 9:19

18 The throne had six steps, with a golden footstool attached. It had armrests on each side, and two lions stood beside the armrests.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:19; 1 Kings 10:20; 1 Kings 7:29

19 Twelve lions stood on the six steps, one on each side. Nothing like it had ever been made in any other kingdom.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:20; 1 Kings 10:21; 2 Chronicles 1:15

20 All King Solomon's drinking vessels were made of gold, and all the utensils in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon were pure gold. Silver was considered of little value in Solomon's day.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:21; 1 Kings 10:27; 2 Chronicles 1:15

21 The king's ships sailed to Tarshish with Hiram's servants. Every three years they returned, bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:22; 1 Kings 9:26; 1 Kings 9:27

22 King Solomon was greater in riches and wisdom than all the other kings of the earth.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:23; 1 Kings 3:12; 1 Kings 3:13

23 All the kings of the world sought an audience with Solomon to hear the wisdom God had put in his heart.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:24; 1 Kings 4:34; Matthew 12:42

24 Year after year, everyone brought him gifts—articles of silver and gold, clothing, weapons, spices, horses, and mules.

Solomon's Military Power and Legacy

25 Solomon had 4,000 stalls for horses and chariots, and 12,000 horsemen. He stationed them in the chariot cities and also with him in Jerusalem.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:26; 2 Chronicles 1:14; 1 Kings 4:26

26 He ruled over all the kings from the Euphrates River to the land of the Philistines and the border of Egypt.

Cross References: 1 Kings 4:21; 1 Kings 4:24; Psalm 72:8

27 The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones. Cedar wood was as abundant as sycamore-fig trees in the foothills.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:27; 2 Chronicles 1:15; 1 Kings 10:21

28 Horses were imported for Solomon from Egypt and from every other land.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:28; 1 Kings 10:29; 2 Chronicles 1:16

29 The rest of the acts of Solomon, from beginning to end, are written in the records of the prophet Nathan, the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and the visions of the seer Iddo concerning Jeroboam son of Nebat.

Cross References: 1 Kings 11:41; 1 Kings 11:29; 2 Chronicles 13:22

30 Solomon ruled in Jerusalem over all Israel for forty years.

Cross References: 1 Kings 11:42; 1 Chronicles 29:27; 2 Chronicles 1:13

31 Then Solomon died and was buried in the city of his father David. His son Rehoboam succeeded him as king.

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 9

1. God's Wisdom Draws the Nations The queen of Sheba's journey shows how divine wisdom can impact people across the world. God-given insight is powerful and compelling. 2. Faith Confirmed by Experience The queen didn't believe until she saw for herself—and then admitted God's greatness. Personal encounters with God's truth confirm faith. 3. Prosperity Should Reflect God's Glory Solomon's wealth wasn't just luxury—it symbolized God's blessing and Solomon's obedience. Our resources should point others to God. 4. Generosity Attracts Favor Both Solomon and the queen of Sheba exchanged gifts generously. God often blesses those who freely give. 5. True Legacy Is Faith and Wisdom, Not Just Wealth Solomon's wisdom, not his gold, is what kings came to hear. Wisdom and faith leave a greater legacy than material success. 6. Every Reign Has an End Despite all his splendor, Solomon died like every other man. Earthly kingdoms are temporary; God's kingdom endures forever.

2 Chronicles Chapter 10 — Crawford Standard Bible

Rehoboam Becomes King at Shechem

1 Rehoboam went to Shechem, where all Israel had gathered to make him king.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:1; Joshua 24:1; 1 Samuel 11:15

2 When Jeroboam son of Nebat heard what was happening—he was still in Egypt, where he had fled from King Solomon—he returned from Egypt.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:2; 1 Kings 11:26; 1 Kings 11:40

3 The people sent for Jeroboam, and he came with the assembly of Israel to speak with Rehoboam.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:3; 1 Kings 11:31; 1 Kings 12:20

4 They said, “Your father made our burden heavy. If you'll ease the harsh labor and heavy load he placed on us, we will serve you.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:4; 1 Kings 4:7; Deuteronomy 17:16

5 Rehoboam replied, “Come back to me in three days.” So the people left.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:5; 1 Kings 12:12; Proverbs 19:2

Two Sets of Counsel: Old Wisdom vs. Young Pride

6 Then King Rehoboam consulted the elders who had advised his father Solomon while he was alive. He asked, “What advice do you give me? How should I answer these people?”

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:6; Proverbs 11:14; Proverbs 15:22

7 They replied, “If you are kind to these people and try to please them by speaking gently, they will be your loyal servants forever.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:7; Proverbs 15:1; Matthew 20:26

8 But Rehoboam ignored the advice of the elders and asked the young men who had grown up with him and now served him.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:8; Proverbs 12:15; Proverbs 1:25

9 “What do you advise?” he asked them. “These people say, ‘Lighten the burden your father put on us.’ What should I tell them?”

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:9; Proverbs 15:22; Proverbs 20:18

10 The young men replied, “Tell them this: ‘My little finger is thicker than my father’s waist!

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:10; Proverbs 18:13; Ecclesiastes 10:16

11 My father laid a heavy burden on you, but I will make it heavier. He whipped you with cords; I will whip you with scorpions!’”

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:11; 1 Kings 12:14; Proverbs 16:18

A Kingdom Divided

12 On the third day, Jeroboam and all the people came back to Rehoboam, as he had instructed.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:12; 1 Kings 12:5; Proverbs 27:1

13 But the king answered them harshly. He rejected the advice of the elders

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:13; Proverbs 15:1; Ecclesiastes 10:16

14 and followed the counsel of the young men. He said, “My father made your yoke heavy; I’ll make it even heavier. He disciplined you with whips; I’ll discipline you with scorpions!”

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:14; 1 Kings 12:11; Proverbs 17:14

15 So the king did not listen to the people. This turn of events was from God, so that the Lord could carry out the word He had spoken through Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam son of Nebat.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:15; 1 Kings 11:29; 1 Kings 11:31

Rebellion Against the House of David

16 When the people of Israel realized the king had rejected their request, they said, “What share do we have in David? We have no inheritance in Jesse’s son. Everyone to your tents, Israel! Look after your own house, David!” So all Israel returned to their homes.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:16; 2 Samuel 20:1; 2 Samuel 20:2

17 But Rehoboam still reigned over the Israelites who lived in the cities of Judah.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:17; 2 Chronicles 11:1; 2 Chronicles 11:3

18 Then King Rehoboam sent out Hadoram, who was in charge of forced labor, but the Israelites stoned him to death. King Rehoboam quickly jumped into his chariot and fled to Jerusalem.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:18; 2 Samuel 20:24; 1 Kings 4:6

19 So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:19; 2 Kings 17:21; 1 Kings 11:11

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 10

1. Wise Leadership Listens Rehoboam’s downfall began with ignoring wise counsel. Godly leaders must value experienced, humble voices over prideful peers. 2. Words Matter The way leaders speak to the people—gentle or harsh—can determine whether they inspire loyalty or rebellion. 3. God’s Sovereignty in Human Choices Even Rehoboam’s poor decision was part of God’s plan to fulfill a prophecy. God uses even mistakes to accomplish His will. 4. Pride Divides The division of the kingdom was fueled by arrogance and insensitivity. Pride can split families, churches, and nations. 5. Rejection of Mercy Leads to Loss The people offered loyalty in exchange for mercy. Rehoboam's rejection of that offer cost him ten tribes. 6. Spiritual Rebellion Has Lasting Effects The rebellion of Israel against the house of David became a long-term division—showing how disobedience can leave deep scars.

2 Chronicles Chapter 11 — Crawford Standard Bible

God Stops a Civil War

1 When Rehoboam returned to Jerusalem, he gathered 180,000 select warriors from the tribes of Judah and Benjamin. His goal was to fight against Israel and restore the kingdom to himself.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:21; 2 Chronicles 13:3; 2 Chronicles 14:8

2 But the word of the Lord came to Shemaiah, the man of God:

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:22; 2 Chronicles 12:5; 2 Chronicles 12:7

3 “Say to Rehoboam son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel living in Judah and Benjamin,

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:23; 2 Chronicles 12:5; 1 Kings 13:1

4 ‘This is what the Lord says: Do not go to war against your brothers. Go back home, every one of you, because this division is from Me.’” So they obeyed the Lord's command and did not march against Jeroboam.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:24; 2 Chronicles 25:7; 2 Chronicles 35:21

Rehoboam Fortifies the Kingdom of Judah

5 Rehoboam lived in Jerusalem and began strengthening the cities of Judah for defense.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 8:5; 2 Chronicles 14:6; 2 Chronicles 17:12

6 He rebuilt and fortified Bethlehem, Etam, and Tekoa;

Cross References: Micah 5:2; Amos 1:1; 2 Samuel 14:2

7 Beth-zur, Soco, and Adullam;

Cross References: Joshua 15:58; 1 Samuel 22:1; Joshua 15:35

8 Gath, Mareshah, and Ziph;

9 Adoraim, Lachish, and Azekah;

Cross References: Joshua 10:3; Joshua 15:35; Micah 1:13

10 Zorah, Aijalon, and Hebron—these were fortified cities in Judah and Benjamin.

Cross References: Joshua 15:33; Judges 13:2; Joshua 21:11

11 He reinforced the fortresses, stationed commanders in them, and stocked them with supplies of food, oil, and wine.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 17:2; 2 Chronicles 17:12; 2 Chronicles 26:9

12 He also put shields and spears in every city, making them extremely strong. Judah and Benjamin remained under his control.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 14:8; 2 Chronicles 26:14; Nehemiah 4:13

The Faithful Flock to Judah

13 The priests and Levites throughout Israel sided with Rehoboam and moved to Jerusalem from their lands.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:31; 2 Chronicles 13:9; Numbers 3:6

14 Jeroboam and his sons had removed them from serving as priests of the Lord.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:31; 1 Kings 13:33; Numbers 18:20 15 Instead, Jeroboam appointed his own priests for the pagan shrines, for the goat idols, and for the golden calves he had made.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:31; 1 Kings 12:28; 1 Kings 13:34

16 Then people from every tribe of Israel who were determined to seek the Lord, the God of Israel, came to Jerusalem to worship and offer sacrifices to the God of their ancestors.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 12:5; Psalm 122:1; 2 Chronicles 15:9

17 These faithful people strengthened the kingdom of Judah and supported Rehoboam, son of Solomon, for three years. During those three years, they followed the ways of David and Solomon.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 12:1; 2 Chronicles 14:4; 1 Kings 15:11

Rehoboam's Family and Political Strategy

18 Rehoboam married Mahalath, daughter of Jerimoth (a son of David), and Abihail, daughter of Eliab (a son of Jesse).

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 2:13; 2 Samuel 17:25; 1 Chronicles 3:1

19 They had three sons: Jeush, Shemariah, and Zaham.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 3:1; 1 Chronicles 2:13; 1 Chronicles 7:1

20 Later, he married Maacah, daughter of Absalom. She bore him Abijah, Attai, Ziza, and Shelomith.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 13:2; 2 Chronicles 13:1; 1 Kings 15:2

21 Rehoboam loved Maacah more than all his other wives and concubines. He had eighteen wives and sixty concubines, and he fathered twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.

Cross References: 1 Kings 11:3; Deuteronomy 17:17; 2 Chronicles 13:21

22 Rehoboam appointed Abijah, son of Maacah, to be chief among his brothers, intending to make him the next king.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 13:1; 1 Kings 1:30; 1 Chronicles 28:5

23 He acted wisely by distributing his other sons throughout the fortified cities in Judah and Benjamin. He gave them plenty of food and found many wives for them.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 21:3; Genesis 25:6; 1 Chronicles 28:4

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 11

1. Obedience to God's Word Prevents Conflict Rehoboam's decision to not go to war, following God's command through Shemaiah, prevented a civil war and showed God's sovereign hand in division. 2. God Ordains and Allows Kingdom Divides The split between Judah and Israel was not accidental—it was God-ordained. Sometimes divisions happen for God's greater purpose. 3. True Worshipers Seek God Above Politics The faithful left their homes in the north and came to Judah to worship God properly, showing that loyalty to God surpasses national boundaries. 4. Leadership Requires Strategic Defense Rehoboam wisely fortified cities, stocked provisions, and spread out his family to secure the kingdom—a practical example of leadership and foresight. 5. Pagan Substitutes Never Replace God's Way Jeroboam's man-made priesthood and idol worship drove the faithful away and revealed the danger of spiritual compromise. 6. God Blesses Those Who Seek Him First Those who turned their hearts toward God in Jerusalem were part of the strengthening of Judah's kingdom. God's people build God's kingdom.

2 Chronicles Chapter 12 — Crawford Standard Bible

Rehoboam and Israel Abandon the Lord

1 Once Rehoboam had established his authority and secured his kingdom, he and all Israel abandoned the law of the Lord.

Cross References: 1 Kings 14:22; Deuteronomy 8:14; Hosea 13:6

2 In the fifth year of King Rehoboam's reign, Shishak king of Egypt attacked Jerusalem because the people had been unfaithful to the Lord.

Cross References: 1 Kings 14:25; 2 Chronicles 12:1; 1 Kings 11:40

3 Shishak came with 1,200 chariots, 60,000 horsemen, and an uncountable horde of foot soldiers from Egypt—along with the Libyans, the Sukkites, and the Ethiopians.

Cross References: 1 Kings 14:25; 2 Chronicles 16:8; Nahum 3:9

4 He conquered the fortified cities of Judah and came all the way to Jerusalem.

Cross References: 1 Kings 14:26; 2 Kings 18:13; 2 Chronicles 32:1

The Lord's Rebuke and Mercy

5 Then the prophet Shemaiah came to Rehoboam and the leaders of Judah, who had gathered in Jerusalem to prepare for the attack. Shemaiah said, “This is what the Lord says: You have abandoned Me, so now I have abandoned you to Shishak.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 15:2; Judges 10:13; 2 Chronicles 24:20

6 The leaders of Israel and King Rehoboam humbled themselves and said, “The Lord is right.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 7:14; Exodus 9:27; 1 Kings 21:29

7 When the Lord saw their humility, He gave this word to Shemaiah: “Because they have humbled themselves, I will not completely destroy them. I will give them some deliverance. My anger will not be poured out on Jerusalem through Shishak.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 7:14; 2 Chronicles 33:12; Jonah 3:10

8 But they will become his subjects. This will teach them the difference between serving Me and serving foreign kings.”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 28:47; Deuteronomy 28:48; Ezra 9:9

The Plundering of Jerusalem

9 So King Shishak of Egypt attacked Jerusalem. He took away the treasures of the Lord’s Temple and the royal palace. He took everything—including all the gold shields Solomon had made.

Cross References: 1 Kings 14:26; 1 Kings 10:16; 1 Kings 10:17

10 Rehoboam replaced them with bronze shields and entrusted them to the captains of the guard who protected the entrance of the royal palace.

Cross References: 1 Kings 14:27; 1 Kings 14:28; 1 Samuel 8:14

11 Whenever the king went to the Lord’s temple, the guards would carry the shields and then return them to the guardroom afterward.

Cross References: 1 Kings 14:28; 1 Kings 14:27; 1 Kings 10:17

The End of Rehoboam’s Reign

12 Because Rehoboam humbled himself, the Lord’s anger turned away from him, and he was not completely destroyed. Indeed, some good remained in Judah.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 7:14; 2 Chronicles 32:26; 2 Chronicles 33:12

13 King Rehoboam firmly established his rule in Jerusalem. He was 41 years old when he became king, and he reigned for 17 years in Jerusalem—the city the Lord had chosen from all the tribes of Israel to put His name. His mother’s name was Naamah, the Ammonite.

Cross References: 1 Kings 14:21; 1 Kings 11:43; 2 Chronicles 9:31

14 But he did evil, because he did not make it a priority to seek the Lord.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 28:9; 2 Chronicles 19:3; 2 Chronicles 30:19

15 The rest of Rehoboam's story, from beginning to end, is written in the records of the prophet Shemaiah and the seer Iddo, which include genealogies. Rehoboam and Jeroboam were constantly at war.

Cross References: 1 Kings 14:29; 1 Kings 14:30; 2 Chronicles 9:29

16 When Rehoboam died, he was buried in the City of David. His son Abijah succeeded him as king.

Cross References: 1 Kings 14:31; 2 Chronicles 13:1; 1 Kings 15:1

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 12

1. Pride Leads to Spiritual Decline Rehoboam's downfall began when he turned away from the Lord after gaining strength and security—a warning against pride and complacency. 2. God Sometimes Uses Enemies as Discipline Shishak's invasion was not just a political event; it was a divine judgment meant to bring Judah to repentance. 3. Humility Softens God's Judgment When the leaders and the king humbled themselves, God relented from total destruction. Repentance can delay or even reverse consequences. 4. Superficial Replacements Cannot Compare to God's Glory Rehoboam replaced Solomon's gold shields with bronze ones. It symbolized a kingdom that had lost its spiritual wealth—settling for less. 5. Partial Obedience Is Not Enough Rehoboam did not fully devote his heart to the Lord. He did some good, but his legacy is marked by spiritual failure. 6. It's Not How You Start—It's How You Finish Though he began with God's blessing and the legacy of Solomon, Rehoboam's failure to remain faithful brought sorrow and decline.

2 Chronicles Chapter 13 — Crawford Standard Bible

Abijah Begins His Reign over Judah

1 In the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam's reign, Abijah became king over Judah.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:1; 1 Kings 15:2; 2 Chronicles 11:20

2 He ruled in Jerusalem for three years. His mother's name was Michaiah, daughter of Uriel from Gibeah. There was constant war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:2; 2 Chronicles 11:20; 1 Kings 15:6

Abijah's Bold Challenge

3 Abijah went to battle with an army of 400,000 elite warriors. Jeroboam responded with 800,000 strong, courageous fighters.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 12:8; 2 Chronicles 17:14; 2 Chronicles 25:5

4 Abijah stood on Mount Zemaraim, in the hill country of Ephraim, and shouted, "Listen to me, Jeroboam and all Israel!

Cross References: Deuteronomy 11:29; Joshua 20:7; 2 Chronicles 20:20

5 Don't you know that the Lord God of Israel gave the kingdom of Israel to David and his descendants forever, by a covenant confirmed with salt?

Cross References: 2 Samuel 7:12; Numbers 18:19; Leviticus 2:13

6 But Jeroboam son of Nebat, a servant of Solomon son of David, rebelled against his master.

Cross References: 1 Kings 11:26; 1 Kings 12:20; 1 Kings 11:31

7 Then worthless and reckless men joined him and overpowered Rehoboam, Solomon's son, who was young and inexperienced and couldn't stand up to them.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:8; 1 Kings 12:13; Proverbs 27:12

8 Now you're trying to resist the kingdom of the Lord, which is in the hands of David's descendants. You have a huge army, and you've brought along those golden calves Jeroboam made as your gods.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:28; Exodus 32:4; Hosea 8:5

9 Haven't you driven out the priests of the Lord, the sons of Aaron and the Levites? You've appointed your own priests, just like the pagan nations do. Anyone who brings a young bull and seven rams can become a priest of these so-called gods.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:31; 1 Kings 13:33; Numbers 16:40

10 But as for us, the Lord is our God, and we have not abandoned Him. The priests who serve the Lord are descendants of Aaron, and the Levites assist them.

Cross References: Numbers 3:10; Exodus 28:1; 1 Chronicles 23:13

11 Every morning and evening they offer burnt offerings and fragrant incense to the Lord. They also arrange the bread of the Presence on the pure table, and they light the gold lampstand with its lamps every evening. We are following the instructions of the Lord our God—but you have abandoned Him.

Cross References: Exodus 29:38; Exodus 25:30; Exodus 25:31

12 Look, God is with us! He is our leader. His priests sound the battle trumpets to call us to war. People of Israel, don't fight against the Lord, the God of your ancestors—for you will not succeed!"

Cross References: Numbers 10:9; Joshua 6:4; 2 Chronicles 20:21

God Delivers Judah in Battle

13 But Jeroboam had set a trap to ambush them from behind, so the army of Judah was surrounded, front and back.

Cross References: Joshua 8:4; Judges 20:29; Joshua 8:14

14 When Judah turned around and saw that they were under attack from both sides, they cried out to the Lord. Then the priests blew the trumpets.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 20:9; Exodus 14:10; Psalm 50:15

15 The men of Judah shouted their battle cry, and as they shouted, God struck down Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and the army of Judah.

Cross References: Joshua 6:20; 2 Chronicles 20:22; 1 Samuel 17:52

16 The Israelites fled from Judah, and God handed them over.

Cross References: Leviticus 26:8; Deuteronomy 28:7; 2 Chronicles 14:12

17 Abijah and his troops inflicted a massive defeat—500,000 of Israel’s best soldiers were killed.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 14:20; 2 Chronicles 28:6; Judges 20:35

18 So the people of Israel were defeated at that time, and the people of Judah were victorious because they relied on the Lord, the God of their ancestors.

Abijah’s Legacy

19 Abijah pursued Jeroboam and captured the cities of Bethel, Jeshanah, and Ephron, along with their surrounding towns.

Cross References: 1 Kings 12:29; Genesis 28:19; Amos 7:13

20 Jeroboam never regained his strength during Abijah’s lifetime. The Lord struck him, and he died.

Cross References: 1 Kings 14:20; 1 Samuel 25:38; Acts 12:23

21 But Abijah grew powerful. He had 14 wives and fathered 22 sons and 16 daughters.

Cross References: 1 Kings 11:3; Deuteronomy 17:17; 2 Chronicles 11:21

22 The rest of Abijah’s story—his actions and speeches—are recorded in the writings of the prophet Iddo.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:7; 2 Chronicles 9:29; 2 Chronicles 12:15

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 13

1. God Keeps His Covenant Abijah reminds Israel that God gave the throne to David’s line forever. God honors His promises, even when people forget them. 2. False Religion Leads to Ruin Jeroboam replaced the true priests and the worship of the Lord with man-made religion and idols, leading to Israel’s defeat. 3. God Honors Those Who Depend on Him Judah’s victory came not from superior numbers, but from their dependence on God and obedience to His ways. 4. Faithful Worship Matters Abijah’s emphasis on faithful sacrifices, priesthood, and temple practices shows that true worship must be grounded in God’s instructions. 5. Even in Political Chaos, God Rules Though Judah was the smaller kingdom, their reliance on the Lord turned the tide of battle. God is sovereign even when things seem stacked against us. 6. You Can’t Fight Against God and Win Abijah’s final warning is timeless: no one who fights against the Lord will prosper. This chapter is a vivid reminder of that truth.

2 Chronicles Chapter 14 — Crawford Standard Bible

Asa Becomes King and Brings Reform

1 When Abijah died, he was buried in the City of David. His son Asa became king after him. During Asa's reign, the land had peace for ten years.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:8; 1 Kings 15:24; Judges 3:11

2 Asa did what was right and good in the eyes of the Lord his God.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:11; 2 Kings 18:3; Deuteronomy 6:18

3 He removed the pagan altars and high places. He smashed the sacred stone pillars and cut down the Asherah poles.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 12:3; Exodus 34:13; 2 Kings 18:4

4 He commanded the people of Judah to seek the Lord, the God of their ancestors, and to obey His laws and commandments.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 4:29; 2 Chronicles 15:12; 2 Chronicles 17:4

5 Asa also removed the high places and incense altars from every city in Judah. Because of this, the kingdom was at peace under his rule.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:14; 2 Chronicles 15:17; Numbers 33:52

A Time of Peace and Preparation

6 Asa built fortified cities in Judah during this time of peace, since there was no war in those years. The Lord had given him rest.

Cross References: Leviticus 26:6; Psalm 29:11; Isaiah 26:12

7 Asa said to the people of Judah, "Let's build up these towns and surround them with walls, towers, gates, and bars while we still have peace in the land. We have sought the Lord our God, and because we sought Him, He has given us peace on every side." So they built and prospered.

Cross References: Nehemiah 2:17; Nehemiah 4:6; 2 Chronicles 17:12

8 Asa had an army of 300,000 men from Judah who carried large shields and spears. From Benjamin, he had 280,000 men who carried small shields and bows. All of them were brave warriors.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 12:24; 2 Chronicles 17:14; 1 Chronicles 27:1

Victory over the Ethiopian Invasion

9 Then Zerah the Ethiopian came to attack with an army of one million men and 300 chariots. They advanced as far as Mareshah.

Cross References: Habakkuk 3:7; 2 Chronicles 12:3; Isaiah 37:9

10 Asa went out to meet him, and they took up battle positions in the Valley of Zephathah at Mareshah.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 17:2; Joshua 15:44; Micah 1:15

11 Asa cried out to the Lord his God: “Lord, You can help whether we have many or few. Help us, Lord our God, for we depend on You, and in Your name we have come against this great army. Lord, You are our God—don’t let mere men defeat You!”

Cross References: 1 Samuel 14:6; 2 Chronicles 20:12; Psalm 33:16

12 So the Lord struck down the Ethiopians before Asa and the army of Judah, and the Ethiopians fled.

Cross References: Exodus 14:27; 1 Samuel 7:10; 2 Chronicles 20:22

13 Asa and his troops chased them as far as Gerar, and the entire Ethiopian army was crushed—they could not recover. They were destroyed by the Lord and His army, and Asa’s forces took a great amount of loot.

Cross References: Judges 4:16; 1 Samuel 17:52; Genesis 26:1

14 They also attacked all the towns around Gerar, because the fear of the Lord had fallen on them. They plundered all the towns, which held a tremendous amount of wealth.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 2:25; Exodus 23:27; Genesis 26:14

15 They also raided the camps where the herders kept their livestock, and they took away many sheep and camels. Then they returned to Jerusalem.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 30:20; Job 1:3; Genesis 26:14

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 14

1. True Reformation Requires Action Asa didn’t just speak of faith—he removed idols, destroyed pagan altars, and called the people to obey God’s commands. Faith leads to change. 2. Peace Comes from Seeking God The nation had rest and prosperity because Asa led Judah to seek the Lord wholeheartedly. 3. Prepare in Times of Peace Asa wisely built up defenses during peaceful times, showing that wisdom plans ahead—not in fear, but in faith. 4. God Responds to Humble Dependence Asa’s prayer before battle was a beautiful picture of full dependence on the Lord: “We rest on You.” 5. Victory Belongs to the Lord Judah’s massive enemy was defeated not by superior power, but because they trusted in God. 6. Fear of the Lord Opens the Way for Blessing Even enemy cities fell and yielded wealth, not because of Judah’s power, but because the fear of the Lord spread ahead of them.

Azariah’s Prophetic Warning and Encouragement

1 Then the Spirit of God came upon Azariah son of Oded.

Cross References: Judges 6:34; Numbers 24:2; 1 Samuel 10:6

2 He went out to meet Asa and said, “Listen to me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin: The Lord is with you while you are with Him. If you seek Him, you will find Him. But if you abandon Him, He will abandon you.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 4:29; James 4:8; 1 Chronicles 28:9

3 For a long time, Israel was without the true God, without teaching priests, and without the law.

Cross References: Judges 17:6; Hosea 3:4; Amos 8:11

4 But whenever they turned back to the Lord, the God of Israel, in their distress and sincerely searched for Him, they found Him.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 4:30; Jeremiah 29:13; Judges 3:9

5 In those times, it wasn't safe to travel—there was chaos everywhere, and great turmoil afflicted all the nations.

Cross References: Zechariah 8:10; Judges 5:6; Judges 2:14

6 One nation crushed another, one city clashed with another, because God troubled them with every kind of hardship.

Cross References: Isaiah 19:2; Haggai 2:22; Judges 2:15

7 But you, be strong! Don't give up, for your efforts will be rewarded."

Asa's Renewed Reforms

8 When Asa heard these words and the prophecy of Azariah, he took courage. He removed the detestable idols from all of Judah and Benjamin and from the towns he had captured in the hill country of Ephraim. Then he repaired the altar of the Lord that was in front of the temple entrance.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:12; 1 Kings 18:30; 2 Chronicles 33:16

9 He gathered together all the people of Judah and Benjamin, along with many from the tribes of Ephraim, Manasseh, and Simeon who had come to live with them. These people had left Israel to join Asa when they saw that the Lord his God was with him.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 11:16; 2 Chronicles 30:11; 2 Chronicles 30:18

10 So they all assembled in Jerusalem in the third month of Asa's fifteenth year as king.

Cross References: Exodus 19:1; Leviticus 23:16; Deuteronomy 16:16

11 On that day, they sacrificed to the Lord 700 cattle and 7,000 sheep from the plunder they had taken.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:63; 2 Chronicles 30:24; Numbers 7:87

12 Then they entered into a covenant to seek the Lord, the God of their ancestors, with all their heart and soul.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 6:5; Jeremiah 50:5; 2 Kings 23:3

13 They even vowed that anyone who refused to seek the Lord God of Israel would be put to death, whether young or old, man or woman.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 13:9; Exodus 22:20; Deuteronomy 17:5

14 They shouted out their oath to the Lord with loud voices, trumpets, and ram's horns.

Cross References: Numbers 10:10; Joshua 6:20; 1 Samuel 4:5

15 Everyone in Judah rejoiced at the oath because they had sworn it with all their hearts. They sought God eagerly and He allowed them to find Him. So the Lord gave them peace on every side.

Cross References: Jeremiah 29:13; Isaiah 65:1; Joshua 21:44

Asa's Zeal for the Lord

16 King Asa also removed his grandmother Maacah from her position as queen mother because she had made a shameful Asherah pole idol. Asa cut it down, crushed it, and burned it in the Kidron Valley.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:13; Deuteronomy 7:5; Exodus 32:20

17 Although the high places of idol worship were not removed from Israel, Asa's heart was fully committed to the Lord all his life.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:14; 1 Kings 8:61; 1 Kings 11:4

18 He brought into God's temple the silver, gold, and articles that he and his father had dedicated.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:15; 1 Kings 7:51; 2 Samuel 8:11

19 And there was no more war until the thirty-fifth year of Asa's reign.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 16:1; 1 Kings 15:16; 2 Chronicles 14:1

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 15

1. God Honors Those Who Seek Him Azariah's message is timeless: if you seek God sincerely, you will find Him. But if you walk away from Him, He will let you go. 2. Revival Starts with Repentance and Courage Asa responded to God's word with boldness—removing idols, rebuilding worship, and gathering the people back to God. 3. Unity Comes Through Devotion People from multiple tribes joined Asa, not for politics, but because they saw God was with him. Spiritual leadership attracts faithful followers. 4. A Covenant with God Requires the Whole Heart The people didn't make empty promises—they swore an oath, rejoiced in it, and sought God with their whole desire. 5. Spiritual Zeal Doesn't Play Favorites Asa didn't excuse his grandmother's idolatry—he removed her from her royal position to honor God above family ties. 6. Wholehearted Faith Is Long-Term Asa's heart remained loyal to the Lord all his life, even though not every idol was torn down. God honors enduring faith.

Asa's Treaty with Syria

1 In the thirty-sixth year of Asa's reign, King Baasha of Israel came up against Judah and began to fortify Ramah so that no one could enter or leave the territory of King Asa of Judah.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:17; 1 Kings 15:33; Joshua 18:25

2 Asa responded by taking silver and gold from the treasuries of the Lord's Temple and the royal palace. He sent it to Ben-Hadad, king of Syria, who ruled in Damascus, with this message:

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:18; 2 Kings 12:18; 2 Kings 16:8

3 "Let there be a treaty between us, just as there was between my father and your father. I am sending you silver and gold. Break your treaty with King Baasha of Israel so that he will withdraw from me."

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:19; 1 Kings 20:34; Isaiah 30:2

4 Ben-Hadad agreed with King Asa and sent the commanders of his armies against the cities of Israel. They attacked Ijon, Dan, Abel-maim, and all the store cities of Naphtali.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:20; 1 Kings 15:29; 2 Kings 15:29

5 When Baasha heard what was happening, he stopped fortifying Ramah and abandoned the project.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:21; Proverbs 21:30; Isaiah 8:10

6 Then King Asa and all Judah took the building materials from Ramah—its stones and timber—and used them to fortify the towns of Geba and Mizpah.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:22; Joshua 18:24; Judges 20:1

The Prophet's Rebuke

7 At that time Hanani the seer came to King Asa and said, "Because you relied on the king of Syria and not on the Lord your God, you missed your chance to defeat the Syrian army.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 19:2; Isaiah 31:1; Psalm 20:7

8 Don't you remember the vast army of Ethiopians and Libyans, with all their chariots and horsemen? But because you relied on the Lord, He handed them over to you.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 14:9; 2 Chronicles 14:11; 1 Samuel 17:47

9 The eyes of the Lord search the whole earth to strengthen those whose hearts are fully committed to Him. What you've done is foolish. From now on, you will face wars."

Cross References: Zechariah 4:10; Proverbs 15:3; Job 34:21

10 Asa was furious with the seer and put him in prison because of this message. Asa also began to oppress some of the people at that time.

Cross References: Jeremiah 20:2; Jeremiah 37:15; 1 Kings 22:27

Asa's Final Years

11 The rest of Asa's reign—from beginning to end—is recorded in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:23; 2 Chronicles 25:26; 2 Chronicles 27:7

12 In the thirty-ninth year of his reign, Asa developed a serious disease in his feet. Yet even in his illness, he did not seek the Lord but only consulted the physicians.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 21:19; 2 Kings 1:2; Jeremiah 17:5

13 Asa died in the forty-first year of his reign.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:24; 2 Chronicles 21:1; 1 Kings 2:10

14 They buried him in his own tomb, which he had prepared for himself in the City of David. They laid him on a bed filled with spices and various fragrant perfumes, and they burned a huge funeral fire in his honor.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 21:19; Jeremiah 34:5; 2 Chronicles 32:33

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 16

1. Trust in God Over Political Alliances Asa leaned on a human alliance with Syria instead of trusting in the Lord—and it cost him. God seeks those who depend fully on Him. 2. Past Victories Don't Excuse Present Disobedience Asa had trusted God in earlier battles, but his faith faltered later in life. Finishing strong in faith is as important as starting well. 3. God Sees Hearts and Rewards Loyalty “The eyes of the Lord search the whole earth...” (v.9) reminds us that God is actively looking for people whose hearts are fully His. 4. Rejecting Correction Brings Further Consequences Asa imprisoned the prophet for speaking truth and began oppressing his own people. A hardened heart invites further downfall. 5. Seek God in Every Crisis—Even in Sickness Asa's failure to seek God during his disease shows that physical problems can reveal spiritual needs. Our first response should always be prayer. 6. A Legacy Is Shaped by Daily Trust Asa started strong but stumbled late in life. A person's legacy is defined by consistent faith, not just early success.

2 Chronicles Chapter 17 — Crawford Standard Bible

Jehoshaphat Strengthens the Kingdom

1 Jehoshaphat, Asa's son, became king after him, and he strengthened Judah's defenses against Israel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 15:24; 2 Chronicles 14:6; 2 Kings 3:7

2 He stationed troops in all the fortified cities of Judah and set up military outposts in the towns of Ephraim that his father Asa had previously captured.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 15:8; 1 Chronicles 11:16; 2 Chronicles 8:5

3 The Lord was with Jehoshaphat because he followed the early example of his ancestor David. He did not worship the Baals,

Cross References: 1 Kings 3:3; Judges 2:11; 2 Kings 18:3

4 but instead sought the God of his father and followed His commands, rather than following the practices of Israel.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 4:2; Deuteronomy 6:17; 2 Kings 17:15

5 Therefore, the Lord firmly established the kingdom in Jehoshaphat's hand. All Judah brought him gifts, and he became very wealthy and honored.

Cross References: 1 Kings 4:21; 1 Chronicles 29:12; 2 Chronicles 1:1

6 He was deeply committed to the ways of the Lord. He even removed the high places and Asherah poles from Judah.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 14:3; 2 Chronicles 15:8; Deuteronomy 7:5

Teaching the Law Throughout Judah

7 In the third year of his reign, Jehoshaphat sent out his officials—Ben-Hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel, and Micaiah—to teach in the cities of Judah.

Cross References: Nehemiah 8:7; Deuteronomy 33:10; Malachi 2:7

8 Along with them were Levites: Shemaiah, Nathaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah, and Tob-adonijah. The priests Elishama and Jehoram also accompanied them.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 19:8; Nehemiah 8:7; Numbers 35:2

9 They taught throughout Judah, carrying the Book of the Law of the Lord. They went through all the cities of Judah and taught the people.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 31:11; Nehemiah 8:8; 2 Kings 23:2

Jehoshaphat's Reputation and Army

10 Because of this, the fear of the Lord fell on all the surrounding kingdoms. None of them dared make war against Jehoshaphat.

Cross References: Genesis 35:5; Deuteronomy 2:25; 2 Chronicles 14:14 11 Even the Philistines brought him gifts and silver as tribute. The Arabians brought him 7,700 rams and 7,700 male goats.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:25; Psalm 72:10; 2 Chronicles 26:8

12 Jehoshaphat grew more and more powerful. He built fortresses and supply cities throughout Judah.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 14:6; 2 Chronicles 27:4; 2 Chronicles 8:6

13 He had many enterprises throughout the cities of Judah, and a strong army stationed in Jerusalem.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 27:1; 2 Chronicles 14:8; 2 Chronicles 26:11

The Mighty Men of Valor

14 This is the number of troops by families and clans: From Judah, the commanders of units of 1,000 were: Adnah the commander, with 300,000 brave warriors;

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 14:8; 1 Chronicles 12:24; 2 Chronicles 25:5

15 Next to him was Jehohanan, with 280,000 men;

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 27:2; 2 Chronicles 13:3; 1 Chronicles 12:25

16 Then came Amasiah son of Zichri, who volunteered himself for the service of the Lord, with 200,000 mighty warriors.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 29:9; Judges 5:2; 2 Chronicles 17:19

17 From Benjamin: Eliada, a brave warrior, led 200,000 armed men with bows and shields;

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 8:40; 1 Chronicles 12:2; 2 Chronicles 14:8

18 Next to him was Jehozabad with 180,000 prepared for battle.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 12:16; Numbers 1:3; 2 Chronicles 25:5

19 These men served the king in Jerusalem. Additional forces were stationed in all the fortified cities throughout Judah.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 27:1; 2 Chronicles 11:11; 1 Samuel 22:7

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 17

1. Obedience Attracts God's Favor Jehoshaphat prospered because he followed the ways of the Lord and did not adopt the corrupt religious practices of Israel. 2. Teach the Word of God One of Jehoshaphat's greatest acts was sending out teachers with the Law of the Lord to educate the people—an act of national revival. 3. Fear of the Lord Brings Peace Because Judah feared the Lord and lived according to His ways, surrounding nations were afraid to attack. Righteousness leads to security. 4. True Leadership Is Rooted in Commitment to God Jehoshaphat removed idols and invested in spiritual reform, showing that godly leadership starts with a heart set on honoring God. 5. God Rewards Faithful Servants Men like Amasiah “offered themselves willingly unto the Lord,” showing that God honors voluntary service and commitment. 6. Spiritual Strength Leads to Military Strength Jehoshaphat's spiritual reforms preceded his military success. The foundation of lasting national strength is spiritual obedience.

2 Chronicles Chapter 18 — Crawford Standard Bible

Jehoshaphat's Alliance with Ahab

1 Jehoshaphat had great riches and honor, and he formed an alliance through marriage with Ahab.

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:44; 2 Kings 8:18; 2 Chronicles 17:5

2 Some years later, he went to visit Ahab in Samaria. Ahab slaughtered many sheep and oxen to welcome him and the people with him. Then he persuaded Jehoshaphat to join him in attacking Ramoth-gilead.

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:2; 1 Kings 22:3; 1 Kings 20:34

3 Ahab king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, “Will you go with me to Ramoth-gilead?” Jehoshaphat replied, “I am as you are, and my people as your people; we will join you in the war.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:4; 2 Kings 3:7; Ruth 1:16

Seeking God’s Word

4 But Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, “Please, seek the word of the Lord first.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:5; 1 Samuel 30:8; Judges 20:27

5 So the king of Israel gathered four hundred prophets and asked them, “Should we go to war against Ramoth-gilead, or not?” They answered, “Go up, for God will give it into the king’s hand.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:6; 1 Kings 22:12; Jeremiah 23:16

6 But Jehoshaphat asked, “Isn’t there another prophet of the Lord we can consult?”

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:7; Jeremiah 37:17; Amos 5:10

7 The king of Israel said, “There is still one man—Micaiah son of Imla—but I hate him. He never prophesies anything good about me, only bad.” Jehoshaphat replied, “You shouldn’t say that.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:8; 1 Kings 21:20; Amos 5:10

The True Prophet: Micaiah

8 So the king of Israel called one of his officers and said, “Bring Micaiah son of Imla quickly.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:9; Jeremiah 36:21; 1 Kings 20:9

9 The kings of Israel and Judah were each sitting on their thrones, dressed in royal robes, at the gate of Samaria. All the prophets were prophesying before them.

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:10; 1 Kings 20:11; Esther 5:1

10 Zedekiah son of Chenaanah made iron horns and declared, “This is what the Lord says: With these you will gore the Arameans until they are destroyed!”

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:11; Deuteronomy 33:17; Zechariah 1:21

11 All the other prophets agreed, saying, “Go up and succeed! The Lord will give the city into the king’s hand.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:12; Jeremiah 28:2; Ezekiel 13:6

12 The messenger who went to get Micaiah told him, “Look, all the other prophets are saying good things to the king. Let your word be like theirs—speak favorably.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:13; Jeremiah 5:31; Micah 2:11

13 But Micaiah replied, “As surely as the Lord lives, I will say only what my God tells me to say.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:14; Numbers 22:18; Numbers 24:13

14 When Micaiah arrived, the king asked him, “Micaiah, shall we go to war against Ramoth-gilead, or not?” He answered sarcastically, “Sure, go and succeed! They’ll be given into your hand!”

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:15; Jeremiah 42:20; Ezekiel 14:4

15 But the king said, “How many times must I make you swear to tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the Lord?”

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:16; Judges 17:2; Matthew 26:63

16 Then Micaiah said, “I saw all Israel scattered on the hills like sheep without a shepherd. And the Lord said, ‘They have no master; let them go home in peace.’”

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:17; Numbers 27:17; Matthew 9:36

17 The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “Didn’t I tell you? He never prophesies anything good about me—only evil!”

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:18; 1 Kings 21:20; Amos 7:12

Heaven’s Council Room

18 Micaiah continued, “Therefore, hear the word of the Lord: I saw the Lord sitting on His throne, with all the armies of heaven around Him.

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:19; Isaiah 6:1; Job 1:6

19 The Lord said, ‘Who will entice Ahab king of Israel to go to battle at Ramoth-gilead so he can be killed?’ Some gave one suggestion, and others gave another.

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:20; Job 2:1; 1 Kings 22:22

20 Then a spirit came forward and said, ‘I will entice him.’

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:21; Job 1:6; Zechariah 3:1

21 ‘How?’ the Lord asked. The spirit replied, ‘I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouths of all his prophets.’ The Lord said, ‘You will succeed; go and do it.’

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:22; 1 Samuel 16:14; Ezekiel 14:9

22 So now, the Lord has put a lying spirit in the mouths of these prophets, and He has declared disaster against you.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:23; Ezekiel 14:9; 2 Thessalonians 2:11

Micaiah Is Imprisoned

23 Then Zedekiah son of Chenaanah came up and slapped Micaiah in the face. He said, “Which way did the Spirit of the Lord go from me to speak to you?”

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:24; Matthew 26:67; Jeremiah 20:2

24 Micaiah replied, “You will find out on the day you go into a room to hide.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:25; 1 Kings 20:30; Isaiah 26:20 25 The king of Israel ordered, “Take Micaiah back to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash, my son.

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:26; 2 Kings 25:23; Jeremiah 38:6

26 Tell them, ‘This is what the king says: Put this man in prison and feed him nothing but bread and water until I return safely.’”

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:27; 2 Chronicles 16:10; Jeremiah 37:15

27 Micaiah said, “If you return safely, then the Lord has not spoken through me.” And he added, “Listen, all you people!”

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:28; Deuteronomy 18:22; Ezekiel 33:33

The Death of Ahab

28 So the king of Israel and King Jehoshaphat of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead.

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:29; 2 Chronicles 35:22; 1 Kings 22:3

29 Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, “I’ll disguise myself when I go into battle, but you wear your royal robes.” So the king of Israel disguised himself and went to war.

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:30; 1 Samuel 28:8; 1 Kings 20:38

30 Now the king of Aram had ordered his chariot commanders, “Don’t fight anyone—great or small— except the king of Israel.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:31; 1 Kings 20:23; 2 Samuel 11:15

31 When the commanders saw Jehoshaphat, they thought, “This must be the king of Israel,” and they surrounded him. But Jehoshaphat cried out, and the Lord helped him. God drew them away from him.

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:32; 2 Chronicles 20:9; Psalm 50:15

32 When the chariot commanders realized he was not the king of Israel, they turned away from him.

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:33; Proverbs 21:30; Job 5:12

33 Then a soldier shot an arrow randomly, and it struck the king of Israel between the joints of his armor. He told his chariot driver, “Turn around and get me out of the battle—I’m badly wounded!”

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:34; 1 Kings 20:42; 1 Kings 21:19

34 The fighting raged all day. Ahab propped himself up in his chariot, facing the Arameans until evening. At sunset, he died.

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:35; 1 Kings 22:37; 1 Kings 21:19

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 18

1. Be Careful Who You Align With Jehoshaphat’s alliance with Ahab, a wicked king, brought him into a dangerous war. Partnerships should be rooted in shared faith and purpose. 2. False Prophets

Are Many, but Truth Is Singular Four hundred prophets said what Ahab wanted to hear, but only Micaiah spoke God's truth. Truth is not determined by majority opinion. 3. Speak God's Word—No Matter the Cost Micaiah courageously spoke the truth even when it meant imprisonment. Faithfulness to God means speaking what He says, not what people want to hear. 4. God Sees Behind the Curtain The vision of heaven's court reminds us that God is sovereign over all plans, decisions, and outcomes—even when people reject His warnings. 5. Disguises Can't Hide You from Judgment Ahab thought disguising himself would save him, but a "random" arrow struck him. God's judgment cannot be escaped by human schemes. 6. God Rescues Those Who Cry Out to Him When Jehoshaphat cried out in danger, the Lord intervened. He hears and delivers those who call on Him sincerely.

2 Chronicles Chapter 19 — Crawford Standard Bible

Jehoshaphat Rebuked for Helping Ahab

1 King Jehoshaphat of Judah returned safely to his home in Jerusalem.

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:37; 2 Chronicles 18:34; 1 Kings 22:2

2 But the prophet Jehu, son of Hanani, went out to meet him. He said to the king, "Should you help the wicked and love those who hate the Lord? Because of this, the Lord's anger is upon you.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 18:1; 2 Corinthians 6:14; James 4:4

3 Even so, there is some good in you, for you removed the Asherah poles from the land and have committed yourself to seek God."

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 17:6; 2 Chronicles 30:19; 1 Samuel 7:3

Jehoshaphat Leads the People to Repentance

4 Jehoshaphat lived in Jerusalem, but he went out among the people again—from Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim—and turned them back to the Lord, the God of their ancestors.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 17:7; 2 Chronicles 15:8; Deuteronomy 30:2

Righteous Judges Appointed Throughout Judah

5 He appointed judges throughout the land in all the fortified cities of Judah.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 16:18; Deuteronomy 1:16; Exodus 18:21

6 He instructed them, saying, "Be careful what you do, because you are not judging for people, but for the Lord, who is with you when you give judgment.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 1:17; Psalm 82:1; Deuteronomy 19:17

7 So let the fear of the Lord be upon you. Be careful in what you do, for the Lord our God does not tolerate injustice, partiality, or the taking of bribes."

Cross References: Deuteronomy 10:17; Deuteronomy 16:19; Leviticus 19:15

Justice Established in Jerusalem

8 In Jerusalem, Jehoshaphat also appointed some of the Levites, priests, and heads of Israelite families to administer the Lord's law and to settle disputes. These officials served when cases were brought back to Jerusalem.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 17:8; 1 Chronicles 23:4; 1 Chronicles 26:29

9 He gave them these instructions: "You must always act in the fear of the Lord, with honesty and a heart fully committed to Him.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 12:24; Joshua 24:14; 1 Chronicles 28:9

10 Whenever a case comes to you from fellow citizens who live in other cities—whether it's a matter of murder or civil law, commandment or regulation—you must warn them not to sin against the Lord. If you do this, you will not bring guilt upon yourselves and your fellow citizens."

Cross References: Deuteronomy 17:9; Ezekiel 3:18; Leviticus 10:11

Chief Leaders of Church and State

11 "Amariah the high priest will have authority over all matters concerning the Lord. Zebadiah son of Ishmael, the ruler of Judah, will handle all matters relating to the king. The Levites will serve as officials assisting you. Be strong and do your duty, and may the Lord be with those who do what is right."

Cross References: Joshua 1:9; 1 Chronicles 28:20; Deuteronomy 17:12

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 19

1. Don't Partner with the Ungodly Jehoshaphat's alliance with Ahab brought God's displeasure.

Helping those who hate the Lord invites correction, even if your intentions seem honorable. 2.

Faithfulness Does Not Cancel Accountability Although Jehoshaphat had done much good, he was still rebuked. God judges with fairness and expects accountability from all leaders. 3. Leaders Must Lead the People Back to God Jehoshaphat didn't just stay in Jerusalem—he went among the people to lead them in revival. True leadership involves shepherding others spiritually. 4. Justice Belongs to the Lord Judges were reminded that they rule on God's behalf. Godly leadership should be free of favoritism, bribes, and corruption. 5. Fear of the Lord Is the Foundation of Justice When leaders fear God and remain faithful, their decisions bring peace and righteousness to the people they serve. 6. Structure Matters in God's Kingdom Jehoshaphat established a clear system of leadership with spiritual and civic branches, showing that God values order and accountability in both religious and civil life.

6 He prayed, “O Lord, God of our ancestors, You are the God who is in heaven. You rule over all the kingdoms of the earth. You are powerful and mighty; no one can stand against You.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:23; Daniel 4:35; Psalm 47:8

7 O our God, didn’t You drive out the inhabitants of this land before Your people Israel, and give it forever to the descendants of Your friend Abraham?

Cross References: Genesis 15:18; Isaiah 41:8; James 2:23

8 Your people settled here and built this temple to honor Your name.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:20; 2 Chronicles 6:7; 1 Chronicles 22:10

9 They said, ‘Whenever we are faced with any calamity—whether war, plague, or famine—we can come to stand in Your presence before this temple where Your name is honored. We can cry out to You in our distress, and You will hear us and save us.’

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:33; 2 Chronicles 6:28; 2 Chronicles 7:14

The Crisis Described

10 “And now see what the armies of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir are doing. You wouldn’t let our ancestors invade those nations when Israel left Egypt, so they went around them and didn’t destroy them.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 2:4; Deuteronomy 2:9; Deuteronomy 2:19

11 Now see how they reward us—for they have come to throw us out of Your land, which You gave us as an inheritance.

Cross References: Psalm 83:12; Numbers 21:24; Psalm 79:1

12 O our God, won't You judge them? We are powerless against this vast army that is attacking us. We don't know what to do, but our eyes are on You."

Cross References: Psalm 121:1; Psalm 123:2; Judges 11:27

13 All the people of Judah stood before the Lord with their little ones, wives, and children.

God Speaks Through Jahaziel

14 Then the Spirit of the Lord came upon Jahaziel son of Zechariah (a Levite of the sons of Asaph) as he stood in the assembly.

Cross References: Numbers 11:25; 1 Samuel 10:10; Joel 2:28

15 He said, "Listen, all of you people of Judah and Jerusalem! Listen, King Jehoshaphat! This is what the Lord says: Do not be afraid or discouraged by this mighty army, for the battle is not yours, but God's.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 17:47; Exodus 14:14; 2 Chronicles 32:8

16 Tomorrow, march out against them. You will find them coming up through the ascent of Ziz at the end of the valley that opens into the wilderness of Jeruel.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 23:29; Judges 7:9; Numbers 21:13

17 But you won't even need to fight. Take your positions; stand still and watch the Lord's victory. He is with you, O people of Judah and Jerusalem! Do not be afraid or discouraged. Go out tomorrow, for the Lord is with you!"

Cross References: Exodus 14:13; Exodus 14:14; Psalm 46:10

Worship and Praise Before the Battle

18 Then King Jehoshaphat bowed low with his face to the ground. And all the people of Judah and Jerusalem did the same, worshipping the Lord.

Cross References: Genesis 24:26; Exodus 4:31; Nehemiah 8:6

19 Then the Levites from the clans of Kohath and Korah stood to praise the Lord, the God of Israel, with a very loud shout.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 6:31; Psalm 150:5; 1 Chronicles 25:1

Victory Through Worship

20 Early the next morning, the army of Judah went out into the wilderness of Tekoa. On the way, Jehoshaphat stopped and said, "Listen to me, people of Judah and Jerusalem! Believe in the Lord your God, and you will be established. Believe in His prophets, and you will succeed."

Cross References: Isaiah 7:9; Mark 9:23; John 11:40

21 After consulting the people, the king appointed singers to walk ahead of the army, singing to the Lord and praising Him for His holy splendor. This is what they sang: “Give thanks to the Lord; His faithful love endures forever!”

Cross References: Psalm 136:1; 1 Chronicles 16:34; Psalm 100:5

Enemies Destroy Themselves

22 At the very moment they began to sing and give praise, the Lord caused the armies of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir to start fighting among themselves.

Cross References: Judges 7:22; 1 Samuel 14:20; 2 Kings 3:23

23 The Ammonites and Moabites turned against their allies from Mount Seir and completely destroyed them. Then they attacked each other.

Cross References: Ezekiel 25:8; Isaiah 19:2; Zechariah 14:13

24 So when the army of Judah arrived at the lookout point in the wilderness, all they saw were dead bodies lying on the ground—as far as they could see. Not a single enemy had escaped.

Great Spoils and Celebration

25 King Jehoshaphat and his men went out to gather the plunder. They found vast amounts of equipment, clothing, and valuables—more than they could carry. There was so much plunder it took them three days to collect it all.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 30:19; Numbers 31:32; Joshua 22:8

26 On the fourth day they gathered in the Valley of Beracah (which means “blessing”) and praised the Lord. That is why the valley is called the Valley of Beracah to this day.

Cross References: Psalm 34:1; Genesis 32:30; Joshua 7:26

Return to Jerusalem

27 Then all the men of Judah and Jerusalem, with Jehoshaphat leading them, returned joyfully to Jerusalem, for the Lord had given them reason to rejoice over their enemies.

Cross References: Nehemiah 12:43; Psalm 126:3; Deuteronomy 30:9

28 They marched into Jerusalem to the music of harps, lyres, and trumpets, and went to the Temple of the Lord.

36 They agreed to build a fleet of trading ships at Ezion-geber to sail to Tarshish.

Cross References: 1 Kings 9:26; 1 Kings 22:48; 1 Kings 10:22

37 But Eliezer son of Dodavahu from Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, "Because you have allied yourself with Ahaziah, the Lord will destroy what you have made." So the ships were wrecked and were never able to set sail.

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:49; 2 Chronicles 19:2; Amos 3:3

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 20

1. Seek God First in Crisis Jehoshaphat's first reaction to trouble was fear—but he turned that fear into faith by seeking the Lord and calling the nation to pray. 2. God Fights for His People "The battle is not yours, but God's." When we trust God and stand in faith, He brings supernatural victory beyond our ability. 3. Worship Is a Weapon Praise led the way in battle—literally. As they sang, God set ambushes and confused their enemies. Worship invites divine intervention. 4. Stand Still and Watch God Work Sometimes, God calls us not to fight, but to stand firm in trust. Our posture of surrender becomes our position of victory. 5. There Is Blessing After the Battle The Valley of Beracah—meaning "blessing"—was a place of victory and abundance. What began as a threat ended in praise and prosperity. 6. Unequal Partnerships Bring Loss Jehoshaphat's alliance with wicked King Ahaziah led to ruined plans. God's people should not align themselves with those who oppose Him.

Jehoram Becomes King

1 Jehoshaphat died and was buried with his ancestors in the City of David. His son Jehoram became king after him.

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:50; 2 Kings 8:16; 2 Chronicles 20:31

2 Jehoram had several brothers—sons of Jehoshaphat—named Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, another Azariah, Michael, and Shephatiah. All were sons of King Jehoshaphat of Israel.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 17:7; 1 Chronicles 3:10; 2 Chronicles 11:23

3 Their father gave them valuable gifts of silver, gold, and other treasures, and assigned them fortified cities throughout Judah. But because Jehoram was the oldest, he gave him the kingdom.

Jehoram Kills His Brothers

4 When Jehoram secured control over the kingdom, he strengthened his rule by murdering all of his brothers with a sword, along with some of the leading officials of Israel.

Cross References: Judges 9:5; 2 Kings 11:1; 2 Chronicles 22:8

5 Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he began to reign, and he ruled in Jerusalem for eight years.

Cross References: 2 Kings 8:17; 2 Chronicles 20:31; 1 Kings 22:42

6 But he followed the evil ways of the kings of Israel, just like Ahab's family had done, because he had married one of Ahab's daughters. He did what was evil in the Lord's sight.

Edom and Libnah Rebel

8 During Jehoram's reign, the nation of Edom revolted against Judah's control and appointed their own king.

Cross References: 2 Kings 8:20; Genesis 27:40; 2 Samuel 8:14

9 Jehoram responded by marching out with his army and chariots. He launched a surprise nighttime attack and defeated the Edomite troops who had surrounded him and his chariot commanders.

Cross References: 2 Kings 8:21; Genesis 32:7; 2 Samuel 8:13

10 Even so, Edom has been independent from Judah to this day. Around the same time, the town of Libnah also rebelled against Jehoram's rule because he had abandoned the Lord, the God of his ancestors.

Cross References: 2 Kings 8:22; Joshua 10:29; Judges 2:12

Wickedness in Judah

11 Jehoram built pagan shrines in the hill country of Judah. He led the people of Jerusalem into idolatry and caused Judah to turn away from God.

Jehoram's Defeat and Death

16 Then the Lord stirred up the Philistines and the Arabians who lived near the Ethiopians to come against Jehoram.

Cross References: Judges 9:23; 1 Chronicles 5:26; 2 Chronicles 17:11

17 They invaded Judah and ransacked the royal palace. They carried off everything of value, including Jehoram's sons and wives. Only his youngest son, Jehoahaz, was left.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 22:1; 2 Kings 24:13; Deuteronomy 28:41

18 After this, the Lord struck Jehoram with an incurable disease in his bowels.

Cross References: 2 Kings 5:27; 1 Samuel 5:9; 2 Chronicles 21:15

19 After two years of suffering, his intestines came out due to the disease, and he died in excruciating pain. His people did not light a funeral fire in his honor, as they had for his ancestors.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 16:14; Jeremiah 22:18; Acts 1:18

No One Mourns the Wicked King

20 Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he began to reign, and he ruled in Jerusalem for eight years. No one regretted his death. Though they buried him in the City of David, he was not buried in the royal tombs of the kings.

Cross References: 2 Kings 8:24; 2 Chronicles 24:25; 2 Chronicles 28:27

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 21

1. God Honors His Covenant Even When Leaders Fail Though Jehoram was wicked, God didn't destroy the Davidic line because of His covenant with David. God keeps His promises. 2. Sinful Leadership Brings National Suffering Jehoram's rebellion against God led to political revolt, national instability, and eventually invasion and loss. 3. Idolatry Is Contagious By building pagan shrines and leading people into sin, Jehoram multiplied wickedness throughout Judah. Leadership carries influence. 4. Divine Warnings Should Be Taken Seriously God sent a direct warning through the prophet Elijah. Jehoram ignored it and faced the full consequences of his choices. 5. A Life Without God Leaves No Legacy Jehoram died in misery, unloved, unmourned, and dishonored. His life was remembered only for wickedness and pain.

2 Chronicles Chapter 22 — Crawford Standard Bible

Ahaziah Becomes King of Judah

1 After the death of Jehoram, the people of Jerusalem made his youngest son, Ahaziah, king in his place. The older sons had been killed by the raiders who came with the Arabians to the camp. So Ahaziah, the son of Jehoram, became king of Judah.

Cross References: 2 Kings 8:24; 2 Chronicles 21:17; 2 Kings 9:27

2 Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he began to reign, and he ruled in Jerusalem for one year. His mother's name was Athaliah, the granddaughter of Omri.

Cross References: 2 Kings 8:26; 1 Kings 16:29; 1 Kings 16:30

A Wicked Influence

3 Ahaziah followed the wicked example of Ahab's family, for his mother was his advisor and encouraged him to do wrong.

Cross References: 2 Kings 8:27; 1 Kings 21:25; Micah 6:16

4 He did what was evil in the Lord's sight, just like Ahab's house, for after his father died, they became his counselors—and their advice led to his ruin.

Cross References: Micah 6:16; 1 Kings 12:8; Proverbs 13:20

A Fatal Alliance with Ahab's Son

5 Following their counsel, Ahaziah joined Jehoram, the son of Ahab, king of Israel, in a war against King Hazael of Syria at Ramoth-gilead. The Syrians wounded Jehoram.

Cross References: 2 Kings 8:28; 1 Kings 22:29; 2 Kings 9:15

6 Jehoram returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds he had received at Ramah in the battle against Hazael. Then King Ahaziah of Judah went down to Jezreel to visit him because he was sick.

Cross References: 2 Kings 8:29; 2 Kings 9:16; 2 Kings 9:17

Ahaziah's Death Foretold by God

7 God had decided to bring about Ahaziah's downfall through this visit to Jehoram. When Ahaziah arrived, he went with Jehoram to confront Jehu, son of Nimshi, whom the Lord had appointed to destroy Ahab's dynasty.

Cross References: 2 Kings 9:6; 1 Kings 19:16; 2 Kings 9:24

8 While Jehu was executing judgment on Ahab's family, he found the princes of Judah and Ahaziah's nephews, who were serving him, and killed them all.

Cross References: 2 Kings 10:12; 2 Kings 10:11; 2 Kings 9:27

9 Then Jehu searched for Ahaziah, who was hiding in Samaria. They found him and brought him to Jehu, and he was executed. But they gave him a proper burial, for they said, "He was the grandson of Jehoshaphat, who sincerely sought the Lord with all his heart." So there was no one left in Ahaziah's family with the strength to rule the kingdom.

Cross References: 2 Kings 9:27; 2 Chronicles 17:3; 1 Kings 22:43

Athaliah's Evil Reign Begins

10 When Athaliah, Ahaziah's mother, realized her son was dead, she seized power by killing all the remaining royal heirs of the house of Judah.

Cross References: 2 Kings 11:1; Exodus 1:16; Matthew 2:16

11 But Jehoshabeath, daughter of King Jehoram and sister of Ahaziah, took Ahaziah's infant son Joash and hid him away from the rest of the king's sons who were being killed. She placed him and his nurse in a spare bedroom. Because Jehoshabeath was married to Jehoiada the priest, she safely hid Joash in the Temple of God, and Athaliah did not find him.

Cross References: 2 Kings 11:2; Exodus 2:3; Matthew 2:13

12 Joash remained hidden with them in God's Temple for six years while Athaliah ruled the land.

Cross References: 2 Kings 11:3; 2 Chronicles 23:1; Exodus 2:9

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 22

1. Evil Counsel Leads to Destruction Ahaziah listened to wicked advisors, especially his mother Athaliah and the house of Ahab, which ultimately led to his death. Whose voice we follow shapes our destiny. 2. Bad Alliances Bring Ruin Ahaziah's alliance with Ahab's family brought him into judgment alongside them. Aligning with ungodly people often leads to shared consequences. 3.

God's Judgment Is Certain The downfall of Ahaziah was not random—it was divinely ordained as part of God's judgment on Ahab's house and those who aligned with it. 4. The Preservation of God's Promise Though Athaliah tried to wipe out the royal line of David, God protected the baby Joash through faithful people like Jehoshabeath and Jehoiada. God's promises cannot be thwarted. 5.

Even in Darkness, God Raises Up Hope While Athaliah ruled in wickedness, God was preparing a righteous king in secret. His redemptive work often begins quietly and grows with time.

2 Chronicles Chapter 23 — Crawford Standard Bible

Jehoiada's Secret Plan to Restore the True King

1 In the seventh year of Athaliah's reign, Jehoiada the priest took courage and made a covenant with the commanders of the army—Azariah son of Jeroham, Ishmael son of Jehohanan, Azariah son of Obed, Maaseiah son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat son of Zichri.

Cross References: 2 Kings 11:4; 2 Chronicles 22:12; 2 Kings 11:9

2 They traveled throughout Judah and gathered the Levites and leaders from all the towns. Then they came together to Jerusalem.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 15:4; 2 Chronicles 5:2; 2 Kings 11:4

3 There in God's Temple, the whole assembly made a covenant with the king. Jehoiada said, "Here is the king's son! He must reign, just as the Lord promised concerning the descendants of David."

Cross References: 2 Kings 11:17; 2 Samuel 7:12; Psalm 132:11

The Restoration Plan Is Set in Motion

4 "Here's what you must do," Jehoiada told them. "A third of you priests and Levites who are on duty this Sabbath are to guard the doorways.

Cross References: 2 Kings 11:5; 1 Chronicles 24:1; 1 Chronicles 9:25

5 Another third will stand guard at the king's palace, and the final third will be at the Foundation Gate. All the rest of the people will gather in the courtyards of the Lord's Temple.

Cross References: 2 Kings 11:6; 1 Chronicles 9:22; 1 Chronicles 26:1

6 Only the priests and Levites who are on duty may enter the Temple itself, for they are holy. All the others must stay outside and guard the Lord's presence.

Cross References: Numbers 18:7; Numbers 1:51; Ezekiel 44:9

7 The Levites must surround the king with weapons in hand. Anyone who tries to enter the Temple must be killed. Stay close to the king wherever he goes."

Cross References: 2 Kings 11:8; 1 Chronicles 12:33; Numbers 3:38

The King Is Crowned in the House of God

8 So the Levites and all the people of Judah followed Jehoiada's instructions. The priests didn't release their shifts, so the incoming and outgoing groups served together that Sabbath.

Cross References: 2 Kings 11:9; 1 Chronicles 24:19; 2 Chronicles 8:14

9 Jehoiada gave the commanders the spears, shields, and small shields that had belonged to King David and were kept in God's Temple.

Cross References: 2 Kings 11:10; 1 Chronicles 18:7; 2 Samuel 8:7

10 He positioned the men with weapons from the south side to the north side of the Temple, standing by the altar and around the king.

Cross References: 2 Kings 11:11; Numbers 3:26; 1 Chronicles 9:19

11 Then they brought out the king's son, placed the crown on his head, gave him a copy of the law, and anointed him as king. And they shouted, "Long live the king!"

Cross References: 2 Kings 11:12; 1 Samuel 10:24; 1 Kings 1:39

Athaliah Is Executed

12 When Athaliah heard the noise of celebration and the people running to see what was happening, she came to the Lord's Temple.

Cross References: 2 Kings 11:13; 2 Chronicles 23:13; Nehemiah 4:20

13 There she saw the new king standing at his pillar of authority at the entrance, surrounded by the commanders, the trumpeters, and a crowd rejoicing with music and singers leading praises. Athaliah tore her clothes and shouted, "Treason! Treason!"

Cross References: 2 Kings 11:14; 2 Kings 23:3; Genesis 37:29

14 Jehoiada the priest ordered the commanders, "Take her out of the Temple grounds and kill anyone who tries to defend her. Don't kill her in the Lord's Temple."

Cross References: 2 Kings 11:15; Leviticus 20:3; Numbers 15:36

15 So they seized her, and when she reached the Horse Gate by the king's palace, they killed her there.

Cross References: 2 Kings 11:16; Nehemiah 3:28; Jeremiah 31:40

The Nation Returns to the Lord

16 Then Jehoiada made a covenant between himself, the king, and all the people that they would be the Lord's people.

Cross References: 2 Kings 11:17; Exodus 19:5; Deuteronomy 26:18

17 All the people went to the temple of Baal and tore it down. They smashed its altars and images and killed Mattan, the priest of Baal, in front of the altars.

Cross References: 2 Kings 11:18; Judges 6:27; 2 Kings 10:27

18 Jehoiada assigned the priests and Levites to their proper roles, as David had instructed, to offer burnt offerings in the Lord's Temple with songs of praise and joy, just as Moses had written and David had arranged.

Cross References: 2 Kings 11:18; 1 Chronicles 23:2; 1 Chronicles 25:1

19 He stationed gatekeepers at all the entrances to ensure no one who was ceremonially unclean could enter.

Cross References: 2 Kings 11:19; 1 Chronicles 26:12; Ezekiel 44:9

Joash Begins His Reign in Peace

20 Then Jehoiada took the commanders, the nobles, the leaders of the people, and the entire population, and together they escorted the king from the Temple to the royal palace. They entered through the Upper Gate and placed the king on the throne.

Cross References: 2 Kings 11:19; 1 Kings 1:46; 1 Chronicles 29:23

21 So all the people rejoiced, and the city remained calm because Athaliah had been killed with the sword.

Cross References: 2 Kings 11:20; 2 Chronicles 20:30; 1 Chronicles 4:40

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 23

1. God Always Preserves His Promises Though Athaliah tried to destroy the royal line, God's promise to David remained intact. Joash, the rightful heir, was protected and restored at the right time. 2. Righteous Leadership Requires Boldness Jehoiada risked his life to stand for righteousness. Courageous leaders are needed to confront evil and lead people back to God. 3. Revival Begins with Covenant Renewal Jehoiada led the people in renewing their commitment to the Lord. Revival often starts with a return to God's Word and a fresh dedication to His ways. 4. True Worship Replaces False Idols The people tore down the temple of Baal and restored the worship of the one true God. Genuine revival leads to removing idols and restoring holy worship. 5. Peace Follows Obedience After Joash was crowned and Athaliah was removed, the land was filled with joy and peace. God's blessing rests on those who walk in His ways.

2 Chronicles Chapter 24 — Crawford Standard Bible

Joash Reigns Under Jehoiada's Guidance

1 Joash was seven years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for forty years. His mother's name was Zibiah, from Beersheba.

Cross References: 2 Kings 12:1; 2 Chronicles 22:12; 2 Kings 11:21

2 Joash did what was right in the sight of the Lord as long as Jehoiada the priest was alive.

Cross References: 2 Kings 12:2; 2 Chronicles 24:17; 2 Chronicles 24:18

3 Jehoiada arranged two wives for him, and he had sons and daughters.

Cross References: Genesis 24:4; 2 Chronicles 22:11; Deuteronomy 7:3

The Temple of the Lord Is Repaired

4 Some time later, Joash decided to restore the Temple of the Lord.

Cross References: 2 Kings 12:4; 1 Chronicles 22:19; Haggai 1:8

5 He gathered the priests and Levites and told them, “Go to all the towns of Judah and collect the money required each year by the law of Moses to repair the Temple of your God. Move quickly on this matter.” But the Levites did not act immediately.

Cross References: 2 Kings 12:6; Exodus 30:12; Nehemiah 10:32

6 So the king summoned Jehoiada the chief priest and asked, “Why haven’t you required the Levites to bring in from Judah and Jerusalem the collection Moses commanded for the Tabernacle of the Covenant?”

Cross References: Exodus 38:26; Exodus 25:2; Numbers 1:50

7 For the sons of Athaliah—that wicked woman—had broken into God’s Temple and had even used the sacred things for the worship of Baal.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 21:6; 2 Kings 11:18; Daniel 5:3

A Chest for Offerings and a Joyful Response

8 At the king’s command, a large chest was made and placed outside the gate of the Temple of the Lord.

Cross References: 2 Kings 12:9; Mark 12:41; Exodus 25:10 9 Then a proclamation was sent throughout Judah and Jerusalem, instructing the people to bring to the Lord the tax that Moses had required in the wilderness.

Cross References: Exodus 30:13; 2 Chronicles 30:5; 2 Kings 12:9

10 All the leaders and people gladly brought their contributions and dropped them into the chest until it was full.

Cross References: 2 Kings 12:10; 1 Chronicles 29:9; 2 Corinthians 9:7

11 Whenever the chest was brought to the king’s officials by the Levites and they saw that a lot of money had been collected, the king’s secretary and the high priest’s official would come and empty the chest, then return it to its place. This was done day after day, and a great amount of money was collected.

Cross References: 2 Kings 12:10; Exodus 36:5; 2 Kings 22:9

12 The king and Jehoiada gave the funds to those who supervised the work on the Temple. They hired masons and carpenters to restore the Lord’s Temple, as well as workers skilled in iron and bronze.

Cross References: 2 Kings 12:11; 1 Kings 5:18; 2 Chronicles 34:11

13 The men worked faithfully, and the repairs progressed well under their supervision. They restored the Temple of God to its original form and strengthened it.

Cross References: 2 Kings 12:14; Ezra 6:14; 2 Chronicles 29:35

14 When the work was completed, the remaining money was used to make articles for the Temple—tools for worship, utensils, and vessels of gold and silver. Burnt offerings were offered in the Temple continually as long as Jehoiada lived.

Jehoiada's Death and Joash's Rebellion

15 Jehoiada lived a long life and died at the age of 130.

Cross References: Genesis 25:8; Job 42:17; Genesis 50:26

16 He was buried among the kings in the City of David because of the good he had done for Israel, for God, and for the Temple.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 24:25; 1 Kings 2:10; 2 Chronicles 32:33

17 But after Jehoiada's death, the leaders of Judah came and bowed before King Joash, and he listened to them.

Cross References: Judges 2:19; Proverbs 29:12; 2 Chronicles 22:3

18 They abandoned the Temple of the Lord, the God of their ancestors, and began worshiping Asherah poles and idols. Because of this sin, God's anger fell upon Judah and Jerusalem.

Cross References: Judges 2:12; Deuteronomy 31:17; 2 Chronicles 21:11

19 The Lord sent prophets to warn them and call them back, but the people refused to listen.

The Martyrdom of Zechariah and God's Judgment

20 Then the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah son of Jehoiada the priest. He stood before the people and said, "This is what God says: Why do you disobey the Lord's commands and bring disaster on yourselves? Because you have abandoned the Lord, He has also abandoned you."

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 15:2; Numbers 11:25; Matthew 23:35

21 But they conspired against Zechariah and stoned him to death at the king's command right in the courtyard of the Lord's Temple.

Cross References: Matthew 23:35; Luke 11:51; Acts 7:52

22 King Joash showed no gratitude for the kindness Jehoiada had shown him, and he killed Jehoiada's son. As Zechariah died, he said, "May the Lord see this and bring judgment."

Cross References: Genesis 4:10; 2 Chronicles 24:2; Luke 18:7

Joash Is Defeated and Assassinated

23 At the end of the year, the Aramean army came to Judah and Jerusalem. They killed all the leaders of the people and sent the loot to the king of Damascus.

Cross References: 2 Kings 12:17; Amos 1:4; 2 Chronicles 24:24

24 Although the Aramean army was small, the Lord allowed them to defeat a much larger army because the people of Judah had abandoned Him, the God of their ancestors. So He used the Arameans to bring judgment against Joash.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 14:6; Leviticus 26:36; 2 Chronicles 24:18

25 After the Arameans withdrew, Joash was severely wounded. His own officials conspired against him for murdering Zechariah son of Jehoiada, and they killed him on his bed. He died and was buried in the City of David, but not in the royal tombs.

Cross References: 2 Kings 12:20; 2 Chronicles 24:22; 2 Chronicles 21:20

26 The conspirators were Zabad son of Shimeath, an Ammonite woman, and Jehozabad son of Shimrith, a Moabite woman.

Cross References: 2 Kings 12:21; Deuteronomy 23:3; 2 Chronicles 24:22

27 The account of Joash's sons, the many prophecies about him, and his restoration of the Temple of God are recorded in the Book of the Kings. His son Amaziah succeeded him as king.

Cross References: 2 Kings 12:19; 2 Chronicles 25:1; 2 Kings 14:1

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 24

1. Godly Influence Is Powerful but Temporary Joash served the Lord while Jehoiada was alive, but his faith collapsed without that spiritual support. We must cultivate our own lasting relationship with God, not depend solely on others. 2. Willing Hearts Fuel God's Work When Joash challenged the people to give toward the Temple, they responded joyfully. God's people thrive when generosity is paired with purpose. 3. Ungratefulness Is a Dangerous Sin Joash forgot the kindness of Jehoiada and murdered his son Zechariah. Ingratitude can lead to terrible betrayal and spiritual blindness. 4. God Sees and Judges All Things Zechariah's final cry was, "May the Lord see and repay." God's justice is never out of reach— even when it seems delayed. 5. Rebellion Brings Ruin Judah's return to idolatry after Jehoiada's death brought destruction. Forsaking the Lord removes His hand of protection and invites consequences.

2 Chronicles Chapter 25 — Crawford Standard Bible

Amaziah Begins His Reign

1 Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for twenty-nine years. His mother's name was Jehoaddan, from Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Kings 14:1; 2 Kings 14:2; 2 Chronicles 24:1

2 He did what was right in the eyes of the Lord, but not wholeheartedly.

Cross References: 2 Kings 14:3; 2 Chronicles 24:2; 2 Chronicles 25:14

3 After his authority as king was firmly established, he executed the officials who had assassinated his father the king.

Cross References: 2 Kings 14:5; 2 Chronicles 24:25; 2 Chronicles 24:26

4 However, he did not kill their children, as it is written in the Law of Moses, where the Lord commanded: “Parents must not be put to death for their children, nor children for their parents; each person must die for their own sin.”

Cross References: 2 Kings 14:6; Deuteronomy 24:16; Ezekiel 18:20

Preparing for Battle — But Not with Israel’s Help

5 Amaziah assembled the people of Judah and assigned them commanders of thousands and of hundreds, according to their family divisions, across all Judah and Benjamin. He counted all the men twenty years and older and found there were 300,000 capable warriors trained with spear and shield.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 27:1; 2 Chronicles 17:14; 2 Chronicles 26:13

6 He also hired 100,000 experienced fighters from Israel for 100 talents of silver.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 25:9; 2 Chronicles 25:10; 1 Kings 20:1

7 But a man of God came to him and said, “King, do not let the army of Israel go with you. The Lord is not with Israel—He is not with the people of Ephraim.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 13:12; 2 Chronicles 19:2; 2 Chronicles 20:37

8 If you insist on going with them into battle, be prepared to lose. God has the power to help you or to bring you down.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 20:6; Psalms 20:7; Proverbs 21:31

9 Amaziah asked the man of God, “But what about the silver I already paid the Israelite troops?” The man of God replied, “The Lord can give you much more than that.”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 25:8; Job 1:21; Philippians 4:19

Victory and Consequences

10 So Amaziah dismissed the troops from Ephraim and sent them home. They were furious with Judah and left in great anger.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 25:13; 2 Chronicles 25:6; 1 Samuel 29:4

11 Then Amaziah boldly led his own people to the Valley of Salt, where they defeated 10,000 men from Seir.

Cross References: 2 Kings 14:7; 2 Samuel 8:13; Psalms 60:1

12 They captured another 10,000 alive, took them to the top of a cliff, and threw them down, shattering them on the rocks below.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 20:10; Obadiah 1:3; Amos 1:11

13 Meanwhile, the Israelite soldiers who had been dismissed raided cities in Judah between Samaria and Beth Horon. They killed 3,000 people and took much plunder.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 25:10; 2 Chronicles 28:6; 1 Samuel 30:1

Amaziah's Idolatry and Warning

14 After defeating the Edomites, Amaziah brought back their gods, set them up as his own, bowed before them, and burned incense to them.

Cross References: Judges 2:11; Judges 2:12; Isaiah 44:17

15 This made the Lord very angry, so He sent a prophet to say, "Why are you worshiping the gods of a nation that couldn't even protect its own people from you?"

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 25:20; Jeremiah 2:11; Isaiah 46:7

16 While the prophet was still speaking, the king interrupted and said, "Who made you the king's advisor? Stop talking before I have you killed!" The prophet replied, "I know that God has decided to destroy you, because you have done this and won't listen to correction."

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 24:20; 2 Chronicles 24:21; 2 Chronicles 16:10

Amaziah Challenges Israel and Is Defeated

17 After this, Amaziah consulted his advisors and sent a challenge to King Joash of Israel, son of Jehoahaz and grandson of Jehu, saying, "Come and face me in battle."

Cross References: 2 Kings 14:8; 2 Chronicles 13:2; 1 Kings 12:16

18 Joash responded with a parable: "A thistle in Lebanon sent a message to a cedar, asking for its daughter's hand in marriage for his son. Then a wild animal came by and trampled the thistle.

Cross References: 2 Kings 14:9; Judges 9:8; Judges 9:15

19 You've defeated Edom, and now you're proud. But stay at home! Why bring trouble on yourself and Judah?"

Cross References: 2 Kings 14:10; Proverbs 16:18; Proverbs 18:12

20 But Amaziah refused to listen, for God had determined to hand him over to his enemies, because he had turned to the gods of Edom.

Cross References: 2 Kings 14:11; 2 Chronicles 25:15; 1 Kings 22:20

Israel Defeats Judah and Plunders Jerusalem

21 So King Joash of Israel went to battle. He and King Amaziah of Judah met at Beth Shemesh, in Judah.

Cross References: 2 Kings 14:11; Joshua 15:10; 1 Samuel 6:12

22 Judah was defeated, and the soldiers fled to their homes.

Cross References: 2 Kings 14:12; 2 Chronicles 25:6; Deuteronomy 28:25

23 Joash captured Amaziah and marched to Jerusalem. He broke down 600 feet of the city wall—from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate.

Cross References: 2 Kings 14:13; Nehemiah 1:3; 2 Chronicles 26:6

24 He looted all the gold, silver, and sacred articles in the Temple, which had been cared for by Obed-Edom, along with treasures from the royal palace and hostages. Then he returned to Samaria.

Cross References: 2 Kings 14:14; 1 Kings 14:26; 2 Chronicles 12:9

The End of Amaziah

25 Amaziah, son of Joash, king of Judah, lived fifteen years after the death of King Joash of Israel.

Cross References: 2 Kings 14:17; 2 Kings 13:12; 2 Chronicles 24:27

26 The rest of Amaziah's deeds, from beginning to end, are written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

Cross References: 2 Kings 14:18; 2 Chronicles 20:34; 2 Chronicles 24:27

27 After Amaziah turned away from the Lord, a conspiracy formed against him in Jerusalem. He fled to Lachish, but assassins were sent after him and killed him there.

Cross References: 2 Kings 14:19; 2 Chronicles 24:25; Joshua 10:31

28 His body was brought back on horseback and buried in the City of Judah alongside his ancestors.

Cross References: 2 Kings 14:20; 2 Chronicles 24:16; 2 Chronicles 21:20

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 25

1. Partial Obedience Is Not Enough Amaziah did what was right—but not wholeheartedly. God desires our complete devotion, not half-hearted loyalty. 2. Obedying God May Require Sacrifice Amaziah was willing to lose silver to obey God's word. Faith sometimes means giving up personal investments for obedience. 3. Idolatry Is Irrational and Offensive to God Amaziah worshiped the gods of the people he defeated. This foolish act led to his downfall. We must not give our hearts to anything but God. 4. Pride Leads to Destruction After his victory over Edom, Amaziah's pride pushed him to challenge Israel unnecessarily, resulting in disaster. Humility guards us from foolish conflict. 5. Refusing Correction Invites Ruin Amaziah rejected the prophet's rebuke, sealing his judgment. God warns us through others so we might turn and live. 6. Falling Away Brings Consequences After Amaziah turned from the Lord, conspiracy, defeat, and assassination followed. Drifting from God never ends well.

2 Chronicles Chapter 26 — Crawford Standard Bible

Uzziah Becomes King at Sixteen

1 Then all the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was only sixteen years old, and made him king in place of his father Amaziah.

Cross References: 2 Kings 14:21; 2 Kings 14:22; 2 Chronicles 25:1

2 He rebuilt the town of Elath and restored it to Judah after his father's death.

Cross References: 2 Kings 14:22; 1 Kings 9:26; 2 Kings 16:6

3 Uzziah was sixteen when he began to reign, and he ruled in Jerusalem for fifty-two years. His mother's name was Jecoliah of Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Kings 15:2; 2 Chronicles 24:1; 2 Chronicles 25:1

4 He did what was right in the Lord's eyes, just as his father Amaziah had done.

Cross References: 2 Kings 15:3; 2 Chronicles 25:2; 2 Chronicles 27:2

5 Uzziah sought God during the days of Zechariah, who had insight in the visions of God. As long as Uzziah sought the Lord, God caused him to succeed.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 15:2; 1 Chronicles 28:9; Zechariah 1:1

Military Strength and Prosperity

6 Uzziah went to war against the Philistines. He tore down the walls of Gath, Jabneh, and Ashdod and built cities in their territory.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 21:16; 2 Chronicles 21:17; Amos 1:6

7 God helped him against the Philistines, the Arabians living in Gurbaal, and the Mehunites.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 14:12; 2 Chronicles 17:11; Judges 6:3

8 The Ammonites paid tribute to Uzziah, and his fame spread all the way to the borders of Egypt because he had become very powerful.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 17:10; 2 Chronicles 17:11; 1 Kings 4:21

9 He built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate, the Valley Gate, and the angle in the wall, and fortified them.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 32:5; Nehemiah 3:1; 2 Chronicles 14:7

10 He also built towers in the wilderness and dug many wells, for he had large herds in the lowlands and plains. He had farmers and vineyard workers in the hills and fertile fields, for he loved agriculture.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 27:26; 1 Chronicles 27:29; 1 Chronicles 27:31

A Mighty Army and Military Innovations

11 Uzziah had a well-organized army ready for battle. Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the officer kept records under Hananiah, one of the king's commanders.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 27:1; 2 Chronicles 17:14; 2 Chronicles 25:5

12 There were 2,600 clan leaders who led the army.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 27:1; 2 Chronicles 17:14; 1 Chronicles 7:40

13 Under their command was a powerful force of 307,500 trained soldiers who could help the king defeat his enemies.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 17:14; 2 Chronicles 25:5; 1 Chronicles 21:5

14 Uzziah provided them with shields, spears, helmets, armor, bows, and slings for throwing stones.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 14:8; 1 Samuel 17:5; Ephesians 6:14 15 In Jerusalem he invented machines designed by skilled men for use on the towers and walls to shoot arrows and large stones. His fame spread far and wide, for he was marvelously helped until he became powerful.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 14:7; 2 Chronicles 17:12; Proverbs 16:18

Uzziah's Pride and His Punishment

16 But after Uzziah became strong, pride led to his downfall. He was unfaithful to the Lord his God. He entered the Temple of the Lord to burn incense on the altar, something only the priests were allowed to do.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 8:14; Proverbs 16:18; Hosea 13:6

17 Azariah the priest, along with eighty other courageous priests, followed him into the Temple.

Cross References: Numbers 16:40; Exodus 30:7; Numbers 3:10

18 They confronted King Uzziah and said, "It is not your place to burn incense to the Lord, Uzziah. That job belongs to the priests, the descendants of Aaron, who have been consecrated for this task. Leave the sanctuary! You've sinned, and the Lord God will not honor you for this."

Cross References: Numbers 16:5; Exodus 30:7; Numbers 18:7

19 Uzziah, holding a censer in his hand, became angry. While he raged at the priests, leprosy broke out on his forehead right there beside the altar of incense.

Cross References: Numbers 12:10; Leviticus 13:44; 1 Samuel 13:13

20 When Azariah and the other priests saw the leprosy, they rushed him out. Uzziah himself hurried to leave because the Lord had afflicted him.

Cross References: Leviticus 13:45; Leviticus 13:46; Numbers 12:10

21 King Uzziah had leprosy until the day he died. He lived in a separate house, excluded from the Temple of the Lord. His son Jotham took charge of the palace and governed the people of the land.

Cross References: Leviticus 13:46; 2 Kings 15:5; Numbers 12:14

The End of Uzziah's Life

22 The rest of Uzziah's deeds, from beginning to end, were written down by the prophet Isaiah, son of Amoz.

Cross References: Isaiah 1:1; Isaiah 6:1; Hosea 1:1

23 Uzziah died and was buried near his ancestors in a field reserved for kings, though not in the royal tombs, because people said, "He was a leper." And his son Jotham became king in his place.

Cross References: 2 Kings 15:7; 2 Chronicles 26:21; 2 Chronicles 27:1

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 26

1. God Blesses Those Who Seek Him Uzziah prospered as long as he sought the Lord under godly guidance. Divine favor follows those who pursue God with humility and purpose. 2. Success Can Lead to Pride Uzziah's fame, power, and accomplishments made him proud. Pride blinded him to God's boundaries, leading to his downfall. Strength without humility is dangerous. 3. Respect God's Order and Holiness Uzziah's attempt to take over priestly duties violated God's laws. Spiritual leadership is not something to seize but to be called into. Reverence and obedience are always required. 4. Leaders Are Not Above Accountability Even a king was not exempt from correction. The courage of the priests shows the importance of standing for righteousness, even when it's hard. 5. Sin Has Consequences That Can't Be Undone by Power Uzziah's leprosy isolated him from society and from the Temple. No position or accomplishment can shield us from the discipline of God. 6. God Uses Prophets to Record and Warn Isaiah recorded Uzziah's reign as both a testimony and a warning. God provides clear records so His people can learn and grow.

2 Chronicles Chapter 27 — Crawford Standard Bible

Jotham's Reign Begins

1 Jotham was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he ruled in Jerusalem for sixteen years. His mother was Jerushah, the daughter of Zadok.

Cross References: 2 Kings 15:33; 2 Kings 15:32; 2 Chronicles 26:23

2 He did what was right in the eyes of the Lord, just as his father Uzziah had done, but he did not enter the Temple of the Lord. However, the people continued to live corruptly.

Cross References: 2 Kings 15:34; 2 Chronicles 26:16; 2 Kings 15:35

Construction and Expansion

3 Jotham rebuilt the Upper Gate of the Lord's Temple and did extensive work on the wall at the hill of Ophel.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 33:14; Nehemiah 3:26; Nehemiah 3:27

4 He also built towns in the hill country of Judah and constructed fortresses and towers in the forest regions.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 26:9; 2 Chronicles 26:10; 2 Chronicles 17:12

Victory Over Ammon and Tribute Received

5 Jotham went to war against the king of the Ammonites and defeated them. That year, the Ammonites paid him a tribute of 7,500 pounds of silver, 62,000 bushels of wheat, and 62,000 bushels of barley. They continued to pay him this same amount in the second and third years as well.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 26:8; 1 Chronicles 19:2; 2 Samuel 10:1

His Strength and Legacy

6 So Jotham grew powerful because he was intentional about ordering his ways before the Lord his God.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 26:5; 2 Chronicles 17:3; 1 Chronicles 28:7

7 The rest of Jotham's actions, including his wars and accomplishments, are recorded in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah.

Cross References: 2 Kings 15:36; 2 Chronicles 27:9; 1 Kings 14:19

8 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he ruled for sixteen years in Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 27:1; 2 Kings 15:33; 2 Chronicles 26:3

9 Jotham died and was buried in the City of David. His son Ahaz became king in his place.

Cross References: 2 Kings 15:38; 2 Chronicles 27:1; 2 Chronicles 28:1

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 27

1. Faithfulness Brings Strength Jotham grew strong not because of military might alone, but because he aligned his ways with the Lord. Spiritual integrity leads to lasting success. 2. A Good Leader Can't Always Change a Corrupt People Even though Jotham ruled righteously, the people remained corrupt. This reminds us that personal faithfulness does not always result in national repentance—but it is still essential. 3. Building God's House Matters Jotham invested in the Temple and the infrastructure of Judah. God-honoring leadership includes investing in what brings people closer to God. 4. Obedience Can Lead to Peace and Prosperity Because of his obedience, Jotham not only prospered but even received tribute from foreign nations. God honors those who honor Him. 5. Wisdom Includes Knowing Your Boundaries Jotham did not repeat his father Uzziah's mistake of entering the Temple unlawfully. He respected God's boundaries and maintained order.

2 Chronicles Chapter 28 — Crawford Standard Bible

Ahaz Turns from the Lord

1 Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he ruled in Jerusalem for sixteen years. But he did not do what was right in the eyes of the Lord, as his ancestor David had done.

Cross References: 2 Kings 16:1; 2 Kings 16:2; 2 Chronicles 29:1

2 Instead, he followed the example of the kings of Israel and made cast images to worship the Baals.

Cross References: 1 Kings 16:31; 1 Kings 16:32; 1 Kings 16:33

3 He even burned incense in the Valley of Hinnom and sacrificed his own children in fire—imitating the detestable practices of the nations that the Lord had driven out ahead of Israel.

Cross References: 2 Kings 16:3; Leviticus 18:21; Jeremiah 7:31

4 He offered sacrifices and burned incense at the high places, on the hills, and under every green tree.

Cross References: 2 Kings 16:4; Deuteronomy 12:2; 1 Kings 14:23

Defeat and Captivity

5 So the Lord his God handed him over to the king of Syria. The Syrians defeated him, took many people captive, and brought them to Damascus. He was also handed over to the king of Israel, who inflicted a heavy defeat.

Cross References: 2 Kings 16:5; Isaiah 7:1; 2 Chronicles 24:24

6 Pekah, son of Remaliah, killed 120,000 warriors in Judah in one day because they had abandoned the Lord, the God of their ancestors.

Cross References: 2 Kings 15:37; Isaiah 7:1; 2 Chronicles 13:17

7 Zichri, a powerful warrior from Ephraim, killed Maaseiah the king's son, Azrikam the palace administrator, and Elkanah, who was next in authority to the king.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 28:6; 1 Kings 15:29; 2 Chronicles 21:17

8 The people of Israel captured 200,000 from their own brothers and sisters in Judah—including women and children. They also took much plunder and brought it all to Samaria.

Cross References: 2 Kings 5:2; Deuteronomy 28:41; 2 Chronicles 21:17

Oded the Prophet Intervenes

9 But a prophet of the Lord named Oded was there. He went out to meet the army as they arrived in Samaria and said, "Because the Lord, the God of your ancestors, was angry with Judah, He let you defeat them. But you have slaughtered them in a rage that has reached up to heaven.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 25:15; Obadiah 1:10; Amos 1:11

10 And now you plan to make the people of Judah and Jerusalem your slaves. But aren't you just as guilty of sinning against the Lord your God?

Cross References: Leviticus 25:39; Leviticus 25:46; Amos 1:6

11 Now listen to me. Send back these captives, for the Lord's fierce anger is upon you!"

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 28:9; Deuteronomy 15:12; Jonah 3:9

12 Then some of the leaders of Ephraim—Azariah son of Johanan, Berekiah son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah son of Shallum, and Amasa son of Hadlai—stood up against the men returning from battle.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 19:11; 1 Chronicles 12:18; 2 Chronicles 24:20

13 They said, “You must not bring those captives here! We are already guilty before the Lord, and you are trying to add to our sins. Our guilt is great, and His anger is already burning against Israel.”

Cross References: Ezra 10:10; Ezra 9:6; Ezra 9:15

14 So the soldiers released the prisoners and the plunder before the leaders and the entire assembly.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 28:15; Deuteronomy 20:14; Genesis 45:2

15 The men whose names were listed took charge of the captives. They clothed the naked, gave them sandals, food, and drink, and treated their wounds. Then they put the weak ones on donkeys and escorted them back to their families in Jericho, the city of palm trees. Then they returned to Samaria.

22 During his time of distress, King Ahaz became even more unfaithful to the Lord.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 33:23; Isaiah 1:5; Jeremiah 5:3

23 He sacrificed to the gods of Damascus, who had defeated him. He said, “Since the gods of the kings of Syria helped them, I will sacrifice to them so they will help me.” But instead, they led to his ruin and the downfall of all Israel.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 25:14; 2 Chronicles 25:15; Judges 10:14

24 Ahaz collected the sacred items from the Temple of God, cut them into pieces, locked the doors of the Temple, and set up altars on every street corner in Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Kings 16:17; 2 Chronicles 29:3; 2 Chronicles 36:19

25 He also built pagan shrines in every town in Judah to burn incense to other gods. In doing this, he made the Lord, the God of his ancestors, very angry.

Ahaz's Death and Legacy

26 The rest of the events of Ahaz's reign, from beginning to end, are recorded in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

Cross References: 2 Kings 16:19; 2 Chronicles 28:7; 2 Chronicles 27:7

27 When he died, he was buried in Jerusalem, but not in the royal tombs of the kings of Israel. His son Hezekiah succeeded him as king.

Cross References: 2 Kings 16:20; 2 Chronicles 21:20; 2 Chronicles 24:25

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 28

1. Turning from God Leads to Collapse Ahaz's rejection of the Lord opened the door to destruction, defeat, and foreign oppression. Spiritual rebellion always invites ruin. 2. God's Mercy Speaks Through Prophets Even in judgment, God sent Oded to plead for mercy and justice. God always raises voices of warning before executing judgment. 3. Unfaithfulness Cannot Be Bought Off Ahaz tried to solve spiritual problems with political alliances and money. But no bribe can replace obedience to God. 4. Idolatry Always Destroys Ahaz turned to the gods of those who had defeated him—an act of desperation and foolishness. False gods never bring peace, only ruin. 5. Compassion in the Midst of War The people of Israel, though initially in the wrong, listened to God's word through Oded and showed mercy to their brothers. Obedience to God includes how we treat others—even enemies.

Hezekiah Begins to Restore the Temple

1 Hezekiah was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he ruled in Jerusalem for twenty-nine years. His mother's name was Abijah, daughter of Zechariah.

Cross References: 2 Kings 18:2; Isaiah 1:1; 2 Chronicles 28:27

2 He did what was right in the eyes of the Lord, just as his ancestor David had done.

Cross References: 2 Kings 18:3; 2 Chronicles 34:2; 1 Kings 15:11

3 In the very first month of the first year of his reign, he reopened the doors of the Temple of the Lord and repaired them.

Purification of the Temple Begins

4 He summoned the priests and Levites and assembled them in the eastern square of the Temple.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 34:29; 2 Chronicles 15:9; Nehemiah 8:1

5 He said, “Listen to me, you Levites! Set yourselves apart for the Lord and purify the Temple of the Lord, the God of your ancestors. Remove all the defilement from the holy place.

Cross References: Leviticus 10:10; 2 Chronicles 34:8; 2 Chronicles 35:6

6 Our ancestors were unfaithful and did what was evil in the sight of the Lord our God. They abandoned Him, turned their backs on His dwelling place, and walked away from Him.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 28:22; 2 Chronicles 28:25; Jeremiah 2:13

7 They shut the doors to the entrance hall, extinguished the lamps, and stopped burning incense and offering burnt sacrifices at the holy place to the God of Israel.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 28:24; Malachi 1:10; 2 Chronicles 13:11 8 Because of this, the Lord’s anger fell on Judah and Jerusalem. He made them an object of horror, ridicule, and scorn, just as you see with your own eyes.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 28:37; 2 Chronicles 28:5; Jeremiah 24:9

9 Because of this, our fathers were killed in battle, and our sons, daughters, and wives were taken captive.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 28:5; 2 Chronicles 28:8; Lamentations 1:5

10 Now I am determined to make a covenant with the Lord, the God of Israel, so that His fierce anger will turn away from us.

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:3; 2 Chronicles 15:12; Nehemiah 9:38

11 My sons, don’t be negligent now! The Lord has chosen you to stand before Him and serve Him, to minister and burn incense.”

Temple Cleansing Report and Sacrifices

18 Then they went to King Hezekiah and said, "We've cleansed the entire Temple of the Lord—the altar of burnt offerings with all its utensils, the table of the Bread of the Presence with all its utensils,

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 28:24; Exodus 25:30; 1 Kings 7:48

19 and all the things King Ahaz discarded during his reign when he was unfaithful. We have prepared and sanctified them. They are now in front of the Lord's altar."

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 28:24; 2 Chronicles 28:19; 2 Chronicles 33:16

20 Early the next morning, King Hezekiah gathered the city officials and went to the Temple of the Lord.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 29:4; 2 Chronicles 29:21; Nehemiah 12:44

21 They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven male lambs, and seven male goats as a sin offering for the kingdom, the sanctuary, and Judah. He ordered the priests, the descendants of Aaron, to offer them on the Lord's altar.

Cross References: Leviticus 4:14; Job 1:5; Ezra 6:17

22 They slaughtered the bulls, collected the blood, and sprinkled it on the altar. They did the same with the rams and lambs.

Cross References: Leviticus 4:25; Leviticus 1:5; Leviticus 3:2

23 Then the goats for the sin offering were brought before the king and the assembly. They laid their hands on them,

Cross References: Leviticus 4:24; Leviticus 16:21; Leviticus 4:29

24 and the priests slaughtered them and presented their blood on the altar to atone for all Israel. The king had ordered the burnt offering and the sin offering for all Israel.

Cross References: Leviticus 4:20; Leviticus 16:16; Ezekiel 45:17

Worship Is Restored

25 Hezekiah stationed the Levites in the Temple of the Lord with cymbals, harps, and lyres, as commanded by David, Gad the king's seer, and the prophet Nathan. This was a command from the Lord through His prophets.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 25:1; 1 Chronicles 23:5; 2 Chronicles 8:14

26 The Levites stood with David's instruments, and the priests stood with trumpets.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 15:16; Numbers 10:10; 1 Chronicles 15:24

27 Hezekiah ordered the burnt offering to begin. As the offering started, songs of praise to the Lord began, accompanied by trumpets and instruments set up by David, king of Israel.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 16:4; 1 Chronicles 16:6; Psalms 150:3

28 The entire assembly worshiped. The singers sang, the trumpets sounded, and all this continued until the burnt offering was completed.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 16:4; Ezra 3:11; Psalms 100:2

29 When the offerings were finished, the king and everyone present bowed down and worshiped.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 20:18; Nehemiah 8:6; Psalms 95:6

30 Then King Hezekiah and the officials told the Levites to sing praise to the Lord with the words of David and Asaph the seer. They sang joyfully and bowed in worship.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 16:7; Psalms 105:1; Ezra 3:10

A Joyful Response and Overflowing Worship

31 Hezekiah said, "Now that you have consecrated yourselves to the Lord, bring your sacrifices and thanksgiving offerings into the Temple." So the assembly brought sacrifices and thanksgiving offerings, and all whose hearts were willing brought burnt offerings.

Cross References: Leviticus 7:12; Exodus 35:5; 2 Chronicles 30:24

32 The number of burnt offerings brought by the assembly was seventy bulls, one hundred rams, and two hundred lambs—all as burnt offerings to the Lord.

Cross References: Numbers 28:11; 1 Chronicles 29:21; 2 Chronicles 7:5

33 They also brought six hundred bulls and three thousand sheep as sacrifices dedicated to the Lord.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 29:21; 2 Chronicles 7:5; 1 Kings 8:63

34 There weren't enough priests to skin all the burnt offerings, so their Levite brothers helped them until the work was finished and the priests had consecrated themselves. The Levites were more conscientious about purifying themselves than the priests.

Cross References: Numbers 18:3; Numbers 18:7; 2 Chronicles 35:11

35 There was a large number of burnt offerings, along with the fat of the peace offerings and the drink offerings for each burnt offering. In this way, the Temple service of the Lord was restored.

Cross References: Numbers 15:5; Leviticus 3:3; 1 Chronicles 23:31

36 Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced because God had prepared the people, and everything had been accomplished so quickly.

Cross References: Ezra 3:11; Ezra 6:22; Nehemiah 12:43

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 29

1. Revival Begins with Leadership Hezekiah didn't wait—he led immediate reforms, reopening the Temple and calling the priests and Levites to holiness. 2. Personal and Corporate Cleansing Are Essential Before worship could resume, the house of the Lord—and the hearts of the people—had to be purified. 3. God Honors Diligent Obedience The Levites took their calling seriously and became examples of faithful service, even surpassing the priests in preparation. 4. Worship Must Be Rooted in the Word Hezekiah followed the commands of the Lord through David, Gad, and Nathan. True worship aligns with Scripture, not personal preference. 5. Restoration Can Be Swift When Hearts Are Willing God moved mightily when the people obeyed—restoring worship, peace, and joy in just sixteen days.

2 Chronicles Chapter 30 — Crawford Standard Bible

Hezekiah Invites All Israel to Celebrate the Passover

1 Hezekiah sent word to all Israel and Judah, and he also wrote letters to the tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh, inviting them to come to the Temple of the Lord in Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover to the Lord, the God of Israel.

Cross References: Exodus 12:1; 2 Chronicles 35:1; Deuteronomy 16:1

2 The king and his officials, along with the entire assembly in Jerusalem, had decided to celebrate the Passover in the second month,

Cross References: Numbers 9:10; Numbers 9:11; 2 Chronicles 30:3

3 because they had not been able to celebrate it at the regular time. The priests had not yet purified themselves in sufficient numbers, and the people had not yet gathered in Jerusalem.

Cross References: Numbers 9:6; Numbers 9:13; 2 Chronicles 29:34

4 The plan pleased the king and all the assembly.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 29:36; Nehemiah 8:12; Esther 9:22

5 So they decided to send a proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beersheba to Dan, inviting everyone to come to Jerusalem and keep the Passover to the Lord, the God of Israel. The people had not celebrated it as prescribed for a long time.

Cross References: Judges 20:1; 1 Samuel 3:20; 2 Chronicles 30:13

6 Messengers went out with letters from the king and his officials, spreading throughout all Israel and Judah. The message read: “People of Israel, return to the Lord, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, so He will return to the remnant of you who have survived the hand of the kings of Assyria.

Cross References: Zechariah 1:3; Malachi 3:7; Exodus 3:6

7 Don’t be like your ancestors and relatives who were unfaithful to the Lord, the God of their ancestors, so He made them objects of horror, as you can see.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 29:8; 2 Chronicles 29:9; Zechariah 1:4

8 Don’t be stubborn like they were. Yield yourselves to the Lord and come to His Temple, which He has made holy forever. Worship the Lord your God, so His fierce anger will turn away from you.

Cross References: Exodus 32:9; Deuteronomy 10:16; Psalms 95:8

9 If you return to the Lord, your relatives and children will be shown compassion by those who took them captive, and they will return to this land. For the Lord your God is gracious and merciful. He will not turn His face away from you if you return to Him.”

Cross References: Exodus 34:6; Nehemiah 9:17; Joel 2:13

Mixed Response from Israel, but Unity in Judah

10 The messengers traveled from city to city throughout Ephraim and Manasseh and as far as Zebulun, but most of the people laughed at them and mocked them.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 36:16; Jeremiah 20:8; Luke 16:31

11 However, some people from Asher, Manasseh, and Zebulun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 30:18; 2 Chronicles 33:12; 1 Peter 5:6

12 In Judah, the hand of God moved the people to act with unity and obey the command of the king and the leaders, as spoken by the word of the Lord.

The Passover Is Celebrated with Great Joy

13 A very large crowd assembled in Jerusalem to celebrate the Festival of Unleavened Bread in the second month.

Cross References: Exodus 12:15; Exodus 23:15; 2 Chronicles 30:1

14 They removed the pagan altars in Jerusalem and got rid of all the incense altars, throwing them into the Kidron Valley.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 29:16; 2 Kings 23:12; 2 Chronicles 15:16

15 They slaughtered the Passover lambs on the fourteenth day of the second month. The priests and Levites were ashamed of their previous neglect, so they purified themselves and brought burnt offerings into the Temple.

Cross References: Exodus 12:6; Numbers 9:11; Leviticus 1:5

16 They stood at their posts as prescribed in the Law of Moses, the man of God. The priests sprinkled the blood handed to them by the Levites.

Cross References: Exodus 12:22; Leviticus 1:5; Numbers 8:9

17 Since many in the assembly had not purified themselves, the Levites had to slaughter the Passover lambs for everyone who was not clean, to dedicate them to the Lord.

Cross References: Numbers 9:6; Numbers 9:7; Ezekiel 44:11

18 A large number of the people—many from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun—had not purified themselves, yet they still ate the Passover meal, which was against what was written in the Law. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying,

Cross References: Numbers 9:10; Numbers 9:13; 2 Chronicles 30:19

19 “May the Lord, who is good, pardon everyone who prepares their heart to seek God, the Lord, the God of their ancestors, even if they are not ceremonially clean.”

Cross References: Numbers 9:13; Psalms 51:17; 1 Samuel 16:7

20 And the Lord listened to Hezekiah’s prayer and healed the people.

Cross References: Numbers 12:13; James 5:15; Psalms 103:3

Worship Continues with Praise and Celebration

21 The Israelites who were present in Jerusalem celebrated the Festival of Unleavened Bread for seven days with great joy. The Levites and priests praised the Lord day after day, singing loudly with musical instruments.

Cross References: Exodus 12:15; Deuteronomy 16:15; Nehemiah 8:17

22 Hezekiah encouraged all the Levites who had shown good understanding in the worship of the Lord. They ate together during the festival for seven days, offering peace offerings and making confession to the Lord, the God of their ancestors.

Cross References: Nehemiah 8:7; Nehemiah 8:8; 2 Chronicles 35:3

23 Then the whole assembly agreed to continue the celebration for another seven days, so they celebrated joyfully for another week.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:65; Numbers 9:19; Deuteronomy 16:15

24 King Hezekiah gave the assembly one thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep, and the leaders gave them one thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep. Many priests also purified themselves.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 29:6; 1 Chronicles 29:9; 2 Chronicles 35:7

25 All the people of Judah rejoiced, along with the priests and Levites, and everyone who had come from Israel, including the foreigners who lived in Israel and Judah.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 16:11; Deuteronomy 16:14; Nehemiah 8:17

An Unmatched Joy in Jerusalem

26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem. Nothing like this had happened in the city since the time of Solomon son of David, king of Israel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:65; 1 Kings 8:66; Nehemiah 8:17

27 Then the priests and Levites stood up and blessed the people. Their voice was heard, and their prayer reached God's holy dwelling place in heaven.

Cross References: Numbers 6:23; Numbers 6:26; 1 Kings 8:30

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 30

1. God Welcomes a Humble Return Despite their past sins and ceremonial uncleanness, God accepted those who came with hearts prepared to seek Him. 2. Unity in Worship Brings Great Joy When God's people—regardless of tribe or background—gather to honor Him, the result is unity, joy, and blessing. 3. Hezekiah Led with Compassion and Conviction The king didn't just issue orders—he prayed, encouraged, provided, and helped restore true worship. 4. Obedience Can Lead to Restoration Even after years of neglect, proper worship and national healing can happen quickly when leaders and people align with God's will. 5. God Listens to Sincere Prayer Hezekiah's intercession for the people showed God's mercy and grace. The Lord healed them, proving He responds to those who genuinely seek Him.

2 Chronicles Chapter 31 — Crawford Standard Bible

Nationwide Cleansing of Idolatry

1 When all of this was completed, the Israelites who had gathered went out to the cities of Judah. They smashed the pagan idols, cut down the Asherah poles, and tore down the pagan shrines and altars. They did this throughout all Judah and Benjamin, as well as in Ephraim and Manasseh, until everything was completely destroyed. Then all the Israelites returned to their own towns and homes.

Hezekiah Restores Temple Worship and Priesthood

2 Hezekiah reorganized the priests and Levites into their proper divisions, assigning each one his specific task, whether for burnt offerings or peace offerings, to serve, give thanks, or offer praise at the gates of the Temple.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 24:1; 1 Chronicles 25:1; 2 Chronicles 8:14

3 The king personally contributed from his own possessions for the morning and evening burnt offerings, as well as for those on Sabbaths, new moon festivals, and other appointed feasts, as prescribed in the Law of the Lord.

Cross References: Numbers 28:3; Numbers 28:9; Numbers 28:11

4 He also commanded the people living in Jerusalem to give the required portions to the priests and Levites so they could fully devote themselves to studying and teaching the Law of the Lord.

Cross References: Numbers 18:8; Nehemiah 13:10; Malachi 3:10

Abundance from the People

5 As soon as the order was issued, the people responded generously. They brought the firstfruits of their grain, new wine, olive oil, honey, and all their crops. They also brought a tenth of everything—the tithe—in great abundance.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 26:2; Nehemiah 10:35; Proverbs 3:9

6 Those Israelites and people of Judah who lived in the towns of Judah brought a tithe of their cattle and sheep and a tenth of all items dedicated to the Lord their God. They stacked them in large heaps.

Cross References: Leviticus 27:30; Nehemiah 13:12; Numbers 18:21

7 They began piling the contributions in the third month and finished in the seventh month.

Cross References: Exodus 23:16; Leviticus 23:39; Deuteronomy 16:13

8 When Hezekiah and his officials came and saw the heaps, they praised the Lord and His people Israel.

Hezekiah's Righteous Leadership

20 This is what Hezekiah did throughout all Judah. He did what was good, right, and faithful before the Lord his God.

Cross References: 2 Kings 18:3; 2 Chronicles 29:2; Deuteronomy 6:18

21 In everything he undertook for the service of God's Temple, and in obedience to God's laws and commands, he sought his God wholeheartedly. So he prospered.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 15:15; 1 Chronicles 22:19; Psalm 1:3

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 31

1. True Revival Brings Lasting Reform After worship was restored, the people went out and removed idolatry from their cities—revival is not just emotional, it's transformational. 2. Leadership Invests Personally Hezekiah didn't just instruct others—he gave from his own resources and led by example in worship, stewardship, and generosity. 3. Faithful Giving Produces Overflow When the people gave in obedience to God, the blessings were so abundant that they had surplus left over. God honors sacrificial giving. 4. Organization Matters in Ministry Hezekiah appointed leaders, established systems, and ensured every person had their proper role. Order and faithfulness work together in God's house. 5. Prosperity Follows Wholehearted Devotion Hezekiah prospered because he sought the Lord with all his heart—not for gain, but out of love and reverence. The result was both spiritual and material blessing.

2 Chronicles Chapter 32 — Crawford Standard Bible

Sennacherib Threatens Judah

1 After all that Hezekiah had done to establish the nation, Sennacherib king of Assyria invaded Judah. He camped against the fortified cities and planned to capture them for himself.

Cross References: 2 Kings 18:13; Isaiah 36:1; Isaiah 10:28

2 When Hezekiah realized that Sennacherib intended to attack Jerusalem,

Cross References: 2 Kings 18:17; Isaiah 36:2; 2 Chronicles 32:9

3 he consulted with his officials and military leaders about stopping the water from the springs outside the city—and they agreed to help.

Cross References: 2 Kings 20:20; Isaiah 22:9; 2 Chronicles 32:30

4 A large group gathered and stopped all the springs and the stream that flowed through the land. “Why should the kings of Assyria come and find plenty of water?” they said.

Cross References: 2 Kings 3:19; Isaiah 7:3; 2 Chronicles 32:30

Hezekiah Fortifies Jerusalem

5 Hezekiah took courage and rebuilt the entire broken wall, adding towers and a second wall outside it. He strengthened the supporting structure at the City of David and made large quantities of weapons and shields.

Cross References: Nehemiah 3:1; Isaiah 22:10; 2 Chronicles 26:9

6 He appointed military officers over the people and assembled them in the square by the city gate. There he encouraged them, saying,

Cross References: Deuteronomy 20:2; 2 Chronicles 20:20; Joshua 1:9

7 “Be strong and courageous! Don't be afraid or discouraged because of the king of Assyria and his vast army. There is a greater power with us than with him.

Cross References: 2 Kings 6:16; Deuteronomy 31:6; 2 Chronicles 20:15

8 He only has human strength, but we have the Lord our God to help us and fight our battles!” And the people were encouraged by the words of Hezekiah, king of Judah.

13 Don’t you know what I and my ancestors have done to all the peoples of other lands? Were their gods able to save them?

Cross References: 2 Kings 18:33; Isaiah 36:18; Isaiah 37:12

14 Which of all those gods was able to rescue their people from me? Why would your God be any different?

Cross References: 2 Kings 18:35; Isaiah 36:20; Isaiah 10:10

15 Don’t let Hezekiah deceive you. Don’t believe him! No god of any nation or kingdom has ever been able to rescue their people from me or my ancestors. How much less will your God deliver you!”

Cross References: 2 Kings 19:10; Isaiah 37:10; 2 Kings 18:29

Blasphemy and Terror Tactics

16 His officials said even more against the Lord God and against His servant Hezekiah.

Cross References: 2 Kings 19:6; Isaiah 37:6; Psalm 74:18

17 Sennacherib also wrote letters insulting the Lord, the God of Israel, claiming He was no different from the powerless gods of the other nations.

Cross References: 2 Kings 19:14; Isaiah 37:14; Isaiah 37:23

18 Then they shouted in Hebrew to the people standing on the wall, trying to terrify them and take the city.

Cross References: 2 Kings 18:28; Isaiah 36:13; Nehemiah 4:11

19 They spoke of the God of Jerusalem as if He were just another man-made god like the idols of the nations.

Cross References: 2 Kings 19:18; Isaiah 37:19; Psalm 115:4

The Lord Fights for Judah

20 Because of this, King Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz cried out in prayer to heaven.

Cross References: 2 Kings 19:14; Isaiah 37:15; Isaiah 37:21

21 And the Lord sent an angel who destroyed all the mighty warriors, leaders, and commanders in the Assyrian camp. Sennacherib was forced to return to his own land in disgrace. When he entered the temple of his god, his own sons murdered him with the sword.

Cross References: 2 Kings 19:35; Isaiah 37:36; 2 Kings 19:7

22 So the Lord saved Hezekiah and the people of Jerusalem from Sennacherib and all others, and He protected them on every side.

Cross References: 2 Kings 19:34; Isaiah 37:35; 2 Chronicles 20:30

23 Many brought gifts to the Lord in Jerusalem and valuable presents to King Hezekiah, and from then on he was highly respected by all nations.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 17:5; 2 Chronicles 9:23; 1 Chronicles 14:17

Hezekiah's Illness, Pride, and Humility

24 Around that time Hezekiah became deathly ill. He prayed to the Lord, and the Lord answered him and gave him a miraculous sign.

Cross References: 2 Kings 20:1; Isaiah 38:1; Isaiah 38:8

25 But Hezekiah did not respond appropriately to the kindness shown him—his heart became proud. As a result, God's anger came upon him, and also on Judah and Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 32:31; Isaiah 39:2; 2 Kings 20:13

26 But Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, along with the people of Jerusalem. So the Lord's anger did not fall on them during Hezekiah's lifetime.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 7:14; 2 Chronicles 33:12; 2 Kings 20:19

Hezekiah's Wealth and Achievements

27 Hezekiah had vast riches and honor. He built treasuries to hold his silver, gold, precious stones, spices, shields, and all kinds of valuable items.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 9:22; 1 Kings 10:23; 2 Chronicles 17:5

28 He also made storehouses for grain, wine, and oil, as well as stalls for cattle and pens for flocks.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 26:10; 1 Chronicles 27:25; Deuteronomy 28:8

29 He built towns and acquired many flocks and herds, for God had richly blessed him with possessions.

Cross References: Genesis 26:14; 2 Chronicles 26:10; Job 42:12

30 He also built a tunnel to bring water from the Gihon Spring to the west side of the City of David. Everything Hezekiah did succeeded.

Cross References: 2 Kings 20:20; 2 Chronicles 32:3; Isaiah 22:11

God Tests Hezekiah

31 However, when the ambassadors from Babylon came to learn about the miraculous sign, God withdrew from Hezekiah to test him and reveal what was in his heart.

Cross References: 2 Kings 20:12; Isaiah 39:1; Deuteronomy 8:2

The Death of Hezekiah

32 The rest of Hezekiah's deeds and his faithful works are recorded in the vision of Isaiah the prophet and in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

Cross References: 2 Kings 20:20; Isaiah 1:1; 2 Chronicles 26:22

33 When Hezekiah died, he was buried with honor among the descendants of David. All Judah and the people of Jerusalem honored him at his death. Then his son Manasseh became king in his place.

Cross References: 2 Kings 20:21; 2 Chronicles 24:16; 2 Chronicles 21:20

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 32

1. Trust God in the Face of Intimidation Hezekiah encouraged the people with faith—not fear. The Lord fought their battle when the enemy mocked and threatened. 2. Blasphemy Invites Judgment Sennacherib's pride and insults against the true God led directly to divine intervention and his eventual downfall. 3. Prayer is Powerful in Crisis Hezekiah and Isaiah cried out to God—and God answered with miraculous deliverance. Never underestimate the power of prayer. 4. Pride Can Follow Blessing Even after great victories, Hezekiah's pride brought danger. God tests the heart—not just the deeds—of His people. 5. God Desires Humility When Hezekiah humbled himself, God delayed His judgment. Humility can turn wrath into mercy. 6. God Prospers Those Who Seek Him Hezekiah's prosperity and success were a result of seeking God wholeheartedly—even through trials and threats.

2 Chronicles Chapter 33 — Crawford Standard Bible

Manasseh's Wicked Reign

1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for fifty-five years.

Cross References: 2 Kings 21:1; 2 Chronicles 32:33; 2 Kings 20:21

2 But he did what was evil in the sight of the Lord, imitating the detestable practices of the nations that the Lord had driven out before the people of Israel.

Cross References: 2 Kings 21:2; Leviticus 18:24; Deuteronomy 18:9

3 He rebuilt the pagan shrines his father Hezekiah had torn down. He set up altars for Baal and made Asherah poles. He also bowed down to all the stars of heaven and worshiped them.

Cross References: 2 Kings 21:3; 2 Chronicles 31:1; Deuteronomy 4:19

4 He built pagan altars in the Lord's Temple, the place where the Lord had said, "My name will remain in Jerusalem forever."

Cross References: 2 Kings 21:4; 1 Kings 8:29; 2 Chronicles 7:16

5 He built altars for all the stars of heaven in both courtyards of the Lord's Temple.

Cross References: 2 Kings 21:5; Zephaniah 1:5; Jeremiah 19:13

6 Manasseh also sacrificed his own children in the fire in the Valley of Ben-Hinnom. He practiced sorcery, divination, and witchcraft, and consulted mediums and psychics. He did much that was evil in the Lord's sight, provoking His anger.

Cross References: 2 Kings 21:6; Leviticus 18:21; Deuteronomy 18:10

7 He even set up a carved idol—the one he had made—in God's Temple, about which God had said to David and his son Solomon, "In this Temple and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen from all the tribes of Israel, I will put My name forever.

Cross References: 2 Kings 21:7; 2 Chronicles 7:16; 2 Samuel 7:13

8 If the people will obey all My commands—the whole law, statutes, and regulations given through Moses—I will not again remove them from this land I gave to their ancestors."

Cross References: 2 Kings 21:8; Deuteronomy 4:25; Joshua 23:15

9 But Manasseh led the people of Judah and Jerusalem to do even more evil than the pagan nations the Lord had destroyed when Israel entered the land.

Cross References: 2 Kings 21:9; 2 Kings 21:11; Jeremiah 15:4

Manasseh's Humbling and Restoration

10 The Lord spoke to Manasseh and his people, but they ignored Him.

Cross References: 2 Kings 21:10; 2 Chronicles 36:15; Jeremiah 7:13

11 So the Lord sent the army commanders of the king of Assyria, who captured Manasseh with hooks, bound him in bronze chains, and took him away to Babylon.

Cross References: Ezekiel 19:9; Ezekiel 19:4; Jeremiah 52:11 12 While in deep distress, Manasseh sought the Lord his God and humbled himself greatly before the God of his ancestors.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 4:29; 2 Chronicles 7:14; Psalm 51:17

13 When he prayed, the Lord listened to him and was moved by his request. He brought Manasseh back to Jerusalem and restored him to the throne. Then Manasseh finally realized that the Lord alone is God.

Cross References: Psalm 34:6; Jonah 2:1; Psalm 107:13

Manasseh's Reforms

14 After this, Manasseh rebuilt the outer wall of the City of David, from west of the Gihon Spring in the valley to the entrance of the Fish Gate, continuing around the hill of Ophel. He made it much higher and stationed military officers in all the fortified cities of Judah.

Cross References: Nehemiah 3:3; Nehemiah 3:26; 2 Chronicles 27:3

15 He removed the foreign gods and the idol from the Lord's Temple. He tore down all the altars he had built on the hill where the Temple stood and throughout Jerusalem, and he threw them out of the city.

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:12; 2 Chronicles 33:3; 2 Chronicles 15:8

16 Then he restored the altar of the Lord and offered peace offerings and thank offerings on it. He also commanded the people of Judah to worship the Lord, the God of Israel.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 29:35; Leviticus 7:12; Joshua 24:14

17 However, the people still sacrificed at the high places, but only to the Lord their God.

The End of Manasseh and Amon's Short Reign

18 The rest of Manasseh's deeds, his prayer to God, and the messages from the seers who spoke in the name of the Lord, the God of Israel, are recorded in the Book of the Kings of Israel.

Cross References: 2 Kings 21:17; 2 Chronicles 33:19; 1 Chronicles 29:29

19 His prayer and how God answered him, as well as all his sins, unfaithfulness, and the sites where he built pagan shrines and set up Asherah poles and idols before he humbled himself, are written in the records of the seers.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 33:12; 1 Chronicles 29:29; Psalm 51:1

20 When Manasseh died, he was buried in his own palace, and his son Amon became king in his place.

Cross References: 2 Kings 21:18; 2 Chronicles 33:1; 2 Kings 21:19

Amon's Evil and Death

21 Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for two years.

Cross References: 2 Kings 21:19; 2 Chronicles 33:1; 2 Kings 22:1

22 But he did what was evil in the sight of the Lord, just as his father Manasseh had done. Amon worshiped and sacrificed to all the idols his father had made.

Cross References: 2 Kings 21:20; 2 Chronicles 33:3; Exodus 20:5

23 But unlike his father, Amon did not humble himself before the Lord. Instead, he became even more guilty.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 33:12; 2 Kings 21:22; Jeremiah 5:3

24 Then his own officials conspired against him and assassinated him in his palace.

Cross References: 2 Kings 21:23; 2 Chronicles 24:25; 2 Chronicles 25:27

25 But the people of the land killed all those who had conspired against King Amon, and they made his son Josiah king in his place.

Cross References: 2 Kings 21:24; 2 Chronicles 23:21; 2 Kings 22:1

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 33

1. No One is Too Far Gone for God's Mercy Manasseh was among the most wicked kings, yet when he humbled himself, God heard his prayer and restored him. 2. Sin Has Consequences—Even for Leaders Manasseh's sin led to national idolatry and judgment. Leadership influences many, for good or for evil. 3. Genuine Repentance Brings Restoration God didn't just forgive Manasseh—He restored him to his throne, proving His mercy and power to redeem. 4. Spiritual Reforms Require Persistence Though Manasseh removed idols and restored worship, the people still clung to the high places. Reforming a nation requires more than external change—it needs heart change. 5. Pride and Rebellion End in Ruin Amon refused to learn from his father's mistakes or his repentance. His brief reign ended violently due to his stubborn pride.

2 Chronicles Chapter 34 — Crawford Standard Bible

Josiah Begins to Reign

1 Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for thirty-one years.

Cross References: 2 Kings 22:1; 2 Chronicles 33:25; 2 Kings 23:29

2 He did what was right in the eyes of the Lord and followed the ways of his ancestor David, not turning aside to the right or to the left.

Cross References: 2 Kings 22:2; 2 Chronicles 29:2; Deuteronomy 5:32

Josiah's Early Reforms

3 In the eighth year of his reign, while he was still young, he began to seek the God of his ancestor David. Then, in the twelfth year, he began to purify Judah and Jerusalem by removing the high places, Asherah poles, carved idols, and cast images.

Cross References: 2 Kings 22:3; 2 Kings 23:4; 2 Chronicles 33:15

4 They tore down the altars of Baal in his presence, and the incense altars that stood above them he smashed. He also crushed the Asherah poles and the carved and cast images, turning them into dust. He scattered the dust over the graves of those who had sacrificed to them.

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:6; 2 Kings 23:14; Exodus 32:20

5 He burned the bones of the pagan priests on their own altars. So he purified Judah and Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:16; 1 Kings 13:2; 2 Kings 23:20

6 He did the same in the towns of Manasseh, Ephraim, and Simeon, as far as Naphtali, and in the ruins all around them.

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:19; 2 Chronicles 30:1; 2 Kings 17:24

7 He broke down the altars and Asherah poles, crushed the idols to powder, and cut down all the incense altars throughout the land of Israel. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:20; 2 Chronicles 34:4; Deuteronomy 12:3

Restoration of the Temple

8 In the eighteenth year of his reign, after purifying the land and the Temple, Josiah sent Shaphan son of Azaliah, Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah son of Joahaz the royal historian to repair the Temple of the Lord his God.

Cross References: 2 Kings 22:3; 2 Chronicles 24:4; 2 Kings 12:11

9 They went to Hilkiah the high priest and gave him the money that had been collected at the Temple of God by the Levites, the gatekeepers. This money had been gathered from Manasseh, Ephraim, and the remaining people of Israel, as well as from Judah, Benjamin, and the people of Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Kings 22:4; 2 Chronicles 24:9; 2 Kings 12:9

10 They handed the money over to the foremen supervising the Lord's Temple. These men paid the workers repairing and restoring the Temple.

Cross References: 2 Kings 22:5; 2 Chronicles 24:12; 2 Kings 12:11

11 They also gave money to the carpenters and builders to buy cut stone, timber for framing, and wood for making beams for the buildings the kings of Judah had allowed to fall into ruin.

Cross References: 2 Kings 22:6; 2 Chronicles 24:12; 1 Kings 5:17

12 The workers were faithful in their work. The overseers were Jahath and Obadiah (Levites descended from Merari), and Zechariah and Meshullam (descendants of Kohath). Other Levites—all skilled musicians—

Cross References: 2 Kings 22:7; 2 Chronicles 24:13; 1 Chronicles 25:7

13 supervised the laborers of every kind. Some were scribes, some officials, and some gatekeepers.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 23:4; 1 Chronicles 26:29; 2 Chronicles 24:13

Discovery of the Book of the Law

14 While they were bringing out the money that had been stored in the Lord's Temple, Hilkiah the priest found the Book of the Law of the Lord written by Moses.

Cross References: 2 Kings 22:8; Deuteronomy 31:26; 2 Kings 23:2

15 Hilkiah said to Shaphan the scribe, "I have found the Book of the Law in the Lord's Temple." Then he gave the book to Shaphan.

Cross References: 2 Kings 22:8; Nehemiah 8:1; Deuteronomy 17:18

16 Shaphan took the book to the king and reported, "Everything assigned to your servants is being done.

Cross References: 2 Kings 22:9; 2 Chronicles 34:10; 2 Kings 12:15

17 They have gathered the money found in the Lord's Temple and have handed it over to the overseers and workmen."

Cross References: 2 Kings 22:9; 2 Chronicles 34:9; 2 Kings 12:11

18 Then Shaphan the scribe added, "Hilkiah the priest has given me a book." And Shaphan read from it in the king's presence.

Cross References: 2 Kings 22:10; Deuteronomy 31:11; Nehemiah 8:3

19 When the king heard the words of the Law, he tore his clothes in despair.

Cross References: 2 Kings 22:11; Joel 2:13; 2 Kings 19:1

20 Then he gave orders to Hilkiah, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Abdon son of Micah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's attendant:

Cross References: 2 Kings 22:12; 2 Chronicles 34:21; Jeremiah 21:2

21 "Go and inquire of the Lord for me and for all those who remain in Israel and Judah. Ask about the words written in this book that was found. Great is the Lord's anger poured out on us because our ancestors have not obeyed the words of the Lord. They have not acted according to all that is written in this scroll."

Cross References: 2 Kings 22:13; Deuteronomy 29:27; Jeremiah 44:6

Huldah the Prophetess Speaks

22 So Hilkiah and those the king sent went to the prophetess Huldah, the wife of Shallum son of Tikvath, son of Hasrah, the keeper of the wardrobe. She lived in Jerusalem, in the Second District. They spoke with her.

Cross References: 2 Kings 22:14; Judges 4:4; Exodus 15:20

23 She said, "This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: Tell the man who sent you,

Cross References: 2 Kings 22:15; 1 Kings 22:14; Jeremiah 1:7

24 ‘This is what the Lord says: I am going to bring disaster upon this place and its people—all the curses written in the book that was read to the king of Judah.

Cross References: 2 Kings 22:16; Deuteronomy 28:15; Deuteronomy 29:20

25 For they have abandoned Me and offered sacrifices to other gods, provoking My anger with everything they have done. My wrath will be poured out on this place and it will not be quenched.’

Cross References: 2 Kings 22:17; Jeremiah 1:16; 2 Chronicles 34:21

26 But go to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of the Lord and tell him this is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says about the message you have heard:

Cross References: 2 Kings 22:18; Jeremiah 42:2; 2 Chronicles 34:23

27 ‘Because your heart was tender and you humbled yourself before God when you heard His words against this place and its people, and because you tore your clothes in grief and wept before Me—I have heard you,’ declares the Lord.

Cross References: 2 Kings 22:19; 2 Chronicles 32:26; 2 Chronicles 7:14

28 ‘So I will gather you to your ancestors, and you will be buried in peace. You will not see the disaster I am going to bring on this place and its people.’” So they took her answer back to the king.

Cross References: 2 Kings 22:20; 2 Kings 23:29; Isaiah 57:1

Renewing the Covenant

29 Then the king summoned all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:1; Exodus 19:7; Joshua 24:1

30 He went up to the Temple of the Lord with the people of Judah, the residents of Jerusalem, the priests, and the Levites—all the people from the greatest to the least. He read aloud to them all the words of the Book of the Covenant that had been found in the Temple of the Lord.

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:2; Deuteronomy 31:11; Nehemiah 8:2

31 Then the king stood by his pillar and made a covenant before the Lord to follow the Lord and to keep His commands, statutes, and decrees with all his heart and soul. He promised to obey all the terms of the covenant written in the book.

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:3; Joshua 24:25; Deuteronomy 6:5

32 He required everyone in Jerusalem and Benjamin to make a similar pledge. So the people of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their ancestors.

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:3; Exodus 24:7; 2 Chronicles 15:12

33 Josiah removed all the detestable idols from the entire territory of Israel and required everyone to worship the Lord their God. And throughout the rest of his life, they did not turn away from the Lord, the God of their ancestors.

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:24; 2 Chronicles 34:3; Joshua 24:31

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 34

1. Spiritual Renewal Begins with the Heart Josiah began seeking God while he was still a youth, showing that age is no barrier to spiritual leadership. 2. True Revival Demands Action Josiah didn't just feel sorrow for Israel's sin—he took bold action to tear down idols and restore worship. 3. God's Word Still Convicts When the Book of the Law was read, it pierced Josiah's heart. God's Word reveals sin and leads to repentance. 4. God Responds to Humility Because Josiah humbled himself, God withheld judgment during his lifetime. A tender heart moves the heart of God. 5. Covenant Renewal is a Corporate and Personal Commitment Josiah led the nation in renewing their covenant with God—true reformation involves both leadership and community.

2 Chronicles Chapter 35 — Crawford Standard Bible

Josiah Celebrates the Passover

1 Josiah celebrated the Passover to honor the Lord in Jerusalem. The lambs for the Passover were killed on the fourteenth day of the first month.

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:21; Exodus 12:6; 2 Chronicles 30:1

2 He assigned the priests to their duties and encouraged them in their service in the Temple of the Lord.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 24:1; 2 Chronicles 8:14; 2 Chronicles 31:2

3 He told the Levites, who taught all Israel and had been set apart for the Lord, "Put the holy Ark in the Temple that Solomon son of David, king of Israel, built. Don't carry it around on your shoulders anymore. Now serve the Lord your God and His people Israel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:6; Numbers 4:15; Deuteronomy 33:10

4 Prepare yourselves by your family divisions, as directed by David king of Israel and Solomon his son.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 23:6; 1 Chronicles 28:11; 2 Chronicles 8:14

5 Stand in your designated places in the sanctuary with the families of your fellow Israelites, arranged by division, and do the same for the families of the Levites.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 24:1; 2 Chronicles 30:17; Numbers 3:6

6 Kill the Passover lambs and purify yourselves, and get everything ready for your fellow Israelites to carry out the word of the Lord given through Moses."

Cross References: Exodus 12:21; Numbers 9:2; 2 Chronicles 30:15

Provisions for the Passover

7 Josiah gave the people thirty thousand lambs and young goats for Passover sacrifices, and three thousand cattle—all from the king's personal flocks and herds.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 30:24; 1 Chronicles 29:2; Deuteronomy 16:2

8 His officials also gave offerings willingly to the people, the priests, and the Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, officials in charge of the Temple of God, gave the priests 2,600 lambs and 300 cattle for Passover sacrifices.

Cross References: Exodus 35:21; 1 Chronicles 29:6; 2 Chronicles 31:5

9 Also, Conaniah, along with Shemaiah and Nethanel his brothers, plus Hashabiah, Jeiel, and Jozabad, who were leaders of the Levites, gave the Levites 5,000 lambs and 500 cattle for the offerings.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 31:12; 1 Chronicles 15:11; Numbers 1:16

The Passover Is Celebrated

10 So everything was prepared. The priests took their positions, and the Levites stood in their divisions as the king had commanded.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 24:19; 2 Chronicles 30:16; 2 Chronicles 8:14

11 The Passover lambs were killed. The priests sprinkled the blood handed to them, and the Levites skinned the animals.

Cross References: Exodus 12:22; Leviticus 3:2; 2 Chronicles 30:16

12 They set aside the burnt offerings to be given to the different family groups, so they could offer them to the Lord as written in the Book of Moses. They did the same with the cattle.

Cross References: Leviticus 1:3; Numbers 28:19; 2 Chronicles 29:32

13 The Passover lambs were roasted over fire as the Law prescribed. Other holy offerings were cooked in pots, kettles, and pans, and quickly distributed to all the people.

Cross References: Exodus 12:8; Deuteronomy 16:7; Leviticus 6:28

14 Afterward, the Levites prepared portions for themselves and the priests, because the priests—the descendants of Aaron—were busy offering burnt offerings and the fat until nightfall. So the Levites prepared food for themselves and for the priests.

Cross References: Leviticus 3:16; 2 Chronicles 29:34; Leviticus 6:12 15 The musicians, the descendants of Asaph, were in their assigned places according to the commands of David, Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer. The gatekeepers were at each gate and did not leave their posts, because the Levites prepared everything for them.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 25:1; 1 Chronicles 16:41; 2 Chronicles 29:30

16 So the entire service of the Lord was arranged that day to celebrate the Passover and to offer burnt offerings on the altar of the Lord, as commanded by King Josiah.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 30:5; Exodus 12:24; 2 Kings 23:21

17 All the Israelites who were present kept the Passover at that time and celebrated the Festival of Unleavened Bread for seven days.

Cross References: Exodus 12:15; 2 Chronicles 30:21; Deuteronomy 16:3

A Passover Unlike Any Other

18 No Passover like this had been celebrated in Israel since the days of the prophet Samuel. None of the kings of Israel had ever celebrated a Passover like Josiah did—with the priests, Levites, all of Judah and Israel who were present, and the people of Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:22; 2 Chronicles 30:26; 1 Samuel 7:9

19 This Passover was celebrated in the eighteenth year of Josiah's reign.

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:23; 2 Chronicles 34:8; 2 Kings 22:3

Josiah's Final Battle and Death

20 After all this, when Josiah had completed restoring the Temple, King Necho of Egypt came to fight at Carchemish by the Euphrates River. Josiah went out to confront him.

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:29; Jeremiah 46:2; Jeremiah 46:6

21 But Necho sent messengers to Josiah, saying, "What do you want with me, king of Judah? I'm not attacking you today, but another nation with whom I am at war. God has told me to hurry. Don't oppose God, who is with me, or He will destroy you."

Cross References: Judges 11:12; 2 Kings 3:13; 1 Kings 17:18

22 But Josiah wouldn't turn away. He disguised himself so he could fight against Necho and did not listen to what God had spoken through Necho. He went to battle in the valley of Megiddo.

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:30; 1 Kings 22:34; Judges 5:19

23 During the battle, archers shot King Josiah. He told his servants, "Take me away—I've been badly wounded!"

Cross References: 1 Kings 22:34; 1 Kings 22:35; 2 Chronicles 18:33

24 They lifted him out of his chariot and put him in a second one he had and brought him to Jerusalem. He died and was buried in the tombs of his ancestors. All Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:30; Zechariah 12:11; Jeremiah 22:10

25 The prophet Jeremiah composed laments for Josiah. To this day, all the male and female singers still sing about Josiah in their lamentations. These became a tradition in Israel and are recorded in the Book of Laments.

Cross References: Jeremiah 22:10; Lamentations 4:20; 2 Samuel 1:17

Summary of Josiah's Reign

26 The rest of the events of Josiah's reign and his acts of devotion, in full obedience to the Law of the Lord,

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 35

1. Worship Done Right Honors God Deeply Josiah's Passover was celebrated with order, generosity, and purity, reflecting the beauty of obedience. 2. Leadership Inspires Revival Josiah not only led the people by example, he also empowered the priests, Levites, and officials to restore true worship. 3. God Honors Prepared Hearts The great participation and careful preparation reveal how much God values intentional worship. 4. Disobedience Has Consequences, Even for the Righteous Though Josiah was a godly king, his refusal to listen to God's warning through Necho led to his death. 5. A Legacy of Righteousness Is Remembered Josiah's righteousness was so impactful that even the prophet Jeremiah and the people of Israel mourned deeply for him.

2 Chronicles Chapter 36 — Crawford Standard Bible

The Fall of Judah Begins

1 The people of the land took Jehoahaz, the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's place in Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:30; 2 Chronicles 33:25; Jeremiah 22:11

2 Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign, and he ruled in Jerusalem for three months.

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:31; Jeremiah 22:11; Ezekiel 19:3

3 But the king of Egypt removed him from power in Jerusalem and demanded a tribute from Judah of a hundred talents of silver and one talent of gold.

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:33; 2 Kings 23:35; Ezekiel 19:4

4 Then the king of Egypt appointed Eliakim, Jehoahaz's brother, as king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. Necho took Jehoahaz to Egypt as a prisoner.

The Reigns of Jehoiakim, Jehoiachin, and Zedekiah

5 Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for eleven years and did what was evil in the sight of the Lord his God.

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:36; Jeremiah 22:13; Jeremiah 36:30

6 Then King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came against him and bound him in chains to take him to Babylon.

Cross References: 2 Kings 24:1; Daniel 1:1; Jeremiah 25:1

7 Nebuchadnezzar also took some of the treasures from the Temple of the Lord and carried them to Babylon, placing them in his own temple there.

Cross References: Daniel 1:2; 2 Kings 24:13; Jeremiah 27:19

8 The rest of Jehoiakim's actions and the terrible things he did are recorded in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah. His son Jehoiachin became king after him.

Cross References: 2 Kings 24:5; Jeremiah 22:18; 2 Chronicles 35:26

9 Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king, and he ruled in Jerusalem for three months and ten days. He also did what was evil in the sight of the Lord.

Cross References: 2 Kings 24:8; Jeremiah 22:24; Ezekiel 19:5

10 In the spring, King Nebuchadnezzar sent for him and brought him to Babylon, along with valuable items from the Lord's Temple. Then Nebuchadnezzar appointed Jehoiachin's relative Zedekiah as king over Judah and Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Kings 24:12; Jeremiah 24:1; Ezekiel 17:12

Zedekiah's Rebellion and Judah's Downfall

11 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he ruled in Jerusalem for eleven years.

Cross References: 2 Kings 24:18; Jeremiah 52:1; Jeremiah 21:1

12 He did what was evil in the sight of the Lord his God and refused to humble himself before the prophet Jeremiah, who spoke for the Lord.

Cross References: 2 Kings 24:19; Jeremiah 37:2; Jeremiah 38:14

13 Zedekiah also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear loyalty in God's name. He became stubborn and refused to turn back to the Lord, the God of Israel.

Cross References: Ezekiel 17:15; 2 Kings 24:20; Exodus 32:9

14 All the leaders of the priests and the people became more and more unfaithful, copying the detestable practices of the surrounding nations. They defiled the Temple of the Lord, which He had made holy in Jerusalem.

Cross References: Ezekiel 8:6; Jeremiah 7:30; 2 Chronicles 33:4

God's Warning Rejected

15 The Lord, the God of their ancestors, repeatedly sent His messengers to warn them, because He had compassion on His people and His Temple.

Cross References: Jeremiah 7:25; Jeremiah 25:4; 2 Kings 17:13

16 But they mocked God's messengers, despised His words, and scoffed at His prophets until the Lord's anger could no longer be restrained, and there was no remedy left.

Jerusalem Destroyed and Exiled

17 So the Lord brought the king of Babylon against them. The Babylonians killed Judah's young men, even inside the Temple. They had no pity on anyone—young men, young women, the elderly, or the sick. God handed them all over to Nebuchadnezzar.

Cross References: 2 Kings 25:1; Lamentations 2:21; Jeremiah 15:2

18 He took all the treasures from the Temple of God, as well as the treasures of the king and his officials, and brought everything to Babylon.

Cross References: 2 Kings 25:13; Jeremiah 52:17; Daniel 5:2

19 They burned the Temple of God, tore down the walls of Jerusalem, burned all the palaces, and destroyed all the valuable items.

Cross References: 2 Kings 25:9; Jeremiah 52:13; Lamentations 2:5

20 The few who survived the sword were taken away to Babylon, where they became servants to the king and his descendants until the kingdom of Persia rose to power.

Cross References: 2 Kings 25:11; Jeremiah 52:15; Daniel 1:1

21 All this happened to fulfill the word of the Lord spoken through Jeremiah. The land enjoyed its Sabbath rests—all the time it lay desolate—until seventy years were completed.

Cross References: Jeremiah 25:11; Jeremiah 29:10; Leviticus 26:34

Hope Through Cyrus' Decree

22 In the first year of King Cyrus of Persia, to fulfill the prophecy the Lord had given through Jeremiah, the Lord stirred the heart of Cyrus to send out this proclamation throughout his kingdom. He also put it in writing:

Cross References: Ezra 1:1; Jeremiah 25:12; Isaiah 44:28

23 "This is what King Cyrus of Persia says: 'The Lord, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth. He has appointed me to build a Temple for Him at Jerusalem in Judah. Any of His people among you may go up to Jerusalem, and may the Lord his God be with him.'"

Cross References: Ezra 1:2; Isaiah 45:1; 2 Chronicles 36:22

Key Lessons from 2 Chronicles Chapter 36

1. Rebellion Against God Leads to Destruction Judah repeatedly ignored God's warnings through His prophets, leading to the complete collapse of the kingdom. 2. Even Leaders Are Accountable Kings like Jehoiakim, Jehoiachin, and Zedekiah did evil in God's eyes and faced judgment for their disobedience and pride. 3. God Is Patient—But His Patience Has Limits Though God sent many messengers with compassion, Judah's persistent sin brought inevitable consequences. 4. God Keeps His Promises, Both in Judgment and in Restoration The seventy years of exile fulfilled Jeremiah's prophecy, and God began restoration through Cyrus—showing that hope follows repentance. 5. God Uses Unexpected People to Fulfill His Will A pagan king, Cyrus of Persia, was moved by God to begin the process of restoring Jerusalem and the Temple.

Introduction to the Book of Ezra

The Restoration of God's People Title and Authorship The book is titled “Ezra,” named after the central figure in the latter half of the book, Ezra the scribe. Originally, the books of Ezra and Nehemiah were considered a single work in Jewish tradition, often referred to as "Ezra-Nehemiah." This single work was later divided into two separate books in the Christian tradition. The book of Ezra recounts the first two waves of Jewish exiles returning to Jerusalem from Babylon.

Jewish tradition, and the internal evidence of the book itself, attributes the authorship to Ezra the scribe. As a priest and a descendant of Aaron, Ezra was deeply committed to the law of Moses and the restoration of proper worship. While Ezra is the primary author, he likely utilized various sources, including official decrees from Persian kings, lists of returning exiles, and personal memoirs. The book was written sometime in the late 5th or early 4th century B.C., likely in Jerusalem, to document the initial phases of the restoration.

Historical Setting The book of Ezra begins where 2 Chronicles ends, with the decree of Cyrus the Great in 538 B.C., which allowed the exiled Jews to return to their homeland. This marks the end of the 70-year Babylonian captivity prophesied by Jeremiah. The narrative spans a period of approximately 80 years, covering the return under Zerubbabel and Joshua (the first wave) and the later return under Ezra (the second wave). The historical context is crucial, as the book is set against the backdrop of the powerful Persian Empire, which ruled the ancient Near East. The Jews were no longer a sovereign nation but a small province within a vast empire.

Purpose and Themes The primary purpose of the book of Ezra is to document the faithfulness of God in fulfilling His promises to His people and to record the re-establishment of the Jewish community in Jerusalem. The author seeks to provide a historical and theological record of the post-exilic community's return, the rebuilding of the temple, and the restoration of proper worship. The book serves to encourage the community to remain faithful to God's law and to avoid the sins of their ancestors that led to the exile.

Key Themes:

- The Fulfillment of Prophecy and God's Sovereignty
- The Centrality of the Temple and Proper Worship
- The Importance of the Law of Moses and Obedience
- The Dangers of Intermarriage and Syncretism
- God's Use of Foreign Kings to Accomplish His Purposes
- The Necessity of Repentance and Holiness

Structure of the Book

- Chapters 1–6: The First Return and the Rebuilding of the Temple
 - The decree of Cyrus and the return under Zerubbabel

- The problem of intermarriage with foreign women
 - Ezra's prayer of confession
 - The community's repentance and the covenant to separate Spiritual Lessons
 - God is faithful to His promises and will fulfill His prophetic word.
 - The spiritual health of God's people is directly tied to their obedience to His law.
 - Repentance and confession are necessary for the restoration of God's favor.
 - Leaders play a crucial role in guiding God's people toward holiness.
 - The community of faith must guard against compromise with the world to preserve its identity and purity.
- Jesus in Ezra The book of Ezra points to Jesus in several ways. The rebuilding of the temple, a central theme, foreshadows Jesus as the ultimate Temple, the place where God dwells and where true worship is offered. The return of the exiles and the re-establishment of the community prefigure the new covenant community of believers gathered under Christ. Ezra's passion for the law and his mission to restore God's people to a right relationship with God anticipate Jesus, the ultimate teacher and scribe, who perfectly fulfilled the law and came to seek and save the lost. The book's emphasis on holiness and the need to separate from sin finds its ultimate solution in Jesus, who, through His sacrifice, makes a permanent way for His people to be made holy before God. Key Verse "For Ezra had set his heart to study the Law of the Lord, and to do it and to teach His statutes and rules in Israel." —Ezra 7:10

Ezra Chapter 1 — Crawford Standard Bible

Cyrus Issues a Decree to Rebuild the Temple

1 In the first year of King Cyrus of Persia, the Lord fulfilled the prophecy He had given through Jeremiah. He stirred the heart of King Cyrus to make a public proclamation throughout his kingdom and to put it in writing:

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 36:22; Jeremiah 25:12; Jeremiah 29:10

2 “This is what King Cyrus of Persia says: ‘The Lord, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth. He has appointed me to build a temple for Him at Jerusalem in Judah.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 36:23; Isaiah 44:28; Isaiah 45:13

3 Any of His people among you may go to Jerusalem in Judah to rebuild this Temple of the Lord, the God of Israel, who lives in Jerusalem. And may their God be with them.

Cross References: Isaiah 44:28; Haggai 1:8; Psalm 126:1

4 And wherever this remnant of God's people are living, let their neighbors help them with gifts of silver and gold, supplies for the journey, and livestock, in addition to the freewill offerings for the Temple of God in Jerusalem.’”

Cross References: Exodus 12:35; Exodus 11:2; Exodus 3:22

The People Prepare to Return

5 Then the family leaders of the tribes of Judah and Benjamin, along with the priests and Levites—everyone whose heart God had stirred—got ready to go up and rebuild the Temple of the Lord in Jerusalem.

Cross References: Haggai 1:14; Zechariah 4:6; 1 Chronicles 5:26

6 And all their neighbors helped them with gifts of silver and gold, supplies, livestock, and valuable items, in addition to all the voluntary offerings they brought.

Cross References: Exodus 12:36; Exodus 35:21; 1 Chronicles 29:6

Cyrus Returns the Temple Treasures

7 King Cyrus also brought out the articles that belonged to the Temple of the Lord, which King Nebuchadnezzar had taken from Jerusalem and placed in the temple of his own gods.

Cross References: 2 Kings 25:14; Daniel 1:2; 2 Chronicles 36:18

8 Cyrus had them brought out by Mithredath, the royal treasurer, and he counted them and handed them over to Sheshbazzar, the prince of Judah.

The Inventory of Returned Items

9 This was the inventory: thirty gold trays, one thousand silver trays, twenty-nine silver knives,

Cross References: Ezra 8:26; Ezra 8:27; Numbers 7:13

10 thirty gold bowls, four hundred ten silver bowls of a second type, and one thousand other articles.

Cross References: 1 Kings 7:50; 2 Chronicles 4:8; Jeremiah 52:19

11 In all, there were 5,400 gold and silver items. Sheshbazzar brought all these along when the exiles were brought back from Babylon to Jerusalem.

Cross References: Ezra 5:14; Jeremiah 27:22; 1 Chronicles 3:18

Key Lessons from Ezra Chapter 1

1. God Keeps His Promises Through History The Lord fulfilled Jeremiah's prophecy by moving the heart of a pagan king—Cyrus—to initiate the return of His people and the rebuilding of His house. 2. God Can Use Anyone to Accomplish His Will Even a foreign ruler like Cyrus was stirred by God to issue a decree in favor of His people. No one is outside God's sovereign control. 3. Revival Begins with Stirred Hearts Only those "whose spirit God had stirred" were willing to make the journey and take part in the rebuilding of the Temple. Spiritual restoration begins in the heart. 4. Restoration Requires Community Participation Those who didn't return still played a part by giving offerings and supplies. Everyone had a role in God's redemptive plan. 5. God Restores What Was Lost The sacred articles taken by Nebuchadnezzar were not forgotten—God preserved them, and Cyrus restored them for their proper use in worship.

Key Lessons from Ezra Chapter 2

1. God Remembers Every Name Though this chapter may seem like just a long list, it reminds us that God values individuals, families, and their faithfulness. Every person who returned played a part in His redemptive plan. 2. Spiritual Heritage Matters Those unable to prove their lineage were excluded from certain roles. This emphasizes the importance of spiritual identity and record. 3. Willing Hearts Fuel God's Work Many gave freely and sacrificially toward rebuilding the Temple. Revival depends not only on calling but also on generosity. 4. God Restores in Detail The return from exile wasn't vague or general. God restored whole families, towns, and priestly roles with intentional order. 5. Unity is Found in Obedience Despite their many tribes and roles, the people united in obedience to God's call—returning together, rebuilding together, and worshipping together.

Ezra Chapter 3 — Crawford Standard Bible

The Altar Rebuilt and Worship Restored

1 When the seventh month arrived and the Israelites were settled in their towns, the people came together as one in Jerusalem.

Cross References: Nehemiah 7:73; Nehemiah 8:1; Leviticus 23:24

2 Then Jeshua son of Jozadak and his fellow priests, along with Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and his associates, rose up and built the altar of the God of Israel to offer burnt offerings on it—just as it is written in the law of Moses, the man of God.

Cross References: Haggai 1:1; Exodus 20:25; 1 Chronicles 6:15

3 Even though they were afraid of the people around them, they set the altar on its foundation and offered burnt offerings on it to the Lord—both morning and evening sacrifices.

Cross References: Exodus 29:38; Numbers 28:3; Ezra 4:4

4 They also celebrated the Festival of Tabernacles, as prescribed, and offered the daily burnt offerings in the proper numbers, according to the requirement for each day.

Cross References: Leviticus 23:34; Numbers 29:12; Nehemiah 8:17

5 After that, they continued with the regular burnt offerings, the offerings at the new moons and all the appointed sacred festivals of the Lord, as well as all the freewill offerings that people brought to the Lord.

Cross References: Numbers 28:11; Leviticus 23:4; Numbers 29:39

6 From the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings to the Lord, even though the foundation of the Lord's temple had not yet been laid.

Cross References: Leviticus 23:24; Haggai 1:2; Zechariah 4:9

Preparations for Rebuilding the Temple

7 They gave money to the stonecutters and carpenters, and food, drink, and oil to the people of Sidon and Tyre so they would bring cedar logs by sea from Lebanon to the port of Joppa, just as King Cyrus of Persia had authorized.

Cross References: 1 Kings 5:6; 1 Kings 5:9; 2 Chronicles 2:16

Laying the Temple's Foundation

8 In the second year after they arrived at the house of God in Jerusalem, in the second month, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, Jeshua son of Jozadak, and the rest of their brothers—the priests, Levites, and all who had returned from captivity to Jerusalem—began the work. They appointed Levites twenty years old and older to supervise the building of the Lord's house.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 23:24; 2 Chronicles 31:17; Numbers 8:24

9 Jeshua and his sons and relatives, along with Kadmiel and his sons (descendants of Judah), worked together to supervise those working on the house of God. The sons of Henadad, along with their sons and relatives (all Levites), also joined in the supervision.

Cross References: Ezra 2:40; Nehemiah 3:18; Nehemiah 10:9

Worship and Weeping at the Temple's Foundation

10 When the builders completed the foundation of the Lord's temple, the priests—dressed in their ceremonial robes and holding trumpets—and the Levites (descendants of Asaph) with cymbals, took their places to praise the Lord, following the pattern established by King David of Israel.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 25:1; 1 Chronicles 16:5; 2 Chronicles 5:13

11 With antiphonal singing they gave praise and thanks to the Lord: “He is good; His faithful love for Israel endures forever.” Then all the people shouted with a mighty shout, praising the Lord because the foundation of the temple had been laid.

Cross References: Psalm 136:1; 1 Chronicles 16:34; 2 Chronicles 7:3

12 But many of the older priests, Levites, and family leaders—those who had seen the former temple—cried out loud when they saw the foundation of this new house being laid. Others shouted with joy.

Cross References: Haggai 2:3; Zechariah 4:10; Psalm 137:1

13 The people couldn’t distinguish the sound of the joyful shouts from the sound of the weeping, because the noise was so loud that it was heard far away.

Cross References: Nehemiah 12:43; 1 Samuel 4:5; 1 Kings 1:40

Key Lessons from Ezra Chapter 3

1. Unity Leads to Renewal The people came together “as one” to rebuild worship. True revival begins when God’s people unite in purpose and faith. 2. Worship Comes Before Walls Even though the temple wasn’t yet rebuilt, they didn’t wait to restore their relationship with God. They built the altar first and began offering sacrifices in obedience. 3. Courage Despite Fear The altar was set up in the face of surrounding threats. Faith presses forward even when danger looms. 4.

Foundation-Laying Requires Celebration and Tears For some, the new beginning was cause for joyful praise. For others, it stirred memories and grief. Both emotions were part of God’s sacred work. 5. God’s Mercy Endures Forever The people praised God not for what was fully built, but because His mercy never ends. Gratitude shouldn’t wait for completion—it rises at the first sign of progress.

Ezra Chapter 4 — Crawford Standard Bible

Opposition to the Rebuilding Begins

1 When the enemies of Judah and Benjamin heard that the returned exiles were rebuilding the temple of the Lord, the God of Israel,

Cross References: Nehemiah 2:10; Nehemiah 4:1; Nehemiah 6:1

2 they came to Zerubbabel and the family leaders and said, “Let us build with you, for we seek your God just as you do. We’ve been sacrificing to Him since the time of Esarhaddon king of Assyria, who brought us here.”

Cross References: 2 Kings 17:24; 2 Kings 17:33; 2 Kings 17:41

3 But Zerubbabel, Jeshua, and the rest of the family leaders of Israel replied, “You have no part with us in building a temple to our God. We alone will rebuild it for the Lord, the God of Israel, as King Cyrus of Persia has commanded us.”

Cross References: Nehemiah 2:20; Deuteronomy 7:2; Ezra 1:2

Ongoing Harassment and Political Sabotage

4 Then the local people began discouraging the people of Judah and tried to intimidate them to stop the work.

Cross References: Nehemiah 6:9; Zechariah 8:9; Haggai 2:4

5 They bribed officials to work against them and frustrate their plans. This went on throughout the reign of Cyrus king of Persia until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Cross References: Nehemiah 6:12; Ezra 5:5; Ezra 6:14

6 During the reign of Xerxes (Ahasuerus), early in his reign, an accusation was written against the people of Judah and Jerusalem.

Cross References: Esther 1:1; Esther 3:8; Ezra 4:23

7 And in the days of Artaxerxes, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their associates wrote to him. The letter was written in the Aramaic script and translated into Aramaic.

Cross References: Nehemiah 2:1; Ezra 7:1; Daniel 2:4

The Accusation Against Jerusalem

8 Rehum the chief officer and Shimshai the court secretary wrote a letter against Jerusalem to King Artaxerxes.

Cross References: Ezra 4:23; Nehemiah 2:19; Ezra 4:9

9 It was sent by Rehum, Shimshai, and their colleagues—the judges, officials, administrators, and people of various nations whom the great and noble Ashurbanipal had deported and settled in the cities of Samaria and elsewhere across the province west of the Euphrates River.

Cross References: 2 Kings 17:24; Ezra 4:2; Ezra 4:10

10 (They were from nations brought to the region by Ashurbanipal, who had settled them in Samaria and other cities.)

Cross References: 2 Kings 17:6; 2 Kings 17:24; Ezra 4:17

11 This is the copy of the letter they sent: “To King Artaxerxes, from your servants in the region west of the Euphrates River.

Cross References: Ezra 5:6; Ezra 4:17; Ezra 4:8

12 Let it be known to the king that the Jews who came up from you to us have arrived in Jerusalem and are rebuilding that rebellious and wicked city. They are restoring its walls and have already laid the foundations.

Cross References: Nehemiah 6:6; Nehemiah 2:17; Ezra 5:3

13 Be advised that if this city is rebuilt and its walls are completed, they will no longer pay taxes, tribute, or customs duties, and the royal revenue will suffer.

Cross References: Ezra 7:24; Ezra 4:20; Genesis 47:26

14 Since we are supported by the king's palace and do not wish to see dishonor come to the king, we feel it our duty to report this.

Cross References: Ezra 4:22; Daniel 3:8; Ezra 4:16

15 If you search the historical records, you will find that this city has been a source of rebellion and trouble to kings and provinces. That is why it was destroyed in the first place.

Cross References: Esther 6:1; 2 Kings 25:1; Jeremiah 52:3

16 We declare to the king that if this city is rebuilt and its walls restored, you will lose control of the territory west of the Euphrates.”

Cross References: Nehemiah 2:20; Ezra 4:21; Ezra 4:13

The King's Response: Work Ordered to Stop

17 Then the king sent this reply: “To Rehum the chief officer, Shimshai the scribe, and your colleagues living in Samaria and elsewhere west of the Euphrates: Greetings.

Cross References: Ezra 4:11; Ezra 5:7; Ezra 4:23

18 The letter you sent has been read to me word for word.

Cross References: Esther 6:1; Daniel 5:25; Ezra 4:23

19 I ordered a search, and it was indeed discovered that this city has a long history of rebellion against kings and has been a center of uprisings and revolt.

Cross References: 2 Kings 24:20; 2 Chronicles 36:13; Jeremiah 52:3

20 Powerful kings once ruled over Jerusalem and controlled the entire region west of the Euphrates, and taxes, tribute, and duties were paid to them.

Cross References: 1 Kings 4:21; 2 Samuel 8:6; Psalm 72:10

21 Therefore, issue an order that these men stop their work. The city is not to be rebuilt until I give further instruction.

Cross References: Ezra 4:24; Ezra 6:8; Ezra 5:5

22 Be diligent in carrying out this order so that there is no damage to the interests of the kings.”

Cross References: Ezra 4:13; Ezra 4:15; Esther 3:9

The Work Ceases

23 As soon as the copy of King Artaxerxes' letter was read to Rehum, Shimshai the scribe, and their associates, they hurried to Jerusalem and forced the Jews to stop by power and might.

Cross References: Ezra 4:24; Nehemiah 4:11; Ezra 6:8

24 So the work on the temple of God in Jerusalem came to a halt and remained stopped until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Cross References: Haggai 1:1; Zechariah 1:1; Ezra 5:2

Key Lessons from Ezra Chapter 4

1. Not All Who Offer Help Are Friends The enemies of God's people claimed to worship the same God, but their motives were to hinder the work, not support it. Discernment is essential in partnership. 2. Opposition Often Comes During Progress As soon as the people began rebuilding, resistance arose. Revival and restoration often attract attack. 3. Intimidation, Accusation, and Delay Are Tools of the Enemy Satan's tactics haven't changed—discouragement, legal opposition, and delays are common weapons used against God's people. 4. Faithfulness May Require Saying "No" Zerubbabel and the leaders were bold to reject unfaithful alliances, choosing obedience to God over political convenience. 5. God's Work May Be Delayed but Not Defeated The temple work paused for a time, but God's plan was still in motion. Delay is not denial.

Ezra Chapter 5 — Crawford Standard Bible

The Prophets Encourage the Builders

1 The prophets Haggai and Zechariah (the son of Iddo) prophesied to the Jews in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel who was over them.

Cross References: Haggai 1:1; Zechariah 1:1; Haggai 2:4

2 Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Jeshua son of Jozadak arose and began rebuilding the temple of God in Jerusalem. The prophets of God were with them, supporting and encouraging them.

Cross References: Haggai 1:14; Zechariah 4:9; Ezra 3:8

Inquiry from the Persian Officials

3 At that time, Tatnai, governor of the region west of the Euphrates, along with Shethar-boznai and their associates, came and asked, "Who gave you the authority to rebuild this temple and finish this structure?"

Cross References: Ezra 4:11; Nehemiah 2:19; Ezra 6:6

4 They also asked, "What are the names of the men who are leading this construction?"

Cross References: Ezra 5:10; Nehemiah 6:6; Nehemiah 2:19

5 But the eye of their God was upon the Jewish leaders, and they were not forced to stop until a report could be sent to Darius, and his reply received.

Cross References: Psalm 33:18; Ezra 7:9; Nehemiah 2:8

The Letter to King Darius

6 This is a copy of the letter that Tatnai, governor of the region west of the Euphrates, along with Shethar-boznai and their associates, the officials of that region, sent to King Darius:

Cross References: Ezra 4:8; Ezra 4:11; Ezra 7:11

7 "To King Darius, greetings.

Cross References: Ezra 4:17; Daniel 6:25; Ezra 7:12

8 Be it known to the king that we went to the province of Judah, to the temple of the great God. It is being built with large stones, and timber is being set in the walls. The work is progressing quickly and is going well under their supervision.

Cross References: 1 Kings 6:7; Haggai 2:9; Ezra 6:4

9 We questioned the leaders, asking them, ‘Who gave you permission to rebuild this temple and restore this structure?’

Cross References: Ezra 5:3; Ezra 5:4; Nehemiah 6:6

10 We also asked their names, so we could inform you and write down the names of their leaders.

Cross References: Ezra 5:4; Nehemiah 7:5; Ezra 2:62

The Response of the Jews

11 “This is the answer they gave us: ‘We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and we are rebuilding the temple that was built long ago by a great king of Israel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 6:1; 1 Kings 8:27; 2 Chronicles 3:1

12 But because our ancestors angered the God of heaven, He handed them over to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this temple and carried the people away to Babylon.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 36:17; Jeremiah 25:9; 2 Kings 25:9

13 However, in the first year of King Cyrus of Babylon, he issued a decree to rebuild the house of God.

Cross References: Ezra 1:1; 2 Chronicles 36:23; Isaiah 44:28

14 The gold and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple in Jerusalem and brought to the temple of Babylon, were taken out by King Cyrus. He entrusted them to a man named Sheshbazzar, whom he appointed as governor.

Cross References: Ezra 1:7; 2 Kings 25:14; Daniel 5:2

15 He said to him, “Take these vessels, put them in the temple in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be rebuilt on its original site.”

Cross References: Ezra 1:8; Ezra 1:11; Ezra 5:14

16 Then Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundation of the house of God in Jerusalem. From that time until now, the work has continued, but it is not yet completed.’

Cross References: Ezra 3:10; Zechariah 4:9; Ezra 3:8

The Request to Verify the Decree

17 “Now, if it pleases the king, let a search be made in the royal archives there in Babylon to see if King Cyrus really issued a decree to rebuild this temple of God in Jerusalem. Then please send us your decision regarding this matter.”

Cross References: Ezra 6:1; Ezra 1:1; Esther 6:1

Key Lessons from Ezra Chapter 5

1. God Sends Encouragement Through His Prophets Haggai and Zechariah’s timely words stirred courage in the hearts of the builders. God always raises voices to strengthen His people when opposition arises. 2. God’s Eye Is on His Work The “eye of their God” was upon the leaders, ensuring that no earthly authority could halt the work without divine permission. 3. Bold Testimony of Identity and Purpose The Jewish leaders boldly declared, “We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth,” demonstrating that their allegiance was first to God. 4. God’s Plans Are Rooted in History and Promise The decree of Cyrus was not just a royal order but part of God’s larger plan. The Jews appealed to history to affirm the legitimacy of their work. 5. When Opposed, Appeal to Truth and Evidence Instead of fearing opposition, the leaders welcomed a search of the records, confident that the truth of God’s command would be confirmed.

Ezra Chapter 6 — Crawford Standard Bible

Darius Confirms Cyrus’s Decree

1 Then King Darius issued a decree, and a search was made in the archives stored in the treasury at Babylon.

Cross References: Ezra 5:17; Esther 6:1; Ezra 4:15

2 A scroll was found in the fortress of Ecbatana, in the province of Media, and this is what was recorded:

Cross References: Ezra 1:1; Ezra 6:3; Isaiah 45:13

3 In the first year of King Cyrus, the king issued a decree concerning the temple of God in Jerusalem: “Let the temple be rebuilt on the site where sacrifices are offered. Let its foundations be firmly laid. Its height is to be 90 feet, and its width is to be 90 feet,

Cross References: Ezra 1:2; 1 Kings 6:2; Haggai 2:3

4 with three rows of large stones and one row of new timber. The expenses are to be paid from the royal treasury.

Cross References: 1 Kings 6:36; Ezra 6:8; 1 Kings 7:12

5 Also, let the gold and silver items of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took from the temple in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, be returned to their places in the temple in Jerusalem. Let them be restored to the house of God.”

Cross References: Ezra 1:7; Ezra 5:14; Jeremiah 27:22

The King’s Command to Support the Builders

6 “Now then, Tatnai governor of the region west of the Euphrates, Shethar-boznai, and your associates, the officials of that region—stay away from there.

Cross References: Ezra 5:3; Ezra 5:6; Proverbs 21:1

7 Do not interfere with the work on the temple of God. Let the governor of the Jews and the Jewish elders rebuild this house of God where it once stood.

Cross References: Ezra 5:2; Haggai 1:14; Zechariah 4:9

8 Moreover, I issue a decree regarding what you are to do for these elders of the Jews in the rebuilding of this temple of God: The costs are to be fully paid from the royal treasury, from the tribute collected in the region beyond the Euphrates, so that the work will not stop.

Cross References: Ezra 7:20; Ezra 7:22; Nehemiah 2:8

9 Give the priests in Jerusalem what they need daily—young bulls, rams, and lambs for burnt offerings to the God of heaven; also wheat, salt, wine, and oil, as requested by the priests—

Cross References: Leviticus 1:3; Numbers 28:3; Ezra 7:22

10 so that they may offer pleasing sacrifices to the God of heaven and pray for the life of the king and his sons.

Cross References: Jeremiah 29:7; 1 Timothy 2:1; Ezra 7:23

11 Furthermore, I decree that if anyone alters this edict, a beam is to be pulled from his house and he is to be impaled on it. And his house is to be turned into a pile of rubble.

Cross References: Daniel 2:5; Daniel 3:29; Ezra 7:26

12 May the God who has caused His name to dwell there overthrow any king or nation that tries to change or destroy this temple in Jerusalem. I, Darius, have made this decree. Let it be carried out immediately.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 9:3; Daniel 9:19; Deuteronomy 12:11

The Temple Is Completed

13 Then Tatnai the governor, Shethar-boznai, and their companions carried out the command of King Darius promptly.

Cross References: Ezra 6:6; Ezra 5:3; Ezra 7:21

14 The Jewish elders continued to build and prospered through the preaching of the prophets Haggai and Zechariah son of Iddo. They finished building the temple as God had commanded and as the kings of Persia—Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes—had decreed.

Cross References: Haggai 1:14; Zechariah 8:9; Ezra 7:1

15 The temple was completed on the third day of the month of Adar, in the sixth year of King Darius’s reign.

Cross References: Ezra 4:24; Haggai 1:15; 1 Kings 6:38

The Temple Is Dedicated

16 Then the Israelites—the priests, the Levites, and the rest of the exiles—celebrated the dedication of the house of God with great joy.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:63; 2 Chronicles 7:5; Nehemiah 12:27

17 At the dedication of the temple, they offered 100 bulls, 200 rams, and 400 lambs. They also offered 12 male goats as a sin offering for all Israel, one for each tribe.

Cross References: Numbers 7:87; 1 Kings 8:64; Leviticus 4:14

18 And they appointed the priests by their divisions and the Levites by their groups for the service of God at Jerusalem, as it is written in the Book of Moses.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 24:1; 1 Chronicles 25:1; 2 Chronicles 8:14

The Passover Is Celebrated

19 On the fourteenth day of the first month, the exiles celebrated the Passover.

Cross References: Exodus 12:6; Numbers 9:5; 2 Chronicles 35:1

20 All the priests and Levites had purified themselves and were ceremonially clean. The Levites slaughtered the Passover lamb for all the exiles, their fellow priests, and themselves.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 30:15; 2 Chronicles 35:11; Exodus 12:21

21 So the Israelites who had returned from exile ate the Passover meal, along with all who had separated themselves from the unclean practices of their pagan neighbors to worship the Lord, the God of Israel.

Cross References: Nehemiah 9:2; Ezra 9:1; Leviticus 20:24

22 They also celebrated the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days with great joy, for the Lord had made them joyful and had turned the heart of the king of Assyria toward them, strengthening their hands in the work on the house of God, the God of Israel.

Cross References: Exodus 12:15; 2 Chronicles 30:21; Proverbs 21:1

Key Lessons from Ezra Chapter 6

1. God's Promises Are Preserved Across Kingdoms Though empires rise and fall, God's word stands firm. Darius confirmed what Cyrus had decreed, showing how God's plan transcends rulers and generations. 2. God Can Use Secular Authorities for Sacred Purposes Darius not only upheld the work but funded it and protected it. Even those who don't worship the true God can be used to fulfill His purposes. 3. Reverence and Dedication Bring Joy The dedication of the temple and the celebration of the Passover were marked by unity, joy, and worship. Obedience brings blessing and rejoicing. 4. God Honors Repentance and Renewal Those who had separated themselves from defilement to seek the Lord were welcomed at the feast. Purity of heart always finds a place at God's table. 5. God Turns the Hearts of Kings The people rejoiced because God had moved the heart of a foreign king. No heart is too distant or hard for God to influence for His glory.

Ezra Chapter 7 — Crawford Standard Bible

Ezra the Scribe Comes to Jerusalem

1 After these events, during the reign of King Artaxerxes of Persia, Ezra came up from Babylon. He was the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah,

Cross References: 2 Kings 25:18; 1 Chronicles 6:14; Nehemiah 8:1

2 the son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub,

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 6:8; 1 Chronicles 6:12; Nehemiah 11:11

3 the son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth,

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 6:7; 1 Chronicles 6:11; 1 Chronicles 9:11

4 the son of Zerariah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki,

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 6:6; 1 Chronicles 6:5; 1 Chronicles 6:51

5 the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 6:4; Numbers 25:13; Exodus 6:23

6 This Ezra was a skilled scribe in the Law of Moses, which the Lord, the God of Israel, had given. The king granted him everything he requested, because the hand of the Lord his God was upon him.

Cross References: Nehemiah 8:1; Psalm 45:1; Ezra 7:9

7 Some of the people of Israel, including priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, and temple servants, also went up to Jerusalem with him in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes.

Cross References: Ezra 8:1; Nehemiah 2:1; Ezra 7:8

8 Ezra arrived in Jerusalem in the fifth month of the seventh year of the king.

Cross References: Ezra 7:9; Ezra 8:31; Nehemiah 2:11

9 He had begun his journey from Babylon on the first day of the first month, and he arrived in Jerusalem on the first day of the fifth month, because the gracious hand of his God was upon him.

Cross References: Ezra 8:31; Nehemiah 2:8; Ezra 7:6

10 Ezra had determined in his heart to study the Law of the Lord, to obey it, and to teach its statutes and regulations in Israel.

Cross References: Psalm 119:11; Nehemiah 8:8; Psalm 119:97

The Letter from King Artaxerxes

11 This is a copy of the letter King Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the priest and scribe—an expert in the words of the Lord’s commands and His statutes for Israel:

Cross References: Ezra 7:12; Ezra 4:11; Nehemiah 8:9

12 “Artaxerxes, king of kings, to Ezra the priest, a teacher of the Law of the God of heaven: Perfect peace.

Cross References: Daniel 2:37; Ezra 7:21; Ezra 4:17

13 I hereby decree that any of the people of Israel in my kingdom—including priests and Levites—who want to go to Jerusalem with you may go.

Cross References: Ezra 1:3; Ezra 2:1; Isaiah 48:20

14 You are sent by the king and his seven counselors to investigate how Judah and Jerusalem are doing with regard to the Law of your God, which you carry with you.

Cross References: Ezra 7:25; Nehemiah 2:6; 2 Kings 22:13

15 You are also to take with you the silver and gold that the king and his counselors are freely offering to the God of Israel, whose dwelling is in Jerusalem,

Cross References: Ezra 8:25; Ezra 1:6; Exodus 25:2

16 along with all the silver and gold you may collect throughout Babylon, together with the freewill offerings the people and priests give for the house of their God in Jerusalem.

Cross References: Ezra 8:25; Ezra 2:68; Exodus 35:21

17 With this money, be sure to buy bulls, rams, and lambs, along with their grain offerings and drink offerings, and sacrifice them on the altar of the house of your God in Jerusalem.

Cross References: Numbers 28:11; Leviticus 23:37; Ezra 6:9

18 You and your fellow priests may use the rest of the silver and gold however you think best, in accordance with the will of your God.

Cross References: Ezra 8:25; 1 Chronicles 29:14; Philippians 4:18 19 Deliver to the God of Jerusalem all the articles that have been entrusted to you for the worship of the temple of your God.

Cross References: Ezra 1:7; Ezra 8:25; Ezra 5:14

20 If anything else is needed for the house of your God and you have to pay for it, take it from the royal treasury.

Cross References: Ezra 6:8; Nehemiah 2:8; Ezra 6:4

21 I, King Artaxerxes, hereby issue a decree to all the treasurers in the region west of the Euphrates River: Whatever Ezra the priest, the expert in the Law of the God of heaven, requests from you, it must be provided quickly—

Cross References: Ezra 7:12; Esther 3:12; Ezra 6:8

22 up to 100 talents of silver, 100 measures of wheat, 100 baths of wine, 100 baths of olive oil, and an unlimited amount of salt.

Cross References: Ezra 6:9; 1 Kings 4:22; Ezra 7:20

23 Whatever is commanded by the God of heaven must be done with diligence for the temple of the God of heaven. Why should His wrath come against the kingdom and the king and his sons?

Cross References: Ezra 6:10; Haggai 1:9; Romans 13:1

24 Furthermore, you are to know that it is not lawful to impose tribute, tax, or toll on any of the priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, temple servants, or any other workers at the house of God.

Cross References: Matthew 17:26; Ezra 4:13; 1 Corinthians 9:13

Ezra's Authority to Teach and Enforce the Law

25 And you, Ezra, according to the wisdom your God has given you, are to appoint judges and officials who can administer justice to all the people in the region west of the Euphrates—all who know the laws of your God. Teach those who don't know them.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 16:18; Exodus 18:21; 2 Chronicles 19:5

26 Anyone who refuses to obey the Law of your God and the law of the king must be punished promptly—whether by death, banishment, confiscation of property, or imprisonment.”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 17:12; Romans 13:4; Ezra 10:8

Ezra's Praise and Preparation

27 Blessed be the Lord, the God of our ancestors, who put such a thing as this into the king's heart, to beautify the house of the Lord in Jerusalem!

Cross References: Proverbs 21:1; Ezra 6:22; 1 Chronicles 29:10

28 He has shown me mercy before the king, his counselors, and all his powerful officials. I was strengthened because the hand of the Lord my God was upon me, and I gathered leading men from Israel to go up with me.

Cross References: Nehemiah 2:8; Genesis 39:21; Ezra 8:1

Key Lessons from Ezra Chapter 7

1. A Heart Prepared for God's Word Makes a Difference Ezra committed to study, obey, and teach God's law. True revival begins with hearts committed to God's truth. 2. God Moves in the Hearts of Kings Artaxerxes was a Persian ruler, but God influenced him to support the rebuilding and beautification of the temple. God's sovereignty reaches even into royal courts. 3. Faithfulness in Leadership Requires Wisdom and Justice Ezra was entrusted not just with treasures but with authority to appoint judges and teach God's law. Leadership grounded in God's wisdom blesses the entire community. 4. Provision Follows God's Purpose The king's decree included not just permission, but abundant resources—silver, gold, offerings, and supplies. When God calls, He provides. 5. Gratitude Fuels Boldness Ezra gave thanks to God for the favor he had received and was strengthened in faith and purpose. Thankfulness empowers courage.

The Families Returning with Ezra

1 These are the family leaders and the genealogy of those who returned with me from Babylon during the reign of King Artaxerxes:

Cross References: Ezra 2:1; Nehemiah 7:6; Ezra 7:28

2 From the descendants of Phinehas: Gershom. From the descendants of Ithamar: Daniel. From the descendants of David: Hattush.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 6:4; Numbers 25:13; 1 Chronicles 3:22

3 From the descendants of Shecaniah (through the line of Parosh): Zechariah, and with him were 150 registered men.

Cross References: Ezra 2:3; Nehemiah 7:8; Nehemiah 10:14

4 From the descendants of Pahath-moab: Eliehoenai son of Zerahiah, and 200 men.

Cross References: Ezra 2:6; Nehemiah 7:11; Nehemiah 10:14

5 From the descendants of Shecaniah: the son of Jahaziel, and 300 men.

Cross References: Ezra 2:8; Nehemiah 7:13; 1 Chronicles 3:22

6 From the descendants of Adin: Ebed son of Jonathan, and 50 men.

Cross References: Ezra 2:15; Nehemiah 7:20; Nehemiah 10:16

7 From the descendants of Elam: Jeshaiiah son of Athaliah, and 70 men.

Cross References: Ezra 2:7; Nehemiah 7:12; Nehemiah 10:14

8 From the descendants of Shephatiah: Zebadiah son of Michael, and 80 men.

Cross References: Ezra 2:4; Nehemiah 7:9; Nehemiah 11:4

9 From the descendants of Joab: Obadiah son of Jehiel, and 218 men.

Cross References: Ezra 2:6; Nehemiah 7:11; Ezra 8:4

10 From the descendants of Shelomith: the son of Josiphiah, and 160 men.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 3:19; Nehemiah 7:5; Ezra 2:1

11 From the descendants of Bebai: Zechariah son of Bebai, and 28 men.

Cross References: Ezra 2:11; Nehemiah 7:16; Nehemiah 10:15

12 From the descendants of Azgad: Johanan son of Hakkatan, and 110 men.

Cross References: Ezra 2:12; Nehemiah 7:17; Nehemiah 10:15

13 From the descendants of Adonikam (the last of them): Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah, and 60 men.

Cross References: Ezra 2:13; Nehemiah 7:18; Nehemiah 10:16

14 From the descendants of Bigvai: Uthai and Zabbud, and 70 men.

Cross References: Ezra 2:14; Nehemiah 7:19; Nehemiah 10:16

Seeking Levites for the Journey

15 I gathered them at the river that flows toward Ahava, and we camped there for three days. When I reviewed the people and the priests, I found no Levites among them.

Cross References: Ezra 2:40; Numbers 8:14; Nehemiah 7:43

16 So I sent for Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, another Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam—leaders and men of wisdom—

Cross References: Proverbs 2:6; 1 Chronicles 12:32; Nehemiah 8:2

17 and gave them instructions for Iddo, the leader at the place called Casiphia. I told them what to say to Iddo and his relatives, the temple servants there, asking them to send us ministers for the house of our God.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 9:2; Nehemiah 11:21; Ezra 2:43

18 Because the gracious hand of our God was on us, they sent us a capable man from the descendants of Mahli, a descendant of Levi son of Israel—Sherebiah—with his sons and relatives, 18 men in all.

Cross References: Ezra 7:6; Ezra 7:9; Nehemiah 8:7

19 They also sent Hashabiah and Jeshaiah from the descendants of Merari, with their relatives and sons, 20 men.

Cross References: Nehemiah 10:11; 1 Chronicles 6:44; Nehemiah 12:24

20 Additionally, 220 temple servants came—descendants of those appointed by David and the officials to assist the Levites. They were all listed by name.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 9:2; Joshua 9:27; Ezra 2:58

Fasting and Trusting God for Protection

21 Then I proclaimed a fast there at the Ahava River, so we might humble ourselves before our God and ask Him for a safe journey for us, our children, and all our possessions.

Cross References: Joel 2:12; 2 Chronicles 20:3; Psalm 5:8

22 I was ashamed to ask the king for soldiers and horsemen to protect us from enemies along the way, because we had told the king, “The gracious hand of our God is on everyone who seeks Him, but His power and wrath are against all who abandon Him.”

Cross References: Psalm 20:7; 2 Chronicles 32:8; Zechariah 4:6

23 So we fasted and prayed to our God about this, and He answered our prayers.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 20:9; James 5:16; Genesis 25:21

Guarding the Treasures for the Temple

24 Then I chose twelve of the leading priests—Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brothers—

Cross References: Numbers 4:15; 1 Chronicles 26:20; Ezra 8:33

25 and I weighed out to them the silver, gold, and other items that had been donated for the house of our God by the king, his advisors, his officials, and all the Israelites who were present.

Cross References: Ezra 7:15; Exodus 25:3; 1 Chronicles 29:6

26 I handed over to them 650 talents of silver, 100 silver articles weighing 100 talents, and 100 talents of gold.

Cross References: Ezra 7:22; 1 Kings 10:14; 1 Chronicles 29:7

27 I also gave them 20 gold bowls worth 1,000 darics, and two polished bronze vessels as precious as gold.

Cross References: Exodus 25:29; 1 Kings 7:50; 1 Chronicles 28:17

28 And I said to them, “You and these articles are holy to the Lord. The silver and gold are a freewill offering to the Lord, the God of your ancestors.

Cross References: Leviticus 22:2; Exodus 30:29; 1 Chronicles 29:5

29 Guard them carefully until you weigh them before the leading priests, Levites, and heads of Israelite families in the chambers of the house of the Lord in Jerusalem.”

Cross References: Numbers 3:8; 1 Chronicles 9:26; Ezra 8:33

30 So the priests and Levites accepted the silver, gold, and sacred articles, to bring them to the house of our God in Jerusalem.

Cross References: Ezra 8:25; Ezra 1:11; Numbers 4:15

Arrival and Worship in Jerusalem

31 On the twelfth day of the first month, we left the Ahava River to go to Jerusalem. The hand of our God was on us, and He protected us from enemies and bandits along the way.

Cross References: Ezra 7:9; Psalm 121:7; Genesis 35:5

32 When we arrived in Jerusalem, we rested for three days.

Cross References: Ezra 8:15; Nehemiah 2:11; Ezra 7:9

33 On the fourth day, the silver, gold, and sacred items were weighed in the house of our God by Meremoth son of Uriah the priest. Eleazar son of Phinehas was with him, along with Jozabad son of Jeshua and Noadiah son of Binnui, both Levites.

Cross References: Nehemiah 3:4; Nehemiah 3:21; Ezra 8:24

34 Everything was accounted for by number and weight, and the entire weight was officially recorded at that time.

Cross References: Numbers 4:32; 1 Chronicles 28:14; Ezra 8:25

35 Then the exiles who had returned from captivity offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel: twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, and twelve male goats as a sin offering—all as a burnt offering to the Lord.

Cross References: Numbers 7:87; Ezra 6:17; Leviticus 4:14

36 They also delivered the king's orders to the royal governors and officials in the region west of the Euphrates. These officials then supported the people and the temple of God.

Cross References: Ezra 7:21; Nehemiah 2:7; Ezra 6:8

Key Lessons from Ezra Chapter 8

1. Leadership Requires Preparation and Accountability Ezra carefully documented those returning, sought Levites, and took great care in managing God's treasures. Leadership in God's work must be prayerful, thoughtful, and accountable. 2. God Answers When We Seek Him Humbly Before journeying, Ezra called for a fast. Their dependence was not on human security but on divine protection—and God honored their faith. 3. Worship Involves Sacrifice and Holiness The gifts and people were consecrated to the Lord. Worship isn't just ritual; it's reverent and sacrificial, giving God the best we have. 4. Faith Is Tested on the Journey Ezra could have requested royal guards but chose instead to trust God's protection. True faith often shows up in the risks we take when we lean on Him. 5. Community in Worship Reflects Unity and Gratitude The returnees offered sacrifices for all Israel—not just themselves. Worship brings people together under God's covenant promises.

Ezra Chapter 9 — Crawford Standard Bible

A Troubling Report of Compromise

1 After these things were completed, the leaders came to me and said, "The people of Israel, including the priests and the Levites, have not kept themselves separate from the people of the surrounding nations. They are following the detestable practices of the Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Jebusites, Ammonites, Moabites, Egyptians, and Amorites.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 7:1; Deuteronomy 23:3; Nehemiah 13:23

2 They've even married their daughters and given their own daughters to these people for their sons. As a result, the holy people have mixed themselves with the nations around them. And the worst offenders have been the leaders and officials."

Cross References: Deuteronomy 7:3; Exodus 34:16; Malachi 2:11

Ezra's Deep Distress and Mourning

3 When I heard this, I tore my clothes and cloak in grief. I pulled out hair from my head and beard and sat down in shock and horror.

Cross References: Job 1:20; Joshua 7:6; Nehemiah 13:25

4 Everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel gathered around me because of the unfaithfulness of the exiles, and I sat there appalled until the time of the evening sacrifice.

Cross References: Isaiah 66:2; Ezra 10:3; 1 Kings 18:36

Ezra's Prayer of Confession

5 Then, at the time of the evening sacrifice, I rose up from my deep grief. With my torn garments still on me, I fell to my knees and spread out my hands to the Lord my God.

Cross References: Daniel 9:3; 1 Kings 8:54; Psalm 141:2

6 I prayed: “O my God, I am too ashamed and humiliated to lift my face to You. Our sins are piled higher than our heads, and our guilt has reached to the heavens.

Cross References: Daniel 9:7; Psalm 38:4; Jeremiah 3:25

7 From the days of our ancestors until now, we have been terribly guilty. Because of our sins, we—along with our kings and priests—have been handed over to foreign kings. We have suffered sword, captivity, theft, and disgrace. That’s our condition even now.

Cross References: Daniel 9:8; Nehemiah 9:32; Lamentations 5:7

8 But now, for a brief moment, we’ve experienced Your grace. You have given us a small remnant and a place of safety in Your holy presence. You have brightened our eyes and granted us some relief, even though we’re still in bondage.

Cross References: Isaiah 1:9; 1 Samuel 14:27; Nehemiah 9:31

9 Though we are slaves, our God has not abandoned us in our slavery. He has shown us mercy in the sight of the kings of Persia. He has revived us so we could rebuild the house of our God, restore its ruins, and give us a protective wall in Judah and Jerusalem.

Cross References: Nehemiah 9:36; Ezra 7:6; Psalm 106:46

The Weight of Guilt and the Righteousness of God

10 And now, our God, what can we say after this? For we have abandoned Your commands,

Cross References: Nehemiah 9:33; Daniel 9:5; Psalm 106:6

11 which You gave through Your servants the prophets. They said, ‘The land you are entering to possess is polluted with the detestable practices of its people. The land is filled from one end to the other with their uncleanness.

Cross References: Leviticus 18:25; Deuteronomy 18:9; Nehemiah 9:30

12 Therefore, do not give your daughters to their sons or take their daughters for your sons. Do not seek a treaty or their wealth, so that you may grow strong, enjoy the good things of the land, and leave it to your children as an inheritance forever.’

Cross References: Deuteronomy 7:3; Joshua 23:12; Deuteronomy 23:6

13 After everything that has happened to us because of our evil deeds and great guilt—and yet You, our God, have punished us far less than we deserve and have given us such a great deliverance—

Cross References: Job 11:6; Psalm 103:10; Lamentations 3:22

14 should we again violate Your commands and intermarry with these people who do such detestable things? Wouldn’t You become so angry with us that You would completely destroy us, leaving no one left?

Cross References: Deuteronomy 7:4; Joshua 23:16; Deuteronomy 6:15

15 Lord God of Israel, You are righteous. We are left here as a remnant, saved only by Your mercy. But here we are, standing in guilt before You—there's no way we could possibly stand before You because of this.”

Cross References: Nehemiah 9:33; Daniel 9:14; Psalm 130:3

Key Lessons from Ezra Chapter 9

1. Spiritual Compromise Has Deep Consequences Intermarriage with pagan nations wasn't merely cultural—it symbolized a spiritual compromise that could derail the holiness God called His people to uphold. 2. True Repentance Is Marked by Grief and Humility Ezra's reaction wasn't casual; he tore his clothes, pulled out his hair, and sat in stunned silence. Real repentance involves sorrow that goes to the heart. 3. God's Grace Shines Brightest in Our Weakness Though Israel had sinned greatly, God still offered a moment of grace—a remnant, a temple, and favor with kings. His mercy always gives hope. 4. We Deserve Judgment, But God Gives Deliverance Ezra acknowledged that their punishment was less than they deserved. God is just, but His mercy holds back the full weight of what sin deserves. 5. The Righteous Cannot Stand Before God on Their Own Ezra ends by admitting they have no defense—no way to stand before God apart from His grace. This foreshadows the need for a perfect intercessor—Christ.

Ezra Chapter 10 — Crawford Standard Bible

A Public Outcry for Repentance

1 While Ezra was praying and confessing, weeping and lying face down in front of the house of God, a large crowd of men, women, and children from Israel gathered around him. The people also wept bitterly.

Cross References: Judges 2:4; Nehemiah 8:9; Joel 2:12

2 Then Shecaniah son of Jehiel, from the family of Elam, spoke up and said to Ezra, “We have been unfaithful to our God by marrying women from the surrounding peoples. But there is still hope for Israel.

Cross References: Leviticus 26:40; Nehemiah 1:6; 1 John 1:9

3 So let's make a covenant with our God to divorce these foreign wives and send them away along with their children, according to the advice of you, my lord, and those who tremble at God's command. Let us act according to the Law.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 29:12; Nehemiah 9:38; 2 Chronicles 15:12

4 Get up, for it is your duty to take the lead in this matter. We will support you—be strong and do it!”

Cross References: Joshua 1:9; 1 Chronicles 28:10; Deuteronomy 31:6

A Nationwide Call to Return to Covenant Faithfulness

5 Then Ezra stood up and made the leading priests, Levites, and all the Israelites take an oath to do what had been suggested. And they all swore to it.

Cross References: Exodus 24:3; Nehemiah 5:12; 2 Chronicles 15:14

6 Ezra then left the front of the house of God and went to the room of Jehohanan son of Eliashib. He stayed there without eating or drinking, because he was mourning over the unfaithfulness of the returned exiles.

Cross References: Nehemiah 13:4; Daniel 10:3; Joel 1:13

7 A public announcement was sent out throughout Judah and Jerusalem, calling all the exiles to come to Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 30:5; Jonah 3:7; Nehemiah 8:1

8 Anyone who failed to come within three days, in accordance with the decision of the leaders and elders, would forfeit all his property and be expelled from the community of the exiles.

Cross References: Judges 5:23; Ezra 7:26; Numbers 15:30

A Stormy Gathering and Bold Confession

9 On the twentieth day of the ninth month, all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered in Jerusalem. They sat in the open square before the house of God, trembling because of the matter at hand and because of the heavy rain.

Cross References: Nehemiah 8:1; Haggai 2:18; 1 Samuel 12:18

10 Then Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, “You have been unfaithful by marrying foreign women, adding to Israel’s guilt.

Cross References: Nehemiah 13:27; Leviticus 5:5; Joshua 7:19

11 Now confess your sins to the Lord, the God of your ancestors, and do what pleases Him. Separate yourselves from the surrounding peoples and from your foreign wives.”

Cross References: Joshua 7:19; 1 John 1:9; 2 Chronicles 30:8

12 Then the whole assembly responded loudly, “Yes, we must do as you have said.

Cross References: Exodus 19:8; Deuteronomy 5:27; Joshua 24:24

13 But there are many people here, and it’s the rainy season. We can’t stand outside. Besides, this matter cannot be resolved in a day or two, because so many of us are involved.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 12:18; Proverbs 27:1; Nehemiah 4:10

14 Let our leaders represent the entire assembly. Let all those who have married foreign women come at appointed times, along with the elders and judges of each city, until the fierce anger of our God over this issue is turned away from us.”

Cross References: Numbers 25:5; Deuteronomy 16:18; Deuteronomy 17:9

15 Only Jonathan son of Asahel and Jahzeiah son of Tikvah opposed this, and they were supported by Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite.

Cross References: Numbers 16:2; 2 Chronicles 30:18; Acts 15:39

A Careful Review and National Reform

16 So the returned exiles did as proposed. Ezra the priest appointed men who were family leaders, all listed by name. On the first day of the tenth month, they began their investigation,

Cross References: Numbers 1:4; 1 Chronicles 24:6; Nehemiah 8:13

17 and by the first day of the first month, they finished dealing with all the men who had married foreign wives.

Cross References: Exodus 40:2; Ezra 7:9; Nehemiah 8:2

List of Those Who Repented

18 Among the priests, the following were found to have married foreign wives: from the descendants of Jeshua son of Jozadak and his brothers—Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedaliah.

Cross References: Ezra 3:2; Nehemiah 12:10; Malachi 2:7

19 They pledged to divorce their wives and each offered a ram from the flock as a guilt offering.

Cross References: Leviticus 5:15; Leviticus 6:6; Ezekiel 33:15

20 From the descendants of Immer: Hanani and Zebadiah.

Cross References: Ezra 2:37; Nehemiah 7:40; Malachi 2:8

21 From the descendants of Harim: Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel, and Uziah.

Key Lessons from Ezra Chapter 10

1. Repentance Requires Real Action It's not enough to feel sorry for sin—true repentance includes obedience and the painful but necessary steps to make things right with God. 2. Covenant Renewal Sometimes Requires Sacrifice The Israelites made a hard decision to put away their foreign wives—relationships that had led them into spiritual compromise. God's holiness must come first. 3. Leadership Must Model and Enforce God's Word Ezra didn't just pray—he led. His actions stirred the leaders and the nation to take ownership and accountability. 4. Corporate Sin Demands Corporate Repentance This was a national issue, and it was addressed publicly, with shared commitment to restoration. 5. God's Mercy Is Evident in Correction Though painful, the people's willingness to confess and change shows that God was still at work—purifying and restoring His chosen people.

Structure of Nehemiah

The book can be divided into two main parts:

1. Rebuilding the Walls (Chapters 1–7)

- Nehemiah's burden and call (Ch. 1–2)
- The construction and opposition (Ch. 3–6)
- Completion and registration of the people (Ch. 7)

2. Renewing the Covenant (Chapters 8–13)

- Public reading of the Law (Ch. 8)
- Confession and covenant renewal (Ch. 9–10)
- Reforms in Jerusalem (Ch. 11–12)
- Final reforms and warnings (Ch. 13)

This dual focus on physical and spiritual restoration reflects God's desire to rebuild not only broken cities but broken hearts.

Major Themes

- Godly Leadership – Nehemiah is a model of servant leadership marked by prayer, courage, and integrity.
 - Prayer and Dependence – Nearly every chapter highlights Nehemiah's devotion to prayer, showing that lasting work begins on our knees.
 - Rebuilding and Renewal – The story is about more than a wall; it's about restoring identity, worship, and covenant faithfulness.
 - Opposition and Perseverance – The people face slander, threats, discouragement, and internal strife—but they persevere.
 - Covenant Commitment – Revival comes through repentance, reading God's Word, and reestablishing godly practices.

Why Nehemiah Matters Today

In a world where spiritual foundations are often broken and moral walls are in ruins, Nehemiah reminds us that God is in the restoration business. He still raises up Nehemiahs—men and women who see the brokenness around them and respond with prayer, courage, and faith-filled action.

This book speaks directly to:

- Those burdened for their community, nation, or church.
- Those who feel called to lead, build, restore, or protect.
- Those longing for revival through God's Word and godly reform.

Nehemiah teaches us that leadership and reform must begin with personal surrender to the Lord.

Introduction to the Book of Nehemiah

“So I prayed to the God of heaven.” – Nehemiah 2:4

Title and Meaning

The book of Nehemiah is named after its central figure, Nehemiah, whose name means “The Lord comforts” in Hebrew (Nechemyah). In the Hebrew Bible, Nehemiah was originally part of a single scroll with the Book of Ezra, as both books recount the return from Babylonian exile and the rebuilding of Jerusalem. Only later in history were they separated into two distinct books. Nehemiah was a godly Jewish official serving in the Persian court who felt a deep burden for his people and their city. The book chronicles his leadership in rebuilding Jerusalem’s walls and reviving the faith of the returned exiles.

Author and Date

Though the text does not explicitly name its author, Nehemiah is traditionally credited as the primary source, particularly for the first-person memoir sections (chapters 1–7 and parts of 13). The remainder of the book, especially the narrative overlap with Ezra, may have been compiled by Ezra or another inspired scribe. Nehemiah’s events take place in the mid-5th century BC, around 445–425 BC, during the reign of King Artaxerxes I of Persia. The book is part of the post-exilic historical books, which include Ezra, Esther, Haggai, Zechariah, and Malachi.

Purpose of Nehemiah

The Book of Nehemiah was written to document:

- The physical rebuilding of Jerusalem’s walls despite fierce opposition.
- The spiritual restoration of the people through the reading of the Law.
- The importance of prayerful leadership, moral reform, and covenant renewal. It teaches us:
- That God uses ordinary people to accomplish extraordinary purposes.
- That faith must be demonstrated through action, perseverance, and courage.
- That national restoration requires spiritual revival.
- That prayer, planning, and persistence are tools of faithful leadership.

- Prayer and Dependence – Nearly every chapter highlights Nehemiah’s devotion to prayer, showing that lasting work begins on our knees.
- Rebuilding and Renewal – The story is about more than a wall; it’s about restoring identity, worship, and covenant faithfulness.
- Opposition and Perseverance – The people face slander, threats, discouragement, and internal strife—but they persevere.
- Covenant Commitment – Revival comes through repentance, reading God’s Word, and reestablishing godly practices.

Why Nehemiah Matters Today

In a world where spiritual foundations are often broken and moral walls are in ruins, Nehemiah reminds us that God is in the restoration business. He still raises up Nehemiahs—men and women who see the brokenness around them and respond with prayer, courage, and faith-filled action. This book speaks directly to:

- Those burdened for their community, nation, or church.
- Those who feel called to lead, build, restore, or protect.
- Those longing for revival through God’s Word and godly reform. Nehemiah teaches us that leadership and reform must begin with personal surrender to the Lord.

Key Verse

“So I said to them, ‘You know very well what trouble we are in. Jerusalem lies in ruins... Let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem and end this disgrace!’” – Nehemiah 2:17

This verse captures the passion of Nehemiah’s mission—rebuilding for the glory of God and the identity of His people. It is both a historical moment and a timeless call for every generation to rise and build.

Nehemiah Chapter 1 — Crawford Standard Bible

Nehemiah's Burden for Jerusalem

1 These are the words of Nehemiah son of Hacaliah. In the month of Kislev, during the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes' reign, I was in the fortress of Susa.

Cross References: Esther 1:2; Daniel 8:2; Nehemiah 2:1

2 One of my brothers, Hanani, came with some men from Judah. I asked them about the Jews who had returned from exile and about the condition of Jerusalem.

Cross References: Nehemiah 7:2; Ezra 8:1; Jeremiah 40:11

3 They said to me, "Those who survived the exile and are back in the province are in great trouble and disgrace. The wall of Jerusalem is broken down, and its gates have been burned with fire."

Cross References: 2 Kings 25:10; 2 Chronicles 36:19; Psalm 79:1

A Broken Heart Leads to Prayer

4 When I heard these words, I sat down and wept. I mourned for several days, fasting and praying to the God of heaven.

Cross References: Ezra 9:3; Daniel 9:3; Psalm 137:1

5 I said, "O Lord, God of heaven, the great and awesome God, who keeps His covenant of love with those who love Him and obey His commands,

Cross References: Daniel 9:4; Deuteronomy 7:9; Exodus 20:6

6 please listen to my prayer! Look down and see me praying night and day for your people Israel. I confess that we have sinned against You. Yes, even I and my father's family have sinned.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:29; Daniel 9:20; 2 Chronicles 6:40

7 We have acted very wickedly toward You. We have not obeyed the commands, statutes, and laws You gave Your servant Moses.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 28:15; Daniel 9:5; Leviticus 26:14

A Covenant Remembered

8 Please remember what You told Your servant Moses: 'If you are unfaithful, I will scatter you among the nations.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 4:27; Leviticus 26:33; Deuteronomy 28:64

9 But if you return to Me and obey My commands, then even if your exiles are at the farthest horizon, I will gather them and bring them back to the place I have chosen for My name to dwell.'

Cross References: Deuteronomy 30:4; Deuteronomy 12:11; 1 Kings 8:48

10 These are Your servants and Your people, whom You redeemed by Your great power and strong hand.

Cross References: Exodus 32:11; Deuteronomy 9:29; Deuteronomy 7:8

A Prayer for Favor

11 O Lord, please hear my prayer! Listen to the prayers of those of us who delight in honoring You. Please grant me success today by making the king favorable to me. Put it in his heart to be kind to me.” I was the king’s cupbearer.

Cross References: Nehemiah 2:1; Proverbs 21:1; Genesis 40:1

Key Lessons from Nehemiah Chapter 1

1. Brokenness Precedes Vision Nehemiah’s journey began with a burden. Before he ever built a wall, he wept, fasted, and prayed. Real change begins when we allow ourselves to be moved by what moves God. 2. Prayer Is the Foundation of Leadership Nehemiah didn’t rush to act—he started with prayer. He poured his heart out to God, confessing sin and calling on God’s covenant promises. 3. True Repentance Includes “We” Not Just “They” Nehemiah confessed not just the sins of the nation, but included himself and his family. Revival begins with personal humility and responsibility. 4. God Honors His Word Nehemiah prayed God’s promises back to Him. He knew Scripture and stood on it. Our prayers gain power when they are anchored in the Word of God. 5. Preparation Happens in the Waiting Nehemiah was just a cupbearer—but he was already preparing his heart for what God would call him to do. Before God opens doors, He prepares hearts.

Nehemiah Chapter 2 — Crawford Standard Bible

A Prayer and a Bold Request

1 In the month of Nisan, during the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, wine was brought before the king. I took the wine and gave it to him. I had never before looked sad in his presence.

Cross References: Nehemiah 1:1; Genesis 40:11; Esther 5:2

2 The king asked me, “Why do you look so sad when you’re not sick? This can only be sadness of heart.” I was terrified,

Cross References: Genesis 4:6; Proverbs 15:13; 1 Samuel 1:18

3 but I replied, “May the king live forever! Why shouldn’t I be sad when the city where my ancestors are buried lies in ruins, and its gates have been destroyed by fire?”

Cross References: Daniel 2:4; Nehemiah 1:3; Daniel 6:21

4 Then the king said, “What is it you’re requesting?” So I prayed silently to the God of heaven,

Cross References: Nehemiah 1:4; Ezra 7:27; Psalm 141:2

5 and I answered the king, “If it pleases the king, and if I have found favor in your sight, send me to Judah, to the city where my ancestors are buried, so I can rebuild it.”

Cross References: Ezra 7:6; Genesis 47:29; Esther 5:8

6 The king, with the queen sitting beside him, asked, “How long will your journey take? When will you return?” I gave him a time, and it pleased the king to send me.

Cross References: Ezra 7:13; Nehemiah 2:1; Esther 1:9

Letters of Provision and Protection

7 I also said to the king, “If it pleases the king, let me have letters for the governors across the Euphrates River, so they’ll allow me safe passage to Judah.

Cross References: Ezra 7:21; Ezra 8:36; Ezra 4:10

8 And a letter to Asaph, the keeper of the king’s forest, so he’ll give me timber to make beams for the gates of the temple fortress, for the city wall, and for the house I will occupy.” The king granted my request, because the gracious hand of my God was on me.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 22:4; Ezra 3:7; Nehemiah 2:18

9 When I came to the governors beyond the river, I gave them the king’s letters. The king had also sent army officers and cavalry with me.

Cross References: Ezra 8:22; Ezra 4:10; Ezra 7:25

10 But when Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official heard about my arrival, they were very upset that someone had come to help the people of Israel.

Cross References: Nehemiah 4:1; Ezra 4:4; Nehemiah 6:1

Inspecting the Broken Walls

11 I arrived in Jerusalem and stayed there three days.

Cross References: Ezra 8:32; Ezra 7:9; Nehemiah 2:12

12 Then I got up during the night with a few men. I had not told anyone what God had put in my heart to do for Jerusalem. I was riding my own animal, and no other animals were with me.

Cross References: Nehemiah 7:5; Proverbs 21:1; Genesis 24:27

13 I went out at night through the Valley Gate, past the Dragon’s Spring, and to the Dung Gate. I examined the broken walls of Jerusalem and the burned gates.

Cross References: Nehemiah 1:3; Nehemiah 3:13; 2 Chronicles 26:9

14 Then I went on to the Fountain Gate and the King’s Pool, but there was not enough room for my animal to get through.

Cross References: Nehemiah 3:15; 2 Kings 20:20; Isaiah 22:11

15 So I went up the valley by night, inspecting the wall, and then turned back and entered again through the Valley Gate.

Cross References: Nehemiah 2:13; Nehemiah 3:15; Isaiah 22:10

16 The city officials didn't know where I had gone or what I was doing. I hadn't yet told the Jews, priests, nobles, officials, or others who would be working on the construction.

Cross References: Nehemiah 2:12; Proverbs 3:5; Ecclesiastes 3:7

Let Us Rise and Build

17 Then I said to them, "You see the trouble we're in—Jerusalem is in ruins, and its gates are burned with fire. Come, let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem so we will no longer be a disgrace."

Cross References: Nehemiah 1:3; Psalm 79:4; Ezra 4:16

18 I told them how the gracious hand of my God had been on me, and what the king had said to me. They replied, "Let's rise up and build!" So they prepared themselves for the good work.

Cross References: Ezra 7:9; Nehemiah 2:8; Ezra 5:2

19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite official, and Geshem the Arab heard about it, they mocked and ridiculed us. They said, "What is this you're doing? Are you rebelling against the king?"

Cross References: Nehemiah 4:1; Ezra 4:13; Psalm 44:13

20 I replied, "The God of heaven will make us prosper. We, His servants, will rise and build. But you have no share, no right, and no legacy in Jerusalem."

Cross References: Ezra 4:3; Nehemiah 1:4; Psalm 118:6

Key Lessons from Nehemiah Chapter 2

1. God Opens Doors When We Pray and Act Boldly Nehemiah's courage in approaching the king came after prayer. Faith isn't just waiting—it's stepping forward in confidence, trusting God to guide and provide. 2. Divine Favor Can Move Worldly Authorities The king not only permitted Nehemiah to go but also gave him protection and resources. When God moves, He can use even unbelievers to accomplish His purpose. 3. Wise Leadership Inspects Before It Acts Nehemiah didn't rally the people before understanding the scope of the damage. Leaders observe, listen, and plan before calling others to action. 4. Opposition Is Inevitable, but God's Favor Is Greater When God's people rise to rebuild, the enemy always mocks and resists. But Nehemiah didn't let ridicule stop him—he pointed to God as the true source of their mission. 5. Your Calling Is Not Everyone's Calling Nehemiah boldly declared that Sanballat, Tobiah, and Geshem had "no portion" in God's work. Not everyone will walk with you in obedience—learn to discern who belongs and who doesn't.

Nehemiah Chapter 3 — Crawford Standard Bible

Rebuilding the Sheep Gate and Nearby Walls

1 Then Eliashib the high priest and his fellow priests started rebuilding the Sheep Gate. They consecrated it and set up its doors. They continued their work as far as the Tower of the Hundred and consecrated that too, as well as the Tower of Hananel.

Cross References: John 5:2; Nehemiah 12:39; Jeremiah 31:38

2 The men of Jericho built next to him, and next to them Zaccur son of Imri built.

Cross References: Ezra 2:34; Joshua 6:26; Nehemiah 7:36

3 The Fish Gate was built by the sons of Hassenaah. They laid its beams and installed its doors, bolts, and bars.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 33:14; Zephaniah 1:10; Nehemiah 12:39

4 Meremoth son of Uriah and grandson of Hakkoz repaired the next section. Next to him was Meshullam son of Berekiah, grandson of Meshezabel. Then came Zadok son of Baana.

Cross References: Ezra 8:33; Nehemiah 6:18; Ezra 2:2

5 The people from Tekoa made repairs, but their nobles refused to put their shoulders to the work under their supervisors.

Cross References: Amos 1:1; Nehemiah 3:27; Judges 5:23

The Old Gate and Northern Sections

6 The Old Gate was repaired by Joiada son of Paseah and Meshullam son of Besodeiah. They laid its beams and installed its doors, bolts, and bars.

Cross References: Nehemiah 12:39; 2 Kings 22:14; Zephaniah 1:10

7 Next to them worked Melatiah the Gibeonite and Jadon the Meronothite, men from Gibeon and Mizpah, who were working under the authority of the governor of the province west of the Euphrates River.

Cross References: Joshua 9:3; Joshua 18:26; Nehemiah 3:19

8 Uzziel son of Harhaiah, one of the goldsmiths, repaired the next section. Hananiah, a perfume-maker, worked next to him. They restored Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.

Cross References: Exodus 31:3; Nehemiah 12:38; 2 Chronicles 25:23

9 Rephaiah son of Hur, ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, repaired the next section.

Cross References: Exodus 17:10; Nehemiah 3:12; 1 Chronicles 2:19

10 Jedaiah son of Harumaph repaired the wall across from his own house. Next to him, Hattush son of Hashabneiah worked.

Cross References: Ezra 2:36; 1 Chronicles 3:22; Nehemiah 3:23

Valley Gate to the Pool of Siloam

11 Malchijah son of Harim and Hasshub son of Pahath-Moab repaired another section, including the Tower of the Ovens.

Cross References: Ezra 2:6; Ezra 10:31; Nehemiah 3:19

12 Shallum son of Hallohesh, ruler of the other half of the district of Jerusalem, repaired the next section with the help of his daughters.

Cross References: Nehemiah 3:9; Numbers 27:1; Nehemiah 3:16

13 Hanun and the people of Zanoah rebuilt the Valley Gate. They installed its doors, bolts, and bars and repaired the wall for 1,000 cubits to the Dung Gate.

Cross References: Nehemiah 2:13; 2 Chronicles 26:9; Joshua 15:34

14 Malchijah son of Recab, ruler of the district of Beth Hakkerem, rebuilt the Dung Gate. He installed its doors, bolts, and bars.

Cross References: Jeremiah 6:1; Nehemiah 12:31; Jeremiah 35:6

15 Shallun son of Col-Hozeh, ruler of the district of Mizpah, repaired the Fountain Gate. He rebuilt it, roofed it, and installed its doors, bolts, and bars. He also repaired the wall by the Pool of Siloam near the King's Garden and the stairs that go down from the City of David.

Cross References: Nehemiah 2:14; John 9:7; 2 Kings 25:4

Southern Walls and House Repairs

16 Nehemiah son of Azbuk, ruler of half the district of Beth Zur, repaired the wall to a point across from the tombs of David, as far as the artificial pool and the house of the warriors.

Cross References: 1 Kings 2:10; 2 Chronicles 11:7; 2 Samuel 23:8

17 Next to him, the Levites made repairs under Rehum son of Bani. Beside him was Hashabiah, ruler of half the district of Keilah, who supervised the work in his district.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 23:1; Nehemiah 10:9; Ezra 2:40

18 Then their fellow Levites, under Binnui son of Henadad, ruler of the other half of Keilah, made repairs.

Cross References: Ezra 3:9; Nehemiah 3:24; Nehemiah 10:9

19 Next to him, Ezer son of Jeshua, ruler of Mizpah, repaired another section, opposite the ascent to the armory at the angle of the wall.

Cross References: Nehemiah 3:7; 1 Chronicles 12:33; Nehemiah 3:20 20 Baruch son of Zabbai worked with great zeal and repaired another section, from the angle to the entrance of the house of Eliashib the high priest.

Cross References: Jeremiah 32:12; Nehemiah 3:1; Nehemiah 13:4

21 Meremoth son of Uriah and grandson of Hakkoz repaired another section from the entrance of Eliashib's house to the end of it.

Cross References: Nehemiah 3:4; Ezra 8:33; Nehemiah 3:1

Priests, Families, and Additional Sections

22 The priests from the surrounding region made repairs next.

Cross References: Genesis 13:12; 1 Kings 7:46; Nehemiah 3:1

23 Benjamin and Hasshub repaired the wall in front of their house. Azariah son of Maaseiah and grandson of Ananiah repaired the section next to his house.

Cross References: Nehemiah 3:10; Nehemiah 3:28; Nehemiah 3:29

24 Binnui son of Henadad repaired another section, from Azariah's house to the angle and the corner.

Cross References: Nehemiah 3:18; Ezra 2:10; Nehemiah 10:9

25 Palal son of Uzai repaired the section opposite the angle and the tower that juts out from the upper palace near the court of the guard. Pedaiah son of Parosh helped with repairs.

Cross References: Jeremiah 32:2; 2 Chronicles 26:9; Ezra 2:3

26 The temple servants living on the hill of Ophel repaired to a point opposite the Water Gate on the east and the projecting tower.

Cross References: Ezra 2:43; 2 Chronicles 27:3; Nehemiah 8:1

27 Next to them, the people from Tekoa repaired another section, from the great projecting tower to the wall of Ophel.

Cross References: Nehemiah 3:5; Amos 1:1; Nehemiah 3:26

28 Above the Horse Gate, the priests made repairs, each in front of his own house.

Cross References: Jeremiah 31:40; 2 Kings 11:16; Nehemiah 3:1

29 Zadok son of Immer made repairs opposite his house. Next to him was Shemaiah son of Shekaniah, the keeper of the East Gate.

Cross References: Ezra 2:37; 1 Chronicles 9:21; Nehemiah 3:28

30 Hananiah son of Shelemiah and Hanun, the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired another section. Next to them, Meshullam son of Berekiah made repairs across from his living quarters.

Cross References: Nehemiah 3:13; Nehemiah 6:18; Nehemiah 13:5

31 Malchijah, one of the goldsmiths, repaired to the point opposite the gate of the temple servants and the merchants, opposite the Inspection Gate, and to the room above the corner.

Cross References: Nehemiah 3:8; Ezra 2:43; Ezekiel 43:21

32 Between the room above the corner and the Sheep Gate, the goldsmiths and merchants made repairs.

Cross References: Nehemiah 3:1; Nehemiah 3:8; Zephaniah 1:11

Key Lessons from Nehemiah Chapter 3

1. Everyone Has a Role in God's Work This chapter shows people from every walk of life—priests, rulers, craftsmen, merchants, women, and even perfume-makers—all joining together to rebuild. No task in God's kingdom is too small. 2. Some Will Refuse to Help The nobles of Tekoa refused to join the work. Not everyone will commit to the mission. Don't let that stop the momentum of faithful builders. 3. Work Begins at Home Many repaired sections of the wall right across from their own homes. Restoration often starts in our own households before extending outward. 4.

Leaders Must Lead by Example Rulers of districts, priests, and family heads personally took part in the rebuilding. Leadership in God’s work isn’t just about delegation—it’s about participation. 5.

Diligent Effort Is Noticed by God Baruch “zealously” repaired his section. God sees and honors those who pour passion into His work, even if the world doesn’t.

Nehemiah Chapter 4 — Crawford Standard Bible

Mockery and Opposition from Enemies

1 When Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he became furious and was greatly enraged. He mocked the Jews,

Cross References: Nehemiah 2:10; Psalm 2:1; Ezra 4:4

2 and said in front of his companions and the army of Samaria, “What are these weak Jews doing? Will they restore it themselves? Will they offer sacrifices? Will they finish in a day? Can they bring stones back to life from these heaps of rubble, burned as they are?”

Cross References: 2 Kings 17:24; Ezra 4:2; Psalm 79:4

3 Tobiah the Ammonite, who was beside him, said, “Even if a fox climbed on what they’re building, it would break down their stone wall!”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 23:3; Song of Solomon 2:15; Nehemiah 2:10 4 So I prayed: “Hear us, O our God, for we are being mocked. Turn their insults back on their own heads. Make them captives in a foreign land.

Cross References: Psalm 79:12; Psalm 123:3; Jeremiah 18:23

5 Do not cover up their sin or erase their guilt from Your sight, for they have provoked You to anger in front of the builders.”

Cross References: Psalm 109:14; Jeremiah 18:23; Nehemiah 6:14

Unity and Progress Despite Threats

6 So we rebuilt the wall until all of it was joined together to half its height, because the people had a heart to work.

Cross References: Exodus 36:2; Haggai 1:14; Ephesians 4:16

7 But when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites, and the people of Ashdod heard that the repairs to Jerusalem’s walls were progressing and that the gaps were being closed, they became extremely angry.

Cross References: Nehemiah 6:1; Ezra 4:7; Psalm 83:5

8 They all plotted together to come and fight against Jerusalem and stir up trouble.

Cross References: Psalm 83:3; Ezra 4:5; Nehemiah 6:2

9 But we prayed to our God and posted a guard day and night to meet this threat.

Cross References: Psalm 127:1; Nehemiah 4:13; Psalm 55:17

Discouragement and Fear Among the Workers

10 Meanwhile, the people of Judah said, “The strength of the workers is failing, and there is so much rubble, we can’t rebuild the wall.”

Cross References: Ezra 4:4; Isaiah 40:29; Nehemiah 4:14

11 And our enemies said, “They won’t see or know anything until we’re right among them. We’ll kill them and stop the work.”

Cross References: Psalm 83:4; Esther 3:13; Nehemiah 6:9

12 Then the Jews who lived near them came and warned us ten times, “Wherever you turn, they will attack us.”

Cross References: Nehemiah 4:8; Numbers 14:9; 2 Kings 6:16

Vigilance and Defense While Building

13 So I placed armed guards behind the lowest parts of the wall, in the vulnerable spots. I stationed the people by families with their swords, spears, and bows.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 32:5; Nehemiah 4:16; Ephesians 6:11

14 Then I looked over everything and said to the nobles, the officials, and the rest of the people, “Don’t be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, who is great and awesome, and fight for your brothers, your sons and daughters, your wives and your homes!”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 20:3; Numbers 14:9; Nehemiah 1:5

15 When our enemies learned that we knew their plans and that God had frustrated them, we all returned to the wall, each to his own work.

Cross References: Psalm 33:10; Nehemiah 4:9; Proverbs 21:30

16 From that day on, half of my men worked on the construction while the other half held spears, shields, bows, and armor. The leaders supported all the people of Judah.

Cross References: Nehemiah 4:13; Ephesians 6:16; 2 Chronicles 26:14

17 Those who carried materials did the work with one hand and held a weapon with the other.

Cross References: Ephesians 6:17; Nehemiah 4:18; Luke 22:36

18 Each of the builders wore his sword at his side while he worked. And the man who sounded the trumpet stayed with me.

Cross References: Ephesians 6:14; Nehemiah 4:20; 1 Corinthians 14:8

Strategy and Readiness for Battle

19 Then I said to the nobles, the officials, and the rest of the people, “The work is extensive and spread out, and we are far apart from one another on the wall.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 3:9; Nehemiah 4:20; Exodus 18:18

20 Wherever you hear the sound of the trumpet, gather to us there. Our God will fight for us!”

Cross References: Exodus 14:14; Deuteronomy 20:4; 2 Chronicles 20:15

21 So we continued the work, with half the men holding spears from dawn until the stars came out.

Cross References: Nehemiah 4:16; Exodus 17:12; Psalm 127:2

22 At that time I also told the people, “Let every man and his servant stay inside Jerusalem at night so they can be guards by night and workers by day.”

Cross References: Nehemiah 7:3; Nehemiah 4:9; Song of Solomon 3:3

23 So none of us—neither I, nor my brothers, nor my servants, nor the guards who followed me—ever took off our clothes, except for washing.

Cross References: Ephesians 6:13; 1 Kings 20:11; 2 Samuel 11:11

Key Lessons from Nehemiah Chapter 4

1. Opposition is inevitable when doing God’s work Sanballat, Tobiah, and others mocked and plotted against the people, but God’s purpose prevailed. Expect resistance, but press on. 2. Prayer is the first line of defense Nehemiah didn’t retaliate with insults—he turned to prayer. When mocked or attacked, seek God’s help before anything else. 3. Work with watchfulness The builders held tools in one hand and weapons in the other. God’s work must be done with diligence and readiness. 4. Encouragement builds morale Nehemiah reminded the people not to be afraid but to remember the greatness of God. Encouragement keeps faith strong during trials. 5. Unity defeats fear When threats rose, the people worked together, armed and alert. Unity among God’s people disarms the enemy. 6. God fights for His people “Our God will fight for us” wasn’t just a slogan—it was a reality. When you trust in the Lord, you’re never fighting alone.

Nehemiah Chapter 5 — Crawford Standard Bible

A Cry Against Oppression Among the People

1 There was a great outcry from the people and their wives against their fellow Jews.

Cross References: Exodus 3:7; Exodus 22:23; James 5:4

2 Some were saying, “We have many sons and daughters. We need grain so we can eat and survive.”

Cross References: Genesis 47:13; Genesis 47:19; Ruth 1:1

3 Others said, “We’ve had to mortgage our fields, vineyards, and homes to get grain during the famine.”

Cross References: Leviticus 25:14; Genesis 47:20; Proverbs 22:7

4 Still others said, “We’ve borrowed money to pay the king’s taxes on our fields and vineyards.”

Cross References: 1 Samuel 8:15; Matthew 22:17; Romans 13:6

5 “Even though we’re of the same flesh and blood as our fellow Jews—and our children are just like theirs—we’ve had to sell our sons and daughters into slavery. Some of our daughters are already in bondage, and there’s nothing we can do about it, because our fields and vineyards now belong to others.”

Cross References: Leviticus 25:39; Exodus 21:7; 2 Kings 4:1

Nehemiah Confronts the Nobles and Officials

6 When I heard their complaints and these words, I became very angry.

Cross References: Exodus 32:19; Mark 3:5; Ephesians 4:26

7 I thought it over and then confronted the nobles and officials. I told them, “You are charging your own people interest!” So I called a large assembly to deal with them.

Cross References: Leviticus 25:36; Exodus 22:25; Proverbs 28:8

8 I said, “As much as we’re able, we have bought back our fellow Jews who were sold to foreigners. But now you are selling your own people—and they have to be bought back by us again!” They had nothing to say in response.

Cross References: Leviticus 25:47; Jeremiah 34:8; Jeremiah 34:11

9 Then I said, “What you’re doing is not right. Shouldn’t you walk in the fear of our God to avoid the disgrace brought on us by our enemies?”

Cross References: Leviticus 25:17; Genesis 20:11; Proverbs 14:31

10 I, along with my brothers and servants, could also demand repayment in silver and grain. But let’s stop charging interest.

Cross References: Psalm 15:5; Deuteronomy 23:19; Exodus 22:25

11 Return their fields, vineyards, olive groves, and homes to them immediately, along with the interest you’ve charged them—one percent of the money, grain, new wine, and olive oil.”

Cross References: Leviticus 25:37; Ezekiel 18:8; Luke 6:35

Restitution and a Solemn Oath

12 They replied, “We will give it back and won’t demand anything more from them. We will do as you say.” Then I called the priests and made them swear to keep this promise.

Cross References: Ezra 10:5; Exodus 22:26; Deuteronomy 23:23

13 I also shook out the fold of my robe and said, “May God shake out everyone who doesn’t keep this promise—may they be shaken out and emptied of everything.” And the whole assembly said, “Amen,” and praised the Lord. And the people did what they had promised.

Nehemiah's Example of Sacrificial Leadership

14 Moreover, from the twentieth to the thirty-second year of King Artaxerxes—that's twelve years—I was appointed as governor of Judah. During that time, neither I nor my brothers accepted the food allotted to the governor.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 9:12; Acts 20:33; 2 Corinthians 11:9

15 But the earlier governors who came before me placed a heavy burden on the people and took forty shekels of silver from them in addition to food and wine. Even their assistants lorded it over the people. But I didn't do that, because I feared God.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 8:11; Ezekiel 45:9; Micah 3:1

16 Instead, I devoted myself to the work on this wall. We didn't acquire any land, and all my servants joined me in the work.

Cross References: 1 Thessalonians 2:9; Acts 20:35; 1 Corinthians 9:18

17 Moreover, 150 Jews and officials ate at my table, along with those who came to us from the surrounding nations.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 9:7; Job 31:32; Genesis 18:6

18 Every day, one ox and six choice sheep were prepared for me, along with poultry, and every ten days an abundance of all kinds of wine. But I never demanded the food allotted to the governor, because the burden on the people was already too heavy.

Cross References: 1 Kings 4:22; Genesis 18:7; 1 Samuel 25:18

19 "Remember me with favor, my God, for all I have done for these people."

Key Lessons from Nehemiah Chapter 5

1. God's people must not oppress each other Even during hardship, injustice among God's people is unacceptable. Nehemiah confronts internal exploitation with righteous anger. 2. Leadership must serve, not burden Nehemiah rejected privileges others took, choosing instead to serve sacrificially. God-honoring leaders care more for the people than for personal gain. 3. Repentance requires restitution The people not only confessed their wrongdoing but also restored what they had taken. True repentance includes action. 4. Fearing God brings integrity Nehemiah lived differently because he feared the Lord. Reverence for God should impact how we treat others. 5. God remembers faithful service Nehemiah ends this chapter not boasting but praying, "Remember me, my God, for good." Trust that nothing done for the Lord is forgotten.

Plots to Distract and Intimidate Nehemiah

1 When Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arab, and the rest of our enemies heard that I had rebuilt the wall and that no gaps remained in it—though I had not yet installed the doors in the gates—

Cross References: Nehemiah 4:1; Nehemiah 2:19; Ezra 4:1

2 Sanballat and Geshem sent me a message: “Come, let’s meet together in one of the villages on the plain of Ono.” But they were planning to harm me.

Cross References: Genesis 37:20; Psalm 55:21; Proverbs 26:24

3 So I sent messengers back with this reply: “I’m doing an important work and can’t come down. Why should the work stop while I leave it to come talk with you?”

Cross References: Luke 14:28; 1 Corinthians 15:58; Exodus 5:4

4 They sent me the same message four times, and each time I gave them the same answer.

Cross References: Proverbs 26:4; Matthew 26:63; 1 Peter 2:23

5 The fifth time, Sanballat sent his servant with an open letter in his hand.

Cross References: Ezra 4:11; 2 Samuel 11:14; Jeremiah 29:1

6 The letter said: “It is rumored among the nations—and Gashmu confirms it—that you and the Jews plan to rebel, and that’s why you are rebuilding the wall. According to these reports, you want to be their king.

Cross References: Ezra 4:12; Luke 23:2; 1 Kings 18:17

7 You’ve even appointed prophets in Jerusalem to proclaim about you, ‘There is a king in Judah!’ These things will be reported to the king. So come, let’s talk it over.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 1:5; 2 Samuel 15:10; John 19:12

8 I sent him this reply: “None of what you’re saying is true. You’re making it all up in your own mind.”

Cross References: Psalm 27:12; Psalm 35:11; Exodus 20:16

9 They were all trying to intimidate us, saying, “They’ll get too discouraged to finish the work.” But I prayed, “Now, Lord, strengthen my hands.”

Cross References: Isaiah 41:10; Judges 7:11; 1 Samuel 23:16

A False Prophet Exposed

10 Later I went to the house of Shemaiah son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabel, who had shut himself in. He said, “Let’s meet inside the Temple of God and shut the doors. They’re coming to kill you—tonight!”

Cross References: Isaiah 8:12; Jeremiah 28:15; Ezekiel 13:6

11 But I replied, “Should someone like me run away? Should I go into the Temple just to save my life? No, I will not go!”

Cross References: Numbers 1:51; Acts 4:19; Psalm 11:1

12 I realized God had not sent him, but that he had prophesied this against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

Cross References: Micah 3:11; Jeremiah 23:16; 2 Peter 2:3

13 He had been paid to intimidate me and get me to sin by acting out of fear—so they could smear my reputation and disgrace me.

Cross References: Job 2:9; Psalm 35:26; 1 Peter 3:16

14 I prayed, “My God, remember what Tobiah and Sanballat have done—and also the prophetess Noadiah and the rest who were trying to intimidate me.”

The Wall Completed in 52 Days

15 So the wall was finished on the twenty-fifth day of the month Elul. It had taken fifty-two days.

Cross References: Ezra 6:15; Zechariah 4:9; Haggai 1:14

16 When all our enemies heard this and the surrounding nations saw what had happened, they lost their confidence. They realized this work had been done with the help of our God.

Ongoing Political Intrigue

17 During those days, the nobles of Judah were exchanging many letters with Tobiah,

Cross References: Nehemiah 13:4; 2 Corinthians 6:14; James 4:4

18 because many in Judah were loyal to him. He was the son-in-law of Shecaniah son of Arah, and his son Johanan had married the daughter of Meshullam son of Berechiah.

Cross References: Nehemiah 13:28; Ezra 9:1; 1 Kings 3:1

19 These nobles kept praising Tobiah to me and reporting everything I said to him. And Tobiah kept sending letters to intimidate me.

Cross References: Psalm 41:6; Jeremiah 9:4; Proverbs 26:23

Key Lessons from Nehemiah Chapter 6

1. Stay focused on God's calling despite distractions Nehemiah refused to leave his work to entertain lies and manipulation. When you're doing God's work, stay the course. 2. Discern truth from deception Not everyone who claims to speak for God actually does. Nehemiah discerned that the "prophecy" was a trap. 3. Intimidation is a weapon of the enemy Sanballat and Tobiah used rumors and threats to try to weaken Nehemiah's resolve. But faith in God provided strength. 4. Prayer is the answer to pressure Nehemiah constantly turned to prayer: “Lord, strengthen my hands.” He depended on divine help, not just strategy. 5. God receives the glory when His work is completed Even the enemies of Israel had to admit the wall was built with the help of God. A testimony of God's power silences opposition.

Leadership and Protection Established

1 After the wall was completed and I had set up the doors, I appointed the gatekeepers, singers, and Levites.

Cross References: Nehemiah 3:1; 1 Chronicles 9:17; 1 Chronicles 26:1

2 I put my brother Hanani in charge of Jerusalem, along with Hananiah, the commander of the fortress, because he was a faithful man who feared God more than most.

Cross References: Nehemiah 1:2; Exodus 18:21; Proverbs 28:20

3 I told them, “Don’t open the gates of Jerusalem until the sun is hot, and keep them shut and locked while the guards are still on duty. Appoint residents of Jerusalem as guards—some at their posts and some near their own homes.”

A Large City with Few People

4 The city was large and spacious, but there were few people living in it, and many of the houses had not yet been rebuilt.

Cross References: Isaiah 1:7; Zechariah 2:4; Haggai 1:4

5 Then my God gave me the idea to gather the nobles, officials, and people so they could be registered by genealogy. I found the scroll of the record of those who had returned first and found this written in it:

Key Lessons from Nehemiah Chapter 7

1. Leadership requires discernment and godliness Nehemiah appointed leaders based on their faithfulness and fear of God, not just their ability. 2. Security and order follow spiritual priorities Nehemiah appointed not only guards but also singers and Levites, showing that worship and defense go hand in hand. 3. God honors remembrance and identity The genealogies reminded the people who they were and where they came from. Identity in God's covenant is vital. 4. Faithful stewardship impacts the whole community The offerings of leaders and the people were used to support the Temple and its service. Everyone played a part. 5. Accountability and spiritual integrity matter Those unable to prove their lineage were temporarily excluded from the priesthood to maintain the purity of worship.

Nehemiah Chapter 8 — Crawford Standard Bible

The Law is Publicly Read at the Water Gate

1 All the people gathered together with one heart in the open square in front of the Water Gate. They asked Ezra the scribe to bring out the Book of the Law of Moses, which the Lord had commanded for Israel.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 31:12; 2 Kings 23:2; Exodus 24:7

2 So Ezra the priest brought the Law before the whole assembly of men, women, and everyone old enough to understand. This was on the first day of the seventh month.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 31:12; Leviticus 23:24; Nehemiah 7:73

3 He read it aloud from daybreak until noon, standing in front of the square before the Water Gate, in the presence of the men, women, and others who could understand. Everyone listened attentively to the Book of the Law.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 31:11; Acts 20:7; Nehemiah 9:3

Ezra Reads and the People Respond in Worship

4 Ezra the scribe stood on a wooden platform made for the occasion. Beside him on his right stood Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Uriah, Hilkiah, and Maaseiah; and on his left stood Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchijah, Hashum, Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 34:30; 2 Kings 11:14; 2 Chronicles 6:13

5 Ezra opened the book in full view of all the people, since he was standing above them. As he opened it, all the people stood up.

Cross References: 2 Kings 23:2; Luke 4:16; Revelation 5:2

6 Ezra praised the Lord, the great God; and all the people shouted "Amen! Amen!" while lifting their hands. Then they bowed down and worshiped the Lord with their faces to the ground.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 16:36; Psalm 134:2; 1 Kings 8:54

The People Are Taught and Convicted by God's Word

7 The Levites—Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, and Pelaiah—helped the people understand the Law while the people stood in their places.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 17:8; Deuteronomy 33:10; Malachi 2:7

8 They read from the Book of the Law of God, translating and explaining the meaning so the people could understand what was being read.

Cross References: Luke 24:27; Acts 8:31; Deuteronomy 6:7

9 Then Nehemiah the governor (the Tirshatha), Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who were teaching said to the people, “This day is holy to the Lord your God. Do not mourn or weep.” For all the people were weeping as they listened to the words of the Law.

Cross References: 2 Kings 22:11; 2 Chronicles 34:27; Joel 2:12

Joy in the Lord and Sharing with Others

10 Then Nehemiah said, “Go and enjoy rich food and sweet drinks, and send some to those who have nothing prepared. This day is holy to our Lord. Don’t be sad, for the joy of the Lord is your strength!”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 16:14; Ecclesiastes 9:7; Psalm 28:7

11 The Levites calmed all the people, saying, “Be still, for this is a holy day. Do not grieve.”

Cross References: Exodus 14:14; Zechariah 2:13; Psalm 46:10

12 So the people went away to eat, drink, send portions to others, and celebrate with great joy, because they had understood the words that had been made known to them.

Cross References: Esther 9:19; Deuteronomy 16:11; 1 Chronicles 29:22

The Feast of Tabernacles Restored

13 On the second day, the heads of all the families, along with the priests and Levites, gathered around Ezra the scribe to gain deeper insight into the words of the Law.

Cross References: Ezra 7:10; Acts 17:11; Psalm 1:2

14 As they studied, they discovered that the Law, given through Moses, said the people of Israel were to live in shelters during the festival in the seventh month.

Cross References: Leviticus 23:39; Leviticus 23:42; Deuteronomy 16:13

15 And that they should proclaim this word and spread it through all their towns and in Jerusalem: “Go out to the hills and bring back branches from olive trees, wild olive trees, myrtles, palms, and leafy trees to make shelters, as it is written.”

Cross References: Leviticus 23:40; 2 Chronicles 30:5; Deuteronomy 16:13

16 So the people went out and brought back branches and built shelters for themselves on the roofs of their houses, in their courtyards, in the courtyards of the house of God, and in the public squares by the Water Gate and the Gate of Ephraim.

Cross References: Leviticus 23:42; John 7:2; 2 Samuel 11:2

17 The entire assembly that had returned from captivity built shelters and lived in them. From the days of Joshua son of Nun until that day, the Israelites had not celebrated this way. And there was very great rejoicing.

Cross References: Joshua 5:10; 2 Chronicles 30:26; 2 Kings 23:22

18 Day after day, from the first to the last, Ezra read from the Book of the Law of God. They celebrated the festival for seven days, and on the eighth day there was a solemn assembly, just as the Law required.

Cross References: Leviticus 23:36; Numbers 29:35; Deuteronomy 31:10

Key Lessons from Nehemiah Chapter 8

1. Hungering for God's Word brings unity The people gathered “as one man,” showing how a shared desire to hear God’s Word can unite hearts and communities. 2. Understanding Scripture is essential for spiritual revival The Levites not only read but explained the Law. God's Word must be clearly taught so that people understand and apply it. 3. Conviction from the Word leads to both repentance and joy The people wept at their sin, but God called them to rejoice. Repentance should always lead us to restoration and hope. 4. The joy of the Lord strengthens our hearts Joy rooted in God’s character and presence is our strength in both spiritual and practical matters. 5. Obedience renews worship and community life By reviving the Feast of Booths, the people obeyed God’s ancient commands and rediscovered His blessings.

Nehemiah Chapter 9 — Crawford Standard Bible

A National Day of Repentance and Confession

1 On the twenty-fourth day of the same month, the people of Israel gathered again. They fasted, wore sackcloth, and put dust on their heads as a sign of mourning.

Cross References: Daniel 9:3; Joel 2:12; Esther 4:3

2 Those of Israelite descent separated themselves from all foreigners. They stood and confessed their sins and the sins of their ancestors.

Cross References: Ezra 9:2; Leviticus 26:40; Nehemiah 13:3

3 They stood in their places and read from the Book of the Law of the Lord their God for a quarter of the day. For another quarter, they confessed and worshiped the Lord their God.

12 By day, You led them with a pillar of cloud, and by night, with a pillar of fire to light their path.

Cross References: Exodus 13:21; Exodus 13:22; Psalm 78:14

13 You came down on Mount Sinai and spoke with them from heaven. You gave them fair judgments, true laws, good decrees, and commandments.

Cross References: Exodus 19:20; Exodus 20:1; Deuteronomy 4:36

14 You made known Your holy Sabbath to them and gave them commands, statutes, and laws through Your servant Moses.

Cross References: Exodus 20:8; Exodus 31:13; Deuteronomy 5:12

15 You gave them bread from heaven when they were hungry and brought water from the rock when they were thirsty. You told them to go and take possession of the land You swore to give them.

Cross References: Exodus 16:4; Exodus 17:6; Deuteronomy 1:8

Rebellion and God's Mercy

16 But our ancestors became proud and stubborn. They ignored Your commands.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 9:6; Exodus 32:9; Deuteronomy 31:27

17 They refused to listen and forgot the miracles You had done. In their rebellion, they appointed a leader to return to slavery. But You are a God of forgiveness, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in love. You did not abandon them.

Cross References: Numbers 14:4; Exodus 34:6; Psalm 86:15

18 Even when they made a golden calf and said, 'This is your god who brought you out of Egypt,' You did not forsake them.

Cross References: Exodus 32:4; Exodus 32:8; Psalm 106:19

19 Because of Your great mercy, You did not leave them in the wilderness. The pillar of cloud still led them by day and the pillar of fire by night.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 1:31; Deuteronomy 1:33; Exodus 13:22

20 You gave Your good Spirit to instruct them. You did not withhold manna or water.

Cross References: Numbers 11:17; Psalm 143:10; Exodus 16:35

21 For forty years, You sustained them in the desert. They lacked nothing. Their clothes didn't wear out, and their feet didn't swell.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 8:4; Deuteronomy 29:5; Deuteronomy 2:7

Conquering the Promised Land

22 You gave them kingdoms and nations and allotted them their territories. They took over the land of Sihon king of Heshbon and Og king of Bashan.

Cross References: Numbers 21:21; Numbers 21:33; Deuteronomy 3:8

23 You made their children as numerous as the stars and brought them into the land You promised their ancestors.

Cross References: Genesis 22:17; Deuteronomy 1:10; Deuteronomy 9:1

24 Their descendants went in and took possession. You subdued the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and handed them over, along with their kings and peoples.

Cross References: Joshua 11:23; Joshua 21:43; Deuteronomy 9:3

25 They captured fortified cities and fertile land. They took over houses full of good things, wells, vineyards, olive groves, and fruit trees. They ate their fill, grew fat, and celebrated Your goodness.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 6:10; Deuteronomy 8:10; Deuteronomy 8:12

Cycles of Sin, Judgment, and Mercy

26 But they were disobedient and rebelled. They threw Your Law behind their backs. They killed Your prophets who warned them to return to You. They committed terrible offenses.

Cross References: 1 Kings 19:10; 2 Chronicles 36:16; Acts 7:52

27 So You handed them over to their enemies. But when they cried out, You heard from heaven. In Your great mercy, You sent deliverers to save them.

Cross References: Judges 2:14; Judges 2:16; Judges 3:9

28 But as soon as they found peace, they went back to doing evil. You let them fall into enemy hands again. When they cried out, You heard once more. Many times, You rescued them.

Cross References: Judges 2:19; Judges 3:12; Judges 10:6

29 You warned them to return to Your Law, but they were arrogant. They disobeyed Your commands and sinned against Your rules—rules that bring life. They turned their backs, hardened their hearts, and would not listen.

Cross References: Zechariah 7:11; 2 Kings 17:13; 2 Kings 17:14

30 You were patient with them for many years. You warned them by Your Spirit through the prophets, but they refused to listen. So You gave them into the hands of neighboring nations.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 36:15; 2 Kings 17:23; Jeremiah 25:4

31 Even then, in Your great mercy, You did not destroy or abandon them, for You are a gracious and merciful God.

A Plea for Mercy and Renewal

32 “Now therefore, our God—the great, mighty, and awesome God, who keeps His covenant of love—do not let all this hardship seem insignificant to You. It has come upon us—on our kings, leaders, priests, prophets, ancestors, and all Your people—from the time of the Assyrian kings until today.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 7:9; Deuteronomy 10:17; Daniel 9:4

33 In all that has happened to us, You have been just. You have acted faithfully, while we did wrong.

Cross References: Daniel 9:14; Psalm 119:137; Lamentations 1:18

34 Our kings, leaders, priests, and ancestors did not follow Your Law or pay attention to Your commands and warnings.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 36:14; 2 Kings 17:19; Daniel 9:6

35 Even when they had kingdoms and enjoyed Your goodness, and the spacious and fertile land You gave them, they did not serve You or turn from their evil ways.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 28:47; Deuteronomy 32:15; Hosea 13:6

36 See, we are slaves today—in the land You gave our ancestors for its fruit and goodness—we are its slaves!

Cross References: Deuteronomy 28:48; Ezra 9:9; Genesis 15:13

37 Its rich produce goes to the kings You set over us because of our sins. They rule over our bodies and our livestock as they please. We are in great distress.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 28:33; Deuteronomy 28:51; Isaiah 1:7

38 Because of all this, we make a firm agreement in writing. Our leaders, Levites, and priests have sealed it.”

Cross References: Nehemiah 10:1; Exodus 24:7; Deuteronomy 29:12

Key Lessons from Nehemiah Chapter 9

1. Confession and repentance are vital to spiritual renewal The people fasted, mourned, and confessed their sins and the sins of their ancestors with deep humility. 2. God’s faithfulness runs through all of history This prayer recounts God’s unending grace, provision, and mercy from Abraham to their present day. 3. Even in rebellion, God’s mercy endures Though the Israelites repeatedly turned away, God never fully abandoned them. He remains ready to forgive. 4. Scripture-centered worship leads to understanding and conviction The Law of God was read, understood, and responded to with worship, confession, and covenant renewal. 5. True revival leads to covenant commitment The people didn’t just feel sorrow—they committed themselves in writing to walk in God’s ways anew.

The People Join the Covenant

28 The rest of the people—the priests, Levites, gatekeepers, singers, temple servants, and all who had separated themselves from the neighboring peoples to follow God’s Law—along with their wives, sons, and daughters who were old enough to understand,

Cross References: Ezra 6:21; Ezra 10:11; Nehemiah 9:2

29 joined with their families and leaders to bind themselves with a solemn oath. They promised to follow the Law of God given through Moses, the servant of God, and to obey all the commandments, regulations, and statutes of the Lord our Lord.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 29:12; Deuteronomy 29:14; Exodus 24:7

Renewed Commitments

30 They vowed not to let their daughters marry the people of the land, nor to take their daughters for their sons.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 7:3; Ezra 9:2; Exodus 34:16

31 They also promised not to buy goods or food on the Sabbath or other holy days from the neighboring peoples who might bring them to sell. They agreed to let the land rest every seventh year and cancel debts during that year.

Cross References: Nehemiah 13:15; Leviticus 25:4; Deuteronomy 15:1

Support for the House of God

32 “We also made regulations for ourselves, requiring each of us to give a third of a shekel annually for the service of the house of our God:

Cross References: Exodus 30:13; Exodus 30:16; Matthew 17:24

33 for the showbread, the regular grain offerings and burnt offerings, the offerings on the Sabbaths, new moon celebrations, and appointed feasts; for the holy offerings and sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and for all the duties of the house of our God.

Cross References: Leviticus 24:5; Numbers 28:3; Leviticus 23:2

34 We cast lots among the priests, Levites, and people to determine when each family would bring wood offerings to the house of our God at designated times each year, to be burned on the altar of the Lord our God, as written in the Law.

Cross References: Leviticus 6:12; Nehemiah 13:31; Numbers 28:2

35 We also committed to bring the firstfruits of our harvest and of every fruit tree to the house of the Lord year after year.

Cross References: Exodus 23:19; Deuteronomy 26:2; Leviticus 23:10

36 And we will bring to the priests at the temple the firstborn of our sons and of our cattle, as written in the Law, including the firstborn of our herds and flocks.

Cross References: Exodus 13:2; Exodus 22:29; Numbers 18:15

37 We will bring the first of our ground meal, our contributions, the fruit of every tree, and our new wine and oil to the priests in the storerooms of the house of our God. And we will bring a tenth of our crops to the Levites, for the Levites are the ones who collect the tithes in all the towns where we work.

Cross References: Numbers 15:20; Numbers 18:21; Deuteronomy 18:4

38 A priest descended from Aaron will accompany the Levites when they collect the tithes. The Levites will bring a tenth of the tithes up to the house of our God, to the storerooms of the treasury.

Cross References: Numbers 18:26; Numbers 18:28; Malachi 3:10

39 The people of Israel and the Levites will bring their contributions of grain, new wine, and oil to the storerooms, where the articles of the sanctuary are kept, and where the priests who minister, the gatekeepers, and the singers stay. And we will not neglect the house of our God.”

Cross References: Malachi 3:8; 1 Chronicles 9:26; Haggai 1:4

Key Lessons from Nehemiah Chapter 10

1. Spiritual commitment must be both personal and communal The leaders and all the people entered into a written covenant, showing that true revival involves unity and shared responsibility. 2. Obedience involves practical reforms They made specific commitments to honor the Sabbath, avoid intermarriage with pagans, cancel debts, and uphold justice. 3. God’s house deserves intentional support The people pledged offerings, tithes, firstfruits, and labor to ensure the continual worship and maintenance of the temple. 4. God desires holiness in everyday life Their promises covered business dealings, family relationships, agricultural practices, and worship—all aspects of life. 5. Faithfulness requires structure and sacrifice They organized offerings, scheduled wood donations, and shared duties, showing that sustained devotion requires thoughtful planning.

Dedication of the Wall of Jerusalem

27 For the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem, Levites from all around were sought out and brought to Jerusalem to celebrate joyfully with thanksgiving songs, accompanied by cymbals, harps, and lyres.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 15:16; 2 Chronicles 5:13; Ezra 6:16

28 The singers gathered from the surrounding region, including the villages of the Netophathites,

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 9:16; Nehemiah 7:26; 1 Chronicles 25:6

29 And also from Beth Gilgal and the fields of Geba and Azmaveth, for the singers had built their own villages around Jerusalem.

Cross References: Nehemiah 7:28; 2 Samuel 23:31; Nehemiah 11:31

30 The priests and Levites purified themselves. Then they purified the people, the gates, and the wall.

Two Thanksgiving Choirs

31 I led the leaders of Judah up onto the wall, and I appointed two large thanksgiving choirs. One proceeded southward on the wall toward the Dung Gate.

Cross References: Nehemiah 3:13; 1 Chronicles 16:7; 2 Chronicles 20:21

32 Hoshaiah and half the leaders of Judah followed them,

33 Along with Azariah, Ezra, Meshullam,

Cross References: Ezra 7:1; Nehemiah 3:4; 1 Chronicles 6:14

34 Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah, and Jeremiah,

Cross References: Ezra 10:23; Nehemiah 11:34; Jeremiah 1:1

35 And some of the priests with trumpets—Zechariah son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph—

Cross References: Numbers 10:8; 1 Chronicles 25:1; 1 Chronicles 15:24

36 And his fellow musicians: Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, Judah, and Hanani— with the musical instruments of David, the man of God. Ezra the scribe led them.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 23:5; Amos 6:5; Ezra 7:6

37 At the Fountain Gate, they went straight up the steps of the City of David, past David's palace, and then along the wall above the Water Gate to the east.

Cross References: Nehemiah 3:15; 2 Samuel 5:7; Nehemiah 3:26

The Second Choir Procession

38 The second thanksgiving choir proceeded in the opposite direction. I followed them with half the people on top of the wall—from the Tower of the Ovens to the Broad Wall,

Cross References: Nehemiah 3:11; Nehemiah 3:8; 2 Chronicles 20:21

39 Over the Gate of Ephraim, past the Old Gate, the Fish Gate, the Tower of Hananel, and the Tower of the Hundred, to the Sheep Gate. They stopped at the Gate of the Guard.

Cross References: Nehemiah 3:1; Nehemiah 8:16; Jeremiah 31:38

40 So the two thanksgiving choirs stood in the house of God. I stood there too, along with half the officials,

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 16:4; Psalm 100:4; 2 Chronicles 5:13

41 And the priests—Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah—with their trumpets,

Cross References: Numbers 10:10; 1 Chronicles 15:24; 2 Chronicles 5:12

42 And also Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malkijah, Elam, and Ezer. The singers sang loudly, under the direction of Jezrahiah.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 15:22; 2 Chronicles 5:13; Ezra 3:11

Joyful Celebration and Provision

43 That day, great sacrifices were offered, and the people rejoiced because God had filled them with great joy. Even the women and children joined in the celebration, and the joy in Jerusalem could be heard far away.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 30:26; Ezra 6:16; Deuteronomy 12:7

Offerings and Ministry Responsibilities

44 At that time, men were appointed to oversee the storerooms for the offerings, firstfruits, and tithes. They were to collect into the storerooms from the fields around the towns what the Law required for the priests and the Levites. The people of Judah were glad to see the priests and Levites at their posts.

Cross References: Malachi 3:10; Nehemiah 10:37; 2 Chronicles 31:11

45 They performed their duties faithfully in the service of their God and in purification, following the commands of David and his son Solomon.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 23:6; 2 Chronicles 8:14; 1 Chronicles 9:22

46 For long ago, in the days of David and Asaph, there were leaders of singers and songs of praise and thanksgiving to God.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 16:7; 1 Chronicles 25:1; Psalm 50:1

47 So in the days of Zerubbabel and of Nehemiah, all Israel gave the daily portions for the singers and the gatekeepers. They also set apart portions for the Levites, and the Levites set apart portions for the descendants of Aaron.

Cross References: Numbers 18:21; Nehemiah 13:10; 2 Chronicles 31:4

Key Lessons from Nehemiah Chapter 12

1. Honoring God through worship and remembrance The dedication of the wall was filled with joy, music, and thanksgiving—honoring God as the One who had rebuilt and restored His people. 2. Purity prepares the heart for worship The priests and Levites purified themselves and the people, showing that holiness must precede genuine celebration. 3. Worship is a community celebration The people, leaders, singers, and musicians came together to praise God—demonstrating unity in joyful thanksgiving. 4. Organization strengthens ministry Assigning leaders for songs, offerings, gates, and stores shows that God’s work thrives on faithfulness and structure. 5. Generosity supports the work of God The people gave offerings, tithes, and daily portions, rejoicing in their part in sustaining the house of God.

Nehemiah Chapter 13 — Crawford Standard Bible

Foreigners Forbidden in the Assembly

1 On that day, the Book of Moses was read aloud to the people. In it was written that no Ammonite or Moabite should ever be allowed to enter the assembly of God,

Tobiah’s Defilement of the Temple

4 Before this, Eliashib the priest, who had oversight of the storerooms in the Temple of our God, had become close to Tobiah.

Cross References: Nehemiah 2:10; Nehemiah 6:17; Nehemiah 6:18

5 He had prepared for him a large room, where they used to store grain offerings, incense, vessels, tithes of grain, new wine, and oil—items meant for the Levites, singers, gatekeepers, and offerings for the priests.

7 And came back to Jerusalem. Then I learned of the evil thing Eliashib had done for Tobiah—preparing a room for him in the courts of God’s house.

Cross References: Ezekiel 44:9; Nehemiah 6:17; Psalm 101:7

8 I was greatly upset and threw all of Tobiah’s belongings out of the room.

Cross References: John 2:15; Psalm 69:9; 2 Chronicles 29:16

9 I ordered the rooms to be purified, and then I brought back the vessels of the house of God, along with the grain offerings and the incense.

Neglect of the Levites and Restoration of Tithes

10 I also discovered that the Levites had not received their portions, so the Levites and singers who did the work had returned to their own fields.

Cross References: Malachi 3:8; Numbers 18:24; Nehemiah 10:39

11 I confronted the officials and asked, “Why has the house of God been neglected?” Then I called the Levites back and stationed them at their posts.

Cross References: Malachi 2:8; Haggai 1:4; Nehemiah 5:7

12 Then all Judah brought the tithe of grain, new wine, and oil into the storehouses.

Cross References: Malachi 3:10; 2 Chronicles 31:5; Deuteronomy 12:6

13 I put Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the scribe, and Pedaiah of the Levites in charge of the storehouses, and appointed Hanan son of Zaccur (son of Mattaniah) to assist them, because they were considered trustworthy. It was their duty to distribute supplies to their fellow workers.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 4:2; Nehemiah 7:2; 2 Chronicles 31:12 14 Remember me for this, my God, and do not wipe out the good I have done for the house of my God and its services.

Profaning the Sabbath Stopped

15 In those days, I saw people in Judah treading winepresses on the Sabbath, bringing in grain and loading it on donkeys, along with wine, grapes, figs, and all kinds of goods—and bringing them into Jerusalem on the Sabbath. I warned them not to sell food on that day.

Cross References: Exodus 20:8; Jeremiah 17:21; Amos 8:5

16 People from Tyre living in Jerusalem were bringing in fish and other goods and selling them to the people of Judah on the Sabbath—even in Jerusalem.

Cross References: Ezekiel 27:3; Jeremiah 17:22; Nehemiah 10:31

17 So I confronted the nobles of Judah and said, “What is this wicked thing you are doing—profaning the Sabbath day?

Cross References: Jeremiah 17:27; Ezekiel 20:13; Exodus 31:14

18 Didn’t your ancestors do the same things, and didn’t our God bring all this disaster upon us and this city? Now you are adding more wrath on Israel by profaning the Sabbath!”

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 36:21; Ezekiel 20:21; Leviticus 26:43

19 So when it began to get dark before the Sabbath, I ordered the gates of Jerusalem to be shut and not opened until after the Sabbath. I posted some of my men at the gates so that no load could be brought in on the Sabbath day.

Cross References: Jeremiah 17:24; Nehemiah 7:3; Exodus 16:29

20 Once or twice the merchants and sellers of all kinds of goods spent the night outside Jerusalem.

Cross References: Nehemiah 13:15; Zephaniah 1:11; Nehemiah 3:31

21 But I warned them and said, “Why are you lodging near the wall? If you do this again, I will lay hands on you.” After that, they no longer came on the Sabbath.

Cross References: Nehemiah 5:13; Exodus 31:15; Nehemiah 13:25

22 Then I ordered the Levites to purify themselves and guard the gates to keep the Sabbath day holy. Remember this also in my favor, my God, and show mercy to me according to your great love.

Cross References: Psalm 51:1; Nehemiah 13:14; Numbers 8:6

Foreign Marriages Rebuked

23 During those days I also saw Jews who had married women from Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab.

Cross References: Ezra 9:1; Deuteronomy 7:3; Nehemiah 9:2

24 Half of their children spoke the language of Ashdod or of other peoples, and could not speak the language of Judah at all.

Cross References: Judges 12:6; Zephaniah 3:9; Genesis 11:7

25 I confronted them and cursed them. I beat some of them and pulled out their hair. I made them swear by God, saying, “You must not give your daughters in marriage to their sons or take their daughters for your sons—or for yourselves!”

Cross References: Ezra 9:2; Ezra 10:3; 1 Kings 11:2

26 Didn’t King Solomon of Israel sin because of such women? Among many nations there was no king like him. He was loved by his God, and God made him king over all Israel, but even he was led into sin by foreign women.

Cross References: 1 Kings 11:1; 1 Kings 11:4; Deuteronomy 17:17

27 Should we then hear about you doing all this terrible evil—acting unfaithfully against our God by marrying foreign women?

Defiling the Priesthood and Nehemiah's Reforms

28 One of the sons of Joiada, son of Eliashib the high priest, was son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite. So I drove him away from me.

Cross References: Nehemiah 2:10; Nehemiah 6:1; Nehemiah 12:10

29 Remember them, my God, because they defiled the priesthood and the covenant of the priesthood and the Levites.

Cross References: Malachi 2:8; Numbers 25:13; Malachi 2:4

30 So I purified them from everything foreign and assigned duties to the priests and Levites, each to his own task.

Cross References: Ezra 6:21; 1 Chronicles 23:6; 2 Chronicles 8:14

31 I also arranged for the supply of wood at the appointed times, and for the firstfruits. Remember me, my God, for good.

Cross References: Nehemiah 10:34; Exodus 23:19; Nehemiah 5:19

Key Lessons from Nehemiah Chapter 13

1. God's Word reveals what must be removed Reading the Law led the people to separate from influences that hindered holiness—showing the purifying power of Scripture. 2. Compromise in leadership can defile sacred spaces Eliashib's alliance with Tobiah defiled the temple—reminding us to guard God's house and His people from corrupt influences. 3. Neglecting worship responsibilities brings disorder When the Levites weren't supported, they fled their duties. Nehemiah's reforms restored worship by restoring order and provision. 4. True holiness honors the Sabbath and God's commands Business as usual on the Sabbath provoked God's wrath. Nehemiah took bold action to protect what was holy. 5. Marriage choices impact faithfulness Unequally yoked marriages diluted the people's faith and culture. Nehemiah zealously confronted this for the sake of God's covenant. 6. Faithfulness requires bold confrontation Nehemiah stood alone, sometimes fiercely, to restore God's order. His legacy is one of courageous faith and uncompromising obedience.

- To commemorate the origin of the Feast of Purim, a celebration of God’s deliverance and the reversal of Haman’s evil plan.
 - To highlight God’s providential care over His people, even when He seems hidden.
 - To encourage faithfulness and courage, showing how one person’s obedience can change the course of history.
 - To reveal the dangers of pride and the triumph of humility and faith.

Structure of Esther

The Book of Esther is masterfully structured around reversal — what begins as a death sentence for the Jews ends in deliverance and celebration. It can be divided into two main parts:

1. Threat to the Jews (Chapters 1–4)

- Queen Vashti’s removal and Esther’s rise (Ch. 1–2)
- Haman’s plot to destroy the Jews (Ch. 3)
- Mordecai’s appeal and Esther’s decision (Ch. 4)

2. Triumph of the Jews (Chapters 5–10)

- Esther’s intervention and Haman’s downfall (Ch. 5–7)
- The king’s decree to defend the Jews (Ch. 8)
- Jewish victory and the institution of Purim (Ch. 9–10)

Each section is tightly woven with irony, hidden identity, and divine timing.

Major Themes

- Providence and Sovereignty: God is never named but is present in every moment, orchestrating deliverance behind the scenes.
 - Courage and Risk: Esther risked her life for her people, stepping into her role “for such a time as this.”
 - Reversal and Justice: The proud are humbled, the humble are exalted, and plots of destruction are turned into celebrations of life.
 - Identity and Purpose: Esther’s story shows the importance of knowing who you are and why you are placed where you are.
 - Community and Intercession: Mordecai’s leadership and the communal fasting reveal the power of united faith and intercession.

Introduction to the Book of Esther

“For if you keep silent at this time, relief and deliverance will rise for the Jews from another place...”
– Esther 4:14

Title and Meaning

The book is named after its central figure, Esther, whose name likely comes from the Persian word stara, meaning “star.” Her Hebrew name was Hadassah, meaning “myrtle tree.” Though the name of God is never mentioned in the book, His providence shines like a hidden star throughout the narrative. The title reflects both the heroine’s rise to royal prominence and her role in the divine preservation of Israel.

Author and Date

The authorship of Esther is uncertain. Jewish tradition attributes it to Mordecai, Esther’s cousin and guardian, while others suggest Ezra or Nehemiah as possible compilers. The book was likely written during the 5th century BC, sometime after the events it describes (around 483–473 BC), during the reign of King Ahasuerus (Xerxes I) of Persia. Its detailed knowledge of Persian customs and court procedures supports a firsthand or contemporary authorship.

Purpose of Esther

Esther was written to recount one of the most remarkable deliverances in Jewish history—when the Jewish people faced extermination in Persia and were rescued through the courage of Esther and the wisdom of Mordecai. The book has several key purposes:

- To commemorate the origin of the Feast of Purim, a celebration of God’s deliverance and the reversal of Haman’s evil plan.
- To highlight God’s providential care over His people, even when He seems hidden.
- To encourage faithfulness and courage, showing how one person’s obedience can change the course of history.

To reveal the dangers of pride and the triumph of humility and faith.

Why Esther Matters Today

Esther is a book for times when God seems absent. It speaks to believers navigating secular environments, uncertain futures, and invisible threats. It reminds us that:

- God is always working, even when unseen.
- One person's obedience can change a nation's destiny.
- Evil will not have the final word.
- God places people in strategic positions for divine purposes. Esther inspires us to trust God's providence, to act with courage, and to embrace our calling, even when the risks are great.

Key Verse

“For if you remain silent at this time, relief and deliverance for the Jews will arise from another place... And who knows but that you have come to your royal position for such a time as this?” – Esther 4:14 This verse captures the heart of the book: God's purposes will prevail, and He often calls us to be part of them in ways we never imagined.

The Banquets of King Ahasuerus and the Fall of Queen Vashti

A King Over a Vast Empire

1 This happened during the reign of King Ahasuerus (also known as Xerxes), who ruled over 127 provinces stretching from India to Ethiopia.

Cross References: Daniel 6:1; Ezra 4:6; Esther 8:9

2 At that time, King Ahasuerus was seated on his royal throne in the fortress of Susa.

Cross References: Nehemiah 1:1; Daniel 8:2; Esther 9:6

3 In the third year of his reign, he held a grand feast for all his officials and servants. The army of Persia and Media, the nobles, and the provincial officials were present before him.

Cross References: Daniel 5:1; Genesis 40:20; Esther 2:18

4 For 180 days, he displayed the vast wealth of his kingdom and the majestic splendor of his greatness.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:23; Ecclesiastes 2:9; Proverbs 27:24

A Feast for All the People

5 When those days were over, the king held a seven-day feast in the courtyard of the palace garden for everyone in the fortress of Susa—from the highest officials to the common people.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 2:5; Esther 7:7; Amos 6:6

6 The courtyard was beautifully decorated with white, green, and blue linen hangings, fastened with fine linen cords and purple ropes to silver rings on marble pillars. Gold and silver couches were placed on a mosaic pavement of red, white, yellow, and black marble.

Cross References: Exodus 26:1; Exodus 27:10; 1 Chronicles 29:2

7 Drinks were served in gold goblets—each one unique—and the royal wine flowed freely, befitting the king’s generosity.

Cross References: Daniel 5:2; 1 Kings 10:21; Ecclesiastes 2:3

8 Drinking was allowed by royal decree, but no one was forced. The king had instructed every official of his household to let each guest do as he pleased.

Cross References: Proverbs 23:20; 1 Peter 4:3; Ephesians 5:18

Queen Vashti’s Separate Feast

9 Queen Vashti also gave a feast for the women in King Ahasuerus’ royal palace.

Cross References: 1 Timothy 5:14; Titus 2:5; Proverbs 31:15

10 On the seventh day, when the king was feeling good from the wine, he ordered Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas—the seven eunuchs who served him—

Cross References: Genesis 9:21; Proverbs 20:1; Daniel 1:3

11 to bring Queen Vashti before him, wearing her royal crown, so he could show off her beauty to the people and the officials. She was very beautiful.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 11:2; Genesis 12:14; Proverbs 31:30 12 But Queen Vashti refused to come at the king's command, delivered by the eunuchs. The king was furious, and his anger burned within him.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:14; Daniel 3:13; Ecclesiastes 8:3

Royal Counsel and a National Decree

13 The king turned to his advisers, who understood the times (for it was customary for the king to consult with those who were experts in law and justice).

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 12:32; Daniel 2:12; Genesis 41:8

14 These were his closest advisers: Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan—the seven nobles of Persia and Media who had access to the king and held the highest positions in the empire.

Cross References: Ezra 7:14; Daniel 6:2; 2 Kings 25:19

15 The king asked them, “What should we do about Queen Vashti? She has disobeyed my command, delivered by the eunuchs.”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 17:9; Ezra 7:25; Daniel 6:8

16 Then Memucan spoke up before the king and the officials: “Queen Vashti has wronged not only the king but also all the nobles and all the people in every province of your empire.

Cross References: Proverbs 11:14; 1 Kings 12:8; Genesis 3:12

17 When other women hear what she did—that she refused to come when summoned by the king—they'll start to treat their husbands with contempt.

Cross References: Ephesians 5:33; Titus 2:5; 1 Peter 3:1

18 The noblewomen of Persia and Media will hear about the queen's behavior and speak the same way to their husbands. This will lead to widespread disrespect and anger throughout the kingdom.

Cross References: Proverbs 21:9; Proverbs 19:13; Proverbs 21:19

The Royal Response

19 “If it pleases the king,” Memucan continued, “issue a royal decree, and let it be written into the laws of Persia and Media, which cannot be revoked: Queen Vashti is never again to appear before King Ahasuerus. Let the king give her royal position to someone more worthy than she.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 15:28; Daniel 6:8; Esther 2:17

20 When this decree is proclaimed throughout your vast empire, every wife—no matter her social status—will honor her husband.”

Cross References: Ephesians 5:22; Colossians 3:18; 1 Peter 3:6

21 The king and the officials liked this advice, so the king did what Memucan proposed.

Cross References: Proverbs 21:1; Proverbs 16:9; Proverbs 19:21

22 He sent letters to every province in the empire, each in its own script and language, declaring that every man should be the ruler of his own household and speak in the language of his own people.

Cross References: Genesis 3:16; Ephesians 5:23; 1 Corinthians 11:3

Key Lessons from Esther Chapter 1

- 1. Pride Can Cloud Judgment – King Ahasuerus’ lavish display of wealth and demand for Queen Vashti reflect a ruler driven by ego more than wisdom.
- 2. God Is Working Behind the Scenes – Though God's name isn't mentioned, His hand is preparing the stage. Vashti's removal makes way for Esther.
- 3. Respect Within the Home Is Valued – The decree highlights the cultural concern for family order, though it also reveals flaws in how leadership responds to conflict.
- 4. One Act Can Have Wide Influence – Vashti's defiance stirred fears of nationwide rebellion among women, showing how leadership choices carry ripples beyond the throne.

Esther Becomes Queen and Mordecai Uncovers a Plot

The Search for a New Queen

1 Some time later, after King Ahasuerus' anger had cooled down, he remembered what Queen Vashti had done and the decree that had been issued against her.

Cross References: Psalm 103:9; Micah 7:18; Genesis 8:1

2 Then the king's personal attendants suggested, "Let beautiful young virgins be sought for the king.

Cross References: 1 Kings 1:3; Genesis 24:16; 1 Samuel 16:12

3 Let the king appoint officers in every province of the empire to gather these young women into the royal harem at the fortress of Susa. They will be placed under the care of Hegai, the king's eunuch who oversees the women, and they should be given beauty treatments.

Cross References: Daniel 1:3; Daniel 1:11; Genesis 41:34

4 Then let the young woman who pleases the king be made queen in place of Vashti." This idea pleased the king, and he followed their advice.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 16:1; Proverbs 21:1; 1 Samuel 15:28

Esther Is Chosen

5 Now in the fortress of Susa lived a Jewish man named Mordecai, son of Jair, son of Shimei, son of Kish, a Benjaminite.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 9:1; Philippians 3:5; 1 Chronicles 8:1

6 He had been taken from Jerusalem into exile by King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon when King Jeconiah of Judah was taken into captivity.

Cross References: 2 Kings 24:15; 2 Chronicles 36:10; Jeremiah 24:1

7 Mordecai had a cousin named Hadassah, also called Esther, who had neither father nor mother. She was very beautiful and lovely in form. When her parents died, Mordecai adopted her and raised her as his own daughter.

Cross References: Psalm 27:10; James 1:27; Deuteronomy 10:18

8 When the king's command was proclaimed and many young women were brought to the fortress of Susa under Hegai's care, Esther was among them.

Cross References: Daniel 1:9; Genesis 39:4; Genesis 41:37

9 Esther pleased Hegai and gained his favor. He quickly provided her with beauty treatments and special food. He assigned her seven attendants selected from the palace and moved her and her maids to the best quarters in the harem.

Cross References: Genesis 39:21; Proverbs 3:4; Nehemiah 1:11

10 Esther did not reveal her nationality or family background, because Mordecai had instructed her not to.

Cross References: Genesis 45:1; Matthew 10:16; Proverbs 11:13

11 Every day, Mordecai walked near the courtyard of the women's quarters to find out how Esther was doing and what was happening to her.

Cross References: Genesis 37:14; Philippians 2:20; 1 Samuel 17:18

The King's Process for Choosing a Queen

12 Before a young woman could go to the king, she had to complete twelve months of beauty treatments—six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with perfumes and other cosmetics.

Cross References: Leviticus 12:4; Ruth 3:3; Ezekiel 16:9

13 When it was her turn to go to the king, she was allowed to take anything she wanted from the harem.

Cross References: Genesis 24:58; 1 Kings 1:2; Song of Solomon 1:4

14 She would go in the evening and return the next morning to a different part of the harem under the care of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch in charge of the concubines. She would not go to the king again unless he was especially pleased with her and called for her by name.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 21:14; Genesis 29:20; Song of Solomon 2:16

Esther Becomes Queen

15 When it was Esther's turn—the daughter of Abihail, Mordecai's uncle—she asked for nothing except what Hegai, the king's eunuch, recommended. Esther won the favor of everyone who saw her.

Cross References: Genesis 6:8; 1 Peter 3:4; Proverbs 22:1

16 She was taken to King Ahasuerus in the royal palace in the tenth month (the month of Tebeth), in the seventh year of his reign.

Cross References: Ezra 7:9; Nehemiah 2:1; Zechariah 1:7

17 The king loved Esther more than any of the other women. She won his favor and affection more than all the virgins. So he placed the royal crown on her head and made her queen in place of Vashti.

Cross References: Psalm 45:11; 1 Samuel 16:13; Proverbs 31:29

18 Then the king held a great feast in Esther's honor for all his officials and servants. He also declared a public holiday for the provinces and gave out lavish gifts, as was fitting for a king.

Cross References: Genesis 21:8; Luke 15:23; Esther 9:22

Mordecai Discovers a Plot

19 When the virgins were gathered together a second time, Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate.

Cross References: Genesis 19:1; Ruth 4:1; Esther 5:9

20 Esther still had not revealed her family background or her nationality, just as Mordecai had instructed her. She continued to follow his directions, just as she had when he was raising her.

Cross References: Ephesians 6:1; Proverbs 1:8; Proverbs 6:20 21 During this time, while Mordecai was at the king's gate, two of the king's eunuchs—Bigthan and Teresh—who guarded the doorway, became angry and plotted to assassinate King Ahasuerus.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 15:12; Psalm 41:9; 2 Kings 12:20 22 But Mordecai found out about the plot and told Queen Esther, who then told the king, crediting Mordecai as the source.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 10:20; Amos 3:7; Proverbs 11:13

23 After the investigation confirmed the plot, the two men were hanged on a gallows. All of this was recorded in the Book of the Chronicles in the presence of the king.

Cross References: Esther 6:1; Ezra 4:15; Deuteronomy 19:19

Key Lessons from Esther Chapter 2

- 1. God Positions People for His Purposes – Esther, an orphan and exile, is divinely positioned to become queen—setting the stage for future deliverance.
- 2. Obedience and Humility Bring Favor – Esther's willingness to follow Mordecai's counsel and Hegai's instruction resulted in great favor and blessing.
- 3. God Uses the Faithful in Small Things – Mordecai's faithfulness at the king's gate leads to the discovery of a plot and is the beginning of a chain of events used by God for Israel's protection.

- 4. Timing Is in God's Hands – The stage is being set behind the scenes, even when it seems like nothing extraordinary is happening.

Haman's Plot Against the Jews

Haman Is Promoted

1 After these events, King Ahasuerus promoted Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and elevated him, giving him a seat of honor higher than all the other officials.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 15:8; Exodus 17:14; Proverbs 29:2

2 All the king's servants at the king's gate bowed down and honored Haman, as the king had commanded. But Mordecai refused to bow down or show him honor.

Cross References: Exodus 20:5; Daniel 3:18; Exodus 17:16

3 Then the king's servants at the gate asked Mordecai, "Why do you disobey the king's command?"

Cross References: Daniel 3:14; Acts 5:29; Daniel 6:13

4 Day after day they spoke to him, but he refused to comply. So they reported it to Haman to see if Mordecai's explanation would stand, because he had told them he was a Jew.

Cross References: Daniel 3:12; Daniel 6:5; Genesis 39:14

5 When Haman saw that Mordecai neither bowed nor paid him homage, he was furious.

Cross References: Daniel 3:19; Proverbs 27:4; Genesis 4:5

6 But he thought it was too small a thing to punish only Mordecai. Since he had learned Mordecai's people were Jews, Haman looked for a way to destroy all the Jews throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus—the people of Mordecai.

Cross References: Psalm 83:4; Exodus 1:16; Exodus 1:22

Haman's Wicked Plan

7 In the first month, the month of Nisan, in the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus, Haman had the "Pur" (that is, the lot) cast to determine the best day and month for the attack. The lot fell on the twelfth month, the month of Adar.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:33; Jonah 1:7; Leviticus 16:8

8 Then Haman said to King Ahasuerus, "There is a certain people scattered and dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom. Their laws are different from those of every other people, and they do not observe the king's laws. It is not in the king's best interest to tolerate them.

Cross References: Ezra 4:13; Acts 16:21; Deuteronomy 4:8

9 If it pleases the king, let a decree be issued to destroy them, and I will contribute ten thousand talents of silver into the royal treasury for the men who carry out the business."

Cross References: Matthew 26:15; Exodus 21:32; Ezekiel 22:12

10 So the king removed his signet ring from his hand and gave it to Haman the Agagite, the enemy of the Jews.

Cross References: Genesis 41:42; Esther 8:2; Luke 15:22

11 The king said to Haman, “The money and the people are given to you—do with them as you see fit.”

Cross References: Matthew 27:24; Mark 15:15; Daniel 6:9

The Decree to Annihilate the Jews

12 On the thirteenth day of the first month, the royal scribes were summoned. They wrote out Haman’s orders to the king’s governors, administrators, and officials of each province, in every script and every language of the empire. It was written in the name of King Ahasuerus and sealed with the king’s signet ring.

Cross References: 1 Kings 21:8; Daniel 6:17; Esther 8:8

13 Dispatches were sent by couriers to all the king’s provinces, instructing them to destroy, kill, and annihilate all Jews—young and old, women and children—on a single day: the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar. Their property was to be taken as plunder.

Cross References: Psalm 37:32; Esther 9:1; Psalm 94:21

14 A copy of the decree was issued and made public in every province, giving instructions for the people to be ready for that day.

Cross References: Daniel 6:15; Esther 8:13; Habakkuk 2:2

15 The couriers set out, hurried by the king’s command, and the decree was proclaimed in the citadel of Susa. Then the king and Haman sat down to drink, but the city of Susa was in confusion.

Cross References: Amos 6:6; Proverbs 29:2; Esther 4:1

Key Lessons from Esther Chapter 3

- 1. Pride Can Lead to Destruction – Haman’s ego could not tolerate Mordecai’s faithfulness to God, and that pride escalated into genocidal hatred.
- 2. Righteous Conviction May Bring Conflict – Mordecai refused to bow to anyone but God, even when the cost was high.
- 3. Evil Often Gains Power Through Deception – Haman’s manipulation of the king shows how easily wicked people can influence those in authority when truth is absent.
- 4. God’s People May Face Peril, but Not Without a Plan – Though things looked dark, God was already working through Esther and Mordecai to overturn this evil decree.

Esther Chapter 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

For Such a Time As This

Mourning Among the Jews

1 When Mordecai learned everything that had happened, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth and ashes, and went into the middle of the city, crying out with a loud and bitter wail.

Cross References: Genesis 37:34; Job 2:12; Joel 1:13

2 He came as far as the king's gate, but no one was allowed to enter the gate clothed in sackcloth.

Cross References: Genesis 41:14; Matthew 22:12; Zechariah 3:3

3 In every province where the king's decree and command had reached, there was great mourning among the Jews. They fasted, wept, and wailed, and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

Cross References: Joel 2:12; Nehemiah 9:1; Jonah 3:5

Esther Hears of Mordecai's Grief

4 When Esther's servants and eunuchs came and told her what Mordecai was doing, the queen was deeply distressed. She sent clothing for Mordecai so he could take off his sackcloth, but he refused to accept them.

Cross References: Job 2:11; Romans 12:15; 2 Corinthians 11:29

5 Then Esther called for Hatach, one of the king's eunuchs who had been assigned to attend her. She ordered him to find out what was troubling Mordecai and why he was acting this way.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 18:29; 2 Kings 5:8; John 1:38

6 So Hatach went out to Mordecai in the city square in front of the king's gate.

Cross References: Genesis 45:9; Luke 7:3; Acts 10:8

7 Mordecai told him everything that had happened, including the exact amount of money Haman had promised to pay into the royal treasury for the destruction of the Jews.

Cross References: Esther 3:9; 1 Timothy 6:10; Proverbs 1:19

8 He also gave him a copy of the decree that had been issued in Susa, ordering the annihilation of the Jews. He asked Hatach to show it to Esther and to urge her to go to the king and plead for her people.

Cross References: Esther 3:14; Nehemiah 2:4; Philippians 4:6

9 Hatach returned and reported Mordecai's message to Esther.

Cross References: Genesis 45:27; Luke 7:22; Acts 11:14

Esther's Hesitation

10 Then Esther sent this reply back to Mordecai through Hatach:

Cross References: 1 Samuel 3:18; Luke 1:19; Genesis 32:3

11 "All the king's officials and the people of the provinces know that any man or woman who approaches the king in the inner court without being summoned is to be put to death—unless the king extends the golden scepter to them. I haven't been called to go to the king for thirty days."

Cross References: Hebrews 4:16; Esther 5:2; Daniel 6:12

12 When Mordecai received Esther's words,

Cross References: Numbers 13:26; 2 Samuel 17:15; Judges 3:19

13 He sent back this message: "Do not think that because you are in the king's palace you alone will escape when all the other Jews are killed.

Cross References: Amos 9:1; Jeremiah 25:29; Romans 2:3

14 For if you remain silent at this time, deliverance for the Jews will arise from another place—but you and your father's family will perish. And who knows whether you have come to your royal position for such a time as this?"

Cross References: Genesis 45:5; Jeremiah 1:5; Galatians 4:4

Esther's Brave Response

15 Then Esther sent this reply to Mordecai:

Cross References: Luke 1:38; Joshua 1:16; Ruth 1:16

16 "Go and gather all the Jews who are in Susa and fast for me. Do not eat or drink for three days, night or day. My attendants and I will do the same. Then, even though it is against the law, I will go to the king. And if I perish, I perish."

Cross References: Job 13:15; Joel 2:15; Daniel 9:3

17 So Mordecai went away and did everything Esther had commanded him.

Cross References: Genesis 6:22; Exodus 40:16; Luke 5:5

Key Lessons from Esther Chapter 4

- 1. God's People Mourn Together – In times of trouble, the Jewish community united in fasting and prayer, showing the power of collective faith.
- 2. Obedience Requires Courage – Esther was afraid, yet she moved from hesitation to action, showing that obedience sometimes means risking everything.
- 3. God Has a Purpose in Every Position – Mordecai's question—"Who knows whether you've come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"—reminds us that God places people where He needs them, at just the right time.
- 4. Fasting Precedes Bold Faith – Esther didn't rush into danger; she first sought God's help through fasting and invited others to join her.

Esther Chapter 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

The Hidden Hand of Providence

Esther Appears Before the King

1 On the third day, Esther dressed in her royal robes and stood in the inner court of the king's palace, across from the throne room. The king was sitting on his royal throne, facing the entrance.

Cross References: Genesis 22:4; Hosea 6:2; Esther 4:16

2 When the king saw Queen Esther standing in the court, she found favor in his sight. He extended the golden scepter toward her, and Esther approached and touched the tip of the scepter.

Cross References: Proverbs 21:1; Psalm 45:9; Hebrews 4:16

3 The king asked her, "What is it, Queen Esther? What is your request? Even if it is up to half the kingdom, it will be granted to you."

Cross References: Mark 6:23; 1 Kings 3:5; Psalm 2:8

4 Esther replied, "If it pleases the king, let the king and Haman come today to a banquet I have prepared for him."

Cross References: Luke 14:16; Genesis 43:16; Proverbs 9:2

5 The king said, "Bring Haman quickly, so we may do as Esther has requested." So the king and Haman went to the banquet Esther had prepared.

Cross References: Luke 14:17; Genesis 43:25; Genesis 18:6

Esther's Mysterious Delay

6 While they were drinking wine at the banquet, the king asked Esther again, "What is your petition? It will be granted. What is your request? Even up to half the kingdom—it will be fulfilled."

Cross References: John 15:7; Psalm 37:4; Matthew 7:7

7 Esther answered, "This is my petition and my request:

Cross References: 1 Samuel 1:27; Psalm 20:4; Philippians 4:6

8 If I have found favor with the king, and if it pleases him to grant my request, let the king and Haman come to another banquet I will prepare for them tomorrow. Then I will answer the king's question."

Cross References: Genesis 18:3; Genesis 33:15; Ruth 2:13

Haman's Hatred Grows

9 Haman left the banquet that day in high spirits, joyful and proud. But when he saw Mordecai at the king's gate—still not standing or showing him any respect—Haman was filled with rage.

Cross References: Acts 5:33; Proverbs 29:22; Luke 6:11

10 Still, he controlled himself and went home. He called together his friends and his wife Zeresh.

Cross References: Proverbs 25:28; Proverbs 16:32; Proverbs 29:11

11 Haman boasted to them about his wealth, his many sons, the honors the king had given him, and how he had been elevated above all the other officials and royal servants.

Cross References: Psalm 49:16; Luke 12:19; Daniel 4:30

12 He added, “And that’s not all—Queen Esther invited no one but me to accompany the king to the banquet she prepared. And she invited me again for tomorrow!”

Cross References: Proverbs 16:18; Proverbs 27:1; Daniel 4:37

13 “But none of this gives me any satisfaction,” Haman continued, “as long as I see that Jew Mordecai sitting at the king’s gate.”

Cross References: Job 20:5; Ecclesiastes 4:4; Proverbs 14:30

The Plot to Kill Mordecai

14 Then Zeresh his wife and all his friends said, “Let a gallows seventy-five feet high be built, and in the morning ask the king to have Mordecai hanged on it. Then you can go to the banquet with the king and enjoy yourself.” This idea pleased Haman, and he ordered the gallows to be built.

Cross References: Psalm 7:15; Psalm 9:15; Proverbs 26:27

Key Lessons from Esther Chapter 5

- 1. God Goes Before Us – Esther approached the throne after three days of fasting, and God gave her favor. When we prepare in prayer, God often moves hearts before we speak.
- 2. Wisdom Waits – Esther delayed her full request, showing patience, strategy, and spiritual sensitivity. Not every battle is won in haste.
- 3. Pride Blinds – Haman’s pride and obsession with honor led him to hatred. He had wealth, power, and status—yet one man’s defiance consumed him.
- 4. Evil Has a Plan—But So Does God – Even as Haman builds a gallows for Mordecai, God is orchestrating deliverance behind the scenes. Divine reversals are on the way.

Esther Chapter 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

The Sleepless King and the Sovereign Hand

The King’s Sleepless Night

1 That night, the king couldn’t sleep. So he ordered the book of the records—the chronicles of his reign—to be brought and read to him.

Cross References: Psalm 121:4; Daniel 6:18; Ecclesiastes 5:12

2 As they read, they found the account of how Mordecai had exposed Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king’s guards who had conspired to assassinate King Ahasuerus.

Cross References: Esther 2:21; Esther 2:22; Esther 2:23

3 The king asked, “What honor or reward has been given to Mordecai for this?” The king’s attendants replied, “Nothing has been done for him.”

Cross References: Genesis 40:23; Malachi 3:16; Nehemiah 13:14

Haman's Prideful Assumption

4 The king said, "Who is in the courtyard?" Now Haman had just entered the outer court of the palace to ask the king to hang Mordecai on the gallows he had prepared.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:9; Proverbs 19:21; Psalm 37:12

5 The attendants answered, "Haman is standing in the courtyard." "Bring him in," said the king.

Cross References: Proverbs 21:1; Psalm 33:10; Job 5:12

6 So Haman came in. And the king asked him, "What should be done for the man the king delights to honor?" Haman thought to himself, "Whom would the king want to honor more than me?"

Cross References: Proverbs 16:18; Proverbs 18:12; Obadiah 1:3

7 So he replied, "For the man the king delights to honor,

Cross References: Genesis 41:42; 1 Kings 1:33; Daniel 5:29

8 Let the royal robe the king has worn be brought, and the horse the king himself has ridden, with the royal crown placed on its head.

Cross References: Genesis 41:43; 2 Kings 9:13; Zechariah 3:4

9 Then let one of the king's most noble princes dress the man in these garments and lead him on horseback through the city square, proclaiming before him, 'This is what is done for the man the king delights to honor!'"

Cross References: Genesis 41:43; Zechariah 3:5; 1 Kings 1:38

The Great Reversal

10 "Excellent!" said the king to Haman. "Hurry and do just as you have said for Mordecai the Jew, who sits at the king's gate. Do not leave out a single detail of all you've suggested."

Cross References: Psalm 7:15; Proverbs 26:27; Psalm 9:15

11 So Haman took the robe and the horse, dressed Mordecai, and led him on horseback through the city square, proclaiming, "This is what is done for the man the king delights to honor!"

Cross References: Isaiah 60:14; Proverbs 14:19; Psalm 37:34

12 Afterward, Mordecai returned to his place at the king's gate. But Haman hurried home, grief-stricken and with his head covered in shame.

Cross References: Esther 4:1; 2 Samuel 15:30; Jeremiah 14:3

Prophetic Warning

13 Haman told Zeresh his wife and all his friends everything that had happened. His wise men and Zeresh said, "If Mordecai, before whom you have begun to fall, is of Jewish descent, you will not stand against him—you will surely fall before him."

Cross References: Exodus 17:16; Numbers 24:9; Genesis 12:3

14 While they were still speaking, the king’s eunuchs arrived and quickly brought Haman to the banquet Esther had prepared.

Cross References: Proverbs 27:1; Ecclesiastes 9:12; Luke 12:20

Key Lessons from Esther Chapter 6

- 1. God Works in the Night – While the king lay restless, God was at work. Divine interruptions often precede divine interventions.
- 2. Delayed Honor Is Not Forgotten – Mordecai’s faithfulness had gone unnoticed for years, but God remembered. Righteousness is never wasted.
- 3. Pride Comes Before the Fall – Haman’s assumption of his own greatness led to humiliation. Pride blinds, but truth humbles.
- 4. Reversal of Destiny – The man meant for the gallows was honored, and the man who plotted evil was exposed. God reverses injustice in His perfect timing.
- 5. Warnings Can Come Through Anyone – Even Haman’s friends and wife saw his downfall coming. Sometimes enemies recognize God’s hand before we do.

Esther Chapter 7 – Crawford Standard Bible

The Queen’s Courage and the Villain’s Fall

Esther Makes Her Plea

1 So the king and Haman went to dine with Queen Esther.

Cross References: Esther 5:4; Esther 5:8; Proverbs 15:17

2 On the second day of the banquet of wine, the king again asked Esther, “What is your request, Queen Esther? It will be granted to you. What is your petition? Even up to half of the kingdom—it will be done.”

Cross References: Esther 5:3; Esther 5:6; Mark 6:23

3 Then Queen Esther replied, “If I have found favor in your eyes, O king, and if it pleases the king, grant me my life—this is my request. And spare my people—this is my petition.

Cross References: Exodus 32:32; Nehemiah 1:11; Romans 9:3

4 For my people and I have been sold to be destroyed, killed, and annihilated. If we had merely been sold as slaves, I would have remained silent, because such a distress would not justify disturbing the king.”

Cross References: Esther 3:13; Esther 4:7; Psalm 44:12

The Villain Revealed

5 King Ahasuerus asked Queen Esther, “Who is he? Where is this man who dared to do such a thing?”

Cross References: Genesis 3:13; 2 Samuel 12:7; Proverbs 20:2

6 Esther answered, “The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman!” Then Haman was terrified before the king and queen.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 12:7; Esther 3:10; Revelation 12:10

Judgment Against Haman

7 The king, enraged, got up from the banquet and went into the palace garden. But Haman stayed behind to beg Queen Esther for his life, for he saw that the king had already decided his doom.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:14; Genesis 44:16; Job 27:22

8 Just as the king returned from the palace garden to the banquet hall, Haman had fallen on the couch where Esther was reclining. The king exclaimed, “Will he even assault the queen while I am in the house?” As soon as the king spoke, they covered Haman’s face.

Cross References: Job 9:24; Jeremiah 13:26; Psalm 35:26

9 Then Harbonah, one of the king’s attendants, said, “There’s a gallows seventy-five feet tall standing at Haman’s house—the one he prepared for Mordecai, who spoke up to help the king.” The king said, “Hang him on it!”

Cross References: Psalm 7:15; Proverbs 26:27; Psalm 9:15

10 So they hanged Haman on the gallows he had prepared for Mordecai. And the king’s anger subsided.

Cross References: Proverbs 11:8; Psalm 37:35; Proverbs 21:30

Key Lessons from Esther Chapter 7

- 1. God Honors Bold Faith – Esther risked her life to speak up for her people. God uses courageous obedience to turn the tide of evil.
- 2. God Exposes the Wicked – Haman’s hidden schemes were brought into the light. Sin may be concealed for a season, but justice will prevail.
- 3. Divine Reversals Are Real – Haman built the gallows for Mordecai, but he was hanged on them instead. The trap he set ensnared himself (see Psalm 7:15–16).
- 4. The Power of Advocacy – Esther stood in the gap. Sometimes one voice, spoken at the right time, can rescue many.
- 5. God Orchestrates Every Detail – From banquets to sleepless nights, every thread was woven by the sovereign hand of God to protect His people.

Esther Chapter 8 – Crawford Standard Bible

The Enemy’s House, the King’s Ring, and a Nation’s Deliverance

Esther and Mordecai Rewarded

1 That same day, King Ahasuerus gave Queen Esther the estate of Haman, the enemy of the Jews. And Mordecai was brought before the king, for Esther had told the king how Mordecai was related to her.

Cross References: Proverbs 13:22; Job 27:17; Psalm 37:16

2 The king took off the signet ring he had taken from Haman and gave it to Mordecai. Esther appointed Mordecai over Haman's estate.

Cross References: Esther 3:10; Genesis 41:42; Daniel 6:3

Esther's Intercession for Her People

3 Once again, Esther went before the king. Falling at his feet, she wept and pleaded with him to cancel the evil plot that Haman the Agagite had devised against the Jews.

Cross References: Esther 4:16; Ezra 9:5; Luke 7:38

4 The king held out the golden scepter to Esther, and she rose and stood before him.

Cross References: Esther 4:11; Esther 5:2; Hebrews 4:16

5 She said, "If it pleases the king, and if I have found favor in your eyes, and if what I say seems right to you, let an order be written to revoke the letters Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite wrote—letters that commanded the destruction of the Jews in all the king's provinces.

Cross References: Daniel 6:8; Esther 1:19; Esther 3:13

6 For how could I bear to see the disaster that will come upon my people? How could I watch the destruction of my relatives?"

Cross References: Nehemiah 2:3; Lamentations 3:48; Romans 9:3

A New Decree Issued

7 Then King Ahasuerus said to Queen Esther and Mordecai the Jew, "I have already given Esther Haman's estate, and he has been hanged for attacking the Jews.

Cross References: Esther 8:1; Esther 7:10; Psalm 52:5

8 Now, you may write another decree concerning the Jews as you see fit, in the king's name and sealed with the king's ring—for anything written in the king's name and sealed with his ring cannot be revoked."

Cross References: Daniel 6:8; Daniel 6:12; Esther 1:19

9 So the king's secretaries were summoned on the twenty-third day of the third month (the month of Sivan). They wrote out Mordecai's orders to the Jews, to the satraps, governors, and officials of the 127 provinces stretching from India to Ethiopia. It was written in every script and language of the peoples, including the Jews in their own language and script.

Cross References: Esther 3:12; Ezra 1:1; Daniel 6:25

10 Mordecai wrote in King Ahasuerus's name, sealed the dispatches with the king's signet ring, and sent them by couriers on horseback—riding fast horses, mules, camels, and young dromedaries.

Cross References: Esther 3:13; 2 Chronicles 30:6; Job 9:25

11 The new decree gave the Jews in every city the right to assemble and protect themselves—to destroy, kill, and annihilate any armed group of people or province that attacked them, including women and children—and to take their enemies' goods as plunder.

Cross References: Exodus 17:9; Genesis 14:14; Nehemiah 4:14

12 This was to happen on a single day throughout all the provinces of King Ahasuerus—on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar.

Cross References: Esther 3:13; Esther 3:7; Ecclesiastes 3:3

13 A copy of the decree was issued as a law in every province and made known to all the peoples, so the Jews would be ready to take vengeance on their enemies.

Cross References: Esther 3:14; Deuteronomy 25:19; Deuteronomy 32:35

14 The couriers, riding the swift royal horses, hurried out, pressed by the king's command. The new decree was also proclaimed in the fortress of Susa.

Cross References: Esther 3:15; 2 Chronicles 30:6; Jeremiah 51:31

Joy, Honor, and Fear Throughout the Empire

15 Mordecai left the king's presence wearing royal garments of blue and white, a large gold crown, and a robe of fine linen and purple. And the city of Susa celebrated with joy.

Cross References: Genesis 41:42; Daniel 5:29; Luke 15:22

16 The Jews were filled with light, happiness, joy, and honor.

Cross References: Psalm 97:11; Isaiah 60:1; Psalm 30:11

17 In every province and every city where the king's edict reached, there was joy and gladness among the Jews—a time of feasting and celebration. And many of the people of the land became Jews, because fear of the Jews had come upon them.

Cross References: Ruth 1:16; Isaiah 56:6; Zechariah 8:19

Key Lessons from Esther Chapter 8

- 1. God Raises the Humble – Mordecai, once in sackcloth, is now robed in royalty. God elevates those who walk in righteousness (James 4:10).
- 2. God Answers Persistent Prayer – Esther didn't stop after Haman's death; she kept pressing for the salvation of her people. Her perseverance opened the way for national deliverance.
- 3. God Writes a New Story – The old decree could not be revoked, but God made a way by issuing a new one. He can override man's death sentence with life and favor.

- 4. Faith Brings Celebration – Sorrow was turned into gladness, fear into honor. When God's people are delivered, celebration follows.
- 5. God's Favor Is Contagious – As God's hand was evident, even non-Jews began to align with His people. God's favor on your life can influence others toward truth.

Esther Chapter 9 – Crawford Standard Bible

Victory, Vengeance, and the Birth of Purim

The Jews Defend Themselves

1 In the twelfth month, the month of Adar, on the thirteenth day—the day when the king's command and decree were to be carried out—the enemies of the Jews had hoped to overpower them. But the tables were turned, and the Jews overpowered those who hated them.

Cross References: Esther 3:7; Esther 3:13; Psalm 30:11

2 The Jews assembled in their cities throughout all the provinces of King Ahasuerus to attack those who sought their destruction. No one could stand against them, because fear of them had fallen on all the people.

Cross References: Exodus 15:16; Deuteronomy 2:25; Joshua 2:9

3 All the provincial officials—the satraps, governors, and royal administrators—helped the Jews, because they were afraid of Mordecai.

Cross References: Genesis 35:5; Exodus 23:27; Esther 9:4

4 Mordecai had become powerful in the king's palace. His reputation spread throughout the provinces, and he became more and more influential.

Cross References: Genesis 41:40; 2 Samuel 5:10; Daniel 6:3

5 The Jews struck down all their enemies with the sword, killing and destroying them. They did whatever they pleased to those who hated them.

Cross References: Exodus 17:13; 1 Samuel 15:3; Esther 9:1

6 In the citadel of Susa, the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 15:8; Exodus 32:28; Esther 9:5

7–10 They also killed the ten sons of Haman son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews—Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha, Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha, Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, and Vajezatha. But they did not lay hands on the plunder.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 15:33; Exodus 17:14; Deuteronomy 25:19

The Decree Extended by Esther's Request

11 That day, the number of people killed in the citadel of Susa was reported to the king.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 18:31; 1 Samuel 4:17; Esther 9:6

12 The king said to Queen Esther, “The Jews have killed five hundred men and Haman’s ten sons in Susa. What must they have done in the rest of my provinces! Now what is your petition? It will be granted to you. What is your further request? It will be done.”

Cross References: Esther 5:3; Esther 7:2; 1 Kings 3:5

13 Esther replied, “If it pleases the king, let the Jews in Susa be allowed to do again tomorrow as they have done today. And let Haman’s ten sons be hanged on the gallows.”

Cross References: Esther 7:9; Numbers 25:4; Deuteronomy 21:22

14 The king agreed, and the edict was issued in Susa. Haman’s ten sons were hanged.

Cross References: Esther 9:13; 2 Samuel 21:9; Joshua 8:29

15 On the fourteenth day of Adar, the Jews in Susa assembled again and killed three hundred men. But again, they took no plunder.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 15:9; 1 Samuel 15:19; Genesis 14:23

16 Meanwhile, the rest of the Jews in the king’s provinces also assembled to protect themselves and gain relief from their enemies. They killed seventy-five thousand of their enemies, but they did not seize their possessions.

Cross References: Joshua 21:44; 1 Chronicles 22:9; 1 Samuel 15:9

17 This happened on the thirteenth day of Adar, and on the fourteenth day they rested and made it a day of feasting and joy.

Cross References: Joshua 11:23; Deuteronomy 25:19; Exodus 17:13

18 But the Jews in Susa had assembled on the thirteenth and fourteenth days. So on the fifteenth day, they rested and made it a day of feasting and joy.

Cross References: Esther 9:17; Leviticus 23:5; Leviticus 23:6

The Origin of Purim

19 That is why rural Jews—those living in villages—observe the fourteenth day of Adar as a day of joy and feasting, a festive day of giving food to one another.

Cross References: Nehemiah 8:10; Deuteronomy 16:11; Esther 9:22

20 Mordecai recorded these events and sent letters to all the Jews throughout the provinces of King Ahasuerus, both near and far,

Cross References: Esther 9:29; Exodus 17:14; Jeremiah 30:2

21 urging them to celebrate annually the fourteenth and fifteenth days of the month of Adar

Cross References: Exodus 12:14; Leviticus 23:41; Exodus 12:24

22 as the days when the Jews got relief from their enemies, and as the month when their sorrow was turned into joy, and their mourning into celebration. These were to be days of feasting and joy, giving food to one another, and gifts to the poor.

Cross References: Psalm 30:11; Isaiah 61:3; Nehemiah 8:10

23 So the Jews agreed to continue the celebration, as Mordecai had written to them.

Cross References: Esther 9:27; Nehemiah 10:29; Joshua 24:25

24 For Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted to destroy them and had cast the lot (called Pur) to crush and annihilate them.

Cross References: Esther 3:1; Esther 3:7; Psalm 83:4

25 But when the matter came before the king, he issued orders in writing that the evil plan Haman had devised against the Jews should come back upon his own head—and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

Cross References: Psalm 7:16; Psalm 9:15; Proverbs 26:27

26 Therefore these days were called Purim, from the word Pur. Because of all that was written in this letter, and what they had seen and experienced,

Cross References: Esther 3:7; Exodus 17:15; Joshua 5:9

27 the Jews established and made it a custom for themselves, their descendants, and all who joined them, to observe these two days every year in the appointed way and at the appointed time.

Cross References: Esther 9:23; Exodus 12:24; Joshua 4:7

28 These days should be remembered and observed in every generation, by every family, in every province and city. And these days of Purim should never fail among the Jews, nor fade from their memory or their descendants.

Cross References: Exodus 12:14; Exodus 13:9; Psalm 102:18

The Decree Confirmed by Esther

29 Then Queen Esther, daughter of Abihail, along with Mordecai the Jew, wrote a second letter with full authority to confirm the celebration of Purim.

Cross References: Esther 9:20; Esther 9:31; 2 Chronicles 30:1

30 Letters were sent to all the Jews in the 127 provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of peace and truth,

Cross References: Esther 1:1; Zechariah 8:19; Jeremiah 29:11

31 confirming the observance of Purim at the appointed times, as Mordecai and Queen Esther had established for them—and as they had also established for themselves and their descendants regarding their times of fasting and mourning.

Cross References: Esther 4:16; Esther 4:3; Joel 2:15

32 Esther's decree confirmed these regulations about Purim, and it was written down in the records.

Cross References: Esther 2:23; Deuteronomy 31:24; Jeremiah 30:2

Key Lessons from Esther Chapter 9

- 1. God Turns the Tables – What was meant for the Jews’ destruction became a day of victory. God can turn any situation around (Genesis 50:20).
- 2. Bold Faith Leads to Deliverance – Esther’s courage continued to influence the survival and triumph of her people.
- 3. Honor Without Greed – Though the Jews defeated their enemies, they took no plunder. Their motive was justice, not gain.
- 4. Remembering God’s Deliverance – The festival of Purim was born out of a deep desire to never forget what God had done for His people.
- 5. Legacy of Courage and Celebration – Purim was not just a one-time event, but a command to celebrate and pass the story to future generations.

Esther Chapter 10 – Crawford Standard Bible

The Legacy of Mordecai

Mordecai’s Rise to Power

1 King Ahasuerus imposed a tax on the land and on the islands of the sea.

Cross References: Esther 1:1; 1 Kings 4:21; Psalm 72:10

2 All the powerful acts of his rule, along with a full account of Mordecai’s greatness—how the king promoted him—are recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Media and Persia.

Cross References: 1 Kings 11:41; 2 Kings 10:34; Nehemiah 12:23

3 Mordecai the Jew became second in command to King Ahasuerus. He was highly respected among the Jews and admired by the multitudes of his people. He worked for the good of his people and spoke peace and well-being to all his descendants.

Cross References: Genesis 41:40; Daniel 6:3; Jeremiah 29:7

Key Lessons from Esther Chapter 10

- 1. God Honors the Humble – Mordecai, once an unknown gatekeeper, rose to become second in the kingdom because of his integrity and faithfulness.
- 2. Leadership for the People – Mordecai’s power was not self-serving. He used his influence to bring prosperity and peace to the Jewish people.
- 3. God Writes the Final Chapter – The Book of Esther ends not with tragedy, but with triumph—God exalting a faithful servant and securing the future of His people.
- 4. A Legacy Worth Remembering – Mordecai’s life reminds us that the most enduring legacies are those rooted in righteousness and concern for others.
- 5. Peace is the Fruit of Justice – Mordecai’s leadership was marked by peace, not vengeance—a picture of godly leadership that blesses future generations.

Purpose of Job

The Book of Job addresses one of the most profound questions of human existence:

Why do the righteous suffer?

It teaches us:

- That suffering is not always the result of sin.
- That God's purposes may be hidden, yet are always wise and just.
- That true faith endures in the face of silence and loss.
- That divine sovereignty surpasses human understanding.
- That God welcomes honest questions but calls us to trust Him.

Job challenges simplistic answers and invites readers to wrestle with the mystery of God's will, the reality of pain, and the hope of restoration.

Structure of Job

The Book of Job is structured like a dramatic poetic dialogue, framed by a short narrative prologue and epilogue:

1. Prologue (Chapters 1–2)

- Job's character and prosperity
- Satan's accusation and Job's testing
- Job's physical suffering and personal loss

2. Dialogues and Discourses (Chapters 3–37)

- Job's lament (Ch. 3)
- Three cycles of speeches between Job and his friends (Ch. 4–27)
- Job's personal defense and final words (Ch. 28–31)
- Elihu's speeches (Ch. 32–37)

3. God's Response (Chapters 38–41)

- The LORD speaks out of the whirlwind
- Questions that reveal divine power and wisdom

4. Epilogue (Chapter 42)

- Job's repentance and restoration
 - God rebukes Job's friends
 - Job's latter days are blessed more than the former

Major Themes

- The Sovereignty of God – God is in control even when He seems silent.
- The Mystery of Suffering – Not all suffering is punishment; sometimes it's a test or a tool for deeper growth.

Introduction to the Book of Job

“Though He slay me, yet will I trust Him...” – Job 13:15

Title and Meaning

The book is named after its central figure, Job, a man described as “blameless and upright,” who feared God and turned away from evil (Job 1:1). The name “Job” may mean “persecuted” or “hated,” though its exact origin is uncertain. The title reflects the personal and theological focus of the book — Job’s suffering, questions, endurance, and ultimate vindication. Job is classified among the Wisdom Books of the Old Testament, alongside Proverbs and Ecclesiastes. Unlike the historical or prophetic books, Job deals primarily with universal questions of human suffering, justice, and divine sovereignty.

Author and Date

The authorship and date of Job are unknown. Some traditions attribute the book to Moses, while others suggest Solomon, Elihu, or an anonymous Hebrew sage. Linguistic and cultural clues point to an early date, possibly during the patriarchal period (around the time of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob). Regardless of its author, Job stands as one of the oldest writings in the Bible, composed under divine inspiration and preserved for its timeless wisdom and poetic beauty.

Purpose of Job

The Book of Job addresses one of the most profound questions of human existence:

Why do the righteous suffer?

It teaches us:

- That suffering is not always the result of sin.
- That God’s purposes may be hidden, yet are always wise and just.
- That true faith endures in the face of silence and loss.
- That divine sovereignty surpasses human understanding.
- That God welcomes honest questions but calls us to trust Him. Job challenges simplistic answers and invites readers to wrestle with the mystery of God’s will, the reality of pain, and the hope of restoration.

Structure of Job

The Book of Job is structured like a dramatic poetic dialogue, framed by a short narrative prologue and epilogue:

1. Prologue (Chapters 1–2)

- Job’s character and prosperity

- Satan's accusation and Job's testing
- Job's physical suffering and personal loss

2. Dialogues and Discourses (Chapters 3–37)

- Job's lament (Ch. 3)
- Three cycles of speeches between Job and his friends (Ch. 4–27)
- Job's personal defense and final words (Ch. 28–31)
- Elihu's speeches (Ch. 32–37)

3. God's Response (Chapters 38–41)

- The LORD speaks out of the whirlwind
- Questions that reveal divine power and wisdom

4. Epilogue (Chapter 42)

- Job's repentance and restoration
- God rebukes Job's friends
- Job's latter days are blessed more than the former

Major Themes

- The Sovereignty of God – God is in control even when He seems silent.
- The Mystery of Suffering – Not all suffering is punishment; sometimes it's a test or a tool for deeper growth.
- Faith in Trial – Job's endurance becomes a model for trusting God amid pain.
- The Limits of Human Wisdom – Job's friends speak with worldly logic, but God's wisdom is deeper.
- Divine Justice and Grace – God ultimately vindicates Job, reminding us that He is both just and merciful.

Why Job Matters Today

Everyone faces suffering. The Book of Job speaks to the heart of every believer who has ever asked:

- “Why is this happening?”
- “Where is God in my pain?”
- “What have I done to deserve this?”
- “Is God still good when life is not?” Job reminds us that faith is not built on circumstances, but on trust in God's character. Though God may not always give answers, He always gives Himself. The book points to Jesus Christ — the ultimate righteous sufferer — who brings hope, redemption, and restoration beyond suffering.

Key Verse

“I know that my Redeemer lives, and He will stand upon the earth at last.” – Job 19:25

This verse shines as a beacon of hope in the midst of Job’s darkest hours. It reveals Job’s unshakable confidence that, despite everything, God is alive, and in the end, justice will be done. It is one of the clearest Old Testament declarations of resurrection and future vindication.

Job Chapter 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

The Test Begins

Job’s Character and Prosperity

1 There was a man named Job who lived in the land of Uz. He was blameless and upright, feared God, and turned away from evil.

Cross References: Genesis 6:9; Psalm 1:1; Ezekiel 14:14

2 He had seven sons and three daughters.

Cross References: Job 42:13; Ruth 4:15; Psalm 127:3

3 He owned 7,000 sheep, 3,000 camels, 500 teams of oxen, and 500 female donkeys, along with a very large number of servants. He was the greatest man among all the people of the East.

Cross References: Job 42:12; Genesis 13:2; Genesis 30:43

4 His sons held feasts in their homes on their birthdays, and they invited their three sisters to eat and drink with them.

Cross References: Job 1:13; Ecclesiastes 2:24; Nehemiah 8:10

5 After each cycle of feasting, Job would purify his children. Early in the morning, he would offer a burnt sacrifice for each of them, thinking, “Perhaps my children have sinned and cursed God in their hearts.” Job did this regularly.

Cross References: Job 42:8; Leviticus 1:4; 1 Samuel 12:23

Satan’s Challenge in Heaven

6 One day, the sons of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan also came among them.

Cross References: Job 2:1; 1 Kings 22:19; Zechariah 3:1

7 The Lord said to Satan, “Where have you come from?” Satan replied, “From roaming throughout the earth, going back and forth on it.”

Cross References: Job 2:2; 1 Peter 5:8; Zechariah 1:11

8 Then the Lord asked, “Have you considered my servant Job? There’s no one like him on earth—blameless and upright, a man who fears God and avoids evil.”

Cross References: Job 2:3; Ezekiel 14:20; 1 Kings 8:61

9 Satan answered, “Does Job fear God for no reason?”

Cross References: Malachi 3:14; Matthew 4:3; John 6:26

10 Haven’t you placed a hedge of protection around him, his household, and everything he owns? You’ve blessed the work of his hands, and his wealth has increased in the land.

Cross References: Psalm 34:7; Psalm 91:1; Zechariah 2:5

11 But stretch out your hand and take away everything he has, and he will surely curse you to your face!”

Cross References: Job 2:5; 2 Corinthians 12:7; Luke 22:31

12 The Lord said to Satan, “Very well, everything he owns is in your power—but do not lay a hand on him.” Then Satan left the Lord’s presence.

Cross References: Job 2:6; Luke 22:32; 1 Corinthians 10:13

Satan Strikes Job’s Possessions and Children

13 One day, while Job’s sons and daughters were feasting in the home of their oldest brother,

Cross References: Job 1:4; Job 1:18; Luke 17:27

14 a messenger came to Job and said, “The oxen were plowing and the donkeys were grazing nearby,

Cross References: Deuteronomy 28:31; Job 1:3; Genesis 34:28

15 when the Sabeans attacked and stole them. They killed the servants with the sword, and I alone escaped to tell you.”

Cross References: Joel 3:8; Job 6:19; 1 Samuel 30:1

16 While he was still speaking, another messenger came and said, “The fire of God fell from heaven and burned up the sheep and the servants—it consumed them all. I alone escaped to tell you.”

Cross References: Genesis 19:24; 1 Kings 18:38; 2 Kings 1:10

17 While he was still speaking, another messenger came and said, “The Chaldeans formed three raiding parties, swept down on the camels, and carried them off. They killed the servants with the sword, and I alone escaped to tell you.”

Cross References: Habakkuk 1:6; Judges 7:16; Genesis 11:31 18 While he was still speaking, another messenger came and said, “Your sons and daughters were feasting and drinking wine in their oldest brother’s house,

Cross References: Job 1:4; Job 1:13; Luke 17:27

19 when suddenly a powerful wind came from the desert and struck the four corners of the house. It collapsed on them, and they died. I alone escaped to tell you.”

Cross References: Matthew 7:27; Job 38:1; Ezekiel 13:13

Job’s Response to Suffering

20 Then Job stood up, tore his robe in grief, shaved his head, and fell to the ground in worship.

Cross References: Genesis 37:34; 2 Samuel 1:11; Joshua 7:6

21 He said, “Naked I came from my mother’s womb, and naked I will return. The Lord gave, and the Lord has taken away. Blessed be the name of the Lord.”

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 5:15; 1 Timothy 6:7; Psalm 113:2

22 In all this, Job did not sin or accuse God of wrongdoing.

Cross References: Job 2:10; Psalm 39:1; James 1:13

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 1

- 1. Righteousness Does Not Guarantee a Trial-Free Life – Job was described as blameless, yet he still became the target of Satan’s challenge and attack.
- 2. God Is Sovereign Over Satan’s Access – Even Satan must ask permission. Nothing happens without God’s allowance.
- 3. True Faith Is Tested by Loss – Job’s faith was not dependent on blessings. His worship continued even in ruin.
- 4. Worship in the Midst of Grief – Job mourned deeply, but he responded with surrender and reverence, not bitterness.
- 5. Satan Underestimates the Faithful – Satan believed Job’s devotion was tied to prosperity. He was wrong.
- 6. God Allows Trials with a Purpose – The scene in heaven shows that sometimes our trials are part of a greater unseen story.
- 7. Be a Priest Over Your Household – Job interceded for his children continually. His example speaks to godly parenting.

Job Chapter 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

Satan Strikes Again, but Job Endures

A Second Heavenly Challenge

1 Another day came when the sons of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan also came with them to stand before the Lord.

Cross References: Job 1:6; 1 Kings 22:19; Zechariah 3:1

2 The Lord asked Satan, “Where have you come from?” Satan answered, “From roaming throughout the earth, going back and forth in it.”

Cross References: Job 1:7; 1 Peter 5:8; Zechariah 1:11

3 Then the Lord said to Satan, “Have you considered my servant Job? There’s no one like him on earth—a blameless and upright man who fears God and avoids evil. And still, he holds firmly to his integrity, even though you urged me to ruin him without reason.”

Cross References: Job 1:8; Ezekiel 14:14; James 1:13

Satan’s New Accusation

4 Satan replied, “Skin for skin! A man will give up everything he owns to save his own life.

Cross References: Matthew 16:26; Psalm 49:8; 1 Kings 20:39

5 But stretch out your hand and strike his flesh and bones, and he will surely curse you to your face!”

Cross References: Job 1:11; 2 Corinthians 12:7; Luke 22:31

6 The Lord said to Satan, “Very well, he is in your hands—but you must spare his life.”

Cross References: Job 1:12; 1 Corinthians 10:13; Luke 22:32

Job’s Physical Suffering Begins

7 So Satan left the Lord’s presence and struck Job with painful sores from the soles of his feet to the top of his head.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 28:35; Isaiah 1:6; Revelation 16:2

8 Job sat among the ashes and scraped himself with a piece of broken pottery.

Cross References: Job 42:6; Jonah 3:6; Lamentations 3:16

Job’s Wife Speaks Out

9 His wife said to him, “Are you still clinging to your integrity? Curse God and die!”

Cross References: Job 1:11; 1 Kings 21:10; Revelation 16:9

10 But Job replied, “You speak like a foolish woman. Should we accept only good things from God and not adversity?” In all this, Job did not sin with his lips.

Cross References: Job 1:21; Lamentations 3:38; Isaiah 45:7

Job’s Friends Arrive

11 When Job’s three friends heard of all the calamity that had come upon him, they each came from their own region—Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite. They had agreed together to come and show sympathy and comfort him.

Cross References: Job 42:11; Romans 12:15; 2 Corinthians 1:4

12 But when they saw him from a distance, they barely recognized him. They began to weep loudly. Each of them tore his robe and sprinkled dust on his head toward heaven.

Cross References: Ezekiel 27:30; Genesis 37:34; Joshua 7:6

13 Then they sat down on the ground with Job for seven days and seven nights. No one said a word to him, because they saw how great his suffering was.

Cross References: Ezekiel 3:15; Lamentations 2:10; Ecclesiastes 3:7

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 2

- 1. The Enemy Persists, but God Still Sets the Limits – Satan returns for a second attack, yet he cannot act outside God's permission.
- 2. Integrity in Pain Is Possible – Job's suffering intensified, yet he held fast to his integrity and never spoke against God.
- 3. True Faith Isn't Conditional – Job shows that faith does not depend on good health or outward blessings.
- 4. Even Loved Ones May Misunderstand Us – Job's own wife urged him to abandon his faith. In our pain, we may face criticism from those closest to us.
- 5. Companionship Doesn't Always Require Words – Job's friends initially did the right thing: they sat in silence and shared in his grief.
- 6. God Knows the Whole Story—We Don't – While Satan plots and humans guess, only God sees the full purpose behind trials.

Job Chapter 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

Job's Lament: A Cry from the Depths of Suffering

Job Curses the Day of His Birth

1 After this, Job opened his mouth and cursed the day he was born.

Cross References: Jeremiah 20:14; Job 10:18; Ecclesiastes 4:3

2 He said:

Cross References: Job 32:6; Psalm 39:2; 1 Samuel 1:15

3 "Let the day perish on which I was born, and the night it was said, 'A baby boy has been conceived.'

Cross References: Jeremiah 15:10; Job 10:18; Genesis 1:3

4 May that day be darkness; may God above not care about it; may no light shine on it.

Cross References: Amos 5:18; Exodus 10:21; Isaiah 45:7

5 Let deep darkness and the shadow of death claim it; may a cloud settle over it; may terrifying gloom overwhelm it.

Cross References: Job 10:22; Psalm 23:4; Lamentations 3:6

6 As for that night, let thick darkness seize it. May it never be included among the days of the year or added to the count of the months.

Cross References: Psalm 90:4; Nahum 1:8; Jude 1:13

7 Let that night be barren; may no joyful shout be heard in it.

Cross References: Jeremiah 20:17; Isaiah 13:20; Hosea 9:14

8 Let those who curse days curse it—those who are ready to awaken Leviathan.

Cross References: Job 41:1; Psalm 74:14; Isaiah 27:1

9 May its morning stars become dark; may it wait for daylight in vain and not see the first rays of dawn,

Cross References: Isaiah 13:10; Joel 2:10; Job 41:18

10 Because it did not shut the doors of my mother's womb, nor hide sorrow from my eyes.

Cross References: Jeremiah 20:18; Job 10:18; Ecclesiastes 4:3

Job Questions Why He Was Born

11 Why didn't I die at birth, or pass away as I came from the womb?

Cross References: 1 Kings 19:4; Jonah 4:3; Jeremiah 15:10

12 Why were there knees to receive me, or breasts for me to nurse?

Cross References: Genesis 50:23; Genesis 21:7; Luke 11:27

13 For now I would be lying down in peace; I would be asleep and at rest,

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 6:3; Isaiah 57:2; Daniel 12:13

14 With kings and counselors of the earth, who built grand tombs for themselves,

Cross References: Isaiah 14:18; Isaiah 58:12; Ecclesiastes 2:4

15 Or with princes who had gold, who filled their houses with silver.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:27; Zechariah 9:3; Ecclesiastes 2:8

16 Or like a miscarriage that is hidden, like babies who never saw the light of day.

Cross References: Psalm 58:8; Ecclesiastes 6:5; Numbers 12:12

The Rest of Death

17 There the wicked stop their torment, and there the weary find rest.

Cross References: Revelation 14:13; Isaiah 57:2; 2 Thessalonians 1:7

18 Prisoners are at ease together; they don't hear the voice of the slave driver.

Cross References: Exodus 3:7; Exodus 5:6; Isaiah 14:3

19 The small and the great are there, and the servant is free from his master.

Cross References: Proverbs 22:2; Ephesians 6:9; Colossians 4:1

Job Longs for Death

20 Why is light given to those in misery, and life to the bitter of soul,

Cross References: Lamentations 3:1; Jeremiah 20:18; Isaiah 49:4

21 Who long for death, but it doesn't come, who dig for it more than hidden treasure,

Cross References: Revelation 9:6; Jeremiah 8:3; Job 7:15

22 Who rejoice and are thrilled when they find the grave?

Cross References: Proverbs 2:4; Matthew 13:44; Ecclesiastes 2:17

23 Why is life given to a man whose path is hidden, whom God has hedged in?

Cross References: Job 19:8; Lamentations 3:7; Psalm 88:8

24 I sigh before I eat; my groans pour out like water.

Cross References: Psalm 42:3; Psalm 102:9; Psalm 22:14

25 What I feared most has happened to me; what I dreaded has come true.

Cross References: Proverbs 10:24; Isaiah 66:4; Job 30:26

26 I have no peace, no quietness; I have no rest—only trouble has come."

Cross References: Psalm 22:2; Lamentations 3:20; Psalm 38:3

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 3

- 1. Even the Righteous May Despair – Job, once called blameless, now cries out in anguish. Grief and depression are not signs of spiritual weakness but part of the human experience.
- 2. It's Okay to Mourn Honestly – Job doesn't hide his pain. He questions his very existence. Scripture includes this raw emotion to show us it's okay to wrestle with suffering.
- 3. Death Is Not Always Feared – Job describes death as a place of rest and release. This shows the depth of his anguish and the universal longing for peace in suffering.
- 4. God Hears Lament – Job's lament wasn't condemned. It was recorded in Scripture. God invites our honesty—even in our darkest thoughts.
- 5. Pain May Eclipse Perspective – Job forgot his earlier trust in God's sovereignty. Suffering narrowed his view, as it often does. But God will meet him there in later chapters.

Eliphaz Speaks: The Innocent Don't Suffer Without Cause

Eliphaz Begins to Speak

1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite replied and said:

Cross References: Job 2:11; Proverbs 15:23; Job 32:4

2 “If I try to say something to you, will it upset you? But who could keep from speaking?

Cross References: Proverbs 10:19; Ecclesiastes 3:7; Job 13:13

3 Look, you’ve taught many others, and you’ve strengthened the hands of the weak.

Cross References: Isaiah 35:3; 1 Thessalonians 5:14; Proverbs 25:11

4 Your words have supported those who were falling, and you’ve made trembling knees steady.

Cross References: Hebrews 12:12; Isaiah 35:3; Job 29:15

5 But now that trouble has come to you, you fall apart; it touches you, and you’re overwhelmed.

Cross References: Jeremiah 12:5; Psalm 116:11; Proverbs 24:10

6 Isn’t your reverence for God your confidence? Isn’t your integrity your hope?

Cross References: Proverbs 3:26; Psalm 46:1; Job 1:1

The Doctrine of Retribution

7 Think back: who has ever perished while being innocent? Where have the righteous been destroyed?

Cross References: Psalm 37:25; Proverbs 10:25; Psalm 34:19

8 As I’ve seen it, those who plow evil and plant trouble will harvest the same.

Cross References: Proverbs 22:8; Galatians 6:7; Hosea 8:7

9 By the breath of God they are destroyed; by the blast of His anger, they are consumed.

Cross References: Isaiah 11:4; 2 Thessalonians 2:8; Psalm 18:15

10 The lion may roar, and the fierce lion may growl, but the teeth of young lions are broken.

Cross References: Psalm 58:6; Psalm 34:10; Ezekiel 19:6

11 The old lion dies from lack of prey, and the cubs of the lioness are scattered.

Cross References: Psalm 104:21; Nahum 2:12; Psalm 34:10

Eliphaz Describes a Mysterious Vision

12 A word was secretly whispered to me, and my ear caught a glimpse of it.

Cross References: Job 33:15; Numbers 12:6; 1 Samuel 3:4

13 It came to me in the middle of disturbing thoughts from night visions, when deep sleep falls on people.

Cross References: Genesis 15:12; Daniel 2:19; Zechariah 1:8

14 A feeling of fear and trembling seized me, and it made every bone in my body shake.

Cross References: Daniel 10:11; Habakkuk 3:16; Psalm 119:120

15 Then a spirit passed by my face; the hair on my body stood on end.

Cross References: Daniel 7:15; Ezekiel 1:4; Daniel 10:6

16 It stood still, but I couldn't make out its shape. There was a form before my eyes. Silence... then I heard a voice say:

Cross References: 1 Kings 19:12; Habakkuk 2:20; Psalm 62:1

God Is Just—Man Is Not

17 'Can a mortal be more righteous than God? Can a man be more pure than his Maker?

Cross References: Job 25:4; Romans 3:20; Psalm 143:2

18 Look, God doesn't even trust His servants; He charges His angels with error.

Cross References: Job 15:15; 2 Peter 2:4; Job 25:5

19 How much more, then, those who dwell in houses of clay—whose foundation is in the dust—who are crushed like moths!

Cross References: Genesis 2:7; Genesis 3:19; Psalm 103:14

20 They are broken to pieces from morning until evening; they perish forever without anyone noticing.

Cross References: Psalm 90:5; Psalm 103:15; James 4:14

21 Isn't all their glory taken away? They die without wisdom.'"

Cross References: Isaiah 38:12; 2 Corinthians 5:1; Ecclesiastes 9:5

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 4

- 1. Even Friends Can Misread Our Suffering – Eliphaz begins gently, acknowledging Job's former strength, but quickly shifts to blame, assuming Job must have sinned. This reminds us not to make quick judgments in the face of someone else's pain.
- 2. The Danger of a Rigid Theology – Eliphaz promotes the idea that only the wicked suffer (the retribution principle). But Job's story—and real life—show that suffering can happen to the righteous, too.
- 3. Spiritual Experiences Must Be Tested – Eliphaz appeals to a vision he received, yet the message, though poetic, reinforces flawed logic. Not every supernatural experience reflects divine truth.
- 4. God's Holiness Is Absolute – Eliphaz is right to point out that no human can claim righteousness over God. But he fails to balance this truth with compassion or deeper understanding of grace.
- 5. Comfort Requires Compassion, Not Condemnation – Though Eliphaz meant to help, he begins to wound. Sometimes what people need most is empathy, not explanation.

Eliphaz's Counsel: God Corrects and Restores

Don't Expect Help from Anyone but God

1 “Cry out now! Is there anyone who will answer you? To which of the holy ones will you turn?

Cross References: Psalm 18:41; Proverbs 1:28; Isaiah 1:15

2 Resentment kills a fool, and jealousy destroys the simple.

Cross References: Proverbs 14:30; Proverbs 27:4; Ecclesiastes 5:2

3 I've seen a fool take root, but suddenly I cursed his house.

Cross References: Psalm 37:35; Psalm 73:18; Jeremiah 12:2

4 His children are far from safety; they are crushed in court, with no one to rescue them.

Cross References: Job 27:14; Psalm 109:9; Proverbs 11:21

5 The hungry consume his harvest, even snatching it from the thorns; the thirsty rob him of his wealth.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 28:33; Isaiah 62:8; Leviticus 26:16

Trouble Is Part of Life

6 Affliction doesn't just grow from the soil, and trouble doesn't sprout like weeds—

Cross References: Lamentations 3:38; Job 34:11; Amos 3:6

7 But people are born to trouble, just like sparks fly upward.

Cross References: Job 14:1; Genesis 3:19; Ecclesiastes 2:23

God Is the Source of Help and Restoration

8 If I were you, I'd turn to God and present my case to Him.

Cross References: Job 13:3; Psalm 37:5; Jeremiah 20:12

9 He does great things—too marvelous to understand—wonders without number.

Cross References: Job 9:10; Job 37:5; Romans 11:33

10 He sends rain on the earth and waters the countryside.

Cross References: Psalm 147:8; Matthew 5:45; Acts 14:17

11 He lifts the lowly and sets them on high, and those who mourn are given safety.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 2:7; Luke 1:52; Psalm 113:7

12 He frustrates the plans of the crafty so that their hands fail to achieve success.

Cross References: Psalm 33:10; Isaiah 8:10; Nehemiah 4:15

13 He catches the wise in their own schemes, and the plans of the clever are swept away.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 3:19; Psalm 7:16; Psalm 9:15

14 They grope in darkness at noon, stumbling as if it were night.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 28:29; Isaiah 59:10; Amos 8:9

15 But God saves the poor from the sword of their mouth and from the hand of the powerful.

Cross References: Psalm 35:10; Psalm 72:12; Psalm 109:31

16 So the poor have hope, and injustice shuts its mouth.

Cross References: Psalm 107:42; Romans 3:19; Psalm 63:11

The Value of God's Correction

17 Look, blessed is the one whom God corrects. So don't despise the discipline of the Almighty.

Cross References: Hebrews 12:6; Proverbs 3:12; Psalm 94:12

18 For though He wounds, He also heals; He strikes, but His hands also restore.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:39; Hosea 6:1; Isaiah 30:26

19 He will rescue you from six troubles—yes, even seven—no harm will touch you.

Cross References: Psalm 34:19; 2 Corinthians 1:10; Psalm 91:15

20 In famine, He will keep you from death; in war, from the sword.

Cross References: Psalm 33:19; Psalm 37:19; Psalm 91:3

21 You'll be protected from slander and have no fear when destruction comes.

Cross References: Psalm 31:20; Psalm 64:3; Jeremiah 18:18

22 You'll laugh at destruction and famine and have no fear of wild animals.

Cross References: Job 39:22; Proverbs 31:25; Psalm 52:6

23 You'll have a covenant with the stones of the field, and the wild animals will be at peace with you.

Cross References: Hosea 2:18; Ezekiel 34:25; Leviticus 26:6

24 You'll know that your home is safe, and when you visit, nothing will be missing.

Cross References: Psalm 91:10; Job 8:6; Proverbs 3:33

25 You'll also know your descendants will be many—your offspring like the grass of the earth.

Cross References: Psalm 112:2; Psalm 128:6; Genesis 15:5

26 You'll come to the grave at a ripe old age, like a sheaf of grain gathered in its season.

Cross References: Job 42:17; Genesis 25:8; Psalm 90:10

27 Look, we've examined all this, and it's true. Listen to it, and apply it for your benefit."

Cross References: Job 8:8; Job 15:17; Proverbs 1:5

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 5

- 1. Human Suffering Is Inevitable – Eliphaz reminds us that trouble is part of the human experience (v.7). But he overlooks the deeper truth—that not all suffering is punishment.
- 2. God’s Discipline Is a Sign of Love – Though his tone is harsh, Eliphaz correctly says that God corrects those He loves (v.17). This is echoed later in Scripture (Hebrews 12:6).
- 3. God Is Our Ultimate Help – Eliphaz encourages Job to seek God, who does wonders, lifts the lowly, and brings justice (v.8–16). Though misapplied, these words still reflect God’s nature.
- 4. Prosperity Is Not Always the Sign of God’s Favor – Eliphaz assumes that restoration will come if Job repents. But Job wasn’t suffering because of sin. We must be cautious not to oversimplify God’s purposes.
- 5. Words Meant for Comfort Can Still Cut Deep – Eliphaz speaks eloquently, but he misses Job’s heart. True comfort doesn’t only speak truth—it listens with grace.

Job Chapter 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

Job’s Response: My Pain Is Greater Than You Know

My Pain Is Too Much to Bear

1 Then Job answered and said,

Cross References: Job 3:2; Job 9:1; Job 12:1

2 “If only my grief could be measured and all my misery placed on the scales,

Cross References: Job 23:2; Lamentations 3:1; Psalm 38:4

3 It would weigh more than all the sand of the sea. That’s why I speak so rashly.

Cross References: Proverbs 27:3; Psalm 69:14; Habakkuk 1:2

4 For the arrows of the Almighty are deep within me, and their poison is draining my spirit. God’s terrors line up against me.

Cross References: Psalm 38:2; Deuteronomy 32:23; Lamentations 3:13

5 Does a wild donkey bray when it has grass? Does an ox bellow when it has food?

Cross References: Job 39:5; Proverbs 26:2; Jeremiah 2:24

6 Can bland food be eaten without salt? Is there any flavor in the white of an egg?

Cross References: Leviticus 2:13; Colossians 4:6; Numbers 11:6

7 I gag at the food I once would never touch. Now it’s the only thing I have to eat.”

Cross References: Psalm 107:18; Job 3:24; Psalm 42:3

I Long for Death, Not Relief

8 “Oh, how I wish my request would be granted—that God would give me what I ask for!

Cross References: Job 3:20; 1 Kings 19:4; Jonah 4:3

9 That He would crush me and unleash His power to end my life!

Cross References: Job 3:11; Jonah 4:8; Revelation 9:6

10 At least I would find comfort in this: though overwhelmed by pain, I never denied the words of the Holy One.

Cross References: Jeremiah 15:16; Psalm 119:50; Job 23:12

11 But what strength do I have to keep hoping? What future do I have to keep going?

Cross References: Psalm 39:4; Psalm 90:10; Psalm 102:11

12 Am I made of stone? Is my body made of bronze?

Cross References: Psalm 103:14; 2 Corinthians 4:7; Genesis 2:7

13 No—I have no help left within me. Any chance of success has vanished.”

Cross References: Psalm 22:11; Psalm 42:5; Psalm 88:8

Where Is Your Compassion?

14 “Anyone who suffers deserves kindness from a friend—even if they’ve turned from God.

Cross References: Proverbs 17:17; Proverbs 18:24; Ecclesiastes 4:10

15 But my friends are as unreliable as a seasonal stream that dries up.

Cross References: Jeremiah 15:18; Psalm 38:11; Psalm 41:9

16 They are dark with ice and swollen with melting snow,

Cross References: Psalm 147:16; Psalm 147:17; Job 38:29

17 But when it gets hot, they vanish. When the heat comes, they disappear from their place.

Cross References: James 1:11; Psalm 102:11; Isaiah 40:7

18 Their paths wander off course, and they are lost.

Cross References: Jeremiah 2:13; Isaiah 41:17; Jeremiah 14:3

19 Travelers from Tema and Sheba look for them,

Cross References: Isaiah 21:14; Genesis 25:15; Job 1:15

20 But are disappointed because they trusted in them. They arrive and are ashamed.

Cross References: Psalm 22:5; Isaiah 20:5; Romans 5:5

21 You are like those dried-up streams. You see my suffering, and you’re afraid.”

Cross References: Job 13:4; Psalm 38:11; Job 19:19

I Didn’t Ask for Help—Just Understanding

22 “Did I ask you to give me anything? Or offer gifts from your wealth?

Cross References: 1 Samuel 12:3; Genesis 14:23; Acts 20:33

23 Did I ask you to rescue me from my enemies or to save me from powerful oppressors?

Cross References: Psalm 31:15; Psalm 7:1; 2 Samuel 22:49

24 Just teach me, and I will be silent. Show me what I’ve done wrong.

Cross References: Psalm 39:9; Job 34:32; Psalm 32:8

25 Honest words are powerful. But what’s the point of your arguments?

Cross References: Proverbs 25:11; Proverbs 15:1; Ecclesiastes 12:11

26 Do you think your words will fix anything? Do you argue with someone desperate, as if their words don’t matter?

Cross References: Job 19:2; Job 16:3; Job 26:2

27 You’d even gamble with the life of an orphan. You’d dig a pit for your own friend.”

Cross References: Psalm 57:6; Psalm 35:7; Deuteronomy 24:17

Look Me in the Eyes and Judge Honestly

28 “Please, look at me. I would never lie to your face.

Cross References: Job 21:5; Job 13:18; Job 33:5

29 Change your mind. Don’t treat me unfairly. Think it over again—my cause is just.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 1:17; Job 17:10; Proverbs 18:17

30 Is there any lie on my tongue? Don’t I know the difference between right and wrong?”

Cross References: Job 27:4; Psalm 39:1; Psalm 17:3

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 6

- 1. Grief Can Cloud Speech but Not Faith – Job admits his words are driven by overwhelming pain (v.3), not rebellion. Even in despair, he does not curse God.
- 2. Emotional Honesty Is Not Sin – Job speaks freely of his desire for death (v.8–9), yet God later calls him righteous (Job 42:7). God allows us to be honest with Him in our darkest moments.
- 3. Compassion Is a Command – Job criticizes his friends for abandoning him in suffering (v.14). True friendship means showing mercy—even when the sufferer is angry or broken.
- 4. Superficial Help Isn’t Real Help – Job didn’t ask for money or rescue—he asked to be understood (v.24). Listening and validating someone’s pain is often more powerful than offering solutions.
- 5. The Righteous Still Suffer – Job continues to defend his innocence (v.29–30). His integrity amidst suffering foreshadows Christ, who suffered though He was sinless.

Job Chapter 7 – Crawford Standard Bible

Job's Cry: God, Why Do You Even Bother with Me?

Life Feels Meaningless and Miserable

1 “Isn’t there a set time for people on earth? Aren’t our days like those of a hired laborer—counted and wearisome?”

Cross References: Job 14:5; Psalm 39:4; Ecclesiastes 3:1

2 Like a servant longing for the evening shadow, or a hired hand waiting for his pay,

Cross References: Job 14:6; Deuteronomy 24:15; Leviticus 19:13

3 I too have been given months filled with emptiness, and nights full of misery have been assigned to me.

Cross References: Psalm 39:5; Psalm 90:9; Ecclesiastes 1:2

4 When I lie down, I think, ‘When will I get up?’ But the night drags on, and I toss and turn until dawn.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 28:67; Psalm 6:6; Psalm 130:6

5 My skin is infected and scabby, covered with dust and worms; it cracks open and oozes.

Cross References: Job 2:7; Isaiah 14:11; Acts 12:23

6 My days pass faster than a weaver’s shuttle and come to an end without hope.

Cross References: Isaiah 38:12; Psalm 90:5; 1 Chronicles 29:15

7 Remember, O God, my life is just a breath. I’ll never know happiness again.

Cross References: Psalm 78:39; James 4:14; Psalm 103:15

8 The eye that sees me now will not see me again; when You look for me, I’ll be gone.

Cross References: Job 20:9; Psalm 103:16; Job 8:18

9 Just like a cloud fades and vanishes, so a person goes down to the grave and doesn’t return.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 12:23; Psalm 102:3; Isaiah 44:22

10 He never comes back to his house again; his place doesn’t even remember him.”

Cross References: Psalm 103:16; Ecclesiastes 1:11; Job 20:9

God, Why Won’t You Leave Me Alone?

11 “So I won’t keep quiet. I’ll speak in my anguish and complain from the bitterness in my soul.

Cross References: Psalm 39:3; Job 10:1; Psalm 77:3

12 Am I a monster of the sea or a sea creature that You need to keep under guard?

Cross References: Job 38:8; Job 38:11; Psalm 104:9

13 When I say, ‘At least my bed will give me relief, and my couch will ease my complaint,’

Cross References: Job 30:17; Psalm 6:6; Psalm 77:2

14 You terrify me with dreams and scare me with visions.

Cross References: Job 4:13; Job 33:15; Psalm 73:20

15 I would rather be strangled—I would prefer death over this life of mine.

Cross References: Job 3:21; Jonah 4:8; Revelation 9:6

16 I hate my life! I don’t want to live forever. Leave me alone, for my days are meaningless.”

Cross References: Job 9:21; Ecclesiastes 2:17; Job 10:1

Why Do You Even Care About People?

17 “What is man that You care so much about him, that You focus Your attention on him,

Cross References: Psalm 8:4; Psalm 144:3; Hebrews 2:6

18 That You examine him every morning and test him every moment?

Cross References: Psalm 17:3; Lamentations 3:23; Psalm 139:1

19 Won’t You look away from me? Won’t You let me catch my breath even for a second?

Cross References: Psalm 39:13; Job 14:6; Job 9:18

20 If I’ve sinned, what can I do to You, O Watcher of humanity? Why have You made me Your target? Why have I become such a burden to myself?

Cross References: Job 10:14; Lamentations 3:12; Job 16:12

21 Why don’t You forgive my sins and take away my guilt? For soon I will lie down in the dust. You will look for me, but I’ll be gone.”

Cross References: Psalm 25:11; Job 10:9; Psalm 103:14

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 7

- 1. Suffering Distorts Our Sense of Time and Purpose – Job sees life as burdensome, pointless, and fleeting (v.1–6). When pain is overwhelming, even small tasks and sleep lose meaning.
- 2. It’s Okay to Ask God Hard Questions – Job questions God without being struck down for it (v.17–20). God welcomes raw honesty in suffering.
- 3. Emotions Are Not Rebellion – Job feels abandoned and even terrorized by his dreams (v.14–15). His emotional turmoil does not equal sin—it’s the cry of a man deeply wounded.
- 4. God Is Present, Even When Silent – Though Job feels like a target of divine wrath, the very fact he’s wrestling with God shows God hasn’t abandoned him completely.
- 5. We Are Frail, Yet God Notices Us – Job ironically asks why God bothers with fragile people (v.17–18). This reflects the mystery of divine care—why does the Creator care so much for dust-born creatures?

Job Chapter 8 – Crawford Standard Bible

Bildad’s Harsh Rebuke: If You Were Innocent, God Would Help You

God Is Just—So the Problem Must Be You

1 Then Bildad the Shuhite replied:

Cross References: Job 2:11; Job 18:1; Job 25:1

2 “How long will you keep talking like this? Your words are like a powerful wind—loud, reckless, and destructive.

Cross References: Job 15:2; Psalm 62:3; Job 18:2

3 Does God twist justice? Does the Almighty pervert what is right?

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:4; Genesis 18:25; Romans 3:6

4 If your children sinned against Him, He simply gave them what they deserved.

Cross References: Job 1:18; Job 1:19; 2 Samuel 12:14

5 But if you will earnestly seek God and beg the Almighty for mercy—

Cross References: Job 5:8; Psalm 78:34; Isaiah 55:6

6 If you are pure and upright—surely He will rise up on your behalf and restore your home to prosperity.

Cross References: Job 22:23; Psalm 44:26; Job 42:7

7 Even if you started out with nothing, your future would be full of abundance.”

Cross References: Job 42:12; Zechariah 4:10; Proverbs 4:18

Look at the Past to Understand God’s Justice

8 “Ask the previous generation—study the wisdom of our ancestors.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:7; Job 12:12; Job 15:18

9 (Because we were born just yesterday and we know so little. Our days on earth are like a passing shadow.)

Cross References: Psalm 90:4; Psalm 39:5; 1 Chronicles 29:15

10 Won’t they teach you and give you wisdom from deep within their hearts?”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:7; Job 12:7; Job 34:2

The Fate of the Godless

11 “Can papyrus grow tall without a marsh? Can reeds grow tall without water?

Cross References: Isaiah 19:6; Psalm 1:4; Isaiah 35:7

12 While it is still green and thriving—not yet cut down—it dries up faster than other plants.

Cross References: Psalm 37:2; Psalm 90:6; Isaiah 40:7

13 That’s what happens to those who forget God; the hope of the godless will perish.

Cross References: Psalm 9:17; Psalm 50:22; Job 20:5

14 Their confidence is as fragile as a spider’s web.

Cross References: Proverbs 11:7; Job 11:20; Psalm 112:10

15 They lean on their ‘house’—but it collapses. They hold on to it—but it doesn’t last.

Cross References: Matthew 7:26; Matthew 7:27; Proverbs 14:11

16 They seem healthy, like a plant growing in the sunshine, spreading out in the garden.

Cross References: Psalm 37:35; Psalm 92:7; Psalm 37:2

17 Its roots wrap around the stones, anchoring it securely among the rocks.

Cross References: Jeremiah 17:8; Matthew 13:5; Matthew 13:6

18 But when it’s pulled out of its place, it says, ‘I never knew you!’

Cross References: Psalm 37:10; Proverbs 10:25; Psalm 103:16

19 That’s all the joy such a person gets—and others grow where they once stood.”

Cross References: Job 20:5; Psalm 73:19; Psalm 37:36

The Hope of the Righteous

20 “God will never reject a person of integrity, and He will never support evildoers.

Cross References: Psalm 37:28; Psalm 94:14; 1 Samuel 12:22

21 He will yet fill your mouth with laughter and your lips with shouts of joy.

Cross References: Psalm 126:2; Luke 6:21; Job 42:10

22 Your enemies will be covered in shame, and the homes of the wicked will be gone forever.”

Cross References: Psalm 35:26; Psalm 132:18; Psalm 109:29

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 8

- 1. God’s Justice Is Real—but Bildad Misapplies It – Bildad is right that God is just (v.3), but wrong to assume suffering is always a result of sin (v.4–6).
- 2. Truth Can Be Twisted by Partial Insight – Using tradition alone (v.8–10), without understanding a person’s heart, can lead to unfair judgment.
- 3. The Godless Can Seem Strong—Then Suddenly Fall – Bildad compares the wicked to plants that look healthy but wither quickly (v.11–19). He implies Job is like that, missing the bigger spiritual picture.

- 4. The Innocent Will Ultimately Rejoice – In verses 20–22, Bildad insists that if Job were truly innocent, God would restore him. Ironically, this hope is true—but Bildad wrongly assumes Job is guilty in the meantime.
- 5. We Must Be Cautious in Giving Counsel to the Hurting – Bildad’s words are doctrinally sharp but pastorally insensitive. Truth without compassion can do more harm than good.

Job Chapter 9 – Crawford Standard Bible

No One Can Argue with God

God’s Power Makes Us All Small

1 Then Job replied:

Cross References: Job 6:1; Job 12:1; Job 16:1

2 “Yes, I know this is true. But how can a person be right before God?

Cross References: Job 4:17; Job 25:4; Romans 3:20

3 If someone tried to argue with Him, they couldn’t answer even one question in a thousand.

Cross References: Job 33:13; Job 40:2; Psalm 143:2

4 He is wise in heart and mighty in power. Who has ever resisted Him and come out successful?

Cross References: Job 12:13; Job 36:5; Isaiah 40:26

5 He moves mountains, and they don’t even know it; He overturns them in His anger.

Cross References: Job 14:18; Nahum 1:5; Psalm 90:2

6 He shakes the earth out of its place, and its foundations tremble.

Cross References: Job 26:11; Psalm 104:5; Isaiah 13:13

7 He commands the sun not to rise and seals off the stars.

Cross References: Job 38:31; Habakkuk 3:11; Amos 8:9

8 He stretches out the heavens by Himself and walks on the waves of the sea.

Cross References: Isaiah 40:22; Psalm 104:2; Matthew 14:25

9 He made the constellations: the Bear (Arcturus), Orion, the Pleiades, and the distant southern stars.

Cross References: Job 38:31; Amos 5:8; Genesis 1:16

10 He does great things too wonderful to understand—too many miracles to count.

Cross References: Job 5:9; Romans 11:33; Psalm 145:3

11 When He passes by, I can’t see Him; He moves on, and I don’t perceive Him.

Cross References: Exodus 33:20; 1 Kings 19:12; John 1:18

12 If He takes something away, who can stop Him? Who can dare say to Him, ‘What are you doing?’

Cross References: Isaiah 43:13; Daniel 4:35; Job 23:13

13 God does not hold back His anger—even the proud must bow down before Him.”

Cross References: Isaiah 51:9; Job 26:12; Psalm 89:10

I Cannot Argue with My Creator

14 “So how can I even begin to answer Him? How can I find the right words to speak with Him?

Cross References: Job 40:4; Job 42:3; Romans 9:20

15 Even if I were innocent, I would not try to defend myself—I would only plead for mercy from my Judge.

Cross References: Job 13:15; Job 23:4; 1 John 2:1

16 And even if I called out and He answered, I wouldn’t believe He was really listening to my voice.

Cross References: Lamentations 3:8; Job 30:20; Psalm 22:2

17 He batters me with storms and multiplies my wounds for no reason.

Cross References: Job 6:4; Job 16:12; Job 38:1

18 He won’t even let me catch my breath, but fills me with bitter suffering.

Cross References: Job 7:19; Lamentations 3:15; Job 3:24

19 If it’s about strength—He is the strongest. If it’s about justice—who can summon Him to court?

Cross References: Job 13:22; Jeremiah 49:19; Job 34:23

20 If I tried to defend myself, my own mouth would prove me guilty. Even if I claimed I were blameless, that would reveal my faults.

Cross References: Job 15:6; Luke 19:22; Titus 3:11

21 Even if I were completely innocent, I wouldn’t know it. I’d still despise my own life.

Cross References: Job 7:16; Revelation 12:11; Job 3:20

22 So I say this plainly: God destroys both the innocent and the wicked.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 9:2; Matthew 5:45; Job 21:23

23 When a plague brings sudden death, He seems to mock the despair of the innocent.

Cross References: Habakkuk 1:13; Job 21:17; Ecclesiastes 9:11

24 The earth is handed over to the wicked, and He blinds the eyes of its judges. If it’s not God doing this, then who is?”

My Life Is Speeding Away

25 “My days pass faster than a runner; they fly by without a glimpse of joy.

Cross References: Job 7:6; 1 Chronicles 29:15; Psalm 90:9

26 They’re like swift boats racing by or an eagle diving for prey.

Cross References: Job 30:15; Deuteronomy 28:49; Habakkuk 1:8

27 If I say, ‘I’ll forget my complaint and smile again,’

Cross References: Job 7:13; Psalm 39:2; Job 6:2

28 I’m still afraid of all the pain. I know You won’t declare me innocent.

Cross References: Job 3:25; Psalm 38:17; Job 6:4

29 Since I’m already considered guilty, why keep trying?

Cross References: Job 21:15; Isaiah 49:4; 1 Corinthians 15:58

30 Even if I washed myself with the purest snow water and scrubbed my hands until they were spotless,

Cross References: Psalm 51:7; Jeremiah 2:22; Isaiah 1:16

31 You would still throw me into a muddy pit, and even my clothes would hate to touch me.

Cross References: Job 33:22; Psalm 40:2; Jeremiah 38:6

32 God is not a man like me that I could argue with Him or take Him to court.

Cross References: Numbers 23:19; 1 Samuel 15:29; Hosea 11:9

33 There’s no mediator between us—no one who can bring us both together.

34 Let Him take away His rod of punishment and stop terrifying me with fear.

Cross References: Job 13:21; Psalm 39:10; Isaiah 10:5

35 Then I could speak to Him without fear. But as it is, I cannot.”

Cross References: Job 13:20; Job 23:4; Psalm 56:4

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 9

- 1. God’s Power Is Beyond Our Understanding – Job acknowledges the vastness of God’s wisdom, power, and sovereignty over creation (v.1–13), and recognizes that no human could argue their case before Him.
- 2. Human Efforts Cannot Justify Us Before God – Job insists that even if he were innocent, he still could not defend himself before God (v.14–20). This foreshadows the gospel truth: only divine grace can make us righteous.
- 3. God’s Justice Feels Inaccessible in Suffering – Job expresses confusion over why the righteous suffer and the wicked prosper (v.22–24). This tension is at the heart of the book.

- 4. Suffering Distorts Perspective – Job’s anguish leads him to feel hopeless, with life flying by and no relief in sight (v.25–31).
- 5. Job Longs for a Mediator – In verse 33, Job expresses a deep longing for a “daysman” (arbiter or mediator) between him and God—a role ultimately fulfilled in Christ (1 Timothy 2:5).
- 6. We Need Mercy, Not Arguments – Even Job, known for his righteousness, realized that no amount of human defense could justify him before a holy God. He needed grace, not vindication.

Wrestling with a Silent God

A Cry from a Broken Soul

1 “I am tired of living. I will give voice to my complaint and speak from the bitterness in my soul.

Cross References: Job 7:16; Job 3:20; Jonah 4:3

2 I will say to God: ‘Do not condemn me—tell me why You are fighting against me.

Cross References: Job 13:23; Job 33:13; Isaiah 27:8

3 Does it please You to oppress me, to reject the work of Your own hands, while You smile on the plans of the wicked?

Cross References: Job 21:7; Psalm 73:3; Habakkuk 1:13

4 Do You have human eyes? Do You see things the way people do?

Cross References: 1 Samuel 16:7; Numbers 23:19; Psalm 94:9

5 Are Your days like a man’s days? Are Your years like a human lifetime,

Cross References: Psalm 90:2; Psalm 102:24; 2 Peter 3:8

6 That You must look for my sin and dig into my faults?

Cross References: Psalm 139:1; Job 13:23; Job 7:17

7 You already know I am not guilty, and no one can rescue me from Your hand.”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:39; Job 34:20; Daniel 4:35

You Made Me—Why Destroy Me?

8 “You made me with Your own hands and shaped me completely—yet now You destroy me?

Cross References: Psalm 139:13; Job 33:4; Isaiah 64:8

9 Remember that You formed me like clay. Will You now return me to the dust?

Cross References: Genesis 3:19; Isaiah 64:8; Ecclesiastes 12:7

10 Did You not pour me out like milk and curdle me like cheese?

Cross References: Psalm 139:13; Job 31:15; Psalm 139:15

11 You clothed me with skin and flesh and knit me together with bones and tendons.

Cross References: Ezekiel 37:6; Psalm 139:15; Genesis 2:7

12 You gave me life and kindness, and by Your care, You preserved my spirit.

Cross References: Job 33:4; Acts 17:25; Job 12:10

13 But even then, You hid these things in Your heart. I know this was Your plan all along.”

Cross References: Job 23:13; Deuteronomy 29:29; Isaiah 55:8

I Cannot Win Either Way

14 “If I sin, You keep track of it and will not let me go unpunished.

Cross References: Psalm 130:3; Job 14:16; Job 7:20

15 If I am guilty—woe to me. If I am innocent, I still can’t lift my head—I’m ashamed and overwhelmed with pain.

Cross References: Ezra 9:6; Daniel 9:7; Job 9:20

16 And if I try to raise my head, You hunt me like a lion and show Your power against me again.

Cross References: Job 16:9; Lamentations 3:10; Hosea 13:7

17 You constantly bring new witnesses against me. Your anger grows stronger, and You send wave after wave of suffering against me.”

Why Was I Ever Born?

18 “Why did You bring me out of the womb at all? I wish I had died before anyone saw me.

Cross References: Job 3:11; Jeremiah 20:14; Job 3:16

19 I should have been as though I never existed—carried straight from the womb to the grave.

Cross References: Job 3:16; Ecclesiastes 6:3; Psalm 58:8

20 Aren’t my days few? Let me be for a little while—leave me alone so I can have some peace

Cross References: Job 7:16; Job 14:6; Psalm 39:13

21 Before I go to the land of no return, to the land of darkness and deep shadow—

Cross References: Job 3:5; Job 38:17; Psalm 23:4

22 A land as dark as midnight, a land of confusion and disorder, where even light is like darkness.”

Cross References: Job 3:4; Jeremiah 13:16; Amos 5:20

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 10

- 1. It’s Okay to Bring Hard Questions to God – Job boldly asks why God seems to target him without cause. God does not silence Job, showing us that bringing our honest struggles to Him is part of faith.

- 2. We Are God’s Creation—Formed with Care – Job reflects on how God intricately created him (vv. 8–12), showing a deep understanding of divine craftsmanship and personal value, even in suffering.
- 3. Suffering Can Distort Our View of God’s Character – Job wrestles with confusing emotions: feeling punished, hunted, and abandoned. His words reflect the inner turmoil of grief and unanswered pain.
- 4. Innocence Does Not Guarantee Comfort – Job’s lament reminds us that earthly righteousness does not always shield us from trials. Sometimes, even the upright endure deep sorrow.
- 5. God’s Silence Is Not God’s Absence – Though Job feels abandoned and unheard, the entire book shows that God is fully aware of every word and will eventually respond.
- 6. Longing for Peace Is a Human Cry – Job’s request to be left alone (v. 20) is not faithlessness, but exhaustion. God hears even our most fragile prayers.

Zophar’s Rebuke: A Harsh Call to Repent

Zophar Condemns Job’s Words

1 Then Zophar the Naamathite replied,

Cross References: Job 2:11; Job 20:1; Job 42:9

2 “Should all your talking go unanswered? Should a man full of words be considered right?

Cross References: Proverbs 10:19; Ecclesiastes 5:3; Proverbs 17:27

3 Should your empty claims silence others? When you mock, shouldn’t someone shame you?

Cross References: Job 13:5; Proverbs 10:19; Job 6:24

4 You say, ‘My teaching is pure, and I am innocent in God’s eyes.’

Cross References: Job 9:20; Job 6:29; Proverbs 20:9

5 Oh, how I wish God would speak and open His lips to rebuke you!

Cross References: Job 13:5; Job 33:1; Job 40:1

6 He would show you the secrets of wisdom—true wisdom has two sides. Know this: God is punishing you less than you actually deserve.”

Cross References: Ezra 9:13; Psalm 103:10; Job 42:7

God’s Wisdom Is Beyond Reach

7 “Can you understand the deep things of God? Can you fully grasp the perfection of the Almighty?

Cross References: Romans 11:33; Ecclesiastes 3:11; Isaiah 40:28

8 His wisdom reaches higher than the heavens—what can you do? It is deeper than the grave—what can you know?

Cross References: Psalm 139:8; Amos 9:2; Romans 8:38

9 Its measure is longer than the earth and broader than the sea.

Cross References: Job 38:18; Psalm 139:9; Ephesians 3:18

10 If God chooses to arrest someone, confine them, or call them to court—who can stop Him?

Cross References: Job 9:12; Isaiah 43:13; Revelation 3:7

11 He knows deceitful people and sees wickedness. Will He not take notice of it?

Cross References: Psalm 94:11; Psalm 139:1; Jeremiah 17:10

12 But foolish people want to appear wise, though they are born as wild and stubborn as a donkey's colt."

Cross References: Job 39:5; Psalm 32:9; Jeremiah 2:24

Zophar's Conditional Hope

13 "If you would prepare your heart and reach out your hands to God—

Cross References: Psalm 24:3; 1 Chronicles 29:18; Job 8:5

14 If there is sin in your hand, put it far away and don't let evil dwell in your house—

Cross References: Isaiah 1:16; James 4:8; Isaiah 55:7

15 Then you will be able to lift up your face without shame; you will stand firm and without fear.

Cross References: Job 22:26; Psalm 34:5; 1 John 3:21

16 You will forget your troubles; they will pass like water under a bridge.

Cross References: Isaiah 65:16; Psalm 90:5; Proverbs 31:7

17 Your life will be brighter than the noonday; even darkness will be like the morning.

Cross References: Proverbs 4:18; Isaiah 58:10; Psalm 37:6

18 You will be secure, full of hope. You will look around and rest in safety.

Cross References: Job 5:24; Jeremiah 29:11; Leviticus 26:5

19 You will lie down with no one to make you afraid, and many will come to ask for your favor.

Cross References: Leviticus 26:6; Psalm 4:8; Micah 4:4

20 But the wicked will go blind with despair. They will have no way to escape, and their only hope will be to die."

Cross References: Job 8:13; Proverbs 10:28; Psalm 112:10

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 11

- 1. Religious Zeal Can Lack Compassion – Zophar speaks with strong convictions, but he shows no empathy. Truth without love can wound more than it heals.
- 2. God’s Wisdom Is Unsearchable – Zophar is right that God’s knowledge surpasses ours (vv. 7– 9), reminding us to remain humble in our understanding.
- 3. Grace Often Surpasses Justice – Even in his flawed rebuke, Zophar admits God has not dealt with Job as harshly as He could have (v. 6), pointing to divine mercy.
- 4. Zophar Promotes a Transactional Faith – He teaches that repentance guarantees prosperity. But Job’s story proves that righteousness does not always result in immediate blessings.
- 5. The Wicked Have No Lasting Hope – Zophar ends with a grim view of the wicked (v. 20), which echoes many biblical truths, though misapplied here to Job.
- 6. Be Careful How You Counsel the Hurting – Zophar wrongly assumes Job's suffering is due to sin. This reminds us to approach the suffering with grace, not judgment.

Job Answers: True Wisdom Belongs to God Alone

Job Responds with Sarcasm to His Friends

1 Then Job replied:

Cross References: Job 6:1; Job 9:1; Job 16:1

2 “No doubt you are the people, and when you die, wisdom will die with you.

Cross References: Job 11:12; Proverbs 26:12; 1 Corinthians 8:2

3 But I have understanding too. I’m not beneath you. Who doesn’t know the things you’ve said?

Cross References: Job 13:2; Job 32:9; Proverbs 3:5

The Mocking of the Righteous

4 I am mocked by my friends—me, the one who called on God and received an answer. The just and upright man is laughed at.

Cross References: Job 16:20; Job 30:1; Psalm 22:7

5 Those who live in ease despise misfortune, as if lighting a lamp for someone whose feet are slipping.

Cross References: Proverbs 24:10; Amos 6:1; Job 6:14

The Prosperity of the Wicked

6 The tents of robbers are at peace. Those who provoke God live securely—those whom God has richly blessed.

8 Speak to the earth, and it will teach you. Let the fish of the sea explain it to you.

Cross References: Psalm 19:1; Isaiah 40:26; Deuteronomy 4:32

9 Who among all these does not know that the hand of the Lord has done this?

Cross References: Isaiah 41:20; Psalm 100:3; Acts 17:25

10 In His hand is the life of every living thing and the breath of all humanity.

Cross References: Daniel 5:23; Acts 17:28; Psalm 104:29

God Is the Source of All Wisdom

11 Doesn't the ear test words as the tongue tastes food?

Cross References: Job 34:3; Job 6:30; 1 Thessalonians 5:21

12 Wisdom is found among the aged; long life brings understanding.

Cross References: Job 32:7; Proverbs 16:31; 1 Kings 12:8

13 But true wisdom and power belong to God. Counsel and understanding are His.

Cross References: Daniel 2:20; Proverbs 8:14; 1 Corinthians 1:24

God's Unstoppable Power

14 If He tears something down, it cannot be rebuilt. If He imprisons someone, no one can release them.

Cross References: Isaiah 22:22; Revelation 3:7; Job 9:12

15 If He holds back the waters, there is drought. If He lets them loose, they flood the earth.

Cross References: 1 Kings 17:1; Amos 4:7; Haggai 1:11

16 Strength and wisdom are His; both the deceived and the deceiver are under His control.

Cross References: Proverbs 21:30; Isaiah 28:29; 1 Corinthians 1:25

God Reverses Human Power

17 He leads counselors away stripped and makes judges look like fools.

Cross References: Isaiah 19:11; 2 Samuel 15:31; Isaiah 44:25

18 He loosens the bonds of kings and ties a cloth around their waists.

Cross References: Daniel 2:21; Psalm 105:20; Isaiah 45:1

19 He leads princes away barefoot and overthrows the mighty.

Cross References: Isaiah 40:23; Psalm 107:40; Daniel 4:17

20 He silences trusted advisors and removes the wisdom of the elders.

Cross References: Isaiah 3:2; Isaiah 29:14; Ecclesiastes 9:11

21 He pours out contempt on nobles and weakens the power of the strong.

Cross References: Psalm 107:40; Psalm 118:9; Isaiah 40:23

22 He uncovers deep things hidden in darkness and brings the shadow of death into the light.

Cross References: Daniel 2:22; 1 Corinthians 4:5; Psalm 139:12

God Rules Over Nations

23 He makes nations great and then destroys them. He enlarges nations and then scatters them.

Cross References: Daniel 2:21; Psalm 22:28; Isaiah 40:15

24 He strips the leaders of the earth of their understanding and causes them to wander in a pathless wilderness.

Cross References: Isaiah 19:13; Isaiah 29:14; Psalm 107:40

25 They grope in the dark without light. He makes them stagger like drunkards.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 28:29; Isaiah 59:10; John 1:5

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 12

- 1. Sarcasm Reveals Job's Pain – Job mocks his friends for their arrogant wisdom (vv. 2–3), revealing the sting of their shallow counsel.
- 2. The Righteous Are Often Mocked – Job speaks truth: those who walk with God can still be scorned (v. 4), even by those closest to them.
- 3. Injustice Exists in a Fallen World – Wicked people prosper while the righteous suffer (v. 6), a reality that Job refuses to deny.
- 4. All Creation Testifies to God's Power – The natural world reflects God's hand in all life and breath (vv. 7–10), a poetic defense of divine sovereignty.
- 5. God Is the Source of True Wisdom – Job reminds his friends that wisdom isn't confined to age or tradition—it belongs to God alone (vv. 13–16).
- 6. God Overrules Earthly Power – Whether kings, counselors, or nations, all rise and fall by God's hand (vv. 17–25), emphasizing His absolute rule.
- 7. God Works in Ways Beyond Our Understanding – Job speaks both in awe and fear, acknowledging that God's decisions and plans are unsearchable.

Job's Plea to Speak with God

Job Rebukes His Friends Again

1 “My eyes have seen all this. My ears have heard and understood it.

Cross References: Job 42:5; Job 19:27; Deuteronomy 29:2

2 What you know, I also know. I’m not beneath you in understanding.

Cross References: Job 12:3; Job 15:9; Proverbs 3:5

3 But I want to speak to the Almighty myself. I want to argue my case before God.

Cross References: Job 23:3; Job 31:35; Isaiah 1:18

4 But you are fabricators of lies; you are all worthless doctors.

Cross References: Job 16:2; Jeremiah 8:22; 2 Chronicles 16:12

5 If only you would shut your mouths— that would be your wisdom!

Cross References: Proverbs 17:28; Job 6:24; Ecclesiastes 3:7

6 Now listen to my argument; pay attention to what I say.

Job Accuses Them of Misrepresenting God

7 Will you speak wickedly on God’s behalf? Will you lie for Him?

Cross References: Job 42:7; Romans 3:8; Job 36:4

8 Will you show Him favoritism? Will you argue His case for Him?

Cross References: Leviticus 19:15; Job 32:21; James 2:9

9 Would it go well if He examined you? Could you deceive Him like you deceive a man?

Cross References: Psalm 139:1; Jeremiah 17:10; Hebrews 4:13

10 He will certainly correct you if you secretly show partiality.

Cross References: Proverbs 24:23; Job 32:21; Galatians 2:6

11 Wouldn’t His majesty terrify you? Wouldn’t His dread fall upon you?

Cross References: Job 31:23; Exodus 15:16; Hebrews 12:29

12 Your wise sayings are as fragile as ashes; your defenses are as weak as clay.

Cross References: Job 30:19; Isaiah 44:20; Lamentations 3:16

Job Prepares to Take His Stand

13 Be quiet now and leave me alone, so I can speak, no matter what happens to me.

Cross References: Job 21:5; Job 6:24; Habakkuk 2:20

14 Why should I take my life in my hands and risk it all?

Cross References: Judges 12:3; Psalm 119:109; Job 6:11

15 Though He slay me, yet I will trust Him. But I will still argue my ways before Him.

Cross References: Psalm 23:4; Romans 8:38; Habakkuk 3:18

16 This will be my salvation— that no godless person would dare come before Him.

Cross References: Psalm 27:1; Isaiah 12:2; Philippians 1:19

17 Listen carefully to what I say. Let my declaration ring in your ears.

Cross References: Job 33:1; Job 34:2; Proverbs 4:20

18 I have prepared my case; I know I will be vindicated.

Cross References: Job 23:4; Isaiah 50:8; Micah 7:9

19 Who will argue with me? For if I stay silent, I will die.

25 Will You harass a windblown leaf? Will You chase after dry straw?

Cross References: Leviticus 26:36; Psalm 103:15; Isaiah 41:14

26 You write bitter accusations against me and make me reap the sins of my youth.

Cross References: Job 7:3; Lamentations 3:5; Psalm 25:7

27 You fasten my feet in shackles, watch every step I take, and even mark out where my feet leave prints.

Cross References: Job 33:11; Acts 16:24; Jeremiah 20:2

28 Man wastes away like something rotten, like a garment eaten by moths.”

Cross References: Job 4:19; Psalm 39:11; Isaiah 51:8

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 13

- 1. Job Longs to Speak Directly with God – He’s done arguing with friends who don’t understand. Job wants to present his case to God Himself (v. 3).
- 2. Empty Counsel Is Harmful – Job accuses his friends of lying and offering shallow advice, which only adds to his pain (vv. 4–5).
- 3. Misrepresenting God Is Dangerous – Job warns them not to speak falsely on God’s behalf; God sees through every falsehood and favoritism (vv. 7–10).
- 4. Faith Amid Suffering – “Though He slay me, yet will I trust Him” (v. 15) stands as one of the boldest declarations of trust in Scripture—even when Job doesn’t understand God’s actions.
- 5. Honest Prayer Is Welcomed by God – Job pours out his questions and confusion without hiding his heart. He longs for clarity and connection with the Lord (vv. 20–24).
- 6. God Knows Every Step – Even though Job feels targeted, he acknowledges God’s close watch over every move (v. 27), a humbling truth both in suffering and blessing.

Job Chapter 14 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Man’s Frailty and the Finality of Death”

Life Is Short and Full of Trouble

1 "Man, born of a woman, lives only a short time and is full of trouble.

22 He only feels the pain of his own body, and he mourns for himself alone.”

Cross References: Job 33:19; Psalm 38:3; Job 30:17

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 14

- 1. Human Life Is Fragile and Brief – Job describes life as a fleeting flower or a vanishing shadow (vv. 1–2), reminding us that earthly life is temporary and vulnerable.
- 2. Only God Sets Our Boundaries – Our days, like our limitations, are set by God. We cannot extend our time beyond what He has appointed (v. 5).
- 3. Nature Has Renewal, but What About Man? – Job observes that even trees can revive after being cut down, yet humans seem to die with no return (vv. 7–12).
- 4. A Glimpse of Resurrection Hope – In verses 13–15, Job longs for a future resurrection. He speaks of waiting for a “change” and answering God’s call beyond death—a profound statement of faith amid despair.
- 5. God Watches Every Step – Job feels as though God counts every move and holds onto his sins (v. 16), though later chapters will show a fuller view of grace and restoration.
- 6. Even the Strongest Fade – Mountains fall, rocks move, and even the most enduring things decay—just like the hope of man apart from God (vv. 18–19).
- 7. Grief Is Personal and Isolated – Job ends the chapter noting how death separates us from even the rise or fall of our loved ones. Only the body’s pain and the soul’s sorrow remain in the moment (vv. 21–22).

32 It will all end before its time, and his branch will not flourish.

Cross References: Psalm 55:23; Ecclesiastes 7:17; Job 22:16

33 He will drop his unripe grapes like a vine and shed his blossoms like an olive tree.

Cross References: Isaiah 5:4; Jeremiah 8:13; Revelation 14:18

34 The company of hypocrites will be barren, and fire will consume the tents of those who accept bribes.

Cross References: Job 8:13; Matthew 23:33; Job 27:8

35 They conceive trouble, give birth to wickedness, and their womb prepares deceit.”

Cross References: Psalm 7:14; James 1:15; Hosea 8:7

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 15

- 1. Words Without Compassion Wound Deeply – Eliphaz’s speech is full of assumptions and criticism, demonstrating how religious language can be misused to hurt rather than heal (vv. 1–6).
- 2. Don’t Assume You Know Another’s Heart – Eliphaz accuses Job of arrogance and sin based on Job’s words, yet Job’s inner struggle is far deeper than Eliphaz understands (vv. 7–13).
- 3. All Humans Are Imperfect—But That’s Not Always the Cause of Suffering – Eliphaz’s theology that man is inherently unclean (vv. 14–16) is true, but his conclusion—that Job’s suffering proves guilt—is flawed.
- 4. The Prosperity of the Wicked Is Temporary – Eliphaz reiterates that wicked people are eventually judged (vv. 20–35), which is often true, but he wrongly applies it as a certainty to Job’s specific case.
- 5. Suffering Requires Compassion, Not Condemnation – Eliphaz fails to offer comfort or grace, turning God’s truth into a weapon rather than a balm.

"The Cry of a Wounded Soul"

Job Calls His Friends Miserable Comforters

1 Then Job answered and said,

Cross References: Job 6:1; Job 12:1; Job 26:1

2 “I’ve heard all this before. You are miserable comforters—all of you.

Cross References: Job 13:4; Job 42:11; 2 Corinthians 1:4

3 Is there no end to your empty talk? What makes you keep on arguing?

Cross References: Job 8:2; Job 11:2; Proverbs 10:19

4 I could talk like you if our places were reversed. I could pile up words against you and shake my head at you.

Cross References: Psalm 41:5; Job 13:5; Psalm 69:20

5 But I would strengthen you with my words, and my comfort would ease your pain.

Cross References: Isaiah 50:4; Proverbs 12:18; 1 Thessalonians 5:11

Job Laments the Unrelenting Grief

6 If I speak, my grief isn't relieved. And if I stay silent, it doesn't help me either.

Cross References: Job 6:10; Jeremiah 20:9; Psalm 39:2

7 But now God has worn me out; You have devastated my whole household.

Cross References: Job 7:3; Lamentations 3:7; Psalm 88:8

8 You have shriveled me up—my appearance testifies against me. My thin frame is evidence of my suffering.

Cross References: Psalm 22:15; Job 17:7; Psalm 102:3

Job Feels Attacked by God and Men

9 In His anger, God tears at me—He hates me. He gnashes His teeth at me. My enemy glares at me with piercing eyes.

Cross References: Job 10:16; Lamentations 2:2; Hosea 6:1

10 People open their mouths wide at me. They slap my face in contempt and unite together against me.

Cross References: Psalm 22:13; Psalm 35:21; Matthew 27:39

11 God has handed me over to the wicked, and thrown me into the hands of the ungodly.

Cross References: Job 30:11; Psalm 71:4; Isaiah 53:6

12 I was living in peace, but He shattered me. He grabbed me by the neck and crushed me. He has made me His target.

Cross References: Job 29:2; Lamentations 3:11; Psalm 44:19

13 His archers surround me. He pierces my kidneys without mercy and spills my insides on the ground.

Cross References: Job 6:4; Lamentations 3:12; Psalm 38:2

14 He smashes me again and again, attacking like a warrior.

Cross References: Job 9:17; Psalm 42:7; Amos 4:9

Job's Outer Misery Reflects Inner Pain

15 I've sewn sackcloth into my skin and buried my dignity in the dust.

Cross References: Psalm 69:11; Isaiah 15:3; Genesis 37:34

16 My face is red with weeping, and deep darkness shadows my eyes—

Cross References: Lamentations 1:16; Psalm 6:6; Jeremiah 14:17

19 Even now, my witness is in heaven; my advocate is on high.

Cross References: Hebrews 9:24; 1 John 2:1; Romans 8:34

20 My friends mock me, but I pour out tears to God.

Cross References: Psalm 35:15; Psalm 41:9; Job 19:19

21 Oh, that someone would argue on behalf of a man with God, as one pleads for a friend!

Cross References: Job 9:33; 1 Timothy 2:5; Hebrews 7:25

22 For my few remaining years will soon pass, and I will walk the path of no return.

Cross References: Job 10:21; Ecclesiastes 12:7; 2 Samuel 12:23

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 16

- 1. Empty Words Can Deepen Wounds – Job rebukes his friends for their harsh, unhelpful counsel. Their theology lacked empathy, and their presence became more painful than comforting (vv. 1–5).
- 2. Grief That Finds No Relief – Job is trapped in emotional and physical anguish that no words, silence, or support can seem to resolve (v. 6).
- 3. Feeling Attacked by God – Job expresses deep pain, feeling as though God has turned on him violently. Though his theology isn't perfect here, it is raw and honest (vv. 7–14).
- 4. The God Who Sees the Injustice – Job maintains his innocence. Though misunderstood by people and feeling abandoned by God, he believes his record is kept in heaven (vv. 17–19).
- 5. We All Need an Advocate Before God – Job yearns for someone to plead his case before God. This cry for a mediator foreshadows the role of Christ, who now intercedes for us (v. 21; cf. 1 Timothy 2:5).

“Hope Fading in the Shadows”

Job Sees Death Approaching

1 My breath is weak, my days are nearly over, and the grave is ready for me.

Cross References: Psalm 88:3; Job 7:6; Psalm 31:9

2 Surely mockers surround me, and my eyes watch their constant insults.

Cross References: Job 12:4; Psalm 22:7; Psalm 35:15

3 Give me a pledge with You, O God—who else will shake hands with me in agreement?

Cross References: Job 16:19; Hebrews 7:22; Psalm 119:122

4 You’ve closed their minds to understanding, so You will not let them triumph.

Cross References: Isaiah 6:9; Romans 11:8; 2 Corinthians 4:4

Job Feels Dishonored and Alone

5 Anyone who flatters his friends will see his own children’s eyes fail.

Cross References: Proverbs 29:5; Psalm 12:2; Jeremiah 9:8

6 God has made me a public proverb; people spit when they see me.

Cross References: Job 30:9; Psalm 44:14; Deuteronomy 28:37

7 My eyes are swollen from grief, and my body is but a shadow.

Cross References: Psalm 6:7; Psalm 31:9; Lamentations 5:17

Truth Still Stirs the Upright

8 The upright are shocked at all this; the innocent are stirred to stand against the godless.

Cross References: Jeremiah 18:16; Psalm 73:15; Ezra 9:3

9 Yet the righteous will hold firmly to their way, and those with clean hands will grow stronger and stronger.

Job Mourns His Broken Plans

10 But as for you, return and try again—because I can’t find a single wise man among you.

Cross References: Job 6:29; Job 12:2; Isaiah 5:21

11 My days are over. My plans—my heart’s dreams—are crushed.

Cross References: Psalm 31:10; Psalm 90:9; Ecclesiastes 9:6

12 They turn night into day, saying, “Light is near,” but darkness still overwhelms me.

Cross References: Isaiah 5:20; John 3:19; 1 Thessalonians 5:5

Job’s Hope Crumbles into the Grave

13 If I wait, the grave will be my home. I’ll spread out my bed in the darkness.

Cross References: Psalm 49:14; Job 30:23; Ecclesiastes 12:5

14 I'll say to decay, "You are my father," and to the worms, "You are my mother and my sister."

Cross References: Psalm 16:10; Job 21:26; Acts 13:35

15 Where then is my hope? Who can see any hope left for me?

Cross References: Job 6:11; Lamentations 3:18; Proverbs 13:12

16 It will go down with me to the grave. We'll lie together in the dust.

Cross References: Job 38:17; Isaiah 38:10; Jonah 2:6

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 17

- 1. Grief Can Cloud Hope – Job's spirit is crushed, and his suffering has pushed him to the edge of despair. He feels that death is his only rest (vv. 1, 11–16).
 - Even in deep suffering, the human soul craves relief and longs for peace.
- 2. God Is the Only Trustworthy Witness – Job turns to God for assurance, knowing that no man around him can offer true support (v. 3).
 - When human support fails, God remains the One who understands.
- 3. Suffering Can Bring Isolation – Job was once respected, but now he is mocked, spit upon, and seen as a cautionary tale. His pain has made him an outcast (vv. 2, 6–7).
 - Hard times may change how people treat you—but not how God values you.
- 4. The Righteous Keep Going – Despite the darkness, Job still recognizes that the righteous will keep going and grow stronger (v. 9).
 - Spiritual integrity is not dependent on circumstances but on trusting God's character.
- 5. Despair Is Real—But Not Final – Job's reflections are filled with hopelessness, but the very act of expressing his grief shows he still longs to be heard (vv. 13–16).
 - Even in despair, there is a silent cry for God to step in.

"The Fate of the Wicked"

Bildad Rebukes Job Again

1 Then Bildad the Shuhite replied:

Cross References: Job 8:1; Job 25:1; Job 2:11

2 "How long until you stop talking? Let us speak when you're done.

Cross References: Job 8:2; Job 16:3; Job 19:2

3 Why do you treat us like animals, and regard us as stupid in your eyes?

Cross References: Psalm 73:22; Ecclesiastes 3:18; Psalm 49:20

4 You tear yourself apart in your anger. Should the earth be abandoned for your sake? Should the rocks be moved to suit you?

Cross References: Job 5:2; Proverbs 19:3; Job 36:13

The Darkness Awaiting the Wicked

5 The light of the wicked will be snuffed out; the flame of his fire will not shine.

Cross References: Proverbs 13:9; Proverbs 24:20; Job 21:17

6 The light in his home will grow dark, and the lamp beside him will be extinguished.

Cross References: Proverbs 20:20; Job 15:30; Jeremiah 25:10

7 His strong steps will become weak, and his own plans will bring him down.

Cross References: Proverbs 4:12; Job 5:12; Psalm 9:15

8 For his own feet lead him into a net, and he walks right into a trap.

Cross References: Psalm 9:15; Psalm 35:8; Proverbs 29:6

9 A snare grabs him by the heel; a trap seizes him.

Cross References: Psalm 140:5; Jeremiah 18:22; Psalm 69:22

10 A noose lies hidden in the ground, a trap lies in his path.

Cross References: Psalm 64:5; Psalm 141:9; Proverbs 22:5

The Terror and Destruction of the Godless

11 Terrors stalk him on every side and chase him at every step.

Cross References: Job 15:21; Psalm 73:19; Deuteronomy 28:65

12 His strength fades from hunger, and calamity stands ready to attack him.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 28:48; Psalm 109:24; Isaiah 3:1

13 Disease consumes his skin; the firstborn of death devours his limbs.

Cross References: Isaiah 14:30; Revelation 6:8; Psalm 91:6

14 He is torn from the safety of his tent and marched before the king of terrors.

Cross References: Job 8:14; Proverbs 10:28; Job 27:8

15 Fire will live in his tent, though it is no longer his; burning sulfur will be scattered on his home.

Cross References: Job 15:28; Isaiah 13:20; Zephaniah 2:9

16 His roots will dry up below, and his branches will wither above.

Cross References: Job 8:12; Malachi 4:1; Psalm 37:2

Total Erasure of the Wicked

17 His memory will vanish from the earth; no one will remember his name in the streets.

Cross References: Psalm 34:16; Psalm 109:13; Proverbs 10:7

18 He will be driven from light into darkness and chased out of the world.

Cross References: Job 10:21; Matthew 8:12; Matthew 25:30

19 He will have no children or descendants among his people—no survivor where he once lived.

Cross References: Job 27:14; Psalm 37:28; Isaiah 14:20

20 People of the west will be appalled at what happens to him; people of the east will be horrified.

Cross References: Job 21:6; Ezekiel 32:10; Jeremiah 19:8

21 Surely this is the fate of the wicked—this is the place of the one who does not know God."

Cross References: Job 8:22; Psalm 37:35; Proverbs 3:33

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 18

- 1. Sin Sets Its Own Trap – Bildad claims that the wicked fall into the very snares they set or stumble by their own schemes (vv. 7–10).
 - Unrepentant sin is self-destructive; it ensnares the one who practices it.
- 2. God Judges the Godless – Bildad describes terrifying images of judgment and isolation for those who reject God (vv. 11–21).
 - A life without God ends in ruin—physically, spiritually, and eternally.
- 3. Bildad Misapplies Truth – While Bildad speaks of real principles of divine judgment, he wrongly applies them to Job's suffering.
 - Truth without compassion becomes a weapon. Discernment is key in comforting the afflicted.
- 4. The Righteous Must Not Be Confused with the Wicked – Bildad assumes Job's suffering equals guilt. But Job's affliction isn't punishment—it's a test.
 - We must be slow to judge someone else's suffering as God's rejection.

15 My guests and servants treat me like a stranger; they see me as a foreigner.

Cross References: Job 31:31; Psalm 69:8; Luke 15:19

16 I call my servant, but he doesn't answer—though I beg him.

Cross References: Jeremiah 7:13; Isaiah 65:12; Job 30:20

17 My breath is offensive to my wife; my own family finds me repulsive.

Cross References: Job 17:1; Psalm 38:11; Job 6:15

18 Even little children despise me; when I rise, they mock me.

Cross References: Job 30:1; Job 30:9; Psalm 8:2

19 All my close friends hate me; those I loved have turned against me.

Cross References: Psalm 41:9; Psalm 55:12; John 13:18

20 I'm nothing but skin and bones—I barely escaped with my life.

Cross References: Psalm 102:5; Lamentations 4:8; Psalm 22:17

A Plea for Compassion

21 Have mercy on me, have mercy, my friends, for God's hand has struck me.

Cross References: Psalm 142:4; Lamentations 1:12; Job 6:14

22 Why do you pursue me as God does? Haven't you already done enough to me?

Cross References: Psalm 69:26; Zechariah 1:15; Psalm 35:15

A Declaration of Hope in His Redeemer

23 Oh, how I wish my words were written down, recorded in a book—

Cross References: Isaiah 30:8; Jeremiah 30:2; Habakkuk 2:2

24 Engraved forever in stone with an iron chisel and lead!

Cross References: Jeremiah 17:1; Deuteronomy 27:2; Isaiah 4:3

25 But I know that my Redeemer lives, and that in the end He will stand on the earth.

Cross References: Isaiah 59:20; 1 Corinthians 15:20; Revelation 1:18

26 And after my skin has been destroyed, yet in my flesh I will see God.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 15:42; Philippians 3:21; Daniel 12:2

27 I will see Him for myself—yes, I will see Him with my own eyes. I am overwhelmed with longing.

Cross References: Psalm 17:15; 1 John 3:2; 1 Corinthians 13:12

A Warning to His Accusers

28 If you say, 'Why should we keep persecuting him, since the root of his trouble lies within him?'

Cross References: Proverbs 26:2; 1 Peter 3:16; Psalm 109:2

29 Then be afraid of the sword yourselves. For wrath brings the punishment of the sword, so that you may know there is judgment."

Cross References: Hebrews 10:27; Ecclesiastes 11:9; Romans 2:5

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 19

- 1. Words Can Deepen Wounds – Job’s friends did not comfort him; their harsh words crushed him further (vv. 2–3).
- Be slow to speak and quick to listen when someone is suffering (James 1:19).
- 2. Isolation Adds to Suffering – Job laments that everyone—from family to servants—has rejected him (vv. 13–20).
- Suffering often feels loneliest when those closest to us pull away. Compassion matters.
- 3. Hope Can Rise from Despair – In the middle of anguish, Job proclaims: “I know that my Redeemer lives” (v. 25).
- No matter the darkness, a living Redeemer gives us unshakable hope.
- 4. A Resurrection Is Coming – Job expresses confidence that even after death, he will see God with his own eyes (vv. 26–27).
- Job glimpses the promise of resurrection—a truth fulfilled in Christ (1 Corinthians 15:52–53).
- 5. God Will Judge All – Job warns his friends not to be quick to condemn, for God is a just Judge (v. 29).
- We are accountable not only for our actions but also our assumptions.

“The Fate of the Wicked”

Zophar Responds: A Quick Reply Fueled by Indignation

1 Then Zophar the Naamathite replied:

Cross References: Job 11:1; Job 2:11; Job 42:9

2 “My troubled thoughts force me to speak; I can’t stay silent.

Cross References: Job 32:18; Jeremiah 20:9; Psalm 39:3

3 I’ve heard your rebuke and insult, and my understanding urges me to answer.

Cross References: Job 19:3; Psalm 44:16; Job 13:6

The Short-Lived Triumph of the Wicked

4 Don’t you know this has always been true, since humanity was first placed on the earth—

Cross References: Deuteronomy 4:32; Job 8:8; Psalm 78:2

5 That the triumph of the wicked is short, and the joy of the godless lasts only a moment?

Cross References: Psalm 37:35; Psalm 73:18; Proverbs 24:19

6 Though he may rise as high as the heavens, and his head may touch the clouds,

Cross References: Obadiah 1:4; Isaiah 14:13; Amos 9:2

7 He will perish forever like his own waste. Those who knew him will ask, ‘Where did he go?’

Cross References: Psalm 37:20; Psalm 1:4; Malachi 4:1

8 He'll vanish like a dream, never found again—chased away like a fleeting night vision.

Cross References: Psalm 73:20; Psalm 90:5; Isaiah 29:7

9 The eye that once saw him will see him no more; his home will know him no longer.

Cross References: Job 7:8; Job 7:10; Psalm 37:10

Poison Within and No Lasting Gain

10 His children will beg from the poor, and he'll be forced to return the wealth he stole.

Cross References: Job 27:14; Proverbs 13:22; Exodus 20:5

11 His bones are still filled with the sins of his youth; those sins lie down with him in the grave.

Cross References: Psalm 25:7; Job 33:19; Psalm 90:8

12 Though evil tasted sweet in his mouth—though he held it under his tongue,

Cross References: Proverbs 9:17; Proverbs 20:17; Psalm 36:2

13 Though he cherished it and refused to let it go—

Cross References: Proverbs 5:3; Proverbs 4:16; Romans 6:23

14 That sweetness will turn sour inside him; it will become snake venom in his stomach.

Cross References: Proverbs 20:17; Proverbs 23:31; Revelation 10:9

15 He swallowed down riches, but God will make him vomit them out—He will drag them from his belly.

Cross References: Proverbs 23:8; Ecclesiastes 5:13; Luke 12:20 16 He will suck the poison of serpents; a viper's tongue will kill him.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:33; Psalm 140:3; Romans 3:13

No Enjoyment of His Labor

17 He will never enjoy the rivers of prosperity, the streams of honey and cream.

Cross References: Psalm 36:8; Joel 3:18; Exodus 3:8

18 He must give back what he gained through labor; he will not be allowed to enjoy it.

Cross References: Proverbs 13:22; Ecclesiastes 2:26; Ecclesiastes 5:13

19 For he oppressed the poor and left them destitute; he seized houses he did not build.

Cross References: Proverbs 22:16; Amos 4:1; James 5:4

20 Because he was never content, he will never have peace—he will not hold on to any of his gains.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 5:12; Isaiah 57:20; Proverbs 1:19 21 Nothing is left for him to consume; so no one will treasure what he once owned.

Cross References: Job 18:19; Psalm 109:9; Luke 12:20

22 Even when he has plenty, distress will come upon him—every hand will turn against him.

Cross References: Proverbs 30:8; Deuteronomy 8:12; 1 Timothy 6:9

God's Wrath Will Overcome the Wicked

23 Just as he's about to fill his stomach, God will unleash His fury, raining it down upon him while he eats.

Cross References: Psalm 78:30; Numbers 11:33; Romans 1:18

24 He may run from an iron weapon, but a bronze-tipped arrow will strike him through.

Cross References: Amos 5:19; Isaiah 24:18; Jeremiah 48:44

25 It will pierce him and come out of his back—the glittering point coming out of his insides. Terror grips him.

His Secret Sins Exposed

26 Complete darkness hides his treasures; an unkindled fire will consume him. Disaster awaits those left in his tent.

Cross References: Psalm 11:6; Nahum 1:6; Malachi 4:1

27 The heavens will expose his sin; the earth will rise up to testify against him.

Cross References: Genesis 4:10; Isaiah 26:21; Luke 12:2

28 The wealth of his household will be swept away in the day of God's anger.

Cross References: Proverbs 11:28; Jeremiah 17:11; Job 27:16

29 This is the fate God assigns to the wicked—the inheritance appointed to him by the Almighty.”

Cross References: Job 27:13; Psalm 11:6; Psalm 73:27

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 20

- 1. Evil Enjoyment Is Temporary – Zophar insists the wicked may prosper briefly, but it won't last (vv. 5–9).
- Sin often promises sweetness, but it turns to poison in the end (Proverbs 5:3–5).
- 2. Riches Gained Through Oppression Will Be Lost – Ill-gotten wealth will be vomited out, returned, or destroyed (vv. 10–18).
- True wealth is not measured in possessions but in righteousness and generosity.
- 3. God's Judgment Is Unavoidable – Even at the height of comfort, God's wrath can strike suddenly (vv. 22–23).

- The judgment of God cannot be outrun or avoided—repentance is the only escape (Romans 2:5–6).
- 4. Sin Leaves a Lasting Legacy – The consequences of sin may follow a person to the grave and affect their descendants (vv. 11, 10, 27).
- Sin may be hidden from man, but it is never hidden from God (Hebrews 4:13).
- 5. God Sees What the World Cannot – Even if the world exalts someone temporarily, God sees through deceit and pride (vv. 6, 27).
- Man looks at the outward appearance, but God looks at the heart (1 Samuel 16:7).

Job Chapter 21 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Prosperity of the Wicked”

Job Rebukes His Friends for Their Empty Comfort

1 Then Job replied:

Cross References: Job 3:2; Job 6:1; Job 9:1

2 “Please listen carefully to what I’m saying; let this be your comfort to me.

Cross References: Job 13:6; Job 33:1; James 1:19

3 Bear with me while I speak—then you can keep mocking if you must.

Cross References: Job 13:5; Job 16:4; Job 12:4

4 Is my complaint directed to humans? Why shouldn’t I be impatient?

Cross References: Job 7:11; Psalms 142:2; Job 9:2

5 Look at me and be shocked! Put your hand over your mouth in silence.

Cross References: Job 40:4; Job 29:9; Judges 18:19

6 When I think about this, I tremble. My whole body shakes with fear.

Cross References: Job 3:25; Psalms 55:5; Habakkuk 3:16

The Wicked Seem to Prosper in This Life

7 Why do the wicked live long lives, growing old and powerful?

Cross References: Jeremiah 12:1; Psalms 73:3; Malachi 3:15

8 They see their children flourish around them, and their descendants thrive.

Cross References: Psalms 17:14; Psalms 49:11; Job 18:19

9 Their homes are peaceful and secure, and God’s rod of judgment does not strike them.

Cross References: Psalms 73:5; Psalms 73:12; Malachi 3:15

10 Their bulls mate without failure, and their cows calve without miscarriage.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 7:13; Psalms 144:13; Exodus 23:26

11 They send their children out like joyful flocks, and their kids dance with laughter.

Cross References: Psalms 128:3; Psalms 127:3; Zechariah 8:5

12 They sing to the tambourine and harp, and they rejoice to the sound of the flute.

Cross References: Isaiah 5:12; Amos 6:5; Genesis 31:27

13 They spend their lives in prosperity and die suddenly, without suffering.

Cross References: Psalms 73:19; Luke 12:20; Psalms 37:35

14 Yet they say to God, ‘Leave us alone! We don’t want to know Your ways.’

Cross References: Job 22:17; Matthew 8:34; Romans 1:28

15 ‘Who is the Almighty, that we should serve Him? What benefit do we get from praying to Him?’

Cross References: Exodus 5:2; Malachi 3:14; Job 34:9

16 But everything they have isn’t really under their control. The thinking of the wicked is far from me.

Cross References: Psalms 1:1; Job 22:18; Psalms 26:4

Job Questions the Timing of Judgment

17 How often is the lamp of the wicked snuffed out? How often does destruction suddenly come upon them? God deals out pain in His anger—

Cross References: Job 18:5; Proverbs 13:9; Psalms 37:2

18 They are like straw blown by the wind, like chaff swept away by a storm.

Cross References: Psalms 1:4; Psalms 35:5; Isaiah 17:13

19 Some say God stores up a wicked man’s punishment for his children. But let Him punish the man himself, so he knows what he’s done!

Cross References: Exodus 20:5; Job 27:14; Jeremiah 31:30

20 Let him see his own destruction and drink the wrath of the Almighty himself.

Cross References: Psalms 75:8; Isaiah 51:17; Revelation 14:10

21 For what does he care about his family after he’s dead, when his life is over and done?

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 2:18; Psalms 49:17; Luke 12:20

God Alone Judges All – Not Man

22 Can anyone teach knowledge to God—He who judges even the highest beings?

Cross References: Isaiah 40:14; Romans 11:34; Job 36:22

23 One person dies in full strength, completely peaceful and secure—

Cross References: Job 5:26; Psalms 73:4; Genesis 25:8

24 His body well-fed and his bones full of marrow.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:8; Job 33:25; Psalms 63:5

25 Another dies in bitterness, never enjoying anything good.

Cross References: Job 3:20; Proverbs 14:10; Isaiah 38:15

26 But both are buried in the dust, and worms cover them just the same.

Cross References: Job 17:14; Ecclesiastes 9:2; Isaiah 14:11

Job Challenges Their Assumptions About the Wicked

27 “Look, I know what you’re thinking. You’re plotting how to condemn me.

Cross References: Job 6:27; Job 19:5; Matthew 9:4

28 You say, ‘Where is the house of the great man now? Where is the tent of the wicked?’

Cross References: Job 18:21; Job 20:7; Psalms 37:36

29 Haven’t you asked travelers who’ve seen the world? Don’t you recognize their stories—

Cross References: Deuteronomy 4:32; Job 12:7; Job 12:8

30 That the wicked are often spared in times of disaster, held back for the day of judgment?

Cross References: Proverbs 16:4; 2 Peter 2:9; Romans 2:5

31 Who dares confront them about their actions? Who pays them back for their wrongs?

Cross References: Jeremiah 25:14; Ezekiel 3:18; Psalms 9:12

32 Yet they are carried to the grave with honor; their tombs remain undisturbed.

Cross References: Isaiah 53:9; Matthew 27:60; Ecclesiastes 8:10

33 The soil of the valley feels soft upon them, and many follow them to their resting place, as countless others have before.

Cross References: Genesis 49:29; Ecclesiastes 12:5; Isaiah 14:18

34 So how can your words comfort me? Your answers are nothing but lies.”

Cross References: Job 16:2; Job 13:4; Zechariah 10:2

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 21

- 1. The Wicked Often Prosper in This Life – Job rejects the idea that wickedness always leads to quick judgment (vv. 7–13).
- Prosperity in life is not always a sign of divine favor or righteousness (Psalm 73:3–5).
- 2. God’s Judgment Is Not Always Immediate – Wicked people may appear secure for a time, but that does not mean God is unaware (vv. 17–21).

- God may delay judgment for His own purposes (Ecclesiastes 8:11).
- 3. No One Can Instruct God in Justice – Job reminds his friends that God alone sees the full picture and judges rightly (v. 22).
- “Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?” (Genesis 18:25)
- 4. Death Comes to All, Regardless of Circumstance – Both the joyful and the bitter end up in the same grave (vv. 23–26).
- The common fate of death reminds us that life’s value isn’t in wealth but in how we live before God (Hebrews 9:27).
- 5. False Comforts Do More Harm Than Good – Job exposes the hypocrisy and emptiness in his friends’ answers (vv. 27–34).
- True comfort listens, loves, and speaks truth in compassion (2 Corinthians 1:3–4).

Job Chapter 22 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Eliphaz’s Final Accusation and Call to Repentance”

Eliphaz Accuses Job of Hidden Sin

1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite replied:

Cross References: Job 4:1; Job 15:1; Job 42:7

2 “Can a person be of any real benefit to God? Even a wise person is only helpful to himself.

Cross References: Psalms 16:2; Luke 17:10; Romans 11:35

3 Does the Almighty gain anything if you are righteous? Does it profit Him if your conduct is blameless?

Cross References: Ezekiel 18:23; Job 35:7; Psalms 50:12

4 Is God correcting you because He fears you? Is He taking you to court over nothing?

Cross References: Hebrews 12:6; Job 35:6; Proverbs 3:12

5 Isn’t your wickedness great? Aren’t your sins without limit?

Cross References: Job 11:6; Job 4:7; Psalms 143:2

6 You’ve taken security from your own relatives for nothing. You stripped people of their clothing, leaving them naked.

Cross References: Exodus 22:26; Deuteronomy 24:13; Ezekiel 18:12

7 You refused water to the thirsty and withheld food from the hungry.

Cross References: Isaiah 58:7; Matthew 25:42; Proverbs 25:21

8 Though you had power and influence, you misused it to your own advantage.

Cross References: Isaiah 5:8; Micah 2:2; Ecclesiastes 5:8

9 You sent widows away empty-handed and crushed the arms of orphans.

Cross References: Exodus 22:22; Isaiah 1:17; Isaiah 1:23

10 That's why you're surrounded by traps, and sudden fear overwhelms you.

Cross References: Job 18:10; Proverbs 22:22; Proverbs 22:23

11 That's why darkness blinds you, and a flood of troubles covers you.

Cross References: Job 18:18; Exodus 10:22; Psalms 18:11

Eliphaz Misrepresents God's Justice

12 Isn't God high in the heavens? Look how high the stars are above you!

Cross References: Psalms 113:5; Isaiah 57:15; Psalms 103:11

13 But you say, 'What does God know? Can He judge through such thick clouds?'

Cross References: Psalms 73:11; Psalms 94:7; Ezekiel 8:12

14 Thick clouds hide Him from view, and He walks the circle of the sky without seeing what happens below.

Cross References: Psalms 97:2; Job 36:29; Psalms 18:11

He Warns Job Not to Follow the Path of the Wicked

15 Will you continue walking the old path that evil men have taken?

Cross References: Genesis 6:5; Genesis 6:12; 2 Peter 2:5

16 They were swept away before their time. Their foundations were washed away by a flood.

Cross References: Genesis 7:23; Genesis 7:11; 2 Peter 3:6

17 They said to God, 'Leave us alone!' and, 'What can the Almighty do to us?'

Cross References: Job 21:14; Matthew 8:34; Job 34:9

18 Yet it was God who had filled their homes with good things. But I want nothing to do with the plans of the wicked.

Cross References: Job 21:16; Luke 12:19; Deuteronomy 8:12

19 The righteous see their fall and rejoice; the innocent mock them, saying,

Cross References: Psalms 52:6; Psalms 58:10; Revelation 19:2

20 'See, our enemies are destroyed, and fire has consumed what they left behind.'

Cross References: Psalms 37:20; Job 20:26; Malachi 4:1

Eliphaz's Call to Repent and Be Restored

21 "Submit to God, and you will have peace. Then good things will come to you.

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 5:20; Isaiah 27:5; Romans 5:1

22 Listen to His instruction and store His words in your heart.

Cross References: Psalms 119:11; Deuteronomy 11:18; Proverbs 2:1

23 If you return to the Almighty, you'll be restored. Remove all wickedness from your house.

Cross References: Malachi 3:7; James 4:8; Zechariah 1:3

24 Give up your lust for gold and treat it like dust—like stones from the brook.

Cross References: Job 31:24; Matthew 6:19; 1 Timothy 6:17

25 Then the Almighty will be your treasure, your precious silver.

Cross References: Psalms 16:5; Psalms 73:25; Lamentations 3:24

26 You will take delight in the Almighty and will lift up your face to God.

Cross References: Psalms 37:4; Isaiah 58:14; Psalms 43:4

27 You will pray to Him, and He will hear you. You will fulfill your promises to Him.

Cross References: Psalms 66:19; Psalms 116:14; John 9:31

28 You will make decisions, and they will succeed. Light will shine on your path.

Cross References: Job 11:17; Psalms 112:4; Proverbs 4:18

29 When people are brought low and humbled, you will say, 'There is lifting up!' and God will save the humble.

Cross References: James 4:6; Proverbs 29:23; 1 Peter 5:5

30 Even the guilty will be rescued; they will be delivered because your hands are clean."

Cross References: Genesis 18:26; Ezekiel 22:30; Psalms 24:4

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 22

- 1. Man's Righteousness Doesn't Benefit God but Honors Him – Eliphaz wrongly suggests that being righteous gains nothing with God (vv. 2–3).
 - But Scripture shows that God delights in those who walk uprightly (Psalm 147:11).
- 2. False Accusations Can Wound Deeply – Eliphaz invents sins Job never committed, attacking his character without evidence (vv. 5–9).
 - We must be cautious not to judge others' hearts without clear cause (Matthew 7:1–2).
- 3. The Wicked May Prosper Briefly, but Not Forever – Eliphaz reminds Job of past judgments on the ungodly, referencing the flood (vv. 15–20).
 - But unlike Eliphaz's claim, not all suffering comes from sin (John 9:1–3).
- 4. There's Always Hope in Turning Back to God – Eliphaz's call to repentance is harsh in tone but contains a universal truth: God welcomes the penitent (vv. 21–30).
 - "Return to Me, and I will return to you," says the Lord (Malachi 3:7).

- 5. God Hears the Humble and Rescues the Broken – Eliphaz’s closing remarks unintentionally point to the beauty of grace for the repentant (vv. 26–30).
- “He saves the humble, but brings low those whose eyes are haughty” (Psalm 18:27).

Job Chapter 23 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Longing for God’s Presence and Justice”

Job Expresses His Deep Desire to Meet with God

1 Then Job replied:

Cross References: Job 12:1; Job 16:1; Job 19:1

2 “Even today my complaint is bitter. My suffering is more than I can express with groaning.

Cross References: Job 6:2; Psalms 39:2; Job 30:17

3 Oh, how I wish I knew where to find Him—so I could go directly to His throne!

Cross References: Job 9:11; Job 13:3; Psalms 42:1

4 I would lay out my case before Him and present my arguments in full.

Cross References: Job 13:18; Job 9:19; Isaiah 1:18

5 I would listen to what He would say to me and try to understand His response.

Cross References: Job 38:1; Job 13:22; Jeremiah 33:3

6 Would He use His great power to crush me? No. He would give me a fair hearing.

Cross References: Job 9:34; Isaiah 41:10; 2 Corinthians 12:9

7 There an upright person could present his case to Him, and I would be forever acquitted by my Judge.

Cross References: Job 13:15; Romans 8:1; Psalms 32:1

Job Feels God Is Hidden but Trusts His Purposes

8 “I go forward, but He isn’t there. I go backward, but I can’t find Him.

Cross References: Job 9:11; Psalms 139:7; Lamentations 3:8

9 I search on the left hand, where He is at work, but I do not see Him. I turn to the right, but I cannot perceive Him.

Cross References: Job 9:11; Psalms 10:1; Isaiah 45:15

10 But He knows the way I take; and when He tests me, I will come out as pure as gold.

Cross References: Psalms 66:10; 1 Peter 1:7; Zechariah 13:9

11 I have stayed on His path; I’ve followed His steps and not turned aside.

Cross References: Psalms 17:5; Psalms 44:18; Proverbs 4:26

12 I have not disobeyed His commands; I treasure His words more than my daily bread.

Cross References: Psalms 119:11; Jeremiah 15:16; Matthew 4:4

God's Sovereignty Both Comforts and Frightens Job

13 “But once He has made up His mind, who can turn Him back? Whatever He desires, He does.

Cross References: Isaiah 14:27; Psalms 33:11; Daniel 4:35

14 So He will carry out His plan for me—and many such plans He has in store.

Cross References: Psalms 138:8; Philippians 1:6; Isaiah 46:10

15 That's why I'm terrified in His presence; when I think about it, I am filled with fear.

Cross References: Habakkuk 3:16; Exodus 3:6; Psalms 119:120

16 God has made my heart weak; the Almighty has left me shaken.

Cross References: Job 30:16; Psalms 22:14; Deuteronomy 28:65

17 Yet He didn't allow me to die before this darkness came. He didn't hide this suffering from me.”

Cross References: Job 3:10; Job 6:9; Jeremiah 20:17

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 23

- 1. God Welcomes Honest Conversation – Job longs to plead his case before God, not with arrogance, but with a desire to be understood (vv. 3–5).
 - We can boldly approach God's throne with our questions (Hebrews 4:16).
- 2. God Doesn't Crush the Righteous – Job is convinced that if he could stand before God, he wouldn't be condemned but strengthened (v. 6).
 - “A bruised reed He will not break” (Isaiah 42:3).
- 3. God Often Feels Hidden in the Darkness – Job searches for God but cannot find Him, even though he knows God is working (vv. 8–9).
 - God's silence is not absence—He is always near, even when unseen (Psalm 139:7–10).
- 4. Faith Clings to God's Goodness Amid Trials – Job holds onto integrity and obedience, confident that his suffering will purify him like gold (v. 10).
 - Trials refine our faith, producing perseverance (James 1:2–4).
- 5. God's Sovereignty Is Both a Mystery and a Comfort – Job is afraid of God's unstoppable will, yet finds rest in knowing God is still in control (vv. 13–14).
 - “Our God is in the heavens; He does whatever pleases Him” (Psalm 115:3).
- 6. Darkness Doesn't Always Mean Judgment – Job realizes he was not cut off before the darkness came—God allowed it, not to destroy him, but to shape him (v. 17).
 - “Even the darkness is not dark to You” (Psalm 139:12).

Job Chapter 24 – Crawford Standard Bible

“When the Wicked Seem to Prosper”

Why Doesn’t God Judge the Wicked Immediately?

1 Why doesn’t the Almighty set times for justice? Why do those who know Him never see His days of judgment?

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 8:11; Habakkuk 1:2; 2 Peter 3:9

The Oppression of the Poor and Helpless

2 Some people move boundary markers and steal flocks to feed themselves.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 19:14; Proverbs 22:28; Hosea 5:10

3 They take the donkey of an orphan and seize a widow’s ox as collateral.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 24:17; Exodus 22:22; Isaiah 1:23

4 They push the needy off the road, and the poor of the land hide together in fear.

Cross References: Amos 5:12; Isaiah 10:2; Proverbs 22:22

5 The poor are like wild donkeys in the desert—they scavenge for food for themselves and their children in the wilderness.

Cross References: Job 39:5; Psalms 104:21; Psalms 104:11

6 They harvest grain in fields that aren’t theirs and glean in the vineyards of the wicked.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 24:19; Leviticus 19:9; Isaiah 5:8

7 They spend the night naked, without clothing, exposed to the cold.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 24:13; Job 31:19; Isaiah 58:7

8 They are soaked by mountain rains and cling to rocks for shelter.

Cross References: Lamentations 4:5; Job 30:3; Hebrews 11:38

The Exploitation of the Vulnerable

9 Some snatch orphans from their mother’s arms and take the poor as collateral.

Cross References: Exodus 22:26; Isaiah 1:23; Deuteronomy 24:17

10 They leave the poor naked and hungry, even taking the last sheaf of grain from them.

Cross References: Isaiah 58:7; James 2:15; Amos 8:6

11 The oppressed crush olives in the groves and tread grapes in the winepresses—yet go thirsty.

Cross References: Micah 6:15; Deuteronomy 28:39; Amos 5:11 12 From the city, people groan; the wounded cry out for help, yet God does not seem to bring judgment.

Cross References: Exodus 2:23; Ecclesiastes 4:1; Habakkuk 1:3

The Willful Darkness of the Wicked

13 These people rebel against the light. They don't recognize its ways or stay on its paths.

Cross References: John 3:19; Proverbs 2:13; John 3:20

14 The murderer rises early to kill the poor and needy, and at night, he becomes a thief.

Cross References: Psalms 10:8; Psalms 94:6; Jeremiah 7:9

15 The adulterer waits for twilight, thinking, "No one will see me," and covers his face.

Cross References: Proverbs 7:9; Proverbs 7:8; Proverbs 9:17

16 In the dark, they break into houses they marked earlier in the day. They want nothing to do with the light.

Cross References: Matthew 24:43; Job 38:15; John 3:20

17 Morning is like deep darkness to them—they are deeply afraid of being exposed.

Cross References: Job 3:5; Amos 5:8; Jeremiah 13:16

The Short-Lived Rise and Certain Fall of the Wicked

18 The wicked are as fleeting as water. Their portion is cursed in the land; they avoid the paths of the vineyards.

Cross References: Hosea 10:7; Psalms 1:4; Psalms 58:7

19 Just as drought and heat consume melted snow, the grave consumes those who sin.

Cross References: Psalms 49:14; Ecclesiastes 9:10; Job 14:12

20 The womb forgets them, the worms feast on them, they are no longer remembered. Wickedness breaks like a rotten tree.

Cross References: Job 18:17; Psalms 109:13; Proverbs 10:7

21 The wicked mistreat barren women and show no kindness to widows.

Cross References: Isaiah 1:17; Deuteronomy 27:19; Malachi 3:5

22 But God uses His power to remove the mighty; when He rises up, no one feels safe.

Cross References: Job 34:20; Psalms 76:12; Daniel 4:37

23 God may allow them to feel secure for a moment, but He watches everything they do.

Cross References: Proverbs 15:3; 2 Chronicles 16:9; Psalms 33:13

24 They are exalted briefly, then gone—brought low, like crops cut down and gathered.

Cross References: Psalms 37:35; Psalms 92:7; Isaiah 40:7

25 And if this is not true, then who can prove me wrong or make my words worthless?"

Cross References: Job 13:19; Job 27:5; Job 6:25

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 24

- 1. Injustice May Seem Unpunished Now—but Not Forever Job laments that the wicked seem to thrive without judgment (v. 1), but he also shows that God’s justice often comes in ways and timing beyond our understanding.
- “The Lord is slow to anger but great in power” (Nahum 1:3).
- 2. God Sees Every Oppressive Act From theft to mistreatment of orphans and widows, Job names injustice with painful precision (vv. 2–12).
- “He defends the cause of the fatherless and the widow” (Deuteronomy 10:18).
- 3. The Wicked Love Darkness Over Light Job describes criminals who hate the light and do evil in secret, echoing the truth that sin thrives in darkness (vv. 13–17).
- “Everyone who does evil hates the light” (John 3:20).
- 4. The End of the Wicked Is Certain, Though Delayed Though the wicked rise for a season, their fall is assured (vv. 18–24).
- “Do not fret because of evildoers... they will soon fade like the grass” (Psalms 37:1–2).
- 5. Faithfulness Doesn’t Always Mean Immediate Reward Job points out the injustice that faithful people suffer while wicked people prosper. He challenges a shallow view of divine reward and punishment.
- “We walk by faith, not by sight” (2 Corinthians 5:7).

Job Chapter 25 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God’s Greatness and Man’s Smallness”

God Is Supreme, and Man Is Unclean

1 Then Bildad the Shuhite responded:

Cross References: Job 8:1; Job 18:1; Job 42:9

2 "Dominion and awe belong to God; He establishes peace in the heights of heaven.

Cross References: Psalms 103:19; Daniel 4:35; Colossians 1:20

3 Can anyone count His armies? On whom does His light not shine?

Cross References: Psalms 147:4; Daniel 7:10; Matthew 5:45

4 So how can a mortal be righteous before God? How can anyone born of a woman be pure?

Cross References: Job 4:17; Job 15:14; Romans 3:20

5 Look—even the moon is not bright, and the stars are not pure in His sight.

Cross References: Job 15:15; Isaiah 24:23; Matthew 24:29

6 How much less is man, who is a mere worm—just a bug of a creature, the son of man, a crawling worm?”

Cross References: Psalms 22:6; Isaiah 41:14; Psalms 8:4

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 25

- 1. God Rules Over All with Majesty and Peace Bildad acknowledges that God holds all dominion and brings peace in the highest realms (v. 2).
 - “The Lord has established His throne in heaven, and His kingdom rules over all” (Psalm 103:19).
- 2. God’s Power and Light Are Limitless Bildad asks rhetorically if God’s armies can be numbered, and reminds us that His light reaches everywhere (v. 3).
 - “He counts the number of the stars and calls them all by name” (Psalm 147:4).
- 3. No One Can Claim Righteousness Before a Holy God He rightly states that no human can make themselves pure or justified before God apart from divine grace (v. 4).
 - “All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God” (Romans 3:23).
- 4. Even the Heavens Are Imperfect Before God’s Perfection Bildad poetically says that even the moon and stars fall short of God’s holiness (v. 5).
 - “God is light; in Him there is no darkness at all” (1 John 1:5).
- 5. Man Is Frail and Fallen Without God Though Bildad’s tone is harsh, his point is theologically true: humanity is weak and sinful in itself (v. 6).
 - “What is man that You are mindful of him?” (Psalm 8:4).

Job Chapter 26 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Majesty and Mystery of God”

Job Responds with Irony and Awe

1 Then Job answered:

Cross References: Job 9:1; Job 12:1; Job 16:1

2 “What help have you really given to the powerless? What strength have you offered to the weak?

Cross References: Job 6:25; Job 13:4; Job 16:2

3 What advice have you given to those without wisdom? What great insight have you provided?

Cross References: Job 12:2; Job 13:5; Isaiah 40:14

4 Who exactly are you speaking to? Whose spirit is coming out of you?”

Cross References: Job 32:8; 1 Corinthians 2:11; Numbers 16:22

God’s Dominion Reaches the Depths and Heights

5 “The dead tremble beneath the waters and all that live in them.

Cross References: Proverbs 9:18; Isaiah 14:9; Psalm 88:10

6 The grave is exposed before God; destruction lies uncovered in His sight.

Cross References: Proverbs 15:11; Psalm 139:8; Hebrews 4:13

7 He stretches the northern sky over empty space and suspends the earth upon nothing.

Cross References: Isaiah 40:22; Psalm 104:5; Genesis 1:1

8 He wraps the waters in His thick clouds, yet the clouds don’t burst under the weight.

Cross References: Proverbs 30:4; Psalm 104:3; Job 38:37

9 He conceals His throne with clouds and spreads a covering over it.

Cross References: Psalm 18:11; Psalm 97:2; Exodus 24:17

10 He marks out the horizon on the surface of the waters, where day and night meet.

Cross References: Proverbs 8:29; Psalm 104:9; Jeremiah 5:22

11 The pillars of heaven tremble and are shocked at His rebuke.

Cross References: Job 9:6; Psalm 18:7; Nahum 1:5

12 With His power, He calms the sea; by His wisdom, He crushes the proud.

Cross References: Isaiah 51:9; Psalm 89:10; Exodus 14:21

13 By His breath, the skies are made beautiful; His hand created the twisting serpent.

Cross References: Psalm 33:6; Isaiah 27:1; Job 9:8

14 Look—these are only the edges of His works, just a whisper of what He has done! Who can understand the thunder of His mighty power?”

Cross References: Romans 11:33; Job 11:7; 1 Corinthians 13:9

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 26

- 1. Human Counsel Falls Short Without Real Help Job sarcastically critiques his friends for offering words without real aid to the suffering (vv. 2–4).
- “If I speak, my pain is not relieved; and if I refrain, it does not go away” (Job 16:6).
- 2. God Rules Over the Realms of Death and the Deep Job acknowledges that even Sheol (the grave) and Abaddon (destruction) are fully visible to God (v. 6).
- “All things are naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account” (Hebrews 4:13).
- 3. God Created and Sustains the Cosmos with Precision Job marvels that God “hangs the earth upon nothing” and controls clouds, seas, and the stars (vv. 7–10).
- “The heavens declare the glory of God” (Psalm 19:1).

- 4. Even Nature Trembles at God's Voice The heavens themselves shake at His correction, and the sea is stilled by His hand (vv. 11–12).
- “Who is this? Even the wind and sea obey Him!” (Mark 4:41).
- 5. We Only See a Glimpse of God's Power Job ends by saying what we see is just the outer edges of God's ways—a mere whisper compared to His thunder (v. 14).
- “Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised; His greatness is unsearchable” (Psalm 145:3).

Job Chapter 27 – Crawford Standard Bible

“I Will Not Let Go of My Integrity”

Job Declares His Commitment to Integrity

1 Job continued speaking and said:

Cross References: Job 29:1; Numbers 23:7; Psalm 78:2

2 “As surely as God lives—the One who has denied me justice, the Almighty who has made my soul bitter—

Cross References: Job 34:5; Ruth 3:13; Job 19:6

3 As long as I have breath in me, the breath of God in my nostrils,

Cross References: Genesis 2:7; Job 33:4; Isaiah 2:22

4 My lips will not speak lies; my tongue will not utter deceit.

Cross References: Job 6:30; Psalm 17:1; Psalm 34:13

5 I will never agree that you are right; until the day I die, I will hold on to my integrity.

Cross References: Job 2:3; Job 31:6; Proverbs 4:13

6 I will hold tightly to my righteousness and not let go. My conscience will not accuse me for as long as I live.

Cross References: Job 17:9; Psalm 7:8; Job 13:15

What Hope Does the Wicked Have?

7 Let my enemy be like the wicked, and the one who rises up against me like the unrighteous.

Cross References: Psalm 109:29; Job 20:29; Psalm 71:13

8 For what hope does a godless person have when God takes away his life?

Cross References: Luke 12:20; Matthew 16:26; Proverbs 11:7

9 Will God listen to his cry when trouble comes upon him?

Cross References: Proverbs 1:28; Psalm 18:41; Isaiah 1:15

10 Will he take delight in the Almighty? Will he always call upon God?

Cross References: Psalm 37:4; Isaiah 58:14; Job 22:26

God Deals Justly with the Wicked

11 I will teach you about God's power. I will not hide what the Almighty does.

Cross References: Psalm 25:12; Psalm 32:8; Job 6:24

12 You yourselves have seen all this—so why do you keep speaking such nonsense?

Cross References: Job 21:5; Romans 1:21; Job 6:29

13 This is the fate God gives to the wicked—this is what oppressors receive from the Almighty:

Cross References: Job 20:29; Psalm 11:6; Psalm 73:19

14 Even if they have many children, they will die by the sword, and their descendants will never have enough to eat.

Cross References: Exodus 20:5; Deuteronomy 28:41; Psalm 109:9

15 Those who survive will die of disease, and even their widows will not mourn them.

Cross References: Psalm 78:64; Job 18:17; Ecclesiastes 8:10

16 They may pile up silver like dust and stockpile clothes like clay,

Cross References: James 5:2; Zechariah 9:3; Proverbs 13:22

17 But the righteous will wear those clothes, and the innocent will divide up their silver.

Cross References: Proverbs 13:22; Ecclesiastes 2:26; Proverbs 28:8

18 The house he builds is as fragile as a moth's cocoon or a flimsy shelter made by a watchman.

Cross References: Job 8:14; Isaiah 1:8; Job 4:19

19 The rich man lies down and thinks he's safe, but he will not be gathered in peace. He opens his eyes—and everything is gone.

Cross References: Proverbs 23:5; Luke 12:20; Psalm 49:17

20 Terrors flood over him like a storm; a whirlwind sweeps him away in the night.

Cross References: Job 18:11; Psalm 73:19; Job 20:28

21 The east wind lifts him up and carries him away—he's gone, blown from his place like dust.

Cross References: Psalm 48:7; Hosea 13:15; Jeremiah 18:17

22 God hurls his judgment at him and does not spare him. He tries to run from God's hand, but there's no escape.

Cross References: Job 16:13; Lamentations 2:17; Ezekiel 7:4

23 People clap their hands at him in scorn and hiss him out of his place."

Cross References: Lamentations 2:15; Zephaniah 2:15; Nahum 3:19

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 27

- 1. Integrity Is Worth Holding Onto, Even in Suffering Job refuses to lie to please others or to pretend guilt he doesn't bear. He values a clean conscience more than relief (vv. 5–6).
 - “Better is the poor who walks in his integrity than one perverse in his ways, though he be rich” (Proverbs 28:6).
- 2. Wickedness Has No Lasting Hope Job highlights the futility of living without God, especially when calamity comes (vv. 8–10).
 - “What will it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul?” (Mark 8:36).
- 3. We May Not See Judgment Immediately, But It Comes Job teaches that the wicked may prosper for a while, but eventually judgment overtakes them (vv. 13–23).
 - “The triumphing of the wicked is short” (Job 20:5).
- 4. Earthly Wealth Is Temporary, But Righteousness Endures The silver and fine clothes of the wicked will ultimately benefit the innocent (vv. 16–17).
 - “The wealth of the sinner is stored up for the righteous” (Proverbs 13:22).

Job Chapter 28 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Hidden Treasure of Wisdom”

Man Mines the Earth, But Cannot Mine Wisdom

1 There is a mine where silver is found, and a place where gold is refined.

Cross References: Proverbs 2:4; Proverbs 3:14; Deuteronomy 8:9

2 Iron is extracted from the earth, and copper is smelted from ore.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 8:9; Genesis 4:22; Isaiah 60:17

3 People explore the deepest darkness; they search out the farthest recesses for ore, even in the shadow of death.

Cross References: Job 26:10; Ecclesiastes 3:11; Job 38:19

4 Far from human habitation, they dig deep shafts; they descend where no one walks. They are suspended and swing far away from people.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 8:15; Psalm 78:15; Numbers 20:11

5 Food grows from the earth, yet beneath it lies fire.

Cross References: Psalm 104:14; Genesis 3:19; Deuteronomy 8:9

6 Its rocks contain sapphires, and its dust holds gold.

Cross References: Exodus 24:10; Isaiah 54:11; Ezekiel 28:13

7 The path to these treasures is unknown to birds; even the vulture’s sharp eyes have never seen it.

Cross References: Isaiah 35:8; Proverbs 30:19; Job 39:27

8 Fierce beasts have never walked that path; no lion has ever passed over it.

Cross References: Isaiah 35:9; Job 38:39; Proverbs 30:30 9 People strike the flint and overturn mountains at the base.

Cross References: Job 9:5; Nahum 1:5; Micah 1:4

10 They carve out tunnels through the rock, and their eyes spot every precious gem.

Cross References: Psalm 78:15; Deuteronomy 8:15; Isaiah 41:18

11 They dam up underground streams and bring hidden things to light.

Cross References: Job 12:22; 1 Corinthians 4:5; Daniel 2:22

Wisdom Cannot Be Found by Human Effort

12 But where can wisdom be found? Where is the place of understanding?

Cross References: Proverbs 8:11; Ecclesiastes 7:24; Job 12:12

13 No human being knows its true worth; it cannot be found in the land of the living.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:15; Proverbs 16:16; Job 28:15

14 The ocean says, “It’s not in me,” and the sea says, “It’s not with me.”

Cross References: Job 28:22; Deuteronomy 30:13; Romans 10:6

15 It cannot be bought with gold, nor weighed out with silver.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:14; Proverbs 8:19; Matthew 16:26

16 It cannot be priced with the gold of Ophir, or with onyx or sapphire.

Cross References: 1 Kings 9:28; Proverbs 3:15; Isaiah 13:12

17 Gold and crystal cannot compare with it; and fine jewels cannot trade for it.

Cross References: Proverbs 8:11; Proverbs 20:15; Revelation 21:11

18 Coral and pearls aren't worth mentioning—the value of wisdom is far above rubies.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:15; Proverbs 31:10; Matthew 13:46

19 The topaz of Ethiopia doesn't equal it; it cannot be measured against pure gold.

Cross References: Exodus 28:17; Ezekiel 28:13; Proverbs 8:11

Only God Knows Where Wisdom Dwells

20 So where does wisdom come from? And where is the place of understanding?

Cross References: James 1:5; Proverbs 2:6; Ecclesiastes 7:24

21 It is hidden from all the living and concealed even from the birds of the air.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 2:9; Matthew 11:25; Deuteronomy 29:29

22 Destruction and Death say, “We’ve only heard a rumor of it.”

Cross References: Job 28:14; Revelation 6:8; Proverbs 15:11

23 But God understands the way to it; He knows where it lives.

Cross References: Psalm 147:5; 1 Corinthians 2:10; Job 37:16

24 He looks to the ends of the earth and sees everything under the heavens.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 16:9; Proverbs 15:3; Zechariah 4:10

25 When He established the force of the wind and measured the waters,

Cross References: Isaiah 40:12; Proverbs 16:2; Isaiah 40:15

26 When He set the limits for the rain and the path for the thunderstorm,

Cross References: Job 38:25; Psalm 148:8; Jeremiah 10:13

27 Then He saw wisdom and evaluated it. He confirmed it and tested it.

Cross References: Proverbs 8:22; Psalm 104:24; Jeremiah 10:12

28 And He said to mankind, “Behold, the fear of the Lord—that is wisdom; and to turn away from evil—that is understanding.”

Cross References: Proverbs 1:7; Proverbs 9:10; Psalm 111:10

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 28

- 1. Human Skill Can Unearth Riches, But Not Wisdom Humanity has mastered mining the earth for treasure, but wisdom lies beyond reach by tools or labor (vv. 1–11).
 - “Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth” (2 Timothy 3:7).
- 2. Wisdom’s Value Is Beyond All Earthly Wealth Gold, silver, gems, and jewels cannot purchase wisdom. It is more precious than anything material (vv. 12–19).
 - “She is more precious than rubies; nothing you desire can compare with her” (Proverbs 3:15).
- 3. True Wisdom Belongs Only to God Wisdom is not found in nature, death, or human understanding—it is known only by God (vv. 20–27).
 - “Oh, the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God!” (Romans 11:33).
- 4. The Fear of the Lord Is the Beginning of Wisdom God has declared that wisdom begins with reverence for Him, and true understanding is seen in turning away from evil (v. 28).
 - “The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and knowledge of the Holy One is understanding” (Proverbs 9:10).

Job Chapter 29 – Crawford Standard Bible

“When Life Was Good”

Job Longs for His Former Days of Favor

1 Job continued speaking his parable and said:

Cross References: Job 27:1; Numbers 23:7; Psalm 49:4

2 “Oh, how I long for the months gone by, for the days when God watched over me—

Cross References: Lamentations 1:7; Psalm 42:4; Lamentations 5:21

3 When His lamp shone upon my head and by His light I walked through the darkness.

Cross References: Psalm 18:28; Psalm 27:1; Proverbs 20:27

4 In those days of my prime, when God’s friendship was in my home,

Cross References: Psalm 25:14; Psalm 90:14; Psalm 71:5

5 When the Almighty was still with me, and my children surrounded me.

Cross References: Psalm 127:3; Job 1:2; Psalm 128:3

6 My steps were bathed in cream, and rocks poured out rivers of oil for me.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:13; Psalm 81:16; Micah 6:7

Job Was Once Respected and Honored by All

7 When I went to the city gate and took my seat among the elders,

Cross References: Ruth 4:1; Proverbs 31:23; Lamentations 5:14

8 The young men saw me and stepped aside, and the old men rose and stood in respect.

Cross References: Leviticus 19:32; Job 32:6; 1 Kings 19:20 9 The princes stopped speaking and covered their mouths with their hands.

Cross References: Job 21:5; Judges 18:19; Micah 7:16

10 The nobles fell silent; their tongues stuck to the roof of their mouths.

Cross References: Psalm 137:6; Ezekiel 3:26; Job 4:2

11 Everyone who heard me praised me; everyone who saw me spoke well of me—

Cross References: Proverbs 31:28; Isaiah 11:3; Psalm 41:1

12 Because I rescued the poor who cried for help, and the orphan who had no one to defend him.

Cross References: Psalm 72:12; Proverbs 21:13; Isaiah 1:17

13 The one who was dying blessed me, and I brought joy to the heart of the widow.

Cross References: Proverbs 31:6; Isaiah 1:17; Psalm 146:9

Job Lived with Righteousness and Compassion

14 I put on righteousness, and it clothed me; my justice was like a robe and a crown.

Cross References: Isaiah 61:10; Psalm 132:9; Isaiah 11:5

15 I was eyes to the blind and feet to the lame.

Cross References: Isaiah 35:5; Numbers 10:31; Matthew 11:5

16 I was a father to the needy and carefully investigated cases I didn't know.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 1:17; Proverbs 29:7; Psalm 68:5

17 I shattered the fangs of the wicked and snatched the victims from their teeth.

Cross References: Psalm 3:7; Psalm 58:6; Amos 3:12

Job Expected a Peaceful, Long Life

18 I thought, 'I will die in my own home, and my days will be as numerous as the grains of sand.

Cross References: Genesis 22:17; Habakkuk 2:9; Psalm 92:14

19 My roots will spread out to the waters, and the dew will stay on my branches all night.

Cross References: Psalm 1:3; Jeremiah 17:8; Hosea 14:5

20 My glory will remain fresh, and my strength will be renewed like a warrior's bow.'

Cross References: Psalm 92:10; Genesis 49:24; Isaiah 40:31

Job Was Once a Wise Leader and Counselor

21 People listened to me and waited in silence for my advice.

Cross References: Job 32:11; Proverbs 1:5; Acts 15:12

22 After I spoke, they had nothing to add—my words fell gently on their ears.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:2; Job 29:23; Proverbs 18:4

23 They waited for me like they waited for the rain; they opened their mouths wide as if for the spring shower.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:2; Psalm 72:6; Hosea 6:3

24 When I smiled at them, they could hardly believe it; my approval brightened their spirits.

Cross References: Psalm 126:2; Genesis 18:12; Proverbs 15:13

25 I chose the way they should go and sat as their leader; I lived like a king among his troops, like one who comforts the mourning.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 5:3; Isaiah 61:2; Isaiah 32:1

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 29

- 1. Job Reflects on the Blessings of His Past Job yearns for the days when God's presence was close, his family was whole, and his life was prosperous and peaceful (vv. 2–6).
- "You have granted me life and favor, and Your care has preserved my spirit" (Job 10:12).

- 2. True Leadership Is Rooted in Righteousness and Service Job remembers how he was respected because he upheld justice, helped the needy, and defended the weak (vv. 7–17).
 - “Learn to do good; seek justice, rebuke the oppressor; defend the fatherless, plead for the widow” (Isaiah 1:17).
- 3. Even the Righteous Can Experience Great Loss Job once believed his life would end in peace, but his current suffering reminds us that no earthly condition is guaranteed (vv. 18–20).
 - “Man who is born of woman is of few days and full of trouble” (Job 14:1).
- 4. Wisdom and Compassion Earn Lasting Respect Job’s wisdom was valued and his presence brought comfort. A life lived for others leaves a legacy that hardship cannot erase (vv. 21–25).
 - “Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven” (Matthew 5:16).

Job Chapter 30 – Crawford Standard Bible

“From Honor to Humiliation”

Mocked by the Lowest in Society

1 But now, those younger than me laugh at me—men whose fathers I would not have even put with the dogs of my flock.

Cross References: Psalm 22:6; Lamentations 3:14; Job 19:18

2 Of what use was the strength of their hands to me? Their vigor had long since left them.

Cross References: Psalm 90:10; Ecclesiastes 12:3; Job 5:26

3 Gaunt with hunger and poverty, they roamed the wastelands in desolation and ruin.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:10; Job 24:5; Psalm 107:4

4 They plucked wild herbs among the bushes, and ate the roots of broom trees for food.

Cross References: 1 Kings 19:4; Lamentations 4:5; Psalm 102:9

5 They were driven out from society, people shouted after them like after a thief.

Cross References: Lamentations 4:15; Job 24:4; Psalm 109:10

6 They had to live in dried-up stream beds, in holes in the ground and in rocky caves.

Cross References: Hebrews 11:38; 1 Samuel 24:3; Judges 6:2

7 They cried out among the bushes and huddled together under weeds and thorns.

Cross References: Job 6:5; Zephaniah 2:9; Isaiah 34:13

8 They were children of fools, sons of worthless men, driven from the land.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 25:25; Psalm 15:4; Job 30:1

9 And now they make songs about me; I have become the object of their mocking.

Cross References: Psalm 69:12; Lamentations 3:14; Deuteronomy 28:37

The Pain of Rejection and Humiliation

10 They detest me and keep their distance. They don't hesitate to spit in my face.

Cross References: Job 19:19; Isaiah 50:6; Psalm 22:6

11 Because God has loosened my strength and humbled me, they feel free to abuse me without restraint.

Cross References: Lamentations 1:14; Isaiah 5:27; Psalm 116:16

12 On my right side a mob rises up; they push my feet aside and prepare ways to ruin me.

Cross References: Psalm 140:4; Lamentations 3:52; Psalm 35:15

13 They destroy my path and make my suffering worse; they have no one stopping them.

Cross References: Lamentations 1:17; Psalm 142:4; Job 19:12

14 They rush in like a flood breaking through a wall; they roll over me amid my calamity.

Cross References: Psalm 42:7; Psalm 88:7; Job 27:20

15 Terrors overwhelm me; my dignity is blown away like the wind, and my hope disappears like a cloud.

Cross References: Psalm 73:19; Hosea 13:3; Job 9:25

Suffering in Body and Spirit

16 Now my life drains away inside me, and days of misery grip me.

Cross References: Psalm 42:4; Lamentations 2:19; Psalm 22:14

17 At night my bones ache unceasingly; the pain gnaws at me and never lets up.

Cross References: Psalm 22:14; Psalm 6:2; Job 33:19

18 Because of God's overwhelming power, my clothing is disfigured; it binds me like the collar of my tunic.

Cross References: Psalm 32:3; Lamentations 1:14; Job 30:30

19 He has thrown me into the mud, and I have become like dust and ashes.

Cross References: Psalm 69:2; Genesis 18:27; Job 42:6

A Cry to God That Goes Unanswered

20 I cry out to You, O God, but You do not answer; I stand before You, but You only look at me.

Cross References: Lamentations 3:8; Psalm 22:2; Habakkuk 1:2

21 You have turned cruel toward me; with Your strong hand You attack me.

Cross References: Lamentations 2:5; Psalm 88:14; Job 16:9

22 You lift me up on the wind and make me ride it; You toss me about in the storm.

Cross References: Psalm 107:25; Psalm 102:10; Job 27:21

23 I know You will bring me down to death, to the place appointed for all the living.

Cross References: Hebrews 9:27; Ecclesiastes 12:5; 2 Samuel 14:14

Job's Despair Deepens

24 Surely no one reaches out to the grave when it destroys—yet even there, people cry for help.

Cross References: Psalm 88:5; Ecclesiastes 9:10; Job 14:13

25 Didn't I weep for those in trouble? Wasn't my soul grieved for the poor?

Cross References: Psalm 35:13; Romans 12:15; Proverbs 19:17

26 But when I hoped for good, evil came; when I waited for light, darkness came instead.

Cross References: Jeremiah 8:15; Isaiah 59:9; Jeremiah 14:19

27 My heart boils within me and will not rest; days of suffering confront me.

Cross References: Lamentations 1:20; Jeremiah 4:19; Psalm 22:14

28 I walk around mourning, not in the sunlight; I stand up in public and cry out for help.

Cross References: Psalm 38:6; Psalm 35:18; Psalm 42:9

29 I have become a brother to jackals and a companion to owls.

Cross References: Micah 1:8; Psalm 102:6; Isaiah 13:21

30 My skin has turned black and peels off; my body burns with fever.

Cross References: Lamentations 4:8; Psalm 119:83; Lamentations 5:10

31 My harp is now tuned to mourning, and my flute plays the sound of weeping.

Cross References: Lamentations 5:15; Amos 8:10; Psalm 30:11

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 30

- 1. From Honor to Humiliation Job, once respected by all, is now mocked by outcasts and the lowest in society. His reversal shows how quickly status can change in this world.
- “He raises the poor from the dust and lifts the needy from the ash heap” (Psalm 113:7).
- 2. Grief Can Strip Us of Dignity and Hope Job's physical agony and public disgrace highlight the depths of human suffering—pain that touches both body and soul.
- “My soul is in deep anguish. How long, Lord, how long?” (Psalm 6:3).
- 3. God Sometimes Seems Silent—But He Is Not Absent Though Job cries out to God without receiving an answer, he continues to direct his pain toward the Lord, showing faith even in despair.

- “Though He slay me, yet will I trust Him” (Job 13:15).
- 4. Compassion Remembered in Suffering Job reminds God and his accusers that he once helped the poor and grieved with the hurting. His past compassion speaks to his character amid present pain.
- “Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy” (Matthew 5:7).

Job Chapter 31 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Job’s Final Defense”

Covenant with Purity and Integrity

1 I made a covenant with my eyes not to look lustfully at a young woman.

Cross References: Matthew 5:28; Proverbs 6:25; Psalm 119:37

2 For what is God’s portion from above, or the Almighty’s inheritance from on high?

Cross References: Psalm 16:5; Ecclesiastes 5:19; Colossians 3:24

3 Isn’t it disaster for the wicked and misfortune for those who do evil?

Cross References: Psalm 1:6; Proverbs 10:29; Galatians 6:7

4 Doesn’t God see all my ways and count every step I take?

Cross References: Proverbs 5:21; Psalm 139:3; Jeremiah 32:19

5 If I have walked in falsehood or my foot has rushed toward deceit,

Cross References: Psalm 26:4; Psalm 24:4; Ephesians 4:25

6 Then let God weigh me in an honest scale, and He will know I am blameless.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:2; Daniel 5:27; Psalm 26:2

7 If I have turned from the right path, or if my heart has been led by my eyes, or if my hands are stained with sin,

Cross References: Numbers 15:39; Ecclesiastes 2:10; Psalm 24:4

8 Then let someone else eat what I have planted, and let my crops be uprooted.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 28:30; Leviticus 26:16; Micah 6:15

Faithfulness in Marriage

9 If my heart has been seduced by another woman, or if I have waited at my neighbor’s door,

Cross References: Proverbs 6:32; Exodus 20:14; 2 Samuel 11:2

10 Then let my wife belong to another man, and let others sleep with her.

Cross References: Lamentations 5:11; Deuteronomy 28:30; Jeremiah 8:10 11 For that would be a shameful sin, a crime worthy of judgment.

Cross References: Leviticus 20:10; Deuteronomy 22:22; Proverbs 6:29

12 It would be a fire that burns all the way to destruction, a sin that would destroy all I have.

Cross References: Proverbs 6:27; Proverbs 6:28; Deuteronomy 32:22

Justice for Servants and the Poor

13 If I have mistreated my male or female servants when they had a complaint against me,

Cross References: Deuteronomy 24:14; Colossians 4:1; Malachi 3:5

14 What will I do when God confronts me? What will I say when He examines me?

Cross References: Psalm 1:5; Ecclesiastes 12:14; Romans 14:12

15 Didn't the same God who made me also make them? Didn't we come from the same womb?

Cross References: Proverbs 22:2; Malachi 2:10; Acts 17:26

Compassion for the Needy

16 If I have denied the poor what they needed, or made the widow's eyes grow dim with waiting,

Cross References: Proverbs 21:13; Deuteronomy 15:7; Isaiah 1:17

17 If I have eaten my food alone without sharing it with the orphan—

Cross References: Deuteronomy 24:19; Isaiah 58:7; Proverbs 22:9

18 (For from my youth I raised the orphan as a father, and I guided the widow as I would my own mother)—

Cross References: Psalm 68:5; Isaiah 1:17; Job 29:12

19 If I have seen anyone dying for lack of clothing or a poor person without anything to cover them,

Cross References: Isaiah 58:7; Matthew 25:36; James 2:15

20 And if they didn't bless me for warming them with the fleece from my sheep—

Cross References: Deuteronomy 24:13; Job 29:13; Matthew 25:36

21 If I have raised my hand against the fatherless, knowing I had influence in court,

Cross References: Exodus 22:22; Zechariah 7:10; Psalm 82:3

22 Then let my arm fall from the shoulder, and let it be broken off at the joint.

Cross References: Psalm 37:17; Ezekiel 30:22; Zechariah 11:17

No Trust in Wealth or Nature

23 For I have always feared God's judgment; I could not act this way because of His majesty.

Cross References: Psalm 119:120; Isaiah 33:14; 2 Corinthians 5:11

24 If I have put my trust in gold or said to pure gold, "You are my security,"

Cross References: 1 Timothy 6:17; Psalm 62:10; Proverbs 11:28

25 If I took pride in my great wealth, or in all that my hands had gained,

Cross References: Psalm 49:6; Deuteronomy 8:17; Psalm 52:7

26 If I looked at the sun shining in its splendor or the moon moving in brightness,

Cross References: Deuteronomy 4:19; Deuteronomy 17:3; 2 Kings 23:5

27 And if my heart was secretly enticed and my hand gave them a reverent kiss,

Cross References: 1 Kings 19:18; Hosea 13:2; Ezekiel 8:16

28 Then that too would be a sin to be judged, because I would have denied the God of heaven.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 13:10; Jeremiah 5:12; 1 John 2:23

No Rejoicing in Others' Misfortunes

29 If I rejoiced at the ruin of my enemy or was glad when trouble came upon him—

Cross References: Proverbs 24:17; Proverbs 17:5; Matthew 5:44

30 (I have not let my mouth sin by cursing him)—

Cross References: Romans 12:14; James 3:9; 1 Peter 3:9

31 If the people of my household did not say, “Who has not been filled with his food?”

Cross References: Genesis 18:6; Hebrews 13:2; 1 Peter 4:9

32 If I ever let the traveler sleep in the street or refused to open my door to a stranger—

Cross References: Genesis 19:2; Romans 12:13; 3 John 1:5

Honest about Sin, Not Hiding It

33 If I have concealed my sins as people do, hiding my guilt in my heart,

Cross References: Genesis 3:8; Proverbs 28:13; Psalm 32:5

34 Because I feared public shame or contempt from others so I kept silent and stayed indoors—

Cross References: Proverbs 29:25; John 12:42; Galatians 1:10

Final Appeal to God for Justice

35 Oh, that someone would listen to me! Here is my signature—let the Almighty answer me! Let my accuser write out his charges.

Cross References: Jeremiah 12:1; Psalm 17:2; 1 Corinthians 4:4

36 I would wear it proudly on my shoulder; I would bind it around me like a crown.

Cross References: Isaiah 62:3; Proverbs 4:9; 1 Peter 5:4

37 I would give an account of every step I've taken; I would approach God like a prince.

Cross References: Psalm 119:26; Hebrews 4:16; Psalm 40:7

Final Oath Concerning His Land

38 If my land cries out against me, and all its furrows weep together,

Cross References: Genesis 4:10; Habakkuk 2:11; James 5:4

39 If I have eaten its produce without payment or caused its tenants to lose their lives,

Cross References: Deuteronomy 24:14; Leviticus 19:13; Malachi 3:5

40 Then let thorns grow instead of wheat, and weeds instead of barley. The words of Job are ended.

Cross References: Genesis 3:18; Hosea 10:8; Jeremiah 12:13

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 31

- 1. Integrity Requires Accountability Job lays his life bare before God, willing to be judged on his character, not just his suffering.
- “Let me be weighed in an even balance, that God may know mine integrity” (v. 6).
- 2. Purity Begins with the Eyes and the Heart Job made a covenant with his eyes and fought to avoid lust, deceit, or secret sin.
- “I made a covenant with my eyes” (v. 1).
- 3. We Are All Made by One Creator Job treated his servants with dignity, acknowledging they were created by the same God who made him.
- “Did not He that made me in the womb make him?” (v. 15).
- 4. Righteousness Cares for the Vulnerable Job's defense includes how he cared for orphans, widows, the poor, and strangers.
- “I was a father to the poor” (Job 29:16).
- 5. Trust Must Be in God, Not Gold or Nature Job avoided idolatry of wealth or celestial bodies, knowing that worship belongs only to God.
- “If I have made gold my hope... this also were an iniquity” (vv. 24–28).
- 6. True Righteousness Doesn't Celebrate Another's Fall Job refused to rejoice over the destruction of his enemies.
- “Neither have I suffered my mouth to sin by wishing a curse to his soul” (v. 30).
- 7. The Righteous Can Stand Before God Boldly Job longed to give an account directly to God, believing in the justice of his Creator.
- “I would declare unto Him the number of my steps” (v. 37).

Job Chapter 32 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Young Voice: Elihu Enters the Debate”

The Friends Fall Silent

1 So Job's three friends stopped answering him because he was convinced of his own righteousness.

Cross References: Proverbs 12:15; Luke 18:9; Proverbs 30:12

2 Then Elihu, the son of Barachel the Buzite from the family of Ram, became very angry. He was angry at Job for justifying himself rather than God,

Cross References: Genesis 22:21; Romans 3:4; Job 35:2

3 And he was angry at Job's three friends because they couldn't refute Job, yet still condemned him.

Cross References: Proverbs 18:13; Job 42:7; Matthew 7:1

4 Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job because the others were older than he.

Cross References: Leviticus 19:32; 1 Peter 5:5; 1 Timothy 5:1

5 But when Elihu saw that the three men had no reply, he burned with anger.

Cross References: Proverbs 15:1; Ecclesiastes 7:9; James 1:19

Elihu Begins to Speak

6 So Elihu, the son of Barachel the Buzite, spoke up and said: "I am young, and you are old, so I was afraid to share my opinion with you.

Cross References: 1 Timothy 4:12; Titus 2:6; Job 15:10

7 I thought, 'Age should speak; a long life should teach wisdom.'

Cross References: Job 12:12; Proverbs 16:31; 1 Kings 12:8

8 But there is a spirit within people, and the breath of the Almighty gives them understanding.

Cross References: Proverbs 20:27; Job 33:4; 1 Corinthians 2:11

9 It's not just the old who are wise, nor only the aged who understand what is right.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 4:13; 1 Corinthians 1:27; Jeremiah 1:7

Why Elihu Must Speak

10 So I say, 'Listen to me! I too will share my opinion.'

Cross References: Proverbs 1:5; Acts 26:1; 1 Peter 3:15

11 I've waited for your words; I listened carefully to your reasoning as you searched for something to say.

Cross References: James 1:19; Ecclesiastes 5:2; Proverbs 20:5

12 I paid close attention, but none of you proved Job wrong; none of you answered his arguments.

Cross References: Proverbs 27:17; Titus 1:9; Isaiah 41:28

13 So don't claim, 'We've found the answer—only God can deal with him, not man.'

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 1:19; Jeremiah 9:23; Isaiah 29:14

14 Job hasn't spoken against me personally, so I won't answer him with your same arguments.

Cross References: Proverbs 26:4; Job 33:5; Matthew 22:46

Elihu Can No Longer Stay Silent

15 These men are stunned; they have no more to say.

Cross References: Job 6:24; Proverbs 26:5; Isaiah 41:1

16 I waited, but they stood silent and didn't respond anymore.

Cross References: Job 13:5; Ecclesiastes 3:7; Amos 5:13

17 So I will speak up. I too will share my thoughts.

Cross References: Job 33:1; 1 Peter 3:15; Acts 4:20

18 For I am full of words, and the spirit within me urges me to speak.

Cross References: Jeremiah 20:9; 2 Corinthians 5:14; Acts 18:5

19 I am like wine bottled up with no vent—like new wineskins ready to burst.

Cross References: Matthew 9:17; Mark 2:22; Luke 5:37

20 I must speak to find relief; I will open my lips and respond.

Cross References: Psalm 39:3; Habakkuk 2:1; Acts 17:16

21 I will show no partiality, and I won't flatter anyone.

Cross References: Leviticus 19:15; Deuteronomy 1:17; James 2:1

22 I don't know how to flatter—if I did, my Maker would quickly remove me.

Cross References: Proverbs 29:5; 1 Thessalonians 2:5; Jude 1:16

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 32

- 1. Youth Can Have Wisdom When Inspired by God Elihu reminds us that true wisdom is not limited to age—it comes from the Spirit of God.
- “There is a spirit in man: and the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding” (v. 8).
- 2. Righteous Anger Can Be Motivated by a Desire for Truth Elihu is stirred, not out of pride, but out of frustration at Job's self-righteousness and the failure of the elders to speak rightly.
- “His wrath was kindled, because he justified himself rather than God” (v. 2).
- 3. God's Justice Requires Honesty, Not Flattery Elihu commits to speak the truth without favoritism or flattering words.
- “Let me not give flattering titles... my Maker would soon take me away” (vv. 21–22).

- 4. Silence Can Be a Sign of Defeat or Respect When Job's friends fell silent, it was not because they won the debate—but because they had no response. Elihu's voice represents the search for deeper understanding.
- “There was none of you that convinced Job” (v. 12).

Job Chapter 33 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Elihu: God Speaks in Many Ways”

An Invitation to Listen

1 “So please, Job, listen to what I have to say. Pay attention to all my words.

Cross References: Job 13:6; Job 34:2; Acts 2:14

2 I’m about to speak; my tongue is ready to say what’s on my mind.

Cross References: Psalm 49:3; Matthew 12:34; Proverbs 16:23

3 My words come from an honest heart, and my lips will speak clearly and truthfully.

Cross References: Psalm 45:1; Proverbs 8:6; Psalm 15:2

4 The Spirit of God made me, and the breath of the Almighty gave me life.

Cross References: Genesis 2:7; Job 32:8; Psalm 104:30

5 If you can answer me, go ahead—present your case and stand your ground.

Cross References: Job 13:18; Isaiah 41:21; Job 23:4

6 Look, I’m just like you before God; I, too, was made from clay.

Cross References: Job 10:9; Isaiah 64:8; Romans 9:21

7 So don’t be afraid of me. I won’t use my power to pressure you.”

Cross References: Job 9:34; Job 13:21; Job 23:6

Elihu Quotes Job’s Words

8 “Surely you’ve said in my hearing—I heard every word—

Cross References: Job 9:21; Job 27:5; Job 10:7

9 ‘I’m pure, without sin; I am innocent and have no guilt.

Cross References: Job 9:20; Proverbs 20:9; 1 John 1:8

10 Yet God finds fault with me; He considers me His enemy.

Cross References: Job 13:24; Job 19:11; Lamentations 2:5

11 He puts my feet in shackles and watches every step I take.’

Cross References: Job 13:27; Lamentations 3:7; Psalm 142:3

12 But I must say, Job, you're wrong in this. God is greater than any human being.

Cross References: Romans 9:20; Romans 3:4; Isaiah 55:9

13 Why do you argue with Him? He doesn't owe anyone an explanation for what He does."

Cross References: Isaiah 45:9; Job 40:2; Ecclesiastes 8:4

God Speaks, But We Often Miss It

14 "God speaks again and again, though people don't always recognize it.

Cross References: Psalm 62:11; Hebrews 1:1; Numbers 12:6

15 He speaks in dreams and visions of the night, when people fall into deep sleep.

Cross References: Genesis 20:3; Genesis 28:12; Matthew 1:20 16 That's when He opens their ears and gives them warnings,

Cross References: 1 Samuel 9:15; Job 36:10; Isaiah 50:4

17 To turn them away from pride and steer them from their destructive path.

Cross References: Genesis 20:6; Proverbs 16:18; Daniel 4:37

18 He keeps them from going down to the grave; He saves them from death by the sword."

Cross References: Psalm 16:10; Psalm 30:3; Psalm 103:4

Suffering as a Teacher

19 "Sometimes God uses pain to speak—severe suffering while lying on a sickbed,

Cross References: Psalm 38:3; Hebrews 12:6; Deuteronomy 8:5

20 So intense that a person loses all appetite, even for favorite foods.

Cross References: Psalm 107:18; Job 6:7; Psalm 102:4

21 Their body wastes away to nothing; bones that were hidden now stick out.

Cross References: Psalm 102:5; Lamentations 4:8; Psalm 22:17

22 Their soul nears the grave, and their life approaches death."

Cross References: Psalm 88:3; Isaiah 38:10; Psalm 30:9

A Messenger and a Ransom

23 "But if there is a messenger—one in a thousand—an interpreter to explain what is right,

Cross References: 1 Timothy 2:5; Malachi 3:1; Hebrews 8:6

24 Then God is gracious and says, 'Spare him from going down to the grave—I've found a ransom.'

Cross References: Matthew 20:28; Mark 10:45; 1 Timothy 2:6

25 His body will be renewed like a child's, restored to youthful strength.

Cross References: 2 Kings 5:14; Psalm 103:5; Isaiah 40:31

26 He will pray to God, and God will accept him; he will see God's face with joy, and God will restore his righteousness.

Cross References: James 5:16; Psalm 34:4; Psalm 51:12

27 He will declare, 'I sinned and twisted what was right, but it was not worth it!'

Cross References: Psalm 32:5; 1 John 1:9; Luke 15:21

28 And God will rescue him from the grave so that he may enjoy the light of life."

Cross References: Psalm 56:13; Psalm 49:15; Isaiah 38:17

God's Graceful Warnings

29 "Look, God does all these things—again and again—for people,

Cross References: Lamentations 3:32; Psalm 103:10; Hebrews 12:10

30 To rescue them from death and bring them into the light of the living.

Cross References: Psalm 116:8; John 1:4; Psalm 40:2

31 Pay attention, Job. Listen to me. Be quiet while I speak.

Cross References: James 1:19; Habakkuk 2:20; Ecclesiastes 5:1

32 If you have something to say, speak up—I'd love to see you proven right.

Cross References: Isaiah 1:18; Job 13:22; 1 Peter 3:15

33 But if not, then listen to me in silence, and I'll teach you wisdom."

Cross References: Psalm 32:8; Proverbs 9:9; Psalm 34:11

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 33

- 1. God Speaks in Many Ways—Are You Listening? Elihu reminds us that God communicates through dreams, visions, pain, and messengers. We must learn to listen in every season.
 - "God speaks again and again, though people don't recognize it" (v. 14).
- 2. Suffering May Be a Warning, Not Just Punishment Sometimes God allows suffering to steer us away from destruction and pride. It's mercy disguised as pain.
 - "He keeps them from going down to the grave" (v. 18).
- 3. God Offers Redemption and Renewal Through confession, prayer, and a "ransom," God restores and renews both body and spirit. This foreshadows the work of Christ.
 - "Spare him... I have found a ransom" (v. 24); "He shall pray unto God... and he shall see his face with joy" (v. 26).
- 4. Wisdom Doesn't Always Come from Age, but from Reverence and Honesty Elihu, though younger, speaks with clarity and sincerity, challenging the assumptions of the older men.

- “I will speak... and I will teach thee wisdom” (v. 33).

“Elihu Defends God's Justice”

Wisdom Must Judge Rightly

1 Then Elihu continued and said,

Cross References: Job 35:1; Job 36:1; Job 32:6

2 “Listen to me, you wise men; pay attention, you who have knowledge.

Cross References: Proverbs 1:5; James 1:19; Psalm 49:3

3 Just as the tongue tastes food, the ear tests words.

Cross References: Job 12:11; 1 Thessalonians 5:21; 1 John 4:1

4 Let's evaluate the case for ourselves; let's discern what is right and good.”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 30:19; Micah 6:8; Amos 5:15

Elihu Quotes and Challenges Job

5 “Job has said, ‘I am innocent, yet God has denied me justice.

Cross References: Job 27:2; Lamentations 3:35; Job 9:20

6 Even though I've done no wrong, I'm being treated like a liar. My wound is incurable, though I've done no sin.’

Cross References: Job 6:4; Job 16:13; Micah 1:9

7 What man is like Job, who drinks up scoffing like water?

Cross References: Job 15:16; Proverbs 9:12; Psalm 1:1

8 He keeps company with evildoers and associates with the wicked.

Cross References: Proverbs 13:20; 1 Corinthians 15:33; Proverbs 22:24

9 For he has said, ‘It's no benefit to a man to try to please God.’”

Cross References: Job 21:15; Malachi 3:14; Psalm 73:13

God Cannot Do Evil

10 “So listen to me, men of understanding: Far be it from God to do evil, from the Almighty to do injustice!

Cross References: Genesis 18:25; Deuteronomy 32:4; Zephaniah 3:5

11 For He repays everyone for what they've done and gives them exactly what they deserve.

Cross References: Psalm 62:12; Romans 2:6; Jeremiah 17:10

12 Surely, God does no wrong; the Almighty never twists justice.

Cross References: Romans 3:4; Deuteronomy 32:4; Psalm 92:15

13 Who gave Him control over the earth? Who put Him in charge of the whole world?

Cross References: Psalm 24:1; Psalm 89:11; Colossians 1:16

14 If He decided to gather back His Spirit and breath,

Cross References: Psalm 104:29; Ecclesiastes 12:7; Acts 17:25

15 All human life would perish instantly, and mankind would return to dust.”

Cross References: Genesis 3:19; Psalm 90:3; Ecclesiastes 3:20

God Sees All and Judges All

16 “So if you have understanding, listen closely to me.

Cross References: Proverbs 4:1; Proverbs 2:2; Deuteronomy 32:29

17 Would someone who hates justice govern fairly? Would you dare condemn the Righteous One?

Cross References: Isaiah 5:20; Psalm 94:20; Proverbs 17:15

18 Is it right to say to a king, ‘You are wicked,’ or to nobles, ‘You are evil’?

Cross References: Exodus 22:28; Acts 23:5; Ecclesiastes 10:20 19 How much less should we speak like that to God—who shows no favoritism to the rich or the powerful? All people are His creation.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 10:17; Acts 10:34; Romans 2:11

20 In a moment, they die. People are disturbed in the night and pass away. The mighty are swept away effortlessly.

Cross References: Psalm 73:19; Exodus 12:29; 1 Thessalonians 5:3

21 God’s eyes are on every person’s ways. He sees everything they do.

Cross References: Proverbs 5:21; Psalm 139:3; Jeremiah 32:19

22 No darkness is dark enough to hide sinners from God.

Cross References: Psalm 139:11; Amos 9:2; Hebrews 4:13

23 God doesn’t need to bring someone to court to judge them fairly.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 10:13; Romans 14:10; Ecclesiastes 12:14

24 He shatters mighty men without warning and sets others in their place.

Cross References: Daniel 2:21; Psalm 75:7; Luke 1:52

25 He knows what they do and overthrows them in the night, and they are destroyed.

Cross References: Psalm 33:15; Isaiah 40:23; Job 12:19

26 He strikes them down in public,

Cross References: Deuteronomy 13:11; 1 Timothy 5:20; 2 Peter 2:6

27 Because they turned away from Him and ignored His ways.

Cross References: Psalm 28:5; Isaiah 1:4; Jeremiah 5:23

28 They caused the cries of the poor to reach Him, and He heard the cry of the oppressed.”

Cross References: Exodus 22:23; Psalm 34:15; James 5:4

God Rules with Sovereignty

29 “When God gives peace, who can bring turmoil? When He hides His face, who can see Him—whether He deals with an individual or a whole nation?

Cross References: Psalm 27:5; Isaiah 45:15; Psalm 30:7

30 He prevents hypocrites from ruling, so they don’t trap the people.”

Cross References: Proverbs 29:2; Isaiah 9:17; Hosea 4:9

A Right Response to God

31 “Surely it is right to say to God, ‘I’ve sinned; I won’t do it again.

Cross References: Lamentations 3:39; Hebrews 12:11; Psalm 119:71

32 Teach me what I cannot see. If I’ve done wrong, I’ll stop.’

Cross References: Psalm 139:23; Psalm 19:12; Jeremiah 31:19

33 Should God reward you on your terms, just because you refuse to repent? You must choose, not I. So tell me what you know.”

Cross References: Isaiah 55:8; Romans 11:34; Romans 9:20

Conclusion: Elihu Rebukes Job

34 “Men of understanding will agree with me; wise people will hear me out.

Cross References: Proverbs 9:9; Proverbs 15:31; Psalm 119:79

35 Job has spoken without knowledge, and his words lack insight.

Cross References: Job 38:2; Job 42:3; Proverbs 29:20

36 I hope Job will be tested to the fullest, because his arguments encourage wrongdoing.

Cross References: James 1:12; 1 Peter 1:7; Job 23:10

37 He adds rebellion to his sin; he claps his hands in defiance and multiplies his words against God.”

Cross References: Job 15:25; Ecclesiastes 5:2; James 3:2

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 34

- 1. God’s Justice Is Perfect and Unchanging Elihu makes it clear that God never does wrong. His justice is always fair—even if we don't fully understand it.
- “Surely, God does no wrong; the Almighty never twists justice” (v. 12).
- 2. No One Can Hide from God’s Judgment God sees everything. There is no darkness or shadow deep enough to conceal anyone from His sight.
- “No darkness is dark enough to hide sinners from God” (v. 22).
- 3. Repentance Is the Right Response to Suffering Instead of accusing God, we should ask Him to reveal our faults and teach us His ways.
- “Teach me what I cannot see. If I’ve done wrong, I’ll stop” (v. 32).
- 4. Position and Power Don’t Impress God Earthly status means nothing before the Almighty. He deals with kings and beggars alike.
- “He shows no favoritism to the rich or the powerful; all people are His creation” (v. 19).
- 5. Pride in Suffering Can Lead to Rebellion Elihu warns that Job’s self-righteous attitude is leading him to rebellion by accusing God of injustice.
- “He adds rebellion to his sin... and multiplies his words against God” (v. 37).

Job Chapter 35 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Elihu: God Is Just, Even When Silent”

God Is Greater Than Man

1 Then Elihu continued, saying,

Cross References: Job 32:6; Job 34:1; Job 36:1

2 “Do you really think you're right when you say, ‘My righteousness is greater than God's’?”

Cross References: Job 9:2; Job 25:4; Job 33:12

3 For you ask, ‘What advantage is it to me? What good do I gain by not sinning?’

Cross References: Job 21:15; Job 34:9; Malachi 3:14

4 I’ll answer both you and your friends.”

Cross References: Job 32:3; Job 34:2; Job 34:10

God Is Unaffected by Human Deeds

5 “Look up to the heavens and observe the clouds—how far above you they are.

Cross References: Psalm 8:3; Isaiah 40:26; Psalm 103:11

6 If you sin, how does that hurt God? If your sins multiply, what does that do to Him?

Cross References: Job 7:20; Proverbs 8:36; Jeremiah 7:19

7 If you're righteous, what do you give Him? What does He gain from your hand?

Cross References: Romans 11:35; Job 22:3; Psalm 16:2

8 Your wickedness only affects people like you, and your righteousness only benefits other humans.”

Cross References: Ezekiel 18:20; Proverbs 9:12; Galatians 6:7

Empty Cries Go Unheard

9 “People cry out under great oppression; they groan under the weight of the powerful.

Cross References: Exodus 3:7; Ecclesiastes 4:1; James 5:4

10 But no one says, ‘Where is God my Maker, who gives songs in the night?’

Cross References: Psalm 42:8; Psalm 77:6; Isaiah 51:13

11 He teaches us more than the animals of the earth and gives us more understanding than the birds of the sky.

Cross References: Job 12:7; Psalm 32:8; Psalm 94:10

12 People cry out, but God doesn’t answer—because of the pride of those doing evil.

Cross References: Proverbs 1:28; Isaiah 1:15; Micah 3:4

13 Surely God does not listen to empty cries; the Almighty pays no attention to them.”

Cross References: Psalm 66:18; Isaiah 1:15; Proverbs 15:29

Wait on God’s Timing

14 “Though you say you can’t see Him, your case is before Him—so trust in Him!

Cross References: Job 23:10; Habakkuk 2:3; Psalm 37:7

15 But now, because God hasn’t punished you in anger right away, you think He doesn’t care.

Cross References: Job 34:26; Job 36:13; Psalm 78:21

16 Job speaks in ignorance; his words are empty and without understanding.”

Cross References: Job 38:2; Job 34:35; Job 42:3

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 35

- 1. God Is Not Changed by Our Deeds Whether we sin or act righteously, it doesn’t affect God directly—our actions impact fellow humans, not the Almighty.
- “If you’re righteous, what do you give Him?” (v. 7)
- 2. Our Cry Must Come from Humility and Faith Elihu notes that God doesn’t respond to proud or self-centered cries—He looks for hearts that seek Him in humility.
- “They cry out... but God does not answer because of the pride of evil men” (v. 12).
- 3. God’s Silence Doesn’t Mean Absence Just because we can’t see Him or hear from Him doesn’t mean our case is ignored. He sees and judges in His perfect time.
- “Though you say you can’t see Him, your case is before Him—so trust in Him!” (v. 14)

- 4. Don't Confuse Delay with Indifference God's judgment may not come immediately, but that doesn't mean He's unaware. Patience and trust are part of faith.
- "Because God hasn't punished you in anger right away, you think He doesn't care" (v. 15).
- 5. Empty Words Reveal Shallow Faith Elihu warns that Job's words have become reckless. When pain turns to pride, even righteous speech can become empty.
- "Job speaks in ignorance; his words are empty" (v. 16).

Job Chapter 36 – Crawford Standard Bible

"Elihu: God's Power, Justice, and Discipline"

Speaking for God's Righteousness

1 Elihu continued, saying,

Cross References: Job 32:6; Job 35:1; Job 34:1

2 "Bear with me a little longer, and I will speak on God's behalf.

Cross References: Job 13:7; Job 32:17; Job 33:32

3 I will draw my knowledge from afar and give credit to my Maker's righteousness.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:4; Psalm 145:17; Daniel 9:14

4 For my words are true; the One who is perfect in knowledge is with you."

Cross References: Job 37:16; Psalm 139:6; Job 11:7

God's Justice Toward All People

5 "God is mighty and does not despise anyone; He is mighty in both strength and understanding.

Cross References: Psalm 147:5; Isaiah 40:26; Romans 2:11

6 He does not let the wicked live, but He gives justice to the poor.

Cross References: Psalm 10:17; Proverbs 22:22; Psalm 140:12

7 He never removes His eyes from the righteous; He sets them with kings on thrones, and they are established forever, exalted.

Cross References: Psalm 34:15; Psalm 113:8; 1 Peter 3:12

8 But if they are bound in chains and caught in cords of affliction,

Cross References: Psalm 107:10; Lamentations 3:7; Psalm 149:8

9 He shows them their deeds and their transgressions—how they have acted proudly.

Cross References: Isaiah 58:1; Ezekiel 22:2; Job 13:23

10 He opens their ears to instruction and commands them to turn from evil.

Cross References: Job 33:16; Isaiah 55:7; Ezekiel 33:11

11 If they listen and serve Him, they will spend their days in prosperity and their years in pleasure.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 28:2; Isaiah 1:19; Psalm 128:2

12 But if they refuse, they will perish by the sword and die without knowledge.”

Cross References: Job 4:9; Hosea 4:6; Proverbs 5:23

The End of the Proud

13 “The godless in heart store up anger; they do not cry out for help when He binds them.

Cross References: Job 27:9; Proverbs 1:28; Isaiah 26:16

14 They die young, among the sexually immoral.

Cross References: Job 22:16; Psalm 55:23; Job 15:32

15 But God delivers the poor through their affliction and opens their ears through oppression.”

Cross References: Psalm 34:6; Psalm 107:41; Psalm 9:18

A Warning to Job

16 “He was luring you out of distress into a broad place, free from trouble, where your table would be full of rich food.

Cross References: Psalm 4:1; Psalm 18:19; Psalm 23:5

17 But now you are obsessed with the judgment due to the wicked; justice has seized you.

Cross References: Job 22:5; Romans 2:5; Job 20:29

18 Be careful that no one lures you into scoffing, or God may strike you down; then no ransom would save you.

Cross References: Psalm 49:7; 1 Peter 1:18; Proverbs 11:4

19 Will your wealth or all your mighty efforts keep you from distress?

Cross References: Proverbs 11:4; Zephaniah 1:18; Ezekiel 7:19 20 Do not long for the night, when people vanish from their places.

Cross References: Job 34:20; Luke 17:34; 1 Thessalonians 5:2

21 Beware of turning to evil, for you have preferred it over affliction.”

Cross References: Job 34:32; Hebrews 11:25; 2 Timothy 4:10

God’s Greatness in Creation

22 “God is exalted in His power—who is a teacher like Him?

Cross References: Psalm 94:12; Isaiah 40:14; Psalm 71:19

23 Who can tell Him what path to take, or say to Him, ‘You have done wrong’?

Cross References: Isaiah 40:13; Romans 9:20; Daniel 4:35

24 Remember to praise His work, which all people have seen.

Cross References: Psalm 111:2; Psalm 92:5; Revelation 15:3

25 Everyone has looked on it from afar.

Cross References: Psalm 19:1; Romans 1:20; Psalm 97:6

26 Yes, God is great—beyond our understanding; the number of His years is unsearchable.

Cross References: Psalm 145:3; Psalm 90:2; Isaiah 40:28

27 He draws up the drops of water, distilling rain from the mist,

Cross References: Job 5:10; Psalm 147:8; Ecclesiastes 1:7

28 which the clouds pour down abundantly upon mankind.

Cross References: Psalm 65:10; Deuteronomy 33:28; Deuteronomy 32:2

29 Who can understand how He spreads out the clouds, or the thunder from His dwelling?

Cross References: Job 26:14; Psalm 104:3; Nahum 1:3

30 See how He spreads His lightning around and covers the depths of the sea.

Cross References: Psalm 104:2; Psalm 135:7; Habakkuk 3:11

31 By these He judges nations and gives food in abundance.

Cross References: Psalm 65:9; Psalm 104:14; Acts 14:17

32 He covers His hands with lightning and commands it to strike its mark.

Cross References: Job 26:9; Psalm 18:11; Nahum 1:3

33 The thunder declares His presence; even the livestock know when a storm is coming.”

Cross References: Job 37:4; Psalm 29:3; Amos 4:13

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 36

- 1. God Is Mighty and Just He does not favor the powerful over the poor—He judges all with fairness.
- “He is mighty in both strength and understanding” (v. 5)
- 2. Affliction Can Be God’s Discipline Trials may be God’s way of correcting and drawing us away from pride and sin.
- “He opens their ears to instruction and commands them to turn from evil” (v. 10)
- 3. Pride Blocks Deliverance The proud refuse to cry out to God and perish without hope, but the humble find help in their trouble.
- “The godless in heart store up anger; they do not cry out for help” (v. 13)
- 4. Wealth Cannot Save Money, power, and human effort cannot protect against God’s judgment.

- “Will your wealth keep you from distress?” (v. 19)
- 5. God’s Creation Declares His Power The rain, clouds, lightning, and thunder all reveal His wisdom and majesty.
- “By these He judges nations and gives food in abundance” (v. 31)

Job Chapter 37 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Elihu: God’s Majesty in Nature”

The Awe of God’s Voice

1 “At this my heart trembles and leaps from its place.

Cross References: Habakkuk 3:16; Job 4:14; Jeremiah 23:9

2 Listen carefully to the thunder of His voice, the rumbling that comes from His mouth.

Cross References: Psalm 29:4; Job 40:9; Psalm 18:13

3 He sends it under the whole sky, and His lightning to the ends of the earth.

Cross References: Psalm 97:4; Psalm 18:14; Zechariah 9:14

4 After it comes a roar—He thunders with His majestic voice; He does not restrain the lightning when His voice is heard.

Cross References: Psalm 29:3; Amos 1:2; Joel 3:16

5 God thunders marvelously with His voice; He does great things beyond our understanding.”

Cross References: Job 5:9; Job 9:10; Psalm 65:6

God Commands the Weather

6 “He says to the snow, ‘Fall on the earth,’ and to the light rain and the heavy rain of His strength.

Cross References: Psalm 147:16; Psalm 148:8; Isaiah 55:10

7 He stops the work of every man’s hand so that all may know His work.

Cross References: Job 33:17; Psalm 104:23; Ecclesiastes 3:11

8 The animals take shelter; they stay in their dens.

Cross References: Psalm 104:22; Amos 3:4; Job 38:40

9 The storm comes from the south, and the cold from the north.

Cross References: Job 38:1; Zechariah 9:14; Proverbs 25:23

10 By the breath of God, ice is formed, and the broad waters are frozen solid.

Cross References: Job 38:29; Psalm 147:17; Psalm 148:8

11 He loads the thick cloud with moisture; He scatters His bright lightning cloud.

Cross References: Job 36:28; Psalm 77:17; Proverbs 3:20

12 They swirl around under His direction, doing whatever He commands them over the whole earth.

Cross References: Psalm 148:8; Psalm 135:7; Psalm 103:19

13 He brings the storm for correction, or for His land, or for mercy.”

Cross References: Leviticus 26:4; Amos 4:7; 1 Kings 8:35

Stand Still and Consider God’s Wonders

14 “Listen to this, Job; stand still and consider the wondrous works of God.

Cross References: Job 26:14; Psalm 111:2; Exodus 14:13

15 Do you know how God controls them and causes the lightning of His cloud to shine?

Cross References: Job 38:19; Genesis 1:3; Psalm 104:2

16 Do you understand how the clouds are balanced—the wondrous works of the One perfect in knowledge?

Cross References: Job 36:4; Job 26:8; Psalm 139:6

17 You whose garments grow warm when He calms the earth with the south wind—

Cross References: Song of Solomon 4:16; Psalm 78:26; Luke 12:55

18 Have you spread out the skies with Him, strong as a cast metal mirror?”

Cross References: Genesis 1:6; Isaiah 40:22; Psalm 104:2

Our Limited Understanding Before God

19 “Teach us what we should say to Him, for we cannot prepare our case because of our darkness.

Cross References: Job 9:14; Romans 8:26; Job 40:4

20 Should He be told that I want to speak? If a man speaks, surely he would be swallowed up.

Cross References: Job 9:3; Ecclesiastes 5:2; Job 40:4

21 Now men cannot look at the bright light in the clouds when the wind has passed and cleared them.

Cross References: Job 36:32; Psalm 104:2; Habakkuk 3:4

22 Out of the north comes golden splendor; God’s majesty is awesome.

Cross References: Psalm 104:1; Exodus 24:17; Ezekiel 1:4

23 Concerning the Almighty—we cannot find Him out; He is excellent in power, in judgment, and abundant in justice; He does not oppress.

Cross References: Job 11:7; Deuteronomy 32:4; Romans 11:33

24 Therefore, people fear Him; He shows no favor to those who think themselves wise.”

Cross References: Proverbs 1:7; Job 28:28; 1 Corinthians 1:19

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 37

- 1. God’s Voice Commands Creation His thunder and lightning demonstrate His unmatched power and authority.
- “He does great things beyond our understanding” (v. 5)
- 2. The Weather Is Under God’s Control Snow, rain, wind, and storms serve His purposes—sometimes to correct, sometimes to bless.
- “He brings the storm for correction, or for His land, or for mercy” (v. 13)
- 3. Human Understanding Is Limited The mysteries of creation remind us that God’s wisdom is infinitely greater than ours.
- “Do you understand how the clouds are balanced?” (v. 16)
- 4. God’s Majesty Inspires Reverence His justice, power, and mercy call for humility and awe before Him.
- “Therefore, people fear Him” (v. 24)

Job Chapter 38 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The LORD Answers from the Whirlwind”

God Challenges Job’s Understanding

1 Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind and said,

Cross References: Ezekiel 1:4; Nahum 1:3; Job 40:6

2 “Who is this who obscures My counsel with words without knowledge?

Cross References: Job 42:3; Job 35:16; Proverbs 18:2

3 Prepare yourself like a man; I will question you, and you will answer Me.

Cross References: Jeremiah 1:17; 1 Peter 1:13; Job 40:7

Where Were You When I Made the World?

4 “Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? Tell Me, if you have understanding.

Cross References: Proverbs 8:29; Psalm 24:2; Isaiah 40:21

5 Who determined its measurements—surely you know! Or who stretched the measuring line across it?

Cross References: Isaiah 40:12; Job 28:25; Jeremiah 31:37

6 On what were its foundations set? Or who laid its cornerstone,

Cross References: Psalm 104:5; Job 26:7; Isaiah 48:13

7 when the morning stars sang together and all the sons of God shouted for joy?”

Cross References: Psalm 148:3; Job 1:6; Psalm 89:7

God's Command Over the Sea

8 “Who shut up the sea behind doors when it burst forth from the womb,

Cross References: Psalm 104:9; Proverbs 8:29; Genesis 1:9

9 when I made the clouds its garment and thick darkness its swaddling band,

Cross References: Psalm 104:6; Genesis 1:2; Jeremiah 5:22

10 when I fixed limits for it and set its bars and doors,

Cross References: Jeremiah 5:22; Psalm 104:9; Proverbs 8:29

11 and said, ‘This far you may come, but no farther; here your proud waves must stop’?”

Cross References: Jeremiah 5:22; Psalm 93:4; Psalm 89:9

The Light of Morning and the Ends of the Earth

12 “Have you ever commanded the morning or shown the dawn its place,

Cross References: Psalm 74:16; Psalm 65:8; Luke 1:78

13 that it might grasp the edges of the earth and shake the wicked out of it?

Cross References: Amos 9:6; Psalm 104:35; Isaiah 24:20

14 The earth takes shape like clay under a seal; its features stand out like a garment.

Cross References: Job 10:9; Jeremiah 18:6; Isaiah 45:9

15 Light is withheld from the wicked, and the arm raised in violence is broken.”

Cross References: Job 24:17; Psalm 37:17; Proverbs 4:19

Depths, Death, and the Vast Earth

16 “Have you journeyed to the springs of the sea or walked in the recesses of the deep?

Cross References: Genesis 7:11; Psalm 104:6; Proverbs 8:28

17 Have the gates of death been revealed to you? Have you seen the doors of the shadow of death?

Cross References: Psalm 9:13; Psalm 107:18; Isaiah 38:10

18 Have you comprehended the vast expanse of the earth? Tell Me, if you know it all.”

Cross References: Job 11:9; Isaiah 40:28; Ephesians 3:18

Light, Darkness, and the Storehouses of Weather

19 “Where does light dwell? And where is darkness,

Cross References: Genesis 1:4; Job 26:10; Psalm 104:20

20 that you may take them to their domain or know the paths to their home?

Cross References: Psalm 74:16; Job 26:10; Genesis 1:14

21 Surely you know, for you were already born! You have lived so many years!

Cross References: Job 15:7; Proverbs 8:25; Job 8:9

22 Have you entered the storehouses of the snow or seen the storehouses of the hail,

Cross References: Psalm 135:7; Joshua 10:11; Psalm 148:8

23 which I have reserved for the time of trouble, for the day of battle and war?

Cross References: Exodus 9:24; Joshua 10:11; Revelation 16:21

24 What is the way to the place where the lightning is scattered, or where the east wind is spread over the earth?"

Cross References: Job 1:19; Exodus 10:13; Jonah 4:8

Rain, Dew, Ice, and Frost

25 "Who cuts a channel for the torrents of rain, or a path for the thunderbolt,

Cross References: Job 28:26; Psalm 29:3; Zechariah 10:1

26 to water a land where no one lives, an uninhabited desert,

Cross References: Psalm 107:35; Isaiah 35:1; Deuteronomy 32:10

27 to satisfy a desolate wasteland and make it sprout with grass?

Cross References: Psalm 104:14; Psalm 65:9; Isaiah 41:18

28 Does the rain have a father? Who fathers the drops of dew?

Cross References: Job 5:10; Psalm 147:8; Zechariah 10:1

29 From whose womb comes the ice? Who gives birth to the frost from the heavens,

Cross References: Psalm 147:16; Job 37:10; Psalm 148:8

30 when the waters become hard as stone, and the surface of the deep is frozen?"

Cross References: Job 37:10; Psalm 147:17; Genesis 1:2

The Stars and the Heavens

32 Can you bring forth the constellations in their seasons or guide the Bear with her cubs?

Cross References: Job 9:9; Psalm 147:4; Isaiah 40:26

33 Do you know the laws of the heavens? Can you set their rule over the earth?"

Cross References: Jeremiah 31:35; Genesis 1:16; Psalm 148:6

God's Control Over Rain, Lightning, and Wisdom

34 “Can you raise your voice to the clouds and cover yourself with a flood of water?

Cross References: Job 22:11; 1 Kings 18:41; Psalm 77:17

35 Can you send lightning bolts on their way? Do they report to you, ‘Here we are’?

Cross References: Job 28:26; Psalm 18:14; Zechariah 9:14

36 Who gives the ibis wisdom or gives the rooster understanding?

Cross References: Proverbs 2:6; James 1:5; Exodus 31:3

37 Who has the wisdom to count the clouds? Who can tip over the water jars of the heavens

Cross References: Psalm 33:7; Genesis 1:7; Job 26:8

38 when the dust becomes hard and the clods of earth stick together?”

Cross References: Psalm 65:10; Proverbs 3:20; Psalm 104:8

Provision for Creatures

39 “Do you hunt the prey for the lioness or satisfy the hunger of the young lions

Cross References: Psalm 104:21; Psalm 34:10; Amos 3:4

40 when they crouch in their dens or lie in wait in the thicket?

Cross References: Psalm 104:22; Job 37:8; Nahum 2:12

41 Who provides food for the raven when its young cry out to God and wander about for lack of food?”

Cross References: Psalm 147:9; Luke 12:24; Psalm 104:21

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 38

- 1. God’s Knowledge Far Exceeds Ours Job is reminded that the Creator’s wisdom and power are beyond human comprehension.
- “Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth?” (v. 4)
- 2. Nature Is Under God’s Direct Command From seas to stars, every part of creation operates under God’s authority.
- “This far you may come, but no farther” (v. 11)
- 3. God Provides Even for the Smallest Creatures His care extends to animals and birds, showing His sustaining love for all life.
- “Who provides food for the raven?” (v. 41)
- 4. Humility Is the Right Response to God’s Majesty God’s questions strip away human pride and call us to bow before His greatness.
- “Do you know the laws of the heavens?” (v. 33)

“God’s Wisdom in the Animal Kingdom”

Wild Goats and Deer

1 “Do you know when the wild mountain goats give birth? Do you observe the time when the deer give birth?

Cross References: Psalm 104:18; Psalm 29:9; Job 38:39

2 Can you count the months they are pregnant, or do you know the time they deliver?

Cross References: Psalm 139:16; Ecclesiastes 3:2; Job 38:33

3 They crouch down, give birth to their young, and are freed from their labor pains.

Cross References: Genesis 3:16; Isaiah 66:7; Psalm 48:6

4 Their young grow strong in the open country; they leave and do not return to them.”

Cross References: Psalm 144:12; Proverbs 27:8; Isaiah 40:31

The Freedom of the Wild Donkey

5 “Who set the wild donkey free? Who untied its ropes?

Cross References: Job 11:12; Hosea 8:9; Genesis 16:12

6 I gave it the wilderness as its home, the salt flats as its dwelling.

Cross References: Psalm 104:11; Isaiah 32:14; Job 24:5

7 It laughs at the noise of the city and does not hear the shouts of the driver.

Cross References: Jeremiah 2:24; Proverbs 21:16; Isaiah 22:2

8 It ranges the hills for its pasture and searches for every green thing.”

Cross References: Psalm 104:14; Psalm 23:2; Psalm 147:8

The Strength of the Wild Ox

9 “Will the wild ox serve you? Will it stay by your manger at night?

Cross References: Psalm 92:10; Numbers 23:22; Deuteronomy 33:17

10 Can you hitch the wild ox to a plow in a furrow? Will it harrow the valleys behind you?

Cross References: Deuteronomy 22:10; 1 Corinthians 9:9; Deuteronomy 25:4

11 Will you rely on its great strength? Will you leave your labor to it?

Cross References: Psalm 20:7; Proverbs 3:5; Isaiah 31:1

12 Will you trust it to bring in your grain and gather it to your threshing floor?”

Cross References: Proverbs 14:4; Psalm 127:1; Psalm 144:13

The Ostrich

13 “Do you give the ostrich her beautiful wings and feathers?

Cross References: Lamentations 4:3; Job 30:29; Jeremiah 8:7

14 She lays her eggs on the ground and lets them warm in the sand,

Cross References: Lamentations 4:3; Psalm 84:3; Deuteronomy 22:6

15 forgetting that a foot may crush them or that a wild animal may trample them.

Cross References: Proverbs 27:12; Ecclesiastes 9:12; Lamentations 4:3

16 She treats her young harshly, as if they were not hers; she shows no concern that her work might be in vain,

Cross References: Lamentations 4:3; Isaiah 49:15; 1 Timothy 5:8

17 for God has deprived her of wisdom and given her no share in understanding.

Cross References: Job 35:11; Proverbs 30:24; Ecclesiastes 3:19

18 Yet when she spreads her wings to run, she laughs at horse and rider.”

Cross References: Proverbs 30:29; Ecclesiastes 9:11; Psalm 147:10

The War Horse

19 “Do you give the horse its strength or clothe its neck with a flowing mane?

Cross References: Psalm 147:10; Proverbs 21:31; Zechariah 10:3

20 Do you make it leap like a locust, striking terror with its proud snorting?

Cross References: Numbers 13:33; Isaiah 40:22; Joel 2:4

21 It paws fiercely in the valley and rejoices in its strength; it charges into the fray.

Cross References: Judges 5:22; Jeremiah 8:6; Jeremiah 47:3

22 It mocks fear and is unafraid; it does not turn back from the sword.

Cross References: Psalm 112:7; Proverbs 28:1; Psalm 27:3

23 The quiver rattles against its side, along with the flashing spear and javelin.

Cross References: Jeremiah 6:23; Habakkuk 3:11; Psalm 45:5

24 In excitement it eats up the ground; it cannot stand still when the trumpet sounds.

Cross References: Jeremiah 8:16; Amos 2:15; Nahum 3:2

25 At the blast of the trumpet it snorts, ‘Aha!’ It smells the battle from afar—the shout of commanders and the battle cry.”

Cross References: Jeremiah 4:19; Zephaniah 1:16; Ezekiel 7:14

The Hawk and the Eagle

26 “Does the hawk take flight by your wisdom and spread its wings toward the south?

Cross References: Job 28:21; Jeremiah 8:7; Proverbs 30:19

27 Does the eagle soar at your command and build its nest on high?

Cross References: Jeremiah 49:16; Obadiah 1:4; Habakkuk 1:8

28 It dwells on a cliff and stays there at night, on the rocky crag, a stronghold.

Cross References: Numbers 24:21; Jeremiah 49:16; Song of Solomon 2:14

29 From there it spies out its prey; its eyes see it from afar.

Cross References: Habakkuk 1:8; Job 9:26; 2 Samuel 1:23

30 Its young feast on blood, and where the slain are, there it is.”

Cross References: Matthew 24:28; Luke 17:37; Proverbs 30:17

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 39

- 1. God’s Wisdom Is Seen in the Natural World The habits, instincts, and strength of animals reveal a Creator who equips each creature perfectly for its life.
- “Do you know when the wild mountain goats give birth?” (v. 1)
- 2. Human Control Is Limited Wild animals like the donkey, ox, and ostrich live beyond man’s authority, reminding us that God alone governs all creation.
- “Who set the wild donkey free?” (v. 5)
- 3. God Gives Every Creature Its Strength and Role Whether it’s the war horse’s courage or the eagle’s sharp vision, every gift is by God’s design.
- “Do you give the horse its strength?” (v. 19)
- 4. Nature Declares God’s Glory Every instinct in the animal kingdom is a reflection of divine order and wisdom.
- “Does the eagle soar at your command?” (v. 27)

Job Chapter 40 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God Challenges Job with His Power and Creation”

God Confronts Job’s Challenge

1 The LORD answered Job and said,

Cross References: Job 38:1; Isaiah 40:13; Romans 11:34

2 “Will the one who contends with the Almighty correct Him? Let him who accuses God answer.”

Cross References: Isaiah 45:9; Romans 9:20; Job 9:32

3 Then Job answered the LORD,

Cross References: Job 9:15; Job 13:22; Job 42:1

4 “I am unworthy. What can I reply to You? I place my hand over my mouth.

Cross References: Isaiah 6:5; Job 21:5; Job 42:6

5 I have spoken once, but I will not reply again—yes, twice, but I will say no more.”

Cross References: Job 33:14; Psalm 39:9; Proverbs 30:32

The Almighty’s Second Speech

6 Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind and said,

Cross References: Job 38:1; Nahum 1:3; 1 Kings 19:11

7 “Brace yourself like a man; I will question you, and you will answer Me.

Cross References: Job 38:3; Jeremiah 1:17; 1 Peter 1:13

8 Will you discredit My justice? Will you condemn Me so you may be justified?

Cross References: Romans 3:4; Job 34:17; Job 9:20 9 Do you have an arm like God’s? Can your voice thunder like His?

Cross References: Isaiah 40:10; Psalm 89:13; Job 26:14

10 Then adorn yourself with glory and splendor; clothe yourself with honor and majesty.

Cross References: Psalm 104:1; Psalm 93:1; Psalm 21:5

11 Release the fury of your wrath; look at all the proud and bring them low.

Cross References: Isaiah 2:12; Psalm 138:6; James 4:6

12 Look at every proud person and humble him; crush the wicked where they stand.

Cross References: Isaiah 2:11; Psalm 147:6; Malachi 4:3

13 Bury them all in the dust together; imprison them in the hidden place.

Cross References: Isaiah 2:10; Revelation 6:16; Nahum 1:8

14 Then I will admit to you that your own right hand can save you.”

Cross References: Psalm 44:3; Isaiah 59:16; Psalm 98:1

The Behemoth: God’s Masterwork

15 “Look at Behemoth, which I made along with you. He eats grass like an ox.

Cross References: Genesis 1:24; Psalm 104:14; Psalm 50:10

16 See the strength in his hips and the power in the muscles of his belly.

Cross References: Psalm 65:6; Nahum 2:1; Proverbs 20:29

17 He swings his tail like a cedar; the sinews of his thighs are tightly knit.

Cross References: Psalm 92:12; Psalm 104:16; 1 Kings 4:33

18 His bones are like tubes of bronze; his limbs are like bars of iron.

Cross References: Job 6:12; Daniel 2:33; Deuteronomy 33:25

19 He is the foremost of God's works; only his Maker can approach him with a sword.

Cross References: Psalm 104:24; Genesis 1:25; Job 41:33

20 The hills yield food for him, while all the wild animals play nearby.

Cross References: Psalm 104:13; Psalm 50:11; Psalm 104:14

21 He lies under the lotus plants, hidden among the reeds and marshes.

Cross References: Job 8:11; Ezekiel 29:3; Psalm 104:16

22 The lotus plants conceal him with their shade; the willows by the stream surround him.

Cross References: Ezekiel 31:3; Psalm 1:3; Song of Solomon 2:3

23 He is not alarmed when the river rages; he is confident though the Jordan surges against his mouth.

Cross References: Ezekiel 29:3; Isaiah 19:5; Joshua 3:15

24 Can anyone capture him by the eyes or pierce his nose with a snare?"

Cross References: Job 41:1; Job 41:2; Amos 3:5

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 40

- 1. God's Justice Cannot Be Challenged Job is reminded that God's judgments are perfect, even when humans cannot understand them.
 - "Will you condemn Me so you may be justified?" (v. 8)
- 2. Human Power Is Limited God challenges Job to demonstrate the ability to rule with justice and power—something only God can do.
 - "Then I will admit to you that your own right hand can save you." (v. 14)
- 3. Creation Reflects God's Strength Behemoth stands as a living testimony to God's creative power, beyond human control.
 - "Look at Behemoth, which I made along with you." (v. 15)
- 4. We Must Respond in Humility Before God Job's response shows that the only proper posture before God's greatness is humility and reverence.
 - "I am unworthy... I will say no more." (v. 4–5)

Job Chapter 41 – Crawford Standard Bible

"God's Description of Leviathan"

The Challenge of Capturing Leviathan

1 "Can you pull in Leviathan with a hook, or tie down his tongue with a rope?"

Cross References: Isaiah 27:1; Psalm 74:14; Psalm 104:26

2 Can you put a cord through his nose or pierce his jaw with a hook?

Cross References: Ezekiel 29:4; Isaiah 37:29; 2 Kings 19:28

3 Will he beg you for mercy or speak gentle words to you?

Cross References: Job 9:15; Proverbs 18:23; Proverbs 25:15

4 Will he make an agreement with you so that you can take him as your servant for life?

Cross References: Exodus 21:6; Joshua 9:15; Deuteronomy 15:17

5 Can you play with him like a bird, or put him on a leash for your young women?

Cross References: Psalm 104:26; Psalm 124:7; Proverbs 6:5

6 Will trading partners bargain for him? Will they divide him among the merchants?

Cross References: Ezekiel 27:13; Ezekiel 27:15; Proverbs 31:24

7 Can you fill his hide with harpoons, or his head with fishing spears?

Cross References: Habakkuk 1:15; Ezekiel 32:3; Amos 4:2

8 Lay your hand on him, and you will remember the struggle—you won't do it again!

Cross References: 1 Samuel 17:48; Judges 8:21; Proverbs 20:18

9 Any hope of subduing him is false; the mere sight of him overwhelms you.

Cross References: Job 6:20; Isaiah 31:4; Psalm 76:7

10 No one is fierce enough to rouse him—who then can stand against Me?"

Cross References: Nahum 1:6; Revelation 6:17; Malachi 3:2

God's Supreme Authority

11 "Who has ever given to Me that I should repay him? Everything under heaven belongs to Me.

Cross References: Romans 11:35; Psalm 50:12; Exodus 19:5

12 I will not fail to speak of Leviathan's limbs, his strength, and his graceful form.

Cross References: Psalm 145:5; Job 26:14; Psalm 40:5

13 Who can strip off his outer covering? Who can approach him with a bridle?

Cross References: Job 38:9; Psalm 104:2; Isaiah 40:12

14 Who can open the doors of his face? His teeth are terrifying.

Cross References: Psalm 57:4; Joel 1:6; Proverbs 30:14

15 His back is covered with rows of scales, tightly sealed together.

Cross References: Ezekiel 29:4; Song of Solomon 8:6; Job 38:14

16 Each one is so close to the next that no air can pass between them.

Cross References: Ezekiel 1:9; Exodus 26:3; Ephesians 4:16

17 They are joined firmly to one another; they cling together and cannot be separated.”

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 4:12; Ezekiel 1:9; Colossians 2:19

A Creature of Fearsome Power

18 “When he sneezes, light flashes; his eyes are like the rays of dawn.

Cross References: Job 3:9; Job 11:17; Judges 5:31

19 Flames pour from his mouth; sparks of fire shoot out.

Cross References: Psalm 18:8; Revelation 9:17; 2 Samuel 22:9

20 Smoke pours from his nostrils as from a boiling pot over burning reeds.

Cross References: Genesis 19:28; Jeremiah 1:13; Psalm 18:8

21 His breath sets coals ablaze, and flames dart from his mouth.

Cross References: Isaiah 30:33; Psalm 18:8; Revelation 9:17

22 Strength resides in his neck; dismay goes before him.

Cross References: Job 39:19; Psalm 30:11; Proverbs 29:1

23 The folds of his flesh are tightly joined; they are firm and immovable.

Cross References: Psalm 16:8; Ephesians 4:16; Psalm 112:6

24 His heart is hard as rock, hard as a lower millstone.

Cross References: Ezekiel 11:19; Zechariah 7:12; Exodus 15:16

25 When he rises up, the mighty are terrified; they retreat before his thrashing.”

Cross References: Psalm 77:16; Exodus 15:15; Habakkuk 3:10

Weapons Are Useless Against Him

26 “The sword that strikes him has no effect, nor does the spear, the dart, or the javelin.

Cross References: Isaiah 27:1; Ephesians 6:16; Job 20:24

27 He regards iron as straw and bronze as rotten wood.

Cross References: Isaiah 41:15; Job 20:24; Amos 1:3

28 Arrows do not make him flee; slingstones are like chaff to him.

Cross References: Psalm 18:14; Psalm 18:34; 1 Samuel 17:50

29 Clubs are like chaff; he laughs at the shaking of a spear.

Cross References: Job 39:22; Habakkuk 1:10; Psalm 2:4

30 His underside is jagged with sharp points; he leaves a trail in the mud like a threshing sledge.

Cross References: Isaiah 57:20; Micah 7:17; Nahum 3:14

31 He makes the deep churn like a boiling pot; he stirs the sea like a pot of ointment.

Cross References: Exodus 15:8; Habakkuk 3:15; Psalm 104:6

32 Behind him he leaves a glistening wake; one would think the deep had white hair.

Cross References: Psalm 77:19; Isaiah 43:16; Exodus 14:22

33 Nothing on earth is his equal—a creature without fear.

Cross References: Job 40:19; 1 Kings 3:12; Exodus 9:24

34 He looks down on all that are proud; he is king over all the proud.”

Cross References: Isaiah 14:13; Daniel 4:37; Proverbs 16:18

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 41

- 1. God’s Power Surpasses All Creation Leviathan serves as a symbol of a force no human can control, emphasizing God’s unmatched authority.
 - “Who then can stand against Me?” (v. 10)
- 2. Human Strength and Skill Have Limits No weapon or human strategy can subdue this creature, reminding us of our dependence on God.
 - “The sword... has no effect, nor does the spear, the dart, or the javelin.” (v. 26)
- 3. God Owns and Rules All Things The Creator owes nothing to anyone; all creation is His possession.
 - “Everything under heaven belongs to Me.” (v. 11)
- 4. Pride Cannot Stand Before God Leviathan is described as “king over all the proud,” pointing to the truth that God alone can humble pride.
 - “He looks down on all that are proud.” (v. 34)

Job Chapter 42 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Job’s Repentance and Restoration”

Job Confesses and Repents

1 Then Job replied to the LORD:

Cross References: Job 40:3; Job 9:14; Job 13:22

2 “I know that You can do all things, and no purpose of Yours can be stopped.

Cross References: Isaiah 46:10; Proverbs 19:21; Psalm 33:11

3 You asked, ‘Who is this who hides counsel without knowledge?’ I spoke about things I did not understand—things too wonderful for me to know.

Cross References: Job 38:2; Psalm 139:6; Psalm 131:1

4 You said, ‘Listen now, and I will speak; I will question you, and you will answer Me.’

Cross References: Job 38:3; Job 40:7; Job 13:22

5 My ears had heard of You, but now my eyes have seen You.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 13:12; Job 19:26; Psalm 17:15

6 Therefore I despise myself and repent in dust and ashes.”

Cross References: Genesis 18:27; Isaiah 6:5; Luke 5:8

God Rebukes Job’s Friends

7 After the LORD had spoken these words to Job, He said to Eliphaz the Temanite, “My anger burns against you and your two friends because you have not spoken the truth about Me, as My servant Job has.

Cross References: Job 32:3; Job 13:7; Psalm 50:21

8 So now take seven bulls and seven rams, go to My servant Job, and offer them as a burnt offering for yourselves. My servant Job will pray for you, and I will accept his prayer and not deal with you according to your folly. You have not spoken the truth about Me, as My servant Job has.”

Cross References: Numbers 23:1; Genesis 8:20; 1 Samuel 12:23

9 So Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite went and did as the LORD commanded them—and the LORD accepted Job’s prayer.

Cross References: Genesis 7:5; Genesis 4:4; Malachi 1:8

Job’s Restoration

10 The LORD restored Job’s fortunes when he prayed for his friends. Indeed, the LORD gave him twice as much as he had before.

Cross References: Matthew 5:44; James 5:16; Psalm 126:1

11 All his brothers, sisters, and former acquaintances came to him and ate with him in his house. They expressed sympathy and comforted him over all the adversity the LORD had brought upon him. Each one gave him a piece of silver and a gold ring.

Cross References: Job 19:13; Job 19:14; Genesis 43:34

12 The LORD blessed the latter part of Job’s life more than the first. He had 14,000 sheep, 6,000 camels, 1,000 yoke of oxen, and 1,000 female donkeys.

Cross References: Job 8:7; Zechariah 9:12; Deuteronomy 30:3

13 He also had seven sons and three daughters.

Cross References: Job 1:2; Psalm 127:3; Ruth 4:15

14 He named the first Jemimah, the second Keziah, and the third Keren-Happuch.

Cross References: Genesis 4:19; Genesis 30:24; Ruth 4:17

15 Nowhere in the land were women as beautiful as Job's daughters, and their father granted them an inheritance along with their brothers.

Cross References: Numbers 27:7; Genesis 6:2; 1 Peter 3:7

16 After this, Job lived 140 years and saw his children and their children to the fourth generation.

Cross References: Genesis 50:23; Psalm 128:6; Genesis 25:7

17 And so Job died, old and full of years.

Cross References: Genesis 35:29; Genesis 25:8; 1 Chronicles 29:28

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 42

- 1. True Understanding of God Leads to Humility Job's knowledge of God moved from hearsay to personal experience, bringing him to repentance.
 - "My ears had heard of You, but now my eyes have seen You." (v. 5)
- 2. Intercession Is Powerful God required Job to pray for his friends before restoring him, showing the power of forgiveness and intercession.
 - "My servant Job will pray for you, and I will accept his prayer." (v. 8)
- 3. God's Blessings Can Surpass Past Losses Job's latter years were more blessed than his beginning, proving that God can redeem and restore even after severe trials.
 - "The LORD blessed the latter part of Job's life more than the first." (v. 12)
- 4. Beauty and Inheritance for Daughters Job's granting of inheritance to his daughters speaks to God's valuing of all His children equally.
 - "Their father granted them an inheritance along with their brothers." (v. 15)
- 5. A Full Life in God's Care Job's life ended "full of years," reminding us that those who walk with God can finish life in peace and blessing.
 - "Job died, old and full of years." (v. 17)

Introduction to the Book of Psalms

“Praise the Lord! Praise God in his sanctuary; praise him in his mighty heavens!” – Psalm 150:1

Title and Meaning

The name Psalms comes from the Greek word psalmoi, meaning “songs” or “hymns.” In Hebrew, the book is called Tehillim, meaning “praises,” reflecting its primary purpose as a collection of songs of worship and prayer. The Psalms are the hymnbook of ancient Israel, expressing a wide range of human emotions—from joy and gratitude to sorrow and despair—and serving as a means to worship, seek guidance, and find comfort in God.

Author and Date

Traditionally, King David is regarded as the principal author of many Psalms, with others attributed to figures such as Asaph, the sons of Korah, and Solomon. The collection was likely compiled over many centuries, from the time of David (around 1000 BC) through the post-exilic period (after 500 BC). The Psalms reflect the spiritual life of Israel across different eras, capturing both personal and communal expressions of faith.

Purpose of Psalms

The Psalms serve as a spiritual toolkit, helping believers:

- Worship and praise God for His greatness and mercy.
- Seek His help in times of trouble.
- Express repentance and humility.
- Celebrate His faithfulness and justice.
- Meditate on His promises and sovereignty. More than just songs, the Psalms are prayers that connect the human heart to God's divine nature, guiding believers in worship, lament, thanksgiving, and trust.

Structure of Psalms

The book of Psalms is divided into five sections, mirroring the structure of the Torah, each ending with a doxology or praise:

1. Psalms 1–41 Focuses on David’s life, expressing trust and reliance on God amidst trials.
2. Psalms 42–72 Includes communal laments and praises, often associated with David’s reign.
3. Psalms 73–89 Addresses national struggles, including exile and God's faithfulness to Israel.
4. Psalms 90–106 Contains reflections on God's eternal sovereignty and His acts in history.
5. Psalms 107–150 Encompasses a variety of themes, with many well-known praise psalms, culminating in Psalm 150’s call to praise God with music and dance. Major Themes
 - Praise and Worship: Honoring God's greatness and sovereignty.
 - Lament and Supplication: Crying out to God in distress and seeking mercy.

- •Trust and Confidence: Relying on God's steadfast love and faithfulness.
- •Repentance and Forgiveness: Coming before God with humility and receiving His mercy.
- •God's Sovereignty and Justice: Recognizing His rule over creation and history.

Why Psalms Matters Today

The Psalms are deeply relevant because they mirror the full range of human experience and emotion. They teach us how to pray honestly, worship wholeheartedly, and trust unwaveringly in God's goodness. Whether in joy or sorrow, the Psalms remind us that God is near, listening, and worthy of our praise. They encourage believers to express their faith openly and to find comfort and strength in God's promises, ultimately pointing us to the coming King, Jesus Christ, who embodies perfect praise and brings salvation.

Key Verse

“Praise the Lord! Praise God in his sanctuary; praise him in his mighty heavens!” – Psalm 150:1 This verse encapsulates the essence of the Psalms: a call to universal praise, recognizing God's majesty and His desire for His people to worship Him with all their heart, soul, and voice.

Psalm 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Way of the Righteous and the End of the Wicked”

The Blessed Path of the Righteous

1 Blessed is the one who does not walk in the advice of the wicked, or stand in the path of sinners, or sit in the seat of mockers.

Cross References: Jeremiah 17:7; Proverbs 1:10; Proverbs 4:14

2 Instead, his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on His law he meditates day and night.

Cross References: Joshua 1:8; Psalm 119:97; Deuteronomy 6:7

3 He is like a tree planted beside streams of water, which yields its fruit in its season and whose leaf does not wither.
Everything he does prospers.

Cross References: Jeremiah 17:8; Psalm 92:12; Ezekiel 47:12

The Fate of the Wicked

4 The wicked are not so;
they are like chaff that the wind blows away.

Cross References: Psalm 35:5; Job 21:18; Isaiah 17:13

5 Therefore, the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous.

Cross References: Psalm 76:7; Malachi 3:18; Matthew 25:32

Two Paths and Two Destinies

6 For the LORD watches over the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish.

Cross References: Proverbs 15:9; Nahum 1:7; Matthew 7:13

Key Lessons from Psalm 1

- 1. Our Influences Shape Our Destiny Avoiding the counsel and company of the ungodly protects us from being led astray.
 - “Blessed is the one who does not walk in the advice of the wicked.” (v. 1)
- 2. Delight in God’s Word Brings Stability Meditating on Scripture day and night roots us like a strong tree by the water.
 - “His delight is in the law of the LORD... like a tree planted by streams of water.” (vv. 2–3)
- 3. God’s Presence Sustains Fruitfulness The righteous will bear fruit in God’s timing, and their spiritual life will not wither.
 - “Yields its fruit in its season... its leaf does not wither.” (v. 3)
- 4. The Wicked Live Without Foundation Without God, life is unstable and directionless, like chaff blown by the wind.
 - “The wicked are... like chaff that the wind blows away.” (v. 4)
- 5. God Ultimately Judges and Rewards The LORD knows and guards the way of the righteous, but the path of the wicked ends in ruin.
 - “The LORD watches over the way of the righteous... the way of the wicked will perish.” (v. 6)

Psalm 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Reign of God’s Anointed King”

The Rebellion of the Nations

1 Why do the nations rage, and the peoples plot in vain?

Cross References: Acts 4:25; Psalm 83:5; Isaiah 8:9

2 The kings of the earth take their stand, and the rulers conspire together against the LORD and against His Anointed, saying,

Cross References: Acts 4:26; Revelation 19:19; Psalm 48:4

3 “Let us break their chains and throw off their cords from us!”

Cross References: Luke 19:14; Jeremiah 5:5; Job 21:14

God’s Response from Heaven

4 The One enthroned in heaven laughs;
the Lord scoffs at them.

Cross References: Psalm 37:13; Proverbs 1:26; Psalm 59:8

5 Then He speaks to them in His anger and terrifies them in His wrath, saying,

Cross References: Psalm 110:5; Revelation 6:16; Nahum 1:6

6 “I have installed My King on Zion, My holy mountain.”

Cross References: Isaiah 9:6; Zechariah 9:9; Daniel 2:44

The Decree of the Son

7 I will declare the LORD’s decree:
He said to me, “You are My Son;
today I have begotten You.

Cross References: Acts 13:33; Hebrews 1:5; Hebrews 5:5

8 Ask of Me, and I will make the nations Your inheritance, and the ends of the earth Your possession.

Cross References: Psalm 22:27; Psalm 72:8; Revelation 2:26

9 You will break them with a rod of iron;
You will shatter them like pottery.”

Cross References: Revelation 2:27; Revelation 19:15; Isaiah 30:14

A Warning to Earth’s Leaders

10 Therefore, be wise, O kings;
be warned, O rulers of the earth.

Cross References: Proverbs 8:15; Psalm 94:8; Job 34:18

11 Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

Cross References: Philippians 2:12; Psalm 100:2; Hebrews 12:28

12 Kiss the Son, lest He be angry and you perish in your rebellion, for His wrath may ignite suddenly.

Blessed are all who take refuge in Him.

Cross References: John 5:23; Psalm 34:8; Romans 9:33

Key Lessons from Psalm 2

- 1. The World Resists God's Rule Human leaders often reject God's authority, but their rebellion is futile.
- "The kings of the earth take their stand... against the LORD and His Anointed." (vv. 2–3)
- 2. God Reigns Unshaken No earthly power can threaten His plan; He rules with authority and certainty.
- "The One enthroned in heaven laughs." (v. 4)
- 3. Christ Is God's Appointed King This psalm prophetically points to Jesus, the Son of God, as ruler over all nations.
- "You are My Son... I will make the nations Your inheritance." (vv. 7–8)
- 4. His Judgment Is Certain Those who resist will face His righteous wrath and be broken.
- "You will break them with a rod of iron." (v. 9)
- 5. Blessing Belongs to the Trusting Submission to Christ and trust in Him bring safety, peace, and blessing.
- "Blessed are all who take refuge in Him." (v. 12)

Psalm 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

"The Lord Is My Shield"

A Psalm of David, when he fled from his son Absalom.

The Rising Tide of Trouble

1 LORD, how my foes have multiplied!

Many rise up against me.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 15:12; Psalm 25:19; Psalm 56:2

2 Many are saying of my soul,

"There is no help for him in God." Selah

Cross References: Psalm 71:11; Job 8:20; Psalm 42:10

God My Protector

3 But You, O LORD, are a shield around me, my glory, and the One who lifts up my head.

Cross References: Genesis 15:1; Psalm 28:7; Psalm 119:114

4 I cry aloud to the LORD, and He answers me from His holy mountain. Selah

Cross References: Psalm 34:6; Jonah 2:2; Psalm 18:6

Rest in the Midst of Danger

5 I lie down and sleep;
I wake again, because the LORD sustains me.

Cross References: Psalm 4:8; Proverbs 3:24; Job 11:18

6 I will not be afraid of tens of thousands of people who have set themselves against me on every side.

Cross References: Psalm 27:3; Psalm 56:4; Psalm 118:6

The Lord Delivers

7 Arise, O LORD! Save me, my God!
You strike all my enemies on the cheek;
You break the teeth of the wicked.

Cross References: Psalm 7:6; Job 29:17; Psalm 58:6

8 Salvation belongs to the LORD;
Your blessing be upon Your people. Selah

Cross References: Jonah 2:9; Revelation 7:10; Psalm 28:9

Key Lessons from Psalm 3

- 1. Troubles Will Multiply, but God Remains Even when opposition grows, God is not diminished.
- “Many are they that rise up against me.” (v. 1)
- 2. God Is Our Shield and Lifter of the Head His protection is both surrounding and uplifting.
- “You, O LORD, are a shield around me... the lifter up of my head.” (v. 3)
- 3. Prayer Brings Assurance God answers those who cry out to Him, even from places of deep despair.
- “I cried... and He heard me from His holy hill.” (v. 4)
- 4. Faith Gives Rest in the Storm Trusting in God’s care brings peace, even in danger.
- “I lay down and slept... for the LORD sustained me.” (v. 5)
- 5. Victory Belongs to the Lord Our deliverance is not from our strength but from His power.
- “Salvation belongs to the LORD.” (v. 8)

Psalm 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Peace in the Presence of God”

To the Chief Musician, on stringed instruments. A Psalm of David.

A Cry for Mercy

1 Answer me when I call, O God of my righteousness!

You have given me relief when I was in distress.

Be gracious to me and hear my prayer.

Cross References: Psalm 18:6; Psalm 34:17; Psalm 118:5

The Folly of Vanity

2 O sons of men, how long will you turn my glory into shame?

How long will you love what is worthless and seek after lies? Selah

Cross References: Psalm 62:4; Isaiah 5:20; Romans 1:25

3 But know this: the LORD has set apart the godly for Himself;

the LORD will hear when I call to Him.

Cross References: Psalm 34:15; 1 Peter 3:12; Deuteronomy 7:6

Walking in Reverence

4 Stand in awe, and do not sin.

Speak within your own heart on your bed, and be still. Selah

Cross References: Ephesians 4:26; Psalm 77:6; James 1:19

5 Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, and put your trust in the LORD.

Cross References: Psalm 51:19; Deuteronomy 33:19; Hebrews 13:15

The True Source of Joy and Safety

6 Many say, “Who will show us any good?”

LORD, lift up the light of Your face upon us.

Cross References: Numbers 6:25; Psalm 44:3; Psalm 67:1

7 You have filled my heart with more joy than when their grain and new wine abound.

Cross References: Psalm 97:11; Isaiah 9:3; Joel 2:19

8 I will both lie down in peace and sleep, for You alone, LORD, make me dwell in safety.

Cross References: Psalm 3:5; Leviticus 26:6; Proverbs 3:24

Key Lessons from Psalm 4

- 1. God Answers the Righteous in Distress He is both our righteousness and our deliverer in trouble.
- “You have given me relief when I was in distress.” (v. 1)
- 2. Reject Worthless Pursuits Chasing lies and vanity leads to shame; God calls us to truth.
- “How long will you love what is worthless and seek after lies?” (v. 2)
- 3. Holiness Brings God’s Favor God sets apart the godly for Himself and listens to their prayers.
- “The LORD will hear when I call to Him.” (v. 3)
- 4. Self-Examination Prevents Sin Quiet reflection in God’s presence fosters righteousness.
- “Speak within your own heart on your bed, and be still.” (v. 4)
- 5. Joy in God Surpasses Earthly Gain Spiritual gladness outweighs material prosperity.
- “You have filled my heart with more joy than when their grain and new wine abound.” (v. 7)
- 6. God Alone Gives Perfect Peace True rest comes from His protection, not from circumstances.
- “For You alone, LORD, make me dwell in safety.” (v. 8)

Psalm 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Morning Prayer for Guidance and Protection”

To the Chief Musician, with flutes. A Psalm of David.

A Plea for God’s Attention

1 Give ear to my words, O LORD;
consider my meditation.

Cross References: Psalm 55:1; Psalm 17:1; Psalm 86:6

2 Listen to the sound of my cry for help, my King and my God,
for to You I pray.

Cross References: Psalm 145:1; Psalm 84:3; Psalm 44:4

3 In the morning, LORD, You hear my voice; in the morning I will lay my request before You and eagerly watch.

Cross References: Psalm 88:13; Mark 1:35; Psalm 63:1

The Character of God Against Evil

4 For You are not a God who delights in wickedness; evil cannot dwell with You.

Cross References: Habakkuk 1:13; Psalm 11:5; 1 John 1:5

5 The arrogant will not stand in Your presence;
You hate all who do wrong.

Cross References: Psalm 75:4; Proverbs 6:16; Psalm 101:5

6 You destroy those who tell lies;
the LORD abhors the bloodthirsty and deceitful person.

Cross References: Proverbs 12:22; Revelation 21:8; Psalm 55:23

Entering God's Presence

7 But as for me,
by the abundance of Your mercy I will enter Your house;
in reverence I will bow down toward Your holy temple.

Cross References: Psalm 100:4; Psalm 138:2; Psalm 26:8

Guidance in the Face of Opposition

8 Lead me, O LORD, in Your righteousness because of my enemies—make Your way straight before me.

Cross References: Psalm 27:11; Proverbs 3:6; Psalm 143:10

9 For there is nothing reliable in their mouth;
their heart is filled with destruction.
Their throat is an open grave;
they flatter with their tongue.

Cross References: Romans 3:13; Jeremiah 9:8; Psalm 55:21

Judgment on the Wicked

10 Make them bear their guilt, O God;
let them fall by their own schemes.
Banish them for their many sins,
for they have rebelled against You.

Cross References: Psalm 7:16; Hosea 10:2; Proverbs 5:22

Joy and Protection for the Righteous

11 But let all who take refuge in You rejoice;
let them always shout for joy.
Spread Your protection over them, so that those who love Your name may rejoice in You.

Cross References: Psalm 32:11; Psalm 68:3; Isaiah 35:10

12 Surely You, LORD, bless the righteous;
You surround them with Your favor as with a shield.

Cross References: Psalm 91:4; Proverbs 10:6; Numbers 6:24

Key Lessons from Psalm 5

- 1. Prayer Should Begin the Day Starting the morning with prayer sets the tone for trust and guidance.
 - “In the morning I will lay my request before You and eagerly watch.” (v. 3)
- 2. God’s Nature Opposes Wickedness His holiness will not allow evil to remain in His presence.
 - “Evil cannot dwell with You.” (v. 4)
- 3. God Responds to the Humble The righteous approach Him with reverence, not pride.
 - “In reverence I will bow down toward Your holy temple.” (v. 7)
- 4. God’s Guidance is Needed for Every Step He makes the way straight when we face opposition.
 - “Make Your way straight before me.” (v. 8)
- 5. The Wicked Are Self-Destructive Sinful schemes often bring about the sinner’s own downfall.
 - “Let them fall by their own schemes.” (v. 10)
- 6. The Righteous Rejoice in God’s Protection Joy flows from knowing His favor surrounds like a shield.
 - “You surround them with Your favor as with a shield.” (v. 12)

Psalm 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Cry for Mercy in Time of Distress”

To the Chief Musician, with stringed instruments, on the Sheminith. A Psalm of David.

Plea for Mercy

1 O LORD, do not rebuke me in Your anger, or discipline me in Your hot displeasure.

Cross References: Jeremiah 10:24; Psalm 38:1; Habakkuk 3:2

2 Have mercy on me, LORD, for I am weak; heal me, LORD, for my bones are in anguish.

Cross References: Psalm 41:4; Jeremiah 17:14; Psalm 31:9

3 My soul is in deep distress.
But You, O LORD—how long?

Cross References: Psalm 13:1; John 12:27; Psalm 42:11

Appeal for Deliverance

4 Return, LORD, and rescue my soul;
save me because of Your steadfast love.

Cross References: Psalm 90:13; Psalm 25:16; Psalm 44:26

5 For in death no one remembers You; in the grave, who will give You thanks?

Cross References: Psalm 88:11; Isaiah 38:18; Ecclesiastes 9:10

Overwhelmed by Sorrow

6 I am worn out from my groaning;
all night long I flood my bed with weeping and drench my couch with tears.

Cross References: Psalm 69:3; Psalm 102:9; Jeremiah 9:1

7 My eyes are dim with grief;
they grow weak because of all my enemies.

Cross References: Psalm 31:9; Job 17:7; Lamentations 2:11

Confidence in God's Response

8 Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity, for the LORD has heard the sound of my weeping.

Cross References: Matthew 7:23; Psalm 119:115; Luke 13:27

9 The LORD has heard my plea;
the LORD accepts my prayer.

Cross References: 1 John 5:14; Psalm 66:19; Psalm 34:15

10 May all my enemies be ashamed and greatly troubled;
may they turn back in sudden disgrace.

Cross References: Psalm 35:4; Psalm 70:2; Psalm 83:17

Key Lessons from Psalm 6

- 1. God's Discipline is Meant to Correct, Not Destroy David pleads for mercy, showing that we can ask God to temper His discipline with compassion.
- "Do not rebuke me in Your anger." (v. 1)

- 2. Our Weakness Drives Us to God’s Mercy When physical and emotional strength fail, His steadfast love is our only hope.
- “Have mercy on me, LORD, for I am weak.” (v. 2)
- 3. Persistent Sorrow Can Lead to Deeper Faith Tears do not mean the absence of faith—they can be the soil where trust in God grows.
- “All night long I flood my bed with weeping.” (v. 6)
- 4. God Hears the Cry of the Brokenhearted We can be confident that our prayers are not ignored, even in our darkest nights.
- “The LORD has heard my plea.” (v. 9)
- 5. The Righteous Can Have Confidence in Final Justice Those who oppose God’s people will ultimately face shame and defeat.
- “May all my enemies be ashamed and greatly troubled.” (v. 10)

Psalm 7 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Prayer for Justice”

A Shiggaion of David, which he sang to the LORD concerning the words of Cush, a Benjamite.

Trusting God for Deliverance

1 O LORD my God, in You I take refuge;
 save me from all those who persecute me, and deliver me,
Cross References: Psalm 71:1; Psalm 57:1; Psalm 143:9

2 or they will tear my soul like a lion, dragging me away with no one to rescue.
Cross References: Psalm 22:13; 1 Peter 5:8; Psalm 17:12

Self-Examination Before God

3 O LORD my God, if I have done this—if there is injustice in my hands,
Cross References: Job 16:17; 1 Samuel 24:11; Psalm 26:6

4 if I have repaid evil to one who was at peace with me, or have plundered my enemy without cause—
Cross References: 1 Samuel 24:17; Proverbs 17:13; 1 Samuel 26:23

5 then let the enemy pursue me and overtake me;
 let him trample my life into the ground and lay my honor in the dust. Selah.
Cross References: Psalm 44:25; Lamentations 3:34; Psalm 143:3

Appeal for God's Righteous Judgment

6 Arise, O LORD, in Your anger; lift Yourself up against the fury of my enemies;
awake for me; You have decreed judgment.

Cross References: Psalm 3:7; Psalm 35:23; Psalm 94:2

7 Let the assembly of the peoples gather around You, and over them return on high.

Cross References: Psalm 96:13; Psalm 9:8; Psalm 22:27

8 The LORD will judge the nations.
Judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness and according to my integrity within me.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:32; Psalm 26:1; Psalm 35:24

9 Let the evil of the wicked come to an end, but establish the righteous; for the righteous God examines the hearts and minds.

Cross References: Jeremiah 11:20; Revelation 2:23; Jeremiah 17:10

God's Judgment Against the Wicked

10 My defense is with God, who saves the upright in heart.

Cross References: Psalm 18:2; Psalm 84:11; Genesis 15:1

11 God is a righteous judge, and a God who is angry with the wicked every day.

Cross References: Psalm 9:8; Nahum 1:2; Psalm 96:13

12 If he does not repent,
He will sharpen His sword;
He has bent His bow and made it ready.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:41; Lamentations 2:4; Ezekiel 21:9

13 He has prepared His deadly weapons;
He makes His flaming arrows for those who pursue evil.

Cross References: Ephesians 6:16; Psalm 45:5; Isaiah 5:28

14 Behold, the wicked man conceives evil, is pregnant with mischief,
and gives birth to lies.

Cross References: James 1:15; Isaiah 59:4; Job 15:35

15 He digs a pit and hollows it out, but falls into the hole he has made.

Cross References: Proverbs 26:27; Psalm 9:15; Psalm 57:6

16 His mischief returns on his own head, and his violence descends on his own skull.

Cross References: Esther 7:10; Psalm 94:23; Proverbs 5:22

Commitment to Praise

17 I will give thanks to the LORD for His righteousness and will sing praise to the name of the LORD Most High.

Cross References: Psalm 9:2; Psalm 92:1; 2 Samuel 22:50

Key Lessons from Psalm 7

- 1. God is the Only Safe Refuge in Persecution When human help fails, the believer can fully trust God for deliverance.
- “O LORD my God, in You I take refuge.” (v. 1)
- 2. Self-Examination Precedes Vindication David shows integrity by inviting God to search his heart before judging his enemies.
- “If I have done this... let the enemy pursue me.” (vv. 3–5)
- 3. God’s Judgment is Certain and Righteous The Lord examines hearts and minds, bringing the wicked to justice and upholding the righteous.
- “The righteous God examines the hearts and minds.” (v. 9)
- 4. Sin is Self-Destructive Those who plot evil often fall into their own traps.
- “He falls into the hole he has made.” (v. 15)
- 5. Praise is Fitting Before and After Deliverance Gratitude for God’s righteousness should be continual, not only after the victory is seen.
- “I will give thanks to the LORD for His righteousness.” (v. 17)

Psalm 8 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Majesty of God and the Dignity of Man”

To the Chief Musician upon Gittith. A Psalm of David.

God’s Glory in Creation

1 O LORD, our Lord,
how majestic is Your name in all the earth!
You have set Your glory above the heavens.

Cross References: Psalm 148:13; Psalm 113:4; Habakkuk 3:3

2 Out of the mouth of infants and nursing babies
You have established strength because of Your enemies, to silence the foe and the avenger.

Cross References: Matthew 21:16; Psalm 44:16; 1 Corinthians 1:27

The Wonder of God's Care for Humanity

3 When I consider Your heavens, the work of Your fingers,
the moon and the stars, which You have set in place—

Cross References: Psalm 19:1; Genesis 1:16; Isaiah 40:26

4 what is man that You are mindful of him, and the son of man that You care for him?

Cross References: Job 7:17; Hebrews 2:6; Psalm 144:3

Man's God-Given Authority

5 Yet You have made him a little lower than the heavenly beings, and crowned him with glory and honor.

Cross References: Hebrews 2:7; Genesis 1:27; Psalm 21:5

6 You made him ruler over the works of Your hands;
You have put all things under his feet:

Cross References: Genesis 1:28; 1 Corinthians 15:27; Hebrews 2:8

7 all sheep and oxen,
and also the beasts of the field,

Cross References: Genesis 2:20; Job 35:11; Genesis 1:24

8 the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatever passes along the paths of the seas.

Cross References: Genesis 1:26; Job 12:8; Genesis 9:2

Closing Praise

9 O LORD, our Lord,
how majestic is Your name in all the earth!

Cross References: Psalm 57:5; Psalm 104:24; Nehemiah 9:5

Key Lessons from Psalm 8

- 1. God's Name is Majestic Everywhere The Lord's glory is not confined to one nation or people—it fills the whole earth.
- “How majestic is Your name in all the earth!” (v. 1, 9)

- 2. God Uses the Weak to Defeat the Strong Even the praises of children demonstrate God's power to silence His enemies.
- "Out of the mouth of infants... You have established strength." (v. 2)
- 3. Creation Inspires Humility and Awe The vastness of the heavens reminds us how small we are and how great God is.
- "When I consider Your heavens... what is man?" (vv. 3–4)
- 4. Humanity is Crowned with God-Given Honor Though small in the universe, God has given mankind dominion and responsibility over creation.
- "You have crowned him with glory and honor." (v. 5)
- 5. Man's Authority is Stewardship, Not Ownership Everything is under man's feet by God's decree, meaning we must rule responsibly as caretakers of His creation.
- "You made him ruler over the works of Your hands." (v. 6)

Psalm 9 – Crawford Standard Bible

"Praise for God's Justice and Deliverance"

To the Chief Musician upon Muth-labben. A Psalm of David.

God's Judgment Against the Wicked

3 When my enemies turn back, they will stumble and perish before You.

Cross References: Psalm 27:2; Psalm 56:9; Psalm 6:10

4 For You have upheld my right and my cause;
You sit on Your throne judging in righteousness.

Cross References: Psalm 140:12; Jeremiah 11:20; Isaiah 11:4

5 You have rebuked the nations, destroyed the wicked, and erased their name forever and ever.

Cross References: Exodus 17:14; Deuteronomy 9:14; Psalm 34:16

6 O enemy, destruction has come to an end forever.
You have uprooted cities—their memory has perished with them.

Cross References: Isaiah 25:2; Jeremiah 51:64; Isaiah 26:14

The Lord's Eternal Reign

7 But the LORD will endure forever;
He has established His throne for judgment.

Cross References: Psalm 45:6; Lamentations 5:19; Psalm 93:2

8 He will judge the world with righteousness;
He will govern the peoples with uprightness.

Cross References: Psalm 96:13; Acts 17:31; Psalm 98:9

God the Refuge

9 The LORD is a refuge for the oppressed, a stronghold in times of trouble.

Cross References: Nahum 1:7; Psalm 46:1; Isaiah 25:4

10 Those who know Your name trust in You, for You, LORD, have never forsaken those who seek You.

Cross References: Psalm 37:25; Isaiah 41:17; Psalm 34:10

Proclaiming His Works

11 Sing praises to the LORD, who dwells in Zion; declare among the nations what He has done.

He does not forget the cry of the humble.

Cross References: Genesis 9:5; Psalm 10:14; Psalm 72:14

Personal Prayer for Deliverance

13 Have mercy on me, LORD;
see how my enemies afflict me,
You who lift me up from the gates of death—

Cross References: Psalm 30:3; Psalm 107:18; Psalm 86:13

14 that I may declare Your praise in the gates of the Daughter of Zion, and rejoice in Your salvation.

Cross References: Psalm 40:9; Isaiah 12:6; Psalm 118:19

The Fate of the Wicked

15 The nations have sunk into the pit they made; their own feet are caught in the net they hid.

Cross References: Psalm 7:15; Proverbs 26:27; Psalm 57:6

16 The LORD is known by the justice He brings;
the wicked are trapped by the work of their own hands.
Higgaion. Selah.

Cross References: Psalm 7:16; Proverbs 5:22; Job 4:8

17 The wicked will be turned into the grave—all the nations that forget God.

Cross References: Job 8:13; Psalm 50:22; Isaiah 5:14

Hope for the Oppressed

18 The needy will not always be forgotten;
the hope of the poor will never perish.

Cross References: Psalm 12:5; Luke 6:20; Psalm 68:10

19 Arise, LORD, do not let man prevail; let the nations be judged before You.

Cross References: Psalm 76:9; Psalm 68:1; Psalm 3:7

20 Put them in fear, LORD, that the nations may know they are only human.
Selah.

Cross References: Isaiah 2:22; Psalm 46:10; Job 25:6

Key Lessons from Psalm 9

- 1. Praise Should Be Wholehearted David's worship is not half-hearted—he praises God with his whole heart.
- “I will praise You... with all my heart.” (v. 1)
- 2. God Judges with Righteousness His judgments are not based on human bias but on perfect justice.
- “He will judge the world with righteousness.” (v. 8)
- 3. The Lord is a Refuge for the Oppressed Those who trust Him will never be abandoned, no matter the trouble.
- “You... have never forsaken those who seek You.” (v. 10)
- 4. The Wicked Fall into Their Own Traps Sinful schemes often backfire, leading to self-destruction.

- “The nations have sunk into the pit they made.” (v. 15)
- 5. God Does Not Forget the Needy Even when it feels like the poor are overlooked, God remembers them.
- “The hope of the poor will never perish.” (v. 18)

Psalm 10 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Cry for Justice Against the Wicked”

Why Does God Seem Distant?

1 LORD, why do You stand so far away?
Why do You hide Yourself in times of trouble?

Cross References: Psalm 22:1; Psalm 44:24; Habakkuk 1:2

2 In arrogance, the wicked pursue the poor;
let them be caught in the schemes they have devised.

Cross References: Psalm 17:9; Habakkuk 1:4; Proverbs 29:7

The Character of the Wicked

3 For the wicked boasts of the desires of his heart;
he blesses the greedy, whom the LORD detests.

Cross References: Psalm 49:6; Isaiah 5:20; 1 Timothy 6:10

4 In his pride, the wicked does not seek God;
all his thoughts are, “There is no God.”

Cross References: Psalm 14:1; Psalm 53:1; Romans 1:21

5 His ways are always prospering;
Your judgments are far beyond his sight;
he sneers at all his enemies.

Cross References: Job 21:7; Jeremiah 12:1; Malachi 3:15

6 He says in his heart, “I will never be shaken;
I will never face trouble.”

Cross References: Psalm 49:11; Revelation 18:7; Luke 12:19

7 His mouth is full of curses, deceit, and oppression; trouble and evil are under his tongue.

Cross References: Romans 3:14; Psalm 36:3; Psalm 140:3

Predatory Behavior

8 He lies in ambush near the villages;
in hidden places he murders the innocent;
his eyes secretly watch for the helpless.

Cross References: Psalm 17:12; Proverbs 1:11; Jeremiah 5:26

9 He lies in wait like a lion in his den;
he lurks to catch the poor;
he catches them and drags them into his net.

Cross References: Psalm 7:2; Lamentations 3:10; 1 Peter 5:8

10 He crouches low,
so the helpless fall into his strong grasp.

Cross References: Psalm 37:14; Proverbs 22:22; Habakkuk 1:15

11 He says in his heart, “God has forgotten;
He hides His face and will never see.”

Cross References: Psalm 94:7; Ezekiel 8:12; Psalm 73:11

A Plea for God’s Action

12 Arise, LORD! Lift up Your hand, O God; do not forget the humble.

Cross References: Psalm 9:12; Psalm 74:19; Psalm 82:8

13 Why does the wicked despise God and say in his heart, “You will not call me to account”?

Cross References: Psalm 94:7; Malachi 2:17; Ezekiel 9:9

14 But You have seen it;
You note trouble and grief,
to take it into Your hand.
The helpless commit themselves to You;
You are the helper of the fatherless.

Cross References: Hosea 14:3; Psalm 68:5; Psalm 56:8

15 Break the arm of the wicked and evildoer;
call his wickedness to account until none is found.

Cross References: Job 38:15; Ezekiel 30:22; Psalm 37:17

The Lord’s Justice Reigns

16 The LORD is King forever and ever;
the nations will perish from His land.

Cross References: Exodus 15:18; Revelation 11:15; Psalm 145:13

17 LORD, You have heard the desire of the humble;
You will strengthen their hearts;
You will listen with Your ear—

Cross References: Psalm 34:15; Isaiah 30:19; James 5:4

18 to bring justice to the fatherless and the oppressed, so that mere men may no longer terrify them.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 10:18; Isaiah 2:19; Psalm 68:5

Key Lessons from Psalm 10

- 1. God’s Seeming Distance is Not Abandonment Even when God seems far away, He sees and will act.
- “Why do You hide Yourself in times of trouble?” (v. 1)
- 2. The Wicked Live as if God Will Never Judge Pride blinds them to the reality of God’s justice.
- “There is no God... I will never be shaken.” (vv. 4, 6)
- 3. Oppression is a Predatory Act God Condemns The imagery of lurking lions shows the cruel intent of the wicked.
- “He lies in wait like a lion in his den.” (v. 9)
- 4. God is the Defender of the Helpless He hears the cry of the fatherless and the oppressed.
- “You are the helper of the fatherless.” (v. 14)
- 5. God’s Reign Brings Final Justice One day, human oppression will end, and His kingdom will prevail.
- “The LORD is King forever and ever.” (v. 16)

Psalm 11 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord Is My Refuge”

Confidence in God Despite Danger

1 In the LORD I take refuge.
How can you say to me,
“Flee to your mountain like a bird”?

Cross References: Psalm 62:7; Proverbs 18:10; Psalm 91:2

2 For look—the wicked bend their bows;
they set their arrows upon the string to shoot in secret at the upright in heart.

Cross References: Psalm 64:3; Psalm 37:14; Psalm 21:12

3 If the foundations are destroyed, what can the righteous do?

Cross References: Psalm 82:5; Psalm 75:3; Isaiah 19:10

The Lord's Sovereign Rule

4 The LORD is in His holy temple;
the LORD's throne is in heaven.
His eyes observe;
His gaze examines the children of men.

Cross References: Habakkuk 2:20; Psalm 33:13; Proverbs 15:3

5 The LORD tests the righteous, but His soul hates the wicked and those who love violence.

Cross References: Job 23:10; Psalm 5:5; Proverbs 11:20

Judgment for the Wicked

6 Upon the wicked He will rain snares, fire and brimstone, and scorching wind—this will be the portion of their cup.

Cross References: Genesis 19:24; Revelation 14:10; Ezekiel 38:22

Blessing for the Upright

7 For the LORD is righteous;
He loves righteous deeds;
the upright will behold His face.

Cross References: Psalm 33:5; 1 John 3:2; Matthew 5:8

Key Lessons from Psalm 11

- 1. Faith Is the Refuge of the Righteous When danger surrounds, our safety is in trusting God, not running in fear.
 - “In the LORD I take refuge.” (v. 1)
- 2. God's Throne Is Unshaken Even when earthly “foundations” crumble, heaven's throne stands firm.
 - “The LORD's throne is in heaven.” (v. 4)
- 3. God Tests His People Trials reveal the character of the righteous and expose the wicked.
 - “The LORD tests the righteous.” (v. 5)
- 4. Judgment Is Certain for the Wicked Fire, brimstone, and storm imagery show God's justice will be swift and sure.

- “This will be the portion of their cup.” (v. 6)
- 5. The Upright Will See God’s Face Eternal reward awaits those who walk in righteousness.
- “The upright will behold His face.” (v. 7)

Psalm 12 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God’s Words Are Pure”

The Disappearance of the Faithful

1 Help, LORD!

For the godly are no more;
the faithful have vanished from among the children of men.

Cross References: Micah 7:2; Isaiah 57:1; 2 Timothy 3:1

2 Everyone lies to his neighbor;
with flattering lips and a double heart they speak.

Cross References: Ephesians 4:25; Jeremiah 9:8; Proverbs 26:24

God’s Judgment on Deceptive Speech

3 The LORD will cut off all flattering lips and every boastful tongue—

Cross References: Proverbs 26:28; Psalm 5:9; Psalm 120:2

4 those who say,
“With our tongues we will prevail;
our lips are our own—who is lord over us?”

Cross References: Psalm 73:9; Exodus 5:2; Daniel 4:30

God’s Promise to the Oppressed

5 “Because of the oppression of the poor, because of the groaning of the needy,
now I will arise,” says the LORD.
“I will place him in the safety for which he longs.”

Cross References: Isaiah 33:10; Psalm 68:5; Psalm 76:9

The Purity of God’s Word

6 The words of the LORD are pure words, like silver refined in a furnace of clay, purified seven times.

Cross References: Psalm 19:9; Proverbs 30:5; Psalm 18:30

7 You, LORD, will keep them;
You will preserve them from this generation forever.

Cross References: Psalm 121:7; John 17:11; Psalm 97:10

The Rule of the Wicked

8 The wicked prowl on every side when what is vile is honored among the children of men.

Cross References: Micah 2:1; Habakkuk 1:4; Isaiah 5:20

Key Lessons from Psalm 12

- 1. Faithfulness Can Grow Rare In times of moral decline, godly people may seem few, but God still hears the cry of the righteous.
 - “Help, LORD! For the godly are no more.” (v. 1)
- 2. God Hates Deceptive Speech Flattery, pride, and lies provoke God’s judgment.
 - “The LORD will cut off all flattering lips.” (v. 3)
- 3. God Acts for the Oppressed The Lord rises to defend the poor and needy against those who exploit them.
 - “Now I will arise... I will place him in safety.” (v. 5)
- 4. God’s Word Is Absolutely Pure His promises are tested, trustworthy, and unchanging.
 - “The words of the LORD are pure words.” (v. 6)
- 5. Evil Grows When the Corrupt Are Honored Societies decay when the vile are exalted instead of the righteous.
 - “When what is vile is honored among men.” (v. 8)

Psalm 13 – Crawford Standard Bible

“From Despair to Praise”

A Cry of Abandonment

1 How long, LORD? Will You forget me forever?
How long will You hide Your face from me?

Cross References: Psalm 10:1; Psalm 44:24; Psalm 89:46

2 How long must I wrestle with my thoughts, having sorrow in my heart day after day?
How long will my enemy be exalted over me?

Cross References: Psalm 6:3; Psalm 42:9; Lamentations 3:17

A Plea for God’s Intervention

3 Look on me and answer, LORD my God.
Give light to my eyes, or I will sleep in death,

Cross References: Psalm 19:8; 1 Samuel 14:29; Jeremiah 51:39

4 and my enemy will say, “I have prevailed over him,” and my foes will rejoice when I fall.

Cross References: Psalm 25:2; Psalm 35:19; Psalm 38:16

A Declaration of Trust and Praise

5 But I have trusted in Your mercy;
my heart will rejoice in Your salvation.

Cross References: Psalm 52:8; Psalm 33:21; Isaiah 12:2

6 I will sing to the LORD, because He has been good to me.

Cross References: Psalm 116:7; Psalm 103:2; Psalm 57:2

Key Lessons from Psalm 13

- 1. It’s Okay to Ask “How Long?” Even people of great faith can feel forgotten, but God’s silence does not mean His absence.
 - “How long will You hide Your face from me?” (v. 1)
- 2. God Wants Honest Prayers David brings his raw emotions before God, showing that we can cry out without fear of rejection.
 - “How long must I wrestle with my thoughts...?” (v. 2)
- 3. God Is Our Source of Light and Life Without His intervention, we are powerless against despair and defeat.
 - “Give light to my eyes, or I will sleep in death.” (v. 3)
- 4. Faith Chooses to Trust Before the Answer Comes David moves from lament to confidence in God’s mercy and salvation.
 - “But I have trusted in Your mercy.” (v. 5)
- 5. Praise Is the Final Word No matter the trial, God’s goodness is reason enough to sing.
 - “I will sing to the LORD, because He has been good to me.” (v. 6)

Psalm 14 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Folly of Denying God”

The Heart of the Fool

1 The fool says in his heart, “There is no God.”
They are corrupt; their deeds are vile;

there is no one who does good.

Cross References: Romans 3:10; Psalm 53:1; Titus 1:16

God's Search for the Righteous

2 The LORD looks down from heaven on all mankind to see if there are any who understand, any who seek after God.

Cross References: Psalm 33:13; Psalm 53:2; Genesis 11:5

3 But all have turned away;
all alike have become corrupt.
There is no one who does good—not even one.

Cross References: Romans 3:12; Psalm 53:3; Isaiah 53:6

The Ignorance of the Wicked

4 Do all these evildoers know nothing?
They devour My people as they eat bread and do not call upon the LORD.

Cross References: Psalm 53:4; Micah 3:3; Proverbs 30:14

The Terror of the Ungodly

5 But there they are, overwhelmed with dread, for God is present among the generation of the righteous.

Cross References: Psalm 53:5; Proverbs 28:1; Proverbs 14:26

6 You evildoers frustrate the plans of the poor, but the LORD is their refuge.

Cross References: Psalm 9:9; Psalm 46:1; Proverbs 14:32

The Hope of God's Salvation

7 Oh, that salvation for Israel would come out of Zion!
When the LORD restores His people, let Jacob rejoice, and Israel be glad!

Cross References: Psalm 53:6; Psalm 126:1; Romans 11:26

Key Lessons from Psalm 14

- 1. Atheism Is Not Just Intellectual—It's Moral Scripture says that denying God springs from corruption, not just lack of evidence.

- “The fool says in his heart, ‘There is no God.’” (v. 1)
- 2. God Sees and Judges All Humanity His gaze searches for those who truly understand and seek Him.
- “The LORD looks down from heaven...” (v. 2)
- 3. Sin Is Universal Apart from God’s grace, no one is righteous.
- “There is no one who does good, no, not one.” (v. 3)
- 4. The Wicked Oppress God’s People Without Fear But the presence of God with the righteous will ultimately bring them dread.
- “God is present among the generation of the righteous.” (v. 5)
- 5. God’s Salvation Will Bring Joy The day He delivers His people will be a day of great rejoicing.
- “When the LORD restores His people, Jacob shall rejoice...” (v. 7)

Psalm 15 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Character of Those Who May Dwell with God”

The Question of Fellowship with God

1 LORD, who may dwell in Your tabernacle?

Who may live on Your holy hill?

Cross References: Psalm 24:3; Isaiah 33:15; Hebrews 12:14

The Answer: A Life of Integrity

2 The one who walks uprightly, who works righteousness,
and speaks the truth from the heart;

Cross References: Psalm 24:4; Proverbs 11:3; Ephesians 4:25

3 who does not slander with the tongue, does no harm to a neighbor,
and does not cast reproach upon a friend;

Cross References: Proverbs 11:13; James 4:11; Leviticus 19:16

4 who despises a vile person, but honors those who fear the LORD;
who keeps an oath even when it hurts,
and does not change;

Cross References: 1 Samuel 2:30; Malachi 3:16; Ecclesiastes 5:4

5 who lends money without charging interest, and refuses to take a bribe against the innocent.

Cross References: Exodus 22:25; Ezekiel 18:8; Proverbs 12:3

The Promise

Whoever does these things will never be shaken.

Key Lessons from Psalm 15

- 1. God's Presence Is for the Righteous Fellowship with Him is not for the casual believer, but for those who walk in holiness.
 - “Who may dwell in Your tabernacle?” (v. 1)
- 2. Integrity Is Both Action and Speech Living uprightly means doing what is right and speaking truth from the heart.
 - “Works righteousness and speaks the truth in his heart.” (v. 2)
- 3. Love for Others Is Evidence of Righteousness Refusing to slander, harm, or take advantage of others is central to godly character.
 - “Does no harm to a neighbor.” (v. 3)
- 4. Godly People Keep Their Word True righteousness keeps promises even when it costs something.
 - “Keeps an oath even when it hurts.” (v. 4)
- 5. Unshakable Stability Comes from Holiness Those who live this way stand firm, no matter the storm.
 - “Shall never be moved.” (v. 5)

Psalm 16 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord, My Portion and My Hope”

Trust in God Alone

1 Preserve me, O God,
for I take refuge in You.

Cross References: Psalm 25:20; Psalm 7:1; Psalm 11:1

2 I said to the LORD, “You are my Lord;
my goodness is nothing apart from You.

Cross References: Job 22:2; Job 35:7; Romans 11:35

3 My delight is in the saints who are in the land, the noble ones in whom I take pleasure.

Cross References: Psalm 119:63; Malachi 3:16; 1 Peter 1:2

4 Those who run after other gods will have many sorrows;
I will not pour out their drink offerings of blood, nor speak their names with my lips.

Cross References: Exodus 23:13; Psalm 106:38; Deuteronomy 32:38

God Is My Inheritance

5 LORD, You are the portion of my inheritance and my cup;
You maintain my lot.

Cross References: Psalm 73:26; Lamentations 3:24; Numbers 18:20

6 The boundary lines have fallen for me in pleasant places;
indeed, I have a beautiful inheritance.

Cross References: Psalm 47:4; Deuteronomy 32:9; Numbers 26:53

The Lord My Guide and Strength

7 I will bless the LORD who counsels me;
even at night my heart instructs me.

Cross References: Psalm 32:8; Psalm 4:4; Psalm 17:3

8 I have set the LORD always before me; because He is at my right hand, I will not be shaken.

Cross References: Acts 2:25; Psalm 121:5; Psalm 62:6

Unshakable Joy and Eternal Hope

9 Therefore my heart is glad, and my whole being rejoices; my body also will rest secure.

Cross References: Acts 2:26; Psalm 30:12; Romans 8:24

10 For You will not abandon my soul to Sheol, nor allow Your Holy One to see decay.

Cross References: Acts 2:27; Acts 13:35; Acts 2:31

11 You will make known to me the path of life;
in Your presence is fullness of joy;
at Your right hand are pleasures forevermore.

Cross References: Acts 2:28; Psalm 36:8; John 15:11

Key Lessons from Psalm 16

- 1. God Is Our Only Safe Refuge True security comes from trusting in Him alone.
- “Preserve me, O God, for I take refuge in You.” (v. 1)
- 2. Our Inheritance Is Spiritual, Not Material The Lord Himself is our portion and our cup.

- “You are the portion of my inheritance.” (v. 5)
- 3. God’s Guidance Brings Stability Setting the Lord always before us keeps us from being shaken.
- “Because He is at my right hand, I will not be moved.” (v. 8)
- 4. Christ Is the Fulfillment of This Psalm Verse 10 prophetically points to Jesus’ resurrection, as Peter preached in Acts 2:25–32.
- 5. Eternal Joy Is Found in God’s Presence Life’s true satisfaction is not in earthly pleasures but in being with Him forever.
- “In Your presence is fullness of joy.” (v. 11)

Psalm 17 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Prayer for God’s Protection and Justice”

A Call for God’s Attention

1 Hear my righteous plea, O LORD;
listen to my cry.
Give ear to my prayer—
it does not come from deceitful lips.

Cross References: Psalm 5:1; Psalm 55:1; James 1:6

2 Let my vindication come from You; may Your eyes see what is right.

Cross References: Psalm 9:4; Psalm 37:6; Psalm 43:1

A Tested Heart

3 You have examined my heart;
You have visited me in the night;
You have tested me and found nothing;
I have resolved that my mouth will not sin.

Cross References: Psalm 26:2; Psalm 139:23; Job 23:10

4 By the words of Your lips
I have kept myself from the paths of the violent.

Cross References: Psalm 119:9; Psalm 119:104; Proverbs 4:14

5 My steps have held to Your paths;
my feet have not slipped.

Cross References: Psalm 37:31; Psalm 40:2; Proverbs 4:26

A Plea for Deliverance

6 I call on You, O God, for You will answer me; turn Your ear to me and hear my prayer.

Cross References: Psalm 116:2; Psalm 86:1; Jeremiah 33:3

7 Show me the wonders of Your faithful love,
You who save by Your right hand
those who take refuge in You from their foes.

Cross References: Psalm 31:21; Psalm 138:7; Ruth 2:12

8 Keep me as the apple of Your eye; hide me in the shadow of Your wings

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:10; Psalm 36:7; Psalm 91:4

9 from the wicked who attack me, from my mortal enemies who surround me.

Cross References: Psalm 22:16; Psalm 27:2; Psalm 118:11

The Threat of the Wicked

10 They close their hearts to compassion; with their mouths they speak arrogantly.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:15; Job 15:27; Psalm 73:7

11 They have tracked me down, now they surround me;
their eyes are set to throw me to the ground,

Cross References: Psalm 140:5; Psalm 56:6; Job 16:9

12 like a lion eager to tear its prey, like a young lion lurking in secret places.

Cross References: Psalm 10:9; Psalm 22:13; 1 Peter 5:8

God, Arise in Judgment

13 Rise up, LORD, confront them, bring them down;
rescue me from the wicked by Your sword.

Cross References: Psalm 3:7; Psalm 7:6; Isaiah 10:5

14 Rescue me from mortals by Your hand, O LORD, from people whose portion is in this life.
You fill their bellies with what You have stored up;
their children are satisfied,
and they leave their surplus to their little ones.

Cross References: Luke 12:19; Job 21:11; Psalm 49:16

Hope in God's Presence

15 As for me, I will see Your face in righteousness;
when I awake, I will be satisfied with Your likeness.

Cross References: 1 John 3:2; Psalm 16:11; Job 19:26

Key Lessons from Psalm 17

- 1. God Hears the Honest Prayer A sincere, truth-filled prayer draws God's attention.
- "My prayer... does not come from deceitful lips." (v. 1)
- 2. A Life Guarded by God's Word Stays on the Right Path Scripture keeps us from straying into the way of the violent.
- "By the words of Your lips I have kept myself from the paths of the violent." (v. 4)
- 3. God's Love Protects Like a Shield His care is as personal as protecting the apple of His eye.
- "Hide me in the shadow of Your wings." (v. 8)
- 4. The Wicked Seek Earthly Gain, the Righteous Seek God's Face Those of the world live for this life alone, but the righteous long for God's presence.
- "When I awake, I will be satisfied with Your likeness." (v. 15)

Psalm 18 – Crawford Standard Bible

"The LORD My Rock, Fortress, and Deliverer"

A Declaration of Love and Trust

1 I love You, O LORD, my strength.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 6:5; Psalm 116:1; 1 John 4:19

2 The LORD is my rock, my fortress, and my deliverer;
my God, my strength, in whom I trust;
my shield, the horn of my salvation, and my stronghold.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 22:2; Psalm 62:2; Psalm 144:2

3 I call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised, and I am saved from my enemies.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 22:4; Psalm 96:4; Psalm 145:3

God's Rescue in Distress

4 The cords of death entangled me;
the torrents of destruction overwhelmed me.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 22:5; Psalm 116:3; Jonah 2:5

5 The cords of the grave surrounded me;
the snares of death confronted me.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 22:6; Psalm 116:3; Psalm 55:4

6 In my distress I called to the LORD;
I cried to my God for help.
From His temple He heard my voice;
my cry came before Him, into His ears.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 22:7; Jonah 2:2; Psalm 120:1

The LORD Comes in Power

7 Then the earth shook and trembled;
the foundations of the mountains quaked and were shaken, because He was angry.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 22:8; Judges 5:4; Habakkuk 3:6

8 Smoke rose from His nostrils; consuming fire came from His mouth;
burning coals blazed out of it.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 22:9; Deuteronomy 32:22; Job 41:20 9 He parted the heavens and came down;

dark clouds were under His feet.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 22:10; Psalm 144:5; Micah 1:3

10 He mounted a cherub and flew;
He soared on the wings of the wind.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 22:11; Psalm 104:3; Ezekiel 1:4

11 He made darkness His covering—His canopy around Him—dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 22:12; 1 Kings 8:12; Job 36:29

12 From the brightness of His presence, clouds passed with hailstones and burning coals.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 22:13; Exodus 9:23; Job 38:22

13 The LORD thundered from heaven;
the Most High raised His voice—hailstones and burning coals.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 22:14; Job 37:4; Psalm 29:3

14 He shot His arrows and scattered the enemy;
He hurled lightning and routed them.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 22:15; Habakkuk 3:11; 1 Samuel 7:10

15 The valleys of the sea were exposed, and the foundations of the earth laid bare at Your rebuke, O LORD,
at the blast of breath from Your nostrils.

Key Lessons from Psalm 18

- 1. God is a Personal Refuge David's relationship with God is deeply personal—He is my rock, my fortress, my deliverer.
- 2. God Responds Powerfully to the Cry of His People When the righteous cry out, God moves heaven and earth to deliver.
- 3. God Rewards Faithfulness A life lived in obedience to His commands brings His favor and blessing.
- 4. God Equips for the Battle He provides strength, skill, and victory for every challenge faced in His name.
- 5. The LORD is Exalted Above All Nations His reign extends over all people, and His name will be praised among the nations.

Psalm 19 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God’s Glory in Creation and His Perfect Word”

Creation Declares God’s Glory

1 The heavens declare the glory of God;
the skies proclaim the work of His hands.

Cross References: Romans 1:20; Psalm 97:6; Job 12:7

2 Day after day they pour forth speech; night after night they reveal knowledge.

Cross References: Genesis 1:14; Psalm 74:16; Job 38:12

3 There is no speech, no language, where their voice is not heard.

Cross References: Romans 10:18; Acts 14:17; Psalm 65:8

4 Their message has gone out into all the earth, their words to the ends of the world.
In the heavens He has pitched a tent for the sun,

Cross References: Romans 10:18; Genesis 1:16; Habakkuk 3:11

5 which is like a bridegroom coming from his chamber, like a champion rejoicing to run his course.

Cross References: Isaiah 61:10; Hebrews 12:1; 1 Corinthians 9:24

6 It rises at one end of the heavens and makes its circuit to the other;
nothing is hidden from its heat.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 1:5; Malachi 4:2; Hebrews 4:13

The Perfection of God's Word

7 The law of the LORD is perfect, reviving the soul.
The testimony of the LORD is trustworthy, making wise the simple.

10 They are more desirable than gold, than much pure gold;
they are sweeter than honey,
than honey from the honeycomb.

Cross References: Psalm 119:72; Psalm 119:103; Proverbs 8:19

11 By them Your servant is warned; in keeping them there is great reward.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 4:40; 1 John 5:3; Matthew 5:19

A Prayer for Purity and Integrity

12 Who can discern his own errors?
Forgive my hidden faults.

Cross References: Job 9:2; Leviticus 4:2; Psalm 90:8

13 Keep Your servant also from willful sins;
let them not rule over me.
Then I will be blameless, innocent of great transgression.

Cross References: Numbers 15:30; Romans 6:14; Psalm 119:133

14 May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable to You,
O LORD, my Rock and my Redeemer.

Cross References: Psalm 104:34; Job 19:25; Psalm 78:35

Key Lessons from Psalm 19

- 1. Creation Testifies of God’s Glory The heavens and the natural order continually proclaim the greatness of the Creator to all nations.
- 2. God’s Word is Perfect and Transforming His law revives the soul, imparts wisdom, and brings joy and light to the believer’s life.
- 3. God’s Judgments are Pure and Desirable His truth is more valuable than gold and sweeter than honey—true riches are found in knowing and obeying Him.
- 4. Obedience Brings Blessing Following God’s commands protects us from sin and carries great reward.
- 5. Personal Holiness Requires God’s Help Even hidden faults and willful sins must be brought before God for cleansing, so our words and thoughts please Him.

Confidence in God's Deliverance

6 Now I know that the LORD saves His anointed;
He answers him from His holy heaven with the saving power of His right hand.

Cross References: Psalm 2:2; Psalm 28:8; 1 Kings 8:49

7 Some trust in chariots and some in horses, but we trust in the name of the LORD our God.

Cross References: Isaiah 31:1; Proverbs 21:31; Psalm 33:17

8 They collapse and fall, but we rise and stand firm.

Cross References: Exodus 15:1; Psalm 27:2; Isaiah 43:17

9 O LORD, save the king!
Answer us when we call.

Cross References: Psalm 3:8; Psalm 72:1; Jeremiah 17:14

Key Lessons from Psalm 20

- 1. God Hears His People in Trouble In our distress, we can cry out to the God of Jacob, knowing He defends and strengthens His own.

- 2. God Delights to Bless the Righteous He remembers the worship and offerings of His people and grants success according to His will.
- 3. True Victory Comes from the Lord Earthly power—chariots, horses, or human strength—cannot save. Only trust in God ensures lasting triumph.
- 4. Faith Gives Confidence Believers can stand upright even when others fall, because our confidence is in God’s name and power.

- 2. God’s Guidance Requires Humility – The LORD teaches and leads those who come to Him with a meek heart.
- 3. Mercy Covers Our Past – Our youthful sins and past failures can be forgiven because of God’s covenant love.
- 4. The Fear of the LORD Brings Blessing – Those who revere God enjoy His instruction, peace, and lasting inheritance.
- 5. Prayer Should Be Both Personal and Corporate – We pray not only for our own deliverance, but also for the redemption of God’s people.

Psalm 26 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Plea for Vindication and Integrity”

A Request for God’s Judgment

1 Judge me, O LORD, for I have walked in my integrity;
I have also trusted in the LORD without wavering.

Cross References: Psalm 7:8; Job 31:6; 1 Kings 9:4

2 Examine me, O LORD, and test me;
try my heart and my mind.

Cross References: Psalm 139:23; Jeremiah 17:10; Psalm 17:3

3 For Your faithful love is before my eyes, and I have walked in Your truth.

Cross References: Psalm 86:11; Psalm 40:11; 2 Kings 20:3

Separation from the Wicked

4 I have not sat with the deceitful, nor will I associate with hypocrites.

Cross References: Psalm 1:1; Proverbs 4:14; 1 Corinthians 15:33

5 I have hated the assembly of evildoers, and I will not sit with the wicked.

Cross References: Proverbs 1:15; Psalm 139:21; Jeremiah 15:17

Worship in Purity

6 I will wash my hands in innocence, and I will go around Your altar, O LORD,

Cross References: Matthew 27:24; Psalm 24:4; Isaiah 1:16

7 proclaiming with the voice of thanksgiving and telling of all Your wondrous works.

Cross References: Psalm 9:1; Psalm 107:22; Psalm 40:5

the place where Your glory resides.

Cross References: Psalm 27:4; Psalm 84:1; Psalm 122:1

A Plea for Redemption

9 Do not sweep away my soul with sinners, nor my life with bloodthirsty men,

Cross References: Genesis 49:6; Psalm 28:3; Proverbs 1:15

10 in whose hands are wicked schemes, and whose right hand is full of bribes.

Cross References: Isaiah 1:23; Micah 7:3; Exodus 23:8

11 But as for me, I will walk in my integrity; redeem me and be gracious to me.

Cross References: Psalm 41:12; Job 27:5; Proverbs 20:7

12 My foot stands on level ground;
in the assemblies I will bless the LORD.

Cross References: Psalm 40:2; Psalm 111:1; Psalm 149:1

Key Lessons from Psalm 26

- 1. Integrity Invites God's Examination – A pure heart can confidently stand before the LORD, even when tested.
- 2. Separation from Evil Is Necessary for Holiness – God's people must avoid close fellowship with the deceitful and corrupt.
- 3. Worship Requires Purity – Approaching God's altar with innocence and thanksgiving reflects a heart ready for His presence.
- 4. Love for God's House Is a Sign of Devotion – Genuine faith treasures the gathering place of God's glory.
- 5. Redemption Is Coupled with Righteous Living – God's mercy works hand in hand with a life committed to integrity.

Psalm 27 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The LORD, My Light and My Salvation”

Confidence in God's Protection

1 The LORD is my light and my salvation—whom shall I fear?
The LORD is the strength of my life—of whom shall I be afraid?

Cross References: John 8:12; Micah 7:8; Isaiah 12:2

2 When the wicked advance against me to devour me, it is my enemies and foes who stumble and fall.

Cross References: Psalm 118:6; Psalm 35:1; Daniel 6:24

3 Though an army encamps against me, my heart will not fear;
though war breaks out against me, even then I will be confident.

Cross References: Psalm 46:1; Romans 8:31; Psalm 3:6

A Single Desire

4 One thing I have asked from the LORD—this is what I seek:
that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to gaze upon the beauty of the LORD and to seek Him in His temple.

Cross References: Psalm 26:8; Luke 10:42; Psalm 84:10

5 For in the day of trouble He will hide me in His shelter; in the secret place of His tent He will hide me;
He will set me high upon a rock.

Cross References: Psalm 31:20; Psalm 61:4; Isaiah 32:2

6 Now my head will be lifted up above my enemies around me;
therefore I will offer sacrifices of joy in His tent;
I will sing and make music to the LORD.

Cross References: Psalm 3:3; Psalm 118:15; Hebrews 13:15

A Cry for God's Presence

7 Hear me, O LORD, when I cry aloud; have mercy on me and answer me.

Cross References: Psalm 4:1; Psalm 86:6; Jeremiah 33:3

8 My heart says of You, "Seek His face!"
Your face, LORD, I will seek.

Cross References: Psalm 105:4; 2 Chronicles 7:14; Psalm 24:6

9 Do not hide Your face from me;
do not turn Your servant away in anger.
You have been my helper;
do not abandon or forsake me,
O God of my salvation.

Cross References: Psalm 69:17; Hebrews 13:5; Deuteronomy 31:6

10 Though my father and mother forsake me, the LORD will take me in.

Cross References: Isaiah 49:15; John 14:18; Psalm 68:5

A Prayer for Guidance and Deliverance

11 Teach me Your way, O LORD, and lead me in a straight path because of my enemies.

Cross References: Psalm 25:4; Psalm 143:10; Proverbs 3:6

12 Do not hand me over to the will of my foes, for false witnesses have risen against me, breathing out violence.

Cross References: Psalm 35:11; Matthew 26:59; Psalm 41:2

Faith While Waiting

13 I would have lost heart, if I had not believed that I would see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living.

Cross References: Psalm 116:9; Psalm 142:5; Jeremiah 32:27

14 Wait for the LORD;
be strong and let your heart take courage;
wait for the LORD.

Cross References: Isaiah 40:31; Psalm 37:34; Lamentations 3:25

Key Lessons from Psalm 27

- 4. Faith Requires Persistent Seeking – Even when God feels distant, we must still pursue His face.
- 5. God's Care Surpasses Human Abandonment – Even if family fails, the LORD never forsakes His own.
- 6. Hope Sustains Through Waiting – Courage and strength grow when we trust God's timing.

Psalm 28 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The LORD, My Strength and My Shield”

A Plea for God's Response

1 To You, O LORD, I call; my Rock, do not be silent toward me.
If You remain silent, I will be like those who go down to the grave.

Cross References: Psalm 18:2; Psalm 35:22; Psalm 143:7

2 Hear the voice of my cry for mercy when I call to You for help, when I lift up my hands toward Your holy sanctuary.

Cross References: 1 Timothy 2:8; Psalm 141:2; Psalm 5:2

A Prayer for Justice

3 Do not drag me away with the wicked, with those who do evil,
who speak peace with their neighbors while evil fills their hearts.

Cross References: Jeremiah 9:8; Psalm 55:21; Proverbs 26:24

4 Repay them according to their deeds and according to the evil of their actions.
Give them what their hands have earned;

render to them what they deserve.

Cross References: Psalm 62:12; Jeremiah 17:10; Revelation 20:12

5 Because they do not regard the works of the LORD or the actions of His hands,
He will tear them down and never rebuild them.

Cross References: Isaiah 5:12; Psalm 92:6; Jeremiah 5:12

Praise for God's Deliverance

6 Blessed be the LORD, for He has heard the voice of my supplications.

Cross References: Psalm 66:19; Psalm 116:1; 1 John 5:14

7 The LORD is my strength and my shield;
my heart trusts in Him, and I am helped.
Therefore my heart greatly rejoices, and with my song I will praise Him.

Cross References: Exodus 15:2; Psalm 118:14; Psalm 84:11

A Prayer for God's People

8 The LORD is the strength of His people;
He is the saving refuge of His anointed.

Cross References: Psalm 20:6; Habakkuk 3:19; Isaiah 45:17

9 Save Your people and bless Your inheritance; shepherd them and carry them forever.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 9:29; Isaiah 63:9; 1 Peter 5:2

Key Lessons from Psalm 28

- 1. God's Silence Feels Like Death – Without His voice, the soul sinks into despair.
- 2. Prayer Must Be Honest and Direct – Lifting our hands toward God's sanctuary reflects dependence and surrender.
- 3. God Judges Hidden Hypocrisy – He sees beyond words to the true condition of the heart.
- 4. Ignoring God's Works Leads to Ruin – Those who disregard His hand will face destruction.
- 5. Trust Brings Joy – Faith in God's protection produces both help and heartfelt praise.
- 6. God is the Strength of His People – He both saves and continually carries His flock.

Psalm 29 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Voice of the LORD in the Storm”

Psalm 30 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Joy Comes in the Morning”

Praise for God’s Rescue

1 I will praise You, LORD, for You lifted me up and did not let my enemies rejoice over me.

Cross References: Psalm 34:1; Psalm 118:21; Exodus 15:2

2 LORD my God, I cried out to You for help, and You healed me.

Cross References: Psalm 103:3; Jeremiah 17:14; Exodus 15:26

3 LORD, You brought me up from the grave;
You kept me alive so I would not go down into the pit.

Cross References: Psalm 86:13; Jonah 2:6; Psalm 71:20

A Call to Thankfulness

4 Sing to the LORD, you who belong to Him;
give thanks as you remember His holiness.

Cross References: Psalm 97:12; 1 Chronicles 16:4; Psalm 135:3

5 His anger lasts only for a moment, but His favor lasts a lifetime.
Weeping may stay for the night,
but joy comes in the morning.

Cross References: Isaiah 54:7; Lamentations 3:22; Revelation 21:4

A Lesson in Humility

6 When I was secure, I said,
“I will never be shaken.”

Cross References: Psalm 10:6; Daniel 4:30; Jeremiah 22:21

but when You hid Your face, I was troubled.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 8:18; Isaiah 54:8; Psalm 104:29

A Cry for Mercy

8 I cried to You, LORD;
I begged my Lord for help:

Cross References: Psalm 142:1; Jonah 2:2; Psalm 34:6

9 “What gain is there if I am dead, if I go down to the grave?
Will the dust praise You?
Will it proclaim Your truth?”

Cross References: Psalm 6:5; Isaiah 38:18; Psalm 88:10

10 Hear me, LORD, and have mercy on me;
LORD, be my helper.

Cross References: Psalm 4:1; Psalm 27:7; Psalm 86:16

From Mourning to Dancing

11 You turned my mourning into dancing;
You removed my sackcloth
and clothed me with joy,

Cross References: Jeremiah 31:13; Isaiah 61:3; Esther 9:22

12 so that my heart may sing praises to You and not be silent.
LORD my God, I will give You thanks forever.

Cross References: Psalm 108:1; Psalm 145:2; Psalm 71:8

Key Lessons from Psalm 30

- God Rescues the Humble – When we cry out to Him, He lifts us from trouble.
- God’s Anger Is Temporary, but His Favor Lasts Forever – His discipline is brief compared to His enduring kindness.
- Joy Always Follows the Night of Weeping – Sorrow may linger, but God’s joy will come.
- Security Can Lead to Pride – We must remember our strength comes from God alone.
- God Can Turn Mourning into Dancing – He transforms grief into joy and silence into praise.
- Gratitude Should Be Lifelong – Our thanks to God should never end.

Psalm 31 – Crawford Standard Bible

Psalm 32 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Blessing of Forgiveness”

The Joy of Being Forgiven

1 Blessed is the one whose transgressions are forgiven, whose sins are covered.

Cross References: Romans 4:7; Psalm 85:2; Isaiah 43:25

2 Blessed is the one to whom the LORD does not count iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no deceit.

Cross References: Romans 4:8; 2 Corinthians 5:19; John 1:47

The Burden of Hidden Sin

3 When I kept silent, my bones grew weak through my groaning all day long.

Cross References: Psalm 38:3; Job 33:19; Psalm 31:10

4 Day and night Your hand was heavy on me;
my strength was drained
as in the heat of summer. Selah

Cross References: Psalm 38:2; Job 23:2; Psalm 39:11

The Freedom of Confession

5 Then I acknowledged my sin to You and did not hide my iniquity.
I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD,"
and You forgave the guilt of my sin. Selah

Cross References: 1 John 1:9; Proverbs 28:13; 2 Samuel 12:13

The Safety of God's Presence

6 Therefore let everyone who is godly pray to You while You may be found;
surely the rising of mighty waters will not reach them.

Cross References: Isaiah 55:6; Psalm 69:13; Matthew 7:7

7 You are my hiding place;
You will protect me from trouble and surround me with songs of deliverance. Selah

Cross References: Psalm 91:1; Psalm 27:5; Isaiah 32:2

God's Promise to Guide

8 "I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go;
I will counsel you with My loving eye on you.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:6; Isaiah 30:21; Psalm 25:9

9 Do not be like the horse or the mule, which have no understanding and must be controlled by bit and bridle, or they will not come near you."

Cross References: Proverbs 26:3; James 3:3; Isaiah 1:3

The Reward of Trust

10 Many are the sorrows of the wicked, but the LORD's unfailing love surrounds the one who trusts in Him.

against those who pursue me.
Say to my soul, “I am your salvation.”

Cross References: Psalm 42:5; Psalm 27:1; Psalm 62:1

Prayer for the Defeat of Enemies

4 Let those who seek my life be disgraced and put to shame; let those who plan to harm me be turned back in confusion.

Cross References: Psalm 40:14; Psalm 70:2; Psalm 109:29

5 Let them be like chaff before the wind, with the angel of the LORD driving them away.

Cross References: Psalm 1:4; Job 21:18; Isaiah 17:13

6 Let their path be dark and slippery, with the angel of the LORD pursuing them.

Cross References: Jeremiah 23:12; Proverbs 4:19; Psalm 73:18

7 Without cause they hid their net for me;
without cause they dug a pit for my life.

Cross References: Psalm 57:6; Psalm 7:15; Proverbs 26:27

8 Let destruction come upon them suddenly;
let the net they hid catch themselves;
into that very destruction let them fall.

Cross References: Psalm 7:15; Proverbs 26:27; Esther 7:10

Praise for God's Salvation

9 Then my soul will rejoice in the LORD;
it will delight in His salvation.

Cross References: Psalm 13:5; Habakkuk 3:18; Luke 1:47

10 All my bones will say,
“LORD, who is like You—rescuing the poor from the one too strong for them, the poor and needy from the one who robs them?”

Cross References: Exodus 15:11; Psalm 72:12; Isaiah 25:4

Betrayal and Slander

11 Ruthless witnesses come forward;
they accuse me of things I do not know.

Cross References: Psalm 27:12; Matthew 26:59; Psalm 109:2

12 They repay me evil for good,
leaving my soul in despair.

Cross References: Psalm 38:20; Proverbs 17:13; Jeremiah 18:20

13 Yet when they were sick,
I wore sackcloth and humbled myself with fasting;
my prayers returned to me unanswered.

Cross References: Job 30:25; Romans 12:15; Matthew 5:44

14 I acted toward them as though they were my friend or brother;
I bowed in grief as one who mourns for his mother.

Cross References: Job 2:11; Romans 12:15; Job 30:25

15 But when I stumbled, they gathered in glee;
they gathered against me without my knowing it.
They slandered me without ceasing.

Cross References: Job 30:1; Matthew 27:39; Psalm 22:6

16 Like ungodly mockers at feasts, they gnashed their teeth at me.

Cross References: Matthew 27:44; Psalm 22:13; Lamentations 2:16

A Plea for God to Act

17 LORD, how long will You look on?
Rescue my life from their destruction,
my precious life from the lions.

Cross References: Psalm 13:1; Habakkuk 1:2; Luke 18:7

18 I will thank You in the great assembly;
I will praise You among the masses.

Cross References: Psalm 22:22; Psalm 40:9; Psalm 111:1

19 Do not let those who are my enemies without cause gloat over me;
do not let those who hate me without reason wink in malice.

Cross References: Psalm 69:4; John 15:25; Lamentations 3:52

20 They do not speak peace, but devise deceitful words against those who live quietly in the land.

Cross References: Psalm 28:3; Proverbs 26:24; Jeremiah 9:8

21 They open their mouths wide against me and say, "Aha! Aha! Our eyes have seen it!"

Cross References: Matthew 27:43; Psalm 22:7; Lamentations 2:16

Confidence in God's Justice

22 You have seen this, LORD; do not be silent.
LORD, do not be far from me.

23 Awake, and rise to my defense, to my cause, my God and my Lord.

Cross References: Psalm 44:23; Psalm 7:6; Isaiah 51:9

24 Judge me according to Your righteousness, LORD my God;
do not let them gloat over me.

Cross References: Psalm 43:1; Micah 7:9; Psalm 7:8

25 Do not let them think in their hearts, “Aha! Just what we wanted!”
Do not let them say, “We have swallowed him up.”

Cross References: Psalm 13:4; Psalm 25:2; Lamentations 2:16

26 Let those who rejoice at my trouble be put to shame and confusion;
let those who exalt themselves over me be clothed with shame and disgrace.

Cross References: Psalm 40:14; Psalm 70:2; Job 8:22

Vindication and Praise

27 Let those who favor my righteous cause shout for joy and be glad;
let them always say, “The LORD be magnified, who delights in the well-being of His servant.”

Cross References: Psalm 40:16; Psalm 70:4; Jeremiah 32:41

28 My tongue will proclaim Your righteousness and Your praise all day long.

Cross References: Psalm 71:24; Psalm 145:21; Psalm 51:14

Key Lessons from Psalm 35

- God Is Our Defender – He fights for those who cannot fight for themselves.
- Injustice Calls for God’s Justice – We can bring false accusations and betrayal before Him.
- Vengeance Belongs to the LORD – We do not repay evil but let God act in His time.
- Loyalty in Love, Even When Wronged – Showing kindness to enemies reflects God’s heart, even if they betray us.
- God Sees Every Wrong Done to His People – He will act in righteousness to vindicate them.

- Praise Should Follow Deliverance – When God rescues us, our response should be continual thanksgiving.

Psalm 36 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Precious Love of God”

The Nature of the Wicked

1 I see in my heart this message about the wicked:
there is no fear of God before their eyes.

Cross References: Romans 3:18; Proverbs 1:7; Genesis 6:5

2 In their own eyes they flatter themselves too much to detect or hate their sin.

Cross References: Proverbs 30:12; Luke 18:11; Romans 2:1

3 The words of their mouths are wicked and deceitful;
they have stopped being wise and doing good.

Cross References: Psalm 10:7; Titus 1:16; Jeremiah 4:22

4 Even on their beds they plot evil;
they set themselves on a path that is not good;
they do not reject what is evil.

Cross References: Micah 2:1; Proverbs 4:16; Isaiah 5:20

The Greatness of God’s Love and Justice

5 Your mercy, LORD, reaches to the heavens;
Your faithfulness to the clouds.

Cross References: Psalm 57:10; Psalm 108:4; Lamentations 3:23

6 Your righteousness is like the mighty mountains;
Your judgments are like the great deep.
LORD, You preserve both people and animals.

Cross References: Romans 11:33; Psalm 104:24; Jonah 4:11

The Abundant Goodness of God

7 How priceless is Your unfailing love, O God!
People take refuge in the shadow of Your wings.

Cross References: Psalm 17:8; Ruth 2:12; Matthew 23:37

8 They feast on the abundance of Your house;
You give them drink from Your river of delights.

Cross References: Psalm 63:5; Psalm 23:5; Jeremiah 31:14

9 For with You is the fountain of life;
in Your light we see light.

Cross References: John 4:14; Jeremiah 2:13; John 1:4

A Prayer for Protection

10 Continue Your love to those who know You,
Your righteousness to the upright in heart.

Cross References: Jeremiah 31:3; Psalm 103:17; John 17:3

11 Do not let the foot of the proud come against me, or the hand of the wicked drive me away.

Cross References: Psalm 140:4; Proverbs 16:18; Psalm 9:15

12 See how the evildoers lie fallen—thrown down, unable to rise!

Cross References: Psalm 94:23; Proverbs 24:16; Psalm 37:36

Key Lessons from Psalm 36

- The Wicked Live Without the Fear of God – Pride blinds them to their sin and leads them deeper into evil.
- Sin Grows in Secret – Without repentance, people plan wrongdoing even in their quiet moments.
- God's Love Is Limitless – His mercy stretches to the heavens, His faithfulness beyond the clouds.
- God's Justice Is Immeasurable – Like the mountains and the depths of the sea, His judgments are vast.
- God Provides Abundantly for His People – He offers spiritual satisfaction and the refreshment of His presence.
- God Is the Source of Life and Light – All true life and understanding come from Him.
- God Protects the Upright – Pride and wickedness will not prevail against those who take refuge in Him.

Psalm 37 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Trust in the LORD and Do Good”

Do Not Fret Over Evildoers

1 Do not be troubled because of evildoers, or be envious of those who do wrong;

Cross References: Proverbs 24:19; Psalm 73:3; Proverbs 23:17

2 for they will soon wither like the grass and fade like green plants.

Cross References: Isaiah 40:6; James 1:10; Psalm 90:5

Trust and Delight in the LORD

3 Trust in the LORD and do good;
live in the land and be fed in safety.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:5; Psalm 4:5; Micah 6:8

4 Delight yourself in the LORD, and He will give you the desires of your heart.

Cross References: Matthew 6:33; Psalm 20:4; Job 22:26

5 Commit your way to the LORD;
trust in Him, and He will act.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:3; Psalm 55:22; 1 Peter 5:7

6 He will make your righteousness shine like the light, and your justice like the noonday sun.

Cross References: Isaiah 58:8; Micah 7:9; Isaiah 62:1

Rest and Wait on the LORD

7 Be still before the LORD and wait patiently for Him;
do not be troubled when people succeed in their ways,
when they carry out wicked schemes.

Cross References: Psalm 46:10; Lamentations 3:26; Isaiah 30:15

8 Stop being angry, turn from wrath;
do not be troubled—it only leads to evil.

Cross References: Ephesians 4:31; Proverbs 14:29; James 1:20

The Future of the Wicked and the Righteous

9 For evildoers will be destroyed, but those who hope in the LORD will inherit the land.

Cross References: Isaiah 57:13; Proverbs 2:21; Matthew 5:5

10 In a little while the wicked will be no more;
though you look for them, they will not be found.

Cross References: Job 20:5; Proverbs 24:20; Psalm 92:7

11 But the meek will inherit the earth and enjoy great peace.

Cross References: Matthew 5:5; Psalm 22:26; Isaiah 29:19

The LORD Opposes the Wicked

12 The wicked plot against the righteous and grind their teeth at them;

Cross References: Psalm 35:16; Psalm 112:10; Acts 7:54

13 but the Lord laughs at them, for He knows their day is coming.

Cross References: Psalm 2:4; Proverbs 1:26; Psalm 59:8

14 The wicked draw the sword and bend the bow to bring down the poor and needy, to slay those whose ways are upright.

Cross References: Psalm 7:12; Psalm 11:2; Proverbs 1:11

15 But their swords will pierce their own hearts, and their bows will be broken.

Cross References: Psalm 7:16; Psalm 9:15; Proverbs 26:27

Better Is Little with Righteousness

16 Better the little that the righteous have than the wealth of many wicked;

Cross References: Proverbs 15:16; Proverbs 16:8; 1 Timothy 6:6

17 for the power of the wicked will be broken, but the LORD upholds the righteous.

Cross References: Psalm 10:15; Psalm 46:1; Psalm 145:14

God's Care for the Upright

18 The LORD knows the days of the blameless, and their inheritance will last forever.

Cross References: Psalm 1:6; Psalm 34:19; Nahum 1:7

19 In times of disaster they will not wither;
in days of famine they will have plenty.

Cross References: Job 5:20; Psalm 33:19; Psalm 34:10

20 But the wicked will perish;
the LORD's enemies will vanish like flowers of the field,
they will disappear like smoke.

Cross References: Psalm 68:2; Hosea 13:3; James 4:14

The Blessing of Generosity

21 The wicked borrow and do not repay, but the righteous give generously;

Cross References: Deuteronomy 15:8; Luke 6:35; Proverbs 3:27

22 those the LORD blesses will inherit the land, but those He curses will be cut off.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:33; Deuteronomy 30:19; Matthew 25:34

The Steps of the Righteous

23 The LORD makes firm the steps of the one who delights in Him;

Cross References: Proverbs 16:9; Proverbs 20:24; Jeremiah 10:23

24 though they stumble, they will not fall, for the LORD upholds them with His hand.

Cross References: Proverbs 24:16; Micah 7:8; 2 Corinthians 4:9

25 I was young and now I am old, yet I have never seen the righteous forsaken or their children begging bread.

Cross References: Psalm 34:10; Isaiah 41:17; Philippians 4:19

26 They are always generous and lend freely; their children will be blessed.

Cross References: Proverbs 11:25; Luke 6:38; Proverbs 19:17

The Way of Peace

27 Turn from evil and do good;
then you will live in the land forever.

Cross References: Amos 5:15; 1 Peter 3:11; Isaiah 1:17

28 For the LORD loves justice and will not forsake His faithful ones.
They will be protected forever,
but the offspring of the wicked will be cut off.

Cross References: Isaiah 61:8; Psalm 94:14; 1 Samuel 2:9

29 The righteous will inherit the land and dwell in it forever.

Cross References: Matthew 5:5; Proverbs 2:21; Psalm 25:13

The LORD Delivers His People

32 The wicked lie in wait for the righteous, intent on putting them to death;

Cross References: Psalm 10:9; Psalm 59:3; John 7:1

33 but the LORD will not leave them in their power or let them be condemned when brought to trial.

Cross References: Psalm 34:19; Psalm 94:14; Isaiah 54:17

34 Hope in the LORD and keep His way.
He will exalt you to inherit the land;
when the wicked are destroyed, you will see it.

Cross References: Proverbs 20:22; Isaiah 40:31; Psalm 27:14

The Fate of the Wicked

35 I have seen the wicked in great power, spreading themselves like a luxuriant tree,

Cross References: Job 5:3; Psalm 92:7; Jeremiah 12:1

36 but they soon passed away and were gone;
though I looked for them, they could not be found.

Cross References: Job 20:8; Psalm 73:19; Proverbs 10:25

37 Consider the blameless, observe the upright; a future awaits those who seek peace.

those who wish me harm speak of ruin and plot deception all day long.

Cross References: Psalm 35:4; Psalm 31:13; Jeremiah 18:18

Silent Before His Accusers

13 But I, like a deaf man, do not hear;
like a mute, I do not open my mouth.

Cross References: Isaiah 53:7; Psalm 39:9; Matthew 27:14

14 I have become like one who does not hear, whose mouth offers no defense.

Cross References: Psalm 39:2; 1 Peter 2:23; Amos 5:13

Hope in the LORD

15 LORD, I wait for You;
You will answer, Lord my God.

Cross References: Psalm 39:7; Psalm 130:5; Micah 7:7

16 I said, “Do not let them gloat over me or exalt themselves when my foot slips.”

Cross References: Psalm 13:4; Psalm 35:19; Proverbs 24:17

Confession and Sorrow

17 For I am ready to fall, and my sorrow is ever before me.

Cross References: Psalm 35:15; Jeremiah 20:18; Psalm 51:3

18 I confess my iniquity;
I am troubled by my sin.

Cross References: Psalm 32:5; Proverbs 28:13; 1 John 1:9

Surrounded by Enemies

19 Many have become my enemies without reason;
those who hate me without cause are numerous.

Cross References: Psalm 35:19; Psalm 69:4; John 15:25

20 Those who repay evil for good accuse me because I follow what is good.

Cross References: Proverbs 17:13; Jeremiah 18:20; Psalm 109:4

A Plea for God’s Presence

21 Do not forsake me, LORD;
my God, do not be far from me.

Cross References: Psalm 22:11; Psalm 71:9; Hebrews 13:5

22 Come quickly to help me,
O Lord, my salvation.

Cross References: Psalm 40:13; Psalm 70:1; Psalm 27:9

Key Lessons from Psalm 38

- Sin Brings Heavy Consequences – Guilt weighs down the soul and weakens the body.
- God Sees Our Pain – Nothing we feel or think is hidden from Him.
- Loneliness Can Accompany Suffering – Even friends and family may distance themselves in times of trial.
- Silence Can Be a Response to False Accusations – Sometimes it is wise to let God be our defense.
- Hope Is Anchored in God’s Deliverance – Waiting on Him is the sure path to victory.
- Confession Is Essential for Restoration – Admitting our sin opens the way for forgiveness and healing.
- God Is Our Salvation – Only He can rescue and restore the brokenhearted and oppressed.

Psalm 39 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Life Is a Breath”

Guarding the Tongue

1 I said, “I will watch my ways
so that I will not sin with my tongue;
I will put a muzzle on my mouth while in the presence of the wicked.”

Cross References: James 1:26; Psalm 141:3; Proverbs 21:23

2 I was completely silent;
I kept quiet even from speaking good,
but my anguish increased.

Cross References: Job 2:13; Lamentations 3:28; Amos 5:13

3 My heart grew hot within me.
As I meditated, the fire burned;
then I spoke with my tongue:

Cross References: Jeremiah 20:9; Psalm 73:15; Luke 24:32

The Brevity of Life

4 “LORD, make me know my end, and the measure of my days,
so I may know how frail I am.

Cross References: Job 14:5; Psalm 90:12; James 4:14

5 You have made my days a mere handbreadth;
my lifetime is as nothing before You.

Surely everyone at their best is only a breath. Selah

Cross References: Job 7:6; Psalm 144:4; Ecclesiastes 1:2

6 Surely everyone goes about like a shadow;
surely they rush in vain,
heaping up wealth
without knowing who will gather it.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 2:18; Luke 12:20; Psalm 49:10

Hope in God Alone

7 But now, Lord, what do I wait for?
My hope is in You.

Cross References: Psalm 130:5; Lamentations 3:24; Micah 7:7

8 Deliver me from all my sins;
do not make me the scorn of fools.

Cross References: Psalm 25:2; Psalm 44:13; Psalm 79:4

Submission to God's Discipline

9 I was silent; I would not open my mouth, for You are the one who has done this.

Cross References: Job 1:21; Isaiah 53:7; Leviticus 10:3

10 Remove Your scourge from me;
I am overcome by the blow of Your hand.

Cross References: Job 13:21; Job 6:9; Psalm 38:2

11 When You discipline a person for sin,
You consume their beauty like a moth—surely everyone is only a breath. Selah

Cross References: Job 13:28; Hosea 5:12; Job 4:19

A Plea for Mercy

12 Hear my prayer, LORD,
listen to my cry for help;
do not be silent at my tears.
For I am a stranger to You,
a temporary resident,
as all my ancestors were.

Cross References: Leviticus 25:23; 1 Chronicles 29:15; Hebrews 11:13

13 Turn Your gaze away from me, so I may have some relief before I depart and am no more.”

Cross References: Job 10:20; Job 7:19; Psalm 6:5

Key Lessons from Psalm 39

- Control of Speech Is Crucial – Restraining the tongue prevents sin and dishonor.
- Life Is Brief and Fragile – Our days are short, and our achievements vanish quickly.
- Wealth Is Temporary – We cannot take it with us, and we do not know who will inherit it.
- God Alone Is Our Hope – True security rests only in Him, not in possessions or people.
- God’s Discipline Is Meant to Refine – His correction is painful but necessary for holiness.
- We Are Pilgrims on Earth – Our time here is temporary; our true home is with God.
- Mercy Is Our Final Request – At life’s end, we seek God’s compassion above all else.

Psalm 40 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The LORD Is My Help and Deliverer”

God’s Rescue and a New Song

1 I waited patiently for the LORD;
He turned to me and heard my cry.

Cross References: Psalm 130:5; Psalm 34:6; Lamentations 3:25

2 He lifted me out of a pit of destruction, out of the mud and mire;
He set my feet on a rock and gave me a firm place to stand.

Cross References: Jeremiah 38:6; Psalm 69:2; Psalm 18:16

3 He put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise to our God.
Many will see and fear and put their trust in the LORD.

Cross References: Psalm 33:3; Isaiah 42:10; Revelation 5:9

Blessing of Trusting in the LORD

4 Blessed is the one who makes the LORD their trust, who does not turn to the proud or to those who follow lies.

Cross References: Jeremiah 17:7; Psalm 34:8; Psalm 118:8

5 Many, LORD my God, are the wonders You have done,
the plans You have for us;
none can compare with You.
If I tried to speak of them,
they would be too many to count.

Cross References: Psalm 139:17; Psalm 92:5; Romans 11:33

Obedience over Sacrifice

6 Sacrifice and offering You did not desire, but You opened my ears;
burnt offering and sin offering
You have not required.

Cross References: Hebrews 10:5; 1 Samuel 15:22; Psalm 51:16

7 Then I said, “Here I am—
it is written about me in the scroll—

Cross References: Hebrews 10:7; Luke 24:44; John 5:39

8 I delight to do Your will, my God;
Your law is within my heart.”

Cross References: Hebrews 10:7; Psalm 119:11; Jeremiah 31:33

Proclaiming God’s Righteousness

9 I proclaim Your righteousness in the great assembly;
I do not keep my lips sealed, LORD,
as You know.

Cross References: Acts 20:27; Psalm 22:22; Jeremiah 20:9

10 I have not hidden Your righteousness in my heart;
I have spoken of Your faithfulness and salvation.
I have not concealed Your lovingkindness and truth from the great assembly.

Cross References: Psalm 71:15; Psalm 89:1; John 1:17

A Plea for Mercy and Deliverance

11 Do not withhold Your mercy from me, LORD; may Your lovingkindness and truth always protect me.

Cross References: Psalm 25:6; Psalm 61:7; Lamentations 3:22

12 Troubles without number surround me;
my sins have overtaken me, and I cannot see.
They are more than the hairs of my head, and my heart fails within me.

Cross References: Psalm 69:4; Psalm 38:4; Luke 12:7

13 Be pleased to save me, LORD; come quickly, LORD, to help me.

Cross References: Psalm 70:1; Psalm 38:22; Psalm 22:19

14 May all who want to destroy me
be put to shame and confusion;
may all who desire my ruin be turned back in disgrace.

Cross References: Psalm 35:4; Psalm 6:10; Psalm 70:2

15 May those who say to me, “Aha! Aha!”
be appalled at their own shame.

Cross References: Psalm 35:21; Psalm 70:3; Psalm 109:29

The Joy of the Righteous

16 But may all who seek You rejoice and be glad in You;
may those who love Your salvation always say,
“The LORD be magnified!”

Cross References: Psalm 35:27; Psalm 70:4; Psalm 34:3

God, My Help and Deliverer

17 But I am poor and needy;
the LORD thinks of me.
You are my help and my deliverer;
my God, do not delay.

Cross References: Psalm 70:5; Psalm 86:1; Psalm 34:6

Key Lessons from Psalm 40

- God Answers Patient Faith – Waiting on Him leads to deliverance and a firm foundation.
- Testimony Inspires Others – Sharing God’s works encourages trust in Him.
- Obedience Is Greater Than Ritual – God desires a willing heart over empty sacrifice.
- Proclaim God’s Goodness Publicly – We are called to speak of His faithfulness and salvation.
- Mercy and Truth Preserve Us – God’s lovingkindness sustains us in trouble.
- Confession Brings Deliverance – Acknowledging sin opens the door for God’s rescue.

- God Never Forgets the Needy – Even in weakness, we can trust Him as our help and deliverer.

Psalm 41 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The LORD Sustains the Righteous”

Psalm 42 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Hope in God”

Longing for God's Presence

1 As the deer pants for streams of water, so my soul longs for You, O God.

Cross References: Psalm 84:2; Psalm 63:1; John 7:37

2 My soul thirsts for God, for the living God.
When shall I come and appear before God?

Cross References: Psalm 84:2; Psalm 63:1; Psalm 27:4

3 My tears have been my food day and night, while people say to me all day long,
“Where is your God?”

Cross References: Psalm 80:5; Psalm 102:9; Joel 2:17

Memories of Worship

4 These things I remember as I pour out my soul:
how I used to go with the multitude, leading the procession to the house of God, with shouts of joy and praise
among the festive crowd.

Cross References: Psalm 122:1; Isaiah 30:29; Psalm 55:14

Encouragement to the Soul

5 Why are you cast down, my soul?
Why are you in turmoil within me?
Put your hope in God,
for I will yet praise Him,
the help of His presence.

Cross References: Psalm 43:5; Psalm 103:1; Lamentations 3:24

Struggling with Discouragement

6 My God, my soul is cast down within me;
therefore I remember You from the land of Jordan,
the heights of Hermon, from Mount Mizar.

Cross References: Psalm 133:3; Deuteronomy 3:8; Psalm 61:2

7 Deep calls to deep in the roar of Your waterfalls;
all Your waves and breakers have swept over me.

Cross References: Jonah 2:3; Psalm 88:7; Psalm 69:15

Confidence in God's Love

8 By day the LORD commands His steadfast love, and at night His song is with me—a prayer to the God of my life.

Cross References: Psalm 63:6; Psalm 77:6; Lamentations 3:23

Crying Out to God

9 I say to God my Rock,
“Why have You forgotten me?
Why must I go about mourning,
oppressed by the enemy?”

Cross References: Psalm 43:2; Psalm 22:1; Psalm 13:1

10 As with a deadly wound in my bones, my enemies taunt me,
while they say to me all day long,
“Where is your God?”

Cross References: Psalm 79:10; Joel 2:17; Psalm 115:2

Renewed Hope

11 Why are you cast down, my soul?
Why are you in turmoil within me?
Put your hope in God,
for I will yet praise Him,
my Savior and my God.

Key Lessons from Psalm 42

- The Soul Thirsts for God – True satisfaction comes only from His presence.
- Memories of Worship Encourage the Downcast – Recalling past joy strengthens present faith.
- Hope Is the Answer to Despair – When the heart sinks, we must remind ourselves to trust in God.
- God's Love Is Constant – His mercy by day and His song by night sustain us.
- Enemies May Mock, but God Remains – Their taunts cannot undo His faithfulness.
- Self-Encouragement Is Necessary – Speaking hope to our own soul helps anchor faith in God.

Psalm 43 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Send Out Your Light and Truth”

A Plea for Justice and Deliverance

1 Vindicate me, O God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation.
Rescue me from the deceitful and unjust man.

Cross References: Psalm 35:1; Psalm 26:1; Micah 7:9

2 For You are the God of my strength.
Why have You rejected me?
Why must I go about mourning,
oppressed by the enemy?

Cross References: Psalm 42:9; Psalm 27:9; Psalm 88:14

Guided by God’s Presence

3 Send out Your light and Your truth;
let them guide me.
Let them bring me to Your holy mountain, to the place where You dwell.

Cross References: Psalm 36:9; Psalm 5:8; John 14:6

4 Then I will go to the altar of God, to God, my exceeding joy;
with the harp I will praise You,
O God, my God.

Cross References: Psalm 71:22; Psalm 100:4; Psalm 150:3

Hope in God Alone

5 Why are you cast down, my soul?
Why are you in turmoil within me?
Put your hope in God,
for I will yet praise Him,
my Savior and my God.

Psalm 44 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Redeem Us for Your Mercy’s Sake”

Remembering God’s Past Victories

1 We have heard with our ears, O God, our ancestors have told us what You did in their days, in times long ago.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 6:7; Judges 6:13; Psalm 78:3

2 With Your hand You drove out the nations and planted our fathers;
You afflicted the peoples and cast them out.

Cross References: Psalm 80:8; Exodus 15:17; Joshua 24:12

3 For they did not gain the land by their own sword, nor did their own arm save them;
but it was Your right hand, Your arm, and the light of Your face,
for You favored them.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 8:17; Zechariah 4:6; Joshua 24:12

4 You are my King, O God; command deliverance for Jacob.

Cross References: Psalm 74:12; Psalm 5:2; Isaiah 33:22

5 Through You we push back our enemies; through Your name we trample those who rise up against us.

Cross References: Psalm 60:12; Psalm 108:13; Philippians 4:13

6 For I do not trust in my bow, nor will my sword save me.

Cross References: Psalm 20:7; Zechariah 4:6; Hosea 1:7

7 But You give us victory over our enemies;
You put to shame those who hate us.

Cross References: Exodus 14:30; Psalm 106:10; Deuteronomy 33:29

8 In God we boast all day long, and we will praise Your name forever. Selah

Cross References: Psalm 34:2; Jeremiah 9:24; 1 Corinthians 1:31

Present Defeat and Shame

Psalm 46 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The LORD of Hosts Is with Us”

God, Our Refuge and Strength

1 God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

Cross References: Psalm 91:2; Deuteronomy 33:27; Nahum 1:7

2 Therefore we will not fear, though the earth give way and the mountains fall into the heart of the sea,

Cross References: Isaiah 41:10; Psalm 27:1; Hebrews 13:6

3 though its waters roar and foam and the mountains quake with their surging. Selah

Cross References: Psalm 93:3; Psalm 65:7; Mark 4:39

The River of God's Presence

4 There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, the holy dwelling place of the Most High.

Cross References: Psalm 87:3; Revelation 22:1; Ezekiel 47:1

5 God is within her, she will not fall;
God will help her at the break of day.

Cross References: Zephaniah 3:17; Psalm 16:8; Revelation 21:3

6 Nations are in uproar, kingdoms fall;
He lifts His voice, the earth melts.

Cross References: Psalm 2:1; Joel 3:16; Amos 9:5

7 The LORD of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah

Cross References: Isaiah 8:10; Matthew 1:23; Romans 8:31

God's Sovereign Power over the Nations

8 Come and see the works of the LORD, the desolations He has brought on the earth.

Cross References: Psalm 66:5; Isaiah 26:9; Habakkuk 3:2

9 He makes wars cease to the ends of the earth;
He breaks the bow and shatters the spear;
He burns the chariots with fire.

Cross References: Isaiah 2:4; Micah 4:3; Hosea 2:18

10 "Be still, and know that I am God;
I will be exalted among the nations,
I will be exalted in the earth."

Cross References: Exodus 14:14; Isaiah 2:11; Habakkuk 2:14

11 The LORD of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah

Cross References: Deuteronomy 33:27; Isaiah 41:10; Proverbs 18:10

Key Lessons from Psalm 46

- God Is Our Present Help – In every crisis, He is near and sufficient to save.
- Faith Removes Fear – Even if the earth itself shakes, those who trust God need not be afraid.
- God’s Presence Brings Joy and Stability – His nearness secures His people and makes them glad.
- God Rules Over Nations – At His voice, kingdoms fall, and wars are silenced.
- Be Still Before God – Quiet trust acknowledges His sovereignty and exaltation over all the earth.
- The LORD of Hosts Is with Us – His constant presence is our greatest refuge and hope.

Psalm 47 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The King Over All the Earth”

A Call to Praise the King

1 Clap your hands, all you peoples;
shout to God with a voice of triumph!

Cross References: Psalm 98:8; Isaiah 55:12; Psalm 66:1

2 For the LORD Most High is awesome;
He is the great King over all the earth.

Cross References: Psalm 97:9; Malachi 1:14; Psalm 95:3

The LORD’s Dominion

3 He subdues nations under us, peoples under our feet.

Cross References: Psalm 18:47; Joshua 21:44; 1 Corinthians 15:25

4 He chooses our inheritance for us, the pride of Jacob, whom He loves. Selah

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:9; Nahum 2:2; Psalm 135:4

God’s Exaltation

5 God has ascended with a shout, the LORD with the sound of a trumpet.

Cross References: Psalm 68:18; Acts 1:9; 1 Thessalonians 4:16

6 Sing praises to God, sing praises!
Sing praises to our King, sing praises!

Cross References: Psalm 68:4; Psalm 149:1; Psalm 9:11

7 For God is the King of all the earth;
sing praises with understanding.

Cross References: Zechariah 14:9; 1 Chronicles 16:31; Psalm 67:4

The LORD's Throne and Rule

8 God reigns over the nations;
God sits on His holy throne.

Cross References: Psalm 22:28; Psalm 103:19; Revelation 19:6

9 The nobles of the nations assemble as the people of the God of Abraham, for the shields of the earth belong to God;
He is greatly exalted.

Cross References: Genesis 17:4; Romans 4:16; Psalm 89:18

Key Lessons from Psalm 47

- God Deserves Joyful Praise – Worship should be loud, joyful, and full of triumph.
- God Is King Over All the Earth – His rule extends beyond Israel to all nations.
- Victory Comes from God Alone – He subdues peoples and determines our inheritance.
- God Is Exalted Above All – Trumpets, shouts, and songs declare His supreme reign.
- Worship Should Be Thoughtful – We are called to sing with understanding, not just words.
- God's Throne Is Universal – All nations, rulers, and powers ultimately belong to Him.

Psalm 48 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The City of Our God”

The Glory of Zion

1 Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, His holy mountain.

Cross References: Psalm 96:4; Psalm 87:1; Psalm 46:4

2 Beautiful in elevation,
the joy of the whole earth,
Mount Zion, in the far north,
the city of the great King.

Cross References: Matthew 5:35; Lamentations 2:15; Psalm 50:2

3 God is known in her citadels
as a strong refuge.

Cross References: Psalm 46:1; Proverbs 18:10; Psalm 9:9

The Defeat of Earthly Kings

4 For behold, the kings assembled;
they advanced together.

Cross References: Psalm 2:2; Psalm 83:5; 2 Chronicles 20:1

5 They saw her and were astonished;
they fled in terror.

Cross References: Exodus 15:15; Joshua 2:11; Habakkuk 3:16

6 Trembling seized them there, anguish as of a woman in labor.

Cross References: Isaiah 13:8; Jeremiah 6:24; 1 Thessalonians 5:3

7 You destroyed them like the ships of Tarshish, shattered by an east wind.

Cross References: Ezekiel 27:26; Isaiah 2:16; Jonah 1:4

The Eternal City of God

8 As we have heard,
so have we seen in the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God,
which God will establish forever. Selah

Cross References: Isaiah 60:15; Psalm 87:5; Matthew 16:18

Meditating on God's Love

9 We reflect on Your unfailing love, O God, within Your temple.

Cross References: Psalm 26:8; Psalm 63:2; Psalm 36:7

10 Like Your name, O God,
Your praise reaches to the ends of the earth;
Your right hand is filled with righteousness.

Cross References: Psalm 145:21; Malachi 1:11; Isaiah 41:10

11 Let Mount Zion rejoice, let the daughters of Judah be glad because of Your judgments.

Cross References: Psalm 97:8; Psalm 9:8; Isaiah 12:6

A Call to Remember and Declare

12 Walk about Zion, go around her, count her towers,

Cross References: Isaiah 26:1; Nehemiah 12:31; Revelation 21:12 13 consider her ramparts, examine her palaces,

that you may tell them
to the next generation.

Cross References: Psalm 78:4; Joel 1:3; Deuteronomy 6:7

14 For this God is our God
forever and ever;
He will be our guide
even to the end.

Cross References: Isaiah 25:9; Psalm 73:24; Psalm 23:4

Key Lessons from Psalm 48

- God Is Worthy of Great Praise – His greatness is displayed in His holy city and His mighty acts.
- Zion Is the Joy of the Earth – God’s dwelling place is beautiful, strong, and secure.
- Earthly Kings Cannot Stand Against God – Nations may gather in pride, but they will flee in fear.
- God Establishes His City Forever – His presence ensures permanence, stability, and glory.
- We Must Meditate on God’s Love – Reflection in worship deepens our awe and gratitude.
- Generations Must Be Taught of God’s Works – The towers and walls of Zion remind us to declare His faithfulness to those who come after us.
- God Is Our Eternal Guide – He is with His people now and will lead them even to the very end.

Psalm 49 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Do Not Trust in Riches”

A Call to All People

1 Hear this, all you peoples;
listen, all who live in the world,

Cross References: Proverbs 8:4; Isaiah 1:2; Micah 1:2

2 both low and high,
rich and poor alike.

Cross References: Proverbs 22:2; Job 34:19; James 2:5

3 My mouth will speak words of wisdom;
the meditation of my heart will bring understanding.

Cross References: Proverbs 2:2; Psalm 37:30; Proverbs 8:6

4 I will turn my ear to a proverb;
I will open my riddle on the harp.

Cross References: Psalm 78:2; Proverbs 1:6; Matthew 13:35

The Folly of Trusting in Wealth

5 Why should I fear in times of trouble, when the iniquity of my enemies surrounds me—

Cross References: Psalm 27:1; Psalm 91:5; Proverbs 1:33

6 those who trust in their wealth and boast in their great riches?

Cross References: Proverbs 11:28; 1 Timothy 6:17; Job 31:24

7 No one can redeem the life of another or give to God a ransom for them—

Cross References: Psalm 89:48; Job 36:18; 1 Peter 1:18

8 the ransom for a life is costly, no payment is ever enough—

Cross References: Matthew 16:26; Mark 8:37; Psalm 130:7

9 so that they should live on forever and not see decay.

Cross References: Job 14:14; Psalm 16:10; Acts 2:27

10 For all can see that the wise die, the foolish and the senseless alike perish and leave their wealth to others.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 2:16; Ecclesiastes 2:21; Luke 12:20 11 Their graves are their homes forever, their dwelling places to all generations,

though they had named lands after themselves.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 2:18; Luke 12:19; Job 18:17

12 People, despite their wealth, do not endure;
they are like the beasts that perish.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 3:19; 2 Peter 2:12; Psalm 39:5

The End of the Foolish

13 This is the destiny of those who trust in themselves, and of their followers, who approve their sayings. Selah

Cross References: Proverbs 14:12; Jeremiah 17:11; Luke 16:25

14 Like sheep they are destined for the grave, and death will feed on them.
The upright will rule over them in the morning;
their forms will decay in the grave, far from their fine houses.

Cross References: Job 24:19; Isaiah 14:11; Daniel 7:22

The Hope of the Righteous

15 But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave, for He will surely take me to Himself. Selah

Cross References: Psalm 16:10; Hosea 13:14; Psalm 73:24

Do Not Fear the Wealthy

16 Do not be afraid when others grow rich, when the splendor of their houses increases;

Cross References: Psalm 37:7; Proverbs 23:17; Job 20:5

17 for they will take nothing with them when they die, their glory will not descend after them.

Cross References: Job 1:21; 1 Timothy 6:7; Ecclesiastes 5:15

18 Though they count themselves blessed in life—and people praise you when you prosper—

Cross References: Luke 12:19; Deuteronomy 8:17; Luke 16:15

19 they will join those who have gone before them, who will never again see the light of life.

Cross References: Job 10:21; Job 3:16; Ecclesiastes 6:4

20 People who have wealth but lack understanding are like the beasts that perish.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 3:19; 2 Peter 2:12; Psalm 49:12

Key Lessons from Psalm 49

- Rich and Poor Alike Must Hear God's Wisdom – Wealth cannot shield anyone from death.
- No One Can Redeem Another's Soul – Eternal life cannot be purchased with money.
- Wealth Is Temporary – The rich leave their riches behind, just like the fool and the poor.

- Human Honor Without Understanding Is Futile – Without God, even the honored perish like beasts.
- Death Awaits the Wicked, but God Redeems the Upright – The righteous are delivered from the power of the grave.
- Do Not Fear the Wealthy – Their prosperity is fleeting; they cannot take it with them.
- God Alone Is Our Hope – Only He can redeem and receive our souls.

Psalm 50 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God the Righteous Judge”

The Call of God to the Earth

1 The Mighty One, God the Lord, has spoken and summoned the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting.

Cross References: Malachi 1:11; Isaiah 45:6; Psalm 113:3

2 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty,
God shines forth.

Cross References: Psalm 80:1; Deuteronomy 33:2; Isaiah 60:1

3 Our God comes and will not be silent;
before Him is a consuming fire, and around Him a mighty tempest.

Cross References: Isaiah 66:15; Deuteronomy 4:24; 2 Thessalonians 1:8

The Judgment of His People

4 He summons the heavens above, and the earth, to judge His people:

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:1; Micah 6:1; Isaiah 1:2

5 “Gather to Me My faithful ones, those who made a covenant with Me by sacrifice.”

Cross References: Exodus 24:8; Psalm 89:3; Hebrews 9:20

6 And the heavens declare His righteousness, for God Himself is Judge. Selah

Cross References: Psalm 19:1; Psalm 97:6; Psalm 75:7

True Worship, Not Empty Rituals

7 “Hear, O My people, and I will speak;
O Israel, and I will testify against you:

I am God, your God.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 6:4; Exodus 20:2; Exodus 20:3

8 I do not rebuke you for your sacrifices, or your burnt offerings, which are ever before Me.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 15:22; Hosea 6:6; Psalm 40:6

9 I have no need of a bull from your stall, or goats from your pens,

Cross References: Isaiah 1:11; Hebrews 10:5; Psalm 51:16

10 for every beast of the forest is Mine, the cattle on a thousand hills.

Cross References: Job 41:11; 1 Corinthians 10:26; Haggai 2:8

11 I know all the birds of the mountains, and the creatures of the field are Mine.

Cross References: Job 12:7; Genesis 1:25; Job 38:41

12 If I were hungry, I would not tell you, for the world is Mine, and all its fullness.

Cross References: Psalm 24:1; Acts 17:25; Deuteronomy 10:14

13 Do I eat the flesh of bulls or drink the blood of goats?

Cross References: Hebrews 10:4; Micah 6:7; Isaiah 40:16

14 Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving, and fulfill your vows to the Most High.

Cross References: Psalm 116:17; Hebrews 13:15; Ecclesiastes 5:4

15 Call upon Me in the day of trouble;
I will deliver you, and you will glorify Me.”

Cross References: Psalm 91:15; Jeremiah 33:3; Psalm 34:17

The Warning to the Wicked

16 But to the wicked God says:
“What right have you to recite My laws or take My covenant on your lips?

Cross References: Romans 2:21; Matthew 7:22; Titus 1:16

17 You hate instruction and cast My words behind you.

Cross References: Proverbs 1:7; Proverbs 5:12; Nehemiah 9:26

18 When you see a thief, you join with him;
you throw in your lot with adulterers.

Cross References: Proverbs 29:24; Romans 1:32; 1 Timothy 5:22

19 You use your mouth for evil and harness your tongue for deceit.

Cross References: Psalm 52:2; James 3:6; Psalm 36:3

20 You sit and testify against your brother;
you slander your own mother's son.

Cross References: Leviticus 19:16; James 4:11; Matthew 5:22

21 These things you have done, and I kept silent;
you thought I was exactly like you.
But I will reprove you and lay it all before your eyes.

Cross References: Isaiah 42:14; Revelation 3:19; Habakkuk 1:13

22 "Consider this, you who forget God, or I will tear you to pieces, with none to rescue.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 8:19; Job 8:13; Hosea 8:14

23 Whoever offers praise glorifies Me, and to the one who orders his way rightly
I will show the salvation of God."

Cross References: Jonah 2:9; Psalm 107:22; Luke 17:15

Key Lessons from Psalm 50

- God Is Judge Over All the Earth – His authority extends from the rising to the setting of the sun.
- External Sacrifices Alone Do Not Please God – He owns all creation; He desires thanksgiving and obedience.
- True Worship Is Thanksgiving and Obedience – Real sacrifice is praise and faithfulness, not empty rituals.
- The Wicked Are Warned – God exposes hypocrisy and will judge those who reject His Word.
- God Calls Us to Depend on Him – He invites His people to call on Him in times of trouble.
- Praise Glorifies God – Those who walk in righteousness will see His salvation.

Psalm 51 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Prayer of Repentance”

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David, when Nathan the prophet came to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

A Cry for Mercy

1 Have mercy on me, O God, according to Your steadfast love;
according to the greatness of Your tender mercies, blot out my transgressions.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 12:13; Luke 18:13; Isaiah 43:25

2 Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

Cross References: 1 John 1:9; Isaiah 1:18; Titus 3:5

3 For I acknowledge my transgressions, and my sin is always before me.

Cross References: Proverbs 28:13; Psalm 32:5; Psalm 38:18

4 Against You, You only, have I sinned, and done what is evil in Your sight—so that You may be justified in Your words and blameless when You judge.

Cross References: Genesis 39:9; Romans 3:4; Luke 15:18

The Depth of Human Sinfulness

5 Surely I was brought forth in iniquity, and in sin my mother conceived me.

Cross References: Job 14:4; Romans 5:12; Ephesians 2:3

6 Behold, You desire truth in the inner being; in the hidden part You make me to know wisdom.

Cross References: Psalm 15:2; Job 28:28; 1 Kings 3:9

A Plea for Cleansing and Renewal

7 Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean;
wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

Cross References: Numbers 19:18; Hebrews 9:19; Ezekiel 36:25

8 Let me hear joy and gladness;
let the bones You have crushed rejoice.

Cross References: Isaiah 61:3; Psalm 30:11; Nehemiah 8:10

9 Hide Your face from my sins, and blot out all my iniquities.

Cross References: Micah 7:19; Acts 3:19; Psalm 32:1

10 Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me.

Cross References: Ezekiel 36:26; 2 Corinthians 5:17; Ezekiel 11:19

11 Do not cast me away from Your presence, and do not take Your Holy Spirit from me.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 16:14; Isaiah 63:10; Psalm 71:9

12 Restore to me the joy of Your salvation, and uphold me with a willing spirit.

Cross References: Isaiah 12:3; Psalm 85:6; Luke 15:24

The Promise of Changed Living

13 Then I will teach transgressors Your ways, and sinners will turn back to You.

Cross References: Luke 22:32; James 5:20; Proverbs 11:30

14 Deliver me from the guilt of bloodshed, O God, the God of my salvation,
and my tongue will sing aloud of Your righteousness.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 11:17; Psalm 71:15; Isaiah 12:2

15 O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will declare Your praise.

Cross References: Psalm 40:3; Isaiah 6:7; Ephesians 5:19

True Sacrifice

16 For You do not delight in sacrifice, or I would give it;
You do not take pleasure in burnt offerings.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 15:22; Hosea 6:6; Psalm 40:6

17 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit;
a broken and contrite heart, O God,
You will not despise.

Cross References: Isaiah 57:15; Isaiah 66:2; Matthew 5:3

A Prayer for Zion

18 Do good in Your good pleasure to Zion; build up the walls of Jerusalem.

Cross References: Nehemiah 2:17; Isaiah 60:10; Nehemiah 6:15

19 Then You will delight in righteous sacrifices, in burnt offerings and whole burnt offerings;
then bulls will be offered on Your altar.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 33:19; Romans 12:1; Malachi 3:3

Key Lessons from Psalm 51

- Repentance Is Rooted in God's Mercy – Forgiveness is not earned but flows from His steadfast love and compassion.
- Sin Is Personal Against God – Every wrong ultimately offends Him, even when it harms others.
- We Need Cleansing Beyond Our Efforts – Only God can wash away sin and make us truly clean.
- The Heart Is What God Desires – True worship is a broken and contrite heart, not empty rituals.
- Restoration Leads to Mission – When forgiven, we are called to help lead others back to God.
- The Holy Spirit Is Essential – We cannot live in righteousness apart from God's Spirit within us.
- Hope for God's People – David's prayer extends beyond himself to the strengthening of Zion, showing that individual repentance impacts the whole community.

Psalm 52 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Folly of Trusting in Riches and Wickedness”

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David, when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, and said to him, David has come to the house of Ahimelech.

The Boast of the Wicked

1 Why do you boast in evil, O mighty man?
The goodness of God endures continually.

Cross References: Jeremiah 9:23; Lamentations 3:22; 1 Samuel 22:9

2 Your tongue plots destruction, like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

Cross References: Psalm 57:4; Jeremiah 9:8; James 3:8

3 You love evil more than good, lying rather than speaking righteousness. Selah.

Cross References: John 3:19; Isaiah 5:20; Romans 1:25

4 You love all devouring words,
O deceitful tongue.

Cross References: Psalm 5:9; Proverbs 26:28; Psalm 120:2

The Judgment of God

5 But God shall strike you down forever;
He shall take you away,
pluck you from your dwelling place, and uproot you from the land of the living. Selah.

Cross References: Proverbs 2:22; Job 18:14; Proverbs 14:11

6 The righteous shall see it and fear, and shall laugh, saying,

Cross References: Psalm 58:10; Psalm 37:34; Job 22:19

7 “Behold, the man who did not make God his strength, but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness.”

Cross References: 1 Timothy 6:17; Proverbs 11:28; Job 31:24

The Confidence of the Righteous

8 But I am like a green olive tree in the house of God;
I trust in the mercy of God forever and ever.

Cross References: Psalm 92:12; Jeremiah 11:16; Hosea 14:6

9 I will praise You forever, because You have done it;
and I will wait on Your name, for it is good before Your saints.

Cross References: Psalm 54:6; Psalm 145:2; Psalm 22:22

Key Lessons from Psalm 52

- Boasting in Wickedness Leads to Ruin – Those who exalt themselves in evil will be cut off by God.
- The Power of the Tongue – Words can be destructive like a razor, and God holds us accountable for deceitful speech.
- Trust in God, Not in Wealth – Riches and power cannot save; security is found only in God’s strength.
- God’s Mercy Is Our Confidence – The faithful flourish like an olive tree, planted in God’s presence.
- Praise Is the Right Response – True worship is rooted in remembering God’s past faithfulness and trusting His name forever.

Psalm 53 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Folly of Denying God”

To the Chief Musician upon Mahalath. A Psalm of David.

The Corruption of Mankind

1 The fool has said in his heart, “There is no God.”
They are corrupt, they have done abominable iniquity;
there is none who does good.

Cross References: Psalm 14:1; Romans 3:10; Romans 1:21

2 God looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any who understood,
who sought after God.

Cross References: Psalm 14:2; Romans 3:11; 2 Chronicles 16:9

3 Every one of them has turned aside; they have together become corrupt.
There is none who does good,
no, not one.

Cross References: Psalm 14:3; Romans 3:12; Isaiah 53:6

The Judgment on the Wicked

4 Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge?
They devour my people as though they were eating bread;
they have not called upon God.

Cross References: Psalm 14:4; Micah 3:3; Amos 8:4

5 They were in great fear, where no fear was;
for God scattered the bones of those who encamped against you.
You have put them to shame,
because God has rejected them.

Cross References: Psalm 14:5; 2 Kings 19:35; Leviticus 26:36

The Hope of Israel

6 Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion!
When God restores the captivity of His people,
Jacob shall rejoice,
and Israel shall be glad.

Cross References: Psalm 14:7; Romans 11:26; Isaiah 59:20

Key Lessons from Psalm 53

- The Folly of Denying God – To deny God’s existence is the root of corruption and sin.
- Universal Sinfulness – All humanity has turned away; none are righteous apart from God.
- The Oppression of the Righteous – The wicked devour God’s people without fear of judgment.
- God’s Sovereign Justice – God scatters and shames those who rise against His people.
- Hope in God’s Salvation – True restoration and joy come only through God’s deliverance from Zion.

Psalm 54 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord My Helper”

To the Chief Musician on Neginoth. A Psalm of David, when the Ziphites came and said to Saul, ‘Is not David hiding with us?’

A Cry for Deliverance

1 Save me, O God, by Your name, and vindicate me by Your strength.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 23:19; Psalm 20:1; Proverbs 18:10

2 Hear my prayer, O God;
give ear to the words of my mouth.

Cross References: Psalm 17:1; Psalm 143:1; Psalm 61:1

The Threat of Enemies

3 For strangers have risen against me, and oppressors seek after my life;
they have not set God before them. Selah.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 23:20; Psalm 86:14; Psalm 36:1

The Lord My Helper

4 Behold, God is my helper;
the Lord is with those who uphold my soul.

Cross References: Hebrews 13:6; Psalm 118:7; Romans 8:31

5 He will repay evil to my enemies;
in Your truth, cut them off.

Cross References: Psalm 7:16; Psalm 94:23; Psalm 143:12

Praise for Deliverance

6 I will freely sacrifice to You;
I will praise Your name, O Lord, for it is good.

Cross References: Psalm 116:17; Hosea 14:2; Psalm 135:3

7 For He has delivered me out of all trouble, and my eye has looked with triumph on my enemies.

Cross References: Psalm 34:6; Psalm 92:11; 1 Samuel 23:28

Key Lessons from Psalm 54

- God's Name is Power – Deliverance comes not from human strength but from the mighty name of the Lord.
- Prayer in Trouble – When enemies rise, the believer's first response should be prayer.
- The Lord Upholds the Righteous – God Himself sustains the soul of those who trust Him.
- God's Justice Against Evil – The Lord will repay those who plot wickedness against His people.
- Praise Follows Deliverance – Gratitude and worship naturally flow from hearts that experience God's rescue.

Psalm 55 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Cast Your Burden on the Lord”

To the Chief Musician on Neginoth. Maschil of David.

A Cry of Distress

1 Give ear to my prayer, O God;
and do not hide Yourself from my plea.

Cross References: Psalm 102:2; Psalm 143:1; Lamentations 3:56

2 Attend to me and answer me;
I am restless in my complaint and groan,

Cross References: Psalm 64:1; Job 23:2; Psalm 5:1

3 because of the voice of the enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked.
For they bring down trouble upon me,
and in anger they hate me.

Cross References: Psalm 41:9; Psalm 69:4; 2 Samuel 15:12

Overwhelmed with Fear

4 My heart is in anguish within me;
the terrors of death have fallen upon me.

Cross References: Psalm 116:3; Matthew 26:38; Jonah 2:2

5 Fear and trembling overwhelm me, and horror has covered me.

Cross References: Job 21:6; Luke 22:44; Habakkuk 3:16

6 And I said, “Oh, that I had wings like a dove!
I would fly away and be at rest.

Cross References: Jeremiah 9:2; Psalm 11:1; Matthew 23:37

7 Behold, I would flee far away and stay in the wilderness. Selah.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 23:14; 1 Kings 19:4; Psalm 120:5

8 I would hurry to my shelter from the raging wind and storm.”

Cross References: Psalm 107:29; Jonah 1:4; Matthew 8:26

The Treachery of Friends

9 Destroy, O Lord, and divide their tongues, for I see violence and strife in the city.

Cross References: Genesis 11:7; Habakkuk 1:3; Micah 7:2

10 Day and night they prowl on its walls; mischief and sorrow are within it.

Cross References: Isaiah 59:7; Proverbs 6:18; Habakkuk 2:12

11 Wickedness is in its midst;
deceit and fraud do not depart from its streets.

Cross References: Jeremiah 5:1; Zephaniah 3:1; Micah 6:12

12 For it was not an enemy who reproached me—then I could have borne it; nor was it one who hated me—then I could have hidden from him.

Cross References: Job 19:14; Jeremiah 20:10; Micah 7:5

13 But it was you, a man my equal, my companion and my close friend.

Cross References: John 13:18; Zechariah 13:6; Jeremiah 9:4

14 We took sweet counsel together, and walked into the house of God in the throng.

Cross References: Psalm 42:4; 2 Samuel 15:31; John 13:21

Turning to the Lord

15 Let death seize them;
let them go down alive into the grave,
for evil is in their homes and among them.

Cross References: Numbers 16:31; Proverbs 1:12; Psalm 9:17

16 As for me, I will call upon God, and the Lord shall save me.

Cross References: Psalm 3:4; Psalm 34:6; Psalm 86:7

17 Evening, morning, and at noon I will pray and cry aloud, and He shall hear my voice.

Cross References: Daniel 6:10; Psalm 5:3; Psalm 92:2

18 He has redeemed my soul in peace from the battle against me, though many oppose me.

Cross References: Psalm 3:6; Psalm 27:3; Psalm 34:19

19 God, who is enthroned from of old, will hear and humble them. Selah.
Because they do not change, they do not fear God.

Cross References: Zephaniah 1:12; Amos 6:1; Malachi 3:6

20 He has broken His covenant;
he stretched out his hand against his companions.

Cross References: Luke 22:48; Obadiah 1:7; Jeremiah 9:8

21 His words were smoother than butter, yet war was in his heart;
his words were softer than oil,
yet they were drawn swords.

Cross References: Proverbs 26:24; Psalm 28:3; Proverbs 5:3

The Call to Trust

22 Cast your burden on the Lord,
and He will sustain you;
He will never allow the righteous to be shaken.

Cross References: 1 Peter 5:7; Philippians 4:6; Psalm 37:24

23 But You, O God, will bring them down to the pit of destruction; bloodthirsty and deceitful men shall not live out half their days.
But I will trust in You.

Cross References: Psalm 5:6; Psalm 9:15; Proverbs 10:27

Key Lessons from Psalm 55

- God Hears the Cry of the Distressed – No anguish or pain is too deep for the Lord’s ear.
- Betrayal Cuts Deepest – Hurt from a close friend wounds the heart more than the blows of an enemy.
- Consistent Prayer Brings Peace – Morning, noon, and evening prayer remind us that God hears continually.
- Cast Your Burdens on the Lord – God alone can bear the full weight of our troubles and sustain us.
- Trust in God’s Justice – The wicked may speak smoothly but hide swords in their hearts; God will bring them down.

Psalms 56 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God Is For Me”

To the Chief Musician. Upon Jonath-elem-rechokim. Michtam of David, when the Philistines took him in Gath.

A Plea for Mercy

1 Be merciful to me, O God, for man would swallow me up;
all day long he attacks and oppresses me.

Cross References: Psalm 57:3; 1 Peter 5:8; Psalm 124:3

2 My enemies would hound me all day, for many fight against me, O Most High.

Cross References: Psalm 3:1; Psalm 25:19; Psalm 27:2

Trust in the Midst of Fear

3 Whenever I am afraid,
I will trust in You.

Cross References: Isaiah 12:2; Proverbs 3:5; Psalm 27:3

4 In God, whose word I praise, in God I trust; I will not fear
what flesh can do to me.

Cross References: Hebrews 13:6; Psalm 118:6; Romans 8:31

The Plots of the Wicked

5 All day long they twist my words;
all their thoughts are against me for evil.

Cross References: Psalm 41:7; Psalm 64:5; Jeremiah 18:18

6 They gather themselves together, they hide, they mark my steps, as they wait for my life.

Cross References: Psalm 59:3; Psalm 37:32; Psalm 71:10

7 Shall they escape by their iniquity?
In Your anger, O God, cast down the nations.

Cross References: Psalm 55:23; Psalm 7:11; Job 20:5

God Remembers My Tears

8 You number my wanderings;
put my tears in Your bottle;
are they not written in Your book?

Cross References: Psalm 139:16; Malachi 3:16; Revelation 21:4

9 When I cry to You,
my enemies will turn back;
this I know, because God is for me.

Cross References: Psalm 6:9; 1 John 5:14; Psalm 34:4

Faith and Confidence

10 In God, whose word I praise,
in the Lord, whose word I praise—

Cross References: Psalm 138:2; Hebrews 13:15; Psalm 56:4

11 in God I trust; I will not be afraid.
What can man do to me?

Cross References: Psalm 27:1; Isaiah 51:12; Psalm 118:6

12 Your vows are binding upon me, O God;
I will render thank offerings to You.

Cross References: Psalm 116:14; Ecclesiastes 5:4; Psalm 50:14

13 For You have delivered my soul from death, and my feet from falling,
that I may walk before God in the light of the living.

Cross References: Psalm 116:8; Psalm 27:13; 2 Corinthians 1:10

Key Lessons from Psalm 56

- God's Mercy Covers Our Fear – Even in the face of constant oppression, we can cry out for His compassion.

- Trust Is Stronger Than Fear – Faith turns fear into courage, knowing that flesh cannot destroy the soul.
- God Sees Every Tear – Not one tear is forgotten; the Lord records them as treasures in His book.
- God Is For Us – The believer’s confidence is not in themselves but in the assurance that God is on their side.
- Gratitude Follows Deliverance – A life spared is a life that must walk in thanksgiving and light before God.

Psalms 57 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Exalted Above the Heavens”

To the Chief Musician. Altaschith. Michtam of David, when he fled from Saul in the cave.

A Cry for Mercy and Refuge

1 Be merciful to me, O God, be merciful to me, for my soul trusts in You;
yes, in the shadow of Your wings I will take refuge, until these calamities have passed by.

Cross References: Psalm 17:8; Psalm 36:7; Psalm 91:4

2 I will cry out to God Most High, to God who performs all things for me.

Cross References: Genesis 14:20; Psalm 138:8; Philippians 1:6

3 He shall send from heaven and save me;
He reproaches the one who would swallow me up. Selah.
God shall send forth His mercy and His truth.

Cross References: Psalm 43:3; Psalm 40:11; Psalm 61:7

In the Midst of Enemies

4 My soul is among lions;
I lie among men who are set on fire, whose teeth are spears and arrows,
and whose tongue is a sharp sword.

Cross References: Psalm 55:21; Psalm 58:6; Daniel 6:22

5 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens;
let Your glory be above all the earth.

Cross References: Psalm 108:5; Psalm 113:4; Isaiah 6:3

6 They prepared a net for my steps;
my soul is bowed down.
They dug a pit before me;
into the midst of it they themselves have fallen. Selah.

Cross References: Psalm 7:15; Psalm 9:15; Proverbs 26:27

A Heart Set on Praise

7 My heart is steadfast, O God, my heart is steadfast;
I will sing and give praise.

Cross References: Psalm 108:1; Psalm 112:7; Psalm 34:1

8 Awake, my glory! Awake, psaltery and harp!
I myself will awaken the dawn.

Cross References: Psalm 108:2; Psalm 5:3; Psalm 30:12

9 I will praise You, O Lord, among the peoples;
I will sing to You among the nations.

Cross References: Psalm 18:49; Romans 15:9; Psalm 108:3

10 For Your mercy reaches unto the heavens, and Your truth unto the clouds.

Cross References: Psalm 36:5; Psalm 103:11; Psalm 108:4

11 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens;
let Your glory be above all the earth.

Cross References: Psalm 47:2; Isaiah 6:3; Psalm 108:5

Key Lessons from Psalm 57

- God's Mercy Provides Refuge – In times of danger, His presence is like wings shielding us until the storm passes.
- Prayer Invites Divine Intervention – Crying out to God brings His mercy and truth from heaven to our aid.
- Enemies Cannot Prevail Forever – The wicked fall into the very traps they set for the righteous.
- A Steadfast Heart Praises God – Even in trials, fixing our heart on Him turns sorrow into worship.
- God's Glory Is Over All the Earth – His mercy and truth stretch beyond the skies, declaring His universal reign.

Psalm 58 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Surely God Judges in the Earth”

To the Chief Musician. Altaschith. Michtam of David.

The Corruption of the Wicked

1 Do you indeed speak righteousness, O congregation?
Do you judge uprightly, O sons of men?

Cross References: Psalm 82:2; Isaiah 10:1; Micah 3:9

2 No, in your heart you work wickedness;
you weigh out the violence of your hands in the earth.

Cross References: Micah 2:1; Isaiah 59:6; Proverbs 6:18

3 The wicked are estranged from the womb;
they go astray as soon as they are born, speaking lies.

Cross References: Psalm 51:5; Isaiah 48:8; Genesis 8:21

4 Their poison is like the poison of a serpent;
they are like the deaf cobra that stops her ear,

Cross References: Psalm 140:3; Romans 3:13; Jeremiah 8:17

5 which will not listen to the voice of charmers, though the charmer charms ever so wisely.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 10:11; Jeremiah 8:17; Isaiah 19:3

A Prayer for God's Judgment

6 Break their teeth, O God, in their mouth; break out the fangs of the young lions, O Lord.

Cross References: Job 4:10; Psalm 3:7; Psalm 124:6

7 Let them flow away as waters which run continually;
when he bends his bow to shoot his arrows, let them be cut in pieces.

Cross References: Joshua 7:5; Psalm 22:14; Psalm 68:2

8 Let them be like a snail which melts as it goes, like the stillborn child of a woman, that they may not see the sun.

Cross References: Job 3:16; Ecclesiastes 6:3; Psalm 39:13

9 Before your pots can feel the burning thorns,
He shall sweep them away as with a whirlwind, living and in His wrath.

Cross References: Proverbs 10:25; Nahum 1:3; Job 21:18

The Vindication of the Righteous

10 The righteous shall rejoice when he sees the vengeance;
he shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked.

Cross References: Psalm 68:23; Revelation 6:10; Psalm 91:8

11 So that a man shall say,
“Surely there is a reward for the righteous;
surely He is a God who judges in the earth.”

Cross References: Proverbs 11:18; Psalm 19:9; Genesis 18:25

Key Lessons from Psalm 58

- Wickedness Begins in the Heart – Sin runs deep, even from birth, showing humanity’s need for God’s mercy and redemption.
- The Power of Lies Destroys – Deceitful words are compared to venom; they wound, corrupt, and poison entire societies.
- God Will Break the Strength of the Wicked – Their power and schemes are temporary, and His justice will strip them of their might.
- Judgment Brings Vindication – The righteous rejoice, not in cruelty, but in seeing God’s holiness upheld.
- God Judges All the Earth – No one escapes His justice; His reign is universal, and righteousness will be rewarded.

Psalm 59 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God Our Defense”

To the Chief Musician. Altaschith. Michtam of David, when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

A Cry for Deliverance

1 Deliver me from my enemies, O my God; defend me from those who rise up against me.

Cross References: Psalm 18:48; Psalm 143:9; Psalm 31:15

2 Deliver me from the workers of iniquity, and save me from bloody men.

Cross References: Psalm 5:6; Psalm 26:9; Psalm 140:1

3 For behold, they lie in wait for my life;
the mighty gather against me, not for my transgression, nor for my sin, O Lord.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 19:11; Psalm 35:7; Psalm 69:4

4 They run and prepare themselves without my fault;
awake to help me, and behold.

Cross References: Psalm 7:6; Psalm 35:23; Psalm 44:23

5 You therefore, O Lord God of hosts, the God of Israel, awake to punish all the nations;
do not be merciful to any wicked transgressors. Selah.

Cross References: Psalm 80:4; Jeremiah 10:25; Psalm 9:19

The Malice of the Wicked

6 They return at evening, growling like dogs, and go around the city.

Cross References: Psalm 22:16; Jeremiah 5:6; Isaiah 56:11

7 Behold, they spew with their mouth;
swords are in their lips: for they say, “Who hears?”

Cross References: Psalm 55:21; Psalm 64:3; Psalm 94:7

8 But You, O Lord, shall laugh at them;
You shall have all the nations in derision.

Cross References: Psalm 2:4; Psalm 37:13; Proverbs 1:26

God, My Defense

9 Because of his strength I will wait upon You,
for God is my defense.

Cross References: Psalm 62:11; Psalm 46:1; Psalm 18:2

10 The God of my mercy shall go before me;
God shall let me see my desire upon my enemies.

Cross References: Psalm 21:11; Psalm 92:11; Psalm 54:7

11 Do not slay them, lest my people forget; scatter them by Your power, and bring them down, O Lord our shield.

Cross References: Psalm 3:3; Deuteronomy 33:29; Psalm 84:11

12 For the sin of their mouth and the words of their lips, let them even be taken in their pride,
for the cursing and lying which they speak.

Cross References: Proverbs 12:13; Proverbs 18:7; Psalm 10:2

13 Consume them in wrath, consume them, that they may not be;
and let them know that God rules in Jacob to the ends of the earth. Selah.

Cross References: Psalm 83:18; Psalm 46:10; Daniel 4:17

The Righteous Response

14 And at evening let them return;
let them growl like a dog, and go around the city.

Cross References: Isaiah 56:11; Jeremiah 5:6; Psalm 59:6

15 Let them wander up and down for food, and howl if they are not satisfied.

Cross References: Job 15:23; Proverbs 30:15; Psalm 109:10

16 But I will sing of Your power;
yes, I will sing aloud of Your mercy in the morning.
For You have been my defense and refuge in the day of my trouble.

Cross References: Psalm 89:1; Psalm 46:1; Psalm 90:14

17 To You, O my strength, I will sing;
for God is my defense,
my God of mercy.

Cross References: Psalm 18:1; Psalm 144:2; Psalm 59:9

Key Lessons from Psalm 59

- God Is Our Defender – When enemies rise against us, the Lord Himself is our shield and protector.
- The Wicked Cannot Hide – Though they speak deceitfully and act as if no one hears, God sees and will judge.
- Patience in Waiting – David shows that even in danger, waiting on God's timing is the way to victory.
- Judgment Brings Humility – God's punishment reveals His rule over all nations and humbles the proud.
- Praise in the Morning – Even in trouble, believers are called to sing of God's power and mercy, trusting Him as their refuge.

Psalm 60 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God Our Only Hope of Victory”

To the Chief Musician. Upon Shushan-eduth. Michtam of David, to teach; when he fought with Aram- naharaim and with Aram-zobah, when Joab returned and struck twelve thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

A Plea for Restoration

1 O God, You have cast us off; You have broken us down;
You have been displeased; O turn Yourself to us again.

Cross References: Psalm 44:9; Psalm 85:4; Lamentations 5:21

2 You have made the earth tremble; You have broken it;
heal its breaches, for it shakes.

Cross References: Amos 9:11; Psalm 46:2; Isaiah 58:12

3 You have shown Your people hard things;
You have made us drink the wine of staggering.

Cross References: Isaiah 51:17; Jeremiah 25:15; Psalm 75:8

4 You have given a banner to those who fear You, that it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah.

Cross References: Exodus 17:15; Isaiah 11:10; Psalm 20:5

5 That Your beloved may be delivered, save with Your right hand, and hear me.

Cross References: Psalm 108:6; Psalm 17:7; Psalm 138:7

The Lord's Declaration

6 God has spoken in His holiness: I will rejoice;
I will divide Shechem and measure out the Valley of Succoth.

Cross References: Genesis 33:18; Joshua 24:1; Genesis 33:17

7 Gilead is Mine, and Manasseh is Mine;
Ephraim also is the helmet of My head;
Judah is My lawgiver.

Cross References: Numbers 32:40; Genesis 49:10; Deuteronomy 33:17

8 Moab is My washpot; over Edom I will cast My shoe;
Philistia, shout in triumph because of Me.

Cross References: Numbers 24:18; Isaiah 11:14; Ruth 4:7

Victory Through God Alone

9 Who will bring me to the fortified city?
Who will lead me to Edom?

Cross References: 2 Samuel 8:14; Psalm 108:10; Obadiah 1:3

10 Will not You, O God, who had cast us off?
And You, O God, who did not go out with our armies?

Cross References: Psalm 44:9; Psalm 108:11; Judges 5:23

11 Give us help from trouble,
for the help of man is useless.

Cross References: Psalm 108:12; Psalm 146:3; Jeremiah 17:5

12 Through God we shall do valiantly, for He it is who shall tread down our enemies.

Cross References: Psalm 108:13; Psalm 44:5; Philippians 4:13

Key Lessons from Psalm 60

- When God Seems Distant – Even in times when God seems to cast us off, His people must cry for His restoration.
- God Is Sovereign Over Nations – The Lord declares ownership over Israel and dominance over her enemies, reminding us He rules all lands.
- Human Help Is Insufficient – Victory cannot come through human strength, but only through the power of God.
- Hope in His Deliverance – No matter the trial, deliverance comes when God stretches out His hand.
- True Triumph Belongs to God – Any victory achieved by God’s people is ultimately His victory, not ours.

Psalm 61 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Rock That Is Higher Than I”

To the Chief Musician on Neginah. A Psalm of David.

Prayer for Refuge

1 Hear my cry, O God;
attend to my prayer.

Cross References: Psalm 55:1; Psalm 64:1; Psalm 17:1

2 From the end of the earth I will cry to You, when my heart is overwhelmed:
lead me to the Rock that is higher than I.

Cross References: Psalm 42:6; Psalm 40:2; Isaiah 26:4

3 For You have been a shelter for me, a strong tower from the enemy.

Cross References: Proverbs 18:10; Psalm 18:2; Psalm 91:2

Abiding in God’s Presence

4 I will abide in Your tabernacle forever;
I will trust in the shelter of Your wings. Selah.

Cross References: Psalm 27:4; Psalm 91:1; Psalm 36:7

5 For You, O God, have heard my vows;
You have given me the heritage of those who fear Your name.

Cross References: Psalm 21:2; Psalm 111:10; Psalm 16:6

Confidence in God's Preservation

6 You will prolong the king's life;
his years shall be as many generations.

Cross References: Psalm 21:4; 1 Kings 3:14; Psalm 89:29

7 He shall abide before God forever.
Oh, prepare mercy and truth,
which may preserve him.

Cross References: Psalm 40:11; Proverbs 20:28; Psalm 89:14

Vows of Praise

8 So will I sing praise to Your name forever, that I may daily perform my vows.

Cross References: Psalm 145:2; Psalm 116:14; Ecclesiastes 5:4

Key Lessons from Psalm 61

- God Is Our Rock – When life overwhelms, we must look upward to the Rock that is higher than us.
- Safe Refuge in His Presence – The Lord is our shelter, strong tower, and the shadow of His wings is a place of peace.
- Prayer and Praise Go Together – Even in need, David pairs his requests with vows of worship and praise.
- God Preserves His People – His mercy and truth are what sustain us, not human power.
- A Heritage for the Faithful – Those who fear His name inherit His promises and enjoy His protection.

Psalm 62 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God Alone Is My Salvation”

To the Chief Musician, to Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

Trust in God Alone

1 Truly my soul waits upon God;
from Him comes my salvation.

Cross References: Lamentations 3:26; Isaiah 30:15; Psalm 62:5

2 He only is my rock and my salvation;
He is my defense; I shall not be greatly moved.

Cross References: Psalm 18:2; Psalm 46:5; Deuteronomy 32:4

The Vanity of Men

3 How long will you scheme against a man?
You shall all be slain:
as a bowing wall you shall be, and as a tottering fence.

Cross References: Psalm 4:2; Psalm 94:20; Isaiah 30:13

4 They consult only to cast him down from his high place;
they delight in lies:
they bless with their mouth, but they curse inwardly. Selah.

Cross References: Psalm 28:3; Jeremiah 9:8; Proverbs 26:24

Confidence Renewed

5 My soul, wait only upon God;
for my expectation is from Him.

Cross References: Psalm 62:1; Psalm 39:7; Lamentations 3:24

6 He only is my rock and my salvation:
He is my defense; I shall not be moved.

Cross References: Psalm 62:2; Psalm 16:8; Psalm 46:5

7 In God is my salvation and my glory:
the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.

Cross References: Psalm 18:2; Psalm 89:26; 1 Chronicles 29:11

A Call to Trust

8 Trust in Him at all times, you people;
pour out your heart before Him:
God is a refuge for us. Selah.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:5; Lamentations 2:19; Psalm 46:1

The Worthlessness of Riches and Power

9 Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie:
to be laid in the balance,
they are altogether lighter than vanity.

Cross References: Psalm 39:5; Psalm 144:4; Isaiah 40:15

10 Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery:
if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.

Cross References: Job 31:24; 1 Timothy 6:17; Proverbs 23:5

God's Power and Mercy

11 God has spoken once;
twice have I heard this:
that power belongs to God.

Cross References: Job 33:14; Psalm 68:34; Romans 13:1

12 Also to You, O Lord, belongs mercy:
for You render to every man according to his work.

Cross References: Psalm 103:8; Matthew 16:27; Romans 2:6

Key Lessons from Psalm 62

- God Alone Is Salvation – True stability and deliverance are found only in God, not in human strength or wealth.
- Wait Patiently on the Lord – Our souls must rest in God, expecting from Him alone.
- False Security in Men – Both lowly and mighty men are empty when compared to God's eternal strength.
- Riches Are Deceptive – Wealth, oppression, or robbery cannot bring lasting security; only God sustains.
- Power and Mercy Belong to God – He alone holds ultimate power, yet He balances it with mercy and perfect justice.

Psalm 63 – Crawford Standard Bible

“My Soul Thirsts for God”

A Psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

Longing for God's Presence

1 O God, You are my God; early will I seek You:
my soul thirsts for You, my flesh longs for You, in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is.

Cross References: Psalm 42:1; Psalm 143:6; John 7:37

2 To see Your power and Your glory, so as I have seen You in the sanctuary.

Cross References: Psalm 27:4; Exodus 40:34; Psalm 96:6

The Greatness of God's Love

3 Because Your lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise You.

Cross References: Psalm 36:7; Philippians 1:21; Romans 8:38

4 Thus will I bless You while I live;
I will lift up my hands in Your name.

Cross References: Psalm 104:33; 1 Timothy 2:8; Psalm 134:2

5 My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness;
and my mouth shall praise You with joyful lips.

Cross References: Psalm 36:8; Isaiah 25:6; Psalm 65:4

Meditation in the Night

6 When I remember You upon my bed, and meditate on You in the night watches.

Cross References: Psalm 119:148; Psalm 16:7; Psalm 1:2

7 Because You have been my help, therefore in the shadow of Your wings will I rejoice.

Cross References: Psalm 27:9; Psalm 17:8; Psalm 91:1

8 My soul clings to You:
Your right hand upholds me.

Cross References: Psalm 73:23; John 10:28; Isaiah 41:10

The Fate of the Wicked

9 But those that seek my soul, to destroy it, shall go into the lower parts of the earth.

Cross References: Psalm 35:4; Ezekiel 26:20; Psalm 86:13

10 They shall fall by the sword:
they shall be a portion for foxes.

Cross References: Ezekiel 39:4; Psalm 79:2; Lamentations 5:18

The King's Joy

11 But the king shall rejoice in God;
every one that swears by Him shall glory:
but the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

Cross References: Romans 3:19; Zephaniah 3:13; Psalm 107:42

Key Lessons from Psalm 63

- Seek God Early and Earnestly – Just as David longed for God in the wilderness, we are called to pursue Him as the deepest need of our souls.
- God’s Love Is Better Than Life – His lovingkindness surpasses every earthly blessing, leading us to worship and praise.
- True Satisfaction Comes from God – Only His presence can fill and satisfy the human heart.
- God’s Protection Is Sure – Under His wings, His people find safety and joy.
- The Wicked Will Perish, but the Righteous Rejoice – Those who oppose God are brought low, but those who cling to Him rejoice in His salvation.

Psalms 64 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God’s Justice Against Secret Plots”

To the chief musician. A Psalm of David.

Prayer for Protection

1 Hear my voice, O God, in my prayer; preserve my life from fear of the enemy.

Cross References: Psalm 27:1; Psalm 143:1; Psalm 5:1

2 Hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked;
from the insurrection of the workers of iniquity.

Cross References: Psalm 31:20; Psalm 27:5; Jeremiah 18:18

The Plots of the Wicked

3 They sharpen their tongue like a sword, and bend their bows to shoot their arrows, even bitter words.

Cross References: Psalm 57:4; Psalm 55:21; Jeremiah 9:8

4 That they may shoot in secret at the upright;
suddenly do they shoot at him, and fear not.

Cross References: Psalm 11:2; Psalm 37:14; Proverbs 1:11

5 They encourage themselves in an evil matter;
they talk of laying snares secretly; they say, “Who shall see them?”

Cross References: Psalm 10:11; Psalm 94:7; Isaiah 29:15

6 They search out iniquities;
they accomplish a diligent search:
both the inward thought of every one of them, and the heart, is deep.

Cross References: Jeremiah 17:9; Psalm 139:23; Proverbs 20:27

God’s Judgment

7 But God shall shoot at them with an arrow;
suddenly shall they be wounded.

Cross References: Psalm 7:12; Deuteronomy 32:23; Psalm 18:14

8 So they shall make their own tongue to fall upon themselves:
all that see them shall flee away.

Cross References: Psalm 7:16; Psalm 9:16; Proverbs 26:27

The Result of God's Justice

9 And all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God;
for they shall wisely consider of His doing.

Cross References: Psalm 40:3; Psalm 58:11; Habakkuk 3:2

10 The righteous shall be glad in the Lord, and shall trust in Him;
and all the upright in heart shall glory.

Cross References: Psalm 32:11; Psalm 97:12; Proverbs 29:6

Key Lessons from Psalm 64

- God Hears the Cry of the Oppressed – When enemies plot in secret, God is attentive to His people's prayers.
- The Power of Words – The tongue can wound like arrows, but God will turn destructive words back on those who speak them.
- God Judges Hidden Sin – No secret plan of the wicked escapes His sight; He exposes and defeats their schemes.
- The Righteous Find Joy and Safety in God – Even when surrounded by enemies, the faithful rejoice and trust in His protection.
- God's Justice Leads to His Glory – When He acts, all people see His works and recognize His power.

Psalm 65 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God's Abundant Provision and Power”

9 who holds our soul in life, and does not allow our feet to slip.

Cross References: Psalm 121:3; Psalm 30:3; Psalm 55:22

10 For You, O God, have tested us:
You have tried us, as silver is tried.

Cross References: Proverbs 17:3; Job 23:10; Zechariah 13:9

11 You brought us into the net;
You laid affliction upon our backs.

Cross References: Ezekiel 12:13; Job 19:6; Lamentations 1:13

12 You caused men to ride over our heads;
we went through fire and through water:
but You brought us out into a place of abundance.

Cross References: Isaiah 43:2; Psalm 18:19; Psalm 40:2

Offerings of Praise and Testimony

13 I will go into Your house with burnt offerings:
I will pay You my vows,

Cross References: Leviticus 1:3; Psalm 116:17; Numbers 30:2

14 which my lips have uttered, and my mouth has spoken, when I was in trouble.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 23:23; Jonah 2:9; Judges 11:35

15 I will offer unto You burnt sacrifices of fat animals, with the smoke of rams;
I will offer bulls with goats. Selah.

Cross References: Leviticus 1:10; Numbers 23:1; Leviticus 9:2

Declaring God's Deliverance

16 Come and hear, all you that fear God, and I will declare what He has done for my soul.

Cross References: Psalm 34:11; Psalm 71:17; Psalm 22:22

17 I cried unto Him with my mouth, and He was praised with my tongue.

Cross References: Psalm 30:2; Psalm 34:6; Jonah 2:2

18 If I regard iniquity in my heart,
the Lord will not hear me:

Cross References: Isaiah 59:2; Proverbs 28:9; John 9:31

19 But truly God has heard me;
He has attended to the voice of my prayer.

Cross References: Psalm 34:15; Psalm 116:1; 1 John 5:14

20 Blessed be God, who has not turned away my prayer, nor His mercy from me.

Cross References: Psalm 28:6; Psalm 118:21; Lamentations 3:22

Key Lessons from Psalm 66

- All Nations Are Called to Worship – The psalm invites the whole earth to honor God's name and glorify Him.
- God's Power Brings Awe – His mighty works, from parting the sea to ruling over nations, demand reverence.

- Trials Purify God's People – Affliction is compared to silver being tested, yet God leads His people into abundance.
- Worship Requires Sincerity – Vows and offerings must come from a heart that remembers God's deliverance.
- Prayer Requires Purity – If sin is cherished in the heart, prayer is hindered—but God hears the sincere.
- Testimony Strengthens Others – Sharing what God has done encourages the faith of those who fear Him.

Psalm 67 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Prayer for God's Blessing on All Nations”

- God's Presence Transforms – His march through the wilderness shook Sinai and brought provision for His people.
- Christ Fulfilled the Ascent – Verse 18 foreshadows Christ's ascension, where He led captivity captive (Ephesians 4:8).
- Daily Blessings – God loads His people with benefits, sustaining them with salvation.
- Universal Praise – From Israel to Egypt, Ethiopia, and all nations, God calls for global worship.
- Strength and Power Belong to God Alone – His might is unrivaled, and His people are strengthened through Him.

Psalm 69 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Save Me, O God”

To the chief musician. Upon Shoshannim. A Psalm of David.

A Cry from the Depths

1 Save me, O God;
for the waters have come up unto my soul.

Cross References: Psalm 18:16; Jonah 2:5; Psalm 42:7

2 I sink in deep mire, where there is no standing:
I have come into deep waters,
where the floods overflow me.

Cross References: Jeremiah 38:6; Psalm 40:2; Lamentations 3:54 3 I am weary with my crying;

my throat is dried:
my eyes fail while I wait for my God.

Cross References: Psalm 6:6; Psalm 22:2; Lamentations 2:11

The Weight of Hostility

4 They that hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of my head:
they that would destroy me, being my enemies wrongfully, are mighty:
then I restored that which I did not steal.

Cross References: John 15:25; Psalm 35:19; Psalm 109:3

5 O God, You know my foolishness; and my sins are not hidden from You.

Cross References: Psalm 139:1; Jeremiah 17:10; Hebrews 4:13

6 Let not those that wait on You, O Lord God of hosts, be ashamed because of me:
let not those that seek You be confounded for my sake,
O God of Israel.

Cross References: Psalm 25:3; Romans 9:33; Isaiah 49:23

Reproach and Isolation

7 Because for Your sake I have borne reproach; shame has covered my face.

Cross References: Jeremiah 15:15; Psalm 44:15; 1 Peter 4:14

8 I have become a stranger to my brethren, and an alien unto my mother's children.

Cross References: John 7:5; Psalm 27:10; Mark 3:21

9 For the zeal of Your house has consumed me; and the reproaches of those who reproached You are fallen upon me.

Cross References: John 2:17; Romans 15:3; John 2:14

10 When I wept and humbled my soul with fasting, that was turned to my reproach.

Cross References: Isaiah 58:5; Psalm 35:13; Matthew 6:16

11 I made sackcloth my garment;
and I became a proverb to them.

Cross References: Job 16:15; Job 17:6; Jonah 3:5

12 They that sit in the gate speak against me; and I was the song of the drunkards.

Cross References: Job 30:9; Lamentations 3:14; Job 19:18

Prayer for Deliverance

13 But as for me, my prayer is unto You, O Lord, in an acceptable time:
O God, in the multitude of Your mercy hear me, in the truth of Your salvation.

Cross References: Isaiah 49:8; 2 Corinthians 6:2; Psalm 32:6

14 Deliver me out of the mire, and let me not sink:
let me be delivered from those that hate me,
and out of the deep waters.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 22:17; Psalm 71:2; Psalm 144:7

15 Let not the flood overflow me, neither let the deep swallow me up, and let not the pit shut her mouth upon me.

Cross References: Psalm 124:4; Isaiah 43:2; Jonah 2:6

16 Hear me, O Lord; for Your lovingkindness is good:
turn unto me according to the multitude of Your tender mercies.

17 Hide not Your face from Your servant;
for I am in trouble: hear me speedily.

Cross References: Psalm 27:9; Psalm 102:2; Psalm 143:7

18 Draw near unto my soul, and redeem it:
deliver me because of my enemies.

Cross References: Psalm 34:18; Lamentations 3:57; Psalm 103:4

Betrayed and Mocked

19 You have known my reproach, and my shame, and my dishonor:
my adversaries are all before You.

Cross References: Isaiah 53:3; Hebrews 12:2; Psalm 22:6

20 Reproach has broken my heart; and I am full of heaviness:
I looked for someone to take pity, but there was none;
and for comforters, but I found none.

Cross References: Matthew 26:38; Isaiah 63:5; Lamentations 1:12

21 They gave me also gall for my food;
and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

Cross References: Matthew 27:34; John 19:29; Matthew 27:48

Prayer of Judgment on Enemies

22 Let their table become a snare before them:
and that which should have been for their welfare, let it become a trap.

Cross References: Romans 11:9; Romans 11:10; Jeremiah 6:21

23 Let their eyes be darkened, that they see not;
and make their loins continually to tremble.

Cross References: Romans 11:10; Isaiah 6:9; John 12:40

24 Pour out Your indignation upon them, and let Your fierce anger overtake them.

Cross References: Psalm 79:6; Jeremiah 10:25; Revelation 16:1

25 Let their habitation be desolate; and let none dwell in their tents.

Cross References: Acts 1:20; Matthew 23:38; Jeremiah 12:7

Hope in God's Salvation

29 But I am poor and sorrowful:
let Your salvation, O God, set me on high.

Cross References: Psalm 40:17; Psalm 70:5; Psalm 34:6

30 I will praise the name of God with a song, and will magnify Him with thanksgiving.

Cross References: Psalm 34:1; Psalm 100:4; Psalm 28:7

31 This also shall please the Lord better than an ox or a bull that has horns and hooves.

Cross References: Psalm 50:14; Hosea 14:2; Micah 6:8

32 The humble shall see this, and be glad:
and your heart shall live that seek God.

Cross References: Psalm 22:26; Psalm 34:2; Isaiah 61:1

33 For the Lord hears the poor, and does not despise His prisoners.

Cross References: Psalm 102:17; Isaiah 41:17; James 2:5

Universal Praise and Restoration

34 Let heaven and earth praise Him, the seas, and everything that moves therein.

Cross References: Psalm 96:11; Psalm 148:3; Revelation 5:13

35 For God will save Zion, and will build the cities of Judah:
that they may dwell there, and have it in possession.

Cross References: Isaiah 44:26; Jeremiah 30:18; Amos 9:14

36 The descendants of His servants shall inherit it:
and they that love His name shall dwell therein.

Cross References: Psalm 37:29; Isaiah 65:9; Romans 8:17

Key Lessons from Psalm 69

- Messianic Prophecy – Verse 21 was fulfilled at the cross when Christ was given vinegar to drink (Matthew 27:34, John 19:28–30).
- The Cost of Zeal – True passion for God’s house often brings reproach and isolation (v. 9; John 2:17).
- God Knows Our Sorrow – He sees the reproach, shame, and loneliness of His children (v. 19–20).
- Righteous Anger vs. Mercy – David prays for judgment on enemies, reminding us of the seriousness of sin and rejection of God.

- True Worship – God delights more in heartfelt praise and thanksgiving than in ritual sacrifice (v. 30–31).
- Hope of Restoration – Zion’s future blessing assures believers that God’s salvation will triumph in the end.

Psalm 70 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Make Haste to Help Me”

To the chief musician. A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.

A Cry for Urgent Deliverance

1 Make haste, O God, to deliver me; make haste to help me, O Lord.

Cross References: Psalm 40:13; Psalm 38:22; Psalm 22:19

2 Let them be ashamed and confounded that seek after my soul:
let them be turned backward, and put to confusion, that desire my hurt.

Cross References: Psalm 35:4; Psalm 40:14; Psalm 6:10

3 Let them be turned back for a reward of their shame that say, “Aha, aha.”

Cross References: Psalm 40:15; Psalm 35:21; Psalm 35:25

Joy for the Righteous

4 Let all those that seek You rejoice and be glad in You:
and let those who love Your salvation say continually, “Let God be magnified.”

Cross References: Psalm 40:16; Psalm 35:27; Psalm 105:3

Personal Plea for Rescue

5 But I am poor and needy:
make haste unto me, O God:
You are my help and my deliverer;
O Lord, do not delay.

Cross References: Psalm 40:17; Psalm 69:29; Psalm 71:12

Key Lessons from Psalm 70

- Urgent Prayer is Biblical – It is not wrong to cry out, “Hurry, Lord!” God welcomes our desperation when we lean fully on Him.
- Enemies Will Fail – Those who oppose God’s people will ultimately be put to shame.

- Worship in Waiting – Even while pleading for help, believers are called to rejoice and magnify the Lord.
- God Our Deliverer – The psalm reminds us that only God is our true help and deliverer—He never delays beyond what is best.

Psalm 71 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Lifetime of Trust”

Trusting God from Youth to Old Age

1 In You, O Lord, do I put my trust:
let me never be put to confusion.

Cross References: Psalm 31:1; Psalm 25:2; Isaiah 28:16

2 Deliver me in Your righteousness, and cause me to escape:
incline Your ear unto me, and save me.

Cross References: Psalm 31:2; Psalm 143:1; Psalm 17:6

3 Be my strong habitation, where I may continually come;
You have given commandment to save me;
for You are my rock and my fortress.

Cross References: Psalm 31:3; Psalm 18:2; Psalm 90:1

4 Deliver me, O my God, from the hand of the wicked, from the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.

Cross References: Psalm 82:4; Psalm 140:1; Psalm 43:1

5 For You are my hope, O Lord God:
You are my trust from my youth.

Cross References: Psalm 22:9; Jeremiah 17:7; Psalm 65:5

6 By You have I been upheld from the womb:
You are He that took me out of my mother’s womb:
my praise shall continually be of You.

Cross References: Isaiah 44:2; Psalm 22:10; Jeremiah 1:5

A Refuge and a Witness

7 I am as a wonder to many;
but You are my strong refuge.

Cross References: Psalm 31:11; 1 Corinthians 4:9; Psalm 46:1

8 Let my mouth be filled with Your praise and with Your honor all the day.

Cross References: Psalm 34:1; Psalm 35:28; Psalm 145:2

9 Do not cast me off in the time of old age;
forsake me not when my strength fails.

Cross References: Isaiah 46:4; Psalm 51:11; Ruth 4:15

10 For my enemies speak against me;
and those who lie in wait for my soul take counsel together,

Cross References: Psalm 31:13; Psalm 41:7; Matthew 27:1

11 Saying, "God has forsaken him: pursue and take him; for there is none to deliver him."

Cross References: Psalm 22:1; Psalm 22:8; Matthew 27:43

12 O God, be not far from me:
O my God, make haste for my help.

Cross References: Psalm 22:11; Psalm 22:19; Psalm 38:22

13 Let them be confounded and consumed that are adversaries to my soul;
let them be covered with reproach and dishonor that seek my hurt.

Cross References: Psalm 35:4; Psalm 109:29; Psalm 40:14

Continual Hope and Praise

14 But I will hope continually, and will yet praise You more and more.

Cross References: Psalm 42:5; Romans 15:13; Lamentations 3:24

15 My mouth shall declare Your righteousness and Your salvation all the day;
for I do not know their number.

Cross References: Psalm 40:5; Psalm 145:3; Ecclesiastes 3:11

16 I will go in the strength of the Lord God:
I will make mention of Your righteousness, even of Yours alone.

Cross References: Isaiah 40:31; Philippians 4:13; Ephesians 6:10

17 O God, You have taught me from my youth:
and to this day I declare Your wondrous works.

Cross References: Psalm 119:9; 2 Timothy 3:15; Psalm 78:4

18 Now also when I am old and grayheaded, O God, forsake me not; until I have shown Your strength to this generation, and Your power to everyone that is to come.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 6:7; Joel 1:3; Psalm 145:4

God's Greatness and Comfort

19 Your righteousness also, O God, is very high,
You who have done great things:
O God, who is like You!

Cross References: Psalm 36:6; Micah 7:18; Exodus 15:11

20 You, who have shown me great and severe troubles, shall revive me again,
and shall bring me up again from the depths of the earth.

Cross References: Psalm 30:3; Psalm 86:13; Jonah 2:6

21 You shall increase my greatness, and comfort me on every side.

Cross References: Job 42:10; 2 Corinthians 1:4; Psalm 23:4

A Song of Redeemed Praise

22 I will also praise You with the psaltery, even Your truth, O my God:
unto You will I sing with the harp,
O You Holy One of Israel.

Cross References: Psalm 33:2; Psalm 92:1; Isaiah 12:6

23 My lips shall greatly rejoice when I sing unto You;
and my soul, which You have redeemed.

Cross References: Psalm 63:5; Psalm 103:4; Isaiah 51:11

24 My tongue also shall talk of Your righteousness all the day long:
for they are confounded, for they are brought unto shame, that seek my hurt.

Cross References: Psalm 45:1; Psalm 6:10; Psalm 35:26

Key Lessons from Psalm 71

- God is Faithful for a Lifetime – From the womb to old age, the Lord sustains those who trust Him.
- Hope Grows Stronger with Age – Even when strength fails, faith and praise can grow stronger.
- A Legacy of Faith – Believers are called to pass on God's strength and power to the next generation.
- Trials Lead to Renewal – The same God who allows affliction also revives, restores, and comforts His people.

- Praise is Lifelong – No season of life is exempt from declaring God’s righteousness and salvation.

Psalm 72 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Reign of the Righteous King”

A Prayer for the King’s Justice

1 Give the king Your judgments, O God, and Your righteousness unto the king’s son.

Cross References: 1 Kings 3:9; Isaiah 11:2; Isaiah 9:6

2 He shall judge Your people with righteousness, and Your poor with justice.

Cross References: Isaiah 11:4; Jeremiah 23:5; Isaiah 32:1

3 The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the little hills, by righteousness.

Cross References: Isaiah 2:2; Amos 9:13; Isaiah 55:12

4 He shall judge the poor of the people,
He shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor.

Cross References: Isaiah 41:17; Psalm 82:3; Luke 4:18

The Everlasting Reign of the King

5 They shall fear You as long as the sun and moon endure, throughout all generations.

Cross References: Psalm 89:36; Malachi 4:2; Luke 1:32

6 He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass:
as showers that water the earth.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:2; Hosea 6:3; Isaiah 45:8

7 In His days shall the righteous flourish;
and abundance of peace so long as the moon endures.

Cross References: Isaiah 9:7; Isaiah 32:17; Luke 1:33

8 He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the earth.

Cross References: Zechariah 9:10; Micah 5:4; Daniel 7:14

9 They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before Him; and His enemies shall lick the dust.

Cross References: Isaiah 49:23; Micah 7:17; Philippians 2:10

The Submission of the Nations

10 The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents:
the kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.

Cross References: Isaiah 60:6; 1 Kings 10:2; Matthew 2:11

11 Yes, all kings shall fall down before Him:
all nations shall serve Him.

Cross References: Isaiah 49:7; Revelation 21:24; Revelation 15:4

The King's Care for the Needy

12 For He shall deliver the needy when he cries;
the poor also, and him that has no helper.

Cross References: Job 29:12; Isaiah 25:4; Luke 1:52

13 He shall spare the poor and needy, and shall save the souls of the needy.

Cross References: Psalm 82:4; Isaiah 42:3; Proverbs 31:9

14 He shall redeem their soul from deceit and violence:
and precious shall their blood be in His sight.

Cross References: Psalm 116:15; Isaiah 43:4; 1 Peter 1:18

The Blessing of His Reign

15 He shall live, and to Him shall be given the gold of Sheba:
prayer also shall be made for Him continually;
and daily shall He be praised.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:10; 1 Timothy 2:1; Revelation 5:12

16 There shall be a handful of grain in the earth upon the top of the mountains;
the fruit thereof shall wave like Lebanon:
and they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth.

Cross References: Ezekiel 34:26; Joel 2:24; Psalm 92:12

17 His name shall endure forever:
His name shall continue as long as the sun:
and men shall be blessed in Him:
all nations shall call Him blessed.

Cross References: Genesis 22:18; Luke 1:48; Galatians 3:8

Closing Benediction

18 Blessed be the Lord God, the God of Israel, who only does wondrous things.

Cross References: Psalm 41:13; Ephesians 1:3; Luke 1:68

19 And blessed be His glorious name forever:
and let the whole earth be filled with His glory;
Amen, and Amen.

Cross References: Numbers 14:21; Habakkuk 2:14; Isaiah 6:3

20 The prayers of David the son of Jesse are ended.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 16:1; 1 Kings 2:1; 2 Samuel 23:1

Key Lessons from Psalm 72

- Christ is the Perfect King – The psalm anticipates a reign greater than Solomon’s, fulfilled in Christ who rules with perfect justice and mercy.
- True Peace Flows from Righteousness – Lasting peace and prosperity are rooted in God’s justice, not human strength.
- The Kingdom is Universal – Christ’s dominion extends to all nations, peoples, and lands.
- The King Defends the Helpless – The needy, poor, and oppressed are precious in God’s sight, and He redeems their lives.
- His Name Endures Forever – Christ’s name and glory will never fade, and all nations will be blessed in Him.

Psalm 73 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The End of the Wicked and the Security of the Righteous”

The Struggle with Envy

1 Truly God is good to Israel, even to those who are of a clean heart.

Cross References: Psalm 25:8; Matthew 5:8; Nahum 1:7

2 But as for me, my feet were almost gone;
my steps had nearly slipped.

Cross References: Psalm 94:18; Psalm 17:5; Psalm 37:31

3 For I was envious of the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

Cross References: Jeremiah 12:1; Job 21:7; Proverbs 3:31

4 For they have no struggles in their death;
but their strength is firm.

Cross References: Job 21:23; Job 21:13; Malachi 3:15

5 They are not in trouble as other men;
neither are they plagued like other men.

Cross References: Job 21:9; Job 12:6; Job 9:22

6 Therefore pride surrounds them as a chain; violence covers them as a garment.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:18; Psalm 10:2; Habakkuk 1:11

7 Their eyes bulge with abundance;
they have more than heart could wish.

Cross References: Job 15:27; Deuteronomy 32:15; Job 21:24

8 They are corrupt, and speak wickedly concerning oppression;
they speak loftily.

Cross References: Psalm 12:3; Isaiah 32:7; Jeremiah 5:28

9 They set their mouth against the heavens, and their tongue walks through the earth.

Cross References: Revelation 13:6; Daniel 7:25; Jude 1:15

The Prosperity of the Wicked

10 Therefore His people turn aside to them, and waters of a full cup are drained by them.

Cross References: Job 21:11; Jeremiah 5:27; Deuteronomy 32:14

11 And they say, How does God know?
Is there knowledge in the Most High?

Cross References: Job 22:13; Psalm 10:11; Psalm 94:7

12 Behold, these are the ungodly, who prosper in the world; they increase in riches.

Cross References: Psalm 17:14; Ecclesiastes 8:14; Psalm 37:35

13 Surely I have cleansed my heart in vain, and washed my hands in innocence.

Cross References: Job 9:30; Malachi 3:14; Job 21:15

14 For all the day long I have been plagued, and chastened every morning.

Cross References: Job 7:18; Lamentations 3:3; Job 33:19

15 If I had said, "I will speak thus," behold, I would have betrayed the generation of Your children.

Cross References: Numbers 20:12; Matthew 18:6; Job 42:7

The Turning Point: God's Sanctuary

16 When I thought to understand this,
it was too painful for me;

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 8:17; Job 11:7; Ecclesiastes 3:11

17 Until I went into the sanctuary of God;
then I understood their end.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:29; Proverbs 14:12; Job 8:13

18 Surely You set them in slippery places:
You cast them down into destruction.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:35; Jeremiah 23:12; Psalm 35:6

19 How they are brought into desolation, as in a moment!
They are utterly consumed with terrors.

Cross References: Job 20:5; Malachi 4:1; 1 Thessalonians 5:3

20 As a dream when one awakes;
so, O Lord, when You arise, You shall despise their image.

Cross References: Job 20:8; Isaiah 29:8; Psalm 39:6

A Confession of Folly and Faith

21 Thus my heart was grieved, and I was pricked in my reins.

Cross References: Psalm 37:1; Proverbs 23:17; Job 6:2

22 So foolish was I, and ignorant:
I was as a beast before You.

Cross References: Proverbs 30:2; Job 42:3; Psalm 92:6

23 Nevertheless I am continually with You:
You have held me by my right hand.

Cross References: Isaiah 41:13; Psalm 63:8; Isaiah 42:6

24 You shall guide me with Your counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.

Cross References: Psalm 32:8; Proverbs 3:6; John 17:24

25 Whom have I in heaven but You?

And there is none upon earth that I desire besides You.

Cross References: Psalm 16:5; Lamentations 3:24; Philippians 3:8

26 My flesh and my heart fail:

but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion forever.

Cross References: Psalm 119:57; 2 Corinthians 12:9; Numbers 18:20

The Destiny of the Wicked vs. the Righteous

27 For behold, those who are far from You shall perish:

You have destroyed all those who go astray from You.

Cross References: Psalm 92:9; Hosea 4:12; James 4:4

28 But it is good for me to draw near to God:

I have put my trust in the Lord God, that I may declare all Your works.

Cross References: James 4:8; Psalm 63:1; Hebrews 10:22

KEY LESSONS FROM PSALM 73

- The Prosperity of the Wicked is Temporary – Though they seem secure, God has set them in slippery places; their end is sudden destruction.
- Envy Blinds the Heart – Looking at the lives of the ungodly without God's perspective can lead to doubt and despair.
- The Sanctuary Gives Clarity – True understanding comes when we draw near to God in worship and gain an eternal perspective.
- God is Our Portion Forever – Earthly wealth fades, but God Himself is the lasting inheritance of His people.
- The Righteous Find Security in God's Presence – Even in weakness, God holds us by His hand, guides us with counsel, and will receive us into glory.
- The Nearness of God is Our Good – The highest blessing is not prosperity, but fellowship with the living God.

Psalm 74 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Plea for God's Deliverance from Enemies”

Why, O Lord, Have You Cast Us Off?

1 O God, why have You cast us off forever?

Why does Your anger smoke against the sheep of Your pasture?

Cross References: Psalm 44:9; Psalm 79:5; Psalm 100:3

2 Remember Your congregation, which You purchased of old, the tribe of Your inheritance, which You redeemed;
this Mount Zion, where You have dwelt.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:9; Exodus 15:16; Psalm 76:2

3 Lift up Your feet to the perpetual desolations;
see all the destruction the enemy has done in the sanctuary.

Cross References: Lamentations 1:10; 2 Kings 25:9; Psalm 79:1

The Enemy's Desecration of the Sanctuary

4 Your enemies roar in the midst of Your congregations;
they set up their banners as signs.

Cross References: Numbers 2:2; Psalm 83:2; Lamentations 2:7

5 A man was honored for lifting axes against the thick trees.

Cross References: 1 Kings 6:7; Jeremiah 46:22; Isaiah 10:34

6 But now they smash the carved work of the temple with axes and hammers.

Cross References: 1 Kings 6:29; 2 Kings 25:13; 2 Chronicles 36:19

7 They set fire to Your sanctuary;
they defiled the dwelling place of Your name, casting it to the ground.

Cross References: 2 Kings 25:9; 2 Chronicles 36:19; Lamentations 2:7

8 They said in their hearts, Let us destroy them altogether.
They have burned all the meeting places of God in the land.

Cross References: Lamentations 2:6; 2 Chronicles 36:19; Ezekiel 24:21

A Season Without Prophets

9 We see not our signs:
there is no longer any prophet,
neither is there anyone among us who knows how long.

Cross References: Lamentations 2:9; Ezekiel 7:26; Amos 8:11

10 O God, how long shall the enemy reproach?
Shall the adversary blaspheme Your name forever?

Cross References: Psalm 79:5; Psalm 89:46; Habakkuk 1:2

11 Why do You hold back Your hand, even Your right hand?
Draw it from Your bosom and act!

Cross References: Exodus 4:7; Psalm 44:23; Habakkuk 1:13

The God of Mighty Deeds

12 For God is my King from of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth.

Cross References: Exodus 15:18; Psalm 44:4; Isaiah 43:15

13 You divided the sea by Your strength;
You broke the heads of the sea monsters in the waters.

Cross References: Exodus 14:21; Isaiah 51:9; Psalm 89:10

14 You crushed the heads of Leviathan in pieces, and gave him as food for the creatures of the wilderness.

Cross References: Isaiah 27:1; Job 41:1; Psalm 104:26

15 You opened up springs and streams;
You dried up mighty rivers.

Cross References: Exodus 17:6; Joshua 3:16; Numbers 20:11

16 The day is Yours, the night also is Yours;
You prepared the light and the sun.

Cross References: Genesis 1:14; Genesis 1:16; Jeremiah 31:35

17 You set all the boundaries of the earth;
You made summer and winter.

Cross References: Genesis 8:22; Deuteronomy 32:8; Acts 17:26

A Cry for God to Act

18 Remember this, O Lord, the enemy has reproached, and a foolish people has blasphemed Your name.

Cross References: Psalm 74:22; Isaiah 37:23; Isaiah 37:17

19 Do not deliver the soul of Your turtledove to the wild beasts;
do not forget the life of Your poor forever.

Cross References: Psalm 72:12; Jeremiah 12:9; Psalm 68:13

20 Have respect to the covenant:
for the dark places of the earth are full of the dwellings of cruelty.

Cross References: Genesis 15:18; Leviticus 26:42; Ezekiel 8:12

21 O let not the oppressed return ashamed;
let the poor and needy praise Your name.

Cross References: Psalm 9:18; Psalm 25:3; Psalm 34:2

22 Arise, O God, plead Your own cause:
remember how the foolish man reproaches You daily.

Cross References: Psalm 3:7; Psalm 35:1; 1 Samuel 25:39

23 Do not forget the voice of Your enemies;
the uproar of those who rise up against You increases continually.

Cross References: Psalm 83:2; Exodus 32:17; Psalm 2:1

KEY LESSONS FROM PSALM 74

- God's People May Feel Forsaken – Israel mourns the destruction of the temple, feeling abandoned, yet they still call Him “our King of old.”
- The Enemies of God Seek to Destroy His Worship – The burning of synagogues and the temple shows the enemy's true goal: to silence God's name among His people.
- Seasons of Silence Do Not Mean God Has Ceased to Reign – Though no prophet speaks and guidance seems lost, the psalmist remembers God's mighty acts in history.
- God is Sovereign Over Creation – The psalm recalls His power over seas, rivers, day and night, and even Leviathan—reminding us He controls both chaos and time.
- The Covenant is the Basis for Hope – The plea “have respect unto the covenant” reveals that God's promises, not circumstances, are the ground of confidence.
- God's Cause is Greater Than Ours – The psalmist cries, “Arise, O God, plead Your own cause,” showing that when God acts, He defends not only His people but His own glory.

Psalm 75 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God the Judge of All the Earth”

Thanksgiving for God's Nearness

1 To You, O God, we give thanks; to You we give thanks,
for Your name is near;
Your wondrous works declare it.

Cross References: Psalm 105:1; 1 Chronicles 16:8; Psalm 118:1

God Speaks as Judge

2 When I appoint the set time,
I will judge uprightly.

Cross References: Psalm 96:13; Psalm 98:9; Isaiah 11:4

3 Though the earth and all its inhabitants tremble,
I will hold its pillars firm. Selah.

Cross References: Job 9:6; 1 Samuel 2:8; Psalm 104:5

Warning to the Proud

4 I said to the arrogant, Do not act arrogantly, and to the wicked, Do not lift up the horn.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:35; 1 Samuel 2:3; Psalm 73:3

5 Do not lift up your horn on high;
do not speak with a stiff neck.

Cross References: Exodus 32:9; Deuteronomy 31:27; Proverbs 29:1

Exaltation Comes from God Alone

6 For exaltation comes neither from the east, nor from the west, nor from the desert.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 2:7; Daniel 2:21; Luke 1:52

7 But God is the Judge;
He brings one down,
and He lifts up another.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 2:7; Daniel 2:21; Luke 1:52

The Cup of God's Wrath

8 For in the hand of the Lord there is a cup, full of foaming wine, well mixed;
and He pours it out,
and all the wicked of the earth shall drain it down to the dregs.

Cross References: Isaiah 51:17; Jeremiah 25:15; Revelation 14:10

Praise for God's Justice

9 But I will declare it forever;
I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

Cross References: Psalm 71:14; Psalm 146:2; Psalm 89:1

10 All the horns of the wicked I will cut off, but the horns of the righteous shall be lifted up.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 2:10; Psalm 92:10; Luke 1:69

KEY LESSONS FROM PSALM 75

- God Is the Ultimate Judge – Human power, position, and pride do not determine destiny; God alone lifts up or brings down.
- Exaltation Comes from God, Not Man – Promotion or downfall does not come from east, west, or south, but from the Lord Himself.

- The Cup of Wrath Is Certain – The image of the cup reminds us that judgment for the wicked is inevitable, complete, and inescapable.
- Pride Brings Downfall – God warns the arrogant not to “lift up the horn,” showing that human pride leads to humiliation.
- The Righteous Are Exalted – While the wicked are cut off, those who walk in righteousness will ultimately be honored and strengthened by God.
- Continual Praise Is the Response – The psalmist declares he will praise God forever, for His justice is sure and His glory eternal.

Psalm 76 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The God Who Judges the Earth”

God’s Presence in Zion

1 In Judah God is known;
His name is great in Israel.

The Wrath of Man Turned to Praise

10 Surely the wrath of man shall praise You; with the remainder of wrath You will restrain it.

Cross References: Genesis 50:20; Exodus 9:16; Acts 4:28

A Call to Worship and Reverence

11 Make vows to the Lord your God and fulfill them; let all who are around Him bring gifts to Him who is to be feared.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 5:4; Psalm 68:29; Isaiah 18:7

12 He cuts off the spirit of princes;
He is awesome to the kings of the earth.

Cross References: Psalm 2:10; Isaiah 40:23; Daniel 2:21

KEY LESSONS FROM PSALM 76

- God Is Known by His Presence – His glory dwells in Zion, showing that God reveals Himself among His people.
- God Brings Peace Through Power – True peace does not come from treaties or human strength but by God breaking the weapons of war.
- No One Can Withstand His Judgment – When God arises, even the proudest warriors fall silent and powerless.
- God Defends the Humble – He rises to save the meek of the earth, showing His justice is not partial to the mighty but favors the lowly.
- Human Wrath Cannot Overrule God – Even man's rebellion ends up serving God's glory, for He turns it to His praise or restrains it completely.
- God Deserves Our Reverence and Worship – Because He rules over princes and kings, we must keep our vows and honor Him with offerings of obedience and praise.

Psalm 77 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The God Who Works Wonders”

A Cry in the Night

1 I cried out to God with my voice—to God with my voice, and He listened to me.

Cross References: Psalm 3:4; Psalm 34:6; Psalm 18:6

2 In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord;
my hands were stretched out in the night without ceasing.
My soul refused to be comforted.

Cross References: Psalm 50:15; Genesis 37:35; Psalm 22:2

3 I remembered God and groaned;
I meditated, and my spirit was overwhelmed. Selah.

Cross References: Psalm 42:6; Psalm 143:4; Psalm 55:2

The Weight of Unanswered Questions

4 You kept my eyes from closing;
I was so troubled that I could not speak.

Cross References: Job 7:4; Psalm 6:6; Job 30:17

5 I considered the days of old,
the years long ago.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:7; Psalm 143:5; Psalm 44:1

6 I remembered my song in the night;
my heart meditated, and my spirit searched.

Cross References: Job 35:10; Psalm 42:8; Psalm 119:55

7 “Will the Lord cast us off forever?
Will He never show His favor again?

Cross References: Lamentations 3:31; Psalm 44:23; Psalm 85:5

8 Has His mercy vanished forever?
Has His promise failed for all generations?

Cross References: Lamentations 3:22; Numbers 23:19; Psalm 89:33

9 Has God forgotten to be gracious?
Has He in anger shut up His tender mercies?” Selah.

Cross References: Isaiah 49:15; Psalm 51:1; Psalm 25:6

A Turning of the Heart

10 Then I said, "This is my grief, but I will remember the years of the right hand of the Most High."

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 12:9; Exodus 15:6; Psalm 60:11

11 I will remember the works of the Lord;
surely I will remember Your wonders of old.

Cross References: Psalm 143:5; Deuteronomy 11:7; Psalm 105:5

12 I will meditate on all Your works and talk of all Your mighty deeds.

Cross References: Psalm 145:5; Psalm 105:2; Psalm 143:5

The God of Wonders and Redemption

13 Your way, O God, is holy;
who is so great a God as our God?

Cross References: Exodus 15:11; Psalm 68:24; Psalm 77:20

14 You are the God who works wonders;
You have revealed Your strength among the peoples.

Cross References: Exodus 15:11; Psalm 105:1; Exodus 34:10

15 With Your mighty arm You redeemed Your people, the children of Jacob and Joseph. Selah.

Cross References: Exodus 6:6; Exodus 15:13; Deuteronomy 9:29

The God of Creation's Power

16 The waters saw You, O God, the waters saw You and trembled;
the depths were shaken.

Cross References: Exodus 14:21; Habakkuk 3:10; Exodus 15:8

17 The clouds poured out rain;
the skies thundered;
Your arrows flashed back and forth.

Cross References: Exodus 9:23; Habakkuk 3:11; Exodus 19:16

18 The sound of Your thunder was in the whirlwind;
Your lightning lit up the world;
the earth trembled and shook.

Cross References: Exodus 19:16; Psalm 18:7; Psalm 97:4

19 Your way was through the sea,
Your path through the mighty waters,

yet Your footprints were unseen.

Cross References: Exodus 14:29; Isaiah 43:16; Habakkuk 3:15

20 You led Your people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Cross References: Numbers 33:1; Micah 6:4; Isaiah 63:12

KEY LESSONS FROM PSALM 77

- God Hears the Troubled Heart – Even in seasons of despair when comfort seems impossible, God listens to the cries of His people.
- Faith Questions but Finds Hope – Honest doubts about God’s mercy and promises can be turned into faith by remembering His past works.
- The Power of Remembering – Recalling God’s wonders in history strengthens present faith and assures us of His unchanging nature.
- God’s Ways Are Higher – His path may be hidden and mysterious, yet His power over creation shows He rules all things.
- Redemption Is at the Center – Just as He redeemed Israel by His mighty hand, He redeems all who trust in Him through Christ.
- The Lord Is the Shepherd of His People – He guides His flock with care, using chosen servants, but always with His own unseen hand.

A Call to Remember

1 My people, listen to my teaching;
incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:1; Psalm 49:1; Proverbs 4:1

2 I will open my mouth in parables;
I will speak of hidden things from the past—

Cross References: Matthew 13:35; Numbers 12:8; Psalm 49:4

3 things we have heard and known, things our fathers have told us.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 4:9; Joel 1:3; Exodus 12:26

4 We will not hide them from their children;
we will tell the next generation the praises of the Lord,
His strength, and the wonderful works He has done.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 6:7; Joel 1:3; Isaiah 38:19

The Command to Pass Down the Faith

5 He established a testimony in Jacob and set a law in Israel, which He commanded our fathers to make known to their children,

Cross References: Deuteronomy 4:10; Exodus 12:26; Deuteronomy 6:6

6 so that the generation to come might know them—even children yet to be born—who in turn would tell their children,

Cross References: Deuteronomy 6:20; Deuteronomy 6:21; Joel 1:3

7 so that they might set their hope in God, not forget His works,
but keep His commandments.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 8:11; 1 John 5:3; Psalm 119:166

8 They must not be like their ancestors, a stubborn and rebellious generation, whose hearts were not loyal,
whose spirits were not faithful to God.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 9:6; Deuteronomy 9:7; Deuteronomy 21:18

Israel's Rebellion in the Wilderness

9 The men of Ephraim, armed with bows, turned back in the day of battle.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 7:21; 1 Chronicles 7:22; Hosea 7:11

10 They did not keep God's covenant, and they refused to walk in His law.

Cross References: Judges 2:20; Jeremiah 11:10; Deuteronomy 31:16

11 They forgot His deeds and the wonders He had shown them.

Cross References: Judges 3:7; Deuteronomy 32:18; Psalm 106:13

12 In the sight of their fathers He did marvelous things in the land of Egypt, in the fields of Zoan.

Cross References: Exodus 7:3; Numbers 13:22; Exodus 9:16

13 He divided the sea and let them pass through;
He made the waters stand up like a wall.

Cross References: Exodus 14:21; Exodus 14:22; Exodus 15:8

14 He guided them by a cloud in the day, and all night by the light of fire.

Cross References: Exodus 13:21; Nehemiah 9:12; Exodus 40:38

15 He split the rocks in the wilderness and gave them drink from the depths of the earth.

Cross References: Exodus 17:6; Numbers 20:11; Deuteronomy 8:15

16 He made streams gush out of the rock, causing waters to flow like rivers.

Cross References: Exodus 17:6; 1 Corinthians 10:4; Psalm 105:41

17 Yet they continued to sin against Him, rebellious in the desert against the Most High.

Cross References: Numbers 14:22; Deuteronomy 9:7; Numbers 20:24

18 They tested God in their hearts, demanding food to satisfy their cravings.

Cross References: Numbers 11:4; Psalm 106:14; Numbers 11:6

19 They spoke against God, saying,
“Can God prepare a table in the wilderness?”

Cross References: Numbers 11:4; Exodus 16:3; Numbers 11:6

20 Yes, He struck the rock, water gushed out, and streams overflowed—but can He also give us bread?
Can He provide His people with meat?”

Cross References: Exodus 17:6; Numbers 11:21; Numbers 11:22

21 Therefore the Lord heard and was furious; fire was kindled against Jacob,
and anger rose against Israel,

Cross References: Numbers 11:1; Numbers 11:10; Numbers 11:33

22 because they did not believe in God or trust in His salvation.

28 He made them fall in the midst of their camp, all around their tents.

Cross References: Numbers 11:31; Numbers 11:32; Numbers 11:9

29 So they ate and were well filled, for He gave them what they craved.

Cross References: Numbers 11:33; Psalm 106:15; Numbers 11:19

30 But before they had satisfied their lust, while the food was still in their mouths,

Cross References: Numbers 11:33; Numbers 11:20; Psalm 106:15

31 the anger of God rose against them;
He killed the strongest among them and struck down Israel's finest men.

Cross References: Numbers 11:33; Psalm 106:15; Numbers 11:34

Unfaithfulness and God's Patience

32 In spite of all this, they still sinned and did not believe in His wondrous works.

Cross References: Numbers 14:11; Deuteronomy 1:32; Psalm 106:24

33 So He ended their days in futility, and their years in sudden terror.

Cross References: Numbers 14:33; Numbers 14:29; Numbers 14:35

34 When He killed some of them, they sought Him;
they repented and earnestly sought God.

Cross References: Numbers 21:7; Hosea 5:15; Judges 3:9

35 They remembered that God was their rock, that the Most High God was their redeemer.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:4; Deuteronomy 32:15; 2 Samuel 22:47

36 But they flattered Him with their mouths and lied to Him with their tongues.

72 So David shepherded them with integrity of heart and guided them with skillful hands.

Cross References: 1 Kings 9:4; Ezekiel 34:23; 1 Kings 3:6

Key Lessons from Psalm 78

- Faith Must Be Taught Across Generations – God commands that His works and laws be passed on, so that each generation knows and trusts Him.
- Forgetfulness Leads to Rebellion – When God's people forget His works, they fall into sin and unbelief.
- God Provides, Yet People Complain – Even miracles do not guarantee faith if hearts are hardened.

- God Is Both Just and Merciful – Though He disciplines with wrath, He repeatedly shows compassion and restrains His anger.
- Idolatry Brings God’s Rejection – Trusting in false gods led to loss of His presence, even the abandonment of His dwelling at Shiloh.
- God Raises Up a Shepherd-King – Despite Israel’s failures, God chose Judah and David, pointing forward to the ultimate Shepherd, Jesus Christ.

Psalms 79 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Lament Over Desolation”

The Destruction of Jerusalem

1 O God, the nations have invaded Your inheritance; they have defiled Your holy temple and left Jerusalem in ruins.

Cross References: Psalm 74:3; Lamentations 1:10; 2 Kings 25:9

2 They have given the dead bodies of Your servants to be food for the birds of the air, the flesh of Your faithful ones to the beasts of the earth.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 28:26; Jeremiah 7:33; Psalm 74:19

3 They poured out their blood like water all around Jerusalem, and there was no one to bury them.

Cross References: Lamentations 2:21; Jeremiah 14:16; Ezekiel 24:7

4 We have become a reproach to our neighbors, scorn and ridicule to those around us.

Cross References: Psalm 44:13; Psalm 80:6; Lamentations 2:15

A Cry for Mercy

5 How long, Lord? Will You be angry forever?
Will Your jealousy burn like fire?

Cross References: Psalm 13:1; Psalm 89:46; Habakkuk 1:2

6 Pour out Your wrath on the nations that do not know You, and on the kingdoms that do not call on Your name.

Cross References: Jeremiah 10:25; Zephaniah 3:8; Psalm 69:24

7 For they have devoured Jacob and made his dwelling a ruin.

Cross References: Isaiah 42:24; Jeremiah 10:25; Micah 3:3

8 Do not hold our past sins against us;
let Your compassion come quickly to meet us,
for we are brought very low.

Cross References: Psalm 25:7; Isaiah 64:9; Psalm 103:10

9 Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of Your name;
deliver us and forgive our sins for the honor of Your name.

Cross References: Psalm 25:11; 1 John 2:12; Ezekiel 20:9

A Plea for Justice

10 Why should the nations say, “Where is their God?”
Show the nations before our eyes that You avenge the blood of Your servants.

Cross References: Psalm 42:10; Joel 2:17; Revelation 6:10

11 Hear the groaning of the prisoners;
by the greatness of Your power preserve those condemned to die.

Cross References: Psalm 102:20; Psalm 12:5; Psalm 68:6

12 Pay back into the laps of our neighbors sevenfold the insults they hurled at You, O Lord.

Cross References: Isaiah 65:6; Luke 6:38; Genesis 4:15

A Promise of Praise

13 Then we, Your people,
the sheep of Your pasture, will give thanks to You forever;
we will declare Your praise to all generations.

Cross References: Psalm 95:7; Psalm 100:3; Psalm 74:1

Key Lessons from Psalm 79

- Sin Leads to Judgment – When God’s people stray, His temple and city suffer because of their rebellion.
- God’s Name Brings Deliverance – Forgiveness and salvation are sought not because we deserve them, but for the glory of His name.
- Justice Belongs to the Lord – God hears the cry of the oppressed and will repay the nations that mock His people.

- Hope for Restoration – Even in desolation, God’s people can trust that He will preserve a remnant for His praise.
- Worship Is the Final Response – The people of God, like sheep of His pasture, must give Him thanks in every generation.

19 Restore us, O Lord God of hosts; make Your face shine on us,
that we may be saved.

Cross References: Psalm 80:3; Psalm 80:7; Lamentations 5:21

Key Lessons from Psalm 80

- God Is the Shepherd of His People – He leads, protects, and restores His flock when they turn to Him.
- Sin Brings Sorrow – Disobedience leads to tears, ridicule, and destruction at the hands of enemies.
- God’s Vineyard Must Be Kept – Israel, like a vine, thrives only under God’s care but withers when He withdraws His hand.
- Christ Foreshadowed – The “man of God’s right hand” points us to Jesus, through whom salvation and restoration come.
- Revival Comes from God – True life and renewal are found only when God’s face shines upon His people.

Psalm 81 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Sing for Joy to the God of Jacob”

A Call to Worship

1 Sing aloud to God, our strength.
Make a joyful noise to the God of Jacob.

Cross References: Psalm 95:1; Psalm 47:1; Psalm 98:4

2 Sing a song of praise.
Bring the tambourine, the sweet-sounding harp, and the lyre.

Cross References: Psalm 150:3; Psalm 33:2; Exodus 15:20

3 Blow the trumpet at the new moon, and at the full moon, on our festival day.

Cross References: Numbers 10:10; Leviticus 23:24; Numbers 29:1

4 For this is a command for Israel, a law of the God of Jacob.

Cross References: Exodus 12:14; Deuteronomy 16:1; Psalm 122:4

5 He established it in Joseph as a testimony, when He went out against the land of Egypt.
I heard a language I did not understand.

Cross References: Genesis 41:45; Exodus 12:41; Genesis 42:23

God's Deliverance

6 "I lifted the burden from your shoulders;
your hands were freed from carrying heavy baskets.

Cross References: Exodus 1:14; Exodus 6:6; Exodus 5:4

7 You cried out in trouble, and I rescued you.
I answered you in the secret place of thunder.
I tested you at the waters of Meribah." Selah.

Cross References: Exodus 19:19; Exodus 17:7; Exodus 2:23

A Warning Against Idolatry

8 "Listen, My people, while I give you a warning.
O Israel, if only you would listen to Me!

Cross References: Deuteronomy 6:4; Psalm 50:7; Isaiah 1:2

9 You must never have a foreign god among you;
you must not bow down to a strange god.

Cross References: Exodus 20:3; Deuteronomy 5:7; Psalm 44:20

10 For I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt.
Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.

Cross References: Exodus 20:2; Psalm 34:8; Isaiah 55:1

The Rebellion of Israel

11 But My people would not listen to My voice.
Israel would not have anything to do with Me.

Cross References: Isaiah 30:9; Jeremiah 7:24; Judges 2:17

12 So I gave them over to follow their stubborn hearts, to walk in their own advice.

Cross References: Romans 1:24; Acts 7:42; Deuteronomy 29:19

13 Oh, that My people would listen to Me, that Israel would walk in My ways!

Cross References: Isaiah 48:18; Deuteronomy 5:29; Luke 19:42

14 I would quickly defeat their enemies and turn My hand against their adversaries.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:30; Leviticus 26:8; Psalm 66:3

15 Those who hate the Lord would bow before Him, and their punishment would last forever.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 33:29; Psalm 18:44; Micah 7:17

16 But I would have fed them with the finest wheat, and satisfied them with honey from the rock.”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:14; Psalm 147:14; Psalm 63:5

Key Lessons from Psalm 81

- Worship Is a Command – God calls His people to celebrate Him with songs, music, and joy.
- God Rescues His People – He delivered Israel from Egypt and still hears the cries of His people in trouble.
- Idolatry Brings Separation – Turning to false gods leads to emptiness and wandering in our own stubborn ways.
- Obedience Brings Blessing – If God’s people would listen, He promises victory, provision, and satisfaction.
- Christ, the True Rock – The “honey from the rock” points us to Christ, the Rock from whom living water and eternal satisfaction flow.

Psalm 82 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God Judges the Earth”

God’s Judgment on Unjust Rulers

1 God stands in the assembly of the mighty;
He judges among the rulers.

Cross References: John 10:34; Exodus 22:8; Deuteronomy 1:17

2 “How long will you hand down unjust decisions and show favoritism to the wicked?” Selah.

Cross References: Leviticus 19:15; Proverbs 24:23; Deuteronomy 16:19

3 “Defend the poor and the fatherless.
Give justice to the afflicted and needy.

Cross References: Isaiah 1:17; Deuteronomy 10:18; Proverbs 31:9

4 Rescue the weak and helpless.
Deliver them from the power of the wicked.”

Cross References: Proverbs 24:11; Psalm 72:4; Job 29:12

The Failure of Corrupt Judges

5 But they know nothing and do not understand.

They walk around in darkness.

The foundations of the earth are shaken.

Cross References: Isaiah 44:18; Psalm 11:3; John 12:35

6 I said, “You are gods,

all of you children of the Most High.

Cross References: John 10:34; Exodus 4:16; Exodus 7:1

7 But you will die like mere men, and fall like any other ruler.”

Cross References: Ezekiel 28:8; Isaiah 14:12; Job 34:19

A Plea for God’s Rule

8 Rise up, O God, and judge the earth, for all nations belong to You.

Cross References: Psalm 96:13; Psalm 2:8; Revelation 11:15

Key Lessons from Psalm 82

- God Holds Leaders Accountable – Those in authority must judge fairly, protect the weak, and defend the needy.
- Injustice Weakens Society – When rulers act unjustly, the very foundations of life and order are shaken.
- Earthly Power Is Temporary – Even those called “gods” or mighty rulers are still mortal and will face judgment.
- God Is the True Judge – Human authority fails, but God alone will rise to judge all nations.
- Christ the Judge – This psalm points ahead to Jesus, who will return to rule with justice and inherit all nations.

Psalm 83 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Prayer Against God’s Enemies”

A Cry for God’s Action

1 O God, do not stay silent.

Do not hold Your peace or remain still, O God.

Cross References: Psalm 28:1; Psalm 35:22; Isaiah 62:1

2 For look—Your enemies make an uproar.
Those who hate You lift up their heads in defiance.

Cross References: Psalm 74:23; Psalm 2:1; Psalm 3:1

3 They plot against Your people, and conspire against those You protect.

Cross References: Psalm 64:2; Esther 3:6; Proverbs 12:2

4 They say, “Come, let us destroy them as a nation, so that the name of Israel is remembered no more.”

Cross References: Esther 3:13; Exodus 1:10; Zechariah 12:9

5 With one mind they make plans together;
they form an alliance against You.

Cross References: Psalm 2:2; Nehemiah 4:8; Acts 4:26

The Alliance of Nations

6 The tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites,
Moab and the Hagrites;

Cross References: Genesis 25:13; Genesis 19:37; 1 Chronicles 5:10

7 Gebal, Ammon, and Amalek,
the Philistines with the people of Tyre;

Cross References: Ezekiel 27:9; Judges 3:13; Amos 1:9

8 Even Assyria has joined them, strengthening the descendants of Lot. Selah.

Cross References: Genesis 19:38; 2 Kings 15:19; Numbers 24:22

A Plea for God’s Judgment

9 Do to them as You did to the Midianites, as to Sisera and Jabin at the Kishon River,

Cross References: Judges 7:22; Judges 4:15; Judges 5:21

10 who perished at Endor, and became like manure for the ground.

Cross References: Judges 4:16; Jeremiah 8:2; 2 Kings 9:37

11 Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb, all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna,

Cross References: Judges 7:25; Judges 8:21; Judges 8:3

12 who said, “Let us seize the pasturelands of God for ourselves.”

Cross References: Ezekiel 36:2; Psalm 2:8; Joel 3:2

A Prayer for Their Defeat

13 O my God, make them like tumbleweed, like chaff blown away by the wind.

Cross References: Psalm 1:4; Isaiah 17:13; Job 21:18

14 As fire burns through a forest, as flames set mountains ablaze,

Cross References: Isaiah 9:18; Joel 2:3; Jeremiah 21:14

15 so pursue them with Your storm, terrify them with Your whirlwind.

Cross References: Job 9:17; Nahum 1:3; Psalm 58:9

16 Cover their faces with shame, so that they may seek Your name, O Lord.

Cross References: Psalm 74:21; Jeremiah 3:25; Daniel 9:7

17 Let them be disgraced and terrified forever.
Let them be put to shame and perish,

Cross References: Psalm 6:10; Psalm 35:26; Isaiah 41:11

18 so that they will know You alone—whose name is the Lord (Jehovah)— are the Most High over all the earth.

Cross References: Psalm 46:10; Exodus 9:14; Psalm 97:9

Key Lessons from Psalm 83

- God's Enemies Oppose His People – To fight against Israel or the Church is to stand against God Himself.
- Nations May Unite Against God – Even when the world forms alliances, their power cannot overcome the Lord.
- God's Past Deliverance Is a Pattern – Just as He defeated Israel's enemies before, He will act again in His time.
- Judgment Leads to Recognition – When God humbles the proud, it reveals His glory to all nations.
- The Lord Alone Is Supreme – Jehovah is the Most High over all the earth, and every enemy will ultimately bow before Him.

Psalm 84 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Longing for the House of the Lord”

The Beauty of God’s Dwelling Place

1 How lovely is Your dwelling place,
O Lord of Heaven’s Armies!

Cross References: Psalm 27:4; Psalm 43:3; Psalm 26:8

2 My soul longs, yes, even faints, for the courts of the Lord.
My heart and my flesh cry out for the living God.

Cross References: Psalm 42:1; Psalm 63:1; Psalm 119:81

3 Even the sparrow finds a home, and the swallow builds a nest for herself where she may raise her young—a place near Your altars,
O Lord of Heaven’s Armies, my King and my God.

Cross References: Matthew 8:20; Psalm 102:7; Luke 12:6

4 Blessed are those who dwell in Your house;
they are always praising You. Selah.

Cross References: Psalm 65:4; Psalm 23:6; Revelation 7:15

The Strength of Pilgrims

5 Blessed is the one whose strength is in You, whose heart is set on the path to Zion.

Cross References: Isaiah 35:8; Psalm 122:1; Proverbs 16:9

6 As they pass through the Valley of Baca, they make it a place of springs;
the autumn rains also cover it with pools.

Cross References: Isaiah 41:18; Isaiah 35:7; Joel 2:23

7 They go from strength to strength, till each one appears before God in Zion.

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 3:18; Proverbs 4:18; Isaiah 40:31

A Prayer for God’s Favor

8 O Lord God of Heaven’s Armies, hear my prayer; listen, O God of Jacob. Selah.

Cross References: Psalm 5:1; Psalm 55:1; 1 Kings 8:28

9 Look upon our shield, O God;
look with favor on the face of Your anointed one.

Cross References: Psalm 89:18; Psalm 47:9; 2 Chronicles 6:42

The Blessings of God's Presence

10 A single day in Your courts is better than a thousand anywhere else.
I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than live in the tents of the wicked.

Cross References: Psalm 27:4; Philippians 1:23; Psalm 122:1

11 For the Lord God is our sun and our shield;
the Lord gives grace and glory.
No good thing does He withhold from those who walk uprightly.

Cross References: Malachi 4:2; Psalm 34:10; Romans 8:32

12 O Lord of Heaven's Armies, blessed is the one who trusts in You.

Cross References: Psalm 2:12; Jeremiah 17:7; Proverbs 16:20

Key Lessons from Psalm 84

- God's Presence Is Our Joy – True happiness is found in being near the Lord, more than anywhere else on earth.
- Even the Small Find a Place – Just as sparrows and swallows find a home at God's altar, so all who seek Him are welcomed.
- Strength Comes from the Journey – Those who trust in God grow stronger as they walk through trials toward His presence.
- A Day with God Is Better than a Lifetime Without Him – Nothing compares to dwelling near the Lord, even in the humblest position.
- God Gives Grace and Glory – The Lord withholds no good thing from those who live in obedience and trust Him fully.

Psalm 85 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Revive Us Again”

God's Past Favor

1 Lord, You have been kind to Your land;
You restored the fortunes of Jacob.

Cross References: Jeremiah 30:18; Deuteronomy 30:3; Psalm 126:1

2 You forgave the guilt of Your people;
You covered all their sins. Selah.

Cross References: Psalm 32:1; Romans 4:7; Micah 7:19

3 You set aside all Your wrath and turned from Your fierce anger.

Cross References: Psalm 78:38; Numbers 25:11; Jonah 3:9

A Plea for Restoration

4 Restore us again, O God of our salvation;
stop being angry with us.

Cross References: Psalm 80:19; Lamentations 5:21; Psalm 79:8

5 Will You be angry with us forever?
Will You carry Your wrath on to all generations?

Cross References: Psalm 79:5; Psalm 89:46; Isaiah 57:16

6 Will You not revive us again, so that Your people may rejoice in You?

Cross References: Habakkuk 3:2; Psalm 71:20; Psalm 138:7

7 Show us Your mercy, O Lord, and grant us Your salvation.

Cross References: Psalm 90:14; Psalm 106:4; Isaiah 63:9

God's Promise of Peace

8 I will listen to what God the Lord says.
He promises peace to His people, His faithful ones—but let them not return to foolish ways.

Cross References: Numbers 6:26; John 14:27; Proverbs 26:11

9 Surely His salvation is near to those who fear Him, that His glory may dwell in our land.

Cross References: Isaiah 46:13; Psalm 145:18; Isaiah 60:19

10 Mercy and truth meet together; righteousness and peace kiss each other.

Cross References: Psalm 89:14; Isaiah 32:17; Hosea 2:19

11 Truth springs up from the earth, and righteousness looks down from heaven.

Cross References: Isaiah 45:8; Psalm 36:5; Isaiah 61:11

Blessing and Righteousness

12 Yes, the Lord will give what is good, and our land will yield its harvest.

Cross References: Leviticus 26:4; Psalm 67:6; Ezekiel 34:27

13 Righteousness goes before Him and prepares the way for His steps.

Cross References: Isaiah 58:8; Psalm 89:14; Psalm 40:2

Key Lessons from Psalm 85

- God Restores His People – He has shown mercy in the past and delights in forgiving sin.
- Revival Comes Through God – Renewal and joy flow when God turns His face toward His people again.
- Peace Is God's Promise – He speaks peace to His people, but they must not return to sin.
- God's Character Is Perfect Harmony – Mercy and truth, righteousness and peace, all meet in Him.
- Christ Fulfills This Psalm – In Jesus, God's mercy and truth unite, and through Him comes revival, righteousness, and lasting peace.

Psalm 86 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Prayer for Mercy and Help”

A Cry for God's Mercy

1 Bend down and listen to me, Lord;
for I am poor and needy.

Cross References: Psalm 40:17; Psalm 70:5; 2 Kings 19:16

2 Protect my life, for I am devoted to You.
Save Your servant who trusts in You—
You are my God.

Cross References: Psalm 25:20; Psalm 116:6; Psalm 31:23

3 Be merciful to me, O Lord, for I call to You all day long.

Cross References: Psalm 57:1; Psalm 51:1; Psalm 88:1

4 Bring joy to Your servant, for to You, Lord, I lift up my soul.

Cross References: Psalm 25:1; Psalm 143:8; Nehemiah 8:10

God's Character of Mercy

5 For You, Lord, are good and ready to forgive;
You are full of mercy to all who call on You.

Cross References: Psalm 100:5; Exodus 34:6; Psalm 145:9

6 Hear my prayer, O Lord;
listen to my cry for help.

Cross References: Psalm 17:1; Psalm 55:1; Psalm 143:1

7 In the day of my trouble I will call on You, for You will answer me.

Cross References: Psalm 50:15; Psalm 77:2; Jeremiah 33:3

The Greatness of God

8 Among the gods there is none like You, O Lord;
no deeds can compare with Yours.

Cross References: Exodus 15:11; Psalm 89:6; Deuteronomy 3:24

9 All the nations You made will come and worship before You, Lord;
they will glorify Your name.

Cross References: Psalm 22:27; Revelation 15:4; Isaiah 66:23

10 For You are great and do wonderful things;
You alone are God.

Cross References: Psalm 72:18; Psalm 136:4; Isaiah 45:5

A Prayer for Guidance

11 Teach me Your way, O Lord, that I may walk in Your truth.
Give me an undivided heart to fear Your name.

Cross References: Psalm 25:4; Psalm 27:11; Jeremiah 32:39

12 I will praise You, O Lord my God, with all my heart;
I will glorify Your name forever.

Cross References: Psalm 9:1; Psalm 111:1; Psalm 30:12

13 For great is Your mercy toward me;
You have delivered my soul from the depths of the grave.

Cross References: Psalm 103:4; Psalm 30:3; Jonah 2:6

A Plea for Deliverance

14 O God, arrogant people rise against me;
a band of violent men seek my life,
and they do not consider You.

Cross References: Psalm 54:3; Psalm 27:12; Psalm 17:9

15 But You, O Lord, are a God full of compassion and grace,
slow to anger, rich in mercy and truth.

Cross References: Exodus 34:6; Joel 2:13; Nehemiah 9:17

16 Turn to me and have mercy on me; give Your strength to Your servant;
save the son of Your handmaid.

Cross References: Psalm 25:16; Psalm 116:16; Psalm 27:9

17 Show me a sign of Your goodness, so that my enemies may see it and be put to shame.
For You, Lord, have helped me and comforted me.

Cross References: Psalm 41:11; Isaiah 7:11; Psalm 6:10

Key Lessons from Psalm 86

- God Hears the Needy – The Lord bends down to listen to those who are poor, weak, and desperate.
- God Is Forgiving and Merciful – He is always ready to forgive and full of compassion toward all who call on Him.
- God Is Greater than All – No false god or human work can compare with His greatness and wonders.
- A United Heart Is Needed – To walk in God's truth requires an undivided heart, wholly devoted to Him.
- God Comforts His Servants – Even in the face of enemies, the Lord gives help, strength, and signs of His goodness.

Psalm 87 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The City of God”

God's Love for Zion

1 The foundation of the Lord's city is set on the holy mountains.

Cross References: Psalm 48:1; Isaiah 14:32; Psalm 78:68

2 The Lord loves the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.

Cross References: Psalm 132:13; Zechariah 2:12; Isaiah 60:14

3 Glorious things are spoken of you,
O city of God. Selah.

Cross References: Isaiah 60:1; Revelation 21:10; Psalm 48:8

The Nations and Zion

4 "I will mention Egypt and Babylon among those who know Me;
look—Philistia, Tyre, and Ethiopia:
"This one was born there."

Cross References: Isaiah 19:25; Isaiah 45:14; Zephaniah 3:10

5 And it will be said of Zion,
"This and that one were born in her, and the Most High Himself will establish her."

Cross References: Isaiah 44:5; Galatians 4:26; Psalm 48:8

6 The Lord will record,
when He writes up the peoples:
"This one was born there." Selah.

Cross References: Isaiah 4:3; Ezekiel 13:9; Luke 10:20

The Joy of God's City

7 Both singers and musicians will say,
"All my fountains of joy are in You."

Cross References: Psalm 36:9; John 4:14; Isaiah 12:3

Key Lessons from Psalm 87

- God Has Chosen Zion – The Lord established Jerusalem as His holy dwelling and delights in it above all other places.
- Zion Welcomes the Nations – People from every land, even former enemies, will one day be counted as citizens of God's city.
- Our Identity Is in God's City – To be "born in Zion" is to belong to the people of God and share in His covenant blessings.

- God Records His People – The Lord Himself writes the names of those who belong to Him.
- True Joy Is Found in God's Presence – Like springs of living water, all our joy flows from being rooted in God's dwelling place.

Psalm 88 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Cry from the Depths of Darkness”

A Cry of Desperation

1 O Lord, God of my salvation,
I cry out to You day and night.

Cross References: Psalm 22:2; Lamentations 2:18; Luke 18:7

2 Let my prayer come before You;
turn Your ear to my cry.

Cross References: Psalm 102:2; Psalm 79:11; Psalm 130:2

3 For my soul is overwhelmed with troubles, and my life draws near to the grave.

Cross References: Job 7:11; Psalm 107:18; Jonah 2:2

4 I am counted among those who go down to the pit.
I am like a man without strength,

Cross References: Psalm 28:1; Isaiah 38:18; Ezekiel 32:24

5 left for dead,
like the slain lying in the grave, whom You remember no more,
for they are cut off from Your care.

Cross References: Job 3:17; Ecclesiastes 9:5; Isaiah 53:8

The Weight of God's Wrath

6 You have put me in the lowest pit, in the darkest depths.

Cross References: Lamentations 3:55; Psalm 69:2; Jonah 2:6

7 Your anger lies heavy upon me;
You overwhelm me with all Your waves. Selah.

Cross References: Psalm 42:7; Job 6:4; Psalm 38:2

8 You have taken my closest friends from me and made me repulsive to them.
I am trapped and cannot escape.

Cross References: Job 19:13; Psalm 31:11; Job 30:10

9 My eyes are dim with grief.
Every day I call to You, O Lord;
I lift up my hands to You.

Cross References: Job 17:7; Psalm 143:6; Lamentations 2:11

Questions from the Grave

10 Do You show wonders to the dead?
Do the departed rise up to praise You? Selah.

Cross References: Psalm 6:5; Isaiah 38:18; Psalm 115:17

11 Is Your love declared in the grave, or Your faithfulness in the place of destruction?

Cross References: Job 26:6; Proverbs 15:11; Psalm 30:9

12 Are Your wonders known in the darkness, or Your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 9:10; Job 10:22; Psalm 143:3

Abandoned in Suffering

13 But I cry to You for help, O Lord;
in the morning my prayer comes before You.

Cross References: Psalm 5:3; Psalm 130:6; Psalm 57:8

14 Lord, why do You reject me?
Why do You hide Your face from me?

Cross References: Psalm 44:24; Psalm 13:1; Job 13:24

15 From my youth I have suffered and been close to death;
I am in despair under the weight of Your terrors.

Cross References: Job 6:4; Psalm 55:4; Lamentations 3:19

16 Your fierce anger has swept over me;
Your terrors have destroyed me.

Cross References: Psalm 90:7; Job 16:12; Psalm 38:2

17 They surround me daily like a flood;
they have completely engulfed me.

Cross References: Psalm 22:16; Psalm 40:12; Lamentations 3:5

18 You have taken from me friend and neighbor; darkness is my only companion.

Cross References: Job 19:19; Psalm 38:11; Job 30:26

Key Lessons from Psalm 88

- Even in Darkness, God Hears – Though the psalmist feels abandoned, his prayer still rises to God, showing faith in the midst of despair.
- Life Is Fragile – The psalm reminds us of our mortality and the weight of suffering in this fallen world.
- God’s Wrath Is Real – Sin carries consequences, and sometimes the psalmist felt God’s judgment pressing down like waves.
- Loneliness and Grief Are Part of the Human Condition – Friends may fail and darkness may surround us, but God remains.
- A Foreshadowing of Christ – This psalm echoes the suffering of Jesus, who bore God’s wrath, was abandoned by His friends, and descended into the depths so that we would never be forsaken.

Psalm 89 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God’s Covenant with David”

God’s Faithfulness Praised

1 I will sing of the Lord’s unfailing love forever; with my mouth I will make Your faithfulness known to all generations.

Cross References: Psalm 59:16; Psalm 145:4; Lamentations 3:23

2 For I have said, “Your mercy will last forever;
Your faithfulness is as secure as the heavens.”

Cross References: Psalm 36:5; Psalm 119:89; Psalm 57:10

3 The Lord said, “I have made a covenant with My chosen one;
I have sworn to David My servant:

Cross References: 2 Samuel 7:12; Psalm 132:11; Jeremiah 33:21

4 ‘I will establish your offspring forever and build up your throne for all generations.’” Selah.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 7:13; Luke 1:32; Isaiah 9:7

The Greatness of God

5 The heavens praise Your wonders, O Lord,
Your faithfulness too, in the assembly of the holy ones.

Cross References: Psalm 19:1; Psalm 148:3; Psalm 149:1

6 For who in the heavens can compare with the Lord?
Who among the heavenly beings is like the Lord?

Cross References: Exodus 15:11; Psalm 71:19; Isaiah 40:25

7 God is greatly feared in the council of the holy ones, and revered by all who surround Him.

Cross References: Psalm 76:7; Psalm 111:9; Habakkuk 2:20

8 O Lord God of Heaven's Armies, who is mighty like You, Lord?
Your faithfulness surrounds You.

Cross References: Psalm 24:10; Isaiah 40:26; Jeremiah 32:18

9 You rule the raging of the sea;
when its waves rise, You still them.

Cross References: Mark 4:39; Psalm 65:7; Psalm 107:29

10 You crushed Egypt like a corpse; with Your strong arm You scattered Your enemies.

4 For a thousand years in Your sight are like yesterday when it has passed, or like a watch in the night.

Cross References: 2 Peter 3:8; Psalm 39:5; Isaiah 40:6

5 You sweep people away like a flood;
they are like a dream.
In the morning they are like grass that springs up;

Cross References: Isaiah 40:6; Psalm 103:15; James 1:11

6 in the morning it flourishes and grows, but by evening it is cut down and withers.

Cross References: Job 14:2; Psalm 103:15; Matthew 6:30

God’s Wrath Against Sin

7 We are consumed by Your anger, and terrified by Your wrath.

Cross References: Psalm 39:11; Psalm 102:10; Job 4:9

8 You have set our sins before You, our secret sins in the light of Your presence.

Cross References: Psalm 19:12; Jeremiah 16:17; 1 Corinthians 4:5

9 All our days pass away under Your wrath;
we finish our years like a sigh.

Cross References: Job 9:25; Psalm 39:4; James 4:14

10 The days of our life are seventy years, or eighty if we have strength;
yet their span is but toil and sorrow,
for they quickly pass, and we fly away.

Cross References: Job 14:1; Psalm 103:15; Genesis 47:9

11 Who knows the power of Your anger?
For Your wrath is as great as the fear due to You.

Cross References: Psalm 76:7; Nahum 1:6; Hebrews 10:31

Psalm 95 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Call to Worship and Obedience”

A Joyful Call to Praise

1 Come, let us sing to the Lord;
let us make a joyful noise to the Rock of our salvation.

Cross References: Psalm 100:1; Psalm 98:6; Deuteronomy 32:15

2 Let us come into His presence with thanksgiving;
let us make a joyful noise to Him with songs of praise.

Cross References: Psalm 100:4; Psalm 66:1; Psalm 47:1

3 For the Lord is a great God, a great King above all gods.

Cross References: Psalm 96:4; Psalm 97:9; Exodus 18:11

4 In His hand are the depths of the earth, and the mountain heights belong to Him.

Cross References: Job 12:10; Psalm 50:10; Psalm 24:1

5 The sea is His, for He made it, and His hands formed the dry land.

Cross References: Genesis 1:9; Jonah 1:9; Psalm 24:2

Worshipping Our Maker

6 Come, let us bow down in worship;
let us kneel before the Lord our Maker.

Cross References: Psalm 96:9; Philippians 2:10; Psalm 100:3

7 For He is our God, and we are the people of His pasture,
the sheep under His care.
Today, if you hear His voice,

Cross References: Psalm 100:3; Hebrews 3:7; Ezekiel 34:31

8 do not harden your hearts as at Meribah, as on the day at Massah in the wilderness,

Cross References: Exodus 17:7; Hebrews 3:8; Hebrews 3:15

9 when your ancestors tested Me;
they tried Me, though they had seen My works.

Cross References: Numbers 14:22; Exodus 17:2; Hebrews 3:9

A Warning of Judgment

10 For forty years I was grieved with that generation;
I said, “They are a people whose hearts go astray, and they do not know My ways.”

Cross References: Numbers 14:33; Deuteronomy 8:2; Hebrews 3:10

11 So in My anger I declared,
“They shall never enter My rest.”

Cross References: Numbers 14:23; Hebrews 3:11; Hebrews 4:3

Key Lessons from Psalm 95

- Worship Is Our Calling – Singing, thanksgiving, and joyful praise belong to God alone, who is the Rock of our salvation.
- God Is the Creator and King – The seas, the mountains, the valleys, and all creation are in His hands.

- We Are His Flock – As the sheep of His pasture, we are called to follow His leading and care.
- Do Not Harden Your Heart – The warning of Israel in the wilderness reminds us not to resist God’s voice today.
- God Offers Rest – True rest and peace are found in obedience to Him; unbelief leads only to wandering.

Psalm 96 – Crawford Standard Bible

worship at His footstool, for He is holy.

Cross References: Psalm 132:7; Isaiah 66:1; 1 Chronicles 28:2

God Answers His Servants

6 Moses and Aaron were among His priests, and Samuel was among those who called on His name.
They called to the Lord,
and He answered them.

Cross References: Exodus 33:11; 1 Samuel 12:18; Jeremiah 15:1

7 He spoke to them in the pillar of cloud;
they kept His statutes and the decrees He gave them.

Cross References: Exodus 33:9; Exodus 13:21; Numbers 12:5

8 Lord our God, You answered them;
You were a forgiving God to them,
but You punished them for their wrongdoing.

Cross References: Exodus 34:7; Numbers 14:20; Nahum 1:3

Worship the Holy God

9 Exalt the Lord our God and worship at His holy mountain, for the Lord our God is holy.

Psalm 102 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Prayer of the Afflicted”

A prayer of one overwhelmed with trouble, pouring out his complaint before the Lord

A Cry of Distress

1 Hear my prayer, O Lord;
let my cry for help come to You.

Cross References: Psalm 18:6; Psalm 39:12; Psalm 143:1

2 Do not hide Your face from me
in the day of my trouble.
Turn Your ear to me;
when I call, answer me quickly.

Cross References: Psalm 27:9; Psalm 143:7; Psalm 69:17

3 For my days vanish like smoke;
my bones burn like hot coals.

Cross References: Psalm 39:5; James 4:14; Psalm 102:3

4 My heart is struck down and withered like grass, so that I forget to eat my food.

Cross References: Psalm 22:15; Psalm 42:3; Psalm 137:1

5 Because of my groaning, my bones cling to my skin.

Cross References: Job 19:20; Psalm 32:3; Lamentations 1:20

6 I am like a lonely pelican in the wilderness; like an owl in the desert.

Cross References: Micah 1:8; Job 30:29; Isaiah 34:11

7 I lie awake;
I am like a lonely sparrow on the rooftop.

Cross References: Psalm 38:5; Psalm 6:6; Psalm 22:2

8 My enemies taunt me all day long;
those who rage against me curse me.

Cross References: Psalm 42:10; Psalm 69:9; Nehemiah 4:4

9 I eat ashes like bread and mingle my drink with tears,

Cross References: Psalm 42:3; Psalm 80:5; Lamentations 3:19

10 because of Your indignation and wrath, for You have lifted me up and thrown me down.

Cross References: Psalm 90:7; Lamentations 3:1; Job 30:21

11 My days are like a fading shadow, and I wither away like grass.

Cross References: Psalm 90:5; Psalm 109:23; Job 8:9

God's Eternal Nature and Zion's Hope

12 But You, O Lord, are enthroned forever;
Your name endures through all generations.

Cross References: Psalm 9:7; Lamentations 5:19; Psalm 45:6

13 You will arise and have mercy on Zion;
the time to show her favor has come.

Cross References: Isaiah 40:1; Psalm 69:35; Isaiah 51:3

14 For Your servants delight in her stones and cherish even her dust.

Cross References: Nehemiah 4:2; Nehemiah 2:3; Isaiah 58:12

15 The nations will fear the name of the Lord, and all the kings of the earth will see Your glory.

Cross References: Isaiah 60:3; Psalm 72:11; Malachi 1:11

16 For the Lord will rebuild Zion and appear in His glory.

Cross References: Isaiah 60:1; Psalm 147:2; Isaiah 51:11

17 He will regard the prayer of the destitute and not despise their plea.

Cross References: Psalm 22:24; Job 5:16; Psalm 34:6

A Testimony for Generations

18 Let this be written for a future generation, so that a people not yet created may praise the Lord:

Cross References: Psalm 78:6; Romans 15:4; Psalm 22:30

19 "The Lord looked down from His holy place on high;
from heaven He viewed the earth,

Cross References: Deuteronomy 26:15; Psalm 33:13; Psalm 14:2

20 to hear the groaning of the prisoners and set free those condemned to death."

Cross References: Exodus 2:24; Psalm 79:11; Isaiah 61:1

21 So the name of the Lord will be declared in Zion, and His praise in Jerusalem,

Cross References: Isaiah 66:20; Psalm 22:22; Psalm 102:21

22 when the peoples and the kingdoms assemble to worship the Lord.

Cross References: Isaiah 2:2; Zechariah 8:22; Isaiah 66:18

God's Unchanging Nature

23 In the course of my life He has broken my strength;
He has shortened my days.

Cross References: Isaiah 38:10; Job 21:21; Job 17:11

24 So I said: "O my God, do not take me away in the middle of my life;
Your years go on through all generations."

Cross References: Isaiah 38:11; Psalm 90:2; Job 10:20

25 Long ago You laid the foundation of the earth, and the heavens are the work of Your hands.

Cross References: Hebrews 1:10; Genesis 1:1; Isaiah 48:13

26 They will perish, but You remain;
they will all wear out like a garment.
Like clothing You will change them, and they will be discarded.

Cross References: Hebrews 1:11; Isaiah 51:6; Isaiah 34:4

27 But You remain the same, and Your years will never end.

Cross References: Hebrews 1:12; Malachi 3:6; James 1:17

28 The children of Your servants will live secure; their descendants will be established before You.

Cross References: Psalm 90:16; Isaiah 65:23; Psalm 112:2

Key Lessons from Psalm 102

- Life Is Fragile and Fleeting – Human days pass like smoke, but God's years endure forever.
- Honest Prayer Is Welcome – Even deep sorrow, loneliness, and weakness can be poured out before God.
- God Has Mercy on Zion – He rebuilds, restores, and brings His people back to glory in His time.

- Future Generations Will Praise Him – God’s acts of deliverance are written down so that those yet to be born will worship Him.
- God Is Unchanging – Though creation itself wears out, the Lord remains the same, faithful from generation to generation.

9 He will not always accuse, nor will He harbor His anger forever.

Cross References: Isaiah 57:16; Micah 7:18; Jeremiah 3:12

10 He has not dealt with us as our sins deserve, nor repaid us according to our iniquities.

Cross References: Ezra 9:13; Psalm 130:3; Psalm 79:8

11 For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is His mercy toward those who fear Him.

Cross References: Psalm 36:5; Ephesians 3:18; Psalm 108:4

12 As far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our sins from us.

Cross References: Isaiah 1:18; Micah 7:19; Jeremiah 31:34

God's Compassion and Our Frailty

13 As a father shows compassion to his children, so the Lord shows compassion to those who fear Him.

Cross References: Luke 15:20; Malachi 3:17; Isaiah 63:9

14 For He knows how we are formed;
He remembers that we are dust.

Cross References: Genesis 3:19; Genesis 2:7; Job 10:9

15 As for man, his days are like grass;
he flourishes like a flower of the field.

Cross References: Isaiah 40:6; Job 14:2; 1 Peter 1:24

16 The wind blows over it, and it is gone, and its place remembers it no more.

Cross References: Job 7:10; Psalm 90:5; James 1:11

17 But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting on those who fear Him, and His righteousness to their children's children—

The Order of Day and Night

19 He made the moon to mark the seasons, and the sun knows when to set.

Cross References: Genesis 1:14; Psalm 74:16; Jeremiah 31:35

20 You bring darkness, and it becomes night, when all the beasts of the forest prowl.

Cross References: Genesis 1:5; Job 37:8; Job 24:14

21 The young lions roar for their prey, seeking their food from God.

Cross References: Job 38:39; Joel 1:20; Psalm 34:10

22 When the sun rises, they steal away and lie down in their dens.

Cross References: Job 37:8; Amos 3:4; Nahum 2:12

23 Then man goes out to his work, to labor until evening.

Cross References: Genesis 3:19; Ecclesiastes 5:18; Ecclesiastes 2:24

The Richness of Creation

24 O Lord, how many are Your works!
In wisdom You made them all;
the earth is full of Your creatures.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:19; Jeremiah 10:12; Proverbs 8:22

25 There is the vast and wide sea, teeming with countless creatures,
both small and great.

Cross References: Genesis 1:20; Psalm 95:5; Job 38:16

26 There the ships go to and fro, and Leviathan, which You made to play in it.

Cross References: Job 41:1; Psalm 148:7; Isaiah 27:1

God's Care for All Living Things

27 All creatures look to You to give them their food in due season.

Cross References: Psalm 145:15; Matthew 6:26; Job 38:41

28 When You give it to them, they gather it up;
when You open Your hand,
they are filled with good things.

Cross References: Psalm 145:16; Psalm 136:25; Psalm 147:9

29 When You hide Your face, they are terrified; when You take away their breath, they die and return to the dust.

Cross References: Job 34:14; Ecclesiastes 12:7; Job 34:15

30 When You send Your Spirit, they are created, and You renew the face of the earth.

Cross References: Genesis 1:2; Genesis 2:7; Ezekiel 37:9

Praise to the Lord Forever

31 May the glory of the Lord endure forever; may the Lord rejoice in His works—

Cross References: Psalm 96:11; Genesis 1:31; Psalm 145:5

32 He looks at the earth, and it trembles;
He touches the mountains, and they smoke.

Cross References: Psalm 144:5; Exodus 19:18; Nahum 1:5

33 I will sing to the Lord all my life;
I will sing praise to my God as long as I live.

Cross References: Psalm 146:2; Psalm 63:4; Psalm 104:33

34 May my thoughts be pleasing to Him, for I will rejoice in the Lord.

Cross References: Psalm 19:14; Psalm 63:5; Philippians 4:4

35 Let sinners vanish from the earth, and the wicked be no more.
Bless the Lord, O my soul.
Praise the Lord!

- God’s Power Is Supreme – The plagues in Egypt revealed His authority over nations and nature.
- God Provides for His People – In the wilderness He gave quail, manna, water, and protection.
- Obedience Is the Goal – God blesses His people so they may keep His statutes and walk in His ways.

Psalm 106 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Confession of Sin and Praise for God’s Mercy”

Call to Praise and Blessing

1 Praise the Lord!

Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good;
His mercy endures forever.

Cross References: Psalm 107:1; 1 Chronicles 16:34; Psalm 136:1

2 Who can fully describe the mighty acts of the Lord or proclaim all His praise?

Cross References: Psalm 40:5; Psalm 71:15; Job 5:9

3 Blessed are those who practice justice and do what is right at all times.

Cross References: Psalm 15:2; Proverbs 14:21; Isaiah 56:1

A Plea for Mercy

4 Remember me, Lord, with the favor You show Your people.
Come to me with Your salvation,

Cross References: Psalm 25:16; Psalm 119:132; Nehemiah 13:22

5 So I may enjoy the prosperity of Your chosen ones, rejoice in the gladness of Your nation, and glory with Your inheritance.

Cross References: Psalm 65:4; Deuteronomy 33:29; 1 Peter 2:9

Confession of Sin

6 We have sinned like our ancestors;
we have committed iniquity and acted wickedly.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:47; Daniel 9:5; Leviticus 26:40

7 Our fathers in Egypt did not understand Your wonders.
They did not remember the abundance of Your mercies, but rebelled at the sea, at the Red Sea.

Cross References: Exodus 14:11; Exodus 14:12; Exodus 5:21

8 Yet He saved them for His name's sake, to make His mighty power known.

Cross References: Exodus 14:30; Ezekiel 20:9; Isaiah 63:12

9 He rebuked the Red Sea, and it dried up;
He led them through the depths as through a desert.

Cross References: Exodus 14:21; Exodus 14:22; Nahum 1:4

10 He saved them from the hand of their foe;
He redeemed them from the power of the enemy.

Cross References: Exodus 14:30; Exodus 15:13; Luke 1:71

11 The waters covered their enemies; not one of them remained.

Cross References: Exodus 14:28; Exodus 15:5; Exodus 15:10

12 Then they believed His words and sang His praise.

Cross References: Exodus 15:1; Exodus 14:31; Exodus 15:20

Israel's Rebellion in the Wilderness

13 But they soon forgot His works;
they did not wait for His counsel.

Cross References: Exodus 15:24; Exodus 16:2; Numbers 11:1

14 They craved intensely in the wilderness, testing God in the desert.

Cross References: Numbers 11:4; Numbers 11:33; 1 Corinthians 10:6

15 He gave them what they asked for, but sent leanness into their souls.

Cross References: Numbers 11:20; Numbers 11:33; Numbers 11:34

16 In the camp they envied Moses and Aaron, the holy one of the Lord.

Cross References: Numbers 16:1; Numbers 16:3; Numbers 16:2

17 The earth opened and swallowed Dathan;
it covered the company of Abiram.

Cross References: Numbers 16:31; Numbers 16:32; Deuteronomy 11:6

18 Fire blazed among their followers; flames consumed the wicked.

Cross References: Numbers 16:35; Numbers 16:21; Leviticus 10:2

19 At Horeb they made a calf and worshiped a metal image.

Cross References: Exodus 32:4; Exodus 32:8; Deuteronomy 9:16

20 They exchanged their glorious God for an image of an ox that eats grass.

Cross References: Jeremiah 2:11; Romans 1:23; Exodus 32:8

21 They forgot God their Savior, who had done great things in Egypt,

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:18; Psalm 78:11; Judges 8:34

22 Wondrous works in the land of Ham, and awesome deeds by the Red Sea.

Cross References: Exodus 7:3; Psalm 78:12; Exodus 14:27

23 So He said He would destroy them—had not Moses, His chosen one, stood in the breach before Him to turn away His wrath from destroying them.

Cross References: Exodus 32:10; Exodus 32:14; Ezekiel 22:30

Unbelief and Idolatry

24 They despised the pleasant land;
they did not believe His promise.

Cross References: Numbers 14:31; Numbers 13:32; Hebrews 3:19

25 They grumbled in their tents and did not listen to the Lord's voice.

Cross References: Numbers 14:2; Deuteronomy 1:27; Numbers 14:27

26 So He swore to overthrow them in the wilderness,

Cross References: Numbers 14:28; Numbers 14:29; Hebrews 3:17

27 To scatter their descendants among the nations, and disperse them throughout the lands.

Cross References: Leviticus 26:33; Deuteronomy 28:64; Ezekiel 20:23

28 They yoked themselves to Baal of Peor and ate sacrifices offered to lifeless gods.

Cross References: Numbers 25:2; Numbers 25:3; Numbers 25:5

29 They provoked the Lord to anger with their deeds, and a plague broke out among them.

Cross References: Numbers 25:3; Numbers 25:9; 1 Corinthians 10:8

30 But Phinehas stood up and intervened, and the plague was stopped.

Cross References: Numbers 25:7; Numbers 25:8; Numbers 25:11

31 This was credited to him as righteousness for all generations to come.

Cross References: Numbers 25:12; Numbers 25:13; Romans 4:3

More Rebellion

32 They angered Him at the waters of Meribah, and it went badly for Moses because of them.

Cross References: Numbers 20:3; Numbers 20:13; Numbers 20:24

33 They provoked his spirit, so that he spoke rashly with his lips.

Cross References: Numbers 20:10; Numbers 20:12; Deuteronomy 1:37

34 They did not destroy the nations as the Lord had commanded them.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 7:2; Judges 1:21; Judges 1:27

35 Instead, they mingled with the nations and learned their practices.

Cross References: Judges 3:5; Judges 3:6; 2 Kings 17:15

36 They served their idols, which became a snare to them.

Cross References: Judges 2:11; Judges 2:19; 1 Kings 11:33

37 They sacrificed their sons and daughters to demons.

Cross References: 2 Kings 17:17; Deuteronomy 32:17; 2 Chronicles 28:3

38 They shed innocent blood—the blood of their own children, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan.
So the land was polluted with blood.

Cross References: 2 Kings 21:16; Numbers 35:33; Ezekiel 16:20

39 They defiled themselves by their deeds;
they prostituted themselves by their actions.

Cross References: Ezekiel 20:30; Leviticus 17:7; Judges 2:17

God's Wrath and Mercy

40 Therefore the Lord's anger burned against His people;
He abhorred His own inheritance.

Cross References: Judges 2:14; Judges 10:7; Deuteronomy 29:27

41 He handed them over to the nations;
those who hated them ruled over them.

Cross References: Judges 2:14; Judges 3:8; Nehemiah 9:27

42 Their enemies oppressed them and subdued them under their power.

Cross References: Judges 4:2; Judges 10:8; Judges 3:14

43 Many times He rescued them, but they continued to rebel and were brought low by their sin.

Cross References: Judges 2:16; Judges 2:18; Judges 2:19

44 Yet He saw their distress and heard their cry.

Cross References: Judges 2:18; Judges 10:16; Exodus 3:7

45 He remembered His covenant with them and relented according to His great mercy.

Cross References: Leviticus 26:42; Leviticus 26:45; Judges 2:1

46 He caused their captors to show them compassion.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:50; Nehemiah 1:11; Daniel 1:9

Closing Prayer of Deliverance

47 Save us, Lord our God, and gather us from among the nations, so that we may give thanks to Your holy name and glory in Your praise.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 16:35; Nehemiah 1:9; Ezekiel 36:24

48 Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting.
And let all the people say, Amen!
Praise the Lord!

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 16:36; Psalm 41:13; Psalm 89:52

Key Lessons from Psalm 106

- God’s mercy outlasts human failure – though Israel repeatedly sinned, He never abandoned them completely.
- Forgetfulness leads to rebellion – forgetting God’s works results in sin, idolatry, and destruction.
- Intercession matters – Moses and Phinehas show how one righteous person can stand in the gap for many.
- Idolatry destroys life – turning from God to false gods leads to bloodshed, injustice, and corruption.
- God hears the repentant – no matter how far His people fall, His covenant love draws them back when they cry out.

37 They sow fields and plant vineyards that yield a fruitful harvest.

Cross References: Isaiah 65:21; Amos 9:14; Jeremiah 31:5

38 He blesses them, and they multiply greatly;
He does not let their herds diminish.

Cross References: Genesis 1:28; Leviticus 26:9; Deuteronomy 7:13

39 Yet when they are reduced and humbled by oppression, affliction, and sorrow,

Cross References: Leviticus 26:16; Deuteronomy 28:62; Isaiah 1:7

40 He pours contempt on princes and makes them wander in a trackless wasteland.

Cross References: Job 12:21; Job 12:24; Isaiah 34:11

41 But He raises the poor out of affliction and makes their families like flocks.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 2:8; Job 5:11; Psalm 113:7

42 The upright see it and rejoice, but all wickedness shuts its mouth.

Cross References: Job 5:16; Job 22:19; Psalm 58:10

Closing Wisdom

43 Whoever is wise will pay attention to these things and consider the lovingkindness of the Lord.

Cross References: Hosea 14:9; Jeremiah 9:12; Proverbs 1:5

Key Lessons from Psalm 107

- God's mercy reaches every situation – whether lost in the desert, bound in prison, afflicted by sin, or tossed in the storm, His deliverance is sure for those who cry out.
- God responds to prayer – the refrain “Then they cried to the Lord ... and He delivered them” is repeated four times, showing His faithfulness.
- His power rules over creation – He can turn fertile land into desert and desert into springs, reminding us that He controls both judgment and blessing.
- The wise will learn – wisdom means recognizing God's providence and trusting His steadfast love.

Psalm 108 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Steadfast Praise and Prayer for Victory”

A Heart Fixed on Praise

1 O God, my heart is steadfast;
I will sing and make music with all my being.

Cross References: Psalm 57:7; Psalm 57:8; Psalm 103:1

2 Awake, harp and lyre!
I will awaken the dawn.

Cross References: Psalm 57:8; Psalm 92:3; Psalm 150:3

3 I will praise You, Lord, among the peoples;
I will sing praises to You among the nations.

Cross References: Psalm 57:9; Psalm 18:49; Romans 15:9

4 For Your mercy is higher than the heavens, and Your truth reaches to the clouds.

Cross References: Psalm 57:10; Psalm 36:5; Psalm 103:11

5 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens,
and let Your glory be over all the earth.

Cross References: Psalm 57:11; Psalm 8:1; Isaiah 6:3

Prayer for Deliverance

6 That Your beloved may be delivered, save with Your right hand and answer me.

Cross References: Psalm 60:5; Psalm 20:6; Psalm 138:7

7 God has spoken from His sanctuary:
“I will rejoice, I will divide Shechem and measure off the valley of Succoth.

Cross References: Psalm 60:6; Genesis 33:17; Joshua 13:27

8 Gilead is Mine, Manasseh is Mine;
Ephraim is the helmet of My head,
Judah is My scepter.

Cross References: Psalm 60:7; Genesis 49:10; Genesis 48:14

9 Moab is My washbasin;
over Edom I will cast My shoe;
over Philistia I shout in triumph.”

Cross References: Psalm 60:8; 2 Samuel 8:2; Numbers 24:18

Confidence in God's Victory

10 Who will bring me into the fortified city?

Who will lead me into Edom?

Cross References: Psalm 60:9; 2 Samuel 8:14; 2 Kings 14:7

11 Is it not You, O God, who have rejected us?

Is it not You, O God, who no longer go forth with our armies?

Cross References: Psalm 60:10; Psalm 44:9; Judges 4:14

12 Give us help against the enemy,

for the help of man is useless.

Cross References: Psalm 60:11; Psalm 146:3; Jeremiah 17:5

13 Through God we shall do valiantly, and it is He who will tread down our enemies.

Cross References: Psalm 60:12; Psalm 44:5; Philippians 4:13

Key Lessons from Psalm 108

- Steadfast devotion – A fixed heart is one that refuses to waver, choosing to praise God early and among the nations.
- God's mercy and truth are boundless – His love and faithfulness extend beyond the skies, assuring us of His reliability.
- God rules over the nations – The lands and peoples belong to Him; He exerts authority over every kingdom.
- Man's help is vain – True deliverance and victory come only through God's power.
- Victory is certain in God – With Him, His people can act boldly and confidently, knowing He will subdue their enemies.

Psalm 109 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Cry for Justice Against False Accusers”

The Cry of the Oppressed

1 O God of my praise, do not remain silent,

Cross References: Psalm 83:1; Psalm 28:1; Psalm 35:22

2 for the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of the deceitful are opened against me.

They have spoken lies against me.

Cross References: Psalm 52:2; Psalm 120:2; Psalm 5:9

3 They surround me with words of hatred, and fight against me without cause.

Cross References: Psalm 35:19; Psalm 69:4; John 15:25

4 In return for my love they are my accusers, but I give myself to prayer.

Cross References: Psalm 35:12; Psalm 38:20; Matthew 5:44

5 They repay me evil for good,
and hatred for my love.

Cross References: Genesis 44:4; Proverbs 17:13; 1 Samuel 25:21

A Call for Justice

6 Appoint a wicked man against him;
let an accuser stand at his right hand.

Cross References: Zechariah 3:1; Job 1:6; 1 Chronicles 21:1

7 When he is judged, let him be found guilty;
let his prayer be counted as sin.

Cross References: Isaiah 1:15; Proverbs 28:9; Proverbs 15:8

8 Let his days be few;
let another take his office.

Cross References: Acts 1:20; Job 14:1; Psalm 55:23

9 Let his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow.

Cross References: Exodus 22:24; Job 27:14; Lamentations 5:3

10 Let his children be wandering beggars; let them seek their food from desolate places.

Cross References: Genesis 4:12; Lamentations 4:4; Job 15:23

11 Let the creditor seize all he has;
let strangers plunder the fruits of his labor.

Cross References: Job 5:5; Deuteronomy 28:33; Job 31:8

12 Let there be none to extend kindness to him, nor any to show favor to his fatherless children.

Cross References: Proverbs 21:13; Job 6:14; Jeremiah 16:5

13 Let his descendants be cut off;
let their name be blotted out in the next generation.

Cross References: Job 18:19; Psalm 37:28; Deuteronomy 29:20

14 Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered before the Lord;
let not the sin of his mother be blotted out.

Cross References: Exodus 20:5; Nehemiah 4:5; Jeremiah 18:23

15 Let them be before the Lord continually, that He may cut off their memory from the earth.

Cross References: Psalm 34:16; Psalm 9:6; Deuteronomy 25:19

The Reason for Judgment

16 For he did not remember to show mercy, but persecuted the poor and needy man,
and sought to slay the brokenhearted.

Cross References: James 2:13; Ezekiel 34:4; Proverbs 14:31

17 He loved cursing, so let it come upon him;
he took no delight in blessing, so let it be far from him.

Cross References: Proverbs 26:2; Galatians 6:7; Obadiah 1:15

18 He clothed himself with cursing as with a garment;
so let it soak into his body like water, and like oil into his bones.

Cross References: Numbers 5:22; Job 20:14; Proverbs 18:8

19 Let it be to him like the cloak he wraps around him, like the belt he wears continually.

Cross References: Job 8:22; Isaiah 59:17; Psalm 35:26

20 Let this be the Lord's repayment to my accusers, to those who speak evil against my soul.

Cross References: Psalm 35:1; Psalm 71:13; Jeremiah 18:20

A Plea for Mercy

21 But You, O God my Lord, deal kindly with me for Your name's sake;
because Your steadfast love is good, deliver me.

Cross References: Psalm 25:11; Psalm 143:11; Psalm 79:9

22 For I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.

Cross References: Psalm 40:17; Psalm 69:29; Psalm 102:4

23 I am fading like a shadow at evening;
I am shaken off like a locust.

Cross References: Psalm 102:11; Job 14:2; Exodus 10:19

24 My knees are weak from fasting;
my body has grown thin and frail.

Cross References: Psalm 35:13; Psalm 69:10; Daniel 10:3

25 I am an object of scorn to them;
when they see me, they shake their heads.

Cross References: Psalm 22:7; Matthew 27:39; Lamentations 2:15

Hope in God's Deliverance

26 Help me, O Lord my God;
save me according to Your mercy,

Cross References: Psalm 31:16; Psalm 6:4; Psalm 44:26

27 that they may know this is Your hand, that You, Lord, have done it.

Cross References: Exodus 8:19; Ezekiel 37:14; 1 Kings 18:37

28 Let them curse, but You will bless;
when they arise, let them be put to shame,
but let Your servant rejoice.

Cross References: Numbers 23:8; Romans 12:14; Psalm 129:5

29 Let my accusers be clothed with disgrace;
let them wrap themselves in their own shame as in a cloak.

Cross References: Psalm 35:4; Psalm 132:18; Jeremiah 20:11

30 With my mouth I will greatly praise the Lord;
I will praise Him among the multitude.

Cross References: Psalm 22:22; Psalm 35:18; Psalm 111:1

31 For He stands at the right hand of the needy one, to save him from those who condemn his soul.

Cross References: Psalm 140:12; Proverbs 22:23; Psalm 16:8

Key Lessons from Psalm 109

- False accusations are painful, but God hears the cry of the oppressed.
- The imprecatory prayers reflect a longing for God's justice, not personal vengeance.
- Sin brings its own judgment — those who love cursing and hatred will reap its fruit.
- God's mercy is greater than man's hatred — while enemies curse, the Lord blesses.

- The Lord stands with the needy — He defends the weak and delivers those condemned unfairly.

Psalm 110 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Reign of the Messiah”

The King Enthroned

1 The Lord said to my Lord, “Sit at My right hand, until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet.”

Cross References: Matthew 22:44; Acts 2:34; Hebrews 1:13

2 The Lord will extend the scepter of Your strength from Zion, saying, “Rule in the midst of Your enemies.”

Cross References: Psalm 2:6; Psalm 2:9; Micah 4:2

The People of the Messiah

3 Your people will offer themselves freely in the day of Your power, in holy splendor;
from the womb of the morning,
You have the dew of Your youth.

Cross References: Psalm 2:7; Isaiah 53:10; Luke 1:78

The Eternal Priesthood

4 The Lord has sworn and will not change His mind:
“You are a priest forever, after the order of Melchizedek.”

Cross References: Hebrews 5:6; Hebrews 7:17; Genesis 14:18

The Coming Judgment

5 The Lord, at Your right hand, will crush kings on the day of His wrath.

Cross References: Revelation 19:15; Psalm 2:5; Isaiah 63:3

6 He will execute judgment among the nations, filling them with corpses;
He will shatter the heads over many lands.

Cross References: Revelation 19:11; Joel 3:12; Isaiah 66:16

The Final Victory

7 He will drink from the brook by the way;
therefore He will lift up His head.

Cross References: Judges 7:5; Philippians 2:9; Psalm 3:3

Key Lessons from Psalm 110

- Christ is both King and Priest — He reigns with authority and intercedes forever after the order of Melchizedek.
- God’s promise is unchangeable — “The Lord has sworn and will not repent.”
- The Messiah’s rule will overcome all enemies, no matter their strength.
- His people are willing and holy, clothed in spiritual beauty, standing with Him in His day of power.
- Victory and refreshment are assured — Christ drinks of the brook, symbolizing triumph and renewal, and lifts His head in glory.

Psalm 111 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Great Works of the Lord”

The Covenant Provider

5 He provides food for those who fear Him;
He remembers His covenant forever.

Cross References: Psalm 34:10; Genesis 9:15; Matthew 6:33

6 He has shown His people the power of His works, giving them the inheritance of the nations.

Cross References: Joshua 21:43; Psalm 105:44; Deuteronomy 4:38

The Reliability of His Word

7 The works of His hands are truth and justice;
all His commandments are trustworthy.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:4; Psalm 19:9; Revelation 15:3

8 They are established forever and ever, done in truth and uprightness.

Cross References: Psalm 119:89; Matthew 5:18; Isaiah 40:8

Redemption and Reverence

9 He sent redemption to His people;
He has commanded His covenant forever.
Holy and awesome is His name.

Cross References: Luke 1:68; Exodus 6:6; Luke 1:49

The Beginning of Wisdom

10 The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom;
all who obey His commandments have good understanding.
His praise endures forever!

Cross References: Proverbs 9:10; Proverbs 1:7; Job 28:28

Key Lessons from Psalm 111

- Praise begins with a whole heart — worship is not partial but full devotion before God and His people.
- God's works are great and worth studying — His creation, providence, and redemption reveal His glory.
- His covenant is eternal — He remembers His promises and provides for His people.
- His commandments are sure and trustworthy — built on truth and righteousness, they endure forever.
- Wisdom starts with reverence — fearing the Lord is the foundation for true understanding.
- His praise never ends — all creation testifies to His greatness, and His people will glorify Him forever.

Psalm 112 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Blessings of the Righteous”

The Fear of the Lord

1 Praise the Lord!

Blessed is the one who fears the Lord, who greatly delights in His commandments.

Cross References: Psalm 1:2; Psalm 128:1; Proverbs 8:34

Generational Blessing

2 His descendants will be mighty on the earth;
the generation of the upright will be blessed.

Cross References: Psalm 37:26; Proverbs 20:7; Psalm 102:28

3 Wealth and riches are in his house, and his righteousness endures forever.

Light in Darkness

4 To the upright, light shines in the darkness;
he is gracious, compassionate, and righteous.

Cross References: Psalm 97:11; Isaiah 58:10; Job 11:17

The Gracious and Just Man

5 Good is the man who deals generously and lends, who conducts his affairs with justice.

Cross References: Proverbs 19:17; Luke 6:35; Psalm 37:21

6 Surely he will never be shaken;
the righteous will be remembered forever.

Cross References: Psalm 15:5; Proverbs 10:7; Psalm 55:22

Trust in the Lord

7 He will not fear bad news;
his heart is steadfast, trusting in the Lord.

Cross References: Psalm 27:3; Proverbs 1:33; Isaiah 26:3

8 His heart is secure; he will not be afraid, until he looks with confidence on his adversaries.

Cross References: Psalm 118:7; Psalm 59:10; Psalm 91:8

Righteous Generosity

9 He distributes freely, he gives to the poor;
his righteousness endures forever;
his horn will be lifted high in honor.

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 9:9; Proverbs 11:24; Psalm 75:10

The Wicked Contrasted

10 The wicked will see it and be vexed;
he will gnash his teeth and melt away.
The desire of the wicked will perish.

Cross References: Psalm 37:12; Proverbs 10:28; Matthew 8:12

Key Lessons from Psalm 112

- True blessing comes from fearing the Lord — delight in His commands brings stability and joy.
- Righteousness blesses future generations — the upright leave a legacy of faith and strength.
- Light shines in darkness — those who walk in God's ways bring hope, compassion, and justice.
- Generosity is the mark of the godly — the righteous freely give, reflecting God's own giving nature.
- Faith over fear — the righteous are not shaken by bad news but remain steady, trusting in the Lord.
- Honor belongs to the faithful — while the wicked perish in frustration, the righteous are remembered and exalted.

Psalm 113 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The God Who Lifts the Lowly” the name of the Lord is to be praised.

Cross References: Malachi 1:11; Psalm 50:1; Isaiah 45:6

The Greatness of God

4 The Lord is exalted above all nations,
His glory is above the heavens.

Cross References: Psalm 99:2; Psalm 108:5; Psalm 8:1

5 Who is like the Lord our God, the One who sits enthroned on high,

Cross References: Exodus 15:11; Psalm 89:6; Isaiah 40:25

6 who stoops down to look on the heavens and the earth?

Cross References: Isaiah 57:15; Psalm 138:6; Philippians 2:8

The God Who Lifts Up

7 He raises the poor from the dust and lifts the needy from the ash heap,

Cross References: 1 Samuel 2:8; Psalm 107:41; Job 5:11

8 to seat them with princes, with the princes of His people.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 2:8; Luke 1:52; Job 36:7

9 He gives the barren woman a home, making her the joyful mother of children.
Praise the Lord!

Cross References: 1 Samuel 2:5; Isaiah 54:1; Genesis 21:6

Key Lessons from Psalm 113

- God is worthy of continual praise — His name should be glorified everywhere and at all times.
- The Lord is exalted above all — He reigns above the nations and the heavens, yet is mindful of the earth.
- God humbles Himself to help humanity — though high and lifted up, He stoops to care for the lowly.
- He raises up the poor and needy — God delights in exalting the humble and restoring dignity to the downtrodden.
- God brings joy to the barren — He transforms emptiness into fruitfulness, proving His mercy and compassion.
- Praise is the only fitting response — those who know the Lord's mercy cannot help but exalt His name.

Psalm 114 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The God Who Shakes Creation”

Israel Delivered

1 When Israel came out of Egypt,
the house of Jacob from a people of strange speech,

Cross References: Exodus 12:41; Exodus 13:3; Isaiah 63:11

2 Judah became His sanctuary, and Israel His dominion.

Cross References: Exodus 19:6; Exodus 25:8; Ezekiel 37:28

Creation Trembles

3 The sea looked and fled;
the Jordan turned back.

Cross References: Exodus 14:21; Joshua 3:16; Psalm 77:16

4 The mountains skipped like rams, the hills like lambs.

Cross References: Exodus 19:18; Judges 5:5; Habakkuk 3:6

5 Why is it, O sea, that you fled?
Why, O Jordan, that you turned back?

Cross References: Exodus 14:21; Joshua 3:13; Habakkuk 3:8

6 Why, O mountains, did you leap like rams, and you hills, like lambs?

Cross References: Psalm 29:6; Isaiah 55:12; Judges 5:5

The Lord’s Presence

7 Tremble, O earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Jacob,

Cross References: Micah 1:4; Nahum 1:5; Isaiah 64:3

8 who turned the rock into a pool of water, the hard stone into a flowing spring.

Cross References: Exodus 17:6; Numbers 20:11; Deuteronomy 8:15

Key Lessons from Psalm 114

- God is sovereign over nations — He delivered Israel from Egypt, showing His power over earthly rulers.

- God makes His people His dwelling place — Judah became His sanctuary, reminding us that He desires to dwell among His people.
- Creation responds to the Creator — seas flee, rivers turn back, and mountains skip at His command.
- The earth trembles before God — even the strongest elements of creation bow before His presence.
- God provides miraculously for His people — He brings water from the rock, turning barrenness into life.
- The same God who shook the earth then still reigns today — His power and presence remain unchanged.

Psalm 115 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Glory to God Alone”

Glory to God, Not to Us

1 Not to us, O Lord, not to us, but to Your name give glory,
for the sake of Your mercy and truth.

Cross References: Isaiah 42:8; Ezekiel 36:22; 1 Chronicles 29:11

2 Why should the nations say,
“Where is now their God?”

Cross References: Psalm 79:10; Joel 2:17; Psalm 42:3

3 Our God is in the heavens;
He does whatever pleases Him.

Cross References: Psalm 135:6; Daniel 4:35; Isaiah 46:10

The Folly of Idols

4 Their idols are silver and gold,
the work of human hands.

Cross References: Isaiah 2:8; Deuteronomy 4:28; Psalm 135:15

5 They have mouths, but cannot speak;
eyes, but cannot see.

Cross References: Isaiah 44:18; Jeremiah 10:5; Habakkuk 2:18

6 They have ears, but cannot hear;
noses, but cannot smell.

Cross References: Psalm 135:17; Isaiah 44:9; Deuteronomy 4:28

7 They have hands, but cannot feel;
feet, but cannot walk;
nor can they make a sound with their throat.

Cross References: Isaiah 46:7; Habakkuk 2:19; Jeremiah 10:9

8 Those who make them become like them,
and so do all who trust in them.

Cross References: Isaiah 44:9; Isaiah 44:20; Romans 1:23

Trust in the Living God

9 O Israel, trust in the Lord—
He is their help and their shield.

Cross References: Psalm 121:2; Psalm 33:20; Proverbs 30:5

10 O house of Aaron, trust in the Lord—
He is their help and their shield.

Cross References: Psalm 118:3; Psalm 135:19; Numbers 18:1

11 All you who fear the Lord, trust in the Lord—
He is their help and their shield.

Cross References: Psalm 118:4; Psalm 34:9; Proverbs 3:5

The Blessing of the Lord

12 The Lord has remembered us; He will bless us:
He will bless the house of Israel;
He will bless the house of Aaron.

Cross References: Numbers 6:24; Psalm 67:1; Genesis 12:2

13 He will bless those who fear the Lord, both small and great alike.

Cross References: Revelation 19:5; Psalm 34:9; Malachi 3:16

14 The Lord shall increase you more and more, you and your children.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 1:11; Genesis 22:17; 1 Thessalonians 3:12

15 You are blessed of the Lord,
the Maker of heaven and earth.

Cross References: Genesis 14:19; Psalm 121:2; Psalm 134:3

Everlasting Praise

16 The heavens belong to the Lord, but the earth He has given to the children of men.

Cross References: Genesis 1:28; Psalm 24:1; Psalm 8:6

17 The dead do not praise the Lord, nor any who go down into silence.

Cross References: Psalm 6:5; Isaiah 38:18; Psalm 88:11

18 But we will bless the Lord, from this time forth and forevermore.
Praise the Lord!

Cross References: Psalm 113:2; Psalm 145:2; Psalm 121:8

Key Lessons from Psalm 115

- Glory belongs to God alone — Our achievements are nothing compared to His mercy and truth.
- Idols are powerless — Though crafted with mouths, eyes, and ears, they are lifeless and cannot help.
- Worshippers resemble what they worship — those who trust idols become as empty as the idols themselves.
- God is our help and shield — He protects and sustains His people when they trust in Him.
- God's blessing is generational — He increases His people and blesses their children.
- The living must praise the Lord — Our time on earth is given to glorify Him continually.

Psalm 116 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Thanksgiving for Deliverance”

God Heard My Cry

1 I love the Lord, because He has heard my voice and my supplications.

Cross References: Psalm 18:1; Psalm 40:1; Psalm 130:2

2 Because He has inclined His ear to me,
I will call on Him as long as I live.

Cross References: Psalm 17:6; Psalm 71:6; Psalm 146:2

Deliverance from Death

3 The sorrows of death surrounded me, and the terrors of the grave took hold of me;
I found only trouble and sorrow.

Cross References: Psalm 18:4; Psalm 55:4; Jonah 2:2

4 Then I called on the name of the Lord:
“O Lord, I beg You, deliver my soul!”

Cross References: Psalm 18:6; Joel 2:32; Psalm 130:1

5 Gracious is the Lord, and righteous;
yes, our God is merciful.

Cross References: Exodus 34:6; Psalm 145:8; Psalm 111:4

6 The Lord preserves the simple;
I was brought low, and He saved me.

Cross References: Psalm 19:7; Psalm 121:7; Psalm 34:6

Rest for the Soul

7 Return to your rest, O my soul, for the Lord has dealt bountifully with you.

Cross References: Matthew 11:29; Psalm 13:6; Psalm 119:17

8 For You have delivered my soul from death,
my eyes from tears,
and my feet from stumbling.

Cross References: Psalm 56:13; Revelation 21:4; Psalm 94:18

9 I will walk before the Lord
in the land of the living.

Cross References: Genesis 17:1; Psalm 27:13; Isaiah 38:11

Faith in Affliction

10 I believed, therefore I spoke:
I was greatly afflicted.

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 4:13; Habakkuk 2:4; Romans 10:10

11 I said in my haste,
“All men are liars.”

Cross References: Romans 3:4; Psalm 31:22; Numbers 23:19

Thanksgiving to God

12 What shall I render to the Lord for all His benefits toward me?

Cross References: Psalm 103:2; 1 Chronicles 29:14; Romans 12:1

13 I will lift up the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord.

Cross References: Psalm 16:5; 1 Corinthians 10:16; Psalm 23:5

in the presence of all His people.

Cross References: Psalm 22:25; Deuteronomy 23:21; Ecclesiastes 5:4

15 Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints.

Cross References: Numbers 23:10; Philippians 1:21; Revelation 14:13

16 O Lord, truly I am Your servant;
I am Your servant, the son of Your handmaid;
You have freed me from my chains.

Cross References: Psalm 86:16; Luke 1:38; Psalm 119:125

17 I will offer You the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and call on the name of the Lord.

Cross References: Psalm 50:14; Hebrews 13:15; Leviticus 7:12

18 I will fulfill my vows to the Lord,
in the presence of all His people,

Cross References: Psalm 61:8; Jonah 2:9; Nahum 1:15

19 in the courts of the house of the Lord, in the midst of you, O Jerusalem.
Praise the Lord!

Cross References: Psalm 84:2; Psalm 122:2; Psalm 100:4

Key Lessons from Psalm 116

- God hears the cries of His people — He bends His ear toward us when we call in distress.
- The Lord delivers from death and sorrow — He rescues the broken and gives life where death threatened.
- Rest comes through trust — the soul can return to peace because the Lord has dealt generously with us.
- Thanksgiving must be expressed — gratitude is shown in worship, public testimony, and fulfilling vows.
- The death of the faithful is precious to God — He values His saints even in their passing, for they are secure in Him.
- Freedom in Christ brings joyful service — those loosed from chains of bondage become devoted servants of the Lord.

Psalm 117 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Call to All Nations”

Praise from All Peoples

1 Praise the Lord, all you nations;
exalt Him, all you peoples.

Cross References: Romans 15:11; Psalm 67:3; Revelation 7:9

The Lord’s Enduring Mercy

2 For His steadfast love is great toward us, and the truth of the Lord endures forever.
Praise the Lord!

Cross References: Psalm 100:5; Lamentations 3:23; Psalm 36:5

Key Lessons from Psalm 117

- God’s mercy is for all nations — not just Israel, but every people group is invited to worship.
- The Lord’s love is steadfast and unchanging — His kindness reaches across generations.
- Truth never fades — God’s promises are eternal, unaffected by time or culture.
- Worship is global — heaven will be filled with people from every tribe, tongue, and nation praising the Lord (Revelation 7:9–10).

I will look in triumph on those who hate me.

Cross References: Psalm 54:4; Psalm 112:8; Psalm 59:10

8 It is better to trust in the Lord than to put confidence in man.

Cross References: Psalm 62:9; Jeremiah 17:5; 2 Chronicles 32:8

9 It is better to trust in the Lord than to put confidence in princes.

Cross References: Psalm 146:3; Proverbs 3:5; Micah 7:5

Surrounded but Delivered

10 All nations surrounded me,
but in the name of the Lord I cut them off.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 20:4; Psalm 27:6; 2 Chronicles 20:12

11 They surrounded me, yes, they surrounded me, but in the name of the Lord I cut them off.

Cross References: Psalm 22:16; Psalm 17:11; Joshua 10:8

12 They swarmed around me like bees;
they blazed like a fire of thorns,
but in the name of the Lord I cut them off.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 1:44; Isaiah 33:12; Ecclesiastes 7:6

13 I was pushed hard so that I might fall, but the Lord helped me.

Cross References: Psalm 94:18; Psalm 37:24; 2 Corinthians 4:9

The Lord My Strength and Salvation

14 The Lord is my strength and my song;
He has become my salvation.

Cross References: Exodus 15:2; Isaiah 12:2; Habakkuk 3:19

15 Shouts of joy and victory resound in the tents of the righteous:

“The right hand of the Lord has done mighty things!

Cross References: Psalm 32:11; Exodus 15:6; Proverbs 3:33

16 The right hand of the Lord is exalted;
the right hand of the Lord has done valiantly!”

Cross References: Exodus 15:6; Psalm 89:13; Isaiah 41:10

17 I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the Lord.

Cross References: Psalm 6:5; Psalm 73:28; Isaiah 38:19

18 The Lord has disciplined me severely, but He has not given me over to death.

Cross References: Psalm 94:12; Hebrews 12:6; 2 Corinthians 6:9

The Gate of Righteousness

19 Open for me the gates of righteousness;
I will enter and give thanks to the Lord.

Cross References: Isaiah 26:2; Psalm 24:7; Revelation 22:14

20 This is the gate of the Lord;
the righteous shall enter through it.

Cross References: Matthew 7:14; John 10:9; Ezekiel 44:2

21 I will give You thanks, for You answered me;
You have become my salvation.

Cross References: Psalm 116:1; Psalm 28:6; Jonah 2:9

The Cornerstone

22 The stone the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone.

Cross References: Matthew 21:42; Acts 4:11; 1 Peter 2:7

23 This is the Lord’s doing;
it is marvelous in our eyes.

Cross References: Mark 12:11; Zechariah 8:6; Psalm 98:1

24 This is the day that the Lord has made;
we will rejoice and be glad in it.

Cross References: Psalm 30:5; Isaiah 25:9; Philippians 4:4

Hosanna!

25 Save us now, we pray, O Lord!

O Lord, we pray, grant us success.

Cross References: Matthew 21:9; Mark 11:9; John 12:13

26 Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

From the house of the Lord we bless you.

Cross References: Zechariah 9:9; Matthew 23:39; Luke 19:38

27 The Lord is God, and He has made His light shine upon us.

Bind the sacrifice with cords, up to the horns of the altar.

Cross References: John 8:12; Leviticus 1:5; Exodus 27:2

Closing Praise

28 You are my God, and I will praise You;

You are my God, and I will exalt You.

Cross References: Exodus 15:2; Isaiah 25:1; Psalm 145:1

29 Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good;

His mercy endures forever.

Cross References: Psalm 106:1; 1 Chronicles 16:34; Jeremiah 33:11

Key Lessons from Psalm 118

- God's mercy is eternal – no matter the situation, His love remains steadfast (vv. 1–4, 29).
- Trust in God, not man – human strength and power are limited, but the Lord never fails (vv. 6–9).
- The rejected stone becomes the cornerstone – a prophecy fulfilled in Jesus Christ (v. 22; cf. Matthew 21:42, Acts 4:11, 1 Peter 2:7).
- The Lord is salvation – not just a deliverer from enemies, but the Savior of the soul (vv. 14, 21).
- This is the day the Lord has made – a call to rejoice in His redemption, a verse often sung in worship (v. 24).
- Messianic Hosanna – “Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord” was shouted at Jesus’ triumphal entry (v. 26; cf. Matthew 21:9, John 12:13).

Psalm 119 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Glory of God’s Word”

ALEPH (vv. 1–8) – The Blessing of Walking in God’s Law

1 Blessed are those whose way is blameless, who walk in the law of the Lord.

Cross References: Psalm 1:1; Proverbs 11:20; Luke 11:28

2 Blessed are those who keep His testimonies, and who seek Him with their whole heart.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 4:29; Jeremiah 29:13; 2 Chronicles 15:15

3 They do no wrong;
they walk in His ways.

Cross References: 1 John 1:6; Micah 4:2; Deuteronomy 5:33

4 You have commanded us to keep Your precepts diligently.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 6:17; Deuteronomy 4:2; Joshua 1:8

5 Oh, that my ways were steadfast in keeping Your statutes!

Cross References: Psalm 25:4; Psalm 143:10; Proverbs 3:5

6 Then I would not be ashamed, when I consider all Your commandments.

Cross References: 1 John 2:28; Philippians 1:20; Psalm 25:3

7 I will praise You with an upright heart when I learn Your righteous judgments.

Cross References: Psalm 9:1; Psalm 111:1; Psalm 86:12

8 I will keep Your statutes;
do not forsake me utterly.

Cross References: Hebrews 13:5; Deuteronomy 31:6; Psalm 27:9

Key Lessons:

- True blessing comes from walking according to God’s Word.
- Obedience requires wholehearted devotion, not partial effort.
- God’s Word removes shame and gives us confidence in Him.

BETH (vv. 9–16) – Cleansing by the Word

9 How can a young man keep his way pure?
By guarding it according to Your word.

Cross References: Ephesians 5:26; Proverbs 22:6; 2 Timothy 2:22

10 With my whole heart I have sought You; do not let me wander from Your commandments.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 15:12; Hebrews 3:12; Psalm 63:1

11 I have hidden Your word in my heart, that I might not sin against You.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 6:6; Colossians 3:16; Proverbs 4:21

12 Blessed are You, O Lord;
teach me Your statutes.

Cross References: Psalm 86:11; Psalm 25:5; James 1:5

13 With my lips I declare all the judgments of Your mouth.

Cross References: Psalm 40:9; Deuteronomy 6:7; Psalm 71:15

14 I rejoice in the way of Your testimonies as much as in all riches.

Cross References: Proverbs 8:10; Psalm 19:8; Philippians 3:8

15 I will meditate on Your precepts and fix my eyes on Your ways.

Cross References: Psalm 143:5; Psalm 1:2; Psalm 77:12

16 I will delight myself in Your statutes;
I will not forget Your word.

Cross References: Psalm 1:2; Deuteronomy 6:12; Job 23:12

Key Lessons:

- God's Word is the only path to purity.
- Scripture hidden in the heart is a shield against sin.
- Meditation on the Word brings more joy than wealth.

GIMEL (vv. 17–24) – The Word Our Counselor

17 Deal bountifully with Your servant, that I may live and keep Your word.

Cross References: Psalm 116:7; Psalm 13:6; Titus 3:5

18 Open my eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of Your law.

Cross References: Ephesians 1:18; Luke 24:45; 2 Corinthians 3:16

19 I am a sojourner on the earth;
do not hide Your commandments from me.

Cross References: Hebrews 11:13; 1 Peter 2:11; 1 Chronicles 29:15

20 My soul is consumed with longing for Your judgments at all times.

Cross References: Psalm 42:1; Psalm 84:2; Philippians 1:23

21 You rebuke the proud, the cursed ones, who wander from Your commandments.

Cross References: Psalm 138:6; James 4:6; 1 Peter 5:5

22 Take away from me scorn and contempt, for I have kept Your testimonies.

Cross References: Psalm 69:7; Psalm 44:13; 1 Peter 4:14

23 Even though princes sit plotting against me,
Your servant will meditate on Your statutes.

Cross References: Acts 4:19; Daniel 6:10; Mark 13:11

24 Your testimonies are my delight;
they are my counselors.

Cross References: Psalm 73:24; Proverbs 8:14; Isaiah 9:6

Key Lessons:

- We need God to open our eyes to see the richness of His Word.
- The Word sustains us as strangers in this world.
- When slandered or opposed, God's Word counsels and steadies us.

DALETH (vv. 25–32) – Revived by the Word

25 My soul clings to the dust;
revive me according to Your word.

Cross References: Genesis 3:19; Matthew 4:4; Psalm 143:11

26 I told of my ways, and You answered me;
teach me Your statutes.

Cross References: Psalm 32:5; 1 John 1:9; Nehemiah 9:20

27 Make me understand the way of Your precepts, and I will meditate on Your wondrous works.

Cross References: Psalm 145:5; Psalm 105:2; Colossians 1:9

28 My soul melts away for sorrow;
strengthen me according to Your word.

Cross References: Psalm 42:5; Psalm 61:2; Hebrews 4:12

29 Put false ways far from me and graciously teach me Your law.

Cross References: Proverbs 30:8; Ephesians 4:25; Psalm 120:2

30 I have chosen the way of truth;
I have set Your judgments before me.

Cross References: John 14:6; Joshua 24:15; Psalm 16:8

31 I cling to Your testimonies, O Lord; do not let me be put to shame.

Cross References: Romans 10:11; Isaiah 50:7; 2 Timothy 1:12

32 I will run in the way of Your commandments, when You enlarge my heart.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 9:24; Hebrews 12:1; 2 Corinthians 6:11

Key Lessons:

- God's Word revives us when we are low in spirit.
- Choosing truth requires rejecting lies.
- Delight in God's Word gives us spiritual strength to run the race.

HE (vv. 33–40) – Teach Me, O Lord

33 Teach me, O Lord, the way of Your statutes; and I will keep it to the end.

Cross References: Psalm 27:11; Matthew 24:13; Ezra 7:10

34 Give me understanding, and I will keep Your law;
indeed, I will observe it with my whole heart.

Cross References: James 1:5; Proverbs 2:6; Jeremiah 24:7

35 Make me walk in the path of Your commandments, for in it I delight.

Cross References: Psalm 40:8; Psalm 143:10; Romans 7:22

36 Incline my heart to Your testimonies, and not to selfish gain.

Cross References: Joshua 24:23; 1 Kings 8:58; 1 Timothy 6:10

37 Turn my eyes away from worthless things; revive me in Your way.

Cross References: Job 31:1; Psalm 101:3; Matthew 6:22

38 Confirm Your word to Your servant, who is devoted to fearing You.

Cross References: Psalm 33:11; 2 Corinthians 1:20; 1 Peter 1:25

39 Turn away the reproach that I dread, for Your judgments are good.

Cross References: Zephaniah 3:15; Isaiah 54:4; Romans 8:1

40 Behold, I long for Your precepts; revive me in Your righteousness.

Cross References: Psalm 42:2; Matthew 5:6; Psalm 130:5

Key Lessons:

- Obedience flows from God-given understanding.
- Our hearts must be directed away from greed and vanity, and fixed on God's Word.
- God's Word both revives us and shields us from shame.

VAV (vv. 41–48) – Liberty in God's Word

41 Let Your steadfast love come to me, O Lord,
Your salvation according to Your word.

Cross References: Psalm 85:7; Ephesians 2:8; 1 Peter 1:3

42 Then I will have an answer for those who taunt me, for I trust in Your word.

Cross References: 1 Peter 3:15; Colossians 4:6; Psalm 38:15

43 Do not take the word of truth utterly from my mouth, for I have hoped in Your judgments.

Cross References: 2 Timothy 4:2; Titus 1:9; Jeremiah 1:9

44 So shall I keep Your law continually,
forever and ever.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 11:1; Psalm 145:1; Revelation 22:14

45 And I will walk at liberty, for I seek Your precepts.

Cross References: Galatians 5:1; James 1:25; John 8:32

46 I will speak of Your testimonies before kings and will not be ashamed.

Cross References: Matthew 10:18; Acts 26:1; Romans 1:16

47 I will delight myself in Your commandments, which I have loved.

Cross References: Psalm 112:1; Psalm 1:2; 1 John 5:3

48 I will lift up my hands to Your commandments, which I love, and will meditate on Your statutes.

Cross References: Psalm 141:2; Lamentations 3:41; Psalm 63:4

Key Lessons:

- God's Word equips us to answer critics and endure taunts.
- Obedience to God brings true liberty, not bondage.
- Love for the Word leads to bold testimony, even before rulers.

ZAYIN (vv. 49–56) – Comfort in Affliction

49 Remember Your word to Your servant, upon which You have caused me to hope.

Cross References: Hebrews 6:18; Psalm 105:8; 2 Peter 3:9

50 This is my comfort in my affliction, that Your word has revived me.

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 1:3; Romans 15:4; Psalm 94:19

51 The arrogant utterly deride me, but I do not turn away from Your law.

Cross References: Psalm 22:7; Matthew 5:11; Luke 6:22

52 I have remembered Your judgments of old, O Lord, and have found comfort.

Cross References: Lamentations 3:21; Psalm 77:11; Deuteronomy 32:7

53 Indignation seizes me because of the wicked who forsake Your law.

Cross References: Psalm 69:9; Jeremiah 5:30; Ezra 9:3

54 Your statutes have been my songs in the house of my sojourning.

Cross References: Ephesians 5:19; 1 Peter 2:11; Psalm 39:12

55 I remember Your name in the night, O Lord, and keep Your law.

Cross References: Psalm 63:6; Psalm 42:8; Acts 16:25

56 This blessing has fallen to me, that I have kept Your precepts.

Cross References: Galatians 6:8; Proverbs 13:13; Psalm 19:11

Key Lessons:

- God's promises are the believer's comfort in affliction.
- Remembering God's past judgments strengthens us in present trials.
- His Word gives songs in the night and joy in our pilgrimage.

HETH (vv. 57–64) – The Lord is My Portion

57 The Lord is my portion;
I have promised to keep Your words.

Cross References: Psalm 16:5; Psalm 73:26; Lamentations 3:24

58 I seek Your favor with my whole heart; be gracious to me according to Your word.

Cross References: Exodus 33:13; Psalm 27:8; Hosea 5:15

59 I considered my ways and turned my feet to Your testimonies.

Cross References: Ezekiel 18:28; Luke 15:18; Haggai 1:5

60 I made haste, and did not delay to keep Your commandments.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 5:32; Ecclesiastes 9:10; Galatians 1:16

61 Though the cords of the wicked ensnare me,
I do not forget Your law.

Cross References: Proverbs 5:22; Psalm 140:5; Job 18:8

62 At midnight I rise to give thanks to You,
because of Your righteous judgments.

Cross References: Acts 16:25; Psalm 92:1; Luke 6:12

63 I am a companion of all who fear You, of those who keep Your precepts.

Cross References: Psalm 101:6; Malachi 3:16; Proverbs 13:20

64 The earth, O Lord, is full of Your steadfast love;
teach me Your statutes.

Cross References: Psalm 33:5; Psalm 145:9; Psalm 104:24

Key Lessons:

- The Lord Himself is the believer's inheritance, better than any possession.
- True repentance leads to prompt obedience—without delay.
- God's Word binds us in fellowship with all who fear Him.

TETH (vv. 65–72) – The Blessing of Affliction

65 You have dealt well with Your servant, O Lord, according to Your word.

Cross References: Psalm 103:10; Psalm 103:2; Lamentations 3:23

66 Teach me good judgment and knowledge, for I believe in Your commandments.

Cross References: Proverbs 1:4; Proverbs 9:10; 1 Kings 3:9

67 Before I was afflicted I went astray, but now I keep Your word.

Cross References: Hebrews 12:11; Isaiah 53:6; 1 Peter 2:25

68 You are good and do good;
teach me Your statutes.

Cross References: Psalm 100:5; Nahum 1:7; James 1:17

69 The proud smear me with lies, but I will keep Your precepts with my whole heart.

Cross References: Psalm 35:11; Psalm 109:2; Psalm 27:12

70 Their heart is unfeeling like fat, but I delight in Your law.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:15; Psalm 17:10; Isaiah 6:10

71 It is good for me that I was afflicted, that I might learn Your statutes.

Cross References: Hebrews 12:10; James 1:2; 2 Corinthians 12:9

72 The law of Your mouth is better to me than thousands of gold and silver pieces.

Cross References: Psalm 19:10; Proverbs 8:10; Proverbs 3:14

Key Lessons:

- Affliction often serves to drive us back to God's Word.
- God's goodness is unchanging, even in times of trial.
- The Word of God is worth more than all the treasures of the earth.

YODH (vv. 73–80) – Formed by His Hands

73 Your hands have made and fashioned me; give me understanding, that I may learn Your commandments.

Cross References: Job 10:8; Psalm 139:14; Isaiah 64:8

74 Those who fear You shall see me and rejoice, because I have hoped in Your word.

Cross References: Psalm 34:2; Romans 15:13; Psalm 40:16

75 I know, O Lord, that Your judgments are right, and that in faithfulness You have afflicted me.

Cross References: Job 5:17; Hebrews 12:6; Deuteronomy 8:5

76 Let Your steadfast love be my comfort, according to Your promise to Your servant.

Cross References: Isaiah 49:13; Psalm 103:13; Psalm 86:15

77 Let Your tender mercies come to me, that I may live, for Your law is my delight.

Cross References: Psalm 51:1; Psalm 116:5; Lamentations 3:22

78 Let the arrogant be put to shame, because they wrong me with lies;
but I will meditate on Your precepts.

Cross References: Psalm 35:26; Psalm 31:17; 1 Peter 3:16

79 Let those who fear You turn to me, that they may know Your testimonies.

Cross References: Malachi 3:16; Psalm 34:11; Hebrews 10:25

80 May my heart be blameless in Your statutes, that I may not be put to shame.

Cross References: Psalm 51:10; 1 John 3:21; Colossians 2:2

Key Lessons:

- God is our Creator and Teacher; the One who formed us can guide us.
- Affliction is not random—it comes through God's faithfulness.
- Fellowship with others who fear God strengthens faith and obedience.

KAPH (vv. 81–88) – Fainting for Salvation

81 My soul longs for Your salvation;
I hope in Your word.

Cross References: Romans 8:24; Psalm 27:4; Lamentations 3:26

82 My eyes fail with watching for Your promise;
I ask, “When will You comfort me?”

Cross References: Psalm 69:3; Lamentations 4:17; Psalm 6:6

83 For I have become like a wineskin in the smoke, yet I have not forgotten Your statutes.

Cross References: Job 30:30; Psalm 102:3; Lamentations 4:8

84 How many are the days of Your servant?
When will You execute judgment on my persecutors?

Cross References: Psalm 6:3; Revelation 6:10; Habakkuk 1:2

85 The arrogant have dug pits for me, they do not live according to Your law.

Cross References: Psalm 57:6; Psalm 7:15; Jeremiah 18:20

86 All Your commandments are faithful;
they persecute me wrongfully—help me!

Cross References: 2 Timothy 3:12; Psalm 35:19; John 15:25

87 They almost destroyed me on the earth, but I did not forsake Your precepts.

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 4:8; Psalm 94:17; Psalm 118:13

88 Revive me according to Your steadfast love, that I may keep the testimony of Your mouth.

Cross References: Psalm 116:8; Ephesians 2:4; Psalm 71:20

Key Lessons:

- Even when weary and scorched by trials, the faithful cling to God’s Word.
- God’s commandments are faithful when men are not.
- Revival comes through God’s love, not our strength.

LAMEDH (vv. 89–96) – Forever Settled in Heaven

89 Forever, O Lord, Your word is firmly fixed in heaven.

Cross References: Matthew 24:35; Isaiah 40:8; Psalm 89:2

90 Your faithfulness endures to all generations;
You have established the earth, and it stands fast.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 7:9; Genesis 8:22; Psalm 146:6

91 By Your ordinances they stand this day, for all things are Your servants.

Cross References: Jeremiah 33:25; Psalm 148:5; Romans 11:36

92 If Your law had not been my delight,
I would have perished in my affliction.

Cross References: Psalm 27:13; Habakkuk 3:17; Psalm 42:11

93 I will never forget Your precepts, for by them You have given me life.

Cross References: John 6:63; Romans 8:11; Deuteronomy 4:9

94 I am Yours; save me, for I have sought Your precepts.

Cross References: Isaiah 43:1; 1 Corinthians 6:19; Psalm 100:3

95 The wicked lie in wait to destroy me, but I consider Your testimonies.

Cross References: Psalm 37:32; 1 Peter 5:8; Psalm 27:2

96 I have seen a limit to all perfection, but Your commandment is exceedingly broad.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 13:9; 2 Timothy 3:16; Ecclesiastes 3:11

Key Lessons:

- God's Word is eternal, unchanging, and fixed in heaven.
- His faithfulness spans every generation—He never fails.
- Earthly perfection is limited, but God's Word is limitless in wisdom and scope.

MEM (vv. 97–104) – Sweeter Than Honey

97 Oh, how I love Your law!
It is my meditation all the day.

Cross References: Psalm 1:2; Joshua 1:8; Jeremiah 15:16

98 Your commandments make me wiser than my enemies, for they are ever with me.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 4:6; 2 Timothy 3:15; Proverbs 2:10

99 I have more understanding than all my teachers, for Your testimonies are my meditation.

Cross References: 1 John 2:27; Job 32:8; Psalm 111:10

100 I understand more than the elders, because I keep Your precepts.

Cross References: Job 12:12; Job 8:8; Ecclesiastes 4:13

101 I have kept my feet from every evil way, so that I might obey Your word.

Cross References: Proverbs 1:15; Psalm 17:5; Psalm 17:4

102 I have not turned away from Your judgments, for You Yourself have taught me.

Cross References: John 6:45; Isaiah 54:13; Nehemiah 8:8

103 How sweet are Your words to my taste, sweeter than honey to my mouth!

Cross References: Ezekiel 3:3; Psalm 34:8; Proverbs 24:13

104 Through Your precepts I gain understanding;
therefore I hate every false way.

Cross References: Proverbs 8:13; Amos 5:15; Psalm 97:10

Key Lessons:

- Loving and meditating on God's Word brings wisdom greater than worldly teachers.
- Obedience is the pathway to true understanding.
- God's Word satisfies the soul with sweetness beyond honey.

NUN (vv. 105–112) – A Lamp to My Feet

105 Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.

Cross References: Proverbs 6:23; 2 Peter 1:19; John 8:12

106 I have sworn an oath and confirmed it, to keep Your righteous judgments.

Cross References: Nehemiah 10:29; Ecclesiastes 5:4; Deuteronomy 23:23

107 I am severely afflicted; revive me, O Lord, according to Your word.

Cross References: Psalm 6:2; Psalm 41:4; John 5:21

108 Accept, I pray, the freewill offerings of my mouth, O Lord, and teach me Your judgments.

Cross References: Hosea 14:2; Hebrews 13:15; Psalm 54:6

109 My life is continually in danger, yet I do not forget Your law.

Cross References: Judges 12:3; 1 Samuel 19:5; Job 13:14

110 The wicked have laid a snare for me, yet I have not strayed from Your precepts.

Cross References: Psalm 25:15; Psalm 141:9; Proverbs 4:14

111 Your testimonies are my heritage forever;
they are the joy of my heart.

Cross References: Ephesians 1:11; 1 Peter 1:4; Deuteronomy 33:4

112 My heart is set on keeping Your statutes to the very end.

Cross References: Ruth 1:16; 2 Corinthians 8:11; Philippians 1:6

Key Lessons:

- God's Word gives light and direction in the darkest paths.
- Even in danger and affliction, the righteous cling to His law.
- The Word of God is an eternal inheritance and the joy of the faithful.

SAMEKH (vv. 113–120) – My Hiding Place and Shield

113 I hate double-minded thoughts,
but I love Your law.

Cross References: Philippians 4:8; 2 Corinthians 10:5; James 1:8

114 You are my hiding place and my shield;
I hope in Your word.

Cross References: Psalm 32:7; Psalm 91:1; Proverbs 30:5

115 Depart from me, you evildoers, for I will keep the commandments of my God.

Cross References: Psalm 6:8; Matthew 7:23; Psalm 26:5

116 Uphold me according to Your word, that I may live, and let me not be ashamed of my hope.

Cross References: Romans 5:5; Psalm 37:24; Hebrews 6:19

117 Hold me up, and I shall be safe;
I will always have regard for Your statutes.

Cross References: Psalm 3:5; Psalm 63:8; Jude 1:24

118 You reject all who stray from Your statutes, for their deceit is falsehood.

Cross References: Psalm 73:27; Proverbs 11:3; Isaiah 28:17

119 You discard all the wicked of the earth like dross;
therefore I love Your testimonies.

Cross References: Proverbs 25:4; Ezekiel 22:18; Malachi 3:2

120 My flesh trembles for fear of You, and I stand in awe of Your judgments.

Cross References: Habakkuk 3:16; Isaiah 66:2; Hebrews 10:31

Key Lessons:

- God Himself is the believer's hiding place and shield.
- Double-mindedness is rejected, but steadfast love of His Word secures us.
- Awe and holy fear of God's Word produces reverence and obedience.

AYIN (vv. 121–128) – Loving God's Law Above Gold

121 I have done what is just and right;
do not leave me to my oppressors.

Cross References: Micah 6:8; Psalm 9:9; Psalm 103:6

122 Be surety for Your servant for good;
let not the proud oppress me.

Cross References: Hebrews 7:22; Genesis 43:9; Psalm 12:5

123 My eyes fail, watching for Your salvation and the fulfillment of Your righteous promise.

Cross References: Psalm 13:3; Isaiah 51:5; 2 Corinthians 5:2

124 Deal with Your servant according to Your mercy, and teach me Your statutes.

Cross References: Psalm 33:22; Psalm 25:6; Psalm 86:5

125 I am Your servant; give me understanding, that I may know Your testimonies.

Cross References: Philippians 1:9; Colossians 1:9; Psalm 116:16

126 It is time for the Lord to act, for they have broken Your law.

Cross References: Isaiah 24:5; 2 Timothy 4:3; 2 Peter 3:3

127 Therefore I love Your commandments more than gold, yes, more than fine gold.

Cross References: Job 28:15; Proverbs 3:15; Psalm 21:3

128 Therefore I regard all Your precepts as right in every way;
I hate every false way.

Cross References: Proverbs 30:5; Amos 5:15; Titus 1:9

Key Lessons:

- God's Word is worth more than the finest gold.
- His people look for His salvation even while waiting under oppression.
- Loving His commandments naturally leads to hating what is false.

PE (vv. 129–136) – Streams of Tears

129 Your testimonies are wonderful; therefore my soul keeps them.

Cross References: Psalm 139:14; Nehemiah 9:13; Psalm 40:5

130 The unfolding of Your words gives light; it gives understanding to the simple.

Cross References: Psalm 19:7; 2 Corinthians 4:6; 2 Peter 1:19

131 I open my mouth and pant, for I long for Your commandments.

Cross References: Psalm 38:9; Psalm 143:6; Amos 8:11

132 Turn to me and be gracious to me, as You do to those who love Your name.

Cross References: Psalm 25:16; Psalm 86:16; Luke 1:50

133 Order my steps in Your word, and let no iniquity have dominion over me.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:9; Romans 6:14; Jeremiah 10:23

134 Redeem me from man's oppression, that I may keep Your precepts.

Cross References: Psalm 55:18; Luke 1:74; Isaiah 51:12

135 Make Your face shine upon Your servant,
and teach me Your statutes.

Cross References: Numbers 6:25; Psalm 67:1; Psalm 31:16

136 Streams of tears run down from my eyes, because people do not keep Your law.

Cross References: Jeremiah 9:1; Lamentations 3:48; Luke 19:41

Key Lessons:

- God's Word gives light and understanding to the simple-hearted.
- Righteous grief flows when the world rejects God's truth.
- Ordered steps in God's Word keep us free from the dominion of sin.

TSADHE (vv. 137–144) – Everlasting Righteousness

137 Righteous are You, O Lord, and upright are Your judgments.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:4; Revelation 15:3; Psalm 145:17

138 The testimonies You have commanded are righteous and very faithful.

Cross References: Psalm 19:9; Revelation 19:11; Psalm 111:7

139 My zeal consumes me, because my enemies forget Your words.

Cross References: Jeremiah 20:9; John 2:17; Numbers 25:11

140 Your word is very pure;
therefore Your servant loves it.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 22:31; Psalm 12:6; Psalm 18:30

141 I am small and despised, yet I do not forget Your precepts.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 1:27; 1 Samuel 9:21; 1 Samuel 16:11

142 Your righteousness is everlasting, and Your law is truth.

Cross References: Isaiah 51:6; John 17:17; Psalm 111:3

143 Trouble and anguish have found me out, but Your commandments are my delight.

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 4:17; Psalm 34:19; John 16:33

144 The righteousness of Your testimonies is everlasting; give me understanding, and I shall live.

Cross References: John 5:39; John 6:68; Deuteronomy 32:47

Key Lessons:

- God's Word is pure, righteous, and eternal.
- Though the world despises us, the law of God is our delight.
- True life is found in understanding and obeying God's everlasting truth.

RESH (vv. 145–152) – God is Near 145 I cry out with my whole heart; answer me, O Lord! I will keep Your statutes.

Cross References: Psalm 86:3; Psalm 27:7; Psalm 34:17

146 I call to You; save me, and I will keep Your testimonies.

Cross References: Psalm 50:15; Joel 2:32; Romans 10:13

147 I rise before dawn and cry for help;
I put my hope in Your word.

Cross References: Mark 1:35; Psalm 5:3; Psalm 88:13

148 My eyes stay open through the night watches, that I may meditate on Your word.

Cross References: Psalm 92:2; Luke 6:12; Psalm 130:6

149 Hear my voice according to Your steadfast love; revive me, O Lord, according to Your justice.

Cross References: Psalm 143:1; 1 John 5:14; Jeremiah 31:3

150 Those who pursue evil draw near;
they are far from Your law.

Cross References: Jeremiah 23:23; Psalm 37:14; Psalm 21:11

151 But You are near, O Lord, and all Your commandments are truth.

Cross References: Psalm 145:18; Deuteronomy 4:7; James 4:8

152 Long ago I learned from Your testimonies that You established them forever.

Cross References: 1 Peter 1:25; Psalm 93:5; Psalm 111:8

Key Lessons:

- God is near to those who cry to Him with their whole heart.
- His Word provides hope both day and night.
- His testimonies are eternal, unchanging, and faithful.

QOPH (vv. 153–160) – Revive Me by Your Word

153 Look upon my affliction and deliver me, for I do not forget Your law.

Cross References: Psalm 25:18; Exodus 3:7; Psalm 9:13

154 Defend my cause and redeem me; revive me according to Your promise.

Cross References: Psalm 43:1; Micah 7:9; Lamentations 3:58

155 Salvation is far from the wicked, for they do not seek Your statutes.

Cross References: Proverbs 1:24; Isaiah 55:6; Proverbs 28:9

156 Great are Your mercies, O Lord; revive me according to Your judgments.

Cross References: Nehemiah 9:19; Psalm 69:16; Micah 7:18

157 Many are my persecutors and my foes, but I have not turned from Your testimonies.

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 1:8; Psalm 3:1; Psalm 56:2

158 I look upon the faithless with grief, because they do not keep Your word.

Cross References: Ezekiel 9:4; 2 Peter 2:7; Mark 3:5

159 Consider how I love Your precepts; revive me, O Lord, according to Your steadfast love.

Cross References: Psalm 26:3; Ephesians 2:5; Psalm 6:4

160 The sum of Your word is truth, and every one of Your righteous judgments endures forever.

Cross References: Numbers 23:19; Titus 1:2; Isaiah 45:19

Key Lessons:

- God's Word revives the soul when afflicted or oppressed.
- The wicked remain far from salvation because they reject His statutes.
- Every word of God is truth, eternal, and unshakable.

RESH (vv. 161–168) – Peace for Those Who Love His Law

161 Princes persecute me without cause, but my heart stands in awe of Your word.

Cross References: Acts 5:41; Acts 5:29; 1 Samuel 24:6

162 I rejoice in Your word as one who finds great treasure.

Cross References: Matthew 13:44; Jeremiah 15:16; Colossians 2:3

163 I hate and abhor falsehood,
but I love Your law.

Cross References: Proverbs 13:5; Zechariah 8:17; Proverbs 6:17

164 Seven times a day I praise You because of Your righteous judgments.

Cross References: Psalm 55:17; Acts 3:1; Psalm 34:1

165 Great peace have those who love Your law;
nothing can make them stumble.

Cross References: Isaiah 26:3; Philippians 4:7; Proverbs 3:2

166 I wait for Your salvation, O Lord, and I follow Your commandments.

Cross References: Genesis 49:18; Titus 2:13; Micah 7:7

167 My soul keeps Your testimonies, and I love them exceedingly.

Cross References: John 14:15; 1 John 2:5; Psalm 18:1

168 I keep Your precepts and testimonies, for all my ways are before You.

Cross References: Proverbs 5:21; Hebrews 4:13; Job 34:21

Key Lessons:

- God's Word is a treasure more valuable than riches.
- Loving His law brings great peace and stability.
- True devotion is marked by continual love and obedience.

SHIN (vv. 169–176) – A Cry for the Shepherd

169 Let my cry come near before You, O Lord; give me understanding according to Your word.

Cross References: Psalm 88:2; Psalm 102:1; Psalm 5:2

170 Let my supplication come before You; deliver me according to Your promise.

Cross References: Psalm 6:9; Daniel 9:18; Psalm 61:1

171 My lips overflow with praise, for You teach me Your statutes.

Cross References: Psalm 51:15; Psalm 71:23; Psalm 63:5

172 My tongue sings of Your word, for all Your commandments are righteous.

Cross References: Psalm 35:28; Psalm 71:24; Psalm 145:21

173 Let Your hand be ready to help me, for I have chosen Your precepts.

Cross References: Psalm 138:7; Isaiah 41:10; Psalm 89:21

174 I long for Your salvation, O Lord, and Your law is my delight.

Cross References: Psalm 130:5; Psalm 1:2; Romans 8:23

175 Let my soul live to praise You, and let Your judgments help me.

Cross References: Psalm 103:1; Psalm 146:2; Isaiah 38:19

176 I have gone astray like a lost sheep;
seek Your servant,
for I do not forget Your commandments.

Cross References: Isaiah 53:6; Luke 15:4; 1 Peter 2:25

Key Lessons:

- God's Word gives understanding, guidance, and deliverance.
- The righteous overflow with praise because His commands are true and good.
- Like a shepherd seeking a lost sheep, the Lord pursues His wandering people.

Summary of Psalm 119

- Psalm 119, the longest chapter in Scripture, exalts the beauty, power, and necessity of God's Word. Divided into 22 sections (one for each Hebrew letter), it highlights the believer's relationship to God's law—through affliction, joy, persecution, meditation, and obedience.

Major Themes:

- The Word of God brings wisdom, peace, joy, and understanding.
- Affliction often drives us deeper into reliance on His promises.

- The Word is eternal, pure, and trustworthy in every generation.
- The believer's heart longs for God's statutes as for life itself.

Key Lessons:

- God's Word lights the path and anchors the soul.
- Obedience to His commands brings stability and peace.
- God Himself is near, reviving His people with mercy and truth.
- Even when we stray, the Shepherd seeks us, for His Word endures forever.

Psalm 120 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Cry for Peace in a World of Deceit”

1 In my distress I cried to the Lord, and He answered me.

Cross References: Jonah 2:2; Psalm 18:6; Psalm 34:6

2 Deliver me, O Lord, from lying lips and a deceitful tongue.

Cross References: Psalm 52:4; Proverbs 12:22; Psalm 12:2

3 What shall be done to you, and what more shall be given to you,
O deceitful tongue?

Cross References: Psalm 64:3; Proverbs 6:17; James 3:6

4 Sharp arrows of the warrior, with burning coals of the broom tree.

Cross References: Psalm 140:10; Proverbs 25:22; Psalm 7:13

5 Woe to me, that I dwell in Meshech, that I live among the tents of Kedar!

Cross References: Genesis 10:2; Isaiah 21:16; Genesis 25:13

6 My soul has long dwelt with those who hate peace.

Cross References: Psalm 109:5; Psalm 55:6; Romans 12:18

7 I am for peace,
but when I speak, they are for war.

Cross References: Psalm 35:20; Matthew 5:9; James 4:1

Key Lessons from Psalm 120

- God hears our cry in distress. Even when surrounded by lies and deceit, He answers the prayer of the righteous.
- Lying tongues bring destruction. The psalmist warns that deceit will be judged like sharp arrows and burning coals.
- God's people are strangers in a hostile world. Living among those who hate peace can weary the soul, but the believer must remain faithful.
- Seek peace even when others seek war. True disciples of God stand for peace, reflecting His nature even in a violent and deceitful culture.

Psalm 121 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord Our Guardian”

1 I lift up my eyes to the hills.
From where does my help come?

Cross References: Psalm 123:1; Psalm 3:3; Isaiah 40:26

2 My help comes from the Lord,
the Maker of heaven and earth.

Cross References: Psalm 124:8; Genesis 1:1; Psalm 146:6

3 He will not allow your foot to slip;
He who guards you will not slumber.

Cross References: Psalm 66:9; Proverbs 3:23; Psalm 91:12

4 Behold, He who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.

Cross References: Psalm 44:23; Isaiah 27:3; 1 Samuel 12:22

5 The Lord is your keeper;
the Lord is your shade at your right hand.

Cross References: Psalm 91:1; Psalm 16:8; Isaiah 25:4

6 The sun will not strike you by day, nor the moon by night.

Cross References: Isaiah 49:10; Revelation 7:16; Psalm 91:6

7 The Lord will keep you from all harm;
He will preserve your life.

Cross References: Psalm 97:10; John 17:15; 2 Thessalonians 3:3

8 The Lord will watch over your coming and going,
both now and forevermore.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 28:6; Psalm 139:5; Numbers 27:17

Key Lessons from Psalm 121

- Our true help comes from God alone. Creation points us upward, but it is the Creator who provides strength and deliverance.
- God never sleeps. Unlike human protectors, the Lord watches over His people continually, day and night.
- God is our keeper and shield. He guards His people from dangers seen and unseen, preserving body and soul.
- God's care is eternal. His watchful protection extends over every step of life's journey—today, tomorrow, and forever.

Psalm 122 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Joy of God’s House and the Peace of Jerusalem”

1 I was glad when they said to me,
“Let us go to the house of the Lord.”

Cross References: Psalm 84:2; Isaiah 2:3; Psalm 27:4

2 Our feet are standing within your gates,
O Jerusalem.

Cross References: Psalm 87:2; Deuteronomy 16:16; Psalm 100:4

3 Jerusalem is built as a city that is closely compacted together,

Cross References: Psalm 48:2; Revelation 21:2; Nehemiah 12:27

4 where the tribes go up,
the tribes of the Lord,
as a testimony for Israel,
to give thanks to the name of the Lord.

Cross References: Exodus 23:17; Deuteronomy 16:16; Psalm 100:4

5 For there the thrones for judgment are set, the thrones of the house of David.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 8:15; 1 Kings 7:7; Isaiah 9:7

6 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem:
“May those who love you prosper.

Cross References: Isaiah 62:6; Psalm 51:18; Jeremiah 29:7

7 May peace be within your walls, and prosperity within your palaces.”

Cross References: Isaiah 60:18; Psalm 48:13; Zechariah 8:3

8 For the sake of my brothers and companions,
I will say, “Peace be within you.”

Cross References: Numbers 6:26; Philippians 2:4; Psalm 133:1

9 For the sake of the house of the Lord our God,
I will seek your good.

Cross References: 1 Kings 8:29; 1 Chronicles 29:3; Nehemiah 2:10

Key Lessons from Psalm 122

- Joy in worship. God’s people find gladness in gathering together in His house to give thanks and praise.
- Unity in God’s city. Jerusalem is described as compact and united, reflecting the unity God desires for His people.
- Prayer for peace. Believers are called to pray for the peace of Jerusalem, showing love for God’s city and people.
- Blessing in seeking the good of others. True worship leads us to seek the well-being of God’s house and His people.
- Peace and prosperity flow from God. Both physical safety and spiritual blessing are tied to the Lord’s presence in His holy city.

Psalm 123 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Looking to God for Mercy”

1 I lift up my eyes to You,
O You who dwell in the heavens.

Cross References: Psalm 121:1; Psalm 11:4; Isaiah 66:1

2 As the eyes of servants look to the hand of their master, as the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress, so our eyes look to the Lord our God, until He shows us mercy.

Cross References: Psalm 145:15; 2 Chronicles 20:12; Psalm 25:15

3 Have mercy on us, O Lord, have mercy on us, for we have endured much contempt.

Cross References: Psalm 25:16; Psalm 44:13; Nehemiah 4:4

4 Our soul has had more than enough of the scorn of those who are at ease, of the contempt of the proud.

Cross References: Psalm 119:51; Isaiah 37:23; Proverbs 3:34

Key Lessons from Psalm 123

- Dependence on God. Just as servants depend on their masters for provision and guidance, so must believers look continually to the Lord for help and mercy.
- Persistence in prayer. The psalmist teaches us to keep our eyes fixed on God “until” He has mercy, showing endurance and faith.
- God’s mercy is our greatest need. In the face of contempt and ridicule from the proud, our greatest cry must be for God’s mercy, not human vindication.
- Trials teach reliance. Scorn and rejection remind us that our true help comes from the Lord, not from human approval.
- Heavenly perspective. By lifting our eyes to the One who dwells in the heavens, we rise above earthly pride and contempt.

Psalm 124 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord Our Deliverer”

1 If the Lord had not been on our side—
let Israel now say—

Cross References: Romans 8:31; Psalm 118:6; Psalm 46:1

2 If the Lord had not been on our side when people rose up against us,

Cross References: Psalm 27:3; 2 Chronicles 20:15; Psalm 56:9

3 then they would have swallowed us alive when their anger burned against us.

Cross References: Numbers 16:32; Proverbs 1:12; Psalm 69:15

4 Then the waters would have overwhelmed us;
the torrent would have swept over our soul.

Cross References: Psalm 69:2; Psalm 42:7; Jonah 2:3

5 The raging waters would have gone over our soul.

Cross References: Psalm 88:7; Isaiah 43:2; Psalm 42:7

6 Blessed be the Lord,
who has not given us as prey to their teeth.

Cross References: Psalm 3:7; Psalm 57:4; 1 Samuel 17:37

7 Our soul has escaped like a bird from the snare of the fowler;
the snare is broken,

and we have escaped.

Cross References: Psalm 91:3; Psalm 25:15; Proverbs 6:5

8 Our help is in the name of the Lord,
the Maker of heaven and earth.

Cross References: Psalm 121:2; Psalm 20:7; Genesis 1:1

Key Lessons from Psalm 124

- God is our Defender. Without the Lord’s protection, the enemy would have destroyed His people.
- Trials remind us of His power. The imagery of floods and raging waters shows how overwhelming life can feel, yet God delivers.
- Blessed deliverance. God breaks snares and gives His people freedom, reminding us that He is greater than every trap of the enemy.
- Dependence on His Name. Our help is not in human strength, but in the Lord’s name—the very One who created heaven and earth.
- Gratitude fuels faith. By remembering what God has done, we grow in confidence that He will deliver again.

Psalm 125 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord Surrounds His People”

1 Those who trust in the Lord are like Mount Zion, which cannot be shaken but endures forever.

Cross References: Psalm 46:5; Matthew 7:25; Hebrews 12:22

2 As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so the Lord surrounds His people
both now and forevermore.

Cross References: Zechariah 2:5; Psalm 34:7; Deuteronomy 33:27

3 The scepter of the wicked will not remain over the land of the righteous, so that the righteous may not reach out their hands to do wrong.

Cross References: Psalm 37:1; Isaiah 14:5; 1 Corinthians 10:13

4 Do good, O Lord, to those who are good, to those who are upright in heart.

Cross References: Psalm 84:11; Proverbs 12:2; Galatians 6:10

5 But those who turn aside to crooked ways
the Lord will banish with the evildoers.
Peace be upon Israel.

Cross References: Proverbs 2:15; Matthew 7:23; Galatians 6:16

Key Lessons from Psalm 125

- Unshakable trust. Those who rely on the Lord are as immovable as Mount Zion, standing firm through trials.
- Divine protection. Just as the mountains encircle Jerusalem, the Lord continually surrounds His people with His presence and care.
- Temporary power of the wicked. Evil may rise for a season, but it will not remain upon the righteous forever.
- God rewards integrity. The Lord does good to the upright in heart, showing that faithfulness brings blessing.
- Warning against crooked paths. Those who turn away from righteousness will share the fate of evildoers, but God's people will enjoy peace.

Psalm 126 – Crawford Standard Bible

“From Tears to Joy”

1 When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion, we were like those who dream.

Cross References: Jeremiah 29:14; Ezra 1:11; Isaiah 51:11

2 Our mouths were filled with laughter, our tongues with songs of joy.
Then it was said among the nations,
“The Lord has done great things for them.”

Cross References: Job 8:21; Luke 6:21; Isaiah 35:10

3 The Lord has done great things for us, and we are filled with gladness.

Cross References: Joel 2:21; Deuteronomy 4:6; Luke 1:49

4 Restore our fortunes again, O Lord, like streams in the Negev.

Cross References: Job 42:10; Joel 2:25; Isaiah 41:18

5 Those who sow in tears will reap with songs of joy.

Cross References: Isaiah 61:3; 2 Corinthians 9:6; Galatians 6:9

6 Those who go out weeping, carrying seed to sow,
will surely return with shouts of joy, bringing their harvest with them.

Cross References: John 4:36; Isaiah 9:3; Amos 9:13

Key Lessons from Psalm 126

- God restores joy. The Lord can turn sorrow and captivity into laughter and gladness.
- Testimony to the nations. When God blesses His people, even outsiders recognize His mighty works.
- Hope in hard times. Just as dry riverbeds in the south of Israel suddenly filled with water, God can quickly bring refreshing renewal.
- Tears are not wasted. Sorrow and faithful labor in times of trial will yield a joyful harvest in due season.
- Assurance of blessing. Those who remain faithful in sowing—even through pain—will return rejoicing with abundant fruit.

Psalm 127 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord Builds and Blesses”

1 Unless the Lord builds the house, the builders labor in vain.
Unless the Lord watches over the city,
the watchmen stand guard in vain.

Cross References: Proverbs 21:31; Isaiah 27:3; Matthew 7:24

2 It is useless to rise early and stay up late,
toiling for food to eat—
for He grants rest to His beloved ones.

Cross References: Matthew 6:34; Ecclesiastes 5:12; 1 Peter 5:7

3 Children are a heritage from the Lord, a reward from Him.

Cross References: Genesis 33:5; Deuteronomy 28:4; Psalm 128:3

4 Like arrows in the hand of a warrior, so are the children of one’s youth.

Cross References: Isaiah 49:2; Psalm 144:12; 1 Timothy 4:12

5 Blessed is the man whose quiver is full of them.
They will not be put to shame when they contend with their enemies at the gate.

Cross References: Proverbs 31:23; Job 5:4; Deuteronomy 21:19

Key Lessons from Psalm 127

- Dependence on God. All human effort is futile unless God is the foundation—whether building homes, cities, or lives.
- Rest is a gift. God provides peace and rest to His beloved, contrasting the anxious striving of those who labor without Him.
- Children are blessings. Sons and daughters are not burdens but rewards, gifts entrusted by the Lord.
- Generational strength. Just as arrows equip a warrior, children raised in the Lord strengthen families and communities.
- Confidence in the future. A full “quiver” of children provides honor, security, and legacy in the face of challenges.

Psalm 128 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Blessings of Those Who Fear the Lord”

1 Blessed is everyone who fears the Lord, who walks in His ways.

Cross References: Psalm 112:1; Deuteronomy 10:12; Proverbs 8:13

2 You will eat the fruit of your labor; blessings and prosperity will be yours.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 28:4; Isaiah 3:10; Ecclesiastes 3:13

3 Your wife will be like a fruitful vine flourishing within your house; your children will be like olive shoots around your table.

Cross References: Ezekiel 19:10; Psalm 144:12; Genesis 1:28

4 This is the blessing for the man who fears the Lord.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:33; Psalm 34:9; Malachi 3:16

5 May the Lord bless you from Zion; may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem
all the days of your life.

Cross References: Psalm 134:3; Numbers 6:24; Psalm 122:6

6 May you live to see your children's children—
peace be upon Israel.

Cross References: Genesis 50:23; Proverbs 17:6; Galatians 6:16

Key Lessons from Psalm 128

- The fear of the Lord brings blessing. Reverence and obedience to God lead to a flourishing and content life.
- Work under God's blessing brings joy. Honest labor will not be in vain but will provide satisfaction and provision.
- Family as God's gift. A godly home—fruitful spouse and thriving children—is a sign of the Lord's favor.
- Generational hope. To live long enough to see grandchildren is a profound blessing, showing God's faithfulness from one generation to another.
- Peace and prosperity in God's presence. True well-being flows not from wealth or power, but from God's favor upon His people.

Psalm 129 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord Delivers His People from Their Enemies”

1 “From my earliest days they have greatly oppressed me,” let Israel now declare—

Cross References: Exodus 1:11; Hosea 11:1; Ezekiel 23:3

2 “From my youth they have greatly oppressed me, but they have not prevailed against me.

Cross References: Isaiah 54:17; Matthew 16:18; 2 Corinthians 4:9

3 The plowmen plowed upon my back;
they made their furrows long and deep.

Cross References: Isaiah 50:6; Isaiah 51:23; Matthew 27:26

4 But the Lord is righteous;
He has cut the cords of the wicked.”

Cross References: Psalm 107:14; Nahum 1:13; Psalm 116:16

5 May all who hate Zion be turned back in shame.

Cross References: Psalm 40:14; Psalm 83:17; Isaiah 41:11

6 May they be like grass on the rooftops, which withers before it can grow,

Cross References: 2 Kings 19:26; Isaiah 37:27; Psalm 37:2

7 that cannot fill the hands of the reaper, nor the arms of the one who gathers sheaves.

Cross References: Job 15:32; Psalm 37:2; Jeremiah 17:6

8 And may no one passing by say,
“The blessing of the Lord be upon you;
we bless you in the name of the Lord.”

Cross References: Ruth 2:4; Psalm 118:26; Numbers 6:24

Key Lessons from Psalm 129

- God’s people face oppression, but never defeat. Israel’s history is filled with affliction, yet the Lord never allowed their enemies to prevail completely.
- The scars of suffering are real. The image of plowmen furrowing the back shows the depth of pain God’s people have endured, yet God brings deliverance.
- The Lord is righteous. He acts with justice, cutting the bonds of the wicked and freeing His people.
- The fate of the wicked is short-lived. Like rooftop grass that withers before maturity, the plans of God’s enemies will not last.
- True blessing belongs only to those in the Lord. Those who oppose God and His people will never know His favor or His blessing.

Psalm 130 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Hope in the Lord’s Redemption”

1 Out of the depths I cry to You, O Lord.

Cross References: Psalm 69:2; Jonah 2:2; Lamentations 3:55

2 Lord, hear my voice!
Let Your ears be attentive to my cries for mercy.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:40; Psalm 86:6; 1 Kings 8:28

3 If You, O Lord, kept a record of sins,
Lord, who could stand?

Cross References: Psalm 143:2; Romans 3:23; Ezra 9:15

4 But with You there is forgiveness, so that You may be feared.

Cross References: Nehemiah 9:17; Daniel 9:9; 1 John 1:9

5 I wait for the Lord, my soul waits, and in His word I put my hope.

Cross References: Psalm 27:14; Lamentations 3:24; Isaiah 40:31

6 My soul waits for the Lord more than watchmen wait for the morning—yes, more than watchmen wait for the morning.

Cross References: Isaiah 21:11; Habakkuk 2:3; Psalm 5:3

7 O Israel, put your hope in the Lord!
For with the Lord there is unfailing love, and with Him is full redemption.

Cross References: Exodus 34:6; Isaiah 55:7; Ephesians 1:7

8 He Himself will redeem Israel from all their sins.

Cross References: Titus 2:14; Matthew 1:21; Ezekiel 36:29

Key Lessons from Psalm 130

- Prayer rises from the depths. Even in despair and hopelessness, God hears the cries of His children.
- No one can stand without forgiveness. If God counted sins, all would fall. Redemption is found only in His mercy.
- Forgiveness leads to reverence. God's grace is not a license to sin, but a call to fear and honor Him.
- Hope is rooted in God's Word. Waiting on the Lord requires trust in His promises, even in long seasons of silence.
- Redemption is abundant. God not only forgives individuals but promises to redeem His people fully and completely.

Psalm 131 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Peace of a Childlike Heart”

1 Lord, my heart is not proud, my eyes are not arrogant.
I do not concern myself with great matters or things too wonderful for me.

Cross References: Proverbs 25:27; Deuteronomy 29:29; Micah 6:8

2 Instead, I have calmed and quieted my soul, like a weaned child with its mother;
like a weaned child is my soul within me.

Cross References: Matthew 18:3; 1 Peter 2:2; Isaiah 66:13

3 O Israel, put your hope in the Lord
now and forevermore.

Cross References: Psalm 130:7; Micah 7:7; Romans 15:13

Key Lessons from Psalm 131

- Humility before God: Pride and arrogance prevent true worship. A humble heart acknowledges its limits.
- Childlike trust brings peace: Just as a weaned child rests content with its mother, the soul finds quiet rest in God's care.
- Hope must be continual: Israel—and all believers—are called to place their trust in the Lord not only in the present but for all generations to come.

Psalm 132 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God’s Covenant with David and Zion”

David’s Vow to the Lord

1 Lord, remember David and all the hardships he endured,

Cross References: 2 Samuel 7:2; 1 Chronicles 22:14; Nehemiah 13:14

2 how he swore an oath to the Lord and vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob:

Cross References: Genesis 49:24; Isaiah 1:24; 2 Samuel 7:2

3 “I will not enter my house or lie down on my bed,

Cross References: 2 Samuel 7:1; Numbers 30:2; 1 Chronicles 17:1

4 I will not allow sleep to my eyes or slumber to my eyelids,

Cross References: Proverbs 6:4; Genesis 31:40; Psalm 119:148

5 until I find a place for the Lord, a dwelling for the Mighty One of Jacob.”

Cross References: 2 Samuel 7:2; 1 Chronicles 28:2; Acts 7:46

Zion, the Dwelling Place of God

6 We heard about it in Ephrathah;
we found it in the fields of Jaar.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 7:1; 1 Chronicles 13:6; Ruth 1:2

7 Let us go to His dwelling place;
let us worship at His footstool.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 28:2; Psalm 99:5; Isaiah 66:1

8 Arise, Lord, and enter into Your resting place,
You and the ark of Your strength.

Cross References: Numbers 10:35; 2 Chronicles 6:41; 1 Chronicles 15:3

9 May Your priests be clothed with righteousness;
may Your faithful people shout for joy.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:41; Isaiah 61:10; Job 29:14

10 For the sake of Your servant David, do not reject Your anointed one.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 6:42; 1 Kings 11:13; Psalm 84:9

God's Oath to David

11 The Lord swore an oath to David, a promise He will not revoke:
"From the fruit of your body
I will set one of your descendants on your throne.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 7:12; Psalm 89:3; Acts 2:30

12 If your children keep My covenant and the statutes I teach them, then their children too will sit on your throne forever and ever."

Cross References: 1 Kings 2:4; 1 Kings 9:4; 2 Chronicles 6:16

The Blessings of Zion

13 For the Lord has chosen Zion;
He has desired it for His dwelling, saying,

Cross References: Psalm 78:68; Deuteronomy 12:5; Psalm 68:16

14 "This is My resting place forever;
here I will dwell, for I have desired it.

Cross References: Isaiah 66:1; 2 Chronicles 6:2; Ezekiel 43:7

15 I will bless her with abundant provisions;
her poor I will satisfy with bread.

Cross References: Psalm 147:14; Deuteronomy 28:8; Joel 2:26

16 I will clothe her priests with salvation, and her faithful people will shout for joy.

Cross References: Isaiah 61:10; Zechariah 3:4; Job 8:21

17 Here I will make a horn grow for David and set up a lamp for My anointed one.

Cross References: Ezekiel 29:21; 1 Kings 11:36; Luke 1:69

18 I will clothe his enemies with shame, but his crown will shine with glory.”

Cross References: Psalm 35:26; Psalm 21:3; Job 8:22

Key Lessons from Psalm 132

- David’s devotion was relentless: He would not rest until God had a dwelling place, showing us to put God’s glory before our own comfort.
- God’s promises are sure: The covenant with David finds its ultimate fulfillment in Christ, the eternal King from David’s line.
- Zion is God’s chosen dwelling: God delights to dwell among His people, and His blessings flow from His presence.
- Provision and salvation are linked to God’s house: Where God dwells, His people are clothed with righteousness, filled with joy, and blessed with every need.

Psalm 133 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Beauty of Unity”

The Blessing of Brotherhood

1 Behold, how good and how pleasant it is when brothers live together in unity!

Cross References: Genesis 13:8; Ephesians 4:3; Acts 2:1

The Fragrance of Anointing Oil

2 It is like the precious anointing oil on the head, running down on the beard—
Aaron’s beard—flowing down onto the collar of his robes.

Cross References: Exodus 29:7; Leviticus 8:12; Exodus 30:30

The Refreshing Dew of Zion

3 It is like the dew of Mount Hermon, falling on the mountains of Zion.
For there the Lord bestows His blessing—life everlasting.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 33:28; Hosea 14:5; Leviticus 25:21

Key Lessons from Psalm 133

- Unity brings delight: God calls unity among His people both good and pleasant—it is desirable and powerful.
- Unity is consecrated: Like the anointing oil that set Aaron apart as priest, unity consecrates God’s people for His service.
- Unity refreshes and gives life: Like morning dew on the mountains, unity brings renewal, growth, and fruitfulness.
- Unity attracts God’s blessing: Where God’s people walk in oneness, He commands blessing— eternal life and joy in His presence.

Psalm 134 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Call to Night Worship”

A Call to Bless the Lord

1 Behold, bless the Lord,
all you servants of the Lord,
who stand by night in the house of the Lord.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 9:33; 1 Chronicles 23:30; Psalm 135:2

A Call to Lift Hands in Praise

2 Lift up your hands in the sanctuary, and bless the Lord.

Cross References: 1 Timothy 2:8; Psalm 28:2; Nehemiah 8:6

A Blessing from Zion

3 May the Lord, the Maker of heaven and earth, bless you from Zion.

Cross References: Psalm 128:5; Genesis 14:19; Psalm 121:2

Key Lessons from Psalm 134

- Worship is continuous: Even at night, God is to be praised by His servants—reminding us that worship is not bound by time.
- Worship involves action: Lifting hands is both a posture of surrender and an act of honor toward the Lord.
- God blesses His people: As His people bless Him in worship, He responds with His blessing— flowing from Zion, the place of His dwelling.
- The Creator is our source: The One who made heaven and earth is the same God who pours blessings into the lives of His people.

Psalm 135 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Greatness of the Lord and the Futility of Idols”

Call to Praise the Lord

1 Praise the Lord!

Praise the name of the Lord;

praise Him, you servants of the Lord,

Cross References: Psalm 113:1; Psalm 148:1; Psalm 106:1

2 You who stand in the house of the Lord, in the courts of the house of our God.

Cross References: Psalm 134:1; Psalm 84:10; 1 Chronicles 23:30

3 Praise the Lord, for the Lord is good;

sing praises to His name, for it is pleasant.

Cross References: Psalm 100:5; Psalm 147:1; Psalm 106:1

God’s Chosen People

4 For the Lord has chosen Jacob for Himself,

Israel as His treasured possession.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 7:6; Exodus 19:5; Deuteronomy 14:2

The Greatness of God

5 For I know that the Lord is great, and our Lord is above all gods.

Cross References: Exodus 18:11; Psalm 95:3; Psalm 97:9

6 The Lord does whatever He pleases, in heaven and on earth,

in the seas and in all depths.

Cross References: Psalm 115:3; Daniel 4:35; Isaiah 46:10

7 He makes the clouds rise from the ends of the earth;

He sends lightning with the rain, and brings the wind out of His storehouses.

Cross References: Jeremiah 10:13; Job 38:22; Amos 4:13

God’s Mighty Acts in History

8 He struck down the firstborn of Egypt, both of man and beast.

Cross References: Exodus 12:29; Exodus 13:15; Psalm 78:51

9 He sent signs and wonders into your midst, O Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants.

Cross References: Exodus 7:3; Exodus 34:10; Deuteronomy 6:22

10 He struck down many nations,
and killed mighty kings:

Cross References: Deuteronomy 29:7; Joshua 12:1; Numbers 21:24

11 Sihon king of the Amorites,
Og king of Bashan,
and all the kingdoms of Canaan.

Cross References: Numbers 21:24; Numbers 21:33; Joshua 12:1

12 He gave their land as an inheritance, an inheritance to His people Israel.

Cross References: Joshua 11:23; Deuteronomy 4:38; Psalm 78:55

God's Eternal Name

13 Your name, O Lord, endures forever;
Your fame, O Lord, throughout all generations.

Cross References: Exodus 3:15; Psalm 102:12; Psalm 145:13

14 For the Lord will judge His people, and have compassion on His servants.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:36; Isaiah 49:13; Hebrews 10:30

The Futility of Idols

15 The idols of the nations are silver and gold,
the work of human hands.

Cross References: Psalm 115:4; Isaiah 44:9; Isaiah 2:8

16 They have mouths, but they cannot speak;
eyes, but they cannot see.

Cross References: Psalm 115:5; Isaiah 44:18; Habakkuk 2:19

17 They have ears, but they cannot hear;
nor is there breath in their mouths.

Cross References: Psalm 115:6; Jeremiah 10:14; Habakkuk 2:19

18 Those who make them become like them,
and so do all who trust in them.

Cross References: Psalm 115:8; Isaiah 44:9; Hosea 9:10

Bless the Lord

19 Bless the Lord, O house of Israel!

Bless the Lord, O house of Aaron!

Cross References: Psalm 118:2; Psalm 118:3; Psalm 115:12

20 Bless the Lord, O house of Levi!

You who fear the Lord, bless the Lord!

Cross References: Numbers 3:6; Psalm 115:13; Deuteronomy 33:8

21 Blessed be the Lord from Zion, who dwells in Jerusalem.

Praise the Lord!

Cross References: Psalm 134:3; Psalm 68:35; Psalm 146:10

Key Lessons from Psalm 135

- Worship belongs to God alone: His servants are called to praise Him continually in His house.
- God's sovereignty is supreme: Unlike idols, the Lord is living, active, and does as He pleases in all creation.
- History reveals God's power: From Egypt to Canaan, He demonstrated His might and faithfulness to His people.
- Idols are powerless: Those who trust in them become as lifeless as the idols themselves.
- God's name endures forever: His glory and compassion extend from generation to generation.
- All are called to bless Him: Israel, Aaron, Levi, and all who fear the Lord are invited into His worship.

Psalm 136 – Crawford Standard Bible

“His Mercy Endures Forever”

Give Thanks to the Lord of All

1 Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good,
for His mercy endures forever.

Cross References: Psalm 106:1; 1 Chronicles 16:34; Jeremiah 33:11

2 Give thanks to the God of gods,
for His mercy endures forever.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 10:17; Psalm 86:8; 2 Chronicles 5:13

3 Give thanks to the Lord of lords,
for His mercy endures forever.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 10:17; Revelation 19:16; 2 Chronicles 7:3

The Wonders of Creation

4 To Him who alone does great wonders,
for His mercy endures forever.

Cross References: Job 9:10; Psalm 72:18; 1 Chronicles 16:34

5 By His wisdom He made the heavens,
for His mercy endures forever.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:19; Jeremiah 10:12; Jeremiah 33:11

6 He spread out the earth above the waters,
for His mercy endures forever.

Cross References: Psalm 24:2; Genesis 1:9; 2 Chronicles 5:13

7 He made the great lights,
for His mercy endures forever:

Cross References: Genesis 1:16; Psalm 8:3; 2 Chronicles 7:3

8 The sun to rule by day,
for His mercy endures forever.

Cross References: Genesis 1:16; Jeremiah 31:35; 1 Chronicles 16:34

9 The moon and stars to rule by night,
for His mercy endures forever.

Cross References: Genesis 1:16; Psalm 8:3; Jeremiah 33:11

Deliverance from Egypt

10 To Him who struck down the firstborn of Egypt,
for His mercy endures forever.

Cross References: Exodus 12:29; Psalm 135:8; 2 Chronicles 5:13

11 And brought Israel out from among them,
for His mercy endures forever.

Cross References: Exodus 12:51; Exodus 13:3; 2 Chronicles 7:3

12 With a mighty hand and an outstretched arm,
for His mercy endures forever.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 4:34; Exodus 6:6; 1 Chronicles 16:34

Deliverance at the Sea

13 To Him who divided the Red Sea in two,
for His mercy endures forever.

Cross References: Exodus 14:21; Exodus 14:16; Jeremiah 33:11

14 And made Israel pass through the midst of it,
for His mercy endures forever.

Cross References: Exodus 14:22; Isaiah 63:12; 2 Chronicles 5:13 15 But swept Pharaoh and his army into the Red Sea,

for His mercy endures forever.

Cross References: Exodus 14:27; Exodus 15:4; 2 Chronicles 7:3

Guidance in the Wilderness

16 To Him who led His people through the wilderness,
for His mercy endures forever.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 8:2; Exodus 13:18; 1 Chronicles 16:34

Victory Over Kings

17 To Him who struck down great kings,
for His mercy endures forever.

Cross References: Psalm 135:10; Deuteronomy 29:7; Jeremiah 33:11

18 And killed mighty kings,
for His mercy endures forever.

Cross References: Psalm 135:11; Joshua 12:7; 2 Chronicles 5:13

19 Sihon king of the Amorites,
for His mercy endures forever.

Cross References: Numbers 21:23; Numbers 21:24; 2 Chronicles 7:3

20 And Og king of Bashan,
for His mercy endures forever.

Cross References: Numbers 21:33; Deuteronomy 3:11; 1 Chronicles 16:34

The Inheritance of the Land

21 He gave their land as an inheritance,
for His mercy endures forever.

Cross References: Joshua 12:6; Deuteronomy 4:38; Jeremiah 33:11

22 An inheritance to Israel His servant,
for His mercy endures forever.

Cross References: Psalm 135:12; Deuteronomy 4:20; 2 Chronicles 5:13

God's Compassion and Provision

23 He remembered us in our lowly state,
for His mercy endures forever.

Cross References: Psalm 106:44; Deuteronomy 32:36; 2 Chronicles 7:3

24 And rescued us from our enemies,
for His mercy endures forever.

Cross References: Psalm 106:10; Judges 2:16; 1 Chronicles 16:34

25 He gives food to all flesh,
for His mercy endures forever.

Cross References: Psalm 145:15; Psalm 104:27; Jeremiah 33:11

Closing Praise

26 Give thanks to the God of heaven,
for His mercy endures forever.

Cross References: Ezra 1:2; Daniel 2:18; 2 Chronicles 5:13

Key Lessons from Psalm 136

- God's mercy is unending: Every verse reminds us of His steadfast love that never fails.
- Creation testifies of His mercy: The heavens, the earth, the sun, moon, and stars all reveal His wisdom and care.
- History is proof of His love: From Egypt to Canaan, God showed His power in delivering and sustaining His people.
- God remembers His people: Even in lowly or difficult times, His mercy reaches down to rescue and provide.
- All creation depends on Him: Every living thing receives food and sustenance from His generous hand.
- Thanksgiving is our response: Because His mercy endures forever, we must continually give thanks and trust Him.

Psalm 137 – Crawford Standard Bible

“By the Rivers of Babylon”

Weeping in Exile

1 By the rivers of Babylon we sat down and wept when we remembered Zion.

Cross References: Psalm 42:4; Ezekiel 1:1; Lamentations 1:16

2 We hung our harps upon the willows in the midst of that land.

Cross References: Lamentations 5:14; Isaiah 24:8; Job 30:31

3 For there our captors demanded songs of us, and our tormentors asked for joy, saying,
“Sing us one of the songs of Zion!”

Cross References: 2 Kings 25:11; Lamentations 2:15; Daniel 1:3

4 But how can we sing the Lord’s song in a foreign land?

Cross References: Psalm 42:9; Amos 8:10; Ezekiel 26:20

Jerusalem Remembered

5 If I forget you, O Jerusalem, may my right hand forget its skill.

Cross References: Psalm 122:6; Isaiah 49:15; Psalm 102:14

6 If I do not remember you, may my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth—
if I do not make Jerusalem my greatest joy.

Cross References: Ezekiel 3:26; Psalm 63:6; Job 29:10

A Cry for Justice

7 Remember, Lord, what the children of Edom did on the day Jerusalem fell,
when they cried out, “Tear it down!
Tear it down to its very foundations!”

Cross References: Obadiah 1:10; Ezekiel 25:12; Lamentations 4:21

8 O daughter of Babylon, doomed to destruction, blessed is the one who repays you for what you have done to us.

Cross References: Isaiah 47:1; Jeremiah 50:15; Revelation 18:6

9 Blessed is the one who takes your little ones and dashes them against the rocks.

Cross References: Isaiah 13:16; Hosea 13:16; Nahum 3:10

Key Lessons from Psalm 137

- Grief in exile: The people of God mourned the loss of their homeland, showing that separation from God's place of worship brings deep sorrow.
- The value of Jerusalem: To forget Jerusalem was to forget the heart of worship, the place where God's presence dwelt among His people.
- The pain of oppression: Their captors mocked their faith, demanding songs when their hearts were broken.
- A cry for justice: The psalm ends with raw emotion, longing for God to bring judgment upon Babylon. It reflects the pain of oppression and the hope that God will repay the wicked.
- Christ-centered reflection: While the psalm voices the anguish of Israel, in Christ we learn to pray for justice yet also to entrust vengeance to God (Romans 12:19), finding hope in His final judgment and mercy.

Psalm 138 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord’s Steadfast Love Endures”

Wholehearted Praise

1 I will praise You with all my heart;
before the gods I will sing praises to You.

Cross References: Psalm 9:1; Psalm 111:1; Psalm 86:12

2 I will bow down toward Your holy temple and praise Your name for Your unfailing love and Your truth, for You have exalted Your word above all Your name.

Cross References: Psalm 5:7; Psalm 100:5; John 1:14

Strength in Answered Prayer

3 On the day I called to You,
You answered me
and made me bold with strength in my soul.

Cross References: Psalm 34:4; Psalm 118:5; Jeremiah 33:3

4 All the kings of the earth will praise You, O Lord, when they hear the words of Your mouth.

Cross References: Psalm 102:15; Isaiah 49:23; Revelation 21:24

5 Yes, they will sing of the ways of the Lord, for great is the glory of the Lord.

Cross References: Psalm 96:3; Psalm 145:11; Isaiah 6:3

God’s Care for the Lowly

6 Though the Lord is exalted on high,
He regards the humble,
but the proud He knows from afar.

Cross References: Isaiah 57:15; Psalm 113:6; James 4:6

Confidence in God's Protection

7 Though I walk in the midst of trouble,
You preserve my life;
You stretch out Your hand against the anger of my enemies, and Your right hand saves me.

Cross References: Psalm 23:4; Psalm 71:20; 2 Corinthians 4:8

8 The Lord will fulfill His purpose for me;
Your steadfast love, O Lord, endures forever.
Do not abandon the works of Your hands.

Cross References: Philippians 1:6; Psalm 57:2; Job 14:15

Key Lessons from Psalm 138

- Wholehearted worship: True praise involves the whole heart, not half-hearted words or divided affections.
- God's Word exalted: The psalm highlights how God magnifies His Word, showing its authority and trustworthiness.
- Prayer strengthens the soul: God not only answers prayer but also strengthens His people to endure trials.
- God's greatness with humility: Though the Lord reigns in majesty, He draws near to the lowly while resisting the proud (James 4:6).
- Confidence in God's plan: Believers can rest in the assurance that God will finish what He has started (Philippians 1:6).

Psalm 139 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The God Who Knows and Surrounds Us”

God's Perfect Knowledge

1 O Lord, You have searched me and known me.

Cross References: Jeremiah 17:10; 1 Chronicles 28:9; Hebrews 4:13

2 You know when I sit down and when I rise up;
You perceive my thoughts from afar.

Cross References: Psalm 44:21; Matthew 9:4; Isaiah 66:18

3 You discern my going out and my lying down;
You are familiar with all my ways.

Cross References: Proverbs 5:21; Job 31:4; Psalm 121:8

4 Before a word is on my tongue,
You, Lord, know it completely.

Cross References: Isaiah 65:24; Hebrews 4:12; Matthew 6:8

5 You hem me in—behind and before—and You lay Your hand upon me.

Cross References: Job 1:10; Isaiah 41:10; Job 10:8

6 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too lofty for me to grasp.

Cross References: Job 42:3; Romans 11:33; Isaiah 55:8

God's Inescapable Presence

7 Where can I go from Your Spirit?
Where can I flee from Your presence?

Cross References: Jonah 1:3; Amos 9:2; Jeremiah 23:24

8 If I ascend to the heavens, You are there;
if I make my bed in the depths, You are there also.

Cross References: Amos 9:3; Job 26:6; Proverbs 15:11

9 If I rise on the wings of the morning, if I settle on the far side of the sea,

Cross References: Psalm 104:3; Malachi 4:2; Psalm 65:8

10 even there Your hand will guide me,
Your right hand will hold me fast.

Cross References: Psalm 73:23; Isaiah 41:13; Psalm 63:8

11 If I say, "Surely the darkness will hide me and the light around me will be night,"

Cross References: Job 34:22; Daniel 2:22; 1 John 1:5

12 even the darkness is not dark to You;
the night shines like the day,
for darkness and light are alike to You.

Cross References: Job 12:22; Daniel 2:22; 1 John 1:5

God's Design in Creation

13 For You formed my inward parts;
You knit me together in my mother's womb.

Cross References: Jeremiah 1:5; Job 10:11; Isaiah 44:24

14 I praise You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made;
Your works are marvelous,
and my soul knows it very well.

Cross References: Psalm 100:3; Genesis 1:27; Ephesians 2:10

15 My frame was not hidden from You when I was made in the secret place, when I was woven together in the depths of the earth.

Cross References: Job 10:9; Ecclesiastes 11:5; Psalm 51:5

16 Your eyes saw my unformed body;
all the days ordained for me were written in Your book before one of them came to be.

Cross References: Jeremiah 1:5; Job 14:5; Ephesians 1:4

God's Precious Thoughts

17 How precious to me are Your thoughts, O God!
How vast is the sum of them!

Cross References: Psalm 40:5; Romans 11:34; Job 5:9

18 Were I to count them,
they would outnumber the grains of sand.
When I awake, I am still with You.

Cross References: Genesis 22:17; Jeremiah 33:22; Judges 7:12

God's Holiness and Justice

19 Surely You will slay the wicked, O God.
Away from me, you bloodthirsty men!

Cross References: Psalm 5:6; Psalm 26:9; Proverbs 1:16

20 They speak of You with evil intent;
Your enemies misuse Your name.

Cross References: Exodus 20:7; Jude 1:15; Psalm 74:18

21 Do I not hate those who hate You, O Lord, and despise those who rise up against You?

Cross References: Psalm 26:5; 2 Chronicles 19:2; Psalm 119:158

22 I hate them with complete hatred;
I count them as my enemies.

Cross References: Psalm 119:139; Psalm 31:6; Revelation 2:6

Prayer for Cleansing and Guidance

23 Search me, O God, and know my heart; test me and know my anxious thoughts.

Cross References: Psalm 26:2; 1 Corinthians 11:28; Lamentations 3:40

24 See if there is any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

Cross References: Psalm 25:4; John 14:6; Proverbs 3:6

Key Lessons from Psalm 139

- God’s intimate knowledge: The Lord knows us more deeply than we know ourselves, including our thoughts, words, and actions.
- God’s constant presence: There is no place we can go where God is not already there—He surrounds us with His presence.
- God’s creative design: Human life is sacred, fearfully and wonderfully made by God from conception.
- God’s precious care: His thoughts toward His people are beyond number, showing His unfailing love.
- Self-examination in prayer: Like David, we should invite God to search our hearts and lead us in His eternal way.

Psalm 140 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Prayer for Protection from the Violent”

Deliverance from Evil Men

1 Rescue me, O Lord, from evil men;
preserve me from the violent,

Cross References: Psalm 59:1; Psalm 17:13; 2 Thessalonians 3:2

2 those who devise mischief in their hearts and are always stirring up war.

Cross References: Proverbs 6:18; Psalm 38:12; Micah 2:1

3 They sharpen their tongues like a serpent;
the poison of vipers is on their lips. Selah

Cross References: Romans 3:13; Psalm 58:4; James 3:8

Protection from Traps

4 Keep me safe, O Lord, from the hands of the wicked;
preserve me from the violent who plan to make me stumble.

Cross References: Psalm 17:8; Psalm 71:4; 2 Timothy 4:18

5 The arrogant have hidden snares for me;
they have spread nets by the path and set traps along the way. Selah

Cross References: Psalm 35:7; Psalm 9:15; Proverbs 29:5

The Lord, My Strength

6 I said to the Lord, “You are my God.”
Hear the cry of my supplications, O Lord.

Cross References: Psalm 31:14; Psalm 86:6; Psalm 5:2

7 O Sovereign Lord, my strong deliverer,
You shield my head in the day of battle.

Cross References: Psalm 18:2; Ephesians 6:17; Psalm 3:3

Judgment on the Wicked

8 Do not grant the desires of the wicked, O Lord; do not let their plans succeed,
lest they become proud. Selah

Cross References: Psalm 37:7; Proverbs 12:5; Job 5:12

9 Let the harm of their own lips overwhelm them.

Cross References: Psalm 7:16; Psalm 57:6; Proverbs 12:13

10 Let burning coals fall upon them;
let them be thrown into the fire,
into deep pits from which they cannot rise.

Cross References: Psalm 11:6; Genesis 19:24; Revelation 20:15

11 Let not slanderers be established in the land;
may disaster hunt down the violent man.

Cross References: Proverbs 6:19; Psalm 34:21; Proverbs 10:9

Confidence in God’s Justice

12 I know the Lord secures justice for the afflicted and upholds the cause of the needy.

Cross References: Psalm 9:18; Proverbs 29:7; Psalm 12:5

13 Surely the righteous will give thanks to Your name, and the upright will live in Your presence.

Cross References: Psalm 11:7; Psalm 33:1; Revelation 22:4

Key Lessons from Psalm 140

- God protects His people from violent men: We can cry out to Him for deliverance from those who scheme and attack.
- The tongue can be a deadly weapon: Wicked words are compared to snake venom, reminding us of the destructive power of lies and slander.
- God shields His children in battle: The Lord covers and guards His people when enemies rise against them.
- The wicked fall into their own traps: Evil plans backfire, and God ensures justice prevails.
- The righteous find refuge in God's presence: In the end, the faithful will dwell securely with Him forever.

Psalm 141 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Prayer for Purity and Protection”

A Cry for God's Attention

1 O Lord, I call to You—come quickly to me; hear my voice when I cry out to You.

Cross References: Psalm 70:1; Psalm 40:13; Psalm 4:1

2 Let my prayer rise before You like incense; let the lifting up of my hands be like the evening sacrifice.

Cross References: Revelation 5:8; Exodus 30:8; Revelation 8:4

Guarding the Heart and Tongue

3 Set a guard, O Lord, over my mouth;
keep watch over the door of my lips.

Cross References: Psalm 39:1; Proverbs 13:3; James 1:26

4 Do not let my heart be drawn to what is evil, to take part in wicked deeds with men who practice iniquity;
do not let me feast on their delicacies.

Cross References: Proverbs 4:14; Romans 12:2; Ephesians 5:11

The Value of Righteous Correction

5 Let the righteous strike me—it will be an act of kindness;
let him rebuke me—it will be like soothing oil on my head;

I will not refuse it.

But my prayer is against the deeds of the wicked.

Cross References: Proverbs 27:6; Proverbs 9:8; Ecclesiastes 7:5

6 When their leaders are thrown down from rocky heights, they will recognize that my words are true and pleasant.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 25:12; Psalm 2:10; Job 34:24

Hope in God Alone

7 As when one plows and breaks up the earth, so our bones are scattered at the mouth of the grave.

Cross References: Ezekiel 37:11; Psalm 53:5; Ezekiel 6:5

8 But my eyes are fixed on You, O Lord God;
in You I take refuge—do not leave me defenseless.

Cross References: Psalm 25:15; Psalm 16:1; Hebrews 12:2

9 Keep me from the snares they have laid for me, from the traps of evildoers.

Cross References: Psalm 124:7; Psalm 91:3; Proverbs 22:5

10 Let the wicked fall into their own nets, while I escape in safety.

Cross References: Psalm 7:15; Psalm 35:8; Esther 7:10

Key Lessons from Psalm 141

- Prayer as incense: Our prayers are like sweet fragrance before God, rising up as an offering.
- Control of speech: Asking God to guard our mouths reminds us that words can build up or destroy.
- Choosing righteousness over compromise: Refusing the “delicacies” of the wicked means rejecting temporary pleasures that lead to sin.
- Correction is a blessing: A righteous rebuke is compared to oil—it heals, protects, and refreshes.
- God alone is refuge: Even when surrounded by danger, the faithful can look to the Lord for deliverance and protection.

Psalm 142 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Cry from the Cave”

A maskil of David, when he was in the cave. A prayer.

Crying Out to God in Distress

1 I cry aloud to the Lord;
with my voice I lift up my supplication to Him.

Cross References: Psalm 3:4; Psalm 77:1; Jonah 2:2

2 I pour out my complaint before Him;
I tell Him all my troubles.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 1:15; Psalm 62:8; Lamentations 2:19

When No One Else Cares

3 When my spirit is overwhelmed within me,
You know the path I should take.
In the way I walk, they have hidden a snare for me.

Cross References: Psalm 77:3; Psalm 143:4; Psalm 121:3

4 I looked to my right hand and saw:
no one stood beside me.
No one cares for my life;
no refuge remained for me.

Cross References: Psalm 88:18; Matthew 26:56; Psalm 69:20

God, My Portion and Refuge

5 Then I cried to You, O Lord:
I said, “You are my refuge,
my portion in the land of the living.”

Cross References: Psalm 16:5; Psalm 27:13; Lamentations 3:24

6 Listen to my cry, for I am very low.
Rescue me from my persecutors, for they are too strong for me.

Cross References: Psalm 18:17; Psalm 61:2; 2 Corinthians 1:8

Hope for Deliverance

7 Bring me out of this prison, so that I may praise Your name.
The righteous will gather around me,
for You will deal bountifully with me.

Cross References: Acts 16:26; Psalm 68:6; Psalm 107:14

Key Lessons from Psalm 142

- Honest prayer is welcomed by God: David poured out his complaint openly—showing us it’s safe to bring our raw emotions before the Lord.
- Loneliness can be crushing, but not final: Even when no one else stood with David, God was still present and aware of his path.
- God is our true portion: Earthly refuge may fail, but God Himself is our lasting inheritance and safety.
- Deliverance leads to worship: When God rescues, it isn’t just for relief—it is so His people will praise His name.
- Hope in community: Though David was isolated, he looked forward to being surrounded again by the righteous, reminding us that God restores us to fellowship.

Psalm 143 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Prayer for Guidance and Deliverance”

A psalm of David.

A Cry for Mercy

1 Hear my prayer, O Lord;
give ear to my supplications.
In Your faithfulness, answer me;
in Your righteousness.

Cross References: Psalm 130:2; 1 John 1:9; Psalm 86:1

2 Do not bring Your servant into judgment, for in Your sight no one living is righteous.

Cross References: Romans 3:20; Job 9:2; Ecclesiastes 7:20

Overwhelmed by the Enemy

3 For the enemy has pursued my soul;
he has crushed my life to the ground.
He has made me dwell in darkness,
like those long dead.

Cross References: Lamentations 3:6; Psalm 88:6; Psalm 7:5

4 Therefore my spirit is overwhelmed within me;
my heart is desolate inside me.

Cross References: Psalm 61:2; Psalm 142:3; Psalm 55:4

Remembering God’s Works

5 I remember the days of old;
I meditate on all Your works.

I reflect on the works of Your hands.

Cross References: Psalm 77:11; Deuteronomy 8:2; Psalm 111:2

6 I stretch out my hands to You;
my soul thirsts for You like a parched land. Selah.

Cross References: Psalm 63:1; Exodus 9:29; Psalm 88:9

A Plea for Quick Help

7 Answer me quickly, O Lord;
my spirit fails.
Do not hide Your face from me,
or I will be like those who go down to the pit.

Cross References: Psalm 27:9; Psalm 69:17; Psalm 28:1

8 Let me hear of Your steadfast love in the morning, for I put my trust in You.
Show me the way I should walk,
for I lift up my soul to You.

Cross References: Lamentations 3:23; Psalm 25:4; Proverbs 3:5

Guidance and Deliverance

9 Rescue me, O Lord, from my enemies;
I flee to You for refuge.

Cross References: Psalm 59:1; Psalm 32:7; Psalm 27:5

10 Teach me to do Your will,
for You are my God.
Let Your good Spirit lead me
on level ground.

Cross References: Psalm 25:5; Nehemiah 9:20; John 16:13

Life and Justice in God

11 Revive me, O Lord, for the sake of Your name;
in Your righteousness bring my soul out of trouble.

Cross References: Psalm 23:3; Psalm 25:11; Psalm 71:2

12 In Your mercy, silence my enemies and destroy all who afflict my soul, for I am Your servant.

Cross References: Psalm 54:5; Psalm 86:16; Psalm 116:16

Key Lessons from Psalm 143

- God’s mercy is greater than our merit: David acknowledges that no one can stand justified before God—salvation is by His mercy, not our works.
- Spiritual weariness is real: When the enemy presses hard, the soul feels crushed, but even then we can turn our focus back to God’s past faithfulness.
- Longing for God is like thirst: Just as dry land needs rain, the soul needs God’s presence and guidance.
- Daily dependence: David asks to hear of God’s love in the morning—a reminder that each day we should seek His direction anew.
- The Spirit leads to level ground: The Holy Spirit guides believers in righteousness and stability, away from the snares of sin and confusion.
- Deliverance brings life and honor to God’s name: Our salvation not only helps us but glorifies the God who rescues.

Psalm 144 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The God Who Trains, Delivers, and Blesses”

A psalm of David.

God My Strength and Deliverer

1 Blessed be the Lord, my Rock, who trains my hands for battle and my fingers for war.

Cross References: Psalm 18:34; 2 Samuel 22:35; Psalm 18:2

2 He is my steadfast love and my fortress, my high tower and my deliverer,
my shield, the One in whom I trust, who brings people under my rule.

Cross References: Psalm 91:2; 2 Samuel 22:2; Psalm 62:2

The Frailty of Man

3 Lord, what is man that You take notice of him, or the son of man that You care for him?

Cross References: Psalm 8:4; Job 7:17; Hebrews 2:6

4 Man is but a breath;
his days are like a passing shadow.

Cross References: Psalm 39:5; James 4:14; Job 8:9

A Cry for Help

5 Bow Your heavens, O Lord, and come down; touch the mountains, and they will smoke.

Cross References: Isaiah 64:1; Exodus 19:18; Psalm 18:9

6 Flash forth lightning and scatter them;
shoot out Your arrows and destroy them.

Cross References: Psalm 18:14; 2 Samuel 22:15; Habakkuk 3:11

7 Reach down Your hand from above;
rescue me and deliver me from mighty waters, from the hand of foreigners—

Cross References: Psalm 18:16; Psalm 69:14; Matthew 14:31

8 Whose mouths speak lies,
and whose right hand is a hand of falsehood.

Cross References: Psalm 12:2; Titus 1:16; Isaiah 59:3

Praise for the God of Salvation

9 I will sing a new song to You, O God; on a ten-stringed harp I will make music to You.

Cross References: Psalm 33:2; Psalm 92:3; Revelation 5:9

10 You are the One who gives victory to kings, who delivers David, Your servant,
from the deadly sword.

A Prayer for Deliverance and Blessing

11 Deliver me,
save me from the hand of foreigners,
whose mouths speak lies and whose right hand is falsehood—

Cross References: Psalm 120:2; Psalm 43:1; Proverbs 6:17

12 So that our sons may be like well-nurtured plants in their youth, our daughters like corner pillars, polished after the beauty of a palace.

Cross References: Psalm 128:3; Psalm 92:12; Isaiah 54:13

13 May our storehouses be full, overflowing with every kind of provision.

May our sheep multiply by the thousands,
yes, by tens of thousands in our fields.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 28:4; Joel 2:24; Proverbs 3:10

14 May our oxen be strong for labor;
may there be no breach in our walls,
no captivity,
and no cry of distress in our streets.

Cross References: Leviticus 26:6; Ezekiel 34:28; Zechariah 8:5

The Blessed People of God

15 Blessed are the people who have all this;
yes, blessed are the people whose God is the Lord.

Cross References: Psalm 33:12; Deuteronomy 33:29; Proverbs 14:34

Key Lessons from Psalm 144

- God equips His servants: True strength for battle—physical or spiritual—comes from the Lord.
- Human life is short and fragile: We are like a passing shadow, yet God cares deeply for us.
- Deliverance belongs to the Lord: Only God can save from deceitful and violent people.
- Worship flows from rescue: A “new song” rises out of gratitude for God’s salvation.
- God’s blessing brings peace and prosperity: Strong families, abundant provision, and safety in the land are all signs of His favor.
- True happiness is in God alone: The greatest blessing is to have the Lord as our God.

Psalm 145 – Crawford Standard Bible

but all the wicked He will destroy.

Cross References: Psalm 97:10; Psalm 34:16; John 10:28

Eternal Praise

21 My mouth will speak the praise of the Lord, and let all flesh bless His holy name
forever and ever.

Cross References: Psalm 150:6; Revelation 5:13; Psalm 34:1

Key Lessons from Psalm 145

- Praise is eternal: God's greatness deserves continual worship that will never end.

- Generational faith matters: Each generation is called to pass on God’s mighty works to the next.
- God’s character is merciful and gracious: He is slow to anger and rich in love, extending compassion to all.
- God’s kingdom is everlasting: Unlike earthly kingdoms, His rule endures through every generation.
- The Lord provides for all creation: From the smallest creature to mankind, He opens His hand to satisfy every need.
- The Lord is near and responsive: He draws close to those who call upon Him in truth and rescues those who fear Him.
- The wicked perish, but the faithful are preserved: God’s justice ensures the protection of His people and the defeat of evil.
- Universal praise is the ultimate goal: All creation is invited to bless His holy name forever.

Psalms 146 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord Who Reigns Forever”

Call to Praise

1 Praise the Lord!

Praise the Lord, O my soul.

Cross References: Psalm 103:1; Psalm 104:1; Psalm 150:6

2 I will praise the Lord as long as I live;

I will sing praises to my God while I have my being.

Cross References: Psalm 104:33; Psalm 63:4; Ephesians 5:20

Do Not Trust in Man

3 Put not your trust in princes, nor in a son of man, in whom there is no salvation.

Cross References: Psalm 118:8; Isaiah 2:22; Jeremiah 17:5

4 When his breath departs, he returns to the earth;

on that very day his plans perish.

Cross References: Genesis 3:19; Ecclesiastes 12:7; Job 34:14

Blessed is the One Who Hopes in the Lord

5 Blessed is he whose help is the God of Jacob, whose hope is in the Lord his God,

Cross References: Psalm 33:12; Psalm 40:4; Jeremiah 17:7

6 Who made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them;
who keeps truth forever,

Cross References: Exodus 20:11; Acts 4:24; Deuteronomy 7:9

The Lord's Works of Justice and Mercy

7 Who executes justice for the oppressed, who gives food to the hungry.
The Lord sets the prisoners free.

Cross References: Isaiah 61:1; Psalm 68:6; Luke 4:18

8 The Lord opens the eyes of the blind.
The Lord lifts up those who are bowed down.
The Lord loves the righteous.

Cross References: Isaiah 35:5; John 9:7; Luke 13:13

9 The Lord watches over the sojourners;
He upholds the fatherless and the widow,
but He frustrates the way of the wicked.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 10:18; Exodus 22:22; James 1:27

The Eternal King

10 The Lord will reign forever, your God, O Zion, to all generations.
Praise the Lord!

Cross References: Exodus 15:18; Revelation 11:15; Psalm 10:16

Key Lessons from Psalm 146

- Praise is lifelong: As long as we breathe, we are called to honor the Lord with praise.
- Do not trust in human power: Even the strongest leaders are mortal; their plans die with them. Only God is eternal.
- Hope rests in the Creator: The One who made heaven, earth, and sea is faithful and unchanging.
- God defends the weak: He gives justice to the oppressed, food to the hungry, freedom to the bound, and comfort to the lowly.
- God cares for the marginalized: The foreigner, orphan, and widow are under His protection.
- The wicked are overturned: Human pride and wickedness cannot stand against God's rule.
- God reigns forever: Unlike earthly kingdoms that rise and fall, the Lord's kingdom endures to all generations.

God's Word Revealed to Israel

19 He declares His word to Jacob,
His statutes and His rules to Israel.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 4:8; Romans 3:2; Exodus 24:12

20 He has not dealt thus with any other nation;
they do not know His judgments.

Praise the Lord!

Cross References: Deuteronomy 4:32; Amos 3:2; Romans 9:4

Key Lessons from Psalm 147

- Praise is fitting: Worship is not just a duty; it is pleasant, beautiful, and right for God's people.
- God heals the brokenhearted: He is close to the wounded and binds up their spiritual and emotional wounds.
- God knows the stars — and us: His infinite power over creation reminds us of His detailed care for our lives.
- True strength is spiritual: God is not impressed by human or military might but delights in humble trust and reverence.
- God blesses His people with peace: He strengthens, protects, and provides abundance for those who belong to Him.
- God governs nature with His word: Snow, rain, frost, and wind obey His command, showing His sovereign rule.
- Israel's unique privilege: God gave His Word to Israel in a way no other nation received, a reminder of His covenant grace.

Psalm 148 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Symphony of Creation’s Praise”

Praise from the Heavens

1 Praise the Lord!

Praise the Lord from the heavens;
praise Him in the heights above.

Cross References: Psalm 113:4; Nehemiah 9:6; Luke 2:13

2 Praise Him, all His angels; praise Him, all His heavenly hosts.

Cross References: Psalm 103:20; Psalm 103:21; Hebrews 1:6

3 Praise Him, sun and moon;
praise Him, all you shining stars.

Cross References: Genesis 1:16; Psalm 19:1; Job 38:7

4 Praise Him, you highest heavens, and you waters above the skies.

Cross References: Genesis 1:7; Psalm 104:3; Psalm 68:33

5 Let them praise the name of the Lord,
for He commanded and they were created.

Cross References: Psalm 33:9; Genesis 1:3; Colossians 1:16

6 He established them forever and ever;
He issued a decree that will never pass away.

Cross References: Psalm 119:90; Jeremiah 31:35; Psalm 93:1

Praise from the Earth

7 Praise the Lord from the earth, you great sea creatures and all ocean depths,

Cross References: Genesis 1:21; Psalm 104:26; Job 41:1

8 lightning and hail, snow and clouds, stormy winds that do His bidding,

Cross References: Psalm 147:16; Job 38:22; Psalm 104:4

9 mountains and all hills, fruit trees and all cedars,

Cross References: Isaiah 55:12; Psalm 96:12; Psalm 104:16

10 wild animals and all cattle, small creatures and flying birds,

Cross References: Genesis 1:24; Genesis 1:25; Psalm 104:12

11 kings of the earth and all nations, princes and all rulers of the world,

Cross References: Psalm 72:11; Psalm 138:4; Isaiah 49:23

12 young men and maidens, old men and children.

Cross References: Joel 2:28; Zechariah 8:4; Psalm 8:2

The Exalted Lord

13 Let them praise the name of the Lord, for His name alone is exalted;
His splendor is above the earth and the heavens.

Cross References: Psalm 8:1; Isaiah 12:4; Psalm 57:5

14 And He has raised up a horn for His people, the praise of all His faithful ones,
the people of Israel, close to His heart.

Praise the Lord!

Cross References: Luke 1:69; 1 Samuel 2:10; Deuteronomy 4:7

Key Lessons from Psalm 148

- All creation is a choir: From angels in heaven to sea creatures in the deep, everything exists to glorify God.
- God's word sustains creation: He spoke, and the heavens and earth came into being. His decrees uphold them eternally.
- Nature obeys His command: Storms, winds, and seasons all fulfill His word — a reminder of His sovereign power.
- Praise unites all people: Kings, rulers, the young, the old — every social class and age group is called to worship.
- The Lord is above all: His name alone is exalted, His glory far surpasses heaven and earth.
- God strengthens His people: The “horn” symbolizes power, victory, and salvation for Israel and ultimately for all who belong to Him in Christ.

Psalm 149 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Song of Victory”

A New Song of Praise

1 Praise the Lord!

Sing to the Lord a new song,

His praise in the assembly of His faithful people.

Cross References: Psalm 96:1; Revelation 5:9; Psalm 22:25

2 Let Israel rejoice in their Maker;

let the children of Zion be glad in their King.

Cross References: Isaiah 54:5; Psalm 100:3; Zephaniah 3:14

3 Let them praise His name with dancing, and make music to Him with tambourine and harp.

Cross References: Exodus 15:20; Psalm 30:11; 2 Samuel 6:14

The Lord Delights in His People

4 For the Lord takes pleasure in His people;

He crowns the humble with salvation.

Cross References: Psalm 147:11; Isaiah 61:10; Zephaniah 3:17

5 Let His faithful ones rejoice in glory;
let them sing for joy even on their beds.

Cross References: Psalm 63:6; Job 35:10; Psalm 42:8

Worship and Warfare

6 May the high praises of God be in their mouths and a double-edged sword in their hands,

Cross References: Hebrews 4:12; Ephesians 6:17; Revelation 1:16

7 to bring vengeance on the nations and punishment on the peoples,

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:41; Isaiah 61:2; Revelation 19:15

8 to bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with iron shackles,

Cross References: Isaiah 24:21; Revelation 20:2; Job 36:8

9 to carry out the judgment written against them.
This is the honor of all His faithful ones.
Praise the Lord!

Cross References: Revelation 20:12; 1 Corinthians 6:2; Jude 1:14

Key Lessons from Psalm 149

- Worship is powerful: Singing, dancing, and music are forms of praise that delight the Lord.
- God delights in His people: He “beautifies the meek with salvation,” showing His love for the humble and faithful.
- Praise is a weapon: The psalm links worship with spiritual authority — God’s people both rejoice and stand strong against evil.
- God’s justice is certain: Nations, rulers, and the proud who oppose Him will face His judgment.
- The saints share in His honor: God grants His people the privilege of participating in His victory, not by their strength, but through His Word and Spirit.

Psalm 150 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Let Everything Praise the Lord”

Praise God Everywhere

1 Praise the Lord!
Praise God in His sanctuary;
praise Him in the mighty heavens.

Cross References: Psalm 96:6; Psalm 11:4; Revelation 15:5

Praise Him for Who He Is

2 Praise Him for His mighty acts; praise Him according to His surpassing greatness.

Cross References: Psalm 145:3; Psalm 106:2; Deuteronomy 3:24

Praise Him with Every Instrument

3 Praise Him with the sound of the trumpet; praise Him with the harp and lyre.

Cross References: Psalm 81:3; Psalm 33:2; 1 Chronicles 25:1

4 Praise Him with tambourine and dancing; praise Him with strings and flutes.

Cross References: Judges 11:34; Psalm 87:7; 1 Samuel 10:5

5 Praise Him with loud cymbals; praise Him with clashing cymbals.

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 15:16; 1 Chronicles 16:5; 1 Corinthians 13:1

Let All Creation Praise Him

6 Let everything that has breath praise the Lord.
Praise the Lord!

Cross References: Genesis 2:7; Revelation 5:13; Isaiah 42:5

Key Lessons from Psalm 150

- Praise is unlimited: God is to be praised everywhere — in His sanctuary, in the heavens, and across all creation.
- Praise is rooted in His greatness: We praise not only for what God does, but for who He is.
- All means of expression belong to Him: Every instrument, every art, and every sound can glorify God when offered in worship.
- Praise unites all creation: From the highest heavens to the breath of every living thing, worship is the universal response to God's majesty.
- The Psalms end where life begins and ends — in praise: The final word of the Psalter is "Hallelujah" (Praise the Lord), showing us that worship is both our present calling and eternal destiny.

Introduction to the Book of Proverbs

“The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom...” – Proverbs 9:10

Title and Meaning

The word Proverbs comes from the Latin proverbium and the Greek paroimia, meaning “a comparison” or “a wise saying.” In Hebrew, the title is Mishlei (מִשְׁלֵי), taken from the opening words Mishlei Shelomoh — “The Proverbs of Solomon.” A mashal in Hebrew can mean a short, pithy saying, a parable, or a comparison that communicates wisdom. Proverbs is therefore a collection of Spirit-inspired wisdom sayings, given to guide God’s people in practical living.

Author and Date

Traditionally, much of Proverbs is attributed to King Solomon, the son of David, who reigned over Israel in the 10th century BC. Solomon is described as the wisest man of his time (1 Kings 4:29–34), and Scripture records that he spoke 3,000 proverbs and composed 1,005 songs. The book, however, is a compilation from multiple sources:

- Proverbs 1–29: Attributed largely to Solomon.
- Proverbs 25–29: Collected later by the men of King Hezekiah (8th century BC).
- Proverbs 30: Attributed to Agur son of Jakeh.
- Proverbs 31: The sayings of King Lemuel, taught by his mother. Thus, Proverbs grew as a divinely inspired anthology of wisdom, finalized sometime between the reigns of Solomon and Hezekiah.

Purpose of Proverbs

The purpose of Proverbs is clearly stated in its opening verses (Proverbs 1:1–7):

- To know wisdom and instruction.
- To discern words of understanding.
- To receive instruction in wise behavior, righteousness, justice, and equity.
- To give prudence to the simple, knowledge and discretion to the young.
- To help the wise increase in learning. Above all, Proverbs teaches that true wisdom begins with the fear of the Lord (Proverbs 1:7; 9:10). It is not merely practical advice for daily life, but covenant instruction that ties every aspect of living — work, relationships, speech, wealth, and morality — to one’s relationship with God.

Structure of Proverbs

Proverbs is a collection of collections, arranged in distinct sections: 1. Prologue: The Purpose of Wisdom (Chapters 1–9)

- A series of fatherly exhortations and poetic appeals.
- Wisdom personified as a woman calling out in the streets.

- Contrasts between wisdom and folly. 2. Proverbs of Solomon (Chapters 10–24)
- Short, pithy, two-line sayings.
- Cover themes like diligence vs. laziness, honesty vs. dishonesty, humility vs. pride. 3. Proverbs Collected by Hezekiah’s Men (Chapters 25–29)
- More Solomonic proverbs preserved and compiled later.
- Focus on kingship, social order, and justice. 4. Words of Agur (Chapter 30)
- Unique sayings filled with numerical patterns.
- Acknowledges human limitation and God’s infinite wisdom. 5. Words of King Lemuel (Chapter 31)
- Instruction taught by his mother.
- Culminates in the famous portrait of the “Virtuous Woman” (31:10–31).

Major Themes

- The Fear of the Lord: The foundation of wisdom and knowledge.
- Wisdom vs. Folly: Two paths — one leading to life, the other to destruction.
- The Power of Words: Speech can heal or destroy; the tongue reveals the heart.
- Righteousness and Justice: Upright living pleases God and blesses communities.
- Work and Diligence: Laziness leads to poverty; diligence leads to provision.
- Family and Relationships: Instruction for parents, children, friends, and marriage.
- Wealth and Poverty: Riches are fleeting; integrity is more valuable.

Why Proverbs Matters Today

Proverbs remains one of the most practical and timeless books of Scripture. It answers daily-life questions such as:

- How should I handle money?
- What kind of friends should I choose?
- How do I control my words and temper?
- What does a godly family look like?
- How do I make wise decisions? In a world filled with information but short on wisdom, Proverbs reminds us that skillful living begins with fearing God and walking in His ways. It points ultimately to Christ, who is the Wisdom of God (1 Corinthians 1:24, 30), and in whom all treasures of wisdom and knowledge are hidden (Colossians 2:3).

Key Verse

“The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.” – Proverbs 9:10

This verse captures the essence of the book: wisdom is not merely intellectual skill, but reverence for God that shapes every part of life.

Proverbs 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Call of Wisdom”

Purpose of Proverbs

1 These are the proverbs of Solomon, son of David and king of Israel.

Cross References: Proverbs 25:1; 1 Kings 4:32; Ecclesiastes 1:1

2 They are written to teach wisdom and discipline, to help people understand wise sayings.

Cross References: Proverbs 4:1; Proverbs 22:17; James 1:5

3 They teach us how to live wisely, do what is right, fair, and just.

Cross References: Proverbs 2:9; Micah 6:8; Psalms 37:30

4 They give good sense to the simple, and knowledge and judgment to the young.

Cross References: Proverbs 8:5; Psalms 19:7; Proverbs 21:11

The Value of Wisdom

5 Let the wise listen, and they will become even wiser.
Let those with understanding gain guidance.

Cross References: Proverbs 9:9; Proverbs 18:15; James 1:5

6 These proverbs help us understand riddles, parables, and the sayings of the wise.

Cross References: Psalms 78:2; Habakkuk 2:6; Ecclesiastes 12:11

7 The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge, but fools hate wisdom and instruction.

Cross References: Proverbs 9:10; Job 28:28; Psalms 111:10

A Father’s Warning

8 My child, listen to your father’s teaching, and don’t reject your mother’s instruction.

Cross References: Proverbs 6:20; Exodus 20:12; Proverbs 23:22

9 What they teach you will be like a crown of grace on your head and a necklace of honor around your neck.

Cross References: Proverbs 4:9; Deuteronomy 6:8; Proverbs 3:22

10 My child, if sinners try to tempt you, don't give in.

Cross References: Proverbs 4:14; Psalms 1:1; Genesis 39:9

11 If they say, "Come with us! Let's set a trap for innocent people.
We'll ambush them for fun!

Cross References: Genesis 37:20; Psalms 10:8; Micah 7:2

12 We'll swallow them alive, like the grave itself.
We'll take them down to the pit while they still live.

Cross References: Psalms 55:15; Numbers 16:33; Isaiah 5:14

13 We'll steal all kinds of valuable things and fill our houses with stolen goods.

Cross References: Joshua 7:21; Proverbs 21:6; Habakkuk 2:9

14 Join us, and we'll all share the loot together."

Cross References: Proverbs 15:27; Joshua 7:21; Isaiah 33:15 15 My child, don't go along with them.

Stay far from their paths.

Cross References: Psalms 1:1; Proverbs 4:14; Ephesians 5:11

16 Because they run quickly to do evil, and they hurry to spill blood.

Cross References: Isaiah 59:7; Romans 3:15; Proverbs 6:18

17 But they don't realize that it's useless to set a trap where the birds can see it.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 9:12; Job 18:8; Amos 3:5

18 These people set an ambush for themselves—they're only hurting their own lives.

Cross References: Psalms 7:15; Proverbs 26:27; Psalms 9:15

19 Such is the fate of all who chase after money by violence—it will cost them their lives.

Cross References: Proverbs 15:27; Job 20:19; 1 Timothy 6:10

Wisdom's Call

20 Wisdom shouts loudly in the streets.
She raises her voice in the public square.

Cross References: Proverbs 8:1; Proverbs 9:3; Proverbs 8:34

21 She cries out in the busiest places, at the city gates where everyone gathers.

Cross References: Proverbs 8:2; Proverbs 9:14; Proverbs 8:3

22 “How long, you simple people, will you love being simple?
How long will mockers enjoy mocking and fools hate knowledge?

Cross References: Proverbs 9:4; Proverbs 14:6; Jeremiah 5:21

23 Come and listen to my correction, and I will pour out my thoughts to you.
I will make my words known to you.

Cross References: Isaiah 55:1; Joel 2:28; Proverbs 29:1

24 But since you refused to listen when I called, and no one paid attention when I reached out,

Cross References: Isaiah 65:12; Jeremiah 7:13; Zechariah 7:11

25 you ignored all my advice and rejected my correction,

Cross References: Proverbs 5:12; Jeremiah 6:19; Hosea 11:2

26 I will laugh when disaster strikes you.
I will mock you when trouble comes your way.

Cross References: Psalms 2:4; Psalms 37:13; Job 27:9

27 When calamity sweeps down like a storm, when disaster surrounds you like a whirlwind, when trouble and distress overwhelm you—

Cross References: 1 Thessalonians 5:3; Job 21:17; Proverbs 6:15

28 then you will call to me, but I won't answer.
You will search for me, but you won't find me.

Cross References: Isaiah 1:15; Jeremiah 11:11; Micah 3:4

29 Because you hated knowledge and didn't choose to fear the Lord,

Cross References: Job 21:14; Amos 8:11; 2 Thessalonians 2:10

30 you rejected my advice and paid no attention to my correction.

Cross References: Psalms 81:11; Jeremiah 8:5; Zechariah 1:4

31 So you will get what your ways deserve.
You will choke on the fruit of your own choices.

Cross References: Job 4:8; Galatians 6:7; Proverbs 14:14

32 For the simple are killed by their turning away, and the careless ease of fools destroys them.

Cross References: Proverbs 5:23; Ecclesiastes 7:17; Hosea 13:9

33 But all who listen to me will live in peace, safe and without fear of harm.”

Cross References: Psalms 91:1; Proverbs 3:23; Psalms 4:8

Key Lessons from Proverbs 1

- Wisdom has a purpose: It teaches us how to live with justice, fairness, and good judgment.
- The foundation of wisdom: True knowledge begins with fearing the Lord.
- Heed godly instruction: Listening to parents and mentors brings honor and protection.
- Avoid the path of sinners: Those who pursue greed and violence destroy themselves.
- Wisdom warns and invites: She calls to all, but those who reject her will face disaster.
- Security in wisdom: Those who follow God’s wisdom will live in peace and safety.

“The Rewards of Wisdom”

The Pursuit of Wisdom

1 My child, listen to my words, and treasure my commands within you.

Cross References: Proverbs 7:1; Psalms 119:11; Deuteronomy 6:6

2 Tune your ears to wisdom, and set your heart on understanding.

Cross References: Proverbs 4:20; Proverbs 22:17; Psalms 45:10

3 Cry out for insight, and ask for understanding.

Cross References: James 1:5; Proverbs 8:1; Proverbs 1:20

4 Search for wisdom as if it were silver, hunt for it like hidden treasure.

Cross References: Job 28:15; Matthew 13:44; Psalms 19:10

5 Then you will understand what it means to fear the Lord, and you will find the knowledge of God.

Cross References: Proverbs 9:10; Job 28:28; Hosea 6:3

God as the Source of Wisdom

6 For the Lord gives wisdom;
from His mouth come knowledge and understanding.

Cross References: James 1:5; 1 Kings 3:9; Daniel 2:21

7 He stores up sound wisdom for the righteous;
He is a shield to those who live with integrity.

Cross References: Psalms 84:11; Proverbs 3:26; Psalms 18:30

8 He guards the paths of justice, and protects the way of His faithful ones.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 2:9; Psalms 121:3; Psalms 37:28

9 Then you will understand what is right, just, and fair—and every good path.

Cross References: Proverbs 1:3; Micah 6:8; Psalms 23:3

Wisdom Protects from Evil

10 Wisdom will enter your heart, and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul.

Cross References: Psalms 119:103; Proverbs 24:13; Jeremiah 15:16

11 Good judgment will protect you; understanding will guard you.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:21; Psalms 91:11; Proverbs 4:6

12 Wisdom will save you from evil people, from those whose words are twisted,

Cross References: Psalms 1:1; Proverbs 4:16; Psalms 140:1

13 who leave the straight paths to walk in dark ways,

Cross References: John 3:19; Ephesians 5:8; Proverbs 4:19

14 who enjoy doing wrong and celebrate the deceit of evil.

Cross References: Jeremiah 4:22; Romans 1:32; Isaiah 5:20 15 Their paths are crooked, and their ways are devious.

Cross References: Proverbs 21:8; Philippians 2:15; Deuteronomy 32:5

Wisdom Protects from Immorality

16 Wisdom will save you from the immoral woman, from the seductive words of the wayward wife,

Cross References: Proverbs 5:3; Proverbs 7:5; Proverbs 6:24

17 who leaves the husband of her youth and forgets her covenant with God.

Cross References: Malachi 2:14; Jeremiah 3:4; Ezekiel 16:8

18 Her house leads down to death;
her paths lead to the grave.

Cross References: Proverbs 5:5; Proverbs 7:27; Proverbs 9:18

19 None who go to her return again, nor do they regain the paths of life.

Cross References: Proverbs 5:6; Ecclesiastes 7:26; John 6:68

The Blessings of Wisdom

20 So walk in the way of good people, and keep to the paths of the righteous.

Cross References: Proverbs 4:18; Psalms 1:6; Psalms 119:1

21 For the upright will live in the land, and those with integrity will remain in it.

Cross References: Psalms 37:29; Matthew 5:5; Psalms 37:9

22 But the wicked will be cut off from the earth, and the unfaithful will be torn from it.

Cross References: Psalms 37:38; Job 18:17; Proverbs 10:30

Key Lessons from Proverbs 2

- Wisdom must be sought: Just as people dig for silver or search for treasure, wisdom requires effort and desire.
- God is the source: True wisdom, knowledge, and understanding come from the Lord.

- Wisdom protects: It guards us from evil influences, crooked paths, and destructive temptations.
- Immorality leads to death: The “immoral woman” is a picture of sin’s seduction, which leads to ruin and destruction.
- The righteous are secure: Those who live uprightly will remain, but the wicked will be removed from the land.

2 They will give you long life, many years, and peace.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 30:20; Proverbs 9:11; Psalms 91:16

3 Never let love and truth leave you.
Tie them around your neck;
write them on your heart.

Cross References: Proverbs 6:21; 2 Corinthians 3:3; Proverbs 16:6

4 Then you will find favor and good understanding with both God and people.

Cross References: Luke 2:52; Romans 14:18; Proverbs 22:1

5 Trust in the Lord with all your heart;
don’t depend on your own understanding.

Cross References: Psalms 37:5; Proverbs 28:26; Jeremiah 17:7

6 In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make your paths straight.

Cross References: Psalms 32:8; James 4:8; Psalms 37:23

7 Don’t think you are wise in your own eyes.
Fear the Lord and turn away from evil.

Cross References: Romans 12:16; Job 28:28; Isaiah 5:21

8 This will bring health to your body and strength to your bones.

Cross References: Proverbs 4:22; Exodus 15:26; 3 John 1:2

Honoring the Lord

9 Honor the Lord with your wealth and with the first part of all your income.

Cross References: Exodus 23:19; Malachi 3:10; 1 Corinthians 16:2

10 Then your barns will be filled with plenty, and your vats will overflow with new wine.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 28:8; Malachi 3:10; Joel 2:24

11 My child, don't despise the Lord's discipline, and don't be upset when He corrects you.

Cross References: Hebrews 12:5; Job 5:17; Revelation 3:19

12 For the Lord corrects those He loves, just as a father corrects the son he delights in.

Cross References: Hebrews 12:6; Deuteronomy 8:5; Psalms 94:12

The Value of Wisdom

13 Happy is the person who finds wisdom, the one who gains understanding.

Cross References: Proverbs 8:35; James 1:5; Proverbs 16:16

14 Wisdom is more profitable than silver, and its gain is better than fine gold.

Cross References: Job 28:15; Proverbs 8:19; Psalms 19:10

15 She is more precious than rubies;
nothing you desire compares to her.

Cross References: Proverbs 8:11; Job 28:18; Matthew 13:45

16 Long life is in her right hand; riches and honor are in her left.

Cross References: Proverbs 4:10; 1 Kings 3:13; Proverbs 8:18

17 Her ways are pleasant, and all her paths are peace.

Cross References: James 3:17; Proverbs 16:7; Isaiah 26:3

18 Wisdom is a tree of life to those who embrace her;
happy are those who hold her tightly.

Cross References: Proverbs 11:30; Revelation 22:2; Genesis 2:9

God's Wisdom in Creation

19 By wisdom the Lord laid the earth's foundation;
by understanding He set the heavens in place.

Cross References: Jeremiah 10:12; Psalms 104:24; Proverbs 8:27

20 By His knowledge the deep waters broke open, and the clouds drop down the dew.

Cross References: Genesis 7:11; Job 38:16; Psalms 148:8

Living in Wisdom

21 My child, don't lose sight of wisdom and sound judgment; guard them closely.

Cross References: Proverbs 4:21; Hebrews 2:1; Proverbs 5:2

22 They will give life to your soul and be like a graceful necklace around your neck.

Cross References: Proverbs 1:9; Deuteronomy 30:20; Proverbs 4:22

23 Then you will walk safely on your path, and your foot will not stumble.

Cross References: Psalms 37:23; Psalms 91:11; Proverbs 4:12

24 When you lie down, you will not be afraid;
when you rest, your sleep will be sweet.

Cross References: Psalms 4:8; Leviticus 26:6; Job 11:19

25 Do not be afraid of sudden disasters, or the ruin that overtakes the wicked,

Cross References: Psalms 91:5; Psalms 112:7; Isaiah 8:12

26 for the Lord is your confidence;
He will keep your foot from being trapped.

Cross References: Psalms 71:5; Jeremiah 17:7; Psalms 27:1

Doing Good to Others

27 Do not withhold good from those who deserve it, when it is within your power to act.

Cross References: Galatians 6:10; Deuteronomy 15:7; James 4:17

28 Don't say to your neighbor,
"Come back tomorrow and I'll give it to you,"
when you already have it with you.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 24:14; James 2:15; 1 John 3:17

29 Do not plan harm against your neighbor, who lives trustingly beside you.

Cross References: Romans 13:10; Psalms 35:20; Zechariah 8:17

30 Don't argue with someone for no reason, if they have done you no harm.

Cross References: Romans 12:18; 1 Peter 3:11; Ecclesiastes 7:9

31 Do not envy violent people or choose any of their ways.

Cross References: Psalms 37:1; Psalms 73:3; Proverbs 24:1

32 For the devious are detestable to the Lord, but He shares His secrets with the righteous.

Cross References: Psalms 25:14; Proverbs 11:20; Amos 3:7

33 The Lord's curse is on the house of the wicked, but He blesses the home of the righteous.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 28:15; Zechariah 5:4; Psalms 37:22

34 The Lord mocks the proud mockers, but gives grace to the humble.

Cross References: James 4:6; 1 Peter 5:5; Psalms 138:6

35 The wise will inherit honor, but fools will be disgraced.

Cross References: Proverbs 11:16; 1 Samuel 2:30; Daniel 12:3

Key Lessons from Proverbs 3

- Trust fully in God: Depend on His wisdom, not your own understanding.
- God blesses those who honor Him: Giving Him the first of your resources brings provision.
- Discipline is love: God corrects His children because He delights in them.
- Wisdom is priceless: It is more valuable than silver, gold, or jewels.
- God's wisdom sustains creation: The world itself reflects His knowledge.
- Wisdom brings peace: It guards, guides, and provides safety, rest, and confidence.
- Live justly with others: Be generous, fair, and avoid envy or violence.
- Humility brings grace: The proud are mocked, but the humble receive honor.

Proverbs 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Father's Guidance”

Hold on to Wisdom

1 Children, listen to your father's instruction; pay attention so you may gain understanding.

Cross References: Proverbs 1:8; Deuteronomy 4:9; Proverbs 23:22

2 I am giving you sound teaching—don't turn away from my commands.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 4:2; Proverbs 8:6; Matthew 5:19

3 When I was a son to my father, tender and dearly loved by my mother,

Cross References: 1 Chronicles 28:9; 2 Timothy 1:5; Deuteronomy 6:7

4 he taught me and said,
"Keep my words in your heart.
Obey my commands and you will live.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 6:6; Proverbs 3:1; Proverbs 7:2

5 Get wisdom! Get understanding!
Don't forget my words or turn away from them.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:16; James 1:5; Proverbs 23:23

6 Don't abandon wisdom, and she will protect you.
Love her, and she will keep you safe.

Cross References: Proverbs 2:11; Proverbs 7:4; Ecclesiastes 7:12

7 Wisdom is the most important thing, so get wisdom.
And with all you get, gain understanding.

Cross References: Proverbs 8:11; Job 28:28; Ecclesiastes 7:19

8 Value her, and she will lift you up; embrace her, and she will honor you.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:16; Proverbs 8:15; 1 Samuel 2:30

9 She will place on your head a crown of grace, and she will give you a crown of glory."

Cross References: Proverbs 1:9; Proverbs 3:22; James 1:12

The Two Paths

10 My child, listen to me and accept my words, and you will live a long life.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:2; Proverbs 9:11; Ephesians 6:2

11 I guide you in the way of wisdom and lead you in straight paths.

Cross References: Psalms 25:9; Proverbs 8:20; Psalms 23:3

12 When you walk, your steps will not be hindered;
when you run, you will not stumble.

Cross References: Psalms 18:36; Proverbs 3:23; Job 18:7

13 Hold tightly to instruction—don't let it go.
Guard it, for it is your life.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:18; Deuteronomy 32:47; Proverbs 6:23

14 Do not walk in the path of the wicked or travel the way of evil people.

Cross References: Psalms 1:1; Proverbs 1:10; Ephesians 5:11

15 Avoid it—don't go near it.
Turn away from it and keep going.

Cross References: 1 Thessalonians 5:22; Romans 12:9; 2 Timothy 2:22

16 For evil people cannot sleep unless they've done wrong;
they can't rest until they've made someone fall.

Cross References: Micah 2:1; Psalms 36:4; Job 15:20

17 They eat the bread of wickedness and drink the wine of violence.

Cross References: Proverbs 20:17; Habakkuk 2:12; Amos 6:12

18 But the path of the righteous is like the morning light, shining brighter and brighter until the full day.

Cross References: Matthew 5:14; Psalms 97:11; 2 Peter 1:19 19 The way of the wicked is like deep darkness;

they don't know what makes them stumble.

Cross References: 1 John 2:11; John 12:35; Jeremiah 23:12

Guard Your Heart

20 My child, pay attention to my words;
listen closely to what I say.

Cross References: Proverbs 5:1; Proverbs 22:17; Deuteronomy 32:1

21 Don't let them out of your sight;
keep them deep within your heart.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:21; Deuteronomy 11:18; Psalms 119:11

22 For they bring life to those who find them and health to their whole body.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:8; Psalms 107:20; Proverbs 16:24

23 Guard your heart above all else, for everything you do flows from it.

Cross References: Matthew 15:19; Luke 6:45; Ezekiel 36:26

24 Keep your mouth free from dishonesty;
avoid corrupt and twisted speech.

Cross References: Proverbs 6:12; Ephesians 4:25; Psalms 34:13

25 Keep your eyes straight ahead; focus on what lies before you.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 11:9; Matthew 6:22; Hebrews 12:2

26 Think carefully about the path for your feet, and all your ways will be sure.

Cross References: Psalms 119:59; Hebrews 12:13; Psalms 17:5

27 Don't turn to the right or to the left; keep your feet away from evil.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 5:32; Joshua 1:7; Isaiah 30:21

Key Lessons from Proverbs 4

- Wisdom must be pursued: It is life, protection, honor, and strength.
- Two paths exist: The righteous shine brighter each day, but the wicked stumble in darkness.
- Guard your heart: Everything flows from it—thoughts, choices, and actions.
- Control your speech: What you say reflects what's in your heart.
- Stay focused: Keep your eyes and steps on the straight path, away from evil.

Proverbs 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Warning Against Immorality”

The Seductive Trap

1 My child, pay attention to my wisdom;
listen carefully to my understanding.

Cross References: Proverbs 4:20; Proverbs 22:17; Psalms 78:1

2 Then you will have good judgment, and your lips will speak what is wise.

Cross References: Proverbs 2:11; Psalms 141:3; Malachi 2:7

3 For the lips of an immoral woman are sweet like honey, and her words are smoother than oil.

Cross References: Proverbs 7:21; Proverbs 2:16; Ecclesiastes 7:26

4 But in the end she is as bitter as poison, sharp as a double-edged sword.

Cross References: Proverbs 7:27; Hebrews 4:12; Deuteronomy 32:32

5 Her feet lead down to death;
her steps take hold of the grave.

Cross References: Proverbs 2:18; Proverbs 9:18; Psalms 55:15

6 She gives no thought to the way of life;
her paths wander, and you cannot know them.

Cross References: Proverbs 2:19; Luke 13:24; Matthew 7:14

Avoid Her Path

7 So now, my children, listen to me;
don't turn away from my words.

Cross References: Proverbs 8:32; Proverbs 4:1; Psalms 34:11

8 Stay far from her;
don't go near the door of her house.

Cross References: Genesis 39:12; Proverbs 7:8; 1 Corinthians 6:18

9 If you do, you will give your honor to others, and your best years to cruel people.

Cross References: Proverbs 6:26; Proverbs 29:3; Luke 15:13

10 Strangers will consume your wealth, and your hard work will end up in another man's house.

Cross References: Proverbs 6:31; Job 31:9; Hosea 7:9

11 In the end you will groan with sorrow when your body is wasted away.

Cross References: Proverbs 7:22; Romans 6:21; Job 20:11

12 You will say, “How I hated instruction!
How my heart despised correction!

Cross References: Proverbs 1:25; Proverbs 12:1; Psalms 50:17

13 I didn’t listen to my teachers, or pay attention to my instructors.

Cross References: Proverbs 1:24; Jeremiah 44:16; Zechariah 7:11

14 I came close to utter ruin, in front of the whole community.”

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 5:1; Psalms 73:2; Job 17:8

Faithfulness in Marriage

15 Drink water from your own cistern, fresh water from your own well.

Cross References: John 4:14; Isaiah 58:11; 1 Corinthians 7:2

16 Should your springs overflow into the streets, your streams of water in public squares?

Cross References: Genesis 1:28; Proverbs 11:25; Ecclesiastes 11:1

17 No! Let them be yours alone, never to be shared with strangers.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 7:4; Hebrews 13:4; Malachi 2:15

18 Let your fountain be blessed;
rejoice in the wife of your youth.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 9:9; Malachi 2:14; Genesis 2:24

19 She is a loving deer, a graceful doe.
Let her breasts satisfy you always;
be captivated by her love forever.

Cross References: Proverbs 31:10; 1 Corinthians 7:3; 1 Peter 3:7

20 Why be captivated, my child, by an immoral woman?
Why embrace the chest of a stranger?

Cross References: Proverbs 2:16; Proverbs 6:29; Job 31:1

God Sees All

21 For the Lord sees clearly what a man does;
He examines every path he takes.

Cross References: Job 34:21; Psalms 139:3; Jeremiah 16:17

22 The wicked are trapped by their own sins;
they are caught in the cords of their own wrongdoing.

Cross References: Psalms 9:16; Numbers 32:23; Galatians 6:7

23 They will die for lack of discipline, and led astray by their own great foolishness.

Cross References: Proverbs 19:16; Hosea 4:6; Proverbs 10:21

Key Lessons from Proverbs 5

- Immorality is deceptive: What seems sweet and attractive at first ends in bitterness and destruction.
- Stay far from temptation: Don't flirt with danger—avoid the path altogether.
- Sin wastes your life: It drains your honor, years, wealth, and strength.
- Marriage is God's design: Rejoice in your spouse and be faithful to them.
- God sees all: Nothing is hidden from Him, and sin's cords will trap those who refuse correction.

Proverbs 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Warnings Against Folly and Sin”

Avoid Foolish Promises

1 My child, if you put up security for your neighbor, or shake hands to guarantee a stranger's debt,

Cross References: Proverbs 11:15; Proverbs 17:18; Proverbs 22:26

2 you have trapped yourself by your own words;
you are caught by what you said.

Cross References: Proverbs 12:13; Proverbs 18:7; Ecclesiastes 5:2

3 So do this, my child, to free yourself, since you have fallen into your neighbor's hands:
go quickly and humble yourself;
press your case and make things right.

Cross References: Proverbs 25:8; Matthew 5:25; Proverbs 6:1

4 Don't put it off—don't rest, don't close your eyes to sleep.

Cross References: Proverbs 20:13; Psalm 132:4; Genesis 31:40

5 Free yourself like a deer from the hunter, like a bird from the snare of the fowler.

Cross References: Psalm 124:7; Proverbs 7:23; Ecclesiastes 9:12

Learn from the Ant

6 Take a lesson from the ant, you lazy person.
Watch her ways and become wise.

Cross References: Proverbs 30:25; Proverbs 24:30; Job 12:7

7 She has no chief, officer, or ruler,

Cross References: Proverbs 30:27; Exodus 18:21; Judges 21:25

8 yet she prepares her food in the summer and gathers her supplies at harvest.

Cross References: Proverbs 10:5; Genesis 41:35; Proverbs 30:25

9 How long will you lie there, you sluggard?
When will you get up from your sleep?

Cross References: Proverbs 24:33; Romans 13:11; Ephesians 5:14

10 A little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands to rest—

Cross References: Proverbs 24:33; Proverbs 20:13; Ecclesiastes 4:5

11 and poverty will pounce on you like a thief, scarcity like an armed robber.

Cross References: Proverbs 24:34; Proverbs 10:4; Proverbs 28:19

The Worthless Person

12 A worthless, wicked person goes around speaking dishonestly,

Cross References: Proverbs 16:27; Proverbs 6:14; Psalm 5:9

13 winking with his eyes, signaling with his feet, and pointing with his fingers.

Cross References: Proverbs 10:10; Psalm 35:19; Proverbs 16:30

14 His heart is corrupt; he always plots evil and stirs up conflict.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:28; Proverbs 3:29; Proverbs 6:18

15 Therefore disaster will strike him suddenly;
in an instant he will be broken beyond healing.

Cross References: Proverbs 29:1; Proverbs 1:27; Psalm 37:35

What the Lord Hates

16 There are six things the Lord hates—no, seven that are detestable to Him:

Cross References: Proverbs 8:13; Deuteronomy 25:16; Amos 5:21

17 arrogant eyes, a lying tongue, hands that shed innocent blood,

Cross References: Proverbs 21:4; Psalm 101:5; Proverbs 12:22

18 a heart that plots evil schemes, feet quick to rush into wrongdoing,

Cross References: Genesis 6:5; Isaiah 59:7; Romans 3:15

19 a false witness who tells lies, and a person who stirs up conflict among brothers.

Cross References: Proverbs 19:5; Proverbs 6:14; Galatians 5:15

Guard God's Commands

20 My child, keep your father's command, and don't forsake your mother's teaching.

Cross References: Proverbs 1:8; Exodus 20:12; Deuteronomy 6:7

21 Tie them to your heart always;
fasten them around your neck.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:3; Deuteronomy 6:8; Proverbs 7:3

22 When you walk, they will guide you; when you sleep, they will watch over you;
when you wake, they will speak to you.

Cross References: Psalm 91:11; Psalm 121:7; Deuteronomy 6:7

23 For a command is a lamp, and instruction is a light; discipline is the path of life.

Cross References: Psalm 119:105; Psalm 19:8; John 8:12

Warning Against Adultery

24 They will protect you from the evil woman, from the smooth words of the seductive stranger.

Cross References: Proverbs 2:16; Proverbs 5:3; Proverbs 7:5

25 Don't lust for her beauty in your heart;
don't be captured by her glances.

Cross References: Matthew 5:28; Job 31:1; Proverbs 6:24

26 For a prostitute will reduce you to a loaf of bread, and an adulteress hunts for your very life.

Cross References: Proverbs 5:10; Proverbs 29:3; Luke 15:13

27 Can a man scoop fire into his lap without his clothes being burned?

Cross References: Proverbs 6:28; Job 31:12; James 3:6

28 Can he walk on hot coals without his feet being scorched?

Cross References: Proverbs 6:27; Isaiah 33:14; Proverbs 5:22

29 So is the man who sleeps with another man's wife—whoever touches her will not go unpunished.

Cross References: Leviticus 20:10; Exodus 20:14; Proverbs 6:33

30 People don't despise a thief
if he steals to satisfy his hunger.

Cross References: Proverbs 30:9; Exodus 22:1; Luke 15:17

31 But if he is caught, he must repay sevenfold, even if it costs him everything in his house.

Cross References: Exodus 22:1; Luke 19:8; Proverbs 6:35

32 But the one who commits adultery has no sense;
he destroys himself.

Cross References: Proverbs 2:18; Hosea 4:11; 1 Corinthians 6:18

33 He will be wounded and disgraced, and his shame will never be erased.

Cross References: Proverbs 5:9; Proverbs 11:2; Hosea 4:7

34 For jealousy enrages a husband;
he will show no mercy when he takes revenge.

Cross References: Numbers 5:14; Ezekiel 16:38; Deuteronomy 29:20

35 He will accept no payment, nor be satisfied with many gifts.

Cross References: Numbers 35:31; Psalm 49:7; Proverbs 6:31

Key Lessons from Proverbs 6

- Don't make foolish financial promises: Careless commitments can trap you in debt or bondage.
- Be diligent like the ant: Laziness leads to poverty, but preparation brings security.

- God hates pride, lies, violence, and discord: These destroy relationships and communities.
- Obey godly instruction: It is a light and a guide to keep you from destruction.
- Avoid adultery at all costs: It destroys lives, brings lasting shame, and invites God's judgment.
- Sin always costs more than it promises: Whether in money, honor, or life itself, sin's price is ruin.

like a bird rushing into a trap, not knowing it will cost him his life.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 9:12; Proverbs 6:5; Job 36:18

Final Warning

24 Now then, my children, listen to me;
pay attention to the words of my mouth.

Cross References: Proverbs 4:1; Proverbs 8:32; Proverbs 5:7

25 Don't let your heart stray into her ways;
don't wander into her paths.

Cross References: Proverbs 4:14; Proverbs 5:8; Psalm 119:37

26 For she has brought down many victims;
many strong men have been killed by her.

Cross References: Proverbs 5:9; Nehemiah 13:26; Ecclesiastes 7:26

27 Her house is the road to the grave, leading down to the chambers of death.

Cross References: Proverbs 2:18; Proverbs 5:5; Proverbs 9:18

Key Lessons from Proverbs 7

- Keep God's Word close: Treasuring wisdom and truth in your heart protects against temptation.
- Seduction is deceptive: What seems flattering and exciting hides destruction and death.

- Immorality enslaves: Like an animal to slaughter, sin blinds a person to its cost.
- Stay far from temptation: Avoid the places, people, and paths that draw you away from righteousness.
- Immorality destroys even the strong: No one is immune—wisdom and vigilance are our only safeguards.

Proverbs 8 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Voice of Wisdom”

Wisdom’s Call

1 Doesn’t wisdom call out?

Doesn’t understanding raise her voice?

Cross References: Proverbs 1:20; Proverbs 9:3; Job 28:12

2 She stands on the hilltops, at the crossroads where the paths meet.

Cross References: Proverbs 1:21; Proverbs 9:14; Isaiah 2:3

3 Beside the city gates, at the entrance,

she cries out to the people:

Cross References: Proverbs 1:21; Proverbs 31:23; Job 29:7

4 “I call to you, O men;

my voice is to all of humanity.

Cross References: Proverbs 1:23; Isaiah 55:1; Revelation 22:17

5 You who are simple, learn wisdom;

you who are foolish, gain understanding.

Cross References: Proverbs 1:22; Psalm 19:7; Proverbs 9:4

6 Listen, for I speak noble things;

what I say is right.

Cross References: Proverbs 22:20; Psalm 45:1; Job 33:3

7 For my mouth speaks truth;

wickedness is detestable to my lips.

Cross References: John 8:32; Proverbs 12:22; Psalm 34:13

8 All the words I speak are righteous;

none are crooked or twisted.

Cross References: Proverbs 2:7; Psalm 12:6; 1 Peter 2:22

9 They are clear to those who understand, and right to those who find knowledge.

Cross References: Psalm 119:130; Proverbs 14:6; Hosea 14:9

10 Choose my instruction rather than silver; knowledge rather than choice gold.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:14; Psalm 119:72; Job 28:15

11 For wisdom is better than rubies; nothing you desire compares with her.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:15; Job 28:18; Proverbs 16:16

The Excellence of Wisdom

12 I, wisdom, live with prudence, and I find knowledge and good judgment.

Cross References: Proverbs 2:10; James 1:5; Proverbs 3:21

13 To fear the Lord is to hate evil.
I hate pride, arrogance, evil behavior, and twisted speech.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:7; Proverbs 16:6; Psalm 97:10

14 Counsel and sound wisdom are mine;
I am understanding, and I have strength.

Cross References: Isaiah 11:2; Job 12:13; Ecclesiastes 7:19

15 By me kings reign, and rulers make just laws.

Cross References: Romans 13:1; Daniel 2:21; Proverbs 21:1

16 By me princes govern, and nobles and judges rule the earth.

Cross References: Proverbs 8:15; Daniel 2:21; Psalm 2:10

17 I love those who love me, and those who seek me early will find me.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:12; James 4:8; Matthew 6:33

18 Riches and honor are with me, lasting wealth and righteousness.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:16; Proverbs 22:4; Matthew 6:33

19 What I produce is better than gold, better than pure gold;
my reward is better than the finest silver.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:14; Job 28:19; Psalm 19:10

20 I walk in the way of righteousness, in the paths of justice.

Cross References: Psalm 23:3; Proverbs 4:11; Psalm 25:9

21 I give wealth to those who love me, filling their treasuries.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:9; Matthew 6:33; Proverbs 13:22

Wisdom Before Creation

22 The Lord created me at the beginning of His work, before His deeds of long ago.

Cross References: John 1:1; Colossians 1:17; Revelation 3:14

23 I was established from eternity, from the very beginning, before the earth began.

Cross References: John 17:5; Micah 5:2; Colossians 1:17

24 I was born before the oceans, before springs filled with water.

Cross References: Genesis 1:2; Job 38:16; Psalm 90:2

25 Before the mountains were settled, before the hills, I was born.

Cross References: Psalm 90:2; Job 15:7; Micah 6:2

26 Before He made the earth and its fields, or the first dust of the world.

Cross References: Genesis 2:5; Job 38:4; Psalm 102:25

27 When He prepared the heavens, I was there.
When He drew the horizon on the ocean's face,

Cross References: Job 38:4; Genesis 1:6; Psalm 33:6

28 when He set the clouds above, when He fixed the fountains of the deep,

Cross References: Job 38:8; Genesis 1:9; Job 26:8

29 when He gave the sea its boundary, so the waters would not cross His command,
when He marked out the foundations of the earth,

Cross References: Job 38:10; Jeremiah 5:22; Psalm 104:9

30 I was beside Him like a master craftsman.
I was His constant delight, rejoicing always in His presence.

Cross References: John 1:1; Colossians 1:16; John 17:24

31 I rejoiced in His whole world and delighted in the human race.

Cross References: Psalm 104:31; Proverbs 8:4; John 1:14

The Blessings of Wisdom

32 “So now, my children, listen to me, for blessed are those who keep my ways.

Cross References: Proverbs 4:1; Luke 11:28; Revelation 1:3

33 Listen to instruction and be wise;
do not ignore it.

Cross References: Proverbs 8:10; Proverbs 4:13; Proverbs 19:20

34 Blessed is the one who listens to me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at my doorway.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:13; Luke 11:28; Psalm 84:10

35 For whoever finds me finds life and receives favor from the Lord.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:16; John 1:4; Proverbs 18:22

36 But whoever sins against me harms themselves; all who hate me love death.”

Cross References: Proverbs 5:23; Proverbs 1:31; Habakkuk 2:10

Key Lessons from Proverbs 8

- Wisdom cries out to all: No one is excluded from her call—everyone is invited to listen and learn.
- Wisdom is priceless: Better than silver, gold, or jewels—nothing compares.
- Godly wisdom hates evil: Pride, arrogance, and crooked speech are its enemies.
- Wisdom empowers leaders: Righteous rule and justice flow from wisdom’s hand.
- Wisdom is eternal: Present with God before creation, rejoicing in His works and humanity.
- Wisdom brings life: To find wisdom is to find life and favor; to reject her is to embrace death.

Proverbs 9 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Two Banquets: Wisdom and Folly”

Wisdom’s Banquet

1 Wisdom has built her house;
she has carved out her seven pillars.

Cross References: Proverbs 24:3; 1 Corinthians 3:10; Ephesians 2:20

2 She has prepared her meat and mixed her wine;
she has set her table.

Cross References: Matthew 22:4; Luke 14:16; Isaiah 25:6

3 She has sent out her servants, and she calls from the highest places of the city:

Cross References: Proverbs 1:21; Proverbs 8:1; Matthew 22:3

4 “Whoever is simple, turn in here!”
To those who lack understanding she says,

Cross References: Proverbs 1:22; Proverbs 8:5; Matthew 11:28

5 “Come, eat my food, and drink the wine I have mixed.

Cross References: Isaiah 55:1; John 6:35; John 6:53

6 Leave your foolish ways and live; walk in the path of understanding.”

Cross References: Proverbs 4:14; Psalm 1:1; Ephesians 5:15

Responding to Correction

7 Anyone who corrects a mocker will be insulted;
anyone who rebukes the wicked will be abused.

Cross References: Proverbs 15:12; Matthew 7:6; Proverbs 23:9

8 Don’t correct a mocker, or they will hate you;
rebuke a wise person, and they will love you.

Cross References: Psalm 141:5; Proverbs 27:6; Proverbs 25:12

9 Instruct the wise, and they will be wiser still;
teach the righteous, and they will grow in learning.

Cross References: Proverbs 1:5; Matthew 13:12; Proverbs 4:18

10 The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.

Cross References: Proverbs 1:7; Job 28:28; Psalm 111:10

11 For through me your days will be multiplied, and years will be added to your life.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:2; Proverbs 3:16; Deuteronomy 6:2

12 If you are wise, your wisdom benefits you;
if you mock, you alone will suffer.

Cross References: Job 22:2; Galatians 6:5; Ezekiel 18:20

Folly's Banquet

13 The foolish woman is loud;
she is naive and knows nothing.

Cross References: Proverbs 7:11; Proverbs 14:1; Titus 2:5

14 She sits at the door of her house, on a seat at the highest point of the city,

Cross References: Proverbs 7:12; Proverbs 8:2; Proverbs 9:3

15 calling out to those who pass by,
to those who go straight on their way:

Cross References: Proverbs 9:4; Proverbs 7:8; Proverbs 8:2

16 "Whoever is simple, turn in here!"
To those who lack understanding she says,

Cross References: Proverbs 9:4; Proverbs 7:7; Proverbs 22:3

17 "Stolen water is sweet, and food eaten in secret is pleasant."

Cross References: Proverbs 20:17; Job 20:12; Romans 6:23

18 But they don't realize that the dead are there, that her guests are in the depths of the grave.

Cross References: Proverbs 2:18; Proverbs 7:27; Luke 12:20

Key Lessons from Proverbs 9

- Wisdom offers life: She prepares a banquet of truth, inviting the simple to gain understanding.
- Correction reveals character: Fools reject it and mock, but the wise grow stronger through it.
- The fear of the Lord is foundational: True wisdom begins with reverence for God.
- Choices have consequences: Wisdom's table leads to life, but Folly's table leads to death.
- Sin is deceptive: What seems sweet and secret is in fact poison, drawing people toward destruction.

Proverbs 10 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Way of the Righteous and the Wicked”

Wise and Foolish Children

1 These are the proverbs of Solomon:
A wise son brings joy to his father,
but a foolish son brings grief to his mother.

Cross References: Proverbs 15:20; Proverbs 17:25; Proverbs 23:24

Wealth and Righteousness

2 Ill-gotten treasures are worthless, but righteousness delivers from death.

Cross References: Proverbs 11:4; Proverbs 16:8; James 5:3

3 The Lord does not let the righteous go hungry, but He denies the cravings of the wicked.

Cross References: Psalm 37:25; Psalm 34:10; Matthew 6:33

Diligence and Laziness

4 Lazy hands make a man poor, but diligent hands bring wealth.

Cross References: Proverbs 13:4; Proverbs 12:24; Proverbs 6:6

5 A wise son gathers crops in summer, but a disgraceful son sleeps during harvest.

Cross References: Proverbs 6:8; Proverbs 30:25; Proverbs 20:4

Blessings and Violence

6 Blessings crown the head of the righteous, but violence overwhelms the mouth of the wicked.

Cross References: Proverbs 10:11; Psalm 5:12; Psalm 7:16

7 The memory of the righteous is a blessing, but the name of the wicked will rot.

Cross References: Psalm 112:6; Psalm 9:5; Ecclesiastes 8:10

Obedience and Rebellion

8 The wise in heart accept commands, but a foolish talker will be ruined.

Cross References: Proverbs 12:15; Proverbs 16:20; Proverbs 29:9

9 Whoever walks in integrity walks securely, but whoever takes crooked paths will be exposed.

Cross References: Proverbs 28:18; Psalm 15:2; Numbers 32:23

10 Winking at evil causes trouble, and a babbling fool will fall.

Cross References: Proverbs 6:13; Proverbs 16:30; Psalm 35:19

Words of Life or Destruction

11 The mouth of the righteous is a fountain of life, but violence covers the mouth of the wicked.

Cross References: Proverbs 10:6; Proverbs 13:14; John 7:38

12 Hatred stirs up conflict, but love covers all wrongs.

Cross References: Proverbs 17:9; 1 Peter 4:8; 1 Corinthians 13:4

13 Wisdom is found on the lips of the discerning, but a rod is for the back of the one without sense.

Cross References: Proverbs 14:3; Proverbs 26:3; Proverbs 19:29

14 The wise store up knowledge, but the mouth of a fool invites ruin.

Cross References: Proverbs 12:23; Proverbs 15:2; Proverbs 18:7

Rich and Poor

15 The wealth of the rich is their fortress, but poverty is the ruin of the poor.

Cross References: Proverbs 18:11; Proverbs 13:8; Proverbs 30:8

16 The wages of the righteous bring life, but the income of the wicked brings punishment.

Cross References: Galatians 6:8; Proverbs 11:19; Romans 6:21

Instruction and Correction

17 Whoever heeds discipline shows the way to life, but whoever ignores correction leads others astray.

Cross References: Proverbs 4:13; Proverbs 15:10; Proverbs 12:1

18 Whoever conceals hatred has lying lips, and whoever spreads slander is a fool.

Cross References: Leviticus 19:16; Psalm 12:2; Proverbs 26:24

The Power of Words

19 When words are many, sin is not absent, but the one who holds his tongue is wise.

Cross References: Proverbs 17:27; Ecclesiastes 5:3; James 1:19 20 The tongue of the righteous is like choice silver, but the heart of the wicked is of little value.

Cross References: Proverbs 25:11; Psalm 12:6; Proverbs 15:28

21 The lips of the righteous feed many, but fools die for lack of sense.

Cross References: Proverbs 15:7; Proverbs 12:18; John 6:27

God's Blessing

22 The blessing of the Lord makes rich, and He adds no sorrow to it.

Cross References: Psalm 127:1; Deuteronomy 8:18; 1 Chronicles 4:10

Understanding vs. Folly

23 A fool finds pleasure in wicked schemes, but a person of understanding delights in wisdom.

Cross References: Proverbs 15:21; Proverbs 26:18; Proverbs 14:9

24 What the wicked fear will come upon them, but the desires of the righteous will be granted.

Cross References: Proverbs 1:26; Psalm 37:4; Job 3:25

25 When the storm has swept by, the wicked are gone, but the righteous stand firm forever.

Cross References: Psalm 1:4; Matthew 7:24; Psalm 37:36

Laziness and Integrity

26 As vinegar to the teeth and smoke to the eyes, so is the lazy person to those who send him.

Cross References: Proverbs 26:6; Proverbs 25:19; Proverbs 26:14

27 The fear of the Lord adds length to life, but the years of the wicked are cut short.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:2; Proverbs 9:11; Psalm 55:23

28 The hope of the righteous brings joy, but the expectations of the wicked will perish.

Cross References: Proverbs 11:7; Job 8:13; Psalm 112:10

Strength and Security

29 The way of the Lord is a refuge for the blameless, but it is ruin to those who do evil.

Cross References: Proverbs 21:15; Nahum 1:7; Psalm 37:39

30 The righteous will never be uprooted, but the wicked will not remain in the land.

Cross References: Psalm 37:29; Proverbs 2:21; Psalm 125:1

Words that Build or Destroy

31 The mouth of the righteous brings forth wisdom, but the corrupt tongue will be cut off.

Cross References: Psalm 37:30; Proverbs 10:21; Matthew 15:13

32 The lips of the righteous know what is fitting, but the mouth of the wicked speaks only what is perverse.

Cross References: Proverbs 15:28; Ecclesiastes 10:12; Proverbs 8:8

Key Lessons from Proverbs 10

- Wisdom brings joy: Wise children honor their parents; foolishness brings grief.
- Righteousness delivers: Ill-gotten gain fades, but righteousness leads to life.
- Diligence prospers: Hard work brings blessing, laziness leads to shame and poverty.
- Words carry power: They can bring life, healing, and wisdom—or destruction, conflict, and ruin.
- God blesses the righteous: Their hope, work, and life are established by the Lord.
- The wicked are temporary: Like a storm, they vanish; the righteous stand forever.
- The fear of the Lord extends life: Reverence for God brings strength, hope, and endurance.

Proverbs 11 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Way of Integrity”

Honesty and Humility

1 The Lord hates dishonest scales, but delights in accurate weights.

Cross References: Leviticus 19:36; Deuteronomy 25:15; Micah 6:11

2 When pride comes, then comes disgrace, but with humility comes wisdom.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:18; James 4:6; Proverbs 29:23

Integrity vs. Wickedness

3 The honesty of the upright guides them, but the crookedness of the unfaithful destroys them.

Cross References: Psalm 25:21; Proverbs 10:9; Titus 2:7

4 Wealth is useless on the day of God's judgment,
but righteousness delivers from death.

Cross References: Proverbs 10:2; Ezekiel 7:19; Zephaniah 1:18

5 The righteousness of the blameless makes their path straight, but the wicked fall by their own wickedness.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:6; Psalm 37:23; Isaiah 26:7

6 The righteousness of the upright delivers them, but the unfaithful are trapped by their own desires.

Cross References: Proverbs 11:3; Psalm 9:16; James 1:14

Life and Death

the expectation of the unrighteous comes to nothing.

Cross References: Job 8:13; Psalm 112:10; Proverbs 10:28

8 The righteous are rescued from trouble, and it falls on the wicked instead.

Cross References: Psalm 34:19; Proverbs 12:13; Psalm 97:10

Words that Build or Destroy

9 The godless person destroys their neighbor with their mouth, but the righteous are delivered through knowledge.

Cross References: Proverbs 12:6; James 3:6; Psalm 52:2

10 When the righteous prosper, the city rejoices;
when the wicked perish, there is celebration.

Cross References: Proverbs 29:2; Esther 8:15; Psalm 58:10

11 The blessing of the upright lifts up a city, but the words of the wicked tear it down.

Cross References: Proverbs 14:34; Proverbs 29:2; Jeremiah 29:7

Wisdom in Relationships

12 Whoever lacks sense despises their neighbor, but a person of understanding keeps silent.

Cross References: Proverbs 11:9; James 4:11; Proverbs 17:28

13 A gossip betrays secrets, but a trustworthy person keeps confidence.

Cross References: Proverbs 20:19; Proverbs 25:9; Leviticus 19:16

14 Without guidance, a nation falls;
but with many counselors, there is safety.

Cross References: Proverbs 15:22; Proverbs 24:6; Exodus 18:21

Conduct and Character

15 Whoever puts up security for a stranger will suffer, but whoever avoids such pledges is safe.

Cross References: Proverbs 6:1; Proverbs 17:18; Proverbs 22:26

16 A gracious woman gains honor, and strong men gain wealth.

Cross References: Proverbs 31:30; Ruth 3:11; 1 Peter 3:4

17 Those who are kind benefit themselves, but the cruel bring trouble on their own heads.

Cross References: Proverbs 19:17; Galatians 6:7; Matthew 5:7

18 The wicked earn deceptive wages, but the one who sows righteousness reaps a sure reward.

Cross References: Hosea 10:12; Galatians 6:8; Proverbs 22:8

19 True righteousness leads to life, but pursuing evil leads to death.

Cross References: Proverbs 12:28; Ezekiel 18:9; Romans 6:22

God's Delight

but He delights in those who are blameless.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:32; Proverbs 12:22; Deuteronomy 25:16

21 Be sure of this: the wicked will not go unpunished, but the children of the righteous will be delivered.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:5; Psalm 37:28; Exodus 20:5

Beauty and Discretion

22 Like a gold ring in a pig's snout is a beautiful woman without discretion.

Cross References: 1 Timothy 2:9; 1 Peter 3:3; Proverbs 6:25

Expectations of Righteous vs. Wicked

23 The desires of the righteous end in good, but the hopes of the wicked lead to wrath.

Cross References: Psalm 37:4; Proverbs 10:24; Romans 8:28

24 One person gives freely, yet grows richer;
another withholds too much, and comes to poverty.

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 9:6; Luke 6:38; Ecclesiastes 11:1

25 A generous person will prosper;
whoever refreshes others will be refreshed.

Cross References: Isaiah 58:10; Proverbs 22:9; Deuteronomy 15:10

26 People curse those who hoard grain, but they bless the one who sells it.

Cross References: Amos 8:5; James 5:3; Proverbs 28:27

Outcomes of Seeking Good or Evil

27 Whoever seeks good finds favor, but evil comes to the one who searches for it.

Cross References: Proverbs 21:21; Psalm 34:14; Matthew 7:7

28 Those who trust in riches will fall, but the righteous will flourish like a green leaf.

Cross References: Psalm 52:7; Psalm 1:3; Mark 10:24

29 Whoever brings ruin on their family will inherit only wind, and the fool will be servant to the wise.

Cross References: Proverbs 15:27; Joshua 7:25; Ecclesiastes 5:16

The Fruit of Righteousness

30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life, and the one who wins souls is wise.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:18; Daniel 12:3; James 5:20

31 If the righteous receive their due on earth, how much more the wicked and the sinner!

Cross References: 1 Peter 4:18; Ezekiel 18:20; Psalm 58:11

Key Lessons from Proverbs 11

- Honesty pleases God: Integrity in small things (like fair scales) matters to Him.
- Humility brings wisdom: Pride leads to downfall, but the lowly gain insight.
- Wealth cannot save: Only righteousness delivers in the day of judgment.
- Words shape communities: The righteous bless and build up, but the wicked destroy.
- Kindness benefits the giver: Mercy, generosity, and trustworthiness enrich life.
- God delights in upright hearts: True beauty is found in wisdom and discretion, not appearance alone.
- Righteousness gives life: The fruit of the righteous blesses others, and wisdom wins souls.
- The wicked face sure judgment: If even the righteous are disciplined, the sinner will not escape.

Proverbs 12 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Way of Righteousness and Folly”

Loving Instruction

1 Whoever loves discipline loves knowledge, but whoever hates correction is stupid.

Cross References: Proverbs 9:8; Hebrews 12:11; Psalm 141:5

2 The good person receives favor from the Lord, but the one who plots evil He condemns.

Cross References: Proverbs 8:35; Psalm 5:12; Proverbs 3:4

3 No one is established by wickedness, but the roots of the righteous cannot be moved.

Cross References: Proverbs 10:25; Psalm 1:3; Matthew 7:25

Home and Character

4 A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband, but a disgraceful wife is like decay in his bones.

Cross References: Proverbs 31:10; Proverbs 14:1; 1 Corinthians 11:7

5 The thoughts of the righteous are just,
but the advice of the wicked is deceitful.

Cross References: Psalm 37:30; Proverbs 15:26; Philippians 4:8

6 The words of the wicked are like ambush for blood, but the words of the upright rescue them.

Cross References: Psalm 10:8; Proverbs 18:21; Proverbs 14:3

7 The wicked are overthrown and are gone, but the house of the righteous stands firm.

Cross References: Psalm 37:10; Job 8:15; Proverbs 14:11

8 A person is praised for their wisdom, but those with twisted hearts are despised.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:21; Romans 12:16; 1 Samuel 25:3

9 Better to be lowly and have a servant than to pretend to be important and have no food.

Cross References: Proverbs 13:7; Luke 14:11; Proverbs 30:8

Work and Kindness

10 The righteous care for the life of their animals, but even the kindest acts of the wicked are cruel.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 25:4; Exodus 23:5; Proverbs 27:23

11 Those who work their land will have plenty of bread, but those who chase fantasies lack sense.

Cross References: Proverbs 28:19; Proverbs 10:4; 2 Thessalonians 3:10

12 The wicked desire the catch of evil men, but the root of the righteous produces fruit.

Cross References: Psalm 37:16; Psalm 1:3; Job 8:16

Words and Consequences

13 The wicked are trapped by their own words, but the righteous escape trouble.

Cross References: Proverbs 18:7; Proverbs 6:2; Proverbs 21:23 and the work of their hands brings them reward.

Cross References: Proverbs 13:2; Galatians 6:7; Proverbs 18:20 15 The way of fools seems right to them, but the wise listen to advice.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:7; Proverbs 26:12; Proverbs 19:20

16 A fool shows annoyance immediately, but the prudent overlook an insult.

Cross References: Proverbs 29:11; Proverbs 19:11; Ecclesiastes 7:9

17 An honest witness tells the truth, but a false witness tells lies.

Cross References: Exodus 20:16; Proverbs 14:5; Zechariah 8:16

18 Reckless words pierce like a sword, but the tongue of the wise brings healing.

Cross References: James 3:5; Proverbs 15:4; Psalm 57:4

19 Truthful words stand the test of time, but lying words last only a moment.

Cross References: Psalm 117:2; Proverbs 19:9; John 17:17

Deceit vs. Peace

20 Deceit fills the hearts of those who plot evil, but joy comes to those who promote peace.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:29; Psalm 34:14; James 3:18

21 No lasting harm comes to the righteous, but the wicked are filled with trouble.

Cross References: Psalm 91:10; Psalm 34:19; Romans 8:28

6 Grandchildren are the crown of the elderly, and the pride of children is their parents.

Cross References: Psalm 127:3; Psalm 128:6; Genesis 48:11

7 Excellent speech is not fitting for a fool—much less lying lips for a ruler.

Cross References: Proverbs 26:1; Proverbs 12:22; Ecclesiastes 10:12

Love and Forgiveness

8 A bribe is seen as a magic stone by the one who gives it;
it seems to bring success everywhere.

Cross References: Proverbs 18:16; Proverbs 21:14; Genesis 32:20 9 Whoever covers an offense promotes love, but whoever repeats the matter separates close friends.

Cross References: Proverbs 10:12; 1 Peter 4:8; Proverbs 16:28

10 A rebuke makes a greater impression on a wise person than a hundred lashes on a fool.

Cross References: Proverbs 9:8; Proverbs 15:5; Ecclesiastes 7:5

Fools and Strife

11 An evil person pursues rebellion;
a cruel messenger will be sent against them.

Cross References: Proverbs 29:1; Romans 13:2; Ecclesiastes 8:11

12 Better to meet a bear robbed of her cubs than a fool acting in his folly.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 17:8; Hosea 13:8; Proverbs 27:3

13 Whoever repays good with evil—evil will never leave their house.

Cross References: Romans 12:17; 1 Samuel 25:21; Psalm 35:12

14 Starting a quarrel is like breaching a dam;
so drop the matter before it breaks out.

Cross References: Proverbs 20:3; James 4:1; Proverbs 26:21

15 Acquitting the guilty and condemning the innocent—
the Lord detests them both.

Cross References: Isaiah 5:23; Exodus 23:7; Proverbs 24:24

16 Why should fools have money in hand to buy wisdom, when they have no desire for it?

Cross References: Proverbs 23:23; Matthew 13:45; Proverbs 1:7

Friendship and Family

17 A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.

Cross References: Proverbs 18:24; John 15:13; Ruth 1:16

18 One who lacks judgment shakes hands in pledge and puts up security for a neighbor.

Cross References: Proverbs 6:1; Proverbs 22:26; Proverbs 11:15

19 Whoever loves strife loves sin;
whoever builds a high gate invites destruction.

Cross References: Proverbs 13:10; Proverbs 16:18; Obadiah 1:3

20 The perverse in heart find no good,
and those with deceitful tongues fall into trouble.

Cross References: Proverbs 6:12; Proverbs 12:13; Psalm 34:13

21 To have a fool for a child brings grief;
there is no joy for the parent of a fool.

Cross References: Proverbs 10:1; Proverbs 17:25; Proverbs 15:20

22 A cheerful heart is good medicine, but a broken spirit dries up the bones.

Cross References: Proverbs 15:13; Proverbs 18:14; Proverbs 12:25

Justice and Wisdom

23 The wicked accept secret bribes to pervert the course of justice.

Cross References: Exodus 23:8; Deuteronomy 16:19; Micah 3:11

24 Wisdom is in the presence of the discerning, but the eyes of a fool wander to the ends of the earth.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 2:14; Proverbs 4:25; Ecclesiastes 8:1

25 A foolish son brings grief to his father and bitterness to his mother.

Cross References: Proverbs 10:1; Proverbs 15:20; Proverbs 19:13

26 It is not good to punish the innocent, or to flog officials for doing right.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 3:16; Isaiah 5:23; Job 34:17

27 The one who has knowledge uses words with restraint, and whoever has understanding is even-tempered.

Cross References: James 1:19; Proverbs 10:19; Ecclesiastes 5:2

28 Even fools are thought wise if they keep silent, and discerning if they hold their tongues.

Cross References: Proverbs 10:19; Job 13:5; Proverbs 29:11

Key Lessons from Proverbs 17

- Peace is better than plenty: Quietness with little is greater than feasting with strife.
- God tests hearts: More than silver or gold, our inner motives are weighed by Him.
- Forgiveness preserves love: Covering offenses builds friendship, but gossip destroys it.
- Fools bring danger: Better to face a bear than a fool in their folly.
- Friendship and family matter: A true friend is loyal always, and family is given for times of need.
- A cheerful heart brings healing: Joy refreshes life, while a broken spirit brings decay.
- Wisdom shows in restraint: Even silence can appear wise, while reckless words prove folly.
- Justice belongs to God: Bribery, false judgment, and oppression are all detestable to Him.

“The Power of Words and Relationships”

Wisdom and Folly

1 An unfriendly person isolates themselves, seeking their own desire; they rage against sound judgment.

Cross References: Hebrews 10:25; Jude 1:19; Genesis 13:11

2 Fools find no pleasure in understanding, but only in airing their own opinions.

Cross References: Proverbs 12:23; Proverbs 15:2; Ecclesiastes 10:3

3 When wickedness comes, so does contempt, and with dishonor comes shame.

Cross References: Proverbs 11:2; Hosea 4:7; Philippians 3:19

The Value of Words

4 The words of a person's mouth are deep waters, but the fountain of wisdom is a flowing stream.

Cross References: Proverbs 20:5; John 7:38; Proverbs 16:22

5 It is not right to favor the wicked or to deny justice to the righteous.

Cross References: Leviticus 19:15; Deuteronomy 1:17; James 2:9

6 A fool's lips bring strife, and their mouth invites a beating.

Cross References: Proverbs 10:14; Proverbs 13:3; Proverbs 26:3

7 A fool's mouth is their ruin, and their lips are a trap to their soul.

Cross References: Proverbs 12:13; Ecclesiastes 10:12; Psalm 64:8

8 Gossip's words are like tasty morsels;
they go deep into a person's heart.

Cross References: Proverbs 26:22; Proverbs 16:28; James 3:6

Work and Strength

9 Whoever is lazy in their work is a brother to one who destroys.

Cross References: Proverbs 10:4; Proverbs 24:30; 2 Thessalonians 3:11

10 The name of the Lord is a strong tower;
the righteous run to it and are safe.

Cross References: Psalm 61:3; Psalm 18:2; Psalm 91:2

11 The rich think their wealth is a strong city;
they imagine it to be an unscalable wall.

Cross References: Proverbs 10:15; Luke 12:19; 1 Timothy 6:17

Humility and Discernment

12 Pride comes before destruction, but humility comes before honor.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:18; Proverbs 15:33; James 4:10

13 To answer before listening—that is folly and shame.

Cross References: James 1:19; John 7:51; Proverbs 29:20

14 A person's spirit can sustain them in sickness, but a crushed spirit—who can bear?

Cross References: Proverbs 17:22; Psalm 51:17; 2 Corinthians 1:8

15 The discerning heart acquires knowledge, and the ear of the wise seeks it out.

Cross References: Proverbs 15:14; Proverbs 1:5; Proverbs 9:9

Justice and Disputes

16 A gift opens the way and ushers the giver into the presence of the great.

Cross References: Proverbs 17:8; Genesis 43:11; Proverbs 21:14

17 The first to present their case seems right, until another comes and examines them.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 17:6; Proverbs 25:9; John 7:24

18 Casting lots settles disputes and keeps strong opponents apart.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:33; Joshua 14:2; Acts 1:26

19 An offended brother is harder to win back than a fortified city; arguments are like barred gates of a castle.

Cross References: Matthew 18:15; Genesis 4:8; Proverbs 6:19

The Power of the Tongue

20 From the fruit of their mouth a person's stomach is filled; with the harvest of their lips they are satisfied.

Cross References: Proverbs 12:14; Proverbs 13:2; Matthew 12:37

21 Death and life are in the power of the tongue, and those who love it will eat its fruit.

Cross References: James 3:5; Proverbs 12:18; Matthew 12:36

Relationships and Friendship

22 He who finds a wife finds what is good and receives favor from the Lord.

Cross References: Proverbs 19:14; Genesis 2:18; Genesis 24:14

23 The poor plead for mercy, but the rich answer harshly.

Cross References: Proverbs 22:7; James 2:6; Luke 16:20

24 A man with many companions may come to ruin, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

Cross References: John 15:13; Proverbs 17:17; Ruth 1:16

Key Lessons from Proverbs 18

- Fools love their own voice: Wisdom seeks understanding, but fools only want to air opinions.
- Words are powerful: They can bring life or death, heal or destroy, bless or curse.
- Gossip is dangerous: Its words go deep and wound the heart.
- God is a refuge: His name is a strong tower of safety for the righteous.
- Pride destroys, humility lifts up: True honor comes only through humility.
- Justice requires discernment: One side may seem right until carefully examined.
- Friendship and marriage are blessings: A faithful spouse and a true friend are gifts from the Lord.

“Integrity, Discipline, and God’s Counsel”

Integrity Over Wealth

1 Better to be poor and live with integrity than to be dishonest and a fool.

Cross References: Proverbs 28:6; Proverbs 19:22; Psalm 37:16

2 Desire without knowledge is not good, and rushing into things leads to sin.

Cross References: Romans 10:2; Proverbs 29:20; Proverbs 21:5

3 A person’s own foolishness ruins their life, yet their heart rages against the Lord.

Cross References: James 1:13; Lamentations 3:39; Jonah 4:9

4 Wealth brings many friends, but the poor are deserted by them.

Cross References: Proverbs 14:20; Proverbs 19:7; Luke 16:9

Truth and Lies

5 A false witness will not go unpunished, and one who lies will not escape.

Cross References: Exodus 20:16; Proverbs 19:9; Deuteronomy 19:18

6 Many seek the favor of the ruler, and everyone is the friend of the one who gives gifts.

Cross References: Proverbs 29:26; Proverbs 17:8; Proverbs 18:16

7 The relatives of the poor despise them;
even their friends avoid them completely.
Though they plead with words, no one responds.

Cross References: Proverbs 14:20; Job 19:13; Psalm 38:11

The Value of Wisdom

8 The one who gains wisdom loves their own soul;
those who cherish understanding will prosper.

Cross References: Proverbs 8:35; Proverbs 4:7; Proverbs 3:13

9 A false witness will not go unpunished, and a liar will perish.

Cross References: Proverbs 19:5; Revelation 21:8; Psalm 101:7

10 It is not fitting for a fool to live in luxury, much less for a servant to rule over princes.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 10:5; Proverbs 30:22; Proverbs 17:16

Patience and Family Life

11 A person's wisdom makes them slow to anger;
it is to their honor to overlook an offense.

Cross References: Proverbs 14:29; James 1:19; Micah 7:18

12 The king's rage is like the roar of a lion, but his favor is like dew on the grass.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:14; Proverbs 20:2; Hosea 14:5

13 A foolish son is a disaster to his father, and a quarrelsome wife is like constant dripping.

Cross References: Proverbs 17:25; Proverbs 21:9; Proverbs 27:15

14 Houses and wealth are inherited from fathers, but a prudent wife is from the Lord.

Cross References: Proverbs 18:22; Proverbs 31:10; Genesis 24:50

Laziness and Obedience

15 Laziness brings deep sleep, and the idle will go hungry.

Cross References: Proverbs 6:9; Proverbs 20:13; 2 Thessalonians 3:10

16 Whoever keeps God's commands preserves their life, but those who despise His ways will die.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 30:19; Proverbs 13:13; Ezekiel 18:27

17 Whoever is kind to the poor lends to the Lord, and He will repay them for what they have done.

Cross References: Matthew 25:40; Proverbs 14:31; 2 Corinthians 9:6

18 Discipline your children while there is hope;
do not let your heart spare them because of their crying.

Cross References: Proverbs 13:24; Proverbs 22:15; Hebrews 12:6

Anger, Counsel, and God's Sovereignty

19 A hot-tempered person must pay the penalty;
if you rescue them once, you will have to do it again.

Cross References: Galatians 6:7; Proverbs 29:22; Numbers 20:10

20 Listen to advice and accept instruction, so that in the end you may be wise.

Cross References: Proverbs 12:15; Proverbs 1:8; Deuteronomy 32:29

21 Many plans are in a person's heart, but the Lord's purpose will prevail.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:9; Psalm 33:11; Isaiah 46:10

22 Loyalty makes a person attractive, and it is better to be poor than a liar.

Cross References: Micah 6:8; Proverbs 3:3; Proverbs 19:1

23 The fear of the Lord leads to life;
then one rests content, untouched by trouble.

Cross References: Proverbs 14:27; Proverbs 10:27; Psalm 34:9

Consequences of Foolishness

24 The lazy person buries his hand in the dish, and will not even bring it back to his mouth.

Cross References: Proverbs 26:15; Proverbs 12:27; 2 Thessalonians 3:10

25 Strike a mocker, and the simple will learn prudence;
rebuke the discerning, and they will gain knowledge.

Cross References: Proverbs 21:11; Proverbs 9:8; Proverbs 17:10

26 A child who robs his father and drives out his mother brings shame and disgrace.

Cross References: Exodus 20:12; Proverbs 20:20; Proverbs 28:24

27 Stop listening, my son, to instruction that leads you astray from the words of knowledge.

Cross References: Proverbs 4:1; Hebrews 2:1; 2 Timothy 4:3

28 A corrupt witness mocks at justice, and the mouth of the wicked gulps down evil.

Cross References: Proverbs 6:12; Psalm 5:9; Exodus 23:1

29 Penalties are prepared for mockers, and beatings for the backs of fools.

Cross References: Proverbs 10:13; Proverbs 26:3; Isaiah 28:22

Key Lessons from Proverbs 19

- Integrity is priceless: Better to be poor with honesty than rich with deceit.
- Wisdom protects life: Seeking knowledge and understanding brings blessing, but foolishness destroys.
- God cares for the poor: Helping the needy is like lending to the Lord, and He promises to repay.
- Discipline matters: Correcting children early is an act of love and hope.
- God's plan stands: People may have many plans, but only the Lord's purpose will ultimately prevail.
- Relationships reflect wisdom: A prudent wife is God's gift, while a quarrelsome one brings sorrow.
- Patience and mercy show strength: Overlooking offenses and slowing anger demonstrate true wisdom.

Proverbs 20 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Wisdom in Life, Work, and Justice”

Wine and Self-Control

1 Wine makes people mockers, and strong drink leads to anger;
whoever is led astray by it is not wise.

Cross References: Isaiah 5:11; Ephesians 5:18; Proverbs 23:29

Authority and Strife

2 The king's anger is like the roar of a lion;
those who provoke him risk their lives.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:14; Proverbs 19:12; Ecclesiastes 8:2

3 It is an honor to avoid strife, but every fool is quick to quarrel.

Cross References: Proverbs 17:14; Romans 12:18; James 4:1

Laziness and Diligence

4 The lazy person does not plow because it is cold;
when harvest comes, they will beg and have nothing.

Cross References: Proverbs 6:6; Proverbs 10:5; 2 Thessalonians 3:10

5 The purposes of a person's heart are deep waters, but one with understanding draws them out.

Cross References: Proverbs 18:4; 1 Corinthians 2:11; Proverbs 25:2

Integrity and Faithfulness

6 Many claim to have unfailing love, but a faithful person—who can find?

Cross References: Luke 18:11; 2 Corinthians 10:18; Proverbs 28:20

7 The righteous walk in integrity; their children are blessed after them.

Cross References: Psalm 37:37; Psalm 112:1; Genesis 18:19

Judgment and Purity

8 A king who sits on the throne of judgment winnows out all evil with his eyes.

Cross References: Proverbs 20:26; Psalm 101:8; 1 Kings 3:9

9 Who can say, "I have kept my heart pure;
I am clean and without sin"?

Cross References: 1 John 1:8; Job 14:4; Psalm 51:10

Honesty and Justice

10 Differing weights and measures—
the Lord detests them both.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 25:13; Leviticus 19:36; Micah 6:11

11 Even a child is known by their actions, whether their conduct is pure and right.

Cross References: Matthew 7:16; Luke 2:52; 1 Samuel 3:19

12 Ears that hear and eyes that see—the Lord has made them both.

Cross References: Exodus 4:11; Psalm 94:9; Proverbs 22:2

Work and Contentment

13 Do not love sleep, or you will grow poor;
stay awake, and you will have food to spare.

Cross References: Proverbs 6:9; Proverbs 19:15; Romans 13:11

14 “It’s worthless, it’s worthless,” says the buyer;
but later he boasts about his bargain.

Cross References: James 4:16; Amos 8:5; Proverbs 11:1

15 Gold is plentiful, and rubies are abundant, but lips that speak knowledge are a rare treasure.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:14; Proverbs 8:11; Job 28:18

Caution and Counsel

16 Take the garment of one who puts up security for a stranger;
hold it in pledge if it is done for an outsider.

Cross References: Proverbs 27:13; Exodus 22:26; Proverbs 6:1

17 Food gained by deceit tastes sweet, but in the end it fills the mouth with gravel.

Cross References: Proverbs 9:17; Proverbs 4:17; Job 20:12

18 Plans succeed through good advice; with wise guidance wage your war.

Cross References: Proverbs 15:22; Proverbs 24:6; Luke 14:31

Gossip and Honor

19 A gossip betrays confidence; so avoid anyone who talks too much.

Cross References: Proverbs 11:13; Proverbs 25:9; Psalm 12:2

20 Whoever curses father or mother—their lamp will go out in deep darkness.

Cross References: Exodus 21:17; Proverbs 30:11; Matthew 15:4

Wealth and Inheritance

21 An inheritance gained too quickly at the beginning will not be blessed in the end.

Cross References: Proverbs 13:11; Proverbs 28:20; Luke 12:20 but the splendor of the old is their gray hair.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:31; Leviticus 19:32; 1 John 2:14

30 Bruises and wounds cleanse away evil; discipline reaches the inmost parts.

Cross References: Proverbs 19:29; Psalm 141:5; Hebrews 12:11

Key Lessons from Proverbs 20

- Alcohol leads to folly: Wine and strong drink cloud judgment and stir up anger.
- Integrity matters: A faithful and righteous life blesses not only the person but also their children.
- Justice is God’s standard: Dishonest weights, lies, and false dealings are hated by the Lord.
- Wisdom seeks counsel: Plans succeed when built on good advice and truth.
- Discipline builds character: Both correction and trials purify the heart and soul.
- God directs our steps: Human plans are limited, but the Lord oversees the outcome.
- Patience in vengeance: Do not repay evil—trust God to bring justice in His time.
- Strength and maturity both have value: Youth carries strength, while age carries wisdom and honor.

Proverbs 21 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God’s Sovereignty and the Way of Righteousness”

God’s Control Over Kings

1 The king’s heart is in the Lord’s hand, like channels of water;
He turns it wherever He chooses.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:9; Ezra 6:22; Daniel 4:17

2 People think all their ways are right, but the Lord examines their hearts.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:2; Proverbs 14:12; 1 Samuel 16:7

Key Lessons from Proverbs 21

- God rules over rulers: Even kings are under God's control; He directs their decisions.
- Justice over ritual: God values righteousness and justice more than empty religious sacrifices.
- Pride destroys, diligence prospers: Arrogance leads to sin, but careful planning brings abundance.
- Generosity matters: Ignoring the poor closes heaven's ears, while giving freely reflects righteousness.
- Wisdom is power: True strength comes from wisdom, not force—wise people can even conquer strong cities.

- Control your tongue: Guarding words protects from much trouble.
- False worship is worthless: Sacrifices from a wicked heart do not please God.
- God is sovereign in all things: Human plans, armies, and strategies cannot override His will; safety and victory come only from Him.

Proverbs 22 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Wisdom for Life, Wealth, and Relationships”

The Value of a Good Name

1 A good name is to be chosen above great riches; favor is better than silver or gold.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 7:1; Psalm 112:6; Proverbs 10:7

2 Rich and poor have this in common:
the Lord is the Maker of them all.

Cross References: Job 34:19; Proverbs 29:13; James 2:1

Prudence, Humility, and Training Children

3 The prudent see danger and hide, but the simple keep going and pay the penalty.

Cross References: Proverbs 27:12; Proverbs 14:16; Proverbs 14:15

4 True riches, honor, and life come through humility and the fear of the Lord.

Cross References: Proverbs 15:33; Proverbs 3:16; James 4:10

5 Thorns and traps are on the path of the perverse, but those who guard their soul stay far from them.

Cross References: Proverbs 15:19; Proverbs 13:15; Hebrews 12:15

6 Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old, he will not depart from it.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 6:7; Ephesians 6:4; Proverbs 29:17

Wealth, Debt, and Justice

7 The rich rule over the poor, and the borrower is slave to the lender.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 28:12; Romans 13:8; Proverbs 22:26

8 Whoever sows injustice will reap disaster, and their rod of anger will fail.

Cross References: Galatians 6:7; Job 4:8; Hosea 8:7

9 The generous will be blessed, for they share their food with the poor.

Cross References: Proverbs 11:25; Proverbs 19:17; 2 Corinthians 9:6

10 Drive out the mocker, and strife will leave; quarreling and insults will cease.

Cross References: Proverbs 26:20; Proverbs 13:10; Galatians 5:26

11 The one who loves purity of heart and speaks with grace will find favor with the king.

Cross References: Matthew 5:8; Psalm 24:4; Proverbs 16:13

12 The Lord's eyes protect knowledge, but He frustrates the words of the faithless.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 16:9; Proverbs 15:3; Psalm 33:18

Laziness, Temptation, and Discipline

13 The sluggard says, "There's a lion outside!
I'll be killed in the streets!"

Cross References: Proverbs 26:13; Proverbs 20:4; Ecclesiastes 10:18

14 The mouth of a promiscuous woman is a deep pit;
a man under the Lord's judgment will fall into it.

Cross References: Proverbs 23:27; Proverbs 2:16; Proverbs 5:3

15 Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child, but the rod of discipline drives it away.

Cross References: Proverbs 29:15; Proverbs 13:24; Proverbs 23:13

16 One who oppresses the poor to increase wealth, or gives gifts to the rich, will come to poverty.

Cross References: Proverbs 28:8; Job 20:19; James 5:1

Words of the Wise

17 Pay attention and listen to the words of the wise;
apply your heart to my teaching.

Cross References: Proverbs 4:20; Proverbs 2:2; Psalm 78:1

18 For it will be pleasant if you keep them within you and have them ready on your lips.

Cross References: Psalm 119:11; Colossians 3:16; Proverbs 2:1

19 So that your trust may be in the Lord,
I teach you today, even you.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:5; Psalm 4:5; Jeremiah 17:7

20 Have I not written thirty sayings for you, sayings of counsel and knowledge,

Cross References: Proverbs 8:6; 2 Timothy 3:16; Proverbs 1:2

21 teaching you words of truth, so that you may answer those who send you with certainty?

Cross References: 1 Peter 3:15; Proverbs 25:13; John 17:17

Justice and Relationships

22 Do not exploit the poor because they are poor, and do not crush the needy in court,

Cross References: Exodus 22:22; Proverbs 14:31; Zechariah 7:10

23 for the Lord will take up their case and will plunder those who plunder them.

Cross References: Proverbs 23:11; Psalm 140:12; Exodus 22:23

24 Do not be friends with a hot-tempered person, do not associate with one easily angered,

Cross References: Proverbs 29:22; 1 Corinthians 15:33; Psalm 1:1

25 or you may learn their ways and get yourself trapped.

Cross References: Proverbs 13:20; Proverbs 1:15; 2 Corinthians 6:14

26 Do not be one who shakes hands in pledge, or puts up security for debts;

Cross References: Proverbs 6:1; Proverbs 11:15; Proverbs 17:18

27 if you lack the means to pay, your very bed may be taken from under you.

Cross References: Proverbs 20:16; Exodus 22:26; Job 22:6

28 Do not move an ancient boundary stone set up by your ancestors.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 19:14; Proverbs 23:10; Deuteronomy 27:17

29 Do you see someone skilled in their work?
They will serve before kings;
they will not serve before obscure people.

Cross References: Genesis 41:46; Genesis 41:39; Proverbs 12:24

Key Lessons from Proverbs 22

- Character is greater than wealth: A good reputation and favor are worth more than riches.
- Prudence brings protection: Wise people foresee danger, but the naïve walk blindly into ruin.
- Parenting matters: Early training shapes a child's future direction.
- Debt enslaves: Borrowing places people under the power of others.
- Generosity invites blessing: Sharing with the poor reflects God's heart.
- Anger and mockery breed strife: Avoid hot-tempered and scornful people.
- God defends the poor: Those who exploit the needy will face His justice.
- Discipline is love: Correction is necessary to remove folly from children.
- Wisdom prepares for influence: Skill, diligence, and truth open doors, even into the presence of kings.

Proverbs 23 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Warnings Against Greed, Gluttony, and Drunkenness”

At the Table of the Powerful

1 When you sit to eat with a ruler, carefully consider what is before you.

Cross References: Proverbs 23:2; Luke 14:8; Genesis 43:34

2 If you are given to appetite, put a knife to your throat.

Cross References: Proverbs 23:20; 1 Corinthians 9:27; Philippians 3:19

3 Do not crave his delicacies, for they are deceptive food.

Cross References: Proverbs 23:6; Numbers 11:4; Psalm 141:4

Wealth and Greed

4 Do not wear yourself out to get rich; stop relying on your own understanding.

Cross References: 1 Timothy 6:9; Proverbs 28:20; Matthew 6:19

5 Will you fix your eyes on that which is fleeting?

For riches sprout wings and fly away like an eagle toward the sky.

Cross References: Proverbs 27:24; 1 Timothy 6:17; Job 27:19

The Deceptive Host

6 Do not eat the food of one with an evil eye, nor desire his delicacies.

Cross References: Proverbs 23:3; Proverbs 28:22; Matthew 20:15

7 For as he thinks in his heart, so he is. “Eat and drink,” he says to you, but his heart is not with you.

Cross References: Matthew 15:8; Mark 7:6; Proverbs 26:24

8 You will vomit up the morsel you ate, and waste your pleasant words.

Cross References: Job 20:15; Proverbs 20:17; Proverbs 25:16

Fools, Landmarks, and Justice

9 Do not speak in the ears of a fool, for he will despise the wisdom of your words.

Cross References: Proverbs 9:8; Matthew 7:6; Proverbs 17:10

10 Do not move the ancient boundary stone, nor encroach on the fields of the fatherless,

Cross References: Proverbs 22:28; Deuteronomy 19:14; Deuteronomy 27:17

11 for their Redeemer is mighty; He will plead their case against you.

Cross References: Proverbs 22:23; Jeremiah 50:34; Psalm 68:5

Instruction and Discipline

12 Apply your heart to instruction, and your ears to words of knowledge.

Cross References: Proverbs 22:17; Proverbs 4:1; Proverbs 19:20 13 Do not withhold correction from a child; if you discipline him with the rod, he will not die.

Cross References: Proverbs 22:15; Proverbs 13:24; Proverbs 29:15

14 Discipline him with the rod, and you will save his soul from Sheol.

Cross References: Proverbs 23:13; Proverbs 15:24; Proverbs 19:18

A Father’s Joy

15 My son, if your heart is wise, my heart will rejoice indeed.

Cross References: Proverbs 23:24; Proverbs 27:11; Proverbs 10:1

16 My inmost being will rejoice when your lips speak what is right.

Cross References: Proverbs 15:2; Proverbs 16:23; Proverbs 23:15

Envy, Hope, and Guidance

17 Do not let your heart envy sinners, but live always in the fear of the Lord.

Cross References: Psalm 37:1; Proverbs 24:1; Psalm 73:3

18 For there is surely a future,
and your hope will not be cut off.

Cross References: Proverbs 24:14; Jeremiah 29:11; Psalm 37:37

19 Listen, my son, and be wise, and keep your heart on the right path.

Cross References: Proverbs 4:11; Proverbs 1:8; Proverbs 23:12

Warnings Against Drunkenness and Gluttony

20 Do not join those who drink too much wine or gorge themselves on meat,

Cross References: Proverbs 23:2; Isaiah 5:22; Romans 13:13

21 for drunkards and gluttons become poor, and drowsiness clothes them in rags.

Cross References: Proverbs 21:17; Proverbs 20:1; Proverbs 6:11

Respect for Parents

22 Listen to your father, who gave you life, and do not despise your mother when she is old.

Cross References: Exodus 20:12; Ephesians 6:1; Proverbs 1:8

23 Buy the truth and do not sell it—wisdom, instruction, and understanding as well.

Cross References: Proverbs 4:5; Proverbs 4:7; Matthew 13:46

24 The father of a righteous child has great joy;
a man who fathers a wise son rejoices in him.

Cross References: Proverbs 23:15; Proverbs 10:1; 3 John 1:4

25 May your father and mother rejoice;
may she who gave you birth be glad.

Cross References: Proverbs 23:24; Proverbs 15:20; Proverbs 17:25

The Wayward Woman

26 My son, give me your heart, and let your eyes delight in my ways,

Cross References: Proverbs 4:23; Deuteronomy 6:5; Romans 12:1

27 for a prostitute is a deep pit, and a wayward woman is a narrow well.

Cross References: Proverbs 22:14; Proverbs 2:16; Proverbs 5:3

28 She lurks like a robber, and increases the faithless among men.

Cross References: Proverbs 7:12; Proverbs 5:8; Proverbs 6:26

The Tragedy of Drunkenness

29 Who has woe? Who has sorrow?
Who has strife? Who has complaints?
Who has needless bruises? Who has bloodshot eyes?

Cross References: Proverbs 23:30; Isaiah 5:11; Genesis 9:21

30 Those who linger over wine, those who go to sample mixed drinks.

Cross References: Proverbs 23:29; Isaiah 5:22; Ephesians 5:18

31 Do not gaze at wine when it is red, when it sparkles in the cup,
when it goes down smoothly!

Cross References: Proverbs 20:1; Numbers 6:3; Habakkuk 2:15

32 In the end it bites like a serpent and stings like a viper.

Cross References: Genesis 3:1; Numbers 21:6; Amos 5:19

33 Your eyes will see strange things, and your heart will utter perverse things.

Cross References: Proverbs 23:27; Job 31:1; Matthew 5:28

34 You will be like one sleeping on the high seas, lying on top of the rigging.

Cross References: Isaiah 24:20; Jonah 1:5; Proverbs 23:29

35 “They struck me,” you will say, “but I was not hurt!
They beat me, but I did not feel it!
When will I wake up? I will seek another drink.”

Cross References: Proverbs 23:32; Jeremiah 5:3; Ephesians 4:19

Key Lessons from Proverbs 23

- Self-control protects from ruin: Whether at a ruler’s table or in everyday life, discipline over appetite safeguards honor.
- Wealth is fleeting: Riches quickly vanish; only wisdom and truth endure.
- Correction saves lives: Loving discipline steers children away from destruction.
- Envy misleads: The righteous must not covet sinners but remain in the fear of the Lord, for hope is secure in Him.
- Honor parents: Respect for father and mother brings joy and blessing.
- Avoid drunkenness and gluttony: Excess leads to poverty, shame, and regret.

- Sinful pleasures enslave: Whether through lust or alcohol, indulgence blinds, corrupts, and destroys the soul.

Proverbs 24 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Wisdom, Righteousness, and Endurance”

Do Not Envy the Wicked

1 Do not envy evil men, nor desire to be with them.

Cross References: Proverbs 23:17; Psalm 37:1; Proverbs 24:19

2 For their hearts plot destruction, and their lips speak of trouble.

Cross References: Psalm 36:4; Proverbs 6:14; Micah 2:1

Wisdom Builds a Strong Foundation

3 By wisdom a house is built, and through understanding it is established.

Cross References: Proverbs 14:1; Matthew 7:24; Psalm 127:1

4 By knowledge its rooms are filled with all precious and pleasant treasures.

Cross References: Proverbs 24:3; Proverbs 3:10; Colossians 2:3

5 A wise man is strong,
and a man of knowledge increases in strength.

Cross References: Proverbs 21:22; Ecclesiastes 9:16; Ecclesiastes 7:19

6 For by wise counsel you will wage your war, and in a multitude of advisers there is safety.

Cross References: Proverbs 11:14; Proverbs 20:18; Luke 14:31

7 Wisdom is too high for a fool;
he does not open his mouth at the city gate.

Cross References: Proverbs 14:6; Proverbs 17:16; Proverbs 1:22

The Folly of Evil Schemes

8 Whoever plots to do evil will be called a schemer.

Cross References: Proverbs 6:18; Micah 2:1; Proverbs 24:2

9 The very thought of foolishness is sin, and a mocker is detestable to people.

Cross References: Proverbs 21:27; Proverbs 15:26; Proverbs 24:8

Strength Tested in Trouble

10 If you faint in the day of adversity, your strength is small.

Cross References: Isaiah 40:31; Nehemiah 8:10; 2 Corinthians 12:9

Responsibility to Act

11 Rescue those being led away to death, and hold back those stumbling toward slaughter.

Cross References: Psalm 82:4; Ezekiel 3:18; James 4:17

12 If you say, “We didn’t know this,” does not He who weighs the hearts consider it?
He who guards your life, does He not know it?
And will He not repay each man according to what he has done?

Cross References: Proverbs 21:2; Romans 2:6; Revelation 22:12

Wisdom Brings Reward

13 My son, eat honey, for it is good, and the honeycomb, sweet to your taste.

Cross References: Proverbs 24:14; Psalm 19:10; Proverbs 16:24

14 In the same way, wisdom is sweet to your soul;
when you find it, there will be a reward,
and your hope will not be cut off.

Cross References: Proverbs 23:18; Proverbs 3:13; Jeremiah 29:11

The Righteous and the Wicked

15 Do not lie in wait, O wicked man, against the home of the righteous; do not plunder his resting place.

Cross References: Psalm 37:32; Proverbs 1:11; Psalm 27:5

16 For though the righteous fall seven times, they rise again, but the wicked stumble into calamity.

Cross References: Micah 7:8; Psalm 37:24; Job 5:19

Guard Against Pride and Vengeance

17 Do not rejoice when your enemy falls, and do not be glad when he stumbles;

Cross References: Job 31:29; Obadiah 1:12; Romans 12:19

18 lest the Lord see it, and be displeased, and turn His anger away from him.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:35; Ezekiel 18:23; Proverbs 17:5

19 Do not fret because of evildoers, or envy the wicked.

Cross References: Psalm 37:1; Proverbs 23:17; Proverbs 24:1

20 For the evil man has no future;
the lamp of the wicked will be snuffed out.

Cross References: Proverbs 13:9; Job 18:5; Proverbs 20:20

Fear the Lord and the King

21 My son, fear the Lord and the king, and do not associate with the rebellious.

Cross References: 1 Peter 2:17; Romans 13:1; Ecclesiastes 8:2

22 For disaster will arise suddenly, and who knows the ruin that can come from both?

Cross References: Proverbs 6:15; Proverbs 29:1; 1 Thessalonians 5:3

Justice in Judgment

23 These also are sayings of the wise:
Showing partiality in judgment is not good.

Cross References: Leviticus 19:15; Proverbs 18:5; Deuteronomy 1:17

24 Whoever says to the wicked, “You are righteous,” people will curse him, nations will abhor him.

Cross References: Isaiah 5:20; Proverbs 17:15; Malachi 2:17

25 But those who rebuke the wicked will find delight, and a good blessing will come upon them.

Cross References: Proverbs 28:23; Psalm 141:5; Leviticus 19:17

26 An honest answer is like a kiss on the lips.

Cross References: Proverbs 15:23; Proverbs 16:13; Proverbs 25:11

Order and Honesty in Work

27 Prepare your work outside, get your fields ready;
after that, build your house.

Cross References: Luke 14:28; Proverbs 24:3; Genesis 2:15

28 Do not be a witness against your neighbor without cause, and do not deceive with your lips.

Cross References: Exodus 20:16; Proverbs 21:28; Proverbs 25:18

29 Do not say, “I will do to him as he has done to me;
I will repay the man according to his work.”

Cross References: Romans 12:17; 1 Peter 3:9; Leviticus 19:18

Lesson from the Sluggard’s Field

30 I went by the field of a lazy man, by the vineyard of one lacking sense;

Cross References: Proverbs 6:6; Ecclesiastes 10:18; Proverbs 24:33

31 and there it was, overgrown with thorns, its surface covered with nettles, its stone wall broken down.

Cross References: Isaiah 5:6; Proverbs 24:30; Nehemiah 2:13

32 When I saw it, I considered it carefully;
I looked upon it and learned this lesson:

Cross References: Psalm 119:59; Proverbs 6:6; Haggai 1:5

33 A little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands to rest,

Cross References: Proverbs 6:10; Proverbs 20:13; Proverbs 24:34

34 and poverty will come upon you like a thief, and need like an armed man.

Cross References: Proverbs 6:11; Proverbs 20:13; Proverbs 23:21

Key Lessons from Proverbs 24

- Do not envy the wicked—their end is ruin, but wisdom builds a lasting life.
- True strength is shown in adversity; wisdom sustains when trouble comes.
- God holds us accountable to act when others face injustice or death.
- Wisdom is sweet like honey, bringing reward and lasting hope.
- The righteous may stumble often but always rise; the wicked fall into destruction.
- We must not rejoice at another’s downfall, for vengeance belongs to God.
- Justice must be impartial; honesty and truth are always blessed.
- Diligence builds security, while laziness leads to poverty and shame.

Proverbs 25 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Glory of God and the Wisdom of Kings”

Collected Proverbs of Solomon

1 These are also proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied down.

Cross References: 2 Kings 18:3; 2 Chronicles 29:2; 1 Kings 4:32

2 It is the glory of God to conceal a matter, but the honor of kings is to search it out.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 29:29; Romans 11:33; 1 Kings 10:1

3 As the heavens are high and the earth is deep, so the heart of kings cannot be fully searched.

Cross References: Isaiah 55:9; Job 11:7; Psalm 145:3

Purity and Righteous Leadership

4 Remove the dross from the silver, and a vessel will come forth for the silversmith.

Cross References: Isaiah 1:25; Malachi 3:3; Proverbs 17:3

5 Remove the wicked from before the king, and his throne will be established in righteousness.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:12; Proverbs 29:14; 2 Chronicles 19:6

Humility Before Greatness

6 Do not exalt yourself in the presence of the king, and do not stand in the place of the great.

Cross References: Luke 14:8; Proverbs 27:2; Proverbs 16:18

7 For it is better to be told, “Come up here,” than to be put lower in the presence of a noble.

Cross References: Luke 14:10; Luke 14:11; Proverbs 15:33

Caution in Disputes

8 Do not go hastily into a dispute, for what will you do in the end if your neighbor puts you to shame?

Cross References: Proverbs 17:14; Proverbs 14:29; James 1:19

9 Argue your case with your neighbor himself, and do not betray another’s secret,

Cross References: Matthew 18:15; Proverbs 11:13; Proverbs 20:19

10 lest the one who hears it shame you, and your bad reputation never go away.

Cross References: Proverbs 17:9; Proverbs 26:20; Psalm 15:3

Words of Wisdom and Reproof

11 A word spoken at the right time is like apples of gold in settings of silver.

Cross References: Proverbs 15:23; Ecclesiastes 12:11; Colossians 4:6

12 Like an earring of gold or an ornament of fine gold is a wise rebuke to an obedient ear.

Cross References: Proverbs 9:8; Proverbs 15:31; Proverbs 27:5

Faithfulness and False Promises

13 Like the coolness of snow at harvest time is a faithful messenger to those who send him;
he refreshes the soul of his masters.

Cross References: Proverbs 13:17; Proverbs 26:6; Proverbs 22:21

14 A man who boasts of gifts he does not give is like clouds and wind without rain.

Cross References: Jude 1:12; 2 Peter 2:17; Proverbs 20:6

Patience and Restraint

15 Through patience a ruler can be persuaded, and a gentle tongue can break a bone.

Cross References: Proverbs 15:1; Proverbs 16:14; Ecclesiastes 10:4

16 Have you found honey?
Eat only what you need, lest you be filled with it and vomit.

Cross References: Proverbs 25:27; Proverbs 23:8; Philippians 4:5

17 Seldom set foot in your neighbor's house, lest he become weary of you and hate you.

Cross References: Proverbs 27:14; 1 Thessalonians 4:11; Proverbs 27:10

False Witness and Broken Trust

18 A man who gives false testimony against his neighbor is like a war club, a sword, or a sharp arrow.

Cross References: Exodus 20:16; Psalm 57:4; Proverbs 24:28

19 Trusting in an unreliable person in a time of trouble is like a broken tooth or a dislocated foot.

Cross References: Jeremiah 17:5; Micah 7:5; Psalm 146:3

Misplaced Joy and True Kindness

20 Singing songs to a heavy heart is like taking away a garment in cold weather, or pouring vinegar on soda.

Cross References: Romans 12:15; Job 21:34; Ecclesiastes 3:4

21 If your enemy is hungry, give him food to eat;
if he is thirsty, give him water to drink.

Cross References: Romans 12:20; Exodus 23:4; Matthew 5:44

22 For in doing so, you will heap burning coals on his head, and the Lord will reward you.

Cross References: 2 Kings 6:22; 1 Samuel 24:17; Luke 6:35

Strife and Peace

23 The north wind drives away rain, and an angry look drives away a backbiting tongue.

Cross References: Proverbs 26:20; Proverbs 16:28; Ecclesiastes 10:20

24 It is better to live in the corner of a housetop than in a spacious house with a quarrelsome wife.

Cross References: Proverbs 21:9; Proverbs 21:19; Proverbs 27:15

Good News and Corruption

25 Like cold water to a thirsty soul is good news from a distant land.

Cross References: Genesis 45:27; Proverbs 15:30; Luke 2:10

26 A righteous man who gives way before the wicked is like a muddied spring or a polluted fountain.

Cross References: Ezekiel 34:18; James 3:11; Psalm 73:2

Moderation and Self-Control

27 It is not good to eat too much honey, nor is it honorable to seek one's own glory.

Cross References: Proverbs 25:16; Galatians 6:3; 2 Corinthians 10:18

28 A man without self-control is like a city broken down and without walls.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:32; Proverbs 29:11; Galatians 5:23

Key Lessons from Proverbs 25

- God hides mysteries that only He knows, but rulers are called to search out truth with wisdom.
- Leaders must remove wicked influences for righteousness to flourish.
- Humility before others brings honor, while self-promotion leads to shame.
- Disputes should be handled with care and directly, not with gossip or betrayal.
- Words spoken at the right time bring beauty and healing, while false promises destroy trust.
- Patience and gentleness have more power than harshness or force.
- True kindness, even toward enemies, honors God and brings blessing.
- Strife in the home destroys peace, but wisdom and restraint preserve harmony.
- The righteous must stand firm against corruption, for compromise weakens their witness.
- Self-control is essential; without it, life collapses like a city without defenses.

Proverbs 26 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Folly of Fools and the Danger of Deceit”

The Fool and His Dishonor

1 Like snow in summer or rain in harvest, so honor is not fitting for a fool.

Cross References: Proverbs 19:10; Proverbs 26:8; Ecclesiastes 10:6

2 Like a fluttering sparrow or a darting swallow, so a curse without cause will not land.

Cross References: Numbers 23:8; Proverbs 3:33; Deuteronomy 23:5

3 A whip is for the horse, a bridle for the donkey, and a rod for the back of fools.

Cross References: Proverbs 10:13; Proverbs 19:29; Psalm 32:9

How to Answer a Fool

4 Do not answer a fool according to his folly, or you will be like him yourself.

Cross References: Proverbs 26:5; Proverbs 29:9; Matthew 7:6

5 Answer a fool according to his folly, or he will be wise in his own eyes.

Cross References: Proverbs 26:4; Proverbs 26:12; Isaiah 5:21

Uselessness of a Fool's Words

6 Sending a message by the hand of a fool is like cutting off one's own feet and drinking violence.

Cross References: Proverbs 25:13; Proverbs 13:17; Proverbs 10:26

7 Like lame legs that hang limp, so is a proverb in the mouth of a fool.

Cross References: Proverbs 26:9; Job 13:5; Ecclesiastes 10:12

8 Giving honor to a fool is like tying a stone in a sling.

Cross References: Proverbs 26:1; Proverbs 3:35; 1 Samuel 25:25

9 Like a thorn in the hand of a drunkard, so is a proverb in the mouth of fools.

Cross References: Proverbs 26:7; Isaiah 28:7; Ecclesiastes 10:12

Repetition of Folly

10 The great God who formed all things repays both the fool and the transgressor.

Cross References: Job 34:11; Romans 2:6; Galatians 6:7

11 As a dog returns to its vomit, so a fool repeats his folly.

Cross References: 2 Peter 2:22; Proverbs 27:22; Proverbs 19:19 12 Do you see a man wise in his own eyes?

There is more hope for a fool than for him.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:7; Isaiah 5:21; Romans 12:16

The Sluggard's Excuses

13 The lazy man says,
"There is a lion in the road! A lion in the streets!"

Cross References: Proverbs 22:13; Proverbs 6:6; Proverbs 24:30

14 As a door turns on its hinges, so does the sluggard on his bed.

Cross References: Proverbs 6:9; Proverbs 24:33; Proverbs 20:13

15 The slothful buries his hand in the dish, yet it wearies him to bring it back to his mouth.

Cross References: Proverbs 19:24; Proverbs 12:27; Proverbs 21:25

16 The sluggard is wiser in his own eyes than seven men who can answer sensibly.

Cross References: Proverbs 26:12; Proverbs 12:15; 1 Corinthians 3:18

Meddling and Deceit

17 He who meddles in a quarrel not his own is like one who grabs a dog by the ears.

Cross References: Proverbs 20:3; Proverbs 17:14; Proverbs 3:30

18 Like a madman shooting firebrands, arrows, and death,

Cross References: Ephesians 5:4; Proverbs 10:23; James 3:6

19 so is the one who deceives his neighbor and says,
“I was only joking!”

Cross References: Leviticus 19:16; Proverbs 12:18; Ephesians 4:29

The Fuel of Strife

20 Without wood, a fire goes out; without a gossip, strife ceases.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:28; Proverbs 22:10; James 3:5

21 As charcoal to burning coals and wood to fire, so is a quarrelsome person for kindling strife.

Cross References: Proverbs 15:18; Proverbs 29:22; Proverbs 6:14

22 The words of a gossip are like tasty morsels;
they go down into the innermost parts.

Cross References: Proverbs 18:8; Proverbs 16:28; Psalm 55:21

Hypocrisy and Hatred

23 Burning lips with a wicked heart are like glazed pottery covered with silver dross.

Cross References: Matthew 23:27; Ezekiel 33:31; Proverbs 26:25

24 A hateful man disguises himself with his lips but harbors deceit in his heart.

Cross References: Psalm 55:21; Proverbs 10:18; Jeremiah 9:8

25 When he speaks graciously, do not believe him, for seven abominations are in his heart.

Cross References: Jeremiah 9:8; Matthew 7:15; Proverbs 26:24

26 Though his hatred is concealed by deception, his wickedness will be exposed in the assembly.

Cross References: Luke 8:17; Proverbs 10:18; Ecclesiastes 12:14

The End of Treachery

27 Whoever digs a pit will fall into it;
whoever rolls a stone, it will roll back on him.

Cross References: Psalm 7:15; Ecclesiastes 10:8; Psalm 9:15

28 A lying tongue hates its victims, and a flattering mouth works ruin.

Cross References: Proverbs 12:19; Psalm 12:3; Proverbs 29:5

Key Lessons from Proverbs 26

- Honor is wasted on fools who cannot use it rightly.
- Sometimes it is wise to ignore a fool, and at other times it is necessary to expose his folly so he is not deceived.
- Proverbs and wisdom lose their power in the mouth of a fool; they become dangerous instead of helpful.
- Fools repeat their sins like dogs returning to their vomit; pride blinds them even worse than folly.
- Laziness makes endless excuses, robs men of effort, and blinds them to truth.
- Meddling in quarrels not your own and joking with lies both bring destruction.
- Gossip fuels strife; silence and restraint bring peace.
- Hatred hides under smooth words, but God reveals it in time.
- Deceit and treachery backfire—the trap set for others will fall on the one who set it.

Proverbs 27 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Wisdom in Friendship, Work, and Contentment”

Boasting and Pride

1 Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring.

Cross References: James 4:14; Luke 12:20; Proverbs 16:9

2 Let someone else praise you, and not your own mouth;
a stranger, and not your own lips.

Cross References: Proverbs 25:6; 2 Corinthians 10:18; Luke 14:11

The Weight of Folly and Envy

3 A stone is heavy, and sand is burdensome, but a fool's anger is heavier than both.

Cross References: Job 6:3; Proverbs 12:16; Proverbs 27:4

4 Wrath is cruel, and anger overwhelming;
but who can stand against envy?

Cross References: Proverbs 6:34; James 3:16; Proverbs 14:30

Love, Rebuke, and Friendship

5 Open rebuke is better than hidden love.

Cross References: Proverbs 28:23; Leviticus 19:17; Galatians 2:11

6 Wounds from a friend can be trusted, but an enemy multiplies kisses.

Cross References: Psalm 141:5; Proverbs 28:23; Revelation 3:19

7 A satisfied soul loathes honey, but to a hungry soul, even bitter food is sweet.

Cross References: Job 6:7; Philippians 4:12; Proverbs 16:26

8 Like a bird that strays from her nest, so is a man who wanders from his home.

Cross References: Psalm 84:3; Genesis 4:14; Deuteronomy 28:65

9 Perfume and incense bring joy to the heart, and so does earnest counsel from a friend.

Cross References: Proverbs 15:30; Proverbs 16:24; Proverbs 24:26

10 Do not forsake your friend or your father's friend, and do not go to your brother's house in your day of trouble;
better a neighbor nearby than a brother far away.

Cross References: Proverbs 17:17; Proverbs 18:24; 1 Samuel 20:42

Wisdom and Prudence

11 Be wise, my son, and make my heart glad, so that I may answer him who reproaches me.

Cross References: Proverbs 23:15; Proverbs 10:1; Proverbs 29:3

12 The prudent see danger and take refuge, but the simple keep going and suffer for it.

Cross References: Proverbs 22:3; Proverbs 14:15; Proverbs 14:16

13 Take the garment of one who puts up security for a stranger;
hold it in pledge for a wayward woman.

Cross References: Proverbs 20:16; Proverbs 11:15; Proverbs 6:1

The Annoyance of Foolishness

14 If a man blesses his neighbor loudly early in the morning, it will be taken as a curse.

Cross References: Proverbs 25:20; Ecclesiastes 5:2; Matthew 6:2

15 A quarrelsome wife is like a constant dripping on a rainy day;

Cross References: Proverbs 19:13; Proverbs 21:9; Proverbs 21:19

16 restraining her is like restraining the wind or grasping oil with the hand.

Cross References: Proverbs 21:19; Proverbs 25:23; Proverbs 30:23

The Value of True Companionship

17 Iron sharpens iron, so one man sharpens another.

Cross References: Hebrews 10:24; Ecclesiastes 4:9; Proverbs 13:20 18 Whoever tends the fig tree will eat its fruit, and whoever serves his master will be honored.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 9:7; Matthew 25:21; 2 Timothy 2:6

19 As water reflects the face, so one's life reflects the heart.

Cross References: James 1:23; 1 Corinthians 13:12; Romans 12:15

Greed and Discontent

20 Death and destruction are never satisfied, and neither are the eyes of man.

Cross References: Proverbs 30:15; Ecclesiastes 1:8; Habakkuk 2:5

21 The crucible for silver and the furnace for gold, but a man is tested by the praise he receives.

Cross References: Proverbs 17:3; 1 Peter 1:7; Proverbs 27:2

22 Though you grind a fool in a mortar with a pestle, his foolishness will not leave him.

Cross References: Proverbs 26:11; Jeremiah 13:23; Isaiah 1:5

The Care of Work and Provision

23 Be diligent to know the condition of your flocks, and give careful attention to your herds;

Cross References: Genesis 33:13; Luke 2:8; 1 Peter 5:2

24 for riches do not last forever, and a crown is not secure for all generations.

Cross References: Proverbs 23:5; Psalm 49:17; Matthew 6:19

25 When the hay is gone and new growth appears, and the grass from the hills is gathered in,

Cross References: Psalm 104:14; Isaiah 40:6; Psalm 147:8

26 the lambs will provide you with clothing, and the goats with the price of a field.

Cross References: Genesis 30:32; Job 1:3; Deuteronomy 8:13

27 You will have plenty of goats' milk to feed you and your family, and to nourish your servant girls.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:14; Proverbs 31:15; 1 Timothy 5:8

Key Lessons from Proverbs 27

- Tomorrow is uncertain; humility guards us against pride and presumption.
- True love corrects openly, while false affection deceives with flattery.
- Friendship is strengthened through honest counsel and mutual sharpening, like iron against iron.
- Prudence prepares for danger, while folly walks into ruin unguarded.
- Contentiousness in the home destroys peace, but wisdom builds stability.
- Human desire is never satisfied apart from God; envy and greed lead to endless emptiness.
- Work diligently and care for what God has entrusted to you; wise stewardship brings lasting provision.
- Reputation is tested by praise, and character is revealed in how we respond to it.

Proverbs 28 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Boldness of the Righteous and the Folly of the Wicked”

Righteousness Gives Courage

1 The wicked flee when no one pursues, but the righteous are as bold as a lion.

Cross References: Leviticus 26:36; Proverbs 14:26; Psalm 27:1

2 When a land transgresses, it has many rulers, but with a man of understanding and knowledge, stability endures.

Cross References: Hosea 8:4; Isaiah 3:4; Ecclesiastes 10:16

3 A poor man who oppresses the poor is like a driving rain that leaves no food.

Cross References: Proverbs 22:16; James 2:6; Proverbs 30:14

Keeping the Law vs. Forsaking It

4 Those who forsake the law praise the wicked, but those who keep the law oppose them.

Cross References: Psalm 119:53; Romans 1:32; Psalm 119:126

5 Evil men do not understand justice, but those who seek the Lord understand all things.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 2:14; Psalm 82:5; John 7:17

6 Better is a poor man who walks in integrity than a rich man whose ways are crooked.

Cross References: Proverbs 19:1; Proverbs 16:8; Psalm 37:16

7 A wise son keeps the law,
but a companion of gluttons shames his father.

Cross References: Proverbs 29:3; Luke 15:13; Proverbs 23:20

8 Whoever increases wealth by interest and unjust gain gathers it for one who will be kind to the poor.

Cross References: Exodus 22:25; Leviticus 25:36; Ezekiel 18:8

9 If anyone turns away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer is detestable.

Cross References: Proverbs 15:8; Psalm 66:18; Isaiah 1:15

Justice, Wealth, and Leadership

10 Whoever leads the upright into evil paths will fall into his own pit, but the blameless will inherit what is good.

Cross References: Proverbs 26:27; Psalm 7:16; Matthew 18:6

11 The rich man is wise in his own eyes, but the poor with discernment sees through him.

Cross References: Proverbs 26:12; 1 Corinthians 1:27; James 2:5

12 When the righteous triumph, there is great glory, but when the wicked rise, people hide themselves.

Cross References: Proverbs 11:10; Proverbs 29:2; Job 22:19

Mercy and Confession

13 Whoever conceals his sins will not prosper, but whoever confesses and forsakes them will find mercy.

Cross References: 1 John 1:9; Psalm 32:5; Isaiah 55:7

14 Blessed is the one who always fears the Lord, but whoever hardens his heart will fall into calamity.

Cross References: Proverbs 14:16; Hebrews 3:13; Exodus 8:15

15 Like a roaring lion or a charging bear is a wicked ruler over poor people.

Cross References: 1 Peter 5:8; Proverbs 28:16; Ezekiel 22:27

16 A ruler without understanding is a great oppressor, but one who hates covetousness will prolong his days.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 5:8; Exodus 18:21; Proverbs 29:4

17 A man guilty of shedding blood will flee into the pit;
let no one support him.

Cross References: Genesis 4:14; Genesis 9:6; Numbers 35:31 18 Whoever walks in integrity will be kept safe, but whoever is crooked will suddenly fall.

Cross References: Proverbs 10:9; Proverbs 28:6; Psalm 15:2

Diligence and Contentment

19 He who works his land will have plenty of bread, but he who chases fantasies will have plenty of poverty.

Cross References: Proverbs 12:11; Proverbs 14:23; Proverbs 20:13

20 A faithful man will abound with blessings, but whoever hastens to be rich will not go unpunished.

Cross References: Proverbs 13:11; 1 Timothy 6:9; Proverbs 20:21

21 Showing partiality is not good;
yet for a piece of bread, a man may do wrong.

Cross References: Leviticus 19:15; James 2:9; Proverbs 24:23

22 A man with an evil eye hastens after wealth and does not realize that poverty will overtake him.

Cross References: Proverbs 23:6; Ecclesiastes 5:10; Proverbs 28:20

Rebuke and Flattery

23 Whoever rebukes a man will afterward find more favor than one who flatters with the tongue.

Cross References: Proverbs 27:5; Psalm 141:5; Galatians 4:16

24 Whoever robs his father or mother and says,
“It is no wrong,” is a companion to a destroyer.

Cross References: Exodus 20:12; Proverbs 19:26; Proverbs 20:20

Trusting God vs. Trusting Self

25 A greedy man stirs up strife, but the one who trusts in the Lord will prosper.

Cross References: Proverbs 13:10; Psalm 37:5; Isaiah 26:3

26 He who trusts in his own heart is a fool, but whoever walks in wisdom will be delivered.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:5; Jeremiah 17:9; Psalm 37:3

27 He who gives to the poor will lack nothing, but he who closes his eyes to them will receive many curses.

Cross References: Proverbs 19:17; Deuteronomy 15:7; 2 Corinthians 9:6

28 When the wicked rise, people hide themselves; but when they perish, the righteous flourish.

Cross References: Proverbs 28:12; Proverbs 29:2; Psalm 12:8

Key Lessons from Proverbs 28

- Righteousness brings boldness, while wickedness creates fear.
- Justice and stability come through wisdom, not corruption.
- Wealth gained unjustly will not last; it ultimately benefits the righteous and merciful.
- Concealing sin brings ruin, but confession and repentance bring mercy.
- Wicked rulers oppress, but leaders who hate greed bring stability.
- Diligence produces provision, but laziness and fantasies lead to poverty.
- Flattery is shallow; honest rebuke builds lasting respect.
- Trusting in one's own heart is folly; true safety is found in walking with God's wisdom.
- Generosity to the poor brings blessing, but ignoring them invites curses.

- Wicked rulers bring fear and hiding, but when they fall, righteousness increases in the land.

Proverbs 29 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Righteous Leadership and the Folly of Pride”

The Danger of Hard Hearts

1 He who is often reproved yet hardens his neck will suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

Cross References: Proverbs 1:25; 2 Chronicles 36:16; Hebrews 3:15

2 When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice, but when the wicked rule, the people mourn.

Cross References: Proverbs 28:12; Proverbs 11:10; Ecclesiastes 10:16

3 Whoever loves wisdom brings joy to his father, but a companion of prostitutes squanders his wealth.

Cross References: Proverbs 10:1; Luke 15:13; Proverbs 6:26

Justice and Leadership

4 By justice a king gives stability to the land, but one who takes bribes tears it down.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:12; Exodus 23:8; Isaiah 1:23

5 A man who flatters his neighbor spreads a net for his feet.

Cross References: Proverbs 26:28; Proverbs 20:19; Psalm 12:2

6 By the sins of the wicked there is a snare, but the righteous sing and rejoice.

Cross References: Proverbs 12:13; Psalm 9:16; Psalm 32:11

7 The righteous care about justice for the poor, but the wicked have no concern.

Cross References: Job 29:16; Proverbs 31:9; Jeremiah 5:28

8 Mockers stir up a city,
but the wise turn away wrath.

Cross References: Proverbs 11:11; Proverbs 15:1; 2 Samuel 20:22

9 If a wise man goes to court with a fool, whether the fool rages or laughs, there is no peace.

Cross References: Proverbs 26:4; Proverbs 9:7; 2 Timothy 2:23

10 Bloodthirsty men hate those who are upright, but the righteous seek to protect their life.

Cross References: Psalm 37:32; 1 John 3:12; Genesis 4:8

11 A fool vents all his feelings, but a wise man quietly holds them back.

Cross References: Proverbs 12:16; Proverbs 17:27; James 1:19

12 If a ruler listens to lies,
all his officials become corrupt.

Cross References: Proverbs 25:5; Exodus 23:1; 1 Kings 22:8

13 The poor and the oppressor have this in common:
the Lord gives light to the eyes of both.

Cross References: Proverbs 22:2; Job 34:19; Matthew 5:45

14 A king who faithfully judges the poor, his throne will be established forever.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:12; Psalm 72:2; Isaiah 16:5

Discipline and Vision

15 The rod of correction imparts wisdom, but a child left undisciplined brings shame to his mother.

Cross References: Proverbs 22:15; Proverbs 13:24; Proverbs 19:18

16 When the wicked increase, sin multiplies, but the righteous will see their downfall.

Cross References: Psalm 92:7; Ecclesiastes 8:12; Job 20:5

17 Discipline your son, and he will give you peace;
he will bring delight to your soul.

Cross References: Proverbs 29:15; Proverbs 22:6; Proverbs 23:24

18 Where there is no vision, the people cast off restraint;
but blessed is he who keeps the law.

Cross References: Amos 8:11; 1 Samuel 3:1; Luke 11:28

19 A servant cannot be corrected by mere words; though he understands, he will not respond.

Cross References: Proverbs 17:10; Colossians 3:22; Ephesians 6:5

Pride, Anger, and Fear

20 Do you see a man hasty in his words?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.

Cross References: Proverbs 18:13; Ecclesiastes 5:2; Proverbs 15:28

21 If a servant is pampered from youth, he will expect to be treated as a son.

Cross References: Galatians 4:1; Colossians 4:1; Proverbs 17:2

22 An angry man stirs up strife, and a hot-tempered man commits many sins.

Cross References: Proverbs 15:18; Proverbs 22:24; James 1:20

23 A man's pride will bring him low, but the humble in spirit will receive honor.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:18; James 4:10; 1 Peter 5:5

Justice Belongs to the Lord

24 Whoever is a partner with a thief hates his own life;
he hears the oath in court but tells nothing.

Cross References: Leviticus 5:1; Psalm 50:18; Proverbs 1:14

25 The fear of man lays a snare, but whoever trusts in the Lord is kept safe.

Cross References: Psalm 118:6; Isaiah 51:12; Galatians 1:10

26 Many seek the favor of a ruler, but justice for each person comes from the Lord.

Cross References: Psalm 62:11; Romans 13:1; Daniel 2:21

27 The unjust are detestable to the righteous, and those who live uprightly are detestable to the wicked.

Cross References: Proverbs 24:9; Amos 5:10; John 3:20

Key Lessons from Proverbs 29

- A hardened heart that resists correction will eventually face destruction.
- Righteous leaders bring joy and stability, but wicked rulers bring mourning.
- Justice is essential for good leadership; bribery, lies, and flattery corrupt.
- True wisdom disciplines children, giving peace and joy to parents.
- Without God's vision and law, society falls into chaos.
- Pride brings downfall, but humility brings honor.
- The fear of man leads to traps, but trusting in the Lord brings safety.

- The righteous and the wicked cannot coexist in harmony; their values oppose one another.

“The Sayings of Agur”

Agur’s Confession of Ignorance

1 The words of Agur son of Jakeh, the prophecy.

The man declared to Ithiel and to Ucal:

Cross References: Proverbs 31:1; Numbers 24:3; Jeremiah 1:1

2 “Surely I am more foolish than any man, and I have no understanding.

Cross References: Psalm 73:22; Psalm 92:6; Job 42:3

3 I have not learned wisdom, nor do I know the Holy One.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 1:25; Job 38:2; Isaiah 40:14

4 Who has gone up to heaven and come down?

Who has gathered the wind in his fists?

Who has wrapped up the waters in a garment?

Who has established all the ends of the earth?

What is His name, and what is His Son’s name—if you know?”

Cross References: John 3:13; Job 38:4; Isaiah 40:12

The Purity of God’s Word

5 Every word of God is flawless;

He is a shield to those who take refuge in Him.

Cross References: Psalm 18:30; Psalm 12:6; 2 Samuel 22:31

6 Do not add to His words, or He will rebuke you and prove you a liar.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 4:2; Revelation 22:18; Deuteronomy 12:32

Agur’s Prayer for Balance

7 Two things I ask of You, O Lord;

do not deny them to me before I die:

Cross References: Psalm 27:4; 1 Kings 3:5; Matthew 7:7

8 Remove falsehood and lies far from me;

give me neither poverty nor riches,

but give me only my daily bread.

Cross References: Matthew 6:11; 1 Timothy 6:8; Job 31:24

9 Otherwise, I may have too much and deny You, saying, “Who is the Lord?”
Or I may become poor and steal, and dishonor the name of my God.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 8:17; Deuteronomy 32:15; Hosea 13:6

Generations of Evil

10 Do not slander a servant to his master, or he will curse you, and you will be found guilty.

Cross References: Philemon 1:18; Deuteronomy 23:15; Exodus 20:16

11 There is a generation that curses its father and does not bless its mother.

Cross References: Exodus 21:17; Deuteronomy 27:16; Matthew 15:4

12 There is a generation that is pure in its own eyes, yet is not cleansed from its filth.

Cross References: Proverbs 20:9; Isaiah 65:5; 1 John 1:8

13 There is a generation—how arrogant are their eyes!
Their eyelids are lifted up in pride.

Cross References: Proverbs 6:17; Psalm 131:1; Isaiah 2:11

14 There is a generation whose teeth are swords and whose jaws are like knives, to devour the poor from the earth and the needy from among men.

Cross References: Psalm 57:4; Psalm 14:4; Amos 8:4

Things That Never Say “Enough”

15 The leech has two daughters: “Give! Give!”
There are three things that are never satisfied, four that never say, “Enough!”:

Cross References: Habakkuk 2:5; Ecclesiastes 1:8; Ecclesiastes 5:10 16 the grave, the barren womb, the land never satisfied with water, and fire that never says, “Enough!”

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 1:7; Isaiah 5:14; Job 26:6

17 The eye that mocks a father and scorns obedience to a mother—

the ravens of the valley will pick it out, and the young eagles will eat it.

Cross References: Proverbs 20:20; Deuteronomy 21:18; Proverbs 30:11

Things Too Wonderful

18 There are three things too wonderful for me, four I do not understand:

Cross References: Job 5:9; Psalm 139:6; Deuteronomy 29:29

19 the way of an eagle in the sky, the way of a serpent on a rock,
the way of a ship on the high seas,
and the way of a man with a young woman.

Cross References: Job 39:27; Job 38:16; Genesis 24:67

20 Such is the way of an adulterous woman:
she eats, wipes her mouth, and says,
“I have done no wrong.”

Cross References: Proverbs 2:17; Jeremiah 3:3; Proverbs 5:6

Things the Earth Cannot Bear

21 Under three things the earth trembles, under four it cannot endure:

Cross References: Amos 7:10; Isaiah 24:20; Job 9:6

22 a servant when he becomes king, a fool when he is filled with food,

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 10:7; Proverbs 19:10; Ecclesiastes 10:6

23 a hated woman when she gets married, and a maidservant who displaces her mistress.

Cross References: Genesis 16:4; Genesis 30:15; Deuteronomy 21:15

Small but Wise Creatures

24 Four things on earth are small, yet they are exceedingly wise:

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 1:27; Matthew 11:25; Psalm 8:2

25 Ants are not strong, yet they store up food in the summer.

Cross References: Proverbs 6:6; Proverbs 10:5; Genesis 41:35

26 Rock badgers are feeble, yet they make their homes in the cliffs.

Cross References: Psalm 104:18; Jeremiah 49:16; Obadiah 1:3

27 Locusts have no king,
yet they advance together in ranks.

Cross References: Exodus 10:4; Joel 2:7; Judges 6:5

28 A spider can be caught with the hands, yet it is found in kings' palaces.

Cross References: Job 8:14; Isaiah 59:5; Psalm 84:3

Things That Walk with Majesty

29 There are three things that move with stately stride, four that are impressive in their walk:

Cross References: Job 39:19; Nahum 2:11; Psalm 19:5

30 a lion, mighty among beasts, who turns aside before none;

Cross References: Job 4:11; Judges 14:18; Revelation 5:5

31 a strutting rooster, a male goat, and a king secure against revolt.

Cross References: Daniel 8:5; 1 Samuel 24:14; Psalm 2:2

Restraining Pride and Wrath

32 If you have been foolish in exalting yourself, or if you have plotted evil,
put your hand over your mouth.

Cross References: Job 40:4; Job 21:5; Micah 7:16

33 For as churning milk produces butter, and twisting the nose produces blood, so stirring up anger produces strife.

Key Lessons from Proverbs 30

- Human wisdom is limited; only God and His Son have full authority over creation.
- God's Word is flawless and must not be twisted or added to.
- True wisdom seeks balance: neither poverty nor riches, but daily dependence on God.
- Pride, arrogance, and disregard for parents are hallmarks of a corrupt generation.

- Certain forces in creation—like death, fire, and desire—are never satisfied, warning us against greed and lust.
- God teaches through small creatures: ants show foresight, rock badgers find security, locusts act in unity, and even the spider shows persistence.
- Majesty is seen in courage, strength, and authority rightly exercised.
- Pride and anger must be restrained, for they always bring conflict and strife.

29 “Many women do noble things, but you surpass them all.”

Cross References: 1 Peter 3:6; Hebrews 11:11; Judges 5:24

30 Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting;
but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised.

Cross References: 1 Peter 3:4; 1 Timothy 2:9; Proverbs 11:22

31 Honor her for all that her hands have done, and let her works bring her praise at the city gates.

Cross References: 1 Timothy 5:10; Matthew 25:21; Revelation 14:13

Key Lessons from Proverbs 31

- Godly instruction often begins at home; wise mothers pass down truth to their children.
- Leaders must avoid destructive indulgence—such as drunkenness—and instead defend justice for the poor and voiceless.
- A virtuous woman is of greater value than wealth; her character, diligence, and wisdom enrich her entire household.
- True beauty is not outward appearance but the fear of the Lord, which endures forever.
- A woman who faithfully serves her family, community, and God will be honored not only by her loved ones but also by her works that testify of her.

Introduction to the Book of Ecclesiastes

“Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher, vanity of vanities; all is vanity.” – Ecclesiastes 1:2

Title and Meaning

The title Ecclesiastes comes from the Greek word ekklesiastes, meaning “Preacher” or “Teacher,” derived from ekklesia (“assembly” or “gathering”). In Hebrew, the book is titled Qoheleth, which also means “one who calls or gathers,” often translated as “the Preacher.” Ecclesiastes is a book of reflection and philosophy, wrestling with the meaning of life, death, and the human pursuit of purpose “under the sun.”

Author and Date

Traditionally attributed to King Solomon, son of David, Ecclesiastes is believed to have been written late in his life, after he had experienced wealth, power, pleasure, and wisdom in abundance. The tone suggests the reflections of an older man looking back at life’s fleeting nature. Scholars generally date it to the 10th century BC, though some suggest later editorial shaping. Regardless, its divine inspiration and timeless message remain clear.

Purpose of Ecclesiastes

Ecclesiastes confronts life’s deepest questions and exposes the futility of living apart from God. It teaches us:

- That human pursuits—wealth, pleasure, knowledge, and labor—are fleeting and cannot bring lasting satisfaction.
- That life is short, unpredictable, and full of vanity when seen only from an earthly perspective.
- That true joy is found in simple gifts from God—work, food, relationships, and daily blessings.
- That ultimate meaning and fulfillment come only through fearing God and keeping His commandments (12:13).

Structure of Ecclesiastes

The book flows like a journal of reflections, mixing poetry, proverbs, and philosophy. 1. The Futility of Life Under the Sun (Ch. 1–2)

- Life’s cycles and human pursuits end in emptiness. 2. A Time for Everything (Ch. 3–6)
- Seasons of life are beyond human control, yet God has a purpose in all. 3. The Limits of Human Wisdom (Ch. 7–11)
- Wisdom helps, but cannot solve life’s ultimate mysteries. 4. The Conclusion of the Matter (Ch. 12)
- Youth and old age are contrasted. The final word: fear God and obey Him.

Major Themes

- Vanity and Brevity of Life: Life is like a vapor—temporary and elusive.
- Life Under the Sun: A phrase describing human existence apart from God’s eternal perspective.
- The Gift of God: Joy is found in receiving life’s blessings as gifts from God, not as idols.
- The Fear of the Lord: Reverence for God is the only anchor in a fleeting world.
- The Certainty of Death: Both the wise and foolish die—so true meaning must go beyond this life.

Why Ecclesiastes Matters Today

Ecclesiastes speaks powerfully to our modern age of wealth, entertainment, and constant pursuit of “more.” It reminds us that careers, possessions, pleasures, and even knowledge cannot satisfy the human heart. In a world filled with anxiety and despair, the book calls us to find stability, peace, and meaning in God alone. It prepares the way for Christ, who gives eternal significance to our labor and joy through His resurrection.

Key Verse

“Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.” – Ecclesiastes 12:13

This verse captures the message of Ecclesiastes: everything else is vanity apart from living in reverence to God.

Ecclesiastes 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Life’s Fleeting Nature Under the Sun”

The Words of the Preacher

1 These are the words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.

Cross References: 1 Kings 4:32; Proverbs 1:1; 2 Chronicles 9:22

2 “Vanity of vanities,” says the Preacher.

“Utterly meaningless—everything is meaningless.”

Cross References: Psalm 39:5; Psalm 144:4; James 4:14

3 What does a person gain from all the work they do under the sun?

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 2:22; Job 7:1; 1 Timothy 6:7

The Cycles of Creation

4 One generation passes away, and another comes, but the earth remains forever.

Cross References: Psalm 104:5; Psalm 102:26; 1 Peter 1:24

5 The sun rises, the sun sets, and hurries back to where it rises again.

Cross References: Psalm 19:5; Psalm 113:3; Malachi 4:2

6 The wind blows south, then turns north; round and round it goes, ever returning on its course.

Cross References: John 3:8; Amos 4:13; Ecclesiastes 11:5

7 All the rivers flow into the sea, yet the sea is never full.
The waters return again to the rivers' source.

Cross References: Job 38:8; Psalm 104:25; Psalm 33:7

The Weariness of Life

8 Everything is wearisome, more than words can express.
The eye is never satisfied with seeing,
and the ear is never filled with hearing.

Cross References: Proverbs 27:20; 1 John 2:16; Ecclesiastes 6:7

9 What has been will be again, what has been done will be done again;
there is nothing truly new under the sun.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 3:15; Isaiah 43:19; Revelation 21:5

10 Is there anything of which one can say,
“Look, this is new”?
It has already existed in ages past.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 1:9; Lamentations 3:23; 2 Corinthians 5:17

11 People don't remember what happened before, and future generations will not remember what happens after them.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 2:16; Ecclesiastes 9:5; Psalm 103:15

The Preacher's Quest for Wisdom

12 I, the Preacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem.

Cross References: 1 Kings 4:1; 1 Kings 11:42; Nehemiah 13:26

13 I applied myself fully to seek and to explore by wisdom all that is done under heaven.

It is a heavy burden God has laid on mankind to keep them occupied.

Cross References: 1 Kings 3:9; 1 Kings 4:29; Proverbs 2:3

14 I have seen all the works done under the sun;
and behold, everything is meaningless,
a chasing after the wind.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 2:11; Romans 8:20; Psalm 78:33

15 What is crooked cannot be made straight;
what is lacking cannot be counted.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 7:13; Job 12:14; Isaiah 40:4

16 I said to myself,
“Look, I have grown great and gained more wisdom than all who ruled Jerusalem before me;
my mind has experienced much wisdom and knowledge.”

Cross References: 1 Kings 3:12; 1 Kings 10:23; 2 Chronicles 1:12

17 Then I applied myself to know wisdom, as well as madness and folly.
But I realized that this too is like chasing the wind.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 2:12; Ecclesiastes 7:25; Proverbs 1:2

18 For with much wisdom comes much sorrow;
the more knowledge, the more grief.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 2:23; Job 5:7; 1 Corinthians 8:1

Key Lessons from Ecclesiastes 1

- Life without God is empty: All human effort “under the sun” cannot bring lasting fulfillment.
- The cycles of creation reveal man’s smallness: Nature continues in endless repetition, while human life is fleeting.
- There is nothing truly new under the sun: Technology and culture may change, but the human heart and its struggles remain the same.
- Wisdom has limits: Knowledge apart from God leads not to peace but to frustration and grief.
- True meaning is found only in God: Without Him, everything is like chasing the wind.

Ecclesiastes 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Search for Pleasure, Work, and Wisdom”

The Pursuit of Pleasure

1 I said in my heart, “Come now, I will test you with pleasure. Enjoy yourself!”
But behold, this too was meaningless.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 2:11; Luke 12:19; 1 Peter 4:3

2 I said of laughter, “It is madness,” and of pleasure, “What good does it bring?”

Cross References: Proverbs 14:13; Ecclesiastes 7:6; James 4:9

3 I tried cheering myself with wine, while still guiding myself with wisdom.
I wanted to experience foolishness, to see what was worthwhile for people to do under heaven during the few days of their lives.

Cross References: Proverbs 20:1; Ecclesiastes 9:7; Isaiah 5:11

The Works of the Preacher

4 I undertook great projects:
I built houses for myself and planted vineyards.

Cross References: 1 Kings 9:1; 2 Chronicles 8:1; Deuteronomy 8:12

5 I made gardens and parks and planted all kinds of fruit trees in them.

Cross References: Genesis 2:8; 1 Kings 4:33; 2 Chronicles 26:10

6 I made pools of water to irrigate a forest of growing trees.

Cross References: Nehemiah 2:14; Nehemiah 3:15; Isaiah 22:11

7 I bought male and female servants and had others born in my house.
I also owned herds and flocks more than anyone in Jerusalem before me.

Cross References: Genesis 12:16; Genesis 26:14; 1 Kings 4:23

8 I amassed silver and gold for myself,
the treasure of kings and provinces.
I acquired men and women singers, and the delights of the sons of men—musical instruments of all kinds.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:14; 2 Chronicles 9:20; 1 Chronicles 25:1

9 I became greater and wealthier than all who were before me in Jerusalem, yet my wisdom stayed with me.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:23; 2 Chronicles 1:1; 2 Chronicles 9:22

10 Whatever my eyes desired I did not deny them.
I refused my heart no pleasure.
My heart found delight in all my work, and this was the reward for all my labor.

Cross References: Job 31:1; Numbers 15:39; 1 John 2:16

11 Yet when I looked at all I had achieved and the work I had done, behold, everything was meaningless—
a chasing after the wind.
There was no profit under the sun.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 1:14; Ecclesiastes 2:17; Romans 8:20

The Limits of Wisdom

12 Then I turned to consider wisdom, and also madness and folly.
For what can anyone do who comes after the king?
Only what has already been done.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 1:9; 1 Kings 3:12; Ecclesiastes 2:19

13 I saw that wisdom is better than folly, just as light is better than darkness.

Cross References: Proverbs 4:18; John 1:5; Ephesians 5:8

14 The wise have eyes in their heads, but fools walk in darkness.
Yet I came to realize that the same fate overtakes them both.

Cross References: Proverbs 17:24; Ecclesiastes 9:2; Hebrews 9:27

15 Then I said in my heart,
“If the fool’s end will be my end also, what have I gained by being wise?”
This too is meaningless.

Cross References: Psalm 49:10; Job 21:23; Ecclesiastes 2:16

16 For the wise, like the fool, will not be remembered forever.
In the days to come, both will be forgotten.

Like the fool, the wise must also die.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 1:11; Ecclesiastes 9:5; Job 3:19

The Burden of Labor

17 So I hated life, because the work done under the sun was grievous to me.
Everything is meaningless,
a chasing after the wind.

Cross References: Job 7:16; Job 10:1; Philippians 1:21

18 I hated all the things I had worked for under the sun, because I must leave them to the one who comes after me.

Cross References: Psalm 39:6; Ecclesiastes 6:2; Luke 12:20 19 And who knows whether he will be wise or foolish?

Yet he will have control over all the fruit of my labor into which I poured my wisdom under the sun.
This too is meaningless.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 2:21; Job 27:17; Psalm 49:10

20 So my heart began to despair over all my toilsome labor under the sun.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 2:11; Job 7:3; 2 Corinthians 4:8

21 For a man may labor with wisdom, knowledge, and skill, and then leave it all to someone who has not worked for it.
This also is meaningless and a great evil.

Cross References: Proverbs 13:22; Job 27:16; Ecclesiastes 5:14

22 What does a man gain from all the toil and anxious striving with which he labors under the sun?

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 1:3; Ecclesiastes 3:9; Mark 8:36

23 All his days are filled with pain, and grief occupies his work.
Even at night his heart finds no rest.
This too is meaningless.

Cross References: Job 5:7; Job 14:1; Psalm 90:10

The Gift from God

24 There is nothing better for a man than to eat, drink, and find satisfaction in his work.
This too, I saw, comes from the hand of God.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 3:13; Ecclesiastes 5:18; 1 Corinthians 10:31

25 For who can eat, or who can find enjoyment, apart from Him?

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 2:10; 1 Kings 3:13; Philippians 4:12

26 To the one who pleases Him,
God gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy.
But to the sinner He gives the burden of gathering and storing up wealth to hand it over to the one who pleases God.
This too is meaningless,
a chasing after the wind.

Cross References: Proverbs 28:8; Daniel 2:21; James 4:14

Key Lessons from Ecclesiastes 2

- Pleasure without God is empty: Entertainment, wealth, and indulgence cannot bring lasting joy.
- Work cannot satisfy the soul: Even great accomplishments fade when one realizes they must be left to others.
- Wisdom is better than folly, but limited: Though wisdom excels over foolishness, both the wise and the fool share the same end—death.
- Labor brings grief without God: Without Him, work only leads to frustration, sleepless nights, and despair.
- True joy comes from God: Satisfaction in life is not found in possessions or projects, but in receiving food, drink, work, and joy as gifts from God.

Ecclesiastes 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Time for Everything Under Heaven”

A Time for Every Purpose

1 To everything there is a season, a time for every purpose under heaven:

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 8:6; Galatians 4:4; Acts 1:7

2 A time to be born and a time to die,
a time to plant and a time to uproot,

Cross References: Job 14:5; Psalm 90:10; Jeremiah 1:10

3 A time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build up,

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:39; Hosea 6:1; 2 Kings 20:5

4 A time to weep and a time to laugh,
a time to mourn and a time to dance,

Cross References: Romans 12:15; Luke 6:21; Psalm 30:11

5 A time to scatter stones and a time to gather them, a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing,

Cross References: 2 Kings 3:25; Genesis 33:4; 1 Corinthians 7:5

6 A time to seek and a time to lose, a time to keep and a time to throw away,

Cross References: Matthew 16:25; Philippians 3:8; Job 1:21

7 A time to tear and a time to mend,
a time to be silent and a time to speak,

Cross References: Joel 2:13; Proverbs 17:28; Ecclesiastes 5:2

8 A time to love and a time to hate, a time for war and a time for peace.

Cross References: 1 John 4:8; Psalm 120:7; Matthew 5:9

The Work of God's Hand

9 What do workers gain from their toil?

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 1:3; Ecclesiastes 5:16; Mark 8:36

10 I have seen the burden God has placed on mankind.

Cross References: Genesis 3:19; Ecclesiastes 1:13; Job 5:7

11 He has made everything beautiful in its time.
He has also set eternity in the human heart, yet no one can fully grasp what God has done from beginning to end.

Cross References: Romans 8:28; Habakkuk 2:3; Romans 11:33

12 I know that there is nothing better for people than to rejoice and do good while they live.

Cross References: Philippians 4:4; Deuteronomy 12:7; Nehemiah 8:10

13 That each of them may eat and drink and find satisfaction in all their labor—
this is the gift of God.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 2:24; 1 Timothy 6:17; James 1:17

14 I know that everything God does will endure forever.
Nothing can be added to it and nothing taken from it.
God does this so that people will fear Him.

Cross References: Numbers 23:19; Psalm 33:11; Psalm 33:8

15 Whatever is has already been,
and what will be has been before;
and God will call the past into account.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 1:9; Ecclesiastes 6:10; Isaiah 46:9

God's Judgment and Human Frailty

16 Moreover, I saw under the sun that in the place of judgment, wickedness was there;
and in the place of righteousness, even there was wickedness.

Cross References: Isaiah 5:7; Amos 5:7; Micah 3:9

17 I said in my heart, "God will judge the righteous and the wicked, for there is a time appointed for every purpose and every work."

Cross References: Psalm 96:13; Acts 17:31; Romans 2:16

18 I also said in my heart,
"God tests the hearts of men so that they may see they are but like the beasts."

Cross References: Psalm 49:12; Psalm 73:22; 2 Peter 2:12

19 For what happens to people also happens to animals—one dies just like the other.
They all have the same breath;
so man has no advantage over the beast.
All is vanity.

Cross References: Psalm 49:20; Psalm 39:5; Ecclesiastes 2:14

20 All go to the same place;
all come from the dust,
and to dust all return.

Cross References: Genesis 3:19; Job 34:15; Psalm 104:29

21 Who knows if the spirit of man rises upward and if the spirit of the beast goes down into the earth?

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 12:7; Job 34:14; Zechariah 12:1

22 So I concluded that there is nothing better for a man than to rejoice in his work, for that is his portion.

For who can bring him to see what will happen after him?

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 2:24; Ecclesiastes 5:18; Ecclesiastes 6:12

Key Lessons from Ecclesiastes 3

- Life is seasonal: God has appointed a time for everything—joy and sorrow, peace and conflict, gain and loss. Nothing lasts forever except God’s purposes.
- God’s work is eternal: While life feels fleeting and mysterious, God’s plans endure forever and are always fitting in their time.
- Enjoy God’s gifts: Food, drink, work, and simple joys are blessings from His hand. They are to be received with gratitude.
- God will judge: Though injustice is often seen on earth, God will judge both the righteous and the wicked at His appointed time.
- Human mortality humbles us: Like animals, all return to the dust. Without God, life is meaningless, but with Him, our labor gains eternal significance.

Ecclesiastes 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Vanity of Oppression, Toil, and Loneliness”

The Oppression of the Powerless

1 Again I looked and saw all the oppression done under the sun.
I saw the tears of the oppressed, but they had no comforter.
On the side of their oppressors there was power—but still they had no comforter.

Cross References: Psalm 12:5; Psalm 72:4; James 5:4

2 So I declared that the dead, who are already gone, are better off than the living, who are still alive.

Cross References: Job 3:17; Job 3:21; Revelation 14:13

3 But better than both is the one who has not yet been, who has not seen the evil done under the sun.

Cross References: Job 3:16; Jeremiah 20:18; Matthew 26:24

The Vanity of Toil and Envy

4 Then I observed that all hard work and skill in work come from a man’s envy of his neighbor.
This too is meaningless—
a chasing after the wind.

Cross References: Genesis 26:14; Genesis 37:11; James 3:16

5 The fool folds his hands and consumes his own flesh.

Cross References: Proverbs 6:10; Proverbs 24:33; Proverbs 19:15

6 Better is one handful with peace than two handfuls with toil and chasing the wind.

Cross References: Proverbs 15:16; Proverbs 17:1; 1 Timothy 6:6

The Emptiness of Lonely Labor

7 Again I saw something meaningless under the sun:

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 1:14; Ecclesiastes 2:11; Psalm 39:5

8 There was a man all alone—
he had neither son nor brother.
There was no end to his labor,
yet his eyes were never satisfied with riches.
He never asked, “For whom am I working, and why am I depriving myself of enjoyment?”
This too is vanity—
a miserable task.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 5:10; Luke 12:15; 1 Timothy 6:9

The Value of Companionship

9 Two are better than one, because they have a good return for their labor.

Cross References: Genesis 2:18; Proverbs 27:17; Matthew 18:20 10 If one falls,

the other can lift him up.
But pity the one who falls and has no one to help him up.

Cross References: Galatians 6:2; Hebrews 10:24; Isaiah 41:6

11 Also, if two lie down together, they can keep warm.
But how can one be warm alone?

Cross References: Proverbs 5:19; 1 Kings 1:2; Ecclesiastes 4:9

12 Though one may be overpowered, two can defend themselves.
And a cord of three strands is not quickly broken.

Cross References: Matthew 18:20; Ecclesiastes 4:9; Amos 3:3

The Vanity of Fame and Power

13 Better is a poor but wise youth than an old but foolish king who no longer listens to advice.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 9:15; 1 Samuel 16:7; Proverbs 28:16

14 For he may come out of prison to reign, while one born in royalty may become poor.

Cross References: Genesis 41:14; Genesis 41:40; Luke 1:52

15 I saw all the people who lived under the sun following the next king who succeeded him.

Cross References: 1 Kings 1:39; 2 Kings 11:12; 1 Samuel 10:24

16 There was no end to all the people who came before him, but those who come later will not rejoice in him.

This too is meaningless—
a chasing after the wind.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 1:11; Ecclesiastes 2:16; Psalm 144:4

Key Lessons from Ecclesiastes 4

- Oppression is real and grievous: Without justice or comfort, the oppressed suffer deeply, reminding us of mankind's need for God's ultimate judgment and mercy.
- Envy drives toil: Many labor not from love or purpose, but from rivalry and comparison, which only leads to emptiness.
- Loneliness is misery: Wealth without relationships leaves a person hollow; companionship gives true meaning.
- The power of unity: Two are better than one for strength, warmth, and help—but a threefold cord (with God at the center) is unbreakable.
- Fame and power fade: Kings and leaders rise and fall, but the adoration of people is fleeting. Only what is rooted in God endures.

Ecclesiastes 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Reverence Before God and the Vanity of Riches”

Worship with Reverence

1 Guard your steps when you go to the house of God.
Go near to listen rather than to offer the sacrifice of fools, for they do not realize they are doing wrong.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 15:22; Psalm 119:101; Amos 5:21

2 Do not be quick with your mouth, do not be hasty in your heart to utter anything before God.
God is in heaven and you are on earth,
so let your words be few.

Cross References: Proverbs 10:19; Matthew 6:7; James 1:19

3 As many cares bring restless dreams, so the speech of a fool comes with many words.

Cross References: Proverbs 10:19; Proverbs 29:11; Ecclesiastes 5:7

The Danger of Rash Vows

4 When you make a vow to God, do not delay in fulfilling it.
He takes no pleasure in fools—pay what you have promised.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 23:21; Numbers 30:2; Psalm 76:11

5 It is better not to vow than to make a vow and not fulfill it.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 23:22; Proverbs 20:25; Matthew 5:37

6 Do not let your mouth lead you into sin.
Do not say before God's messenger, "My vow was a mistake."
Why should God be angry at your words and destroy the work of your hands?

Cross References: Deuteronomy 23:23; Matthew 5:34; Malachi 3:8

7 Many dreams and many words are meaningless.
Therefore, fear God.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 12:13; Job 28:28; Deuteronomy 6:2

Injustice and Oppression

8 If you see the poor oppressed in a province, and justice and rights denied, do not be surprised at the matter;
for one official is watched by a higher one,
and there are higher still over them.

Cross References: Psalm 12:5; Isaiah 1:17; Psalm 82:3

9 The increase from the land is taken by all;
even the king profits from the fields.

Cross References: Genesis 1:29; Psalm 104:14; Deuteronomy 8:7

The Vanity of Loving Wealth

10 Whoever loves money never has enough; whoever loves wealth is never satisfied with his income.
This too is vanity.

Cross References: 1 Timothy 6:10; Proverbs 27:20; Isaiah 55:2

11 As goods increase,
so do those who consume them.
And what benefit are they to the owner except to feast his eyes on them?

Cross References: Psalm 39:6; Luke 12:16; Job 20:22

12 The sleep of the laborer is sweet, whether he eats little or much, but the abundance of the rich keeps them from sleeping.

Cross References: Psalm 127:2; Proverbs 3:24; 1 Timothy 6:9

The Futility of Hoarded Riches

13 I have seen a terrible evil under the sun:
wealth hoarded to the harm of its owner,

Cross References: James 5:3; Proverbs 11:28; Luke 12:21

14 or wealth lost through misfortune, so that when he has a son
there is nothing left to give him.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 2:26; Proverbs 23:5; Job 20:20

15 Everyone comes naked from their mother's womb, and as everyone comes, so they depart.
They take nothing from their toil that they can carry in their hands.

Cross References: Job 1:21; 1 Timothy 6:7; Psalm 49:17

16 This too is a grievous evil:
As everyone comes, so they depart, and what do they gain,
since they toil for the wind?

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 1:14; Ecclesiastes 2:11; Hosea 12:1

17 All their days they eat in darkness, with great frustration, affliction, and anger.

Cross References: Job 5:7; Job 3:20; Psalm 90:9

Enjoying God's Gifts

18 This is what I have seen to be good:
It is fitting for people to eat and drink, and to find satisfaction in their toil under the sun during the few days of life God has given them—for this is their portion.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 2:24; Ecclesiastes 3:13; 1 Timothy 6:17

19 Moreover, when God gives someone wealth and possessions, and the ability to enjoy them, to accept their lot and be happy in their work—
this is the gift of God.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 8:18; 1 Chronicles 29:12; James 1:17

20 They seldom reflect on the days of their life, because God keeps them occupied with joy in their hearts.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 2:10; Nehemiah 8:10; Philippians 4:11

Key Lessons from Ecclesiastes 5

- Approach God with reverence: Worship is about listening and obeying, not empty words or rash promises.
- Keep your vows: God values integrity; it is better not to vow than to vow and fail.
- Wealth cannot satisfy: Riches bring more worries, more consumers, and sleepless nights—but never lasting joy.
- Life is brief and possessions fleeting: We leave the world as we entered it, with nothing in our hands.
- Joy is a gift from God: True contentment is found not in wealth itself, but in receiving and enjoying daily blessings as God's gift.

Ecclesiastes 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Vanity of Wealth and the Limits of Human Desire”

Wealth Without Enjoyment

1 There is an evil I have seen under the sun, and it is common among mankind:

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 5:13; Job 21:7; Psalm 73:12

2 A man may have riches, wealth, and honor, so that he lacks nothing his heart desires, yet God does not give him the power to enjoy it—a stranger enjoys them instead.
This is vanity, a grievous evil.

Cross References: Luke 12:20; Job 27:17; Psalm 39:6

The Futility of Long Life Without Joy

3 A man may have a hundred children and live many years, but if he finds no satisfaction in life,
and does not even receive an honorable burial,
I say that a stillborn child is better off than he.

Cross References: Job 3:16; Job 3:11; Psalm 17:14

4 For it comes in futility and departs in darkness, and its name is shrouded in obscurity.

Cross References: Job 10:21; Job 18:17; Psalm 109:13

5 It never sees the sun or knows anything, yet it finds more rest than that man.

Cross References: Job 10:18; Job 10:19; Psalm 58:8

6 Even if he lives a thousand years twice over,
but does not enjoy life,
do not all go to the same place?

Cross References: Psalm 49:10; Ecclesiastes 2:16; Job 21:23

The Dissatisfaction of Desire

7 All a man's labor is for his mouth, yet his appetite is never satisfied.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:26; Isaiah 55:2; Ecclesiastes 1:8

8 What advantage has the wise over the fool?
What does the poor man gain by knowing how to conduct himself before others?

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 2:15; Proverbs 19:1; Ecclesiastes 4:13

9 Better what the eyes see than the roving of desire.
This too is vanity and chasing after the wind.

Cross References: Proverbs 27:20; 1 John 2:16; Matthew 6:22

The Limits of Man's Power

10 Whatever exists has already been named;
and what man is has been known.
He cannot contend with one who is stronger than he.

Cross References: Genesis 2:19; Job 9:32; Isaiah 45:9

11 The more words, the more vanity—and what profit is there to man?

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 1:2; Ecclesiastes 12:12; Psalm 39:6

12 For who knows what is good for a person in life, during the few days of his vain life which pass like a shadow?
Who can tell him what will happen under the sun after he is gone?

Cross References: Job 8:9; Psalm 144:4; James 4:14

Key Lessons from Ecclesiastes 6

- Wealth without God's gift of enjoyment is empty: Prosperity means nothing if it cannot be enjoyed.
- Life without contentment is worse than death: A stillborn child has more rest than the one who lives long but never finds satisfaction.
- Desire is endless: Human appetite is never fully satisfied, showing the futility of chasing pleasure and gain.
- True gain is limited: The wise and the fool, the rich and the poor, all share the same end—death.
- God's sovereignty sets limits on man: We cannot contend with Him, nor control the future; our life is a fleeting shadow.
- Real joy comes from God alone: Without His blessing, both wealth and length of days remain vanity.

Ecclesiastes 7 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Wisdom, Mortality, and the Limits of Man”

The Value of Mortality

1 A good name is better than fine perfume, and the day of death better than the day of birth.

Cross References: Proverbs 22:1; Philippians 1:21; Psalm 116:15

2 It is better to go to a house of mourning than to go to a house of feasting, for death is the destiny of every man;

the living should take this to heart.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 7:4; Luke 6:25; James 4:9

3 Sorrow is better than laughter, for by a sad face the heart is made better.

Cross References: 2 Corinthians 7:10; Matthew 5:4; Proverbs 14:13

4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning, but the heart of fools is in the house of pleasure.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 7:2; Proverbs 14:13; Luke 6:25

Wisdom Versus Folly

5 It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise than to listen to the song of fools.

Cross References: Proverbs 13:1; Proverbs 15:31; Psalm 141:5

6 Like the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of fools.
This too is meaningless.

Cross References: Psalm 118:12; Proverbs 14:13; Isaiah 33:12

7 Oppression can drive the wise into madness, and a bribe corrupts the heart.

Cross References: Exodus 23:8; Deuteronomy 16:19; Proverbs 15:27

8 The end of a matter is better than its beginning, and patience is better than pride.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:32; James 5:11; Philippians 1:6

9 Do not be quickly provoked in your spirit, for anger rests in the lap of fools.

Cross References: Proverbs 14:29; James 1:19; Ephesians 4:26

10 Do not say, "Why were the old days better than these?"
It is not wise to ask such questions.

Cross References: Isaiah 43:18; Philippians 3:13; Ecclesiastes 1:9

The Strength of Wisdom

11 Wisdom, like an inheritance, is a good thing and benefits those who see the sun.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:14; Proverbs 8:11; Job 28:18

12 For wisdom is a shelter as money is a shelter, but the advantage of knowledge is this:
wisdom preserves the life of the one who has it.

Cross References: Proverbs 2:7; Proverbs 4:7; Proverbs 3:16

13 Consider the work of God:
Who can straighten what He has made crooked?

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 1:15; Job 12:14; Romans 9:20 14 When times are good, be joyful;

but when times are bad, consider:
God has made the one as well as the other,
so that no man can discover what comes after him.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 8:2; Philippians 4:12; Job 2:10

The Mystery of Righteousness and Wickedness

15 In this meaningless life of mine I have seen it all:
a righteous man perishing in his righteousness, and a wicked man living long in his wickedness.

Cross References: Psalm 73:3; Job 21:7; Habakkuk 1:13

16 Do not be overly righteous, and do not make yourself too wise—
why destroy yourself?

Cross References: Romans 12:3; Isaiah 65:5; Galatians 6:3

17 Do not be overly wicked, and do not be a fool—
why die before your time?

Cross References: Romans 6:1; Proverbs 10:27; Galatians 6:7

18 It is good to grasp the one and not let go of the other.
The one who fears God will avoid all extremes.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 12:13; Proverbs 3:7; Psalm 34:11

19 Wisdom makes one wise person more powerful than ten rulers in a city.

Cross References: Proverbs 21:22; Proverbs 24:5; Ecclesiastes 9:16

20 Surely there is not a righteous man on earth who does good and never sins.

Cross References: Romans 3:10; 1 Kings 8:46; 1 John 1:8

Guarding the Heart

21 Do not pay attention to every word people say, or you may hear your servant cursing you.

Cross References: Proverbs 30:10; Ecclesiastes 10:20; Matthew 7:1

22 For you know in your heart that many times you yourself have cursed others.

Cross References: Matthew 7:3; James 3:9; Romans 2:1

The Search for Wisdom

23 I tested all this with wisdom and said,
“I am determined to be wise”—
but it was beyond me.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 1:19; Job 28:12; Romans 11:33

24 Whatever exists is far off and most profound—who can discover it?

Cross References: Job 11:7; Romans 11:33; Isaiah 55:9

25 So I turned my mind to understand, to investigate and to search out wisdom and the scheme of things, and to understand the stupidity of wickedness and the madness of folly.

Cross References: Proverbs 2:4; Ecclesiastes 1:17; 1 Kings 4:29

26 I found more bitter than death
the woman who is a snare, whose heart is a trap,
and whose hands are chains.
The man who pleases God will escape her,
but the sinner will be ensnared.

Cross References: Proverbs 5:3; Proverbs 22:14; Proverbs 2:16

The Human Condition

27 “Look,” says the Preacher, “this is what I have discovered, adding one thing to another to find the scheme of things—

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 1:2; Ecclesiastes 12:9; 1 Kings 4:32

28 which my soul still seeks but has not found.
One upright man among a thousand I have found, but not one upright woman among them all.

Cross References: Psalm 12:1; Job 33:23; Romans 3:10

29 This only have I found:
God made mankind upright,
but they have gone in search of many schemes.”

Cross References: Genesis 1:27; Genesis 3:6; Romans 3:23

Key Lessons from Ecclesiastes 7

- Mortality teaches wisdom: Funerals sober the heart more than feasts, reminding us of life’s brevity.
- Wisdom is greater than folly: The rebuke of the wise has more value than the laughter of fools.
- Patience over pride: The end of a matter brings perspective that hasty anger never can.
- Wisdom and money both protect, but wisdom gives life: Only God-given wisdom sustains the soul.
- God governs both good and bad days: Prosperity and adversity alike come from His hand.
- Avoid extremes: Neither legalism nor reckless wickedness is the way—fear of God is balance.
- Humanity is sinful by nature: God made man upright, but people chase after their own corrupt schemes.

Ecclesiastes 8 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Wisdom, Authority, and the Mystery of God’s Work”

The Radiance of Wisdom

1 Who is like the wise man?
Who knows the explanation of a matter?
Wisdom brightens a man’s face, and softens the hardness of his countenance.

Cross References: Proverbs 4:9; Exodus 34:29; James 3:17

Respect for Authority

2 I say: Obey the king’s command, because of the oath before God.

Cross References: Romans 13:1; 1 Peter 2:17; Titus 3:1

3 Do not be hasty to leave his presence, and do not stand in an evil cause, for he does whatever pleases him.

Cross References: Proverbs 24:21; Romans 13:2; 1 Peter 2:13

4 Since a king's word is supreme, who can say to him, "What are you doing?"

Cross References: Proverbs 16:14; Daniel 4:35; Romans 9:20

5 Whoever keeps the command will know no evil thing, and the wise heart knows the proper time and judgment.

Cross References: Proverbs 19:16; Ecclesiastes 3:1; Proverbs 4:7

6 For every matter has its proper time and judgment, though the misery of man lies heavy upon him.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 3:1; Ecclesiastes 3:17; Job 14:1

7 Since no one knows what will happen, who can tell him what is to come?

Cross References: James 4:14; Proverbs 27:1; Ecclesiastes 6:12

The Limits of Human Power

8 No one has power over the spirit to retain it, nor does anyone have power over the day of death.
There is no discharge from that war,
and wickedness will not deliver those who practice it.

Cross References: Psalm 89:48; Hebrews 9:27; Ezekiel 18:20

9 All this I observed, as I applied my heart to everything done under the sun—a time when one man lords it over another to his own hurt.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 4:1; Romans 13:4; Proverbs 28:15

The Fate of the Wicked

10 Then I saw the wicked buried—they used to go in and out of the holy place and were praised in the city where they had done such things.
This too is vanity.

Cross References: Psalm 49:16; Luke 16:22; Job 21:32

11 Because the sentence against an evil deed is not carried out quickly, the hearts of men are filled with schemes to do wrong.

Cross References: 2 Peter 3:9; Romans 2:4; Psalm 50:21

12 Although a sinner does evil a hundred times and lives long, yet surely I know that it will go well with those who fear God, who stand in awe before Him.

Cross References: Psalm 37:1; Malachi 3:16; Psalm 73:17

13 But it will not go well with the wicked, nor will they prolong their days like a shadow, because they do not fear before God.

Cross References: Psalm 37:20; Proverbs 10:27; Job 15:20

Life's Injustices

14 There is a vanity that occurs on the earth:
righteous men who receive what the wicked deserve,
and wicked men who receive what the righteous deserve.
I said, this too is meaningless.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 9:2; Job 21:7; Habakkuk 1:13

15 So I commend joy, for there is nothing better under the sun for a man than to eat and drink and be glad.
Then joy will accompany him in his toil all the days of life that God has given him under the sun.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 2:24; Ecclesiastes 3:13; Ecclesiastes 5:18

The Mystery of God's Work

16 When I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to observe the tasks men are busy with on earth—day and night their eyes see no sleep—

Cross References: 1 Kings 3:9; Ecclesiastes 2:23; Proverbs 2:2

17 I saw all the work of God:
No man can comprehend what is done under the sun.
Though he may labor to search it out,
he cannot find it;
and even if a wise man claims to know,
he cannot truly comprehend it.

Cross References: Job 5:9; Job 37:5; Romans 11:33

Key Lessons from Ecclesiastes 8

- Wisdom changes perspective: True wisdom gives discernment and transforms how we respond to life's difficulties.
- Respect authority but remember God rules above kings: Earthly rulers have power, but only God holds ultimate authority.

- Man's power is limited: No one can escape death or control the spirit; wickedness cannot save in the end.
- Judgment may be delayed, but not denied: God's justice is certain, even if sinners seem to prosper for a time.
- Life is often unfair: Sometimes the righteous suffer while the wicked prosper—but God's final judgment will set all things right.
- Joy is a gift of God: Even in a broken world, enjoying daily blessings—food, drink, and labor—is part of God's provision.
- God's work is beyond full comprehension: Human wisdom has limits; God's plan is greater than man can discover.

Ecclesiastes 9 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Same Fate for All and the Value of Wisdom”

The Hand of God Over All Things

1 So I reflected on all this and declared:
the righteous, the wise, and their deeds are in the hand of God.
Yet no one knows whether love or hatred awaits them;
all lies ahead unseen.

Cross References: Job 21:22; Proverbs 16:9; Isaiah 55:8

2 Everything happens alike to all:
the same fate comes to the righteous and the wicked, to the good and the clean and the unclean, to him who offers sacrifices and to him who does not.
As it is with the good man, so with the sinner;
as with the one who takes oaths, so with the one who fears them.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 2:14; Matthew 5:45; Job 9:22

The Certainty of Death

3 This is the great evil under the sun:
the same event happens to all.
The hearts of men are full of evil, and madness fills them while they live;
then afterward they join the dead.

Cross References: Psalm 49:12; Hebrews 9:27; Ecclesiastes 2:16

4 But anyone who is among the living has hope—for a living dog is better than a dead lion.

Cross References: Isaiah 38:19; John 11:25; Job 14:7

5 For the living know they will die, but the dead know nothing;
they have no more reward,
and their memory is forgotten.

Cross References: Psalm 6:5; Psalm 146:4; Hebrews 9:27

6 Their love, their hatred, their envy have vanished; never again will they share in anything done under the sun.

Cross References: Job 14:21; Psalm 49:17; Ecclesiastes 2:18

Embrace Life's Portion

7 Go, eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a glad heart,
for God has already approved your works.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 2:24; Ecclesiastes 3:13; Deuteronomy 12:7

8 Let your garments always be white;
and do not let oil be lacking on your head.

Cross References: Revelation 3:5; Psalm 23:5; Revelation 19:8

9 Enjoy life with the wife whom you love, all the days of this fleeting life that God has given you under the sun—for this is your portion in life and in the toil you labor under the sun.

Cross References: Proverbs 5:18; Proverbs 18:22; Genesis 2:24

10 Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with all your strength, for in the grave, where you are going,
there is no work or planning,
no knowledge or wisdom.

Cross References: Colossians 3:23; John 9:4; Galatians 6:9

The Role of Time and Chance

11 Again I saw under the sun:
the race is not to the swift,
nor the battle to the strong,
nor bread to the wise,
nor riches to men of understanding, nor favor to the skilled—but time and chance happen to them all.

Cross References: 1 Corinthians 9:24; Psalm 33:16; Proverbs 21:31 12 Moreover, no one knows his time.

Like fish caught in a net,
or birds trapped in a snare,
so men are ensnared
when evil times fall suddenly upon them.

Cross References: Luke 21:34; Proverbs 29:6; 1 Thessalonians 5:2

The Power and Fragility of Wisdom

13 I also saw this example of wisdom under the sun, and it seemed great to me:

Cross References: 1 Kings 4:30; Proverbs 24:5; James 3:17

14 There was a small city with few men in it, and a great king came against it, surrounded it, and built great siegeworks against it.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 20:15; Judges 7:2; 1 Samuel 17:47

15 In it was found a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom saved the city.
Yet no one remembered that poor man.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 20:22; Ecclesiastes 9:16; Matthew 13:57

16 Then I said:
Wisdom is better than strength, but the wisdom of the poor is despised,
and his words are not heard.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 9:15; 1 Corinthians 1:27; James 2:5

17 The quiet words of the wise are more to be heeded than the shouts of a ruler of fools.

Cross References: Proverbs 15:1; Ecclesiastes 10:12; 1 Kings 19:12

18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war, but one sinner destroys much good.

Cross References: Proverbs 21:22; Joshua 7:1; 1 Corinthians 5:6

Key Lessons from Ecclesiastes 9

- Life and death are in God's hand: Both the righteous and the wicked face the same earthly end.
- Hope belongs to the living: As long as one has breath, there is opportunity to turn to God and enjoy His gifts.
- Embrace your portion: Life's joys—food, work, companionship, marriage—are to be gratefully received as gifts from God.
- Do all with diligence: Death ends earthly opportunity; therefore, live with purpose while you have time.
- Time and chance affect all: Human strength, wisdom, or wealth cannot guarantee success; God is sovereign over outcomes.
- Wisdom has greater value than power: A poor man's wisdom can save a city, but folly can destroy much good.
- One sinner's corruption can undo much: Wisdom builds, but sin tears down—highlighting the importance of righteousness.

Ecclesiastes 10 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Folly of Man and the Value of Wisdom”

The Power of Small Folly

1 Dead flies make the perfumer's ointment give off a foul stench;
so a little folly outweighs wisdom and honor.

Cross References: James 3:5; 1 Corinthians 5:6; Ecclesiastes 9:18

2 A wise man's heart is at his right hand, but a fool's heart is at his left.

Cross References: Matthew 25:33; Ecclesiastes 2:14; Proverbs 4:27

3 Even when the fool walks on the road, he lacks sense, and he tells everyone that he is a fool.

Cross References: Proverbs 13:16; Proverbs 12:23; Proverbs 18:2

Wisdom in the Face of Authority

4 If the spirit of the ruler rises against you, do not leave your place,
for calmness will lay great offenses to rest.

Cross References: Proverbs 15:1; Proverbs 25:15; Romans 12:18

5 There is an evil I have seen under the sun, as an error proceeding from a ruler:

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 5:8; Isaiah 3:12; Micah 3:1

6 Folly is set in many high places, while the rich sit in a low place.

Cross References: Proverbs 19:10; Proverbs 30:22; James 2:2

7 I have seen servants on horses, and princes walking on the ground like servants.

Cross References: Proverbs 19:10; Proverbs 30:22; 1 Samuel 2:7

The Consequences of Careless Actions

8 He who digs a pit may fall into it, and he who breaks through a wall may be bitten by a serpent.

Cross References: Proverbs 26:27; Psalm 7:15; Galatians 6:7

9 He who quarries stones is hurt by them, and he who splits logs is endangered by them.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 19:5; Proverbs 27:12; Ecclesiastes 10:8

10 If the iron is blunt and one does not sharpen the edge, he must use more strength,
but wisdom helps one to succeed.

Key Lessons from Ecclesiastes 10

- A little folly ruins much good: One small act of foolishness can destroy the honor of a lifetime of wisdom.
- Wisdom brings stability: Calmness and prudence can pacify anger and preserve peace, even in the presence of rulers.
- Carelessness brings danger: Work without caution leads to harm; wisdom directs safe and effective effort.
- Words reveal the heart: The wise speak with grace; the fool exposes himself by endless, destructive talk.
- Leadership matters: A land suffers under childish, indulgent rulers but flourishes under noble and disciplined ones.
- Diligence prevents decay: Neglect and laziness bring ruin to homes, nations, and lives.
- Guard your thoughts and words: Even secret curses may come to light; God calls for reverence and restraint.

The Joy and Responsibility of Youth

9 Rejoice, young man, in your youth, and let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth.
Follow the ways of your heart and whatever your eyes see, but know that for all these things
God will bring you into judgment.

Cross References: Numbers 15:39; 2 Corinthians 5:10; 1 John 2:16

10 So then, banish sorrow from your heart, and put away evil from your body,
for youth and the prime of life are vanity.

Key Lessons from Ecclesiastes 11

- Be generous and trust God: Giving to others in faith leads to blessings in due time.
- Don't wait for perfect conditions: Overanalyzing delays obedience and fruitfulness; act in faith despite uncertainty.
- Life is fragile and unpredictable: Only God knows the mysteries of creation and providence.
- Rejoice in the gift of life: Enjoy each day as a blessing from God while recognizing the brevity of time.
- Youth is a gift with accountability: God calls the young to joy, but also to remember that their choices will be judged.

Key Lessons from Ecclesiastes 12

- Remember God early: Serving and honoring God in youth lays a foundation before life's hardships increase.
- Life fades with age: The imagery of trembling, dim eyes, and fading strength reminds us of human frailty.
- Death is inevitable: The body returns to dust, but the spirit returns to God, the Giver of life.
- Human wisdom is limited: Many books and endless study cannot satisfy the soul without God.
- The true conclusion of life: Our ultimate duty is to fear God and keep His commandments.
- Final judgment is certain: God will evaluate every deed—whether open or secret, good or evil.

Introduction to the Book of Song of Solomon

“Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth: for thy love is better than wine.” – Song of

Solomon 1:2

Title and Meaning

The title Song of Solomon (also called the Song of Songs) means “the greatest of songs.” In Hebrew, it is Shir HaShirim, literally translated “Song of Songs,” following the Hebrew pattern of expressing the superlative (as in “King of kings” or “Holy of holies”). This title emphasizes that this is Solomon’s finest song out of the 1,005 songs attributed to him (1 Kings 4:32). The book is a poetic masterpiece celebrating love, intimacy, and covenant devotion.

Author and Date

Tradition holds that King Solomon wrote the Song, likely in his early reign during the 10th century BC. The language, imagery, and references to royal wealth and splendor fit well with Solomon’s era. Some interpreters suggest it may have been compiled or edited later, but the strong internal evidence supports its Solomonic authorship.

Purpose of Song of Solomon

Song of Solomon serves several purposes in Scripture:

- To celebrate the beauty of marital love as a gift from God.
- To illustrate the sanctity of covenant faithfulness between husband and wife.
- To foreshadow Christ’s love for His Church, as later reflected in passages such as Ephesians 5:25–32 and Revelation 19:7–9.
- To remind readers that intimacy, rightly expressed within marriage, is both pure and God-honoring.

Structure of Song of Solomon

The book is a lyrical dialogue, moving between the voices of the Bride (the Shulammitte woman), the Bridegroom (Solomon), and occasionally a chorus of companions. While it is difficult to divide strictly, the flow of the song can be outlined as follows: 1. The Longing of Love (Ch. 1:1–2:7) Expressions of desire and admiration between the beloved and her lover. 2. The Blossoming of Love (Ch. 2:8–3:5) Courtship imagery with anticipation of union. 3. The Joy of Union (Ch. 3:6–5:1) Wedding procession and marital consummation. 4. The Struggles and Separation of Love (Ch. 5:2–6:3) The bride experiences distance and renewed longing. 5. The Beauty of Devotion (Ch. 6:4–8:4) Poetic praise of the beloved’s beauty and uniqueness. 6. The Power of Love (Ch. 8:5–14) The climactic declaration that love is as strong as death, enduring and unquenchable.

Major Themes

- Love and Marriage: Human love, passion, and intimacy are gifts from God when expressed within His design.
- Faithfulness: True love thrives in commitment and covenant loyalty.
- Beauty and Desire: The delight of romantic love reflects the Creator's good design.
- Christ and the Church (spiritual theme): The love between bride and groom foreshadows Christ's sacrificial, eternal love for His people.
- The Power of Love: Genuine love is enduring, unstoppable, and divine in origin.

Why Song of Solomon Matters Today

In a world that often distorts or cheapens love, Song of Solomon restores a biblical vision of intimacy as sacred, beautiful, and enduring. It affirms the holiness of marriage and calls believers to purity, passion, and covenant faithfulness. Spiritually, it also points to the greater reality of God's love in Christ—a love stronger than death, eternal and redemptive.

Key Verse

“Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it: if a man would give all the substance of his house for love, it would utterly be contemned.” – Song of Solomon 8:7 This verse captures the heart of the book: true love is priceless, powerful, and unquenchable, reflecting the very love of God.

“The Beauty of Love”

The Bride's Desire

1 This is Solomon's song of songs, the most beautiful of all his songs.

Cross References: 1 Kings 4:32; Psalm 45:1; Ecclesiastes 1:1

2 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth, for your love is sweeter than wine.

Cross References: Song of Solomon 4:10; Proverbs 5:19; Psalm 133:2

3 Your fragrance is pleasing;
your name is like perfume poured out.
That is why young women love you.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 7:1; John 12:3; Psalm 45:8

4 Take me with you, let us run together!
The king has brought me into his rooms.
We will be glad and rejoice in you.

We will remember your love more than wine.
Rightly do they love you!

17 The beams of our house are cedar,
and our rafters are fir.

Cross References: 1 Kings 6:9; Psalm 104:16; 1 Kings 7:2

Key Lessons from Song of Solomon 1

- Love is a gift from God: True love is sweet, delightful, and worth celebrating.
- Beauty is more than appearance: The bride's humility shows that love values the heart above outward looks.
- Mutual admiration strengthens love: The bride and groom honor and praise one another, building intimacy.
- Love brings joy and refreshment: Like perfume, wine, and fresh greenery, love is life-giving and refreshing.

- Christ and the Church: Many see in this love song a picture of Christ's love for His people—faithful, joyful, and pure.

17 Until the day breaks and the shadows flee away, turn, my beloved,
and be like a gazelle or a young stag
on the rugged mountains.

Cross References: Song of Solomon 4:6; Song of Solomon 2:9; 2 Peter 1:19

Key Lessons from Song of Solomon 2

- Love is pure and set apart: True love is like a lily among thorns—distinct and beautiful in a world full of distractions.
- Love provides shelter and refreshment: The beloved's shade and fruit show how love gives both comfort and delight.
- Love must not be forced: The bride warns not to awaken love before its time, teaching patience and God's timing in relationships.
- Seasons of renewal: Just as winter passes and spring arrives, love flourishes in its proper season.
- Guard your love: The foxes represent small problems or temptations that can spoil relationships if left unchecked.
- Union in love: The bride's words, "My beloved is mine, and I am his," reflect security, intimacy, and mutual devotion.

"The Bride Finds Her Beloved"

The Bride's Search

1 At night on my bed I looked for the one my soul loves;
I looked for him, but I did not find him.

Cross References: Psalm 63:1; Isaiah 26:9; Song of Solomon 5:6

2 So I will get up now and go about the city, through the streets and the squares;
I will look for the one my soul loves.
I looked for him, but I did not find him.

Cross References: Proverbs 8:17; Jeremiah 29:13; Song of Solomon 3:4

3 The watchmen found me as they patrolled the city.
I asked them, “Have you seen the one my soul loves?”

Cross References: Song of Solomon 5:7; Isaiah 62:6; Ezekiel 3:17

4 Hardly had I passed by them, when I found the one my soul loves.
I held him and would not let him go until I had brought him into my mother’s house, into the room of her who conceived me.

The Royal Carriage

9 King Solomon made a carriage for himself from the wood of Lebanon.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:18; 1 Kings 7:2; Isaiah 60:13

10 He made its posts of silver, its base of gold,
its seat upholstered with purple.
Its interior was lovingly inlaid
by the daughters of Jerusalem.

Cross References: Esther 1:6; Psalm 45:13; Revelation 21:21

The King's Joy

11 Come out, daughters of Zion, and look at King Solomon, wearing the crown his mother gave him on the day of his wedding, the day his heart rejoiced.

Cross References: Isaiah 62:5; Revelation 19:7; Psalm 45:11

Key Lessons from Song of Solomon 3

- Love longs to find its beloved: The bride's search shows the deep yearning of the heart for true love.
- Perseverance in seeking: Though she did not find him at first, she continued searching until she did—teaching us to persist in what we truly value.
- Love must be guarded: The repeated warning not to awaken love before its time emphasizes patience and God's timing.
- Christ-like imagery: Just as Solomon appears in splendor, escorted by mighty men, Christ the King comes in majesty, surrounded by power and glory.
- Marriage is a day of joy: Solomon's crown at his wedding represents the beauty and gladness of covenant love.

The Bride's Invitation

16 Awake, O north wind, and come, O south wind.
Blow upon my garden
so its fragrance may spread abroad.
Let my beloved come into his garden and taste its choice fruits.

Cross References: Song of Solomon 5:1; John 3:8; Isaiah 27:2

Key Lessons from Song of Solomon 4

- Love admires beauty deeply: The groom's detailed praise shows that true love notices and cherishes even the smallest features.
- Purity and protection matter: The bride is described as a locked garden, symbolizing purity, devotion, and exclusivity in love.
- Love is mutual delight: The groom finds joy in his bride's love, which is sweeter than wine and more fragrant than spices.
- Godly marriage reflects intimacy and delight: Just as the bride invites her beloved into her garden, marriage is a place of union, joy, and shared love.
- Living water imagery points to Christ: The bride as a fountain of living waters reminds us of Christ, who offers eternal life to His people (John 4:14).

“The Bride's Longing and Praise for Her Beloved”

The Groom's Delight

1 I have come into my garden, my sister, my bride;
I have gathered my myrrh with my spice,
I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey,
I have drunk my wine with my milk.
Eat, friends;
drink and be filled with love.

Cross References: Song of Solomon 4:16; John 2:9; Revelation 3:20

The Bride Misses Her Beloved

2 I slept, but my heart was awake.
It was the voice of my beloved—he was knocking:
“Open to me, my sister, my love,
my dove, my perfect one.
My head is wet with dew,
my hair with the dampness of the night.”

Cross References: Revelation 3:20; Song of Solomon 2:14; Luke 12:36

3 But I said, “I have taken off my robe;
how can I put it back on?
I have washed my feet;
must I dirty them again?”

Cross References: John 13:10; Colossians 3:9; Revelation 3:18

4 My beloved reached his hand through the latch, and my heart leaped for him.

Cross References: Revelation 3:20; Song of Solomon 5:2; Philippians 1:8

5 I rose to open for my beloved, and my hands dripped with myrrh, my fingers with sweet-smelling myrrh on the handles of the bolt.

Cross References: Song of Solomon 1:13; John 19:39; Psalm 45:8

6 I opened to my beloved,
but he had turned and was gone.
My heart sank when he left.
I sought him, but did not find him;
I called, but he gave no answer.

Cross References: Song of Solomon 3:2; Isaiah 55:6; Proverbs 1:28

7 The watchmen found me as they made their rounds in the city.
They struck me, they wounded me;
the guards of the walls
took away my veil.

Cross References: Song of Solomon 3:3; Isaiah 53:5; John 15:20

8 I charge you, daughters of Jerusalem:
if you find my beloved,
tell him I am lovesick.

Cross References: Song of Solomon 2:5; Song of Solomon 2:7; Psalm 42:2

The Daughters Question the Bride

9 “What is your beloved more than another beloved,
O most beautiful of women?
What is your beloved more than another beloved,
that you should charge us so strongly?”

Cross References: Song of Solomon 1:8; Song of Solomon 6:1; Psalm 45:2

The Bride Praises Her Beloved

10 My beloved is radiant and ruddy, distinguished among ten thousand.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 16:12; Psalm 45:2; Revelation 1:14

11 His head is purest gold;
his hair is wavy, black as a raven.

Cross References: Daniel 7:9; Revelation 1:14; Song of Solomon 4:1

12 His eyes are like doves by streams of water, washed with milk,
set like jewels.

Cross References: Song of Solomon 1:15; Matthew 3:16; Psalm 19:8

13 His cheeks are like a garden of spices, like beds of fragrant herbs.
His lips are like lilies,
dripping with sweet myrrh.

Cross References: Song of Solomon 2:16; Psalm 45:2; Hosea 14:6

14 His hands are like gold rings set with gems of beryl.
His body is like polished ivory, decorated with sapphires.

Cross References: Exodus 28:20; Ezekiel 1:26; Revelation 21:19

15 His legs are like marble pillars set on bases of pure gold.
His appearance is like Lebanon, majestic as the cedars.

Cross References: Revelation 1:15; Psalm 92:12; 1 Kings 7:2

16 His mouth is sweetness itself;
yes, he is altogether lovely.
This is my beloved, and this is my friend,
O daughters of Jerusalem.

Cross References: Psalm 45:2; John 15:14; Song of Solomon 5:10

Key Lessons from Song of Solomon 5

- Love delights in intimacy: The groom enjoys his garden (symbol of the bride), showing the joy of marital union.
- Delayed response can bring regret: The bride hesitated to open the door, and when she did, her beloved was gone—a reminder to cherish opportunities for love and closeness.
- Love endures hardship: Even when struck by watchmen, the bride’s devotion did not waver.
- True love is unique: When questioned, the bride described her beloved’s beauty and character, showing that genuine love sees no equal.
- Christ and the Church: Many see this as a picture of longing for Christ—sometimes He seems distant, yet He is altogether lovely and faithful to His people.

The Bride’s Response

10 I am my beloved’s, and his desire is for me.

Cross References: Song of Solomon 2:16; Song of Solomon 6:3; Genesis 3:16

11 Come, my beloved,
let us go out to the fields,

let us spend the night in the villages.

Cross References: Song of Solomon 2:10; Song of Solomon 1:16; Luke 9:12

12 Let us rise early and go to the vineyards, to see if the vines have budded, if the blossoms have opened,
and the pomegranates are in bloom—
there I will give you my love.

Cross References: Song of Solomon 6:11; Song of Solomon 2:15; Proverbs 5:19

13 The mandrakes send out their fragrance, and at our door are all kinds of choice fruits,
both new and old,
which I have stored up for you, my beloved.

Cross References: Genesis 30:14; Matthew 13:52; Song of Solomon 4:16

Key Lessons from Song of Solomon 7

- Love praises freely: The groom’s detailed admiration shows how love builds up by speaking beauty into the one we cherish.
- Mutual belonging: The bride declares again, “I am my beloved’s,” showing the security of commitment in marriage.
- Love is to be enjoyed together: The bride invites her beloved into the fields and vineyards, showing that love flourishes in shared life and experiences.
- Romance and devotion: The images of fruit, fragrance, and wine reflect joy, refreshment, and intimacy in a godly marriage.
- Prepared devotion: The bride treasures her love, storing up “new and old” fruits, reminding us that love requires effort, memory, and fresh devotion.

“The Power of Love”

The Bride’s Desire for Intimacy

1 Oh, that you were like my brother, nursed at my mother’s breasts!
Then, if I found you outside, I would kiss you, and no one would despise me.

Cross References: Hebrews 2:11; Matthew 12:50; Song of Solomon 1:2

2 I would lead you and bring you into my mother’s house—

she who taught me.

I would give you spiced wine to drink,
the juice of my pomegranates.

Cross References: Song of Solomon 3:4; Song of Solomon 4:13; Isaiah 25:6

3 His left hand would be under my head, and his right hand would embrace me.

Cross References: Song of Solomon 2:6; Deuteronomy 33:27; Psalm 63:8

4 I charge you, daughters of Jerusalem:
do not stir up or awaken love until it pleases.

Cross References: Song of Solomon 2:7; Song of Solomon 3:5; Ecclesiastes 3:5

The Strength of Love

5 Who is this coming up from the wilderness, leaning on her beloved?
Under the apple tree I awakened you;
there your mother conceived you;
there she who gave you birth brought you forth.

Cross References: Song of Solomon 3:6; Deuteronomy 32:10; Isaiah 63:1

6 Set me as a seal upon your heart, as a seal upon your arm.
For love is as strong as death,
and jealousy is as unyielding as the grave.
Its flames are flames of fire,
a most intense flame.

Cross References: Ephesians 1:13; Song of Solomon 2:16; Romans 8:38

7 Many waters cannot quench love, neither can floods drown it.
If a man were to give all the wealth of his house for love, he would be utterly despised.

Protecting Purity

8 We have a little sister, and she has no breasts.
What shall we do for our sister on the day she is spoken for?

Cross References: Ezekiel 16:7; 2 Corinthians 11:2; Genesis 24:58

9 If she is a wall,
we will build on her a tower of silver.
If she is a door,
we will enclose her with panels of cedar.

Cross References: Nehemiah 6:15; Ephesians 2:21; 1 Kings 6:15

10 I am a wall,
and my breasts are like towers.
So I became in his eyes
as one who brings peace.

The Bride's Vineyard

11 Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-hamon;
he rented out the vineyard to keepers.
Each was to bring a thousand pieces of silver for its fruit.

Cross References: Matthew 21:33; Isaiah 5:1; Matthew 20:1

12 But my vineyard, which is mine to give,
is before me.
You, O Solomon, may have the thousand, and the keepers of the fruit two hundred.

Cross References: Song of Solomon 1:6; 1 Corinthians 3:9; Isaiah 5:7

Closing Invitation

13 You who dwell in the gardens, friends are listening for your voice—let me hear it!

Cross References: John 10:3; Song of Solomon 2:14; Revelation 3:20 14 Make haste, my beloved,

and be like a gazelle or a young stag on the mountains of spices.

Cross References: Song of Solomon 2:17; Revelation 22:20; Habakkuk 3:19

Key Lessons from Song of Solomon 8

- Love is intimate and unashamed: The bride desires closeness with her beloved that is unhindered by cultural barriers or fear of judgment.
- Love is strong and unquenchable: True love is described as powerful as death, unyielding as the grave, and impossible to extinguish with waters or floods.

- Love is priceless: No amount of wealth can buy or replace genuine love.
- Purity must be guarded: The imagery of the “little sister” reminds us of protecting innocence until the right time of marriage.
- Belonging and devotion: The seal upon the heart and arm shows that love is both inward and outward—a total commitment.
- Christ and His Bride: Just as the beloved leans on her lover, so the Church leans on Christ, longing for His return with urgency and joy.

Introduction to the Book of Isaiah

“Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of His glory!” – Isaiah 6:3

Title and Meaning

The name Isaiah comes from the Hebrew Yesha‘yahu, meaning “The Lord is salvation.” This theme of salvation runs throughout the book, making Isaiah one of the most Christ-centered books in the Old Testament. Often called the “Gospel of the Old Testament,” Isaiah proclaims both judgment and redemption, pointing clearly to the coming Messiah.

Author and Date

Isaiah, son of Amoz, is traditionally regarded as the author of the book that bears his name. He ministered as a prophet in Judah for about 60 years, from approximately 740–680 BC, during the reigns of Kings Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah (Isaiah 1:1). Isaiah’s ministry came during a time of political upheaval, moral decline, and the looming threat of Assyrian invasion. His prophecies range from warnings of judgment against Judah and the nations to glorious visions of the future reign of the Messiah.

Purpose of Isaiah

Isaiah’s prophecy serves as both a warning and a hope:

- To warn Judah and surrounding nations of the coming judgment because of sin.
- To call God’s people to repentance and faith in the Holy One of Israel.
- To reveal God’s plan of redemption through His Servant, the Messiah.
- To encourage the faithful with visions of restoration, peace, and God’s eternal kingdom. Isaiah demonstrates that God is both just and merciful — He judges sin but also offers salvation through His anointed one.

Structure of Isaiah

Isaiah is often compared to a “miniature Bible”: 66 chapters corresponding to the Bible’s 66 books.

Chapters 1–39: Judgment and Warning

- Prophecies against Judah, Israel, and the nations.
- Historical accounts of Assyrian threats.
- God’s call for repentance and trust in Him, not in foreign alliances. Chapters 40–66: Comfort and Hope
- Promises of restoration after exile.
- The Servant Songs, pointing to the suffering and triumph of the Messiah (Isaiah 42, 49, 50, 53).
- Visions of the new heavens and new earth (Isaiah 65–66).

Major Themes

- The Holiness of God: God is the “Holy One of Israel,” exalted in majesty and purity.
- Sin and Judgment: Isaiah confronts idolatry, injustice, and hypocrisy.
- Messiah and Salvation: Clear prophecies of the coming Christ — His virgin birth (Isaiah 7:14), His deity (Isaiah 9:6), His suffering (Isaiah 53), and His eternal reign.
- Faith and Trust in God: Judah is urged to rely on God rather than human strength or political alliances.
- Future Glory: Isaiah points to the restoration of Israel and the coming kingdom where peace and righteousness will reign.

Why Isaiah Matters Today

Isaiah speaks powerfully to our world of turmoil and uncertainty:

- It reminds us of God’s holiness and justice in confronting sin.
- It assures us of God’s plan of salvation through Jesus Christ, foretold 700 years before His birth.
- It calls us to trust God in times of crisis, rather than relying on worldly solutions.
- It offers hope in the promise of a future kingdom of peace, joy, and righteousness. For Christians, Isaiah deepens our understanding of Christ’s mission, suffering, and ultimate victory.

Key Verse

“Therefore the Lord Himself will give you a sign: Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a Son, and shall call His name Immanuel.” – Isaiah 7:14 This prophecy points directly to Jesus Christ, God with us, the ultimate fulfillment of Isaiah’s message:

The Lord is salvation.

God's Promise of Purging and Restoration

24 Therefore the Lord, the Lord of hosts,
the Mighty One of Israel, declares:
“Ah! I will vent My wrath on My enemies and avenge Myself on My foes.

Cross References: Ezekiel 5:13; Deuteronomy 32:41; Ezekiel 22:31

25 I will turn My hand against you;
I will thoroughly purge away your impurities and remove all your dross.

Cross References: Malachi 3:2; Malachi 3:3; Zechariah 13:9

26 I will restore your judges as in the beginning, and your counselors as at first.
Afterward you will be called the City of Righteousness,
the Faithful City.”

The Shame of Idolatry

29 For you will be ashamed of the sacred oaks you desired;
you will be embarrassed because of the gardens you chose.

Cross References: Hosea 4:13; Deuteronomy 12:2; Ezekiel 6:13

30 You will be like an oak with fading leaves, like a garden without water.

Cross References: Psalm 1:3; Jeremiah 17:8; James 1:11

31 The strong will become like tinder, and their work like a spark;

both will burn together,
with no one to quench the fire.

Cross References: Amos 2:9; Obadiah 1:18; Nahum 1:10

Key Lessons from Isaiah 1

- Sin breaks God's heart: Israel is pictured as rebellious children who turned against their loving Father.
- Empty religion is worthless: God rejects rituals without righteousness and prayers without repentance.
- Repentance brings forgiveness: Though sins are scarlet, God offers to wash them white as snow.
- True worship requires justice: Caring for the oppressed, orphan, and widow reflects God's heart.
- God purges to restore: Though judgment comes, God promises to refine His people and restore righteousness.
- Love stronger than wrath: Even in judgment, God offers mercy and hope for redemption.

Isaiah 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord's Mountain and the Pride of Man”

The Mountain of the Lord's House

1 This is the word that Isaiah son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

Cross References: Micah 1:1; Amos 1:1; Habakkuk 1:1

2 In the last days, the mountain of the Lord's house will be established as the highest of the mountains, lifted above the hills. All nations will flow to it.

Cross References: Micah 4:1; Hebrews 12:22; Zechariah 8:3

3 Many peoples will come and say,
“Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob.
He will teach us His ways,
and we will walk in His paths.”
For the law will go out from Zion, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

Cross References: Micah 4:2; Luke 24:47; Psalm 110:2

4 He will judge between the nations and settle disputes for many peoples.
They will beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks.

Nation will not take up sword against nation, nor will they train for war anymore.

Cross References: Micah 4:3; Joel 3:10; Psalm 46:9

5 House of Jacob, come, let us walk in the light of the Lord.

Cross References: Micah 4:5; John 8:12; 1 John 1:7

The Lord Rejects Pride and Idols

6 Lord, You have abandoned Your people, the house of Jacob, because they are filled with practices from the East and follow fortune-tellers like the Philistines.
They make deals with foreigners.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 18:10; Deuteronomy 18:11; 2 Kings 21:6

7 Their land is full of silver and gold;
there is no end to their treasures.
Their land is full of horses;
there is no end to their chariots.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 17:16; Deuteronomy 17:17; Hosea 8:4

8 Their land is full of idols;
they bow down to the work of their own hands,
to what their own fingers have made.

Cross References: Psalm 115:4; Habakkuk 2:18; Jeremiah 10:3

9 So people will be brought low, and mankind humbled—
do not forgive them!

The Terror of the Lord's Day

10 Go into the rocks, hide in the dust
from the fear of the Lord
and the splendor of His majesty.

Cross References: Revelation 6:15; Revelation 6:16; Hosea 10:8

11 The proud eyes of man will be humbled, and human pride brought low.
The Lord alone will be exalted in that day.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:18; Luke 18:14; 1 Peter 5:5

12 For the Lord Almighty has a day in store against all the proud and arrogant, against all who are lifted up—and they will be brought low.

16 against every trading ship of Tarshish, and against every beautiful vessel.

Cross References: 1 Kings 10:22; Ezekiel 27:25; Jonah 1:3

17 The arrogance of man will be brought low, and human pride humbled.

The Lord alone will be exalted in that day,

Cross References: Philippians 2:9; Proverbs 29:23; Job 40:11

18 and the idols will totally disappear.

Cross References: Zechariah 13:2; Micah 5:13; Ezekiel 30:13

Men Flee from God's Glory

19 People will flee to caves in the rocks and to holes in the ground
from the fear of the Lord
and the splendor of His majesty,
when He rises to shake the earth.

Cross References: Revelation 6:15; Hebrews 12:26; Judges 6:2

20 In that day people will throw away their idols of silver and gold, which they made to worship,
to the moles and bats.

Cross References: Ezekiel 7:19; Habakkuk 2:19; Hosea 8:6

21 They will go into caverns in the rocks and to the clefts in the cliffs,
from the fear of the Lord
and the splendor of His majesty,
when He rises to shake the earth.

Cross References: Jeremiah 4:29; Revelation 6:16; 1 Samuel 13:6

Stop Trusting in Man

22 Stop trusting in man, who has only breath in his nostrils.
Why hold him in such high esteem?

Cross References: Psalm 146:3; Psalm 146:4; Jeremiah 17:5

Key Lessons from Isaiah 2

- God’s kingdom is supreme: In the last days, His house will be exalted above all nations, and people everywhere will seek His teaching.
- True peace comes from God: Weapons of war will be turned into tools of peace when God reigns over the nations.
- Idolatry leads to downfall: Trusting in wealth, power, and man-made gods only brings shame and judgment.
- The proud will be humbled: God’s day will bring low everything that exalts itself against Him.
- God alone is worthy of trust: Human strength and pride are fleeting—only the Lord deserves our confidence.

Isaiah 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Judgment on Jerusalem’s Leaders and the Proud Daughters of Zion”

God Removes Support from Judah

1 Look, the Lord, the Lord of Heaven’s Armies, is taking away from Jerusalem and Judah everything they depend on—all supplies of bread, and all supplies of water.

Cross References: Leviticus 26:26; Ezekiel 4:16; Ezekiel 5:16

2 Heroes and warriors, judges and prophets,
the wise and the elders,

Cross References: Micah 3:11; Jeremiah 18:18; Ezekiel 7:26

3 captains of fifty,
honorable men,
counselors, skilled craftsmen,
and eloquent speakers.

Cross References: 2 Kings 24:14; 2 Kings 24:16; Daniel 1:3

4 “I will make children their rulers; inexperienced ones will rule over them.

Cross References: Ecclesiastes 10:16; Hosea 13:11; 1 Kings 12:8

5 People will oppress one another—neighbor against neighbor.
The young will rise up against the old, and the dishonorable against the honorable.”

Cross References: Micah 7:6; Matthew 10:21; Malachi 4:6

Corruption and Rebellion Exposed

6 A man will grab his brother in his father’s house and say, “You have a cloak—
you be our leader;
take charge of this ruin!”

Cross References: Judges 9:8; Judges 9:9; 1 Samuel 8:5

7 But on that day he will protest,
“I cannot fix this!
I have no food or clothing in my house.
Don’t make me the ruler of the people!”

Cross References: Exodus 4:10; Judges 6:15; 1 Kings 3:7

8 Jerusalem staggers;
Judah falls.
Their words and actions are against the Lord, defying His glorious presence.

Cross References: Jeremiah 44:8; Numbers 15:30; Psalm 78:40

9 The look on their faces testifies against them.
They flaunt their sin like Sodom;
they do not even try to hide it.
Woe to them!
They have brought disaster upon themselves.

Cross References: Genesis 19:5; Jeremiah 3:3; Jeremiah 6:15

10 Tell the righteous,
“It will be well with you,
for you will enjoy the reward of your deeds.”

Cross References: Psalm 128:2; Galatians 6:8; Proverbs 11:18

11 Woe to the wicked!
Disaster is upon them.
They will be paid back for what their hands have done.

Cross References: Psalm 7:15; Proverbs 1:31; Romans 6:23

12 My people are oppressed by children;
women rule over them.
O My people, your leaders mislead you;
they confuse the direction of your paths.

Cross References: Micah 3:5; Jeremiah 23:1; Jeremiah 23:2

The Lord Judges the Leaders

13 The Lord takes His stand to argue His case;
He rises to judge the people.

Cross References: Micah 6:1; Micah 6:2; Psalm 82:1

14 The Lord brings charges against the elders and leaders of His people:
“You have ruined My vineyard.
The plunder taken from the poor is stored in your houses.

Cross References: Micah 3:1; Micah 3:2; Amos 5:11

15 What do you mean by crushing My people, and grinding the faces of the poor?”
declares the Lord, the Lord of Heaven’s Armies.

Cross References: Amos 4:1; Amos 8:4; Proverbs 22:22

The Pride of the Daughters of Zion

16 The Lord says,
“Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, walking with heads held high,
flirting with their eyes,
strutting with quick steps,
tinkling their ankle jewelry,

Cross References: 1 Timothy 2:9; Proverbs 6:17; 1 Peter 3:3

17 the Lord will bring sores on the heads of the daughters of Zion;
He will expose their shame.”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 28:27; Leviticus 13:2; 2 Chronicles 26:19

18 In that day the Lord will strip away their finery—the jewelry that jingles on their ankles, headbands and crescent necklaces,

22 fine robes and capes,
cloaks and purses,

Cross References: 1 Peter 3:4; Genesis 45:22; 2 Kings 5:22

23 mirrors, linen garments, turbans and shawls.

Cross References: Proverbs 31:22; Ezekiel 16:13; Genesis 24:65

24 Instead of fragrance, there will be a stench;
instead of a sash, a rope;
instead of well-set hair, baldness;
instead of fine clothes, sackcloth;
instead of beauty, branding.

Cross References: Amos 8:10; Job 16:15; Joel 1:8

Jerusalem's Desolation

25 Your men will fall by the sword, your warriors in battle.

Cross References: Jeremiah 15:2; Lamentations 2:21; Deuteronomy 28:25

26 The gates of Zion will mourn and lament; deserted, she will sit on the ground.

Cross References: Lamentations 1:1; Lamentations 2:10; Jeremiah 14:2

Key Lessons from Isaiah 3

- God removes false security: When people trust in leaders, wealth, or outward beauty instead of the Lord, He removes those supports.
- Corruption brings ruin: Leaders who oppress the poor and take advantage of the weak will face God’s judgment.
- Sin brings shame: Like Sodom, flaunted sin leads only to destruction and disgrace.
- True beauty comes from humility: Outward appearance fades, but pride brings dishonor.
- Only God sustains a nation: Bread, water, leaders, and security all come from Him—when people turn from Him, He removes them.

Isaiah 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Branch of the Lord and Zion’s Cleansing”

The Shame of Reproach Removed

1 In that day seven women will take hold of one man, saying,
“We will eat our own food and provide our own clothes;
just let us be called by your name.
Take away our disgrace.”

Cross References: Genesis 30:23; Luke 1:25; Ruth 1:20

The Branch of the Lord

2 In that day the Branch of the Lord will be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land will be the pride and glory of those in Israel who survive.

Cross References: Jeremiah 23:5; Zechariah 3:8; Jeremiah 33:15

3 Everyone who remains in Zion and is left in Jerusalem will be called holy—all who are recorded among the living in Jerusalem.

Cross References: Daniel 12:1; Revelation 21:27; Luke 10:20

The Lord Cleanses Zion

4 The Lord will wash away the filth of the daughters of Zion and cleanse the bloodstains of Jerusalem from her midst
by a spirit of judgment and a spirit of fire.

Cross References: Malachi 3:2; Ezekiel 36:25; Zechariah 13:1

God's Protective Presence

5 Then the Lord will create over all of Mount Zion and over those who gather there a cloud of smoke by day and a glowing fire by night;
over everything the glory will be a covering.

Cross References: Exodus 13:21; Exodus 13:22; Exodus 40:38

6 It will be a shelter to give shade from the heat by day, a place of refuge,
and a hiding place from storm and rain.

Cross References: Psalm 121:5; Psalm 121:6; Psalm 91:1

Key Lessons from Isaiah 4

- God removes disgrace: Even in desperate times, God will take away His people's shame and restore their honor.
- The Branch of the Lord is Christ: The promised Branch points to the Messiah, beautiful and glorious, the hope of the faithful remnant.
- Holiness is God's mark: Those who survive and remain faithful will be called holy, set apart by the Lord Himself.
- God cleanses by fire and judgment: His purification removes sin and guilt, making His people clean.
- God's presence protects His people: Just as He guided Israel in the wilderness, His glory will be their shelter, shade, and refuge.

Isaiah 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Song of the Vineyard and Woes of Judgment”

The Song of the Vineyard

1 Now I will sing for the One I love, a song about His vineyard.
My beloved had a vineyard on a fertile hillside.

Cross References: Matthew 21:33; Psalm 80:8; Psalm 80:9

2 He dug it up and cleared it of stones, planted it with the best vines,
built a watchtower in it,
and cut out a winepress as well.
He expected it to yield good grapes, but it produced only wild, bitter ones.

Cross References: Matthew 21:34; Jeremiah 2:21; Mark 12:1

3 “Now, you people of Jerusalem and Judah, judge between Me and My vineyard.

Cross References: Micah 6:1; Micah 6:2; Jeremiah 2:5

4 What more could I have done for My vineyard that I have not already done?
When I looked for good grapes,
why did it yield only bad ones?

Cross References: Jeremiah 2:21; Micah 6:3; Jeremiah 8:19

5 Now I will tell you what I will do to My vineyard:
I will remove its hedge, and it will be destroyed;
I will break down its wall, and it will be trampled.

Cross References: Psalm 80:12; Psalm 80:13; Nehemiah 1:3

6 I will make it a wasteland.
It will not be pruned or cultivated,
and briers and thorns will grow there.
I will command the clouds not to rain on it.”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 28:23; Deuteronomy 28:24; Amos 4:7

7 For the vineyard of the Lord of Heaven’s Armies is the house of Israel, and the people of Judah are His pleasant planting.
He looked for justice, but found only oppression;
for righteousness, but heard cries of distress.

Cross References: John 15:1; Jeremiah 2:21; Micah 6:8

Woes Against Greed and Pleasure

8 Woe to those who add house to house and join field to field until there is no room left,
and you live alone in the land.

Cross References: Micah 2:2; 1 Kings 21:19; Habakkuk 2:9

9 The Lord Almighty has declared in My hearing:
“Surely many houses will be ruined, large and beautiful houses left empty.

Cross References: Amos 5:11; Zephaniah 1:13; Micah 6:16

10 Ten acres of vineyard will yield only a few gallons of wine, and a large amount of seed will yield only a small measure of grain.”

Cross References: Haggai 1:6; Leviticus 26:20; Deuteronomy 28:38

11 Woe to those who rise early in the morning to chase after strong drink, who stay up late at night inflamed with wine.

Cross References: Proverbs 23:29; Proverbs 23:30; Amos 6:6

12 They have harps and lyres, tambourines, flutes, and wine at their feasts,
but they pay no attention to the Lord’s work, and they do not see what His hands have done.

Cross References: Amos 6:5; Amos 6:6; Psalm 28:5

13 Therefore My people will go into exile for lack of knowledge.
Their nobles will die of hunger,
and the masses will be parched with thirst.

Cross References: Hosea 4:6; Hosea 4:1; Jeremiah 4:22

14 Therefore the grave has enlarged its appetite and opened its mouth wide.
Into it will descend their nobles,
their multitudes,
their noisy revelers,
and all who celebrate with joy.

Cross References: Proverbs 27:20; Habakkuk 2:5; Numbers 16:30

15 People will be brought low, everyone humbled;
the eyes of the arrogant brought down.

Cross References: Proverbs 16:18; 1 Peter 5:5; 1 Peter 5:6

16 But the Lord Almighty will be exalted by His justice, and the Holy God will show Himself holy by His righteousness.

Cross References: Leviticus 10:3; Ezekiel 38:23; Psalm 99:4

17 Then sheep will graze as in their own pasture;
lambs will feed among the ruins of the rich.

Cross References: Zephaniah 2:6; Micah 7:14; Ezekiel 34:14

Woes Against Sin and Arrogance

18 Woe to those who drag their sins along with cords of deceit, who pull wickedness with ropes like a cart.

Cross References: Proverbs 5:22; Jeremiah 5:25; Hosea 11:4

19 They mock, saying,
“Let God hurry and do His work
so we can see it!
Let the plan of the Holy One of Israel come true, so we may know it!”

Cross References: 2 Peter 3:3; 2 Peter 3:4; Jeremiah 17:15

20 Woe to those who call evil good and good evil,
who put darkness for light and light for darkness, who put bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter.

Cross References: Malachi 2:17; Proverbs 17:15; Micah 3:2

21 Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes and clever in their own sight.

Cross References: Proverbs 3:7; Proverbs 26:12; Romans 12:16

22 Woe to those who are heroes at drinking wine, and champions at mixing drinks,

Cross References: Proverbs 20:1; Proverbs 23:20; Proverbs 23:21

23 who acquit the guilty for a bribe, but deny justice to the innocent.

Cross References: Exodus 23:8; Proverbs 17:15; Micah 3:11

God’s Anger Against His People

24 Therefore, as fire devours stubble and flames consume dry grass, so their roots will rot
and their blossoms will blow away like dust;
for they have rejected the law of the Lord Almighty and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

Cross References: Malachi 4:1; Matthew 3:12; Amos 2:4

25 Therefore the Lord's anger burns against His people;
He has raised His hand against them and struck them down.
The mountains shake,
and dead bodies lie like refuse in the streets.
Yet for all this, His anger is not turned away;
His hand is still raised to strike.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 29:24; Deuteronomy 29:25; Amos 4:10

The Army of Judgment

26 He lifts up a banner for the nations far away;
He whistles for them from the ends of the earth.
They come swiftly and speedily.

Cross References: Habakkuk 1:6; Deuteronomy 28:49; Jeremiah 5:15

27 Not one of them grows tired or stumbles;
no one slumbers or sleeps.
Their belts are tight,
their sandals strapped on.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 28:49; Deuteronomy 28:50; Joel 2:7

28 Their arrows are sharp,
all their bows strung.
Their horses' hooves are like flint;
their chariot wheels like a whirlwind.

Cross References: Jeremiah 5:16; Habakkuk 1:8; Habakkuk 1:9

29 Their roar is like that of a lion;
they roar like young lions.
They growl and seize their prey;
they carry it off with no one to rescue.

Cross References: Jeremiah 5:6; 1 Peter 5:8; Amos 3:4

30 In that day they will roar over them like the roaring of the sea.
And if one looks across the land,
there is only darkness and distress;
even the light will be darkened by clouds.

Cross References: Amos 5:18; Amos 5:20; Joel 2:2

Key Lessons from Isaiah 5

- God expects fruit from His people: Like a vineyard, Israel was planted and cared for, but it produced wild grapes of sin instead of righteousness.

- Greed destroys communities: Hoarding land and wealth leads to desolation and ruin.
- Pleasure without God blinds the soul: Wine, music, and feasting are empty when people ignore the Lord's work.
- Woe to those who redefine morality: Calling evil good and good evil brings certain judgment.
- God's holiness will prevail: The proud will be humbled, but God will be exalted in justice and righteousness.
- Judgment comes swiftly: When God calls distant nations as instruments of His anger, nothing can stop them.

Isaiah 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Isaiah’s Vision and Commission”

Isaiah’s Vision of the Lord

1 In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord seated on a throne, high and exalted, and the train of His robe filled the temple.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 26:23; John 12:41; Revelation 4:2

2 Above Him stood the seraphim, each with six wings:
with two they covered their faces, with two they covered their feet,
and with two they flew.

Cross References: Revelation 4:8; Ezekiel 1:11; Exodus 25:20

3 And they called to one another:
“Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of Heaven’s Armies;
the whole earth is filled with His glory.”

Cross References: Revelation 4:8; Habakkuk 2:14; Psalm 72:19

4 The foundations of the thresholds shook at the sound of their voices, and the temple was filled with smoke.

Cross References: Exodus 19:18; Revelation 15:8; Acts 4:31

Isaiah’s Cleansing

5 Then I cried,
“Woe is me! I am ruined!
For I am a man of unclean lips,
and I live among a people of unclean lips, and my eyes have seen the King,
the Lord of Heaven’s Armies.”

Cross References: Exodus 33:20; Job 42:6; Luke 5:8

6 Then one of the seraphim flew to me with a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with tongs from the altar.

Cross References: Jeremiah 1:9; Revelation 8:5; Leviticus 16:12

7 He touched my mouth with it and said, “See, this has touched your lips;
your guilt is taken away,
and your sin atoned for.”

Cross References: 1 John 1:9; Zechariah 3:4; Psalm 51:2

Isaiah’s Call

8 Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send?
Who will go for us?”
And I said,
“Here am I. Send me!”

Cross References: Exodus 3:11; Acts 9:15; Romans 10:15

9 He said,
“Go and tell this people:
‘Keep listening, but do not understand;
keep looking, but do not perceive.’”

Cross References: Matthew 13:14; Mark 4:12; John 12:40

10 Make the hearts of this people dull, make their ears heavy,
and shut their eyes;
otherwise they might see with their eyes,
hear with their ears,
understand with their hearts,
turn and be healed.”

Cross References: Matthew 13:15; Acts 28:27; John 9:39

The Length of Judgment

11 Then I asked, “Lord, how long?”
And He answered,
“Until the cities lie ruined and without inhabitant, until the houses are deserted and the land is completely desolate,

Cross References: Psalm 13:1; Revelation 6:10; Habakkuk 1:2

12 until the Lord has sent everyone far away, and the land is utterly forsaken.

Cross References: 2 Kings 25:21; Deuteronomy 28:64; Leviticus 26:33

13 Yet a tenth will remain in it, but it will be burned again, like a terebinth or an oak tree whose stump remains when it is cut down.
So the holy seed will be the stump in the land.”

Cross References: Romans 11:5; Isaiah 10:22; Ezra 9:8

Key Lessons from Isaiah 6

- God’s holiness is overwhelming: Isaiah saw the Lord’s glory and realized his own unworthiness.
- Sin must be cleansed before service: God purified Isaiah’s lips, showing that forgiveness is necessary before ministry.
- God calls and commissions His servants: Isaiah responded with willingness—“Here am I, send me.”
- Judgment follows rejection: Israel’s hearts were hardened because they refused to listen and obey.
- A faithful remnant remains: Even in judgment, God preserves a “holy seed,” a promise of hope and restoration.

Isaiah 7 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Prophecy of Immanuel”

The Threat Against Judah

1 During the days of Ahaz son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, Rezin king of Aram (Syria) and Pekah son of Remaliah, king of Israel, marched up to Jerusalem to fight against it, but they could not overpower it.

Cross References: 2 Kings 16:5; 2 Chronicles 28:5; 2 Kings 15:37

2 When the house of David was told, “Aram has joined forces with Ephraim,” the heart of Ahaz and the hearts of his people trembled like trees shaking in the wind.

Cross References: 2 Kings 16:5; Judges 9:15; Psalm 46:2

God’s Word to Ahaz

3 Then the Lord said to Isaiah, “Go out to meet Ahaz, you and your son Shear-jashub, at the end of the aqueduct of the upper pool, on the road to the Washer’s Field.

Cross References: 2 Kings 18:17; Isaiah 10:21; Isaiah 36:2

4 Tell him, ‘Be careful, stay calm, and do not be afraid. Do not lose heart because of the fierce anger of Rezin and Aram and the son of Remaliah. They are nothing but two smoldering stumps of firewood.

Cross References: 2 Kings 19:6; Isaiah 41:10; Amos 4:11

5 Aram, Ephraim, and Remaliah’s son have plotted against you, saying,

Cross References: 2 Kings 16:5; Psalm 83:5; 2 Chronicles 28:6

6 “Let us attack Judah, tear it apart, and divide it among ourselves. We will install the son of Tabeal as king.”

Cross References: Psalm 2:2; 2 Kings 15:37; Hosea 5:13

7 But this is what the Sovereign Lord says:

“It will not happen; it will not take place.

Cross References: Proverbs 19:21; Isaiah 8:10; Numbers 23:19

8 For the head of Aram is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin. Within sixty-five years Ephraim will be shattered as a people.

Cross References: 2 Kings 17:6; Amos 1:5; Ezra 4:2

9 The head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah’s son. If you do not stand firm in faith, you will not stand at all.”””

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 20:20; Hebrews 11:6; 2 Kings 17:6

The Sign of Immanuel

10 The Lord spoke again to Ahaz,

Cross References: 2 Kings 20:8; Judges 6:36; Matthew 12:38

11 “Ask the Lord your God for a sign, whether in the deepest depths or in the highest heights.”

Cross References: Judges 6:37; 2 Kings 20:9; John 20:25

12 But Ahaz said, “I will not ask; I will not test the Lord.”

Cross References: Deuteronomy 6:16; Matthew 4:7; 2 Kings 16:7

13 Then Isaiah said, “Hear now, house of David! Is it not enough to try the patience of men? Will you also try the patience of my God?

Cross References: Numbers 16:9; Malachi 2:17; 2 Kings 16:10

14 Therefore the Lord Himself will give you a sign:

The virgin will conceive and give birth to a son, and will call him Immanuel (which means, ‘God with us’).

Cross References: Matthew 1:23; Luke 1:31; Micah 5:2

15 By the time he knows enough to reject wrong and choose right, he will be eating curds and honey.

Cross References: Isaiah 8:4; 2 Kings 16:9; 2 Kings 15:29

16 For before the boy knows to reject the wrong and choose the right, the land of the two kings you dread will be laid waste.

Cross References: 2 Kings 16:9; 2 Chronicles 28:20; Isaiah 8:4

Coming Judgment by Assyria

17 The Lord will bring upon you, your people, and your father's house a time unlike any since Ephraim broke away from Judah—He will bring the king of Assyria.”

Cross References: 2 Kings 16:7; 2 Chronicles 28:20; Isaiah 8:7

18 In that day the Lord will whistle for the fly from Egypt's distant streams and for the bee from the land of Assyria.

Cross References: Hosea 11:11; Isaiah 5:26; Deuteronomy 28:49

19 They will come and settle in steep ravines, in rocky crevices, among thornbushes, and in all the watering holes.

Cross References: Judges 6:2; Isaiah 2:19; Revelation 6:15

20 In that day the Lord will use a razor hired from beyond the Euphrates—the king of Assyria—to shave your head and private parts, and to cut off your beard also.

Cross References: 2 Kings 16:7; Ezekiel 29:18; Isaiah 10:5

The Land Laid Waste

21 In that day a man will keep alive a young cow and two goats.

Cross References: Isaiah 7:15; 2 Samuel 17:29; Judges 6:4

22 And because of the abundance of milk they give, he will have curds to eat. All who remain in the land will eat curds and honey.

Cross References: Isaiah 7:15; Deuteronomy 32:14; 2 Samuel 17:29

23 In that day, in every place where there used to be a thousand vines worth a thousand silver pieces, there will be only briers and thorns.

Cross References: Isaiah 5:6; Isaiah 32:13; Hosea 2:12

24 Men will go there with bows and arrows, for the land will be covered with briers and thorns.

Cross References: Isaiah 5:6; Genesis 3:18; Hosea 10:8

25 As for the hills once cultivated with a hoe, you will no longer go there for fear of the briers and thorns. They will become places where cattle are turned loose and sheep trample.

Cross References: Isaiah 5:6; Isaiah 27:4; Micah 7:14

Key Lessons from Isaiah 7

- Fear weakens faith: Ahaz trembled at the threat of men, but God reminded him to stand firm in faith or he would fall.
- God is sovereign over nations: Plans against God's people cannot stand when He has decreed otherwise.
- God offers signs of hope: The virgin birth prophecy points forward to Christ, Immanuel—God with us.
- Rejection brings judgment: Ahaz refused God's invitation, and so God promised the coming of Assyria as a tool of judgment.
- Blessing for the faithful remnant: Even in a desolate land, God would preserve a people who would live on His provision.

Isaiah 8 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Sign of Maher-shalal-hash-baz and the Coming Assyrian Flood”

The Birth of a Prophetic Sign

1 The Lord said to me, “Take a large scroll and write on it clearly: Maher-shalal-hash-baz (‘Quick to the plunder, swift to the spoil’).

Cross References: Habakkuk 2:2; Isaiah 8:3; Deuteronomy 19:15

2 So I called in trustworthy witnesses—Uriah the priest and Zechariah son of Jeberechiah—to confirm the record.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 17:6; Isaiah 8:16; Nehemiah 9:38

3 Then I went to the prophetess, and she conceived and gave birth to a son. The Lord said to me, “Name him Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

Cross References: Isaiah 7:14; Isaiah 8:4; Luke 1:31

4 For before the boy knows how to say, ‘My father’ or ‘My mother,’ the wealth of Damascus and the plunder of Samaria will be carried off by the king of Assyria.”

Cross References: 2 Kings 16:9; 2 Kings 17:6; Isaiah 7:16

Assyria, the Flooding River

5 The Lord spoke to me again, saying,

Cross References: Isaiah 8:6; Jeremiah 2:13; Isaiah 30:1

6 “Because this people has rejected the gentle waters of Shiloah and rejoices in Rezin and Remaliah's son,

Cross References: John 9:7; Jeremiah 2:18; Nehemiah 3:15

7 the Lord will bring against them the mighty floodwaters of the Euphrates—the king of Assyria with all his power. It will overflow its channels and run over all its banks.

Cross References: 2 Kings 16:7; Isaiah 17:12; Jeremiah 46:8

8 It will sweep into Judah, overflowing and passing through. It will reach up to the neck; its outspread wings will cover the breadth of your land, O Immanuel.”

Cross References: Isaiah 7:14; Matthew 1:23; Isaiah 30:28

God Is With Us

9 “Raise your battle cry, you nations, and be shattered!

Listen, all you distant lands.

Prepare for battle—but you will be broken.

Prepare for battle—but you will be broken.

Cross References: Psalm 2:1; Psalm 33:10; Proverbs 21:30

10 Devise your plans, but they will fail; make your agreements, but they will not stand, for God is with us.”

Cross References: Matthew 1:23; Romans 8:31; Proverbs 19:21

A Call to Fear the Lord Alone

11 The Lord spoke to me with a strong hand and warned me not to follow the way of this people. He said,

Cross References: Jeremiah 15:19; Ezekiel 3:8; Numbers 14:9

12 “Do not call conspiracy everything that these people call conspiracy.
Do not fear what they fear, and do not be terrified.

Cross References: 1 Peter 3:14; Numbers 14:9; Jeremiah 1:8

13 But honor the Lord Almighty as holy.

He is the One you are to fear;

He is the One you are to dread.

Cross References: 1 Peter 3:15; Matthew 10:28; Psalm 34:9

14 He will be a sanctuary;
but for both houses of Israel He will be a stone that makes men stumble and a rock that makes them fall.
For the people of Jerusalem He will be a trap and a snare.

Cross References: Romans 9:33; 1 Peter 2:8; Luke 2:34

15 Many of them will stumble;
they will fall and be broken;
they will be snared and captured.”

Cross References: Luke 2:34; Matthew 21:44; 1 Peter 2:8

Waiting on the Lord

16 Bind up the testimony and seal the teaching among my disciples.

Cross References: Isaiah 8:20; Daniel 12:4; Deuteronomy 6:9

17 I will wait for the Lord, who is hiding His face from the house of Jacob.
I will put my trust in Him.

Cross References: Habakkuk 2:3; Micah 7:7; Psalm 27:14

18 Here am I, and the children the Lord has given me.
We are signs and symbols in Israel from the Lord Almighty, who dwells on Mount Zion.

Cross References: Hebrews 2:13; Isaiah 7:3; Isaiah 20:3

Rejecting False Guidance

19 When men tell you to consult mediums and spiritists, who whisper and mutter,
should not a people ask their God for guidance?
Why consult the dead on behalf of the living?

Cross References: Leviticus 19:31; Deuteronomy 18:11; 1 Samuel 28:7

20 Look to God's law and testimony!
If they do not speak according to this word,
there is no light in them.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 13:3; Acts 17:11; 2 Timothy 3:16

21 Distressed and hungry,
they will roam through the land.
When they are famished,
they will become enraged
and look upward, cursing their king and their God.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 28:53; Revelation 16:10; Isaiah 5:30

22 Then they will look toward the earth and see only distress and darkness, fearful gloom,
and they will be driven into deep darkness.

Cross References: Revelation 16:11; Deuteronomy 28:29; Zephaniah 1:15

Key Lessons from Isaiah 8

- God gives clear signs: The birth of Isaiah's son symbolized the swift judgment coming through Assyria.
- Rejecting God's peace brings destruction: Those who reject the gentle streams of God's provision will be overwhelmed by the flood of His judgment.
- God is our refuge: Nations may plot, but their plans fail because Immanuel—God with us— stands with His people.
- Fear the Lord, not man: God's people must not be driven by conspiracies or fear of men, but must honor Him alone.
- Christ the Rock: To some He is a sanctuary, but to others a stumbling stone of offense.
- Seek God, not the occult: Consulting the dead or spiritists shows darkness, while God's Word gives true light.
- Without God, only despair remains: Turning from Him leads to anger, hopelessness, and darkness.

Isaiah 9 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Great Light and the Prince of Peace”

Light in the Darkness

1 Nevertheless, the gloom will not be as great as it was in the past, when the Lord humbled the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali. In the future He will honor Galilee of the nations, the land along the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan.

Cross References: Matthew 4:15; 2 Kings 15:29; Matthew 4:13

2 The people walking in darkness have seen a great light; on those living in the land of the shadow of death,
a light has dawned.

Cross References: Matthew 4:16; Luke 1:79; John 8:12

3 You have enlarged the nation and increased their joy;
they rejoice before You
as people rejoice at harvest time, as warriors rejoice when dividing plunder.

Cross References: Psalm 126:5; Psalm 4:7; Luke 1:14

4 For You have broken the yoke of their burden, the bar across their shoulders,
the rod of their oppressor—
just as You did in the day of Midian's defeat.

Cross References: Judges 7:22; Isaiah 10:27; Judges 6:1

5 Every warrior's boot used in battle and every garment rolled in blood will be destined for burning, fuel for the fire.

Cross References: Judges 7:22; Nahum 2:3; Ezekiel 39:9

The Coming King

6 For to us a child is born, to us a son is given;
and the government will rest on His shoulders.
And He will be called:
Wonderful Counselor,
Mighty God,
Everlasting Father,
Prince of Peace.

Cross References: Luke 2:11; Luke 1:32; John 14:27

7 Of the greatness of His government and peace
there will be no end.
He will reign on David's throne and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and forever.
The zeal of the Lord of Heaven's Armies will accomplish this.

Cross References: Luke 1:33; 2 Samuel 7:13; Daniel 7:14

Judgment Against Arrogance

8 The Lord has sent a message against Jacob;
it will fall on Israel.

Cross References: Amos 6:1; Hosea 5:5; Proverbs 16:18

9 All the people will know it—
Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria—who say with pride and arrogance of heart:

Cross References: Proverbs 16:18; Hosea 7:10; Obadiah 1:3

10 "The bricks have fallen down, but we will rebuild with dressed stone;
the sycamore trees have been cut down, but we will replace them with cedars."

Cross References: Amos 5:11; Job 40:12; Isaiah 2:12

11 But the Lord will strengthen Rezin's foes against them and join their enemies together.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 28:18; 2 Kings 16:6; Judges 2:14

12 Arameans from the east and Philistines from the west will devour Israel with open mouth.
Yet for all this, His anger is not turned away;
His hand is still stretched out.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 28:18; Isaiah 9:21; Judges 10:9

Corrupt Leaders and Blind People

13 But the people have not returned to Him who struck them, nor have they sought the Lord Almighty.

Cross References: Amos 4:6; Hosea 7:10; Jeremiah 5:3

14 So the Lord will cut off from Israel both head and tail, both palm branch and reed, in a single day.

Cross References: Deuteronomy 28:44; Isaiah 9:15; Amos 2:14

15 The elders and honored men are the head,
the prophets who teach lies are the tail.

Cross References: Micah 3:11; Jeremiah 5:31; Jeremiah 14:14

16 Those who guide this people mislead them, and those who are guided are destroyed.

Cross References: Matthew 15:14; Jeremiah 23:1; Micah 3:5

17 Therefore the Lord takes no pleasure in the young men, nor does He show compassion to the fatherless and widows;
for everyone is ungodly and wicked,
every mouth speaks folly.
Yet for all this, His anger is not turned away;
His hand is still stretched out.

Cross References: Jeremiah 9:6; Job 8:13; Jeremiah 23:11

Wickedness Consumes the Land

18 Surely wickedness burns like a fire;
it consumes briars and thorns,
it sets the forest thickets ablaze,
so that it rolls upward in a column of smoke.

Cross References: Malachi 4:1; Isaiah 10:17; Jeremiah 21:14

19 By the wrath of the Lord Almighty the land will be scorched, and the people will be fuel for the fire;
they will not spare one another.

Cross References: Jeremiah 15:2; Micah 7:2; Zephaniah 1:18

20 On the right they will devour, but still be hungry;
on the left they will eat, but not be satisfied.
Each will feed on the flesh of their own offspring.

Cross References: Leviticus 26:29; Ezekiel 5:10; Lamentations 4:10

21 Manasseh will attack Ephraim, and Ephraim will attack Manasseh;
together they will turn against Judah.
Yet for all this, His anger is not turned away;
His hand is still stretched out.

Cross References: Galatians 5:15; Isaiah 9:12; Isaiah 9:17

Key Lessons from Isaiah 9

- Christ is the promised Light: Jesus, born in Galilee, fulfills the prophecy of light shining in darkness.
- God's Son is the Prince of Peace: The titles given—Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace—point directly to the Messiah's eternal reign.
- Pride brings destruction: Israel arrogantly said they would rebuild stronger without God, but their enemies were raised against them.
- False leaders ruin nations: Dishonest prophets and corrupt rulers misled the people, leading them into judgment.
- Sin devours like fire: Wickedness spreads and consumes, leaving people empty, divided, and destroyed.
- God's hand of judgment continues until repentance: His stretched-out hand shows both His justice and His patience, calling His people to turn back.

Isaiah 10 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Woe to Oppressors, Judgment on Assyria, and the Remnant of Israel”

Woe to Oppressive Leaders

1 Woe to those who make unjust laws, to those who write oppressive decrees,

Cross References: Amos 2:6; Exodus 23:6; Micah 2:1

2 to deprive the poor of their rights and rob My people of justice, to make widows their prey and plunder the fatherless!

Cross References: Micah 2:2; Psalm 94:6; James 5:4

3 What will you do on the day of judgment, when disaster comes from afar?
To whom will you run for help?
Where will you leave your wealth?

Cross References: Hosea 9:7; Luke 19:44; Jeremiah 5:31

4 Nothing remains but to bow among the captives or fall among the slain.
Yet for all this, His anger is not turned away;
His hand is still stretched out.

Cross References: Isaiah 9:12; Isaiah 5:25; 2 Kings 17:6

Assyria: The Rod of God's Anger

5 "Woe to the Assyrian, the rod of My anger, in whose hand is the club of My wrath!

Cross References: Isaiah 10:15; Habakkuk 1:6; Jeremiah 51:20

6 I send him against a godless nation;
I dispatch him against a people who have provoked My wrath, to seize loot, take plunder,
and trample them down like mud in the streets.

Cross References: Isaiah 5:25; Micah 7:10; 2 Kings 17:7

7 But this is not what he intends;
this is not what he has in mind.
His purpose is to destroy,
to put an end to many nations.

Cross References: Genesis 50:20; Habakkuk 1:7; Acts 2:23

8 He says:
'Are not my commanders all kings?

Cross References: 2 Kings 18:33; Isaiah 36:18; Isaiah 37:12

9 Has not Calno fared like Carchemish?
Is not Hamath like Arpad, and Samaria like Damascus?

Cross References: Isaiah 37:13; 2 Kings 19:12; Isaiah 36:19

10 As my hand seized the kingdoms of the idols, kingdoms whose carved images were greater than those of Jerusalem and Samaria—

Cross References: 2 Kings 18:34; Isaiah 37:23; Isaiah 36:19

11 shall I not deal with Jerusalem and her idols as I dealt with Samaria and her idols?”

Cross References: Isaiah 36:20; Isaiah 37:23; 2 Kings 18:35

The Pride of Assyria Punished

12 When the Lord has finished all His work against Mount Zion and Jerusalem, He will punish the king of Assyria for the fruit of his arrogant heart and the pride of his haughty eyes.

Cross References: Isaiah 37:36; 2 Kings 19:35; Isaiah 14:25

13 For he says:

“By the strength of my hand I have done this,
and by my wisdom, because I have understanding.

I removed the boundaries of nations,

I plundered their treasures;

like a mighty one I subdued their kings.

Cross References: Daniel 4:30; Deuteronomy 8:17; Habakkuk 1:16

14 As one reaches into a nest, so my hand reached for the wealth of nations.

As people gather abandoned eggs,

so I gathered the whole earth;

no one flapped a wing, opened a mouth, or chirped.”

Cross References: Habakkuk 1:15; Deuteronomy 8:17; Ezekiel 29:3

15 Does the axe raise itself above the one who swings it, or the saw boast against the one who uses it?

As if a rod could wield the one who lifts it up, or a club could raise the one who is not wood!

Cross References: Romans 9:20; Isaiah 29:16; Isaiah 45:9

16 Therefore the Lord, the Lord of Hosts, will send a wasting disease among his strong warriors;

under his pomp a fire will be kindled,

like a blazing flame.

Cross References: 2 Kings 19:35; Isaiah 37:36; Malachi 4:1

17 The Light of Israel will become a fire, their Holy One a flame;

in a single day it will burn and consume his thorns and his briars.

Cross References: Isaiah 37:36; 2 Kings 19:35; Zechariah 12:6

18 The splendor of his forests and fertile fields it will completely destroy,
both soul and body,
as when a sick man wastes away.

Cross References: Isaiah 37:36; 2 Kings 19:35; Nahum 1:14

19 And the trees left standing in his forest will be so few that a child could count them.

Cross References: Isaiah 6:13; 2 Kings 19:35; Nahum 2:13

The Remnant of Israel

20 In that day the remnant of Israel,
the survivors of Jacob,
will no longer depend on him who struck them down but will truly rely on the Lord, the Holy One of Israel.

Cross References: Micah 4:7; Zephaniah 3:12; Romans 9:27

21 A remnant will return, a remnant of Jacob will return to the Mighty God.

Cross References: Romans 9:27; Isaiah 7:3; Isaiah 11:11

22 Though your people, Israel, be as numerous as the sand on the seashore,
only a remnant will return.
Destruction has been decreed, overwhelming and righteous.

Cross References: Romans 9:27; Genesis 22:17; Hosea 1:10

23 The Lord, the Lord of Hosts, will carry out the destruction decreed upon the whole land.

Cross References: Romans 9:28; Daniel 9:27; Isaiah 28:22

Do Not Fear the Assyrian

24 Therefore, this is what the Lord, the Lord of Hosts, says:
“My people who live in Zion, do not be afraid of the Assyrian, who strikes you with a rod and lifts up a club against you, as Egypt did.

Cross References: Exodus 14:13; 2 Kings 19:6; Isaiah 37:6

25 Very soon My anger against you will end, and My wrath will be directed to their destruction.”

Cross References: 2 Kings 19:7; Isaiah 37:7; Nahum 1:9

26 The Lord Almighty will lash them with a whip, as when He struck Midian at the rock of Oreb;
and He will raise His staff over the waters,
as He did in Egypt.

Cross References: Judges 7:25; Exodus 14:27; Isaiah 9:4

27 In that day their burden will be lifted from your shoulders, their yoke from your neck;
the yoke will be broken because of the anointing.

Cross References: Isaiah 14:25; Nahum 1:13; Jeremiah 30:8

The Enemy Approaches Jerusalem

28 They enter Aiath, pass through Migron;
they store their supplies at Michmash.

Cross References: Nehemiah 11:31; 1 Samuel 13:5; 1 Samuel 14:31

29 They cross the pass and say,
“We will camp at Geba for the night.”
Ramah trembles;
Gibeah of Saul flees.

Cross References: 1 Samuel 22:6; Joshua 18:24; 1 Samuel 10:26

30 Cry out, Daughter of Gallim!
Listen, Laishah!
Poor Anathoth!

Cross References: 1 Samuel 25:44; Joshua 15:44; Jeremiah 1:1

31 Madmenah is in flight;
the people of Gebim take cover.

Cross References: Jeremiah 6:1; Nehemiah 11:34; Joshua 18:21

32 This very day he will halt at Nob;
he will shake his fist
at the mountain of Daughter Zion, at the hill of Jerusalem.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 5:7; Nehemiah 11:32; Joshua 18:25

The Lord Humbles the Proud

33 See, the Lord, the Lord of Hosts, will lop off the boughs with great power.
The tall trees will be cut down,
the lofty will be brought low.

Cross References: Isaiah 2:12; Isaiah 37:24; Ezekiel 31:3

34 He will cut down the forest thickets with an axe;
Lebanon will fall before the Mighty One.

Cross References: Isaiah 37:24; Ezekiel 31:12; Daniel 4:14

Key Lessons from Isaiah 10

- God opposes unjust rulers: Leaders who write laws that oppress the poor, widows, and fatherless invite His judgment.
- God uses nations as His tools: Assyria was the rod of God's anger, but its pride made it liable for judgment.
- Pride leads to downfall: Assyria boasted of its power, forgetting it was only an axe in God's hand.
- God preserves a remnant: Even when judgment sweeps across the land, a faithful remnant will return and trust in the Lord.
- God comforts His people: He tells Zion not to fear Assyria, because His anger against His people will end, and His wrath will turn against their enemies.
- The mighty are humbled by the Mighty One: Human power and pride cannot stand when the Lord lifts His hand.

Isaiah 11 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Branch from Jesse and the Peaceable Kingdom”

The Righteous Branch

1 Out of the stump of Jesse will come a shoot; from his roots a Branch will grow and bear fruit.

Cross References: Romans 15:12; Revelation 5:5; Jeremiah 23:5

2 The Spirit of the Lord will rest on Him—
the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and might,
the Spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord.

Cross References: Luke 4:18; John 3:34; Isaiah 61:1

3 He will delight in the fear of the Lord.
He will not judge by what His eyes see, nor make decisions by what His ears hear.

Cross References: John 5:30; Hebrews 5:8; 1 Samuel 16:7

4 But with righteousness He will judge the poor, and with fairness He will give justice to the meek of the earth.
He will strike the earth with the rod of His mouth, and with the breath of His lips He will slay the wicked.

Cross References: Psalm 72:2; 2 Thessalonians 2:8; Revelation 19:15

5 Righteousness will be His belt, and faithfulness the sash around His waist.

Cross References: Ephesians 6:14; Isaiah 59:17; Revelation 19:11

The Peaceable Kingdom

6 The wolf will live with the lamb, the leopard will lie down with the goat,
the calf, the lion, and the yearling will be together, and a little child will lead them.

Cross References: Isaiah 65:25; Hosea 2:18; Romans 8:21

7 The cow and the bear will feed together;
their young will lie down together.
The lion will eat straw like the ox.

Cross References: Isaiah 65:25; Genesis 1:30; Job 5:23

8 Infants will play near the hole of the cobra, and young children will put their hands into the viper's nest.

Cross References: Psalm 91:13; Mark 16:18; Luke 10:19

9 They will neither harm nor destroy on all My holy mountain, for the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea.

Cross References: Habakkuk 2:14; Numbers 14:21; Psalm 72:19

The Reign of the Root of Jesse

10 In that day the Root of Jesse will stand as a banner for the peoples;
the nations will rally to Him, and His resting place will be glorious.

Cross References: Romans 15:12; Revelation 5:5; John 12:32

11 In that day the Lord will reach out His hand a second time to bring back the remnant of His people from Assyria, Egypt, Pathros, Cush, Elam, Shinar, Hamath, and from the islands of the sea.

Cross References: Isaiah 10:21; Jeremiah 23:3; Ezekiel 37:21

12 He will raise a banner for the nations and gather the exiles of Israel; He will assemble the scattered of Judah from the four corners of the earth.

Cross References: Isaiah 49:22; John 11:52; Jeremiah 31:10

13 Ephraim's jealousy will vanish, and Judah's enemies will be cut off. Ephraim will not envy Judah, and Judah will not oppress Ephraim.

Cross References: Ezekiel 37:19; Hosea 1:11; Jeremiah 3:18 14 Together they will swoop down on the Philistines to the west; they will plunder the people of the east. They will lay hands on Edom and Moab, and the Ammonites will be subject to them.

Cross References: 2 Chronicles 26:6; Zephaniah 2:5; Obadiah 1:19

15 The Lord will dry up the gulf of the Egyptian sea; with His mighty wind He will strike the River into seven streams so that men can cross over in sandals.

Cross References: Exodus 14:21; Zechariah 10:11; Revelation 16:12

16 There will be a highway for the remnant of His people who are left from Assyria— just as there was for Israel when they came up from the land of Egypt.

Cross References: Isaiah 35:8; Exodus 14:29; Isaiah 51:10

Key Lessons from Isaiah 11

- Christ is the Branch from Jesse: This prophecy points to Jesus, filled with the Spirit of the Lord in wisdom, power, and holiness.
- True justice comes from God's King: He will judge righteously, defend the poor, and overthrow the wicked with the breath of His mouth.
- God's kingdom brings peace: In the Messiah's reign, even natural enemies live in harmony, symbolizing a world of perfect peace and safety.

- The nations will seek Christ: The Root of Jesse is not only for Israel but also for Gentiles, bringing salvation to all.
- God gathers His people: The Lord promises to bring back a faithful remnant from every nation.
- Unity replaces rivalry: Ephraim and Judah, once divided, will be reconciled under God's rule.
- God makes a way for His people: Just as He parted the Red Sea, He will prepare a highway for His people's return.

Isaiah 12 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Song of Salvation”

God's Anger Turned to Comfort

1 In that day you will say:
 “O Lord, I will praise You.
 Though You were angry with me,
 Your anger has turned away,
 and You have comforted me.”

Cross References: Psalm 30:5; Micah 7:18; Hosea 14:4

God, My Salvation

2 Surely God is my salvation;
 I will trust and not be afraid.
 For the Lord, the Lord Himself, is my strength and my song;
 He has become my salvation.

Cross References: Exodus 15:2; Psalm 118:14; Psalm 27:1

3 With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation.

Cross References: John 4:14; John 7:38; Psalm 36:9

Proclaim His Name

4 In that day you will say:
 “Give thanks to the Lord, call on His name;
 make known His deeds among the nations;
 proclaim that His name is exalted.

Cross References: Psalm 105:1; 1 Chronicles 16:8; Psalm 148:13

5 Sing to the Lord, for He has done glorious things;
 let this be known to all the earth.

Cross References: Psalm 98:1; Exodus 15:21; Psalm 96:3

6 Shout aloud and sing for joy, people of Zion, for great is the Holy One of Israel among you.”

Cross References: Zephaniah 3:14; Zechariah 2:10; Psalm 89:18

Key Lessons from Isaiah 12

- God’s anger turns to mercy: Though sin brings God’s anger, His love brings comfort and restoration.
- God alone is salvation: Trust in Him removes fear, for He is both strength and song.
- Salvation brings joy: Like refreshing water, God’s salvation satisfies and renews His people.
- Praise should be public: God’s great works are to be declared among the nations, not kept silent.
- The Holy One dwells with His people: His presence among Zion is the greatest reason for joy and worship.

“The Judgment of Babylon and the Day of the Lord”

The Burden of Babylon

1 This is the prophecy concerning Babylon that Isaiah son of Amoz saw.

Cross References: Jeremiah 50:1; Habakkuk 1:6; Isaiah 21:9

2 “Raise a banner on a bare hilltop, shout to them, wave your hand,
so they may enter the gates of the nobles.

Cross References: Jeremiah 50:2; Jeremiah 51:27; Jeremiah 4:6

3 I have commanded those I have set apart;
I have summoned My warriors to carry out My wrath—those who rejoice in My triumph.”

Cross References: Joel 3:11; Jeremiah 51:20; Jeremiah 50:9

4 Listen! A noise on the mountains, like that of a great multitude!
Listen! An uproar among the kingdoms, like nations massing together.
The Lord Almighty is mustering an army for war.

Cross References: Jeremiah 50:9; Joel 2:2; Revelation 19:19

5 They come from faraway lands, from the ends of the heavens—
the Lord and the weapons of His wrath—to destroy the whole country.

Cross References: Jeremiah 50:25; Jeremiah 51:11; Jeremiah 6:22

The Day of the Lord

6 Wail, for the day of the Lord is near;
it comes like destruction from the Almighty.

Cross References: Joel 1:15; Zephaniah 1:7; 1 Thessalonians 5:3

7 Because of this, every hand will go limp, every heart will melt with fear.

Cross References: Ezekiel 21:7; Joshua 2:11; Nahum 2:10

8 Terror will seize them, pain and anguish will grip them;
they will writhe like a woman in labor.
They will look at each other in horror, their faces flushed with fear.

Cross References: Jeremiah 50:43; 1 Thessalonians 5:3; Psalm 48:6

9 See, the day of the Lord is coming—a cruel day, with wrath and fierce anger—to make the land desolate and destroy the sinners within it.

Cross References: Malachi 4:1; Zephaniah 1:18; Joel 2:31

10 The stars of heaven and their constellations will not show their light.
The rising sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light.

Cross References: Joel 2:10; Matthew 24:29; Ezekiel 32:7

11 “I will punish the world for its evil, the wicked for their sins.
I will put an end to the arrogance of the proud and humble the pride of the ruthless.

Cross References: Jeremiah 51:25; Isaiah 2:12; Zephaniah 2:10

12 I will make people scarcer than pure gold, rarer than the gold of Ophir.

Cross References: Job 28:16; 1 Kings 9:28; Malachi 3:17

13 Therefore I will make the heavens tremble, and the earth will shake from its place at the wrath of the Lord Almighty, in the day of His burning anger.”

Cross References: Haggai 2:6; Hebrews 12:26; Joel 3:16

The Fall of Babylon

14 Like a hunted gazelle, like sheep without a shepherd,
they will each return to their own people,
they will flee to their native land.

Cross References: Jeremiah 50:16; Jeremiah 50:17; 1 Kings 22:17

15 Whoever is captured will be thrust through;
all who are caught will fall by the sword.

Cross References: Jeremiah 51:4; Amos 9:1; Ezekiel 5:12

16 Their infants will be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses will be looted and their wives violated.

Cross References: Hosea 13:16; Nahum 3:10; Psalm 137:9

17 “See, I will stir up the Medes against them, who care nothing for silver and have no delight in gold.

Cross References: Jeremiah 51:11; Jeremiah 51:28; Daniel 5:28

18 Their bows will strike down the young men; they will show no mercy to infants, nor will they spare children.”

Cross References: Jeremiah 51:3; Deuteronomy 32:25; Lamentations 2:21

19 Babylon, the jewel of kingdoms, the pride and glory of the Babylonians, will be overthrown by God like Sodom and Gomorrah.

Cross References: Jeremiah 50:40; Genesis 19:24; Revelation 18:2

20 She will never be inhabited again;
through all generations no one will live there.
No nomad will pitch his tent there, no shepherd will rest his flocks there.

Cross References: Jeremiah 50:39; Jeremiah 51:37; Revelation 18:21

21 But desert creatures will lie there, their houses will be full of howling animals;
owls will dwell there,
and wild goats will leap about.

Cross References: Zephaniah 2:14; Jeremiah 50:39; Isaiah 34:11

22 Hyenas will howl in her strongholds, jackals in her luxurious palaces.
Her time is close at hand, and her days will not be prolonged.

Cross References: Jeremiah 50:27; Jeremiah 51:33; Revelation 18:10

Key Lessons from Isaiah 13

- The Day of the Lord is terrifying: It brings judgment not only on Babylon but on all who defy God.
- Human pride will be humbled: The arrogance of rulers and nations will not stand before God's wrath.
- God uses nations as instruments of judgment: He raised up the Medes to bring Babylon down, showing His sovereign power over history.
- Sin brings desolation: Once the "glory of kingdoms," Babylon became a wasteland filled only with wild creatures.
- God's word is sure: What He decrees against nations, no power of man can prevent.

Isaiah 14 – Crawford Standard Bible

"The Fall of Babylon's King and the Lord's Purpose"

Israel Restored

1 The Lord will have mercy on Jacob;
He will again choose Israel and settle them in their own land.
Foreigners will join them and unite with the house of Jacob.

Cross References: Zechariah 2:12; Jeremiah 30:18; Ephesians 2:13

2 Nations will take them and bring them to their own place, and Israel will possess them as male and female servants in the Lord's land.
They will take captive those who once held them captive, and they will rule over their oppressors.

Cross References: Isaiah 49:22; Isaiah 60:9; Zechariah 8:23

3 On the day the Lord gives you rest from your suffering and turmoil and from the hard labor forced upon you,

Cross References: Exodus 1:14; Deuteronomy 5:15; Jeremiah 30:8

4 you will take up this taunt against the king of Babylon:
“How the oppressor has come to an end!
How his fury has ceased!”

Cross References: Habakkuk 2:6; Jeremiah 50:23; Revelation 18:10

The Fall of the Oppressor

5 The Lord has broken the staff of the wicked, the scepter of the rulers,

Cross References: Psalm 125:3; Jeremiah 51:20; Psalm 2:9

6 who struck down peoples in anger with unceasing blows, and subdued nations in wrath with relentless persecution.

Cross References: Jeremiah 50:23; Habakkuk 2:8; Zechariah 1:15 7 All the earth is at rest and at peace;

they break into singing.

Cross References: Psalm 96:11; Isaiah 35:1; Psalm 98:8

8 Even the pine trees and the cedars of Lebanon rejoice over you and say, ‘Since you have fallen,
no lumberjack comes against us.’

Cross References: Isaiah 55:12; Ezekiel 31:16; Zechariah 11:2

The King of Babylon in Sheol

9 The realm of the dead below is stirred up to meet you at your coming.
It rouses the spirits of the departed, all the kings of the nations rise from their thrones.

Cross References: Ezekiel 32:21; Luke 16:23; Proverbs 9:18

10 They all respond,
‘You too have become weak, as we are;
you have become like us.’

Cross References: Ezekiel 32:19; Psalm 82:7; Ezekiel 31:18

11 Your pomp has been brought down to the grave, along with the music of your harps.
Maggots are spread beneath you and worms cover you.

Cross References: Job 21:26; Job 24:20; Ezekiel 32:27

The Fall of “Lucifer”

12 How you have fallen from heaven,
O morning star, son of the dawn!
You have been cast down to the earth,
you who once laid low the nations!

Cross References: Luke 10:18; Ezekiel 28:17; Revelation 12:9

13 You said in your heart,
‘I will ascend to the heavens;
I will raise my throne above the stars of God;
I will sit enthroned on the mount of assembly, on the utmost heights of Mount Zaphon.

Cross References: Ezekiel 28:2; 1 Timothy 3:6; Matthew 4:9

14 I will ascend above the tops of the clouds;
I will make myself like the Most High.’

Cross References: Ezekiel 28:2; 2 Thessalonians 2:4; Genesis 3:5

15 But you are brought down to the grave, to the depths of the pit.

Cross References: Ezekiel 28:8; Matthew 11:23; Revelation 20:10

16 Those who see you stare at you;
they ponder your fate:
‘Is this the man who shook the earth and made kingdoms tremble,

Cross References: Ezekiel 32:10; Nahum 3:19; Job 9:6

17 who made the world a wilderness, overthrew its cities,
and refused to let his captives go home?’

Cross References: Jeremiah 50:33; Isaiah 45:13; Psalm 102:20

The Shame of Babylon’s King

18 All the kings of the nations lie in state, each in his own tomb.

Cross References: Ezekiel 32:29; Job 3:15; Ezekiel 26:20

19 But you are cast out of your grave like a rejected branch;
you are covered with the slain,
with those pierced by the sword,
those who descend to the stones of the pit, like a corpse trampled underfoot.

Cross References: Jeremiah 22:19; Ezekiel 32:23; Jeremiah 36:30

20 You will not join them in burial, for you have destroyed your land and killed your people.
The offspring of the wicked will never be remembered.

Cross References: Jeremiah 50:32; Ezekiel 28:19; Psalm 37:28

21 Prepare a place to slaughter his children for the sins of their ancestors;
they will never rise to inherit the land or cover the earth with their cities.

Cross References: Exodus 20:5; Jeremiah 51:57; Psalm 109:13

22 “I will rise up against them,” declares the Lord Almighty.
“I will wipe out Babylon’s name and survivors, her offspring and descendants,” declares the Lord.

Cross References: Jeremiah 51:62; Jeremiah 50:26; Ezekiel 25:7

23 “I will turn her into a place for owls, swampland,
and sweep her with the broom of destruction,” declares the Lord Almighty.

Cross References: Zephaniah 2:14; Jeremiah 51:43; Revelation 18:21

The Lord’s Purpose Stands

24 The Lord Almighty has sworn:
“Surely, as I have planned, so it will happen, and as I have purposed, so it will stand.

Cross References: Numbers 23:19; Isaiah 46:10; Isaiah 55:11

25 I will crush the Assyrian in My land; on My mountains I will trample him down.
His yoke will be taken from My people, and his burden removed from their shoulders.”

Cross References: Isaiah 10:12; Isaiah 37:36; Nahum 1:13

26 This is the plan determined for the whole world;
this is the hand stretched out over all nations.

Cross References: Isaiah 9:12; Isaiah 5:25; Isaiah 10:4

27 For the Lord Almighty has purposed, and who can thwart Him?
His hand is stretched out,
and who can turn it back?

Cross References: Numbers 23:20; Job 9:12; Daniel 4:35

A Word Against Philistia

28 This prophecy came in the year King Ahaz died:

Cross References: 2 Kings 16:20; 2 Chronicles 28:27; Isaiah 7:1

29 Do not rejoice, all you Philistines, that the rod which struck you is broken;
for from the root of that snake will spring up a viper, its offspring will be a fiery flying serpent.

Cross References: 2 Kings 18:8; 2 Chronicles 26:6; Zephaniah 2:4

30 The poorest of the poor will find pasture, and the needy will lie down in safety.
But I will destroy your root with famine;
it will slay your survivors.

Cross References: Psalm 37:19; Zephaniah 2:5; Amos 1:8

31 Wail, you gates; cry out, you city;
melt away, all you Philistines!
A cloud of smoke comes from the north,
and there is not a straggler in its ranks.

Cross References: Jeremiah 47:2; Amos 1:6; Jeremiah 1:14

32 What answer shall be given to the envoys of that nation?
“The Lord has established Zion, and in her His afflicted people will find refuge.”

Cross References: Psalm 87:1; Psalm 102:16; Psalm 48:8

Key Lessons from Isaiah 14

- God restores His people: Israel will be comforted, restored to their land, and their oppressors will be humbled.
- God humbles the proud: The mighty king of Babylon, full of pride, is cast down to shame and destruction.
- Lucifer's fall warns of pride: Satan's rebellion—"I will be like the Most High"—ended in his downfall, showing the danger of arrogance.
- God's judgment is complete: Babylon, once the glory of kingdoms, would be utterly destroyed, leaving no legacy.
- God's purposes cannot be stopped: His hand is stretched out over all nations, and no one can turn it back.
- Zion is secure in God's plan: While nations fall, the Lord has founded Zion as a place of safety for His people.

Isaiah 15 – Crawford Standard Bible

"The Burden Against Moab"

Moab's Cities Laid Waste

1 This is the burden concerning Moab:
In one night Ar of Moab is destroyed and silenced;
in one night Kir of Moab is destroyed and silenced.

Cross References: Jeremiah 48:1; Amos 2:2; Numbers 21:28

2 They go up to the temple at Bajith and to Dibon's high places to weep.
Moab wails over Nebo and Medeba.
Every head is shaved,
every beard is cut off.

Cross References: Jeremiah 48:37; Jeremiah 48:22; Numbers 21:30

3 In the streets they wear sackcloth; on the rooftops and in the squares everyone wails,
weeping bitterly.

Cross References: Jeremiah 48:38; Amos 8:10; Jeremiah 6:26

The Cry of Moab

4 Heshbon and Elealeh cry out;
their voices are heard as far as Jahaz.
Even Moab's armed men cry out;
their hearts tremble within them.

Cross References: Jeremiah 48:34; Numbers 21:23; Jeremiah 48:45

5 My heart cries out for Moab!
Her fugitives flee as far as Zoar, like a three-year-old heifer on the run.
They climb the ascent of Luhith with weeping;
on the road to Horonaim
they raise a cry of destruction.

Cross References: Jeremiah 48:5; Genesis 19:22; Jeremiah 48:3

6 The waters of Nimrim are dried up;
the grass is withered, the vegetation is gone, and nothing green is left.

Cross References: Jeremiah 48:34; Joel 1:18; Amos 1:2

Moab's Wealth Taken Away

7 So the wealth they have gathered and stored up they will carry away to the Brook of the Willows.

Cross References: Jeremiah 48:36; Psalm 137:2; Amos 6:7

8 Their cry of anguish goes around Moab's borders; their wailing reaches as far as Eglaim and echoes to Beer Elim.

Cross References: Jeremiah 48:20; Jeremiah 48:39; Ezekiel 25:9

9 The waters of Dimon are full of blood, yet I will bring still more upon Dimon:
a lion upon the fugitives of Moab and upon those who remain in the land.

Cross References: Jeremiah 48:44; Amos 5:19; 2 Kings 17:25

Key Lessons from Isaiah 15

- Sin brings sudden destruction: In one night, Moab's strong cities were laid waste, showing how quickly God's judgment can fall.
- Pride is turned into mourning: Once proud, Moab is pictured in sackcloth, baldness, and bitter weeping.
- God's heart grieves even in judgment: Isaiah himself cried out for Moab, reminding us that God's justice is not without compassion.
- Wealth cannot save in the day of wrath: What Moab stored up was carried away, showing the emptiness of trusting in riches.

- Judgment leaves no escape: Even fugitives and survivors face danger, symbolized by lions upon the remnant.

Isaiah 16 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Moab’s Pride and Its Coming Judgment”

Moab’s Plea for Refuge

1 Send lambs as tribute to the ruler of the land, from Sela, across the desert,
to the mountain of the Daughter of Zion.

Cross References: 2 Kings 3:4; Jeremiah 48:28; Psalm 60:8

2 Like fluttering birds pushed from the nest, so the women of Moab will be at the fords of the Arnon.

Cross References: Numbers 21:13; Judges 11:18; Jeremiah 48:18

3 Give counsel, render a decision.
Make your shadow like night at high noon.
Hide the outcasts,
do not betray the fugitives.

Cross References: Zephaniah 2:3; Psalm 27:5; Psalm 17:8

4 Let the outcasts of Moab stay with you;
be a shelter to them from the destroyer.
For the oppressor is at an end,
the destruction has ceased, and the one who tramples others is gone from the land.

Cross References: Jeremiah 40:11; Zephaniah 2:9; Jeremiah 48:47

5 In mercy a throne will be established;
one will sit on it in faithfulness,
in the tent of David,
judging with justice and eager to do what is right.

Cross References: 2 Samuel 7:16; Isaiah 9:7; Luke 1:32

The Pride of Moab

6 We have heard of Moab’s pride—how great is his arrogance!—
his conceit, his pride, and his insolence.
But his boasting is empty lies.

Cross References: Jeremiah 48:29; Jeremiah 48:30; Zephaniah 2:10 7 Therefore Moab will wail for Moab;

everyone will mourn.
They will grieve for the foundations of Kir Hareseth;
they are ruined.

Cross References: Jeremiah 48:31; Jeremiah 48:36; 2 Kings 3:25

The Withering of Moab's Vineyards

8 The fields of Heshbon wither, and the vine of Sibmah languishes.
The rulers of nations have trampled down its choicest vines, which once reached Jazer and spread toward the desert;
their shoots spread out and crossed the sea.

Cross References: Jeremiah 48:32; Numbers 32:3; Numbers 32:38

9 So I weep with Jazer for the vine of Sibmah;
I drench you with my tears, O Heshbon and Elealeh.
No shouts of joy will be heard over your summer fruit or your harvest.

Cross References: Jeremiah 48:32; Joel 1:11; Lamentations 2:11

10 Joy and gladness are taken away from the orchards;
in the vineyards no one sings or shouts;
no one treads out wine in the presses,
for I have silenced the joyful shout.

Cross References: Jeremiah 48:33; Joel 1:12; Amos 5:11

11 My heart laments for Moab like a harp;
my soul grieves for Kir Hareseth.

Cross References: Jeremiah 48:36; Jeremiah 4:19; Lamentations 1:20

Moab's Futile Religion

12 When Moab appears at her high place, when she goes to her shrine to pray,
it will do her no good.

Cross References: Jeremiah 48:35; 1 Kings 18:29; Jeremiah 2:28

13 This is the word the Lord has already spoken about Moab.

Cross References: Jeremiah 48:47; Numbers 24:17; Deuteronomy 2:9

14 But now the Lord says:
“Within three years, as a hired worker counts years,

Moab's glory will be brought low and her large population will be despised.
Only a small and weak remnant will remain."

Cross References: Isaiah 21:16; Jeremiah 48:15; Jeremiah 48:42

Key Lessons from Isaiah 16

- God's throne is established in mercy: The prophecy looks ahead to the righteous King from David's line who rules with justice.
- Pride brings destruction: Moab's arrogance and boasting led to its downfall.
- Wealth and harvest cannot save: Moab's fertile fields and vineyards were destroyed; joy and abundance vanished.
- False religion cannot deliver: Moab's prayers at her high places brought no help, showing the futility of idols.
- God limits nations by His decree: Within three years, Moab's greatness would shrink to a weak remnant.

Isaiah 17 – Crawford Standard Bible

"The Burden Against Damascus"

The Fall of Damascus

1 This is the burden concerning Damascus:
"Behold, Damascus will no longer be a city;
it will become a heap of ruins.

Cross References: Jeremiah 49:23; Amos 1:5; Zechariah 9:1

2 The cities of Aroer will be deserted;
they will be places for flocks to lie down, with no one to make them afraid.

Cross References: Joshua 13:25; Judges 11:26; Numbers 32:34

3 The fortress will disappear from Ephraim, and royal power from Damascus.
The remnant of Aram (Syria) will be like the fading glory of Israel," declares the Lord of Heaven's Armies.

Cross References: 2 Kings 15:29; 2 Kings 16:9; 2 Kings 16:5

The Weakening of Israel

4 In that day the glory of Jacob will fade;
his body will grow thin and wasted.

Cross References: Isaiah 10:16; 2 Kings 17:6; Micah 1:6

5 It will be as when a reaper gathers grain and reaps the heads with his arm, as when someone gleans heads of grain in the Valley of Rephaim.

Cross References: Micah 4:12; 2 Samuel 5:18; Joel 3:13

6 Yet some gleanings will remain, as when an olive tree is beaten—two or three olives left at the top of the highest branch, four or five on the fruitful boughs,” declares the Lord, the God of Israel.

Cross References: Isaiah 24:13; Deuteronomy 24:20; Micah 7:1

Turning Back to God

7 In that day people will look to their Maker, and their eyes will turn to the Holy One of Israel.

Cross References: Isaiah 45:22; Hosea 3:5; Micah 7:7

8 They will not look to the altars,
the work of their hands,
nor to the Asherah poles or the incense altars their fingers have made.

Cross References: Isaiah 2:8; Isaiah 2:20; Hosea 8:11

Cities Laid Desolate

9 In that day their strong cities will be like deserted places in the woods, like branches abandoned before Israel long ago;
they will become desolate.

Cross References: Isaiah 6:11; Leviticus 26:31; 2 Kings 17:6

10 You have forgotten God your Savior;
you have not remembered the Rock, your fortress.
Therefore, though you plant choice vines and set them with imported slips,

Cross References: Deuteronomy 32:18; Jeremiah 2:32; Hosea 8:14

11 though on the day you plant them you make them grow, and in the morning you make your seed flourish, yet the harvest will be a heap of ruins in the day of grief and desperate sorrow.

Cross References: Hosea 8:7; Galatians 6:7; Jeremiah 12:13

The Nations Rebuked

12 Woe to the raging nations—they roar like the roaring sea!
The uproar of the peoples is like the crashing of mighty waters.

Cross References: Psalm 46:6; Revelation 17:15; Luke 21:25

13 Though the nations roar like the roar of many waters, God will rebuke them;
they will flee far away,
driven before the wind like chaff on the hills, like tumbleweed before a whirlwind.

Cross References: Psalm 83:13; Psalm 1:4; Psalm 106:9

14 At evening they bring terror, but by morning they are gone.
Such is the portion of those who plunder us,
the lot of those who rob us.

Cross References: 2 Kings 19:35; Psalm 30:5; Exodus 12:29

Key Lessons from Isaiah 17

- No city stands forever without God: Even powerful Damascus, one of the oldest cities in history, would fall into ruin.
- God humbles both enemies and His people: Israel's "fatness" would grow lean because of sin, showing judgment comes to all who forget God.
- Only a remnant remains: God always leaves a small remnant of His people, like olives left on the tree.
- Idolatry fails in the day of trouble: In judgment, people turn away from false gods and back to the Lord.
- Forgetting God leads to emptiness: Planting and working without Him only ends in grief and sorrow.
- God rules over nations: Though nations roar like the sea, He rebukes them, and they scatter like chaff in the wind.

Isaiah 18 – Crawford Standard Bible

"The Burden Against Cush (Ethiopia)"

A Message to Cush

1 Woe to the land of whirring wings, which lies beyond the rivers of Cush (Ethiopia),

Cross References: Zephaniah 3:10; Psalm 68:31; Genesis 10:6

2 that sends envoys by sea in papyrus boats over the waters.
Go, swift messengers,
to a tall and smooth-skinned nation,
to a people feared far and wide,
an aggressive and powerful nation whose land is divided by rivers.

Cross References: Isaiah 30:4; Ezekiel 30:9; Job 9:26

A Call to All Nations

3 All you people of the world,
you who live on the earth,
when a banner is raised on the mountains, look!
When a trumpet sounds, listen!

Cross References: Isaiah 11:12; Joel 2:1; Jeremiah 4:21

God Observes and Judges
