8 Then he said to his servants, ‘The wedding banquet is ready, but those I invited were not worthy.

9 So go to the street corners and invite anyone you find.’

10 So the servants went out into the streets and gathered all the people they could find, both good and bad, and the wedding hall was filled with guests.

11 But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing wedding clothes.

12 He asked, ‘Friend, how did you get in here without wedding clothes?’ The man was speechless.
13 Then the king told the attendants, ‘Tie him hand and foot, and throw him outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’
14 For many are called, but few are chosen.”

Paying Taxes to Caesar

15 Then the Pharisees went out and laid plans to trap Jesus in His words.
16 They sent their disciples to Him along with the Herodians. “Teacher,” they said, “we know that You are a man of integrity and that You teach the way of God in truth. You aren’t swayed by others because You pay no attention to who they are.
17 Tell us then, what is Your opinion? Is it right to pay the imperial tax to Caesar or not?”
18 But Jesus, knowing their evil intent, said, “You hypocrites, why are you trying to trap Me?
19 Show Me the coin used for paying the tax.” They brought Him a denarius, 20 and He asked them, “Whose image is this? And whose inscription?”
21 “Caesar’s,” they replied.
Then He said to them, “Give back to Caesar what is Caesar’s, and to God what is God’s.”
22 When they heard this, they were amazed. So they left Him and went away.

Marriage at the Resurrection

23 That same day the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to Him with a question.
24 “Teacher,” they said, “Moses told us that if a man dies without having children, his brother must marry the widow and raise up offspring for him.
25 Now there were seven brothers among us. The first one married and died, and since he had no children, he left his wife to his brother.
26 The same thing happened to the second and third brother, right on down to the seventh.
27 Finally, the woman died.
28 Now then, at the resurrection, whose wife will she be of the seven, since all of them were married to her?”
29 Jesus replied, “You are in error because you do not know the Scriptures or the power of God.
30 At the resurrection people will neither marry nor be given in marriage; they will be like the angels in heaven.
31 But about the resurrection of the dead—have you not read what God said to you,
32 ‘I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob’? He is not the God of the dead but of the living.”
33 When the crowds heard this, they were astonished at His teaching.

The Greatest Commandment

34 Hearing that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, the Pharisees got together.

35 One of them, an expert in the law, tested Him with this question:

36 “Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?”

37 Jesus replied: “‘Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.’

38 This is the first and greatest commandment.

39 And the second is like it: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’

40 All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments.”

Whose Son Is the Christ?

41 While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them,

42 “What do you think about the Christ? Whose son is He?”

“The son of David,” they replied.

43 He said to them, “How is it then that David, speaking by the Spirit, calls Him ‘Lord’? For he says,

44 ‘The Lord said to my Lord:

“Sit at my right hand
until I put Your enemies
under Your feet.””

45 If then David calls Him ‘Lord,’ how can He be his son?”

46 No one could say a word in reply, and from that day on no one dared to ask Him any more questions.

Key Lessons from Matthew 22

- God invites many, but few accept – The parable of the wedding feast shows God’s call to salvation, but only those who are prepared and clothed in Christ’s righteousness are accepted.
- Earthly and heavenly responsibilities – We are to honor earthly authorities while giving God our ultimate loyalty.
- God is the God of the living – The resurrection is real, and life with Him goes beyond earthly institutions like marriage.
- The greatest commandment is love – Loving God with all that we are and loving others as ourselves sums up all of God’s law.
- Jesus is greater than David – As both David’s son and David’s Lord, He is the promised Messiah and King.

Matthew 23 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Woes Against Hypocrisy and the Lament for Jerusalem”

Warning Against the Hypocrisy of the Pharisees

1 Then Jesus spoke to the crowds and to His disciples,

2 saying: “The teachers of the law and the Pharisees sit in Moses’ seat.

3 So you must be careful to do what they tell you, but do not do what they do, for they do not practice what they preach.

4 They tie up heavy, burdensome loads and put them on people’s shoulders, but they themselves are not willing to lift a finger to move them.

5 Everything they do is done for people to see: they make their phylacteries wide and the tassels on their garments long.

6 They love the place of honor at banquets and the most important seats in the synagogues.

7 They love to be greeted with respect in the marketplaces and to be called ‘Rabbi’ by others.

8 But you are not to be called ‘Rabbi,’ for you have one Teacher, and you are all brothers and sisters.

9 Do not call anyone on earth ‘father,’ for you have one Father, and He is in heaven.

10 Nor are you to be called ‘masters,’ for you have one Master, the Christ.

11 The greatest among you will be your servant.

12 For those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.”

The Seven Woes

13 “Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You shut the door of the kingdom of heaven in people’s faces. You yourselves do not enter, nor will you let those enter who are trying to.

14 Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You devour widows’ houses and for a show make long prayers. Therefore you will be punished most severely.

15 Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You travel over land and sea to win a single convert, and when you have succeeded, you make them twice as much a child of hell as you are.

16 Woe to you, blind guides! You say, ‘If anyone swears by the temple, it means nothing; but anyone who swears by the gold of the temple is bound by that oath.’

17 You blind fools! Which is greater: the gold, or the temple that makes the gold sacred?

18 You also say, ‘If anyone swears by the altar, it means nothing; but anyone who swears by the gift on the altar is bound by that oath.’

19 You blind men! Which is greater: the gift, or the altar that makes the gift sacred?

20 Therefore anyone who swears by the altar swears by it and by everything on it.

21 And anyone who swears by the temple swears by it and by the One who dwells in it.

22 And anyone who swears by heaven swears by God’s throne and by the One who sits on it.

23 Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You give a tenth of your spices—mint, dill, and cumin. But you have neglected the more important matters of the law—justice, mercy, and faithfulness. You should have practiced the latter, without neglecting the former.

24 You blind guides! You strain out a gnat but swallow a camel.

25 Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You clean the outside of the cup and dish, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence.

26 Blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and dish, and then the outside will also be clean.

27 Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You are like whitewashed tombs, which look beautiful on the outside but inside are full of dead men’s bones and everything unclean.

28 In the same way, on the outside you appear to people as righteous but on the inside you are full of hypocrisy and wickedness.

29 Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You build tombs for the prophets and decorate the graves of the righteous.

30 And you say, ‘If we had lived in the days of our ancestors, we would not have taken part with them in shedding the blood of the prophets.’

31 So you testify against yourselves that you are the descendants of those who murdered the prophets.

32 Go ahead, then, and finish what your ancestors started!

33 You snakes! You brood of vipers! How will you escape being condemned to hell?

34 Therefore I am sending you prophets and wise men and teachers. Some of them you will kill and crucify; others you will flog in your synagogues and pursue from town to town.

35 And so upon you will come all the righteous blood that has been shed on earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah son of Berehiah, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar.

36 Truly I tell you, all this will come on this generation.”

Jesus Laments Over Jerusalem

37 “Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets and stone those sent to you, how often I have longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you were not willing.

38 Look, your house is left to you desolate.

39 For I tell you, you will not see Me again until you say, ‘Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.’”

Key Lessons from Matthew 23

- True greatness is found in humility – God calls us to serve, not to exalt ourselves.
- Religious hypocrisy is dangerous – Outward appearances mean nothing if the heart is corrupt.

- God values justice, mercy, and faithfulness – These are weightier matters than outward rituals.
- Judgment comes to the unrepentant – Those who reject God’s messengers will be held accountable.
- God longs to gather His people – Even in judgment, His heart is full of mercy and compassion.

Matthew 24 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Signs of the End and the Coming of the Son of Man”

The Temple Will Be Destroyed

1 As Jesus left the temple, His disciples came to show Him the beautiful buildings.

2 But He told them, “Do you see all these things? Truly I tell you, not one stone here will be left on another; every one will be thrown down.”

Questions About the End

3 Later, as Jesus sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came privately and asked, “Tell us, when will this happen? What will be the sign of Your coming and of the end of the world?”

4 Jesus answered, “Be careful that no one deceives you.

5 For many will come in My name, claiming, ‘I am the Messiah,’ and they will deceive many.

6 You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, but don’t be alarmed. These things must happen, but the end is still to come.

7 Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines, diseases, and earthquakes in many places.

8 All these are only the beginning of birth pains.

Persecution and Falling Away

9 “Then you will be handed over to be persecuted and killed. You will be hated by all nations because of My name.

10 At that time many will turn away from the faith, betray one another, and hate one another.

11 Many false prophets will rise up and deceive many.

12 Because of the increase of wickedness, the love of many will grow cold.

13 But the one who stands firm to the end will be saved.

14 And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come.

The Great Tribulation

15 “So when you see standing in the holy place the abomination of desolation spoken of through the prophet Daniel (let the reader understand), 16 then let those in Judea flee to the mountains.

17 Let no one on the housetop go down to take anything out of the house.

18 Let no one in the field go back to get a cloak.

19 How terrible it will be for pregnant women and nursing mothers in those days!

20 Pray that your flight will not take place in winter or on the Sabbath.

21 For then there will be great tribulation, unequalled from the beginning of the world until now—and never to be equaled again.

22 If those days had not been shortened, no one would survive. But for the sake of the elect, those days will be shortened.

False Christs and the True Coming of the Lord

23 “At that time if anyone says to you, ‘Look, here is the Christ!’ or, ‘There He is!’ do not believe it.

24 For false messiahs and false prophets will appear and perform great signs and wonders to deceive—even the elect, if that were possible.

25 See, I have told you ahead of time.

26 So if anyone tells you, ‘He is out in the wilderness,’ do not go out; or, ‘Here He is in the inner rooms,’ do not believe it.

27 For as lightning comes from the east and flashes to the west, so will be the coming of the Son of Man.

28 Wherever there is a dead body, there the vultures will gather.

The Coming of the Son of Man

29 “Immediately after the distress of those days:

‘The sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light;

the stars will fall from the sky, and the heavenly powers will be shaken.’

30 Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven. All the peoples of the earth will mourn when they see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

31 And He will send His angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather His chosen ones from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other.

The Lesson of the Fig Tree

32 “Now learn this lesson from the fig tree: As soon as its twigs get tender and its leaves come out, you know summer is near.

33 In the same way, when you see all these things, you know that it is near, right at the door.
34 Truly I tell you, this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things have happened.
35 Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away.

Be Watchful and Ready

36 “But about that day or hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.
37 As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man.
38 For in the days before the flood, people were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day Noah entered the ark.
39 They knew nothing about what would happen until the flood came and took them all away. That is how it will be at the coming of the Son of Man.
40 Two men will be in the field; one will be taken and the other left.
41 Two women will be grinding at the mill; one will be taken and the other left.
42 “Therefore keep watch, because you do not know on what day your Lord will come.
43 But understand this: If the owner of the house had known at what time of night the thief was coming, he would have kept watch and not allowed his house to be broken into.
44 So you also must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect Him.

The Wise and Evil Servants

45 “Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom the master has put in charge of the household to give food at the proper time?
46 Blessed is that servant whose master finds him doing so when he returns.
47 Truly I tell you, he will put him in charge of all his possessions.
48 But suppose that servant is wicked and says to himself, ‘My master is staying away a long time,’ 49 and he begins to beat his fellow servants and to eat and drink with drunkards.
50 The master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he is not aware of.
51 He will cut him to pieces and assign him a place with the hypocrites, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

Key Lessons from Matthew 24

- The temple was temporary, but Christ’s word is eternal – all human structures will fall, but His promises remain.
- The last days will bring deception and chaos – wars, disasters, and false prophets will multiply.

- Endurance is required – those who remain faithful to Christ until the end will be saved.
- The gospel must go to all nations – the end will not come until the message reaches the world.
- Christ’s return will be visible and unmistakable – like lightning across the sky, no one will miss it.
- No one knows the day or hour – we must live ready at all times.
- Faithful service will be rewarded – Christ will honor those who are watchful and obedient when He returns.

Matthew 25 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Ten Virgins, the Talents, and the Final Judgment”

The Parable of the Ten Virgins

1 “The kingdom of heaven will be like ten bridesmaids who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom.

2 Five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

3 The foolish ones took their lamps but brought no extra oil.

4 The wise ones brought oil in jars along with their lamps.

5 The bridegroom was delayed, and they all became drowsy and fell asleep.

6 At midnight the cry rang out: ‘Here’s the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!’

7 Then all the bridesmaids woke up and trimmed their lamps.

8 The foolish said to the wise, ‘Give us some of your oil; our lamps are going out.’

9 But the wise replied, ‘No, there may not be enough for both us and you. Instead, go buy some for yourselves.’

10 While they were on their way to buy the oil, the bridegroom arrived. The ones who were ready went in with him to the wedding banquet, and the door was shut.

11 Later the others also came. ‘Lord, Lord,’ they said, ‘open the door for us!’

12 But he replied, ‘Truly I tell you, I don’t know you.’

13 Therefore keep watch, because you do not know the day or the hour.”

The Parable of the Talents

14 “The kingdom of heaven is like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted his wealth to them.

15 To one he gave five bags of gold, to another two, and to another one—each according to his ability. Then he left on his journey.

16 The man who had received five bags of gold went at once and put his money to work and gained five more.

17 So also, the one with two bags gained two more.

18 But the man who had received one bag went off, dug a hole in the ground, and hid his master's money.

19 After a long time the master returned and settled accounts with them.

20 The one who had received five bags brought the other five. 'Master,' he said, 'you entrusted me with five bags of gold. See, I have gained five more.'

21 His master replied, 'Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!'

22 The one with two bags also came. 'Master,' he said, 'you entrusted me with two bags of gold; see, I have gained two more.'

23 His master replied, 'Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!'

24 Then the man who had received one bag came. 'Master,' he said, 'I knew that you are a hard man, harvesting where you have not sown and gathering where you have not scattered seed.

25 So I was afraid and went out and hid your gold in the ground. See, here is what belongs to you.'

26 His master replied, 'You wicked, lazy servant! You knew that I harvest where I have not sown and gather where I have not scattered seed.

27 You should have put my money on deposit with the bankers, so that when I returned I would have received it back with interest.

28 So take the bag of gold from him and give it to the one who has ten.

29 For whoever has will be given more, and they will have an abundance. Whoever does not have, even what they have will be taken from them.

30 And throw that worthless servant outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'"

The Final Judgment

31 "When the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the angels with Him, He will sit on His glorious throne.

32 All nations will be gathered before Him, and He will separate the people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.

34 Then the King will say to those on His right, 'Come, you who are blessed by My Father; inherit the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world.

35 For I was hungry and you gave Me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave Me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited Me in,

36 I needed clothes and you clothed Me, I was sick and you looked after Me, I was in prison and you came to visit Me.’

37 Then the righteous will answer Him, ‘Lord, when did we see You hungry and feed You, or thirsty and give You something to drink?’

38 When did we see You a stranger and invite You in, or needing clothes and clothe You?’

39 When did we see You sick or in prison and go to visit You?’

40 The King will reply, ‘Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of Mine, you did for Me.’

41 Then He will say to those on His left, ‘Depart from Me, you who are cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels.

42 For I was hungry and you gave Me nothing to eat, I was thirsty and you gave Me nothing to drink,

43 I was a stranger and you did not invite Me in, I needed clothes and you did not clothe Me, I was sick and in prison and you did not look after Me.’

44 They also will answer, ‘Lord, when did we see You hungry or thirsty or a stranger or needing clothes or sick or in prison, and did not help You?’

45 He will reply, ‘Truly I tell you, whatever you did not do for one of the least of these, you did not do for Me.’

46 Then they will go away to eternal punishment, but the righteous to eternal life.”

Key Lessons from Matthew 25

- Be ready for Christ’s return – like the wise virgins, we must keep our lamps filled with oil (faith and obedience).
- Use what God has entrusted to you – whether great or small, talents must be invested for His glory.
- Faithfulness leads to reward – those who serve well with little will be entrusted with much more.
- Christ identifies with the needy – what we do for others, we do for Him.
- Final judgment is certain – the sheep will inherit eternal life, while the goats face eternal separation from God.

Matthew 26 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Plot, the Passover, the Garden, and the Betrayal”

The Plot to Kill Jesus

1 When Jesus had finished saying all these things, He told His disciples,

2 “You know that the Passover is just two days away—and the Son of Man will be handed over to be crucified.”

3 Then the chief priests, the elders of the people, and the teachers of the law gathered in the palace of Caiaphas the high priest.

4 They plotted together how they might arrest Jesus secretly and kill Him.

5 But they said, “Not during the festival, or the people may riot.”

A Woman Anoints Jesus

6 While Jesus was in Bethany at the home of Simon the leper,

7 a woman came to Him with an alabaster jar of very expensive perfume, which she poured on His head as He reclined at the table.

8 When the disciples saw this, they were upset and said, “Why this waste?

9 This perfume could have been sold for a high price and the money given to the poor.”

10 Aware of this, Jesus said, “Why are you bothering this woman? She has done a beautiful thing for Me.

11 The poor you will always have with you, but you will not always have Me.

12 When she poured this perfume on My body, she did it to prepare Me for burial.

13 Truly I tell you, wherever this gospel is preached in the whole world, what she has done will also be told in memory of her.”

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus

14 Then one of the Twelve—the one called Judas Iscariot—went to the chief priests

15 and asked, “What will you give me if I deliver Him to you?” So they counted out thirty pieces of silver.

16 From then on, Judas watched for the right time to hand Jesus over.

The Last Supper

17 On the first day of the Festival of Unleavened Bread, the disciples came to Jesus and asked, “Where do You want us to make preparations for You to eat the Passover?”

18 He replied, “Go into the city to a certain man and tell him, ‘The Teacher says: My appointed time is near. I am going to celebrate the Passover with My disciples at your house.’”

19 So the disciples did as Jesus directed them and prepared the Passover.

20 When evening came, Jesus was reclining at the table with the Twelve.

21 And while they were eating, He said, “Truly I tell you, one of you will betray Me.”

22 They were very sad and began to say to Him one after another, “Surely You don’t mean me, Lord?”

23 Jesus replied, “The one who has dipped his hand in the bowl with Me will betray Me.

24 The Son of Man will go just as it is written about Him. But woe to that man who betrays the Son of Man—it would be better for him if he had never been born.”

25 Then Judas, the one who would betray Him, said, “Surely You don’t mean me, Rabbi?” Jesus answered, “You have said so.”

26 While they were eating, Jesus took bread, and when He had given thanks, He broke it and gave it to His disciples, saying, “Take and eat; this is My body.”

27 Then He took a cup, and when He had given thanks, He gave it to them, saying, “Drink from it, all of you.

28 This is My blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.

29 I tell you, I will not drink from this fruit of the vine again until that day when I drink it new with you in My Father’s kingdom.”

30 When they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Jesus Predicts Peter’s Denial

31 Then Jesus told them, “This very night you will all fall away on account of Me, for it is written: ‘I will strike the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.’

32 But after I have risen, I will go ahead of you into Galilee.”

33 Peter replied, “Even if all fall away on account of You, I never will.”

34 Jesus answered, “Truly I tell you, this very night, before the rooster crows, you will disown Me three times.”

35 But Peter declared, “Even if I have to die with You, I will never disown You.” And all the other disciples said the same.

Jesus in Gethsemane

36 Then Jesus went with His disciples to a place called Gethsemane, and He said to them, “Sit here while I go over there and pray.”

37 He took Peter and the two sons of Zebedee along with Him, and He began to be deeply troubled and sorrowful.

38 He said to them, “My soul is overwhelmed with sorrow to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch with Me.”

39 Going a little farther, He fell with His face to the ground and prayed, “My Father, if it is possible, let this cup be taken from Me. Yet not as I will, but as You will.”

40 Then He returned to His disciples and found them sleeping. “Couldn’t you men keep watch with Me for one hour?” He asked Peter.

41 “Watch and pray so that you will not fall into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak.”

42 He went away a second time and prayed, “My Father, if it is not possible for this cup to be taken away unless I drink it, may Your will be done.”

43 When He came back, He again found them sleeping, because their eyes were heavy.

44 So He left them and went away once more and prayed the third time, saying the same thing.

45 Then He returned to the disciples and said, “Are you still sleeping and resting? Look, the hour has come, and the Son of Man is delivered into the hands of sinners.

46 Rise, let us go! Here comes My betrayer!”

Jesus Arrested

47 While He was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, arrived. With him was a large crowd armed with swords and clubs, sent from the chief priests and the elders of the people.

48 Now the betrayer had arranged a signal with them: “The one I kiss is the man; arrest Him.”

49 Going at once to Jesus, Judas said, “Greetings, Rabbi!” and kissed Him.

50 Jesus replied, “Friend, do what you came for.” Then the men stepped forward, seized Jesus, and arrested Him.

51 With that, one of Jesus’ companions drew his sword and struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his ear.

52 “Put your sword back in its place,” Jesus said to him, “for all who draw the sword will die by the sword.

53 Do you think I cannot call on My Father, and He will at once put at My disposal more than twelve legions of angels?

54 But how then would the Scriptures be fulfilled that say it must happen this way?”

55 In that hour Jesus said to the crowd, “Am I leading a rebellion, that you have come out with swords and clubs to capture Me? Every day I sat in the temple courts teaching, and you did not arrest Me.

56 But this has all taken place that the writings of the prophets might be fulfilled.” Then all the disciples deserted Him and fled.

Jesus Before the Sanhedrin

57 Those who had arrested Jesus took Him to Caiaphas the high priest, where the teachers of the law and the elders had assembled.

58 But Peter followed Him at a distance, right up to the courtyard of the high priest. He entered and sat down with the guards to see the outcome.

59 The chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were looking for false evidence against Jesus so they could put Him to death.

60 But they did not find any, though many false witnesses came forward. Finally two came forward
61 and declared, “This man said, ‘I am able to destroy the temple of God and rebuild it in three days.’”

62 Then the high priest stood up and said to Jesus, “Are You not going to answer? What is this testimony that these men are bringing against You?”

63 But Jesus remained silent. The high priest said to Him, “I charge You under oath by the living God: Tell us if You are the Messiah, the Son of God.”

64 “You have said so,” Jesus replied. “But I say to all of you: From now on you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Mighty One and coming on the clouds of heaven.”

65 Then the high priest tore his clothes and said, “He has spoken blasphemy! Why do we need any more witnesses? Look, now you have heard the blasphemy.

66 What do you think?” “He is worthy of death,” they answered.

67 Then they spit in His face and struck Him with their fists. Others slapped Him

68 and said, “Prophecy to us, Messiah. Who hit You?”

Peter Denies Jesus

69 Now Peter was sitting out in the courtyard, and a servant girl came to him. “You also were with Jesus of Galilee,” she said.

70 But he denied it before them all. “I don’t know what you’re talking about,” he said.

71 Then he went out to the gateway, where another servant girl saw him and said to the people there, “This fellow was with Jesus of Nazareth.”

72 He denied it again, with an oath: “I don’t know the man!”

73 After a little while, those standing there went up to Peter and said, “Surely you are one of them; your accent gives you away.”

74 Then he began to call down curses, and he swore to them, “I don’t know the man!” Immediately a rooster crowed.

75 Then Peter remembered the word Jesus had spoken: “Before the rooster crows, you will disown Me three times.” And he went outside and wept bitterly.

Key Lessons from Matthew 26

- Jesus faced betrayal and suffering with submission to the Father’s will.

- True worship costs something, as seen in the woman’s anointing.
- The Lord’s Supper reminds us of Christ’s body and blood given for us.
- Prayer is the believer’s strength against temptation.
- Even when His followers failed, Jesus remained faithful to God’s plan of salvation.

Matthew 27 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Pilate’s Trial, the Crucifixion, and the Burial of Jesus”

Jesus Handed Over to Pilate

1 Early in the morning, all the chief priests and elders planned to have Jesus put to death.
2 They tied Him up, led Him away, and handed Him over to the governor, Pontius Pilate.

Judas Remorse and the Field of Blood

3 When Judas, who had betrayed Jesus, saw that Jesus was condemned, he was filled with regret. He returned the thirty silver coins to the chief priests and elders,
4 saying, “I have sinned by betraying innocent blood.”
They replied, “What is that to us? That’s your problem.”
5 Judas threw the coins into the temple and went away and hanged himself.
6 The chief priests picked up the coins and said, “It’s not lawful to put this money into the temple treasury; it’s blood money.”
7 So they decided to buy the potter’s field as a cemetery for strangers.
8 That’s why it has been called “Field of Blood” to this day.
9 This fulfilled what the prophet spoke: that the thirty silver coins, the price set on Him by the people of Israel,
10 would be used to buy the potter’s field, just as the Lord directed.

Jesus Before Pilate

11 Jesus stood before the governor, and Pilate asked, “Are You the King of the Jews?”
Jesus answered, “You say so.”
12 While the chief priests and elders accused Him, He gave no answer.
13 Pilate said, “Don’t You hear the charges they bring against You?”
14 But Jesus did not reply—not even to a single charge—so Pilate was amazed.

Barabbas or Jesus

15 It was the governor’s custom at the festival to release one prisoner chosen by the crowd.
16 At that time they had a well-known prisoner named Barabbas.
17 Pilate asked the crowd, “Which one do you want me to release to you: Barabbas, or Jesus who is called the Christ?”

18 He knew they had handed Jesus over out of envy.

19 While Pilate was sitting on the judge’s seat, his wife sent him a message: “Have nothing to do with that righteous man, for I suffered much today in a dream because of Him.”

20 But the chief priests and elders persuaded the crowd to ask for Barabbas and to have Jesus killed.

21 “Which of the two do you want me to release to you?” asked the governor.

They answered, “Barabbas.”

22 “Then what shall I do with Jesus who is called the Christ?”

They all said, “Crucify Him!”

23 “Why? What crime has He committed?” asked Pilate.

But they shouted all the louder, “Crucify Him!”

24 Seeing that it was going nowhere and that a riot was starting, Pilate took water and washed his hands before the crowd. “I am innocent of this man’s blood,” he said. “See to it yourselves.”

25 All the people answered, “His blood be on us and on our children.”

26 Then he released Barabbas to them; and after having Jesus flogged, he handed Him over to be crucified.

Soldiers Mock Jesus

27 The governor’s soldiers took Jesus into the headquarters and gathered the whole company around Him.

28 They stripped Him and put a scarlet robe on Him.

29 They twisted together a crown of thorns and set it on His head. They put a reed in His right hand, knelt before Him, and mocked, “Hail, King of the Jews!”

30 They spit on Him, took the reed, and struck Him on the head.

31 After they had mocked Him, they took off the robe, put His own clothes on Him, and led Him away to crucify Him.

The Crucifixion

32 As they were going out, they met a man from Cyrene named Simon, and forced him to carry Jesus’ cross.

33 They came to a place called Golgotha (which means “Place of the Skull”).

34 They offered Jesus wine mixed with gall; but after tasting it, He would not drink it.

35 When they had crucified Him, they divided His clothes by casting lots—fulfilling the Scripture.

36 Then they sat down and kept watch over Him there.

37 Above His head they placed the written charge against Him: “THIS IS JESUS, THE KING OF THE JEWS.”

39 Those who passed by insulted Him, shaking their heads,

40 saying, “You who said you would destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days—save Yourself! If You are the Son of God, come down from the cross!”

41 In the same way the chief priests, teachers of the law, and elders mocked Him:

42 “He saved others, but He can’t save Himself. If He is the King of Israel, let Him come down now from the cross, and we will believe in Him.

43 He trusts in God; let God rescue Him now if He wants Him, for He said, ‘I am the Son of God.’”

44 The criminals who were crucified with Him also insulted Him.

Jesus’ Death

45 From noon until three in the afternoon, darkness came over all the land.

46 About three o’clock Jesus cried out in a loud voice, “Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?”—that is, “My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?”

47 Some who were standing there said, “He’s calling Elijah.”

48 Immediately one of them ran, took a sponge, filled it with sour wine, put it on a reed, and offered it to Jesus to drink.

49 Others said, “Wait, let’s see if Elijah comes to save Him.”

50 Jesus cried out again with a loud voice and gave up His spirit.

Signs at His Death

51 At that moment the curtain of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. The earth shook and the rocks split.

52 Tombs were opened, and many holy people who had died were raised to life.

53 After Jesus’ resurrection they came out of the tombs, went into the holy city, and appeared to many people.

54 When the centurion and those guarding Jesus saw the earthquake and all that happened, they were terrified and said, “Truly this was the Son of God!”

55 Many women were there watching from a distance. They had followed Jesus from Galilee to care for Him—

56 among them Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedee’s sons.

Jesus’ Burial

57 As evening approached, a rich man from Arimathea named Joseph, who had become a disciple of Jesus, 58 went to Pilate and asked for Jesus’ body. Pilate ordered that it be given to him.

59 Joseph took the body, wrapped it in clean linen,

60 and placed it in his own new tomb that had been cut in the rock. He rolled a large stone in front of the entrance and went away.

61 Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were sitting there opposite the tomb.

The Guard at the Tomb

62 The next day, the day after Preparation Day, the chief priests and the Pharisees went to Pilate.

63 They said, “Sir, we remember that while He was alive that deceiver said, ‘After three days I will rise again.’”

64 So give orders to make the tomb secure until the third day. Otherwise His disciples may come and steal the body and tell the people He has been raised from the dead. This last deception will be worse than the first.”

65 “You have a guard,” Pilate answered. “Go, make the tomb as secure as you can.”

66 So they went and secured the tomb by sealing the stone and posting a guard.

Key Lessons from Matthew 27

- Jesus is innocent yet condemned – human courts failed, but God’s plan of salvation moved forward.
- Regret without repentance destroys – Judas felt remorse but did not turn to the mercy of God.
- Mocked King, true King – the crown of thorns and the sign over the cross proclaim the real identity of Jesus.
- The cross fulfills Scripture – even the dividing of His garments and the insults were foretold.
- His death opens the way to God – the torn temple curtain shows direct access to the Father through Christ.
- Witnesses abound – a Roman centurion, many women, and the sealed tomb all confirm the truth of these events.

Matthew 28 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Resurrection and the Great Commission”

The Empty Tomb

1 At dawn on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb.

2 Suddenly there was a violent earthquake, for an angel of the Lord came down from heaven, rolled back the stone, and sat on it.

3 His appearance was like lightning, and his clothes were as white as snow.

4 The guards were so afraid that they trembled and became like dead men.

5 The angel said to the women, “Do not be afraid. I know you are looking for Jesus who was crucified.

6 He is not here; He has risen, just as He said! Come, see the place where He lay.

7 Then go quickly and tell His disciples: ‘He has risen from the dead and is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see Him.’ Now I have told you.”

8 They hurried away from the tomb, filled with both fear and great joy, and ran to tell His disciples.
9 Suddenly Jesus met them. “Greetings,” He said. They came to Him, clasped His feet, and worshiped Him.
10 Then Jesus said, “Do not be afraid. Go tell My brothers to go to Galilee, and there they will see Me.”

The Guards’ Report

11 While the women were on their way, some of the guards went into the city and reported everything that had happened to the chief priests.
12 After the priests met with the elders and discussed it, they gave the soldiers a large sum of money,
13 telling them, “You are to say, ‘His disciples came during the night and stole Him away while we were asleep.’
14 If the governor hears about this, we will satisfy him and keep you out of trouble.”
15 So the soldiers took the money and did as they were told. This story has been spread among the Jews to this very day.

The Great Commission

16 Then the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had told them to go.
17 When they saw Him, they worshiped Him; but some still doubted.
18 Jesus came to them and said, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to Me.
19 Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit,
20 and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.”

Key Lessons from Matthew 28

- The resurrection is real – the empty tomb and eyewitnesses confirm that Jesus rose from the dead.
- Fear turned to joy – those who trusted Jesus saw sorrow replaced with hope.
- The gospel cannot be stopped – though lies were spread, the truth of the resurrection spread across the world.
- The Great Commission – every believer is called to go, make disciples, baptize, and teach obedience to Christ’s commands.

- Jesus is with us always – His presence and authority empower His people until the end of the age.

Introduction to the Book of Mark

“The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.” – Mark 1:1

Title and Meaning

The Gospel according to Mark takes its name from its traditional author, John Mark, a companion of Peter and Paul. The word Gospel means “good news,” and Mark’s Gospel emphasizes the good news of Jesus Christ through His actions more than His long teachings. It presents Jesus as the Suffering Servant and the Son of God, who came not to be served but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many (Mark 10:45).

Author and Date

Early church tradition credits John Mark as the author, closely connected to Peter, whose eyewitness testimony likely shaped the narrative. Papias (AD 120) records that Mark served as Peter’s interpreter and wrote down what he remembered. The Gospel was probably written around AD 55–65, possibly in Rome, for a primarily Gentile (likely Roman) audience.

Purpose of Mark

Mark’s Gospel is urgent, action-driven, and focused on Jesus’ deeds. His purpose includes:

- To present Jesus as the powerful Son of God who came to serve and save.
- To highlight discipleship—following Jesus even through suffering.
- To encourage persecuted believers, especially in Rome, by showing Christ’s authority and sacrifice.
- To reveal the true identity of Jesus as the Messiah, often hidden at first, then fully revealed at the cross.

Structure of Mark

Mark’s Gospel moves quickly, often using the word “immediately.” It can be outlined in two main halves:

1. The Ministry of Jesus in Galilee (Chs. 1–8)

- Jesus’ authority demonstrated through miracles, healings, and teaching.
- Growing crowds, but also growing opposition.

- The question of His identity builds: “Who is this?” (Mark 4:41).

† 2. The Journey to the Cross (Chs. 9–16)

- Jesus teaches about His coming suffering, death, and resurrection.
- The disciples struggle with understanding His mission.
- The climax: the cross and the empty tomb.

Major Themes

- Jesus the Servant-King – He came to serve, heal, and ultimately give His life.
- The Power of Christ – Shown in miracles over nature, demons, disease, and death.
- Discipleship and the Cross – To follow Jesus means taking up one’s cross (Mark 8:34).
- The Messianic Secret – Jesus often told people not to reveal His miracles or identity until the right time.
- Faith vs. Fear – A recurring contrast in how people respond to Jesus.

Why Mark Matters Today

Mark reminds us that the gospel is not just about words, but about the power of God revealed in Jesus Christ. In a fast-paced, suffering world, Mark gives believers confidence that Jesus is both powerful and compassionate, and that following Him requires courage and endurance. His closing words about the resurrection assure us of Christ’s ultimate victory.

Key Verse

“For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.” – Mark 10:45

This verse summarizes the heart of Mark’s Gospel: Jesus is the Servant-King who gave His life to save us.

Mark 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Beginning of the Gospel”

The Ministry of John the Baptist

1 This is the beginning of the good news about Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

2 As it is written by the prophets: “Behold, I send My messenger ahead of You, who will prepare Your way.”

3 A voice of one calling out in the wilderness: “Prepare the way of the Lord, make His paths straight.”

4 John appeared in the wilderness, baptizing and preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.

5 People from all over Judea and Jerusalem went out to him. They confessed their sins and were baptized by him in the Jordan River.

6 John wore clothes made of camel's hair with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey.

7 He preached, "After me comes one more powerful than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to stoop down and untie.

8 I baptize you with water, but He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."

The Baptism and Temptation of Jesus

9 At that time Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan.

10 As Jesus came up out of the water, He saw heaven opened, and the Spirit descending on Him like a dove.

11 A voice came from heaven: "You are My beloved Son; with You I am well pleased."

12 Immediately the Spirit drove Him into the wilderness.

13 He was there forty days, being tempted by Satan. He was with the wild animals, and angels attended Him.

The Beginning of Jesus' Ministry

14 After John was put in prison, Jesus went into Galilee, preaching the good news of God.

15 He said, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is near. Repent and believe the good news!"

The Calling of the First Disciples

16 As Jesus walked beside the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net, for they were fishermen.

17 Jesus said, "Come, follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men."

18 Immediately they left their nets and followed Him.

19 Going a little farther, He saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John in a boat, mending their nets.

20 Without delay He called them, and they left their father Zebedee with the hired men and followed Him.

Jesus' Authority and Power

21 They went to Capernaum, and on the Sabbath Jesus entered the synagogue and taught.

22 The people were amazed, because He taught with authority, not like the scribes.

23 Suddenly a man with an unclean spirit was in the synagogue. He cried out, 24 “Leave us alone! What do You want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are—the Holy One of God!”
25 Jesus rebuked him: “Be quiet and come out of him!”
26 The demon shook the man violently and came out of him with a loud cry.
27 Everyone was astonished and asked, “What is this? A new teaching—with authority! He even commands unclean spirits, and they obey Him!”
28 News about Him spread quickly through all of Galilee.

Healings at Simon’s House

29 After leaving the synagogue, they went with James and John to Simon and Andrew’s house.
30 Simon’s mother-in-law was in bed with a fever, and they told Jesus about her.
31 He took her by the hand, helped her up, and immediately the fever left her. She began to serve them.
32 That evening, after sunset, the people brought to Jesus all the sick and demon-possessed.
33 The whole town gathered at the door.
34 Jesus healed many with various diseases and drove out many demons. He would not let the demons speak, because they knew who He was.

Jesus Prays and Continues Preaching

35 Very early in the morning, while it was still dark, Jesus got up, went to a solitary place, and prayed.
36 Simon and his companions went to look for Him,
37 and when they found Him, they said, “Everyone is looking for You!”
38 Jesus replied, “Let us go on to the nearby villages so I can preach there too. That is why I came.”
39 So He traveled throughout Galilee, preaching in their synagogues and driving out demons.

Jesus Heals a Leper

40 A man with leprosy came to Him and begged on his knees, “If You are willing, You can make me clean.”
41 Jesus was moved with compassion. He reached out His hand and touched the man. “I am willing. Be clean!” He said.
42 Immediately the leprosy left him, and he was cleansed.
43 Jesus sent him away at once with a strong warning:
44 “See that you don’t tell this to anyone. But go, show yourself to the priest and offer the sacrifices Moses commanded for your cleansing, as a testimony to them.”

45 But the man went out and began to spread the news widely. As a result, Jesus could no longer enter towns openly but stayed outside in lonely places. Yet people still came to Him from everywhere.

Key Lessons from Mark 1

- John prepared the way for Jesus through repentance and baptism.
- Jesus is the beloved Son of God, confirmed at His baptism.
- The kingdom of God is near – we are called to repent and believe the good news.
- Jesus calls ordinary people to follow Him and become fishers of men.
- He has authority over sickness, sin, and demons – His power is greater than all.
- Prayer was central to Jesus' ministry – a model for us to follow.
- Compassion moved Him to heal – and it still does today.

Mark 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Authority to Forgive Sins”

Jesus Heals a Paralyzed Man

1 A few days later, when Jesus returned to Capernaum, the news spread that He was back home.

2 Soon the house was so crowded that there was no room left, not even outside the door. Jesus preached the word to them.

3 Then four men came, carrying a paralyzed man on a mat.

4 Since they couldn't get to Jesus because of the crowd, they made an opening in the roof above Him. After digging through, they lowered the mat with the man lying on it.

5 When Jesus saw their faith, He said to the paralyzed man, “Son, your sins are forgiven.”

6 But some of the scribes sitting there thought to themselves,

7 “Why does this man talk like that? He is blaspheming! Who can forgive sins but God alone?”

8 Immediately Jesus knew in His spirit what they were thinking and said to them, “Why are you reasoning these things in your hearts?”

9 Which is easier: to say to this paralyzed man, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Get up, take your mat, and walk’?

10 But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins”—He said to the paralyzed man—

11 “I say to you, get up, take your mat, and go home.”

12 Immediately the man got up, took his mat, and walked out in full view of them all. Everyone was amazed and praised God, saying, “We have never seen anything like this!”

The Calling of Levi (Matthew)

13 Once again Jesus went out beside the lake. A large crowd came to Him, and He taught them.

14 As He walked along, He saw Levi son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax booth. “Follow Me,” Jesus said. Levi got up and followed Him.

15 Later, Jesus was eating at Levi’s house. Many tax collectors and sinners were dining with Him and His disciples, for there were many who followed Him.

16 When the teachers of the law who were Pharisees saw Him eating with sinners and tax collectors, they asked His disciples, “Why does He eat with tax collectors and sinners?”

17 When Jesus heard this, He said to them, “It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick. I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners.”

A Question About Fasting

18 Now John’s disciples and the Pharisees were fasting. Some people came and asked Jesus, “Why don’t Your disciples fast like John’s disciples and the Pharisees do?”

19 Jesus answered, “Can the wedding guests fast while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.

20 But the time will come when the bridegroom will be taken from them, and on that day they will fast.”

21 “No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment. If he does, the new piece pulls away from the old, and the tear becomes worse.

22 And no one pours new wine into old wineskins. If he does, the wine will burst the skins, and both the wine and the skins will be ruined. No, new wine must be poured into new wineskins.”

Lord of the Sabbath

23 One Sabbath, Jesus was walking through the grainfields. His disciples began to pick some heads of grain as they walked along.

24 The Pharisees said to Him, “Look, why are they doing what is unlawful on the Sabbath?”

25 He answered, “Have you never read what David did when he and his companions were hungry and in need?

26 In the days of Abiathar the high priest, he entered the house of God and ate the consecrated bread, which was lawful only for the priests to eat. He also gave some to his companions.”

27 Then He said to them, “The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath.

28 So the Son of Man is Lord even of the Sabbath.”

Key Lessons from Mark 2

- Faith finds a way: The friends of the paralyzed man broke through barriers to bring him to Jesus.
- Jesus has authority to forgive sins: His miracles prove His divine authority.
- He calls the unlikely: Levi the tax collector reminds us that no one is too far gone to follow Jesus.
- Jesus brings new life: The new wine and new wineskins show that His kingdom is not about old traditions but transformation.
- The Sabbath is a gift: It was made for humanity's good, and Jesus is Lord over it.

Mark 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Son of Man, Lord of All”

Jesus Heals on the Sabbath

1 Jesus went into the synagogue again, and a man with a shriveled hand was there.

2 The Pharisees watched closely to see if He would heal on the Sabbath so they could accuse Him.

3 Jesus said to the man with the withered hand, “Stand up in front of everyone.”

4 Then He asked them, “Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do evil, to save life or to kill?” But they said nothing.

5 Jesus looked around at them with anger and deep grief at their hard hearts. He said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” The man stretched it out, and his hand was completely restored.

6 Immediately the Pharisees went out and began plotting with the Herodians how they might kill Jesus.

Crowds Follow Jesus

7 Jesus withdrew with His disciples to the sea, and a large crowd from Galilee followed. People came also from Judea,

8 Jerusalem, Idumea, beyond the Jordan, and from the region around Tyre and Sidon. The great crowd came because they had heard about all He was doing.

9 Jesus told His disciples to have a small boat ready for Him so the crowd would not crush Him.

10 For He had healed many, and those suffering from diseases were pushing forward to touch Him.

11 Whenever evil spirits saw Him, they fell down before Him and cried out, “You are the Son of God!”

12 But He strictly ordered them not to make Him known.

The Twelve Apostles Chosen

13 Jesus went up on a mountain and called to Himself those He wanted, and they came to Him.

14 He appointed twelve that they might be with Him, and that He might send them out to preach, 15 with authority to drive out demons.

16 These are the twelve He appointed: Simon (to whom He gave the name Peter);

17 James son of Zebedee and John his brother (to whom He gave the name Boanerges, meaning “Sons of Thunder”);

18 Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, Simon the Zealot, 19 and Judas Iscariot, who later betrayed Him.

A Divided Kingdom Cannot Stand

20 Then Jesus entered a house, and again a crowd gathered so that He and His disciples could not even eat.

21 When His family heard about this, they went to take charge of Him, saying, “He is out of His mind.”

22 And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, “He is possessed by Beelzebul! By the prince of demons He drives out demons.”

23 So Jesus called them over and spoke to them in parables: “How can Satan drive out Satan?

24 If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.

25 If a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand.

26 And if Satan rises up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand; his end has come.

27 No one can enter a strong man’s house and plunder his goods unless he first ties up the strong man.
Then he can plunder his house.

28 Truly I tell you, people can be forgiven all their sins and every slander they utter.

29 But anyone who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven; they are guilty of an eternal sin.”

30 He said this because they were saying, “He has an unclean spirit.”

The True Family of Jesus

31 Then Jesus’ mother and brothers came. Standing outside, they sent someone in to call Him.

32 A crowd was sitting around Him, and they said, “Your mother and brothers are outside looking for You.”

33 Jesus asked, “Who are My mother and My brothers?”

34 Then He looked at those seated around Him and said, “Here are My mother and My brothers!

35 Whoever does the will of God is My brother and sister and mother.”

Key Lessons from Mark 3

- The Sabbath is for mercy and healing: Jesus shows that doing good honors God, even on the Sabbath.
- Hardened hearts grieve Jesus: Religion without compassion misses the heart of God.
- Jesus has power over Satan: His kingdom cannot be overthrown; He binds the strong man.
- Blasphemy against the Spirit is serious: Rejection of the Spirit's witness to Christ is unforgivable.
- True family is spiritual: Those who do God's will are closer to Jesus than blood relatives.

Mark 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Parables of the Kingdom and the Power of Faith”

The Parable of the Sower

1 Jesus began to teach again by the lakeshore. A huge crowd gathered, so He got into a boat and sat in it on the water, while the people stood along the shore.

2 He taught them many things using parables. He said:

3 “Listen! A farmer went out to plant seed.

4 As he scattered it, some fell along the path, and birds came and ate it.

5 Some fell on rocky ground where there wasn't much soil. It sprang up quickly, because the soil was shallow,

6 but when the sun came up, the plants were scorched, and since they had no root, they withered away.

7 Some fell among thorns, which grew up and choked the plants, so they produced no grain.

8 But some fell on good soil. It grew, increased, and produced a harvest—some thirty, some sixty, and some a hundred times what was planted.”

9 Then Jesus said, “Anyone who has ears to hear, let them hear!”

The Purpose of Parables

10 When Jesus was alone, the twelve disciples and others around Him asked about the parables.

11 He said, “To you has been given the secret of the kingdom of God, but to those on the outside, everything is spoken in parables,

12 so that, ‘they may see but not perceive, and hear but not understand; otherwise they might turn and be forgiven.’”

The Meaning of the Sower

13 Jesus said to them, “Don’t you understand this parable? Then how will you understand any parable?”

14 The farmer sows the word.

15 Some people are like seed along the path, where the word is sown. As soon as they hear it, Satan comes and takes away the word that was planted in them.

16 Others are like seed sown on rocky ground. They hear the word and immediately receive it with joy.

17 But since they have no root, they last only a short time. When trouble or persecution comes because of the word, they quickly fall away.

18 Still others are like seed among thorns. They hear the word,

19 but the worries of this life, the deceitfulness of riches, and desires for other things choke the word, making it unfruitful.

20 But those who are like seed sown on good soil hear the word, accept it, and produce a crop—thirty, sixty, or a hundredfold.”

The Lamp and the Measure

21 Jesus continued, “Do you bring a lamp to put it under a basket or under a bed? No! You put it on a stand.

22 For nothing is hidden except to be revealed, and nothing concealed except to be brought into the open.

23 If anyone has ears to hear, let them hear.”

24 He also said, “Pay attention to what you hear. With the measure you use, it will be measured to you—and even more.

25 Whoever has will be given more; whoever does not have, even what they have will be taken away.”

The Growing Seed

26 Jesus said, “The kingdom of God is like a man who scatters seed on the ground.

27 Night and day, whether he sleeps or gets up, the seed sprouts and grows, though he doesn’t know how.

28 The soil produces grain by itself—first the stalk, then the head, then the full grain in the head.

29 As soon as the grain is ripe, he puts in the sickle, because the harvest has come.”

The Mustard Seed

30 Again He said, “What is the kingdom of God like? What parable shall we use to describe it?”

31 It is like a mustard seed, which is the smallest of all seeds when planted in the ground.

32 Yet when it grows, it becomes the largest of garden plants, with such large branches that the birds of the air can nest in its shade.”

Jesus Calms the Storm

33 Jesus taught the word with many parables like these, as much as the people could understand.

34 He did not speak to them without using a parable, but when alone with His disciples, He explained everything.

35 That evening He said to His disciples, “Let’s go over to the other side of the lake.”

36 Leaving the crowd behind, they took Him along in the boat, just as He was. Other boats were with Him too.

37 A furious storm came up, and the waves broke over the boat so that it was nearly swamped.

38 Jesus was in the back, sleeping on a cushion. The disciples woke Him and said, “Teacher, don’t you care if we drown?”

39 He got up, rebuked the wind, and said to the waves, “Peace! Be still!” The wind died down, and it was completely calm.

40 He said to His disciples, “Why are you so afraid? Do you still have no faith?”

41 They were terrified and asked each other, “Who is this? Even the wind and the waves obey Him!”

Key Lessons from Mark 4

- The Word of God must be received deeply: Fruit comes when the heart is soft and ready.
- Faithfulness brings more: The measure of attention you give God’s word will determine what you receive.
- God’s kingdom grows mysteriously: Just like a seed, it develops beyond human control or understanding.
- Small beginnings can yield great results: The mustard seed shows that God’s work can expand beyond expectation.
- Jesus has authority over nature: Even storms obey Him, reminding us to trust His power over our fears.

Mark 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Deliverance, Healing, and Resurrection”

Jesus Heals a Demon-Possessed Man

1 They arrived on the other side of the lake, in the region of the Gadarenes.

2 As soon as Jesus stepped out of the boat, a man with an unclean spirit came from the tombs to meet Him.

3 This man lived among the tombs, and no one could bind him anymore, not even with chains.

4 Many times he had been bound hand and foot, but he tore the chains apart and broke the shackles; no one was strong enough to subdue him.

5 Night and day he cried out among the tombs and in the hills, cutting himself with stones.

6 When he saw Jesus from a distance, he ran and bowed before Him,

7 and cried out in a loud voice, “What do you want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? Swear to God you won’t torment me!”

8 For Jesus had already said, “Come out of this man, you unclean spirit!”

9 Then Jesus asked him, “What is your name?” The man replied, “My name is Legion, for we are many.”

10 And he begged Jesus repeatedly not to send them out of the region.

11 Nearby a large herd of pigs was feeding on the hillside.

12 The demons begged Him, “Send us among the pigs; allow us to go into them.”

13 Jesus gave them permission, and the unclean spirits came out of the man and entered the pigs. The herd—about two thousand in number—rushed down the steep bank into the lake and drowned.

14 Those tending the pigs ran off and reported this in the town and countryside, and the people came to see what had happened.

15 They came to Jesus and saw the man who had been possessed by the legion of demons, sitting there, dressed and in his right mind; and they were afraid.

16 Those who had seen it told the people what had happened to the demon-possessed man—and about the pigs as well.

17 Then the people began to plead with Jesus to leave their region.

18 As Jesus was getting into the boat, the man who had been demon-possessed begged to go with Him.

19 But Jesus did not permit him. He said, “Go home to your own people and tell them how much the Lord has done for you, and how He has had mercy on you.”

20 So the man went away and began to proclaim in the Decapolis how much Jesus had done for him. And all the people were amazed.

Jesus Heals a Woman and Raises a Girl

21 When Jesus crossed again by boat to the other side of the lake, a large crowd gathered around Him while He was by the shore.

22 Then one of the synagogue rulers, named Jairus, came and fell at His feet.

23 He pleaded earnestly, “My little daughter is dying. Please come and lay Your hands on her so she may be healed and live.”

24 So Jesus went with him. A large crowd followed and pressed around Him.

25 A woman was there who had been subject to bleeding for twelve years.

26 She had suffered much under the care of many doctors and had spent all she had, but instead of getting better she grew worse.

27 When she heard about Jesus, she came up behind Him in the crowd and touched His cloak.

28 For she thought, “If I just touch His clothes, I will be healed.”

29 Immediately her bleeding stopped, and she felt in her body that she was freed from her suffering.

30 At once Jesus realized that power had gone out from Him. He turned in the crowd and asked, “Who touched My clothes?”

31 His disciples said, “You see the crowd pressing against You, and yet You ask, ‘Who touched Me?’”

32 But Jesus kept looking around to see who had done it.

33 Then the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came trembling and fell at His feet and told Him the whole truth.

34 He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace and be healed of your affliction.”

35 While Jesus was still speaking, some people came from the house of Jairus. “Your daughter is dead,” they said. “Why bother the Teacher anymore?”

36 Ignoring what they said, Jesus told Jairus, “Don’t be afraid; just believe.”

37 He did not let anyone follow Him except Peter, James, and John the brother of James.

38 When they came to the home of the synagogue ruler, Jesus saw the commotion, with people crying and wailing loudly.

39 He went inside and said to them, “Why all this uproar and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep.”

40 But they laughed at Him. After putting them all outside, He took the child’s father and mother and the disciples who were with Him, and went in where the child was.

41 He took her by the hand and said, “Talitha cumi!”—which means, “Little girl, I say to you, get up!”

42 Immediately the girl stood up and began to walk around (she was twelve years old). At this they were completely astonished.

43 Jesus gave them strict orders not to let anyone know about this, and He told them to give her something to eat.

Key Lessons from Mark 5

- Jesus has power over demons: Even a legion of unclean spirits must bow to Him.
- Testimony matters: The healed man was sent to proclaim what the Lord had done, showing the power of personal witness.
- Faith brings healing: The woman with the issue of blood was healed because she believed.

- Fear is overcome by faith: Jairus was told, “Don’t be afraid; only believe.”
- Jesus has authority over life and death: The raising of Jairus’ daughter points to His ultimate victory over death.

Mark 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Rejection, Martyrdom, Miracles, and Faith”

Jesus Rejected at Nazareth

1 Jesus left that place and returned to His hometown, accompanied by His disciples.

2 On the Sabbath He began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard Him were astonished. They asked, “Where did this man get these things? What wisdom has been given Him, and how are these mighty works done by His hands?”

3 Is this not the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James, Joses, Judas, and Simon? Are His sisters not here with us?” And they were offended at Him.

4 But Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his own town, among his relatives, and in his own household.”

5 He could do no great miracle there, except lay His hands on a few sick people and heal them.

6 And He marveled at their unbelief. Then He went around to the surrounding villages, teaching.

The Twelve Sent Out

7 Jesus called the Twelve and began sending them out two by two. He gave them authority over unclean spirits.

8 He instructed them to take nothing for the journey except a staff—no bag, no bread, no money in their belts—

9 but to wear sandals and not take an extra tunic.

10 He said, “Whenever you enter a house, stay there until you leave that town.

11 If any place will not receive you or listen to you, shake the dust off your feet as a testimony against them. Truly I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah on the day of judgment than for that town.”

12 So they went out and preached that people should repent.

13 They drove out many demons and anointed many sick people with oil, healing them.

The Death of John the Baptist

14 King Herod heard about Jesus, for His name had become well known. Some said, “John the Baptist has been raised from the dead, and that is why these powers are at work in Him.”

15 Others said, "He is Elijah," and still others, "He is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old."
16 But when Herod heard this, he said, "John, whom I beheaded, has been raised from the dead!"

17 For Herod himself had given orders to arrest John and bound him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, whom he had married.

18 For John had been saying to Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife."

19 So Herodias nursed a grudge against John and wanted to kill him, but she could not,

20 because Herod feared John and protected him, knowing him to be a righteous and holy man. When Herod heard him, he was greatly puzzled, yet he enjoyed listening to him.

21 Finally the opportune time came. On his birthday, Herod gave a banquet for his high officials and military commanders and the leading men of Galilee.

22 The daughter of Herodias came in and danced, pleasing Herod and his dinner guests. The king said to the girl, "Ask me for whatever you want, and I will give it to you."

23 He swore to her, "Whatever you ask I will give you, up to half my kingdom."

24 She went out and asked her mother, "What shall I request?" Her mother replied, "The head of John the Baptist."

25 At once she hurried to the king with the request: "I want you to give me the head of John the Baptist on a platter—right now."

26 The king was greatly distressed, but because of his oaths and his dinner guests, he did not want to refuse her.

27 So he immediately sent an executioner with orders to bring John's head. The man went, beheaded John in the prison, 28 brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl, who gave it to her mother.

29 When John's disciples heard about it, they came and took his body and laid it in a tomb.

Jesus Feeds the Five Thousand

30 The apostles gathered around Jesus and reported to Him all they had done and taught.

31 Then, because so many people were coming and going that they did not even have time to eat, He said to them, "Come with Me by yourselves to a quiet place and get some rest."

32 So they went away by themselves in a boat to a solitary place.

33 But many saw them leaving and recognized them, and they ran on foot from all the towns and got there ahead of them.

34 When Jesus landed and saw a large crowd, He had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd. So He began teaching them many things.

35 By this time it was late in the day, so His disciples came to Him and said, "This is a remote place, and it's already very late.

36 Send the people away so they can go to the surrounding countryside and villages and buy themselves something to eat."

37 But Jesus answered, "You give them something to eat." They said, "Should we go and spend two hundred denarii on bread to give them something to eat?”

38 “How many loaves do you have?” He asked. “Go and see.” When they found out, they said, “Five—and two fish.”

39 Then Jesus directed them to have all the people sit down in groups on the green grass.

40 So they sat down in groups of hundreds and fifties.

41 Taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, He gave thanks and broke the loaves. Then He gave them to His disciples to distribute to the people. He also divided the two fish among them all.

42 They all ate and were satisfied,

43 and the disciples picked up twelve basketfuls of broken pieces of bread and fish.

44 The number of the men who had eaten was about five thousand.

Jesus Walks on Water

45 Immediately Jesus made His disciples get into the boat and go ahead of Him to Bethsaida, while He dismissed the crowd.

46 After leaving them, He went up on a mountainside to pray.

47 Later that night, the boat was in the middle of the lake, and He was alone on land.

48 He saw the disciples straining at the oars because the wind was against them. About the fourth watch of the night, He went out to them, walking on the lake. He was about to pass by them,

49 but when they saw Him walking on the lake, they thought He was a ghost. They cried out,

50 for they all saw Him and were terrified. Immediately He spoke to them and said, “Take courage! It is I. Don’t be afraid.”

51 Then He climbed into the boat with them, and the wind died down. They were utterly amazed, 52 for they had not understood about the loaves; their hearts were hardened.

Healings at Gennesaret

53 When they had crossed over, they landed at Gennesaret and anchored there.

54 As soon as they got out of the boat, people recognized Jesus.

55 They ran throughout that whole region and carried the sick on mats to wherever they heard He was.

56 And wherever He went—into villages, towns, or the countryside—they laid the sick in the marketplaces. They begged Him to let them touch even the edge of His cloak, and all who touched Him were healed.

Key Lessons from Mark 6

- Unbelief blocks blessings: Jesus could do little in His hometown because of their unbelief.

- Disciples are sent with faith, not resources: Dependence on God’s power is greater than human preparation.
- John the Baptist’s death foreshadows Christ’s sacrifice: Standing for truth can cost your life.
- Jesus feeds the hungry: He is the true Shepherd who provides for His people.
- Jesus walks on water: His authority over nature reveals His divine power.
- Faith activates healing: All who touched Him in Gennesaret were made whole.

Mark 7 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Tradition, Faith, and Healing”

Confrontation with the Pharisees

1 The Pharisees and some of the scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered around Jesus.

2 They saw some of His disciples eating bread with “unclean” (that is, unwashed) hands, and they found fault.

3 (The Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they wash their hands in a special way, holding to the tradition of the elders.

4 When they come from the marketplace, they do not eat unless they wash. They also hold many other traditions, such as the washing of cups, pitchers, kettles, and dining couches.)

5 The Pharisees and scribes asked Him, “Why don’t Your disciples walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashed hands?”

6 Jesus replied, “Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you hypocrites, as it is written: ‘This people honors Me with their lips, but their hearts are far from Me.

7 In vain they worship Me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.’

8 You set aside the command of God to hold on to human tradition—such as washing cups and pitchers—and you do many other similar things.”

9 And He continued, “You skillfully reject the commandment of God to keep your own tradition.

10 For Moses said, ‘Honor your father and mother,’ and, ‘Whoever curses father or mother must be put to death.’

11 But you say, ‘If a man declares something Corban (that is, dedicated to God), he no longer has to help his father or mother.’

12 In this way you no longer let him do anything for his parents.

13 Thus you nullify the word of God by your tradition that you have handed down. And you do many things like that.”

What Truly Defiles a Person

14 Jesus called the crowd to Him again and said, “Listen to Me, everyone, and understand this:

15 There is nothing outside a person that by going into him can defile him. It is what comes out of a person that defiles him.

16 If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear.”

17 After He had left the crowd and entered the house, His disciples asked Him about this parable.

18 He said to them, “Are you still without understanding? Don’t you realize that nothing entering a person from the outside can defile him?

19 It doesn’t go into the heart but into the stomach, and then out of the body.” (In saying this, Jesus declared all foods clean.)

20 He continued, “What comes out of a person is what defiles him.

21 For from within, out of the heart of man, come evil thoughts: sexual immorality, theft, murder,

22 adultery, greed, wickedness, deceit, lewdness, envy, slander, arrogance, and foolishness.

23 All these evils come from within, and they defile a person.”

The Faith of a Gentile Woman

24 Jesus left that place and went to the region of Tyre. He entered a house and did not want anyone to know it, but He could not keep His presence hidden.

25 A woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit heard about Him, and she came and fell at His feet.

26 The woman was a Greek, born in Syrian Phoenicia. She begged Jesus to drive the demon out of her daughter.

27 He told her, “First let the children be fed, for it isn’t right to take the children’s bread and throw it to the dogs.”

28 She replied, “Yes, Lord, but even the dogs under the table eat the crumbs the children drop.”

29 Then He said to her, “Because of this reply, you may go; the demon has left your daughter.”

30 She went home and found her child lying on the bed, and the demon gone.

Jesus Heals a Deaf and Mute Man

31 Jesus left the region of Tyre and went through Sidon down to the Sea of Galilee and into the region of the Decapolis.

32 There some people brought to Him a man who was deaf and could hardly talk, and they begged Him to lay His hand on him.

33 Jesus took him aside, away from the crowd, put His fingers into the man’s ears, and then spit and touched the man’s tongue.

34 Looking up to heaven, He sighed deeply and said, “Ephphatha!” (which means, “Be opened!”).

35 At once the man’s ears were opened, his tongue was loosened, and he began to speak plainly.

36 Jesus commanded them not to tell anyone. But the more He told them, the more they spread the news.

37 People were overwhelmed with amazement. “He has done everything well,” they said. “He makes the deaf hear and the mute speak.”

Key Lessons from Mark 7

- Tradition vs. Truth: Human traditions can never override God’s commands.
- Defilement comes from within: Sin originates in the heart, not from food or outward rituals.
- Faith crosses boundaries: The Syrophenician woman’s faith showed that God’s mercy extends beyond Israel.
- Jesus heals in unique ways: His power was not in rituals but in the authority of His word and compassion.
- All things done well: Christ’s works were complete, perfect, and undeniable proof of His divine mission.

Mark 8 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Provision, Revelation, and the Cost of Discipleship”

Jesus Feeds Four Thousand

1 During those days, a large crowd gathered, and once again they had nothing to eat. Jesus called His disciples to Him and said,

2 “I have compassion on these people. They have already been with Me three days and have nothing to eat.

3 If I send them home hungry, they will faint along the way, for some of them have come from a long distance.”

4 His disciples answered, “Where in this remote place can anyone get enough bread to feed them?”

5 Jesus asked, “How many loaves do you have?” They replied, “Seven.”

6 He told the crowd to sit down on the ground. Taking the seven loaves and giving thanks, He broke them and gave them to His disciples to distribute, and they set them before the people.

7 They also had a few small fish. He gave thanks for them as well and told the disciples to distribute them.

8 The people ate and were satisfied. Afterward, the disciples picked up seven basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over.

9 About four thousand were present. After He had sent them away,
10 He got into the boat with His disciples and went to the region of Dalmanutha.

A Sign Demanded

11 The Pharisees came and began to argue with Him, testing Him by asking for a sign from heaven.
12 He sighed deeply in His spirit and said, “Why does this generation ask for a sign? Truly I tell you, no sign will be given to it.”
13 Then He left them, got back into the boat, and crossed to the other side.

The Leaven of the Pharisees

14 The disciples had forgotten to bring bread, except for one loaf they had with them in the boat.
15 Jesus warned them, “Watch out! Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and that of Herod.”
16 They discussed this with one another and said, “It is because we have no bread.”
17 Aware of their conversation, Jesus asked, “Why are you talking about having no bread? Do you still not see or understand? Are your hearts hardened?
18 Do you have eyes but fail to see, and ears but fail to hear? Don’t you remember?
19 When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets of pieces did you pick up?”
“Twelve,” they replied.
20 “And when I broke the seven loaves for the four thousand, how many baskets of pieces did you pick up?” They answered, “Seven.”
21 He said to them, “Do you still not understand?”

Jesus Heals a Blind Man at Bethsaida

22 They came to Bethsaida, and some people brought a blind man and begged Jesus to touch him.
23 He took the blind man by the hand and led him outside the village. When He had spit on the man’s eyes and put His hands on him, Jesus asked, “Do you see anything?”
24 The man looked up and said, “I see people, but they look like trees walking around.”
25 Once more Jesus put His hands on the man’s eyes. Then his eyes were opened, his sight was restored, and he saw everything clearly.
26 Jesus sent him home, saying, “Don’t even go into the village.”

Peter’s Confession of Christ

27 Jesus and His disciples went on to the villages around Caesarea Philippi. On the way He asked them, “Who do people say I am?”

28 They replied, “Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, one of the prophets.”
29 “But what about you?” He asked. “Who do you say I am?” Peter answered, “You are the Christ.”
30 Jesus warned them not to tell anyone about Him.

Jesus Predicts His Death

31 He then began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things, be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and scribes, be killed, and after three days rise again.

32 He spoke plainly about this, and Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him.

33 But when Jesus turned and looked at His disciples, He rebuked Peter: “Get behind Me, Satan! You do not have in mind the concerns of God, but merely human concerns.”

The Cost of Discipleship

34 Then He called the crowd to Him along with His disciples and said, “If anyone would come after Me, let him deny himself, take up his cross, and follow Me.

35 For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake and for the gospel will save it.

36 What good is it for someone to gain the whole world, yet forfeit his soul?

37 Or what can anyone give in exchange for their soul?

38 If anyone is ashamed of Me and My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will be ashamed of them when He comes in His Father’s glory with the holy angels.”

Key Lessons from Mark 8

- Jesus provides abundantly: His compassion extends even to physical needs.
- Faith > Signs: A wicked generation seeks signs, but faith believes God’s Word.
- Beware of false teaching: Like leaven, hypocrisy and unbelief spread quickly.
- Spiritual sight is progressive: Like the blind man, we often see dimly before we see clearly.
- The Great Confession: Peter’s declaration that Jesus is the Christ is central to the gospel.
- True discipleship costs everything: To follow Christ, we must surrender self, take up the cross, and value eternal life above the whole world.

Mark 9 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Glory of Christ, the Power of Faith, and the Call to Humble Discipleship”

The Transfiguration

1 Jesus said to them, “Truly I tell you, some standing here will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God come with power.”

2 Six days later, Jesus took Peter, James, and John with Him up a high mountain by themselves. There He was transfigured before them.

3 His clothes became dazzling white, whiter than anyone on earth could bleach them.

4 Elijah and Moses appeared and spoke with Jesus.

5 Peter said, “Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. Let us put up three shelters—one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”

6 He did not know what to say, for they were terrified.

7 A cloud overshadowed them, and a voice came from the cloud: “This is My beloved Son. Listen to Him!”

8 Suddenly, when they looked around, they saw only Jesus with them.

9 As they came down the mountain, Jesus ordered them not to tell anyone what they had seen until the Son of Man had risen from the dead.

10 They kept the matter to themselves, wondering what “rising from the dead” meant.

Elijah and the Suffering Son of Man

11 The disciples asked Him, “Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?”

12 Jesus replied, “Indeed, Elijah comes first and restores all things. But why then is it written that the Son of Man must suffer greatly and be rejected?”

13 I tell you, Elijah has already come, and they did to him whatever they pleased, just as it is written about him.”

Jesus Heals a Demon-Possessed Boy

14 When they came to the other disciples, they saw a large crowd around them, and the scribes were arguing with them.

15 As soon as the crowd saw Jesus, they were amazed and ran to greet Him.

16 He asked, “What are you arguing with them about?”

17 A man from the crowd answered, “Teacher, I brought You my son, who has a spirit that makes him mute.

18 Whenever it seizes him, it throws him to the ground. He foams at the mouth, grinds his teeth, and becomes rigid. I asked Your disciples to drive it out, but they could not.”

19 Jesus said, “You unbelieving generation, how long must I be with you? Bring the boy to Me.”

20 They brought him, and when the spirit saw Jesus, it immediately threw the boy into convulsions. He fell to the ground, rolling and foaming at the mouth.

21 Jesus asked the boy’s father, “How long has he been like this?” He replied, “Since childhood.

22 It has often thrown him into fire or water to kill him. But if You can do anything, take pity on us and help us.”

23 Jesus said, “‘If You can’? Everything is possible for the one who believes.”

24 Immediately the boy’s father cried out, “I believe! Help my unbelief!”

25 Seeing the crowd running to the scene, Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit: “You deaf and mute spirit, I command you, come out and never enter him again.”

26 The spirit shrieked, convulsed him violently, and came out. The boy looked so much like a corpse that many said, “He is dead.”

27 But Jesus took him by the hand, lifted him up, and he stood.

28 After Jesus had gone indoors, His disciples asked privately, “Why couldn’t we drive it out?”

29 He replied, “This kind can come out only by prayer and fasting.”

Jesus Predicts His Death a Second Time

30 They left that place and passed through Galilee. Jesus did not want anyone to know where they were,

31 because He was teaching His disciples: “The Son of Man will be delivered into the hands of men. They will kill Him, and after three days He will rise.”

32 But they did not understand and were afraid to ask Him about it.

Who Is the Greatest?

33 They came to Capernaum. When He was in the house, He asked them, “What were you arguing about on the road?”

34 They kept silent, because they had argued about who was the greatest.

35 Sitting down, Jesus called the Twelve and said, “Anyone who wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all.”

36 He took a little child and placed him among them. Taking the child in His arms, He said,

37 “Whoever welcomes one of these little children in My name welcomes Me; and whoever welcomes Me does not welcome Me but the One who sent Me.”

Whoever Is Not Against Us Is For Us

38 John said to Him, “Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in Your name and we tried to stop him, because he was not following us.”

39 “Do not stop him,” Jesus said. “For no one who does a miracle in My name can soon afterward speak evil of Me.

40 Whoever is not against us is for us.

41 Truly I tell you, anyone who gives you a cup of water in My name because you belong to Christ will certainly not lose their reward.”

Warnings About Sin and Hell

42 “If anyone causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to stumble, it would be better for them to have a large millstone hung around their neck and be thrown into the sea.

43 If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better to enter life maimed than with two hands to go into hell, where the fire never goes out.

45 And if your foot causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better to enter life crippled than to have two feet and be thrown into hell.

47 And if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out. It is better to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell,

48 where ‘the worms that eat them do not die, and the fire is not quenched.’

49 Everyone will be salted with fire.

50 Salt is good, but if it loses its saltiness, how can you make it salty again? Have salt among yourselves, and be at peace with one another.”

Key Lessons from Mark 9

- The Transfiguration reveals Christ’s glory: Jesus is the fulfillment of the Law (Moses) and the Prophets (Elijah).
- Faith overcomes unbelief: Even weak faith can be strengthened—“Lord, I believe; help my unbelief.”
- Prayer and fasting are vital: Some spiritual battles require deeper dependence on God.
- True greatness is found in humility: To be first, one must become last and a servant.
- Unity in Christ’s mission: Those working in His name should not be hindered.
- The seriousness of sin: Sin must be dealt with decisively because eternal consequences are at stake.
- Be salt and light: Followers of Jesus must preserve truth and pursue peace.

Mark 10 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Teaching on Marriage, Wealth, Humility, and Faith”

Teaching on Divorce and Marriage

1 Jesus left that place and went into the region of Judea and across the Jordan. Crowds gathered around Him again, and as was His custom, He taught them.

2 Some Pharisees came to test Him, asking, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?”

3 He replied, “What did Moses command you?”

4 They said, “Moses permitted a man to write a certificate of divorce and send her away.”

5 Jesus answered, “It was because your hearts were hard that Moses wrote this commandment.

6 But from the beginning of creation, ‘God made them male and female.’

7 For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife,

8 and the two shall become one flesh. So they are no longer two, but one flesh.

9 Therefore, what God has joined together, let no one separate.”

10 Later, when they were in the house again, the disciples asked Him about this.

11 He said, “Anyone who divorces his wife and marries another woman commits adultery against her.

12 And if a woman divorces her husband and marries another man, she commits adultery.”

Jesus Blesses the Children

13 People were bringing children to Jesus for Him to place His hands on them, but the disciples rebuked them.

14 When Jesus saw this, He was indignant. He said, “Let the children come to Me; do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.

15 Truly I tell you, anyone who does not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it.”

16 And He took the children in His arms, placed His hands on them, and blessed them.

The Rich Young Ruler

17 As Jesus started on His way, a man ran up, knelt before Him, and asked, “Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

18 Jesus answered, “Why do you call Me good? No one is good except God alone.

19 You know the commandments: ‘Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not bear false witness, do not defraud, honor your father and mother.’”

20 The man replied, “Teacher, all these I have kept since I was young.”

21 Jesus looked at him with love and said, “One thing you lack: go, sell everything you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow Me.”

22 At this the man’s face fell. He went away sad, because he had great wealth.

23 Jesus looked around and said to His disciples, “How hard it is for the rich to enter the kingdom of God!”

24 The disciples were amazed at His words. But Jesus said again, “Children, how hard it is for those who trust in riches to enter the kingdom of God!

25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.”

26 The disciples were even more amazed and said, “Who then can be saved?”

27 Jesus looked at them and said, “With man this is impossible, but not with God. With God all things are possible.”

28 Then Peter spoke up, “We have left everything to follow You!”

29 Jesus replied, “Truly I tell you, no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields for Me and the gospel

30 will fail to receive a hundredfold in this present age—homes, brothers, sisters, mothers, children, and fields—along with persecutions—and in the age to come eternal life.

31 But many who are first will be last, and the last first.”

Jesus Predicts His Death a Third Time

32 They were on their way up to Jerusalem, with Jesus leading the way. The disciples were amazed, while those who followed were afraid. Again He took the Twelve aside and told them what was going to happen.

33 “We are going up to Jerusalem,” He said, “and the Son of Man will be delivered over to the chief priests and the scribes. They will condemn Him to death and hand Him over to the Gentiles, 34 who will mock Him, spit on Him, flog Him, and kill Him. After three days He will rise.”

The Request of James and John

35 Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Him. “Teacher,” they said, “we want You to do for us whatever we ask.”

36 He asked, “What do you want Me to do for you?”

37 They replied, “Let one of us sit at Your right and the other at Your left in Your glory.”

38 Jesus said, “You do not know what you are asking. Can you drink the cup I drink or be baptized with the baptism I am baptized with?”

39 “We can,” they answered.

Jesus said to them, “You will drink the cup I drink and be baptized with the baptism I am baptized with, but to sit at My right or left is not for Me to grant. These places belong to those for whom they have been prepared.”

41 When the ten heard this, they became indignant with James and John.

42 Jesus called them together and said, “You know that those who are regarded as rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their high officials exercise authority over them.

43 Not so with you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, 44 and whoever wants to be first must be slave of all.

45 For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many.”

Blind Bartimaeus Receives Sight

46 They came to Jericho. As Jesus and His disciples, together with a large crowd, were leaving the city, Bartimaeus (son of Timaeus), a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside.

47 When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

48 Many rebuked him and told him to be quiet, but he shouted all the more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

49 Jesus stopped and said, “Call him.” So they called to the blind man, “Cheer up! Get up; He is calling you.”

50 Throwing his cloak aside, he jumped to his feet and came to Jesus.

51 “What do you want Me to do for you?” Jesus asked him.

The blind man said, “Rabbi, I want to see.”

52 Jesus said, “Go, your faith has healed you.” Immediately he received his sight and followed Jesus along the road.

Key Lessons from Mark 10

- Marriage is God’s design: What God joins, man must not separate.
- Childlike faith is essential: The kingdom belongs to those with humility and trust like children.
- Wealth can hinder salvation: Trust in riches blinds the heart, but with God, all things are possible.

- True discipleship requires surrender: Following Jesus may cost much now, but eternal life awaits.
- Greatness comes through service: Jesus modeled servant leadership, even to the point of giving His life.
- Faith brings healing: Like Bartimaeus, persistence and faith in Christ bring restoration.

Mark 11 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Triumphal Entry, Cleansing the Temple, and the Power of Faith”

The Triumphal Entry

1 As Jesus and His disciples approached Jerusalem, near Bethphage and Bethany at the Mount of Olives, He sent two disciples ahead.

2 He told them, “Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately as you enter it you will find a colt tied there, one that no one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here.

3 If anyone asks, ‘Why are you doing this?’ say, ‘The Lord needs it and will send it back shortly.’”

4 They went and found the colt tied outside in the street at a doorway, and as they untied it,

5 some people standing there asked, “What are you doing, untying the colt?”

6 They answered as Jesus had told them, and the people let them go.

7 They brought the colt to Jesus, threw their cloaks over it, and He sat on it.

8 Many people spread their cloaks on the road, while others spread branches they had cut from the fields.

9 The crowds went ahead of Him and those who followed shouted, “Hosanna!

Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!

10 Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David!

Hosanna in the highest!”

11 Jesus entered Jerusalem and went into the temple courts. He looked around at everything, but since it was already late, He went out to Bethany with the Twelve.

The Fig Tree Cursed

12 The next day as they were leaving Bethany, Jesus was hungry.

13 Seeing a fig tree in leaf from a distance, He went to find out if it had any fruit. When He reached it, He found nothing but leaves, because it was not the season for figs.

14 Then He said to the tree, “May no one ever eat fruit from you again.” And His disciples heard Him say it.

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

15 When they arrived in Jerusalem, Jesus entered the temple courts and began driving out those who were buying and selling. He overturned the tables of the money changers and the benches of those selling doves,

16 and would not allow anyone to carry merchandise through the temple courts.

17 He taught them, saying, “Is it not written: ‘My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations’? But you have made it a den of thieves.”

18 The chief priests and teachers of the law heard this and began looking for a way to kill Him, for they feared Him, because the whole crowd was amazed at His teaching.

19 When evening came, Jesus and His disciples went out of the city.

The Lesson of the Withered Fig Tree

20 The next morning, as they went along, they saw the fig tree withered from the roots.

21 Peter remembered and said, “Rabbi, look! The fig tree You cursed has withered!”

22 Jesus answered, “Have faith in God.

23 Truly I tell you, if anyone says to this mountain, ‘Be lifted up and thrown into the sea,’ and does not doubt in his heart but believes what he says will happen, it will be done for him.

24 Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours.

25 And when you stand praying, if you hold anything against anyone, forgive them, so that your Father in heaven may also forgive your sins.

26 But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father in heaven forgive your sins.”

The Authority of Jesus Questioned

27 They returned once again to Jerusalem, and while Jesus was walking in the temple courts, the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders came to Him.

28 They asked, “By what authority are You doing these things? Who gave You this authority?”

29 Jesus replied, “I will ask you one question. Answer Me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

30 John’s baptism—was it from heaven, or from men? Answer Me!”

31 They discussed it among themselves and said, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will ask, ‘Why didn’t you believe him?’

32 But if we say, ‘From men’...” they feared the people, for everyone held that John truly was a prophet.

33 So they answered Jesus, “We do not know.”

Jesus replied, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.”

Key Lessons from Mark 11

- Jesus is the true King: The Triumphal Entry fulfills prophecy and declares Christ’s authority.
- Faith is powerful: The withered fig tree reminds us that God honors believing prayer.
- Forgiveness is essential: Prayer is tied to forgiving others, as God has forgiven us.
- God’s house is holy: Worship should be pure, not corrupted by greed or self-interest.
- Jesus’ authority is divine: His wisdom silenced His enemies and revealed His power.

Mark 12 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Parable of the Vineyard, The Greatest Commandment, and the Widow’s Offering”

The Parable of the Wicked Tenants

1 Jesus began to teach the people with parables: “A man planted a vineyard. He put a fence around it, dug a pit for the winepress, and built a watchtower. Then he rented the vineyard to some farmers and went away on a journey.

2 At harvest time he sent a servant to collect his share of the fruit.

3 But the tenants seized him, beat him, and sent him away empty-handed.

4 He sent another servant; they struck him on the head and treated him shamefully.

5 He sent still another, and they killed him. He sent many others; some they beat, others they killed.

6 Finally, he had one left to send—his beloved son. He sent him last of all, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’

7 But the tenants said to one another, ‘This is the heir. Come, let’s kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.’

8 So they seized him, killed him, and threw him out of the vineyard.

9 What will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come, destroy those tenants, and give the vineyard to others.

10 Haven't you read this Scripture: "The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone;
11 the Lord has done this, and it is marvelous in our eyes"?

12 The religious leaders knew Jesus was speaking this parable against them. They wanted to arrest Him but were afraid of the crowd, so they left Him and went away.

Taxes to Caesar

13 Later they sent some Pharisees and Herodians to trap Him with His words.

14 They came and said, "Teacher, we know You are a man of integrity. You aren't swayed by others and teach the way of God truthfully. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar or not? Should we pay or shouldn't we?"

15 But Jesus knew their hypocrisy. He asked, "Why are you trying to trap Me? Bring Me a denarius and let Me look at it."

16 They brought the coin, and He asked, "Whose image is this? And whose inscription?"

They replied, "Caesar's."

17 Then Jesus said to them, "Give back to Caesar what is Caesar's, and to God what is God's." And they were amazed at Him.

The Sadducees and the Resurrection

18 Then the Sadducees, who deny there is a resurrection, came to Him with a question:

19 "Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies and leaves a wife but no children, the man must marry the widow to raise up offspring for his brother.

20 Now there were seven brothers. The first married and died without children.

21 The second married her but also died without children. The same happened with the third.

22 In fact, none of the seven left any children. Last of all, the woman died too.

23 At the resurrection, whose wife will she be, since all seven were married to her?"

24 Jesus replied, "Are you not in error because you do not know the Scriptures or the power of God?"

25 When the dead rise, they will neither marry nor be given in marriage; they will be like the angels in heaven.

26 And about the resurrection of the dead—have you not read in the book of Moses, in the account of the burning bush, how God said to him, 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'?

27 He is not the God of the dead but of the living. You are badly mistaken!"

The Greatest Commandment

28 One of the scribes came and asked Him, “Of all the commandments, which is the most important?”

29 Jesus replied, “The most important one is this: Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one.

30 Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.’

31 The second is this: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’ There is no commandment greater than these.”

32 The scribe said to Him, “Well said, Teacher. You are right in saying God is one and there is no other but Him.

33 To love Him with all your heart, understanding, soul, and strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself is more important than all burnt offerings and sacrifices.”

34 When Jesus saw that he had answered wisely, He said, “You are not far from the kingdom of God.” From then on, no one dared ask Him any more questions.

David’s Lord

35 While Jesus was teaching in the temple courts, He asked, “Why do the scribes say that the Messiah is the son of David?

36 David himself, speaking by the Holy Spirit, said:

‘The Lord said to my Lord: Sit at my right hand until I put Your enemies under Your feet.’

37 David himself calls Him ‘Lord.’ How then can He be his son?” The large crowd listened to Him with delight.

Warning Against the Scribes

38 As He taught, Jesus said, “Beware of the scribes. They like to walk around in flowing robes and receive greetings in the marketplaces, 39 they love the most important seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at banquets.

40 They devour widows’ houses and for a show make lengthy prayers. These men will be punished most severely.”

The Widow’s Offering

41 Jesus sat down opposite the place where the offerings were put and watched the crowd putting their money into the temple treasury. Many rich people threw in large amounts.

42 But a poor widow came and put in two very small copper coins, worth only a fraction of a penny.

43 Calling His disciples to Him, Jesus said, “Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put more into the treasury than all the others.

44 They all gave out of their wealth; but she, out of her poverty, gave everything—all she had to live on.”

Key Lessons from Mark 12

- God’s Son is the heir: The parable of the tenants points directly to Jesus, rejected yet exalted.
- We owe ultimate loyalty to God: Earthly duties exist, but God’s claim is greater.
- God of the living: The resurrection is real, for God rules over life, not death.
- The greatest commandments: Love God fully and love others selflessly.
- True giving: God values sacrifice from the heart, not the amount given.
- Beware of hypocrisy: Outward religion without love and humility brings judgment.

Mark 13 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The End of the Age and the Coming of the Son of Man”

The Temple Will Be Destroyed

1 As Jesus was leaving the temple, one of His disciples said to Him, “Teacher, look at these massive stones and magnificent buildings!”

2 Jesus replied, “Do you see all these great buildings? Not one stone here will be left on another; every one will be thrown down.”

Signs of the End

3 Later, as Jesus sat on the Mount of Olives across from the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked Him privately,

4 “Tell us, when will these things happen? What will be the sign that they are about to be fulfilled?”

5 Jesus said, “Watch out that no one deceives you.

6 Many will come in My name, claiming, ‘I am the Christ,’ and will deceive many.

7 You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, but don’t be alarmed. These things must happen, but the end is not yet.

8 Nation will rise against nation, kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes and famines in many places. These are only the beginning of birth pains.”

Persecution of the Believers

9 “Be on your guard. You will be handed over to councils, beaten in synagogues, and brought before rulers and kings because of Me, as a testimony to them.

10 And the gospel must first be preached to all nations.

11 When you are arrested and brought to trial, don’t worry beforehand about what to say. Just say whatever is given you at the time, for it is not you speaking, but the Holy Spirit.

12 Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child. Children will rise against parents and have them put to death.

13 All men will hate you because of Me, but the one who stands firm to the end will be saved.”

The Great Tribulation

14 “When you see ‘the abomination of desolation’ spoken of by the prophet Daniel standing where it does not belong (let the reader understand), then those in Judea must flee to the mountains.

15 Let no one on the housetop go down to take anything out of the house.

16 Let no one in the field return to get his cloak.

17 How terrible it will be for pregnant women and nursing mothers in those days!

18 Pray that this will not happen in winter.

19 For those will be days of distress unequalled from the beginning of creation until now—and never to be equaled again.

20 If the Lord had not shortened those days, no one would survive. But for the sake of the elect, whom He has chosen, He has shortened them.

21 At that time if anyone says to you, ‘Look, here is the Christ!’ or, ‘Look, there He is!’ do not believe it.

22 For false messiahs and false prophets will appear and perform signs and wonders to deceive—even the elect, if that were possible.

23 So be on your guard; I have told you everything ahead of time.”

The Coming of the Son of Man

24 “But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light, 25 the stars will fall from the sky, and the heavenly powers will be shaken.

26 Then they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory.

27 And He will send His angels to gather His chosen ones from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of heaven.”

The Lesson of the Fig Tree

28 “Now learn this lesson from the fig tree: As soon as its branches become tender and sprout leaves, you know that summer is near.

29 In the same way, when you see these things happening, you know that He is near, right at the door.

30 Truly I tell you, this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things have happened.

31 Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away.”

Keep Watch

32 “But about that day or hour no one knows—not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.

33 Be on guard! Stay alert! You don’t know when that time will come.

34 It is like a man going away: He leaves his house and puts his servants in charge, each with their assigned task, and tells the gatekeeper to keep watch.

35 Therefore keep watch, because you do not know when the master of the house will return—whether in the evening, at midnight, at the rooster’s crow, or at dawn.

36 If He comes suddenly, do not let Him find you sleeping.

37 What I say to you, I say to everyone: Watch!”

Key Lessons from Mark 13

- Earthly glory fades: Even the grand temple would not last; only God’s Word endures.
- Spiritual deception is real: Many false messiahs will rise; believers must cling to Christ.
- Persecution is part of the mission: Followers of Jesus will face trials, but the Spirit will speak through them.
- The gospel must go global: Before the end, the message of Christ will reach all nations.
- The tribulation will be severe: Yet God shortens the days for the sake of His chosen ones.
- Christ’s return will be unmistakable: Unlike false prophets, His coming will be cosmic, glorious, and visible to all.
- Always be watchful: Since no one knows the exact hour, every believer must live ready for His return.

Mark 14 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Betrayal, the Supper, and the Arrest of the King”

The Plot to Kill Jesus

1 It was two days before the Passover and the Festival of Unleavened Bread. The chief priests and teachers of the law were looking for a way to secretly arrest Jesus and kill Him.

2 But they said, “Not during the festival, or the people may riot.”

The Anointing at Bethany

3 While Jesus was in Bethany at the home of Simon the leper, a woman came with an alabaster jar of very expensive perfume, made of pure nard. She broke the jar and poured it on His head.

4 Some of those present were indignant. “Why this waste of perfume?

5 It could have been sold for more than a year’s wages and the money given to the poor.” And they rebuked her harshly.

6 Jesus said, “Leave her alone. Why are you bothering her? She has done a beautiful thing for Me.

7 The poor you will always have with you, and you can help them anytime you want. But you will not always have Me.

8 She did what she could—she anointed My body beforehand for burial.

9 Truly I tell you, wherever the gospel is preached throughout the world, what she has done will be told in memory of her.”

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus

10 Then Judas Iscariot, one of the Twelve, went to the chief priests to betray Jesus to them.

11 They were delighted to hear this and promised to give him money. So he watched for an opportunity to hand Him over.

The Last Supper

12 On the first day of the Festival of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb was sacrificed, the disciples asked Jesus, “Where do You want us to go and make preparations for You to eat the Passover?”

13 He sent two of His disciples, saying, “Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him.

14 Say to the owner of the house he enters, ‘The Teacher asks, Where is My guest room, where I may eat the Passover with My disciples?’

15 He will show you a large room upstairs, furnished and ready. Make preparations for us there.”

16 The disciples went, found things just as Jesus had told them, and prepared the Passover.

17 When evening came, Jesus arrived with the Twelve.

18 While they were reclining at the table eating, He said, “Truly I tell you, one of you will betray Me—one who is eating with Me.”

19 They were saddened, and one by one they said to Him, “Surely You don’t mean me?”

20 “It is one of the Twelve,” He replied, “one who dips bread into the bowl with Me.

21 The Son of Man will go just as it is written about Him. But woe to that man who betrays the Son of Man! It would be better for him if he had not been born.”

22 While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks, broke it, and gave it to His disciples, saying, “Take it; this is My body.”

23 Then He took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it.

24 “This is My blood of the new covenant, poured out for many,” He said to them.

25 “Truly I tell you, I will not drink again from the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God.”

26 When they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Jesus Predicts Peter’s Denial

27 “You will all fall away,” Jesus told them, “for it is written: ‘I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.’

28 But after I have risen, I will go ahead of you into Galilee.”

29 Peter declared, “Even if all fall away, I will not.”

30 “Truly I tell you,” Jesus answered, “today—yes, tonight—before the rooster crows twice you yourself will disown Me three times.”

31 But Peter insisted emphatically, “Even if I have to die with You, I will never disown You.” And all the others said the same.

Jesus Prays in Gethsemane

32 They went to a place called Gethsemane, and Jesus said to His disciples, “Sit here while I pray.”

33 He took Peter, James, and John along with Him, and He began to be deeply troubled and distressed.

34 “My soul is overwhelmed with sorrow to the point of death,” He said. “Stay here and keep watch.”

35 Going a little farther, He fell to the ground and prayed that if possible the hour might pass from Him.

36 “Abba, Father,” He said, “everything is possible for You. Take this cup from Me. Yet not what I will, but what You will.”

37 Then He returned to His disciples and found them sleeping. “Simon,” He said to Peter, “are you asleep? Couldn’t you keep watch for one hour?”

38 Watch and pray so that you will not fall into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak.”

39 Once more He went away and prayed the same thing.

40 When He came back, He again found them sleeping, because their eyes were heavy. They did not know what to say to Him.

41 Returning the third time, He said, "Are you still sleeping and resting? Enough! The hour has come. Look, the Son of Man is delivered into the hands of sinners.

42 Rise! Let us go! Here comes My betrayer!"

Jesus Arrested

43 Just as He was speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, appeared. With him was a crowd armed with swords and clubs, sent from the chief priests, the teachers of the law, and the elders.

44 Now the betrayer had arranged a signal with them: "The one I kiss is the man; arrest Him and lead Him away under guard."

45 Going at once to Jesus, Judas said, "Rabbi!" and kissed Him.

46 The men seized Jesus and arrested Him.

47 Then one of those standing near drew his sword and struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his ear.

48 "Am I leading a rebellion," said Jesus, "that you have come out with swords and clubs to capture Me?"

49 Every day I was with you, teaching in the temple courts, and you did not arrest Me. But the Scriptures must be fulfilled."

50 Then everyone deserted Him and fled.

51 A young man, wearing nothing but a linen garment, was following Jesus. When they seized him, 52 he fled naked, leaving his garment behind.

Jesus Before the Sanhedrin

53 They took Jesus to the high priest, and all the chief priests, elders, and teachers of the law came together.

54 Peter followed Him at a distance, right into the courtyard of the high priest. There he sat with the guards and warmed himself at the fire.

55 The chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were looking for evidence against Jesus so they could put Him to death, but they did not find any.

56 Many testified falsely against Him, but their statements did not agree.

57 Then some stood up and gave this false testimony:

58 "We heard Him say, 'I will destroy this temple made with human hands and in three days will build another, not made with hands.'"

59 Yet even then their testimony did not agree.

60 Then the high priest stood up before them and asked Jesus, “Are You not going to answer? What is this testimony that these men are bringing against You?”

61 But Jesus remained silent and gave no answer.

Again the high priest asked Him, “Are You the Messiah, the Son of the Blessed One?”

62 “I am,” said Jesus. “And you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Mighty One and coming on the clouds of heaven.”

63 The high priest tore his clothes. “Why do we need any more witnesses?” he asked.

64 “You have heard the blasphemy. What do you think?” They all condemned Him as worthy of death.

65 Then some began to spit at Him; they blindfolded Him, struck Him with their fists, and said, “Prophecy!” And the guards took Him and beat Him.

Peter Denies Jesus

66 While Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the servant girls of the high priest came by.

67 When she saw Peter warming himself, she looked closely at him. “You also were with Jesus of Nazareth,” she said.

68 But he denied it. “I don’t know or understand what you’re talking about,” he said, and went out into the entryway.

69 When the servant girl saw him there, she said again to those standing around, “This fellow is one of them.”

70 Again he denied it. After a little while, those standing near said to Peter, “Surely you are one of them, for you are a Galilean.”

71 He began to call down curses, and he swore to them, “I don’t know this man you’re talking about.”

72 Immediately the rooster crowed the second time. Then Peter remembered the word Jesus had spoken to him: “Before the rooster crows twice you will disown Me three times.” And he broke down and wept.

Key Lessons from Mark 14

- Jesus is anointed for burial: What seems like waste to some is worship to God.
- Betrayal can come from within: Judas was among the Twelve, yet turned against Christ.
- The Supper points to the Cross: Bread and wine symbolize His body and blood given for many.
- Prayer is essential in trial: Even Jesus sought the Father’s will in Gethsemane.
- The weakness of man vs. the strength of God: The disciples slept, Peter denied, but God’s plan stood firm.

- Christ is the true Son of God: Condemned as a blasphemer, yet declared Lord of heaven.
- Failure is not final: Peter wept, but later was restored to service.

Mark 15 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Trial, Crucifixion, and Burial of the King”

Jesus Before Pilate

1 Early in the morning, the chief priests, elders, and teachers of the law met together, and they bound Jesus and handed Him over to Pilate.

2 Pilate asked Him, “Are You the King of the Jews?” Jesus replied, “You have said so.”

3 The chief priests accused Him of many things.

4 Again Pilate asked, “Aren’t You going to answer? See how many things they accuse You of.”

5 But Jesus made no reply, and Pilate was amazed.

The Crowd Chooses Barabbas

6 It was Pilate’s custom at the festival to release one prisoner chosen by the people.

7 A man called Barabbas was in prison with rebels who had committed murder during an uprising.

8 The crowd came and asked Pilate to do what he usually did.

9 “Do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?” Pilate asked.

10 He knew it was out of envy that the chief priests had handed Jesus over.

11 But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to have Pilate release Barabbas instead.

12 Pilate asked, “What shall I do, then, with the one you call the King of the Jews?”

13 “Crucify Him!” they shouted.

14 “Why? What crime has He committed?” asked Pilate. But they shouted louder, “Crucify Him!”

15 Wanting to satisfy the crowd, Pilate released Barabbas and had Jesus flogged, then handed Him over to be crucified.

The Soldiers Mock Jesus

16 The soldiers took Jesus into the palace (the Praetorium) and called together the whole company of soldiers.

17 They put a purple robe on Him, twisted a crown of thorns, and set it on His head.

18 They mocked Him, shouting, “Hail, King of the Jews!”

19 They struck Him on the head with a staff, spit on Him, and knelt down in mock worship.

20 After mocking Him, they took off the robe, put His own clothes back on Him, and led Him away to crucify Him.

The Crucifixion of Jesus

21 A man named Simon of Cyrene, the father of Alexander and Rufus, was forced to carry His cross.

22 They brought Jesus to the place called Golgotha (which means “The Place of the Skull”).

23 They offered Him wine mixed with myrrh, but He did not take it.

24 They crucified Him and divided His clothes by casting lots.

25 It was the third hour (9 a.m.) when they crucified Him.

26 The written charge against Him read: The King of the Jews.

28 This fulfilled the Scripture: “He was counted among the transgressors.”

Mocked on the Cross

29 Those who passed by hurled insults at Him, shaking their heads and saying, “So! You who would destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days,

30 come down from the cross and save Yourself!”

31 In the same way, the chief priests and teachers of the law mocked Him among themselves. “He saved others,” they said, “but He can’t save Himself!

32 Let this Messiah, the King of Israel, come down now from the cross, that we may see and believe.” Even those crucified with Him insulted Him.

The Death of Jesus

33 At noon, darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon.

34 At three o’clock Jesus cried out in a loud voice, “Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?” which means, “My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?”

35 Some who heard this said, “Listen, He’s calling Elijah.”

36 Someone ran, filled a sponge with vinegar, put it on a staff, and offered it to Jesus to drink. “Leave Him alone now. Let’s see if Elijah comes to take Him down,” they said.

37 With a loud cry, Jesus breathed His last.

38 The curtain of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom.

39 When the centurion, who stood there in front of Jesus, saw how He died, he said, “Surely this man was the Son of God!”

The Women at the Cross

40 Some women were watching from a distance. Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James the younger and of Joses, and Salome.

41 These women had followed Him in Galilee and cared for His needs. Many other women who had come with Him to Jerusalem were also there.

The Burial of Jesus

42 It was Preparation Day (the day before the Sabbath).

43 Joseph of Arimathea, a respected member of the council who was waiting for the kingdom of God, went boldly to Pilate and asked for Jesus' body.

44 Pilate was surprised to hear that He was already dead. Summoning the centurion, he asked if Jesus had already died.

45 When he learned from the centurion that it was so, he gave the body to Joseph.

46 Joseph bought some linen, took the body down, wrapped it in the linen, and placed it in a tomb cut out of rock. He rolled a stone against the entrance.

47 Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses saw where He was laid.

Key Lessons from Mark 15

- Jesus is the true King: though mocked with a crown of thorns, He reigns as Lord of all.
- The crowd chose Barabbas over Christ: a picture of humanity choosing sin over the Savior.
- The cross fulfills prophecy: Jesus was numbered with sinners and bore our shame.
- The darkness shows God's judgment: sin's weight fell on Christ at the cross.
- The temple veil torn: access to God is now open through Jesus' sacrifice.
- Confession from the centurion: even a Roman soldier recognized Him as the Son of God.
- The faithful women: they remained when many disciples fled.

Mark 16 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Risen Lord”

The Empty Tomb

1 When the Sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices to anoint Jesus' body.

2 Very early on the first day of the week, just after sunrise, they went to the tomb.

3 On the way, they asked each other, "Who will roll away the stone from the entrance of the tomb?"

4 But when they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled away.

5 As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man dressed in a white robe sitting on the right side, and they were alarmed.

6 He said to them, "Do not be afraid. You are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has risen! He is not here. See the place where they laid Him.

7 But go, tell His disciples and Peter, 'He is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see Him, just as He told you.'"

8 Trembling and bewildered, the women ran from the tomb. They said nothing to anyone at first, because they were afraid.

Appearances of the Risen Christ

9 When Jesus rose early on the first day of the week, He appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom He had cast out seven demons.

10 She went and told those who had been with Him, who were mourning and weeping.

11 But when they heard that Jesus was alive and that she had seen Him, they did not believe it.

12 Later, Jesus appeared in a different form to two of His followers as they were walking in the country.

13 They returned and reported it to the others, but they still did not believe them.

14 Finally, Jesus appeared to the eleven as they were eating. He rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they had not believed those who saw Him after He had risen.

The Great Commission

15 He said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the good news to everyone.

16 Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned.

17 These signs will accompany those who believe: in My name they will drive out demons, they will speak in new tongues,

18 they will pick up snakes with their hands, and if they drink deadly poison, it will not harm them; they will place their hands on the sick, and they will recover."

The Ascension of Jesus

19 After the Lord Jesus had spoken to them, He was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God.

20 Then the disciples went out and preached everywhere, and the Lord worked with them, confirming His word with miraculous signs. Amen.

Key Lessons from Mark 16

- The tomb is empty: Jesus has risen just as He promised, proving His victory over death.
- Fear turned to faith: those who trembled at first became witnesses of the greatest truth in history.
- The Great Commission is for all believers: we are called to take the gospel to the whole world.
- Faith brings salvation: belief in Christ and obedience through baptism are the pathway to eternal life.
- God empowers His people: miracles, healing, and authority over evil confirm the message of Christ.
- Jesus reigns forever: He is seated at the right hand of God, interceding for His people.

Introduction to the Book of Luke

“For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.” – Luke 19:10

Title and Meaning

The Gospel according to Luke is named after its author, Luke the physician (Colossians 4:14), a Gentile and close companion of the apostle Paul. Luke is the only non-Jewish writer of the New Testament. His Gospel, along with the book of Acts, forms a two-volume work dedicated to Theophilus, explaining the certainty of the Christian faith (Luke 1:1–4). Luke’s Gospel emphasizes Jesus as the Son of Man, highlighting His compassion for the poor, the outcast, and all nations.

Author and Date

Luke, the beloved physician and historian, is universally regarded as the author. His attention to detail, historical accuracy, and medical terminology support this. The Gospel was likely written around AD 60–62, before the destruction of Jerusalem (AD 70), and possibly during Paul’s imprisonment in Rome.

Purpose of Luke

Luke writes an orderly, researched account of Jesus' life and ministry. His purpose includes:

- To give believers certainty about the truth of Jesus Christ (Luke 1:4).
- To present Jesus as the Savior for all people—Jews and Gentiles alike.
- To highlight Jesus' compassion for the marginalized: women, children, the poor, lepers, tax collectors, and sinners.
- To show the work of the Holy Spirit and the role of prayer in Jesus' ministry.

Structure of Luke

Luke's Gospel is the longest and contains unique material not found in the other Gospels, including many parables. It can be divided into three main sections:

1. The Birth and Early Life of Jesus (Chs. 1–2)

The miraculous births of John the Baptist and Jesus, the shepherds' visit, and the boy Jesus in the temple.

2. The Ministry of Jesus (Chs. 3–19)

- Jesus' baptism, genealogy, and temptation.
- His Galilean ministry filled with teaching, parables, and miracles.
- The "travel narrative" (Chs. 9–19) where Jesus sets His face toward Jerusalem, teaching in parables like the Good Samaritan, the Prodigal Son, and the Rich Man and Lazarus.

† 3. The Passion, Death, and Resurrection (Chs. 20–24)

- Jesus' arrest, trial, and crucifixion.
- His resurrection and ascension into heaven.

Major Themes

- Jesus the Son of Man – Fully human and fully divine, identifying with humanity.
- Salvation for All – The gospel extends to Jews, Gentiles, rich, poor, and outcasts.
- Compassion and Mercy – Jesus cares for sinners, the poor, the oppressed, and the marginalized.
- Prayer and the Holy Spirit – Luke emphasizes prayer and the Spirit's guidance in Christ's mission.
- Joy and Praise – From the birth narratives to the resurrection, Luke highlights joy in God's salvation.

Why Luke Matters Today

Luke shows us a Savior who came for all people, regardless of status or background. His Gospel reminds us that God's kingdom welcomes the broken, the poor, and the outsider. Luke also emphasizes discipleship as a life of prayer, dependence on the Spirit, and compassionate service. His account inspires believers to live out Christ's mission with humility and love.

Key Verse

“For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.” – Luke 19:10

This verse captures the heart of Luke's Gospel: Jesus Christ, the Son of Man, came with compassion and power to rescue sinners and bring salvation to all.

Luke 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Birth of John and Jesus Foretold”

Introduction to Luke's Gospel

1 Many people have tried to write an account of the things that have happened among us,
2 handed down by those who were eyewitnesses and servants of the Word from the beginning.
3 I too, having carefully investigated everything from the start, decided to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Theophilus,
4 so that you may know the certainty of the things you have been taught.

The Birth of John Foretold

5 In the days of Herod king of Judea, there was a priest named Zechariah, from the division of Abijah.
His wife, Elizabeth, was also a descendant of Aaron.
6 They were both righteous before God, keeping all the Lord's commandments blamelessly.
7 But they had no children, because Elizabeth was barren, and both were very old.
8 One day, while Zechariah was serving as priest before God,
9 he was chosen by lot to go into the temple of the Lord and burn incense.
10 At the time of the incense offering, all the people were praying outside.
11 Then an angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing at the right side of the altar of incense.
12 Zechariah was startled and overwhelmed with fear.
13 But the angel said, “Do not be afraid, Zechariah. Your prayer has been heard. Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you are to call him John.
14 He will be a joy and delight to you, and many will rejoice at his birth, 15 for he will be great in the sight of the Lord. He must never drink wine or strong drink, and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit even from his mother's womb.

16 He will bring many of the people of Israel back to the Lord their God.

17 And he will go on before the Lord in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of fathers to their children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous—to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.”

18 Zechariah asked the angel, “How can I be sure of this? I am an old man, and my wife is well along in years.”

19 The angel said, “I am Gabriel. I stand in the presence of God, and I was sent to speak to you and tell you this good news.

20 But now you will be silent and unable to speak until the day this happens, because you did not believe my words, which will come true at their appointed time.”

21 Meanwhile, the people were waiting for Zechariah, wondering why he stayed so long in the temple.

22 When he came out, he could not speak to them. They realized he had seen a vision, for he kept making signs to them but remained mute.

23 When his time of service was completed, he returned home.

24 After this, his wife Elizabeth became pregnant and remained in seclusion for five months.

25 She said, “The Lord has done this for me. In these days He has shown His favor and taken away my disgrace among the people.”

The Birth of Jesus Foretold

26 In the sixth month of Elizabeth’s pregnancy, God sent the angel Gabriel to Nazareth, a town in Galilee,

27 to a virgin pledged to be married to a man named Joseph, a descendant of David. The virgin’s name was Mary.

28 The angel went to her and said, “Greetings, you who are highly favored! The Lord is with you.”

29 Mary was greatly troubled at his words and wondered what kind of greeting this might be.

30 But the angel said to her, “Do not be afraid, Mary. You have found favor with God.

31 You will conceive and give birth to a son, and you are to call him Jesus.

32 He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give Him the throne of His father David,

33 and He will reign over Jacob’s descendants forever; His kingdom will never end.”

34 “How will this be,” Mary asked the angel, “since I am a virgin?”

35 The angel answered, “The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. So the holy one to be born will be called the Son of God.

36 Even Elizabeth your relative is going to have a child in her old age, and she who was said to be unable to conceive is in her sixth month.

37 For nothing is impossible with God.”

38 “I am the Lord’s servant,” Mary answered. “May your word to me be fulfilled.” Then the angel left her.

Mary Visits Elizabeth

39 At that time Mary got ready and hurried to a town in the hill country of Judea,
40 where she entered Zechariah's home and greeted Elizabeth.
41 When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the baby leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit.
42 In a loud voice she exclaimed: "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the child you will bear!
43 But why am I so favored, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?
44 As soon as the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the baby in my womb leaped for joy.
45 Blessed is she who has believed that the Lord would fulfill His promises to her!"

Mary's Song of Praise

46 And Mary said:
"My soul glorifies the Lord,
47 and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,
48 for He has been mindful of the humble state of His servant.
From now on all generations will call me blessed,
49 for the Mighty One has done great things for me—holy is His name.
50 His mercy extends to those who fear Him, from generation to generation.
51 He has performed mighty deeds with His arm; He has scattered those who are proud in their inmost thoughts.
52 He has brought down rulers from their thrones but has lifted up the humble.
53 He has filled the hungry with good things but has sent the rich away empty.
54 He has helped His servant Israel, remembering to be merciful
55 to Abraham and his descendants forever, just as He promised our ancestors."
56 Mary stayed with Elizabeth for about three months and then returned home.

The Birth of John the Baptist

57 When it was time for Elizabeth to give birth, she had a son.
58 Her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had shown her great mercy, and they shared her joy.
59 On the eighth day they came to circumcise the child, and they were going to name him after his father Zechariah,
60 but his mother spoke up and said, "No! He is to be called John."
61 They said to her, "There is no one among your relatives who has that name."
62 Then they made signs to his father, to find out what he would like to name the child.
63 He asked for a writing tablet, and to everyone's astonishment he wrote, "His name is John."
64 Immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue set free, and he began to speak, praising God.
65 All the neighbors were filled with awe, and throughout the hill country of Judea people were talking about all these things.

66 Everyone who heard this wondered about it, asking, “What then is this child going to be?” For the Lord’s hand was with him.

Zechariah’s Prophecy

67 Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit and prophesied:

68 “Praise be to the Lord, the God of Israel, because He has come to His people and redeemed them.

69 He has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of His servant David

70 (as He said through His holy prophets of long ago),

71 salvation from our enemies and from the hand of all who hate us—

72 to show mercy to our ancestors and to remember His holy covenant,

73 the oath He swore to our father Abraham:

74 to rescue us from the hand of our enemies, and to enable us to serve Him without fear

75 in holiness and righteousness before Him all our days.

76 And you, my child, will be called a prophet of the Most High; for you will go on before the Lord to prepare the way for Him,

77 to give His people the knowledge of salvation through the forgiveness of their sins,

78 because of the tender mercy of our God, by which the rising sun will come to us from heaven

79 to shine on those living in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the path of peace.”

80 And the child grew and became strong in spirit; and he lived in the wilderness until he appeared publicly to Israel.

Key Lessons from Luke 1

- God keeps His promises—even when they seem impossible, as with Elizabeth and Mary.
- Prayer is heard by God in His timing, not ours.
- Nothing is impossible with God—He is able to do what humanly cannot be done.
- Faith and obedience open the door to blessing; unbelief brings silence, as seen in Zechariah.
- True greatness comes from being a servant of the Lord, not from worldly position.
- Jesus is the eternal King, the promised Son of David, whose kingdom will never end.
- God lifts the humble, fills the hungry, and brings mercy to those who fear Him.

Luke 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Birth and Early Life of Jesus”

The Birth of Jesus in Bethlehem

1 In those days Caesar Augustus issued a decree that a census should be taken of the entire Roman world.

2 (This was the first census taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria.)

3 And everyone went to their own town to register.

4 Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to Bethlehem the town of David, because he belonged to the house and line of David.

5 He went there to register with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him and was expecting a child.

6 While they were there, the time came for the baby to be born,

7 and she gave birth to her firstborn son. She wrapped him in cloths and placed him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

The Shepherds and the Angels

8 Nearby, shepherds were living out in the fields, keeping watch over their flocks at night.

9 An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified.

10 But the angel said, “Do not be afraid. I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all people.

11 Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; He is Christ the Lord.

12 This will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger.”

13 Suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and saying,

14 “Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to those on whom His favor rests.”

15 When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let’s go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about.”

16 They hurried off and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby, who was lying in the manger.

17 After seeing Him, they spread the word concerning what had been told them about this child, 18 and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds said to them.

19 But Mary treasured up all these things and pondered them in her heart.

20 The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, which was just as they had been told.

Jesus Presented at the Temple

21 On the eighth day, when it was time to circumcise the child, He was named Jesus—the name the angel had given Him before He was conceived.

22 When the time of their purification according to the Law of Moses was completed, Joseph and Mary took Him to Jerusalem to present Him to the Lord,

23 (as it is written in the Law of the Lord: “Every firstborn male is to be consecrated to the Lord”),
24 and to offer a sacrifice in keeping with what is said in the Law: “a pair of doves or two young pigeons.”

Simeon’s Prophecy

25 Now there was a man in Jerusalem called Simeon, who was righteous and devout. He was waiting for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him.

26 It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not die before he had seen the Lord’s Messiah.

27 Moved by the Spirit, he went into the temple courts. When the parents brought in the child Jesus to do for Him what the custom of the Law required,

28 Simeon took Him in his arms and praised God, saying:

29 “Sovereign Lord, as You have promised, You now dismiss Your servant in peace.

30 For my eyes have seen Your salvation,

31 which You have prepared in the sight of all nations:

32 a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and the glory of Your people Israel.”

33 The child’s father and mother marveled at what was said about Him.

34 Then Simeon blessed them and said to Mary His mother: “This child is destined to cause the falling and rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be spoken against,

35 so that the thoughts of many hearts will be revealed. And a sword will pierce your own soul too.”

Anna the Prophetess

36 There was also a prophetess, Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was very old; she had lived with her husband seven years after her marriage, 37 and then was a widow until she was eighty-four. She never left the temple but worshiped night and day, fasting and praying.

38 Coming up to them at that very moment, she gave thanks to God and spoke about the child to all who were looking forward to the redemption of Jerusalem.

Jesus Returns to Nazareth

39 When Joseph and Mary had done everything required by the Law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee to their own town of Nazareth.

40 And the child grew and became strong; He was filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was on Him.

The Boy Jesus in the Temple

41 Every year His parents went to Jerusalem for the Festival of the Passover.

42 When He was twelve years old, they went up to the festival, according to the custom.

43 After the festival was over, while His parents were returning home, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem, but they were unaware of it.

44 Thinking He was in their company, they traveled on for a day. Then they began looking for Him among their relatives and friends.

45 When they did not find Him, they went back to Jerusalem to look for Him.

46 After three days they found Him in the temple courts, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions.

47 Everyone who heard Him was amazed at His understanding and His answers.

48 When His parents saw Him, they were astonished. His mother said to Him, “Son, why have You treated us like this? Your father and I have been anxiously searching for You.”

49 “Why were you searching for Me?” He asked. “Didn’t you know I had to be about My Father’s business?”

50 But they did not understand what He was saying to them.

51 Then He went down to Nazareth with them and was obedient to them. But His mother treasured all these things in her heart.

52 And Jesus grew in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and man.

Key Lessons from Luke 2

- God works through ordinary people and simple places—Jesus, the Savior, was born in a manger.
- The good news of Jesus is for all people, not just a few.
- True worship begins with receiving God’s gift and giving Him glory, as the shepherds did.
- Jesus came as the fulfillment of prophecy, the light for the Gentiles and glory for Israel.
- God’s timing is perfect—Simeon and Anna show the power of patient faith.
- Jesus was fully human, growing in wisdom and strength, yet always about His Father’s business.
- God calls us to treasure His works and words in our hearts, just as Mary did.

Luke 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Ministry of John and the Baptism of Jesus”

John the Baptist Prepares the Way

1 In the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar—when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, Herod was tetrarch of Galilee, his brother Philip was tetrarch of Iturea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias was tetrarch of Abilene—

2 during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John son of Zechariah in the wilderness.

3 He went into all the country around the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.

4 As it is written in the book of Isaiah the prophet:

*“A voice of one calling in the wilderness, ‘Prepare the way for the Lord,
make straight paths for Him.*

5 Every valley shall be filled in, every mountain and hill made low.

*The crooked roads shall become straight,
the rough ways smooth.*

6 And all people will see God’s salvation.’”

The Call to Repentance

7 John said to the crowds coming out to be baptized by him, “You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath?

8 Produce fruit in keeping with repentance. And do not begin to say to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our father.’ For I tell you that out of these stones God can raise up children for Abraham.

9 The axe is already at the root of the trees, and every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.”

10 The crowd asked, “What then should we do?”

11 John replied, “Anyone who has two coats should share with the one who has none, and anyone who has food should do the same.”

12 Even tax collectors came to be baptized. “Teacher,” they asked, “what should we do?”

13 “Don’t collect any more than you are required to,” he told them.

14 Then some soldiers asked him, “And what should we do?”

He replied, “Don’t extort money and don’t accuse people falsely—be content with your pay.”

John Points to the Greater One

15 The people were waiting expectantly and were all wondering in their hearts if John might possibly be the Messiah.

16 John answered them all, "I baptize you with water. But One more powerful than I will come, the straps of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.
17 His winnowing fork is in His hand to clear His threshing floor and to gather the wheat into His barn, but He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire."
18 And with many other words John exhorted the people and proclaimed the good news to them.
19 But when John rebuked Herod the tetrarch because of his marriage to Herodias, his brother's wife, and all the other evils he had done, 20 Herod added this to them all: he locked John up in prison.

The Baptism of Jesus

21 When all the people were being baptized, Jesus was baptized too. And as He was praying, heaven was opened,
22 and the Holy Spirit descended on Him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven: "You are My beloved Son; with You I am well pleased."

The Genealogy of Jesus

23 Now Jesus Himself was about thirty years old when He began His ministry. He was thought to be the son of Joseph, the son of Heli,
24 the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melchi, the son of Jannai, the son of Joseph,
25 the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Esli, the son of Naggai,
26 the son of Maath, the son of Mattathias, the son of Semein, the son of Josech, the son of Joda,
27 the son of Joanan, the son of Rhesa, the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, the son of Neri,
28 the son of Melchi, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam, the son of Elmadam, the son of Er,
29 the son of Joshua, the son of Eliezer, the son of Jorim, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi,
30 the son of Simeon, the son of Judah, the son of Joseph, the son of Jonan, the son of Eliakim,
31 the son of Melea, the son of Menna, the son of Mattatha, the son of Nathan, the son of David,
32 the son of Jesse, the son of Obed, the son of Boaz, the son of Salmon, the son of Nahshon,
33 the son of Amminadab, the son of Ram, the son of Hezron, the son of Perez, the son of Judah,
34 the son of Jacob, the son of Isaac, the son of Abraham, the son of Terah, the son of Nahor,
35 the son of Serug, the son of Reu, the son of Peleg, the son of Eber, the son of Shelah,
36 the son of Cainan, the son of Arphaxad, the son of Shem, the son of Noah, the son of Lamech,
37 the son of Methuselah, the son of Enoch, the son of Jared, the son of Mahalalel, the son of Cainan, 38 the son of Enosh, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, the son of God.

Key Lessons from Luke 3

- Repentance must be genuine, producing fruit in how we live.

- Religious heritage cannot replace a true, personal relationship with God.
- Justice, honesty, and compassion are central to godly living.
- John prepared the way but pointed people to Jesus, the greater One who baptizes with the Spirit and fire.
- Jesus' baptism reveals His identity as God's Son, filled with the Spirit and approved by the Father.
- The genealogy shows that Jesus is both fully human, tracing back to Adam, and fully divine, the Son of God.

Luke 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Temptation and the Beginning of Jesus’ Ministry”

The Temptation in the Wilderness

1 Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness,
2 where for forty days He was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing during those days, and at the end of them He was hungry.

3 The devil said to Him, “If You are the Son of God, tell this stone to become bread.”

4 Jesus answered, “It is written: ‘Man shall not live on bread alone, but on every word of God.’”

5 Then the devil led Him up to a high place and showed Him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world.

6 And the devil said, “I will give You all their authority and splendor; it has been given to me, and I can give it to anyone I want.

7 If You worship me, it will all be Yours.”

8 Jesus answered, “It is written: ‘Worship the Lord your God and serve Him only.’”

9 Then the devil led Him to Jerusalem and had Him stand on the highest point of the temple. “If You are the Son of God,” he said, “throw Yourself down from here.

10 For it is written: ‘He will command His angels concerning You to guard You carefully;

11 they will lift You up in their hands, so that You will not strike Your foot against a stone.’”

12 Jesus answered, “It is said: ‘Do not put the Lord your God to the test.’”

13 When the devil had finished all this tempting, he left Him until an opportune time.

The Ministry Begins in Galilee

14 Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and news about Him spread through the whole countryside.

15 He taught in their synagogues, and everyone praised Him.

Rejection at Nazareth

16 He went to Nazareth, where He had been brought up, and on the Sabbath day He went into the synagogue, as was His custom. He stood up to read,

17 and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to Him. Unrolling it, He found the place where it is written:

18 *“The Spirit of the Lord is on Me, because He has anointed Me to proclaim good news to the poor.
He has sent Me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to set the oppressed free,
19 to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favor.”*

20 Then He rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of everyone in the synagogue were fastened on Him.

21 He began by saying to them, “Today this Scripture is fulfilled in your hearing.”

22 All spoke well of Him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from His lips. “Isn’t this Joseph’s son?” they asked.

23 Jesus said to them, “Surely you will quote this proverb to Me: ‘Physician, heal Yourself!’ And you will tell Me, ‘Do here in Your hometown what we have heard that You did in Capernaum.’”

24 “Truly I tell you,” He continued, “no prophet is accepted in his hometown.

25 I assure you that there were many widows in Israel in Elijah’s time, when the sky was shut for three and a half years and there was a severe famine throughout the land.

26 Yet Elijah was not sent to any of them, but to a widow in Zarephath in the region of Sidon.

27 And there were many in Israel with leprosy in the time of Elisha the prophet, yet not one of them was cleansed—only Naaman the Syrian.”

28 All the people in the synagogue were furious when they heard this.

29 They got up, drove Him out of the town, and took Him to the brow of the hill on which the town was built, in order to throw Him off the cliff.

30 But He walked right through the crowd and went on His way.

Jesus Drives Out an Impure Spirit

31 Then He went down to Capernaum, a town in Galilee, and on the Sabbath He taught the people.

32 They were amazed at His teaching, because His words had authority.

33 In the synagogue there was a man possessed by a demon, an impure spirit. He cried out at the top of his voice,

34 “Go away! What do You want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are—the Holy One of God!”

35 “Be quiet!” Jesus said sternly. “Come out of him!” Then the demon threw the man down before them all and came out without injuring him.

36 All the people were amazed and said to each other, “What words these are! With authority and power He gives orders to impure spirits and they come out!”

37 And the news about Him spread throughout the surrounding area.

Jesus Heals Many

38 Jesus left the synagogue and went to the home of Simon. Now Simon’s mother-in-law was suffering from a high fever, and they asked Jesus to help her.

39 So He bent over her and rebuked the fever, and it left her. She got up at once and began to serve them.

40 At sunset, the people brought to Jesus all who had various kinds of sickness, and laying His hands on each one, He healed them.

41 Moreover, demons came out of many people, shouting, “You are the Son of God!” But He rebuked them and would not allow them to speak, because they knew He was the Messiah.

42 At daybreak, Jesus went out to a solitary place. The people were looking for Him and when they came to where He was, they tried to keep Him from leaving them.

43 But He said, “I must proclaim the good news of the kingdom of God to the other towns also, because that is why I was sent.”

44 And He kept on preaching in the synagogues of Judea.

Key Lessons from Luke 4

- Even in weakness, Jesus resisted Satan with the Word of God.
- Temptation often appeals to physical need, pride, and power, but God’s Word is the answer.
- Jesus’ mission is Spirit-anointed: to bring good news, freedom, healing, and restoration.
- True prophets are often rejected by their own people.
- Jesus has authority over sickness and demons, proving He is the Son of God.

- The kingdom of God must be proclaimed everywhere, not just in one place.

Luke 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Call to Follow and the Authority of Jesus”

The Miraculous Catch of Fish

1 One day, as the crowd pressed in on Jesus to hear the Word of God, He was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret.

2 He saw two boats at the water’s edge, left there by fishermen who were washing their nets.

3 He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to push out a little from shore. Then He sat down and taught the people from the boat.

4 When He had finished speaking, He said to Simon, “Launch out into the deep water, and let down your nets for a catch.”

5 Simon replied, “Master, we worked hard all night and caught nothing. But because You say so, I will let down the nets.”

6 When they had done so, they caught such a large number of fish that their nets began to break.

7 So they signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them, and they filled both boats so full that they began to sink.

8 When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at Jesus’ knees and said, “Go away from me, Lord; I am a sinful man!”

9 For he and all his companions were astonished at the catch of fish they had taken,

10 and so were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, Simon’s partners. Then Jesus said to Simon, “Don’t be afraid; from now on you will fish for people.”

11 So they pulled their boats up on shore, left everything, and followed Him.

Jesus Heals a Man with Leprosy

12 While Jesus was in one of the towns, a man came along who was covered with leprosy. When he saw Jesus, he fell with his face to the ground and begged Him, “Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean.”

13 Jesus reached out His hand and touched the man. “I am willing,” He said. “Be clean!” And immediately the leprosy left him.

14 Then Jesus ordered him, “Don’t tell anyone, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer the sacrifices that Moses commanded for your cleansing, as a testimony to them.”

15 Yet the news about Him spread all the more, so crowds of people came to hear Him and to be healed of their sicknesses.

16 But Jesus often withdrew to lonely places and prayed.

Jesus Heals a Paralyzed Man

17 One day Jesus was teaching, and Pharisees and teachers of the law were sitting there. They had come from every village of Galilee, Judea, and Jerusalem. And the power of the Lord was with Jesus to heal the sick.

18 Some men came carrying a paralyzed man on a mat and tried to take him into the house to lay him before Jesus.

19 When they could not find a way to do this because of the crowd, they went up on the roof and lowered him on his mat through the tiles into the middle of the crowd, right in front of Jesus.

20 When Jesus saw their faith, He said, "Friend, your sins are forgiven."

21 The Pharisees and teachers of the law began thinking to themselves, "Who is this fellow who speaks blasphemy? Who can forgive sins but God alone?"

22 Jesus knew what they were thinking and asked, "Why are you thinking these things in your hearts?"

23 Which is easier: to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up and walk'?

24 But I want you to know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins." So He said to the paralyzed man, "I tell you, get up, take your mat and go home."

25 Immediately he stood up in front of them, took what he had been lying on, and went home praising God.

26 Everyone was amazed and gave praise to God. They were filled with awe and said, "We have seen remarkable things today."

The Call of Levi (Matthew)

27 After this, Jesus went out and saw a tax collector by the name of Levi sitting at his tax booth.

"Follow Me," Jesus said to him,

28 and Levi got up, left everything, and followed Him.

29 Then Levi held a great banquet for Jesus at his house, and a large crowd of tax collectors and others were eating with them.

30 But the Pharisees and the teachers of the law who belonged to their sect complained to His disciples, "Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?"

31 Jesus answered them, "It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick.

32 I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

Question About Fasting

33 They said to Him, “John’s disciples often fast and pray, and so do the disciples of the Pharisees, but Yours go on eating and drinking.”

34 Jesus answered, “Can you make the friends of the bridegroom fast while he is with them?

35 But the time will come when the bridegroom will be taken from them; in those days they will fast.”

Parables of the New and the Old

36 He told them this parable: “No one tears a piece out of a new garment to patch an old one. Otherwise, they will have torn the new garment, and the patch from the new will not match the old.

37 And no one pours new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise, the new wine will burst the skins; the wine will run out and the wineskins will be ruined.

38 No, new wine must be poured into new wineskins.

39 And no one after drinking old wine wants the new, for they say, ‘The old is better.’”

Key Lessons from Luke 5

- Jesus calls ordinary people, like fishermen and tax collectors, to follow Him and transform their lives.
- True discipleship means leaving everything behind and trusting Him.
- Jesus has authority not only to heal physical sickness but also to forgive sins, proving His divine power.
- He welcomes sinners and outcasts, offering repentance and new life.
- The kingdom of God brings a new way of living that cannot simply be added to old traditions—it requires transformation.

Luke 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Way of the Kingdom”

Jesus is Lord of the Sabbath

1 One Sabbath, as Jesus walked through the grainfields, His disciples began to pick some heads of grain, rub them in their hands, and eat them.

2 Some Pharisees asked, “Why are you doing what is unlawful on the Sabbath?”

3 Jesus answered, “Have you never read what David did when he and his companions were hungry?
4 He entered the house of God, took the sacred bread of the Presence, which only the priests are allowed to eat, and gave some to his companions.”
5 Then He said to them, “The Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath.”

The Man with the Withered Hand

6 On another Sabbath, He went into the synagogue and was teaching, and a man was there whose right hand was shriveled.
7 The scribes and Pharisees watched closely to see if He would heal on the Sabbath, hoping to find a reason to accuse Him.
8 But Jesus knew their thoughts and said to the man, “Stand up here in front of everyone.” So he stood.
9 Then Jesus said to them, “I ask you: is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do evil, to save life or to destroy it?”
10 He looked around at them all and then said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He did so, and his hand was completely restored.
11 But they were furious and began to discuss what they might do to Jesus.

The Choosing of the Twelve Apostles

12 One of those days Jesus went out to a mountainside to pray and spent the night praying to God.
13 When morning came, He called His disciples and chose twelve of them, whom He also designated apostles:
14 Simon (whom He named Peter), his brother Andrew, James, John, Philip, Bartholomew, 15 Matthew, Thomas, James son of Alphaeus, Simon called the Zealot, 16 Judas son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who later became a traitor.

Blessings and Woes

17 Jesus came down with them and stood on a level place. A large crowd of His disciples and people from all over Judea, Jerusalem, and the coastal region around Tyre and Sidon had come to hear Him and be healed of their diseases.
18 Those troubled by impure spirits were cured,
19 and the people all tried to touch Him, because power was coming from Him and healing them all.
20 Looking at His disciples, He said:

- “Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God.
21 Blessed are you who hunger now, for you will be satisfied.
Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh.

22 Blessed are you when people hate you, exclude you, insult you, and reject your name as evil because of the Son of Man.

23 Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, because great is your reward in heaven. For that is how their ancestors treated the prophets.”

24 “But woe to you who are rich, for you have already received your comfort.

25 Woe to you who are well fed now, for you will go hungry.

Woe to you who laugh now, for you will mourn and weep.

26 Woe to you when everyone speaks well of you, for that is how their ancestors treated the false prophets.”

Love for Enemies

27 “But to you who are listening I say: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you,

28 bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you.

29 If someone strikes you on one cheek, turn to them the other also. If someone takes your coat, do not withhold your shirt.

30 Give to everyone who asks you, and if anyone takes what belongs to you, do not demand it back.

31 Do to others as you would have them do to you.

32 If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners love those who love them.

33 And if you do good to those who are good to you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners do that.

34 And if you lend to those from whom you expect repayment, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, expecting to be repaid in full.

35 But love your enemies, do good to them, and lend without expecting to get anything back. Then your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High, because He is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked.

36 Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.”

Judging Others

37 “Do not judge, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned.

Forgive, and you will be forgiven.

38 Give, and it will be given to you—a good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you.”

Parables of Guidance and Self-Examination

39 He also told them this parable: “Can the blind lead the blind? Will they not both fall into a pit?

40 The student is not above the teacher, but everyone who is fully trained will be like their teacher.

41 Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in your brother's eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye?

42 How can you say, 'Brother, let me take the speck out of your eye,' when you yourself fail to see the plank in your own eye? You hypocrite! First take the plank out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother's eye."

A Tree and Its Fruit

43 "No good tree bears bad fruit, nor does a bad tree bear good fruit.

44 Each tree is recognized by its own fruit. People do not pick figs from thornbushes, or grapes from briars.

45 A good man brings good things out of the good stored up in his heart, and an evil man brings evil things out of the evil stored up in his heart. For the mouth speaks what the heart is full of."

The Wise and Foolish Builders

46 "Why do you call Me, 'Lord, Lord,' and do not do what I say?

47 As for everyone who comes to Me and hears My words and puts them into practice, I will show you what they are like.

48 They are like a man building a house, who dug down deep and laid the foundation on rock. When a flood came, the torrent struck that house but could not shake it, because it was well built.

49 But the one who hears My words and does not put them into practice is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. The moment the torrent struck that house, it collapsed, and its destruction was complete."

Key Lessons from Luke 6

- Jesus is Lord over the Sabbath; mercy outweighs ritual.
- Following Christ requires love for enemies, generosity, and mercy that reflect God's own character.
- True discipleship is measured not by words but by obedience and fruit.
- Spiritual blindness is dangerous—we must examine ourselves before correcting others.
- A strong life must be built on obedience to Jesus, the sure foundation.

Luke 7 – Crawford Standard Bible

"Faith, Compassion, and Forgiveness"

The Faith of the Centurion

1 After Jesus had finished speaking to the people, He entered Capernaum.

2 A centurion's servant, whom he valued greatly, was sick and near death.

3 When the centurion heard about Jesus, he sent some Jewish elders to ask Him to come and heal his servant.

4 They pleaded earnestly, "This man deserves Your help,

5 for he loves our nation and has built us a synagogue."

6 So Jesus went with them. When He was not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to say, "Lord, do not trouble Yourself, for I am not worthy to have You come under my roof.

7 That is why I did not come to You personally. But just say the word, and my servant will be healed.

8 For I also am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I tell one, 'Go,' and he goes; another, 'Come,' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it."

9 When Jesus heard this, He was amazed. Turning to the crowd following Him, He said, "I tell you, I have not found such great faith even in Israel."

10 When the messengers returned to the house, they found the servant well.

Jesus Raises the Widow's Son

11 The next day, Jesus went to a town called Nain. His disciples and a large crowd went with Him.

12 As He approached the town gate, a dead man was being carried out—the only son of his widowed mother. A large crowd from the town was with her.

13 When the Lord saw her, His heart went out to her, and He said, "Do not weep."

14 He went up and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still. Then He said, "Young man, I say to you, arise!"

15 The dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him back to his mother.

16 Everyone was filled with awe and praised God. "A great prophet has arisen among us," they said. "God has visited His people."

17 This news spread throughout Judea and the surrounding region.

John the Baptist's Question

18 John's disciples told him about all these things.

19 John called two of them and sent them to Jesus to ask, "Are You the one who is to come, or should we look for another?"

20 When they came to Jesus, they said, "John the Baptist sent us to ask, 'Are You the one who is to come, or should we look for another?'"

21 At that very time, Jesus healed many of their diseases, afflictions, and evil spirits, and gave sight to many who were blind.

22 He replied, “Go back and tell John what you have seen and heard: the blind see, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor hear the good news.

23 Blessed is the one who is not offended because of Me.”

Jesus Honors John the Baptist

24 After John’s messengers left, Jesus spoke to the crowd about John: “What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed swayed by the wind?

25 If not, what did you go out to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? No, those who wear fine clothes live in palaces.

26 But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, and more than a prophet.

27 This is the one about whom it is written: ‘Behold, I send My messenger ahead of You, who will prepare Your way before You.’

28 I tell you, among those born of women there is no greater prophet than John, but the one who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.”

29 All the people, even the tax collectors, acknowledged God’s justice by being baptized with John’s baptism.

30 But the Pharisees and experts in the law rejected God’s purpose for themselves, refusing John’s baptism.

31 Jesus went on, “To what can I compare the people of this generation?

32 They are like children sitting in the marketplace calling to one another: ‘We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we sang a dirge, and you did not weep.’

33 For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, ‘He has a demon.’

34 The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and you say, ‘Here is a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners.’

35 But wisdom is proved right by all her children.”

The Sinful Woman Forgiven

36 One of the Pharisees invited Jesus to eat with him. Jesus entered the house and reclined at the table.

37 A woman in the city who had lived a sinful life learned that Jesus was dining at the Pharisee’s house. She brought an alabaster jar of perfume, 38 and as she stood behind Him at His feet weeping, she began to wet His feet with her tears. She wiped them with her hair, kissed them, and poured perfume on them.

39 When the Pharisee who had invited Him saw this, he thought to himself, “If this man were a prophet, He would know who is touching Him—what kind of woman she is—that she is a sinner.”

40 Jesus answered him, “Simon, I have something to say to you.” “Say it, Teacher,” he replied.

41 “Two people owed money to a certain lender. One owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty.

42 Neither of them had the money to pay him back, so he forgave both debts. Now, which of them will love him more?”

43 Simon replied, “I suppose the one who had the bigger debt forgiven.” “You have judged correctly,” Jesus said.

44 Then He turned toward the woman and said to Simon, “Do you see this woman? I came into your house, but you gave Me no water for My feet. She, however, washed My feet with her tears and dried them with her hair.

45 You gave Me no kiss of greeting, but this woman, from the time I entered, has not stopped kissing My feet.

46 You did not anoint My head with oil, but she has anointed My feet with perfume.

47 Therefore I tell you, her many sins are forgiven—as her great love has shown. But whoever has been forgiven little loves little.”

48 Then Jesus said to her, “Your sins are forgiven.”

49 The other guests began to say among themselves, “Who is this who even forgives sins?”

50 Jesus said to the woman, “Your faith has saved you; go in peace.”

Key Lessons from Luke 7

- True faith trusts in Jesus’ authority without needing signs (the centurion).
- Jesus has compassion that brings life where there is death (the widow’s son).
- John the Baptist prepared the way faithfully, but the least in God’s kingdom has even greater privileges through Christ.
- Religious people may judge outwardly, but Jesus looks at the heart.
- Forgiveness produces love—those who grasp the depth of their forgiveness love Jesus deeply.

Luke 8 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Parables, Power, and Faith”

Women Who Supported Jesus

1 Soon afterward, Jesus traveled through towns and villages, proclaiming the good news of the kingdom of God. The twelve were with Him,

2 along with some women who had been healed of evil spirits and sicknesses—Mary Magdalene (from whom seven demons had gone out),

3 Joanna the wife of Chuza, Herod’s steward, Susanna, and many others. They supported Him from their own resources.

The Parable of the Sower

4 When a large crowd had gathered from every town, Jesus told this parable:

5 “A farmer went out to sow his seed. As he sowed, some fell along the path and was trampled, and the birds ate it up.

6 Some fell on rocky ground, and when it sprouted, it withered because it had no moisture.

7 Some fell among thorns, which grew up with it and choked the plants.

8 But some fell on good soil. It grew and produced a crop, a hundred times what was sown.” As He said this, He called out, “He who has ears to hear, let him hear!”

9 The disciples asked what the parable meant.

10 Jesus replied, “The secrets of the kingdom of God have been given to you, but to others I speak in parables, so that, ‘seeing, they may not see, and hearing, they may not understand.’

11 This is the meaning: The seed is the Word of God.

12 The seed along the path represents those who hear, but then the devil takes the word from their hearts so they cannot believe and be saved.

13 The seed on the rock represents those who hear the word and receive it with joy, but they have no root. They believe for a while, but in testing they fall away.

14 The seed among thorns stands for those who hear, but as they go on their way they are choked by life’s worries, riches, and pleasures, and do not mature.

15 The seed on good soil stands for those with a noble and good heart who hear the word, retain it, and by perseverance produce a crop.”

The Lamp and the Light

16 “No one lights a lamp and hides it under a jar or puts it under a bed. Instead, he puts it on a stand so those who come in may see the light.

17 For there is nothing hidden that will not be revealed, and nothing concealed that will not be known and brought into the open.

18 So pay attention to how you listen. Whoever has will be given more; whoever does not have, even what he thinks he has will be taken away.”

Jesus’ True Family

19 Then His mother and brothers came to see Him, but they could not reach Him because of the crowd.

20 Someone told Him, “Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to see You.”

21 But He replied, “My mother and brothers are those who hear the word of God and put it into practice.”

Jesus Calms the Storm

22 One day Jesus got into a boat with His disciples and said, "Let's cross to the other side of the lake." So they set out.

23 As they sailed, He fell asleep. A storm swept down on the lake, the boat was filling with water, and they were in danger.

24 The disciples woke Him, shouting, "Master, Master, we're going to drown!" Jesus got up and rebuked the wind and the raging waves. They stopped, and all was calm.

25 "Where is your faith?" He asked. They were afraid and amazed, saying to one another, "Who is this? He commands even the winds and the water, and they obey Him!"

The Demon-Possessed Man Healed

26 They sailed to the region of the Gerasenes, across the lake from Galilee.

27 When Jesus stepped ashore, a demon-possessed man met Him. For a long time he had not worn clothes or lived in a house, but stayed among the tombs.

28 When he saw Jesus, he fell at His feet and shouted loudly, "What do You want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg You, do not torment me!"

29 For Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out. Often it had seized him, and though he was chained and kept under guard, he would break the chains and be driven into solitary places by the demon.

30 Jesus asked, "What is your name?" "Legion," he replied, because many demons had entered him.

31 They begged Him not to send them into the abyss.

32 A large herd of pigs was feeding there on the hillside. The demons begged to enter the pigs, and Jesus gave them permission.

33 The demons left the man and went into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and drowned.

34 When the herdsmen saw this, they ran off and reported it in the town and countryside.

35 People came to see, and they found the man who had been demon-possessed sitting at Jesus' feet, dressed and in his right mind. They were afraid.

36 Those who had seen it told the people how the demon-possessed man had been healed.

37 Then all the people of the region asked Jesus to leave them, for they were overcome with fear. So He got into the boat and left.

38 The man begged to go with Him, but Jesus said,

39 "Return home and tell how much God has done for you." So the man went throughout the town, proclaiming how much Jesus had done for him.

Jairus' Daughter and the Woman Healed

40 When Jesus returned, a crowd welcomed Him, for they were expecting Him.

41 A man named Jairus, a synagogue leader, came and fell at Jesus' feet, pleading with Him to come to his house, 42 because his only daughter, about twelve years old, was dying. As Jesus went, the crowds almost crushed Him.

43 A woman who had suffered for twelve years with constant bleeding, and had spent all she had on doctors without being healed, 44 came up behind Him and touched the edge of His cloak. Immediately her bleeding stopped.

45 "Who touched Me?" Jesus asked. When everyone denied it, Peter said, "Master, the crowds surround You and press against You."

46 But Jesus said, "Someone touched Me; I know that power has gone out from Me."

47 The woman, realizing she could not remain hidden, came trembling and fell at His feet. In the presence of everyone, she explained why she had touched Him and how she had been healed instantly.

48 Then He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has healed you. Go in peace."

49 While Jesus was still speaking, someone came from the house of Jairus and said, "Your daughter is dead. Don't bother the Teacher anymore."

50 Hearing this, Jesus said to Jairus, "Do not be afraid; just believe, and she will be healed."

51 When He arrived at the house, He allowed only Peter, John, James, and the girl's parents to go in with Him.

52 All the people were weeping and mourning for her. But He said, "Stop weeping; she is not dead but asleep."

53 They laughed at Him, knowing she was dead.

54 But He took her by the hand and said, "Child, get up!"

55 Her spirit returned, and she stood up at once. Then Jesus told them to give her something to eat.

56 Her parents were astonished, but He ordered them not to tell anyone what had happened.

Key Lessons from Luke 8

- The Word of God only bears fruit in hearts that are receptive and steadfast.
- Faith must not be choked by worldly cares, but nourished by patience.
- Jesus has power over nature, demons, disease, and even death.
- True family is defined by obedience to God's Word, not just bloodlines.
- Great faith often comes from those who recognize their own unworthiness (the centurion, the woman, Jairus).

Luke 9 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Mission, Glory, and the Cost of Discipleship”

The Mission of the Twelve

1 Jesus called the twelve together and gave them power and authority over all demons and to heal diseases.

2 He sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal the sick.

3 He instructed them, “Take nothing for your journey—no staff, no bag, no bread, no money, and no extra shirt.

4 Whatever house you enter, stay there until you leave that town.

5 If people do not welcome you, leave that town and shake the dust off your feet as a testimony against them.”

6 So they went out and traveled from village to village, proclaiming the good news and healing people everywhere.

Herod’s Perplexity

7 Herod the tetrarch heard about all that was happening and was puzzled. Some said John had been raised from the dead;

8 others said Elijah had appeared; still others said one of the prophets had risen.

9 But Herod said, “I beheaded John. Who, then, is this I hear such things about?” And he wanted to see Jesus.

Jesus Feeds the Five Thousand

10 When the apostles returned, they reported to Jesus what they had done. He took them with Him and withdrew privately to a town called Bethsaida.

11 But the crowds found out and followed Him. He welcomed them, spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and healed those who needed healing.

12 Late in the day the twelve came to Him and said, “Send the crowd away so they can go to the surrounding villages and countryside to find food and lodging, because we are in a remote place here.”

13 But He replied, “You give them something to eat.” They answered, “We have only five loaves of bread and two fish—unless we go and buy food for all this crowd.”

14 (There were about five thousand men.) Jesus said to His disciples, “Have them sit down in groups of about fifty each.”

15 The disciples did so, and everyone sat down.

16 Taking the five loaves and two fish and looking up to heaven, He gave thanks and broke them. Then

He gave them to the disciples to distribute to the people.

17 They all ate and were satisfied, and the disciples picked up twelve baskets of leftover pieces.

Peter's Confession of Christ

18 Once when Jesus was praying in private and His disciples were with Him, He asked them, "Who do the crowds say I am?"

19 They replied, "Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; still others, that one of the prophets of long ago has come back to life."

20 "But what about you?" He asked. "Who do you say I am?" Peter answered, "You are the Christ of God."

21 Jesus strictly warned them not to tell this to anyone.

Jesus Predicts His Death

22 He said, "The Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and teachers of the law. He must be killed and on the third day be raised to life."

23 Then He said to them all, "If anyone would come after Me, he must deny himself, take up his cross daily, and follow Me.

24 For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will save it.

25 What good is it for a man to gain the whole world, yet lose or forfeit his very soul?

26 If anyone is ashamed of Me and My words, the Son of Man will be ashamed of him when He comes in His glory, and in the glory of the Father and of the holy angels.

27 Truly I tell you, some who are standing here will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God."

The Transfiguration

28 About eight days after Jesus said this, He took Peter, John, and James with Him and went up on a mountain to pray.

29 As He prayed, the appearance of His face changed, and His clothes became dazzling white.

30 Two men, Moses and Elijah, appeared in glorious splendor, talking with Jesus.

31 They spoke about His coming departure, which He was about to fulfill in Jerusalem.

32 Peter and his companions were very sleepy, but when they became fully awake, they saw His glory and the two men standing with Him.

33 As the men were leaving Jesus, Peter said, "Master, it is good for us to be here. Let us put up three shelters—one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." (He did not know what he was saying.)

34 While he was speaking, a cloud appeared and covered them, and they were afraid as they entered the cloud.

35 A voice came from the cloud, saying, “This is My beloved Son; listen to Him.”

36 When the voice had spoken, they found Jesus alone. The disciples kept this to themselves and told no one at that time what they had seen.

Jesus Heals a Demon-Possessed Boy

37 The next day, when they came down from the mountain, a large crowd met Him.

38 A man in the crowd cried out, “Teacher, I beg You to look at my son, for he is my only child.

39 A spirit seizes him and suddenly he screams. It throws him into convulsions so that he foams at the mouth. It scarcely ever leaves him and is destroying him.

40 I begged Your disciples to drive it out, but they could not.”

41 “You unbelieving and perverse generation,” Jesus replied, “how long shall I stay with you and put up with you? Bring your son here.”

42 Even as the boy was coming, the demon threw him to the ground in a convulsion. But Jesus rebuked the impure spirit, healed the boy, and gave him back to his father.

43 And they were all amazed at the greatness of God.

A Second Prediction of His Death

While everyone was marveling at all that Jesus did, He said to His disciples,

44 “Listen carefully: The Son of Man is going to be delivered into the hands of men.”

45 But they did not understand what this meant. It was hidden from them so they could not grasp it, and they were afraid to ask Him about it.

Who Is the Greatest?

46 An argument started among the disciples as to which of them would be the greatest.

47 Jesus, knowing their thoughts, took a little child and had him stand beside Him.

48 Then He said to them, “Whoever welcomes this child in My name welcomes Me; and whoever welcomes Me welcomes the One who sent Me. For it is the least among you all who is the greatest.”

Others Driving Out Demons

49 “Master,” said John, “we saw someone driving out demons in Your name and we tried to stop him, because he is not one of us.”

50 “Do not stop him,” Jesus said, “for whoever is not against you is for you.”

The Samaritan Village Rejects Jesus

51 As the time approached for Him to be taken up to heaven, Jesus resolutely set out for Jerusalem.

52 He sent messengers ahead, who went into a Samaritan village to get things ready for Him.

53 But the people there did not welcome Him, because He was heading for Jerusalem.

54 When the disciples James and John saw this, they asked, “Lord, do You want us to call fire down from heaven to destroy them?”

55 But Jesus turned and rebuked them.

56 Then He and His disciples went to another village.

The Cost of Following Jesus

57 As they were walking along the road, a man said to Him, “I will follow You wherever You go.”

58 Jesus replied, “Foxes have dens and birds have nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay His head.”

59 He said to another man, “Follow Me.” But he replied, “Lord, first let me go and bury my father.”

60 Jesus said to him, “Let the dead bury their own dead, but you go and proclaim the kingdom of God.”

61 Still another said, “I will follow You, Lord; but first let me go back and say goodbye to my family.”

62 Jesus replied, “No one who puts a hand to the plow and looks back is fit for service in the kingdom of God.”

Key Lessons from Luke 9

- Discipleship requires trust, simplicity, and readiness to proclaim the kingdom.
- Jesus is the Christ, but His path includes suffering before glory.
- True greatness comes through humility and serving others.
- Following Jesus demands full commitment without excuses or turning back.
- The cost of discipleship is high, but the reward is eternal life in God’s kingdom.

Luke 10 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Mission, Mercy, and the Better Portion”

The Sending of the Seventy

1 After this, the Lord appointed seventy others and sent them two by two ahead of Him to every town and place He was about to visit.

2 He told them, “The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Therefore, pray to the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into His harvest field.

3 Go! I am sending you out like lambs among wolves.

4 Do not take a purse or bag or sandals, and do not greet anyone on the road.

5 When you enter a house, first say, ‘Peace to this house.’

6 If a man of peace is there, your peace will rest on him; if not, it will return to you.

7 Stay in that house, eating and drinking what they provide, for the worker deserves his wages. Do not move around from house to house.

8 When you enter a town and are welcomed, eat what is offered to you.

9 Heal the sick who are there and tell them, ‘The kingdom of God has come near to you.’

10 But when you enter a town and are not welcomed, go into its streets and say,

11 ‘Even the dust of your town we wipe from our feet as a warning to you. Yet be sure of this: the kingdom of God has come near.’

12 I tell you, it will be more bearable on that day for Sodom than for that town.”

Woes to Unrepentant Cities

13 “Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles that were performed in you had been performed in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

14 But it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment than for you.

15 And you, Capernaum, will you be lifted to the heavens? No, you will go down to Hades.

16 Whoever listens to you listens to Me; whoever rejects you rejects Me; but whoever rejects Me rejects Him who sent Me.”

The Return of the Seventy

17 The seventy returned with joy and said, “Lord, even the demons submit to us in Your name!”

18 He replied, “I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven.

19 I have given you authority to trample on snakes and scorpions and over all the power of the enemy; nothing will harm you.

20 However, do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven.”

Jesus’ Joy in the Spirit

21 At that time Jesus, full of joy through the Holy Spirit, said, “I praise You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and learned, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for this was Your good pleasure.

22 All things have been committed to Me by My Father. No one knows who the Son is except the Father, and no one knows who the Father is except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal Him.”

23 Then He turned to His disciples privately and said, “Blessed are the eyes that see what you see.

24 For I tell you that many prophets and kings wanted to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it.”

The Parable of the Good Samaritan

25 On one occasion an expert in the law stood up to test Jesus. “Teacher,” he asked, “what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

26 “What is written in the Law?” He replied. “How do you read it?”

27 He answered, “Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind; and love your neighbor as yourself.”

28 “You have answered correctly,” Jesus replied. “Do this and you will live.”

29 But he wanted to justify himself, so he asked Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?”

30 In reply Jesus said: “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, when he was attacked by robbers. They stripped him of his clothes, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead.

31 A priest happened to be going down the same road, and when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side.

32 So too, a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side.

33 But a Samaritan, as he traveled, came where the man was; and when he saw him, he had compassion.

34 He went to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he put the man on his own donkey, brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

35 The next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper. ‘Look after him,’ he said, ‘and when I return, I will reimburse you for any extra expense you may have.’

36 “Which of these three do you think was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of robbers?”

37 The expert in the law replied, “The one who had mercy on him.” Jesus told him, “Go and do likewise.”

Martha and Mary

38 As Jesus and His disciples were on their way, He came to a village where a woman named Martha welcomed Him into her home.

39 She had a sister called Mary, who sat at the Lord’s feet listening to what He said.

40 But Martha was distracted by all the preparations that had to be made. She came to Him and asked, “Lord, don’t You care that my sister has left me to do the work by myself? Tell her to help me!”

41 “Martha, Martha,” the Lord answered, “you are worried and upset about many things, 42 but only one thing is necessary. Mary has chosen what is better, and it will not be taken away from her.”

Key Lessons from Luke 10

- God’s mission requires laborers—pray, go, and trust Him for provision.
- Rejecting Christ’s messengers is rejecting Christ Himself.
- True power is not in authority over spirits but in assurance of eternal life.
- The Good Samaritan teaches that love and mercy define true neighborliness.
- Discipleship means choosing devotion to Christ above busyness, as Mary did over Martha.

Luke 11 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Teach Us to Pray, Keep the Light, and Beware of Hypocrisy”

The Lord’s Prayer

1 One day Jesus was praying in a certain place. When He finished, one of His disciples said to Him, “Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples.”

2 He said to them, “When you pray, say:

‘Our Father in heaven, hallowed be Your name.

Your kingdom come.

Your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

3 Give us each day our daily bread.

4 Forgive us our sins, for we also forgive everyone who sins against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.””

The Parable of the Friend at Midnight

5 Then He said to them, “Suppose one of you has a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say, ‘Friend, lend me three loaves of bread,

6 because a friend of mine has come to me on a journey, and I have nothing to set before him.’

7 And the one inside answers, ‘Don’t bother me. The door is locked, and my children and I are in bed. I can’t get up and give you anything.’

8 I tell you, even though he will not get up and give you the bread because of friendship, yet because of your persistence he will surely get up and give you as much as you need.

Ask, Seek, Knock

9 “So I say to you: Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you.

10 For everyone who asks receives; the one who seeks finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened.

11 Which of you fathers, if your son asks for bread, will give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a snake instead?

12 Or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion?

13 If you then, though you are sinful, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!”

A Kingdom Divided Cannot Stand

14 Jesus was driving out a demon that was mute. When the demon left, the man who had been mute spoke, and the crowd was amazed.

15 But some of them said, “By Beelzebul, the prince of demons, He is driving out demons.”

16 Others tested Him by asking for a sign from heaven.

17 Jesus knew their thoughts and said: “Every kingdom divided against itself will be ruined, and a house divided against itself will fall.

18 If Satan is divided against himself, how can his kingdom stand? You say I drive out demons by Beelzebul.

19 But if I drive out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your own people drive them out? They will be your judges.

20 But if I drive out demons by the finger of God, then the kingdom of God has come upon you.

21 When a strong man, fully armed, guards his own house, his possessions are safe.

22 But when someone stronger attacks and overpowers him, he takes away the armor in which the man trusted and divides up his spoils.

23 Whoever is not with Me is against Me, and whoever does not gather with Me scatters.”

The Return of an Unclean Spirit

24 “When an impure spirit comes out of a person, it goes through arid places seeking rest and does not find it. Then it says, ‘I will return to the house I left.’

25 When it arrives, it finds the house swept clean and put in order.

26 Then it goes and takes seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and live there. And the final condition of that person is worse than the first.”

True Blessedness

27 As Jesus was saying these things, a woman in the crowd called out, “Blessed is the mother who gave you birth and nursed you.”

28 He replied, “Rather, blessed are those who hear the word of God and obey it.”

The Sign of Jonah

29 As the crowds increased, Jesus said, “This is a wicked generation. It asks for a sign, but none will be given except the sign of Jonah.

30 For as Jonah was a sign to the Ninevites, so also will the Son of Man be to this generation.

31 The Queen of the South will rise at the judgment with the people of this generation and condemn them; for she came from the ends of the earth to listen to Solomon’s wisdom, and now one greater than Solomon is here.

32 The men of Nineveh will stand at the judgment with this generation and condemn it; for they repented at Jonah’s preaching, and now one greater than Jonah is here.”

The Lamp of the Body

33 “No one lights a lamp and puts it in a place where it will be hidden, or under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, so that those who come in may see the light.

34 Your eye is the lamp of your body. When your eyes are healthy, your whole body also is full of light. But when they are unhealthy, your body also is full of darkness.

35 See to it, then, that the light within you is not darkness.

36 Therefore, if your whole body is full of light, and no part of it dark, it will be just as full of light as when a lamp shines its light on you.”

Woes to the Pharisees and Lawyers

37 When Jesus had finished speaking, a Pharisee invited Him to eat with him; so He went in and reclined at the table.

38 But the Pharisee was surprised when he noticed that Jesus did not first wash before the meal.

39 Then the Lord said to him, “Now then, you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and dish, but inside you are full of greed and wickedness.

40 You foolish people! Did not the one who made the outside make the inside also?

41 But now as for what is inside you—be generous to the poor, and everything will be clean for you.

42 Woe to you Pharisees, because you give God a tenth of your mint, rue, and all other garden herbs, but you neglect justice and the love of God. You should have practiced the latter without leaving the former undone.

43 Woe to you Pharisees, because you love the most important seats in the synagogues and respectful greetings in the marketplaces.

44 Woe to you, because you are like unmarked graves, which people walk over without knowing it.”

45 One of the experts in the law answered Him, “Teacher, when You say these things, You insult us also.”

46 Jesus replied, “And you experts in the law, woe to you, because you load people down with burdens they can hardly carry, and you yourselves will not lift one finger to help them.

47 Woe to you, because you build tombs for the prophets, and it was your ancestors who killed them.

48 So you testify that you approve of what your ancestors did; they killed the prophets, and you build their tombs.

49 Because of this, God in His wisdom said, ‘I will send them prophets and apostles, some of whom they will kill and others they will persecute.’

50 Therefore this generation will be held responsible for the blood of all the prophets that has been shed since the beginning of the world,

51 from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who was killed between the altar and the sanctuary. Yes, I tell you, this generation will be held responsible for it all.

52 Woe to you experts in the law, because you have taken away the key to knowledge. You yourselves have not entered, and you have hindered those who were entering.”

53 When Jesus went outside, the Pharisees and the teachers of the law began to oppose Him fiercely and to besiege Him with questions, 54 waiting to catch Him in something He might say.

Key Lessons from Luke 11

- Jesus teaches His disciples a model prayer that centers on God’s holiness, kingdom, provision, forgiveness, and deliverance.
- Persistence in prayer brings answers; God delights to give His Spirit to His children.
- Christ’s works reveal the arrival of God’s kingdom; neutrality toward Him is impossible.
- True blessedness comes from hearing and obeying God’s Word, not from earthly associations.
- The sign of Jonah warns of judgment but also points to Christ’s resurrection.
- Our spiritual vision must remain clear, filling us with light, not darkness.
- Religious hypocrisy that focuses on appearances while neglecting justice and love will face God’s judgment.

Luke 12 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Warnings, Watchfulness, and the Cost of Discipleship”

Beware of Hypocrisy

1 Meanwhile, when a crowd of many thousands had gathered, so that they were trampling on one another, Jesus began to speak first to His disciples: “Be on guard against the yeast of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

2 There is nothing concealed that will not be disclosed, or hidden that will not be made known.

3 What you have said in the dark will be heard in the daylight, and what you have whispered in the ear in inner rooms will be proclaimed from the housetops.”

Fear God, Not Man

4 “I tell you, My friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body and after that can do no more.

5 But I will show you whom you should fear: Fear Him who, after your body has been killed, has authority to throw you into hell. Yes, I tell you, fear Him.

6 Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies? Yet not one of them is forgotten by God.

7 Indeed, the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Don’t be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows.”

Confessing Christ Before Men

8 “I tell you, whoever publicly acknowledges Me before others, the Son of Man will also acknowledge before the angels of God.

9 But whoever disowns Me before others will be disowned before the angels of God.

10 Anyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but anyone who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.

11 When you are brought before synagogues, rulers, and authorities, do not worry about how you will defend yourselves or what you will say,

12 for the Holy Spirit will teach you at that time what you should say.”

The Parable of the Rich Fool

13 Someone in the crowd said to Him, “Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me.”

14 Jesus replied, “Man, who appointed Me a judge or an arbiter between you?”

15 Then He said to them, “Watch out! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; life does not consist in an abundance of possessions.”

16 And He told them this parable: “The ground of a certain rich man yielded an abundant harvest.

17 He thought to himself, ‘What shall I do? I have no place to store my crops.’”

18 Then he said, ‘This is what I’ll do. I will tear down my barns and build bigger ones, and there I will store my surplus grain.

19 And I’ll say to myself, “You have plenty of grain laid up for many years. Take life easy; eat, drink, and be merry.”

20 But God said to him, ‘You fool! This very night your life will be demanded from you. Then who will get what you have prepared for yourself?’

21 This is how it will be with whoever stores up things for themselves but is not rich toward God.”

Do Not Worry

22 Then Jesus said to His disciples: “Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat; or about your body, what you will wear.

23 For life is more than food, and the body more than clothes.

24 Consider the ravens: They do not sow or reap, they have no storeroom or barn; yet God feeds them. And how much more valuable you are than birds!

25 Who of you by worrying can add a single hour to your life?

26 Since you cannot do this very little thing, why do you worry about the rest?

27 Consider how the lilies grow. They do not labor or spin. Yet I tell you, not even Solomon in all his splendor was dressed like one of these.

28 If that is how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today and tomorrow is thrown into the fire, how much more will He clothe you—you of little faith!

29 And do not set your heart on what you will eat or drink; do not worry about it.

30 For the pagan world runs after all such things, and your Father knows that you need them.

31 But seek His kingdom, and these things will be given to you as well.

32 “Do not be afraid, little flock, for your Father has been pleased to give you the kingdom.

33 Sell your possessions and give to the poor. Provide purses for yourselves that will not wear out, a treasure in heaven that will never fail, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys.

34 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.”

Watchfulness and Faithful Stewardship

35 “Be dressed ready for service and keep your lamps burning,

36 like servants waiting for their master to return from a wedding banquet, so that when he comes and knocks they can immediately open the door for him.

37 It will be good for those servants whose master finds them watching when he comes. Truly I tell you, he will dress himself to serve, will have them recline at the table and will come and wait on them.

38 It will be good for those servants whose master finds them ready, even if he comes in the middle of the night or toward daybreak.

39 But understand this: If the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into.

40 You also must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him.”

41 Peter asked, “Lord, are you telling this parable to us, or to everyone?”

42 The Lord answered, “Who then is the faithful and wise manager, whom the master puts in charge of his servants to give them their food allowance at the proper time?

43 It will be good for that servant whom the master finds doing so when he returns.

44 Truly I tell you, he will put him in charge of all his possessions.

45 But suppose the servant says to himself, ‘My master is taking a long time in coming,’ and he then begins to beat the other servants, both men and women, and to eat and drink and get drunk.

46 The master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he is not aware of. He will cut him to pieces and assign him a place with the unbelievers.

47 The servant who knows the master’s will and does not get ready or does not do what the master wants will be beaten with many blows.

48 But the one who does not know and does things deserving punishment will be beaten with few blows. From everyone who has been given much, much will be demanded; and from the one who has been entrusted with much, much more will be asked.”

Jesus Brings Fire and Division

49 “I have come to bring fire on the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled!

50 But I have a baptism to undergo, and what constraint I am under until it is completed!

51 Do you think I came to bring peace on earth? No, I tell you, but division.

52 From now on there will be five in one family divided against each other, three against two and two against three.

53 They will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.”

Interpreting the Times

54 He said to the crowd: “When you see a cloud rising in the west, immediately you say, ‘It’s going to rain,’ and it does.

55 And when the south wind blows, you say, ‘It’s going to be hot,’ and it is.

56 Hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of the earth and the sky. How is it that you don’t know how to interpret this present time?”

Settle Matters Quickly

57 “Why don’t you judge for yourselves what is right?”

58 As you are going with your adversary to the magistrate, try hard to be reconciled on the way, or your adversary may drag you off to the judge, and the judge turn you over to the officer, and the officer throw you into prison.

59 I tell you, you will not get out until you have paid the last penny.”

Key Lessons from Luke 12

- Hypocrisy is dangerous; God will reveal all hidden things.
- Fear God, not people; He values His children and knows them intimately.
- Confessing Christ openly leads to His acknowledgment before heaven.
- Greed and covetousness destroy the soul; life’s worth is not found in possessions.
- Faith means trusting God’s care rather than worrying about material needs.
- Watchfulness is vital: the Lord will return at an unexpected hour.
- Accountability is greater for those who know God’s will—privilege brings responsibility.
- Christ’s mission brings division as well as peace; loyalty to Him can divide households.
- Discerning the times and reconciling quickly are marks of wisdom.

Luke 13 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Repentance, Fruitfulness, and the Coming Kingdom”

Call to Repentance

1 Now there were some present at that time who told Jesus about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices.

2 Jesus answered, “Do you think that these Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans because they suffered this way?”

3 I tell you, no! But unless you repent, you too will all perish.

4 Or those eighteen who died when the tower in Siloam fell on them—do you think they were more guilty than all the others living in Jerusalem?”

5 I tell you, no! But unless you repent, you too will all perish.”

The Parable of the Barren Fig Tree

6 Then He told this parable: “A man had a fig tree growing in his vineyard, and he went to look for fruit on it but did not find any.

7 So he said to the man who took care of the vineyard, ‘For three years now I’ve been coming to look for fruit on this fig tree and haven’t found any. Cut it down! Why should it use up the soil?’

8 ‘Sir,’ the man replied, ‘leave it alone for one more year, and I’ll dig around it and fertilize it.

9 If it bears fruit next year, fine! If not, then cut it down.’”

Healing on the Sabbath

10 On a Sabbath Jesus was teaching in one of the synagogues,

11 and a woman was there who had been crippled by a spirit for eighteen years. She was bent over and could not straighten up at all.

12 When Jesus saw her, He called her forward and said to her, “Woman, you are set free from your infirmity.”

13 Then He put His hands on her, and immediately she straightened up and praised God.

14 Indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, the synagogue leader said to the people, “There are six days for work. So come and be healed on those days, not on the Sabbath.”

15 The Lord answered him, “You hypocrites! Doesn’t each of you on the Sabbath untie your ox or donkey from the stall and lead it out to give it water?

16 Then should not this woman, a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan has kept bound for eighteen long years, be set free on the Sabbath day from what bound her?”

17 When He said this, all His opponents were humiliated, but the people were delighted with all the wonderful things He was doing.

The Mustard Seed and the Yeast

18 Then Jesus asked, “What is the kingdom of God like? What shall I compare it to?”

19 It is like a mustard seed, which a man took and planted in his garden. It grew and became a tree, and the birds perched in its branches.”

20 Again He asked, “What shall I compare the kingdom of God to?”

21 It is like yeast that a woman took and mixed into about sixty pounds of flour until it worked all through the dough.”

The Narrow Door

22 Then Jesus went through the towns and villages, teaching as He made His way to Jerusalem.

23 Someone asked Him, “Lord, are only a few people going to be saved?”

He said to them,

24 “Make every effort to enter through the narrow door, because many, I tell you, will try to enter and will not be able to.

25 Once the owner of the house gets up and closes the door, you will stand outside knocking and pleading, ‘Sir, open the door for us.’

But He will answer, ‘I don’t know you or where you come from.’

26 Then you will say, ‘We ate and drank with you, and you taught in our streets.’

27 But He will reply, ‘I don’t know you or where you come from. Away from me, all you evildoers!’

28 “There will be weeping there, and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, but you yourselves thrown out.

29 People will come from east and west and north and south, and will take their places at the feast in the kingdom of God.

30 Indeed there are those who are last who will be first, and first who will be last.”

Jesus’ Lament Over Jerusalem

31 At that time some Pharisees came to Jesus and said to Him, “Leave this place and go somewhere else. Herod wants to kill you.”

32 He replied, “Go tell that fox, ‘I will keep on driving out demons and healing people today and tomorrow, and on the third day I will reach My goal.’

33 In any case, I must press on today and tomorrow and the next day—for surely no prophet can die outside Jerusalem!

34 “Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets and stone those sent to you, how often I have longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you were not willing.

35 Look, your house is left to you desolate. I tell you, you will not see Me again until you say, ‘Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.’”

Key Lessons from Luke 13

- Tragedy is not always tied to personal sin, but repentance is essential for all.
- God is patient, but fruitlessness cannot last forever; judgment follows unrepentance.
- Compassion is greater than rigid tradition; the Sabbath was made for freedom.

- The kingdom of God starts small but grows with unstoppable influence.
- Entering God’s kingdom requires striving through the narrow door—faith and obedience, not mere association.
- Salvation is global: people will come from every direction to the kingdom.
- Rejection of Christ brings desolation; but ultimately, Israel will one day recognize Him.

“Humility, Discipleship, and the Great Banquet”

Healing on the Sabbath

1 One Sabbath, Jesus went to eat in the house of a prominent Pharisee, and He was being carefully watched.

2 In front of Him was a man suffering from abnormal swelling of his body.

3 Jesus asked the Pharisees and experts in the law, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath or not?”

4 But they remained silent. So taking hold of the man, He healed him and sent him on his way.

5 Then He asked them, “If one of you has a donkey or an ox that falls into a pit on the Sabbath day, will you not immediately pull it out?”

6 And they had nothing to say.

The Parable of the Guests

7 When He noticed how the guests picked the places of honor at the table, He told them this parable:

8 “When someone invites you to a wedding feast, do not take the place of honor, for a person more distinguished than you may have been invited.

9 If so, the host who invited both of you will come and say to you, ‘Give this person your seat.’ Then, humiliated, you will have to take the least important place.

10 But when you are invited, take the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he will say to you, ‘Friend, move up to a better place.’ Then you will be honored in the presence of all the other guests.

11 For all those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.”

The Parable of the Banquet

12 Then Jesus said to His host, “When you give a luncheon or dinner, do not invite your friends, your brothers or sisters, your relatives, or your rich neighbors; if you do, they may invite you back and so you will be repaid.

13 But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind,
14 and you will be blessed. Although they cannot repay you, you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.”

15 When one of those at the table with Him heard this, he said to Jesus, “Blessed is the one who will eat at the feast in the kingdom of God.”

16 Jesus replied: “A certain man was preparing a great banquet and invited many guests.

17 At the time of the banquet he sent his servant to tell those who had been invited, ‘Come, for everything is now ready.’

18 But they all alike began to make excuses. The first said, ‘I have just bought a field, and I must go and see it. Please excuse me.’

19 Another said, ‘I have just bought five yoke of oxen, and I’m on my way to try them out. Please excuse me.’

20 Still another said, ‘I just got married, so I can’t come.’

21 The servant came back and reported this to his master. Then the owner of the house became angry and ordered his servant, ‘Go out quickly into the streets and alleys of the town and bring in the poor, the crippled, the blind and the lame.’

22 ‘Sir,’ the servant said, ‘what you ordered has been done, but there is still room.’

23 Then the master told his servant, ‘Go out to the roads and country lanes and compel them to come in, so that my house will be full.

24 I tell you, not one of those who were invited will get a taste of my banquet.”

The Cost of Discipleship

25 Large crowds were traveling with Jesus, and turning to them He said:

26 “If anyone comes to Me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters—yes, even their own life—such a person cannot be My disciple.

27 And whoever does not carry their cross and follow Me cannot be My disciple.

28 Suppose one of you wants to build a tower. Won’t you first sit down and estimate the cost to see if you have enough money to complete it?

29 For if you lay the foundation and are not able to finish it, everyone who sees it will ridicule you,
30 saying, ‘This person began to build and wasn’t able to finish.’

31 Or suppose a king is about to go to war against another king. Won’t he first sit down and consider whether he is able with ten thousand men to oppose the one coming against him with twenty thousand?

32 If he is not able, he will send a delegation while the other is still a long way off and will ask for terms of peace.

33 In the same way, those of you who do not give up everything you have cannot be My disciples.”

Salt Without Flavor

34 “Salt is good, but if it loses its saltiness, how can it be made salty again?”

35 It is fit neither for the soil nor for the manure pile; it is thrown out. Whoever has ears to hear, let them hear.”

Key Lessons from Luke 14

- True rest is found in compassion, not rigid rules; Jesus brings healing even on the Sabbath.
- Humility leads to honor; pride leads to shame.
- God’s invitation to the kingdom is for all, especially the outcasts; excuses bring exclusion.
- Following Jesus requires total surrender—discipleship is costly.
- A life without commitment to Christ is like salt without flavor—useless and discarded.

Luke 15 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lost and Found”

The Lost Sheep

1 Tax collectors and sinners were all gathering around to hear Jesus.

2 But the Pharisees and teachers of the law muttered, “This man welcomes sinners and eats with them.”

3 Then Jesus told them this parable:

4 “Suppose one of you has a hundred sheep and loses one of them. Doesn’t he leave the ninety-nine in the open country and go after the lost sheep until he finds it?

5 And when he finds it, he joyfully puts it on his shoulders

6 and goes home. Then he calls his friends and neighbors together and says, ‘Rejoice with me; I have found my lost sheep.’

7 I tell you, in the same way there will be more rejoicing in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who do not need to repent.”

The Lost Coin

8 “Or suppose a woman has ten silver coins and loses one. Doesn’t she light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it?

9 And when she finds it, she calls her friends and neighbors together and says, ‘Rejoice with me; I have found my lost coin.’

10 In the same way, I tell you, there is rejoicing in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents.”

The Lost Son (The Prodigal Son)

11 Jesus continued: “There was a man who had two sons.

12 The younger one said to his father, ‘Father, give me my share of the estate.’ So he divided his property between them.

13 Not long after that, the younger son got together all he had, set off for a distant country and squandered his wealth in wild living.

14 After he had spent everything, there was a severe famine in that whole country, and he began to be in need.

15 So he went and hired himself out to a citizen of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed pigs.

16 He longed to fill his stomach with the pods that the pigs were eating, but no one gave him anything.

17 When he came to his senses, he said, ‘How many of my father’s hired servants have food to spare, and here I am starving to death!

18 I will set out and go back to my father and say to him: Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you.

19 I am no longer worthy to be called your son; make me like one of your hired servants.’

20 So he got up and went to his father.

But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion for him; he ran to his son, threw his arms around him and kissed him.

21 The son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’

22 But the father said to his servants, ‘Quick! Bring the best robe and put it on him. Put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet.

23 Bring the fattened calf and kill it. Let’s have a feast and celebrate.

24 For this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.’ So they began to celebrate.

25 Meanwhile, the older son was in the field. When he came near the house, he heard music and dancing.

26 So he called one of the servants and asked what was going on.

27 ‘Your brother has come,’ he replied, ‘and your father has killed the fattened calf because he has him back safe and sound.’

28 The older brother became angry and refused to go in. So his father went out and pleaded with him.

29 But he answered his father, ‘Look! All these years I’ve been slaving for you and never disobeyed your orders. Yet you never gave me even a young goat so I could celebrate with my friends.

30 But when this son of yours who has squandered your property with prostitutes comes home, you kill the fattened calf for him!’

31 ‘My son,’ the father said, ‘you are always with me, and everything I have is yours.

32 But we had to celebrate and be glad, because this brother of yours was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.’”

Key Lessons from Luke 15

- Heaven rejoices over one sinner who repents more than over many who think they need no repentance.
- God searches for the lost with persistence and joy, like a shepherd for his sheep or a woman for her coin.
- The Father’s love is extravagant—He runs to meet the prodigal with compassion and restores him fully.
- Self-righteousness can blind us, like the elder son who refused to celebrate grace.
- God’s kingdom is about mercy, forgiveness, and restoration—no one is beyond His reach.

Luke 16 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Faithfulness, Wealth, and Eternity”

The Parable of the Shrewd Manager

1 Jesus told his disciples: “There was a rich man whose manager was accused of wasting his possessions.

2 So he called him in and asked, ‘What is this I hear about you? Give an account of your management, because you cannot be manager any longer.’

3 The manager said to himself, ‘What shall I do now? My master is taking away my job. I’m not strong enough to dig, and I’m ashamed to beg—

4 I know what I’ll do so that, when I lose my job here, people will welcome me into their houses.’

5 So he called in each one of his master’s debtors. He asked the first, ‘How much do you owe my master?’

6 ‘Nine hundred gallons of olive oil,’ he replied. The manager told him, ‘Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it four hundred and fifty.’

7 Then he asked the second, ‘And how much do you owe?’ ‘A thousand bushels of wheat,’ he replied. He told him, ‘Take your bill and make it eight hundred.’

8 The master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly. For the people of this world are more shrewd in dealing with their own kind than are the people of the light.

9 “I tell you, use worldly wealth to gain friends for yourselves, so that when it is gone, you will be welcomed into eternal dwellings.”

Faithfulness in Little and in Much

10 “Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much, and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much.

11 So if you have not been trustworthy in handling worldly wealth, who will trust you with true riches?

12 And if you have not been trustworthy with someone else’s property, who will give you property of your own?

13 No one can serve two masters. Either you will hate the one and love the other, or you will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money.”

God Knows the Heart

14 The Pharisees, who loved money, heard all this and were sneering at Jesus.

15 He said to them, “You are the ones who justify yourselves in the eyes of others, but God knows your hearts. What people value highly is detestable in God’s sight.

16 The Law and the Prophets were proclaimed until John. Since that time, the good news of the kingdom of God is being preached, and everyone is forcing their way into it.

17 It is easier for heaven and earth to disappear than for the least stroke of a pen to drop out of the Law.

18 Anyone who divorces his wife and marries another woman commits adultery, and the man who marries a divorced woman commits adultery.”

The Rich Man and Lazarus

19 “There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and lived in luxury every day.

20 At his gate was laid a beggar named Lazarus, covered with sores

21 and longing to eat what fell from the rich man’s table. Even the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 The time came when the beggar died and the angels carried him to Abraham’s side. The rich man also died and was buried.

23 In Hades, where he was in torment, he looked up and saw Abraham far away, with Lazarus by his side.

24 So he called to him, ‘Father Abraham, have pity on me and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, because I am in agony in this fire.’

25 But Abraham replied, ‘Son, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, while Lazarus received bad things, but now he is comforted here and you are in agony.’

26 And besides all this, between us and you a great chasm has been set in place, so that those who want to go from here to you cannot, nor can anyone cross over from there to us.’

27 He answered, ‘Then I beg you, father, send Lazarus to my family,

28 for I have five brothers. Let him warn them, so that they will not also come to this place of torment.’

29 Abraham replied, ‘They have Moses and the Prophets; let them listen to them.’

30 ‘No, father Abraham,’ he said, ‘but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent.’

31 He said to him, ‘If they do not listen to Moses and the Prophets, they will not be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.’”

Key Lessons from Luke 16

- Be faithful in the small things, because integrity shows itself in the little before the great.
- Money is temporary; eternal riches are what matter most.
- God sees the true condition of the heart, not outward appearances or wealth.
- You cannot serve both God and money—only one will rule your life.
- The story of the rich man and Lazarus warns that ignoring the poor and living for self brings eternal loss.
- Scripture is sufficient witness; even miracles cannot persuade a hardened heart that rejects God’s Word.

Luke 17 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Faith, Gratitude, and the Coming of the Kingdom”

Warnings and Forgiveness

1 Jesus said to his disciples, “Things that cause people to stumble are bound to come, but woe to anyone through whom they come!

2 It would be better for them to be thrown into the sea with a millstone tied around their neck than to cause one of these little ones to stumble.

3 So watch yourselves. If your brother or sister sins against you, rebuke them; and if they repent, forgive them.

4 Even if they sin against you seven times in a day and seven times come back to you saying ‘I repent,’ you must forgive them.”

Faith Like a Mustard Seed

5 The apostles said to the Lord, “Increase our faith!”

6 He replied, “If you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you can say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be uprooted and planted in the sea,’ and it will obey you.”

Duty of Servants

7 “Suppose one of you has a servant plowing or looking after the sheep. Will he say to the servant when he comes in from the field, ‘Come along now and sit down to eat’?

8 Won’t he rather say, ‘Prepare my supper, get yourself ready and wait on me while I eat and drink; after that you may eat and drink’?

9 Will he thank the servant because he did what he was told to do?

10 So you also, when you have done everything you were told to do, should say, ‘We are unworthy servants; we have only done our duty.’”

Ten Lepers Cleansed

11 Now on his way to Jerusalem, Jesus traveled along the border between Samaria and Galilee.

12 As he was going into a village, ten men who had leprosy met him. They stood at a distance

13 and called out in a loud voice, “Jesus, Master, have pity on us!”

14 When he saw them, he said, “Go, show yourselves to the priests.” And as they went, they were cleansed.

15 One of them, when he saw he was healed, came back, praising God in a loud voice.

16 He threw himself at Jesus’ feet and thanked him—and he was a Samaritan.

17 Jesus asked, “Were not all ten cleansed? Where are the other nine?”

18 Has no one returned to give praise to God except this foreigner?”

19 Then he said to him, “Rise and go; your faith has made you well.”

The Coming of the Kingdom

20 Once, being asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, Jesus replied, “The kingdom of God does not come with observation, 21 nor will people say, ‘Here it is,’ or ‘There it is,’ because the kingdom of God is within you.”

The Day of the Son of Man

22 Then he said to his disciples, “The time is coming when you will long to see one of the days of the Son of Man, but you will not see it.

23 People will tell you, ‘There he is!’ or ‘Here he is!’ Do not go running off after them.

24 For the Son of Man in his day will be like the lightning, which flashes and lights up the sky from one end to the other.

25 But first he must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation.

26 Just as it was in the days of Noah, so also will it be in the days of the Son of Man.

27 People were eating, drinking, marrying and being given in marriage up to the day Noah entered the ark. Then the flood came and destroyed them all.

28 It was the same in the days of Lot. People were eating and drinking, buying and selling, planting and building.

29 But the day Lot left Sodom, fire and sulfur rained down from heaven and destroyed them all.

30 It will be just like this on the day the Son of Man is revealed.

31 On that day no one who is on the housetop, with possessions inside, should go down to get them.

Likewise, no one in the field should go back for anything.

32 Remember Lot’s wife!

33 Whoever tries to keep their life will lose it, and whoever loses their life will preserve it.

34 I tell you, on that night two people will be in one bed; one will be taken and the other left.

35 Two women will be grinding grain together; one will be taken and the other left.

36 Two men will be in the field; one will be taken and the other left.”

37 “Where, Lord?” they asked. He replied, “Where there is a dead body, there the vultures will gather.”

Key Lessons from Luke 17

- Sin will exist in the world, but believers must not be the cause of stumbling for others.
- Forgiveness must be offered repeatedly, just as God continually forgives us.
- Even the smallest faith, rooted in God, can accomplish the impossible.
- Our service to God is not for recognition, but simple obedience to duty.
- Gratitude matters—faith responds with thankfulness, not silence.
- The kingdom of God begins within the heart before it is revealed in glory.
- The coming of the Son of Man will be sudden, visible, and decisive—believers must remain watchful.
- Like Lot’s wife, clinging to the world brings destruction; faith lets go and looks forward.

Luke 18 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Prayer, Humility, Sacrifice, and Faith”

The Persistent Widow

1 Then Jesus told his disciples a parable to show them that they should always pray and not give up.
2 He said: “In a certain town there was a judge who neither feared God nor cared what people thought.
3 And there was a widow in that town who kept coming to him with the plea, ‘Grant me justice against my adversary.’

4 For some time he refused. But finally he said to himself, ‘Even though I don’t fear God or care what people think,
5 yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will see that she gets justice, so that she won’t eventually come and wear me out!’”

6 And the Lord said, “Listen to what the unjust judge says.

7 And will not God bring about justice for his chosen ones, who cry out to him day and night? Will he keep putting them off?

8 I tell you, he will see that they get justice, and quickly. However, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on the earth?”

The Pharisee and the Tax Collector

9 To some who were confident of their own righteousness and looked down on everyone else, Jesus told this parable:

10 “Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector.

11 The Pharisee stood by himself and prayed: ‘God, I thank you that I am not like other people—robbers, evildoers, adulterers—or even like this tax collector.

12 I fast twice a week and give a tenth of all I get.’

13 But the tax collector stood at a distance. He would not even look up to heaven, but beat his breast and said, ‘God, have mercy on me, a sinner.’

14 I tell you that this man, rather than the other, went home justified before God. For all those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.”

Let the Little Children Come

15 People were also bringing babies to Jesus for him to place his hands on them. When the disciples saw this, they rebuked them.

16 But Jesus called the children to him and said, “Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.

17 Truly I tell you, anyone who will not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it.”

The Rich Ruler

18 A certain ruler asked him, “Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

19 “Why do you call me good?” Jesus answered. “No one is good—except God alone.

20 You know the commandments: ‘You shall not commit adultery, you shall not murder, you shall not steal, you shall not give false testimony, honor your father and mother.’”

21 “All these I have kept since I was a boy,” he said.

22 When Jesus heard this, he said to him, “You still lack one thing. Sell everything you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.”

23 When he heard this, he became very sad, because he was very wealthy.

24 Jesus looked at him and said, “How hard it is for the rich to enter the kingdom of God!

25 Indeed, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.”

26 Those who heard this asked, “Who then can be saved?”

27 Jesus replied, “What is impossible with man is possible with God.”

28 Peter said to him, “We have left all we had to follow you!”

29 “Truly I tell you,” Jesus said to them, “no one who has left home or wife or brothers or sisters or parents or children for the sake of the kingdom of God

30 will fail to receive many times as much in this age, and in the age to come eternal life.”

Jesus Predicts His Death a Third Time

31 Jesus took the Twelve aside and told them, “We are going up to Jerusalem, and everything that is written by the prophets about the Son of Man will be fulfilled.

32 He will be delivered over to the Gentiles. They will mock him, insult him and spit on him;

33 they will flog him and kill him. On the third day he will rise again.”

34 The disciples did not understand any of this. Its meaning was hidden from them, and they did not know what he was talking about.

Jesus Heals a Blind Beggar

35 As Jesus approached Jericho, a blind man was sitting by the roadside begging.

36 When he heard the crowd going by, he asked what was happening.

37 They told him, “Jesus of Nazareth is passing by.”

38 He called out, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

39 Those who led the way rebuked him and told him to be quiet, but he shouted all the more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

40 Jesus stopped and ordered the man to be brought to him. When he came near, Jesus asked him, 41 “What do you want me to do for you?” “Lord, I want to see,” he replied.

42 Jesus said to him, “Receive your sight; your faith has healed you.”

43 Immediately he received his sight and followed Jesus, praising God. When all the people saw it, they also praised God.

Key Lessons from Luke 18

- Persistent prayer shows faith in God’s justice.
- God honors humility over self-righteous pride.
- The kingdom belongs to those with childlike trust and dependence.
- Wealth can be a barrier to faith, but God makes salvation possible.
- Following Jesus requires sacrifice, but brings eternal reward.
- Christ’s death and resurrection were foretold, though even his closest disciples struggled to understand at first.
- Faith that cries out to Jesus in desperation—like the blind beggar—finds healing, restoration, and joy.

Luke 19 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Salvation, Stewardship, and the King’s Entry”

Zacchaeus the Tax Collector

1 Jesus entered Jericho and was passing through.

2 A man was there by the name of Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was wealthy.

3 He wanted to see who Jesus was, but because he was short he could not see over the crowd.

4 So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore-fig tree to see him, since Jesus was coming that way.

5 When Jesus reached the spot, he looked up and said to him, “Zacchaeus, come down immediately. I must stay at your house today.”

6 So he came down at once and welcomed him gladly.

7 All the people saw this and began to mutter, “He has gone to be the guest of a sinner.”

8 But Zacchaeus stood up and said to the Lord, “Look, Lord! Here and now I give half of my possessions to the poor, and if I have cheated anybody out of anything, I will pay back four times the amount.”

9 Jesus said to him, “Today salvation has come to this house, because this man, too, is a son of Abraham.

10 For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost.”

The Parable of the Ten Minas

11 While they were listening to this, he went on to tell them a parable, because he was near Jerusalem and the people thought that the kingdom of God was going to appear at once.

12 He said: “A man of noble birth went to a distant country to have himself appointed king and then to return.

13 So he called ten of his servants and gave them ten minas. ‘Put this money to work,’ he said, ‘until I come back.’

14 But his subjects hated him and sent a delegation after him to say, ‘We don’t want this man to be our king.’

15 He was made king, however, and returned home. Then he sent for the servants to whom he had given the money, in order to find out what they had gained with it.

16 The first one came and said, ‘Sir, your mina has earned ten more.’

17 “ ‘Well done, my good servant!’ his master replied. ‘Because you have been trustworthy in a very small matter, take charge of ten cities.’

18 The second came and said, ‘Sir, your mina has earned five more.’

19 His master answered, ‘You take charge of five cities.’

20 Then another servant came and said, ‘Sir, here is your mina; I have kept it laid away in a piece of cloth.

21 I was afraid of you, because you are a hard man. You take out what you did not put in and reap what you did not sow.’

22 His master replied, ‘I will judge you by your own words, you wicked servant! You knew, did you, that I am a hard man, taking out what I did not put in, and reaping what I did not sow?’

23 Why then didn’t you put my money on deposit, so that when I came back, I could have collected it with interest?’

24 “Then he said to those standing by, ‘Take his mina away from him and give it to the one who has ten minas.’

25 “ ‘Sir,’ they said, ‘he already has ten!’

26 “He replied, ‘I tell you that to everyone who has, more will be given, but as for the one who has nothing, even what they have will be taken away.

27 But those enemies of mine who did not want me to be king over them—bring them here and kill them in front of me.’”

The Triumphal Entry

28 After Jesus had said this, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

29 As he approached Bethphage and Bethany at the hill called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, saying to them,

30 “Go to the village ahead of you, and as you enter it, you will find a colt tied there, which no one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here.

31 If anyone asks you, ‘Why are you untying it?’ say, ‘The Lord needs it.’”

32 Those who were sent ahead went and found it just as he had told them.

33 As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, “Why are you untying the colt?”

34 They replied, “The Lord needs it.”

35 They brought it to Jesus, threw their cloaks on the colt and put Jesus on it.

36 As he went along, people spread their cloaks on the road.

37 When he came near the place where the road goes down the Mount of Olives, the whole crowd of disciples began joyfully to praise God in loud voices for all the miracles they had seen:

38 “Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!”

39 Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to Jesus, “Teacher, rebuke your disciples!”

40 “I tell you,” he replied, “if they keep quiet, the stones will cry out.”

Jesus Weeps Over Jerusalem

41 As he approached Jerusalem and saw the city, he wept over it

42 and said, “If you, even you, had only known on this day what would bring you peace—but now it is hidden from your eyes.

43 The days will come upon you when your enemies will build an embankment against you and encircle you and hem you in on every side.

44 They will dash you to the ground, you and the children within your walls. They will not leave one stone on another, because you did not recognize the time of God’s coming to you.”

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

45 When Jesus entered the temple courts, he began to drive out those who were selling.

46 “It is written,” he said to them, “ ‘My house will be a house of prayer’; but you have made it ‘a den of robbers.’”

47 Every day he was teaching at the temple. But the chief priests, the teachers of the law and the leaders among the people were trying to kill him.

48 Yet they could not find any way to do it, because all the people hung on his words.

Key Lessons from Luke 19

- Jesus seeks and saves the lost, no matter how despised they are in society.
- Faithfulness with little leads to greater responsibility in God’s kingdom.
- Rejecting the King leads to judgment; welcoming Him brings blessing.
- Jesus enters Jerusalem as the humble King, fulfilling prophecy.
- Even creation would cry out to declare His kingship if people were silent.
- Jesus grieves over those who miss God’s visitation and warns of coming destruction.
- True worship requires purity; God’s house is for prayer, not profit.

Luke 20 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Authority, Rejection, and the Living God”

Question of Authority

1 One day, as Jesus was teaching the people in the temple courts and proclaiming the good news, the chief priests and the scribes, together with the elders, came up to him.

2 They demanded, “Tell us by what authority you are doing these things. Who gave you this authority?”

3 He replied, “I will also ask you a question. Tell me:

4 John’s baptism—was it from heaven, or from men?”

5 They discussed it among themselves and said, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will ask, ‘Why didn’t you believe him?’

6 But if we say, ‘From men,’ all the people will stone us, because they are persuaded that John was a prophet.”

7 So they answered, “We don’t know where it was from.”

8 Jesus said, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.”

Parable of the Wicked Tenants

9 He went on to tell the people this parable: “A man planted a vineyard, rented it to some farmers, and went away for a long time.

10 At harvest time he sent a servant to the tenants so they would give him some of the fruit of the vineyard. But the tenants beat him and sent him away empty-handed.

11 He sent another servant, but that one also they beat and treated shamefully and sent away empty-handed.

12 He sent still a third, and they wounded him and threw him out.

13 “Then the owner of the vineyard said, ‘What shall I do? I will send my beloved son. Perhaps they will respect him.’

14 But when the tenants saw him, they said to one another, ‘This is the heir. Let’s kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.’

15 So they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.

“What then will the owner of the vineyard do to them?”

16 He will come and kill those tenants and give the vineyard to others.”

When the people heard this, they said, “God forbid!”

17 Jesus looked directly at them and asked, “Then what is the meaning of that which is written:

‘The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone’?

18 Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces, but anyone on whom it falls will be crushed.”

19 The teachers of the law and the chief priests looked for a way to arrest him immediately, because they knew he had spoken this parable against them. But they were afraid of the people.

Paying Taxes to Caesar

20 Keeping a close watch on him, they sent spies, who pretended to be sincere. They hoped to catch Jesus in something he said, so that they might hand him over to the governor.

21 They asked him, “Teacher, we know that you speak and teach what is right, and that you show no partiality, but teach the way of God in truth.

22 Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?”

23 But he saw through their duplicity and said,

24 “Show me a denarius. Whose image and inscription are on it?”

“Caesar’s,” they replied.

25 He said to them, “Then give back to Caesar what is Caesar’s, and to God what is God’s.”

26 They were unable to trap him in what he had said there in public. Astonished by his answer, they became silent.

Marriage at the Resurrection

27 Some of the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to Jesus with a question.

28 “Teacher,” they said, “Moses wrote for us that if a man’s brother dies and leaves a wife but no children, the man must marry the widow and raise up offspring for his brother.

29 Now there were seven brothers. The first one married a woman and died childless.

30 The second

31 and then the third married her, and in the same way the seven died, leaving no children.

32 Finally, the woman died too.

33 Now then, at the resurrection whose wife will she be, since the seven were married to her?”

34 Jesus replied, “The people of this age marry and are given in marriage.

35 But those who are considered worthy of taking part in the age to come and in the resurrection from the dead will neither marry nor be given in marriage,

36 and they can no longer die; for they are like the angels. They are God’s children, since they are children of the resurrection.

37 But in the account of the burning bush, even Moses showed that the dead rise, for he calls the Lord ‘the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.’

38 He is not the God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive.”

39 Some of the teachers of the law responded, “Well said, Teacher!”

40 And no one dared to ask him any more questions.

David’s Son and Lord

41 Then Jesus said to them, “Why is it said that the Messiah is the son of David?

42 David himself declares in the Book of Psalms:

‘The Lord said to my Lord: Sit at my right hand

43 until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet.’

44 David calls him ‘Lord.’ How then can he be his son?”

Warning Against the Scribes

45 While all the people were listening, Jesus said to his disciples,

46 “Beware of the scribes. They like to walk around in flowing robes and love to be greeted with respect in the marketplaces, and have the most important seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at banquets.

47 They devour widows' houses and for a show make lengthy prayers. These men will be punished most severely."

Key Lessons from Luke 20

- Jesus' authority comes from heaven, not from men.
- Rejecting God's Son leads to judgment, but the rejected stone becomes the cornerstone.
- Give to earthly rulers what is theirs, but give to God what belongs to Him—your whole self.
- The resurrection is real: God is the God of the living, not the dead.
- Christ is not merely David's son; He is David's Lord.
- Hypocrisy in religious leaders brings severe judgment; God values sincerity and humility.

Luke 21 – Crawford Standard Bible

"The Widow's Gift, Signs of the End, and Watchfulness"

The Widow's Offering

1 Jesus looked up and saw the rich putting their gifts into the temple treasury.

2 He also saw a poor widow put in two small copper coins.

3 He said, "Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all the others.

4 For they all gave out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty put in all she had to live on."

Signs of the Temple's Destruction

5 Some of his disciples were remarking about the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and offerings dedicated to God. But Jesus said,

6 "The time will come when not one stone will be left on another; every one of them will be thrown down."

7 They asked him, "Teacher, when will these things happen? And what will be the sign that they are about to take place?"

8 He replied, "Watch out that you are not deceived. For many will come in my name, claiming, 'I am he,' and, 'The time is near.' Do not follow them.

9 When you hear of wars and uprisings, do not be terrified. These things must happen first, but the end will not come right away.”

10 Then he said to them: “Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom.

11 There will be great earthquakes, famines, and pestilences in various places, and fearful events and great signs from heaven.”

Coming Persecution

12 “But before all this, they will seize you and persecute you. They will hand you over to synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors, all on account of my name.

13 And so you will bear testimony to me.

14 But make up your mind not to worry beforehand how you will defend yourselves.

15 For I will give you words and wisdom that none of your adversaries will be able to resist or contradict.

16 You will be betrayed even by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends, and they will put some of you to death.

17 Everyone will hate you because of me.

18 But not a hair of your head will perish.

19 Stand firm, and you will win life.”

The Fall of Jerusalem

20 “When you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, you will know that its desolation is near.

21 Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains, let those in the city get out, and let those in the country not enter it.

22 For this is the time of punishment in fulfillment of all that has been written.

23 How dreadful it will be in those days for pregnant women and nursing mothers! There will be great distress in the land and wrath against this people.

24 They will fall by the sword and will be taken as prisoners to all the nations. Jerusalem will be trampled on by the Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.”

Signs of the Son of Man

25 “There will be signs in the sun, moon, and stars. On the earth, nations will be in anguish and perplexity at the roaring and tossing of the sea.

26 People will faint from terror, apprehensive of what is coming on the world, for the heavenly bodies will be shaken.

27 At that time they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.

28 When these things begin to take place, stand up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is drawing near.”

The Parable of the Fig Tree

29 He told them this parable: “Look at the fig tree and all the trees.

30 When they sprout leaves, you can see for yourselves and know that summer is near.

31 Even so, when you see these things happening, you know that the kingdom of God is near.

32 Truly I tell you, this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things have happened.

33 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.”

Watchfulness and Prayer

34 “Be careful, or your hearts will be weighed down with carousing, drunkenness, and the anxieties of life, and that day will close on you suddenly like a trap.

35 For it will come on all those who live on the face of the whole earth.

36 Be always on the watch, and pray that you may be able to escape all that is about to happen, and that you may be able to stand before the Son of Man.”

Jesus Teaches at the Temple

37 Each day Jesus was teaching at the temple, and each evening he went out to spend the night on the hill called the Mount of Olives.

38 And all the people came early in the morning to hear him at the temple.

Key Lessons from Luke 21

- God values wholehearted giving more than outward abundance.
- Earthly structures, no matter how great, will pass away—but God’s Word stands forever.
- Believers must expect persecution but trust in God’s Spirit for strength and wisdom.
- The fall of Jerusalem foreshadows greater trials and the coming of the Son of Man.
- The signs in heaven and earth remind us that redemption is near for God’s people.
- Watchfulness and prayer are essential to endure and be ready for Christ’s return.

Luke 22 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Passover, Betrayal, and Denial”

The Plot to Kill Jesus

- 1 The Feast of Unleavened Bread, called the Passover, was approaching.
 - 2 The chief priests and scribes were looking for a way to kill Jesus, for they feared the people.
 - 3 Then Satan entered Judas, called Iscariot, one of the Twelve.
 - 4 He went to the chief priests and officers of the temple guard and discussed with them how he might betray Jesus.
 - 5 They were glad and agreed to give him money.
 - 6 He consented and began looking for an opportunity to hand him over when the crowd was not present.

Preparing the Passover

- 7 The Day of Unleavened Bread came, on which the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed.
 - 8 Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, “Go and prepare the Passover meal for us, that we may eat it.”
 - 9 They asked, “Where do you want us to prepare it?”
 - 10 He replied, “When you enter the city, a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him into the house he enters.
 - 11 Tell the owner of the house, ‘The Teacher asks, Where is the guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?’
 - 12 He will show you a large upper room, furnished. Prepare it there.”
 - 13 They went and found things just as Jesus had told them. So they prepared the Passover.

The Last Supper

- 14 When the hour came, Jesus and his apostles reclined at the table.
- 15 He said, “I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.
- 16 For I tell you, I will not eat it again until it finds fulfillment in the kingdom of God.”
- 17 After taking the cup, he gave thanks and said, “Take this and divide it among you.
- 18 For I tell you, I will not drink again from the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes.”
- 19 He took bread, gave thanks, broke it, and gave it to them, saying, “This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me.”
- 20 In the same way, after the supper, he took the cup, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you.”

The Betrayal Foretold

21 “But the hand of him who is going to betray me is with mine on the table.

22 The Son of Man will go as it has been decreed. But woe to that man who betrays him!”

23 They began to question among themselves which of them might be the one.

True Greatness

24 A dispute also arose among them as to which of them was considered the greatest.

25 Jesus said, “The kings of the Gentiles exercise authority over them, and those who exercise authority call themselves Benefactors.

26 But you are not to be like that. Instead, the greatest among you should be like the youngest, and the one who rules like the one who serves.

27 For who is greater, the one who sits at the table, or the one who serves? Is it not the one who sits? But I am among you as one who serves.

28 You are those who have stood by me in my trials.

29 And I confer on you a kingdom, just as my Father conferred one on me,

30 so that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom and sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.”

Peter’s Denial Foretold

31 “Simon, Simon, Satan has asked to sift all of you as wheat.

32 But I have prayed for you, Simon, that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned back, strengthen your brothers.”

33 But he replied, “Lord, I am ready to go with you to prison and to death.”

34 Jesus answered, “I tell you, Peter, before the rooster crows today, you will deny three times that you know me.”

Preparing for What Is Ahead

35 Then Jesus asked them, “When I sent you without purse, bag, or sandals, did you lack anything?” They answered, “Nothing.”

36 He said to them, “But now if you have a purse, take it, and also a bag. And if you don’t have a sword, sell your cloak and buy one.

37 For it is written: ‘And he was numbered with the transgressors’; and I tell you that this must be fulfilled in me. Yes, what is written about me is reaching its fulfillment.”

38 The disciples said, “See, Lord, here are two swords.” “That is enough,” he replied.

Jesus Prays on the Mount of Olives

39 Jesus went out as usual to the Mount of Olives, and his disciples followed him.

40 On reaching the place, he said, “Pray that you will not fall into temptation.”

41 He withdrew about a stone’s throw beyond them, knelt down, and prayed,

42 “Father, if you are willing, take this cup from me; yet not my will, but yours be done.”

43 An angel from heaven appeared to him and strengthened him.

44 And being in anguish, he prayed more earnestly, and his sweat was like drops of blood falling to the ground.

45 When he rose from prayer and went back to the disciples, he found them asleep, exhausted from sorrow.

46 “Why are you sleeping?” he asked. “Get up and pray so that you will not fall into temptation.”

The Arrest of Jesus

47 While he was still speaking, a crowd came up, and the man called Judas, one of the Twelve, was leading them. He approached Jesus to kiss him.

48 But Jesus asked him, “Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?”

49 When Jesus’ followers saw what was going to happen, they said, “Lord, should we strike with our swords?”

50 And one of them struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his right ear.

51 But Jesus answered, “No more of this!” And he touched the man’s ear and healed him.

52 Then Jesus said to the chief priests, the officers of the temple guard, and the elders, “Am I leading a rebellion, that you have come with swords and clubs?”

53 Every day I was with you in the temple courts, and you did not lay a hand on me. But this is your hour—when darkness reigns.”

Peter Denies Jesus

54 They seized him and led him away, taking him into the high priest’s house. Peter followed at a distance.

55 When some there had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat down together, Peter sat with them.

56 A servant girl saw him seated there in the firelight. She looked closely at him and said, “This man was with him.”

57 But he denied it. “Woman, I don’t know him,” he said.

58 A little later someone else saw him and said, “You also are one of them.”

“Man, I am not!” Peter replied.

59 About an hour later another asserted, “Certainly this fellow was with him, for he is a Galilean.”

60 Peter replied, “Man, I don’t know what you’re talking about!” Just as he was speaking, the rooster crowed.

61 The Lord turned and looked straight at Peter. Then Peter remembered the word the Lord had spoken: “Before the rooster crows today, you will disown me three times.”

62 And he went outside and wept bitterly.

Jesus Mocked and Beaten

63 The men who were guarding Jesus began mocking and beating him.

64 They blindfolded him and demanded, “Prophecy! Who hit you?”

65 And they said many other insulting things to him.

Jesus Before the Council

66 At daybreak the council of the elders of the people, both chief priests and teachers of the law, met together, and Jesus was led before them.

67 “If you are the Messiah,” they said, “tell us.”

Jesus answered, “If I tell you, you will not believe me,

68 and if I asked you, you would not answer.

69 But from now on, the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the mighty God.”

70 They all asked, “Are you then the Son of God?”

He replied, “You say that I am.”

71 Then they said, “Why do we need any more testimony? We have heard it from his own lips.”

Key Lessons from Luke 22

- Betrayal can come from those closest to us, yet God’s plan still stands.
- The Lord’s Supper reminds us of Christ’s body and blood given for us.
- Greatness in God’s kingdom is measured by service, not status.
- Jesus intercedes for his people, even when their faith is weak.
- True prayer submits to the Father’s will, even in suffering.
- Denial of Christ leads to sorrow, but repentance restores.

- The “hour of darkness” shows that evil has its moment, but God has the final word.

Luke 23 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Trial, Crucifixion, and Burial of Jesus”

Jesus Before Pilate and Herod

1 The whole assembly rose and led Jesus to Pilate.

2 They accused him, saying, “We found this man misleading the nation, forbidding us to pay taxes to Caesar, and claiming to be Christ, a King.”

3 Pilate asked him, “Are you the King of the Jews?” Jesus answered, “You have said it.”

4 Pilate told the chief priests and the crowd, “I find no fault in this man.”

5 But they kept insisting, “He stirs up the people, teaching all over Judea, beginning from Galilee even to this place.”

6 When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked if Jesus was a Galilean.

7 Learning he was under Herod’s jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who was in Jerusalem at the time.

8 Herod was glad to see Jesus, for he had long wanted to see him and hoped to witness a miracle.

9 He asked him many questions, but Jesus gave him no answer.

10 The chief priests and scribes stood by, accusing him fiercely.

11 Herod and his soldiers mocked him, dressed him in a splendid robe, and sent him back to Pilate.

12 That day Herod and Pilate, who had been enemies, became friends.

Pilate Sentences Jesus

13 Pilate called together the chief priests, rulers, and the people.

14 He said, “You brought this man to me as one who stirs up the people. I have examined him in your presence and found no fault in him.

15 Neither has Herod, for I sent him to him, and nothing deserving death has been done.

16 I will punish him and release him.”

17 (It was customary for Pilate to release one prisoner during the feast.)

18 But the crowd shouted, “Away with this man! Release Barabbas to us!”

19 (Barabbas had been thrown into prison for rebellion and murder.)

20 Pilate, wanting to release Jesus, spoke to them again.

21 But they shouted, “Crucify him! Crucify him!”

22 Pilate said to them the third time, “Why? What evil has he done? I find no reason for death in him. I will punish him and let him go.”

23 But they kept shouting louder, demanding that he be crucified. Finally, their voices prevailed.

24 So Pilate gave in to their demand.

25 He released the man who had been imprisoned for rebellion and murder, the one they wanted, and handed Jesus over to their will.

On the Way to the Cross

26 As they led Jesus away, they seized a man named Simon from Cyrene, who was coming in from the country, and made him carry the cross behind Jesus.

27 A large crowd followed, including women who mourned and wept for him.

28 Jesus turned to them and said, “Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me; weep for yourselves and for your children.

29 For the days are coming when people will say, ‘Blessed are the childless, the wombs that never bore, and the breasts that never nursed.’

30 Then they will say to the mountains, ‘Fall on us!’ and to the hills, ‘Cover us!’

31 For if this is done when the wood is green, what will happen when it is dry?”

32 Two criminals were also led out with him to be executed.

The Crucifixion

33 When they came to the place called Calvary, they crucified him there, along with the criminals—one on his right, the other on his left.

34 Jesus said, “Father, forgive them, for they don’t know what they are doing.” And they divided his clothes by casting lots.

35 The people watched, and the rulers mocked him, saying, “He saved others; let him save himself if he is God’s Messiah, the Chosen One.”

36 The soldiers mocked him too, offering him vinegar.

37 They said, “If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!”

38 A sign was written above him: This Is the King of the Jews.

39 One of the criminals insulted him: “Aren’t you the Messiah? Save yourself and us!”

40 But the other rebuked him, saying, “Don’t you fear God, since you are under the same sentence?

41 We are punished justly, for we are getting what we deserve. But this man has done nothing wrong.”

42 Then he said, “Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.”

43 Jesus answered, “Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in paradise.”

The Death of Jesus

44 Around noon, darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon,

45 for the sun stopped shining. The curtain of the temple was torn in two.

46 Jesus called out with a loud voice, “Father, into your hands I commit my spirit.” When he had said this, he breathed his last.

47 The centurion, seeing what happened, praised God and said, “Surely this was a righteous man.”

48 When all the people who had gathered for this spectacle saw what took place, they beat their chests and went away.

49 But all those who knew him, including the women who had followed him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching.

The Burial of Jesus

50 Now there was a man named Joseph, a member of the Council, a good and upright man, 51 who had not agreed to their decision and action. He was from Arimathea, a town of the Jews, and he was waiting for the kingdom of God.

52 He went to Pilate and asked for Jesus’ body.

53 He took it down, wrapped it in linen cloth, and laid it in a tomb cut in the rock, where no one had yet been laid.

54 It was the day of Preparation, and the Sabbath was about to begin.

55 The women who had come with Jesus from Galilee followed and saw the tomb and how his body was laid in it.

56 Then they went home and prepared spices and perfumes. But they rested on the Sabbath in obedience to the commandment.

Key Lessons from Luke 23

- Jesus was innocent, yet condemned—showing the depth of human sin and God’s redemption plan.
- The crowd chose Barabbas over Christ, reminding us of the danger of rejecting truth for temporary desires.
- Jesus’ compassion extended even from the cross: forgiving his enemies and saving a dying sinner.
- Darkness and the torn temple veil testify that his death opened the way to God.
- Joseph of Arimathea shows courage by honoring Jesus when most were afraid.
- The cross reveals both the horror of sin and the greatness of God’s love.

Luke 24 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Resurrection and Ascension of Jesus”

The Empty Tomb

1 On the first day of the week, very early in the morning, the women came to the tomb, bringing the spices they had prepared.

2 They found the stone rolled away from the tomb,

3 but when they went in, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.

4 While they were wondering about this, suddenly two men in shining garments stood beside them.

5 Terrified, the women bowed down. The men said, “Why do you seek the living among the dead?

6 He is not here—he has risen! Remember how he told you in Galilee,

7 ‘The Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, be crucified, and rise on the third day.’”

8 Then they remembered his words.

9 They returned from the tomb and told all these things to the Eleven and to the others.

10 It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women who told the apostles.

11 But their words seemed like nonsense, and they did not believe them.

12 Peter, however, ran to the tomb. Bending down, he saw the strips of linen lying there, and went away, wondering what had happened.

The Road to Emmaus

13 That same day, two of them were walking to the village of Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem.

14 They were talking about everything that had happened.

15 As they talked and discussed, Jesus himself came up and walked along with them,

16 but they were kept from recognizing him.

17 He asked, “What are you discussing as you walk?” They stood still, their faces sad.

18 One of them, named Cleopas, said, “Are you the only visitor in Jerusalem who doesn’t know the things that have happened these days?”

19 Jesus asked, “What things?” They replied, “About Jesus of Nazareth. He was a prophet powerful in word and deed before God and all the people.

20 The chief priests and rulers handed him over to be sentenced to death, and they crucified him.

21 We had hoped he was the one to redeem Israel. And now it is the third day since this happened.

22 Some of our women amazed us. They went to the tomb early this morning

23 but didn’t find his body. They saw a vision of angels who said he was alive.

24 Then some of our companions went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but they didn’t see him.”

25 Jesus said to them, “How foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken!

26 Did not the Messiah have to suffer these things and then enter his glory?”

27 Beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he explained to them what was said in all the Scriptures about himself.

28 As they approached the village, Jesus acted as if he were going farther.

29 But they urged him, “Stay with us, for it is nearly evening; the day is almost over.” So he went in to stay with them.

30 When he was at the table with them, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it, and gave it to them.

31 Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him—and he disappeared from their sight.

32 They asked each other, “Did not our hearts burn within us while he talked with us on the road and opened the Scriptures to us?”

33 They got up at once and returned to Jerusalem. They found the Eleven and those with them,

34 saying, “It is true! The Lord has risen and has appeared to Simon.”

35 Then the two told what had happened on the way, and how Jesus was recognized by them when he broke the bread.

Jesus Appears to His Disciples

36 While they were talking, Jesus himself stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.”

37 They were startled and frightened, thinking they saw a spirit.

38 He said, “Why are you troubled, and why do doubts rise in your hearts?

39 Look at my hands and my feet. It is I myself! Touch me and see; a spirit does not have flesh and bones, as you see I have.”

40 After he said this, he showed them his hands and his feet.

41 While they still did not believe because of joy and amazement, he asked, “Do you have anything to eat?”

42 They gave him a piece of broiled fish,

43 and he ate it in their presence.

44 He said to them, “This is what I told you while I was still with you: everything written about me in the Law of Moses, the Prophets, and the Psalms must be fulfilled.”

45 Then he opened their minds so they could understand the Scriptures.

46 He told them, “This is what is written: the Messiah will suffer and rise from the dead on the third day,

47 and repentance for the forgiveness of sins will be preached in his name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

48 You are witnesses of these things.

49 I am sending you what my Father promised; but stay in Jerusalem until you are clothed with power from on high.”

The Ascension

50 When he had led them out to the vicinity of Bethany, he lifted up his hands and blessed them.

51 While he was blessing them, he left them and was taken up into heaven.

52 Then they worshiped him and returned to Jerusalem with great joy.

53 And they stayed continually at the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

Key Lessons from Luke 24

- The resurrection of Jesus is the foundation of Christian hope and faith.
- The empty tomb and angelic message remind us: Jesus is alive, not dead.
- Christ reveals himself to those who walk with him and open their hearts to Scripture.
- The disciples' fear turned to joy when they realized Jesus was truly risen.
- The risen Lord proved he was no spirit but alive in a glorified body.
- Repentance and forgiveness of sins are the heart of the Gospel to be preached to all nations.
- The Ascension shows Jesus exalted, reigning, and preparing to send the Holy Spirit.

Introduction to the Book of John

“In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.” – John 1:1

Title and Meaning

The Gospel according to John is named after the apostle John, the son of Zebedee and brother of James. Unlike the Synoptic Gospels (Matthew, Mark, and Luke), John's account is distinct, focusing on the identity of Jesus as the eternal Son of God. John emphasizes that Jesus is the Word made flesh (John 1:14) and the Light of the world, who came to bring eternal life to all who believe in Him.

Author and Date

John the apostle, often referred to as “the disciple whom Jesus loved,” is traditionally regarded as the author. Early church tradition strongly supports this, and his firsthand eyewitness testimony is evident throughout the book (John 21:24). The Gospel was likely written between AD 85–95, making it one of the last New Testament books written.

Purpose of John

John's Gospel is both deeply theological and evangelistic. His purpose is explicitly stated:

- To show that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God.
- To call readers to faith in Him for eternal life (John 20:31).
- To reveal Jesus’ divine identity through “signs” (miracles) and “I Am” statements.
- To provide assurance of God’s love and eternal life through Christ.

Structure of John

John’s Gospel is organized around seven miraculous signs and seven “I Am” statements, both pointing to Jesus’ divinity. It can be outlined as follows:

1. The Prologue (Ch. 1:1–18)

The eternal Word became flesh and revealed God’s glory.

2. The Book of Signs (Chs. 1–12)

Jesus performs miracles and teaches, revealing Himself as the Messiah and Son of God. Key signs include turning water into wine, feeding the 5,000, healing the blind man, and raising Lazarus.

3. The Book of Glory (Chs. 13–20)

Focuses on Jesus’ final teachings, His death, and His resurrection. The cross is portrayed not as defeat but as glorification.

4. The Epilogue (Ch. 21)

The risen Christ restores Peter and commissions His disciples.

Major Themes

- Jesus as the Word – He is eternal, divine, and the revelation of God.
- Light and Darkness – Christ brings truth and life to a dark world.
- Faith and Eternal Life – Belief in Jesus brings everlasting life.
- Love and Relationship – God’s love is revealed in Christ, calling us to love one another.
- The Holy Spirit – Promised as the Comforter and Guide for believers after Jesus’ ascension.

Why John Matters Today

John presents Jesus not only as a great teacher or miracle worker but as the eternal Son of God who offers eternal life. His Gospel calls us to personal faith in Christ, emphasizes the depth of God’s love, and assures us of His presence through the Spirit. It also teaches that eternal life begins the moment we believe in Christ, shaping how we live here and now.

Key Verse

“These are written that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.” – John 20:31

This verse sums up the entire purpose of John’s Gospel: belief in Jesus brings life.

John 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Word Became Flesh”

The Word and Creation

- 1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.
- 2 He was with God in the beginning.
- 3 Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made.
- 4 In him was life, and that life was the light of all people.
- 5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

John the Baptist’s Witness

- 6 There was a man sent from God whose name was John.
- 7 He came as a witness to testify about the light, so that all might believe through him.
- 8 He himself was not the light; he came only to point to the light.
- 9 The true light that gives light to everyone was coming into the world.
- 10 He was in the world, and though the world was made through him, the world did not recognize him.
- 11 He came to his own, but his own did not receive him.
- 12 Yet to all who did receive him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God—
- 13 children not born of natural descent, nor of human decision or a husband’s will, but born of God.

The Word Became Human

- 14 The Word became flesh and lived among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the one and only Son, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.
- 15 John testified about him, saying, “This is the one I spoke about when I said, ‘He who comes after me is greater than me because he existed before me.’”
- 16 From his fullness we have all received grace upon grace.
- 17 For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.
- 18 No one has ever seen God, but the one and only Son, who is himself God and is close to the Father’s heart, has made him known.

John Denies Being the Messiah

- 19 This was John’s testimony when the Jewish leaders in Jerusalem sent priests and Levites to ask him who he was.
- 20 He did not fail to confess, but admitted freely, “I am not the Messiah.”
- 21 They asked him, “Then who are you? Elijah?” He said, “I am not.” “Are you the Prophet?” He answered, “No.”
- 22 Finally they said, “Who are you? Give us an answer to take back to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?”

23 John replied with the words of Isaiah the prophet: “I am the voice of one calling in the wilderness, ‘Make straight the way for the Lord.’”

24 The Pharisees who had been sent questioned him,

25 “Why then do you baptize if you are not the Messiah, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?”

26 John answered them, “I baptize with water, but among you stands one you do not know.

27 He is the one who comes after me, the straps of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie.”

28 This happened in Bethany across the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

Jesus, the Lamb of God

29 The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and said, “Look, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!

30 This is the one I meant when I said, ‘A man who comes after me is greater than me because he existed before me.’

31 I myself did not know him, but I came baptizing with water so that he might be revealed to Israel.”

32 Then John gave this testimony: “I saw the Spirit come down from heaven as a dove and remain on him.

33 I would not have known him, except the one who sent me to baptize with water told me, ‘The man on whom you see the Spirit come down and remain is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.’

34 I have seen and I testify that this is God’s Chosen One.”

The First Disciples Follow Jesus

35 The next day John was there again with two of his disciples.

36 When he saw Jesus passing by, he said, “Look, the Lamb of God!”

37 When the two disciples heard him say this, they followed Jesus.

38 Turning around, Jesus saw them following and asked, “What do you want?” They said, “Rabbi” (which means Teacher), “where are you staying?”

39 He replied, “Come and see.” So they went and saw where he was staying, and spent that day with him. It was about four in the afternoon.

40 Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother, was one of the two who heard John and followed Jesus.

41 The first thing Andrew did was to find his brother Simon and tell him, “We have found the Messiah” (that is, the Christ).

42 He brought him to Jesus. Jesus looked at him and said, “You are Simon son of John. You will be called Cephas” (which is translated as Peter).

Jesus Calls Philip and Nathanael

43 The next day Jesus decided to leave for Galilee. Finding Philip, he said to him, “Follow me.”

44 Philip, like Andrew and Peter, was from the town of Bethsaida.

45 Philip found Nathanael and told him, “We have found the one Moses wrote about in the Law, and about whom the prophets also wrote—Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.”

46 Nathanael said, “Can anything good come from Nazareth?” Philip replied, “Come and see.”

47 When Jesus saw Nathanael approaching, he said of him, “Here truly is an Israelite in whom there is no deceit.”

48 “How do you know me?” Nathanael asked. Jesus answered, “I saw you while you were still under the fig tree before Philip called you.”

49 Then Nathanael declared, “Rabbi, you are the Son of God; you are the King of Israel.”

50 Jesus said, “You believe because I told you I saw you under the fig tree. You will see greater things than that.”

51 He then added, “Very truly I tell you, you will see heaven open, and the angels of God going up and coming down upon the Son of Man.”

Key Lessons from John 1

- Jesus is the eternal Word—fully God, present at creation, and the source of life and light.
- Many rejected him, but those who receive him become children of God.
- John the Baptist prepared the way, but pointed people to Christ, not himself.
- Jesus is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.
- The Spirit’s testimony confirmed Jesus as the Chosen One.
- Discipleship begins with seeing Jesus, following him, and bringing others to him.
- Jesus promises greater revelation to those who believe.

John 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Wedding at Cana and the Cleansing of the Temple”

The Wedding at Cana

1 On the third day, there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there.

2 Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding.

3 When the wine ran out, Jesus’ mother said to him, “They have no more wine.”

4 Jesus said to her, “Dear woman, why do you involve me? My time has not yet come.”

5 His mother said to the servants, “Do whatever he tells you.”

6 Nearby stood six large stone water jars, used by the Jews for ceremonial washing, each holding twenty to thirty gallons.

7 Jesus said to the servants, “Fill the jars with water.” So they filled them to the brim.

8 Then he said, “Now draw some out and take it to the master of the banquet.” And they did so.

9 The master of the banquet tasted the water that had been turned into wine. He did not realize where it had come from, though the servants who had drawn the water knew. He called the bridegroom aside
10 and said, “Everyone brings out the best wine first, and then the cheaper wine after the guests have had plenty to drink; but you have kept the best until now.”

11 This was the first miracle Jesus performed at Cana in Galilee. Through it he revealed his glory, and his disciples believed in him.

12 After this, he went down to Capernaum with his mother, his brothers, and his disciples. They stayed there for a few days.

Jesus Clears the Temple

13 When it was almost time for the Jewish Passover, Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

14 In the temple courts he found people selling cattle, sheep, and doves, and others sitting at tables exchanging money.

15 So he made a whip out of cords and drove them all from the temple courts, both sheep and cattle. He scattered the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables.

16 To those who sold doves he said, “Take these things out of here! Stop turning my Father’s house into a marketplace!”

17 His disciples remembered that it was written: “Zeal for your house will consume me.”

18 The Jewish leaders responded, “What sign can you show us to prove your authority to do all this?”

19 Jesus answered, “Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.”

20 They replied, “It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and you are going to raise it in three days?”

21 But the temple he was speaking about was his body.

22 After he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this. Then they believed the Scripture and the words Jesus had spoken.

Jesus Knows What Is in People

23 While Jesus was in Jerusalem for the Passover Festival, many people saw the signs he was doing and believed in his name.

24 But Jesus did not entrust himself to them, because he knew all people.

25 He did not need anyone to testify about humanity, for he knew what was in each person.

Key Lessons from John 2

- Jesus’ first miracle shows his compassion and his power to transform the ordinary into the extraordinary.
- Obedience to Christ (“Do whatever he tells you”) opens the door for miracles.
- God deserves reverence—his house must not be treated as common or corrupted by greed.

- Jesus is greater than the temple; his body would be broken and raised in three days.
- True faith is not based only on miracles but on trusting who Jesus truly is.
- Christ sees into the human heart—nothing is hidden from him.

John 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“You Must Be Born Again”

Jesus and Nicodemus

1 There was a man named Nicodemus, a Pharisee and a ruler of the Jews.

2 He came to Jesus at night and said, “Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God. No one could perform the miracles you are doing if God were not with him.”

3 Jesus replied, “Truly, I tell you, unless a person is born again, they cannot see the kingdom of God.”

4 Nicodemus asked, “How can someone be born when they are old? Surely they cannot enter their mother’s womb a second time and be born again?”

5 Jesus answered, “Truly, I tell you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, they cannot enter the kingdom of God.

6 What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit.

7 Do not be surprised when I say, ‘You must be born again.’

8 The wind blows wherever it pleases. You hear its sound, but you cannot tell where it comes from or where it is going. So it is with everyone born of the Spirit.”

9 “How can this be?” Nicodemus asked.

10 Jesus replied, “You are Israel’s teacher, and yet you do not understand these things?”

11 Truly, I tell you, we speak of what we know, and we testify to what we have seen, but still you do not accept our testimony.

12 If I have spoken to you of earthly things and you do not believe, how will you believe if I speak of heavenly things?

13 No one has gone up into heaven except the one who came down from heaven—the Son of Man.

14 Just as Moses lifted up the bronze snake in the wilderness, so the Son of Man must be lifted up,

15 that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life.”

God’s Love for the World

16 “For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

17 For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him.

18 Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is already condemned, because they have not believed in the name of God’s one and only Son.

19 This is the judgment: Light has come into the world, but people loved darkness instead of light because their deeds were evil.

20 Everyone who does evil hates the light and does not come into the light, for fear that their deeds will be exposed.

21 But those who live by the truth come to the light, so it may be clear that their works are done in God.”

John the Baptist Exalts Christ

22 After this, Jesus and his disciples went into the countryside of Judea. He spent time there with them and baptized.

23 John was also baptizing at Aenon near Salim, because there was plenty of water, and people were coming to be baptized.

24 This was before John was put in prison.

25 An argument broke out between some of John’s disciples and a certain Jew about ceremonial washing.

26 They came to John and said, “Rabbi, the man you testified about—the one with you across the Jordan—is also baptizing, and everyone is going to him.”

27 John replied, “A person can receive only what is given them from heaven.

28 You yourselves can testify that I said, ‘I am not the Messiah but am sent ahead of him.’

29 The bride belongs to the bridegroom. The friend of the bridegroom, who waits and listens for him, rejoices greatly when he hears the bridegroom’s voice. That joy is mine, and it is now complete.

30 He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 The one who comes from above is above all; the one who is from the earth belongs to the earth and speaks as one from the earth. The one who comes from heaven is above all.

32 He testifies to what he has seen and heard, but no one accepts his testimony.

33 Whoever has accepted it has certified that God is true.

34 For the one whom God sent speaks the words of God, for God gives the Spirit without limit.

35 The Father loves the Son and has placed all things into his hands.

36 Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life, but whoever rejects the Son will not see life, for God’s wrath remains on them.”

Key Lessons from John 3

- To see and enter God’s kingdom, we must be born again—by the Spirit, not by human effort.
- The Spirit works like the wind: unseen, mysterious, yet powerful.
- God’s love is so great that he gave his only Son, offering eternal life to all who believe.
- Rejecting Christ leads to judgment; receiving him brings salvation and light.
- True followers walk in the light, letting their deeds show that God is at work in them.

- John the Baptist reminds us that Jesus must be exalted, while we humble ourselves.
- Belief in Christ brings eternal life, but rejecting him leaves a person under God’s judgment.

John 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Living Water and the Savior of the World”

Jesus and the Samaritan Woman

1 When Jesus learned that the Pharisees had heard he was making and baptizing more disciples than John—

2 though Jesus himself did not baptize, but his disciples did—

3 he left Judea and went back to Galilee.

4 He had to go through Samaria.

5 He came to a town in Samaria called Sychar, near the field Jacob had given to his son Joseph.

6 Jacob’s well was there, and Jesus, tired from the journey, sat down by the well. It was about noon.

7 A Samaritan woman came to draw water. Jesus said to her, “Give me a drink.”

8 (His disciples had gone into the town to buy food.)

9 The Samaritan woman said, “You are a Jew, and I am a Samaritan woman. How can you ask me for a drink?” For Jews did not associate with Samaritans.

10 Jesus answered, “If you knew the gift of God and who it is who asks you for a drink, you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water.”

11 She said, “Sir, you have nothing to draw with and the well is deep. Where can you get this living water?”

12 Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well and drank from it himself, along with his sons and his livestock?”

13 Jesus replied, “Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again.

14 But whoever drinks the water I give will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give will become in them a spring of water welling up to eternal life.”

15 The woman said, “Sir, give me this water so that I won’t get thirsty and have to keep coming here to draw.”

16 He told her, “Go, call your husband and come back.”

17 She said, “I have no husband.” Jesus replied, “You are right when you say you have no husband.

18 The fact is, you have had five husbands, and the man you now have is not your husband. What you have said is true.”

19 “Sir,” the woman said, “I can see that you are a prophet.

20 Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain, but you Jews claim that the place we must worship is in Jerusalem.”

21 Jesus replied, “Believe me, the time is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem.

22 You Samaritans worship what you do not know; we worship what we do know, for salvation is from the Jews.

23 Yet a time is coming—and has now come—when true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for they are the kind of worshipers the Father seeks.

24 God is spirit, and his worshipers must worship in spirit and in truth.”

25 The woman said, “I know that Messiah is coming. When he comes, he will explain everything to us.”

26 Jesus declared, “I, the one speaking to you—I am he.”

27 Just then his disciples returned and were surprised to find him talking with a woman. But no one asked, “What do you want?” or “Why are you talking with her?”

28 Then the woman left her water jar, went back to the town, and said to the people,

29 “Come, see a man who told me everything I ever did. Could this be the Messiah?”

30 They left the town and made their way toward him.

The Disciples and the Harvest

31 Meanwhile, his disciples urged him, “Rabbi, eat something.”

32 But he said to them, “I have food to eat that you know nothing about.”

33 The disciples asked each other, “Could someone have brought him food?”

34 Jesus said, “My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to finish his work.

35 Don’t you have a saying, ‘It’s still four months until harvest’? I tell you, open your eyes and look at the fields! They are ripe for harvest.

36 The one who reaps draws wages and harvests a crop for eternal life, so that the sower and the reaper may be glad together.

37 Thus the saying ‘One sows and another reaps’ is true.

38 I sent you to reap what you have not worked for. Others have done the hard work, and you have reaped the benefits of their labor.”

Many Samaritans Believe

39 Many Samaritans from that town believed in him because of the woman’s testimony: “He told me everything I ever did.”

40 So when the Samaritans came to him, they urged him to stay with them, and he stayed two days.

41 Because of his words, many more became believers.

42 They said to the woman, “We no longer believe just because of what you said; now we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this man really is the Savior of the world.”

Jesus Heals an Official's Son

43 After the two days, he left for Galilee.

44 (Now Jesus himself had said that a prophet has no honor in his own country.)

45 When he arrived in Galilee, the Galileans welcomed him. They had seen all that he had done in Jerusalem at the Passover Festival, for they had also been there.

46 Once more he visited Cana in Galilee, where he had turned the water into wine. There was a royal official whose son lay sick in Capernaum.

47 When this man heard that Jesus had come from Judea to Galilee, he went to him and begged him to come heal his son, who was close to death.

48 Jesus said, "Unless you people see signs and wonders, you will never believe."

49 The royal official said, "Sir, come down before my child dies."

50 Jesus replied, "Go; your son will live." The man believed the word Jesus spoke to him and departed.

51 While he was still on the way, his servants met him with the news that his boy was living.

52 When he asked them the time when his son got better, they said, "Yesterday, at one in the afternoon, the fever left him."

53 Then the father realized that this was the exact time at which Jesus had said to him, "Your son will live." So he and his whole household believed.

54 This was the second miracle Jesus performed after coming from Judea to Galilee.

Key Lessons from John 4

- Jesus offers "living water"—eternal life through the Spirit—that satisfies the soul's deepest thirst.
- True worship is not about a location but about worshiping God in spirit and truth.
- Jesus revealed himself as the Messiah to an outcast, showing that his mission is for all people.
- The Samaritan woman's testimony brought many to Christ—our story can point others to him.
- Doing God's will was Jesus' true food, showing the importance of spiritual work over physical needs.
- The harvest of souls is ready—God calls us to sow, reap, and rejoice together in his work.
- Faith grows from hearing Jesus' word and trusting it, as shown in the healing of the official's son.

John 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

"The Healing at Bethesda and the Authority of the Son"

The Healing at the Pool

1 After this, there was a Jewish feast, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now in Jerusalem near the Sheep Gate there is a pool, called Bethesda in Hebrew, which has five covered porches.

3 A large crowd of sick, blind, lame, and paralyzed people lay there, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 From time to time an angel came down and stirred the water. The first one to step in after the stirring was healed of whatever disease they had.

5 One man had been an invalid for thirty-eight years.

6 When Jesus saw him lying there and learned that he had been in this condition a long time, he asked, "Do you want to be healed?"

7 The man replied, "Sir, I have no one to help me into the pool when the water is stirred. While I am trying to get in, someone else goes down ahead of me."

8 Then Jesus said to him, "Get up! Pick up your mat and walk."

9 Immediately the man was healed. He picked up his mat and walked. This happened on the Sabbath.

10 So the Jewish leaders said to the man who had been healed, "It is the Sabbath. It is not lawful for you to carry your mat."

11 But he replied, "The man who healed me said to me, 'Pick up your mat and walk.'"

12 They asked him, "Who is this man who told you to pick it up and walk?"

13 The man did not know, for Jesus had slipped away into the crowd.

14 Later Jesus found him at the temple and said, "See, you are well again. Stop sinning, or something worse may happen to you."

15 The man went away and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well.

The Son's Authority

16 So the Jews began to persecute Jesus because he was doing these things on the Sabbath.

17 But Jesus answered, "My Father is always working, and so am I."

18 For this reason they tried even harder to kill him. Not only was he breaking the Sabbath, but he was also calling God his Father, making himself equal with God.

19 Jesus explained, "Truly I tell you, the Son can do nothing by himself. He only does what he sees the Father doing. Whatever the Father does, the Son also does.

20 For the Father loves the Son and shows him all he does. Yes, he will show him even greater works than these, so that you will be amazed.

21 For just as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so the Son gives life to whomever he chooses.

22 The Father judges no one but has entrusted all judgment to the Son,

23 so that all may honor the Son just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him.

24 Truly I tell you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life and will not be judged but has passed from death to life.

25 Truly I tell you, the time is coming—and has now come—when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live.

26 For as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted the Son to have life in himself.

27 And he has given him authority to judge because he is the Son of Man.

28 Do not be amazed at this, for a time is coming when all who are in their graves will hear his voice

29 and come out—those who have done good will rise to live, and those who have done evil will rise to be condemned.

30 By myself I can do nothing. I judge only as I hear, and my judgment is just, for I seek not my own will but the will of the Father who sent me.”

Testimonies About Jesus

31 “If I testify about myself, my testimony is not valid.

32 There is another who testifies in my favor, and I know that his testimony about me is true.

33 You sent to John, and he testified to the truth.

34 Not that I accept human testimony, but I mention it so that you may be saved.

35 John was a burning and shining light, and for a while you rejoiced in his light.

36 But I have testimony weightier than John’s. The works the Father has given me to finish—the very works I am doing—testify that the Father has sent me.

37 And the Father who sent me has himself testified about me. You have never heard his voice or seen his form, 38 nor does his word dwell in you, for you do not believe the one he sent.

39 You search the Scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life. Yet they testify about me, 40 but you refuse to come to me to have life.

41 I do not accept praise from men,

42 but I know you and that you do not have the love of God in your hearts.

43 I have come in my Father’s name, and you do not accept me; but if someone else comes in his own name, you will accept him.

44 How can you believe since you accept glory from one another but do not seek the glory that comes from the only God?

45 Do not think I will accuse you before the Father. Your accuser is Moses, on whom your hopes are set.

46 If you believed Moses, you would believe me, for he wrote about me.

47 But if you do not believe what he wrote, how will you believe what I say?”

Key Lessons from John 5

- Jesus heals with authority, even on the Sabbath, showing mercy is greater than man-made rules.
- The Son works in perfect unity with the Father—what the Father does, the Son does.
- Jesus is the giver of life, both now and in the final resurrection.
- Judgment belongs to Christ, and honoring him is the same as honoring the Father.
- Eternal life comes by hearing Jesus' word and believing in the Father who sent him.
- The Scriptures point to Christ, but study without faith cannot save.
- True faith seeks God's approval, not human praise.

John 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Bread of Life”

Jesus Feeds the Five Thousand

1 After this, Jesus crossed to the far side of the Sea of Galilee (also called the Sea of Tiberias).

2 A large crowd followed him because they saw the miracles he had done for the sick.

3 Jesus went up on a mountainside and sat down with his disciples.

4 The Jewish Passover Festival was near.

5 When Jesus looked up and saw the great crowd coming toward him, he said to Philip, “Where shall we buy bread for these people to eat?”

6 He asked this to test Philip, for he already knew what he was going to do.

7 Philip answered, “It would take more than half a year's wages to buy enough bread for each one to have a little.”

8 Another disciple, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, spoke up,

9 “Here is a boy with five small barley loaves and two small fish, but how far will they go among so many?”

10 Jesus said, “Have the people sit down.” There was plenty of grass in that place, and about five thousand men sat down.

11 Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were seated. He did the same with the fish, giving them as much as they wanted.

12 When they had all had enough to eat, he said to his disciples, “Gather the pieces that are left over. Let nothing be wasted.”

13 So they gathered them and filled twelve baskets with the pieces of the five barley loaves left over by those who had eaten.

14 After the people saw the sign Jesus performed, they began to say, “Surely this is the Prophet who is to come into the world.”

15 Jesus, knowing they intended to come and make him king by force, withdrew again to a mountain by himself.

Jesus Walks on Water

16 When evening came, his disciples went down to the lake,
17 got into a boat, and set off across the lake for Capernaum. By now it was dark, and Jesus had not yet joined them.

18 A strong wind was blowing, and the waters grew rough.

19 When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the water, coming near the boat, and they were terrified.

20 But he said to them, "It is I; don't be afraid."

21 Then they were willing to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the shore where they were heading.

The Crowd Seeks Jesus

22 The next day, the crowd that had stayed on the other side of the lake realized only one boat had been there, and that Jesus had not entered it with his disciples, but they had gone away alone.

23 Some boats from Tiberias landed near the place where the people had eaten the bread after the Lord had given thanks.

24 Once the crowd realized that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they got into the boats and went to Capernaum to look for him.

25 When they found him on the other side of the lake, they asked him, "Rabbi, when did you get here?"

26 Jesus answered, "Truly I tell you, you are looking for me not because you saw the signs I performed but because you ate the loaves and had your fill.

27 Do not work for food that spoils, but for food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For on him God the Father has placed his seal of approval."

28 Then they asked him, "What must we do to do the works God requires?"

29 Jesus answered, "The work of God is this: to believe in the one he has sent."

30 So they asked him, "What sign then will you give that we may see it and believe you? What will you do?"

31 Our ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written: 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'"

32 Jesus said to them, "Truly I tell you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the bread of God is the one who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world."

34 "Sir," they said, "always give us this bread."

35 Then Jesus declared, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never go hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.

36 But as I told you, you have seen me and still you do not believe.

37 All those the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never cast out.

38 For I have come down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of him who sent me.

39 And this is the will of him who sent me: that I shall lose none of all he has given me but raise them up at the last day.

40 For my Father's will is that everyone who looks to the Son and believes in him shall have eternal life, and I will raise them up at the last day."

The Bread from Heaven

41 At this the Jews began to grumble because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven."

42 They said, "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, 'I came down from heaven'?"

43 Jesus answered, "Stop grumbling among yourselves.

44 No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws them, and I will raise them up at the last day.

45 It is written in the Prophets: 'They will all be taught by God.' Everyone who listens to the Father and learns from him comes to me.

46 No one has seen the Father except the one who is from God; only he has seen the Father.

47 Truly I tell you, the one who believes has eternal life.

48 I am the bread of life.

49 Your ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, yet they died.

50 But here is the bread that comes down from heaven, which anyone may eat and not die.

51 I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats this bread will live forever. This bread is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world."

52 Then the Jews began to argue sharply among themselves, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?"

53 Jesus said to them, "Truly I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you.

54 Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise them up at the last day.

55 For my flesh is real food, and my blood is real drink.

56 Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in them.

57 Just as the living Father sent me and I live because of the Father, so the one who feeds on me will live because of me.

58 This is the bread that came down from heaven. Your ancestors ate manna and died, but whoever feeds on this bread will live forever."

59 He said this while teaching in the synagogue in Capernaum.

Many Turn Away

60 On hearing it, many of his disciples said, "This is a hard teaching. Who can accept it?"

61 Aware that his disciples were grumbling about this, Jesus said to them, "Does this offend you?"

62 Then what if you see the Son of Man ascend to where he was before!

63 The Spirit gives life; the flesh counts for nothing. The words I have spoken to you are spirit and life.

64 Yet there are some of you who do not believe.” For Jesus had known from the beginning which of them did not believe and who would betray him.

65 He went on to say, “This is why I told you that no one can come to me unless the Father has enabled them.”

66 From this time many of his disciples turned back and no longer followed him.

67 Jesus asked the Twelve, “You do not want to leave too, do you?”

68 Simon Peter answered him, “Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life.

69 We have come to believe and to know that you are the Holy One of God.”

70 Then Jesus replied, “Have I not chosen you, the Twelve? Yet one of you is a devil!”

71 He meant Judas, son of Simon Iscariot, who, though one of the Twelve, would later betray him.

Key Lessons from John 6

- Jesus provides for physical needs but points us to a greater truth: he is the Bread of Life.
- Faith is not about miracles and signs but about trusting Christ himself.
- Eternal life comes only through believing in Jesus, the one sent from heaven.
- Jesus’ body and blood symbolize his sacrifice—true life is found in him alone.
- Many turn away from difficult truths, but true disciples remain because only Jesus has the words of eternal life.
- God draws people to Christ, and those who come to him will never be cast out.

John 7 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Jesus at the Feast of Tabernacles”

Jesus and His Brothers

1 After this, Jesus stayed in Galilee. He would not go about in Judea because the Jewish leaders were looking for a way to kill him.

2 The Jewish Feast of Tabernacles was near.

3 So Jesus’ brothers said to him, “Leave here and go to Judea so your disciples there may see the works you are doing.

4 No one who wants to be known does things in secret. If you do these works, show yourself to the world.”

5 For even his brothers did not believe in him.

6 Jesus told them, “My time has not yet come, but your time is always ready.
7 The world cannot hate you, but it hates me because I testify that its works are evil.
8 You go up to the feast. I am not going up yet, because my time has not fully come.”
9 After saying this, he stayed in Galilee.

10 But after his brothers had gone to the feast, he also went—not publicly, but in secret.
11 Now at the feast the Jewish leaders were looking for him and asking, “Where is he?”
12 Among the crowds there was much whispering about him. Some said, “He is a good man.” Others replied, “No, he deceives the people.”
13 But no one would say anything openly for fear of the leaders.

Jesus Teaches in the Temple

14 About halfway through the feast, Jesus went up to the temple courts and began to teach.
15 The Jews were amazed and asked, “How did this man get such learning without having studied?”
16 Jesus answered, “My teaching is not my own. It comes from the one who sent me.
17 Anyone who chooses to do God’s will shall know whether my teaching comes from God or whether I speak on my own.
18 Whoever speaks on their own seeks their own glory, but the one who seeks the glory of the one who sent him is truthful, and there is nothing false about him.
19 Has not Moses given you the law? Yet none of you keeps the law. Why are you trying to kill me?”
20 The crowd answered, “You are demon-possessed. Who is trying to kill you?”
21 Jesus said to them, “I did one miracle, and you are all amazed.
22 Yet because Moses gave you circumcision (though it actually came from the patriarchs), you circumcise a boy on the Sabbath.
23 Now if a boy can be circumcised on the Sabbath so the law of Moses will not be broken, why are you angry with me for healing a whole man on the Sabbath?
24 Stop judging by appearances and judge with right judgment.”

Division Over Jesus

25 Some of the people of Jerusalem said, “Isn’t this the man they are trying to kill?
26 Yet here he is, speaking openly, and they are not saying a word to him. Could it be that the rulers really know that he is the Messiah?
27 But we know where this man is from. When the Messiah comes, no one will know where he is from.”
28 Then Jesus cried out in the temple courts as he taught, “Yes, you know me, and you know where I am from. But I am not here on my own authority. The one who sent me is true. You do not know him, 29 but I know him because I am from him and he sent me.”
30 At this they tried to seize him, but no one laid a hand on him, because his hour had not yet come.
31 Still, many in the crowd believed in him. They said, “When the Messiah comes, will he perform more signs than this man?”

32 The Pharisees heard the crowd whispering such things. Then the chief priests and the Pharisees sent guards to arrest him.

33 Jesus said, “I am with you only a little longer, and then I am going to the one who sent me.

34 You will look for me, but you will not find me; and where I am, you cannot come.”

35 The Jews said to one another, “Where does this man intend to go that we cannot find him? Will he go where our people live scattered among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks?

36 What did he mean when he said, ‘You will look for me, but you will not find me,’ and ‘Where I am, you cannot come’?”

Streams of Living Water

37 On the last and greatest day of the feast, Jesus stood and said in a loud voice, “If anyone is thirsty, let them come to me and drink.

38 Whoever believes in me, as Scripture has said, rivers of living water will flow from within them.”

39 By this he meant the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were later to receive. The Spirit had not yet been given, since Jesus had not yet been glorified.

40 On hearing his words, some of the people said, “Surely this man is the Prophet.”

41 Others said, “He is the Messiah.” Still others asked, “How can the Messiah come from Galilee?

42 Doesn’t Scripture say that the Messiah will come from David’s descendants and from Bethlehem, the town where David lived?”

43 Thus the people were divided because of Jesus.

44 Some wanted to seize him, but no one laid a hand on him.

The Unbelief of the Leaders

45 Finally the temple guards went back to the chief priests and the Pharisees, who asked them, “Why didn’t you bring him in?”

46 “No one ever spoke the way this man does,” the guards replied.

47 “You mean he has deceived you also?” the Pharisees retorted.

48 “Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed in him?

49 No! But this crowd that knows nothing of the law—there is a curse on them.”

50 Nicodemus, who had gone to Jesus earlier and was one of their own number, asked,

51 “Does our law condemn a man without first hearing him to find out what he has been doing?”

52 They replied, “Are you from Galilee too? Look into it, and you will find that a prophet does not come out of Galilee.”

53 Then each went to his own home.

Key Lessons from John 7

- Even Jesus’ own brothers doubted him at first, showing faith must come personally, not by family ties.

- Jesus acted according to God’s timing, not human pressure.
- True teaching comes from God, and those who seek his will recognize it.
- The world hates Christ because he exposes its evil.
- Outward appearances can deceive; righteous judgment looks deeper.
- Jesus offers the Spirit as living water, bringing life and refreshment to believers.
- People remain divided over Jesus, but his words and works point clearly to him as the Messiah.
- Human leaders may reject him, but God’s plan cannot be stopped.

John 8 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Light of the World”

The Woman Caught in Adultery

1 Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.

2 Early the next morning he returned to the temple courts. All the people gathered around him, and he sat down to teach them.

3 The teachers of the law and the Pharisees brought in a woman caught in adultery. They made her stand before the group

4 and said to Jesus, “Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of adultery.

5 In the Law, Moses commanded us to stone such women. Now what do you say?”

6 They were using this question to trap him, so they would have a reason to accuse him. But Jesus bent down and wrote on the ground with his finger.

7 When they kept questioning him, he stood up and said, “Let any one of you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her.”

8 Again he stooped down and wrote on the ground.

9 At this, those who heard began to go away one at a time, the older ones first, until only Jesus was left, with the woman still standing there.

10 Jesus stood up and asked her, “Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?”

11 “No one, Lord,” she said. “Then neither do I condemn you,” Jesus declared. “Go, and sin no more.”

Jesus, the Light of the World

12 When Jesus spoke again to the people, he said, “I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness but will have the light of life.”

13 The Pharisees challenged him, “Here you are, testifying about yourself; your testimony is not valid.”

14 Jesus answered, “Even if I testify about myself, my testimony is true, because I know where I came from and where I am going. But you have no idea where I come from or where I am going.

15 You judge by human standards; I pass judgment on no one.

16 But if I do judge, my decisions are true, because I am not alone. I stand with the Father who sent me.

17 In your Law it is written that the testimony of two witnesses is true.

18 I am one who testifies for myself; my other witness is the Father who sent me.”

19 Then they asked him, “Where is your father?” Jesus replied, “You do not know me or my Father. If you knew me, you would know my Father also.”

20 He spoke these words while teaching in the temple courts near the treasury, but no one seized him, because his hour had not yet come.

Warning of Unbelief

21 Once more Jesus said to them, “I am going away, and you will look for me, and you will die in your sins. Where I go, you cannot come.”

22 The Jews asked, “Will he kill himself? Is that why he says, ‘Where I go, you cannot come’?”

23 But he continued, “You are from below; I am from above. You are of this world; I am not of this world.

24 I told you that you would die in your sins; if you do not believe that I am he, you will indeed die in your sins.”

25 “Who are you?” they asked. “Just what I have been telling you from the beginning,” Jesus replied.

26 “I have much to say in judgment of you. But he who sent me is trustworthy, and what I have heard from him I tell the world.”

27 They did not understand that he was talking about the Father.

28 So Jesus said, “When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am he and that I do nothing on my own but speak just what the Father has taught me.

29 The one who sent me is with me; he has not left me alone, for I always do what pleases him.”

30 As he spoke these words, many believed in him.

The Truth Will Set You Free

31 To the Jews who had believed him, Jesus said, “If you continue in my word, you are truly my disciples.

32 Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.”

33 They answered him, “We are Abraham’s descendants and have never been slaves of anyone. How can you say we shall be set free?”

34 Jesus replied, “Truly I tell you, everyone who sins is a slave to sin.

35 A slave has no permanent place in the family, but a son belongs to it forever.

36 So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed.

37 I know you are Abraham’s descendants. Yet you are looking for a way to kill me, because you have no room for my word.

38 I am telling you what I have seen in the Father’s presence, and you are doing what you have heard from your father.”

Children of the Devil

39 “Abraham is our father,” they answered. Jesus said, “If you were Abraham’s children, then you would do what Abraham did.

40 But now you are trying to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. Abraham did not do such things.

41 You are doing the works of your father.”

They protested, “We are not illegitimate children. The only Father we have is God himself.”

42 Jesus said to them, “If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and am now here. I have not come on my own; God sent me.

43 Why is my language not clear to you? Because you are unable to hear my word.

44 You belong to your father, the devil, and you want to carry out your father’s desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, not holding to the truth, for there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies.

45 Yet because I tell you the truth, you do not believe me!

46 Can any of you prove me guilty of sin? If I am telling the truth, why don’t you believe me?

47 Whoever belongs to God hears what God says. The reason you do not hear is that you do not belong to God.”

Jesus’ Claims About Himself

48 The Jews answered him, “Aren’t we right in saying that you are a Samaritan and demon-possessed?”

49 Jesus replied, “I am not demon-possessed. I honor my Father, and you dishonor me.

50 I am not seeking glory for myself, but there is one who seeks it, and he is the judge.

51 Truly I tell you, whoever keeps my word will never see death.”

52 At this they exclaimed, “Now we know you are demon-possessed! Abraham died, and so did the prophets, yet you say that whoever obeys your word will never taste death.

53 Are you greater than our father Abraham? He died, and so did the prophets. Who do you think you are?”

54 Jesus replied, “If I glorify myself, my glory means nothing. My Father, whom you claim as your God, is the one who glorifies me.

55 Though you do not know him, I know him. If I said I did not, I would be a liar like you, but I do know him and obey his word.

56 Your father Abraham rejoiced at the thought of seeing my day; he saw it and was glad.”

57 The Jews said to him, “You are not yet fifty years old, and you have seen Abraham?”

58 “Truly, truly I tell you,” Jesus answered, “before Abraham was born, I am.”

59 At this, they picked up stones to stone him, but Jesus hid himself and slipped away from the temple.

Key Lessons from John 8

- Jesus shows mercy, offering forgiveness and a new life: “Neither do I condemn you; go, and sin no more.”
- He is the Light of the World, leading all who follow him out of darkness into life.
- True freedom is found in Christ alone—he sets us free from the slavery of sin.
- Those who reject him show they belong not to God but to the devil, the father of lies.
- Jesus spoke with authority, declaring his unity with the Father.
- His bold claim “Before Abraham was, I am” reveals his eternal divine nature.
- Many rejected him, but the truth remains—only in Jesus can we escape death and find eternal life.

John 9 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Jesus Heals a Man Born Blind”

The Healing

1 As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man who had been blind from birth.

2 His disciples asked him, “Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?”

3 Jesus answered, “Neither this man nor his parents sinned. This happened so the works of God might be displayed in him.

4 I must do the works of the one who sent me while it is day. Night is coming, when no one can work.

5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.”

6 After saying this, he spit on the ground, made mud with the saliva, and put it on the man’s eyes.

7 He told him, “Go, wash in the Pool of Siloam” (which means Sent). So the man went, washed, and came back seeing.

The Neighbors Question Him

8 His neighbors and those who had seen him begging asked, “Isn’t this the man who used to sit and beg?”

9 Some said, “Yes, it’s him.” Others said, “No, he just looks like him.” But the man himself said, “I am the one.”

10 They asked him, “How then were your eyes opened?”

11 He replied, “The man called Jesus made mud, put it on my eyes, and told me, ‘Go to Siloam and wash.’ So I went, washed, and then I could see.”

12 They asked, “Where is he?” He answered, “I don’t know.”

The Pharisees Investigate

13 They brought to the Pharisees the man who had been blind.

14 Now the day on which Jesus had made the mud and opened the man's eyes was a Sabbath.

15 Therefore the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said, "He put mud on my eyes, I washed, and now I see."

16 Some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, for he does not keep the Sabbath." But others asked, "How can a sinner perform such signs?" So they were divided.

17 Then they turned to the blind man and asked, "What do you say about him? It was your eyes he opened." The man replied, "He is a prophet."

18 The Jewish leaders still did not believe he had been blind and received his sight until they called the man's parents.

19 They asked them, "Is this your son? Is this the one you say was born blind? How is it that he can now see?"

20 His parents answered, "We know this is our son, and that he was born blind.

21 But how he can see now, or who opened his eyes, we don't know. He is of age—ask him. He can speak for himself."

22 His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jewish leaders, who had already decided that anyone who acknowledged Jesus as the Messiah would be put out of the synagogue.

23 That is why his parents said, "He is of age; ask him."

The Pharisees Question Him Again

24 A second time they summoned the man who had been blind. They said, "Give glory to God by telling the truth. We know this man is a sinner."

25 He replied, "Whether he is a sinner or not, I don't know. One thing I do know: I was blind, but now I see!"

26 Then they asked him, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?"

27 He answered, "I already told you, and you did not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you want to become his disciples too?"

28 Then they hurled insults at him and said, "You are this fellow's disciple! We are disciples of Moses.

29 We know that God spoke to Moses, but as for this man, we don't even know where he comes from."

30 The man answered, "That is remarkable! You don't know where he comes from, yet he opened my eyes.

31 We know that God does not listen to sinners. He listens to the godly person who does his will.

32 Nobody has ever heard of opening the eyes of a man born blind.

33 If this man were not from God, he could do nothing."

34 To this they replied, "You were steeped in sin at birth; how dare you lecture us!" And they threw him out.

Spiritual Blindness

35 Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, and when he found him, he said, “Do you believe in the Son of God?”

36 The man asked, “Who is he, Lord, that I may believe in him?”

37 Jesus said, “You have now seen him; in fact, he is the one speaking with you.”

38 Then the man said, “Lord, I believe,” and he worshiped him.

39 Jesus said, “For judgment I have come into this world, so that the blind will see and those who see will become blind.”

40 Some Pharisees who were with him heard this and asked, “Are we blind too?”

41 Jesus replied, “If you were blind, you would not be guilty of sin; but since you claim you can see, your guilt remains.”

Key Lessons from John 9

- Suffering is not always caused by personal sin—it can be a stage for God’s glory to be revealed.
- Jesus is the Light of the World, opening both physical and spiritual eyes.
- Obedience, even in small steps (“Go, wash”), leads to transformation.
- Bold testimony—“One thing I know: I was blind, but now I see”—is powerful against opposition.
- Religious pride blinds hearts, while humble faith opens eyes to truth.
- True disciples worship Jesus as Lord, recognizing him as the Son of God.
- Spiritual blindness is worse than physical blindness; only Christ can bring sight.

John 10 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Good Shepherd”

The Shepherd and His Sheep

1 “Truly, truly I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheep pen by the gate but climbs in some other way is a thief and a robber.

2 But the one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep.

3 The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep listen to his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out.

4 When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice.

5 But they will never follow a stranger; in fact, they will run away from him because they do not recognize a stranger’s voice.”

6 Jesus gave them this figure of speech, but they did not understand what he was telling them.

I Am the Gate

7 Therefore Jesus said again, “Truly, truly I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep.

8 All who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them.

9 I am the gate; whoever enters through me will be saved. They will come in and go out, and find pasture.

10 The thief comes only to steal, kill, and destroy. I have come that they may have life, and have it abundantly.

I Am the Good Shepherd

11 “I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.

12 The hired hand is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep. So when he sees the wolf coming, he abandons the sheep and runs away. Then the wolf attacks the flock and scatters it.

13 The man runs away because he is a hired hand and cares nothing for the sheep.

14 I am the good shepherd; I know my sheep and my sheep know me—

15 just as the Father knows me and I know the Father—and I lay down my life for the sheep.

16 I have other sheep that are not of this sheepfold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. Then there will be one flock and one shepherd.

17 The Father loves me because I lay down my life—only to take it up again.

18 No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have authority to lay it down and authority to take it up again. This command I received from my Father.”

Division and Opposition

19 The Jews who heard these words were again divided.

20 Many of them said, “He is demon-possessed and raving mad. Why listen to him?”

21 But others said, “These are not the words of someone possessed by a demon. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?”

The Festival of Dedication

22 Then came the Festival of Dedication at Jerusalem. It was winter,

23 and Jesus was walking in the temple courts, in Solomon’s Colonnade.

24 The Jews who were there gathered around him, saying, “How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly.”

25 Jesus answered, “I did tell you, but you do not believe. The works I do in my Father’s name testify about me, 26 but you do not believe because you are not my sheep.

27 My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me.

28 I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; no one will snatch them out of my hand.

29 My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all; no one can snatch them out of my Father’s hand.

30 I and the Father are one.”

The Claim to Be God’s Son

31 Again the Jews picked up stones to stone him,

32 but Jesus said to them, “I have shown you many good works from the Father. For which of these do you stone me?”

33 They answered, “We are not stoning you for any good work but for blasphemy, because you, a mere man, claim to be God.”

34 Jesus replied, “Is it not written in your Law, ‘I said, you are gods’?”

35 If he called them ‘gods’ to whom the word of God came—and Scripture cannot be broken—

36 what about the one whom the Father set apart as his very own and sent into the world? Why then do you accuse me of blasphemy because I said, ‘I am God’s Son’?”

37 Do not believe me unless I do the works of my Father.

38 But if I do them, even though you do not believe me, believe the works, that you may know and understand that the Father is in me, and I in the Father.”

39 Again they tried to seize him, but he escaped their grasp.

Many Believe

40 Then Jesus went back across the Jordan to the place where John had been baptizing in the early days. There he stayed,

41 and many people came to him. They said, “Though John never performed a sign, everything he said about this man was true.”

42 And in that place many believed in Jesus.

Key Lessons from John 10

- Jesus is both the Gate and the Good Shepherd—the only way to salvation and the one who protects and leads his people.
- The thief steals and destroys, but Christ gives life abundantly.
- The Good Shepherd knows his sheep by name and lays down his life for them.
- Jesus has authority not only to lay down his life but to take it up again, showing his power over death.
- True believers are secure—no one can snatch them from Christ’s or the Father’s hand.
- Jesus’ unity with the Father reveals his divinity.
- Even when rejected by many, his works testify clearly that he is the Son of God.

John 11 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Resurrection and the Life”

The Death of Lazarus

1 A man named Lazarus was sick. He was from Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha.

2 (This Mary was the one who poured perfume on the Lord and wiped his feet with her hair. Lazarus, her brother, was sick.)

3 So the sisters sent word to Jesus, saying, “Lord, the one you love is sick.”

4 When Jesus heard this, he said, “This sickness will not end in death. No, it is for God’s glory, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it.”

5 Jesus loved Martha, her sister, and Lazarus.

6 Yet when he heard that Lazarus was sick, he stayed where he was two more days.

7 Then he said to his disciples, “Let us go back to Judea.”

8 “But Rabbi,” they said, “a short while ago the Jews tried to stone you, and yet you are going back there?”

9 Jesus answered, “Are there not twelve hours of daylight? Anyone who walks in the daytime will not stumble, for they see by this world’s light.

10 But if anyone walks at night, they stumble, because the light is not in them.”

11 After he said this, he went on to tell them, “Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I am going there to wake him up.”

12 His disciples replied, “Lord, if he sleeps, he will get better.”

13 Jesus had been speaking of his death, but his disciples thought he meant natural sleep.

14 So Jesus told them plainly, “Lazarus is dead,

15 and for your sake I am glad I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him.”

16 Then Thomas (also called Didymus) said to the rest of the disciples, “Let us also go, that we may die with him.”

Jesus Comforts the Sisters

17 On his arrival, Jesus found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days.

18 Bethany was less than two miles from Jerusalem,

19 and many Jews had come to Martha and Mary to comfort them in the loss of their brother.

20 When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went out to meet him, but Mary stayed at home.

21 “Lord,” Martha said to Jesus, “if you had been here, my brother would not have died.

22 But I know that even now God will give you whatever you ask.”

23 Jesus said to her, “Your brother will rise again.”

24 Martha answered, “I know he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day.”

25 Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die;

26 and whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?”

27 “Yes, Lord,” she replied, “I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, who is to come into the world.”

28 After she said this, she went back and called her sister Mary aside. “The Teacher is here,” she said, “and is asking for you.”

29 When Mary heard this, she got up quickly and went to him.

30 Now Jesus had not yet entered the village, but was still at the place where Martha had met him.

31 When the Jews who had been with Mary in the house, comforting her, noticed how quickly she got up and went out, they followed her, supposing she was going to the tomb to mourn there.

32 When Mary reached the place where Jesus was and saw him, she fell at his feet and said, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.”

Jesus Raises Lazarus

33 When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who had come along with her also weeping, he was deeply moved in spirit and troubled.

34 “Where have you laid him?” he asked. “Come and see, Lord,” they replied.

35 Jesus wept.

36 Then the Jews said, “See how he loved him!”

37 But some of them said, “Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?”

38 Jesus, once more deeply moved, came to the tomb. It was a cave with a stone laid across the entrance.

39 “Take away the stone,” he said. “But, Lord,” said Martha, the sister of the dead man, “by this time there is a bad odor, for he has been there four days.”

40 Then Jesus said, “Did I not tell you that if you believe, you will see the glory of God?”

41 So they took away the stone. Then Jesus looked up and said, “Father, I thank you that you have heard me.

42 I knew that you always hear me, but I said this for the benefit of the people standing here, that they may believe you sent me.”

43 When he had said this, Jesus called in a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!”

44 The dead man came out, his hands and feet wrapped with strips of linen, and a cloth around his face. Jesus said to them, “Unbind him and let him go.”

The Plot to Kill Jesus

45 Therefore many of the Jews who had come to visit Mary, and had seen what Jesus did, believed in him.

46 But some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done.

47 Then the chief priests and the Pharisees called a meeting of the council. “What are we accomplishing?” they asked. “Here is this man performing many signs.

48 If we let him go on like this, everyone will believe in him, and then the Romans will come and take away both our temple and our nation.”

49 Then one of them, Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, spoke up, “You know nothing at all!

50 You do not realize that it is better for you that one man die for the people than that the whole nation perish.”

51 He did not say this on his own, but as high priest that year he prophesied that Jesus would die for the Jewish nation,

52 and not only for that nation but also for the scattered children of God, to bring them together and make them one.

53 So from that day on they plotted to take his life.

54 Therefore Jesus no longer moved about publicly among the Jews. Instead he withdrew to a region near the wilderness, to a village called Ephraim, where he stayed with his disciples.

55 When it was almost time for the Jewish Passover, many went up from the countryside to Jerusalem for their ceremonial cleansing before the festival.

56 They kept looking for Jesus, and as they stood in the temple courts they asked one another, “What do you think? Isn’t he coming to the festival at all?”

57 But the chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that anyone who found out where Jesus was should report it, so they might arrest him.

Key Lessons from John 11

- Jesus allows delays so that God’s glory may be revealed in greater ways.
- Christ is not only the giver of resurrection but the Resurrection and the Life himself.
- True faith trusts Jesus even when death and loss seem final.
- Jesus shows his humanity by weeping and his divinity by commanding Lazarus to rise.
- Belief brings life; unbelief plots against the giver of life.
- The cross was not an accident but part of God’s plan, foretold even through Caiaphas’ words.
- Those who belong to Christ will be gathered together as one flock under his eternal care.

John 12 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Anointing, the Triumphal Entry, and the Hour of Glory”

Mary Anoints Jesus

1 Six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus lived, whom he had raised from the dead.

2 A dinner was given in Jesus' honor. Martha served, while Lazarus was among those reclining at the table with him.

3 Then Mary took about a pint of pure nard, an expensive perfume, poured it on Jesus' feet, and wiped his feet with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume.

4 But Judas Iscariot, who was later to betray him, objected,

5 "Why wasn't this perfume sold and the money given to the poor? It was worth a year's wages."

6 He did not say this because he cared about the poor but because he was a thief; as keeper of the money bag, he used to help himself to what was put into it.

7 "Leave her alone," Jesus replied. "It was intended that she should save this perfume for the day of my burial.

8 You will always have the poor among you, but you will not always have me."

9 Meanwhile, a large crowd of Jews found out that Jesus was there and came, not only because of him but also to see Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead.

10 So the chief priests made plans to kill Lazarus as well,

11 for on account of him many of the Jews were going over to Jesus and believing in him.

The Triumphal Entry

12 The next day the great crowd that had come for the festival heard that Jesus was on his way to Jerusalem.

13 They took palm branches and went out to meet him, shouting, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessed is the King of Israel!"

14 Jesus found a young donkey and sat on it, as it is written:

15 "Do not be afraid, Daughter Zion; see, your King is coming, seated on a donkey's colt."

16 At first his disciples did not understand all this. Only after Jesus was glorified did they realize that these things had been written about him and that these things had been done to him.

17 Now the crowd that was with him when he called Lazarus from the tomb and raised him from the dead continued to spread the word.

18 Many people, because they had heard that he had performed this sign, went out to meet him.

19 So the Pharisees said to one another, "See, this is getting us nowhere. Look how the whole world has gone after him!"

Jesus Predicts His Death

20 Now there were some Greeks among those who went up to worship at the festival.

21 They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, with a request. "Sir," they said, "we would like to see Jesus."

22 Philip went to tell Andrew; Andrew and Philip in turn told Jesus.

23 Jesus replied, “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.

24 Truly I tell you, unless a kernel of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains only a single seed. But if it dies, it produces many seeds.

25 Anyone who loves their life will lose it, while anyone who hates their life in this world will keep it for eternal life.

26 Whoever serves me must follow me; and where I am, my servant also will be. My Father will honor the one who serves me.”

27 “Now my soul is troubled, and what shall I say? ‘Father, save me from this hour’? No, it was for this very reason I came to this hour.

28 Father, glorify your name!”

Then a voice came from heaven, “I have glorified it, and will glorify it again.”

29 The crowd that was there and heard it said it had thundered; others said an angel had spoken to him.

30 Jesus said, “This voice was for your benefit, not mine.

31 Now is the time for judgment on this world; now the prince of this world will be driven out.

32 And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself.”

33 He said this to show the kind of death he was going to die.

34 The crowd spoke up, “We have heard from the Law that the Messiah will remain forever, so how can you say, ‘The Son of Man must be lifted up’? Who is this Son of Man?”

35 Then Jesus told them, “You are going to have the light just a little while longer. Walk while you have the light, before darkness overtakes you. Whoever walks in the dark does not know where they are going.

36 Believe in the light while you have the light, so that you may become children of light.” When he had finished speaking, Jesus left and hid himself from them.

The Unbelief of the People

37 Even after Jesus had performed so many signs in their presence, they still would not believe in him.

38 This was to fulfill the word of Isaiah the prophet:

“Lord, who has believed our message, and to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?”

39 For this reason they could not believe, because, as Isaiah says elsewhere:

40 “He has blinded their eyes and hardened their hearts, so they can neither see with their eyes, nor understand with their hearts, nor turn—and I would heal them.”

41 Isaiah said this because he saw Jesus’ glory and spoke about him.

42 Yet at the same time many even among the leaders believed in him. But because of the Pharisees they would not openly confess their faith for fear they would be put out of the synagogue;

43 for they loved human praise more than praise from God.

Jesus' Final Appeal

44 Then Jesus cried out, "Whoever believes in me does not believe in me only, but in the one who sent me.

45 The one who looks at me is seeing the one who sent me.

46 I have come into the world as a light, so that no one who believes in me should stay in darkness.

47 If anyone hears my words but does not keep them, I do not judge that person. For I did not come to judge the world, but to save the world.

48 There is a judge for the one who rejects me and does not accept my words; the very words I have spoken will condemn them at the last day.

49 For I did not speak on my own, but the Father who sent me commanded me what to say and how to say it.

50 I know that his command leads to eternal life. So whatever I say is just what the Father has told me to say."

Key Lessons from John 12

- Worship of Christ, like Mary's costly act, is never wasted—it honors Jesus and points to his sacrifice.
- The triumphal entry shows Jesus as the true King, humble yet victorious.
- Following Christ means dying to self and living for eternal life.
- God himself confirmed Jesus' mission with a voice from heaven.
- The cross is both judgment on the world and victory over Satan.
- Many saw the signs yet refused to believe, showing the danger of loving human praise more than God's approval.
- Jesus is the Light—rejecting his word brings judgment, but believing it brings eternal life.

John 13 – Crawford Standard Bible

"Jesus Washes the Disciples' Feet and Gives a New Command"

Jesus Washes His Disciples' Feet

1 It was just before the Passover Feast. Jesus knew that the hour had come for him to leave this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the very end.

2 The evening meal was being served, and the devil had already prompted Judas Iscariot, son of Simon, to betray Jesus.

3 Jesus knew that the Father had put all things under his power, and that he had come from God and was returning to God.

4 So he got up from the meal, took off his outer clothing, and wrapped a towel around his waist.
5 After that, he poured water into a basin and began to wash his disciples' feet, drying them with the towel that was wrapped around him.

6 He came to Simon Peter, who said, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?"

7 Jesus replied, "You do not realize now what I am doing, but later you will understand."

8 "No," said Peter, "you shall never wash my feet." Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no part with me."

9 "Then, Lord," Simon Peter replied, "not just my feet but my hands and my head as well!"

10 Jesus answered, "Those who have had a bath need only to wash their feet; their whole body is clean. And you are clean—though not every one of you."

11 For he knew who was going to betray him, and that was why he said not everyone was clean.

12 When he had finished washing their feet, he put on his clothes and returned to his place. "Do you understand what I have done for you?" he asked them.

13 "You call me 'Teacher' and 'Lord,' and rightly so, for that is what I am.

14 Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another's feet.

15 I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you.

16 Truly I tell you, no servant is greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him.

17 Now that you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them."

Jesus Predicts His Betrayal

18 "I am not referring to all of you; I know those I have chosen. But this is to fulfill Scripture: 'He who shares my bread has turned against me.'

19 I am telling you now before it happens, so that when it does happen you will believe that I am he.

20 Truly I tell you, whoever accepts anyone I send accepts me; and whoever accepts me accepts the one who sent me."

21 After he had said this, Jesus was troubled in spirit and testified, "Truly I tell you, one of you is going to betray me."

22 His disciples stared at one another, at a loss to know which of them he meant.

23 One of them, the disciple whom Jesus loved, was reclining next to him.

24 Simon Peter motioned to this disciple and said, "Ask him which one he means."

25 Leaning back against Jesus, he asked him, "Lord, who is it?"

26 Jesus answered, "It is the one to whom I will give this piece of bread when I have dipped it in the dish." Then, dipping the piece of bread, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, son of Simon.

27 As soon as Judas took the bread, Satan entered into him. So Jesus told him, "What you are about to do, do quickly."

28 But no one at the meal understood why Jesus said this to him.

29 Since Judas had charge of the money, some thought Jesus was telling him to buy what was needed for the festival, or to give something to the poor.

30 As soon as Judas had taken the bread, he went out. And it was night.

A New Commandment

31 When he was gone, Jesus said, “Now the Son of Man is glorified and God is glorified in him.

32 If God is glorified in him, God will glorify the Son in himself, and will glorify him at once.

33 My children, I will be with you only a little longer. You will look for me, and just as I told the Jews, so I tell you now: Where I am going, you cannot come.

34 A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another.

35 By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.”

Jesus Predicts Peter’s Denial

36 Simon Peter asked him, “Lord, where are you going?” Jesus replied, “Where I am going, you cannot follow now, but you will follow later.”

37 Peter asked, “Lord, why can’t I follow you now? I will lay down my life for you.”

38 Then Jesus answered, “Will you really lay down your life for me? Truly I tell you, before the rooster crows, you will disown me three times.”

Key Lessons from John 13

- Jesus shows true greatness through humble service—washing the feet of his disciples.
- Followers of Christ are called to serve one another in love and humility.
- Betrayal by Judas was foretold, reminding us God’s plan is never shaken by human sin.
- Jesus gave a new command—to love one another as he has loved us.
- Love is the true mark of a disciple of Christ.
- Even the boldest, like Peter, are weak without Christ’s strength, but grace restores.

John 14 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Way, the Truth, and the Life”

Jesus Comforts His Disciples

1 “Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in me.

2 In my Father’s house are many rooms. If it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me, so that where I am, you may be also.

4 You know the way to the place where I am going.”

5 Thomas said to him, “Lord, we don’t know where you are going, so how can we know the way?”
6 Jesus answered, “I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.

7 If you really know me, you will know my Father as well. From now on, you do know him and have seen him.”

Jesus Reveals the Father

8 Philip said, “Lord, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us.”

9 Jesus answered, “Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and still you don’t know me? Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, ‘Show us the Father’?”

10 Don’t you believe that I am in the Father, and the Father is in me? The words I say to you I do not speak on my own authority. It is the Father living in me who is doing his work.

11 Believe me when I say that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; or at least believe on the evidence of the works themselves.

The Promise of Greater Works

12 “Truly I tell you, whoever believes in me will do the works I have been doing, and they will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the Father.

13 And I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14 You may ask me for anything in my name, and I will do it.

15 If you love me, keep my commands.

16 And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to help you and be with you forever—

17 the Spirit of truth. The world cannot accept him, because it neither sees him nor knows him. But you know him, for he lives with you and will be in you.

18 I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you.

19 Before long, the world will not see me anymore, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live.

20 On that day you will realize that I am in my Father, and you are in me, and I am in you.

Love and Obedience

21 Whoever has my commands and keeps them is the one who loves me. The one who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love them and show myself to them.”

22 Then Judas (not Iscariot) said, “But, Lord, why do you intend to show yourself to us and not to the world?”

23 Jesus replied, “Anyone who loves me will obey my teaching. My Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them.

24 Anyone who does not love me will not obey my teaching. These words you hear are not my own; they belong to the Father who sent me.

The Gift of the Holy Spirit

25 “All this I have spoken while still with you.

26 But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and remind you of everything I have said to you.

27 Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid.

28 You heard me say, ‘I am going away and I am coming back to you.’ If you loved me, you would be glad that I am going to the Father, for the Father is greater than I.

29 I have told you now before it happens, so that when it does happen you will believe.

30 I will not say much more to you, for the prince of this world is coming. He has no hold over me,

31 but he comes so that the world may learn that I love the Father and do exactly what my Father has commanded me. Rise, let us go from here.”

Key Lessons from John 14

- Jesus is the only way to the Father—no other path leads to God.
- To know Jesus is to know the Father; he perfectly reveals God.
- Believers are promised the presence and power of the Holy Spirit, who teaches and reminds us of truth.
- Jesus gives peace that the world cannot give—a peace that overcomes fear.
- Love for Christ is shown by obedience to his commands.
- The cross was not defeat but obedience to the Father’s will, showing Jesus’ perfect love.

John 15 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Vine and the Branches”

Abiding in the Vine

1 “I am the true vine, and my Father is the gardener.

2 He cuts off every branch in me that does not bear fruit, while every branch that does bear fruit he prunes so it will be even more fruitful.

3 You are already clean because of the word I have spoken to you.

4 Remain in me, and I will remain in you. No branch can bear fruit by itself; it must remain in the vine. Neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in me.

5 I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing.

6 If you do not remain in me, you are like a branch that is thrown away and withers; such branches are picked up, thrown into the fire, and burned.

7 If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you.

8 This is to my Father's glory, that you bear much fruit, showing yourselves to be my disciples.

Love and Obedience

9 As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Now remain in my love.

10 If you keep my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commands and remain in his love.

11 I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete.

12 My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you.

13 Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends.

14 You are my friends if you do what I command.

15 I no longer call you servants, because a servant does not know his master's business. Instead, I have called you friends, for everything that I learned from my Father I have made known to you.

16 You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you so that you might go and bear fruit—fruit that will last—and so that whatever you ask in my name the Father will give you.

17 This is my command: Love each other.

The World's Hatred

18 If the world hates you, keep in mind that it hated me first.

19 If you belonged to the world, it would love you as its own. As it is, you do not belong to the world, but I have chosen you out of the world. That is why the world hates you.

20 Remember what I told you: A servant is not greater than his master. If they persecuted me, they will persecute you also. If they obeyed my teaching, they will obey yours also.

21 They will treat you this way because of my name, for they do not know the one who sent me.

22 If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not be guilty of sin. But now they have no excuse for their sin.

23 Whoever hates me hates my Father as well.

24 If I had not done among them the works no one else did, they would not be guilty of sin. As it is, they have seen, and yet they have hated both me and my Father.

25 But this is to fulfill what is written in their Law: 'They hated me without reason.'

The Spirit of Truth

26 When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father—the Spirit of truth who goes out from the Father—he will testify about me.

27 And you also must testify, for you have been with me from the beginning.

Key Lessons from John 15

- Jesus is the true vine; apart from him, we can do nothing.
- Fruitfulness comes only from abiding in Christ and his Word.
- Love is the mark of Christ’s disciples—sacrificial love that reflects his own.
- Friendship with Jesus is based on obedience, not status.
- The world’s hatred of believers is rooted in its hatred of Christ.
- The Holy Spirit empowers believers to testify about Jesus.

John 16 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Work of the Spirit and the Promise of Joy”

Warning of Persecution

1 “I have told you these things so that you will not fall away.

2 They will put you out of the synagogues. In fact, the time is coming when anyone who kills you will think they are offering a service to God.

3 They will do such things because they have not known the Father or me.

4 I have told you this, so that when their time comes you will remember that I warned you about them. I did not tell you this from the beginning because I was with you.

The Coming of the Spirit

5 But now I am going to him who sent me. Yet none of you asks me, ‘Where are you going?’

6 Rather, you are filled with grief because I have said these things.

7 But truly I tell you, it is for your good that I am going away. Unless I go, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you.

8 When he comes, he will convict the world about sin, righteousness, and judgment:

9 about sin, because people do not believe in me;

10 about righteousness, because I am going to the Father, where you can see me no longer;

11 and about judgment, because the prince of this world now stands condemned.

12 I have much more to say to you, more than you can bear now.

13 But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all truth. He will not speak on his own; he will speak only what he hears, and he will tell you what is yet to come.

14 He will glorify me because it is from me that he will receive what he makes known to you.

15 All that belongs to the Father is mine. That is why I said the Spirit will receive from me what he will make known to you.

Sorrow Will Turn to Joy

16 In a little while you will see me no more, and then after a little while you will see me.”

17 At this, some of his disciples said to one another, “What does he mean by saying, ‘In a little while you will see me no more, and then after a little while you will see me,’ and ‘Because I am going to the Father’?”

18 They kept asking, “What does he mean by ‘a little while’? We don’t understand what he is saying.”

19 Jesus saw that they wanted to ask him about this, so he said to them, “Are you asking one another what I meant when I said, ‘In a little while you will see me no more, and then after a little while you will see me’?”

20 Truly I tell you, you will weep and mourn while the world rejoices. You will grieve, but your grief will turn to joy.

21 A woman giving birth has pain because her time has come; but when her baby is born she forgets the anguish because of her joy that a child is born into the world.

22 So it is with you: Now is your time of grief, but I will see you again and you will rejoice, and no one will take away your joy.

23 In that day you will no longer ask me anything. Truly I tell you, my Father will give you whatever you ask in my name.

24 Until now you have not asked for anything in my name. Ask and you will receive, and your joy will be complete.

Speaking Plainly about the Father

25 “Though I have been speaking figuratively, a time is coming when I will no longer use this kind of language but will tell you plainly about my Father.

26 In that day you will ask in my name. I am not saying that I will ask the Father on your behalf.

27 No, the Father himself loves you because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God.

28 I came from the Father and entered the world; now I am leaving the world and going back to the Father.”

29 Then Jesus’ disciples said, “Now you are speaking clearly and without figures of speech.

30 Now we can see that you know all things and do not even need to have anyone ask you questions. This makes us believe that you came from God.”

31 “Do you now believe?” Jesus replied.

32 “A time is coming, and in fact has come, when you will be scattered, each to your own home. You will leave me all alone. Yet I am not alone, for my Father is with me.

33 I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world.”

Key Lessons from John 16

- The Holy Spirit convicts the world of sin, righteousness, and judgment.
- The Spirit of truth guides believers into all truth and glorifies Christ.
- Sorrow is temporary; joy in Christ is eternal and cannot be taken away.
- Prayer in Jesus' name connects us directly with the Father.
- Jesus came from the Father and returned to the Father, securing our peace.
- Even in tribulation, we can be courageous—Christ has overcome the world.

“Jesus’ Prayer for Himself, His Disciples, and All Believers”

Jesus Prays for Himself

1 After Jesus finished speaking, he looked up to heaven and said, “Father, the hour has come. Glorify your Son, that your Son may glorify you.

2 For you granted him authority over all people that he might give eternal life to all those you have given him.

3 Now this is eternal life: that they know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent.

4 I have brought you glory on earth by finishing the work you gave me to do.

5 And now, Father, glorify me in your presence with the glory I had with you before the world began.”

Jesus Prays for His Disciples

6 “I have revealed you to those whom you gave me out of the world. They were yours; you gave them to me and they have obeyed your word.

7 Now they know that everything you have given me comes from you.

8 For I gave them the words you gave me and they accepted them. They knew with certainty that I came from you, and they believed that you sent me.

9 I pray for them. I am not praying for the world, but for those you have given me, for they are yours.

10 All I have is yours, and all you have is mine. And glory has come to me through them.

11 I will remain in the world no longer, but they are still in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them by the power of your name, the name you gave me, so that they may be one as we are one.

12 While I was with them, I protected them and kept them safe by that name you gave me. None has been lost except the one doomed to destruction so that Scripture would be fulfilled.

13 I am coming to you now, but I say these things while I am still in the world, so that they may have the full measure of my joy within them.

14 I have given them your word, and the world has hated them, for they are not of the world any more than I am of the world.

15 My prayer is not that you take them out of the world but that you protect them from the evil one.
16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of it.
17 Sanctify them by the truth; your word is truth.
18 As you sent me into the world, I have sent them into the world.
19 For them I sanctify myself, that they too may be truly sanctified.”

Jesus Prays for All Believers

20 “My prayer is not for them alone. I pray also for those who will believe in me through their message,
21 that all of them may be one, Father, just as you are in me and I am in you. May they also be in us so that the world may believe that you have sent me.
22 I have given them the glory that you gave me, that they may be one as we are one—
23 I in them and you in me—so that they may be brought to complete unity. Then the world will know that you sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me.
24 Father, I want those you have given me to be with me where I am, and to see my glory, the glory you have given me because you loved me before the creation of the world.
25 Righteous Father, though the world does not know you, I know you, and they know that you have sent me.
26 I have made you known to them, and will continue to make you known, in order that the love you have for me may be in them and that I myself may be in them.”

Key Lessons from John 17

- Eternal life is knowing God and Jesus Christ personally.
- Jesus glorified the Father by completing the work he was given.
- Jesus intercedes for his disciples’ protection, unity, and sanctification.
- Believers are not of this world but are sent into it with Christ’s mission.
- The unity of believers is a testimony to the world of God’s love.
- Jesus desires that his people be with him and see his eternal glory.
- God’s love in Christ is meant to dwell in every believer.

John 18 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Arrest, Denial, and Trial of Jesus”

Jesus Is Arrested

1 After Jesus finished praying, he crossed the Kidron Valley with his disciples and entered a garden.

2 Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place, because Jesus often met there with his disciples.

3 So Judas came to the garden, guiding a group of soldiers and some officials from the chief priests and Pharisees. They carried torches, lanterns, and weapons.

4 Jesus, knowing everything that was going to happen to him, went out and asked them, “Who is it you want?”

5 They replied, “Jesus of Nazareth.” Jesus said, “I am he.” Judas the traitor was standing there with them.

6 When Jesus said, “I am he,” they drew back and fell to the ground.

7 Again he asked them, “Who is it you want?”

They said, “Jesus of Nazareth.”

8 Jesus answered, “I told you that I am he. If you are looking for me, then let these men go.”

9 This happened so that the words he had spoken would be fulfilled: “I have not lost one of those you gave me.”

10 Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it and struck the high priest’s servant, cutting off his right ear. The servant’s name was Malchus.

11 Jesus commanded Peter, “Put your sword away! Shall I not drink the cup the Father has given me?”

12 Then the soldiers, their commander, and the Jewish officials arrested Jesus. They bound him

13 and brought him first to Annas, who was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, the high priest that year.

14 Caiaphas was the one who had advised the Jewish leaders that it would be good if one man died for the people.

Peter Denies Jesus

15 Simon Peter and another disciple followed Jesus. That other disciple was known to the high priest, so he went with Jesus into the high priest’s courtyard, 16 but Peter had to wait outside at the door. The other disciple, who was known to the high priest, came back, spoke to the servant girl on duty there, and brought Peter in.

17 She asked Peter, “You aren’t one of this man’s disciples too, are you?”

He replied, “I am not.”

18 It was cold, and the servants and officials stood around a fire they had made to keep warm. Peter was also standing with them, warming himself.

Jesus Before the High Priest

19 Meanwhile, the high priest questioned Jesus about his disciples and his teaching.

20 Jesus replied, “I have spoken openly to the world. I always taught in synagogues or at the temple, where all the Jews come together. I said nothing in secret.

21 Why question me? Ask those who heard me. Surely they know what I said.”

22 When Jesus said this, one of the officials nearby slapped him in the face. “Is this the way you answer the high priest?” he demanded.

23 Jesus replied, “If I said something wrong, testify as to what is wrong. But if I spoke the truth, why did you strike me?”

24 Then Annas sent him bound to Caiaphas the high priest.

Peter Denies Jesus Again

25 Meanwhile, Simon Peter was still standing there warming himself. So they asked him, “You aren’t one of his disciples too, are you?”

He denied it, saying, “I am not.”

26 One of the high priest’s servants, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, challenged him, “Didn’t I see you with him in the garden?”

27 Again Peter denied it, and at that moment a rooster crowed.

Jesus Before Pilate

28 Then the Jewish leaders took Jesus from Caiaphas to the palace of the Roman governor. By now it was early morning, and to avoid ceremonial uncleanness they did not enter the palace, because they wanted to be able to eat the Passover.

29 So Pilate came out to them and asked, “What charges are you bringing against this man?”

30 They replied, “If he were not a criminal, we would not have handed him over to you.”

31 Pilate said, “Take him yourselves and judge him by your own law.”

But they objected, “We have no right to execute anyone.”

32 This took place to fulfill what Jesus had said about the kind of death he was going to die.

33 Pilate then went back inside the palace, summoned Jesus, and asked him, “Are you the King of the Jews?”

34 Jesus answered, “Is that your own idea, or did others talk to you about me?”

35 “Am I a Jew?” Pilate replied. “Your own people and chief priests handed you over to me. What is it you have done?”

36 Jesus said, “My kingdom is not of this world. If it were, my servants would fight to prevent my arrest by the Jewish leaders. But now my kingdom is from another place.”

37 “You are a king, then!” said Pilate.

Jesus answered, “You say that I am a king. In fact, the reason I was born and came into the world is to testify to the truth. Everyone who is on the side of truth listens to my voice.”

38 “What is truth?” Pilate retorted. With this he went out again to the Jews gathered there and said, “I find no basis for a charge against him.

39 But it is your custom for me to release to you one prisoner at the time of the Passover. Do you want me to release ‘the King of the Jews’?”

40 They shouted back, “No, not him! Give us Barabbas!” Now Barabbas had taken part in a rebellion.

Key Lessons from John 18

- Jesus faced betrayal and arrest with calm authority, willingly surrendering to God’s plan.
- His words, “I am he,” revealed divine power, even causing his captors to fall back.
- Peter’s denials remind us of human weakness, but also of the need for restoration.
- Jesus boldly declared the truth before religious leaders and Roman authority.
- His kingdom is not of this world but is grounded in truth and eternity.
- The crowds chose Barabbas over Jesus, showing how easily people reject the true King.

John 19 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Crucifixion and Burial of Jesus”

Jesus Is Mocked and Condemned

1 Then Pilate had Jesus flogged.

2 The soldiers twisted a crown of thorns and placed it on his head. They put a purple robe on him
3 and mocked him, saying, “Hail, King of the Jews!” Then they struck him with their hands.

4 Pilate went out again and said, “Look, I am bringing him out to you to let you know I find no basis for a charge against him.”

5 When Jesus came out wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe, Pilate said, “Behold the man!”

6 But when the chief priests and officials saw him, they shouted, “Crucify! Crucify!”
Pilate answered, “You take him and crucify him. As for me, I find no fault in him.”

7 The Jewish leaders replied, “We have a law, and according to that law he must die, because he claimed to be the Son of God.”

8 When Pilate heard this, he was even more afraid.

9 He went back inside and asked Jesus, “Where do you come from?” But Jesus gave him no answer.

10 “Do you refuse to speak to me?” Pilate said. “Don’t you realize I have power to free you or crucify you?”

11 Jesus answered, “You would have no power over me if it were not given to you from above. The one who handed me over to you is guilty of the greater sin.”

12 From then on Pilate tried to set Jesus free, but the Jewish leaders kept shouting, “If you let this man go, you are no friend of Caesar. Anyone who claims to be a king opposes Caesar.”

13 When Pilate heard this, he brought Jesus out and sat down on the judge’s seat at a place known as the Stone Pavement (Gabbatha in Hebrew).

14 It was the day of Preparation for the Passover, about noon. Pilate said, “Here is your King!”

15 But they shouted, “Away with him! Away with him! Crucify him!”

“Shall I crucify your King?” Pilate asked.

The chief priests answered, “We have no king but Caesar.”

16 Finally, Pilate handed Jesus over to them to be crucified.

The Crucifixion of Jesus

17 Carrying his own cross, Jesus went out to the place of the Skull (Golgotha in Hebrew).

18 There they crucified him, with two others—one on each side and Jesus in the middle.

19 Pilate had a notice prepared and fastened to the cross. It read: “Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews.”

20 Many of the Jews read this sign, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city, and the sign was written in Hebrew, Latin, and Greek.

21 The chief priests of the Jews protested to Pilate, “Do not write ‘The King of the Jews,’ but that this man claimed to be King of the Jews.”

22 Pilate answered, “What I have written, I have written.”

23 When the soldiers crucified Jesus, they took his clothes, dividing them into four shares, one for each of them, with the undergarment remaining. This garment was seamless, woven in one piece from top to bottom.

24 “Let’s not tear it,” they said. “Let’s cast lots to see who will get it.” This fulfilled the Scripture: “They divided my clothes among them and cast lots for my garment.”

Jesus Cares for His Mother

25 Near the cross of Jesus stood his mother, his mother’s sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene.

26 When Jesus saw his mother there, and the disciple whom he loved standing nearby, he said to her, “Woman, here is your son,”

27 and to the disciple, “Here is your mother.” From that time on, this disciple took her into his home.

The Death of Jesus

28 Later, knowing that everything had been finished, and so that Scripture would be fulfilled, Jesus said, “I am thirsty.”

29 A jar of sour wine was there, so they soaked a sponge in it, put the sponge on a stalk of hyssop, and lifted it to Jesus’ lips.

30 When he had received the drink, Jesus said, “It is finished.” With that, he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.

The Piercing of Jesus’ Side

31 Because it was the day of Preparation, and the next day was a special Sabbath, the Jewish leaders asked Pilate to have the legs broken and the bodies taken down.

32 The soldiers therefore came and broke the legs of the first man who had been crucified with Jesus, and then those of the other.

33 But when they came to Jesus and found that he was already dead, they did not break his legs.

34 Instead, one of the soldiers pierced Jesus' side with a spear, bringing a sudden flow of blood and water.

35 The man who saw it has given testimony, and his testimony is true. He knows that he tells the truth, and he testifies so that you also may believe.

36 These things happened so that the Scripture would be fulfilled: "Not one of his bones will be broken,"

37 and, "They will look on the one they have pierced."

The Burial of Jesus

38 Later, Joseph of Arimathea asked Pilate for the body of Jesus. Joseph was a disciple of Jesus, but secretly because he feared the Jewish leaders. Pilate consented, so he came and took the body away.

39 He was accompanied by Nicodemus, the man who earlier had visited Jesus at night. Nicodemus brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about seventy-five pounds.

40 Taking Jesus' body, the two of them wrapped it, with the spices, in strips of linen. This was in accordance with Jewish burial customs.

41 At the place where Jesus was crucified, there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb, in which no one had ever been laid.

42 Because it was the Jewish day of Preparation and since the tomb was nearby, they laid Jesus there.

Key Lessons from John 19

- Jesus willingly endured mockery, beating, and crucifixion to fulfill God's plan.
- Pilate, though reluctant, gave in to the pressure of the crowds, showing human weakness before political fear.
- Jesus cared for his mother even in his dying moments, teaching us compassion in suffering.
- His final words, "It is finished," declare the completion of redemption.
- Blood and water from his side symbolize cleansing and new life for believers.
- Prophecy was fulfilled in every detail, showing God's sovereign hand.
- Jesus' burial by Joseph and Nicodemus shows even secret disciples can step forward in boldness at the right time.

John 20 – Crawford Standard Bible

"The Resurrection of Jesus"

The Empty Tomb

1 Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the entrance.

2 She ran to Simon Peter and to the other disciple, the one Jesus loved, and said, “They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we don’t know where they have put him!”

3 So Peter and the other disciple started running for the tomb.

4 The other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first.

5 He bent over and looked in at the strips of linen lying there, but did not go in.

6 Then Simon Peter came along behind him and went straight into the tomb. He saw the strips of linen lying there,

7 as well as the cloth that had been wrapped around Jesus’ head. The cloth was folded up separately from the linen.

8 Finally, the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also went inside. He saw and believed.

9 (They still did not fully understand from Scripture that Jesus had to rise from the dead.)

10 Then the disciples went back to where they were staying.

Jesus Appears to Mary Magdalene

11 But Mary stood outside the tomb crying. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb

12 and saw two angels in white, seated where Jesus’ body had been, one at the head and the other at the foot.

13 They asked her, “Woman, why are you crying?”

She said, “They have taken away my Lord, and I don’t know where they have put him.”

14 At this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not realize it was him.

15 He asked her, “Woman, why are you crying? Who is it you are looking for?”

Thinking he was the gardener, she said, “Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have put him, and I will get him.”

16 Jesus said to her, “Mary.”

She turned toward him and cried out in Aramaic, “Rabboni!” (which means “Teacher”).

17 Jesus said, “Do not hold on to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father. Go instead to my brothers and tell them, ‘I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.’”

18 Mary Magdalene went to the disciples with the news: “I have seen the Lord!” And she told them the things he had said to her.

Jesus Appears to the Disciples

19 On the evening of that first day of the week, when the disciples were together with the doors locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you!”

20 After he said this, he showed them his hands and side. The disciples were overjoyed when they saw the Lord.

21 Again Jesus said, “Peace be with you! As the Father has sent me, I am sending you.”

22 And with that he breathed on them and said, “Receive the Holy Spirit.

23 If you forgive anyone’s sins, their sins are forgiven; if you do not forgive them, they are not forgiven.”

Jesus Appears to Thomas

24 Now Thomas, also known as Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with the disciples when Jesus came.

25 So the other disciples told him, “We have seen the Lord!”

But he said, “Unless I see the nail marks in his hands and put my finger where the nails were, and put my hand into his side, I will never believe.”

26 A week later his disciples were in the house again, and Thomas was with them. Though the doors were locked, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you!”

27 Then he said to Thomas, “Put your finger here; see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it into my side. Stop doubting and believe.”

28 Thomas said to him, “My Lord and my God!”

29 Then Jesus told him, “Because you have seen me, you have believed; blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed.”

The Purpose of John’s Gospel

30 Jesus performed many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not recorded in this book.

31 But these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

Key Lessons from John 20

- The resurrection of Jesus is the foundation of Christian faith.
- Mary Magdalene’s encounter with Jesus shows that he reveals himself personally to those who seek him.
- The risen Christ brings peace, forgiveness, and the gift of the Holy Spirit.
- Thomas’ doubt turned to bold faith when confronted with the truth—showing Christ’s patience with honest questions.
- Jesus promises a blessing to all who believe without seeing.
- John’s Gospel is written to lead people to faith in Jesus as the Son of God and to eternal life in his name.

John 21 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Jesus Restores Peter and Commissions His Disciples”

Jesus Appears at the Sea of Galilee

1 Later, Jesus appeared again to his disciples by the Sea of Galilee. This is how it happened:

2 Simon Peter, Thomas (called the Twin), Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two other disciples were together.

3 Simon Peter said, “I’m going fishing.”

They replied, “We’ll come too.” So they went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.

4 At dawn, Jesus stood on the shore, but the disciples did not realize it was him.

5 He called out to them, “Friends, have you caught any fish?”

They answered, “No.”

6 He said, “Throw your net on the right side of the boat, and you’ll find some.” They did, and the net was so full of fish they couldn’t haul it in.

7 Then the disciple Jesus loved said to Peter, “It’s the Lord!” When Peter heard that, he put on his outer garment (for he had taken it off) and jumped into the water.

8 The other disciples followed in the boat, towing the net full of fish, for they were not far from shore, only about a hundred yards.

9 When they landed, they saw a fire of burning coals with fish on it, and some bread.

10 Jesus said, “Bring some of the fish you’ve just caught.”

11 So Simon Peter climbed back into the boat and dragged the net ashore. It was full of large fish—153 in total. But even with so many, the net was not torn.

12 Jesus said to them, “Come and have breakfast.” None of the disciples dared ask him, “Who are you?” They knew it was the Lord.

13 Jesus took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish.

14 This was now the third time Jesus appeared to his disciples after he was raised from the dead.

Jesus Restores Peter

15 After breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, “Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?”

“Yes, Lord,” he said, “you know that I love you.”

Jesus said, “Feed my lambs.”

16 Again Jesus asked, “Simon son of John, do you love me?”

“Yes, Lord, you know that I love you.”

Jesus said, “Take care of my sheep.”

17 The third time he said to him, “Simon son of John, do you love me?”

Peter was hurt because Jesus asked him the third time. He said, “Lord, you know everything. You know that I love you.”

Jesus said, “Feed my sheep.

18 Truly I tell you, when you were young, you dressed yourself and went where you wanted. But when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go.”

19 Jesus said this to show the kind of death by which Peter would glorify God. Then he said to him, “Follow me.”

The Question About John

20 Peter turned and saw the disciple Jesus loved was following them—the one who leaned back against Jesus at supper and asked, “Lord, who is going to betray you?”

21 When Peter saw him, he asked, “Lord, what about him?”

22 Jesus answered, “If I want him to remain alive until I return, what is that to you? You must follow me.”

23 Because of this, a rumor spread among the believers that this disciple would not die. But Jesus did not say he would not die; he only said, “If I want him to remain until I return, what is that to you?”

Closing Words

24 This disciple is the one who testifies to these things and who wrote them down. We know that his testimony is true.

25 Jesus did many other things as well. If every one of them were written down, I suppose the whole world would not have room for the books that would be written. Amen.

Key Lessons from John 21

- Jesus continues to meet his disciples where they are, even after the resurrection.
- The miraculous catch reminds us that success in ministry comes by obeying Jesus’ word.
- Peter’s threefold restoration shows Christ’s mercy—failure is not final with Jesus.
- Love for Christ is proven in caring for his people.
- Each disciple has a unique calling—our focus must be on following Jesus, not comparing ourselves to others.
- The Gospel ends by pointing to the unending works of Christ, which no book could fully contain.

Introduction to the Book of Acts

“But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you. And you will be my witnesses, telling people about me everywhere—in Jerusalem, throughout Judea, in Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.” – Acts 1:8

Title and Meaning

The book is traditionally titled “The Acts of the Apostles,” but it could also be called “The Acts of the Holy Spirit.” While it records the work of the apostles, the true focus is on the risen Christ working through the Spirit to establish His church and spread the gospel. It serves as a bridge between the Gospels and the Epistles, showing how the message of Jesus expanded from Jerusalem to the world.

Author and Date

Acts was written by Luke, the beloved physician and companion of Paul (Colossians 4:14). It is the second part of a two-volume work, following the Gospel of Luke (Luke 1:1–4; Acts 1:1). Both books are addressed to Theophilus, likely a patron or a symbolic title meaning “lover of God.” Acts was likely written around AD 62–64, since it ends with Paul under house arrest in Rome and makes no mention of his trial, later ministry, or martyrdom.

Purpose of Acts

Luke’s purpose in writing Acts is both historical and theological:

- To show how the gospel spread from Jerusalem to Rome, fulfilling Jesus’ commission (Acts 1:8).
 - To record the empowering work of the Holy Spirit in the life of the church.
 - To demonstrate the unity of Jews and Gentiles in Christ.
 - To provide an orderly account of the church’s growth despite opposition.
 - To encourage believers in every generation to carry on the mission of making disciples.

Structure of Acts

Acts follows the pattern of the gospel’s expansion:

📖 1. The Church in Jerusalem (Chs. 1–7)

The coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, the bold preaching of Peter, and the growth of the early church.

✠ 2. The Church in Judea and Samaria (Chs. 8–12)

Persecution scatters believers, Philip preaches in Samaria, Saul (Paul) is converted, and the gospel reaches Gentiles through Peter and Cornelius.

🌍 3. The Church to the Ends of the Earth (Chs. 13–28)

Paul’s missionary journeys, the spread of the gospel throughout the Roman Empire, and his final imprisonment in Rome.

Major Themes

- The Holy Spirit – The Spirit empowers, guides, and sustains the church.
 - The Mission of the Church – Believers are called to witness locally and globally.
 - Unity in Christ – Jews and Gentiles alike are brought into one body.
 - Boldness in Persecution – The church grows stronger despite opposition.
 - God’s Sovereignty – The spread of the gospel unfolds according to God’s plan.

Why Acts Matters Today

Acts shows us that the gospel is unstoppable. Despite trials, imprisonments, and opposition, the message of Jesus reached the heart of the Roman Empire. Today, Acts continues to inspire the church to live Spirit-filled lives, to carry the gospel across cultures, and to boldly proclaim Christ. It reminds us that the same Spirit who empowered Peter, Paul, and the early church empowers us today.

Key Verse

“But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you. And you will be my witnesses, telling people about me everywhere—in Jerusalem, throughout Judea, in Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.” – Acts 1:8

This verse captures the heart of Acts: Spirit-filled believers taking the message of Christ to the whole world.

Acts 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Ascension of Jesus and the Choosing of Matthias”

The Promise of the Holy Spirit

1 In my former book, Theophilus, I wrote about all that Jesus began to do and teach 2 until the day he was taken up to heaven, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles he had chosen.

3 After his suffering, he presented himself alive to them with many convincing proofs. He appeared to them over a period of forty days and spoke about the kingdom of God.

4 On one occasion, while he was eating with them, he gave this command: “Do not leave Jerusalem, but wait for the gift my Father promised, which you have heard me speak about.

5 For John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.”

The Ascension of Jesus

6 Then they gathered around him and asked, “Lord, are you going to restore the kingdom to Israel at this time?”

7 He replied, “It is not for you to know the times or dates the Father has set by his own authority.

8 But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.”

9 After he said this, he was taken up before their eyes, and a cloud hid him from their sight.

10 As they were looking intently into the sky as he was going, suddenly two men dressed in white stood beside them.

11 They said, “Men of Galilee, why do you stand here looking into the sky? This same Jesus, who has been taken from you into heaven, will come back in the same way you have seen him go into heaven.”

The Upper Room and Prayer

12 Then the apostles returned to Jerusalem from the Mount of Olives, a Sabbath day’s walk from the city.

13 When they arrived, they went upstairs to the room where they were staying. Those present were Peter, John, James, Andrew, Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew, Matthew, James son of Alphaeus, Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James.

14 They all joined together constantly in prayer, along with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and his brothers.

Choosing Matthias

15 In those days Peter stood up among the believers (a group numbering about a hundred and twenty) and said,

16 “Brothers, the Scripture had to be fulfilled which the Holy Spirit spoke long ago through David about Judas, who served as guide for those who arrested Jesus.

17 He was one of our number and shared in this ministry.”

18 (With the reward he got for his wickedness, Judas bought a field; there he fell headlong, his body burst open, and all his intestines spilled out.

19 Everyone in Jerusalem heard about this, so they called that field in their language Akeldama, that is, Field of Blood.)

20 “For,” said Peter, “it is written in the book of Psalms:

‘May his place be deserted; let there be no one to dwell in it,’

and,

‘May another take his place of leadership.’

21 Therefore it is necessary to choose one of the men who have been with us the whole time the Lord Jesus went in and out among us,

22 beginning from John’s baptism to the time when Jesus was taken up from us. For one of these must become a witness with us of his resurrection.”

23 So they nominated two men: Joseph called Barsabbas (also known as Justus) and Matthias.

24 Then they prayed, “Lord, you know everyone’s heart. Show us which of these two you have chosen 25 to take over this apostolic ministry, which Judas left to go where he belongs.”

26 Then they cast lots, and the lot fell to Matthias; so he was added to the eleven apostles.

Key Lessons from Acts 1

- Jesus’ work on earth did not end at the cross; he continued to teach and prove his resurrection for forty days.
- The Holy Spirit is God’s promised gift, empowering believers to be witnesses everywhere.
- Christ’s ascension guarantees his return—he will come again in glory.
- The early church was united in prayer as they waited for the Spirit.
- God raises up leaders to continue his mission, just as Matthias was chosen to replace Judas.

Acts 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Coming of the Holy Spirit and Peter’s Sermon”

The Holy Spirit Comes at Pentecost

1 On the day of Pentecost, all the believers were together in one place.

2 Suddenly, a sound came from heaven like a powerful, rushing wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting.

3 Then what looked like flames of fire appeared and settled on each one of them.

4 Everyone was filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages as the Spirit enabled them.

5 At that time, devout Jews from every nation under heaven were staying in Jerusalem.

6 When they heard this sound, a crowd gathered. They were amazed because each one heard the believers speaking in their own native language.

7 They were completely astonished. “Aren’t all these who are speaking Galileans?” they asked.

8 “Then how is it that each of us hears them in our own language where we were born?

9 Parthians, Medes, Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judea, Cappadocia, Pontus, and Asia,

10 Phrygia, Pamphylia, Egypt, the regions of Libya near Cyrene; visitors from Rome—both Jews and converts to Judaism—

11 Cretans and Arabs—we hear them declaring the wonderful works of God in our own languages!”

12 They were all amazed and puzzled. “What does this mean?” they asked one another.

13 But some made fun of them and said, “They’ve just had too much wine.”

Peter’s Bold Sermon

14 Then Peter stood up with the eleven, raised his voice, and addressed the crowd: “Fellow Jews, and all of you living in Jerusalem, listen carefully.

15 These people are not drunk, as you suppose. It’s only nine o’clock in the morning!

16 No, this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel:

17 ‘In the last days,’ God says,

‘I will pour out my Spirit on all people.

Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams.

18 Even on my servants, both men and women,

I will pour out my Spirit in those days,

and they will prophesy.

19 I will show wonders in the heavens above and signs on the earth below, blood and fire and clouds of smoke.

20 The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood

before the great and glorious day of the Lord comes.

21 And everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.’

22 People of Israel, listen! Jesus of Nazareth was a man approved by God to you by miracles, wonders, and signs, which God did among you through him, as you yourselves know.

23 This man was handed over to you by God’s plan and foreknowledge, and you, with the help of wicked men, nailed him to the cross and killed him.

24 But God raised him from the dead, freeing him from the power of death, because it was impossible for death to keep its hold on him.

25 David said about him:

‘I saw the Lord always before me.

Because he is at my right hand, I will not be shaken.

26 Therefore my heart is glad and my tongue rejoices;
my body also will rest in hope,

27 because you will not abandon me to the grave,
nor will you let your Holy One decay.

28 You have made known to me the paths of life;
you will fill me with joy in your presence.’

29 Brothers, I can tell you confidently that our ancestor David died and was buried, and his tomb is here to this day.

30 But he was a prophet and knew that God had promised him on oath that one of his descendants would sit on his throne.

31 Seeing what was to come, he spoke of the resurrection of the Messiah, that he was not abandoned to the grave, nor did his body see decay.

32 God has raised this Jesus to life, and we are all witnesses of it.

33 Now exalted to the right hand of God, he has received from the Father the promised Holy Spirit and has poured out what you now see and hear.

34 For David did not ascend into heaven, and yet he said:

‘The Lord said to my Lord:

“Sit at my right hand

35 until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet.”’

36 Therefore let all Israel be assured of this: God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord and Messiah.”

The Response and Growth of the Church

37 When the people heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and the other apostles, “Brothers, what should we do?”

38 Peter replied, “Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

39 This promise is for you and your children and for all who are far away—for all whom the Lord our God will call.”

40 With many other words he warned them and pleaded with them, “Save yourselves from this corrupt generation.”

41 Those who accepted his message were baptized, and about three thousand were added to their number that day.

42 They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer.

43 Everyone was filled with awe at the many wonders and signs performed by the apostles.

44 All the believers were together and shared everything they had.

45 They sold property and possessions to give to anyone who had need.

46 Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts,

47 praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved.

Key Lessons from Acts 2

- The Holy Spirit empowers believers to spread the Gospel to all nations.
- God's promise of the Spirit is for every generation that calls upon the name of the Lord.
- Repentance, baptism, and faith in Christ open the way for forgiveness and the Spirit's gift.
- The early church thrived in unity, generosity, prayer, and breaking bread together.
- Growth comes from the Spirit's power, not human effort—Jesus continues to add to his church daily.

Acts 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Healing at the Beautiful Gate and Peter’s Bold Preaching”

The Healing of the Lame Man

1 One day Peter and John were going up to the temple at the time of prayer—about three in the afternoon.

2 Now a man who had been lame from birth was being carried to the temple gate called Beautiful, where he was put every day to beg from those going into the temple courts.

3 When he saw Peter and John about to enter, he asked them for money.

4 Peter looked straight at him, as did John. Then Peter said, “Look at us!”

5 So the man gave them his attention, expecting to get something from them.

6 Then Peter said, “I don’t have silver or gold, but what I do have I give you: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk.”

7 Taking him by the right hand, he helped him up, and instantly the man’s feet and ankles became strong.

8 He jumped to his feet and began to walk. Then he went with them into the temple courts, walking and jumping, and praising God.

9 All the people saw him walking and praising God,

10 and they recognized him as the same man who used to sit begging at the temple gate called Beautiful, and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

Peter Speaks to the People

11 While the man held on to Peter and John, all the people were astonished and came running to them in the place called Solomon's Colonnade.

12 When Peter saw this, he said to them: "Fellow Israelites, why are you surprised? Why do you stare at us as if by our own power or godliness we made this man walk?"

13 The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob—the God of our fathers—has glorified his servant Jesus. You handed him over to be killed, and you disowned him before Pilate, even though Pilate had decided to let him go.

14 You disowned the Holy and Righteous One and asked that a murderer be released to you instead.

15 You killed the Author of life, but God raised him from the dead. We are witnesses of this.

16 By faith in the name of Jesus, this man whom you see and know was made strong. It is Jesus' name and the faith that comes through him that has completely healed him, as you can all see.

The Call to Repentance

17 "Now, fellow Israelites, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did your leaders.

18 But this is how God fulfilled what he foretold through all the prophets, saying that the Messiah would suffer.

19 Repent, then, and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped out, that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord,

20 and that he may send the Messiah, who has been appointed for you—even Jesus.

21 Heaven must receive him until the time comes for God to restore everything, as he promised long ago through his holy prophets.

22 For Moses said, 'The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own people; you must listen to everything he tells you.

23 Anyone who does not listen to him will be completely cut off from their people.'

24 Indeed, all the prophets from Samuel on, as many as have spoken, have foretold these days.

25 And you are heirs of the prophets and of the covenant God made with your fathers. He said to Abraham, 'Through your offspring all peoples on earth will be blessed.'

26 When God raised up his servant Jesus, he sent him first to you to bless you by turning each of you from your wicked ways."

Key Lessons from Acts 3

- The true riches of the gospel are greater than silver or gold—Jesus brings healing and new life.
- Miracles are not for man’s glory, but to point people to Christ.
- Faith in the name of Jesus brings restoration and power.
- God calls all people to repent so that their sins may be blotted out and times of refreshing may come from him.
- Jesus is the promised Prophet and Messiah, foretold by Moses and all the prophets.
- God’s blessing through Christ is not just for Israel but for all nations.

Acts 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Boldness Before the Sanhedrin and Unity in the Church”

Peter and John Before the Council

1 While Peter and John were speaking to the people, the priests, the captain of the temple guard, and the Sadducees came up to them,

2 greatly disturbed because they were teaching the people and proclaiming in Jesus the resurrection of the dead.

3 They seized them and put them in jail until the next day, since it was already evening.

4 But many who heard the message believed; and the number of men grew to about five thousand.

5 The next day the rulers, elders, and teachers of the law met in Jerusalem.

6 Annas the high priest was there, along with Caiaphas, John, Alexander, and others of the high priest’s family.

7 They had Peter and John brought before them and began to question them: “By what power or what name did you do this?”

8 Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them: “Rulers and elders of the people!

9 If we are being called to account today for an act of kindness shown to a man who was lame and are being asked how he was healed,

10 then know this—you and all the people of Israel: It is by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified but whom God raised from the dead, that this man stands before you healed.

11 Jesus is ‘the stone you builders rejected, which has become the cornerstone.’

12 Salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to mankind by which we must be saved.”

The Boldness of the Apostles

13 When they saw the courage of Peter and John and realized that they were unschooled, ordinary men, they were astonished and took note that these men had been with Jesus.

14 But since they could see the man who had been healed standing there with them, there was nothing they could say.

15 So they ordered them to withdraw from the Sanhedrin and then conferred together.

16 “What are we going to do with these men?” they asked. “Everyone living in Jerusalem knows they have performed a remarkable sign, and we cannot deny it.

17 But to stop this thing from spreading any further among the people, we must warn them to speak no longer to anyone in this name.”

18 Then they called them in again and commanded them not to speak or teach at all in the name of Jesus.

19 But Peter and John replied, “Which is right in God’s eyes: to listen to you, or to him? You be the judges!

20 As for us, we cannot help speaking about what we have seen and heard.”

21 After further threats they let them go. They could not decide how to punish them, because all the people were praising God for what had happened.

22 For the man who was miraculously healed was over forty years old.

The Believers Pray for Boldness

23 On their release, Peter and John went back to their own people and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said to them.

24 When they heard this, they raised their voices together in prayer to God. “Sovereign Lord,” they said, “you made the heavens and the earth and the sea, and everything in them.

25 You spoke by the Holy Spirit through the mouth of your servant, our father David:

‘Why do the nations rage and the peoples plot in vain?

26 The kings of the earth rise up and the rulers band together against the Lord and against his Anointed One.’

27 Indeed, Herod and Pontius Pilate met together with the Gentiles and the people of Israel in this city to conspire against your holy servant Jesus, whom you anointed.

28 They did what your power and will had decided beforehand should happen.

29 Now, Lord, consider their threats and enable your servants to speak your word with great boldness.

30 Stretch out your hand to heal and perform signs and wonders through the name of your holy servant Jesus.”

31 After they prayed, the place where they were meeting was shaken. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke the word of God boldly.

The Believers Share Everything

32 All the believers were one in heart and mind. No one claimed that any of their possessions was their own, but they shared everything they had.

33 With great power the apostles continued to testify to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. And God's grace was so powerfully at work in them all

34 that there were no needy persons among them. For from time to time those who owned land or houses sold them, brought the money from the sales, 35 and put it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to anyone who had need.

36 Joseph, a Levite from Cyprus, whom the apostles called Barnabas (which means "son of encouragement"), 37 sold a field he owned and brought the money and put it at the apostles' feet.

Key Lessons from Acts 4

- The resurrection of Jesus is central to the gospel message.
- Salvation is found in Christ alone—there is no other way to God.
- Ordinary people, filled with the Holy Spirit, can speak with extraordinary boldness.
- God's people are called to obey Him rather than men when the two are in conflict.
- Prayer brings power, boldness, and unity to the church.
- True Christian community shares generously so that no one is in need.
- Encouragers like Barnabas play a key role in strengthening the body of Christ.

Acts 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Fear in the Church, Power in the Spirit, Boldness Before Men”

The Sin of Ananias and Sapphira

1 A man named Ananias, with his wife Sapphira, sold a piece of land.

2 But he kept back part of the money for himself, with his wife's full knowledge. He brought only part of it and laid it at the apostles' feet.

3 Then Peter said, “Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and keep part of the money for yourself?”

4 Wasn't the land yours before it was sold? And after it was sold, wasn't the money at your disposal? How could you do such a thing? You haven't lied to men but to God."

5 When Ananias heard this, he fell down and died. Great fear seized everyone who heard about it.

6 The young men came, wrapped up his body, carried him out, and buried him.

7 About three hours later his wife came in, not knowing what had happened.

8 Peter asked her, "Tell me, is this the price you and Ananias got for the land?"

"Yes," she said, "that's the price."

9 Peter said, "How could you agree together to test the Spirit of the Lord? The men who buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out also."

10 At that moment she fell down at his feet and died. The young men came in, found her dead, and carried her out to be buried beside her husband.

11 Great fear seized the whole church and everyone who heard about these events.

Signs and Wonders Among the People

12 The apostles performed many miraculous signs and wonders among the people. All the believers used to meet together in Solomon's Porch.

13 No one else dared join them, even though the people held them in high regard.

14 Nevertheless, more and more men and women believed in the Lord and were added to their number.

15 People brought the sick into the streets and laid them on beds and mats so that Peter's shadow might fall on some of them as he passed by.

16 Crowds gathered from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing the sick and those tormented by evil spirits, and all of them were healed.

The Apostles Arrested and Freed

17 Then the high priest and his associates, who were Sadducees, were filled with jealousy.

18 They arrested the apostles and put them in the public jail.

19 But during the night an angel of the Lord opened the doors of the jail and brought them out.

20 The angel said, "Go, stand in the temple courts, and tell the people all about this new life."

21 At daybreak they entered the temple courts, as they had been told, and began to teach the people.

When the high priest and his companions arrived, they called together the Sanhedrin, the full assembly of Israel's elders, and sent for the apostles to be brought from the jail.

22 But when the officers arrived at the jail, they did not find them there. They returned and reported,

23 "We found the jail securely locked, with the guards standing at the doors; but when we opened them, we found no one inside."

24 On hearing this, the captain of the temple guard and the chief priests were puzzled, wondering what would come of this.

25 Then someone came and said, “Look! The men you put in jail are standing in the temple courts teaching the people.”

26 At that, the captain went with his officers and brought the apostles, but without violence, for they feared the people would stone them.

The Apostles Before the Sanhedrin

27 The apostles were brought in and made to appear before the Sanhedrin to be questioned by the high priest.

28 He said, “We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name. Yet you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and are determined to make us guilty of this man’s blood.”

29 Peter and the other apostles replied: “We must obey God rather than men!

30 The God of our ancestors raised Jesus from the dead—whom you killed by hanging him on a cross.

31 God exalted him to his own right hand as Prince and Savior, that he might give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins.

32 We are witnesses of these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him.”

33 When they heard this, they were furious and wanted to put them to death.

34 But a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law who was honored by all the people, stood up in the Sanhedrin and ordered the men be put outside for a little while.

35 Then he addressed the assembly: “Men of Israel, consider carefully what you intend to do to these men.

36 Some time ago Theudas appeared, claiming to be somebody, and about four hundred men rallied to him. He was killed, all his followers dispersed, and it all came to nothing.

37 After him, Judas the Galilean appeared in the days of the census and led a band of people in revolt. He too was killed, and all his followers scattered.

38 Therefore, in the present case I advise you: Leave these men alone! Let them go! For if their purpose or activity is of human origin, it will fail.

39 But if it is from God, you will not be able to stop these men; you will only find yourselves fighting against God.”

40 His speech persuaded them. They called the apostles in and had them beaten. Then they ordered them not to speak in the name of Jesus and let them go.

Rejoicing in Suffering

41 The apostles left the Sanhedrin rejoicing because they had been counted worthy of suffering disgrace for the Name.

42 Day after day, in the temple courts and from house to house, they never stopped teaching and proclaiming the good news that Jesus is the Christ.

Key Lessons from Acts 5

- God sees the heart, and dishonesty in spiritual matters brings serious consequences.
- Fear of the Lord purifies the church and reminds believers of His holiness.
- The power of the Spirit brings miracles, healing, and bold witness.
- True disciples obey God rather than men, even when threatened.
- Opposition cannot stop the work of God—it only strengthens it.
- Suffering for Christ is not shameful but a cause for joy and honor.
- The gospel cannot be silenced, for it is the power of God at work in the world.

Acts 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Choosing of the Seven and the Rise of Stephen”

The Complaint of the Grecians

1 In those days, as the number of disciples kept growing, some Greek-speaking believers began complaining against the Hebrew-speaking believers. They said their widows were being overlooked in the daily distribution of food.

2 So the twelve apostles gathered all the disciples together and said, “It is not right for us to neglect preaching the word of God in order to wait on tables.

3 Brothers, choose seven men from among you who are respected, full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom. We will turn this responsibility over to them,

4 and we will give our attention to prayer and the ministry of the word.”

The Choosing of the Seven

5 This plan pleased the whole group. They chose Stephen, a man full of faith and the Holy Spirit; also Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolas from Antioch, who had become a follower of Judaism.

6 They presented these men to the apostles, who prayed and laid their hands on them.

7 The word of God spread, and the number of disciples in Jerusalem grew rapidly. Even a large number of priests became obedient to the faith.

Stephen's Ministry and Opposition

8 Now Stephen, full of God's grace and power, performed great wonders and miraculous signs among the people.

9 Opposition arose, however, from members of the Synagogue of the Freedmen—as it was called—Jews from Cyrene and Alexandria, as well as from Cilicia and Asia. They began to argue with Stephen.

10 But they could not stand up against the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spoke.

False Accusations Against Stephen

11 Then they secretly persuaded some men to say, "We have heard Stephen speak blasphemous words against Moses and against God."

12 So they stirred up the people, the elders, and the teachers of the law. They seized Stephen and brought him before the Sanhedrin.

13 They produced false witnesses, who testified, "This man never stops speaking against this holy place and against the law.

14 We have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place and change the customs Moses handed down to us."

15 Everyone who was sitting in the Sanhedrin looked intently at Stephen, and they saw that his face was like the face of an angel.

Key Lessons from Acts 6

- The church must deal with problems of fairness and unity quickly and wisely.
- God calls both preachers and servants—each role is vital in His work.
- Stephen shows us that a life full of the Spirit, wisdom, and faith is powerful and unstoppable.
- Opposition often rises when truth and light shine brightly.
- False accusations cannot change the truth, and God gives His servants peace and radiance in the face of persecution.

Acts 7 – Crawford Standard Bible

"Stephen's Speech and Martyrdom"

Stephen Before the Council

1 Then the high priest asked Stephen, "Are these things true?"

2 Stephen replied, “Brothers and fathers, listen to me. The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was still in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran.

3 God said, ‘Leave your country and your relatives, and go to the land I will show you.’

4 So Abraham left the land of the Chaldeans and settled in Haran. After his father died, God brought him to this land where you now live.

5 God gave him no inheritance here, not even enough ground to put his foot on. But He promised to give it to him and to his descendants, even though Abraham had no child at the time.

6 God told him, ‘Your descendants will be strangers in a foreign land, where they will be enslaved and mistreated for four hundred years.

7 But I will judge the nation that enslaves them, and afterward they will come out and worship Me in this place.’

8 Then God gave Abraham the covenant of circumcision. So Abraham became the father of Isaac, and circumcised him on the eighth day. Isaac became the father of Jacob, and Jacob the father of the twelve patriarchs.”

Joseph in Egypt

9 “The patriarchs were jealous of Joseph, so they sold him into slavery in Egypt. But God was with him,

10 and rescued him from all his troubles. God gave Joseph wisdom and favor before Pharaoh, king of Egypt, who made him governor over Egypt and all his household.

11 Then a famine struck Egypt and Canaan, bringing great suffering. Our fathers could find no food.

12 But when Jacob heard there was grain in Egypt, he sent our fathers there the first time.

13 On their second visit, Joseph revealed himself to his brothers, and Pharaoh came to know Joseph’s family.

14 Joseph sent for his father Jacob and his whole family—seventy-five in all.

15 Jacob went down to Egypt, where he and our fathers died.

16 Their bodies were later carried back to Shechem and laid in the tomb Abraham had bought.”

The Birth and Call of Moses

17 “As the time for God’s promise to Abraham drew near, the people increased greatly in Egypt.

18 Then another king arose who did not know Joseph.

19 He treated our ancestors harshly, forcing them to abandon their newborn babies so they would die.

20 At that time Moses was born, and he was no ordinary child. For three months he was cared for in his father’s house.

21 When he was left outside, Pharaoh’s daughter took him and raised him as her own son.

22 Moses was educated in all the wisdom of the Egyptians and was powerful in speech and action.

23 When Moses was forty years old, he decided to visit his fellow Israelites.

24 He saw one of them being mistreated, so he defended him and killed the Egyptian.

25 Moses thought his people would realize God was using him to rescue them, but they did not understand.

26 The next day he came upon two Israelites fighting. He tried to make peace between them, saying, ‘Men, you are brothers; why do you hurt each other?’

27 But the man who was mistreating the other pushed Moses aside and said, ‘Who made you ruler and judge over us?’

28 Do you want to kill me as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?’

29 When Moses heard this, he fled to Midian, where he lived as a foreigner and had two sons.”

The Burning Bush and Deliverance

30 “After forty years, an angel appeared to Moses in the flames of a burning bush in the desert near Mount Sinai.

31 When Moses saw it, he was amazed, and as he went closer to look, he heard the voice of the Lord:

32 ‘I am the God of your fathers—the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.’ Moses trembled with fear and did not dare to look.

33 Then the Lord said to him, ‘Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy ground.

34 I have seen the oppression of My people in Egypt, I have heard their groaning, and I have come down to rescue them. Now go, I am sending you back to Egypt.’

35 This same Moses they had rejected with the words, ‘Who made you ruler and judge?’—God sent him to be their ruler and deliverer, with the help of the angel who appeared to him in the bush.

36 He led them out of Egypt, performing wonders and signs in Egypt, at the Red Sea, and in the wilderness for forty years.”

Israel’s Rebellion

37 “This is the same Moses who told the Israelites, ‘God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own people.’

38 He was with the assembly in the wilderness, with the angel who spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and with our ancestors. He received the living words to pass on to us.

39 But our fathers refused to obey him. Instead, they rejected him and in their hearts turned back to Egypt.

40 They told Aaron, ‘Make us gods to go before us. As for this Moses who led us out of Egypt, we don’t know what has happened to him.’

41 So they made an idol in the form of a calf. They brought sacrifices to it and celebrated what their hands had made.

42 But God turned away from them and let them worship the sun, moon, and stars. This agrees with what is written in the prophets:

‘Did you bring me sacrifices and offerings
forty years in the wilderness, people of Israel?

43 You have taken up the tabernacle of Molek and the star of your god Rephan, idols you made to worship.

Therefore I will send you into exile beyond Babylon.’”

The Temple and the Presence of God

44 “Our ancestors had the tabernacle of the covenant law with them in the wilderness. It had been made as God directed Moses, according to the pattern he had seen.

45 After receiving the tabernacle, our ancestors brought it with Joshua when they took the land from the nations God drove out before them. It remained until the time of David,

46 who enjoyed God’s favor and asked that he might provide a dwelling place for the God of Jacob.

47 But it was Solomon who built a house for him.

48 However, the Most High does not live in houses made by human hands. As the prophet says:

49 ‘Heaven is my throne,
and the earth is my footstool.

What kind of house will you build for me? says the Lord.

Or where will my resting place be?

50 Has not my hand made all these things?’”

Stephen Accuses the Sanhedrin

51 “You stiff-necked people! Your hearts and ears are still uncircumcised. You always resist the Holy Spirit—just as your ancestors did.

52 Was there ever a prophet your ancestors did not persecute? They even killed those who predicted the coming of the Righteous One. And now you have betrayed and murdered Him—

53 you who received the law that was given through angels but have not obeyed it.”

The Stoning of Stephen

54 When the members of the Sanhedrin heard this, they were furious and gnashed their teeth at him.

55 But Stephen, full of the Holy Spirit, looked up to heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God.

56 “Look,” he said, “I see heaven open and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God.”

57 At this they covered their ears and shouted loudly. They all rushed at him,
58 dragged him out of the city, and began to stone him. The witnesses laid their coats at the feet of a young man named Saul.

59 While they were stoning him, Stephen prayed, “Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.”
60 Then he fell on his knees and cried out, “Lord, do not hold this sin against them.” When he had said this, he fell asleep.

Key Lessons from Acts 7

- God’s plan has unfolded through history—through Abraham, Joseph, Moses, and the prophets—pointing to Jesus as the Savior.
- God’s people often resisted His messengers, but His purposes still stood.
- The presence of God is not limited to temples or buildings—He dwells with His people by His Spirit.
- Stephen shows incredible courage, speaking the truth even when it cost him his life.
- His final prayer, like Jesus on the cross, teaches us to forgive our enemies and entrust our souls to the Lord.

“The Gospel Spreads Beyond Jerusalem”

Persecution Scatters the Church

1 Saul agreed with the killing of Stephen. On that very day, a great persecution broke out against the church in Jerusalem. Everyone except the apostles was scattered throughout Judea and Samaria.

2 Godly men buried Stephen and mourned deeply for him.

3 But Saul began destroying the church. He went from house to house, dragging out men and women and throwing them into prison.

Philip Preaches in Samaria

4 Those who were scattered went everywhere, preaching the word.

5 Philip went to a city in Samaria and proclaimed Christ there.

6 Crowds paid close attention to what he said when they heard him and saw the miracles he performed.

7 Many evil spirits came out of people, screaming loudly, and many who were paralyzed or lame were healed.

8 So there was great joy in that city.

Simon the Sorcerer

9 In that city there was a man named Simon, who had practiced sorcery and amazed the people of Samaria. He claimed to be someone great,

10 and all the people, from the least to the greatest, said, “This man is the great power of God.”

11 They followed him because he had amazed them with his magic for a long time.

12 But when Philip preached the good news of the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, many men and women believed and were baptized.

13 Simon himself believed and was baptized. He followed Philip everywhere, amazed by the great signs and miracles he saw.

Peter and John in Samaria

14 When the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had accepted the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them.

15 When they arrived, they prayed for the new believers to receive the Holy Spirit, 16 because the Holy Spirit had not yet come upon them. They had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

17 Then Peter and John laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

18 When Simon saw that the Spirit was given through the apostles’ hands, he offered them money, 19 saying, “Give me this power also so that everyone I lay hands on may receive the Holy Spirit.”

20 But Peter said, “May your money perish with you, because you thought you could buy the gift of God!

21 You have no part or share in this ministry, because your heart is not right before God.

22 Repent of your wickedness and pray to the Lord. Perhaps He will forgive you.

23 I see that you are full of bitterness and trapped in sin.”

24 Then Simon answered, “Pray to the Lord for me, so that none of these things will happen to me.”

25 After Peter and John had testified and preached the word of the Lord, they returned to Jerusalem, preaching the gospel in many Samaritan villages along the way.

Philip and the Ethiopian Eunuch

26 Then an angel of the Lord said to Philip, “Go south to the road—the desert road—that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza.”

27 So he started out, and on the way he met an Ethiopian eunuch, a high official under Candace, queen of the Ethiopians. He was in charge of all her treasury. He had gone to Jerusalem to worship, 28 and on his way home was sitting in his chariot reading the prophet Isaiah.

29 The Spirit told Philip, “Go to that chariot and stay near it.”

30 Philip ran up and heard the man reading Isaiah the prophet. Philip asked, “Do you understand what you are reading?”

31 The eunuch replied, “How can I, unless someone explains it to me?” So he invited Philip to come up and sit with him.

32 The passage of Scripture he was reading was this:

“He was led like a sheep to the slaughter, and as a lamb before its shearer is silent,
so he did not open his mouth.

33 In his humiliation he was deprived of justice.

Who can speak of his descendants?

For his life was taken from the earth.”

34 The eunuch asked Philip, “Tell me, please, who is the prophet talking about—himself or someone else?”

35 Then Philip began with that very passage of Scripture and told him the good news about Jesus.

36 As they traveled along the road, they came to some water, and the eunuch said, “Look, here is water. What would stop me from being baptized?”

37 Philip said, “If you believe with all your heart, you may.” The eunuch answered, “I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.”

38 He ordered the chariot to stop, and both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water, and Philip baptized him.

39 When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord suddenly took Philip away. The eunuch did not see him again but went on his way rejoicing.

40 Philip, however, appeared at Azotus and traveled about, preaching the gospel in all the towns until he reached Caesarea.

Key Lessons from Acts 8

- Persecution scatters God’s people, but it cannot stop the spread of the gospel—it often multiplies it.
- The gospel breaks cultural and spiritual barriers, reaching Samaria and beyond.
- God’s gifts cannot be bought or earned; they come only by His grace.
- Scripture finds its fulfillment in Jesus Christ—He is the Lamb who was slain.
- Baptism follows genuine faith in Christ as a public declaration of belief.
- The Spirit directs God’s servants in unexpected ways to reach people prepared by God.

Acts 9 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Saul’s Conversion and Peter’s Miracles”

Saul’s Encounter with Jesus

1 Saul was still breathing threats of murder against the Lord’s disciples. He went to the high priest
2 and asked for letters to the synagogues in Damascus so that if he found anyone following “the Way,” men or women, he could arrest them and bring them to Jerusalem.

3 As he neared Damascus, suddenly a bright light from heaven shone around him.

4 He fell to the ground and heard a voice say, “Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?”

5 He asked, “Who are you, Lord?” The voice replied, “I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. It is useless for you to resist Me.”

6 Trembling and amazed, Saul said, “Lord, what do You want me to do?” The Lord said, “Get up and go into the city, and you will be told what to do.”

7 The men traveling with Saul stood speechless; they heard the voice but saw no one.

8 Saul got up from the ground, but when he opened his eyes, he couldn’t see. They led him by the hand into Damascus.

9 For three days he was blind and did not eat or drink.

Ananias is Sent to Saul

10 In Damascus, there was a disciple named Ananias. The Lord spoke to him in a vision, “Ananias.”
He answered, “Here I am, Lord.”

11 The Lord said, “Go to Straight Street, to the house of Judas, and ask for Saul of Tarsus. He is praying.

12 He has seen in a vision a man named Ananias come and lay hands on him to restore his sight.”

13 Ananias replied, “Lord, I have heard about this man and all the harm he has done to Your saints in Jerusalem.

14 He has authority here from the chief priests to arrest all who call on Your name.”

15 But the Lord said, “Go, for he is My chosen instrument to carry My name to the Gentiles, their kings, and the people of Israel.

16 I will show him how much he must suffer for My name’s sake.”

17 So Ananias went and entered the house. He placed his hands on Saul and said, “Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on the road, has sent me so you may regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit.”

18 Immediately, something like scales fell from Saul’s eyes, and he could see again. He got up and was baptized.

19 After eating, he regained his strength and spent some time with the disciples in Damascus.

Saul Preaches Christ

20 Right away, Saul began preaching in the synagogues that Jesus is the Son of God.

21 Everyone who heard him was amazed, saying, “Isn’t this the man who destroyed those who called on this name in Jerusalem? Didn’t he come here to arrest them?”

22 But Saul grew more powerful and confounded the Jews in Damascus by proving that Jesus is the Messiah.

23 After many days, the Jews plotted to kill him.

24 But Saul learned of their plan. They watched the city gates day and night to kill him, 25 but the disciples took him by night and lowered him in a basket through the city wall.

Saul Visits Jerusalem

26 When Saul arrived in Jerusalem, he tried to join the disciples, but they were afraid of him, not believing he was truly a disciple.

27 But Barnabas took him to the apostles and told them how Saul had seen the Lord on the road and how he had preached boldly in Damascus in Jesus’ name.

28 So Saul stayed with them, moving freely in Jerusalem, speaking boldly in the Lord’s name.

29 He debated with Greek-speaking Jews, but they tried to kill him.

30 When the believers learned of this, they took him to Caesarea and sent him off to Tarsus.

31 Then the church throughout Judea, Galilee, and Samaria enjoyed peace. It was strengthened and encouraged by the Holy Spirit, living in the fear of the Lord, and grew in numbers.

Peter Heals Aeneas

32 As Peter traveled through the region, he came to the believers in Lydda.

33 There he found a man named Aeneas, who had been paralyzed and bedridden for eight years.

34 Peter said, “Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you. Get up and make your bed.” Immediately he got up.

35 All those who lived in Lydda and Sharon saw him and turned to the Lord.

Peter Raises Tabitha (Dorcas)

36 In Joppa there was a disciple named Tabitha (in Greek her name is Dorcas). She was always doing good and helping the poor.

37 About that time, she became sick and died. They washed her body and laid her in an upstairs room.

38 Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples heard that Peter was there and sent two men urging him, “Please come at once!”

39 Peter went with them. When he arrived, they took him upstairs. All the widows stood around him crying and showing him the clothes Dorcas had made while she was alive.

40 Peter sent them all out, knelt down and prayed. Then he turned to the body and said, “Tabitha, get up.” She opened her eyes, saw Peter, and sat up.

41 He took her by the hand, helped her to her feet, and presented her alive to the believers and widows.

42 This became known all over Joppa, and many people believed in the Lord.

43 Peter stayed in Joppa for many days with a man named Simon, a tanner.

Key Lessons from Acts 9

- No one is beyond God’s reach—Saul the persecutor became Paul the apostle.
- God often calls unlikely people for His greatest purposes.
- Transformation in Christ is immediate but also tested by others’ doubt.
- The Holy Spirit empowers believers to preach boldly even in the face of danger.
- God works through ordinary believers like Ananias and Barnabas to advance His plan.
- Jesus’ power heals the sick and even raises the dead, confirming His Lordship.

Acts 10 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Gospel Comes to the Gentiles”

Cornelius’ Vision

1 In Caesarea there was a man named Cornelius, a centurion of the Italian Regiment.

2 He was a devout man who feared God, along with his whole household. He gave generously to those in need and prayed to God regularly.

3 One afternoon about three o’clock, he saw clearly in a vision an angel of God who came to him and said, “Cornelius!”

4 Cornelius stared at him in fear and asked, “What is it, Lord?” The angel replied, “Your prayers and gifts to the poor have been noticed by God.

5 Now send men to Joppa to bring back Simon who is called Peter.

6 He is staying with Simon the tanner, whose house is by the sea.”

7 When the angel left, Cornelius called two servants and a devout soldier who attended him.

8 After explaining everything, he sent them to Joppa.

Peter's Vision

9 The next day, as they approached the city, Peter went up on the roof to pray around noon.

10 He became very hungry and wanted to eat, but while the meal was being prepared, he fell into a trance.

11 He saw heaven opened and something like a large sheet being let down to earth by its four corners.

12 Inside were all kinds of animals, reptiles, and birds.

13 Then a voice said, "Get up, Peter. Kill and eat."

14 Peter replied, "No, Lord! I have never eaten anything impure or unclean."

15 The voice spoke again, "Do not call anything impure that God has made clean."

16 This happened three times, and then the sheet was taken back into heaven.

17 While Peter was wondering about the meaning of the vision, the men sent by Cornelius found Simon's house and stopped at the gate.

18 They called out, asking if Simon called Peter was staying there.

19 While Peter was still thinking about the vision, the Spirit told him, "Three men are looking for you.

20 Get up, go downstairs, and go with them without hesitation, for I have sent them."

Peter Meets Cornelius

21 Peter went down and said to the men, "I am the one you are looking for. Why have you come?"

22 They answered, "Cornelius the centurion, a righteous and God-fearing man respected by all the Jewish people, was instructed by a holy angel to send for you so he could hear your message."

23 Peter invited them in as his guests. The next day he went with them, and some believers from Joppa went along.

24 The following day they arrived in Caesarea. Cornelius was expecting them and had gathered his relatives and close friends.

25 When Peter entered, Cornelius met him and fell at his feet in reverence.

26 But Peter lifted him up, saying, "Stand up; I am only a man myself."

27 While talking with him, Peter went inside and found a large gathering of people.

28 He said, "You are well aware that it is against Jewish law for me to associate with or visit a Gentile. But God has shown me that I should not call anyone impure or unclean.

29 That is why I came without objection when I was sent for. May I ask why you sent for me?"

Cornelius Explains His Vision

30 Cornelius answered, "Four days ago at this hour I was praying in my house, when suddenly a man in shining clothes stood before me

31 and said, 'Cornelius, your prayer has been heard, and your gifts to the poor remembered by God.

32 Send to Joppa for Simon called Peter, who is staying with Simon the tanner by the sea.'

33 So I sent for you immediately, and it was good of you to come. Now we are all here in the presence of God to listen to everything the Lord has commanded you to tell us.”

Peter’s Message to the Gentiles

34 Then Peter began to speak: “I now realize that God does not show favoritism,

35 but accepts from every nation those who fear Him and do what is right.

36 This is the message God sent to Israel, announcing the good news of peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all.

37 You know what happened throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism John preached—

38 how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power, and how He went around doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with Him.

39 We are witnesses of everything He did in Judea and Jerusalem. They killed Him by hanging Him on a cross, 40 but God raised Him from the dead on the third day and caused Him to be seen.

41 He was not seen by all the people, but by witnesses God had already chosen—by us who ate and drank with Him after He rose from the dead.

42 He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that He is the one whom God appointed as Judge of the living and the dead.

43 All the prophets testify about Him that everyone who believes in Him receives forgiveness of sins through His name.”

The Holy Spirit Falls on the Gentiles

44 While Peter was still speaking, the Holy Spirit came on all who heard the message.

45 The Jewish believers who had come with Peter were amazed that the gift of the Holy Spirit was poured out even on the Gentiles.

46 For they heard them speaking in tongues and praising God. Then Peter said,

47 “Surely no one can refuse water for these people to be baptized. They have received the Holy Spirit just as we have.”

48 So he ordered that they be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked Peter to stay with them for a few days.

Key Lessons from Acts 10

- God hears the prayers of those who sincerely seek Him.
- Salvation and the Holy Spirit are not limited by nationality or tradition.
- The gospel breaks down barriers between Jew and Gentile.

- Forgiveness of sins comes only through faith in Jesus' name.
- The Holy Spirit confirms God's work by falling on all who believe, Jew and Gentile alike.

Acts 11 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Gospel Spreads to the Gentiles”

Peter Explains His Actions

1 The apostles and believers throughout Judea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.

2 When Peter went back to Jerusalem, some of the Jewish believers criticized him.

3 They said, “You went into the house of uncircumcised men and ate with them.”

4 Peter explained everything to them in order, saying,

5 “I was in Joppa praying, and in a vision I saw something like a large sheet being let down from heaven by its four corners.

6 Inside were all kinds of animals, wild beasts, reptiles, and birds.

7 Then I heard a voice say to me, ‘Get up, Peter. Kill and eat.’

8 But I replied, ‘No, Lord! Nothing impure or unclean has ever entered my mouth.’

9 The voice spoke again from heaven: ‘Do not call anything impure that God has made clean.’

10 This happened three times, and then it was all pulled back up into heaven.

11 Just then three men came to the house where I was staying. They had been sent from Caesarea.

12 The Spirit told me to go with them without hesitation. These six brothers went with me, and we entered the man's house.

13 He told us how he had seen an angel in his house who said, ‘Send to Joppa for Simon called Peter.

14 He will bring you a message through which you and your household will be saved.’

15 As I began to speak, the Holy Spirit came on them just as He had come on us at the beginning.

16 Then I remembered what the Lord said: ‘John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.’

17 So if God gave them the same gift He gave us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I to stand in God's way?”

18 When they heard this, they stopped arguing and praised God, saying, “So then, God has granted even to the Gentiles repentance that leads to life.”

The Church at Antioch

19 Meanwhile, those who had been scattered by the persecution when Stephen was killed traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch. They spoke the word only to Jews.

20 But some believers from Cyprus and Cyrene went to Antioch and began to speak to Greeks also, telling them the good news about the Lord Jesus.

21 The Lord's hand was with them, and a large number of people believed and turned to the Lord.

22 News of this reached the church in Jerusalem, so they sent Barnabas to Antioch.

23 When he arrived and saw the grace of God at work, he was glad and encouraged them all to remain true to the Lord with all their hearts.

24 Barnabas was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and faith, and many people were brought to the Lord.

25 Then Barnabas went to Tarsus to look for Saul.

26 When he found him, he brought him to Antioch. For a whole year they met with the church and taught many people. The disciples were first called Christians at Antioch.

Prophecy of a Famine

27 During this time, some prophets came from Jerusalem to Antioch.

28 One of them, named Agabus, stood up and predicted through the Spirit that a severe famine would spread over the entire Roman world. (This happened during the reign of Claudius.)

29 The disciples, each according to their ability, decided to provide help for the believers living in Judea.

30 They did this, sending their gift to the elders by Barnabas and Saul.

Key Lessons from Acts 11

- God's salvation is for all people, Jew and Gentile alike.
- The Holy Spirit is the ultimate proof of God's acceptance.
- Encouragement and teaching strengthen new believers.
- Christians are called to generosity and mutual support, especially in times of crisis.
- The term "Christian" first appeared in Antioch, showing how the followers of Jesus became recognized as a distinct people.

Acts 12 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God Delivers, But Herod Falls”

James Killed, Peter Imprisoned

1 About this time King Herod violently attacked some who belonged to the church.

2 He had James, the brother of John, put to death with the sword.

3 When he saw that this pleased the Jews, he arrested Peter also. (This happened during the Feast of Unleavened Bread.)

4 After arresting him, he put him in prison, guarded by four squads of soldiers. He intended to bring him out for public trial after the Passover.

5 So Peter was kept in prison, but the church was earnestly praying to God for him.

Peter Rescued by an Angel

6 The night before Herod was to bring him to trial, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, while guards stood at the entrance.

7 Suddenly, an angel of the Lord appeared, and a light shone in the cell. The angel struck Peter on the side and woke him, saying, “Get up quickly!” And the chains fell off his wrists.

8 The angel said, “Put on your clothes and sandals.” Peter did so. Then the angel said, “Wrap your cloak around you and follow me.”

9 Peter followed him out, but he didn’t realize it was really happening; he thought he was seeing a vision.

10 They passed the first and second guards and came to the iron gate leading to the city. It opened for them by itself, and they went through it. They walked down one street, and then the angel left him.

11 When Peter realized what had happened, he said, “Now I know without a doubt that the Lord sent his angel and rescued me from Herod’s hand and from everything the Jewish people were hoping would happen.”

Peter Visits the Believers

12 When this dawned on him, he went to the house of Mary, the mother of John Mark, where many were gathered and praying.

13 Peter knocked at the outer entrance, and a servant girl named Rhoda came to answer the door.

14 When she recognized Peter’s voice, she was so overjoyed that she ran back without opening it and exclaimed, “Peter is at the door!”

15 They told her, “You’re out of your mind.” But she kept insisting that it was true. They said, “It must be his angel.”

16 But Peter kept knocking, and when they opened the door and saw him, they were astonished.

17 Peter motioned with his hand for them to be quiet and described how the Lord had brought him out of prison. “Tell James and the other brothers about this,” he said, and then he left for another place.

Herod’s Pride and Death

18 In the morning there was a great commotion among the soldiers about what had happened to Peter.

19 After Herod searched for him and didn’t find him, he cross-examined the guards and ordered that they be executed. Then he went from Judea to Caesarea and stayed there.

20 Herod was angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon, but they united and sought peace with him, since their region depended on the king's country for food. They won over Blastus, the king's personal servant, to make peace.

21 On the appointed day, Herod, wearing his royal robes, sat on his throne and delivered a public address to them.

22 The people shouted, "This is the voice of a god, not a man!"

23 Immediately, an angel of the Lord struck him down, because he did not give glory to God. He was eaten by worms and died.

The Word of God Multiplies

24 But the word of God continued to grow and spread.

25 When Barnabas and Saul had finished their mission in Jerusalem, they returned, taking John Mark with them.

Key Lessons from Acts 12

- God's people should pray without ceasing—He hears and acts in His timing.
- God can deliver His servants in miraculous ways, even from impossible circumstances.
- Leaders who exalt themselves instead of giving glory to God will ultimately fall.
- Even in times of persecution, God's Word continues to spread and grow.

Acts 13 – Crawford Standard Bible

"Sent Out to the Nations"

Barnabas and Saul Are Sent Out

1 In the church at Antioch there were prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen (who had been raised with Herod the ruler), and Saul.

2 While they were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them."

3 So after fasting and praying, they laid their hands on them and sent them out.

Confronting a Sorcerer

4 Sent by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia and sailed to Cyprus.

5 When they arrived at Salamis, they proclaimed God's word in the Jewish synagogues, with John Mark as their helper.

6 They traveled across the island until they came to Paphos, where they met a sorcerer and false prophet, a Jew named Bar-Jesus.

7 He was with the Roman governor, Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man who wanted to hear God's word from Barnabas and Saul.

8 But Elymas the sorcerer (that's what his name means) opposed them and tried to turn the governor from the faith.

9 Then Saul, who was also called Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit, looked straight at him and said,

10 "You are full of deceit and evil. You are a child of the devil and an enemy of everything that is right. Will you not stop twisting the ways of the Lord?"

11 Now the hand of the Lord is against you. You will be blind for a time, unable to see the sun." Immediately, mist and darkness came over him, and he groped about for someone to lead him.

12 When the governor saw what had happened, he believed, amazed at the teaching about the Lord.

Paul Preaches in Antioch of Pisidia

13 From Paphos, Paul and his companions sailed to Perga in Pamphylia, where John Mark left them and returned to Jerusalem.

14 From Perga they traveled to Antioch in Pisidia. On the Sabbath they entered the synagogue and sat down.

15 After the reading of the Law and the Prophets, the synagogue leaders said, "Brothers, if you have a word of encouragement for the people, please speak."

16 Paul stood up, motioned with his hand, and said:

"Men of Israel, and all who fear God, listen.

17 The God of Israel chose our ancestors. He made the people prosper while they were in Egypt, and with mighty power He brought them out.

18 For about forty years He put up with them in the wilderness.

19 He destroyed seven nations in Canaan and gave their land to His people.

20 He gave them judges for about four hundred and fifty years, until the prophet Samuel.

21 Then they asked for a king, and God gave them Saul, son of Kish, of the tribe of Benjamin, who ruled for forty years.

22 After removing him, He raised up David as king, about whom He said, 'I have found David son of Jesse, a man after My own heart; he will do everything I want him to do.'

23 From this man's descendants God has brought to Israel the Savior Jesus, as He promised.

24 Before His coming, John preached repentance and baptism to all the people of Israel.

25 As John was finishing his work, he said, 'Who do you think I am? I am not the one. But there is one coming after me whose sandals I am not worthy to untie.'

26 Fellow Israelites, and you who fear God, this message of salvation has been sent to us.
27 The people of Jerusalem and their rulers did not recognize Jesus. In condemning Him, they fulfilled the words of the prophets read every Sabbath.
28 Though they found no basis for a death sentence, they asked Pilate to have Him executed.
29 When they had carried out all that was written about Him, they took Him down from the cross and laid Him in a tomb.
30 But God raised Him from the dead,
31 and for many days He was seen by those who traveled with Him from Galilee to Jerusalem. They are now His witnesses.
32 We bring you the Good News: what God promised to our fathers,
33 He has fulfilled for us, their children, by raising Jesus. As it is written in the second Psalm: ‘You are my Son; today I have become your Father.’
34 God raised Him never to decay, as He said: ‘I will give you the holy and sure blessings promised to David.’
35 In another Psalm it says: ‘You will not let your Holy One see decay.’
36 David served God’s purpose in his own generation and then died and was buried, and his body decayed.
37 But the one whom God raised from the dead did not see decay.
38 Therefore, my friends, I want you to know that through Jesus the forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you.
39 Through Him everyone who believes is set free from every sin, a justification you could not obtain under the law of Moses.
40 Take care that what the prophets said does not happen to you:
41 ‘Look, you scoffers, wonder and perish, for I am going to do something in your days that you would never believe, even if someone told you.’”

Gentiles Rejoice, Jews Oppose

42 As Paul and Barnabas were leaving, the people invited them to speak more about these things on the next Sabbath.
43 When the congregation was dismissed, many Jews and devout converts followed Paul and Barnabas, who urged them to continue in God’s grace.
44 On the next Sabbath, almost the whole city gathered to hear the word of the Lord.
45 But when the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and began contradicting Paul and insulting him.
46 Paul and Barnabas answered boldly: “We had to speak the word of God to you first. But since you reject it and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, we now turn to the Gentiles.
47 For this is what the Lord has commanded us: ‘I have made you a light for the Gentiles, that you may bring salvation to the ends of the earth.’”

48 When the Gentiles heard this, they were glad and honored the word of the Lord, and all who were appointed for eternal life believed.

49 The word of the Lord spread through the whole region.

50 But the Jewish leaders stirred up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, driving them out of their region.

51 So they shook the dust off their feet in protest and went to Iconium.

52 The disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

Key Lessons from Acts 13

- God calls and equips His servants for mission through prayer and the Holy Spirit.
- The gospel is for all people—Jews first, but also Gentiles to the ends of the earth.
- Opposition and persecution cannot stop the spread of the Good News.
- Forgiveness and justification come only through Jesus, not through the law.
- When rejected by some, God’s Word still finds open hearts and brings joy.

Acts 14 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Through Tribulation Into the Kingdom”

Preaching in Iconium

1 In Iconium, Paul and Barnabas went together into the Jewish synagogue. They spoke so powerfully that a great number of Jews and Greeks believed.

2 But some Jews refused to believe, and they stirred up the Gentiles, poisoning their minds against the believers.

3 Paul and Barnabas stayed there a long time, speaking boldly for the Lord, who confirmed their message of grace by enabling them to perform signs and wonders.

4 The city became divided—some sided with the Jews, others with the apostles.

5 Finally, both Gentiles and Jews, with their leaders, plotted to mistreat and stone them.

6 They found out about it and fled to Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and the surrounding countryside.

7 There they preached the Good News.

A Lame Man Healed at Lystra

8 In Lystra there was a man who had been lame from birth; he had never walked.

9 He listened as Paul was speaking. Paul looked straight at him and saw he had faith to be healed.

10 Paul called out in a loud voice, “Stand on your feet!” At once the man jumped up and began to walk.

11 When the crowd saw what Paul had done, they shouted in their own language, “The gods have come down to us in human form!”

12 They called Barnabas “Zeus,” and Paul “Hermes,” because he was the chief speaker.

13 The priest of Zeus, whose temple was just outside the city, brought bulls and wreaths to the gates, and he and the crowd wanted to offer sacrifices to them.

14 But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard this, they tore their clothes and rushed into the crowd, shouting:

15 “Friends, why are you doing this? We are only human like you! We are bringing you Good News, telling you to turn from these worthless things to the living God, who made the heavens, the earth, the sea, and everything in them.

16 In the past, He allowed all nations to go their own way.

17 Yet He has not left Himself without testimony: He has shown kindness by giving you rain from heaven, crops in their seasons, and filling your hearts with food and joy.”

18 Even with these words, they could hardly keep the crowd from sacrificing to them.

Paul Is Stoned but Survives

19 Then some Jews came from Antioch and Iconium and won the crowd over. They stoned Paul and dragged him outside the city, thinking he was dead.

20 But as the disciples gathered around him, he got up and went back into the city. The next day he and Barnabas left for Derbe.

Strengthening the Churches

21 They preached the gospel in Derbe and won many disciples. Then they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch,

22 strengthening the believers and encouraging them to remain true to the faith. They said, “We must go through many hardships to enter the kingdom of God.”

23 Paul and Barnabas appointed elders in every church, with prayer and fasting, committing them to the Lord in whom they had believed.

Report Back to Antioch

24 After traveling through Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

25 They preached in Perga, then went down to Attalia.

26 From there they sailed back to Antioch, where they had been entrusted to the grace of God for the work they had now completed.

27 When they arrived, they gathered the church together and reported everything God had done through them and how He had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles.

28 And they stayed there a long time with the disciples.

Key Lessons from Acts 14

- Bold preaching will bring both belief and opposition—division is often the result of the gospel.
- Miracles confirm the word of God, but true worship must always be directed to God, not men.
- Hardship and persecution are part of the path into God’s kingdom.
- Leadership in the church is established through prayer, fasting, and reliance on the Lord.
- God’s mission to the Gentiles is His plan, and no opposition can stop it.

Acts 15 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Council at Jerusalem”

The Dispute over Circumcision

1 Some men came down from Judea and taught the believers: “Unless you are circumcised according to the law of Moses, you cannot be saved.”

2 This caused sharp disagreement and debate with Paul and Barnabas. So the church appointed Paul, Barnabas, and others to go up to Jerusalem to see the apostles and elders about this question.

3 On their way, they traveled through Phoenicia and Samaria, telling how the Gentiles had turned to God. This news brought great joy to all the believers.

4 When they arrived in Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church, the apostles, and the elders, and they reported everything God had done through them.

5 But some believers from the party of the Pharisees insisted, “The Gentiles must be circumcised and required to obey the law of Moses.”

Peter’s Testimony

6 The apostles and elders met to consider this matter.

7 After much debate, Peter stood up and said: “Brothers, you know that some time ago God chose me to share the gospel with the Gentiles so they could believe.

8 God, who knows the heart, showed His approval by giving them the Holy Spirit, just as He did to us.

9 He made no distinction between us and them, for He purified their hearts by faith.

10 Why are you testing God by putting on the disciples a burden that neither we nor our ancestors could bear?

11 We believe it is through the grace of the Lord Jesus that we are saved, just as they are.”

12 The whole assembly became silent and listened as Barnabas and Paul told about the signs and wonders God had done among the Gentiles through them.

James’ Judgment

13 When they finished, James spoke up: “Brothers, listen to me.

14 Simon has described how God first intervened to take a people for His name from among the Gentiles.

15 This agrees with the words of the prophets:

16 ‘After this I will return and rebuild David’s fallen tent.

Its ruins I will rebuild, and I will restore it,

17 so that the rest of mankind may seek the Lord, even all the Gentiles who bear my name, says the Lord, who does these things.’

18 The Lord has made these things known from long ago.

19 Therefore, my judgment is that we should not make it difficult for the Gentiles who are turning to God.

20 Instead, we should write to them to abstain from food polluted by idols, from sexual immorality, from meat of strangled animals, and from blood.

21 For the law of Moses has been preached in every city from ancient times and is read in the synagogues every Sabbath.”

The Letter to the Gentiles

22 Then the apostles, elders, and the whole church decided to send Paul and Barnabas, along with Judas (called Barsabbas) and Silas, two respected leaders among the believers.

23 They sent the following letter:

“The apostles and elders, your brothers,

To the Gentile believers in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia: Greetings.

24 We have heard that some went out from us without our authorization and troubled you, saying you must be circumcised and obey the law.

25 So we agreed, being united, to send you chosen men with our beloved Barnabas and Paul—

26 men who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

27 We are sending Judas and Silas to confirm what we are writing.

28 It seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us not to burden you with anything beyond the following requirements:

29 You are to abstain from food sacrificed to idols, from blood, from meat of strangled animals, and from sexual immorality. If you keep yourselves from these, you will do well. Farewell.”

Encouragement at Antioch

30 The men were sent off and went to Antioch, where they gathered the believers and delivered the letter.

31 The people read it and were glad for its encouraging message.

32 Judas and Silas, who were prophets, encouraged and strengthened the believers with many words.

33 After spending some time there, they were sent off with the blessing of peace to those who had sent them.

34 But Silas decided to remain.

35 Paul and Barnabas stayed in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord with many others.

Paul and Barnabas Separate

36 After some time Paul said to Barnabas, “Let us go back and visit the believers in every town where we preached the word of the Lord, to see how they are doing.”

37 Barnabas wanted to take John Mark with them.

38 But Paul did not think it wise, since Mark had deserted them in Pamphylia and had not continued with them in the work.

39 They had such a sharp disagreement that they parted ways. Barnabas took Mark and sailed for Cyprus, 40 but Paul chose Silas and left, commended by the believers to the grace of the Lord.

41 He traveled through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches.

Key Lessons from Acts 15

- Salvation is by grace through faith in Jesus, not by keeping the law of Moses.
- God makes no distinction between Jew and Gentile—He purifies hearts by faith.
- Church unity comes through prayer, discussion, and the guidance of the Holy Spirit.
- Sometimes even godly leaders disagree, but God still uses both paths to accomplish His work.
- The gospel continues to spread despite opposition, disputes, or division.

Acts 16 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Gospel Reaches Macedonia”

Timothy Joins Paul and Silas

1 Paul came to Derbe and then to Lystra, where he met a disciple named Timothy. His mother was a Jewish believer, but his father was a Greek.

2 The believers at Lystra and Iconium spoke well of him.

3 Paul wanted Timothy to join them on their journey, so he circumcised him because of the Jews in the area, since they all knew his father was a Greek.

4 As they traveled from town to town, they delivered the decisions reached by the apostles and elders in Jerusalem for the churches to obey.

5 So the churches were strengthened in the faith and grew daily in numbers.

The Macedonian Call

6 Paul and his companions traveled throughout Phrygia and Galatia, but the Holy Spirit kept them from preaching in Asia.

7 When they came to Mysia, they tried to enter Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus did not allow them.

8 So they passed by Mysia and went down to Troas.

9 That night Paul had a vision of a man of Macedonia standing and begging him, “Come over to Macedonia and help us.”

10 After Paul had seen the vision, we immediately prepared to leave for Macedonia, convinced that God had called us to preach the gospel there.

Lydia’s Conversion in Philippi

11 From Troas we sailed straight to Samothrace, and the next day on to Neapolis.

12 From there we traveled to Philippi, a Roman colony and leading city of Macedonia, where we stayed for several days.

13 On the Sabbath we went outside the city gate to the river, where we expected to find a place of prayer. We sat down and spoke to the women gathered there.

14 One of them was Lydia, a dealer in purple cloth from the city of Thyatira. She worshiped God, and the Lord opened her heart to respond to Paul’s message.

15 She and her household were baptized, and she invited us to her home. “If you consider me a believer in the Lord,” she said, “come and stay at my house.” And she persuaded us.

Paul Casts Out a Spirit

16 As we were going to the place of prayer, we were met by a slave girl who had a spirit of divination. She earned a lot of money for her owners by fortune-telling.

17 She followed Paul and the rest of us, shouting, “These men are servants of the Most High God, who are telling you the way to be saved.”

18 She kept this up for many days. Finally Paul became so troubled that he turned around and said to the spirit, “In the name of Jesus Christ, I command you to come out of her!” At that moment, the spirit left her.

Paul and Silas in Prison

19 When her owners realized their hope of making money was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace to face the authorities.

20 They brought them before the magistrates and said, “These men are Jews, and they are throwing our city into chaos

21 by advocating customs unlawful for us Romans to accept or practice.”

22 The crowd joined in the attack against Paul and Silas, and the magistrates ordered them to be stripped and beaten.

23 After they had been severely flogged, they were thrown into prison, and the jailer was commanded to guard them carefully.

24 He put them in the inner cell and fastened their feet in the stocks.

The Philippian Jailer Converted

25 Around midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the other prisoners were listening.

26 Suddenly there was such a violent earthquake that the foundations of the prison were shaken. At once all the prison doors flew open, and everyone’s chains came loose.

27 The jailer woke up, and when he saw the prison doors open, he drew his sword to kill himself, thinking the prisoners had escaped.

28 But Paul shouted, “Don’t harm yourself! We are all here!”

29 The jailer called for lights, rushed in, and fell trembling before Paul and Silas.

30 He brought them out and asked, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?”

31 They replied, “Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved—you and your household.”

32 Then they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all the others in his house.

33 At that hour of the night the jailer washed their wounds; then immediately he and his entire household were baptized.

34 He brought them into his house and set a meal before them. He was filled with joy because he had come to believe in God—he and his whole family.

Paul Demands Justice

35 When it was daylight, the magistrates sent their officers to the jailer with the order: “Release those men.”

36 The jailer told Paul, “The magistrates have ordered that you and Silas be released. Now you can leave. Go in peace.”

37 But Paul said to the officers, “They beat us publicly without a trial, even though we are Roman citizens, and threw us into prison. Now do they want to send us away quietly? No! Let them come themselves and escort us out.”

38 The officers reported this to the magistrates, and when they heard that Paul and Silas were Roman citizens, they were alarmed.

39 They came to appease them and escorted them out of prison, requesting them to leave the city.

40 After Paul and Silas came out of the prison, they went to Lydia’s house, where they met with the believers and encouraged them. Then they left.

Key Lessons from Acts 16

- God directs His servants where to go—even closing doors to guide them to the right place.
- The gospel is for all people: Timothy, a half-Jew; Lydia, a wealthy businesswoman; a slave girl; and a Roman jailer.
- God opens hearts to believe—salvation is His work, not ours.
- Praise in suffering brings God’s power—Paul and Silas sang in prison, and God shook the foundations.
- True faith transforms households: the Philippian jailer and his entire family believed and were baptized.
- Christians can stand boldly for justice while still proclaiming grace and truth.

Acts 17 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Gospel in Thessalonica, Berea, and Athens”

Paul Preaches in Thessalonica

1 Paul and Silas traveled through Amphipolis and Apollonia and came to Thessalonica, where there was a Jewish synagogue.

2 As was his custom, Paul went in and for three Sabbaths explained the Scriptures to them.

3 He showed them that the Messiah had to suffer and rise from the dead. “This Jesus I am telling you about is the Christ,” he said.

4 Some of the Jews were persuaded, along with a large number of devout Greeks and many prominent women.

Opposition Arises

5 But some Jews became jealous. They gathered some wicked men from the marketplace, formed a mob, and started a riot in the city. They attacked Jason’s house, looking for Paul and Silas.

6 When they did not find them, they dragged Jason and some other believers before the city officials, shouting, “These men who have turned the world upside down have come here too,
7 and Jason has welcomed them. They are all acting against Caesar’s decrees, saying there is another king, Jesus.”
8 This troubled the crowd and the city officials.
9 They made Jason and the others post bond and then let them go.

The Noble Bereans

10 The believers immediately sent Paul and Silas to Berea by night. When they arrived, they went to the synagogue.
11 The Bereans were more noble than those in Thessalonica. They received the message eagerly and examined the Scriptures daily to see if what Paul said was true.
12 As a result, many believed, including prominent Greek women and men.
13 But when the Jews from Thessalonica learned that Paul was preaching in Berea, they came there and stirred up trouble.
14 The believers immediately sent Paul to the coast, while Silas and Timothy stayed in Berea.
15 Those who escorted Paul brought him to Athens and left with instructions for Silas and Timothy to join him soon.

Paul in Athens

16 While Paul was waiting in Athens, he was deeply troubled to see the city full of idols.
17 He reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and devout Greeks, and in the marketplace every day with those who were there.
18 Some Epicurean and Stoic philosophers debated with him. Some asked, “What is this babbling trying to say?” Others said, “He seems to be preaching about foreign gods,” because Paul preached about Jesus and the resurrection.
19 They took him to the Areopagus and asked, “May we know what this new teaching is?
20 You are bringing some strange ideas to our ears, and we want to know what they mean.”
21 (All the Athenians and foreigners there spent their time doing nothing but talking about or listening to the latest ideas.)

Paul’s Message at Mars’ Hill

22 Paul stood up in the meeting of the Areopagus and said, “Men of Athens, I see that you are very religious in every way.
23 For as I walked around and looked carefully at your objects of worship, I even found an altar with this inscription: To the Unknown God. The God you worship without knowing is the one I proclaim to you.
24 The God who made the world and everything in it is Lord of heaven and earth. He does not live in temples made by human hands.

25 He is not served by human hands as if He needed anything, because He Himself gives all people life, breath, and everything else.

26 From one man He made all nations, and He determined their times and boundaries.

27 God did this so people would seek Him and perhaps reach out for Him and find Him, though He is not far from any of us.

28 ‘For in Him we live and move and have our being.’ As some of your own poets have said, ‘We are His offspring.’

29 Therefore, since we are God’s offspring, we should not think of God as an image of gold, silver, or stone crafted by human skill.

30 In the past God overlooked such ignorance, but now He commands all people everywhere to repent.

31 For He has set a day when He will judge the world with justice by the man He has appointed. He has given proof to everyone by raising Him from the dead.”

Mixed Reactions

32 When they heard about the resurrection of the dead, some mocked, but others said, “We want to hear you again on this subject.”

33 At that, Paul left the meeting.

34 Some people, however, joined him and believed. Among them were Dionysius the Areopagite, a woman named Damaris, and others.

Key Lessons from Acts 17

- The gospel stirs both faith and opposition—some believe, while others resist out of jealousy or pride.
- The Bereans model true faith: they eagerly listened and examined the Scriptures daily.
- God is not confined to man-made temples or idols—He is the Creator and Sustainer of all life.
- Every nation and culture exists under God’s authority, and He calls all people to repent.
- The resurrection of Jesus is God’s proof that He will judge the world in righteousness.
- Even in hostile environments, God calls individuals—like Dionysius and Damaris—to faith in Christ.

Acts 18 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Gospel in Corinth and Beyond”

Paul in Corinth

1 After leaving Athens, Paul traveled to Corinth.

2 There he met a Jew named Aquila, a native of Pontus, who had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla, because Emperor Claudius had ordered all Jews to leave Rome. Paul stayed with them.

3 Since they were tentmakers by trade, Paul worked with them while ministering.

4 Every Sabbath, he reasoned in the synagogue, trying to persuade both Jews and Greeks.

Opposition and God's Encouragement

5 When Silas and Timothy arrived from Macedonia, Paul devoted himself fully to preaching, testifying to the Jews that Jesus was the Messiah.

6 But when they opposed him and insulted him, he shook out his clothes in protest and said, "Your blood is on your own heads! I am innocent. From now on I will go to the Gentiles."

7 He then went next door to the house of Titius Justus, a Gentile worshiper of God.

8 Crispus, the synagogue leader, and his entire household believed in the Lord. Many Corinthians who heard Paul also believed and were baptized.

9 One night the Lord spoke to Paul in a vision: "Do not be afraid. Keep on speaking. Do not be silent, for I am with you, and no one will harm you, because I have many people in this city."

11 So Paul stayed in Corinth for a year and a half, teaching the word of God.

Paul Before Gallio

12 While Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews united against Paul and brought him to court, saying, "This man is persuading people to worship God in ways that are against our law."

14 As Paul was about to defend himself, Gallio said, "If this were a matter of crime or wrongdoing, I would listen.

15 But since it is about words, names, and your own law, handle it yourselves. I will not judge such matters."

16 And he drove them out of the court.

17 Then the crowd turned on Sosthenes, the synagogue leader, and beat him in front of the court. But Gallio paid no attention.

Paul's Travels Continue

18 Paul stayed in Corinth for some time, then left with Priscilla and Aquila for Syria. At Cenchrea, he had his head shaved because of a vow he had taken.

19 They arrived at Ephesus, where Paul reasoned with the Jews in the synagogue.

20 When they asked him to stay longer, he declined.

21 He said goodbye, telling them, "I must go to Jerusalem for the coming feast, but I will return if God wills." Then he sailed away.

22 He landed at Caesarea, greeted the church there, and then went down to Antioch.

23 After spending some time there, Paul traveled through Galatia and Phrygia, strengthening the disciples.

Apollos Preaches Boldly

24 Meanwhile, a Jew named Apollos, from Alexandria, came to Ephesus. He was eloquent and powerful in the Scriptures.

25 He had been taught about the Lord and was enthusiastic, speaking accurately about Jesus, though he only knew about John's baptism.

26 He began speaking boldly in the synagogue. When Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they invited him to their home and explained the way of God more fully.

27 When Apollos wanted to go to Achaia, the believers encouraged him and wrote letters urging the disciples there to welcome him. When he arrived, he greatly helped those who believed through grace.

28 He vigorously refuted the Jews in public debate, proving from the Scriptures that Jesus is the Messiah.

Key Lessons from Acts 18

- God provides partnerships (like Aquila and Priscilla) to strengthen His servants in ministry.
- Opposition will come, but God's presence and encouragement give courage to keep preaching.
- The gospel is for both Jews and Gentiles, and God has "many people" in unexpected places.
- Civil authorities may not always defend believers, but God remains sovereign over every trial.
- Discipleship involves explaining truth more fully, as Priscilla and Aquila did with Apollos.
- Bold preaching rooted in Scripture leads to lives transformed by the power of Christ.

Acts 19 – Crawford Standard Bible

"Revival and Uproar in Ephesus"

Paul in Ephesus: The Holy Spirit Received

1 While Apollos was in Corinth, Paul traveled through the inland regions and came to Ephesus. There he found some disciples.

2 He asked them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?" They answered, "We haven't even heard that there is a Holy Spirit."

3 Paul asked, "Then what baptism did you receive?" They replied, "John's baptism."

4 Paul said, "John baptized with a baptism of repentance, telling people to believe in the one coming after him—that is, in Jesus.”

5 When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

6 Paul placed his hands on them, and the Holy Spirit came upon them, and they spoke in tongues and prophesied.

7 There were about twelve men in all.

Paul’s Ministry in Ephesus

8 Paul went into the synagogue and spoke boldly for three months, arguing and persuading about the kingdom of God.

9 But some became stubborn, rejecting the message and publicly insulting “the Way.” So Paul left them and took the disciples with him. He held daily discussions in the lecture hall of Tyrannus.

10 This went on for two years, so that everyone living in Asia—both Jews and Greeks—heard the word of the Lord.

Miracles and Counterfeits

11 God did extraordinary miracles through Paul.

12 Even handkerchiefs or aprons that had touched him were taken to the sick, and their illnesses and evil spirits left them.

13 Some traveling Jewish exorcists tried to invoke the name of the Lord Jesus over those possessed by evil spirits, saying, “I command you by Jesus whom Paul preaches.”

14 Seven sons of Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, were doing this.

15 One evil spirit answered them, “Jesus I know, and Paul I know about—but who are you?”

16 Then the man with the evil spirit jumped on them, overpowered them, and beat them so badly that they ran out of the house naked and wounded.

17 This became known to everyone in Ephesus, both Jews and Greeks. Fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honor.

18 Many who believed came and openly confessed their sins.

19 A number who had practiced sorcery brought their scrolls together and burned them in public. The value of the books totaled about fifty thousand silver coins.

20 In this way, the word of the Lord spread powerfully and prevailed.

The Riot in Ephesus

21 After these events, Paul resolved in the Spirit to pass through Macedonia and Achaia, then go to Jerusalem. He said, “After I have been there, I must also see Rome.”

22 He sent Timothy and Erastus ahead to Macedonia, but he stayed in Asia for a while.

23 About that time, there was a major disturbance concerning “the Way.”

24 A silversmith named Demetrius, who made silver shrines of the goddess Artemis (Diana), provided much work for the craftsmen.

25 He gathered them together with others in the trade and said, “Men, you know our wealth comes from this business.

26 You see and hear that Paul has persuaded and led astray a large number of people here in Ephesus and throughout Asia, saying that gods made by human hands are not gods at all.

27 Not only is our trade in danger of losing its good name, but the temple of the great goddess Diana will be discredited. Her majesty, worshiped all over Asia and the world, will be robbed of her glory.”

28 When they heard this, they were furious and shouted, “Great is Diana of the Ephesians!”

29 Soon the whole city was in an uproar. They seized Gaius and Aristarchus, Paul’s traveling companions from Macedonia, and rushed as one into the theater.

30 Paul wanted to go in and address the crowd, but the disciples would not let him.

31 Even some of the officials of Asia, who were his friends, sent word urging him not to venture into the theater.

32 The assembly was in confusion: some shouted one thing, some another. Most of the people didn’t even know why they were there.

33 The Jews pushed Alexander forward, and he tried to make a defense before the crowd.

34 But when they realized he was a Jew, they all shouted in unison for about two hours: “Great is Diana of the Ephesians!”

35 Finally, the city clerk quieted the crowd and said: “People of Ephesus, everyone knows that this city is the guardian of the temple of the great Diana and of her image that fell from heaven.

36 Since these facts are undeniable, you must be calm and not do anything rash.

37 You have brought these men here who are neither temple robbers nor blasphemers of our goddess.

38 If Demetrius and his fellow craftsmen have a complaint, the courts are open and there are officials. They can press charges there.

39 If you want to bring up other issues, they must be settled in a legal assembly.

40 We are in danger of being charged with rioting because of today’s events. There is no reason for this uproar, and we cannot justify it.”

41 After he said this, he dismissed the assembly.

Key Lessons from Acts 19

- Receiving the Holy Spirit transforms believers into bold witnesses for Christ.
- Miracles are God’s work, not human power—His name must never be used casually or for profit.
- Genuine repentance leads people to abandon idols, false practices, and anything that dishonors God.
- Opposition often rises when the gospel threatens money, status, or cultural pride.
- God uses even civil authorities, like the city clerk, to prevent chaos and protect His people.

- The Word of God always prevails over idols, sorcery, and human opposition.

Acts 20 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Paul’s Farewell to the Ephesian Elders”

Paul Travels Through Macedonia and Greece

- 1 When the uproar in Ephesus was over, Paul called the disciples together, encouraged them, and said goodbye. Then he left for Macedonia.
- 2 As he traveled through those regions, he encouraged the believers with many words and came to Greece.
- 3 He stayed there three months. When the Jews plotted against him as he was about to sail for Syria, he decided to return through Macedonia.
- 4 Several men traveled with him: Sopater from Berea; Aristarchus and Secundus from Thessalonica; Gaius from Derbe; Timothy; and from Asia, Tychicus and Trophimus.
- 5 These men went ahead and waited for us at Troas.
- 6 After the Feast of Unleavened Bread, we sailed from Philippi and joined them in Troas five days later, where we stayed for a week.

Eutychus Raised from the Dead

- 7 On the first day of the week, the believers gathered to break bread. Paul spoke to them, and because he planned to leave the next day, he continued speaking until midnight.
- 8 There were many lamps in the upstairs room where they were meeting.
- 9 A young man named Eutychus was sitting in a window. He sank into a deep sleep as Paul went on speaking, and he fell from the third floor and was picked up dead.
- 10 Paul went down, threw himself on him, and put his arms around him. He said, “Don’t be alarmed. He’s alive!”
- 11 Then Paul went back upstairs, broke bread, ate, and talked with them until dawn. Then he left.
- 12 The young man was taken home alive, and everyone was greatly encouraged.

Paul Heads Toward Jerusalem

- 13 We went on ahead to the ship and sailed to Assos, where we planned to pick up Paul. He had arranged this, because he wanted to travel there on foot.
- 14 When he met us at Assos, we took him aboard and went on to Mitylene.
- 15 The next day we sailed past Chios, then to Samos, stayed at Trogyllium, and the following day reached Miletus.

16 Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus so he wouldn't spend too much time in Asia, because he was hurrying to reach Jerusalem, if possible, by Pentecost.

Paul's Farewell to the Ephesian Elders

17 From Miletus, Paul sent for the elders of the church in Ephesus.

18 When they arrived, he said:

“You know how I lived the whole time I was with you from the first day I came to Asia.

19 I served the Lord with humility, tears, and trials caused by the plots of the Jews.

20 I did not hold back anything helpful, but taught you publicly and from house to house.

21 I declared to both Jews and Greeks that they must turn to God in repentance and believe in our Lord Jesus Christ.

22 Now I am compelled by the Spirit to go to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there.

23 I only know that in every city the Holy Spirit warns me that prison and hardships are waiting.

24 But I don't count my life as precious to myself. My only aim is to finish the race and complete the task the Lord Jesus gave me—the task of testifying to the gospel of God's grace.

25 I know that none of you among whom I have preached the kingdom will ever see me again.

26 Therefore I declare today that I am innocent of the blood of all.

27 I did not hesitate to proclaim to you the whole will of God.

28 Keep watch over yourselves and all the flock the Holy Spirit has made you overseers of. Be shepherds of the church of God, which he bought with his own blood.

29 I know that after I leave, savage wolves will come among you and will not spare the flock.

30 Even from your own group, men will arise and distort the truth to draw away disciples after them.

31 So be on guard! Remember that for three years I never stopped warning each of you night and day with tears.

32 Now I commend you to God and to the word of his grace, which can build you up and give you an inheritance among those who are sanctified.

33 I have not coveted anyone's silver, gold, or clothing.

34 You yourselves know that these hands of mine supplied my own needs and the needs of those who were with me.

35 In everything I showed you that by working hard like this we must help the weak, remembering the words the Lord Jesus himself said: ‘It is more blessed to give than to receive.’”

Tears and Farewell

36 When Paul had finished speaking, he knelt down with all of them and prayed.

37 They all wept and embraced him, kissing him.

38 What grieved them most was his statement that they would never see his face again. Then they accompanied him to the ship.

Key Lessons from Acts 20

- Christian leaders must shepherd the flock faithfully, guarding against false teachers and spiritual danger.
- True ministry is done in humility, service, sacrifice, and love, not for money or fame.
- The gospel calls for repentance toward God and faith in Jesus Christ—nothing less.
- A life lived for Christ is worth more than personal safety or comfort.
- Generosity and helping the weak reflect the heart of Jesus: “It is more blessed to give than to receive.”
- God’s grace is able to build us up and secure our eternal inheritance.

Acts 21 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Paul Arrested in Jerusalem”

Paul’s Journey Toward Jerusalem

1 After saying goodbye to the Ephesian elders, we sailed straight to Cos, then to Rhodes, and from there to Patara.

2 We found a ship sailing to Phoenicia, so we boarded and set sail.

3 We passed by Cyprus, leaving it on our left, and sailed to Syria, landing at Tyre, where the ship was to unload its cargo.

4 We found disciples there and stayed with them seven days. Through the Spirit, they urged Paul not to go to Jerusalem.

5 But when our time was up, we left, and all the disciples, with their wives and children, came with us to the edge of the city. There on the beach we knelt and prayed.

6 After saying goodbye, we boarded the ship, and they returned home.

7 From Tyre we sailed to Ptolemais, greeted the believers, and stayed one day with them.

8 The next day we went to Caesarea and stayed at the house of Philip the evangelist, one of the seven chosen earlier.

9 He had four unmarried daughters who prophesied.

Agabus Prophesies Paul’s Arrest

10 After we had been there many days, a prophet named Agabus came from Judea.

11 He took Paul’s belt, tied his own hands and feet with it, and said, “The Holy Spirit says, ‘The Jews in Jerusalem will bind the man who owns this belt and hand him over to the Gentiles.’”

12 When we heard this, we and the local believers begged Paul not to go to Jerusalem.

13 But Paul answered, “Why are you weeping and breaking my heart? I am ready not only to be bound, but to die in Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.”

14 Since he could not be persuaded, we gave up and said, “The Lord’s will be done.”

Paul Arrives in Jerusalem

15 After this, we packed up and went to Jerusalem.

16 Some disciples from Caesarea came with us and brought us to stay with Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple.

17 When we arrived in Jerusalem, the believers welcomed us gladly.

18 The next day, Paul went with us to see James, and all the elders were present.

19 Paul told them in detail what God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry.

20 When they heard it, they praised God. Then they said, “Brother, you see how many thousands of Jews have believed, and they are all zealous for the law.

21 They have been told that you teach Jews living among the Gentiles to turn away from Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children or live by our customs.

22 What shall we do? They will certainly hear that you have come.

23 Here is our advice: There are four men who have taken a vow.

24 Join with them in their purification rites, pay their expenses so they can shave their heads. Then everyone will know that the reports about you are false and that you yourself live in obedience to the law.

25 As for the Gentile believers, we have written them with instructions to abstain from food sacrificed to idols, from blood, from meat of strangled animals, and from sexual immorality.”

26 Paul agreed. The next day he purified himself along with the men and went to the temple to give notice of the date when the days of purification would end and the offering would be made for each of them.

Paul Seized in the Temple

27 When the seven days were almost over, some Jews from Asia saw Paul at the temple. They stirred up the crowd and seized him,

28 shouting, “Men of Israel, help us! This is the man who teaches everyone everywhere against our people, our law, and this temple. And now he has even brought Greeks into the temple, defiling this holy place.”

29 (They had seen Trophimus the Ephesian with Paul earlier in the city and assumed Paul had brought him into the temple.)

30 The whole city was in an uproar. People came running from all directions, seized Paul, dragged him out of the temple, and immediately the gates were shut.

31 While they were trying to kill him, news reached the Roman commander that all Jerusalem was in chaos.

32 At once he took soldiers and centurions and ran down to the crowd. When the rioters saw the commander and soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.

33 The commander arrested Paul, ordered him bound with two chains, and asked who he was and what he had done.

34 Some shouted one thing, others another. Since the commander could not learn the truth in the uproar, he ordered Paul taken into the fortress.

35 As Paul was being carried up the steps by the soldiers, the crowd kept pressing,

36 shouting, “Away with him!”

Paul Requests to Speak

37 As they were about to take Paul into the fortress, he asked the commander, “May I say something to you?”

The commander replied, “Do you speak Greek?”

38 Aren’t you the Egyptian who started a revolt and led four thousand terrorists into the desert some time ago?”

39 Paul answered, “I am a Jew from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no insignificant city. Please let me speak to the people.”

40 The commander agreed. Paul stood on the steps and motioned for the crowd to be silent. When they grew quiet, he spoke to them in Hebrew:

Key Lessons from Acts 21

- True discipleship means following God’s will, even when it leads to suffering.
- God’s Spirit prepares His people for trials, not always to prevent them but to strengthen them.
- Believers must live in a way that removes unnecessary offense, showing unity while holding to truth.
- Religious zeal without understanding can quickly turn into violence.
- God uses even hostile situations to give His servants a platform to witness for Christ.

Acts 22 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Paul’s Testimony Before the People”

Paul Speaks to the Crowd

1 “Brothers and fathers, listen to the defense I now make before you.”

2 When they heard him speak in Hebrew, they became very quiet. He said:

3 “I am a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but raised here in Jerusalem. I was trained at the feet of Gamaliel in the strict law of our ancestors. I was as zealous for God as any of you are today.

4 I persecuted the followers of this Way to their death, arresting both men and women and throwing them into prison.

5 The high priest and the council of elders can testify to this. I even received letters from them to the brothers in Damascus, so that I could bring believers back to Jerusalem for punishment.”

Paul’s Conversion on the Road to Damascus

6 “As I approached Damascus around noon, suddenly a bright light from heaven surrounded me.

7 I fell to the ground and heard a voice say, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?’

8 I answered, ‘Who are you, Lord?’ He said, ‘I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you are persecuting.’

9 The men with me saw the light but didn’t understand the voice speaking to me.

10 I asked, ‘What shall I do, Lord?’ He said, ‘Get up and go into Damascus. There you will be told everything you are appointed to do.’

11 Since the brilliance of the light blinded me, my companions led me by the hand into Damascus.”

Ananias Restores Paul’s Sight

12 “A man named Ananias, a devout follower of the law and respected by all the Jews living there, 13 came and stood beside me. He said, ‘Brother Saul, receive your sight.’ At that moment, I could see again.

14 He said, ‘The God of our ancestors has chosen you to know His will, to see the Righteous One, and to hear His voice.

15 You will be His witness to all people of what you have seen and heard.

16 What are you waiting for? Get up, be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on His name.”

Paul’s Vision in the Temple

17 “When I returned to Jerusalem and was praying in the temple, I fell into a trance.

18 I saw the Lord saying to me, ‘Hurry! Leave Jerusalem immediately, for they will not accept your testimony about me.’

19 I said, ‘Lord, they know I imprisoned and beat those who believed in you.

20 When the blood of your martyr Stephen was shed, I stood there giving approval and guarding the clothes of those who killed him.’

21 But the Lord said to me, ‘Go, for I will send you far away to the Gentiles.’”

The Crowd Rejects Paul

22 The crowd listened until he said this. Then they shouted, “Away with such a man from the earth! He’s not fit to live!”

23 They shouted, threw off their cloaks, and flung dust into the air.

Paul Asserts His Roman Citizenship

24 The Roman commander ordered Paul taken into the fortress and examined by flogging, to find out why the crowd shouted against him.

25 As they stretched him out to be flogged, Paul said to the centurion, “Is it lawful to scourge a Roman citizen who hasn’t been tried?”

26 When the centurion heard this, he went to the commander and warned him, “Be careful! This man is a Roman.”

27 The commander came and asked, “Tell me, are you a Roman citizen?” Paul said, “Yes.”

28 The commander replied, “I had to pay a large sum for my citizenship.” Paul answered, “But I was born a citizen.”

29 Those who were about to question him withdrew immediately. The commander himself was alarmed because he had bound a Roman citizen.

Paul Brought Before the Sanhedrin

30 The next day, wanting to know the exact charges against Paul, the commander released him and ordered the chief priests and the whole council to assemble. He brought Paul and set him before them.

Key Lessons from Acts 22

- Sharing your testimony is one of the most powerful ways to proclaim Christ.
- God’s grace can reach even the most hardened sinners and transform them into His servants.
- Baptism represents cleansing from sin and a public declaration of faith in Jesus.
- The gospel is for both Jews and Gentiles, showing that God’s plan of salvation is universal.
- God can use even earthly citizenship and rights for His purposes in protecting His people.

Acts 23 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Paul Before the Council and Protected by God”

Paul Before the Sanhedrin

1 Paul looked straight at the council and said, “Brothers, I have lived before God with a clear conscience up to this day.”

2 At this, the high priest Ananias ordered those standing near Paul to strike him on the mouth.

3 Paul said to him, “God will strike you, you whitewashed wall! You sit there to judge me according to the law, yet you order me struck against the law?”

4 Those standing nearby said, “Do you dare insult God’s high priest?”

5 Paul replied, “I didn’t realize he was the high priest, brothers. For it is written: You must not speak evil about the ruler of your people.”

Pharisees and Sadducees Disagree

6 Paul realized that some were Sadducees and others Pharisees. He shouted, “Brothers, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee. I am on trial because of my hope in the resurrection of the dead!”

7 When he said this, a dispute broke out between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and the assembly was divided.

8 (The Sadducees say there is no resurrection, no angels, and no spirits. But the Pharisees believe in all of these.)

9 A loud uproar followed. Some teachers of the law who were Pharisees stood up and argued strongly, saying, “We find nothing wrong with this man. What if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him?”

10 The dispute became so violent that the commander was afraid Paul might be torn to pieces. He ordered the soldiers to go down, seize Paul by force, and take him into the fortress.

The Lord Encourages Paul

11 That night the Lord stood near Paul and said, “Take courage! Just as you have testified about me in Jerusalem, you must also testify in Rome.”

A Plot to Kill Paul

12 The next morning some Jews formed a conspiracy and took an oath not to eat or drink until they had killed Paul.

13 More than forty men were part of this plot.

14 They went to the chief priests and elders and said, “We have bound ourselves with an oath to eat nothing until we have killed Paul.

15 You and the council must ask the commander to bring him down to you, as if you wanted more details about his case. We will be ready to kill him before he gets here.”

Paul’s Nephew Warns the Commander

16 But Paul’s nephew heard about the plot. He went into the fortress and told Paul.

17 Paul called one of the centurions and said, “Take this young man to the commander; he has something to tell him.”

18 The centurion took him to the commander and said, “Paul the prisoner asked me to bring this young man to you; he has something to say.”

19 The commander took the young man by the hand, led him aside, and asked privately, “What is it you want to tell me?”

20 He said, “The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul to the council tomorrow as though they wanted more details.

21 But do not give in to them, for more than forty men are waiting to ambush him. They have taken an oath not to eat or drink until they have killed him. They are ready now, waiting for your consent.”

22 The commander dismissed the young man and instructed him, “Don’t tell anyone that you reported this to me.”

Paul Sent to Felix the Governor

23 The commander called two of his centurions and ordered, “Get 200 soldiers, 70 horsemen, and 200 spearmen ready by 9:00 tonight to go to Caesarea.

24 Provide horses for Paul so he may be taken safely to Governor Felix.”

25 He wrote a letter as follows:

26 From Claudius Lysias, to His Excellency Governor Felix: Greetings.

27 This man was seized by the Jews and was about to be killed by them. I came with soldiers and rescued him, for I learned he is a Roman citizen.

28 I wanted to know why they were accusing him, so I brought him before their council.

29 I found that the accusations had to do with questions about their law, but there was no charge against him deserving death or imprisonment.

30 When I was informed of a plot against him, I sent him to you at once. I have also ordered his accusers to present their case before you. Farewell.

31 The soldiers carried out their orders. During the night they took Paul as far as Antipatris.

32 The next day, the foot soldiers returned to the fortress, leaving the horsemen to go on with Paul.

33 When the horsemen arrived in Caesarea, they delivered the letter to the governor and handed Paul over to him.

34 The governor read the letter and asked what province Paul was from. Learning that he was from Cilicia, 35 he said, “I will hear your case when your accusers arrive.” Then he ordered Paul to be kept under guard in Herod’s palace.

Key Lessons from Acts 23

- Standing on a clear conscience before God gives strength even when falsely accused.
- God can use divisions among opponents (Pharisees vs. Sadducees) to protect His people.
- The Lord reassures His servants in their darkest moments: Be of good cheer, for I am with you.
- Family members, like Paul’s nephew, can be instruments of God’s protection.

- God’s purposes will prevail despite conspiracies, threats, or opposition—Paul must reach Rome.

Acts 24 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Paul Before Felix”

The Charges Against Paul

1 Five days later, the high priest Ananias came down with some elders and a lawyer named Tertullus. They presented their case against Paul before the governor.

2 When Paul was called in, Tertullus began his accusation: “Most excellent Felix, under your leadership we have enjoyed much peace, and your reforms have benefited this nation.

3 Everywhere and always, we are deeply grateful.

4 But, not to take too much of your time, I beg you to listen briefly.

5 We have found this man to be a troublemaker, stirring up riots among Jews all over the world. He is a ringleader of the Nazarene sect.

6 He even tried to desecrate the temple, so we seized him.

7 But Lysias the commander intervened and took him from us by force,

8 and ordered his accusers to come before you. By examining him yourself, you will be able to learn the truth of these charges.”

9 The Jews joined in the accusation, confirming that these things were true.

Paul’s Defense Before Felix

10 When the governor motioned for him to speak, Paul replied, “I know that you have been a judge over this nation for many years, so I gladly make my defense.

11 You can easily verify that it was no more than twelve days ago that I went up to Jerusalem to worship.

12 My accusers did not find me arguing with anyone at the temple, or stirring up a crowd in the synagogues or anywhere in the city.

13 They cannot prove the charges they now bring against me.

14 However, I admit that I worship the God of our ancestors as a follower of the Way, which they call a sect. I believe everything that is in the Law and the Prophets.

15 I have the same hope in God as these men themselves, that there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the wicked.

16 Because of this, I strive always to keep my conscience clear before God and man.

17 After several years, I came to Jerusalem to bring gifts for the poor and to present offerings.

18 While I was doing this, some Jews from Asia found me in the temple, ceremonially clean, without any crowd or disturbance.

19 They ought to be here before you to bring charges if they have anything against me.

20 Or let these men here state what wrongdoing they found in me when I stood before the council—

21 except for this one thing I shouted: It is concerning the resurrection of the dead that I am on trial before you today.”

Felix Postpones the Case

22 Then Felix, who was well acquainted with the Way, adjourned the proceedings. He said, “When Lysias the commander comes down, I will decide your case.”

23 He ordered the centurion to guard Paul but to give him some freedom, allowing his friends to care for his needs.

Paul Speaks to Felix and Drusilla

24 Several days later Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was Jewish. He sent for Paul and listened to him as he spoke about faith in Christ Jesus.

25 As Paul talked about righteousness, self-control, and the coming judgment, Felix became afraid and said, “That’s enough for now! You may leave. When I find it convenient, I will send for you.”

26 At the same time, Felix was hoping Paul would offer him money, so he sent for him often and talked with him.

Paul Left in Prison

27 After two years, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus. But because Felix wanted to do the Jews a favor, he left Paul in prison.

Key Lessons from Acts 24

- False accusations may come, but a clear conscience and truth stand firm before God and man.
- The Christian faith (“the Way”) is not heresy but the fulfillment of the Law and Prophets.
- Paul boldly spoke of righteousness, self-control, and judgment—topics that still convict hearts today.
- Felix trembled but delayed responding. Procrastination in spiritual matters is dangerous.
- God’s timing is perfect—even long imprisonment can serve His greater plan for the gospel.

Acts 25 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Paul Appeals to Caesar”

The Jews Plot Against Paul

- 1 Three days after Festus arrived in the province, he went up from Caesarea to Jerusalem.
 - 2 There the high priest and Jewish leaders presented their charges against Paul.
 - 3 They urgently asked Festus to have Paul transferred to Jerusalem, planning an ambush to kill him along the way.
 - 4 But Festus replied that Paul was being kept at Caesarea, and that he himself would return there soon.
 - 5 He said, "Let your leaders come with me and press charges if the man has done anything wrong."

Paul Appeals to Caesar

- 6 After staying in Jerusalem for more than ten days, Festus went down to Caesarea. The next day, he convened the court and ordered Paul to be brought in.
 - 7 When Paul appeared, the Jews from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing many serious accusations that they could not prove.
 - 8 Paul defended himself: "I have not done anything wrong against the law of the Jews, the temple, or Caesar."
 - 9 Festus, wanting to please the Jews, asked Paul, "Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem and stand trial before me there?"
 - 10 Paul answered, "I am now standing before Caesar's court, where I should be tried. I have not wronged the Jews, as you know very well.
 - 11 If I am guilty and have done anything deserving death, I do not refuse to die. But if their charges are false, no one has the right to hand me over to them. I appeal to Caesar!"
 - 12 After conferring with his council, Festus declared, "You have appealed to Caesar. To Caesar you will go!"

Festus Consults King Agrippa

- 13 A few days later, King Agrippa and his sister Bernice came to Caesarea to pay respects to Festus.
- 14 While they were there, Festus explained Paul's case to the king: "There is a man left as a prisoner by Felix.
- 15 When I was in Jerusalem, the chief priests and elders of the Jews brought charges against him, asking for his condemnation.
- 16 I told them that it is not the Roman way to hand over anyone before they have faced their accusers and had a chance to defend themselves.
- 17 So when they came here, I wasted no time. The next day I held court and ordered the man brought in.
- 18 But when his accusers stood up, they did not charge him with the crimes I expected.
- 19 Instead, they had disputes about their own religion and about a man named Jesus, who had died, but Paul claimed was alive.
- 20 I was at a loss about how to handle such matters, so I asked if Paul would be willing to go to Jerusalem to be tried there.

21 But Paul appealed to be held for the Emperor’s decision, so I ordered him to be kept until I could send him to Caesar.”

22 Agrippa said to Festus, “I would like to hear this man myself.” “Tomorrow you will hear him,” Festus replied.

Paul Brought Before Agrippa

23 The next day, Agrippa and Bernice came with great pomp and ceremony. They entered the audience hall with the high-ranking officers and prominent men of the city. At Festus’ command, Paul was brought in.

24 Festus said, “King Agrippa, and all who are here with us, you see this man. The whole Jewish community has petitioned me about him, both in Jerusalem and here, shouting that he must not live any longer.

25 But I found he had done nothing deserving death. Since he has appealed to the Emperor, I have decided to send him.

26 But I have nothing definite to write to His Majesty about him. Therefore, I have brought him before you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that after this hearing I may have something to write.

27 For it seems unreasonable to send a prisoner to Rome without specifying the charges against him.”

Key Lessons from Acts 25

- God’s providence protects His servants. Though the Jews plotted Paul’s death, God made sure Paul’s case went to Rome, just as Jesus promised.
- Paul stood firm in truth and justice. He was not afraid of death but demanded a fair trial, knowing his rights as a Roman citizen.
- Christianity was recognized as distinct. Even Festus saw the issue was about Jesus being alive, the core of the gospel.
- God uses rulers and courts to fulfill His plan. Paul’s appeal to Caesar was not an accident—it was the path God had set for him to testify in Rome.
- The gospel cannot be silenced. No matter the opposition, God makes sure His word is heard in the highest places of power.

Acts 26 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Paul’s Testimony Before King Agrippa”

Paul Begins His Defense

1 Then Agrippa said to Paul, “You may speak for yourself.” Paul stretched out his hand and began his defense:

2 “King Agrippa, I am glad to stand before you today and answer the charges made by the Jews.

3 I know that you are familiar with Jewish customs and controversies, so I ask you to listen patiently.

Paul’s Background as a Pharisee

4 “The Jewish people all know the way I have lived since my youth, from the beginning in my own country and later in Jerusalem.

5 They have known me for a long time and can testify that I lived as a Pharisee, following the strictest rules of our religion.

6 And now I am on trial because of my hope in the promise God made to our ancestors.

7 This is the same promise our twelve tribes hope to see fulfilled as they serve God day and night. For this hope, O king, I am accused by the Jews.

8 Why should any of you think it impossible that God raises the dead?”

Paul’s Former Persecution of Christians

9 “I once thought I should do everything I could to oppose the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

10 That is exactly what I did in Jerusalem. With authority from the chief priests, I put many of the saints in prison, and when they were put to death, I gave my approval.

11 In every synagogue I tried to force them to blaspheme. I was so obsessed with persecuting them that I even hunted them down in foreign cities.

Paul’s Encounter with Jesus

12 “On one of those journeys, I was going to Damascus with the authority of the chief priests.

13 About noon, O king, I saw a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining around me and those traveling with me.

14 We all fell to the ground, and I heard a voice speaking in the Hebrew language: ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? It is hard for you to fight against the gods.’

15 I asked, ‘Who are you, Lord?’ The Lord replied, ‘I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting.’

16 Now get up and stand on your feet. I have appeared to you to appoint you as a servant and a witness of what you have seen and will see of me.

17 I will rescue you from your own people and from the Gentiles. I am sending you to them

18 to open their eyes and turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God, so they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me.’

Paul's Obedience to the Vision

19 “So then, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the vision from heaven.

20 First to those in Damascus, then to those in Jerusalem and all Judea, and then to the Gentiles, I preached that they should repent, turn to God, and prove their repentance by their deeds.

21 That is why some Jews seized me in the temple courts and tried to kill me.

22 But God has helped me to this very day, and so I stand here and testify to small and great alike. I am saying nothing beyond what the prophets and Moses said would happen—

23 that the Christ would suffer, and, as the first to rise from the dead, would proclaim light both to our people and to the Gentiles.”

Festus Interrupts; Agrippa Responds

24 At this point Festus interrupted Paul: “You are out of your mind, Paul! Your great learning is driving you insane.”

25 Paul replied, “I am not insane, most excellent Festus. What I am saying is true and reasonable.

26 The king is familiar with these things, and I can speak freely to him. I am convinced that none of this has escaped his notice, because it was not done in a corner.

27 King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know you do.”

28 Then Agrippa said to Paul, “You almost persuade me to become a Christian.”

29 Paul answered, “I pray to God that not only you, but all who are listening to me today, may become as I am—except for these chains.”

Agrippa's Verdict

30 The king, the governor, Bernice, and all who were sitting with them got up.

31 They left the room and talked together, saying, “This man has done nothing that deserves death or imprisonment.”

32 Agrippa said to Festus, “This man could have been set free if he had not appealed to Caesar.”

Key Lessons from Acts 26

- Paul's testimony is a model for us. He boldly shared his story—his past, his encounter with Jesus, and his mission.
- The gospel is centered on the resurrection. Paul declared with confidence that Jesus suffered, died, and rose again to bring light to all.
- God's grace transforms enemies into witnesses. Paul went from persecutor to preacher by the power of Christ.

- The message demands a response. Agrippa was “almost persuaded.” Many today are in the same place—near to faith but not yet surrendered.
- We must be faithful in every setting. Whether before kings or common people, Paul remained true to Christ and His calling.

Acts 27 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Paul’s Voyage and Shipwreck”

Paul Sets Sail for Rome

- 1 When it was decided that we should sail to Italy, Paul and some other prisoners were handed over to a centurion named Julius, of the Imperial Regiment.
 - 2 We boarded a ship from Adramyttium that was about to sail to ports along the coast of Asia, and we set out to sea. Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica, was with us.
 - 3 The next day we landed at Sidon. Julius kindly allowed Paul to go to his friends so they could provide for his needs.

Storms at Sea

- 4 From there we put out to sea again and sailed under the lee of Cyprus, because the winds were against us.
 - 5 We sailed across the open sea off Cilicia and Pamphylia and landed at Myra in Lycia.
 - 6 There the centurion found a ship from Alexandria sailing for Italy and put us on board.
 - 7 We made slow headway for many days and had difficulty arriving off Cnidus. When the wind did not allow us to hold our course, we sailed to the lee of Crete, opposite Salmone.
 - 8 We moved along the coast with difficulty and came to a place called Fair Havens, near the city of Lasea.

Paul’s Warning Ignored

- 9 Much time had been lost, and sailing had become dangerous because it was after the Day of Atonement fast. Paul warned them,
 - 10 “Men, I can see that our voyage will end in disaster, with great loss to the ship, cargo, and even our lives.”
 - 11 But the centurion listened instead to the pilot and the owner of the ship rather than to Paul.
 - 12 Since the harbor was unsuitable to winter in, the majority decided that we should sail on, hoping to reach Phoenix, a harbor in Crete, and spend the winter there.

The Storm Called Euroclydon

13 When a gentle south wind began to blow, they thought they had obtained what they wanted, so they weighed anchor and sailed along Crete.

14 But before long, a violent wind called Euroclydon swept down from the island.

15 The ship was caught by the storm and could not face the wind, so we gave way to it and were driven along.

16 As we passed to the lee of a small island called Cauda, we were hardly able to secure the lifeboat.

17 The men hoisted it aboard, then passed ropes under the ship itself to hold it together. Fearing they would run aground on the sandbars of Syrtis, they lowered the sea anchor and let the ship be driven along.

18 We were violently battered by the storm, so the next day they began to throw cargo overboard.

19 On the third day, they threw the ship's tackle overboard with their own hands.

20 When neither sun nor stars appeared for many days and the storm continued raging, we finally gave up all hope of being saved.

Paul's Encouragement

21 After they had gone a long time without food, Paul stood up before them and said, "Men, you should have taken my advice not to sail from Crete. Then you would have spared yourselves this damage and loss.

22 But now I urge you to keep up your courage, because not one of you will be lost; only the ship will be destroyed.

23 Last night an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I serve stood beside me and said,

24 'Do not be afraid, Paul. You must stand trial before Caesar, and God has graciously given you the lives of all who sail with you.'

25 So take courage, men, for I have faith in God that it will happen just as He told me.

26 Nevertheless, we must run aground on some island."

Approaching Land

27 On the fourteenth night, as we were being driven across the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors sensed that they were approaching land.

28 They took soundings and found the water was 120 feet deep. A short time later they measured again and found it was 90 feet deep.

29 Fearing that we would be dashed against the rocks, they dropped four anchors from the stern and prayed for daylight.

30 In an attempt to escape from the ship, the sailors let the lifeboat down into the sea, pretending they were going to lower anchors from the bow.

31 But Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, "Unless these men stay with the ship, you cannot be saved."

32 So the soldiers cut the ropes that held the lifeboat and let it drift away.

Paul Breaks Bread and Gives Thanks

33 Just before dawn Paul urged them all to eat. “For the last fourteen days,” he said, “you have been in constant suspense and gone without food—you haven’t eaten anything.

34 Now I urge you to take some food. You need it to survive. Not one of you will lose a single hair from his head.”

35 After he said this, he took bread and gave thanks to God in front of them all. Then he broke it and began to eat.

36 They were all encouraged and ate some food themselves.

37 Altogether there were 276 of us on board.

38 When they had eaten as much as they wanted, they lightened the ship by throwing the grain into the sea.

The Shipwreck

39 When daylight came, they did not recognize the land, but they saw a bay with a sandy beach, where they decided to run the ship aground if they could.

40 Cutting loose the anchors, they left them in the sea and untied the ropes holding the rudders. Then they hoisted the foresail to the wind and made for the beach.

41 But the ship struck a sandbar and ran aground. The bow stuck fast and would not move, and the stern was broken to pieces by the pounding of the surf.

42 The soldiers planned to kill the prisoners to prevent any of them from swimming away and escaping.

43 But the centurion wanted to spare Paul’s life and kept them from carrying out their plan. He ordered those who could swim to jump overboard first and get to land.

44 The rest were to get there on planks or other pieces of the ship. In this way everyone reached land safely.

Key Lessons from Acts 27

- God protects His servants. Though the ship was lost, not one life perished because of God’s promise to Paul.
- Human wisdom fails, but God’s word stands. The sailors trusted their skill and the ship’s strength, but only the Lord’s word through Paul gave true hope.
- Encouragement in crisis matters. Paul’s faith lifted the hearts of 276 people in the midst of despair.
- God’s plan prevails. Paul was destined to stand before Caesar, and no storm could stop God’s mission.

- We must trust God's promises. Even in the darkest storm, faith in His word brings courage and survival.

Acts 28 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Paul Reaches Rome”

Safe on the Island of Malta

- 1 Once we were safely on shore, we learned that the island was called Malta.
 - 2 The islanders showed us unusual kindness. They built a fire and welcomed us all because it was raining and cold.
 - 3 Paul gathered a pile of sticks and put them on the fire. A viper, driven out by the heat, fastened itself on his hand.
 - 4 When the islanders saw the snake hanging from his hand, they said, “This man must be a murderer. He escaped the sea, but justice will not allow him to live.”
 - 5 But Paul shook the snake off into the fire and suffered no harm.
 - 6 The people expected him to swell up or suddenly fall dead. But after waiting a long time and seeing nothing unusual happen to him, they changed their minds and said he was a god.

Healings on the Island

- 7 There was an estate nearby that belonged to Publius, the chief official of the island. He welcomed us and showed us hospitality for three days.
 - 8 His father was sick in bed, suffering from fever and dysentery. Paul went in to see him, prayed, placed his hands on him, and healed him.
 - 9 After this had happened, the rest of the sick on the island came and were cured.
 - 10 They honored us in many ways, and when we were ready to sail, they furnished us with the supplies we needed.

Journey Toward Rome

- 11 After three months we set sail in an Alexandrian ship that had wintered on the island. The ship had figureheads of the twin gods Castor and Pollux.
- 12 We landed at Syracuse and stayed three days.
- 13 From there we sailed to Rhegium. The next day the south wind came up, and on the following day we reached Puteoli.
- 14 There we found believers, who invited us to spend a week with them. And so we came to Rome.
- 15 The brothers and sisters there had heard we were coming, and they traveled as far as the Forum of Appius and the Three Taverns to meet us. When Paul saw them, he thanked God and was greatly encouraged.

Paul in Rome

16 When we arrived in Rome, Paul was allowed to live by himself, with a soldier to guard him.

17 Three days later he called together the local Jewish leaders. When they had assembled, Paul said: “Brothers, although I have done nothing against our people or the customs of our ancestors, I was arrested in Jerusalem and handed over to the Romans.

18 They examined me and wanted to release me because I was not guilty of any crime deserving death.

19 But when the Jews objected, I was forced to appeal to Caesar—not that I had any charge to bring against my own people.

20 For this reason, I have asked to see you and talk with you. It is because of the hope of Israel that I am bound with this chain.”

21 They replied, “We have not received any letters from Judea about you, and none of our people who have come from there has reported or said anything bad about you.

22 But we want to hear your views, for we know that people everywhere are talking against this sect.”

Paul Preaches in Rome

23 They arranged to meet Paul on a certain day, and many came to the place where he was staying. From morning till evening he explained and declared to them the kingdom of God, using the Law of Moses and the Prophets to persuade them about Jesus.

24 Some were convinced by what he said, but others would not believe.

25 They disagreed among themselves and began to leave after Paul made this final statement: “The Holy Spirit spoke the truth to your ancestors when he said through the prophet Isaiah:

26 ‘Go to this people and say, You will be ever hearing but never understanding; you will be ever seeing but never perceiving.

27 For this people’s heart has grown hard; they hardly hear with their ears, and they have closed their eyes. Otherwise they might see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their hearts, and turn, and I would heal them.’

28 Therefore I want you to know that God’s salvation has been sent to the Gentiles, and they will listen!”

29 After he said this, the Jews left, arguing vigorously among themselves.

Paul’s Final Years in Rome

30 For two whole years Paul stayed there in his own rented house and welcomed all who came to see him.

31 He proclaimed the kingdom of God and taught about the Lord Jesus Christ—with complete boldness and without hindrance!

Key Lessons from Acts 28

- God protects His servants. The snake bite and the storm could not stop Paul, because God’s mission must be fulfilled.
- The gospel brings healing. Paul’s ministry on Malta showed that the power of Jesus extends to both body and soul.
- Encouragement matters. Meeting fellow believers on the way to Rome strengthened Paul for the challenges ahead.
- Some believe, others reject. Just as Isaiah prophesied, some hearts are hard, but the gospel always finds listeners among the humble.
- The mission continues. The Book of Acts closes not with an ending, but with the gospel still spreading boldly and freely through Paul.

Introduction to the Book of Romans

“For I am not ashamed of this Good News about Christ. It is the power of God at work, saving everyone who believes—the Jew first and also the Gentile.” – Romans 1:16

Title and Meaning

The book of Romans is a letter (epistle) written to the believers in Rome. Its title comes from the audience—“the saints in Rome” (Romans 1:7). More than a letter, it is Paul’s most comprehensive explanation of the gospel, often called “the constitution of the Christian faith.” It systematically presents the righteousness of God and how it is revealed through faith in Jesus Christ.

Author and Date

The apostle Paul is the author of Romans (Romans 1:1). He wrote it around AD 57, during his three-month stay in Corinth on his third missionary journey (Acts 20:2–3). Paul had not yet visited the church in Rome, but he longed to encourage them and prepare for his future mission to Spain (Romans 15:23–24).

Purpose of Romans

Paul wrote Romans with several key purposes:

- To clearly explain the gospel of salvation by grace through faith.
- To unite Jewish and Gentile believers under the truth that all are sinners in need of God's mercy.
- To prepare the Roman church for his planned mission to Spain.
- To provide deep theological grounding for the Christian life.

Romans is not only a letter of doctrine but also of encouragement, exhortation, and application of the gospel in daily living.

Structure of Romans

Paul carefully builds his argument step by step:

📖 1. Sin and Condemnation (Chs. 1–3)

All humanity—Jew and Gentile alike—stand guilty before God.

✝️ 2. Salvation and Justification (Chs. 3–5)

Righteousness is given by God through faith in Jesus Christ, not by works of the law.

✝️ 3. Sanctification and Struggle (Chs. 6–8)

The believer is freed from sin's power, lives in the Spirit, and awaits future glory.

🌍 4. Sovereignty and God's Plan (Chs. 9–11)

God's purposes for Israel and the Gentiles reveal His sovereign grace.

👤 5. Service and Christian Living (Chs. 12–16)

Practical instructions on love, unity, humility, and living out the gospel in everyday life.

Major Themes

- The Righteousness of God – God's holiness revealed and offered to us through Christ.
 - Justification by Faith – We are declared righteous not by works, but by believing in Jesus.
 - Universal Sinfulness – All have sinned and fall short of God's glory (Romans 3:23).
 - Life in the Spirit – The Spirit empowers believers to overcome sin and live in freedom.
 - God's Sovereignty – His plan of salvation extends to both Jew and Gentile.
 - Christian Living – True faith expresses itself in love, service, and holiness.

Why Romans Matters Today

Romans provides the clearest and most profound presentation of the gospel in all of Scripture. It has transformed countless lives, from Augustine to Martin Luther to John Wesley, and continues to shape the church today. Its message reminds us that salvation is a gift of grace, that we live empowered by the Spirit, and that the gospel unites all people in Christ. Romans not only explains what we believe but also how we should live because of it.

Key Verse

“For I am not ashamed of this Good News about Christ. It is the power of God at work, saving everyone who believes—the Jew first and also the Gentile.” – Romans 1:16

This verse encapsulates the boldness, universality, and transforming power of the gospel message found throughout Romans.

Romans 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Righteous Shall Live by Faith”

Paul’s Greeting to the Romans

1 This letter is from Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus, called to be an apostle, and set apart to share the good news of God.

2 This gospel was promised long ago through the prophets in the Holy Scriptures.

3 It is about God’s Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. He was born as a descendant of David according to the flesh,

4 and He was shown to be the Son of God with power when He was raised from the dead by the Holy Spirit.

5 Through Him we have received grace and the calling of apostleship, to bring people everywhere to obey God and honor His name.

6 You who belong to Jesus Christ are included among those who are called.

7 I write to all of you in Rome who are loved by God and called to be His holy people. May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

Paul’s Desire to Visit Rome

8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is being talked about all over the world.

9 God, whom I serve with all my heart in preaching the good news of His Son, knows how often I pray for you.

10 I ask that God will make it possible for me to come to you soon.
11 I long to see you so I may give you some spiritual gift to strengthen you.
12 That way, you and I will be encouraged together by each other's faith.
13 Brothers and sisters, I want you to know that I often planned to visit you (but was prevented until now) so that I might have a harvest of souls among you, just as I have had among the other Gentiles.
14 For I have a responsibility to both Greeks and non-Greeks, to the wise and the uneducated.
15 So I am eager to preach the good news to you who are in Rome also.

The Power of the Gospel

16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God that brings salvation to everyone who believes—to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile.
17 For in the gospel the righteousness of God is revealed, a righteousness that comes by faith from beginning to end. As the Scriptures say: “The righteous shall live by faith.”

God's Wrath Against Sin

18 But God's anger is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and wickedness of people who suppress the truth by their wickedness.
19 They know the truth about God because He has made it plain to them.
20 Ever since the creation of the world, His invisible qualities—His eternal power and divine nature—have been clearly seen, being understood from what He has made. So people are without excuse.
21 For although they knew God, they did not glorify Him as God or give thanks to Him. Their thinking became useless, and their foolish hearts were darkened.
22 Claiming to be wise, they became fools.
23 They exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images that looked like mortal people, birds, animals, and reptiles.

God Gives Them Over

24 Therefore, God let them follow the desires of their hearts into impurity, so they dishonored their bodies with one another.
25 They traded the truth of God for a lie, and worshiped created things rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.
26 Because of this, God let them follow shameful desires. Women exchanged natural sexual relations for unnatural ones.
27 In the same way, men abandoned natural relations with women and were inflamed with lust for one another. Men committed shameful acts with other men and received in themselves the penalty for their error.
28 Since they did not think it worthwhile to keep the knowledge of God, He gave them over to a corrupt mind, to do what should not be done.

29 They became filled with every kind of wickedness: sexual immorality, greed, hate, envy, murder, strife, deceit, and malice. They became gossips,
30 slanderers, haters of God, insolent, proud, boastful, inventors of evil, and disobedient to parents.
31 They have no understanding, no faithfulness, no love, and no mercy.
32 They know God’s righteous decree that those who practice such things deserve death. Yet they not only continue to do these things but also approve of others who do them.

Key Lessons from Romans 1

- The gospel is God’s power to save. Salvation comes not by works, but by faith in Jesus Christ.
- Creation reveals God. No one has an excuse, because His eternal power and divine nature are clearly seen in the world He made.
- Sin corrupts when people reject God. When people trade God’s truth for lies, they fall deeper into destructive behaviors.
- Faith is the foundation. The righteous do not live by law or works, but by faith in the Son of God.

Romans 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“True Judgment and True Circumcision”

God’s Righteous Judgment

1 You have no excuse, whoever you are, when you judge others. For when you judge someone else, you are really condemning yourself, because you do the very same things.

2 We know that God’s judgment against those who do such things is based on truth.

3 Do you think you will escape God’s judgment, you who judge others yet do the same things?

4 Or do you look down on the riches of His kindness, patience, and longsuffering, not realizing that God’s kindness is meant to lead you to repentance?

5 But because of your stubborn and unrepentant heart, you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath, when God’s righteous judgment will be revealed.

God Rewards Each Person Fairly

6 God will repay everyone according to what they have done.

7 To those who keep doing good, seeking glory, honor, and immortality, He will give eternal life.

8 But for those who are selfish, reject the truth, and follow evil, there will be wrath and anger.

9 There will be trouble and distress for everyone who does evil—for the Jew first, and also for the Gentile.

10 But there will be glory, honor, and peace for everyone who does good—for the Jew first, and also for the Gentile.

11 For God shows no favoritism.

The Law and the Conscience

12 All who sin without the law will perish without the law, and all who sin under the law will be judged by the law.

13 It is not those who hear the law who are righteous before God, but those who do the law who will be declared righteous.

14 When Gentiles, who do not have the law, naturally do what the law requires, they show that they are a law to themselves.

15 They demonstrate that the requirements of the law are written on their hearts. Their conscience bears witness, and their thoughts sometimes accuse them and at other times excuse them.

16 This will happen on the day when God judges everyone's secrets through Jesus Christ, as the good news declares.

The Jews and the Law

17 Now you call yourself a Jew, and you rely on the law, and you boast in God.

18 You know His will and approve what is excellent because you are instructed by the law.

19 You are convinced you are a guide to the blind, a light for those in darkness,

20 an instructor of the foolish, a teacher of children, because you have in the law the embodiment of knowledge and truth.

21 But you who teach others, do you not teach yourself? You who preach against stealing, do you steal?

22 You who say that one should not commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who detest idols, do you rob temples?

23 You who boast in the law, do you dishonor God by breaking the law?

24 As it is written: "God's name is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you."

True Circumcision

25 Circumcision has value if you obey the law. But if you break the law, your circumcision becomes uncircumcision.

26 So if those who are not circumcised keep the law's requirements, will not their uncircumcision be considered as circumcision?

27 The one who is not physically circumcised but keeps the law will condemn you who, though you have the written code and circumcision, break the law.

28 For a person is not a true Jew who is one outwardly, nor is true circumcision merely outward and physical.

29 No, a true Jew is one inwardly, and true circumcision is of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the written code. Such a person's praise is not from people, but from God.

Key Lessons from Romans 2

- God's judgment is fair and true. He sees the heart, not just outward actions, and will reward or punish accordingly.
- Hearing is not enough. It is not those who hear the law but those who do what God commands who are justified.
- Conscience bears witness. Even those without the written law know God's standards, because His law is written on their hearts.
- True religion is inward. Outward rituals, like circumcision, mean nothing without an obedient heart. Real faith is spiritual and comes from God, not human approval.

Romans 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“All Have Sinned, but God Justifies by Faith”

God's Faithfulness

1 What advantage does the Jew have? Or what value is there in circumcision?

2 Much in every way! First of all, the Jews were entrusted with the very words of God.

3 But what if some did not believe? Does their lack of faith cancel out God's faithfulness?

4 Absolutely not! Let God be true, even if every human being is a liar. As it is written:

“So that You may be proved right when You speak, and prevail when You judge.”

5 But if our wrongdoing highlights the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unjust to bring wrath on us? (I am speaking from a human point of view.)

6 Certainly not! If that were so, how could God judge the world?

7 If through my lie the truth of God increases for His glory, why am I still judged as a sinner?

8 And why not say—as some slander us, claiming that we teach—“Let us do evil that good may result”? Their condemnation is deserved.

No One Is Righteous

9 What then? Are we Jews better than others? Not at all. We have already shown that Jews and Gentiles alike are all under the power of sin.

10 As it is written: “There is no one righteous, not even one;

11 *there is no one who understands;
there is no one who seeks God.*
12 *All have turned away, they have together become worthless;
there is no one who does good, not even one.”*
13 “Their throats are open graves; their tongues practice deceit.”
“The poison of snakes is on their lips.”
14 “Their mouths are full of cursing and bitterness.”
15 “Their feet are swift to shed blood;
16 ruin and misery mark their ways,
17 *and the way of peace they do not know.”
18 “There is no fear of God before their eyes.”

19 Now we know that whatever the law says, it says to those under the law, so that every mouth may be silenced and the whole world held accountable to God.
20 For no one will be declared righteous in His sight by the works of the law. Rather, through the law we become conscious of sin.

God’s Righteousness Through Faith

21 But now the righteousness of God has been revealed apart from the law, though the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it.
22 This righteousness is given through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe. There is no difference,
23 for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God,
24 and all are justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus.
25 God presented Him as a sacrifice of atonement, through the shedding of His blood, to be received by faith. He did this to demonstrate His righteousness, because in His patience He had left the sins committed beforehand unpunished.
26 He did it to demonstrate His righteousness at the present time, so that He might be just and the one who justifies those who have faith in Jesus.

Justified by Faith, Not Works

27 Where, then, is boasting? It is excluded. By what law? The law of works? No, but by the law of faith.
28 For we hold that a person is justified by faith apart from works of the law.
29 Is God the God of Jews only? Is He not the God of Gentiles too? Yes, of Gentiles also.
30 Since there is one God, He will justify both the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through that same faith.
31 Do we then nullify the law by this faith? Not at all! On the contrary, we uphold the law.

Key Lessons from Romans 3

- God is always faithful. Human unbelief does not cancel His promises.
- All have sinned. Jew and Gentile alike fall short of God’s glory; no one can claim righteousness on their own.
- The law reveals sin, not salvation. Obeying rules cannot save; it only shows our need for grace.
- Salvation is a gift. We are justified freely by God’s grace through faith in Jesus, who shed His blood for our redemption.
- Faith excludes boasting. No one can brag about earning salvation—it is received by trusting in Christ.
- The gospel fulfills the law. Faith in Christ upholds the true purpose of God’s law: to point us to His righteousness.

Romans 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Abraham Justified by Faith, Not Works”

Abraham’s Righteousness by Faith

1 What shall we say then about Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh? What did he discover?

2 If Abraham was made right with God by works, then he could boast. But not before God.

3 For what does the Scripture say? “Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness.”

4 Now to the one who works, wages are not credited as a gift, but as an obligation.

5 But to the one who does not work, but trusts God who justifies the ungodly, their faith is credited as righteousness.

David Speaks of Forgiveness

6 David also spoke of the blessing of the one to whom God credits righteousness apart from works:

7 “Blessed are those whose sins are forgiven, whose sins are covered.

8 Blessed is the one whose sin the Lord will never count against them.”

Not by Circumcision, but by Faith

9 Is this blessing only for the circumcised, or also for the uncircumcised? We say that Abraham’s faith was credited to him as righteousness.

10 Under what circumstances was it credited? Was it after he was circumcised, or before? It was not after, but before!

11 He received circumcision as a sign, a seal of the righteousness he had by faith while still uncircumcised. So he is the father of all who believe without being circumcised, that righteousness might be credited to them also.

12 And he is the father of the circumcised who not only are circumcised outwardly, but who also follow the faith of our father Abraham before he was circumcised.

The Promise Comes by Faith

13 It was not through the law that Abraham and his descendants received the promise that he would be heir of the world, but through the righteousness that comes by faith.

14 For if those who depend on the law are heirs, faith means nothing and the promise is worthless, 15 because the law brings wrath. Where there is no law, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore, the promise comes by faith, so that it may be by grace and guaranteed to all Abraham's descendants—not only to those who are of the law, but also to those who share the faith of Abraham. He is the father of us all.

17 As it is written: "I have made you a father of many nations." He is our father in the sight of God, in whom he believed—the God who gives life to the dead and calls things that are not as though they were.

Abraham's Faith in God's Promise

18 Against all hope, Abraham in hope believed, and so became the father of many nations, just as it was said to him: "So shall your offspring be."

19 Without weakening in faith, he faced the fact that his body was as good as dead—since he was about a hundred years old—and that Sarah's womb was also dead.

20 Yet he did not waver through unbelief regarding the promise of God, but was strengthened in his faith and gave glory to God,

21 being fully convinced that God had the power to do what He had promised.

22 That is why "it was credited to him as righteousness."

23 These words, "it was credited to him," were not written for him alone,

24 but also for us, to whom God will credit righteousness—for us who believe in Him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead.

25 He was delivered over to death for our sins and was raised to life for our justification.

Key Lessons from Romans 4

- Faith, not works, makes us right with God. Abraham was justified before circumcision, showing salvation is not by ritual or law.
- Forgiveness is a blessing. David reminds us that true joy is found in sins forgiven and not counted against us.
- The promise is secure by grace. If it depended on law-keeping, no one could inherit it—but faith makes the promise sure to all.
- God brings life out of death. Abraham believed in a God who calls what does not exist into being and raises the dead.
- Our faith is like Abraham's. Just as he trusted God's promise, we trust in Christ who died for our sins and rose again to make us right with God.

Romans 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Peace with God Through Christ”

Justified by Faith

1 Since we have been made right with God by faith, we now have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Through Him we have gained access by faith into this grace in which we now stand. And we rejoice in the hope of the glory of God.

Rejoicing in Suffering

3 Not only this, but we also rejoice in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance.

4 Perseverance produces character, and character produces hope.

5 And hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.

Christ Died for the Ungodly

6 You see, at just the right time, when we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly.

7 Very rarely will someone die for a righteous person—though for a good person someone might possibly dare to die.

8 But God shows His love for us in this: while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

Saved by His Life

9 Since we have now been justified by His blood, how much more shall we be saved from God's wrath through Him!

10 For if, while we were God's enemies, we were reconciled to Him through the death of His Son, how much more, having been reconciled, shall we be saved through His life!

11 Not only this, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

Adam and Christ Compared

12 Therefore, just as sin entered the world through one man, and death through sin, and so death came to all people, because all sinned—

13 Before the law was given, sin was already in the world. But sin is not charged against anyone's account where there is no law.

14 Still, death reigned from the time of Adam to Moses, even over those who did not sin in the same way Adam did, who was a pattern of the one to come.

The Gift is Greater Than the Offense

15 But the gift is not like the trespass. For if the many died by the trespass of one man, how much more did God's grace and the gift that came by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, overflow to the many!

16 Nor can the gift of God be compared with the result of one man's sin. The judgment followed one sin and brought condemnation, but the gift followed many sins and brought justification.

17 For if, by the trespass of one man, death reigned through that one man, how much more will those who receive God's abundant grace and the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man, Jesus Christ!

Life Through Christ's Obedience

18 Consequently, just as one trespass brought condemnation for all people, so also one act of righteousness brought justification and life for all people.

19 For just as through the disobedience of one man many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of one man many will be made righteous.

Grace Greater Than Sin

20 The law was brought in so that sin might increase. But where sin increased, grace increased all the more.

21 So that, just as sin reigned in death, so also grace might reign through righteousness to bring eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Key Lessons from Romans 5

- Faith brings peace. We are no longer at war with God but at peace through Christ.
- Trials build character. Suffering, when endured in faith, grows perseverance, character, and hope.
- God’s love is proven. Christ died for us when we were weak and sinful—His love is beyond comparison.
- Christ reverses Adam’s curse. Where Adam’s disobedience brought sin and death, Christ’s obedience brought righteousness and life.
- Grace is stronger than sin. No matter how deep sin goes, God’s grace goes deeper, leading to eternal life in Christ.

Romans 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Dead to Sin, Alive to God”

Grace Is Not a License to Sin

- 1 What shall we say then? Should we keep on sinning so that grace may increase?
 - 2 Absolutely not! If we have died to sin, how can we still live in it?

Baptized into Christ’s Death and Life

- 3 Don’t you know that all of us who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into His death?
 - 4 Therefore we were buried with Him through baptism into death, so that just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too may walk in newness of life.
 - 5 For if we have been united with Him in His death, we will also be united with Him in His resurrection.

Crucified With Christ

- 6 We know that our old sinful self was crucified with Him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, and we would no longer be slaves to sin.
- 7 For anyone who has died has been freed from sin.
- 8 Now if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with Him.
- 9 For we know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has any power over Him.

10 The death He died, He died to sin once for all; but the life He lives, He lives to God.

11 In the same way, count yourselves dead to sin but alive to God in Christ Jesus.

Instruments of Righteousness

12 Therefore, do not let sin reign in your mortal body so that you obey its desires.

13 Do not offer any part of yourself to sin as an instrument of wickedness. Instead, offer yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and offer every part of yourself to Him as an instrument of righteousness.

14 For sin shall not have dominion over you, because you are not under the law but under grace.

Slaves to Righteousness

15 What then? Shall we sin because we are not under the law but under grace? Absolutely not!

16 Don't you realize that when you offer yourselves to someone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one you obey—whether you are slaves to sin, which leads to death, or to obedience, which leads to righteousness?

17 But thanks be to God! Though you used to be slaves of sin, you wholeheartedly obeyed the teaching you received.

18 You have been set free from sin and have become slaves to righteousness.

The Fruit of Holiness

19 I speak in simple terms because of the weakness of your flesh. Just as you used to offer yourselves as slaves to impurity and ever-increasing wickedness, now offer yourselves as slaves to righteousness leading to holiness.

20 When you were slaves to sin, you were free from the control of righteousness.

21 But what benefit did you reap at that time from the things you are now ashamed of? Those things result in death!

22 But now that you have been set free from sin and have become servants of God, the benefit you reap leads to holiness, and the result is eternal life.

The Great Exchange

23 For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Key Lessons from Romans 6

- Grace is not permission to sin. Salvation calls us to holiness, not indulgence.
- Baptism is identification. It unites us with Christ's death and resurrection.
- Sin is no longer master. Believers must live as instruments of righteousness.
- Every life has a master. You are either a slave to sin leading to death, or a servant of God leading to holiness.
- The wages of sin vs. the gift of God. Sin pays death, but God freely gives eternal life through Jesus Christ.

Romans 7 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Dead to the Law, Alive in Christ”

Released from the Law

1 Don't you know, brothers and sisters—for I am speaking to those who know the law—that the law has authority over a person only as long as he lives?

2 For example, a married woman is bound by law to her husband while he lives; but if her husband dies, she is released from that law.

3 So if she marries another man while her husband is alive, she is called an adulteress. But if her husband dies, she is free from that law and is not an adulteress if she marries another man.

4 In the same way, my brothers and sisters, you also died to the law through the body of Christ, so that you might belong to another—to Him who was raised from the dead—in order that we might bear fruit for God.

5 For when we lived in the flesh, sinful passions, aroused by the law, worked in our bodies to produce fruit for death.

6 But now we have been released from the law, having died to that which once held us, so that we may serve in the new way of the Spirit and not in the old way of the written code.

The Law Reveals Sin

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? Absolutely not! On the contrary, I would not have known what sin was except through the law. For I would not have known what coveting really was if the law had not said, You shall not covet.

8 But sin, seizing the opportunity through the commandment, produced in me every kind of covetous desire. For apart from the law, sin was dead.

9 Once I was alive apart from the law, but when the commandment came, sin sprang to life and I died.

10 I found that the very commandment that was intended to bring life actually brought death.

11 For sin, seizing the opportunity through the commandment, deceived me, and through it put me to death.

12 So then, the law is holy, and the commandment is holy, righteous, and good.

The Struggle Within

13 Did that which is good, then, become death to me? Certainly not! But in order that sin might be recognized as sin, it used what is good to bring about my death, so that through the commandment sin might become utterly sinful.

14 We know that the law is spiritual; but I am unspiritual, sold as a slave to sin.

15 I don't really understand myself, for I want to do what is right, but I don't do it. Instead, I do what I hate.

16 And if I do what I don't want to do, I agree that the law is good.

17 So it is no longer I myself who do it, but sin living in me.

18 I know that nothing good lives in me, that is, in my sinful nature. I want to do what is right, but I cannot carry it out.

19 For the good that I want to do, I do not do; but the evil I don't want to do—this I keep on doing.

20 Now if I do what I don't want to do, it is no longer I who do it, but sin living in me that does it.

The War Inside

21 So I find this law at work: although I want to do good, evil is right there with me.

22 For in my inner being I delight in God's law.

23 But I see another law at work in me, waging war against the law of my mind and making me a prisoner of the law of sin within me.

24 What a wretched man I am! Who will rescue me from this body of death?

25 Thanks be to God, who delivers me through Jesus Christ our Lord!

So then, in my mind I serve the law of God, but in my sinful flesh I am a slave to the law of sin.

Key Lessons from Romans 7

- The law exposes sin. The commandments show us God's standard and reveal our failure.
- The law itself is holy. Sin—not the law—is the true enemy, twisting what is good into death.
- Believers are freed from the law's penalty. In Christ, we belong to Him, not to the law.
- The inner struggle is real. Even saved people wrestle with sinful desires.
- Christ is our deliverer. Victory over sin's power comes through Jesus alone.

Romans 8 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Life in the Spirit, No Condemnation in Christ”

No Condemnation in Christ

- 1 So now there is no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus, who do not live according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.
- 2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set me free from the law of sin and death.
- 3 What the law could not do—because it was weakened by the flesh—God did by sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh to be a sacrifice for sin. In Him, God condemned sin in the flesh,
- 4 so that the righteous requirement of the law might be fully met in us, who live not by the flesh but by the Spirit.

Living by the Spirit, Not the Flesh

- 5 Those who live according to the flesh think about fleshly things, but those who live according to the Spirit think about the things of the Spirit.
- 6 To be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.
- 7 For the carnal mind is hostile to God. It does not submit to God’s law, nor can it.
- 8 So those who live in the flesh cannot please God.
- 9 But you are not in the flesh; you are in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God lives in you. If anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, they do not belong to Him.
- 10 But if Christ is in you, your body is dead because of sin, yet your spirit is alive because of righteousness.
- 11 And if the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead lives in you, He who raised Christ will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit who dwells in you.

Children and Heirs of God

- 12 So then, brothers and sisters, we are not debtors to the flesh, to live after the flesh.
- 13 For if you live after the flesh, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live.
- 14 For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God.
- 15 You did not receive a spirit of bondage again to fear, but the Spirit of adoption, by which we cry, “Abba, Father!”
- 16 The Spirit Himself testifies with our spirit that we are God’s children.
- 17 And if children, then heirs—heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ—if indeed we share in His sufferings, that we may also share in His glory.

Present Suffering, Future Glory

18 I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us.

19 Creation itself waits eagerly for the revealing of the children of God.

20 For creation was subjected to frustration, not by its own choice, but by the will of the One who subjected it, in hope

21 that creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and brought into the glorious freedom of the children of God.

22 We know that all creation has been groaning together in the pains of childbirth until now.

23 And not only creation, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for our adoption as children—the redemption of our bodies.

24 For in this hope we were saved. But hope that is seen is not hope at all; for who hopes for what they already see?

25 But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it patiently.

The Spirit Helps Us in Prayer

26 Likewise, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. For we do not know how to pray as we should, but the Spirit Himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words.

27 And He who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for God's people according to the will of God.

God's Purpose and God's Love

28 And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose.

29 For those God foreknew He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son, that He might be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters.

30 And those He predestined, He also called; those He called, He also justified; those He justified, He also glorified.

More Than Conquerors

31 What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us?

32 He who did not spare His own Son but gave Him up for us all, how will He not also, along with Him, graciously give us all things?

33 Who will bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies.

34 Who is the one who condemns? Christ Jesus is the one who died—and more than that, was raised—who is at the right hand of God, interceding for us.

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble, or hardship, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword?

36 As it is written: “For your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered.”

37 No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us.

38 For I am convinced that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers,

39 nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Key Lessons from Romans 8

- No condemnation in Christ. Believers are freed from guilt and penalty through Jesus.
- The Spirit brings life. God’s Spirit empowers believers to overcome sin and live in righteousness.
- We are God’s children. Through the Spirit of adoption, we cry, “Abba, Father,” and share in Christ’s inheritance.
- Hope sustains us. Present suffering cannot compare with the glory to come.
- The Spirit intercedes. He prays for us when we don’t know how to pray.
- God works all things for good. Nothing is wasted in His plan.
- Nothing can separate us from God’s love. In Christ, we are more than conquerors.

Romans 9 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God’s Sovereign Choice and Israel’s Stumbling”

Paul’s Sorrow for Israel

1 I speak the truth in Christ—I am not lying. My conscience confirms it through the Holy Spirit.

2 I have great sorrow and unceasing pain in my heart.

3 For I could even wish that I myself were cursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my own people, my kinsmen according to the flesh.

4 They are Israelites, to whom belong the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the temple service, and the promises.

5 Theirs are the patriarchs, and from them, according to the flesh, came Christ, who is God over all, blessed forever. Amen.

God's Promise Is Not Broken

6 But it is not as though the word of God has failed. For not all who are descended from Israel belong to Israel.

7 Nor are they all children because they are Abraham's descendants. Instead, "Through Isaac your descendants will be counted."

8 This means that it is not the children of the flesh who are God's children, but the children of the promise are considered to be the true offspring.

9 For this was the promise: "At the appointed time I will return, and Sarah will have a son."

10 And not only this, but also when Rebekah had conceived twins by one man, our father Isaac—
11 before the twins were born or had done anything good or bad—God's purpose in election stood: not by works, but by Him who calls.

12 It was said, "The older will serve the younger."

13 Just as it is written: "Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated."

God's Right to Show Mercy

14 What shall we say then? Is God unjust? Absolutely not!

15 For God said to Moses, "I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion."

16 So then it does not depend on human desire or effort, but on God who shows mercy.

17 For the Scripture says to Pharaoh: "I raised you up for this very purpose, that I might display My power in you, and that My name might be proclaimed in all the earth."

18 Therefore God has mercy on whom He wants to have mercy, and He hardens whom He wants to harden.

The Potter and the Clay

19 One of you will say to me, "Then why does God still blame us? For who can resist His will?"

20 But who are you, O man, to talk back to God? Shall what is formed say to the one who formed it, "Why did you make me like this?"

21 Does not the potter have the right to make out of the same lump of clay one vessel for honor and another for dishonor?

22 What if God, wanting to show His wrath and make His power known, endured with great patience vessels of wrath prepared for destruction?

23 And what if He did this to make the riches of His glory known to the vessels of mercy, whom He prepared beforehand for glory—

24 including us, whom He also called, not only from the Jews but also from the Gentiles?

God's Call to the Gentiles and a Remnant of Israel

25 As He says in Hosea:

“I will call those who were not My people, ‘My people,’ and her who was not beloved, ‘Beloved.’”

26 And, “In the very place where it was said to them, ‘You are not My people,’ there they will be called ‘children of the living God.’”

27 Isaiah cries out concerning Israel: “Though the number of the children of Israel be like the sand of the sea, only a remnant will be saved.

28 For the Lord will carry out His sentence on earth thoroughly and decisively.”

29 As Isaiah said earlier:

“If the Lord Almighty had not left us descendants, we would have become like Sodom,
we would have been made like Gomorrah.”

Israel's Stumbling and Gentile Faith

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, who did not pursue righteousness, have obtained it—a righteousness that comes by faith.

31 But Israel, pursuing a law of righteousness, has not attained it.

32 Why not? Because they pursued it not by faith but as if it were by works. They stumbled over the stumbling stone,

33 as it is written:

“See, I lay in Zion a stone that causes people to stumble and a rock that makes them fall, and the one who believes in Him will never be put to shame.”

Key Lessons from Romans 9

- Paul's sorrow for Israel. Even with their privileges, many of his people rejected Christ.
- True Israel is spiritual. Not all descendants of Abraham are children of the promise.
- God's mercy is sovereign. Salvation is not earned by effort but flows from God's mercy.
- The potter and the clay. God has the right to shape lives according to His purpose.
- Gentiles called, Israel partially hardened. A remnant of Israel is saved, but Gentiles who believe are also included.
- Faith is the key. Righteousness is received by faith, not by works of the law.
- Christ is the cornerstone. For believers, He is life; for unbelievers, a stumbling stone.

Romans 10 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Word of Faith and Israel’s Stubbornness”

Paul’s Prayer for Israel

- 1 Brothers and sisters, my heart’s desire and prayer to God for Israel is that they may be saved.
 - 2 I can testify about them that they have a zeal for God, but it is not based on true knowledge.
 - 3 For being ignorant of God’s righteousness, and trying to establish their own righteousness, they did not submit to the righteousness of God.
 - 4 For Christ is the fulfillment of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes.

Righteousness by Faith, Not by the Law

- 5 Moses writes about the righteousness that comes from the law: “The person who does these things will live by them.”
 - 6 But the righteousness that comes by faith says: “Do not say in your heart, ‘Who will ascend into heaven?’ (that is, to bring Christ down)
 - 7 or, ‘Who will descend into the deep?’ (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead).”
 - 8 But what does it say? “The word is near you; it is in your mouth and in your heart”—that is, the word of faith we proclaim.
 - 9 If you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved.
 - 10 For with the heart one believes and is made right with God, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved.
 - 11 As Scripture says: “Whoever believes in Him will never be put to shame.”

Salvation Is for All Who Call on the Lord

- 12 There is no difference between Jew and Greek—the same Lord is Lord of all, and richly blesses all who call on Him.
 - 13 For, “Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.”

The Need for Preachers

- 14 How then can they call on the One they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the One of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them?
- 15 And how can anyone preach unless they are sent? As it is written:
“How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news of peace, who bring glad tidings of good things!”

Israel’s Rejection of the Gospel

16 But not all the people of Israel accepted the gospel. For Isaiah says, “Lord, who has believed our message?”

17 So then, faith comes by hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ.

18 But I ask, did they not hear? Of course they did:

“Their voice has gone out into all the earth, their words to the ends of the world.”

19 Again I ask, did Israel not understand? First Moses said:

“I will make you jealous by those who are not a nation;
I will make you angry by a foolish nation.”

20 And Isaiah boldly says:

“I was found by those who did not seek Me;
I revealed Myself to those who did not ask for Me.”

21 But concerning Israel, God says:

“All day long I have held out My hands to a disobedient and stubborn people.”

Key Lessons from Romans 10

- Zeal without knowledge is dangerous. Israel had passion for God but rejected His way of righteousness in Christ.
- Christ is the fulfillment of the law. Salvation is not earned by works but given through faith in Him.
- Confession and belief bring salvation. We must believe in our hearts and confess with our mouths that Jesus is Lord.
- The gospel is for everyone. Jew and Gentile alike are saved by calling on the Lord.
- Preachers are necessary. Faith comes by hearing the word of Christ, and God sends His messengers to proclaim it.
- Israel’s rejection was foretold. Though God stretched out His hands to them, many remained disobedient, while Gentiles received the message.

Romans 11 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God’s Plan for Israel and the Gentiles”

God Has Not Rejected Israel

1 I ask then: Has God rejected His people? Absolutely not! For I myself am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, from the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God has not rejected His people whom He foreknew. Don’t you remember what Scripture says about Elijah, how he prayed to God against Israel?

3 “Lord, they have killed Your prophets and torn down Your altars. I am the only one left, and they are trying to kill me.”

4 But God answered him: “I have kept for Myself seven thousand who have not bowed the knee to Baal.”

5 In the same way, at this present time there is a remnant chosen by grace.

6 And if by grace, then it cannot be by works; otherwise grace would not be grace. But if by works, then it cannot be by grace.

Israel’s Stumbling and the Gentiles’ Blessing

7 What then? Israel did not obtain what it sought, but the chosen ones obtained it, and the rest were hardened.

8 As it is written: “God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that could not see and ears that could not hear, to this very day.”

9 And David said: “Let their table become a snare and a trap, a stumbling block and a punishment for them.

10 Let their eyes be darkened so they cannot see, and bend their backs forever.”

11 So I ask: Did they stumble so as to fall beyond recovery? Not at all! Rather, because of their fall, salvation has come to the Gentiles, to make Israel jealous.

12 Now if their fall means riches for the world, and their failure means riches for the Gentiles, how much greater will their fullness be!

The Olive Tree – Gentiles Grafted In

13 I am speaking to you Gentiles. Since I am the apostle to the Gentiles, I make much of my ministry, 14 in the hope that I may stir up my own people to envy and save some of them.

15 For if their rejection brought reconciliation to the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead?

16 If the first piece of dough is holy, so is the whole batch; if the root is holy, so are the branches.
17 But if some branches were broken off, and you, a wild olive shoot, were grafted in among the others and now share in the rich root of the olive tree,
18 do not boast over those branches. If you do, remember: you do not support the root, but the root supports you.
19 You will say, “Branches were broken off so that I could be grafted in.”
20 That’s true. But they were broken off because of unbelief, and you stand by faith. Do not be proud, but be afraid.
21 For if God did not spare the natural branches, He will not spare you either.
22 Consider then the kindness and severity of God: severity to those who fell, but kindness to you—if you continue in His kindness. Otherwise, you also will be cut off.
23 And if they do not remain in unbelief, they will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again.
24 For if you were cut from a wild olive tree and grafted against nature into a cultivated one, how much more will these, the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree!

The Mystery of Israel’s Salvation

25 Brothers and sisters, I don’t want you to be ignorant of this mystery, so that you won’t be conceited: Israel has experienced a partial hardening until the full number of Gentiles has come in.
26 And in this way all Israel will be saved. As it is written:
“The Deliverer will come from Zion;
He will turn godlessness away from Jacob.
27 And this is My covenant with them
when I take away their sins.”
28 As far as the gospel is concerned, they are enemies for your sake; but as far as election is concerned, they are loved on account of the patriarchs.
29 For God’s gifts and His calling are irrevocable.
30 Just as you who were once disobedient to God have now received mercy through their disobedience,
31 so they too have now become disobedient in order that they too may now receive mercy as a result of God’s mercy to you.
32 For God has bound everyone over to disobedience so that He may have mercy on them all.

Doxology – God’s Infinite Wisdom

33 Oh, the depth of the riches of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments, and His ways beyond finding out!
34 For “Who has known the mind of the Lord? Or who has been His counselor?”
35 Or “Who has ever given to God, that God should repay them?”
36 For from Him and through Him and to Him are all things. To Him be the glory forever! Amen.

Key Lessons from Romans 11

- God has not rejected Israel. A faithful remnant remains, chosen by grace.
- Israel's stumble opened salvation to the Gentiles. Their rejection meant the gospel spread worldwide.
- Gentiles must not boast. They are grafted into the olive tree by faith, and should walk humbly.
- Israel's blindness is temporary. When the full number of Gentiles comes in, God's promise to Israel will be fulfilled.
- God's wisdom is beyond comprehension. His plan shows both His justice and His mercy.
- Everything exists for God's glory. All things are from Him, through Him, and to Him.

Romans 12 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Living Sacrifices and the Christian Life”

Present Your Bodies to God

1 Brothers and sisters, I urge you, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice—holy and pleasing to God. This is your true and reasonable worship.

2 Do not be shaped by this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—His good, pleasing, and perfect will.

Humility and the Body of Christ

3 By the grace given to me I say to every one of you: do not think of yourself more highly than you should, but think with sober judgment, according to the measure of faith God has given you.

4 For just as we have many parts in one body, and not all parts have the same function,

5 so we, though many, form one body in Christ, and each belongs to all the others.

6 We have different gifts, according to the grace given to us. If your gift is prophecy, then prophesy in proportion to your faith.

7 If it is serving, then serve; if it is teaching, then teach;

8 if it is encouraging, then encourage; if it is giving, give generously; if it is leading, lead diligently; if it is showing mercy, do it cheerfully.

Love in Action

9 Let your love be sincere. Hate what is evil; hold tightly to what is good.

10 Be devoted to one another in brotherly love. Honor others above yourselves.

11 Never be lazy, but keep your spiritual zeal, serving the Lord.

12 Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, and stay faithful in prayer.

13 Share with the saints who are in need. Practice hospitality.

Responding to Persecution

14 Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse.

15 Rejoice with those who rejoice; weep with those who weep.

16 Live in harmony with one another. Do not be proud, but be willing to associate with the lowly. Do not be wise in your own eyes.

17 Do not repay anyone evil for evil. Be careful to do what is right in the eyes of everyone.

18 If it is possible, as far as it depends on you, live at peace with all people.

19 Beloved, do not take revenge, but leave room for God's wrath, for it is written: "Vengeance is mine; I will repay, says the Lord."

20 On the contrary:

"If your enemy is hungry, feed him;

if he is thirsty, give him something to drink.

In doing this, you will heap burning coals on his head."

21 Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Key Lessons from Romans 12

- True worship is daily surrender. Offering our bodies to God is our living sacrifice.
- Renewal of the mind brings transformation. The Spirit helps us see and walk in God's will.
- The church is one body with many gifts. Each believer has a role, and all are needed.
- Love must be genuine. We must cling to good, serve with zeal, and care for one another.
- Overcome evil with good. Instead of revenge, bless your enemies, trusting God with justice.
- Live peaceably with others. Humility, kindness, and forgiveness reveal the heart of Christ.

Romans 13 – Crawford Standard Bible

"Living Under Authority and in the Light of Christ"

Respecting Governing Authorities

1 Every person must submit to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been placed there by Him.

2 Therefore, whoever resists authority is opposing what God has established, and those who resist will bring judgment on themselves.

3 For rulers are not a terror to those who do good, but to those who do evil. Do you want to be free from fear of authority? Then do what is right, and you will receive approval.

4 For the authority is God's servant for your good. But if you do wrong, be afraid, for they do not bear the sword in vain. They are God's servants, agents of wrath to bring punishment on the wrongdoer.

5 Therefore, you must be subject, not only because of possible punishment but also because of conscience.

Responsibilities to Society

6 This is also why you pay taxes, for the authorities are God's servants, who give their full time to governing.

7 Give everyone what you owe them: if taxes, then pay taxes; if revenue, then revenue; if respect, then respect; if honor, then honor.

Love Fulfills the Law

8 Owe no one anything, except to love one another. For whoever loves others has fulfilled the law.

9 For the commandments—"Do not commit adultery," "Do not murder," "Do not steal," "Do not bear false witness," "Do not covet"—and whatever other command there may be, are summed up in this one command: "Love your neighbor as yourself."

10 Love does no harm to a neighbor. Therefore, love is the fulfillment of the law.

Living in the Light

11 And do this, understanding the present time: The hour has come for you to wake up from your sleep, because our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed.

12 The night is almost over; the day is nearly here. So let us put aside the works of darkness and put on the armor of light.

13 Let us behave properly, as in the daytime—not in partying and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and lust, not in quarreling and jealousy.

14 Instead, clothe yourselves with the Lord Jesus Christ, and do not plan to satisfy the desires of the flesh.

Key Lessons from Romans 13

- Authority is from God. To resist rightful authority is to resist God's order.
- Christians live responsibly. Paying taxes, showing respect, and honoring leaders reflect obedience to God.
- Love is the true debt. All the commandments are fulfilled when we love others as ourselves.
- Live in the light. Since Christ's return is nearer every day, we must cast off sin and live holy lives.
- Clothe yourself with Christ. Following Jesus guards us against sinful desires and keeps us walking in righteousness.

Romans 14 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Living in Unity and Walking in Love”

Receiving the Weak in Faith

1 Accept the one whose faith is weak, but not for the purpose of arguing over opinions.

2 One person believes he may eat all things, while another, whose faith is weak, eats only vegetables.

3 The one who eats everything must not look down on the one who does not, and the one who abstains must not judge the one who eats—for God has accepted them.

The Lord is the Judge

4 Who are you to judge someone else's servant? To his own master he stands or falls. And he will stand, for the Lord is able to make him stand.

5 One person considers one day more sacred than another, while another considers every day alike. Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind.

6 The one who observes a day, observes it in honor of the Lord. The one who eats, eats in honor of the Lord, giving thanks to God; and the one who abstains, abstains in honor of the Lord, and gives thanks to God.

Living Unto the Lord

7 None of us lives for ourselves alone, and none of us dies for ourselves alone.

8 If we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord. So, whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord.

9 For this reason Christ died and rose again, so that He might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

Do Not Judge Your Brother

10 Why do you judge your brother? Or why do you treat him with contempt? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.

11 As it is written: "As surely as I live, says the Lord, every knee will bow to Me, and every tongue will confess to God."

12 So then, each of us will give an account of ourselves to God.

Walking in Love, Not Causing Others to Stumble

13 Therefore, let us stop passing judgment on one another. Instead, decide never to put a stumbling block or hindrance in the way of a brother or sister.

14 I am convinced in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself. But if anyone regards something as unclean, then for that person it is unclean.

15 If your brother or sister is distressed because of what you eat, you are no longer walking in love. Do not destroy with your food someone for whom Christ died.

The True Kingdom of God

16 Do not let what you know is good be spoken of as evil.

17 For the kingdom of God is not about eating and drinking, but about righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit.

18 The one who serves Christ in this way is pleasing to God and approved by others.

Pursue Peace and Edification

19 So then, let us pursue the things that make for peace and the things that build up one another.

20 Do not, for the sake of food, destroy the work of God. All food is clean, but it is wrong for anyone to eat if it causes offense.

21 It is better not to eat meat, or drink wine, or do anything that causes your brother or sister to stumble.

Living by Faith

22 Do you have faith? Keep it between yourself and God. Blessed is the one who does not condemn himself by what he approves.

23 But the one who doubts is condemned if he eats, because he is not eating from faith; and everything that does not come from faith is sin.

Key Lessons from Romans 14

- Unity in diversity. Believers may hold different convictions about food and days, but all must honor the Lord.
- The Lord is Judge. We must not judge one another, for each will stand before Christ.
- Love limits liberty. If our freedom causes another to stumble, we must choose love over liberty.
- The Kingdom is spiritual. It is about righteousness, peace, and joy—not external rules about food and drink.
- Faith must guide actions. Anything not done from faith is sin.

Romans 15 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Christ Our Example and Hope for All Nations”

Bearing With the Weak

1 We who are strong in faith should bear with the failings of the weak and not live only to please ourselves.

2 Each of us should please our neighbor for their good, to build them up.

3 For even Christ did not please Himself. As it is written: “The insults of those who insulted You fell on Me.”

Hope from the Scriptures

4 Everything written in the past was written to teach us, so that through endurance and the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.

5 May the God who gives endurance and encouragement grant you to live in harmony with one another, according to Christ Jesus,

6 so that with one heart and one voice you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Christ Received Both Jews and Gentiles

7 Therefore, accept one another, just as Christ accepted you, in order to bring glory to God.

8 I tell you that Christ became a servant to the Jews to show God’s truthfulness, to confirm the promises made to the patriarchs,

9 and so that the Gentiles might glorify God for His mercy. As it is written: “Therefore I will praise You among the Gentiles and sing to Your name.”

10 Again it says: “Rejoice, O Gentiles, with His people.”

11 And again: “Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles; let all the peoples extol Him.”

12 And again Isaiah says: “The Root of Jesse will come, even He who rises to rule the Gentiles; in Him the Gentiles will hope.”

13 May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in Him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Paul’s Ministry to the Gentiles

14 I am convinced, my brothers and sisters, that you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with knowledge, and able to instruct one another.

15 Yet I have written to you quite boldly at points to remind you of these things, because of the grace God gave me

16 to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles. I serve the gospel of God so that the Gentiles might become an acceptable offering, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

17 Therefore I have reason to boast in Christ Jesus in my service to God.

18 I will not venture to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me in leading the Gentiles to obey God—by what I have said and done,

19 by the power of signs and wonders, through the power of the Spirit of God. From Jerusalem all the way around to Illyricum, I have fully proclaimed the gospel of Christ.

20 It has always been my ambition to preach the gospel where Christ was not already known, so I would not build on someone else’s foundation.

21 As it is written: “Those who were not told about Him will see, and those who have not heard will understand.”

Paul’s Travel Plans

22 This is why I have often been hindered from coming to you.

23 But now that there is no more place for me to work in these regions, and since I have long desired to visit you,

24 I plan to do so when I go to Spain. I hope to see you while passing through and to be helped on my way there by you, after enjoying your company for a while.

25 For now, I am going to Jerusalem to serve the saints.

26 For the believers in Macedonia and Achaia were pleased to make a contribution for the poor among the Lord’s people in Jerusalem.

27 They were glad to do so, and indeed they owe it to them. For if the Gentiles have shared in the Jews’ spiritual blessings, they owe it to them to share with them their material blessings.

28 So after I have completed this task and made sure that they have received this fruit, I will go to Spain and visit you on the way.

29 I know that when I come to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing of Christ.

A Call to Prayer

30 I urge you, brothers and sisters, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to join me in my struggle by praying to God for me.

31 Pray that I may be delivered from the unbelievers in Judea and that my service in Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints there,

32 so that by God's will I may come to you with joy and together with you be refreshed.

33 May the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

Key Lessons from Romans 15

- Strong believers must serve the weak, just as Christ bore our burdens.
- The Scriptures give hope, teaching us to endure and encouraging us with God's promises.
- Christ came for both Jews and Gentiles, showing God's mercy to all nations.
- Paul's ministry reminds us that the gospel must go where Christ is not yet known.
- Unity in prayer strengthens the church, and God's peace sustains His people.

Romans 16 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Greetings, Warnings, and Glory to God”

Commending Phoebe

1 I commend to you our sister Phoebe, a servant of the church at Cenchrea.

2 Receive her in the Lord as is fitting for the saints. Assist her in whatever she may need from you, for she has been a helper of many, including myself.

Greetings to Fellow Workers

3 Greet Priscilla and Aquila, my fellow workers in Christ Jesus.

4 They risked their own lives for me. I am thankful to them, and so are all the churches of the Gentiles.

5 Greet also the church that meets in their house. Greet my beloved Epaenetus, the first convert to Christ in Achaia.

6 Greet Mary, who worked very hard for you.

7 Greet Andronicus and Junia, my relatives and fellow prisoners. They are well known among the apostles, and they were in Christ before I was.

8 Greet Ampliatus, my beloved in the Lord.

9 Greet Urbanus, our fellow worker in Christ, and my dear friend Stachys.

10 Greet Apelles, tested and approved in Christ. Greet those who belong to the household of Aristobulus.

11 Greet Herodion, my relative. Greet those in the household of Narcissus who are in the Lord.

12 Greet Tryphena and Tryphosa, women who work hard in the Lord. Greet my dear friend Persis, who worked very hard in the Lord.

13 Greet Rufus, chosen in the Lord, and his mother, who has been like a mother to me too.

14 Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers with them.

15 Greet Philologus, Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints with them.

16 Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the churches of Christ greet you.

Warning Against False Teachers

17 I urge you, brothers and sisters, to watch out for those who cause divisions and create obstacles contrary to the teaching you have learned. Avoid them.

18 Such people are not serving our Lord Christ but their own appetites. By smooth talk and flattering words, they deceive the hearts of the unsuspecting.

19 Everyone has heard about your obedience, so I rejoice over you. But I want you to be wise about what is good and innocent about what is evil.

20 The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

Final Greetings

21 Timothy, my fellow worker, sends his greetings to you, as do Lucius, Jason, and Sosipater, my relatives.

22 I, Tertius, who wrote down this letter, greet you in the Lord.

23 Gaius, who is my host and also the host of the whole church, greets you. Erastus, the city treasurer, and our brother Quartus send you greetings.

24 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

Doxology – Glory to God

25 Now to Him who is able to establish you in accordance with my gospel and the message of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery hidden for long ages past,

26 but now revealed and made known through the prophetic Scriptures by the command of the eternal God, so that all nations might come to the obedience that comes from faith—

27 to the only wise God be glory forever through Jesus Christ. Amen.

Key Lessons from Romans 16

- The Church is built on relationships. Paul honors men and women, Jews and Gentiles, leaders and helpers—all precious in Christ.
- True love in Christ is shown by mutual care. Paul commends, encourages, and blesses his coworkers in the gospel.
- False teachers must be avoided. They seek self-interest, but God calls His people to purity, wisdom, and obedience.
- Victory over Satan is certain. God Himself will crush the enemy under the feet of His people.
- Glory belongs to God alone. Salvation is His plan from the beginning, revealed in Christ, and offered to all nations.

Introduction to the Book of 1 Corinthians

“Let love be your highest goal! But you should also desire the special abilities the Spirit gives—especially the ability to prophesy.”
– 1 Corinthians 14:1

Title and Meaning

The book of 1 Corinthians is a letter written by the apostle Paul to the church in Corinth. Its title reflects its recipients—the believers in the Greek city of Corinth, a wealthy and cosmopolitan hub known for commerce, culture, and immorality. Paul addresses the struggles of a young church planted in the midst of a morally corrupt society. This letter provides correction, encouragement, and instruction for living as God’s holy people in a sinful world.

Author and Date

The apostle Paul is the author of 1 Corinthians (1 Corinthians 1:1). He wrote it around AD 55, during his extended stay in Ephesus on his third missionary journey (Acts 19:1, Acts 20:31). Paul had founded the church in Corinth during his second missionary journey (Acts 18:1–17), and he writes now to address issues that had been reported to him and questions the church had asked.

Purpose of 1 Corinthians

Paul’s main goal was to confront problems and call the believers back to unity and holiness. His purposes include:

- To correct divisions in the church caused by pride and allegiance to different leaders.

- To address moral failures and call believers to purity.
 - To answer questions about marriage, food offered to idols, worship, and spiritual gifts.
 - To defend the truth of the resurrection of Christ and its central role in Christian faith.
 - To remind the Corinthians that love must be the foundation of all Christian living.

Structure of 1 Corinthians

The letter moves from problems to solutions, with practical teaching throughout:

1. Divisions in the Church (Chs. 1–4)

Paul urges unity and reminds them that Christ alone is the foundation.

2. Discipline and Moral Purity (Chs. 5–7)

Instructions on handling sin, lawsuits, sexual immorality, and marriage.

3. Christian Liberty and Responsibility (Chs. 8–10)

Guidance on food offered to idols and living for God's glory.

4. Worship and Order in the Church (Chs. 11–14)

Teaching on the Lord's Supper, head coverings, spiritual gifts, and love as the highest way.

5. The Resurrection of Christ (Ch. 15)

A powerful defense of the resurrection as the core of the gospel and the hope of believers.

6. Final Instructions and Closing (Ch. 16)

Practical matters and encouragement for steadfast faith.

Major Themes

- Unity in Christ – Believers are one body, called to set aside pride and division.
 - Holiness – God's people must reflect His purity, even in a corrupt culture.
 - Love as the Greatest Gift – Love surpasses all knowledge, gifts, and abilities.
 - Resurrection Hope – The resurrection of Jesus guarantees our future resurrection.
 - Spiritual Gifts – The Spirit equips believers for service, but love governs their use.

Why 1 Corinthians Matters Today

1 Corinthians speaks directly to the modern church. In a world still filled with division, moral confusion, and cultural pressure, Paul's letter calls believers to live with holiness, humility, and love. It reminds us that our faith is not just intellectual—it is practical, shaping how we handle relationships, worship, morality, and hope for eternity.

Key Verse

“Let love be your highest goal! But you should also desire the special abilities the Spirit gives—especially the ability to prophesy.” – 1 Corinthians 14:1

This verse summarizes the heartbeat of 1 Corinthians: love is the foundation of the Christian life, guiding all actions and expressions of faith.

1 Corinthians 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Christ the Power and Wisdom of God”

Greeting and Thanksgiving

1 Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother,
2 To the church of God in Corinth, to those sanctified in Christ Jesus and called to be his holy people, together with all everywhere who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ—their Lord and ours:
3 Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I always thank my God for you because of his grace given you in Christ Jesus.

5 For in him you have been enriched in every way—with all kinds of speech and with all knowledge—
6 God thus confirming our testimony about Christ among you.

7 Therefore you do not lack any spiritual gift as you eagerly wait for our Lord Jesus Christ to be revealed.

8 He will also keep you firm to the end, so that you will be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 God is faithful, who has called you into fellowship with his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

A Call to Unity

10 I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree with one another in what you say and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be perfectly united in mind and thought.

11 For it has been reported to me by Chloe’s household that there are quarrels among you.

12 What I mean is this: One of you says, “I follow Paul”; another, “I follow Apollos”; another, “I follow Cephas”; still another, “I follow Christ.”

13 Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Were you baptized in the name of Paul?

14 I thank God that I did not baptize any of you except Crispus and Gaius, 15 so no one can say that you were baptized in my name.

16 (Yes, I also baptized the household of Stephanas; beyond that, I do not remember if I baptized anyone else.)

17 For Christ did not send me to baptize, but to preach the gospel—not with wisdom and eloquence, lest the cross of Christ be emptied of its power.

Christ Crucified: God’s Power and Wisdom

18 For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.

19 For it is written: “I will destroy the wisdom of the wise; the intelligence of the intelligent I will frustrate.”

20 Where is the wise person? Where is the teacher of the law? Where is the philosopher of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world?

21 For since in the wisdom of God the world through its wisdom did not know him, God was pleased through the foolishness of what was preached to save those who believe.

22 Jews demand signs and Greeks look for wisdom,

23 but we preach Christ crucified: a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles,

24 but to those whom God has called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God.

25 For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.

God Chooses the Lowly

26 Brothers and sisters, think of what you were when you were called. Not many of you were wise by human standards; not many were influential; not many were of noble birth.

27 But God chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise; God chose the weak things of the world to shame the strong.

28 God chose the lowly things of this world and the despised things—and the things that are not—to nullify the things that are,

29 so that no one may boast before him.

30 It is because of him that you are in Christ Jesus, who has become for us wisdom from God—that is, our righteousness, holiness, and redemption.

31 Therefore, as it is written: “Let the one who boasts boast in the Lord.”

Key Lessons from 1 Corinthians 1

- Christ unites the church. Divisions and factions weaken the witness of believers; unity must be rooted in Christ, not human leaders.

- The cross is the center. The gospel is not about eloquence or human wisdom but about the saving power of Christ crucified.
- God overturns worldly values. He chooses the lowly, weak, and despised to display His glory and confound the proud.
- Boasting belongs to God alone. All wisdom, righteousness, and redemption are found in Christ, leaving no room for human pride.

1 Corinthians 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Spirit Reveals the Wisdom of God”

Preaching Christ Crucified, Not Human Wisdom

1 And when I came to you, brothers and sisters, I did not come with eloquence or human wisdom as I proclaimed to you the testimony about God.

2 For I resolved to know nothing while I was with you except Jesus Christ and him crucified.

3 I came to you in weakness, with great fear and trembling.

4 My message and my preaching were not with wise and persuasive words, but with a demonstration of the Spirit’s power,

5 so that your faith might not rest on human wisdom, but on God’s power.

God’s Hidden Wisdom

6 Yet we do speak a wisdom among the mature, but not the wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are coming to nothing.

7 No, we declare God’s wisdom, a mystery that has been hidden and that God destined for our glory before time began.

8 None of the rulers of this age understood it, for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

9 However, as it is written: “What no eye has seen, what no ear has heard, and what no human mind has conceived—the things God has prepared for those who love him.”

The Spirit Reveals All Things

10 But God has revealed them to us by his Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, even the deep things of God.

11 For who knows a person’s thoughts except their own spirit within them? In the same way no one knows the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God.

12 What we have received is not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, so that we may understand what God has freely given us.

13 This is what we speak, not in words taught by human wisdom but in words taught by the Spirit, explaining spiritual realities with Spirit-taught words.

14 The person without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God but considers them foolishness, and cannot understand them because they are discerned only through the Spirit.

15 The person with the Spirit makes judgments about all things, but such a person is not subject to merely human judgments.

16 For, “Who has known the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him?” But we have the mind of Christ.

Key Lessons from 1 Corinthians 2

- Faith rests in God’s power, not human wisdom. Paul reminds believers that true preaching is Spirit-filled, not based on persuasive rhetoric.
- God’s wisdom is hidden from the world. Spiritual truth cannot be discovered by intellect alone but is revealed through the Spirit.
- The Spirit grants discernment. Only those who have the Spirit of God can understand the deep things of God, while the natural mind sees them as foolish.
- We share in the mind of Christ. Believers are given the ability to see life through Christ’s wisdom, walking in truth and spiritual understanding.

1 Corinthians 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Christ the Only Foundation”

Spiritual Immaturity

1 And I, brothers and sisters, could not address you as people who live by the Spirit but as people who are worldly—mere infants in Christ.

2 I gave you milk, not solid food, for you were not yet ready for it. Indeed, you are still not ready.

3 For you are still worldly. Since there is jealousy and quarreling among you, are you not worldly? Are you not acting like mere humans?

4 For when one says, “I follow Paul,” and another, “I follow Apollos,” are you not being worldly?

God Gives the Increase

5 What, after all, is Apollos? And what is Paul? Only servants through whom you came to believe—as the Lord assigned to each his task.

6 I planted the seed, Apollos watered it, but God made it grow.

7 So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God, who makes things grow.

8 The one who plants and the one who waters have one purpose, and they will each be rewarded according to their own labor.

9 For we are co-workers in God's service; you are God's field, God's building.

Christ the Foundation

10 By the grace God has given me, I laid a foundation as a wise builder, and someone else is building on it. But each one should build with care.

11 For no one can lay any foundation other than the one already laid, which is Jesus Christ.

12 If anyone builds on this foundation using gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay, or straw,

13 their work will be shown for what it is, because the Day will bring it to light. It will be revealed with fire, and the fire will test the quality of each person's work.

14 If what has been built survives, the builder will receive a reward.

15 If it is burned up, the builder will suffer loss but yet will be saved—even though only as one escaping through the flames.

God's Temple

16 Don't you know that you yourselves are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in your midst?

17 If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy that person; for God's temple is sacred, and you together are that temple.

True Wisdom Belongs to God

18 Do not deceive yourselves. If any of you think you are wise by the standards of this age, you should become "fools" so that you may become wise.

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness in God's sight. As it is written: "He catches the wise in their craftiness."

20 And again, "The Lord knows that the thoughts of the wise are futile."

Belonging to Christ

21 So then, no more boasting about human leaders! All things are yours,

22 whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or life or death or the present or the future—all are yours,

23 and you are of Christ, and Christ is of God.

Key Lessons from 1 Corinthians 3

- Spiritual maturity matters. Jealousy and divisions are marks of immaturity; true growth comes by living in the Spirit.
- God gives the increase. Human leaders are servants, but only God produces lasting growth.
- Christ is the one foundation. Everything built apart from Him will not stand the test of eternity.
- We are God's temple. Believers are indwelt by the Holy Spirit, and God takes His temple seriously.
- True wisdom is God's wisdom. The wisdom of this world will fail, but the wisdom of God endures forever.
- We belong to Christ. All things are ours in Him, but ultimately, we are His possession, and He belongs to God.

1 Corinthians 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Faithfulness in God’s Household”

Ministers and Stewards

1 So then, people ought to regard us as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God.

2 Now it is required that those who have been given a trust must prove faithful.

3 But to me it matters very little if I am judged by you or by any human court. Indeed, I do not even judge myself.

4 My conscience is clear, but that does not make me innocent. It is the Lord who judges me.

5 Therefore judge nothing before the appointed time; wait until the Lord comes. He will bring to light what is hidden in darkness and will expose the motives of the heart. At that time each will receive their praise from God.

Pride and Humility

6 Brothers and sisters, I have applied these things to myself and Apollos for your benefit, so that you may learn not to go beyond what is written. Then you will not be puffed up in being a follower of one of us over against the other.

7 For who makes you different from anyone else? What do you have that you did not receive? And if you did receive it, why do you boast as though you did not?

8 Already you have all you want! Already you have become rich! You have begun to reign—and that without us! How I wish that you really had begun to reign so that we also might reign with you.

Apostles as Spectacles

9 For it seems to me that God has put us apostles on display at the end of the procession, like those condemned to die in the arena. We have been made a spectacle to the whole world, to angels as well as to human beings.

10 We are fools for Christ, but you are so wise in Christ! We are weak, but you are strong! You are honored, we are dishonored!

11 To this very hour we go hungry and thirsty, we are in rags, we are brutally treated, we are homeless.

12 We work hard with our own hands. When we are cursed, we bless; when we are persecuted, we endure it.

13 When we are slandered, we answer kindly. We have become the scum of the earth, the garbage of the world—right up to this moment.

A Father's Warning

14 I am writing this not to shame you but to warn you as my dear children.

15 Even if you had ten thousand guardians in Christ, you do not have many fathers, for in Christ Jesus I became your father through the gospel.

16 Therefore I urge you to imitate me.

17 For this reason I have sent to you Timothy, my son whom I love, who is faithful in the Lord. He will remind you of my way of life in Christ Jesus, which agrees with what I teach everywhere in every church.

The Kingdom in Power

18 Some of you have become arrogant, as if I were not coming to you.

19 But I will come to you very soon, if the Lord is willing, and then I will find out not only how these arrogant people are talking, but what power they have.

20 For the kingdom of God is not a matter of talk but of power.

21 What do you prefer? Shall I come to you with a rod of discipline, or shall I come in love and with a gentle spirit?

Key Lessons from 1 Corinthians 4

- Faithfulness is required. A steward's value is not measured by human opinion but by God's judgment.
- Boasting is empty. Everything we have is received from God; pride has no place in the kingdom.
- True apostleship suffers. Paul describes the hardships and humiliations he endures for the sake of Christ.
- Spiritual fatherhood matters. Paul reminds the Corinthians that he birthed them in Christ and calls them to imitate his example.
- The kingdom is power, not just words. Empty talk is worthless unless it is backed by the transforming power of God.
- Correction flows from love. Paul seeks to come in gentleness, but he will discipline if necessary, to preserve the integrity of Christ's church.

1 Corinthians 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Stewards of the Mysteries of God”

Ministers and Stewards

1 Let people regard us as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God.

2 Now it is required of stewards that they be found faithful.

3 To me it is a very small thing to be judged by you or by any human court. Indeed, I do not even judge myself.

4 My conscience is clear, but that does not make me innocent. It is the Lord who judges me.

5 Therefore do not judge anything before the appointed time—until the Lord comes. He will bring to light the hidden things of darkness and will reveal the motives of the heart. At that time, each person will receive their praise from God.

Humility Against Pride

6 Brothers and sisters, I have applied these things to myself and Apollos for your benefit, so that you may learn not to go beyond what is written. Then none of you will be puffed up in favor of one against another.

7 For who makes you different from anyone else? What do you have that you did not receive? And if you did receive it, why do you boast as though you did not?

8 Already you have all you want! Already you are rich! You have begun to reign as kings without us! And I wish that you truly did reign, so that we also might reign with you.

Apostles as a Spectacle

9 For it seems to me that God has put us apostles on display at the end of the procession, like those condemned to die. We have been made a spectacle to the world, to angels, and to human beings.

10 We are fools for Christ, but you are wise in Christ! We are weak, but you are strong! You are honored, but we are despised!

11 To this very hour we go hungry and thirsty, we are in rags, we are beaten, and we are homeless.

12 We work hard with our own hands. When we are reviled, we bless; when we are persecuted, we endure it.

13 When we are slandered, we answer kindly. We have become like the scum of the earth, the refuse of the world—right up to this moment.

A Father's Warning

14 I am not writing this to shame you, but to warn you as my beloved children.

15 For even if you had ten thousand instructors in Christ, you do not have many fathers. For in Christ Jesus I became your father through the gospel.

16 Therefore I urge you: be imitators of me.

17 For this reason I sent you Timothy, my beloved and faithful son in the Lord. He will remind you of my way of life in Christ Jesus, which agrees with what I teach everywhere in every church.

The Kingdom in Power

18 Some of you have become arrogant, as if I were not coming to you.

19 But I will come to you soon, if the Lord is willing. Then I will find out not the talk of these arrogant people but their power.

20 For the kingdom of God is not a matter of talk but of power.

21 What do you prefer? Shall I come to you with a rod of discipline, or in love and with a gentle spirit?

Key Lessons from 1 Corinthians 4

- Faithfulness matters most. God calls His servants to be faithful stewards of His mysteries, not performers for human approval.
- Judge carefully. Final judgment belongs to the Lord, who sees the hidden motives of the heart.
- Boasting is foolish. Everything we have is received from God, so pride has no place in the Christian life.
- The true cost of discipleship. Apostles endure hardship, ridicule, and suffering, yet they respond with blessing and patience.

- Spiritual fatherhood matters. Paul calls the Corinthians his children in the faith and urges them to imitate his walk in Christ.
- The kingdom is power, not words. Empty speech means nothing without the transforming power of God at work.

1 Corinthians 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Discipline in the Church”

A Grave Sin in the Church

1 It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and of a kind not even tolerated among the Gentiles: a man has his father’s wife!

2 And you are arrogant! Should you not rather have mourned, so that the one who has done this deed might be removed from among you?

3 For I, though absent in body but present in spirit, have already pronounced judgment on the one who did this, just as if I were present.

4 When you are assembled in the name of our Lord Jesus, and my spirit is present, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,

5 hand this man over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved on the day of the Lord Jesus.

Purging Out the Old Leaven

6 Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump?

7 Get rid of the old leaven, that you may be a new lump, since you truly are unleavened. For Christ, our Passover Lamb, has been sacrificed for us.

8 Therefore, let us keep the feast, not with the old leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

Separation from the Unrepentant

9 I wrote to you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people—

10 not at all meaning the immoral people of this world, or the greedy, or swindlers, or idolaters; in that case you would need to leave the world.

11 But now I am writing to you not to associate with anyone who bears the name of “brother” if he is guilty of sexual immorality, or greed, or idolatry, or abuse, or drunkenness, or swindling. With such a person do not even eat.

12 For what business is it of mine to judge outsiders? Is it not those inside the church whom you are to judge?

13 God will judge those outside. “Remove the wicked person from among you.”

Key Lessons from 1 Corinthians 5

- Sin must not be tolerated in the church. The Corinthian church had grown arrogant instead of mourning over open sin.
- Church discipline is necessary. Paul calls for the guilty man to be removed, not for cruelty, but for the salvation of his soul.
- Sin spreads like leaven. One person’s unchecked rebellion can corrupt the whole church if not dealt with.
- Christ our Passover. Just as Israel purged leaven before Passover, Christians are to live in sincerity and truth because Jesus was sacrificed for us.
- Separation from professing believers who persist in sin. Paul distinguishes between unbelievers in the world (whom we must engage with) and unrepentant “brothers” (whom we must discipline).
- Judgment begins in the house of God. The church is responsible for holiness among its own members, while God judges those outside.

1 Corinthians 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Glorify God in Your Body”

Lawsuits Among Believers

1 How dare any of you, when you have a dispute with another, take it before the unrighteous and not before the saints?

2 Do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is to be judged by you, are you not competent to judge trivial cases?

3 Do you not know that we will judge angels? How much more the matters of this life!

4 If you have disputes about such matters, do you appoint as judges those who are of no account in the church?

5 I say this to your shame. Is there really no one among you wise enough to judge between his brothers?

6 But instead, one brother takes another to court—and this in front of unbelievers!

Wronging Your Own Brethren

7 The very fact that you have lawsuits among you means you have already been defeated. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be cheated?

8 Instead, you yourselves do wrong and cheat—and you do this to your own brothers and sisters!

The Warning Against Unrighteousness

9 Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor men who practice homosexuality, 10 nor thieves, nor the greedy, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God.

11 And that is what some of you were. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

Glorifying God With the Body

12 “All things are lawful for me”—but not all things are beneficial. “All things are lawful for me”—but I will not be mastered by anything.

13 “Food is meant for the stomach and the stomach for food”—but God will destroy both one and the other. The body is not meant for sexual immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body.

14 And God raised the Lord and will also raise us up by His power.

15 Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ and make them members of a prostitute? Never!

16 Do you not know that he who unites himself with a prostitute becomes one body with her? For it is said, “The two will become one flesh.”

17 But whoever is united with the Lord is one spirit with Him.

18 Flee from sexual immorality. Every other sin a person commits is outside the body, but whoever sins sexually sins against their own body.

19 Do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God? You are not your own,

20 for you were bought with a price. Therefore, glorify God with your body and in your spirit, which are God’s.

Key Lessons from 1 Corinthians 6

- Believers must not take disputes before unbelievers. The church should settle matters in wisdom and unity rather than airing grievances before the world.
- The church is called to holiness. Those who persist in unrepentant sin will not inherit God’s kingdom.

- Transformation in Christ. The Corinthian believers were once bound in sin, but through Christ they were washed, sanctified, and justified.
- Freedom with responsibility. Not everything permissible is beneficial; true freedom means refusing to be enslaved by sin.
- The body belongs to Christ. Because believers are members of Christ, their bodies must not be joined to sin but kept pure for the Lord.
- The body is God's temple. The Holy Spirit dwells within believers, making them living temples for His glory.
- Bought with a price. Jesus' sacrifice demands that Christians glorify God in both body and spirit, living holy lives unto Him.

1 Corinthians 7 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Marriage, Singleness, and Devotion to the Lord”

Principles of Marriage

1 Now concerning the matters you wrote about: It is good for a man not to marry.

2 But because of sexual immorality, each man should have his own wife, and each woman her own husband.

3 The husband should give to his wife her marital rights, and likewise the wife to her husband.

4 The wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband does. In the same way, the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife does.

5 Do not deprive one another, except by agreement for a limited time, so that you may devote yourselves to prayer. Then come together again, so that Satan may not tempt you because of your lack of self-control.

The Gift of Singleness and Marriage

6 I say this as a concession, not as a command.

7 I wish that all were as I am. But each has his own gift from God; one has this gift, another has that.

8 To the unmarried and the widows I say: it is good for them to remain unmarried, as I am.

9 But if they cannot exercise self-control, they should marry. For it is better to marry than to burn with passion.

Instruction to Married Believers

10 To the married I give this command (not I, but the Lord): A wife must not separate from her husband.

11 But if she does, she must remain unmarried or else be reconciled to her husband. And a husband must not divorce his wife.

Believers Married to Unbelievers

12 To the rest I say (I, not the Lord): If any brother has a wife who is not a believer, and she is willing to live with him, he must not divorce her.

13 And if any woman has a husband who is not a believer, and he is willing to live with her, she must not divorce him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified through his wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified through her believing husband. Otherwise your children would be unclean, but as it is, they are holy.

15 But if the unbeliever departs, let them do so. The brother or the sister is not bound in such cases. God has called us to live in peace.

16 For how do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife?

Live as You Are Called

17 Nevertheless, each one should live the life the Lord has assigned him and to which God has called him. This is the rule I lay down in all the churches.

18 Was a man already circumcised when he was called? He should not become uncircumcised. Was a man uncircumcised when he was called? He should not be circumcised.

19 Circumcision is nothing and uncircumcision is nothing. Keeping God's commands is what counts.

20 Each one should remain in the situation in which he was when God called him.

21 Were you a slave when you were called? Do not let it trouble you—although if you can gain your freedom, do so.

22 For the one who was a slave when called to faith in the Lord is the Lord's freedman; similarly, the one who was free when called is Christ's slave.

23 You were bought with a price; do not become slaves of men.

24 Brothers and sisters, each one should remain with God in the condition they were in when called.

Concerning Virgins and the Unmarried

25 Now about virgins: I have no command from the Lord, but I give a judgment as one who by the Lord's mercy is trustworthy.

26 Because of the present crisis, I think that it is good for a man to remain as he is.

27 Are you pledged to a woman? Do not seek to be released. Are you free from such a commitment? Do not look for a wife.

28 But if you do marry, you have not sinned; and if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. But those who marry will face many troubles in this life, and I want to spare you this.

Living with Eternity in View

29 What I mean, brothers and sisters, is that the time is short. From now on those who have wives should live as if they do not;

30 those who mourn, as if they did not; those who are happy, as if they were not; those who buy something, as if it were not theirs to keep;

31 those who use the things of the world, as if not engrossed in them. For this world in its present form is passing away.

Focused Devotion to the Lord

32 I would like you to be free from concern. An unmarried man is concerned about the Lord's affairs—how he can please the Lord.

33 But a married man is concerned about the affairs of this world—how he can please his wife—

34 and his interests are divided. An unmarried woman or virgin is concerned about the Lord's affairs: her aim is to be devoted to the Lord in both body and spirit. But a married woman is concerned about the affairs of this world—how she can please her husband.

35 I am saying this for your own good, not to restrict you, but that you may live in a right way in undivided devotion to the Lord.

Advice on Marriage and Virginity

36 If anyone is worried that he is not acting honorably toward the virgin he is engaged to, and if she is getting along in years and he feels he ought to marry, he should do as he wants. He is not sinning. They should marry.

37 But the man who has settled the matter in his own mind, who is under no compulsion but has control over his will, and has made up his mind not to marry the virgin—this man also does the right thing.

38 So then, he who marries the virgin does right, but he who does not marry her does even better.

Widows and Remarriage

39 A woman is bound to her husband as long as he lives. But if her husband dies, she is free to marry anyone she wishes, but he must belong to the Lord.

40 In my judgment, she is happier if she stays as she is—and I think that I too have the Spirit of God.

Key Lessons from 1 Corinthians 7

- Marriage is a safeguard against immorality. Husbands and wives belong to each other and must fulfill their responsibilities in love and faithfulness.

- Singleness is a gift. Some are called to remain single for the sake of undivided devotion to the Lord.
- Marriage to unbelievers. Believers should remain if the spouse is willing, but if the unbelieving partner leaves, the believer is free. God has called His children to peace.
- Stay faithful in your calling. Whether married, single, slave, or free—God’s command is to serve Him faithfully where you are.
- The world is passing away. Christians are to live with eternity in mind, not absorbed in worldly concerns.
- Undivided devotion to God. Singleness provides greater freedom to serve the Lord wholeheartedly.
- Marriage is honorable. Both marriage and singleness are gifts, but each person must live according to the grace given them.

1 Corinthians 8 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Knowledge, Love, and Christian Liberty”

Knowledge vs. Love

1 Now concerning food offered to idols: we know that we all possess knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up.

2 If anyone thinks he knows something, he does not yet know as he ought to know.

3 But if anyone loves God, he is known by God.

Idols and the One True God

4 So then, about eating food sacrificed to idols: we know that “an idol is nothing at all in the world” and that “there is no God but one.”

5 For even if there are so-called gods, whether in heaven or on earth—as indeed there are many “gods” and many “lords”—

6 yet for us there is but one God, the Father, from whom are all things and for whom we live; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things and through whom we live.

The Weak Conscience of Believers

7 But not everyone possesses this knowledge. Some, still accustomed to idols, eat food as if it were sacrificed to a god, and since their conscience is weak, it is defiled.

8 But food does not bring us near to God; we are no worse if we do not eat, and no better if we do.

9 Be careful, however, that the exercise of your rights does not become a stumbling block to the weak.

Responsibility Toward the Weak

10 For if anyone with a weak conscience sees you, who have this knowledge, eating in an idol's temple, won't he be emboldened to eat what is sacrificed to idols?

11 So this weak brother or sister, for whom Christ died, is destroyed by your knowledge.

12 When you sin against them in this way and wound their weak conscience, you sin against Christ.

13 Therefore, if what I eat causes my brother or sister to fall into sin, I will never eat meat again, so that I will not cause them to stumble.

Key Lessons from 1 Corinthians 8

- Knowledge without love is dangerous. True Christian maturity is not about proving what we know, but showing love that builds others up.
- Idols are powerless, but consciences are fragile. While idols have no real existence, some believers struggle with past associations, and we must be sensitive to their weaknesses.
- Food is morally neutral, but love is not. Eating or not eating makes no difference to God—but using our freedom without care can harm others.
- Our actions affect others. Causing a weaker believer to stumble is not just unkind—it is sin against Christ Himself.
- Love limits liberty. The Christian should gladly lay aside personal rights when they threaten another's faith, because love comes before freedom.

1 Corinthians 9 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Paul’s Rights, His Sacrifice, and His Discipline”

Paul’s Apostolic Authority

1 Am I not an apostle? Am I not free? Have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? Are not you my work in the Lord?

2 If I am not an apostle to others, yet surely I am to you: for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.

3 My defense to those who examine me is this:

The Rights of an Apostle

4 Do we not have the right to eat and to drink?

5 Do we not have the right to take along a believing wife, as the other apostles, the brothers of the Lord, and Cephas?

6 Or is it only Barnabas and I who must work to support ourselves?

7 Who serves as a soldier at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat of its fruit? Or who tends a flock and does not drink of the milk of the flock?

8 Do I say this from a human point of view? Does not the Law say the same also?

9 For it is written in the Law of Moses: “You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain.” Is it for oxen that God is concerned?

10 Or does He not certainly speak for our sake? Yes, it was written for us—because the plowman should plow in hope, and the thresher should share in the harvest.

11 If we have sown spiritual things for you, is it too much if we reap material things from you?

12 If others share this right over you, do not we more? Nevertheless, we have not used this right, but we endure all things so that we will not hinder the gospel of Christ.

13 Do you not know that those who minister at the temple eat from the temple offerings, and those who serve at the altar partake of what is offered on the altar?

14 In the same way, the Lord has commanded that those who preach the gospel should live from the gospel.

Paul’s Sacrificial Example

15 But I have used none of these rights. And I am not writing these things to suggest it should be done for me. For I would rather die than have anyone deprive me of my boasting.

16 For when I preach the gospel, I cannot boast, since necessity is laid upon me; indeed, woe to me if I do not preach the gospel!

17 For if I do this willingly, I have a reward; but if unwillingly, I am still entrusted with a stewardship.

18 What then is my reward? That when I preach the gospel, I may offer it free of charge, so as not to misuse my rights in the gospel.

Paul’s Servanthood for the Gospel

19 For though I am free from all men, I have made myself a servant to all, that I might win more.

20 To the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might win the Jews. To those under the law, I became as one under the law (though not myself under the law), that I might win those under the law.

21 To those outside the law, I became as one outside the law (not being outside God’s law, but under the law of Christ), that I might win those outside the law.

22 To the weak I became weak, that I might win the weak. I have become all things to all people, so that by all possible means I might save some.

23 I do all this for the sake of the gospel, that I may share in its blessings.

Running to Win the Prize

24 Do you not know that in a race all the runners run, but only one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you may obtain it.

25 Everyone who competes exercises self-control in all things. They do it to obtain a perishable crown, but we an imperishable one.

26 Therefore I run with purpose, not aimlessly. I fight not as one beating the air.

27 But I discipline my body and bring it into subjection, so that after I have preached to others, I myself will not be disqualified.

Key Lessons from 1 Corinthians 9

- True leadership sacrifices rights. Paul reminds us that though he had every right as an apostle to receive support, he laid it down for the sake of the gospel.
- The gospel demands flexibility. Paul became all things to all people, not compromising truth, but adjusting his approach so more might come to Christ.
- Preaching is a necessity, not a choice. For Paul, the gospel was not a career but a divine calling—“woe is me if I do not preach.”
- Discipline is vital for discipleship. Just as athletes discipline their bodies for a prize, Christians must bring their desires under control for an eternal reward.
- Eternal perspective guides service. Earthly crowns fade, but the prize of eternal life in Christ makes every sacrifice worthwhile.

1 Corinthians 10 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Examples, Warnings, and the Glory of God”

Israel as an Example

1 Moreover, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be unaware that all our fathers were under the cloud and all passed through the sea.

2 They were all baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea,

3 and all ate the same spiritual food,

4 and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual Rock that followed them, and that Rock was Christ.

5 But with many of them God was not pleased, and their bodies were scattered in the wilderness.

Lessons from Israel's Failures

6 Now these things became examples for us, so that we should not crave evil things as they did.

7 Do not be idolaters as some of them were, as it is written: "The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play."

8 Nor let us commit sexual immorality, as some of them did, and in one day twenty-three thousand fell.

9 Nor let us test Christ, as some of them did, and were destroyed by serpents.

10 Nor grumble, as some of them did, and were destroyed by the destroyer.

11 Now all these things happened to them as examples, and they were written for our warning, upon whom the ends of the ages have come.

12 Therefore let the one who thinks he stands take heed, lest he fall.

God's Faithfulness in Temptation

13 No temptation has overtaken you except what is common to humanity. But God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will also make the way of escape, so that you may be able to bear it.

Flee from Idolatry

14 Therefore, my dearly loved, flee from idolatry.

15 I speak to wise people; judge for yourselves what I say.

16 The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ?

17 For we, being many, are one bread and one body; for we all partake of that one bread.

18 Look at Israel according to the flesh: are not those who eat the sacrifices partakers of the altar?

19 What do I mean then? That an idol is anything, or that what is offered to idols is anything?

20 No, but that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice they sacrifice to demons and not to God, and I do not want you to have fellowship with demons.

21 You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons; you cannot partake of the Lord's table and the table of demons.

22 Or do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than He?

Seeking the Good of Others

23 All things are lawful, but not all things are beneficial. All things are lawful, but not all things build up.

24 Let no one seek his own good, but the good of others.

25 Eat whatever is sold in the meat market without raising questions of conscience,

26 for "the earth is the Lord's, and everything in it."

27 If an unbeliever invites you to a meal and you choose to go, eat whatever is set before you without raising questions of conscience.

28 But if anyone says to you, “This has been offered in sacrifice to idols,” do not eat it, for the sake of the one who told you and for the sake of conscience—

29 I mean the other person’s conscience, not your own. For why should my freedom be judged by another’s conscience?

30 If I partake with thankfulness, why am I denounced because of that for which I give thanks?

Do All Things for God’s Glory

31 Therefore, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.

32 Give no offense, either to Jews, or to Gentiles, or to the church of God,

33 just as I also please all people in all things, not seeking my own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

Key Lessons from 1 Corinthians 10

- History is written for our instruction. Israel’s failures in the wilderness serve as warnings for us today to avoid idolatry, immorality, testing God, and grumbling.
- God limits temptation. Though trials come, God is faithful to provide a way of escape so His people can endure.
- Idolatry is deadly. Participation in idol feasts is fellowship with demons and cannot be joined with the Lord’s Table.
- Christian freedom is governed by love. Our liberty must never become a stumbling block for a weaker brother or sister.
- Everything must glorify God. Whether eating, drinking, or in any action, the believer’s ultimate aim is to magnify God and to seek the good of others.

1 Corinthians 11 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Headship, Worship, and the Lord’s Supper”

Following Christ’s Example

1 Be imitators of me, just as I also am of Christ.

2 Now I praise you, brothers and sisters, because you remember me in everything and hold firmly to the traditions, just as I delivered them to you.

Order in Headship

3 But I want you to understand that the head of every man is Christ, the head of the woman is the man, and the head of Christ is God.

4 Every man who prays or prophesies with his head covered dishonors his head.

5 But every woman who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonors her head—it is the same as if her head were shaved.

6 For if a woman is not covered, let her also be shorn; but if it is disgraceful for a woman to be shorn or shaved, let her be covered.

7 For a man ought not to cover his head, since he is the image and glory of God; but woman is the glory of man.

8 For man is not from woman, but woman from man.

9 Neither was man created for the woman, but woman for the man.

10 For this reason the woman ought to have a symbol of authority on her head, because of the angels.

11 Nevertheless, in the Lord, woman is not independent of man, nor man independent of woman.

12 For just as woman came from man, so also man comes through woman; and all things are from God.

13 Judge for yourselves: is it proper for a woman to pray to God uncovered?

14 Does not even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a disgrace to him,

15 but if a woman has long hair, it is her glory? For her hair is given to her for a covering.

16 But if anyone is inclined to be contentious, we have no such custom, nor do the churches of God.

Abuses at the Lord's Supper

17 But in giving this instruction, I do not praise you, because you come together not for the better but for the worse.

18 For, in the first place, when you come together as a church, I hear that there are divisions among you, and in part I believe it.

19 For there must be factions among you, so that those who are genuine may be recognized among you.

20 Therefore, when you come together in one place, it is not to eat the Lord's Supper.

21 For in eating, each one goes ahead with his own meal; one goes hungry, another gets drunk.

22 What! Do you not have houses to eat and drink in? Or do you despise the church of God and humiliate those who have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall I praise you? In this I do not praise you.

Institution of the Lord's Supper

23 For I received from the Lord what I also delivered to you: that the Lord Jesus, on the night when He was betrayed, took bread.

24 And when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, "Take, eat; this is My body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of Me."

25 In the same way, He also took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me.”

26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord’s death until He comes.

Self-Examination Required

27 Therefore, whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 But let a person examine himself, and in this way let him eat of the bread and drink of the cup.

29 For the one who eats and drinks without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment on himself.

30 For this reason many among you are weak and sick, and many sleep.

31 But if we judged ourselves truly, we would not be judged.

32 But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we may not be condemned with the world.

33 Therefore, my brothers and sisters, when you come together to eat, wait for one another.

34 If anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, so that when you come together it will not be for judgment. The remaining matters I will arrange when I come.

Key Lessons from 1 Corinthians 11

- Follow Christ through faithful examples. Paul calls the Corinthians to imitate him as he imitates Christ.
- God’s order in headship. Christ is the head of man, man is the head of woman, and God is the head of Christ. This order reflects God’s design, not human pride.
- Worship must be honorable. How we present ourselves before God matters, and reverence in prayer and prophecy should reflect God’s created order.
- The Lord’s Supper is sacred. It is not a common meal, but a holy remembrance of Christ’s sacrifice.
- Self-examination prevents judgment. To partake unworthily invites discipline, but those who examine themselves approach the Table in humility.
- Unity and love in gathering. Believers must wait for one another, showing honor, so that worship builds up instead of bringing condemnation.

1 Corinthians 12 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Gifts of the Spirit and the Body of Christ”

Spiritual Gifts and the Spirit's Work

- 1 Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be ignorant.
 - 2 You know that when you were Gentiles, you were led astray to mute idols, however you were led.
 - 3 Therefore I make known to you that no one speaking by the Spirit of God says, "Jesus be cursed," and no one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit.

The Same Spirit, Many Gifts

- 4 There are different kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit.
 - 5 There are different kinds of ministries, but the same Lord.
 - 6 And there are different kinds of activities, but it is the same God who works all things in all people.
 - 7 But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.
 - 8 For to one is given through the Spirit the word of wisdom, to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit,
 - 9 to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the same Spirit,
 - 10 to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another discerning of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues.
 - 11 But one and the same Spirit works all these things, distributing to each one individually as He wills.

Unity in the Body of Christ

- 12 For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so also is Christ.
 - 13 For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.
 - 14 For the body is not one member, but many.
 - 15 If the foot should say, "Because I am not a hand, I am not part of the body," it does not stop being part of the body.
 - 16 And if the ear should say, "Because I am not an eye, I am not part of the body," it does not stop being part of the body.
 - 17 If the whole body were an eye, where would be the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where would be the sense of smell?
 - 18 But now God has set the members, each one of them, in the body just as He pleased.
 - 19 And if they were all one member, where would the body be?
 - 20 But now there are many members, yet one body.

All Members Are Needed

- 21 The eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you," nor again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you."

22 On the contrary, the parts of the body that seem weaker are indispensable.

23 And those parts of the body that we think less honorable, we give greater honor; and our unpresentable parts are treated with greater modesty.

24 But our presentable parts have no need of it. Instead, God has so arranged the body, giving greater honor to the part that lacked it,

25 so that there may be no division in the body, but that the members may have the same care for one another.

26 If one member suffers, all the members suffer together; if one member is honored, all the members rejoice together.

God's Appointed Ministries

27 Now you are the body of Christ, and individually members of it.

28 And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, administrations, and various kinds of tongues.

29 Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles?

30 Do all have gifts of healing? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret?

31 But earnestly desire the greater gifts. And yet I will show you a still more excellent way.

Key Lessons from 1 Corinthians 12

- The Spirit gives diverse gifts. Every ability or gift in the church comes from the Holy Spirit for the good of all, not for personal glory.
- Unity in diversity. Just as a body has many parts with different functions, so the church thrives when every believer plays their role.
- No one is unnecessary. Even the weakest or least visible members are vital, and God gives them honor.
- Shared suffering and joy. When one believer suffers, all suffer; when one is honored, all rejoice.
- God appoints ministries. Apostles, prophets, teachers, and others serve by divine appointment.
- The more excellent way. Spiritual gifts are important, but love (chapter 13) is the greatest foundation for all ministry.

1 Corinthians 13 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Greatest Gift: Love”

Without Love, Gifts Are Nothing

1 Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but do not have love, I have become as a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal.

2 And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and though I have all faith so that I could move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing.

3 And though I give away all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, but do not have love, it profits me nothing.

The Character of Love

4 Love is patient and kind. Love does not envy. Love does not boast, it is not arrogant.

5 It does not behave rudely, it does not seek its own way, it is not easily provoked, it keeps no record of wrongs.

6 Love does not rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices in the truth.

7 It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

The Supremacy of Love

8 Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will vanish away.

9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

10 But when the perfect comes, the partial will be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. But when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now we see through a glass dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I will know fully, even as I am fully known.

The Greatest of All

13 And now remain faith, hope, and love, these three. But the greatest of these is love.

Key Lessons from 1 Corinthians 13

- Love is essential. Spiritual gifts, great faith, generosity, or even sacrifice are worthless without love.
- Love's qualities. True love is patient, kind, humble, forgiving, and rejoices in the truth.
- Love outlasts gifts. Prophecy, tongues, and knowledge will one day fade, but love will endure forever.

- Spiritual maturity. Growing in love is a mark of maturity, putting away childish pride and selfishness.
- Our hope of fullness. Now we know in part, but one day we will know fully when we see Christ face to face.
- The greatest gift. Faith and hope are vital, but love surpasses them all, for love reflects the very heart of God.

1 Corinthians 14 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Order in the Gifts of the Spirit”

Prophecy Above Tongues

1 Pursue love, and earnestly desire spiritual gifts, but especially that you may prophesy.

2 For the one who speaks in a tongue does not speak to men but to God, for no one understands him; however, in the Spirit he speaks mysteries.

3 But the one who prophesies speaks to people for their strengthening, encouragement, and comfort.

4 The one who speaks in a tongue builds up himself, but the one who prophesies builds up the church.

5 I wish that you all spoke with tongues, but even more that you prophesied. For greater is the one who prophesies than the one who speaks in tongues, unless he interprets, so that the church may be built up.

Clarity in the Church

6 Now, brothers, if I come to you speaking with tongues, what good will I be to you unless I bring some revelation, or knowledge, or prophecy, or teaching?

7 Even lifeless things, such as the pipe or the harp, if they make no distinction in the sounds, how will it be known what is being played?

8 For if the trumpet gives an uncertain sound, who will prepare for battle?

9 So likewise you, unless you speak intelligible words with your tongue, how will it be understood? You will just be speaking into the air.

10 There are, no doubt, many kinds of voices in the world, and none is without meaning.

11 Therefore, if I do not understand the meaning of the voice, I will be a foreigner to the one who speaks, and he who speaks will be a foreigner to me.

12 So you also, since you are zealous for spiritual gifts, strive to excel in building up the church.

Praying and Singing with Understanding

13 Therefore let the one who speaks in a tongue pray that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful.

15 What then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also. I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.

16 Otherwise, if you bless with the spirit, how can the one who is unlearned say “Amen” at your giving of thanks, since he does not understand what you say?

17 You may be giving thanks well enough, but the other person is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speak in tongues more than all of you.

19 Yet in the church I would rather speak five words with understanding, to teach others also, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

The Purpose of Tongues and Prophecy

20 Brothers, do not be children in understanding; in malice be children, but in understanding be mature.

21 In the law it is written: “With men of other tongues and other lips I will speak to this people; yet even then they will not hear me, says the Lord.”

22 Therefore tongues are a sign, not for those who believe, but for unbelievers. But prophecy is not for unbelievers, but for those who believe.

23 If the whole church comes together and everyone speaks in tongues, and unbelievers or outsiders enter, will they not say you are out of your mind?

24 But if all prophesy, and an unbeliever or outsider comes in, he is convicted by all, he is judged by all.

25 The secrets of his heart are revealed; and so, falling on his face, he will worship God, declaring that God is truly among you.

Orderly Worship

26 What is the outcome then, brothers? When you come together, each of you has a psalm, a teaching, a tongue, a revelation, an interpretation. Let all things be done for building up.

27 If anyone speaks in a tongue, let it be by two, or at the most three, each in turn, and let someone interpret.

28 But if there is no interpreter, let him remain silent in the church, and let him speak to himself and to God.

29 Let two or three prophets speak, and let the others weigh what is said.

30 If a revelation comes to another who is seated, let the first be silent.

31 For you can all prophesy one by one, so that all may learn and all may be encouraged.

32 The spirits of prophets are subject to the prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion but of peace, as in all the churches of the saints.

Order Regarding Women in the Assembly

34 Let your women keep silent in the churches, for they are not permitted to speak, but must be in submission, as the law also says.

35 If they desire to learn anything, let them ask their husbands at home, for it is disgraceful for a woman to speak in the church.

Final Instructions on Gifts

36 Did the word of God come from you? Or did it reach only you?

37 If anyone thinks himself to be a prophet or spiritual, let him acknowledge that what I write to you are the Lord's commands.

38 But if anyone ignores this, he himself will be ignored.

39 Therefore, brothers, earnestly desire to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues.

40 But let all things be done decently and in order.

Key Lessons from 1 Corinthians 14

- Prophecy builds up the church. Tongues are valuable, but prophecy edifies the whole congregation.
- Clarity matters. Worship should be understandable so that all can join in and grow.
- Balance of spirit and understanding. Prayer and song must engage both heart and mind.
- Tongues as a sign. They serve unbelievers as a witness, while prophecy strengthens believers.
- Order in worship. Spiritual gifts should be exercised in a way that brings peace and edification, not confusion.
- Decency and humility. All things in the church must be done with respect, submission, and unity under God's design.

1 Corinthians 15 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Resurrection of Christ and Our Hope”

The Gospel of Christ's Death and Resurrection

1 Brothers and sisters, I remind you of the gospel which I preached to you, which you also received, and in which you stand,

2 by which you are saved—if you hold firmly to the message I preached to you—unless you believed in vain.

3 For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures,

4 that He was buried, and that He rose again on the third day according to the Scriptures,

5 and that He was seen by Peter, then by the twelve.

6 After that, He appeared to more than five hundred brothers at once, most of whom remain alive until now, though some have fallen asleep.

7 Then He appeared to James, then to all the apostles.

8 And last of all, He appeared also to me, as to one abnormally born.

9 For I am the least of the apostles, not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.

10 But by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace toward me was not in vain; on the contrary, I worked harder than all of them—yet not I, but the grace of God that was with me.

11 Whether then it was I or they, so we preach, and so you believed.

The Resurrection of the Dead

12 Now if Christ is preached that He has been raised from the dead, how can some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 If there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ is not risen.

14 And if Christ is not risen, then our preaching is useless, and your faith is also useless.

15 Moreover, we are found to be false witnesses about God, because we testified that God raised Christ from the dead—if in fact the dead are not raised.

16 For if the dead are not raised, then Christ has not been raised.

17 And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile; you are still in your sins.

18 Then those who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished.

19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied.

20 But Christ has indeed been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep.

Death Defeated in Christ

21 For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead also came through a man.

22 For as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will be made alive.

23 But each in his own order: Christ the firstfruits, afterward those who belong to Christ at His coming.

24 Then comes the end, when He hands over the kingdom to God the Father, after He has destroyed all rule, authority, and power.

25 For He must reign until He has put all His enemies under His feet.

26 The last enemy that will be destroyed is death.

27 For “He has put everything under His feet.” But when it says “everything,” it is clear that this does not include God Himself, who put everything under Christ.

28 When all things have been subjected to Him, then the Son Himself will be made subject to the One who put everything under Him, so that God may be all in all.

The Reality of the Resurrection

29 Otherwise, what will those do who are baptized for the dead, if the dead are not raised at all? Why then are they baptized for them?

30 And why are we in danger every hour?

31 I affirm, by the boasting in you which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily.

32 If I fought wild beasts at Ephesus with merely human motives, what did I gain? If the dead are not raised, "Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die."

33 Do not be deceived: "Bad company corrupts good morals."

34 Wake up to righteousness, and do not sin; for some do not have the knowledge of God—I say this to your shame.

The Nature of the Resurrection Body

35 But someone will ask, "How are the dead raised? With what kind of body do they come?"

36 Foolish one! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies.

37 What you sow is not the body that is to be, but a bare grain, perhaps of wheat or of some other grain.

38 But God gives it a body as He has determined, and to each kind of seed its own body.

39 Not all flesh is the same: people have one kind of flesh, animals another, birds another, and fish another.

40 There are also heavenly bodies and earthly bodies; but the glory of the heavenly is one kind, and the glory of the earthly is another.

41 The sun has one kind of glory, the moon another, and the stars another; and star differs from star in glory.

42 So it is with the resurrection of the dead: what is sown is perishable, what is raised is imperishable.

43 It is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power.

44 It is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body.

The First Adam and the Last Adam

45 So it is written: "The first man Adam became a living being." The last Adam became a life-giving spirit.

46 However, the spiritual did not come first, but the natural, and after that the spiritual.

47 The first man was of the earth, made of dust; the second man is the Lord from heaven.

48 As was the man of dust, so are those who are of the dust; and as is the heavenly man, so also are those who are of heaven.

49 And just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we will also bear the image of the heavenly man.

Victory over Death

50 Now this I say, brothers and sisters, flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does perishable inherit imperishable.

51 Behold, I tell you a mystery: we shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, 52 in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible has put on incorruption, and this mortal has put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written: “Death is swallowed up in victory.”

55 “O death, where is your sting? O grave, where is your victory?”

56 The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law.

57 But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Stand Firm in the Work of the Lord

58 Therefore, my beloved brothers and sisters, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor in the Lord is not in vain.

Key Lessons from 1 Corinthians 15

- The resurrection is central. Without Christ’s resurrection, faith and preaching are empty.
- Christ is the firstfruits. His resurrection guarantees the resurrection of all believers.
- Death is defeated. The final enemy will be destroyed, and immortality will be given to the saints.
- Our bodies will be changed. The resurrection body is spiritual, glorious, and incorruptible.
- Victory is in Christ. Through Him, death loses its sting, and the grave loses its power.
- Steadfast labor. Since the resurrection is true, every effort for Christ matters eternally.

1 Corinthians 16 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Final Instructions and Closing Greetings”

The Collection for the Saints

1 Now concerning the collection for the saints: as I directed the churches of Galatia, so also you must do.

2 On the first day of the week, let each of you set aside something, saving it up as he may prosper, so that there will be no need for collections when I come.

3 When I arrive, those you approve by letters I will send with your gift to Jerusalem.

4 If it is appropriate for me to go also, they will accompany me.

Paul's Travel Plans

5 I will come to you after I pass through Macedonia—for I am passing through Macedonia—

6 and perhaps I will stay with you, or even spend the winter, so that you may help me on my journey wherever I go.

7 For I do not wish to see you now only in passing, but I hope to remain with you for some time, if the Lord permits.

8 But I will stay in Ephesus until Pentecost,

9 because a great and effective door has opened for me, and there are many adversaries.

Instructions Regarding Fellow Workers

10 If Timothy comes, see that he may be with you without fear, for he is doing the Lord's work as I also do.

11 Therefore let no one despise him, but send him on his way in peace, that he may come to me, for I am expecting him with the brothers.

12 As for our brother Apollos, I strongly urged him to come to you with the brothers, but it was not his will to come now; he will come when he has opportunity.

Exhortation to Stand Firm

13 Be watchful, stand firm in the faith, act with courage, be strong.

14 Let all that you do be done in love.

Commendation of Faithful Servants

15 You know the household of Stephanas—that they were the first converts in Achaia, and that they devoted themselves to the service of the saints—

16 be subject to such as these, and to every fellow worker and laborer.

17 I rejoice at the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus, for they supplied what was lacking on your part.

18 They have refreshed my spirit and yours. Therefore acknowledge such people.

Final Greetings

19 The churches of Asia greet you. Aquila and Priscilla greet you warmly in the Lord, with the church that meets in their house.

20 All the brothers greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss.

21 This greeting is with my own hand—Paul.

22 If anyone does not love the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be accursed. Maranatha!

23 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

Key Lessons from 1 Corinthians 16

- Generosity strengthens the church. Giving regularly and willingly provides for the needs of fellow believers and displays love in action.
- Gospel work requires planning and endurance. Paul’s travel plans show both human responsibility and dependence on God’s will.
- Honor faithful servants. Believers like Timothy, Stephanas, and others are examples of humble and dedicated ministry.
- Love is the foundation. Every command—whether to stand firm, be courageous, or serve others—must be rooted in love.
- Christ’s return is near. “Maranatha” (“Our Lord, come!”) reminds us to live in expectation of Jesus’ appearing.

Introduction to the Book of 2 Corinthians

“My grace is all you need. My power works best in weakness.” – 2 Corinthians 12:9

Title and Meaning

The book of 2 Corinthians is Paul’s second preserved letter to the church in Corinth. While 1 Corinthians deals largely with correction and instruction, 2 Corinthians is deeply personal and pastoral. It reveals Paul’s heart for ministry, his defense of his apostleship, and his encouragement for believers to live faithfully despite hardships. It is a letter marked by both vulnerability and strength, showing how God’s power is made perfect in human weakness.

Author and Date

The apostle Paul is the author (2 Corinthians 1:1). He wrote the letter around AD 56–57, likely from Macedonia, after leaving Ephesus during his third missionary journey (Acts 20:1–2). This letter came after a painful visit and a “severe letter” (2 Corinthians 2:4, 7:8), making 2 Corinthians both a reconciliation and a defense of Paul’s ministry.

Purpose of 2 Corinthians

Paul wrote 2 Corinthians with several key purposes:

- To defend his authority as an apostle against false teachers who questioned his motives.
 - To comfort the church after their repentance from earlier rebukes.
 - To encourage generosity in giving, especially toward the offering for the Jerusalem church.
 - To explain the nature of Christian ministry—service marked by humility, suffering, and reliance on God’s power.
 - To remind believers that true strength is found in Christ, not human ability.

Structure of 2 Corinthians

This letter is both theological and emotional, moving through personal defense, encouragement, and exhortation:

1. Paul’s Defense and Comfort (Chs. 1–7)

Paul shares about suffering, explains his ministry, and celebrates reconciliation with the Corinthians.

2. The Collection for Jerusalem (Chs. 8–9)

Encouragement to give generously and cheerfully, trusting God’s provision.

3. Paul’s Apostolic Defense (Chs. 10–13)

Paul confronts critics, contrasts false apostles with his suffering for Christ, and emphasizes God’s strength in weakness.

Major Themes

- God’s Comfort in Affliction – The Lord sustains His people in trials (2 Cor. 1:3–4).
- Authentic Ministry – True servants of Christ live with humility, sincerity, and endurance.
- Generosity in Giving – Believers are called to cheerful and sacrificial giving.
- Weakness and God’s Strength – Human weakness is the stage for God’s power to shine.

- Reconciliation – God reconciles us through Christ, and we are called to be ambassadors of reconciliation.

Why 2 Corinthians Matters Today

2 Corinthians reminds us that Christianity is not about worldly power, prestige, or outward appearances. It shows that trials, weaknesses, and even suffering are not signs of failure but opportunities for God’s strength to be revealed. For modern believers, it is a call to live with integrity, generosity, and trust in the sufficiency of God’s grace.

Key Verse

“My grace is all you need. My power works best in weakness.” – 2 Corinthians 12:9

This verse captures the essence of 2 Corinthians: God’s grace is sufficient, and His power shines brightest when we are weakest.

2 Corinthians 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God of All Comfort and Faithfulness”

Greeting and Blessing

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the church of God in Corinth, together with all the saints throughout Achaia:

2 Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

The God of Comfort

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and the God of all comfort.

4 He comforts us in all our troubles, so that we may be able to comfort those in any trouble with the same comfort we ourselves receive from God.

5 For just as the sufferings of Christ overflow into our lives, so also through Christ our comfort abounds.

6 If we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation; if we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which produces in you patient endurance of the same sufferings we suffer.

7 And our hope for you is firm, because we know that just as you share in our sufferings, so also you will share in our comfort.

Deliverance from Despair

8 Brothers and sisters, we do not want you to be unaware of the troubles we faced in Asia. We were burdened beyond our strength, so that we even despaired of life.

9 Indeed, we felt we had received the sentence of death. But this happened that we might not rely on ourselves, but on God who raises the dead.

10 He has delivered us from such a deadly peril, and He will deliver us again. On Him we have set our hope that He will continue to deliver us, 11 as you help us by your prayers. Then many will give thanks on our behalf for the gracious favor granted us in answer to the prayers of many.

Paul's Integrity and God's Faithfulness

12 Now this is our boast: our conscience testifies that we have conducted ourselves in the world, and especially in our relations with you, with integrity and godly sincerity. We have done so not by worldly wisdom but by the grace of God.

13 For we write nothing to you beyond what you can read and understand. And I trust that you will understand fully, 14 as you have already understood in part, that you can boast of us just as we will boast of you in the day of the Lord Jesus.

Paul's Change of Plans

15 Because of this confidence, I planned to visit you first, so that you might benefit twice:

16 once on my way to Macedonia and then again on my return from Macedonia, so you could send me on my way to Judea.

17 Was I fickle when I intended to do this? Or do I make my plans in a worldly manner, so that in the same breath I say "Yes, yes" and "No, no"?

18 But as surely as God is faithful, our message to you is not "Yes" and "No."

19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by me, Silvanus, and Timothy, was not "Yes" and "No," but in Him it has always been "Yes."

20 For no matter how many promises God has made, they are "Yes" in Christ. And so through Him the "Amen" is spoken by us to the glory of God.

Sealed by the Spirit

21 Now it is God who makes both us and you stand firm in Christ. He anointed us, 22 set His seal of ownership on us, and put His Spirit in our hearts as a guarantee of what is to come.

Paul's Pastoral Heart

23 I call God as my witness—and I stake my life on it—that it was to spare you that I did not return to Corinth.

24 Not that we lord it over your faith, but we work with you for your joy, because it is by faith that you stand firm.

Key Lessons from 2 Corinthians 1

- God is the source of all comfort. His mercy enables us to endure trials and equips us to comfort others.
- Trials drive us to rely on God. Paul's despair taught him to trust the One who raises the dead.
- Prayer unites the church. The intercession of many brings thanksgiving for God's deliverance.
- Christ is the fulfillment of God's promises. Every promise of God finds its "Yes" in Jesus.
- The Holy Spirit is our guarantee. God has sealed us, marking us as His own and securing our eternal hope.
- Leaders are servants, not rulers. Paul reminds the church that he came not to dominate but to help them stand firm in faith.

2 Corinthians 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

"Forgiveness, Triumph, and the Fragrance of Christ"

Paul's Loving Restraint

1 I determined within myself not to come to you again in sorrow.

2 For if I cause you grief, who then will bring me joy but the very ones I have grieved?

3 I wrote as I did so that when I came, I would not have sorrow from those who ought to make me rejoice. I have confidence that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 Out of great distress and anguish of heart, with many tears, I wrote to you—not to grieve you but to show you the depth of my love for you.

Forgiveness for the Offender

5 If anyone has caused grief, he has not grieved me alone but to some extent all of you.

6 The punishment inflicted by the majority is sufficient for such a man.

7 Instead, you ought to forgive and comfort him, so that he will not be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow.

8 Therefore I urge you to reaffirm your love for him.

9 The reason I wrote was to test you and see if you would be obedient in everything.

10 If you forgive anyone, I also forgive. And what I have forgiven—if there was anything to forgive—I have forgiven in the presence of Christ for your sake, 11 so that Satan might not outwit us. For we are not unaware of his schemes.

Restlessness in Troas

12 When I came to Troas to preach the gospel of Christ, the Lord opened a door for me,

13 but I had no peace of mind because I did not find my brother Titus there. So I said goodbye to them and went on to Macedonia.

The Fragrance of Christ

14 But thanks be to God, who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and through us spreads everywhere the fragrance of the knowledge of Him.

15 For we are to God the sweet fragrance of Christ among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing.

16 To the one we are the smell of death leading to death; to the other, the fragrance of life leading to life. And who is sufficient for these things?

17 Unlike so many, we do not peddle the word of God for profit. On the contrary, in Christ we speak before God with sincerity, as those sent from God.

Key Lessons from 2 Corinthians 2

- Correction must lead to restoration. Discipline in the church is necessary, but forgiveness and love must follow to prevent overwhelming sorrow.
- Satan exploits division. Unforgiveness gives him a foothold, but unity and grace disarm his schemes.
- Ministry is partnership with God. Even when Paul faced restlessness and discouragement, God opened doors for the gospel.
- Christ makes us victorious. Believers are led in triumph, not by their own power, but by Christ's work through them.
- The gospel has a dual effect. To those who reject it, it is a message of judgment; to those who believe, it is life eternal.
- Authenticity matters. True ministers of Christ do not corrupt God's word but speak with sincerity, knowing they stand before God.

2 Corinthians 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The New Covenant of the Spirit”

The Living Epistle

1 Do we begin again to commend ourselves? Or do we need, like some others, letters of recommendation to you, or from you?

2 You yourselves are our letter, written on our hearts, known and read by everyone.

3 It is clear that you are a letter from Christ, delivered through us, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts.

Sufficiency from God

4 Such confidence we have through Christ before God.

5 Not that we are competent in ourselves to claim anything for ourselves, but our competence comes from God.

6 He has made us ministers of a new covenant—not of the letter but of the Spirit. For the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.

The Glory of the New Covenant

7 Now if the ministry that brought death, carved in letters on stone, came with glory—so much that the Israelites could not gaze at the face of Moses because of its fading glory—

8 will not the ministry of the Spirit be even more glorious?

9 For if the ministry that brought condemnation was glorious, how much more glorious is the ministry that brings righteousness!

10 For what was glorious has no glory now in comparison with the surpassing glory.

11 And if what was fading away came with glory, how much greater is the glory of that which lasts!

The Veil Removed in Christ

12 Therefore, since we have such a hope, we are very bold.

13 We are not like Moses, who would put a veil over his face to keep the Israelites from gazing at the end of what was fading away.

14 But their minds were hardened. To this day the same veil remains when the old covenant is read; it has not been removed, because only in Christ is it taken away.

15 Even to this day when Moses is read, a veil covers their hearts.

16 But whenever anyone turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away.

Liberty and Transformation

17 Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 And we all, with unveiled faces, beholding the glory of the Lord as in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, which comes from the Lord, who is the Spirit.

Key Lessons from 2 Corinthians 3

- Believers are living letters. Our lives are testimonies written by the Spirit of God, more powerful than any written recommendation.
- True sufficiency is from God. Ministry is not about human strength but divine empowerment through the Spirit.
- The new covenant surpasses the old. The law engraved on stone brought death and condemnation, but the Spirit brings righteousness and life.
- Christ removes the veil. Without Him, spiritual blindness remains, but through Him, hearts are unveiled to see God's glory.
- Freedom is in the Spirit. Life in Christ is not bondage to rules but liberty empowered by the Spirit.
- Transformation is ongoing. As we behold Christ, the Spirit changes us from one level of glory to another until we reflect His image.

2 Corinthians 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Treasure in Earthen Vessels”

The Integrity of the Gospel

1 Therefore, since through God's mercy we have this ministry, we do not lose heart.

2 But we have renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in deceit, nor distorting the word of God. Instead, by openly declaring the truth, we commend ourselves to everyone's conscience in the sight of God.

3 But if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing,

4 in whom the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, so that they cannot see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God.

Christ, Not Ourselves

5 For we do not preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake.

6 For God, who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

Treasure in Clay Jars

7 But we have this treasure in jars of clay, to show that the surpassing power belongs to God and not to us.

8 We are hard pressed on every side, yet not crushed; perplexed, but not in despair;

9 persecuted, but not abandoned; struck down, but not destroyed.

10 We always carry around in our body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our body.

11 For we who live are always being given over to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our mortal flesh.

12 So then, death is at work in us, but life is at work in you.

Faith in the God Who Raises the Dead

13 It is written: "I believed; therefore I have spoken." Since we have that same spirit of faith, we also believe and therefore speak,

14 knowing that He who raised the Lord Jesus will also raise us with Jesus and present us with you to Himself.

15 All this is for your benefit, so that the grace that is reaching more and more people may cause thanksgiving to overflow to the glory of God.

Eternal Glory Outweighs Present Suffering

16 Therefore we do not lose heart. Though outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly we are being renewed day by day.

17 For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal weight of glory far beyond all comparison.

18 So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen. For what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.

Key Lessons from 2 Corinthians 4

- The gospel is clear, but unbelief blinds. Satan blinds unbelievers to the light of Christ, yet God shines His light in willing hearts.
- We carry treasure in weak vessels. God works through our frailty so that His power, not our strength, is glorified.
- Suffering is not the end. Affliction presses us but cannot destroy us, for Christ's life is revealed even in our weakness.
- Faith fuels endurance. Because Christ rose, we believe He will raise us also and present us in glory.
- Eternal glory outweighs present pain. Trials are temporary; the unseen, eternal realities are far greater than the visible struggles of this life.

2 Corinthians 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Ministry of Reconciliation”

Our Heavenly Dwelling

1 For we know that if our earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this tent we groan, longing to be clothed with our heavenly dwelling,

3 if indeed, when we are clothed, we will not be found naked.

4 For while we are in this tent, we groan and are burdened—not that we wish to be unclothed, but to be clothed with our heavenly dwelling, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life.

5 Now the One who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who has given us the Spirit as a guarantee.

Walking by Faith, Not Sight

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord.

7 For we walk by faith, not by sight.

8 We are confident, I say, and would prefer to be absent from the body and at home with the Lord.

9 So we make it our aim, whether at home or away, to please Him.

10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive what is due for the things done while in the body, whether good or bad.

Compelled by Christ's Love

11 Knowing, therefore, the fear of the Lord, we persuade others. But what we are is plain to God, and I hope it is also plain to your conscience.

12 We are not commending ourselves to you again, but giving you cause to boast about us, so that you may have an answer for those who boast in appearance and not in heart.

13 For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you.

14 For the love of Christ compels us, because we are convinced that One died for all, and therefore all died.

15 And He died for all, so that those who live should no longer live for themselves, but for Him who died for them and rose again.

New Creation in Christ

16 So from now on we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh, we do so no longer.

17 Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has passed away, behold, the new has come.

The Ministry of Reconciliation

18 All this is from God, who reconciled us to Himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation:

19 namely, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not counting their sins against them, and He has entrusted to us the message of reconciliation.

20 Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were making His appeal through us. We implore you on Christ's behalf: be reconciled to God.

21 For God made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, so that in Him we might become the righteousness of God.

Key Lessons from 2 Corinthians 5

- Earthly life is temporary, heavenly life eternal. Our bodies are fragile tents, but God promises us an eternal dwelling.
- Faith, not sight, defines the believer. We live with confidence, knowing absence from the body means presence with the Lord.
- Every life will be judged. All will stand before Christ's judgment seat to give account.
- Christ's love compels us. His death and resurrection call us to live no longer for ourselves but for Him.

- In Christ, we are new. Salvation transforms us; old things pass away, and new life begins.
- God gives us a mission. As ambassadors of reconciliation, we carry the message that through Christ, sins are forgiven and fellowship with God is restored.

2 Corinthians 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Now Is the Day of Salvation”

Do Not Receive God’s Grace in Vain

1 As God’s co-workers, we urge you not to receive the grace of God in vain.

2 For He says: “In the time of My favor I heard you, and in the day of salvation I helped you.” Behold, now is the time of God’s favor; behold, now is the day of salvation.

Commending Ourselves as God’s Servants

3 We give no offense in anything, so that our ministry may not be discredited.

4 Instead, in everything we commend ourselves as servants of God: in great endurance, in troubles, in hardships, in distresses,

5 in beatings, imprisonments, riots, labors, sleepless nights, and fastings;

6 in purity, in knowledge, in patience, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in sincere love;

7 in the word of truth, in the power of God, with the weapons of righteousness in the right hand and in the left;

8 through glory and dishonor, bad report and good report; genuine, yet regarded as impostors;

9 unknown, yet well-known; dying, yet we live on; punished, yet not killed;

10 sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; poor, yet making many rich; having nothing, yet possessing everything.

Paul’s Open Heart

11 We have spoken freely to you, Corinthians; our heart is wide open.

12 You are not restricted by us, but you are restricted in your own affections.

13 As a fair exchange—I speak as to my children—open your hearts also.

Be Separate from the World

14 Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what fellowship has righteousness with lawlessness? Or what communion has light with darkness?

15 What harmony is there between Christ and Belial? Or what does a believer share with an unbeliever?

16 What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God. As God has said:

*“I will dwell in them and walk among them;
I will be their God, and they shall be My people.”*

17 Therefore, “Come out from among them and be separate, says the Lord. Touch no unclean thing, and I will receive you.”

18 “I will be a Father to you, and you shall be My sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty.”

Key Lessons from 2 Corinthians 6

- God’s grace must not be wasted. Salvation is urgent—today is the day to respond.
- True ministry is proven in trials. Hardship, endurance, and sincerity display the power of God at work in His servants.
- Christian joy transcends circumstances. Believers may appear sorrowful and poor, yet in Christ they rejoice and possess everything.
- Open hearts are needed. Paul calls for mutual love and genuine fellowship among believers.
- Separation from sin is required. God’s people are His temple, called to holiness, distinct from idolatry and unbelief.
- God adopts His people. Through Christ, we are welcomed as sons and daughters of the Almighty Father.

2 Corinthians 7 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Godly Sorrow Produces Repentance”

Cleansing Ourselves in Holiness

1 Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from everything that defiles body and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

Paul’s Appeal for Affection

2 Make room for us in your hearts. We have wronged no one, corrupted no one, and taken advantage of no one.

3 I do not say this to condemn you; for I have already said that you are in our hearts, to live and to die together.

4 I have great confidence in you; I take great pride in you. I am filled with comfort, and in all our affliction, I overflow with joy.

God's Comfort Through Titus

5 For when we came into Macedonia, our bodies had no rest, but we were afflicted on every side—conflicts outside, fears within.

6 But God, who comforts the downcast, comforted us by the arrival of Titus,

7 and not only by his coming but also by the comfort you gave him. He told us of your longing for me, your deep sorrow, and your zeal for me, so that I rejoiced even more.

Godly Sorrow Brings Repentance

8 For though my letter made you grieve, I do not regret it—though I did regret it for a while, for I see that my letter grieved you, though only for a season.

9 Now I rejoice, not that you were made sorry, but that your sorrow led to repentance. For you were grieved in a godly way, so that you suffered no loss through us.

10 For godly sorrow produces repentance that leads to salvation and leaves no regret, but worldly sorrow produces death.

11 See what this godly sorrow has produced in you: what earnestness, what eagerness to clear yourselves, what indignation, what fear, what longing, what zeal, what readiness to see justice done! At every point you have proved yourselves innocent in this matter.

Paul's Joy in Their Obedience

12 So although I wrote to you, it was not for the sake of the one who did the wrong, or the one who suffered it, but that your earnestness for us might be revealed to you in the sight of God.

13 Because of this, we have been comforted. And besides our own comfort, we rejoiced still more at the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by you all.

14 For if I have boasted anything about you to him, I was not put to shame. But just as everything we said to you was true, so also our boasting before Titus has proved true.

15 And his affection for you is even greater, as he remembers how you all obeyed him, receiving him with fear and trembling.

16 I rejoice that I have complete confidence in you.

Key Lessons from 2 Corinthians 7

- Holiness is active. Believers must continually cleanse themselves from both physical and spiritual defilement, walking in reverence toward God.

- Ministry requires open hearts. Paul demonstrates love, transparency, and confidence in the Corinthians, modeling Christlike care.
- God comforts the discouraged. Just as He encouraged Paul through Titus and the Corinthians, God strengthens His people through others.
- True repentance flows from godly sorrow. Unlike worldly regret that destroys, godly sorrow produces lasting change and salvation.
- Obedience brings unity and joy. The Corinthians' repentance and obedience refreshed Titus and confirmed Paul's confidence in them.

2 Corinthians 8 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Excelling in the Grace of Giving”

The Example of the Macedonian Churches

1 Moreover, brothers and sisters, we want you to know about the grace of God that has been given among the churches of Macedonia.

2 In the midst of a severe trial, their overflowing joy and their extreme poverty welled up in rich generosity.

3 For I can testify that they gave according to their ability, and beyond their ability, entirely of their own accord.

4 They urgently pleaded with us for the privilege of sharing in this service to the saints.

5 And they went beyond our expectations: first they gave themselves to the Lord, and then to us, by the will of God.

Call to Excel in Giving

6 So we urged Titus, that just as he had begun, he should also complete this act of grace among you.

7 But since you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in all diligence, and in the love we inspired in you—see that you also excel in this grace of giving.

8 I am not commanding you, but I want to test the sincerity of your love by comparing it with the earnestness of others.

9 For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though He was rich, yet for your sake He became poor, so that you through His poverty might become rich.

The Call to Complete Their Commitment

10 And in this matter I give my advice: it is to your advantage to finish what you started a year ago—not only to desire to do it but also to complete it.

11 Now therefore complete the work, so that your eagerness may be matched by your completion, according to your ability.

12 For if there is a willing heart, the gift is acceptable according to what one has, not according to what one does not have.

13 For I do not mean that others should be eased and you burdened,

14 but that there may be equality: your abundance at the present time should supply their need, so that their abundance may also supply your need, that there may be equality.

15 As it is written: “The one who gathered much did not have too much, and the one who gathered little did not have too little.”

Titus and Trusted Brothers Sent

16 But thanks be to God, who put the same earnest care for you into the heart of Titus.

17 For he not only accepted our appeal, but being very eager, he went to you of his own accord.

18 Along with him we are sending the brother who is praised by all the churches for his service in the gospel.

19 And not only that, he was chosen by the churches to accompany us in this act of grace, which we administer for the glory of the Lord Himself and to show our willingness.

20 We take this precaution so that no one should blame us for how we handle this generous gift.

21 For we are careful to do what is right, not only in the eyes of the Lord but also in the eyes of people.

22 And we are sending with them another brother whom we have often tested and found diligent in many matters, but who is now even more diligent because of his great confidence in you.

23 As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker among you; as for our brothers, they are messengers of the churches, the glory of Christ.

24 Therefore, show them proof of your love and the reason for our boasting about you, so that the churches may see it.

Key Lessons from 2 Corinthians 8

- Giving is a grace. Like faith, knowledge, and love, generosity is a gift from God to be exercised faithfully.
- True generosity is not based on wealth. The Macedonians gave joyfully out of deep poverty, proving that God looks at the heart, not the amount.
- Christ is the model of giving. He became poor so that we might become rich through His sacrifice.
- Promises must be completed. Desire alone is not enough; obedience follows through in action.
- Stewardship requires accountability. Paul emphasized honesty, transparency, and integrity in handling offerings.
- Love is proven in action. Generosity is a visible demonstration of genuine Christian love.

2 Corinthians 9 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Cheerful Giver”

Preparing the Offering in Advance

1 As for the ministry to the saints, it is unnecessary for me to write to you.

2 For I know your eagerness to help, and I boast about you to the Macedonians, saying that Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal has stirred up most of them.

3 Yet I have sent the brothers so that our boasting about you in this matter may not prove empty, but that you may be ready, just as I said.

4 For if any Macedonians come with me and find you unprepared, we—not to mention you—would be ashamed of having been so confident.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to urge the brothers to go ahead to you and arrange in advance the generous gift you promised, so that it may be ready as a matter of generosity and not as grudging obligation.

The Principle of Sowing and Reaping

6 But this I say: Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully.

7 Each person should give what he has decided in his heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.

8 And God is able to make all grace overflow to you, so that in all things, at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work.

9 As it is written: “He has scattered abroad, He has given to the poor; His righteousness endures forever.”

God Supplies and Multiplies the Harvest

10 Now He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will also supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness.

11 You will be enriched in every way so that you can be generous on every occasion, and through us your generosity will result in thanksgiving to God.

12 For this ministry of service not only meets the needs of the saints, but also overflows in many expressions of thanks to God.

13 Because of the proof given by this ministry, they will glorify God for your obedience to your confession of the gospel of Christ, and for your generosity in sharing with them and with everyone else.

14 And in their prayers for you, they long for you because of the surpassing grace of God upon you.

15 Thanks be to God for His indescribable gift!

Key Lessons from 2 Corinthians 9

- Generosity is to be intentional, not reluctant. Giving must come from the heart, not from pressure.
- God blesses cheerful giving. He multiplies both resources and spiritual fruit when believers give with joy.
- Sowing and reaping is a kingdom principle. The measure we use in giving reflects the measure we will reap in blessing.
- Giving glorifies God. When needs are met through generosity, both thanksgiving and praise abound to Him.
- Generosity strengthens unity. It connects believers across churches, cultures, and regions.
- Christ is God's indescribable gift. Every act of giving flows from the ultimate gift of Jesus, who gave Himself for us.

2 Corinthians 10 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Weapons of Our Warfare”

Paul's Appeal in Christ's Gentleness

1 Now I, Paul, myself appeal to you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ—I who in person am humble among you, but when absent am bold toward you.

2 I beg you that when I am present, I may not have to be bold with that confidence with which I intend to confront those who think we live according to the flesh.

Spiritual Warfare and Divine Power

3 For though we live in the flesh, we do not wage war according to the flesh.

4 For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God for the pulling down of strongholds.

5 We demolish arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, and we take every thought captive to obey Christ.

6 And we are ready to punish every act of disobedience, once your obedience is complete.

True Authority Comes from God

7 Do you look only on outward appearances? If anyone is convinced that he belongs to Christ, let him remind himself that just as he is Christ's, so also are we.

8 For even if I boast somewhat freely about the authority the Lord gave us—for building you up, not for tearing you down—I will not be ashamed.

9 I do not want to seem as though I am trying to frighten you with my letters.

Paul's Boldness in Letters and Deeds

10 For some say, "His letters are weighty and strong, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech amounts to nothing."

11 Let such people realize this: What we are in letters when absent, we will also be in actions when present.

Commending Ourselves Only in the Lord

12 For we dare not classify or compare ourselves with some who commend themselves. When they measure themselves by one another and compare themselves with themselves, they are without understanding.

13 But we will not boast beyond proper limits, but only within the field of service God has assigned to us—a field that extends even to you.

14 For we are not overextending ourselves, as though we had not reached you, since we came to you with the gospel of Christ.

15 We do not boast beyond proper limits in the labors of others. Instead, we hope that, as your faith increases, our area of ministry among you will be greatly enlarged.

16 Then we may preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, without boasting in another man's work already done.

17 But, "Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord."

18 For it is not the one who commends himself who is approved, but the one whom the Lord commends.

Key Lessons from 2 Corinthians 10

- Christlike meekness is strength under control. Paul appeals gently but stands ready to act firmly if necessary.
- Spiritual battles require spiritual weapons. Arguments, pride, and lies must be destroyed by truth and prayer, not worldly means.
- Every thought must be brought into submission to Christ. True victory begins in the mind.

- Authority in the church is for building up, not tearing down. Leaders are given power to edify, not to dominate.
- Self-commendation is empty. True approval comes only from the Lord, not from human comparisons.
- Boasting belongs to God alone. All victories, growth, and ministry fruit must be credited to Him.

2 Corinthians 11 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Paul’s Jealousy, Sufferings, and Apostolic Credentials”

Paul’s Godly Jealousy for the Church

1 I wish you would bear with me in a little foolishness. Yes, bear with me.

2 For I am jealous for you with a godly jealousy. I promised you in marriage to one husband, to present you as a pure virgin to Christ.

3 But I am afraid that, just as the serpent deceived Eve by his cunning, your minds may be led astray from the simplicity and purity of devotion to Christ.

4 For if someone comes and proclaims another Jesus than the one we proclaimed, or if you receive a different spirit than the one you received, or a different gospel than the one you accepted—you put up with it too easily.

Paul’s Apostolic Authority

5 I do not think I am in the least inferior to those “super-apostles.”

6 Even if I am unskilled in speaking, I am not so in knowledge; indeed, we have made this plain to you in every way.

7 Did I commit a sin by humbling myself so that you might be exalted, because I preached the gospel of God to you free of charge?

8 I robbed other churches, taking support from them, in order to serve you.

9 When I was with you and in need, I did not burden anyone, for the brothers who came from Macedonia supplied my need. I have kept myself from being a burden to you in any way, and will continue to do so.

10 As surely as the truth of Christ is in me, no one in the regions of Achaia will stop this boasting of mine.

11 Why? Because I do not love you? God knows I do!

False Apostles and Deception

12 But I will continue doing what I am doing, in order to cut the ground from under those who want an opportunity to be regarded as equal with us in the things they boast about.

13 For such people are false apostles, deceitful workers, disguising themselves as apostles of Christ.

14 And no wonder, for Satan himself masquerades as an angel of light.

15 So it is no surprise if his servants also disguise themselves as servants of righteousness. Their end will correspond to their deeds.

Paul's Sufferings for Christ

16 I repeat, let no one think me foolish. But if you do, then receive me just as you would a fool, so that I too may boast a little.

17 What I am saying with this boastful confidence, I am not saying as the Lord would, but as a fool.

18 Since many boast according to the flesh, I too will boast.

19 You gladly put up with fools since you are so wise!

20 In fact, you even put up with anyone who enslaves you, exploits you, takes advantage of you, exalts himself, or strikes you in the face.

21 To my shame I admit that we were too weak for that! Yet whatever anyone else dares to boast about—I speak as a fool—I also dare to boast.

Paul's Credentials in Suffering

22 Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they descendants of Abraham? So am I.

23 Are they servants of Christ? (I am speaking like a madman) I am more so: with far greater labors, far more imprisonments, with countless beatings, and often near death.

24 Five times I received from the Jews forty lashes minus one.

25 Three times I was beaten with rods, once I was stoned, three times I was shipwrecked, a night and a day I have spent adrift at sea.

26 I have been on frequent journeys, in danger from rivers, in danger from robbers, in danger from my own people, in danger from Gentiles, in danger in the city, in danger in the wilderness, in danger at sea, and in danger among false brothers.

27 In toil and hardship, through many sleepless nights, in hunger and thirst, often without food, in cold and exposure.

28 And, apart from other things, there is the daily pressure on me of my anxiety for all the churches.

29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is made to stumble, and I do not burn with indignation?

Paul's Boast in Weakness

30 If I must boast, I will boast of the things that show my weakness.

31 The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, who is blessed forever, knows that I am not lying.

32 In Damascus the governor under King Aretas had the city guarded in order to arrest me.

33 But I was lowered in a basket through a window in the wall and escaped his hands.

Key Lessons from 2 Corinthians 11

- Spiritual faithfulness matters. Just as Eve was deceived, believers must guard against corruption and cling to Christ alone.
- Beware of false teachers. Not everyone who claims to serve Christ truly does; Satan disguises himself as an angel of light.
- True apostleship is proven in suffering, not boasting. Paul's hardships confirm his authenticity as Christ's servant.
- The Christian life involves cost. Paul endured danger, hunger, beatings, and persecution, yet remained steadfast.
- Boasting belongs in weakness. Our trials highlight God's strength and faithfulness more than our successes.

2 Corinthians 12 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Visions, Weakness, and Apostolic Proof”

Paul's Vision of Paradise

1 It is not beneficial for me to boast, yet I will go on to visions and revelations from the Lord.

2 I know a man in Christ who, fourteen years ago—whether in the body or out of the body, I do not know, God knows—was caught up to the third heaven.

3 And I know that this man—whether in the body or out of the body, I do not know, God knows—

4 was caught up into Paradise and heard inexpressible things, things that no human is permitted to speak.

5 About such a man I will boast, but about myself I will not boast, except in my weaknesses.

Paul's Thorn in the Flesh

6 Even if I should choose to boast, I would not be a fool, because I would be speaking the truth. But I refrain, so that no one will think more of me than what is seen in me or heard from me.

7 To keep me from becoming conceited because of the surpassingly great revelations, there was given me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me.

8 Three times I pleaded with the Lord to take it away from me.

9 But He said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.”

Therefore, I will most gladly boast in my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

10 For the sake of Christ, then, I delight in weaknesses, in insults, in hardships, in persecutions, and in difficulties. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

Paul’s Apostolic Credentials

11 I have been a fool, but you compelled me. I ought to have been commended by you, for I am in no way inferior to the “super-apostles,” even though I am nothing.

12 The marks of a true apostle—signs, wonders, and mighty works—were performed among you with great perseverance.

13 How were you inferior to the other churches, except that I was never a burden to you? Forgive me this wrong!

Paul’s Concern for the Corinthians

14 Now I am ready to visit you for the third time, and I will not be a burden to you, because I seek not your possessions but you. For children are not obligated to save up for their parents, but parents for their children.

15 I will most gladly spend and be spent for your souls. If I love you more, am I to be loved less?

16 Be that as it may, I did not burden you. But some say, “Being crafty, I caught you by trickery.”

17 Did I exploit you through any of the men I sent to you?

18 I urged Titus to go, and I sent the brother with him. Did Titus exploit you? Did we not walk in the same spirit, and follow the same steps?

Warning of Paul’s Coming Visit

19 Have you been thinking all along that we have been defending ourselves to you? We have been speaking in the sight of God as those in Christ; everything we do, dear friends, is for your strengthening.

20 For I fear that when I come, I may not find you as I wish, and that you may not find me as you wish. I fear there may be quarreling, jealousy, outbursts of anger, selfish ambition, slander, gossip, arrogance, and disorder.

21 I fear that when I come again, my God may humble me before you, and I may have to mourn over many of those who have sinned earlier and have not repented of the impurity, sexual sin, and debauchery in which they have indulged.

Key Lessons from 2 Corinthians 12

- Spiritual experiences must not breed pride. Paul’s vision of heaven was kept in humility through his thorn in the flesh.
- God’s grace is sufficient. Weakness is not a failure but the very place where Christ’s power shines brightest.
- True ministry is sacrificial. Paul sought not the Corinthians’ possessions but their souls, modeling a parent’s love.
- Leaders must correct in love. Paul’s warnings reveal both his fear for their sins and his hope for their repentance.
- Strength is found in surrender. The Christian paradox is clear: when we are weak, then we are truly strong in Christ.

2 Corinthians 13 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Final Warnings and Benediction”

Paul’s Third Visit Announced

1 This will be my third visit to you. “Every matter must be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses.”

2 I warned you before when I was with you the second time. Now, while absent, I again warn those who have sinned previously and all the rest, that if I come again, I will not spare them.

3 Since you are seeking proof that Christ is speaking through me—He is not weak in dealing with you, but is powerful among you.

4 For though He was crucified in weakness, yet He lives by the power of God. Likewise, we are weak in Him, but by God’s power we will live with Him in our dealings with you.

A Call to Self-Examination

5 Examine yourselves to see whether you are in the faith; test yourselves. Do you not realize that Jesus Christ is in you—unless you fail the test?

6 And I trust that you will discover that we have not failed the test.

7 Now we pray to God that you will not do anything wrong—not so that people may see that we have stood the test, but so that you may do what is right, even if we seem to have failed.

8 For we cannot do anything against the truth, but only for the truth.

9 We are glad whenever we are weak but you are strong; and our prayer is for your maturity and perfection.

10 This is why I write these things while I am absent, that when I come I may not have to be harsh in my use of authority—the authority the Lord gave me for building up and not for tearing down.

Final Greetings and Blessing

11 Finally, brothers and sisters, rejoice! Strive for full restoration, encourage one another, be of one mind, live in peace. And the God of love and peace will be with you.

12 Greet one another with a holy kiss.

13 All God’s people here send their greetings.

14 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all. Amen.

Key Lessons from 2 Corinthians 13

- Accountability matters. Believers are urged to test themselves to ensure they are truly in the faith.
- Christ’s power works in weakness. Just as Jesus triumphed through the cross, Paul’s own weakness revealed God’s strength.
- Leaders correct in love. Authority in the church is given for building up, not tearing down.
- Unity and peace are essential. Paul exhorts the church to live in harmony, showing love and encouragement to one another.
- The Triune blessing. The closing benediction highlights the grace of Jesus, the love of the Father, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit—our full source of life and peace.

Introduction to the Book of Galatians

“It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery.” – Galatians 5:1

Title and Meaning

The book of Galatians is a letter written by the apostle Paul to the churches in the region of Galatia (modern-day central Turkey). Its title reflects its audience, the Galatian believers who were struggling with false teachings. This epistle has often been called the “Magna Carta of Christian liberty” because Paul fiercely defends the gospel of grace against legalism.

Author and Date

The apostle Paul is the author (Galatians 1:1). He wrote this letter around AD 48–49 (if addressing the southern Galatian churches founded on his first missionary journey) or AD 55 (if addressing northern Galatia). Many scholars lean toward the earlier date, making Galatians possibly Paul's earliest letter.

Purpose of Galatians

Paul wrote Galatians to address a serious crisis: false teachers (often called Judaizers) were insisting that Gentile believers must follow Jewish law, including circumcision, to be saved. Paul responds with passion and urgency:

- To defend the true gospel of salvation by grace through faith alone.
 - To affirm his apostleship and the divine origin of his message.
 - To show that the law cannot justify and that faith in Christ is sufficient.
 - To call believers to live by the Spirit and not under bondage to the law.

Structure of Galatians

The letter moves from personal testimony to theological argument to practical application:

📖 1. Defense of Paul's Apostleship (Chs. 1–2)

Paul defends his calling and message, showing they came directly from Christ.

✠ 2. Justification by Faith, Not Law (Chs. 3–4)

Paul explains that salvation is by faith, using Abraham as an example, and that believers are no longer slaves but children of God.

✠ 3. Freedom in Christ and Life in the Spirit (Chs. 5–6)

Paul exhorts the Galatians to stand firm in liberty, live by the Spirit, and bear one another's burdens.

Major Themes

- Justification by Faith – We are made right with God through faith, not works of the law.
 - Freedom in Christ – Believers are free from the bondage of legalism.
 - The Role of the Law – The law exposes sin but cannot save; it points us to Christ.
 - Life in the Spirit – The Spirit produces the fruit of godly character in believers.
 - The Universality of the Gospel – In Christ, there is neither Jew nor Gentile, slave nor free, male nor female (Galatians 3:28).

Why Galatians Matters Today

Galatians is a timeless defense of the pure gospel. In every generation, believers are tempted to add human rules, traditions, or works to the message of grace. Paul's words remind us that Christ's finished work is enough. Galatians calls us to live in the freedom Christ provides, walking by the Spirit, and producing fruit that reflects our new life.

Key Verse

"It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery." – Galatians 5:1

This verse captures the heartbeat of Galatians: freedom in Christ through the gospel of grace.

Galatians 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

"No Other Gospel"

Greeting

1 Paul, an apostle—not from men, nor through man, but through Jesus Christ and God the Father, who raised Him from the dead—
2 and all the brothers who are with me, to the churches of Galatia:
3 Grace to you and peace from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ,
4 who gave Himself for our sins, that He might deliver us from this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father,
5 to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

Turning to a False Gospel

6 I am astonished that you are so quickly turning away from Him who called you in the grace of Christ to a different gospel—
7 which is not another. But there are some who trouble you and want to distort the gospel of Christ.
8 But even if we, or an angel from heaven, should preach a gospel to you contrary to what we preached to you, let him be accursed.
9 As we have said before, so now I say again: if anyone preaches to you a gospel contrary to what you received, let him be accursed.
10 For am I now seeking the approval of men, or of God? Or am I trying to please men? If I were still trying to please men, I would not be a servant of Christ.

Paul's Gospel Came by Revelation

11 For I want you to know, brothers, that the gospel which was preached by me is not according to man.

12 For I neither received it from man, nor was I taught it, but it came through the revelation of Jesus Christ.

13 For you have heard of my former conduct in Judaism, how I persecuted the church of God beyond measure and tried to destroy it.

14 And I advanced in Judaism beyond many of my own age among my people, being exceedingly zealous for the traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it pleased God, who set me apart from my mother's womb and called me by His grace,

16 to reveal His Son in me, that I might preach Him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately consult with flesh and blood,

17 nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me, but I went into Arabia, and afterward returned to Damascus.

Paul's Early Years After Conversion

18 Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Peter, and stayed with him fifteen days.

19 But I saw none of the other apostles except James, the Lord's brother.

20 Now concerning the things I am writing to you—before God, I do not lie.

21 Then I went into the regions of Syria and Cilicia.

22 And I was still unknown by face to the churches of Judea which are in Christ.

23 They only heard it said, "He who once persecuted us now preaches the faith he once tried to destroy."

24 And they glorified God because of me.

Key Lessons from Galatians 1

- There is only one gospel. Any distortion, no matter how impressive the messenger, is a curse rather than a blessing.
- Paul's calling was divine, not human. His authority and message came directly from Christ, not from tradition or men.
- God's grace transforms. The persecutor of the church became its boldest preacher because of God's sovereign calling.
- The gospel delivers us from the present evil age. Salvation is not just about forgiveness, but about freedom from this world's corruption.
- Our lives should glorify God. Paul's testimony caused others to worship God, and so should the transformation in every believer's life.

Galatians 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Justified by Faith in Christ Alone”

Paul’s Second Visit to Jerusalem

1 Then after fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and also took Titus with me.

2 I went up because of a revelation, and set before them the gospel that I proclaim among the Gentiles—but privately to those who seemed to be leaders—lest somehow I should be running or had run in vain.

3 Yet not even Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised.

4 But this occurred because of false brothers secretly brought in, who slipped in to spy out our freedom which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage.

5 To them we did not yield in submission even for a moment, so that the truth of the gospel might remain with you.

Accepted by the Apostles

6 But from those who seemed to be important—whatever they were makes no difference to me; God shows no partiality—those who seemed to be leaders added nothing to me.

7 On the contrary, when they saw that the gospel to the uncircumcised had been entrusted to me, just as the gospel to the circumcised was to Peter—

8 for He who worked effectively in Peter for the apostleship to the circumcised also worked effectively in me toward the Gentiles—

9 when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace given to me, they gave Barnabas and me the right hand of fellowship, that we should go to the Gentiles and they to the circumcised.

10 They only asked us to remember the poor—the very thing I was eager to do.

Paul Confronts Peter at Antioch

11 But when Peter came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he stood condemned.

12 For before certain men came from James, he ate with the Gentiles; but when they came, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing those of the circumcision.

13 And the rest of the Jews acted hypocritically along with him, so that even Barnabas was carried away by their hypocrisy.

14 But when I saw that they were not walking uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said to Peter before them all, “If you, being a Jew, live like the Gentiles and not like the Jews, why do you compel the Gentiles to live like Jews?”

Justified by Faith in Christ

15 We who are Jews by birth, and not Gentile sinners,

16 know that a person is not justified by works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ. So we also have believed in Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the law, because by works of the law no flesh shall be justified.

17 But if, while seeking to be justified in Christ, we ourselves are found to be sinners, is Christ then a servant of sin? Certainly not!

18 For if I rebuild what I tore down, I prove myself to be a transgressor.

19 For through the law I died to the law, that I might live to God.

20 I have been crucified with Christ; nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ lives in me. And the life I now live in the body I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me.

21 I do not set aside the grace of God, for if righteousness comes through the law, then Christ died in vain.

Key Lessons from Galatians 2

- The gospel must be defended. Paul refused to compromise with false teachers who sought to enslave believers under the law.
- Unity in Christ surpasses cultural divisions. The apostles affirmed Paul's mission to the Gentiles, showing that the same gospel saves both Jew and Greek.
- Even leaders can stumble. Peter's hypocrisy at Antioch shows that no one is above correction when the truth of the gospel is at stake.
- Justification is by faith alone. Works of the law cannot save; only faith in Christ makes us right with God.
- The Christian life is Christ-centered. Believers are crucified with Christ, and now live by His life and power working in them.
- Grace cannot be mixed with law. To add works to the gospel is to empty Christ's death of its meaning.

Galatians 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Justified by Faith, Not by the Law”

Bewitched by Legalism

1 O foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched you, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was clearly portrayed among you as crucified?

2 This only I want to learn from you: Did you receive the Spirit by works of the law, or by hearing with faith?

3 Are you so foolish? Having begun by the Spirit, are you now being perfected by the flesh?

4 Have you suffered so many things in vain—if indeed it was in vain?

5 He who supplies the Spirit to you and works miracles among you, does He do it by works of the law, or by hearing with faith?

Abraham's Example of Faith

6 Just as Abraham “believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness,”

7 know then that those who are of faith are the children of Abraham.

8 The Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, proclaimed the gospel beforehand to Abraham: “In you shall all nations be blessed.”

9 So then, those who are of faith are blessed with believing Abraham.

The Curse of the Law and the Blessing of Christ

10 For all who rely on works of the law are under a curse; for it is written, “Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all things written in the book of the law, to do them.”

11 But it is evident that no one is justified before God by the law, for “The just shall live by faith.”

12 Yet the law is not of faith, but, “The man who does them shall live by them.”

13 Christ has redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us—for it is written, “Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree”—

14 that the blessing of Abraham might come upon the Gentiles in Christ Jesus, that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

The Promise to Abraham and His Seed

15 Brethren, I speak in human terms: even with a man-made covenant, once it has been ratified, no one annuls or adds to it.

16 Now to Abraham and his Seed were the promises made. He does not say, “and to seeds,” as of many, but as of one: “And to your Seed,” who is Christ.

17 And this I say: the law, which came 430 years later, does not annul the covenant previously confirmed by God, so as to make the promise void.

18 For if the inheritance is of the law, it is no longer of promise; but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

The Purpose of the Law

19 What then is the purpose of the law? It was added because of transgressions, until the Seed should come to whom the promise was made. It was ordained through angels by the hand of a mediator.

20 Now a mediator is not for one party only; but God is one.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? Certainly not! For if a law had been given that could give life, righteousness would indeed have been by the law.

22 But the Scripture has confined all under sin, so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.

Faith Brings Sonship in Christ

23 Before faith came, we were kept under guard by the law, confined for the faith that was to be revealed.

24 Therefore the law was our tutor to bring us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

25 But after faith has come, we are no longer under a tutor.

26 For you are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus.

27 For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ.

28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.

29 And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

Key Lessons from Galatians 3

- Faith, not law, brings the Spirit. The Spirit is received through faith, not by legal observance.
- Abraham's faith is the model. True children of Abraham are those who trust God as he did.
- The law condemns, but Christ redeems. The law exposes sin and brings a curse, but Christ bore that curse on the cross.
- The promise is fulfilled in Christ. God's covenant with Abraham pointed to Jesus, the true Seed.
- The law was temporary. It served as a tutor to lead us to Christ, but now faith has come.
- Unity in Christ. In Him, all barriers of race, class, and gender are removed—we are one family.
- We are heirs of the promise. Believers in Christ inherit the blessings promised to Abraham.

Galatians 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“From Slaves to Sons: Heirs of the Promise”

From Servants to Sons

- 1 Now I say, that the heir, as long as he is a child, is no different from a servant, though he be lord of all.
- 2 But he is under tutors and guardians until the time appointed by the father.
- 3 Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elementary principles of the world.
- 4 But when the fullness of the time had come, God sent forth His Son, born of a woman, born under the law,
- 5 to redeem those who were under the law, that we might receive adoption as sons.
- 6 And because you are sons, God has sent forth the Spirit of His Son into your hearts, crying out, “Abba, Father!”
- 7 Therefore you are no longer a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

Turning Back to Bondage

- 8 However, when you did not know God, you served those which by nature are not gods.
- 9 But now, after you have known God—or rather are known by God—why do you turn again to the weak and worthless principles, to which you desire again to be in bondage?
- 10 You observe days and months and seasons and years.
- 11 I fear for you, lest I have labored among you in vain.

Paul’s Personal Appeal

- 12 Brethren, I urge you to become like me, for I became like you. You have not wronged me at all.
- 13 You know that because of physical weakness I preached the gospel to you at first.
- 14 And my trial which was in my flesh you did not despise nor reject, but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.
- 15 Where then is the blessing you enjoyed? For I bear witness that, if possible, you would have plucked out your own eyes and given them to me.
- 16 Have I therefore become your enemy because I tell you the truth?
- 17 They zealously court you, but not for good; they want to exclude you, that you may be zealous for them.
- 18 But it is good to be zealous in a good thing always, and not only when I am present with you.
- 19 My little children, for whom I labor in birth again until Christ is formed in you,
- 20 I would like to be present with you now and to change my tone, for I have doubts about you.

The Allegory of Hagar and Sarah

- 21 Tell me, you who desire to be under the law, do you not hear the law?
- 22 For it is written that Abraham had two sons: one by a bondwoman, and the other by a freewoman.
- 23 But he who was of the bondwoman was born according to the flesh, but he of the freewoman through promise.

24 These things are symbolic: for these are the two covenants—the one from Mount Sinai which gives birth to bondage, which is Hagar.

25 For this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and corresponds to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.

26 But the Jerusalem above is free, and she is the mother of us all.

27 For it is written: “Rejoice, O barren, you who do not bear! Break forth and shout, you who are not in labor! For the desolate has many more children than she who has a husband.”

28 Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are children of promise.

29 But as he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, even so it is now.

30 Nevertheless what does the Scripture say? “Cast out the bondwoman and her son, for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman.”

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman but of the free.

Key Lessons from Galatians 4

- We are sons, not slaves. In Christ, God adopts us into His family and gives us the Spirit who cries, “Abba, Father.”
- Do not return to bondage. Observing rituals and traditions as a means of righteousness enslaves us again.
- Faith over flesh. Like Isaac, we are children of promise—not born of human effort but of God’s Spirit.
- Freedom in Christ. Hagar and Sarah illustrate two covenants: bondage under law and freedom under grace. Believers belong to the Jerusalem above—the free city of God.
- Christ formed in us. Paul’s heart for the Galatians was not just that they believed, but that Christ would be fully formed in their lives.
- The inheritance belongs to the free. Only those in Christ inherit the promises of God.

Galatians 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Freedom of the Spirit”

Stand Firm in Freedom

1 Stand firm in the liberty by which Christ has made us free, and do not be entangled again with the yoke of slavery.

2 Mark my words: I, Paul, say to you that if you let yourselves be circumcised, Christ will be of no value to you.

3 I testify again to every man who becomes circumcised that he is obligated to keep the whole law.

4 You who seek to be justified by the law have been cut off from Christ; you have fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.

6 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision has any value, but only faith working through love.

Warning Against False Teaching

7 You were running well. Who hindered you from obeying the truth?

8 This persuasion does not come from Him who calls you.

9 A little leaven leavens the whole lump.

10 I am confident in the Lord that you will take no other view; but the one who is troubling you will bear his judgment, whoever he may be.

11 And I, brothers, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still persecuted? In that case, the offense of the cross has been removed.

12 I wish those who unsettle you would even cut themselves off!

Called to Serve in Love

13 For you, brethren, have been called to liberty; only do not use liberty as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another.

14 For the whole law is fulfilled in one word: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

15 But if you bite and devour one another, take care that you are not consumed by one another.

Walk in the Spirit

16 I say then: Walk in the Spirit, and you will not fulfill the desires of the flesh.

17 For the flesh desires what is contrary to the Spirit, and the Spirit what is contrary to the flesh; these are opposed to each other, so that you do not do the things that you wish.

18 But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law.

The Works of the Flesh

19 Now the works of the flesh are obvious: sexual immorality, impurity, lewdness,

20 idolatry, sorcery, hatred, discord, jealousy, fits of rage, selfish ambition, dissensions, factions,

21 envy, murders, drunkenness, wild parties, and the like. I warn you, as I did before, that those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

The Fruit of the Spirit

22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness,
23 gentleness, and self-control. Against such things there is no law.

24 And those who belong to Christ have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires.

25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

26 Let us not become conceited, provoking one another, envying one another.

Key Lessons from Galatians 5

- Christ brings true freedom. We are not saved by works of the law but by grace through faith.
- Faith works through love. Genuine faith expresses itself not in ritual but in selfless service to others.
- The Spirit versus the flesh. The Christian life is a battle between the old sinful nature and the new life in the Spirit.
- The danger of false teaching. A little error spreads quickly, just like yeast in dough—believers must guard the truth of the gospel.
- The fruit of the Spirit defines maturity. Love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control are the marks of a Spirit-filled life.
- Crucify the flesh. To belong to Christ is to put to death sinful passions and to walk daily in step with the Spirit.

Galatians 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Sowing to the Spirit”

Restoring the Fallen

1 Brothers and sisters, if anyone is caught in a sin, you who are spiritual should restore him in a spirit of gentleness. But watch yourselves, lest you also be tempted.

2 Carry one another’s burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ.

3 For if anyone thinks he is something when he is nothing, he deceives himself.

4 But let each one test his own work, and then he will have reason to boast in himself alone, and not in comparison with someone else.

5 For each will bear his own load.

Sowing and Reaping

6 Let the one who is taught the word share all good things with the one who teaches.

7 Do not be deceived: God is not mocked. Whatever a man sows, that will he also reap.

8 For the one who sows to his flesh will from the flesh reap corruption; but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap everlasting life.

9 And let us not grow weary in doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up.

10 Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who are of the household of faith.

Glorying Only in the Cross

11 See what large letters I am writing to you with my own hand!

12 Those who want to make a good showing in the flesh compel you to be circumcised, only so that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ.

13 For even those who are circumcised do not keep the law themselves, but they want you to be circumcised so that they may boast in your flesh.

14 But God forbid that I should boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.

15 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision means anything, but being a new creation.

16 Peace and mercy be upon all who follow this rule, and upon the Israel of God.

17 From now on let no one trouble me, for I bear on my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.

18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers and sisters. Amen.

Key Lessons from Galatians 6

- Restore with gentleness. Spiritual maturity is shown not in pride but in humility when helping others overcome sin.
- Bear one another's burdens. Christians are called to carry each other's struggles, reflecting Christ's own compassion.
- The law of sowing and reaping is unbreakable. Our choices—whether to the flesh or the Spirit—determine the harvest of our lives.
- Persevere in doing good. Weariness will come, but God promises a reward for those who remain faithful.
- Boast only in the cross. True glory is not in religious rituals or human approval but in the saving work of Christ alone.
- New creation over old identity. What matters most is not external signs but being transformed by the Spirit into a new creation in Christ.

Introduction to the Book of Ephesians

“For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, not of works, lest anyone should boast.” – Ephesians 2:8–9

Title and Meaning

The book of Ephesians is a letter written by the apostle Paul to the believers in the city of Ephesus, a major port and cultural center in Asia Minor (modern-day Turkey). Though some manuscripts suggest it may have been a circular letter intended for several churches, its title reflects the Ephesian audience. Ephesians is often called the “Queen of the Epistles” because of its majestic themes, showing the believer’s position in Christ and the practical walk that flows from it.

Author and Date

The apostle Paul is the author (Ephesians 1:1). He wrote this letter while under house arrest in Rome, around AD 60–62, making it one of the “Prison Epistles” (along with Philipians, Colossians, and Philemon).

Purpose of Ephesians

Paul wrote Ephesians to strengthen and encourage believers by showing them the riches of God’s grace and their spiritual identity in Christ. His purposes include:

- To teach believers about their position and blessings in Christ.
 - To emphasize the unity of Jews and Gentiles in one body, the church.
 - To encourage holy living as a response to God’s grace.
 - To instruct on spiritual warfare and the armor of God.

Structure of Ephesians

The letter divides neatly into two halves—doctrine (what God has done) and duty (how we should live):

1. The Believer’s Position in Christ (Chs. 1–3)

God’s eternal plan, spiritual blessings in Christ, salvation by grace, and unity of Jew and Gentile in the church.

✠ 2. The Believer's Practice in Christ (Chs. 4–6)

Instructions for walking in love, holiness, unity, marriage, family, work, and spiritual warfare.

Major Themes

- Union with Christ – Every blessing is found in Christ, and believers share in His victory.
 - Grace and Salvation – Salvation is a gift of God, received through faith, not earned by works.
 - The Church as Christ's Body – The unity of believers in one body, regardless of background.
 - Holy Living – Believers are called to walk in love, purity, and wisdom.
 - Spiritual Warfare – The armor of God equips believers to stand firm against the enemy.

Why Ephesians Matters Today

Ephesians gives believers a clear picture of who they are in Christ and how to live in that reality. In a world filled with division and confusion, Paul's letter reminds us that we are chosen, redeemed, and sealed by the Spirit. It also equips us to live faithfully in our relationships, in the church, and in the midst of spiritual battles.

Key Verse

“For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, not of works, lest anyone should boast.” – Ephesians 2:8–9

This verse captures the heart of Ephesians: salvation is God's gift, not our achievement, and our new life flows out of His grace.

“Every Spiritual Blessing in Christ”

Greeting

1 This letter is from Paul, chosen by God to be an apostle of Christ Jesus. I write to God's holy people in Ephesus who are faithful in Christ Jesus.

2 May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

Chosen and Blessed in Christ

3 Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! He has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly realms because we belong to Christ.

4 Even before He made the world, God loved us and chose us in Christ to be holy and without fault in His eyes.

5 God decided in advance to adopt us into His own family by bringing us to Himself through Jesus Christ. This gave Him great pleasure.

6 So we praise God for the glorious grace He poured out on us who belong to His dear Son.

7 In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of our sins. This is all because of the richness of God's grace.

8 He showered His grace on us, giving us wisdom and understanding.

9 God revealed to us His mysterious plan, which was His good will all along—

10 and this plan is that, at the right time, He will bring everything together under the authority of Christ—everything in heaven and on earth.

Our Inheritance in Christ

11 In Christ we were chosen and given an inheritance, for God had decided in advance and works everything according to His plan.

12 God's purpose was that we who first trusted in Christ would bring praise and glory to Him.

13 And now you too have heard the truth, the Good News that God saves you. When you believed in Christ, He marked you as His own by giving you the Holy Spirit He promised long ago.

14 The Spirit is God's guarantee that He will give us the inheritance He promised and that He has purchased us to be His own people. He did this so we would praise and glorify Him.

Paul's Prayer for Spiritual Growth

15 Ever since I heard about your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all God's people,

16 I have not stopped thanking God for you. I pray for you constantly,

17 asking God, the glorious Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, to give you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation so that you may know Him better.

18 I pray that the eyes of your heart will be flooded with light so that you can understand the confident hope He has given to those He has called—His holy people who are His rich and glorious inheritance.

19 I also pray that you will understand the incredible greatness of God's power for us who believe Him. This is the same mighty power

20 that raised Christ from the dead and seated Him at God's right hand in the heavenly realms.

21 Now He is far above any ruler or authority or power or leader or anything else—not only in this world but also in the world to come.

22 God has put all things under Christ's authority and made Him head over everything for the benefit of the church.

23 And the church is His body; it is made full and complete by Christ, who fills all things everywhere with Himself.

Key Lessons from Ephesians 1

- Every blessing is in Christ. True riches and blessings come from belonging to Him, not from earthly gain.
- Chosen before creation. God loved and planned for His people long before the world began.
- Redemption through His blood. Forgiveness is found only in the sacrifice of Christ.
- The Holy Spirit is our guarantee. His presence assures us that God will finish what He promised.
- Pray for wisdom and revelation. Spiritual understanding comes from God opening the eyes of our hearts.
- Christ reigns supreme. All power and authority belong to Jesus, and the church exists to reflect His glory.

Ephesians 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Made Alive with Christ”

From Death to Life

1 Once you were dead because of your sins and disobedience.

2 You used to live like the rest of the world, obeying the devil—the ruler of the unseen spiritual powers, the spirit at work in those who refuse to obey God.

3 All of us once lived this way, following the cravings of our sinful nature and thoughts. By nature, we were children of wrath, just like everyone else.

4 But God is so rich in mercy, and He loved us so much,

5 that even though we were dead because of our sins, He gave us life when He raised Christ from the dead. It is only by God’s grace that you are saved!

6 For He raised us up with Christ and seated us with Him in the heavenly realms because we are united with Christ Jesus.

7 God did this to show, for all ages to come, the immeasurable riches of His grace, shown in the kindness He poured out on us in Christ Jesus.

Saved by Grace

8 God saved you by His grace when you believed. And you can’t take credit for this—it is a gift from God.

9 Salvation is not a reward for the good things we have done, so no one can boast about it.

10 For we are God's masterpiece. He created us anew in Christ Jesus, so we can do the good works He planned for us long ago.

One in Christ

11 Don't forget that you Gentiles used to be outsiders. You were called "uncircumcised" by the Jews, who were proud of their circumcision, even though it affected only their bodies and not their hearts.

12 In those days you were living apart from Christ. You were excluded from citizenship among the people of Israel, and you did not know the promises God had made to them. You lived in this world without God and without hope.

13 But now, you who were once far away have been brought near to God through the blood of Christ.

Christ Our Peace

14 For Christ Himself is our peace. He has made Jews and Gentiles one people by breaking down the wall of hostility that separated us.

15 By His death, He ended the system of law with its commandments and regulations. He created in Himself one new humanity out of the two groups, making peace.

16 Together, as one body, Christ reconciled both groups to God by His death on the cross, putting to death the hostility between us.

17 He came and preached peace to those who were far away and peace to those who were near.

18 Now all of us can come to the Father through the same Holy Spirit because of what Christ has done for us.

The Household of God

19 So now you are no longer strangers and foreigners. You are citizens along with all of God's holy people. You are members of God's family.

20 Together, we are built on the foundation laid by the apostles and prophets, and Christ Jesus Himself is the chief cornerstone.

21 In Him the whole building is joined together and grows into a holy temple for the Lord.

22 Through Him you too are being built together as a dwelling place where God lives by His Spirit.

Key Lessons from Ephesians 2

- We were dead, but God made us alive. Our salvation is entirely His work, not our own.
- Grace alone saves. Salvation is God's gift—it cannot be earned by works.
- We are God's masterpiece. He created us for good works prepared long before we were born.

- Christ breaks down barriers. He removed hostility between Jews and Gentiles, making one new family of faith.
- Peace through the cross. Jesus reconciles us to God and to each other by His sacrifice.
- We are God's household. Believers together form the temple where God dwells by His Spirit.

Ephesians 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Mystery of Christ Revealed”

Paul's Mission to the Gentiles

- 1 I, Paul, am a prisoner of Christ Jesus for the sake of you Gentiles.
2 You have surely heard about the responsibility God gave me to share His grace with you.
3 God revealed His mysterious plan to me by revelation, as I briefly wrote before.
4 When you read this, you will understand my insight into the mystery of Christ.
5 This mystery was not revealed to previous generations, but now by the Spirit it has been made known to His holy apostles and prophets.
6 And the mystery is this: that the Gentiles are heirs together with Israel, members of the same body, and share in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.
7 I was made a servant of this gospel by the gift of God's grace, given to me through His mighty power.

Preaching the Riches of Christ

- 8 Though I am the least deserving of all God's people, this grace was given to me: to preach to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ,
9 and to explain God's mysterious plan that was hidden in Him since the beginning of the world—the God who created everything through Jesus Christ.
10 God's purpose was that His wisdom, in all its variety, would now be made known through the church to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly places.
11 This was His eternal plan, accomplished through Christ Jesus our Lord.
12 Because of Christ and our faith in Him, we can now come boldly and confidently into God's presence.
13 So please do not lose heart because of my sufferings for you. They are for your glory.

Paul's Prayer for the Church

- 14 For this reason I bow my knees before the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, 15 from whom every family in heaven and on earth gets its name.
16 I pray that out of His glorious riches He will strengthen you with power through His Spirit in your inner being,
17 so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith. And I pray that you, being rooted and grounded in love,

18 may have the strength to understand, together with all God's people, how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ.

19 And to know this love that surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

Glory to God

20 Now to Him who is able to do far more abundantly than all we ask or imagine, according to His power that works within us,

21 to Him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

Key Lessons from Ephesians 3

- The mystery revealed. God's plan from the beginning was to unite Jews and Gentiles as one family in Christ.
- Grace empowers service. Paul humbly recognizes that his calling to preach was a gift of God's grace.
- The church displays God's wisdom. Even spiritual powers in the heavens see God's wisdom through His people.
- Bold access to God. Through Christ, believers can confidently approach God without fear.
- Rooted in love. True strength comes from Christ dwelling in our hearts and grounding us in His love.
- God's limitless power. He is able to do immeasurably more than we could ever ask or think, and all glory belongs to Him.

Ephesians 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Unity and New Life in Christ”

Living Worthy of the Call

1 As a prisoner for the Lord, I urge you to live a life worthy of the calling you have received.

2 Always be humble and gentle; be patient, making allowance for one another in love.

3 Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace.

4 There is one body and one Spirit—just as you were called to one hope.

5 One Lord, one faith, one baptism,

6 one God and Father of all, who is over all, through all, and in all.

Gifts for Building the Church

7 To each of us grace has been given as Christ apportioned it.

8 That is why the Scripture says: “When He ascended on high, He led a crowd of captives and gave gifts to His people.”

9 (What does “He ascended” mean except that He also descended to the lower, earthly regions?

10 The One who descended is the same One who ascended higher than all the heavens, in order to fill the whole universe.)

11 So Christ gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the pastors, and the teachers,
12 to equip God’s people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up,
13 until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God, becoming mature, measuring up to the fullness of Christ.

14 Then we will no longer be children, tossed back and forth by waves and carried about by every wind of new teaching, by trickery, or by the cunning craftiness of people who deceive.

15 Instead, we will speak the truth in love, growing in every way more and more like Christ, who is the head.

16 From Him the whole body is joined and held together by every supporting ligament, and as each part does its work, the body grows and builds itself up in love.

The Old Life and the New

17 So I tell you this, and insist on it in the Lord: you must no longer live as the Gentiles do, with their empty thinking.

18 Their minds are darkened; they are separated from the life of God because of their ignorance and hardened hearts.

19 Having lost all sensitivity, they have given themselves over to lustful desires and greed, practicing every kind of impurity.

20 But that is not what you learned when you came to know Christ.

21 Since you have heard about Him and been taught the truth that is in Jesus,

22 you must put off your old way of life—the old self, corrupted by deceitful desires—

23 and be made new in the attitude of your minds.

24 Put on the new self, created to be like God in true righteousness and holiness.

Rules for the New Life

25 So stop telling lies. Let us tell the truth to our neighbors, for we are all members of one body.

26 Be angry, yet do not sin. Do not let the sun go down while you are still angry, 27 and do not give the devil a foothold.

28 If you are a thief, quit stealing. Instead, work honestly with your own hands so you will have something to share with those in need.

29 Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths, but only what is helpful for building others up according to their needs, that it may benefit those who listen.

30 And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with whom you were sealed for the day of redemption.

31 Get rid of all bitterness, rage, anger, harsh words, slander, and all malice.

32 Instead, be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as God in Christ has forgiven you.

Key Lessons from Ephesians 4

- Walk worthy of your calling. A true Christian life is marked by humility, gentleness, patience, and love.
- One faith, one family. All believers share one Lord, one Spirit, one baptism, and one Father.
- Christ gives gifts. Apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers exist to equip believers and build the church.
- Grow in maturity. Speaking the truth in love helps us grow to full maturity in Christ.
- Put off the old self. Sinful ways of thinking and living must be abandoned.
- Put on the new self. We are called to live holy lives, reflecting God's righteousness.
- Watch your words and actions. Speech should build up, not tear down; anger must not lead to sin.
- Forgive as Christ forgave. God's mercy toward us becomes the pattern for how we treat others.

Ephesians 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Walking in Love and Light”

Living in Love

1 Follow God's example, as His dearly loved children.

2 Walk in love, just as Christ loved us and gave Himself up for us as a sacrifice to God, a pleasing offering.

3 Let there be no sexual immorality, impurity, or greed among you. Such sins have no place among God's people.

4 Obscene stories, foolish talk, and coarse jokes are not for you. Instead, let there be thankfulness to God.

5 Be sure of this: no immoral, impure, or greedy person—such a person is an idolater—has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

6 Do not be deceived by empty words, for because of these sins the wrath of God comes on those who are disobedient.

7 Therefore, do not partner with them.

Walking as Children of Light

8 Once you were darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light.

9 For the fruit of the Spirit is all goodness, righteousness, and truth.

10 Carefully determine what pleases the Lord.

11 Have nothing to do with the fruitless deeds of darkness. Instead, expose them.

12 It is shameful even to talk about what the disobedient do in secret.

13 But everything exposed by the light becomes visible, and everything that is illuminated becomes light.

14 That is why it is said:

“Wake up, sleeper,
rise from the dead,
and Christ will shine on you.”

Living Wisely

15 So be careful how you live. Do not live like fools, but like those who are wise.

16 Make the most of every opportunity, because the days are evil.

17 Do not be foolish, but understand what the Lord’s will is.

18 Do not get drunk on wine, which leads to reckless living. Instead, be filled with the Spirit.

19 Speak to one another with psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs. Sing and make music from your heart to the Lord.

20 Give thanks always for everything to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

21 Submit to one another out of reverence for Christ.

Wives and Husbands

22 Wives, submit to your own husbands as you do to the Lord.

23 For the husband is the head of the wife as Christ is the head of the church, His body, of which He is the Savior.

24 As the church submits to Christ, so wives should submit to their husbands in everything.

25 Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave Himself up for her,

26 to make her holy, cleansing her by the washing with water through the word,

27 and to present her to Himself as a glorious church, without spot or wrinkle or any blemish, but holy and blameless.

28 In the same way, husbands should love their wives as they love their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself.

29 After all, no one ever hated his own body, but he feeds and cares for it, just as Christ does the church.

30 For we are members of His body.

31 “For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two will become one flesh.”

32 This is a profound mystery—but I am speaking about Christ and the church.

33 However, each one of you must love his wife as he loves himself, and the wife must respect her husband.

Key Lessons from Ephesians 5

- Imitate God’s love. Just as Christ gave Himself up for us, we should walk in sacrificial love.
- Reject sin, embrace holiness. God’s people must avoid impurity, greed, and corrupt speech, choosing thankfulness instead.
- Live as light. Our lives should expose darkness and shine with the fruit of the Spirit—goodness, righteousness, and truth.
- Walk in wisdom. Use time wisely, stay filled with the Spirit, and let worship and gratitude mark your life.
- Honor relationships. Submission, love, and respect in marriage reflect Christ’s love for His church.
- Marriage points to Christ. The union of husband and wife is a living picture of Christ’s relationship with His people.

Ephesians 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Armor of God”

Children and Parents

1 Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is the right thing to do.

2 “Honor your father and mother”—this is the first command with a promise—

3 “so that it may go well with you and that you may live long on the earth.”

4 Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up with the training and instruction of the Lord.

Servants and Masters

5 Servants, obey your earthly masters with respect and sincerity of heart, just as you would obey Christ.
6 Do this not only when they are watching, to please them, but as servants of Christ, doing God's will from your heart.

7 Serve wholeheartedly, as if you were serving the Lord, not people.

8 Remember that the Lord will reward everyone for the good they do, whether they are slave or free.

9 Masters, treat your servants in the same way. Do not threaten them, since you know that you both have the same Master in heaven, and He shows no favoritism.

The Armor of God

10 Finally, be strong in the Lord and in His mighty power.

11 Put on the whole armor of God, so that you can stand firm against the devil's schemes.

12 For we are not fighting against flesh and blood, but against rulers, authorities, the powers of this dark world, and spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms.

13 Therefore, put on every piece of God's armor, so that when the day of evil comes, you may stand your ground, and after everything, remain standing.

14 Stand firm, with the belt of truth around your waist, the breastplate of righteousness in place,

15 and your feet fitted with the readiness that comes from the gospel of peace.

16 Above all, take up the shield of faith, which can stop all the flaming arrows of the evil one.

17 Take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

18 Pray in the Spirit at all times with every kind of prayer and request. Stay alert and keep praying for all of God's people.

19 And pray for me, that whenever I speak, words may be given to me so that I will fearlessly make known the mystery of the gospel, 20 for which I am an ambassador in chains. Pray that I may declare it boldly, as I should.

Final Greetings

21 Tychicus, our dear brother and faithful servant in the Lord, will tell you everything so that you may know how I am doing.

22 I am sending him to you for this very purpose—that you may know about us and that he may encourage your hearts.

23 Peace to the brothers and sisters, and love with faith from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

24 Grace be with all who love our Lord Jesus Christ with an undying love. Amen.

Key Lessons from Ephesians 6

- Honor in the home. Children are called to obey, and parents are called to lovingly train and guide without provoking anger.
- Serve as unto the Lord. Whether servant or master, work and lead with sincerity, knowing Christ is the true Master.
- Spiritual warfare is real. Our battle is not against people but against unseen forces of evil.
- Put on the full armor of God. Truth, righteousness, peace, faith, salvation, and God’s Word equip us to stand firm.
- Prayer is essential. Constant, Spirit-led prayer strengthens us and supports others.
- Boldness in the gospel. Paul asks for courage to proclaim Christ—a reminder that all believers need God’s power to witness.
- Grace and peace. Paul ends with blessings of peace, love, and grace for all who truly love Jesus.

Introduction to the Book of Philippians

“For to me, living means living for Christ, and dying is even better.”
– Philippians 1:21

Title and Meaning

The book of Philippians is Paul’s letter to the church in Philippi, a Roman colony in Macedonia (modern-day northern Greece). Its title reflects its recipients, the Philippian believers. Known as Paul’s most joyful letter, Philippians emphasizes rejoicing in the Lord regardless of circumstances. It is often called the “Epistle of Joy,” even though Paul wrote it while imprisoned.

Author and Date

The apostle Paul is the author (Philippians 1:1). He wrote this letter around AD 60–62 during his first Roman imprisonment, making it one of the “Prison Epistles” (alongside Ephesians, Colossians, and Philemon). The church at Philippi was the first church Paul founded in Europe (Acts 16:11–40), and his deep affection for them is evident throughout the letter.

Purpose of Philippians

Paul wrote Philippians with several key purposes:

- To thank the Philippians for their financial support and partnership in the gospel.
 - To encourage unity and humility in the church, following the example of Christ.
 - To remind believers to rejoice in the Lord despite trials.
 - To warn against false teachers and urge perseverance in the faith.
 - To encourage the Philippians to press on toward spiritual maturity.

Structure of Philippians

The letter is warm and personal, blending thanksgiving, exhortation, and encouragement:

📖 1. Thanksgiving and Joy in Partnership (Ch. 1)

Paul thanks the Philippians for their support and encourages them to stand firm in the gospel.

✠ 2. Unity and Humility in Christ (Ch. 2)

The famous “Christ Hymn” (2:5–11) portrays Jesus’ humility and exaltation as the model for believers.

⚔ 3. Warning Against False Teaching (Ch. 3)

Paul contrasts confidence in the flesh with the surpassing worth of knowing Christ.

👉 4. Encouragement and Contentment (Ch. 4)

Paul exhorts believers to rejoice always, be anxious for nothing, and find contentment in Christ.

Major Themes

- Joy in Christ – True joy is found in knowing and serving Jesus.
 - Unity Through Humility – Believers are called to put others first, following Christ’s example.
 - Christ as the Center of Life – Living is Christ, dying is gain.
 - Contentment in All Circumstances – Strength comes from Christ, not circumstances.
 - Partnership in the Gospel – Believers share together in the mission of spreading the gospel.

Why Philippians Matters Today

Philippians reminds us that joy is not dependent on external circumstances but on our relationship with Christ. In times of trial, stress, or uncertainty, this letter calls us to rejoice in the Lord, pursue unity, and live with Christ at the center of everything. Its message of joy, humility, and perseverance continues to encourage Christians around the world.

Key Verse

“For to me, living means living for Christ, and dying is even better.” – Philippians 1:21

This verse captures the heart of Philippians: Christ is our life, our joy, and our ultimate gain.

Philippians 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Living for Christ”

Greeting and Thanksgiving

1 This letter is from Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ Jesus, to all God’s holy people in Christ Jesus at Philippi, together with the overseers and deacons.

2 Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 I thank my God every time I remember you.

4 In all my prayers for you, I always pray with joy,

5 because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now.

6 I am confident that He who began a good work in you will continue His work until it is finished on the day when Christ Jesus returns.

7 It is right for me to feel this way about you, since I hold you in my heart. Whether I am in prison or defending and confirming the gospel, you share with me in God’s grace.

8 God knows how deeply I long for all of you with the affection of Christ Jesus.

9 This is my prayer: that your love may overflow more and more in knowledge and understanding,

10 so that you may discern what is best and remain pure and blameless until the day of Christ,

11 filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ—to the glory and praise of God.

Paul’s Chains Advance the Gospel

12 I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that what has happened to me has actually helped spread the gospel.

13 As a result, my imprisonment for Christ has become known throughout the whole palace guard and to everyone else.

14 Because of my chains, most of the believers have become more confident in the Lord and are bold to speak God’s word without fear.

15 It is true that some preach Christ out of envy and rivalry, but others do so out of goodwill.

16 The latter do so in love, knowing that I am put here for the defense of the gospel.

17 The former preach Christ out of selfish ambition, not sincerely, hoping to stir up trouble for me while I am in chains.

18 But what does it matter? The important thing is that in every way, whether from false motives or true, Christ is preached. And because of this I rejoice. Yes, and I will continue to rejoice,

19 for I know that through your prayers and the help of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, this will turn out for my deliverance.

20 I eagerly expect and hope that I will in no way be ashamed, but will have complete boldness, so that Christ will be exalted in my body, whether by life or by death.

To Live is Christ

21 For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

22 If I continue to live in the body, this will mean fruitful labor for me. Yet I do not know which I should choose.

23 I am torn between the two: I desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better;

24 but it is more necessary for you that I remain in the body.

25 Convinced of this, I know that I will stay and continue with all of you for your progress and joy in the faith,

26 so that through my being with you again, your boasting in Christ Jesus will overflow on account of me.

Standing Firm in the Gospel

27 Above all, conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ. Then, whether I come and see you or only hear about you, I will know that you stand firm in one spirit, striving together as one for the faith of the gospel, 28 without being frightened in any way by those who oppose you. This is a sign to them that they will be destroyed, but that you will be saved—and that by God.

29 For it has been granted to you on behalf of Christ not only to believe in Him, but also to suffer for Him,

30 since you are going through the same struggle you saw I had, and now hear that I still have.

Key Lessons from Philippians 1

- God finishes His work. The good work He begins in us will continue until the return of Christ.
- Prayer and love go together. Paul prays that the Philippians' love would grow in wisdom and understanding.
- Suffering can advance the gospel. Even imprisonment can serve God's purpose when Christ is proclaimed.
- Motives matter less than Christ being preached. What matters most is that the message of Christ is made known.

- To live is Christ, to die is gain. Paul’s life is centered on Christ, and death only brings him closer to Jesus.
- Stand firm together. Unity, courage, and perseverance in the face of opposition testify to God’s salvation.
- Suffering is part of discipleship. Believers are called not only to faith but also to share in Christ’s sufferings.

Philippians 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Mind of Christ”

Unity and Humility

1 If you have any encouragement from being united with Christ, any comfort from His love, any fellowship with the Spirit, any tenderness and compassion,

2 then make my joy complete by being of the same mind, having the same love, being united in spirit and purpose.

3 Do nothing out of selfish ambition or empty pride. Instead, in humility, value others above yourselves.

4 Do not look only to your own interests, but also to the interests of others.

5 Let this same mindset be in you that was in Christ Jesus:

6 Though He was in the very nature of God, He did not consider equality with God something to cling to.

7 Instead, He emptied Himself, taking the nature of a servant, being made in human likeness.

8 And being found in human form, He humbled Himself by becoming obedient to death—even death on a cross.

9 Therefore God exalted Him to the highest place and gave Him the name above every name,

10 that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow—in heaven, on earth, and under the earth—

11 and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Shining as Lights in the World

12 Therefore, my beloved, just as you have always obeyed—not only in my presence, but much more in my absence—continue to work out your salvation with fear and trembling.

13 For it is God who works in you, giving you both the desire and the ability to do what pleases Him.

14 Do everything without grumbling or arguing,

15 so that you may be blameless and pure, children of God without fault in a crooked and corrupt generation, among whom you shine like stars in the world,

16 holding firmly to the word of life. Then I will be able to boast on the day of Christ that I did not run or labor in vain.

17 Even if I am being poured out like a drink offering on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I am glad and rejoice with you all.

18 So you too should be glad and rejoice with me.

Timothy and Epaphroditus

19 I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, that I may be encouraged when I hear about you.

20 I have no one else like him, who genuinely cares for your welfare.

21 For everyone looks out for their own interests, not those of Jesus Christ.

22 But you know Timothy's proven character. Like a son with his father, he has served with me in the work of the gospel.

23 I hope to send him soon, as soon as I see how things go with me.

24 And I trust in the Lord that I myself will also come soon.

25 But I thought it necessary to send back to you Epaphroditus—my brother, coworker, fellow soldier, your messenger, who also ministered to my needs.

26 He longs for all of you and is distressed because you heard he was ill.

27 Indeed he was sick, almost to death. But God had mercy on him, and not only on him but also on me, to spare me sorrow upon sorrow.

28 Therefore I am all the more eager to send him, so that when you see him again you may rejoice, and I may be less anxious.

29 Welcome him in the Lord with great joy, and honor people like him,

30 because he nearly died for the work of Christ, risking his life to make up for the help you could not give me.

Key Lessons from Philippians 2

- Unity brings joy. The church flourishes when believers are of one mind, one love, and one purpose.
- Humility is Christlike. Jesus humbled Himself by becoming a servant and obeying unto death; we must imitate Him.
- Christ is exalted. Every knee will bow and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord.
- God works in us. He gives us both the will and the strength to do what pleases Him.
- Shine like stars. Believers are called to live pure, blameless lives that shine in a dark world.
- Rejoice in sacrifice. Even in suffering and service, joy remains when it is for Christ.
- Honor faithful servants. Men like Timothy and Epaphroditus show what it means to put Christ first and others before themselves.

Philippians 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Pressing Toward the Goal”

Rejoicing and Warning

1 Finally, my brothers and sisters, rejoice in the Lord! It is no trouble for me to write the same things to you again, and it is a safeguard for you.

2 Watch out for those dogs, those evildoers, those who mutilate the flesh.

3 For we are the true circumcision—we worship God by His Spirit, we boast in Christ Jesus, and we put no confidence in human effort.

Paul’s Former Life

4 If anyone thinks they have reason to rely on the flesh, I have more.

5 I was circumcised on the eighth day, born of the people of Israel, from the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews. In regard to the law, a Pharisee;

6 as for zeal, I persecuted the church; as for righteousness based on the law, I was faultless.

7 But whatever was gain to me I now consider loss for the sake of Christ.

8 What is more, I consider everything a loss compared to the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For His sake I have lost all things and consider them garbage, so that I may gain Christ,

9 and be found in Him—not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but the righteousness that comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God on the basis of faith.

Knowing Christ

10 I want to know Christ—yes, to know the power of His resurrection, and to share in His sufferings, becoming like Him in His death,

11 and so, somehow, to attain to the resurrection from the dead.

12 Not that I have already obtained all this or have already reached perfection, but I press on to take hold of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of me.

13 Brothers and sisters, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do: forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, 14 I press on toward the goal to win the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.

Following the Example

15 All of us who are mature should take this view of things. And if you think differently on some point, God will make it clear to you.

16 Only let us live up to what we have already attained.

17 Join together in following my example, brothers and sisters, and keep your eyes on those who live as we do.

18 For, as I have often told you before and now say again with tears, many live as enemies of the cross of Christ.

19 Their destiny is destruction, their god is their appetite, they glory in what should be their shame, and their minds are set on earthly things.

Our Heavenly Hope

20 But our citizenship is in heaven, and we eagerly await a Savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ, 21 who, by the power that enables Him to bring everything under His control, will transform our lowly bodies so that they will be like His glorious body.

Key Lessons from Philippians 3

- Rejoice in the Lord. Joy in Christ is a safeguard against false teaching and spiritual pride.
- Confidence is not in the flesh. Heritage, law-keeping, or human achievement cannot make us right with God.
- Knowing Christ is supreme. Everything else is worthless compared to gaining Christ and His righteousness.
- Press forward. Forget what is behind and press on toward the goal of God's high calling in Christ.
- Follow godly examples. True leaders live in line with the gospel; many live as enemies of the cross.
- Our true citizenship is in heaven. We live with hope, awaiting Christ who will transform us into His likeness.

Philippians 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Rejoice in the Lord Always”

Standing Firm in the Lord

1 Therefore, my dearly loved and longed-for brothers and sisters, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord, beloved.

2 I appeal to Euodia and I appeal to Syntyche: be of the same mind in the Lord.

3 Yes, I also ask you, my true companion, help these women who worked hard with me in spreading the gospel, along with Clement and the rest of my coworkers, whose names are in the Book of Life.

Rejoicing and Peace

4 Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice!

5 Let your gentleness be evident to all. The Lord is near.

6 Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God.

7 And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things.

9 Whatever you have learned or received or heard from me, or seen in me—put it into practice. And the God of peace will be with you.

Contentment in All Things

10 I rejoiced greatly in the Lord that at last you renewed your concern for me. Indeed, you were concerned, but you had no opportunity to show it.

11 I am not saying this because I am in need, for I have learned to be content in whatever circumstances I find myself.

12 I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in every situation—whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want.

13 I can do all things through Christ who gives me strength.

14 Yet it was good of you to share in my troubles.

15 Moreover, as you Philippians know, in the early days of your faith, when I set out from Macedonia, no church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving, except you only.

16 For even when I was in Thessalonica, you sent me aid more than once when I was in need.

17 Not that I desire your gifts; what I desire is that more fruit may be credited to your account.

18 I have received full payment and have more than enough. I am amply supplied, now that I have received from Epaphroditus the gifts you sent. They are a fragrant offering, an acceptable sacrifice, pleasing to God.

19 And my God will meet all your needs according to the riches of His glory in Christ Jesus.

20 To our God and Father be glory forever and ever. Amen.

Final Greetings

21 Greet all God's people in Christ Jesus. The brothers and sisters who are with me send greetings.

22 All God's people here send you greetings, especially those who belong to Caesar's household.

23 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

Key Lessons from Philippians 4

- Rejoice always. Joy in the Lord is not tied to circumstances but to His presence.
- Pray instead of worrying. Prayer with thanksgiving leads to the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding.
- Think on the good. Fill your mind with what is true, pure, and praiseworthy.
- Godly example. Follow those who practice the truth, and the God of peace will be with you.
- Contentment is learned. True strength to endure all things comes through Christ.
- Generosity bears fruit. Giving is not just about meeting needs but about spiritual fruit credited to the giver.
- God supplies every need. He provides according to His riches in Christ Jesus.
- Grace for all. Paul closes with a blessing of Christ's grace upon every believer.

Introduction to the Book of Colossians

“Christ is the visible image of the invisible God. He existed before anything was created and is supreme over all creation.” – Colossians 1:15

Title and Meaning

The book of Colossians is a letter written by Paul to the believers in the city of Colossae, a small town in Asia Minor (modern-day Turkey). Its title reflects its recipients, the Colossian Christians. Colossians highlights the supremacy and sufficiency of Christ, reminding believers that Jesus is above all powers, philosophies, and traditions. It is often considered Paul's most Christ-centered letter, focusing on the absolute lordship of Jesus.

Author and Date

The apostle Paul is the author (Colossians 1:1), with Timothy listed as a co-sender. Paul likely wrote this letter around AD 60–62 during his first Roman imprisonment, making it one of the “Prison Epistles” (along with Ephesians, Philippians, and Philemon). Paul had never visited Colossae personally; the church was likely founded by Epaphras, one of Paul’s co-workers (Colossians 1:7–8).

Purpose of Colossians

Paul wrote Colossians to address false teachings that threatened the church, which blended Jewish legalism, Greek philosophy, and mystical practices. His purposes were:

- To proclaim the supremacy of Christ over all creation and spiritual powers.
 - To warn against false teaching and human traditions that diminish Christ.
 - To affirm that believers are complete in Christ, lacking nothing.
 - To encourage holy living as a response to new life in Christ.

Structure of Colossians

The letter moves from doctrine (Christ’s supremacy) to practice (Christian living):

📖 1. The Supremacy of Christ (Chs. 1–2)

Christ is the image of God, the head of the church, and the source of reconciliation. Paul warns against false philosophies and insists Christ is all-sufficient.

✝️ 2. New Life in Christ (Chs. 3–4)

Believers are called to put off the old self, put on the new, live in love and holiness, and devote themselves to prayer and mission.

Major Themes

- Christ’s Supremacy – Jesus is Lord over all creation, powers, and authorities.
 - The Fullness of Christ – In Him dwells all the fullness of God, and believers are complete in Him.
 - Warning Against False Teaching – Human traditions, empty philosophies, and legalism cannot save.
 - New Life in Christ – Believers are called to holiness, love, and unity in the body of Christ.
 - Prayer and Mission – Devotion to prayer and bold witness are essential to Christian living.

Why Colossians Matters Today

Colossians speaks powerfully to a modern world filled with competing worldviews, philosophies, and spiritual confusion. It reminds us that Christ is enough—He is Lord, Savior, and King. Believers do not need to seek fullness in rituals, traditions, or human wisdom; fullness is found in Christ alone. This letter calls us to live out our identity in Him with confidence and holiness.

Key Verse

“Christ is the visible image of the invisible God. He existed before anything was created and is supreme over all creation.” – Colossians 1:15

This verse captures the heart of Colossians: Jesus is supreme, all-sufficient, and the center of all things.

Colossians 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Christ, the Supreme Lord”

Greeting and Thanksgiving

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

2 To God’s holy people and faithful brothers and sisters in Christ at Colossae: Grace and peace to you from God our Father.

3 We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for you,

4 because we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love you have for all God’s people,

5 the faith and love that spring from the hope stored up for you in heaven, which you have already heard about in the true message of the gospel

6 that has come to you. In the same way, this gospel is bearing fruit and growing throughout the whole world—just as it has been doing among you since the day you heard it and truly understood God’s grace.

7 You learned it from Epaphras, our dear fellow servant, who is a faithful minister of Christ on our behalf,

8 and who also told us of your love in the Spirit.

Paul’s Prayer for the Colossians

9 For this reason, since the day we heard about you, we have not stopped praying for you. We continually ask God to fill you with the knowledge of His will through all the wisdom and understanding that the Spirit gives,

10 so that you may live a life worthy of the Lord and please Him in every way: bearing fruit in every good work, growing in the knowledge of God,

11 being strengthened with all power according to His glorious might, so that you may have great endurance and patience, and joyfully

12 giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified you to share in the inheritance of His holy people in the kingdom of light.

13 For He has rescued us from the dominion of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of the Son He loves, 14 in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

The Supremacy of Christ

15 The Son is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation.
16 For in Him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities; all things have been created through Him and for Him.
17 He is before all things, and in Him all things hold together.
18 And He is the head of the body, the church; He is the beginning and the firstborn from among the dead, so that in everything He might have the supremacy.
19 For God was pleased to have all His fullness dwell in Him,
20 and through Him to reconcile all things to Himself, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through His blood, shed on the cross.

Reconciled Through Christ

21 Once you were alienated from God and were enemies in your minds because of your evil behavior.
22 But now He has reconciled you by Christ's physical body through death to present you holy, without blemish, and free from accusation.
23 If you continue in your faith, established and firm, and do not move from the hope held out in the gospel. This is the gospel that you heard and that has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven, and of which I, Paul, have become a servant.

Paul's Labor for the Church

24 Now I rejoice in what I am suffering for you, and I fill up in my flesh what is still lacking in regard to Christ's afflictions, for the sake of His body, which is the church.
25 I have become its servant by the commission God gave me to present to you the word of God in its fullness—
26 the mystery that has been kept hidden for ages and generations, but is now disclosed to the Lord's people.
27 To them God has chosen to make known among the Gentiles the glorious riches of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.
28 He is the one we proclaim, warning and teaching everyone with all wisdom, so that we may present everyone fully mature in Christ.
29 To this end I labor, striving with all His energy, which so powerfully works in me.

Key Lessons from Colossians 1

- Faith, hope, and love endure. True Christian life is rooted in faith in Christ, love for others, and hope stored up in heaven.
- Pray for wisdom and strength. Spiritual growth comes through God filling us with His will, power, and endurance.
- Christ is supreme. He is the image of the invisible God, Creator of all things, and the head of the church.
- Reconciliation through the cross. Jesus' death brings peace with God, presenting us holy and blameless before Him.
- Christ in you, the hope of glory. The great mystery revealed is Christ living in His people, assuring future glory.
- Ministry is service. Paul reminds us that preaching, teaching, and suffering for the gospel are empowered by God's strength.

Colossians 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Complete in Christ”

Paul's Concern for the Churches

1 I want you to know how hard I am contending for you, for those in Laodicea, and for all who have not met me personally.

2 My goal is that their hearts may be encouraged and united in love, so that they may have the full riches of complete understanding, knowing the mystery of God—namely, Christ.

3 In Him are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

4 I say this so that no one may deceive you with fine-sounding arguments.

5 For though I am not physically with you, I am with you in spirit, rejoicing to see your good order and the firmness of your faith in Christ.

Rooted in Christ

6 So then, just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live your lives in Him,

7 rooted and built up in Him, strengthened in the faith as you were taught, and overflowing with thankfulness.

8 See to it that no one takes you captive through hollow and deceptive philosophy, which depends on human tradition and the basic principles of this world rather than on Christ.

9 For in Christ all the fullness of God lives in bodily form,

10 and in Christ you have been brought to fullness. He is the head over every ruler and authority.

New Life in Christ

11 In Him you were also circumcised with a circumcision not performed by human hands. Your whole sinful nature was cut off when you were circumcised by Christ,
12 having been buried with Him in baptism, in which you were also raised with Him through your faith in the power of God, who raised Him from the dead.
13 When you were dead in your sins and in the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made you alive with Christ. He forgave us all our sins,
14 canceling the record of debt with its legal demands that stood against us. He took it away, nailing it to the cross.
15 And having disarmed the rulers and authorities, He made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them by the cross.

Freedom from Human Rules

16 Therefore do not let anyone judge you by what you eat or drink, or with regard to a religious festival, a new moon celebration, or a Sabbath day.
17 These are only a shadow of the things to come; the reality is found in Christ.
18 Do not let anyone disqualify you by insisting on false humility and the worship of angels. Such people claim to have seen visions; they are puffed up with idle notions from their unspiritual minds.
19 They are not holding firmly to the Head, from whom the whole body, supported and held together by its ligaments and sinews, grows with a growth that is from God.
20 Since you died with Christ to the basic principles of this world, why, as though you still belonged to the world, do you submit to its rules—
21 “Do not handle! Do not taste! Do not touch!”?
22 These rules, which are based on merely human commands and teachings, perish with use.
23 Such regulations have the appearance of wisdom, with their self-imposed religion, false humility, and harsh treatment of the body, but they are of no value in restraining sinful desires.

Key Lessons from Colossians 2

- Christ holds all wisdom. All treasures of wisdom and knowledge are found in Him, not in human philosophy.
- Rooted and built up. Believers must stay grounded in Christ, strengthened in faith, and filled with thanksgiving.
- Fullness in Christ. He is the head over every power, and in Him we are complete.
- The cross cancels debt. Through His death, Jesus forgave our sins and triumphed over every spiritual power.

- Reality over shadows. Festivals, Sabbaths, and rituals were only shadows pointing to Christ.
- Avoid false religion. Human rules, self-made religion, and outward practices cannot transform the heart.
- Hold to the Head. True growth comes only from Christ, who gives life to His body, the church.

Colossians 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“New Life in Christ”

Set Your Mind on Things Above

1 Since you have been raised with Christ, set your hearts on things above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God.

2 Set your minds on things above, not on earthly things.

3 For you died, and your life is now hidden with Christ in God.

4 When Christ, who is your life, appears, then you also will appear with Him in glory.

Putting Off the Old Life

5 Put to death whatever belongs to your earthly nature: sexual immorality, impurity, lust, evil desires, and greed, which is idolatry.

6 Because of these things, the wrath of God is coming on the disobedient.

7 You used to walk in these ways, in the life you once lived.

8 But now you must also rid yourselves of all such things: anger, rage, malice, slander, and filthy language from your lips.

9 Do not lie to each other, since you have taken off the old self with its practices

10 and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge in the image of its Creator.

11 Here there is no Greek or Jew, circumcised or uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave or free; Christ is all, and is in all.

Putting On the New Life

12 Therefore, as God’s chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience.

13 Bear with each other and forgive one another if anyone has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you.

14 And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity.

15 Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, since as members of one body you were called to peace. And be thankful.

16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and encouraging one another with all wisdom through psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, singing to God with gratitude in your hearts.

17 And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him.

Instructions for Christian Households

18 Wives, submit yourselves to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord.

19 Husbands, love your wives and do not be harsh with them.

20 Children, obey your parents in everything, for this pleases the Lord.

21 Fathers, do not provoke your children, or they may become discouraged.

22 Servants, obey your earthly masters in everything; not only when their eye is on you to win their favor, but with sincerity of heart and reverence for the Lord.

23 Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for people,

24 since you know that you will receive an inheritance from the Lord as a reward. It is the Lord Christ you are serving.

25 Anyone who does wrong will be repaid for their wrong, and there is no favoritism.

Key Lessons from Colossians 3

- Set your mind on eternity. Our focus should be on Christ and the life to come, not on earthly distractions.
- Put off the old life. Sinful attitudes, words, and actions must be removed.
- Put on the new life. Compassion, kindness, patience, and forgiveness reflect Christ's character.
- Love binds all. Love is the bond of perfection that unites every virtue.
- Let peace rule. Christ's peace and thankfulness should govern the believer's heart.
- Let the Word dwell richly. Worship, teaching, and encouragement flow from God's Word living in us.
- Honor in the household. Wives, husbands, children, and fathers all have roles shaped by Christ's love.
- Work for Christ. Every task should be done as service to the Lord, who rewards faithfully.

Colossians 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Devoted to Prayer and Wise Living”

Instructions for Masters and Prayer

- 1 Masters, give your servants what is right and fair, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven.
 - 2 Continue steadfastly in prayer, being watchful and thankful.
 - 3 Pray for us, too, that God may open a door for our message, so that we may proclaim the mystery of Christ, for which I am in chains.
 - 4 Pray that I may make it clear, as I should.

Walking in Wisdom

- 5 Be wise in the way you act toward outsiders; make the most of every opportunity.
 - 6 Let your conversation always be full of grace, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to answer everyone.

Final Greetings

- 7 Tychicus will tell you all the news about me. He is a beloved brother, a faithful minister, and fellow servant in the Lord.
 - 8 I am sending him to you for this very purpose, that you may know how we are doing and that he may encourage your hearts.
 - 9 He is coming with Onesimus, our faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They will tell you everything that is happening here.
 - 10 Aristarchus, my fellow prisoner, sends you greetings, as does Mark, the cousin of Barnabas. (You have received instructions about him; if he comes to you, welcome him.)
 - 11 Jesus, who is called Justus, also sends greetings. These are the only Jewish believers among my coworkers for the kingdom of God, and they have been a great comfort to me.
 - 12 Epaphras, who is one of you and a servant of Christ Jesus, sends greetings. He is always wrestling in prayer for you, that you may stand mature and fully assured in all the will of God.
 - 13 I can testify that he is working hard for you and for those in Laodicea and Hierapolis.
 - 14 Our dear friend Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas send greetings.
 - 15 Give my greetings to the brothers and sisters at Laodicea, and to Nymphas and the church that meets in his house.
 - 16 After this letter has been read to you, see that it is also read in the church of the Laodiceans, and that you in turn read the letter from Laodicea.
 - 17 Tell Archippus: "See to it that you complete the ministry you have received in the Lord."
 - 18 I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand. Remember my chains. Grace be with you. Amen.

Key Lessons from Colossians 4

- Justice and fairness matter. Masters are reminded that they, too, answer to a higher Master in heaven.
- Prayer is vital. Believers must pray with watchfulness, thanksgiving, and for open doors for the gospel.
- Wise witness. Our words and actions toward outsiders should be marked by grace, wisdom, and clarity.
- Encourage the faithful. Paul highlights coworkers like Tychicus, Onesimus, Epaphras, and Luke, showing the importance of encouragement in ministry.
- Pray for leaders. Epaphras labored in prayer for the maturity of the church—a model for intercession.
- Finish the work. Archippus is urged to complete his ministry, reminding all believers to faithfully fulfill their callings.
- Remember those who suffer. Paul closes by pointing to his chains, urging the church to hold him in prayer.

Introduction to the Book of 1 Thessalonians

“For the Lord himself will come down from heaven with a commanding shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet call of God. First, the Christians who have died will rise from their graves.” – 1 Thessalonians 4:16

Title and Meaning

The book of 1 Thessalonians is a letter written by Paul to the church in Thessalonica, the capital of Macedonia in northern Greece. Its title reflects its recipients—the Thessalonian believers. Why 1 Thessalonians Matters Today

1 Thessalonians reminds believers that the Christian life is not easy, but it is filled with hope. In times of persecution, grief, or uncertainty, this letter points us to the certainty of Christ's return. It encourages us to remain steadfast, live holy lives, and look forward to the day when we will be with the Lord forever.

Key Verse

“For the Lord himself will come down from heaven with a commanding shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet call of God. First, the Christians who have died will rise from their graves.” – 1 Thessalonians 4:16

This verse captures the heart of 1 Thessalonians: the blessed hope of Christ's return and the resurrection of His people.

“Turning to God and Waiting for His Son”

Greeting

1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy,

To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Thanksgiving for Their Faith

2 We always thank God for all of you and continually mention you in our prayers.

3 We remember before our God and Father your work produced by faith, your labor motivated by love, and your endurance inspired by hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.

4 For we know, brothers and sisters loved by God, that He has chosen you,

5 because our gospel came to you not simply with words but also with power, with the Holy Spirit, and with deep conviction. You know how we lived among you for your sake.

6 You became imitators of us and of the Lord, for you welcomed the message in the midst of severe suffering with the joy given by the Holy Spirit.

7 And so you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 The message of the Lord rang out from you not only in Macedonia and Achaia—your faith in God has become known everywhere. Therefore, we do not need to say anything about it,

9 for they themselves report what kind of reception you gave us. They tell how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God,

10 and to wait for His Son from heaven, whom He raised from the dead—Jesus, who rescues us from the coming wrath.

Key Lessons from 1 Thessalonians 1

- Faith, love, and hope in action. True Christian life produces works of faith, labor motivated by love, and endurance grounded in hope.
- The gospel is power. The message is not just words—it comes with the Spirit’s power and deep conviction.
- Imitate and become examples. By following Christ, believers set an example that spreads far beyond their local community.
- Turn from idols to God. Salvation involves forsaking false gods to serve the living and true God.
- Wait for Christ’s return. Believers live in expectation of Jesus, who was raised from the dead and delivers us from God’s coming judgment.

1 Thessalonians 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Walking Worthy of God”

Paul’s Ministry in Thessalonica

1 You yourselves know, brothers and sisters, that our visit to you was not in vain.

2 Even though we had already suffered and been mistreated in Philippi, as you know, we were still bold in our God to declare to you the gospel of God, in the face of strong opposition.

3 Our appeal does not come from error or impure motives, nor are we trying to trick you.

4 On the contrary, we speak as those approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel. We are not trying to please people but God, who tests our hearts.

5 You know we never used flattery, nor did we put on a mask to cover greed—God is our witness.

6 We were not looking for praise from people, not from you or anyone else, even though as apostles of Christ we could have asserted our authority.

7 Instead, we were gentle among you, like a nursing mother caring for her children.

8 So, with deep affection for you, we were delighted to share with you not only the gospel of God but our very lives as well, because you had become so dear to us.

9 Surely you remember, brothers and sisters, our labor and toil. We worked night and day in order not to be a burden to anyone while we preached the gospel of God to you.

10 You are witnesses, and so is God, of how holy, righteous, and blameless we were among you who believed.

11 For you know that we dealt with each of you as a father deals with his children,
12 encouraging, comforting, and urging you to live lives worthy of God, who calls you into His kingdom and glory.

Receiving the Word and Suffering for It

13 And we also thank God continually because, when you received the word of God from us, you accepted it not as the word of men, but as it truly is—the word of God, which is at work in you who believe.

14 For you, brothers and sisters, became imitators of God's churches in Judea, which are in Christ Jesus. You suffered from your own people the same things those churches suffered from the Jews,
15 who killed the Lord Jesus and the prophets and also drove us out. They displease God and are hostile to everyone

16 in their effort to keep us from speaking to the Gentiles so that they may be saved. In doing this they always heap up their sins to the limit, and the wrath of God has come upon them at last.

Longing to See Them Again

17 But, brothers and sisters, when we were separated from you for a short time—in person, not in heart—we longed with great desire to see you again.

18 For we wanted to come to you—certainly I, Paul, tried again and again—but Satan blocked our way.

19 For what is our hope, our joy, or the crown in which we will glory in the presence of our Lord Jesus when He comes? Is it not you?

20 Indeed, you are our glory and joy.

Key Lessons from 1 Thessalonians 2

- Ministry requires boldness. Paul preached the gospel even in the face of opposition and suffering.
- Please God, not people. True ministry seeks God's approval, not human praise.
- Gentle love in service. Paul compared his care for the church to both a nurturing mother and a guiding father.
- The Word is alive. God's word works powerfully in those who believe, transforming lives.
- Suffering is part of faith. Believers often endure persecution, but they share in the same path as Christ and the prophets.
- Satan hinders, but Christ sustains. The enemy opposes gospel work, but believers hold firm in hope.

- The church is the crown of joy. Paul's ultimate reward is seeing the Thessalonians standing firm in Christ when He returns.

1 Thessalonians 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Standing Firm in the Faith”

Timothy Sent to Encourage Them

1 When we could stand it no longer, we thought it best to be left in Athens alone.

2 We sent Timothy, our brother and God's servant in the gospel of Christ, to strengthen and encourage you in your faith,

3 so that no one would be unsettled by these trials. You know very well that we are destined for them.

4 In fact, when we were with you, we kept telling you that we would face persecution. And it turned out just as you know.

5 For this reason, when I could bear it no longer, I sent to find out about your faith. I was afraid that the tempter might have tempted you, and that our labor might have been in vain.

Timothy's Good Report

6 But now Timothy has returned to us from you and has brought good news about your faith and love. He has told us that you always remember us kindly and long to see us, just as we long to see you.

7 Therefore, brothers and sisters, in all our distress and persecution we were encouraged about you because of your faith.

8 For now we truly live, since you are standing firm in the Lord.

9 How can we thank God enough for you in return for all the joy we have in His presence because of you?

10 Night and day we pray most earnestly that we may see you again and supply what is lacking in your faith.

A Prayer for Strength and Love

11 Now may our God and Father Himself and our Lord Jesus clear the way for us to come to you.

12 May the Lord make your love increase and overflow for each other and for everyone else, just as ours does for you.

13 May He strengthen your hearts so that you will be blameless and holy in the presence of our God and Father when our Lord Jesus comes with all His holy ones.

Key Lessons from 1 Thessalonians 3

- Trials are expected. Persecution is not a surprise for believers; it is part of following Christ.
- Encouragement strengthens faith. Timothy was sent to build up the Thessalonians so their faith would not be shaken.
- Faith brings life. Paul's joy and strength were renewed when he heard the Thessalonians were standing firm in the Lord.
- Prayer for growth. Paul prayed constantly for their faith to mature and for their love to increase toward all people.
- Hope in Christ's coming. Believers are called to holiness and blamelessness, looking ahead to the return of Jesus with His saints.

1 Thessalonians 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Living to Please God and the Hope of Christ's Return”

A Call to Holiness

1 Finally, brothers and sisters, we ask and urge you in the Lord Jesus: just as you learned from us how to live in a way that pleases God, do so more and more.

2 For you know the instructions we gave you by the authority of the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is God's will: your sanctification—that you avoid sexual immorality,

4 that each of you learn to control your own body in holiness and honor,

5 not in passionate lust like the Gentiles who do not know God.

6 And do not wrong or take advantage of a brother or sister in this matter, because the Lord is the avenger of all such sins, as we told you before and warned you.

7 For God has not called us to impurity, but to holiness.

8 Therefore, anyone who rejects this instruction does not reject a human being but God, who gives you His Holy Spirit.

A Call to Love and Work

9 Now about brotherly love, you do not need anyone to write to you, for you yourselves have been taught by God to love one another.

10 In fact, you do love all of God's people throughout Macedonia. Yet we urge you, brothers and sisters, to do so more and more.

11 Make it your ambition to live a quiet life: mind your own business and work with your hands, just as we told you,

12 so that your daily life may win the respect of outsiders and you will not be dependent on anyone.

The Hope of the Resurrection

13 Brothers and sisters, we do not want you to be uninformed about those who have fallen asleep in death, so that you do not grieve like the rest, who have no hope.

14 For we believe that Jesus died and rose again, and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in Him.

15 According to the Lord's word, we tell you that we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord will certainly not go ahead of those who have fallen asleep.

16 For the Lord Himself will come down from heaven, with a loud command, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet call of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first.

17 After that, we who are alive and remain will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so we will always be with the Lord.

18 Therefore encourage one another with these words.

Key Lessons from 1 Thessalonians 4

- Holiness is God's will. Believers are called to reject immorality and live in purity, honoring God with their bodies.
- Love must grow. Christian love is already present but should increase more and more.
- Quiet diligence. Living peacefully, working faithfully, and minding one's own affairs reflect Christ to outsiders.
- Hope beyond death. Believers grieve with hope, knowing that those who die in Christ will be raised.
- The Lord's return. Christ Himself will return with power, raising the dead and gathering the living to be with Him forever.
- Encouragement in hope. The promise of resurrection and eternal union with Christ brings comfort to all who believe.

1 Thessalonians 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Children of the Light and the God of Peace”

The Day of the Lord

1 Now, brothers and sisters, about times and dates we do not need to write to you,

2 for you know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night.

3 While people are saying, “Peace and safety,” destruction will come on them suddenly, like labor pains on a pregnant woman, and they will not escape.

4 But you, brothers and sisters, are not in darkness so that this day should surprise you like a thief.

5 You are all children of the light and children of the day. We do not belong to the night or to the darkness.

6 So then, let us not be like others, who are asleep, but let us be awake and sober.

7 For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk, get drunk at night.

8 But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, putting on faith and love as a breastplate, and the hope of salvation as a helmet.

9 For God did not appoint us to suffer wrath but to receive salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ.

10 He died for us so that, whether we are awake or asleep, we may live together with Him.

11 Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing.

Final Instructions

12 Now we ask you, brothers and sisters, to respect those who work hard among you, who care for you in the Lord and admonish you.

13 Hold them in the highest regard in love because of their work. Live in peace with each other.

14 And we urge you, brothers and sisters, warn those who are idle and disruptive, encourage the fainthearted, help the weak, and be patient with everyone.

15 Make sure nobody pays back wrong for wrong, but always strive to do what is good for each other and for everyone else.

16 Rejoice always,

17 pray continually,

18 give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God’s will for you in Christ Jesus.

19 Do not quench the Spirit.

20 Do not treat prophecies with contempt.

21 But test everything; hold on to what is good.

22 Reject every kind of evil.

Closing Blessing

23 May the God of peace Himself sanctify you completely. May your whole spirit, soul, and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

24 The One who calls you is faithful, and He will do it.

25 Brothers and sisters, pray for us.

26 Greet all God’s people with a holy kiss.

27 I charge you before the Lord to have this letter read to all the brothers and sisters.

Key Lessons from 1 Thessalonians 5

- Put on the armor of faith, love, and hope. These protect us as we await salvation in Christ.

Introduction to the Book of 2 Thessalonians

“But the Lord is faithful; he will strengthen you and guard you from the evil one.” – 2 Thessalonians 3:3

Title and Meaning

The book of 2 Thessalonians is Paul's second letter to the church in Thessalonica. Its title reflects its recipients—the Thessalonian believers. While 1 Thessalonians emphasizes encouragement and hope in Christ's return, 2 Thessalonians provides correction and clarification about the timing of the Lord's coming, urging believers to remain steadfast in faith and not be deceived.

Author and Date

The apostle Paul is the author (2 Thessalonians 1:1), with Silas and Timothy again listed as co-senders. He likely wrote this letter just a few months after 1 Thessalonians, around AD 51–52, during his stay in Corinth on his second missionary journey (Acts 18:1–5).

Purpose of 2 Thessalonians

Paul wrote to address confusion and false teaching about the second coming of Christ. His purposes include:

- To encourage the believers to stand firm amid persecution.
 - To correct misunderstandings about the day of the Lord, assuring them it had not yet come.
 - To warn against idleness and urge diligence in work and daily life.
 - To remind them of God's justice in repaying affliction to those who trouble His people.
 - To call them to perseverance and prayerful dependence on God.

Structure of 2 Thessalonians

This letter is shorter than the first but more urgent in tone:

1. Encouragement in Persecution (Ch. 1)

Paul praises their growing faith and assures them of God's justice and Christ's return.

2. Clarification About the Day of the Lord (Ch. 2)

Paul explains that certain events must occur before Christ's return, including the rise of the "man of lawlessness."

3. Instructions for Daily Living (Ch. 3)

Paul warns against idleness, commands believers to work diligently, and closes with prayer and blessing.

Major Themes

- God's Faithfulness – The Lord strengthens and protects His people.
 - Perseverance in Trials – Suffering is not meaningless but points to future glory.
 - The Day of the Lord – Christ's return will be unmistakable and accompanied by judgment.
 - The Man of Lawlessness – A future figure of rebellion who exalts himself against God.
 - Discipline and Diligence – Believers are called to productive lives, not laziness.

Why 2 Thessalonians Matters Today

2 Thessalonians speaks directly to a world filled with confusion, fear, and deception. It reminds us that God is faithful, even in suffering, and that His timing is perfect. The letter also warns believers not to be misled by false teachings or idle living but to stand firm in Christ while waiting for His return. Its message is one of endurance, faith, and vigilance.

Key Verse

“But the Lord is faithful; he will strengthen you and guard you from the evil one.” – 2 Thessalonians 3:3

This verse captures the essence of 2 Thessalonians: God’s faithfulness is the believer’s anchor in times of trial, deception, and waiting.

2 Thessalonians 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God’s Righteous Judgment and Christ’s Glory”

Greeting

1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy,

To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

2 Grace and peace to you from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Thanksgiving for Their Faith and Love

3 We ought always to thank God for you, brothers and sisters, and rightly so, because your faith is growing more and more, and the love all of you have for one another is increasing.

4 Therefore, among God’s churches we boast about your perseverance and faith in all the persecutions and trials you are enduring.

God’s Righteous Judgment

5 All this is evidence of God’s righteous judgment, and as a result you will be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you are suffering.

6 God is just: He will repay with affliction those who trouble you

7 and give relief to you who are troubled, and to us as well. This will happen when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven in blazing fire with His mighty angels.

8 He will punish those who do not know God and do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus.

9 They will be punished with everlasting destruction, shut out from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of His power

10 on the day He comes to be glorified in His holy people and to be marveled at among all who have believed. And this includes you, because you believed our testimony to you.

Paul's Prayer for Them

11 With this in mind, we constantly pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of His calling, and that by His power He may bring to fruition your every desire for goodness and your every deed prompted by faith.

12 We pray this so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in Him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Key Lessons from 2 Thessalonians 1

- Faith and love must grow. Paul rejoiced that the Thessalonians' faith was deepening and their love for each other was increasing.
- Trials reveal worthiness. Enduring persecution is evidence of being counted worthy of God's kingdom.
- God is just. He will repay those who trouble His people and bring relief to those who remain faithful.
- Christ's return will be glorious. Jesus will come with His angels in blazing fire, bringing judgment on unbelievers and glory to His saints.
- Prayer fuels perseverance. Paul prayed that God would strengthen their faith, empower their good works, and glorify Christ through their lives.

2 Thessalonians 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Man of Lawlessness and the Hope of Christ”

The Day of the Lord

1 Concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered to Him, we ask you, brothers and sisters,

2 not to become easily unsettled or alarmed by a prophecy, report, or letter supposed to have come from us, saying that the day of the Lord has already come.

3 Don't let anyone deceive you in any way, for that day will not come until the rebellion occurs and the man of lawlessness is revealed—the son of destruction.

4 He will oppose and exalt himself above everything that is called God or is worshiped, so that he sets himself up in God's temple, proclaiming himself to be God.

5 Don't you remember that when I was with you I used to tell you these things?

6 And now you know what is holding him back, so that he may be revealed at the proper time.

7 For the secret power of lawlessness is already at work, but the one who now restrains it will continue until he is taken out of the way.

8 And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will overthrow with the breath of His mouth and destroy by the brightness of His coming.

9 The coming of the lawless one will be in accordance with the work of Satan, displayed in all kinds of counterfeit miracles, signs, and wonders,

10 and in every sort of evil that deceives those who are perishing. They perish because they refused to love the truth and so be saved.

11 For this reason God sends them a strong delusion so that they will believe the lie, 12 and so that all will be condemned who have not believed the truth but have delighted in wickedness.

Chosen for Salvation

13 But we ought always to thank God for you, brothers and sisters loved by the Lord, because God chose you from the beginning for salvation through the sanctifying work of the Spirit and through belief in the truth.

14 He called you to this through our gospel, that you might share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

15 So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold fast to the teachings we passed on to you, whether by word of mouth or by letter.

Prayer for Strength

16 May our Lord Jesus Christ Himself and God our Father, who loved us and gave us eternal encouragement and good hope by His grace, 17 encourage your hearts and strengthen you in every good word and deed.

Key Lessons from 2 Thessalonians 2

- The Day of the Lord has a sequence. Christ will not return until the great rebellion and the revelation of the man of lawlessness.
- The man of sin is restrained for now. Evil is already at work but is held back until God allows its full revelation.
- Christ's victory is certain. Jesus will destroy the lawless one with the breath of His mouth and the brightness of His coming.
- Deception leads to destruction. Those who reject the truth and love wickedness will fall under strong delusion.
- Believers are chosen. God calls His people through the gospel, sanctifies them by His Spirit, and promises them glory in Christ.

- Stand firm. Hold tightly to the teachings of Christ and His apostles, no matter the deception in the world.
- God gives comfort and strength. Through His grace, He establishes His people in both their words and their actions.

2 Thessalonians 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Faithful Living and the God of Peace”

A Request for Prayer

1 Finally, brothers and sisters, pray for us that the word of the Lord may spread quickly and be honored, just as it was with you.

2 And pray that we may be delivered from wicked and evil people, for not everyone has faith.

3 But the Lord is faithful, and He will strengthen you and protect you from the evil one.

4 We have confidence in the Lord that you are doing and will continue to do the things we command.

5 May the Lord direct your hearts into God’s love and into Christ’s perseverance.

Warning Against Idleness

6 In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, we command you, brothers and sisters, to keep away from every believer who is idle and disruptive and does not live according to the teaching you received from us.

7 For you yourselves know how you ought to follow our example. We were not idle when we were with you,

8 nor did we eat anyone’s food without paying for it. On the contrary, we worked night and day, laboring and toiling so that we would not be a burden to any of you.

9 We did this, not because we do not have the right to such help, but in order to offer ourselves as a model for you to imitate.

10 For even when we were with you, we gave you this rule: “If anyone is not willing to work, neither should he eat.”

11 We hear that some among you are idle and disruptive. They are not working at all; they are busybodies.

12 Such people we command and urge in the Lord Jesus Christ to settle down, work quietly, and earn the bread they eat.

13 And as for you, brothers and sisters, never tire of doing what is good.

14 Take special note of anyone who does not obey our instruction in this letter. Do not associate with them, so that they may feel ashamed.

15 Yet do not regard them as an enemy, but warn them as a brother or sister.

Final Blessing

16 Now may the Lord of peace Himself give you peace at all times and in every way. The Lord be with you all.

17 I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand, which is the distinguishing mark in all my letters. This is how I write.

18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

Key Lessons from 2 Thessalonians 3

- Prayer fuels the mission. Believers should pray for the gospel to spread quickly and powerfully.
- The Lord is faithful. While people may be unfaithful, God strengthens and protects His children.
- Work diligently. Laziness and idleness are contrary to Christian living; each believer is called to work quietly and honestly.
- Correct with love. Those who disobey should be disciplined, not as enemies, but as brothers to be won back.
- Peace comes from the Lord. True peace in every circumstance flows from the presence of Christ.
- Grace sustains the church. Paul closes with a blessing of God’s grace, reminding believers that all strength comes from Him.

Introduction to the Book of 1 Timothy

“This is a trustworthy saying, and everyone should accept it: ‘Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners’—and I am the worst of them all.” – 1 Timothy 1:15

Title and Meaning

The book of 1 Timothy is a pastoral letter written by Paul to his young co-worker and spiritual son, Timothy. Its title reflects its recipient—Timothy, who was serving as a leader in the church at Ephesus. Unlike Paul’s earlier letters written to congregations, 1 Timothy is personal and instructional, offering guidance for church leadership, sound doctrine, and godly living.

Author and Date

The apostle Paul is the author (1 Timothy 1:1–2). He likely wrote this letter around AD 63–65, after his first Roman imprisonment and before his final imprisonment. Timothy, whose mother was Jewish and father Greek (Acts 16:1), had traveled with Paul extensively and was entrusted with overseeing the Ephesian church.

Purpose of 1 Timothy

Paul wrote 1 Timothy to provide practical guidance for Timothy in leading the Ephesian church. His purposes include:

- To warn against false teachers and uphold sound doctrine.
 - To give instructions for church organization, including elders and deacons.
 - To encourage Timothy to be an example in speech, conduct, love, faith, and purity.
 - To emphasize the centrality of prayer and the importance of godliness.
 - To remind believers that the church is the household of God, called to reflect His truth.

Structure of 1 Timothy

The letter combines doctrinal teaching with practical church instruction:

📖 1. Warnings Against False Teachers (Ch. 1)

Paul charges Timothy to defend the gospel against error.

✠ 2. Instructions for Worship and Leadership (Chs. 2–3)

Guidelines for prayer, conduct in worship, and qualifications for elders and deacons.

✠ 3. Warnings and Encouragement for Timothy (Chs. 4–6)

Exhortations to godliness, perseverance, proper handling of wealth, and faithful ministry.

Major Themes

- Sound Doctrine – Truth must be guarded against false teaching.
 - Leadership in the Church – Elders and deacons must meet high spiritual standards.
 - Godliness and Holiness – Believers are called to live lives of integrity and devotion.
 - The Gospel of Grace – Christ came to save sinners, and His mercy is greater than our sin.
 - Perseverance in Ministry – Leaders must be faithful, courageous, and Christ-centered.

Why 1 Timothy Matters Today

1 Timothy reminds us that the church must stand firmly on the truth of God's Word. In an age of confusion and compromise, this letter underscores the importance of sound doctrine, godly leadership, and holy living. It challenges pastors, teachers, and all believers to remain faithful, fight the good fight, and live as examples of Christ in a watching world.

Key Verse

“This is a trustworthy saying, and everyone should accept it: ‘Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners’—and I am the worst of them all.” – 1 Timothy 1:15

This verse captures the heart of 1 Timothy: the gospel of grace is the foundation of faith and ministry.

1 Timothy 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Sound Doctrine and the Mercy of Christ”

Greeting

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the command of God our Savior and of Christ Jesus our hope,

2 To Timothy, my true son in the faith:

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

Warning Against False Teachers

3 As I urged you when I went into Macedonia, stay there in Ephesus so that you may command certain people not to teach false doctrines any longer,

4 or devote themselves to myths and endless genealogies. Such things cause arguments rather than the work of God, which is by faith.

5 The goal of this command is love, which comes from a pure heart, a good conscience, and sincere faith.

6 Some have departed from these and turned to meaningless talk.

7 They want to be teachers of the law, but they do not know what they are talking about or what they so confidently affirm.

The Proper Use of the Law

8 We know that the law is good if one uses it properly.

9 We also know that the law is made not for the righteous but for lawbreakers and rebels, the ungodly and sinful, the unholy and irreligious, for those who kill their fathers or mothers, for murderers,

10 for the sexually immoral, for those who practice homosexuality, for slave traders, liars, and perjurers —and for whatever else is contrary to sound doctrine.

11 This is in keeping with the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which He entrusted to me.

Paul's Testimony of Grace

12 I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has given me strength, that He considered me trustworthy, appointing me to His service.

13 Even though I was once a blasphemer, persecutor, and violent man, I was shown mercy because I acted in ignorance and unbelief.

14 The grace of our Lord was poured out on me abundantly, along with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus.

15 Here is a trustworthy saying that deserves full acceptance: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners—of whom I am the worst.

16 But for that very reason I was shown mercy, so that in me, the worst of sinners, Christ Jesus might display His immense patience as an example for those who would believe in Him and receive eternal life.

17 Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

Timothy's Charge

18 Timothy, my son, I am giving you this command in keeping with the prophecies once made about you, so that by recalling them you may fight the good fight,

19 holding on to faith and a good conscience, which some have rejected and so have suffered shipwreck with regard to the faith.

20 Among them are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have handed over to Satan to be taught not to blaspheme.

Key Lessons from 1 Timothy 1

- The gospel builds, not divides. Myths and endless arguments do not produce godliness; true teaching builds faith and love.
- The law exposes sin. God's law is meant to reveal and restrain evil, not to justify the righteous.
- Christ's mercy is greater than sin. Paul—once a persecutor—became a servant of Christ, showing that no sinner is beyond God's grace.
- Jesus came to save sinners. The gospel centers on Christ's mission to redeem the lost.
- God's glory is eternal. Worship belongs to the immortal, invisible, all-wise King forever.

- Fight the good fight. Believers must hold on to faith and a good conscience, avoiding the shipwreck of rejecting truth.

1 Timothy 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Prayer, Order, and God’s Design”

A Call to Prayer

1 I urge, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgiving be made for all people—
2 for kings and all those in authority, so that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness.

3 This is good and pleases God our Savior,

4 who wants all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth.

5 For there is one God and one mediator between God and mankind—the man Christ Jesus,

6 who gave Himself as a ransom for all. This has now been testified to at the proper time.

7 And for this purpose I was appointed a preacher and an apostle—I am telling the truth, I am not lying—and a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

Instructions for Men and Women

8 Therefore, I want the men everywhere to pray, lifting up holy hands, without anger or disputing.

9 In the same way, I want the women to dress modestly, with decency and propriety, not with elaborate hairstyles, gold, pearls, or expensive clothes,

10 but with good works, which is proper for women who profess to worship God.

11 A woman should learn quietly and with full submission.

12 I do not permit a woman to teach or to assume authority over a man; she must be quiet.

13 For Adam was formed first, then Eve.

14 And Adam was not the one deceived; it was the woman who was deceived and became a sinner.

15 But women will be saved through childbearing—if they continue in faith, love, holiness, and self-control.

Key Lessons from 1 Timothy 2

- Pray for all people. Believers should intercede for everyone, including rulers, so that society may be peaceful and godly.
- Christ is the only mediator. Salvation comes only through Jesus Christ, who gave His life as a ransom for all.

- Worship in purity. Men are called to pray in holiness and unity, and women are called to show godliness through modesty and good works.
- God’s created order. Paul appeals to creation, noting Adam was formed first, and Eve was deceived, as the reason for his instruction.
- Faithful perseverance. Salvation is worked out through faith, love, holiness, and self-control in daily life.

1 Timothy 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Leaders in God’s House”

Qualifications for Overseers

- 1 This is a trustworthy saying: If anyone desires to be an overseer, he desires a noble task.
- 2 An overseer must be above reproach, faithful to his wife, self-controlled, wise, respectable, hospitable, and able to teach.
- 3 He must not be given to drunkenness, not violent but gentle, not quarrelsome, and not a lover of money.
- 4 He must manage his own household well and see that his children obey him, and he must do so with dignity.
- 5 For if someone does not know how to lead his own family, how can he take care of God’s church?
- 6 He must not be a new believer, or he may become proud and fall into the same judgment as the devil.
- 7 He must also have a good reputation with outsiders, so that he will not fall into disgrace and into the devil’s trap.

Qualifications for Deacons

- 8 In the same way, deacons must be worthy of respect, sincere, not addicted to much wine, and not greedy for dishonest gain.
- 9 They must hold the deep truths of the faith with a clear conscience.
- 10 They must first be tested; and then if there is nothing against them, let them serve as deacons.
- 11 In the same way, their wives must be worthy of respect, not slanderers, but temperate and trustworthy in everything.
- 12 A deacon must be faithful to his wife and must manage his children and his household well.
- 13 Those who serve well as deacons gain a good standing and great confidence in their faith in Christ Jesus.

The Church of the Living God

14 I am writing you these instructions, hoping to come to you soon.

15 But if I am delayed, you will know how people ought to conduct themselves in God's household, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and foundation of the truth.

The Mystery of Godliness

16 Beyond all question, the mystery of godliness is great:

- He was revealed in the flesh,
 - vindicated by the Spirit,
 - seen by angels,
 - preached among the nations,
 - believed on in the world,
 - taken up in glory.

Key Lessons from 1 Timothy 3

- Leadership requires character. Overseers and deacons must lead by example, showing integrity, self-control, and faithfulness.
- Home life matters. How a man manages his household reflects his ability to care for God's church.
- Reputation is vital. Leaders must have a good testimony both inside and outside the church.
- The church is God's household. It is the pillar and foundation of truth, standing as a witness to the world.
- The mystery of godliness is Christ Himself. Jesus came in the flesh, was vindicated by the Spirit, proclaimed to the nations, believed on, and glorified in heaven.

1 Timothy 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Train Yourself for Godliness”

Warnings About the Last Days

1 The Spirit clearly says that in the last days some will turn away from the faith and follow deceiving spirits and teachings that come from demons.

2 Such teachings come through hypocritical liars, whose consciences are seared as with a hot iron.

3 They forbid people to marry and order them to abstain from certain foods, which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth.

4 For everything God created is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with thanksgiving,
5 because it is made holy by the word of God and prayer.

A Good Servant of Christ

6 If you remind the brothers and sisters of these things, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, nourished by the truths of the faith and the good teaching you have followed.

7 Have nothing to do with godless myths and old wives' tales; instead, train yourself to be godly.

8 Physical training is of some value, but godliness has value for all things, holding promise for both the present life and the life to come.

9 This is a trustworthy saying that deserves full acceptance.

10 That is why we labor and strive, because we have put our hope in the living God, who is the Savior of all people, and especially of those who believe.

Instructions for Timothy

11 Command and teach these things.

12 Don't let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith, and in purity.

13 Until I come, devote yourself to the public reading of Scripture, to preaching, and to teaching.

14 Do not neglect your spiritual gift, which was given you through prophecy when the elders laid their hands on you.

15 Be diligent in these matters; give yourself fully to them, so that everyone may see your progress.

16 Watch your life and your teaching closely. Stay faithful to them, because if you do, you will save both yourself and those who hear you.

Key Lessons from 1 Timothy 4

- False teaching will arise. We must stay rooted in God's Word to recognize and resist deception.
- God's creation is good. Nothing He made should be rejected if received with thanksgiving and prayer.
- Train for godliness. Physical exercise has value, but spiritual growth benefits both now and forever.
- Lead by example. A believer's life—words, actions, love, faith, and purity—speaks louder than age or status.

- Stay faithful to Scripture and your calling. Consistency in life and doctrine leads others to salvation.

1 Timothy 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Honor, Purity, and Order in God’s Household”

Respect in the Church Family

1 Do not sharply rebuke an older man, but encourage him as you would a father. Treat younger men as brothers,

2 older women as mothers, and younger women as sisters—with absolute purity.

Instructions About Widows

3 Give honor to widows who are truly in need.

4 But if a widow has children or grandchildren, they should first learn to show godliness at home and repay their parents, for this pleases God.

5 The widow who is truly alone and without help puts her hope in God and continues night and day in prayer.

6 But the widow who lives for pleasure is spiritually dead even while she lives.

7 Give these instructions so that no one may be open to blame.

8 Anyone who does not provide for their relatives, especially for their own household, has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.

9 No widow should be put on the list of those receiving church support unless she is at least sixty years old, faithful to her husband,

10 and well known for good works—such as raising children, showing hospitality, washing the feet of the saints, helping the afflicted, and being devoted to every good work.

11 But refuse to enroll younger widows, for when their passions draw them away from Christ, they will want to marry, 12 bringing judgment on themselves because they have broken their first pledge.

13 Besides that, they learn to be idle, going from house to house—and not only idle, but also gossiping and meddling in things they should not.

14 So I advise the younger widows to marry, bear children, manage their households, and give the enemy no opportunity for slander.

15 For some have already turned aside to follow Satan.

16 If any believing man or woman has widows in their family, they should care for them and not let the church be burdened, so the church can help those who are truly in need.

Elders and Church Leaders

17 The elders who direct the affairs of the church well are worthy of double honor, especially those whose work is preaching and teaching.

18 For the Scripture says, “Do not muzzle the ox while it is treading out the grain,” and “The worker deserves his wages.”

19 Do not entertain an accusation against an elder unless it is brought by two or three witnesses.

20 Those who sin are to be rebuked publicly, so that the others may take warning.

21 I solemnly charge you before God, Christ Jesus, and the chosen angels to keep these instructions without bias, doing nothing out of favoritism.

22 Do not be too quick in laying hands on anyone, and do not share in the sins of others. Keep yourself pure.

23 Stop drinking only water, and use a little wine for the sake of your stomach and your frequent illnesses.

24 The sins of some people are obvious, leading them ahead to judgment; but the sins of others trail behind.

25 In the same way, good deeds are obvious, and even those that are not cannot remain hidden.

Key Lessons from 1 Timothy 5

- Respect the church family. Treat everyone with honor and purity, just as you would your own relatives.
- Care for widows wisely. Families should provide first; the church supports those truly in need.
- Elders deserve honor. Especially those who faithfully teach God’s Word.
- Handle accusations carefully. Require witnesses, and correct sin openly when necessary.
- Live with purity and balance. Avoid favoritism, care for your body, and remember that both sins and good works will eventually be revealed.

1 Timothy 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Contentment, Godliness, and the Good Fight of Faith”

Servants and Masters

1 All who live under the yoke of servitude should consider their masters worthy of respect, so that God’s name and teaching will not be dishonored.

2 If their masters are believers, they must not look down on them because they are brothers in Christ.

Instead, they should serve them even more, because those who benefit are faithful and loved. Teach and encourage these things.

False Teaching and True Contentment

3 If anyone teaches a different doctrine and does not agree with the sound words of our Lord Jesus Christ and the teaching that leads to godliness,

4 he is proud and ignorant. He has an unhealthy interest in arguments and debates that stir up envy, conflict, insults, and evil suspicions.

5 Such constant friction comes from corrupt minds who have turned away from the truth, imagining that godliness is a means of financial gain. Stay away from such people.

6 But true godliness with contentment is itself great wealth.

7 For we brought nothing into the world, and we can take nothing out.

8 So if we have food and clothing, let us be content with that.

9 Those who desire to be rich fall into temptation and traps, and into many foolish and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction.

10 For the love of money is the root of all kinds of evil. Some, by craving it, have wandered from the faith and pierced themselves with many sorrows.

The Call to Fight the Good Fight

11 But you, man of God, flee from these things. Pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, and gentleness.

12 Fight the good fight of faith. Take hold of eternal life, to which you were called when you made your good confession in front of many witnesses.

13 I command you, in the presence of God who gives life to all, and Christ Jesus, who testified the good confession before Pontius Pilate,

14 to keep this command without fault or blame until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ.

15 At the proper time, God will reveal him—the blessed and only Ruler, the King of kings and Lord of lords,

16 who alone has immortality, who dwells in unapproachable light, whom no one has seen or can see. To him be honor and eternal power. Amen.

Instruction to the Rich

17 Command those who are rich in this present world not to be arrogant or to put their hope in uncertain riches, but to put their hope in the living God, who richly provides us with everything to enjoy.

18 Command them to do good, to be rich in good works, generous, and willing to share.

19 In this way they lay up treasure for themselves as a firm foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of true life.

Closing Words

20 Timothy, guard what has been entrusted to you. Avoid godless chatter and contradictions of what is falsely called “knowledge,”

21 which some have professed and by doing so have wandered from the faith.

Grace be with you. Amen.

Key Lessons from 1 Timothy 6

- Honor in service. Serve faithfully whether your master is a believer or not, so God’s name is honored.
- True wealth is godliness with contentment. Riches are temporary, but faith and gratitude bring eternal value.
- The love of money is dangerous. It can lead to ruin and pull people away from the faith.
- Pursue godly character. Righteousness, faith, love, patience, and gentleness are marks of a true servant of God.
- Fight the good fight. Hold firmly to eternal life, keeping your confession strong until Christ’s return.
- The rich must be humble and generous. Wealth should be used for good works and generosity, not pride.
- Guard the truth. Stay away from false teachings and worldly arguments that distract from the gospel.

Introduction to the Book of 2 Timothy

“I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, and I have remained faithful.” – 2 Timothy 4:7

Title and Meaning

The book of 2 Timothy is Paul’s second and final letter to his beloved protégé, Timothy. Its title reflects its recipient, Timothy, who was serving as a leader in Ephesus. Unlike Paul’s other letters, this one is intensely personal, written from prison as Paul faced imminent death. It is often called Paul’s “farewell letter” and provides encouragement for faithful endurance in ministry.

Author and Date

The apostle Paul is the author (2 Timothy 1:1). He wrote it around AD 66–67, during his second Roman imprisonment, shortly before his martyrdom under Emperor Nero. This makes 2 Timothy the last letter Paul wrote that we have preserved. His words carry the weight of a spiritual father passing on his final instructions to his son in the faith.

Purpose of 2 Timothy

Paul wrote to encourage Timothy to remain faithful despite opposition and suffering. His purposes include:

- To strengthen Timothy in boldness, endurance, and faithfulness to Christ.
 - To warn against false teaching and urge Timothy to guard the truth.
 - To encourage Timothy to preach the Word in season and out of season.
 - To prepare Timothy for hardship, reminding him that suffering is part of following Christ.
 - To pass on Paul's legacy of unwavering devotion to Christ, even unto death.

Structure of 2 Timothy

The letter blends encouragement, warnings, and Paul's personal reflections:

📖 1. A Call to Courage (Ch. 1)

Paul urges Timothy not to be ashamed of the gospel but to guard the truth with the Spirit's help.

✚ 2. A Call to Endurance (Ch. 2)

Paul uses images of a soldier, athlete, and farmer to illustrate perseverance in ministry.

⚡ 3. A Warning Against False Teaching (Ch. 3)

Paul warns of godlessness in the last days and urges Timothy to remain grounded in Scripture.

† 4. A Charge to Preach and Paul's Farewell (Ch. 4)

Paul solemnly charges Timothy to preach the Word faithfully and reflects on his own race of faith nearing its end.

Major Themes

- Faithfulness in Ministry – Leaders must remain true to the gospel despite hardship.
- Endurance in Suffering – Following Christ often means suffering, but God gives strength.

- The Power of Scripture – God’s Word equips believers for every good work (2 Timothy 3:16–17).
 - Passing the Torch – Paul entrusts the mission of the gospel to the next generation.
 - Hope in Eternity – Paul faces death with confidence in God’s reward.

Why 2 Timothy Matters Today

2 Timothy speaks directly to Christians living in a world of opposition and spiritual decline. It reminds us that following Christ requires courage, endurance, and faithfulness. For pastors, teachers, and every believer, it is a call to hold fast to the truth, proclaim the gospel boldly, and finish the race well. Paul’s final words inspire us to live with eternity in view.

Key Verse

“I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, and I have remained faithful.” – 2 Timothy 4:7

This verse captures the heart of 2 Timothy: a life of perseverance and faithfulness that ends in eternal victory with Christ.

2 Timothy 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Do Not Be Ashamed of the Gospel”

Greeting and Thanksgiving

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, according to the promise of life that is in Christ Jesus,

2 To Timothy, my dearly loved son: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 I thank God, whom I serve as my ancestors did, with a clear conscience, as I constantly remember you in my prayers night and day.

4 I long to see you, remembering your tears, so that I may be filled with joy.

5 I am reminded of your sincere faith, which first lived in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice, and I am convinced now lives in you also.

Stir Up the Gift of God

6 For this reason I remind you to fan into flame the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands.

7 For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power, love, and self-discipline.

8 So do not be ashamed of the testimony about our Lord or of me his prisoner. Instead, join with me in suffering for the gospel, by the power of God.

9 He has saved us and called us to a holy life—not because of anything we have done, but because of his own purpose and grace. This grace was given us in Christ Jesus before time began,
10 but it has now been revealed through the appearing of our Savior, Christ Jesus, who has destroyed death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.

11 Of this gospel I was appointed a preacher, an apostle, and a teacher.

12 That is why I suffer as I do. Yet I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have believed, and I am convinced that he is able to guard what I have entrusted to him until that day.

Hold Fast to the Truth

13 Hold on to the pattern of sound teaching you have heard from me, with faith and love in Christ Jesus.

14 Guard the good treasure entrusted to you, with the help of the Holy Spirit who dwells in us.

15 You know that everyone in the province of Asia has deserted me, including Phygelus and Hermogenes.

16 May the Lord show mercy to the household of Onesiphorus, because he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my chains.

17 On the contrary, when he was in Rome, he searched hard for me until he found me.

18 May the Lord grant that he will find mercy from the Lord on that day! You know very well how much he helped me in Ephesus.

Key Lessons from 2 Timothy 1

- Faith is generational. Paul highlights the faith passed from Lois to Eunice to Timothy, showing the power of godly heritage.
- Stir up your gift. Spiritual gifts must be used, fanned into flame, and not neglected.
- Reject fear, embrace power. God equips His people with courage, love, and discipline—not fear.
- Be unashamed of Christ. The gospel will bring suffering, but also eternal life and victory over death.
- Guard the truth. Believers must hold fast to sound doctrine and depend on the Holy Spirit to protect the faith.
- Encourage loyalty. Paul honors Onesiphorus for his courage and faithfulness, an example for all believers.

2 Timothy 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Worker Approved by God”

Be Strong in Grace

- 1 You then, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.
 - 2 The things you have heard me teach in the presence of many witnesses, entrust to faithful men who will be able to teach others also.
 - 3 Endure hardship as a good soldier of Christ Jesus.
 - 4 No soldier gets tied up in civilian affairs, but seeks to please the one who enlisted him.
 - 5 Similarly, anyone who competes as an athlete does not receive the crown unless he competes according to the rules.
 - 6 The hardworking farmer should be the first to receive a share of the crops.
 - 7 Think over what I am saying, for the Lord will give you understanding in everything.

Remember Jesus Christ

- 8 Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, descended from David. This is my gospel,
 - 9 for which I am suffering even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained.
 - 10 Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the chosen ones, that they too may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory.
 - 11 This is a trustworthy saying:
If we died with him, we will also live with him;
 - 12 If we endure, we will also reign with him;
If we deny him, he will also deny us;
 - 13 If we are faithless, he remains faithful, for he cannot deny himself.

A Worker Approved by God

- 14 Remind them of these things, and command them before the Lord not to quarrel about words; it is of no value and only ruins those who listen.
- 15 Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, correctly handling the word of truth.
- 16 Avoid godless chatter, because it leads to more ungodliness.
- 17 Their teaching spreads like gangrene. Among them are Hymenaeus and Philetus,
- 18 who have departed from the truth. They say that the resurrection has already taken place, and they destroy the faith of some.

19 Nevertheless, God's solid foundation stands firm, sealed with this inscription: "The Lord knows those who are his," and "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord must turn away from wickedness."

Vessels for Honor

20 In a large house there are not only vessels of gold and silver, but also of wood and clay; some are for special use, and some for common use.

21 If anyone cleanses himself from what is dishonorable, he will be a vessel for honor, set apart, useful to the Master, and prepared for every good work.

22 Flee youthful lusts, and pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace, along with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

23 Avoid foolish and ignorant arguments, because they only produce quarrels.

The Lord's Servant

24 The Lord's servant must not be quarrelsome, but must be gentle toward everyone, able to teach, patient,

25 correcting opponents with gentleness. Perhaps God will grant them repentance leading them to know the truth,

26 and they will come to their senses and escape the trap of the devil, who has taken them captive to do his will.

Key Lessons from 2 Timothy 2

- Pass on the truth. Faithful disciples should be trained to teach others, multiplying the gospel's reach.
- Endure like a soldier, athlete, and farmer. Strength, discipline, and perseverance are essential to Christian living.
- God's Word cannot be chained. No matter the suffering of believers, the message of Christ remains free and powerful.
- Be an approved worker. Handle Scripture carefully, avoiding meaningless arguments and false teachings.
- Pursue holiness. Cleanse yourself from dishonor, flee sinful desires, and live as a vessel ready for God's use.
- Serve with gentleness. Correct others patiently, trusting God to bring them to repentance and freedom.

2 Timothy 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Godlessness in the Last Days and the Power of Scripture”

Perilous Times in the Last Days

1 You must understand this: In the last days, terrible times will come.

2 People will love only themselves and money. They will be boastful, proud, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, and unholy.

3 They will be without natural affection, unwilling to forgive, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, and haters of what is good.

4 They will be traitors, reckless, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God.

5 They will act religious but deny the true power of godliness. Have nothing to do with such people.

6 They are the kind who worm their way into households and gain control over gullible women who are burdened with sins and swayed by various desires,

7 always learning but never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

8 Just as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, these teachers also oppose the truth. Their minds are corrupt, and their faith is counterfeit.

9 But they will not get very far, because their foolishness will be plain to everyone, just as was the case with Jannes and Jambres.

Paul’s Example of Perseverance

10 But you, Timothy, know all about my teaching, my way of life, my purpose, faith, patience, love, and endurance.

11 You know about the persecutions and sufferings I endured in Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra. Yet the Lord rescued me from them all.

12 Indeed, everyone who wants to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted.

13 But evil people and impostors will go from bad to worse, deceiving and being deceived.

Continue in the Scriptures

14 But as for you, continue in what you have learned and firmly believed, knowing those from whom you learned it.

15 From childhood you have known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.

16 All Scripture is breathed out by God and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting, and training in righteousness,

17 so that the man of God may be fully equipped for every good work.

Key Lessons from 2 Timothy 3

- The last days will be marked by self-centeredness. People will love pleasure and self more than God, even while pretending to be religious.
- Avoid false teachers. They resist the truth, corrupt minds, and deceive many, but their folly will eventually be exposed.
- Expect persecution. All who live godly in Christ will suffer, but the Lord delivers His people.
- Stay grounded in Scripture. The Word of God is able to make us wise for salvation and equips us to live godly lives.
- The Bible is God-breathed. Every part of Scripture is inspired and useful for shaping the believer into maturity and readiness for every good work.

2 Timothy 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Preach the Word and Finish the Race”

Preach the Word

1 I solemnly charge you, in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead when he appears and brings his kingdom:

2 Preach the word! Be prepared at all times—whether the opportunity seems right or not. Correct, rebuke, and encourage with great patience and careful teaching.

3 For the time will come when people will not put up with sound teaching. Instead, to satisfy their own desires, they will gather teachers to tell them what their itching ears want to hear.

4 They will turn their ears away from the truth and turn aside to myths.

5 But you, keep your head in all situations, endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist, and fully carry out your ministry.

Paul’s Final Testimony

6 For I am already being poured out like a drink offering, and the time of my departure is near.

7 I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.

8 Now there is stored up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

Personal Requests and Warnings

9 Do your best to come to me quickly.

10 For Demas, because he loved this present world, has deserted me and gone to Thessalonica.

Crescens has gone to Galatia, and Titus to Dalmatia.

11 Only Luke is with me. Get Mark and bring him with you, because he is useful to me in ministry.

12 I have sent Tychicus to Ephesus.

13 When you come, bring the cloak I left with Carpus at Troas, and also my books—especially the parchments.

14 Alexander the coppersmith did me a great deal of harm. The Lord will repay him for what he has done.

15 You also should be on your guard against him, for he strongly opposed our message.

The Lord's Deliverance

16 At my first defense, no one stood with me; everyone deserted me. May it not be counted against them.

17 But the Lord stood at my side and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. I was rescued from the lion's mouth.

18 The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and will bring me safely to his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory forever and ever. Amen.

Final Greetings

19 Greet Prisca and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus.

20 Erastus stayed in Corinth, and I left Trophimus sick in Miletus.

21 Do your best to come before winter. Eubulus greets you, as do Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all the brothers and sisters.

22 The Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Grace be with you all. Amen.

Key Lessons from 2 Timothy 4

- Preach faithfully. God's servants must declare the truth in every season, even when people prefer false teaching.
- Endure hardship. True ministry requires patience, courage, and perseverance.
- Finish well. Paul's example shows that a faithful life ends in victory and a crown of righteousness.
- Stay alert. Opposition will come, but the Lord remains the believer's strength and defender.
- Long for Christ's appearing. The crown is not only for Paul, but for all who eagerly await the return of Jesus.

Introduction to the Book of Titus

“He saved us, not because of the righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He washed away our sins, giving us a new birth and new life through the Holy Spirit.” – Titus 3:5

Title and Meaning

The book of Titus is a pastoral letter from Paul to Titus, his trusted companion and co-laborer in the gospel. Its title reflects its recipient, Titus, who was serving as Paul’s representative on the island of Crete. This short but powerful letter emphasizes the importance of sound doctrine and godly living, especially for church leaders. It is sometimes called a “handbook for church organization and Christian conduct.”

Author and Date

The apostle Paul is the author (Titus 1:1). He likely wrote this letter around AD 63–65, after his first Roman imprisonment, during his continued missionary work. Titus, a Gentile convert (Galatians 2:3), had traveled with Paul extensively and was entrusted with the difficult task of organizing and strengthening the Cretan churches.

Purpose of Titus

Paul wrote to equip Titus with guidance for leading the churches in Crete. His purposes include:

- To instruct Titus on appointing qualified elders in every city.
 - To warn against false teachers and divisive influences.
 - To emphasize the connection between sound doctrine and godly living.
 - To remind believers that salvation is by God’s mercy, not by works.
 - To encourage Christians to live in good works as a witness to the world.

✠ 2. Godly Living for All Believers (Ch. 2)

Instructions for older men and women, young men, and slaves, with Christ as the example of grace.

✠ 3. The Gospel and Good Works (Ch. 3)

A reminder of salvation by grace and the call to live in obedience and good deeds.

Major Themes

- Sound Doctrine – Truth must be taught, believed, and lived out.
 - Qualified Leadership – Elders must be men of integrity and spiritual maturity.
 - Grace and Godliness – God’s grace saves us and empowers holy living.
 - Good Works – Believers demonstrate their faith through lives of service and obedience.
 - The Church’s Witness – The way Christians live affects how the world views the gospel.

Why Titus Matters Today

Titus reminds us that faith and practice cannot be separated. The gospel saves us by grace, but it also calls us to holy living and good works as evidence of God’s transforming power. In a world full of false teaching and moral confusion, Titus provides timeless guidance for church leadership, doctrinal clarity, and Christian living that shines as a light to the world.

Key Verse

“He saved us, not because of the righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He washed away our sins, giving us a new birth and new life through the Holy Spirit.” – Titus 3:5

This verse captures the heart of Titus: salvation is by grace alone, leading to transformed lives that glorify God.

Titus 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Appointing Elders and Guarding the Truth”

Greeting

1 Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, sent to build up the faith of God’s chosen people and to teach them the truth that leads to godliness,

2 in the hope of eternal life, which God—who cannot lie—promised before time began.

3 At the proper time he revealed his word through preaching, and this message was entrusted to me by the command of God our Savior.

4 To Titus, my true son in our common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.

The Appointment of Elders

5 The reason I left you in Crete was so that you might put in order what was left unfinished and appoint elders in every town, as I directed you.

6 An elder must be blameless, the husband of one wife, and must have faithful children who are not accused of wild or rebellious living.

7 For an overseer (bishop) is God's steward and must be blameless—not arrogant, not quick-tempered, not a drunkard, not violent, and not greedy for dishonest gain.

8 Instead, he must be hospitable, love what is good, be self-controlled, upright, holy, and disciplined.

9 He must hold firmly to the trustworthy word as it has been taught, so that he can encourage others by sound teaching and refute those who oppose it.

Warning Against False Teachers

10 For there are many rebellious people, full of meaningless talk and deception, especially those from the circumcision group.

11 They must be silenced, because they are upsetting whole families by teaching things they ought not to teach for the sake of dishonest gain.

12 One of their own prophets has said, "Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons."

13 This saying is true. Therefore, rebuke them sharply, so that they may be sound in the faith,

14 and not pay attention to Jewish myths or the commands of men who turn away from the truth.

15 To the pure, all things are pure; but to those who are corrupt and unbelieving, nothing is pure. Their very minds and consciences are defiled.

16 They claim to know God, but by their actions they deny him. They are detestable, disobedient, and unfit for doing anything good.

Key Lessons from Titus 1

- God's promises are eternal. He promised eternal life before time began, and He cannot lie.
- Leaders must live above reproach. Elders are to be faithful in family, self-controlled, holy, and able to teach sound doctrine.
- Guard against false teaching. Empty talkers and deceivers seek personal gain but lead others astray. They must be confronted firmly.
- Purity begins in the heart. For the pure, everything is clean; for the corrupt, nothing is pure.

- Actions prove faith. A true knowledge of God is shown not only in words but in obedience and good works.

Titus 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Living by Sound Doctrine”

Teaching for Different Groups

1 But you must teach what agrees with sound doctrine.

2 Older men are to be sober-minded, dignified, self-controlled, sound in faith, in love, and in endurance.

3 Likewise, older women must live in a way that is holy—not slanderers, not addicted to much wine, but teachers of what is good.

4 They must train the younger women to love their husbands and children,

5 to be self-controlled, pure, busy at home, kind, and submissive to their husbands, so that God’s word will not be dishonored.

6 Similarly, encourage the young men to be self-controlled.

7 In everything, set them an example by doing what is good. In your teaching, show integrity, seriousness,

8 and sound speech that cannot be condemned, so that those who oppose you may be ashamed because they have nothing bad to say about us.

9 Teach servants to be subject to their masters in everything, to try to please them, not to argue,

10 not to steal, but to show complete trustworthiness, so that in every way they will make the teaching about God our Savior attractive.

God’s Grace and Our Hope

11 For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all people.

12 It teaches us to say “No” to ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in this present age,

13 while we wait for the blessed hope—the glorious appearing of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ,

14 who gave himself for us to redeem us from all wickedness and to purify for himself a people who are his very own, eager to do good works.

Final Instruction

15 These are the things you should teach. Encourage and correct with all authority. Let no one disregard you.

Key Lessons from Titus 2

- Sound teaching shapes holy living. Doctrine must be lived out in daily life by men, women, young, and old.
- Older believers mentor the younger. Faith is passed on through example and training in godliness.
- God’s grace teaches us. True grace doesn’t excuse sin but trains us to live righteously.
- Christ is our blessed hope. We wait with eagerness for His return while living faithfully.
- Zeal for good works. Christ redeemed us to make us a people eager to do what is good.

Titus 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Saved by Mercy, Living in Good Works”

Doing Good in Society

1 Remind the people to be subject to rulers and authorities, to obey them, and to be ready for every good work.

2 They must not slander anyone, must avoid fighting, and must be gentle, showing true humility toward all people.

3 For we ourselves were once foolish, disobedient, deceived, enslaved by many passions and pleasures. We lived in malice and envy, being hated and hating one another.

Saved by God’s Mercy

4 But when the kindness and love of God our Savior appeared,

5 he saved us—not because of the righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He saved us through the washing of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit,

6 whom he poured out on us generously through Jesus Christ our Savior.

7 So that, having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs with the hope of eternal life.

8 This is a trustworthy saying. And I want you to insist on these things, so that those who have believed in God will be careful to devote themselves to good works. These things are excellent and profitable for everyone.

Avoid Divisive People

9 But avoid foolish controversies, genealogies, arguments, and quarrels about the law, because they are unprofitable and useless.

10 Warn a divisive person once, then a second time. After that, have nothing more to do with him,
11 knowing that such a person is warped and sinful; he is self-condemned.

Final Instructions and Greetings

12 As soon as I send Artemas or Tychicus to you, do your best to come to me at Nicopolis, because I have decided to spend the winter there.

13 Do everything you can to help Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their way, so that they have everything they need.

14 Our people must also learn to devote themselves to good works to meet urgent needs, so that they may not live unfruitful lives.

15 Everyone with me sends you greetings. Greet those who love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

Key Lessons from Titus 3

- Be ready for every good work. Christians should obey lawful authority, live peacefully, and show humility to all people.
- Remember your past. We were once foolish and enslaved to sin, but God’s mercy changed us.
- Salvation is by mercy, not works. We are saved by God’s grace through the rebirth and renewal of the Holy Spirit.
- Doctrinal arguments are unprofitable. Believers must avoid endless disputes and instead focus on fruitful living.
- Devote to good works. True faith is shown by meeting real needs and living productive lives for Christ.

Introduction to the Book of Philemon

“I am sending him back to you, and with him comes my own heart.” – Philemon 1:12

Title and Meaning

The book of Philemon is the shortest of Paul's letters, written to a Christian named Philemon, a member of the church in Colossae. Its title reflects its recipient. Unlike Paul's other letters, which address whole congregations, this one is deeply personal, focusing on the reconciliation of a runaway slave named Onesimus with his master, Philemon. It highlights Christian love, forgiveness, and unity in Christ.

Author and Date

The apostle Paul is the author (Philemon 1:1). He wrote it around AD 60–62, during his first Roman imprisonment, making it one of the Prison Epistles (alongside Ephesians, Philippians, and Colossians). Onesimus, the runaway slave, had met Paul in prison, come to faith in Christ, and was being sent back to Philemon with this letter of appeal.

Purpose of Philemon

Paul wrote Philemon for a very specific and personal purpose:

- To appeal to Philemon to forgive and welcome back Onesimus as a brother in Christ.
 - To demonstrate the power of the gospel to transform relationships.
 - To encourage love, grace, and reconciliation in the church.
 - To show that Christian fellowship transcends social and cultural barriers.

Structure of Philemon

Though brief, the letter is rich with personal warmth and gospel application:

📖 1. Greeting and Thanksgiving (vv. 1–7)

Paul greets Philemon and commends him for his love and faith.

✡️ 2. Paul's Appeal for Onesimus (vv. 8–16)

Paul appeals to Philemon to receive Onesimus not as a slave, but as a beloved brother.

✂️ 3. Paul's Promise and Closing (vv. 17–25)

Paul offers to repay any debt Onesimus owes and closes with greetings and a blessing.

Major Themes

- Forgiveness and Reconciliation – The gospel breaks down barriers and heals relationships.
- Christian Brotherhood – In Christ, social distinctions like slave and master are transformed.

- Love in Action – Genuine faith expresses itself through love and mercy.
 - The Transforming Power of the Gospel – Christ changes people from useless to useful (Onesimus’ name means “useful”).
 - Intercession and Mediation – Paul models Christ’s work by interceding on behalf of another.

Why Philemon Matters Today

Philemon reminds us that the gospel is not only about doctrine but also about relationships. It challenges us to practice forgiveness, extend grace, and treat one another as brothers and sisters in Christ. In a world marked by division and brokenness, this letter demonstrates how Christ-centered love can reconcile and transform even the most difficult situations.

Key Verse

“I am sending him back to you, and with him comes my own heart.” – Philemon 1:12

This verse captures the heart of Philemon: the transforming love of Christ restores relationships and unites believers as family.

Philemon – Crawford Standard Bible

“From Slave to Brother”

Greeting and Thanksgiving

1 Paul, a prisoner for Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother, to Philemon our dearly loved friend and fellow worker,

2 to Apphia our sister, to Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the church that meets in your house:

3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I always thank my God when I remember you in my prayers,

5 because I hear of your love and faith which you have toward the Lord Jesus and toward all the saints.

6 I pray that the sharing of your faith may become effective as you understand all the good things we have in Christ.

7 Your love has given me great joy and comfort, because you, brother, have refreshed the hearts of the saints.

Paul’s Plea for Onesimus

8 Though in Christ I could be bold and order you to do what is right,

9 yet I prefer to appeal to you on the basis of love. I, Paul—an old man, and now also a prisoner for

Christ Jesus—

10 appeal to you for my child, Onesimus, whom I became a father to while I was in chains.

11 Once he was useless to you, but now he is useful both to you and to me.

12 I am sending him back to you—he is my very heart.

13 I would have liked to keep him with me, so that he might take your place in helping me while I am in chains for the gospel.

14 But I did not want to do anything without your consent, so that any favor you do will be voluntary and not forced.

15 Perhaps this is why he was separated from you for a little while—so that you might have him back forever,

16 no longer as a slave, but more than a slave—as a dearly loved brother. He is especially dear to me, but even more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

Receive Him as a Brother

17 So if you consider me a partner, welcome him as you would welcome me.

18 If he has wronged you in any way or owes you anything, charge it to me.

19 I, Paul, write this with my own hand: I will repay it. (Not to mention that you owe me your very self!)

20 Yes, brother, let me benefit from you in the Lord; refresh my heart in Christ.

21 I am confident of your obedience, and I write to you knowing that you will do even more than I ask.

Final Greetings

22 And one more thing: prepare a guest room for me, because I hope that through your prayers I will be restored to you.

23 Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, greets you.

24 And so do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellow workers.

25 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

Key Lessons from Philemon

- Christian love changes relationships. Paul reminds Philemon to see Onesimus not as a slave but as a brother in Christ.
- Forgiveness is essential. Any wrongs or debts should be forgiven and covered by Christlike love.

- The gospel transforms lives. Onesimus, once “useless,” became “useful” through Christ’s redeeming power.
- Faith must show in action. True obedience to Christ is demonstrated by love, forgiveness, and restored fellowship.

Introduction to the Book of Hebrews

“Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.” – Hebrews 13:8

Title and Meaning

The book of Hebrews is a majestic letter (or sermon) written to Jewish Christians who were tempted to return to Judaism under the pressure of persecution. Its title reflects its original audience—the Hebrew believers. The central message is the supremacy of Christ: He is greater than angels, Moses, the priesthood, and the old covenant. Hebrews calls believers to hold fast to their faith in Jesus, the perfect High Priest and the mediator of the new covenant.

Author and Date

The authorship of Hebrews is uncertain. Unlike Paul’s letters, Hebrews does not begin with a greeting identifying the writer. Throughout church history, some attributed it to Paul, while others suggested Barnabas, Apollos, Luke, or another early church leader. Today, most scholars say the author is unknown but clearly inspired by the Holy Spirit.

Hebrews was likely written around AD 65–70, before the destruction of the Jerusalem temple (AD 70), since the sacrificial system is discussed as still ongoing.

Purpose of Hebrews

The letter was written to strengthen and encourage Jewish Christians under persecution and to show the superiority of Christ. Its purposes include:

- To demonstrate that Christ is the fulfillment of the Old Testament law and promises.
 - To show that Jesus is greater than angels, Moses, priests, and sacrifices.
 - To encourage perseverance and faith, even in suffering.
 - To warn against drifting away and falling back into old ways.
 - To highlight Christ as the ultimate High Priest who intercedes for His people.

Structure of Hebrews

The letter is rich in theology and practical exhortation:

📖 1. Christ's Supremacy (Chs. 1–4)

Jesus is greater than angels, Moses, and Joshua; He offers true rest.

✠ 2. Christ as High Priest (Chs. 5–10)

Jesus is the perfect priest, superior to Aaron, and the ultimate sacrifice who brings the new covenant.

✿ 3. Faith and Endurance (Chs. 11–12)

The “Hall of Faith” inspires believers to run with perseverance, fixing their eyes on Jesus.

🙏 4. Final Exhortations and Benediction (Ch. 13)

Practical instructions for holy living and encouragement to remain faithful.

Major Themes

- The Supremacy of Christ – Jesus is greater than all who came before Him.
 - The New Covenant – Christ's sacrifice establishes a covenant of grace and forgiveness.
 - Faith and Perseverance – Believers are called to endurance and trust in God's promises.
 - The Priesthood of Christ – Jesus intercedes as our eternal High Priest.
 - Warning Against Apostasy – Strong calls not to drift away but to hold fast to the faith.

Why Hebrews Matters Today

Hebrews speaks to believers tempted to compromise or give up under pressure. It reminds us that Jesus is enough—our perfect Savior, intercessor, and eternal hope. In a world full of distractions, discouragement, and competing beliefs, Hebrews anchors us in the truth that Christ is supreme, His sacrifice is sufficient, and His promises are unshakable.

Key Verse

“Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.” – Hebrews 13:8

This verse captures the heart of Hebrews: the unchanging, all-sufficient Christ is our eternal hope and foundation.

Hebrews 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Jesus Is Greater Than the Angels”

God Speaks Through His Son

1 In the past, God spoke to our ancestors at many different times and in many different ways through the prophets.

2 But in these last days, He has spoken to us through His Son. God appointed Him heir of all things, and through Him He created the world.

3 The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact image of His nature. He holds everything together by the power of His word. After making purification for our sins, He sat down at the right hand of the Majesty in heaven.

The Son Exalted Above Angels

4 This shows that the Son is far greater than the angels, and that He has received a name more excellent than theirs.

5 For to which of the angels did God ever say, "You are my Son; today I have become your Father"? Or again, "I will be His Father, and He will be my Son"?

6 And again, when God brings His firstborn into the world, He says, "Let all God's angels worship Him."

7 Regarding the angels, He says: "He makes His angels winds, and His servants flames of fire."

8 But about the Son, He says:

*"Your throne, O God, will last forever and ever;
a righteous scepter will be the scepter of Your kingdom.*

9 *You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness;
therefore God, Your God, has anointed You with the oil of joy beyond Your companions."*

The Eternal Son

10 And, "In the beginning, Lord, You laid the foundation of the earth, and the heavens are the work of Your hands.

11 *They will perish, but You remain;
they will all wear out like clothing.*

12 You will fold them up like a robe, and they will be changed.

*But You remain the same,
and Your years will never end."*

13 To which of the angels did God ever say, "Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet"?

14 Are not all angels ministering spirits, sent out to serve those who will inherit salvation?

Key Lessons from Hebrews 1

- God’s final word is His Son. In the Old Testament, God spoke through prophets, but now He speaks through Jesus, the perfect revelation of His will.
- Jesus is greater than the angels. Angels are servants, but Jesus is the eternal Son, enthroned forever.
- Christ is unchanging. Heaven and earth will pass away, but Jesus remains the same forever.
- Angels serve believers. They are ministering spirits sent to help those who belong to Christ and will inherit salvation.

Hebrews 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Jesus, the Merciful High Priest”

Warning Against Drifting Away

1 We must pay close attention to the truth we have heard, so we don’t drift away from it.

2 For if the message spoken by angels proved true, and every sin and act of disobedience received a just punishment,

3 how will we escape if we ignore such a great salvation? This salvation was first spoken by the Lord Himself and was confirmed to us by those who heard Him.

4 God also confirmed it with signs, wonders, many miracles, and gifts of the Holy Spirit, given according to His will.

Jesus Crowned with Glory

5 It was not to angels that God gave authority over the world to come, which we are talking about.

6 Instead, one place in Scripture says:

“What is man that You are mindful of him,

or the son of man that You care for him?

7 You made him a little lower than the angels;

You crowned him with glory and honor and put everything under his feet.”

8 In putting everything under him, God left nothing outside his authority. But right now, we do not yet see everything subject to him.

9 But we do see Jesus—made a little lower than the angels when He suffered death—now crowned with glory and honor because He tasted death for everyone by God’s grace.

The Captain of Salvation

10 It was fitting that God—for whom and through whom all things exist—should make the captain of their salvation perfect through suffering, as He brought many sons and daughters to glory.

11 Jesus, who makes people holy, and those who are made holy are of the same family. That is why He is not ashamed to call them His brothers and sisters.

12 He says, “I will declare Your name to my brothers; in the assembly I will sing Your praise.”

13 And again, “I will put my trust in Him.” And again, “Here am I, and the children God has given me.”

Jesus Destroys Death

14 Since God’s children share in flesh and blood, Jesus also shared in the same, so that by His death He might destroy the one who held the power of death—that is, the devil—

15 and deliver those who lived their whole lives as slaves to the fear of death.

16 For surely it was not angels He came to help, but Abraham’s descendants.

17 That is why He had to be made like His brothers and sisters in every way, so that He could become a merciful and faithful High Priest in service to God, and make atonement for the sins of the people.

18 Because He Himself suffered when He was tempted, He is able to help those who are being tempted.

Key Lessons from Hebrews 2

- Do not drift away. Neglecting salvation brings serious consequences.
- Jesus tasted death for all. He humbled Himself to suffer so that we might live.
- Christ calls us His family. He is not ashamed to call believers His brothers and sisters.
- Jesus conquered the fear of death. By dying, He defeated the devil and freed us from bondage.
- Christ is our merciful High Priest. He understands our struggles and helps us in temptation.

Hebrews 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Christ Greater Than Moses”

Jesus, the Faithful High Priest

1 Therefore, holy brothers and sisters, who share in the heavenly calling, fix your thoughts on Jesus—the Apostle and High Priest of our faith.

2 He was faithful to the One who appointed Him, just as Moses was faithful in all God’s house.

3 But Jesus is worthy of more glory than Moses, just as the builder of a house deserves more honor than the house itself.

4 For every house is built by someone, but God is the builder of everything.

5 Moses was faithful as a servant in God's house, testifying to what would later be spoken.

6 But Christ is faithful as the Son over God's house. And we are His house, if we hold firmly to our confidence and the hope we boast in until the end.

Warning Against Unbelief

7 So, as the Holy Spirit says:

“Today, if you hear His voice,

8 do not harden your hearts

as Israel did in the rebellion,

during the time of testing in the wilderness,

9 where your ancestors tested Me and tried Me, though for forty years they saw My works.

10 That is why I was angry with that generation;

I said, ‘Their hearts are always going astray, and they have not known My ways.’

11 So I declared on oath in My anger,

‘They shall never enter My rest.’”

12 Be careful, brothers and sisters, that none of you have an evil, unbelieving heart that turns away from the living God.

13 Instead, encourage one another daily, as long as it is called “Today,” so that none of you may be hardened by sin's deceitfulness.

14 For we have come to share in Christ, if we hold firmly to the end the faith we had at the beginning.

15 As has just been said:

“Today, if you hear His voice,

do not harden your hearts

as they did in the rebellion.”

Israel's Failure in the Wilderness

16 Who were those who heard and still rebelled? Was it not all those Moses led out of Egypt?

17 And with whom was God angry for forty years? Was it not those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness?

18 And to whom did God swear that they would never enter His rest, if not to those who disobeyed?

19 So we see that they were unable to enter because of their unbelief.

Key Lessons from Hebrews 3

- Jesus is greater than Moses. Moses was a servant, but Christ is the Son over God's house.
- We are God's house. If we remain steadfast in faith and hope, we show we truly belong to Him.
- Don't harden your heart. Sin deceives and leads to rebellion; faith must remain alive.
- Encourage each other daily. Christian fellowship helps guard against unbelief.
- Unbelief shuts the door to God's rest. Just as Israel failed in the wilderness, we too must take warning.

Hebrews 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Entering God's Rest Through Faith”

God's Promise of Rest

1 Therefore, let us be careful that none of us fall short of God's promise of entering His rest.

2 For the Good News was preached to us just as it was to Israel, but it did not benefit them because they did not combine it with faith.

3 For we who believe enter that rest, as God has said:

“So I swore in My anger, ‘They shall never enter My rest.’”

Yet God's works were finished since the creation of the world.

4 For He spoke about the seventh day in this way: “And God rested on the seventh day from all His works.”

5 And again in another place He said: “They shall never enter My rest.”

6 So it remains that some will enter God's rest, and those who first heard the message did not enter because of unbelief.

7 God again set another day, calling it “Today,” when He spoke through David long afterward: “Today, if you hear His voice, do not harden your hearts.”

8 For if Joshua had given them final rest, God would not have spoken of another day later on.

9 Therefore, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God.

10 For the one who enters God's rest also rests from his own works, just as God did from His.

The Living Word of God

11 Let us therefore strive to enter that rest, so that no one falls by following their example of unbelief.

12 For the word of God is alive and powerful. It is sharper than any double-edged sword, piercing between soul and spirit, joints and marrow. It judges the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

13 Nothing in all creation is hidden from God's sight. Everything is uncovered and exposed before the eyes of Him to whom we must give account.

Jesus, Our Great High Priest

14 Therefore, since we have a great High Priest who has passed through the heavens—Jesus, the Son of God—let us hold firmly to our faith.

15 For we do not have a High Priest who cannot understand our weaknesses. Instead, He was tempted in every way just as we are, yet He never sinned.

16 Let us then come boldly to the throne of grace, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.

Key Lessons from Hebrews 4

- God’s promise of rest still stands. Faith is the key to entering it, not works alone.
- The Sabbath rest points to salvation. Just as God rested from creation, believers rest from striving by trusting in Christ.
- The Word of God searches the heart. Nothing can be hidden from His truth—it exposes motives and intentions.
- Jesus understands our struggles. He was tempted in every way, yet He never sinned.
- We can boldly approach God. Through Christ, we find mercy and grace in every need.

Hebrews 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Christ, Our Great High Priest”

The Role of the High Priest

1 Every high priest is chosen from among men and is appointed to represent them in matters relating to God, offering gifts and sacrifices for sins.

2 He is able to deal gently with the ignorant and those who go astray, since he himself is subject to weakness.

3 Because of this, he must offer sacrifices for his own sins as well as for the sins of the people.

4 No one takes this honor upon himself, but only those called by God, just as Aaron was.

5 In the same way, Christ did not glorify Himself by becoming a High Priest. It was God who said to Him:

“You are My Son; today I have begotten You.”

6 And in another place:

“You are a priest forever, in the order of Melchizedek.”

Jesus' Suffering and Obedience

7 During the days of His earthly life, Jesus offered up prayers and petitions with loud cries and tears to the One who could save Him from death. And He was heard because of His reverence.

8 Even though He was the Son, He learned obedience through the things He suffered.

9 Once made perfect, He became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey Him.

10 God designated Him a High Priest in the order of Melchizedek.

Spiritual Maturity Needed

11 We have much to say about this, but it is hard to explain because you have become slow to understand.

12 By now you ought to be teachers, but instead you need someone to teach you again the basic principles of God's word. You need milk, not solid food!

13 Anyone who lives on milk is still an infant, unskilled in the word of righteousness.

14 But solid food is for the mature, who by constant practice have trained themselves to discern both good and evil.

Key Lessons from Hebrews 5

- High priests are chosen by God, not self-appointed. Christ's priesthood was established by God, not by man.
- Jesus understands our weakness. He prayed with tears, showing His deep humanity, yet He remained faithful.
- Obedience is learned through suffering. Jesus' trials teach us that hardship shapes true faith.
- Spiritual growth requires maturity. Believers must move from milk (basic truths) to solid food (deeper understanding).
- Discernment comes with practice. A mature believer learns to distinguish good from evil through constant use of God's Word.

Hebrews 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Pressing On to Maturity”

Leaving the Basics and Growing Up in Faith

1 So let us stop going over the basic teachings about Christ again and again. Instead, let us go on and become mature in our understanding. We don't need to keep laying the foundation of turning from sinful deeds, trusting in God,

2 teaching about baptisms, the laying on of hands, the resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment.
3 And so, if God is willing, we will move forward to further understanding.

The Danger of Falling Away

4 It is impossible to bring back to repentance those who were once enlightened—who have experienced the heavenly gift, who have shared in the Holy Spirit,
5 who have tasted the goodness of God’s Word and the power of the coming age—
6 and then turn away from God. It is impossible to bring them back to repentance because they are nailing the Son of God to the cross all over again and exposing Him to public shame.
7 When the ground soaks up the rain that often falls on it and produces a crop useful to those for whom it is farmed, it receives a blessing from God.
8 But if it produces thorns and thistles, it is worthless. It is in danger of being cursed, and in the end, it will be burned.

Encouragement to Stay Faithful

9 Dear friends, even though we are talking this way, we are confident of better things in your case—the things that accompany salvation.
10 For God is not unjust. He will not forget your work and the love you have shown Him as you have helped His people and continue to help them.
11 We want each of you to show this same diligence to the very end, so that what you hope for may be fully realized.
12 Then you won’t become spiritually lazy, but you will follow the example of those who through faith and patience inherit what God has promised.

God’s Promise Is Sure

13 When God made His promise to Abraham, He swore by Himself, since there was no one greater to swear by.
14 He said, “I will surely bless you and give you many descendants.”
15 And so after waiting patiently, Abraham received what was promised.
16 Now people swear by someone greater than themselves, and the oath confirms what is said and puts an end to all arguments.
17 Because God wanted to make His purpose very clear to the heirs of what was promised, He confirmed it with an oath.
18 So God has given both His promise and His oath. These two things are unchangeable, because it is impossible for God to lie. Therefore, we who have fled to Him for refuge can have strong encouragement to hold tightly to the hope set before us.
19 This hope is a strong and trustworthy anchor for our souls. It leads us into the inner sanctuary behind the curtain,
20 where Jesus has already entered on our behalf. He has become our High Priest forever, in the order of Melchizedek.

Key Lessons from Hebrews 6

- Move Beyond Basics: Christians must grow beyond elementary teachings into deeper maturity.
- The Danger of Apostasy: Turning away after experiencing God’s truth is a grave matter, compared to crucifying Christ again.
- Fruitfulness Matters: Just like land must produce crops, believers must live fruitful lives in response to God’s grace.
- God Remembers Our Faithfulness: He sees every act of love and service to His people.
- Hope Anchors the Soul: God’s unchanging promise and oath assure us of eternal security in Christ.
- Jesus, Our High Priest: Christ has gone before us into God’s presence, securing our salvation forever.

Hebrews 7 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Jesus, Our Eternal High Priest”

Melchizedek and Abraham

1 This Melchizedek was king of Salem and priest of the Most High God. He met Abraham when he was returning from defeating the kings and blessed him.

2 Abraham gave him a tenth of everything he had taken in battle. First, his name means “King of Righteousness,” and then also “King of Salem,” which means “King of Peace.”

3 He had no father, no mother, no family line, no beginning of days, and no end of life. He is like the Son of God, remaining a priest forever.

4 Think about how great this man was! Even Abraham, our ancestor, gave him a tenth of the spoils.

5 The sons of Levi, who later became priests, were commanded by the law to collect tithes from the people—though they themselves were also descendants of Abraham.

6 But Melchizedek, who did not come from their line, collected a tenth from Abraham and blessed the one who had the promises.

7 It is clear that the one who blesses is greater than the one being blessed.

8 Here, mortal men receive tithes, but there, it is testified that he lives.

9 In a way, Levi himself, who collects tithes, paid tithes through Abraham,

10 because he was still in Abraham’s body when Melchizedek met him.

A Greater Priesthood

11 If perfection could have come through the Levitical priesthood (since the law was given under it), why would another priest need to arise after the order of Melchizedek instead of the order of Aaron?

12 Since the priesthood was changed, the law had to be changed as well.

13 The one we are talking about belonged to another tribe, one that never served at the altar.

14 It is clear that our Lord came from the tribe of Judah, a tribe about which Moses said nothing concerning priests.

15 And it is even clearer because another priest has arisen who is like Melchizedek.

16 He was made a priest, not by a law based on ancestry, but by the power of an endless life.

17 For Scripture says: “You are a priest forever, in the order of Melchizedek.”

The Superiority of Christ’s Priesthood

18 The old rule is set aside because it was weak and useless.

19 For the law made nothing perfect. But now a better hope has been introduced, through which we draw near to God.

20 And this priesthood was not without an oath.

21 The former priests became priests without an oath, but He became a priest with an oath when God said:

“The Lord has sworn and will not change His mind: You are a priest forever.”

22 Because of this oath, Jesus has become the guarantee of a better covenant.

23 There were many priests under the old system, because death kept them from continuing in office.

24 But Jesus lives forever, so His priesthood never ends.

25 That is why He is able to save completely those who come to God through Him, because He always lives to intercede for them.

Our Perfect High Priest

26 Such a High Priest truly meets our need: He is holy, innocent, undefiled, set apart from sinners, and exalted above the heavens.

27 Unlike the other high priests, He does not need to offer sacrifices daily, first for His own sins and then for the sins of the people. He did this once for all when He offered Himself.

28 The law appointed men as high priests who are weak, but the oath, which came after the law, appointed the Son, who has been made perfect forever.

Key Lessons from Hebrews 7

- Melchizedek foreshadows Christ: Both are kings of righteousness and peace, with a priesthood that is eternal.
- Jesus is greater than Abraham and Levi: Even the patriarch and the priestly line recognized Melchizedek’s greatness, pointing to Christ’s superiority.
- The old law was insufficient: The Levitical system could not bring perfection, but Christ’s priesthood provides a better hope.
- God’s oath makes Christ’s role unshakable: Unlike human priests, Jesus’ position was guaranteed by God’s eternal promise.

- Christ saves completely: He intercedes forever, ensuring salvation for all who come to God through Him.
- Our High Priest is perfect: Unlike earthly priests with sin, Jesus offered Himself once for all, accomplishing eternal redemption.

Hebrews 8 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The New Covenant”

Christ’s Heavenly Ministry

1 Here is the main point: We have a High Priest who is seated at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in heaven.

2 He serves in the true sanctuary, the real tabernacle, which the Lord—not man—set up.

3 Every high priest is appointed to offer gifts and sacrifices, so this High Priest also needed to have something to offer.

4 If He were on earth, He would not be a priest, since there are already priests who present gifts according to the law.

5 They serve at a sanctuary that is only a copy and shadow of what is in heaven. This is why God told Moses when he was about to build the tabernacle, “Be sure you make everything according to the pattern shown you on the mountain.”

A Better Covenant

6 But now Jesus has obtained a more excellent ministry. He is the mediator of a better covenant, built on better promises.

7 For if the first covenant had been faultless, there would have been no need for another.

8 But God found fault with the people and said:

“Behold, the days are coming, declares the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah.

9 It will not be like the covenant I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand and led them out of Egypt. They did not remain faithful to My covenant, so I turned away from them, declares the Lord.

10 This is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel after those days, declares the Lord:

I will put My laws in their minds and write them on their hearts.

I will be their God, and they will be My people.

11 No longer will they need to teach one another, saying, ‘Know the Lord,’ because they will all know Me, from the least to the greatest.

12 For I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no more.”

The Old Passing Away

13 By calling this covenant “new,” He has made the first one obsolete. And what is becoming obsolete and aging will soon disappear.

Key Lessons from Hebrews 8

- Christ serves in heaven: Jesus is not a priest on earth but in the true, heavenly sanctuary built by God Himself.
- The old covenant was insufficient: The law and earthly priesthood could not bring lasting forgiveness or transformation.
- A better covenant has come: Through Christ, God established a covenant based on better promises—internal change, forgiveness, and direct relationship with Him.
- God writes His law on hearts: The new covenant is not about external rituals but inward transformation and obedience from the heart.
- Complete forgiveness: Under the new covenant, God remembers our sins no more.
- The old fades away: The first covenant has been set aside, replaced by the new covenant through Christ.

Hebrews 9 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Power of Christ’s Blood”

The Earthly Tabernacle

1 The first covenant had rules for worship and an earthly sanctuary.

2 In the first room of the tabernacle were the lampstand, the table, and the bread of the Presence. This was called the Holy Place.

3 Behind the second curtain was the room called the Most Holy Place.

4 In it were the golden altar of incense and the Ark of the Covenant covered with gold. Inside the Ark were the gold jar of manna, Aaron’s staff that budded, and the stone tablets of the covenant.

5 Above it were the cherubim of glory, overshadowing the mercy seat. We cannot discuss these things in detail now.

6 When everything was set up in this way, the priests regularly entered the outer room to carry out their ministry.

7 But only the high priest entered the inner room, and only once a year. He could not go without blood, which he offered for himself and for the sins the people had committed in ignorance.

8 By this the Holy Spirit was showing that the way into the Most Holy Place was not yet open as long as the first tabernacle was still in use.

9 This was a symbol for the present time. The gifts and sacrifices being offered could not clear the conscience of the worshiper.

10 They were only external rules about food, drink, and ceremonial washings—temporary regulations until the time of reformation.

Christ's Superior Sacrifice

11 But when Christ came as High Priest of the good things now here, He went through a greater and more perfect tabernacle not made by human hands, that is, not belonging to this creation.

12 He did not enter by means of the blood of goats and calves, but by His own blood He entered once for all into the Most Holy Place, securing eternal redemption for us.

13 If the blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a heifer sprinkled on the unclean could make them outwardly clean,

14 how much more will the blood of Christ—who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without blemish to God—purify our consciences from dead works so that we may serve the living God!

The New Covenant Sealed in Blood

15 This is why He is the mediator of a new covenant. By means of His death, He has redeemed the people from the sins committed under the first covenant, so that those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance.

16 For where there is a will, the death of the one who made it must be proven.

17 A will takes effect only after death; it is not in force while the one who made it is still alive.

18 That is why the first covenant was not put into effect without blood.

19 When Moses had declared every command of the law to the people, he took the blood of calves and goats, mixed it with water, scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the scroll and all the people.

20 He said, "This is the blood of the covenant which God has commanded you to keep."

21 He also sprinkled the tabernacle and all the sacred vessels with blood.

22 In fact, the law requires that nearly everything be purified with blood. Without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.

Christ's Once-for-All Sacrifice

23 It was necessary for the copies of the heavenly things to be purified with these sacrifices, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices.

24 For Christ did not enter a sanctuary made with human hands that was only a copy of the true one; He entered heaven itself, now to appear in God's presence for us.

25 He did not enter heaven to offer Himself again and again, like the high priest enters the Most Holy Place every year with blood that is not his own.

26 Otherwise, Christ would have had to suffer many times since the creation of the world. But now He has appeared once for all, at the end of the ages, to remove sin by the sacrifice of Himself.

27 Just as people are destined to die once, and after that face judgment,

28 so Christ was offered once to bear the sins of many. He will appear a second time, not to bear sin, but to bring salvation to those who eagerly wait for Him.

Key Lessons from Hebrews 9

- The old covenant pointed forward: The earthly tabernacle and sacrifices were shadows of the true heavenly reality.
- The blood of Christ is greater: Animal sacrifices could only cleanse outwardly, but Christ's blood cleanses the conscience and brings eternal redemption.
- Forgiveness requires blood: Without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness of sins.
- Christ's sacrifice is once for all: Unlike repeated offerings, Jesus' one sacrifice removes sin forever.
- Christ intercedes in heaven: He appears before God on our behalf in the true sanctuary.
- Judgment and salvation: Just as death and judgment are appointed for man, Christ will return a second time to bring salvation to His people.

Hebrews 10 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Christ's Once-for-All Sacrifice”

The Law Could Not Make Perfect

1 The law was only a shadow of the good things to come, not the true reality. Because of this, it could never, by the same sacrifices repeated year after year, make those who came to worship perfect.

2 If it could, wouldn't the sacrifices have stopped? The worshipers would have been cleansed once for all and would no longer feel guilty about their sins.

3 But those sacrifices served as a yearly reminder of sins.

4 For it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

Christ Fulfills God's Will

5 That is why, when Christ came into the world, He said:

“You did not want sacrifices and offerings,
but You prepared a body for Me.

6 You were not pleased with burnt offerings and sin offerings.

7 Then I said, ‘Here I am—it is written about Me in the scroll—
I have come to do Your will, O God.’”

8 First He said, “Sacrifices and offerings, burnt offerings and sin offerings You did not desire, nor were You pleased with them,” though they were offered according to the law.

9 Then He said, “Here I am, I have come to do Your will.” He takes away the first covenant to establish the second.

10 By that will, we have been made holy through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

The Finished Work of Christ

11 Day after day every priest stands and performs his duties, offering the same sacrifices repeatedly, which can never take away sins.

12 But when Christ had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, He sat down at the right hand of God.

13 Now He waits until His enemies are made His footstool.

14 By one offering He has perfected forever those who are being made holy.

15 The Holy Spirit also testifies to us about this. First He says:

16 “This is the covenant I will make with them after those days, says the Lord.

I will put My laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their minds.”

17 Then He adds:

“Their sins and lawless acts I will remember no more.”

18 And where these have been forgiven, there is no longer any sacrifice for sin.

Confidence Through Christ

19 Therefore, brothers and sisters, we have boldness to enter the Most Holy Place by the blood of Jesus,

20 by a new and living way opened for us through the curtain, that is, His body.

21 And since we have a great High Priest over the house of God,

22 let us draw near to God with a sincere heart and full assurance of faith, with our hearts cleansed from a guilty conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.

23 Let us hold firmly to the hope we profess, because the One who promised is faithful.

24 And let us think of ways to encourage one another to love and good works.

25 Do not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encourage one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

A Warning Against Willful Sin

26 If we deliberately keep on sinning after receiving the knowledge of the truth, no sacrifice for sins is left,

27 only a fearful expectation of judgment and of raging fire that will consume the enemies of God.

28 Anyone who rejected the law of Moses died without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses.

29 How much worse punishment do you think someone deserves who has trampled the Son of God underfoot, treated the blood of the covenant that made them holy as an unholy thing, and insulted the Spirit of grace?

30 For we know Him who said, “Vengeance is Mine; I will repay,” and again, “The Lord will judge His people.”

31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

Encouragement to Endure

32 Remember those earlier days after you had received the light, when you endured a hard struggle with suffering.

33 Sometimes you were publicly exposed to insults and persecution; at other times you stood side by side with those who were treated that way.

34 You sympathized with those in prison and joyfully accepted the loss of your property, knowing that you had better and lasting possessions in heaven.

35 So do not throw away your confidence; it will be richly rewarded.

36 You need to persevere so that when you have done the will of God, you will receive what He has promised.

37 For,

“In just a little while,
He who is coming will come and will not delay.

38 But My righteous one will live by faith.

And if he turns back,

I will not be pleased with him.”

39 But we are not those who shrink back and are destroyed. We are those who have faith and preserve our souls.

Key Lessons from Hebrews 10

- The law was only a shadow: Repeated animal sacrifices could never take away sin.
- Christ’s sacrifice was final: Jesus’ offering of Himself once for all brings complete forgiveness.
- Confidence through His blood: Believers can boldly approach God because Christ opened the way.
- Stay faithful together: Do not forsake meeting with fellow believers but encourage each other in love and good works.
- Seriousness of willful sin: Rejecting Christ’s sacrifice brings certain judgment.
- Endurance leads to reward: Faith and perseverance secure the promises of God.
- The righteous live by faith: God calls His people not to shrink back, but to press on to salvation.

Hebrews 11 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Hall of Faith”

Faith Defined

- 1 Faith is the confidence of what we hope for and the assurance of what we cannot see.
- 2 Through faith, the people of old received God's approval.
- 3 By faith we understand that the universe was created by God's word, so that what is seen was made out of what cannot be seen.

Examples of Faith from the Ancients

- 4 By faith Abel offered a more acceptable sacrifice to God than Cain. God approved of his gifts, and even though Abel is dead, his faith still speaks.
- 5 By faith Enoch was taken up so he did not experience death. He could not be found because God had taken him. Before he was taken, he was commended for pleasing God.
- 6 And without faith it is impossible to please God. Anyone who comes to Him must believe that He exists and that He rewards those who sincerely seek Him.
- 7 By faith Noah, warned about things not yet seen, built an ark to save his family. By his faith he condemned the world and became an heir of righteousness.

Abraham and Sarah's Faith

- 8 By faith Abraham obeyed when God called him to go to a place he would later receive as an inheritance. He went without knowing where he was going.
- 9 By faith he lived as a foreigner in the land of promise, living in tents with Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise.
- 10 For he was looking forward to the city with foundations, whose designer and builder is God.
- 11 By faith Sarah herself was given power to conceive a child, even though she was too old. She considered Him faithful who had promised.
- 12 So from one man, as good as dead, came descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and as countless as the sand on the seashore.

Longing for a Heavenly Country

- 13 All these died in faith without receiving what was promised. But they saw it from a distance, welcomed it, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on earth.
- 14 People who say such things show that they are looking for a homeland.
- 15 If they had been thinking of the country they came from, they could have returned.
- 16 Instead, they longed for a better country—a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for He has prepared a city for them.

More Examples of Faith

- 17 By faith Abraham, when tested, offered up Isaac. He who had received the promises was ready to sacrifice his only son,
- 18 even though God had said, "Through Isaac your descendants will be counted."
- 19 Abraham reasoned that God could raise the dead, and in a sense, he did receive Isaac back from the dead.

20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning their future.

21 By faith Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of Joseph's sons and worshiped while leaning on the top of his staff.

22 By faith Joseph, when near death, spoke about the exodus of the Israelites and gave instructions about his bones.

23 By faith Moses' parents hid him for three months after he was born. They saw that he was no ordinary child, and they were not afraid of the king's command.

24 By faith Moses, when grown, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter.

25 He chose to suffer with God's people rather than enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin.

26 He considered disgrace for the sake of Christ of greater value than all the treasures of Egypt, because he was looking ahead to his reward.

27 By faith he left Egypt, not fearing the king's anger. He persevered because he saw Him who is invisible.

28 By faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of blood so that the destroyer of the firstborn would not touch them.

29 By faith the people passed through the Red Sea as on dry ground, but when the Egyptians tried it, they drowned.

30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell after the people had marched around them for seven days.

31 By faith Rahab the prostitute was not destroyed with those who disobeyed, because she had welcomed the spies in peace.

The Faith of Many Others

32 And what more shall I say? Time would fail me to tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, Samuel, and the prophets.

33 Through faith they conquered kingdoms, administered justice, and received promises. They shut the mouths of lions, 34 quenched the flames of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, found strength in weakness, became mighty in battle, and turned foreign armies to flight.

35 Women received their dead raised back to life. Others were tortured, refusing to be released so that they might gain a better resurrection.

36 Some faced mocking and flogging, chains and imprisonment.

37 They were stoned, sawn in two, put to the sword. They wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins—destitute, afflicted, mistreated.

38 The world was not worthy of them. They wandered in deserts and mountains, living in caves and holes in the ground.

Faith's Final Goal

39 These were all commended for their faith, yet none of them received what was promised.

40 God had planned something better for us, so that only together with us would they be made perfect.

Key Lessons from Hebrews 11

- Faith is trust in the unseen: It gives confidence in God’s promises even when we cannot yet see them.
- Faith pleases God: Without it, it is impossible to come to Him. He rewards those who seek Him.
- Examples inspire us: From Abel to Abraham, Moses to Rahab, the faithful show us how to live by trust in God.
- Faith sacrifices comfort: True faith chooses God’s promises over earthly pleasures and treasures.
- Faith endures suffering: Many suffered, wandered, and died without receiving the promise, yet their faith remained.
- Faith looks ahead: They looked for a better country—a heavenly city prepared by God.
- Faith unites us: God’s plan includes both them and us, perfected together in Christ.

Hebrews 12 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Running the Race with Endurance”

Fixing Our Eyes on Jesus

1 Since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race set before us.

2 Let us look to Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of our faith. For the joy set before Him, He endured the cross, disregarded its shame, and sat down at the right hand of God’s throne.

3 Think of Him who endured such opposition from sinners, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart.

4 In your struggle against sin, you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood.

God’s Loving Discipline

5 You have forgotten the word of encouragement that addresses you as children:

“My son, do not despise the Lord’s discipline, and do not lose heart when He rebukes you,

6 for the Lord disciplines the one He loves,
and chastens everyone He accepts as His child.”

7 Endure hardship as discipline; God is treating you as His children. For what child is not disciplined by their father?

8 If you are not disciplined—and everyone undergoes discipline—then you are illegitimate and not true children.

9 We all had human fathers who disciplined us, and we respected them. Should we not much more submit to the Father of spirits and live?

10 They disciplined us for a short time as they thought best, but God disciplines us for our good, so that we may share in His holiness.

11 No discipline seems pleasant at the time, but painful. Later, however, it produces the peaceful fruit of righteousness for those trained by it.

A Call to Strength and Peace

12 So strengthen your tired hands and weak knees.

13 Make straight paths for your feet, so that what is lame may not be disabled but healed.

14 Strive for peace with everyone and for holiness, without which no one will see the Lord.

15 Watch carefully so that no one falls short of God's grace, and no bitter root grows up to cause trouble and defile many.

16 See that no one is sexually immoral or godless like Esau, who sold his birthright for a single meal.

17 Afterward, when he wanted to inherit the blessing, he was rejected. Even though he sought it with tears, he could not change what had been done.

Mount Sinai and Mount Zion

18 You have not come to a mountain that can be touched, burning with fire, to darkness, gloom, and storm,

19 to the sound of a trumpet and a voice whose words made those who heard beg that no further word be spoken to them.

20 They could not bear the command: "If even an animal touches the mountain, it must be stoned."

21 The sight was so terrifying that Moses said, "I am trembling with fear."

22 Instead, you have come to Mount Zion, to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem. You have come to thousands upon thousands of angels in joyful assembly,

23 to the church of the firstborn whose names are written in heaven, to God the Judge of all, to the spirits of the righteous made perfect,

24 and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel.

A Kingdom That Cannot Be Shaken

25 See to it that you do not refuse Him who speaks. If they did not escape when they refused Him who warned them on earth, how much less will we escape if we turn away from Him who warns from heaven?

26 At that time His voice shook the earth, but now He has promised: "Once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heavens."

27 The words "once more" mean that the created things that can be shaken will be removed, so that the unshakable things may remain.

28 Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us be thankful. By this we may serve God acceptably with reverence and awe, 29 for our God is a consuming fire.

Key Lessons from Hebrews 12

- Run with endurance: The Christian life is a race requiring perseverance, laying aside sin, and fixing our eyes on Jesus.
- Discipline proves God's love: Trials and correction are signs of God's fatherly care, shaping us into holiness.
- Pursue peace and holiness: Without them, no one will see the Lord.
- Beware of bitterness and godlessness: Like Esau, trading spiritual blessings for temporary gain leads to regret.
- Heavenly Zion is our goal: Believers belong not to a fearful mountain but to God's eternal city, full of joy and glory.
- God's kingdom is unshakable: Everything temporary will pass, but His kingdom remains forever.
- Worship with reverence: Because God is a consuming fire, we must serve Him with gratitude, awe, and obedience.

Hebrews 13 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Final Exhortations and Blessing”

Instructions for Christian Living

1 Let brotherly love continue.

2 Do not forget to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing so some have entertained angels without knowing it.

3 Remember those in prison as if you were imprisoned with them, and those who are mistreated as if you yourselves were suffering.

4 Marriage should be honored by all, and the marriage bed kept pure, for God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterers.

5 Keep your lives free from the love of money. Be content with what you have, because God has said, “I will never leave you nor forsake you.”

6 So we can confidently say: “The Lord is my helper; I will not be afraid. What can mere man do to me?”

7 Remember your leaders who spoke God's word to you. Think about the outcome of their lives and imitate their faith.

8 Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

9 Do not be carried away by strange and diverse teachings. It is good for the heart to be strengthened by grace, not by ceremonial foods, which are of no benefit to those who follow them.

Following Christ's Example

10 We have an altar from which those who serve at the tabernacle have no right to eat.

11 The high priest carries the blood of animals into the Most Holy Place as a sin offering, but their bodies are burned outside the camp.

12 In the same way, Jesus also suffered outside the city gate to make the people holy through His own blood.

13 Let us, then, go to Him outside the camp, bearing His disgrace.

14 For here we do not have a lasting city, but we are looking for the city that is to come.

Sacrifices That Please God

15 Through Jesus, therefore, let us continually offer to God a sacrifice of praise—the fruit of lips that openly profess His name.

16 And do not forget to do good and to share with others, for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

Closing Counsel

17 Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they keep watch over your souls as those who must give an account. Do this so their work will be a joy, not a burden, for that would be of no benefit to you.

18 Pray for us. We are sure that we have a clear conscience and desire to live honorably in every way.

19 I especially urge you to pray so that I may be restored to you soon.

Final Blessing

20 Now may the God of peace, who brought back from the dead our Lord Jesus—the great Shepherd of the sheep—through the blood of the everlasting covenant,

21 equip you with everything good to do His will. May He work in us what is pleasing to Him, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

22 I urge you, brothers and sisters, to bear with this word of encouragement, for I have written to you briefly.

23 Be assured that our brother Timothy has been released. If he comes soon, I will see you with him.

24 Greet all your leaders and all the Lord's people. Those from Italy send you their greetings.

25 Grace be with you all. Amen.

- Marriage and purity are sacred: God calls us to honor marriage and remain faithful.
- Be content with God's provision: Trust His promise never to leave or forsake us.
- Follow faithful leaders: Remember and imitate those who live out God's word.

Introduction to the Book of James

“Faith by itself isn’t enough. Unless it produces good deeds, it is dead and useless.” – James 2:17

Title and Meaning

The book of James is a letter written to Jewish Christians scattered among the nations (James 1:1). Its title reflects its author, James, the half-brother of Jesus and leader of the Jerusalem church. Often called the “Proverbs of the New Testament,” James emphasizes practical Christian living. It shows how genuine faith is revealed through works of love, humility, and obedience.

Author and Date

The author is James, the brother of Jesus (Galatians 1:19) and leader of the Jerusalem church (Acts 15:13–21). He was a man of prayer and respected for his wisdom and leadership. James was likely written around AD 44–49, making it one of the earliest New Testament writings, before the Jerusalem Council (Acts 15).

Purpose of James

James wrote to encourage believers facing trials and to confront inconsistent, shallow, or hypocritical faith. His purposes include:

- To show that genuine faith results in good works.
 - To encourage perseverance in trials and temptations.
 - To warn against favoritism, pride, and uncontrolled speech.
 - To call believers to humility, prayer, and reliance on God.
 - To remind Christians that faith without works is dead.

Structure of James

James is filled with wisdom sayings and practical exhortations:

📖 1. Trials and Temptations (Ch. 1)

Believers are called to endure trials with joy and put God’s Word into practice.

✡️ 2. Faith and Works (Chs. 2–3)

Faith must be demonstrated through deeds; warnings against favoritism and the power of the tongue.

🌿 3. Wisdom and Humility (Chs. 3–4)

True wisdom comes from God; believers are called to humility, submission, and resisting the devil.

🙏 4. Warnings and Final Exhortations (Ch. 5)

Warnings to the rich, encouragement to the suffering, the power of prayer, and restoring the wandering.

Major Themes

- Faith in Action – True faith produces good works.
 - Perseverance in Trials – Testing develops maturity and strength.
 - Wisdom from Above – Godly wisdom is pure, peace-loving, and humble.
 - The Power of the Tongue – Words have the power to bless or destroy.
 - Prayer and Dependence on God – Believers must seek God in all circumstances.

Why James Matters Today

James speaks directly to believers who may profess faith but struggle to live it out. In a world of shallow religion and empty words, James calls Christians to authentic, lived-out faith. His words remind us that Christianity is not just believing, but doing—showing love, controlling our tongues, caring for the needy, and walking humbly with God.

Key Verse

“Faith by itself isn’t enough. Unless it produces good deeds, it is dead and useless.” – James 2:17

This verse captures the heart of James: genuine faith always leads to action.

James 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Faith Tested and True Religion”

Greeting

1 From James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes scattered among the nations: Greetings.

Joy in Trials

2 My brothers and sisters, count it pure joy whenever you face many kinds of trials,

3 because you know that the testing of your faith produces endurance.

4 Let endurance finish its work so that you may be mature and complete, lacking nothing.

Asking God for Wisdom

5 If any of you lacks wisdom, ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to you.

6 But when you ask, you must believe and not doubt, because the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea, blown and tossed by the wind.

7 That person should not expect to receive anything from the Lord.

8 Such a double-minded person is unstable in everything they do.

The Lowly and the Rich

9 Believers in humble circumstances ought to take pride in their high position.

10 But the rich should take pride in being humbled, since they will pass away like a wildflower.

11 For the sun rises with scorching heat and withers the plant; its blossom falls and its beauty is destroyed. In the same way, the rich will fade away while going about their business.

Enduring Temptation

12 Blessed is the one who perseveres under trial, because when they have stood the test, they will receive the crown of life that the Lord has promised to those who love Him.

13 When tempted, no one should say, "God is tempting me." For God cannot be tempted by evil, nor does He tempt anyone.

14 But each person is tempted when they are dragged away by their own desires and enticed.

15 Then desire, when it has conceived, gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is full-grown, gives birth to death.

Every Good Gift

16 Do not be deceived, my dear brothers and sisters.

17 Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, who does not change like shifting shadows.

18 He chose to give us birth through the word of truth, that we might be a kind of firstfruits of all He created.

Listening and Doing

19 My dear brothers and sisters, take note of this: Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to become angry,

20 because human anger does not produce the righteousness that God desires.

21 Therefore, get rid of all moral filth and the evil that is so prevalent, and humbly accept the word planted in you, which can save you.

22 Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says.

23 Anyone who listens to the word but does not do what it says is like someone who looks at his face in a mirror,

24 and after looking at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like.

25 But whoever looks intently into the perfect law that gives freedom, and continues in it—not forgetting what they have heard, but doing it—they will be blessed in what they do.

True Religion

26 Those who consider themselves religious and yet do not keep a tight rein on their tongues deceive themselves, and their religion is worthless.

27 Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to care for orphans and widows in their distress, and to keep oneself from being polluted by the world.

Key Lessons from James 1

- Trials strengthen faith: Testing produces patience, which leads to maturity in Christ.
- Ask God for wisdom: He gives generously to those who believe without doubting.
- Riches are temporary: The wealthy fade away like flowers in the sun, but faith in God lasts forever.
- Temptation comes from within: Desire leads to sin, and sin leads to death—but endurance brings life.
- Every good gift comes from God: He never changes and gives us life through His word.
- Be doers, not hearers only: Faith must be lived out, not just heard or spoken.
- True religion is practical: It shows in caring for the vulnerable and living a holy life before God.

James 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Faith Without Works Is Dead”

No Favoritism in the Faith

1 My brothers and sisters, do not claim to have faith in our Lord Jesus Christ, the glorious Lord, while showing favoritism.

2 Suppose a man comes into your meeting wearing gold rings and fine clothes, and a poor man also comes in wearing old, dirty clothes.

3 If you show special attention to the one in fine clothes and say, "Here's a good seat for you," but say to the poor man, "You stand there" or "Sit at my feet,"

4 have you not discriminated among yourselves and become judges with evil thoughts?

5 Listen, my beloved brothers and sisters: Has not God chosen the poor in the eyes of the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom He promised to those who love Him?

6 But you have dishonored the poor. Is it not the rich who oppress you and drag you into court?

7 Do they not blaspheme the noble name by which you are called?

The Royal Law of Love

8 If you really keep the royal law found in Scripture, "Love your neighbor as yourself," you are doing right.

9 But if you show favoritism, you sin and are convicted by the law as lawbreakers.

10 For whoever keeps the whole law yet stumbles at just one point is guilty of breaking all of it.

11 For He who said, "Do not commit adultery," also said, "Do not murder." If you do not commit adultery but do commit murder, you have become a lawbreaker.

12 Speak and act as those who are going to be judged by the law that gives freedom.

13 For judgment without mercy will be shown to anyone who has not been merciful. But mercy triumphs over judgment.

Faith and Works Together

14 What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone claims to have faith but has no deeds? Can such faith save them?

15 Suppose a brother or sister is without clothes and daily food.

16 If one of you says to them, "Go in peace; keep warm and well fed," but does nothing about their physical needs, what good is it?

17 In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead.

18 But someone will say, "You have faith; I have deeds." Show me your faith without deeds, and I will show you my faith by my deeds.

19 You believe that there is one God. Good! Even the demons believe that—and they tremble.

20 You foolish person, do you need evidence that faith without deeds is useless?

21 Was not our father Abraham considered righteous for what he did when he offered his son Isaac on the altar?

22 You see that his faith and his actions worked together, and his faith was made complete by what he did.

23 And the Scripture was fulfilled that says, "Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness,” and he was called God’s friend.

24 You see that a person is considered righteous by what they do and not by faith alone.

25 In the same way, was not Rahab the prostitute considered righteous for what she did when she welcomed the spies and sent them off in a different direction?

26 As the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

Key Lessons from James 2

- No favoritism in Christ: Treating the rich better than the poor is sin; God honors those rich in faith, not in wealth.
- The royal law is love: Loving your neighbor fulfills the heart of God’s law.
- One law broken breaks all: Sin in one area makes us guilty of the whole law.
- Mercy triumphs over judgment: Show mercy to others if you expect mercy from God.
- Faith without action is dead: True faith shows itself in deeds of love and service.
- Abraham’s example: Faith and obedience worked together, proving his trust in God.
- Rahab’s example: Even unlikely people can show genuine faith by their actions.
- Living faith acts: Just as a body without breath is dead, so faith without works is lifeless.

James 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Power of the Tongue and True Wisdom”

The Responsibility of Teachers

1 My brothers and sisters, not many of you should become teachers, because you know that we who teach will be judged more strictly.

2 We all stumble in many ways. Anyone who does not stumble in what he says is a perfect person, able to keep the whole body under control.

The Tongue’s Influence

3 We put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us, and we can turn their whole bodies.

4 Or consider ships: though they are very large and driven by strong winds, they are steered by a very small rudder wherever the pilot wants to go.

5 In the same way, the tongue is a small part of the body, but it makes great boasts. Consider what a great forest is set on fire by such a small spark!

6 The tongue is also a fire, a world of evil among the parts of the body. It corrupts the whole person, sets the entire course of life on fire, and is itself set on fire by hell.

7 People have tamed all kinds of animals, birds, reptiles, and sea creatures,
8 but no one can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison.

Blessing and Cursing

9 With the tongue we bless our Lord and Father, and with it we curse human beings, who are made in God's likeness.

10 Out of the same mouth come blessing and cursing. My brothers and sisters, this should not be.

11 Can both fresh water and bitter water flow from the same spring?

12 Can a fig tree bear olives, or a grapevine bear figs? Neither can a salt spring produce fresh water.

Wisdom from Above

13 Who is wise and understanding among you? Let them show it by their good life, by deeds done in humility that comes from wisdom.

14 But if you harbor bitter envy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not boast about it or deny the truth.

15 Such wisdom does not come down from above but is earthly, unspiritual, and demonic.

16 For where you have envy and selfish ambition, there you find disorder and every evil practice.

17 But the wisdom that comes from above is first of all pure, then peace-loving, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruit, impartial and sincere.

18 Peacemakers who sow in peace reap a harvest of righteousness.

Key Lessons from James 3

- Teachers are accountable: Those who teach God's Word must live carefully, knowing they face stricter judgment.
- The tongue has great power: Though small, it can guide lives like a rudder or destroy like a fire.
- Words reveal the heart: Blessing and cursing should not come from the same mouth; our speech must reflect God's Spirit.
- Worldly wisdom corrupts: Envy and selfish ambition create disorder and sin.
- Heavenly wisdom transforms: True wisdom is pure, peace-loving, humble, merciful, and sincere.
- Peacemakers are fruitful: Those who sow peace bring forth a harvest of righteousness.

James 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Humility Before God”

Quarrels and Desires

1 What causes fights and quarrels among you? Don't they come from your desires that battle within you?

2 You want something but don't get it. You kill and covet, but you cannot have what you want. You quarrel and fight. You do not have because you do not ask God.

3 And when you do ask, you do not receive, because you ask with wrong motives—to spend it on your own pleasures.

Friendship with the World

4 You adulterous people, don't you know that friendship with the world means enmity with God? Anyone who chooses to be a friend of the world becomes an enemy of God.

5 Do you think Scripture says without reason that the Spirit He caused to live in us longs jealously?

6 But He gives us more grace. That is why Scripture says: "God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble."

Drawing Near to God

7 Submit yourselves to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

8 Come near to God and He will come near to you. Wash your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded.

9 Grieve, mourn, and weep. Change your laughter to mourning and your joy to gloom.

10 Humble yourselves before the Lord, and He will lift you up.

Warnings Against Judging Others

11 Brothers and sisters, do not slander one another. Anyone who speaks against a brother or sister or judges them speaks against the law and judges it. But if you judge the law, you are not keeping it, but sitting in judgment on it.

12 There is only one Lawgiver and Judge, the One who is able to save and destroy. Who are you to judge your neighbor?

Boasting About Tomorrow

13 Now listen, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will go to this or that city, spend a year there, carry on business, and make money."

14 Why, you do not even know what will happen tomorrow. What is your life? You are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes.

15 Instead, you ought to say, "If the Lord wills, we will live and do this or that."

16 As it is, you boast in your arrogant plans. All such boasting is evil.

17 If anyone knows the good they ought to do and doesn't do it, it is sin for them.

Key Lessons from James 4

- Desires cause conflict: Worldly cravings lead to quarrels, frustration, and unanswered prayers.
- Friendship with the world is enmity with God: Pursuing worldly pleasures makes us God’s enemies.
- Grace for the humble: God resists the proud but draws near to those who submit to Him.
- Spiritual closeness requires repentance: Cleansing hearts, humbling ourselves, and resisting the devil brings God’s presence.
- Do not judge others: God alone is Judge and Lawgiver; we must walk in humility.
- Life is fragile: Our days are like a vapor—plans must always submit to “If the Lord wills.”
- Neglecting good is sin: Knowing what is right but failing to do it brings guilt before God.

James 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Patience, Prayer, and Restoration”

Warning to the Rich

- 1 Now listen, you rich people, weep and wail because of the misery that is coming on you.
- 2 Your wealth has rotted, and moths have eaten your clothes.
- 3 Your gold and silver are corroded. Their corrosion will testify against you and eat your flesh like fire. You have hoarded wealth in the last days.
- 4 Look! The wages you failed to pay the workers who mowed your fields are crying out against you. The cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord of Hosts.
- 5 You have lived in luxury and self-indulgence on earth. You have fattened yourselves in the day of slaughter.
- 6 You have condemned and murdered the innocent one, who was not opposing you.

Patience Until the Lord’s Coming

- 7 Be patient, brothers and sisters, until the Lord’s coming. See how the farmer waits for the precious crop of the land, patiently waiting for the autumn and spring rains.
- 8 You too, be patient and stand firm, because the Lord’s coming is near.
- 9 Don’t grumble against one another, brothers and sisters, or you will be judged. The Judge is standing at the door!
- 10 Brothers and sisters, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord as an example of patience in the face of suffering.
- 11 As you know, we count as blessed those who have endured. You have heard of Job’s perseverance and have seen what the Lord finally brought about. The Lord is full of compassion and mercy.

Truthful Speech

12 Above all, my brothers and sisters, do not swear—by heaven or by earth or by anything else. Let your “Yes” be yes, and your “No” be no, so that you will not fall under judgment.

The Power of Prayer

13 Is anyone among you in trouble? Let them pray. Is anyone happy? Let them sing songs of praise.

14 Is anyone among you sick? Let them call the elders of the church to pray over them and anoint them with oil in the name of the Lord.

15 The prayer of faith will make the sick person well; the Lord will raise them up. If they have sinned, they will be forgiven.

16 Therefore confess your sins to one another and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person is powerful and effective.

17 Elijah was a human being, even as we are. He prayed earnestly that it would not rain, and it did not rain on the land for three and a half years.

18 Again he prayed, and the heavens gave rain, and the earth produced its crops.

Restoring the Wandering

19 My brothers and sisters, if one of you should wander from the truth and someone should bring that person back, 20 remember this: whoever turns a sinner from the error of their way will save them from death and cover over a multitude of sins.

Key Lessons from James 5

- Wealth cannot save: Riches that are hoarded or gained unjustly will testify against those who misuse them.
- The Lord is coming soon: Believers are called to patience and endurance, just like the prophets and Job.
- Watch your words: Be truthful; let your yes mean yes and your no mean no.
- Prayer is powerful: Prayer brings healing, forgiveness, and restoration. The earnest prayer of a righteous person is effective.
- Community matters: Confession, intercession, and mutual care bring strength and healing to the body of Christ.
- Restoration saves lives: Turning someone back to the truth rescues them from death and covers many sins.

Introduction to the Book of 1 Peter

“Instead, you must worship Christ as Lord of your life. And if someone asks about your hope as a believer, always be ready to explain it.” – 1 Peter 3:15

Title and Meaning

The book of 1 Peter is a letter written to Christians scattered throughout Asia Minor (modern-day Turkey). Its title reflects its author, the apostle Peter, one of Jesus’ closest disciples and a leader of the early church. This letter is often called the “Epistle of Hope” because it encourages believers to stand firm in faith and live holy lives, even while suffering persecution.

Author and Date

The author is Peter, the apostle (1 Peter 1:1). He wrote this letter around AD 62–64, likely from Rome, which he refers to symbolically as “Babylon” (1 Peter 5:13). This was during the reign of Emperor Nero, a time when Christians were facing growing hostility.

Purpose of 1 Peter

Peter wrote to strengthen believers who were experiencing trials and persecution. His purposes include:

- To encourage Christians to stand firm in faith amid suffering.
 - To remind them of their identity as God’s chosen people.
 - To call believers to live holy and godly lives as witnesses to the world.
 - To provide hope in the promise of eternal inheritance in Christ.
 - To teach that suffering for Christ is a privilege and part of God’s plan.

Structure of 1 Peter

The letter blends encouragement with practical instruction for Christian living:

1. Salvation and Hope in Christ (Ch. 1:1–2:10)

Believers are chosen by God, given a living hope, and called to holiness.

2. Living as God’s People in a Hostile World (Ch. 2:11–4:11)

Guidance for submitting to authority, enduring injustice, and showing love.

❖ 3. Suffering and Glory in Christ (Ch. 4:12–5:14)

Encouragement to endure suffering faithfully, with the promise of God’s eternal glory.

Major Themes

- Hope in Suffering – Trials refine faith and point to eternal glory.
 - Holiness – God’s people are called to live differently from the world.
 - Identity in Christ – Believers are chosen, royal, and holy (1 Peter 2:9).
 - Submission and Witness – Faithful living honors God and impacts others.
 - Shepherding and Leadership – Church leaders are called to humbly care for God’s flock.

Why 1 Peter Matters Today

1 Peter speaks directly to believers living in a world where faith often collides with opposition. It reminds us that our suffering is not meaningless but part of God’s refining work. It calls Christians to live holy, hope-filled lives that point others to Christ. In times of hardship, 1 Peter anchors us in the eternal inheritance waiting for us in heaven.

Key Verse

“Instead, you must worship Christ as Lord of your life. And if someone asks about your hope as a believer, always be ready to explain it.” – 1 Peter 3:15

This verse captures the heart of 1 Peter: hope in Christ shapes how we live and how we witness, even in suffering.

1 Peter 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Living Hope Through Christ”

Greeting

1 From Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to God’s chosen people, strangers scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,

2 chosen according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through the sanctifying work of the Spirit, to be obedient to Jesus Christ and sprinkled with His blood: Grace and peace be yours in abundance.

A Living Hope

3 Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In His great mercy He has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

4 and into an inheritance that can never perish, spoil, or fade—kept in heaven for you.

5 Through faith you are shielded by God’s power until the coming of the salvation that is ready to be revealed in the last time.

6 In this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while you may have to suffer grief in all kinds of trials.

7 These trials show that the proven genuineness of your faith—of greater worth than gold, which perishes even though refined by fire—may result in praise, glory, and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed.

8 Though you have not seen Him, you love Him. Even though you do not see Him now, you believe in Him and are filled with a joy that is inexpressible and full of glory,

9 for you are receiving the end result of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

Salvation Revealed in Christ

10 Concerning this salvation, the prophets searched and carefully investigated, as they spoke of the grace that was to come to you.

11 They tried to find out the time and circumstances to which the Spirit of Christ in them was pointing when He predicted the sufferings of Christ and the glories that would follow.

12 It was revealed to them that they were not serving themselves but you, when they spoke of the things that have now been told to you by those who preached the gospel by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven. Even angels long to look into these things.

Be Holy

13 Therefore, prepare your minds for action. Be alert and set your hope fully on the grace to be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ.

14 As obedient children, do not conform to the desires you had when you lived in ignorance.

15 But just as He who called you is holy, so be holy in all that you do.

16 For it is written: “Be holy, because I am holy.”

17 Since you call on a Father who judges each person’s work impartially, live out your time as foreigners here in reverent fear.

18 For you know that it was not with perishable things such as silver or gold that you were redeemed from the empty way of life handed down to you from your ancestors,

19 but with the precious blood of Christ, a lamb without blemish or defect.

20 He was chosen before the creation of the world but was revealed in these last times for your sake.

21 Through Him you believe in God, who raised Him from the dead and glorified Him, so your faith and hope are in God.

Love One Another Deeply

22 Now that you have purified yourselves by obeying the truth through the Spirit, so that you have sincere love for each other, love one another deeply from a pure heart.

23 For you have been born again, not of perishable seed, but of imperishable, through the living and enduring word of God.

24 For,
“All people are like grass, and all their glory is like the flowers of the field;
the grass withers and the flowers fall,
25 but the word of the Lord endures forever.”

And this is the word that was preached to you in the gospel.

Key Lessons from 1 Peter 1

- New birth in Christ: Our hope is secure because it rests on the resurrection of Jesus.
- Trials refine faith: Suffering proves and strengthens faith, which is more valuable than gold.
- Love unseen Christ: Faith brings joy and salvation, even though we do not see Jesus with our eyes.
- God’s plan foretold: The prophets longed to understand the salvation now revealed to us in Christ.
- Be holy as God is holy: Believers are called to live differently, reflecting the holiness of God.
- Redeemed by Christ’s blood: Our salvation was purchased not with wealth but with the spotless blood of Christ.
- The Word endures forever: Unlike human glory that fades, God’s Word stands eternal.

1 Peter 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Living as God’s People”

Growing in the Word

1 So rid yourselves of all malice, deceit, hypocrisy, envy, and slander of every kind.
2 Like newborn babies, crave the pure milk of the Word, so that by it you may grow in your salvation,
3 now that you have tasted that the Lord is good.

The Living Stone and God’s People

4 As you come to Him, the Living Stone—rejected by people but chosen and precious in God’s sight—
5 you also, like living stones, are being built into a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, offering spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

6 For Scripture says:

“See, I lay a stone in Zion,
a chosen and precious cornerstone,

and the one who trusts in Him will never be put to shame.”

7 To you who believe, this stone is precious. But to those who do not believe:

“The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone,”

8 and,

“A stone that causes people to stumble
and a rock that makes them fall.”

They stumble because they disobey the Word, as they were destined to do.

9 But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God’s own possession, so that you may declare the praises of Him who called you out of darkness into His wonderful light.

10 Once you were not a people, but now you are the people of God; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.

Living Good Lives Among the Nations

11 Dear friends, I urge you, as foreigners and exiles, to abstain from sinful desires, which wage war against your soul.

12 Live such good lives among the unbelievers that, though they accuse you of doing wrong, they may see your good deeds and glorify God on the day He visits us.

Submission to Authority

13 Submit yourselves for the Lord’s sake to every human authority: whether to the king, who is supreme,

14 or to governors, who are sent by him to punish those who do wrong and to commend those who do right.

15 For it is God’s will that by doing good you should silence the ignorance of foolish people.

16 Live as free people, but do not use your freedom as a cover-up for evil; live as servants of God.

17 Show proper respect to everyone, love the family of believers, fear God, honor the king.

Christ’s Example in Suffering

18 Servants, submit yourselves to your masters with all respect—not only to those who are good and kind, but also to those who are harsh.

19 For it is commendable if someone bears up under the pain of unjust suffering because they are mindful of God.

20 But how is it to your credit if you receive a beating for doing wrong and endure it? But if you suffer for doing good and endure it, this is commendable before God.

21 To this you were called, because Christ suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow in His steps.

22 “He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in His mouth.”

23 When they hurled insults at Him, He did not retaliate; when He suffered, He made no threats.

Instead, He entrusted Himself to Him who judges justly.

24 He Himself bore our sins in His body on the cross, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness. “By His wounds you have been healed.”

25 For you were like sheep going astray, but now you have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

Key Lessons from 1 Peter 2

- Spiritual growth requires purity: Put away sin and crave God’s Word like newborns crave milk.
- Christ is the Living Stone: Rejected by people but chosen by God, He is the foundation of our faith.
- God’s people have a new identity: Believers are a chosen people, called to proclaim God’s light and mercy.
- Live honorably before the world: Good works silence false accusations and glorify God.
- Submit to authority: Respect and obedience reflect God’s will, as long as He remains our highest allegiance.
- Endure unjust suffering: Patience in hardship shows faith, following Christ’s example.
- Christ bore our sins: His wounds bring our healing, and His sacrifice calls us back to God as our Shepherd.

1 Peter 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Living in Harmony and Suffering for Righteousness”

Wives and Husbands

1 Wives, in the same way, submit yourselves to your own husbands, so that if any of them do not believe the word, they may be won over without words by the behavior of their wives,

2 when they see the purity and reverence of your lives.

3 Your beauty should not come from outward adornment, such as elaborate hairstyles, gold jewelry, or fine clothes.

4 Instead, it should be that of your inner self, the unfading beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is of great worth in God’s sight.

5 For this is how the holy women of the past who put their hope in God adorned themselves. They submitted themselves to their own husbands,

6 like Sarah, who obeyed Abraham and called him her lord. You are her daughters if you do what is right and do not give way to fear.

7 Husbands, in the same way, be considerate as you live with your wives, and treat them with honor as the weaker vessel and as heirs with you of the gracious gift of life, so that nothing will hinder your prayers.

Living in Unity

8 Finally, all of you, be like-minded, sympathetic, love one another, be compassionate and humble.

9 Do not repay evil with evil or insult with insult. On the contrary, repay with blessing, because to this you were called so that you may inherit a blessing.

10 For,

“Whoever would love life and see good days

must keep their tongue from evil and their lips from deceitful speech.

11 They must turn from evil and do good;

they must seek peace and pursue it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous and His ears are attentive to their prayer, but the face of the Lord is against those who do evil.”

Suffering for Doing Good

13 Who is going to harm you if you are eager to do good?

14 But even if you should suffer for what is right, you are blessed. “Do not fear their threats; do not be frightened.”

15 But in your hearts set apart Christ as Lord. Always be ready to give an answer to anyone who asks you the reason for the hope you have. But do this with gentleness and respect, 16 keeping a clear conscience, so that those who speak maliciously against your good behavior in Christ may be ashamed of their slander.

17 For it is better, if it is God’s will, to suffer for doing good than for doing evil.

Christ’s Example of Suffering

18 For Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, to bring you to God. He was put to death in the body but made alive by the Spirit.

19 After being made alive, He went and proclaimed to the imprisoned spirits—

20 to those who were disobedient long ago when God waited patiently in the days of Noah while the ark was being built. In it only a few people, eight in all, were saved through water.

21 And this water symbolizes baptism that now saves you also—not the removal of dirt from the body but the pledge of a clear conscience toward God. It saves you by the resurrection of Jesus Christ,

22 who has gone into heaven and is at God’s right hand—with angels, authorities, and powers in submission to Him.

Key Lessons from 1 Peter 3

- True beauty is inward: God values a gentle and quiet spirit over outward appearance.
- Marriage is a partnership: Wives are called to respectful submission, and husbands must honor their wives as equal heirs of God's grace.
- Unity in the church: Believers must live in harmony, showing compassion, humility, and love.
- Respond with blessing, not revenge: Repaying evil with good brings God's blessing.
- Suffering for righteousness is an honor: Enduring hardship for Christ reflects true hope and faith.
- Always be ready to testify: Share your faith with gentleness and respect, pointing to the hope you have in Christ.
- Baptism symbolizes salvation: Not as an outward washing, but as a pledge of a clean conscience made possible through Christ's resurrection.
- Christ reigns supreme: He suffered for our sins, rose again, and now rules over all spiritual powers.

1 Peter 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Living for God and Rejoicing in Suffering”

Living for God's Will

1 Since Christ suffered in His body, arm yourselves with the same mindset, because whoever suffers in the body is done with sin.

2 As a result, they do not live the rest of their earthly lives for human desires, but for the will of God.

3 You have spent enough time in the past doing what the unbelievers choose to do—living in debauchery, lust, drunkenness, wild parties, drinking bouts, and detestable idolatries.

4 They are surprised that you do not join them in their reckless, wild living, and they slander you.

5 But they will have to give account to Him who is ready to judge the living and the dead.

6 For this is the reason the gospel was preached even to those who are now dead, so that they might be judged according to human standards in regard to the body, but live according to God in the spirit.

Love, Service, and Prayer

7 The end of all things is near. Therefore be alert and sober-minded so that you may pray.

8 Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers a multitude of sins.

9 Offer hospitality to one another without grumbling.

10 Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms.

11 If anyone speaks, they should do so as one who speaks the very words of God. If anyone serves, they should do so with the strength God provides, so that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ. To Him be the glory and power forever and ever. Amen.

Rejoicing in Suffering

12 Dear friends, do not be surprised at the fiery trial that has come on you to test you, as though something strange were happening to you.

13 But rejoice that you participate in the sufferings of Christ, so that you may be overjoyed when His glory is revealed.

14 If you are insulted because of the name of Christ, you are blessed, for the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you.

15 If you suffer, it should not be as a murderer or thief or any other kind of criminal, or even as a meddler.

16 However, if you suffer as a Christian, do not be ashamed, but praise God that you bear that name.

Judgment and Trust in God

17 For it is time for judgment to begin with God's household; and if it begins with us, what will the outcome be for those who do not obey the gospel of God?

18 And,

“If it is hard for the righteous to be saved, what will become of the ungodly and the sinner?”

19 So then, those who suffer according to God's will should commit themselves to their faithful Creator and continue to do good.

Key Lessons from 1 Peter 4

- Suffering ends sin's power: Living with Christ's mindset breaks the grip of worldly desires.
- Live for God, not the past: Believers must leave behind sinful lifestyles and live for God's will.
- The end is near: Stay sober, prayerful, and devoted to love, which covers many sins.
- Serve faithfully: Use your gifts for others, speaking and serving with God's strength to bring Him glory.
- Rejoice in trials: Sharing Christ's sufferings brings blessing now and joy when His glory is revealed.
- Suffering for Christ is honorable: Do not be ashamed, but glorify God when you are insulted for His name.
- Judgment begins with God's people: This should stir holy living, knowing the ungodly face even greater judgment.

- Trust God in suffering: Commit your soul to the faithful Creator and continue to do what is good.

1 Peter 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Shepherding God’s Flock and Standing Firm in Faith”

Instructions for Elders and the Church

1 To the elders among you, I appeal as a fellow elder, a witness of Christ’s sufferings, and one who will share in the glory to be revealed:

2 Be shepherds of God’s flock that is under your care, watching over them not because you must, but willingly, as God wants you to be; not greedy for money, but eager to serve.

3 Do not lord it over those entrusted to you, but be examples to the flock.

4 And when the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the crown of glory that will never fade away.

5 In the same way, you who are younger, submit yourselves to your elders. All of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, because,

“God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble.”

6 Humble yourselves under God’s mighty hand, that He may lift you up in due time.

7 Cast all your anxiety on Him because He cares for you.

Be Alert and Resist the Devil

8 Be sober-minded and watchful. Your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, looking for someone to devour.

9 Resist him, standing firm in the faith, because you know that the family of believers throughout the world is undergoing the same kind of sufferings.

10 And the God of all grace, who called you to His eternal glory in Christ, after you have suffered a little while, will Himself restore you and make you strong, firm, and steadfast.

11 To Him be the power forever and ever. Amen.

Final Greetings

12 With the help of Silvanus, whom I regard as a faithful brother, I have written briefly to you, encouraging you and testifying that this is the true grace of God. Stand fast in it.

13 She who is in Babylon, chosen together with you, sends you greetings, and so does my son Mark.

14 Greet one another with a kiss of love. Peace to all of you who are in Christ. Amen.

Key Lessons from 1 Peter 5

- Leaders must shepherd humbly: Elders are called to care for God’s people willingly, not for selfish gain, but by example.
- Christ is the Chief Shepherd: Faithful leaders will receive an eternal crown of glory when He appears.
- Humility brings grace: God resists the proud but blesses the humble, so believers must submit to one another.
- God cares for His people: Cast all worries and burdens on Him, for He cares deeply.
- Stay alert against the enemy: The devil seeks to destroy, but faith and steadfastness bring victory.
- Suffering is temporary: God will use trials to strengthen, restore, and establish His people.
- Stand firm in grace: The true grace of God sustains believers until Christ’s return.

Introduction to the Book of 2 Peter

“By his divine power, God has given us everything we need for living a godly life.” – 2 Peter 1:3

Title and Meaning

The book of 2 Peter is the apostle Peter’s final letter to believers, written shortly before his death. Its title reflects its author and recipient. While 1 Peter focuses on encouragement in suffering, 2 Peter warns against false teachers and urges believers to grow in godliness. It is often called a letter of remembrance and warning, stressing the importance of staying grounded in God’s Word until Christ’s return.

Author and Date

The apostle Peter is the author (2 Peter 1:1). He refers to his approaching death (2 Peter 1:14), which tradition places during Emperor Nero’s reign (AD 64–68). The letter was likely written around AD 65–67, making it one of the last New Testament books written.

Purpose of 2 Peter

Peter wrote this letter to prepare believers for the dangers of false teaching and to remind them of the certainty of Christ’s return. His purposes include:

- To encourage spiritual growth in grace and knowledge.
 - To warn against false teachers who twist the truth.
 - To remind believers of the authority and reliability of Scripture.
 - To affirm the coming judgment and the return of Christ.
 - To call Christians to live holy and blameless lives while waiting for the Lord.

Structure of 2 Peter

The letter moves from growth in faith to warning against error to hope in Christ's return:

📖 1. Growing in Grace and Knowledge (Ch. 1)

Believers are called to add to their faith and remember the truth of God's promises.

⚠️ 2. Warning Against False Teachers (Ch. 2)

Peter exposes the dangers and destruction of corrupt teachers.

✡️ 3. The Day of the Lord (Ch. 3)

Peter reassures believers of Christ's promised return and urges holy living in light of eternity.

Major Themes

- Spiritual Growth – True faith is marked by continual growth in godliness.
 - False Teaching – Believers must discern and reject destructive lies.
 - The Authority of Scripture – God's Word is reliable and inspired by the Spirit.
 - The Return of Christ – The Lord's timing is perfect; His promise will be fulfilled.
 - Holy Living – Christians are called to live in holiness as they await Christ's return.

Why 2 Peter Matters Today

2 Peter warns against spiritual deception and calls believers to remain steadfast in truth. In an age of false teachings, skepticism, and moral compromise, its message is more relevant than ever. It reminds us that Christ is coming again, that God's Word is trustworthy, and that we must grow daily in faith, knowledge, and holiness.

Key Verse

“By his divine power, God has given us everything we need for living a godly life.” – 2 Peter 1:3

This verse captures the essence of 2 Peter: God equips His people with all they need to remain faithful until Christ's return.

2 Peter 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Growing in God’s Promises”

Greeting

1 From Simon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who share the same precious faith we have, received through the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ:

2 Grace and peace be multiplied to you through the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord.

Growing in Godly Virtue

3 By His divine power, God has given us everything we need for life and godliness through our knowledge of Him who called us by His own glory and goodness.

4 Through these He has given us His very great and precious promises, so that through them you may participate in the divine nature, having escaped the corruption in the world caused by sinful desires.

5 For this very reason, make every effort to add to your faith goodness; and to goodness, knowledge;

6 and to knowledge, self-control; and to self-control, perseverance; and to perseverance, godliness;

7 and to godliness, mutual affection; and to mutual affection, love.

8 For if these qualities are yours and increasing, they will keep you from being ineffective and unfruitful in your knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 But whoever does not have them is nearsighted and blind, forgetting that they have been cleansed from their past sins.

10 Therefore, brothers and sisters, be diligent to confirm your calling and election. For if you do these things, you will never stumble, 11 and you will receive a rich welcome into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Peter’s Reminder Before Death

12 So I will always remind you of these things, even though you know them and are firmly established in the truth you now have.

13 I think it is right, as long as I live in this body, to stir you up by reminding you,

14 because I know that I will soon put it aside, as our Lord Jesus Christ has made clear to me.

15 And I will make every effort so that after my departure you will always remember these things.

The Majesty of Christ

16 For we did not follow cleverly invented stories when we told you about the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of His majesty.

17 For He received honor and glory from God the Father when the voice came to Him from the Majestic Glory, saying, “This is My beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.”

18 We ourselves heard this voice that came from heaven when we were with Him on the holy mountain.

The Sure Word of Prophecy

19 We also have the prophetic message as something completely reliable, and you will do well to pay attention to it, as to a light shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts.

20 Above all, you must understand that no prophecy of Scripture comes from someone's own interpretation.

21 For prophecy never had its origin in the will of man, but men spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.

Key Lessons from 2 Peter 1

- God gives all we need: His power equips believers with everything for life and godliness.
- Add to your faith: Growth is intentional, building on faith with goodness, knowledge, self-control, perseverance, godliness, brotherly kindness, and love.
- Spiritual fruit proves salvation: A fruitful life shows we remember Christ's cleansing power.
- Be reminded often: Even mature believers need continual reminders of truth.
- Peter's eyewitness account: The apostles saw Christ's glory and heard God's voice on the mountain.
- The Word is reliable: Scripture is not man-made but God-inspired, given by the Holy Spirit.

2 Peter 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“False Teachers and Their Judgment”

The Rise of False Teachers

1 But just as there were false prophets among the people, there will also be false teachers among you. They will secretly introduce destructive heresies—even denying the Lord who bought them—and bring swift destruction on themselves.

2 Many will follow their shameful ways, and because of them the way of truth will be slandered.

3 In their greed they will exploit you with fabricated stories. Their condemnation has long been hanging over them, and their destruction is not asleep.

Examples of God's Judgment

4 For if God did not spare the angels when they sinned, but cast them into hell, putting them in chains of darkness to be held for judgment;

5 if He did not spare the ancient world when He brought the flood on its ungodly people, but protected Noah, a preacher of righteousness, and seven others;
6 if He condemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah by burning them to ashes, making them an example of what will happen to the ungodly;
7 and if He rescued Lot, a righteous man who was distressed by the depraved conduct of the lawless—
8 for that righteous man, living among them day after day, was tormented in his righteous soul by the lawless deeds he saw and heard—
9 then the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from trials and to hold the unrighteous for punishment on the day of judgment.

The Character of False Teachers

10 This is especially true of those who follow the corrupt desire of the flesh and despise authority. Bold and arrogant, they are not afraid to heap abuse on heavenly beings;
11 yet even angels, though greater in power and might, do not bring slanderous accusations against such beings before the Lord.

12 But these people are like irrational animals, creatures of instinct, born to be caught and destroyed. They speak abusively about things they do not understand, and they will perish in their own corruption.
13 They will be paid back with harm for the harm they have done. They consider it a pleasure to carouse in broad daylight. They are blots and blemishes, reveling in their deceptions while they feast with you.

14 With eyes full of adultery, they never stop sinning; they seduce the unstable. They are experts in greed—an accursed brood!

15 They have left the straight way and wandered off to follow the way of Balaam son of Beor, who loved the wages of wickedness.

16 But he was rebuked for his wrongdoing by a donkey—a beast without speech—who spoke with a human voice and restrained the prophet’s madness.

Empty Promises of False Teachers

17 These people are wells without water and mists driven by a storm. Blackest darkness is reserved for them.

18 For they mouth empty, boastful words and, by appealing to lustful desires of the flesh, they entice people who are just escaping from those who live in error.

19 They promise freedom, while they themselves are slaves of corruption—for people are slaves to whatever has mastered them.

20 If they have escaped the corruption of the world by knowing our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, and are again entangled in it and overcome, they are worse off at the end than they were at the beginning.

21 It would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than to know it and then turn their backs on the holy command delivered to them.

22 Of them the proverbs are true: “A dog returns to its vomit,” and, “A sow that is washed goes back to her wallowing in the mud.”

Key Lessons from 2 Peter 2

- False teachers are certain to come: They secretly introduce destructive heresies and lead many astray.
- God's judgment is sure: Just as He judged angels, the ancient world, and Sodom and Gomorrah, He will judge the ungodly.
- God rescues the righteous: As He saved Noah and Lot, He knows how to deliver His people from trials.
- False teachers are arrogant and corrupt: They despise authority, speak with ignorance, and live for greed and lust.
- Their promises are empty: They promise freedom but are themselves enslaved by sin.
- Turning back is worse than never knowing: Those who reject Christ after knowing Him face greater condemnation.
- A tragic picture: Like dogs returning to vomit or pigs to mud, those who abandon Christ fall back into corruption.

2 Peter 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Day of the Lord and the Promise of His Coming”

A Reminder of God's Word

1 Dear friends, this is now my second letter to you. In both of them I have tried to stir up your sincere minds by reminding you

2 to recall the words spoken in the past by the holy prophets and the command given by our Lord and Savior through your apostles.

Scoffers in the Last Days

3 Above all, you must understand that in the last days scoffers will come, following their own evil desires.

4 They will say, “Where is this ‘coming’ He promised? Ever since our ancestors died, everything goes on as it has since the beginning of creation.”

5 But they deliberately forget that long ago by God's word the heavens came into being and the earth was formed out of water and by water.

6 By these waters also the world of that time was deluged and destroyed.

7 By the same word the present heavens and earth are reserved for fire, being kept for the day of judgment and destruction of the ungodly.

God's Patience and Promise

8 But do not forget this one thing, dear friends: With the Lord a day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like a day.

9 The Lord is not slow in keeping His promise, as some understand slowness. Instead He is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance.

10 But the day of the Lord will come like a thief. The heavens will disappear with a roar; the elements will be destroyed by fire, and the earth and everything in it will be laid bare.

Living in Expectation

11 Since everything will be destroyed in this way, what kind of people ought you to be? You ought to live holy and godly lives,

12 as you look forward to the day of God and speed its coming. That day will bring about the destruction of the heavens by fire, and the elements will melt in the heat.

13 But in keeping with His promise we are looking forward to a new heaven and a new earth, where righteousness dwells.

14 So then, dear friends, since you are looking forward to this, make every effort to be found spotless, blameless, and at peace with Him.

15 Bear in mind that our Lord's patience means salvation, just as our dear brother Paul also wrote to you with the wisdom God gave him.

16 He writes the same way in all his letters, speaking in them of these matters. His letters contain some things that are hard to understand, which ignorant and unstable people distort—as they do the other Scriptures—to their own destruction.

Final Exhortation

17 Therefore, dear friends, since you have been forewarned, be on your guard so that you may not be carried away by the error of the lawless and fall from your secure position.

18 But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To Him be glory both now and forever! Amen.

Key Lessons from 2 Peter 3

- Remember God's Word: The prophets and apostles spoke of Christ's coming and the need for holiness.
- Scoffers will deny His return: They will question God's promises, but judgment is certain.
- God's patience is mercy: The Lord delays judgment so that more people may repent and be saved.
- The Day of the Lord will come suddenly: It will arrive like a thief, bringing fiery judgment and renewal.

- Live with eternity in view: Holiness, godliness, and expectation of the new heavens and new earth should shape our lives.
- Paul’s writings agree: Peter affirms Paul’s letters, though some twist them to their destruction.
- Stay steadfast and grow: Guard against error, stand firm in truth, and keep growing in grace and in the knowledge of Christ.

Introduction to the Book of 1 John

“I have written this to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know you have eternal life.” – 1 John 5:13

Title and Meaning

The book of 1 John is a letter written by the apostle John, though it does not name its author. Its title comes from early church tradition, which strongly associates it with John, the beloved disciple of Jesus. Unlike Paul’s letters, 1 John does not follow a formal epistolary structure; instead, it reads like a pastoral sermon or circular letter. Its primary focus is on truth, love, and assurance, helping believers know they are truly in Christ.

Author and Date

The author is traditionally identified as John, the apostle and author of the Gospel of John and Revelation. His style and vocabulary—light, love, truth, eternal life—mirror those found in his other writings. 1 John was likely written around AD 85–95, near the end of John’s life, from Ephesus to the surrounding churches.

Purpose of 1 John

John wrote this letter to combat false teaching and to provide believers with confidence in their faith. His purposes include:

- To expose false teachers who denied Christ’s incarnation and promoted lawlessness.
 - To assure believers of their salvation and eternal life in Christ.
 - To emphasize the necessity of love as the mark of true Christian faith.
 - To call believers to walk in the light and reject sin.
 - To remind Christians of the reality of fellowship with God and one another.

Structure of 1 John

The letter does not follow a strict outline but revolves around cycles of themes:

📖 1. Walking in the Light (Ch. 1:1–2:14)

God is light; believers are called to walk in the light and obey His commands.

⚡ 2. Warning Against the World and Antichrists (Ch. 2:15–27)

John warns against love of the world and deception by false teachers.

🌿 3. Living as God's Children (Chs. 2:28–4:6)

God's children practice righteousness, love one another, and test the spirits.

❤️ 4. The Call to Love (Ch. 4:7–21)

God is love, and His people are to reflect His love.

🕊️ 5. Assurance of Eternal Life (Ch. 5)

Faith in Christ brings victory, confidence in prayer, and assurance of eternal life.

Major Themes

- Light vs. Darkness – Believers must walk in God's truth and holiness.
 - Love as Evidence of Faith – Genuine faith is shown through love for others.
 - Christ's Incarnation – Jesus is fully God and fully man, the Son of God who came in the flesh.
 - Assurance of Salvation – Believers can know they have eternal life.
 - Victory in Christ – Faith in Jesus overcomes the world.

Why 1 John Matters Today

In a world of confusion, compromise, and false teaching, 1 John provides clarity and confidence. It reminds us that truth and love cannot be separated: true faith in Christ produces a life of obedience and love for others. It also assures believers that eternal life is not a vague hope but a present reality through Jesus Christ.

Key Verse

“I have written this to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know you have eternal life.” – 1 John 5:13

This verse captures the heart of 1 John: believers can have certainty, not doubt, about their salvation in Christ.

1 John 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God Is Light”

The Word of Life

1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked at and touched with our hands—this we proclaim concerning the Word of life.

2 The life appeared; we have seen it and testify to it, and we proclaim to you the eternal life, which was with the Father and has appeared to us.

3 We proclaim to you what we have seen and heard, so that you also may have fellowship with us. And truly our fellowship is with the Father and with His Son, Jesus Christ.

4 We write these things to you so that your joy may be complete.

God Is Light

5 This is the message we have heard from Him and declare to you: God is light; in Him there is no darkness at all.

6 If we claim to have fellowship with Him and yet walk in darkness, we lie and do not live by the truth.

7 But if we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus, His Son, purifies us from all sin.

Confessing Our Sins

8 If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

9 If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 If we claim we have not sinned, we make Him out to be a liar, and His word is not in us.

Key Lessons from 1 John 1

- Jesus is the Word of life: The apostles personally saw, heard, and touched Him—He is the eternal life revealed.
- Fellowship is through Christ: True unity is found in relationship with the Father and the Son.
- God is light: In Him there is no darkness—walking with Him means living in truth and holiness.
- The blood of Jesus cleanses: Walking in the light brings fellowship and purification from all sin.
- Confession brings forgiveness: God is faithful and just to forgive and cleanse when we confess our sins.
- Denial is self-deception: Claiming to be without sin rejects the truth and calls God a liar.

1 John 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Walking in the Light and Abiding in Christ”

Christ Our Advocate

1 My dear children, I am writing this to you so that you will not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an Advocate who pleads our case before the Father—Jesus Christ, the Righteous One.

2 He Himself is the sacrifice that atones for our sins—and not only for ours but also for the sins of the whole world.

Obedience and Love

3 We can be sure that we truly know Him if we keep His commandments.

4 If someone says, “I know God,” but does not obey His commandments, that person is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But whoever obeys God’s word, in that person the love of God is made complete. This is how we know we are in Him.

6 Whoever claims to live in Him must live as Jesus lived.

7 Dear friends, I am not writing a new commandment to you, but an old one you have had from the beginning. This old commandment is the message you have already heard.

8 Yet I am writing a new command, which is true in Him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining.

9 If anyone claims to be in the light but hates his brother, he is still in darkness.

10 Whoever loves his brother lives in the light, and there is nothing in him to make him stumble.

11 But whoever hates his brother is in darkness and walks in darkness. He does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

Encouragement to Believers

12 I am writing to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven for His name’s sake.

13 I am writing to you, fathers, because you know Him who is from the beginning.

I am writing to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one.

I am writing to you, children, because you know the Father.

14 I have written to you, fathers, because you know Him who is from the beginning.

I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, the word of God lives in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

Do Not Love the World

15 Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For everything in the world—the desires of the flesh, the desires of the eyes, and the pride of life—comes not from the Father but from the world.

17 The world and its desires are passing away, but whoever does the will of God lives forever.

Warning About Antichrists

18 Dear children, this is the last hour; and as you have heard that the antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have appeared. This is how we know it is the last hour.

19 They went out from us, but they were not really part of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us. But they went out, showing that none of them truly belonged to us.

20 But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you all know the truth.

21 I am not writing to you because you do not know the truth, but because you do know it, and no lie comes from the truth.

22 Who is the liar? It is the one who denies that Jesus is the Christ. Such a person is the antichrist—denying the Father and the Son.

23 Whoever denies the Son does not have the Father either. But whoever acknowledges the Son has the Father also.

24 Therefore, let what you have heard from the beginning remain in you. If it does, you will continue in the Son and in the Father.

25 And this is what He promised us—even eternal life.

26 I am writing these things to you about those who are trying to deceive you.

27 But the anointing you received from Him remains in you, and you do not need anyone to teach you. His anointing teaches you about all things, and it is true and not a lie. Just as it has taught you, remain in Him.

Abide in Christ

28 And now, dear children, continue in Him, so that when He appears we may have confidence and not shrink back in shame at His coming.

29 If you know that He is righteous, then you know that everyone who practices righteousness has been born of Him.

Key Lessons from 1 John 2

- Christ is our Advocate: When we sin, Jesus pleads for us before the Father.
- Obedience proves love: To know Him means to keep His commands.
- Love is the true light: Hatred is evidence of darkness; love is evidence of light.
- Spiritual growth stages: Children know the Father, young men overcome the evil one, fathers know the Eternal God.
- Do not love the world: The desires of flesh, eyes, and pride are temporary; only doing God's will lasts forever.
- Antichrists deny Christ: Denying Jesus as Messiah is rejecting both the Son and the Father.
- Anointing of the Spirit: Believers have the Holy Spirit guiding them in truth.

- Confidence at Christ's coming: Living in Christ now ensures we will not be ashamed when He returns.

1 John 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Children of God and the Call to Love”

God's Amazing Love

1 See how great a love the Father has given us—that we should be called the children of God! And that is what we are. The world does not recognize us, because it did not recognize Him.

2 Beloved, we are now God's children, but it has not yet been revealed what we shall be. We know that when Christ appears, we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He truly is.

3 And everyone who has this hope purifies himself, just as He is pure.

Sin and Righteousness

4 Everyone who practices sin also practices lawlessness, for sin is lawlessness.

5 But you know that Christ appeared to take away our sins, and in Him there is no sin.

6 Whoever abides in Him does not continue in sin. Whoever continues in sin has not seen Him or known Him.

7 Little children, don't let anyone deceive you. The one who does what is right is righteous, just as He is righteous.

8 But the one who practices sin belongs to the devil, because the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The Son of God appeared for this purpose—to destroy the works of the devil.

9 No one who is born of God will continue to live in sin, because God's seed remains in him; he cannot keep on sinning, because he has been born of God.

10 This is how we know who the children of God are and who the children of the devil are: anyone who does not do what is right is not God's child, nor is anyone who does not love his brother or sister.

Love One Another

11 For this is the message you heard from the beginning: We should love one another.

12 Not like Cain, who belonged to the evil one and murdered his brother. Why did he murder him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's were righteous.

13 So don't be surprised, brothers and sisters, if the world hates you.

14 We know we have passed from death to life, because we love our brothers and sisters. Whoever does not love remains in death.

15 Anyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life residing in him.

16 This is how we know what love is: Jesus laid down His life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers and sisters.

17 If someone has material possessions and sees his brother in need but shows no compassion, how can the love of God be in him?

18 Dear children, let us not love with words or speech only, but with actions and in truth.

Confidence Before God

19 This is how we know that we belong to the truth and how we set our hearts at rest in His presence:

20 If our hearts condemn us, we know that God is greater than our hearts, and He knows everything.

21 Dear friends, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence before God,

22 and we receive from Him whatever we ask, because we keep His commandments and do what pleases Him.

23 And this is His commandment: to believe in the name of His Son, Jesus Christ, and to love one another as He commanded us.

24 The one who keeps His commandments lives in Him, and He in them. And this is how we know that He lives in us: by the Spirit He gave us.

Key Lessons from 1 John 3

- God's love makes us His children: Our true identity is not understood by the world.
- Holiness is the fruit of sonship: To abide in Christ is to turn from sin.
- The dividing line: Those who love and live righteously show they are God's children; those who persist in hate and sin belong to the devil.
- Love proved by action: Christ's sacrifice defines real love—we show it by meeting needs and serving others.
- Confidence in prayer: Obedience and love give us boldness before God, knowing He hears us.
- The Spirit's witness: The indwelling Spirit assures us that Christ abides in us.

1 John 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Test the Spirits and Live in God's Love”

Testing the Spirits

1 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world.

2 This is how you recognize the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesses Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God.

3 But every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you have heard is coming and is already in the world.

4 You, dear children, are from God and have overcome them, because the One who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world.

5 They belong to the world; therefore they speak from the world's viewpoint, and the world listens to them.

6 We belong to God. Whoever knows God listens to us, but whoever is not from God does not listen to us. This is how we recognize the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

God's Love Revealed

7 Beloved, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves is born of God and knows God.

8 Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love.

9 This is how God's love was shown among us: He sent His one and only Son into the world so that we might live through Him.

10 This is love—not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son as the sacrifice that takes away our sins.

11 Beloved, since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

12 No one has ever seen God, but if we love one another, God lives in us, and His love is made complete in us.

13 This is how we know that we live in Him and He in us: He has given us His Spirit.

14 And we have seen and testify that the Father sent His Son to be the Savior of the world.

15 Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God—God lives in them, and they in God.

Perfect Love

16 We have come to know and believe the love God has for us. God is love. Whoever lives in love lives in God, and God in him.

17 This is how love is made complete among us so that we may have confidence on the day of judgment: in this world we are like Jesus.

18 There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. Fear has to do with punishment, and the one who fears is not made perfect in love.

19 We love because He first loved us.

20 If someone says, "I love God," but hates his brother, he is a liar. For whoever does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen.

21 And He has given us this command: Whoever loves God must also love his brother.

Key Lessons from 1 John 4

- Test every spirit: Not all spiritual voices are from God; true spirits confess Jesus as the Christ come in the flesh.
- God is greater: The Spirit of God within believers is stronger than the spirit of the world.

- God is love: Love is the essence of God’s nature; knowing Him leads to loving others.
- Love revealed in Christ: God proved His love by sending His Son as the sacrifice for our sins.
- Perfect love removes fear: God’s love gives confidence in judgment and frees us from fear of punishment.
- Love proves faith: To love God means to love others; hatred is evidence of not knowing Him.

1 John 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Faith, Victory, and Eternal Life in Christ”

Faith in Christ Brings New Birth

1 Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God. And everyone who loves the Father also loves His children.

2 We know that we love God’s children when we love God and obey His commandments.

3 Loving God means keeping His commandments, and His commandments are not burdensome.

4 For everyone born of God overcomes the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith.

5 Who is it that overcomes the world? Only the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God.

The Witness of Water, Blood, and Spirit

6 Jesus Christ is the one who came by water and blood—not by water only, but by water and blood. The Spirit testifies to this, because the Spirit is truth.

7 For there are three who bear witness in heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit; and these three are one.

8 And there are three who testify on earth: the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and these three agree as one.

9 If we accept the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater. This is the testimony God has given about His Son.

10 Whoever believes in the Son of God has this testimony within them. Whoever does not believe God has made Him a liar, because they do not believe the record God gave about His Son.

11 And this is the testimony: God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son.

12 Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life.

Assurance of Eternal Life

13 I have written these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God so that you may know that you have eternal life.

14 And this is the confidence we have before Him: if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us.

15 And if we know He hears us in whatever we ask, we know that we have what we have asked of Him.

Prayer and Sin

16 If anyone sees a fellow believer commit a sin that does not lead to death, he should pray, and God will give life to the one who commits sin not leading to death. There is a sin that leads to death; I am not saying that you should pray for that.

17 All wrongdoing is sin, and there is sin that does not lead to death.

Victory Over the Evil One

18 We know that anyone born of God does not continue in sin; the One who was born of God keeps them safe, and the evil one cannot touch them.

19 We know that we belong to God, and the whole world is under the control of the evil one.

20 We know also that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding so that we may know Him who is true. And we are in Him who is true—His Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life.

21 Dear children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

Key Lessons from 1 John 5

- Faith is victory: Believing in Jesus as the Son of God gives us new birth and the power to overcome the world.
- Three witnesses agree: The water (baptism), the blood (sacrifice), and the Spirit all testify that Jesus is the Christ.
- Eternal life is in Christ alone: Whoever has the Son has life; without Him, there is no eternal life.
- Confidence in prayer: When we ask according to God's will, He hears us and answers.
- Sin and intercession: Not all sin leads to death, but all sin is serious; believers should pray for one another.
- God's protection: Those born of God are guarded from the power of the evil one.
- Stay pure from idols: True life is found only in the living God revealed in Jesus Christ.

Introduction to the Book of 2 John

“Love means doing what God has commanded us, and he has commanded us to love one another, just as you heard from the beginning.” – 2 John 1:6

Title and Meaning

The book of 2 John is one of the shortest writings in the New Testament. Its title reflects its traditional author, the apostle John. Unlike his first letter, which was written more broadly, 2 John is a personal letter addressed to “the elect lady and her children” (likely referring to a specific Christian woman and her family, or symbolically to a local church). The letter emphasizes truth, love, and guarding against false teaching.

Author and Date

The author is traditionally identified as John, the beloved disciple of Jesus and the author of the Gospel of John, 1 John, and Revelation. He refers to himself simply as “the elder” (2 John 1:1), highlighting his spiritual authority and pastoral heart. The letter was likely written around AD 85–95, near the end of John’s life, from Ephesus or the surrounding region.

Purpose of 2 John

John wrote this short letter with a dual purpose:

- To encourage believers to walk in truth and love.
- To warn against welcoming or supporting false teachers who denied Christ’s incarnation and sought to deceive.

This letter balances love and discernment, reminding believers that Christian hospitality must never compromise the truth of the gospel.

Structure of 2 John

Though brief, the letter has a clear flow:

📖 1. Greeting and Commendation (vv. 1–3)

John greets the “elect lady and her children,” affirming the truth they walk in.

✡️ 2. Exhortation to Love and Truth (vv. 4–6)

A call to love one another while continuing in obedience to God’s commands.

⚠️ 3. Warning Against False Teachers (vv. 7–11)

Believers must guard against deceivers and refuse to support them.

👋 4. Closing Remarks (vv. 12–13)

John expresses his desire to speak in person for fuller joy and sends final greetings.

Major Themes

- Truth and Love Together – Both must define the Christian life.
 - Obedience to God’s Commands – True love is expressed in obedience.
 - Discernment in Hospitality – Supporting false teachers spreads error.
 - Guarding Against Deception – Believers must hold fast to Christ’s teaching.

Why 2 John Matters Today

2 John is a reminder that love without truth leads to error, and truth without love becomes harsh. In a world full of competing voices and false teachings, Christians are called to walk in both love and truth. The letter challenges us to practice discernment, remain faithful to Christ’s teaching, and live out our faith in genuine love.

Key Verse

“Love means doing what God has commanded us, and he has commanded us to love one another, just as you heard from the beginning.” – 2 John 1:6

This verse captures the heart of 2 John: love is inseparable from obedience to God’s truth.

2 John – Crawford Standard Bible

“Walk in Truth and Love”

Greeting in Truth and Love

1 From the elder, to the chosen lady and her children, whom I truly love—and not only I, but also all who know the truth—

2 because the truth lives in us and will be with us forever.

3 Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us from God the Father and from Jesus Christ, the Father’s Son, in truth and love.

Walk in Love and Obedience

4 I was overjoyed to find some of your children walking in the truth, just as the Father commanded us.

5 And now I ask you, dear lady—not as if I were writing a new command, but the one we have had from the beginning—that we love one another.

6 And this is love: that we walk in obedience to His commands. As you have heard from the beginning, His command is that you walk in love.

Warning Against Deceivers

7 Many deceivers have gone out into the world. They do not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh. Such a person is the deceiver and the antichrist.

8 Watch yourselves, so that you do not lose what we have worked for, but that you may receive a full reward.

9 Anyone who runs ahead and does not continue in the teaching of Christ does not have God. Whoever continues in the teaching has both the Father and the Son.

10 If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not welcome him into your house or even greet him.

11 For whoever greets him shares in his evil deeds.

Final Words

12 I have much more to write to you, but I do not want to use paper and ink. Instead, I hope to visit you and speak face to face, so that our joy may be complete.

13 The children of your chosen sister send their greetings. Amen.

Key Lessons from 2 John

- Truth and love endure: God's truth dwells in us forever, and love is the outworking of obedience.
- Love is obedience: True love means walking according to God's commands.
- Beware of deceivers: False teachers who deny Christ are antichrists; guard yourself against them.
- Do not partner with error: Supporting or approving those who reject Christ makes us share in their deeds.
- Joy in fellowship: Face-to-face fellowship among believers brings fullness of joy.

Introduction to the Book of 3 John

“Dear friend, don't let this bad example influence you. Follow only what is good. Remember that those who do good prove that they are God's children, and those who do evil prove that they do not know God.” – 3 John 1:11

Title and Meaning

The book of 3 John is the shortest book in the New Testament by word count. Its title reflects its traditional author, the apostle John. Unlike 1 John, which was a general letter, and 2 John, which addressed a “lady and her children,” 3 John is written to an individual named Gaius, commending him for his faithfulness and hospitality. The letter highlights the importance of supporting true ministers of the gospel while rejecting prideful opposition.

Author and Date

The author is traditionally understood to be John, the beloved disciple of Jesus and the writer of the Gospel of John, 1 John, 2 John, and Revelation. He again identifies himself as “the elder” (3 John 1:1), pointing to his pastoral authority. The letter was likely written around AD 85–95, during John’s later years, from Ephesus or nearby.

Purpose of 3 John

John wrote this short letter with a very practical purpose:

- To commend Gaius for his hospitality toward traveling preachers and missionaries.
 - To warn against Diotrephes, a prideful leader who rejected apostolic authority and refused to welcome faithful workers.
 - To praise Demetrius as a faithful example to follow.
 - To encourage believers to support and walk in the truth.

Structure of 3 John

Though brief, the letter has a clear, personal flow:

📖 1. Greeting and Commendation (vv. 1–8)

John commends Gaius for walking in the truth and showing hospitality.

⚠️ 2. Warning Against Diotrephes (vv. 9–10)

John rebukes Diotrephes for arrogance, slander, and rejection of authority.

✨ 3. Commendation of Demetrius (v. 12)

John presents Demetrius as a faithful example for believers to follow.

👋 4. Closing Remarks (vv. 13–15)

John expresses his desire to visit soon and sends final greetings.

Major Themes

- Hospitality and Support – Believers should support and encourage true servants of Christ.
 - Walking in the Truth – Faithful living is shown through obedience and love.
 - Opposition to Pride – Diotrephes serves as a warning against arrogance and selfishness.
 - Faithful Examples – Gaius and Demetrius model genuine Christian character.
 - Community in Christ – The church is called to unity, truth, and mutual care.

Why 3 John Matters Today

3 John teaches that how we treat others—especially those who labor for the gospel—matters deeply to God. It reminds us to support faithful workers, resist prideful or divisive leaders, and walk consistently in the truth. In an age where selfish ambition often corrupts leadership, this letter calls believers to humility, hospitality, and integrity.

Key Verse

“Dear friend, don’t let this bad example influence you. Follow only what is good. Remember that those who do good prove that they are God’s children, and those who do evil prove that they do not know God.” – 3 John 1:11

This verse captures the essence of 3 John: true faith is revealed in doing good and walking in truth.

3 John – Crawford Standard Bible

“Walking in Truth and Supporting the Work”

Greeting to Gaius

1 From the elder, to my dear friend Gaius, whom I love in the truth.

2 Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be in good health, just as your soul prospers.

3 I was filled with joy when brothers came and testified about your faithfulness to the truth, showing that you walk in it.

4 I have no greater joy than to hear that my children are walking in the truth.

Gaius Commended for Hospitality

5 Beloved, you are faithful in whatever you do for the brothers and even for strangers.

6 They have testified about your love before the church. You will do well to send them on their journey in a manner worthy of God.

7 For they went out for the sake of the Name, accepting nothing from the Gentiles.

8 Therefore we ought to support such people so that we may be fellow workers for the truth.

Warning About Diotrophes

9 I wrote to the church, but Diotrophes, who loves to put himself first, does not acknowledge us.

10 So if I come, I will call attention to what he is doing—spreading malicious words against us. Not satisfied with that, he refuses to welcome the brothers. He also prevents others from doing so and puts them out of the church.

Follow What Is Good

11 Beloved, do not imitate what is evil but what is good. The one who does good is from God; the one who does evil has not seen God.

Commendation of Demetrius

12 Demetrius is well spoken of by everyone—and by the truth itself. We also speak well of him, and you know that our testimony is true.

Final Greetings

13 I have much to write to you, but I do not want to write with pen and ink.

14 I hope to see you soon, and we will talk face to face. Peace be with you. The friends here greet you. Greet the friends there by name.

Key Lessons from 3 John

- Walking in truth brings joy: Nothing delights a spiritual leader more than to see believers living faithfully in truth.
- Hospitality matters: Supporting fellow workers in Christ makes us partners in spreading the gospel.
- Reject self-exalting leaders: Diotrophes is an example of pride, slander, and lack of hospitality, showing what not to follow.
- Follow what is good: Actions reveal the heart—goodness points to God, evil shows separation from Him.
- Encourage the faithful: Demetrius stands as an example of a good testimony before both men and God.

Introduction to the Book of Jude

“But you, dear friends, must build each other up in your most holy faith, pray in the power of the Holy Spirit, and await the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ, who will bring you eternal life.” – Jude 1:20–21

Title and Meaning

The book of Jude is one of the shortest but most urgent letters in the New Testament. Its title reflects its author, Jude (or Judas), who identifies himself as “a servant of Jesus Christ and a brother of James” (Jude 1:1). This makes him a half-brother of Jesus (Matthew 13:55; Mark 6:3). Jude’s letter is a passionate warning to believers about false teachers who secretly infiltrate the church. It emphasizes the need to contend for the faith and remain faithful to Christ.

Author and Date

The author is Jude, brother of James and servant of Jesus Christ. Like James, Jude humbly identifies himself not by family relation but by his service to the Lord. Jude was likely written around AD 65–80, possibly around the same time as 2 Peter, since the two letters share similar themes and language.

Purpose of Jude

Jude intended to write about salvation but instead was compelled by the Holy Spirit to warn about dangerous false teachers. His purposes include:

- To urge believers to contend earnestly for the faith once for all delivered to the saints (Jude 1:3).
 - To warn against ungodly teachers who distort grace and deny Jesus Christ.
 - To remind believers of God’s past judgments against sin.
 - To call Christians to persevere, build up their faith, and remain in God’s love.
 - To assure them of God’s keeping power until the end.

Structure of Jude

Jude’s short letter is intense and focused:

📖 1. Greeting and Purpose (vv. 1–4)

Jude urges believers to contend for the faith and warns about false teachers.

⚠️ 2. Warnings and Examples of Judgment (vv. 5–16)

Jude recalls Israel’s unbelief, fallen angels, Sodom and Gomorrah, and other examples as warnings.

✠ 3. Exhortation to Persevere (vv. 17–23)

Believers must remember the apostles' warnings, remain steadfast, and show mercy to others.

🙏 4. Closing Doxology (vv. 24–25)

A powerful praise to God who is able to keep believers from falling and present them blameless.

Major Themes

- Contending for the Faith – Believers must defend the truth against distortion.
 - God's Judgment – Past examples show that God will judge rebellion and falsehood.
 - Perseverance in Faith – Christians are called to remain steadfast and prayerful.
 - God's Keeping Power – God preserves His people until Christ's return.
 - Glory to God – The letter ends with one of the most beautiful doxologies in Scripture.

Why Jude Matters Today

Jude's letter is strikingly relevant in an age filled with spiritual deception, moral compromise, and false teaching. It challenges Christians not to be passive but to actively contend for biblical truth. At the same time, Jude reminds us of God's grace and power to preserve His people. His urgent words call us to courage, discernment, and devotion in a world hostile to truth.

Key Verse

“Dear friends, I had been eagerly planning to write to you about the salvation we all share. But now I find that I must write about something else, urging you to defend the faith that God has entrusted once for all time to his holy people.” – Jude 1:3

This verse captures the heartbeat of Jude: a call to defend the true faith against all distortion.

Jude – Crawford Standard Bible

“Contend for the Faith”

Greeting

1 Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and the brother of James, to those who are called, loved by God the Father, and kept safe in Jesus Christ:

2 May mercy, peace, and love be multiplied to you.

A Call to Defend the Faith

3 Beloved, although I was eager to write to you about the salvation we share, I felt it necessary to write and urge you to earnestly contend for the faith that was once for all delivered to the saints.

4 For certain people have secretly slipped in among you—ungodly people who were long ago marked for condemnation. They twist the grace of our God into immorality and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

Warnings from History

5 Though you already know all this, I want to remind you that the Lord once saved His people out of Egypt, but later destroyed those who did not believe.

6 And the angels who did not keep their proper position but left their dwelling place—He has kept them in eternal chains under darkness until the judgment of the great day.

7 In the same way, Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding cities gave themselves to sexual immorality and pursued unnatural desires. They serve as an example of those who suffer the punishment of eternal fire.

The Ungodly Exposed

8 In the same way, these dreamers pollute their own bodies, reject authority, and slander heavenly beings.

9 Yet Michael the archangel, when disputing with the devil about the body of Moses, did not dare pronounce a railing judgment but said, “The Lord rebuke you!”

10 But these people slander what they do not understand. What they know by instinct, like unreasoning animals, is what corrupts them.

11 Woe to them! They have gone the way of Cain, rushed greedily into Balaam’s error for profit, and perished in Korah’s rebellion.

12 These are blemishes at your love feasts, eating with you without the slightest concern. They are clouds without rain, blown along by the wind; trees without fruit, twice dead and uprooted.

13 They are wild waves of the sea, foaming up their shame; wandering stars for whom the blackest darkness has been reserved forever.

Enoch’s Prophecy

14 Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied about these people, saying: “Look! The Lord is coming with ten thousands of His holy ones

15 to execute judgment on everyone, and to convict all the ungodly of all the ungodly deeds they have done and of all the harsh words that ungodly sinners have spoken against Him.”

16 These people are grumblers and complainers, living according to their own lusts. They boast loudly and flatter others to gain advantage.

A Call to Persevere

17 But you, beloved, remember the words spoken beforehand by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ.

18 They told you, “In the last days there will be scoffers who follow their own ungodly desires.”

19 These are the ones who cause divisions, worldly-minded and without the Spirit.

20 But you, beloved, build yourselves up in your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit.

21 Keep yourselves in God’s love as you wait for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to bring you eternal life.

22 Show mercy to those who doubt.

23 Save others by snatching them from the fire. To still others, show mercy mixed with fear, hating even the clothing stained by corrupted flesh.

Doxology

24 Now to Him who is able to keep you from stumbling and to present you blameless before His glorious presence with great joy—

25 to the only God our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, power, and authority, before all time, now, and forever. Amen.

Key Lessons from Jude

- Contend for the faith: The gospel must be defended against false teachers and ungodly influences.
- God judges rebellion: Unbelief, pride, and immorality bring destruction, as shown by Israel, fallen angels, and Sodom.
- Beware of corrupt leaders: False teachers live for greed, lust, and power, like Cain, Balaam, and Korah.
- Hold fast in the Spirit: Build your life on faith, prayer, and God’s love while waiting for Christ’s mercy.
- Show mercy wisely: Rescue others with compassion, but be cautious of sin’s corruption.
- God is able to keep us: Our hope rests in the God who preserves us and will present us faultless in His glory.

Introduction to the Book of Revelation

“Look! He comes with the clouds of heaven. And everyone will see him—even those who pierced him. And all the nations of the world will mourn for him. Yes! Amen!” – Revelation 1:7

Title and Meaning

The book of Revelation takes its name from the opening word in Greek, apokalypsis, meaning “unveiling” or “disclosure.” It is the final book of the New Testament and the Bible, revealing Jesus Christ in His glory as the risen Lord and conquering King. Revelation is both a prophecy of things to come and a message of hope for believers enduring trials. It unveils Christ’s ultimate victory over evil and the establishment of His eternal kingdom.

Author and Date

The author is John, traditionally understood to be the apostle and “beloved disciple” of Jesus (Revelation 1:1–2, 9). John received the visions while exiled on the island of Patmos “because of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus” (Revelation 1:9). The book was likely written around AD 95–96, during the reign of the Roman Emperor Domitian, a time of severe persecution for Christians.

Purpose of Revelation

Revelation was written to encourage persecuted believers and to assure them of Christ’s ultimate triumph. Its purposes include:

- To reveal Jesus Christ as the sovereign Lord and coming King.
 - To strengthen believers to remain faithful amid persecution and trials.
 - To warn of God’s coming judgments on sin and rebellion.
 - To unveil the final defeat of Satan and evil.

Why Revelation Matters Today

Revelation reminds us that history is not spiraling out of control—God is sovereign, and His plan is unfolding. It assures believers that no matter how dark the world becomes, Christ is victorious.

Revelation calls Christians to live faithfully, courageously, and expectantly, looking forward to Christ’s return and the hope of eternity in His presence.

Key Verse

“I am the Alpha and the Omega—the beginning and the end,” says the Lord God. “I am the one who is, who always was, and who is still to come—the Almighty One.” – Revelation 1:8

This verse captures the essence of Revelation: Jesus Christ, the eternal Lord, is coming again in glory to reign forever.

Revelation 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Vision of the Glorified Christ”

Introduction and Blessing

1 This is the Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave Him to show His servants the things that must soon take place. He sent it through His angel to His servant John,

2 who faithfully reported everything he saw—the word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed is the one who reads aloud the words of this prophecy, and blessed are those who hear it and keep what is written in it, because the time is near.

Greeting to the Seven Churches

4 From John, to the seven churches in Asia: Grace and peace to you from Him who is, who was, and who is to come; and from the seven Spirits who are before His throne;

5 and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the first to rise from the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To Him who loves us and freed us from our sins by His blood, 6 and made us a kingdom and priests to His God and Father—to Him be glory and power forever and ever. Amen.

7 Look! He is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see Him, even those who pierced Him. And all the nations of the earth will mourn because of Him. So it shall be. Amen.

8 “I am the Alpha and the Omega,” says the Lord God, “the One who is, who was, and who is to come—the Almighty.”

John’s Vision on Patmos

9 I, John, your brother and companion in the suffering, kingdom, and patient endurance that belong to Jesus, was on the island of Patmos because of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus.

10 On the Lord’s Day I was in the Spirit, and I heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet,
11 saying, “Write what you see in a scroll and send it to the seven churches: to Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea.”

The Glorified Christ

12 I turned to see the voice that was speaking to me. And when I turned, I saw seven golden lampstands, 13 and among the lampstands was someone like a Son of Man. He was dressed in a long robe with a golden sash across His chest.

14 His head and hair were white like wool, as white as snow, and His eyes were like blazing fire.

15 His feet were like polished bronze glowing in a furnace, and His voice was like the roar of many waters.

16 In His right hand He held seven stars, and from His mouth came a sharp, double-edged sword. His face shone like the sun in all its brilliance.

17 When I saw Him, I fell at His feet as though dead. But He placed His right hand on me and said, “Do not be afraid. I am the First and the Last.

18 I am the Living One; I was dead, and now look—I am alive forever and ever! And I hold the keys of death and the grave.

19 Write, therefore, what you have seen, what is now, and what will take place later.

20 The mystery of the seven stars you saw in My right hand and the seven golden lampstands is this: The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands are the seven churches.”

Key Lessons from Revelation 1

- Jesus is the Revealer: The Book of Revelation is given by Christ, through John, to show God’s servants what will soon happen.
- Blessing in obedience: Those who read, hear, and keep this prophecy are promised blessing.

- Christ’s authority is supreme: He is the faithful witness, the first to rise from the dead, and ruler of all earthly kings.
- He comes in glory: Every eye will see Jesus return, even those who pierced Him; His coming will bring both hope and mourning.
- Christ holds the keys: He has conquered death and the grave, securing eternal victory for His people.
- The Church belongs to Him: The seven stars and lampstands show Christ’s care and authority over His churches.

Revelation 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Christ’s Letters to the First Four Churches”

To the Church in Ephesus – The Call Back to First Love

1 “Write this to the angel of the church in Ephesus: These are the words of Him who holds the seven stars in His right hand and walks among the seven golden lampstands.

2 I know your works, your labor, and your patient endurance. I know that you cannot tolerate evil people. You have tested those who claim to be apostles but are not, and you have found them to be liars.

3 You have persevered and endured hardships for My name and have not grown weary.

4 But I have this against you: You have abandoned the love you had at first.

5 Remember how far you have fallen. Repent and return to your first works. If you do not, I will come and remove your lampstand from its place—unless you repent.

6 Yet this is in your favor: You hate the practices of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

7 Whoever has ears, let them hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who overcomes, I will give the right to eat from the tree of life, which is in the paradise of God.”

To the Church in Smyrna – Faithful Unto Death

8 “Write this to the angel of the church in Smyrna: These are the words of the First and the Last, who died and came back to life.

9 I know your suffering and your poverty—yet you are rich! I know the slander of those who say they are Jews but are not; they are a synagogue of Satan.

10 Do not be afraid of what you are about to suffer. The devil will throw some of you into prison to test you, and you will face tribulation for ten days. Be faithful even to the point of death, and I will give you the crown of life.

11 Whoever has ears, let them hear what the Spirit says to the churches. The one who overcomes will not be harmed by the second death.”

To the Church in Pergamum – Hold Fast to Truth

12 “Write this to the angel of the church in Pergamum: These are the words of Him who has the sharp, double-edged sword.

13 I know where you live—where Satan has his throne. Yet you remain true to My name. You did not renounce your faith in Me, even in the days of Antipas, My faithful witness, who was killed among you where Satan lives.

14 But I have a few things against you: You have people there who hold to the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to put a stumbling block before the Israelites—to eat food sacrificed to idols and to commit sexual immorality.

15 Likewise, you also have those who hold to the teaching of the Nicolaitans.

16 Repent, or I will soon come to you and fight against them with the sword of My mouth.

17 Whoever has ears, let them hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who overcomes, I will give some of the hidden manna. I will also give that person a white stone with a new name written on it, known only to the one who receives it.”

To the Church in Thyatira – Hold Fast Until He Comes 18 “Write this to the angel of the church in Thyatira: These are the words of the Son of God, whose eyes are like blazing fire and whose feet are like burnished bronze.

19 I know your works—your love, faith, service, and perseverance—and that your latter works are greater than the first.

20 But I have this against you: You tolerate that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess. By her teaching she misleads My servants into sexual immorality and eating food sacrificed to idols.

21 I gave her time to repent, but she was unwilling.

22 So I will cast her on a bed of suffering, and those who commit adultery with her will suffer intensely unless they repent of her ways.

23 I will strike her children dead. Then all the churches will know that I am He who searches hearts and minds, and I will repay each of you according to your deeds.

24 Now I say to the rest of you in Thyatira, who do not hold to her teaching and have not learned Satan’s so-called deep secrets: I will not impose any other burden on you.

25 Only hold fast to what you have until I come.

26 To the one who overcomes and does My will to the end, I will give authority over the nations—
27 that one will rule them with an iron scepter and dash them to pieces like pottery—just as I have received authority from My Father.

28 I will also give that one the morning star.

29 Whoever has ears, let them hear what the Spirit says to the churches.”

Key Lessons from Revelation 2

- Ephesus: Works without love are empty; return to your first love for Christ.

- Smyrna: True riches are spiritual; remain faithful even in suffering, and eternal life is promised.
- Pergamum: Compromise with idolatry and immorality brings judgment; hold fast to truth.
- Thyatira: False teaching must not be tolerated; Christ rewards faithfulness and promises authority with Him.

Revelation 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Throne Room of Heaven”

The Open Door into Heaven

1 After this I looked, and I saw a door standing open in heaven. And the first voice I had heard speaking to me like a trumpet said, “Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after this.”

2 At once I was in the Spirit, and there before me was a throne in heaven with Someone sitting on it.

The Glory of the Throne

3 The One who sat there had the appearance of jasper and carnelian. A rainbow, shining like an emerald, encircled the throne.

4 Surrounding the throne were twenty-four thrones, and seated on them were twenty-four elders. They were dressed in white garments and had golden crowns on their heads.

5 From the throne came flashes of lightning, rumblings, and peals of thunder. In front of the throne were seven blazing lamps—these are the seven Spirits of God.

6 Also before the throne there was what looked like a sea of glass, clear as crystal.

The Four Living Creatures

In the center, around the throne, were four living creatures, covered with eyes in front and behind.

7 The first living creature was like a lion, the second was like an ox, the third had the face of a man, and the fourth was like a flying eagle.

8 Each of the four living creatures had six wings and was covered with eyes all around, even under its wings. Day and night they never stop saying:

“Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty, who was, and is, and is to come.”

Eternal Worship of the Almighty

9 Whenever the living creatures give glory, honor, and thanks to Him who sits on the throne and lives forever and ever,

10 the twenty-four elders fall down before Him who sits on the throne and worship Him who lives forever and ever. They lay their crowns before the throne and say:

11 “You are worthy, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power,
for You created all things,
and by Your will they exist and were created.”

Key Lessons from Revelation 4

- God’s Sovereignty: Heaven reveals God as the eternal King, seated on the throne, ruling all creation.
- Heavenly Worship: All beings—elders, angels, and creatures—exist to give glory to God, reminding us that worship is central in eternity.
- God as Creator: The praise emphasizes that all things were made by His will and for His pleasure, showing creation’s purpose is to glorify Him.
- Holiness of God: The repeated cry of “Holy, holy, holy” underscores His complete purity, majesty, and eternal nature.

Revelation 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Scroll and the Lamb”

The Sealed Scroll

1 Then I saw in the right hand of the One seated on the throne a scroll written on both sides and sealed with seven seals.

2 And I saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice, “Who is worthy to open the scroll and break its seals?”

3 But no one in heaven, on earth, or under the earth was able to open the scroll or even look into it.

4 I wept bitterly because no one was found worthy to open the scroll or to look inside.

The Worthy One Revealed

5 Then one of the elders said to me, “Do not weep! Look, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has triumphed. He is able to open the scroll and its seven seals.”

6 Then I saw a Lamb, looking as if it had been slain, standing in the center of the throne, encircled by the four living creatures and the elders. The Lamb had seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent out into all the earth.

7 He came and took the scroll from the right hand of the One seated on the throne.

Worship of the Lamb

8 When He had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb. Each held a harp, and they were holding golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of God's people.

9 And they sang a new song:

“You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals,
because You were slain,
and with Your blood You purchased people for God from every tribe and language and people and nation.

10 You have made them to be a kingdom and priests to serve our God, and they will reign on the earth.”

Multitudes of Angels

11 Then I looked and heard the voice of many angels, numbering thousands upon thousands, and ten thousand times ten thousand. They encircled the throne, the living creatures, and the elders.

12 In a loud voice they said:

“Worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and blessing!”

All Creation Worships

13 Then I heard every creature in heaven, on earth, under the earth, and in the sea, and all that is in them, saying:

“To Him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb
be blessing and honor and glory and power, forever and ever!”

14 The four living creatures said, “Amen,” and the elders fell down and worshiped.

Key Lessons from Revelation 5

- Jesus Alone Is Worthy: Only Christ—the Lion of Judah and the slain Lamb—has the authority to open God’s scroll of destiny.
- Redemption by His Blood: The Lamb’s worthiness comes from His sacrifice, which purchased people from every nation for God’s kingdom.
- Universal Worship: Heaven and earth join in one song, exalting the Lamb alongside the Father, showing the shared glory of the Trinity.
- The Power of Prayer: The golden bowls remind us that the prayers of God’s people rise before Him as part of heavenly worship.
- Eternal Victory: Christ’s triumph ensures that His redeemed people will reign with Him, and creation itself will acknowledge His lordship.

Revelation 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Opening of the Seals”

The First Seal – The White Horse

1 Then I saw the Lamb open the first of the seven seals. I heard one of the four living creatures say with a thunderous voice, “Come!”

2 I looked, and before me was a white horse. Its rider held a bow, and he was given a crown. He rode out as a conqueror bent on conquest.

The Second Seal – The Red Horse

3 When the Lamb opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature say, “Come!”

4 Then another horse came out, fiery red. Its rider was given power to take peace from the earth, so that people would kill one another. He was given a great sword.

The Third Seal – The Black Horse

5 When the Lamb opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, “Come!” I looked, and there before me was a black horse. Its rider was holding a pair of scales in his hand.

6 Then I heard a voice among the four living creatures say, “A quart of wheat for a day’s wages, and three quarts of barley for a day’s wages; but do not damage the oil and the wine.”

The Fourth Seal – The Pale Horse

7 When the Lamb opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature say, “Come!”
8 I looked, and there before me was a pale horse. Its rider was named Death, and Hades followed close behind him. They were given authority over a fourth of the earth to kill by sword, famine, plague, and by the wild beasts of the earth.

The Fifth Seal – The Cry of the Martyrs

9 When the Lamb opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain for the word of God and for their faithful testimony.

10 They cried out in a loud voice, “How long, Sovereign Lord, holy and true, until you judge the inhabitants of the earth and avenge our blood?”

11 Then each of them was given a white robe, and they were told to rest a little longer, until the full number of their fellow servants and brothers and sisters were killed just as they had been.

The Sixth Seal – Cosmic Disturbances

12 I watched as the Lamb opened the sixth seal. There was a great earthquake. The sun turned black like sackcloth made of goat hair, and the whole moon became blood red.

13 The stars of the sky fell to the earth, like figs dropping from a fig tree shaken by a strong wind.

14 The heavens receded like a scroll being rolled up, and every mountain and island was moved from its place.

15 Then the kings of the earth, the princes, the generals, the rich, the mighty, every slave, and every free person hid in caves and among the rocks of the mountains.

16 They called to the mountains and the rocks, “Fall on us! Hide us from the face of Him who sits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb!

17 For the great day of their wrath has come, and who can withstand it?”

Key Lessons from Revelation 6

- God’s Judgment Is Certain: The seals reveal that history moves under Christ’s authority. Nothing happens outside His control.
- The Four Horsemen Represent Human Turmoil: Conquest, war, famine, and death remind us of the brokenness of a fallen world awaiting redemption.
- The Cry of the Martyrs: God sees the suffering of His people. Their prayers for justice are heard, and His timing for judgment is perfect.
- Cosmic Upheaval Foreshadows Final Judgment: Earthly powers cannot hide from the wrath of the Lamb. Even the strongest will tremble before God.

- Only Those in Christ Will Stand: The question at the end of the chapter—“Who shall be able to stand?”—points forward to God’s sealed and protected people in chapter 7.

Revelation 7 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Sealed and the Saved”

The Four Angels and the Seal of God

1 After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds so that no wind would blow on the land, the sea, or any tree.

2 Then I saw another angel coming up from the east, holding the seal of the living God. He called out in a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to harm the land and the sea,

3 “Do not harm the land, the sea, or the trees until we have placed the seal of God on the foreheads of His servants.”

The 144,000 of Israel

4 Then I heard the number of those who were sealed: 144,000 from all the tribes of Israel.

5 From the tribe of Judah, 12,000 were sealed; from the tribe of Reuben, 12,000; from the tribe of Gad, 12,000;

6 from the tribe of Asher, 12,000; from the tribe of Naphtali, 12,000; from the tribe of Manasseh, 12,000;

7 from the tribe of Simeon, 12,000; from the tribe of Levi, 12,000; from the tribe of Issachar, 12,000;

8 from the tribe of Zebulun, 12,000; from the tribe of Joseph, 12,000; from the tribe of Benjamin, 12,000.

The Great Multitude in White Robes

9 After this I looked, and there before me was a vast crowd that no one could count—from every nation, tribe, people, and language. They were standing before the throne and before the Lamb. They were wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands.

10 And they cried out in a loud voice:

“Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!”

11 All the angels were standing around the throne, the elders, and the four living creatures. They fell down on their faces before the throne and worshiped God,

12 saying:

“Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might belong to our God forever and ever! Amen.”

The Identity of the Multitude

13 Then one of the elders asked me, “These in white robes—who are they, and where did they come from?”

14 I answered, “Sir, you know.”

And he said, “These are the ones who have come out of the great tribulation. They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

15 That is why they are before the throne of God and serve Him day and night in His temple. And He who sits on the throne will shelter them with His presence.

16 Never again will they hunger or thirst. The sun will not beat upon them, nor any scorching heat.

17 For the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their Shepherd. He will lead them to springs of living water. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

Key Lessons from Revelation 7

- God Protects His People: The sealing of the 144,000 shows that God knows His own and secures them before judgment falls.
- Salvation Is for All Nations: The great multitude reveals that the gospel is not limited to Israel but embraces people of every tribe, tongue, and nation.
- Tribulation Produces Triumph: Those in white robes have come through great suffering, but their victory comes from the blood of the Lamb.
- Heaven Is a Place of Comfort and Joy: No hunger, no thirst, no heat, no tears—only the Lamb’s presence leading to eternal life and peace.
- The Lamb Is the Shepherd: Jesus not only saves but also guides, provides, and comforts His redeemed forever.

Revelation 8 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Seventh Seal and the First Four Trumpets”

The Seventh Seal

1 When the Lamb opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.

2 Then I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and they were given seven trumpets.

The Prayers of the Saints

3 Another angel came and stood at the altar, holding a golden censer. He was given much incense to offer, together with the prayers of all God’s people, on the golden altar before the throne.

4 The smoke of the incense, mixed with the prayers of the saints, rose before God from the angel's hand.

5 Then the angel filled the censer with fire from the altar and threw it onto the earth; and there came peals of thunder, rumblings, flashes of lightning, and an earthquake.

The First Four Trumpets

6 Then the seven angels prepared to blow their trumpets.

The First Trumpet

7 The first angel blew his trumpet, and hail and fire, mixed with blood, were hurled down upon the earth. A third of the earth was burned up, a third of the trees were burned up, and all the green grass was burned.

The Second Trumpet

8 The second angel blew his trumpet, and something like a huge mountain, blazing with fire, was thrown into the sea. A third of the sea turned to blood,

9 a third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

The Third Trumpet

10 The third angel blew his trumpet, and a great star, blazing like a torch, fell from heaven on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water.

11 The name of the star is Wormwood. A third of the waters became bitter like wormwood, and many people died from drinking the bitter waters.

The Fourth Trumpet

12 The fourth angel blew his trumpet, and a third of the sun, a third of the moon, and a third of the stars were struck, so that a third of them went dark. A third of the day was without light, and a third of the night as well.

The Warning of Three Woes

13 Then I looked, and I heard an eagle flying in midair, calling out in a loud voice:

“Woe! Woe! Woe to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the trumpet blasts about to be sounded by the other three angels!”

Key Lessons from Revelation 8

- The Silence in Heaven: Heaven pauses in solemn awe before the final judgments begin, showing the seriousness of God's wrath.
- God Honors Prayer: The prayers of believers rise like incense before God, reminding us that prayer is powerful and never forgotten.

- Judgment Escalates: The trumpet blasts bring severe judgments—on the land, the sea, the rivers, and the heavens themselves—showing creation itself groans under sin.
- Wormwood and Bitterness: Sin corrupts what should give life; just as the bitter waters bring death, sin poisons and destroys.
- A Solemn Warning: The cry of “woe, woe, woe” shows that what is coming next will be even worse—calling us to repent and be ready.

Revelation 9 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Fifth and Sixth Trumpets: The First Two Woes”

The Fifth Trumpet – The Locusts from the Abyss

1 The fifth angel blew his trumpet, and I saw a star that had fallen from heaven to the earth. To him was given the key to the shaft of the bottomless pit.

2 He opened the shaft, and smoke poured out like the smoke of a huge furnace. The sun and the air were darkened by the smoke from the pit.

3 From the smoke came locusts upon the earth, and they were given power like the power of scorpions.

4 They were told not to harm the grass, plants, or trees, but only those people who did not have the seal of God on their foreheads.

5 They were allowed to torment them for five months, but not to kill them. Their torment was like the sting of a scorpion when it strikes a person.

6 During those days, people will seek death but will not find it. They will long to die, but death will flee from them.

7 The locusts looked like horses prepared for battle. On their heads they wore something like crowns of gold, and their faces looked like human faces.

8 They had hair like women’s hair, and teeth like lions’ teeth.

9 They wore breastplates like iron, and the sound of their wings was like the roar of many chariots rushing into battle.

10 Their tails were like scorpions with stingers, and in their tails they had power to torment people for five months.

11 They had a king over them—the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in Greek is Apollyon (meaning “Destroyer”).

12 The first woe is past; two more woes are yet to come.

The Sixth Trumpet – The Army from the Euphrates

13 The sixth angel blew his trumpet, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar before God.

14 It said to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, “Release the four angels bound at the great river Euphrates.”

15 The four angels, who had been kept ready for this exact hour, day, month, and year, were released to kill a third of humanity.

16 The number of mounted troops was two hundred million—I heard their number.

17 In the vision I saw the horses and their riders. The riders wore breastplates fiery red, dark blue, and yellow as sulfur. The horses had heads like lions, and out of their mouths came fire, smoke, and sulfur.

18 A third of mankind was killed by these three plagues—fire, smoke, and sulfur issuing from their mouths.

19 The horses’ power was in their mouths and in their tails, for their tails were like snakes with heads, and with them they inflicted injury.

20 Yet the rest of humanity who were not killed by these plagues still did not repent of the works of their hands. They did not stop worshiping demons and idols of gold, silver, bronze, stone, and wood—idols that cannot see, hear, or walk.

21 Nor did they repent of their murders, their sorceries, their sexual immorality, or their thefts.

Key Lessons from Revelation 9

- God’s Restraint: Even in judgment, God limits the power of destruction. The locusts could torment, but not kill; the angels were bound until God’s appointed time.
- The Abyss and the Destroyer: Evil has a leader, but he is still under God’s authority. Satan and his forces cannot act without permission.
- The Horror of Sin’s Consequences: People will long for death rather than life during God’s judgments, showing how terrible rebellion against God becomes.
- Judgment Should Lead to Repentance: Instead of turning to God, humanity clings to idolatry, violence, immorality, and deception—proof that hardened hearts resist God even in the face of wrath.
- Victory in Christ: Only those sealed by God are protected. Believers are secure because they belong to the Lamb who has already conquered the Destroyer.

Revelation 10 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Mighty Angel and the Little Scroll”

The Mighty Angel

1 Then I saw another mighty angel coming down from heaven. He was clothed with a cloud, with a rainbow above his head. His face shone like the sun, and his legs were like pillars of fire.

2 He held a little scroll that was open in his hand. He set his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land,

3 and gave a loud shout like the roar of a lion. When he shouted, the voices of the seven thunders spoke.

4 When the seven thunders spoke, I was about to write it down, but I heard a voice from heaven saying, “Seal up what the seven thunders have said, and do not write it down.”

The Oath of the Angel

5 Then the angel standing on the sea and on the land raised his right hand toward heaven.

6 He swore by the One who lives forever and ever, who created the heavens and everything in them, the earth and everything in it, and the sea and everything in it, saying, “There will be no more delay!

7 But when the seventh angel sounds his trumpet, the mystery of God will be accomplished, just as He announced to His servants the prophets.”

John Eats the Little Scroll

8 Then the voice from heaven spoke to me again: “Go, take the little scroll that lies open in the hand of the angel standing on the sea and on the land.”

9 So I went to the angel and asked him to give me the little scroll. He said, “Take it and eat it. It will taste as sweet as honey in your mouth, but it will turn your stomach bitter.”

10 I took the little scroll from the angel’s hand and ate it. It tasted sweet as honey in my mouth, but when I had swallowed it, my stomach turned bitter.

11 Then I was told, “You must prophesy again about many peoples, nations, languages, and kings.”

Key Lessons from Revelation 10

- God’s Plans Are Certain: The mighty angel’s oath reminds us that everything God promised will be fulfilled in His perfect time. There is no more delay when God’s appointed hour arrives.
- The Mystery of God Will Be Finished: God’s hidden purposes—His plan for judgment, redemption, and the Kingdom—will be fully revealed at the sound of the seventh trumpet.
- The Word of God Is Both Sweet and Bitter: Receiving God’s Word brings joy and delight, but declaring it often brings pain, sorrow, and rejection.
- The Commission to Prophecy: Just like John, believers are called to share God’s truth with all nations, regardless of the cost, because the message belongs to God, not us.

Revelation 11 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Two Witnesses and the Seventh Trumpet”

Measuring the Temple

1 Then I was given a measuring rod like a staff, and I was told, “Rise and measure the temple of God, the altar, and those who worship there.

2 But do not measure the outer court, for it has been given to the Gentiles. They will trample the holy city for forty-two months.”

The Two Witnesses

3 “I will give authority to My two witnesses, and they will prophesy for 1,260 days, dressed in sackcloth.”

4 These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands that stand before the Lord of the earth.

5 If anyone tries to harm them, fire comes from their mouths and consumes their enemies. This is how anyone who tries to harm them must be killed.

6 They have the power to shut the sky so that no rain falls during the days of their prophecy. They also have power to turn water into blood and to strike the earth with every plague as often as they wish.

The Beast Kills the Witnesses

7 When they finish their testimony, the beast that rises from the bottomless pit will wage war against them, conquer them, and kill them.

8 Their dead bodies will lie in the street of the great city—spiritually called Sodom and Egypt—where their Lord was crucified.

9 People from every tribe, language, and nation will look on their bodies for three and a half days and will not allow them to be buried.

10 The people of the earth will rejoice and celebrate, even sending gifts to one another, because these two prophets had tormented those who lived on the earth.

Resurrection and Ascension

11 But after three and a half days, the breath of life from God entered them, and they stood on their feet. Great fear fell on all who saw them.

12 Then they heard a loud voice from heaven saying, “Come up here!” And they went up to heaven in a cloud, while their enemies watched.

13 At that very hour there was a great earthquake. A tenth of the city collapsed, and seven thousand people were killed. The survivors were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.

14 The second woe has passed. The third woe is coming soon.

The Seventh Trumpet

15 Then the seventh angel sounded his trumpet, and loud voices in heaven proclaimed:

“The kingdoms of this world have become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ, and He will reign forever and ever.”

16 The twenty-four elders who sat before God on their thrones fell facedown and worshiped God,

17 saying:

“We give You thanks, Lord God Almighty,

the One who is and who was,

because You have taken Your great power and have begun to reign.”

18 The nations were angry, but Your wrath has come. The time has arrived to judge the dead, to reward Your servants the prophets and the saints, and those who fear Your name, both small and great, and to destroy those who destroy the earth.

The Temple in Heaven Opened

19 Then God’s temple in heaven was opened, and within His temple was seen the ark of His covenant. And there came flashes of lightning, rumblings, peals of thunder, an earthquake, and a great hailstorm.

Key Lessons from Revelation 11

- God’s Witnesses Are Protected Until Their Mission Is Complete: The two witnesses serve as a reminder that nothing can stop God’s purposes until His appointed time.
- Persecution Cannot Silence God’s Truth: Though the beast kills them, their resurrection shows God’s power and vindication.
- Judgment and Glory Are Linked: The earthquake and fear that follow lead survivors to give glory to God.
- Christ’s Reign Is Certain: The seventh trumpet declares the final reality—Christ will rule over all nations forever.
- Heaven’s Temple Is Open: The vision of the ark points to God’s faithfulness in keeping His covenant with His people.

Revelation 12 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Woman, the Dragon, and the War in Heaven”

The Woman and the Child

1 A great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and a crown of twelve stars on her head.

2 She was pregnant and cried out in pain, laboring to give birth.

3 Then another sign appeared in heaven: a huge red dragon with seven heads, ten horns, and seven crowns on its heads.

4 Its tail swept a third of the stars from heaven and hurled them to the earth. The dragon stood in front of the woman about to give birth, ready to devour her child the moment it was born.

5 She gave birth to a male child, who is destined to rule all nations with an iron scepter. Her child was caught up to God and to His throne.

6 The woman fled into the wilderness to a place prepared by God, where she would be cared for 1,260 days.

War in Heaven

7 Then war broke out in heaven. Michael and his angels fought against the dragon, and the dragon and his angels fought back.

8 But they were not strong enough, and they lost their place in heaven.

9 The great dragon was thrown down—that ancient serpent called the devil, or Satan, who deceives the whole world. He was cast down to the earth, and his angels with him.

Heaven’s Victory Song

10 Then I heard a loud voice in heaven:

“Now salvation, power, and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of His Christ have come. For the accuser of our brothers and sisters, who accused them before God day and night, has been thrown down.”

11 They conquered him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives so much as to shrink from death.

12 Therefore rejoice, O heavens, and you who dwell in them! But woe to the earth and the sea, because the devil has come down to you with great fury, knowing that his time is short.

The Dragon Pursues the Woman

13 When the dragon saw that he had been cast down to the earth, he pursued the woman who had given birth to the male child.

14 But the woman was given two wings of a great eagle so she could fly to her place in the wilderness, where she would be cared for a time, times, and half a time, away from the serpent's reach.

15 Then the serpent spewed water like a river from his mouth after the woman, to sweep her away with the flood.

16 But the earth helped the woman by opening its mouth and swallowing the river the dragon had spewed out.

17 Then the dragon was enraged at the woman and went off to make war against the rest of her children—those who keep God's commandments and hold fast to the testimony of Jesus.

Key Lessons from Revelation 12

- Satan is a Defeated Enemy: Though powerful, the dragon was cast down by Michael and the angels—his power is limited.
- Victory Comes Through Christ: Believers overcome Satan not by strength, but by the blood of the Lamb and their faithful testimony.
- God Protects His People: The woman is preserved in the wilderness, showing that God always provides a place of safety and care for His people.
- Spiritual Warfare Is Real: Satan is enraged and actively fights against those who follow Jesus, but his time is short.
- Hold Fast to the Testimony of Jesus: Those who remain faithful to Christ, even in persecution, share in His ultimate victory.

Revelation 13 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Beast from the Sea and the Beast from the Earth”

The Beast from the Sea

1 Then I stood on the sand of the sea, and I saw a beast rising out of the sea. It had seven heads, ten horns, and ten crowns on its horns, and on each head was a name full of blasphemy.

2 The beast I saw was like a leopard, with feet like a bear, and a mouth like a lion. The dragon gave the beast his power, his throne, and great authority.

3 One of the beast's heads looked as if it had been fatally wounded, but the wound was healed. The whole world was amazed and followed after the beast.

4 They worshiped the dragon who had given authority to the beast, and they also worshiped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast? Who can fight against him?"

5 The beast was given a mouth to speak arrogant words and blasphemies, and authority to act for forty-two months.

6 He opened his mouth to blaspheme God—His name, His dwelling place, and those who live in heaven.

7 The beast was given power to make war against God's people and to overcome them. He was also given authority over every tribe, people, language, and nation.

8 All who live on the earth will worship him—everyone whose name has not been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb who was slain from the foundation of the world.

9 Whoever has ears, let them hear.

10 Anyone destined for captivity will go into captivity; anyone who kills with the sword must be killed with the sword. This calls for patient endurance and faithfulness on the part of God's people.

The Beast from the Earth

11 Then I saw another beast rising out of the earth. It had two horns like a lamb, but it spoke like a dragon.

12 It exercised all the authority of the first beast, making the earth and its inhabitants worship the first beast, whose fatal wound had been healed.

13 This second beast performed great signs, even making fire come down from heaven to earth in full view of the people.

14 By these signs it deceived the inhabitants of the earth, convincing them to make an image in honor of the beast that had the sword wound yet lived.

15 The second beast was given power to give breath to the image of the first beast, so that the image could speak and cause all who refused to worship it to be killed.

16 It also forced everyone—small and great, rich and poor, free and slave—to receive a mark on their right hand or on their forehead.

17 No one could buy or sell unless they had the mark, which is the name of the beast or the number of its name.

18 Here is wisdom: Let the one who has understanding calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man. His number is 666.

Key Lessons from Revelation 13

- The Beast Represents Satan’s Power on Earth: Empowered by the dragon, the beast is a counterfeit ruler demanding worship.
- False Religion and Deception: The second beast mimics a lamb but speaks like a dragon, showing how false prophets disguise themselves as harmless while promoting evil.
- The Mark of the Beast: Economic and social control will pressure people to conform, but those loyal to Christ must resist even at great cost.
- Faithful Endurance: Believers are called to stand firm in the face of persecution, holding fast to the Lamb who secures eternal life.
- God’s Ultimate Sovereignty: Though the beast seems invincible, his power is limited in time (42 months), reminding us that God alone reigns forever.

Revelation 14 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lamb, the Angels, and the Harvest”

The Lamb and the 144,000

1 Then I looked, and I saw the Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with Him were 144,000 who had His Father’s name written on their foreheads.

2 I heard a sound from heaven, like the roar of rushing waters and the rolling of loud thunder. The sound I heard was like harpists playing their harps.

3 They sang a new song before the throne, before the four living creatures and the elders. No one could learn the song except the 144,000 who had been redeemed from the earth.

4 These are those who have not defiled themselves with immorality, for they are pure. They follow the Lamb wherever He goes. They were redeemed from among humanity as firstfruits for God and the Lamb.

5 No lie was found in their mouths; they are blameless before the throne of God.

The First Angel’s Message

6 Then I saw another angel flying in midair, having the everlasting gospel to proclaim to those who live on the earth—to every nation, tribe, language, and people.

7 He said in a loud voice, “Fear God and give Him glory, because the hour of His judgment has come. Worship Him who made the heavens, the earth, the sea, and the springs of water.”

The Second Angel's Message

8 A second angel followed and said, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the Great, which made all the nations drink the maddening wine of her adulteries."

The Third Angel's Message

9 A third angel followed them and said in a loud voice, "If anyone worships the beast and its image and receives its mark on their forehead or hand,*

10 they too will drink the wine of God's wrath, poured full strength into the cup of His anger. They will be tormented with fire and sulfur in the presence of the holy angels and of the Lamb.

11 *The smoke of their torment will rise forever and ever. There will be no rest day or night for those who worship the beast and its image, or for anyone who receives the mark of its name."

12 This calls for patient endurance on the part of God's people, who keep His commandments and remain faithful to Jesus.

The Blessing of the Faithful Dead

13 Then I heard a voice from heaven say, "Write this: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on."

"Yes," says the Spirit, "they will rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them."

The Harvest of the Earth

14 I looked, and there before me was a white cloud, and seated on the cloud was one like the Son of Man, wearing a golden crown on His head and holding a sharp sickle in His hand.

15 Then another angel came out of the temple, calling in a loud voice to Him who sat on the cloud: "Take your sickle and reap, because the time to reap has come, for the harvest of the earth is ripe."

16 So the one seated on the cloud swung His sickle over the earth, and the earth was harvested.

The Winepress of God's Wrath

17 Another angel came out of the temple in heaven, and he too had a sharp sickle.

18 Still another angel, who had charge of the fire, came from the altar and called in a loud voice to the angel with the sharp sickle: "Take your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of grapes from the earth's vine, because its grapes are ripe."

19 The angel swung his sickle on the earth, gathered its grapes, and threw them into the great winepress of God's wrath.

20 They were trampled in the winepress outside the city, and blood flowed out of the press, rising as high as the horses' bridles for about 1,600 furlongs.

Key Lessons from Revelation 14

- The 144,000: A symbol of those who remain pure and faithful, marked by God and loyal to the Lamb wherever He leads.
- The Three Angels' Messages: God's final call to fear Him, reject false systems (Babylon), and refuse the mark of the beast, even under persecution.
- The Eternal Gospel: Despite judgment, God offers salvation to all nations—grace and truth reach the ends of the earth.
- Blessed Death in Christ: For believers, even death is victory, as their works and faith follow them into eternal rest.
- The Harvest and Wrath: Christ Himself reaps the earth, separating the righteous for reward and the wicked for judgment, showing that God's justice is final and unavoidable.

Revelation 15 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Song of Victory and the Seven Last Plagues”

The Seven Angels with the Last Plagues

1 Then I saw another great and marvelous sign in heaven: seven angels with the seven last plagues—for with them the wrath of God is completed.

2 I saw what looked like a sea of glass mixed with fire, and standing beside the sea were those who had been victorious over the beast, his image, his mark, and the number of his name. They held harps given to them by God.

The Song of Moses and the Lamb

3 They sang the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb:

*“Great and marvelous are Your works, Lord God Almighty.

Just and true are Your ways, King of the nations.

4 Who will not fear You, O Lord, and bring glory to Your name?

For You alone are holy.

All nations will come and worship before You, for Your righteous judgments have been revealed.”*

The Temple in Heaven Opens

5 After this I looked, and I saw that the temple—the tabernacle of the testimony—was opened in heaven.

6 Out of the temple came the seven angels with the seven plagues. They were dressed in clean, shining linen and wore golden sashes across their chests.

7 Then one of the four living creatures gave the seven angels seven golden bowls filled with the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever.

8 And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from His power, and no one could enter the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were completed.

Key Lessons from Revelation 15

- The Final Wrath of God: This chapter introduces the climax of judgment—the last plagues that bring God’s justice to completion.
- The Victors’ Song: Those who overcome the beast and remain faithful sing both the song of Moses (deliverance from Egypt) and the song of the Lamb (deliverance from sin and the world). Redemption unites Old and New Covenant saints in one chorus of praise.
- God’s Universal Worship: The nations will ultimately bow before God, acknowledging His holiness and justice.
- God’s Glory and Holiness: The smoke filling the temple shows the overwhelming presence and holiness of God. Until His purposes are completed, none may enter His dwelling.
- Encouragement for Believers: Even in the face of the beast’s fury, those who endure to the end will stand victorious before God’s throne, praising Him eternally.

Revelation 16 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Seven Bowls of God’s Wrath”

The Command to Pour Out the Bowls

1 Then I heard a loud voice from the temple saying to the seven angels, “Go and pour out the bowls of the wrath of God on the earth.”

The First Bowl – Painful Sores

2 The first angel went and poured out his bowl on the land, and ugly, painful sores broke out on the people who had the mark of the beast and who worshiped his image.

The Second Bowl – The Sea Turns to Blood

3 The second angel poured out his bowl on the sea, and it became like the blood of a dead man, and every living creature in the sea died.

The Third Bowl – Rivers and Springs Become Blood

4 The third angel poured out his bowl on the rivers and springs of water, and they became blood.

5 Then I heard the angel in charge of the waters say:

“You are just in these judgments, O Holy One—

You who are and who were—

for You have judged in this way.

6 For they have shed the blood of Your holy people and Your prophets, and You have given them blood to drink as they deserve.”

7 And I heard the altar respond:

“Yes, Lord God Almighty, true and just are Your judgments.”

The Fourth Bowl – Scorching Heat

8 The fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun, and the sun was allowed to scorch people with fire.

9 They were seared by the intense heat, and they cursed the name of God, who had control over these plagues. But they refused to repent and glorify Him.

The Fifth Bowl – Darkness on the Beast’s Kingdom

10 The fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and its kingdom was plunged into darkness. People gnawed their tongues in agony,

11 and cursed the God of heaven because of their pains and sores, but they refused to repent of what they had done.

The Sixth Bowl – The Euphrates Dried Up

12 The sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great river Euphrates, and its water was dried up to prepare the way for the kings from the East.

13 Then I saw three impure spirits that looked like frogs; they came out of the mouth of the dragon, out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

14 They are demonic spirits performing signs, and they go out to the kings of the whole world, to gather them for the battle on the great day of God Almighty.

15 “Behold, I come like a thief! Blessed is the one who stays awake and remains clothed, so that he may not go naked and be shamefully exposed.”

16 Then they gathered the kings together to the place that in Hebrew is called Armageddon.

The Seventh Bowl – Final Judgment

17 The seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air, and out of the temple came a loud voice from the throne, saying, “It is done!”

18 Then there came flashes of lightning, rumblings, peals of thunder, and a severe earthquake. No earthquake like it has ever occurred since mankind has been on earth—so tremendous was the quake.

19 The great city split into three parts, and the cities of the nations collapsed. God remembered Babylon the Great and gave her the cup filled with the wine of the fury of His wrath.

20 Every island fled away and the mountains could not be found.

21 From the sky huge hailstones, each weighing about a hundred pounds, fell on people. And they cursed God because of the plague of hail, because the plague was so terrible.

Key Lessons from Revelation 16

- Judgment Fits the Crime: Those who shed the blood of saints are judged with blood to drink. God’s justice is perfectly righteous.
- Hard Hearts in Judgment: Even under intense wrath, many blaspheme God rather than repent—showing the depth of sin’s hardness.
- Satan’s Final Deception: Demonic spirits unite the nations to fight against God, leading them to Armageddon.
- The Suddenness of Christ’s Coming: Believers are warned to stay spiritually awake and clothed in righteousness, for the Lord comes “like a thief.”
- Finality of Wrath: With the seventh bowl, a voice from the throne declares, “It is done.” God’s judgment reaches its completion, shaking the very foundations of the earth.

Revelation 17 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Judgment of Mystery Babylon”

The Vision of the Great Prostitute

1 Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and said to me, “Come, I will show you the judgment of the great prostitute who sits on many waters.

2 The kings of the earth committed sexual immorality with her, and the people of the earth became drunk with the wine of her immorality.”

3 Then the angel carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness. There I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast that was covered with blasphemous names. It had seven heads and ten horns.

4 The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet, and glittered with gold, precious stones, and pearls. She held in her hand a golden cup, filled with abominations and the filth of her immorality.

5 On her forehead was written a name, a mystery:

“Babylon the Great, the Mother of Prostitutes and of the Abominations of the Earth.”

6 I saw that the woman was drunk with the blood of God’s holy people, the blood of those who bore testimony to Jesus. When I saw her, I was astonished with great wonder.

The Angel Explains the Mystery

7 But the angel said to me, “Why are you astonished? I will explain to you the mystery of the woman and of the beast she rides, which has the seven heads and ten horns.

8 The beast you saw, once was, now is not, and yet will come up out of the Abyss and go to destruction. The people of the earth whose names have not been written in the book of life from the creation of the world will be amazed when they see the beast, because it once was, now is not, and yet will come again.

The Seven Heads and Ten Horns

9 Here is the mind that has wisdom: The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sits.

10 They are also seven kings: five have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come; but when he does come, he must remain only for a little while.

11 The beast that once was, and now is not, is an eighth king. He belongs to the seven and is going to destruction.

12 The ten horns you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but who for one hour will receive authority as kings along with the beast.

13 They have one purpose and will give their power and authority to the beast.

14 They will make war against the Lamb, but the Lamb will triumph over them because He is Lord of lords and King of kings—and with Him will be His called, chosen, and faithful followers.”

Babylon’s Final Fall

15 Then the angel said to me, “The waters you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and languages.

16 The beast and the ten horns you saw will hate the prostitute. They will bring her to ruin and leave her naked; they will eat her flesh and burn her with fire.

17 For God has put it into their hearts to accomplish His purpose by agreeing to hand over their power to the beast, until the words of God are fulfilled.

18 The woman you saw is the great city that rules over the kings of the earth.”

Key Lessons from Revelation 17

- Worldly Seduction: Babylon represents corrupt world systems that intoxicate nations with wealth, power, and immorality.
- Persecution of the Saints: She is drunk with the blood of believers, showing the hatred of the world against God’s people.
- Satan’s Counterfeit Power: The beast imitates eternal power (“was, is not, and yet is”), but his destiny is destruction.
- The Lamb’s Triumph: Though nations unite under the beast, Christ will overcome because He is King of kings.
- God’s Sovereignty in Judgment: Even the beast and his allies unknowingly carry out God’s plan to destroy Babylon, proving He rules over human rebellion.

Revelation 18 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Fall of Babylon the Great”

Babylon Declared Fallen

1 After this, I saw another angel coming down from heaven with great authority, and the earth was illuminated with his glory.

2 He shouted with a mighty voice, “Fallen! Fallen is Babylon the Great! She has become a home for demons, a haunt for every unclean spirit, a nest for every vile and detestable bird.

3 For all the nations have drunk the wine of her passionate immorality. The kings of the earth have committed adultery with her, and the merchants of the earth have grown rich from her excessive luxury.”

A Call to God’s People

4 Then I heard another voice from heaven say:

“Come out of her, my people, so that you will not share in her sins, so that you will not receive any of her plagues.

5 For her sins are piled up to heaven, and God has remembered her crimes.

6 Give back to her as she has given; pay her back double for what she has done. Pour her a double portion from her own cup.

7 Give her as much torment and grief as the glory and luxury she gave herself. For in her heart she boasts, ‘I sit enthroned as queen. I am not a widow; I will never mourn.’

8 Therefore in one day her plagues will overtake her: death, mourning, and famine. She will be consumed by fire, for mighty is the Lord God who judges her.”

Lament of the Kings and Merchants

9 The kings of the earth who committed adultery with her and shared her luxury will weep and mourn over her when they see the smoke of her burning.

10 Terrified at her torment, they will stand far off and cry:

“Woe! Woe to you, great city, Babylon, mighty city! In one hour your doom has come!”

11 The merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her, because no one buys their cargoes anymore—

12 cargoes of gold, silver, precious stones and pearls; fine linen, purple, silk, and scarlet cloth; every kind of citron wood, articles of ivory, costly wood, bronze, iron, and marble;

13 cinnamon, spice, incense, myrrh, frankincense, wine, olive oil, fine flour, wheat, cattle and sheep; horses and carriages; and human lives—slaves and souls of men.

14 “The fruit you longed for is gone from you. All your luxury and splendor have vanished, never to be recovered.”

15 The merchants who sold these things and gained their wealth from her will stand far off, terrified at her torment. They will weep and mourn,

16 and cry out: “Woe! Woe to you, great city, dressed in fine linen, purple and scarlet, glittering with gold, precious stones, and pearls!

17 In one hour such great wealth has been brought to ruin!”

Every sea captain, every passenger and sailor, and all who earn their living from the sea, will stand far off.

18 When they see the smoke of her burning, they will exclaim, “Was there ever a city like this great city?”

19 They will throw dust on their heads, and with weeping and mourning cry out:

“Woe! Woe to you, great city, where all who had ships on the sea became rich through her wealth! In one hour she has been brought to ruin!”

20 Rejoice over her, you heavens! Rejoice, you people of God! Rejoice, apostles and prophets! For God has judged her with the judgment she imposed on you.

Babylon Thrown Down

21 Then a mighty angel picked up a boulder the size of a large millstone and threw it into the sea, and said:

“With such violence the great city of Babylon will be thrown down, never to be found again.

22 The sound of harpists, musicians, pipers and trumpeters will never be heard in you again. No worker of any trade will ever be found in you again. The sound of a millstone will never be heard in you again.

23 The light of a lamp will never shine in you again. The voices of bridegroom and bride will never be heard in you again.

Your merchants were the world’s important people. By your magic spell all the nations were led astray.

24 In her was found the blood of prophets and of God’s holy people, of all who have been slaughtered on the earth.”

Key Lessons from Revelation 18

- Come Out of Babylon: God calls His people to separate from the world’s corrupt systems so they will not share in her sins or plagues.
- Sudden Judgment: Babylon’s fall comes in a single hour, showing the swiftness and severity of God’s judgment.

- False Security of Wealth: Luxury, trade, and power cannot prevent destruction when nations exalt themselves against God.
- God Avenges His People: The blood of prophets, saints, and martyrs is remembered, and justice is executed by God Himself.
- The End of Worldly Glory: Music, commerce, marriage celebrations—all human pride and joy—end in silence when God’s judgment falls.

Revelation 19 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Triumph of the Lamb and the King of Kings”

Praise in Heaven for God’s Judgment

1 After this I heard what sounded like the roar of a great multitude in heaven shouting:

“Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and power belong to our God,

2 for his judgments are true and just. He has condemned the great prostitute who corrupted the earth by her immorality. He has avenged the blood of his servants.”

3 And again they shouted: “Hallelujah! The smoke from her rises forever and ever.”

4 The twenty-four elders and the four living beings fell down and worshiped God, who was seated on the throne. They cried, “Amen! Hallelujah!”

5 Then a voice came from the throne, saying:

“Praise our God, all you his servants, you who fear him, both small and great!”

The Marriage of the Lamb

6 Then I heard the sound like a great multitude, like the roar of rushing waters and loud peals of thunder, shouting:

“Hallelujah! For the Lord God Almighty reigns.

7 Let us rejoice and be glad and give him glory! For the wedding of the Lamb has come, and his bride has made herself ready.

8 Fine linen, bright and clean, was given her to wear.” (The fine linen represents the righteous deeds of God’s people.)

9 Then the angel said to me, “Write this: Blessed are those who are invited to the wedding supper of the Lamb!” And he added, “These are the true words of God.”

10 At this I fell at his feet to worship him. But he said, “Do not do it! I am a fellow servant with you and with your brothers and sisters who hold to the testimony of Jesus. Worship God! For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.”

The Rider on the White Horse

11 I saw heaven standing open, and there before me was a white horse, whose rider is called Faithful and True. With justice he judges and wages war.

12 His eyes are like blazing fire, and on his head are many crowns. He has a name written on him that no one knows but he himself.

13 He is dressed in a robe dipped in blood, and his name is the Word of God.

14 The armies of heaven were following him, riding on white horses and dressed in fine linen, white and clean.

15 Coming out of his mouth is a sharp sword with which to strike down the nations. He will rule them with an iron scepter. He treads the winepress of the fierce wrath of God Almighty.

16 On his robe and on his thigh he has this name written:

KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

The Great Supper of God

17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun, who cried in a loud voice to all the birds flying in midair, “Come, gather together for the great supper of God,

18 so that you may eat the flesh of kings, generals, and the mighty, of horses and their riders, and the flesh of all people, free and slave, great and small.”

The Defeat of the Beast and the False Prophet

19 Then I saw the beast and the kings of the earth and their armies gathered together to wage war against the rider on the horse and his army.

20 But the beast was captured, and with it the false prophet who had performed the signs on its behalf. With these signs he had deluded those who had received the mark of the beast and worshiped its image. The two of them were thrown alive into the fiery lake of burning sulfur.

21 The rest were killed with the sword coming out of the mouth of the rider on the horse, and all the birds gorged themselves on their flesh.

Key Lessons from Revelation 19

- God’s Justice Is True: The downfall of Babylon proves God’s judgments are righteous and final.
- The Bride’s Purity: The Church, the Bride of Christ, must prepare in holiness, clothed in righteous deeds.
- Christ the Conqueror: Jesus returns as the victorious King, riding a white horse, executing justice, and ruling with ultimate authority.
- The End of Evil: The beast and false prophet meet their final judgment, showing that deception and rebellion cannot stand against Christ.
- The Ultimate Supper: Two feasts are described—the wedding supper of the Lamb for the faithful, and the supper of judgment for the rebellious. Everyone will be part of one or the other.

Revelation 20 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Thousand-Year Reign and the Final Judgment”

Satan Bound for a Thousand Years

1 Then I saw an angel coming down from heaven, holding in his hand the key to the bottomless pit and a great chain.

2 He seized the dragon—that ancient serpent, who is the devil, or Satan—and bound him for a thousand years.

3 The angel threw him into the bottomless pit, locked it, and sealed it over him, so he could not deceive the nations anymore until the thousand years were completed. After that, he must be released for a short time.

The Reign of Christ and the Martyrs

4 Then I saw thrones, and those who sat on them were given authority to judge. And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their testimony about Jesus and for proclaiming the word of God. They had not worshiped the beast or his image, and had not received his mark on their foreheads or hands. They came to life and reigned with Christ for a thousand years.

5 The rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy are those who share in the first resurrection. The second death has no power over them, but they will be priests of God and of Christ and will reign with him for a thousand years.

Satan's Final Rebellion

7 When the thousand years are completed, Satan will be released from his prison.

8 He will go out to deceive the nations at the four corners of the earth—Gog and Magog—and gather them for battle. Their number is like the sand of the seashore.

9 They marched across the broad plain of the earth and surrounded the camp of God's people, the beloved city. But fire came down from heaven and consumed them.

10 And the devil who deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and burning sulfur, where the beast and the false prophet were thrown. They will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

The Great White Throne Judgment

11 Then I saw a great white throne and him who was seated on it. The earth and the heavens fled from his presence, and there was no place for them.

12 And I saw the dead, great and small, standing before the throne. Books were opened, and another book was opened, which is the book of life. The dead were judged according to what they had done, as recorded in the books.

13 The sea gave up its dead, and death and Hades gave up the dead in them. Each person was judged according to what they had done.

14 Then death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This lake of fire is the second death.

15 And anyone whose name was not found written in the book of life was thrown into the lake of fire.

Key Lessons from Revelation 20

- Christ's Victory Over Satan: Satan is bound during the millennial reign of Christ, proving that God's authority is absolute.
- The First Resurrection: Those faithful to Christ, even unto death, will reign with Him and escape the power of the second death.
- The Futility of Rebellion: Even after the millennium, Satan's last rebellion ends instantly by God's fire from heaven.
- The Final Judgment: All humanity will stand before God, judged by their works and by whether their names are written in the Book of Life.
- The Second Death: Eternal separation from God awaits all whose names are not in the Book of Life, but eternal life is assured for those in Christ.

Revelation 21 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The New Heaven, New Earth, and New Jerusalem”

The New Creation

1 Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more.

2 I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared like a bride beautifully dressed for her husband.

3 And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, “Look! God’s dwelling is now with humanity, and He will live with them. They will be His people, and God Himself will be with them and be their God.

4 He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death, sorrow, crying, or pain, for the former things have passed away.”

All Things Made New

5 The one seated on the throne said, “Behold, I am making all things new.” Then He said, “Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true.”

6 And He said to me, “It is finished! I am the Alpha and the Omega—the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will freely give from the spring of the water of life.

7 The one who overcomes will inherit all these things, and I will be his God, and he will be my son.

8 But the cowardly, the unbelieving, the vile, the murderers, the sexually immoral, those who practice witchcraft, idolaters, and all liars—their destiny is in the fiery lake of burning sulfur. This is the second death.”

The Bride: The New Jerusalem

9 Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls filled with the seven last plagues came and spoke to me, saying, “Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb.”

10 He carried me away in the Spirit to a great, high mountain and showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God.

11 It shone with the glory of God, and its brilliance was like a very precious jewel, like jasper, clear as crystal.

The Splendor of the City

12 The city had a massive, high wall with twelve gates. At the gates stood twelve angels, and on the gates were written the names of the twelve tribes of Israel.

13 There were three gates on the east, three on the north, three on the south, and three on the west.

14 The wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them were the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 The angel who spoke with me had a golden measuring rod to measure the city, its gates, and its wall.

16 The city was laid out as a perfect square—its length, width, and height were all equal. He measured the city: 12,000 furlongs (about 1,400 miles); its length, width, and height were the same.

17 He measured its wall: 144 cubits thick (about 200 feet), by human measurement, which the angel was using.

18 The wall was made of jasper, and the city of pure gold, clear as glass.

19 The foundations of the city walls were decorated with every kind of precious stone: the first foundation was jasper, the second sapphire, the third chalcedony, the fourth emerald,

20 the fifth sardonyx, the sixth sardius, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoptase, the eleventh jacinth, and the twelfth amethyst.

21 The twelve gates were twelve pearls, each gate made of a single pearl. The great street of the city was pure gold, transparent like glass.

God's Presence Is Its Temple and Light

22 I did not see a temple in the city, for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple.

23 The city does not need the sun or the moon to shine on it, for the glory of God gives it light, and the Lamb is its lamp.

24 The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it.

25 Its gates will never be shut during the day, and there will be no night there.

26 The glory and honor of the nations will be brought into it.

27 But nothing impure will ever enter it, nor anyone who does what is shameful or deceitful—only those whose names are written in the Lamb's Book of Life.

Key Lessons from Revelation 21

- The Hope of Renewal: God will make all things new—no more pain, sorrow, or death for His people.

- The Water of Life: Eternal satisfaction is offered freely to all who thirst for God.
- The Holy City: The New Jerusalem represents God’s perfect dwelling with His people—secure, radiant, and filled with His glory.
- God’s Presence Is Enough: No temple, sun, or moon is needed because God and the Lamb provide everlasting light and life.
- The Book of Life: Only those written in the Lamb’s Book of Life will share in this eternal city.

Revelation 22 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The River of Life and the Final Invitation”

The River and the Tree of Life

1 Then the angel showed me a river of the water of life, clear as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb.

2 It flowed down the middle of the great street of the city. On each side of the river stood the tree of life, bearing twelve kinds of fruit, yielding a new crop every month. The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

3 No longer will there be any curse. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in the city, and His servants will worship Him.

4 They will see His face, and His name will be written on their foreheads.

5 There will be no night there. They will not need the light of a lamp or the light of the sun, for the Lord God will give them light. And they will reign forever and ever.

The Faithful and True Words

6 Then the angel said to me, “These words are faithful and true. The Lord, the God who inspires the prophets, has sent His angel to show His servants what must soon take place.”

7 “Behold, I am coming soon! Blessed is the one who keeps the words of the prophecy written in this book.”

Worship God Alone

8 I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. And when I had heard and seen them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who had shown them to me.

9 But he said to me, “Don’t do that! I am a fellow servant with you and with your brothers the prophets and with all who keep the words of this book. Worship God!”

Do Not Seal the Prophecy

10 Then he told me, “Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is near.

11 Let the one who does wrong continue to do wrong, let the vile continue to be vile, let the righteous continue to do right, and let the holy continue to be holy.”

Jesus Is Coming Soon

12 “Behold, I am coming soon! My reward is with Me, and I will give to each person according to what they have done.

13 I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.

14 Blessed are those who wash their robes, that they may have the right to the tree of life and may enter the city through the gates.

15 Outside are the dogs, those who practice magic arts, the sexually immoral, the murderers, the idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices falsehood.

16 I, Jesus, have sent My angel to give you this testimony for the churches. I am the Root and the Offspring of David, and the bright Morning Star.”

The Final Invitation

17 The Spirit and the bride say, “Come!” And let the one who hears say, “Come!” Let the one who is thirsty come; and let the one who wishes take the water of life freely.

Warning and Final Promise

18 I warn everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: If anyone adds anything to them, God will add to that person the plagues described in this book.

19 And if anyone takes words away from this book of prophecy, God will take away from that person any share in the tree of life and in the holy city, which are described in this book.

20 He who testifies to these things says, “Yes, I am coming soon.” Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.

21 The grace of the Lord Jesus be with God’s people. Amen.

A Note from the Author

Dr. Paul Crawford

The Crawford Standard Bible is the fruit of many years of prayer, study, and reflection on God’s Word. My heart in creating this translation has always been simple: to render the Scriptures into clear, modern American English without losing the depth, beauty, and authority of the original texts.

In my own journey, I have found that God’s Word speaks best when it is both faithful to the original meaning and understandable to the reader. That is what I have sought to accomplish here. This Bible does not aim to replace the cherished translations that have nourished believers for centuries; rather, it stands alongside them as a companion—fresh in its language, yet rooted in the same eternal truth.

Throughout this translation, great care has been taken to balance accuracy with clarity. The ancient Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek texts have been studied with reverence, and where nuances of meaning might otherwise be lost, explanatory notes and structured divisions have been included to guide the reader. My prayer is that every word here will be received as it was first intended: as the living Word of God, timeless and trans-formative.

I dedicate this work to all who hunger and thirst for righteousness, to every believer seeking to walk in the light of Christ, and to future generations who will inherit the call to carry the gospel forward. May this Bible draw you closer to the Author of Life Himself and strengthen your walk with the Lord Jesus Christ.

As Paul the Apostle wrote, “For everything that was written in the past was written to teach us, so that through endurance and the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope” (Romans 15:4). May you find that same hope, comfort, and strength as you read these pages.

With love in Christ,

Dr. Paul Crawford
