Satan's tactics haven't changed—discouragement, legal opposition, and delays are common weapons used against God's people.

4. Faithfulness May Require Saying "No"

Zerubbabel and the leaders were bold to reject unfaithful alliances, choosing obedience to God over political convenience.

5. God's Work May Be Delayed but Not Defeated

The temple work paused for a time, but God's plan was still in motion. Delay is not denial.

Ezra Chapter 5 — Crawford Standard Bible

The Prophets Encourage the Builders

1 The prophets Haggai and Zechariah (the son of Iddo) prophesied to the Jews in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel who was over them.

2 Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Jeshua son of Jozadak arose and began rebuilding the temple of God in Jerusalem. The prophets of God were with them, supporting and encouraging them.

Inquiry from the Persian Officials

3 At that time, Tatnai, governor of the region west of the Euphrates, along with Shethar-boznai and their associates, came and asked, "Who gave you the authority to rebuild this temple and finish this structure?"

4 They also asked, "What are the names of the men who are leading this construction?"

5 But the eye of their God was upon the Jewish leaders, and they were not forced to stop until a report could be sent to Darius, and his reply received.

The Letter to King Darius

6 This is a copy of the letter that Tatnai, governor of the region west of the Euphrates, along with Shethar-boznai and their associates, the officials of that region, sent to King Darius:

7 “To King Darius, greetings.

8 Be it known to the king that we went to the province of Judah, to the temple of the great God. It is being built with large stones, and timber is being set in the walls. The work is progressing quickly and is going well under their supervision.

9 We questioned the leaders, asking them, ‘Who gave you permission to rebuild this temple and restore this structure?’

10 We also asked their names, so we could inform you and write down the names of their leaders.

The Response of the Jews

11 “This is the answer they gave us:

‘We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and we are rebuilding the temple that was built long ago by a great king of Israel.

12 But because our ancestors angered the God of heaven, He handed them over to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this temple and carried the people away to Babylon.

13 However, in the first year of King Cyrus of Babylon, he issued a decree to rebuild the house of God.

14 The gold and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple in Jerusalem and brought to the temple of Babylon, were taken out by King Cyrus. He entrusted them to a man named Sheshbazzar, whom he appointed as governor.

15 He said to him, “Take these vessels, put them in the temple in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be rebuilt on its original site.”

16 Then Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundation of the house of God in Jerusalem. From that time until now, the work has continued, but it is not yet completed.’

The Request to Verify the Decree

17 “Now, if it pleases the king, let a search be made in the royal archives there in Babylon to see if King Cyrus really issued a decree to rebuild this temple of God in Jerusalem. Then please send us your decision regarding this matter.”

Key Lessons from Ezra Chapter 5

1. God Sends Encouragement Through His Prophets

Haggai and Zechariah’s timely words stirred courage in the hearts of the builders. God always raises voices to strengthen His people when opposition arises.

2. God’s Eye Is on His Work

The “eye of their God” was upon the leaders, ensuring that no earthly authority could halt the work without divine permission.

3. Bold Testimony of Identity and Purpose

The Jewish leaders boldly declared, “We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth,” demonstrating that their allegiance was first to God.

4. God’s Plans Are Rooted in History and Promise

The decree of Cyrus was not just a royal order but part of God’s larger plan. The Jews appealed to history to affirm the legitimacy of their work.

5. When Opposed, Appeal to Truth and Evidence

Instead of fearing opposition, the leaders welcomed a search of the records, confident that the truth of God’s command would be confirmed.

Ezra Chapter 6 — Crawford Standard Bible

Darius Confirms Cyrus’s Decree

1 Then King Darius issued a decree, and a search was made in the archives stored in the treasury at Babylon.

2 A scroll was found in the fortress of Ecbatana, in the province of Media, and this is what was recorded:

3 In the first year of King Cyrus, the king issued a decree concerning the temple of God in Jerusalem: “Let the temple be rebuilt on the site where sacrifices are offered. Let its foundations be firmly laid. Its height is to be 90 feet, and its width is to be 90 feet,

4 with three rows of large stones and one row of new timber. The expenses are to be paid from the royal treasury.

5 Also, let the gold and silver items of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took from the temple in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, be returned to their places in the temple in Jerusalem. Let them be restored to the house of God.”

The King’s Command to Support the Builders

6 “Now then, Tatnai governor of the region west of the Euphrates, Shethar-boznai, and your associates, the officials of that region—stay away from there.

7 Do not interfere with the work on the temple of God. Let the governor of the Jews and the Jewish elders rebuild this house of God where it once stood.

8 Moreover, I issue a decree regarding what you are to do for these elders of the Jews in the rebuilding of this temple of God: The costs are to be fully paid from the royal treasury, from the tribute collected in the region beyond the Euphrates, so that the work will not stop.

9 Give the priests in Jerusalem what they need daily—young bulls, rams, and lambs for burnt offerings to the God of heaven; also wheat, salt, wine, and oil, as requested by the priests—
10 so that they may offer pleasing sacrifices to the God of heaven and pray for the life of the king and his sons.

11 Furthermore, I decree that if anyone alters this edict, a beam is to be pulled from his house and he is to be impaled on it. And his house is to be turned into a pile of rubble.
12 May the God who has caused His name to dwell there overthrow any king or nation that tries to change or destroy this temple in Jerusalem. I, Darius, have made this decree. Let it be carried out immediately.”

The Temple Is Completed

13 Then Tatnai the governor, Shethar-boznai, and their companions carried out the command of King Darius promptly.
14 The Jewish elders continued to build and prospered through the preaching of the prophets Haggai and Zechariah son of Iddo. They finished building the temple as God had commanded and as the kings of Persia—Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes—had decreed.
15 The temple was completed on the third day of the month of Adar, in the sixth year of King Darius’s reign.

The Temple Is Dedicated

16 Then the Israelites—the priests, the Levites, and the rest of the exiles—celebrated the dedication of the house of God with great joy.
17 At the dedication of the temple, they offered 100 bulls, 200 rams, and 400 lambs. They also offered 12 male goats as a sin offering for all Israel, one for each tribe.
18 And they appointed the priests by their divisions and the Levites by their groups for the service of God at Jerusalem, as it is written in the Book of Moses.

The Passover Is Celebrated

19 On the fourteenth day of the first month, the exiles celebrated the Passover.
20 All the priests and Levites had purified themselves and were ceremonially clean. The Levites slaughtered the Passover lamb for all the exiles, their fellow priests, and themselves.
21 So the Israelites who had returned from exile ate the Passover meal, along with all who had separated themselves from the unclean practices of their pagan neighbors to worship the Lord, the God of Israel.
22 They also celebrated the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days with great joy, for the Lord had made them joyful and had turned the heart of the king of Assyria toward them, strengthening their hands in the work on the house of God, the God of Israel.

Key Lessons from Ezra Chapter 6

1. God's Promises Are Preserved Across Kingdoms

Though empires rise and fall, God's word stands firm. Darius confirmed what Cyrus had decreed, showing how God's plan transcends rulers and generations.

2. God Can Use Secular Authorities for Sacred Purposes

Darius not only upheld the work but funded it and protected it. Even those who don't worship the true God can be used to fulfill His purposes.

3. Reverence and Dedication Bring Joy

The dedication of the temple and the celebration of the Passover were marked by unity, joy, and worship. Obedience brings blessing and rejoicing.

4. God Honors Repentance and Renewal

Those who had separated themselves from defilement to seek the Lord were welcomed at the feast. Purity of heart always finds a place at God's table.

5. God Turns the Hearts of Kings

The people rejoiced because God had moved the heart of a foreign king. No heart is too distant or hard for God to influence for His glory.

Ezra Chapter 7 — Crawford Standard Bible

Ezra the Scribe Comes to Jerusalem

1 After these events, during the reign of King Artaxerxes of Persia, Ezra came up from Babylon. He was the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah,

2 the son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub,

3 the son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth,

4 the son of Zerariah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki,

5 the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest.

6 This Ezra was a skilled scribe in the Law of Moses, which the Lord, the God of Israel, had given. The king granted him everything he requested, because the hand of the Lord his God was upon him.

7 Some of the people of Israel, including priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, and temple servants, also went up to Jerusalem with him in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes.

8 Ezra arrived in Jerusalem in the fifth month of the seventh year of the king.

9 He had begun his journey from Babylon on the first day of the first month, and he arrived in Jerusalem on the first day of the fifth month, because the gracious hand of his God was upon him.

10 Ezra had determined in his heart to study the Law of the Lord, to obey it, and to teach its statutes and regulations in Israel.

The Letter from King Artaxerxes

11 This is a copy of the letter King Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the priest and scribe—an expert in the words of the Lord’s commands and His statutes for Israel:

12 “Artaxerxes, king of kings, to Ezra the priest, a teacher of the Law of the God of heaven: Perfect peace.

13 I hereby decree that any of the people of Israel in my kingdom—including priests and Levites—who want to go to Jerusalem with you may go.

14 You are sent by the king and his seven counselors to investigate how Judah and Jerusalem are doing with regard to the Law of your God, which you carry with you.

15 You are also to take with you the silver and gold that the king and his counselors are freely offering to the God of Israel, whose dwelling is in Jerusalem,

16 along with all the silver and gold you may collect throughout Babylon, together with the freewill offerings the people and priests give for the house of their God in Jerusalem.

17 With this money, be sure to buy bulls, rams, and lambs, along with their grain offerings and drink offerings, and sacrifice them on the altar of the house of your God in Jerusalem.

18 You and your fellow priests may use the rest of the silver and gold however you think best, in accordance with the will of your God.

19 Deliver to the God of Jerusalem all the articles that have been entrusted to you for the worship of the temple of your God.

20 If anything else is needed for the house of your God and you have to pay for it, take it from the royal treasury.

21 I, King Artaxerxes, hereby issue a decree to all the treasurers in the region west of the Euphrates River: Whatever Ezra the priest, the expert in the Law of the God of heaven, requests from you, it must be provided quickly—

22 up to 100 talents of silver, 100 measures of wheat, 100 baths of wine, 100 baths of olive oil, and an unlimited amount of salt.

23 Whatever is commanded by the God of heaven must be done with diligence for the temple of the God of heaven. Why should His wrath come against the kingdom and the king and his sons?

24 Furthermore, you are to know that it is not lawful to impose tribute, tax, or toll on any of the priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, temple servants, or any other workers at the house of God.

Ezra’s Authority to Teach and Enforce the Law

25 And you, Ezra, according to the wisdom your God has given you, are to appoint judges and officials who can administer justice to all the people in the region west of the Euphrates—all who know the laws of your God. Teach those who don’t know them.

26 Anyone who refuses to obey the Law of your God and the law of the king must be punished promptly—whether by death, banishment, confiscation of property, or imprisonment.”

Ezra's Praise and Preparation

27 Blessed be the Lord, the God of our ancestors, who put such a thing as this into the king's heart, to beautify the house of the Lord in Jerusalem!

28 He has shown me mercy before the king, his counselors, and all his powerful officials. I was strengthened because the hand of the Lord my God was upon me, and I gathered leading men from Israel to go up with me.

Key Lessons from Ezra Chapter 7

1. A Heart Prepared for God's Word Makes a Difference

Ezra committed to study, obey, and teach God's law. True revival begins with hearts committed to God's truth.

2. God Moves in the Hearts of Kings

Artaxerxes was a Persian ruler, but God influenced him to support the rebuilding and beautification of the temple. God's sovereignty reaches even into royal courts.

3. Faithfulness in Leadership Requires Wisdom and Justice

Ezra was entrusted not just with treasures but with authority to appoint judges and teach God's law. Leadership grounded in God's wisdom blesses the entire community.

4. Provision Follows God's Purpose

The king's decree included not just permission, but abundant resources—silver, gold, offerings, and supplies. When God calls, He provides.

5. Gratitude Fuels Boldness

Ezra gave thanks to God for the favor he had received and was strengthened in faith and purpose. Thankfulness empowers courage.

Ezra Chapter 8 — Crawford Standard Bible

The Families Returning with Ezra

1 These are the family leaders and the genealogy of those who returned with me from Babylon during the reign of King Artaxerxes:

2 From the descendants of Phinehas: Gershom.

From the descendants of Ithamar: Daniel.

From the descendants of David: Hattush.

3 From the descendants of Shecaniah (through the line of Parosh): Zechariah, and with him were 150 registered men.

- 4 From the descendants of Pahath-moab: Eliehoenai son of Zerahiah, and 200 men.
- 5 From the descendants of Shecaniah: the son of Jahaziel, and 300 men.
- 6 From the descendants of Adin: Ebed son of Jonathan, and 50 men.
- 7 From the descendants of Elam: Jeshaiiah son of Athaliah, and 70 men.
- 8 From the descendants of Shephatiah: Zebadiah son of Michael, and 80 men.
- 9 From the descendants of Joab: Obadiah son of Jehiel, and 218 men.
- 10 From the descendants of Shelomith: the son of Josiphiah, and 160 men.
- 11 From the descendants of Bebai: Zechariah son of Bebai, and 28 men.
- 12 From the descendants of Azgad: Johanan son of Hakkatan, and 110 men.
- 13 From the descendants of Adonikam (the last of them): Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah, and 60 men.
- 14 From the descendants of Bigvai: Uthai and Zabbud, and 70 men.
-

Seeking Levites for the Journey

- 15 I gathered them at the river that flows toward Ahava, and we camped there for three days. When I reviewed the people and the priests, I found no Levites among them.
- 16 So I sent for Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, another Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam—leaders and men of wisdom—
- 17 and gave them instructions for Iddo, the leader at the place called Casiphia. I told them what to say to Iddo and his relatives, the temple servants there, asking them to send us ministers for the house of our God.
- 18 Because the gracious hand of our God was on us, they sent us a capable man from the descendants of Mahli, a descendant of Levi son of Israel—Sherebiah—with his sons and relatives, 18 men in all.
- 19 They also sent Hashabiah and Jeshaiiah from the descendants of Merari, with their relatives and sons, 20 men.
- 20 Additionally, 220 temple servants came—descendants of those appointed by David and the officials to assist the Levites. They were all listed by name.
-

Fasting and Trusting God for Protection

- 21 Then I proclaimed a fast there at the Ahava River, so we might humble ourselves before our God and ask Him for a safe journey for us, our children, and all our possessions.
- 22 I was ashamed to ask the king for soldiers and horsemen to protect us from enemies along the way, because we had told the king, “The gracious hand of our God is on everyone who seeks Him, but His power and wrath are against all who abandon Him.”
- 23 So we fasted and prayed to our God about this, and He answered our prayers.
-

Guarding the Treasures for the Temple

24 Then I chose twelve of the leading priests—Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brothers—
25 and I weighed out to them the silver, gold, and other items that had been donated for the house of our God by the king, his advisors, his officials, and all the Israelites who were present.

26 I handed over to them 650 talents of silver, 100 silver articles weighing 100 talents, and 100 talents of gold.

27 I also gave them 20 gold bowls worth 1,000 darics, and two polished bronze vessels as precious as gold.

28 And I said to them, “You and these articles are holy to the Lord. The silver and gold are a freewill offering to the Lord, the God of your ancestors.

29 Guard them carefully until you weigh them before the leading priests, Levites, and heads of Israelite families in the chambers of the house of the Lord in Jerusalem.”

30 So the priests and Levites accepted the silver, gold, and sacred articles, to bring them to the house of our God in Jerusalem.

Arrival and Worship in Jerusalem

31 On the twelfth day of the first month, we left the Ahava River to go to Jerusalem. The hand of our God was on us, and He protected us from enemies and bandits along the way.

32 When we arrived in Jerusalem, we rested for three days.

33 On the fourth day, the silver, gold, and sacred items were weighed in the house of our God by Meremoth son of Uriah the priest. Eleazar son of Phinehas was with him, along with Jozabad son of Jeshua and Noadiah son of Binnui, both Levites.

34 Everything was accounted for by number and weight, and the entire weight was officially recorded at that time.

35 Then the exiles who had returned from captivity offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel: twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, and twelve male goats as a sin offering—all as a burnt offering to the Lord.

36 They also delivered the king’s orders to the royal governors and officials in the region west of the Euphrates. These officials then supported the people and the temple of God.

Key Lessons from Ezra Chapter 8

1. Leadership Requires Preparation and Accountability

Ezra carefully documented those returning, sought Levites, and took great care in managing God's treasures. Leadership in God’s work must be prayerful, thoughtful, and accountable.

2. God Answers When We Seek Him Humbly

Before journeying, Ezra called for a fast. Their dependence was not on human security but on divine protection—and God honored their faith.

3. Worship Involves Sacrifice and Holiness

The gifts and people were consecrated to the Lord. Worship isn't just ritual; it's reverent and sacrificial, giving God the best we have.

4. Faith Is Tested on the Journey

Ezra could have requested royal guards but chose instead to trust God's protection. True faith often shows up in the risks we take when we lean on Him.

5. Community in Worship Reflects Unity and Gratitude

The returnees offered sacrifices for all Israel—not just themselves. Worship brings people together under God's covenant promises.

Ezra Chapter 9 — Crawford Standard Bible

A Troubling Report of Compromise

1 After these things were completed, the leaders came to me and said, “The people of Israel, including the priests and the Levites, have not kept themselves separate from the people of the surrounding nations. They are following the detestable practices of the Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Jebusites, Ammonites, Moabites, Egyptians, and Amorites.

2 They've even married their daughters and given their own daughters to these people for their sons. As a result, the holy people have mixed themselves with the nations around them. And the worst offenders have been the leaders and officials.”

Ezra's Deep Distress and Mourning

3 When I heard this, I tore my clothes and cloak in grief. I pulled out hair from my head and beard and sat down in shock and horror.

4 Everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel gathered around me because of the unfaithfulness of the exiles, and I sat there appalled until the time of the evening sacrifice.

Ezra's Prayer of Confession

5 Then, at the time of the evening sacrifice, I rose up from my deep grief. With my torn garments still on me, I fell to my knees and spread out my hands to the Lord my God.

6 I prayed:

“O my God, I am too ashamed and humiliated to lift my face to You. Our sins are piled higher than our heads, and our guilt has reached to the heavens.

7 From the days of our ancestors until now, we have been terribly guilty. Because of our sins, we—along with our kings and priests—have been handed over to foreign kings. We have suffered sword, captivity, theft, and disgrace. That’s our condition even now.

8 But now, for a brief moment, we’ve experienced Your grace. You have given us a small remnant and a place of safety in Your holy presence. You have brightened our eyes and granted us some relief, even though we’re still in bondage.

9 Though we are slaves, our God has not abandoned us in our slavery. He has shown us mercy in the sight of the kings of Persia. He has revived us so we could rebuild the house of our God, restore its ruins, and give us a protective wall in Judah and Jerusalem.

The Weight of Guilt and the Righteousness of God

10 And now, our God, what can we say after this? For we have abandoned Your commands, 11 which You gave through Your servants the prophets. They said, ‘The land you are entering to possess is polluted with the detestable practices of its people. The land is filled from one end to the other with their uncleanness.

12 Therefore, do not give your daughters to their sons or take their daughters for your sons. Do not seek a treaty or their wealth, so that you may grow strong, enjoy the good things of the land, and leave it to your children as an inheritance forever.’

13 After everything that has happened to us because of our evil deeds and great guilt—and yet You, our God, have punished us far less than we deserve and have given us such a great deliverance—

14 should we again violate Your commands and intermarry with these people who do such detestable things? Wouldn’t You become so angry with us that You would completely destroy us, leaving no one left?

15 Lord God of Israel, You are righteous. We are left here as a remnant, saved only by Your mercy. But here we are, standing in guilt before You—there’s no way we could possibly stand before You because of this.”

Key Lessons from Ezra Chapter 9

1. Spiritual Compromise Has Deep Consequences

Intermarriage with pagan nations wasn’t merely cultural—it symbolized a spiritual compromise that could derail the holiness God called His people to uphold.

2. True Repentance Is Marked by Grief and Humility

Ezra's reaction wasn't casual; he tore his clothes, pulled out his hair, and sat in stunned silence. Real repentance involves sorrow that goes to the heart.

3. God's Grace Shines Brightest in Our Weakness

Though Israel had sinned greatly, God still offered a moment of grace—a remnant, a temple, and favor with kings. His mercy always gives hope.

4. We Deserve Judgment, But God Gives Deliverance

Ezra acknowledged that their punishment was less than they deserved. God is just, but His mercy holds back the full weight of what sin deserves.

5. The Righteous Cannot Stand Before God on Their Own

Ezra ends by admitting they have no defense—no way to stand before God apart from His grace. This foreshadows the need for a perfect intercessor—Christ.

Ezra Chapter 10 — Crawford Standard Bible

A Public Outcry for Repentance

1 While Ezra was praying and confessing, weeping and lying face down in front of the house of God, a large crowd of men, women, and children from Israel gathered around him. The people also wept bitterly.

2 Then Shecaniah son of Jehiel, from the family of Elam, spoke up and said to Ezra, “We have been unfaithful to our God by marrying women from the surrounding peoples. But there is still hope for Israel.

3 So let's make a covenant with our God to divorce these foreign wives and send them away along with their children, according to the advice of you, my lord, and those who tremble at God's command. Let us act according to the Law.

4 Get up, for it is your duty to take the lead in this matter. We will support you—be strong and do it!”

A Nationwide Call to Return to Covenant Faithfulness

5 Then Ezra stood up and made the leading priests, Levites, and all the Israelites take an oath to do what had been suggested. And they all swore to it.

6 Ezra then left the front of the house of God and went to the room of Jehohanan son of Eliashib. He stayed there without eating or drinking, because he was mourning over the unfaithfulness of the returned exiles.

7 A public announcement was sent out throughout Judah and Jerusalem, calling all the exiles to come to Jerusalem.

8 Anyone who failed to come within three days, in accordance with the decision of the leaders and elders, would forfeit all his property and be expelled from the community of the exiles.

A Stormy Gathering and Bold Confession

9 On the twentieth day of the ninth month, all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered in Jerusalem. They sat in the open square before the house of God, trembling because of the matter at hand and because of the heavy rain.

10 Then Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, “You have been unfaithful by marrying foreign women, adding to Israel’s guilt.

11 Now confess your sins to the Lord, the God of your ancestors, and do what pleases Him. Separate yourselves from the surrounding peoples and from your foreign wives.”

12 Then the whole assembly responded loudly, “Yes, we must do as you have said.

13 But there are many people here, and it’s the rainy season. We can’t stand outside. Besides, this matter cannot be resolved in a day or two, because so many of us are involved.

14 Let our leaders represent the entire assembly. Let all those who have married foreign women come at appointed times, along with the elders and judges of each city, until the fierce anger of our God over this issue is turned away from us.”

15 Only Jonathan son of Asahel and Jahzeiah son of Tikvah opposed this, and they were supported by Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite.

A Careful Review and National Reform

16 So the returned exiles did as proposed. Ezra the priest appointed men who were family leaders, all listed by name. On the first day of the tenth month, they began their investigation, 17 and by the first day of the first month, they finished dealing with all the men who had married foreign wives.

List of Those Who Repented

18 Among the priests, the following were found to have married foreign wives: from the descendants of Jeshua son of Jozadak and his brothers—Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedaliah.

19 They pledged to divorce their wives and each offered a ram from the flock as a guilt offering.

20 From the descendants of Immer: Hanani and Zebadiah.

21 From the descendants of Harim: Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel, and Uzziyah.

22 From the descendants of Pashhur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad, and Elasah.

23 Among the Levites: Jozabad, Shimei, Kelaiah (also called Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer.

24 Among the singers: Eliashib. Among the gatekeepers: Shallum, Telem, and Uri.

25 The following people from Israel also married foreign women:

From the descendants of Parosh: Ramiah, Izziah, Malkijah, Mijamin, Eleazar, Malkijah, and Benaiah.

26 From Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, Jehiel, Abdi, Jeremoth, and Elijah.

27 From Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, Jeremoth, Zabad, and Aziza.

28 From Bebai: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, and Athlai.

29 From Bani: Meshullam, Malluk, Adaiah, Jashub, Sheal, and Ramoth.

30 From Pahath-Moab: Adna, Kelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, Binnui, and Manasseh.

31 From Harim: Eliezer, Ishijah, Malkijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, 32 Benjamin, Malluk, and Shemariah.

33 From Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, and Shimei.

34 From Bani: Maadai, Amram, Uel,

35 Benaiah, Bedeiah, Keluh,

36 Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib,

37 Mattaniah, Mattenai, and Jaasai,

38 Bani, Binnui, Shimei,

39 Shelemiah, Nathan, Adaiah,

40 Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai,

41 Azarel, Shelemiah, Shemariah,

42 Shallum, Amariah, and Joseph.

43 From Nebo: Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jaddai, Joel, and Benaiah.

44 All these men had married foreign women, and some of them had children by these wives.

Key Lessons from Ezra Chapter 10

1. Repentance Requires Real Action

It's not enough to feel sorry for sin—true repentance includes obedience and the painful but necessary steps to make things right with God.

2. Covenant Renewal Sometimes Requires Sacrifice

The Israelites made a hard decision to put away their foreign wives—relationships that had led them into spiritual compromise. God's holiness must come first.

3. Leadership Must Model and Enforce God's Word

Ezra didn't just pray—he led. His actions stirred the leaders and the nation to take ownership and accountability.

4. Corporate Sin Demands Corporate Repentance

This was a national issue, and it was addressed publicly, with shared commitment to restoration.

5. God's Mercy Is Evident in Correction

Though painful, the people's willingness to confess and change shows that God was still at work—purifying and restoring His chosen people.

Introduction to the Book of Nehemiah

“So I prayed to the God of heaven.” – Nehemiah 2:4

Title and Meaning

The book of Nehemiah is named after its central figure, Nehemiah, whose name means “The Lord comforts” in Hebrew (Nechemyah). In the Hebrew Bible, Nehemiah was originally part of a single scroll with the Book of Ezra, as both books recount the return from Babylonian exile and the rebuilding of Jerusalem. Only later in history were they separated into two distinct books.

Nehemiah was a godly Jewish official serving in the Persian court who felt a deep burden for his people and their city. The book chronicles his leadership in rebuilding Jerusalem's walls and reviving the faith of the returned exiles.

Author and Date

Though the text does not explicitly name its author, Nehemiah is traditionally credited as the primary source, particularly for the first-person memoir sections (chapters 1–7 and parts of 13). The remainder of the book, especially the narrative overlap with Ezra, may have been compiled by Ezra or another inspired scribe.

Nehemiah's events take place in the mid-5th century BC, around 445–425 BC, during the reign of King Artaxerxes I of Persia. The book is part of the post-exilic historical books, which include Ezra, Esther, Haggai, Zechariah, and Malachi.

Purpose of Nehemiah

The Book of Nehemiah was written to document:

- The physical rebuilding of Jerusalem's walls despite fierce opposition.
- The spiritual restoration of the people through the reading of the Law.
- The importance of prayerful leadership, moral reform, and covenant renewal.

It teaches us:

- That God uses ordinary people to accomplish extraordinary purposes.
 - That faith must be demonstrated through action, perseverance, and courage.
 - That national restoration requires spiritual revival.
 - That prayer, planning, and persistence are tools of faithful leadership.
-

Structure of Nehemiah

The book can be divided into two main parts:

1. Rebuilding the Walls (Chapters 1–7)

- Nehemiah's burden and call (Ch. 1–2)
- The construction and opposition (Ch. 3–6)
- Completion and registration of the people (Ch. 7)

2. Renewing the Covenant (Chapters 8–13)

- Public reading of the Law (Ch. 8)
- Confession and covenant renewal (Ch. 9–10)
- Reforms in Jerusalem (Ch. 11–12)
- Final reforms and warnings (Ch. 13)

This dual focus on physical and spiritual restoration reflects God's desire to rebuild not only broken cities but broken hearts.

Major Themes

- Godly Leadership – Nehemiah is a model of servant leadership marked by prayer, courage, and integrity.
 - Prayer and Dependence – Nearly every chapter highlights Nehemiah's devotion to prayer, showing that lasting work begins on our knees.
 - Rebuilding and Renewal – The story is about more than a wall; it's about restoring identity, worship, and covenant faithfulness.
 - Opposition and Perseverance – The people face slander, threats, discouragement, and internal strife—but they persevere.
 - Covenant Commitment – Revival comes through repentance, reading God's Word, and reestablishing godly practices.
-

Why Nehemiah Matters Today

In a world where spiritual foundations are often broken and moral walls are in ruins, Nehemiah reminds us that God is in the restoration business. He still raises up Nehemiahs—men and women who see the brokenness around them and respond with prayer, courage, and faith-filled action.

This book speaks directly to:

- Those burdened for their community, nation, or church.
- Those who feel called to lead, build, restore, or protect.
- Those longing for revival through God's Word and godly reform.

Nehemiah teaches us that leadership and reform must begin with personal surrender to the Lord.

Key Verse

“So I said to them, ‘You know very well what trouble we are in. Jerusalem lies in ruins... Let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem and end this disgrace!’” – Nehemiah 2:17

This verse captures the passion of Nehemiah’s mission—rebuilding for the glory of God and the identity of His people. It is both a historical moment and a timeless call for every generation to rise and build.

Nehemiah Chapter 1 — Crawford Standard Bible

Nehemiah’s Burden for Jerusalem

1 These are the words of Nehemiah son of Hacaliah. In the month of Kislev, during the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes’ reign, I was in the fortress of Susa.

2 One of my brothers, Hanani, came with some men from Judah. I asked them about the Jews who had returned from exile and about the condition of Jerusalem.

3 They said to me, “Those who survived the exile and are back in the province are in great trouble and disgrace. The wall of Jerusalem is broken down, and its gates have been burned with fire.”

A Broken Heart Leads to Prayer

4 When I heard these words, I sat down and wept. I mourned for several days, fasting and praying to the God of heaven.

5 I said, “O Lord, God of heaven, the great and awesome God, who keeps His covenant of love with those who love Him and obey His commands,

6 please listen to my prayer! Look down and see me praying night and day for your people Israel. I confess that we have sinned against You. Yes, even I and my father’s family have sinned.

7 We have acted very wickedly toward You. We have not obeyed the commands, statutes, and laws You gave Your servant Moses.

A Covenant Remembered

8 Please remember what You told Your servant Moses: ‘If you are unfaithful, I will scatter you among the nations.

9 But if you return to Me and obey My commands, then even if your exiles are at the farthest horizon, I will gather them and bring them back to the place I have chosen for My name to dwell.’

10 These are Your servants and Your people, whom You redeemed by Your great power and strong hand.

A Prayer for Favor

11 O Lord, please hear my prayer! Listen to the prayers of those of us who delight in honoring You. Please grant me success today by making the king favorable to me. Put it in his heart to be kind to me.”

I was the king’s cupbearer.

Key Lessons from Nehemiah Chapter 1

1. Brokenness Precedes Vision

Nehemiah’s journey began with a burden. Before he ever built a wall, he wept, fasted, and prayed. Real change begins when we allow ourselves to be moved by what moves God.

2. Prayer Is the Foundation of Leadership

Nehemiah didn’t rush to act—he started with prayer. He poured his heart out to God, confessing sin and calling on God’s covenant promises.

3. True Repentance Includes “We” Not Just “They”

Nehemiah confessed not just the sins of the nation, but included himself and his family. Revival begins with personal humility and responsibility.

4. God Honors His Word

Nehemiah prayed God’s promises back to Him. He knew Scripture and stood on it. Our prayers gain power when they are anchored in the Word of God.

5. Preparation Happens in the Waiting

Nehemiah was just a cupbearer—but he was already preparing his heart for what God would call him to do. Before God opens doors, He prepares hearts.

Nehemiah Chapter 2 — Crawford Standard Bible

A Prayer and a Bold Request

1 In the month of Nisan, during the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, wine was brought before the king. I took the wine and gave it to him. I had never before looked sad in his presence.

2 The king asked me, “Why do you look so sad when you’re not sick? This can only be sadness of heart.” I was terrified,

3 but I replied, “May the king live forever! Why shouldn’t I be sad when the city where my ancestors are buried lies in ruins, and its gates have been destroyed by fire?”

4 Then the king said, “What is it you’re requesting?” So I prayed silently to the God of heaven,

5 and I answered the king, “If it pleases the king, and if I have found favor in your sight, send me to Judah, to the city where my ancestors are buried, so I can rebuild it.”

6 The king, with the queen sitting beside him, asked, “How long will your journey take? When will you return?” I gave him a time, and it pleased the king to send me.

Letters of Provision and Protection

7 I also said to the king, “If it pleases the king, let me have letters for the governors across the Euphrates River, so they’ll allow me safe passage to Judah.

8 And a letter to Asaph, the keeper of the king’s forest, so he’ll give me timber to make beams for the gates of the temple fortress, for the city wall, and for the house I will occupy.” The king granted my request, because the gracious hand of my God was on me.

9 When I came to the governors beyond the river, I gave them the king’s letters. The king had also sent army officers and cavalry with me.

10 But when Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official heard about my arrival, they were very upset that someone had come to help the people of Israel.

Inspecting the Broken Walls

11 I arrived in Jerusalem and stayed there three days.

12 Then I got up during the night with a few men. I had not told anyone what God had put in my heart to do for Jerusalem. I was riding my own animal, and no other animals were with me.

13 I went out at night through the Valley Gate, past the Dragon’s Spring, and to the Dung Gate. I examined the broken walls of Jerusalem and the burned gates.

14 Then I went on to the Fountain Gate and the King’s Pool, but there was not enough room for my animal to get through.

15 So I went up the valley by night, inspecting the wall, and then turned back and entered again through the Valley Gate.

16 The city officials didn’t know where I had gone or what I was doing. I hadn’t yet told the Jews, priests, nobles, officials, or others who would be working on the construction.

Let Us Rise and Build

17 Then I said to them, “You see the trouble we’re in—Jerusalem is in ruins, and its gates are burned with fire. Come, let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem so we will no longer be a disgrace.”

18 I told them how the gracious hand of my God had been on me, and what the king had said to me. They replied, “Let’s rise up and build!” So they prepared themselves for the good work.

19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite official, and Geshem the Arab heard about it, they mocked and ridiculed us. They said, “What is this you’re doing? Are you rebelling against the king?”

20 I replied, “The God of heaven will make us prosper. We, His servants, will rise and build. But you have no share, no right, and no legacy in Jerusalem.”

Key Lessons from Nehemiah Chapter 2

1. God Opens Doors When We Pray and Act Boldly

Nehemiah’s courage in approaching the king came after prayer. Faith isn’t just waiting—it’s stepping forward in confidence, trusting God to guide and provide.

2. Divine Favor Can Move Worldly Authorities

The king not only permitted Nehemiah to go but also gave him protection and resources. When God moves, He can use even unbelievers to accomplish His purpose.

3. Wise Leadership Inspects Before It Acts

Nehemiah didn’t rally the people before understanding the scope of the damage. Leaders observe, listen, and plan before calling others to action.

4. Opposition Is Inevitable, but God’s Favor Is Greater

When God’s people rise to rebuild, the enemy always mocks and resists. But Nehemiah didn’t let ridicule stop him—he pointed to God as the true source of their mission.

5. Your Calling Is Not Everyone’s Calling

Nehemiah boldly declared that Sanballat, Tobiah, and Geshem had “no portion” in God’s work. Not everyone will walk with you in obedience—learn to discern who belongs and who doesn’t.

Nehemiah Chapter 3 — Crawford Standard Bible

Rebuilding the Sheep Gate and Nearby Walls

1 Then Eliashib the high priest and his fellow priests started rebuilding the Sheep Gate. They consecrated it and set up its doors. They continued their work as far as the Tower of the Hundred and consecrated that too, as well as the Tower of Hananel.

2 The men of Jericho built next to him, and next to them Zaccur son of Imri built.

3 The Fish Gate was built by the sons of Hassenaah. They laid its beams and installed its doors, bolts, and bars.

4 Meremoth son of Uriah and grandson of Hakkoz repaired the next section. Next to him was Meshullam son of Berekiah, grandson of Meshezabel. Then came Zadok son of Baana.

5 The people from Tekoa made repairs, but their nobles refused to put their shoulders to the work under their supervisors.

The Old Gate and Northern Sections

6 The Old Gate was repaired by Joiada son of Paseah and Meshullam son of Besodeiah. They laid its beams and installed its doors, bolts, and bars.

7 Next to them worked Melatiah the Gibeonite and Jadon the Meronothite, men from Gibeon and Mizpah, who were working under the authority of the governor of the province west of the Euphrates River.

8 Uzziel son of Harhaiah, one of the goldsmiths, repaired the next section. Hananiah, a perfume-maker, worked next to him. They restored Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.

9 Rephaiah son of Hur, ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, repaired the next section.

10 Jedaiah son of Harumaph repaired the wall across from his own house. Next to him, Hattush son of Hashabneiah worked.

Valley Gate to the Pool of Siloam

11 Malchijah son of Harim and Hasshub son of Pahath-Moab repaired another section, including the Tower of the Ovens.

12 Shallum son of Hallohesh, ruler of the other half of the district of Jerusalem, repaired the next section with the help of his daughters.

13 Hanun and the people of Zanoah rebuilt the Valley Gate. They installed its doors, bolts, and bars and repaired the wall for 1,000 cubits to the Dung Gate.

14 Malchijah son of Recab, ruler of the district of Beth Hakkerem, rebuilt the Dung Gate. He installed its doors, bolts, and bars.

15 Shallun son of Col-Hozeh, ruler of the district of Mizpah, repaired the Fountain Gate. He rebuilt it, roofed it, and installed its doors, bolts, and bars. He also repaired the wall by the Pool of Siloam near the King's Garden and the stairs that go down from the City of David.

Southern Walls and House Repairs

16 Nehemiah son of Azbuk, ruler of half the district of Beth Zur, repaired the wall to a point across from the tombs of David, as far as the artificial pool and the house of the warriors.

17 Next to him, the Levites made repairs under Rehum son of Bani. Beside him was Hashabiah, ruler of half the district of Keilah, who supervised the work in his district.

18 Then their fellow Levites, under Binnui son of Henadad, ruler of the other half of Keilah, made repairs.

19 Next to him, Ezer son of Jeshua, ruler of Mizpah, repaired another section, opposite the ascent to the armory at the angle of the wall.

20 Baruch son of Zabbai worked with great zeal and repaired another section, from the angle to the entrance of the house of Eliashib the high priest.

21 Meremoth son of Uriah and grandson of Hakkoz repaired another section from the entrance of Eliashib's house to the end of it.

Priests, Families, and Additional Sections

22 The priests from the surrounding region made repairs next.

23 Benjamin and Hasshub repaired the wall in front of their house. Azariah son of Maaseiah and grandson of Ananiah repaired the section next to his house.

24 Binnui son of Henadad repaired another section, from Azariah's house to the angle and the corner.

25 Palal son of Uzai repaired the section opposite the angle and the tower that juts out from the upper palace near the court of the guard. Pedaiah son of Parosh helped with repairs.

26 The temple servants living on the hill of Ophel repaired to a point opposite the Water Gate on the east and the projecting tower.

27 Next to them, the people from Tekoa repaired another section, from the great projecting tower to the wall of Ophel.

28 Above the Horse Gate, the priests made repairs, each in front of his own house.

29 Zadok son of Immer made repairs opposite his house. Next to him was Shemaiah son of Shekariah, the keeper of the East Gate.

30 Hananiah son of Shelemiah and Hanun, the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired another section. Next to them, Meshullam son of Berekiah made repairs across from his living quarters.

31 Malchijah, one of the goldsmiths, repaired to the point opposite the gate of the temple servants and the merchants, opposite the Inspection Gate, and to the room above the corner.

32 Between the room above the corner and the Sheep Gate, the goldsmiths and merchants made repairs.

Key Lessons from Nehemiah Chapter 3

1. Everyone Has a Role in God's Work

This chapter shows people from every walk of life—priests, rulers, craftsmen, merchants, women, and even perfume-makers—all joining together to rebuild. No task in God's kingdom is too small.

2. Some Will Refuse to Help

The nobles of Tekoa refused to join the work. Not everyone will commit to the mission. Don't let that stop the momentum of faithful builders.

3. Work Begins at Home

Many repaired sections of the wall right across from their own homes. Restoration often starts in our own households before extending outward.

4. Leaders Must Lead by Example

Rulers of districts, priests, and family heads personally took part in the rebuilding. Leadership in God's work isn't just about delegation—it's about participation.

5. Diligent Effort Is Noticed by God

Baruch "zealously" repaired his section. God sees and honors those who pour passion into His work, even if the world doesn't.

Nehemiah Chapter 4 — Crawford Standard Bible

Mockery and Opposition from Enemies

1 When Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he became furious and was greatly enraged. He mocked the Jews,

2 and said in front of his companions and the army of Samaria, "What are these weak Jews doing? Will they restore it themselves? Will they offer sacrifices? Will they finish in a day? Can they bring stones back to life from these heaps of rubble, burned as they are?"

3 Tobiah the Ammonite, who was beside him, said, "Even if a fox climbed on what they're building, it would break down their stone wall!"

4 So I prayed: "Hear us, O our God, for we are being mocked. Turn their insults back on their own heads. Make them captives in a foreign land.

5 Do not cover up their sin or erase their guilt from Your sight, for they have provoked You to anger in front of the builders."

Unity and Progress Despite Threats

6 So we rebuilt the wall until all of it was joined together to half its height, because the people had a heart to work.

7 But when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites, and the people of Ashdod heard that the repairs to Jerusalem's walls were progressing and that the gaps were being closed, they became extremely angry.

8 They all plotted together to come and fight against Jerusalem and stir up trouble.

9 But we prayed to our God and posted a guard day and night to meet this threat.

Discouragement and Fear Among the Workers

10 Meanwhile, the people of Judah said, "The strength of the workers is failing, and there is so much rubble, we can't rebuild the wall."

11 And our enemies said, "They won't see or know anything until we're right among them. We'll kill them and stop the work."

12 Then the Jews who lived near them came and warned us ten times, "Wherever you turn, they will attack us."

Vigilance and Defense While Building

13 So I placed armed guards behind the lowest parts of the wall, in the vulnerable spots. I stationed the people by families with their swords, spears, and bows.

14 Then I looked over everything and said to the nobles, the officials, and the rest of the people, "Don't be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, who is great and awesome, and fight for your brothers, your sons and daughters, your wives and your homes!"

15 When our enemies learned that we knew their plans and that God had frustrated them, we all returned to the wall, each to his own work.

16 From that day on, half of my men worked on the construction while the other half held spears, shields, bows, and armor. The leaders supported all the people of Judah.

17 Those who carried materials did the work with one hand and held a weapon with the other.

18 Each of the builders wore his sword at his side while he worked. And the man who sounded the trumpet stayed with me.

Strategy and Readiness for Battle

19 Then I said to the nobles, the officials, and the rest of the people, “The work is extensive and spread out, and we are far apart from one another on the wall.

20 Wherever you hear the sound of the trumpet, gather to us there. Our God will fight for us!”

21 So we continued the work, with half the men holding spears from dawn until the stars came out.

22 At that time I also told the people, “Let every man and his servant stay inside Jerusalem at night so they can be guards by night and workers by day.”

23 So none of us—neither I, nor my brothers, nor my servants, nor the guards who followed me—ever took off our clothes, except for washing.

Key Lessons from Nehemiah Chapter 4

1. Opposition is inevitable when doing God’s work

Sanballat, Tobiah, and others mocked and plotted against the people, but God’s purpose prevailed. Expect resistance, but press on.

2. Prayer is the first line of defense

Nehemiah didn’t retaliate with insults—he turned to prayer. When mocked or attacked, seek God’s help before anything else.

3. Work with watchfulness

The builders held tools in one hand and weapons in the other. God’s work must be done with diligence and readiness.

4. Encouragement builds morale

Nehemiah reminded the people not to be afraid but to remember the greatness of God. Encouragement keeps faith strong during trials.

5. Unity defeats fear

When threats rose, the people worked together, armed and alert. Unity among God’s people disarms the enemy.

6. God fights for His people

“Our God will fight for us” wasn’t just a slogan—it was a reality. When you trust in the Lord, you’re never fighting alone.

Nehemiah Chapter 5 — Crawford Standard Bible

A Cry Against Oppression Among the People

1 There was a great outcry from the people and their wives against their fellow Jews.

2 Some were saying, “We have many sons and daughters. We need grain so we can eat and survive.”

3 Others said, “We’ve had to mortgage our fields, vineyards, and homes to get grain during the famine.”

4 Still others said, “We’ve borrowed money to pay the king’s taxes on our fields and vineyards.”

5 “Even though we’re of the same flesh and blood as our fellow Jews—and our children are just like theirs—we’ve had to sell our sons and daughters into slavery. Some of our daughters are already in bondage, and there’s nothing we can do about it, because our fields and vineyards now belong to others.”

Nehemiah Confronts the Nobles and Officials

6 When I heard their complaints and these words, I became very angry.

7 I thought it over and then confronted the nobles and officials. I told them, “You are charging your own people interest!” So I called a large assembly to deal with them.

8 I said, “As much as we’re able, we have bought back our fellow Jews who were sold to foreigners. But now you are selling your own people—and they have to be bought back by us again!” They had nothing to say in response.

9 Then I said, “What you’re doing is not right. Shouldn’t you walk in the fear of our God to avoid the disgrace brought on us by our enemies?”

10 I, along with my brothers and servants, could also demand repayment in silver and grain. But let’s stop charging interest.

11 Return their fields, vineyards, olive groves, and homes to them immediately, along with the interest you’ve charged them—one percent of the money, grain, new wine, and olive oil.”

Restitution and a Solemn Oath

12 They replied, “We will give it back and won’t demand anything more from them. We will do as you say.” Then I called the priests and made them swear to keep this promise.

13 I also shook out the fold of my robe and said, “May God shake out everyone who doesn’t keep this promise—may they be shaken out and emptied of everything.” And the whole assembly said, “Amen,” and praised the Lord. And the people did what they had promised.

Nehemiah’s Example of Sacrificial Leadership

14 Moreover, from the twentieth to the thirty-second year of King Artaxerxes—that’s twelve years—I was appointed as governor of Judah. During that time, neither I nor my brothers accepted the food allotted to the governor.

15 But the earlier governors who came before me placed a heavy burden on the people and took forty shekels of silver from them in addition to food and wine. Even their assistants lorded it over the people. But I didn't do that, because I feared God.

16 Instead, I devoted myself to the work on this wall. We didn't acquire any land, and all my servants joined me in the work.

17 Moreover, 150 Jews and officials ate at my table, along with those who came to us from the surrounding nations.

18 Every day, one ox and six choice sheep were prepared for me, along with poultry, and every ten days an abundance of all kinds of wine. But I never demanded the food allotted to the governor, because the burden on the people was already too heavy.

19 "Remember me with favor, my God, for all I have done for these people."

Key Lessons from Nehemiah Chapter 5

1. God's people must not oppress each other

Even during hardship, injustice among God's people is unacceptable. Nehemiah confronts internal exploitation with righteous anger.

2. Leadership must serve, not burden

Nehemiah rejected privileges others took, choosing instead to serve sacrificially. God-honoring leaders care more for the people than for personal gain.

3. Repentance requires restitution

The people not only confessed their wrongdoing but also restored what they had taken. True repentance includes action.

4. Fearing God brings integrity

Nehemiah lived differently because he feared the Lord. Reverence for God should impact how we treat others.

5. God remembers faithful service

Nehemiah ends this chapter not boasting but praying, "Remember me, my God, for good." Trust that nothing done for the Lord is forgotten.

Nehemiah Chapter 6 — Crawford Standard Bible

Plots to Distract and Intimidate Nehemiah

1 When Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arab, and the rest of our enemies heard that I had rebuilt the wall and that no gaps remained in it—though I had not yet installed the doors in the gates—

2 Sanballat and Geshem sent me a message: “Come, let’s meet together in one of the villages on the plain of Ono.” But they were planning to harm me.

3 So I sent messengers back with this reply: “I’m doing an important work and can’t come down. Why should the work stop while I leave it to come talk with you?”

4 They sent me the same message four times, and each time I gave them the same answer.

5 The fifth time, Sanballat sent his servant with an open letter in his hand.

6 The letter said: “It is rumored among the nations—and Gashmu confirms it—that you and the Jews plan to rebel, and that’s why you are rebuilding the wall. According to these reports, you want to be their king.

7 You’ve even appointed prophets in Jerusalem to proclaim about you, ‘There is a king in Judah!’ These things will be reported to the king. So come, let’s talk it over.”

8 I sent him this reply: “None of what you’re saying is true. You’re making it all up in your own mind.”

9 They were all trying to intimidate us, saying, “They’ll get too discouraged to finish the work.” But I prayed, “Now, Lord, strengthen my hands.”

A False Prophet Exposed

10 Later I went to the house of Shemaiah son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabel, who had shut himself in. He said, “Let’s meet inside the Temple of God and shut the doors. They’re coming to kill you—tonight!”

11 But I replied, “Should someone like me run away? Should I go into the Temple just to save my life? No, I will not go!”

12 I realized God had not sent him, but that he had prophesied this against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

13 He had been paid to intimidate me and get me to sin by acting out of fear—so they could smear my reputation and disgrace me.

14 I prayed, “My God, remember what Tobiah and Sanballat have done—and also the prophetess Noadiah and the rest who were trying to intimidate me.”

The Wall Completed in 52 Days

15 So the wall was finished on the twenty-fifth day of the month Elul. It had taken fifty-two days.

16 When all our enemies heard this and the surrounding nations saw what had happened, they lost their confidence. They realized this work had been done with the help of our God.

Ongoing Political Intrigue

17 During those days, the nobles of Judah were exchanging many letters with Tobiah,

18 because many in Judah were loyal to him. He was the son-in-law of Shecaniah son of Arah, and his son Johanan had married the daughter of Meshullam son of Berechiah.

19 These nobles kept praising Tobiah to me and reporting everything I said to him. And Tobiah kept sending letters to intimidate me.

Key Lessons from Nehemiah Chapter 6

1. Stay focused on God's calling despite distractions

Nehemiah refused to leave his work to entertain lies and manipulation. When you're doing God's work, stay the course.

2. Discern truth from deception

Not everyone who claims to speak for God actually does. Nehemiah discerned that the "prophecy" was a trap.

3. Intimidation is a weapon of the enemy

Sanballat and Tobiah used rumors and threats to try to weaken Nehemiah's resolve. But faith in God provided strength.

4. Prayer is the answer to pressure

Nehemiah constantly turned to prayer: "Lord, strengthen my hands." He depended on divine help, not just strategy.

5. God receives the glory when His work is completed

Even the enemies of Israel had to admit the wall was built with the help of God. A testimony of God's power silences opposition.

Nehemiah Chapter 7 — Crawford Standard Bible

Leadership and Protection Established

1 After the wall was completed and I had set up the doors, I appointed the gatekeepers, singers, and Levites.

2 I put my brother Hanani in charge of Jerusalem, along with Hananiah, the commander of the fortress, because he was a faithful man who feared God more than most.

3 I told them, "Don't open the gates of Jerusalem until the sun is hot, and keep them shut and locked while the guards are still on duty. Appoint residents of Jerusalem as guards—some at their posts and some near their own homes."

A Large City with Few People

4 The city was large and spacious, but there were few people living in it, and many of the houses had not yet been rebuilt.

5 Then my God gave me the idea to gather the nobles, officials, and people so they could be registered by genealogy. I found the scroll of the record of those who had returned first and found this written in it:

The List of the Returnees from Babylon

6 These are the people from the province who returned from captivity. They had been exiled by King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and returned to Jerusalem and other towns in Judah, each to their own hometown.

7 They came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, and Baanah.

The number of the men of Israel was:

8 Parosh's descendants — 2,172

9 Shephatiah's descendants — 372

10 Arah's descendants — 652

11 Pahath-moab's descendants (through Jeshua and Joab) — 2,818

12 Elam's descendants — 1,254

13 Zattu's descendants — 845

14 Zaccai's descendants — 760

15 Binnui's descendants — 648

16 Bebai's descendants — 628

17 Azgad's descendants — 2,322

18 Adonikam's descendants — 667

19 Bigvai's descendants — 2,067

20 Adin's descendants — 655

21 Ater's descendants (through Hezekiah) — 98

22 Hashum's descendants — 328

23 Bezai's descendants — 324

24 Hariph's descendants — 112

25 Gibeon's descendants — 95

Men from Towns in Judah

- 26 People from Bethlehem and Netophah — 188
 - 27 People from Anathoth — 128
 - 28 People from Beth-azmaveth — 42
 - 29 People from Kiriath-jearim, Kephirah, and Beeroth — 743
 - 30 People from Ramah and Geba — 621
 - 31 People from Michmas — 122
 - 32 People from Bethel and Ai — 123
 - 33 People from the other Nebo — 52
 - 34 Descendants of the other Elam — 1,254
 - 35 Descendants of Harim — 320
 - 36 People from Jericho — 345
 - 37 People from Lod, Hadid, and Ono — 721
 - 38 Descendants of Senaah — 3,930
-

The Priests

- 39 Descendants of Jedaiah (through Jeshua) — 973
 - 40 Descendants of Immer — 1,052
 - 41 Descendants of Pashhur — 1,247
 - 42 Descendants of Harim — 1,017
-

The Levites, Singers, Gatekeepers

- 43 Descendants of Jeshua (through Kadmiel and Hodevah) — 74
 - 44 Singers, descendants of Asaph — 148
 - 45 Gatekeepers: descendants of Shallum, Ater, Talmon, Akkub, Hatita, and Shobai — 138
-

Temple Servants (Nethinim)

- 46–56 Listed are the temple servants, descendants of:
Ziha, Hashupha, Tabbaoth, Keros, Sia, Padon, Lebanah, Hagabah, Shalmi, Hanan, Giddel, Gahar, Reaiah, Rezin, Nekoda, Gazzam, Uzza, Paseah, Besai, Meunim, Nephusim, Bakbuk, Hakupha, Harhur, Bazluth, Mehida, Harsha, Barkos, Sisera, Temah, Neziah, and Hatipha.
-

Descendants of Solomon's Servants

- 57–59 Included the descendants of:
Sotai, Sophereth, Perida, Jaala, Darkon, Giddel, Shephatiah, Hattil, Pochereth-hazzebaim, and Amon.

60 In total, the temple servants and the descendants of Solomon's servants numbered 392.

People with Uncertain Genealogy

61 Also returning were those from Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Kerub, Addon, and Immer, but they couldn't prove their families or ancestry as Israelites.

62 This included the descendants of Delaiah, Tobiah, and Nekoda — 642 people.

63 Also from the priests: the descendants of Hobaiah, Hakkoz, and Barzillai (who married a daughter of Barzillai the Gileadite and took her name).

64 They searched for their family records but couldn't find them, so they were disqualified from the priesthood.

65 The governor ordered them not to eat the sacred offerings until a priest could determine their status by using the Urim and Thummim.

Final Totals

66 The entire group numbered 42,360 people,

67 in addition to 7,337 male and female servants. They also had 245 male and female singers.

68 They owned 736 horses, 245 mules,

69 435 camels, and 6,720 donkeys.

Donations for the Work

70 Some of the family leaders contributed to the work. The governor gave 1,000 gold coins, 50 basins, and 530 priestly robes to the treasury.

71 Other family leaders gave 20,000 gold coins and 2,200 pounds of silver for the work.

72 The rest of the people gave 20,000 gold coins, 2,000 pounds of silver, and 67 priestly robes.

Settling into the Cities

73 So the priests, Levites, gatekeepers, singers, temple servants, and all Israel settled in their own towns. When the seventh month came, the people of Israel were all in their cities.

Key Lessons from Nehemiah Chapter 7

1. Leadership requires discernment and godliness

Nehemiah appointed leaders based on their faithfulness and fear of God, not just their ability.

2. Security and order follow spiritual priorities

Nehemiah appointed not only guards but also singers and Levites, showing that worship and defense go hand in hand.

3. God honors remembrance and identity

The genealogies reminded the people who they were and where they came from. Identity in God's covenant is vital.

4. Faithful stewardship impacts the whole community

The offerings of leaders and the people were used to support the Temple and its service. Everyone played a part.

5. Accountability and spiritual integrity matter

Those unable to prove their lineage were temporarily excluded from the priesthood to maintain the purity of worship.

Nehemiah Chapter 8 — Crawford Standard Bible

The Law is Publicly Read at the Water Gate

1 All the people gathered together with one heart in the open square in front of the Water Gate. They asked Ezra the scribe to bring out the Book of the Law of Moses, which the Lord had commanded for Israel.

2 So Ezra the priest brought the Law before the whole assembly of men, women, and everyone old enough to understand. This was on the first day of the seventh month.

3 He read it aloud from daybreak until noon, standing in front of the square before the Water Gate, in the presence of the men, women, and others who could understand. Everyone listened attentively to the Book of the Law.

Ezra Reads and the People Respond in Worship

4 Ezra the scribe stood on a wooden platform made for the occasion. Beside him on his right stood Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Uriah, Hilkiah, and Maaseiah; and on his left stood Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchijah, Hashum, Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam.

5 Ezra opened the book in full view of all the people, since he was standing above them. As he opened it, all the people stood up.

6 Ezra praised the Lord, the great God; and all the people shouted “Amen! Amen!” while lifting their hands. Then they bowed down and worshiped the Lord with their faces to the ground.

The People Are Taught and Convicted by God’s Word

7 The Levites—Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, and Pelaiah—helped the people understand the Law while the people stood in their places.

8 They read from the Book of the Law of God, translating and explaining the meaning so the people could understand what was being read.

9 Then Nehemiah the governor (the Tirshatha), Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who were teaching said to the people, “This day is holy to the Lord your God. Do not mourn or weep.” For all the people were weeping as they listened to the words of the Law.

Joy in the Lord and Sharing with Others

10 Then Nehemiah said, “Go and enjoy rich food and sweet drinks, and send some to those who have nothing prepared. This day is holy to our Lord. Don’t be sad, for the joy of the Lord is your strength!”

11 The Levites calmed all the people, saying, “Be still, for this is a holy day. Do not grieve.”

12 So the people went away to eat, drink, send portions to others, and celebrate with great joy, because they had understood the words that had been made known to them.

The Feast of Tabernacles Restored

13 On the second day, the heads of all the families, along with the priests and Levites, gathered around Ezra the scribe to gain deeper insight into the words of the Law.

14 As they studied, they discovered that the Law, given through Moses, said the people of Israel were to live in shelters during the festival in the seventh month.

15 And that they should proclaim this word and spread it through all their towns and in Jerusalem: “Go out to the hills and bring back branches from olive trees, wild olive trees, myrtles, palms, and leafy trees to make shelters, as it is written.”

16 So the people went out and brought back branches and built shelters for themselves on the roofs of their houses, in their courtyards, in the courtyards of the house of God, and in the public squares by the Water Gate and the Gate of Ephraim.

17 The entire assembly that had returned from captivity built shelters and lived in them. From the days of Joshua son of Nun until that day, the Israelites had not celebrated this way. And there was very great rejoicing.

18 Day after day, from the first to the last, Ezra read from the Book of the Law of God. They celebrated the festival for seven days, and on the eighth day there was a solemn assembly, just as the Law required.

Key Lessons from Nehemiah Chapter 8

1. Hungering for God's Word brings unity

The people gathered “as one man,” showing how a shared desire to hear God’s Word can unite hearts and communities.

2. Understanding Scripture is essential for spiritual revival

The Levites not only read but explained the Law. God's Word must be clearly taught so that people understand and apply it.

3. Conviction from the Word leads to both repentance and joy

The people wept at their sin, but God called them to rejoice. Repentance should always lead us to restoration and hope.

4. The joy of the Lord strengthens our hearts

Joy rooted in God’s character and presence is our strength in both spiritual and practical matters.

5. Obedience renews worship and community life

By reviving the Feast of Booths, the people obeyed God’s ancient commands and rediscovered His blessings.

Nehemiah Chapter 9 — Crawford Standard Bible

A National Day of Repentance and Confession

1 On the twenty-fourth day of the same month, the people of Israel gathered again. They fasted, wore sackcloth, and put dust on their heads as a sign of mourning.

2 Those of Israelite descent separated themselves from all foreigners. They stood and confessed their sins and the sins of their ancestors.

3 They stood in their places and read from the Book of the Law of the Lord their God for a quarter of the day. For another quarter, they confessed and worshiped the Lord their God.

Levites Lead in Praise and Prayer

4 Then the Levites—Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani—stood on the stairs and cried out loudly to the Lord their God.

5 And the Levites—Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabniah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah—said, “Stand up and bless the Lord your God forever and ever! Blessed be Your glorious name, exalted above all blessing and praise!”

A Historical Confession of God's Faithfulness

6 “You alone are the Lord. You made the heavens, even the highest heavens, with all their stars and planets, the earth and everything on it, the seas and everything in them. You preserve them all, and the angels of heaven worship You.

7 You are the Lord God who chose Abram, brought him out of Ur of the Chaldeans, and gave him the name Abraham.

8 You found his heart faithful and made a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Jebusites, and Girgashites to his descendants. And You kept Your promise because You are righteous.

9 You saw the suffering of our ancestors in Egypt and heard their cries at the Red Sea.

10 You performed signs and wonders against Pharaoh, his officials, and all his people, because You knew how arrogantly they treated Your people. You made a name for Yourself that endures to this day.

11 You divided the sea so they could walk through on dry ground. You hurled their pursuers into the deep like stones in mighty waters.

12 By day, You led them with a pillar of cloud, and by night, with a pillar of fire to light their path.

13 You came down on Mount Sinai and spoke with them from heaven. You gave them fair judgments, true laws, good decrees, and commandments.

14 You made known Your holy Sabbath to them and gave them commands, statutes, and laws through Your servant Moses.

15 You gave them bread from heaven when they were hungry and brought water from the rock when they were thirsty. You told them to go and take possession of the land You swore to give them.

Rebellion and God's Mercy

16 But our ancestors became proud and stubborn. They ignored Your commands.

17 They refused to listen and forgot the miracles You had done. In their rebellion, they appointed a leader to return to slavery. But You are a God of forgiveness, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in love. You did not abandon them.

18 Even when they made a golden calf and said, ‘This is your god who brought you out of Egypt,’ You did not forsake them.

19 Because of Your great mercy, You did not leave them in the wilderness. The pillar of cloud still led them by day and the pillar of fire by night.

20 You gave Your good Spirit to instruct them. You did not withhold manna or water.

21 For forty years, You sustained them in the desert. They lacked nothing. Their clothes didn't wear out, and their feet didn't swell.

Conquering the Promised Land

22 You gave them kingdoms and nations and allotted them their territories. They took over the land of Sihon king of Heshbon and Og king of Bashan.

23 You made their children as numerous as the stars and brought them into the land You promised their ancestors.

24 Their descendants went in and took possession. You subdued the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and handed them over, along with their kings and peoples.

25 They captured fortified cities and fertile land. They took over houses full of good things, wells, vineyards, olive groves, and fruit trees. They ate their fill, grew fat, and celebrated Your goodness.

Cycles of Sin, Judgment, and Mercy

26 But they were disobedient and rebelled. They threw Your Law behind their backs. They killed Your prophets who warned them to return to You. They committed terrible offenses.

27 So You handed them over to their enemies. But when they cried out, You heard from heaven. In Your great mercy, You sent deliverers to save them.

28 But as soon as they found peace, they went back to doing evil. You let them fall into enemy hands again. When they cried out, You heard once more. Many times, You rescued them.

29 You warned them to return to Your Law, but they were arrogant. They disobeyed Your commands and sinned against Your rules—rules that bring life. They turned their backs, hardened their hearts, and would not listen.

30 You were patient with them for many years. You warned them by Your Spirit through the prophets, but they refused to listen. So You gave them into the hands of neighboring nations.

31 Even then, in Your great mercy, You did not destroy or abandon them, for You are a gracious and merciful God.

A Plea for Mercy and Renewal

32 “Now therefore, our God—the great, mighty, and awesome God, who keeps His covenant of love—do not let all this hardship seem insignificant to You. It has come upon us—on our kings, leaders, priests, prophets, ancestors, and all Your people—from the time of the Assyrian kings until today.

33 In all that has happened to us, You have been just. You have acted faithfully, while we did wrong.

34 Our kings, leaders, priests, and ancestors did not follow Your Law or pay attention to Your commands and warnings.

35 Even when they had kingdoms and enjoyed Your goodness, and the spacious and fertile land You gave them, they did not serve You or turn from their evil ways.

36 See, we are slaves today—in the land You gave our ancestors for its fruit and goodness—we are its slaves!

37 Its rich produce goes to the kings You set over us because of our sins. They rule over our bodies and our livestock as they please. We are in great distress.

38 Because of all this, we make a firm agreement in writing. Our leaders, Levites, and priests have sealed it.”

Key Lessons from Nehemiah Chapter 9

1. Confession and repentance are vital to spiritual renewal

The people fasted, mourned, and confessed their sins and the sins of their ancestors with deep humility.

2. God’s faithfulness runs through all of history

This prayer recounts God’s unending grace, provision, and mercy from Abraham to their present day.

3. Even in rebellion, God’s mercy endures

Though the Israelites repeatedly turned away, God never fully abandoned them. He remains ready to forgive.

4. Scripture-centered worship leads to understanding and conviction

The Law of God was read, understood, and responded to with worship, confession, and covenant renewal.

5. True revival leads to covenant commitment

The people didn’t just feel sorrow—they committed themselves in writing to walk in God’s ways anew.

Nehemiah Chapter 10 — Crawford Standard Bible

Those Who Sealed the Covenant

- 1 These are the ones who sealed the covenant: Nehemiah the governor, son of Hacaliah, and Zedekiah,
 - 2 Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah,
 - 3 Pashhur, Amariah, Malchijah,
 - 4 Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch,
 - 5 Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah,
 - 6 Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch,
 - 7 Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin,
 - 8 Maaziah, Bilgai, and Shemaiah. These were the priests.
 - 9 The Levites: Jeshua son of Azaniah, Binnui from the family of Henadad, and Kadmiel.
 - 10 Also their associates: Shebaniah, Hodiah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan,
 - 11 Mica, Rehob, Hashabiah,
 - 12 Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah,
 - 13 Hodiah, Bani, and Beninu.
-

The Leaders of the People

- 14 The leaders of the people who sealed were: Parosh, Pahath-moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani,
- 15 Bunni, Azgad, Bebai,
- 16 Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin,
- 17 Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur,
- 18 Hodiah, Hashum, Bezai,
- 19 Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai,
- 20 Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir,
- 21 Meshezabel, Zadok, Jaddua,
- 22 Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah,
- 23 Hoshea, Hananiah, Hashub,
- 24 Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek,
- 25 Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah,
- 26 Ahijah, Hanan, Anan,

27 Malluch, Harim, and Baanah.

The People Join the Covenant

28 The rest of the people—the priests, Levites, gatekeepers, singers, temple servants, and all who had separated themselves from the neighboring peoples to follow God’s Law—along with their wives, sons, and daughters who were old enough to understand, 29 joined with their families and leaders to bind themselves with a solemn oath. They promised to follow the Law of God given through Moses, the servant of God, and to obey all the commandments, regulations, and statutes of the Lord our Lord.

Renewed Commitments

30 They vowed not to let their daughters marry the people of the land, nor to take their daughters for their sons.

31 They also promised not to buy goods or food on the Sabbath or other holy days from the neighboring peoples who might bring them to sell. They agreed to let the land rest every seventh year and cancel debts during that year.

Support for the House of God

32 “We also made regulations for ourselves, requiring each of us to give a third of a shekel annually for the service of the house of our God:

33 for the showbread, the regular grain offerings and burnt offerings, the offerings on the Sabbaths, new moon celebrations, and appointed feasts; for the holy offerings and sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and for all the duties of the house of our God.

34 We cast lots among the priests, Levites, and people to determine when each family would bring wood offerings to the house of our God at designated times each year, to be burned on the altar of the Lord our God, as written in the Law.

35 We also committed to bring the firstfruits of our harvest and of every fruit tree to the house of the Lord year after year.

36 And we will bring to the priests at the temple the firstborn of our sons and of our cattle, as written in the Law, including the firstborn of our herds and flocks.

37 We will bring the first of our ground meal, our contributions, the fruit of every tree, and our new wine and oil to the priests in the storerooms of the house of our God. And we will bring a tenth of our crops to the Levites, for the Levites are the ones who collect the tithes in all the towns where we work.

38 A priest descended from Aaron will accompany the Levites when they collect the tithes. The Levites will bring a tenth of the tithes up to the house of our God, to the storerooms of the treasury.

39 The people of Israel and the Levites will bring their contributions of grain, new wine, and oil to the storerooms, where the articles of the sanctuary are kept, and where the priests who minister, the gatekeepers, and the singers stay. And we will not neglect the house of our God.”

Key Lessons from Nehemiah Chapter 10

1. Spiritual commitment must be both personal and communal

The leaders and all the people entered into a written covenant, showing that true revival involves unity and shared responsibility.

2. Obedience involves practical reforms

They made specific commitments to honor the Sabbath, avoid intermarriage with pagans, cancel debts, and uphold justice.

3. God’s house deserves intentional support

The people pledged offerings, tithes, firstfruits, and labor to ensure the continual worship and maintenance of the temple.

4. God desires holiness in everyday life

Their promises covered business dealings, family relationships, agricultural practices, and worship—all aspects of life.

5. Faithfulness requires structure and sacrifice

They organized offerings, scheduled wood donations, and shared duties, showing that sustained devotion requires thoughtful planning.

Nehemiah Chapter 11 — Crawford Standard Bible

One in Ten to Live in Jerusalem

1 The leaders of the people lived in Jerusalem. The rest of the people cast lots to choose one out of every ten to live in Jerusalem, the holy city, while the other nine would remain in their towns.

2 The people praised those who willingly volunteered to live in Jerusalem.

Residents of Jerusalem

3 These are the provincial leaders who settled in Jerusalem. The rest of Israel—including the priests, the Levites, the temple servants, and the descendants of Solomon’s servants—lived in their own towns throughout Judah.

4 In Jerusalem, some from the tribes of Judah and Benjamin settled. From the tribe of Judah: Athaiah son of Uzziyah, son of Zechariah, son of Amariah, son of Shephatiah, son of Mahalalel, from the family line of Perez.

5 And Maaseiah son of Baruch, son of Colhozeh, son of Hazaiah, son of Adaiyah, son of Joiarib, son of Zechariah, a descendant of the Shilonite.

6 The descendants of Perez who lived in Jerusalem totaled 468 brave men.

From the Tribe of Benjamin

7 From Benjamin: Sallu son of Meshullam, son of Joed, son of Pedaiah, son of Kolaiah, son of Maaseiah, son of Ithiel, son of Jeshaiyah.

8 Along with Gabbai and Sallai—928 men in total.

9 Joel son of Zichri was their overseer, and Judah son of Hassenuah was second in command over the city.

Priests in Jerusalem

10 From the priests: Jedaiah son of Joiarib; Jakin;

11 Seraiah son of Hilkiyah, son of Meshullam, son of Zadok, son of Meraioth, son of Ahitub—the chief officer in the house of God.

12 Their associates, who carried out temple duties, numbered 822. Also, Adaiyah son of Jeroham, son of Pelaliah, son of Amzi, son of Zechariah, son of Pashhur, son of Malchijah, 13 And his relatives, who were heads of families, numbered 242. Amashsai son of Azarel, son of Ahzai, son of Meshillemoth, son of Immer, 14 And their relatives, who were brave warriors, totaled 128. Their overseer was Zabdiel son of Haggadolim.

Levites in Jerusalem

15 From the Levites: Shemaiah son of Hasshub, son of Azrikam, son of Hashabiah, son of Bunni.

16 Shabbethai and Jozabad, from the leaders of the Levites, were in charge of the outside work of the temple.

17 Mattaniah son of Mika, son of Zabdi, son of Asaph, was the director who led in thanksgiving and prayer. Bakbukiah was second among his associates, and Abda son of Shammua, son of Galal, son of Jeduthun.

18 The Levites in the holy city totaled 284.

Gatekeepers and Temple Servants

19 The gatekeepers: Akkub, Talmon, and their fellow gatekeepers—172 in all.

20 The rest of the Israelites, including the priests and the Levites, lived in all the towns of Judah, each on his own inherited property.

21 The temple servants lived in the area of Ophel, with Ziha and Gishpa overseeing them.

Special Assignments and Overseers

22 The chief officer of the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi son of Bani, son of Hashabiah, son of Mattaniah, son of Mika, a descendant of Asaph, the musicians responsible for the service of the house of God.

23 They were under royal orders that provided them a daily allowance for their duties.

24 Pethahiah son of Meshezabel, a descendant of Zerah son of Judah, was the king's agent in all matters concerning the people.

Settlements Outside Jerusalem

25 As for the surrounding villages and fields, some of the people of Judah lived in:

- Kiriath-arba and its surrounding settlements,
 - Dibon and its settlements,
 - Jekabzeel and its villages,
- 26 Also Jeshua, Moladah, and Beth-pelet,

27 Hazar-shual, Beersheba and its towns,

28 Ziklag, Mekonah and its villages,

29 En-rimmon, Zorah, Jarmuth,

30 Zanoah, Adullam and their villages, Lachish and its fields, and Azekah and its towns. So they settled from Beersheba to the Valley of Hinnom.

31 The descendants of Benjamin lived in:

- Geba, Michmash, Aijah, Bethel and its towns,

32 Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah,

33 Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim,

34 Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat,

35 Lod and Ono, and the Valley of the Craftsmen.

36 Some divisions of the Levites of Judah were assigned to live among the people of Benjamin.

Key Lessons from Nehemiah Chapter 11

1. Sacrifice for the sake of worship

Some willingly chose to live in Jerusalem, leaving the comfort of their ancestral homes to strengthen the city of God.

2. Everyone has a role in God's community

Whether priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, or governors, each person had a God-appointed place to serve.

3. Order, planning, and oversight matter in God's work

Specific leaders were appointed for temple duties, civil affairs, and worship—reflecting the importance of structure in God's kingdom.

4. Faithful stewardship is essential

People were assigned to care for the outer work of the temple, organize worship, and maintain daily service—indicating the value of dependable service.

5. God honors both visible and invisible obedience

While Jerusalem had prominence, the people in outlying villages were also part of God's redemptive plan and community.

Nehemiah Chapter 12 — Crawford Standard Bible

Priests and Levites Who Returned with Zerubbabel

1 These are the priests and Levites who returned with Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Jeshua:

- Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,
2 Amariah, Malluch, Hattush,
3 Shecaniah, Rehum, Meremoth,
4 Iddo, Ginnethon, Abijah,
5 Mijamin, Maadiah, Bilgah,
6 Shemaiah, Joiarib, Jedaiah,
7 Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, and another Jedaiah.

These were the leaders of the priests and their fellow workers in Jeshua's time.

Levites and Worship Leaders

8 The Levites included: Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah, who was in charge of the songs of thanksgiving—he and his fellow Levites.

9 Bakbukiah and Unni, their associates, stood opposite them during their service.

Genealogies of the High Priests

10 Jeshua was the father of Joiakim, Joiakim the father of Eliashib, Eliashib the father of Joiada, 11 Joiada the father of Jonathan, and Jonathan the father of Jaddua.

Family Heads of the Priests in Joiakim's Day

12 In the days of Joiakim, these were the heads of the priestly families:

- For Seraiah: Meraiah
 - For Jeremiah: Hananiah
13 For Ezra: Meshullam
 - For Amariah: Jehohanan
14 For Malluch: Jonathan
 - For Shebaniah: Joseph
15 For Harim: Adna
 - For Meraioth: Helkai
16 For Iddo: Zechariah
 - For Ginnethon: Meshullam
17 For Abijah: Zichri
 - For Miniamin and Moadiah: Piltai
18 For Bilgah: Shammua
 - For Shemaiah: Jehonathan
19 For Joiarib: Mattenai
 - For Jedaiah: Uzzi
20 For Sallai: Kallai
 - For Amok: Eber
21 For Hilkiah: Hashabiah
 - For Jedaiah: Nethanel
-

Levite and Priest Records

22 The names of the leaders of the Levites were recorded during the reigns of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan, and Jaddua, even until the reign of Darius the Persian.

23 The names of the Levite family heads were written in the historical records, up to the time of Johanan son of Eliashib.

24 The chief Levites were Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua son of Kadmiel. Their relatives stood opposite them to give praise and thanks, just as David, the man of God, had prescribed—group opposite group.

25 Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub were gatekeepers, keeping watch at the storerooms by the gates.

26 These served in the days of Joiakim son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and also in the days of Nehemiah the governor and Ezra the priest and scribe.

Dedication of the Wall of Jerusalem

27 For the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem, Levites from all around were sought out and brought to Jerusalem to celebrate joyfully with thanksgiving songs, accompanied by cymbals, harps, and lyres.

28 The singers gathered from the surrounding region, including the villages of the Netophathites, 29 And also from Beth Gilgal and the fields of Geba and Azmaveth, for the singers had built their own villages around Jerusalem.

30 The priests and Levites purified themselves. Then they purified the people, the gates, and the wall.

Two Thanksgiving Choirs

31 I led the leaders of Judah up onto the wall, and I appointed two large thanksgiving choirs. One proceeded southward on the wall toward the Dung Gate.

32 Hoshaiiah and half the leaders of Judah followed them,

33 Along with Azariah, Ezra, Meshullam,

34 Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah, and Jeremiah,

35 And some of the priests with trumpets—Zechariah son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph—

36 And his fellow musicians: Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, Judah, and Hanani—with the musical instruments of David, the man of God. Ezra the scribe led them.

37 At the Fountain Gate, they went straight up the steps of the City of David, past David's palace, and then along the wall above the Water Gate to the east.

The Second Choir Procession

38 The second thanksgiving choir proceeded in the opposite direction. I followed them with half the people on top of the wall—from the Tower of the Ovens to the Broad Wall, 39 Over the Gate of Ephraim, past the Old Gate, the Fish Gate, the Tower of Hananel, and the Tower of the Hundred, to the Sheep Gate. They stopped at the Gate of the Guard.

40 So the two thanksgiving choirs stood in the house of God. I stood there too, along with half the officials,

41 And the priests—Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah—with their trumpets, 42 And also Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malkijah, Elam, and Ezer. The singers sang loudly, under the direction of Jezrahiah.

Joyful Celebration and Provision

43 That day, great sacrifices were offered, and the people rejoiced because God had filled them with great joy. Even the women and children joined in the celebration, and the joy in Jerusalem could be heard far away.

Offerings and Ministry Responsibilities

44 At that time, men were appointed to oversee the storerooms for the offerings, firstfruits, and tithes. They were to collect into the storerooms from the fields around the towns what the Law required for the priests and the Levites. The people of Judah were glad to see the priests and Levites at their posts.

45 They performed their duties faithfully in the service of their God and in purification, following the commands of David and his son Solomon.

46 For long ago, in the days of David and Asaph, there were leaders of singers and songs of praise and thanksgiving to God.

47 So in the days of Zerubbabel and of Nehemiah, all Israel gave the daily portions for the singers and the gatekeepers. They also set apart portions for the Levites, and the Levites set apart portions for the descendants of Aaron.

Key Lessons from Nehemiah Chapter 12

1. Honoring God through worship and remembrance

The dedication of the wall was filled with joy, music, and thanksgiving—honoring God as the One who had rebuilt and restored His people.

2. Purity prepares the heart for worship

The priests and Levites purified themselves and the people, showing that holiness must precede genuine celebration.

3. Worship is a community celebration

The people, leaders, singers, and musicians came together to praise God—demonstrating unity in joyful thanksgiving.

4. Organization strengthens ministry

Assigning leaders for songs, offerings, gates, and stores shows that God's work thrives on faithfulness and structure.

5. Generosity supports the work of God

The people gave offerings, tithes, and daily portions, rejoicing in their part in sustaining the house of God.

Nehemiah Chapter 13 — Crawford Standard Bible

Foreigners Forbidden in the Assembly

1 On that day, the Book of Moses was read aloud to the people. In it was written that no Ammonite or Moabite should ever be allowed to enter the assembly of God,

2 Because they had not met the Israelites with bread and water, but instead hired Balaam to curse them—though our God turned the curse into a blessing.

3 When the people heard this law, they separated from Israel everyone of mixed ancestry.

Tobiah's Defilement of the Temple

4 Before this, Eliashib the priest, who had oversight of the storerooms in the Temple of our God, had become close to Tobiah.

5 He had prepared for him a large room, where they used to store grain offerings, incense, vessels, tithes of grain, new wine, and oil—items meant for the Levites, singers, gatekeepers, and offerings for the priests.

6 But while all this was happening, I was not in Jerusalem, for in the 32nd year of King Artaxerxes of Babylon I had returned to the king. After some time, I received permission

7 And came back to Jerusalem. Then I learned of the evil thing Eliashib had done for Tobiah—preparing a room for him in the courts of God’s house.

8 I was greatly upset and threw all of Tobiah’s belongings out of the room.

9 I ordered the rooms to be purified, and then I brought back the vessels of the house of God, along with the grain offerings and the incense.

Neglect of the Levites and Restoration of Tithes

10 I also discovered that the Levites had not received their portions, so the Levites and singers who did the work had returned to their own fields.

11 I confronted the officials and asked, “Why has the house of God been neglected?” Then I called the Levites back and stationed them at their posts.

12 Then all Judah brought the tithe of grain, new wine, and oil into the storehouses.

13 I put Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the scribe, and Pedaiah of the Levites in charge of the storehouses, and appointed Hanan son of Zaccur (son of Mattaniah) to assist them, because they were considered trustworthy. It was their duty to distribute supplies to their fellow workers.

14 Remember me for this, my God, and do not wipe out the good I have done for the house of my God and its services.

Profaning the Sabbath Stopped

15 In those days, I saw people in Judah treading winepresses on the Sabbath, bringing in grain and loading it on donkeys, along with wine, grapes, figs, and all kinds of goods—and bringing them into Jerusalem on the Sabbath. I warned them not to sell food on that day.

16 People from Tyre living in Jerusalem were bringing in fish and other goods and selling them to the people of Judah on the Sabbath—even in Jerusalem.

17 So I confronted the nobles of Judah and said, “What is this wicked thing you are doing—profaning the Sabbath day?”

18 Didn’t your ancestors do the same things, and didn’t our God bring all this disaster upon us and this city? Now you are adding more wrath on Israel by profaning the Sabbath!”

19 So when it began to get dark before the Sabbath, I ordered the gates of Jerusalem to be shut and not opened until after the Sabbath. I posted some of my men at the gates so that no load could be brought in on the Sabbath day.

20 Once or twice the merchants and sellers of all kinds of goods spent the night outside Jerusalem.

21 But I warned them and said, “Why are you lodging near the wall? If you do this again, I will lay hands on you.” After that, they no longer came on the Sabbath.

22 Then I ordered the Levites to purify themselves and guard the gates to keep the Sabbath day holy. Remember this also in my favor, my God, and show mercy to me according to your great love.

Foreign Marriages Rebuked

23 During those days I also saw Jews who had married women from Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab.

24 Half of their children spoke the language of Ashdod or of other peoples, and could not speak the language of Judah at all.

25 I confronted them and cursed them. I beat some of them and pulled out their hair. I made them swear by God, saying, “You must not give your daughters in marriage to their sons or take their daughters for your sons—or for yourselves!”

26 Didn’t King Solomon of Israel sin because of such women? Among many nations there was no king like him. He was loved by his God, and God made him king over all Israel, but even he was led into sin by foreign women.

27 Should we then hear about you doing all this terrible evil—acting unfaithfully against our God by marrying foreign women?

Defiling the Priesthood and Nehemiah’s Reforms

28 One of the sons of Joiada, son of Eliashib the high priest, was son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite. So I drove him away from me.

29 Remember them, my God, because they defiled the priesthood and the covenant of the priesthood and the Levites.

30 So I purified them from everything foreign and assigned duties to the priests and Levites, each to his own task.

31 I also arranged for the supply of wood at the appointed times, and for the firstfruits.

Remember me, my God, for good.

Key Lessons from Nehemiah Chapter 13

1. God’s Word reveals what must be removed

Reading the Law led the people to separate from influences that hindered holiness—showing the purifying power of Scripture.

2. Compromise in leadership can defile sacred spaces

Eliashib’s alliance with Tobiah defiled the temple—reminding us to guard God’s house and His people from corrupt influences.

3. Neglecting worship responsibilities brings disorder

When the Levites weren't supported, they fled their duties. Nehemiah's reforms restored worship by restoring order and provision.

4. True holiness honors the Sabbath and God's commands

Business as usual on the Sabbath provoked God's wrath. Nehemiah took bold action to protect what was holy.

5. Marriage choices impact faithfulness

Unequally yoked marriages diluted the people's faith and culture. Nehemiah zealously confronted this for the sake of God's covenant.

6. Faithfulness requires bold confrontation

Nehemiah stood alone, sometimes fiercely, to restore God's order. His legacy is one of courageous faith and uncompromising obedience.

Introduction to the Book of Esther

“For if you keep silent at this time, relief and deliverance will rise for the Jews from another place...” – Esther 4:14

Title and Meaning

The book is named after its central figure, Esther, whose name likely comes from the Persian word stara, meaning “star.” Her Hebrew name was Hadassah, meaning “myrtle tree.” Though the name of God is never mentioned in the book, His providence shines like a hidden star throughout the narrative. The title reflects both the heroine's rise to royal prominence and her role in the divine preservation of Israel.

Author and Date

The authorship of Esther is uncertain. Jewish tradition attributes it to Mordecai, Esther's cousin and guardian, while others suggest Ezra or Nehemiah as possible compilers. The book was likely written during the 5th century BC, sometime after the events it describes (around 483–473 BC), during the reign of King Ahasuerus (Xerxes I) of Persia. Its detailed knowledge of Persian customs and court procedures supports a firsthand or contemporary authorship.

Purpose of Esther

Esther was written to recount one of the most remarkable deliverances in Jewish history—when the Jewish people faced extermination in Persia and were rescued through the courage of Esther and the wisdom of Mordecai. The book has several key purposes:

- To commemorate the origin of the Feast of Purim, a celebration of God’s deliverance and the reversal of Haman’s evil plan.
 - To highlight God’s providential care over His people, even when He seems hidden.
 - To encourage faithfulness and courage, showing how one person’s obedience can change the course of history.
 - To reveal the dangers of pride and the triumph of humility and faith.
-

Structure of Esther

The Book of Esther is masterfully structured around reversal — what begins as a death sentence for the Jews ends in deliverance and celebration. It can be divided into two main parts:

📖 1. Threat to the Jews (Chapters 1–4)

- Queen Vashti’s removal and Esther’s rise (Ch. 1–2)
- Haman’s plot to destroy the Jews (Ch. 3)
- Mordecai’s appeal and Esther’s decision (Ch. 4)

👑 2. Triumph of the Jews (Chapters 5–10)

- Esther’s intervention and Haman’s downfall (Ch. 5–7)
- The king’s decree to defend the Jews (Ch. 8)
- Jewish victory and the institution of Purim (Ch. 9–10)

Each section is tightly woven with irony, hidden identity, and divine timing.

Major Themes

- Providence and Sovereignty: God is never named but is present in every moment, orchestrating deliverance behind the scenes.
 - Courage and Risk: Esther risked her life for her people, stepping into her role “for such a time as this.”
 - Reversal and Justice: The proud are humbled, the humble are exalted, and plots of destruction are turned into celebrations of life.
 - Identity and Purpose: Esther’s story shows the importance of knowing who you are and why you are placed where you are.
 - Community and Intercession: Mordecai’s leadership and the communal fasting reveal the power of united faith and intercession.
-

Why Esther Matters Today

Esther is a book for times when God seems absent. It speaks to believers navigating secular environments, uncertain futures, and invisible threats. It reminds us that:

- God is always working, even when unseen.
- One person's obedience can change a nation's destiny.
- Evil will not have the final word.
- God places people in strategic positions for divine purposes.

Esther inspires us to trust God's providence, to act with courage, and to embrace our calling, even when the risks are great.

Key Verse

“For if you remain silent at this time, relief and deliverance for the Jews will arise from another place... And who knows but that you have come to your royal position for such a time as this?” –
Esther 4:14

This verse captures the heart of the book: God's purposes will prevail, and He often calls us to be part of them in ways we never imagined.

Esther Chapter 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

The Banquets of King Ahasuerus and the Fall of Queen Vashti

A King Over a Vast Empire

1 This happened during the reign of King Ahasuerus (also known as Xerxes), who ruled over 127 provinces stretching from India to Ethiopia.

2 At that time, King Ahasuerus was seated on his royal throne in the fortress of Susa.

3 In the third year of his reign, he held a grand feast for all his officials and servants. The army of Persia and Media, the nobles, and the provincial officials were present before him.

4 For 180 days, he displayed the vast wealth of his kingdom and the majestic splendor of his greatness.

A Feast for All the People

5 When those days were over, the king held a seven-day feast in the courtyard of the palace garden for everyone in the fortress of Susa—from the highest officials to the common people.

6 The courtyard was beautifully decorated with white, green, and blue linen hangings, fastened with fine linen cords and purple ropes to silver rings on marble pillars. Gold and silver couches were placed on a mosaic pavement of red, white, yellow, and black marble.

7 Drinks were served in gold goblets—each one unique—and the royal wine flowed freely, befitting the king’s generosity.

8 Drinking was allowed by royal decree, but no one was forced. The king had instructed every official of his household to let each guest do as he pleased.

Queen Vashti’s Separate Feast

9 Queen Vashti also gave a feast for the women in King Ahasuerus’ royal palace.

10 On the seventh day, when the king was feeling good from the wine, he ordered Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas—the seven eunuchs who served him—

11 to bring Queen Vashti before him, wearing her royal crown, so he could show off her beauty to the people and the officials. She was very beautiful.

12 But Queen Vashti refused to come at the king’s command, delivered by the eunuchs. The king was furious, and his anger burned within him.

Royal Counsel and a National Decree

13 The king turned to his advisers, who understood the times (for it was customary for the king to consult with those who were experts in law and justice).

14 These were his closest advisers: Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan—the seven nobles of Persia and Media who had access to the king and held the highest positions in the empire.

15 The king asked them, “What should we do about Queen Vashti? She has disobeyed my command, delivered by the eunuchs.”

16 Then Memucan spoke up before the king and the officials: “Queen Vashti has wronged not only the king but also all the nobles and all the people in every province of your empire.

17 When other women hear what she did—that she refused to come when summoned by the king—they’ll start to treat their husbands with contempt.

18 The noblewomen of Persia and Media will hear about the queen’s behavior and speak the same way to their husbands. This will lead to widespread disrespect and anger throughout the kingdom.

The Royal Response

19 “If it pleases the king,” Memucan continued, “issue a royal decree, and let it be written into the laws of Persia and Media, which cannot be revoked: Queen Vashti is never again to appear before King Ahasuerus. Let the king give her royal position to someone more worthy than she.

20 When this decree is proclaimed throughout your vast empire, every wife—no matter her social status—will honor her husband.”

21 The king and the officials liked this advice, so the king did what Memucan proposed.

22 He sent letters to every province in the empire, each in its own script and language, declaring that every man should be the ruler of his own household and speak in the language of his own people.

Key Lessons from Esther Chapter 1

- 1. Pride Can Cloud Judgment – King Ahasuerus’ lavish display of wealth and demand for Queen Vashti reflect a ruler driven by ego more than wisdom.
- 2. God Is Working Behind the Scenes – Though God’s name isn’t mentioned, His hand is preparing the stage. Vashti’s removal makes way for Esther.
- 3. Respect Within the Home Is Valued – The decree highlights the cultural concern for family order, though it also reveals flaws in how leadership responds to conflict.
- 4. One Act Can Have Wide Influence – Vashti’s defiance stirred fears of nationwide rebellion among women, showing how leadership choices carry ripples beyond the throne.

Esther Chapter 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

Esther Becomes Queen and Mordecai Uncovers a Plot

The Search for a New Queen

1 Some time later, after King Ahasuerus’ anger had cooled down, he remembered what Queen Vashti had done and the decree that had been issued against her.

2 Then the king’s personal attendants suggested, “Let beautiful young virgins be sought for the king.

3 Let the king appoint officers in every province of the empire to gather these young women into the royal harem at the fortress of Susa. They will be placed under the care of Hegai, the king’s eunuch who oversees the women, and they should be given beauty treatments.

4 Then let the young woman who pleases the king be made queen in place of Vashti.” This idea pleased the king, and he followed their advice.

Esther Is Chosen

5 Now in the fortress of Susa lived a Jewish man named Mordecai, son of Jair, son of Shimei, son of Kish, a Benjaminite.

6 He had been taken from Jerusalem into exile by King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon when King Jeconiah of Judah was taken into captivity.

7 Mordecai had a cousin named Hadassah, also called Esther, who had neither father nor mother. She was very beautiful and lovely in form. When her parents died, Mordecai adopted her and raised her as his own daughter.

8 When the king's command was proclaimed and many young women were brought to the fortress of Susa under Hegai's care, Esther was among them.

9 Esther pleased Hegai and gained his favor. He quickly provided her with beauty treatments and special food. He assigned her seven attendants selected from the palace and moved her and her maids to the best quarters in the harem.

10 Esther did not reveal her nationality or family background, because Mordecai had instructed her not to.

11 Every day, Mordecai walked near the courtyard of the women's quarters to find out how Esther was doing and what was happening to her.

The King's Process for Choosing a Queen

12 Before a young woman could go to the king, she had to complete twelve months of beauty treatments—six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with perfumes and other cosmetics.

13 When it was her turn to go to the king, she was allowed to take anything she wanted from the harem.

14 She would go in the evening and return the next morning to a different part of the harem under the care of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch in charge of the concubines. She would not go to the king again unless he was especially pleased with her and called for her by name.

Esther Becomes Queen

15 When it was Esther's turn—the daughter of Abihail, Mordecai's uncle—she asked for nothing except what Hegai, the king's eunuch, recommended. Esther won the favor of everyone who saw her.

16 She was taken to King Ahasuerus in the royal palace in the tenth month (the month of Tebeth), in the seventh year of his reign.

17 The king loved Esther more than any of the other women. She won his favor and affection more than all the virgins. So he placed the royal crown on her head and made her queen in place of Vashti.

18 Then the king held a great feast in Esther's honor for all his officials and servants. He also declared a public holiday for the provinces and gave out lavish gifts, as was fitting for a king.

Mordecai Discovers a Plot

19 When the virgins were gathered together a second time, Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate.

20 Esther still had not revealed her family background or her nationality, just as Mordecai had instructed her. She continued to follow his directions, just as she had when he was raising her.

21 During this time, while Mordecai was at the king's gate, two of the king's eunuchs—Bigthan and Teresh—who guarded the doorway, became angry and plotted to assassinate King Ahasuerus.

22 But Mordecai found out about the plot and told Queen Esther, who then told the king, crediting Mordecai as the source.

23 After the investigation confirmed the plot, the two men were hanged on a gallows. All of this was recorded in the Book of the Chronicles in the presence of the king.

Key Lessons from Esther Chapter 2

1. God Positions People for His Purposes – Esther, an orphan and exile, is divinely positioned to become queen—setting the stage for future deliverance.
2. Obedience and Humility Bring Favor – Esther's willingness to follow Mordecai's counsel and Hegai's instruction resulted in great favor and blessing.
3. God Uses the Faithful in Small Things – Mordecai's faithfulness at the king's gate leads to the discovery of a plot and is the beginning of a chain of events used by God for Israel's protection.
4. Timing Is in God's Hands – The stage is being set behind the scenes, even when it seems like nothing extraordinary is happening.

Esther Chapter 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

Haman's Plot Against the Jews

Haman Is Promoted

1 After these events, King Ahasuerus promoted Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and elevated him, giving him a seat of honor higher than all the other officials.

2 All the king's servants at the king's gate bowed down and honored Haman, as the king had commanded. But Mordecai refused to bow down or show him honor.

3 Then the king's servants at the gate asked Mordecai, "Why do you disobey the king's command?"

4 Day after day they spoke to him, but he refused to comply. So they reported it to Haman to see if Mordecai's explanation would stand, because he had told them he was a Jew.

5 When Haman saw that Mordecai neither bowed nor paid him homage, he was furious.

6 But he thought it was too small a thing to punish only Mordecai. Since he had learned Mordecai's people were Jews, Haman looked for a way to destroy all the Jews throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus—the people of Mordecai.

Haman's Wicked Plan

7 In the first month, the month of Nisan, in the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus, Haman had the "Pur" (that is, the lot) cast to determine the best day and month for the attack. The lot fell on the twelfth month, the month of Adar.

8 Then Haman said to King Ahasuerus, "There is a certain people scattered and dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom. Their laws are different from those of every other people, and they do not observe the king's laws. It is not in the king's best interest to tolerate them.

9 If it pleases the king, let a decree be issued to destroy them, and I will contribute ten thousand talents of silver into the royal treasury for the men who carry out the business."

10 So the king removed his signet ring from his hand and gave it to Haman the Agagite, the enemy of the Jews.

11 The king said to Haman, "The money and the people are given to you—do with them as you see fit."

The Decree to Annihilate the Jews

12 On the thirteenth day of the first month, the royal scribes were summoned. They wrote out Haman's orders to the king's governors, administrators, and officials of each province, in every script and every language of the empire. It was written in the name of King Ahasuerus and sealed with the king's signet ring.

13 Dispatches were sent by couriers to all the king's provinces, instructing them to destroy, kill, and annihilate all Jews—young and old, women and children—on a single day: the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar. Their property was to be taken as plunder.

14 A copy of the decree was issued and made public in every province, giving instructions for the people to be ready for that day.

15 The couriers set out, hurried by the king's command, and the decree was proclaimed in the citadel of Susa. Then the king and Haman sat down to drink, but the city of Susa was in confusion.

Key Lessons from Esther Chapter 3

1. Pride Can Lead to Destruction – Haman’s ego could not tolerate Mordecai’s faithfulness to God, and that pride escalated into genocidal hatred.
2. Righteous Conviction May Bring Conflict – Mordecai refused to bow to anyone but God, even when the cost was high.
3. Evil Often Gains Power Through Deception – Haman’s manipulation of the king shows how easily wicked people can influence those in authority when truth is absent.
4. God’s People May Face Peril, but Not Without a Plan – Though things looked dark, God was already working through Esther and Mordecai to overturn this evil decree.

Esther Chapter 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

For Such a Time As This

Mourning Among the Jews

1 When Mordecai learned everything that had happened, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth and ashes, and went into the middle of the city, crying out with a loud and bitter wail.

2 He came as far as the king’s gate, but no one was allowed to enter the gate clothed in sackcloth.

3 In every province where the king’s decree and command had reached, there was great mourning among the Jews. They fasted, wept, and wailed, and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

Esther Hears of Mordecai’s Grief

4 When Esther’s servants and eunuchs came and told her what Mordecai was doing, the queen was deeply distressed. She sent clothing for Mordecai so he could take off his sackcloth, but he refused to accept them.

5 Then Esther called for Hatach, one of the king’s eunuchs who had been assigned to attend her. She ordered him to find out what was troubling Mordecai and why he was acting this way.

6 So Hatach went out to Mordecai in the city square in front of the king’s gate.

7 Mordecai told him everything that had happened, including the exact amount of money Haman had promised to pay into the royal treasury for the destruction of the Jews.

8 He also gave him a copy of the decree that had been issued in Susa, ordering the annihilation of the Jews. He asked Hatach to show it to Esther and to urge her to go to the king and plead for her people.

9 Hatach returned and reported Mordecai’s message to Esther.

Esther's Hesitation

10 Then Esther sent this reply back to Mordecai through Hatach:

11 “All the king’s officials and the people of the provinces know that any man or woman who approaches the king in the inner court without being summoned is to be put to death—unless the king extends the golden scepter to them. I haven’t been called to go to the king for thirty days.”

12 When Mordecai received Esther’s words,

13 He sent back this message: “Do not think that because you are in the king’s palace you alone will escape when all the other Jews are killed.

14 For if you remain silent at this time, deliverance for the Jews will arise from another place—but you and your father’s family will perish. And who knows whether you have come to your royal position for such a time as this?”

Esther's Brave Response

15 Then Esther sent this reply to Mordecai:

16 “Go and gather all the Jews who are in Susa and fast for me. Do not eat or drink for three days, night or day. My attendants and I will do the same. Then, even though it is against the law, I will go to the king. And if I perish, I perish.”

17 So Mordecai went away and did everything Esther had commanded him.

Key Lessons from Esther Chapter 4

1. God’s People Mourn Together – In times of trouble, the Jewish community united in fasting and prayer, showing the power of collective faith.
2. Obedience Requires Courage – Esther was afraid, yet she moved from hesitation to action, showing that obedience sometimes means risking everything.
3. God Has a Purpose in Every Position – Mordecai’s question—“Who knows whether you’ve come to the kingdom for such a time as this?”—reminds us that God places people where He needs them, at just the right time.
4. Fasting Precedes Bold Faith – Esther didn’t rush into danger; she first sought God’s help through fasting and invited others to join her.

Esther Chapter 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

The Hidden Hand of Providence

Esther Appears Before the King

1 On the third day, Esther dressed in her royal robes and stood in the inner court of the king's palace, across from the throne room. The king was sitting on his royal throne, facing the entrance.

2 When the king saw Queen Esther standing in the court, she found favor in his sight. He extended the golden scepter toward her, and Esther approached and touched the tip of the scepter.

3 The king asked her, "What is it, Queen Esther? What is your request? Even if it is up to half the kingdom, it will be granted to you."

4 Esther replied, "If it pleases the king, let the king and Haman come today to a banquet I have prepared for him."

5 The king said, "Bring Haman quickly, so we may do as Esther has requested." So the king and Haman went to the banquet Esther had prepared.

Esther's Mysterious Delay

6 While they were drinking wine at the banquet, the king asked Esther again, "What is your petition? It will be granted. What is your request? Even up to half the kingdom—it will be fulfilled."

7 Esther answered, "This is my petition and my request:

8 If I have found favor with the king, and if it pleases him to grant my request, let the king and Haman come to another banquet I will prepare for them tomorrow. Then I will answer the king's question."

Haman's Hatred Grows

9 Haman left the banquet that day in high spirits, joyful and proud. But when he saw Mordecai at the king's gate—still not standing or showing him any respect—Haman was filled with rage.

10 Still, he controlled himself and went home. He called together his friends and his wife Zeresh.

11 Haman boasted to them about his wealth, his many sons, the honors the king had given him, and how he had been elevated above all the other officials and royal servants.

12 He added, "And that's not all—Queen Esther invited no one but me to accompany the king to the banquet she prepared. And she invited me again for tomorrow!"

13 "But none of this gives me any satisfaction," Haman continued, "as long as I see that Jew Mordecai sitting at the king's gate."

The Plot to Kill Mordecai

14 Then Zeresh his wife and all his friends said, “Let a gallows seventy-five feet high be built, and in the morning ask the king to have Mordecai hanged on it. Then you can go to the banquet with the king and enjoy yourself.” This idea pleased Haman, and he ordered the gallows to be built.

Key Lessons from Esther Chapter 5

1. God Goes Before Us – Esther approached the throne after three days of fasting, and God gave her favor. When we prepare in prayer, God often moves hearts before we speak.
2. Wisdom Waits – Esther delayed her full request, showing patience, strategy, and spiritual sensitivity. Not every battle is won in haste.
3. Pride Blinds – Haman’s pride and obsession with honor led him to hatred. He had wealth, power, and status—yet one man’s defiance consumed him.
4. Evil Has a Plan—But So Does God – Even as Haman builds a gallows for Mordecai, God is orchestrating deliverance behind the scenes. Divine reversals are on the way.

Esther Chapter 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

The Sleepless King and the Sovereign Hand

The King’s Sleepless Night

1 That night, the king couldn’t sleep. So he ordered the book of the records—the chronicles of his reign—to be brought and read to him.

2 As they read, they found the account of how Mordecai had exposed Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king’s guards who had conspired to assassinate King Ahasuerus.

3 The king asked, “What honor or reward has been given to Mordecai for this?”
The king’s attendants replied, “Nothing has been done for him.”

Haman’s Prideful Assumption

4 The king said, “Who is in the courtyard?”

Now Haman had just entered the outer court of the palace to ask the king to hang Mordecai on the gallows he had prepared.

5 The attendants answered, “Haman is standing in the courtyard.”
“Bring him in,” said the king.

6 So Haman came in. And the king asked him, “What should be done for the man the king delights to honor?”

Haman thought to himself, “Whom would the king want to honor more than me?”

7 So he replied, “For the man the king delights to honor,

8 Let the royal robe the king has worn be brought, and the horse the king himself has ridden, with the royal crown placed on its head.

9 Then let one of the king’s most noble princes dress the man in these garments and lead him on horseback through the city square, proclaiming before him, “This is what is done for the man the king delights to honor!”

The Great Reversal

10 “Excellent!” said the king to Haman. “Hurry and do just as you have said for Mordecai the Jew, who sits at the king’s gate. Do not leave out a single detail of all you’ve suggested.”

11 So Haman took the robe and the horse, dressed Mordecai, and led him on horseback through the city square, proclaiming, “This is what is done for the man the king delights to honor!”

12 Afterward, Mordecai returned to his place at the king’s gate. But Haman hurried home, grief-stricken and with his head covered in shame.

Prophetic Warning

13 Haman told Zeresh his wife and all his friends everything that had happened. His wise men and Zeresh said, “If Mordecai, before whom you have begun to fall, is of Jewish descent, you will not stand against him—you will surely fall before him.”

14 While they were still speaking, the king’s eunuchs arrived and quickly brought Haman to the banquet Esther had prepared.

Key Lessons from Esther Chapter 6

1. God Works in the Night – While the king lay restless, God was at work. Divine interruptions often precede divine interventions.
2. Delayed Honor Is Not Forgotten – Mordecai’s faithfulness had gone unnoticed for years, but God remembered. Righteousness is never wasted.
3. Pride Comes Before the Fall – Haman’s assumption of his own greatness led to humiliation. Pride blinds, but truth humbles.

4. Reversal of Destiny – The man meant for the gallows was honored, and the man who plotted evil was exposed. God reverses injustice in His perfect timing.
5. Warnings Can Come Through Anyone – Even Haman’s friends and wife saw his downfall coming. Sometimes enemies recognize God’s hand before we do.

Esther Chapter 7 – Crawford Standard Bible

The Queen’s Courage and the Villain’s Fall

Esther Makes Her Plea

1 So the king and Haman went to dine with Queen Esther.

2 On the second day of the banquet of wine, the king again asked Esther, “What is your request, Queen Esther? It will be granted to you. What is your petition? Even up to half of the kingdom—it will be done.”

3 Then Queen Esther replied, “If I have found favor in your eyes, O king, and if it pleases the king, grant me my life—this is my request. And spare my people—this is my petition.

4 For my people and I have been sold to be destroyed, killed, and annihilated. If we had merely been sold as slaves, I would have remained silent, because such a distress would not justify disturbing the king.”

The Villain Revealed

5 King Ahasuerus asked Queen Esther, “Who is he? Where is this man who dared to do such a thing?”

6 Esther answered, “The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman!”
Then Haman was terrified before the king and queen.

Judgment Against Haman

7 The king, enraged, got up from the banquet and went into the palace garden. But Haman stayed behind to beg Queen Esther for his life, for he saw that the king had already decided his doom.

8 Just as the king returned from the palace garden to the banquet hall, Haman had fallen on the couch where Esther was reclining. The king exclaimed, “Will he even assault the queen while I am in the house?”

As soon as the king spoke, they covered Haman’s face.

9 Then Harbonah, one of the king’s attendants, said, “There’s a gallows seventy-five feet tall standing at Haman’s house—the one he prepared for Mordecai, who spoke up to help the king.”
The king said, “Hang him on it!”

10 So they hanged Haman on the gallows he had prepared for Mordecai. And the king's anger subsided.

Key Lessons from Esther Chapter 7

1. God Honors Bold Faith – Esther risked her life to speak up for her people. God uses courageous obedience to turn the tide of evil.
2. God Exposes the Wicked – Haman's hidden schemes were brought into the light. Sin may be concealed for a season, but justice will prevail.
3. Divine Reversals Are Real – Haman built the gallows for Mordecai, but he was hanged on them instead. The trap he set ensnared himself (see Psalm 7:15–16).
4. The Power of Advocacy – Esther stood in the gap. Sometimes one voice, spoken at the right time, can rescue many.
5. God Orchestrates Every Detail – From banquets to sleepless nights, every thread was woven by the sovereign hand of God to protect His people.

Esther Chapter 8 – Crawford Standard Bible

The Enemy's House, the King's Ring, and a Nation's Deliverance

Esther and Mordecai Rewarded

1 That same day, King Ahasuerus gave Queen Esther the estate of Haman, the enemy of the Jews. And Mordecai was brought before the king, for Esther had told the king how Mordecai was related to her.

2 The king took off the signet ring he had taken from Haman and gave it to Mordecai. Esther appointed Mordecai over Haman's estate.

Esther's Intercession for Her People

3 Once again, Esther went before the king. Falling at his feet, she wept and pleaded with him to cancel the evil plot that Haman the Agagite had devised against the Jews.

4 The king held out the golden scepter to Esther, and she rose and stood before him.

5 She said, "If it pleases the king, and if I have found favor in your eyes, and if what I say seems right to you, let an order be written to revoke the letters Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite wrote—letters that commanded the destruction of the Jews in all the king's provinces.

6 For how could I bear to see the disaster that will come upon my people? How could I watch the destruction of my relatives?"

A New Decree Issued

7 Then King Ahasuerus said to Queen Esther and Mordecai the Jew, “I have already given Esther Haman’s estate, and he has been hanged for attacking the Jews.

8 Now, you may write another decree concerning the Jews as you see fit, in the king’s name and sealed with the king’s ring—for anything written in the king’s name and sealed with his ring cannot be revoked.”

9 So the king’s secretaries were summoned on the twenty-third day of the third month (the month of Sivan). They wrote out Mordecai’s orders to the Jews, to the satraps, governors, and officials of the 127 provinces stretching from India to Ethiopia. It was written in every script and language of the peoples, including the Jews in their own language and script.

10 Mordecai wrote in King Ahasuerus’s name, sealed the dispatches with the king’s signet ring, and sent them by couriers on horseback—riding fast horses, mules, camels, and young dromedaries.

11 The new decree gave the Jews in every city the right to assemble and protect themselves—to destroy, kill, and annihilate any armed group of people or province that attacked them, including women and children—and to take their enemies’ goods as plunder.

12 This was to happen on a single day throughout all the provinces of King Ahasuerus—on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar.

13 A copy of the decree was issued as a law in every province and made known to all the peoples, so the Jews would be ready to take vengeance on their enemies.

14 The couriers, riding the swift royal horses, hurried out, pressed by the king’s command. The new decree was also proclaimed in the fortress of Susa.

Joy, Honor, and Fear Throughout the Empire

15 Mordecai left the king’s presence wearing royal garments of blue and white, a large gold crown, and a robe of fine linen and purple. And the city of Susa celebrated with joy.

16 The Jews were filled with light, happiness, joy, and honor.

17 In every province and every city where the king’s edict reached, there was joy and gladness among the Jews—a time of feasting and celebration. And many of the people of the land became Jews, because fear of the Jews had come upon them.

Key Lessons from Esther Chapter 8

1. God Raises the Humble – Mordecai, once in sackcloth, is now robed in royalty. God elevates those who walk in righteousness (James 4:10).

2. God Answers Persistent Prayer – Esther didn't stop after Haman's death; she kept pressing for the salvation of her people. Her perseverance opened the way for national deliverance.
3. God Writes a New Story – The old decree could not be revoked, but God made a way by issuing a new one. He can override man's death sentence with life and favor.
4. Faith Brings Celebration – Sorrow was turned into gladness, fear into honor. When God's people are delivered, celebration follows.
5. God's Favor Is Contagious – As God's hand was evident, even non-Jews began to align with His people. God's favor on your life can influence others toward truth.

Esther Chapter 9 – Crawford Standard Bible

Victory, Vengeance, and the Birth of Purim

The Jews Defend Themselves

1 In the twelfth month, the month of Adar, on the thirteenth day—the day when the king's command and decree were to be carried out—the enemies of the Jews had hoped to overpower them. But the tables were turned, and the Jews overpowered those who hated them.

2 The Jews assembled in their cities throughout all the provinces of King Ahasuerus to attack those who sought their destruction. No one could stand against them, because fear of them had fallen on all the people.

3 All the provincial officials—the satraps, governors, and royal administrators—helped the Jews, because they were afraid of Mordecai.

4 Mordecai had become powerful in the king's palace. His reputation spread throughout the provinces, and he became more and more influential.

5 The Jews struck down all their enemies with the sword, killing and destroying them. They did whatever they pleased to those who hated them.

6 In the citadel of Susa, the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men.

7–10 They also killed the ten sons of Haman son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews—Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha, Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha, Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, and Vajezatha. But they did not lay hands on the plunder.

The Decree Extended by Esther's Request

11 That day, the number of people killed in the citadel of Susa was reported to the king.

12 The king said to Queen Esther, “The Jews have killed five hundred men and Haman’s ten sons in Susa. What must they have done in the rest of my provinces! Now what is your petition? It will be granted to you. What is your further request? It will be done.”

13 Esther replied, “If it pleases the king, let the Jews in Susa be allowed to do again tomorrow as they have done today. And let Haman’s ten sons be hanged on the gallows.”

14 The king agreed, and the edict was issued in Susa. Haman’s ten sons were hanged.

15 On the fourteenth day of Adar, the Jews in Susa assembled again and killed three hundred men. But again, they took no plunder.

16 Meanwhile, the rest of the Jews in the king’s provinces also assembled to protect themselves and gain relief from their enemies. They killed seventy-five thousand of their enemies, but they did not seize their possessions.

17 This happened on the thirteenth day of Adar, and on the fourteenth day they rested and made it a day of feasting and joy.

18 But the Jews in Susa had assembled on the thirteenth and fourteenth days. So on the fifteenth day, they rested and made it a day of feasting and joy.

The Origin of Purim

19 That is why rural Jews—those living in villages—observe the fourteenth day of Adar as a day of joy and feasting, a festive day of giving food to one another.

20 Mordecai recorded these events and sent letters to all the Jews throughout the provinces of King Ahasuerus, both near and far,

21 urging them to celebrate annually the fourteenth and fifteenth days of the month of Adar

22 as the days when the Jews got relief from their enemies, and as the month when their sorrow was turned into joy, and their mourning into celebration. These were to be days of feasting and joy, giving food to one another, and gifts to the poor.

23 So the Jews agreed to continue the celebration, as Mordecai had written to them.

24 For Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted to destroy them and had cast the lot (called Pur) to crush and annihilate them.

25 But when the matter came before the king, he issued orders in writing that the evil plan Haman had devised against the Jews should come back upon his own head—and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

26 Therefore these days were called Purim, from the word Pur. Because of all that was written in this letter, and what they had seen and experienced,

27 the Jews established and made it a custom for themselves, their descendants, and all who joined them, to observe these two days every year in the appointed way and at the appointed time.

28 These days should be remembered and observed in every generation, by every family, in every province and city. And these days of Purim should never fail among the Jews, nor fade from their memory or their descendants.

The Decree Confirmed by Esther

29 Then Queen Esther, daughter of Abihail, along with Mordecai the Jew, wrote a second letter with full authority to confirm the celebration of Purim.

30 Letters were sent to all the Jews in the 127 provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of peace and truth,

31 confirming the observance of Purim at the appointed times, as Mordecai and Queen Esther had established for them—and as they had also established for themselves and their descendants regarding their times of fasting and mourning.

32 Esther’s decree confirmed these regulations about Purim, and it was written down in the records.

Key Lessons from Esther Chapter 9

1. God Turns the Tables – What was meant for the Jews’ destruction became a day of victory. God can turn any situation around (Genesis 50:20).
2. Bold Faith Leads to Deliverance – Esther’s courage continued to influence the survival and triumph of her people.
3. Honor Without Greed – Though the Jews defeated their enemies, they took no plunder. Their motive was justice, not gain.
4. Remembering God’s Deliverance – The festival of Purim was born out of a deep desire to never forget what God had done for His people.
5. Legacy of Courage and Celebration – Purim was not just a one-time event, but a command to celebrate and pass the story to future generations.

Esther Chapter 10 – Crawford Standard Bible

The Legacy of Mordecai

Mordecai’s Rise to Power

1 King Ahasuerus imposed a tax on the land and on the islands of the sea.

2 All the powerful acts of his rule, along with a full account of Mordecai’s greatness—how the king promoted him—are recorded in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Media and Persia.

3 Mordecai the Jew became second in command to King Ahasuerus. He was highly respected among the Jews and admired by the multitudes of his people. He worked for the good of his people and spoke peace and well-being to all his descendants.

Key Lessons from Esther Chapter 10

1. God Honors the Humble – Mordecai, once an unknown gatekeeper, rose to become second in the kingdom because of his integrity and faithfulness.
2. Leadership for the People – Mordecai’s power was not self-serving. He used his influence to bring prosperity and peace to the Jewish people.
3. God Writes the Final Chapter – The Book of Esther ends not with tragedy, but with triumph—God exalting a faithful servant and securing the future of His people.
4. A Legacy Worth Remembering – Mordecai’s life reminds us that the most enduring legacies are those rooted in righteousness and concern for others.
5. Peace is the Fruit of Justice – Mordecai’s leadership was marked by peace, not vengeance—a picture of godly leadership that blesses future generations.

Introduction to the Book of Job

“Though He slay me, yet will I trust Him...” – Job 13:15

Title and Meaning

The book is named after its central figure, Job, a man described as “blameless and upright,” who feared God and turned away from evil (Job 1:1). The name “Job” may mean “persecuted” or “hated,” though its exact origin is uncertain. The title reflects the personal and theological focus of the book — Job’s suffering, questions, endurance, and ultimate vindication.

Job is classified among the Wisdom Books of the Old Testament, alongside Proverbs and Ecclesiastes. Unlike the historical or prophetic books, Job deals primarily with universal questions of human suffering, justice, and divine sovereignty.

Author and Date

The authorship and date of Job are unknown. Some traditions attribute the book to Moses, while others suggest Solomon, Elihu, or an anonymous Hebrew sage. Linguistic and cultural clues point to an early date, possibly during the patriarchal period (around the time of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob).

Regardless of its author, Job stands as one of the oldest writings in the Bible, composed under divine inspiration and preserved for its timeless wisdom and poetic beauty.

Purpose of Job

The Book of Job addresses one of the most profound questions of human existence:

Why do the righteous suffer?

It teaches us:

- That suffering is not always the result of sin.
- That God's purposes may be hidden, yet are always wise and just.
- That true faith endures in the face of silence and loss.
- That divine sovereignty surpasses human understanding.
- That God welcomes honest questions but calls us to trust Him.

Job challenges simplistic answers and invites readers to wrestle with the mystery of God's will, the reality of pain, and the hope of restoration.

Structure of Job

The Book of Job is structured like a dramatic poetic dialogue, framed by a short narrative prologue and epilogue:

1. Prologue (Chapters 1–2)

- Job's character and prosperity
- Satan's accusation and Job's testing
- Job's physical suffering and personal loss

2. Dialogues and Discourses (Chapters 3–37)

- Job's lament (Ch. 3)
- Three cycles of speeches between Job and his friends (Ch. 4–27)
- Job's personal defense and final words (Ch. 28–31)
- Elihu's speeches (Ch. 32–37)

3. God's Response (Chapters 38–41)

- The LORD speaks out of the whirlwind
- Questions that reveal divine power and wisdom

4. Epilogue (Chapter 42)

- Job's repentance and restoration
 - God rebukes Job's friends
 - Job's latter days are blessed more than the former
-

Major Themes

- The Sovereignty of God – God is in control even when He seems silent.
- The Mystery of Suffering – Not all suffering is punishment; sometimes it's a test or a tool for deeper growth.

- Faith in Trial – Job’s endurance becomes a model for trusting God amid pain.
 - The Limits of Human Wisdom – Job’s friends speak with worldly logic, but God’s wisdom is deeper.
 - Divine Justice and Grace – God ultimately vindicates Job, reminding us that He is both just and merciful.
-

Why Job Matters Today

Everyone faces suffering. The Book of Job speaks to the heart of every believer who has ever asked:

- “Why is this happening?”
- “Where is God in my pain?”
- “What have I done to deserve this?”
- “Is God still good when life is not?”

Job reminds us that faith is not built on circumstances, but on trust in God’s character. Though God may not always give answers, He always gives Himself. The book points to Jesus Christ — the ultimate righteous sufferer — who brings hope, redemption, and restoration beyond suffering.

Key Verse

“I know that my Redeemer lives, and He will stand upon the earth at last.” – Job 19:25

This verse shines as a beacon of hope in the midst of Job’s darkest hours. It reveals Job’s unshakable confidence that, despite everything, God is alive, and in the end, justice will be done. It is one of the clearest Old Testament declarations of resurrection and future vindication.

Job Chapter 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

The Test Begins

Job’s Character and Prosperity

1 There was a man named Job who lived in the land of Uz. He was blameless and upright, feared God, and turned away from evil.

2 He had seven sons and three daughters.

3 He owned 7,000 sheep, 3,000 camels, 500 teams of oxen, and 500 female donkeys, along with a very large number of servants. He was the greatest man among all the people of the East.

4 His sons held feasts in their homes on their birthdays, and they invited their three sisters to eat and drink with them.

5 After each cycle of feasting, Job would purify his children. Early in the morning, he would offer a burnt sacrifice for each of them, thinking, “Perhaps my children have sinned and cursed God in their hearts.” Job did this regularly.

Satan’s Challenge in Heaven

6 One day, the sons of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan also came among them.

7 The Lord said to Satan, “Where have you come from?”

Satan replied, “From roaming throughout the earth, going back and forth on it.”

8 Then the Lord asked, “Have you considered my servant Job? There’s no one like him on earth—blameless and upright, a man who fears God and avoids evil.”

9 Satan answered, “Does Job fear God for no reason?”

10 Haven’t you placed a hedge of protection around him, his household, and everything he owns? You’ve blessed the work of his hands, and his wealth has increased in the land.

11 But stretch out your hand and take away everything he has, and he will surely curse you to your face!”

12 The Lord said to Satan, “Very well, everything he owns is in your power—but do not lay a hand on him.” Then Satan left the Lord’s presence.

Satan Strikes Job’s Possessions and Children

13 One day, while Job’s sons and daughters were feasting in the home of their oldest brother,

14 a messenger came to Job and said, “The oxen were plowing and the donkeys were grazing nearby,

15 when the Sabeans attacked and stole them. They killed the servants with the sword, and I alone escaped to tell you.”

16 While he was still speaking, another messenger came and said, “The fire of God fell from heaven and burned up the sheep and the servants—it consumed them all. I alone escaped to tell you.”

17 While he was still speaking, another messenger came and said, “The Chaldeans formed three raiding parties, swept down on the camels, and carried them off. They killed the servants with the sword, and I alone escaped to tell you.”

18 While he was still speaking, another messenger came and said, “Your sons and daughters were feasting and drinking wine in their oldest brother’s house,

19 when suddenly a powerful wind came from the desert and struck the four corners of the house. It collapsed on them, and they died. I alone escaped to tell you.”

Job's Response to Suffering

20 Then Job stood up, tore his robe in grief, shaved his head, and fell to the ground in worship.

21 He said,

“Naked I came from my mother’s womb,
and naked I will return.

The Lord gave, and the Lord has taken away.

Blessed be the name of the Lord.”

22 In all this, Job did not sin or accuse God of wrongdoing.

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 1

1. Righteousness Does Not Guarantee a Trial-Free Life – Job was described as blameless, yet he still became the target of Satan’s challenge and attack.
2. God Is Sovereign Over Satan’s Access – Even Satan must ask permission. Nothing happens without God's allowance.
3. True Faith Is Tested by Loss – Job’s faith was not dependent on blessings. His worship continued even in ruin.
4. Worship in the Midst of Grief – Job mourned deeply, but he responded with surrender and reverence, not bitterness.
5. Satan Underestimates the Faithful – Satan believed Job’s devotion was tied to prosperity. He was wrong.
6. God Allows Trials with a Purpose – The scene in heaven shows that sometimes our trials are part of a greater unseen story.
7. Be a Priest Over Your Household – Job interceded for his children continually. His example speaks to godly parenting.

Job Chapter 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

Satan Strikes Again, but Job Endures

A Second Heavenly Challenge

1 Another day came when the sons of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan also came with them to stand before the Lord.

2 The Lord asked Satan, “Where have you come from?”

Satan answered, “From roaming throughout the earth, going back and forth in it.”

3 Then the Lord said to Satan, “Have you considered my servant Job? There’s no one like him on earth—a blameless and upright man who fears God and avoids evil. And still, he holds firmly to his integrity, even though you urged me to ruin him without reason.”

Satan’s New Accusation

4 Satan replied, “Skin for skin! A man will give up everything he owns to save his own life.

5 But stretch out your hand and strike his flesh and bones, and he will surely curse you to your face!”

6 The Lord said to Satan, “Very well, he is in your hands—but you must spare his life.”

Job’s Physical Suffering Begins

7 So Satan left the Lord’s presence and struck Job with painful sores from the soles of his feet to the top of his head.

8 Job sat among the ashes and scraped himself with a piece of broken pottery.

Job’s Wife Speaks Out

9 His wife said to him, “Are you still clinging to your integrity? Curse God and die!”

10 But Job replied, “You speak like a foolish woman. Should we accept only good things from God and not adversity?”

In all this, Job did not sin with his lips.

Job’s Friends Arrive

11 When Job’s three friends heard of all the calamity that had come upon him, they each came from their own region—Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite. They had agreed together to come and show sympathy and comfort him.

12 But when they saw him from a distance, they barely recognized him. They began to weep loudly. Each of them tore his robe and sprinkled dust on his head toward heaven.

13 Then they sat down on the ground with Job for seven days and seven nights. No one said a word to him, because they saw how great his suffering was.

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 2

1. The Enemy Persists, but God Still Sets the Limits – Satan returns for a second attack, yet he cannot act outside God’s permission.
2. Integrity in Pain Is Possible – Job’s suffering intensified, yet he held fast to his integrity and never spoke against God.
3. True Faith Isn’t Conditional – Job shows that faith does not depend on good health or outward blessings.
4. Even Loved Ones May Misunderstand Us – Job’s own wife urged him to abandon his faith. In our pain, we may face criticism from those closest to us.
5. Companionship Doesn’t Always Require Words – Job’s friends initially did the right thing: they sat in silence and shared in his grief.
6. God Knows the Whole Story—We Don’t – While Satan plots and humans guess, only God sees the full purpose behind trials.

Job Chapter 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

Job’s Lament: A Cry from the Depths of Suffering

Job Curses the Day of His Birth

1 After this, Job opened his mouth and cursed the day he was born.

2 He said:

3 "Let the day perish on which I was born, and the night it was said, ‘A baby boy has been conceived.’

4 May that day be darkness; may God above not care about it; may no light shine on it.

5 Let deep darkness and the shadow of death claim it; may a cloud settle over it; may terrifying gloom overwhelm it.

6 As for that night, let thick darkness seize it. May it never be included among the days of the year or added to the count of the months.

7 Let that night be barren; may no joyful shout be heard in it.

8 Let those who curse days curse it—those who are ready to awaken Leviathan.

9 May its morning stars become dark; may it wait for daylight in vain and not see the first rays of dawn,

10 Because it did not shut the doors of my mother’s womb, nor hide sorrow from my eyes.

Job Questions Why He Was Born

11 Why didn't I die at birth, or pass away as I came from the womb?

12 Why were there knees to receive me, or breasts for me to nurse?

13 For now I would be lying down in peace; I would be asleep and at rest,

14 With kings and counselors of the earth, who built grand tombs for themselves,

15 Or with princes who had gold, who filled their houses with silver.

16 Or like a miscarriage that is hidden, like babies who never saw the light of day.

The Rest of Death

17 There the wicked stop their torment, and there the weary find rest.

18 Prisoners are at ease together; they don't hear the voice of the slave driver.

19 The small and the great are there, and the servant is free from his master.

Job Longs for Death

20 Why is light given to those in misery, and life to the bitter of soul,

21 Who long for death, but it doesn't come, who dig for it more than hidden treasure,

22 Who rejoice and are thrilled when they find the grave?

23 Why is life given to a man whose path is hidden, whom God has hedged in?

24 I sigh before I eat; my groans pour out like water.

25 What I feared most has happened to me; what I dreaded has come true.

26 I have no peace, no quietness; I have no rest—only trouble has come."

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 3

1. Even the Righteous May Despair – Job, once called blameless, now cries out in anguish. Grief and depression are not signs of spiritual weakness but part of the human experience.
2. It's Okay to Mourn Honestly – Job doesn't hide his pain. He questions his very existence. Scripture includes this raw emotion to show us it's okay to wrestle with suffering.
3. Death Is Not Always Feared – Job describes death as a place of rest and release. This shows the depth of his anguish and the universal longing for peace in suffering.

4. God Hears Lament – Job's lament wasn't condemned. It was recorded in Scripture. God invites our honesty—even in our darkest thoughts.
5. Pain May Eclipse Perspective – Job forgot his earlier trust in God's sovereignty. Suffering narrowed his view, as it often does. But God will meet him there in later chapters.

Job Chapter 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

Eliphaz Speaks: The Innocent Don't Suffer Without Cause

Eliphaz Begins to Speak

- 1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite replied and said:
 - 2 “If I try to say something to you, will it upset you? But who could keep from speaking?
 - 3 Look, you've taught many others, and you've strengthened the hands of the weak.
 - 4 Your words have supported those who were falling, and you've made trembling knees steady.
 - 5 But now that trouble has come to you, you fall apart; it touches you, and you're overwhelmed.
 - 6 Isn't your reverence for God your confidence? Isn't your integrity your hope?
-

The Doctrine of Retribution

- 7 Think back: who has ever perished while being innocent? Where have the righteous been destroyed?
 - 8 As I've seen it, those who plow evil and plant trouble will harvest the same.
 - 9 By the breath of God they are destroyed; by the blast of His anger, they are consumed.
 - 10 The lion may roar, and the fierce lion may growl, but the teeth of young lions are broken.
 - 11 The old lion dies from lack of prey, and the cubs of the lioness are scattered.
-

Eliphaz Describes a Mysterious Vision

- 12 A word was secretly whispered to me, and my ear caught a glimpse of it.
- 13 It came to me in the middle of disturbing thoughts from night visions, when deep sleep falls on people.
- 14 A feeling of fear and trembling seized me, and it made every bone in my body shake.
- 15 Then a spirit passed by my face; the hair on my body stood on end.
- 16 It stood still, but I couldn't make out its shape. There was a form before my eyes. Silence... then I heard a voice say:

God Is Just—Man Is Not

17 ‘Can a mortal be more righteous than God? Can a man be more pure than his Maker?’

18 Look, God doesn’t even trust His servants; He charges His angels with error.

19 How much more, then, those who dwell in houses of clay—whose foundation is in the dust—who are crushed like moths!

20 They are broken to pieces from morning until evening; they perish forever without anyone noticing.

21 Isn’t all their glory taken away? They die without wisdom.’”

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 4

1. Even Friends Can Misread Our Suffering – Eliphaz begins gently, acknowledging Job’s former strength, but quickly shifts to blame, assuming Job must have sinned. This reminds us not to make quick judgments in the face of someone else’s pain.
2. The Danger of a Rigid Theology – Eliphaz promotes the idea that only the wicked suffer (the retribution principle). But Job’s story—and real life—show that suffering can happen to the righteous, too.
3. Spiritual Experiences Must Be Tested – Eliphaz appeals to a vision he received, yet the message, though poetic, reinforces flawed logic. Not every supernatural experience reflects divine truth.
4. God’s Holiness Is Absolute – Eliphaz is right to point out that no human can claim righteousness over God. But he fails to balance this truth with compassion or deeper understanding of grace.
5. Comfort Requires Compassion, Not Condemnation – Though Eliphaz meant to help, he begins to wound. Sometimes what people need most is empathy, not explanation.

Job Chapter 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

Eliphaz’s Counsel: God Corrects and Restores

Don’t Expect Help from Anyone but God

1 “Cry out now! Is there anyone who will answer you? To which of the holy ones will you turn?”

2 Resentment kills a fool, and jealousy destroys the simple.

3 I’ve seen a fool take root, but suddenly I cursed his house.

4 His children are far from safety; they are crushed in court, with no one to rescue them.

5 The hungry consume his harvest, even snatching it from the thorns; the thirsty rob him of his wealth.

Trouble Is Part of Life

6 Affliction doesn't just grow from the soil, and trouble doesn't sprout like weeds—

7 But people are born to trouble, just like sparks fly upward.

God Is the Source of Help and Restoration

8 If I were you, I'd turn to God and present my case to Him.

9 He does great things—too marvelous to understand—wonders without number.

10 He sends rain on the earth and waters the countryside.

11 He lifts the lowly and sets them on high, and those who mourn are given safety.

12 He frustrates the plans of the crafty so that their hands fail to achieve success.

13 He catches the wise in their own schemes, and the plans of the clever are swept away.

14 They grope in darkness at noon, stumbling as if it were night.

15 But God saves the poor from the sword of their mouth and from the hand of the powerful.

16 So the poor have hope, and injustice shuts its mouth.

The Value of God's Correction

17 Look, blessed is the one whom God corrects. So don't despise the discipline of the Almighty.

18 For though He wounds, He also heals; He strikes, but His hands also restore.

19 He will rescue you from six troubles—yes, even seven—no harm will touch you.

20 In famine, He will keep you from death; in war, from the sword.

21 You'll be protected from slander and have no fear when destruction comes.

22 You'll laugh at destruction and famine and have no fear of wild animals.

23 You'll have a covenant with the stones of the field, and the wild animals will be at peace with you.

24 You'll know that your home is safe, and when you visit, nothing will be missing.

25 You'll also know your descendants will be many—your offspring like the grass of the earth.

26 You'll come to the grave at a ripe old age, like a sheaf of grain gathered in its season.

27 Look, we've examined all this, and it's true. Listen to it, and apply it for your benefit.”

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 5

1. Human Suffering Is Inevitable – Eliphaz reminds us that trouble is part of the human experience (v.7). But he overlooks the deeper truth—that not all suffering is punishment.
2. God's Discipline Is a Sign of Love – Though his tone is harsh, Eliphaz correctly says that God corrects those He loves (v.17). This is echoed later in Scripture (Hebrews 12:6).
3. God Is Our Ultimate Help – Eliphaz encourages Job to seek God, who does wonders, lifts the lowly, and brings justice (v.8–16). Though misapplied, these words still reflect God's nature.
4. Prosperity Is Not Always the Sign of God's Favor – Eliphaz assumes that restoration will come if Job repents. But Job wasn't suffering because of sin. We must be cautious not to oversimplify God's purposes.
5. Words Meant for Comfort Can Still Cut Deep – Eliphaz speaks eloquently, but he misses Job's heart. True comfort doesn't only speak truth—it listens with grace.

Job Chapter 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

Job's Response: My Pain Is Greater Than You Know

My Pain Is Too Much to Bear

1 Then Job answered and said,

2 “If only my grief could be measured and all my misery placed on the scales,

3 It would weigh more than all the sand of the sea. That's why I speak so rashly.

4 For the arrows of the Almighty are deep within me, and their poison is draining my spirit. God's terrors line up against me.

5 Does a wild donkey bray when it has grass? Does an ox bellow when it has food?

6 Can bland food be eaten without salt? Is there any flavor in the white of an egg?

7 I gag at the food I once would never touch. Now it's the only thing I have to eat.”

I Long for Death, Not Relief

8 “Oh, how I wish my request would be granted—that God would give me what I ask for!

9 That He would crush me and unleash His power to end my life!

10 At least I would find comfort in this: though overwhelmed by pain, I never denied the words of the Holy One.

11 But what strength do I have to keep hoping? What future do I have to keep going?

12 Am I made of stone? Is my body made of bronze?

13 No—I have no help left within me. Any chance of success has vanished.”

Where Is Your Compassion?

14 “Anyone who suffers deserves kindness from a friend—even if they’ve turned from God.

15 But my friends are as unreliable as a seasonal stream that dries up.

16 They are dark with ice and swollen with melting snow,

17 But when it gets hot, they vanish. When the heat comes, they disappear from their place.

18 Their paths wander off course, and they are lost.

19 Travelers from Tema and Sheba look for them,

20 But are disappointed because they trusted in them. They arrive and are ashamed.

21 You are like those dried-up streams. You see my suffering, and you’re afraid.”

I Didn’t Ask for Help—Just Understanding

22 “Did I ask you to give me anything? Or offer gifts from your wealth?

23 Did I ask you to rescue me from my enemies or to save me from powerful oppressors?

24 Just teach me, and I will be silent. Show me what I’ve done wrong.

25 Honest words are powerful. But what’s the point of your arguments?

26 Do you think your words will fix anything? Do you argue with someone desperate, as if their words don’t matter?

27 You’d even gamble with the life of an orphan. You’d dig a pit for your own friend.”

Look Me in the Eyes and Judge Honestly

28 “Please, look at me. I would never lie to your face.

29 Change your mind. Don’t treat me unfairly. Think it over again—my cause is just.

30 Is there any lie on my tongue? Don’t I know the difference between right and wrong?”

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 6

1. Grief Can Cloud Speech but Not Faith – Job admits his words are driven by overwhelming pain (v.3), not rebellion. Even in despair, he does not curse God.
2. Emotional Honesty Is Not Sin – Job speaks freely of his desire for death (v.8–9), yet God later calls him righteous (Job 42:7). God allows us to be honest with Him in our darkest moments.
3. Compassion Is a Command – Job criticizes his friends for abandoning him in suffering (v.14). True friendship means showing mercy—even when the sufferer is angry or broken.

4. Superficial Help Isn't Real Help – Job didn't ask for money or rescue—he asked to be understood (v.24). Listening and validating someone's pain is often more powerful than offering solutions.
5. The Righteous Still Suffer – Job continues to defend his innocence (v.29–30). His integrity amidst suffering foreshadows Christ, who suffered though He was sinless.

Job Chapter 7 – Crawford Standard Bible

Job's Cry: God, Why Do You Even Bother with Me?

Life Feels Meaningless and Miserable

- 1 “Isn't there a set time for people on earth? Aren't our days like those of a hired laborer—counted and wearisome?”
 - 2 Like a servant longing for the evening shadow, or a hired hand waiting for his pay,
 - 3 I too have been given months filled with emptiness, and nights full of misery have been assigned to me.
 - 4 When I lie down, I think, ‘When will I get up?’ But the night drags on, and I toss and turn until dawn.
 - 5 My skin is infected and scabby, covered with dust and worms; it cracks open and oozes.
 - 6 My days pass faster than a weaver's shuttle and come to an end without hope.
 - 7 Remember, O God, my life is just a breath. I'll never know happiness again.
 - 8 The eye that sees me now will not see me again; when You look for me, I'll be gone.
 - 9 Just like a cloud fades and vanishes, so a person goes down to the grave and doesn't return.
 - 10 He never comes back to his house again; his place doesn't even remember him.”
-

God, Why Won't You Leave Me Alone?

- 11 “So I won't keep quiet. I'll speak in my anguish and complain from the bitterness in my soul.
 - 12 Am I a monster of the sea or a sea creature that You need to keep under guard?
 - 13 When I say, ‘At least my bed will give me relief, and my couch will ease my complaint,’
 - 14 You terrify me with dreams and scare me with visions.
 - 15 I would rather be strangled—I would prefer death over this life of mine.
 - 16 I hate my life! I don't want to live forever. Leave me alone, for my days are meaningless.”
-

Why Do You Even Care About People?

- 17 “What is man that You care so much about him, that You focus Your attention on him,
- 18 That You examine him every morning and test him every moment?
- 19 Won't You look away from me? Won't You let me catch my breath even for a second?
- 20 If I've sinned, what can I do to You, O Watcher of humanity? Why have You made me Your target?

Why have I become such a burden to myself?

21 Why don't You forgive my sins and take away my guilt? For soon I will lie down in the dust. You will look for me, but I'll be gone."

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 7

1. Suffering Distorts Our Sense of Time and Purpose – Job sees life as burdensome, pointless, and fleeting (v.1–6). When pain is overwhelming, even small tasks and sleep lose meaning.
2. It's Okay to Ask God Hard Questions – Job questions God without being struck down for it (v.17–20). God welcomes raw honesty in suffering.
3. Emotions Are Not Rebellion – Job feels abandoned and even terrorized by his dreams (v.14–15). His emotional turmoil does not equal sin—it's the cry of a man deeply wounded.
4. God Is Present, Even When Silent – Though Job feels like a target of divine wrath, the very fact he's wrestling with God shows God hasn't abandoned him completely.
5. We Are Frail, Yet God Notices Us – Job ironically asks why God bothers with fragile people (v.17–18). This reflects the mystery of divine care—why does the Creator care so much for dust-born creatures?

Job Chapter 8 – Crawford Standard Bible

Bildad's Harsh Rebuke: If You Were Innocent, God Would Help You

God Is Just—So the Problem Must Be You

1 Then Bildad the Shuhite replied:

2 "How long will you keep talking like this? Your words are like a powerful wind—loud, reckless, and destructive.

3 Does God twist justice? Does the Almighty pervert what is right?

4 If your children sinned against Him, He simply gave them what they deserved.

5 But if you will earnestly seek God and beg the Almighty for mercy—

6 If you are pure and upright—surely He will rise up on your behalf and restore your home to prosperity.

7 Even if you started out with nothing, your future would be full of abundance."

Look at the Past to Understand God's Justice

8 "Ask the previous generation—study the wisdom of our ancestors.

9 (Because we were born just yesterday and we know so little. Our days on earth are like a passing shadow.)

10 Won't they teach you and give you wisdom from deep within their hearts?"

The Fate of the Godless

11 "Can papyrus grow tall without a marsh? Can reeds grow tall without water?

12 While it is still green and thriving—not yet cut down—it dries up faster than other plants.

13 That's what happens to those who forget God; the hope of the godless will perish.

14 Their confidence is as fragile as a spider's web.

15 They lean on their 'house'—but it collapses. They hold on to it—but it doesn't last.

16 They seem healthy, like a plant growing in the sunshine, spreading out in the garden.

17 Its roots wrap around the stones, anchoring it securely among the rocks.

18 But when it's pulled out of its place, it says, 'I never knew you!'

19 That's all the joy such a person gets—and others grow where they once stood."

The Hope of the Righteous

20 "God will never reject a person of integrity, and He will never support evildoers.

21 He will yet fill your mouth with laughter and your lips with shouts of joy.

22 Your enemies will be covered in shame, and the homes of the wicked will be gone forever."

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 8

1. God's Justice Is Real—but Bildad Misapplies It – Bildad is right that God is just (v.3), but wrong to assume suffering is always a result of sin (v.4–6).
2. Truth Can Be Twisted by Partial Insight – Using tradition alone (v.8–10), without understanding a person's heart, can lead to unfair judgment.
3. The Godless Can Seem Strong—Then Suddenly Fall – Bildad compares the wicked to plants that look healthy but wither quickly (v.11–19). He implies Job is like that, missing the bigger spiritual picture.
4. The Innocent Will Ultimately Rejoice – In verses 20–22, Bildad insists that if Job were truly innocent, God would restore him. Ironically, this hope is true—but Bildad wrongly assumes Job is guilty in the meantime.
5. We Must Be Cautious in Giving Counsel to the Hurting – Bildad's words are doctrinally sharp but pastorally insensitive. Truth without compassion can do more harm than good.

Job Chapter 9 – Crawford Standard Bible

No One Can Argue with God

God’s Power Makes Us All Small

1 Then Job replied:

2 “Yes, I know this is true. But how can a person be right before God?

3 If someone tried to argue with Him, they couldn’t answer even one question in a thousand.

4 He is wise in heart and mighty in power. Who has ever resisted Him and come out successful?

5 He moves mountains, and they don’t even know it; He overturns them in His anger.

6 He shakes the earth out of its place, and its foundations tremble.

7 He commands the sun not to rise and seals off the stars.

8 He stretches out the heavens by Himself and walks on the waves of the sea.

9 He made the constellations: the Bear (Arcturus), Orion, the Pleiades, and the distant southern stars.

10 He does great things too wonderful to understand—too many miracles to count.

11 When He passes by, I can’t see Him; He moves on, and I don’t perceive Him.

12 If He takes something away, who can stop Him? Who can dare say to Him, ‘What are you doing?’

13 God does not hold back His anger—even the proud must bow down before Him.”

I Cannot Argue with My Creator

14 “So how can I even begin to answer Him? How can I find the right words to speak with Him?

15 Even if I were innocent, I would not try to defend myself—I would only plead for mercy from my Judge.

16 And even if I called out and He answered, I wouldn’t believe He was really listening to my voice.

17 He batters me with storms and multiplies my wounds for no reason.

18 He won’t even let me catch my breath, but fills me with bitter suffering.

19 If it’s about strength—He is the strongest. If it’s about justice—who can summon Him to court?

20 If I tried to defend myself, my own mouth would prove me guilty. Even if I claimed I were blameless, that would reveal my faults.

21 Even if I were completely innocent, I wouldn’t know it. I’d still despise my own life.

22 So I say this plainly: God destroys both the innocent and the wicked.

23 When a plague brings sudden death, He seems to mock the despair of the innocent.

24 The earth is handed over to the wicked, and He blinds the eyes of its judges. If it’s not God doing this, then who is?”

My Life Is Speeding Away

25 “My days pass faster than a runner; they fly by without a glimpse of joy.

26 They’re like swift boats racing by or an eagle diving for prey.

27 If I say, ‘I’ll forget my complaint and smile again,’ 28 I’m still afraid of all the pain. I know You won’t declare me innocent.
29 Since I’m already considered guilty, why keep trying?
30 Even if I washed myself with the purest snow water and scrubbed my hands until they were spotless, 31 You would still throw me into a muddy pit, and even my clothes would hate to touch me.
32 God is not a man like me that I could argue with Him or take Him to court.
33 There’s no mediator between us—no one who can bring us both together.
34 Let Him take away His rod of punishment and stop terrifying me with fear.
35 Then I could speak to Him without fear. But as it is, I cannot.”

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 9

1. God’s Power Is Beyond Our Understanding – Job acknowledges the vastness of God’s wisdom, power, and sovereignty over creation (v.1–13), and recognizes that no human could argue their case before Him.
2. Human Efforts Cannot Justify Us Before God – Job insists that even if he were innocent, he still could not defend himself before God (v.14–20). This foreshadows the gospel truth: only divine grace can make us righteous.
3. God’s Justice Feels Inaccessible in Suffering – Job expresses confusion over why the righteous suffer and the wicked prosper (v.22–24). This tension is at the heart of the book.
4. Suffering Distorts Perspective – Job’s anguish leads him to feel hopeless, with life flying by and no relief in sight (v.25–31).
5. Job Longs for a Mediator – In verse 33, Job expresses a deep longing for a “daysman” (arbiter or mediator) between him and God—a role ultimately fulfilled in Christ (1 Timothy 2:5).
6. We Need Mercy, Not Arguments – Even Job, known for his righteousness, realized that no amount of human defense could justify him before a holy God. He needed grace, not vindication.

Job Chapter 10 – Crawford Standard Bible

Wrestling with a Silent God

A Cry from a Broken Soul

1 “I am tired of living. I will give voice to my complaint and speak from the bitterness in my soul.
2 I will say to God: ‘Do not condemn me—tell me why You are fighting against me.
3 Does it please You to oppress me, to reject the work of Your own hands, while You smile on the plans of the wicked?’

4 Do You have human eyes? Do You see things the way people do?
5 Are Your days like a man's days? Are Your years like a human lifetime,
6 That You must look for my sin and dig into my faults?
7 You already know I am not guilty, and no one can rescue me from Your hand.”

You Made Me—Why Destroy Me?

8 “You made me with Your own hands and shaped me completely—yet now You destroy me?
9 Remember that You formed me like clay. Will You now return me to the dust?
10 Did You not pour me out like milk and curdle me like cheese?
11 You clothed me with skin and flesh and knit me together with bones and tendons.
12 You gave me life and kindness, and by Your care, You preserved my spirit.
13 But even then, You hid these things in Your heart. I know this was Your plan all along.”

I Cannot Win Either Way

14 “If I sin, You keep track of it and will not let me go unpunished.
15 If I am guilty—woe to me. If I am innocent, I still can't lift my head—I'm ashamed and overwhelmed with pain.
16 And if I try to raise my head, You hunt me like a lion and show Your power against me again.
17 You constantly bring new witnesses against me. Your anger grows stronger, and You send wave after wave of suffering against me.”

Why Was I Ever Born?

18 “Why did You bring me out of the womb at all? I wish I had died before anyone saw me.
19 I should have been as though I never existed—carried straight from the womb to the grave.
20 Aren't my days few? Let me be for a little while—leave me alone so I can have some peace
21 Before I go to the land of no return, to the land of darkness and deep shadow—
22 A land as dark as midnight, a land of confusion and disorder, where even light is like darkness.”

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 10

1. It's Okay to Bring Hard Questions to God – Job boldly asks why God seems to target him without cause. God does not silence Job, showing us that bringing our honest struggles to Him is part of faith.
2. We Are God's Creation—Formed with Care – Job reflects on how God intricately created him (vv. 8–12), showing a deep understanding of divine craftsmanship and personal value, even in suffering.

3. Suffering Can Distort Our View of God’s Character – Job wrestles with confusing emotions: feeling punished, hunted, and abandoned. His words reflect the inner turmoil of grief and unanswered pain.
4. Innocence Does Not Guarantee Comfort – Job’s lament reminds us that earthly righteousness does not always shield us from trials. Sometimes, even the upright endure deep sorrow.
5. God’s Silence Is Not God’s Absence – Though Job feels abandoned and unheard, the entire book shows that God is fully aware of every word and will eventually respond.
6. Longing for Peace Is a Human Cry – Job’s request to be left alone (v. 20) is not faithlessness, but exhaustion. God hears even our most fragile prayers.

Job Chapter 11 – Crawford Standard Bible

Zophar’s Rebuke: A Harsh Call to Repent

Zophar Condemns Job’s Words

- 1 Then Zophar the Naamathite replied,
 - 2 “Should all your talking go unanswered? Should a man full of words be considered right?
 - 3 Should your empty claims silence others? When you mock, shouldn’t someone shame you?
 - 4 You say, ‘My teaching is pure, and I am innocent in God’s eyes.’
 - 5 Oh, how I wish God would speak and open His lips to rebuke you!
 - 6 He would show you the secrets of wisdom—true wisdom has two sides. Know this: God is punishing you less than you actually deserve.”
-

God’s Wisdom Is Beyond Reach

- 7 “Can you understand the deep things of God? Can you fully grasp the perfection of the Almighty?
 - 8 His wisdom reaches higher than the heavens—what can you do? It is deeper than the grave—what can you know?
 - 9 Its measure is longer than the earth and broader than the sea.
 - 10 If God chooses to arrest someone, confine them, or call them to court—who can stop Him?
 - 11 He knows deceitful people and sees wickedness. Will He not take notice of it?
 - 12 But foolish people want to appear wise, though they are born as wild and stubborn as a donkey’s colt.”
-

Zophar’s Conditional Hope

- 13 “If you would prepare your heart and reach out your hands to God—
- 14 If there is sin in your hand, put it far away and don’t let evil dwell in your house—

15 Then you will be able to lift up your face without shame; you will stand firm and without fear.

16 You will forget your troubles; they will pass like water under a bridge.

17 Your life will be brighter than the noonday; even darkness will be like the morning.

18 You will be secure, full of hope. You will look around and rest in safety.

19 You will lie down with no one to make you afraid, and many will come to ask for your favor.

20 But the wicked will go blind with despair. They will have no way to escape, and their only hope will be to die.”

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 11

1. Religious Zeal Can Lack Compassion – Zophar speaks with strong convictions, but he shows no empathy. Truth without love can wound more than it heals.
2. God’s Wisdom Is Unsearchable – Zophar is right that God’s knowledge surpasses ours (vv. 7–9), reminding us to remain humble in our understanding.
3. Grace Often Surpasses Justice – Even in his flawed rebuke, Zophar admits God has not dealt with Job as harshly as He could have (v. 6), pointing to divine mercy.
4. Zophar Promotes a Transactional Faith – He teaches that repentance guarantees prosperity. But Job’s story proves that righteousness does not always result in immediate blessings.
5. The Wicked Have No Lasting Hope – Zophar ends with a grim view of the wicked (v. 20), which echoes many biblical truths, though misapplied here to Job.
6. Be Careful How You Counsel the Hurting – Zophar wrongly assumes Job's suffering is due to sin. This reminds us to approach the suffering with grace, not judgment.

Job Chapter 12 – Crawford Standard Bible

Job Answers: True Wisdom Belongs to God Alone

Job Responds with Sarcasm to His Friends

1 Then Job replied:

2 “No doubt you are the people, and when you die, wisdom will die with you.

3 But I have understanding too. I’m not beneath you. Who doesn’t know the things you’ve said?”

The Mocking of the Righteous

4 I am mocked by my friends—me, the one who called on God and received an answer. The just and upright man is laughed at.

5 Those who live in ease despise misfortune, as if lighting a lamp for someone whose feet are slipping.

The Prosperity of the Wicked

6 The tents of robbers are at peace. Those who provoke God live securely—those whom God has richly blessed.

All Creation Testifies to God's Power

7 But ask the animals, and they will teach you. Ask the birds, and they will tell you.

8 Speak to the earth, and it will teach you. Let the fish of the sea explain it to you.

9 Who among all these does not know that the hand of the Lord has done this?

10 In His hand is the life of every living thing and the breath of all humanity.

God Is the Source of All Wisdom

11 Doesn't the ear test words as the tongue tastes food?

12 Wisdom is found among the aged; long life brings understanding.

13 But true wisdom and power belong to God. Counsel and understanding are His.

God's Unstoppable Power

14 If He tears something down, it cannot be rebuilt. If He imprisons someone, no one can release them.

15 If He holds back the waters, there is drought. If He lets them loose, they flood the earth.

16 Strength and wisdom are His; both the deceived and the deceiver are under His control.

God Reverses Human Power

17 He leads counselors away stripped and makes judges look like fools.

18 He loosens the bonds of kings and ties a cloth around their waists.

19 He leads princes away barefoot and overthrows the mighty.

20 He silences trusted advisors and removes the wisdom of the elders.

21 He pours out contempt on nobles and weakens the power of the strong.

22 He uncovers deep things hidden in darkness and brings the shadow of death into the light.

God Rules Over Nations

23 He makes nations great and then destroys them. He enlarges nations and then scatters them.

24 He strips the leaders of the earth of their understanding and causes them to wander in a pathless wilderness.

25 They grope in the dark without light. He makes them stagger like drunkards.

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 12

1. Sarcasm Reveals Job's Pain – Job mocks his friends for their arrogant wisdom (vv. 2–3), revealing the sting of their shallow counsel.
2. The Righteous Are Often Mocked – Job speaks truth: those who walk with God can still be scorned (v. 4), even by those closest to them.
3. Injustice Exists in a Fallen World – Wicked people prosper while the righteous suffer (v. 6), a reality that Job refuses to deny.
4. All Creation Testifies to God's Power – The natural world reflects God's hand in all life and breath (vv. 7–10), a poetic defense of divine sovereignty.
5. God Is the Source of True Wisdom – Job reminds his friends that wisdom isn't confined to age or tradition—it belongs to God alone (vv. 13–16).
6. God Overrules Earthly Power – Whether kings, counselors, or nations, all rise and fall by God's hand (vv. 17–25), emphasizing His absolute rule.
7. God Works in Ways Beyond Our Understanding – Job speaks both in awe and fear, acknowledging that God's decisions and plans are unsearchable.

Job Chapter 13 – Crawford Standard Bible

Job's Plea to Speak with God

Job Rebukes His Friends Again

- 1 “My eyes have seen all this. My ears have heard and understood it.
 - 2 What you know, I also know. I'm not beneath you in understanding.
 - 3 But I want to speak to the Almighty myself. I want to argue my case before God.
 - 4 But you are fabricators of lies; you are all worthless doctors.
 - 5 If only you would shut your mouths— that would be your wisdom!
 - 6 Now listen to my argument; pay attention to what I say.
-

Job Accuses Them of Misrepresenting God

- 7 Will you speak wickedly on God's behalf? Will you lie for Him?
- 8 Will you show Him favoritism? Will you argue His case for Him?
- 9 Would it go well if He examined you? Could you deceive Him like you deceive a man?

- 10 He will certainly correct you if you secretly show partiality.
11 Wouldn't His majesty terrify you? Wouldn't His dread fall upon you?
12 Your wise sayings are as fragile as ashes; your defenses are as weak as clay.
-

Job Prepares to Take His Stand

- 13 Be quiet now and leave me alone, so I can speak, no matter what happens to me.
14 Why should I take my life in my hands and risk it all?
15 Though He slay me, yet I will trust Him. But I will still argue my ways before Him.
16 This will be my salvation—that no godless person would dare come before Him.
17 Listen carefully to what I say. Let my declaration ring in your ears.
18 I have prepared my case; I know I will be vindicated.
19 Who will argue with me? For if I stay silent, I will die.
-

Job's Prayer to God

- 20 Just do two things for me, O God, and I will not hide from You:
21 Remove Your hand of punishment from me, and don't terrify me with Your dread.
22 Then call me, and I will answer— or let me speak, and You reply.
23 How many are my sins and wrongdoings? Show me my sin and my guilt.
24 Why do You hide Your face from me and consider me Your enemy?
25 Will You harass a windblown leaf? Will You chase after dry straw?
26 You write bitter accusations against me and make me reap the sins of my youth.
27 You fasten my feet in shackles, watch every step I take, and even mark out where my feet leave prints.
28 Man wastes away like something rotten, like a garment eaten by moths.”
-

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 13

1. Job Longs to Speak Directly with God – He's done arguing with friends who don't understand. Job wants to present his case to God Himself (v. 3).
2. Empty Counsel Is Harmful – Job accuses his friends of lying and offering shallow advice, which only adds to his pain (vv. 4–5).
3. Misrepresenting God Is Dangerous – Job warns them not to speak falsely on God's behalf; God sees through every falsehood and favoritism (vv. 7–10).
4. Faith Amid Suffering – “Though He slay me, yet will I trust Him” (v. 15) stands as one of the boldest declarations of trust in Scripture—even when Job doesn't understand God's actions.

5. Honest Prayer Is Welcomed by God – Job pours out his questions and confusion without hiding his heart. He longs for clarity and connection with the Lord (vv. 20–24).
6. God Knows Every Step – Even though Job feels targeted, he acknowledges God’s close watch over every move (v. 27), a humbling truth both in suffering and blessing.

Job Chapter 14 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Man’s Frailty and the Finality of Death”

Life Is Short and Full of Trouble

- 1 "Man, born of a woman, lives only a short time and is full of trouble.
 - 2 He comes forth like a flower and then is cut down; he flees like a shadow and does not last.
 - 3 Do You open Your eyes on such a fragile creature and bring me to judgment with You?
 - 4 Who can bring something pure from something impure? No one.
-

Man’s Days Are Numbered

- 5 A person’s days are determined; You have numbered his months and set limits he cannot cross.
 - 6 So turn Your gaze from him and let him rest, so he may enjoy his day like a hired worker completing his shift.
-

Hope for a Tree—But Not for Man?

- 7 There is hope for a tree: if it is cut down, it can sprout again, and its new shoots will not stop growing.
 - 8 Even if its roots grow old in the ground and its stump dies in the soil,
 - 9 at the scent of water it will bud and bring forth branches like a young plant.
 - 10 But a man dies and is laid low; he breathes his last—where is he?
 - 11 As water disappears from a lake, and a river dries up and vanishes,
 - 12 so a man lies down and does not rise. Until the heavens are no more, people will not awaken or be roused from their sleep.
-

Job’s Hope in Resurrection

- 13 Oh, that You would hide me in the grave, conceal me until Your anger passes! Appoint me a set time and then remember me.
- 14 If a man dies, will he live again? All the days of my service I will wait until my renewal comes.
- 15 You will call, and I will answer; You will long for the work of Your hands.

16 But for now, You count my steps and watch over my sin.
17 My offenses are sealed up in a bag; You cover over my guilt.

The Hopelessness of Man's Condition

18 Just as mountains crumble and fall, and rocks are moved from their place, 19 and water wears away stones and torrents wash away the soil, so You destroy man's hope.
20 You overpower him once for all, and he is gone. You change his appearance and send him away.
21 His sons may receive honor, but he doesn't know it; they may be brought low, and he's unaware.
22 He only feels the pain of his own body, and he mourns for himself alone.”

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 14

1. Human Life Is Fragile and Brief – Job describes life as a fleeting flower or a vanishing shadow (vv. 1–2), reminding us that earthly life is temporary and vulnerable.
2. Only God Sets Our Boundaries – Our days, like our limitations, are set by God. We cannot extend our time beyond what He has appointed (v. 5).
3. Nature Has Renewal, but What About Man? – Job observes that even trees can revive after being cut down, yet humans seem to die with no return (vv. 7–12).
4. A Glimpse of Resurrection Hope – In verses 13–15, Job longs for a future resurrection. He speaks of waiting for a “change” and answering God's call beyond death—a profound statement of faith amid despair.
5. God Watches Every Step – Job feels as though God counts every move and holds onto his sins (v. 16), though later chapters will show a fuller view of grace and restoration.
6. Even the Strongest Fade – Mountains fall, rocks move, and even the most enduring things decay—just like the hope of man apart from God (vv. 18–19).
7. Grief Is Personal and Isolated – Job ends the chapter noting how death separates us from even the rise or fall of our loved ones. Only the body's pain and the soul's sorrow remain in the moment (vv. 21–22).

Job Chapter 15 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Eliphaz's Harsh Accusation: Wisdom or Wounding?”

Eliphaz Questions Job's Wisdom

- 1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said:
2 “Should a wise man answer with empty knowledge and fill his belly with the hot east wind?”

- 3 Should he argue with useless talk or speeches that don't help anyone?
4 You are even hindering reverence for God and holding back prayer before Him.
5 Your own sin instructs your mouth, and your words come from a crafty tongue.
6 Your own mouth condemns you—not I; your own lips testify against you.
-

Eliphaz Accuses Job of Pride

- 7 Were you the first man ever born? Were you brought forth before the hills?
8 Have you listened in on God's secret counsel? Do you limit wisdom to yourself?
9 What do you know that we don't know? What understanding do you have that's not available to us?
10 Both the gray-haired and the aged are with us—men older than your father.
11 Are God's consolations not enough for you, or His words spoken gently to you?
12 Why has your heart carried you away, and why do your eyes flash in anger, 13 That you turn your spirit against God and allow such words to leave your mouth?
-

Man's Sinfulness and God's Greatness

- 14 What is man, that he should be pure? Or one born of a woman, that he should be righteous?
15 Look, God doesn't even trust His holy ones, and the heavens themselves are not pure in His eyes.
16 How much more detestable and corrupt is man, who drinks wickedness like water?
-

The Wicked Suffer in the End

- 17 "Listen to me and I will explain—let me declare what I've seen, 18 What wise men have passed down from their ancestors without hiding it, 19 To whom alone the land was given when no foreigner had yet invaded.
20 The wicked man suffers pain all his days; the number of years stored up for the ruthless is unknown.
21 Terrifying sounds ring in his ears; in peace, the destroyer comes upon him.
22 He doesn't believe he will return from darkness; a sword waits to take him down.
23 He wanders around for food, saying, 'Where is it?' He knows that a day of darkness is near.
24 Trouble and distress terrify him, overwhelming him like a king prepared for battle, 25 Because he has raised his hand against God and dared to challenge the Almighty.
26 He charges at God defiantly, with a thick shield as if going into battle.
-

The Fate of the Arrogant

- 27 Though he is covered in fat and his body is bloated with flesh, 28 He will live in desolate cities, in houses abandoned and crumbling into ruins.
29 He will no longer be rich; his wealth will not last, and his fortune will not spread across the land.
30 He will not escape the darkness; a flame will wither his branches, and he will be swept away by the breath of God.

31 Let him not trust in empty hopes—they will be his reward.

32 It will all end before its time, and his branch will not flourish.

33 He will drop his unripe grapes like a vine and shed his blossoms like an olive tree.

34 The company of hypocrites will be barren, and fire will consume the tents of those who accept bribes.

35 They conceive trouble, give birth to wickedness, and their womb prepares deceit.”

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 15

1. Words Without Compassion Wound Deeply – Eliphaz’s speech is full of assumptions and criticism, demonstrating how religious language can be misused to hurt rather than heal (vv. 1–6).
2. Don’t Assume You Know Another’s Heart – Eliphaz accuses Job of arrogance and sin based on Job’s words, yet Job’s inner struggle is far deeper than Eliphaz understands (vv. 7–13).
3. All Humans Are Imperfect—But That’s Not Always the Cause of Suffering – Eliphaz’s theology that man is inherently unclean (vv. 14–16) is true, but his conclusion—that Job’s suffering proves guilt—is flawed.
4. The Prosperity of the Wicked Is Temporary – Eliphaz reiterates that wicked people are eventually judged (vv. 20–35), which is often true, but he wrongly applies it as a certainty to Job’s specific case.
5. Suffering Requires Compassion, Not Condemnation – Eliphaz fails to offer comfort or grace, turning God’s truth into a weapon rather than a balm.

Job Chapter 16 – Crawford Standard Bible

"The Cry of a Wounded Soul"

Job Calls His Friends Miserable Comforters

1 Then Job answered and said,

2 “I’ve heard all this before. You are miserable comforters—all of you.

3 Is there no end to your empty talk? What makes you keep on arguing?

4 I could talk like you if our places were reversed. I could pile up words against you and shake my head at you.

5 But I would strengthen you with my words, and my comfort would ease your pain.

Job Laments the Unrelenting Grief

6 If I speak, my grief isn't relieved. And if I stay silent, it doesn't help me either.

7 But now God has worn me out; You have devastated my whole household.

8 You have shriveled me up—my appearance testifies against me. My thin frame is evidence of my suffering.

Job Feels Attacked by God and Men

9 In His anger, God tears at me—He hates me. He gnashes His teeth at me. My enemy glares at me with piercing eyes.

10 People open their mouths wide at me. They slap my face in contempt and unite together against me.

11 God has handed me over to the wicked, and thrown me into the hands of the ungodly.

12 I was living in peace, but He shattered me. He grabbed me by the neck and crushed me. He has made me His target.

13 His archers surround me. He pierces my kidneys without mercy and spills my insides on the ground.

14 He smashes me again and again, attacking like a warrior.

Job's Outer Misery Reflects Inner Pain

15 I've sewn sackcloth into my skin and buried my dignity in the dust.

16 My face is red with weeping, and deep darkness shadows my eyes—

17 Even though my hands have done no violence, and my prayer is sincere.

Job Cries for Heavenly Justice

18 O earth, do not cover my blood! Let my cry never be silenced.

19 Even now, my witness is in heaven; my advocate is on high.

20 My friends mock me, but I pour out tears to God.

21 Oh, that someone would argue on behalf of a man with God, as one pleads for a friend!

22 For my few remaining years will soon pass, and I will walk the path of no return.

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 16

1. Empty Words Can Deepen Wounds – Job rebukes his friends for their harsh, unhelpful counsel. Their theology lacked empathy, and their presence became more painful than comforting (vv. 1–5).
2. Grief That Finds No Relief – Job is trapped in emotional and physical anguish that no words, silence, or support can seem to resolve (v. 6).

3. Feeling Attacked by God – Job expresses deep pain, feeling as though God has turned on him violently. Though his theology isn't perfect here, it is raw and honest (vv. 7–14).
4. The God Who Sees the Injustice – Job maintains his innocence. Though misunderstood by people and feeling abandoned by God, he believes his record is kept in heaven (vv. 17–19).
5. We All Need an Advocate Before God – Job yearns for someone to plead his case before God. This cry for a mediator foreshadows the role of Christ, who now intercedes for us (v. 21; cf. 1 Timothy 2:5).

Job Chapter 17 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Hope Fading in the Shadows”

Job Sees Death Approaching

- 1 My breath is weak, my days are nearly over, and the grave is ready for me.
 - 2 Surely mockers surround me, and my eyes watch their constant insults.
 - 3 Give me a pledge with You, O God—who else will shake hands with me in agreement?
 - 4 You've closed their minds to understanding, so You will not let them triumph.
-

Job Feels Dishonored and Alone

- 5 Anyone who flatters his friends will see his own children's eyes fail.
 - 6 God has made me a public proverb; people spit when they see me.
 - 7 My eyes are swollen from grief, and my body is but a shadow.
-

Truth Still Stirs the Upright

- 8 The upright are shocked at all this; the innocent are stirred to stand against the godless.
 - 9 Yet the righteous will hold firmly to their way, and those with clean hands will grow stronger and stronger.
-

Job Mourns His Broken Plans

- 10 But as for you, return and try again—because I can't find a single wise man among you.
 - 11 My days are over. My plans—my heart's dreams—are crushed.
 - 12 They turn night into day, saying, “Light is near,” but darkness still overwhelms me.
-

Job's Hope Crumbles into the Grave

13 If I wait, the grave will be my home. I'll spread out my bed in the darkness.

14 I'll say to decay, "You are my father," and to the worms, "You are my mother and my sister."

15 Where then is my hope? Who can see any hope left for me?

16 It will go down with me to the grave. We'll lie together in the dust.

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 17

1. Grief Can Cloud Hope – Job's spirit is crushed, and his suffering has pushed him to the edge of despair. He feels that death is his only rest (vv. 1, 11–16).
↳ Even in deep suffering, the human soul craves relief and longs for peace.
 2. God Is the Only Trustworthy Witness – Job turns to God for assurance, knowing that no man around him can offer true support (v. 3).
↳ When human support fails, God remains the One who understands.
 3. Suffering Can Bring Isolation – Job was once respected, but now he is mocked, spit upon, and seen as a cautionary tale. His pain has made him an outcast (vv. 2, 6–7).
↳ Hard times may change how people treat you—but not how God values you.
 4. The Righteous Keep Going – Despite the darkness, Job still recognizes that the righteous will keep going and grow stronger (v. 9).
↳ Spiritual integrity is not dependent on circumstances but on trusting God's character.
 5. Despair Is Real—But Not Final – Job's reflections are filled with hopelessness, but the very act of expressing his grief shows he still longs to be heard (vv. 13–16).
↳ Even in despair, there is a silent cry for God to step in.
-

Job Chapter 18 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Fate of the Wicked”

Bildad Rebukes Job Again

1 Then Bildad the Shuhite replied:

2 "How long until you stop talking? Let us speak when you're done.

3 Why do you treat us like animals, and regard us as stupid in your eyes?

4 You tear yourself apart in your anger. Should the earth be abandoned for your sake? Should the rocks be moved to suit you?

The Darkness Awaiting the Wicked

- 5 The light of the wicked will be snuffed out; the flame of his fire will not shine.
6 The light in his home will grow dark, and the lamp beside him will be extinguished.
7 His strong steps will become weak, and his own plans will bring him down.
8 For his own feet lead him into a net, and he walks right into a trap.
9 A snare grabs him by the heel; a trap seizes him.
10 A noose lies hidden in the ground, a trap lies in his path.
-

The Terror and Destruction of the Godless

- 11 Terrors stalk him on every side and chase him at every step.
12 His strength fades from hunger, and calamity stands ready to attack him.
13 Disease consumes his skin; the firstborn of death devours his limbs.
14 He is torn from the safety of his tent and marched before the king of terrors.
15 Fire will live in his tent, though it is no longer his; burning sulfur will be scattered on his home.
16 His roots will dry up below, and his branches will wither above.
-

Total Erasure of the Wicked

- 17 His memory will vanish from the earth; no one will remember his name in the streets.
18 He will be driven from light into darkness and chased out of the world.
19 He will have no children or descendants among his people—no survivor where he once lived.
20 People of the west will be appalled at what happens to him; people of the east will be horrified.
21 Surely this is the fate of the wicked—this is the place of the one who does not know God."
-

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 18

1. Sin Sets Its Own Trap – Bildad claims that the wicked fall into the very snares they set or stumble by their own schemes (vv. 7–10).
↳ Unrepentant sin is self-destructive; it ensnares the one who practices it.
2. God Judges the Godless – Bildad describes terrifying images of judgment and isolation for those who reject God (vv. 11–21).
↳ A life without God ends in ruin—physically, spiritually, and eternally.
3. Bildad Misapplies Truth – While Bildad speaks of real principles of divine judgment, he wrongly applies them to Job's suffering.
↳ Truth without compassion becomes a weapon. Discernment is key in comforting the afflicted.

4. The Righteous Must Not Be Confused with the Wicked – Bildad assumes Job’s suffering equals guilt. But Job’s affliction isn’t punishment—it’s a test.
↳ We must be slow to judge someone else’s suffering as God’s rejection.

Job Chapter 19 – Crawford Standard Bible

“My Redeemer Lives”

Job Rebukes His Friends’ Cruelty

- 1 Then Job replied:
2 “How long will you torment me and crush me with your words?
3 You’ve insulted me ten times already—do you feel no shame in mistreating me?
4 Even if I’ve made a mistake, that mistake is mine alone.
5 But if you keep trying to prove yourselves better than me and blame me for my suffering,
6 Then know this: God is the one who has wronged me and trapped me in His net.
-

Job Feels Forsaken by God

- 7 I cry out, ‘Violence!’ but get no response; I shout for help, but there’s no justice.
8 God has blocked my path so I can’t move forward. He’s covered my road in darkness.
9 He stripped away my honor and removed the crown from my head.
10 He tears me down from all sides until I’m gone. He uproots my hope like a tree.
11 His anger burns against me. He considers me His enemy.
12 His troops surround me; they build up ramps to attack and camp all around my home.
-

Job Is Rejected by Everyone

- 13 My relatives stay far from me; my friends have abandoned me.
14 My family is gone, and my closest companions have forgotten me.
15 My guests and servants treat me like a stranger; they see me as a foreigner.
16 I call my servant, but he doesn’t answer—though I beg him.
17 My breath is offensive to my wife; my own family finds me repulsive.
18 Even little children despise me; when I rise, they mock me.
19 All my close friends hate me; those I loved have turned against me.
20 I’m nothing but skin and bones—I barely escaped with my life.
-

A Plea for Compassion

21 Have mercy on me, have mercy, my friends, for God’s hand has struck me.

22 Why do you pursue me as God does? Haven’t you already done enough to me?

A Declaration of Hope in His Redeemer

23 Oh, how I wish my words were written down, recorded in a book—

24 Engraved forever in stone with an iron chisel and lead!

25 But I know that my Redeemer lives, and that in the end He will stand on the earth.

26 And after my skin has been destroyed, yet in my flesh I will see God.

27 I will see Him for myself—yes, I will see Him with my own eyes. I am overwhelmed with longing.

A Warning to His Accusers

28 If you say, ‘Why should we keep persecuting him, since the root of his trouble lies within him?’

29 Then be afraid of the sword yourselves. For wrath brings the punishment of the sword, so that you may know there is judgment.”

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 19

1. Words Can Deepen Wounds – Job’s friends did not comfort him; their harsh words crushed him further (vv. 2–3).
↳ Be slow to speak and quick to listen when someone is suffering (James 1:19).
2. Isolation Adds to Suffering – Job laments that everyone—from family to servants—has rejected him (vv. 13–20).
↳ Suffering often feels loneliest when those closest to us pull away. Compassion matters.
3. Hope Can Rise from Despair – In the middle of anguish, Job proclaims: “I know that my Redeemer lives” (v. 25).
↳ No matter the darkness, a living Redeemer gives us unshakable hope.
4. A Resurrection Is Coming – Job expresses confidence that even after death, he will see God with his own eyes (vv. 26–27).
↳ Job glimpses the promise of resurrection—a truth fulfilled in Christ (1 Corinthians 15:52–53).
5. God Will Judge All – Job warns his friends not to be quick to condemn, for God is a just Judge (v. 29).
↳ We are accountable not only for our actions but also our assumptions.

Job Chapter 20 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Fate of the Wicked”

Zophar Responds: A Quick Reply Fueled by Indignation

- 1 Then Zophar the Naamathite replied:
2 “My troubled thoughts force me to speak; I can’t stay silent.
3 I’ve heard your rebuke and insult, and my understanding urges me to answer.
-

The Short-Lived Triumph of the Wicked

- 4 Don’t you know this has always been true, since humanity was first placed on the earth—
5 That the triumph of the wicked is short, and the joy of the godless lasts only a moment?
6 Though he may rise as high as the heavens, and his head may touch the clouds,
7 He will perish forever like his own waste. Those who knew him will ask, ‘Where did he go?’
8 He’ll vanish like a dream, never found again—chased away like a fleeting night vision.
9 The eye that once saw him will see him no more; his home will know him no longer.
-

Poison Within and No Lasting Gain

- 10 His children will beg from the poor, and he’ll be forced to return the wealth he stole.
11 His bones are still filled with the sins of his youth; those sins lie down with him in the grave.
12 Though evil tasted sweet in his mouth—though he held it under his tongue, 13 Though he cherished it and refused to let it go—
14 That sweetness will turn sour inside him; it will become snake venom in his stomach.
15 He swallowed down riches, but God will make him vomit them out—He will drag them from his belly.
16 He will suck the poison of serpents; a viper’s tongue will kill him.
-

No Enjoyment of His Labor

- 17 He will never enjoy the rivers of prosperity, the streams of honey and cream.
18 He must give back what he gained through labor; he will not be allowed to enjoy it.
19 For he oppressed the poor and left them destitute; he seized houses he did not build.
20 Because he was never content, he will never have peace—he will not hold on to any of his gains.
21 Nothing is left for him to consume; so no one will treasure what he once owned.
22 Even when he has plenty, distress will come upon him—every hand will turn against him.
-

God's Wrath Will Overcome the Wicked

23 Just as he's about to fill his stomach, God will unleash His fury, raining it down upon him while he eats.

24 He may run from an iron weapon, but a bronze-tipped arrow will strike him through.

25 It will pierce him and come out of his back—the glittering point coming out of his insides. Terror grips him.

His Secret Sins Exposed

26 Complete darkness hides his treasures; an unkindled fire will consume him. Disaster awaits those left in his tent.

27 The heavens will expose his sin; the earth will rise up to testify against him.

28 The wealth of his household will be swept away in the day of God's anger.

29 This is the fate God assigns to the wicked—the inheritance appointed to him by the Almighty.”

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 20

1. Evil Enjoyment Is Temporary – Zophar insists the wicked may prosper briefly, but it won't last (vv. 5–9).
↳ Sin often promises sweetness, but it turns to poison in the end (Proverbs 5:3–5).
2. Riches Gained Through Oppression Will Be Lost – Ill-gotten wealth will be vomited out, returned, or destroyed (vv. 10–18).
↳ True wealth is not measured in possessions but in righteousness and generosity.
3. God's Judgment Is Unavoidable – Even at the height of comfort, God's wrath can strike suddenly (vv. 22–23).
↳ The judgment of God cannot be outrun or avoided—repentance is the only escape (Romans 2:5–6).
4. Sin Leaves a Lasting Legacy – The consequences of sin may follow a person to the grave and affect their descendants (vv. 11, 10, 27).
↳ Sin may be hidden from man, but it is never hidden from God (Hebrews 4:13).
5. God Sees What the World Cannot – Even if the world exalts someone temporarily, God sees through deceit and pride (vv. 6, 27).
↳ Man looks at the outward appearance, but God looks at the heart (1 Samuel 16:7).

Job Chapter 21 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Prosperity of the Wicked”

Job Rebukes His Friends for Their Empty Comfort

1 Then Job replied:

2 “Please listen carefully to what I’m saying; let this be your comfort to me.

3 Bear with me while I speak—then you can keep mocking if you must.

4 Is my complaint directed to humans? Why shouldn’t I be impatient?

5 Look at me and be shocked! Put your hand over your mouth in silence.

6 When I think about this, I tremble. My whole body shakes with fear.

The Wicked Seem to Prosper in This Life

7 Why do the wicked live long lives, growing old and powerful?

8 They see their children flourish around them, and their descendants thrive.

9 Their homes are peaceful and secure, and God’s rod of judgment does not strike them.

10 Their bulls mate without failure, and their cows calve without miscarriage.

11 They send their children out like joyful flocks, and their kids dance with laughter.

12 They sing to the tambourine and harp, and they rejoice to the sound of the flute.

13 They spend their lives in prosperity and die suddenly, without suffering.

14 Yet they say to God, ‘Leave us alone! We don’t want to know Your ways.’

15 ‘Who is the Almighty, that we should serve Him? What benefit do we get from praying to Him?’

16 But everything they have isn’t really under their control. The thinking of the wicked is far from me.

Job Questions the Timing of Judgment

17 How often is the lamp of the wicked snuffed out? How often does destruction suddenly come upon them? God deals out pain in His anger—

18 They are like straw blown by the wind, like chaff swept away by a storm.

19 Some say God stores up a wicked man’s punishment for his children. But let Him punish the man himself, so he knows what he’s done!

20 Let him see his own destruction and drink the wrath of the Almighty himself.

21 For what does he care about his family after he’s dead, when his life is over and done?

God Alone Judges All – Not Man

22 Can anyone teach knowledge to God—He who judges even the highest beings?

23 One person dies in full strength, completely peaceful and secure—

24 His body well-fed and his bones full of marrow.

25 Another dies in bitterness, never enjoying anything good.

26 But both are buried in the dust, and worms cover them just the same.

Job Challenges Their Assumptions About the Wicked

27 “Look, I know what you’re thinking. You’re plotting how to condemn me.

28 You say, ‘Where is the house of the great man now? Where is the tent of the wicked?’

29 Haven’t you asked travelers who’ve seen the world? Don’t you recognize their stories—

30 That the wicked are often spared in times of disaster, held back for the day of judgment?

31 Who dares confront them about their actions? Who pays them back for their wrongs?

32 Yet they are carried to the grave with honor; their tombs remain undisturbed.

33 The soil of the valley feels soft upon them, and many follow them to their resting place, as countless others have before.

34 So how can your words comfort me? Your answers are nothing but lies.”

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 21

1. The Wicked Often Prosper in This Life – Job rejects the idea that wickedness always leads to quick judgment (vv. 7–13).
↳ Prosperity in life is not always a sign of divine favor or righteousness (Psalm 73:3–5).
2. God’s Judgment Is Not Always Immediate – Wicked people may appear secure for a time, but that does not mean God is unaware (vv. 17–21).
↳ God may delay judgment for His own purposes (Ecclesiastes 8:11).
3. No One Can Instruct God in Justice – Job reminds his friends that God alone sees the full picture and judges rightly (v. 22).
↳ “Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?” (Genesis 18:25)
4. Death Comes to All, Regardless of Circumstance – Both the joyful and the bitter end up in the same grave (vv. 23–26).
↳ The common fate of death reminds us that life’s value isn’t in wealth but in how we live before God (Hebrews 9:27).
5. False Comforts Do More Harm Than Good – Job exposes the hypocrisy and emptiness in his friends’ answers (vv. 27–34).
↳ True comfort listens, loves, and speaks truth in compassion (2 Corinthians 1:3–4).

Job Chapter 22 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Eliphaz’s Final Accusation and Call to Repentance”

Eliphaz Accuses Job of Hidden Sin

1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite replied:

2 “Can a person be of any real benefit to God? Even a wise person is only helpful to himself.

3 Does the Almighty gain anything if you are righteous? Does it profit Him if your conduct is blameless?

4 Is God correcting you because He fears you? Is He taking you to court over nothing?

5 Isn't your wickedness great? Aren't your sins without limit?

6 You've taken security from your own relatives for nothing. You stripped people of their clothing, leaving them naked.

7 You refused water to the thirsty and withheld food from the hungry.

8 Though you had power and influence, you misused it to your own advantage.

9 You sent widows away empty-handed and crushed the arms of orphans.

10 That's why you're surrounded by traps, and sudden fear overwhelms you.

11 That's why darkness blinds you, and a flood of troubles covers you.

Eliphaz Misrepresents God's Justice

12 Isn't God high in the heavens? Look how high the stars are above you!

13 But you say, 'What does God know? Can He judge through such thick clouds?'

14 Thick clouds hide Him from view, and He walks the circle of the sky without seeing what happens below.

He Warns Job Not to Follow the Path of the Wicked

15 Will you continue walking the old path that evil men have taken?

16 They were swept away before their time. Their foundations were washed away by a flood.

17 They said to God, 'Leave us alone!' and, 'What can the Almighty do to us?'

18 Yet it was God who had filled their homes with good things. But I want nothing to do with the plans of the wicked.

19 The righteous see their fall and rejoice; the innocent mock them, saying,

20 'See, our enemies are destroyed, and fire has consumed what they left behind.'

Eliphaz's Call to Repent and Be Restored

21 "Submit to God, and you will have peace. Then good things will come to you.

22 Listen to His instruction and store His words in your heart.

23 If you return to the Almighty, you'll be restored. Remove all wickedness from your house.

24 Give up your lust for gold and treat it like dust—like stones from the brook.

25 Then the Almighty will be your treasure, your precious silver.

26 You will take delight in the Almighty and will lift up your face to God.

27 You will pray to Him, and He will hear you. You will fulfill your promises to Him.

28 You will make decisions, and they will succeed. Light will shine on your path.

29 When people are brought low and humbled, you will say, 'There is lifting up!' and God will save the humble.

30 Even the guilty will be rescued; they will be delivered because your hands are clean.”

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 22

1. Man’s Righteousness Doesn’t Benefit God but Honors Him – Eliphaz wrongly suggests that being righteous gains nothing with God (vv. 2–3).
↳ But Scripture shows that God delights in those who walk uprightly (Psalm 147:11).
2. False Accusations Can Wound Deeply – Eliphaz invents sins Job never committed, attacking his character without evidence (vv. 5–9).
↳ We must be cautious not to judge others’ hearts without clear cause (Matthew 7:1–2).
3. The Wicked May Prosper Briefly, but Not Forever – Eliphaz reminds Job of past judgments on the ungodly, referencing the flood (vv. 15–20).
↳ But unlike Eliphaz’s claim, not all suffering comes from sin (John 9:1–3).
4. There’s Always Hope in Turning Back to God – Eliphaz’s call to repentance is harsh in tone but contains a universal truth: God welcomes the penitent (vv. 21–30).
↳ “Return to Me, and I will return to you,” says the Lord (Malachi 3:7).
5. God Hears the Humble and Rescues the Broken – Eliphaz’s closing remarks unintentionally point to the beauty of grace for the repentant (vv. 26–30).
↳ “He saves the humble, but brings low those whose eyes are haughty” (Psalm 18:27).

Job Chapter 23 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Longing for God’s Presence and Justice”

Job Expresses His Deep Desire to Meet with God

1 Then Job replied:

2 “Even today my complaint is bitter. My suffering is more than I can express with groaning.

3 Oh, how I wish I knew where to find Him—so I could go directly to His throne!

4 I would lay out my case before Him and present my arguments in full.

5 I would listen to what He would say to me and try to understand His response.

6 Would He use His great power to crush me? No. He would give me a fair hearing.

7 There an upright person could present his case to Him, and I would be forever acquitted by my Judge.

Job Feels God Is Hidden but Trusts His Purposes

8 “I go forward, but He isn’t there. I go backward, but I can’t find Him.

9 I search on the left hand, where He is at work, but I do not see Him. I turn to the right, but I cannot perceive Him.

10 But He knows the way I take; and when He tests me, I will come out as pure as gold.

11 I have stayed on His path; I’ve followed His steps and not turned aside.

12 I have not disobeyed His commands; I treasure His words more than my daily bread.

God’s Sovereignty Both Comforts and Frightens Job

13 “But once He has made up His mind, who can turn Him back? Whatever He desires, He does.

14 So He will carry out His plan for me—and many such plans He has in store.

15 That’s why I’m terrified in His presence; when I think about it, I am filled with fear.

16 God has made my heart weak; the Almighty has left me shaken.

17 Yet He didn’t allow me to die before this darkness came. He didn’t hide this suffering from me.”

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 23

1. God Welcomes Honest Conversation – Job longs to plead his case before God, not with arrogance, but with a desire to be understood (vv. 3–5).
↳ We can boldly approach God’s throne with our questions (Hebrews 4:16).
2. God Doesn’t Crush the Righteous – Job is convinced that if he could stand before God, he wouldn’t be condemned but strengthened (v. 6).
↳ “A bruised reed He will not break” (Isaiah 42:3).
3. God Often Feels Hidden in the Darkness – Job searches for God but cannot find Him, even though he knows God is working (vv. 8–9).
↳ God’s silence is not absence—He is always near, even when unseen (Psalm 139:7–10).
4. Faith Clings to God’s Goodness Amid Trials – Job holds onto integrity and obedience, confident that his suffering will purify him like gold (v. 10).
↳ Trials refine our faith, producing perseverance (James 1:2–4).
5. God’s Sovereignty Is Both a Mystery and a Comfort – Job is afraid of God’s unstoppable will, yet finds rest in knowing God is still in control (vv. 13–14).
↳ “Our God is in the heavens; He does whatever pleases Him” (Psalm 115:3).
6. Darkness Doesn’t Always Mean Judgment – Job realizes he was not cut off before the darkness came—God allowed it, not to destroy him, but to shape him (v. 17).
↳ “Even the darkness is not dark to You” (Psalm 139:12).

Job Chapter 24 – Crawford Standard Bible

“When the Wicked Seem to Prosper”

Why Doesn't God Judge the Wicked Immediately?

1 Why doesn't the Almighty set times for justice? Why do those who know Him never see His days of judgment?

The Oppression of the Poor and Helpless

2 Some people move boundary markers and steal flocks to feed themselves.

3 They take the donkey of an orphan and seize a widow's ox as collateral.

4 They push the needy off the road, and the poor of the land hide together in fear.

5 The poor are like wild donkeys in the desert—they scavenge for food for themselves and their children in the wilderness.

6 They harvest grain in fields that aren't theirs and glean in the vineyards of the wicked.

7 They spend the night naked, without clothing, exposed to the cold.

8 They are soaked by mountain rains and cling to rocks for shelter.

The Exploitation of the Vulnerable

9 Some snatch orphans from their mother's arms and take the poor as collateral.

10 They leave the poor naked and hungry, even taking the last sheaf of grain from them.

11 The oppressed crush olives in the groves and tread grapes in the winepresses—yet go thirsty.

12 From the city, people groan; the wounded cry out for help, yet God does not seem to bring judgment.

The Willful Darkness of the Wicked

13 These people rebel against the light. They don't recognize its ways or stay on its paths.

14 The murderer rises early to kill the poor and needy, and at night, he becomes a thief.

15 The adulterer waits for twilight, thinking, “No one will see me,” and covers his face.

16 In the dark, they break into houses they marked earlier in the day. They want nothing to do with the light.

17 Morning is like deep darkness to them—they are deeply afraid of being exposed.

The Short-Lived Rise and Certain Fall of the Wicked

18 The wicked are as fleeting as water. Their portion is cursed in the land; they avoid the paths of the vineyards.

19 Just as drought and heat consume melted snow, the grave consumes those who sin.

20 The womb forgets them, the worms feast on them, they are no longer remembered. Wickedness breaks like a rotten tree.

21 The wicked mistreat barren women and show no kindness to widows.

22 But God uses His power to remove the mighty; when He rises up, no one feels safe.

23 God may allow them to feel secure for a moment, but He watches everything they do.

24 They are exalted briefly, then gone—brought low, like crops cut down and gathered.

25 And if this is not true, then who can prove me wrong or make my words worthless?"

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 24

1. Injustice May Seem Unpunished Now—but Not Forever

Job laments that the wicked seem to thrive without judgment (v. 1), but he also shows that God's justice often comes in ways and timing beyond our understanding.

↳ "The Lord is slow to anger but great in power" (Nahum 1:3).

2. God Sees Every Oppressive Act

From theft to mistreatment of orphans and widows, Job names injustice with painful precision (vv. 2–12).

↳ "He defends the cause of the fatherless and the widow" (Deuteronomy 10:18).

3. The Wicked Love Darkness Over Light

Job describes criminals who hate the light and do evil in secret, echoing the truth that sin thrives in darkness (vv. 13–17).

↳ "Everyone who does evil hates the light" (John 3:20).

4. The End of the Wicked Is Certain, Though Delayed

Though the wicked rise for a season, their fall is assured (vv. 18–24).

↳ "Do not fret because of evildoers... they will soon fade like the grass" (Psalm 37:1–2).

5. Faithfulness Doesn't Always Mean Immediate Reward

Job points out the injustice that faithful people suffer while wicked people prosper. He challenges a shallow view of divine reward and punishment.

↳ "We walk by faith, not by sight" (2 Corinthians 5:7).

Job Chapter 25 – Crawford Standard Bible

"God's Greatness and Man's Smallness"

God Is Supreme, and Man Is Unclean

1 Then Bildad the Shuhite responded:

2 "Dominion and awe belong to God; He establishes peace in the heights of heaven.

3 Can anyone count His armies? On whom does His light not shine?

4 So how can a mortal be righteous before God? How can anyone born of a woman be pure?

5 Look—even the moon is not bright, and the stars are not pure in His sight.

6 How much less is man, who is a mere worm—just a bug of a creature, the son of man, a crawling worm?"

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 25

1. God Rules Over All with Majesty and Peace

Bildad acknowledges that God holds all dominion and brings peace in the highest realms (v. 2).

↳ "The Lord has established His throne in heaven, and His kingdom rules over all" (Psalm 103:19).

2. God's Power and Light Are Limitless

Bildad asks rhetorically if God's armies can be numbered, and reminds us that His light reaches everywhere (v. 3).

↳ "He counts the number of the stars and calls them all by name" (Psalm 147:4).

3. No One Can Claim Righteousness Before a Holy God

He rightly states that no human can make themselves pure or justified before God apart from divine grace (v. 4).

↳ "All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God" (Romans 3:23).

4. Even the Heavens Are Imperfect Before God's Perfection

Bildad poetically says that even the moon and stars fall short of God's holiness (v. 5).

↳ "God is light; in Him there is no darkness at all" (1 John 1:5).

5. Man Is Frail and Fallen Without God

Though Bildad's tone is harsh, his point is theologically true: humanity is weak and sinful in itself (v. 6).

↳ "What is man that You are mindful of him?" (Psalm 8:4).

Job Chapter 26 – Crawford Standard Bible

"The Majesty and Mystery of God"

Job Responds with Irony and Awe

1 Then Job answered:

2 “What help have you really given to the powerless? What strength have you offered to the weak?

3 What advice have you given to those without wisdom? What great insight have you provided?

4 Who exactly are you speaking to? Whose spirit is coming out of you?”

God’s Dominion Reaches the Depths and Heights

5 “The dead tremble beneath the waters and all that live in them.

6 The grave is exposed before God; destruction lies uncovered in His sight.

7 He stretches the northern sky over empty space and suspends the earth upon nothing.

8 He wraps the waters in His thick clouds, yet the clouds don’t burst under the weight.

9 He conceals His throne with clouds and spreads a covering over it.

10 He marks out the horizon on the surface of the waters, where day and night meet.

11 The pillars of heaven tremble and are shocked at His rebuke.

12 With His power, He calms the sea; by His wisdom, He crushes the proud.

13 By His breath, the skies are made beautiful; His hand created the twisting serpent.

14 Look—these are only the edges of His works, just a whisper of what He has done! Who can understand the thunder of His mighty power?”

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 26

1. Human Counsel Falls Short Without Real Help

Job sarcastically critiques his friends for offering words without real aid to the suffering (vv. 2–4).

↳ “If I speak, my pain is not relieved; and if I refrain, it does not go away” (Job 16:6).

2. God Rules Over the Realms of Death and the Deep

Job acknowledges that even Sheol (the grave) and Abaddon (destruction) are fully visible to God (v. 6).

↳ “All things are naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account” (Hebrews 4:13).

3. God Created and Sustains the Cosmos with Precision

Job marvels that God “hangs the earth upon nothing” and controls clouds, seas, and the stars

(vv. 7–10).

↳ “The heavens declare the glory of God” (Psalm 19:1).

4. Even Nature Trembles at God's Voice

The heavens themselves shake at His correction, and the sea is stilled by His hand (vv. 11–12).

↳ “Who is this? Even the wind and sea obey Him!” (Mark 4:41).

5. We Only See a Glimpse of God's Power

Job ends by saying what we see is just the outer edges of God's ways—a mere whisper compared to His thunder (v. 14).

↳ “Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised; His greatness is unsearchable” (Psalm 145:3).

Job Chapter 27 – Crawford Standard Bible

“I Will Not Let Go of My Integrity”

Job Declares His Commitment to Integrity

1 Job continued speaking and said:

2 “As surely as God lives—the One who has denied me justice, the Almighty who has made my soul bitter—

3 As long as I have breath in me, the breath of God in my nostrils,

4 My lips will not speak lies; my tongue will not utter deceit.

5 I will never agree that you are right; until the day I die, I will hold on to my integrity.

6 I will hold tightly to my righteousness and not let go. My conscience will not accuse me for as long as I live.

What Hope Does the Wicked Have?

7 Let my enemy be like the wicked, and the one who rises up against me like the unrighteous.

8 For what hope does a godless person have when God takes away his life?

9 Will God listen to his cry when trouble comes upon him?

10 Will he take delight in the Almighty? Will he always call upon God?

God Deals Justly with the Wicked

11 I will teach you about God's power. I will not hide what the Almighty does.

12 You yourselves have seen all this—so why do you keep speaking such nonsense?

13 This is the fate God gives to the wicked—this is what oppressors receive from the Almighty:

14 Even if they have many children, they will die by the sword, and their descendants will never have enough to eat.

15 Those who survive will die of disease, and even their widows will not mourn them.

16 They may pile up silver like dust and stockpile clothes like clay, 17 But the righteous will wear those clothes, and the innocent will divide up their silver.

18 The house he builds is as fragile as a moth's cocoon or a flimsy shelter made by a watchman.

19 The rich man lies down and thinks he's safe, but he will not be gathered in peace. He opens his eyes—and everything is gone.

20 Terrors flood over him like a storm; a whirlwind sweeps him away in the night.

21 The east wind lifts him up and carries him away—he's gone, blown from his place like dust.

22 God hurls his judgment at him and does not spare him. He tries to run from God's hand, but there's no escape.

23 People clap their hands at him in scorn and hiss him out of his place.”

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 27

1. Integrity Is Worth Holding Onto, Even in Suffering

Job refuses to lie to please others or to pretend guilt he doesn't bear. He values a clean conscience more than relief (vv. 5–6).

↳ “Better is the poor who walks in his integrity than one perverse in his ways, though he be rich” (Proverbs 28:6).

2. Wickedness Has No Lasting Hope

Job highlights the futility of living without God, especially when calamity comes (vv. 8–10).

↳ “What will it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul?” (Mark 8:36).

3. We May Not See Judgment Immediately, But It Comes

Job teaches that the wicked may prosper for a while, but eventually judgment overtakes them (vv. 13–23).

↳ “The triumphing of the wicked is short” (Job 20:5).

4. Earthly Wealth Is Temporary, But Righteousness Endures

The silver and fine clothes of the wicked will ultimately benefit the innocent (vv. 16–17).

↳ “The wealth of the sinner is stored up for the righteous” (Proverbs 13:22).

Job Chapter 28 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Hidden Treasure of Wisdom”

Man Mines the Earth, But Cannot Mine Wisdom

- 1 There is a mine where silver is found, and a place where gold is refined.
 - 2 Iron is extracted from the earth, and copper is smelted from ore.
 - 3 People explore the deepest darkness; they search out the farthest recesses for ore, even in the shadow of death.
 - 4 Far from human habitation, they dig deep shafts; they descend where no one walks. They are suspended and swing far away from people.
 - 5 Food grows from the earth, yet beneath it lies fire.
 - 6 Its rocks contain sapphires, and its dust holds gold.
 - 7 The path to these treasures is unknown to birds; even the vulture’s sharp eyes have never seen it.
 - 8 Fierce beasts have never walked that path; no lion has ever passed over it.
 - 9 People strike the flint and overturn mountains at the base.
 - 10 They carve out tunnels through the rock, and their eyes spot every precious gem.
 - 11 They dam up underground streams and bring hidden things to light.
-

Wisdom Cannot Be Found by Human Effort

- 12 But where can wisdom be found? Where is the place of understanding?
 - 13 No human being knows its true worth; it cannot be found in the land of the living.
 - 14 The ocean says, “It’s not in me,” and the sea says, “It’s not with me.”
 - 15 It cannot be bought with gold, nor weighed out with silver.
 - 16 It cannot be priced with the gold of Ophir, or with onyx or sapphire.
 - 17 Gold and crystal cannot compare with it; and fine jewels cannot trade for it.
 - 18 Coral and pearls aren’t worth mentioning—the value of wisdom is far above rubies.
 - 19 The topaz of Ethiopia doesn’t equal it; it cannot be measured against pure gold.
-

Only God Knows Where Wisdom Dwells

- 20 So where does wisdom come from? And where is the place of understanding?
- 21 It is hidden from all the living and concealed even from the birds of the air.
- 22 Destruction and Death say, “We’ve only heard a rumor of it.”
- 23 But God understands the way to it; He knows where it lives.
- 24 He looks to the ends of the earth and sees everything under the heavens.
- 25 When He established the force of the wind and measured the waters,
- 26 When He set the limits for the rain and the path for the thunderstorm,
- 27 Then He saw wisdom and evaluated it. He confirmed it and tested it.

28 And He said to mankind, “Behold, the fear of the Lord—that is wisdom; and to turn away from evil—that is understanding.”

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 28

1. Human Skill Can Unearth Riches, But Not Wisdom

Humanity has mastered mining the earth for treasure, but wisdom lies beyond reach by tools or labor (vv. 1–11).

↳ “Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth” (2 Timothy 3:7).

2. Wisdom’s Value Is Beyond All Earthly Wealth

Gold, silver, gems, and jewels cannot purchase wisdom. It is more precious than anything material (vv. 12–19).

↳ “She is more precious than rubies; nothing you desire can compare with her” (Proverbs 3:15).

3. True Wisdom Belongs Only to God

Wisdom is not found in nature, death, or human understanding—it is known only by God (vv. 20–27).

↳ “Oh, the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God!” (Romans 11:33).

4. The Fear of the Lord Is the Beginning of Wisdom

God has declared that wisdom begins with reverence for Him, and true understanding is seen in turning away from evil (v. 28).

↳ “The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and knowledge of the Holy One is understanding” (Proverbs 9:10).

Job Chapter 29 – Crawford Standard Bible

“When Life Was Good”

Job Longs for His Former Days of Favor

1 Job continued speaking his parable and said:

2 “Oh, how I long for the months gone by, for the days when God watched over me—

3 When His lamp shone upon my head and by His light I walked through the darkness.

4 In those days of my prime, when God’s friendship was in my home,

5 When the Almighty was still with me, and my children surrounded me.

6 My steps were bathed in cream, and rocks poured out rivers of oil for me.

Job Was Once Respected and Honored by All

- 7 When I went to the city gate and took my seat among the elders,
8 The young men saw me and stepped aside, and the old men rose and stood in respect.
9 The princes stopped speaking and covered their mouths with their hands.
10 The nobles fell silent; their tongues stuck to the roof of their mouths.
11 Everyone who heard me praised me; everyone who saw me spoke well of me—
12 Because I rescued the poor who cried for help, and the orphan who had no one to defend him.
13 The one who was dying blessed me, and I brought joy to the heart of the widow.
-

Job Lived with Righteousness and Compassion

- 14 I put on righteousness, and it clothed me; my justice was like a robe and a crown.
15 I was eyes to the blind and feet to the lame.
16 I was a father to the needy and carefully investigated cases I didn't know.
17 I shattered the fangs of the wicked and snatched the victims from their teeth.
-

Job Expected a Peaceful, Long Life

- 18 I thought, 'I will die in my own home, and my days will be as numerous as the grains of sand.
19 My roots will spread out to the waters, and the dew will stay on my branches all night.
20 My glory will remain fresh, and my strength will be renewed like a warrior's bow.'
-

Job Was Once a Wise Leader and Counselor

- 21 People listened to me and waited in silence for my advice.
22 After I spoke, they had nothing to add—my words fell gently on their ears.
23 They waited for me like they waited for the rain; they opened their mouths wide as if for the spring shower.
24 When I smiled at them, they could hardly believe it; my approval brightened their spirits.
25 I chose the way they should go and sat as their leader; I lived like a king among his troops, like one who comforts the mourning.
-

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 29

1. Job Reflects on the Blessings of His Past

Job yearns for the days when God's presence was close, his family was whole, and his life was prosperous and peaceful (vv. 2–6).

↳ "You have granted me life and favor, and Your care has preserved my spirit" (Job 10:12).

2. True Leadership Is Rooted in Righteousness and Service

Job remembers how he was respected because he upheld justice, helped the needy, and defended the weak (vv. 7–17).

↳ “Learn to do good; seek justice, rebuke the oppressor; defend the fatherless, plead for the widow” (Isaiah 1:17).

3. Even the Righteous Can Experience Great Loss

Job once believed his life would end in peace, but his current suffering reminds us that no earthly condition is guaranteed (vv. 18–20).

↳ “Man who is born of woman is of few days and full of trouble” (Job 14:1).

4. Wisdom and Compassion Earn Lasting Respect

Job’s wisdom was valued and his presence brought comfort. A life lived for others leaves a legacy that hardship cannot erase (vv. 21–25).

↳ “Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven” (Matthew 5:16).

Job Chapter 30 – Crawford Standard Bible

“From Honor to Humiliation”

Mocked by the Lowest in Society

1 But now, those younger than me laugh at me—men whose fathers I would not have even put with the dogs of my flock.

2 Of what use was the strength of their hands to me? Their vigor had long since left them.

3 Gaunt with hunger and poverty, they roamed the wastelands in desolation and ruin.

4 They plucked wild herbs among the bushes, and ate the roots of broom trees for food.

5 They were driven out from society, people shouted after them like after a thief.

6 They had to live in dried-up stream beds, in holes in the ground and in rocky caves.

7 They cried out among the bushes and huddled together under weeds and thorns.

8 They were children of fools, sons of worthless men, driven from the land.

9 And now they make songs about me; I have become the object of their mocking.

The Pain of Rejection and Humiliation

10 They detest me and keep their distance. They don’t hesitate to spit in my face.

11 Because God has loosened my strength and humbled me, they feel free to abuse me without restraint.

12 On my right side a mob rises up; they push my feet aside and prepare ways to ruin me.

13 They destroy my path and make my suffering worse; they have no one stopping them.

14 They rush in like a flood breaking through a wall; they roll over me amid my calamity.

15 Terrors overwhelm me; my dignity is blown away like the wind, and my hope disappears like a cloud.

Suffering in Body and Spirit

16 Now my life drains away inside me, and days of misery grip me.

17 At night my bones ache unceasingly; the pain gnaws at me and never lets up.

18 Because of God's overwhelming power, my clothing is disfigured; it binds me like the collar of my tunic.

19 He has thrown me into the mud, and I have become like dust and ashes.

A Cry to God That Goes Unanswered

20 I cry out to You, O God, but You do not answer; I stand before You, but You only look at me.

21 You have turned cruel toward me; with Your strong hand You attack me.

22 You lift me up on the wind and make me ride it; You toss me about in the storm.

23 I know You will bring me down to death, to the place appointed for all the living.

Job's Despair Deepens

24 Surely no one reaches out to the grave when it destroys—yet even there, people cry for help.

25 Didn't I weep for those in trouble? Wasn't my soul grieved for the poor?

26 But when I hoped for good, evil came; when I waited for light, darkness came instead.

27 My heart boils within me and will not rest; days of suffering confront me.

28 I walk around mourning, not in the sunlight; I stand up in public and cry out for help.

29 I have become a brother to jackals and a companion to owls.

30 My skin has turned black and peels off; my body burns with fever.

31 My harp is now tuned to mourning, and my flute plays the sound of weeping.

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 30

1. From Honor to Humiliation

Job, once respected by all, is now mocked by outcasts and the lowest in society. His reversal shows how quickly status can change in this world.

↳ "He raises the poor from the dust and lifts the needy from the ash heap" (Psalm 113:7).

2. Grief Can Strip Us of Dignity and Hope

Job's physical agony and public disgrace highlight the depths of human suffering—pain that touches both body and soul.

↳ "My soul is in deep anguish. How long, Lord, how long?" (Psalm 6:3).

3. God Sometimes Seems Silent—But He Is Not Absent

Though Job cries out to God without receiving an answer, he continues to direct his pain toward the Lord, showing faith even in despair.

↳ “Though He slay me, yet will I trust Him” (Job 13:15).

4. Compassion Remembered in Suffering

Job reminds God and his accusers that he once helped the poor and grieved with the hurting. His past compassion speaks to his character amid present pain.

↳ “Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy” (Matthew 5:7).

Job Chapter 31 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Job’s Final Defense”

Covenant with Purity and Integrity

1 I made a covenant with my eyes not to look lustfully at a young woman.

2 For what is God’s portion from above, or the Almighty’s inheritance from on high?

3 Isn’t it disaster for the wicked and misfortune for those who do evil?

4 Doesn’t God see all my ways and count every step I take?

5 If I have walked in falsehood or my foot has rushed toward deceit,

6 Then let God weigh me in an honest scale, and He will know I am blameless.

7 If I have turned from the right path, or if my heart has been led by my eyes, or if my hands are stained with sin,

8 Then let someone else eat what I have planted, and let my crops be uprooted.

Faithfulness in Marriage

9 If my heart has been seduced by another woman, or if I have waited at my neighbor’s door,

10 Then let my wife belong to another man, and let others sleep with her.

11 For that would be a shameful sin, a crime worthy of judgment.

12 It would be a fire that burns all the way to destruction, a sin that would destroy all I have.

Justice for Servants and the Poor

13 If I have mistreated my male or female servants when they had a complaint against me, 14 What will I do when God confronts me? What will I say when He examines me?

15 Didn’t the same God who made me also make them? Didn’t we come from the same womb?

Compassion for the Needy

16 If I have denied the poor what they needed, or made the widow's eyes grow dim with waiting,
17 If I have eaten my food alone without sharing it with the orphan—
18 (For from my youth I raised the orphan as a father, and I guided the widow as I would my own mother)—
19 If I have seen anyone dying for lack of clothing or a poor person without anything to cover them, 20 And if they didn't bless me for warming them with the fleece from my sheep—
21 If I have raised my hand against the fatherless, knowing I had influence in court, 22 Then let my arm fall from the shoulder, and let it be broken off at the joint.

No Trust in Wealth or Nature

23 For I have always feared God's judgment; I could not act this way because of His majesty.
24 If I have put my trust in gold or said to pure gold, "You are my security,"
25 If I took pride in my great wealth, or in all that my hands had gained,
26 If I looked at the sun shining in its splendor or the moon moving in brightness, 27 And if my heart was secretly enticed and my hand gave them a reverent kiss,
28 Then that too would be a sin to be judged, because I would have denied the God of heaven.

No Rejoicing in Others' Misfortunes

29 If I rejoiced at the ruin of my enemy or was glad when trouble came upon him—
30 (I have not let my mouth sin by cursing him)—
31 If the people of my household did not say, "Who has not been filled with his food?"
32 If I ever let the traveler sleep in the street or refused to open my door to a stranger—

Honest about Sin, Not Hiding It

33 If I have concealed my sins as people do, hiding my guilt in my heart, 34 Because I feared public shame or contempt from others so I kept silent and stayed indoors—

Final Appeal to God for Justice

35 Oh, that someone would listen to me! Here is my signature—let the Almighty answer me! Let my accuser write out his charges.
36 I would wear it proudly on my shoulder; I would bind it around me like a crown.
37 I would give an account of every step I've taken; I would approach God like a prince.

Final Oath Concerning His Land

38 If my land cries out against me, and all its furrows weep together,

39 If I have eaten its produce without payment or caused its tenants to lose their lives,

40 Then let thorns grow instead of wheat, and weeds instead of barley.

The words of Job are ended.

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 31

1. Integrity Requires Accountability

Job lays his life bare before God, willing to be judged on his character, not just his suffering.

↳ “Let me be weighed in an even balance, that God may know mine integrity” (v. 6).

2. Purity Begins with the Eyes and the Heart

Job made a covenant with his eyes and fought to avoid lust, deceit, or secret sin.

↳ “I made a covenant with my eyes” (v. 1).

3. We Are All Made by One Creator

Job treated his servants with dignity, acknowledging they were created by the same God who made him.

↳ “Did not He that made me in the womb make him?” (v. 15).

4. Righteousness Cares for the Vulnerable

Job's defense includes how he cared for orphans, widows, the poor, and strangers.

↳ “I was a father to the poor” (Job 29:16).

5. Trust Must Be in God, Not Gold or Nature

Job avoided idolatry of wealth or celestial bodies, knowing that worship belongs only to God.

↳ “If I have made gold my hope... this also were an iniquity” (vv. 24–28).

6. True Righteousness Doesn't Celebrate Another's Fall

Job refused to rejoice over the destruction of his enemies.

↳ “Neither have I suffered my mouth to sin by wishing a curse to his soul” (v. 30).

7. The Righteous Can Stand Before God Boldly

Job longed to give an account directly to God, believing in the justice of his Creator.

↳ “I would declare unto Him the number of my steps” (v. 37).

Job Chapter 32 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Young Voice: Elihu Enters the Debate”

The Friends Fall Silent

- 1 So Job's three friends stopped answering him because he was convinced of his own righteousness.
2 Then Elihu, the son of Barachel the Buzite from the family of Ram, became very angry. He was angry at Job for justifying himself rather than God,
3 And he was angry at Job's three friends because they couldn't refute Job, yet still condemned him.
4 Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job because the others were older than he.
5 But when Elihu saw that the three men had no reply, he burned with anger.
-

Elihu Begins to Speak

- 6 So Elihu, the son of Barachel the Buzite, spoke up and said:
"I am young, and you are old, so I was afraid to share my opinion with you.
7 I thought, 'Age should speak; a long life should teach wisdom.'
8 But there is a spirit within people, and the breath of the Almighty gives them understanding.
9 It's not just the old who are wise, nor only the aged who understand what is right.
-

Why Elihu Must Speak

- 10 So I say, 'Listen to me! I too will share my opinion.'
11 I've waited for your words; I listened carefully to your reasoning as you searched for something to say.
12 I paid close attention, but none of you proved Job wrong; none of you answered his arguments.
13 So don't claim, 'We've found the answer—only God can deal with him, not man.'
14 Job hasn't spoken against me personally, so I won't answer him with your same arguments.
-

Elihu Can No Longer Stay Silent

- 15 These men are stunned; they have no more to say.
16 I waited, but they stood silent and didn't respond anymore.
17 So I will speak up. I too will share my thoughts.
18 For I am full of words, and the spirit within me urges me to speak.
19 I am like wine bottled up with no vent—like new wineskins ready to burst.
20 I must speak to find relief; I will open my lips and respond.
21 I will show no partiality, and I won't flatter anyone.
22 I don't know how to flatter—if I did, my Maker would quickly remove me.
-

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 32

1. Youth Can Have Wisdom When Inspired by God

Elihu reminds us that true wisdom is not limited to age—it comes from the Spirit of God.

↳ “There is a spirit in man: and the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding” (v. 8).

2. Righteous Anger Can Be Motivated by a Desire for Truth

Elihu is stirred, not out of pride, but out of frustration at Job's self-righteousness and the failure of the elders to speak rightly.

↳ “His wrath was kindled, because he justified himself rather than God” (v. 2).

3. God's Justice Requires Honesty, Not Flattery

Elihu commits to speak the truth without favoritism or flattering words.

↳ “Let me not give flattering titles... my Maker would soon take me away” (vv. 21–22).

4. Silence Can Be a Sign of Defeat or Respect

When Job's friends fell silent, it was not because they won the debate—but because they had no response. Elihu's voice represents the search for deeper understanding.

↳ “There was none of you that convinced Job” (v. 12).

Job Chapter 33 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Elihu: God Speaks in Many Ways”

An Invitation to Listen

- 1 “So please, Job, listen to what I have to say. Pay attention to all my words.
 - 2 I'm about to speak; my tongue is ready to say what's on my mind.
 - 3 My words come from an honest heart, and my lips will speak clearly and truthfully.
 - 4 The Spirit of God made me, and the breath of the Almighty gave me life.
 - 5 If you can answer me, go ahead—present your case and stand your ground.
 - 6 Look, I'm just like you before God; I, too, was made from clay.
 - 7 So don't be afraid of me. I won't use my power to pressure you.”
-

Elihu Quotes Job's Words

- 8 “Surely you've said in my hearing—I heard every word—
- 9 ‘I'm pure, without sin; I am innocent and have no guilt.
- 10 Yet God finds fault with me; He considers me His enemy.
- 11 He puts my feet in shackles and watches every step I take.’
- 12 But I must say, Job, you're wrong in this. God is greater than any human being.
- 13 Why do you argue with Him? He doesn't owe anyone an explanation for what He does.”

God Speaks, But We Often Miss It

- 14 “God speaks again and again, though people don’t always recognize it.
15 He speaks in dreams and visions of the night, when people fall into deep sleep.
16 That’s when He opens their ears and gives them warnings, 17 To turn them away from pride and steer them from their destructive path.
18 He keeps them from going down to the grave; He saves them from death by the sword.”
-

Suffering as a Teacher

- 19 “Sometimes God uses pain to speak—severe suffering while lying on a sickbed, 20 So intense that a person loses all appetite, even for favorite foods.
21 Their body wastes away to nothing; bones that were hidden now stick out.
22 Their soul nears the grave, and their life approaches death.”
-

A Messenger and a Ransom

- 23 “But if there is a messenger—one in a thousand—an interpreter to explain what is right, 24 Then God is gracious and says, ‘Spare him from going down to the grave—I’ve found a ransom.’
25 His body will be renewed like a child’s, restored to youthful strength.
26 He will pray to God, and God will accept him; he will see God’s face with joy, and God will restore his righteousness.
27 He will declare, ‘I sinned and twisted what was right, but it was not worth it!’
28 And God will rescue him from the grave so that he may enjoy the light of life.”
-

God’s Graceful Warnings

- 29 “Look, God does all these things—again and again—for people,
30 To rescue them from death and bring them into the light of the living.
31 Pay attention, Job. Listen to me. Be quiet while I speak.
32 If you have something to say, speak up—I’d love to see you proven right.
33 But if not, then listen to me in silence, and I’ll teach you wisdom.”
-

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 33

1. God Speaks in Many Ways—Are You Listening?

Elihu reminds us that God communicates through dreams, visions, pain, and messengers. We must learn to listen in every season.

↳ “God speaks again and again, though people don’t recognize it” (v. 14).

2. Suffering May Be a Warning, Not Just Punishment

Sometimes God allows suffering to steer us away from destruction and pride. It's mercy disguised as pain.

↳ “He keeps them from going down to the grave” (v. 18).

3. God Offers Redemption and Renewal

Through confession, prayer, and a “ransom,” God restores and renews both body and spirit. This foreshadows the work of Christ.

↳ “Spare him... I have found a ransom” (v. 24); “He shall pray unto God... and he shall see his face with joy” (v. 26).

4. Wisdom Doesn’t Always Come from Age, but from Reverence and Honesty

Elihu, though younger, speaks with clarity and sincerity, challenging the assumptions of the older men.

↳ “I will speak... and I will teach thee wisdom” (v. 33).

Job Chapter 34 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Elihu Defends God's Justice”

Wisdom Must Judge Rightly

1 Then Elihu continued and said,

2 “Listen to me, you wise men; pay attention, you who have knowledge.

3 Just as the tongue tastes food, the ear tests words.

4 Let’s evaluate the case for ourselves; let’s discern what is right and good.”

Elihu Quotes and Challenges Job

5 “Job has said, ‘I am innocent, yet God has denied me justice.

6 Even though I’ve done no wrong, I’m being treated like a liar. My wound is incurable, though I’ve done no sin.’

7 What man is like Job, who drinks up scoffing like water?

8 He keeps company with evildoers and associates with the wicked.

9 For he has said, ‘It’s no benefit to a man to try to please God.’”

God Cannot Do Evil

10 “So listen to me, men of understanding:

Far be it from God to do evil, from the Almighty to do injustice!

11 For He repays everyone for what they’ve done and gives them exactly what they deserve.

12 Surely, God does no wrong; the Almighty never twists justice.

13 Who gave Him control over the earth? Who put Him in charge of the whole world?

14 If He decided to gather back His Spirit and breath, 15 All human life would perish instantly, and mankind would return to dust.”

God Sees All and Judges All

16 “So if you have understanding, listen closely to me.

17 Would someone who hates justice govern fairly? Would you dare condemn the Righteous One?

18 Is it right to say to a king, ‘You are wicked,’ or to nobles, ‘You are evil’?

19 How much less should we speak like that to God—who shows no favoritism to the rich or the powerful? All people are His creation.

20 In a moment, they die. People are disturbed in the night and pass away. The mighty are swept away effortlessly.

21 God’s eyes are on every person’s ways. He sees everything they do.

22 No darkness is dark enough to hide sinners from God.

23 God doesn’t need to bring someone to court to judge them fairly.

24 He shatters mighty men without warning and sets others in their place.

25 He knows what they do and overthrows them in the night, and they are destroyed.

26 He strikes them down in public,

27 Because they turned away from Him and ignored His ways.

28 They caused the cries of the poor to reach Him, and He heard the cry of the oppressed.”

God Rules with Sovereignty

29 “When God gives peace, who can bring turmoil? When He hides His face, who can see Him—whether He deals with an individual or a whole nation?

30 He prevents hypocrites from ruling, so they don’t trap the people.”

A Right Response to God

31 “Surely it is right to say to God, ‘I’ve sinned; I won’t do it again.

32 Teach me what I cannot see. If I’ve done wrong, I’ll stop.’

33 Should God reward you on your terms, just because you refuse to repent? You must choose, not I. So tell me what you know.”

Conclusion: Elihu Rebukes Job

34 “Men of understanding will agree with me; wise people will hear me out.

35 Job has spoken without knowledge, and his words lack insight.

36 I hope Job will be tested to the fullest, because his arguments encourage wrongdoing.

37 He adds rebellion to his sin; he claps his hands in defiance and multiplies his words against God.”

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 34

1. God’s Justice Is Perfect and Unchanging

Elihu makes it clear that God never does wrong. His justice is always fair—even if we don't fully understand it.

↳ “Surely, God does no wrong; the Almighty never twists justice” (v. 12).

2. No One Can Hide from God’s Judgment

God sees everything. There is no darkness or shadow deep enough to conceal anyone from His sight.

↳ “No darkness is dark enough to hide sinners from God” (v. 22).

3. Repentance Is the Right Response to Suffering

Instead of accusing God, we should ask Him to reveal our faults and teach us His ways.

↳ “Teach me what I cannot see. If I’ve done wrong, I’ll stop” (v. 32).

4. Position and Power Don’t Impress God

Earthly status means nothing before the Almighty. He deals with kings and beggars alike.

↳ “He shows no favoritism to the rich or the powerful; all people are His creation” (v. 19).

5. Pride in Suffering Can Lead to Rebellion

Elihu warns that Job’s self-righteous attitude is leading him to rebellion by accusing God of injustice.

↳ “He adds rebellion to his sin... and multiplies his words against God” (v. 37).

Job Chapter 35 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Elihu: God Is Just, Even When Silent”

God Is Greater Than Man

1 Then Elihu continued, saying,

2 “Do you really think you're right when you say, ‘My righteousness is greater than God's’?

3 For you ask, ‘What advantage is it to me? What good do I gain by not sinning?’

4 I’ll answer both you and your friends.”

God Is Unaffected by Human Deeds

5 “Look up to the heavens and observe the clouds—how far above you they are.

6 If you sin, how does that hurt God? If your sins multiply, what does that do to Him?

7 If you're righteous, what do you give Him? What does He gain from your hand?

8 Your wickedness only affects people like you, and your righteousness only benefits other humans.”

Empty Cries Go Unheard

9 “People cry out under great oppression; they groan under the weight of the powerful.

10 But no one says, ‘Where is God my Maker, who gives songs in the night?’

11 He teaches us more than the animals of the earth and gives us more understanding than the birds of the sky.

12 People cry out, but God doesn't answer—because of the pride of those doing evil.

13 Surely God does not listen to empty cries; the Almighty pays no attention to them.”

Wait on God's Timing

14 “Though you say you can't see Him, your case is before Him—so trust in Him!

15 But now, because God hasn't punished you in anger right away, you think He doesn't care.

16 Job speaks in ignorance; his words are empty and without understanding.”

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 35

1. God Is Not Changed by Our Deeds

Whether we sin or act righteously, it doesn't affect God directly—our actions impact fellow humans, not the Almighty.

↳ “If you're righteous, what do you give Him?” (v. 7)

2. Our Cry Must Come from Humility and Faith

Elihu notes that God doesn't respond to proud or self-centered cries—He looks for hearts that seek Him in humility.

↳ “They cry out... but God does not answer because of the pride of evil men” (v. 12).

3. God's Silence Doesn't Mean Absence

Just because we can't see Him or hear from Him doesn't mean our case is ignored. He sees and judges in His perfect time.

↳ “Though you say you can't see Him, your case is before Him—so trust in Him!” (v. 14)

4. Don't Confuse Delay with Indifference

God's judgment may not come immediately, but that doesn't mean He's unaware. Patience and trust are part of faith.

↳ “Because God hasn’t punished you in anger right away, you think He doesn’t care” (v. 15).

5. Empty Words Reveal Shallow Faith

Elihu warns that Job's words have become reckless. When pain turns to pride, even righteous speech can become empty.

↳ “Job speaks in ignorance; his words are empty” (v. 16).

Job Chapter 36 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Elihu: God’s Power, Justice, and Discipline”

Speaking for God’s Righteousness

1 Elihu continued, saying,

2 “Bear with me a little longer, and I will speak on God’s behalf.

3 I will draw my knowledge from afar and give credit to my Maker’s righteousness.

4 For my words are true; the One who is perfect in knowledge is with you.”

God’s Justice Toward All People

5 “God is mighty and does not despise anyone; He is mighty in both strength and understanding.

6 He does not let the wicked live, but He gives justice to the poor.

7 He never removes His eyes from the righteous; He sets them with kings on thrones, and they are established forever, exalted.

8 But if they are bound in chains and caught in cords of affliction,

9 He shows them their deeds and their transgressions—how they have acted proudly.

10 He opens their ears to instruction and commands them to turn from evil.

11 If they listen and serve Him, they will spend their days in prosperity and their years in pleasure.

12 But if they refuse, they will perish by the sword and die without knowledge.”

The End of the Proud

13 “The godless in heart store up anger; they do not cry out for help when He binds them.

14 They die young, among the sexually immoral.

15 But God delivers the poor through their affliction and opens their ears through oppression.”

A Warning to Job

16 “He was luring you out of distress into a broad place, free from trouble, where your table would be full of rich food.

17 But now you are obsessed with the judgment due to the wicked; justice has seized you.

18 Be careful that no one lures you into scoffing, or God may strike you down; then no ransom would save you.

19 Will your wealth or all your mighty efforts keep you from distress?

20 Do not long for the night, when people vanish from their places.

21 Beware of turning to evil, for you have preferred it over affliction.”

God’s Greatness in Creation

22 “God is exalted in His power—who is a teacher like Him?

23 Who can tell Him what path to take, or say to Him, ‘You have done wrong’?

24 Remember to praise His work, which all people have seen.

25 Everyone has looked on it from afar.

26 Yes, God is great—beyond our understanding; the number of His years is unsearchable.

27 He draws up the drops of water, distilling rain from the mist,

28 which the clouds pour down abundantly upon mankind.

29 Who can understand how He spreads out the clouds, or the thunder from His dwelling?

30 See how He spreads His lightning around and covers the depths of the sea.

31 By these He judges nations and gives food in abundance.

32 He covers His hands with lightning and commands it to strike its mark.

33 The thunder declares His presence; even the livestock know when a storm is coming.”

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 36

1. God Is Mighty and Just

He does not favor the powerful over the poor—He judges all with fairness.

↳ “He is mighty in both strength and understanding” (v. 5)

2. Affliction Can Be God’s Discipline

Trials may be God’s way of correcting and drawing us away from pride and sin.

↳ “He opens their ears to instruction and commands them to turn from evil” (v. 10)

3. Pride Blocks Deliverance

The proud refuse to cry out to God and perish without hope, but the humble find help in their trouble.

↳ “The godless in heart store up anger; they do not cry out for help” (v. 13)

4. Wealth Cannot Save

Money, power, and human effort cannot protect against God’s judgment.

↳ “Will your wealth keep you from distress?” (v. 19)

5. God's Creation Declares His Power

The rain, clouds, lightning, and thunder all reveal His wisdom and majesty.

↳ “By these He judges nations and gives food in abundance” (v. 31)

Job Chapter 37 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Elihu: God's Majesty in Nature”

The Awe of God's Voice

1 “At this my heart trembles and leaps from its place.

2 Listen carefully to the thunder of His voice, the rumbling that comes from His mouth.

3 He sends it under the whole sky, and His lightning to the ends of the earth.

4 After it comes a roar—He thunders with His majestic voice; He does not restrain the lightning when His voice is heard.

5 God thunders marvelously with His voice; He does great things beyond our understanding.”

God Commands the Weather

6 “He says to the snow, ‘Fall on the earth,’ and to the light rain and the heavy rain of His strength.

7 He stops the work of every man's hand so that all may know His work.

8 The animals take shelter; they stay in their dens.

9 The storm comes from the south, and the cold from the north.

10 By the breath of God, ice is formed, and the broad waters are frozen solid.

11 He loads the thick cloud with moisture; He scatters His bright lightning cloud.

12 They swirl around under His direction, doing whatever He commands them over the whole earth.

13 He brings the storm for correction, or for His land, or for mercy.”

Stand Still and Consider God's Wonders

14 “Listen to this, Job; stand still and consider the wondrous works of God.

15 Do you know how God controls them and causes the lightning of His cloud to shine?

16 Do you understand how the clouds are balanced—the wondrous works of the One perfect in knowledge?

17 You whose garments grow warm when He calms the earth with the south wind—

18 Have you spread out the skies with Him, strong as a cast metal mirror?”

Our Limited Understanding Before God

19 “Teach us what we should say to Him, for we cannot prepare our case because of our darkness.

20 Should He be told that I want to speak? If a man speaks, surely he would be swallowed up.

21 Now men cannot look at the bright light in the clouds when the wind has passed and cleared them.

22 Out of the north comes golden splendor; God’s majesty is awesome.

23 Concerning the Almighty—we cannot find Him out; He is excellent in power, in judgment, and abundant in justice; He does not oppress.

24 Therefore, people fear Him; He shows no favor to those who think themselves wise.”

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 37

1. God’s Voice Commands Creation

His thunder and lightning demonstrate His unmatched power and authority.

↳ “He does great things beyond our understanding” (v. 5)

2. The Weather Is Under God’s Control

Snow, rain, wind, and storms serve His purposes—sometimes to correct, sometimes to bless.

↳ “He brings the storm for correction, or for His land, or for mercy” (v. 13)

3. Human Understanding Is Limited

The mysteries of creation remind us that God’s wisdom is infinitely greater than ours.

↳ “Do you understand how the clouds are balanced?” (v. 16)

4. God’s Majesty Inspires Reverence

His justice, power, and mercy call for humility and awe before Him.

↳ “Therefore, people fear Him” (v. 24)

Job Chapter 38 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The LORD Answers from the Whirlwind”

God Challenges Job’s Understanding

1 Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind and said,

2 “Who is this who obscures My counsel with words without knowledge?

3 Prepare yourself like a man; I will question you, and you will answer Me.

Where Were You When I Made the World?

4 “Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? Tell Me, if you have understanding.

5 Who determined its measurements—surely you know! Or who stretched the measuring line across it?

6 On what were its foundations set? Or who laid its cornerstone,
7 when the morning stars sang together and all the sons of God shouted for joy?”

God’s Command Over the Sea

8 “Who shut up the sea behind doors when it burst forth from the womb, 9 when I made the clouds its garment and thick darkness its swaddling band,
10 when I fixed limits for it and set its bars and doors,
11 and said, ‘This far you may come, but no farther; here your proud waves must stop?’”

The Light of Morning and the Ends of the Earth

12 “Have you ever commanded the morning or shown the dawn its place, 13 that it might grasp the edges of the earth and shake the wicked out of it?
14 The earth takes shape like clay under a seal; its features stand out like a garment.
15 Light is withheld from the wicked, and the arm raised in violence is broken.”

Depths, Death, and the Vast Earth

16 “Have you journeyed to the springs of the sea or walked in the recesses of the deep?
17 Have the gates of death been revealed to you? Have you seen the doors of the shadow of death?
18 Have you comprehended the vast expanse of the earth? Tell Me, if you know it all.”

Light, Darkness, and the Storehouses of Weather

19 “Where does light dwell? And where is darkness, 20 that you may take them to their domain or know the paths to their home?
21 Surely you know, for you were already born! You have lived so many years!
22 Have you entered the storehouses of the snow or seen the storehouses of the hail,
23 which I have reserved for the time of trouble, for the day of battle and war?
24 What is the way to the place where the lightning is scattered, or where the east wind is spread over the earth?”

Rain, Dew, Ice, and Frost

25 “Who cuts a channel for the torrents of rain, or a path for the thunderbolt, 26 to water a land where no one lives, an uninhabited desert,
27 to satisfy a desolate wasteland and make it sprout with grass?
28 Does the rain have a father? Who fathers the drops of dew?”

29 From whose womb comes the ice? Who gives birth to the frost from the heavens, 30 when the waters become hard as stone, and the surface of the deep is frozen?”

The Stars and the Heavens

31 “Can you bind the chains of the Pleiades or loosen the cords of Orion?
32 Can you bring forth the constellations in their seasons or guide the Bear with her cubs?
33 Do you know the laws of the heavens? Can you set their rule over the earth?”

God’s Control Over Rain, Lightning, and Wisdom

34 “Can you raise your voice to the clouds and cover yourself with a flood of water?
35 Can you send lightning bolts on their way? Do they report to you, ‘Here we are’?
36 Who gives the ibis wisdom or gives the rooster understanding?
37 Who has the wisdom to count the clouds? Who can tip over the water jars of the heavens 38 when the dust becomes hard and the clods of earth stick together?”

Provision for Creatures

39 “Do you hunt the prey for the lioness or satisfy the hunger of the young lions 40 when they crouch in their dens or lie in wait in the thicket?
41 Who provides food for the raven when its young cry out to God and wander about for lack of food?”

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 38

1. God’s Knowledge Far Exceeds Ours

Job is reminded that the Creator’s wisdom and power are beyond human comprehension.

↳ “Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth?” (v. 4)

2. Nature Is Under God’s Direct Command

From seas to stars, every part of creation operates under God’s authority.

↳ “This far you may come, but no farther” (v. 11)

3. God Provides Even for the Smallest Creatures

His care extends to animals and birds, showing His sustaining love for all life.

↳ “Who provides food for the raven?” (v. 41)

4. Humility Is the Right Response to God’s Majesty

God’s questions strip away human pride and call us to bow before His greatness.

↳ “Do you know the laws of the heavens?” (v. 33)

Job Chapter 39 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God’s Wisdom in the Animal Kingdom”

Wild Goats and Deer

- 1 “Do you know when the wild mountain goats give birth? Do you observe the time when the deer give birth?
2 Can you count the months they are pregnant, or do you know the time they deliver?
3 They crouch down, give birth to their young, and are freed from their labor pains.
4 Their young grow strong in the open country; they leave and do not return to them.”
-

The Freedom of the Wild Donkey

- 5 “Who set the wild donkey free? Who untied its ropes?
6 I gave it the wilderness as its home, the salt flats as its dwelling.
7 It laughs at the noise of the city and does not hear the shouts of the driver.
8 It ranges the hills for its pasture and searches for every green thing.”
-

The Strength of the Wild Ox

- 9 “Will the wild ox serve you? Will it stay by your manger at night?
10 Can you hitch the wild ox to a plow in a furrow? Will it harrow the valleys behind you?
11 Will you rely on its great strength? Will you leave your labor to it?
12 Will you trust it to bring in your grain and gather it to your threshing floor?”
-

The Ostrich

- 13 “Do you give the ostrich her beautiful wings and feathers?
14 She lays her eggs on the ground and lets them warm in the sand, 15 forgetting that a foot may crush them or that a wild animal may trample them.
16 She treats her young harshly, as if they were not hers; she shows no concern that her work might be in vain, 17 for God has deprived her of wisdom and given her no share in understanding.
18 Yet when she spreads her wings to run, she laughs at horse and rider.”
-

The War Horse

- 19 “Do you give the horse its strength or clothe its neck with a flowing mane?
20 Do you make it leap like a locust, striking terror with its proud snorting?”

21 It paws fiercely in the valley and rejoices in its strength; it charges into the fray.
22 It mocks fear and is unafraid; it does not turn back from the sword.
23 The quiver rattles against its side, along with the flashing spear and javelin.
24 In excitement it eats up the ground; it cannot stand still when the trumpet sounds.
25 At the blast of the trumpet it snorts, ‘Aha!’ It smells the battle from afar—the shout of commanders and the battle cry.”

The Hawk and the Eagle

26 “Does the hawk take flight by your wisdom and spread its wings toward the south?
27 Does the eagle soar at your command and build its nest on high?
28 It dwells on a cliff and stays there at night, on the rocky crag, a stronghold.
29 From there it spies out its prey; its eyes see it from afar.
30 Its young feast on blood, and where the slain are, there it is.”

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 39

1. God’s Wisdom Is Seen in the Natural World

The habits, instincts, and strength of animals reveal a Creator who equips each creature perfectly for its life.

↳ “Do you know when the wild mountain goats give birth?” (v. 1)

2. Human Control Is Limited

Wild animals like the donkey, ox, and ostrich live beyond man’s authority, reminding us that God alone governs all creation.

↳ “Who set the wild donkey free?” (v. 5)

3. God Gives Every Creature Its Strength and Role

Whether it’s the war horse’s courage or the eagle’s sharp vision, every gift is by God’s design.

↳ “Do you give the horse its strength?” (v. 19)

4. Nature Declares God’s Glory

Every instinct in the animal kingdom is a reflection of divine order and wisdom.

↳ “Does the eagle soar at your command?” (v. 27)

Job Chapter 40 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God Challenges Job with His Power and Creation”

God Confronts Job's Challenge

- 1 The LORD answered Job and said,
2 “Will the one who contends with the Almighty correct Him? Let him who accuses God answer.”
3 Then Job answered the LORD,
4 “I am unworthy. What can I reply to You? I place my hand over my mouth.
5 I have spoken once, but I will not reply again—yes, twice, but I will say no more.”
-

The Almighty's Second Speech

- 6 Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind and said,
7 “Brace yourself like a man; I will question you, and you will answer Me.
8 Will you discredit My justice? Will you condemn Me so you may be justified?
9 Do you have an arm like God's? Can your voice thunder like His?
10 Then adorn yourself with glory and splendor; clothe yourself with honor and majesty.
11 Release the fury of your wrath; look at all the proud and bring them low.
12 Look at every proud person and humble him; crush the wicked where they stand.
13 Bury them all in the dust together; imprison them in the hidden place.
14 Then I will admit to you that your own right hand can save you.”
-

The Behemoth: God's Masterwork

- 15 “Look at Behemoth, which I made along with you. He eats grass like an ox.
16 See the strength in his hips and the power in the muscles of his belly.
17 He swings his tail like a cedar; the sinews of his thighs are tightly knit.
18 His bones are like tubes of bronze; his limbs are like bars of iron.
19 He is the foremost of God's works; only his Maker can approach him with a sword.
20 The hills yield food for him, while all the wild animals play nearby.
21 He lies under the lotus plants, hidden among the reeds and marshes.
22 The lotus plants conceal him with their shade; the willows by the stream surround him.
23 He is not alarmed when the river rages; he is confident though the Jordan surges against his mouth.
24 Can anyone capture him by the eyes or pierce his nose with a snare?”
-

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 40

1. God's Justice Cannot Be Challenged

Job is reminded that God's judgments are perfect, even when humans cannot understand them.
↳ “Will you condemn Me so you may be justified?” (v. 8)

2. Human Power Is Limited

God challenges Job to demonstrate the ability to rule with justice and power—something only

God can do.

↳ “Then I will admit to you that your own right hand can save you.” (v. 14)

3. Creation Reflects God’s Strength

Behemoth stands as a living testimony to God’s creative power, beyond human control.

↳ “Look at Behemoth, which I made along with you.” (v. 15)

4. We Must Respond in Humility Before God

Job’s response shows that the only proper posture before God’s greatness is humility and reverence.

↳ “I am unworthy... I will say no more.” (v. 4–5)

Job Chapter 41 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God’s Description of Leviathan”

The Challenge of Capturing Leviathan

1 “Can you pull in Leviathan with a hook, or tie down his tongue with a rope?”

2 Can you put a cord through his nose or pierce his jaw with a hook?

3 Will he beg you for mercy or speak gentle words to you?

4 Will he make an agreement with you so that you can take him as your servant for life?

5 Can you play with him like a bird, or put him on a leash for your young women?

6 Will trading partners bargain for him? Will they divide him among the merchants?

7 Can you fill his hide with harpoons, or his head with fishing spears?

8 Lay your hand on him, and you will remember the struggle—you won’t do it again!

9 Any hope of subduing him is false; the mere sight of him overwhelms you.

10 No one is fierce enough to rouse him—who then can stand against Me?”

God’s Supreme Authority

11 “Who has ever given to Me that I should repay him? Everything under heaven belongs to Me.

12 I will not fail to speak of Leviathan’s limbs, his strength, and his graceful form.

13 Who can strip off his outer covering? Who can approach him with a bridle?

14 Who can open the doors of his face? His teeth are terrifying.

15 His back is covered with rows of scales, tightly sealed together.

16 Each one is so close to the next that no air can pass between them.

17 They are joined firmly to one another; they cling together and cannot be separated.”

A Creature of Fearsome Power

- 18 “When he sneezes, light flashes; his eyes are like the rays of dawn.
19 Flames pour from his mouth; sparks of fire shoot out.
20 Smoke pours from his nostrils as from a boiling pot over burning reeds.
21 His breath sets coals ablaze, and flames dart from his mouth.
22 Strength resides in his neck; dismay goes before him.
23 The folds of his flesh are tightly joined; they are firm and immovable.
24 His heart is hard as rock, hard as a lower millstone.
25 When he rises up, the mighty are terrified; they retreat before his thrashing.”
-

Weapons Are Useless Against Him

- 26 “The sword that strikes him has no effect, nor does the spear, the dart, or the javelin.
27 He regards iron as straw and bronze as rotten wood.
28 Arrows do not make him flee; slingstones are like chaff to him.
29 Clubs are like chaff; he laughs at the shaking of a spear.
30 His underside is jagged with sharp points; he leaves a trail in the mud like a threshing sledge.
31 He makes the deep churn like a boiling pot; he stirs the sea like a pot of ointment.
32 Behind him he leaves a glistening wake; one would think the deep had white hair.
33 Nothing on earth is his equal—a creature without fear.
34 He looks down on all that are proud; he is king over all the proud.”
-

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 41

1. God’s Power Surpasses All Creation

Leviathan serves as a symbol of a force no human can control, emphasizing God’s unmatched authority.

↳ “Who then can stand against Me?” (v. 10)

2. Human Strength and Skill Have Limits

No weapon or human strategy can subdue this creature, reminding us of our dependence on God.

↳ “The sword... has no effect, nor does the spear, the dart, or the javelin.” (v. 26)

3. God Owns and Rules All Things

The Creator owes nothing to anyone; all creation is His possession.

↳ “Everything under heaven belongs to Me.” (v. 11)

4. Pride Cannot Stand Before God

Leviathan is described as “king over all the proud,” pointing to the truth that God alone can humble pride.

↳ “He looks down on all that are proud.” (v. 34)

Job Chapter 42 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Job’s Repentance and Restoration”

Job Confesses and Repents

1 Then Job replied to the LORD:

2 “I know that You can do all things, and no purpose of Yours can be stopped.

3 You asked, ‘Who is this who hides counsel without knowledge?’ I spoke about things I did not understand—things too wonderful for me to know.

4 You said, ‘Listen now, and I will speak; I will question you, and you will answer Me.’

5 My ears had heard of You, but now my eyes have seen You.

6 Therefore I despise myself and repent in dust and ashes.”

God Rebukes Job’s Friends

7 After the LORD had spoken these words to Job, He said to Eliphaz the Temanite, “My anger burns against you and your two friends because you have not spoken the truth about Me, as My servant Job has.

8 So now take seven bulls and seven rams, go to My servant Job, and offer them as a burnt offering for yourselves. My servant Job will pray for you, and I will accept his prayer and not deal with you according to your folly. You have not spoken the truth about Me, as My servant Job has.”

9 So Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite went and did as the LORD commanded them—and the LORD accepted Job’s prayer.

Job’s Restoration

10 The LORD restored Job’s fortunes when he prayed for his friends. Indeed, the LORD gave him twice as much as he had before.

11 All his brothers, sisters, and former acquaintances came to him and ate with him in his house. They expressed sympathy and comforted him over all the adversity the LORD had brought upon him. Each one gave him a piece of silver and a gold ring.

12 The LORD blessed the latter part of Job’s life more than the first. He had 14,000 sheep, 6,000 camels, 1,000 yoke of oxen, and 1,000 female donkeys.

13 He also had seven sons and three daughters.

14 He named the first Jemimah, the second Keziah, and the third Keren-Happuch.

15 Nowhere in the land were women as beautiful as Job’s daughters, and their father granted them an inheritance along with their brothers.

16 After this, Job lived 140 years and saw his children and their children to the fourth generation.

17 And so Job died, old and full of years.

Key Lessons from Job Chapter 42

1. True Understanding of God Leads to Humility

Job's knowledge of God moved from hearsay to personal experience, bringing him to repentance.

↳ "My ears had heard of You, but now my eyes have seen You." (v. 5)

2. Intercession Is Powerful

God required Job to pray for his friends before restoring him, showing the power of forgiveness and intercession.

↳ "My servant Job will pray for you, and I will accept his prayer." (v. 8)

3. God's Blessings Can Surpass Past Losses

Job's latter years were more blessed than his beginning, proving that God can redeem and restore even after severe trials.

↳ "The LORD blessed the latter part of Job's life more than the first." (v. 12)

4. Beauty and Inheritance for Daughters

Job's granting of inheritance to his daughters speaks to God's valuing of all His children equally.

↳ "Their father granted them an inheritance along with their brothers." (v. 15)

5. A Full Life in God's Care

Job's life ended "full of years," reminding us that those who walk with God can finish life in peace and blessing.

↳ "Job died, old and full of years." (v. 17)

Introduction to the Book of Psalms

"Praise the Lord! Praise God in his sanctuary; praise him in his mighty heavens!" – Psalm 150:1

Title and Meaning

The name Psalms comes from the Greek word psalmoi, meaning "songs" or "hymns." In Hebrew, the book is called Tehillim, meaning "praises," reflecting its primary purpose as a collection of songs of worship and prayer. The Psalms are the hymnbook of ancient Israel, expressing a wide range of human emotions—from joy and gratitude to sorrow and despair—and serving as a means to worship, seek guidance, and find comfort in God.

Author and Date

Traditionally, King David is regarded as the principal author of many Psalms, with others attributed to figures such as Asaph, the sons of Korah, and Solomon. The collection was likely compiled over many centuries, from the time of David (around 1000 BC) through the post-exilic period (after 500 BC). The Psalms reflect the spiritual life of Israel across different eras, capturing both personal and communal expressions of faith.

Purpose of Psalms

The Psalms serve as a spiritual toolkit, helping believers:

- Worship and praise God for His greatness and mercy.
- Seek His help in times of trouble.
- Express repentance and humility.
- Celebrate His faithfulness and justice.
- Meditate on His promises and sovereignty.

More than just songs, the Psalms are prayers that connect the human heart to God's divine nature, guiding believers in worship, lament, thanksgiving, and trust.

Structure of Psalms

The book of Psalms is divided into five sections, mirroring the structure of the Torah, each ending with a doxology or praise:

☐ 1. Psalms 1–41

Focuses on David's life, expressing trust and reliance on God amidst trials.

☐ 2. Psalms 42–72

Includes communal laments and praises, often associated with David's reign.

☐ 3. Psalms 73–89

Addresses national struggles, including exile and God's faithfulness to Israel.

☐ 4. Psalms 90–106

Contains reflections on God's eternal sovereignty and His acts in history.

☐ 5. Psalms 107–150

Encompasses a variety of themes, with many well-known praise psalms, culminating in Psalm 150's call to praise God with music and dance.

Major Themes

- Praise and Worship: Honoring God's greatness and sovereignty.
- Lament and Supplication: Crying out to God in distress and seeking mercy.
- Trust and Confidence: Relying on God's steadfast love and faithfulness.
- Repentance and Forgiveness: Coming before God with humility and receiving His mercy.
- God's Sovereignty and Justice: Recognizing His rule over creation and history.

Why Psalms Matters Today

The Psalms are deeply relevant because they mirror the full range of human experience and emotion. They teach us how to pray honestly, worship wholeheartedly, and trust unwaveringly in God's goodness. Whether in joy or sorrow, the Psalms remind us that God is near, listening, and worthy of our praise. They encourage believers to express their faith openly and to find comfort and strength in God's promises, ultimately pointing us to the coming King, Jesus Christ, who embodies perfect praise and brings salvation.

Key Verse

“Praise the Lord! Praise God in his sanctuary; praise him in his mighty heavens!” – Psalm 150:1

This verse encapsulates the essence of the Psalms: a call to universal praise, recognizing God's majesty and His desire for His people to worship Him with all their heart, soul, and voice.

Psalm 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Way of the Righteous and the End of the Wicked”

The Blessed Path of the Righteous

1 Blessed is the one who does not walk in the advice of the wicked, or stand in the path of sinners,
or sit in the seat of mockers.

2 Instead, his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on His law he meditates day and night.

3 He is like a tree planted beside streams of water, which yields its fruit in its season
and whose leaf does not wither.
Everything he does prospers.

The Fate of the Wicked

4 The wicked are not so;
they are like chaff that the wind blows away.

5 Therefore, the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous.

Two Paths and Two Destinies

6 For the LORD watches over the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish.

Key Lessons from Psalm 1

1. Our Influences Shape Our Destiny

Avoiding the counsel and company of the ungodly protects us from being led astray.

↳ “Blessed is the one who does not walk in the advice of the wicked.” (v. 1)

2. Delight in God's Word Brings Stability

Meditating on Scripture day and night roots us like a strong tree by the water.

↳ "His delight is in the law of the LORD... like a tree planted by streams of water." (vv. 2–3)

3. God's Presence Sustains Fruitfulness

The righteous will bear fruit in God's timing, and their spiritual life will not wither.

↳ "Yields its fruit in its season... its leaf does not wither." (v. 3)

4. The Wicked Live Without Foundation

Without God, life is unstable and directionless, like chaff blown by the wind.

↳ "The wicked are... like chaff that the wind blows away." (v. 4)

5. God Ultimately Judges and Rewards

The LORD knows and guards the way of the righteous, but the path of the wicked ends in ruin.

↳ "The LORD watches over the way of the righteous... the way of the wicked will perish." (v. 6)

Psalm 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

"The Reign of God's Anointed King"

The Rebellion of the Nations

1 Why do the nations rage,
and the peoples plot in vain?

2 The kings of the earth take their stand, and the rulers conspire together against the LORD and against His Anointed, saying,

3 "Let us break their chains and throw off their cords from us!"

God's Response from Heaven

4 The One enthroned in heaven laughs;
the Lord scoffs at them.

5 Then He speaks to them in His anger and terrifies them in His wrath, saying,

6 "I have installed My King on Zion, My holy mountain."

The Decree of the Son

7 I will declare the LORD's decree:
He said to me, "You are My Son;
today I have begotten You.

8 Ask of Me, and I will make the nations Your inheritance, and the ends of the earth Your possession.

9 You will break them with a rod of iron;
You will shatter them like pottery."

A Warning to Earth's Leaders

10 Therefore, be wise, O kings;
be warned, O rulers of the earth.

11 Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

12 Kiss the Son, lest He be angry and you perish in your rebellion, for His wrath may ignite suddenly.
Blessed are all who take refuge in Him.

Key Lessons from Psalm 2

1. The World Resists God's Rule

Human leaders often reject God's authority, but their rebellion is futile.

↳ "The kings of the earth take their stand... against the LORD and His Anointed." (vv. 2–3)

2. God Reigns Unshaken

No earthly power can threaten His plan; He rules with authority and certainty.

↳ "The One enthroned in heaven laughs." (v. 4)

3. Christ Is God's Appointed King

This psalm prophetically points to Jesus, the Son of God, as ruler over all nations.

↳ "You are My Son... I will make the nations Your inheritance." (vv. 7–8)

4. His Judgment Is Certain

Those who resist will face His righteous wrath and be broken.

↳ "You will break them with a rod of iron." (v. 9)

5. Blessing Belongs to the Trusting

Submission to Christ and trust in Him bring safety, peace, and blessing.

↳ "Blessed are all who take refuge in Him." (v. 12)

Psalm 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord Is My Shield”

A Psalm of David, when he fled from his son Absalom.

The Rising Tide of Trouble

1 LORD, how my foes have multiplied!
Many rise up against me.

2 Many are saying of my soul,
“There is no help for him in God.” Selah

God My Protector

3 But You, O LORD, are a shield around me, my glory, and the One who lifts up my head.

4 I cry aloud to the LORD,
and He answers me from His holy mountain. Selah

Rest in the Midst of Danger

5 I lie down and sleep;
I wake again, because the LORD sustains me.

6 I will not be afraid of tens of thousands of people who have set themselves against me on every side.

The Lord Delivers

7 Arise, O LORD! Save me, my God!
You strike all my enemies on the cheek;
You break the teeth of the wicked.

8 Salvation belongs to the LORD;
Your blessing be upon Your people. Selah

Key Lessons from Psalm 3

1. Troubles Will Multiply, but God Remains

Even when opposition grows, God is not diminished.

↳ “Many are they that rise up against me.” (v. 1)

2. God Is Our Shield and Lifter of the Head

His protection is both surrounding and uplifting.

↳ “You, O LORD, are a shield around me... the lifter up of my head.” (v. 3)

3. Prayer Brings Assurance

God answers those who cry out to Him, even from places of deep despair.

↳ “I cried... and He heard me from His holy hill.” (v. 4)

4. Faith Gives Rest in the Storm

Trusting in God’s care brings peace, even in danger.

↳ “I lay down and slept... for the LORD sustained me.” (v. 5)

5. Victory Belongs to the Lord

Our deliverance is not from our strength but from His power.

↳ “Salvation belongs to the LORD.” (v. 8)

Psalm 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Peace in the Presence of God”

To the Chief Musician, on stringed instruments. A Psalm of David.

A Cry for Mercy

1 Answer me when I call, O God of my righteousness!

You have given me relief when I was in distress.

Be gracious to me and hear my prayer.

The Folly of Vanity

2 O sons of men, how long will you turn my glory into shame?

How long will you love what is worthless and seek after lies? Selah

3 But know this: the LORD has set apart the godly for Himself;
the LORD will hear when I call to Him.

Walking in Reverence

4 Stand in awe, and do not sin.

Speak within your own heart on your bed, and be still. Selah

5 Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, and put your trust in the LORD.

The True Source of Joy and Safety

6 Many say, “Who will show us any good?”
LORD, lift up the light of Your face upon us.

7 You have filled my heart with more joy than when their grain and new wine abound.

8 I will both lie down in peace and sleep,
for You alone, LORD, make me dwell in safety.

Key Lessons from Psalm 4

1. God Answers the Righteous in Distress

He is both our righteousness and our deliverer in trouble.

↳ “You have given me relief when I was in distress.” (v. 1)

2. Reject Worthless Pursuits

Chasing lies and vanity leads to shame; God calls us to truth.

↳ “How long will you love what is worthless and seek after lies?” (v. 2)

3. Holiness Brings God’s Favor

God sets apart the godly for Himself and listens to their prayers.

↳ “The LORD will hear when I call to Him.” (v. 3)

4. Self-Examination Prevents Sin

Quiet reflection in God’s presence fosters righteousness.

↳ “Speak within your own heart on your bed, and be still.” (v. 4)

5. Joy in God Surpasses Earthly Gain

Spiritual gladness outweighs material prosperity.

↳ “You have filled my heart with more joy than when their grain and new wine abound.” (v. 7)

6. God Alone Gives Perfect Peace

True rest comes from His protection, not from circumstances.

↳ “For You alone, LORD, make me dwell in safety.” (v. 8)

Psalm 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Morning Prayer for Guidance and Protection”

To the Chief Musician, with flutes. A Psalm of David.

A Plea for God’s Attention

1 Give ear to my words, O LORD;
consider my meditation.

2 Listen to the sound of my cry for help,
my King and my God,
for to You I pray.

3 In the morning, LORD, You hear my voice;
in the morning I will lay my request before You and eagerly watch.

The Character of God Against Evil

4 For You are not a God who delights in wickedness; evil cannot dwell with You.

5 The arrogant will not stand in Your presence;
You hate all who do wrong.

6 You destroy those who tell lies;
the LORD abhors the bloodthirsty and deceitful person.

Entering God’s Presence

7 But as for me,
by the abundance of Your mercy I will enter Your house;
in reverence I will bow down toward Your holy temple.

Guidance in the Face of Opposition

8 Lead me, O LORD, in Your righteousness because of my enemies—
make Your way straight before me.

9 For there is nothing reliable in their mouth;
their heart is filled with destruction.
Their throat is an open grave;
they flatter with their tongue.

Judgment on the Wicked

10 Make them bear their guilt, O God;
let them fall by their own schemes.
Banish them for their many sins,
for they have rebelled against You.

Joy and Protection for the Righteous

11 But let all who take refuge in You rejoice;
let them always shout for joy.
Spread Your protection over them,
so that those who love Your name may rejoice in You.

12 Surely You, LORD, bless the righteous;
You surround them with Your favor
as with a shield.

Key Lessons from Psalm 5

1. Prayer Should Begin the Day

Starting the morning with prayer sets the tone for trust and guidance.

↳ “In the morning I will lay my request before You and eagerly watch.” (v. 3)

2. God’s Nature Opposes Wickedness

His holiness will not allow evil to remain in His presence.

↳ “Evil cannot dwell with You.” (v. 4)

3. God Responds to the Humble

The righteous approach Him with reverence, not pride.

↳ “In reverence I will bow down toward Your holy temple.” (v. 7)

4. God’s Guidance is Needed for Every Step

He makes the way straight when we face opposition.

↳ “Make Your way straight before me.” (v. 8)

5. The Wicked Are Self-Destructive

Sinful schemes often bring about the sinner's own downfall.

↳ "Let them fall by their own schemes." (v. 10)

6. The Righteous Rejoice in God's Protection

Joy flows from knowing His favor surrounds like a shield.

↳ "You surround them with Your favor as with a shield." (v. 12)

Psalm 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

"A Cry for Mercy in Time of Distress"

To the Chief Musician, with stringed instruments, on the Sheminith. A Psalm of David.

Plea for Mercy

1 O LORD, do not rebuke me in Your anger, or discipline me in Your hot displeasure.

2 Have mercy on me, LORD, for I am weak;
heal me, LORD, for my bones are in anguish.

3 My soul is in deep distress.
But You, O LORD—how long?

Appeal for Deliverance

4 Return, LORD, and rescue my soul;
save me because of Your steadfast love.

5 For in death no one remembers You;
in the grave, who will give You thanks?

Overwhelmed by Sorrow

6 I am worn out from my groaning;
all night long I flood my bed with weeping and drench my couch with tears.

7 My eyes are dim with grief;
they grow weak because of all my enemies.

Confidence in God's Response

8 Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity, for the LORD has heard the sound of my weeping.

9 The LORD has heard my plea;
the LORD accepts my prayer.

10 May all my enemies be ashamed and greatly troubled;
may they turn back in sudden disgrace.

Key Lessons from Psalm 6

1. God's Discipline is Meant to Correct, Not Destroy

David pleads for mercy, showing that we can ask God to temper His discipline with compassion.

↳ "Do not rebuke me in Your anger." (v. 1)

2. Our Weakness Drives Us to God's Mercy

When physical and emotional strength fail, His steadfast love is our only hope.

↳ "Have mercy on me, LORD, for I am weak." (v. 2)

3. Persistent Sorrow Can Lead to Deeper Faith

Tears do not mean the absence of faith—they can be the soil where trust in God grows.

↳ "All night long I flood my bed with weeping." (v. 6)

4. God Hears the Cry of the Brokenhearted

We can be confident that our prayers are not ignored, even in our darkest nights.

↳ "The LORD has heard my plea." (v. 9)

5. The Righteous Can Have Confidence in Final Justice

Those who oppose God's people will ultimately face shame and defeat.

↳ "May all my enemies be ashamed and greatly troubled." (v. 10)

Psalm 7 – Crawford Standard Bible

"A Prayer for Justice"

A Shiggaion of David, which he sang to the LORD concerning the words of Cush, a Benjamite.

Trusting God for Deliverance

1 O LORD my God, in You I take refuge;
save me from all those who persecute me, and deliver me,

2 or they will tear my soul like a lion,
dragging me away with no one to rescue.

Self-Examination Before God

3 O LORD my God, if I have done this—if there is injustice in my hands,

4 if I have repaid evil to one who was at peace with me,
or have plundered my enemy without cause—

5 then let the enemy pursue me and overtake me;
let him trample my life into the ground and lay my honor in the dust. Selah.

Appeal for God's Righteous Judgment

6 Arise, O LORD, in Your anger;
lift Yourself up against the fury of my enemies;
awake for me; You have decreed judgment.

7 Let the assembly of the peoples gather around You,
and over them return on high.

8 The LORD will judge the nations.
Judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness and according to my integrity within me.

9 Let the evil of the wicked come to an end, but establish the righteous;
for the righteous God examines the hearts and minds.

God's Judgment Against the Wicked

10 My defense is with God, who saves the upright in heart.

11 God is a righteous judge, and a God who is angry with the wicked every day.

12 If he does not repent,
He will sharpen His sword;
He has bent His bow and made it ready.

13 He has prepared His deadly weapons;
He makes His flaming arrows for those who pursue evil.

14 Behold, the wicked man conceives evil,
is pregnant with mischief,
and gives birth to lies.

15 He digs a pit and hollows it out,
but falls into the hole he has made.

16 His mischief returns on his own head,
and his violence descends on his own skull.

Commitment to Praise

17 I will give thanks to the LORD for His righteousness and will sing praise to the name of the LORD Most High.

Key Lessons from Psalm 7

1. God is the Only Safe Refuge in Persecution

When human help fails, the believer can fully trust God for deliverance.

↳ “O LORD my God, in You I take refuge.” (v. 1)

2. Self-Examination Precedes Vindication

David shows integrity by inviting God to search his heart before judging his enemies.

↳ “If I have done this... let the enemy pursue me.” (vv. 3–5)

3. God’s Judgment is Certain and Righteous

The Lord examines hearts and minds, bringing the wicked to justice and upholding the righteous.

↳ “The righteous God examines the hearts and minds.” (v. 9)

4. Sin is Self-Destructive

Those who plot evil often fall into their own traps.

↳ “He falls into the hole he has made.” (v. 15)

5. Praise is Fitting Before and After Deliverance

Gratitude for God’s righteousness should be continual, not only after the victory is seen.

↳ “I will give thanks to the LORD for His righteousness.” (v. 17)

Psalm 8 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Majesty of God and the Dignity of Man”

To the Chief Musician upon Gittith. A Psalm of David.

God's Glory in Creation

1 O LORD, our Lord,
how majestic is Your name in all the earth!
You have set Your glory above the heavens.

2 Out of the mouth of infants and nursing babies
You have established strength because of Your enemies, to silence the foe and the avenger.

The Wonder of God's Care for Humanity

3 When I consider Your heavens,
the work of Your fingers,
the moon and the stars, which You have set in place—

4 what is man that You are mindful of him, and the son of man that You care for him?

Man's God-Given Authority

5 Yet You have made him a little lower than the heavenly beings, and crowned him with glory and honor.

6 You made him ruler over the works of Your hands;
You have put all things under his feet:

7 all sheep and oxen,
and also the beasts of the field,

8 the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea,
and whatever passes along the paths of the seas.

Closing Praise

9 O LORD, our Lord,
how majestic is Your name in all the earth!

Key Lessons from Psalm 8

1. God's Name is Majestic Everywhere

The Lord's glory is not confined to one nation or people—it fills the whole earth.

↳ "How majestic is Your name in all the earth!" (v. 1, 9)

2. God Uses the Weak to Defeat the Strong

Even the praises of children demonstrate God's power to silence His enemies.

↳ “Out of the mouth of infants... You have established strength.” (v. 2)

3. Creation Inspires Humility and Awe

The vastness of the heavens reminds us how small we are and how great God is.

↳ “When I consider Your heavens... what is man?” (vv. 3–4)

4. Humanity is Crowned with God-Given Honor

Though small in the universe, God has given mankind dominion and responsibility over creation.

↳ “You have crowned him with glory and honor.” (v. 5)

5. Man's Authority is Stewardship, Not Ownership

Everything is under man's feet by God's decree, meaning we must rule responsibly as caretakers of His creation.

↳ “You made him ruler over the works of Your hands.” (v. 6)

Psalm 9 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Praise for God's Justice and Deliverance”

To the Chief Musician upon Muth-labben. A Psalm of David.

Wholehearted Praise

1 I will praise You, O LORD, with all my heart;
I will tell of all Your marvelous works.

2 I will be glad and rejoice in You;
I will sing praise to Your name, O Most High.

God's Judgment Against the Wicked

3 When my enemies turn back,
they will stumble and perish before You.

4 For You have upheld my right and my cause;
You sit on Your throne judging in righteousness.

5 You have rebuked the nations, destroyed the wicked, and erased their name forever and ever.

6 O enemy, destruction has come to an end forever.
You have uprooted cities—
their memory has perished with them.

The Lord's Eternal Reign

7 But the LORD will endure forever;
He has established His throne for judgment.

8 He will judge the world with righteousness;
He will govern the peoples with uprightness.

God the Refuge

9 The LORD is a refuge for the oppressed,
a stronghold in times of trouble.

10 Those who know Your name trust in You, for You, LORD, have never forsaken those who seek You.

Proclaiming His Works

11 Sing praises to the LORD, who dwells in Zion;
declare among the nations what He has done.

12 For He who avenges blood remembers them;
He does not forget the cry of the humble.

Personal Prayer for Deliverance

13 Have mercy on me, LORD;
see how my enemies afflict me,
You who lift me up from the gates of death—

14 that I may declare Your praise in the gates of the Daughter of Zion, and rejoice in Your salvation.

The Fate of the Wicked

15 The nations have sunk into the pit they made;
their own feet are caught in the net they hid.

16 The LORD is known by the justice He brings;
the wicked are trapped by the work of their own hands.
Higgaion. Selah.

17 The wicked will be turned into the grave—
all the nations that forget God.

Hope for the Oppressed

18 The needy will not always be forgotten;
the hope of the poor will never perish.

19 Arise, LORD, do not let man prevail;
let the nations be judged before You.

20 Put them in fear, LORD, that the nations may know they are only human.
Selah.

Key Lessons from Psalm 9

1. Praise Should Be Wholehearted

David’s worship is not half-hearted—he praises God with his whole heart.
↳ “I will praise You... with all my heart.” (v. 1)

2. God Judges with Righteousness

His judgments are not based on human bias but on perfect justice.
↳ “He will judge the world with righteousness.” (v. 8)

3. The Lord is a Refuge for the Oppressed

Those who trust Him will never be abandoned, no matter the trouble.
↳ “You... have never forsaken those who seek You.” (v. 10)

4. The Wicked Fall into Their Own Traps

Sinful schemes often backfire, leading to self-destruction.
↳ “The nations have sunk into the pit they made.” (v. 15)

5. God Does Not Forget the Needy

Even when it feels like the poor are overlooked, God remembers them.
↳ “The hope of the poor will never perish.” (v. 18)

Psalm 10 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Cry for Justice Against the Wicked”

Why Does God Seem Distant?

1 LORD, why do You stand so far away?
Why do You hide Yourself in times of trouble?

2 In arrogance, the wicked pursue the poor;
let them be caught in the schemes they have devised.

The Character of the Wicked

3 For the wicked boasts of the desires of his heart;
he blesses the greedy, whom the LORD detests.

4 In his pride, the wicked does not seek God;
all his thoughts are, "There is no God."

5 His ways are always prospering;
Your judgments are far beyond his sight;
he sneers at all his enemies.

6 He says in his heart, "I will never be shaken;
I will never face trouble."

7 His mouth is full of curses, deceit, and oppression;
trouble and evil are under his tongue.

Predatory Behavior

8 He lies in ambush near the villages;
in hidden places he murders the innocent;
his eyes secretly watch for the helpless.

9 He lies in wait like a lion in his den;
he lurks to catch the poor;
he catches them and drags them into his net.

10 He crouches low,
so the helpless fall into his strong grasp.

11 He says in his heart, "God has forgotten;
He hides His face and will never see."

A Plea for God's Action

12 Arise, LORD! Lift up Your hand, O God; do not forget the humble.

13 Why does the wicked despise God and say in his heart, “You will not call me to account”?

14 But You have seen it;
You note trouble and grief,
to take it into Your hand.
The helpless commit themselves to You;
You are the helper of the fatherless.

15 Break the arm of the wicked and evildoer;
call his wickedness to account until none is found.

The Lord’s Justice Reigns

16 The LORD is King forever and ever;
the nations will perish from His land.

17 LORD, You have heard the desire of the humble;
You will strengthen their hearts;
You will listen with Your ear—

18 to bring justice to the fatherless and the oppressed, so that mere men may no longer terrify them.

Key Lessons from Psalm 10

1. God’s Seeming Distance is Not Abandonment

Even when God seems far away, He sees and will act.

↳ “Why do You hide Yourself in times of trouble?” (v. 1)

2. The Wicked Live as if God Will Never Judge

Pride blinds them to the reality of God’s justice.

↳ “There is no God... I will never be shaken.” (vv. 4, 6)

3. Oppression is a Predatory Act God Condemns

The imagery of lurking lions shows the cruel intent of the wicked.

↳ “He lies in wait like a lion in his den.” (v. 9)

4. God is the Defender of the Helpless

He hears the cry of the fatherless and the oppressed.

↳ “You are the helper of the fatherless.” (v. 14)

5. God’s Reign Brings Final Justice

One day, human oppression will end, and His kingdom will prevail.

↳ “The LORD is King forever and ever.” (v. 16)

Psalm 11 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord Is My Refuge”

Confidence in God Despite Danger

1 In the LORD I take refuge.

How can you say to me,
“Flee to your mountain like a bird”?

2 For look—the wicked bend their bows;
they set their arrows upon the string to shoot in secret at the upright in heart.

3 If the foundations are destroyed,
what can the righteous do?

The Lord’s Sovereign Rule

4 The LORD is in His holy temple;
the LORD’s throne is in heaven.
His eyes observe;
His gaze examines the children of men.

5 The LORD tests the righteous, but His soul hates the wicked and those who love violence.

Judgment for the Wicked

6 Upon the wicked He will rain snares, fire and brimstone, and scorching wind—
this will be the portion of their cup.

Blessing for the Upright

7 For the LORD is righteous;
He loves righteous deeds;
the upright will behold His face.

Key Lessons from Psalm 11

1. Faith Is the Refuge of the Righteous

When danger surrounds, our safety is in trusting God, not running in fear.

↳ “In the LORD I take refuge.” (v. 1)

2. God’s Throne Is Unshaken

Even when earthly “foundations” crumble, heaven’s throne stands firm.

↳ “The LORD’s throne is in heaven.” (v. 4)

3. God Tests His People

Trials reveal the character of the righteous and expose the wicked.

↳ “The LORD tests the righteous.” (v. 5)

4. Judgment Is Certain for the Wicked

Fire, brimstone, and storm imagery show God’s justice will be swift and sure.

↳ “This will be the portion of their cup.” (v. 6)

5. The Upright Will See God’s Face

Eternal reward awaits those who walk in righteousness.

↳ “The upright will behold His face.” (v. 7)

Psalm 12 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God’s Words Are Pure”

The Disappearance of the Faithful

1 Help, LORD!

For the godly are no more;
the faithful have vanished from among the children of men.

2 Everyone lies to his neighbor;
with flattering lips and a double heart they speak.

God’s Judgment on Deceptive Speech

3 The LORD will cut off all flattering lips and every boastful tongue—

4 those who say,
“With our tongues we will prevail;
our lips are our own—
who is lord over us?”

God's Promise to the Oppressed

5 “Because of the oppression of the poor, because of the groaning of the needy,
now I will arise,” says the LORD.
“I will place him in the safety for which he longs.”

The Purity of God's Word

6 The words of the LORD are pure words, like silver refined in a furnace of clay,
purified seven times.
7 You, LORD, will keep them;
You will preserve them from this generation forever.

The Rule of the Wicked

8 The wicked prowl on every side when what is vile is honored among the children of men.

Key Lessons from Psalm 12

1. Faithfulness Can Grow Rare

In times of moral decline, godly people may seem few, but God still hears the cry of the righteous.

↳ “Help, LORD! For the godly are no more.” (v. 1)

2. God Hates Deceptive Speech

Flattery, pride, and lies provoke God's judgment.

↳ “The LORD will cut off all flattering lips.” (v. 3)

3. God Acts for the Oppressed

The Lord rises to defend the poor and needy against those who exploit them.

↳ “Now I will arise... I will place him in safety.” (v. 5)

4. God's Word Is Absolutely Pure

His promises are tested, trustworthy, and unchanging.

↳ “The words of the LORD are pure words.” (v. 6)

5. Evil Grows When the Corrupt Are Honored

Societies decay when the vile are exalted instead of the righteous.

↳ “When what is vile is honored among men.” (v. 8)

Psalm 13 – Crawford Standard Bible

“From Despair to Praise”

A Cry of Abandonment

1 How long, LORD? Will You forget me forever?
How long will You hide Your face from me?

2 How long must I wrestle with my thoughts, having sorrow in my heart day after day?
How long will my enemy be exalted over me?

A Plea for God’s Intervention

3 Look on me and answer, LORD my God.
Give light to my eyes, or I will sleep in death,

4 and my enemy will say, “I have prevailed over him,”
and my foes will rejoice when I fall.

A Declaration of Trust and Praise

5 But I have trusted in Your mercy;
my heart will rejoice in Your salvation.

6 I will sing to the LORD, because He has been good to me.

Key Lessons from Psalm 13

1. It’s Okay to Ask “How Long?”

Even people of great faith can feel forgotten, but God’s silence does not mean His absence.
↳ “How long will You hide Your face from me?” (v. 1)

2. God Wants Honest Prayers

David brings his raw emotions before God, showing that we can cry out without fear of rejection.
↳ “How long must I wrestle with my thoughts...?” (v. 2)

3. God Is Our Source of Light and Life

Without His intervention, we are powerless against despair and defeat.
↳ “Give light to my eyes, or I will sleep in death.” (v. 3)

4. Faith Chooses to Trust Before the Answer Comes

David moves from lament to confidence in God's mercy and salvation.

↳ "But I have trusted in Your mercy." (v. 5)

5. Praise Is the Final Word

No matter the trial, God's goodness is reason enough to sing.

↳ "I will sing to the LORD, because He has been good to me." (v. 6)

Psalm 14 – Crawford Standard Bible

"The Folly of Denying God"

The Heart of the Fool

1 The fool says in his heart, "There is no God."

They are corrupt; their deeds are vile;

there is no one who does good.

God's Search for the Righteous

2 The LORD looks down from heaven on all mankind to see if there are any who understand, any who seek after God.

3 But all have turned away;
all alike have become corrupt.
There is no one who does good—
not even one.

The Ignorance of the Wicked

4 Do all these evildoers know nothing?
They devour My people as they eat bread and do not call upon the LORD.

The Terror of the Ungodly

5 But there they are, overwhelmed with dread, for God is present among the generation of the righteous.

6 You evildoers frustrate the plans of the poor,
but the LORD is their refuge.

The Hope of God's Salvation

7 Oh, that salvation for Israel would come out of Zion!

When the LORD restores His people, let Jacob rejoice, and Israel be glad!

Key Lessons from Psalm 14

1. Atheism Is Not Just Intellectual—It's Moral

Scripture says that denying God springs from corruption, not just lack of evidence.

↳ "The fool says in his heart, 'There is no God.'" (v. 1)

2. God Sees and Judges All Humanity

His gaze searches for those who truly understand and seek Him.

↳ "The LORD looks down from heaven..." (v. 2)

3. Sin Is Universal

Apart from God's grace, no one is righteous.

↳ "There is no one who does good, no, not one." (v. 3)

4. The Wicked Oppress God's People Without Fear

But the presence of God with the righteous will ultimately bring them dread.

↳ "God is present among the generation of the righteous." (v. 5)

5. God's Salvation Will Bring Joy

The day He delivers His people will be a day of great rejoicing.

↳ "When the LORD restores His people, Jacob shall rejoice..." (v. 7)

Psalm 15 – Crawford Standard Bible

"The Character of Those Who May Dwell with God"

The Question of Fellowship with God

1 LORD, who may dwell in Your tabernacle?

Who may live on Your holy hill?

The Answer: A Life of Integrity

2 The one who walks uprightly, who works righteousness,
and speaks the truth from the heart;

3 who does not slander with the tongue,
does no harm to a neighbor,
and does not cast reproach upon a friend;

4 who despises a vile person,
but honors those who fear the LORD;
who keeps an oath even when it hurts,
and does not change;

5 who lends money without charging interest,
and refuses to take a bribe against the innocent.

The Promise

Whoever does these things will never be shaken.

Key Lessons from Psalm 15

1. God's Presence Is for the Righteous

Fellowship with Him is not for the casual believer, but for those who walk in holiness.

↳ "Who may dwell in Your tabernacle?" (v. 1)

2. Integrity Is Both Action and Speech

Living uprightly means doing what is right and speaking truth from the heart.

↳ "Works righteousness and speaks the truth in his heart." (v. 2)

3. Love for Others Is Evidence of Righteousness

Refusing to slander, harm, or take advantage of others is central to godly character.

↳ "Does no harm to a neighbor." (v. 3)

4. Godly People Keep Their Word

True righteousness keeps promises even when it costs something.

↳ "Keeps an oath even when it hurts." (v. 4)

5. Unshakable Stability Comes from Holiness

Those who live this way stand firm, no matter the storm.

↳ "Shall never be moved." (v. 5)

Psalm 16 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord, My Portion and My Hope”

Trust in God Alone

1 Preserve me, O God,
for I take refuge in You.

2 I said to the LORD, “You are my Lord;
my goodness is nothing apart from You.

3 My delight is in the saints who are in the land,
the noble ones in whom I take pleasure.

4 Those who run after other gods will have many sorrows;
I will not pour out their drink offerings of blood,
nor speak their names with my lips.

God Is My Inheritance

5 LORD, You are the portion of my inheritance and my cup;
You maintain my lot.

6 The boundary lines have fallen for me in pleasant places;
indeed, I have a beautiful inheritance.

The Lord My Guide and Strength

7 I will bless the LORD who counsels me;
even at night my heart instructs me.

8 I have set the LORD always before me;
because He is at my right hand, I will not be shaken.

Unshakable Joy and Eternal Hope

9 Therefore my heart is glad, and my whole being rejoices;
my body also will rest secure.

10 For You will not abandon my soul to Sheol, nor allow Your Holy One to see decay.

11 You will make known to me the path of life;
in Your presence is fullness of joy;
at Your right hand are pleasures forevermore.

Key Lessons from Psalm 16

1. God Is Our Only Safe Refuge

True security comes from trusting in Him alone.

↳ “Preserve me, O God, for I take refuge in You.” (v. 1)

2. Our Inheritance Is Spiritual, Not Material

The Lord Himself is our portion and our cup.

↳ “You are the portion of my inheritance.” (v. 5)

3. God’s Guidance Brings Stability

Setting the Lord always before us keeps us from being shaken.

↳ “Because He is at my right hand, I will not be moved.” (v. 8)

4. Christ Is the Fulfillment of This Psalm

Verse 10 prophetically points to Jesus’ resurrection, as Peter preached in Acts 2:25–32.

5. Eternal Joy Is Found in God’s Presence

Life’s true satisfaction is not in earthly pleasures but in being with Him forever.

↳ “In Your presence is fullness of joy.” (v. 11)

Psalm 17 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Prayer for God’s Protection and Justice”

A Call for God’s Attention

1 Hear my righteous plea, O LORD;
listen to my cry.

Give ear to my prayer—

it does not come from deceitful lips.

2 Let my vindication come from You;
may Your eyes see what is right.

A Tested Heart

3 You have examined my heart;
You have visited me in the night;

You have tested me and found nothing;
I have resolved that my mouth will not sin.

4 By the words of Your lips
I have kept myself from the paths of the violent.

5 My steps have held to Your paths;
my feet have not slipped.

A Plea for Deliverance

6 I call on You, O God, for You will answer me;
turn Your ear to me and hear my prayer.

7 Show me the wonders of Your faithful love,
You who save by Your right hand
those who take refuge in You from their foes.

8 Keep me as the apple of Your eye;
hide me in the shadow of Your wings

9 from the wicked who attack me, from my mortal enemies who surround me.

The Threat of the Wicked

10 They close their hearts to compassion;
with their mouths they speak arrogantly.

11 They have tracked me down, now they surround me;
their eyes are set to throw me to the ground,

12 like a lion eager to tear its prey,
like a young lion lurking in secret places.

God, Arise in Judgment

13 Rise up, LORD, confront them, bring them down;
rescue me from the wicked by Your sword.

14 Rescue me from mortals by Your hand, O LORD, from people whose portion is in this life.
You fill their bellies with what You have stored up;
their children are satisfied,
and they leave their surplus to their little ones.

Hope in God's Presence

15 As for me, I will see Your face in righteousness;
when I awake, I will be satisfied with Your likeness.

Key Lessons from Psalm 17

1. God Hears the Honest Prayer

A sincere, truth-filled prayer draws God's attention.

↳ "My prayer... does not come from deceitful lips." (v. 1)

2. A Life Guarded by God's Word Stays on the Right Path

Scripture keeps us from straying into the way of the violent.

↳ "By the words of Your lips I have kept myself from the paths of the violent." (v. 4)

3. God's Love Protects Like a Shield

His care is as personal as protecting the apple of His eye.

↳ "Hide me in the shadow of Your wings." (v. 8)

4. The Wicked Seek Earthly Gain, the Righteous Seek God's Face

Those of the world live for this life alone, but the righteous long for God's presence.

↳ "When I awake, I will be satisfied with Your likeness." (v. 15)

Psalm 18 – Crawford Standard Bible

"The LORD My Rock, Fortress, and Deliverer"

A Declaration of Love and Trust

1 I love You, O LORD, my strength.

2 The LORD is my rock, my fortress, and my deliverer;
my God, my strength, in whom I trust;
my shield, the horn of my salvation, and my stronghold.

3 I call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised,
and I am saved from my enemies.

God's Rescue in Distress

4 The cords of death entangled me;
the torrents of destruction overwhelmed me.

5 The cords of the grave surrounded me;
the snares of death confronted me.

6 In my distress I called to the LORD;
I cried to my God for help.
From His temple He heard my voice;
my cry came before Him, into His ears.

The LORD Comes in Power

7 Then the earth shook and trembled;
the foundations of the mountains quaked and were shaken,
because He was angry.

8 Smoke rose from His nostrils;
consuming fire came from His mouth;
burning coals blazed out of it.

9 He parted the heavens and came down;
dark clouds were under His feet.

10 He mounted a cherub and flew;
He soared on the wings of the wind.

11 He made darkness His covering—His canopy around Him—
dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.

12 From the brightness of His presence, clouds passed with hailstones and burning coals.

13 The LORD thundered from heaven;
the Most High raised His voice—hailstones and burning coals.

14 He shot His arrows and scattered the enemy;
He hurled lightning and routed them.

15 The valleys of the sea were exposed, and the foundations of the earth laid bare
at Your rebuke, O LORD,
at the blast of breath from Your nostrils.

The LORD Delivers His Servant

16 He reached down from on high and took hold of me;
He drew me out of deep waters.

17 He rescued me from my powerful enemy,
from my foes, who were too strong for me.

18 They confronted me in my day of disaster,
but the LORD was my support.

19 He brought me out into a spacious place;
He rescued me because He delighted in me.

The LORD Rewards the Righteous

20 The LORD has dealt with me according to my righteousness;
according to the cleanness of my hands He has rewarded me.

21 For I have kept the ways of the LORD and have not turned wickedly from my God.

22 All His laws are before me;
I have not turned away from His decrees.

23 I have been blameless before Him and have kept myself from sin.

24 The LORD has rewarded me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in His sight.

God's Character Toward Men

25 To the faithful You show Yourself faithful;
to the blameless You show Yourself blameless.

26 To the pure You show Yourself pure;
but to the crooked You show Yourself shrewd.

27 You save the humble,
but bring low those whose eyes are haughty.

Strength for the Battle

28 You, LORD, keep my lamp burning;
my God turns my darkness into light.

29 With Your help I can advance against a troop;
with my God I can scale a wall.

30 As for God, His way is perfect;
the word of the LORD is flawless;
He is a shield to all who take refuge in Him.

31 For who is God besides the LORD?
And who is the Rock except our God?

32 It is God who arms me with strength and makes my way perfect.

33 He makes my feet like the feet of a deer;
He causes me to stand on the heights.

34 He trains my hands for battle;
my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

35 You give me the shield of Your salvation;
Your right hand upholds me;
Your gentleness makes me great.

36 You provide a broad path for my feet,
so that my ankles do not give way.

Victory Over Enemies

37 I pursued my enemies and overtook them;
I did not turn back till they were destroyed.

38 I crushed them so they could not rise;
they fell beneath my feet.

39 You armed me with strength for battle;
You humbled my adversaries before me.

40 You made my enemies turn their backs in flight, and I destroyed those who hated me.

41 They cried for help, but there was no one to save them—to the LORD, but He did not answer.

42 I beat them as fine as dust before the wind;
I poured them out like dirt in the streets.

Exalted Among the Nations

43 You have delivered me from the attacks of the people;
You have made me the head of nations.
People I did not know now serve me.

44 As soon as they hear of me, they obey me;
foreigners cower before me.

45 They all lose heart;
they come trembling from their strongholds.

46 The LORD lives! Praise be to my Rock!
Exalted be God my Savior!

47 He is the God who avenges me,
who subdues nations under me,

48 who saves me from my enemies.
You exalted me above my foes;
from a violent man You rescued me.

49 Therefore I will praise You among the nations, O LORD;
I will sing praises to Your name.

50 He gives His king great victories;
He shows unfailing love to His anointed, to David and to his descendants forever.

Key Lessons from Psalm 18

1. God is a Personal Refuge

David's relationship with God is deeply personal—He is my rock, my fortress, my deliverer.

2. God Responds Powerfully to the Cry of His People

When the righteous cry out, God moves heaven and earth to deliver.

3. God Rewards Faithfulness

A life lived in obedience to His commands brings His favor and blessing.

4. God Equips for the Battle

He provides strength, skill, and victory for every challenge faced in His name.

5. The LORD is Exalted Above All Nations

His reign extends over all people, and His name will be praised among the nations.

Psalm 19 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God’s Glory in Creation and His Perfect Word”

Creation Declares God’s Glory

1 The heavens declare the glory of God;
the skies proclaim the work of His hands.

2 Day after day they pour forth speech;
night after night they reveal knowledge.

3 There is no speech, no language, where their voice is not heard.

4 Their message has gone out into all the earth,
their words to the ends of the world.
In the heavens He has pitched a tent for the sun,

5 which is like a bridegroom coming from his chamber,
like a champion rejoicing to run his course.

6 It rises at one end of the heavens and makes its circuit to the other;
nothing is hidden from its heat.

The Perfection of God’s Word

7 The law of the LORD is perfect, reviving the soul.
The testimony of the LORD is trustworthy, making wise the simple.

8 The statutes of the LORD are right, giving joy to the heart.
The command of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes.

9 The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring forever.
The judgments of the LORD are true and altogether righteous.

10 They are more desirable than gold,
than much pure gold;
they are sweeter than honey,
than honey from the honeycomb.

11 By them Your servant is warned;
in keeping them there is great reward.

A Prayer for Purity and Integrity

12 Who can discern his own errors?

Forgive my hidden faults.

13 Keep Your servant also from willful sins;

let them not rule over me.

Then I will be blameless, innocent of great transgression.

14 May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart

be acceptable to You,

O LORD, my Rock and my Redeemer.

Key Lessons from Psalm 19

1. Creation Testifies of God's Glory

The heavens and the natural order continually proclaim the greatness of the Creator to all nations.

2. God's Word is Perfect and Transforming

His law revives the soul, imparts wisdom, and brings joy and light to the believer's life.

3. God's Judgments are Pure and Desirable

His truth is more valuable than gold and sweeter than honey—true riches are found in knowing and obeying Him.

4. Obedience Brings Blessing

Following God's commands protects us from sin and carries great reward.

5. Personal Holiness Requires God's Help

Even hidden faults and willful sins must be brought before God for cleansing, so our words and thoughts please Him.

Psalm 20 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord Gives Victory to His Anointed”

Prayer for God's Help in Trouble

1 May the LORD answer you in the day of trouble;

may the name of the God of Jacob protect you.

2 May He send you help from the sanctuary and strengthen you from Zion.

3 May He remember all your offerings and accept your burnt sacrifices. Selah

Petition for Success and Rejoicing

4 May He grant you the desires of your heart and fulfill all your plans.

5 We will shout for joy over your salvation, and in the name of our God we will lift up our banners.
May the LORD fulfill all your requests.

Confidence in God's Deliverance

6 Now I know that the LORD saves His anointed;
He answers him from His holy heaven with the saving power of His right hand.

7 Some trust in chariots and some in horses, but we trust in the name of the LORD our God.

8 They collapse and fall,
but we rise and stand firm.

9 O LORD, save the king!
Answer us when we call.

Key Lessons from Psalm 20

1. God Hears His People in Trouble

In our distress, we can cry out to the God of Jacob, knowing He defends and strengthens His own.

2. God Delights to Bless the Righteous

He remembers the worship and offerings of His people and grants success according to His will.

3. True Victory Comes from the Lord

Earthly power—chariots, horses, or human strength—cannot save. Only trust in God ensures lasting triumph.

4. Faith Gives Confidence

Believers can stand upright even when others fall, because our confidence is in God's name and power.

Psalm 21 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Praise for God's Strength and Justice”

The King Rejoices in God's Salvation

1 The king rejoices in Your strength, O LORD;
how greatly he celebrates Your salvation!

2 You have given him his heart's desire and have not withheld the request of his lips. Selah

3 You have met him with rich blessings;
You placed a crown of pure gold on his head.

4 He asked You for life, and You gave it to him—
length of days, forever and ever.

5 His glory is great because of Your salvation;
You have clothed him with honor and majesty.

6 You have made him most blessed forever;
You have made him exceedingly glad with Your presence.

7 For the king trusts in the LORD;
through the unfailing love of the Most High, he will not be shaken.

God's Judgment on His Enemies

8 Your hand will find out all Your enemies;
Your right hand will seize those who hate You.

9 You will make them like a blazing furnace when You appear in Your anger.
The LORD will swallow them up in His wrath,
and fire will consume them.

10 You will wipe out their descendants from the earth, their offspring from among the children of men.

11 Though they intended evil against You and devised a plan, they could not succeed.

12 For You will make them turn and flee
when You aim Your arrows at their faces.

Exalting the Lord's Power

13 Be exalted, O LORD, in Your strength;
we will sing and praise Your power.

Key Lessons from Psalm 21

1. God Answers the Desires of the Righteous

The Lord grants the requests of those who trust in Him, blessing them beyond what they could achieve themselves.

2. True Security Comes from God's Love

The king's stability comes not from armies or riches but from the unfailing love of the Most High.

3. God's Justice is Certain

The Lord will find out His enemies, thwart their plans, and bring their rebellion to nothing.

4. Praise Should Follow Victory

When God delivers and defends, His people should respond with songs that glorify His strength and power.

Psalm 22 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Suffering Messiah and the Coming Glory”

The Cry of Abandonment

1 My God, my God, why have You forsaken me?

Why are You so far from saving me,
from the words of my groaning?

2 My God, I cry out by day, but You do not answer, and by night, but I find no rest.

3 Yet You are holy,
enthroned on the praises of Israel.

4 Our fathers trusted in You;
they trusted, and You delivered them.

5 They cried out to You and were saved;
they trusted in You and were not put to shame.

The Scorn of Men

6 But I am a worm and not a man,
scorned by everyone, despised by the people.

7 All who see me mock me;
they sneer and shake their heads, saying,

8 “He trusts in the LORD; let Him deliver him;
let the LORD rescue him, since He delights in him.”

9 Yet You brought me out of the womb;
You made me trust in You even at my mother’s breast.

10 From birth I was cast on You;
from my mother’s womb You have been my God.

11 Do not be far from me,
for trouble is near and there is no one to help.

The Encircling Enemies

12 Many bulls surround me;
strong bulls of Bashan encircle me.

13 They open their mouths against me, like a ravenous and roaring lion.

14 I am poured out like water,
and all my bones are out of joint.
My heart has turned to wax;
it has melted within me.

15 My strength is dried up like baked clay,
and my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth;
You lay me in the dust of death.

16 Dogs surround me;
a band of evildoers encircles me;
they have pierced my hands and my feet.

17 I can count all my bones;
people stare and gloat over me.

18 They divide my garments among them and cast lots for my clothing.

The Plea for Deliverance

19 But You, O LORD, do not be far off;
O my strength, come quickly to help me.

20 Deliver my soul from the sword,
my precious life from the power of the dogs.

21 Save me from the lion's mouth;
You have rescued me from the horns of the wild oxen.

The Declaration of Praise

22 I will declare Your name to my brothers;
in the assembly I will praise You.

23 You who fear the LORD, praise Him!
All you descendants of Jacob, honor Him!
Revere Him, all you descendants of Israel!

24 For He has not despised or scorned
the suffering of the afflicted one;
He has not hidden His face from him,
but has listened to his cry for help.

25 From You comes my praise in the great assembly;
I will fulfill my vows before those who fear You.

26 The poor will eat and be satisfied;
those who seek the LORD will praise Him—
may your hearts live forever!

The Universal Reign of God

27 All the ends of the earth will remember and turn to the LORD, and all the families of the nations will bow down before Him,

28 for the kingdom belongs to the LORD,
and He rules over the nations.

29 All the rich of the earth will feast and worship;
all who go down to the dust will kneel before Him—
those who cannot keep themselves alive.

30 Posterity will serve Him;
future generations will be told about the Lord.

31 They will proclaim His righteousness, declaring to a people yet unborn:
He has done it!

Key Lessons from Psalm 22

1. Jesus Fulfilled This Prophecy

This psalm is a detailed picture of the crucifixion, written a thousand years before it happened.

2. God’s Silence Is Not His Absence

Even when God seems far away, He is still accomplishing His purposes.

3. Mockery Cannot Undo God’s Plan

Human scorn does not stop God’s salvation from being revealed.

4. Suffering Leads to Glory

The Messiah’s suffering results in worldwide worship and the eternal reign of the Lord.

5. The Message Must Continue

Each generation is responsible to declare God’s righteousness to the next.

Psalm 23 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Shepherd’s Care”

The Lord, My Shepherd

1 The LORD is my shepherd; I will not lack anything.

2 He makes me lie down in green pastures;
He leads me beside quiet waters.

3 He restores my soul;
He guides me along right paths for the sake of His name.

God's Presence in the Valley

4 Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil, for You are with me;
Your rod and Your staff—they comfort me.

Abundant Blessings in the Midst of Trouble

5 You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

The Promise of Eternal Fellowship

6 Surely goodness and mercy will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Key Lessons from Psalm 23

1. God Provides for Every Need

When the Lord is your Shepherd, you will never lack what is truly necessary for life and godliness.

2. God Brings Peace and Restoration

He not only leads us to provision but restores our inner life when we are weary or broken.

3. God's Presence Removes Fear

His constant companionship gives courage, even in life's darkest valleys.

4. God Blesses in the Midst of Conflict

He can give joy, honor, and abundance even when surrounded by opposition.

5. God's Goodness and Mercy Are Lifelong

His faithful love does not end at death—it continues into eternal fellowship with Him.

Psalm 24 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The King of Glory”

God Owns the Whole Earth

1 The earth is the LORD's, and everything in it—
the world and all who live in it.

2 For He laid its foundations upon the seas and established it upon the waters.

Who May Stand Before God

3 Who may ascend the hill of the LORD?
Who may stand in His holy place?

4 The one who has clean hands and a pure heart, who does not lift up his soul to idols or swear deceitfully.

5 He will receive blessing from the LORD and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

6 This is the generation of those who seek Him, who seek Your face, O God of Jacob. Selah.

The King of Glory Enters

7 Lift up your heads, O gates!
Be lifted up, you everlasting doors,
and the King of Glory will come in.

8 Who is this King of Glory?
The LORD, strong and mighty,
the LORD, mighty in battle.

9 Lift up your heads, O gates!
Lift them up, you everlasting doors,
and the King of Glory will come in.

10 Who is this King of Glory?
The LORD of hosts—
He is the King of Glory. Selah.

Key Lessons from Psalm 24

1. God Is the Creator and Owner of All

The earth and everyone in it belong to Him, so all life is accountable to His authority.

2. Holiness Is Required to Approach God

Pure actions, a clean heart, and truthful speech are essential for those who would stand in His presence.

3. Seeking God Brings Blessing

Those who earnestly seek His face receive His favor and righteousness.

4. Christ Is the King of Glory

The psalm prophetically points to Jesus, the victorious Lord, entering His kingdom in triumph.

Psalm 25 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Prayer for Guidance and Deliverance”

Trust in God Alone

1 To You, O LORD, I lift up my soul.

2 My God, I trust in You;
do not let me be put to shame,
nor let my enemies triumph over me.

3 Indeed, none who wait for You will be put to shame;
but shame will come to those who are treacherous without cause.

Teach Me Your Ways

4 Show me Your ways, O LORD;
teach me Your paths.

5 Lead me in Your truth and teach me,
for You are the God of my salvation;
I wait for You all day long.

6 Remember, O LORD, Your tender mercies and Your faithful love,
for they have existed from of old.

7 Do not remember the sins of my youth or my transgressions;
in keeping with Your mercy, remember me for the sake of Your goodness, O LORD.

The LORD Guides the Humble

8 Good and upright is the LORD;
therefore He teaches sinners the way.

9 He guides the humble in what is right and teaches the humble His way.

10 All the paths of the LORD are mercy and truth to those who keep His covenant and His testimonies.

11 For the sake of Your name, O LORD, pardon my iniquity, for it is great.

Blessings for Those Who Fear the LORD

12 Who is the one who fears the LORD?
He will instruct him in the way he should choose.

13 His soul will dwell in prosperity,
and his descendants will inherit the land.

14 The LORD confides in those who fear Him;
He makes His covenant known to them.

15 My eyes are ever on the LORD,
for He will free my feet from the net.

A Plea for Mercy and Rescue

16 Turn to me and be gracious to me,
for I am lonely and afflicted.

17 The troubles of my heart have multiplied;
bring me out of my distresses.

18 Look upon my affliction and my pain,
and forgive all my sins.

19 Consider my enemies, for they are many,
and they hate me with cruel hatred.

20 Guard my soul and deliver me;
let me not be put to shame,
for I take refuge in You.

21 May integrity and uprightness preserve me,
for I wait for You.

22 Redeem Israel, O God,
from all his troubles.

Key Lessons from Psalm 25

1. Trust and Waiting Go Together – God’s deliverance comes to those who patiently trust Him without turning to deceit.
2. God’s Guidance Requires Humility – The LORD teaches and leads those who come to Him with a meek heart.
3. Mercy Covers Our Past – Our youthful sins and past failures can be forgiven because of God’s covenant love.
4. The Fear of the LORD Brings Blessing – Those who revere God enjoy His instruction, peace, and lasting inheritance.
5. Prayer Should Be Both Personal and Corporate – We pray not only for our own deliverance, but also for the redemption of God’s people.

Psalm 26 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Plea for Vindication and Integrity”

A Request for God’s Judgment

1 Judge me, O LORD, for I have walked in my integrity;
I have also trusted in the LORD without wavering.

2 Examine me, O LORD, and test me;
try my heart and my mind.

3 For Your faithful love is before my eyes, and I have walked in Your truth.

Separation from the Wicked

4 I have not sat with the deceitful, nor will I associate with hypocrites.

5 I have hated the assembly of evildoers, and I will not sit with the wicked.

Worship in Purity

6 I will wash my hands in innocence, and I will go around Your altar, O LORD,

7 proclaiming with the voice of thanksgiving and telling of all Your wondrous works.

8 LORD, I love the house where You dwell,
the place where Your glory resides.

A Plea for Redemption

9 Do not sweep away my soul with sinners, nor my life with bloodthirsty men,

10 in whose hands are wicked schemes,
and whose right hand is full of bribes.

11 But as for me, I will walk in my integrity;
redeem me and be gracious to me.

12 My foot stands on level ground;
in the assemblies I will bless the LORD.

Key Lessons from Psalm 26

1. Integrity Invites God's Examination – A pure heart can confidently stand before the LORD, even when tested.
2. Separation from Evil Is Necessary for Holiness – God's people must avoid close fellowship with the deceitful and corrupt.
3. Worship Requires Purity – Approaching God's altar with innocence and thanksgiving reflects a heart ready for His presence.
4. Love for God's House Is a Sign of Devotion – Genuine faith treasures the gathering place of God's glory.
5. Redemption Is Coupled with Righteous Living – God's mercy works hand in hand with a life committed to integrity.

Psalm 27 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The LORD, My Light and My Salvation”

Confidence in God's Protection

1 The LORD is my light and my salvation—whom shall I fear?
The LORD is the strength of my life—of whom shall I be afraid?

2 When the wicked advance against me to devour me,
it is my enemies and foes who stumble and fall.

3 Though an army encamps against me, my heart will not fear;
though war breaks out against me, even then I will be confident.

A Single Desire

4 One thing I have asked from the LORD—this is what I seek:
that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to gaze upon the beauty of the LORD and to seek Him in His temple.

5 For in the day of trouble He will hide me in His shelter;
in the secret place of His tent He will hide me;
He will set me high upon a rock.

6 Now my head will be lifted up above my enemies around me;
therefore I will offer sacrifices of joy in His tent;
I will sing and make music to the LORD.

A Cry for God's Presence

7 Hear me, O LORD, when I cry aloud;
have mercy on me and answer me.

8 My heart says of You, "Seek His face!"
Your face, LORD, I will seek.

9 Do not hide Your face from me;
do not turn Your servant away in anger.
You have been my helper;
do not abandon or forsake me,
O God of my salvation.

10 Though my father and mother forsake me,
the LORD will take me in.

A Prayer for Guidance and Deliverance

11 Teach me Your way, O LORD, and lead me in a straight path because of my enemies.

12 Do not hand me over to the will of my foes, for false witnesses have risen against me,
breathing out violence.

Faith While Waiting

13 I would have lost heart, if I had not believed that I would see the goodness of the LORD
in the land of the living.

14 Wait for the LORD;
be strong and let your heart take courage;
wait for the LORD.

Key Lessons from Psalm 27

1. God's Presence Dispels Fear – When the LORD is our light, salvation, and strength, no enemy can intimidate us.
2. A Focused Heart Finds Peace – Seeking God's presence above all else brings lasting joy and security.
3. God Is a Shelter in Trouble – He hides and lifts His people above their enemies.
4. Faith Requires Persistent Seeking – Even when God feels distant, we must still pursue His face.
5. God's Care Surpasses Human Abandonment – Even if family fails, the LORD never forsakes His own.
6. Hope Sustains Through Waiting – Courage and strength grow when we trust God's timing.

Psalm 28 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The LORD, My Strength and My Shield”

A Plea for God's Response

1 To You, O LORD, I call; my Rock, do not be silent toward me.
If You remain silent, I will be like those who go down to the grave.

2 Hear the voice of my cry for mercy when I call to You for help, when I lift up my hands toward Your holy sanctuary.

A Prayer for Justice

3 Do not drag me away with the wicked, with those who do evil,
who speak peace with their neighbors
while evil fills their hearts.

4 Repay them according to their deeds and according to the evil of their actions.
Give them what their hands have earned;
render to them what they deserve.

5 Because they do not regard the works of the LORD or the actions of His hands,
He will tear them down and never rebuild them.

Praise for God's Deliverance

6 Blessed be the LORD,
for He has heard the voice of my supplications.

7 The LORD is my strength and my shield;
my heart trusts in Him, and I am helped.
Therefore my heart greatly rejoices,
and with my song I will praise Him.

A Prayer for God's People

8 The LORD is the strength of His people;
He is the saving refuge of His anointed.

9 Save Your people and bless Your inheritance;
shepherd them and carry them forever.

Key Lessons from Psalm 28

- 1. God's Silence Feels Like Death – Without His voice, the soul sinks into despair.
- 2. Prayer Must Be Honest and Direct – Lifting our hands toward God's sanctuary reflects dependence and surrender.
- 3. God Judges Hidden Hypocrisy – He sees beyond words to the true condition of the heart.
- 4. Ignoring God's Works Leads to Ruin – Those who disregard His hand will face destruction.

5. Trust Brings Joy – Faith in God’s protection produces both help and heartfelt praise.
6. God is the Strength of His People – He both saves and continually carries His flock.

Psalm 29 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Voice of the LORD in the Storm”

A Call to Worship the LORD

1 Give to the LORD, you heavenly beings,
give to the LORD glory and strength.

2 Give to the LORD the glory due His name;
worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.

The LORD’s Voice in Power

3 The voice of the LORD echoes over the waters;
the God of glory thunders—
the LORD thunders over the mighty waters.

4 The voice of the LORD is powerful;
the voice of the LORD is majestic.

5 The voice of the LORD breaks the cedars;
the LORD shatters the cedars of Lebanon.

6 He makes Lebanon skip like a young calf, and Mount Sirion like a young wild ox.

7 The voice of the LORD strikes with flashes of lightning.

8 The voice of the LORD shakes the wilderness;
the LORD shakes the Wilderness of Kadesh.

9 The voice of the LORD makes the deer give birth and strips the forests bare.
And in His temple everyone shouts, “Glory!”

The LORD’s Eternal Reign

10 The LORD sits enthroned over the flood;
the LORD is King forever.

11 The LORD gives strength to His people;
the LORD blesses His people with peace.

Key Lessons from Psalm 29

- Worship Belongs to God Alone – We must give Him the honor due His name.
- God’s Voice Holds Power – His word can shake creation, command storms, and alter the natural world.

- The LORD Rules Over Nature – Even the mightiest elements bow to His authority.
- God’s Glory Is Revealed in the Storm – His majesty shines through creation’s power and beauty.
- God Reigns Forever – His rule is unshaken by any force.
- God Gives Strength and Peace – His people are both empowered and comforted by His presence.

Psalm 30 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Joy Comes in the Morning”

Praise for God’s Rescue

1 I will praise You, LORD, for You lifted me up and did not let my enemies rejoice over me.

2 LORD my God, I cried out to You for help, and You healed me.

3 LORD, You brought me up from the grave;
You kept me alive so I would not go down into the pit.

A Call to Thankfulness

4 Sing to the LORD, you who belong to Him;
give thanks as you remember His holiness.

5 His anger lasts only for a moment,
but His favor lasts a lifetime.

Weeping may stay for the night,
but joy comes in the morning.

A Lesson in Humility

6 When I was secure, I said,
“I will never be shaken.”

7 LORD, by Your favor You made my mountain stand strong;
but when You hid Your face, I was troubled.

A Cry for Mercy

8 I cried to You, LORD;
I begged my Lord for help:

9 “What gain is there if I am dead,
if I go down to the grave?
Will the dust praise You?
Will it proclaim Your truth?”

10 Hear me, LORD, and have mercy on me;
LORD, be my helper.

From Mourning to Dancing

11 You turned my mourning into dancing;
You removed my sackcloth
and clothed me with joy,

12 so that my heart may sing praises to You and not be silent.

LORD my God, I will give You thanks forever.

Key Lessons from Psalm 30

- God Rescues the Humble – When we cry out to Him, He lifts us from trouble.
- God’s Anger Is Temporary, but His Favor Lasts Forever – His discipline is brief compared to His enduring kindness.
- Joy Always Follows the Night of Weeping – Sorrow may linger, but God’s joy will come.
- Security Can Lead to Pride – We must remember our strength comes from God alone.
- God Can Turn Mourning into Dancing – He transforms grief into joy and silence into praise.
- Gratitude Should Be Lifelong – Our thanks to God should never end.

Psalm 31 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Into Your Hands I Commit My Spirit”

A Plea for Deliverance

1 In You, LORD, I take refuge;
let me never be put to shame.
Deliver me in Your righteousness.

2 Turn Your ear to me;
come quickly to rescue me.
Be my strong rock,
a fortress to save me.

3 For You are my rock and my fortress;
for the sake of Your name, lead and guide me.

4 Free me from the trap they have hidden for me,
for You are my strength.

5 Into Your hand I commit my spirit;
You have redeemed me,
LORD, God of truth.

Trust in God's Mercy

6 I hate those who cling to worthless idols,
but I trust in the LORD.

7 I will be glad and rejoice in Your mercy, for You have seen my affliction and known the troubles of my soul.

8 You have not handed me over to the enemy
but have set my feet in a spacious place.

A Cry from Deep Distress

9 Have mercy on me, LORD, for I am in distress;
my eyes are worn out from grief,
my soul and my body also.

10 My life is consumed with sorrow,
and my years with sighing;
my strength fails because of my sin,
and my bones are wasting away.

11 I am scorned by all my enemies, especially by my neighbors—
I am dreaded by my acquaintances;
those who see me in the street run from me.

12 I am forgotten like one who is dead;
I have become like broken pottery.

13 I have heard the slander of many;
terror is on every side;
they conspire against me
and plot to take my life.

Confidence in God's Care

14 But I trust in You, LORD;
I say, "You are my God."

15 My times are in Your hand;
deliver me from the hands of my enemies and from those who pursue me.

16 Make Your face shine on Your servant;
save me in Your unfailing love.

17 Do not let me be put to shame, LORD, for I call on You.
Let the wicked be put to shame and be silent in the grave.

18 Silence their lying lips—those who speak arrogantly and with contempt against the righteous.

The Goodness of God

19 How great is Your goodness, which You have stored up for those who fear You, which You bestow in the sight of all who take refuge in You.

20 You hide them in the shelter of Your presence
from the schemes of men;
You keep them safe in Your dwelling from accusing tongues.

21 Blessed be the LORD,
for He has shown me His marvelous kindness in a fortified city.

22 In my alarm I said,
“I am cut off from Your sight!”
But You heard my cry for mercy when I called to You for help.

A Call to Courage and Love

23 Love the LORD, all His saints!
The LORD preserves the faithful
but fully repays the proud.

24 Be strong, and let your heart take courage, all you who hope in the LORD.

Key Lessons from Psalm 31

- God Is a Refuge and Fortress – We can trust Him to be our unshakable defense.
- Surrender Brings Freedom – Committing our spirit to God releases our burdens.
- God Sees Our Distress – He knows our troubles and cares deeply for our pain.
- Even the Faithful Face Seasons of Despair – But God’s mercy restores hope.
- The Lord Protects the Righteous – He shelters them from lies, slander, and harm.
- Our Times Are in His Hands – He alone determines our destiny and deliverance.
- Loving the Lord Brings Strength – Devotion to Him fuels courage and endurance.

Psalm 32 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Blessing of Forgiveness”

The Joy of Being Forgiven

1 Blessed is the one whose transgressions are forgiven, whose sins are covered.

2 Blessed is the one to whom the LORD does not count iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no deceit.

The Burden of Hidden Sin

3 When I kept silent, my bones grew weak through my groaning all day long.

4 Day and night Your hand was heavy on me;
my strength was drained
as in the heat of summer. Selah

The Freedom of Confession

5 Then I acknowledged my sin to You and did not hide my iniquity.
I said, “I will confess my transgressions to the LORD,”
and You forgave the guilt of my sin. Selah

The Safety of God’s Presence

6 Therefore let everyone who is godly pray to You while You may be found;
surely the rising of mighty waters will not reach them.

7 You are my hiding place;
You will protect me from trouble and surround me with songs of deliverance. Selah

God’s Promise to Guide

8 “I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go;
I will counsel you with My loving eye on you.

9 Do not be like the horse or the mule, which have no understanding and must be controlled by bit and bridle, or they will not come near you.”

The Reward of Trust

10 Many are the sorrows of the wicked, but the LORD’s unfailing love surrounds the one who trusts in Him.

11 Be glad in the LORD and rejoice, you righteous;
shout for joy, all you who are upright in heart.

Key Lessons from Psalm 32

- Forgiveness Brings True Happiness – Real joy comes when sins are forgiven and guilt is removed.
- Hidden Sin Brings Suffering – Concealing sin wears down the body, mind, and spirit.
- Confession Opens the Door to Mercy – God is ready to forgive when we humbly admit our wrongdoing.
- Seek God While He May Be Found – There is safety and protection in coming to Him now.
- God Is Our Hiding Place – His presence surrounds us with deliverance and peace.
- We Must Be Teachable – The wise follow God’s guidance instead of resisting like an untrained animal.
- Trust in God Leads to Joy – Those who rely on Him are surrounded by love and filled with gladness.

Psalm 33 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The LORD’s Word Stands Forever”

A Call to Praise

1 Rejoice in the LORD, you righteous;
praise is fitting for the upright.

2 Praise the LORD with the harp;
make music to Him on the ten-stringed lyre.

3 Sing to Him a new song;
play skillfully and shout for joy.

The LORD’s Righteous Word and Works

4 For the word of the LORD is right and true;
all His works are done in faithfulness.

5 He loves righteousness and justice;
the earth is full of the LORD’s unfailing love.

The LORD’s Power in Creation

6 By the word of the LORD the heavens were made, and by the breath of His mouth all their starry host.

7 He gathers the waters of the sea into a heap;
He stores the depths in storehouses.

8 Let all the earth fear the LORD;
let all the people of the world stand in awe of Him.

9 For He spoke, and it came to be;
He commanded, and it stood firm.

The LORD's Sovereign Plans

10 The LORD brings the plans of the nations to nothing;
He frustrates the schemes of the peoples.

11 But the plans of the LORD stand forever,
the purposes of His heart through all generations.

12 Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD,
the people He has chosen as His inheritance.

The LORD Sees All

13 The LORD looks down from heaven;
He sees all the children of man.

14 From His dwelling place He watches
all who live on earth.

15 He forms the hearts of them all;
He understands everything they do.

False Hopes in Human Strength

16 No king is saved by the size of his army;
no warrior escapes by his great strength.

17 A horse is a false hope for salvation;
its great strength cannot save.

The LORD's Care for His People

18 But the eye of the LORD is on those who fear Him, on those whose hope is in His unfailing love,

19 to deliver them from death and keep them alive in famine.

20 We wait in hope for the LORD;
He is our help and our shield.

21 In Him our hearts rejoice,
for we trust in His holy name.

22 Let Your unfailing love be with us, LORD, even as we put our hope in You.

Key Lessons from Psalm 33

- God Deserves Joyful Worship – Praise should be heartfelt, skillful, and full of joy.
- God’s Word Is Unfailing – His commands are righteous, trustworthy, and unchanging.
- Creation Reveals God’s Power – All things exist because He spoke them into being.
- God’s Plans Cannot Be Stopped – Nations may scheme, but only His purposes endure.
- Blessing Belongs to the Nation Who Honors God – God’s favor rests on those who follow Him.
- Human Strength Is an Empty Hope – True safety is never found in armies, weapons, or power.
- God Cares for Those Who Trust Him – His eye is on His people, delivering and sustaining them.

Psalm 34 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Taste and See That the LORD Is Good”

Praise for God’s Deliverance

1 I will bless the LORD at all times;
His praise will always be on my lips.

2 I will boast in the LORD;
the humble will hear and be glad.

3 Magnify the LORD with me;
let us exalt His name together.

God’s Rescue for the Faithful

4 I sought the LORD, and He answered me;
He delivered me from all my fears.

5 Those who look to Him are radiant;
their faces will never be ashamed.

6 This poor man cried, and the LORD heard him;
He saved him from all his troubles.

7 The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear Him, and He delivers them.

The Goodness of the LORD

8 Taste and see that the LORD is good;
blessed is the one who takes refuge in Him.

9 Fear the LORD, you His saints, for those who fear Him lack nothing.

10 Young lions grow weak and hungry, but those who seek the LORD
lack no good thing.

Instruction in Righteous Living

11 Come, children, listen to me;
I will teach you the fear of the LORD.

12 Who is the one who desires life and loves many days to see good?

13 Keep your tongue from evil and your lips from speaking deceit.

14 Turn away from evil and do good;
seek peace and pursue it.

The LORD's Care for His People

15 The eyes of the LORD are on the righteous, and His ears are open to their cry.

16 But the face of the LORD is against those who do evil, to cut off the memory of them from the earth.

17 The righteous cry out, and the LORD hears;
He delivers them from all their troubles.

18 The LORD is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.

19 Many are the afflictions of the righteous,
but the LORD delivers him from them all.

20 He protects all his bones;
not one of them will be broken.

21 Evil will slay the wicked, and those who hate the righteous will be condemned.

22 The LORD redeems the souls of His servants, and none who take refuge in Him will be condemned.

Key Lessons from Psalm 34

- Praise Should Be Continual – Worship is not reserved for special occasions but flows from a grateful heart daily.
- God Hears the Humble – Those who call on Him in sincerity will be delivered.
- God Protects the Righteous – His angels surround and guard those who fear Him.
- The LORD Provides for His People – Those who seek Him will lack no good thing.
- Righteous Living Is Active – We must turn from evil, do good, and actively seek peace.
- God Draws Near to the Brokenhearted – He saves those who are crushed in spirit.
- Deliverance Belongs to the LORD – He redeems and protects all who trust in Him.

Psalm 35 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The LORD, My Defender”

A Call for God’s Intervention

1 Plead my cause, LORD, with those who fight against me; fight against those who attack me.

2 Take up shield and buckler;
rise up to help me.

3 Draw the spear and block the way against those who pursue me.
Say to my soul, “I am your salvation.”

Prayer for the Defeat of Enemies

4 Let those who seek my life be disgraced and put to shame;
let those who plan to harm me
be turned back in confusion.

5 Let them be like chaff before the wind, with the angel of the LORD driving them away.

6 Let their path be dark and slippery,
with the angel of the LORD pursuing them.

7 Without cause they hid their net for me;
without cause they dug a pit for my life.

8 Let destruction come upon them suddenly;
let the net they hid catch themselves;
into that very destruction let them fall.

Praise for God's Salvation

9 Then my soul will rejoice in the LORD;
it will delight in His salvation.

10 All my bones will say,
“LORD, who is like You—rescuing the poor from the one too strong for them,
the poor and needy from the one who robs them?”

Betrayal and Slander

11 Ruthless witnesses come forward;
they accuse me of things I do not know.

12 They repay me evil for good,
leaving my soul in despair.

13 Yet when they were sick,
I wore sackcloth and humbled myself with fasting;
my prayers returned to me unanswered.

14 I acted toward them as though they were my friend or brother;
I bowed in grief as one who mourns for his mother.

15 But when I stumbled, they gathered in glee;
they gathered against me without my knowing it.
They slandered me without ceasing.

16 Like ungodly mockers at feasts, they gnashed their teeth at me.

A Plea for God to Act

17 LORD, how long will You look on?
Rescue my life from their destruction,
my precious life from the lions.

18 I will thank You in the great assembly;
I will praise You among the masses.

19 Do not let those who are my enemies without cause
gloat over me;
do not let those who hate me without reason wink in malice.

20 They do not speak peace,
but devise deceitful words
against those who live quietly in the land.

21 They open their mouths wide against me and say, “Aha! Aha! Our eyes have seen it!”

Confidence in God's Justice

22 You have seen this, LORD; do not be silent.
LORD, do not be far from me.

23 Awake, and rise to my defense,
to my cause, my God and my Lord.

24 Judge me according to Your righteousness, LORD my God;
do not let them gloat over me.

25 Do not let them think in their hearts, "Aha! Just what we wanted!"
Do not let them say, "We have swallowed him up."

26 Let those who rejoice at my trouble be put to shame and confusion;
let those who exalt themselves over me be clothed with shame and disgrace.

Vindication and Praise

27 Let those who favor my righteous cause shout for joy and be glad;
let them always say, "The LORD be magnified, who delights in the well-being of His servant."

28 My tongue will proclaim Your righteousness and Your praise all day long.

Key Lessons from Psalm 35

- God Is Our Defender – He fights for those who cannot fight for themselves.
- Injustice Calls for God's Justice – We can bring false accusations and betrayal before Him.
- Vengeance Belongs to the LORD – We do not repay evil but let God act in His time.
- Loyalty in Love, Even When Wronged – Showing kindness to enemies reflects God's heart, even if they betray us.
- God Sees Every Wrong Done to His People – He will act in righteousness to vindicate them.
- Praise Should Follow Deliverance – When God rescues us, our response should be continual thanksgiving.

Psalm 36 – Crawford Standard Bible

"The Precious Love of God"

The Nature of the Wicked

1 I see in my heart this message about the wicked:
there is no fear of God before their eyes.

2 In their own eyes they flatter themselves too much to detect or hate their sin.

3 The words of their mouths are wicked and deceitful;
they have stopped being wise and doing good.

4 Even on their beds they plot evil;
they set themselves on a path that is not good;
they do not reject what is evil.

The Greatness of God's Love and Justice

5 Your mercy, LORD, reaches to the heavens;
Your faithfulness to the clouds.

6 Your righteousness is like the mighty mountains;
Your judgments are like the great deep.
LORD, You preserve both people and animals.

The Abundant Goodness of God

7 How priceless is Your unfailing love, O God!
People take refuge in the shadow of Your wings.

8 They feast on the abundance of Your house;
You give them drink from Your river of delights.

9 For with You is the fountain of life;
in Your light we see light.

A Prayer for Protection

10 Continue Your love to those who know You,
Your righteousness to the upright in heart.

11 Do not let the foot of the proud come against me, or the hand of the wicked drive me away.

12 See how the evildoers lie fallen—thrown down, unable to rise!

Key Lessons from Psalm 36

- The Wicked Live Without the Fear of God – Pride blinds them to their sin and leads them deeper into evil.

- Sin Grows in Secret – Without repentance, people plan wrongdoing even in their quiet moments.
- God’s Love Is Limitless – His mercy stretches to the heavens, His faithfulness beyond the clouds.
- God’s Justice Is Immeasurable – Like the mountains and the depths of the sea, His judgments are vast.
- God Provides Abundantly for His People – He offers spiritual satisfaction and the refreshment of His presence.
- God Is the Source of Life and Light – All true life and understanding come from Him.
- God Protects the Upright – Pride and wickedness will not prevail against those who take refuge in Him.

Psalm 37 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Trust in the LORD and Do Good”

Do Not Fret Over Evildoers

1 Do not be troubled because of evildoers, or be envious of those who do wrong;

2 for they will soon wither like the grass and fade like green plants.

Trust and Delight in the LORD

3 Trust in the LORD and do good;
live in the land and be fed in safety.

4 Delight yourself in the LORD, and He will give you the desires of your heart.

5 Commit your way to the LORD;
trust in Him, and He will act.

6 He will make your righteousness shine like the light, and your justice like the noonday sun.

Rest and Wait on the LORD

7 Be still before the LORD and wait patiently for Him;
do not be troubled when people succeed in their ways,
when they carry out wicked schemes.

8 Stop being angry, turn from wrath;
do not be troubled—it only leads to evil.

The Future of the Wicked and the Righteous

9 For evildoers will be destroyed, but those who hope in the LORD will inherit the land.

10 In a little while the wicked will be no more;
though you look for them, they will not be found.

11 But the meek will inherit the earth and enjoy great peace.

The LORD Opposes the Wicked

12 The wicked plot against the righteous and grind their teeth at them;

13 but the Lord laughs at them,
for He knows their day is coming.

14 The wicked draw the sword and bend the bow to bring down the poor and needy, to slay those whose ways are upright.

15 But their swords will pierce their own hearts,
and their bows will be broken.

Better Is Little with Righteousness

16 Better the little that the righteous have than the wealth of many wicked;

17 for the power of the wicked will be broken,
but the LORD upholds the righteous.

God's Care for the Upright

18 The LORD knows the days of the blameless, and their inheritance will last forever.

19 In times of disaster they will not wither;
in days of famine they will have plenty.

20 But the wicked will perish;
the LORD's enemies will vanish like flowers of the field,
they will disappear like smoke.

The Blessing of Generosity

21 The wicked borrow and do not repay, but the righteous give generously;

22 those the LORD blesses will inherit the land,
but those He curses will be cut off.

The Steps of the Righteous

23 The LORD makes firm the steps of the one who delights in Him;

24 though they stumble, they will not fall,
for the LORD upholds them with His hand.

25 I was young and now I am old, yet I have never seen the righteous forsaken or their children begging bread.

26 They are always generous and lend freely;
their children will be blessed.

The Way of Peace

27 Turn from evil and do good;
then you will live in the land forever.

28 For the LORD loves justice and will not forsake His faithful ones.
They will be protected forever,
but the offspring of the wicked will be cut off.

29 The righteous will inherit the land and dwell in it forever.

The Words of the Righteous

30 The mouths of the righteous speak wisdom, and their tongues speak what is just.

31 The law of their God is in their hearts;
their feet do not slip.

The LORD Delivers His People

32 The wicked lie in wait for the righteous, intent on putting them to death;

33 but the LORD will not leave them in their power or let them be condemned when brought to trial.

34 Hope in the LORD and keep His way.
He will exalt you to inherit the land;
when the wicked are destroyed, you will see it.

The Fate of the Wicked

35 I have seen the wicked in great power, spreading themselves like a luxuriant tree,

36 but they soon passed away and were gone;
though I looked for them, they could not be found.

37 Consider the blameless, observe the upright;
a future awaits those who seek peace.

38 But all sinners will be destroyed;
there will be no future for the wicked.

The Salvation of the Righteous

39 The salvation of the righteous comes from the LORD;
He is their stronghold in times of trouble.

40 The LORD helps them and delivers them;
He delivers them from the wicked and saves them,
because they take refuge in Him.

Key Lessons from Psalm 37

- Do Not Envy the Wicked – Their prosperity is temporary; their end is certain.
- Trust and Delight in the LORD – Joy and fulfillment come from committing our way to Him.
- Patience in God’s Timing – Waiting on the LORD brings peace and prevents rash actions.
- The Meek Will Inherit the Earth – True victory comes through humility, not force.
- Better Little with Righteousness – God’s presence outweighs worldly wealth.
- God Upholds the Righteous – Even in trouble, He keeps His people from falling.
- Generosity Brings Blessing – Those who give freely will be blessed, as will their children.
- God’s Justice Is Certain – The wicked will vanish, but the righteous will remain forever.
- God Is the Salvation of His People – He is the source of deliverance and safety for all who trust Him.

Psalm 38 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Prayer in Sickness and Sin”

A Cry for Mercy

1 LORD, do not rebuke me in Your anger or discipline me in Your wrath.

2 Your arrows have pierced me,
and Your hand has pressed heavily upon me.

3 There is no health in my body because of Your anger;
there is no peace in my bones because of my sin.

The Weight of Sin

4 My guilt has overwhelmed me like a burden too heavy to bear.

5 My wounds are foul and festering because of my foolishness.

6 I am bent over and greatly bowed down;
I go about mourning all day long.

7 My back is filled with burning pain;
there is no health in my body.

8 I am feeble and utterly crushed;
I groan in anguish of heart.

God Sees the Suffering

9 Lord, all my desires are before You;
my sighing is not hidden from You.

10 My heart pounds, my strength fails me;
even the light has gone from my eyes.

Abandoned and Attacked

11 My friends and companions stand far from me because of my affliction;
my relatives stand at a distance.

12 Those who seek my life set traps;
those who wish me harm speak of ruin and plot deception all day long.

Silent Before His Accusers

13 But I, like a deaf man, do not hear;
like a mute, I do not open my mouth.

14 I have become like one who does not hear,
whose mouth offers no defense.

Hope in the LORD

15 LORD, I wait for You;
You will answer, Lord my God.

16 I said, "Do not let them gloat over me or exalt themselves when my foot slips."

Confession and Sorrow

17 For I am ready to fall, and my sorrow is ever before me.

18 I confess my iniquity;
I am troubled by my sin.

Surrounded by Enemies

19 Many have become my enemies without reason;
those who hate me without cause are numerous.

20 Those who repay evil for good accuse me because I follow what is good.

A Plea for God's Presence

21 Do not forsake me, LORD;
my God, do not be far from me.

22 Come quickly to help me,
O Lord, my salvation.

Key Lessons from Psalm 38

- Sin Brings Heavy Consequences – Guilt weighs down the soul and weakens the body.
- God Sees Our Pain – Nothing we feel or think is hidden from Him.
- Loneliness Can Accompany Suffering – Even friends and family may distance themselves in times of trial.
- Silence Can Be a Response to False Accusations – Sometimes it is wise to let God be our defense.
- Hope Is Anchored in God's Deliverance – Waiting on Him is the sure path to victory.
- Confession Is Essential for Restoration – Admitting our sin opens the way for forgiveness and healing.
- God Is Our Salvation – Only He can rescue and restore the brokenhearted and oppressed.

Psalm 39 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Life Is a Breath”

Guarding the Tongue

1 I said, “I will watch my ways
so that I will not sin with my tongue;
I will put a muzzle on my mouth
while in the presence of the wicked.”

2 I was completely silent;
I kept quiet even from speaking good,
but my anguish increased.

3 My heart grew hot within me.
As I meditated, the fire burned;
then I spoke with my tongue:

The Brevity of Life

4 “LORD, make me know my end, and the measure of my days,
so I may know how frail I am.

5 You have made my days a mere handbreadth;
my lifetime is as nothing before You.
Surely everyone at their best is only a breath. Selah

6 Surely everyone goes about like a shadow;
surely they rush in vain,
heaping up wealth
without knowing who will gather it.

Hope in God Alone

7 But now, Lord, what do I wait for?
My hope is in You.

8 Deliver me from all my sins;
do not make me the scorn of fools.

Submission to God's Discipline

9 I was silent; I would not open my mouth, for You are the one who has done this.

10 Remove Your scourge from me;
I am overcome by the blow of Your hand.

11 When You discipline a person for sin,
You consume their beauty like a moth—surely everyone is only a breath. Selah

A Plea for Mercy

12 Hear my prayer, LORD,
listen to my cry for help;
do not be silent at my tears.
For I am a stranger to You,
a temporary resident,
as all my ancestors were.

13 Turn Your gaze away from me, so I may have some relief before I depart and am no more.”

Key Lessons from Psalm 39

- Control of Speech Is Crucial – Restraining the tongue prevents sin and dishonor.
- Life Is Brief and Fragile – Our days are short, and our achievements vanish quickly.
- Wealth Is Temporary – We cannot take it with us, and we do not know who will inherit it.
- God Alone Is Our Hope – True security rests only in Him, not in possessions or people.
- God’s Discipline Is Meant to Refine – His correction is painful but necessary for holiness.
- We Are Pilgrims on Earth – Our time here is temporary; our true home is with God.
- Mercy Is Our Final Request – At life’s end, we seek God’s compassion above all else.

Psalm 40 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The LORD Is My Help and Deliverer”

God’s Rescue and a New Song

1 I waited patiently for the LORD;
He turned to me and heard my cry.

2 He lifted me out of a pit of destruction,
out of the mud and mire;
He set my feet on a rock and gave me a firm place to stand.

3 He put a new song in my mouth,
a song of praise to our God.
Many will see and fear and put their trust in the LORD.

Blessing of Trusting in the LORD

4 Blessed is the one who makes the LORD their trust, who does not turn to the proud or to those who follow lies.

5 Many, LORD my God, are the wonders You have done,
the plans You have for us;
none can compare with You.

If I tried to speak of them,
they would be too many to count.

Obedience over Sacrifice

6 Sacrifice and offering You did not desire,
but You opened my ears;
burnt offering and sin offering
You have not required.

7 Then I said, “Here I am—
it is written about me in the scroll—

8 I delight to do Your will, my God;
Your law is within my heart.”

Proclaiming God’s Righteousness

9 I proclaim Your righteousness in the great assembly;
I do not keep my lips sealed, LORD,
as You know.

10 I have not hidden Your righteousness in my heart;
I have spoken of Your faithfulness and salvation.
I have not concealed Your lovingkindness and truth from the great assembly.

A Plea for Mercy and Deliverance

11 Do not withhold Your mercy from me, LORD;
may Your lovingkindness and truth always protect me.

12 Troubles without number surround me;
my sins have overtaken me, and I cannot see.
They are more than the hairs of my head,
and my heart fails within me.

13 Be pleased to save me, LORD;
come quickly, LORD, to help me.

14 May all who want to destroy me
be put to shame and confusion;
may all who desire my ruin
be turned back in disgrace.

15 May those who say to me, “Aha! Aha!”
be appalled at their own shame.

The Joy of the Righteous

16 But may all who seek You rejoice and be glad in You;

may those who love Your salvation always say,
“The LORD be magnified!”

God, My Help and Deliverer

17 But I am poor and needy;
the LORD thinks of me.
You are my help and my deliverer;
my God, do not delay.

Key Lessons from Psalm 40

- God Answers Patient Faith – Waiting on Him leads to deliverance and a firm foundation.
- Testimony Inspires Others – Sharing God’s works encourages trust in Him.
- Obedience Is Greater Than Ritual – God desires a willing heart over empty sacrifice.
- Proclaim God’s Goodness Publicly – We are called to speak of His faithfulness and salvation.
- Mercy and Truth Preserve Us – God’s lovingkindness sustains us in trouble.
- Confession Brings Deliverance – Acknowledging sin opens the door for God’s rescue.
- God Never Forgets the Needy – Even in weakness, we can trust Him as our help and deliverer.

Psalm 41 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The LORD Sustains the Righteous”

Blessings for the Compassionate

1 Blessed is the one who has regard for the poor;
the LORD will deliver him in the day of trouble.

2 The LORD will protect him and preserve his life;
he will be blessed in the land and not given over to the desire of his enemies.

3 The LORD will sustain him on his sickbed and restore him from illness.

A Plea for Mercy

4 I said, “LORD, have mercy on me;
heal me, for I have sinned against You.”

Betrayal and Slander

5 My enemies speak evil of me, saying,
“When will he die and his name perish?”

6 When one comes to see me, he speaks falsehood;
his heart gathers slander,
then he goes out and spreads it.

7 All my enemies whisper together against me;
they imagine the worst for me, saying,

8 “A vile disease has fastened on him;
now that he lies down, he will never rise again.”

9 Even my close friend,
one in whom I trusted,
who ate my bread,
has turned against me.

Confidence in God’s Deliverance

10 But You, LORD, be merciful to me and raise me up,
that I may repay them.

11 By this I know that You are pleased with me:
my enemy does not triumph over me.

12 Because of my integrity You uphold me and set me in Your presence forever.

Closing Praise

13 Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel,
from everlasting to everlasting.
Amen and Amen.

Key Lessons from Psalm 41

- God Honors Compassion – Those who care for the poor are blessed and protected in their own times of need.
- God Sustains the Weak – He strengthens the afflicted and restores them in sickness.
- Sin Requires Mercy – Healing of the soul comes through God’s forgiveness.
- Betrayal Is a Painful Reality – Even trusted friends may turn against us, but God remains faithful.
- Enemies Do Not Triumph Over the Righteous – God’s favor ensures ultimate victory for His people.
- Integrity Brings God’s Upholding – Walking in truth keeps us secure in His presence.

- Praise Belongs to God Forever – From age to age, His name is to be blessed.

Psalm 42 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Hope in God”

Longing for God’s Presence

1 As the deer pants for streams of water, so my soul longs for You, O God.

2 My soul thirsts for God, for the living God.
When shall I come and appear before God?

3 My tears have been my food day and night, while people say to me all day long,
“Where is your God?”

Memories of Worship

4 These things I remember as I pour out my soul:
how I used to go with the multitude,
leading the procession to the house of God,
with shouts of joy and praise
among the festive crowd.

Encouragement to the Soul

5 Why are you cast down, my soul?
Why are you in turmoil within me?
Put your hope in God,
for I will yet praise Him,
the help of His presence.

Struggling with Discouragement

6 My God, my soul is cast down within me;
therefore I remember You from the land of Jordan,
the heights of Hermon, from Mount Mizar.

7 Deep calls to deep in the roar of Your waterfalls;
all Your waves and breakers have swept over me.

Confidence in God’s Love

8 By day the LORD commands His steadfast love, and at night His song is with me—a prayer to the God of my life.

Crying Out to God

9 I say to God my Rock,

“Why have You forgotten me?
Why must I go about mourning,
oppressed by the enemy?”

10 As with a deadly wound in my bones,
my enemies taunt me,
while they say to me all day long,
“Where is your God?”

Renewed Hope

11 Why are you cast down, my soul?
Why are you in turmoil within me?
Put your hope in God,
for I will yet praise Him,
my Savior and my God.

Key Lessons from Psalm 42

- The Soul Thirsts for God – True satisfaction comes only from His presence.
- Memories of Worship Encourage the Downcast – Recalling past joy strengthens present faith.
- Hope Is the Answer to Despair – When the heart sinks, we must remind ourselves to trust in God.
- God’s Love Is Constant – His mercy by day and His song by night sustain us.
- Enemies May Mock, but God Remains – Their taunts cannot undo His faithfulness.
- Self-Encouragement Is Necessary – Speaking hope to our own soul helps anchor faith in God.

Psalm 43 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Send Out Your Light and Truth”

A Plea for Justice and Deliverance

1 Vindicate me, O God,
and plead my cause against an ungodly nation.
Rescue me from the deceitful and unjust man.

2 For You are the God of my strength.
Why have You rejected me?
Why must I go about mourning,
oppressed by the enemy?

Guided by God's Presence

3 Send out Your light and Your truth;
let them guide me.
Let them bring me to Your holy mountain,
to the place where You dwell.

4 Then I will go to the altar of God,
to God, my exceeding joy;
with the harp I will praise You,
O God, my God.

Hope in God Alone

5 Why are you cast down, my soul?
Why are you in turmoil within me?
Put your hope in God,
for I will yet praise Him,
my Savior and my God.

Key Lessons from Psalm 43

- God Is the Judge and Defender – He pleads the cause of the oppressed against the unjust.
- Oppression Can Lead to Despair – Even the faithful may feel forgotten, yet God remains their strength.
- God's Light and Truth Guide the Way – His presence leads us into His dwelling and fellowship.
- Worship Is the Goal of Deliverance – Freedom results in joyful praise at God's altar.
- Hope Is the Cure for Despair – Speaking faith to the soul restores strength and confidence in God.

Psalm 44 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Redeem Us for Your Mercy's Sake”

Remembering God's Past Victories

1 We have heard with our ears, O God, our ancestors have told us
what You did in their days,
in times long ago.

2 With Your hand You drove out the nations and planted our fathers;

You afflicted the peoples and cast them out.

3 For they did not gain the land by their own sword, nor did their own arm save them;
but it was Your right hand, Your arm,
and the light of Your face,
for You favored them.

4 You are my King, O God;
command deliverance for Jacob.

5 Through You we push back our enemies; through Your name we trample those who rise up against us.

6 For I do not trust in my bow,
nor will my sword save me.

7 But You give us victory over our enemies;
You put to shame those who hate us.

8 In God we boast all day long,
and we will praise Your name forever. Selah

Present Defeat and Shame

9 But now You have rejected and humbled us;
You no longer go out with our armies.

10 You make us turn back from the enemy,
and those who hate us have taken our spoil.

11 You have given us like sheep for food,
and have scattered us among the nations.

12 You sell Your people for nothing and gain nothing from their sale.

13 You make us a reproach to our neighbors,
a scorn and derision to those around us.

14 You make us a byword among the nations;
people shake their heads at us.

15 My disgrace is before me all day long,
and my face is covered with shame

16 at the taunts of those who reproach and revile me, because of the enemy and avenger.

Faithful but Afflicted

17 All this has happened to us,
yet we have not forgotten You,
nor have we been false to Your covenant.

18 Our hearts have not turned back,
our steps have not strayed from Your path,

19 yet You have crushed us in the place of jackals and covered us with deep darkness.

20 If we had forgotten the name of our God or spread out our hands to a foreign god,

21 would not God have discovered it, since He knows the secrets of the heart?

22 Yet for Your sake we face death all day long;
we are considered as sheep for slaughter.

A Plea for Redemption

23 Awake, O Lord! Why do You sleep?
Rouse Yourself! Do not reject us forever.

24 Why do You hide Your face and forget our misery and oppression?

25 For our soul is bowed down to the dust;
our bodies cling to the ground.

26 Rise up and help us;
redeem us because of Your unfailing love.

Key Lessons from Psalm 44

- God's Past Faithfulness Builds Present Hope – Remembering His works strengthens our faith in times of trial.
- Victory Comes from God, Not Human Strength – Our weapons cannot save; His arm alone brings deliverance.
- Shame and Suffering Can Touch the Faithful – Even those who remain true to God may endure hardship and humiliation.
- God Knows the Secrets of the Heart – Nothing is hidden from Him, whether faithfulness or rebellion.

- Suffering for God’s Sake Is Real – His people may be despised and treated as sheep for slaughter.
- Pleading with God Is an Act of Faith – Even when He seems silent, we can cry out for His help.
- Redemption Comes Through God’s Mercy – His steadfast love is the ultimate reason for deliverance.

Psalm 45 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Royal Wedding Song”

A Song for the King

1 My heart overflows with a noble theme;
I recite my verses for the King;
my tongue is like the pen of a skillful writer.

2 You are the most excellent of men;
grace is poured upon Your lips;
therefore God has blessed You forever.

The Majesty of the King

3 Strap Your sword at Your side, Mighty One, with Your splendor and majesty.

4 In Your majesty ride out victoriously for the cause of truth, humility, and righteousness;
let Your right hand accomplish awesome deeds.

5 Your arrows are sharp in the heart of the King’s enemies;
the nations fall beneath You.

The Eternal Throne

6 Your throne, O God, will last forever and ever;
a scepter of justice
will be the scepter of Your kingdom.

7 You love righteousness and hate wickedness;
therefore God, Your God, has anointed You with the oil of joy above Your companions.

8 All Your robes are fragrant with myrrh, aloes, and cassia;
from ivory palaces
the music of strings makes You glad.

The Bride and Her Companions

9 Daughters of kings are among Your honored women; at Your right hand stands the queen wearing gold from Ophir.

10 Listen, O daughter, and pay attention:
forget your people and your father's house.

11 The King desires your beauty;
honor Him, for He is your Lord.

12 The people of Tyre will come with gifts;
the wealthy will seek your favor.

13 The royal daughter is glorious within;
her clothing is woven with gold.

14 In embroidered garments she is led to the King;
her virgin companions follow her.

15 With joy and gladness they are led in procession and enter the palace of the King.

The Promise of a Lasting Name

16 Your sons will take the place of Your fathers;
You will make them princes throughout the land.

17 I will cause Your name to be remembered in all generations;
therefore the nations will praise You forever and ever.

Key Lessons from Psalm 45

- The King Is Exalted Above All Men – His grace, majesty, and words reveal divine blessing.
- Christ the True King Is Foreshadowed – The eternal throne and anointing point to the Messiah.
- Victory Belongs to the Righteous King – Truth, humility, and justice mark His reign.
- The Bride Must Leave All to Follow the King – True devotion requires leaving former ties to embrace Him fully.
- Worship Belongs to the King Alone – Honor and reverence are due to Him above all.
- The Bride's Glory Reflects the King's Favor – Her beauty, garments, and joy symbolize the Church's relationship with Christ.

- The King's Name Endures Forever – His fame and praise will continue throughout all generations.

Psalm 46 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The LORD of Hosts Is with Us”

God, Our Refuge and Strength

1 God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

2 Therefore we will not fear, though the earth give way
and the mountains fall into the heart of the sea,

3 though its waters roar and foam and the mountains quake with their surging. Selah

The River of God's Presence

4 There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God,
the holy dwelling place of the Most High.

5 God is within her, she will not fall;
God will help her at the break of day.

6 Nations are in uproar, kingdoms fall;
He lifts His voice, the earth melts.

7 The LORD of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah

God's Sovereign Power over the Nations

8 Come and see the works of the LORD,
the desolations He has brought on the earth.

9 He makes wars cease to the ends of the earth;
He breaks the bow and shatters the spear;
He burns the chariots with fire.

10 “Be still, and know that I am God;
I will be exalted among the nations,
I will be exalted in the earth.”

11 The LORD of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah

Key Lessons from Psalm 46

- God Is Our Present Help – In every crisis, He is near and sufficient to save.
- Faith Removes Fear – Even if the earth itself shakes, those who trust God need not be afraid.
- God’s Presence Brings Joy and Stability – His nearness secures His people and makes them glad.
- God Rules Over Nations – At His voice, kingdoms fall, and wars are silenced.
- Be Still Before God – Quiet trust acknowledges His sovereignty and exaltation over all the earth.
- The LORD of Hosts Is with Us – His constant presence is our greatest refuge and hope.

Psalm 47 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The King Over All the Earth”

A Call to Praise the King

1 Clap your hands, all you peoples;
shout to God with a voice of triumph!

2 For the LORD Most High is awesome;
He is the great King over all the earth.

The LORD’s Dominion

3 He subdues nations under us, peoples under our feet.

4 He chooses our inheritance for us,
the pride of Jacob, whom He loves. Selah

God’s Exaltation

5 God has ascended with a shout,
the LORD with the sound of a trumpet.

6 Sing praises to God, sing praises!
Sing praises to our King, sing praises!

7 For God is the King of all the earth;
sing praises with understanding.

The LORD’s Throne and Rule

8 God reigns over the nations;
God sits on His holy throne.

9 The nobles of the nations assemble as the people of the God of Abraham,

for the shields of the earth belong to God;
He is greatly exalted.

Key Lessons from Psalm 47

- God Deserves Joyful Praise – Worship should be loud, joyful, and full of triumph.
- God Is King Over All the Earth – His rule extends beyond Israel to all nations.
- Victory Comes from God Alone – He subdues peoples and determines our inheritance.
- God Is Exalted Above All – Trumpets, shouts, and songs declare His supreme reign.
- Worship Should Be Thoughtful – We are called to sing with understanding, not just words.
- God’s Throne Is Universal – All nations, rulers, and powers ultimately belong to Him.

Psalm 48 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The City of Our God”

The Glory of Zion

1 Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, His holy mountain.

2 Beautiful in elevation,
the joy of the whole earth,
Mount Zion, in the far north,
the city of the great King.

3 God is known in her citadels
as a strong refuge.

The Defeat of Earthly Kings

4 For behold, the kings assembled;
they advanced together.

5 They saw her and were astonished;
they fled in terror.

6 Trembling seized them there, anguish as of a woman in labor.

7 You destroyed them like the ships of Tarshish, shattered by an east wind.

The Eternal City of God

8 As we have heard,
so have we seen

in the city of the LORD of hosts,
in the city of our God,
which God will establish forever. Selah

Meditating on God's Love

9 We reflect on Your unfailing love, O God, within Your temple.

10 Like Your name, O God,
Your praise reaches to the ends of the earth;
Your right hand is filled with righteousness.

11 Let Mount Zion rejoice, let the daughters of Judah be glad because of Your judgments.

A Call to Remember and Declare

12 Walk about Zion, go around her, count her towers,

13 consider her ramparts,
examine her palaces,
that you may tell them
to the next generation.

14 For this God is our God
forever and ever;
He will be our guide
even to the end.

Key Lessons from Psalm 48

- God Is Worthy of Great Praise – His greatness is displayed in His holy city and His mighty acts.
- Zion Is the Joy of the Earth – God's dwelling place is beautiful, strong, and secure.
- Earthly Kings Cannot Stand Against God – Nations may gather in pride, but they will flee in fear.
- God Establishes His City Forever – His presence ensures permanence, stability, and glory.
- We Must Meditate on God's Love – Reflection in worship deepens our awe and gratitude.
- Generations Must Be Taught of God's Works – The towers and walls of Zion remind us to declare His faithfulness to those who come after us.

- God Is Our Eternal Guide – He is with His people now and will lead them even to the very end.

Psalm 49 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Do Not Trust in Riches”

A Call to All People

1 Hear this, all you peoples;
listen, all who live in the world,

2 both low and high,
rich and poor alike.

3 My mouth will speak words of wisdom;
the meditation of my heart will bring understanding.

4 I will turn my ear to a proverb;
I will open my riddle on the harp.

The Folly of Trusting in Wealth

5 Why should I fear in times of trouble, when the iniquity of my enemies surrounds me—

6 those who trust in their wealth and boast in their great riches?

7 No one can redeem the life of another or give to God a ransom for them—

8 the ransom for a life is costly, no payment is ever enough—

9 so that they should live on forever and not see decay.

10 For all can see that the wise die,
the foolish and the senseless alike perish
and leave their wealth to others.

11 Their graves are their homes forever, their dwelling places to all generations,
though they had named lands after themselves.

12 People, despite their wealth, do not endure;
they are like the beasts that perish.

The End of the Foolish

13 This is the destiny of those who trust in themselves, and of their followers, who approve their sayings. Selah

14 Like sheep they are destined for the grave, and death will feed on them.
The upright will rule over them in the morning;
their forms will decay in the grave,
far from their fine houses.

The Hope of the Righteous

15 But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave, for He will surely take me to Himself. Selah

Do Not Fear the Wealthy

16 Do not be afraid when others grow rich,
when the splendor of their houses increases;
17 for they will take nothing with them when they die,
their glory will not descend after them.
18 Though they count themselves blessed in life—
and people praise you when you prosper—19 they will join those who have gone before them, who will never again see the light of life.
20 People who have wealth but lack understanding are like the beasts that perish.

Key Lessons from Psalm 49

- Rich and Poor Alike Must Hear God’s Wisdom – Wealth cannot shield anyone from death.
- No One Can Redeem Another’s Soul – Eternal life cannot be purchased with money.
- Wealth Is Temporary – The rich leave their riches behind, just like the fool and the poor.
- Human Honor Without Understanding Is Futile – Without God, even the honored perish like beasts.
- Death Awaits the Wicked, but God Redeems the Upright – The righteous are delivered from the power of the grave.
- Do Not Fear the Wealthy – Their prosperity is fleeting; they cannot take it with them.
- God Alone Is Our Hope – Only He can redeem and receive our souls.

Psalm 50 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God the Righteous Judge”

The Call of God to the Earth

1 The Mighty One, God the Lord, has spoken and summoned the earth
from the rising of the sun to its setting.

2 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty,
God shines forth.

3 Our God comes and will not be silent;
before Him is a consuming fire,
and around Him a mighty tempest.

The Judgment of His People

4 He summons the heavens above, and the earth, to judge His people:

5 “Gather to Me My faithful ones, those who made a covenant with Me by sacrifice.”

6 And the heavens declare His righteousness, for God Himself is Judge. Selah

True Worship, Not Empty Rituals

7 “Hear, O My people, and I will speak;
O Israel, and I will testify against you:
I am God, your God.

8 I do not rebuke you for your sacrifices, or your burnt offerings, which are ever before Me.

9 I have no need of a bull from your stall,
or goats from your pens,

10 for every beast of the forest is Mine,
the cattle on a thousand hills.

11 I know all the birds of the mountains, and the creatures of the field are Mine.

12 If I were hungry, I would not tell you,
for the world is Mine, and all its fullness.

13 Do I eat the flesh of bulls or drink the blood of goats?

14 Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving, and fulfill your vows to the Most High.

15 Call upon Me in the day of trouble;
I will deliver you, and you will glorify Me.”

The Warning to the Wicked

16 But to the wicked God says:

“What right have you to recite My laws or take My covenant on your lips?

17 You hate instruction and cast My words behind you.

18 When you see a thief, you join with him;

you throw in your lot with adulterers.

19 You use your mouth for evil and harness your tongue for deceit.

20 You sit and testify against your brother;

you slander your own mother’s son.

21 These things you have done, and I kept silent;

you thought I was exactly like you.

But I will reprove you and lay it all before your eyes.

22 “Consider this, you who forget God, or I will tear you to pieces, with none to rescue.

23 Whoever offers praise glorifies Me,

and to the one who orders his way rightly

I will show the salvation of God.”

Key Lessons from Psalm 50

- God Is Judge Over All the Earth – His authority extends from the rising to the setting of the sun.
- External Sacrifices Alone Do Not Please God – He owns all creation; He desires thanksgiving and obedience.
- True Worship Is Thanksgiving and Obedience – Real sacrifice is praise and faithfulness, not empty rituals.
- The Wicked Are Warned – God exposes hypocrisy and will judge those who reject His Word.
- God Calls Us to Depend on Him – He invites His people to call on Him in times of trouble.
- Praise Glorifies God – Those who walk in righteousness will see His salvation.

Psalm 51 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Prayer of Repentance”

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David, when Nathan the prophet came to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

A Cry for Mercy

1 Have mercy on me, O God,
according to Your steadfast love;
according to the greatness of Your tender mercies,
blot out my transgressions.

2 Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

3 For I acknowledge my transgressions, and my sin is always before me.

4 Against You, You only, have I sinned, and done what is evil in Your sight—
so that You may be justified in Your words and blameless when You judge.

The Depth of Human Sinfulness

5 Surely I was brought forth in iniquity, and in sin my mother conceived me.

6 Behold, You desire truth in the inner being;
in the hidden part You make me to know wisdom.

A Plea for Cleansing and Renewal

7 Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean;
wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

8 Let me hear joy and gladness;
let the bones You have crushed rejoice.

9 Hide Your face from my sins,
and blot out all my iniquities.

10 Create in me a clean heart, O God,
and renew a steadfast spirit within me.

11 Do not cast me away from Your presence, and do not take Your Holy Spirit from me.

12 Restore to me the joy of Your salvation, and uphold me with a willing spirit.

The Promise of Changed Living

13 Then I will teach transgressors Your ways, and sinners will turn back to You.

14 Deliver me from the guilt of bloodshed, O God,
the God of my salvation,
and my tongue will sing aloud of Your righteousness.

15 O Lord, open my lips,
and my mouth will declare Your praise.

True Sacrifice

16 For You do not delight in sacrifice, or I would give it;
You do not take pleasure in burnt offerings.

17 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit;
a broken and contrite heart, O God,
You will not despise.

A Prayer for Zion

18 Do good in Your good pleasure to Zion;
build up the walls of Jerusalem.

19 Then You will delight in righteous sacrifices, in burnt offerings and whole burnt offerings;
then bulls will be offered on Your altar.

Key Lessons from Psalm 51

- Repentance Is Rooted in God's Mercy – Forgiveness is not earned but flows from His steadfast love and compassion.
- Sin Is Personal Against God – Every wrong ultimately offends Him, even when it harms others.
- We Need Cleansing Beyond Our Efforts – Only God can wash away sin and make us truly clean.
- The Heart Is What God Desires – True worship is a broken and contrite heart, not empty rituals.
- Restoration Leads to Mission – When forgiven, we are called to help lead others back to God.
- The Holy Spirit Is Essential – We cannot live in righteousness apart from God's Spirit within us.
- Hope for God's People – David's prayer extends beyond himself to the strengthening of Zion, showing that individual repentance impacts the whole community.

Psalm 52 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Folly of Trusting in Riches and Wickedness”

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David, when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, and said to him, David has come to the house of Ahimelech.

The Boast of the Wicked

1 Why do you boast in evil, O mighty man?

The goodness of God endures continually.

2 Your tongue plots destruction,
like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

3 You love evil more than good, lying rather than speaking righteousness. Selah.

4 You love all devouring words,
O deceitful tongue.

The Judgment of God

5 But God shall strike you down forever;
He shall take you away,
pluck you from your dwelling place,
and uproot you from the land of the living. Selah.

6 The righteous shall see it and fear,
and shall laugh, saying,

7 “Behold, the man who did not make God his strength,
but trusted in the abundance of his riches,
and strengthened himself in his wickedness.”

The Confidence of the Righteous

8 But I am like a green olive tree in the house of God;
I trust in the mercy of God forever and ever.

9 I will praise You forever, because You have done it;
and I will wait on Your name,
for it is good before Your saints.

Key Lessons from Psalm 52

- Boasting in Wickedness Leads to Ruin – Those who exalt themselves in evil will be cut off by God.
- The Power of the Tongue – Words can be destructive like a razor, and God holds us accountable for deceitful speech.

- Trust in God, Not in Wealth – Riches and power cannot save; security is found only in God’s strength.
- God’s Mercy Is Our Confidence – The faithful flourish like an olive tree, planted in God’s presence.
- Praise Is the Right Response – True worship is rooted in remembering God’s past faithfulness and trusting His name forever.

Psalm 53 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Folly of Denying God”

To the Chief Musician upon Mahalath. A Psalm of David.

The Corruption of Mankind

1 The fool has said in his heart, “There is no God.”
They are corrupt, they have done abominable iniquity;
there is none who does good.

2 God looked down from heaven upon the children of men,
to see if there were any who understood,
who sought after God.

3 Every one of them has turned aside;
they have together become corrupt.
There is none who does good,
no, not one.

The Judgment on the Wicked

4 Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge?
They devour my people as though they were eating bread;
they have not called upon God.

5 They were in great fear, where no fear was;
for God scattered the bones of those who encamped against you.
You have put them to shame,
because God has rejected them.

The Hope of Israel

6 Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion!
When God restores the captivity of His people,
Jacob shall rejoice,
and Israel shall be glad.

Key Lessons from Psalm 53

- The Folly of Denying God – To deny God’s existence is the root of corruption and sin.
- Universal Sinfulness – All humanity has turned away; none are righteous apart from God.
- The Oppression of the Righteous – The wicked devour God’s people without fear of judgment.
- God’s Sovereign Justice – God scatters and shames those who rise against His people.
- Hope in God’s Salvation – True restoration and joy come only through God’s deliverance from Zion.

Psalm 54 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord My Helper”

To the Chief Musician on Neginoth. A Psalm of David, when the Ziphites came and said to Saul, ‘Is not David hiding with us?’

A Cry for Deliverance

1 Save me, O God, by Your name, and vindicate me by Your strength.

2 Hear my prayer, O God;
give ear to the words of my mouth.

The Threat of Enemies

3 For strangers have risen against me,
and oppressors seek after my life;
they have not set God before them. Selah.

The Lord My Helper

4 Behold, God is my helper;
the Lord is with those who uphold my soul.

5 He will repay evil to my enemies;
in Your truth, cut them off.

Praise for Deliverance

6 I will freely sacrifice to You;
I will praise Your name, O Lord, for it is good.

7 For He has delivered me out of all trouble, and my eye has looked with triumph on my enemies.

Key Lessons from Psalm 54

- God's Name is Power – Deliverance comes not from human strength but from the mighty name of the Lord.
- Prayer in Trouble – When enemies rise, the believer's first response should be prayer.
- The Lord Upholds the Righteous – God Himself sustains the soul of those who trust Him.
- God's Justice Against Evil – The Lord will repay those who plot wickedness against His people.
- Praise Follows Deliverance – Gratitude and worship naturally flow from hearts that experience God's rescue.

Psalm 55 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Cast Your Burden on the Lord”

To the Chief Musician on Neginoth. Maschil of David.

A Cry of Distress

1 Give ear to my prayer, O God;
and do not hide Yourself from my plea.

2 Attend to me and answer me;
I am restless in my complaint and groan,

3 because of the voice of the enemy,
because of the oppression of the wicked.
For they bring down trouble upon me,
and in anger they hate me.

Overwhelmed with Fear

4 My heart is in anguish within me;
the terrors of death have fallen upon me.

5 Fear and trembling overwhelm me,
and horror has covered me.

6 And I said, “Oh, that I had wings like a dove!
I would fly away and be at rest.

7 Behold, I would flee far away and stay in the wilderness. Selah.

8 I would hurry to my shelter from the raging wind and storm.”

The Treachery of Friends

9 Destroy, O Lord, and divide their tongues, for I see violence and strife in the city.

10 Day and night they prowl on its walls;
mischief and sorrow are within it.

11 Wickedness is in its midst;
deceit and fraud do not depart from its streets.

12 For it was not an enemy who reproached me—then I could have borne it;
nor was it one who hated me—then I could have hidden from him.

13 But it was you, a man my equal,
my companion and my close friend.

14 We took sweet counsel together,
and walked into the house of God in the throng.

Turning to the Lord

15 Let death seize them;
let them go down alive into the grave,
for evil is in their homes and among them.

16 As for me, I will call upon God, and the Lord shall save me.

17 Evening, morning, and at noon I will pray and cry aloud, and He shall hear my voice.

18 He has redeemed my soul in peace from the battle against me, though many oppose me.

19 God, who is enthroned from of old, will hear and humble them. Selah.
Because they do not change, they do not fear God.

20 He has broken His covenant;
he stretched out his hand against his companions.

21 His words were smoother than butter,
yet war was in his heart;
his words were softer than oil,
yet they were drawn swords.

The Call to Trust

22 Cast your burden on the Lord,
and He will sustain you;
He will never allow the righteous to be shaken.

23 But You, O God, will bring them down to the pit of destruction;
bloodthirsty and deceitful men shall not live out half their days.
But I will trust in You.

Key Lessons from Psalm 55

- God Hears the Cry of the Distressed – No anguish or pain is too deep for the Lord’s ear.
- Betrayal Cuts Deepest – Hurt from a close friend wounds the heart more than the blows of an enemy.
- Consistent Prayer Brings Peace – Morning, noon, and evening prayer remind us that God hears continually.
- Cast Your Burdens on the Lord – God alone can bear the full weight of our troubles and sustain us.
- Trust in God’s Justice – The wicked may speak smoothly but hide swords in their hearts; God will bring them down.

Psalm 56 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God Is For Me”

To the Chief Musician. Upon Jonath-elim-rechokim. Michtam of David, when the Philistines took him in Gath.

A Plea for Mercy

1 Be merciful to me, O God, for man would swallow me up;
all day long he attacks and oppresses me.

2 My enemies would hound me all day,
for many fight against me, O Most High.

Trust in the Midst of Fear

3 Whenever I am afraid,
I will trust in You.

4 In God, whose word I praise,
in God I trust; I will not fear
what flesh can do to me.

The Plots of the Wicked

5 All day long they twist my words;
all their thoughts are against me for evil.

6 They gather themselves together, they hide,
they mark my steps, as they wait for my life.

7 Shall they escape by their iniquity?
In Your anger, O God, cast down the nations.

God Remembers My Tears

8 You number my wanderings;
put my tears in Your bottle;
are they not written in Your book?

9 When I cry to You,
my enemies will turn back;
this I know, because God is for me.

Faith and Confidence

10 In God, whose word I praise,
in the Lord, whose word I praise—

11 in God I trust; I will not be afraid.
What can man do to me?

12 Your vows are binding upon me, O God;
I will render thank offerings to You.

13 For You have delivered my soul from death,
and my feet from falling,
that I may walk before God
in the light of the living.

Key Lessons from Psalm 56

- God's Mercy Covers Our Fear – Even in the face of constant oppression, we can cry out for His compassion.
- Trust Is Stronger Than Fear – Faith turns fear into courage, knowing that flesh cannot destroy the soul.
- God Sees Every Tear – Not one tear is forgotten; the Lord records them as treasures in His book.
- God Is For Us – The believer's confidence is not in themselves but in the assurance that God is on their side.
- Gratitude Follows Deliverance – A life spared is a life that must walk in thanksgiving and light before God.

Psalm 57 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Exalted Above the Heavens”

To the Chief Musician. Altschith. Michtam of David, when he fled from Saul in the cave.

A Cry for Mercy and Refuge

1 Be merciful to me, O God, be merciful to me, for my soul trusts in You;
yes, in the shadow of Your wings I will take refuge, until these calamities have passed by.

2 I will cry out to God Most High,
to God who performs all things for me.

3 He shall send from heaven and save me;
He reproaches the one who would swallow me up. Selah.
God shall send forth His mercy and His truth.

In the Midst of Enemies

4 My soul is among lions;
I lie among men who are set on fire,
whose teeth are spears and arrows,
and whose tongue is a sharp sword.

5 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens;
let Your glory be above all the earth.

6 They prepared a net for my steps;
my soul is bowed down.
They dug a pit before me;
into the midst of it they themselves have fallen. Selah.

A Heart Set on Praise

7 My heart is steadfast, O God, my heart is steadfast;
I will sing and give praise.

8 Awake, my glory! Awake, psaltery and harp!
I myself will awaken the dawn.

9 I will praise You, O Lord, among the peoples;
I will sing to You among the nations.

10 For Your mercy reaches unto the heavens, and Your truth unto the clouds.

11 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens;
let Your glory be above all the earth.

Key Lessons from Psalm 57

- God's Mercy Provides Refuge – In times of danger, His presence is like wings shielding us until the storm passes.
- Prayer Invites Divine Intervention – Crying out to God brings His mercy and truth from heaven to our aid.
- Enemies Cannot Prevail Forever – The wicked fall into the very traps they set for the righteous.
- A Steadfast Heart Praises God – Even in trials, fixing our heart on Him turns sorrow into worship.
- God's Glory Is Over All the Earth – His mercy and truth stretch beyond the skies, declaring His universal reign.

Psalm 58 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Surely God Judges in the Earth”

To the Chief Musician. Altschith. Michtam of David.

The Corruption of the Wicked

1 Do you indeed speak righteousness, O congregation?
Do you judge uprightly, O sons of men?

2 No, in your heart you work wickedness;
you weigh out the violence of your hands in the earth.

3 The wicked are estranged from the womb;
they go astray as soon as they are born, speaking lies.

4 Their poison is like the poison of a serpent;
they are like the deaf cobra that stops her ear,

5 which will not listen to the voice of charmers,
though the charmer charms ever so wisely.

A Prayer for God's Judgment

6 Break their teeth, O God, in their mouth;
break out the fangs of the young lions, O Lord.

7 Let them flow away as waters which run continually;
when he bends his bow to shoot his arrows, let them be cut in pieces.

8 Let them be like a snail which melts as it goes, like the stillborn child of a woman, that they may not see the sun.

9 Before your pots can feel the burning thorns,
He shall sweep them away as with a whirlwind, living and in His wrath.

The Vindication of the Righteous

10 The righteous shall rejoice when he sees the vengeance;
he shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked.

11 So that a man shall say,
“Surely there is a reward for the righteous;
surely He is a God who judges in the earth.”

Key Lessons from Psalm 58

- Wickedness Begins in the Heart – Sin runs deep, even from birth, showing humanity’s need for God’s mercy and redemption.
- The Power of Lies Destroys – Deceitful words are compared to venom; they wound, corrupt, and poison entire societies.
- God Will Break the Strength of the Wicked – Their power and schemes are temporary, and His justice will strip them of their might.
- Judgment Brings Vindication – The righteous rejoice, not in cruelty, but in seeing God’s holiness upheld.
- God Judges All the Earth – No one escapes His justice; His reign is universal, and righteousness will be rewarded.

Psalm 59 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God Our Defense”

To the Chief Musician. Altschith. Michtam of David, when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

A Cry for Deliverance

1 Deliver me from my enemies, O my God;
defend me from those who rise up against me.

2 Deliver me from the workers of iniquity, and save me from bloody men.

3 For behold, they lie in wait for my life;
the mighty gather against me, not for my transgression, nor for my sin, O Lord.

4 They run and prepare themselves without my fault;
awake to help me, and behold.

5 You therefore, O Lord God of hosts, the God of Israel, awake to punish all the nations;
do not be merciful to any wicked transgressors. Selah.

The Malice of the Wicked

6 They return at evening, growling like dogs, and go around the city.

7 Behold, they spew with their mouth;
swords are in their lips: for they say, “Who hears?”

8 But You, O Lord, shall laugh at them;
You shall have all the nations in derision.

God, My Defense

9 Because of his strength I will wait upon You,
for God is my defense.

10 The God of my mercy shall go before me;
God shall let me see my desire upon my enemies.

11 Do not slay them, lest my people forget;
scatter them by Your power, and bring them down, O Lord our shield.

12 For the sin of their mouth and the words of their lips, let them even be taken in their pride,
for the cursing and lying which they speak.

13 Consume them in wrath, consume them, that they may not be;
and let them know that God rules in Jacob to the ends of the earth. Selah.

The Righteous Response

14 And at evening let them return;
let them growl like a dog, and go around the city.

15 Let them wander up and down for food,
and howl if they are not satisfied.

16 But I will sing of Your power;
yes, I will sing aloud of Your mercy in the morning.
For You have been my defense and refuge
in the day of my trouble.

17 To You, O my strength, I will sing;
for God is my defense,
my God of mercy.

Key Lessons from Psalm 59

- God Is Our Defender – When enemies rise against us, the Lord Himself is our shield and protector.
- The Wicked Cannot Hide – Though they speak deceitfully and act as if no one hears, God sees and will judge.
- Patience in Waiting – David shows that even in danger, waiting on God’s timing is the way to victory.
- Judgment Brings Humility – God’s punishment reveals His rule over all nations and humbles the proud.
- Praise in the Morning – Even in trouble, believers are called to sing of God’s power and mercy, trusting Him as their refuge.

Psalm 60 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God Our Only Hope of Victory”

To the Chief Musician. Upon Shushan-eduth. Michtam of David, to teach; when he fought with Aram-naharaim and with Aram-zobah, when Joab returned and struck twelve thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

A Plea for Restoration

1 O God, You have cast us off; You have broken us down;
You have been displeased; O turn Yourself to us again.

2 You have made the earth tremble; You have broken it;
heal its breaches, for it shakes.

3 You have shown Your people hard things;
You have made us drink the wine of staggering.

4 You have given a banner to those who fear You, that it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah.

5 That Your beloved may be delivered,
save with Your right hand, and hear me.

The Lord’s Declaration

6 God has spoken in His holiness: I will rejoice;
I will divide Shechem and measure out the Valley of Succoth.

7 Gilead is Mine, and Manasseh is Mine;
Ephraim also is the helmet of My head;
Judah is My lawgiver.

8 Moab is My washpot; over Edom I will cast My shoe;
Philistia, shout in triumph because of Me.

Victory Through God Alone

9 Who will bring me to the fortified city?

Who will lead me to Edom?

10 Will not You, O God, who had cast us off?

And You, O God, who did not go out with our armies?

11 Give us help from trouble,
for the help of man is useless.

12 Through God we shall do valiantly,
for He it is who shall tread down our enemies.

Key Lessons from Psalm 60

- When God Seems Distant – Even in times when God seems to cast us off, His people must cry for His restoration.
- God Is Sovereign Over Nations – The Lord declares ownership over Israel and dominance over her enemies, reminding us He rules all lands.
- Human Help Is Insufficient – Victory cannot come through human strength, but only through the power of God.
- Hope in His Deliverance – No matter the trial, deliverance comes when God stretches out His hand.
- True Triumph Belongs to God – Any victory achieved by God’s people is ultimately His victory, not ours.

Psalm 61 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Rock That Is Higher Than I”

To the Chief Musician on Neginah. A Psalm of David.

Prayer for Refuge

1 Hear my cry, O God;
attend to my prayer.

2 From the end of the earth I will cry to You,
when my heart is overwhelmed:
lead me to the Rock that is higher than I.

3 For You have been a shelter for me,
a strong tower from the enemy.

Abiding in God's Presence

4 I will abide in Your tabernacle forever;
I will trust in the shelter of Your wings. Selah.

5 For You, O God, have heard my vows;
You have given me the heritage of those who fear Your name.

Confidence in God's Preservation

6 You will prolong the king's life;
his years shall be as many generations.

7 He shall abide before God forever.
Oh, prepare mercy and truth,
which may preserve him.

Vows of Praise

8 So will I sing praise to Your name forever, that I may daily perform my vows.

Key Lessons from Psalm 61

- God Is Our Rock – When life overwhelms, we must look upward to the Rock that is higher than us.
- Safe Refuge in His Presence – The Lord is our shelter, strong tower, and the shadow of His wings is a place of peace.
- Prayer and Praise Go Together – Even in need, David pairs his requests with vows of worship and praise.
- God Preserves His People – His mercy and truth are what sustain us, not human power.
- A Heritage for the Faithful – Those who fear His name inherit His promises and enjoy His protection.

Psalm 62 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God Alone Is My Salvation”

To the Chief Musician, to Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

Trust in God Alone

1 Truly my soul waits upon God;
from Him comes my salvation.

2 He only is my rock and my salvation;
He is my defense; I shall not be greatly moved.

The Vanity of Men

3 How long will you scheme against a man?

You shall all be slain:

as a bowing wall you shall be, and as a tottering fence.

4 They consult only to cast him down from his high place;

they delight in lies:

they bless with their mouth, but they curse inwardly. Selah.

Confidence Renewed

5 My soul, wait only upon God;

for my expectation is from Him.

6 He only is my rock and my salvation:

He is my defense; I shall not be moved.

7 In God is my salvation and my glory:

the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.

A Call to Trust

8 Trust in Him at all times, you people;

pour out your heart before Him:

God is a refuge for us. Selah.

The Worthlessness of Riches and Power

9 Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie:

to be laid in the balance,

they are altogether lighter than vanity.

10 Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery:

if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.

God's Power and Mercy

11 God has spoken once;

twice have I heard this:

that power belongs to God.

12 Also to You, O Lord, belongs mercy:

for You render to every man according to his work.

Key Lessons from Psalm 62

- God Alone Is Salvation – True stability and deliverance are found only in God, not in human strength or wealth.

- Wait Patiently on the Lord – Our souls must rest in God, expecting from Him alone.
- False Security in Men – Both lowly and mighty men are empty when compared to God’s eternal strength.
- Riches Are Deceptive – Wealth, oppression, or robbery cannot bring lasting security; only God sustains.
- Power and Mercy Belong to God – He alone holds ultimate power, yet He balances it with mercy and perfect justice.

Psalm 63 – Crawford Standard Bible

“My Soul Thirsts for God”

A Psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

Longing for God’s Presence

1 O God, You are my God; early will I seek You:
my soul thirsts for You, my flesh longs for You,
in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is.

2 To see Your power and Your glory,
so as I have seen You in the sanctuary.

The Greatness of God’s Love

3 Because Your lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise You.

4 Thus will I bless You while I live:
I will lift up my hands in Your name.

5 My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness;
and my mouth shall praise You with joyful lips.

Meditation in the Night

6 When I remember You upon my bed, and meditate on You in the night watches.

7 Because You have been my help,
therefore in the shadow of Your wings will I rejoice.

8 My soul clings to You:
Your right hand upholds me.

The Fate of the Wicked

9 But those that seek my soul, to destroy it, shall go into the lower parts of the earth.

10 They shall fall by the sword:
they shall be a portion for foxes.

The King's Joy

11 But the king shall rejoice in God;
every one that swears by Him shall glory:
but the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

Key Lessons from Psalm 63

- Seek God Early and Earnestly – Just as David longed for God in the wilderness, we are called to pursue Him as the deepest need of our souls.
- God's Love Is Better Than Life – His lovingkindness surpasses every earthly blessing, leading us to worship and praise.
- True Satisfaction Comes from God – Only His presence can fill and satisfy the human heart.
- God's Protection Is Sure – Under His wings, His people find safety and joy.
- The Wicked Will Perish, but the Righteous Rejoice – Those who oppose God are brought low, but those who cling to Him rejoice in His salvation.

Psalm 64 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God's Justice Against Secret Plots”

To the chief musician. A Psalm of David.

Prayer for Protection

1 Hear my voice, O God, in my prayer:
preserve my life from fear of the enemy.

2 Hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked;
from the insurrection of the workers of iniquity.

The Plots of the Wicked

3 They sharpen their tongue like a sword, and bend their bows to shoot their arrows, even bitter words.

4 That they may shoot in secret at the upright;
suddenly do they shoot at him, and fear not.

5 They encourage themselves in an evil matter;
they talk of laying snares secretly; they say, “Who shall see them?”

6 They search out iniquities;
they accomplish a diligent search:
both the inward thought of every one of them, and the heart, is deep.

God's Judgment

7 But God shall shoot at them with an arrow;
suddenly shall they be wounded.

8 So they shall make their own tongue to fall upon themselves:
all that see them shall flee away.

The Result of God's Justice

9 And all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God;
for they shall wisely consider of His doing.

10 The righteous shall be glad in the Lord, and shall trust in Him;
and all the upright in heart shall glory.

Key Lessons from Psalm 64

- God Hears the Cry of the Oppressed – When enemies plot in secret, God is attentive to His people's prayers.
- The Power of Words – The tongue can wound like arrows, but God will turn destructive words back on those who speak them.
- God Judges Hidden Sin – No secret plan of the wicked escapes His sight; He exposes and defeats their schemes.
- The Righteous Find Joy and Safety in God – Even when surrounded by enemies, the faithful rejoice and trust in His protection.
- God's Justice Leads to His Glory – When He acts, all people see His works and recognize His power.

Psalm 65 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God's Abundant Provision and Power”

To the chief musician. A Psalm and Song of David.

Praise to God in Zion

1 Praise waits for You, O God, in Zion:
and to You shall the vow be performed.

2 O You who hear prayer, unto You shall all flesh come.

Forgiveness and Nearness to God

3 Iniquities prevail against me:
as for our transgressions, You shall purge them away.

4 Blessed is the man whom You choose, and cause to approach unto You, that he may dwell in Your courts:
we shall be satisfied with the goodness of Your house, even of Your holy temple.

The God of Power and Salvation

5 By awesome deeds in righteousness You will answer us, O God of our salvation;
You who are the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea.

6 By His strength He sets fast the mountains;
being girded with power.

7 He stills the roaring of the seas, the noise of their waves, and the tumult of the people.

8 They also that dwell in the farthest parts are afraid at Your signs:
You make the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice.

God's Provision for the Earth

9 You visit the earth, and water it:
You greatly enrich it with the river of God, which is full of water:
You prepare them corn, when You have so provided for it.

10 You water the ridges thereof abundantly:
You settle the furrows thereof:
You make it soft with showers:
You bless its growth.

11 You crown the year with Your goodness;
and Your paths overflow with abundance.

12 They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness:
and the little hills rejoice on every side.

13 The pastures are clothed with flocks;
the valleys also are covered with corn;
they shout for joy, they also sing.

Key Lessons from Psalm 65

- God Deserves Our Praise – Worship belongs to Him alone, for He is faithful to answer prayer.
- Forgiveness Comes from God – Though sin overwhelms us, He graciously purges it away.
- Nearness to God Brings Satisfaction – Those who dwell in His presence enjoy the goodness of His house and temple.

- God’s Power Governs Creation – He controls the seas, the mountains, and the nations, showing His strength over all.
- God Provides Abundantly – From rain for the earth to harvest for the people, His paths overflow with blessing.
- All Creation Rejoices in Him – Fields, flocks, valleys, and hills declare His goodness and shout for joy.

Psalm 66 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Works of God and the Praise of His People”

To the chief musician. A Song or Psalm.

A Call to Worship

1 Make a joyful noise unto God, all the earth:

2 Sing forth the honor of His name:
make His praise glorious.

3 Say unto God, “How awesome are Your works!
Through the greatness of Your power shall Your enemies submit themselves unto You.”

4 All the earth shall worship You, and shall sing unto You; they shall sing to Your name. Selah.

The Mighty Works of God

5 Come and see the works of God:
He is awesome in His deeds toward the children of men.

6 He turned the sea into dry land:
they went through the river on foot:
there we rejoiced in Him.

7 He rules by His power forever;
His eyes watch the nations:
let not the rebellious exalt themselves. Selah.

Blessing the God Who Preserves His People

8 O bless our God, you people, and make the voice of His praise to be heard:

9 who holds our soul in life,
and does not allow our feet to slip.

10 For You, O God, have tested us:
You have tried us, as silver is tried.

11 You brought us into the net;
You laid affliction upon our backs.

12 You caused men to ride over our heads;
we went through fire and through water:
but You brought us out into a place of abundance.

Offerings of Praise and Testimony

13 I will go into Your house with burnt offerings:
I will pay You my vows,

14 which my lips have uttered,
and my mouth has spoken, when I was in trouble.

15 I will offer unto You burnt sacrifices of fat animals,
with the smoke of rams;
I will offer bulls with goats. Selah.

Declaring God's Deliverance

16 Come and hear, all you that fear God, and I will declare what He has done for my soul.

17 I cried unto Him with my mouth, and He was praised with my tongue.

18 If I regard iniquity in my heart,
the Lord will not hear me:

19 But truly God has heard me;
He has attended to the voice of my prayer.

20 Blessed be God, who has not turned away my prayer, nor His mercy from me.

Key Lessons from Psalm 66

- All Nations Are Called to Worship – The psalm invites the whole earth to honor God's name and glorify Him.
- God's Power Brings Awe – His mighty works, from parting the sea to ruling over nations, demand reverence.
- Trials Purify God's People – Affliction is compared to silver being tested, yet God leads His people into abundance.
- Worship Requires Sincerity – Vows and offerings must come from a heart that remembers God's deliverance.
- Prayer Requires Purity – If sin is cherished in the heart, prayer is hindered—but God hears the sincere.

- Testimony Strengthens Others – Sharing what God has done encourages the faith of those who fear Him.

Psalm 67 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Prayer for God’s Blessing on All Nations”

To the chief musician on Neginoth. A Psalm or Song.

A Prayer for God’s Favor

1 God be merciful unto us, and bless us;
and cause His face to shine upon us. Selah.

2 That Your way may be known upon earth,
Your salvation among all nations.

The Call to Universal Praise

3 Let the people praise You, O God;
let all the people praise You.

4 O let the nations be glad and sing for joy:
for You shall judge the people righteously,
and govern the nations upon earth. Selah.

5 Let the people praise You, O God;
let all the people praise You.

The Blessings of God’s Rule

6 Then shall the earth yield her increase;
and God, even our own God, shall bless us.

7 God shall bless us;
and all the ends of the earth shall fear Him.

Key Lessons from Psalm 67

- God’s Blessing Has a Purpose – His mercy and favor are meant to reveal His way to all nations.
- Global Praise – The psalm envisions not just Israel, but all peoples worshiping and rejoicing in God.
- God’s Righteous Rule – His just judgment brings joy, not fear, because He governs with equity.
- Blessing Leads to Reverence – When God prospers His people, the world sees and reveres His power.

- Missionary Vision – This psalm looks forward to the day when God’s salvation is known to every tribe and nation.

Psalm 68 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The God Who Rises in Victory”

To the chief musician. A Psalm or Song of David.

God Arises in Power

1 Let God arise, let His enemies be scattered:
let those who hate Him flee before Him.

2 As smoke is driven away, so drive them away;
as wax melts before the fire,
so let the wicked perish at the presence of God.

3 But let the righteous be glad;
let them rejoice before God,
yes, let them exceedingly rejoice.

4 Sing to God, sing praises to His name:
extol Him that rides upon the heavens by His name Yah, and rejoice before Him.

Protector of the Weak

5 A Father to the fatherless, a defender of widows, is God in His holy habitation.

6 God sets the solitary in families;
He brings out those who are bound with chains:
but the rebellious dwell in a dry land.

God’s Presence in the Wilderness

7 O God, when You went forth before Your people, when You marched through the wilderness—Selah—

8 The earth shook, the heavens also dropped at the presence of God:
even Sinai itself was moved at the presence of God, the God of Israel.

9 You, O God, sent a plentiful rain, whereby You confirmed Your inheritance, when it was weary.

10 Your congregation dwelt therein:
You, O God, prepared of Your goodness for the poor.

The Lord Gives the Word

11 The Lord gave the word:
great was the company of those that proclaimed it.

12 Kings of armies fled quickly:
and she that remained at home divided the spoil.

13 Though you have lain among the pots, yet you shall be as the wings of a dove covered with silver,
and her feathers with yellow gold.

14 When the Almighty scattered kings in it,
it was white as snow in Salmon.

The Mountain of God

15 The hill of God is as the hill of Bashan;
a high hill as the hill of Bashan.

16 Why do you leap, you high hills?
This is the hill which God desires to dwell in;
yes, the Lord will dwell in it forever.

The Heavenly Host

17 The chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands upon thousands of angels:
the Lord is among them, as in Sinai, in the holy place.

18 You have ascended on high,
You have led captivity captive:
You have received gifts for men;
yes, for the rebellious also,
that the Lord God might dwell among them.

Blessed Be the Lord

19 Blessed be the Lord,
who daily loads us with benefits,
even the God of our salvation. Selah.

20 He that is our God is the God of salvation;
and to God the Lord belong deliverances from death.

God Defeats His Enemies

21 But God shall wound the head of His enemies, and the hairy scalp of such a one as goes on still in his trespasses.

22 The Lord said, I will bring again from Bashan,
I will bring my people again from the depths of the sea:

23 That your foot may be dipped in the blood of your enemies, and the tongues of your dogs in the same.

Procession of Praise

24 They have seen Your procession, O God;
even the procession of my God, my King, into the sanctuary.

25 The singers went before,
the players on instruments followed after;
among them were the young women playing with timbrels.

26 Bless God in the congregations, even the Lord, from the fountain of Israel.

27 There is little Benjamin with their ruler,
the princes of Judah with their council,
the princes of Zebulun, and the princes of Naphtali.

God Reigns Over Nations

28 Your God has commanded your strength:
strengthen, O God, that which You have worked for us.

29 Because of Your temple at Jerusalem shall kings bring presents unto You.

30 Rebuke the company of spearmen, the multitude of the bulls, with the calves of the people,

till everyone submits himself with pieces of silver:
scatter the people that delight in war.

31 Princes shall come out of Egypt;
Ethiopia shall soon stretch out her hands to God.

The Universal Call to Praise

32 Sing unto God, you kingdoms of the earth;
O sing praises to the Lord. Selah.

33 To Him that rides upon the heavens of heavens, which were of old;
lo, He sends out His voice, and that a mighty voice.

34 Ascribe strength to God:
His excellence is over Israel,
and His strength is in the clouds.

35 O God, You are awesome out of Your holy places:
the God of Israel is He that gives strength and power unto His people.
Blessed be God.

Key Lessons from Psalm 68

- God is a Warrior-King – He arises and scatters His enemies, proving His strength over all creation.
- Protector of the Vulnerable – God defends the fatherless, the widows, and those in chains.
- God's Presence Transforms – His march through the wilderness shook Sinai and brought provision for His people.
- Christ Fulfilled the Ascent – Verse 18 foreshadows Christ's ascension, where He led captivity captive (Ephesians 4:8).
- Daily Blessings – God loads His people with benefits, sustaining them with salvation.
- Universal Praise – From Israel to Egypt, Ethiopia, and all nations, God calls for global worship.
- Strength and Power Belong to God Alone – His might is unrivaled, and His people are strengthened through Him.

Psalm 69 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Save Me, O God”

To the chief musician. Upon Shoshannim. A Psalm of David.

A Cry from the Depths

1 Save me, O God;
for the waters have come up unto my soul.

2 I sink in deep mire, where there is no standing;
I have come into deep waters,
where the floods overflow me.

3 I am weary with my crying;
my throat is dried:
my eyes fail while I wait for my God.

The Weight of Hostility

4 They that hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of my head:
they that would destroy me, being my enemies wrongfully, are mighty:
then I restored that which I did not steal.

5 O God, You know my foolishness;
and my sins are not hidden from You.

6 Let not those that wait on You, O Lord God of hosts, be ashamed because of me:
let not those that seek You be confounded for my sake,
O God of Israel.

Reproach and Isolation

7 Because for Your sake I have borne reproach; shame has covered my face.

8 I have become a stranger to my brethren, and an alien unto my mother’s children.

9 For the zeal of Your house has consumed me;
and the reproaches of those who reproached You are fallen upon me.

10 When I wept and humbled my soul with fasting, that was turned to my reproach.

11 I made sackcloth my garment;
and I became a proverb to them.

12 They that sit in the gate speak against me;
and I was the song of the drunkards.

Prayer for Deliverance

13 But as for me, my prayer is unto You, O Lord, in an acceptable time:
O God, in the multitude of Your mercy hear me,
in the truth of Your salvation.

14 Deliver me out of the mire, and let me not sink:
let me be delivered from those that hate me,
and out of the deep waters.

15 Let not the flood overflow me, neither let the deep swallow me up,
and let not the pit shut her mouth upon me.

16 Hear me, O Lord; for Your lovingkindness is good:
turn unto me according to the multitude of Your tender mercies.

17 Hide not Your face from Your servant;
for I am in trouble: hear me speedily.

18 Draw near unto my soul, and redeem it:
deliver me because of my enemies.

Betrayed and Mocked

19 You have known my reproach, and my shame, and my dishonor:
my adversaries are all before You.

20 Reproach has broken my heart; and I am full of heaviness:
I looked for someone to take pity, but there was none;
and for comforters, but I found none.

21 They gave me also gall for my food;
and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

Prayer of Judgment on Enemies

22 Let their table become a snare before them:
and that which should have been for their welfare,
let it become a trap.

23 Let their eyes be darkened, that they see not;
and make their loins continually to tremble.

24 Pour out Your indignation upon them,
and let Your fierce anger overtake them.

25 Let their habitation be desolate;
and let none dwell in their tents.

26 For they persecute the one whom You have smitten;
and they speak to the grief of those You have wounded.

27 Add iniquity unto their iniquity:
and let them not come into Your righteousness.

28 Let them be blotted out of the book of the living, and not be written with the righteous.

Hope in God's Salvation

29 But I am poor and sorrowful:
let Your salvation, O God, set me on high.

30 I will praise the name of God with a song, and will magnify Him with thanksgiving.

31 This also shall please the Lord better than an ox or a bull that has horns and hooves.

32 The humble shall see this, and be glad:
and your heart shall live that seek God.

33 For the Lord hears the poor, and does not despise His prisoners.

Universal Praise and Restoration

34 Let heaven and earth praise Him,
the seas, and everything that moves therein.

35 For God will save Zion, and will build the cities of Judah:
that they may dwell there, and have it in possession.

36 The descendants of His servants shall inherit it:
and they that love His name shall dwell therein.

Key Lessons from Psalm 69

- Messianic Prophecy – Verse 21 was fulfilled at the cross when Christ was given vinegar to drink (Matthew 27:34, John 19:28–30).
- The Cost of Zeal – True passion for God’s house often brings reproach and isolation (v. 9; John 2:17).
- God Knows Our Sorrow – He sees the reproach, shame, and loneliness of His children (v. 19–20).
- Righteous Anger vs. Mercy – David prays for judgment on enemies, reminding us of the seriousness of sin and rejection of God.
- True Worship – God delights more in heartfelt praise and thanksgiving than in ritual sacrifice (v. 30–31).
- Hope of Restoration – Zion’s future blessing assures believers that God’s salvation will triumph in the end.

Psalm 70 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Make Haste to Help Me”

To the chief musician. A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.

A Cry for Urgent Deliverance

1 Make haste, O God, to deliver me;
make haste to help me, O Lord.

2 Let them be ashamed and confounded that seek after my soul:
let them be turned backward, and put to confusion,
that desire my hurt.

3 Let them be turned back for a reward of their shame that say, “Aha, aha.”

Joy for the Righteous

4 Let all those that seek You rejoice and be glad in You:
and let those who love Your salvation say continually, “Let God be magnified.”

Personal Plea for Rescue

5 But I am poor and needy:
make haste unto me, O God:
You are my help and my deliverer;
O Lord, do not delay.

Key Lessons from Psalm 70

- Urgent Prayer is Biblical – It is not wrong to cry out, “Hurry, Lord!” God welcomes our desperation when we lean fully on Him.
- Enemies Will Fail – Those who oppose God’s people will ultimately be put to shame.
- Worship in Waiting – Even while pleading for help, believers are called to rejoice and magnify the Lord.
- God Our Deliverer – The psalm reminds us that only God is our true help and deliverer—He never delays beyond what is best.

Psalm 71 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Lifetime of Trust”

Trusting God from Youth to Old Age

1 In You, O Lord, do I put my trust:
let me never be put to confusion.

2 Deliver me in Your righteousness, and cause me to escape:
incline Your ear unto me, and save me.

3 Be my strong habitation, where I may continually come;
You have given commandment to save me;
for You are my rock and my fortress.

4 Deliver me, O my God, from the hand of the wicked, from the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.

5 For You are my hope, O Lord God:
You are my trust from my youth.

6 By You have I been upheld from the womb:
You are He that took me out of my mother's womb:
my praise shall continually be of You.

A Refuge and a Witness

7 I am as a wonder to many;
but You are my strong refuge.

8 Let my mouth be filled with Your praise and with Your honor all the day.

9 Do not cast me off in the time of old age;
forsake me not when my strength fails.

10 For my enemies speak against me;
and those who lie in wait for my soul take counsel together,

11 Saying, "God has forsaken him: pursue and take him;
for there is none to deliver him."

12 O God, be not far from me:
O my God, make haste for my help.

13 Let them be confounded and consumed that are adversaries to my soul;
let them be covered with reproach and dishonor that seek my hurt.

Continual Hope and Praise

14 But I will hope continually, and will yet praise You more and more.

15 My mouth shall declare Your righteousness and Your salvation all the day;
for I do not know their number.

16 I will go in the strength of the Lord God:
I will make mention of Your righteousness, even of Yours alone.

17 O God, You have taught me from my youth:
and to this day I declare Your wondrous works.

18 Now also when I am old and grayheaded, O God, forsake me not;
until I have shown Your strength to this generation, and Your power to everyone that is to come.

God's Greatness and Comfort

19 Your righteousness also, O God, is very high,
You who have done great things:
O God, who is like You!

20 You, who have shown me great and severe troubles, shall revive me again,
and shall bring me up again from the depths of the earth.

21 You shall increase my greatness,
and comfort me on every side.

A Song of Redeemed Praise

22 I will also praise You with the psaltery, even Your truth, O my God:
unto You will I sing with the harp,
O You Holy One of Israel.

23 My lips shall greatly rejoice when I sing unto You;
and my soul, which You have redeemed.

24 My tongue also shall talk of Your righteousness all the day long:
for they are confounded, for they are brought unto shame,
that seek my hurt.

Key Lessons from Psalm 71

- God is Faithful for a Lifetime – From the womb to old age, the Lord sustains those who trust Him.
- Hope Grows Stronger with Age – Even when strength fails, faith and praise can grow stronger.
- A Legacy of Faith – Believers are called to pass on God's strength and power to the next generation.
- Trials Lead to Renewal – The same God who allows affliction also revives, restores, and comforts His people.

- Praise is Lifelong – No season of life is exempt from declaring God’s righteousness and salvation.

Psalm 72 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Reign of the Righteous King”

A Prayer for the King’s Justice

1 Give the king Your judgments, O God, and Your righteousness unto the king’s son.

2 He shall judge Your people with righteousness, and Your poor with justice.

3 The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the little hills, by righteousness.

4 He shall judge the poor of the people,
He shall save the children of the needy,
and shall break in pieces the oppressor.

The Everlasting Reign of the King

5 They shall fear You as long as the sun and moon endure, throughout all generations.

6 He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass:
as showers that water the earth.

7 In His days shall the righteous flourish;
and abundance of peace so long as the moon endures.

8 He shall have dominion also from sea to sea,
and from the river unto the ends of the earth.

9 They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before Him;
and His enemies shall lick the dust.

The Submission of the Nations

10 The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents:
the kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.

11 Yes, all kings shall fall down before Him:
all nations shall serve Him.

The King's Care for the Needy

12 For He shall deliver the needy when he cries;
the poor also, and him that has no helper.

13 He shall spare the poor and needy, and shall save the souls of the needy.

14 He shall redeem their soul from deceit and violence:
and precious shall their blood be in His sight.

The Blessing of His Reign

15 He shall live, and to Him shall be given the gold of Sheba:
prayer also shall be made for Him continually;
and daily shall He be praised.

16 There shall be a handful of grain in the earth upon the top of the mountains;
the fruit thereof shall wave like Lebanon:
and they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth.

17 His name shall endure forever:
His name shall continue as long as the sun:
and men shall be blessed in Him:
all nations shall call Him blessed.

Closing Benediction

18 Blessed be the Lord God, the God of Israel, who only does wondrous things.

19 And blessed be His glorious name forever:
and let the whole earth be filled with His glory;
Amen, and Amen.

20 The prayers of David the son of Jesse are ended.

Key Lessons from Psalm 72

- Christ is the Perfect King – The psalm anticipates a reign greater than Solomon’s, fulfilled in Christ who rules with perfect justice and mercy.
- True Peace Flows from Righteousness – Lasting peace and prosperity are rooted in God’s justice, not human strength.
- The Kingdom is Universal – Christ’s dominion extends to all nations, peoples, and lands.
- The King Defends the Helpless – The needy, poor, and oppressed are precious in God’s sight, and He redeems their lives.
- His Name Endures Forever – Christ’s name and glory will never fade, and all nations will be blessed in Him.

Psalm 73 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The End of the Wicked and the Security of the Righteous”

The Struggle with Envy

1 Truly God is good to Israel, even to those who are of a clean heart.

2 But as for me, my feet were almost gone;
my steps had nearly slipped.

3 For I was envious of the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

4 For they have no struggles in their death;
but their strength is firm.

5 They are not in trouble as other men;
neither are they plagued like other men.

6 Therefore pride surrounds them as a chain;
violence covers them as a garment.

7 Their eyes bulge with abundance;
they have more than heart could wish.

8 They are corrupt, and speak wickedly concerning oppression;
they speak loftily.

9 They set their mouth against the heavens,
and their tongue walks through the earth.

The Prosperity of the Wicked

10 Therefore His people turn aside to them, and waters of a full cup are drained by them.

11 And they say, How does God know?
Is there knowledge in the Most High?

12 Behold, these are the ungodly, who prosper in the world; they increase in riches.

13 Surely I have cleansed my heart in vain, and washed my hands in innocence.

14 For all the day long I have been plagued,
and chastened every morning.

15 If I had said, "I will speak thus," behold, I would have betrayed the generation of Your children.

The Turning Point: God's Sanctuary

16 When I thought to understand this,
it was too painful for me;

17 Until I went into the sanctuary of God;
then I understood their end.

18 Surely You set them in slippery places:
You cast them down into destruction.

19 How they are brought into desolation, as in a moment!
They are utterly consumed with terrors.

20 As a dream when one awakes;
so, O Lord, when You arise, You shall despise their image.

A Confession of Folly and Faith

21 Thus my heart was grieved, and I was pricked in my reins.

22 So foolish was I, and ignorant:
I was as a beast before You.

23 Nevertheless I am continually with You:
You have held me by my right hand.

24 You shall guide me with Your counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.

25 Whom have I in heaven but You?
And there is none upon earth that I desire besides You.

26 My flesh and my heart fail:
but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion forever.

The Destiny of the Wicked vs. the Righteous

27 For behold, those who are far from You shall perish:
You have destroyed all those who go astray from You.

28 But it is good for me to draw near to God:
I have put my trust in the Lord God,
that I may declare all Your works.

KEY LESSONS FROM PSALM 73

- The Prosperity of the Wicked is Temporary – Though they seem secure, God has set them in slippery places; their end is sudden destruction.
- Envy Blinds the Heart – Looking at the lives of the ungodly without God’s perspective can lead to doubt and despair.
- The Sanctuary Gives Clarity – True understanding comes when we draw near to God in worship and gain an eternal perspective.
- God is Our Portion Forever – Earthly wealth fades, but God Himself is the lasting inheritance of His people.
- The Righteous Find Security in God’s Presence – Even in weakness, God holds us by His hand, guides us with counsel, and will receive us into glory.
- The Nearness of God is Our Good – The highest blessing is not prosperity, but fellowship with the living God.

Psalm 74 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Plea for God’s Deliverance from Enemies”

Why, O Lord, Have You Cast Us Off?

1 O God, why have You cast us off forever?

Why does Your anger smoke against the sheep of Your pasture?

2 Remember Your congregation, which You purchased of old,
the tribe of Your inheritance, which You redeemed;
this Mount Zion, where You have dwelt.

3 Lift up Your feet to the perpetual desolations;
see all the destruction the enemy has done in the sanctuary.

The Enemy's Desecration of the Sanctuary

4 Your enemies roar in the midst of Your congregations;
they set up their banners as signs.

5 A man was honored for lifting axes against the thick trees.

6 But now they smash the carved work of the temple with axes and hammers.

7 They set fire to Your sanctuary;
they defiled the dwelling place of Your name, casting it to the ground.

8 They said in their hearts, Let us destroy them altogether.
They have burned all the meeting places of God in the land.

A Season Without Prophets

9 We see not our signs:
there is no longer any prophet,
neither is there anyone among us who knows how long.

10 O God, how long shall the enemy reproach?
Shall the adversary blaspheme Your name forever?

11 Why do You hold back Your hand, even Your right hand?
Draw it from Your bosom and act!

The God of Mighty Deeds

12 For God is my King from of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth.

13 You divided the sea by Your strength;
You broke the heads of the sea monsters in the waters.

14 You crushed the heads of Leviathan in pieces, and gave him as food for the creatures of the wilderness.

15 You opened up springs and streams;
You dried up mighty rivers.

16 The day is Yours, the night also is Yours;
You prepared the light and the sun.

17 You set all the boundaries of the earth;
You made summer and winter.

A Cry for God to Act

18 Remember this, O Lord, the enemy has reproached, and a foolish people has blasphemed Your name.

19 Do not deliver the soul of Your turtledove to the wild beasts;
do not forget the life of Your poor forever.

20 Have respect to the covenant:
for the dark places of the earth are full of the dwellings of cruelty.

21 O let not the oppressed return ashamed;
let the poor and needy praise Your name.

22 Arise, O God, plead Your own cause:
remember how the foolish man reproaches You daily.

23 Do not forget the voice of Your enemies;
the uproar of those who rise up against You increases continually.

KEY LESSONS FROM PSALM 74

- God's People May Feel Forsaken – Israel mourns the destruction of the temple, feeling abandoned, yet they still call Him “our King of old.”
- The Enemies of God Seek to Destroy His Worship – The burning of synagogues and the temple shows the enemy's true goal: to silence God's name among His people.
- Seasons of Silence Do Not Mean God Has Ceased to Reign – Though no prophet speaks and guidance seems lost, the psalmist remembers God's mighty acts in history.
- God is Sovereign Over Creation – The psalm recalls His power over seas, rivers, day and night, and even Leviathan—reminding us He controls both chaos and time.

- The Covenant is the Basis for Hope – The plea “have respect unto the covenant” reveals that God’s promises, not circumstances, are the ground of confidence.
- God’s Cause is Greater Than Ours – The psalmist cries, “Arise, O God, plead Your own cause,” showing that when God acts, He defends not only His people but His own glory.

Psalm 75 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God the Judge of All the Earth”

Thanksgiving for God’s Nearness

1 To You, O God, we give thanks; to You we give thanks,
for Your name is near;
Your wondrous works declare it.

God Speaks as Judge

2 When I appoint the set time,
I will judge uprightly.
3 Though the earth and all its inhabitants tremble,
I will hold its pillars firm. Selah.

Warning to the Proud

4 I said to the arrogant, Do not act arrogantly, and to the wicked, Do not lift up the horn.
5 Do not lift up your horn on high;
do not speak with a stiff neck.

Exaltation Comes from God Alone

6 For exaltation comes neither from the east, nor from the west, nor from the desert.
7 But God is the Judge;
He brings one down,
and He lifts up another.

The Cup of God's Wrath

8 For in the hand of the Lord there is a cup, full of foaming wine, well mixed;
and He pours it out,
and all the wicked of the earth shall drain it down to the dregs.

Praise for God's Justice

9 But I will declare it forever;
I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

10 All the horns of the wicked I will cut off, but the horns of the righteous shall be lifted up.

KEY LESSONS FROM PSALM 75

- God Is the Ultimate Judge – Human power, position, and pride do not determine destiny; God alone lifts up or brings down.
- Exaltation Comes from God, Not Man – Promotion or downfall does not come from east, west, or south, but from the Lord Himself.
- The Cup of Wrath Is Certain – The image of the cup reminds us that judgment for the wicked is inevitable, complete, and inescapable.
- Pride Brings Downfall – God warns the arrogant not to “lift up the horn,” showing that human pride leads to humiliation.
- The Righteous Are Exalted – While the wicked are cut off, those who walk in righteousness will ultimately be honored and strengthened by God.
- Continual Praise Is the Response – The psalmist declares he will praise God forever, for His justice is sure and His glory eternal.

Psalm 76 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The God Who Judges the Earth”

God's Presence in Zion

1 In Judah God is known;
His name is great in Israel.

2 In Salem is His tabernacle, and His dwelling place is in Zion.

The Warrior God Who Brings Peace

3 There He broke the flashing arrows, the shield, the sword, and the weapons of battle. Selah.

4 You are more glorious and majestic than the mountains full of plunder.

The Defeat of the Proud

5 The valiant were stripped of their spoils;
they slept their final sleep.

The warriors could not lift their hands.

6 At Your rebuke, O God of Jacob, both chariot and horse lay still in death.

The Fear of God in Judgment

7 You, even You, are to be feared.
Who can stand before You when once Your anger is stirred?

8 From heaven You pronounced judgment;
the earth feared and was still,

9 when God arose to execute judgment, to save all the meek of the earth. Selah.

The Wrath of Man Turned to Praise

10 Surely the wrath of man shall praise You;
with the remainder of wrath You will restrain it.

A Call to Worship and Reverence

11 Make vows to the Lord your God and fulfill them; let all who are around Him bring gifts to Him who is to be feared.

12 He cuts off the spirit of princes;
He is awesome to the kings of the earth.

KEY LESSONS FROM PSALM 76

- God Is Known by His Presence – His glory dwells in Zion, showing that God reveals Himself among His people.
- God Brings Peace Through Power – True peace does not come from treaties or human strength but by God breaking the weapons of war.
- No One Can Withstand His Judgment – When God arises, even the proudest warriors fall silent and powerless.
- God Defends the Humble – He rises to save the meek of the earth, showing His justice is not partial to the mighty but favors the lowly.
- Human Wrath Cannot Overrule God – Even man’s rebellion ends up serving God’s glory, for He turns it to His praise or restrains it completely.
- God Deserves Our Reverence and Worship – Because He rules over princes and kings, we must keep our vows and honor Him with offerings of obedience and praise.

Psalm 77 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The God Who Works Wonders”

A Cry in the Night

1 I cried out to God with my voice—to God with my voice, and He listened to me.

2 In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord;
my hands were stretched out in the night without ceasing.
My soul refused to be comforted.

3 I remembered God and groaned;
I meditated, and my spirit was overwhelmed. Selah.

The Weight of Unanswered Questions

4 You kept my eyes from closing;
I was so troubled that I could not speak.

5 I considered the days of old,
the years long ago.

6 I remembered my song in the night;
my heart meditated, and my spirit searched.

7 “Will the Lord cast us off forever?
Will He never show His favor again?”

8 Has His mercy vanished forever?
Has His promise failed for all generations?

9 Has God forgotten to be gracious?
Has He in anger shut up His tender mercies?” Selah.

A Turning of the Heart

10 Then I said, “This is my grief, but I will remember the years of the right hand of the Most High.”

11 I will remember the works of the Lord;
surely I will remember Your wonders of old.

12 I will meditate on all Your works and talk of all Your mighty deeds.

The God of Wonders and Redemption

13 Your way, O God, is holy;
who is so great a God as our God?

14 You are the God who works wonders;
You have revealed Your strength among the peoples.

15 With Your mighty arm You redeemed Your people, the children of Jacob and Joseph. Selah.

The God of Creation’s Power

16 The waters saw You, O God, the waters saw You and trembled;
the depths were shaken.

17 The clouds poured out rain;
the skies thundered;
Your arrows flashed back and forth.

18 The sound of Your thunder was in the whirlwind;
Your lightning lit up the world;
the earth trembled and shook.

19 Your way was through the sea,
Your path through the mighty waters,
yet Your footprints were unseen.

20 You led Your people like a flock
by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

KEY LESSONS FROM PSALM 77

- God Hears the Troubled Heart – Even in seasons of despair when comfort seems impossible, God listens to the cries of His people.
- Faith Questions but Finds Hope – Honest doubts about God’s mercy and promises can be turned into faith by remembering His past works.
- The Power of Remembering – Recalling God’s wonders in history strengthens present faith and assures us of His unchanging nature.
- God’s Ways Are Higher – His path may be hidden and mysterious, yet His power over creation shows He rules all things.
- Redemption Is at the Center – Just as He redeemed Israel by His mighty hand, He redeems all who trust in Him through Christ.
- The Lord Is the Shepherd of His People – He guides His flock with care, using chosen servants, but always with His own unseen hand.

Psalm 78 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Lessons from Israel’s History”

A Call to Remember

1 My people, listen to my teaching;
incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

2 I will open my mouth in parables;
I will speak of hidden things from the past—

3 things we have heard and known, things our fathers have told us.

4 We will not hide them from their children;
we will tell the next generation the praises of the Lord,
His strength, and the wonderful works He has done.

The Command to Pass Down the Faith

5 He established a testimony in Jacob and set a law in Israel, which He commanded our fathers to make known to their children,

6 so that the generation to come might know them—even children yet to be born—who in turn would tell their children,

7 so that they might set their hope in God,
not forget His works,
but keep His commandments.

8 They must not be like their ancestors,
a stubborn and rebellious generation,
whose hearts were not loyal,
whose spirits were not faithful to God.

Israel's Rebellion in the Wilderness

9 The men of Ephraim, armed with bows, turned back in the day of battle.

10 They did not keep God's covenant, and they refused to walk in His law.

11 They forgot His deeds and the wonders He had shown them.

12 In the sight of their fathers He did marvelous things in the land of Egypt, in the fields of Zoan.

13 He divided the sea and let them pass through;
He made the waters stand up like a wall.

14 He guided them by a cloud in the day,
and all night by the light of fire.

15 He split the rocks in the wilderness and gave them drink from the depths of the earth.

16 He made streams gush out of the rock, causing waters to flow like rivers.

17 Yet they continued to sin against Him, rebellious in the desert against the Most High.

18 They tested God in their hearts, demanding food to satisfy their cravings.

19 They spoke against God, saying,
“Can God prepare a table in the wilderness?”

20 Yes, He struck the rock, water gushed out, and streams overflowed—but can He also give us bread?
Can He provide His people with meat?”

21 Therefore the Lord heard and was furious;
fire was kindled against Jacob,
and anger rose against Israel,

22 because they did not believe in God or trust in His salvation.

The Bread of Heaven and the Quail of Desire

23 Yet He commanded the skies above and opened the doors of heaven.

24 He rained down manna for them to eat,
the grain of heaven.

25 Man ate the bread of angels;
He sent them food in abundance.

26 He stirred up the east wind from heaven;
by His power He brought in the south wind.

27 He rained meat on them like dust,
birds like the sand of the sea.

28 He made them fall in the midst of their camp,
all around their tents.

29 So they ate and were well filled,
for He gave them what they craved.

30 But before they had satisfied their lust,
while the food was still in their mouths,

31 the anger of God rose against them;
He killed the strongest among them and struck down Israel's finest men.

Unfaithfulness and God's Patience

32 In spite of all this, they still sinned and did not believe in His wondrous works.

33 So He ended their days in futility, and their years in sudden terror.

34 When He killed some of them, they sought Him;
they repented and earnestly sought God.

35 They remembered that God was their rock, that the Most High God was their redeemer.

36 But they flattered Him with their mouths and lied to Him with their tongues.

37 Their hearts were not loyal to Him;
they were not faithful to His covenant.

38 Yet He, being compassionate, forgave their sins and did not destroy them.

Time after time He turned His anger away and did not unleash His full wrath.

39 For He remembered that they were but flesh—
a passing breeze that does not return.

God's Mighty Works in Egypt

40 How often they rebelled against Him in the wilderness and grieved Him in the desert!

41 Again and again they tested God and limited the Holy One of Israel.

42 They did not remember His power or the day He redeemed them from the enemy,

43 when He performed His signs in Egypt and His wonders in the fields of Zoan.

44 He turned their rivers into blood, so they could not drink.

45 He sent swarms of flies that devoured them and frogs that destroyed them.

46 He gave their crops to the caterpillar, their labor to the locust.

47 He destroyed their vines with hail,
their sycamore trees with frost.

48 He gave their cattle to the hail,
their flocks to lightning bolts.

49 He unleashed His burning anger—fury, indignation, and trouble—sending destroying angels among them.

50 He prepared a path for His anger;
He did not spare them from death
but delivered their lives to the plague.

51 He struck down all the firstborn of Egypt,
the pride and strength of the houses of Ham.

The Lord Leads His People

52 But He led His own people out like sheep, guiding them in the wilderness like a flock.

53 He led them safely, so they were unafraid,
but the sea engulfed their enemies.

54 He brought them to His holy land, to the mountain His right hand had won.

55 He drove out nations before them, gave them their inheritance by lot,
and settled the tribes of Israel in their tents.

Israel's Betrayal and God's Choice of Judah

56 Yet they tested and rebelled against the Most High God;
they did not keep His decrees.

57 They turned back and were unfaithful like their fathers;
they were unreliable, like a faulty bow.

58 They provoked Him to anger with their high places and moved Him to jealousy with their idols.

59 When God heard them, He was furious;
He greatly rejected Israel.

60 He abandoned the tabernacle of Shiloh,
the tent He had set among men.

61 He delivered His strength into captivity,
His glory into the hand of the enemy.

62 He gave His people over to the sword;
He was furious with His inheritance.

63 Fire consumed their young men, and their maidens had no songs of marriage.

64 Their priests fell by the sword,
and their widows could not weep.

The Lord Chooses David

65 Then the Lord awoke as from sleep, like a warrior overcome with wine.

66 He struck His enemies from behind and put them to lasting shame.

67 He rejected the tent of Joseph;
He did not choose the tribe of Ephraim.

68 But He chose the tribe of Judah,
Mount Zion, which He loved.

69 He built His sanctuary like the heights, like the earth He established forever.

70 He chose David His servant and took him from the sheepfolds.

71 From tending the ewes with young
He brought him to shepherd Jacob His people, Israel His inheritance.

72 So David shepherded them with integrity of heart and guided them with skillful hands.

Key Lessons from Psalm 78

- Faith Must Be Taught Across Generations – God commands that His works and laws be passed on, so that each generation knows and trusts Him.
- Forgetfulness Leads to Rebellion – When God’s people forget His works, they fall into sin and unbelief.
- God Provides, Yet People Complain – Even miracles do not guarantee faith if hearts are hardened.
- God Is Both Just and Merciful – Though He disciplines with wrath, He repeatedly shows compassion and restrains His anger.
- Idolatry Brings God’s Rejection – Trusting in false gods led to loss of His presence, even the abandonment of His dwelling at Shiloh.
- God Raises Up a Shepherd-King – Despite Israel’s failures, God chose Judah and David, pointing forward to the ultimate Shepherd, Jesus Christ.

Psalm 79 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Lament Over Desolation”

The Destruction of Jerusalem

1 O God, the nations have invaded Your inheritance;
they have defiled Your holy temple and left Jerusalem in ruins.

2 They have given the dead bodies of Your servants to be food for the birds of the air, the flesh of Your faithful ones to the beasts of the earth.

3 They poured out their blood like water
all around Jerusalem,
and there was no one to bury them.

4 We have become a reproach to our neighbors, scorn and ridicule to those around us.

A Cry for Mercy

5 How long, Lord? Will You be angry forever?
Will Your jealousy burn like fire?

6 Pour out Your wrath on the nations that do not know You,
and on the kingdoms that do not call on Your name.

7 For they have devoured Jacob and made his dwelling a ruin.

8 Do not hold our past sins against us;
let Your compassion come quickly to meet us,
for we are brought very low.

9 Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of Your name;
deliver us and forgive our sins
for the honor of Your name.

A Plea for Justice

10 Why should the nations say, “Where is their God?”
Show the nations before our eyes that You avenge the blood of Your servants.

11 Hear the groaning of the prisoners;
by the greatness of Your power preserve those condemned to die.

12 Pay back into the laps of our neighbors sevenfold
the insults they hurled at You, O Lord.

A Promise of Praise

13 Then we, Your people,
the sheep of Your pasture,
will give thanks to You forever;
we will declare Your praise to all generations.

Key Lessons from Psalm 79

- Sin Leads to Judgment – When God’s people stray, His temple and city suffer because of their rebellion.

- God’s Name Brings Deliverance – Forgiveness and salvation are sought not because we deserve them, but for the glory of His name.
- Justice Belongs to the Lord – God hears the cry of the oppressed and will repay the nations that mock His people.
- Hope for Restoration – Even in desolation, God’s people can trust that He will preserve a remnant for His praise.
- Worship Is the Final Response – The people of God, like sheep of His pasture, must give Him thanks in every generation.

Psalm 80 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Restore Us, O God”

A Cry for Salvation

1 Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel,
You who lead Joseph like a flock,
You who dwell between the cherubim, shine forth.

2 Before Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh, stir up Your strength
and come to save us.

3 Restore us, O God;
make Your face shine on us,
that we may be saved.

The Tears of God’s People

4 O Lord God of hosts,
how long will You be angry with the prayers of Your people?

5 You have fed them with the bread of tears and given them tears to drink in abundance.

6 You have made us an object of contention to our neighbors, and our enemies mock among themselves.

7 Restore us, O God of hosts;
make Your face shine on us,
that we may be saved.

Israel, the Vine of the Lord

8 You brought a vine out of Egypt;
You drove out the nations and planted it.

9 You cleared the ground for it, and it took deep root
and filled the land.

10 The mountains were covered with its shade,
and its branches were like mighty cedars.

11 It spread its branches to the sea and its shoots to the River.

12 Why have You broken down its walls,
so that all who pass by pick its fruit?

13 The boar from the forest ravages it,
and the wild beasts feed on it.

A Plea for God's Attention

14 Return to us, O God of hosts;
look down from heaven and see.
Take care of this vine,

15 the root Your right hand has planted,
the son You raised up for Yourself.

16 It is burned with fire, it is cut down;
they perish at the rebuke of Your face.

17 Let Your hand rest on the man of Your right hand, the son of man You have raised up for Yourself.

18 Then we will not turn back from You;
revive us, and we will call on Your name.

19 Restore us, O Lord God of hosts;
make Your face shine on us,
that we may be saved.

Key Lessons from Psalm 80

- God Is the Shepherd of His People – He leads, protects, and restores His flock when they turn to Him.

- Sin Brings Sorrow – Disobedience leads to tears, ridicule, and destruction at the hands of enemies.
- God’s Vineyard Must Be Kept – Israel, like a vine, thrives only under God’s care but withers when He withdraws His hand.
- Christ Foreshadowed – The “man of God’s right hand” points us to Jesus, through whom salvation and restoration come.
- Revival Comes from God – True life and renewal are found only when God’s face shines upon His people.

Psalm 81 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Sing for Joy to the God of Jacob”

A Call to Worship

1 Sing aloud to God, our strength.

Make a joyful noise to the God of Jacob.

2 Sing a song of praise.

Bring the tambourine, the sweet-sounding harp, and the lyre.

3 Blow the trumpet at the new moon,
and at the full moon, on our festival day.

4 For this is a command for Israel, a law of the God of Jacob.

5 He established it in Joseph as a testimony,
when He went out against the land of Egypt.
I heard a language I did not understand.

God’s Deliverance

6 “I lifted the burden from your shoulders;
your hands were freed from carrying heavy baskets.

7 You cried out in trouble, and I rescued you.
I answered you in the secret place of thunder.
I tested you at the waters of Meribah.” Selah.

A Warning Against Idolatry

8 “Listen, My people, while I give you a warning.
O Israel, if only you would listen to Me!

9 You must never have a foreign god among you;
you must not bow down to a strange god.

10 For I am the Lord your God,
who brought you out of the land of Egypt.
Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.

The Rebellion of Israel

11 But My people would not listen to My voice.
Israel would not have anything to do with Me.

12 So I gave them over to follow their stubborn hearts, to walk in their own advice.

13 Oh, that My people would listen to Me, that Israel would walk in My ways!

14 I would quickly defeat their enemies and turn My hand against their adversaries.

15 Those who hate the Lord would bow before Him,
and their punishment would last forever.

16 But I would have fed them with the finest wheat, and satisfied them with honey from the rock.”

Key Lessons from Psalm 81

- Worship Is a Command – God calls His people to celebrate Him with songs, music, and joy.
- God Rescues His People – He delivered Israel from Egypt and still hears the cries of His people in trouble.
- Idolatry Brings Separation – Turning to false gods leads to emptiness and wandering in our own stubborn ways.
- Obedience Brings Blessing – If God’s people would listen, He promises victory, provision, and satisfaction.
- Christ, the True Rock – The “honey from the rock” points us to Christ, the Rock from whom living water and eternal satisfaction flow.

Psalm 82 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God Judges the Earth”

God's Judgment on Unjust Rulers

1 God stands in the assembly of the mighty;
He judges among the rulers.

2 “How long will you hand down unjust decisions and show favoritism to the wicked?” Selah.

3 “Defend the poor and the fatherless.
Give justice to the afflicted and needy.

4 Rescue the weak and helpless.
Deliver them from the power of the wicked.”

The Failure of Corrupt Judges

5 But they know nothing and do not understand.
They walk around in darkness.
The foundations of the earth are shaken.

6 I said, “You are gods,
all of you children of the Most High.

7 But you will die like mere men,
and fall like any other ruler.”

A Plea for God's Rule

8 Rise up, O God, and judge the earth, for all nations belong to You.

Key Lessons from Psalm 82

- God Holds Leaders Accountable – Those in authority must judge fairly, protect the weak, and defend the needy.
- Injustice Weakens Society – When rulers act unjustly, the very foundations of life and order are shaken.
- Earthly Power Is Temporary – Even those called “gods” or mighty rulers are still mortal and will face judgment.
- God Is the True Judge – Human authority fails, but God alone will rise to judge all nations.
- Christ the Judge – This psalm points ahead to Jesus, who will return to rule with justice and inherit all nations.

Psalm 83 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Prayer Against God’s Enemies”

A Cry for God’s Action

1 O God, do not stay silent.

Do not hold Your peace or remain still, O God.

2 For look—Your enemies make an uproar.

Those who hate You lift up their heads in defiance.

3 They plot against Your people, and conspire against those You protect.

4 They say, “Come, let us destroy them as a nation, so that the name of Israel is remembered no more.”

5 With one mind they make plans together;
they form an alliance against You.

The Alliance of Nations

6 The tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites, Moab and the Hagrites;

7 Gebal, Ammon, and Amalek,
the Philistines with the people of Tyre;

8 Even Assyria has joined them, strengthening the descendants of Lot. Selah.

A Plea for God’s Judgment

9 Do to them as You did to the Midianites, as to Sisera and Jabin at the Kishon River,

10 who perished at Endor,
and became like manure for the ground.

11 Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb,
all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna,

12 who said, “Let us seize the pasturelands of God for ourselves.”

A Prayer for Their Defeat

13 O my God, make them like tumbleweed, like chaff blown away by the wind.

14 As fire burns through a forest,
as flames set mountains ablaze,

15 so pursue them with Your storm,
terrify them with Your whirlwind.

16 Cover their faces with shame,
so that they may seek Your name, O Lord.

17 Let them be disgraced and terrified forever.
Let them be put to shame and perish,

18 so that they will know You alone—whose name is the Lord (Jehovah)— are the Most High over all the earth.

Key Lessons from Psalm 83

- God's Enemies Oppose His People – To fight against Israel or the Church is to stand against God Himself.
- Nations May Unite Against God – Even when the world forms alliances, their power cannot overcome the Lord.
- God's Past Deliverance Is a Pattern – Just as He defeated Israel's enemies before, He will act again in His time.
- Judgment Leads to Recognition – When God humbles the proud, it reveals His glory to all nations.
- The Lord Alone Is Supreme – Jehovah is the Most High over all the earth, and every enemy will ultimately bow before Him.

Psalm 84 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Longing for the House of the Lord”

The Beauty of God's Dwelling Place

1 How lovely is Your dwelling place,
O Lord of Heaven's Armies!

2 My soul longs, yes, even faints, for the courts of the Lord.

My heart and my flesh cry out for the living God.

3 Even the sparrow finds a home,
and the swallow builds a nest for herself where she may raise her young—a place near Your altars,
O Lord of Heaven's Armies, my King and my God.

4 Blessed are those who dwell in Your house;
they are always praising You. Selah.

The Strength of Pilgrims

5 Blessed is the one whose strength is in You, whose heart is set on the path to Zion.

6 As they pass through the Valley of Baca, they make it a place of springs;
the autumn rains also cover it with pools.

7 They go from strength to strength,
till each one appears before God in Zion.

A Prayer for God's Favor

8 O Lord God of Heaven's Armies, hear my prayer; listen, O God of Jacob. Selah.

9 Look upon our shield, O God;
look with favor on the face of Your anointed one.

The Blessings of God's Presence

10 A single day in Your courts is better than a thousand anywhere else.
I would rather be a doorkeeper
in the house of my God than live in the tents of the wicked.

11 For the Lord God is our sun and our shield;
the Lord gives grace and glory.
No good thing does He withhold from those who walk uprightly.

12 O Lord of Heaven's Armies,
blessed is the one who trusts in You.

Key Lessons from Psalm 84

- God's Presence Is Our Joy – True happiness is found in being near the Lord, more than anywhere else on earth.
- Even the Small Find a Place – Just as sparrows and swallows find a home at God's altar, so all who seek Him are welcomed.
- Strength Comes from the Journey – Those who trust in God grow stronger as they walk through trials toward His presence.
- A Day with God Is Better than a Lifetime Without Him – Nothing compares to dwelling near the Lord, even in the humblest position.
- God Gives Grace and Glory – The Lord withholds no good thing from those who live in obedience and trust Him fully.

Psalm 85 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Revive Us Again”

God's Past Favor

1 Lord, You have been kind to Your land;
You restored the fortunes of Jacob.

2 You forgave the guilt of Your people;
You covered all their sins. Selah.

3 You set aside all Your wrath and turned from Your fierce anger.

A Plea for Restoration

4 Restore us again, O God of our salvation;
stop being angry with us.

5 Will You be angry with us forever?
Will You carry Your wrath on to all generations?

6 Will You not revive us again,
so that Your people may rejoice in You?

7 Show us Your mercy, O Lord, and grant us Your salvation.

God's Promise of Peace

8 I will listen to what God the Lord says.
He promises peace to His people, His faithful ones—
but let them not return to foolish ways.

9 Surely His salvation is near to those who fear Him, that His glory may dwell in our land.

10 Mercy and truth meet together;
righteousness and peace kiss each other.

11 Truth springs up from the earth, and righteousness looks down from heaven.

Blessing and Righteousness

12 Yes, the Lord will give what is good,
and our land will yield its harvest.

13 Righteousness goes before Him and prepares the way for His steps.

Key Lessons from Psalm 85

- God Restores His People – He has shown mercy in the past and delights in forgiving sin.
- Revival Comes Through God – Renewal and joy flow when God turns His face toward His people again.
- Peace Is God's Promise – He speaks peace to His people, but they must not return to sin.
- God's Character Is Perfect Harmony – Mercy and truth, righteousness and peace, all meet in Him.
- Christ Fulfills This Psalm – In Jesus, God's mercy and truth unite, and through Him comes revival, righteousness, and lasting peace.

Psalm 86 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Prayer for Mercy and Help”

A Cry for God's Mercy

1 Bend down and listen to me, Lord;
for I am poor and needy.

2 Protect my life, for I am devoted to You.
Save Your servant who trusts in You—
You are my God.

3 Be merciful to me, O Lord, for I call to You all day long.

4 Bring joy to Your servant,
for to You, Lord, I lift up my soul.

God's Character of Mercy

5 For You, Lord, are good and ready to forgive;
You are full of mercy to all who call on You.

6 Hear my prayer, O Lord;
listen to my cry for help.

7 In the day of my trouble I will call on You,
for You will answer me.

The Greatness of God

8 Among the gods there is none like You, O Lord;
no deeds can compare with Yours.

9 All the nations You made will come and worship before You, Lord;
they will glorify Your name.

10 For You are great and do wonderful things;
You alone are God.

A Prayer for Guidance

11 Teach me Your way, O Lord,
that I may walk in Your truth.
Give me an undivided heart to fear Your name.

12 I will praise You, O Lord my God,
with all my heart;
I will glorify Your name forever.

13 For great is Your mercy toward me;
You have delivered my soul from the depths of the grave.

A Plea for Deliverance

14 O God, arrogant people rise against me;
a band of violent men seek my life,
and they do not consider You.

15 But You, O Lord,
are a God full of compassion and grace,
slow to anger, rich in mercy and truth.

16 Turn to me and have mercy on me;
give Your strength to Your servant;
save the son of Your handmaid.

17 Show me a sign of Your goodness, so that my enemies may see it and be put to shame.
For You, Lord, have helped me and comforted me.

Key Lessons from Psalm 86

- God Hears the Needy – The Lord bends down to listen to those who are poor, weak, and desperate.
- God Is Forgiving and Merciful – He is always ready to forgive and full of compassion toward all who call on Him.
- God Is Greater than All – No false god or human work can compare with His greatness and wonders.
- A United Heart Is Needed – To walk in God's truth requires an undivided heart, wholly devoted to Him.
- God Comforts His Servants – Even in the face of enemies, the Lord gives help, strength, and signs of His goodness.

Psalm 87 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The City of God”

God’s Love for Zion

1 The foundation of the Lord’s city is set on the holy mountains.

2 The Lord loves the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.

3 Glorious things are spoken of you,
O city of God. Selah.

The Nations and Zion

4 “I will mention Egypt and Babylon among those who know Me;
look—Philistia, Tyre, and Ethiopia:
‘This one was born there.’”

5 And it will be said of Zion,
“This and that one were born in her,
and the Most High Himself will establish her.”

6 The Lord will record,
when He writes up the peoples:
“This one was born there.” Selah.

The Joy of God’s City

7 Both singers and musicians will say,
“All my fountains of joy are in You.”

Key Lessons from Psalm 87

- God Has Chosen Zion – The Lord established Jerusalem as His holy dwelling and delights in it above all other places.
- Zion Welcomes the Nations – People from every land, even former enemies, will one day be counted as citizens of God’s city.
- Our Identity Is in God’s City – To be “born in Zion” is to belong to the people of God and share in His covenant blessings.

- God Records His People – The Lord Himself writes the names of those who belong to Him.
- True Joy Is Found in God’s Presence – Like springs of living water, all our joy flows from being rooted in God’s dwelling place.

Psalm 88 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Cry from the Depths of Darkness”

A Cry of Desperation

1 O Lord, God of my salvation,
I cry out to You day and night.

2 Let my prayer come before You;
turn Your ear to my cry.

3 For my soul is overwhelmed with troubles, and my life draws near to the grave.

4 I am counted among those who go down to the pit.
I am like a man without strength,

5 left for dead,
like the slain lying in the grave,
whom You remember no more,
for they are cut off from Your care.

The Weight of God’s Wrath

6 You have put me in the lowest pit, in the darkest depths.

7 Your anger lies heavy upon me;
You overwhelm me with all Your waves. Selah.

8 You have taken my closest friends from me and made me repulsive to them.
I am trapped and cannot escape.

9 My eyes are dim with grief.
Every day I call to You, O Lord;
I lift up my hands to You.

Questions from the Grave

10 Do You show wonders to the dead?
Do the departed rise up to praise You? Selah.

11 Is Your love declared in the grave, or Your faithfulness in the place of destruction?

12 Are Your wonders known in the darkness, or Your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?

Abandoned in Suffering

13 But I cry to You for help, O Lord;
in the morning my prayer comes before You.

14 Lord, why do You reject me?
Why do You hide Your face from me?

15 From my youth I have suffered and been close to death;
I am in despair under the weight of Your terrors.

16 Your fierce anger has swept over me;
Your terrors have destroyed me.

17 They surround me daily like a flood;
they have completely engulfed me.

18 You have taken from me friend and neighbor;
darkness is my only companion.

Key Lessons from Psalm 88

- Even in Darkness, God Hears – Though the psalmist feels abandoned, his prayer still rises to God, showing faith in the midst of despair.
- Life Is Fragile – The psalm reminds us of our mortality and the weight of suffering in this fallen world.
- God's Wrath Is Real – Sin carries consequences, and sometimes the psalmist felt God's judgment pressing down like waves.
- Loneliness and Grief Are Part of the Human Condition – Friends may fail and darkness may surround us, but God remains.
- A Foreshadowing of Christ – This psalm echoes the suffering of Jesus, who bore God's wrath, was abandoned by His friends, and descended into the depths so that we would never be forsaken.

Psalm 89 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God’s Covenant with David”

God’s Faithfulness Praised

1 I will sing of the Lord’s unfailing love forever;
with my mouth I will make Your faithfulness known to all generations.

2 For I have said, “Your mercy will last forever;
Your faithfulness is as secure as the heavens.”

3 The Lord said, “I have made a covenant with My chosen one;
I have sworn to David My servant:

4 ‘I will establish your offspring forever and build up your throne for all generations.’” Selah.

The Greatness of God

5 The heavens praise Your wonders, O Lord,
Your faithfulness too, in the assembly of the holy ones.

6 For who in the heavens can compare with the Lord?
Who among the heavenly beings is like the Lord?

7 God is greatly feared in the council of the holy ones, and revered by all who surround Him.

8 O Lord God of Heaven’s Armies, who is mighty like You, Lord?
Your faithfulness surrounds You.

9 You rule the raging of the sea;
when its waves rise, You still them.

10 You crushed Egypt like a corpse; with Your strong arm You scattered Your enemies.

11 The heavens are Yours, and the earth also is Yours;
the world and everything in it—You founded them.

12 You created the north and the south;
Mount Tabor and Mount Hermon sing for joy at Your name.

13 Your arm is mighty;
strong is Your hand, exalted is Your right hand.

14 Righteousness and justice are the foundation of Your throne;
mercy and truth go before You.

15 Blessed are the people who know the joyful sound;
they walk in the light of Your presence, O Lord.

16 In Your name they rejoice all day long;
in Your righteousness they are exalted.

17 For You are the glory of their strength;
by Your favor our power is lifted high.

18 For the Lord is our shield;
the Holy One of Israel is our King.

God's Covenant with David

19 Long ago You spoke in a vision to Your faithful one and said:
"I have given help to a warrior;
I have exalted one chosen from among the people.

20 I have found David My servant;
with My holy oil I have anointed him.

21 My hand will be with him,
and My arm will strengthen him.

22 No enemy will outwit him;
no wicked person will oppress him.

23 I will crush his foes before him and strike down those who hate him.

24 My faithfulness and My mercy will be with him, and in My name his power will be exalted.

25 I will extend his rule from the sea to the rivers.

26 He will call out to Me, 'You are my Father, my God, the Rock of my salvation.'

27 And I will make him My firstborn, the highest of the kings of the earth.

28 I will maintain My mercy to him forever, and My covenant with him will never fail.

29 I will establish his line forever,
and his throne as enduring as the days of heaven.

30 If his children forsake My law and do not walk according to My judgments,

31 if they break My statutes and do not keep My commands, 32 then I will punish their sins with the rod and their iniquity with blows.
33 But I will not take My mercy from him
nor betray My faithfulness.
34 I will not break My covenant or go back on what I have spoken.
35 Once for all I have sworn by My holiness—
I will not lie to David:
36 His offspring will endure forever,
his throne as long as the sun is before Me.
37 It will be established forever like the moon,
the faithful witness in the sky.” Selah.

A Lament Over Present Defeat

38 But now You have cast off and rejected;
You are angry with Your anointed one.
39 You have renounced the covenant with Your servant;
You have defiled his crown by casting it to the ground.
40 You have broken down all his walls;
You have reduced his strongholds to ruins.
41 All who pass by plunder him;
he is a reproach to his neighbors.
42 You have strengthened the hand of his adversaries;
You have made all his enemies rejoice.
43 You have turned back the edge of his sword and have not supported him in battle.
44 You have ended his splendor and cast his throne to the ground.
45 You have cut short the days of his youth;
You have covered him with shame. Selah.
46 How long, Lord? Will You hide Yourself forever?
Will Your wrath burn like fire?

47 Remember how short my life is;
for what futility have You created all mankind?

48 What man can live and not see death, or deliver his soul from the power of the grave? Selah.

49 Lord, where is Your former love, which You swore to David in Your faithfulness?

50 Remember, Lord, the insults of Your servants, how I bear in my heart the scorn of many nations—

51 with which Your enemies mock, O Lord, with which they mock the footsteps of Your anointed.

Closing Blessing

52 Blessed be the Lord forever!
Amen and Amen.

Key Lessons from Psalm 89

- God's Promises Are Eternal – The covenant with David points to the everlasting reign of Christ, the Son of David.
- God Is Faithful and Powerful – His mercy and truth are unshakable, and His authority rules creation itself.
- Obedience Matters – Though God's covenant stands, disobedience still brings discipline.
- Lament Is Honest Worship – The psalmist does not hide his sorrow or confusion when God's promises seem delayed.
- Christ Is the Fulfillment – The throne of David finds its eternal King in Jesus, whose reign is everlasting.

Psalm 90 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Teach Us to Number Our Days”
A Prayer of Moses, the man of God

God's Eternal Nature

1 Lord, You have been our dwelling place through all generations.

2 Before the mountains were born, before You gave birth to the earth and the world,
from everlasting to everlasting, You are God.

The Frailty of Man

3 You turn people back to dust, saying,
“Return, O children of men.”

4 For a thousand years in Your sight are like yesterday when it has passed, or like a watch in the night.

5 You sweep people away like a flood;
they are like a dream.
In the morning they are like grass that springs up;

6 in the morning it flourishes and grows,
but by evening it is cut down and withers.

God’s Wrath Against Sin

7 We are consumed by Your anger, and terrified by Your wrath.

8 You have set our sins before You,
our secret sins in the light of Your presence.

9 All our days pass away under Your wrath;
we finish our years like a sigh.

10 The days of our life are seventy years, or eighty if we have strength;
yet their span is but toil and sorrow,
for they quickly pass, and we fly away.

11 Who knows the power of Your anger?
For Your wrath is as great as the fear due to You.

A Prayer for Wisdom and Mercy

12 So teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom.

13 Return, O Lord! How long will it be?
Have compassion on Your servants.

14 Satisfy us each morning with Your unfailing love, so that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

15 Make us glad for as many days as You have afflicted us, for as many years as we have seen trouble.

16 Let Your deeds be shown to Your servants, and Your glory to their children.

17 May the beauty of the Lord our God rest upon us;
establish the work of our hands for us—
yes, establish the work of our hands.

Key Lessons from Psalm 90

- God Is Eternal – From everlasting to everlasting, the Lord is unchanging and sovereign over all creation.
- Life Is Short and Fragile – Our years are fleeting, and human strength fades quickly like grass in the field.
- Sin Brings Wrath – Our sins, even those hidden, are laid bare before God, reminding us of His holiness.
- Wisdom Comes from Numbering Our Days – Recognizing life’s brevity helps us live wisely and with purpose.
- Hope Is Found in God’s Mercy – Only His steadfast love can satisfy us, bring joy, and establish the work of our hands.

Psalm 91 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Shelter of the Most High”

God Our Refuge and Fortress

1 He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High will rest under the shadow of the Almighty.

2 I will say of the Lord,
“He is my refuge and my fortress,
my God, in whom I trust.”

God's Protection from Danger

3 Surely He will deliver you from the trap of the hunter and from deadly disease.

4 He will cover you with His feathers, and under His wings you will find refuge.
His truth will be your shield and defense.

5 You will not fear the terror of the night,
nor the arrow that flies by day,

6 nor the pestilence that stalks in darkness,
nor the destruction that strikes at noonday.

7 A thousand may fall at your side,
ten thousand at your right hand,
but it will not come near you.

8 You will only look with your eyes and see the punishment of the wicked.

God's Promise of Safety

9 Because you have made the Lord your dwelling place—
the Most High, your refuge—

10 no evil will befall you,
no plague will come near your home.

11 For He will command His angels concerning you,
to guard you in all your ways.

12 They will lift you up in their hands,
so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.

13 You will tread on the lion and the cobra;
you will trample the young lion and the serpent under your feet.

God's Assurance of Deliverance

14 "Because he loves Me," says the Lord, "I will rescue him;
I will protect him, for he knows My name.

15 He will call upon Me, and I will answer him;
I will be with him in trouble.
I will deliver him and honor him.

16 With long life I will satisfy him and show him My salvation.”

Key Lessons from Psalm 91

- God Is Our Safe Shelter – When we dwell in His presence, we rest under His shadow of protection.
- No Fear in Christ – Night terrors, disease, or destruction cannot shake the one who trusts in God.
- God’s Angels Guard His People – He commands His angels to protect and lift up those who walk in His ways.
- Victory Over the Enemy – The lion, the serpent, and every danger symbolize the evil powers God enables us to overcome.
- God’s Personal Promise – To those who love Him and call on His name, He promises rescue, protection, long life, and eternal salvation.

Psalm 92 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Song of the Righteous”

Praise to the Most High

1 It is good to give thanks to the Lord, and to sing praises to Your name, O Most High,

2 to declare Your steadfast love in the morning and Your faithfulness every night,

3 accompanied by the ten-stringed instrument,
the lyre, and the harp with its solemn sound.

4 For You, Lord, have made me glad by what You have done;
I will shout for joy at the works of Your hands.

The Greatness of God’s Works

5 O Lord, how great are Your works!
Your thoughts are very deep.

6 A senseless man does not know;
a fool cannot understand this:

7 though the wicked sprout up like grass,
and evildoers seem to flourish,
they are doomed to be destroyed forever.

8 But You, Lord, are exalted forever.

The Fate of the Wicked and the Reward of the Righteous

9 Surely Your enemies, O Lord—surely Your enemies will perish;
all evildoers will be scattered.

10 But You will lift up my strength like the horn of a wild ox.
I will be anointed with fresh oil.

11 My eyes have seen the defeat of my enemies;
my ears have heard the downfall of the wicked who rise against me.

The Flourishing of the Righteous

12 The righteous will flourish like the palm tree;
they will grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

13 Planted in the house of the Lord,
they will flourish in the courts of our God.

14 They will still bear fruit in old age;
they will remain fresh and strong,

15 proclaiming, “The Lord is upright;
He is my Rock,
and there is no unrighteousness in Him.”

Key Lessons from Psalm 92

- Thanksgiving Is Good – Praising God daily brings joy and keeps our hearts fixed on His faithfulness.
- God’s Works Are Deep – The foolish cannot see God’s plan, but the wise rejoice in His mighty works.

- The Wicked Fade Quickly – Though they may flourish for a time, they are destined for destruction.
- The Righteous Flourish – Those who are planted in God’s presence grow strong, fruitful, and steadfast.
- God Is Upright and Unchanging – He is the Rock of His people, perfectly faithful and without injustice.

Psalm 93 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord Reigns”

The Majesty of God

1 The Lord reigns! He is clothed with majesty.
The Lord is robed with strength;
He has armed Himself with power.
The world is firmly established,
and it cannot be moved.

2 Your throne was established long ago;
You are from everlasting.

The Power of God Over the Seas

3 The floods have lifted up, O Lord, the floods have lifted up their voice;
the floods lift up their pounding waves.

4 But the Lord on high is mightier than the roar of many waters,
mightier than the mighty waves of the sea.

The Holiness of God’s House

5 Your statutes, O Lord, stand firm; holiness adorns Your house
forever and ever.

Key Lessons from Psalm 93

- God Reigns in Majesty – The Lord is King, clothed in majesty and power from everlasting to everlasting.

- Creation Is Secure in His Hands – The earth is firmly established because God rules over it.
- God Is Mightier Than the Storms – The roaring seas remind us of His unmatched strength and sovereignty.
- God’s Word Is Unshakable – His testimonies and decrees are firm and trustworthy for all generations.
- Holiness Belongs to God’s House – The Lord’s dwelling is marked by holiness, calling His people to walk in purity.

Psalm 94 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord of Justice”

A Cry for God to Judge the Wicked

1 O Lord, God of vengeance,
O God of vengeance, shine forth!

2 Rise up, Judge of the earth;
give the proud what they deserve.

3 Lord, how long will the wicked—
how long will the wicked triumph?

4 They pour out arrogant words;
all evildoers boast in themselves.

5 They crush Your people, O Lord, and afflict those You have chosen.

6 They kill the widow and the foreigner;
they murder the fatherless.

7 Yet they say, “The Lord does not see;
the God of Jacob takes no notice.”

God Sees and Knows All

8 Take notice, you senseless among the people!
You fools, when will you become wise?

9 He who made the ear, does He not hear?
He who formed the eye, does He not see?

10 He who disciplines the nations, does He not correct?
He who teaches mankind, does He not know?

11 The Lord knows the thoughts of man,
that they are but a vapor.

God's Care for His People

12 Blessed is the one You discipline, O Lord,
the one You teach from Your law,

13 to give him rest in days of trouble,
until the pit is dug for the wicked.

14 For the Lord will not abandon His people;
He will never forsake His inheritance.

15 For justice will return to the righteous, and all the upright in heart will follow it.

The Lord My Defense

16 Who will rise up for me against the wicked?
Who will stand for me against evildoers?

17 Unless the Lord had been my help,
I would soon have gone to the silence of death.

18 When I said, "My foot is slipping,"
Your mercy, O Lord, held me up.

19 When doubts filled my mind,
Your comfort brought joy to my soul.

20 Can a corrupt throne be allied with You—one that brings about misery by decree?

21 They band together against the righteous and condemn innocent blood.

22 But the Lord has been my defense, and my God the Rock of my refuge.

23 He will repay them for their wickedness and destroy them for their evil;
the Lord our God will cut them off.

Key Lessons from Psalm 94

- God Is the Judge – Vengeance belongs to the Lord; He will repay the wicked in His time.
- God Sees Everything – The Maker of eyes and ears cannot fail to see and hear the cries of His people.
- Discipline Brings Blessing – God’s correction teaches His children wisdom and gives them rest in times of trouble.
- The Lord Defends the Righteous – When the wicked attack, God is the Rock and refuge of His people.
- Justice Will Prevail – The thrones of corruption will fall, but the Lord’s justice will endure forever.

Psalm 95 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Call to Worship and Obedience”

A Joyful Call to Praise

1 Come, let us sing to the Lord;
let us make a joyful noise to the Rock of our salvation.

2 Let us come into His presence with thanksgiving;
let us make a joyful noise to Him with songs of praise.

3 For the Lord is a great God,
a great King above all gods.

4 In His hand are the depths of the earth, and the mountain heights belong to Him.

5 The sea is His, for He made it,
and His hands formed the dry land.

Worshiping Our Maker

6 Come, let us bow down in worship;
let us kneel before the Lord our Maker.

7 For He is our God,
and we are the people of His pasture,
the sheep under His care.

Today, if you hear His voice,

8 do not harden your hearts as at Meribah,
as on the day at Massah in the wilderness,

9 when your ancestors tested Me;
they tried Me, though they had seen My works.

A Warning of Judgment

10 For forty years I was grieved with that generation;
I said, “They are a people whose hearts go astray, and they do not know My ways.”

11 So in My anger I declared,
“They shall never enter My rest.”

Key Lessons from Psalm 95

- Worship Is Our Calling – Singing, thanksgiving, and joyful praise belong to God alone, who is the Rock of our salvation.
- God Is the Creator and King – The seas, the mountains, the valleys, and all creation are in His hands.
- We Are His Flock – As the sheep of His pasture, we are called to follow His leading and care.
- Do Not Harden Your Heart – The warning of Israel in the wilderness reminds us not to resist God’s voice today.
- God Offers Rest – True rest and peace are found in obedience to Him; unbelief leads only to wandering.

Psalm 96 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Sing a New Song to the Lord”

A Call to All Nations

1 Sing to the Lord a new song;
sing to the Lord, all the earth.

2 Sing to the Lord, bless His name;
proclaim His salvation day after day.

3 Declare His glory among the nations,
His marvelous works among all peoples.

4 For the Lord is great and greatly to be praised;
He is to be feared above all gods.

5 For all the gods of the nations are idols,
but the Lord made the heavens.

Glory to the Lord

6 Honor and majesty are before Him;
strength and beauty are in His sanctuary.

7 Give to the Lord, all families of the nations,
give to the Lord glory and strength.

8 Give to the Lord the glory due His name;
bring an offering and come into His courts.

9 Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness;
tremble before Him, all the earth.

The Lord Reigns and Judges

10 Say among the nations, “The Lord reigns!”
The world is firmly established; it cannot be moved.
He will judge the peoples with fairness.

11 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad;
let the sea roar, and all that fills it.

12 Let the fields be joyful, and everything in them;
then all the trees of the forest will sing for joy

13 before the Lord, for He is coming—for He is coming to judge the earth.
He will judge the world with righteousness
and the peoples with His truth.

Key Lessons from Psalm 96

- Worship Belongs to God Alone – He alone is worthy of new songs of praise, for He is the Creator and Judge of all.
- The Whole Earth Is Called – God’s glory is to be declared not just in Israel, but among all nations and peoples.

- Idols Are Empty, but God Is Real – The gods of the nations are nothing, but the Lord made the heavens.
- Worship Is Beautiful and Holy – God calls us to worship Him in holiness, offering glory and reverence.
- The Lord Is Coming to Judge – His reign is sure, and His coming judgment will be perfectly righteous and true.

Psalm 97 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord Reigns in Glory”

The Lord Reigns

1 The Lord reigns! Let the earth rejoice;
let the distant islands be glad.

2 Clouds and thick darkness surround Him;
righteousness and justice are the foundation of His throne.

3 Fire goes before Him and burns up His enemies on every side.

4 His lightning lights up the world;
the earth sees it and trembles.

5 The mountains melt like wax before the Lord,
before the Lord of all the earth.

God’s Glory Revealed

6 The heavens proclaim His righteousness, and all people see His glory.

7 All who worship idols are put to shame,
those who boast in worthless images.
Worship Him, all you gods!

8 Zion hears and is glad;
the towns of Judah rejoice
because of Your righteous judgments, O Lord.

9 For You, Lord, are the Most High over all the earth;
You are exalted far above all gods.

The Joy of the Righteous

10 You who love the Lord, hate evil!
He guards the lives of His faithful ones and delivers them from the hand of the wicked.

11 Light shines on the righteous and joy on the upright in heart.

12 Rejoice in the Lord, you righteous,
and give thanks at the remembrance of His holiness.

Key Lessons from Psalm 97

- The Lord Reigns Supreme – His throne is established in righteousness and justice, and His power shakes the earth.
- God’s Glory Outshines Idols – All false gods are worthless, but the heavens themselves declare the glory of the true God.
- The Righteous Must Hate Evil – Loving the Lord means rejecting wickedness and living in holiness.
- God Protects His People – He preserves and delivers those who belong to Him.
- Rejoicing in Holiness – The righteous find joy and light in God’s holiness and everlasting reign.

Psalm 98 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Song of Victory”

God’s Marvelous Salvation

1 Sing to the Lord a new song,
for He has done marvelous things.
His right hand and His holy arm
have won Him the victory.

2 The Lord has made His salvation known;
He has revealed His righteousness to the nations.

3 He has remembered His mercy and faithfulness to the house of Israel.
All the ends of the earth
have seen the salvation of our God.

A Joyful Noise of Praise

4 Shout for joy to the Lord, all the earth;
burst into jubilant song with music.

5 Sing to the Lord with the harp, with the harp and the sound of singing.

6 With trumpets and the blast of the horn, shout for joy before the Lord, the King.

Creation Joins the Praise

7 Let the sea roar, and everything in it,
the world, and all who live in it.

8 Let the rivers clap their hands,
let the hills sing for joy together

9 before the Lord, for He is coming to judge the earth.

He will judge the world with righteousness
and the peoples with fairness.

Key Lessons from Psalm 98

- Sing a New Song – God’s works of salvation and victory call for fresh songs of praise.
- God’s Salvation Is for All – His righteousness is revealed not only to Israel but to all nations.
- Worship with Joyful Music – Voices, instruments, and shouts of joy belong in the worship of our King.
- Creation Praises the Lord – Seas, rivers, and hills join the chorus, showing that all creation belongs to Him.
- The Lord Will Judge Righteously – His coming judgment is certain, fair, and perfectly just.

Psalm 99 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord Our Holy King”

The Lord Reigns in Holiness

1 The Lord reigns—let the nations tremble!
He sits enthroned between the cherubim;
let the earth shake.

2 The Lord is great in Zion;
He is exalted over all the peoples.

3 Let them praise Your great and awesome name—for it is holy.

The Justice of the King

4 The King is mighty and loves justice.
You have established fairness;
You have acted with justice and righteousness in Jacob.

5 Exalt the Lord our God;
worship at His footstool, for He is holy.

God Answers His Servants

6 Moses and Aaron were among His priests, and Samuel was among those who called on His name.
They called to the Lord,
and He answered them.

7 He spoke to them in the pillar of cloud;
they kept His statutes and the decrees He gave them.

8 Lord our God, You answered them;
You were a forgiving God to them,
but You punished them for their wrongdoing.

Worship the Holy God

9 Exalt the Lord our God
and worship at His holy mountain, for the Lord our God is holy.

Key Lessons from Psalm 99

- God Reigns Over All – His throne is established in holiness, and the nations tremble before Him.
- God Is Just – His rule is marked by fairness, justice, and righteousness.

- God Answers Prayer – Just as He answered Moses, Aaron, and Samuel, He listens to His people today.
- God Is Both Forgiving and Just – He forgives sin but also disciplines wrongdoing.
- God’s Holiness Calls for Worship – The holiness of the Lord demands reverence, awe, and praise from His people.

Psalm 100 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Psalm of Thanksgiving”

A Call to Joyful Worship

1 Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth!

2 Serve the Lord with gladness;
come before Him with joyful singing.

The Lord Our Maker and Shepherd

3 Know that the Lord is God.
It is He who made us, and not we ourselves;
we are His people, the sheep of His pasture.

Enter His Presence with Praise

4 Enter His gates with thanksgiving, and His courts with praise.
Give thanks to Him
and bless His name.

The Goodness of the Lord

5 For the Lord is good;
His mercy endures forever,
and His truth continues
through all generations.

Key Lessons from Psalm 100

- Worship with Joy – Our service to God should be marked with gladness and singing.

- God Made Us – We belong to Him; we are His people and the sheep of His pasture.
- Thanksgiving Is the Right Approach – We come before God with grateful hearts and words of praise.
- God’s Character Never Changes – His goodness, mercy, and truth endure forever.
- All Generations Are Included – His faithfulness is not just for the past, but for every age to come.

Psalm 101 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Commitment to Integrity”

A Psalm of David

A Song of Mercy and Justice

1 I will sing of Your mercy and justice;
to You, O Lord, I will sing praise.

2 I will live wisely and blamelessly.
O when will You come to me?
I will walk with integrity of heart within my own house.

A Resolve for Purity

3 I will set nothing wicked before my eyes.
I hate the deeds of those who turn aside;
it will not cling to me.

4 A corrupt heart will be far from me;
I will not know anything of evil.

Standing Against Pride and Slander

5 Whoever secretly slanders his neighbor
I will silence.
Whoever has a haughty look and a proud heart
I will not endure.

Choosing the Faithful

6 My eyes will be on the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me.
The one who walks blamelessly—
he will serve me.

7 No one who practices deceit
will live in my house;
no liar will remain in my presence.

Purging Evil from the Land

8 Every morning I will put an end to all the wicked in the land, to cut off every evildoer
from the city of the Lord.

Key Lessons from Psalm 101

- Integrity Begins at Home – A pure heart and wise living must start within one’s own house.
- Rejecting Evil Influences – God’s people must not tolerate wickedness, slander, pride, or lies.
- Choosing the Faithful – True fellowship and service come from those who walk in integrity.
- Leadership Requires Righteousness – A godly leader stands against corruption and upholds justice.
- God’s City Demands Holiness – The psalm points to God’s standard for His kingdom, where only the righteous will dwell.

Psalm 102 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Prayer of the Afflicted”

A prayer of one overwhelmed with trouble, pouring out his complaint before the Lord

A Cry of Distress

1 Hear my prayer, O Lord;
let my cry for help come to You.

2 Do not hide Your face from me
in the day of my trouble.
Turn Your ear to me;
when I call, answer me quickly.

3 For my days vanish like smoke;
my bones burn like hot coals.

4 My heart is struck down and withered like grass, so that I forget to eat my food.

5 Because of my groaning,
my bones cling to my skin.

6 I am like a lonely pelican in the wilderness;
like an owl in the desert.

7 I lie awake;
I am like a lonely sparrow on the rooftop.

8 My enemies taunt me all day long;
those who rage against me curse me.

9 I eat ashes like bread and mingle my drink with tears,

10 because of Your indignation and wrath,
for You have lifted me up and thrown me down.

11 My days are like a fading shadow,
and I wither away like grass.

God's Eternal Nature and Zion's Hope

12 But You, O Lord, are enthroned forever;
Your name endures through all generations.

13 You will arise and have mercy on Zion;
the time to show her favor has come.

14 For Your servants delight in her stones and cherish even her dust.

15 The nations will fear the name of the Lord, and all the kings of the earth will see Your glory.

16 For the Lord will rebuild Zion and appear in His glory.

17 He will regard the prayer of the destitute and not despise their plea.

A Testimony for Generations

18 Let this be written for a future generation, so that a people not yet created may praise the Lord:

19 “The Lord looked down from His holy place on high;
from heaven He viewed the earth,

20 to hear the groaning of the prisoners and set free those condemned to death.”

21 So the name of the Lord will be declared in Zion, and His praise in Jerusalem,

22 when the peoples and the kingdoms assemble to worship the Lord.

God’s Unchanging Nature

23 In the course of my life He has broken my strength;
He has shortened my days.

24 So I said: “O my God, do not take me away
in the middle of my life;
Your years go on through all generations.”

25 Long ago You laid the foundation of the earth, and the heavens are the work of Your hands.

26 They will perish, but You remain;
they will all wear out like a garment.
Like clothing You will change them,
and they will be discarded.

27 But You remain the same,
and Your years will never end.

28 The children of Your servants will live secure;
their descendants will be established before You.

Key Lessons from Psalm 102

- Life Is Fragile and Fleeting – Human days pass like smoke, but God’s years endure forever.
- Honest Prayer Is Welcome – Even deep sorrow, loneliness, and weakness can be poured out before God.

- God Has Mercy on Zion – He rebuilds, restores, and brings His people back to glory in His time.
- Future Generations Will Praise Him – God’s acts of deliverance are written down so that those yet to be born will worship Him.
- God Is Unchanging – Though creation itself wears out, the Lord remains the same, faithful from generation to generation.

Psalm 103 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Bless the Lord, O My Soul”

A Psalm of David

Bless the Lord for His Benefits

1 Bless the Lord, O my soul;
and all that is within me, bless His holy name.

2 Bless the Lord, O my soul,
and forget not all His benefits—

3 who forgives all your sins,
who heals all your diseases,

4 who redeems your life from destruction,
who crowns you with lovingkindness and tender mercy,

5 who satisfies your life with good things
so that your youth is renewed like the eagle’s.

God’s Righteousness and Mercy

6 The Lord works righteousness and justice for all who are oppressed.

7 He made His ways known to Moses,
His deeds to the children of Israel.

8 The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and overflowing with mercy.

9 He will not always accuse,
nor will He harbor His anger forever.

10 He has not dealt with us as our sins deserve, nor repaid us according to our iniquities.

11 For as high as the heavens are above the earth,
so great is His mercy toward those who fear Him.

12 As far as the east is from the west,
so far has He removed our sins from us.

God's Compassion and Our Frailty

13 As a father shows compassion to his children, so the Lord shows compassion to those who fear Him.

14 For He knows how we are formed;
He remembers that we are dust.

15 As for man, his days are like grass;
he flourishes like a flower of the field.

16 The wind blows over it, and it is gone, and its place remembers it no more.

17 But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting on those who fear Him,
and His righteousness to their children's children—

18 to those who keep His covenant and remember to obey His commands.

Bless the Lord, All Creation

19 The Lord has established His throne in heaven, and His kingdom rules over all.

20 Bless the Lord, you His angels, mighty ones who do His bidding,
obeying the voice of His word.

21 Bless the Lord, all His heavenly hosts, you servants of His, who do His will.

22 Bless the Lord, all His works, in all places of His dominion.
Bless the Lord, O my soul!

Key Lessons from Psalm 103

- Remember God's Benefits – Forgiveness, healing, redemption, mercy, and renewal flow from Him.
- God's Character Is Merciful – He is patient, gracious, and full of steadfast love, not treating us as our sins deserve.
- God's Love Is Infinite – His mercy is higher than the heavens and His forgiveness removes sin as far as east from west.
- God Knows Our Weakness – He remembers we are dust and treats us with compassion like a loving Father.
- All Creation Must Bless Him – Angels, heavenly hosts, and all His works join in blessing His holy name.

Psalm 104 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord, Creator and Sustainer”

The Majesty of God

1 Bless the Lord, O my soul.

O Lord my God, You are very great;

You are clothed with honor and majesty.

2 You cover Yourself with light as with a garment;

You stretch out the heavens like a curtain.

3 You lay the beams of Your chambers on the waters;

You make the clouds Your chariot;

You walk on the wings of the wind.

4 You make Your angels spirits,

Your servants flames of fire.

The Foundations of the Earth

5 You laid the foundations of the earth, so that it should never be moved.

6 You covered it with the deep as with a garment;
the waters stood above the mountains.

7 At Your rebuke they fled;
at the sound of Your thunder they ran away.

8 They flowed over the mountains,
down into the valleys,
to the place You appointed for them.

9 You set a boundary they cannot cross, never again to cover the earth.

God's Provision in Creation

10 You send springs into the valleys;
they flow among the hills.

11 They give drink to every beast of the field;
wild donkeys quench their thirst.

12 The birds of the sky nest by them;
they sing among the branches.

13 You water the hills from Your upper chambers;
the earth is satisfied with the fruit of Your works.

14 You cause the grass to grow for the cattle, and plants for people to cultivate,
so that food may come from the earth—

15 wine that gladdens the heart of man, oil to make his face shine,
and bread to strengthen his heart.

The Habitats of Creation

16 The trees of the Lord are well watered—the cedars of Lebanon that He planted.

17 There the birds make their nests;
the stork has her home in the fir trees.

18 The high mountains are for the wild goats;
the cliffs are a refuge for the rock badgers.

The Order of Day and Night

19 He made the moon to mark the seasons, and the sun knows when to set.

20 You bring darkness, and it becomes night,
when all the beasts of the forest prowl.

21 The young lions roar for their prey, seeking their food from God.

22 When the sun rises, they steal away and lie down in their dens.

23 Then man goes out to his work,
to labor until evening.

The Richness of Creation

24 O Lord, how many are Your works!
In wisdom You made them all;
the earth is full of Your creatures.

25 There is the vast and wide sea, teeming with countless creatures,
both small and great.

26 There the ships go to and fro,
and Leviathan, which You made to play in it.

God's Care for All Living Things

27 All creatures look to You to give them their food in due season.

28 When You give it to them, they gather it up;
when You open Your hand,
they are filled with good things.

29 When You hide Your face, they are terrified;
when You take away their breath, they die
and return to the dust.

30 When You send Your Spirit, they are created, and You renew the face of the earth.

Praise to the Lord Forever

31 May the glory of the Lord endure forever;
may the Lord rejoice in His works—

32 He looks at the earth, and it trembles;
He touches the mountains, and they smoke.

33 I will sing to the Lord all my life;
I will sing praise to my God as long as I live.

34 May my thoughts be pleasing to Him,
for I will rejoice in the Lord.

35 Let sinners vanish from the earth,
and the wicked be no more.
Bless the Lord, O my soul.
Praise the Lord!

Key Lessons from Psalm 104

- God Is Clothed in Majesty – His light, power, and glory fill creation.
- The Earth Is Secure in His Hands – He set boundaries for the seas and established the foundations of the world.
- God Provides for All Creatures – From beasts and birds to man himself, He feeds and sustains all life.
- God Orders Time and Seasons – The sun, moon, and night creatures all follow His design.
- God’s Spirit Brings Life – He breathes life into creation and renews the earth.
- Our Response Is Praise – With all creation, we bless the Lord, who reigns forever.

Psalm 105 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God’s Faithfulness Through the Generations”

Call to Praise and Remember

1 Give thanks to the Lord; call on His name.
Tell the nations what He has done.

2 Sing to Him, sing praises;
speak about all His wonderful works.

3 Glory in His holy name;
let the hearts of those who seek the Lord rejoice.

4 Seek the Lord and His strength;
seek His presence continually.

5 Remember the marvelous works He has done,
His wonders and the judgments He has spoken,

6 You children of Abraham His servant,
you descendants of Jacob, His chosen ones.

God's Covenant Stands Forever

7 He is the Lord our God;
His judgments are in all the earth.

8 He remembers His covenant forever—
the word He commanded to a thousand generations,

9 The covenant He made with Abraham,
the oath He swore to Isaac.

10 He confirmed it to Jacob as a decree, to Israel as an everlasting covenant:

11 “I will give you the land of Canaan, your allotted inheritance.”

12 This promise was given when they were few in number,
just strangers in the land.

13 They wandered from nation to nation,
from one kingdom to another people.

14 He allowed no one to oppress them;
He rebuked kings for their sake,

15 Saying, “*Do not touch My anointed ones;
do My prophets no harm.*”

Joseph in Egypt

16 He called for a famine in the land, breaking the whole supply of bread.

17 He sent a man before them—Joseph,
who was sold as a slave.

18 They bruised his feet with shackles,
his neck was put in irons,

19 Until the time came for his word to be fulfilled;
the word of the Lord tested him.

20 The king sent and released him;
the ruler of nations set him free.

21 He made him lord over his house,
and ruler over all his possessions,

22 To instruct his princes as he pleased,
and to teach wisdom to his elders.

Israel in Egypt

23 Then Israel entered Egypt;
Jacob lived as a foreigner in the land of Ham.

24 The Lord made His people very fruitful;
He made them stronger than their enemies.

25 He turned the Egyptians' hearts to hate His people, to deal deceitfully with His servants.

God Sends Moses and the Plagues

26 He sent Moses His servant, and Aaron, whom He had chosen.

27 They performed His signs among them, wonders in the land of Ham.

28 He sent darkness, and made the land dark;
they did not rebel against His word.

29 He turned their waters into blood, killing their fish.

30 Their land swarmed with frogs, even into the chambers of their kings.

31 At His command, swarms of flies came,
and gnats throughout their borders.

32 He gave them hail for rain,
and lightning bolts in their land.

33 He struck down their vines and fig trees;
He shattered the trees of their country.

34 He spoke, and locusts came—countless grasshoppers without number.

35 They devoured every plant in their land,
and ate the fruit of their soil.

36 He struck down all the firstborn in their land,
the firstfruits of all their strength.

God Redeems His People

37 He brought Israel out with silver and gold;
not one among their tribes stumbled.

38 Egypt was glad when they departed, for dread of them had fallen on them.

39 He spread a cloud as a covering,
and fire to give light by night.

40 They asked, and He brought quail;
He satisfied them with the bread of heaven.

41 He opened the rock, and water gushed out;
it flowed like a river in the desert.

42 For He remembered His holy promise given to His servant Abraham.

43 He brought out His people with joy,
His chosen ones with gladness.

44 He gave them the lands of the nations;
they inherited what others had worked for—45 So that they might keep His statutes and observe His laws.

Praise the Lord!

Key Lessons from Psalm 105

- God Keeps His Promises – His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob stands forever.
- God Protects His People – Even when they were few and vulnerable, He rebuked kings for their sake.
- God Uses Trials for Good – Joseph’s suffering led to his exaltation and Israel’s preservation.
- God’s Power Is Supreme – The plagues in Egypt revealed His authority over nations and nature.

- God Provides for His People – In the wilderness He gave quail, manna, water, and protection.
- Obedience Is the Goal – God blesses His people so they may keep His statutes and walk in His ways.

Psalm 106 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Confession of Sin and Praise for God’s Mercy”

Call to Praise and Blessing

1 Praise the Lord!

Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good;
His mercy endures forever.

2 Who can fully describe the mighty acts of the Lord or proclaim all His praise?

3 Blessed are those who practice justice and do what is right at all times.

A Plea for Mercy

4 Remember me, Lord, with the favor You show Your people.
Come to me with Your salvation,

5 So I may enjoy the prosperity of Your chosen ones, rejoice in the gladness of Your nation,
and glory with Your inheritance.

Confession of Sin

6 We have sinned like our ancestors;
we have committed iniquity and acted wickedly.

7 Our fathers in Egypt did not understand Your wonders.
They did not remember the abundance of Your mercies, but rebelled at the sea, at the Red Sea.

8 Yet He saved them for His name’s sake, to make His mighty power known.

9 He rebuked the Red Sea, and it dried up;
He led them through the depths as through a desert.

10 He saved them from the hand of their foe;
He redeemed them from the power of the enemy.

11 The waters covered their enemies;
not one of them remained.

12 Then they believed His words and sang His praise.

Israel's Rebellion in the Wilderness

13 But they soon forgot His works;
they did not wait for His counsel.

14 They craved intensely in the wilderness, testing God in the desert.

15 He gave them what they asked for,
but sent leanness into their souls.

16 In the camp they envied Moses and Aaron, the holy one of the Lord.

17 The earth opened and swallowed Dathan;
it covered the company of Abiram.

18 Fire blazed among their followers;
flames consumed the wicked.

19 At Horeb they made a calf and worshiped a metal image.

20 They exchanged their glorious God for an image of an ox that eats grass.

21 They forgot God their Savior, who had done great things in Egypt,

22 Wondrous works in the land of Ham,
and awesome deeds by the Red Sea.

23 So He said He would destroy them—had not Moses, His chosen one, stood in the breach before Him to turn away His wrath from destroying them.

Unbelief and Idolatry

24 They despised the pleasant land;
they did not believe His promise.

25 They grumbled in their tents and did not listen to the Lord's voice.

26 So He swore to overthrow them in the wilderness,

27 To scatter their descendants among the nations,
and disperse them throughout the lands.

28 They yoked themselves to Baal of Peor and ate sacrifices offered to lifeless gods.

29 They provoked the Lord to anger with their deeds, and a plague broke out among them.

30 But Phinehas stood up and intervened, and the plague was stopped.

31 This was credited to him as righteousness for all generations to come.

More Rebellion

32 They angered Him at the waters of Meribah, and it went badly for Moses because of them.

33 They provoked his spirit,
so that he spoke rashly with his lips.

34 They did not destroy the nations
as the Lord had commanded them.

35 Instead, they mingled with the nations and learned their practices.

36 They served their idols, which became a snare to them.

37 They sacrificed their sons and daughters to demons.

38 They shed innocent blood—
the blood of their own children, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan.
So the land was polluted with blood.

39 They defiled themselves by their deeds;
they prostituted themselves by their actions.

God's Wrath and Mercy

40 Therefore the Lord's anger burned against His people;
He abhorred His own inheritance.

41 He handed them over to the nations;
those who hated them ruled over them.

42 Their enemies oppressed them and subdued them under their power.

43 Many times He rescued them, but they continued to rebel and were brought low by their sin.

44 Yet He saw their distress and heard their cry.

45 He remembered His covenant with them and relented according to His great mercy.

46 He caused their captors to show them compassion.

Closing Prayer of Deliverance

47 Save us, Lord our God, and gather us from among the nations,
so that we may give thanks to Your holy name and glory in Your praise.

48 Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel,
from everlasting to everlasting.
And let all the people say, Amen!
Praise the Lord!

Key Lessons from Psalm 106

- God's mercy outlasts human failure – though Israel repeatedly sinned, He never abandoned them completely.
- Forgetfulness leads to rebellion – forgetting God's works results in sin, idolatry, and destruction.
- Intercession matters – Moses and Phinehas show how one righteous person can stand in the gap for many.

- Idolatry destroys life – turning from God to false gods leads to bloodshed, injustice, and corruption.
- God hears the repentant – no matter how far His people fall, His covenant love draws them back when they cry out.

Psalm 107 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Thanksgiving for God’s Deliverance”

Introduction: The Redeemed Give Thanks

1 Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good;
His mercy endures forever.

2 Let the redeemed of the Lord declare it—
those He has redeemed from the hand of the enemy,

3 Those He has gathered from the lands,
from the east and the west,
from the north and the south.

The Wanderers in the Desert

4 They wandered in the wilderness on desolate paths;
they found no city where they could dwell.

5 Hungry and thirsty,
their souls grew faint within them.

6 Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble,
and He delivered them from their distress.

7 He led them by a straight way to a city where they could live.

8 Oh, that people would praise the Lord for His goodness
and for His wonderful works to humanity!

9 For He satisfies the thirsty soul and fills the hungry with good things.

The Prisoners in Darkness

10 Some sat in darkness and in the shadow of death, bound in affliction and chains,

11 Because they had rebelled against God's words and rejected the counsel of the Most High.

12 So He humbled their hearts with hard labor;
they stumbled, and there was no one to help.

13 Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble,
and He saved them from their distress.

14 He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death and broke their chains apart.

15 Oh, that people would praise the Lord for His goodness
and for His wonderful works to humanity!

16 For He has broken the gates of bronze and cut through the bars of iron.

The Afflicted Fools

17 Some became fools through their rebellious ways and suffered affliction because of their iniquities.

18 Their soul loathed all manner of food, and they drew near the gates of death.

19 Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble,
and He saved them from their distress.

20 He sent forth His word and healed them;
He rescued them from the pit of destruction.

21 Oh, that people would praise the Lord for His goodness
and for His wonderful works to humanity!

22 Let them offer sacrifices of thanksgiving and tell of His deeds with songs of joy.

The Sailors in the Storm

23 Others went out to sea in ships, doing business on the mighty waters.

24 They saw the works of the Lord and His wonders in the deep.

25 For He spoke and raised the stormy wind, which lifted up the waves of the sea.

26 They rose up to the heavens, then sank to the depths;
their courage melted away in their misery.

27 They staggered and reeled like drunkards;
they were at their wits' end.

28 Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble,
and He brought them out of their distress.

29 He stilled the storm to a whisper,
and the waves of the sea were hushed.

30 They were glad when the waters grew calm, and He guided them to their desired haven.

31 Oh, that people would praise the Lord for His goodness
and for His wonderful works to humanity!

32 Let them exalt Him in the congregation of the people and praise Him in the assembly of the elders.

God's Sovereignty Over the Land

33 He turns rivers into a desert, springs of water into parched ground,

34 And fruitful land into a barren wasteland,
because of the wickedness of those who dwell there.

35 He turns the desert into pools of water, and dry land into flowing springs.

36 There He settles the hungry, and they build a city to dwell in.

37 They sow fields and plant vineyards that yield a fruitful harvest.

38 He blesses them, and they multiply greatly;
He does not let their herds diminish.

39 Yet when they are reduced and humbled
by oppression, affliction, and sorrow,

40 He pours contempt on princes and makes them wander in a trackless wasteland.

41 But He raises the poor out of affliction and makes their families like flocks.

42 The upright see it and rejoice,
but all wickedness shuts its mouth.

Closing Wisdom

43 Whoever is wise will pay attention to these things and consider the lovingkindness of the Lord.

Key Lessons from Psalm 107

- God’s mercy reaches every situation – whether lost in the desert, bound in prison, afflicted by sin, or tossed in the storm, His deliverance is sure for those who cry out.
- God responds to prayer – the refrain “Then they cried to the Lord ... and He delivered them” is repeated four times, showing His faithfulness.
- His power rules over creation – He can turn fertile land into desert and desert into springs, reminding us that He controls both judgment and blessing.
- The wise will learn – wisdom means recognizing God’s providence and trusting His steadfast love.

Psalm 108 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Steadfast Praise and Prayer for Victory”

A Heart Fixed on Praise

1 O God, my heart is steadfast;
I will sing and make music with all my being.

2 Awake, harp and lyre!
I will awaken the dawn.

3 I will praise You, Lord, among the peoples;
I will sing praises to You among the nations.

4 For Your mercy is higher than the heavens, and Your truth reaches to the clouds.

5 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens,
and let Your glory be over all the earth.

Prayer for Deliverance

6 That Your beloved may be delivered,
save with Your right hand and answer me.

7 God has spoken from His sanctuary:
“I will rejoice, I will divide Shechem and measure off the valley of Succoth.

8 Gilead is Mine, Manasseh is Mine;
Ephraim is the helmet of My head,
Judah is My scepter.

9 Moab is My washbasin;
over Edom I will cast My shoe;
over Philistia I shout in triumph.”

Confidence in God’s Victory

10 Who will bring me into the fortified city?
Who will lead me into Edom?

11 Is it not You, O God, who have rejected us?
Is it not You, O God, who no longer go forth with our armies?

12 Give us help against the enemy,
for the help of man is useless.

13 Through God we shall do valiantly,
and it is He who will tread down our enemies.

Key Lessons from Psalm 108

- Steadfast devotion – A fixed heart is one that refuses to waver, choosing to praise God early and among the nations.
- God’s mercy and truth are boundless – His love and faithfulness extend beyond the skies, assuring us of His reliability.
- God rules over the nations – The lands and peoples belong to Him; He exerts authority over every kingdom.
- Man’s help is vain – True deliverance and victory come only through God’s power.
- Victory is certain in God – With Him, His people can act boldly and confidently, knowing He will subdue their enemies.

Psalm 109 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Cry for Justice Against False Accusers”

The Cry of the Oppressed

1 O God of my praise, do not remain silent,
2 for the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of the deceitful are opened against me.
They have spoken lies against me.

3 They surround me with words of hatred, and fight against me without cause.

4 In return for my love they are my accusers, but I give myself to prayer.

5 They repay me evil for good,
and hatred for my love.

A Call for Justice

6 Appoint a wicked man against him;
let an accuser stand at his right hand.

7 When he is judged, let him be found guilty;
let his prayer be counted as sin.

8 Let his days be few;
let another take his office.

9 Let his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow.

10 Let his children be wandering beggars;
let them seek their food from desolate places.

11 Let the creditor seize all he has;
let strangers plunder the fruits of his labor.

12 Let there be none to extend kindness to him,
nor any to show favor to his fatherless children.

13 Let his descendants be cut off;
let their name be blotted out in the next generation.

14 Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered before the Lord;
let not the sin of his mother be blotted out.

15 Let them be before the Lord continually, that He may cut off their memory from the earth.

The Reason for Judgment

16 For he did not remember to show mercy, but persecuted the poor and needy man,
and sought to slay the brokenhearted.

17 He loved cursing, so let it come upon him;
he took no delight in blessing, so let it be far from him.

18 He clothed himself with cursing as with a garment;
so let it soak into his body like water,
and like oil into his bones.

19 Let it be to him like the cloak he wraps around him, like the belt he wears continually.

20 Let this be the Lord's repayment to my accusers, to those who speak evil against my soul.

A Plea for Mercy

21 But You, O God my Lord, deal kindly with me for Your name's sake;
because Your steadfast love is good, deliver me.

22 For I am poor and needy,
and my heart is wounded within me.

23 I am fading like a shadow at evening;
I am shaken off like a locust.

24 My knees are weak from fasting;
my body has grown thin and frail.

25 I am an object of scorn to them;
when they see me, they shake their heads.

Hope in God's Deliverance

26 Help me, O Lord my God;
save me according to Your mercy,

27 that they may know this is Your hand,
that You, Lord, have done it.

28 Let them curse, but You will bless;
when they arise, let them be put to shame,
but let Your servant rejoice.

29 Let my accusers be clothed with disgrace;
let them wrap themselves in their own shame as in a cloak.

30 With my mouth I will greatly praise the Lord;
I will praise Him among the multitude.

31 For He stands at the right hand of the needy one,
to save him from those who condemn his soul.

Key Lessons from Psalm 109

- False accusations are painful, but God hears the cry of the oppressed.
- The imprecatory prayers reflect a longing for God’s justice, not personal vengeance.
- Sin brings its own judgment — those who love cursing and hatred will reap its fruit.
- God’s mercy is greater than man’s hatred — while enemies curse, the Lord blesses.
- The Lord stands with the needy — He defends the weak and delivers those condemned unfairly.

Psalm 110 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Reign of the Messiah”

The King Enthroned

1 The Lord said to my Lord, “Sit at My right hand,
until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet.”

2 The Lord will extend the scepter of Your strength from Zion, saying, “Rule in the midst of Your enemies.”

The People of the Messiah

3 Your people will offer themselves freely in the day of Your power, in holy splendor;
from the womb of the morning,
You have the dew of Your youth.

The Eternal Priesthood

4 The Lord has sworn and will not change His mind:
“You are a priest forever, after the order of Melchizedek.”

The Coming Judgment

5 The Lord, at Your right hand, will crush kings on the day of His wrath.

6 He will execute judgment among the nations, filling them with corpses;
He will shatter the heads
over many lands.

The Final Victory

7 He will drink from the brook by the way;
therefore He will lift up His head.

Key Lessons from Psalm 110

- Christ is both King and Priest — He reigns with authority and intercedes forever after the order of Melchizedek.
- God’s promise is unchangeable — “The Lord has sworn and will not repent.”
- The Messiah’s rule will overcome all enemies, no matter their strength.
- His people are willing and holy, clothed in spiritual beauty, standing with Him in His day of power.
- Victory and refreshment are assured — Christ drinks of the brook, symbolizing triumph and renewal, and lifts His head in glory.

Psalm 111 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Great Works of the Lord”

Wholehearted Praise

1 Praise the Lord!
I will give thanks to the Lord with all my heart,

in the council of the upright,
and in the congregation.

The Works of God

2 Great are the works of the Lord, studied by all who delight in them.

3 His work is majestic and glorious,
and His righteousness endures forever.

4 He has caused His wonderful works to be remembered;
the Lord is gracious and full of compassion.

The Covenant Provider

5 He provides food for those who fear Him;
He remembers His covenant forever.

6 He has shown His people the power of His works, giving them the inheritance of the nations.

The Reliability of His Word

7 The works of His hands are truth and justice;
all His commandments are trustworthy.

8 They are established forever and ever, done in truth and uprightness.

Redemption and Reverence

9 He sent redemption to His people;
He has commanded His covenant forever.
Holy and awesome is His name.

The Beginning of Wisdom

10 The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom;
all who obey His commandments have good understanding.
His praise endures forever!

Key Lessons from Psalm 111

- Praise begins with a whole heart — worship is not partial but full devotion before God and His people.
- God’s works are great and worth studying — His creation, providence, and redemption reveal His glory.
- His covenant is eternal — He remembers His promises and provides for His people.
- His commandments are sure and trustworthy — built on truth and righteousness, they endure forever.
- Wisdom starts with reverence — fearing the Lord is the foundation for true understanding.
- His praise never ends — all creation testifies to His greatness, and His people will glorify Him forever.

Psalm 112 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Blessings of the Righteous”

The Fear of the Lord

1 Praise the Lord!

Blessed is the one who fears the Lord,
who greatly delights in His commandments.

Generational Blessing

2 His descendants will be mighty on the earth;
the generation of the upright will be blessed.

3 Wealth and riches are in his house,
and his righteousness endures forever.

Light in Darkness

4 To the upright, light shines in the darkness;
he is gracious, compassionate, and righteous.

The Gracious and Just Man

5 Good is the man who deals generously and lends, who conducts his affairs with justice.

6 Surely he will never be shaken;
the righteous will be remembered forever.

Trust in the Lord

7 He will not fear bad news;
his heart is steadfast, trusting in the Lord.

8 His heart is secure; he will not be afraid, until he looks with confidence on his adversaries.

Righteous Generosity

9 He distributes freely, he gives to the poor;
his righteousness endures forever;
his horn will be lifted high in honor.

The Wicked Contrasted

10 The wicked will see it and be vexed;
he will gnash his teeth and melt away.
The desire of the wicked will perish.

Key Lessons from Psalm 112

- True blessing comes from fearing the Lord — delight in His commands brings stability and joy.
- Righteousness blesses future generations — the upright leave a legacy of faith and strength.
- Light shines in darkness — those who walk in God's ways bring hope, compassion, and justice.
- Generosity is the mark of the godly — the righteous freely give, reflecting God's own giving nature.
- Faith over fear — the righteous are not shaken by bad news but remain steady, trusting in the Lord.
- Honor belongs to the faithful — while the wicked perish in frustration, the righteous are remembered and exalted.

Psalm 113 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The God Who Lifts the Lowly”

Call to Praise

1 Praise the Lord!

Praise Him, O servants of the Lord;
praise the name of the Lord.

2 Blessed be the name of the Lord
from this time forth and forevermore.

3 From the rising of the sun to its setting,
the name of the Lord is to be praised.

The Greatness of God

4 The Lord is exalted above all nations,
His glory is above the heavens.

5 Who is like the Lord our God,
the One who sits enthroned on high,

6 who stoops down to look on the heavens and the earth?

The God Who Lifts Up

7 He raises the poor from the dust and lifts the needy from the ash heap,

8 to seat them with princes,
with the princes of His people.

9 He gives the barren woman a home, making her the joyful mother of children.
Praise the Lord!

Key Lessons from Psalm 113

- God is worthy of continual praise — His name should be glorified everywhere and at all times.

- The Lord is exalted above all — He reigns above the nations and the heavens, yet is mindful of the earth.
- God humbles Himself to help humanity — though high and lifted up, He stoops to care for the lowly.
- He raises up the poor and needy — God delights in exalting the humble and restoring dignity to the downtrodden.
- God brings joy to the barren — He transforms emptiness into fruitfulness, proving His mercy and compassion.
- Praise is the only fitting response — those who know the Lord’s mercy cannot help but exalt His name.

Psalm 114 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The God Who Shakes Creation”

Israel Delivered

1 When Israel came out of Egypt,
the house of Jacob from a people of strange speech,

2 Judah became His sanctuary, and Israel His dominion.

Creation Trembles

3 The sea looked and fled;
the Jordan turned back.

4 The mountains skipped like rams,
the hills like lambs.

5 Why is it, O sea, that you fled?
Why, O Jordan, that you turned back?

6 Why, O mountains, did you leap like rams, and you hills, like lambs?

The Lord’s Presence

7 Tremble, O earth, at the presence of the Lord,
at the presence of the God of Jacob,

8 who turned the rock into a pool of water,
the hard stone into a flowing spring.

Key Lessons from Psalm 114

- God is sovereign over nations — He delivered Israel from Egypt, showing His power over earthly rulers.
- God makes His people His dwelling place — Judah became His sanctuary, reminding us that He desires to dwell among His people.
- Creation responds to the Creator — seas flee, rivers turn back, and mountains skip at His command.
- The earth trembles before God — even the strongest elements of creation bow before His presence.
- God provides miraculously for His people — He brings water from the rock, turning barrenness into life.
- The same God who shook the earth then still reigns today — His power and presence remain unchanged.

Psalm 115 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Glory to God Alone”

Glory to God, Not to Us

1 Not to us, O Lord, not to us, but to Your name give glory,
for the sake of Your mercy and truth.

2 Why should the nations say,
“Where is now their God?”

3 Our God is in the heavens;
He does whatever pleases Him.

The Folly of Idols

4 Their idols are silver and gold,
the work of human hands.

5 They have mouths, but cannot speak;
eyes, but cannot see.

6 They have ears, but cannot hear;
noses, but cannot smell.

7 They have hands, but cannot feel;
feet, but cannot walk;
nor can they make a sound with their throat.

8 Those who make them become like them,
and so do all who trust in them.

Trust in the Living God

9 O Israel, trust in the Lord—
He is their help and their shield.

10 O house of Aaron, trust in the Lord—
He is their help and their shield.

11 All you who fear the Lord, trust in the Lord—
He is their help and their shield.

The Blessing of the Lord

12 The Lord has remembered us; He will bless us:
He will bless the house of Israel;
He will bless the house of Aaron.

13 He will bless those who fear the Lord, both small and great alike.

14 The Lord shall increase you more and more,
you and your children.

15 You are blessed of the Lord,
the Maker of heaven and earth.

Everlasting Praise

16 The heavens belong to the Lord,
but the earth He has given to the children of men.

17 The dead do not praise the Lord, nor any who go down into silence.

18 But we will bless the Lord,
from this time forth and forevermore.
Praise the Lord!

Key Lessons from Psalm 115

- Glory belongs to God alone — Our achievements are nothing compared to His mercy and truth.
- Idols are powerless — Though crafted with mouths, eyes, and ears, they are lifeless and cannot help.
- Worshippers resemble what they worship — those who trust idols become as empty as the idols themselves.
- God is our help and shield — He protects and sustains His people when they trust in Him.
- God's blessing is generational — He increases His people and blesses their children.
- The living must praise the Lord — Our time on earth is given to glorify Him continually.

Psalm 116 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Thanksgiving for Deliverance”

God Heard My Cry

1 I love the Lord, because He has heard my voice and my supplications.

2 Because He has inclined His ear to me,
I will call on Him as long as I live.

Deliverance from Death

3 The sorrows of death surrounded me,
and the terrors of the grave took hold of me;
I found only trouble and sorrow.

4 Then I called on the name of the Lord:
“O Lord, I beg You, deliver my soul!”

5 Gracious is the Lord, and righteous;
yes, our God is merciful.

6 The Lord preserves the simple;
I was brought low, and He saved me.

Rest for the Soul

7 Return to your rest, O my soul, for the Lord has dealt bountifully with you.

8 For You have delivered my soul from death,
my eyes from tears,
and my feet from stumbling.

9 I will walk before the Lord
in the land of the living.

Faith in Affliction

10 I believed, therefore I spoke:
I was greatly afflicted.

11 I said in my haste,
“All men are liars.”

Thanksgiving to God

12 What shall I render to the Lord for all His benefits toward me?

13 I will lift up the cup of salvation
and call on the name of the Lord.

14 I will fulfill my vows to the Lord,
in the presence of all His people.

15 Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints.

16 O Lord, truly I am Your servant;
I am Your servant, the son of Your handmaid;
You have freed me from my chains.

17 I will offer You the sacrifice of thanksgiving,
and call on the name of the Lord.

18 I will fulfill my vows to the Lord,
in the presence of all His people,

19 in the courts of the house of the Lord,
in the midst of you, O Jerusalem.
Praise the Lord!

Key Lessons from Psalm 116

- God hears the cries of His people — He bends His ear toward us when we call in distress.
- The Lord delivers from death and sorrow — He rescues the broken and gives life where death threatened.
- Rest comes through trust — the soul can return to peace because the Lord has dealt generously with us.
- Thanksgiving must be expressed — gratitude is shown in worship, public testimony, and fulfilling vows.
- The death of the faithful is precious to God — He values His saints even in their passing, for they are secure in Him.
- Freedom in Christ brings joyful service — those loosed from chains of bondage become devoted servants of the Lord.

Psalm 117 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Call to All Nations”

Praise from All Peoples

1 Praise the Lord, all you nations;
exalt Him, all you peoples.

The Lord’s Enduring Mercy

2 For His steadfast love is great toward us, and the truth of the Lord endures forever.
Praise the Lord!

Key Lessons from Psalm 117

- God’s mercy is for all nations — not just Israel, but every people group is invited to worship.
- The Lord’s love is steadfast and unchanging — His kindness reaches across generations.

- Truth never fades — God’s promises are eternal, unaffected by time or culture.
- Worship is global — heaven will be filled with people from every tribe, tongue, and nation praising the Lord (Revelation 7:9–10).

Psalm 118 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord Is My Salvation”

A Call to Give Thanks

1 Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good;
His mercy endures forever.

2 Let Israel now say:
“His mercy endures forever.”

3 Let the house of Aaron now say:
“His mercy endures forever.”

4 Let those who fear the Lord now say:
“His mercy endures forever.”

The Lord My Helper

5 In my distress I called to the Lord;
the Lord answered me and set me free.

6 The Lord is on my side; I will not be afraid.
What can man do to me?

7 The Lord is with me, He is my helper;
I will look in triumph on those who hate me.

8 It is better to trust in the Lord
than to put confidence in man.

9 It is better to trust in the Lord
than to put confidence in princes.

Surrounded but Delivered

10 All nations surrounded me,
but in the name of the Lord I cut them off.

11 They surrounded me, yes, they surrounded me,
but in the name of the Lord I cut them off.

12 They swarmed around me like bees;
they blazed like a fire of thorns,
but in the name of the Lord I cut them off.

13 I was pushed hard so that I might fall,
but the Lord helped me.

The Lord My Strength and Salvation

14 The Lord is my strength and my song;
He has become my salvation.

15 Shouts of joy and victory resound in the tents of the righteous:
“The right hand of the Lord has done mighty things!

16 The right hand of the Lord is exalted;
the right hand of the Lord has done valiantly!”

17 I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the Lord.

18 The Lord has disciplined me severely, but He has not given me over to death.

The Gate of Righteousness

19 Open for me the gates of righteousness;
I will enter and give thanks to the Lord.

20 This is the gate of the Lord;
the righteous shall enter through it.

21 I will give You thanks, for You answered me;
You have become my salvation.

The Cornerstone

22 The stone the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone.

23 This is the Lord’s doing;
it is marvelous in our eyes.

24 This is the day that the Lord has made;
we will rejoice and be glad in it.

Hosanna!

25 Save us now, we pray, O Lord!
O Lord, we pray, grant us success.

26 Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
From the house of the Lord we bless you.

27 The Lord is God,
and He has made His light shine upon us.
Bind the sacrifice with cords,
up to the horns of the altar.

Closing Praise

28 You are my God, and I will praise You;
You are my God, and I will exalt You.

29 Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good;
His mercy endures forever.

Key Lessons from Psalm 118

- God's mercy is eternal – no matter the situation, His love remains steadfast (vv. 1–4, 29).
- Trust in God, not man – human strength and power are limited, but the Lord never fails (vv. 6–9).
- The rejected stone becomes the cornerstone – a prophecy fulfilled in Jesus Christ (v. 22; cf. Matthew 21:42, Acts 4:11, 1 Peter 2:7).
- The Lord is salvation – not just a deliverer from enemies, but the Savior of the soul (vv. 14, 21).
- This is the day the Lord has made – a call to rejoice in His redemption, a verse often sung in worship (v. 24).
- Messianic Hosanna – “Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord” was shouted at Jesus’ triumphal entry (v. 26; cf. Matthew 21:9, John 12:13).

Psalm 119 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Glory of God’s Word”

ALEPH (vv. 1–8) – The Blessing of Walking in God’s Law

1 Blessed are those whose way is blameless, who walk in the law of the Lord.

2 Blessed are those who keep His testimonies, and who seek Him with their whole heart.

3 They do no wrong;
they walk in His ways.

4 You have commanded us to keep Your precepts diligently.

5 Oh, that my ways were steadfast in keeping Your statutes!

6 Then I would not be ashamed,
when I consider all Your commandments.

7 I will praise You with an upright heart when I learn Your righteous judgments.

8 I will keep Your statutes;
do not forsake me utterly.

Key Lessons:

- True blessing comes from walking according to God’s Word.
 - Obedience requires wholehearted devotion, not partial effort.
 - God’s Word removes shame and gives us confidence in Him.
-

BETH (vv. 9–16) – Cleansing by the Word

9 How can a young man keep his way pure?
By guarding it according to Your word.

10 With my whole heart I have sought You;
do not let me wander from Your commandments.

11 I have hidden Your word in my heart, that I might not sin against You.

12 Blessed are You, O Lord;
teach me Your statutes.

13 With my lips I declare all the judgments of Your mouth.

14 I rejoice in the way of Your testimonies as much as in all riches.

15 I will meditate on Your precepts and fix my eyes on Your ways.

16 I will delight myself in Your statutes;
I will not forget Your word.

Key Lessons:

- God's Word is the only path to purity.
 - Scripture hidden in the heart is a shield against sin.
 - Meditation on the Word brings more joy than wealth.
-

GIMEL (vv. 17–24) – The Word Our Counselor

17 Deal bountifully with Your servant, that I may live and keep Your word.

18 Open my eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of Your law.

19 I am a sojourner on the earth;
do not hide Your commandments from me.

20 My soul is consumed with longing for Your judgments at all times.

21 You rebuke the proud, the cursed ones, who wander from Your commandments.

22 Take away from me scorn and contempt, for I have kept Your testimonies.

23 Even though princes sit plotting against me,
Your servant will meditate on Your statutes.

24 Your testimonies are my delight;
they are my counselors.

Key Lessons:

- We need God to open our eyes to see the richness of His Word.
 - The Word sustains us as strangers in this world.
 - When slandered or opposed, God’s Word counsels and steadies us.
-

DALETH (vv. 25–32) – Revived by the Word

25 My soul clings to the dust;
revive me according to Your word.

26 I told of my ways, and You answered me;
teach me Your statutes.

27 Make me understand the way of Your precepts, and I will meditate on Your wondrous works.

28 My soul melts away for sorrow;
strengthen me according to Your word.

29 Put false ways far from me and graciously teach me Your law.

30 I have chosen the way of truth;
I have set Your judgments before me.

31 I cling to Your testimonies, O Lord;
do not let me be put to shame.

32 I will run in the way of Your commandments, when You enlarge my heart.

Key Lessons:

- God’s Word revives us when we are low in spirit.
- Choosing truth requires rejecting lies.
- Delight in God’s Word gives us spiritual strength to run the race.

HE (vv. 33–40) – Teach Me, O Lord

33 Teach me, O Lord, the way of Your statutes;
and I will keep it to the end.

34 Give me understanding, and I will keep Your law;
indeed, I will observe it with my whole heart.

35 Make me walk in the path of Your commandments, for in it I delight.

36 Incline my heart to Your testimonies,
and not to selfish gain.

37 Turn my eyes away from worthless things;
revive me in Your way.

38 Confirm Your word to Your servant,
who is devoted to fearing You.

39 Turn away the reproach that I dread, for Your judgments are good.

40 Behold, I long for Your precepts; revive me in Your righteousness.

Key Lessons:

- Obedience flows from God-given understanding.
 - Our hearts must be directed away from greed and vanity, and fixed on God's Word.
 - God's Word both revives us and shields us from shame.
-

VAV (vv. 41–48) – Liberty in God's Word

41 Let Your steadfast love come to me, O Lord,
Your salvation according to Your word.

42 Then I will have an answer for those who taunt me, for I trust in Your word.

43 Do not take the word of truth utterly from my mouth, for I have hoped in Your judgments.

44 So shall I keep Your law continually,
forever and ever.

45 And I will walk at liberty,
for I seek Your precepts.

46 I will speak of Your testimonies before kings and will not be ashamed.

47 I will delight myself in Your commandments, which I have loved.

48 I will lift up my hands to Your commandments, which I love, and will meditate on Your statutes.

Key Lessons:

- God’s Word equips us to answer critics and endure taunts.
 - Obedience to God brings true liberty, not bondage.
 - Love for the Word leads to bold testimony, even before rulers.
-

ZAYIN (vv. 49–56) – Comfort in Affliction

49 Remember Your word to Your servant, upon which You have caused me to hope.

50 This is my comfort in my affliction, that Your word has revived me.

51 The arrogant utterly deride me,
but I do not turn away from Your law.

52 I have remembered Your judgments of old, O Lord, and have found comfort.

53 Indignation seizes me because of the wicked who forsake Your law.

54 Your statutes have been my songs in the house of my sojourning.

55 I remember Your name in the night, O Lord, and keep Your law.

56 This blessing has fallen to me, that I have kept Your precepts.

Key Lessons:

- God’s promises are the believer’s comfort in affliction.
 - Remembering God’s past judgments strengthens us in present trials.
 - His Word gives songs in the night and joy in our pilgrimage.
-

HETH (vv. 57–64) – The Lord is My Portion

57 The Lord is my portion;
I have promised to keep Your words.

58 I seek Your favor with my whole heart;
be gracious to me according to Your word.

59 I considered my ways and turned my feet to Your testimonies.

60 I made haste, and did not delay to keep Your commandments.

61 Though the cords of the wicked ensnare me,
I do not forget Your law.

62 At midnight I rise to give thanks to You,
because of Your righteous judgments.

63 I am a companion of all who fear You,
of those who keep Your precepts.

64 The earth, O Lord, is full of Your steadfast love;
teach me Your statutes.

Key Lessons:

- The Lord Himself is the believer's inheritance, better than any possession.
 - True repentance leads to prompt obedience—without delay.
 - God's Word binds us in fellowship with all who fear Him.
-

TETH (vv. 65–72) – The Blessing of Affliction

65 You have dealt well with Your servant, O Lord, according to Your word.

66 Teach me good judgment and knowledge,
for I believe in Your commandments.

67 Before I was afflicted I went astray, but now I keep Your word.

68 You are good and do good;
teach me Your statutes.

69 The proud smear me with lies,
but I will keep Your precepts with my whole heart.

70 Their heart is unfeeling like fat,
but I delight in Your law.

71 It is good for me that I was afflicted, that I might learn Your statutes.

72 The law of Your mouth is better to me than thousands of gold and silver pieces.

Key Lessons:

- Affliction often serves to drive us back to God's Word.
- God's goodness is unchanging, even in times of trial.
- The Word of God is worth more than all the treasures of the earth.

YODH (vv. 73–80) – Formed by His Hands

73 Your hands have made and fashioned me;
give me understanding, that I may learn Your commandments.

74 Those who fear You shall see me and rejoice, because I have hoped in Your word.

75 I know, O Lord, that Your judgments are right, and that in faithfulness You have afflicted me.

76 Let Your steadfast love be my comfort, according to Your promise to Your servant.

77 Let Your tender mercies come to me, that I may live, for Your law is my delight.

78 Let the arrogant be put to shame, because they wrong me with lies;
but I will meditate on Your precepts.

79 Let those who fear You turn to me, that they may know Your testimonies.

80 May my heart be blameless in Your statutes, that I may not be put to shame.

Key Lessons:

- God is our Creator and Teacher; the One who formed us can guide us.
 - Affliction is not random—it comes through God's faithfulness.
 - Fellowship with others who fear God strengthens faith and obedience.
-

KAPH (vv. 81–88) – Fainting for Salvation

81 My soul longs for Your salvation;
I hope in Your word.

82 My eyes fail with watching for Your promise;
I ask, “When will You comfort me?”

83 For I have become like a wineskin in the smoke, yet I have not forgotten Your statutes.

84 How many are the days of Your servant?
When will You execute judgment on my persecutors?

85 The arrogant have dug pits for me,
they do not live according to Your law.

86 All Your commandments are faithful;
they persecute me wrongfully—help me!

87 They almost destroyed me on the earth,
but I did not forsake Your precepts.

88 Revive me according to Your steadfast love, that I may keep the testimony of Your mouth.

Key Lessons:

- Even when weary and scorched by trials, the faithful cling to God’s Word.
- God’s commandments are faithful when men are not.
- Revival comes through God’s love, not our strength.

LAMEDH (vv. 89–96) – Forever Settled in Heaven

89 Forever, O Lord, Your word is firmly fixed in heaven.

90 Your faithfulness endures to all generations;
You have established the earth, and it stands fast.

91 By Your ordinances they stand this day,
for all things are Your servants.

92 If Your law had not been my delight,
I would have perished in my affliction.

93 I will never forget Your precepts, for by them You have given me life.

94 I am Yours; save me,
for I have sought Your precepts.

95 The wicked lie in wait to destroy me,
but I consider Your testimonies.

96 I have seen a limit to all perfection, but Your commandment is exceedingly broad.

Key Lessons:

- God's Word is eternal, unchanging, and fixed in heaven.
- His faithfulness spans every generation—He never fails.
- Earthly perfection is limited, but God's Word is limitless in wisdom and scope.

MEM (vv. 97–104) – Sweeter Than Honey

97 Oh, how I love Your law!
It is my meditation all the day.

98 Your commandments make me wiser than my enemies,
for they are ever with me.

99 I have more understanding than all my teachers, for Your testimonies are my meditation.

100 I understand more than the elders, because I keep Your precepts.

101 I have kept my feet from every evil way,
so that I might obey Your word.

102 I have not turned away from Your judgments, for You Yourself have taught me.

103 How sweet are Your words to my taste, sweeter than honey to my mouth!

104 Through Your precepts I gain understanding;
therefore I hate every false way.

Key Lessons:

- Loving and meditating on God's Word brings wisdom greater than worldly teachers.
- Obedience is the pathway to true understanding.
- God's Word satisfies the soul with sweetness beyond honey.

NUN (vv. 105–112) – A Lamp to My Feet

105 Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.

106 I have sworn an oath and confirmed it,
to keep Your righteous judgments.

107 I am severely afflicted;
revive me, O Lord, according to Your word.

108 Accept, I pray, the freewill offerings of my mouth, O Lord, and teach me Your judgments.

109 My life is continually in danger,
yet I do not forget Your law.

110 The wicked have laid a snare for me,
yet I have not strayed from Your precepts.

111 Your testimonies are my heritage forever;
they are the joy of my heart.

112 My heart is set on keeping Your statutes to the very end.

Key Lessons:

- God's Word gives light and direction in the darkest paths.
 - Even in danger and affliction, the righteous cling to His law.
 - The Word of God is an eternal inheritance and the joy of the faithful.
-

SAMEKH (vv. 113–120) – My Hiding Place and Shield

113 I hate double-minded thoughts,
but I love Your law.

114 You are my hiding place and my shield;
I hope in Your word.

115 Depart from me, you evildoers, for I will keep the commandments of my God.

116 Uphold me according to Your word, that I may live, and let me not be ashamed of my hope.

117 Hold me up, and I shall be safe;
I will always have regard for Your statutes.

118 You reject all who stray from Your statutes, for their deceit is falsehood.

119 You discard all the wicked of the earth like dross;
therefore I love Your testimonies.

120 My flesh trembles for fear of You, and I stand in awe of Your judgments.

Key Lessons:

- God Himself is the believer's hiding place and shield.
 - Double-mindedness is rejected, but steadfast love of His Word secures us.
 - Awe and holy fear of God's Word produces reverence and obedience.
-

AYIN (vv. 121–128) – Loving God's Law Above Gold

121 I have done what is just and right;
do not leave me to my oppressors.

122 Be surety for Your servant for good;
let not the proud oppress me.

123 My eyes fail, watching for Your salvation and the fulfillment of Your righteous promise.

124 Deal with Your servant according to Your mercy,
and teach me Your statutes.

125 I am Your servant; give me understanding, that I may know Your testimonies.

126 It is time for the Lord to act,
for they have broken Your law.

127 Therefore I love Your commandments more than gold, yes, more than fine gold.

128 Therefore I regard all Your precepts as right in every way;
I hate every false way.

Key Lessons:

- God's Word is worth more than the finest gold.
 - His people look for His salvation even while waiting under oppression.
 - Loving His commandments naturally leads to hating what is false.
-

PE (vv. 129–136) – Streams of Tears

129 Your testimonies are wonderful; therefore my soul keeps them.

130 The unfolding of Your words gives light;
it gives understanding to the simple.

131 I open my mouth and pant,
for I long for Your commandments.

132 Turn to me and be gracious to me,
as You do to those who love Your name.

133 Order my steps in Your word, and let no iniquity have dominion over me.

134 Redeem me from man's oppression, that I may keep Your precepts.

135 Make Your face shine upon Your servant,
and teach me Your statutes.

136 Streams of tears run down from my eyes, because people do not keep Your law.

Key Lessons:

- God's Word gives light and understanding to the simple-hearted.
 - Righteous grief flows when the world rejects God's truth.
 - Ordered steps in God's Word keep us free from the dominion of sin.
-

TSADHE (vv. 137–144) – Everlasting Righteousness

137 Righteous are You, O Lord, and upright are Your judgments.

138 The testimonies You have commanded are righteous and very faithful.

139 My zeal consumes me,
because my enemies forget Your words.

140 Your word is very pure;
therefore Your servant loves it.

141 I am small and despised,
yet I do not forget Your precepts.

142 Your righteousness is everlasting, and Your law is truth.

143 Trouble and anguish have found me out,
but Your commandments are my delight.

144 The righteousness of Your testimonies is everlasting;
give me understanding, and I shall live.

Key Lessons:

- God's Word is pure, righteous, and eternal.
- Though the world despises us, the law of God is our delight.
- True life is found in understanding and obeying God's everlasting truth.

RESH (vv. 145–152) – God is Near 145 I cry out with my whole heart; answer me, O Lord! I will keep Your statutes.

146 I call to You; save me,
and I will keep Your testimonies.

147 I rise before dawn and cry for help;
I put my hope in Your word.

148 My eyes stay open through the night watches, that I may meditate on Your word.

149 Hear my voice according to Your steadfast love;
revive me, O Lord, according to Your justice.

150 Those who pursue evil draw near;
they are far from Your law.

151 But You are near, O Lord, and all Your commandments are truth.

152 Long ago I learned from Your testimonies that You established them forever.

Key Lessons:

- God is near to those who cry to Him with their whole heart.
 - His Word provides hope both day and night.
 - His testimonies are eternal, unchanging, and faithful.
-

QOPH (vv. 153–160) – Revive Me by Your Word

153 Look upon my affliction and deliver me, for I do not forget Your law.

154 Defend my cause and redeem me;
revive me according to Your promise.

155 Salvation is far from the wicked,
for they do not seek Your statutes.

156 Great are Your mercies, O Lord; revive me according to Your judgments.

157 Many are my persecutors and my foes,
but I have not turned from Your testimonies.

158 I look upon the faithless with grief,
because they do not keep Your word.

159 Consider how I love Your precepts;
revive me, O Lord, according to Your steadfast love.

160 The sum of Your word is truth, and every one of Your righteous judgments endures forever.

Key Lessons:

- God's Word revives the soul when afflicted or oppressed.
 - The wicked remain far from salvation because they reject His statutes.
 - Every word of God is truth, eternal, and unshakable.
-

RESH (vv. 161–168) – Peace for Those Who Love His Law

161 Princes persecute me without cause, but my heart stands in awe of Your word.

162 I rejoice in Your word
as one who finds great treasure.

163 I hate and abhor falsehood,
but I love Your law.

164 Seven times a day I praise You because of Your righteous judgments.

165 Great peace have those who love Your law;
nothing can make them stumble.

166 I wait for Your salvation, O Lord, and I follow Your commandments.

167 My soul keeps Your testimonies, and I love them exceedingly.

168 I keep Your precepts and testimonies, for all my ways are before You.

Key Lessons:

- God's Word is a treasure more valuable than riches.
 - Loving His law brings great peace and stability.
 - True devotion is marked by continual love and obedience.
-

SHIN (vv. 169–176) – A Cry for the Shepherd

169 Let my cry come near before You, O Lord;
give me understanding according to Your word.

170 Let my supplication come before You;
deliver me according to Your promise.

171 My lips overflow with praise, for You teach me Your statutes.

172 My tongue sings of Your word, for all Your commandments are righteous.

173 Let Your hand be ready to help me,
for I have chosen Your precepts.

174 I long for Your salvation, O Lord, and Your law is my delight.

175 Let my soul live to praise You,
and let Your judgments help me.

176 I have gone astray like a lost sheep;
seek Your servant,
for I do not forget Your commandments.

Key Lessons:

- God's Word gives understanding, guidance, and deliverance.
- The righteous overflow with praise because His commands are true and good.
- Like a shepherd seeking a lost sheep, the Lord pursues His wandering people.

✦✦ Summary of Psalm 119

Psalm 119, the longest chapter in Scripture, exalts the beauty, power, and necessity of God's Word. Divided into 22 sections (one for each Hebrew letter), it highlights the believer's relationship to God's law—through affliction, joy, persecution, meditation, and obedience.

Major Themes:

- The Word of God brings wisdom, peace, joy, and understanding.
- Affliction often drives us deeper into reliance on His promises.
- The Word is eternal, pure, and trustworthy in every generation.
- The believer's heart longs for God's statutes as for life itself.

Key Lessons:

- God's Word lights the path and anchors the soul.
- Obedience to His commands brings stability and peace.
- God Himself is near, reviving His people with mercy and truth.
- Even when we stray, the Shepherd seeks us, for His Word endures forever.

Psalm 120 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Cry for Peace in a World of Deceit”

1 In my distress I cried to the Lord, and He answered me.

2 Deliver me, O Lord,
from lying lips and a deceitful tongue.

3 What shall be done to you,
and what more shall be given to you,
O deceitful tongue?

4 Sharp arrows of the warrior, with burning coals of the broom tree.

5 Woe to me, that I dwell in Meshech, that I live among the tents of Kedar!

6 My soul has long dwelt with those who hate peace.

7 I am for peace,
but when I speak, they are for war.

✠✠ Key Lessons from Psalm 120

- God hears our cry in distress. Even when surrounded by lies and deceit, He answers the prayer of the righteous.
- Lying tongues bring destruction. The psalmist warns that deceit will be judged like sharp arrows and burning coals.
- God's people are strangers in a hostile world. Living among those who hate peace can weary the soul, but the believer must remain faithful.
- Seek peace even when others seek war. True disciples of God stand for peace, reflecting His nature even in a violent and deceitful culture.

Psalm 121 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord Our Guardian”

1 I lift up my eyes to the hills.
From where does my help come?

2 My help comes from the Lord,
the Maker of heaven and earth.

3 He will not allow your foot to slip;
He who guards you will not slumber.

4 Behold, He who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.

5 The Lord is your keeper;
the Lord is your shade at your right hand.

6 The sun will not strike you by day,
nor the moon by night.

7 The Lord will keep you from all harm;
He will preserve your life.

8 The Lord will watch over your coming and going,
both now and forevermore.

✧ Key Lessons from Psalm 121

- Our true help comes from God alone. Creation points us upward, but it is the Creator who provides strength and deliverance.
- God never sleeps. Unlike human protectors, the Lord watches over His people continually, day and night.
- God is our keeper and shield. He guards His people from dangers seen and unseen, preserving body and soul.
- God's care is eternal. His watchful protection extends over every step of life's journey—today, tomorrow, and forever.

Psalm 122 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Joy of God's House and the Peace of Jerusalem”

1 I was glad when they said to me,
“Let us go to the house of the Lord.”

2 Our feet are standing within your gates,
O Jerusalem.

3 Jerusalem is built as a city that is closely compacted together,

4 where the tribes go up,
the tribes of the Lord,
as a testimony for Israel,
to give thanks to the name of the Lord.

5 For there the thrones for judgment are set,
the thrones of the house of David.

6 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem:
“May those who love you prosper.

7 May peace be within your walls, and prosperity within your palaces.”

8 For the sake of my brothers and companions,
I will say, “Peace be within you.”

9 For the sake of the house of the Lord our God,
I will seek your good.

✧✧ Key Lessons from Psalm 122

- Joy in worship. God’s people find gladness in gathering together in His house to give thanks and praise.
- Unity in God’s city. Jerusalem is described as compact and united, reflecting the unity God desires for His people.
- Prayer for peace. Believers are called to pray for the peace of Jerusalem, showing love for God’s city and people.
- Blessing in seeking the good of others. True worship leads us to seek the well-being of God’s house and His people.
- Peace and prosperity flow from God. Both physical safety and spiritual blessing are tied to the Lord’s presence in His holy city.

Psalm 123 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Looking to God for Mercy”

1 I lift up my eyes to You,
O You who dwell in the heavens.

2 As the eyes of servants look to the hand of their master, as the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress,
so our eyes look to the Lord our God,
until He shows us mercy.

3 Have mercy on us, O Lord, have mercy on us,
for we have endured much contempt.

4 Our soul has had more than enough of the scorn of those who are at ease, of the contempt of the proud.

✧✧ Key Lessons from Psalm 123

- Dependence on God. Just as servants depend on their masters for provision and guidance, so must believers look continually to the Lord for help and mercy.
- Persistence in prayer. The psalmist teaches us to keep our eyes fixed on God “until” He has mercy, showing endurance and faith.
- God’s mercy is our greatest need. In the face of contempt and ridicule from the proud, our greatest cry must be for God’s mercy, not human vindication.
- Trials teach reliance. Scorn and rejection remind us that our true help comes from the Lord, not from human approval.

- Heavenly perspective. By lifting our eyes to the One who dwells in the heavens, we rise above earthly pride and contempt.

Psalm 124 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord Our Deliverer”

1 If the Lord had not been on our side—
let Israel now say—

2 If the Lord had not been on our side
when people rose up against us,

3 then they would have swallowed us alive
when their anger burned against us.

4 Then the waters would have overwhelmed us;
the torrent would have swept over our soul.

5 The raging waters
would have gone over our soul.

6 Blessed be the Lord,
who has not given us as prey to their teeth.

7 Our soul has escaped like a bird from the snare of the fowler;
the snare is broken,
and we have escaped.

8 Our help is in the name of the Lord,
the Maker of heaven and earth.

✦✦ Key Lessons from Psalm 124

- God is our Defender. Without the Lord’s protection, the enemy would have destroyed His people.
- Trials remind us of His power. The imagery of floods and raging waters shows how overwhelming life can feel, yet God delivers.
- Blessed deliverance. God breaks snares and gives His people freedom, reminding us that He is greater than every trap of the enemy.
- Dependence on His Name. Our help is not in human strength, but in the Lord’s name—the very One who created heaven and earth.
- Gratitude fuels faith. By remembering what God has done, we grow in confidence that He will deliver again.

Psalm 125 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord Surrounds His People”

1 Those who trust in the Lord are like Mount Zion, which cannot be shaken but endures forever.

2 As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so the Lord surrounds His people
both now and forevermore.

3 The scepter of the wicked will not remain over the land of the righteous, so that the righteous may not reach out their hands to do wrong.

4 Do good, O Lord, to those who are good,
to those who are upright in heart.

5 But those who turn aside to crooked ways
the Lord will banish with the evildoers.
Peace be upon Israel.

✠✠ Key Lessons from Psalm 125

- Unshakable trust. Those who rely on the Lord are as immovable as Mount Zion, standing firm through trials.
- Divine protection. Just as the mountains encircle Jerusalem, the Lord continually surrounds His people with His presence and care.
- Temporary power of the wicked. Evil may rise for a season, but it will not remain upon the righteous forever.
- God rewards integrity. The Lord does good to the upright in heart, showing that faithfulness brings blessing.
- Warning against crooked paths. Those who turn away from righteousness will share the fate of evildoers, but God’s people will enjoy peace.

Psalm 126 – Crawford Standard Bible

“From Tears to Joy”

1 When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion, we were like those who dream.

2 Our mouths were filled with laughter, our tongues with songs of joy.

Then it was said among the nations,
“The Lord has done great things for them.”

3 The Lord has done great things for us, and we are filled with gladness.

4 Restore our fortunes again, O Lord, like streams in the Negev.

5 Those who sow in tears will reap with songs of joy.

6 Those who go out weeping, carrying seed to sow,
will surely return with shouts of joy,
bringing their harvest with them.

✦ Key Lessons from Psalm 126

- God restores joy. The Lord can turn sorrow and captivity into laughter and gladness.
- Testimony to the nations. When God blesses His people, even outsiders recognize His mighty works.
- Hope in hard times. Just as dry riverbeds in the south of Israel suddenly filled with water, God can quickly bring refreshing renewal.
- Tears are not wasted. Sorrow and faithful labor in times of trial will yield a joyful harvest in due season.
- Assurance of blessing. Those who remain faithful in sowing—even through pain—will return rejoicing with abundant fruit.

Psalm 127 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord Builds and Blesses”

1 Unless the Lord builds the house,
the builders labor in vain.
Unless the Lord watches over the city,
the watchmen stand guard in vain.

2 It is useless to rise early and stay up late,
toiling for food to eat—
for He grants rest to His beloved ones.

3 Children are a heritage from the Lord,
a reward from Him.

4 Like arrows in the hand of a warrior,
so are the children of one's youth.

5 Blessed is the man whose quiver is full of them.
They will not be put to shame
when they contend with their enemies at the gate.

✦✦ Key Lessons from Psalm 127

- Dependence on God. All human effort is futile unless God is the foundation—whether building homes, cities, or lives.
- Rest is a gift. God provides peace and rest to His beloved, contrasting the anxious striving of those who labor without Him.
- Children are blessings. Sons and daughters are not burdens but rewards, gifts entrusted by the Lord.
- Generational strength. Just as arrows equip a warrior, children raised in the Lord strengthen families and communities.
- Confidence in the future. A full “quiver” of children provides honor, security, and legacy in the face of challenges.

Psalm 128 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Blessings of Those Who Fear the Lord”

1 Blessed is everyone who fears the Lord, who walks in His ways.

2 You will eat the fruit of your labor;
blessings and prosperity will be yours.

3 Your wife will be like a fruitful vine flourishing within your house;
your children will be like olive shoots around your table.

4 This is the blessing
for the man who fears the Lord.

5 May the Lord bless you from Zion;
may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem
all the days of your life.

6 May you live to see your children's children—
peace be upon Israel.

✦✦ Key Lessons from Psalm 128

- The fear of the Lord brings blessing. Reverence and obedience to God lead to a flourishing and content life.
- Work under God's blessing brings joy. Honest labor will not be in vain but will provide satisfaction and provision.
- Family as God's gift. A godly home—fruitful spouse and thriving children—is a sign of the Lord's favor.
- Generational hope. To live long enough to see grandchildren is a profound blessing, showing God's faithfulness from one generation to another.
- Peace and prosperity in God's presence. True well-being flows not from wealth or power, but from God's favor upon His people.

Psalm 129 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord Delivers His People from Their Enemies”

1 “From my earliest days they have greatly oppressed me,” let Israel now declare—

2 “From my youth they have greatly oppressed me, but they have not prevailed against me.

3 The plowmen plowed upon my back;
they made their furrows long and deep.

4 But the Lord is righteous;
He has cut the cords of the wicked.”

5 May all who hate Zion be turned back in shame.

6 May they be like grass on the rooftops, which withers before it can grow,

7 that cannot fill the hands of the reaper,
nor the arms of the one who gathers sheaves.

8 And may no one passing by say,
“The blessing of the Lord be upon you;
we bless you in the name of the Lord.”

✦✦ Key Lessons from Psalm 129

- God’s people face oppression, but never defeat. Israel’s history is filled with affliction, yet the Lord never allowed their enemies to prevail completely.
- The scars of suffering are real. The image of plowmen furrowing the back shows the depth of pain God’s people have endured, yet God brings deliverance.
- The Lord is righteous. He acts with justice, cutting the bonds of the wicked and freeing His people.
- The fate of the wicked is short-lived. Like rooftop grass that withers before maturity, the plans of God’s enemies will not last.
- True blessing belongs only to those in the Lord. Those who oppose God and His people will never know His favor or His blessing.

Psalm 130 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Hope in the Lord’s Redemption”

1 Out of the depths I cry to You, O Lord.

2 Lord, hear my voice!

Let Your ears be attentive to my cries for mercy.

3 If You, O Lord, kept a record of sins,
Lord, who could stand?

4 But with You there is forgiveness,
so that You may be feared.

5 I wait for the Lord, my soul waits, and in His word I put my hope.

6 My soul waits for the Lord more than watchmen wait for the morning—
yes, more than watchmen wait for the morning.

7 O Israel, put your hope in the Lord!
For with the Lord there is unfailing love,
and with Him is full redemption.

8 He Himself will redeem Israel from all their sins.

✦✦ Key Lessons from Psalm 130

- Prayer rises from the depths. Even in despair and hopelessness, God hears the cries of His children.
- No one can stand without forgiveness. If God counted sins, all would fall. Redemption is found only in His mercy.
- Forgiveness leads to reverence. God’s grace is not a license to sin, but a call to fear and honor Him.
- Hope is rooted in God’s Word. Waiting on the Lord requires trust in His promises, even in long seasons of silence.
- Redemption is abundant. God not only forgives individuals but promises to redeem His people fully and completely.

Psalm 131 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Peace of a Childlike Heart”

1 Lord, my heart is not proud,
my eyes are not arrogant.
I do not concern myself with great matters or things too wonderful for me.

2 Instead, I have calmed and quieted my soul, like a weaned child with its mother;
like a weaned child is my soul within me.

3 O Israel, put your hope in the Lord
now and forevermore.

✦✦ Key Lessons from Psalm 131

- Humility before God: Pride and arrogance prevent true worship. A humble heart acknowledges its limits.
- Childlike trust brings peace: Just as a weaned child rests content with its mother, the soul finds quiet rest in God’s care.
- Hope must be continual: Israel—and all believers—are called to place their trust in the Lord not only in the present but for all generations to come.

Psalm 132 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God’s Covenant with David and Zion”

David's Vow to the Lord

1 Lord, remember David and all the hardships he endured, 2 how he swore an oath to the Lord and vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob:
3 "I will not enter my house or lie down on my bed, 4 I will not allow sleep to my eyes
or slumber to my eyelids, 5 until I find a place for the Lord,
a dwelling for the Mighty One of Jacob."

Zion, the Dwelling Place of God

6 We heard about it in Ephrathah;
we found it in the fields of Jaar.
7 Let us go to His dwelling place;
let us worship at His footstool.
8 Arise, Lord, and enter into Your resting place,
You and the ark of Your strength.
9 May Your priests be clothed with righteousness;
may Your faithful people shout for joy.
10 For the sake of Your servant David,
do not reject Your anointed one.

God's Oath to David

11 The Lord swore an oath to David,
a promise He will not revoke:
"From the fruit of your body
I will set one of your descendants on your throne.
12 If your children keep My covenant and the statutes I teach them, then their children too will sit on your throne forever and ever."

The Blessings of Zion

13 For the Lord has chosen Zion;
He has desired it for His dwelling, saying,

14 “This is My resting place forever;
here I will dwell, for I have desired it.

15 I will bless her with abundant provisions;
her poor I will satisfy with bread.

16 I will clothe her priests with salvation,
and her faithful people will shout for joy.

17 Here I will make a horn grow for David and set up a lamp for My anointed one.

18 I will clothe his enemies with shame,
but his crown will shine with glory.”

✠✠ Key Lessons from Psalm 132

- David’s devotion was relentless: He would not rest until God had a dwelling place, showing us to put God’s glory before our own comfort.
- God’s promises are sure: The covenant with David finds its ultimate fulfillment in Christ, the eternal King from David’s line.
- Zion is God’s chosen dwelling: God delights to dwell among His people, and His blessings flow from His presence.
- Provision and salvation are linked to God’s house: Where God dwells, His people are clothed with righteousness, filled with joy, and blessed with every need.

Psalm 133 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Beauty of Unity”

The Blessing of Brotherhood

1 Behold, how good and how pleasant it is when brothers live together in unity!

The Fragrance of Anointing Oil

2 It is like the precious anointing oil on the head, running down on the beard—Aaron’s beard—
flowing down onto the collar of his robes.

The Refreshing Dew of Zion

3 It is like the dew of Mount Hermon, falling on the mountains of Zion.
For there the Lord bestows His blessing—life everlasting.

✠✧ Key Lessons from Psalm 133

- Unity brings delight: God calls unity among His people both good and pleasant—it is desirable and powerful.
- Unity is consecrated: Like the anointing oil that set Aaron apart as priest, unity consecrates God’s people for His service.
- Unity refreshes and gives life: Like morning dew on the mountains, unity brings renewal, growth, and fruitfulness.
- Unity attracts God’s blessing: Where God’s people walk in oneness, He commands blessing—eternal life and joy in His presence.

Psalm 134 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Call to Night Worship”

A Call to Bless the Lord

1 Behold, bless the Lord,
all you servants of the Lord,
who stand by night in the house of the Lord.

A Call to Lift Hands in Praise

2 Lift up your hands in the sanctuary, and bless the Lord.

A Blessing from Zion

3 May the Lord, the Maker of heaven and earth, bless you from Zion.

✠✧ Key Lessons from Psalm 134

- Worship is continuous: Even at night, God is to be praised by His servants—reminding us that worship is not bound by time.

- Worship involves action: Lifting hands is both a posture of surrender and an act of honor toward the Lord.
- God blesses His people: As His people bless Him in worship, He responds with His blessing—flowing from Zion, the place of His dwelling.
- The Creator is our source: The One who made heaven and earth is the same God who pours blessings into the lives of His people.

Psalm 135 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Greatness of the Lord and the Futility of Idols”

Call to Praise the Lord

1 Praise the Lord!

Praise the name of the Lord;
praise Him, you servants of the Lord,

2 You who stand in the house of the Lord,
in the courts of the house of our God.

3 Praise the Lord, for the Lord is good;
sing praises to His name, for it is pleasant.

God’s Chosen People

4 For the Lord has chosen Jacob for Himself,
Israel as His treasured possession.

The Greatness of God

5 For I know that the Lord is great,
and our Lord is above all gods.

6 The Lord does whatever He pleases,
in heaven and on earth,
in the seas and in all depths.

7 He makes the clouds rise from the ends of the earth;
He sends lightning with the rain,
and brings the wind out of His storehouses.

God's Mighty Acts in History

8 He struck down the firstborn of Egypt, both of man and beast.

9 He sent signs and wonders into your midst, O Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants.

10 He struck down many nations,
and killed mighty kings:

11 Sihon king of the Amorites,
Og king of Bashan,
and all the kingdoms of Canaan.

12 He gave their land as an inheritance,
an inheritance to His people Israel.

God's Eternal Name

13 Your name, O Lord, endures forever;
Your fame, O Lord, throughout all generations.

14 For the Lord will judge His people, and have compassion on His servants.

The Futility of Idols

15 The idols of the nations are silver and gold,
the work of human hands.

16 They have mouths, but they cannot speak;
eyes, but they cannot see.

17 They have ears, but they cannot hear;
nor is there breath in their mouths.

18 Those who make them become like them,
and so do all who trust in them.

Bless the Lord

19 Bless the Lord, O house of Israel!
Bless the Lord, O house of Aaron!

20 Bless the Lord, O house of Levi!
You who fear the Lord, bless the Lord!

21 Blessed be the Lord from Zion, who dwells in Jerusalem.
Praise the Lord!

✠✧ Key Lessons from Psalm 135

- Worship belongs to God alone: His servants are called to praise Him continually in His house.
- God's sovereignty is supreme: Unlike idols, the Lord is living, active, and does as He pleases in all creation.
- History reveals God's power: From Egypt to Canaan, He demonstrated His might and faithfulness to His people.
- Idols are powerless: Those who trust in them become as lifeless as the idols themselves.
- God's name endures forever: His glory and compassion extend from generation to generation.
- All are called to bless Him: Israel, Aaron, Levi, and all who fear the Lord are invited into His worship.

Psalm 136 – Crawford Standard Bible

“His Mercy Endures Forever”

Give Thanks to the Lord of All

1 Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good,
for His mercy endures forever.

2 Give thanks to the God of gods,
for His mercy endures forever.

3 Give thanks to the Lord of lords,
for His mercy endures forever.

The Wonders of Creation

4 To Him who alone does great wonders,
for His mercy endures forever.

5 By His wisdom He made the heavens,
for His mercy endures forever.

6 He spread out the earth above the waters,
for His mercy endures forever.

7 He made the great lights,
for His mercy endures forever:

8 The sun to rule by day,
for His mercy endures forever.

9 The moon and stars to rule by night,
for His mercy endures forever.

Deliverance from Egypt

10 To Him who struck down the firstborn of Egypt,
for His mercy endures forever.

11 And brought Israel out from among them,
for His mercy endures forever.

12 With a mighty hand and an outstretched arm,
for His mercy endures forever.

Deliverance at the Sea

13 To Him who divided the Red Sea in two,
for His mercy endures forever.

14 And made Israel pass through the midst of it,
for His mercy endures forever.

15 But swept Pharaoh and his army into the Red Sea,
for His mercy endures forever.

Guidance in the Wilderness

16 To Him who led His people through the wilderness,
for His mercy endures forever.

Victory Over Kings

17 To Him who struck down great kings,
for His mercy endures forever.

18 And killed mighty kings,
for His mercy endures forever.

19 Sihon king of the Amorites,
for His mercy endures forever.

20 And Og king of Bashan,
for His mercy endures forever.

The Inheritance of the Land

21 He gave their land as an inheritance,
for His mercy endures forever.

22 An inheritance to Israel His servant,
for His mercy endures forever.

God's Compassion and Provision

23 He remembered us in our lowly state,
for His mercy endures forever.

24 And rescued us from our enemies,
for His mercy endures forever.

25 He gives food to all flesh,
for His mercy endures forever.

Closing Praise

26 Give thanks to the God of heaven,
for His mercy endures forever.

✠✧ Key Lessons from Psalm 136

- God's mercy is unending: Every verse reminds us of His steadfast love that never fails.
- Creation testifies of His mercy: The heavens, the earth, the sun, moon, and stars all reveal His wisdom and care.
- History is proof of His love: From Egypt to Canaan, God showed His power in delivering and sustaining His people.

- God remembers His people: Even in lowly or difficult times, His mercy reaches down to rescue and provide.
- All creation depends on Him: Every living thing receives food and sustenance from His generous hand.
- Thanksgiving is our response: Because His mercy endures forever, we must continually give thanks and trust Him.

Psalm 137 – Crawford Standard Bible

“By the Rivers of Babylon”

Weeping in Exile

1 By the rivers of Babylon we sat down and wept when we remembered Zion.

2 We hung our harps upon the willows in the midst of that land.

3 For there our captors demanded songs of us,
and our tormentors asked for joy, saying,
“Sing us one of the songs of Zion!”

4 But how can we sing the Lord’s song in a foreign land?

Jerusalem Remembered

5 If I forget you, O Jerusalem, may my right hand forget its skill.

6 If I do not remember you, may my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth—
if I do not make Jerusalem my greatest joy.

A Cry for Justice

7 Remember, Lord, what the children of Edom did on the day Jerusalem fell,
when they cried out, “Tear it down!
Tear it down to its very foundations!”

8 O daughter of Babylon, doomed to destruction, blessed is the one who repays you for what you have done to us.

9 Blessed is the one who takes your little ones and dashes them against the rocks.

✦✦ Key Lessons from Psalm 137

- Grief in exile: The people of God mourned the loss of their homeland, showing that separation from God's place of worship brings deep sorrow.
- The value of Jerusalem: To forget Jerusalem was to forget the heart of worship, the place where God's presence dwelt among His people.
- The pain of oppression: Their captors mocked their faith, demanding songs when their hearts were broken.
- A cry for justice: The psalm ends with raw emotion, longing for God to bring judgment upon Babylon. It reflects the pain of oppression and the hope that God will repay the wicked.
- Christ-centered reflection: While the psalm voices the anguish of Israel, in Christ we learn to pray for justice yet also to entrust vengeance to God (Romans 12:19), finding hope in His final judgment and mercy.

Psalm 138 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord's Steadfast Love Endures”

Wholehearted Praise

1 I will praise You with all my heart;
before the gods I will sing praises to You.

2 I will bow down toward Your holy temple and praise Your name for Your unfailing love and Your truth, for You have exalted Your word above all Your name.

Strength in Answered Prayer

3 On the day I called to You,
You answered me
and made me bold with strength in my soul.

4 All the kings of the earth will praise You, O Lord, when they hear the words of Your mouth.

5 Yes, they will sing of the ways of the Lord, for great is the glory of the Lord.

God's Care for the Lowly

6 Though the Lord is exalted on high,
He regards the humble,
but the proud He knows from afar.

Confidence in God's Protection

7 Though I walk in the midst of trouble,
You preserve my life;
You stretch out Your hand against the anger of my enemies, and Your right hand saves me.

8 The Lord will fulfill His purpose for me;
Your steadfast love, O Lord, endures forever.
Do not abandon the works of Your hands.

✠✧ Key Lessons from Psalm 138

- Wholehearted worship: True praise involves the whole heart, not half-hearted words or divided affections.
- God's Word exalted: The psalm highlights how God magnifies His Word, showing its authority and trustworthiness.
- Prayer strengthens the soul: God not only answers prayer but also strengthens His people to endure trials.
- God's greatness with humility: Though the Lord reigns in majesty, He draws near to the lowly while resisting the proud (James 4:6).
- Confidence in God's plan: Believers can rest in the assurance that God will finish what He has started (Philippians 1:6).

Psalm 139 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The God Who Knows and Surrounds Us”

God’s Perfect Knowledge

1 O Lord, You have searched me and known me.

2 You know when I sit down and when I rise up;
You perceive my thoughts from afar.

3 You discern my going out and my lying down;
You are familiar with all my ways.

4 Before a word is on my tongue,
You, Lord, know it completely.

5 You hem me in—behind and before—and You lay Your hand upon me.

6 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too lofty for me to grasp.

God’s Inescapable Presence

7 Where can I go from Your Spirit?
Where can I flee from Your presence?

8 If I ascend to the heavens, You are there;
if I make my bed in the depths, You are there also.

9 If I rise on the wings of the morning,
if I settle on the far side of the sea,

10 even there Your hand will guide me,
Your right hand will hold me fast.

11 If I say, “Surely the darkness will hide me and the light around me will be night,”

12 even the darkness is not dark to You;
the night shines like the day,
for darkness and light are alike to You.

God's Design in Creation

13 For You formed my inward parts;
You knit me together in my mother's womb.

14 I praise You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made;
Your works are marvelous,
and my soul knows it very well.

15 My frame was not hidden from You when I was made in the secret place, when I was woven together in the depths of the earth.

16 Your eyes saw my unformed body;
all the days ordained for me were written in Your book before one of them came to be.

God's Precious Thoughts

17 How precious to me are Your thoughts, O God!
How vast is the sum of them!

18 Were I to count them,
they would outnumber the grains of sand.
When I awake, I am still with You.

God's Holiness and Justice

19 Surely You will slay the wicked, O God.
Away from me, you bloodthirsty men!

20 They speak of You with evil intent;
Your enemies misuse Your name.

21 Do I not hate those who hate You, O Lord, and despise those who rise up against You?

22 I hate them with complete hatred;
I count them as my enemies.

Prayer for Cleansing and Guidance

23 Search me, O God, and know my heart;
test me and know my anxious thoughts.

24 See if there is any wicked way in me,
and lead me in the way everlasting.

✠✠ Key Lessons from Psalm 139

- God’s intimate knowledge: The Lord knows us more deeply than we know ourselves, including our thoughts, words, and actions.
- God’s constant presence: There is no place we can go where God is not already there—He surrounds us with His presence.
- God’s creative design: Human life is sacred, fearfully and wonderfully made by God from conception.
- God’s precious care: His thoughts toward His people are beyond number, showing His unfailing love.
- Self-examination in prayer: Like David, we should invite God to search our hearts and lead us in His eternal way.

Psalm 140 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Prayer for Protection from the Violent”

Deliverance from Evil Men

1 Rescue me, O Lord, from evil men;
preserve me from the violent,

2 those who devise mischief in their hearts and are always stirring up war.

3 They sharpen their tongues like a serpent;
the poison of vipers is on their lips. Selah

Protection from Traps

4 Keep me safe, O Lord, from the hands of the wicked;
preserve me from the violent
who plan to make me stumble.

5 The arrogant have hidden snares for me;
they have spread nets by the path and set traps along the way. Selah

The Lord, My Strength

6 I said to the Lord, “You are my God.”
Hear the cry of my supplications, O Lord.

7 O Sovereign Lord, my strong deliverer,
You shield my head in the day of battle.

Judgment on the Wicked

8 Do not grant the desires of the wicked, O Lord;
do not let their plans succeed,
lest they become proud. Selah

9 Let the harm of their own lips overwhelm them.

10 Let burning coals fall upon them;
let them be thrown into the fire,
into deep pits from which they cannot rise.

11 Let not slanderers be established in the land;
may disaster hunt down the violent man.

Confidence in God’s Justice

12 I know the Lord secures justice for the afflicted and upholds the cause of the needy.

13 Surely the righteous will give thanks to Your name, and the upright will live in Your presence.

✠ Key Lessons from Psalm 140

- God protects His people from violent men: We can cry out to Him for deliverance from those who scheme and attack.
- The tongue can be a deadly weapon: Wicked words are compared to snake venom, reminding us of the destructive power of lies and slander.
- God shields His children in battle: The Lord covers and guards His people when enemies rise against them.
- The wicked fall into their own traps: Evil plans backfire, and God ensures justice prevails.
- The righteous find refuge in God’s presence: In the end, the faithful will dwell securely with Him forever.

Psalm 141 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Prayer for Purity and Protection”

A Cry for God’s Attention

1 O Lord, I call to You—come quickly to me;
hear my voice when I cry out to You.

2 Let my prayer rise before You like incense;
let the lifting up of my hands be like the evening sacrifice.

Guarding the Heart and Tongue

3 Set a guard, O Lord, over my mouth;
keep watch over the door of my lips.

4 Do not let my heart be drawn to what is evil, to take part in wicked deeds with men who practice iniquity;
do not let me feast on their delicacies.

The Value of Righteous Correction

5 Let the righteous strike me—it will be an act of kindness;
let him rebuke me—it will be like soothing oil on my head;
I will not refuse it.

But my prayer is against the deeds of the wicked.

6 When their leaders are thrown down from rocky heights,
they will recognize that my words are true and pleasant.

Hope in God Alone

7 As when one plows and breaks up the earth, so our bones are scattered at the mouth of the grave.

8 But my eyes are fixed on You, O Lord God;
in You I take refuge—do not leave me defenseless.

9 Keep me from the snares they have laid for me,
from the traps of evildoers.

10 Let the wicked fall into their own nets,
while I escape in safety.

✦✦ Key Lessons from Psalm 141

- Prayer as incense: Our prayers are like sweet fragrance before God, rising up as an offering.
- Control of speech: Asking God to guard our mouths reminds us that words can build up or destroy.
- Choosing righteousness over compromise: Refusing the “delicacies” of the wicked means rejecting temporary pleasures that lead to sin.
- Correction is a blessing: A righteous rebuke is compared to oil—it heals, protects, and refreshes.
- God alone is refuge: Even when surrounded by danger, the faithful can look to the Lord for deliverance and protection.

Psalm 142 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Cry from the Cave”

A maskil of David, when he was in the cave. A prayer.

Crying Out to God in Distress

1 I cry aloud to the Lord;
with my voice I lift up my supplication to Him.

2 I pour out my complaint before Him;
I tell Him all my troubles.

When No One Else Cares

3 When my spirit is overwhelmed within me,
You know the path I should take.
In the way I walk, they have hidden a snare for me.

4 I looked to my right hand and saw:
no one stood beside me.
No one cares for my life;
no refuge remained for me.

God, My Portion and Refuge

5 Then I cried to You, O Lord:
I said, “You are my refuge,
my portion in the land of the living.”

6 Listen to my cry, for I am very low.
Rescue me from my persecutors,
for they are too strong for me.

Hope for Deliverance

7 Bring me out of this prison,
so that I may praise Your name.
The righteous will gather around me,
for You will deal bountifully with me.

✦✦ Key Lessons from Psalm 142

- Honest prayer is welcomed by God: David poured out his complaint openly—showing us it’s safe to bring our raw emotions before the Lord.
- Loneliness can be crushing, but not final: Even when no one else stood with David, God was still present and aware of his path.
- God is our true portion: Earthly refuge may fail, but God Himself is our lasting inheritance and safety.
- Deliverance leads to worship: When God rescues, it isn’t just for relief—it is so His people will praise His name.
- Hope in community: Though David was isolated, he looked forward to being surrounded again by the righteous, reminding us that God restores us to fellowship.

Psalm 143 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Prayer for Guidance and Deliverance”

A psalm of David.

A Cry for Mercy

1 Hear my prayer, O Lord;
give ear to my supplications.

In Your faithfulness, answer me;
in Your righteousness.

2 Do not bring Your servant into judgment, for in Your sight no one living is righteous.

Overwhelmed by the Enemy

3 For the enemy has pursued my soul;
he has crushed my life to the ground.
He has made me dwell in darkness,
like those long dead.

4 Therefore my spirit is overwhelmed within me;
my heart is desolate inside me.

Remembering God's Works

5 I remember the days of old;
I meditate on all Your works.
I reflect on the works of Your hands.

6 I stretch out my hands to You;
my soul thirsts for You like a parched land. Selah.

A Plea for Quick Help

7 Answer me quickly, O Lord;
my spirit fails.
Do not hide Your face from me,
or I will be like those who go down to the pit.

8 Let me hear of Your steadfast love in the morning,
for I put my trust in You.
Show me the way I should walk,
for I lift up my soul to You.

Guidance and Deliverance

9 Rescue me, O Lord, from my enemies;
I flee to You for refuge.

10 Teach me to do Your will,
for You are my God.
Let Your good Spirit lead me
on level ground.

Life and Justice in God

11 Revive me, O Lord, for the sake of Your name;
in Your righteousness bring my soul out of trouble.

12 In Your mercy, silence my enemies and destroy all who afflict my soul, for I am Your servant.

✠✧ Key Lessons from Psalm 143

- God's mercy is greater than our merit: David acknowledges that no one can stand justified before God—salvation is by His mercy, not our works.
- Spiritual weariness is real: When the enemy presses hard, the soul feels crushed, but even then we can turn our focus back to God's past faithfulness.
- Longing for God is like thirst: Just as dry land needs rain, the soul needs God's presence and guidance.
- Daily dependence: David asks to hear of God's love in the morning—a reminder that each day we should seek His direction anew.
- The Spirit leads to level ground: The Holy Spirit guides believers in righteousness and stability, away from the snares of sin and confusion.
- Deliverance brings life and honor to God's name: Our salvation not only helps us but glorifies the God who rescues.

Psalm 144 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The God Who Trains, Delivers, and Blesses”

A psalm of David.

God My Strength and Deliverer

1 Blessed be the Lord, my Rock, who trains my hands for battle
and my fingers for war.

2 He is my steadfast love and my fortress,
my high tower and my deliverer,
my shield, the One in whom I trust,
who brings people under my rule.

The Frailty of Man

3 Lord, what is man that You take notice of him, or the son of man that You care for him?

4 Man is but a breath;
his days are like a passing shadow.

A Cry for Help

5 Bow Your heavens, O Lord, and come down;
touch the mountains, and they will smoke.

6 Flash forth lightning and scatter them;
shoot out Your arrows and destroy them.

7 Reach down Your hand from above;
rescue me and deliver me from mighty waters,
from the hand of foreigners—

8 Whose mouths speak lies,
and whose right hand is a hand of falsehood.

Praise for the God of Salvation

9 I will sing a new song to You, O God;
on a ten-stringed harp I will make music to You.

10 You are the One who gives victory to kings, who delivers David, Your servant,
from the deadly sword.

A Prayer for Deliverance and Blessing

11 Deliver me,
save me from the hand of foreigners,
whose mouths speak lies
and whose right hand is falsehood—

12 So that our sons may be like well-nurtured plants in their youth, our daughters like corner pillars,
polished after the beauty of a palace.

13 May our storehouses be full,
overflowing with every kind of provision.
May our sheep multiply by the thousands,
yes, by tens of thousands in our fields.

14 May our oxen be strong for labor;
may there be no breach in our walls,
no captivity,
and no cry of distress in our streets.

The Blessed People of God

15 Blessed are the people who have all this;
yes, blessed are the people whose God is the Lord.

✦✦ Key Lessons from Psalm 144

- God equips His servants: True strength for battle—physical or spiritual—comes from the Lord.
- Human life is short and fragile: We are like a passing shadow, yet God cares deeply for us.
- Deliverance belongs to the Lord: Only God can save from deceitful and violent people.
- Worship flows from rescue: A “new song” rises out of gratitude for God’s salvation.
- God’s blessing brings peace and prosperity: Strong families, abundant provision, and safety in the land are all signs of His favor.
- True happiness is in God alone: The greatest blessing is to have the Lord as our God.

Psalm 145 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord is Great, Gracious, and Eternal”

A psalm of David.

Exalting God’s Name Forever

1 I will exalt You, my God and King;
I will bless Your name forever and ever.

2 Every day I will bless You, and I will praise Your name forever and ever.

3 Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised;
His greatness is beyond searching out.

Passing Praise Through Generations

4 One generation shall commend Your works to another, and shall declare Your mighty acts.

5 I will meditate on the glorious splendor of Your majesty, and on Your wondrous works.

6 They will speak of the power of Your awesome deeds, and I will proclaim Your greatness.

7 They will pour forth the memory of Your abundant goodness, and will sing of Your righteousness.

The Gracious and Merciful Lord

8 The Lord is gracious and full of compassion, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

9 The Lord is good to all,
and His tender mercies are over all His works.

The Glory of God's Kingdom

10 All Your works shall praise You, O Lord, and Your faithful ones shall bless You.

11 They shall speak of the glory of Your kingdom,
and tell of Your power,

12 To make known to the children of man Your mighty acts, and the glorious splendor of Your kingdom.

13 Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and Your dominion endures through all generations.

The Lord Sustains and Provides

14 The Lord upholds all who fall, and raises up all who are bowed down.

15 The eyes of all look to You, and You give them their food in due season.

16 You open Your hand and satisfy the desire of every living thing.

The Lord is Near to the Faithful

17 The Lord is righteous in all His ways, and faithful in all His works.

18 The Lord is near to all who call upon Him,
to all who call upon Him in truth.

19 He fulfills the desire of those who fear Him;
He hears their cry and saves them.

20 The Lord preserves all who love Him, but all the wicked He will destroy.

Eternal Praise

21 My mouth will speak the praise of the Lord, and let all flesh bless His holy name
forever and ever.

✠✧ Key Lessons from Psalm 145

- Praise is eternal: God's greatness deserves continual worship that will never end.
- Generational faith matters: Each generation is called to pass on God's mighty works to the next.
- God's character is merciful and gracious: He is slow to anger and rich in love, extending compassion to all.
- God's kingdom is everlasting: Unlike earthly kingdoms, His rule endures through every generation.
- The Lord provides for all creation: From the smallest creature to mankind, He opens His hand to satisfy every need.

- The Lord is near and responsive: He draws close to those who call upon Him in truth and rescues those who fear Him.
- The wicked perish, but the faithful are preserved: God’s justice ensures the protection of His people and the defeat of evil.
- Universal praise is the ultimate goal: All creation is invited to bless His holy name forever.

Psalm 146 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord Who Reigns Forever”

Call to Praise

1 Praise the Lord!

Praise the Lord, O my soul.

2 I will praise the Lord as long as I live;

I will sing praises to my God while I have my being.

Do Not Trust in Man

3 Put not your trust in princes, nor in a son of man, in whom there is no salvation.

4 When his breath departs, he returns to the earth;

on that very day his plans perish.

Blessed is the One Who Hopes in the Lord

5 Blessed is he whose help is the God of Jacob, whose hope is in the Lord his God,

6 Who made heaven and earth,

the sea, and all that is in them;

who keeps truth forever,

The Lord’s Works of Justice and Mercy

7 Who executes justice for the oppressed, who gives food to the hungry.

The Lord sets the prisoners free.

8 The Lord opens the eyes of the blind.
The Lord lifts up those who are bowed down.
The Lord loves the righteous.

9 The Lord watches over the sojourners;
He upholds the fatherless and the widow,
but He frustrates the way of the wicked.

The Eternal King

10 The Lord will reign forever, your God, O Zion, to all generations.
Praise the Lord!

✠✠ Key Lessons from Psalm 146

- Praise is lifelong: As long as we breathe, we are called to honor the Lord with praise.
- Do not trust in human power: Even the strongest leaders are mortal; their plans die with them. Only God is eternal.
- Hope rests in the Creator: The One who made heaven, earth, and sea is faithful and unchanging.
- God defends the weak: He gives justice to the oppressed, food to the hungry, freedom to the bound, and comfort to the lowly.
- God cares for the marginalized: The foreigner, orphan, and widow are under His protection.
- The wicked are overturned: Human pride and wickedness cannot stand against God's rule.
- God reigns forever: Unlike earthly kingdoms that rise and fall, the Lord's kingdom endures to all generations.

Psalm 147 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord Who Heals and Provides”

A Call to Praise

1 Praise the Lord!
How good it is to sing praises to our God,
for it is pleasant, and praise is fitting.

God Heals the Brokenhearted

2 The Lord builds up Jerusalem;
He gathers the outcasts of Israel.

3 He heals the broken in heart and binds up their wounds.

4 He counts the number of the stars;
He calls them all by name.

5 Great is our Lord, and abundant in power;
His understanding is beyond measure.

6 The Lord lifts up the humble;
He casts the wicked down to the ground.

God Provides for Creation

7 Sing to the Lord with thanksgiving;
make melody to our God with the harp.

8 He covers the sky with clouds,
He prepares rain for the earth,
He makes grass grow on the mountains.

9 He gives to the animals their food,
and to the young ravens that cry.

10 His delight is not in the strength of the horse, nor His pleasure in the legs of a man.

11 The Lord takes pleasure in those who fear Him, in those who hope in His steadfast love.

God Strengthens His People

12 Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem!
Praise your God, O Zion!

13 For He strengthens the bars of your gates;
He blesses your children within you.

14 He makes peace in your borders;
He fills you with the finest of wheat.

God Governs the Seasons by His Word

15 He sends out His command to the earth;
His word runs swiftly.

16 He gives snow like wool;
He scatters the frost like ashes.

17 He hurls down His ice like morsels;
who can stand before His cold?

18 He sends out His word, and melts them;
He causes His wind to blow, and the waters to flow.

God's Word Revealed to Israel

19 He declares His word to Jacob,
His statutes and His rules to Israel.

20 He has not dealt thus with any other nation;
they do not know His judgments.
Praise the Lord!

✠✧ Key Lessons from Psalm 147

- Praise is fitting: Worship is not just a duty; it is pleasant, beautiful, and right for God's people.
- God heals the brokenhearted: He is close to the wounded and binds up their spiritual and emotional wounds.
- God knows the stars — and us: His infinite power over creation reminds us of His detailed care for our lives.
- True strength is spiritual: God is not impressed by human or military might but delights in humble trust and reverence.
- God blesses His people with peace: He strengthens, protects, and provides abundance for those who belong to Him.
- God governs nature with His word: Snow, rain, frost, and wind obey His command, showing His sovereign rule.
- Israel's unique privilege: God gave His Word to Israel in a way no other nation received, a reminder of His covenant grace.

Psalm 148 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Symphony of Creation's Praise”

Praise from the Heavens

1 Praise the Lord!

Praise the Lord from the heavens;
praise Him in the heights above.

2 Praise Him, all His angels;
praise Him, all His heavenly hosts.

3 Praise Him, sun and moon;
praise Him, all you shining stars.

4 Praise Him, you highest heavens, and you waters above the skies.

5 Let them praise the name of the Lord,
for He commanded and they were created.

6 He established them forever and ever;
He issued a decree that will never pass away.

Praise from the Earth

7 Praise the Lord from the earth,
you great sea creatures and all ocean depths,

8 lightning and hail, snow and clouds,
stormy winds that do His bidding,

9 mountains and all hills,
fruit trees and all cedars,

10 wild animals and all cattle,
small creatures and flying birds,

11 kings of the earth and all nations,
princes and all rulers of the world,

12 young men and maidens,
old men and children.

The Exalted Lord

13 Let them praise the name of the Lord,
for His name alone is exalted;
His splendor is above the earth and the heavens.

14 And He has raised up a horn for His people,
the praise of all His faithful ones,
the people of Israel, close to His heart.
Praise the Lord!

✠✠ Key Lessons from Psalm 148

- All creation is a choir: From angels in heaven to sea creatures in the deep, everything exists to glorify God.
- God’s word sustains creation: He spoke, and the heavens and earth came into being. His decrees uphold them eternally.
- Nature obeys His command: Storms, winds, and seasons all fulfill His word — a reminder of His sovereign power.
- Praise unites all people: Kings, rulers, the young, the old — every social class and age group is called to worship.
- The Lord is above all: His name alone is exalted, His glory far surpasses heaven and earth.
- God strengthens His people: The “horn” symbolizes power, victory, and salvation for Israel and ultimately for all who belong to Him in Christ.

Psalm 149 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Song of Victory”

A New Song of Praise

1 Praise the Lord!
Sing to the Lord a new song,
His praise in the assembly of His faithful people.

2 Let Israel rejoice in their Maker;
let the children of Zion be glad in their King.

3 Let them praise His name with dancing, and make music to Him with tambourine and harp.

The Lord Delights in His People

4 For the Lord takes pleasure in His people;
He crowns the humble with salvation.

5 Let His faithful ones rejoice in glory;
let them sing for joy even on their beds.

Worship and Warfare

6 May the high praises of God be in their mouths and a double-edged sword in their hands,

7 to bring vengeance on the nations and punishment on the peoples,

8 to bind their kings with chains,
and their nobles with iron shackles,

9 to carry out the judgment written against them.

This is the honor of all His faithful ones.

Praise the Lord!

✠✠ Key Lessons from Psalm 149

- Worship is powerful: Singing, dancing, and music are forms of praise that delight the Lord.
- God delights in His people: He “beautifies the meek with salvation,” showing His love for the humble and faithful.
- Praise is a weapon: The psalm links worship with spiritual authority — God’s people both rejoice and stand strong against evil.
- God’s justice is certain: Nations, rulers, and the proud who oppose Him will face His judgment.
- The saints share in His honor: God grants His people the privilege of participating in His victory, not by their strength, but through His Word and Spirit.

Psalm 150 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Let Everything Praise the Lord”

Praise God Everywhere

1 Praise the Lord!

Praise God in His sanctuary;

praise Him in the mighty heavens.

Praise Him for Who He Is

2 Praise Him for His mighty acts;
praise Him according to His surpassing greatness.

Praise Him with Every Instrument

3 Praise Him with the sound of the trumpet;
praise Him with the harp and lyre.

4 Praise Him with tambourine and dancing;
praise Him with strings and flutes.

5 Praise Him with loud cymbals;
praise Him with clashing cymbals.

Let All Creation Praise Him

6 Let everything that has breath praise the Lord.
Praise the Lord!

✦✦ Key Lessons from Psalm 150

- Praise is unlimited: God is to be praised everywhere — in His sanctuary, in the heavens, and across all creation.
- Praise is rooted in His greatness: We praise not only for what God does, but for who He is.
- All means of expression belong to Him: Every instrument, every art, and every sound can glorify God when offered in worship.
- Praise unites all creation: From the highest heavens to the breath of every living thing, worship is the universal response to God’s majesty.
- The Psalms end where life begins and ends — in praise: The final word of the Psalter is “Hallelujah” (Praise the Lord), showing us that worship is both our present calling and eternal destiny.

📖 Introduction to the Book of Proverbs

“The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom...” – Proverbs 9:10

Title and Meaning

The word Proverbs comes from the Latin proverbium and the Greek paroimia, meaning “a comparison” or “a wise saying.” In Hebrew, the title is Mishlei (מִשְׁלֵי), taken from the opening words Mishlei Shelomoh — “The Proverbs of Solomon.” A mashal in Hebrew can mean a short, pithy saying, a parable, or a comparison that communicates wisdom. Proverbs is therefore a collection of Spirit-inspired wisdom sayings, given to guide God’s people in practical living.

Author and Date

Traditionally, much of Proverbs is attributed to King Solomon, the son of David, who reigned over Israel in the 10th century BC. Solomon is described as the wisest man of his time (1 Kings 4:29–34), and Scripture records that he spoke 3,000 proverbs and composed 1,005 songs.

The book, however, is a compilation from multiple sources:

- Proverbs 1–29: Attributed largely to Solomon.
- Proverbs 25–29: Collected later by the men of King Hezekiah (8th century BC).
- Proverbs 30: Attributed to Agur son of Jakeh.
- Proverbs 31: The sayings of King Lemuel, taught by his mother.

Thus, Proverbs grew as a divinely inspired anthology of wisdom, finalized sometime between the reigns of Solomon and Hezekiah.

Purpose of Proverbs

The purpose of Proverbs is clearly stated in its opening verses (Proverbs 1:1–7):

- To know wisdom and instruction.
- To discern words of understanding.
- To receive instruction in wise behavior, righteousness, justice, and equity.
- To give prudence to the simple, knowledge and discretion to the young.
- To help the wise increase in learning.

Above all, Proverbs teaches that true wisdom begins with the fear of the Lord (Proverbs 1:7; 9:10). It is not merely practical advice for daily life, but covenant instruction that ties every aspect of living — work, relationships, speech, wealth, and morality — to one’s relationship with God.

Structure of Proverbs

Proverbs is a collection of collections, arranged in distinct sections:

1. Prologue: The Purpose of Wisdom (Chapters 1–9)

- A series of fatherly exhortations and poetic appeals.
- Wisdom personified as a woman calling out in the streets.
- Contrasts between wisdom and folly.

2. Proverbs of Solomon (Chapters 10–24)

- Short, pithy, two-line sayings.
- Cover themes like diligence vs. laziness, honesty vs. dishonesty, humility vs. pride.

3. Proverbs Collected by Hezekiah’s Men (Chapters 25–29)

- More Solomonic proverbs preserved and compiled later.
- Focus on kingship, social order, and justice.

4. Words of Agur (Chapter 30)

- Unique sayings filled with numerical patterns.
- Acknowledges human limitation and God’s infinite wisdom.

5. Words of King Lemuel (Chapter 31)

- Instruction taught by his mother.
- Culminates in the famous portrait of the “Virtuous Woman” (31:10–31).

Major Themes

- The Fear of the Lord: The foundation of wisdom and knowledge.
 - Wisdom vs. Folly: Two paths — one leading to life, the other to destruction.
 - The Power of Words: Speech can heal or destroy; the tongue reveals the heart.
 - Righteousness and Justice: Upright living pleases God and blesses communities.
 - Work and Diligence: Laziness leads to poverty; diligence leads to provision.
 - Family and Relationships: Instruction for parents, children, friends, and marriage.
 - Wealth and Poverty: Riches are fleeting; integrity is more valuable.
-

Why Proverbs Matters Today

Proverbs remains one of the most practical and timeless books of Scripture. It answers daily-life questions such as:

- How should I handle money?
- What kind of friends should I choose?
- How do I control my words and temper?
- What does a godly family look like?
- How do I make wise decisions?

In a world filled with information but short on wisdom, Proverbs reminds us that skillful living begins with fearing God and walking in His ways. It points ultimately to Christ, who is the Wisdom of God (1 Corinthians 1:24, 30), and in whom all treasures of wisdom and knowledge are hidden (Colossians 2:3).

Key Verse

“The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.” – Proverbs 9:10

This verse captures the essence of the book: wisdom is not merely intellectual skill, but reverence for God that shapes every part of life.

Proverbs 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Call of Wisdom”

Purpose of Proverbs

1 These are the proverbs of Solomon, son of David and king of Israel.

2 They are written to teach wisdom and discipline, to help people understand wise sayings.

3 They teach us how to live wisely, do what is right, fair, and just.

4 They give good sense to the simple,
and knowledge and judgment to the young.

The Value of Wisdom

5 Let the wise listen, and they will become even wiser.

Let those with understanding gain guidance.

6 These proverbs help us understand riddles, parables, and the sayings of the wise.

7 The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge, but fools hate wisdom and instruction.

A Father's Warning

8 My child, listen to your father's teaching, and don't reject your mother's instruction.

9 What they teach you will be like a crown of grace on your head and a necklace of honor around your neck.

10 My child, if sinners try to tempt you, don't give in.

11 If they say, "Come with us! Let's set a trap for innocent people.
We'll ambush them for fun!

12 We'll swallow them alive, like the grave itself.
We'll take them down to the pit while they still live.

13 We'll steal all kinds of valuable things and fill our houses with stolen goods.

14 Join us, and we'll all share the loot together."

15 My child, don't go along with them.
Stay far from their paths.

16 Because they run quickly to do evil,
and they hurry to spill blood.

17 But they don't realize that it's useless to set a trap where the birds can see it.

18 These people set an ambush for themselves—they're only hurting their own lives.

19 Such is the fate of all who chase after money by violence—it will cost them their lives.

Wisdom's Call

20 Wisdom shouts loudly in the streets.
She raises her voice in the public square.

21 She cries out in the busiest places,
at the city gates where everyone gathers.

22 "How long, you simple people, will you love being simple?
How long will mockers enjoy mocking and fools hate knowledge?

23 Come and listen to my correction,
and I will pour out my thoughts to you.
I will make my words known to you.

24 But since you refused to listen when I called,
and no one paid attention when I reached out, 25 you ignored all my advice and rejected my correction,
26 I will laugh when disaster strikes you.
I will mock you when trouble comes your way.

27 When calamity sweeps down like a storm,
when disaster surrounds you like a whirlwind,
when trouble and distress overwhelm you—28 then you will call to me, but I won't answer.
You will search for me, but you won't find me.

29 Because you hated knowledge and didn't choose to fear the Lord, 30 you rejected my advice and paid no attention to my correction.
31 So you will get what your ways deserve.
You will choke on the fruit of your own choices.

32 For the simple are killed by their turning away,
and the careless ease of fools destroys them.
33 But all who listen to me will live in peace, safe and without fear of harm.”

✦ Key Lessons from Proverbs 1

- Wisdom has a purpose: It teaches us how to live with justice, fairness, and good judgment.
- The foundation of wisdom: True knowledge begins with fearing the Lord.
- Heed godly instruction: Listening to parents and mentors brings honor and protection.
- Avoid the path of sinners: Those who pursue greed and violence destroy themselves.
- Wisdom warns and invites: She calls to all, but those who reject her will face disaster.
- Security in wisdom: Those who follow God's wisdom will live in peace and safety.

Proverbs 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Rewards of Wisdom”

The Pursuit of Wisdom

1 My child, listen to my words, and treasure my commands within you.
2 Tune your ears to wisdom, and set your heart on understanding.

3 Cry out for insight, and ask for understanding.

4 Search for wisdom as if it were silver, hunt for it like hidden treasure.

5 Then you will understand what it means to fear the Lord, and you will find the knowledge of God.

God as the Source of Wisdom

6 For the Lord gives wisdom;

from His mouth come knowledge and understanding.

7 He stores up sound wisdom for the righteous;

He is a shield to those who live with integrity.

8 He guards the paths of justice, and protects the way of His faithful ones.

9 Then you will understand what is right, just, and fair—and every good path.

Wisdom Protects from Evil

10 Wisdom will enter your heart, and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul.

11 Good judgment will protect you; understanding will guard you.

12 Wisdom will save you from evil people,

from those whose words are twisted,

13 who leave the straight paths to walk in dark ways,

14 who enjoy doing wrong and celebrate the deceit of evil.

15 Their paths are crooked, and their ways are devious.

Wisdom Protects from Immorality

16 Wisdom will save you from the immoral woman, from the seductive words of the wayward wife,

17 who leaves the husband of her youth and forgets her covenant with God.

18 Her house leads down to death;

her paths lead to the grave.

19 None who go to her return again,

nor do they regain the paths of life.

The Blessings of Wisdom

20 So walk in the way of good people, and keep to the paths of the righteous.
21 For the upright will live in the land,
and those with integrity will remain in it.
22 But the wicked will be cut off from the earth, and the unfaithful will be torn from it.

✦ Key Lessons from Proverbs 2

- Wisdom must be sought: Just as people dig for silver or search for treasure, wisdom requires effort and desire.
- God is the source: True wisdom, knowledge, and understanding come from the Lord.
- Wisdom protects: It guards us from evil influences, crooked paths, and destructive temptations.
- Immorality leads to death: The “immoral woman” is a picture of sin’s seduction, which leads to ruin and destruction.
- The righteous are secure: Those who live uprightly will remain, but the wicked will be removed from the land.

Proverbs 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Trusting the Lord and Finding Wisdom”

Trusting God’s Ways

1 My child, don’t forget my teaching,
but keep my commands in your heart.
2 They will give you long life,
many years, and peace.
3 Never let love and truth leave you.
Tie them around your neck;
write them on your heart.
4 Then you will find favor and good understanding with both God and people.
5 Trust in the Lord with all your heart;
don’t depend on your own understanding.
6 In all your ways acknowledge Him,
and He will make your paths straight.
7 Don’t think you are wise in your own eyes.
Fear the Lord and turn away from evil.

8 This will bring health to your body and strength to your bones.

Honoring the Lord

9 Honor the Lord with your wealth and with the first part of all your income.

10 Then your barns will be filled with plenty,
and your vats will overflow with new wine.

11 My child, don't despise the Lord's discipline, and don't be upset when He corrects you.

12 For the Lord corrects those He loves, just as a father corrects the son he delights in.

The Value of Wisdom

13 Happy is the person who finds wisdom,
the one who gains understanding.

14 Wisdom is more profitable than silver, and its gain is better than fine gold.

15 She is more precious than rubies;
nothing you desire compares to her.

16 Long life is in her right hand;
riches and honor are in her left.

17 Her ways are pleasant, and all her paths are peace.

18 Wisdom is a tree of life to those who embrace her;
happy are those who hold her tightly.

God's Wisdom in Creation

19 By wisdom the Lord laid the earth's foundation;
by understanding He set the heavens in place.

20 By His knowledge the deep waters broke open,
and the clouds drop down the dew.

Living in Wisdom

21 My child, don't lose sight of wisdom and sound judgment;
guard them closely.

22 They will give life to your soul and be like a graceful necklace around your neck.

23 Then you will walk safely on your path,
and your foot will not stumble.

24 When you lie down, you will not be afraid;
when you rest, your sleep will be sweet.

25 Do not be afraid of sudden disasters,
or the ruin that overtakes the wicked,
26 for the Lord is your confidence;
He will keep your foot from being trapped.

Doing Good to Others

27 Do not withhold good from those who deserve it, when it is within your power to act.

28 Don't say to your neighbor,
"Come back tomorrow and I'll give it to you,"
when you already have it with you.

29 Do not plan harm against your neighbor, who lives trustingly beside you.

30 Don't argue with someone for no reason,
if they have done you no harm.

31 Do not envy violent people or choose any of their ways.

32 For the devious are detestable to the Lord,
but He shares His secrets with the righteous.

33 The Lord's curse is on the house of the wicked, but He blesses the home of the righteous.

34 The Lord mocks the proud mockers, but gives grace to the humble.

35 The wise will inherit honor,
but fools will be disgraced.

✠ Key Lessons from Proverbs 3

- Trust fully in God: Depend on His wisdom, not your own understanding.
- God blesses those who honor Him: Giving Him the first of your resources brings provision.
- Discipline is love: God corrects His children because He delights in them.
- Wisdom is priceless: It is more valuable than silver, gold, or jewels.
- God's wisdom sustains creation: The world itself reflects His knowledge.
- Wisdom brings peace: It guards, guides, and provides safety, rest, and confidence.
- Live justly with others: Be generous, fair, and avoid envy or violence.

- Humility brings grace: The proud are mocked, but the humble receive honor.

Proverbs 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Father’s Guidance”

Hold on to Wisdom

1 Children, listen to your father’s instruction;
pay attention so you may gain understanding.

2 I am giving you sound teaching—don’t turn away from my commands.

3 When I was a son to my father, tender and dearly loved by my mother,

4 he taught me and said,

“Keep my words in your heart.

Obey my commands and you will live.

5 Get wisdom! Get understanding!

Don’t forget my words or turn away from them.

6 Don’t abandon wisdom, and she will protect you.

Love her, and she will keep you safe.

7 Wisdom is the most important thing,
so get wisdom.

And with all you get, gain understanding.

8 Value her, and she will lift you up;
embrace her, and she will honor you.

9 She will place on your head a crown of grace, and she will give you a crown of glory.”

The Two Paths

10 My child, listen to me and accept my words, and you will live a long life.

11 I guide you in the way of wisdom and lead you in straight paths.

12 When you walk, your steps will not be hindered;
when you run, you will not stumble.

13 Hold tightly to instruction—don’t let it go.
Guard it, for it is your life.

14 Do not walk in the path of the wicked or travel the way of evil people.

15 Avoid it—don’t go near it.

Turn away from it and keep going.

16 For evil people cannot sleep unless they've done wrong;
they can't rest until they've made someone fall.

17 They eat the bread of wickedness and drink the wine of violence.

18 But the path of the righteous is like the morning light, shining brighter and brighter
until the full day.

19 The way of the wicked is like deep darkness;
they don't know what makes them stumble.

Guard Your Heart

20 My child, pay attention to my words;
listen closely to what I say.

21 Don't let them out of your sight;
keep them deep within your heart.

22 For they bring life to those who find them and health to their whole body.

23 Guard your heart above all else,
for everything you do flows from it.

24 Keep your mouth free from dishonesty;
avoid corrupt and twisted speech.

25 Keep your eyes straight ahead;
focus on what lies before you.

26 Think carefully about the path for your feet,
and all your ways will be sure.

27 Don't turn to the right or to the left;
keep your feet away from evil.

✦ Key Lessons from Proverbs 4

- Wisdom must be pursued: It is life, protection, honor, and strength.
- Two paths exist: The righteous shine brighter each day, but the wicked stumble in darkness.
- Guard your heart: Everything flows from it—thoughts, choices, and actions.
- Control your speech: What you say reflects what's in your heart.
- Stay focused: Keep your eyes and steps on the straight path, away from evil.

Proverbs 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Warning Against Immorality”

The Seductive Trap

1 My child, pay attention to my wisdom;
listen carefully to my understanding.

2 Then you will have good judgment, and your lips will speak what is wise.

3 For the lips of an immoral woman are sweet like honey, and her words are smoother than oil.

4 But in the end she is as bitter as poison,
sharp as a double-edged sword.

5 Her feet lead down to death;
her steps take hold of the grave.

6 She gives no thought to the way of life;
her paths wander, and you cannot know them.

Avoid Her Path

7 So now, my children, listen to me;
don't turn away from my words.

8 Stay far from her;
don't go near the door of her house.

9 If you do, you will give your honor to others,
and your best years to cruel people.

10 Strangers will consume your wealth, and your hard work will end up in another man's house.

11 In the end you will groan with sorrow
when your body is wasted away.

12 You will say, “How I hated instruction!
How my heart despised correction!

13 I didn't listen to my teachers, or pay attention to my instructors.

14 I came close to utter ruin,
in front of the whole community.”

Faithfulness in Marriage

15 Drink water from your own cistern, fresh water from your own well.

16 Should your springs overflow into the streets,
your streams of water in public squares?

17 No! Let them be yours alone, never to be shared with strangers.

18 Let your fountain be blessed;
rejoice in the wife of your youth.

19 She is a loving deer, a graceful doe.
Let her breasts satisfy you always;
be captivated by her love forever.

20 Why be captivated, my child, by an immoral woman?
Why embrace the chest of a stranger?

God Sees All

21 For the Lord sees clearly what a man does;
He examines every path he takes.

22 The wicked are trapped by their own sins;
they are caught in the cords of their own wrongdoing.

23 They will die for lack of discipline,
and led astray by their own great foolishness.

✦ Key Lessons from Proverbs 5

- Immorality is deceptive: What seems sweet and attractive at first ends in bitterness and destruction.
- Stay far from temptation: Don't flirt with danger—avoid the path altogether.
- Sin wastes your life: It drains your honor, years, wealth, and strength.
- Marriage is God's design: Rejoice in your spouse and be faithful to them.
- God sees all: Nothing is hidden from Him, and sin's cords will trap those who refuse correction.

Proverbs 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Warnings Against Folly and Sin”

Avoid Foolish Promises

1 My child, if you put up security for your neighbor, or shake hands to guarantee a stranger's debt,

2 you have trapped yourself by your own words;
you are caught by what you said.

3 So do this, my child, to free yourself,
since you have fallen into your neighbor's hands:

go quickly and humble yourself;
press your case and make things right.
4 Don't put it off—don't rest,
don't close your eyes to sleep.
5 Free yourself like a deer from the hunter,
like a bird from the snare of the fowler.

Learn from the Ant

6 Take a lesson from the ant, you lazy person.
Watch her ways and become wise.
7 She has no chief, officer, or ruler,
8 yet she prepares her food in the summer and gathers her supplies at harvest.
9 How long will you lie there, you sluggard?
When will you get up from your sleep?
10 A little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands to rest—11 and poverty will pounce on you like a thief, scarcity like an armed robber.

The Worthless Person

12 A worthless, wicked person goes around speaking dishonestly, 13 winking with his eyes, signaling with his feet,
and pointing with his fingers.
14 His heart is corrupt; he always plots evil and stirs up conflict.
15 Therefore disaster will strike him suddenly;
in an instant he will be broken beyond healing.

What the Lord Hates

16 There are six things the Lord hates—
no, seven that are detestable to Him:
17 arrogant eyes, a lying tongue,
hands that shed innocent blood, 18 a heart that plots evil schemes, feet quick to rush into wrongdoing, 19 a false witness who tells lies,
and a person who stirs up conflict among brothers.

Guard God's Commands

20 My child, keep your father's command, and don't forsake your mother's teaching.

21 Tie them to your heart always;
fasten them around your neck.

22 When you walk, they will guide you;
when you sleep, they will watch over you;
when you wake, they will speak to you.

23 For a command is a lamp, and instruction is a light;
discipline is the path of life.

Warning Against Adultery

24 They will protect you from the evil woman, from the smooth words of the seductive stranger.

25 Don't lust for her beauty in your heart;
don't be captured by her glances.

26 For a prostitute will reduce you to a loaf of bread, and an adulteress hunts for your very life.

27 Can a man scoop fire into his lap without his clothes being burned?

28 Can he walk on hot coals without his feet being scorched?

29 So is the man who sleeps with another man's wife—whoever touches her will not go unpunished.

30 People don't despise a thief
if he steals to satisfy his hunger.

31 But if he is caught, he must repay sevenfold, even if it costs him everything in his house.

32 But the one who commits adultery has no sense;
he destroys himself.

33 He will be wounded and disgraced, and his shame will never be erased.

34 For jealousy enrages a husband;
he will show no mercy when he takes revenge.

35 He will accept no payment, nor be satisfied with many gifts.

- Don't make foolish financial promises: Careless commitments can trap you in debt or bondage.
- Be diligent like the ant: Laziness leads to poverty, but preparation brings security.
- God hates pride, lies, violence, and discord: These destroy relationships and communities.
- Obey godly instruction: It is a light and a guide to keep you from destruction.
- Avoid adultery at all costs: It destroys lives, brings lasting shame, and invites God's judgment.
- Sin always costs more than it promises: Whether in money, honor, or life itself, sin's price is ruin.

Proverbs 7 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Trap of Seduction”

Treasure Wisdom

1 My child, keep my words and store up my commands within you.
2 Obey my commands and live;
guard my teaching as the apple of your eye.
3 Tie them on your fingers;
write them deep within your heart.
4 Say to wisdom, “You are my sister,” and to understanding, “You are my close relative.”
5 They will protect you from the immoral woman, from the stranger who flatters with her words.

The Story of the Seductress

6 At the window of my house
I looked out through the lattice.
7 I saw among the simple,
I noticed among the young men,
a youth who lacked judgment.
8 He was walking down the street near her corner,
taking the road to her house, 9 in the twilight, in the evening,
in the dark of night.
10 Then out came a woman to meet him,
dressed like a prostitute and with crafty intent.
11 She is loud and defiant;
her feet never stay at home.

12 Now in the streets, now in the squares,
lurking at every corner.

13 She grabbed him and kissed him,
and with a bold face said:

14 “I had to offer my sacrifices today,
and I have paid my vows.

15 So I came out to meet you;
I looked for you, and I found you!

16 I have covered my bed with colored linens from Egypt.

17 I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

18 Come, let us drink our fill of love until morning;
let’s enjoy ourselves with passion.

19 For my husband is not at home;
he has gone on a long journey.

20 He took a bag of money with him and won’t be back until the appointed day.”

21 With her smooth talk she persuaded him;
with her flattering lips she led him astray.

22 All at once he followed her,
like an ox going to the slaughter,
like a deer stepping into a noose

23 until an arrow pierces its liver, like a bird rushing into a trap,
not knowing it will cost him his life.

Final Warning

24 Now then, my children, listen to me;
pay attention to the words of my mouth.

25 Don’t let your heart stray into her ways;
don’t wander into her paths.

26 For she has brought down many victims;
many strong men have been killed by her.

27 Her house is the road to the grave, leading down to the chambers of death.

✦ Key Lessons from Proverbs 7

- Keep God’s Word close: Treasuring wisdom and truth in your heart protects against temptation.

- Seduction is deceptive: What seems flattering and exciting hides destruction and death.
- Immorality enslaves: Like an animal to slaughter, sin blinds a person to its cost.
- Stay far from temptation: Avoid the places, people, and paths that draw you away from righteousness.
- Immorality destroys even the strong: No one is immune—wisdom and vigilance are our only safeguards.

Proverbs 8 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Voice of Wisdom”

Wisdom’s Call

1 Doesn’t wisdom call out?
Doesn’t understanding raise her voice?
2 She stands on the hilltops, at the crossroads where the paths meet.
3 Beside the city gates, at the entrance,
she cries out to the people:
4 “I call to you, O men;
my voice is to all of humanity.
5 You who are simple, learn wisdom;
you who are foolish, gain understanding.
6 Listen, for I speak noble things;
what I say is right.
7 For my mouth speaks truth;
wickedness is detestable to my lips.
8 All the words I speak are righteous;
none are crooked or twisted.
9 They are clear to those who understand,
and right to those who find knowledge.
10 Choose my instruction rather than silver;
knowledge rather than choice gold.
11 For wisdom is better than rubies;
nothing you desire compares with her.

The Excellence of Wisdom

12 I, wisdom, live with prudence, and I find knowledge and good judgment.

13 To fear the Lord is to hate evil.
I hate pride, arrogance, evil behavior, and twisted speech.

14 Counsel and sound wisdom are mine;
I am understanding, and I have strength.

15 By me kings reign,
and rulers make just laws.

16 By me princes govern,
and nobles and judges rule the earth.

17 I love those who love me,
and those who seek me early will find me.

18 Riches and honor are with me, lasting wealth and righteousness.

19 What I produce is better than gold, better than pure gold;
my reward is better than the finest silver.

20 I walk in the way of righteousness,
in the paths of justice.

21 I give wealth to those who love me, filling their treasuries.

Wisdom Before Creation

22 The Lord created me at the beginning of His work, before His deeds of long ago.

23 I was established from eternity,
from the very beginning, before the earth began.

24 I was born before the oceans,
before springs filled with water.

25 Before the mountains were settled, before the hills, I was born.

26 Before He made the earth and its fields, or the first dust of the world.

27 When He prepared the heavens, I was there.
When He drew the horizon on the ocean's face,

28 when He set the clouds above,
when He fixed the fountains of the deep,

29 when He gave the sea its boundary,
so the waters would not cross His command,
when He marked out the foundations of the earth,

30 I was beside Him like a master craftsman.
I was His constant delight, rejoicing always in His presence.

31 I rejoiced in His whole world and delighted in the human race.

The Blessings of Wisdom

32 “So now, my children, listen to me,
for blessed are those who keep my ways.

33 Listen to instruction and be wise;
do not ignore it.

34 Blessed is the one who listens to me,
watching daily at my gates,
waiting at my doorway.

35 For whoever finds me finds life
and receives favor from the Lord.

36 But whoever sins against me harms themselves;
all who hate me love death.”

✠✧ Key Lessons from Proverbs 8

- Wisdom cries out to all: No one is excluded from her call—everyone is invited to listen and learn.
- Wisdom is priceless: Better than silver, gold, or jewels—nothing compares.
- Godly wisdom hates evil: Pride, arrogance, and crooked speech are its enemies.
- Wisdom empowers leaders: Righteous rule and justice flow from wisdom’s hand.
- Wisdom is eternal: Present with God before creation, rejoicing in His works and humanity.
- Wisdom brings life: To find wisdom is to find life and favor; to reject her is to embrace death.

Proverbs 9 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Two Banquets: Wisdom and Folly”

Wisdom’s Banquet

1 Wisdom has built her house;
she has carved out her seven pillars.

2 She has prepared her meat and mixed her wine;
she has set her table.

3 She has sent out her servants,
and she calls from the highest places of the city:

4 “Whoever is simple, turn in here!”
To those who lack understanding she says,
5 “Come, eat my food,
and drink the wine I have mixed.
6 Leave your foolish ways and live;
walk in the path of understanding.”

Responding to Correction

7 Anyone who corrects a mocker will be insulted;
anyone who rebukes the wicked will be abused.
8 Don’t correct a mocker, or they will hate you;
rebuke a wise person, and they will love you.
9 Instruct the wise, and they will be wiser still;
teach the righteous, and they will grow in learning.
10 The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom,
and knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.
11 For through me your days will be multiplied, and years will be added to your life.
12 If you are wise, your wisdom benefits you;
if you mock, you alone will suffer.

Folly’s Banquet

13 The foolish woman is loud;
she is naive and knows nothing.
14 She sits at the door of her house,
on a seat at the highest point of the city, 15 calling out to those who pass by,
to those who go straight on their way:
16 “Whoever is simple, turn in here!”
To those who lack understanding she says,
17 “Stolen water is sweet, and food eaten in secret is pleasant.”
18 But they don’t realize that the dead are there, that her guests are in the depths of the grave.

✦ Key Lessons from Proverbs 9

- Wisdom offers life: She prepares a banquet of truth, inviting the simple to gain understanding.
- Correction reveals character: Fools reject it and mock, but the wise grow stronger through it.

- The fear of the Lord is foundational: True wisdom begins with reverence for God.
- Choices have consequences: Wisdom’s table leads to life, but Folly’s table leads to death.
- Sin is deceptive: What seems sweet and secret is in fact poison, drawing people toward destruction.

Proverbs 10 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Way of the Righteous and the Wicked”

Wise and Foolish Children

1 These are the proverbs of Solomon:
A wise son brings joy to his father,
but a foolish son brings grief to his mother.

Wealth and Righteousness

2 Ill-gotten treasures are worthless,
but righteousness delivers from death.
3 The Lord does not let the righteous go hungry,
but He denies the cravings of the wicked.

Diligence and Laziness

4 Lazy hands make a man poor,
but diligent hands bring wealth.
5 A wise son gathers crops in summer,
but a disgraceful son sleeps during harvest.

Blessings and Violence

6 Blessings crown the head of the righteous, but violence overwhelms the mouth of the wicked.
7 The memory of the righteous is a blessing,
but the name of the wicked will rot.

Obedience and Rebellion

8 The wise in heart accept commands, but a foolish talker will be ruined.
9 Whoever walks in integrity walks securely,
but whoever takes crooked paths will be exposed.
10 Winking at evil causes trouble,
and a babbling fool will fall.

Words of Life or Destruction

11 The mouth of the righteous is a fountain of life, but violence covers the mouth of the wicked.

12 Hatred stirs up conflict,
but love covers all wrongs.

13 Wisdom is found on the lips of the discerning,
but a rod is for the back of the one without sense.

14 The wise store up knowledge, but the mouth of a fool invites ruin.

Rich and Poor

15 The wealth of the rich is their fortress, but poverty is the ruin of the poor.

16 The wages of the righteous bring life,
but the income of the wicked brings punishment.

Instruction and Correction

17 Whoever heeds discipline shows the way to life, but whoever ignores correction leads others astray.

18 Whoever conceals hatred has lying lips,
and whoever spreads slander is a fool.

The Power of Words

19 When words are many, sin is not absent, but the one who holds his tongue is wise.

20 The tongue of the righteous is like choice silver,
but the heart of the wicked is of little value.

21 The lips of the righteous feed many,
but fools die for lack of sense.

God's Blessing

22 The blessing of the Lord makes rich, and He adds no sorrow to it.

Understanding vs. Folly

23 A fool finds pleasure in wicked schemes, but a person of understanding delights in wisdom.

24 What the wicked fear will come upon them,
but the desires of the righteous will be granted.

25 When the storm has swept by, the wicked are gone, but the righteous stand firm forever.

Laziness and Integrity

26 As vinegar to the teeth and smoke to the eyes, so is the lazy person to those who send him.

27 The fear of the Lord adds length to life,
but the years of the wicked are cut short.

28 The hope of the righteous brings joy,
but the expectations of the wicked will perish.

Strength and Security

29 The way of the Lord is a refuge for the blameless, but it is ruin to those who do evil.

30 The righteous will never be uprooted,
but the wicked will not remain in the land.

Words that Build or Destroy

31 The mouth of the righteous brings forth wisdom, but the corrupt tongue will be cut off.

32 The lips of the righteous know what is fitting,
but the mouth of the wicked speaks only what is perverse.

✠ Key Lessons from Proverbs 10

- Wisdom brings joy: Wise children honor their parents; foolishness brings grief.
- Righteousness delivers: Ill-gotten gain fades, but righteousness leads to life.
- Diligence prospers: Hard work brings blessing, laziness leads to shame and poverty.
- Words carry power: They can bring life, healing, and wisdom—or destruction, conflict, and ruin.
- God blesses the righteous: Their hope, work, and life are established by the Lord.
- The wicked are temporary: Like a storm, they vanish; the righteous stand forever.
- The fear of the Lord extends life: Reverence for God brings strength, hope, and endurance.

Proverbs 11 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Way of Integrity”

Honesty and Humility

1 The Lord hates dishonest scales, but delights in accurate weights.

2 When pride comes, then comes disgrace, but with humility comes wisdom.

Integrity vs. Wickedness

3 The honesty of the upright guides them, but the crookedness of the unfaithful destroys them.

4 Wealth is useless on the day of God's judgment,
but righteousness delivers from death.

5 The righteousness of the blameless makes their path straight,
but the wicked fall by their own wickedness.

6 The righteousness of the upright delivers them, but the unfaithful are trapped by their own desires.

Life and Death

7 When a wicked person dies, their hope perishes;
the expectation of the unrighteous comes to nothing.

8 The righteous are rescued from trouble, and it falls on the wicked instead.

Words that Build or Destroy

9 The godless person destroys their neighbor with their mouth, but the righteous are delivered through knowledge.

10 When the righteous prosper, the city rejoices;
when the wicked perish, there is celebration.

11 The blessing of the upright lifts up a city,
but the words of the wicked tear it down.

Wisdom in Relationships

12 Whoever lacks sense despises their neighbor, but a person of understanding keeps silent.

13 A gossip betrays secrets,
but a trustworthy person keeps confidence.

14 Without guidance, a nation falls;
but with many counselors, there is safety.

Conduct and Character

15 Whoever puts up security for a stranger will suffer, but whoever avoids such pledges is safe.

16 A gracious woman gains honor, and strong men gain wealth.

17 Those who are kind benefit themselves,

but the cruel bring trouble on their own heads.
18 The wicked earn deceptive wages,
but the one who sows righteousness reaps a sure reward.
19 True righteousness leads to life,
but pursuing evil leads to death.

God's Delight

20 The Lord detests those with a twisted heart, but He delights in those who are blameless.
21 Be sure of this: the wicked will not go unpunished, but the children of the righteous will be delivered.

Beauty and Discretion

22 Like a gold ring in a pig's snout is a beautiful woman without discretion.

Expectations of Righteous vs. Wicked

23 The desires of the righteous end in good,
but the hopes of the wicked lead to wrath.
24 One person gives freely, yet grows richer;
another withholds too much, and comes to poverty.
25 A generous person will prosper;
whoever refreshes others will be refreshed.
26 People curse those who hoard grain,
but they bless the one who sells it.

Outcomes of Seeking Good or Evil

27 Whoever seeks good finds favor, but evil comes to the one who searches for it.
28 Those who trust in riches will fall,
but the righteous will flourish like a green leaf.
29 Whoever brings ruin on their family will inherit only wind, and the fool will be servant to the wise.

The Fruit of Righteousness

30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life, and the one who wins souls is wise.
31 If the righteous receive their due on earth,
how much more the wicked and the sinner!

✠✧ Key Lessons from Proverbs 11

- Honesty pleases God: Integrity in small things (like fair scales) matters to Him.
- Humility brings wisdom: Pride leads to downfall, but the lowly gain insight.
- Wealth cannot save: Only righteousness delivers in the day of judgment.
- Words shape communities: The righteous bless and build up, but the wicked destroy.
- Kindness benefits the giver: Mercy, generosity, and trustworthiness enrich life.
- God delights in upright hearts: True beauty is found in wisdom and discretion, not appearance alone.
- Righteousness gives life: The fruit of the righteous blesses others, and wisdom wins souls.
- The wicked face sure judgment: If even the righteous are disciplined, the sinner will not escape.

Proverbs 12 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Way of Righteousness and Folly”

Loving Instruction

1 Whoever loves discipline loves knowledge, but whoever hates correction is stupid.
2 The good person receives favor from the Lord,
but the one who plots evil He condemns.
3 No one is established by wickedness, but the roots of the righteous cannot be moved.

Home and Character

4 A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband,
but a disgraceful wife is like decay in his bones.
5 The thoughts of the righteous are just,
but the advice of the wicked is deceitful.
6 The words of the wicked are like ambush for blood,
but the words of the upright rescue them.
7 The wicked are overthrown and are gone,
but the house of the righteous stands firm.
8 A person is praised for their wisdom,
but those with twisted hearts are despised.
9 Better to be lowly and have a servant than to pretend to be important and have no food.

Work and Kindness

10 The righteous care for the life of their animals, but even the kindest acts of the wicked are cruel.

11 Those who work their land will have plenty of bread,
but those who chase fantasies lack sense.

12 The wicked desire the catch of evil men,
but the root of the righteous produces fruit.

Words and Consequences

13 The wicked are trapped by their own words, but the righteous escape trouble.

14 From the fruit of their lips people are filled with good things, and the work of their hands brings them reward.

15 The way of fools seems right to them,
but the wise listen to advice.

16 A fool shows annoyance immediately,
but the prudent overlook an insult.

17 An honest witness tells the truth,
but a false witness tells lies.

18 Reckless words pierce like a sword,
but the tongue of the wise brings healing.

19 Truthful words stand the test of time, but lying words last only a moment.

Deceit vs. Peace

20 Deceit fills the hearts of those who plot evil, but joy comes to those who promote peace.

21 No lasting harm comes to the righteous,
but the wicked are filled with trouble.

22 The Lord detests lying lips, but He delights in those who are trustworthy.

Wisdom and Diligence

23 The wise keep their knowledge to themselves, but fools broadcast their foolishness.

24 The diligent will rule, but the lazy will be put to forced labor.

25 Anxiety weighs a heart down,
but a kind word lifts it up.

26 The righteous choose their friends carefully,

but the way of the wicked leads them astray.
27 The lazy do not roast what they catch,
but the diligent value their possessions.

The Path of Life

28 In the way of righteousness there is life, and along that path there is no death.

✦✦ Key Lessons from Proverbs 12

- Loving discipline brings wisdom: Correction is not an enemy—it’s the path to knowledge.
- Character shapes homes: A virtuous spouse builds up, while a shameful one tears down.
- Work with diligence: Hard work provides abundance; laziness leaves one empty.
- Words carry power: Truth heals and lasts; lies wound and quickly fade.
- The righteous live with compassion: Even toward animals, they show care and justice.
- Peace brings joy: Deceit destroys, but peacemakers find blessing.
- Diligence leads to honor: Laziness enslaves, but diligence raises one to leadership.
- Righteousness gives life: Walking uprightly ensures strength, peace, and security.

Proverbs 13 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Way of Wisdom and Folly”

Listening to Instruction

1 A wise son listens to his father’s instruction, but a mocker refuses correction.
2 From the fruit of their lips people enjoy good things,
but the unfaithful crave violence.
3 Those who guard their lips preserve their lives,
but those who talk recklessly come to ruin.

Diligence and Laziness

4 Lazy people want much but get nothing, but the desires of the diligent are fully satisfied.
5 The righteous hate lies,
but the wicked bring shame and disgrace.
6 Righteousness guards the blameless, but wickedness overthrows the sinner.

True Wealth

7 Some pretend to be rich but have nothing;
others pretend to be poor but have great wealth.

8 A person's riches may ransom their life,
but the poor are never threatened in this way.

9 The light of the righteous shines brightly, but the lamp of the wicked will be snuffed out.

Pride and Contentment

10 Pride leads to conflict,
but wisdom is found among those who take advice.

11 Wealth gained quickly dwindles,
but whoever gathers little by little makes it grow.

12 Hope deferred makes the heart sick,
but a desire fulfilled is a tree of life.

The Power of God's Word

13 Whoever despises the word will be destroyed, but whoever reveres a command will be rewarded.

14 The teaching of the wise is a fountain of life,
turning people from the snares of death.

15 Good judgment wins favor, but the way of the unfaithful is hard.

Wisdom in Action

16 All who are prudent act with knowledge, but fools expose their folly.

17 A wicked messenger falls into trouble,
but a faithful ambassador brings healing.

18 Poverty and shame come to those who ignore correction, but whoever heeds reproof is honored.

Desire and Companionship

19 A longing fulfilled is sweet to the soul, but fools hate to turn from evil.

20 Walk with the wise and become wise;
associate with fools and you will suffer harm.

21 Trouble pursues sinners,
but blessings reward the righteous.

Inheritance and Provision

22 A good person leaves an inheritance to their children's children,
but a sinner's wealth is stored up for the righteous.
23 The fields of the poor may produce much food, but injustice sweeps it away.

Discipline and Satisfaction

24 Whoever spares the rod hates their child, but the one who loves their child is careful to discipline them.
25 The righteous eat to their heart's content,
but the stomach of the wicked goes hungry.

✦ Key Lessons from Proverbs 13

- Wisdom listens: A wise person welcomes correction, but a fool rejects it to their ruin.
- Work with diligence: Laziness leads to emptiness, but diligence brings fulfillment.
- True wealth is not always visible: Some who appear poor are truly rich, and riches cannot buy righteousness.
- Pride leads to conflict: Humility and counsel bring peace and growth.
- Hope fulfilled refreshes the soul: God's promises bring life when realized.
- Discipline is love: Correcting children shows care and shapes their future.
- Righteousness satisfies: The upright find peace and provision, while the wicked face emptiness.

Proverbs 14 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Way of Wisdom and Folly”

Building and Destroying

1 A wise woman builds her house, but a foolish one tears it down with her own hands.
2 Those who walk in uprightness fear the Lord,
but those who are crooked in their ways despise Him.
3 The words of fools bring a rod for their backs,
but the lips of the wise protect them.

Work and Integrity

4 Without oxen, the stable is clean, but much strength and increase come from the ox.

5 A truthful witness does not lie,
but a false witness pours out lies.

6 A mocker looks for wisdom and finds none,
but knowledge comes easily to those who understand.

7 Stay away from a foolish person, for you will find no knowledge on their lips.

8 The wisdom of the prudent is to think carefully about their way, but the folly of fools is deceit.

9 Fools make fun of sin, but the upright enjoy God's favor.

Heart and Household

10 Each heart knows its own bitterness, and no one else can share its joy.

11 The house of the wicked will be destroyed,
but the home of the upright will flourish.

12 There is a way that seems right to a man,
but its end is the way of death.

13 Even in laughter the heart may ache,
and joy may end in grief.

14 Backsliders get what their ways deserve,
but the good receive what they desire.

15 The simple believe anything, but the prudent carefully consider their steps.

16 The wise fear the Lord and turn from evil,
but fools are reckless and overconfident.

17 Quick-tempered people act foolishly, and those who plot evil are hated.

18 The simple inherit folly,
but the prudent are crowned with knowledge.

The Upright and the Wicked

19 Evil people bow before the good, and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.

20 The poor are disliked even by their neighbors,
but the rich have many friends.

21 Whoever despises their neighbor sins,
but blessed are those who are kind to the poor.

22 Don't those who plan evil go astray?
But mercy and truth belong to those who plan good.

Work, Wealth, and Witness

23 All hard work brings profit,
but mere talk leads only to poverty.
24 The wealth of the wise is their crown,
but the folly of fools yields only foolishness.
25 A truthful witness saves lives,
but a false witness tells lies.

The Fear of the Lord

26 Whoever fears the Lord has strong confidence, and their children will have a place of refuge.
27 The fear of the Lord is a fountain of life,
turning people away from the snares of death.

Leadership and Self-Control

28 A large population is a king's glory,
but without people a ruler is ruined.
29 Whoever is patient has great understanding, but the quick-tempered display folly.
30 A peaceful heart gives life to the body, but envy rots the bones.

Justice and Righteousness

31 Whoever oppresses the poor insults their Maker, but whoever is kind to the needy honors Him.
32 The wicked are brought down by their evil,
but the righteous have hope even in death.
33 Wisdom rests in the heart of the discerning,
but even fools know how to show their folly.
34 Righteousness exalts a nation,
but sin is a disgrace to any people.
35 A king favors a wise servant,
but his anger falls on the one who brings shame.

✦ Key Lessons from Proverbs 14

- Wisdom builds, folly destroys: A wise person strengthens their home, but the foolish tear it down.

- Fear of the Lord is life-giving: Reverence for God gives confidence, peace, and protection.
- Appearances can deceive: A way may look right, but without God it leads to death.
- Character reveals itself: Truthful witnesses, diligent workers, and kind hearts bring life; liars and oppressors bring destruction.
- Self-control brings strength: Patience and peace bring health, while anger and envy rot the soul.
- Righteousness blesses nations: God lifts up entire peoples who walk in righteousness, but sin drags them down.

Proverbs 15 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Power of Words and the Fear of the Lord”

The Power of Words

- 1 A gentle answer turns away anger,
but harsh words stir up wrath.
- 2 The tongue of the wise uses knowledge well,
but the mouth of fools gushes out foolishness.
- 3 The eyes of the Lord are everywhere, watching the evil and the good.
- 4 Gentle words are a tree of life,
but a deceitful tongue crushes the spirit.
- 5 A fool despises his father’s instruction,
but whoever accepts correction shows wisdom.

The Upright and the Wicked

- 6 The house of the righteous is filled with treasure,
but the income of the wicked brings trouble.
- 7 The lips of the wise spread knowledge,
but the hearts of fools do not.
- 8 The sacrifice of the wicked is detestable to the Lord,
but the prayer of the upright pleases Him.
- 9 The way of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord,
but He loves those who pursue righteousness.
- 10 Discipline is harsh for those who forsake the way,
and those who hate correction will die.
- 11 The grave and destruction lie open before the Lord—
how much more the hearts of human beings!

The Heart and the Spirit

12 Mockers hate correction;
they avoid the wise.

13 A joyful heart makes a cheerful face,
but sorrow of the heart crushes the spirit.

14 The discerning heart seeks knowledge,
but the mouth of fools feeds on folly.

15 For the afflicted, every day seems bad,
but a cheerful heart has a continual feast.

Better with Little than Much with Trouble

16 Better a little with the fear of the Lord than great wealth with turmoil.

17 Better a simple meal of vegetables where love is,
than a fattened ox with hatred.

Anger, Laziness, and Family

18 Hot-tempered people stir up conflict, but those who are patient calm a quarrel.

19 The way of the lazy is like a hedge of thorns,
but the path of the upright is a clear road.

20 A wise son brings joy to his father,
but a foolish man despises his mother.

Counsel and Timely Words

21 Folly delights those who lack sense, but people of understanding walk uprightly.

22 Plans fail for lack of counsel,
but with many advisers they succeed.

23 People find joy in giving the right answer—and how good is a word spoken at the right time!

The Way of Life

24 The path of life leads upward for the wise, so they may escape the grave below.

25 The Lord tears down the house of the proud,
but He protects the widow's property.

26 The thoughts of the wicked are detestable to the Lord, but gracious words are pure in His sight.

27 Greedy people bring ruin to their households,
but those who hate bribes will live.

28 The righteous study how to answer,
but the mouth of the wicked gushes evil.

29 The Lord is far from the wicked,
but He hears the prayers of the righteous.

Humility and Wisdom

30 A cheerful look brings joy to the heart;
good news strengthens the bones.

31 Whoever listens to life-giving correction will remain among the wise.

32 Those who reject instruction despise themselves, but those who accept correction gain understanding.

33 The fear of the Lord teaches wisdom, and humility comes before honor.

✦ Key Lessons from Proverbs 15

- Gentle words bring peace: Harsh speech stirs anger, but soft answers calm conflict.
- God sees all: Nothing is hidden—our hearts, thoughts, and actions are open before Him.
- Righteousness pleases God: He delights in prayer, truth, and humility; He hates pride, deceit, and empty sacrifices.
- Joy comes from the heart: A cheerful heart transforms life, while sorrow and envy crush the spirit.
- Better little with love than much with strife: Peace with God and family is greater than riches.
- Correction is life-giving: Wise people embrace reproof; the foolish despise it to their ruin.
- The fear of the Lord brings wisdom: True honor only comes after humility.

Proverbs 16 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord Directs All Things”

God’s Sovereignty

1 People make plans in their hearts, but the right answer of the tongue comes from the Lord.

2 All a person’s ways seem pure to them,
but the Lord examines the motives.

3 Commit your works to the Lord, and your plans will succeed.

4 The Lord has made everything for His purpose—
even the wicked for the day of judgment.

5 The Lord detests the proud in heart;
they will not go unpunished.

6 Through mercy and truth sin is atoned for,
and through the fear of the Lord people turn away from evil.

7 When a man's ways please the Lord,
He makes even his enemies live at peace with him.

Better with Righteousness

8 Better a little with righteousness than great wealth without justice.

9 People plan their course,
but the Lord directs their steps.

Kings and Justice

10 The king speaks with divine wisdom;
he must not betray justice.

11 Honest scales and balances belong to the Lord;
He made all the weights in the bag.

12 Kings detest wrongdoing,
for a throne is established by righteousness.

13 Kings take delight in honest lips;
they value the one who speaks the truth.

14 The king's anger is a messenger of death,
but the wise will calm it.

15 When the king smiles, there is life;
his favor is like rain in springtime.

Wisdom Over Wealth

16 How much better to get wisdom than gold, to choose understanding rather than silver!

17 The path of the upright avoids evil;
whoever guards their way preserves their life.

18 Pride goes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall.

19 Better to be humble with the lowly than to share plunder with the proud.

Wisdom and Speech

20 Whoever handles a matter wisely will find good,
and whoever trusts in the Lord is blessed.
21 The wise in heart are called discerning,
and gracious words promote learning.
22 Understanding is a fountain of life to those who have it,
but folly brings punishment to fools.
23 The heart of the wise teaches their mouth,
and adds learning to their lips.
24 Pleasant words are like honey—sweet to the soul and healing to the bones.

The End of Man's Ways

25 There is a way that seems right to a person,
but its end is the way of death.
26 The appetite of laborers works for them;
their hunger drives them on.

The Wicked and the Violent

27 A scoundrel digs up evil, and his lips are like a burning fire.
28 A perverse person stirs up conflict, and a gossip separates close friends.
29 A violent man entices his neighbor,
and leads him into a path that is not good.
30 He winks his eye to plot deceit,
and purses his lips to bring evil to pass.

Patience and God's Control

31 Gray hair is a crown of glory, if it is found in the way of righteousness.
32 Better to be patient than powerful, better to rule your spirit than to conquer a city.
33 The lot is cast into the lap,
but its every decision is from the Lord.

✠ Key Lessons from Proverbs 16

- God rules over all: We make plans, but God directs outcomes, even over rulers and nations.
- Pride destroys: Pride brings downfall; humility preserves life and favor.

- Wisdom is greater than wealth: Gold and silver cannot compare to the value of wisdom.
- Righteousness builds stability: Both for individuals and rulers, justice and honesty establish security.
- Words matter: Gentle, gracious, and truthful words heal and bless, while deceitful ones destroy.
- Patience is power: True strength is found in self-control, not domination.
- God controls outcomes: Even the smallest matters, like casting lots, are in His hands.

Proverbs 17 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Wisdom in Relationships and Conduct”

Peace and Strife

- 1 Better a dry piece of bread with peace, than a house full of feasting with conflict.
- 2 A wise servant will rule over a disgraceful son,
and will share in the inheritance with the brothers.
- 3 Silver is tested in a crucible, and gold in a furnace,
but the Lord tests the hearts.

Attitudes Toward Others

- 4 Wrongdoers listen to evil lips;
liars pay attention to a corrupt tongue.
- 5 Whoever mocks the poor insults their Maker;
whoever rejoices at disaster will not go unpunished.
- 6 Grandchildren are the crown of the elderly, and the pride of children is their parents.
- 7 Excellent speech is not fitting for a fool—
much less lying lips for a ruler.

Love and Forgiveness

- 8 A bribe is seen as a magic stone by the one who gives it;
it seems to bring success everywhere.
- 9 Whoever covers an offense promotes love,
but whoever repeats the matter separates close friends.
- 10 A rebuke makes a greater impression on a wise person than a hundred lashes on a fool.

Fools and Strife

11 An evil person pursues rebellion;
a cruel messenger will be sent against them.

12 Better to meet a bear robbed of her cubs than a fool acting in his folly.

13 Whoever repays good with evil—evil will never leave their house.

14 Starting a quarrel is like breaching a dam;
so drop the matter before it breaks out.

15 Acquitting the guilty and condemning the innocent—
the Lord detests them both.

16 Why should fools have money in hand to buy wisdom, when they have no desire for it?

Friendship and Family

17 A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.

18 One who lacks judgment shakes hands in pledge and puts up security for a neighbor.

19 Whoever loves strife loves sin;
whoever builds a high gate invites destruction.

20 The perverse in heart find no good,
and those with deceitful tongues fall into trouble.

21 To have a fool for a child brings grief;
there is no joy for the parent of a fool.

22 A cheerful heart is good medicine,
but a broken spirit dries up the bones.

Justice and Wisdom

23 The wicked accept secret bribes to pervert the course of justice.

24 Wisdom is in the presence of the discerning,
but the eyes of a fool wander to the ends of the earth.

25 A foolish son brings grief to his father and bitterness to his mother.

26 It is not good to punish the innocent, or to flog officials for doing right.

27 The one who has knowledge uses words with restraint, and whoever has understanding is even-tempered.

28 Even fools are thought wise if they keep silent, and discerning if they hold their tongues.

✦ Key Lessons from Proverbs 17

- Peace is better than plenty: Quietness with little is greater than feasting with strife.
- God tests hearts: More than silver or gold, our inner motives are weighed by Him.
- Forgiveness preserves love: Covering offenses builds friendship, but gossip destroys it.
- Fools bring danger: Better to face a bear than a fool in their folly.
- Friendship and family matter: A true friend is loyal always, and family is given for times of need.
- A cheerful heart brings healing: Joy refreshes life, while a broken spirit brings decay.
- Wisdom shows in restraint: Even silence can appear wise, while reckless words prove folly.
- Justice belongs to God: Bribery, false judgment, and oppression are all detestable to Him.

Proverbs 18 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Power of Words and Relationships”

Wisdom and Folly

1 An unfriendly person isolates themselves, seeking their own desire; they rage against sound judgment.

2 Fools find no pleasure in understanding, but only in airing their own opinions.

3 When wickedness comes, so does contempt, and with dishonor comes shame.

The Value of Words

4 The words of a person’s mouth are deep waters, but the fountain of wisdom is a flowing stream.

5 It is not right to favor the wicked or to deny justice to the righteous.

6 A fool’s lips bring strife,
and their mouth invites a beating.

7 A fool’s mouth is their ruin,
and their lips are a trap to their soul.

8 Gossip’s words are like tasty morsels;
they go deep into a person’s heart.

Work and Strength

9 Whoever is lazy in their work is a brother to one who destroys.

10 The name of the Lord is a strong tower;
the righteous run to it and are safe.

11 The rich think their wealth is a strong city;
they imagine it to be an unscalable wall.

Humility and Discernment

12 Pride comes before destruction, but humility comes before honor.

13 To answer before listening—that is folly and shame.

14 A person's spirit can sustain them in sickness,
but a crushed spirit—who can bear?

15 The discerning heart acquires knowledge, and the ear of the wise seeks it out.

Justice and Disputes

16 A gift opens the way and ushers the giver into the presence of the great.

17 The first to present their case seems right, until another comes and examines them.

18 Casting lots settles disputes and keeps strong opponents apart.

19 An offended brother is harder to win back than a fortified city;
arguments are like barred gates of a castle.

The Power of the Tongue

20 From the fruit of their mouth a person's stomach is filled; with the harvest of their lips they are satisfied.

21 Death and life are in the power of the tongue,
and those who love it will eat its fruit.

Relationships and Friendship

22 He who finds a wife finds what is good and receives favor from the Lord.

23 The poor plead for mercy,
but the rich answer harshly.

24 A man with many companions may come to ruin,
but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

✠ Key Lessons from Proverbs 18

- Fools love their own voice: Wisdom seeks understanding, but fools only want to air opinions.
- Words are powerful: They can bring life or death, heal or destroy, bless or curse.
- Gossip is dangerous: Its words go deep and wound the heart.
- God is a refuge: His name is a strong tower of safety for the righteous.
- Pride destroys, humility lifts up: True honor comes only through humility.
- Justice requires discernment: One side may seem right until carefully examined.
- Friendship and marriage are blessings: A faithful spouse and a true friend are gifts from the Lord.

Proverbs 19 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Integrity, Discipline, and God’s Counsel”

Integrity Over Wealth

1 Better to be poor and live with integrity than to be dishonest and a fool.

2 Desire without knowledge is not good,
and rushing into things leads to sin.

3 A person’s own foolishness ruins their life,
yet their heart rages against the Lord.

4 Wealth brings many friends,
but the poor are deserted by them.

Truth and Lies

5 A false witness will not go unpunished, and one who lies will not escape.

6 Many seek the favor of the ruler, and everyone is the friend of the one who gives gifts.

7 The relatives of the poor despise them;
even their friends avoid them completely.
Though they plead with words, no one responds.

The Value of Wisdom

8 The one who gains wisdom loves their own soul;
those who cherish understanding will prosper.

9 A false witness will not go unpunished,

and a liar will perish.

10 It is not fitting for a fool to live in luxury, much less for a servant to rule over princes.

Patience and Family Life

11 A person's wisdom makes them slow to anger;
it is to their honor to overlook an offense.

12 The king's rage is like the roar of a lion,
but his favor is like dew on the grass.

13 A foolish son is a disaster to his father, and a quarrelsome wife is like constant dripping.

14 Houses and wealth are inherited from fathers, but a prudent wife is from the Lord.

Laziness and Obedience

15 Laziness brings deep sleep, and the idle will go hungry.

16 Whoever keeps God's commands preserves their life, but those who despise His ways will die.

17 Whoever is kind to the poor lends to the Lord, and He will repay them for what they have done.

18 Discipline your children while there is hope;
do not let your heart spare them because of their crying.

Anger, Counsel, and God's Sovereignty

19 A hot-tempered person must pay the penalty;
if you rescue them once, you will have to do it again.

20 Listen to advice and accept instruction,
so that in the end you may be wise.

21 Many plans are in a person's heart,
but the Lord's purpose will prevail.

22 Loyalty makes a person attractive,
and it is better to be poor than a liar.

23 The fear of the Lord leads to life;
then one rests content, untouched by trouble.

Consequences of Foolishness

24 The lazy person buries his hand in the dish, and will not even bring it back to his mouth.

25 Strike a mocker, and the simple will learn prudence;
rebuke the discerning, and they will gain knowledge.

26 A child who robs his father and drives out his mother brings shame and disgrace.

27 Stop listening, my son, to instruction that leads you astray from the words of knowledge.

28 A corrupt witness mocks at justice, and the mouth of the wicked gulps down evil.

29 Penalties are prepared for mockers, and beatings for the backs of fools.

✦✦ Key Lessons from Proverbs 19

- Integrity is priceless: Better to be poor with honesty than rich with deceit.
- Wisdom protects life: Seeking knowledge and understanding brings blessing, but foolishness destroys.
- God cares for the poor: Helping the needy is like lending to the Lord, and He promises to repay.
- Discipline matters: Correcting children early is an act of love and hope.
- God's plan stands: People may have many plans, but only the Lord's purpose will ultimately prevail.
- Relationships reflect wisdom: A prudent wife is God's gift, while a quarrelsome one brings sorrow.
- Patience and mercy show strength: Overlooking offenses and slowing anger demonstrate true wisdom.

Proverbs 20 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Wisdom in Life, Work, and Justice”

Wine and Self-Control

1 Wine makes people mockers, and strong drink leads to anger;
whoever is led astray by it is not wise.

Authority and Strife

2 The king's anger is like the roar of a lion;
those who provoke him risk their lives.
3 It is an honor to avoid strife,
but every fool is quick to quarrel.

Laziness and Diligence

4 The lazy person does not plow because it is cold;
when harvest comes, they will beg and have nothing.

5 The purposes of a person's heart are deep waters,
but one with understanding draws them out.

Integrity and Faithfulness

6 Many claim to have unfailing love, but a faithful person—who can find?

7 The righteous walk in integrity;
their children are blessed after them.

Judgment and Purity

8 A king who sits on the throne of judgment
winnows out all evil with his eyes.

9 Who can say, "I have kept my heart pure;
I am clean and without sin"?

Honesty and Justice

10 Differing weights and measures—
the Lord detests them both.

11 Even a child is known by their actions, whether their conduct is pure and right.

12 Ears that hear and eyes that see—the Lord has made them both.

Work and Contentment

13 Do not love sleep, or you will grow poor;
stay awake, and you will have food to spare.

14 "It's worthless, it's worthless," says the buyer;
but later he boasts about his bargain.

15 Gold is plentiful, and rubies are abundant, but lips that speak knowledge are a rare treasure.

Caution and Counsel

16 Take the garment of one who puts up security for a stranger;
hold it in pledge if it is done for an outsider.

17 Food gained by deceit tastes sweet,
but in the end it fills the mouth with gravel.

18 Plans succeed through good advice;
with wise guidance wage your war.

Gossip and Honor

19 A gossip betrays confidence; so avoid anyone who talks too much.
20 Whoever curses father or mother—their lamp will go out in deep darkness.

Wealth and Inheritance

21 An inheritance gained too quickly at the beginning will not be blessed in the end.
22 Do not say, “I will pay back evil”;
wait for the Lord, and He will deliver you.

God’s Direction and Justice

23 The Lord detests differing weights, and dishonest scales are not good.
24 A person’s steps are directed by the Lord;
how then can anyone understand their own way?
25 It is a trap to dedicate something rashly and only later to consider one’s vows.

Leadership and Discipline

26 A wise king drives out the wicked and crushes them under the wheel.
27 The human spirit is the lamp of the Lord, searching all the inner depths of the heart.
28 Mercy and truth protect the king,
and his throne is upheld by mercy.

Strength and Maturity

29 The glory of young men is their strength, but the splendor of the old is their gray hair.
30 Bruises and wounds cleanse away evil;
discipline reaches the inmost parts.

✦ Key Lessons from Proverbs 20

- Alcohol leads to folly: Wine and strong drink cloud judgment and stir up anger.
- Integrity matters: A faithful and righteous life blesses not only the person but also their children.
- Justice is God’s standard: Dishonest weights, lies, and false dealings are hated by the Lord.

- Wisdom seeks counsel: Plans succeed when built on good advice and truth.
- Discipline builds character: Both correction and trials purify the heart and soul.
- God directs our steps: Human plans are limited, but the Lord oversees the outcome.
- Patience in vengeance: Do not repay evil—trust God to bring justice in His time.
- Strength and maturity both have value: Youth carries strength, while age carries wisdom and honor.

Proverbs 21 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God’s Sovereignty and the Way of Righteousness”

God’s Control Over Kings

1 The king’s heart is in the Lord’s hand,
like channels of water;
He turns it wherever He chooses.

2 People think all their ways are right, but the Lord examines their hearts.

3 Doing what is right and just is more acceptable to the Lord than sacrifice.

Pride, Diligence, and Dishonesty

4 Haughty eyes, a proud heart, and the actions of the wicked are sin.

5 The plans of the diligent lead to abundance,
but haste leads only to poverty.

6 Wealth gained by lies is fleeting,
chasing death in the end.

7 Violence of the wicked will drag them away,
because they refuse to act justly.

8 The guilty walk a crooked path,
but the innocent live uprightly.

Quarreling and Contentment

9 Better to live on a corner of the roof than share a spacious house with a quarrelsome wife.

10 The wicked desire evil;
their neighbor finds no mercy in their eyes.

Learning Through Correction

11 When a mocker is punished, the simple learn wisdom;
when the wise are instructed, they gain knowledge.

12 The Righteous One observes the house of the wicked and brings the wicked down to ruin.

Justice and Generosity

13 Whoever shuts their ears to the cry of the poor will also cry out and not be answered.

14 A secret gift soothes anger, and a concealed bribe calms great wrath.

15 Justice brings joy to the righteous,
but terror to those who practice evil.

Understanding and Folly

16 Whoever strays from understanding will rest in the assembly of the dead.

17 Whoever loves pleasure will become poor;
whoever loves wine and luxury will never be rich.

18 The wicked become a ransom for the righteous, and the unfaithful for the upright.

19 Better to live in a desert than with a quarrelsome and angry woman.

20 Precious treasure and oil are in the house of the wise, but a foolish man consumes all he has.

The Rewards of Righteousness

21 Whoever pursues righteousness and kindness finds life, righteousness, and honor.

22 A wise person conquers the city of the strong and tears down the fortress they trust in.

23 Whoever guards their mouth and tongue keeps themselves out of trouble.

24 Proud, arrogant, mocker—is the name of one who acts with pride and fury.

Laziness, Greed, and True Generosity

25 The lazy person's cravings will be their death, because their hands refuse to work.

26 All day long they crave and covet,
but the righteous give freely without holding back.

Worship and Integrity

27 The sacrifice of the wicked is detestable—how much more so when brought with evil intent!

28 A false witness will perish,
but a careful listener will testify with integrity.

29 The wicked put up a bold front,
but the upright give careful thought to their ways.

God's Final Authority

30 There is no wisdom, no insight, and no counsel that can succeed against the Lord.

31 The horse is made ready for the day of battle, but victory rests with the Lord.

✦ Key Lessons from Proverbs 21

- God rules over rulers: Even kings are under God's control; He directs their decisions.
- Justice over ritual: God values righteousness and justice more than empty religious sacrifices.
- Pride destroys, diligence prospers: Arrogance leads to sin, but careful planning brings abundance.
- Generosity matters: Ignoring the poor closes heaven's ears, while giving freely reflects righteousness.
- Wisdom is power: True strength comes from wisdom, not force—wise people can even conquer strong cities.
- Control your tongue: Guarding words protects from much trouble.
- False worship is worthless: Sacrifices from a wicked heart do not please God.
- God is sovereign in all things: Human plans, armies, and strategies cannot override His will; safety and victory come only from Him.

Proverbs 22 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Wisdom for Life, Wealth, and Relationships”

The Value of a Good Name

1 A good name is to be chosen above great riches;
favor is better than silver or gold.

2 Rich and poor have this in common:
the Lord is the Maker of them all.

Prudence, Humility, and Training Children

3 The prudent see danger and hide, but the simple keep going and pay the penalty.

4 True riches, honor, and life come through humility and the fear of the Lord.

5 Thorns and traps are on the path of the perverse,
but those who guard their soul stay far from them.

6 Train up a child in the way he should go,
and when he is old, he will not depart from it.

Wealth, Debt, and Justice

7 The rich rule over the poor, and the borrower is slave to the lender.

8 Whoever sows injustice will reap disaster,
and their rod of anger will fail.

9 The generous will be blessed,
for they share their food with the poor.

10 Drive out the mocker, and strife will leave;
quarreling and insults will cease.

11 The one who loves purity of heart and speaks with grace will find favor with the king.

12 The Lord’s eyes protect knowledge,
but He frustrates the words of the faithless.

Laziness, Temptation, and Discipline

13 The sluggard says, “There’s a lion outside!
I’ll be killed in the streets!”

14 The mouth of a promiscuous woman is a deep pit;
a man under the Lord's judgment will fall into it.

15 Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child,
but the rod of discipline drives it away.

16 One who oppresses the poor to increase wealth, or gives gifts to the rich, will come to poverty.

Words of the Wise

17 Pay attention and listen to the words of the wise;
apply your heart to my teaching.

18 For it will be pleasant if you keep them within you and have them ready on your lips.

19 So that your trust may be in the Lord,
I teach you today, even you.

20 Have I not written thirty sayings for you, sayings of counsel and knowledge,

21 teaching you words of truth,
so that you may answer those who send you with certainty?

Justice and Relationships

22 Do not exploit the poor because they are poor, and do not crush the needy in court,

23 for the Lord will take up their case and will plunder those who plunder them.

24 Do not be friends with a hot-tempered person,
do not associate with one easily angered,

25 or you may learn their ways and get yourself trapped.

26 Do not be one who shakes hands in pledge,
or puts up security for debts;

27 if you lack the means to pay,
your very bed may be taken from under you.

28 Do not move an ancient boundary stone set up by your ancestors.

29 Do you see someone skilled in their work?
They will serve before kings;
they will not serve before obscure people.

✦ Key Lessons from Proverbs 22

- Character is greater than wealth: A good reputation and favor are worth more than riches.
- Prudence brings protection: Wise people foresee danger, but the naïve walk blindly into ruin.
- Parenting matters: Early training shapes a child's future direction.
- Debt enslaves: Borrowing places people under the power of others.
- Generosity invites blessing: Sharing with the poor reflects God's heart.
- Anger and mockery breed strife: Avoid hot-tempered and scornful people.
- God defends the poor: Those who exploit the needy will face His justice.
- Discipline is love: Correction is necessary to remove folly from children.
- Wisdom prepares for influence: Skill, diligence, and truth open doors, even into the presence of kings.

Proverbs 23 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Warnings Against Greed, Gluttony, and Drunkenness”

At the Table of the Powerful

- 1 When you sit to eat with a ruler, carefully consider what is before you.
- 2 If you are given to appetite, put a knife to your throat.
- 3 Do not crave his delicacies, for they are deceptive food.

Wealth and Greed

- 4 Do not wear yourself out to get rich; stop relying on your own understanding.
- 5 Will you fix your eyes on that which is fleeting?
For riches sprout wings and fly away like an eagle toward the sky.

The Deceptive Host

- 6 Do not eat the food of one with an evil eye, nor desire his delicacies.
- 7 For as he thinks in his heart, so he is. “Eat and drink,” he says to you, but his heart is not with you.
- 8 You will vomit up the morsel you ate, and waste your pleasant words.

Fools, Landmarks, and Justice

9 Do not speak in the ears of a fool, for he will despise the wisdom of your words.

10 Do not move the ancient boundary stone, nor encroach on the fields of the fatherless, 11 for their Redeemer is mighty; He will plead their case against you.

Instruction and Discipline

12 Apply your heart to instruction, and your ears to words of knowledge.

13 Do not withhold correction from a child; if you discipline him with the rod, he will not die.

14 Discipline him with the rod, and you will save his soul from Sheol.

A Father's Joy

15 My son, if your heart is wise, my heart will rejoice indeed.

16 My inmost being will rejoice when your lips speak what is right.

Envy, Hope, and Guidance

17 Do not let your heart envy sinners, but live always in the fear of the Lord.

18 For there is surely a future,
and your hope will not be cut off.

19 Listen, my son, and be wise,
and keep your heart on the right path.

Warnings Against Drunkenness and Gluttony

20 Do not join those who drink too much wine or gorge themselves on meat,

21 for drunkards and gluttons become poor,
and drowsiness clothes them in rags.

Respect for Parents

22 Listen to your father, who gave you life,
and do not despise your mother when she is old.

23 Buy the truth and do not sell it—wisdom, instruction, and understanding as well.

24 The father of a righteous child has great joy;
a man who fathers a wise son rejoices in him.

25 May your father and mother rejoice;
may she who gave you birth be glad.

The Wayward Woman

26 My son, give me your heart, and let your eyes delight in my ways, 27 for a prostitute is a deep pit,
and a wayward woman is a narrow well.
28 She lurks like a robber,
and increases the faithless among men.

The Tragedy of Drunkenness

29 Who has woe? Who has sorrow?
Who has strife? Who has complaints?
Who has needless bruises? Who has bloodshot eyes?

30 Those who linger over wine,
those who go to sample mixed drinks.

31 Do not gaze at wine when it is red,
when it sparkles in the cup,
when it goes down smoothly!

32 In the end it bites like a serpent and stings like a viper.

33 Your eyes will see strange things,
and your heart will utter perverse things.

34 You will be like one sleeping on the high seas, lying on top of the rigging.

35 “They struck me,” you will say, “but I was not hurt!
They beat me, but I did not feel it!
When will I wake up? I will seek another drink.”

✦ Key Lessons from Proverbs 23

- Self-control protects from ruin: Whether at a ruler’s table or in everyday life, discipline over appetite safeguards honor.
- Wealth is fleeting: Riches quickly vanish; only wisdom and truth endure.
- Correction saves lives: Loving discipline steers children away from destruction.
- Envy misleads: The righteous must not covet sinners but remain in the fear of the Lord, for hope is secure in Him.
- Honor parents: Respect for father and mother brings joy and blessing.
- Avoid drunkenness and gluttony: Excess leads to poverty, shame, and regret.

- Sinful pleasures enslave: Whether through lust or alcohol, indulgence blinds, corrupts, and destroys the soul.

Proverbs 24 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Wisdom, Righteousness, and Endurance”

Do Not Envy the Wicked

- 1 Do not envy evil men, nor desire to be with them.
2 For their hearts plot destruction, and their lips speak of trouble.

Wisdom Builds a Strong Foundation

- 3 By wisdom a house is built,
and through understanding it is established.
4 By knowledge its rooms are filled with all precious and pleasant treasures.
5 A wise man is strong,
and a man of knowledge increases in strength.
6 For by wise counsel you will wage your war,
and in a multitude of advisers there is safety.
7 Wisdom is too high for a fool;
he does not open his mouth at the city gate.

The Folly of Evil Schemes

- 8 Whoever plots to do evil will be called a schemer.
9 The very thought of foolishness is sin,
and a mocker is detestable to people.

Strength Tested in Trouble

- 10 If you faint in the day of adversity, your strength is small.

Responsibility to Act

- 11 Rescue those being led away to death,
and hold back those stumbling toward slaughter.
12 If you say, “We didn’t know this,”
does not He who weighs the hearts consider it?
He who guards your life, does He not know it?
And will He not repay each man according to what he has done?

Wisdom Brings Reward

13 My son, eat honey, for it is good,
and the honeycomb, sweet to your taste.

14 In the same way, wisdom is sweet to your soul;
when you find it, there will be a reward,
and your hope will not be cut off.

The Righteous and the Wicked

15 Do not lie in wait, O wicked man, against the home of the righteous;
do not plunder his resting place.

16 For though the righteous fall seven times, they rise again,
but the wicked stumble into calamity.

Guard Against Pride and Vengeance

17 Do not rejoice when your enemy falls, and do not be glad when he stumbles;
18 lest the Lord see it, and be displeased,
and turn His anger away from him.

19 Do not fret because of evildoers, or envy the wicked.

20 For the evil man has no future;
the lamp of the wicked will be snuffed out.

Fear the Lord and the King

21 My son, fear the Lord and the king, and do not associate with the rebellious.

22 For disaster will arise suddenly,
and who knows the ruin that can come from both?

Justice in Judgment

23 These also are sayings of the wise:
Showing partiality in judgment is not good.

24 Whoever says to the wicked, "You are righteous," people will curse him, nations will abhor him.

25 But those who rebuke the wicked will find delight,
and a good blessing will come upon them.

26 An honest answer is like a kiss on the lips.

Order and Honesty in Work

27 Prepare your work outside,
get your fields ready;
after that, build your house.

28 Do not be a witness against your neighbor without cause, and do not deceive with your lips.

29 Do not say, "I will do to him as he has done to me;
I will repay the man according to his work."

Lesson from the Sluggard's Field

30 I went by the field of a lazy man, by the vineyard of one lacking sense; 31 and there it was, overgrown with thorns,
its surface covered with nettles,
its stone wall broken down.

32 When I saw it, I considered it carefully;
I looked upon it and learned this lesson:

33 A little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands to rest,
34 and poverty will come upon you like a thief,
and need like an armed man.

Key Lessons from Proverbs 24

- Do not envy the wicked—their end is ruin, but wisdom builds a lasting life.
- True strength is shown in adversity; wisdom sustains when trouble comes.
- God holds us accountable to act when others face injustice or death.
- Wisdom is sweet like honey, bringing reward and lasting hope.
- The righteous may stumble often but always rise; the wicked fall into destruction.
- We must not rejoice at another's downfall, for vengeance belongs to God.
- Justice must be impartial; honesty and truth are always blessed.
- Diligence builds security, while laziness leads to poverty and shame.

Proverbs 25 – Crawford Standard Bible

"The Glory of God and the Wisdom of Kings"

Collected Proverbs of Solomon

1 These are also proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied down.

2 It is the glory of God to conceal a matter,
but the honor of kings is to search it out.

3 As the heavens are high and the earth is deep,
so the heart of kings cannot be fully searched.

Purity and Righteous Leadership

4 Remove the dross from the silver, and a vessel will come forth for the silversmith.

5 Remove the wicked from before the king, and his throne will be established in righteousness.

Humility Before Greatness

6 Do not exalt yourself in the presence of the king, and do not stand in the place of the great.

7 For it is better to be told, "Come up here," than to be put lower in the presence of a noble.

Caution in Disputes

8 Do not go hastily into a dispute, for what will you do in the end if your neighbor puts you to shame?

9 Argue your case with your neighbor himself, and do not betray another's secret,

10 lest the one who hears it shame you,
and your bad reputation never go away.

Words of Wisdom and Reproof

11 A word spoken at the right time is like apples of gold in settings of silver.

12 Like an earring of gold or an ornament of fine gold is a wise rebuke to an obedient ear.

Faithfulness and False Promises

13 Like the coolness of snow at harvest time is a faithful messenger to those who send him;
he refreshes the soul of his masters.

14 A man who boasts of gifts he does not give is like clouds and wind without rain.

Patience and Restraint

15 Through patience a ruler can be persuaded,
and a gentle tongue can break a bone.

16 Have you found honey?

Eat only what you need, lest you be filled with it and vomit.

17 Seldom set foot in your neighbor's house,
lest he become weary of you and hate you.

False Witness and Broken Trust

18 A man who gives false testimony against his neighbor is like a war club, a sword, or a sharp arrow.

19 Trusting in an unreliable person in a time of trouble is like a broken tooth or a dislocated foot.

Misplaced Joy and True Kindness

20 Singing songs to a heavy heart is like taking away a garment in cold weather, or pouring vinegar on soda.

21 If your enemy is hungry, give him food to eat;
if he is thirsty, give him water to drink.

22 For in doing so, you will heap burning coals on his head, and the Lord will reward you.

Strife and Peace

23 The north wind drives away rain, and an angry look drives away a backbiting tongue.

24 It is better to live in the corner of a housetop than in a spacious house with a quarrelsome wife.

Good News and Corruption

25 Like cold water to a thirsty soul is good news from a distant land.

26 A righteous man who gives way before the wicked is like a muddied spring or a polluted fountain.

Moderation and Self-Control

27 It is not good to eat too much honey, nor is it honorable to seek one's own glory.

28 A man without self-control is like a city broken down and without walls.

Key Lessons from Proverbs 25

- God hides mysteries that only He knows, but rulers are called to search out truth with wisdom.
- Leaders must remove wicked influences for righteousness to flourish.
- Humility before others brings honor, while self-promotion leads to shame.
- Disputes should be handled with care and directly, not with gossip or betrayal.
- Words spoken at the right time bring beauty and healing, while false promises destroy trust.
- Patience and gentleness have more power than harshness or force.
- True kindness, even toward enemies, honors God and brings blessing.
- Strife in the home destroys peace, but wisdom and restraint preserve harmony.
- The righteous must stand firm against corruption, for compromise weakens their witness.
- Self-control is essential; without it, life collapses like a city without defenses.

Proverbs 26 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Folly of Fools and the Danger of Deceit”

The Fool and His Dishonor

1 Like snow in summer or rain in harvest, so honor is not fitting for a fool.

2 Like a fluttering sparrow or a darting swallow,
so a curse without cause will not land.

3 A whip is for the horse, a bridle for the donkey,
and a rod for the back of fools.

How to Answer a Fool

4 Do not answer a fool according to his folly, or you will be like him yourself.

5 Answer a fool according to his folly, or he will be wise in his own eyes.

Uselessness of a Fool’s Words

6 Sending a message by the hand of a fool is like cutting off one’s own feet and drinking violence.

7 Like lame legs that hang limp,
so is a proverb in the mouth of a fool.

8 Giving honor to a fool is like tying a stone in a sling.

9 Like a thorn in the hand of a drunkard,
so is a proverb in the mouth of fools.

Repetition of Folly

10 The great God who formed all things repays both the fool and the transgressor.
11 As a dog returns to its vomit,
so a fool repeats his folly.
12 Do you see a man wise in his own eyes?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.

The Sluggard's Excuses

13 The lazy man says,
"There is a lion in the road! A lion in the streets!"
14 As a door turns on its hinges, so does the sluggard on his bed.
15 The slothful buries his hand in the dish, yet it wearies him to bring it back to his mouth.
16 The sluggard is wiser in his own eyes than seven men who can answer sensibly.

Meddling and Deceit

17 He who meddles in a quarrel not his own is like one who grabs a dog by the ears.
18 Like a madman shooting firebrands, arrows, and death, 19 so is the one who deceives his neighbor and says,
"I was only joking!"

The Fuel of Strife

20 Without wood, a fire goes out;
without a gossip, strife ceases.
21 As charcoal to burning coals and wood to fire,
so is a quarrelsome person for kindling strife.
22 The words of a gossip are like tasty morsels;
they go down into the innermost parts.

Hypocrisy and Hatred

23 Burning lips with a wicked heart are like glazed pottery covered with silver dross.
24 A hateful man disguises himself with his lips

but harbors deceit in his heart.

25 When he speaks graciously, do not believe him,
for seven abominations are in his heart.

26 Though his hatred is concealed by deception,
his wickedness will be exposed in the assembly.

The End of Treachery

27 Whoever digs a pit will fall into it;
whoever rolls a stone, it will roll back on him.

28 A lying tongue hates its victims, and a flattering mouth works ruin.

Key Lessons from Proverbs 26

- Honor is wasted on fools who cannot use it rightly.
- Sometimes it is wise to ignore a fool, and at other times it is necessary to expose his folly so he is not deceived.
- Proverbs and wisdom lose their power in the mouth of a fool; they become dangerous instead of helpful.
- Fools repeat their sins like dogs returning to their vomit; pride blinds them even worse than folly.
- Laziness makes endless excuses, robs men of effort, and blinds them to truth.
- Meddling in quarrels not your own and joking with lies both bring destruction.
- Gossip fuels strife; silence and restraint bring peace.
- Hatred hides under smooth words, but God reveals it in time.
- Deceit and treachery backfire—the trap set for others will fall on the one who set it.

Proverbs 27 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Wisdom in Friendship, Work, and Contentment”

Boasting and Pride

1 Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring.

2 Let someone else praise you, and not your own mouth;
a stranger, and not your own lips.

The Weight of Folly and Envy

3 A stone is heavy, and sand is burdensome, but a fool's anger is heavier than both.

4 Wrath is cruel, and anger overwhelming;
but who can stand against envy?

Love, Rebuke, and Friendship

5 Open rebuke is better than hidden love.

6 Wounds from a friend can be trusted,
but an enemy multiplies kisses.

7 A satisfied soul loathes honey,
but to a hungry soul, even bitter food is sweet.

8 Like a bird that strays from her nest,
so is a man who wanders from his home.

9 Perfume and incense bring joy to the heart, and so does earnest counsel from a friend.

10 Do not forsake your friend or your father's friend, and do not go to your brother's house in your day of trouble;
better a neighbor nearby than a brother far away.

Wisdom and Prudence

11 Be wise, my son, and make my heart glad,
so that I may answer him who reproaches me.

12 The prudent see danger and take refuge,
but the simple keep going and suffer for it.

13 Take the garment of one who puts up security for a stranger;
hold it in pledge for a wayward woman.

The Annoyance of Foolishness

14 If a man blesses his neighbor loudly early in the morning, it will be taken as a curse.

15 A quarrelsome wife is like a constant dripping on a rainy day;
16 restraining her is like restraining the wind or grasping oil with the hand.

The Value of True Companionship

17 Iron sharpens iron,
so one man sharpens another.

18 Whoever tends the fig tree will eat its fruit, and whoever serves his master will be honored.

19 As water reflects the face,
so one's life reflects the heart.

Greed and Discontent

20 Death and destruction are never satisfied, and neither are the eyes of man.

21 The crucible for silver and the furnace for gold,
but a man is tested by the praise he receives.

22 Though you grind a fool in a mortar with a pestle, his foolishness will not leave him.

The Care of Work and Provision

23 Be diligent to know the condition of your flocks, and give careful attention to your herds;

24 for riches do not last forever,
and a crown is not secure for all generations.

25 When the hay is gone and new growth appears,
and the grass from the hills is gathered in,

26 the lambs will provide you with clothing,
and the goats with the price of a field.

27 You will have plenty of goats' milk to feed you and your family, and to nourish your servant girls.

Key Lessons from Proverbs 27

- Tomorrow is uncertain; humility guards us against pride and presumption.
- True love corrects openly, while false affection deceives with flattery.
- Friendship is strengthened through honest counsel and mutual sharpening, like iron against iron.
- Prudence prepares for danger, while folly walks into ruin unguarded.
- Contentiousness in the home destroys peace, but wisdom builds stability.
- Human desire is never satisfied apart from God; envy and greed lead to endless emptiness.
- Work diligently and care for what God has entrusted to you; wise stewardship brings lasting provision.
- Reputation is tested by praise, and character is revealed in how we respond to it.

Proverbs 28 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Boldness of the Righteous and the Folly of the Wicked”

Righteousness Gives Courage

1 The wicked flee when no one pursues, but the righteous are as bold as a lion.

2 When a land transgresses, it has many rulers,
but with a man of understanding and knowledge, stability endures.

3 A poor man who oppresses the poor is like a driving rain that leaves no food.

Keeping the Law vs. Forsaking It

4 Those who forsake the law praise the wicked, but those who keep the law oppose them.

5 Evil men do not understand justice,
but those who seek the Lord understand all things.

6 Better is a poor man who walks in integrity than a rich man whose ways are crooked.

7 A wise son keeps the law,
but a companion of gluttons shames his father.

8 Whoever increases wealth by interest and unjust gain gathers it for one who will be kind to the poor.

9 If anyone turns away his ear from hearing the law,
even his prayer is detestable.

Justice, Wealth, and Leadership

10 Whoever leads the upright into evil paths will fall into his own pit,
but the blameless will inherit what is good.

11 The rich man is wise in his own eyes,
but the poor with discernment sees through him.

12 When the righteous triumph, there is great glory,
but when the wicked rise, people hide themselves.

Mercy and Confession

13 Whoever conceals his sins will not prosper, but whoever confesses and forsakes them will find mercy.

14 Blessed is the one who always fears the Lord,
but whoever hardens his heart will fall into calamity.

15 Like a roaring lion or a charging bear is a wicked ruler over poor people.

16 A ruler without understanding is a great oppressor, but one who hates covetousness will prolong his days.

17 A man guilty of shedding blood will flee into the pit;
let no one support him.

18 Whoever walks in integrity will be kept safe, but whoever is crooked will suddenly fall.

Diligence and Contentment

19 He who works his land will have plenty of bread, but he who chases fantasies will have plenty of poverty.

20 A faithful man will abound with blessings,
but whoever hastens to be rich will not go unpunished.

21 Showing partiality is not good;
yet for a piece of bread, a man may do wrong.

22 A man with an evil eye hastens after wealth and does not realize that poverty will overtake him.

Rebuke and Flattery

23 Whoever rebukes a man will afterward find more favor than one who flatters with the tongue.

24 Whoever robs his father or mother and says,
“It is no wrong,” is a companion to a destroyer.

Trusting God vs. Trusting Self

25 A greedy man stirs up strife,
but the one who trusts in the Lord will prosper.

26 He who trusts in his own heart is a fool,
but whoever walks in wisdom will be delivered.

27 He who gives to the poor will lack nothing, but he who closes his eyes to them will receive many curses.

28 When the wicked rise, people hide themselves;
but when they perish, the righteous flourish.

Key Lessons from Proverbs 28

- Righteousness brings boldness, while wickedness creates fear.
- Justice and stability come through wisdom, not corruption.
- Wealth gained unjustly will not last; it ultimately benefits the righteous and merciful.
- Concealing sin brings ruin, but confession and repentance bring mercy.
- Wicked rulers oppress, but leaders who hate greed bring stability.
- Diligence produces provision, but laziness and fantasies lead to poverty.
- Flattery is shallow; honest rebuke builds lasting respect.
- Trusting in one's own heart is folly; true safety is found in walking with God's wisdom.
- Generosity to the poor brings blessing, but ignoring them invites curses.
- Wicked rulers bring fear and hiding, but when they fall, righteousness increases in the land.

Proverbs 29 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Righteous Leadership and the Folly of Pride”

The Danger of Hard Hearts

1 He who is often reproved yet hardens his neck will suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

2 When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice,
but when the wicked rule, the people mourn.

3 Whoever loves wisdom brings joy to his father,
but a companion of prostitutes squanders his wealth.

Justice and Leadership

4 By justice a king gives stability to the land,
but one who takes bribes tears it down.

5 A man who flatters his neighbor spreads a net for his feet.

6 By the sins of the wicked there is a snare,
but the righteous sing and rejoice.

7 The righteous care about justice for the poor,
but the wicked have no concern.

8 Mockers stir up a city,
but the wise turn away wrath.

9 If a wise man goes to court with a fool,
whether the fool rages or laughs, there is no peace.

10 Bloodthirsty men hate those who are upright,
but the righteous seek to protect their life.

11 A fool vents all his feelings,
but a wise man quietly holds them back.

12 If a ruler listens to lies,
all his officials become corrupt.

13 The poor and the oppressor have this in common:
the Lord gives light to the eyes of both.

14 A king who faithfully judges the poor,
his throne will be established forever.

Discipline and Vision

15 The rod of correction imparts wisdom,
but a child left undisciplined brings shame to his mother.

16 When the wicked increase, sin multiplies,
but the righteous will see their downfall.

17 Discipline your son, and he will give you peace;
he will bring delight to your soul.

18 Where there is no vision, the people cast off restraint;
but blessed is he who keeps the law.

19 A servant cannot be corrected by mere words;
though he understands, he will not respond.

Pride, Anger, and Fear

20 Do you see a man hasty in his words?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.

21 If a servant is pampered from youth,
he will expect to be treated as a son.

22 An angry man stirs up strife,
and a hot-tempered man commits many sins.

23 A man's pride will bring him low,
but the humble in spirit will receive honor.

Justice Belongs to the Lord

24 Whoever is a partner with a thief hates his own life;
he hears the oath in court but tells nothing.

25 The fear of man lays a snare,
but whoever trusts in the Lord is kept safe.

26 Many seek the favor of a ruler,
but justice for each person comes from the Lord.

27 The unjust are detestable to the righteous, and those who live uprightly are detestable to the wicked.

Key Lessons from Proverbs 29

- A hardened heart that resists correction will eventually face destruction.
- Righteous leaders bring joy and stability, but wicked rulers bring mourning.
- Justice is essential for good leadership; bribery, lies, and flattery corrupt.
- True wisdom disciplines children, giving peace and joy to parents.
- Without God's vision and law, society falls into chaos.
- Pride brings downfall, but humility brings honor.
- The fear of man leads to traps, but trusting in the Lord brings safety.
- The righteous and the wicked cannot coexist in harmony; their values oppose one another.

Proverbs 30 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Sayings of Agur”

Agur's Confession of Ignorance

1 The words of Agur son of Jakeh, the prophecy.
The man declared to Ithiel and to Ucal:

2 “Surely I am more foolish than any man,
and I have no understanding.

3 I have not learned wisdom,
nor do I know the Holy One.

4 Who has gone up to heaven and come down?
Who has gathered the wind in his fists?
Who has wrapped up the waters in a garment?

Who has established all the ends of the earth?
What is His name, and what is His Son's name—if you know?"

The Purity of God's Word

5 Every word of God is flawless;
He is a shield to those who take refuge in Him.
6 Do not add to His words, or He will rebuke you and prove you a liar.

Agur's Prayer for Balance

7 Two things I ask of You, O Lord;
do not deny them to me before I die:
8 Remove falsehood and lies far from me;
give me neither poverty nor riches,
but give me only my daily bread.
9 Otherwise, I may have too much and deny You, saying, "Who is the Lord?"
Or I may become poor and steal, and dishonor the name of my God.

Generations of Evil

10 Do not slander a servant to his master, or he will curse you, and you will be found guilty.
11 There is a generation that curses its father and does not bless its mother.
12 There is a generation that is pure in its own eyes,
yet is not cleansed from its filth.
13 There is a generation—how arrogant are their eyes!
Their eyelids are lifted up in pride.
14 There is a generation whose teeth are swords and whose jaws are like knives, to devour the poor from the earth and the needy from among men.

Things That Never Say "Enough"

15 The leech has two daughters: "Give! Give!"
There are three things that are never satisfied, four that never say, "Enough!":
16 the grave, the barren womb,
the land never satisfied with water,
and fire that never says, "Enough!"

17 The eye that mocks a father and scorns obedience to a mother—
the ravens of the valley will pick it out, and the young eagles will eat it.

Things Too Wonderful

18 There are three things too wonderful for me,
four I do not understand:

19 the way of an eagle in the sky,
the way of a serpent on a rock,
the way of a ship on the high seas,
and the way of a man with a young woman.

20 Such is the way of an adulterous woman:
she eats, wipes her mouth, and says,
“I have done no wrong.”

Things the Earth Cannot Bear

21 Under three things the earth trembles, under four it cannot endure:

22 a servant when he becomes king,
a fool when he is filled with food, 23 a hated woman when she gets married,
and a maidservant who displaces her mistress.

Small but Wise Creatures

24 Four things on earth are small, yet they are exceedingly wise:

25 Ants are not strong,
yet they store up food in the summer.

26 Rock badgers are feeble,
yet they make their homes in the cliffs.

27 Locusts have no king,
yet they advance together in ranks.

28 A spider can be caught with the hands,
yet it is found in kings' palaces.

Things That Walk with Majesty

29 There are three things that move with stately stride, four that are impressive in their walk:

30 a lion, mighty among beasts,
who turns aside before none;

31 a strutting rooster, a male goat,
and a king secure against revolt.

Restraining Pride and Wrath

32 If you have been foolish in exalting yourself, or if you have plotted evil,
put your hand over your mouth.

33 For as churning milk produces butter,
and twisting the nose produces blood, so stirring up anger produces strife.

Key Lessons from Proverbs 30

- Human wisdom is limited; only God and His Son have full authority over creation.
- God’s Word is flawless and must not be twisted or added to.
- True wisdom seeks balance: neither poverty nor riches, but daily dependence on God.
- Pride, arrogance, and disregard for parents are hallmarks of a corrupt generation.
- Certain forces in creation—like death, fire, and desire—are never satisfied, warning us against greed and lust.
- God teaches through small creatures: ants show foresight, rock badgers find security, locusts act in unity, and even the spider shows persistence.
- Majesty is seen in courage, strength, and authority rightly exercised.
- Pride and anger must be restrained, for they always bring conflict and strife.

Proverbs 31 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Wisdom of King Lemuel’s Mother and the Virtuous Woman”

The Instruction of a Mother

1 The words of King Lemuel, the prophecy his mother taught him:

2 “What are you doing, my son?

What, son of my womb?

What, son of my vows?

3 Do not give your strength to women,
nor your ways to those who destroy kings.

4 It is not for kings, O Lemuel, not for kings to drink wine,

nor for rulers to crave strong drink,
5 lest they drink and forget what is decreed,
and deprive the oppressed of justice.

6 Give strong drink to the one who is perishing, and wine to those with heavy hearts.

7 Let them drink and forget their poverty, and remember their misery no more.

8 Speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves, for the rights of all who are destitute.

9 Speak up and judge righteously;
defend the rights of the poor and needy.”

The Virtuous Woman

10 Who can find a virtuous woman?
She is worth far more than rubies.

11 Her husband trusts her completely, and he will have no lack of gain.

12 She brings him good, not harm,
all the days of her life.

13 She selects wool and flax,
and works eagerly with her hands.

14 She is like merchant ships, bringing her food from afar.

15 She rises while it is still night, providing food for her household and portions for her servant girls.

16 She considers a field and buys it;
with the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard.

17 She sets about her work vigorously;
her arms are strong for her tasks.

18 She sees that her trading is profitable,
and her lamp does not go out at night.

19 She holds the distaff in her hands and grasps the spindle with her fingers.

20 She opens her arms to the poor and extends her hands to the needy.

21 When it snows, she has no fear for her household, for all of them are clothed in scarlet.

22 She makes coverings for her bed;
she is clothed in fine linen and purple.

23 Her husband is respected at the city gates,
where he takes his seat among the elders of the land.

24 She makes linen garments and sells them,
and supplies sashes to the merchants.

25 She is clothed with strength and dignity;
she can laugh at the days to come.

26 She speaks with wisdom,
and faithful instruction is on her tongue.

27 She watches over the affairs of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness.

28 Her children arise and call her blessed;
her husband also, and he praises her:

29 “Many women do noble things, but you surpass them all.”

30 Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting;
but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised.

31 Honor her for all that her hands have done, and let her works bring her praise at the city gates.

Key Lessons from Proverbs 31

- Godly instruction often begins at home; wise mothers pass down truth to their children.
- Leaders must avoid destructive indulgence—such as drunkenness—and instead defend justice for the poor and voiceless.
- A virtuous woman is of greater value than wealth; her character, diligence, and wisdom enrich her entire household.
- True beauty is not outward appearance but the fear of the Lord, which endures forever.
- A woman who faithfully serves her family, community, and God will be honored not only by her loved ones but also by her works that testify of her.

📖 Introduction to the Book of Ecclesiastes

“Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher, vanity of vanities; all is vanity.” – Ecclesiastes 1:2

Title and Meaning

The title Ecclesiastes comes from the Greek word ekklēsiastes, meaning “Preacher” or “Teacher,” derived from ekklesia (“assembly” or “gathering”). In Hebrew, the book is titled Qoheleth, which also means “one who calls or gathers,” often translated as “the Preacher.” Ecclesiastes is a book of reflection and philosophy, wrestling with the meaning of life, death, and the human pursuit of purpose “under the sun.”

Author and Date

Traditionally attributed to King Solomon, son of David, Ecclesiastes is believed to have been written late in his life, after he had experienced wealth, power, pleasure, and wisdom in abundance. The tone suggests the reflections of an older man looking back at life’s fleeting nature. Scholars generally date it to the 10th century BC, though some suggest later editorial shaping. Regardless, its divine inspiration and timeless message remain clear.

Purpose of Ecclesiastes

Ecclesiastes confronts life’s deepest questions and exposes the futility of living apart from God. It teaches us:

- That human pursuits—wealth, pleasure, knowledge, and labor—are fleeting and cannot bring lasting satisfaction.
 - That life is short, unpredictable, and full of vanity when seen only from an earthly perspective.
 - That true joy is found in simple gifts from God—work, food, relationships, and daily blessings.
 - That ultimate meaning and fulfillment come only through fearing God and keeping His commandments (12:13).
-

Structure of Ecclesiastes

The book flows like a journal of reflections, mixing poetry, proverbs, and philosophy.

📖 1. The Futility of Life Under the Sun (Ch. 1–2)

- Life’s cycles and human pursuits end in emptiness.

📖 2. A Time for Everything (Ch. 3–6)

- Seasons of life are beyond human control, yet God has a purpose in all.

3. The Limits of Human Wisdom (Ch. 7–11)

- Wisdom helps, but cannot solve life’s ultimate mysteries.

4. The Conclusion of the Matter (Ch. 12)

- Youth and old age are contrasted. The final word: fear God and obey Him.
-

Major Themes

- Vanity and Brevity of Life: Life is like a vapor—temporary and elusive.
 - Life Under the Sun: A phrase describing human existence apart from God’s eternal perspective.
 - The Gift of God: Joy is found in receiving life’s blessings as gifts from God, not as idols.
 - The Fear of the Lord: Reverence for God is the only anchor in a fleeting world.
 - The Certainty of Death: Both the wise and foolish die—so true meaning must go beyond this life.
-

Why Ecclesiastes Matters Today

Ecclesiastes speaks powerfully to our modern age of wealth, entertainment, and constant pursuit of “more.” It reminds us that careers, possessions, pleasures, and even knowledge cannot satisfy the human heart. In a world filled with anxiety and despair, the book calls us to find stability, peace, and meaning in God alone. It prepares the way for Christ, who gives eternal significance to our labor and joy through His resurrection.

Key Verse

“Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.” – Ecclesiastes 12:13

This verse captures the message of Ecclesiastes: everything else is vanity apart from living in reverence to God.

Ecclesiastes 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Life’s Fleeting Nature Under the Sun”

The Words of the Preacher

1 These are the words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.

2 “Vanity of vanities,” says the Preacher.
“Utterly meaningless—everything is meaningless.”

3 What does a person gain from all the work they do under the sun?

The Cycles of Creation

4 One generation passes away, and another comes,
but the earth remains forever.

5 The sun rises, the sun sets,
and hurries back to where it rises again.

6 The wind blows south, then turns north;
round and round it goes, ever returning on its course.

7 All the rivers flow into the sea,
yet the sea is never full.
The waters return again
to the rivers' source.

The Weariness of Life

8 Everything is wearisome, more than words can express.
The eye is never satisfied with seeing,
and the ear is never filled with hearing.

9 What has been will be again,
what has been done will be done again;
there is nothing truly new under the sun.

10 Is there anything of which one can say,
“Look, this is new”?
It has already existed in ages past.

11 People don't remember what happened before, and future generations will not remember what happens after them.

The Preacher's Quest for Wisdom

12 I, the Preacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem.

13 I applied myself fully to seek and to explore by wisdom all that is done under heaven.

It is a heavy burden God has laid on mankind to keep them occupied.

14 I have seen all the works done under the sun; and behold, everything is meaningless, a chasing after the wind.

15 What is crooked cannot be made straight; what is lacking cannot be counted.

16 I said to myself, "Look, I have grown great and gained more wisdom than all who ruled Jerusalem before me; my mind has experienced much wisdom and knowledge."

17 Then I applied myself to know wisdom, as well as madness and folly. But I realized that this too is like chasing the wind.

18 For with much wisdom comes much sorrow; the more knowledge, the more grief.

✦✦ Key Lessons from Ecclesiastes 1

- Life without God is empty: All human effort "under the sun" cannot bring lasting fulfillment.
- The cycles of creation reveal man's smallness: Nature continues in endless repetition, while human life is fleeting.
- There is nothing truly new under the sun: Technology and culture may change, but the human heart and its struggles remain the same.
- Wisdom has limits: Knowledge apart from God leads not to peace but to frustration and grief.
- True meaning is found only in God: Without Him, everything is like chasing the wind.

Ecclesiastes 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

"The Search for Pleasure, Work, and Wisdom"

The Pursuit of Pleasure

1 I said in my heart, “Come now, I will test you with pleasure. Enjoy yourself!”
But behold, this too was meaningless.

2 I said of laughter, “It is madness,” and of pleasure, “What good does it bring?”

3 I tried cheering myself with wine, while still guiding myself with wisdom.
I wanted to experience foolishness, to see what was worthwhile for people to do under heaven
during the few days of their lives.

The Works of the Preacher

4 I undertook great projects:
I built houses for myself and planted vineyards.

5 I made gardens and parks and planted all kinds of fruit trees in them.

6 I made pools of water to irrigate a forest of growing trees.

7 I bought male and female servants and had others born in my house.
I also owned herds and flocks
more than anyone in Jerusalem before me.

8 I amassed silver and gold for myself,
the treasure of kings and provinces.
I acquired men and women singers, and the delights of the sons of men—musical instruments of all kinds.

9 I became greater and wealthier than all who were before me in Jerusalem, yet my wisdom stayed with me.

10 Whatever my eyes desired I did not deny them.
I refused my heart no pleasure.
My heart found delight in all my work,
and this was the reward for all my labor.

11 Yet when I looked at all I had achieved and the work I had done, behold, everything was meaningless—

a chasing after the wind.
There was no profit under the sun.

The Limits of Wisdom

12 Then I turned to consider wisdom, and also madness and folly.
For what can anyone do who comes after the king?
Only what has already been done.

13 I saw that wisdom is better than folly,
just as light is better than darkness.

14 The wise have eyes in their heads,
but fools walk in darkness.
Yet I came to realize that the same fate overtakes them both.

15 Then I said in my heart,
“If the fool’s end will be my end also,
what have I gained by being wise?”
This too is meaningless.

16 For the wise, like the fool, will not be remembered forever.
In the days to come, both will be forgotten.
Like the fool, the wise must also die.

The Burden of Labor

17 So I hated life,
because the work done under the sun was grievous to me.
Everything is meaningless,
a chasing after the wind.

18 I hated all the things I had worked for under the sun, because I must leave them to the one who comes after me.

19 And who knows whether he will be wise or foolish?
Yet he will have control over all the fruit of my labor into which I poured my wisdom under the sun.
This too is meaningless.

20 So my heart began to despair over all my toilsome labor under the sun.

21 For a man may labor with wisdom, knowledge, and skill, and then leave it all to someone who has not worked for it.
This also is meaningless and a great evil.

22 What does a man gain from all the toil and anxious striving with which he labors under the sun?

23 All his days are filled with pain,
and grief occupies his work.
Even at night his heart finds no rest.
This too is meaningless.

The Gift from God

24 There is nothing better for a man than to eat, drink, and find satisfaction in his work.
This too, I saw, comes from the hand of God.

25 For who can eat, or who can find enjoyment, apart from Him?

26 To the one who pleases Him,
God gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy.
But to the sinner He gives the burden of gathering and storing up wealth to hand it over to the one who pleases God.
This too is meaningless,
a chasing after the wind.

✦✦ Key Lessons from Ecclesiastes 2

- Pleasure without God is empty: Entertainment, wealth, and indulgence cannot bring lasting joy.
- Work cannot satisfy the soul: Even great accomplishments fade when one realizes they must be left to others.
- Wisdom is better than folly, but limited: Though wisdom excels over foolishness, both the wise and the fool share the same end—death.
- Labor brings grief without God: Without Him, work only leads to frustration, sleepless nights, and despair.
- True joy comes from God: Satisfaction in life is not found in possessions or projects, but in receiving food, drink, work, and joy as gifts from God.

Ecclesiastes 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Time for Everything Under Heaven”

A Time for Every Purpose

- 1 To everything there is a season,
a time for every purpose under heaven:
 - 2 A time to be born and a time to die,
a time to plant and a time to uproot,
 - 3 A time to kill and a time to heal,
a time to tear down and a time to build up,
 - 4 A time to weep and a time to laugh,
a time to mourn and a time to dance,
 - 5 A time to scatter stones and a time to gather them,
a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing,
 - 6 A time to seek and a time to lose,
a time to keep and a time to throw away,
 - 7 A time to tear and a time to mend,
a time to be silent and a time to speak,
 - 8 A time to love and a time to hate,
a time for war and a time for peace.
-

The Work of God’s Hand

- 9 What do workers gain from their toil?
- 10 I have seen the burden God has placed on mankind.
- 11 He has made everything beautiful in its time.
He has also set eternity in the human heart, yet no one can fully grasp what God has done from beginning to end.
- 12 I know that there is nothing better for people than to rejoice and do good while they live.
- 13 That each of them may eat and drink and find satisfaction in all their labor—
this is the gift of God.

14 I know that everything God does will endure forever.
Nothing can be added to it and nothing taken from it.
God does this so that people will fear Him.

15 Whatever is has already been,
and what will be has been before;
and God will call the past into account.

God's Judgment and Human Frailty

16 Moreover, I saw under the sun that in the place of judgment, wickedness was there;
and in the place of righteousness, even there was wickedness.

17 I said in my heart, "God will judge the righteous and the wicked, for there is a time appointed for every purpose and every work."

18 I also said in my heart,
"God tests the hearts of men
so that they may see they are but like the beasts."

19 For what happens to people also happens to animals—one dies just like the other.
They all have the same breath;
so man has no advantage over the beast.
All is vanity.

20 All go to the same place;
all come from the dust,
and to dust all return.

21 Who knows if the spirit of man rises upward and if the spirit of the beast goes down into the earth?

22 So I concluded that there is nothing better for a man than to rejoice in his work, for that is his portion.
For who can bring him to see what will happen after him?

✦ Key Lessons from Ecclesiastes 3

- Life is seasonal: God has appointed a time for everything—joy and sorrow, peace and conflict, gain and loss. Nothing lasts forever except God's purposes.
- God's work is eternal: While life feels fleeting and mysterious, God's plans endure forever and are always fitting in their time.

- Enjoy God’s gifts: Food, drink, work, and simple joys are blessings from His hand. They are to be received with gratitude.
- God will judge: Though injustice is often seen on earth, God will judge both the righteous and the wicked at His appointed time.
- Human mortality humbles us: Like animals, all return to the dust. Without God, life is meaningless, but with Him, our labor gains eternal significance.

Ecclesiastes 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Vanity of Oppression, Toil, and Loneliness”

The Oppression of the Powerless

1 Again I looked and saw all the oppression done under the sun.
I saw the tears of the oppressed, but they had no comforter.
On the side of their oppressors there was power—
but still they had no comforter.

2 So I declared that the dead, who are already gone, are better off than the living, who are still alive.

3 But better than both is the one who has not yet been,
who has not seen the evil done under the sun.

The Vanity of Toil and Envy

4 Then I observed that all hard work and skill in work come from a man’s envy of his neighbor.
This too is meaningless—
a chasing after the wind.

5 The fool folds his hands and consumes his own flesh.

6 Better is one handful with peace than two handfuls with toil and chasing the wind.

The Emptiness of Lonely Labor

7 Again I saw something meaningless under the sun:

8 There was a man all alone—
he had neither son nor brother.
There was no end to his labor,

yet his eyes were never satisfied with riches.
He never asked, “For whom am I working,
and why am I depriving myself of enjoyment?”
This too is vanity—
a miserable task.

The Value of Companionship

9 Two are better than one,
because they have a good return for their labor.

10 If one falls,
the other can lift him up.
But pity the one who falls and has no one to help him up.

11 Also, if two lie down together,
they can keep warm.
But how can one be warm alone?

12 Though one may be overpowered,
two can defend themselves.
And a cord of three strands is not quickly broken.

The Vanity of Fame and Power

13 Better is a poor but wise youth than an old but foolish king who no longer listens to advice.

14 For he may come out of prison to reign,
while one born in royalty may become poor.

15 I saw all the people who lived under the sun
following the next king who succeeded him.

16 There was no end to all the people who came before him, but those who come later will not rejoice in him.
This too is meaningless—
a chasing after the wind.

✧✧ Key Lessons from Ecclesiastes 4

- Oppression is real and grievous: Without justice or comfort, the oppressed suffer deeply, reminding us of mankind's need for God's ultimate judgment and mercy.
- Envy drives toil: Many labor not from love or purpose, but from rivalry and comparison, which only leads to emptiness.
- Loneliness is misery: Wealth without relationships leaves a person hollow; companionship gives true meaning.
- The power of unity: Two are better than one for strength, warmth, and help—but a threefold cord (with God at the center) is unbreakable.
- Fame and power fade: Kings and leaders rise and fall, but the adoration of people is fleeting. Only what is rooted in God endures.

Ecclesiastes 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Reverence Before God and the Vanity of Riches”

Worship with Reverence

1 Guard your steps when you go to the house of God.
Go near to listen rather than to offer the sacrifice of fools,
for they do not realize they are doing wrong.

2 Do not be quick with your mouth,
do not be hasty in your heart to utter anything before God.
God is in heaven and you are on earth,
so let your words be few.

3 As many cares bring restless dreams,
so the speech of a fool comes with many words.

The Danger of Rash Vows

4 When you make a vow to God, do not delay in fulfilling it.
He takes no pleasure in fools—pay what you have promised.

5 It is better not to vow than to make a vow and not fulfill it.

6 Do not let your mouth lead you into sin.
Do not say before God's messenger, “My vow was a mistake.”
Why should God be angry at your words and destroy the work of your hands?

7 Many dreams and many words are meaningless.
Therefore, fear God.

Injustice and Oppression

8 If you see the poor oppressed in a province, and justice and rights denied, do not be surprised at the matter;
for one official is watched by a higher one,
and there are higher still over them.

9 The increase from the land is taken by all;
even the king profits from the fields.

The Vanity of Loving Wealth

10 Whoever loves money never has enough;
whoever loves wealth is never satisfied with his income.
This too is vanity.

11 As goods increase,
so do those who consume them.
And what benefit are they to the owner except to feast his eyes on them?

12 The sleep of the laborer is sweet, whether he eats little or much,
but the abundance of the rich keeps them from sleeping.

The Futility of Hoarded Riches

13 I have seen a terrible evil under the sun:
wealth hoarded to the harm of its owner,

14 or wealth lost through misfortune,
so that when he has a son
there is nothing left to give him.

15 Everyone comes naked from their mother's womb,
and as everyone comes, so they depart.
They take nothing from their toil that they can carry in their hands.

16 This too is a grievous evil:
As everyone comes, so they depart,
and what do they gain,
since they toil for the wind?

17 All their days they eat in darkness, with great frustration, affliction, and anger.

Enjoying God's Gifts

18 This is what I have seen to be good:
It is fitting for people to eat and drink,
and to find satisfaction in their toil under the sun
during the few days of life God has given them—for this is their portion.

19 Moreover, when God gives someone wealth and possessions, and the ability to enjoy them,
to accept their lot and be happy in their work—
this is the gift of God.

20 They seldom reflect on the days of their life, because God keeps them occupied with joy in their hearts.

✠✠ Key Lessons from Ecclesiastes 5

- Approach God with reverence: Worship is about listening and obeying, not empty words or rash promises.
- Keep your vows: God values integrity; it is better not to vow than to vow and fail.
- Wealth cannot satisfy: Riches bring more worries, more consumers, and sleepless nights—but never lasting joy.
- Life is brief and possessions fleeting: We leave the world as we entered it, with nothing in our hands.
- Joy is a gift from God: True contentment is found not in wealth itself, but in receiving and enjoying daily blessings as God's gift.

Ecclesiastes 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Vanity of Wealth and the Limits of Human Desire”

Wealth Without Enjoyment

1 There is an evil I have seen under the sun,
and it is common among mankind:

2 A man may have riches, wealth, and honor,
so that he lacks nothing his heart desires, yet God does not give him the power to enjoy it—
a stranger enjoys them instead.
This is vanity, a grievous evil.

The Futility of Long Life Without Joy

3 A man may have a hundred children and live many years, but if he finds no satisfaction in life,
and does not even receive an honorable burial,
I say that a stillborn child is better off than he.

4 For it comes in futility and departs in darkness,
and its name is shrouded in obscurity.

5 It never sees the sun or knows anything,
yet it finds more rest than that man.

6 Even if he lives a thousand years twice over,
but does not enjoy life,
do not all go to the same place?

The Dissatisfaction of Desire

7 All a man's labor is for his mouth, yet his appetite is never satisfied.

8 What advantage has the wise over the fool?
What does the poor man gain
by knowing how to conduct himself before others?

9 Better what the eyes see than the roving of desire.
This too is vanity and chasing after the wind.

The Limits of Man's Power

10 Whatever exists has already been named;
and what man is has been known.
He cannot contend with one who is stronger than he.

11 The more words, the more vanity—and what profit is there to man?

12 For who knows what is good for a person in life, during the few days of his vain life which pass like a shadow?
Who can tell him what will happen under the sun after he is gone?

✦✦ Key Lessons from Ecclesiastes 6

- Wealth without God's gift of enjoyment is empty: Prosperity means nothing if it cannot be enjoyed.
- Life without contentment is worse than death: A stillborn child has more rest than the one who lives long but never finds satisfaction.
- Desire is endless: Human appetite is never fully satisfied, showing the futility of chasing pleasure and gain.
- True gain is limited: The wise and the fool, the rich and the poor, all share the same end—death.
- God's sovereignty sets limits on man: We cannot contend with Him, nor control the future; our life is a fleeting shadow.
- Real joy comes from God alone: Without His blessing, both wealth and length of days remain vanity.

Ecclesiastes 7 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Wisdom, Mortality, and the Limits of Man”

The Value of Mortality

1 A good name is better than fine perfume, and the day of death better than the day of birth.

2 It is better to go to a house of mourning than to go to a house of feasting, for death is the destiny of every man;
the living should take this to heart.

3 Sorrow is better than laughter, for by a sad face the heart is made better.

4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning, but the heart of fools is in the house of pleasure.

Wisdom Versus Folly

5 It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise than to listen to the song of fools.

6 Like the crackling of thorns under a pot,
so is the laughter of fools.
This too is meaningless.

7 Oppression can drive the wise into madness,
and a bribe corrupts the heart.

8 The end of a matter is better than its beginning, and patience is better than pride.

9 Do not be quickly provoked in your spirit,
for anger rests in the lap of fools.

10 Do not say, "Why were the old days better than these?"
It is not wise to ask such questions.

The Strength of Wisdom

11 Wisdom, like an inheritance, is a good thing and benefits those who see the sun.

12 For wisdom is a shelter as money is a shelter, but the advantage of knowledge is this:
wisdom preserves the life of the one who has it.

13 Consider the work of God:
Who can straighten what He has made crooked?

14 When times are good, be joyful;
but when times are bad, consider:
God has made the one as well as the other,
so that no man can discover what comes after him.

The Mystery of Righteousness and Wickedness

15 In this meaningless life of mine I have seen it all:
a righteous man perishing in his righteousness,
and a wicked man living long in his wickedness.

16 Do not be overly righteous, and do not make yourself too wise—
why destroy yourself?

17 Do not be overly wicked, and do not be a fool—
why die before your time?

18 It is good to grasp the one and not let go of the other.
The one who fears God will avoid all extremes.

19 Wisdom makes one wise person more powerful than ten rulers in a city.

20 Surely there is not a righteous man on earth who does good and never sins.

Guarding the Heart

21 Do not pay attention to every word people say, or you may hear your servant cursing you.

22 For you know in your heart that many times you yourself have cursed others.

The Search for Wisdom

23 I tested all this with wisdom and said,
“I am determined to be wise”—
but it was beyond me.

24 Whatever exists is far off and most profound—who can discover it?

25 So I turned my mind to understand, to investigate and to search out wisdom
and the scheme of things, and to understand the stupidity of wickedness

and the madness of folly.

26 I found more bitter than death
the woman who is a snare,
whose heart is a trap,
and whose hands are chains.
The man who pleases God will escape her,
but the sinner will be ensnared.

The Human Condition

27 “Look,” says the Preacher, “this is what I have discovered, adding one thing to another to find the scheme of things—

28 which my soul still seeks but has not found.
One upright man among a thousand I have found,
but not one upright woman among them all.

29 This only have I found:
God made mankind upright,
but they have gone in search of many schemes.”

✠✠ Key Lessons from Ecclesiastes 7

- Mortality teaches wisdom: Funerals sober the heart more than feasts, reminding us of life’s brevity.
- Wisdom is greater than folly: The rebuke of the wise has more value than the laughter of fools.
- Patience over pride: The end of a matter brings perspective that hasty anger never can.
- Wisdom and money both protect, but wisdom gives life: Only God-given wisdom sustains the soul.
- God governs both good and bad days: Prosperity and adversity alike come from His hand.
- Avoid extremes: Neither legalism nor reckless wickedness is the way—fear of God is balance.
- Humanity is sinful by nature: God made man upright, but people chase after their own corrupt schemes.

Ecclesiastes 8 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Wisdom, Authority, and the Mystery of God’s Work”

The Radiance of Wisdom

1 Who is like the wise man?
Who knows the explanation of a matter?
Wisdom brightens a man's face,
and softens the hardness of his countenance.

Respect for Authority

2 I say: Obey the king's command, because of the oath before God.

3 Do not be hasty to leave his presence, and do not stand in an evil cause,
for he does whatever pleases him.

4 Since a king's word is supreme,
who can say to him, "What are you doing?"

5 Whoever keeps the command will know no evil thing, and the wise heart knows the proper time and judgment.

6 For every matter has its proper time and judgment, though the misery of man lies heavy upon him.

7 Since no one knows what will happen,
who can tell him what is to come?

The Limits of Human Power

8 No one has power over the spirit to retain it, nor does anyone have power over the day of death.
There is no discharge from that war,
and wickedness will not deliver those who practice it.

9 All this I observed, as I applied my heart to everything done under the sun—
a time when one man lords it over another to his own hurt.

The Fate of the Wicked

10 Then I saw the wicked buried—they used to go in and out of the holy place and were praised in the city where they had done such things.
This too is vanity.

11 Because the sentence against an evil deed is not carried out quickly,
the hearts of men are filled with schemes to do wrong.

12 Although a sinner does evil a hundred times and lives long, yet surely I know that it will go well with those who fear God, who stand in awe before Him.

13 But it will not go well with the wicked,
nor will they prolong their days like a shadow,
because they do not fear before God.

Life's Injustices

14 There is a vanity that occurs on the earth:
righteous men who receive what the wicked deserve,
and wicked men who receive what the righteous deserve.
I said, this too is meaningless.

15 So I commend joy, for there is nothing better under the sun for a man than to eat and drink and be glad.
Then joy will accompany him in his toil
all the days of life that God has given him under the sun.

The Mystery of God's Work

16 When I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to observe the tasks men are busy with on earth—day and night their eyes see no sleep—

17 I saw all the work of God:
No man can comprehend what is done under the sun.
Though he may labor to search it out,
he cannot find it;
and even if a wise man claims to know,
he cannot truly comprehend it.

✦✦ Key Lessons from Ecclesiastes 8

- Wisdom changes perspective: True wisdom gives discernment and transforms how we respond to life's difficulties.

- Respect authority but remember God rules above kings: Earthly rulers have power, but only God holds ultimate authority.
- Man’s power is limited: No one can escape death or control the spirit; wickedness cannot save in the end.
- Judgment may be delayed, but not denied: God’s justice is certain, even if sinners seem to prosper for a time.
- Life is often unfair: Sometimes the righteous suffer while the wicked prosper—but God’s final judgment will set all things right.
- Joy is a gift of God: Even in a broken world, enjoying daily blessings—food, drink, and labor—is part of God’s provision.
- God’s work is beyond full comprehension: Human wisdom has limits; God’s plan is greater than man can discover.

Ecclesiastes 9 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Same Fate for All and the Value of Wisdom”

The Hand of God Over All Things

1 So I reflected on all this and declared:
the righteous, the wise, and their deeds are in the hand of God.
Yet no one knows whether love or hatred awaits them;
all lies ahead unseen.

2 Everything happens alike to all:
the same fate comes to the righteous and the wicked,
to the good and the clean and the unclean,
to him who offers sacrifices and to him who does not.
As it is with the good man, so with the sinner;
as with the one who takes oaths, so with the one who fears them.

The Certainty of Death

3 This is the great evil under the sun:
the same event happens to all.
The hearts of men are full of evil,
and madness fills them while they live;
then afterward they join the dead.

4 But anyone who is among the living has hope—for a living dog is better than a dead lion.

5 For the living know they will die,
but the dead know nothing;
they have no more reward,
and their memory is forgotten.

6 Their love, their hatred, their envy have vanished;
never again will they share in anything done under the sun.

Embrace Life's Portion

7 Go, eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a glad heart,
for God has already approved your works.

8 Let your garments always be white;
and do not let oil be lacking on your head.

9 Enjoy life with the wife whom you love, all the days of this fleeting life that God has given you under the sun—for this is your portion in life and in the toil you labor under the sun.

10 Whatever your hand finds to do,
do it with all your strength,
for in the grave, where you are going,
there is no work or planning,
no knowledge or wisdom.

The Role of Time and Chance

11 Again I saw under the sun:
the race is not to the swift,
nor the battle to the strong,
nor bread to the wise,
nor riches to men of understanding,
nor favor to the skilled—but time and chance happen to them all.

12 Moreover, no one knows his time.
Like fish caught in a net,
or birds trapped in a snare,

so men are ensnared
when evil times fall suddenly upon them.

The Power and Fragility of Wisdom

13 I also saw this example of wisdom under the sun,
and it seemed great to me:

14 There was a small city with few men in it,
and a great king came against it,
surrounded it, and built great siegeworks against it.

15 In it was found a poor wise man,
and he by his wisdom saved the city.
Yet no one remembered that poor man.

16 Then I said:
Wisdom is better than strength,
but the wisdom of the poor is despised,
and his words are not heard.

17 The quiet words of the wise are more to be heeded
than the shouts of a ruler of fools.

18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war,
but one sinner destroys much good.

✦✦ Key Lessons from Ecclesiastes 9

- Life and death are in God's hand: Both the righteous and the wicked face the same earthly end.
- Hope belongs to the living: As long as one has breath, there is opportunity to turn to God and enjoy His gifts.
- Embrace your portion: Life's joys—food, work, companionship, marriage—are to be gratefully received as gifts from God.
- Do all with diligence: Death ends earthly opportunity; therefore, live with purpose while you have time.
- Time and chance affect all: Human strength, wisdom, or wealth cannot guarantee success; God is sovereign over outcomes.
- Wisdom has greater value than power: A poor man's wisdom can save a city, but folly can destroy much good.

- One sinner’s corruption can undo much: Wisdom builds, but sin tears down—highlighting the importance of righteousness.

Ecclesiastes 10 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Folly of Man and the Value of Wisdom”

The Power of Small Folly

1 Dead flies make the perfumer’s ointment give off a foul stench;
so a little folly outweighs wisdom and honor.

2 A wise man’s heart is at his right hand,
but a fool’s heart is at his left.

3 Even when the fool walks on the road, he lacks sense, and he tells everyone that he is a fool.

Wisdom in the Face of Authority

4 If the spirit of the ruler rises against you,
do not leave your place,
for calmness will lay great offenses to rest.

5 There is an evil I have seen under the sun,
as an error proceeding from a ruler:

6 Folly is set in many high places,
while the rich sit in a low place.

7 I have seen servants on horses,
and princes walking on the ground like servants.

The Consequences of Careless Actions

8 He who digs a pit may fall into it, and he who breaks through a wall may be bitten by a serpent.

9 He who quarries stones is hurt by them,
and he who splits logs is endangered by them.

10 If the iron is blunt and one does not sharpen the edge,
he must use more strength,
but wisdom helps one to succeed.

11 If the serpent bites before it is charmed,
there is no advantage to the charmer.

The Speech of the Wise and the Foolish

12 The words of a wise man's mouth win him favor, but the lips of a fool consume him.

13 The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness, and the end of his talk is evil madness.

14 A fool multiplies words, though no man knows what is to be,
and who can tell him what will be after him?

15 The toil of a fool wearies him, for he does not even know the way to the city.

Wise and Foolish Rulers

16 Woe to you, O land, when your king is a child, and your princes feast in the morning!

17 Blessed are you, O land, when your king is the son of the noble, and your princes feast at the proper time,
for strength, and not for drunkenness!

18 Through sloth the roof sinks in,
and through idleness the house leaks.

19 Bread is made for laughter,
and wine gladdens life,
and money answers everything.

20 Even in your thoughts, do not curse the king,
nor in your bedroom curse the rich,
for a bird of the air will carry your voice,
and some winged creature will tell the matter.

✦✦ Key Lessons from Ecclesiastes 10

- A little folly ruins much good: One small act of foolishness can destroy the honor of a lifetime of wisdom.
- Wisdom brings stability: Calmness and prudence can pacify anger and preserve peace, even in the presence of rulers.

- Carelessness brings danger: Work without caution leads to harm; wisdom directs safe and effective effort.
- Words reveal the heart: The wise speak with grace; the fool exposes himself by endless, destructive talk.
- Leadership matters: A land suffers under childish, indulgent rulers but flourishes under noble and disciplined ones.
- Diligence prevents decay: Neglect and laziness bring ruin to homes, nations, and lives.
- Guard your thoughts and words: Even secret curses may come to light; God calls for reverence and restraint.

Ecclesiastes 11 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Uncertainty of Life and the Call to Joy”

The Call to Generosity

1 Cast your bread upon the waters, for after many days you will find it again.

2 Give portions to seven, yes, even to eight,
for you do not know what disaster may come upon the land.

The Unpredictability of Life

3 If the clouds are full of rain, they pour it down upon the earth;
and whether a tree falls to the south or to the north,
in the place where it falls, there it will lie.

4 Whoever watches the wind will not sow,
and whoever looks at the clouds will not reap.

5 As you do not know the path of the wind, or how the bones are formed in the womb of a woman with child,
so you cannot understand the work of God,
the Maker of all things.

The Call to Diligence

6 Sow your seed in the morning, and at evening let not your hands be idle,

for you do not know which will succeed,
whether this or that,
or whether both will do equally well.

The Blessing of Light and the Reality of Darkness

7 Truly, the light is sweet, and it is pleasant for the eyes to see the sun.

8 However many years a man may live,
let him rejoice in them all.
But let him remember the days of darkness,
for they will be many.
Everything to come is vanity.

The Joy and Responsibility of Youth

9 Rejoice, young man, in your youth, and let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth.
Follow the ways of your heart and whatever your eyes see,
but know that for all these things
God will bring you into judgment.

10 So then, banish sorrow from your heart, and put away evil from your body,
for youth and the prime of life are vanity.

✦✦ Key Lessons from Ecclesiastes 11

- Be generous and trust God: Giving to others in faith leads to blessings in due time.
- Don't wait for perfect conditions: Overanalyzing delays obedience and fruitfulness; act in faith despite uncertainty.
- Life is fragile and unpredictable: Only God knows the mysteries of creation and providence.
- Rejoice in the gift of life: Enjoy each day as a blessing from God while recognizing the brevity of time.
- Youth is a gift with accountability: God calls the young to joy, but also to remember that their choices will be judged.

Ecclesiastes 12 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Remember Your Creator and Fear God”

Remember Your Creator in Youth

1 Remember your Creator in the days of your youth, before the evil days come and the years draw near when you say, “I have no pleasure in them.”

2 Before the sun, the light, the moon, and the stars are darkened, and the clouds return after the rain.

The Decline of Old Age

3 In the day when the keepers of the house tremble, and the strong men bow themselves,
when the grinders are few and cease,
and those who look through the windows grow dim.

4 The doors are shut in the streets, and the sound of grinding is low;
one rises at the sound of a bird,
yet all the daughters of music are brought low.

5 They are afraid of heights, and terrors are in the way;
the almond tree blossoms,
the grasshopper drags itself along,
and desire fails.

For man goes to his eternal home,
and mourners go about the streets.

6 Before the silver cord is snapped,
the golden bowl is broken,
the pitcher shattered at the spring,
and the wheel broken at the well.

7 Then the dust returns to the earth as it was,
and the spirit returns to God who gave it.

The Final Word on Life's Vanity

8 “Vanity of vanities,” says the Preacher,
“all is vanity.”

The Preacher's Wisdom and Instruction

9 Because the Preacher was wise,
he continued to teach the people knowledge.
He weighed, explored, and set in order many proverbs.

10 The Preacher sought to find delightful words, and uprightly he wrote words of truth.

11 The words of the wise are like goads, like firmly embedded nails,
given by one Shepherd.

12 And further, my son, be warned:
of making many books there is no end,
and much study wearies the flesh.

The Conclusion of the Matter

13 Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter:
Fear God and keep His commandments,
for this is the whole duty of man.

14 For God will bring every work into judgment, including every hidden thing,
whether good or evil.

✦✦ Key Lessons from Ecclesiastes 12

- Remember God early: Serving and honoring God in youth lays a foundation before life's hardships increase.
- Life fades with age: The imagery of trembling, dim eyes, and fading strength reminds us of human frailty.
- Death is inevitable: The body returns to dust, but the spirit returns to God, the Giver of life.
- Human wisdom is limited: Many books and endless study cannot satisfy the soul without God.
- The true conclusion of life: Our ultimate duty is to fear God and keep His commandments.

- Final judgment is certain: God will evaluate every deed—whether open or secret, good or evil.

Introduction to the Book of Song of Solomon

“Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth: for thy love is better than wine.” – Song of Solomon 1:2

Title and Meaning

The title Song of Solomon (also called the Song of Songs) means “the greatest of songs.” In Hebrew, it is Shir HaShirim, literally translated “Song of Songs,” following the Hebrew pattern of expressing the superlative (as in “King of kings” or “Holy of holies”). This title emphasizes that this is Solomon’s finest song out of the 1,005 songs attributed to him (1 Kings 4:32). The book is a poetic masterpiece celebrating love, intimacy, and covenant devotion.

Author and Date

Tradition holds that King Solomon wrote the Song, likely in his early reign during the 10th century BC. The language, imagery, and references to royal wealth and splendor fit well with Solomon’s era. Some interpreters suggest it may have been compiled or edited later, but the strong internal evidence supports its Solomonic authorship.

Purpose of Song of Solomon

Song of Solomon serves several purposes in Scripture:

- To celebrate the beauty of marital love as a gift from God.
 - To illustrate the sanctity of covenant faithfulness between husband and wife.
 - To foreshadow Christ’s love for His Church, as later reflected in passages such as Ephesians 5:25–32 and Revelation 19:7–9.
 - To remind readers that intimacy, rightly expressed within marriage, is both pure and God-honoring.
-

Structure of Song of Solomon

The book is a lyrical dialogue, moving between the voices of the Bride (the Shulammitte woman), the Bridegroom (Solomon), and occasionally a chorus of companions. While it is difficult to divide strictly, the flow of the song can be outlined as follows:

1. The Longing of Love (Ch. 1:1–2:7)

Expressions of desire and admiration between the beloved and her lover.

2. The Blossoming of Love (Ch. 2:8–3:5)

Courtship imagery with anticipation of union.

3. The Joy of Union (Ch. 3:6–5:1)

Wedding procession and marital consummation.

4. The Struggles and Separation of Love (Ch. 5:2–6:3)

The bride experiences distance and renewed longing.

5. The Beauty of Devotion (Ch. 6:4–8:4)

Poetic praise of the beloved's beauty and uniqueness.

6. The Power of Love (Ch. 8:5–14)

The climactic declaration that love is as strong as death, enduring and unquenchable.

Major Themes

- Love and Marriage: Human love, passion, and intimacy are gifts from God when expressed within His design.
 - Faithfulness: True love thrives in commitment and covenant loyalty.
 - Beauty and Desire: The delight of romantic love reflects the Creator's good design.
 - Christ and the Church (spiritual theme): The love between bride and groom foreshadows Christ's sacrificial, eternal love for His people.
 - The Power of Love: Genuine love is enduring, unstoppable, and divine in origin.
-

Why Song of Solomon Matters Today

In a world that often distorts or cheapens love, Song of Solomon restores a biblical vision of intimacy as sacred, beautiful, and enduring. It affirms the holiness of marriage and calls believers to purity, passion, and covenant faithfulness. Spiritually, it also points to the greater reality of God's love in Christ—a love stronger than death, eternal and redemptive.

Key Verse

“Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it: if a man would give all the substance of his house for love, it would utterly be contemned.” – Song of Solomon 8:7

This verse captures the heart of the book: true love is priceless, powerful, and unquenchable, reflecting the very love of God.

Song of Solomon 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Beauty of Love”

The Bride’s Desire

1 This is Solomon’s song of songs, the most beautiful of all his songs.

2 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth, for your love is sweeter than wine.

3 Your fragrance is pleasing;
your name is like perfume poured out.
That is why young women love you.

4 Take me with you, let us run together!
The king has brought me into his rooms.
We will be glad and rejoice in you.
We will remember your love more than wine.
Rightly do they love you!

The Bride’s Humility

5 I am dark but lovely,
O daughters of Jerusalem—
like the tents of Kedar,
like the curtains of Solomon.

6 Do not stare at me because I am dark,
for the sun has tanned me.
My mother’s sons were angry with me;
they made me keeper of the vineyards,
but my own vineyard I have not kept.

The Bride Seeks Her Beloved

7 Tell me, you whom my soul loves, where do you graze your flock,
and where do you rest them at noon?
Why should I wander like one veiled, beside the flocks of your companions?

The Groom’s Reply

8 If you do not know, most beautiful of women, follow the tracks of the sheep,
and feed your young goats
near the shepherds’ tents.

The Groom's Praise

9 I compare you, my darling, to a mare among Pharaoh's chariots.
10 Your cheeks are lovely with ornaments,
your neck with strings of jewels.
11 We will make for you ornaments of gold, studded with silver.

The Bride's Admiration

12 While the king was at his table,
my perfume spread its fragrance.
13 My beloved is to me a sachet of myrrh that lies between my breasts.
14 My beloved is to me a cluster of henna blossoms in the vineyards of En Gedi.

The Groom and Bride Delight in Each Other

15 Behold, you are beautiful, my darling;
behold, you are beautiful!
Your eyes are like doves.
16 Behold, you are handsome, my beloved,
yes, pleasing!
Our bed is verdant and fresh.
17 The beams of our house are cedar,
and our rafters are fir.

✦✦ Key Lessons from Song of Solomon 1

- Love is a gift from God: True love is sweet, delightful, and worth celebrating.
- Beauty is more than appearance: The bride's humility shows that love values the heart above outward looks.
- Mutual admiration strengthens love: The bride and groom honor and praise one another, building intimacy.
- Love brings joy and refreshment: Like perfume, wine, and fresh greenery, love is life-giving and refreshing.
- Christ and the Church: Many see in this love song a picture of Christ's love for His people—faithful, joyful, and pure.

Song of Solomon 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Love’s Beauty and Invitation”

The Bride’s Identity

1 I am a rose of Sharon,
a lily of the valleys.

The Groom’s Praise

2 Like a lily among thorns,
so is my love among the young women.

The Bride’s Delight in Her Beloved

3 Like an apple tree among the forest trees, so is my beloved among the young men.

I delight to sit in his shade,
and his fruit is sweet to my taste.

4 He brought me into the banquet hall,
and his banner over me was love.

5 Strengthen me with raisins,
refresh me with apples,
for I am weak with love.

6 His left hand is under my head, and his right hand embraces me.

The Bride’s Charge

7 I charge you, daughters of Jerusalem,
by the gazelles and the does of the field:
Do not stir up or awaken love
until it pleases.

The Bride Hears Her Beloved

8 The voice of my beloved! Look, he comes, leaping over the mountains,
skipping over the hills.

9 My beloved is like a gazelle or a young stag.
Look, he stands behind our wall,
gazing through the windows,
showing himself through the lattice.

The Groom's Invitation

10 My beloved spoke and said to me:
“Rise up, my love, my beautiful one,
and come away.

11 For the winter is past,
the rain is over and gone.

12 Flowers appear on the earth,
the time of singing has come,
and the voice of the dove is heard in our land.

13 The fig tree ripens its figs,
and the vines give off their fragrance.
Rise up, my love, my beautiful one,
and come away.”

The Groom's Desire for His Bride

14 O my dove, in the clefts of the rock, in the hidden places of the cliffs,
let me see your face,
let me hear your voice;
for your voice is sweet,
and your face is lovely.

Protecting Their Love

15 Catch the foxes for us—
the little foxes that ruin the vineyards, for our vineyards are in bloom.

The Bride's Joy

16 My beloved is mine, and I am his;
he grazes among the lilies.

17 Until the day breaks
and the shadows flee away,
turn, my beloved,
and be like a gazelle or a young stag
on the rugged mountains.

✧✧ Key Lessons from Song of Solomon 2

- Love is pure and set apart: True love is like a lily among thorns—distinct and beautiful in a world full of distractions.

- Love provides shelter and refreshment: The beloved's shade and fruit show how love gives both comfort and delight.
- Love must not be forced: The bride warns not to awaken love before its time, teaching patience and God's timing in relationships.
- Seasons of renewal: Just as winter passes and spring arrives, love flourishes in its proper season.
- Guard your love: The foxes represent small problems or temptations that can spoil relationships if left unchecked.
- Union in love: The bride's words, "My beloved is mine, and I am his," reflect security, intimacy, and mutual devotion.

Song of Solomon 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

"The Bride Finds Her Beloved"

The Bride's Search

1 At night on my bed I looked for the one my soul loves;

I looked for him, but I did not find him.

2 So I will get up now and go about the city,

through the streets and the squares;

I will look for the one my soul loves.

I looked for him, but I did not find him.

3 The watchmen found me as they patrolled the city.

I asked them, "Have you seen the one my soul loves?"

4 Hardly had I passed by them,

when I found the one my soul loves.

I held him and would not let him go until I had brought him into my mother's house, into the room of her who conceived me.

The Bride's Charge

5 I charge you, daughters of Jerusalem,

by the gazelles and by the does of the field:

Do not stir up or awaken love

until it pleases.

The Procession of Solomon

The Bride Beholds Solomon's Splendor

6 Who is this coming up from the wilderness
like columns of smoke,
perfumed with myrrh and frankincense,
with all the fragrant powders of the merchant?

7 Look! It is Solomon's carriage, escorted by sixty mighty men,
the best warriors of Israel.

8 All of them carry swords,
skilled in battle,
each with his sword at his side,
ready for the terrors of the night.

The Royal Carriage

9 King Solomon made a carriage for himself from the wood of Lebanon.

10 He made its posts of silver,
its base of gold,
its seat upholstered with purple.
Its interior was lovingly inlaid
by the daughters of Jerusalem.

The King's Joy

11 Come out, daughters of Zion, and look at King Solomon, wearing the crown his mother gave him
on the day of his wedding,
the day his heart rejoiced.

✦✦ Key Lessons from Song of Solomon 3

- Love longs to find its beloved: The bride's search shows the deep yearning of the heart for true love.
- Perseverance in seeking: Though she did not find him at first, she continued searching until she did—teaching us to persist in what we truly value.
- Love must be guarded: The repeated warning not to awaken love before its time emphasizes patience and God's timing.
- Christ-like imagery: Just as Solomon appears in splendor, escorted by mighty men, Christ the King comes in majesty, surrounded by power and glory.

- Marriage is a day of joy: Solomon's crown at his wedding represents the beauty and gladness of covenant love.

Song of Solomon 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Beauty of the Bride”

The Groom's Praise

1 How beautiful you are, my love!
How very beautiful!
Your eyes are like doves behind your veil.
Your hair falls like a flock of goats streaming down Mount Gilead.

2 Your teeth are like a flock of sheep,
just shorn and freshly washed;
each one has a twin,
not one of them is missing.

3 Your lips are like a scarlet thread,
and your mouth is lovely.
Your cheeks behind your veil
are like a slice of pomegranate.

4 Your neck is like the tower of David,
built with rows of stone;
on it hang a thousand shields,
all belonging to mighty warriors.

5 Your two breasts are like twin fawns of a gazelle, grazing among the lilies.

6 Until the day breaks
and the shadows flee away,
I will go to the mountain of myrrh and to the hill of frankincense.

7 You are altogether beautiful, my love;
there is no flaw in you.

The Groom Invites His Bride

8 Come with me from Lebanon, my bride, come with me from Lebanon.
Look from the peaks of Amana, from the top of Senir and Hermon,

from the lions' dens
and from the mountains of leopards.

9 You have captured my heart, my sister, my bride;
you have stolen my heart
with one glance of your eyes,
with a single jewel of your necklace.

10 How delightful is your love, my sister, my bride!
Your love is better than wine, and the fragrance of your perfume is better than any spice.

11 Your lips, my bride,
drip sweetness like the honeycomb;
honey and milk are under your tongue,
and the scent of your garments is like the fragrance of Lebanon.

The Bride as a Garden

12 My sister, my bride, is a locked garden,
a sealed spring, a hidden fountain.

13 Your plants are an orchard of pomegranates with choice fruits,
with henna and spikenard,
14 with saffron, calamus, and cinnamon, with all kinds of incense trees,
with myrrh and aloes,
and all the finest spices.

15 You are a garden fountain,
a well of living water, flowing streams from Lebanon.

The Bride's Invitation

16 Awake, O north wind, and come, O south wind.
Blow upon my garden
so its fragrance may spread abroad.

Let my beloved come into his garden and taste its choice fruits.

✦✦ Key Lessons from Song of Solomon 4

- Love admires beauty deeply: The groom’s detailed praise shows that true love notices and cherishes even the smallest features.
- Purity and protection matter: The bride is described as a locked garden, symbolizing purity, devotion, and exclusivity in love.
- Love is mutual delight: The groom finds joy in his bride’s love, which is sweeter than wine and more fragrant than spices.
- Godly marriage reflects intimacy and delight: Just as the bride invites her beloved into her garden, marriage is a place of union, joy, and shared love.
- Living water imagery points to Christ: The bride as a fountain of living waters reminds us of Christ, who offers eternal life to His people (John 4:14).

Song of Solomon 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Bride’s Longing and Praise for Her Beloved”

The Groom’s Delight

1 I have come into my garden, my sister, my bride;
I have gathered my myrrh with my spice,
I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey,
I have drunk my wine with my milk.
Eat, friends;
drink and be filled with love.

The Bride Misses Her Beloved

2 I slept, but my heart was awake.
It was the voice of my beloved—he was knocking:
“Open to me, my sister, my love,
my dove, my perfect one.
My head is wet with dew,
my hair with the dampness of the night.”

3 But I said, “I have taken off my robe;
how can I put it back on?”

I have washed my feet;
must I dirty them again?"

4 My beloved reached his hand through the latch, and my heart leaped for him.

5 I rose to open for my beloved,
and my hands dripped with myrrh,
my fingers with sweet-smelling myrrh
on the handles of the bolt.

6 I opened to my beloved,
but he had turned and was gone.
My heart sank when he left.
I sought him, but did not find him;
I called, but he gave no answer.

7 The watchmen found me as they made their rounds in the city.
They struck me, they wounded me;
the guards of the walls
took away my veil.

8 I charge you, daughters of Jerusalem:
if you find my beloved,
tell him I am lovesick.

The Daughters Question the Bride

9 "What is your beloved more than another beloved,
O most beautiful of women?
What is your beloved more than another beloved,
that you should charge us so strongly?"

The Bride Praises Her Beloved

10 My beloved is radiant and ruddy, distinguished among ten thousand.

11 His head is purest gold;
his hair is wavy, black as a raven.

12 His eyes are like doves
by streams of water,
washed with milk,
set like jewels.

13 His cheeks are like a garden of spices,
like beds of fragrant herbs.

His lips are like lilies,
dripping with sweet myrrh.

14 His hands are like gold rings set with gems of beryl.

His body is like polished ivory, decorated with sapphires.

15 His legs are like marble pillars set on bases of pure gold.

His appearance is like Lebanon, majestic as the cedars.

16 His mouth is sweetness itself;
yes, he is altogether lovely.

This is my beloved, and this is my friend,
O daughters of Jerusalem.

✦✦ Key Lessons from Song of Solomon 5

- Love delights in intimacy: The groom enjoys his garden (symbol of the bride), showing the joy of marital union.
- Delayed response can bring regret: The bride hesitated to open the door, and when she did, her beloved was gone—a reminder to cherish opportunities for love and closeness.
- Love endures hardship: Even when struck by watchmen, the bride’s devotion did not waver.
- True love is unique: When questioned, the bride described her beloved’s beauty and character, showing that genuine love sees no equal.
- Christ and the Church: Many see this as a picture of longing for Christ—sometimes He seems distant, yet He is altogether lovely and faithful to His people.

Song of Solomon 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Beauty and Uniqueness of Love”

The Daughters Seek the Beloved

1 Where has your beloved gone,
O most beautiful among women?
Where has your beloved turned aside,
that we may seek him with you?

The Bride's Confidence

2 My beloved has gone down to his garden,
to the beds of spices,
to browse in the gardens
and to gather lilies.

3 I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine;
he grazes among the lilies.

The Groom's Praise

4 You are beautiful, my love,
as lovely as Tirzah,
as splendid as Jerusalem,
majestic as an army with banners.

5 Turn your eyes away from me,
for they overwhelm me.
Your hair is like a flock of goats descending from Gilead.

6 Your teeth are like a flock of sheep
coming up from the washing,
each has its twin,
and not one of them is missing.

7 Your temples behind your veil
are like a slice of pomegranate.

8 Sixty queens there may be,
and eighty concubines,
and young women without number.

9 But my dove, my perfect one, is unique.
She is her mother's only daughter,
the favorite of the one who bore her.
The young women saw her and called her blessed;
the queens and concubines praised her.

The Bride's Radiance

10 Who is this who looks like the dawn, fair as the moon,
bright as the sun,
majestic as an army with banners?

11 I went down to the grove of nut trees to see the new growth in the valley, to see if the vines had budded
or the pomegranates were in bloom.

12 Before I realized it, my desire had set me among the royal chariots of my people.

The Daughters Call to the Bride

13 Return, return, O Shulamite; return, return, that we may look at you!

The Bride's Dignity

Why should you gaze at the Shulamite, as at the dance of two armies?

✦✦ Key Lessons from Song of Solomon 6

- Love is secure: The bride confidently declares, “I am my beloved’s, and my beloved is mine,” showing the stability of true commitment.
- Love sees uniqueness: Though surrounded by queens and maidens, the groom sees his bride as the one and only, cherished above all.
- True beauty shines brightly: The bride is compared to the dawn, the moon, and the sun—images of radiance and purity.
- Love draws admiration: Others look at the bride and praise her, showing that genuine love reflects outwardly for all to see.
- Christ and the Church: The uniqueness of the bride reflects how the Church is chosen and beloved of Christ, set apart from the world.

Song of Solomon 7 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Delight in Each Other’s Love”

The Groom’s Praise of the Bride

1 How beautiful are your feet in sandals,
O noble daughter!
The curves of your thighs are like jewels,
the work of a master craftsman.

2 Your navel is like a rounded bowl that never lacks wine.

Your belly is like a heap of wheat, surrounded with lilies.

3 Your two breasts are like twin fawns,
the young of a gazelle.

4 Your neck is like a tower of ivory.
Your eyes are like the pools in Heshbon,
by the gate of Bath-rabbim.

Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon overlooking Damascus.

5 Your head crowns you like Mount Carmel.
Your hair is like royal purple;
the king is captivated by its waves.

6 How beautiful and pleasant you are,
O love, full of delights!

7 Your stature is like a palm tree,
and your breasts like clusters of fruit.

8 I said, "I will climb the palm tree;
I will take hold of its branches.
May your breasts be like grape clusters,
and the fragrance of your breath like apples.

9 May your mouth be like the best wine—flowing smoothly for my beloved, gliding gently over lips and teeth."

The Bride's Response

10 I am my beloved's,
and his desire is for me.

11 Come, my beloved,
let us go out to the fields,
let us spend the night in the villages.

12 Let us rise early and go to the vineyards, to see if the vines have budded,
if the blossoms have opened,
and the pomegranates are in bloom—
there I will give you my love.

13 The mandrakes send out their fragrance, and at our door are all kinds of choice fruits,
both new and old,
which I have stored up for you, my beloved.

✧✧ Key Lessons from Song of Solomon 7

- Love praises freely: The groom’s detailed admiration shows how love builds up by speaking beauty into the one we cherish.
- Mutual belonging: The bride declares again, “I am my beloved’s,” showing the security of commitment in marriage.
- Love is to be enjoyed together: The bride invites her beloved into the fields and vineyards, showing that love flourishes in shared life and experiences.
- Romance and devotion: The images of fruit, fragrance, and wine reflect joy, refreshment, and intimacy in a godly marriage.
- Prepared devotion: The bride treasures her love, storing up “new and old” fruits, reminding us that love requires effort, memory, and fresh devotion.

Song of Solomon 8 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Power of Love”

The Bride’s Desire for Intimacy

1 Oh, that you were like my brother, nursed at my mother’s breasts!
Then, if I found you outside, I would kiss you,
and no one would despise me.

2 I would lead you and bring you into my mother’s house—
she who taught me.
I would give you spiced wine to drink,
the juice of my pomegranates.

3 His left hand would be under my head, and his right hand would embrace me.

4 I charge you, daughters of Jerusalem:
do not stir up or awaken love
until it pleases.

The Strength of Love

5 Who is this coming up from the wilderness,
leaning on her beloved?

Under the apple tree I awakened you;
there your mother conceived you;
there she who gave you birth brought you forth.

6 Set me as a seal upon your heart,
as a seal upon your arm.
For love is as strong as death,
and jealousy is as unyielding as the grave.
Its flames are flames of fire,
a most intense flame.

7 Many waters cannot quench love, neither can floods drown it.
If a man were to give all the wealth of his house for love,
he would be utterly despised.

Protecting Purity

8 We have a little sister,
and she has no breasts.
What shall we do for our sister on the day she is spoken for?

9 If she is a wall,
we will build on her a tower of silver.
If she is a door,
we will enclose her with panels of cedar.

10 I am a wall,
and my breasts are like towers.
So I became in his eyes
as one who brings peace.

The Bride's Vineyard

11 Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-hamon;
he rented out the vineyard to keepers.
Each was to bring a thousand pieces of silver for its fruit.

12 But my vineyard, which is mine to give,
is before me.

You, O Solomon, may have the thousand,
and the keepers of the fruit two hundred.

Closing Invitation

13 You who dwell in the gardens, friends are listening for your voice—let me hear it!

14 Make haste, my beloved,
and be like a gazelle or a young stag
on the mountains of spices.

✦✦ Key Lessons from Song of Solomon 8

- Love is intimate and unashamed: The bride desires closeness with her beloved that is unhindered by cultural barriers or fear of judgment.
- Love is strong and unquenchable: True love is described as powerful as death, unyielding as the grave, and impossible to extinguish with waters or floods.
- Love is priceless: No amount of wealth can buy or replace genuine love.
- Purity must be guarded: The imagery of the “little sister” reminds us of protecting innocence until the right time of marriage.
- Belonging and devotion: The seal upon the heart and arm shows that love is both inward and outward—a total commitment.
- Christ and His Bride: Just as the beloved leans on her lover, so the Church leans on Christ, longing for His return with urgency and joy.

📖 Introduction to the Book of Isaiah

“Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of His glory!” – Isaiah 6:3

Title and Meaning

The name Isaiah comes from the Hebrew Yesha‘yahu, meaning “The Lord is salvation.” This theme of salvation runs throughout the book, making Isaiah one of the most Christ-centered books in the Old Testament. Often called the “Gospel of the Old Testament,” Isaiah proclaims both judgment and redemption, pointing clearly to the coming Messiah.

Author and Date

Isaiah, son of Amoz, is traditionally regarded as the author of the book that bears his name. He ministered as a prophet in Judah for about 60 years, from approximately 740–680 BC, during the reigns of Kings Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah (Isaiah 1:1).

Isaiah's ministry came during a time of political upheaval, moral decline, and the looming threat of Assyrian invasion. His prophecies range from warnings of judgment against Judah and the nations to glorious visions of the future reign of the Messiah.

Purpose of Isaiah

Isaiah's prophecy serves as both a warning and a hope:

- To warn Judah and surrounding nations of the coming judgment because of sin.
- To call God's people to repentance and faith in the Holy One of Israel.
- To reveal God's plan of redemption through His Servant, the Messiah.
- To encourage the faithful with visions of restoration, peace, and God's eternal kingdom.

Isaiah demonstrates that God is both just and merciful — He judges sin but also offers salvation through His anointed one.

Structure of Isaiah

Isaiah is often compared to a “miniature Bible”: 66 chapters corresponding to the Bible's 66 books.

📖 Chapters 1–39: Judgment and Warning

- Prophecies against Judah, Israel, and the nations.
- Historical accounts of Assyrian threats.
- God's call for repentance and trust in Him, not in foreign alliances.

† Chapters 40–66: Comfort and Hope

- Promises of restoration after exile.
 - The Servant Songs, pointing to the suffering and triumph of the Messiah (Isaiah 42, 49, 50, 53).
 - Visions of the new heavens and new earth (Isaiah 65–66).
-

Major Themes

- The Holiness of God: God is the “Holy One of Israel,” exalted in majesty and purity.

- Sin and Judgment: Isaiah confronts idolatry, injustice, and hypocrisy.
 - Messiah and Salvation: Clear prophecies of the coming Christ — His virgin birth (Isaiah 7:14), His deity (Isaiah 9:6), His suffering (Isaiah 53), and His eternal reign.
 - Faith and Trust in God: Judah is urged to rely on God rather than human strength or political alliances.
 - Future Glory: Isaiah points to the restoration of Israel and the coming kingdom where peace and righteousness will reign.
-

Why Isaiah Matters Today

Isaiah speaks powerfully to our world of turmoil and uncertainty:

- It reminds us of God’s holiness and justice in confronting sin.
- It assures us of God’s plan of salvation through Jesus Christ, foretold 700 years before His birth.
- It calls us to trust God in times of crisis, rather than relying on worldly solutions.
- It offers hope in the promise of a future kingdom of peace, joy, and righteousness.

For Christians, Isaiah deepens our understanding of Christ’s mission, suffering, and ultimate victory.

Key Verse

“Therefore the Lord Himself will give you a sign: Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a Son, and shall call His name Immanuel.” – Isaiah 7:14

This prophecy points directly to Jesus Christ, God with us, the ultimate fulfillment of Isaiah’s message: The Lord is salvation.

Isaiah 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Rebellious Nation and God’s Call to Repentance”

Isaiah’s Vision

1 This is the vision of Isaiah son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem during the reigns of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

God’s Complaint Against His People

2 Hear, O heavens, and listen, O earth!

For the Lord has spoken:

“I raised children and brought them up,
but they have rebelled against Me.

3 Even the ox knows its owner,
and the donkey its master’s manger,
but Israel does not know Me;
My people do not understand.”

4 Oh, sinful nation,
a people weighed down with guilt,
offspring of evildoers,
children who act corruptly!
They have abandoned the Lord;
they have despised the Holy One of Israel;
they have turned their backs on Him.

The Sickness of Sin

5 Why should you be beaten anymore?
You only continue to rebel.
The whole head is sick,
and the whole heart is faint.

6 From the sole of the foot to the top of the head,
there is no health—
only wounds, bruises, and sores, not cleansed, bandaged, or treated with oil.

7 Your land is desolate,
your cities are burned with fire;
foreigners devour your fields before your eyes,
a wasteland, overthrown by strangers.

8 The daughter of Zion is left like a shelter in a vineyard, like a hut in a field of melons,
like a city under siege.

9 If the Lord of hosts had not left us a few survivors,
we would have become like Sodom,
we would have been like Gomorrah.

Empty Religion

10 Hear the word of the Lord, you rulers of Sodom;
listen to the law of our God, you people of Gomorrah!

11 “What is the purpose of your many sacrifices to Me?” says the Lord.
“I am full of the burnt offerings of rams and the fat of well-fed cattle.
I take no pleasure in the blood of bulls, lambs, or goats.

12 When you come to appear before Me, who has required this of you—
this trampling of My courts?

13 Stop bringing meaningless offerings!
Your incense is detestable to Me.
New moons, Sabbaths, and convocations—
I cannot bear your wicked assemblies.

14 Your new moon feasts and your appointed festivals
My soul hates.
They have become a burden to Me;
I am weary of bearing them.

15 When you spread out your hands in prayer,
I will hide My eyes from you.
Even though you multiply prayers,
I will not listen.
Your hands are full of blood.

A Call to Repentance

16 Wash yourselves; make yourselves clean.
Remove your evil deeds from My sight.
Stop doing wrong.

17 Learn to do good.
Seek justice.
Defend the oppressed.
Take up the cause of the fatherless.
Plead the case of the widow.

18 “Come now, let us reason together,”
says the Lord.
“Though your sins are like scarlet,
they shall be as white as snow.

Though they are red like crimson,
they shall become like wool.

19 If you are willing and obedient,
you will eat the good things of the land.

20 But if you resist and rebel,
you will be devoured by the sword.
For the mouth of the Lord has spoken.”

The Corruption of Jerusalem

21 How the faithful city has become a prostitute!
She was once full of justice;
righteousness lived in her,
but now—murderers.

22 Your silver has become dross,
your wine diluted with water.

23 Your rulers are rebels, companions of thieves.
Everyone loves a bribe
and chases after rewards.
They do not defend the orphan,
and the widow’s case never comes before them.

God’s Promise of Purging and Restoration

24 Therefore the Lord, the Lord of hosts,
the Mighty One of Israel, declares:
“Ah! I will vent My wrath on My enemies and avenge Myself on My foes.

25 I will turn My hand against you;
I will thoroughly purge away your impurities and remove all your dross.

26 I will restore your judges as in the beginning, and your counselors as at first.
Afterward you will be called the City of Righteousness,
the Faithful City.”

27 Zion will be redeemed with justice, her repentant ones with righteousness.

28 But rebels and sinners together will be crushed, and those who forsake the Lord will perish.

The Shame of Idolatry

29 For you will be ashamed of the sacred oaks you desired;
you will be embarrassed because of the gardens you chose.

30 You will be like an oak with fading leaves,
like a garden without water.

31 The strong will become like tinder, and their work like a spark;
both will burn together,
with no one to quench the fire.

✦✦ Key Lessons from Isaiah 1

- Sin breaks God's heart: Israel is pictured as rebellious children who turned against their loving Father.
- Empty religion is worthless: God rejects rituals without righteousness and prayers without repentance.
- Repentance brings forgiveness: Though sins are scarlet, God offers to wash them white as snow.
- True worship requires justice: Caring for the oppressed, orphan, and widow reflects God's heart.
- God purges to restore: Though judgment comes, God promises to refine His people and restore righteousness.
- Love stronger than wrath: Even in judgment, God offers mercy and hope for redemption.

Isaiah 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord's Mountain and the Pride of Man”

The Mountain of the Lord's House

1 This is the word that Isaiah son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

2 In the last days, the mountain of the Lord's house will be established as the highest of the mountains, lifted above the hills. All nations will flow to it.

3 Many peoples will come and say,
"Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord,
to the house of the God of Jacob.
He will teach us His ways,
and we will walk in His paths."
For the law will go out from Zion, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

4 He will judge between the nations and settle disputes for many peoples.
They will beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks.
Nation will not take up sword against nation,
nor will they train for war anymore.

5 House of Jacob, come, let us walk in the light of the Lord.

The Lord Rejects Pride and Idols

6 Lord, You have abandoned Your people, the house of Jacob, because they are filled with practices from the East and follow fortune-tellers like the Philistines.
They make deals with foreigners.

7 Their land is full of silver and gold;
there is no end to their treasures.
Their land is full of horses;
there is no end to their chariots.

8 Their land is full of idols;
they bow down to the work of their own hands,
to what their own fingers have made.

9 So people will be brought low,
and mankind humbled—
do not forgive them!

The Terror of the Lord's Day

10 Go into the rocks, hide in the dust

from the fear of the Lord
and the splendor of His majesty.

11 The proud eyes of man will be humbled, and human pride brought low.
The Lord alone will be exalted in that day.

12 For the Lord Almighty has a day in store against all the proud and arrogant, against all who are lifted up—
and they will be brought low.

13 Against all the tall and lofty cedars of Lebanon, and all the oaks of Bashan,

14 against all the towering mountains,
and all the high hills,

15 against every lofty tower,
and every fortified wall,

16 against every trading ship of Tarshish, and against every beautiful vessel.

17 The arrogance of man will be brought low,
and human pride humbled.
The Lord alone will be exalted in that day,

18 and the idols will totally disappear.

Men Flee from God's Glory

19 People will flee to caves in the rocks and to holes in the ground
from the fear of the Lord
and the splendor of His majesty,
when He rises to shake the earth.

20 In that day people will throw away their idols of silver and gold, which they made to worship,
to the moles and bats.

21 They will go into caverns in the rocks and to the clefts in the cliffs,
from the fear of the Lord

and the splendor of His majesty,
when He rises to shake the earth.

Stop Trusting in Man

22 Stop trusting in man,
who has only breath in his nostrils.
Why hold him in such high esteem?

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 2

- God’s kingdom is supreme: In the last days, His house will be exalted above all nations, and people everywhere will seek His teaching.
- True peace comes from God: Weapons of war will be turned into tools of peace when God reigns over the nations.
- Idolatry leads to downfall: Trusting in wealth, power, and man-made gods only brings shame and judgment.
- The proud will be humbled: God’s day will bring low everything that exalts itself against Him.
- God alone is worthy of trust: Human strength and pride are fleeting—only the Lord deserves our confidence.

Isaiah 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Judgment on Jerusalem’s Leaders and the Proud Daughters of Zion”

God Removes Support from Judah

1 Look, the Lord, the Lord of Heaven’s Armies, is taking away from Jerusalem and Judah everything they depend on—all supplies of bread, and all supplies of water.

2 Heroes and warriors,
judges and prophets,
the wise and the elders,

3 captains of fifty,
honorable men,
counselors, skilled craftsmen,
and eloquent speakers.

4 “I will make children their rulers;
inexperienced ones will rule over them.

5 People will oppress one another—neighbor against neighbor.
The young will rise up against the old,
and the dishonorable against the honorable.”

Corruption and Rebellion Exposed

6 A man will grab his brother in his father’s house and say, “You have a cloak—
you be our leader;
take charge of this ruin!”

7 But on that day he will protest,
“I cannot fix this!
I have no food or clothing in my house.
Don’t make me the ruler of the people!”

8 Jerusalem staggers;
Judah falls.
Their words and actions are against the Lord,
defying His glorious presence.

9 The look on their faces testifies against them.
They flaunt their sin like Sodom;
they do not even try to hide it.
Woe to them!
They have brought disaster upon themselves.

10 Tell the righteous,
“It will be well with you,
for you will enjoy the reward of your deeds.”

11 Woe to the wicked!
Disaster is upon them.
They will be paid back for what their hands have done.

12 My people are oppressed by children;
women rule over them.
O My people, your leaders mislead you;
they confuse the direction of your paths.

The Lord Judges the Leaders

13 The Lord takes His stand to argue His case;
He rises to judge the people.

14 The Lord brings charges against the elders and leaders of His people:

“You have ruined My vineyard.

The plunder taken from the poor is stored in your houses.

15 What do you mean by crushing My people, and grinding the faces of the poor?”
declares the Lord, the Lord of Heaven’s Armies.

The Pride of the Daughters of Zion

16 The Lord says,
“Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, walking with heads held high,
flirting with their eyes,
strutting with quick steps,
tinkling their ankle jewelry,

17 the Lord will bring sores on the heads of the daughters of Zion;
He will expose their shame.”

18 In that day the Lord will strip away their finery—
the jewelry that jingles on their ankles, headbands and crescent necklaces,

19 earrings, bracelets, and veils,

20 scarves, ankle chains, sashes,
perfume bottles, and charms,

21 signet rings and nose rings,

22 fine robes and capes,
cloaks and purses,

23 mirrors, linen garments,
turbans and shawls.

24 Instead of fragrance, there will be a stench;
instead of a sash, a rope;
instead of well-set hair, baldness;

instead of fine clothes, sackcloth;
instead of beauty, branding.

Jerusalem's Desolation

25 Your men will fall by the sword, your warriors in battle.

26 The gates of Zion will mourn and lament;
deserted, she will sit on the ground.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 3

- God removes false security: When people trust in leaders, wealth, or outward beauty instead of the Lord, He removes those supports.
- Corruption brings ruin: Leaders who oppress the poor and take advantage of the weak will face God's judgment.
- Sin brings shame: Like Sodom, flaunted sin leads only to destruction and disgrace.
- True beauty comes from humility: Outward appearance fades, but pride brings dishonor.
- Only God sustains a nation: Bread, water, leaders, and security all come from Him—when people turn from Him, He removes them.

Isaiah 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Branch of the Lord and Zion's Cleansing”

The Shame of Reproach Removed

1 In that day seven women will take hold of one man, saying,
“We will eat our own food
and provide our own clothes;
just let us be called by your name.
Take away our disgrace.”

The Branch of the Lord

2 In that day the Branch of the Lord will be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land will be the pride and glory of those in Israel who survive.

3 Everyone who remains in Zion and is left in Jerusalem will be called holy—all who are recorded among the living in Jerusalem.

The Lord Cleanses Zion

4 The Lord will wash away the filth of the daughters of Zion and cleanse the bloodstains of Jerusalem from her midst
by a spirit of judgment
and a spirit of fire.

God's Protective Presence

5 Then the Lord will create over all of Mount Zion and over those who gather there a cloud of smoke by day
and a glowing fire by night;
over everything the glory will be a covering.

6 It will be a shelter to give shade from the heat by day,
a place of refuge,
and a hiding place from storm and rain.

✠✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 4

- God removes disgrace: Even in desperate times, God will take away His people's shame and restore their honor.
- The Branch of the Lord is Christ: The promised Branch points to the Messiah, beautiful and glorious, the hope of the faithful remnant.
- Holiness is God's mark: Those who survive and remain faithful will be called holy, set apart by the Lord Himself.
- God cleanses by fire and judgment: His purification removes sin and guilt, making His people clean.
- God's presence protects His people: Just as He guided Israel in the wilderness, His glory will be their shelter, shade, and refuge.

Isaiah 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Song of the Vineyard and Woes of Judgment”

The Song of the Vineyard

1 Now I will sing for the One I love,
a song about His vineyard.
My beloved had a vineyard
on a fertile hillside.

2 He dug it up and cleared it of stones, planted it with the best vines,
built a watchtower in it,
and cut out a winepress as well.
He expected it to yield good grapes,
but it produced only wild, bitter ones.

3 “Now, you people of Jerusalem and Judah, judge between Me and My vineyard.

4 What more could I have done for My vineyard that I have not already done?
When I looked for good grapes,
why did it yield only bad ones?

5 Now I will tell you what I will do to My vineyard:
I will remove its hedge, and it will be destroyed;
I will break down its wall, and it will be trampled.

6 I will make it a wasteland.
It will not be pruned or cultivated,
and briars and thorns will grow there.
I will command the clouds not to rain on it.”

7 For the vineyard of the Lord of Heaven’s Armies is the house of Israel,
and the people of Judah are His pleasant planting.
He looked for justice, but found only oppression;
for righteousness, but heard cries of distress.

Woes Against Greed and Pleasure

8 Woe to those who add house to house and join field to field until there is no room left,
and you live alone in the land.

9 The Lord Almighty has declared in My hearing:
“Surely many houses will be ruined, large and beautiful houses left empty.

10 Ten acres of vineyard will yield only a few gallons of wine, and a large amount of seed will yield only a small measure of grain.”

11 Woe to those who rise early in the morning to chase after strong drink, who stay up late at night
inflamed with wine.

12 They have harps and lyres, tambourines, flutes, and wine at their feasts,
but they pay no attention to the Lord’s work,
and they do not see what His hands have done.

13 Therefore My people will go into exile for lack of knowledge.
Their nobles will die of hunger,
and the masses will be parched with thirst.

14 Therefore the grave has enlarged its appetite and opened its mouth wide.
Into it will descend their nobles,
their multitudes,
their noisy revelers,
and all who celebrate with joy.

15 People will be brought low,
everyone humbled;
the eyes of the arrogant brought down.

16 But the Lord Almighty will be exalted by His justice, and the Holy God will show Himself holy by His righteousness.

17 Then sheep will graze as in their own pasture;
lambs will feed among the ruins of the rich.

Woes Against Sin and Arrogance

18 Woe to those who drag their sins along with cords of deceit, who pull wickedness with ropes like a cart.

19 They mock, saying, “Let God hurry and do His work

so we can see it!
Let the plan of the Holy One of Israel come true,
so we may know it!”

20 Woe to those who call evil good and good evil,
who put darkness for light
and light for darkness,
who put bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter.

21 Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes and clever in their own sight.

22 Woe to those who are heroes at drinking wine,
and champions at mixing drinks,

23 who acquit the guilty for a bribe,
but deny justice to the innocent.

God’s Anger Against His People

24 Therefore, as fire devours stubble and flames consume dry grass, so their roots will rot
and their blossoms will blow away like dust;
for they have rejected the law of the Lord Almighty and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

25 Therefore the Lord’s anger burns against His people;
He has raised His hand against them and struck them down.
The mountains shake,
and dead bodies lie like refuse in the streets.

Yet for all this, His anger is not turned away;
His hand is still raised to strike.

The Army of Judgment

26 He lifts up a banner for the nations far away;
He whistles for them from the ends of the earth.
They come swiftly and speedily.

27 Not one of them grows tired or stumbles;
no one slumbers or sleeps.

Their belts are tight,
their sandals strapped on.

28 Their arrows are sharp,
all their bows strung.
Their horses' hooves are like flint;
their chariot wheels like a whirlwind.

29 Their roar is like that of a lion;
they roar like young lions.
They growl and seize their prey;
they carry it off with no one to rescue.

30 In that day they will roar over them like the roaring of the sea.
And if one looks across the land,
there is only darkness and distress;
even the light will be darkened by clouds.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 5

- God expects fruit from His people: Like a vineyard, Israel was planted and cared for, but it produced wild grapes of sin instead of righteousness.
- Greed destroys communities: Hoarding land and wealth leads to desolation and ruin.
- Pleasure without God blinds the soul: Wine, music, and feasting are empty when people ignore the Lord's work.
- Woe to those who redefine morality: Calling evil good and good evil brings certain judgment.
- God's holiness will prevail: The proud will be humbled, but God will be exalted in justice and righteousness.
- Judgment comes swiftly: When God calls distant nations as instruments of His anger, nothing can stop them.

Isaiah 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Isaiah's Vision and Commission”

Isaiah's Vision of the Lord

1 In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord seated on a throne, high and exalted, and the train of His robe filled the temple.

2 Above Him stood the seraphim, each with six wings:
with two they covered their faces,

with two they covered their feet,
and with two they flew.

3 And they called to one another:
“Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of Heaven’s Armies;
the whole earth is filled with His glory.”

4 The foundations of the thresholds shook at the sound of their voices, and the temple was filled with smoke.

Isaiah’s Cleansing

5 Then I cried, “Woe is me! I am ruined!
For I am a man of unclean lips,
and I live among a people of unclean lips,
and my eyes have seen the King,
the Lord of Heaven’s Armies.”

6 Then one of the seraphim flew to me with a live coal in his hand,
which he had taken with tongs from the altar.

7 He touched my mouth with it and said, “See, this has touched your lips;
your guilt is taken away,
and your sin atoned for.”

Isaiah’s Call

8 Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send?
Who will go for us?”
And I said,
“Here am I. Send me!”

9 He said,
“Go and tell this people:
‘Keep listening, but do not understand;
keep looking, but do not perceive.’

10 Make the hearts of this people dull, make their ears heavy,
and shut their eyes;
otherwise they might see with their eyes,

hear with their ears,
understand with their hearts,
turn and be healed.”

The Length of Judgment

11 Then I asked, “Lord, how long?”
And He answered,
“Until the cities lie ruined and without inhabitant, until the houses are deserted and the land is completely desolate,

12 until the Lord has sent everyone far away,
and the land is utterly forsaken.

13 Yet a tenth will remain in it, but it will be burned again,
like a terebinth or an oak tree
whose stump remains when it is cut down.
So the holy seed will be the stump in the land.”

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 6

- God’s holiness is overwhelming: Isaiah saw the Lord’s glory and realized his own unworthiness.
- Sin must be cleansed before service: God purified Isaiah’s lips, showing that forgiveness is necessary before ministry.
- God calls and commissions His servants: Isaiah responded with willingness—“Here am I, send me.”
- Judgment follows rejection: Israel’s hearts were hardened because they refused to listen and obey.
- A faithful remnant remains: Even in judgment, God preserves a “holy seed,” a promise of hope and restoration.

Isaiah 7 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Prophecy of Immanuel”

The Threat Against Judah

1 During the days of Ahaz son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, Rezin king of Aram (Syria) and Pekah son of Remaliah, king of Israel, marched up to Jerusalem to fight against it, but they could not overpower it.

2 When the house of David was told, "Aram has joined forces with Ephraim," the heart of Ahaz and the hearts of his people trembled like trees shaking in the wind.

God's Word to Ahaz

3 Then the Lord said to Isaiah, "Go out to meet Ahaz, you and your son Shear-jashub, at the end of the aqueduct of the upper pool, on the road to the Washer's Field.

4 Tell him, 'Be careful, stay calm, and do not be afraid. Do not lose heart because of the fierce anger of Rezin and Aram and the son of Remaliah. They are nothing but two smoldering stumps of firewood.

5 Aram, Ephraim, and Remaliah's son have plotted against you, saying,

6 "Let us attack Judah, tear it apart, and divide it among ourselves. We will install the son of Tabeal as king."

7 But this is what the Sovereign Lord says:

"It will not happen; it will not take place.

8 For the head of Aram is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin. Within sixty-five years Ephraim will be shattered as a people.

9 The head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If you do not stand firm in faith, you will not stand at all.'""

The Sign of Immanuel

10 The Lord spoke again to Ahaz,

11 "Ask the Lord your God for a sign, whether in the deepest depths or in the highest heights."

12 But Ahaz said, "I will not ask; I will not test the Lord."

13 Then Isaiah said, "Hear now, house of David! Is it not enough to try the patience of men? Will you also try the patience of my God?

14 Therefore the Lord Himself will give you a sign:

The virgin will conceive and give birth to a son,
and will call him Immanuel (which means, 'God with us').

15 By the time he knows enough to reject wrong and choose right, he will be eating curds and honey.

16 For before the boy knows to reject the wrong and choose the right, the land of the two kings you dread will be laid waste.

Coming Judgment by Assyria

17 The Lord will bring upon you, your people, and your father's house a time unlike any since Ephraim broke away from Judah—He will bring the king of Assyria.”

18 In that day the Lord will whistle for the fly from Egypt's distant streams and for the bee from the land of Assyria.

19 They will come and settle in steep ravines, in rocky crevices, among thornbushes, and in all the watering holes.

20 In that day the Lord will use a razor hired from beyond the Euphrates—the king of Assyria—to shave your head and private parts, and to cut off your beard also.

The Land Laid Waste

21 In that day a man will keep alive a young cow and two goats.

22 And because of the abundance of milk they give, he will have curds to eat. All who remain in the land will eat curds and honey.

23 In that day, in every place where there used to be a thousand vines worth a thousand silver pieces, there will be only briars and thorns.

24 Men will go there with bows and arrows, for the land will be covered with briars and thorns.

25 As for the hills once cultivated with a hoe, you will no longer go there for fear of the briars and thorns. They will become places where cattle are turned loose and sheep trample.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 7

- Fear weakens faith: Ahaz trembled at the threat of men, but God reminded him to stand firm in faith or he would fall.
- God is sovereign over nations: Plans against God's people cannot stand when He has decreed otherwise.
- God offers signs of hope: The virgin birth prophecy points forward to Christ, Immanuel—God with us.
- Rejection brings judgment: Ahaz refused God's invitation, and so God promised the coming of Assyria as a tool of judgment.

- Blessing for the faithful remnant: Even in a desolate land, God would preserve a people who would live on His provision.

Isaiah 8 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Sign of Maher-shalal-hash-baz and the Coming Assyrian Flood”

The Birth of a Prophetic Sign

1 The Lord said to me, “Take a large scroll and write on it clearly: Mahe-shalal-hash-baz (‘Quick to the plunder, swift to the spoil’).

2 So I called in trustworthy witnesses—Uriah the priest and Zechariah son of Jeberechiah—to confirm the record.

3 Then I went to the prophetess, and she conceived and gave birth to a son. The Lord said to me, “Name him Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

4 For before the boy knows how to say, ‘My father’ or ‘My mother,’ the wealth of Damascus and the plunder of Samaria will be carried off by the king of Assyria.”

Assyria, the Flooding River

5 The Lord spoke to me again, saying,

6 “Because this people has rejected the gentle waters of Shiloah and rejoices in Rezin and Remaliah’s son,

7 the Lord will bring against them the mighty floodwaters of the Euphrates—the king of Assyria with all his power. It will overflow its channels and run over all its banks.

8 It will sweep into Judah, overflowing and passing through. It will reach up to the neck; its outspread wings will cover the breadth of your land, O Immanuel.”

God Is With Us

9 “Raise your battle cry, you nations, and be shattered!

Listen, all you distant lands.

Prepare for battle—but you will be broken.

Prepare for battle—but you will be broken.

10 Devise your plans, but they will fail;
make your agreements, but they will not stand,
for God is with us.”

A Call to Fear the Lord Alone

11 The Lord spoke to me with a strong hand and warned me not to follow the way of this people. He said, 12 “Do not call conspiracy everything that these people call conspiracy. Do not fear what they fear, and do not be terrified.

13 But honor the Lord Almighty as holy.
He is the One you are to fear;
He is the One you are to dread.

14 He will be a sanctuary;
but for both houses of Israel He will be a stone that makes men stumble and a rock that makes them fall.
For the people of Jerusalem He will be a trap and a snare.

15 Many of them will stumble;
they will fall and be broken;
they will be snared and captured.”

Waiting on the Lord

16 Bind up the testimony and seal the teaching among my disciples.

17 I will wait for the Lord, who is hiding His face from the house of Jacob.
I will put my trust in Him.

18 Here am I, and the children the Lord has given me.
We are signs and symbols in Israel from the Lord Almighty, who dwells on Mount Zion.

Rejecting False Guidance

19 When men tell you to consult mediums and spiritists, who whisper and mutter,
should not a people ask their God for guidance?
Why consult the dead on behalf of the living?

20 Look to God’s law and testimony!
If they do not speak according to this word,
there is no light in them.

21 Distressed and hungry,
they will roam through the land.
When they are famished,
they will become enraged
and look upward, cursing their king and their God.

22 Then they will look toward the earth and see only distress and darkness, fearful gloom,
and they will be driven into deep darkness.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 8

- God gives clear signs: The birth of Isaiah's son symbolized the swift judgment coming through Assyria.
- Rejecting God's peace brings destruction: Those who reject the gentle streams of God's provision will be overwhelmed by the flood of His judgment.
- God is our refuge: Nations may plot, but their plans fail because Immanuel—God with us— stands with His people.
- Fear the Lord, not man: God's people must not be driven by conspiracies or fear of men, but must honor Him alone.
- Christ the Rock: To some He is a sanctuary, but to others a stumbling stone of offense.
- Seek God, not the occult: Consulting the dead or spiritists shows darkness, while God's Word gives true light.
- Without God, only despair remains: Turning from Him leads to anger, hopelessness, and darkness.

Isaiah 9 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Great Light and the Prince of Peace”

Light in the Darkness

1 Nevertheless, the gloom will not be as great as it was in the past, when the Lord humbled the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali. In the future He will honor Galilee of the nations, the land along the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan.

2 The people walking in darkness have seen a great light;
on those living in the land of the shadow of death,
a light has dawned.

3 You have enlarged the nation and increased their joy;
they rejoice before You
as people rejoice at harvest time,
as warriors rejoice when dividing plunder.

4 For You have broken the yoke of their burden,
the bar across their shoulders,
the rod of their oppressor—
just as You did in the day of Midian's defeat.

5 Every warrior's boot used in battle and every garment rolled in blood will be destined for burning, fuel for the fire.

The Coming King

6 For to us a child is born,
to us a son is given;
and the government will rest on His shoulders.
And He will be called:
Wonderful Counselor,
Mighty God,
Everlasting Father,
Prince of Peace.

7 Of the greatness of His government and peace
there will be no end.
He will reign on David's throne
and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and forever.
The zeal of the Lord of Heaven's Armies will accomplish this.

Judgment Against Arrogance

8 The Lord has sent a message against Jacob;
it will fall on Israel.

9 All the people will know it—Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria—who say with pride and arrogance of heart:

10 “The bricks have fallen down,
but we will rebuild with dressed stone;
the sycamore trees have been cut down,
but we will replace them with cedars.”

11 But the Lord will strengthen Rezin’s foes against them and join their enemies together.

12 Arameans from the east and Philistines from the west will devour Israel with open mouth.

Yet for all this, His anger is not turned away;
His hand is still stretched out.

Corrupt Leaders and Blind People

13 But the people have not returned to Him who struck them, nor have they sought the Lord Almighty.

14 So the Lord will cut off from Israel both head and tail, both palm branch and reed, in a single day.

15 The elders and honored men are the head,
the prophets who teach lies are the tail.

16 Those who guide this people mislead them,
and those who are guided are destroyed.

17 Therefore the Lord takes no pleasure in the young men, nor does He show compassion to the fatherless and widows;
for everyone is ungodly and wicked,
every mouth speaks folly.

Yet for all this, His anger is not turned away;
His hand is still stretched out.

Wickedness Consumes the Land

18 Surely wickedness burns like a fire;
it consumes briars and thorns,

it sets the forest thickets ablaze,
so that it rolls upward in a column of smoke.

19 By the wrath of the Lord Almighty
the land will be scorched,
and the people will be fuel for the fire;
they will not spare one another.

20 On the right they will devour, but still be hungry;
on the left they will eat, but not be satisfied.
Each will feed on the flesh of their own offspring.

21 Manasseh will attack Ephraim, and Ephraim will attack Manasseh;
together they will turn against Judah.

Yet for all this, His anger is not turned away;
His hand is still stretched out.

✠✧ Key Lessons from Isaiah 9

- Christ is the promised Light: Jesus, born in Galilee, fulfills the prophecy of light shining in darkness.
- God's Son is the Prince of Peace: The titles given—Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace—point directly to the Messiah's eternal reign.
- Pride brings destruction: Israel arrogantly said they would rebuild stronger without God, but their enemies were raised against them.
- False leaders ruin nations: Dishonest prophets and corrupt rulers misled the people, leading them into judgment.
- Sin devours like fire: Wickedness spreads and consumes, leaving people empty, divided, and destroyed.
- God's hand of judgment continues until repentance: His stretched-out hand shows both His justice and His patience, calling His people to turn back.

Isaiah 10 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Woe to Oppressors, Judgment on Assyria, and the Remnant of Israel”

Woe to Oppressive Leaders

1 Woe to those who make unjust laws, to those who write oppressive decrees,

2 to deprive the poor of their rights and rob My people of justice, to make widows their prey
and plunder the fatherless!

3 What will you do on the day of judgment, when disaster comes from afar?
To whom will you run for help?
Where will you leave your wealth?

4 Nothing remains but to bow among the captives or fall among the slain.

Yet for all this, His anger is not turned away;
His hand is still stretched out.

Assyria: The Rod of God's Anger

5 "Woe to the Assyrian, the rod of My anger, in whose hand is the club of My wrath!

6 I send him against a godless nation;
I dispatch him against a people who have provoked My wrath,
to seize loot, take plunder,
and trample them down like mud in the streets.

7 But this is not what he intends;
this is not what he has in mind.
His purpose is to destroy,
to put an end to many nations.

8 He says:
'Are not my commanders all kings?

9 Has not Calno fared like Carchemish?
Is not Hamath like Arpad, and Samaria like Damascus?

10 As my hand seized the kingdoms of the idols, kingdoms whose carved images were greater than those of Jerusalem and Samaria—

11 shall I not deal with Jerusalem and her idols as I dealt with Samaria and her idols?"

The Pride of Assyria Punished

12 When the Lord has finished all His work against Mount Zion and Jerusalem, He will punish the king of Assyria for the fruit of his arrogant heart and the pride of his haughty eyes.

13 For he says:

“By the strength of my hand I have done this,
and by my wisdom, because I have understanding.
I removed the boundaries of nations,
I plundered their treasures;
like a mighty one I subdued their kings.

14 As one reaches into a nest,
so my hand reached for the wealth of nations.
As people gather abandoned eggs,
so I gathered the whole earth;
no one flapped a wing,
opened a mouth, or chirped.”

15 Does the axe raise itself above the one who swings it, or the saw boast against the one who uses it?
As if a rod could wield the one who lifts it up, or a club could raise the one who is not wood!

16 Therefore the Lord, the Lord of Hosts, will send a wasting disease among his strong warriors;
under his pomp a fire will be kindled,
like a blazing flame.

17 The Light of Israel will become a fire,
their Holy One a flame;
in a single day it will burn and consume
his thorns and his briers.

18 The splendor of his forests and fertile fields it will completely destroy,
both soul and body,
as when a sick man wastes away.

19 And the trees left standing in his forest will be so few that a child could count them.

The Remnant of Israel

20 In that day the remnant of Israel,
the survivors of Jacob,

will no longer depend on him who struck them down but will truly rely on the Lord,
the Holy One of Israel.

21 A remnant will return,
a remnant of Jacob will return to the Mighty God.

22 Though your people, Israel, be as numerous as the sand on the seashore,
only a remnant will return.
Destruction has been decreed, overwhelming and righteous.

23 The Lord, the Lord of Hosts, will carry out the destruction decreed upon the whole land.

Do Not Fear the Assyrian

24 Therefore, this is what the Lord, the Lord of Hosts, says:
“My people who live in Zion, do not be afraid of the Assyrian, who strikes you with a rod and lifts up a club against you, as Egypt did.

25 Very soon My anger against you will end,
and My wrath will be directed to their destruction.”

26 The Lord Almighty will lash them with a whip, as when He struck Midian at the rock of Oreb;
and He will raise His staff over the waters,
as He did in Egypt.

27 In that day their burden will be lifted from your shoulders, their yoke from your neck;
the yoke will be broken because of the anointing.

The Enemy Approaches Jerusalem

28 They enter Aiath, pass through Migron;
they store their supplies at Michmash.

29 They cross the pass and say,
“We will camp at Geba for the night.”
Ramah trembles;
Gibeah of Saul flees.

30 Cry out, Daughter of Gallim!
Listen, Laishah!
Poor Anathoth!

31 Madmenah is in flight;
the people of Gebim take cover.

32 This very day he will halt at Nob;
he will shake his fist
at the mountain of Daughter Zion, at the hill of Jerusalem.

The Lord Humbles the Proud

33 See, the Lord, the Lord of Hosts, will lop off the boughs with great power.
The tall trees will be cut down,
the lofty will be brought low.

34 He will cut down the forest thickets with an axe;
Lebanon will fall before the Mighty One.

✠✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 10

- God opposes unjust rulers: Leaders who write laws that oppress the poor, widows, and fatherless invite His judgment.
- God uses nations as His tools: Assyria was the rod of God's anger, but its pride made it liable for judgment.
- Pride leads to downfall: Assyria boasted of its power, forgetting it was only an axe in God's hand.
- God preserves a remnant: Even when judgment sweeps across the land, a faithful remnant will return and trust in the Lord.
- God comforts His people: He tells Zion not to fear Assyria, because His anger against His people will end, and His wrath will turn against their enemies.
- The mighty are humbled by the Mighty One: Human power and pride cannot stand when the Lord lifts His hand.

Isaiah 11 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Branch from Jesse and the Peaceable Kingdom”

The Righteous Branch

1 Out of the stump of Jesse will come a shoot;
from his roots a Branch will grow and bear fruit.

2 The Spirit of the Lord will rest on Him—
the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and might,
the Spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord.

3 He will delight in the fear of the Lord.
He will not judge by what His eyes see,
nor make decisions by what His ears hear.

4 But with righteousness He will judge the poor, and with fairness He will give justice to the meek of the earth.
He will strike the earth with the rod of His mouth, and with the breath of His lips He will slay the wicked.

5 Righteousness will be His belt, and faithfulness the sash around His waist.

The Peaceable Kingdom

6 The wolf will live with the lamb,
the leopard will lie down with the goat,
the calf, the lion, and the yearling will be together,
and a little child will lead them.

7 The cow and the bear will feed together;
their young will lie down together.
The lion will eat straw like the ox.

8 Infants will play near the hole of the cobra, and young children will put their hands into the viper's nest.

9 They will neither harm nor destroy on all My holy mountain, for the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea.

The Reign of the Root of Jesse

10 In that day the Root of Jesse will stand as a banner for the peoples;
the nations will rally to Him, and His resting place will be glorious.

11 In that day the Lord will reach out His hand a second time to bring back the remnant of His people from Assyria, Egypt, Pathros, Cush, Elam, Shinar, Hamath, and from the islands of the sea.

12 He will raise a banner for the nations and gather the exiles of Israel; He will assemble the scattered of Judah from the four corners of the earth.

13 Ephraim's jealousy will vanish, and Judah's enemies will be cut off. Ephraim will not envy Judah, and Judah will not oppress Ephraim.

14 Together they will swoop down on the Philistines to the west; they will plunder the people of the east. They will lay hands on Edom and Moab, and the Ammonites will be subject to them.

15 The Lord will dry up the gulf of the Egyptian sea; with His mighty wind He will strike the River into seven streams so that men can cross over in sandals.

16 There will be a highway for the remnant of His people who are left from Assyria— just as there was for Israel when they came up from the land of Egypt.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 11

- Christ is the Branch from Jesse: This prophecy points to Jesus, filled with the Spirit of the Lord in wisdom, power, and holiness.
- True justice comes from God's King: He will judge righteously, defend the poor, and overthrow the wicked with the breath of His mouth.
- God's kingdom brings peace: In the Messiah's reign, even natural enemies live in harmony, symbolizing a world of perfect peace and safety.
- The nations will seek Christ: The Root of Jesse is not only for Israel but also for Gentiles, bringing salvation to all.
- God gathers His people: The Lord promises to bring back a faithful remnant from every nation.
- Unity replaces rivalry: Ephraim and Judah, once divided, will be reconciled under God's rule.

- God makes a way for His people: Just as He parted the Red Sea, He will prepare a highway for His people's return.

Isaiah 12 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Song of Salvation”

God's Anger Turned to Comfort

1 In that day you will say:
“O Lord, I will praise You.
Though You were angry with me,
Your anger has turned away,
and You have comforted me.”

God, My Salvation

2 Surely God is my salvation;
I will trust and not be afraid.
For the Lord, the Lord Himself, is my strength and my song;
He has become my salvation.

3 With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation.

Proclaim His Name

4 In that day you will say:
“Give thanks to the Lord, call on His name;
make known His deeds among the nations;
proclaim that His name is exalted.

5 Sing to the Lord, for He has done glorious things;
let this be known to all the earth.

6 Shout aloud and sing for joy, people of Zion, for great is the Holy One of Israel among you.”

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 12

- God's anger turns to mercy: Though sin brings God's anger, His love brings comfort and restoration.
- God alone is salvation: Trust in Him removes fear, for He is both strength and song.

- Salvation brings joy: Like refreshing water, God’s salvation satisfies and renews His people.
- Praise should be public: God’s great works are to be declared among the nations, not kept silent.
- The Holy One dwells with His people: His presence among Zion is the greatest reason for joy and worship.

Isaiah 13 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Judgment of Babylon and the Day of the Lord”

The Burden of Babylon

1 This is the prophecy concerning Babylon that Isaiah son of Amoz saw.

2 “Raise a banner on a bare hilltop, shout to them, wave your hand,
so they may enter the gates of the nobles.

3 I have commanded those I have set apart;
I have summoned My warriors to carry out My wrath—
those who rejoice in My triumph.”

4 Listen! A noise on the mountains, like that of a great multitude!
Listen! An uproar among the kingdoms, like nations massing together.
The Lord Almighty is mustering an army for war.

5 They come from faraway lands, from the ends of the heavens—
the Lord and the weapons of His wrath—to destroy the whole country.

The Day of the Lord

6 Wail, for the day of the Lord is near;
it comes like destruction from the Almighty.

7 Because of this, every hand will go limp, every heart will melt with fear.

8 Terror will seize them,
pain and anguish will grip them;
they will writhe like a woman in labor.

They will look at each other in horror,
their faces flushed with fear.

9 See, the day of the Lord is coming—a cruel day, with wrath and fierce anger—to make the land desolate and destroy the sinners within it.

10 The stars of heaven and their constellations will not show their light.
The rising sun will be darkened,
and the moon will not give its light.

11 “I will punish the world for its evil,
the wicked for their sins.
I will put an end to the arrogance of the proud and humble the pride of the ruthless.

12 I will make people scarcer than pure gold, rarer than the gold of Ophir.

13 Therefore I will make the heavens tremble, and the earth will shake from its place at the wrath of the Lord Almighty, in the day of His burning anger.”

The Fall of Babylon

14 Like a hunted gazelle,
like sheep without a shepherd,
they will each return to their own people,
they will flee to their native land.

15 Whoever is captured will be thrust through;
all who are caught will fall by the sword.

16 Their infants will be dashed to pieces before their eyes;
their houses will be looted
and their wives violated.

17 “See, I will stir up the Medes against them, who care nothing for silver and have no delight in gold.

18 Their bows will strike down the young men;
they will show no mercy to infants,
nor will they spare children.”

19 Babylon, the jewel of kingdoms,
the pride and glory of the Babylonians, will be overthrown by God
like Sodom and Gomorrah.

20 She will never be inhabited again;
through all generations no one will live there.
No nomad will pitch his tent there,
no shepherd will rest his flocks there.

21 But desert creatures will lie there,
their houses will be full of howling animals;
owls will dwell there,
and wild goats will leap about.

22 Hyenas will howl in her strongholds, jackals in her luxurious palaces.
Her time is close at hand,
and her days will not be prolonged.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 13

- The Day of the Lord is terrifying: It brings judgment not only on Babylon but on all who defy God.
- Human pride will be humbled: The arrogance of rulers and nations will not stand before God's wrath.
- God uses nations as instruments of judgment: He raised up the Medes to bring Babylon down, showing His sovereign power over history.
- Sin brings desolation: Once the "glory of kingdoms," Babylon became a wasteland filled only with wild creatures.
- God's word is sure: What He decrees against nations, no power of man can prevent.

Isaiah 14 – Crawford Standard Bible

"The Fall of Babylon's King and the Lord's Purpose"

Israel Restored

1 The Lord will have mercy on Jacob;
He will again choose Israel and settle them in their own land.
Foreigners will join them and unite with the house of Jacob.

2 Nations will take them and bring them to their own place, and Israel will possess them
as male and female servants in the Lord's land.
They will take captive those who once held them captive,
and they will rule over their oppressors.

3 On the day the Lord gives you rest from your suffering and turmoil and from the hard labor forced upon you,

4 you will take up this taunt against the king of Babylon:
"How the oppressor has come to an end!
How his fury has ceased!"

The Fall of the Oppressor

5 The Lord has broken the staff of the wicked,
the scepter of the rulers,

6 who struck down peoples in anger with unceasing blows,
and subdued nations in wrath
with relentless persecution.

7 All the earth is at rest and at peace;
they break into singing.

8 Even the pine trees and the cedars of Lebanon rejoice over you and say,
'Since you have fallen,
no lumberjack comes against us.'

The King of Babylon in Sheol

9 The realm of the dead below is stirred up to meet you at your coming.
It rouses the spirits of the departed,
all the kings of the nations rise from their thrones.

10 They all respond,
'You too have become weak, as we are;
you have become like us.'

11 Your pomp has been brought down to the grave, along with the music of your harps.

Maggots are spread beneath you and worms cover you.

The Fall of “Lucifer”

12 How you have fallen from heaven,
O morning star, son of the dawn!
You have been cast down to the earth,
you who once laid low the nations!

13 You said in your heart,
‘I will ascend to the heavens;
I will raise my throne above the stars of God;
I will sit enthroned on the mount of assembly,
on the utmost heights of Mount Zaphon.

14 I will ascend above the tops of the clouds;
I will make myself like the Most High.’

15 But you are brought down to the grave, to the depths of the pit.

16 Those who see you stare at you;
they ponder your fate:
‘Is this the man who shook the earth
and made kingdoms tremble,

17 who made the world a wilderness,
overthrew its cities,
and refused to let his captives go home?’

The Shame of Babylon’s King

18 All the kings of the nations lie in state, each in his own tomb.

19 But you are cast out of your grave
like a rejected branch;
you are covered with the slain,
with those pierced by the sword,
those who descend to the stones of the pit,
like a corpse trampled underfoot.

20 You will not join them in burial, for you have destroyed your land and killed your people.

The offspring of the wicked
will never be remembered.

21 Prepare a place to slaughter his children for the sins of their ancestors;
they will never rise to inherit the land or cover the earth with their cities.

22 “I will rise up against them,”
declares the Lord Almighty.
“I will wipe out Babylon’s name and survivors, her offspring and descendants,”
declares the Lord.

23 “I will turn her into a place for owls,
swampland,
and sweep her with the broom of destruction,”
declares the Lord Almighty.

The Lord’s Purpose Stands

24 The Lord Almighty has sworn:
“Surely, as I have planned, so it will happen,
and as I have purposed, so it will stand.

25 I will crush the Assyrian in My land;
on My mountains I will trample him down.
His yoke will be taken from My people,
and his burden removed from their shoulders.”

26 This is the plan determined for the whole world;
this is the hand stretched out over all nations.

27 For the Lord Almighty has purposed, and who can thwart Him?
His hand is stretched out,
and who can turn it back?

A Word Against Philistia

28 This prophecy came in the year King Ahaz died:

29 Do not rejoice, all you Philistines, that the rod which struck you is broken;

for from the root of that snake will spring up a viper, its offspring will be a fiery flying serpent.

30 The poorest of the poor will find pasture,
and the needy will lie down in safety.
But I will destroy your root with famine;
it will slay your survivors.

31 Wail, you gates; cry out, you city;
melt away, all you Philistines!
A cloud of smoke comes from the north,
and there is not a straggler in its ranks.

32 What answer shall be given to the envoys of that nation?
“The Lord has established Zion, and in her His afflicted people will find refuge.”

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 14

- God restores His people: Israel will be comforted, restored to their land, and their oppressors will be humbled.
- God humbles the proud: The mighty king of Babylon, full of pride, is cast down to shame and destruction.
- Lucifer’s fall warns of pride: Satan’s rebellion—“I will be like the Most High”—ended in his downfall, showing the danger of arrogance.
- God’s judgment is complete: Babylon, once the glory of kingdoms, would be utterly destroyed, leaving no legacy.
- God’s purposes cannot be stopped: His hand is stretched out over all nations, and no one can turn it back.
- Zion is secure in God’s plan: While nations fall, the Lord has founded Zion as a place of safety for His people.

Isaiah 15 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Burden Against Moab”

Moab’s Cities Laid Waste

1 This is the burden concerning Moab:
In one night Ar of Moab is destroyed and silenced;
in one night Kir of Moab is destroyed and silenced.

2 They go up to the temple at Bajith and to Dibon's high places to weep.
Moab wails over Nebo and Medeba.
Every head is shaved,
every beard is cut off.

3 In the streets they wear sackcloth;
on the rooftops and in the squares
everyone wails,
weeping bitterly.

The Cry of Moab

4 Heshbon and Elealeh cry out;
their voices are heard as far as Jahaz.
Even Moab's armed men cry out;
their hearts tremble within them.

5 My heart cries out for Moab!
Her fugitives flee as far as Zoar,
like a three-year-old heifer on the run.
They climb the ascent of Luhith with weeping;
on the road to Horonaim
they raise a cry of destruction.

6 The waters of Nimrim are dried up;
the grass is withered, the vegetation is gone,
and nothing green is left.

Moab's Wealth Taken Away

7 So the wealth they have gathered and stored up
they will carry away
to the Brook of the Willows.

8 Their cry of anguish goes around Moab's borders;
their wailing reaches as far as Eglaim and echoes to Beer Elim.

9 The waters of Dimon are full of blood, yet I will bring still more upon Dimon:
a lion upon the fugitives of Moab and upon those who remain in the land.

✠✧ Key Lessons from Isaiah 15

- Sin brings sudden destruction: In one night, Moab's strong cities were laid waste, showing how quickly God's judgment can fall.
- Pride is turned into mourning: Once proud, Moab is pictured in sackcloth, baldness, and bitter weeping.
- God's heart grieves even in judgment: Isaiah himself cried out for Moab, reminding us that God's justice is not without compassion.
- Wealth cannot save in the day of wrath: What Moab stored up was carried away, showing the emptiness of trusting in riches.
- Judgment leaves no escape: Even fugitives and survivors face danger, symbolized by lions upon the remnant.

Isaiah 16 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Moab's Pride and Its Coming Judgment”

Moab's Plea for Refuge

1 Send lambs as tribute to the ruler of the land, from Sela, across the desert,
to the mountain of the Daughter of Zion.

2 Like fluttering birds pushed from the nest,
so the women of Moab will be at the fords of the Arnon.

3 Give counsel, render a decision.
Make your shadow like night at high noon.
Hide the outcasts,
do not betray the fugitives.

4 Let the outcasts of Moab stay with you;
be a shelter to them from the destroyer.
For the oppressor is at an end,
the destruction has ceased,
and the one who tramples others is gone from the land.

5 In mercy a throne will be established;
one will sit on it in faithfulness,
in the tent of David,
judging with justice
and eager to do what is right.

The Pride of Moab

6 We have heard of Moab's pride—how great is his arrogance!—
his conceit, his pride, and his insolence.
But his boasting is empty lies.

7 Therefore Moab will wail for Moab;
everyone will mourn.
They will grieve for the foundations of Kir Hareseth;
they are ruined.

The Withering of Moab's Vineyards

8 The fields of Heshbon wither, and the vine of Sibmah languishes.
The rulers of nations have trampled down its choicest vines, which once reached Jazer
and spread toward the desert;
their shoots spread out
and crossed the sea.

9 So I weep with Jazer for the vine of Sibmah;
I drench you with my tears, O Heshbon and Elealeh.
No shouts of joy will be heard over your summer fruit or your harvest.

10 Joy and gladness are taken away from the orchards;
in the vineyards no one sings or shouts;
no one treads out wine in the presses,
for I have silenced the joyful shout.

11 My heart laments for Moab like a harp;
my soul grieves for Kir Hareseth.

Moab's Futile Religion

12 When Moab appears at her high place, when she goes to her shrine to pray,
it will do her no good.

13 This is the word the Lord has already spoken about Moab.

14 But now the Lord says:
“Within three years, as a hired worker counts years,

Moab's glory will be brought low and her large population will be despised.
Only a small and weak remnant will remain.”

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 16

- God's throne is established in mercy: The prophecy looks ahead to the righteous King from David's line who rules with justice.
- Pride brings destruction: Moab's arrogance and boasting led to its downfall.
- Wealth and harvest cannot save: Moab's fertile fields and vineyards were destroyed; joy and abundance vanished.
- False religion cannot deliver: Moab's prayers at her high places brought no help, showing the futility of idols.
- God limits nations by His decree: Within three years, Moab's greatness would shrink to a weak remnant.

Isaiah 17 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Burden Against Damascus”

The Fall of Damascus

1 This is the burden concerning Damascus:
“Behold, Damascus will no longer be a city;
it will become a heap of ruins.

2 The cities of Aroer will be deserted;
they will be places for flocks to lie down,
with no one to make them afraid.

3 The fortress will disappear from Ephraim,
and royal power from Damascus.
The remnant of Aram (Syria)
will be like the fading glory of Israel,” declares the Lord of Heaven's Armies.

The Weakening of Israel

4 In that day the glory of Jacob will fade;
his body will grow thin and wasted.

5 It will be as when a reaper gathers grain and reaps the heads with his arm, as when someone gleans heads of grain
in the Valley of Rephaim.

6 Yet some gleanings will remain, as when an olive tree is beaten—
two or three olives left at the top of the highest branch, four or five on the fruitful boughs,” declares the Lord, the God of Israel.

Turning Back to God

7 In that day people will look to their Maker, and their eyes will turn to the Holy One of Israel.

8 They will not look to the altars,
the work of their hands,
nor to the Asherah poles or the incense altars their fingers have made.

Cities Laid Desolate

9 In that day their strong cities will be like deserted places in the woods, like branches abandoned before Israel long ago;
they will become desolate.

10 You have forgotten God your Savior;
you have not remembered the Rock, your fortress.
Therefore, though you plant choice vines and set them with imported slips,

11 though on the day you plant them you make them grow,
and in the morning you make your seed flourish, yet the harvest will be a heap of ruins
in the day of grief and desperate sorrow.

The Nations Rebuked

12 Woe to the raging nations—they roar like the roaring sea!
The uproar of the peoples is like the crashing of mighty waters.

13 Though the nations roar like the roar of many waters,
God will rebuke them;
they will flee far away,
driven before the wind like chaff on the hills,
like tumbleweed before a whirlwind.

14 At evening they bring terror,
but by morning they are gone.
Such is the portion of those who plunder us,
the lot of those who rob us.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 17

- No city stands forever without God: Even powerful Damascus, one of the oldest cities in history, would fall into ruin.
- God humbles both enemies and His people: Israel's "fatness" would grow lean because of sin, showing judgment comes to all who forget God.
- Only a remnant remains: God always leaves a small remnant of His people, like olives left on the tree.
- Idolatry fails in the day of trouble: In judgment, people turn away from false gods and back to the Lord.
- Forgetting God leads to emptiness: Planting and working without Him only ends in grief and sorrow.
- God rules over nations: Though nations roar like the sea, He rebukes them, and they scatter like chaff in the wind.

Isaiah 18 – Crawford Standard Bible

"The Burden Against Cush (Ethiopia)"

A Message to Cush

1 Woe to the land of whirring wings, which lies beyond the rivers of Cush (Ethiopia),

2 that sends envoys by sea
in papyrus boats over the waters.
Go, swift messengers,
to a tall and smooth-skinned nation,
to a people feared far and wide,
an aggressive and powerful nation
whose land is divided by rivers.

A Call to All Nations

3 All you people of the world,
you who live on the earth,
when a banner is raised on the mountains, look!
When a trumpet sounds, listen!

God Observes and Judges

4 For this is what the Lord said to me:
“I will remain quiet and watch from My dwelling place, like shimmering heat in the sunshine,
like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.”

5 For before the harvest,
when the blossom is gone
and the flower becomes a ripening grape,
He will cut off the shoots with pruning knives and take away the spreading branches.

6 They will all be left to the birds of prey on the mountains and to the wild animals of the land.
The birds will feed on them in summer,
and the wild animals in winter.

A Gift to the Lord

7 At that time gifts will be brought to the Lord of Heaven’s Armies from a tall and smooth-skinned people, a people feared far and wide,
an aggressive and powerful nation
whose land is divided by rivers—
to Mount Zion, the place of the Name of the Lord Almighty.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 18

- God watches silently but acts decisively: Though He may seem quiet, He intervenes at the right time to prune nations.
- Human pride is temporary: Nations that appear powerful and feared will be cut down like unripe grapes before harvest.

- Judgment leaves no hiding place: The fallen are left for the birds and beasts, showing total defeat.
- God draws nations to Himself: Even distant peoples like Cush will one day bring gifts to the Lord in Zion.
- The Lord is sovereign over all nations: His Name will be honored not just in Israel, but across the earth.

Isaiah 19 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Burden Against Egypt”

The Lord Strikes Egypt

1 This is the burden concerning Egypt:
Behold, the Lord rides on a swift cloud and comes into Egypt.
The idols of Egypt tremble before Him,
and the hearts of the Egyptians melt within them.

2 “I will stir up Egyptians against Egyptians.
Brother will fight against brother,
neighbor against neighbor,
city against city,
kingdom against kingdom.

3 The spirit of Egypt will fail within them;
I will frustrate their plans.
They will consult idols and sorcerers,
mediums and spiritists.

4 I will hand the Egyptians over to the power of a cruel master;
a harsh king will rule over them,”
declares the Lord, the Lord of Heaven’s Armies.

Egypt’s Land Laid Waste

5 The waters of the Nile will dry up, and the riverbed will be parched and empty.

6 The canals will stink,
the streams of Egypt will dwindle and dry up;
the reeds and rushes will wither.

7 The plants along the Nile,
at the mouth of the river,
every sown field along the Nile will wither, blow away, and be no more.

8 The fishermen will mourn;
all who cast hooks into the Nile will lament,
and those who spread nets on the waters will waste away.

9 Those who work with flax will despair;
the weavers of fine linen will lose hope.

10 The workers in cloth will be dejected, and all wage earners will be crushed.

The Folly of Egypt's Leaders

11 The officials of Zoan are fools;
Pharaoh's wise counselors give stupid advice.
How can you say to Pharaoh,
"I am one of the wise, a descendant of ancient kings"?

12 Where are your wise men now?
Let them tell you what the Lord Almighty has planned against Egypt.

13 The princes of Zoan have become fools,
the leaders of Memphis are deceived;
the cornerstones of her tribes
have led Egypt astray.

14 The Lord has poured into them
a spirit of confusion.
They make Egypt stagger in all she does,
as a drunkard staggers in his vomit.

15 There is nothing Egypt can do—head or tail, palm branch or reed.

Egypt Humbled and Healed

16 In that day the Egyptians will be like women;
they will tremble with fear
at the uplifted hand of the Lord Almighty, which He raises against them.

17 The land of Judah will bring terror to Egypt;
everyone who mentions it will be afraid,
because of what the Lord Almighty has planned against them.

18 In that day five cities in Egypt will speak the language of Canaan and swear allegiance to the Lord Almighty.
One of them will be called the City of Destruction.

19 In that day there will be an altar to the Lord
in the heart of Egypt,
and a monument to the Lord at its border.

20 It will be a sign and witness to the Lord Almighty in the land of Egypt.
When they cry out to the Lord because of oppressors,
He will send them a Savior and Defender,
and He will rescue them.

21 So the Lord will make Himself known to the Egyptians, and in that day they will acknowledge the Lord.
They will worship with sacrifices and offerings;
they will make vows to the Lord and keep them.

22 The Lord will strike Egypt with a plague;
He will strike them and heal them.
They will turn to the Lord,
and He will respond to their pleas and heal them.

Egypt, Assyria, and Israel United

23 In that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria.
The Assyrians will go to Egypt,
and the Egyptians to Assyria.
The Egyptians and Assyrians will worship together.

24 In that day Israel will be the third,
along with Egypt and Assyria,
a blessing on the earth.

25 The Lord Almighty will bless them, saying, “Blessed be Egypt My people,
Assyria the work of My hands,
and Israel My inheritance.”

✠✧ Key Lessons from Isaiah 19

- God humbles nations: Egypt's idols, leaders, and wisdom all collapse before the Lord's power.
- Human strength cannot save: Even Egypt's fertile Nile and strong economy could not stop God's judgment.
- False religion fails: Egypt turned to idols and sorcery, but only God could deliver them.
- God disciplines to restore: Though struck, Egypt would cry out, and God would heal them when they turned to Him.
- God includes all nations in His plan: Egypt, Assyria, and Israel—once enemies—are pictured united in worship of the Lord.
- God's blessing goes beyond Israel: The prophecy shows His purpose to bring salvation to the nations through His Son.

Isaiah 20 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Sign Against Egypt and Cush”

Isaiah's Prophetic Sign

1 In the year that the commander of the army, sent by Sargon king of Assyria, came to Ashdod, fought against it, and captured it—

2 at that time the Lord spoke through Isaiah son of Amoz. He said, “Take off the sackcloth from your waist and the sandals from your feet.” So Isaiah obeyed and walked around naked and barefoot.

3 Then the Lord said, “Just as My servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot for three years as a sign and a wonder against Egypt and Cush,

4 so the king of Assyria will lead away the captives of Egypt and the exiles of Cush, young and old alike, stripped and barefoot, with their buttocks exposed—to the shame of Egypt.

Egypt and Cush Brought Low

5 Those who trusted in Cush and boasted in Egypt will be dismayed and put to shame.

6 In that day the people of this coastland will say, ‘See what has happened to those we looked to for help, those we relied on for deliverance from the king of Assyria! How then can we escape?’”

✠✧ Key Lessons from Isaiah 20

- God uses vivid signs: Isaiah's dramatic sign of walking barefoot and naked symbolized the humiliation Egypt and Cush would face.

- Human alliances cannot save: Judah should not trust Egypt or Cush for protection; their downfall showed the futility of leaning on man instead of God.
- God’s warnings are merciful: Through prophetic signs, God graciously warns His people before judgment falls.
- Only God delivers from Assyria (and all enemies): When trusted powers fall, it is clear that salvation belongs to the Lord alone.

Isaiah 21 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Burdens of Babylon, Dumah, and Arabia”

The Fall of Babylon

1 This is the burden concerning the Desert by the Sea:
Like whirlwinds sweeping through the south,
an invader comes from the desert,
from a land of terror.

2 A harsh vision has been shown to me:
The traitor betrays,
the destroyer destroys.
“Go up, Elam! Attack, Media!
I will put an end to all the groaning she caused.”

3 At this my body is racked with pain, pangs seize me like a woman in labor;
I am too distressed to hear,
too shaken to see.

4 My heart pounds,
fear grips me;
the evening I longed for has turned into terror for me.

5 They set the table,
they spread out rugs,
they eat, they drink.
“Rise up, you princes,
oil the shields!”

6 This is what the Lord said to me:
“Post a watchman.
Let him report what he sees.

7 When he sees chariots
with teams of horsemen,

riders on donkeys or camels,
let him be alert, fully alert.”

8 Then the watchman cried out:
“Like a lion I stand on the watchtower, O Lord,
day after day,
and I stay at my post every night.

9 Look, here comes a chariot with horsemen!
And he calls out:
‘Babylon is fallen, is fallen!
All the images of her gods lie shattered on the ground!’”

10 My people, crushed like grain on a threshing floor, this is what I have heard from the Lord of Heaven’s Armies,
the God of Israel,
and I have told you.

The Burden of Dumah

11 This is the burden concerning Dumah:
Someone calls to me from Seir,
“Watchman, what is left of the night?
Watchman, what is left of the night?”

12 The watchman replies,
“The morning is coming,
but also the night.
If you want to ask, then ask;
come back yet again.”

The Burden of Arabia

13 This is the burden concerning Arabia:
You caravans of Dedanites,
who camp in the thickets of Arabia,

14 bring water for the thirsty;
you who live in Tema,
bring food for the fugitives.

15 They are fleeing from the sword,
from the drawn sword,

from the bent bow
and the heat of battle.

16 This is what the Lord has told me:
Within one year, counted as precisely as a hired worker counts,
all the glory of Kedar will come to an end.

17 The survivors of the archers,
the warriors of Kedar,
will be few.
The Lord, the God of Israel, has spoken.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 21

- Babylon's fall is certain: Nations may rise in power, but every empire built on pride and idolatry will eventually fall.
- God's prophets share His burdens: Isaiah felt the pain and anguish of the vision, showing the weight of God's message.
- God reveals warnings through watchmen: The prophet's role was to stand alert and faithfully declare what he saw, a reminder of vigilance today.
- Judgment reaches all nations: Babylon, Dumah, and Arabia each faced their downfall in God's appointed time.
- God's word is sure: Whether in a year or in centuries, the Lord's decrees always come to pass.

Isaiah 22 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Burden of the Valley of Vision”

A Tumultuous City

1 This is the burden concerning the Valley of Vision:
What is the matter with you now,
that you have all gone up to the rooftops,

2 you noisy, uproarious town,
a city full of commotion?
Your slain were not killed by the sword,
nor did they die in battle.

3 All your rulers have fled together;
they are captured by the archers.
All who were caught were taken together,
though they tried to escape from afar.

4 Therefore I said,
“Turn away from me;
let me weep bitterly.
Do not try to comfort me
for the destruction of my people.”

A Day of Trouble

5 For the Lord, the Lord of Heaven’s Armies, has a day of turmoil, trampling, and confusion in the Valley of Vision—
a breaking down of walls and cries for help in the mountains.

6 Elam took up the quiver, with chariots and horsemen,
and Kir prepared the shields.

7 Your choicest valleys were full of chariots, and horsemen took their stand at the gates.

8 Judah’s defenses were stripped away, and on that day you looked to the weapons in the House of the Forest.

9 You saw the many breaches in the City of David;
you collected water from the lower pool.

10 You counted the houses of Jerusalem and tore some down to strengthen the wall.

11 You built a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool, but you did not look to its Maker, or have regard for the One who planned it long ago.

A Call to Mourning Ignored

12 The Lord, the Lord of Heaven’s Armies, called you that day to weeping and mourning,
to shaved heads and sackcloth.

13 But instead, there was joy and gladness, killing oxen and slaughtering sheep,
eating meat and drinking wine.
You said, “Let us eat and drink,
for tomorrow we die.”

14 The Lord of Heaven’s Armies revealed this to me:
“Surely this sin will not be forgiven you until you die,” says the Lord, the Lord of Hosts.

Judgment on Shebna

15 This is what the Lord, the Lord of Hosts, says:
“Go to Shebna, the steward over the palace, and say to him:

16 ‘What are you doing here, and who gave you the right to cut out a tomb here for yourself—hewing your grave on the height, carving your resting place in the rock?’

17 Beware! The Lord is about to throw you away violently, O mighty man.

18 He will roll you up tightly like a ball and hurl you into a large country.
There you will die,
and there your splendid chariots
will remain—
a disgrace to your master’s house.

19 I will depose you from your office, and you will be ousted from your position.”

The Rise of Eliakim

20 “In that day I will summon My servant Eliakim son of Hilkiyah.

21 I will clothe him with your robe, fasten your sash around him,
and hand your authority over to him.
He will be a father to those who live in Jerusalem and to the people of Judah.

22 I will place on his shoulder
the key of the house of David.

What he opens no one can shut,
and what he shuts no one can open.

23 I will drive him like a peg into a firm place;
he will be a seat of honor for the house of his father.

24 All the glory of his family will hang on him:
its offspring and offshoots—
all its lesser vessels,
from the bowls to all the jars.

25 But in that day,” declares the Lord of Hosts,
“the peg driven into a firm place will give way.
It will be cut down and fall,
and the load hanging on it will be destroyed.”
The Lord has spoken.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 22

- Self-reliance without God fails: Judah fortified walls and gathered water but ignored the One who made them strong.
- God calls for repentance, not indulgence: Instead of weeping and turning to God, the people feasted and lived carelessly.
- Sin brings lasting consequences: God declared that Judah’s disregard could not be purged without judgment.
- Pride in leadership is dangerous: Shebna sought glory for himself, carving out a legacy, but God humbled him.
- God raises up faithful leaders: Eliakim was appointed as a servant-leader, entrusted with authority and the “key of David.”
- Even strong leaders are not ultimate: The peg (Eliakim) symbolized stability, but even he was temporary—pointing to Christ, the true and eternal holder of David’s key.

Isaiah 23 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Burden Against Tyre”

Tyre Laid Waste

1 This is the burden concerning Tyre:
Wail, you ships of Tarshish,
for Tyre is destroyed and left without house or harbor.

From the land of Cyprus
news has reached them.

2 Be silent, you people of the coast,
you merchants of Sidon,
whose seafarers filled you with wealth.

3 On the great waters came the grain of Shihor;
the harvest of the Nile was her revenue.
She was the marketplace of nations.

4 Be ashamed, O Sidon,
for the sea has spoken—
the stronghold of the sea has said:
“I have neither labored nor given birth;
I have raised no sons
nor brought up daughters.”

5 When the news comes to Egypt, they will be in anguish at the report about Tyre.

6 Cross over to Tarshish;
wail, you people of the coast.

The Fall of a Proud City

7 Is this your city of revelry,
the old, old city,
whose feet carried her far away
to settle in distant lands?

8 Who planned this against Tyre,
the bestower of crowns,
whose merchants were princes,
whose traders were honored in the earth?

9 The Lord Almighty planned it, to bring down her pride
and to humble all who were honored on the earth.

10 Till your land overflows like the Nile, O daughter of Tarshish,
for you no longer have a harbor.

11 The Lord has stretched out His hand over the sea
and made kingdoms tremble.

He has given an order concerning Phoenicia to destroy its strongholds.

12 He said,
“You will no longer rejoice,
O oppressed virgin daughter of Sidon.
Arise and cross over to Cyprus;
even there you will find no rest.”

13 Look at the land of the Babylonians!
This people no longer exists.
The Assyrians founded it for desert creatures;
they set up siege towers,
they stripped its fortresses bare and turned it into ruins.

14 Wail, you ships of Tarshish;
your fortress is destroyed.

Tyre Forgotten and Restored

15 In that day Tyre will be forgotten for seventy years,
the span of a king's life.
At the end of seventy years
it will happen to Tyre as in the song of the prostitute:

16 “Take a harp, walk through the city,
you forgotten prostitute;
play the harp well, sing many songs, so that you will be remembered.”

17 At the end of seventy years, the Lord will deal with Tyre.
She will return to her trade and prostitute herself with all the kingdoms of the world on the face of the earth.

18 Yet her profits and her earnings will be set apart for the Lord.
They will not be stored or hoarded.
Her profits will go to those who live before the Lord,
for abundant food and fine clothing.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 23

- God humbles the proud: Tyre, the great merchant city, trusted in wealth and trade, but the Lord brought her low.

- Nations cannot rely on riches: Even the world's marketplace, rich with goods and influence, was reduced to silence.
- God determines the rise and fall of empires: The Lord's hand over the sea shook kingdoms and brought Tyre's defenses down.
- Judgment has a time limit: Tyre was forgotten for seventy years, yet God still had a purpose for her afterward.
- God redeems even former corruption: Tyre's trade, once likened to prostitution with the nations, would ultimately be dedicated to the Lord.
- All wealth belongs to God: When restored, Tyre's profits would provide for God's people, not for greedy gain.

Isaiah 24 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord’s Judgment on the Whole Earth”

The Earth Laid Waste

1 Behold, the Lord lays the earth waste, makes it desolate,
turns it upside down,
and scatters its inhabitants.

2 It will be the same for everyone:
for people and priests,
for servants and masters,
for maids and mistresses,
for buyers and sellers,
for lenders and borrowers,
for creditors and debtors.

3 The land will be completely emptied and utterly plundered,
for the Lord has spoken this word.

The Earth Mourns

4 The earth mourns and withers,
the world fades and wastes away;
even the proud people of the earth languish.

5 The earth is defiled by its people;
they have broken God's laws,

violated His decrees,
and broken the everlasting covenant.

6 Therefore a curse devours the earth;
its people bear their guilt.
Its inhabitants are burned up,
and only a few are left.

Joy Removed from the Earth

7 The new wine dries up,
the vine withers,
all who were once joyful now groan.

8 The sounds of tambourines have ceased,
the noise of revelers has ended,
the joyful music of the harp is silent.

9 No longer do they drink wine with song;
strong drink tastes bitter to those who drink it.

10 The ruined city lies desolate;
every house is shut up,
with no one allowed to enter.

11 People cry out for wine in the streets;
all joy turns to gloom,
gladness is banished from the earth.

12 The city is left in ruins, its gates battered and destroyed.

13 So it will be throughout the land
among the nations—
like the shaking of an olive tree, like the gleaning of grapes after harvest.

Songs of Praise Amid Judgment

14 Yet they lift up their voices, they shout for joy;
from the west they proclaim the majesty of the Lord.

15 Therefore, glorify the Lord in the east,
the name of the Lord,

the God of Israel,
in the islands of the sea.

16 From the ends of the earth
we hear songs:
“Glory to the Righteous One!”
But I said, “I waste away, I waste away!
Woe to me!
The traitors betray—with treachery they deal treacherously.”

The Shaking of the Earth

17 Terror, the pit, and the snare await you, people of the earth.

18 Whoever flees at the sound of terror
will fall into a pit;
whoever climbs out of the pit
will be caught in a snare.
For the windows of heaven are opened,
and the foundations of the earth shake.

19 The earth is broken apart,
it is split open,
it is shaken violently.

20 The earth staggers like a drunkard,
it sways like a hut in the wind.
Its sin weighs heavily on it;
it falls and will never rise again.

The Lord Reigns in Zion

21 In that day the Lord will punish the powers in the heavens above and the kings on the earth below.

22 They will be herded together like prisoners bound in a dungeon;
they will be shut up in prison and after many days they will be punished.

23 The moon will be disgraced,
the sun ashamed;

for the Lord Almighty will reign
on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, and before His elders with great glory.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 24

- Judgment is universal: God’s judgment falls on all—rich and poor, priest and people alike—none are exempt.
- Sin corrupts the whole earth: Humanity’s rebellion pollutes creation, breaking God’s covenant and bringing a curse.
- Joy without God is temporary: Parties, music, and drinking vanish when God removes His blessing.
- God preserves a remnant: Even in devastation, a faithful people lift their voices to glorify the Lord.
- The earth itself will shake: The imagery of the world reeling like a drunkard points to the final judgment.
- The Lord will reign in glory: Though the earth falls, Zion stands firm—God will reign gloriously before His people forever.

Isaiah 25 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Song of Praise for God’s Salvation”

Praise for God’s Wonderful Works

1 O Lord, You are my God;
I will exalt You and praise Your name, for You have done wonderful things,
plans formed long ago,
faithful and true.

2 You have made the city a heap of ruins,
the fortified city a ruin.
The foreigners’ stronghold is no more;
it will never be rebuilt.

3 Therefore strong nations will honor You;
cities of ruthless nations will fear You.

Refuge of the Poor and Needy

4 For You have been a refuge for the poor,
a stronghold for the needy in distress,
a shelter from the storm,
and a shade from the heat.

For the breath of the ruthless is like a storm against a wall,

5 like heat in a dry land.

But You silence the uproar of foreigners;
as heat is reduced by the shadow of a cloud,
so the song of the ruthless is stilled.

The Feast on God's Mountain

6 On this mountain the Lord Almighty will prepare a feast for all peoples,
a banquet of rich food,
a feast of well-aged wine—
the best meats and the finest wines.

7 On this mountain He will destroy the shroud that covers all peoples,
the sheet that is spread over all nations.

8 He will swallow up death forever.
The Sovereign Lord will wipe away the tears
from all faces;
He will remove His people's disgrace from all the earth.
The Lord has spoken.

Rejoicing in Salvation

9 In that day they will say, “Surely this is our God;
we trusted in Him, and He saved us.
This is the Lord, we trusted in Him;
let us rejoice and be glad in His salvation.”

The Humbling of Moab

10 The hand of the Lord will rest on this mountain, but Moab will be trampled down in their land,
as straw is trampled in a manure pile.

11 They will spread out their hands in it,
as a swimmer spreads out his hands to swim.
But the Lord will bring down their pride
despite the cleverness of their hands.

12 He will bring down your high fortified walls and lay them low.
He will throw them down to the ground,
to the dust.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 25

- God is faithful to His plans: His purposes are ancient, unchanging, and always come to pass.
- The Lord defends the weak: He is a refuge for the poor and needy, a shelter in life's storms.
- God promises a great feast: A picture of salvation's fullness, shared by all nations on His holy mountain.
- Death will be defeated: God will swallow up death forever and wipe away every tear, pointing to Christ's victory.
- Salvation brings joy: The redeemed will rejoice, saying, "This is our God; we trusted Him, and He saved us."
- Pride is crushed, but the humble are lifted: Moab's prideful strength is brought down, but God's people rejoice in His care.

Isaiah 26 – Crawford Standard Bible

"A Song of Trust in the Lord"

A Song of Salvation

1 In that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah:
"We have a strong city;
God makes salvation its walls and ramparts.

2 Open the gates,
so that the righteous nation,
the one that remains faithful,
may enter in.

3 You will keep in perfect peace
the one whose mind is fixed on You, because he trusts in You.

4 Trust in the Lord forever, for the Lord, the Lord Himself, is the Rock eternal.”

The Humbling of the Proud

5 He brings down those who live on high;
the lofty city He lays low.
He levels it to the ground and casts it to the dust.

6 The feet of the oppressed will trample it down,
the footsteps of the poor.

The Way of the Just

7 The path of the righteous is level;
You, O Upright One,
make the way of the righteous smooth.

8 Yes, Lord, walking in the way of Your judgments,
we wait for You;
Your name and Your remembrance are the desire of our soul.

9 My soul yearns for You in the night;
in the morning my spirit seeks You.
For when Your judgments come to the earth,
the people of the world learn righteousness.

The Wicked Refuse to Learn

10 Though grace is shown to the wicked, they do not learn righteousness.
Even in a land of uprightness,
they act wickedly
and do not see the majesty of the Lord.

11 O Lord, Your hand is lifted high,
yet they do not see it.
But they will see and be put to shame—
their envy toward Your people consumed;
yes, the fire reserved for Your enemies will devour them.

God's Peace and Power

12 Lord, You establish peace for us;
all that we have accomplished,
You have done for us.

13 Lord our God,
other lords besides You have ruled over us,
but Your name alone we honor.

14 The dead are now dead; they will not live.
Their spirits are gone; they will not rise.
You punished them and wiped out their memory.

15 You have enlarged the nation, O Lord;
You have enlarged the nation.
You are glorified;
You have extended all its borders.

A Cry for Deliverance

16 Lord, in distress they sought You;
they poured out a prayer
when You disciplined them.

17 As a pregnant woman about to give birth writhes and cries out in pain,
so were we in Your presence, O Lord.

18 We were with child, we writhed in pain,
but we gave birth only to wind.
We have not brought deliverance to the earth,
and the people of the world have not fallen.

The Promise of Resurrection

19 But Your dead will live, Lord;
their bodies will rise.

Let those who dwell in the dust awake and shout for joy.

Your dew is like the dew of the morning;
the earth will give birth to her dead.

God's Protection in Judgment

20 Go, My people, enter your rooms and shut your doors behind you;
hide yourselves for a little while until His wrath has passed by.

21 See, the Lord is coming out of His dwelling to punish the people of the earth for their sins.
The earth will reveal the blood shed on it;
it will no longer cover up its slain.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 26

- Perfect peace comes from trust: God promises peace to those who fix their minds on Him.
- God humbles the proud but lifts the lowly: Lofty cities fall, but the poor and needy walk in victory.
- The righteous desire God above all: True faith waits on Him day and night, longing for His name and presence.
- The wicked waste God's grace: Mercy shown to them does not change their hearts without repentance.
- God is our only Lord: Other powers may rule for a time, but only God's name endures forever.
- Resurrection hope is sure: God promises that His people will rise from the dust to everlasting joy.
- God protects His own during judgment: He calls His people to hide until His wrath has passed, pointing to His ultimate deliverance.

Isaiah 27 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Israel's Deliverance and the Defeat of Leviathan”

The Lord Defeats Leviathan

1 In that day the Lord,
with His fierce, great, and strong sword,
will punish Leviathan the swift serpent,
Leviathan the twisted serpent.
He will slay the dragon
that lives in the sea.

The Lord's Vineyard

2 In that day sing of it:
"A vineyard of wine, beloved of the Lord!"

3 I, the Lord, watch over it;
I water it continually.
I guard it night and day,
so no one may harm it.

4 I am not angry.
But if only briars and thorns confronted Me,
I would march against them in battle;
I would burn them all together.

5 Or let them come to Me for refuge;
let them make peace with Me—
yes, let them make peace with Me.

6 In days to come Jacob will take root,
Israel will blossom and sprout,
and will fill the whole earth with fruit.

The Purging of Sin

7 Has He struck Israel
as He struck her enemies?
Has she been killed
as her slayers were killed?

8 By warfare and exile You contended with her;
with His fierce blast He drove her out,
as on a day when the east wind blows.

9 By this, then, will Jacob's guilt be atoned for,
and this will be the full fruit of removing his sin:

When he makes all the altar stones like chalk stones crushed to pieces, no Asherah poles or pagan incense altars will be left standing.

The Desolate City

10 The fortified city lies desolate, abandoned and forsaken like a wilderness.
There the calves graze;
they lie down and strip its branches bare.

11 When its twigs are dry, they are broken off,
and women come and use them for firewood.
For this is a people without understanding;
so their Maker will show them no compassion,
and their Creator will grant them no favor.

Israel Gathered Back

12 In that day the Lord will thresh from the flowing Euphrates River to the brook of Egypt, and you, O children of Israel,
will be gathered one by one.

13 And in that day a great trumpet will sound.
Those who were perishing in Assyria and those who were exiles in Egypt will come and worship the Lord on the holy mountain in Jerusalem.

✠✧ Key Lessons from Isaiah 27

- God defeats chaos and evil: Leviathan, the great serpent of the sea, symbolizes the powers of evil that God will destroy.
- God tends His vineyard: Unlike chapter 5 where Israel was judged as a wild vineyard, here God Himself guards and nurtures His people.
- Peace with God is possible: Even those under judgment can turn and make peace with Him.
- Judgment purges sin: God's discipline is not to destroy His people but to cleanse them of idolatry and rebellion.

- The proud city falls, but God’s people rise: Earthly strongholds become ruins, while God restores His faithful.
- God gathers His scattered people: From Assyria and Egypt, Israel will return and worship Him in Zion, pointing to the ultimate gathering of His people from all nations.

Isaiah 28 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Woe Against Ephraim’s Pride and the Cornerstone in Zion”

Woe to the Drunkards of Ephraim

1 Woe to the proud crown of Ephraim’s drunkards, to its fading flower of glorious beauty,
set on the head of a fertile valley—
to those overcome with wine!

2 See, the Lord has one who is strong and mighty.
Like a hailstorm and a destructive wind,
like a flood of mighty waters overflowing,
he will throw it violently to the ground with his hand.

3 The proud crown of Ephraim’s drunkards will be trampled underfoot.

4 That fading flower of glorious beauty,
set on the head of a fertile valley,
will be like a ripe fig before summer.
As soon as someone sees it and takes it in his hand,
he swallows it down.

The Lord, Israel’s True Crown

5 In that day the Lord Almighty will be a crown of glory, a beautiful wreath for the remnant of His people.

6 He will be a spirit of justice to the one who sits in judgment, a source of strength
to those who turn back the battle at the gate.

Corruption of Priests and Prophets

7 But these also reel from wine and stagger from strong drink;

priests and prophets stagger with drink,
they are befuddled with wine,
they stumble in judgment.

8 Their tables are covered with vomit;
there is not a clean spot.

9 “Who is He trying to teach knowledge to?
To whom is He explaining His message?
To children just weaned from milk,
to those just taken from the breast?

10 For it is rule on rule, rule on rule,
line upon line, line upon line,
here a little, there a little.”

11 Very well then, with foreign lips and strange tongues
God will speak to this people,

12 to whom He said,
“This is the resting place, let the weary rest;
and this is the place of repose”—
but they would not listen.

13 So then, the word of the Lord to them will become:
rule on rule, rule on rule,
line upon line, line upon line,
here a little, there a little—
so that as they go they will fall backward, be injured, snared, and captured.

The Covenant with Death Annulled

14 Therefore hear the word of the Lord,
you scoffers who rule this people in Jerusalem.

15 You boast, “We have made a covenant with death,
and with the grave we have made an agreement.
When the overwhelming scourge sweeps by,
it cannot touch us,
for we have made lies our refuge and falsehood our hiding place.”

16 So this is what the Sovereign Lord says:
“See, I lay a stone in Zion,

a tested stone,
a precious cornerstone for a sure foundation;
the one who trusts will never be shaken.

17 I will make justice the measuring line and righteousness the plumb line;
hail will sweep away your refuge of lies,
and water will flood your hiding place.

18 Your covenant with death will be annulled;
your agreement with the grave will not stand.
When the overwhelming scourge sweeps by,
you will be beaten down by it.

19 As often as it comes it will carry you away;
morning after morning, by day and by night,
it will sweep through.”
The understanding of this message will bring sheer terror.

20 The bed is too short to stretch out on,
the blanket too narrow to wrap around in.

21 The Lord will rise up as He did at Mount Perazim,
He will rouse Himself as in the Valley of Gibeon—to do His work, His strange work, and perform His task, His unusual task.

22 Now stop your mocking, or your chains will become heavier;
for the Lord, the Lord Almighty, has told me of destruction decreed against the whole land.

God's Wisdom in Discipline

23 Listen and hear my voice;
pay attention and hear what I say.

24 When a farmer plows for planting,
does he plow continually?
Does he keep on breaking up and working the soil?

25 When he has leveled the surface,
does he not sow caraway and scatter cumin?
Does he not plant wheat in its place, barley in its plot,

and spelt in its field?

26 His God instructs him and teaches him the right way.

27 Caraway is not threshed with a sledge,
nor is a cartwheel rolled over cumin;
caraway is beaten out with a rod,
and cumin with a stick.

28 Grain must be ground to make bread;
but one does not go on threshing it forever.
The wheels of a cart may crush it,
but he does not grind it to dust.

29 All this also comes from the Lord Almighty, whose plan is wonderful,
whose wisdom is magnificent.

✠✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 28

- Pride leads to downfall: Ephraim's beauty faded because of drunkenness and arrogance, reminding us that pride weakens a nation.
- God is the true crown: While human glory fades, the Lord Himself is the crown of His faithful people.
- Leaders are accountable: Priests and prophets led astray by wine corrupted justice and truth.
- Christ is the Cornerstone: The precious stone in Zion points to Jesus, the foundation of salvation for all who believe.
- False security fails: Israel's "covenant with death" was built on lies and would collapse under God's judgment.
- God's discipline is wise: Like a farmer who knows how to thresh and when to stop, God's judgment is measured, purposeful, and aimed at restoration.
- The Lord's wisdom surpasses human plans: His ways are both wonderful in counsel and perfect in execution.

Isaiah 29 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Woe to Ariel and the Marvelous Work of God”

Woe to Ariel

1 Woe to Ariel, Ariel,
the city where David once camped!

Add year to year,
let the cycle of sacrifices continue.

2 Yet I will press Ariel with distress;
there will be sorrow and mourning,
and it will be to Me like an altar hearth.

3 I will encamp all around you,
I will lay siege against you with towers,
and raise siege works against you.

4 You will be brought low;
from the ground your speech will whisper,
your voice will come ghostlike from the dust,
like a faint whisper from the earth.

God Strikes the Nations

5 But your many enemies will become like fine dust,
the ruthless hordes like blowing chaff.
Suddenly, in an instant,

6 you will be visited by the Lord Almighty—with thunder, earthquake, and great noise, with whirlwind and storm,
and with flames of consuming fire.

7 The hordes of all the nations that fight against Ariel, that attack her and her stronghold,
will be like a dream, a vision in the night.

8 Like a hungry man who dreams he is eating,
but awakens hungry still;
like a thirsty man who dreams he is drinking,
but wakes faint and still thirsty—
so it will be with the multitudes of nations that fight against Mount Zion.

Spiritual Blindness

9 Be stunned and amazed,
blind yourselves and be blind!
They are drunk, but not from wine;
they stagger, but not from beer.

10 For the Lord has poured out on you a spirit of deep sleep.

He has shut your eyes—the prophets;
He has covered your heads—the seers.

11 For you this whole vision is nothing but words in a sealed scroll.
When you give it to someone who can read and say,
“Read this, please,” they answer,
“I cannot; it is sealed.”

12 Or when you give the scroll to someone who cannot read and say,
“Read this, please,” they answer,
“I don’t know how to read.”

Empty Worship Exposed

13 The Lord says:
“These people come near to Me with their mouth and honor Me with their lips, but their hearts are far from Me.
Their worship of Me
is made up only of human rules taught by men.

14 Therefore I will again do a wonderful thing among this people—a marvelous work!
The wisdom of the wise will perish,
the intelligence of the intelligent will vanish.”

God Knows All Things

15 Woe to those who go to great depths to hide their plans from the Lord, who do their work in darkness and think,
“Who sees us? Who will know?”

16 You turn things upside down!
Shall the potter be regarded as the clay?
Shall the thing formed say to the one who formed it,
“You did not make me”?
Shall the creation say to its Creator,
“You have no understanding”?

The Future Restoration

17 In a very short time,
Lebanon will become a fertile field,
and the fertile field will seem like a forest.

18 In that day the deaf will hear the words of the scroll, and out of gloom and darkness
the eyes of the blind will see.

19 The humble will rejoice in the Lord;
the needy will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

20 The ruthless will vanish,
the mockers will disappear,
and all who look for evil will be cut off—

21 those who make a man guilty with a word, who trap the defender in court,
and with false testimony
deny justice to the innocent.

Jacob Redeemed

22 Therefore this is what the Lord, who redeemed Abraham, says
to the house of Jacob:
“No longer will Jacob be ashamed;
no longer will their faces grow pale.

23 When they see among them their children,
the work of My hands,
they will keep My name holy;
they will acknowledge the holiness of the Holy One of Jacob,
and will stand in awe of the God of Israel.

24 Those who are wayward in spirit will gain understanding;
those who complain will accept instruction.”

✠✧ Key Lessons from Isaiah 29

- God judges His own city when pride takes over: Jerusalem (Ariel) trusted in rituals, but God brought distress to humble them.
- God defeats nations like a dream: Those who fight against Zion will vanish like morning mist after a dream.
- Spiritual blindness is dangerous: God’s people had prophets and the law but treated them as a sealed book.
- Empty religion is worthless: God desires hearts, not just lips or human traditions.
- God is the Potter, we are the clay: It is foolish for the creation to deny the Creator’s wisdom and authority.
- Restoration is coming: The deaf will hear, the blind will see, the humble will rejoice, and Jacob’s shame will be removed.
- God transforms the erring: Those who once resisted will learn truth and glorify the Lord.

Isaiah 30 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Woe to Rebellious Children Who Trust Egypt Instead of God”

Woe to Rebellious Children

1 Woe to the rebellious children, declares the Lord, who carry out plans that are not Mine,
 who make alliances but not by My Spirit,
 adding sin to sin.

2 They go down to Egypt
 without seeking My counsel, to take refuge in Pharaoh’s strength,
 to trust in Egypt’s shadow.

3 But Pharaoh’s protection will bring you shame, and reliance on Egypt will end in disgrace.

4 Their officials are in Zoan, and their envoys have reached Hanes,

5 but they will all be put to shame because of a people useless to them, who bring neither help nor benefit,
 but only shame and reproach.

Egypt's Worthless Help

6 This is the prophecy about the animals of the Negev:
Through a land of hardship and distress,
of lions and vipers,
where fiery flying serpents dwell,
they carry their riches on donkeys' backs,
their treasures on camels' humps,
to a nation that cannot help them.

7 Egypt's help is worthless and empty;
therefore I call her "Rahab Who Sits Still."

A Rebellious People

8 Go now, write it on a tablet for them,
inscribe it in a book,
that it may be a witness forever.

9 For these are a rebellious people, deceitful children,
children unwilling to listen to the Lord's instruction.

10 They say to the seers, "See no more visions!"
and to the prophets,
"Prophecy not the truth to us!
Tell us pleasant things, prophesy illusions.

11 Get out of the way!
Turn aside from the path!
Stop confronting us with the Holy One of Israel!"

12 Therefore this is what the Holy One of Israel says:
"Because you have rejected this message,
and relied on oppression and deceit,
this sin will become for you like a high wall, cracked and bulging, that collapses suddenly, in an instant.

13 It will break in pieces like pottery, shattered so ruthlessly that among its fragments not a shard will be found to scoop coals from a hearth or to draw water from a cistern."

Salvation in Quiet Trust

15 For this is what the Sovereign Lord,
the Holy One of Israel, says:
“In repentance and rest is your salvation, in quietness and trust is your strength—
but you would have none of it.

16 You said, ‘No, we will flee on horses’—
therefore you will flee!
You said, ‘We will ride swift horses’— therefore your pursuers will be swift!

17 A thousand will flee at the threat of one;
at the threat of five you will all flee away,
until you are left like a flagstaff on a mountaintop,
like a banner on a hill.”

The Lord Longs to Be Gracious

18 Yet the Lord longs to be gracious to you;
therefore He will rise up to show you compassion.
For the Lord is a God of justice.
Blessed are all who wait for Him!

19 People of Zion, who live in Jerusalem,
you will weep no more.
How gracious He will be when you cry for help!
As soon as He hears, He will answer you.

20 Though the Lord gives you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, your teachers will be hidden no more;
with your own eyes you will see them.

21 Whether you turn to the right or to the left,
your ears will hear a voice behind you, saying,
“This is the way; walk in it.”

Idols Cast Away

22 Then you will desecrate your silver idols and your gold images;

you will throw them away as unclean things and say to them, "Be gone!"

23 He will send rain for the seed you sow in the ground, and the food that comes from the land
will be rich and plentiful.
On that day your cattle will graze in broad pastures.

24 The oxen and donkeys that work the soil will eat seasoned fodder, winnowed with shovel and fork.

25 On every high mountain and lofty hill there will be streams of running water on the day of great slaughter,
when the towers fall.

26 The moon will shine like the sun,
and the sunlight will be seven times brighter,
like the light of seven full days,
when the Lord binds up the wounds of His people and heals the bruises He has inflicted.

The Lord's Judgment on Assyria

27 See, the Name of the Lord comes from afar, burning with anger,
dense with smoke;
His lips are full of fury,
His tongue a consuming fire.

28 His breath is like a rushing torrent,
rising up to the neck.
He shakes the nations in the sieve of destruction;
He places in their jaws a bit
that leads them astray.

29 And you will sing
as on the night you celebrate a holy festival;
your hearts will rejoice
as when people go up with flutes to the mountain of the Lord, to the Rock of Israel.

30 The Lord will cause men to hear His majestic voice and will show them the descending blow of His arm—

with raging anger and consuming fire, with cloudburst, thunderstorm, and hail.

31 The voice of the Lord will shatter Assyria;
with His rod He will strike them down.

32 Every stroke the Lord lays on them with His punishing club will be to the music of tambourines and harps, as He fights them in battle with blows of His arm.

33 For Topheth has long been prepared;
it has been made ready for the king.
Its fire pit has been made deep and wide,
with an abundance of fire and wood.
The breath of the Lord,
like a stream of burning sulfur,
sets it ablaze.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 30

- Trust in God, not human power: Judah sought help from Egypt instead of relying on the Lord, but Egypt's strength was useless.
- Rebellion resists truth: God's people wanted smooth words instead of truth, exposing their hardened hearts.
- True salvation comes through repentance: Quiet trust in God, not self-reliance, is the source of strength.
- God longs to show grace: Even in discipline, God waits to be gracious and merciful to those who cry out to Him.
- God guides His people personally: His voice directs the faithful, saying, "This is the way; walk in it."
- Idols must be cast aside: God's blessings flow when false gods are rejected.
- Judgment brings justice: The Assyrian will fall by God's mighty hand, and His people will rejoice in His salvation.
- God heals His people: The wounds caused by sin and judgment will be bound up, and His light will shine brighter than ever.

Isaiah 31 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Woe to Those Who Trust in Egypt Instead of God”

Woe to Those Who Trust in Horses

1 Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help, who rely on horses,
who trust in the multitude of chariots
and in the great strength of horsemen, but do not look to the Holy One of Israel,
or seek the Lord!

2 Yet He too is wise and brings disaster;
He does not take back His words.
He will rise up against the house of evildoers, against those who help wrongdoers.

3 But the Egyptians are mere men and not God;
their horses are flesh and not spirit.
When the Lord stretches out His hand, both he who helps will stumble and he who is helped will fall;
together they will perish.

The Lord Fights for Zion

4 This is what the Lord has said to me:
“As a lion growls,
a young lion over its prey—
though a band of shepherds is called against it, it is not frightened by their shouts or disturbed by their noise—
so the Lord Almighty will come down to fight for Mount Zion and its hill.

5 Like birds hovering overhead,
the Lord Almighty will shield Jerusalem;
He will protect and deliver it,
He will ‘pass over’ and rescue it.”

A Call to Repentance

6 Return to Him you have so greatly revolted against,
O people of Israel.

7 For in that day every one of you will reject the silver idols and gold idols your sinful hands have made.

The Fall of Assyria

8 “The Assyrian will fall by a sword not of man;
a sword not of mortals will devour them.
They will flee before the sword,
and their young men will be forced into labor.

9 Their stronghold will fall because of terror;
their commanders will panic at the banner,”
declares the Lord,
whose fire burns in Zion,
whose furnace is in Jerusalem.

✠✧ Key Lessons from Isaiah 31

- Human power cannot save: Egypt had strength in horses and chariots, but they were mere flesh, not spirit.
- God’s wisdom cannot be resisted: His words stand firm, and He rises against both the evildoers and those who help them.
- God defends His people: Like a lion guarding its prey or birds hovering in protection, the Lord Himself fights for Zion.
- Repentance requires rejecting idols: True return to God means casting away false gods of silver and gold.
- God defeats the enemy by His power alone: The Assyrian falls not by human sword, but by the hand of the Lord.
- Zion is God’s dwelling: His fire and furnace in Jerusalem symbolize His presence, protection, and judgment.

Isaiah 32 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Righteous King and the Outpouring of the Spirit”

The Reign of a Righteous King

1 Behold, a king will reign in righteousness, and princes will rule with justice.

2 Each one will be like a shelter from the wind,
a refuge from the storm,
like streams of water in a dry land,
like the shade of a great rock in a weary land.

3 Then the eyes of those who see will no longer be dim,
and the ears of those who hear will listen.

4 The hearts of the reckless will understand knowledge, and the tongues of the stammering will speak clearly.

5 No longer will fools be called noble,
nor the miser said to be generous.

The Difference Between the Foolish and the Noble

6 For the fool speaks folly, and his heart plots evil:
to practice ungodliness,
to speak error against the Lord,
to starve the hungry of food and deprive the thirsty of drink.

7 The miser's schemes are evil;
he plans wickedness to ruin the poor with lies,
even when the plea of the needy is just.

8 But the noble person makes noble plans, and by noble deeds they will stand.

A Warning to Careless Women

9 Rise up, you women who live in ease;
hear my voice,
you daughters who live carelessly;
listen to what I say.

10 In little more than a year
you who feel secure will tremble;
the grape harvest will fail,
and the fruit crop will not come.

11 Tremble, you women who live in ease;
shudder, you careless ones.

Strip yourselves bare,
and put sackcloth around your waists.

12 Beat your breasts for the pleasant fields,
for the fruitful vines,

13 and for the land of my people, overgrown with thorns and briars—yes, mourn for all the houses of joy and the bustling city.

14 The fortress will be abandoned,
the noisy city deserted;
citadel and watchtower will become wastelands forever,
a delight for donkeys,
a pasture for flocks—

The Outpouring of the Spirit

15 until the Spirit is poured out on us from on high.
Then the desert will become a fertile field,
and the fertile field will seem like a forest.

16 Justice will dwell in the wilderness,
and righteousness will live in the fertile field.

17 The fruit of righteousness will be peace;
its effect will be quietness and confidence forever.

18 My people will live in peaceful dwelling places,
in secure homes,
in undisturbed places of rest.

19 But hail will flatten the forest, and the city will be brought low.

20 Blessed are those who sow beside all waters,
who let the ox and donkey range freely.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 32

- Christ foreshadowed as the Righteous King: A coming ruler brings justice and peace, pointing to the Messiah.
- Godly leadership provides shelter: The righteous protect and refresh others like shade, water, and refuge.

- True character revealed: Fools and misers bring harm, but noble people plan and act with generosity.
- Complacency is dangerous: The women of ease are warned that fruitfulness will vanish unless they repent.
- The Spirit transforms everything: When God pours out His Spirit, barren wilderness becomes fertile and full of life.
- Righteousness brings peace: True peace and security come from God’s justice, not from human effort.
- Blessed are the faithful workers: Those who sow and labor with trust in God will see abundance and blessing.

Isaiah 33 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Woe to the Destroyer, But the Lord Saves Zion”

Woe to the Treacherous

1 Woe to you who plunder, though you were not plundered, and you who deal treacherously, though others did not deal treacherously with you!
When you finish destroying, you will be destroyed;
when you stop betraying, you will be betrayed.

A Prayer for God’s Help

2 O Lord, be gracious to us; we wait for You.
Be our strength every morning,
our salvation in times of trouble.

3 At the sound of Your roar, the nations flee;
when You rise up, the peoples scatter.

4 The nations’ wealth will be gathered like locusts, like swarming insects rushing in.

The Lord Exalted in Zion

5 The Lord is exalted, for He dwells on high;
He has filled Zion with justice and righteousness.

6 He will be the sure foundation of your times,
a rich store of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge.
The fear of the Lord is the key to this treasure.

Judgment on the Nations

7 Look, their brave men cry out in the streets;
the envoys of peace weep bitterly.

8 The highways are deserted,
travelers have stopped.
Covenants are broken,
witnesses despised,
and respect for people is no more.

9 The land mourns and wastes away;
Lebanon withers with shame,
Sharon is like a desert,
and Bashan and Carmel shed their leaves.

The Lord Arises

10 “Now I will arise,” says the Lord.
“Now I will be exalted;
now I will be lifted up.

11 You conceive chaff,
you give birth to stubble;
your own breath will be a fire that consumes you.

12 The peoples will be burned to ashes,
like cut thornbushes set ablaze.”

13 Hear, you who are far away, what I have done;
acknowledge My might, you who are near.

Who Can Dwell with the Holy God?

14 The sinners in Zion are terrified; trembling grips the hypocrites.
“Who of us can live with the consuming fire?
Who of us can dwell with everlasting flames?”

15 The one who walks righteously and speaks uprightly, who refuses unjust gain,
who shakes his hands free of bribes,

who stops his ears from hearing of bloodshed and shuts his eyes from looking at evil—

16 he will dwell on the heights,
his refuge will be the mountain fortress.
His bread will be supplied,
and his water will not fail him.

The Beauty of the King

17 Your eyes will see the King in His beauty;
they will behold a land stretching far and wide.

18 In your thoughts you will ponder the past terror:
“Where is the scribe?
Where is the tax collector?
Where is the one who counted the towers?”

19 You will see them no more—a fierce people with obscure speech, with strange, incomprehensible tongues.

The Glory of Zion

20 Look upon Zion, the city of our festivals.
Your eyes will see Jerusalem,
a peaceful dwelling place,
a tent that will never be moved;
its stakes will never be pulled up,
nor any of its ropes broken.

21 There the Lord will be our Mighty One.
It will be a place of broad rivers and streams,
but no enemy galley with oars will approach it,
no mighty ship will sail through it.

22 For the Lord is our Judge,
the Lord is our Lawgiver,
the Lord is our King;
He will save us.

23 Your riggings hang loose;
the mast is not secured,
the sail is not spread.

Then abundant spoil will be divided,
and even the lame will carry off plunder.

24 No one living in Zion will say, “I am sick.”
The people who dwell there will be forgiven their iniquity.

✠✧ Key Lessons from Isaiah 33

- God repays treachery: Those who deal deceitfully will face betrayal themselves.
- God is salvation daily: His people depend on Him every morning for strength and help.
- The fear of the Lord is treasure: True stability and wisdom are found in revering Him.
- The righteous are secure: God promises provision and protection for those who live uprightly.
- God is King, Judge, and Lawgiver: He alone rules, delivers, and establishes justice.
- Jerusalem’s future glory: God’s dwelling brings peace, protection, and forgiveness for His people.
- Sin cannot stand in God’s presence: Only those cleansed and living in righteousness can dwell with Him.

Isaiah 34 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God’s Judgment on the Nations”

The Call to Hear God’s Judgment

1 Come near, you nations, and listen;
pay attention, you peoples!
Let the earth hear, and all that is in it,
the world and everything that comes from it.

2 For the Lord’s anger is against all nations,
and His fury is against all their armies.
He has completely destroyed them,
He has given them over to slaughter.

3 Their dead will be thrown out,
their stench will rise from their corpses,
and the mountains will be soaked with their blood.

4 All the stars of the heavens will be dissolved, and the skies rolled up like a scroll;
all the stars will fall

like withered leaves from a vine, like shriveled figs from a fig tree.

The Sword of the Lord

5 “My sword has drunk its fill in the heavens;
see, it will come down in judgment on Edom,
the people I have doomed to destruction.

6 The sword of the Lord is filled with blood;
it is covered with fat—
the blood of lambs and goats,
the fat of the kidneys of rams.
For the Lord has a sacrifice in Bozrah,
a great slaughter in the land of Edom.

7 Wild oxen will fall with them,
young bulls along with the mighty bulls.
Their land will be drenched with blood,
and the soil enriched with fat.”

The Day of the Lord’s Vengeance

8 For this is the day of the Lord’s vengeance, the year of recompense for Zion’s cause.

9 Edom’s streams will be turned into pitch, its dust into burning sulfur;
its land will become blazing pitch.

10 It will burn night and day, unquenched;
its smoke will rise forever.
From generation to generation it will lie desolate;
no one will ever pass through it again.

A Land of Desolation

11 The desert owl and the screech owl will possess it;
the raven will dwell there.
The Lord will stretch out over it the measuring line of chaos and the plumb line of emptiness.

12 Its nobles will have nothing left to call a kingdom, and all its princes will vanish away.

13 Thorns will overrun her palaces, nettles and brambles her strongholds.
It will be a haunt for jackals,
a home for owls.

14 Desert creatures will meet hyenas, and wild goats will call to each other;
there the night creatures will settle and find themselves a resting place.

15 The owl will nest there, lay eggs and hatch them,
and care for her young under her shadow;
there also the vultures will gather,
each with its mate.

The Certainty of God's Word

16 Search the book of the Lord and read:
Not one of these creatures will be missing,
none will lack her mate.
For it is His mouth that has commanded it,
and His Spirit that has gathered them.

17 He has cast the lot for them;
His hand has measured it off for them.
They will possess it forever;
they will dwell there from generation to generation.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 34

- God judges all nations: His anger is not limited to one people, but falls on all who oppose Him.
- Edom as a symbol of judgment: The destruction of Edom represents God's certain justice against the proud and violent.
- Creation responds to God's wrath: Even the heavens and the earth are shaken at His judgment.
- God's vengeance is complete: When He acts, there is no escape; His sword fully accomplishes its purpose.

- Desolation replaces pride: Once-glorious lands become wastelands inhabited only by wild creatures.
- God's Word is sure: What He has spoken will come to pass; not one word will fail.

Isaiah 35 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Highway of Holiness and the Joy of the Redeemed”

The Desert Blossoms with Joy

1 The wilderness and the dry land will be glad;
the desert will rejoice and bloom like a rose.

2 It will bloom abundantly and rejoice with joy and singing.
The glory of Lebanon will be given to it,
the splendor of Carmel and Sharon.
They will see the glory of the Lord,
the majesty of our God.

Encouragement for the Weak

3 Strengthen the weak hands;
make firm the feeble knees.

4 Say to those with fearful hearts,
“Be strong, do not be afraid!
Behold, your God will come with vengeance;
with divine retribution He will come and save you.”

The Healing of God's People

5 Then the eyes of the blind will be opened,
and the ears of the deaf will be unstopped.

6 Then the lame will leap like a deer,
and the mute tongue will shout for joy.
For waters will break forth in the wilderness,
and streams in the desert.

7 The burning sand will become a pool,
the thirsty ground bubbling springs.
In the haunts where jackals once lay,
grass, reeds, and rushes will grow.

The Highway of Holiness

8 And a highway will be there—it will be called the Way of Holiness.
The unclean will not travel on it;
it will be for those who walk in the way.
Even if they are fools, they will not go astray.

9 No lion will be there,
nor will any ravenous beast go upon it;
they will not be found there.
But only the redeemed will walk there.

The Joy of the Redeemed

10 The ransomed of the Lord will return,
they will enter Zion with singing;
everlasting joy will crown their heads.
Gladness and joy will overtake them,
and sorrow and sighing will flee away.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 35

- God brings life to barren places: Even deserts bloom when God pours out His blessing.
- God strengthens the weak: His people are called to encourage one another with hope and courage.
- Healing and restoration come through Him: The blind, deaf, lame, and mute are transformed by His power.
- The Highway of Holiness is for the redeemed: Only those made clean by God's salvation can walk this way.
- God's protection is sure: No beast or enemy can threaten those walking in His path.
- Everlasting joy awaits the redeemed: Sorrow and sighing will flee in the presence of the Lord.

Isaiah 36 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Sennacherib Challenges Hezekiah's Trust in the Lord”

The Assyrian Threat

1 In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib, king of Assyria, marched against all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them.

2 Then the king of Assyria sent the commander, Rabshakeh, from Lachish to Jerusalem, to King Hezekiah, with a large army. He stood by the aqueduct of the upper pool, on the road to the washer's field.

3 Eliakim son of Hilkiah, who was over the palace, Shebna the scribe, and Joah son of Asaph, the recorder, went out to meet him.

Rabshakeh's Challenge

4 Rabshakeh said to them, "Tell Hezekiah, 'This is what the great king, the king of Assyria, says: On what are you basing this confidence of yours?'"

5 You say you have strategy and strength for war, but they are empty words. On whom are you relying, that you rebel against me?"

6 Look! You are relying on Egypt, that broken reed of a staff, which pierces the hand of anyone who leans on it. Such is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who depend on him.

7 But if you say, "We trust in the Lord our God," isn't He the one whose high places and altars Hezekiah removed, saying to Judah and Jerusalem, 'You must worship before this altar'?"

8 Now, make a deal with my master, the king of Assyria: I will give you two thousand horses—if you can find riders for them.

9 How then can you repel one officer of the least of my master's servants, relying on Egypt for chariots and horsemen?"

10 Furthermore, do you think I have come up against this land to destroy it without the Lord? The Lord Himself told me, 'Go up against this land and destroy it.'"

The People Hear the Threats

11 Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah said to Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, since we understand it. Do not speak to us in Hebrew in the hearing of the people on the wall."

12 But Rabshakeh replied, "Has my master sent me only to your master and to you to say these things, and not to the people sitting on the wall—who, like you, will eat their own filth and drink their own urine during the siege?"

13 Then Rabshakeh stood and called out in a loud voice in Hebrew: "Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria!"

14 This is what the king says: Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he cannot deliver you.

15 Do not let Hezekiah make you trust in the Lord when he says, ‘The Lord will surely deliver us; this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.’

16 Do not listen to Hezekiah. This is what the king of Assyria says: Make peace with me and come out to me. Then every one of you will eat from his own vine and fig tree and drink water from his own cistern, 17 until I come and take you to a land like your own—a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

18 Do not let Hezekiah mislead you by saying, ‘The Lord will deliver us.’ Have any of the gods of the nations delivered their lands from the hand of the king of Assyria?

19 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Have they delivered Samaria from my hand?

20 Who among all the gods of these lands has delivered his land from my hand, that the Lord should deliver Jerusalem from my hand?”

The People Remain Silent

21 But the people remained silent and did not answer him a word, because the king had commanded, “Do not answer him.”

22 Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, who was over the palace, Shebna the scribe, and Joah son of Asaph, the recorder, went to King Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and they told him what Rabshakeh had said.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 36

- The world questions faith in God: Rabshakeh represents the enemy’s voice that mocks trust in the Lord and tempts people to rely on human power.
- False security is dangerous: Trusting in Egypt or human strength is like leaning on a broken reed that wounds instead of supports.
- The enemy twists truth: Rabshakeh used lies and half-truths to discourage God’s people, even claiming the Lord had sent Assyria.
- Silence can be wisdom: The people obeyed Hezekiah’s command not to answer the enemy’s taunts, showing trust in God’s leadership.
- God’s people must hold firm: When mocked and threatened, true strength lies not in negotiation or compromise, but in steadfast faith in the Lord.

Isaiah 37 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Hezekiah’s Prayer and God’s Deliverance”

Hezekiah Seeks the Lord

1 When King Hezekiah heard this, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth, and went into the house of the Lord.

2 He sent Eliakim, who was over the palace, Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, all clothed in sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz.

3 They said to him, “This is what Hezekiah says: This is a day of distress, of rebuke, and of disgrace, as when children come to the point of birth but there is no strength to deliver them.

4 It may be that the Lord your God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria has sent to mock the living God, and will rebuke him for the words the Lord your God has heard. Therefore, lift up your prayer for the remnant that is still left.”

5 When King Hezekiah’s officials came to Isaiah,

6 Isaiah said to them, “Tell your master this is what the Lord says: ‘Do not be afraid of the words you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed Me.

7 I am going to put a spirit in him so that when he hears a certain report, he will return to his own land, and there I will cause him to fall by the sword.’”

Sennacherib’s Threats Continue

8 Rabshakeh returned and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah, for he had heard that he had left Lachish.

9 Then Sennacherib heard that Tirhakah, king of Cush, was marching out to fight against him. When he heard this, he sent messengers again to Hezekiah, saying:

10 “Say this to Hezekiah king of Judah: Do not let the God you depend on deceive you when He says, ‘Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.’

11 Surely you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all the lands, destroying them completely. Will you be delivered?

12 Did the gods of the nations my fathers destroyed—Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden in Telassar—deliver them?

13 Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, or the kings of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah?”

Hezekiah's Prayer

14 Hezekiah received the letter from the messengers, read it, then went up to the house of the Lord and spread it out before the Lord.

15 And Hezekiah prayed to the Lord:

16 "O Lord of hosts, God of Israel, enthroned between the cherubim, You alone are God over all the kingdoms of the earth. You made heaven and earth.

17 Bend Your ear, Lord, and hear; open Your eyes, Lord, and see. Listen to all the words Sennacherib has sent to ridicule the living God.

18 It is true, Lord, that the kings of Assyria have laid waste all these nations and their lands.

19 They have thrown their gods into the fire and destroyed them, for they were not gods but the work of human hands—wood and stone.

20 Now, Lord our God, deliver us from his hand, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You alone, O Lord, are God."

God's Answer Through Isaiah

21 Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent this message to Hezekiah: "This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: Because you have prayed to Me concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria,

22 this is the word the Lord has spoken against him:

'The Virgin Daughter of Zion despises you and mocks you.

The Daughter of Jerusalem shakes her head at you.

23 Whom have you mocked and blasphemed? Against whom have you raised your voice and lifted your eyes in pride? Against the Holy One of Israel!

24 By your messengers you have ridiculed the Lord. You said,

"With the multitude of my chariots I have climbed the heights of the mountains, the utmost heights of Lebanon.

I have cut down its tallest cedars, the choicest of its junipers.

I have reached its remotest heights, the finest of its forests.

25 I have dug wells in foreign lands and drunk the waters.

With the soles of my feet I dried up all the streams of Egypt."

26 Have you not heard? Long ago I ordained it. In days of old I planned it; now I have brought it to pass, that you would turn fortified cities into piles of rubble.

27 Their people, drained of power, are dismayed and put to shame.

They are like plants in the field, like tender green shoots, like grass sprouting on the housetops, scorched before it grows up.

28 But I know where you stay and when you come and go, and how you rage against Me.

29 Because you rage against Me, and because your insolence has reached My ears,
I will put My hook in your nose and My bit in your mouth, and I will make you return by the way you came.”

The Lord’s Sign of Deliverance

30 “This will be the sign for you, Hezekiah:
This year you will eat what grows by itself,
and the second year what springs from that.
But in the third year sow and reap, plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

31 Once more a remnant of the kingdom of Judah will take root below and bear fruit above.

32 For out of Jerusalem will come a remnant, and out of Mount Zion a band of survivors. The zeal of the Lord Almighty will accomplish this.

33 Therefore this is what the Lord says concerning the king of Assyria:
‘He will not enter this city or shoot an arrow here.
He will not come before it with shield or build a siege ramp against it.

34 By the way that he came he will return;
he will not enter this city,’ declares the Lord.

35 ‘I will defend this city and save it, for My own sake and for the sake of My servant David.’”

The Defeat of Sennacherib

36 Then the angel of the Lord went out and struck down 185,000 men in the Assyrian camp. When the people got up the next morning—there were all the dead bodies!

37 So Sennacherib king of Assyria broke camp and withdrew. He returned to Nineveh and stayed there.

38 One day, while he was worshiping in the temple of his god Nisroch, his sons Adrammelek and Sharezer struck him down with the sword, and they escaped to the land of Ararat. And Esarhaddon his son succeeded him as king.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 37

- Bring threats before God: Hezekiah spread Sennacherib’s letter before the Lord, showing us to lay our burdens openly at God’s feet.
- Prayer invites deliverance: Because Hezekiah prayed, God answered with deliverance and judgment against Assyria.

- God rules history: Assyria's victories were not by its own strength but because God allowed it to fulfill His purposes.
- God defends His glory: The enemy's pride and blasphemy drew God's judgment, reminding us He will not be mocked.
- The remnant will endure: Even in times of crisis, God preserves His people and ensures His promises stand firm.

Isaiah 38 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Hezekiah’s Illness, Prayer, and Healing”

Hezekiah’s Sickness and Prayer

1 In those days King Hezekiah became sick to the point of death. Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, came to him and said, “This is what the Lord says: Put your house in order, for you will die and not live.”

2 Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to the Lord.

3 He said, “Remember now, O Lord, I beg You, how I have walked before You faithfully and with a sincere heart, and how I have done what is good in Your sight.” And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

God’s Answer and the Sign

4 Then the word of the Lord came to Isaiah, saying,

5 “Go and tell Hezekiah, This is what the Lord, the God of your father David, says: I have heard your prayer and seen your tears; I will add fifteen years to your life.

6 I will also deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria, and I will defend this city.

7 This will be the sign to you from the Lord, that He will do what He has promised:

8 I will cause the shadow on the sundial of Ahaz to go back ten steps.”

So the sun’s shadow went back ten steps on the dial it had already descended.

Hezekiah’s Song of Thanksgiving

9 This is the writing of Hezekiah king of Judah after he had been sick and recovered from his illness:

10 “I said, In the prime of my life I must go to the gates of the grave; I am deprived of the rest of my years.

11 I said, I will not see the Lord in the land of the living; I will look on mankind no more among the inhabitants of the world.

12 My dwelling is pulled up and removed from me like a shepherd's tent.
I have rolled up my life like a weaver; He cuts me off from the loom.
Day and night You bring me to an end.

13 I cried out until morning; like a lion He breaks all my bones.
Day and night You bring me to an end.

14 I chirped like a swallow, I moaned like a dove.
My eyes grew weak from looking upward.
O Lord, I am oppressed—be my security!

15 What shall I say? He has spoken to me, and He Himself has done this.
I will walk humbly all my years because of this anguish of my soul.

16 Lord, by such things people live, and in all these is the life of my spirit.
You restored me to health and let me live.

17 Surely it was for my peace that I had such great bitterness;
but in love You have delivered my soul from the pit of destruction;
for You have cast all my sins behind Your back.

18 For the grave cannot praise You, death cannot celebrate You;
those who go down to the pit cannot hope for Your truth.

19 The living, the living—they will praise You, as I do this day;
fathers will make Your faithfulness known to their children.

20 The Lord was ready to save me, so we will sing my songs with stringed instruments
all the days of our lives in the house of the Lord.”

The Healing Confirmed

21 Now Isaiah had said, “Prepare a poultice of figs, and apply it to the boil, and he will recover.”

22 And Hezekiah had asked, “What is the sign that I will go up to the house of the Lord?”

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 38

- Prayer moves the hand of God: Hezekiah's desperate prayer and tears were heard, and God extended his life.
- God is compassionate: He sees our weakness and responds with mercy and healing.
- Even sickness has purpose: Hezekiah recognized his suffering produced humility and a deeper awareness of God's love.

- Life is for praising God: The dead cannot proclaim His faithfulness, but the living must use their days to honor Him.
- God forgives completely: He casts sins behind His back, never to be remembered again.
- Signs confirm His promises: Just as the shadow moved backward, God shows that His word is certain and trustworthy.

Isaiah 39 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Hezekiah’s Pride and Babylon’s Future”

The Envoys from Babylon

1 At that time Merodach-Baladan son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah, for he heard that he had been sick and had recovered.

2 Hezekiah welcomed them gladly and showed them everything in his treasure house—the silver, the gold, the spices, the precious oil, his entire armory, and everything that was found among his treasures. There was nothing in his palace or in all his kingdom that Hezekiah did not show them.

Isaiah’s Confrontation

3 Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and asked him, “What did these men say? Where did they come from?”

Hezekiah replied, “They came to me from a faraway country—from Babylon.”

4 Isaiah asked, “What did they see in your palace?”

Hezekiah answered, “They saw everything in my house. There is nothing among my treasures that I did not show them.”

The Word of the Lord

5 Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Hear the word of the Lord of hosts:

6 The time is coming when everything in your house, and everything your ancestors have stored up until this day, will be carried off to Babylon. Nothing will be left, says the Lord.

7 And some of your own sons, who will come from you, whom you will father, will be taken away. They will become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.”

Hezekiah’s Resigned Response

8 Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “The word of the Lord that you have spoken is good.” For he thought, “At least there will be peace and security in my days.”

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 39

- Pride opens the door to downfall: Hezekiah's pride in displaying his treasures led to a prophecy of future loss and exile.
- Earthly treasures are temporary: What seems secure can be taken away; true security is in God alone.
- God sees beyond our short-term comfort: Hezekiah was relieved there would be peace in his time, but the judgment would fall on future generations.
- We must live with generational responsibility: Our choices can affect our children and grandchildren—faithfulness today matters for tomorrow.
- Prophecy prepares God's people: Even when judgment is declared, God gives warnings so His people can understand His justice and mercy.

Isaiah 40 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Comfort for God's People”

God's Word of Comfort

1 “Comfort, comfort My people,” says your God.

2 “Speak kindly to Jerusalem, and tell her that her hard service is finished, her sins are forgiven, and she has received from the Lord's hand double for all her sins.”

Preparing the Way of the Lord

3 A voice cries out:

“In the wilderness prepare the way of the Lord;
make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

4 Every valley shall be lifted up, every mountain and hill made low;
the crooked places will be made straight,
and the rough ground smooth.

5 The glory of the Lord will be revealed, and all people together will see it.
For the mouth of the Lord has spoken.”

The Eternal Word of God

6 A voice said, "Cry out!"
And I asked, "What shall I cry?"
"All people are like grass, and all their beauty is like the flowers of the field.

7 The grass withers, the flower fades,
because the breath of the Lord blows on them.
Surely the people are grass.

8 The grass withers, the flower fades,
but the word of our God will stand forever."

Behold Your God!

9 O Zion, messenger of good news,
go up on a high mountain.
O Jerusalem, bringer of good news,
lift up your voice with strength;
lift it up, do not be afraid.
Say to the towns of Judah,
"Behold your God!"

10 See, the Lord God comes with power, and He rules with a mighty arm.
His reward is with Him,
and His recompense goes before Him.

11 He will feed His flock like a shepherd;
He will gather the lambs in His arms,
carry them close to His heart,
and gently lead those that are with young.

The Greatness of God

12 Who has measured the waters in the hollow of His hand, or marked off the heavens with the span of His hand?
Who has weighed the mountains on scales,
and the hills in a balance?

13 Who can measure the Spirit of the Lord, or who has been His counselor?

14 With whom did He consult to gain understanding?
Who taught Him the right way,
or showed Him knowledge,
or gave Him understanding?

15 Look, the nations are like a drop in a bucket,
and are regarded as dust on the scales.
He lifts up the islands like fine dust.

16 Lebanon is not sufficient for firewood, nor are its animals enough for a burnt offering.

17 All the nations are nothing before Him;
He regards them as worthless, less than nothing.

The Incomparable God

18 To whom, then, will you compare God?
What likeness will you set beside Him?

19 An idol? A craftsman casts it, a goldsmith overlays it with gold and fashions silver chains for it.

20 A poor man selects wood that will not rot, and seeks out a skilled craftsman to set up an idol that will not topple.

21 Do you not know? Have you not heard?
Has it not been told you from the beginning?
Have you not understood since the earth was founded?

22 He sits enthroned above the circle of the earth, and its people are like grasshoppers.
He stretches out the heavens like a curtain,
and spreads them out like a tent to live in.

23 He brings princes to nothing and makes the rulers of the earth as emptiness.

24 Scarcely are they planted,
scarcely sown,
scarcely do they take root in the ground,
when He blows on them and they wither,
and a whirlwind sweeps them away like stubble.

25 “To whom will you compare Me?
Or who is My equal?” says the Holy One.

26 Lift up your eyes on high and see:
Who created all these?
He brings out their starry host one by one and calls them each by name.
Because of His great power and mighty strength,
not one of them is missing.

The Strength of the Lord

27 Why do you complain, Jacob?
Why do you say, Israel,
“My way is hidden from the Lord;
my cause is disregarded by my God”?

28 Do you not know? Have you not heard?
The Lord is the everlasting God,
the Creator of the ends of the earth.
He does not grow tired or weary;
His understanding no one can fathom.

29 He gives strength to the weary and increases power to the weak.

30 Even youths grow tired and weary,
and young men stumble and fall;

31 but those who wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength.
They will soar on wings like eagles;
they will run and not grow weary;
they will walk and not faint.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 40

- God brings comfort: He pardons sin and restores His people.
- Christ is the fulfillment of prophecy: John the Baptist prepared the way, and Jesus revealed God’s glory (v. 3–5).
- Human life fades, but God’s Word endures forever.
- God is incomparably great: nations are like dust before Him, yet He knows the stars by name.
- God strengthens the weak: those who trust in Him will be renewed with endurance and hope.

Isaiah 41 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Fear Not, for I Am With You”

God Calls the Nations to Account

1 “Be silent before Me, O coastlands, and let the peoples renew their strength.
Let them come near, then let them speak;
let us come together for judgment.

2 Who has stirred up one from the east,
whom He calls in righteousness to His service?
He gives nations into his hand and subdues kings before him.
He turns them to dust with his sword,
to driven stubble with his bow.

3 He pursues them and passes safely,
by paths his feet have never traveled.

4 Who has done this and carried it out, calling forth the generations from the beginning?
I, the Lord—the First, and with the Last—
I am He.”

Futile Idols and God’s Servant Israel

5 The coastlands saw it and were afraid;
the ends of the earth trembled.
They drew near and came together.

6 Each one helps his neighbor and says to his brother, “Be strong!”

7 The craftsman strengthens the goldsmith, and the one who smooths with the hammer encourages the one who strikes the anvil.
He says, “It is ready for soldering,” and they fasten it with nails so it will not topple.

8 “But you, Israel, My servant,
Jacob, whom I have chosen,
the offspring of Abraham, My friend—

9 you whom I took from the ends of the earth and called from its farthest corners—

I said to you, 'You are My servant;
I have chosen you and not rejected you.'

10 So do not fear, for I am with you;
do not be dismayed, for I am your God.
I will strengthen you and help you;
I will uphold you with My righteous right hand.

God's Assurance of Victory

11 Behold, all who are angry with you will be ashamed and disgraced;
those who oppose you will be as nothing and perish.

12 Though you search for your enemies,
you will not find them.
Those who wage war against you will be as nothing at all.

13 For I, the Lord your God, take hold of your right hand and say to you, 'Do not fear; I will help you.'

14 Do not be afraid, O worm Jacob,
O little Israel;
for I Myself will help you, declares the Lord,
your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

15 See, I will make you into a new, sharp threshing tool with teeth.
You will thresh the mountains and crush them,
and reduce the hills to chaff.

16 You will winnow them,
the wind will carry them away,
a whirlwind will scatter them.
But you will rejoice in the Lord and glory in the Holy One of Israel.

God Provides for the Needy

17 The poor and needy search for water, but there is none;
their tongues are parched with thirst.
But I, the Lord, will answer them;
I, the God of Israel, will not forsake them.

18 I will open rivers on the barren heights and springs in the valleys.

I will turn the desert into pools of water and the dry land into fountains.

19 I will put in the desert the cedar,
the acacia, the myrtle, and the olive tree.
I will set in the wasteland the cypress,
the plane tree, and the pine together,

20 so that people may see and know,
may consider and understand,
that the hand of the Lord has done this,
the Holy One of Israel has created it.

The Futility of Idols

21 “Present your case,” says the Lord.
“Bring forward your arguments,” says the King of Jacob.

22 “Let them bring them in and tell us what will happen.
Tell us what the former things were,
so that we may consider them
and know their outcome.
Or declare to us the things to come.

23 Tell us what the future holds,
so that we may know you are gods.
Do something, either good or bad,
so that we may be dismayed and filled with fear.

24 But you are less than nothing, and your works are utterly worthless;
whoever chooses you is detestable.”

God Raises Up His Servant

25 “I have stirred up one from the north, and he comes—from the rising of the sun he calls on My name.
He tramples rulers as if they were clay,
as a potter treads the clay.

26 Who told of this from the beginning, so we could know?
Or beforehand, so we could say, ‘He was right’?
No one foretold it,
no one declared it,
no one heard any words from you.

27 I was the first to say to Zion, ‘Look, here they are!’
I gave to Jerusalem a messenger of good news.

28 I looked, but there was no one—no counselor among them—who, when I asked, could give an answer.

29 See, they are all false;
their deeds are nothing;
their idols are but wind and confusion.”

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 41

- God is sovereign over history: He raises up rulers and directs nations according to His plan.
- Idols are powerless: They cannot predict, protect, or provide; they are empty and worthless.
- God’s people are chosen and upheld: He promises strength, help, and protection to Israel (and all who trust in Him).
- Fear is removed by God’s presence: His promise, “Fear not, for I am with you” (v. 10, 13), is an anchor in trials.
- God provides for the needy: He refreshes His people with living water and makes the desert fruitful.
- True hope is only in the Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

Isaiah 42 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Servant of the Lord”

The Servant of the Lord

1 “Behold My Servant, whom I uphold,
My chosen one in whom My soul delights.
I have put My Spirit upon Him;
He will bring justice to the nations.

2 He will not shout or cry out,
or raise His voice in the streets.

3 A bruised reed He will not break,
and a smoldering wick He will not snuff out.
In faithfulness He will bring forth justice.

4 He will not falter or be discouraged until He establishes justice on the earth;
the coastlands will wait for His teaching.”

God’s Commission to His Servant

5 This is what God the Lord says—
the One who created the heavens and stretched them out, who spread out the earth and all that grows from it,
who gives breath to its people,
and life to those who walk on it:

6 “I, the Lord, have called You in righteousness;
I will take hold of Your hand.
I will keep You and make You to be a covenant for the people and a light for the Gentiles,

7 to open eyes that are blind,
to free captives from prison,
and to release from the dungeon those who sit in darkness.

8 I am the Lord; that is My name!
I will not give My glory to another or My praise to idols.

9 See, the former things have taken place,
and new things I declare;
before they spring into being
I announce them to you.”

A New Song of Praise

10 Sing to the Lord a new song,
His praise from the ends of the earth,
you who go down to the sea, and all that is in it,
you coastlands and all who live in them.

11 Let the wilderness and its towns raise their voices;
let the villages of Kedar rejoice.
Let the people of Sela sing for joy;
let them shout from the mountaintops.

12 Let them give glory to the Lord and proclaim His praise in the islands.

The Lord Acts in Power

13 The Lord will march out like a warrior, like a man of war He will stir up His zeal.
With a shout He will raise the battle cry and will triumph over His enemies.

14 “For a long time I have kept silent,
I have been quiet and held Myself back.
But now, like a woman in labor, I cry out,
I gasp and pant.

15 I will lay waste the mountains and hills and dry up all their vegetation;
I will turn rivers into islands and dry up the pools.

16 I will lead the blind by ways they have not known,
along unfamiliar paths I will guide them.
I will turn the darkness into light before them
and make the rough places smooth.
These are the things I will do;
I will not forsake them.

17 But those who trust in idols, who say to images, ‘You are our gods,’
will be turned back in shame.”

Israel’s Blindness and Disobedience

18 Hear, you deaf;
look, you blind, and see!

19 Who is blind but My servant,
or deaf like My messenger whom I send?
Who is blind like the one in covenant with Me,
blind like the servant of the Lord?

20 You see many things but pay no attention;
your ears are open, but you do not listen.

21 The Lord was pleased, for the sake of His righteousness, to make His law great and glorious.

22 But this is a people plundered and looted,
all trapped in pits
or hidden away in prisons.
They have become prey, with no one to rescue them;
they have been made loot, with no one to say, “Restore them!”

23 Which of you will listen to this or pay attention in time to come?

24 Who handed Jacob over to become loot, and Israel to the plunderers?
Was it not the Lord, against whom we have sinned?
For they would not walk in His ways,
they were not obedient to His law.

25 So He poured out on them His burning anger,
the violence of war.
It enveloped them in flames, yet they did not understand;
it consumed them, yet they did not take it to heart.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 42

- The Servant of the Lord (Messiah) comes gently, bringing justice without crushing the weak (vv. 1–4).
- Christ is a covenant for His people and a light for the nations—a prophecy fulfilled in Jesus (vv. 6–7).
- Idols are powerless, but God alone receives glory (v. 8).
- God’s people are called to sing a new song of praise that resounds to the ends of the earth (vv. 10–12).
- The Lord rises like a warrior to deliver His people (vv. 13–16).
- Israel’s blindness and disobedience led to judgment, but God still promises restoration (vv. 18–25).

Isaiah 43 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Fear Not, For I Am With You”

God's Promise of Protection

1 But now, this is what the Lord says—
the One who created you, O Jacob, and He who formed you, O Israel:
“Do not be afraid, for I have redeemed you;
I have called you by name, you are Mine.

2 When you pass through the waters, I will be with you;
when you pass through the rivers, they will not overwhelm you.
When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned;
the flames will not consume you.

3 For I am the Lord your God,
the Holy One of Israel, your Savior.
I gave Egypt as your ransom,
Cush and Seba in exchange for you.

4 Since you are precious and honored in My sight,
and because I love you,
I will give nations in exchange for you,
and people in place of your life.

5 Do not be afraid, for I am with you.
I will bring your children from the east and gather you from the west.

6 I will say to the north, ‘Give them up!’
and to the south, ‘Do not hold them back!’
Bring My sons from afar and My daughters from the ends of the earth—

7 everyone who is called by My name, whom I created for My glory, whom I formed and made.”

Israel: God's Witnesses

8 Bring out the people who have eyes but are blind, who have ears but are deaf.

9 Let all the nations gather together and let the peoples assemble.
Which of their gods foretold this and proclaimed to us the former things?

Let them bring in their witnesses to prove they were right, so that others may hear and say, “It is true.”

10 “You are My witnesses,” declares the Lord,
“and My servant whom I have chosen,
so that you may know and believe Me and understand that I am He.
Before Me no god was formed,
nor will there be one after Me.

11 I, even I, am the Lord, and apart from Me there is no Savior.

12 I have revealed and saved and proclaimed—
I, and not some foreign god among you.
You are My witnesses,” declares the Lord,
“that I am God.

13 Yes, and from ancient days I am He.
No one can deliver out of My hand.
When I act, who can reverse it?”

The Lord Redeems His People

14 This is what the Lord says—
your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel:
“For your sake I will send to Babylon and bring down as fugitives all the Babylonians, in the ships in which they took pride.

15 I am the Lord, your Holy One,
the Creator of Israel, your King.”

God Will Do a New Thing

16 This is what the Lord says—
He who made a way through the sea,
a path through the mighty waters,

17 who drew out the chariots and horses,
the army and reinforcements together,
and they lay there, never to rise again,
extinguished, snuffed out like a wick:

18 “Forget the former things;
do not dwell on the past.

19 See, I am doing a new thing!
Now it springs up; do you not perceive it?
I am making a way in the wilderness
and streams in the desert.

20 The wild animals honor Me,
the jackals and the owls,
because I provide water in the wilderness
and streams in the desert,
to give drink to My people, My chosen ones,

21 the people I formed for Myself that they may proclaim My praise.”

Israel’s Failure to Honor God

22 “Yet you have not called on Me, O Jacob, you have not wearied yourselves for Me, O Israel.

23 You have not brought Me sheep for burnt offerings, nor honored Me with your sacrifices.
I have not burdened you with grain offerings
nor wearied you with incense.

24 You have not bought any fragrant calamus for Me, or lavished on Me the fat of your sacrifices.
But you have burdened Me with your sins and wearied Me with your offenses.

25 I, even I, am He who blots out your transgressions for My own sake,
and I will not remember your sins.

26 Review the past for Me,
let us argue the matter together;
state your case for your innocence.

27 Your first father sinned;
your leaders rebelled against Me.

28 So I disgraced the dignitaries of your temple;
I consigned Jacob to destruction and Israel to scorn.”

✠✧ Key Lessons from Isaiah 43

- God claims His people personally: “I have called you by name; you are Mine” (v. 1).
- The Lord protects in trials: Fire and flood cannot consume those who belong to Him (v. 2).
- Only God saves: He declares, “Apart from Me there is no Savior” (vv. 10–11).
- God does new things: He brings streams in the desert and a way in the wilderness (vv. 18–19).
- Forgiveness is His gift: God blots out sins for His own sake, not because of human merit (v. 25).
- Israel’s failures did not erase God’s love: Even when His people neglected worship, God still reached out with mercy (vv. 22–24).

Isaiah 44 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Only God and Redeemer”

God’s Assurance to Israel

1 “But now hear this, O Jacob My servant,
Israel, whom I have chosen.

2 This is what the Lord says—
the One who made you, who formed you in the womb,
and who will help you:

Do not be afraid, O Jacob My servant,
O Jeshurun, whom I have chosen.

3 For I will pour water on the thirsty land,
and streams on the dry ground.
I will pour out My Spirit on your descendants, and My blessing on your offspring.

4 They will spring up like grass in a meadow,
like willows by flowing streams.

5 One will say, ‘I belong to the Lord’;
another will call himself by the name of Jacob;
another will write on his hand, ‘The Lord’s,’
and take the name Israel.”

The Lord Alone Is God

6 This is what the Lord says—
Israel's King and Redeemer, the Lord Almighty:
"I am the First and I am the Last;
apart from Me there is no God.

7 Who is like Me? Let him proclaim it.
Let him declare and set it out before Me,
since I appointed an ancient people.
Let them foretell the things to come,
what is yet to take place.

8 Do not tremble, do not be afraid.
Did I not proclaim this long ago and declare it?
You are My witnesses.
Is there any God besides Me?
No, there is no other Rock; I know of none."

The Folly of Idols

9 All who make idols are nothing, and the things they treasure are worthless.
Those who would speak up for them are blind;
they are ignorant, to their own shame.

10 Who shapes a god and casts an idol, which can profit him nothing?

11 Look, all his associates will be put to shame;
the craftsmen are only human.
Let them all come together and take their stand;
they will be brought down to terror and disgrace.

12 The blacksmith takes a tool and works it in the coals;
he shapes an idol with hammers,
forging it with the strength of his arms.
He gets hungry and loses his strength;
he drinks no water and grows faint.

13 The carpenter measures with a line and marks out an outline with a marker;
he shapes it with chisels and marks it with a compass.
He makes it in the form of a man,
in human beauty, to dwell in a shrine.

14 He cuts down cedars,
or perhaps takes a cypress or an oak.
He lets it grow among the trees of the forest,
or plants a pine, and the rain makes it grow.

15 It is used for fuel for burning;
some of it he takes and warms himself,
he kindles a fire and bakes bread.
But he also fashions a god and worships it;
he makes an idol and bows down to it.

16 Half of the wood he burns in the fire;
over it he prepares his meal, he roasts his meat and eats his fill.
He warms himself and says, "Ah! I am warm; I see the fire."

17 From the rest he makes a god, his idol;
he bows down to it and worships.
He prays to it and says, "Save me! You are my god!"

18 They know nothing, they understand nothing;
their eyes are plastered shut so they cannot see,
and their minds closed so they cannot understand.

19 No one stops to think,
no one has the knowledge or understanding to say,
"Half of it I used for fuel;
I even baked bread over its coals,
I roasted meat and I ate.
Shall I make a detestable thing from what is left?
Shall I bow down to a block of wood?"

20 He feeds on ashes, a deluded heart misleads him;
he cannot save himself, or say,
"Is not this thing in my right hand a lie?"

The Lord Redeems His People

21 "Remember these things, Jacob, for you, Israel, are My servant.
I have made you, you are My servant;
Israel, I will not forget you.

22 I have swept away your offenses like a cloud,
your sins like the morning mist.
Return to Me, for I have redeemed you."

23 Sing for joy, you heavens, for the Lord has done this;
shout aloud, you earth beneath.
Burst into song, you mountains,
you forests and all your trees,
for the Lord has redeemed Jacob,
He displays His glory in Israel.

The Lord, the Creator and Redeemer

24 This is what the Lord says—
your Redeemer, who formed you in the womb:
“I am the Lord, the Maker of all things,
who stretches out the heavens by Myself,
who spreads out the earth by My own hand,

25 who foils the signs of false prophets and makes fools of diviners, who overthrows the learning of the wise
and turns it into nonsense,

26 who carries out the words of His servants and fulfills the predictions of His messengers, who says of Jerusalem, ‘It shall be inhabited,’
of the towns of Judah, ‘They shall be rebuilt,’
and of their ruins, ‘I will restore them,’

27 who says to the watery deep, ‘Be dry, and I will dry up your streams,’

28 who says of Cyrus, ‘He is My shepherd and will accomplish all that I please;
he will say of Jerusalem, “Let it be rebuilt,”
and of the temple, “Let its foundations be laid.”’”

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 44

- God formed His people and calls them His own (vv. 1–2).
- The Spirit of God is poured out like refreshing water bringing life to future generations (v. 3).
- God is the First and the Last; there is no other Rock (vv. 6–8).
- Idolatry is foolishness—people worship what their own hands have made (vv. 9–20).
- God redeems and forgives His people—sins are swept away like a morning mist (v. 22).

- History unfolds at God’s command—even kings like Cyrus serve His purposes (vv. 24–28).

Isaiah 45 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Sovereignty of God and the Calling of Cyrus”

God’s Anointed Instrument: Cyrus

1 This is what the Lord says to His anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have taken hold of, to subdue nations before him, to strip kings of their armor, to open doors before him so that gates will not be shut:

2 “I will go before you and level the mountains;
I will break down gates of bronze and cut through bars of iron.

3 I will give you treasures hidden in darkness, riches stored in secret places,
so that you may know that I am the Lord,
the God of Israel, who calls you by name.

4 For the sake of Jacob My servant,
of Israel My chosen one,
I summon you by name and give you a title of honor,
though you do not acknowledge Me.

5 I am the Lord, and there is no other;
apart from Me there is no God.
I will strengthen you, though you have not known Me,

6 so that from the rising of the sun to the place of its setting people may know there is none besides Me.
I am the Lord, and there is no other.

7 I form the light and create darkness,
I bring peace and create calamity;
I, the Lord, do all these things.”

The Creator’s Sovereign Power

8 “Shower down, O heavens, from above, and let the skies pour out righteousness.
Let the earth open wide,
let salvation spring up,
and righteousness flourish with it;
I, the Lord, have created it.

9 Woe to those who quarrel with their Maker, those who are nothing but potsherds among the potsherds on the ground.

Does the clay say to the potter,
‘What are you making?’

Does your work say,
‘The potter has no hands’?

10 Woe to the one who says to a father,
‘What are you begetting?’

or to a mother,
‘What are you bringing forth?’”

The Lord Alone Commands the Future

11 This is what the Lord,
the Holy One of Israel, and its Maker, says: “Concerning things to come,
do you question Me about My children, or give Me orders about the work of My hands?

12 It is I who made the earth and created mankind on it.
My own hands stretched out the heavens;
I marshaled their starry host.

13 I will raise up Cyrus in righteousness:
I will make all his ways straight.
He will rebuild My city
and set My exiles free, but not for a price or reward,”
says the Lord Almighty.

The Nations Will Acknowledge God

14 This is what the Lord says:
“The products of Egypt and the merchandise of Cush, and those tall Sabaeans—
they will come over to you and be yours;
they will walk behind you,
coming over in chains.
They will bow down before you and plead with you, saying, ‘Surely God is with you, and there is no other;
there is no other God.’”

15 Truly You are a God who hides Himself,
O God of Israel, the Savior.

16 All the makers of idols will be put to shame and disgraced;
they will go off into disgrace together.

17 But Israel will be saved by the Lord with an everlasting salvation;
you will never be put to shame or disgraced,
to ages everlasting.

The Creator of the Earth Speaks

18 For this is what the Lord says—
He who created the heavens, He is God;
He who fashioned and made the earth,
He founded it;
He did not create it to be empty,
but formed it to be inhabited—
He says:
“I am the Lord,
and there is no other.

19 I have not spoken in secret,
from somewhere in a land of darkness;
I have not said to Jacob’s descendants,
‘Seek Me in vain.’
I, the Lord, speak the truth;
I declare what is right.”

A Call to All Nations

20 “Gather together and come;
assemble, you fugitives from the nations.
Ignorant are those who carry about idols of wood,
who pray to gods that cannot save.

21 Declare what is to be, present it—let them take counsel together.
Who foretold this long ago,
who declared it from the distant past?
Was it not I, the Lord?
And there is no God apart from Me, a righteous God and a Savior;

there is none but Me.

22 Turn to Me and be saved,
all you ends of the earth;
for I am God, and there is no other.

23 By Myself I have sworn,
My mouth has uttered in all integrity
a word that will not be revoked:
Before Me every knee will bow;
by Me every tongue will swear.

24 They will say of Me,
'In the Lord alone are deliverance and strength.'
All who have raged against Him will come to Him and be put to shame.

25 But in the Lord all the descendants of Israel will be justified and will glory."

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 45

- God uses even pagan kings like Cyrus to accomplish His purposes (vv. 1–4, 13).
- There is no God but the Lord—He alone forms light, brings peace, and governs history (vv. 5–7, 18–19).
- Idolatry is foolishness, while trusting in the true God brings eternal salvation (vv. 14–17, 20–21).
- God calls all nations to Himself—"Turn to Me and be saved, all the ends of the earth" (v. 22).
- Every knee will bow and every tongue will confess His lordship (v. 23; cf. Philippians 2:10–11).
- Israel's justification and glory rest in the Lord alone (v. 25).

Isaiah 46 – Crawford Standard Bible

"The Living God Versus Lifeless Idols"

False Gods Fall

1 Bel bows down, Nebo stoops low;
their idols are loaded onto beasts of burden.

The images you carry are heavy loads,
a burden for weary animals.

2 They stoop and bow down together;
unable to rescue the burden,
they themselves go into captivity.

God Carries His People

3 “Listen to Me, house of Jacob,
all you who remain of the house of Israel,
you whom I have upheld since your birth,
and carried from the womb.

4 Even to your old age I am He,
and to gray hairs I will sustain you.
I have made you and I will carry you;
I will sustain you and I will rescue you.

No Comparison to the Living God

5 To whom will you compare Me or count Me equal?
To whom will you liken Me, that we may be alike?

6 Some pour out gold from their bags and weigh out silver on the scales;
they hire a goldsmith to make it into a god,
and they bow down and worship it.

7 They lift it to their shoulders and carry it;
they set it up in its place, and it stands there.
From that spot it cannot move.
Even if someone cries out to it, it does not answer;
it cannot save them from their troubles.

The Lord’s Eternal Counsel

8 “Remember this, and stand firm;
take it to heart, you rebels.

9 Remember the former things, those of long ago;
I am God, and there is no other;
I am God, and there is none like Me.

10 I make known the end from the beginning,
from ancient times, what is still to come.
I say, ‘My purpose will stand,
and I will do all that I please.’

11 From the east I summon a bird of prey;
from a far-off land, a man to fulfill My purpose.
What I have said, that I will bring about;
what I have planned, that I will do.

Salvation in Zion

12 Listen to Me, you stubborn-hearted, you who are far from righteousness.

13 I am bringing My righteousness near,
it is not far away;
and My salvation will not be delayed.
I will grant salvation to Zion,
My glory to Israel.”

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 46

- Idols are powerless and burdensome (vv. 1–2, 6–7). They cannot move, speak, or save.
- God alone carries His people—from birth to old age, He sustains and delivers (vv. 3–4).
- There is no one like the Lord; His plans and purposes are unshakable (vv. 9–10).
- God raises up nations and rulers to accomplish His will (v. 11).
- Salvation is near in the Lord; it will not delay, for He brings glory to His people (vv. 12–13).

Isaiah 47 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Fall of Babylon”

Babylon Humbled

1 “Come down and sit in the dust,
O virgin daughter of Babylon;
sit on the ground without a throne,
daughter of the Chaldeans.

Never again will you be called tender and delicate.

2 Take the millstones and grind meal;
remove your veil, strip off your robe,
bare your legs, and wade through the streams.

3 Your nakedness will be exposed and your shame uncovered.

I will take vengeance;
I will spare no man.”

The Lord Our Redeemer

4 “Our Redeemer—the Lord of Hosts is His name—
the Holy One of Israel.”

5 Sit in silence, go into darkness,
daughter of the Chaldeans.

No longer will you be called the Lady of Kingdoms.

Babylon’s Pride and Cruelty

6 “I was angry with My people;
I desecrated My inheritance and gave them into your hand.
But you showed them no mercy;
even the aged you laid heavily under your yoke.

7 You said, ‘I will be queen forever.’
You did not take these things to heart, nor consider what would come after.

8 Now then, hear this, you lover of pleasure, lounging in your security,
and saying in your heart,
‘I am, and there is no one besides me.
I will never be a widow or suffer the loss of children.’

9 But both of these will overtake you in a single day—loss of children and widowhood.
They will come upon you in full measure,

despite your many sorceries and your countless enchantments.

10 You trusted in your wickedness and said,
'No one sees me.'
Your wisdom and knowledge misled you when you said in your heart,
'I am, and there is none besides me.'

11 Disaster will come upon you,
and you will not know how to charm it away.
Calamity will fall upon you that you cannot ward off.
Destruction will come upon you suddenly,
and you will not know it."

Futility of Sorcery

12 "Keep on, then, with your magic spells and with your many sorceries, which you have labored at since youth—
perhaps you will succeed,
perhaps you will cause terror.

13 All the advice you have received has only worn you out!
Let your astrologers come forward,
those stargazers who make predictions month by month.
Let them save you from what is coming upon you.

14 Surely they are like stubble;
the fire will burn them up.
They cannot even save themselves from the power of the flame.
These are not coals for warmth;
this is no fire to sit by.

15 That is all they can do for you—those you have trafficked with and labored with since youth.
Each wanders off in his own direction;
there is no one left to save you."

- Pride leads to downfall: Babylon boasted “I am, and there is none beside me” (v. 8, 10), echoing Satan’s pride, and God brought her low.
- Cruelty invites judgment: Babylon oppressed God’s people without mercy, and her own destruction came suddenly (vv. 6–9).
- Worldly wisdom fails: Sorcery, astrology, and false counsel cannot deliver from God’s judgment (vv. 12–13).
- God alone redeems: Only the Lord, the Holy One of Israel, is the true Redeemer (v. 4).
- False securities collapse: Wealth, pleasure, and human knowledge cannot prevent the justice of God (vv. 11–15).

Isaiah 48 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Stubborn Israel and the Faithful Redeemer”

Israel’s Stubbornness

1 “Hear this, O house of Jacob,
 you who are called by the name of Israel,
 who came forth from the waters of Judah, who swear by the name of the Lord and invoke the God of Israel—
 but not in truth or righteousness.

2 They call themselves citizens of the holy city and rely on the God of Israel—
 the Lord of Hosts is His name.

3 Long ago I declared the former things;
 they went out from My mouth, and I made them known;
 then suddenly I acted, and they came to pass.

4 Because I knew you were obstinate,
 your neck like iron,
 and your forehead like bronze,

5 therefore I told you these things beforehand.
 Before they came to pass I announced them to you,
 so that you could not say,
 ‘My idol did them; my carved image and my molten image commanded them.’”

God Declares New Things

6 “You have heard these things—now look at them all!
Will you not admit them?

From now on I announce to you new things,
hidden things you have not known.

7 They are created now, not long ago;
before today you had not heard of them,
so you cannot say, ‘Yes, I knew them.’

8 You have neither heard nor understood;
from of old your ear has not been open.
For I knew you would deal treacherously;
you were called a rebel from birth.

9 For My name’s sake I defer My anger;
for the sake of My praise I restrain it for you,
so that I do not cut you off.

10 Behold, I have refined you, but not as silver;
I have tested you in the furnace of affliction.

11 For My own sake, for My own sake, I do this.
For how could My name be profaned?
I will not yield My glory to another.”

God the First and the Last

12 “Listen to Me, Jacob, Israel whom I have called:
I am He; I am the First and I am the Last.

13 My hand laid the foundation of the earth, and My right hand spread out the heavens.
When I summon them, they all stand up together.

14 Gather together, all of you, and listen:
Which of the idols has foretold these things?
The Lord’s chosen will carry out His purpose against Babylon;
His arm will be against the Chaldeans.

15 I, even I, have spoken; yes, I have called him,
I have brought him, and he will succeed in his mission.

16 Come near to Me and listen to this:
From the beginning I have not spoken in secret;
from the time it came to be, I was there.

And now the Lord God has sent Me,
and His Spirit.”

The Redeemer’s Call

17 This is what the Lord says—
your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel:
“I am the Lord your God,
who teaches you what is best for you,
who directs you in the way you should go.

18 If only you had paid attention to My commands, your peace would have been like a river,
your righteousness like the waves of the sea.

19 Your descendants would have been like the sand,
your offspring like its countless grains;
their name would never be cut off nor destroyed from before Me.”

Deliverance Declared

20 Leave Babylon!
Flee from the Chaldeans!
With a voice of singing, proclaim it, declare it to the ends of the earth;
say, “The Lord has redeemed His servant Jacob.”

21 They did not thirst when He led them through the deserts;
He made water flow from the rock for them;
He split the rock and water gushed out.

22 “There is no peace,” says the Lord,
“for the wicked.”

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 48

- God knows our stubborn hearts: Israel’s pride and rebellion from birth show our deep need for grace (vv. 1–8).
- God’s glory is His priority: He refines His people for His name’s sake and will not share His glory with idols (vv. 9–11).

- The Lord is eternal: He is the First and the Last, Creator of heaven and earth, sovereign over history (vv. 12–13).
- Obedience brings peace: If Israel had obeyed, they would have known peace like a river and righteousness like the waves (vv. 17–19).
- Redemption is from God alone: He delivers His people from Babylon and provides for them in the wilderness (vv. 20–21).
- No peace for the wicked: Sin always destroys peace, but God’s people find rest in Him (v. 22).

Isaiah 49 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Servant of the Lord: Salvation to the Ends of the Earth”

The Servant’s Calling

1 Listen to Me, O coastlands; pay attention, you peoples from afar.
The Lord called Me from the womb;
from the body of My mother He named My name.

2 He made My mouth like a sharp sword;
in the shadow of His hand He hid Me.
He made Me a polished arrow;
in His quiver He concealed Me.

3 He said to Me, “You are My servant, Israel, in whom I will be glorified.”

4 But I said, “I have labored in vain;
I have spent My strength for nothing and in futility;
yet surely My justice is with the Lord,
and My reward is with My God.”

A Light to the Nations

5 And now the Lord says—
He who formed Me from the womb to be His servant,
to bring Jacob back to Him,
so that Israel might be gathered—
For I am honored in the eyes of the Lord, and My God has been My strength.

6 He said,
“It is too small a thing for You to be My servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob and restore the preserved of Israel;
I will also make You a light for the nations, that My salvation may reach to the ends of the earth.”

7 This is what the Lord says—
the Redeemer of Israel and His Holy One—to Him who was despised and abhorred by the nations,
to the servant of rulers:
“Kings shall see You and rise up,
princes shall bow down,
because of the Lord, who is faithful,
the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen You.”

The Day of Salvation

8 This is what the Lord says:
“In the time of favor I will answer You,
in the day of salvation I will help You.
I will keep You and make You a covenant for the people,
to restore the land
and to reassign its desolate inheritances,

9 to say to the prisoners, ‘Come out,’
and to those in darkness, ‘Show yourselves.’
They will feed along the roads, and find pasture on every barren height.

10 They will neither hunger nor thirst, nor will the scorching heat or sun strike them down;
for He who has compassion on them will guide them
and lead them beside springs of water.

11 I will turn all My mountains into a road,
and My highways will be raised up.

12 See, they will come from afar—
some from the north and from the west, and some from the land of Sinim.”

13 Shout for joy, O heavens; rejoice, O earth; burst into song, O mountains!

For the Lord comforts His people and will have compassion on His afflicted ones.

God's Unfailing Love for Zion

14 But Zion said, "The Lord has forsaken me;
my Lord has forgotten me."

15 "Can a mother forget her nursing child, and have no compassion on the son of her womb?
Even if she may forget,
I will not forget you!

16 See, I have engraved you on the palms of My hands;
your walls are ever before Me.

17 Your children will hasten back, while those who destroyed you will depart.

18 Lift up your eyes and look around:
all your children gather and come to you.
As surely as I live," declares the Lord,
"you will wear them all as ornaments;
you will put them on like a bride."

Zion Restored

19 "Though you were ruined and made desolate and your land laid waste,
now you will be too small for your inhabitants,
and those who devoured you will be far away.

20 The children born during your bereavement will yet say in your hearing,
'This place is too small for us;
make room for us to live here.'

21 Then you will say in your heart,
'Who has borne me these children?
I was bereaved and barren, exiled and rejected.
Who brought them up?
I was left all alone,
but these—where have they come from?'"

22 This is what the Sovereign Lord says:
“See, I will beckon to the nations,
I will lift up My banner to the peoples;
they will bring your sons in their arms and carry your daughters on their shoulders.

23 Kings will be your guardians, and their queens your nursing mothers.
They will bow down before you with their faces to the ground;
they will lick the dust at your feet.
Then you will know that I am the Lord;
those who hope in Me will not be put to shame.”

God’s Victory Over Oppressors

24 Can plunder be taken from warriors, or captives rescued from the fierce?

25 But this is what the Lord says:
“Yes, captives will be taken from warriors,
and plunder retrieved from the fierce.
I will contend with those who contend with you,
and I will save your children.

26 I will make your oppressors eat their own flesh;
they will be drunk on their own blood as with wine.
Then all mankind will know that I, the Lord, am your Savior, your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.”

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 49

- God calls His Servant from the womb: The prophecy points to Christ, chosen before birth to restore Israel and bring salvation to the nations (vv. 1–6).
- The Servant’s mission is global: God’s salvation is not only for Israel but for all peoples to the ends of the earth (v. 6).
- God’s love is unfailing: Even if a mother forgets her child, God will never forget His people—He has engraved them on His hands (vv. 14–16).
- Restoration and growth: What once was desolate will overflow with life and children, a picture of God’s multiplying grace (vv. 17–21).
- The nations will honor God’s people: Even kings and rulers will bow down, acknowledging the Lord’s hand (vv. 22–23).

- God fights for His people: He Himself delivers captives and defeats oppressors with finality (vv. 24–26).

Isaiah 50 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Obedient Servant of the Lord”

Israel’s Sin, Not God’s Weakness

1 This is what the Lord says:

“Where is your mother’s certificate of divorce, with which I sent her away?

Or to which of My creditors did I sell you?

No, it was because of your sins you were sold,
and because of your transgressions your mother was sent away.

2 When I came, why was there no one to respond?

When I called, why was there no one to answer?

Is My hand too short to redeem you?

Do I lack the power to deliver?

By My rebuke I dry up the sea,

I turn rivers into desert;

their fish rot for lack of water and die of thirst.

3 I clothe the heavens with darkness and cover them with sackcloth.”

The Servant’s Obedience and Suffering

4 The Sovereign Lord has given Me the tongue of one who is taught, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word.

Morning by morning He awakens Me;

He opens My ear to listen like a disciple.

5 The Sovereign Lord has opened My ear,

and I was not rebellious,

nor did I turn away.

6 I gave My back to those who beat Me, and My cheeks to those who pulled out My beard;

I did not hide My face

from mocking and spitting.

7 But the Sovereign Lord helps Me;
therefore I will not be disgraced.
I have set My face like flint,
and I know I will not be put to shame.

8 He who vindicates Me is near.
Who then will bring charges against Me?
Let us face each other.
Who is My accuser? Let him confront Me.

9 See, the Sovereign Lord helps Me.
Who then can condemn Me?
They will all wear out like a garment;
the moth will eat them up.

Trusting the Servant or Trusting in Fire

10 Who among you fears the Lord and obeys the voice of His servant?
Though he walks in darkness and has no light,
let him trust in the name of the Lord and rely on his God.

11 But now, all you who light fires and surround yourselves with sparks, walk in the light of your own fire
and of the torches you have set ablaze.
This is what you will receive from My hand:
you will lie down in torment.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 50

- Sin separates, not God's weakness: Israel's exile was not because God lacked power, but because of their rebellion (vv. 1–3).
- The Servant's obedience: The prophecy points to Christ, who submitted fully to God's will, even through suffering and shame (vv. 4–6).
- Unshakable confidence in God: The Servant's boldness comes from trusting God's vindication, not human approval (vv. 7–9).
- A choice of trust: Those who fear the Lord must walk by faith, not by their own sparks of human effort. Trusting in self-made fire leads only to sorrow (vv. 10–11).

Isaiah 51 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord’s Comfort and Everlasting Salvation”

Look to the Rock of Your Origins

1 “Listen to Me, you who pursue righteousness, you who seek the Lord:

Look to the rock from which you were cut,
and to the quarry from which you were dug.

2 Look to Abraham your father and to Sarah who gave you birth.

When I called him, he was only one man,
but I blessed him and made him many.

3 For the Lord will comfort Zion;
He will comfort all her ruins.
He will make her deserts like Eden,
her wastelands like the garden of the Lord.
Joy and gladness will be found in her, thanksgiving and the sound of singing.”

God’s Everlasting Salvation

4 “Listen to Me, My people;
hear Me, My nation.
My teaching will go out from Me;
My justice will become a light to the nations.

5 My righteousness draws near speedily,
My salvation is on the way,
and My arm will bring justice to the nations.
The islands will look to Me and wait in hope for My arm.

6 Lift up your eyes to the heavens;
look at the earth beneath.
The heavens will vanish like smoke,
the earth will wear out like a garment,
and its inhabitants will die like flies.
But My salvation will last forever,
and My righteousness will never fail.”

Fear God, Not Man

7 “Listen to Me, you who know righteousness, you people who have My law in your hearts:
Do not fear the reproach of mere mortals, or be terrified by their insults.

8 For the moth will eat them up like a garment;
the worm will devour them like wool.
But My righteousness will last forever,
My salvation through all generations.”

The Arm of the Lord Awakes

9 Awake, awake, arm of the Lord, clothe Yourself with strength!
Awake, as in days gone by,
as in generations of old.
Was it not You who cut Rahab to pieces,
who pierced the dragon?

10 Was it not You who dried up the sea,
the waters of the great deep,
who made a road in the depths of the sea
so that the redeemed might cross over?

11 Those the Lord has rescued will return.
They will enter Zion with singing;
everlasting joy will crown their heads.
Gladness and joy will overtake them,
and sorrow and sighing will flee away.

God Himself Brings Comfort

12 “I, even I, am He who comforts you.
Who are you that you fear mere mortals,
human beings who are but grass,

13 that you forget the Lord your Maker, who stretches out the heavens and lays the foundations of the earth, that you live in constant terror every day
because of the wrath of the oppressor, who is bent on destruction?

But where is the wrath of the oppressor?

14 The cowering prisoners will soon be set free;
they will not die in their dungeon,
nor will they lack bread.

15 For I am the Lord your God,
who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar—
the Lord Almighty is His name.

16 I have put My words in your mouth and covered you with the shadow of My hand—
I who set the heavens in place,
who laid the foundations of the earth,
and who say to Zion, ‘You are My people.’”

The Cup of God’s Wrath Removed

17 Awake, awake!
Rise up, Jerusalem,
you who have drunk from the hand of the Lord
the cup of His wrath.
You who have drained to its dregs
the goblet that makes people stagger.

18 Among all the children she bore
there was none to guide her;
among all the children she reared there was none to take her by the hand.

19 These double calamities have come upon you—ruin and destruction, famine and sword—and who can console you?

20 Your children have fainted;
they lie at every street corner,
like antelopes caught in a net.
They are filled with the wrath of the Lord,
with the rebuke of your God.

21 Therefore hear this, you afflicted one,
made drunk, but not with wine.

22 This is what your Sovereign Lord says, your God, who defends His people:

“See, I have taken out of your hand
the cup that made you stagger;
from that cup, the goblet of My wrath,
you will never drink again.

23 I will put it into the hands of your tormentors, who said to you,
‘Fall prostrate that we may walk on you.’
And you made your back like the ground, like a street to be walked on.”

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 51

- Remember your roots: God calls His people to look back to Abraham and Sarah, remembering His power to bless and multiply (vv. 1–2).
- God’s salvation is eternal: Earth and heavens may pass away, but God’s righteousness and salvation endure forever (vv. 6–8).
- God is greater than oppressors: Believers must not fear man, but trust the Lord who delivers and comforts (vv. 12–16).
- Joy replaces sorrow for the redeemed: Those who trust in the Lord will return to Zion with everlasting joy (vv. 11, 22–23).

Isaiah 52 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord’s Salvation Revealed”

Zion Awakes in Strength

1 Awake, awake, Zion!
Put on your strength.
Clothe yourself with your beautiful garments,
Jerusalem, the holy city.
Never again will the uncircumcised and the unclean enter into you.

2 Shake off your dust; rise up, Jerusalem.
Sit enthroned once more.
Free yourself from the chains on your neck,
captive Daughter of Zion.

3 For this is what the Lord says:
“You were sold for nothing,
and without money you will be redeemed.”

The Oppression of God’s People

4 For this is what the Sovereign Lord says:
“At first My people went down to Egypt to live there;
later, the Assyrian oppressed them without cause.

5 Now what do I have here?” declares the Lord.
“For My people have been taken away for nothing, and those who rule over them mock,” declares the Lord.
“And all day long My name is continually blasphemed.

6 Therefore My people will know My name;
therefore in that day they will know that it is I who foretold it.
Yes, it is I.”

The Good News of Salvation

7 How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of those who bring good news, who proclaim peace,
who bring good tidings,
who proclaim salvation,
who say to Zion,
“Your God reigns!”

8 Listen! Your watchmen lift up their voices; together they shout for joy.
When the Lord returns to Zion,
they will see it with their own eyes.

9 Burst into songs of joy together,
you ruins of Jerusalem,
for the Lord has comforted His people,
He has redeemed Jerusalem.

10 The Lord will lay bare His holy arm in the sight of all nations, and all the ends of the earth will see the salvation of our God.

A Call to Purity

11 Depart, depart, go out from there!
Touch no unclean thing!
Come out from her and be pure,
you who carry the vessels of the Lord.

12 But you will not leave in haste or go in flight;
for the Lord will go before you,
the God of Israel will be your rear guard.

The Exalted Servant

13 See, My servant will act wisely;
He will be raised and lifted up and highly exalted.

14 Just as there were many who were appalled at Him—
His appearance was so disfigured beyond that of any human being, and His form marred beyond human likeness—

15 so He will sprinkle many nations, and kings will shut their mouths because of Him.
For what they were not told, they will see,
and what they have not heard, they will understand.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 52

- God redeems freely: Israel was sold for nothing, yet God redeems them without payment, showing salvation is by His grace (vv. 3–6).
- The gospel brings peace: The image of “beautiful feet” speaks of those who proclaim God’s good news of salvation (v. 7).
- Salvation is public and worldwide: The nations will see the Lord’s power revealed, and His salvation will be known across the earth (vv. 10, 15).
- Purity matters: God calls His people to leave behind what is unclean and walk in holiness (vv. 11–12).

- Christ foreshadowed: The exalted Servant, marred beyond recognition yet lifted high, points clearly to the suffering and glory of Jesus (vv. 13–15).

Isaiah 53 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Suffering Servant”

The Rejected Servant

1 Who has believed our message?
And to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?

2 He grew up before Him like a tender shoot,
like a root out of dry ground.
He had no beauty or majesty to attract us to Him,
nothing in His appearance that we should desire Him.

3 He was despised and rejected by men,
a man of sorrows, familiar with suffering.
Like one from whom people hide their faces
He was despised, and we did not value Him.

Bearing Our Sorrows

4 Surely He took up our griefs and carried our sorrows;
yet we considered Him stricken by God,
smitten and afflicted.

5 But He was pierced for our transgressions,
He was crushed for our iniquities;
the punishment that brought us peace was upon Him,
and by His wounds we are healed.

6 We all, like sheep, have gone astray,
each of us has turned to his own way;
and the Lord has laid on Him
the iniquity of us all.

Silent in Suffering

7 He was oppressed and afflicted,
yet He did not open His mouth;

He was led like a lamb to the slaughter,
and as a sheep before its shearers is silent,
so He did not open His mouth.

8 By oppression and judgment He was taken away.
Who can speak of His descendants?
For He was cut off from the land of the living;
for the transgression of My people He was stricken.

9 He was assigned a grave with the wicked,
yet with the rich in His death,
though He had done no violence,
nor was any deceit in His mouth.

The Lord's Purpose in His Suffering

10 Yet it was the Lord's will to crush Him and cause Him to suffer, and though the Lord makes His life an offering for sin,
He will see His offspring and prolong His days,
and the will of the Lord will prosper in His hand.

11 After the suffering of His soul,
He will see the light of life and be satisfied;
by His knowledge My righteous Servant will justify many,
and He will bear their iniquities.

12 Therefore I will give Him a portion among the great,
and He will divide the spoils with the strong,
because He poured out His life unto death,
and was numbered with the transgressors.
For He bore the sin of many,
and made intercession for the transgressors.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 53

- Christ's suffering was substitutionary: He bore our griefs, sins, and punishment, so that we might have peace and healing (vv. 4–6).
- Jesus' humility fulfilled prophecy: He remained silent under oppression, like a lamb led to slaughter (v. 7).
- Innocent yet condemned: Though blameless, He was cut off from the living for the sins of the people (vv. 8–9).

- God’s plan of redemption: It was the Lord’s will to make His life a sin offering, so that many could be justified (vv. 10–11).
- Victory through sacrifice: By pouring out His life, He won eternal triumph, receiving honor and glory from the Father (v. 12).

Isaiah 54 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Covenant of Peace”

Joy for the Barren

1 Sing, O barren woman, you who never bore a child;
break forth into singing and cry aloud,
you who never travailed in labor;
for more are the children of the desolate woman than of her who has a husband, says the Lord.

2 Enlarge the place of your tent,
stretch out the curtains of your dwelling;
do not hold back—lengthen your cords,
and strengthen your stakes.

3 For you will spread out to the right and to the left;
your descendants will possess the nations and will inhabit the desolate cities.

The Lord Your Husband

4 Do not be afraid, for you will not be put to shame;
do not be humiliated, for you will not be disgraced.
You will forget the shame of your youth and remember no more the reproach of your widowhood.

5 For your Maker is your husband—
the Lord of hosts is His name;
your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel;
He is called the God of all the earth.

6 The Lord has called you back like a wife deserted and grieved in spirit—like a wife of youth who was rejected,
says your God.

7 For a brief moment I abandoned you,
but with great compassion I will gather you.

8 In a little burst of anger I hid My face from you for a moment, but with everlasting kindness I will have mercy on you,
says the Lord, your Redeemer.

An Everlasting Covenant of Peace

9 This is like the days of Noah to Me:
As I swore that the waters of Noah would never again
cover the earth,
so I have sworn not to be angry with you or rebuke you again.

10 Though the mountains be shaken and the hills be removed,
yet My unfailing love for you will not be shaken, nor My covenant of peace be removed,
says the Lord, who has compassion on you.

A Glorious Future for Zion

11 O afflicted city, storm-tossed and not comforted, behold, I will lay your stones with beautiful colors,
and set your foundations with sapphires.

12 I will make your pinnacles of rubies,
your gates of sparkling jewels,
and all your walls of precious stones.

13 All your children will be taught by the Lord, and great will be the peace of your children.

14 In righteousness you will be established:
You will be far from oppression,
for you will not fear;
far from terror,
for it will not come near you.

15 If anyone attacks you, it will not be My doing;
whoever attacks you will fall because of you.

No Weapon Shall Prevail

16 Behold, I created the blacksmith who fans the coals into flame and forges a weapon fit for its work;
and I also created the destroyer to bring devastation.

17 But no weapon forged against you will prevail, and you will silence every tongue that rises against you in judgment.
This is the heritage of the servants of the Lord,
and their vindication is from Me,
declares the Lord.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 54

- God restores the barren and broken: What seems desolate today will overflow with blessing tomorrow (vv. 1–3).
- The Lord is our true Husband and Redeemer: His love is faithful, permanent, and tender, even after seasons of discipline (vv. 4–8).
- His covenant of peace is unshakable: Unlike human promises, God’s mercy endures even when the world falls apart (vv. 9–10).
- God’s people have a glorious inheritance: A future of beauty, righteousness, and peace awaits those who belong to Him (vv. 11–14).
- Victory over opposition is guaranteed: No weapon or word raised against God’s people will stand, because their righteousness comes from Him (vv. 15–17).

Isaiah 55 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Free Gift of God’s Salvation”

Come to the Waters of Life

1 “Come, all you who are thirsty, come to the waters;
and you who have no money, come, buy and eat!
Come, buy wine and milk without money and without cost.

2 Why spend money on what is not bread, and your labor on what does not satisfy?
Listen carefully to Me, and eat what is good,
and let your soul delight itself in abundance.

3 Give ear and come to Me;
listen, so that your soul may live.
I will make with you an everlasting covenant,
My faithful love promised to David.

The Covenant Extended to the Nations

4 See, I have made him a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander of nations.

5 Surely you will summon nations you do not know,
and nations that do not know you will hasten to you,
because of the Lord your God,
the Holy One of Israel,
for He has glorified you.”

Seek the Lord While He May Be Found

6 Seek the Lord while He may be found;
call on Him while He is near.

7 Let the wicked forsake their ways,
and the unrighteous their thoughts.
Let them turn to the Lord, and He will have mercy,
and to our God, for He will freely pardon.

God’s Higher Ways

8 “For My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways,” declares the Lord.

9 “For as the heavens are higher than the earth,
so are My ways higher than your ways,
and My thoughts higher than your thoughts.

The Power of God’s Word

10 As the rain and the snow come down from heaven,
and do not return without watering the earth and making it bud and flourish,

so that it yields seed for the sower
and bread for the eater,

11 so is My word that goes out from My mouth:
It will not return to Me empty,
but will accomplish what I desire and achieve the purpose for which I sent it.

Joy and Restoration

12 You will go out in joy and be led forth in peace;
the mountains and hills
will burst into song before you,
and all the trees of the field will clap their hands.

13 Instead of the thornbush will grow the pine tree,
and instead of briars the myrtle will grow.
This will be for the Lord's renown,
for an everlasting sign,
that will never be cut off."

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 55

- God's invitation is free and universal: Salvation cannot be bought; it is a gift for all who are thirsty (vv. 1–2).
- The covenant is everlasting: The same steadfast love God showed to David extends to all who believe (vv. 3–5).
- Repentance brings mercy: Turning from wicked ways leads to God's full pardon (vv. 6–7).
- God's ways are higher: His plans surpass human wisdom, calling us to trust Him beyond our understanding (vv. 8–9).
- God's Word is unfailing: Like rain that brings life to the earth, His Word always fulfills its purpose (vv. 10–11).
- Restoration brings joy: God transforms sorrow into singing and replaces barrenness with fruitful blessing (vv. 12–13).

Isaiah 56 – Crawford Standard Bible

"A House of Prayer for All Nations"

God's Call to Righteousness

1 This is what the Lord says:

“Maintain justice and do what is right,
for My salvation is close at hand,
and My righteousness will soon be revealed.

2 Blessed is the one who does this—
the person who holds it fast, who keeps the Sabbath without desecrating it,
and keeps their hand from doing any evil.”

God's Welcome to Outsiders

3 Let no foreigner who has bound himself to the Lord say,
“The Lord will surely exclude me from His people.”
And let no eunuch complain,
“I am only a dry tree.”

4 For this is what the Lord says:
“To the eunuchs who keep My Sabbaths, who choose what pleases Me and hold fast to My covenant—

5 to them I will give within My house and within My walls a memorial and a name better than sons and daughters;
I will give them an everlasting name
that will never be cut off.

6 And the foreigners who bind themselves to the Lord, to minister to Him, to love the name of the Lord,
and to be His servants,
all who keep the Sabbath without desecrating it and who hold fast to My covenant—

7 these I will bring to My holy mountain and give them joy in My house of prayer.
Their burnt offerings and sacrifices will be accepted on My altar;
for My house will be called a house of prayer for all nations.”

8 The Sovereign Lord declares—
He who gathers the exiles of Israel:

“I will gather still others to them besides those already gathered.”

The Corrupt Leaders of Israel

9 Come, all you beasts of the field, come and devour, all you beasts of the forest!

10 Israel’s watchmen are blind;
they all lack knowledge.
They are mute dogs, they cannot bark;
they lie around and dream,
they love to sleep.

11 They are greedy dogs,
never satisfied.
They are shepherds who lack understanding;
they all turn to their own way,
each seeks his own gain.

12 “Come,” they say,
“let us get wine,
let us drink our fill of strong drink;
and tomorrow will be like today,
or even far better.”

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 56

- Righteous living matters: God’s salvation is near, and His people must live justly and keep His ways (vv. 1–2).
- God includes the excluded: Eunuchs and foreigners who were once marginalized are promised honor and belonging in God’s house (vv. 3–5).
- God’s covenant is for all nations: His house is not only for Israel but for every people who seek Him (vv. 6–7).
- God is a gatherer: He brings in the outcasts and adds even more to His people (v. 8).
- Leadership without vision leads to ruin: Selfish and greedy leaders are compared to blind watchmen and lazy dogs who fail their duty (vv. 9–12).
- Complacency is dangerous: Those who live for pleasure, assuming tomorrow will always be better, ignore God’s coming judgment (v. 12).

Isaiah 57 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Peace for the Humble, No Rest for the Wicked”

The Death of the Righteous

1 The righteous perish,
and no one takes it to heart;
merciful people are taken away,
and no one understands that the righteous are taken away to be spared from the evil to come.

2 Those who walk uprightly enter into peace;
they find rest as they lie in death.

Israel’s Idolatry Condemned

3 “But you—come here,
you children of the sorceress,
offspring of the adulterer and the prostitute!

4 Who are you mocking?
At whom do you sneer,
and stick out your tongue?
Are you not children of rebellion,
offspring of deceit—

5 you who burn with lust among the oaks,
under every green tree,
who slaughter your children in the valleys,
and under the clefts of the rocks?

6 The smooth stones of the ravines are your portion;
they, they are your lot.
Yes, to them you have poured out drink offerings and presented grain offerings.
Shall I relent because of these things?

7 You have made your bed on a high and lofty hill;
there you went up to offer your sacrifices.

8 Behind your doors and doorposts you have put your pagan symbols.
Forsaking Me, you uncovered yourself to another;

you climbed into their bed and embraced their covenant.
You loved their bed,
and gazed upon their nakedness.

9 You went to the king with ointment,
increased your perfumes,
sent your ambassadors far away,
and humbled yourself, even to the grave.

10 You grew weary from your many journeys,
but you would not say, 'It is hopeless.'
You found renewed strength in your own hand;
therefore you did not faint."

God Exposes Their False Security

11 "Whom have you so dreaded and feared that you have lied, and not remembered Me, nor taken it to heart?
Is it not because I have long kept silent,
that you no longer fear Me?

12 I will expose your righteousness and your works, and they will not benefit you.

13 When you cry out for help,
let your collection of idols save you!
The wind will carry them all off,
a mere breath will blow them away.
But whoever puts their trust in Me will inherit the land and possess My holy mountain."

God's Promise to the Humble

14 And it will be said:
"Build up, build up, prepare the way!
Remove the obstacles out of the way of My people."

15 For this is what the high and exalted One says—
He who lives forever, whose name is Holy:
"I dwell in a high and holy place,
but also with the one who is contrite and lowly in spirit,

to revive the spirit of the lowly and to revive the heart of the contrite.

16 I will not accuse forever,
nor will I always be angry,
for then the spirit of man would grow faint before Me—
the breath of life that I made.

17 Because of their sinful greed I was angry,
I struck them and hid My face in wrath,
yet they kept on in their stubborn ways.

18 I have seen their ways, but I will heal them;
I will guide them and restore comfort to Israel's mourners,

19 creating praise on their lips.
Peace, peace, to those far and near,"
says the Lord. "And I will heal them."

No Peace for the Wicked

20 But the wicked are like the tossing sea, which cannot rest,
whose waves cast up mire and mud.

21 "There is no peace," says my God,
"for the wicked."

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 57

- God removes the righteous to spare them from future evil (vv. 1–2). Their death is not loss but peace.
- Idolatry leads to shame and emptiness (vv. 3–10). Trusting in false gods or human power only brings judgment.
- God longs for repentance: Though people rebel, He calls them to turn back, promising healing and restoration (vv. 14–19).
- True dwelling of God: He does not only inhabit the high and holy place but also the humble and contrite heart (v. 15).
- No peace without God: The wicked live in turmoil like a restless sea, unable to find rest (vv. 20–21).

Isaiah 58 – Crawford Standard Bible

“True Fasting and Sabbath Delight”

Exposing Hypocrisy in Worship

1 “Cry aloud, do not hold back!
Lift up your voice like a trumpet!
Show My people their rebellion,
and the house of Jacob their sins.

2 For day after day they seek Me;
they seem eager to know My ways,
as if they were a nation that does what is right and has not forsaken the commands of its God.
They ask Me for just decisions and seem eager to draw near to God.

3 ‘Why have we fasted,’ they say,
‘and You have not seen it?’
Why have we humbled ourselves, and You take no notice?’
Yet on the day of your fasting you do as you please and exploit all your workers.

4 Your fasting ends in quarreling and strife,
and in striking each other with wicked fists.
You cannot fast as you do today and expect your voice to be heard on high.”

The Fast God Chooses

5 “Is this the kind of fast I have chosen—only a day for people to humble themselves?
Is it only for bowing one’s head like a reed and for lying in sackcloth and ashes?
Is that what you call a fast,
a day acceptable to the Lord?

6 Is not this the fast I have chosen:
to loose the chains of wickedness,
to untie the cords of the yoke,
to set the oppressed free
and break every yoke?

7 Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and to provide the poor wanderer with shelter—
when you see the naked, to clothe him, and not to hide yourself from your own flesh and blood?”

Blessings of True Compassion

8 Then your light will break forth like the dawn, and your healing will quickly appear;
your righteousness will go before you,
and the glory of the Lord will be your rear guard.

9 Then you will call, and the Lord will answer;
you will cry for help, and He will say, “Here I am.”

If you do away with the yoke of oppression,
with the pointing finger and malicious talk,

10 and if you give yourself to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light will rise in the darkness,
and your night will become like the noonday.

11 The Lord will guide you always;
He will satisfy your needs in a sun-scorched land and will strengthen your bones.
You will be like a well-watered garden,
like a spring whose waters never fail.

12 Your people will rebuild the ancient ruins and will raise up the foundations of many generations;
you will be called Repairer of Broken Walls, Restorer of Streets with Dwellings.

Honoring the Sabbath

13 “If you keep your feet from breaking the Sabbath and from doing as you please on My holy day, if you call the Sabbath a delight and the Lord’s holy day honorable, and if you honor it by not going your own way or doing as you please or speaking idle words,

14 then you will find your joy in the Lord, and I will cause you to ride in triumph

on the heights of the land and to feast on the inheritance of your father Jacob.”
For the mouth of the Lord has spoken.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 58

- Empty rituals are not true worship: God is not impressed with outward fasting while hearts remain unjust and selfish (vv. 1–5).
- True fasting is practical love: freeing the oppressed, feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, and caring for one’s own family (vv. 6–7).
- Obedience brings blessing: those who practice mercy and justice shine as lights, receive God’s guidance, and enjoy His provision (vv. 8–12).
- The Sabbath is a gift, not a burden: honoring God’s day leads to delight, spiritual joy, and covenant blessing (vv. 13–14).
- God wants both righteousness and compassion: religion without love is hypocrisy, but love flowing from obedience is true worship.

Isaiah 59 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Sin Separates, But the Redeemer Saves”

Sin Separates from God

1 Surely the Lord’s hand is not too short to save, nor His ear too dull to hear.

2 But your sins have separated you from your God;
your iniquities have hidden His face from you,
so that He will not hear.

3 For your hands are stained with blood,
your fingers with guilt;
your lips have spoken lies,
and your tongue mutters wickedness.

4 No one calls for justice;
no one pleads truthfully.
They rely on empty arguments and speak lies;
they conceive trouble and give birth to evil.

The Works of Iniquity

5 They hatch viper's eggs and spin a spider's web.
Whoever eats their eggs dies,
and when one is broken, a viper is hatched.

6 Their webs cannot be used for clothing;
they cannot cover themselves with what they make.
Their deeds are evil deeds,
and acts of violence are in their hands.

7 Their feet rush into sin;
they are swift to shed innocent blood.
Their thoughts are evil thoughts;
ruin and destruction mark their ways.

8 The way of peace they do not know;
there is no justice in their paths.
They have made crooked roads for themselves;
no one who walks in them will know peace.

Confession of Sin

9 So justice is far from us,
and righteousness does not reach us.
We look for light, but all is darkness;
for brightness, but we walk in deep shadows.

10 Like the blind we grope along the wall,
feeling our way like those without eyes.
At midday we stumble as if it were twilight;
among the strong, we are like the dead.

11 We all growl like bears,
we moan mournfully like doves.
We look for justice, but it never comes;
for deliverance, but it is far away.

12 For our offenses are many in Your sight,
and our sins testify against us.
Our offenses are ever with us,
and we acknowledge our iniquities:

13 rebellion and treachery against the Lord,
turning our backs on our God,

uttering oppression and lies,
conceiving and speaking falsehoods from the heart.

God Sees and Acts

14 So justice is driven back,
and righteousness stands at a distance;
truth has stumbled in the streets,
honesty cannot enter.

15 Truth is nowhere to be found,
and whoever shuns evil becomes a prey.

The Lord looked and was displeased that there was no justice.

16 He saw that there was no one,
He was appalled that there was no intercessor;
so His own arm worked salvation for Him,
and His righteousness sustained Him.

The Warrior Redeemer

17 He put on righteousness as His breastplate, and the helmet of salvation on His head;
He put on the garments of vengeance and wrapped Himself in zeal as in a cloak.

18 According to what they have done, so will He repay:
wrath to His enemies
and retribution to His foes;
He will repay the islands their due.

19 From the west, people will fear the name of the Lord, and from the rising of the sun, His glory.
For when the enemy comes in like a flood,
the Spirit of the Lord will lift up a standard against him.

The Covenant of the Spirit

20 “The Redeemer will come to Zion, to those in Jacob who repent of their sins,”
declares the Lord.

21 “As for Me, this is My covenant with them,” says the Lord.
“My Spirit, who is on you, will not depart from you, and My words that I have put in your mouth will always be on your lips,
on the lips of your children,
and on the lips of their descendants—
from this time on and forever,” says the Lord.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 59

- Sin breaks fellowship with God: Our iniquities block His blessing and silence His response (vv. 1–2).
- Evil bears corruption: Lies, violence, and injustice breed destruction and unrest (vv. 3–8).
- True confession acknowledges guilt: God’s people must recognize their rebellion and deceit before Him (vv. 9–13).
- God Himself intervenes: When no one could intercede, the Lord clothed Himself with righteousness and acted in justice (vv. 14–18).
- Hope in the Redeemer: God promises salvation through His Spirit and covenant that endures to every generation (vv. 19–21).

Isaiah 60 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Glory of Zion”

The Light of the Lord

1 Arise, shine, for your light has come,
and the glory of the Lord rises upon you.

2 Darkness covers the earth, and deep darkness covers the peoples;
but the Lord rises upon you,
and His glory appears over you.

3 Nations will come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising.

The Gathering of the Nations

4 Lift up your eyes and look around:
they all gather and come to you;
your sons come from afar,
and your daughters are carried at your side.

5 Then you will look and be radiant, your heart will tremble and swell with joy,
because the wealth of the seas will be brought to you,
the riches of the nations will come to you.

6 A great caravan of camels will cover your land,
young camels of Midian and Ephah.
All from Sheba will come,
bringing gold and incense
and proclaiming the praises of the Lord.

7 All the flocks of Kedar will be gathered to you,
the rams of Nebaioth will serve you;
they will be accepted as offerings on My altar,
and I will glorify My glorious house.

Zion Exalted

8 Who are these that fly along like clouds, like doves returning to their nests?

9 Surely the islands look to Me;
the ships of Tarshish are first,
bringing your children from afar,
with their silver and gold,
for the honor of the Lord your God,
the Holy One of Israel,
for He has made you beautiful.

10 Foreigners will rebuild your walls, and their kings will serve you.
Though I struck you in My anger,
in My favor I will have compassion on you.

11 Your gates will always stand open;
they will never be shut, day or night,
so that the wealth of the nations may be brought to you,
with their kings led in procession.

12 For the nation or kingdom that will not serve you will perish;
it will be utterly ruined.

13 The glory of Lebanon will come to you—the pine, the fir, and the cypress together—
to adorn My sanctuary;
and I will make the place of My feet glorious.

The City of the Lord

14 The children of your oppressors will come bowing before you;
all who despised you will bow at your feet.
They will call you the City of the Lord,
Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

15 Although you were forsaken and hated, with no one passing through,
I will make you an everlasting pride,
a joy for all generations.

16 You will drink the milk of nations, and be nursed at royal breasts.
Then you will know that I, the Lord, am your Savior,
your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

17 Instead of bronze I will bring you gold, and silver in place of iron.
Instead of wood I will bring you bronze,
and iron in place of stones.
I will make peace your governor and righteousness your ruler.

18 No longer will violence be heard in your land,
nor ruin or destruction within your borders,
but you will call your walls Salvation and your gates Praise.

Everlasting Light

19 The sun will no longer be your light by day, nor will the brightness of the moon shine on you,
for the Lord will be your everlasting light,
and your God will be your glory.

20 Your sun will never set again,
and your moon will wane no more;
the Lord will be your everlasting light,
and your days of mourning will end.

21 Then all your people will be righteous;
they will inherit the land forever.
They are the shoot I have planted,
the work of My hands,
for the display of My splendor.

22 The least of you will become a thousand,
the smallest a mighty nation.
I am the Lord;
in its time I will do this swiftly.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 60

- God's glory shines brighter than darkness: Even in a world of deep sin, His light draws the nations (vv. 1–3).
- God gathers His people and blesses them abundantly: Wealth, honor, and nations flow to Zion because of His favor (vv. 4–11).
- God turns shame into honor: Those who once oppressed will bow in respect, and the forsaken will be lifted up (vv. 12–16).
- God's peace replaces violence: He transforms the city into a place of safety, praise, and righteousness (vv. 17–18).
- God Himself is the everlasting light: Earthly sun and moon fade in comparison to the eternal glory and comfort of the Lord (vv. 19–22).

Isaiah 61 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Anointed One and the Year of the Lord's Favor”

The Mission of the Anointed One

1 The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me
to bring good news to the humble.
He has sent me to heal the brokenhearted,
to proclaim liberty to the captives,
and to open the prison for those who are bound.

2 To proclaim the year of the Lord's favor, and the day of vengeance of our God;
to comfort all who mourn,

3 To provide for those who mourn in Zion—to give them beauty instead of ashes,
the oil of joy instead of mourning,
and the garment of praise instead of a spirit of despair.
They will be called oaks of righteousness,
a planting of the Lord,
that He may be glorified.

Restoration and Renewal

4 They will rebuild the ancient ruins and restore the places long devastated;
they will renew the ruined cities that have been devastated for generations.

5 Strangers will shepherd your flocks,
and foreigners will work your fields and vineyards.

6 But you will be called priests of the Lord;
they will name you ministers of our God.
You will feed on the wealth of nations,
and in their riches you will boast.

Everlasting Joy and Covenant

7 Instead of your shame, you will receive a double portion, and instead of disgrace, you will rejoice in your inheritance.
So in your land you will inherit a double portion,
and everlasting joy will be yours.

8 For I, the Lord, love justice;
I hate robbery and wrongdoing.
In My faithfulness I will reward My people and make an everlasting covenant with them.

9 Their descendants will be known among the nations and their offspring among the peoples.
All who see them will acknowledge that they are a people the Lord has blessed.

A Song of Praise

10 I delight greatly in the Lord;
my soul rejoices in my God.

For He has clothed me with garments of salvation and covered me with the robe of righteousness.

As a bridegroom adorns himself like a priest with a crown,
and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels,

11 So the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring up before all nations,
just as the soil makes the sprout come up,
and as a garden causes seeds to grow.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 61

- The Spirit empowers God's servant: True ministry flows from the Spirit's anointing, not human effort (vv. 1–3).
- God restores the broken: He replaces mourning with joy, despair with praise, and ruin with renewal (vv. 3–4).
- God's people are priests to the world: Israel's calling—and now the church's—is to represent God to the nations (vv. 5–6).
- God brings double joy for shame: He redeems His people's losses with abundance and everlasting joy (v. 7).
- Righteousness and praise will flourish: Just as gardens grow, so God's covenant people will bear fruit that glorifies Him before all nations (vv. 10–11).

Isaiah 62 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Jerusalem's Glory and New Name”

The Lord's Zeal for Zion

1 For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not remain quiet,
until her righteousness shines like the dawn,
and her salvation blazes like a burning torch.

2 The nations will see your righteousness,
and all kings your glory.
You will be called by a new name that the Lord Himself will give.

3 You will be a crown of glory in the hand of the Lord,
a royal diadem in the hand of your God.

A New Name and a Marriage Covenant

4 You will no longer be called Forsaken, and your land will no longer be called Desolate.
Instead, you will be called Hephzibah (“My delight is in her”),
and your land Beulah (“Married”).
For the Lord delights in you,
and your land will be joined to Him.

5 As a young man marries a virgin,
so will your sons be joined to you;
and as a bridegroom rejoices over his bride,
so will your God rejoice over you.

Watchmen and the Lord’s Oath

6 I have posted watchmen on your walls, O Jerusalem;
they will never be silent day or night.
You who call on the Lord, give Him no rest,

7 and do not let Him rest until He establishes Jerusalem and makes her the praise of the whole earth.

8 The Lord has sworn by His right hand and by His mighty arm: “Never again will I give your grain
as food for your enemies, and never again will foreigners drink the wine
for which you labored.

9 Instead, those who harvest the grain will eat it and praise the Lord,
and those who gather the grapes will drink the wine
in the courts of My sanctuary.”

Salvation for Zion

10 Pass through, pass through the gates!
Prepare the way for the people.

Build up the highway,
remove the stones,
lift up a banner for the nations.

11 The Lord has proclaimed to the ends of the earth:

“Say to the Daughter of Zion,
‘Behold, your salvation comes!
Behold, His reward is with Him,
and His recompense accompanies Him.’”

12 They will be called The Holy People,
The Redeemed of the Lord;
and you will be called Sought After,
A City Not Forsaken.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 62

- God’s zeal for His people never rests: He is determined to restore and glorify Jerusalem until her righteousness shines (vv. 1–2).
- God gives a new identity: His people are no longer “Forsaken” or “Desolate” but “Delighted in” and “Married to the Lord” (v. 4).
- The joy of God over His people is like a bridegroom’s joy: This shows the deep love and covenant intimacy God desires (v. 5).
- Persistent prayer is powerful: Watchmen symbolize intercessors who will not give up until God fulfills His promises (vv. 6–7).
- God promises protection and blessing: His people will enjoy the fruits of their labor in His presence (vv. 8–9).
- The Lord Himself is Zion’s salvation: When He comes, His people will be known as holy, redeemed, and never forsaken (vv. 11–12).

Isaiah 63 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Day of Vengeance and the Mercy of God”

The Warrior from Edom

1 Who is this coming from Edom, from Bozrah, with crimson-stained garments—this One glorious in His apparel, marching in the greatness of His strength?

“It is I, the One who speaks in righteousness, mighty to save.”

2 Why are Your garments red, and Your clothes like the one who treads the winepress?

3 “I have trodden the winepress alone, and from the nations no one was with Me.
I trampled them in My anger and crushed them in My fury;
their blood spattered on My garments, and I stained all My clothing.

4 For the day of vengeance was in My heart, and the year of My redeemed had come.

5 I looked, but there was no one to help;
I was amazed that no one upheld Me.
So My own arm brought salvation,
and My wrath sustained Me.

6 I trampled the nations in My anger;
I made them stagger in My fury and poured out their lifeblood on the earth.”

The Lord’s Compassion Remembered

7 I will recount the steadfast love of the Lord,
the praises of the Lord,
according to all the Lord has granted us—
the great goodness He has shown to the house of Israel
according to His compassion and the abundance of His love.

8 For He said, “Surely they are My people, children who will not be false to Me.”
And so He became their Savior.

9 In all their suffering He suffered,
and the Angel of His Presence saved them.
In His love and compassion He redeemed them;
He lifted them up and carried them all the days of old.

10 But they rebelled and grieved His Holy Spirit.
So He turned and became their enemy;
He Himself fought against them.

Remembering God’s Deliverance

11 Then His people remembered the days of old, of Moses:
*Where is the One who brought them through the sea with the shepherd of His flock?
Where is the One who set His Holy Spirit among them,

12 who sent His glorious arm of power to be at Moses' right hand, who divided the waters before them to make for Himself an everlasting name,

13 who led them through the depths?*

Like a horse running in the wilderness, they did not stumble.

14 As cattle go down into the valley,
the Spirit of the Lord gave them rest.
So You led Your people,
to make a glorious name for Yourself.

Prayer for God's Mercy

15 Look down from heaven and see,
from Your lofty throne of holiness and glory.
Where are Your zeal and Your might?
Your tenderness and compassion are withheld from us.

16 Yet You are our Father, though Abraham does not know us and Israel does not acknowledge us.
You, O Lord, are our Father;
our Redeemer from everlasting is Your name.

17 Why, O Lord, do You make us stray from Your ways and harden our hearts so we do not fear You?
Return, for the sake of Your servants,
the tribes that are Your inheritance.

18 For a little while Your holy people possessed it, but now our enemies have trampled down Your sanctuary.

19 We are Yours from of old,
but You have not ruled over them;
they have not been called by Your name.

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 63

- Christ the Divine Warrior: The imagery of treading the winepress (vv. 1–6) reveals the Messiah's role in judgment, bringing vengeance against the nations but salvation for His redeemed.
- God suffers with His people: In all Israel's afflictions, He was afflicted, showing His deep compassion (v. 9).

- The Holy Spirit can be grieved: Israel’s rebellion turned God’s Spirit against them, reminding us to walk in obedience (v. 10).
- God’s past deliverance is our encouragement: Just as He led Israel through the sea, His people can trust Him to act again (vv. 11–14).
- A prayer for revival: Isaiah pleads for God to return to His people with mercy, restoring His rule and His presence (vv. 15–19).

Isaiah 64 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Plea for God’s Presence and Mercy”

A Cry for God to Come Down

1 Oh, that You would tear open the heavens and come down, so that the mountains would quake at Your presence—

2 as when fire kindles brushwood or fire makes water boil—
to make Your name known to Your adversaries, so that nations might tremble before You!

3 When You did awesome things we did not expect,
You came down, and the mountains shook at Your presence.

4 From ancient times no one has heard,
no ear has perceived,
no eye has seen any God besides You,
who acts on behalf of those who wait for Him.

Confession of Sin

5 You meet with the one who joyfully does righteousness, those who remember You in Your ways.
But You were angry, for we sinned;
in these ways we have continued, and we need to be saved.

6 We have all become like something unclean,
and all our righteous acts are like filthy rags.
We all wither like a leaf,
and our sins sweep us away like the wind.

7 No one calls on Your name, or stirs himself up to take hold of You.

For You have hidden Your face from us and made us waste away because of our iniquities.

Appeal to the Father and Potter

8 Yet now, O Lord, You are our Father;
we are the clay, and You are our potter;
we are all the work of Your hand.

9 Do not be exceedingly angry, O Lord, nor remember iniquity forever.
Look and see—we are all Your people.

Mourning Over Desolation

10 Your holy cities have become a wilderness;
Zion has become a desert,
Jerusalem a desolation.

11 Our holy and beautiful temple, where our ancestors praised You,
has been burned with fire,
and all that we treasured lies in ruins.

12 After all this, Lord, will You hold Yourself back?
Will You remain silent and punish us severely?

✠✧ Key Lessons from Isaiah 64

- God's presence shakes the world: When God comes down, even the mountains tremble, showing His power over creation and nations (vv. 1–3).
- Only God saves those who wait for Him: No eye has seen another god who acts on behalf of His people like the Lord does (v. 4).
- Our righteousness is insufficient: Even our best deeds are like filthy rags compared to God's holiness, and sin carries us away (v. 6).
- God is the potter, we are the clay: The prayer acknowledges His sovereignty over our lives and appeals to His mercy (vv. 8–9).
- Sin leads to desolation: When God's people rebel, even holy places can be destroyed, reminding us of the seriousness of turning from Him (vv. 10–11).

- A desperate cry for mercy: The chapter ends with an urgent plea for God not to remain silent but to act in grace (v. 12).

Isaiah 65 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A New Heaven and a New Earth”

God Found by a People Not Seeking Him

1 The Lord says:

“I revealed Myself to those who did not ask for Me;
I was found by those who did not seek Me.
To a nation not called by My name,
I said, ‘Here I am, here I am.’

2 All day long I have held out My hands to a rebellious people,
who walk in ways that are not good,
following their own thoughts.

3 They provoke Me continually to My face, offering sacrifices in gardens and burning incense on altars of brick.

4 They sit among the graves, and spend the night in secret places;
they eat swine’s flesh,
and broth of abominable things is in their pots.

5 They say, ‘Keep away from me,
do not come near me,
for I am holier than you.’
These are like smoke in My nostrils,
a fire that burns all day long.”

God Repays Sin but Preserves a Remnant

6 “See, it is written before Me:
I will not keep silent,
but I will repay—yes, I will repay into their lap—

7 both your sins and the sins of your ancestors,” says the Lord, “because they burned incense on the mountains and mocked Me on the hills.

I will measure into their lap
the full payment for their former deeds.”

8 This is what the Lord says:
“As new wine is found in a cluster, and someone says, ‘Do not destroy it, for a blessing is in it,’ so I will do for the sake of My servants—
I will not destroy them all.

9 I will bring forth descendants from Jacob,
and from Judah those who will inherit My mountains.
My chosen ones will inherit it,
and My servants will dwell there.

10 Sharon will be a pasture for flocks,
and the Valley of Achor a resting place for herds, for My people who seek Me.”

Judgment on the Unfaithful

11 “But as for you who forsake the Lord, who forget My holy mountain, who prepare a table for Fortune and fill cups of mixed wine for Destiny,

12 I will destine you for the sword,
and all of you will bow down to the slaughter.
For when I called, you did not answer;
when I spoke, you did not listen.
You did evil before My eyes
and chose what displeased Me.”

13 Therefore this is what the Lord God says:
“My servants will eat,
but you will go hungry;
My servants will drink,
but you will be thirsty;
My servants will rejoice,
but you will be put to shame.

14 My servants will sing out of joy of heart, but you will cry out from anguish of heart and wail from a broken spirit.

15 You will leave your name
as a curse for My chosen ones;

the Lord God will put you to death,
but He will give His servants another name.

16 Whoever invokes a blessing in the land will do so by the God of truth;
and whoever takes an oath in the land will swear by the God of truth.
For the former troubles will be forgotten and hidden from My eyes.”

The New Heavens and the New Earth

17 “For behold, I will create new heavens and a new earth.
The former things will not be remembered,
nor will they come to mind.

18 But be glad and rejoice forever in what I will create;
for I will create Jerusalem to be a delight and its people a joy.

19 I will rejoice over Jerusalem and take delight in My people.
The sound of weeping and crying will be heard in it no more.

20 Never again will there be in it an infant who lives only a few days, or an old man who does not live out his years;
the one who dies at a hundred will be thought a mere child;
the one who fails to reach a hundred will be considered accursed.

21 They will build houses and dwell in them;
they will plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

22 They will not build and others inhabit, they will not plant and others eat.
For as the days of a tree,
so will be the days of My people;
My chosen ones will long enjoy
the work of their hands.

23 They will not labor in vain,
nor bear children doomed to misfortune;

for they will be a people blessed by the Lord,
they and their descendants with them.

24 Before they call, I will answer;
while they are still speaking, I will hear.

25 The wolf and the lamb will feed together,
the lion will eat straw like the ox,
and dust will be the serpent's food.
They will neither harm nor destroy on all My holy mountain," says the Lord.

✠✧ Key Lessons from Isaiah 65

- God reveals Himself even to outsiders: He is found by those who did not seek Him, showing His grace extends beyond Israel (vv. 1–2).
- Religion without obedience is hypocrisy: Empty rituals and self-righteousness are like smoke in God's nose (vv. 3–5).
- God preserves a remnant: Even amid judgment, He spares His faithful servants like new wine in the cluster (v. 8).
- God distinguishes between His servants and the rebellious: His people will eat, drink, rejoice, and sing, while the unfaithful face hunger, thirst, shame, and sorrow (vv. 13–14).
- The new heavens and new earth promise joy and peace: No more sorrow, shortened lives, or wasted labor—only blessing and fulfillment (vv. 17–23).
- God answers before we call: His nearness to His people is seen in His readiness to hear and respond (v. 24).
- Perfect peace will reign: Even the wolf and the lamb will live in harmony, symbolizing the complete restoration of creation (v. 25).

Isaiah 66 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Final Word: Judgment and Glory”

The Lord Looks to the Humble

1 This is what the Lord says:
“Heaven is My throne, and the earth is My footstool.
Where is the house you would build for Me?
Where would My resting place be?”

2 My hand made all these things, and so they all came into being,” declares the Lord.
“But this is the one I will look to:
the one who is humble and contrite in spirit,
and who trembles at My word.”

Empty Religion Condemned

3 The one who kills an ox is like one who murders a man;
the one who sacrifices a lamb is like one who breaks a dog’s neck;
the one who brings an offering is like one who offers swine’s blood;
the one who burns incense is like one who blesses an idol.
Yes, they have chosen their own ways,
and their soul delights in abominations.

4 So I also will choose harsh treatment for them,
and bring upon them what they dread.
For when I called, no one answered;
when I spoke, they did not listen.
They did what was evil in My sight
and chose what displeased Me.

Encouragement for the Faithful

5 Hear the word of the Lord,
you who tremble at His word:
“Your own brothers who hate you,
who exclude you because of My name, have said, ‘Let the Lord be glorified,
that we may see your joy.’
But they will be put to shame.”

6 A voice of uproar comes from the city, a voice from the temple—
the voice of the Lord, rendering recompense to His enemies.

Zion’s Sudden Deliverance

7 Before she was in labor, she gave birth;
before her pain came, she delivered a son.

8 Who has heard of such a thing?
Who has seen such things?
Can a land be born in one day?
Can a nation be delivered in a moment?
Yet as soon as Zion was in labor,
she brought forth her children.

9 “Shall I bring to the point of birth and not deliver?” says the Lord.
“Shall I, who cause delivery, shut the womb?”
says your God.

Rejoicing with Jerusalem

10 Rejoice with Jerusalem and be glad for her,
all you who love her;
rejoice greatly with her,
all you who mourn over her.

11 For you will nurse and be satisfied
at her comforting breast;
you will drink deeply and delight in her overflowing abundance.

12 For this is what the Lord says:
“I will extend peace to her like a river,
and the wealth of nations like a flooding stream.
You will nurse and be carried on her arm and bounced on her knees.

13 As a mother comforts her child,
so will I comfort you;
and you will be comforted in Jerusalem.”

14 When you see this, your heart will rejoice, and your bones will flourish like new grass.
The hand of the Lord will be known to His servants, but His fury will be against His enemies.

Final Judgment

15 For behold, the Lord will come with fire,
and His chariots like a whirlwind, to bring down His anger with fury

and His rebuke with flames of fire.

16 For with fire and with His sword
the Lord will execute judgment on all flesh;
and the slain of the Lord will be many.

17 Those who consecrate and purify themselves to enter the gardens,
following one in the midst,
who eat swine's flesh, abominable things, and mice, will come to an end together,"
declares the Lord.

The Gathering of the Nations

18 "For I know their works and their thoughts;
the time is coming to gather all nations and tongues,
and they will come and see My glory.

19 I will set a sign among them,
and I will send survivors to the nations—to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud (archers), to Tubal and Javan, and to the distant islands that have not heard of My fame or seen My glory.
They will declare My glory among the nations.

20 And they will bring all your people from all the nations as an offering to the Lord—on horses, in chariots, in litters, on mules, and on camels—to My holy mountain Jerusalem," says the Lord,
"just as the Israelites bring their grain offerings
in clean vessels to the house of the Lord.

21 And I will also take some of them to be priests and Levites," says the Lord.

The New Heavens and New Earth

22 "For just as the new heavens and the new earth which I will make will endure before Me," declares the Lord,
"so your descendants and your name will endure.

23 From one new moon to another,
and from one Sabbath to another,
all mankind will come and bow down before Me,”
says the Lord.

24 “And they will go out and look on the dead bodies of those who rebelled against Me;
for their worm will not die,
their fire will not be quenched,
and they will be abhorrent to all mankind.”

✠ Key Lessons from Isaiah 66

- True worship is inward, not ritualistic: God rejects empty sacrifices and honors the humble and contrite spirit (vv. 1–2).
- God answers the faithful: Those who tremble at His word will see His vindication, even if mocked or cast out (v. 5).
- God can bring sudden deliverance: Zion gives birth to a nation in a day, showing God’s power to fulfill His promises quickly (vv. 7–9).
- God’s comfort is like a mother’s: He promises peace, nourishment, and tender care to His people (vv. 12–13).
- Final judgment is certain: Fire and sword symbolize God’s universal judgment on sin (vv. 15–16).
- All nations will see His glory: God will gather people from every nation, some even becoming priests and Levites (vv. 18–21).
- The new creation is eternal: The new heavens and new earth point to everlasting worship and separation between the righteous and the wicked (vv. 22–24).

Introduction to the Book of Jeremiah

“Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I set you apart...” – Jeremiah 1:5

Title and Meaning

The title Jeremiah comes from the name of its central prophet, Yirmeyahu in Hebrew, meaning “Yahweh exalts” or “Yahweh throws down.” Both meanings reflect the dual nature of Jeremiah’s ministry: God would exalt His word through Jeremiah, yet also “throw down” nations in judgment. In Hebrew tradition, the book is simply called Jeremiah.

Jeremiah is often called the weeping prophet because of his deep grief over Judah's sins and impending judgment. His words combine warning, lament, and hope, making this one of the most personal and emotional books of the Bible.

Author and Date

Jeremiah, son of Hilkiah, from the priestly town of Anathoth, is traditionally regarded as the author. He ministered as a prophet for over 40 years, from about 627 BC (during the reign of King Josiah) until after the fall of Jerusalem in 586 BC.

Baruch, Jeremiah's faithful scribe, recorded many of his messages (Jeremiah 36:4). The book was likely compiled in stages, with Baruch helping preserve Jeremiah's prophecies and historical events surrounding Judah's downfall.

Purpose of Jeremiah

Jeremiah's ministry was to call God's people to repentance and to warn of judgment if they persisted in idolatry and injustice. The book teaches us:

- That God is holy and cannot overlook sin.
- That God's covenant people are accountable to His word.
- That rebellion against God brings judgment, but repentance brings restoration.
- That even in exile, God promises a new covenant written on the heart (Jeremiah 31:31–34).

Thus, Jeremiah reveals both God's righteous anger and His unfailing mercy.

Structure of Jeremiah

The book of Jeremiah is not strictly chronological, but it can be organized into major sections:

📖 1. Call and Commission (Ch. 1)

- God calls Jeremiah as a prophet to the nations.

⚔️ 2. Prophecies of Judgment against Judah (Ch. 2–29)

- Rebukes for idolatry and social injustice.
- Warnings of coming destruction by Babylon.

🌱 3. Promises of Restoration (Ch. 30–33)

- The "Book of Consolation."
- God promises to restore His people and make a new covenant.

🕯️ 4. The Fall of Jerusalem (Ch. 34–45)

- Narratives of Judah's final kings and Jerusalem's destruction.
- Jeremiah's personal suffering and persecution.

🌐 5. Oracles against the Nations (Ch. 46–51)

- Judgment against Egypt, Moab, Ammon, Babylon, and others.

📖 6. Historical Appendix (Ch. 52)

- A record of Jerusalem’s fall and the exile, paralleling 2 Kings 24–25.

Major Themes

- Covenant and Judgment: Judah broke God’s covenant, and judgment followed.
- Repentance and Hardness of Heart: God pleaded for repentance, yet the people resisted.
- False Prophets vs. True Prophets: Jeremiah often clashed with leaders who promised peace when judgment was near.
- Suffering in Ministry: Jeremiah faced rejection, imprisonment, and despair, showing the cost of faithfulness.
- The New Covenant: God promises a future covenant written on the heart, fulfilled in Christ.

Why Jeremiah Matters Today

Jeremiah speaks powerfully to a world that still wrestles with sin, injustice, and misplaced trust. It challenges us to:

- Examine our hearts for faithfulness to God.
- Trust in God’s word, not popular opinion.
- Remember that even in judgment, God offers hope through His promises.
- Look forward to the new covenant fulfilled in Jesus Christ, who writes His law on our hearts by the Holy Spirit.

Key Verse

“This is the covenant I will make with the people of Israel after that time,” declares the Lord.

“I will put my law in their minds and write it on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people.” – Jeremiah 31:33

This verse captures Jeremiah’s central message: God’s ultimate plan is not just external law, but internal transformation through His Spirit.

Jeremiah 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Call of Jeremiah”

Introduction: The Time and Place of Jeremiah's Ministry

1 These are the words of Jeremiah son of Hilkiah, one of the priests from Anathoth in the land of Benjamin.

2 The word of the Lord came to him during the thirteenth year of the reign of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah.

3 It also came during the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, and continued until the eleventh year of Zedekiah son of Josiah, king of Judah, when Jerusalem was carried away into exile in the fifth month.

God Calls Jeremiah

4 The word of the Lord came to me, saying,

5 “Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you.
Before you were born, I set you apart.
I appointed you as a prophet to the nations.”

6 Then I said, “Ah, Lord God! I do not know how to speak, for I am only a child.”

7 But the Lord said to me,
“Do not say, ‘I am only a child.’
You must go to everyone I send you to and say whatever I command you.

8 Do not be afraid of them,
for I am with you to deliver you,”
declares the Lord.

9 Then the Lord reached out His hand and touched my mouth and said, “Behold, I have put My words in your mouth.

10 See, today I appoint you over nations and kingdoms—
to uproot and tear down,
to destroy and overthrow,
to build and to plant.”

Two Visions Confirm the Call

11 The word of the Lord came to me: “Jeremiah, what do you see?”
I replied, “I see the branch of an almond tree.”

12 The Lord said to me, “You have seen correctly, for I am watching to see that My word is fulfilled.”

13 The word of the Lord came to me again: “What do you see?”
I answered, “I see a boiling pot, tilting from the north.”

14 The Lord said to me, “From the north disaster will be poured out on all who live in the land.

15 I am about to summon all the peoples of the northern kingdoms,” declares the Lord.
“Their kings will come and set up their thrones at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem;
they will come against all her surrounding walls and against all the towns of Judah.

16 I will pronounce My judgments on My people because of their wickedness in forsaking Me, burning incense to other gods,
and worshiping what their own hands have made.”

Jeremiah Strengthened for His Task

17 “Get yourself ready!
Stand up and say to them whatever I command you.
Do not be terrified by them,
or I will terrify you before them.

18 Today I have made you a fortified city, an iron pillar and a bronze wall to stand against the whole land—against the kings of Judah, its officials, its priests, and the people of the land.

19 They will fight against you but will not overcome you,
for I am with you to deliver you,”
declares the Lord.

✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 1

- God’s plans precede our birth: He knew and set apart Jeremiah before he was born (v. 5).
- Excuses don’t limit God: Jeremiah thought he was too young, but God empowered him (vv. 6–8).
- God equips those He calls: His word in Jeremiah’s mouth gave him authority (v. 9).
- God’s message is both judgment and hope: to uproot and tear down, but also to build and plant (v. 10).

- God confirms His word: through visions (almond tree = watchfulness; boiling pot = coming judgment) (vv. 11–14).
- Courage is required: Jeremiah would face opposition but not defeat, because God was with him (vv. 17–19).

Jeremiah 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God’s Case Against Israel”

Israel’s Early Devotion Remembered

1 The word of the Lord came to me:

2 “Go and proclaim in the hearing of Jerusalem:

This is what the Lord says:

‘I remember the devotion of your youth,
your love as a bride,
how you followed Me in the wilderness,
in a land not sown.

3 Israel was holy to the Lord,
the firstfruits of His harvest;
all who devoured her were held guilty,
and disaster came upon them,’
declares the Lord.”

Israel’s Forsaking of God

4 Hear the word of the Lord, O house of Jacob, all you families of Israel.

5 This is what the Lord says:

“What fault did your ancestors find in Me that they strayed so far from Me?

They followed worthless idols and became worthless themselves.

6 They did not ask, ‘Where is the Lord who brought us up out of Egypt, who led us through the barren wilderness,
through a land of deserts and pits,
through a land of drought and darkness,
a land where no one travels and no one lives?’

7 I brought you into a fertile land to eat its fruit and its bounty.
But you defiled My land and made My inheritance detestable.

8 The priests did not ask, ‘Where is the Lord?’
Those who handle the law did not know Me;
the shepherds rebelled against Me;
the prophets prophesied by Baal,
following worthless idols.”

Israel’s Two Great Evils

9 “Therefore I will bring charges against you again,”
declares the Lord.
“And I will bring charges against your children’s children.

10 Cross over to the coasts of Cyprus and look,
send to Kedar and observe closely;
see if there has ever been anything like this:

11 Has a nation ever changed its gods?
(Yet they are not gods at all.)
But My people have exchanged their glorious God for worthless idols.

12 Be appalled at this, you heavens, shudder with great horror,”
declares the Lord.

13 “For My people have committed two sins:
They have forsaken Me,
the fountain of living waters,
and dug their own cisterns—broken cisterns that cannot hold water.”

Israel’s Slavery and Shame

14 “Is Israel a servant, a slave by birth?
Why then has he become plunder?

15 Young lions roar against him;
they growl loudly.
They lay waste his land;
his towns are burned and deserted.

16 The men of Memphis and Tahpanhes have cracked your skull.

17 Have you not brought this on yourselves by forsaking the Lord your God when He led you in the way?

18 Now why go to Egypt to drink water from the Nile?
And why go to Assyria to drink water from the Euphrates?

19 Your wickedness will punish you;
your backsliding will rebuke you.
Consider then and realize how evil and bitter it is for you when you forsake the Lord your God and have no awe of Me,” declares the Lord, the Lord Almighty.

The Unfaithfulness of Israel

20 “Long ago you broke off your yoke and tore off your bonds;
you said, ‘I will not serve You.’
Indeed, on every high hill
and under every spreading tree
you lay down like a prostitute.

21 I had planted you like a choice vine of sound and reliable stock.
How then did you turn against Me into a corrupt, wild vine?

22 Although you wash yourself with soap and use an abundance of cleansing powder, the stain of your guilt is still before Me,”
declares the Lord God.

23 “How can you say, ‘I am not defiled;
I have not run after the Baals’?
See how you behaved in the valley;
consider what you have done.
You are a swift she-camel
running here and there,

24 a wild donkey accustomed to the desert, sniffing the wind in her craving—
who can restrain her lust?
Any males that pursue her need not tire themselves;
at mating time they will find her.

25 Do not run until your feet are bare and your throat is dry.
But you said, 'It's no use!
I love foreign gods,
and I must go after them.'"

Israel's Shame and Guilt

26 "As a thief is disgraced when he is caught, so the people of Israel are disgraced—
they, their kings and their officials, their priests and their prophets.

27 They say to wood, 'You are my father,'
and to stone, 'You gave me birth.'
They have turned their backs to Me
and not their faces;
yet when they are in trouble, they say,
'Come and save us!'

28 Where then are the gods you made for yourselves?
Let them come if they can save you when you are in trouble!
For you, Judah, have as many gods
as you have towns.

29 Why do you bring charges against Me?
You have all rebelled against Me,"
declares the Lord.

30 "In vain I punished your people;
they did not respond to correction.
Your sword has devoured your prophets like a ravenous lion.

31 You of this generation, consider the word of the Lord:
Have I been a desert to Israel or a land of great darkness?

Why do My people say, ‘We are free to roam;
we will come to You no more’?

32 Does a young woman forget her jewelry,
a bride her wedding ornaments?
Yet My people have forgotten Me, days without number.

33 How skilled you are at pursuing love!
Even the worst of women can learn from your ways.

34 On your clothes is found the lifeblood of the innocent poor, though you did not catch them breaking in.
Yet in spite of all this

35 you say, ‘I am innocent;
He is not angry with me.’
But I will pass judgment on you because you say, ‘I have not sinned.’

36 Why do you go about so much, changing your ways?
You will be disappointed by Egypt
as you were by Assyria.

37 You will also leave that place with your hands on your head, for the Lord has rejected those you trust;
you will not be helped by them.”

✠✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 2

- God remembers Israel’s early devotion, but they abandoned Him for idols (vv. 2–5).
- Sin brings slavery and shame, not freedom (vv. 14–19).
- Forsaking God for false gods is like trading living water for broken cisterns (v. 13).
- Religious leaders failed in their duty—priests, prophets, and shepherds alike (v. 8).
- Israel’s sins could not be washed away by rituals; only God’s mercy can cleanse (vv. 22–23).
- Trusting in foreign powers instead of God brings only disappointment (vv. 18, 36–37).

Jeremiah 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Return to Me”

Israel's Unfaithfulness

1 The Lord said:

“If a man divorces his wife,
and she leaves him and becomes another man’s wife,
should he return to her again?
Would not the land be greatly polluted?
But you have lived as a prostitute with many lovers—
yet return to Me,” declares the Lord.

2 “Look up to the barren heights and see.
Is there any place where you have not been defiled?
By the roadside you sat waiting for lovers,
like an Arab in the wilderness.
You polluted the land with your prostitution and your wickedness.

3 Therefore the showers have been withheld,
and no spring rains have fallen.
Yet you have the brazen look of a prostitute;
you refuse to be ashamed.

4 Have you not just now called to Me:
‘My Father, You are the guide of my youth—

5 will You always be angry?
Will Your wrath continue forever?’
But you have spoken and done evil things as much as you could.”

Israel and Judah Compared

6 During the reign of King Josiah, the Lord said to me:
“Have you seen what faithless Israel has done?
She has gone up on every high hill
and under every spreading tree
and committed adultery there.

7 I thought that after she had done all this she would return to Me—
but she did not.
And her unfaithful sister Judah saw it.

8 I gave faithless Israel her certificate of divorce and sent her away because of all her adulteries.
Yet I saw that her unfaithful sister Judah had no fear;
she also went out and committed adultery.

9 Because Israel's immorality mattered so little to her,
she defiled the land and committed adultery with stone and wood.

10 In spite of all this,
her unfaithful sister Judah did not return to Me
with all her heart,
but only in pretense," declares the Lord.

11 The Lord said to me,
"Faithless Israel is more righteous than unfaithful Judah."

A Call to Repentance

12 "Go, proclaim this message toward the north:
'Return, faithless Israel,' declares the Lord,
'I will not frown on you forever,
for I am merciful,' declares the Lord,
'I will not be angry forever.

13 Only acknowledge your guilt—
you have rebelled against the Lord your God, you have scattered your favors to foreign gods
under every spreading tree,
and have not obeyed Me,' declares the Lord.

14 'Return, faithless children,' declares the Lord,
'for I am your husband.
I will choose you—one from a city and two from a family—
and bring you to Zion.

15 Then I will give you shepherds after My own heart, who will lead you with knowledge and understanding.

16 In those days, when your numbers have increased greatly in the land,' declares the Lord,
'people will no longer say,
"The ark of the covenant of the Lord."
It will never enter their minds or be remembered;
it will not be missed, nor will another one be made.

17 At that time they will call Jerusalem The Throne of the Lord, and all nations will gather there in honor of the name of the Lord.
No longer will they follow the stubbornness of their evil hearts.

18 In those days the people of Judah will join the people of Israel, and together they will come from a northern land to the land I gave your ancestors as an inheritance.”

A Plea for Faithfulness

19 “I said,
‘How gladly would I treat you like children and give you a pleasant land,
the most beautiful inheritance of any nation.’
I thought you would call Me ‘Father’ and not turn away from following Me.

20 But like a woman unfaithful to her husband, so you, Israel, have been unfaithful to Me,”
declares the Lord.

21 A cry is heard on the barren heights,
the weeping and pleading of the people of Israel,
because they have perverted their ways and forgotten the Lord their God.

22 “Return, faithless children;
I will heal your backsliding.”

“Yes, we will come to You, for You are the Lord our God.

23 Surely the idolatrous commotion on the hills and the loud worship on the mountains is a deception;
surely in the Lord our God is the salvation of Israel.

24 From our youth shameful gods have consumed the fruits of our ancestors’ labor—their flocks and herds,
their sons and daughters.

25 Let us lie down in our shame,
and let our disgrace cover us.

We have sinned against the Lord our God,
both we and our ancestors;
from our youth till this day
we have not obeyed the Lord our God.”

✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 3

- God pleads with His people to return, even after repeated unfaithfulness (vv. 1–5, 12–14).
- Israel’s sin led to judgment, yet Judah’s hypocrisy was worse—pretending repentance without sincerity (vv. 6–11).
- God promises shepherds after His own heart to guide His people with knowledge and truth (v. 15).
- True restoration will unite Israel and Judah under God’s reign, with Jerusalem as His throne (vv. 16–18).
- Salvation is not found in idols or traditions, but in the Lord alone (vv. 23–25).

Jeremiah 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Warning of Judgment”

A Call to Return

1 The Lord says:

“If you, Israel, will return,
return to Me.

If you put away your detestable idols from My sight,
you will not be removed.

2 If in a truthful, just, and righteous way you swear,
‘As surely as the Lord lives,’ then the nations will invoke blessings by Him and in Him they will glory.”

3 For this is what the Lord says
to the people of Judah and Jerusalem:

“Break up your unplowed ground and do not sow among thorns.

4 Circumcise yourselves to the Lord,
circumcise your hearts,
you people of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem, or My wrath will flare up and burn like fire

because of the evil you have done—burn with no one to quench it.”

Invasion from the North

5 “Announce in Judah and proclaim in Jerusalem, and say:
‘Sound the trumpet throughout the land!’
Cry aloud and say:
‘Gather together!
Let us flee to the fortified cities!’

6 Raise the signal flag toward Zion!
Flee for safety without delay!
For I am bringing disaster from the north,
even terrible destruction.”

7 A lion has come out of its thicket;
a destroyer of nations has set out.
He has left his place
to lay waste your land.
Your towns will lie in ruins
without inhabitant.

8 So put on sackcloth,
lament and wail,
for the fierce anger of the Lord has not turned away from us.

9 “In that day,” declares the Lord,
“the king and the officials will lose heart,
the priests will be horrified,
and the prophets will be appalled.”

10 Then I said,
“Ah, Lord God! Surely You have deceived this people and Jerusalem by saying, ‘You will have peace,’ when the sword is at our throats.”

11 At that time this will be said to these people and to Jerusalem:
“A scorching wind from the barren heights in the desert
blows toward My people,
but not to winnow or cleanse.

12 A wind too strong for that comes from Me.
Now I pronounce My judgments against them.”

13 Look! He advances like the clouds, his chariots come like a whirlwind,
his horses are swifter than eagles.
Woe to us! We are ruined!

The Heart Must Be Cleansed

14 O Jerusalem, wash the evil from your heart and be saved.
How long will you harbor wicked thoughts within you?

15 A voice announces from Dan, proclaiming disaster from the hills of Ephraim.

16 “Tell the nations, proclaim concerning Jerusalem:
‘A besieging army is coming from a distant land, raising a shout against the cities of Judah.’

17 They surround her like men guarding a field, because she has rebelled against Me,”
declares the Lord.

18 “Your conduct and actions have brought this upon you.
This is your punishment.
How bitter it is!
How it pierces to the heart!”

Jeremiah’s Lament

19 Oh, my anguish, my anguish!
I writhe in pain.
Oh, the agony of my heart!
My heart pounds within me,
I cannot keep silent.
For I have heard the sound of the trumpet;
I have heard the battle cry.

20 Disaster follows disaster;
the whole land lies in ruins.
In an instant My tents are destroyed,
my shelter falls in a moment.

21 How long must I see the battle standard and hear the sound of the trumpet?

22 “My people are fools;
they do not know Me.
They are senseless children;
they have no understanding.
They are skilled in doing evil;
they know not how to do good.”

A Vision of Devastation

23 I looked at the earth, and it was formless and empty;
and at the heavens,
and their light was gone.

24 I looked at the mountains, and they were quaking;
all the hills were swaying.

25 I looked, and there were no people;
every bird in the sky had flown away.

26 I looked, and the fruitful land was a desert;
all its towns lay in ruins
before the Lord,
before His fierce anger.

27 This is what the Lord says:
“The whole land will be ruined,
though I will not destroy it completely.

28 Therefore the earth will mourn and the heavens above grow dark,
because I have spoken and will not relent,
I have decided and will not turn back.”

The Futility of False Beauty

29 At the sound of horsemen and archers every town takes to flight.
Some go into the thickets;
some climb up among the rocks.
All the towns are deserted;
no one lives in them.

30 What are you doing, you devastated one?
Why dress yourself in scarlet and put on jewels of gold?
Why highlight your eyes with makeup?
You adorn yourself in vain.
Your lovers despise you;
they want to kill you.

31 I hear a cry like that of a woman in labor,
a groan as of one bearing her first child—
the cry of Daughter Zion gasping for breath, stretching out her hands and saying, “Alas! I am fainting;
my life is given over to murderers.”

✠✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 4

- True repentance must be from the heart, not in pretense (vv. 1–4, 14).
- Judgment is certain when sin is cherished, yet God’s warnings give people a chance to return (vv. 5–13).
- Human rebellion brings disaster upon itself; sin’s bitterness reaches the heart (v. 18).
- Jeremiah’s grief shows God’s broken heart over His people’s destruction (vv. 19–21).
- The vision of chaos (vv. 23–26) echoes Genesis 1:2, showing sin returns creation to disorder.
- Outward beauty and worldly alliances cannot save when God’s judgment comes (vv. 30–31).

Jeremiah 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“No One Seeks Truth”

Searching for a Righteous Person

1 “Run through the streets of Jerusalem.
Look around and take notice.
Search in the public squares.
If you can find even one person who acts with justice,
who seeks the truth,
then I will forgive this city.

2 Although they say, ‘As surely as the Lord lives,’ still they swear falsely.”

3 Lord, are not Your eyes looking for truth?
You struck them, but they felt no pain.
You crushed them, but they refused correction.
They made their faces harder than stone and refused to repent.

4 I thought, “These are only the poor; they are foolish, for they do not know the way of the Lord,
the requirements of their God.

5 So I will go to the leaders and speak to them,
for they surely know the way of the Lord,
the law of their God.”
But they too, with one accord, had broken off the yoke
and torn away the bonds.

Wild Beasts of Judgment

6 Therefore, a lion from the forest will attack them,
a wolf from the desert will ravage them,
a leopard will lie in wait near their towns to tear apart anyone who ventures out—for their rebellion is great,
and their backslidings many.

7 “Why should I forgive you?
Your children have abandoned Me and sworn by gods that are not gods.
Though I supplied their every need,
they committed adultery
and thronged to the houses of prostitutes.

8 They are well-fed lusty stallions, each neighing after his neighbor’s wife.

9 Should I not punish them for this?”
declares the Lord.
“Should I not avenge Myself
on such a nation as this?”

False Security and Coming Conquest

10 “Go up through her vineyard rows and destroy, but do not destroy them completely.
Strip away her branches,
for they do not belong to the Lord.

11 For the people of Israel and the people of Judah have been utterly unfaithful to Me,”
declares the Lord.

12 They have lied about the Lord;
they said, “He will do nothing!
No harm will come to us;
we will never see sword or famine.

13 The prophets are but wind,
the word is not in them;
so let what they say be done to them.”

14 Therefore this is what the Lord God Almighty says:
“Because the people have spoken this word,
I will make My words in your mouth a fire and these people the wood it consumes.

15 People of Israel,” declares the Lord,
“I am bringing a distant nation against you—an ancient and enduring nation,
a people whose language you do not know,
whose speech you cannot understand.

16 Their quivers are like open graves;
they are all mighty warriors.

17 They will devour your harvests and food, devour your sons and daughters,
devour your flocks and herds,
devour your vines and fig trees.
With the sword they will destroy the fortified cities in which you trust.

18 Yet even in those days,” declares the Lord,
“I will not destroy you completely.”

A Foolish and Blind People

19 And when the people ask,
“Why has the Lord our God done all this to us?”
You will tell them,
“As you have forsaken Me and served foreign gods in your own land, so now you will serve foreigners in a land not your own.”

20 “Announce this to the descendants of Jacob and proclaim it in Judah:

21 Hear this, you foolish and senseless people, who have eyes but do not see,
who have ears but do not hear:

22 Should you not fear Me?” declares the Lord.
“Should you not tremble in My presence?
I made the sand a boundary for the sea,
an everlasting barrier it cannot cross.
Though the waves toss, they cannot prevail;
though they roar, they cannot cross it.

23 But these people have stubborn and rebellious hearts;
they have turned aside and gone away.

24 They do not say to themselves,
‘Let us fear the Lord our God, who gives autumn and spring rains in season,
who assures us of the regular weeks of harvest.’

25 Your sins have deprived you of these;
your wrongdoings have kept good from you.”

Wicked Leaders and Corrupt Prophets

26 “Among My people are the wicked who lie in wait like men who snare birds, and like those who set traps to catch people.

27 Like cages full of birds,
their houses are full of deceit;
they have become rich and powerful.

28 They have grown fat and sleek.
Their evil deeds have no limit;
they do not seek justice.

They do not promote the case of the fatherless;
they do not defend the rights of the poor.

29 Should I not punish them for this?”
declares the Lord.

“Should I not avenge Myself
on such a nation as this?”

30 A horrible and shocking thing has happened in the land:

31 The prophets prophesy lies,
the priests rule by their own authority,
and My people love it this way.
But what will you do in the end?”

✠✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 5

- God looks for truth and justice, even in one person, as a reason to show mercy (v. 1).
- Outward religion without repentance is worthless—words must be matched by obedience (vv. 2–3).
- Sin blinds hearts and hardens people against correction (vv. 3–5).
- Rebellion opens the door for destruction: predators (lion, wolf, leopard) symbolize judgment (vv. 6–9).
- False prophets give false peace, but God’s Word is like fire that consumes deception (vv. 12–14).
- Sin deprives people of God’s blessings—rain, harvest, and peace (vv. 24–25).
- Corruption among leaders brings ruin when justice is neglected (vv. 26–28).
- God’s people often prefer lies to truth, but the end of such a path is devastation (vv. 30–31).

Jeremiah 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Warning of Invasion”

A Call to Flee

1 “Run for safety, people of Benjamin!
Flee out of Jerusalem!
Blow the trumpet in Tekoa,
raise a signal fire over Beth-haccerem, for disaster looms out of the north—

a great destruction is coming.

2 The beautiful and delicate Daughter of Zion
I compare to a lovely woman,

3 but shepherds with their flocks will surround her,
they will pitch their tents around her,
each feeding in his own place.”

The Enemy’s Advance

4 “Prepare for battle against her!
Rise up, let’s attack at noon!
Woe to us! The daylight is fading,
the evening shadows grow long.

5 Rise up! Let’s attack by night and destroy her fortresses!”

6 This is what the Lord Almighty says:
“Cut down trees,
and build siege ramps against Jerusalem.
This city must be punished;
within her there is nothing but oppression.

7 As a spring pours out water,
so she pours out wickedness.
Violence and destruction resound within her;
her sickness and wounds are ever before Me.

8 Be warned, Jerusalem, or I will turn away from you and make your land desolate, an uninhabited waste.”

No Delight in God’s Word

9 This is what the Lord Almighty says:
“They will glean the remnant of Israel
as thoroughly as a vine;
pass your hand again over the branches,
like a grape gatherer.”

10 To whom can I speak and give warning?
Who will listen?
Their ears are closed,
so they cannot hear.
The word of the Lord is offensive to them;
they find no pleasure in it.

11 But I am full of the wrath of the Lord, and I cannot hold it in.
“I will pour it out on the children in the street and on the young men gathered together.
Husbands and wives alike will be taken,
the old and those weighed down with years.

12 Their houses will be turned over to others, together with their fields and their wives,
when I stretch out My hand against those who live in the land,”
declares the Lord.

Corrupt Leaders and False Prophets

13 “From the least to the greatest,
all are greedy for gain;
prophets and priests alike,
they all practice deceit.

14 They dress the wound of My people as though it were not serious.
‘Peace, peace,’ they say,
when there is no peace.

15 Are they ashamed of their detestable conduct?
No, they have no shame at all;
they do not even know how to blush.
So they will fall among the fallen;
when I punish them, they will be brought down,”
says the Lord.

The Old Paths Rejected

16 This is what the Lord says:
“Stand at the crossroads and look.

Ask for the ancient paths,
where the good way is, and walk in it,
and you will find rest for your souls.
But you said, 'We will not walk in it.'

17 I appointed watchmen over you and said,
'Listen to the sound of the trumpet!'
But you said, 'We will not listen.'

18 Therefore hear, you nations;
you who are witnesses,
observe what will happen to them.

19 Hear, you earth:
I am bringing disaster on this people,
the fruit of their own schemes,
because they have not listened to My words and have rejected My law."

Empty Sacrifices

20 "What do I care about incense from Sheba or sweet cane from a distant land?
Your burnt offerings are not acceptable;
your sacrifices do not please Me."

21 Therefore this is what the Lord says:
"I will put obstacles before this people.
Parents and children alike will stumble over them;
neighbors and friends will perish."

The Invader from the North

22 This is what the Lord says:
"Look! An army is coming from the land of the north;
a great nation is stirring from the ends of the earth.

23 They grasp bow and spear;
they are cruel and show no mercy.
Their sound roars like the sea;
they ride on horses,
arrayed for battle against you, Daughter Zion."

24 We have heard reports about them,
and our hands hang limp.
Anguish grips us,
pain like that of a woman in labor.

25 Do not go out to the fields or walk on the roads,
for the enemy has a sword,
and there is terror on every side.

26 Put on sackcloth, my people,
and roll in ashes;
mourn with bitter wailing
as for an only son,
for suddenly the destroyer
will come upon us.

Israel Tested and Rejected

27 “I have made you a tester of metals and My fortress among My people, so that you may observe and test their ways.

28 They are all hardened rebels,
going about to slander.
They are bronze and iron;
they all act corruptly.

29 The bellows blow fiercely to burn away the lead with fire, but the refining goes on in vain;
the wicked are not purged out.

30 They are called rejected silver,
because the Lord has rejected them.”

✠✧ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 6

- God warns His people clearly before judgment comes, but stubborn hearts refuse to listen (vv. 10, 16–17).
- Outward religion—sacrifices and rituals—means nothing without obedience (v. 20).
- False leaders who declare “peace” when destruction is near are dangerous deceivers (vv. 13–14).

- God calls His people to walk in the “old paths” of righteousness, but many reject them (v. 16).
- The refining process of trials reveals whether faith is genuine—some are shown to be like “rejected silver” (vv. 27–30).
- True security is found only in returning to God, not in empty words or religious pretense.

Jeremiah 7 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Temple Sermon”

A Call to Repentance

1 The Lord spoke to Jeremiah, saying,

2 “Stand at the gate of the Lord’s house and proclaim this message:

‘Hear the word of the Lord, all you people of Judah who enter these gates to worship the Lord.

3 This is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Change your ways and your actions, and I will let you live in this place.

4 Do not trust in deceptive words and say, “This is the temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord!”

5 If you truly change your ways and your actions, if you deal with one another justly,

6 if you do not oppress the foreigner, the fatherless, or the widow, and do not shed innocent blood in this place, and if you do not follow other gods to your own harm,

7 then I will let you live in this place, in the land I gave your ancestors forever and ever.

8 But look, you are trusting in deceptive words that are worthless.

9 Will you steal, murder, commit adultery, swear falsely, burn incense to Baal, and follow other gods you have not known,

10 and then come and stand before Me in this house, which bears My Name, and say, “We are safe”—only to go on doing all these detestable things?

11 Has this house, which bears My Name, become a den of robbers to you? But I have been watching!’ declares the Lord.”

A Warning from Shiloh

12 “Go now to the place in Shiloh where I first made My Name dwell, and see what I did to it because of the wickedness of My people Israel.

13 While you were doing all these things, I spoke to you again and again, but you did not listen. I called you, but you did not answer.

14 Therefore, what I did to Shiloh I will do to the house that bears My Name, the temple you trust in, the place I gave to you and your ancestors.

15 I will thrust you from My presence, just as I did all your relatives, the people of Ephraim.”

Do Not Pray for This People

16 “So do not pray for this people or offer a cry or petition on their behalf; do not plead with Me, for I will not listen to you.

17 Do you not see what they are doing in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

18 The children gather wood, the fathers light the fire, and the women knead dough to make cakes for the so-called ‘queen of heaven.’ They pour out drink offerings to other gods to arouse My anger.

19 But am I the one they are provoking? declares the Lord. Are they not rather harming themselves, to their own shame?

20 Therefore, this is what the Sovereign Lord says: My anger and My wrath will be poured out on this place—on people and animals, on the trees of the field and the crops of the land—and it will burn and not be quenched.”

Obedience, Not Sacrifice

21 “This is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Add your burnt offerings to your other sacrifices and eat the meat yourselves!

22 For when I brought your ancestors out of Egypt, I did not just speak to them about burnt offerings and sacrifices, 23 but I gave them this command: Obey My voice, and I will be your God and you will be My people. Walk in obedience to all I command you, that it may go well with you.

24 But they did not listen or pay attention. Instead, they followed the stubborn inclinations of their evil hearts. They went backward, not forward.

25 From the day your ancestors left Egypt until now, I sent all My servants the prophets to you again and again.

26 But they did not listen to Me or pay attention. They were stiff-necked and did more evil than their ancestors.

27 So when you tell them all this, they will not listen to you. When you call to them, they will not answer.

28 Therefore say to them, ‘This is the nation that has not obeyed the Lord its God or responded to correction. Truth has perished; it has vanished from their lips.’”

Judgment on Idolatry

29 Cut off your hair and throw it away; take up a lament on the barren heights, for the Lord has rejected and abandoned the generation that provoked His wrath.

30 The people of Judah have done evil in My eyes, declares the Lord. They have set up their detestable idols in the house that bears My Name and have defiled it.

31 They have built the high places of Topheth in the Valley of Ben Hinnom to burn their sons and daughters in the fire—something I never commanded, nor did it enter My mind.

32 So beware, the days are coming, declares the Lord, when it will no longer be called Topheth or the Valley of Ben Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter, for they will bury the dead in Topheth until there is no more room.

33 Then the dead bodies of this people will become food for the birds of the air and the wild animals, and there will be no one to frighten them away.

34 I will bring an end to the sounds of joy and gladness, the voices of bride and bridegroom, in the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem, for the land will become desolate.”

✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 7

- God values obedience to His voice over ritual sacrifices (vv. 21–23).
- Trusting in religious symbols, like the temple, without true repentance, is empty and dangerous (vv. 4–11).
- Shiloh’s destruction is a warning: no place, however sacred, is safe when people rebel against God (vv. 12–15).
- God sometimes tells His prophets not to pray for His people when judgment is certain (v. 16).
- Idolatry brings devastating consequences, even defiling God’s house itself (vv. 30–31).
- Judgment silences joy; rebellion leads to desolation (v. 34).

Jeremiah 8 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Refusal to Repent”

Desecration of the Dead

1 The Lord says, “At that time, the bones of the kings of Judah, the officials, the priests, the prophets, and the people of Jerusalem will be taken from their graves.

2 They will be spread out before the sun, the moon, and all the stars of the heavens—the very ones they loved, served, followed, and worshiped. Their bones will not be gathered or buried but left like manure on the ground.

3 And those who remain alive of this wicked family, wherever I have scattered them, will prefer death rather than life,” declares the Lord Almighty.

Perpetual Backsliding

4 “Tell them this: This is what the Lord says:

When people fall down, don’t they get up again? When someone turns away, don’t they return?

5 Then why has this people of Jerusalem turned away with unending backsliding? They cling to deceit; they refuse to return to Me.

6 I listened carefully, but none of them said what is right. No one repented of their wickedness and said, ‘What have I done?’ Instead, each runs down his own path like a horse charging into battle.

7 Even the stork in the sky knows her seasons; the dove, the swallow, and the crane keep the time of their migration. But My people do not know the requirements of the Lord.”

False Wisdom and Corrupt Leaders

8 “How can you say, ‘We are wise, for we have the law of the Lord,’ when the lying pen of the scribes has handled it falsely?

9 The wise will be put to shame; they will be dismayed and trapped. Since they have rejected the word of the Lord, what kind of wisdom do they really have?

10 Therefore I will give their wives to others and their fields to new owners. From the least to the greatest, all are greedy for gain. From prophet to priest, everyone practices deceit.

11 They dress the wound of My people as though it were not serious, saying, ‘Peace, peace,’ when there is no peace.

12 Are they ashamed of their detestable conduct? No, they do not even know how to blush. So they will fall among the fallen; when I punish them, they will be brought down,” declares the Lord.

A Harvest of Judgment

13 “I will take away their harvest,” declares the Lord. “There will be no grapes on the vine, no figs on the tree, and even the leaves will wither. Whatever I gave them will be taken from them.”

14 The people cry out:

“Why are we just sitting here? Let’s gather together and flee to the fortified cities to die there! For the Lord our God has doomed us to perish and given us poisoned water to drink, because we have sinned against Him.

15 We hoped for peace, but no good has come; for a time of healing, but there is only terror!”

16 From the land of Dan, the snorting of enemy horses is heard; the whole land trembles at the neighing of their strong steeds. They have come to devour the land and everything in it—the cities and those who live there.

17 The Lord says: “See, I will send venomous snakes among you, vipers that cannot be charmed, and they will bite you.”

Jeremiah’s Lament

18 My sorrow is beyond healing; my heart is faint within me.

19 Listen! The cry of my people from a distant land:

“Is the Lord not in Zion? Is her King no longer there?”

The Lord replies: “Why have they provoked Me with their idols, with their worthless foreign gods?”

20 The people cry: “The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved.”

21 Since my people are crushed, I am crushed; I mourn, and horror grips me.

22 Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there? Then why is there no healing for the wounds of My people?

✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 8

- Sin hardens hearts to the point where people no longer even ask, “What have I done?” (vv. 5–6).
- Creation itself obeys God’s timing, but His people ignore His commands (v. 7).
- Religious leaders can become corrupt, preaching “peace” when destruction is near (vv. 10–11).
- Rejecting God’s Word strips away true wisdom (vv. 8–9).
- Rebellion leads to loss—of harvests, safety, and even life itself (vv. 13–17).
- Jeremiah’s cry reveals God’s heart: He desires healing for His people, but they refuse to return (vv. 18–22).

Jeremiah 9 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Nation Without Truth”

Jeremiah's Tears for His People

1 Oh, that my head were a spring of water and my eyes a fountain of tears! I would weep day and night for the slain of my people.

2 Oh, that I had a place in the desert—a lodging for travelers—so I could leave my people and go away from them! For they are all adulterers, a band of treacherous people.

A Culture of Lies and Deceit

3 They bend their tongues like bows, ready to shoot lies. They do not stand strong for the truth in the land. They go from one sin to another, and they do not know Me, declares the Lord.

4 Beware of your neighbors! Do not trust even your brothers, for every brother deceives and every neighbor slanders.

5 Everyone deceives his neighbor; no one speaks the truth. They have trained their tongues to lie and work hard at doing wrong.

6 You live in the midst of deception; because of deceit they refuse to know Me, declares the Lord.

God's Refining Judgment

7 Therefore this is what the Lord Almighty says: "I will refine and test them, for what else can I do with the people of My nation?"

8 Their tongues are deadly arrows; their mouths speak deceit. One speaks peaceably to his neighbor, but in his heart he sets a trap for him.

9 Should I not punish them for this?" declares the Lord. "Should I not avenge Myself on such a nation as this?"

Desolation of the Land

10 I will weep and wail for the mountains and take up a lament for the wilderness pastures. They are desolate, so no one can pass through. The sound of cattle is no longer heard. Birds of the air and animals have fled and are gone.

11 I will make Jerusalem a heap of ruins, a haunt for jackals; I will make the towns of Judah desolate, without inhabitants.

12 Who is wise enough to understand this? Who has the word of the Lord so he can explain why the land is ruined and burned like a wilderness no one can cross?

13 The Lord said, "It is because they have forsaken My law, which I set before them; they have not obeyed My voice or followed it.

14 Instead, they followed the stubbornness of their hearts and the Baals, as their ancestors taught them.”

15 Therefore this is what the Lord Almighty says, the God of Israel: “See, I will make this people eat bitter food and drink poisoned water.

16 I will scatter them among nations that neither they nor their ancestors have known, and I will pursue them with the sword until I have destroyed them.”

A Call for Mourning

17 This is what the Lord Almighty says: “Consider now! Call for the mourning women to come; send for the skilled women to wail.

18 Let them come quickly and wail over us, till our eyes overflow with tears and our eyelids gush with water.

19 The sound of wailing is heard from Zion: ‘How ruined we are! How great is our shame! We must leave our land because our houses are in ruins.’

20 Now, you women, hear the word of the Lord; open your ears to the words of His mouth. Teach your daughters how to wail; teach one another a lament.

21 Death has climbed in through our windows; it has entered our fortresses. It has cut off children from the streets and young men from the public squares.

22 Say, ‘This is what the Lord declares: The dead bodies of men will lie like dung on the open field, like cut grain behind the reaper, with no one to gather them.’”

True Glory in the Lord

23 This is what the Lord says: “Let not the wise boast in their wisdom or the strong boast in their strength or the rich boast in their riches.

24 But let the one who boasts boast about this: that they understand and know Me, that I am the Lord who practices steadfast love, justice, and righteousness on the earth. For in these I delight,” declares the Lord.

Judgment on All Nations

25 “The days are coming,” declares the Lord, “when I will punish all who are circumcised only in the flesh—

26 Egypt, Judah, Edom, the Ammonites, Moab, and all who live in the distant desert. For all these nations are uncircumcised, and the whole house of Israel is uncircumcised in heart.”

✠✧ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 9

- Sin breeds distrust: when truth is abandoned, even close relationships crumble (vv. 4–6).
- God refines and tests His people, but if they resist, judgment comes (vv. 7–9).
- The land suffers because of disobedience—sin has consequences not only on people but on creation itself (vv. 10–13).
- True wisdom and strength are not found in wealth, knowledge, or power but in knowing and following the Lord (vv. 23–24).
- Outward religion (like circumcision) means nothing without an obedient heart (v. 26).

Jeremiah 10 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Folly of Idols and the Greatness of God”

The Vanity of Idols

1 Hear the word the Lord speaks to you, people of Israel:

2 This is what the Lord says: Do not learn the ways of the nations, nor be terrified by the signs in the heavens, though the nations are terrified by them.

3 For the customs of the peoples are worthless. One cuts a tree out of the forest, the work of a craftsman’s hands with an axe.

4 They decorate it with silver and gold; they fasten it with nails and hammers so it will not topple.

5 Like a scarecrow in a cucumber field, their idols cannot speak. They must be carried because they cannot walk. Do not fear them; they can do no harm, nor can they do any good.

The Greatness of the Living God

6 No one is like You, Lord; You are great, and Your name is mighty in power.

7 Who should not fear You, King of the nations? This is Your due. Among all the wise leaders of the nations and in all their kingdoms, there is no one like You.

8 They are senseless and foolish; their idols are only wood, a doctrine of vanities.

9 Silver is brought from Tarshish and gold from Uphaz, shaped by craftsmen and the hands of goldsmiths. They dress them in blue and purple garments—all made by skilled workers.

10 But the Lord is the true God; He is the living God, the eternal King. When He is angry, the earth trembles; the nations cannot endure His wrath.

11 Say this to them: “The gods who did not make the heavens and the earth will perish from the earth and from under these heavens.”

12 God made the earth by His power; He established the world by His wisdom and stretched out the heavens by His understanding.

13 When He speaks, the waters in the heavens roar; He makes clouds rise from the ends of the earth. He sends lightning with the rain and brings out the wind from His storehouses.

14 Everyone is senseless and without knowledge; every goldsmith is shamed by his idols. His images are a fraud; they have no breath in them.

15 They are worthless, the objects of mockery; when their judgment comes, they will perish.

16 The Portion of Jacob is not like these, for He is the Maker of all things. Israel is the tribe of His inheritance—the Lord Almighty is His name.

Coming Judgment

17 Gather up your belongings, you who live under siege.

18 For this is what the Lord says: “At this time I will hurl out those who live in the land; I will bring distress on them so they may feel it.”

19 Woe to me because of my injury! My wound is incurable. Yet I said, “This is my sickness, and I must bear it.”

20 My tent is destroyed; all its ropes are broken. My children are gone from me and are no more. No one is left to pitch my tent or to set up my shelter.

21 The shepherds are senseless and do not seek the Lord. So they do not prosper, and all their flock is scattered.

22 Listen! The report is coming—a great commotion from the land of the north. It will make the towns of Judah desolate, a haunt of jackals.

A Prayer for Mercy

23 Lord, I know that people’s lives are not their own; it is not for them to direct their steps.

24 Correct me, Lord, but only with justice— not in Your anger, or You will reduce me to nothing.

25 Pour out Your wrath on the nations that do not acknowledge You, on the peoples who do not call on Your name. For they have devoured Jacob; they have consumed him and laid waste his homeland.

✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 10

- Idols are powerless—mere human creations that cannot speak, move, or save (vv. 3–5, 14–15).

- The Lord alone is the living God and eternal King—creation itself testifies to His power and wisdom (vv. 6–13).
- Human leaders and shepherds fail when they abandon God, leaving His people scattered and broken (vv. 20–21).
- Life is not our own—we must seek God’s direction and correction in justice, not anger (vv. 23–24).
- Nations that reject God and harm His people will face His judgment (v. 25).

Jeremiah 11 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Broken Covenant”

The Call to Obey the Covenant

1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord:

2 “Hear the words of this covenant, and speak to the people of Judah and the residents of Jerusalem.

3 Tell them, ‘This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: Cursed is the one who does not obey the words of this covenant,

4 the covenant I commanded your ancestors when I brought them out of Egypt, out of the iron furnace. I said, “Obey my voice and do everything I command you, and you shall be my people, and I will be your God.

5 Then I will fulfill the oath I swore to your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is today.””

Then I answered, “Amen, Lord.”

Judah’s Disobedience

6 The Lord said to me, “Proclaim all these words in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem: ‘Hear the words of this covenant and do them.

7 For I solemnly warned your fathers when I brought them out of Egypt until this day, rising early and warning them again and again: Obey my voice.

8 But they did not listen or incline their ear. Instead, each followed the stubbornness of his evil heart. So I brought upon them all the curses of the covenant I commanded them to keep, but they did not.””

9 Then the Lord said to me, “There is a conspiracy among the people of Judah and the residents of Jerusalem.

10 They have returned to the sins of their ancestors, who refused to listen to my words. They have followed other gods to serve them. The people of Israel and Judah have broken the covenant I made with their fathers.

11 Therefore this is what the Lord says: I will bring disaster upon them from which they cannot escape. Though they cry out to me, I will not listen to them.

12 Then the towns of Judah and the people of Jerusalem will cry out to the gods to whom they burn incense, but those gods will not save them in their time of trouble.

13 For your gods are as numerous as your towns, Judah, and the altars you have set up to Baal are as many as the streets of Jerusalem.”

The Rejected Nation

14 “So do not pray for this people or offer any plea for them. I will not listen when they call to me in their time of distress.

15 What right has my beloved to be in my house, when she has carried out so much wickedness? Do you think your sacrifices can cover your sins? When you do evil, you rejoice in it.

16 The Lord once called you a thriving olive tree, beautiful with good fruit. But with the roar of a mighty storm, He will set it on fire, and its branches will be broken.

17 The Lord Almighty, who planted you, has decreed disaster upon you because of the evil the people of Israel and Judah have done, provoking me with offerings to Baal.”

The Plot Against Jeremiah

18 The Lord revealed their plans to me, so I knew them. At that time He showed me what they were doing.

19 I was like a gentle lamb led to the slaughter; I did not realize they had plotted against me, saying, “Let us destroy the tree with its fruit; let us cut him off from the land of the living, so that his name will no longer be remembered.”

20 But, Lord Almighty, you who judge righteously and test the heart and mind, let me see your vengeance on them, for to you I have committed my cause.

Judgment on Anathoth

21 Therefore this is what the Lord says about the men of Anathoth who seek your life, saying, “Do not prophesy in the name of the Lord or you will die by our hand”—

22 This is what the Lord Almighty says: “I will punish them. Their young men will die by the sword; their sons and daughters will die by famine.

23 Not even a remnant will be left to them, for I will bring disaster upon the men of Anathoth in the year of their punishment.”

✠✧ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 11

- God’s covenant is built on obedience: blessing follows faithfulness, but curses follow rebellion (vv. 3–5, 8).
- Persistent sin, even when warned by prophets, leads to judgment and separation from God’s mercy (vv. 7–11).
- Idolatry multiplies shame and emptiness—it cannot save in times of distress (vv. 12–13).
- Religious rituals without repentance are meaningless; God desires obedience over sacrifice (vv. 15–16).
- God defends His servants against plots of destruction, but those who resist His word will face judgment (vv. 19–23).

Jeremiah 12 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Prophet’s Complaint and the Lord’s Reply”

Jeremiah’s Complaint About the Prosperity of the Wicked

1 Righteous are You, Lord, whenever I bring a case before You. Yet I must question Your judgments: Why does the way of the wicked prosper? Why do all the treacherous live at ease?

2 You have planted them, and they have taken root; they grow and bear fruit. You are always on their lips but far from their hearts.

3 But You know me, Lord; You see me and test my heart toward You. Drag them away like sheep for the slaughter; set them apart for the day of judgment.

4 How long will the land mourn and the grass of every field wither? Because of the wickedness of those who dwell in it, the animals and birds are gone. For they think, “He will not see what happens to us.”

The Lord’s Reply: Testing and Judgment

5 “If you have raced with men on foot and they have worn you out, how will you compete with horses? If you stumble in a land of safety, how will you manage in the thickets by the Jordan?

6 Even your own brothers and your father’s household have betrayed you; they raise a loud cry against you. Do not trust them, even though they speak smooth words.”

7 “I have forsaken my house; I have abandoned my inheritance. I have given the one I love into the hands of her enemies.

8 My inheritance has become to me like a lion in the forest; it roars against me, so I despise it.

9 My inheritance is like a speckled bird of prey surrounded and attacked by other birds. Come, gather all the beasts of the field; bring them to devour.

10 Many shepherds have ruined my vineyard and trampled down my field; they have turned my pleasant land into a desolate wilderness.

11 It is made desolate, and it mourns before me. The whole land lies wasted, and no one takes it to heart.

12 On every barren height the destroyers swarm. The sword of the Lord devours from one end of the land to the other; no one is safe.

13 They sow wheat but reap thorns; they exhaust themselves but gain nothing. They will be ashamed of their harvests because of the fierce anger of the Lord.”

Hope for Restoration for Nations That Repent

14 This is what the Lord says: “As for all my wicked neighbors who seize the inheritance I gave my people Israel, I will uproot them from their lands, and I will uproot the people of Judah from among them.

15 But after I have uprooted them, I will once again have compassion and will bring each of them back to their inheritance and their own land.

16 And if they learn the ways of my people and swear by my name, saying, ‘As surely as the Lord lives’—just as they once taught my people to swear by Baal—then they will be established among my people.

17 But if any nation does not listen, I will completely uproot and destroy it,” declares the Lord.

✠✧ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 12

- It is natural to wrestle with why the wicked prosper, but God sees beyond appearances and has appointed a day of judgment (vv. 1–4).
- Trials train God’s servants for harder battles ahead; if we struggle in small tests, how will we endure greater ones? (v. 5).
- Betrayal, even from family, may come to those who stand for God, but His strength sustains (v. 6).
- God disciplines His people for their sin, but He does not forget mercy—restoration is promised after judgment (vv. 7–15).

- Even the nations around Israel are invited into God’s covenant blessings if they turn to Him; but if not, destruction awaits (vv. 16–17).

Jeremiah 13 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Linen Belt and the Pride of Judah”

The Linen Belt as a Sign

1 This is what the Lord said to me: “Go and buy a linen belt and put it around your waist, but do not let it touch water.”

2 So I bought the belt, as the Lord instructed, and put it around my waist.

3 Then the word of the Lord came to me a second time:

4 “Take the belt you bought and are wearing around your waist, and go to the Euphrates River. Hide it there in a crevice in the rocks.”

5 So I went and hid it at the Euphrates as the Lord commanded.

6 After many days the Lord said to me, “Go now to the Euphrates and get the belt I told you to hide.”

7 So I went to the Euphrates, dug it up, and took the belt from the place where I had hidden it. But now the belt was ruined and completely useless.

8 Then the word of the Lord came to me:

9 “This is what the Lord says: In the same way I will ruin the pride of Judah and the great pride of Jerusalem.

10 These wicked people, who refuse to listen to my words, who follow the stubbornness of their hearts and chase after other gods to serve and worship them, will be like this belt—completely useless.

11 For just as a belt clings tightly to a man’s waist, so I bound the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah to myself,” declares the Lord, “to be my people for renown, praise, and honor. But they would not listen.”

The Wine Jars of Judgment

12 “Say to them: ‘This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: Every wineskin should be filled with wine.’”

And if they say, “Don’t we already know that every wineskin should be filled with wine?”

13 Then tell them, “This is what the Lord says: I am going to fill with drunkenness all who live in this land—including the kings who sit on David’s throne, the priests, the prophets, and all those living in Jerusalem.

14 I will smash them against each other, fathers and sons alike, declares the Lord. I will show no pity, no mercy, no compassion, but will destroy them.”

A Call to Humility Before Darkness

15 Listen and pay attention; do not be arrogant, for the Lord has spoken.

16 Give glory to the Lord your God before He brings darkness, before your feet stumble on the darkening hills. You hope for light, but He will turn it into deep gloom, into utter darkness.

17 But if you will not listen, I will weep in secret because of your pride; my eyes will overflow with tears because the Lord’s flock will be taken captive.

Judgment on the King and the People

18 Say to the king and the queen mother:

“Humble yourselves, sit down low,
for your crowns of splendor will fall from your heads.”

19 The cities in the Negev will be shut tight; no one will open them.
All Judah will be taken into exile, carried away completely.

20 Lift up your eyes and see those who are coming from the north.
Where is the flock that was entrusted to you, your beautiful sheep?

21 What will you say when the Lord sets over you those you once made your allies, those you taught to be leaders over you? Will not pain seize you like that of a woman in labor?

22 And if you ask yourself, “Why has this happened to me?”—it is because of the magnitude of your sin that your skirts have been pulled up and your body exposed.

23 Can an Ethiopian change his skin or a leopard its spots? Neither can you do good who are accustomed to doing evil.

24 “I will scatter you like chaff blown away by the desert wind.

25 This is your lot, the portion I have decreed for you,” declares the Lord, “because you have forgotten me and trusted in lies.

26 I will pull up your skirts over your face so that your shame may be seen.

27 I have seen your adulteries and lustful neighings, your shameful prostitution, your detestable idol worship on the hills and in the fields.

Woe to you, Jerusalem! How long will you remain unclean?”

✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 13

- God uses vivid symbols (like the ruined linen belt) to show how sin makes His people useless when they refuse to cling to Him (vv. 1–11).
- Pride blinds people from hearing God’s word; true humility is required to walk in His light (vv. 15–17).
- Even kings and leaders are not exempt from judgment when they rebel against God (vv. 18–21).
- Sin is deeply ingrained in human nature—just as a leopard cannot change its spots, so sinners cannot change without God’s transforming power (v. 23).
- Trusting in lies and idols always leads to shame and judgment; only repentance can cleanse (vv. 25–27).

Jeremiah 14 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Drought and False Prophets”

The Drought in Judah

1 The word of the Lord came to Jeremiah concerning the drought:

2 Judah mourns; her gates are weak and collapsed to the ground. The cry of Jerusalem has gone up.

3 The nobles sent their servants for water. They went to the cisterns but found none. They returned with empty jars, ashamed and humiliated, covering their heads.

4 The ground is cracked because there has been no rain. The farmers are ashamed and cover their heads.

5 Even the deer in the field abandons her newborn calf because there is no grass.

6 Wild donkeys stand on the barren heights, panting like jackals; their eyes fail because there is no vegetation.

A Prayer for Mercy

7 “O Lord, though our sins testify against us, do it for the sake of your name. Our backslidings are many; we have sinned against you.

8 O Hope of Israel, its Savior in times of trouble, why are you like a stranger in the land, like a traveler who only stays for a night?

9 Why are you like a man stunned, like a mighty warrior who cannot save? Yet you, O Lord, are in our midst, and we are called by your name. Do not abandon us.”

God's Response to Judah's Sin

10 This is what the Lord says about this people:

“They love to wander; they do not restrain their feet. So the Lord does not accept them; He will now remember their guilt and punish their sins.”

11 Then the Lord said to me: “Do not pray for the good of this people.

12 When they fast, I will not listen to their cry. When they bring burnt offerings and grain offerings, I will not accept them. Instead, I will destroy them with sword, famine, and plague.”

False Prophets and Their Judgment

13 But I said, “Ah, Sovereign Lord! The prophets keep telling them, ‘You will not see the sword or suffer famine. I will give you lasting peace in this place.’”

14 Then the Lord said to me: “The prophets are prophesying lies in my name. I did not send them, command them, or speak to them. They are prophesying to you false visions, worthless divinations, and the delusions of their own minds.

15 Therefore, this is what the Lord says about the prophets who are prophesying in my name without being sent: Yet they say, ‘No sword or famine will touch this land.’ Those very prophets will perish by sword and famine.

16 And the people to whom they prophesy will be thrown out into the streets of Jerusalem because of famine and sword. There will be no one to bury them—they, their wives, their sons, or their daughters. I will pour out on them the punishment they deserve.”

Jeremiah's Lament

17 “Tell them this:

Let my eyes overflow with tears night and day without ceasing, for my people have suffered a crushing blow,
a grievous wound.

18 If I go into the field, I see those slain by the sword.

If I enter the city, I see the sick and dying from famine.

Both prophet and priest wander aimlessly in a land they do not know.”

A Plea for Deliverance

19 Have you completely rejected Judah? Do you despise Zion? Why have you struck us with no healing? We hoped for peace, but no good came; for a time of healing, but only terror.

20 We acknowledge, O Lord, our wickedness and the guilt of our fathers; we have indeed sinned against you.

21 For the sake of your name, do not reject us. Do not dishonor your glorious throne. Remember your covenant with us and do not break it.

22 Do any of the worthless idols of the nations bring rain? Do the skies themselves send showers? No—it is you, O Lord our God. Therefore, our hope is in you, for you are the one who does all this.

✠✧ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 14

- Sin brings both spiritual and physical consequences—Judah’s rebellion led to famine, drought, and despair (vv. 1–6, 10–12).
- God’s people must not rely on outward rituals (fasting, offerings) without true repentance; otherwise, they are meaningless (v. 12).
- False prophets speak what people want to hear, but their lies bring ruin on themselves and their hearers (vv. 13–16).
- Jeremiah shows the heart of a true prophet—he weeps for his people even while delivering hard truth (vv. 17–18).
- Hope remains in God alone, who can bring rain, life, and restoration; idols and human solutions cannot save (vv. 19–22).

Jeremiah 15 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Judgment Without Pity, Jeremiah’s Lament, and God’s Assurance”

The Irreversible Judgment

1 Then the Lord said to me, “Even if Moses and Samuel stood before me, my heart would not turn toward this people. Drive them out of my presence, and let them go.

2 And if they ask you, ‘Where shall we go?’ tell them:

This is what the Lord says:

Those destined for death—to death;

those for the sword—to the sword;

those for famine—to famine;

those for captivity—to captivity.”

3 The Lord declares: “I will appoint over them four kinds of destroyers—the sword to kill, dogs to drag away, birds of the air, and beasts of the earth to devour and destroy.

4 I will make them a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth because of what Manasseh son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, did in Jerusalem.

5 Who will have pity on you, Jerusalem? Who will mourn for you? Who will stop to ask how you are?

6 You have rejected me,” declares the Lord. “You keep turning your back. So I will stretch out my hand against you and destroy you; I am tired of relenting.

7 I will winnow them at the gates of the land. I will bereave them of children and destroy my people, since they did not turn from their ways.

8 Their widows will be more numerous than the sand of the sea. At midday I will bring a destroyer against the mothers of young men. Suddenly I will cause anguish and terror to fall on the city.

9 She who bore seven children has fainted away; she gasps her last breath. Her sun has set while it was still day. She has been shamed and humiliated. The rest I will give to the sword before their enemies,” declares the Lord.

Jeremiah’s Personal Lament

10 Woe is me, my mother, that you gave me birth—a man of strife and contention with the whole land! I have not lent, nor have people lent to me, yet everyone curses me.

11 The Lord said, “Surely I will protect you for a remnant. Surely I will make the enemy plead with you in times of disaster and distress.

12 Can anyone break iron—iron from the north—or bronze?

13 Your wealth and your treasures I will give as plunder, without cost, because of all your sins throughout your borders.

14 I will enslave you to your enemies in a land you do not know, for my anger is like fire that will burn against you.”

Jeremiah’s Plea for Vindication

15 Lord, you know me. Remember me and care for me. Avenge me on my persecutors. Do not take me away because of your patience with them. Know that I suffer reproach for your sake.

16 Your words were found, and I ate them. Your word was my joy and my heart’s delight, for I bear your name, O Lord God of hosts.

17 I did not sit in the company of mockers, nor did I rejoice with them. I sat alone because your hand was upon me, for you had filled me with indignation.

18 Why is my pain unending, and my wound incurable, refusing to heal? Will you be to me like a deceptive brook, like waters that fail?

God's Answer and Assurance

19 Therefore this is what the Lord says:

“If you return, I will restore you so you may serve before me.

If you speak what is precious and not what is worthless, you will be my spokesman.

Let them turn to you, but you must not turn to them.

20 I will make you a fortified bronze wall to this people. They will fight against you but will not prevail, for I am with you to rescue and deliver you,” declares the Lord.

21 “I will deliver you from the hand of the wicked and redeem you from the grasp of the ruthless.”

✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 15

- Persistent rebellion leads to unavoidable judgment (vv. 1–4). Not even great intercessors like Moses or Samuel could turn aside God's wrath once the nation hardened its heart.
- Sin brings isolation (vv. 5–9). Jerusalem's rejection of God meant no one would pity or rescue her when judgment came.
- God's messengers may face loneliness and reproach (vv. 10–11). Jeremiah was cursed and hated for speaking truth, yet God promised to preserve him.
- God's Word sustains in suffering (v. 16). Jeremiah found joy and strength in God's Word even when people rejected him.
- God equips His servants for endurance (vv. 19–21). Jeremiah was assured that though opposition would come, God Himself would defend, protect, and redeem him.

Jeremiah 16 – Crawford Standard Bible

“No Marriage for Jeremiah, Judgment Declared, and Future Restoration Promised”

Jeremiah Forbidden to Marry

1 The word of the Lord came to me, saying,

2 “Do not take a wife for yourself, nor have sons or daughters in this place.”

3 For this is what the Lord says concerning the children born here, concerning their mothers who give birth to them, and concerning their fathers who father them in this land:

4 “They will die gruesome deaths. They will not be mourned or buried but will lie like dung on the ground. They will be consumed by sword and famine, and their corpses will be food for the birds of the air and the wild beasts of the earth.”

No Mourning, No Feasting

5 For this is what the Lord says: “Do not enter a house of mourning, do not go to lament or grieve for them, for I have taken away my peace from this people—my steadfast love and my mercy,” declares the Lord.

6 “Both great and small will die in this land. They will not be buried or mourned; no one will cut themselves or shave their heads for them.

7 No one will break bread for the mourner to comfort them for the dead, nor offer the cup of consolation for a father or mother.

8 And do not enter a house of feasting to sit down and eat or drink with them.

9 For this is what the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, says: ‘I will silence in this place, before your eyes and in your days, the voice of joy and gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride.’”

The People’s Question and God’s Answer

10 When you tell this people all these words, and they ask you, ‘Why has the Lord pronounced all this great disaster against us? What is our iniquity, and what is the sin we have committed against the Lord our God?’

11 Then you shall say to them, “Because your fathers abandoned me,” declares the Lord, “and followed other gods, served and worshiped them. They forsook me and did not keep my law.

12 But you have done even worse than your fathers. Each of you follows the stubbornness of his evil heart, refusing to listen to me.

13 So I will throw you out of this land into a land neither you nor your fathers have known. There you will serve other gods day and night, for I will show you no favor.”

Future Restoration Promised

14 “Yet the days are coming,” declares the Lord, “when it will no longer be said, ‘As surely as the Lord lives, who brought the Israelites up out of Egypt,’

15 but, ‘As surely as the Lord lives, who brought the Israelites up out of the land of the north and out of all the countries where he had banished them.’ For I will bring them back to the land I gave their ancestors.”

16 “Behold, I will send for many fishermen,” declares the Lord, “and they will catch them. Afterward, I will send for many hunters, and they will hunt them down from every mountain, every hill, and out of the crevices of the rocks.

17 For my eyes are on all their ways; they are not hidden from me, nor is their iniquity concealed from my sight.

18 I will repay them double for their wickedness and their sin, because they have defiled my land with the lifeless forms of their detestable idols and filled my inheritance with their abominations.”

The Nations Will Acknowledge the Lord

19 Lord, my strength, my fortress, and my refuge in the day of trouble, the nations will come to you from the ends of the earth and say, “Our fathers inherited nothing but lies, worthless idols that are of no profit.”

20 Can a man make gods for himself? But they are not gods!

21 “Therefore, I will make them know—this time I will make them know my power and my might. Then they will know that my name is the Lord.”

✠✧ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 16

- Jeremiah’s life was a living sign (vv. 1–4). His celibacy symbolized the coming devastation, when families would be wiped out without hope of continuation.
- God removed joy from a rebellious people (vv. 5–9). No weddings, no feasts, no comfort—judgment stripped away every source of celebration.
- The cause of judgment was generational sin (vv. 10–13). Each generation hardened more, choosing idols over God’s covenant.
- God promises future restoration (vv. 14–15). A greater deliverance would surpass even the Exodus, as He would gather His people from every nation.
- God sees all sin and will repay justly (vv. 16–18). Nothing is hidden from His sight.
- Even the nations will one day recognize Yahweh alone as God (vv. 19–21). The emptiness of idols will give way to the acknowledgment of the Lord’s power and name.

Jeremiah 17 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Deceitful Heart, Trust in the Lord, and the Sabbath Command”

The Sin of Judah Engraved

1 “The sin of Judah is engraved with an iron tool, inscribed with a diamond point on the tablet of their hearts and on the horns of their altars.

2 Even their children remember their altars and Asherah poles by the green trees and on the high hills.

3 O My mountain in the countryside, I will give away your wealth and all your treasures as plunder, together with your high places of sin throughout your borders.

4 Through your own fault you will lose the inheritance I gave you. I will make you serve your enemies in a land you do not know, for you have kindled my anger, and it will burn forever.”

Cursed and Blessed

5 This is what the Lord says:

“Cursed is the one who trusts in man, who relies on human strength and turns his heart away from the Lord.

6 He will be like a bush in the wastelands; he will not see prosperity when it comes. He will dwell in the parched places of the desert, in a salt land where no one lives.

7 But blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord, whose confidence is in Him.

8 He will be like a tree planted by the water that sends out its roots by the stream. It does not fear when heat comes; its leaves are always green. It has no worries in a year of drought and never fails to bear fruit.”

The Deceitful Heart

9 “The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked—who can understand it?

10 I, the Lord, search the heart and examine the mind, to reward each person according to their conduct, according to what their deeds deserve.”

11 Like a partridge that hatches eggs it did not lay are those who gain riches unjustly; when their lives are half gone, their riches will desert them, and in the end they will be proven fools.

The Lord, the Fountain of Living Waters

12 A glorious throne, exalted from the beginning, is the place of our sanctuary.

13 Lord, the Hope of Israel, all who forsake you will be put to shame. Those who turn away will be written in the dust because they have forsaken the Lord, the fountain of living waters.

14 Heal me, Lord, and I will be healed; save me, and I will be saved, for you are the one I praise.

15 They keep saying to me, “Where is the word of the Lord? Let it now be fulfilled!”

16 I have not run away from being your shepherd, nor have I desired the day of disaster. You know what came from my lips—it was before you.

17 Do not be a terror to me; you are my refuge in the day of disaster.

18 Let my persecutors be put to shame, but keep me from shame; let them be terrified, but keep me from terror. Bring on them the day of disaster; destroy them with double destruction.

Keep the Sabbath Holy

19 This is what the Lord said to me: “Go and stand at the Gate of the People, through which the kings of Judah go in and out, and at all the gates of Jerusalem.

20 Say to them, ‘Hear the word of the Lord, you kings of Judah and all the people of Judah and everyone living in Jerusalem who enter through these gates.

21 This is what the Lord says: Be careful not to carry a load on the Sabbath day or bring it through the gates of Jerusalem.

22 Do not bring a load out of your houses or do any work on the Sabbath, but keep the Sabbath day holy, as I commanded your ancestors.

23 Yet they did not listen or pay attention; they were stiff-necked and would not hear or respond to discipline.

24 But if you are careful to obey me,” declares the Lord, “and bring no load through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, but keep the Sabbath day holy by not doing any work on it,

25 then kings and officials who sit on David’s throne will come through the gates of this city, riding in chariots and on horses, they and their officials, the people of Judah and those living in Jerusalem. And this city will be inhabited forever.

26 People will come from the towns of Judah and the villages around Jerusalem, from the territory of Benjamin and the western foothills, from the hill country and the Negev, bringing burnt offerings, sacrifices, grain offerings, incense, and thank offerings to the house of the Lord.

27 But if you do not obey me to keep the Sabbath day holy by not carrying any load as you come through the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, then I will kindle an unquenchable fire in the gates of Jerusalem that will consume her fortresses.””

✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 17

- Sin leaves permanent marks (vv. 1–4). Judah’s rebellion was not surface-deep but engraved on their hearts.
- Where we place our trust determines our future (vv. 5–8). Trusting in man leads to barrenness, but trusting in God brings fruitfulness, even in drought.
- The human heart is deceptive (v. 9). Only God fully knows and judges it.
- God is the fountain of living waters (vv. 12–13). Forsaking Him brings shame and loss.

- Jeremiah’s prayer shows reliance on God for healing, salvation, and protection (vv. 14–18).
- The Sabbath was a test of covenant faithfulness (vv. 19–27). Obedience would bring blessing and security, while disobedience would bring destruction.

Jeremiah 18 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Potter and the Clay”

The Potter’s Lesson

1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord:

2 “Go down to the potter’s house, and there I will give you My message.”

3 So I went down to the potter’s house, and I saw him working at the wheel.

4 But the vessel he was shaping from the clay was marred in his hands; so the potter formed it into another vessel, shaping it as it seemed best to him.

5 Then the word of the Lord came to me:

6 “O house of Israel, can I not do with you as this potter does?” declares the Lord. “As the clay is in the potter’s hand, so are you in My hand, O house of Israel.

7 If at any moment I announce that a nation or kingdom is to be uprooted, torn down, and destroyed,

8 and if that nation I warned turns from its evil, then I will relent and not bring the disaster I had planned.

9 And if at another time I announce that a nation or kingdom is to be built up and planted,

10 and if it does evil in My sight and does not obey Me, then I will reconsider the good I had intended for it.”

Call to Repentance Ignored

11 “Now therefore, tell the people of Judah and those living in Jerusalem: This is what the Lord says, ‘Look! I am preparing a disaster for you and devising a plan against you. So turn now, each of you, from your evil ways, and reform your actions and your deeds.’”

12 But they will reply, “There is no hope. We will follow our own plans, and each of us will act according to the stubbornness of our own evil heart.”

13 Therefore this is what the Lord says:

“Ask among the nations: Who has ever heard anything like this? The virgin Israel has done a most horrible thing.

14 Does the snow of Lebanon ever vanish from its rocky slopes? Do its cool waters flowing from distant sources ever dry up?

15 Yet My people have forgotten Me; they burn incense to worthless idols, and they have stumbled from the ancient paths. They walk in byways, on roads not built up, 16 making their land desolate, an object of scorn and perpetual hissing. All who pass by will be appalled and shake their heads.

17 Like a scorching east wind I will scatter them before their enemies. I will show them My back and not My face in the day of their disaster.”

A Plot Against Jeremiah

18 Then they said, “Come, let us make plans against Jeremiah. For the law will not be lost from the priests, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophets. Come, let us attack him with our tongues and pay no attention to anything he says.”

19 Listen to me, O Lord; hear what my accusers are saying!

20 Should good be repaid with evil? Yet they have dug a pit for me. Remember how I stood before You to speak good for them, to turn Your wrath away from them.

21 So give their children over to famine; hand them over to the power of the sword. Let their wives be made childless and widows; let their men be put to death; let their young men be struck down by the sword in battle.

22 Let a cry be heard from their houses when You suddenly bring raiders upon them. For they have dug a pit to capture me and have hidden snares for my feet.

23 But You, Lord, know all their plots to kill me. Do not forgive their iniquity or blot out their sin from Your sight. Let them be overthrown before You; deal with them in the time of Your anger.

✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 18

- God is the Potter, we are the clay (vv. 1–6). He has complete authority to reshape lives, nations, and destinies.
- Repentance changes outcomes (vv. 7–10). Judgment can be turned away if a nation humbles itself, but blessing can also be withdrawn if sin continues.
- The stubborn heart refuses hope (vv. 11–12). Israel chose their own ways instead of God’s path.
- Forgetting God leads to desolation (vv. 13–17). Idolatry always results in ruin.
- God’s messengers often face persecution (vv. 18–23). Jeremiah prayed for protection, but also cried out for God’s justice against those plotting against him.

Jeremiah 19 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Broken Bottle Prophecy”

The Potter’s Bottle as a Sign

1 This is what the Lord said: “Go and buy a potter’s earthen jar. Then take some of the elders of the people and some of the priests,

2 and go out to the Valley of Ben-Hinnom, near the entrance of the Potsherd Gate. There proclaim the words I tell you,

3 and say, ‘Hear the word of the Lord, O kings of Judah and people of Jerusalem. This is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Behold, I am going to bring such disaster on this place that the ears of everyone who hears it will tingle.

4 For they have forsaken Me, made this place foreign, and burned incense in it to other gods—gods neither they nor their ancestors nor the kings of Judah ever knew. They have filled this place with the blood of the innocent.

5 They have built high places for Baal to burn their sons in the fire as offerings to Baal—something I never commanded or spoke of, nor did it ever enter My mind.’

The Valley of Slaughter

6 “‘So beware, the days are coming,’ declares the Lord, ‘when people will no longer call this place Topheth or the Valley of Ben-Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter.

7 In this place I will ruin the plans of Judah and Jerusalem. I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, at the hands of those who seek their lives. I will give their dead bodies as food to the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth.

8 I will make this city desolate, an object of horror and scorn. All who pass by will be appalled and will hiss at all its wounds.

9 I will make them eat the flesh of their sons and daughters; and they will eat one another during the siege and distress that their enemies will bring upon them.’”

The Shattering of the Jar

10 Then you are to break the jar in the sight of those who accompany you,

11 and say to them, “This is what the Lord Almighty says: Just so I will break this nation and this city, as one breaks a potter’s jar that cannot be repaired. They will bury the dead in Topheth until there is no more room.

12 This is what I will do to this place and to its people,” declares the Lord. “I will make this city like Topheth.

13 The houses in Jerusalem and those of the kings of Judah will be defiled like Topheth—all the houses where they burned incense on the rooftops to the stars and poured out drink offerings to other gods.”

Jeremiah’s Closing Warning at the Temple

14 Jeremiah then returned from Topheth, where the Lord had sent him to prophesy, and stood in the court of the Lord’s house and said to all the people:

15 “This is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Behold, I am going to bring upon this city and all the villages around it every disaster I pronounced against them, because they have stiffened their necks and would not listen to My words.”

✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 19

- Idolatry leads to judgment (vv. 4–5). The worship of false gods, even to the point of child sacrifice, brought God’s fierce wrath.
- Sin transforms blessing into ruin (vv. 6–9). The Valley once associated with life and fertility would become a place of slaughter and shame.
- The shattered jar is irreversible judgment (vv. 10–11). Just as a clay jar cannot be restored once broken, so the nation would face destruction they could not escape.
- False worship defiles everything it touches (v. 13). Even their houses were polluted by idolatry.
- God’s word must be proclaimed boldly (vv. 14–15). Jeremiah declared the warning publicly in the temple courts, reminding the people that judgment comes because of hardened hearts.

Jeremiah 20 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Prophet’s Pain and Fire”

Jeremiah Punished by Pashhur

1 When Pashhur son of Immer, the priest and chief officer in the temple of the Lord, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things,

2 he had Jeremiah the prophet beaten and put in the stocks at the Upper Gate of Benjamin at the Lord’s temple.

3 The next day, when Pashhur released him from the stocks, Jeremiah said to him, “The Lord does not call you Pashhur, but Magor-Missabib” (which means terror on every side).

4 For this is what the Lord says: “I will make you a terror to yourself and to all your friends. They will fall by the sword of their enemies before your eyes. I will hand all Judah over to the king of Babylon, who will take them captive to Babylon or put them to the sword.

5 I will deliver all the wealth of this city, all its products, all its valuables, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah into the hands of their enemies, who will seize them, carry them off to Babylon, and plunder them.

6 And you, Pashhur, and all who live in your house will go into captivity. You will come to Babylon, and there you will die and be buried—you and all your friends to whom you have prophesied lies.”

Jeremiah’s Anguish and Fire Within

7 O Lord, you deceived me, and I was deceived. You overpowered me and prevailed. I am ridiculed all day long; everyone mocks me.

8 Whenever I speak, I cry out, “Violence and destruction!” So the word of the Lord has brought me insult and reproach all day long.

9 But if I say, “I will not mention Him or speak any more in His name,” His word is in my heart like a fire, a fire shut up in my bones. I am weary of holding it in; indeed, I cannot.

10 I hear many whispering, “Terror on every side! Report him! Let’s report him!” All my close friends are watching for me to stumble, saying, “Perhaps he will be deceived, then we will prevail over him and take our revenge on him.”

11 But the Lord is with me like a mighty warrior; so my persecutors will stumble and not prevail. They will fail and be utterly disgraced; their dishonor will never be forgotten.

12 O Lord Almighty, You who examine the righteous and test the heart and mind, let me see Your vengeance on them, for to You I have committed my cause.

13 Sing to the Lord! Give praise to the Lord! For He rescues the life of the needy from the hands of the wicked.

Jeremiah’s Lament over His Birth

14 Cursed be the day I was born! May the day my mother bore me not be blessed.

15 Cursed be the man who brought my father the news, who made him very glad, saying, “A child is born to you—a son!”

16 May that man be like the cities the Lord overthrew without pity. May he hear wailing in the morning, a battle cry at noon.

17 For he did not kill me in the womb, with my mother as my grave, her womb enlarged forever.

18 Why did I ever come out of the womb to see trouble and sorrow and to end my days in shame?

✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 20

- Speaking truth often brings persecution (vv. 1–2). Jeremiah was beaten and imprisoned for faithfully declaring God’s word.
- God’s word is irresistible (v. 9). Though Jeremiah felt crushed by rejection, the word of God burned within him, compelling him to speak.
- The Lord is a mighty warrior (v. 11). Jeremiah’s confidence was not in himself, but in the God who defends the righteous and brings justice.
- Prophets are human too (vv. 14–18). Jeremiah’s deep lament reveals the heavy emotional toll of ministry—yet even in despair, his honesty before God became part of his prophetic witness.
- Faithfulness does not guarantee comfort, but it ensures God’s presence (vv. 7–13). The prophet endured shame, but also found strength in knowing the Lord was with him.

Jeremiah 21 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Way of Life or Death”

Zedekiah Seeks Help from Jeremiah

1 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord when King Zedekiah sent Pashhur son of Malkijah and Zephaniah son of Maaseiah the priest to him, saying,

2 “Please inquire of the Lord for us, because King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon is making war against us. Perhaps the Lord will deal with us according to His miraculous deeds, so that Nebuchadnezzar will withdraw from us.”

The Lord’s Reply: Judgment, Not Rescue

3 Jeremiah answered them, “Tell Zedekiah,

4 ‘This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: I will turn back the weapons of war in your hands, those with which you are fighting against the king of Babylon and the Chaldeans who are outside the walls besieging you. I will gather them inside this city.

5 I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and a strong arm, in anger, fury, and great wrath.

6 I will strike down those who live in this city—both people and animals—and they will die of a terrible plague.

7 After that, declares the Lord, I will give Zedekiah king of Judah, his officials, and the people who survive the plague, sword, and famine into the hands of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, into the hands of their enemies who seek their lives. He will strike them down with the sword; he will show them no mercy, pity, or compassion.”

The Way of Life and Death

8 “And to this people you shall say: This is what the Lord says: Behold, I set before you the way of life and the way of death.

9 Whoever stays in this city will die by the sword, famine, or plague. But whoever goes out and surrenders to the Chaldeans who are besieging you will live; he will escape with his life.

10 For I have set my face against this city for harm and not for good, declares the Lord. It will be given into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he will burn it with fire.”

Warning to the Royal House of Judah

11 “Concerning the house of the king of Judah, hear the word of the Lord:

12 O house of David, this is what the Lord says: ‘Administer justice every morning. Rescue the victim of robbery from the hand of the oppressor, or My wrath will break out like fire and burn with no one to quench it, because of the evil you have done.’

13 I am against you, Jerusalem, you who live in the valley, you rock of the plain, declares the Lord—you who say, ‘Who can come against us? Who can enter our dwellings?’

14 I will punish you according to the fruit of your deeds, declares the Lord. I will kindle a fire in your forests, and it will consume everything around you.”

✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 21

- False hope in God’s past miracles cannot replace obedience today (vv. 1–2). Zedekiah wanted deliverance without repentance, but God rejected that plea.
- God can fight against His own people (vv. 4–6). When rebellion persists, the Lord Himself becomes their adversary.
- There is always a choice (vv. 8–9). The Lord sets before His people the way of life and the way of death, calling them to surrender and live.
- Justice is non-negotiable (v. 12). God’s warning to the house of David highlights that leadership without righteousness brings destruction.
- False security is dangerous (v. 13). Trusting in walls, geography, or tradition is meaningless when the Lord sets Himself against a nation.

Jeremiah 22 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Kings of Judah Warned”

A Message to the King of Judah

1 This is what the Lord says: “Go down to the palace of the king of Judah and deliver this message:

2 Hear the word of the Lord, O king of Judah, who sits on David’s throne—you, your officials, and your people who enter these gates.

3 This is what the Lord says: Do what is right and just. Rescue the one who has been robbed from the hand of the oppressor. Do no wrong or violence to the foreigner, the fatherless, or the widow. Do not shed innocent blood in this place.

4 For if you truly carry out these commands, then kings who sit on David’s throne will continue to enter through the gates of this palace, riding in chariots and on horses, accompanied by their officials and their people.

5 But if you do not obey these commands, I swear by Myself, declares the Lord, that this palace will become a ruin.”

Judgment on the Palace

6 For this is what the Lord says concerning the palace of the king of Judah:

“You are to Me like Gilead, like the summit of Lebanon,
yet I will surely make you a wasteland,
like towns no one lives in.

7 I will send destroyers against you,
each with his weapon,
and they will cut down your fine cedar beams
and throw them into the fire.

8 Many nations will pass by this city and ask one another,
‘Why has the Lord done such a thing to this great city?’

9 And the answer will be:
‘Because they have forsaken the covenant of the Lord their God,
and have worshiped and served other gods.’”

Warning Against Shallum (Jehoahaz)

10 Do not weep for the dead or mourn for him, but weep bitterly for him who is exiled,
for he will never return
or see his native land again.

11 For this is what the Lord says about Shallum son of Josiah, who succeeded his father Josiah as king of Judah but has gone from this place: “He will never return.

12 He will die in the place where they have taken him captive; he will never see this land again.”

Warning Against Jehoiakim

13 Woe to him who builds his palace by unrighteousness, his upper rooms by injustice,
making his own people work for nothing,
not paying them for their labor.

14 He says, “I will build myself a great palace with spacious upper rooms.”
So he makes large windows in it, panels it with cedar,
and decorates it in red.

15 Does it make you a king to have more and more cedar?
Did not your father Josiah have food and drink?
He did what was right and just,
and so all went well with him.

16 He defended the cause of the poor and needy,
and so all went well.
Is that not what it means to know Me?
declares the Lord.

17 But your eyes and your heart are only on dishonest gain,
on shedding innocent blood,
and on oppression and extortion.

18 Therefore this is what the Lord says about Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah:
“They will not mourn for him:
‘Alas, my brother! Alas, my sister!’
They will not mourn for him:
‘Alas, my master! Alas, his majesty!’

19 He will have the burial of a donkey—dragged away and thrown outside the gates of Jerusalem.”

Judgment Against Jerusalem and Coniah (Jehoiachin)

20 “Go up to Lebanon and cry out, let your voice be heard in Bashan,
cry out from Abarim,
for all your allies are destroyed.

21 I warned you when you felt secure,
but you said, ‘I will not listen.’
This has been your way from your youth;
you have not obeyed Me.

22 The wind will drive away all your shepherds, and your allies will go into exile.
Then you will be ashamed and disgraced because of all your wickedness.

23 You who live in ‘Lebanon,’ nested in cedar buildings,
how you will groan when pangs come upon you,
pain like that of a woman in labor!

24 As surely as I live, declares the Lord,
even if you, Coniah son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, were a signet ring on My right hand,
I would still pull you off.

25 I will hand you over to those who seek your life, to those you fear—to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and to the Babylonians.

26 I will hurl you and the mother who bore you into another country, where neither of you were born,
and there you both will die.

27 You will never return to the land you long to return to.”

28 Is this man Coniah a despised, broken pot, an object no one wants?
Why are he and his children hurled out, cast into a land they do not know?

29 O land, land, land,
hear the word of the Lord!

30 This is what the Lord says:
“Record this man as childless,
a man who will not prosper in his lifetime,
for none of his offspring will prosper, none will sit on the throne of David or rule anymore in Judah.”

✠✧ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 22

- Justice is the foundation of leadership (vv. 1–5). Kings were judged not by their palaces but by their treatment of the oppressed.
- Disobedience turns blessings into ruins (vv. 6–9). Judah’s glory would be reduced to shame because they abandoned the covenant.
- God honors righteousness, not outward success (vv. 13–17). Jehoiakim built luxury but ignored justice; Josiah, by contrast, upheld the cause of the needy and was blessed.
- Earthly power cannot resist God’s decree (vv. 24–27). Even a “signet ring” king like Coniah could be cast aside when corrupt.
- God warns nations and leaders that pride, injustice, and idolatry always end in downfall (vv. 28–30).

Jeremiah 23 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Righteous Branch and the False Prophets”

Woe to False Shepherds

1 Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of My pasture, declares the Lord.

2 Therefore, this is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says to the shepherds who tend My people: “You have scattered My flock and driven them away. You have not cared for them, so I will punish you for the evil you have done,” declares the Lord.

3 “I Myself will gather the remnant of My flock from all the countries where I have driven them and bring them back to their pasture. They will be fruitful and increase in number.

4 I will place shepherds over them who will care for them, and they will no longer be afraid or terrified, nor will any be missing,” declares the Lord.

The Righteous Branch

5 “The days are coming,” declares the Lord,
“when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, a King who will reign wisely and do what is just and right in the land.

6 In His days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety.
This is the name by which He will be called:
“The Lord Our Righteousness.”

7 So the days are coming, declares the Lord, when people will no longer say, “As surely as the Lord lives, who brought the Israelites up out of Egypt,”

8 but they will say, “As surely as the Lord lives, who brought the descendants of Israel up out of the land of the north and out of all the countries where He had banished them.” Then they will live in their own land.

God’s Judgment on False Prophets

9 Concerning the prophets:
My heart is broken within me;
all my bones tremble.
I am like a drunken man,
like one overcome by wine,
because of the Lord
and His holy words.

10 The land is full of adulterers;
because of their unfaithfulness the land mourns,
and the pastures in the wilderness are dried up.
Their course is evil,
and their power is misused.

11 “Both prophet and priest are godless;
even in My temple I find their wickedness,”
declares the Lord.

12 “Therefore their path will become slippery;
they will be banished to darkness and fall into it.
I will bring disaster on them
in the year they are punished,”
declares the Lord.

13 “Among the prophets of Samaria I saw this repulsive thing:
They prophesied by Baal
and led My people Israel astray.

14 And among the prophets of Jerusalem
I have seen something horrible:
They commit adultery and live a lie.
They strengthen the hands of evildoers,
so that not one of them turns from wickedness.
They are all like Sodom to Me;
the people of Jerusalem are like Gomorrah.”

15 Therefore this is what the Lord Almighty says concerning the prophets:
“I will make them eat bitter food and drink poisoned water, because from the prophets of Jerusalem
ungodliness has spread throughout the land.”

Do Not Listen to False Prophets

16 This is what the Lord Almighty says: “Do not listen to what the prophets are prophesying to you; they fill you with false hopes. They speak visions from their own minds, not from the mouth of the Lord.

17 They keep saying to those who despise Me,
‘The Lord says: You will have peace.’
And to all who follow the stubbornness of their hearts they say,
‘No harm will come to you.’

18 But which of them has stood in the council of the Lord to see or to hear His word?
Who has listened and heard His word?”

19 See, the storm of the Lord will burst out in wrath, a whirlwind swirling down
on the heads of the wicked.

20 The anger of the Lord will not turn back until He fully accomplishes
the purposes of His heart.
In days to come
you will understand it clearly.

21 “I did not send these prophets,
yet they have run with their message;

I did not speak to them,
yet they have prophesied.

22 But if they had stood in My council, they would have proclaimed My words to My people and would have turned them from their evil ways and from their evil deeds.”

God Is Everywhere

23 “Am I only a God nearby,” declares the Lord,
“and not a God far away?”

24 Who can hide in secret places
so that I cannot see them?” declares the Lord.
“Do I not fill heaven and earth?” declares the Lord.

False Dreams Condemned

25 “I have heard what the prophets say who prophesy lies in My name. They say, ‘I had a dream! I had a dream!’

26 How long will this continue in the hearts of these lying prophets, who prophesy the delusions of their own minds?

27 They think they can make My people forget My name by the dreams they tell one another, just as their ancestors forgot My name through Baal worship.

28 Let the prophet who has a dream recount the dream, but let the one who has My word speak it faithfully. For what has straw in common with grain?” declares the Lord.

29 “Is not My word like fire,” declares the Lord,
“and like a hammer that breaks a rock in pieces?”

30 Therefore,” declares the Lord, “I am against the prophets who steal from one another words supposedly from Me.

31 Yes,” declares the Lord, “I am against the prophets who wag their own tongues and yet declare, ‘The Lord declares.’

32 Indeed, I am against those who prophesy false dreams,” declares the Lord. “They tell them and lead My people astray with their reckless lies, yet I did not send or appoint them. They do not benefit these people in the least,” declares the Lord.

The Burden of the Lord

33 “When these people, or a prophet or priest, ask you, ‘What is the burden of the Lord?’ say to them, ‘You are the burden, and I will cast you off,’ declares the Lord.

34 As for the prophet or priest or anyone who says, ‘The burden of the Lord,’ I will punish that man and his household.

35 Instead, each of you should ask your neighbor or your brother, ‘What has the Lord answered?’ or ‘What has the Lord spoken?’

36 But never again should you use the phrase, ‘the burden of the Lord,’ because everyone’s own word becomes their burden, and so you distort the words of the living God, the Lord Almighty, our God.

37 This is what you should say to a prophet: ‘What answer has the Lord given you?’ or ‘What has the Lord spoken?’

38 But if you say, ‘The burden of the Lord,’ this is what the Lord says: Because you utter these words, though I told you not to say, ‘The burden of the Lord,’

39 therefore I will surely forget you and cast you out of My presence, along with the city I gave to you and your ancestors.

40 I will bring on you everlasting disgrace—everlasting shame that will never be forgotten.”

✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 23

- False shepherds bring judgment (vv. 1–2). Leaders who exploit or abandon God’s people are accountable to Him.
- God promises the Righteous Branch (vv. 5–6). A prophecy of Christ: the King from David’s line called “The Lord Our Righteousness.”
- God’s Word versus false visions (vv. 16–22). Dreams and man-made messages cannot replace God’s true Word.
- The Word of God is like fire and a hammer (v. 29). It purifies, convicts, and breaks through hardened hearts.
- God sees everything (vv. 23–24). No one can hide their lies or hypocrisy from Him.
- Perverting God’s Word brings destruction (vv. 33–40). To treat His message lightly or twist it leads to everlasting shame.

Jeremiah 24 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Vision of the Two Baskets of Figs”

The Vision of the Figs

1 The Lord showed me two baskets of figs placed in front of the temple of the Lord. This was after Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried away Jeconiah son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, along with the officials, the craftsmen, and the smiths, and had brought them to Babylon.

2 One basket held very good figs, like early ripe ones. The other basket held very bad figs, so bad they could not be eaten.

3 Then the Lord said to me, “What do you see, Jeremiah?”

I said, “Figs—the good figs are very good, but the bad figs are very bad, so bad they cannot be eaten.”

The Meaning of the Good Figs

4 Then the word of the Lord came to me:

5 “This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: Like these good figs, so I will regard with favor the exiles from Judah, whom I have sent away from this place to the land of the Chaldeans, for their good.

6 I will set My eyes on them for good. I will bring them back to this land. I will build them up and not tear them down; I will plant them and not uproot them.

7 I will give them a heart to know Me, that I am the Lord. They will be My people, and I will be their God, for they will return to Me with their whole heart.”

The Meaning of the Bad Figs

8 “But as for the bad figs—so bad they cannot be eaten—this is what the Lord says: I will deal with Zedekiah king of Judah, his officials, and the survivors left in Jerusalem, and those who remain in Egypt.

9 I will make them a horror and an offense to all the kingdoms of the earth. They will become a reproach, a byword, an object of ridicule, and a curse in every place where I drive them.

10 I will send the sword, famine, and plague against them until they are destroyed from the land I gave to them and their fathers.”

✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 24

- God can use exile for good (vv. 5–7). The captivity was not only judgment but also a refining process to restore His people to Himself.
- The “good figs” represent the humble remnant who submit to God’s discipline and are later blessed.
- The “bad figs” represent the rebellious—those who resisted God’s correction, trusting in politics or idols instead of His Word.

- True restoration is inward (v. 7). God promised to give His people a heart to know Him. Real salvation is not just return to the land, but return to God.
- Rejecting God leads to shame and destruction (vv. 8–10). Those who persist in rebellion become an example of judgment for others.

Jeremiah 25 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Seventy Years of Captivity and the Cup of God’s Wrath”

The Message of Warning

1 The word came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah. This was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

2 Jeremiah the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah and all who lived in Jerusalem.

3 He said: “From the thirteenth year of Josiah son of Amon king of Judah until this very day—twenty-three years—the word of the Lord has come to me. I have spoken to you again and again, but you have not listened.

4 And the Lord has sent His servants the prophets to you again and again, but you have not listened or paid attention.

5 They said, ‘Turn now, every one of you, from your evil ways and your evil deeds. Live in the land the Lord gave to you and your ancestors forever.

6 Do not follow other gods to serve and worship them. Do not provoke Me to anger with what your hands have made. Then I will not harm you.’

7 But you would not listen to Me,” declares the Lord. “You provoked Me with what your hands have made, to your own harm.”

The Seventy-Year Captivity

8 Therefore this is what the Lord Almighty says: “Because you have not listened to My words,

9 I will summon all the peoples of the north and My servant Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. I will bring them against this land and its inhabitants and against all the surrounding nations. I will completely destroy them and make them an object of horror and scorn, an everlasting ruin.

10 I will banish from them the sounds of joy and gladness, the voices of bride and bridegroom, the sound of millstones, and the light of the lamp.

11 This whole land will become a desolate wasteland, and these nations will serve the king of Babylon seventy years.

12 But when the seventy years are fulfilled, I will punish the king of Babylon and his nation, the land of the Babylonians, for their guilt,” declares the Lord, “and will make it desolate forever.

13 I will bring on that land all the things I have spoken against it, all that is written in this book and prophesied by Jeremiah against all the nations.

14 For many nations and great kings will enslave them also, and I will repay them according to their deeds and the work of their hands.”

The Cup of God’s Wrath to the Nations

15 This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, said to me: “Take from My hand this cup filled with the wine of My wrath and make all the nations to whom I send you drink it.

16 When they drink it, they will stagger and go mad because of the sword I will send among them.”

17 So I took the cup from the Lord’s hand and made all the nations to whom He sent me drink it:

18 Jerusalem and the towns of Judah, its kings and officials, to make them a ruin, an object of horror and scorn, a curse—as they are today.

19 Pharaoh king of Egypt, his attendants, his officials, and all his people;

20 and all the foreign people there; all the kings of Uz; all the kings of the Philistines—Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and the people left at Ashdod;

21 Edom, Moab, and Ammon;

22 all the kings of Tyre and Sidon; the kings of the coastlands across the sea;

23 Dedan, Tema, Buz, and all who live in distant places;

24 all the kings of Arabia and all the kings of the foreign people who live in the desert;

25 all the kings of Zimri, Elam, and Media;

26 and all the kings of the north, near and far, one after another—all the kingdoms on the face of the earth. And after all of them, the king of Sheshach will drink it too.

Judgment Without Escape

27 “Then tell them, ‘This is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Drink, get drunk, and vomit, and fall to rise no more because of the sword I will send among you.’

28 But if they refuse to take the cup from your hand and drink, tell them, ‘This is what the Lord Almighty says: You must drink it!

29 See, I am beginning to bring disaster on the city that bears My Name, and will you somehow go unpunished? You will not go unpunished, for I am calling down a sword on all who live on the earth,’ declares the Lord Almighty.

The Roar of the Lord

30 “Now prophesy all these words against them and say:

‘The Lord will roar from on high;
He will thunder from His holy dwelling.
He will roar mightily against His land.
He will shout like those who tread grapes,
shouting against all who live on the earth.

31 The tumult will resound to the ends of the earth,
for the Lord will bring charges against the nations;
He will bring judgment on all mankind and put the wicked to the sword,’”
declares the Lord.

32 This is what the Lord Almighty says: “Look! Disaster is spreading from nation to nation; a mighty storm is rising from the ends of the earth.”

33 At that time those slain by the Lord will be everywhere—from one end of the earth to the other. They will not be mourned or gathered or buried but will be like dung lying on the ground.

34 Weep and wail, you shepherds; roll in the dust, you leaders of the flock. For your time to be slaughtered has come; you will fall like the best of the rams.

35 The shepherds will have nowhere to flee, the leaders of the flock no place to escape.

36 The sound of the cry of the shepherds, the wailing of the leaders of the flock—the Lord is destroying their pasture.

37 The peaceful meadows will be laid waste because of the fierce anger of the Lord.

38 Like a lion He has left His lair; their land has become desolate because of the sword of the oppressor and because of the Lord’s fierce anger.

✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 25

- Persistent rejection of God’s Word brings inevitable judgment (vv. 3–7). For 23 years God sent prophets, yet the people refused to listen.
- God sets clear timeframes for His discipline (v. 11). The seventy years of captivity remind us that judgment has both a beginning and an end.
- Even God’s instruments of judgment are later judged (vv. 12–14). Babylon itself would face God’s wrath after being used to punish Judah.
- The “cup of wrath” is universal (vv. 15–29). No nation can escape God’s justice.

- God’s Word is like a roaring lion (vv. 30–38). His judgment shakes the earth, and His authority extends to all nations.

Jeremiah 26 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Jeremiah on Trial for His Life”

Jeremiah’s Message in the Temple Courts

1 At the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah, saying,

2 “Stand in the courtyard of the Lord’s temple and speak to all the people of the towns of Judah who come to worship here. Tell them everything I command you; do not leave out a single word.

3 Perhaps they will listen and turn from their evil ways, and then I will relent from the disaster I intended to bring on them because of their evil deeds.

4 Say to them, ‘This is what the Lord says: If you do not listen to Me and follow My law, which I have set before you,

5 and if you do not listen to the words of My servants the prophets, whom I have sent to you again and again, though you have not listened,

6 then I will make this temple like Shiloh, and this city an object of cursing among all the nations of the earth.’”

The People Seize Jeremiah

7 The priests, the prophets, and all the people heard Jeremiah speak these words in the Lord’s temple.

8 But as soon as Jeremiah finished telling all the people everything the Lord had commanded him to say, the priests, the prophets, and all the people seized him and said, “You must die!

9 Why do you prophesy in the Lord’s name that this temple will be like Shiloh and this city will be deserted and without inhabitants?” And all the people gathered against Jeremiah in the Lord’s house.

Jeremiah Defends His Message

10 When the officials of Judah heard these things, they went up from the king’s palace to the Lord’s temple and took their seats at the entrance of the New Gate.

11 Then the priests and the prophets said to the officials and all the people, “This man should be sentenced to death because he has prophesied against this city. You have heard it with your own ears!”

12 But Jeremiah said to all the officials and all the people: “The Lord sent me to prophesy against this temple and this city all the things you have heard.

13 So now, reform your ways and your actions and obey the Lord your God. Then the Lord will relent and not bring the disaster He has pronounced against you.

14 As for me, I am in your hands; do with me whatever you think is good and right.

15 But be sure of this: If you put me to death, you will bring the guilt of innocent blood on yourselves, on this city, and on those who live in it. For the Lord truly sent me to you to speak all these words in your hearing.”

The Officials and Elders Intervene

16 Then the officials and all the people said to the priests and the prophets, “This man should not be sentenced to die. He has spoken to us in the name of the Lord our God.”

17 Some of the elders of the land stepped forward and said to the entire assembly:

18 “Micah of Moresheth prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah. He told all the people of Judah, ‘This is what the Lord Almighty says: Zion will be plowed like a field, Jerusalem will become a heap of rubble, and the temple hill a mound overgrown with thickets.’

19 Did King Hezekiah or anyone else in Judah put him to death? Did not Hezekiah fear the Lord and seek His favor, and did not the Lord relent so that He did not bring the disaster He pronounced against them? We are about to bring a terrible calamity on ourselves!”

The Example of Urijah

20 Now Uriah son of Shemaiah from Kiriath-jearim also prophesied in the name of the Lord. He prophesied the same things against this city and this land as Jeremiah did.

21 When King Jehoiakim and his officers and officials heard his words, the king sought to put him to death. But when Uriah heard of it, he was afraid and fled to Egypt.

22 King Jehoiakim, however, sent Elnathan son of Akbor to Egypt along with some other men.

23 They brought Uriah out of Egypt and took him to King Jehoiakim, who had him struck down with the sword and his body thrown into the burial place of the common people.

Jeremiah Spared

24 But Ahikam son of Shaphan supported Jeremiah and protected him, so that he was not handed over to the people to be put to death.

✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 26

- Faithfulness to God’s Word may bring opposition (vv. 2–9). Jeremiah’s obedience put his life in danger, but he did not hold back the truth.
- True prophets call for repentance, not popularity (vv. 12–13). Jeremiah risked death to urge the people to change their ways.
- History provides lessons for the present (vv. 17–19). The elders recalled Micah’s prophecy in Hezekiah’s time, showing that repentance can turn away judgment.
- Not all messengers of God are spared (vv. 20–23). Uriah was killed, reminding us that faithfulness sometimes leads to martyrdom.
- God provides protection when it serves His purposes (v. 24). Jeremiah was spared through Ahikam’s support, showing how God can raise up allies even in dark times.

Jeremiah 27 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Yoke of Babylon”

The Symbol of the Yoke

1 Early in the reign of King Jehoiakim son of Josiah of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the Lord:

2 “This is what the Lord said to me: Make a yoke and straps, and put them on your neck.

3 Then send them to the kings of Edom, Moab, Ammon, Tyre, and Sidon, through the messengers who have come to King Zedekiah of Judah in Jerusalem.

4 Give them this command for their masters: ‘This is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Tell your masters,

5 “With My great power and outstretched arm I made the earth and all its people and animals, and I give it to anyone I please.

6 Now I will give all your lands to My servant Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. I will even make the wild animals serve him.

7 All nations will serve him, his son, and his grandson, until the time comes for his own land to fall; then many nations and great kings will subdue him.

8 But if any nation or kingdom refuses to serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and will not put its neck under his yoke, I will punish that nation with sword, famine, and plague until I destroy it, declares the Lord.

9 Do not listen to your prophets, diviners, dreamers, soothsayers, or sorcerers who tell you, ‘You will not serve the king of Babylon.’

10 For they are prophesying lies to you, so that I may drive you far from your land and destroy you.

11 But if any nation will submit to the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him, I will let that nation remain in its own land to till it and live there," declares the Lord.'"

Jeremiah Speaks to Zedekiah

12 I gave the same message to King Zedekiah of Judah: "Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon; serve him and his people, and you will live.

13 Why should you and your people die by the sword, famine, and plague as the Lord has decreed for any nation that refuses to serve the king of Babylon?

14 Do not listen to the words of the prophets who say to you, 'You will not serve the king of Babylon,' for they are prophesying lies to you.

15 'I have not sent them,' declares the Lord. 'They are prophesying lies in My name. Therefore I will banish you, and you will perish—you and the prophets who are prophesying to you.'"

Jeremiah Speaks to the Priests and People

16 Then I said to the priests and all the people: "This is what the Lord says: Do not listen to the prophets who keep telling you, 'Soon the articles from the Lord's temple will be brought back from Babylon.' They are prophesying lies to you.

17 Do not listen to them. Serve the king of Babylon and live! Why should this city become a ruin?

18 If they are truly prophets and if they have the Lord's word, let them pray to the Lord Almighty that the remaining temple furnishings, the palace treasures, and the things still left in Jerusalem will not be carried off to Babylon.

The Fate of the Temple Articles

19 For this is what the Lord Almighty says about the pillars, the bronze Sea, the movable stands, and the other items left in this city,

20 which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take away when he carried Jehoiachin (son of Jehoiakim king of Judah) into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon, along with all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem—

21 yes, this is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says about the things that remain in the Lord's temple, the royal palace, and Jerusalem:

22 'They will be carried to Babylon and will remain there until the day I deal with them,' declares the Lord. 'Then I will bring them back and restore them to this place.'"

✠✧ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 27

- God rules over all nations (vv. 5–6). The Lord gives kingdoms to whomever He pleases; history is in His hands.
- Submission to God’s discipline brings life (vv. 8–11). To resist Babylon was to resist God’s decree; those who submitted would live.
- False prophets bring false hope (vv. 9–10, 14–16). Empty promises of peace and quick deliverance led the people into ruin.
- God’s word may call for humble surrender, not triumph (vv. 12–13). Sometimes obedience to God means yielding rather than fighting.
- God promises restoration in His time (v. 22). Though judgment came, He would eventually bring His people and His temple vessels back.

Jeremiah 28 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The False Prophet Hananiah”

Hananiah’s Bold Prophecy

1 In that same year, early in the reign of King Zedekiah of Judah—in the fourth year, in the fifth month—Hananiah son of Azur, a prophet from Gibeon, spoke to me in the house of the Lord, in front of the priests and all the people.

2 He said, “This is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon.

3 Within two years I will bring back to this place all the articles from the Lord’s temple that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon carried off to Babylon.

4 I will also bring back here Jeconiah (Jehoiachin) son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, along with all the exiles who were taken to Babylon, declares the Lord. For I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.”

Jeremiah’s Response

5 Then the prophet Jeremiah replied to the prophet Hananiah before the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of the Lord.

6 He said, “Amen! May the Lord do this. May the Lord fulfill the words you have spoken by bringing back the articles of the Lord’s temple and all the exiles from Babylon to this place.

7 Nevertheless, listen to what I say in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people:

8 The prophets who came before us long ago prophesied war, disaster, and plague against many nations and great kingdoms.

9 But the prophet who prophesies peace will only be recognized as truly sent by the Lord if what he proclaims actually comes to pass.”

Hananiah Breaks the Yoke

10 Then Hananiah the prophet took the wooden yoke off Jeremiah’s neck and broke it in front of all the people.

11 He declared, “This is what the Lord says: In the same way I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon off the neck of all nations within two years.”

At this, Jeremiah went on his way.

The Word of the Lord Against Hananiah

12 After Hananiah had broken the yoke from Jeremiah’s neck, the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah:

13 “Go and tell Hananiah, ‘This is what the Lord says: You have broken a yoke of wood, but in its place you will have made a yoke of iron.

14 For this is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: I have put an iron yoke on the necks of all these nations to make them serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and they will indeed serve him. I have even given him control over the beasts of the field.’”

15 Then Jeremiah said to Hananiah, “Listen, Hananiah! The Lord has not sent you, yet you have led this people to trust in a lie.

16 Therefore, this is what the Lord says: I am about to remove you from the face of the earth. This very year you will die, because you have taught rebellion against the Lord.”

17 And in the seventh month of that same year, the prophet Hananiah died.

✦ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 28

- False hope is dangerous (vv. 2–4). Hananiah’s message was attractive but deceptive, promising peace where God had decreed judgment.
- True prophecy must align with God’s word and come to pass (vv. 7–9). Jeremiah reminded the people that a prophet of peace is proven only if their words are fulfilled.
- Symbolic actions have meaning (vv. 10–13). Breaking the wooden yoke symbolized resistance, but God declared a far heavier yoke of iron—Babylon’s rule was unavoidable.
- Rebellion against God leads to swift judgment (vv. 15–17). Hananiah’s death was proof that speaking lies in God’s name carries grave consequences.

- God’s truth may be hard but it preserves life (ch. 27–28 together). Jeremiah’s call to submit to Babylon seemed harsh, but it was God’s path of survival.

Jeremiah 29 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Letter to the Exiles”

Jeremiah’s Letter to the Captives

1 These are the words of the letter that the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the surviving elders among the exiles, to the priests, the prophets, and all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon.

2 (This was after King Jeconiah, the queen mother, the court officials, the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the craftsmen, and the artisans had been taken from Jerusalem.)

3 The letter was delivered by Elasah son of Shaphan and Gemariah son of Hilkiah, whom King Zedekiah of Judah sent to Babylon to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon.

4 This is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says to all those carried into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon:

5 “Build houses and settle down. Plant gardens and eat what they produce.

6 Marry and have sons and daughters. Find wives for your sons and husbands for your daughters, so that they too may have children. Multiply there; do not decrease.

7 Also, seek the peace and prosperity of the city where I have carried you into exile. Pray to the Lord for it, because if it prospers, you too will prosper.”

Warning Against False Prophets

8 For this is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: “Do not let the prophets and diviners among you deceive you. Do not listen to the dreams you encourage them to have.

9 They are prophesying lies to you in my name. I have not sent them,” declares the Lord.

God’s Promise of Restoration

10 This is what the Lord says: “When seventy years are completed for Babylon, I will come to you and fulfill my promise to bring you back to this place.

11 For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the Lord, “plans for peace and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope.

12 Then you will call on me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you.

13 You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart.

14 I will be found by you,” declares the Lord, “and I will bring you back from captivity. I will gather you from all the nations and places where I have scattered you, and will bring you back to the land I gave to your ancestors.”

Judgment on Those Left in Jerusalem

15 You may say, “The Lord has raised up prophets for us in Babylon.”

16 But this is what the Lord says about the king who sits on David’s throne and all the people who remain in this city, your fellow countrymen who did not go with you into exile:

17 “This is what the Lord Almighty says: I will send the sword, famine, and plague against them. I will make them like rotten figs, so bad they cannot be eaten.

18 I will pursue them with sword, famine, and plague, and make them abhorrent to all the kingdoms of the earth, a curse and an object of horror, scorn, and reproach among all the nations where I drive them.

19 For they have not listened to my words,” declares the Lord, “words that I sent to them again and again by my servants the prophets. And you exiles have not listened either,” declares the Lord.

Ahab, Zedekiah, and Shemaiah Condemned

20 Therefore, hear the word of the Lord, all you exiles whom I have sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon.

21 This is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says about Ahab son of Kolaiah and Zedekiah son of Maaseiah, who are prophesying lies to you in my name: “I will hand them over to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he will put them to death before your eyes.

22 Because of them, all the exiles from Judah in Babylon will use this curse: ‘May the Lord treat you like Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire.’

23 For they have done outrageous things in Israel. They have committed adultery with their neighbors’ wives and have spoken lies in my name, things I did not command. I know it and am a witness,” declares the Lord.

24 Tell Shemaiah the Nehelamite,

25 “This is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: You sent letters in your own name to all the people in Jerusalem, to Zephaniah son of Maaseiah the priest, and to all the other priests. You said:

26 ‘The Lord has appointed you priest in place of Jehoiada, to be in charge of the house of the Lord. You should put in the stocks and in prison every man who acts like a prophet.

27 So why have you not reprimanded Jeremiah of Anathoth, who poses as a prophet among you?

28 He has sent this message to us in Babylon: It will be a long time. Therefore, build houses and settle down; plant gardens and eat their produce.”

29 Zephaniah the priest, however, read the letter to Jeremiah the prophet.

30 Then the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah, saying:

31 “Send this message to all the exiles: ‘This is what the Lord says about Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you, even though I did not send him, and has made you trust in lies,

32 I will surely punish Shemaiah and his descendants. None of his people will survive to see the good things I will do for my people, declares the Lord, because he has preached rebellion against me.”

✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 29

- Bloom where you’re planted (vv. 4–7). Even in exile, God’s people were to build, marry, and work for the good of their city. Faithfulness in hardship honors God.
- Beware of false voices (vv. 8–9, 21–23). False prophets promise shortcuts, but God calls His people to discern truth carefully.
- God’s timing is sure (vv. 10–11). Deliverance would not come instantly but after seventy years. God’s plans are for hope and peace, not ruin.
- Wholehearted seeking leads to finding (vv. 12–14). God promises to be found by those who search for Him sincerely.
- Sinful leaders bring shame (vv. 21–32). Those who misuse God’s name or lead His people astray face judgment, while the faithful are preserved.

Jeremiah 30 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Book of Consolation Begins”

God Commands Jeremiah to Write

1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord, saying,

2 “This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: Write in a book all the words I have spoken to you.

3 For the days are coming,” declares the Lord, “when I will restore the fortunes of my people Israel and Judah. I will bring them back to the land I gave to their ancestors, and they will possess it.”

The Time of Jacob’s Trouble

4 These are the words the Lord spoke concerning Israel and Judah:

5 “We hear cries of panic, of fear and not of peace.

6 Ask now and see: Can a man give birth to a child? Then why do I see every strong man with his hands on his stomach like a woman in labor, every face drained of color?

7 How awful that day will be! None will be like it. It is the time of Jacob’s trouble, but he will be saved out of it.

8 In that day,” declares the Lord Almighty, “I will break the yoke from their necks and tear off their bonds; no longer will foreigners enslave them.

9 Instead, they will serve the Lord their God and David their king, whom I will raise up for them.”

God Promises Deliverance

10 “So do not be afraid, my servant Jacob,” declares the Lord.

“Do not be dismayed, Israel.

I will surely save you out of a distant place,
your descendants from the land of their captivity.
Jacob will return and enjoy peace and security,
and no one will make him afraid.

11 For I am with you and will save you,” declares the Lord.

“Though I completely destroy all the nations among which I scatter you,

I will not completely destroy you.

I will discipline you, but only in due measure;

I will not leave you unpunished.”

Israel’s Wound and God’s Healing

12 This is what the Lord says:

“Your wound is incurable,
your injury beyond healing.

13 There is no one to plead your cause,
no remedy for your sore,
no healing for you.

14 All your allies have forgotten you;
they care nothing for you.

I have struck you as an enemy would,
as one who is cruel,
because your guilt is great and your sins are so many.

15 Why cry out over your wound,
your pain that cannot be healed?
Because of your great guilt and many sins
I have done these things to you.

16 But all who devour you will be devoured;
all your enemies will go into exile.
Those who plunder you will be plundered;
those who attack you I will attack.

17 But I will restore you to health and heal your wounds,” declares the Lord, “because you are called an outcast,
Zion for whom no one cares.”

Future Restoration and Rejoicing

18 “This is what the Lord says:
I will restore the fortunes of Jacob’s tents and have compassion on his dwellings.
The city will be rebuilt on her ruins,
and the palace will stand in its rightful place.

19 From them will come songs of thanksgiving and the sound of rejoicing.
I will add to their numbers,
and they will not be decreased;
I will honor them,
and they will not be disdained.

20 Their children will be as in days of old,
and their community will be established before me;
I will punish all who oppress them.

21 Their leader will be one of their own;
their ruler will arise from among them.
I will bring him near, and he will come close to me—
for who is he who will devote himself to be close to me?” declares the Lord.

22 “So you will be my people, and I will be your God.”

The Lord's Wrath on the Wicked

23 Look! The storm of the Lord will burst out in wrath, a driving whirlwind;
it will swirl down on the heads of the wicked.

24 The fierce anger of the Lord will not turn back until he fully accomplishes
the purposes of his heart.
In the days to come you will understand this.

✠✧ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 30

- God keeps His promises (vv. 2–3). His Word is recorded and unchanging—restoration will come in His time.
- The time of Jacob's trouble is real but temporary (vv. 6–7). Though unprecedented calamity comes, God promises deliverance.
- God disciplines but does not abandon His people (vv. 11–15). Correction comes with justice, not with destruction.
- Hope follows suffering (vv. 16–20). God restores health, multiplies His people, and fills them with joy.
- Messianic promise (v. 21). A leader will rise from among them—a foreshadowing of Christ, who draws near to God on behalf of His people.
- Identity renewed (v. 22). The covenant remains: “You will be my people, and I will be your God.”

Jeremiah 31 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The New Covenant”

God's Everlasting Love for Israel

1 “At that time,” declares the Lord, “I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they will be my people.”

2 This is what the Lord says: “The people who survived the sword found grace in the wilderness, when Israel sought rest.

3 Long ago the Lord appeared to me, saying: ‘I have loved you with an everlasting love; therefore with unfailing kindness I have drawn you.’

4 I will rebuild you, and you will be rebuilt, Virgin Israel. You will once again take up your tambourines and go out to dance with the joyful.

5 You will again plant vineyards on the hills of Samaria; the planters will plant them and enjoy their fruit.

6 The day will come when watchmen on the hills of Ephraim will call out, ‘Come, let us go up to Zion, to the Lord our God.’”

The Great Return from Exile

7 For this is what the Lord says:

“Sing with joy for Jacob;

shout for the greatest of nations.

Make your praises heard, and say,

‘Lord, save your people, the remnant of Israel.’

8 See, I will bring them from the land of the north and gather them from the ends of the earth.

Among them will be the blind and the lame, expectant mothers and women in labor—

a great company will return.

9 They will come with weeping;

they will pray as I bring them back.

I will lead them beside streams of water,

on a straight path where they will not stumble,

because I am Israel’s father,

and Ephraim is my firstborn son.”

The Lord Redeems and Restores

10 “Hear the word of the Lord, you nations;

proclaim it in distant lands:

‘He who scattered Israel will gather them and will watch over his flock like a shepherd.’

11 For the Lord will deliver Jacob and redeem them from the hand of those stronger than they.

12 They will come and shout for joy on the heights of Zion;

they will rejoice in the bounty of the Lord—

the grain, the new wine, and the oil,

the young of the flocks and herds.

They will be like a well-watered garden,
and they will sorrow no more.

13 Then young women will dance and be glad,
young men and old as well.
I will turn their mourning into joy and give them comfort and gladness instead of sorrow.

14 I will satisfy the priests with abundance, and my people will be filled with my goodness,” declares the Lord.

Rachel Weeping and Hope Restored

15 This is what the Lord says:
“A voice is heard in Ramah,
mourning and great weeping,
Rachel weeping for her children and refusing to be comforted, because they are no more.”

16 This is what the Lord says:
“Restrain your voice from weeping and your eyes from tears,
for your work will be rewarded,” declares the Lord.
“They will return from the land of the enemy.

17 So there is hope for your descendants,” declares the Lord.
“Your children will return to their own land.”

God’s Compassion for Ephraim

18 “I have surely heard Ephraim’s lament:
‘You disciplined me, and I was disciplined,
like an untrained calf.
Restore me, and I will return,
because you are the Lord my God.

19 After I strayed, I repented;
after I came to understand, I beat my chest.
I was ashamed and humiliated
because I bore the disgrace of my youth.’

20 Is not Ephraim my dear son,
the child in whom I delight?
Though I often speak against him,

I still remember him.
Therefore my heart yearns for him;
I will surely have mercy on him,” declares the Lord.

Call to Return

21 “Set up road signs;
put up guideposts.
Take note of the highway,
the road you take.
Return, Virgin Israel,
return to your towns.

22 How long will you wander, unfaithful daughter Israel?
The Lord will create a new thing on earth—
a woman will surround a man.”

Blessing on Judah Restored

23 This is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says:
“When I bring them back from captivity, the people of Judah and its towns will once again use these words:

‘The Lord bless you, you prosperous city, you holy mountain.’

24 People will live together in Judah and in all its towns—farmers and those who move about with their flocks.

25 I will refresh the weary and satisfy the faint.”

26 At this I awoke and looked around. My sleep had been pleasant to me.

God’s Watchfulness to Restore

27 “The days are coming,” declares the Lord, “when I will plant the kingdoms of Israel and Judah with people and animals.

28 Just as I watched over them to uproot and tear down, to overthrow, destroy, and bring disaster, so I will watch over them to build and to plant,” declares the Lord.

Individual Responsibility

29 “In those days people will no longer say,
‘The parents have eaten sour grapes,
and the children’s teeth are set on edge.’

30 Instead, everyone will die for their own sin;
whoever eats sour grapes—their own teeth will be set on edge.”

The New Covenant

31 “The days are coming,” declares the Lord,
“when I will make a new covenant with the people of Israel and with the people of Judah.

32 It will not be like the covenant
I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to lead them out of Egypt,
because they broke my covenant,
though I was a husband to them,”
declares the Lord.

33 “This is the covenant I will make with Israel
after those days,” declares the Lord.
“I will put my law in their minds and write it on their hearts.
I will be their God,
and they will be my people.

34 No longer will they teach their neighbor, or say to one another, ‘Know the Lord,’
because they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest,”
declares the Lord.
“For I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no more.”

God’s Unbreakable Promises

35 This is what the Lord says—
he who appoints the sun to shine by day, who decrees the moon and stars to shine by night,

who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar—
the Lord Almighty is his name:

36 “Only if these decrees vanish from my sight,”
declares the Lord,
“will Israel ever cease
being a nation before me.”

37 This is what the Lord says:
“Only if the heavens above can be measured and the foundations of the earth below be searched out will I reject all the descendants of Israel because of all they have done,”
declares the Lord.

Jerusalem Rebuilt Forever

38 “The days are coming,” declares the Lord, “when this city will be rebuilt for the Lord, from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate.

39 The measuring line will stretch out straight to the hill of Gareb and then turn to Goah.

40 The whole valley where dead bodies and ashes are thrown, and all the terraces out to the Kidron Valley and to the Horse Gate on the east, will be holy to the Lord. The city will never again be uprooted or demolished.”

✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 31

- God’s love is everlasting (v. 3). His mercy never fails; His covenant faithfulness continues.
- Restoration includes everyone (vv. 8–9). The weak, the broken, and the forgotten are not left behind.
- Mourning turns into joy (vv. 13–14). God transforms sorrow into rejoicing and emptiness into fullness.
- Rachel’s lament finds hope (vv. 15–17). Even deep loss will one day be answered with restoration.
- Repentance leads to renewal (vv. 18–20). God responds to true humility with mercy.
- The New Covenant is inward and eternal (vv. 31–34). God writes His law on hearts, forgives sins, and gives direct knowledge of Himself.
- God’s promises cannot fail (vv. 35–37). His covenant with Israel is as secure as the order of creation.

- Jerusalem’s restoration is permanent (vv. 38–40). God will one day make His dwelling forever with His people.

Jeremiah 32 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The God of the Impossible”

Jeremiah Imprisoned for Prophecy Judgment

1 The word of the Lord came to Jeremiah in the tenth year of King Zedekiah of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar.

2 At that time the Babylonian army was besieging Jerusalem, and Jeremiah the prophet was confined in the courtyard of the guard, within the palace of the king of Judah.

3 For Zedekiah had imprisoned him, demanding, “Why do you keep prophesying, saying, ‘This is what the Lord says: I am about to hand this city over to the king of Babylon, and he will capture it.

4 Zedekiah king of Judah will not escape from the Babylonians but will surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon. He will speak with him face to face and see him with his own eyes.

5 He will take Zedekiah to Babylon, where he will remain until I deal with him. If you fight against the Babylonians, you will not succeed’?”

Jeremiah Buys a Field

6 Jeremiah said, “The word of the Lord came to me:

7 ‘Your cousin Hanamel, son of Shallum your uncle, will come to you and say, “Buy my field at Anathoth, because as nearest relative you have the right of redemption.”’”

8 And just as the Lord had said, Hanamel came to me in the courtyard of the guard and said, ‘Buy my field at Anathoth in the territory of Benjamin, since it is your right of inheritance and redemption.’ Then I knew this was the word of the Lord.

9 So I bought the field at Anathoth from my cousin Hanamel and weighed out seventeen shekels of silver.

10 I signed and sealed the deed, had it witnessed, and weighed out the silver on the scales.

11 I took the sealed deed and the unsealed copy according to the requirements of the law.

12 I gave the deed of purchase to Baruch son of Neriah, son of Mahseiah, in the presence of my cousin Hanamel, the witnesses, and all the Jews sitting in the courtyard of the guard.

13 In their presence I instructed Baruch,

14 ‘This is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Take these deeds—both the sealed and unsealed copies—and place them in a clay jar so they will last a long time.

15 For this is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Houses, fields, and vineyards will again be bought in this land.’”

Jeremiah’s Prayer of Faith

16 After I had given the deed of purchase to Baruch, I prayed to the Lord:

17 “Ah, Sovereign Lord, you made the heavens and the earth by your great power and outstretched arm. Nothing is too hard for you.

18 You show love to thousands, but you also bring the consequences of the fathers’ sins to their children after them. You are the great and mighty God, the Lord of Heaven’s Armies is your name.

19 You are great in counsel and mighty in deed. Your eyes are open to all the ways of mankind; you reward each person according to what they do.

20 You performed signs and wonders in Egypt and do so to this day in Israel and among all nations. You made a name for yourself that remains to this day.

21 You brought your people Israel out of Egypt with signs and wonders, with a mighty hand and outstretched arm, and with great terror.

22 You gave them this land you promised to their fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey.

23 They came in and took possession of it, but they did not obey you or follow your law. They did not do what you commanded them, so you brought this disaster upon them.

24 See how the siege ramps are built up to take the city. Because of sword, famine, and plague, the city will be given into the hands of the Babylonians who are attacking it. What you said has happened, as you now see.

25 And though the city will be handed over to the Babylonians, you, O Lord God, told me, ‘Buy the field with silver and have it witnessed.’”

God’s Answer: Nothing Is Too Hard for Me

26 Then the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah:

27 “I am the Lord, the God of all humanity. Is anything too hard for me?

28 Therefore this is what the Lord says: I am about to give this city into the hands of the Babylonians and to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, who will capture it.

29 The Babylonians will come and set fire to this city. They will burn it down along with the houses where the people provoked me to anger by burning incense to Baal and pouring out drink offerings to other gods.

30 From their youth, the people of Israel and Judah have done only evil in my sight. They have provoked me with the work of their hands.

31 This city has aroused my anger and wrath from the day it was built until now. I will remove it from my presence

32 because of all the wickedness of Israel and Judah—their kings, officials, priests, prophets, and all the people of Jerusalem.

33 They turned their backs to me and not their faces. Though I taught them again and again, they would not listen or respond to discipline.

34 They set up idols in the temple that bears my Name and defiled it.

35 They built high places to Baal in the Valley of Ben Hinnom to sacrifice their sons and daughters to Molech—something I never commanded, nor even entered my mind. They did this terrible thing and caused Judah to sin.”

Promise of Restoration and Everlasting Covenant

36 “Now therefore this is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says about this city, which you say will be handed over to the king of Babylon by sword, famine, and plague:

37 I will surely gather them from all the lands where I banished them in my anger, fury, and great wrath. I will bring them back to this place and let them live in safety.

38 They will be my people, and I will be their God.

39 I will give them one heart and one purpose: to worship me forever, for their own good and the good of their children after them.

40 I will make an everlasting covenant with them: I will never stop doing good to them, and I will inspire them to fear me so that they will never turn away from me.

41 I will rejoice in doing them good and will plant them in this land with all my heart and soul.

42 This is what the Lord says: Just as I brought all this great disaster on this people, so I will bring on them all the good I have promised.

43 Once again fields will be bought in this land of which you say, ‘It is desolate, without people or animals, given into the hands of the Babylonians.’

44 Fields will be bought for silver, deeds signed, sealed, and witnessed in the territory of Benjamin, in the villages around Jerusalem, in the towns of Judah, in the hill country, in the western foothills, and in the Negev, because I will restore their fortunes,” declares the Lord.

✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 32

- Faith in the face of judgment: Jeremiah bought a field while the Babylonians besieged Jerusalem, showing confidence in God’s promise of restoration (vv. 6–15).
- Nothing is too hard for God: Both Jeremiah and God affirm that nothing is beyond His power (vv. 17, 27).
- God judges sin, but also restores: Though Judah’s rebellion brought disaster, God promised eventual healing and gathering (vv. 28–37).
- The Everlasting Covenant: God promises an unbreakable bond—He will be their God, they will be His people, and He will never stop doing good to them (vv. 38–41).
- Hope beyond judgment: Even when destruction seemed final, God promised a future of rebuilding, blessing, and joy (vv. 42–44).

Jeremiah 33 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord Our Righteousness”

God’s Invitation to Call Upon Him

1 The word of the Lord came to Jeremiah a second time while he was still confined in the courtyard of the guard:

2 “This is what the Lord says, the Lord who made the earth, who formed it and established it—the Lord is His name:

3 Call to Me, and I will answer you and tell you great and hidden things that you do not know.”

Promise of Healing and Restoration

4 For this is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says about the houses of Jerusalem and the royal palaces of Judah that were torn down to defend against the siege ramps and the sword:

5 They came to fight against the Babylonians, but they only filled these places with the dead bodies of those I struck down in My anger and wrath. I have hidden My face from this city because of all its wickedness.

6 “Nevertheless, I will bring health and healing to it; I will heal My people and let them enjoy abundant peace and security.

7 I will bring Judah and Israel back from captivity and rebuild them as they were before.

8 I will cleanse them from all the sin they committed against Me and forgive all their sins of rebellion.

9 Then this city will bring Me joy, glory, and honor before all nations on earth that hear of all the good things I do for it. They will tremble in awe at the abundant prosperity and peace I provide for it.”

Voices of Joy Restored

10 This is what the Lord says: “You say about this place, ‘It is a desolate waste, without people or animals.’ Yet in the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem that are deserted, inhabited by neither people nor animals, there will again be heard

11 the sounds of joy and gladness, the voices of bride and bridegroom, and the voices of those bringing thank offerings to the house of the Lord, saying, ‘Give thanks to the Lord Almighty, for the Lord is good; His love endures forever.’ For I will restore the fortunes of the land as they were before,” says the Lord.

Shepherds and Flocks Restored

12 This is what the Lord Almighty says: “In this desolate place, without people or animals, and in all its towns, there will again be pastures where shepherds rest their flocks.

13 In the towns of the hill country, of the western foothills, of the Negev, in the territory of Benjamin, around Jerusalem, and in the towns of Judah, flocks will once again pass under the hand of the one who counts them,” says the Lord.

The Righteous Branch from David

14 “The days are coming,” declares the Lord, “when I will fulfill the good promise I made to the people of Israel and Judah.

15 In those days and at that time I will make a righteous Branch sprout from David’s line; He will do what is just and right in the land.

16 In those days Judah will be saved and Jerusalem will live in safety. This is the name by which it will be called: The Lord Our Righteousness.

17 For this is what the Lord says: David will never fail to have a man to sit on the throne of Israel,

18 nor will the Levitical priests ever fail to have a man before Me to offer burnt offerings, to present grain offerings, and to sacrifice continually.”

God’s Unbreakable Covenant

19 The word of the Lord came to Jeremiah:

20 “This is what the Lord says: If you can break My covenant with the day and My covenant with the night, so that day and night no longer come at their appointed time,

21 then My covenant with David My servant—and My covenant with the Levites who are priests ministering before Me—can also be broken.

22 Just as the stars of the sky cannot be counted and the sand of the sea cannot be measured, so I will multiply the descendants of David My servant and the Levites who minister before Me.”

God’s Assurance of His People’s Future

23 The word of the Lord came to Jeremiah:

24 “Have you not noticed what these people are saying: ‘The Lord has rejected the two families He chose’? So they despise My people and no longer regard them as a nation.

25 This is what the Lord says: If I have not established My covenant with day and night and the fixed laws of heaven and earth,

26 then I will reject the descendants of Jacob and David My servant and will not choose one of David’s descendants to rule over the offspring of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. But I will restore their fortunes and have compassion on them.”

✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 33

- God invites prayer: He urges His people to call on Him and promises to reveal hidden truths and mighty works (v. 3).
- Hope beyond judgment: Even in devastation, God promises healing, forgiveness, and restoration (vv. 6–9).
- Future joy and peace: The sounds of weddings, thanksgiving, and worship will again fill Jerusalem (vv. 10–11).
- The Messiah – the Righteous Branch: God promises a coming King from David’s line—fulfilled in Christ—who will establish true justice and righteousness (vv. 14–16).
- God’s covenant is unbreakable: Just as day and night cannot be stopped, so God’s promises to David and His people cannot fail (vv. 19–22).
- God’s mercy is stronger than rejection: Though despised and scattered, His people will be restored because of His compassion (vv. 23–26).

Jeremiah 34 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Judah Breaks the Covenant of Freedom”

The Fate of Zedekiah Announced

1 The word of the Lord came to Jeremiah when King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and his entire army, along with all the kingdoms under his control, were fighting against Jerusalem and the other towns of Judah.

2 The Lord, the God of Israel, said: “Go and tell King Zedekiah of Judah: This is what the Lord says: I will hand this city over to the king of Babylon, and he will burn it with fire.

3 You will not escape from him but will surely be captured and handed over to him. You will see the king of Babylon with your own eyes and speak with him face to face. Then you will be taken to Babylon.

4 Yet hear the word of the Lord, O Zedekiah king of Judah: This is what the Lord says concerning you —You will not die by the sword.

5 You will die peacefully. People will mourn for you as they did for your fathers, the kings who ruled before you. They will burn incense in your honor and lament, saying, ‘Alas, lord!’ For I Myself have spoken this word, declares the Lord.”

The Covenant of Freedom

6 Jeremiah the prophet told all this to Zedekiah in Jerusalem

7 while the army of the king of Babylon was fighting against Jerusalem and the remaining fortified cities of Judah—Lachish and Azekah—the only strongholds left.

8 The word of the Lord came to Jeremiah after King Zedekiah made a covenant with all the people in Jerusalem to proclaim liberty to them.

9 Each man was to free his Hebrew male or female slave, so that no one should keep another Jew in bondage.

10 The officials and all the people who had entered into the covenant obeyed. They freed their male and female servants and no longer held them in bondage.

11 But afterward they changed their minds. They took back the men and women they had set free and forced them into slavery again.

God Condemns Their Broken Covenant

12 Then the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah:

13 “This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: I made a covenant with your ancestors when I brought them out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery. I said, 14 ‘Every seventh year each of you must free your fellow Hebrews who have sold themselves to you. After they have served you six years, you must let them go free.’ But your ancestors did not listen to Me or pay attention.

15 Recently you repented and did what was right in My sight: you proclaimed freedom for your fellow countrymen. You even made a covenant before Me in the house that bears My name.

16 But now you have turned back and dishonored My name. Each of you has taken back the men and women you had freed and forced them to be your slaves again.

God’s Judgment on the Covenant-Breakers

17 Therefore this is what the Lord says: You have not obeyed Me. You have not proclaimed freedom to your fellow Israelites. So now I proclaim ‘freedom’ for you—freedom to fall by the sword, by famine, and by plague. I will make you abhorrent to all the kingdoms of the earth.

18 Those who have violated My covenant and have not fulfilled the terms of the covenant they made before Me—I will treat them like the calf they cut in two and walked between its pieces.

19 The leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the court officials, the priests, and all the people of the land who walked between the pieces of the calf—

20 I will hand them over to their enemies who seek their lives. Their dead bodies will become food for the birds of the air and the wild animals.

21 I will also hand over King Zedekiah of Judah and his officials to their enemies and to the army of the king of Babylon, which has withdrawn from you for now.

22 I am going to command them to return to this city. They will attack it, capture it, and burn it down. I will make the towns of Judah desolate and without inhabitants.”

✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 34

- God sees broken promises: The people freed their slaves but later re-enslaved them, breaking both God’s covenant and His heart (vv. 8–11, 15–16).
- Freedom matters to God: The law of release was a picture of God’s mercy, reminding Israel that they were once delivered from Egypt (v. 13–14).
- Breaking covenant brings judgment: Those who broke their vow to God faced sword, famine, and plague (vv. 17–20).
- God keeps His word even in judgment: Zedekiah would meet the Babylonian king face-to-face but would die in peace, as God declared (vv. 3–5).
- Liberty and justice are sacred: Oppression of others never goes unnoticed by God—He requires His people to walk in truth, justice, and mercy.

Jeremiah 35 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Faithful Rechabites”

The Test of the Rechabites

1 The word of the Lord came to Jeremiah during the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah:

2 “Go to the house of the Rechabites, invite them into one of the rooms of the Lord’s temple, and offer them wine to drink.”

3 So I took Jaazaniah son of Jeremiah, the son of Habaziah, along with his brothers, his sons, and the entire family of the Rechabites.

4 I brought them into the house of the Lord, into the room of the sons of Hanan son of Igdaliah, a man of God. This room was next to the chamber of the officials and above the room of Maaseiah son of Shallum, the doorkeeper.

5 I set pitchers full of wine and some cups before the Rechabites and said to them, “Drink some wine.”

Their Faithful Obedience

6 But they replied, “We do not drink wine. Jonadab son of Rechab, our ancestor, commanded us: ‘You and your descendants must never drink wine.

7 You must not build houses, sow seed, or plant vineyards. You must not own any of these things. Instead, you must live in tents all your days so that you may live a long time in the land where you are strangers.’

8 We have obeyed everything Jonadab son of Rechab commanded us. Neither we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters have drunk wine.

9 We have not built houses to live in nor owned vineyards, fields, or crops.

10 We have lived in tents and have fully obeyed all that our ancestor Jonadab commanded us.

11 But when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon invaded the land, we said, ‘Come, let us go to Jerusalem to escape the armies of the Babylonians and Arameans.’ So we have stayed in Jerusalem.”

God’s Rebuke to Judah

12 Then the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah:

13 “This is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Go and tell the people of Judah and those living in Jerusalem, ‘Will you not learn a lesson and obey my words?’ declares the Lord.

14 The command that Jonadab son of Rechab gave his descendants—not to drink wine—has been kept. To this day they do not drink wine, because they obey their ancestor’s command. But I have spoken to you again and again, and you have not obeyed Me.

15 I have sent all My servants the prophets to you again and again, saying, ‘Each of you must turn from your wicked ways and reform your actions; do not follow other gods to serve them. Then you will live in the land I have given to you and your ancestors.’ But you have not paid attention or listened to Me.

16 The descendants of Jonadab son of Rechab have carried out the command their ancestor gave them, but this people has not obeyed Me.’

17 Therefore this is what the Lord, the God of hosts, says: I am going to bring on Judah and on everyone living in Jerusalem every disaster I pronounced against them. I spoke to them, but they did not listen; I called to them, but they did not answer.”

God’s Blessing on the Rechabites

18 Then Jeremiah said to the family of the Rechabites, “This is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: You have obeyed the command of your ancestor Jonadab and followed all his instructions and done everything he ordered.

19 Therefore this is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Jonadab son of Rechab will never fail to have a descendant who serves Me.”

✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 35

- Faithfulness in small things matters to God: The Rechabites honored their ancestor’s command for generations, and God noticed (vv. 6–10, 18–19).
- Obedience brings blessing: Because they kept their covenant, God promised Jonadab’s line would always have someone faithful before Him (v. 19).
- Israel’s shame in disobedience: The Rechabites’ loyalty to human tradition stood in contrast to Judah’s refusal to obey the living God (vv. 13–16).
- God rewards consistency: While Judah broke their vows, the Rechabites’ steadfastness became a living example of what true devotion looks like.
- Lesson for us today: If people can be faithful to earthly commands, how much more should we be faithful to the commands of God?

Jeremiah 36 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Scroll Burned and Rewritten”

God Commands Jeremiah to Write

1 In the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah:

2 “Take a scroll and write on it all the words I have spoken to you against Israel, Judah, and all the nations, from the time of Josiah until now.

3 Perhaps when the people of Judah hear of all the disaster I intend to bring upon them, each of them will turn from his evil ways. Then I will forgive their sin and iniquity.”

4 So Jeremiah called Baruch son of Neriah. And as Jeremiah dictated the words of the Lord, Baruch wrote them on a scroll.

Baruch Reads the Scroll

5 Then Jeremiah said to Baruch, “I am confined and cannot go into the temple of the Lord.

6 So you must go and read from the scroll, which you wrote at my dictation, the words of the Lord in the hearing of the people at the temple on a day of fasting. Read them also to all the people of Judah who come in from their towns.

7 Perhaps they will humble themselves before the Lord and turn from their evil ways, for the Lord’s anger and wrath has been pronounced against this people.”

8 So Baruch son of Neriah did everything Jeremiah the prophet told him to do. He read the words of the Lord from the scroll at the temple.

The Scroll Reported to the Officials

9 In the ninth month of the fifth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, a fast before the Lord was proclaimed for all the people in Jerusalem and for those who had come from the towns of Judah.

10 Baruch read from the scroll the words of Jeremiah in the house of the Lord, in the chamber of Gemariah son of Shaphan the secretary, in the upper courtyard at the entrance of the New Gate of the temple.

11 When Micaiah son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, heard all the words of the Lord from the scroll, 12 he went down to the secretary’s room in the royal palace, where all the officials were sitting—Elishama the secretary, Delaiah son of Shemaiah, Elnathan son of Akbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, Zedekiah son of Hananiah, and all the other officials.

13 After Micaiah reported everything he had heard Baruch read,

14 the officials sent Jehudi son of Nethaniah to say to Baruch, “Bring the scroll from which you have read to the people, and come.” So Baruch went to them with the scroll in his hand.

15 They said, “Sit down and read it to us.” So Baruch read it to them.

16 When they had heard all the words, they looked at each other in fear and said, “We must report all this to the king.”

17 They asked Baruch, “Tell us, how did you write all this? Did Jeremiah dictate it?”

18 Baruch answered, “Yes, he dictated all these words to me, and I wrote them in ink on the scroll.”

19 Then the officials said to Baruch, “You and Jeremiah must hide. Don’t let anyone know where you are.”

The King Burns the Scroll

20 They put the scroll in the room of Elishama the secretary and went to the king in the courtyard to report everything.

21 The king sent Jehudi to get the scroll. Jehudi brought it from the room of Elishama the secretary and read it aloud to the king and all the officials standing beside him.

22 The king was sitting in the winter house in the ninth month, with a fire burning in the brazier before him.

23 Whenever Jehudi had read three or four columns, the king cut them off with a knife and threw them into the fire in the brazier, until the entire scroll was burned up.

24 Neither the king nor his attendants showed any fear, nor did they tear their clothes in repentance when they heard all these words.

25 Even though Elnathan, Delaiah, and Gemariah urged the king not to burn the scroll, he would not listen to them.

26 Instead, the king commanded Jerahmeel a son of the king, Seraiah son of Azriel, and Shelemiah son of Abdeel to arrest Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet. But the Lord hid them.

God Commands the Scroll to Be Rewritten

27 After the king burned the scroll containing the words that Baruch had written at Jeremiah’s dictation, the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah:

28 “Take another scroll and write on it all the words that were on the first scroll, which Jehoiakim king of Judah burned.

29 Say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, ‘This is what the Lord says: You burned that scroll and said, “Why did you write on it that the king of Babylon would certainly come and destroy this land and cause both people and animals to perish?”

30 Therefore this is what the Lord says about Jehoiakim king of Judah: He will have no one to sit on the throne of David. His body will be thrown out and exposed to the heat by day and the frost by night.

31 I will punish him, his children, and his attendants for their wickedness. I will bring on them, those living in Jerusalem, and the people of Judah every disaster I pronounced against them, because they would not listen.”

32 So Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to Baruch son of Neriah, the scribe. And as Jeremiah dictated, Baruch wrote on it all the words of the scroll that Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire. And many similar words were added to them.

✠✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 36

- God’s Word cannot be destroyed: Though Jehoiakim burned the scroll, God simply had it rewritten with even more words (vv. 27–32).
- Rebellion leads to judgment: The king’s arrogance and contempt for God’s Word sealed his fate (vv. 23–31).
- The faithful preserve truth: Jeremiah dictated, Baruch wrote, and God ensured His message endured despite opposition (vv. 4, 32).
- Disobedience blinds hearts: Unlike Josiah who humbled himself at God’s Word, Jehoiakim scoffed and dismissed it (vv. 24–25).
- Encouragement for believers today: No matter how people resist God’s Word, His truth will always prevail.

Jeremiah 37 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Zedekiah’s Secret Inquiry”

Zedekiah Made King

1 Zedekiah son of Josiah became king of Judah. Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made him king instead of Coniah son of Jehoiakim.

2 But neither Zedekiah, nor his officials, nor the people of the land listened to the words the Lord spoke through the prophet Jeremiah.

3 Yet King Zedekiah sent Jehucal son of Shelemiah and Zephaniah son of Maaseiah the priest to Jeremiah, saying, “Pray to the Lord our God for us.”

4 Jeremiah still moved about freely among the people, for he had not yet been put in prison.

Pharaoh’s Army and the Chaldeans

5 Pharaoh’s army marched out of Egypt. When the Babylonians who were besieging Jerusalem heard this, they withdrew from the city.

6 Then the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah:

7 “This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: Tell the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of Me, ‘Pharaoh’s army, which has marched out to help you, will return to its own land, to Egypt.

8 Then the Babylonians will come back, attack this city, capture it, and burn it down.’

9 “This is what the Lord says: Do not deceive yourselves, thinking, ‘The Babylonians will surely leave us.’ They will not!

10 Even if you were to defeat the entire Babylonian army that is fighting you, and only wounded men remained in their tents, they would still get up and burn this city down.”

Jeremiah Arrested

11 When the Babylonian army temporarily withdrew from Jerusalem because of Pharaoh’s army, 12 Jeremiah started to leave Jerusalem to go to the land of Benjamin to take care of some personal property there among the people.

13 But when he reached the Benjamin Gate, the captain of the guard, Irijah son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah, arrested him and said, “You are deserting to the Babylonians!”

14 Jeremiah replied, “That’s a lie! I am not deserting to the Babylonians.” But Irijah would not listen. He arrested Jeremiah and brought him to the officials.

15 They were angry with Jeremiah, beat him, and imprisoned him in the house of Jonathan the secretary, which had been turned into a prison.

16 Jeremiah was put into a vaulted cell in a dungeon, where he remained a long time.

Zedekiah’s Secret Inquiry

17 Later King Zedekiah sent for Jeremiah and had him brought to the palace, where he asked him privately, “Is there any word from the Lord?”

Jeremiah answered, “Yes. You will be handed over to the king of Babylon.”

18 Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, “What crime have I committed against you, your officials, or this people, that you have put me in prison?

19 Where are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying, ‘The king of Babylon will not attack you or this land’?

20 But now, my lord the king, please listen. I beg you, do not send me back to the house of Jonathan the secretary, or I will die there.”

21 So King Zedekiah ordered that Jeremiah be kept in the courtyard of the guard and given a loaf of bread from the Bakers' Street each day, until all the bread in the city was gone. So Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard.

✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 37

- Superficial religion is not enough: Zedekiah wanted Jeremiah's prayers but did not obey God's word (vv. 2–3).
- False hope brings ruin: Trusting in Pharaoh's army was useless—God had decreed Babylon's victory (vv. 5–10).
- Faithful witnesses may suffer: Jeremiah was falsely accused, beaten, and imprisoned for speaking God's truth (vv. 13–16).
- God's Word stands firm: No matter the political situation, His judgment through Babylon was certain (vv. 7–10, 17).
- God sustains His servants: Though confined, Jeremiah was preserved with daily bread until the siege famine grew worse (v. 21).

Jeremiah 38 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Jeremiah in the Dungeon”

Jeremiah Condemned by the Leaders

1 Shephatiah son of Mattan, Gedaliah son of Pashhur, Jucal son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur son of Malkijah heard Jeremiah speaking to all the people:

2 “This is what the Lord says: Whoever stays in this city will die by the sword, famine, or plague. But whoever goes over to the Babylonians will live; he will escape with his life and survive.

3 This city will certainly be given into the hands of the Babylonian army, and they will capture it.”

4 Then the officials said to the king, “This man must be put to death! He is discouraging the soldiers and the people by speaking such things to them. He is not seeking the good of this people but their ruin.”

5 King Zedekiah said, “He is in your hands. I cannot oppose you.”

6 So they took Jeremiah and lowered him into the cistern of Malkijah, the king's son, in the courtyard of the guard. They let him down with ropes. There was no water in the cistern, only mud, and Jeremiah sank into the mud.

Ebed-Melech Intercedes

7 But Ebed-Melech, a Cushite official in the royal palace, heard that Jeremiah had been put into the cistern. While the king was sitting at the Benjamin Gate,

8 Ebed-Melech went out from the palace and said to him,

9 “My lord the king, these men have acted wickedly in all they have done to Jeremiah the prophet. They have thrown him into a cistern, where he will starve to death, for there is no more bread in the city.”

10 Then the king commanded Ebed-Melech the Cushite, “Take thirty men with you and lift Jeremiah the prophet out of the cistern before he dies.”

11 So Ebed-Melech took the men with him, went into the palace under the treasury, and got some old rags and worn-out clothes. He let them down with ropes to Jeremiah in the cistern.

12 Ebed-Melech the Cushite said to Jeremiah, “Put these old rags under your arms to pad the ropes.” Jeremiah did so.

13 And they pulled him up with ropes and lifted him out of the cistern. Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard.

Zedekiah’s Secret Meeting

14 Later King Zedekiah sent for Jeremiah and had him brought to the third entrance of the house of the Lord. The king said to Jeremiah, “I am going to ask you something; do not hide anything from me.”

15 Jeremiah said, “If I tell you the truth, will you not put me to death? And if I give you advice, you will not listen to me.”

16 But King Zedekiah swore secretly to Jeremiah, “As surely as the Lord lives, who gave us life, I will not put you to death or hand you over to those who want to kill you.”

17 Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, “This is what the Lord, the God of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: If you surrender to the officers of the king of Babylon, your life will be spared and this city will not be burned down; you and your family will live.

18 But if you will not surrender to the officers of the king of Babylon, this city will be given into the hands of the Babylonians, and they will burn it down. You yourself will not escape from them.”

19 King Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “I am afraid of the Jews who have already gone over to the Babylonians. They may hand me over to them, and they will abuse me.”

20 Jeremiah replied, “They will not hand you over. Obey the Lord by doing what I tell you. Then it will go well with you, and your life will be spared.

21 But if you refuse to surrender, this is what the Lord has revealed to me:

22 All the women left in the palace of the king of Judah will be brought out to the officials of the king of Babylon. Those women will say:

‘Your trusted friends misled you and overpowered you. Your feet are sunk in the mud; your friends have deserted you.’

23 All your wives and children will be brought out to the Babylonians. You will not escape from their hands but will be captured by the king of Babylon, and this city will be burned down.”

Jeremiah Ordered to Keep Silent

24 Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “Do not let anyone know about this conversation, or you may die.

25 If the officials hear that I spoke with you, and they come and say, ‘Tell us what you said to the king and what he said to you, do not hide it or we will kill you,’

26 then say to them, ‘I was presenting my request to the king that he would not send me back to Jonathan’s house to die there.’”

27 All the officials did come to Jeremiah and questioned him, and he answered them as the king had instructed. So they said nothing more, for no one had overheard the conversation.

28 And Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard until the day Jerusalem was captured.

✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 38

- Truth is often unpopular: Jeremiah’s warning from God made him hated and nearly killed (vv. 2–6).
- God provides unexpected deliverance: A foreigner, Ebed-Melech, bravely rescued Jeremiah when no one else would (vv. 7–13).
- Leaders must choose obedience or destruction: Zedekiah feared men more than God, leading to disaster (vv. 17–23).
- Fear of people brings a snare: Zedekiah’s worry about being mocked caused him to reject the one path of safety (vv. 19–20).
- God’s Word will prevail: Whether believed or resisted, His Word comes to pass (vv. 18, 23, 28).

Jeremiah 39 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Fall of Jerusalem”

The City Falls

1 In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon marched against Jerusalem with his whole army and laid siege to it.

2 On the ninth day of the fourth month, in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, the city wall was broken through.

3 Then all the officials of the king of Babylon came and took their seats in the Middle Gate: Nergal-Sharezer of Samgar, Nebo-Sarsekim a chief officer, Nergal-Sharezer a high official, and all the other officials of the king of Babylon.

The Capture of Zedekiah

4 When Zedekiah king of Judah and all the soldiers saw them, they fled and left the city at night through the king's garden, by the gate between the two walls, and went toward the Arabah plain.

5 But the Babylonian army pursued them and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. They captured him and took him to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he passed sentence on him.

6 There at Riblah the king of Babylon slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, as well as all the nobles of Judah.

7 Then he put out Zedekiah's eyes and bound him with bronze chains to take him to Babylon.

Jerusalem Destroyed

8 The Babylonians set fire to the royal palace and the houses of the people and broke down the walls of Jerusalem.

9 Nebuzaradan, the commander of the guard, carried into exile to Babylon the people who remained in the city, those who had gone over to him, and the rest of the survivors.

10 But Nebuzaradan left behind some of the poor people, who owned nothing, and at that time gave them vineyards and fields.

Jeremiah Spared

11 Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon gave orders about Jeremiah through Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard:

12 "Take him and look after him. Do him no harm, but do for him whatever he asks."

13 So Nebuzaradan, along with Nebushazban a chief officer, Nergal-Sharezer a high official, and all the other officers of the king of Babylon, 14 sent and brought Jeremiah out of the courtyard of the guard. They turned him over to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, to take him back to his home. So Jeremiah remained among his own people.

God's Word to Ebed-Melech

15 While Jeremiah was still confined in the courtyard of the guard, the word of the Lord came to him:

16 “Go and tell Ebed-Melech the Cushite: ‘This is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: I am about to fulfill my words against this city—disaster, not prosperity. They will be fulfilled before your eyes on that day.

17 But I will rescue you on that day, declares the Lord; you will not be handed over to those you fear.

18 I will save you; you will not fall by the sword but will escape with your life, because you trust in me,’ declares the Lord.”

✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 39

- God's word is certain: Jerusalem fell exactly as Jeremiah had prophesied for years (vv. 1–2).
- Sin brings devastating consequences: Zedekiah's rebellion led to his sons' deaths, his own blindness, and exile (vv. 4–7).
- God remembers the faithful: Jeremiah was spared by God's providence, even honored by foreign rulers (vv. 11–14).
- The lowly are lifted up: The poor of the land, ignored by the leaders, were granted vineyards and fields (v. 10).
- Faith in God protects: Ebed-Melech, the foreign eunuch who trusted the Lord, received a personal promise of deliverance (vv. 15–18).

Jeremiah 40 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Gedaliah Appointed Governor”

Jeremiah Freed at Ramah

1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord, after Nebuzaradan, the commander of the guard, had released him at Ramah. Jeremiah had been bound in chains along with all the captives of Jerusalem and Judah who were being taken to Babylon.

2 The captain of the guard took Jeremiah and said to him, “The Lord your God has pronounced this disaster upon this place.

3 Now the Lord has brought it about and done just as He said. All this happened because you people sinned against the Lord and did not obey His voice.

4 But now I am releasing you today from the chains on your hands. If you want to come with me to Babylon, come, and I will take good care of you. But if you prefer not to come, stay. The whole land is before you; go wherever you think best.”

5 While Jeremiah had not yet decided, Nebuzaradan added, “Go back to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has appointed governor over the cities of Judah. Stay with him among the people, or go anywhere you choose.” Then the commander gave him provisions and a gift and let him go.

6 So Jeremiah went to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah and stayed with him among the people who were left in the land.

Gedaliah Made Governor

7 When all the army officers and their men who were still in the open country heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam as governor over the land and had put him in charge of the men, women, children, and the poorest of the land who had not been carried into exile to Babylon,

8 they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah. Among them were Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the Maacathite, along with their men.

9 Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, took an oath before them and their men, saying, “Do not be afraid to serve the Babylonians. Settle down in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well with you.

10 As for me, I will stay at Mizpah to represent you before the Babylonians who come to us. But you, gather wine, summer fruit, and oil, store them in your jars, and live in the towns you have taken over.”

The Exiles Return

11 When all the Jews living in Moab, Ammon, Edom, and in all the other countries heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant in Judah and had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, as governor over them, 12 they all returned from the places where they had been scattered. They came back to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah, and gathered an abundance of wine and summer fruit.

A Plot Against Gedaliah

13 Meanwhile Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers still in the field came to Gedaliah at Mizpah

14 and warned him, “Do you know that Baalis king of the Ammonites has sent Ishmael son of Nethaniah to take your life?” But Gedaliah son of Ahikam did not believe them.

15 Then Johanan son of Kareah said privately to Gedaliah at Mizpah, “Let me go and kill Ishmael son of Nethaniah. No one will know it. Why should he take your life and cause all the Jews who have gathered around you to be scattered, leaving the remnant of Judah to perish?”

16 But Gedaliah son of Ahikam said to Johanan son of Kareah, “You must not do such a thing, for what you are saying about Ishmael is not true.”

✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 40

- God controls history: Even Babylon’s commander recognized that Judah’s fall was the direct result of disobedience to God (vv. 2–3).
- God preserves His servant: Jeremiah was spared and even given freedom and provision by his captors (vv. 4–6).
- Leadership requires trust in God’s plan: Gedaliah urged the people to stay in the land and live peacefully under Babylon, promising stability if they obeyed (vv. 9–10).
- Division and distrust bring danger: Despite warnings of betrayal, Gedaliah refused to believe the threat against his life—a decision that would soon bring tragedy (vv. 14–16).

Jeremiah 41 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Murder of Gedaliah and Flight Toward Egypt”

Gedaliah Murdered at Mizpah

1 In the seventh month, Ishmael son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama of the royal family, came to Mizpah with ten men. They ate a meal together with Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah.

2 Then Ishmael and the ten men with him rose up and struck down Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, with the sword. Thus he killed the one whom the king of Babylon had appointed governor over the land.

3 Ishmael also killed all the Jews who were with Gedaliah at Mizpah, as well as the Babylonian soldiers who were found there.

Pilgrims Slaughtered

4 The day after Gedaliah was killed, before anyone knew what had happened,

5 eighty men arrived from Shechem, Shiloh, and Samaria. They had shaved their beards, torn their clothes, and cut themselves. They came with grain offerings and incense in their hands to bring to the house of the Lord.

6 Ishmael son of Nethaniah went out from Mizpah to meet them, weeping as he went. When he met them, he said, “Come to Gedaliah son of Ahikam.”

7 But when they entered the city, Ishmael and his men slaughtered them and threw them into a cistern.

8 However, ten of the men pleaded with Ishmael, saying, “Do not kill us, for we have stores of wheat, barley, oil, and honey hidden in the fields.” So he spared them and did not kill them with the others.

9 The cistern into which Ishmael had thrown the bodies of the men he had killed was the one King Asa had made as a defense against King Baasha of Israel. Ishmael filled it with the slain.

Captives Taken

10 Then Ishmael carried away captive the rest of the people who were in Mizpah, including the king’s daughters and all who remained there—those whom Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, had entrusted to Gedaliah son of Ahikam. Ishmael took them as captives and set out to cross over to the Ammonites.

Johanan Rescues the Captives

11 When Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers who were with him heard of the crimes Ishmael had committed,

12 they took their men and went to fight Ishmael son of Nethaniah. They caught up with him near the great pool at Gibeon.

13 When the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan and the army officers, they rejoiced.

14 Then all the people Ishmael had carried away from Mizpah turned and went over to Johanan son of Kareah.

15 But Ishmael son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men and fled to the Ammonites.

The People Plan to Flee to Egypt

16 Then Johanan son of Kareah and the army officers who were with him gathered up all the survivors from Mizpah—those whom Ishmael had taken captive after killing Gedaliah son of Ahikam. This included the men of war, the women, the children, and the eunuchs, whom they brought back from Gibeon.

17 They went on and stayed at Geruth Kimham, near Bethlehem, on their way to go into Egypt, 18 because they were afraid of the Babylonians. For Ishmael son of Nethaniah had murdered Gedaliah son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had appointed governor over the land.

✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 41

- Betrayal brings ruin: Ishmael's treachery destroyed the fragile peace left in Judah, turning a hopeful remnant into chaos (vv. 1–3).
- False appearances deceive: Ishmael met the pilgrims with tears but lured them to death, showing the danger of hypocrisy and hidden evil (vv. 5–7).
- God still preserves a remnant: Even in tragedy, some captives were spared and later rescued through Johanan's intervention (vv. 13–16).
- Fear leads to poor decisions: Instead of trusting God's plan, the people began moving toward Egypt, a place the Lord had warned against (vv. 17–18).

Jeremiah 42 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Remnant Seeks Counsel But Rejects God's Warning”

The Remnant Asks Jeremiah to Pray

1 Then all the army officers, Johanan son of Kareah, Jezaniah son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least to the greatest approached Jeremiah.

2 They said to him, “Please hear our request and pray to the Lord your God for us, for we are only a small remnant left from many, as you can see.

3 Ask the Lord your God to show us the way we should go and what we should do.”

4 Jeremiah the prophet said, “I have heard you. I will indeed pray to the Lord your God as you have asked, and I will declare to you everything He says. I will not hold anything back from you.”

5 And they replied to Jeremiah, “May the Lord be a true and faithful witness against us if we do not act according to everything the Lord your God sends you to tell us.

6 Whether it is pleasant or unpleasant, we will obey the voice of the Lord our God, to whom we are sending you. It will go well with us if we obey the voice of the Lord our God.”

God's Answer Comes After Ten Days

7 After ten days, the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah.

8 He called Johanan son of Kareah, all the army officers, and all the people from the least to the greatest,

9 and said to them, "This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says, to whom you sent me to present your plea:

10 If you stay in this land, I will build you up and not tear you down. I will plant you and not uproot you, for I have relented of the disaster I had planned.

11 Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom you are afraid. Do not fear him, declares the Lord, for I am with you to save you and to deliver you from his hand.

12 I will show you compassion, so that he will have compassion on you and restore you to your land."

A Warning Against Egypt

13 "But if you say, 'We will not stay in this land,' and you disobey the Lord your God,

14 saying, 'No, we will go to the land of Egypt, where we will not see war or hear the sound of the trumpet or be hungry for bread, and there we will live'—

15 then hear the word of the Lord, O remnant of Judah. This is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: If you are determined to go to Egypt and settle there, 16 then the sword you fear will overtake you there, and the famine you dread will follow you into Egypt, and there you will die.

17 All who are determined to go and live in Egypt will die by the sword, famine, and plague. None of them will escape or survive the disaster I will bring upon them.

18 For this is what the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, says: As My anger and wrath have been poured out on those who lived in Jerusalem, so will My wrath be poured out on you when you go to Egypt. You will become a curse, an object of horror, a curse and reproach, and you will never see this land again."

Their Hypocrisy Exposed

19 "The Lord has said to you, O remnant of Judah, 'Do not go to Egypt.' You must know for certain that I am warning you today.

20 For you deceived yourselves when you sent me to the Lord your God, saying, 'Pray for us to the Lord our God, and tell us everything the Lord our God says, and we will do it.'

21 But today I have told you, and you still have not obeyed the voice of the Lord your God in anything He sent me to say to you.

22 Therefore know for certain that you will die by the sword, famine, and plague in the very place where you desire to go and live.”

✠✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 42

- Be sincere in seeking God’s guidance: The people pretended to want God’s direction, but their hearts were already set on Egypt (vv. 1–6, 20).
- God’s timing tests patience: Jeremiah waited ten days before receiving God’s answer, showing that we must wait on the Lord instead of rushing into our own plans (v. 7).
- Obedience brings security: God promised to protect and bless His people if they stayed in the land and trusted Him (vv. 10–12).
- Disobedience brings destruction: Choosing Egypt—the easy way—would only lead to the very sword and famine they hoped to escape (vv. 13–18).
- God sees through empty promises: Saying “we will obey” means nothing if the heart is already rebellious (vv. 19–22).

Jeremiah 43 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Rebellion in Egypt”

The People Accuse Jeremiah of Lying

1 When Jeremiah had finished speaking to all the people every word the Lord their God had sent him to declare,

2 Azariah son of Hoshaiah, Johanan son of Kareah, and all the arrogant men said to Jeremiah, “You are lying! The Lord our God has not sent you to say, ‘Do not go to Egypt to settle there.’”

3 It is Baruch son of Neriah who is inciting you against us, to deliver us into the hands of the Babylonians, so they may kill us or carry us into exile in Babylon.”

4 So Johanan son of Kareah, all the army officers, and all the people disobeyed the voice of the Lord by refusing to stay in the land of Judah.

The People Drag Jeremiah and Baruch into Egypt

5 Instead, Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers took the entire remnant of Judah—those who had returned from all the nations where they had been scattered to live in the land of Judah—

6 including the men, women, children, the king’s daughters, and every person Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, as well as Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch son of Neriah.

7 They did not obey the voice of the Lord. They went into Egypt, arriving at Tahpanhes.

Jeremiah Prophecies in Egypt

8 Then the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes:

9 “Take some large stones in your hands and bury them in the clay in the brick pavement at the entrance of Pharaoh’s palace in Tahpanhes, in full view of the people of Judah.

10 Then say to them, ‘This is what the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, says: I am going to send for My servant Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and I will set his throne over these stones I have buried here. He will spread his royal canopy above them.

11 He will come and strike the land of Egypt—those destined for death to death, those for captivity to captivity, and those for the sword to the sword.

12 I will set fire to the temples of Egypt’s gods; he will burn them down and carry the idols away. He will wrap Egypt around him like a shepherd puts on his cloak, and he will leave there in peace.

13 He will break the sacred pillars of Beth Shemesh in Egypt, and burn the temples of the gods of Egypt with fire.’”

✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 43

- Pride blinds people to God’s truth: The leaders accused Jeremiah of lying rather than accepting the word of the Lord (vv. 2–3).
- Disobedience hardens rebellion: Even after promising to obey God in chapter 42, the people dragged Jeremiah and Baruch into Egypt against God’s command (vv. 4–7).
- God’s authority is unshakable: By burying stones at Pharaoh’s palace, Jeremiah gave a prophetic sign that Nebuchadnezzar’s throne would be established even in Egypt (vv. 8–10).
- False gods cannot save: The Lord declared that the idols and temples of Egypt would be destroyed by fire (vv. 12–13).
- God’s word always prevails: Even in foreign lands, God directs history according to His plan.

Jeremiah 44 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Judgment on the Jews in Egypt”

God Rebukes the Jews in Egypt

1 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews living in Egypt—at Migdol, Tahpanhes, Memphis, and Pathros:

2 “This is what the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, says: You have seen all the disaster I brought on Jerusalem and all the towns of Judah. They lie in ruins and no one lives there today.

3 It happened because of the evil they committed—provoking Me to anger by burning incense and serving other gods, gods neither they nor their ancestors had ever known.

4 I sent My servants the prophets to you again and again, saying: ‘Do not do this detestable thing that I hate!’

5 But you would not listen or turn from your wickedness; you kept burning incense to other gods.

6 So My fierce anger was poured out, and it blazed in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, leaving them ruined and deserted, as they are today.

Warning Against Idolatry in Egypt

7 “Now this is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: Why are you bringing such great harm on yourselves—cutting off man and woman, child and infant from Judah—leaving yourselves without a remnant?

8 Why do you provoke Me to anger by burning incense to the gods of Egypt, where you have come to live? You are bringing ruin on yourselves, becoming an object of cursing and reproach among the nations of the earth.

9 Have you forgotten the sins of your ancestors, the sins of Judah’s kings and their wives, your own sins and the sins of your wives, which they committed in Judah and the streets of Jerusalem?

10 To this day you have not humbled yourselves or shown reverence. You have not lived according to My law and decrees I set before you and your ancestors.

11 Therefore this is what the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, says: I am determined to bring disaster on you and wipe out all Judah.

12 I will take the remnant of Judah who insisted on going to Egypt to settle there, and they will all perish. They will fall by the sword and famine—from the least to the greatest. They will become a curse and an object of horror and scorn.

13 I will punish those in Egypt just as I punished Jerusalem—with sword, famine, and plague.

14 None of the remnant of Judah who went to Egypt to settle will escape or survive to return to Judah, though they long to go back and live there. The only ones who will return are a few fugitives.”

The People Refuse to Listen

15 Then all the men who knew their wives were burning incense to other gods, along with many women present—a great assembly of people living in Pathros in Egypt—answered Jeremiah:

16 “We will not listen to the message you spoke to us in the name of the Lord!

17 Instead, we will certainly carry out the vows we made. We will burn incense to the queen of heaven and pour out drink offerings to her, just as we and our ancestors, our kings, and our officials did in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. Back then, we had plenty of food, we were well off, and we saw no disaster.

18 But ever since we stopped burning incense to the queen of heaven and pouring out offerings to her, we have had nothing, and we have perished by sword and famine.”

19 The women added, “When we burned incense to the queen of heaven and poured out drink offerings, did we not make cakes to worship her and pour out drink offerings with the knowledge and approval of our husbands?”

Jeremiah Confronts Their Rebellion

20 Then Jeremiah said to all the people—men and women alike—

21 “Did not the Lord remember and call to mind the incense burned in Judah’s towns and in the streets of Jerusalem by you, your ancestors, your kings, and your officials, and the people of the land?

22 When the Lord could no longer endure your wicked deeds and the detestable practices you committed, your land became a desolate ruin and a curse, without inhabitants, as it is today.

23 Because you burned incense and sinned against the Lord and did not obey Him or follow His law and decrees, this disaster has come upon you, as you now see.”

God’s Oath of Judgment

24 Then Jeremiah said to all the people, especially the women:

25 “This is what the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, says: You and your wives have declared with your mouths and fulfilled with your hands, ‘We will surely keep the vows we made—to burn incense to the queen of heaven and pour out drink offerings to her.’ Very well, keep your vows and do as you promised!

26 But hear the word of the Lord, all you Jews living in Egypt: I swear by My great name, says the Lord, that no one from Judah living anywhere in Egypt will ever again invoke My name, saying, ‘As surely as the Lord God lives.’

27 For I am watching over you for harm, not good. Every Jew in Egypt will perish by sword and famine until they are completely gone.

28 Only a few who escape the sword will return to Judah from Egypt. Then the remnant of Judah who came to live in Egypt will know whose word will stand—Mine or theirs.

29 This will be the sign to you that I will punish you here, declares the Lord:

30 I will hand Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt over to his enemies, just as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, who was his enemy and sought his life.”

✠✧ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 44

- Idolatry invites destruction: God makes clear that burning incense to false gods is what ruined Jerusalem, and the same sins will bring ruin in Egypt (vv. 2–8).
- History ignored is judgment repeated: The people forgot the lessons of their fathers and stubbornly repeated the same abominations (vv. 9–10).
- Rebellion hardens the heart: The people boldly declared they would continue worshiping the “queen of heaven” despite God’s warnings (vv. 15–19).
- God’s word stands above human vows: The Lord swore that His name would no longer be invoked by the Jews in Egypt because they had rejected Him (vv. 24–26).
- God proves His word by signs: Just as Zedekiah was handed over, Pharaoh Hophra would also fall—showing that God rules over kings and nations (v. 30).

Jeremiah 45 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Word to Baruch”

Baruch’s Complaint

1 The word that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch son of Neriah, when he had written in a scroll all the words that Jeremiah had dictated, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah:

2 “This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says to you, Baruch:

3 You have said, ‘Woe is me! The Lord has added grief to my sorrow. I am worn out with groaning, and I find no rest.’”

God’s Response

4 “This is what you are to tell him, says the Lord: ‘What I have built I am about to tear down, and what I have planted I am about to uproot throughout the entire land.

5 And as for you—do you seek great things for yourself? Do not seek them. For I am about to bring disaster on all mankind, declares the Lord. But wherever you go, I will let you escape with your life as your prize.’”

✠✧ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 45

- God’s servants also feel weary: Even faithful Baruch grew discouraged, feeling crushed by sorrow and unable to rest (v. 3).
- Perspective matters: While God’s judgment was certain over the land, He reminded Baruch not to focus on personal ambition or greatness (v. 5a).
- Life itself is a gift: In the midst of widespread destruction, God promised Baruch something precious—his life preserved (v. 5b).
- Seek faithfulness, not fame: The call of God is often to endurance and trust, not to personal glory.

Jeremiah 46 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God’s Judgment on Egypt”

The Defeat of Egypt at Carchemish

1 The word of the Lord that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the nations:

2 Concerning Egypt—about the army of Pharaoh Necho king of Egypt, which was defeated by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon at Carchemish on the Euphrates River in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah.

3 “Prepare your shields and bucklers; march to battle!

4 Harness the horses; mount your steeds! Take your positions with helmets on! Polish the spears, put on your armor!

5 Why have I seen them dismayed, turning back? Their mighty men are beaten down, fleeing in haste without looking back—terror on every side, declares the Lord.

6 The swift cannot escape, the strong cannot flee. In the north, by the River Euphrates, they stumble and fall.”

Egypt’s Pride and Fall

7 “Who is this rising like the Nile, like rivers surging with waters?

8 Egypt rises like the Nile, boasting, ‘I will rise, I will cover the earth; I will destroy cities and their people.’

9 Charge, you horses! Drive furiously, you chariots! March forth, warriors of Cush and Put who carry shields, and men of Lydia who draw the bow.

10 But this is the day of the Lord, the Lord God of Hosts—a day of vengeance to avenge Himself on His foes. The sword will devour and be filled, it will drink its fill of blood. For the Lord God of Hosts holds a sacrifice in the north country by the River Euphrates.

11 Go up to Gilead for balm, O virgin daughter of Egypt. But you multiply remedies in vain; there is no healing for you.

12 The nations hear of your shame; the earth is filled with your cry. One warrior stumbles over another; together they fall.”

The Invasion of Egypt

13 This is the word the Lord spoke to Jeremiah the prophet about Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon coming to attack Egypt:

14 “Announce it in Egypt, proclaim it in Migdol, proclaim it in Memphis and Tahpanhes: ‘Take your stand! Prepare yourself, for the sword devours all around you!’

15 Why are your warriors laid low? They cannot stand, for the Lord has thrust them down.

16 They stumble and fall over one another. They cry, ‘Let us return to our people, to our native land, away from the oppressor’s sword.’

17 There they will say, ‘Pharaoh king of Egypt is only a loud noise; he has missed his opportunity.’

18 As surely as I live,” declares the King, whose name is the Lord of Hosts, “one will come like Tabor among the mountains and like Carmel by the sea.

19 Pack your bags for exile, O daughter dwelling in Egypt! For Memphis will become a desolate ruin, uninhabited.

20 Egypt is a beautiful heifer, but a gadfly from the north is coming against her.

21 Even her mercenaries are like fattened calves—they too will turn and flee together; they cannot stand, for the day of disaster has come upon them, the time of their punishment.

22 Egypt’s hiss is like a fleeing serpent as the enemy advances with axes, cutting down her forest, though it was dense. They are more numerous than locusts; they cannot be counted.

23 They will chop down her forest, declares the Lord, though it was impenetrable.

24 The daughter of Egypt will be put to shame, handed over to the people of the north.”

God’s Judgment on Egypt’s Gods and Pharaoh

25 The Lord of Hosts, the God of Israel, says:

“Behold, I will punish Amon of Thebes, Pharaoh, Egypt, her gods and her kings—Pharaoh and all who rely on him.

26 I will deliver them into the hands of those who seek their lives, into the hands of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and his officers. But afterward, Egypt will be inhabited as in times past,” declares the Lord.

Comfort for Israel

27 “But you, my servant Jacob, do not be afraid; do not be dismayed, O Israel. For I will save you from far away, your descendants from the land of their captivity. Jacob will return and have peace and security, and no one will make him afraid.

28 Do not be afraid, Jacob my servant,” declares the Lord, “for I am with you. I will make a full end of all the nations where I have banished you, but I will not make a full end of you. I will discipline you with justice, but will not leave you entirely unpunished.”

✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 46

- Egypt’s pride leads to downfall: Like a mighty flood, Egypt boasted of power, but God humbled them (vv. 7–10).
- God judges nations and their gods: Pharaoh and Egypt’s idols could not save them; only God rules history (vv. 25–26).
- Healing apart from God is vain: Egypt sought remedies, but their wound was incurable because judgment was from God (v. 11).
- God disciplines His people but preserves them: Israel would face correction, but unlike the nations, they would not be destroyed (vv. 27–28).
- Hope in captivity: Even in exile, God promises restoration and peace for His covenant people.

Jeremiah 47 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God’s Judgment on the Philistines”

The Prophecy Against Philistia

1 The word of the Lord that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the Philistines, before Pharaoh attacked Gaza:

2 This is what the Lord says:

“See, waters are rising from the north; they will become an overflowing flood.

They will flood the land and everything in it—the towns and all who live there.

The people will cry out, and every inhabitant of the land will wail.

3 At the sound of the pounding hooves of galloping horses,
the rumble of chariots, and the clatter of wheels,
fathers will not turn to help their children,
for their hands hang helpless.

4 For the day has come to destroy all the Philistines, to cut off every ally still helping Tyre and Sidon.
The Lord is destroying the Philistines,
the remnant from the island of Caphtor.

5 Gaza will shave her head in mourning;
Ashkelon is silenced,
O remnant from the valley!
How long will you gash yourselves in grief?"

The Sword of the Lord

6 "Alas, sword of the Lord, how long until you rest?
Return to your sheath;
be still and quiet."

7 But how can it rest,
when the Lord has commanded it,
when He has appointed it against Ashkelon and against the seacoast?"

✠✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 47

- God directs history: The rising flood from the north represents invading armies (Babylon), instruments of God's judgment.
- Human strength fails under judgment: Even fathers cannot protect their children when God's hand of justice falls (v. 3).
- False hope in allies is useless: Tyre and Sidon could not save the Philistines; God alone rules over nations (v. 4).
- The sword of the Lord cannot be stopped: When God appoints judgment, it will accomplish His purpose (vv. 6–7).
- Mourning without repentance is empty: The Philistines grieved, but their sorrow did not lead to turning toward God (v. 5).

Jeremiah 48 – Crawford Standard Bible

"The Judgment of Moab"

Woe to Moab's Cities

1 This is what the Lord of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says against Moab:

“Disaster is coming on Nebo— it is ruined!

Kiriathaim is put to shame and captured;

Misgab is broken down and dismayed.

2 Moab's glory is gone.

In Heshbon, the enemies plot her downfall, saying,

‘Come, let us put an end to her as a nation.’

Madmen, you too will be silenced;

the sword will chase you down.

3 A cry of anguish rises from Horonaim—devastation and great destruction!

4 Moab is crushed;

her children cry out for help.

5 On the road up to Luhith, people weep bitterly;

on the way down to Horonaim, cries of destruction echo in the air.

6 Run! Save your lives!

Be like a lone bush in the wilderness.

Moab's False Security Shattered

7 Since you trusted in your deeds and in your treasures, you will also be captured.

Chemosh will go into exile,

together with his priests and officials.

8 The destroyer will come to every city;

no town will escape.

The valley will be ruined,

and the plateau destroyed,

as the Lord has spoken.

9 Give wings to Moab,

for she must flee;

her towns will lie desolate,

with no one left to live there.

10 Cursed is anyone who does the work of the Lord half-heartedly;
cursed is anyone who holds back his sword from blood.

Moab's Long Ease Broken

11 "Moab has lived in ease since youth, settled like wine left on its dregs,
never poured from jar to jar.
So its flavor has remained,
its aroma has not changed.

12 But the days are coming," says the Lord,
"when I will send men to tip him over.
They will pour him out, empty his jars,
and smash his jars to pieces.

13 Then Moab will be ashamed of Chemosh, as Israel was ashamed of Bethel,
their false confidence.

The Pride of Moab Humbled

14 How can you say, 'We are warriors, men valiant for battle'?

15 Moab's strength is gone;
her young men go down to the slaughter," declares the King— whose name is the Lord of Heaven's Armies.

16 "Moab's disaster is near;
her calamity comes quickly.

17 Mourn for her, all who live around her;
all who know her name, say,
'How the mighty scepter is broken,
the glorious staff shattered!'

18 Come down from your glory, and sit in the dust, you people of Dibon.
The destroyer of Moab has come against you,
and has ruined your strongholds.

19 Stand by the road, you people of Aroer, and watch. Ask the man fleeing and the woman escaping,

'What has happened?'

20 Moab is disgraced, shattered!
Wail and cry!
Announce by the Arnon River that Moab is destroyed."

The Land Laid Waste

21 Judgment has come to the plateau—to Holon, Jahzah, and Mephaath,

22 to Dibon, Nebo, and Beth-diblathaim,

23 to Kiriathaim, Beth-gamul, and Beth-meon,

24 to Kerioth and Bozrah—
to all the towns of Moab, near and far.

25 The horn of Moab is cut off;
her arm is broken,"
declares the Lord.

26 "Make her drunk,
for she has defied the Lord.
Let Moab wallow in her vomit;
she will be ridiculed.

27 Was not Israel the object of your ridicule?
Was he caught among thieves,
that you shake your head whenever you speak of him?

28 Abandon your towns and live among the rocks,
you who dwell in Moab.
Be like a dove that makes its nest
at the mouth of a cave.

God Weeps Over Moab's Fall

29 "We have heard of Moab's pride—
how great it is, his arrogance, conceit, and haughtiness.

30 I know his insolence," declares the Lord,
"but it is futile;
his boasts accomplish nothing.

31 Therefore I wail for Moab,
I cry out for all Moab;
I mourn for the people of Kir-hareseth.

32 I weep for you, vines of Sibmah, more than for Jazer.
Your branches spread as far as the sea,
they reached to Jazer;
but the destroyer has fallen on your ripened fruit and grapes.

33 Joy and gladness are gone from the orchards and fields of Moab.
I have stopped the flow of wine from the presses;
no one treads them with shouts of joy.
The shouts are not shouts of joy.

34 The cry from Heshbon to Elealeh, as far as Jahaz,
from Zoar to Horonaim and Eglath Shelishiyah, is heard.
Even the waters of Nimrim are dried up.

35 In Moab I will put an end,"
declares the Lord,
"to those who make offerings on the high places and burn incense to their gods."

36 "So my heart laments for Moab like a flute;
it laments like a flute for the people of Kir-hareseth.
The wealth they acquired is gone.

37 Every head is shaved
and every beard cut off;
every hand has gashes
and every waist is clothed in sackcloth.

38 On all the roofs of Moab and in the public squares there is nothing but mourning.
I have broken Moab like a jar that no one wants," declares the Lord.

39 "How shattered she is!
How they wail!
Moab turns her back in shame.
She has become an object of ridicule,
a horror to all her neighbors."

The Eagle of Judgment

40 This is what the Lord says:

“Look! An eagle is swooping down and spreading its wings over Moab.

41 Keriath is captured and the strongholds seized.

On that day the hearts of Moab’s warriors will be like the heart of a woman in labor.

42 Moab will be destroyed as a nation
because she defied the Lord.

43 Terror, pit, and snare await you,
you people of Moab,” declares the Lord.

44 “Whoever flees from the terror
will fall into a pit;
whoever climbs out of the pit
will be caught in a snare.
For I will bring on Moab
the year of her punishment,”
declares the Lord.

45 “In the shadow of Heshbon
those fleeing stand helpless.
But fire goes out from Heshbon,
a flame from the midst of Sihon;
it consumes the foreheads of Moab,
the skulls of the noisy boasters.

46 Woe to you, Moab!
The people of Chemosh are destroyed;
your sons are taken into exile and your daughters into captivity.

47 Yet I will restore the fortunes of Moab
in the last days,” declares the Lord.
Here ends the judgment on Moab.

✠✧ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 48

- Pride leads to destruction: Moab’s arrogance and self-reliance brought them low (vv. 29–30, 42).

- False gods cannot save: Chemosh went into captivity with his priests; idols have no power (vv. 7, 13).
- Judgment reaches every level: From cities to villages, from rulers to common people, none could escape (vv. 8, 21–24).
- God grieves even as He judges: The Lord weeps like flutes for Moab’s fall, showing His heart of compassion (vv. 31–36).
- Hope in the end: Though Moab was destroyed, God promised eventual restoration “in the last days” (v. 47).

Jeremiah 49 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God’s Judgments on the Nations”

Concerning the Ammonites

1 This is what the Lord says about the Ammonites:

“Does Israel have no sons? Has he no heir?

Why then has their god Milcom taken possession of Gad’s land, and why do his people live in Israel’s towns?

2 The days are coming,” declares the Lord,
“when I will sound the alarm of war against Rabbah of the Ammonites.
It will become a desolate ruin,
and its villages will be burned with fire.
Then Israel will possess the land of its conquerors,”
declares the Lord.

3 Wail, Heshbon, for Ai is destroyed!
Cry out, daughters of Rabbah!
Put on sackcloth and mourn;
run back and forth among the walls,
for Milcom will go into exile,
together with his priests and officials.

4 Why do you boast of your fertile valleys,
your flowing land, O unfaithful daughter?
You trusted in your riches and said,
‘Who will attack me?’

5 But I will bring terror upon you from all those around you,” declares the Lord, the Lord of Heaven’s Armies.
“You will be driven out headlong, with no one to gather the fugitives.

6 Yet afterward I will restore the fortunes of the Ammonites,” declares the Lord.

Concerning Edom

7 This is what the Lord of Heaven’s Armies says:

“Is there no longer wisdom in Teman?
Has counsel vanished from the prudent?
Has their wisdom decayed?

8 Turn and flee! Hide deep in the caves, you who live in Dedan,
for I will bring disaster on Esau
at the time when I punish him.

9 If grape gatherers came to you,
they would leave some gleanings.
If thieves came by night,
they would take only what they wanted.

10 But I have stripped Esau bare,
I have uncovered his hiding places;
he cannot conceal himself.
His children, relatives, and neighbors are all destroyed,
and he himself is no more.

11 Leave your orphans with me; I will protect them.
Your widows can trust in me.”

12 This is what the Lord says:
“If those who do not deserve to drink the cup must drink it,
why should you go unpunished?
You will not go unpunished,
but surely you will drink.

13 I swear by myself,” declares the Lord,
“that Bozrah will become a ruin,
an object of horror, a curse, and a reproach;
all its towns will be in ruins forever.”

14 I have heard a message from the Lord:
An envoy has been sent to the nations to say,
“Gather yourselves together and attack her!
Rise up for battle!”

15 “Now I will make you small among the nations, despised among mankind.

16 The terror you inspire and the pride of your heart have deceived you,
you who live in the clefts of the rocks,
who occupy the heights of the hill.
Though you build your nest as high as the eagle’s,
I will bring you down from there,” declares the Lord.

17 “Edom will become an object of horror;
all who pass by will be appalled and will scoff at all its wounds.

18 As Sodom and Gomorrah were overthrown,
so no one will live there,
nor will anyone dwell in it,” declares the Lord.

19 “Like a lion coming up from the thickets of the Jordan against a secure pastureland,
I will suddenly chase Edom from its land.
Who is the chosen one I will appoint for this?
Who is like me? Who can challenge me?
And what shepherd can stand against me?”

20 Therefore hear the plan of the Lord that he has made against Edom, and the purposes he has devised against the people of Teman:
The weakest of the flock will be dragged away;
their pasture will be appalled because of them.

21 At the sound of their fall the earth will tremble;
their cry will be heard all the way to the Red Sea.

22 Look! An enemy will swoop down like an eagle and spread his wings over Bozrah.
In that day the hearts of Edom’s warriors
will be like the heart of a woman in labor.

Concerning Damascus

23 Concerning Damascus:
Hamath and Arpad are dismayed,
for they have heard bad news.
They are discouraged,
troubled like the restless sea that cannot be quiet.

24 Damascus has become feeble;
she has turned to flee,
panic has gripped her;
anguish and pain have seized her,
like a woman in labor.

25 Why has the city of renown not been abandoned,
the town of my delight?

26 Surely her young men will fall in the streets;
all her soldiers will be silenced in that day,”
declares the Lord of Heaven’s Armies.

27 “I will set fire to the walls of Damascus;
it will consume the fortresses of Ben-Hadad.”

Concerning Kedar and Hazor

28 Concerning Kedar and the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon attacked:
This is what the Lord says:
“Rise up and attack Kedar and destroy the people of the East.

29 Their tents and their flocks will be taken,
their shelters and all their goods,
their camels too will be taken,
and people will shout to them:
‘Terror on every side!’

30 Flee quickly away!
Stay in deep hiding, you who live in Hazor,”
declares the Lord.
“For Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has plotted against you;
he has devised a plan against you.

31 Rise up and attack a nation at ease,
which lives in confidence,” declares the Lord,
“a nation without gates or bars;
they live alone.

32 Their camels will become plunder,
and their large herds will be spoils of war.
I will scatter to the winds those who live in distant places, and I will bring disaster on them from every side,”
declares the Lord.

33 “Hazor will become a haunt of jackals,
a desolate place forever.
No one will live there;
no one will dwell in it.”

Concerning Elam

34 This is the word of the Lord that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning Elam at the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah:

35 This is what the Lord of Heaven’s Armies says:

“I will break the bow of Elam,
the mainstay of their strength.

36 I will bring the four winds from the four quarters of heaven and scatter them to the four winds.

There will not be a nation
where Elam’s exiles do not go.

37 I will terrify Elam before their enemies, before those who seek their lives.

I will bring disaster upon them,
even my fierce anger,” declares the Lord.

“I will pursue them with the sword until I have made an end of them.

38 I will set my throne in Elam and destroy her king and officials,”
declares the Lord.

39 “Yet in the last days,
I will restore the fortunes of Elam,”
declares the Lord.

✠✧ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 49

- Nations are accountable to God – Even Gentile nations like Ammon, Edom, Damascus, Kedar, Hazor, and Elam were judged for pride, cruelty, and idolatry.
- Pride deceives – Edom trusted in its high cliffs, but God promised to bring them down (vv. 16–18).
- False security is fragile – The Ammonites trusted in their wealth and fertile valleys, yet their land fell to invaders (vv. 2–5).

- God is sovereign over history – He raises up Babylon as His instrument of judgment against many nations.
- Hope remains – Even after judgment, God promised restoration for some (Ammon v. 6, Elam v. 39).

Jeremiah 50 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God’s Judgment on Babylon”

Babylon’s Fall Announced

1 This is the word the Lord spoke concerning Babylon and the land of the Chaldeans through Jeremiah the prophet:

2 “Announce and proclaim among the nations.

Lift up a banner and declare it,

do not conceal it but say:

‘Babylon is captured,

Bel is put to shame,

Marduk is shattered.

Her idols are disgraced,

her images are broken in pieces.’

3 A nation from the north will attack her and make her land desolate,

so that no one will live in it;

both people and animals will flee away.”

Israel and Judah Restored

4 “In those days, at that time,” declares the Lord,

“the people of Israel and the people of Judah together will go in tears to seek the Lord their God.

5 They will ask the way to Zion, turning their faces toward it, and they will come and bind themselves to the Lord in an everlasting covenant that will not be forgotten.

6 My people have been lost sheep;

their shepherds have led them astray and caused them to roam on the mountains.

They wandered from mountain to hill and forgot their resting place.

7 All who found them devoured them,
and their enemies said, ‘We are not guilty,
for they sinned against the Lord, their true pasture,
the Lord, the hope of their ancestors.’”

The Nations Attack Babylon

8 “Flee from Babylon;
leave the land of the Babylonians,
and be like the rams leading the flock.

9 For I will stir up and bring against Babylon an alliance of great nations from the north.
They will take up their positions against her,
and from the north she will be captured.
Their arrows will be like skilled warriors,
not returning empty-handed.

10 So the land of the Chaldeans will become plunder;
all who plunder her will have their fill,”
declares the Lord.

Babylon’s Pride and Ruin

11 “Because you rejoice and gloat, you who plunder my inheritance,
because you frolic like a heifer threshing grain
and neigh like stallions,

12 your mother will be utterly ashamed;
she who bore you will be disgraced.
She will be the least of the nations—
a wilderness, a dry land, a desert.

13 Because of the Lord’s anger she will not be inhabited but will be completely desolate.
All who pass Babylon will be appalled and scoff at all her wounds.

14 Line up against Babylon on every side,
all you who draw the bow;

shoot at her, spare no arrows,
for she has sinned against the Lord.

15 Shout against her on every side!
She surrenders,
her towers fall,
her walls are torn down.
This is the Lord's vengeance—take vengeance on her;
do to her as she has done to others.”

Israel's Redemption

17 Israel is like scattered sheep that lions have chased away.
First the king of Assyria devoured them;
then Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon crushed their bones.

18 Therefore this is what the Lord of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says:
“I will punish the king of Babylon and his land
just as I punished the king of Assyria.

19 But I will bring Israel back to their own pasture, and they will graze on Carmel and Bashan;
their appetite will be satisfied
on the hills of Ephraim and Gilead.

20 In those days, at that time,” declares the Lord, “search will be made for Israel's guilt,
but there will be none,
and for the sins of Judah,
but none will be found,
for I will forgive the remnant I spare.”

God's Weapon of Judgment

23 “How broken and shattered is the hammer of the whole earth!
How desolate Babylon has become among the nations!

24 I set a trap for you, Babylon, and you were caught before you knew it.
You were found and captured
because you opposed the Lord.

25 The Lord has opened his armory and brought out the weapons of his wrath, for the Sovereign Lord of Heaven's Armies has work to do in the land of the Babylonians.

26 Come against her from afar;
break open her storehouses;
pile her up like heaps of grain;
destroy her completely;
leave her nothing.

27 Kill all her strong young men;
bring them down to the slaughter.
Woe to them! Their day has come,
the time for them to be punished.”

Babylon the Proud

29 “Summon archers against Babylon, all who draw the bow.
Encircle her;
let no one escape.
Repay her for her deeds;
do to her as she has done.
For she has defied the Lord,
the Holy One of Israel.

30 Therefore her young men will fall in the streets;
all her soldiers will be silenced in that day,”
declares the Lord.

31 “See, I am against you, you arrogant one,” declares the Sovereign Lord of Heaven's Armies, “for your day has come,
the time for you to be punished.

32 The arrogant one will stumble and fall and no one will help her up;
I will kindle a fire in her towns that will consume all who are around her.”

Israel's Strong Redeemer

33 This is what the Lord of Heaven's Armies says:

"The people of Israel are oppressed, and the people of Judah as well.
All their captors hold them fast,
refusing to let them go.

34 Yet their Redeemer is strong;
the Lord of Heaven's Armies is his name.
He will vigorously defend their cause
so that he may bring rest to their land, but unrest to the people of Babylon."

Babylon's Final Doom

38 "A drought will strike her waters,
and they will dry up.
For it is a land of idols,
idols that go mad with terror.

39 So desert creatures and hyenas will live there,
and owls will dwell there.
It will never again be inhabited or lived in from generation to generation.

40 As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah along with their neighboring towns," declares the Lord,
"so no one will live there;
no one will dwell in it."

41 "Look! An army is coming from the north;
a great nation and many kings are being stirred up from the ends of the earth.

42 They carry bows and spears;
they are cruel and without mercy.
They sound like the roaring sea
as they ride on horses;
they come prepared for battle against you, Daughter Babylon.

43 The king of Babylon has heard reports about them,
and his hands hang limp.
Anguish has gripped him,
pain like that of a woman in labor."

God's Final Word Against Babylon

44 "Like a lion coming up from the Jordan's thickets to a rich pastureland,
I will chase Babylon from its land in an instant.
Who is the chosen one I will appoint for this?
Who is like me? And who can challenge me?
What shepherd can stand against me?"

45 Therefore hear what the Lord has planned against Babylon, what he has purposed against the land of the Chaldeans:
The young of the flock will be dragged away;
their pasture will be appalled because of them.

46 At the sound of Babylon's capture the earth will tremble;
its cry will be heard among the nations.

✠ Key Lessons from Jeremiah 50

- God judges empires – Even mighty Babylon, "the hammer of the whole earth," was destined to fall (v. 23).
- Sin brings downfall – Babylon's pride and cruelty invited God's vengeance (vv. 11, 29–32).
- God remembers His people – Though Israel and Judah were scattered, God promised restoration and forgiveness (vv. 4–5, 19–20).
- The Redeemer is strong – Israel's deliverance comes not by their strength, but by the Lord of Heaven's Armies (v. 34).
- Judgment and hope are intertwined – Babylon's destruction cleared the way for God's covenant people to return and rebuild.

Jeremiah 51 – Crawford Standard Bible

"The Final Word Against Babylon"

A Destroying Wind

1 This is what the Lord says: "I am stirring up a destroying wind against Babylon and against those who rise up against Me.

2 I will send winnowers to Babylon; they will fan her and empty her land. In the day of disaster they will surround her.

3 Against every archer, let the bow be bent; spare none of her young men—destroy her entire army.

4 The slain will fall in the land of the Chaldeans, pierced in her streets.

5 For Israel and Judah have not been forsaken by their God—the Lord of Hosts—even though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel.”

Flee the City Under Judgment

6 “Flee from Babylon! Save your lives! Do not be caught up in her guilt, for this is the time of the Lord’s vengeance; He will repay her.

7 Babylon was a golden cup in the Lord’s hand, making the whole earth drunk; the nations drank her wine—therefore they went mad.

8 Babylon has suddenly fallen and is shattered. Wail for her! Bring balm for her pain—perhaps she might be healed.”

9 “We tried to heal Babylon, but she cannot be healed. Let us each return to our own land, for her judgment reaches to the heavens, it rises to the skies.”

10 “The Lord has brought forth our vindication. Come, let us tell in Zion what the Lord our God has done.”

The Medes Stirred Up

11 “Sharpen the arrows; lift up the shields! The Lord has roused the spirit of the kings of the Medes, for His plan is to destroy Babylon—it is the Lord’s vengeance, vengeance for His temple.

12 Raise a banner against Babylon’s walls! Strengthen the guard, set the watch, prepare ambushes. For the Lord has both planned and accomplished what He spoke against the people of Babylon.

13 You who dwell by many waters, rich in treasures, your end has come; the measure of your greed is full.

14 The Lord of Hosts has sworn by Himself: ‘I will fill you with invaders like locusts, and they will shout triumph over you.’”

The Creator vs. Lifeless Idols

15 He made the earth by His power, established the world by His wisdom, and stretched out the heavens by His understanding.

16 At His voice the waters roar in the heavens; He makes clouds rise from the ends of the earth. He makes lightning with the rain and brings the wind from His storehouses.

17 Every human is brutish in knowledge; every goldsmith is shamed by idols, for his cast image is a lie—there is no breath in them.

18 They are vanity, works of delusion; when their reckoning comes, they perish.

19 But Jacob’s Portion is not like these; He is the Maker of all things; Israel is the tribe of His inheritance—the Lord of Hosts is His name.

God's War Club

20 "You are My war club, My weapons for battle: with you I shatter nations and destroy kingdoms;
21 with you I shatter horse and rider; with you I shatter chariot and charioteer;
22 with you I shatter man and woman; old and young; young man and maiden;
23 shepherd and flock; farmer and oxen; governors and officials.
24 I will repay Babylon and all who live in Chaldea for all the evil they did to Zion—before your eyes," declares the Lord.

The "Destroying Mountain"

25 "Behold, I am against you, O destroying mountain, you who destroy the whole earth," declares the Lord. "I will stretch out My hand against you, roll you down from the crags, and make you a burned-out mountain.
26 No stone will be taken from you for a cornerstone or foundation; you will be desolate forever," says the Lord.

Nations Summoned Against Her

27 "Raise a banner in the land; blow the trumpet among the nations; summon the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz; appoint a marshal against her; send up horses like a swarm of locusts.
28 Prepare the nations—especially the kings of the Medes, their governors and all their officials, and all the lands they rule.
29 The land trembles and writhes, for the Lord's purposes against Babylon stand—to make the land a desolation without inhabitant."

Babylon's Defenses Collapse

30 "Babylon's warriors have stopped fighting; they stay in their strongholds. Their strength has failed; they have become like women. Her dwellings are set ablaze; her bars are broken.
31 Courier runs to meet courier, messenger to meet messenger, to tell the king of Babylon that his city is captured from end to end, 32 that the river crossings are seized, the reed marshes burned with fire, and the soldiers are terrified.
33 For this is what the Lord of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'Daughter Babylon is like a threshing floor at the time it is trampled; yet a little while and the time of her harvest will come.'"

Zion's Complaint, God's Answer

34 "Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has devoured me, crushed me; he has made me an empty vessel. He swallowed me like a monster, filled his belly with my delicacies, and cast me out.
35 'May the violence done to me and my flesh be upon Babylon,' says the inhabitant of Zion; 'and my blood upon the Chaldeans,' says Jerusalem.”

36 Therefore the Lord says: “I will champion your cause and take vengeance for you. I will dry up her sea and make her springs run dry.

37 Babylon will become heaps of ruins, a haunt of jackals, an object of horror and scorn, without inhabitant.”

The Cup Returned to Babylon

38 “They roar together like lions; they growl like lion cubs.

39 While they are heated, I will set out their drink and make them drunk, so that they may exult—then sleep a perpetual sleep and not wake,” declares the Lord.

40 “I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams and goats.”

Sheshach (Babylon) Taken

41 “How Sheshach is taken! The praise of the whole earth seized! How Babylon has become a horror among the nations!

42 The sea has risen over Babylon; she is covered by its roaring waves.

43 Her towns have become a desolation—a dry land, a wilderness where no one lives and through which no one passes.

44 I will punish Bel in Babylon, make him vomit what he has swallowed. Nations will no longer stream to him; even the wall of Babylon will fall.”

Come Out of Her

45 “My people, come out of her! Each of you save your life from the Lord’s fierce anger.

46 Do not let your heart grow faint because of the rumors heard in the land—one year a rumor, then another; violence in the land, ruler against ruler.

47 The days are coming when I will punish Babylon’s idols; her whole land will be disgraced, and her slain will fall within her.

48 Then heaven and earth and all that is in them will shout for joy over Babylon, for out of the north destroyers will come against her,” declares the Lord.

49 “As Babylon caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon will fall the slain of all the earth.”

Remember the Lord; Shame for Profaning His House

50 “You who have escaped the sword, go, do not linger! Remember the Lord from a distant land, and let Jerusalem come to mind.

51 We are disgraced, for we have heard reproach; shame covers our faces, for foreigners have entered the holy places of the Lord’s house.

52 Therefore the days are coming,” declares the Lord, “when I will punish her idols, and throughout her land the wounded will groan.

53 Even if Babylon ascends to the heavens and fortifies her lofty stronghold, destroyers will come from Me,” declares the Lord.

The Crash of Babylon

54 “A cry comes from Babylon, great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans.

55 For the Lord is laying Babylon waste and silencing her great noise. Waves of foes roar like mighty waters; the sound of their voice resounds.

56 For a destroyer comes against Babylon; her warriors are captured, their bows broken. For the Lord is a God of retribution—He will surely repay.

57 I will make her princes and wise men drunk, her governors, officials, and warriors; they will sleep a perpetual sleep and not wake,” declares the King—whose name is the Lord of Hosts.

58 This is what the Lord of Hosts says: “Babylon’s broad walls will be leveled to the ground, and her high gates burned with fire; the peoples exhaust themselves for nothing, and the nations’ labor is only fuel for the flames.”

Seraiah’s Scroll: The Sign-Act

59 This is the word Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah son of Neriah (son of Maaseiah) when he went with King Zedekiah of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. Seraiah served as quartermaster.

60 Jeremiah wrote in a book all the disasters that would come upon Babylon—all these words written about Babylon.

61 Jeremiah said to Seraiah, “When you arrive in Babylon, see that you read all these words aloud, 62 and say, ‘Lord, You have spoken against this place to cut it off, so that none will remain—neither human nor animal—for it shall be desolate forever.’

63 When you finish reading this scroll, tie a stone to it and throw it into the Euphrates,

64 and say, ‘So will Babylon sink and not rise again because of the disaster I will bring on her. Her people will grow weary.’”

Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

Key Lessons from Jeremiah 51

- God repays injustice. Babylon, once God’s rod of discipline, now drinks the cup she made others drink (vv. 7, 34–36, 56).
- Idols are empty; the Creator reigns. The chapter contrasts lifeless images with the living Maker of heaven and earth (vv. 15–19).

- Come out from corruption. God’s people are urged to flee Babylon’s judgment and remember the Lord (vv. 6, 45, 50).
- God uses nations—but is not bound to them. He stirs the Medes and other kingdoms as instruments of His purposes (vv. 11, 27–29).
- His word stands. The sign of the scroll sunk in the Euphrates dramatizes Babylon’s irreversible fall (vv. 63–64).

Jeremiah 52 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Fall of Jerusalem and the Exile to Babylon”

Zedekiah’s Reign and Rebellion

1 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah from Libnah.
 2 He did what was evil in the sight of the Lord, just as Jehoiakim had done.
 3 Because of the Lord’s anger this happened in Jerusalem and Judah, until He finally cast them out of His presence. Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

The Siege of Jerusalem

4 In the ninth year of Zedekiah’s reign, on the tenth day of the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came with his whole army against Jerusalem. They encamped around the city and built siege works all around it.
 5 The city was under siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.
 6 By the ninth day of the fourth month the famine in the city had become so severe there was no food for the people.
 7 Then the city was broken through, and all the soldiers fled by night through the gate between the two walls near the king’s garden, even though the Chaldeans had surrounded the city. They fled toward the Arabah.
 8 But the Babylonian army pursued King Zedekiah and overtook him in the plains of Jericho. All his soldiers were scattered.
 9 They captured the king and brought him to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he passed sentence on him.
 10 The king of Babylon killed Zedekiah’s sons before his eyes, and also killed all the officials of Judah at Riblah.
 11 He then put out Zedekiah’s eyes, bound him with bronze chains, took him to Babylon, and kept him in prison until the day of his death.

The Temple and City Destroyed

12 On the tenth day of the fifth month, in the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuzaradan, captain of the guard, who served the king of Babylon, entered Jerusalem.

13 He burned the temple of the Lord, the king's palace, and all the houses of Jerusalem—every important building was set on fire.

14 The whole Babylonian army under the captain of the guard broke down all the walls around Jerusalem.

15 Nebuzaradan carried into exile some of the poorest of the people, those who had remained in the city, and those who had gone over to the king of Babylon, along with the rest of the craftsmen.

16 But he left some of the poorest people of the land to work the vineyards and fields.

The Temple Treasures Taken

17 The Babylonians broke up the bronze pillars, the movable stands, and the great bronze Sea that were in the temple of the Lord, and they carried all the bronze to Babylon.

18 They also took away the pots, shovels, wick trimmers, bowls, spoons, and all the bronze articles used in temple service.

19 The captain of the guard also took the basins, firepans, bowls, pots, lampstands, spoons, and cups—what was of gold in gold and what was of silver in silver.

20 As for the two pillars, the one Sea, and the twelve bronze bulls under the stands, which King Solomon had made for the temple of the Lord, the weight of the bronze of all these articles was beyond calculation.

21 Each pillar was eighteen cubits high and twelve cubits in circumference; it was four fingers thick, and hollow.

22 The bronze capital on top of one pillar was five cubits high and decorated with a network and pomegranates all around. The second pillar was the same.

23 There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides, and a hundred pomegranates in all around the network.

Leaders Executed

24 The captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the second priest, and the three doorkeepers.

25 Of those still in the city, he took an officer in charge of the fighting men, seven royal advisors who were found in the city, the secretary of the army who enlisted the people of the land, and sixty of the common people who were found in the city.

26 Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.

27 There at Riblah, in the land of Hamath, the king of Babylon had them executed. So Judah was carried away into exile out of its land.

The Numbers Deported

28 These are the people Nebuchadnezzar carried into exile: in the seventh year, 3,023 Jews;
29 in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar, 832 people from Jerusalem;
30 in the twenty-third year of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took 745 Jews into exile—for a total of 4,600.

Jehoiachin Released in Babylon

31 In the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin king of Judah, on the twenty-fifth day of the twelfth month, Evil-Merodach king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, released Jehoiachin king of Judah and brought him out of prison.
32 He spoke kindly to him and gave him a seat of honor higher than those of the other kings who were with him in Babylon.
33 So Jehoiachin put aside his prison clothes and for the rest of his life ate regularly at the king's table.
34 Day by day, the king of Babylon gave Jehoiachin a regular allowance as long as he lived, until the day of his death.

Key Lessons from Jeremiah 52

- Sin brings destruction. Zedekiah's rebellion against God and Babylon led to Jerusalem's fall, famine, and devastation (vv. 2–11).
- God keeps His warnings. Everything Jeremiah prophesied came to pass: the city, temple, and leaders were destroyed (vv. 12–27).
- The temple is not a guarantee. Though it was glorious, even Solomon's temple was burned—God desires obedience above buildings (vv. 13–23).
- God preserves a remnant. Some poor of the land were left, and even Jehoiachin was shown mercy at the end (vv. 16, 31–34).
- Judgment is not the final word. Even in wrath, God leaves hope of restoration, pointing to future promises of return and redemption.

📖 Introduction to the Book of Lamentations

“How lonely sits the city that was full of people!” – Lamentations
1:1

Title and Meaning

The English title Lamentations comes from the Latin Lamenta, meaning “weeping” or “dirges.” In Hebrew, the book is traditionally called Ekah, meaning “How,” taken from its opening word: “How lonely sits the city...” The title reflects the nature of the book: a collection of poetic laments mourning the destruction of Jerusalem in 586 BC by the Babylonians.

Lamentations is a funeral song for a fallen city — Jerusalem, once glorious, now devastated. Yet woven into the grief are glimpses of faith, hope, and God’s mercy.

Author and Date

Lamentations is traditionally attributed to the prophet Jeremiah, known as the “weeping prophet.” While the book itself does not name its author, Jewish and Christian tradition strongly connect it to Jeremiah, who witnessed firsthand the fall of Jerusalem, the burning of the temple, and the exile of God’s people.

The events described place its writing shortly after 586 BC, in the immediate aftermath of Jerusalem’s destruction.

Purpose of Lamentations

Lamentations was written to:

- Express the deep grief of God’s people over the destruction of Jerusalem and the temple.
- Provide a voice for suffering and pain in the aftermath of judgment.
- Teach God’s people to grieve honestly, yet turn their eyes back to God in hope.
- Affirm that sin brings judgment, but God’s steadfast love endures.

It is both a national funeral dirge and a devotional book for suffering hearts.

Structure of Lamentations

Lamentations is composed of five poetic laments (chapters), each functioning as an individual song, but together forming a unified collection.

Ch. 1 – Jerusalem’s Desolation

The city mourns her ruin; her lovers have betrayed her.

Ch. 2 – God’s Anger Against Zion

The Lord has poured out His wrath and destroyed the temple.

Ch. 3 – A Personal Lament and Hope

Jeremiah speaks as a suffering man, yet declares: “Great is Your faithfulness.”

📖 Ch. 4 – The Severity of the Siege

The horrors of famine and destruction are recounted in painful detail.

📖 Ch. 5 – A Prayer for Restoration

The community cries out for God’s mercy and renewal.

Chapters 1–4 are written as acrostic poems (each verse beginning with successive letters of the Hebrew alphabet), showing deliberate structure even in sorrow. Chapter 5 is a prayer of 22 verses (matching the Hebrew alphabet) but without acrostic form, showing raw grief without order.

Major Themes

- God’s Judgment on Sin – Jerusalem fell because of persistent rebellion against God.
 - The Reality of Suffering – Lamentations gives voice to grief, showing it is not unspiritual to weep.
 - The Faithfulness of God – In the darkest chapter (3), hope shines: “The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases” (3:22–23).
 - Repentance and Prayer – The book calls the people to turn back to God in humility.
 - Hope Beyond Despair – Even in judgment, God’s mercy is greater, pointing to future restoration.
-

Why Lamentations Matters Today

Lamentations teaches us how to process grief, pain, and national tragedy with honesty before God. It reminds us that:

- Sin has real consequences.
- It is right to grieve losses deeply.
- God’s mercies are new every morning.
- Even when everything falls apart, hope can be found in God’s character.

For modern readers, it provides words for seasons of suffering and a model for clinging to God in hopelessness.

Key Verse

“The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases; his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.” – Lamentations 3:22–23

This verse captures the heart of Lamentations: even in sorrow and judgment, God’s mercy is the anchor of hope.

Lamentations 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Jerusalem’s Sorrow and Desolation”

The Lonely City

1 How deserted lies the once-great city, once filled with people! She was like a queen among the nations, but now she is like a widow. Once she ruled others, but now she has become a slave.

2 She weeps bitterly at night, with tears running down her cheeks. None of her former lovers comfort her. All her friends have turned against her; they have become her enemies.

Judah in Exile

3 Judah has gone into exile, suffering greatly and serving as a slave in foreign lands. She finds no rest; all who chased her caught her in the midst of her distress.

4 The roads to Zion mourn, for no one comes to her appointed festivals anymore. Her gates are deserted, her priests groan, her young women grieve, and she herself is bitter.

5 Her enemies have become her masters; her foes prosper. The Lord has brought grief upon her because of her many sins. Her children have been taken captive by the enemy.

6 The beauty of Jerusalem has vanished. Her princes are like starving deer that have no strength and flee without finding pasture.

Jerusalem’s Guilt and Suffering

7 In the days of her misery and wandering, Jerusalem remembers all the treasures she once had. But now her people have fallen into enemy hands, and no one helps her. Her enemies mock her downfall.

8 Jerusalem has sinned greatly, and so she has become unclean. Those who once honored her now despise her, because they have seen her nakedness and shame. She groans and turns her face away.

9 Her uncleanness clings to her clothes; she did not think about her future. She has fallen in an astonishing way, with no one to comfort her. “Lord, see my suffering,” she cries, “for the enemy has triumphed!”

Harsh Captivity

10 The enemy reached out his hand to seize all her treasures. She has seen foreigners enter her sanctuary—those whom You commanded should never enter Your assembly.

11 All her people groan as they search for bread. They trade their treasures for food to keep themselves alive. “Look, Lord, and see how worthless I have become.”

The Cry of Jerusalem

12 “Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by? Look around and see! Is there any suffering like my suffering, which the Lord brought upon me in the day of His fierce anger?”

13 From above He sent fire into my bones; He spread a net for my feet and turned me back. He left me devastated and faint all day long.

14 My sins have been tied around my neck like a heavy yoke. They have been placed on me by the Lord's hands, and He has given me over to those I cannot withstand.

15 The Lord has rejected all my mighty warriors; He called an army against me to crush my young men. In His winepress the Lord has trampled the Virgin Daughter of Judah.

Crushed Spirit

16 "This is why I weep. My eyes overflow with tears. No one is near to comfort me or to restore my spirit. My children are helpless, because the enemy has prevailed."

17 Zion reaches out her hands, but no one comforts her. The Lord has commanded that her neighbors become her enemies. Jerusalem has become unclean among them.

18 "The Lord is right, for I have rebelled against Him. Listen, all you peoples; look at my suffering! My young men and women have gone into captivity.

19 I called to my lovers, but they betrayed me. My priests and elders perished in the city while searching for food to keep themselves alive.

Prayer for Justice

20 "Look, Lord, how distressed I am! I am in torment within; my heart is broken, for I have been rebellious. Outside the sword takes the lives of my children, inside there is only death.

21 People have heard me groaning, but there is no one to comfort me. All my enemies have heard of my trouble, and they are glad You have done it. But bring the day You have announced, so they may be like me.

22 Let all their evil come before You; deal with them as You dealt with me because of all my sins. My groans are many, and my heart is faint."

Key Lessons from Lamentations 1

- Sin leads to sorrow – Jerusalem's fall came because of her rebellion and guilt (vv. 5, 8, 18).
- False friends cannot save – those she trusted abandoned her in her time of need (vv. 2, 19).
- God's judgment is righteous – the people admit the Lord is just in bringing punishment (v. 18).
- Suffering points us back to God – Jerusalem cries out directly to the Lord, asking Him to see and act (vv. 9, 11, 20).
- Hope remains through prayer – even in despair, the chapter ends with prayer for God to bring justice and restoration (vv. 21–22).

Lamentations 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

"The Lord's Anger Against Jerusalem"

God's Judgment on Zion

1 The Lord has covered Jerusalem with a cloud of His anger. He has thrown down the beauty of Israel from heaven to earth. On the day of His wrath He did not remember His footstool.

2 Without pity the Lord destroyed the homes of Jacob. In His wrath He tore down the fortresses of Judah and brought them to the ground, dishonoring both kingdom and princes.

3 In fierce anger He cut off Israel's strength. He withdrew His protecting hand when the enemy came. Like a fire blazing all around, He burned against Jacob.

4 He bent His bow like an enemy. He stood with His right hand ready like a foe. He killed all that was precious to see, pouring out His fury like fire on the people of Zion.

5 The Lord became like an enemy. He swallowed up Israel and destroyed her palaces and strongholds. He increased mourning and sorrow for the people of Judah.

God Rejects His House

6 He tore down His temple as easily as a garden hut. He destroyed the meeting places. The Lord caused the festivals and Sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion. In His anger He rejected both king and priest.

7 The Lord abandoned His altar and despised His sanctuary. He handed Jerusalem's walls over to her enemies, who shouted in the house of the Lord as on a festival day.

8 The Lord planned to destroy the wall of Jerusalem. He measured it out and did not stop His hand from tearing it down. Ramparts and walls mourned together as they crumbled.

9 Her gates sank into the ground; He broke and destroyed their bars. Her king and princes are exiled among the nations. The law is no more, and her prophets receive no visions from the Lord.

The People's Grief

10 The elders of Zion sit silently on the ground. They throw dust on their heads and wear sackcloth. The young women of Jerusalem bow their heads low in sorrow.

11 My eyes are worn out from weeping. I am deeply troubled within. My heart is poured out on the ground because my people are destroyed. Children and infants faint in the streets.

12 They cry to their mothers, "Where is bread and wine?" as they collapse like the wounded in the city streets, breathing their last in their mothers' arms.

A Wound Beyond Healing

13 What can I say for you? With what can I compare you, daughter Jerusalem? Your wound is as deep as the sea—who can heal you?

14 Your prophets gave you false visions. They did not expose your sins to turn back your captivity. Instead, they spoke lies and foolish things that led to your exile.

15 All who pass by clap their hands at you. They hiss and shake their heads at Jerusalem, saying, "Is this the city called the perfection of beauty, the joy of the whole earth?"

16 All your enemies open their mouths against you. They hiss, grind their teeth, and say, "We have swallowed her up. This is the day we longed for; now we have it, we have seen it."

God's Plan Fulfilled

17 The Lord has done what He planned. He has carried out His word spoken long ago. He destroyed without pity and let the enemy rejoice over you. He has lifted up the strength of your foes.

18 Their hearts cried out to the Lord: "O wall of Zion, let your tears flow like a river day and night. Give yourself no rest; let your eyes never stop crying."

19 "Arise, cry out in the night, at the beginning of the watches. Pour out your heart like water before the Lord. Lift up your hands to Him for the lives of your children who faint with hunger at every street corner."

A Prayer of Desperation

20 "Look, Lord, and consider: Who have You ever treated like this? Should women eat their own children, the little ones they cared for? Should priests and prophets be killed in the sanctuary of the Lord?

21 Young and old lie dead in the streets. My young men and women have fallen by the sword. You killed them in Your anger without mercy.

22 You summoned terrors against me on every side, as though to a festival. On the day of Your anger no one escaped or survived. Those I once held and raised, my enemy has destroyed."

Key Lessons from Lamentations 2

- God's anger is real – When His people continually rebel, He withdraws His protection, allowing destruction to fall (vv. 1–5).
- Empty religion cannot save – God rejected the temple, the altar, and the feasts when His people refused to obey Him (vv. 6–7).
- False teachers mislead – The prophets gave lies instead of truth, leading the people into greater ruin (v. 14).
- Sin brings shame – Once honored as "the joy of the whole earth," Jerusalem became an object of ridicule (vv. 15–16).
- Crying out to God is the only hope – In the midst of devastation, the call is to pray, repent, and pour out the heart before the Lord (vv. 18–22).

Lamentations 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

"Hope in the Midst of Affliction"

The Suffering Servant

1 I am the man who has seen affliction under the rod of God's anger.

2 He has driven me into darkness, not into light.

3 All day long His hand turns against me.

4 He has caused my flesh and skin to waste away; He has broken my bones.
5 He has surrounded me with bitterness and hardship.
6 He has put me in dark places, like those long dead.
7 He walled me in so I cannot escape; He made my chains heavy.
8 Even when I cry out and plead, He shuts out my prayer.
9 He has blocked my path with stone walls and made my ways crooked.

God's Fierce Opposition

10 He has been like a bear waiting in ambush, like a lion in hiding.
11 He dragged me from the path and tore me apart, leaving me desolate.
12 He bent His bow and set me as the target for His arrows.
13 He shot the arrows of His quiver into my heart.
14 I became a joke to my people; they mock me in their songs all day.
15 He has filled me with bitterness and made me drink the cup of wormwood.
16 He broke my teeth on gravel; He trampled me in the dust.
17 Peace has been stripped away from me; I have forgotten what prosperity is.
18 I said, "My strength and my hope from the Lord are gone."

A Flicker of Hope

19 I remember my suffering, the bitterness and the gall.
20 My soul still remembers and is humbled within me.
21 Yet this I call to mind, and therefore I have hope:
22 Because of the Lord's mercy we are not consumed, for His compassions never fail.
23 They are new every morning; great is Your faithfulness.
24 I say to myself, "The Lord is my portion; therefore I will hope in Him."

God's Goodness and Discipline

25 The Lord is good to those who wait for Him, to those who seek Him.
26 It is good to quietly hope for the salvation of the Lord.
27 It is good for a man to bear the yoke while he is young.
28 Let him sit alone in silence, for the Lord has laid it on him.
29 Let him bow his face to the dust—there may still be hope.
30 Let him offer his cheek to the one who strikes him and be filled with disgrace.
31 For the Lord will not reject forever.
32 Though He brings grief, He will also show compassion, so great is His mercy.
33 He does not willingly bring affliction or grief to anyone.

God's Justice

34 To crush prisoners underfoot,
35 To deny a man justice before the Most High,
36 To twist a person's case—these things the Lord does not approve.

37 Who can speak and make it happen unless the Lord commands it?
38 Do not both good and bad come from the mouth of the Most High?
39 Why should anyone living complain when punished for their sins?

A Call to Repentance

40 Let us examine and test our ways, and let us return to the Lord.
41 Let us lift up our hearts and our hands to God in heaven.
42 We have sinned and rebelled, and You have not forgiven.

Deep Lament

43 You have covered Yourself with anger and pursued us; You have killed without pity.
44 You have wrapped Yourself in a cloud so that our prayers cannot get through.
45 You made us scum and garbage among the nations.
46 All our enemies open their mouths against us.
47 Panic and traps have come upon us—ruin and destruction.
48 My eyes flow with rivers of tears for the destruction of my people.
49 My eyes will keep weeping without rest
50 until the Lord looks down from heaven and sees.
51 What I see brings grief to my soul because of all the daughters of my city.

A Prayer for Deliverance

52 My enemies hunted me like a bird without cause.
53 They tried to end my life in a pit and threw stones at me.
54 Water rose above my head, and I thought, “I am finished.”
55 But I called on Your name, Lord, from the depths of the pit.
56 You heard my cry—do not close Your ear to my prayer.
57 You came near when I called You and said, “Do not fear.”
58 Lord, You defended my case; You redeemed my life.

A Plea for Justice

59 Lord, You have seen the wrong done to me; uphold my cause.
60 You have seen their vengeance, all their plots against me.
61 You have heard their insults, Lord, and all their schemes against me.
62 The lips and whispers of my enemies are against me all day long.
63 Look at them! Whether they sit or rise, I am the subject of their mocking songs.
64 Repay them, Lord, according to what they have done.
65 Give them hardened hearts; let Your curse be upon them.
66 Pursue and destroy them in Your anger from under the heavens of the Lord.

Key Lessons from Lamentations 3

- Suffering can feel overwhelming – The writer describes deep affliction, despair, and even unanswered prayer (vv. 1–18).
- God’s mercy is greater than judgment – Even in sorrow, he finds hope in the Lord’s unfailing love and daily compassion (vv. 21–24).
- Waiting on God is good – Patience, humility, and trust bring renewal and salvation (vv. 25–30).
- God’s justice is sure – He does not approve of injustice, and nothing happens without His command (vv. 34–38).
- Repentance is needed – The call is to examine our ways, confess sin, and return to the Lord (vv. 40–42).
- God hears the cry of His people – Even from the lowest pit, prayer reaches Him, and He answers with comfort: “Do not fear” (vv. 55–57).

Lamentations 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Fall of Jerusalem’s Glory”

The Glory Fades

1 How the gold has grown dim! The finest gold has lost its shine. The sacred stones are scattered at every street corner.

2 The precious children of Zion, once valued like pure gold, are now treated like clay jars made by a potter’s hands.

3 Even sea creatures nurse their young, but my people have become cruel, like wild ostriches in the desert.

4 The tongue of the thirsty infant sticks to the roof of its mouth. Little children beg for bread, but no one gives them any.

5 Those who once ate delicacies now lie starving in the streets. Those who wore fine scarlet now sit among the trash heaps.

Judgment Greater than Sodom

6 The punishment of my people is worse than the punishment of Sodom, which was destroyed in a moment without human hands.

7 Once her Nazirites were purer than snow, whiter than milk, more radiant than rubies, with beauty like sapphires.

8 But now their faces are darker than coal; they are unrecognizable in the streets. Their skin shrinks tight on their bones, dried up like wood.

9 Better are those killed by the sword than those who waste away with hunger, slowly dying from lack of food.

10 Compassionate women have cooked their own children; they became their food when my people were destroyed.

God's Anger Poured Out

11 The Lord has finished pouring out His fury. He has unleashed His fierce anger. He set a fire in Zion that consumed her very foundations.

12 Neither the kings of the earth nor the people of the world could believe that enemies would enter the gates of Jerusalem.

13 But it happened because of the sins of her prophets and the guilt of her priests, who shed the blood of the innocent in the city.

14 They wandered the streets like blind men, defiled with blood, so no one dared touch their clothes.

15 People shouted at them, "Away! Unclean! Do not touch!" So they fled and wandered among the nations, who said, "They cannot stay here any longer."

16 The Lord Himself has scattered them. He no longer regards them. The people show no respect for priests or elders.

No Help to be Found

17 Still we looked for help, watching for a nation that could not save us. Our eyes grew weary waiting in vain.

18 Our enemies tracked our every step so we could not walk in the streets. Our end was near; our days were finished, for our doom had come.

19 Our pursuers were swifter than eagles. They chased us over mountains and ambushed us in the wilderness.

20 The Lord's anointed, our very life's breath, was captured in their traps—he of whom we had said, "Under his shadow we will live among the nations."

Hope Beyond Judgment

21 Rejoice while you can, O daughter of Edom, you who live in the land of Uz. But the cup of judgment will pass to you also; you will drink it and expose your nakedness.

22 O daughter of Zion, your punishment is finished. He will not exile you again. But He will punish your sin, O daughter of Edom; He will expose your guilt.

Key Lessons from Lamentations 4

- Earthly glory fades – The people once compared to gold became like broken pottery (vv. 1–2).
- Sin brings harsh consequences – The suffering of Jerusalem was even greater than Sodom's because it came after years of warning (v. 6).
- Leaders bear great responsibility – The corruption of prophets and priests helped bring ruin on the nation (vv. 13–14).
- False hope cannot save – Trusting in foreign nations brought no deliverance (v. 17).

- God’s justice is complete – Zion’s punishment would not last forever, but Edom’s sins would be exposed in their time (vv. 21–22).

Lamentations 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Prayer for Restoration”

Remember Our Suffering

- 1 Remember, Lord, what has happened to us. Look and see our disgrace.
- 2 Our inheritance has been given to strangers, our homes to foreigners.
- 3 We are orphans without fathers; our mothers are like widows.
- 4 We must buy the water we drink, and even our firewood comes at a price.
- 5 We are worn out under constant oppression; we labor but find no rest.
- 6 To get food we stretched out our hands to Egypt and Assyria.

The Burden of Sin

- 7 Our ancestors sinned, but they are gone—and now we bear their punishment.
- 8 Slaves rule over us, and no one rescues us from their hands.
- 9 We risk our lives to get bread, with the sword waiting for us in the wilderness.
- 10 Our skin is hot like an oven because of the raging famine.
- 11 Women have been violated in Zion, and young girls in the towns of Judah.
- 12 Princes have been hung by their hands; elders are shown no respect.
- 13 Young men are forced to grind grain; boys stagger under loads of wood.
- 14 The elders no longer sit at the city gate; young men no longer play their music.
- 15 Joy has left our hearts; our dancing has turned to mourning.
- 16 The crown has fallen from our head. Woe to us, for we have sinned!

A Plea for Renewal

- 17 Because of this our hearts are weak, our eyes grow dim.
- 18 Mount Zion lies desolate, and foxes prowl over it.
- 19 But You, Lord, remain forever; Your throne lasts through all generations.
- 20 Why do You forget us so long? Why do You forsake us for so many days?
- 21 Restore us to Yourself, Lord, and we will return. Renew our days as in the past.
- 22 Or have You completely rejected us? Are You angry with us beyond measure?

Key Lessons from Lamentations 5

- Sin leaves deep consequences – the nation suffers shame, loss, and hardship because of rebellion against God (vv. 1–18).
- Leaders failed, families broken – society collapsed: princes dishonored, elders silenced, mothers widowed, children enslaved (vv. 11–14).

- Joy fades without God – mourning replaced dancing, and the crown of honor fell from their heads because of sin (vv. 15–16).
- God’s throne is eternal – even when everything collapses, God still reigns and His power never ends (v. 19).
- The right prayer in sorrow – true hope comes by asking God to turn us back to Him and renew our days, knowing His mercy is our only chance for restoration (vv. 20–22).

Introduction to the Book of Ezekiel

“Then I saw the glory of the God of Israel coming from the east. His voice was like the roar of rushing waters, and the land was radiant with his glory.” – Ezekiel 43:2

Title and Meaning

The name Ezekiel comes from the Hebrew name Yehezkel, meaning “God strengthens” or “God makes strong.” This title reflects the prophet’s calling to bring strength and hope to God’s people in the midst of judgment and exile. Ezekiel’s ministry came during one of Israel’s darkest periods — the Babylonian captivity.

Author and Date

The book is attributed to Ezekiel, son of Buzi, a priest taken into exile during the second deportation to Babylon in 597 BC (Ezekiel 1:1–3). His prophetic ministry began around 593 BC and continued for over 20 years until about 571 BC. Ezekiel lived and ministered among the exiles by the Kebar River in Babylon, speaking God’s word both to the captives in Babylon and to those still left in Jerusalem.

Purpose of Ezekiel

Ezekiel’s prophecy serves multiple purposes:

- To announce God’s judgment against Jerusalem and the nations because of sin and idolatry.
 - To call the people to repentance, showing that sin has consequences but God is righteous in His actions.
 - To reveal God’s glory and sovereignty, reminding Israel that even in exile, the Lord reigns over all nations.
 - To offer hope of restoration, with promises of a new covenant, a new heart, a return to the land, and the vision of God’s glory filling a new temple.
-

Structure of Ezekiel

The book can be divided into four major sections:

1. Ezekiel's Call and Vision of God's Glory (Chapters 1–3)

- The vision of the throne chariot (Ch. 1)
- Ezekiel's prophetic call and commission (Ch. 2–3)

2. Oracles of Judgment Against Jerusalem and Judah (Chapters 4–24)

- Symbolic actions of judgment (Ch. 4–7)
- The abominations in the temple and God's glory departing (Ch. 8–11)
- Parables and warnings of destruction (Ch. 12–24)

3. Oracles of Judgment Against Foreign Nations (Chapters 25–32)

- Against Ammon, Moab, Edom, Philistia (Ch. 25)
- Against Tyre and Sidon (Ch. 26–28)
- Against Egypt (Ch. 29–32)

4. Oracles of Hope and Restoration (Chapters 33–48)

- The watchman's call and personal responsibility (Ch. 33)
- Promise of new shepherds and a new covenant (Ch. 34–37)
- The vision of Gog and Magog (Ch. 38–39)
- The vision of the new temple and God's glory returning (Ch. 40–48)

Major Themes

- God's Glory: His presence departs from the temple (Ch. 10–11) but later returns in glory (Ch. 43).
 - Judgment for Sin: Both Israel and the nations face consequences for rebellion.
 - Individual Responsibility: Each person is accountable to God (Ch. 18).
 - A New Heart and Spirit: God promises to replace hearts of stone with hearts of flesh (Ch. 36:26).
 - Restoration and Hope: Dry bones live again (Ch. 37), pointing to God's power to renew His people.
 - The Sovereignty of God: Over Israel, the nations, history, and the future.
-

Why Ezekiel Matters Today

Ezekiel reminds us that:

- God’s holiness demands justice, but His mercy brings restoration.
 - Even when it seems all hope is lost, God can breathe life into dry bones.
 - God’s glory is not confined to buildings or borders—He is Lord everywhere.
 - Renewal begins with transformed hearts and obedience to God’s Spirit.
 - The ultimate fulfillment of Ezekiel’s visions points us to Jesus Christ, the Good Shepherd and the source of living water (John 10:11; John 7:37–39).
-

Key Verse

“I will give you a new heart, and I will put a new spirit in you. I will take out your stony, stubborn heart and give you a tender, responsive heart.” – Ezekiel 36:26

This verse captures Ezekiel’s central message: judgment is real, but God’s ultimate plan is redemption, transformation, and the renewal of His people.

Ezekiel 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Glory of God Appears”

The Vision Begins

1 On the fifth day of the fourth month, in the thirtieth year, I was among the Jewish exiles by the Kebar River in Babylon when the heavens opened, and I saw visions of God.

2 On the fifth day of that month (in the fifth year of King Jehoiachin’s exile),

3 the Lord gave His message to me, Ezekiel the priest, son of Buzi, by the Kebar River in the land of the Babylonians. The hand of the Lord was upon me there.

The Living Beings

4 As I looked, I saw a great storm wind coming from the north. A huge cloud flashed with lightning and was surrounded by brilliant light. Inside the fire glowed like shining metal.

5 From the center of the cloud came four living beings that looked human,

6 but each had four faces and four wings.

7 Their legs were straight, and their feet shone like polished bronze.

8 Human hands could be seen under their wings on all four sides. Each had a face and wings,

9 and their wings touched one another. They did not turn as they moved; they went straight forward.

10 Each had four faces: the face of a human in the front, the face of a lion on the right, the face of an ox on the left, and the face of an eagle at the back.

11 Their wings were spread upward; two wings touched the living creatures beside them, and two covered their bodies.

12 Each went straight forward wherever the Spirit wanted them to go, and they did not turn as they moved.

13 The living beings looked like burning coals of fire, like blazing torches. Fire moved back and forth among them, and lightning flashed from the fire.

14 The creatures sped back and forth like flashes of lightning.

The Wheels Beside Them

15 As I looked at the living beings, I saw a wheel on the ground beside each of the four.

16 The wheels looked like they were made of shining beryl. All four wheels looked alike, each one appearing as though one wheel was inside another.

17 They could move in any of the four directions without turning.

18 The rims of the wheels were tall and frightening, covered with eyes all around.

19 When the living beings moved, the wheels moved beside them. When the living beings rose from the ground, the wheels also rose.

20 Wherever the Spirit went, the living beings went, and the wheels rose along with them, because the Spirit of the living beings was in the wheels.

21 When the creatures moved, the wheels moved. When the creatures stopped, the wheels stopped. When the creatures rose from the earth, the wheels rose with them.

The Throne of God

22 Above the heads of the living beings was something like an expanse, shining and sparkling like crystal, spread out over their heads.

23 Under this expanse, their wings were stretched out toward one another. Each one also had two wings covering its body.

24 When they moved, I heard the sound of their wings like the roar of rushing waters, like the voice of the Almighty, like the noise of an army. When they stood still, they let down their wings.

25 A voice came from above the expanse over their heads as they stood with lowered wings.

26 Above the expanse over their heads was what looked like a throne made of sapphire. And high above on the throne was a figure that looked like a man.

27 From the waist up, he looked like glowing metal, full of fire. From the waist down, he looked like fire; and a brilliant light surrounded him.

28 The glow around him looked like a rainbow appearing in the clouds on a rainy day. This was the appearance of the glory of the Lord.

When I saw it, I fell face down on the ground, and I heard the voice of someone speaking.

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 1

- God reveals His glory in power and mystery – Ezekiel’s vision reminds us that God’s presence is awesome, radiant, and overwhelming (vv. 4–14, 26–28).
- The Spirit directs all movement – The living beings and the wheels did not act on their own but only moved wherever the Spirit led (vv. 12, 20–21).
- Heaven’s throne is above all creation – The creatures, wheels, and expanse point upward to the throne of God, where His glory reigns supreme (vv. 22–26).
- God’s glory brings humility – Like Ezekiel, when faced with God’s greatness, the only right response is to fall before Him in worship (v. 28).

Ezekiel 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Call of the Prophet”

God Commissions Ezekiel

1 He said to me, “Son of man, stand up, and I will speak to you.”

2 As He spoke, the Spirit entered into me and set me on my feet, and I listened to the One who was speaking.

3 He said, “Son of man, I am sending you to the people of Israel, a rebellious nation that has turned against Me. They and their ancestors have sinned against Me to this very day.

4 They are stubborn and hard-hearted. But I am sending you to them, and you must tell them, ‘This is what the Lord God says.’

5 And whether they listen or refuse to listen—for they are a rebellious people—they will know that a prophet has been among them.

Courage in the Midst of Rebellion

6 “Son of man, do not be afraid of them or of their words. Even if you feel like you are living among briars, thorns, or scorpions, do not be afraid of what they say or terrified by how they look, even though they are a rebellious people.

7 You must give them My words whether they listen or not, for they are extremely rebellious.

The Scroll of God’s Message

8 “But you, son of man, listen to what I say. Do not be rebellious like these people. Open your mouth and eat what I give you.”

9 Then I looked, and I saw a hand stretched out to me. In it was a scroll.

10 He unrolled it before me, and on both sides were written words of sorrow, mourning, and judgment.

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 2

- God calls His servants even in hard times – Ezekiel was called to a nation that refused to listen, reminding us that obedience is about faithfulness, not popularity (vv. 3–5).
- Fear must not control the messenger – God told Ezekiel not to fear their words, their looks, or their hostility, because his authority came from God, not people (vv. 6–7).
- God’s Word is our message, not our own – Ezekiel was commanded to speak only what God gave him, not to add or take away (v. 7).
- The Word is sometimes bitter but necessary – The scroll contained sorrow and judgment, showing that God’s truth confronts sin before it can heal (vv. 9–10).

Ezekiel 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Watchman’s Call”

Eating the Scroll

1 The Lord said to me, “Son of man, eat what I give you. Eat this scroll, and then go and speak to the people of Israel.”

2 So I opened my mouth, and He fed me the scroll.

3 He said, “Son of man, fill your stomach with this scroll I am giving you.” So I ate it, and it tasted as sweet as honey in my mouth.

Sent to Israel

4 Then He said, “Son of man, go to the people of Israel and speak My words to them.

5 I am not sending you to people with an unfamiliar language or difficult speech, but to the house of Israel.

6 Not to many nations whose words you cannot understand. If I had sent you to them, they would have listened to you.

7 But the people of Israel will not listen to you, because they will not listen to Me. They are all stubborn and hard-hearted.

Strength for the Mission

8 “But I will make you as unyielding and as hard as they are.

9 I will make your forehead like the hardest stone, harder than flint. So do not be afraid of them or terrified by their looks, even though they are a rebellious people.

10 Son of man, take into your heart all the words I speak to you and listen closely.

11 Go now to your fellow exiles and speak to them. Say, ‘This is what the Lord God says,’ whether they listen or not.”

The Glory of the Lord Moves

12 Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard a loud voice behind me saying, “Blessed be the glory of the Lord in His place!”

13 I heard the sound of the wings of the living creatures brushing against each other, and the sound of the wheels beside them—a great rushing sound.

14 The Spirit lifted me up and carried me away. I went with a bitter and troubled spirit, but the strong hand of the Lord was upon me.

15 I came to the exiles who lived at Tel-Abib by the Kebar River. There I sat among them for seven days, overwhelmed.

Ezekiel the Watchman

16 After seven days the word of the Lord came to me:

17 “Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the people of Israel. Hear the word I speak, and give them My warning.

18 When I say to a wicked person, ‘You will surely die,’ and you do not warn them or speak out to dissuade them from their evil ways in order to save their life, that person will die in their sin, and I will hold you accountable for their blood.

19 But if you warn the wicked and they do not turn from their wickedness, they will die in their sin, but you will have saved yourself.

20 “Again, when a righteous person turns from their righteousness and does evil, and I put a stumbling block in their path, they will die. Since you did not warn them, they will die for their sin, and the righteous things they had done will not be remembered; and I will hold you accountable for their blood.

21 But if you do warn the righteous person not to sin, and they do not sin, they will surely live because they took warning, and you will have saved yourself.”

The Lord Restrains Ezekiel

22 The hand of the Lord was upon me there, and He said, “Get up, go out into the plain, and I will speak to you there.”

23 So I went into the plain, and there was the glory of the Lord, just like the vision I had seen by the Kebar River. I fell facedown.

24 Then the Spirit entered me and set me on my feet. He said, “Go, shut yourself inside your house.

25 And you, son of man, they will tie you with ropes so that you cannot go out among the people.

26 I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth so that you will be silent and unable to rebuke them, for they are a rebellious people.

27 But when I speak to you, I will open your mouth, and you will say to them, ‘This is what the Lord God says.’ Whoever listens, let them listen; and whoever refuses, let them refuse—for they are a rebellious people.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 3

- God’s Word must be taken in before it can be given out – Ezekiel had to eat the scroll, symbolizing that God’s messenger must first be filled with His Word (vv. 1–3).
- Rebellion resists truth – Israel would not listen, but Ezekiel’s task was obedience, not results (vv. 4–7).
- God equips His servants with strength – God made Ezekiel’s face as hard as flint so he would not fear opposition (vv. 8–9).
- The watchman’s responsibility – God holds His messengers accountable to warn both the wicked and the righteous; silence can make us guilty (vv. 16–21).
- God controls the messenger’s voice – Ezekiel could only speak when God opened his mouth, reminding us that true prophecy is God’s Word, not man’s (vv. 24–27).

Ezekiel 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Sign of the Coming Siege”

The Siege Illustrated

- 1 “Son of man, take a clay tablet and set it in front of you. Draw the city of Jerusalem on it.
- 2 Lay siege against it: build siege walls around it, raise a ramp against it, set up enemy camps, and place battering rams all around it.
- 3 Then take an iron pan and set it up as an iron wall between you and the city. Turn your face toward it; it will be under siege, and you will be the one laying siege against it. This will be a sign to the people of Israel.

Bearing Israel’s Guilt

- 4 Lie down on your left side and bear the guilt of Israel for the number of days you lie on it.
- 5 I am assigning you 390 days, one for each year of their sin, to bear the guilt of the house of Israel.
- 6 After that, lie on your right side and bear the guilt of Judah for 40 days, one day for each year.
- 7 Turn your face toward the siege of Jerusalem, with your arm uncovered, and prophesy against it.
- 8 I will tie you with ropes so you cannot turn from one side to the other until you have finished the days of your siege.

Measured Bread and Water

- 9 Take wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt, and put them in one container. Make bread from these and eat it during the 390 days you lie on your side.
- 10 The food you eat each day must be weighed—twenty shekels’ worth—and you must eat it at set times.
- 11 You must also measure your water, a sixth of a hin, and drink it at set times.
- 12 Eat your food as a barley cake, baking it over human dung where the people can see you.”

13 Then the Lord said, “In the same way, the people of Israel will eat defiled food in the nations where I will banish them.”

14 Then I said, “Ah, Lord God! I have never defiled myself. From my youth until now I have never eaten meat found dead or torn by wild animals. I have never put unclean food into my mouth.”

15 The Lord replied, “Very well. I will let you use cow dung instead of human dung to bake your bread.”

Hunger in Jerusalem

16 Then He said to me, “Son of man, I am going to cut off the supply of bread in Jerusalem. The people will eat food by weight and in anxiety; they will drink water by measure and in despair.

17 They will lack bread and water, looking at one another in shock, and waste away because of their sin.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 4

- Prophets live out God’s message – Ezekiel’s actions symbolized God’s warnings; his life became a visible sermon to the people (vv. 1–3).
- God counts sin carefully – The days Ezekiel lay on his sides matched years of rebellion, showing God’s precision in judgment (vv. 4–6).
- Judgment brings scarcity – Food and water were measured out in fear and anxiety, reflecting the desperation of a people under God’s discipline (vv. 9–11, 16–17).
- God’s holiness confronts human weakness – Ezekiel’s objection about defiled food shows that even in judgment, God remembers mercy and makes allowance (vv. 14–15).
- Sin leads to despair – The people would waste away, not only physically but spiritually, because they refused to repent (vv. 16–17).

Ezekiel 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God’s Judgment on Jerusalem”

The Parable of the Hair

1 “Son of man, take a sharp sword and use it like a barber’s razor to shave your head and beard. Then weigh the hair on scales and divide it into parts.

2 Burn a third of the hair inside the city when the days of the siege are over. Take another third and strike it with a sword all around the city. Scatter the last third to the wind, and I will chase them with a sword.

3 But take a few strands of hair and tuck them into the folds of your robe.

4 Then take some of these again and throw them into the fire to burn. From this fire a flame will spread to all the house of Israel.”

Jerusalem’s Greater Guilt

5 This is what the Lord God says: “This is Jerusalem. I have placed her in the center of the nations, with countries all around her.

6 But she has rebelled against My commands and laws more wickedly than the surrounding nations. She has refused My rules and has not lived by them.

7 Therefore, this is what the Lord God says: Because you have been more unruly than the nations around you and have not obeyed My decrees or followed My laws, you are even worse than the nations around you.

The Unprecedented Judgment

8 Therefore this is what the Lord God says: I Myself am against you, Jerusalem. I will execute judgment in your midst in the sight of the nations.

9 Because of all your detestable sins, I will do what I have never done before, and the like of which I will never do again.

10 Fathers will eat their sons, and sons will eat their fathers. I will bring judgment upon you, and I will scatter the survivors to every wind.

No Pity, Only Wrath

11 As surely as I live, declares the Lord God, because you have defiled My sanctuary with idols and detestable practices, I will not spare you or show pity.

12 A third of your people will die by plague or famine inside the city. A third will fall by the sword outside its walls. A third I will scatter to the winds, but I will pursue them with a sword.

13 Then My anger will be spent, and I will satisfy My wrath against them. They will know that I, the Lord, have spoken in My jealous anger when I have poured out My fury upon them.

A Lesson to the Nations

14 I will make you a ruin and a mockery among the nations around you, in the sight of all who pass by.

15 You will become a reproach and a warning, an object of ridicule and horror to the nations when I execute judgments on you in anger and fierce rebuke. I, the Lord, have spoken.

The Arrows of Famine

16 When I shoot against you My deadly arrows of famine, I will destroy you. I will make famine worse and cut off your supply of bread.

17 I will send famine and wild beasts against you, and they will rob you of your children. Plague and bloodshed will sweep through you, and I will bring the sword against you. I, the Lord, have spoken.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 5

- Sin brings severe judgment – Jerusalem’s sins were greater than the nations around them, so their punishment was more severe (vv. 6–9).
- God’s judgment is measured but complete – The division of Ezekiel’s hair symbolized plague, famine, sword, and scattering—judgment in thirds (vv. 1–2, 12).
- Idolatry corrupts God’s sanctuary – Because Jerusalem defiled God’s holy temple with idols, God would not spare or pity them (v. 11).
- Judgment teaches the nations – Israel’s destruction would serve as a warning and lesson to surrounding nations about God’s holiness and justice (vv. 14–15).
- God’s Word is final – The repeated phrase “I, the Lord, have spoken” confirms that His decrees are sure, and His judgments cannot be overturned (vv. 15, 17).

Ezekiel 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Judgment Against Idolatry in the Land”

The Message to the Mountains

1 The word of the Lord came to me, saying,

2 “Son of man, turn your face toward the mountains of Israel and prophesy against them.

3 Say: ‘Mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God! This is what the Lord says to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys: I Myself will bring a sword against you, and I will destroy your high places of idol worship.

4 Your altars will be demolished, your incense altars smashed, and I will throw down your slain in front of your idols.

5 I will lay the dead bodies of Israel in front of their idols, and scatter your bones around your altars.

The Destruction of Idols

6 Wherever you live, the cities will be ruined and the high places will be laid waste. Your altars will be broken and destroyed, your idols smashed and gone, your incense altars cut down, and all the works of your hands wiped out.

7 The dead will fall among you, and you will know that I am the Lord.

A Remnant Will Survive

8 “‘But I will leave a remnant, some of you will escape the sword when you are scattered among the nations and through the countries.

9 Those who escape will remember Me in the nations where they are taken captive. They will know how I was grieved by their unfaithful hearts that turned away from Me and by their lustful eyes that chased after idols. They will hate themselves for the evil and detestable things they have done.

10 And they will know that I am the Lord and that My warnings of disaster were not spoken in vain.’”

The Full Force of God's Wrath

11 This is what the Lord God says: “Clap your hands and stamp your feet and cry out, ‘Alas!’ for all the detestable sins of the people of Israel. They will fall by the sword, famine, and plague.

12 The one far away will die by plague, the one nearby will fall by the sword, and the one who remains under siege will die by famine. In this way I will pour out My fury upon them.

13 Then you will know that I am the Lord, when their dead bodies lie among their idols and around their altars—on every high hill, on all the mountaintops, under every green tree, and under every leafy oak—places where they once offered sweet incense to their idols.

The Land Laid Waste

14 I will stretch out My hand against them and make the land a desolate waste, more barren than the desert near Diblath. In every place where they live, the land will be ruined. Then they will know that I am the Lord.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 6

- Idolatry brings ruin – God destroyed Israel’s altars and idols to show the emptiness of false worship (vv. 3–6).
- God leaves a remnant – Even in judgment, He promised some would survive and repent in exile (vv. 8–9).
- Sin grieves God – The Lord described Himself as broken by Israel’s unfaithful hearts, showing His deep sorrow over idolatry (v. 9).
- Judgment is complete and unavoidable – Sword, famine, and plague would reach everyone, near or far, until God’s wrath was satisfied (vv. 11–12).
- God’s purpose is recognition – Repeatedly God says, “You will know that I am the Lord,” proving His judgments aim to turn hearts back to Him (vv. 7, 10, 13, 14).

Ezekiel 7 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The End Has Come”

The Final Judgment Declared

1 The word of the Lord came to me, saying,

2 “Son of man, this is what the Lord God says to the land of Israel: The end! The end has come upon the four corners of the land.

3 The end is now upon you, and I will pour out My anger against you. I will judge you according to your ways and repay you for all your detestable practices.

4 I will not spare you or have pity. I will repay you for your conduct and the disgusting things you have done. Then you will know that I am the Lord.”

The Day of Disaster

5 This is what the Lord God says: “A disaster—one disaster after another—has come!

6 The end has come, it has come! It has awakened against you—see, it has come!

7 Doom has come upon you, you who live in the land. The time has come, the day of trouble is near.

No more joyous shouting in the mountains.

8 Soon I will pour out My fury upon you and spend My anger against you. I will judge you according to your ways and repay you for all your abominations.

9 I will show you no pity and spare you no mercy. I will repay you according to your deeds. Then you will know that I, the Lord, strike in judgment.”

Pride and Violence Bloom

10 “The day has come! The end has arrived! The rod has blossomed, arrogance has budded.

11 Violence has grown into a rod of wickedness. None of the people will remain—none of their crowd, none of their wealth, none of their glory.

No Escape in the Day of Wrath

12 The time has come, the day has arrived. Let neither the buyer rejoice nor the seller mourn, for wrath is upon the whole multitude.

13 The seller will not return to what he sold, even though they are still alive. The vision against the whole crowd will not be reversed, nor will anyone strengthen themselves by their sins.

14 They have blown the trumpet to prepare for battle, but no one goes out to fight, for My wrath is on the whole multitude.

15 The sword is outside, plague and famine inside. Whoever is in the country will die by the sword, and whoever is in the city will be consumed by famine and plague.

16 Those who escape will flee to the mountains, like doves mourning in the valleys—each weeping for their own sins.

17 Every hand will hang limp, and every knee will be weak as water.

Wealth Cannot Save

18 They will put on sackcloth, terror will cover them. Shame will be on every face, and every head will be shaved.

19 They will throw their silver into the streets, and their gold will be like garbage. Their silver and gold will not save them in the day of the Lord’s wrath. It will not satisfy their hunger or fill their stomachs, for it has become the stumbling block of their sin.

20 They took pride in their beautiful ornaments, but they used them to make idols and detestable images. That is why I will make it vile to them.

21 I will give their treasures to foreigners as loot, and to the wicked of the earth as plunder, and they will defile it.

22 I will turn My face away from My people, and robbers will enter My treasured place and desecrate it.

The Wrath Completed

23 “Prepare chains, for the land is full of bloodshed and the city is full of violence.

24 I will bring the worst of the nations to take over their houses. I will end the pride of the strong, and their sanctuaries will be defiled.

25 Terror is coming! They will look for peace, but there will be none.

26 Disaster will follow disaster, rumor will follow rumor. They will seek a vision from a prophet, but the law will perish from the priest and counsel from the elders.

27 The king will mourn, the prince will despair, and the hands of the people of the land will tremble. I will deal with them according to their conduct, and by their own standards I will judge them. Then they will know that I am the Lord.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 7

- The end of God’s patience comes – Israel’s rebellion brought them to the final day of judgment; God’s mercy does not cancel justice forever (vv. 2–4).
- Sin grows like a plant – pride blossoms and violence matures into destruction when unchecked (vv. 10–11).
- Wealth is worthless in judgment – silver and gold cannot save or satisfy when God’s wrath is poured out (vv. 18–19).
- False hopes will vanish – there will be no peace, no vision, no guidance from leaders when God’s hand is against the people (vv. 25–26).
- God’s justice is personal and perfect – He judges each according to their own ways so that all may know He alone is the Lord (vv. 3, 9, 27).

Ezekiel 8 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Idolatry in the Temple”

Ezekiel’s Vision in Jerusalem

1 In the sixth year, on the fifth day of the sixth month, I was sitting in my house with the elders of Judah before me, when the hand of the Lord God came upon me there.

2 I looked, and I saw something that looked like fire. From His waist down, He appeared like fire; and from His waist up, He appeared bright and glowing like amber.

3 He stretched out what looked like a hand, and took me by a lock of my hair. The Spirit lifted me between earth and heaven and carried me in visions of God to Jerusalem, to the entrance of the inner gate that faces north, where the idol that provokes God’s jealousy stood.

4 There before me was the glory of the God of Israel, just like the vision I had seen in the plain.

The First Abomination: The Idol of Jealousy

5 Then He said to me, “Son of man, look toward the north.” So I looked, and there at the entrance north of the altar gate was the idol of jealousy.

6 And He said, “Son of man, do you see what they are doing—the great detestable sins of Israel here, things that drive Me far from My sanctuary? But you will see even greater abominations than these.”

The Second Abomination: Hidden Idolatry

7 Then He brought me to the entrance of the court. I looked and saw a hole in the wall.

8 He said, “Son of man, dig into the wall.” So I dug, and I found an entrance.

9 He said, “Go in and see the wicked things they are doing here.”

10 So I went in and looked, and I saw every form of crawling creature and detestable beast, and all the idols of Israel engraved on the walls all around.

11 In front of them stood seventy elders of Israel, and among them was Jaazaniah son of Shaphan. Each had a censer in his hand, and a thick cloud of incense rose up.

12 He said to me, “Son of man, have you seen what the elders of Israel are doing in the dark, each in the shrine of his own idols? They say, ‘The Lord does not see us; the Lord has abandoned the land.’”

13 Again He said, “You will see even greater abominations.”

The Third Abomination: Weeping for Tammuz

14 Then He brought me to the entrance of the north gate of the Lord’s house, and there sat women weeping for the false god Tammuz.

15 He said to me, “Do you see this, son of man? You will see even greater abominations than these.”

The Fourth Abomination: Sun Worship in the Temple

16 Then He brought me into the inner court of the Lord’s temple. At the entrance between the porch and the altar were about twenty-five men. Their backs were toward the temple of the Lord and their faces toward the east, and they were bowing down to the sun in the east.

17 He said to me, “Have you seen this, son of man? Is it not enough for the house of Judah to commit these detestable things? They have filled the land with violence and continually provoke Me to anger. Look at them putting the branch to their nose in mockery.

18 Therefore I will act in fury. I will not spare them or show pity. Even though they cry out loudly to Me, I will not listen.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 8

- Idolatry replaces God’s presence – Even inside the temple, Israel had set up idols that provoked God’s jealousy (vv. 3–6).
- Sin thrives in secrecy – The elders worshiped idols in hidden chambers, thinking the Lord could not see them, but nothing is hidden from God (vv. 10–12).

- False worship corrupts true worship – Women wept for Tammuz and men bowed to the sun right at God’s temple, showing how deep the corruption had spread (vv. 14–16).
- Violence and idolatry go hand in hand – Spiritual rebellion led to violence filling the land (v. 17).
- Persistent sin removes mercy – God declared He would not spare or listen to cries for help because His people refused to repent (v. 18).

Ezekiel 9 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Mark of Protection and the Judgment of Jerusalem”

The Executioners Summoned

1 Then I heard the Lord cry out with a loud voice, “Bring near those who have charge over the city, each with a weapon of destruction in his hand.”

2 I saw six men coming from the north gate, each carrying a deadly weapon. With them was another man dressed in linen, carrying a writing kit at his side. They came in and stood beside the bronze altar.

The Glory Moves and the Mark is Given

3 The glory of the God of Israel rose from above the cherubim, where it had been, and moved to the threshold of the temple. The Lord called to the man dressed in linen who had the writing kit at his side.

4 The Lord said to him, “Go throughout the city of Jerusalem and put a mark on the foreheads of those who grieve and weep over all the detestable sins being committed there.”

The Command to Destroy

5 Then I heard Him say to the others, “Follow him through the city and strike down the people. Do not let your eyes spare or show pity.

6 Kill completely the old and young, men and women, little children and maidens, but do not touch anyone who has the mark. Begin at My sanctuary.” So they began with the elders who were in front of the temple.

7 Then He said to them, “Defile the temple and fill the courtyards with the slain. Go!” So they went out and killed in the city.

Ezekiel’s Cry and God’s Answer

8 While they were killing, I was left alone. I fell facedown and cried out, “Ah, Lord God! Are You going to destroy all the remnant of Israel in Your pouring out of fury on Jerusalem?”

9 He answered me, “The sin of Israel and Judah is very great. The land is full of bloodshed, and the city is full of injustice. They say, ‘The Lord has abandoned the land; the Lord does not see.’

10 So I will not spare them or show pity. I will bring down on their heads what they have done.”

The Report of Obedience

11 Then the man in linen with the writing kit returned and reported, “I have done everything You commanded.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 9

- God knows those who grieve over sin – A mark of protection was placed on those who mourned the sins of the city (v. 4).
- Judgment begins at God’s house – The executioners started with the elders at the sanctuary, showing God judges His people first (v. 6).
- Sin fills the land with blood and injustice – Violence and idolatry corrupt society until it is ripe for judgment (v. 9).
- God spares no unrepentant heart – His eye does not spare and His pity does not cancel justice when sin is unconfessed (v. 10).
- Obedience to God’s command is exact – The man in linen reported back that the task was completed just as God said (v. 11).

Ezekiel 10 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Glory of the Lord Leaves the Temple”

The Throne and the Coals of Fire

1 I looked, and above the heads of the cherubim was something like a throne, that looked like a sapphire stone.

2 The Lord spoke to the man dressed in linen and said, “Go in between the wheels beneath the cherubim. Take burning coals from between them and scatter them over the city.” As I watched, he went in.

3 Now the cherubim were standing on the south side of the temple, and the cloud filled the inner court.

4 Then the glory of the Lord rose from above the cherubim and moved to the threshold of the temple. The temple was filled with the cloud, and the court was filled with the brightness of the Lord’s glory.

5 The sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard even in the outer court, like the voice of Almighty God when He speaks.

The Coals Passed to the Man in Linen

6 When the Lord commanded the man in linen to take fire from between the wheels, he went in and stood beside them.

7 Then one of the cherubim reached into the fire between them, took some, and placed it into the hands of the man dressed in linen, who took it and went out.

8 Under the wings of the cherubim was something that looked like human hands.

The Wheels Beside the Cherubim

9 I looked, and I saw four wheels beside the cherubim—one wheel beside each cherub. The wheels sparkled like topaz.

10 All four wheels looked alike, each appearing as though one wheel was inside another.

11 As they moved, they went in any of the four directions the cherubim faced, without turning as they went. Wherever the head faced, they went straight ahead.

12 Their whole bodies—their backs, hands, and wings—as well as the wheels, were covered with eyes all around.

13 I heard the wheels being called “the whirling wheels.”

14 Each cherub had four faces: the first was the face of a cherub, the second the face of a man, the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

The Glory Departs

15 The cherubim rose upward. These were the living creatures I had seen by the Kebar River.

16 When the cherubim moved, the wheels beside them moved. When the cherubim lifted their wings to rise from the ground, the wheels rose with them and did not turn away from their side.

17 When they stood still, the wheels stood still; and when they rose, the wheels rose with them, because the spirit of the living creatures was in them.

18 Then the glory of the Lord departed from over the threshold of the temple and stopped above the cherubim.

19 While I watched, the cherubim spread their wings and rose from the ground. As they went out, the wheels went with them. They stopped at the entrance to the east gate of the Lord’s house, and the glory of the God of Israel was above them.

The Same Vision as at the River

20 These were the living creatures I had seen beneath the God of Israel by the Kebar River, and I realized they were cherubim.

21 Each one had four faces and four wings, and under their wings was something like human hands.

22 Their faces were the same as those I had seen by the Kebar River. Each one went straight forward.

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 10

- God’s glory is holy and powerful – The temple filled with His brightness and the sound of the cherubim was like the Almighty’s voice (vv. 4–5).
- Judgment comes through God’s fire – The coals scattered over the city symbolized divine judgment upon Jerusalem (vv. 2, 7).
- God’s presence directs all movement – The cherubim and wheels moved together, perfectly guided by the Spirit of God (vv. 16–17).

- The glory of the Lord departs when sin defiles His house – God’s glory left the temple and moved toward the east gate, showing His presence was no longer with the city (vv. 18–19).
- God’s visions are consistent and sure – Ezekiel confirmed the living creatures he saw in Jerusalem were the same as by the Kebar River, proving God’s Word is unchanging (vv. 20–22).

Ezekiel 11 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Judgment on the Leaders, Promise of Restoration”

Wicked Leaders Condemned

1 The Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the east gate of the Lord’s temple, the one that faces east. At the entrance were twenty-five men. Among them I saw Jaazaniah son of Azzur and Pelatiah son of Benaiah, leaders of the people.

2 The Lord said to me, “Son of man, these are the men who plan evil and give wicked advice in this city.

3 They say, ‘It is not time for judgment; let us build houses. This city is the cooking pot, and we are the meat inside it.’

4 Therefore, son of man, prophesy against them.”

5 Then the Spirit of the Lord came upon me, and He said, “Say this: This is what the Lord says. People of Israel, this is what you are thinking—I know what is in your minds.

6 You have killed many people in this city and filled its streets with the dead.

7 Therefore, this is what the Lord God says: The dead you have laid in it are the meat, and this city is the pot. But you, I will bring out of it.

8 You fear the sword, and the sword is what I will bring against you, declares the Lord God.

9 I will drive you out of the city and deliver you into the hands of foreigners. I will execute judgment on you.

10 You will fall by the sword. I will judge you at the borders of Israel, and then you will know that I am the Lord.

11 This city will not be your pot, and you will not be the meat inside it. I will judge you at the borders of Israel.

12 Then you will know that I am the Lord, for you have not followed My decrees or kept My laws, but have conformed to the practices of the nations around you.”

Ezekiel’s Cry

13 While I was prophesying, Pelatiah son of Benaiah died. Then I fell facedown and cried out in a loud voice, “Ah, Lord God! Will You completely destroy the remnant of Israel?”

Promise of Restoration

14 Then the word of the Lord came to me:

15 “Son of man, your brothers, your fellow exiles, the whole house of Israel are the ones of whom the people of Jerusalem have said, ‘They are far from the Lord; this land has been given to us as our possession.’

16 Therefore say: This is what the Lord God says: Although I sent them far away among the nations and scattered them among the countries, I will be a sanctuary for them in the lands where they have gone.

17 Say: This is what the Lord God says: I will gather you from the nations and bring you back from the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you back the land of Israel.

18 When they return, they will remove all its vile images and detestable idols.

19 I will give them one heart and put a new spirit within them. I will remove their heart of stone and give them a heart of flesh.

20 Then they will follow My decrees and keep My laws. They will be My people, and I will be their God.

21 But those whose hearts go after their idols and detestable practices—I will bring their conduct down on their own heads, declares the Lord God.”

The Glory Departs

22 Then the cherubim lifted their wings, and the wheels beside them, and the glory of the God of Israel was above them.

23 The glory of the Lord went up from the center of the city and stopped over the mountain east of it.

Ezekiel Returns to the Exiles

24 The Spirit lifted me up and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of God to the exiles in Babylon. Then the vision I had seen went away from me.

25 And I told the exiles everything the Lord had shown me.

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 11

- God knows the secret thoughts of leaders – The rulers thought they were safe in Jerusalem, but God exposed their wickedness and false security (vv. 2–3, 5–6).
- Judgment comes to the proud – Those who feared the sword would meet the sword at the borders of Israel (vv. 7–12).
- God preserves a faithful remnant – Even in exile, God promised to be a sanctuary to His people far from the temple (v. 16).
- Restoration requires transformation – God promised to give His people a new heart and a new spirit, replacing their hearts of stone with hearts of flesh (vv. 19–20).
- When God’s glory departs, judgment follows – The glory of the Lord left the city, showing His presence no longer remained with a rebellious people (vv. 22–23).

Ezekiel 12 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Sign of Captivity and the Certainty of God’s Word”

The Sign of Exile

1 The word of the Lord came to me, saying,

2 “Son of man, you live among a rebellious people. They have eyes to see but do not see, and ears to hear but do not hear, for they are a rebellious house.

3 So now, pack your belongings for exile. During the day, while they watch, set out your things as though you were going into captivity. Perhaps they will understand, though they are a rebellious people.

4 Bring out your belongings in the daytime for them to see, and then leave in the evening as those who go into exile.

5 Dig through the wall in their sight and carry your belongings out through it.

6 Put your things on your shoulder and carry them out in the twilight. Cover your face so you cannot see the land, for I have made you a sign to the house of Israel.”

7 So I did as I was commanded. During the day I brought out my things as though I were going into captivity. Then in the evening, I dug through the wall with my hands. At twilight I carried my things out on my shoulder in their sight.

The Prince’s Fate

8 In the morning the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

9 “Son of man, did not the rebellious house of Israel ask you, ‘What are you doing?’

10 Say to them, ‘This is what the Lord God says: This message is about the prince in Jerusalem and all the Israelites who are there.’

11 Say, ‘I am a sign to you. As I have done, so it will be done to them. They will go into exile as captives.’

12 The prince among them will put his belongings on his shoulder at dusk and leave. They will dig through the wall to carry things out. He will cover his face so he cannot see the land with his eyes.

13 I will spread My net for him, and he will be caught in My snare. I will bring him to Babylon, the land of the Chaldeans. But he will not see it, and there he will die.

14 I will scatter to the winds all those around him—his guards and his troops—and I will pursue them with the sword.

15 Then they will know that I am the Lord, when I scatter them among the nations and disperse them through the countries.

16 But I will spare a few of them from sword, famine, and plague, so that in the nations where they go they may confess all their detestable practices. Then they will know that I am the Lord.”

The Sign of Fearful Eating

17 The word of the Lord came to me again, saying,

18 “Son of man, eat your bread with trembling and drink your water with fear and anxiety.

19 Say to the people of the land: This is what the Lord God says about those living in Jerusalem and in the land of Israel: They will eat their food in anxiety and drink their water in despair, because the land will be stripped of everything in it due to the violence of those who live there.

20 The inhabited cities will be laid waste, and the land will become desolate. Then you will know that I am the Lord.”

No More Delays

21 The word of the Lord came to me, saying,

22 “Son of man, what is this proverb you have in Israel: ‘The days drag on, and every vision fails’?

23 Tell them, ‘This is what the Lord God says: I am going to put an end to that proverb, and they will no longer use it in Israel.’ Say to them, ‘The days are near when every vision will be fulfilled.

24 For there will no longer be false visions or flattering prophecies in Israel.

25 I, the Lord, will speak, and whatever word I speak will be fulfilled without delay. In your days, you rebellious people, I will say the word and perform it,’ declares the Lord God.”

26 The word of the Lord came to me again, saying,

27 “Son of man, the people of Israel are saying, ‘The vision he sees is for many years from now; he prophesies about the distant future.’

28 Therefore say to them, ‘This is what the Lord God says: None of My words will be delayed any longer. Whatever I speak will be fulfilled,’ declares the Lord God.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 12

- Prophets act out God’s message – Ezekiel’s symbolic exile illustrated the coming captivity of the people and their prince (vv. 3–7, 11–12).
- God knows how to trap the proud – The prince would try to escape but be caught in God’s net and judged (vv. 12–13).
- Fear and scarcity follow rebellion – Food and water would be consumed in anxiety as judgment emptied the land (vv. 17–20).
- God’s Word is certain and near – The people mocked the visions as “far off,” but God declared His word would no longer be delayed (vv. 22–28).
- Even in judgment, God spares a witness – A small remnant would survive to confess their sins among the nations (v. 16).

Ezekiel 13 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Judgment Against False Prophets”

Condemnation of False Prophets

1 The word of the Lord came to me, saying,

2 “Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who speak out of their own imagination. Say to those who make up their own messages: Hear the word of the Lord!

3 This is what the Lord God says: Woe to the foolish prophets who follow their own spirit but have seen nothing!

4 O Israel, your prophets are like foxes among ruins.

5 They have not gone up into the gaps or repaired the wall for the house of Israel so that it could stand firm in the day of battle.

6 Their visions are false, and their divinations are lies. They say, ‘The Lord says,’ when the Lord has not sent them. Yet they expect their words to be fulfilled.

7 Have you not seen false visions and spoken lying divinations when you say, ‘The Lord says,’ though I have not spoken?

God’s Judgment on Them

8 Therefore this is what the Lord God says: Because you have spoken false words and seen lying visions, I am against you.

9 My hand will be against the prophets who see false visions and utter lies. They will not belong to the assembly of My people or be listed in the records of Israel, nor will they enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the Lord God.

10 Because they have deceived My people by saying, ‘Peace,’ when there is no peace, and because they build flimsy walls and others cover them with whitewash, 11 tell those who cover them with whitewash that the wall will fall. Heavy rain will come, hailstones will fall, and a violent wind will break it down.

12 When the wall collapses, will people not ask you, ‘Where is the whitewash you covered it with?’

13 Therefore this is what the Lord God says: In My wrath I will unleash a violent wind, and in My anger a torrential rain and hailstones to destroy it.

14 I will tear down the wall you covered with whitewash and level it to the ground so its foundation is exposed. When it falls, you will be destroyed in it, and you will know that I am the Lord.

15 So I will pour out My wrath on the wall and on those who plastered it with whitewash, and I will say to you, ‘The wall is gone, and so are those who covered it.’

16 These are the prophets of Israel who prophesy to Jerusalem and see visions of peace when there is no peace, declares the Lord God.”

Judgment Against False Prophetesses

17 “Now, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people who prophesy out of their own hearts. Prophesy against them,

18 and say, This is what the Lord God says: Woe to the women who sew magic charms on their wrists and make veils of every size for people’s heads in order to trap lives! Will you trap the lives of My people but preserve your own lives?

19 You have profaned Me among My people for handfuls of barley and scraps of bread. By lying, you kill those who should not die and let live those who should not live.

20 Therefore this is what the Lord God says: I am against your magic charms with which you hunt people like birds. I will tear them from your arms and free the people you have trapped.

21 I will tear off your veils and rescue My people from your hands, so they will no longer be your prey. Then you will know that I am the Lord.

22 Because you discouraged the righteous with your lies, when I had not made them sad, and you encouraged the wicked so they would not turn from their evil ways and save their lives,

23 therefore you will no longer see false visions or practice divination. I will rescue My people from your hands. Then you will know that I am the Lord.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 13

- False prophets speak from their imagination, not from God – They claim “The Lord says” when God has not spoken (vv. 2–7).
- Deception cannot stand – Lies of “peace” are like flimsy walls covered in whitewash; God’s storm will tear them down (vv. 10–15).
- God holds leaders accountable – False prophets and prophetesses harmed His people for selfish gain, but He promised to judge them (vv. 17–19).
- God rescues His people from deception – He will free His people from the traps of false leaders (vv. 20–21).
- Truth strengthens righteousness – Lies discourage the righteous and embolden the wicked, but God’s Word brings correction and life (vv. 22–23).

Ezekiel 14 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Idols of the Heart and God’s Four Judgments”

Idols in the Heart

1 Some of the elders of Israel came to me and sat down in front of me.

2 Then the word of the Lord came to me:

3 “Son of man, these men have set up idols in their hearts and put sinful stumbling blocks right before their faces. Should I let them come to inquire of Me at all?

4 Tell them, ‘This is what the Lord God says: When any Israelite sets up idols in his heart and puts his sinful stumbling block before his face, then comes to a prophet, I the Lord will answer him according to his many idols.

5 I will do this to capture the hearts of the people of Israel, who have all turned away from Me because of their idols.’

6 “Therefore say to the house of Israel: This is what the Lord God says: Repent! Turn away from your idols and stop all your detestable practices.

7 When any Israelite or foreigner living in Israel separates himself from Me and sets up idols in his heart, then comes to a prophet to inquire of Me, I the Lord will answer him Myself.

8 I will set My face against that person and make him an example and a proverb. I will cut him off from among My people. Then you will know that I am the Lord.

False Prophets Judged

9 If a prophet is deceived into speaking a message, I the Lord have permitted that prophet to be deceived, and I will stretch out My hand against him and destroy him from among My people.

10 They will bear their guilt—the prophet will be punished as much as the one who sought his message.

11 Then the house of Israel will no longer wander away from Me or defile themselves with their sins. They will be My people, and I will be their God, declares the Lord God.”

God’s Judgments on the Land

12 The word of the Lord came to me again:

13 “Son of man, when a land sins against Me by being unfaithful, I will stretch out My hand against it, cut off its food supply, and send famine to destroy both people and animals.

14 Even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, their righteousness would save only themselves, declares the Lord God.

15 Or if I send wild beasts through the land to leave it desolate so no one can pass through,

16 even if these three men were in it, as surely as I live, they could not save sons or daughters. They would only save themselves, and the land would be ruined.

17 Or if I bring a sword against that land and say, ‘Let the sword pass through,’ and it kills both people and animals, 18 even if these three men were in it, they could save neither sons nor daughters. They would only save themselves.

19 Or if I send a plague on that land and pour out My wrath in bloodshed to destroy people and animals, 20 as surely as I live, declares the Lord God, even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, they could save neither sons nor daughters. They would save only themselves by their righteousness.

Four Judgments on Jerusalem

21 “For this is what the Lord God says: How much worse will it be when I send My four dreadful judgments—sword, famine, wild beasts, and plague—against Jerusalem to destroy people and animals!

22 Yet some survivors—sons and daughters—will be brought out. They will come to you, and when you see their conduct and actions, you will be comforted concerning the disaster I brought on Jerusalem.

23 They will comfort you when you see their ways and their deeds, and you will know that I have done nothing without cause in all that I have done, declares the Lord God.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 14

- Idolatry begins in the heart – God condemns not only physical idols but idols secretly set up in people’s hearts (vv. 3–5).
- True repentance is required – God calls His people to turn away from idols and detestable practices, not just outwardly but inwardly (v. 6).
- False prophets share the same judgment as deceived people – Both will be punished, because lies damage the whole nation (vv. 9–10).
- Righteousness is personal – Even the most righteous people like Noah, Daniel, and Job could only save themselves, not others, from God’s judgment (vv. 14–20).
- God’s judgments are purposeful – His actions are never without cause; they reveal His justice and ultimately lead survivors to acknowledge Him (vv. 22–23).

Ezekiel 15 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Jerusalem Like a Useless Vine”

The Vine Compared to Other Trees

1 The word of the Lord came to me, saying,

2 “Son of man, what is the vine wood compared to any other tree in the forest?

3 Can wood be taken from it to make something useful? Can a peg be made from it to hang objects on?

4 No—it is only thrown into the fire as fuel. The fire burns up both ends and chars the middle. Is it good for anything then?

5 Even when it was whole, it was not useful for work. How much less can it be used for anything after the fire has consumed and burned it?”

The People Like a Burned Vine

6 “Therefore, this is what the Lord God says: Just as vine wood is set apart for the fire, so I will treat the people of Jerusalem.

7 I will set My face against them. They may escape one fire, but another fire will consume them. Then you will know that I am the Lord, when I set My face against them.

8 I will make the land desolate because they have been unfaithful to Me, declares the Lord God.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 15

- Israel was meant to bear fruit, not be wood – Like a vine, Israel’s purpose was to produce fruit for God, not to be useful as timber (vv. 2–3).
- Without fruit, a vine is worthless – When God’s people do not fulfill their purpose, they are no different from useless wood (vv. 4–5).
- God’s judgment is consuming – Those who escape one disaster will face another until they recognize the Lord’s hand (vv. 6–7).
- Unfaithfulness ruins the land – Sin does not only affect people but brings desolation to the land itself (v. 8).

Ezekiel 16 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Jerusalem the Unfaithful Bride”

Jerusalem’s Birth and Early Years

1 The word of the Lord came to me, saying,

2 “Son of man, confront Jerusalem with her sins.

3 Say: This is what the Lord God says to Jerusalem: Your origin and your birth were in the land of Canaan; your father was an Amorite and your mother a Hittite.

4 On the day you were born, your cord was not cut, you were not washed with water, you were not rubbed with salt or wrapped in cloths.

5 No one looked on you with compassion to do any of these things. You were thrown out into the open field, despised on the day you were born.

6 Then I passed by and saw you kicking in your blood. I said to you in your blood, ‘Live!’ Yes, I said to you, ‘Live!’

7 I made you grow like a plant in the field. You grew up and developed, becoming beautiful. Your breasts formed and your hair grew, but you were still naked and bare.

The Lord’s Covenant of Love

8 Later I passed by, and I saw you were old enough for love. I spread the corner of My garment over you and covered your nakedness. I gave you My solemn promise and entered into a covenant with you, and you became Mine, declares the Lord God.

9 I washed you with water, cleansed you of your blood, and anointed you with oil.

10 I clothed you with embroidered garments, put fine leather sandals on your feet, dressed you in fine linen, and covered you with silk.

11 I adorned you with jewelry: bracelets on your wrists, a chain around your neck,

12 a ring on your nose, earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head.

13 You were adorned with gold and silver. Your clothes were of fine linen and rich fabric. You ate fine flour, honey, and olive oil. You became exceedingly beautiful and rose to be a queen.

14 Your fame spread among the nations because of your beauty, for it was perfect due to the splendor I gave you, declares the Lord God.

Jerusalem's Unfaithfulness

15 But you trusted in your beauty and used your fame to become a prostitute. You gave yourself to every passerby.

16 You took some of your garments and made colorful high places, prostituting yourself upon them.

17 You also took the jewelry of My gold and silver, which I had given you, and made idols of men, and committed prostitution with them.

18 You took your embroidered garments and clothed them. You set My oil and incense before them.

19 The food I gave you—fine flour, oil, and honey—you offered before idols as a pleasing aroma. This is what happened, declares the Lord God.

20 You took your sons and daughters whom you bore to Me and sacrificed them as food for idols. Was your prostitution not enough?

21 You slaughtered My children and offered them in fire to idols.

22 In all your abominations, you did not remember the days of your youth, when you were naked and exposed in your blood.

Idolatry Multiplied

23 Woe! Woe to you, declares the Lord God.

24 You built for yourself high places in every street.

25 At every street corner you built your shrines and degraded your beauty, offering yourself to anyone who passed by.

26 You committed adultery with your lustful neighbors, the Egyptians. You multiplied your prostitution, provoking Me to anger.

27 So I stretched out My hand against you, reduced your food, and handed you over to the Philistines, who even they were shocked at your lewd behavior.

28 You prostituted yourself with the Assyrians because you could never be satisfied.

29 You multiplied your prostitution with Babylon, the land of merchants, but still you were not satisfied.

30 How sick is your heart, declares the Lord God, when you do all the deeds of a shameless prostitute!

31 You built your high places at the head of every street, but unlike a prostitute you scorned payment.

32 You are like an adulterous wife, who welcomes strangers instead of her husband.

33 Prostitutes receive gifts, but you gave gifts to all your lovers, bribing them to come to you from everywhere.

34 You were the opposite of other women in prostitution: no one chased after you for payment; instead, you paid them.

The Judgment of the Unfaithful Bride

35 Therefore, O prostitute, hear the word of the Lord:

36 This is what the Lord God says: Because you poured out your lust and exposed your nakedness with your lovers and with your detestable idols, and because you gave them the blood of your children,

37 I will gather all your lovers, those you loved and those you hated. I will expose your nakedness before them so they see all your shame.

38 I will judge you as women who commit adultery and shed blood are judged. I will bring upon you the punishment of death and fury.

39 I will deliver you into the hands of your lovers. They will tear down your shrines, strip you of your clothes, take your jewelry, and leave you naked and bare.

40 They will bring a mob against you, who will stone you and cut you down with their swords.

41 They will burn your houses and inflict judgments on you in the sight of many women. I will put an end to your prostitution, and you will no longer pay your lovers.

42 Then My anger will subside and My jealousy will turn away. I will be calm and no longer angry.

Shame and Everlasting Covenant

43 Because you did not remember the days of your youth but enraged Me with all these things, I will bring down your conduct on your own head, declares the Lord God.

44 Everyone who uses proverbs will say of you: ‘Like mother, like daughter.’

45 You are the daughter of your mother, who despised her husband and children. You are also the sister of your sisters—Samaria to the north and Sodom to the south.

46 Your older sister is Samaria with her daughters, and your younger sister is Sodom with her daughters.

47 You not only followed their ways but became more corrupt than they in all your conduct.

48 As surely as I live, declares the Lord God, your sister Sodom and her daughters never did what you and your daughters have done.

49 This was the sin of Sodom: she and her daughters were arrogant, overfed, and unconcerned; they did not help the poor and needy.

50 They were proud and committed detestable acts, so I did away with them as you have seen.

51 Samaria did not commit even half your sins. You have done more detestable things than they, making your sisters seem righteous by comparison.

52 Bear your disgrace, for you have justified your sisters by your sins.

Restoration Remembered

53 But I will restore the fortunes of Sodom and Samaria, and I will restore your fortunes along with them,

54 so that you may bear your shame and be disgraced by all you have done.

55 Your sisters, Sodom and Samaria, and their daughters will return to what they were before, and you and your daughters will return to what you were before.

56 In your pride, you would not even mention Sodom, 57 until your wickedness was exposed. Now the daughters of Syria and the Philistines around you despise you.

58 You must bear your lewdness and your detestable practices, declares the Lord.

59 This is what the Lord God says: I will deal with you as you deserve, because you despised My covenant.

60 Yet I will remember the covenant I made with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish an everlasting covenant with you.

61 Then you will remember your ways and be ashamed when you receive your sisters, both older and younger. I will give them to you as daughters, but not by your covenant.

62 I will establish My covenant with you, and you will know that I am the Lord.

63 Then you will remember and be ashamed, and never again open your mouth because of your shame, when I forgive you for all you have done, declares the Lord God.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 16

- God raised Israel from nothing – He rescued her like an abandoned baby, cared for her, and made her His covenant bride (vv. 4–14).
- Blessings can become idols – Israel misused God’s gifts—clothing, food, and gold—to worship idols and practice spiritual adultery (vv. 15–22).
- Sin escalates without satisfaction – Israel sought Egypt, Assyria, and Babylon, but her lust for idols was never satisfied (vv. 26–29).
- Judgment fits the crime – God compared Jerusalem to an unfaithful wife and declared she would face shame and destruction (vv. 35–42).
- Even in judgment, God remembers mercy – Though Jerusalem became worse than Sodom and Samaria, God promised to restore and renew His everlasting covenant (vv. 53–63).

Ezekiel 17 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Parable of the Two Eagles and God’s Promise”

The Parable of the Two Eagles

1 The word of the Lord came to me, saying,

2 “Son of man, tell the people of Israel a parable.

3 Say: This is what the Lord God says: A great eagle with large wings, long feathers, and rich colors came to Lebanon and took the top branch of a cedar tree.

4 He broke off the highest twig and carried it to a land of trade, a city of merchants.

5 He took some seed from the land and planted it in fertile soil by abundant waters, like a willow tree.

6 It sprouted and became a spreading vine of low stature. Its branches grew toward him, and its roots stayed under him. It became a healthy vine, producing branches and new growth.

7 But there was another great eagle with large wings and many feathers. The vine stretched out its roots and branches toward him, hoping to be watered.

8 Though it had been planted in good soil by abundant waters so it could produce fruit and become a splendid vine, it turned instead toward the second eagle.

The Explanation of the Parable

9 This is what the Lord God says: Will it prosper? Will it not be uprooted and its fruit cut off so it withers? All its new leaves will wither. It will not take strong power or many people to pull it up by the roots.

10 Though it was planted, will it thrive? When the east wind blows against it, it will wither completely in the very soil where it grew.”

11 Then the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

12 “Say to this rebellious people: Do you not understand what this means? The king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, took its king and leaders, and brought them to Babylon.

13 He took a royal descendant, made a covenant with him, and put him under oath. He also took away the leading men of the land.

14 The kingdom was meant to be lowly, not rising high, but surviving by keeping the covenant.

15 But the king rebelled against him by sending messengers to Egypt to get horses and a large army. Will he succeed? Will he escape? Can he break a covenant and still go free?

16 As surely as I live, declares the Lord God, he will die in Babylon, in the place of the king who put him on the throne, whose oath he despised and whose covenant he broke.

17 Pharaoh with his mighty army will be of no help to him in war, when ramps are built and siege walls are raised to destroy many lives.

18 Because he despised the oath by breaking the covenant—though he had pledged his hand—he will not escape.

19 Therefore this is what the Lord God says: As surely as I live, I will bring down on his head the consequences of rejecting My oath and breaking My covenant.

20 I will spread My net for him, and he will be caught in My snare. I will bring him to Babylon and judge him there for the unfaithfulness he committed against Me.

21 All his troops will fall by the sword, and those who remain will be scattered to the winds. Then you will know that I the Lord have spoken.”

The Promise of a New Planting

22 “This is what the Lord God says: I Myself will take a shoot from the top of the high cedar and plant it. I will break off a tender twig from its top and plant it on a high and lofty mountain.

23 On the mountain heights of Israel I will plant it, and it will produce branches, bear fruit, and become a majestic cedar. Birds of every kind will nest in it; they will find shelter in the shade of its branches.

24 All the trees of the field will know that I the Lord bring down the tall tree and exalt the low tree, dry up the green tree and make the dry tree flourish. I the Lord have spoken, and I will do it.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 17

- Breaking covenants brings ruin – Judah’s king broke his oath with Babylon by turning to Egypt, showing unfaithfulness both to man and to God (vv. 15–19).
- God sees rebellion as unfaithfulness to Him – To reject an earthly covenant was to despise God’s own name (vv. 18–20).
- God humbles the proud and lifts the lowly – He brings down high trees and makes dry trees flourish, proving His sovereignty (v. 24).
- God promises a future kingdom – The “tender shoot” planted on Israel’s high mountain points forward to the Messiah’s reign, where all nations find shelter (vv. 22–23).

Ezekiel 18 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Soul Who Sins Will Die”

A False Proverb Corrected

1 The word of the Lord came to me again, saying,

2 “Why do you quote this proverb about Israel: ‘The fathers ate sour grapes, and the children’s teeth are set on edge’?”

3 As surely as I live, declares the Lord God, you will no longer use this proverb in Israel.

4 For every soul belongs to Me—the soul of the father and the soul of the son. The one who sins is the one who will die.

The Righteous Man Will Live

5 Suppose a man is righteous and does what is just and right.

6 He does not worship at the mountain shrines or look to Israel’s idols. He does not defile his neighbor’s wife or approach a woman during her time of impurity.

7 He does not oppress anyone, but returns what he took as a pledge, does not steal, gives food to the hungry, and clothes the naked.

8 He does not charge interest or take excessive profit. He keeps his hand from injustice and judges fairly between people.

9 He follows My statutes and faithfully obeys My laws. Such a man is righteous; he will surely live, declares the Lord God.

The Wicked Son Will Die

10 But suppose he has a violent son, who is a murderer or does any of these other sins—
11 he worships idols, defiles his neighbor's wife,
12 oppresses the poor and needy, steals, does not return a pledge, looks to idols, commits detestable acts,
13 charges interest and takes profit—will such a man live? He will not live! Because of all these detestable things he has done, he will surely die. His blood will be on his own head.

A Righteous Grandson Will Live

14 But suppose this man has a son who sees all the sins his father committed, and though he sees them, he does not do such things.
15 He does not worship idols, defile his neighbor's wife,
16 oppress anyone, seize pledges, or steal. Instead, he gives food to the hungry, clothes the naked,
17 keeps his hand from wrongdoing, does not charge interest, and faithfully obeys My laws. That man will not die because of his father's sins. He will surely live.
18 But his father will die for his sins—because he practiced extortion, robbed his brother, and did what was wrong among the people.

Each Person Stands Before God

19 You ask, 'Why doesn't the son bear the guilt of the father?' Because the son has done what is right and kept My laws. He will surely live.
20 The soul who sins is the one who will die. A son will not bear the guilt of his father, and a father will not bear the guilt of his son. The righteousness of the righteous will be credited to him, and the wickedness of the wicked will be charged against him.

The Call to Repentance

21 But if a wicked man turns from all his sins, keeps My laws, and does what is just and right, he will surely live and not die.
22 None of the offenses he committed will be remembered against him. Because of the righteousness he has done, he will live.
23 Do I take any pleasure in the death of the wicked? declares the Lord God. Rather, am I not pleased when they turn from their ways and live?
24 But if a righteous man turns from his righteousness and commits sin, doing the same detestable things the wicked do, will he live? None of his righteous acts will be remembered. Because of his sin, he will die.

God's Justice Is Fair

25 Yet you say, 'The way of the Lord is not fair.' Hear me, O Israel: Is it My way that is unfair? Is it not your ways that are unfair?
26 If a righteous man turns from his righteousness and sins, he will die for it.

27 But if a wicked man turns from his wickedness and does what is just and right, he will save his life.
28 Because he considered his ways and turned from his sins, he will surely live and not die.

29 Yet the house of Israel says, ‘The Lord’s way is not fair.’ Are My ways unfair, O Israel? Are they not your ways that are unfair?

A Plea to Live

30 Therefore I will judge each of you, O Israel, according to your ways, declares the Lord God.
Repent! Turn away from all your sins, so sin will not be your downfall.

31 Rid yourselves of all the offenses you have committed and get a new heart and a new spirit. Why will you die, O house of Israel?

32 For I take no pleasure in the death of anyone, declares the Lord God. Turn and live!”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 18

- Every soul is accountable to God – The proverb about “sour grapes” is false; each person bears responsibility for their own sin (vv. 1–4, 19–20).
- Righteousness is personal – A righteous father cannot save a wicked son, and a wicked father cannot condemn a righteous son (vv. 5–18).
- Repentance brings life – God does not remember past sins when someone truly turns back to Him (vv. 21–22, 27–28).
- Righteousness can be lost – Past good deeds do not guarantee salvation if one turns to sin (vv. 24–26).
- God’s justice is fair – He takes no pleasure in judgment, but calls everyone to repent and live (vv. 23, 30–32).

Ezekiel 19 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Lament for Israel’s Princes”

The Lioness and Her Cubs

1 Take up a lament for the princes of Israel,

2 and say: “What was your mother? A lioness. She lay among the lions and raised her cubs among the young lions.

3 She brought up one of her cubs; it grew into a strong young lion. It learned to tear its prey and devoured people.

4 The nations heard about him; he was trapped in their pit. With hooks they led him away to the land of Egypt.

5 When the lioness saw her hope was gone, she took another of her cubs and made him a young lion.
6 He prowled among the lions, and he too became a strong young lion. He learned to tear his prey and devoured people.

7 He destroyed strongholds and laid waste cities. The land and all who were in it were terrified by the sound of his roaring.

8 Then the nations rose against him from all around. They spread their net over him, and he was trapped in their pit.

9 With hooks they put him in a cage and brought him to the king of Babylon. They brought him into prison so his roar would no longer be heard on the mountains of Israel.”

The Withered Vine

10 “Your mother was like a vine in your bloodline, planted by the waters. She was fruitful and full of branches because of abundant water.

11 Her branches were strong, fit for rulers’ scepters. She towered high above the thick foliage, visible for her height and many branches.

12 But she was uprooted in fury and thrown to the ground. The east wind dried up her fruit. Her strong branches withered and were consumed by fire.

13 Now she is transplanted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty land.

14 Fire spread from one of her branches and devoured her fruit. No strong branch remains in her, no scepter fit for a ruler. This is a lament, and it is to be used as a lament.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 19

- Israel’s leaders failed like trapped lions – The princes were raised up in strength but ended in captivity because of violence and sin (vv. 1–9).
- Nations that reject God lose their strength – The vine that once flourished was uprooted, dried, and left in a desert (vv. 10–13).
- Leadership without God’s blessing crumbles – No strong branch or ruling scepter remained in Jerusalem; the fire of judgment consumed them (v. 14).
- Lamentation is fitting for rebellion’s cost – Sin leads to loss, exile, and grief, and God calls His people to mourn their unfaithfulness.

Ezekiel 20 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Israel’s Rebellion and God’s Mercy”

Elders Come to Inquire

1 In the seventh year, in the fifth month, on the tenth day, some of the elders of Israel came to ask the Lord for guidance. They sat before me.

2 Then the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

3 “Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel and say, ‘This is what the Lord God says: Have you come to ask Me for help? As surely as I live, I will not be consulted by you.’”

4 “Will you judge them, son of man? Yes, judge them, and make them know the sins of their fathers.”

God’s Grace in Egypt

5 “This is what the Lord God says: On the day I chose Israel, I lifted up My hand to the descendants of Jacob and made Myself known to them in Egypt. I said to them, ‘I am the Lord your God.’

6 On that day, I swore to bring them out of Egypt into a land I had chosen for them—a land flowing with milk and honey, the most beautiful of all lands.

7 I said to them, ‘Get rid of the idols you cling to and do not defile yourselves with the gods of Egypt. I am the Lord your God.’

8 But they rebelled against Me and refused to listen. They would not give up the idols of Egypt. So I said I would pour out My wrath on them in Egypt.

9 But I acted for the sake of My name, so it would not be dishonored before the nations among whom they lived. I revealed Myself by bringing them out of Egypt.”

Rebellion in the Wilderness

10 “So I brought them out of Egypt and led them into the wilderness.

11 I gave them My statutes and revealed My laws—by which a person will live if he obeys them.

12 I also gave them My Sabbaths as a sign between us, so they would know that I am the Lord who makes them holy.

13 But in the wilderness, Israel rebelled against Me. They did not follow My statutes, they despised My laws, and they greatly desecrated My Sabbaths. So I said I would pour out My wrath and destroy them in the wilderness.

14 But for the sake of My name, I did not destroy them, so that My name would not be dishonored before the nations.

15 Yet in the wilderness I swore they would not enter the land I had promised, flowing with milk and honey, the most beautiful of all lands, 16 because they rejected My laws, despised My statutes, and desecrated My Sabbaths. Their hearts chased after idols.

17 Still, I spared them and did not destroy them completely in the wilderness.

Warning to the Next Generation

18 I said to their children: ‘Do not follow the ways of your fathers. Do not defile yourselves with their idols.

19 I am the Lord your God; walk in My statutes, keep My laws, and obey them.

20 Keep My Sabbaths holy, and they will be a sign between us, that you may know that I am the Lord your God.’

21 But the children also rebelled against Me. They did not walk in My statutes, they despised My laws, and they desecrated My Sabbaths. So I said I would pour out My wrath upon them in the wilderness.

22 But again I withheld My hand for the sake of My name, so it would not be dishonored before the nations.

Judgment and Scattering

23 I swore in the wilderness that I would scatter them among the nations and disperse them throughout the lands,

24 because they had not obeyed My laws but had rejected My statutes, desecrated My Sabbaths, and turned to idols.

25 So I allowed them to follow statutes that were not good and laws through which they could not live.

26 I let them defile themselves by offering their firstborn children in fire to idols, so that I might devastate them and let them know that I am the Lord.”

Rebellion in the Land

27 “Therefore, son of man, speak to Israel: This is what the Lord God says—In this also your ancestors blasphemed Me.

28 When I brought them into the land I swore to give them, they saw every high hill and leafy tree.

There they offered sacrifices, provoked Me with their offerings, burned incense, and poured out drink offerings to idols.

29 So I asked them, ‘What is this high place to which you go?’ It is still called Bamah to this day.

30 Say to Israel: This is what the Lord God says—Are you not defiling yourselves as your fathers did, prostituting yourselves with their idols?

31 When you offer your gifts and sacrifice your children in fire, you defile yourselves with your idols to this very day. Should I let you ask Me for help, O Israel? As surely as I live, I will not let you consult Me.

32 You say, ‘We want to be like the nations, like the peoples of the world, who worship wood and stone.’ But what you have in mind will never happen.

God Will Rule Israel

33 As surely as I live, declares the Lord God, I will rule over you with a mighty hand, an outstretched arm, and with poured-out fury.

34 I will bring you out from the nations and gather you from the countries where you are scattered, with a mighty hand and outpoured wrath.

35 I will bring you into the wilderness of the nations, and there I will judge you face to face.

36 Just as I judged your fathers in the wilderness of Egypt, so I will judge you, declares the Lord God.

37 I will make you pass under the rod and bring you into the bond of the covenant.

38 I will purge from you the rebels and those who turn away from Me. Though they live in foreign lands, they will not enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the Lord.

A Future of Worship and Restoration

39 As for you, O house of Israel, this is what the Lord God says: Go and serve your idols if you will not listen to Me, but do not profane My holy name with your gifts and idols any longer.

40 For on My holy mountain, the high mountain of Israel, the whole house of Israel will worship Me in the land. There I will accept you. There I will require your offerings and the firstfruits of your gifts, together with all your holy sacrifices.

41 I will accept you like a pleasing aroma when I bring you out of the nations and gather you from the countries where you have been scattered. I will show Myself holy through you before the nations.

42 Then you will know that I am the Lord when I bring you into the land of Israel—the land I swore to give to your fathers.

43 There you will remember your conduct and all the deeds by which you defiled yourselves. You will hate yourselves for all the evil you have done.

44 And you will know that I am the Lord, when I deal with you for the sake of My name, not according to your wicked ways or corrupt deeds, declares the Lord God.”

A Prophecy of Fire

45 The word of the Lord came to me again, saying,

46 “Son of man, set your face toward the south, preach against the south, and prophesy against the forest land in the Negev.

47 Say to the forest of the south: Hear the word of the Lord. This is what the Lord God says: I am about to set fire to you, and it will consume every green tree and every dry tree. The blazing flame will not be quenched, and every face from south to north will be scorched by it.

48 All people will see that I the Lord have set it ablaze; it will not be quenched.”

49 Then I said, “Ah, Lord God! They say of me, ‘Doesn’t he just speak in parables?’”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 20

- Rebellion runs deep – From Egypt to the wilderness to the promised land, Israel repeatedly turned to idols (vv. 7–31).
- God spares for His name’s sake – He withheld destruction so His name would not be dishonored before the nations (vv. 9, 14, 22).
- Judgment leads to restoration – God promises to purge rebels but gather His faithful remnant back into covenant (vv. 37–38).
- God wants true worship – His holy mountain will be the place where His people offer pure worship (vv. 39–41).
- God’s discipline is always just – His judgments are both purifying and redemptive, showing He is the Lord (vv. 42–44).

Ezekiel 21 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord’s Sword of Judgment”

The Sword Against Israel

1 The word of the Lord came to me, saying,

2 “Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem. Speak against the sanctuary and prophesy against the land of Israel.

3 Say to the land of Israel: This is what the Lord says—Behold, I am against you. I will draw My sword from its sheath and cut off both the righteous and the wicked.

4 Because I will cut off both the righteous and the wicked, My sword will strike everyone from south to north.

5 Then all people will know that I the Lord have drawn My sword from its sheath, and it will not return again.”

6 “Therefore, groan, son of man! Groan before them with breaking sorrow and bitterness.

7 When they ask you, ‘Why do you groan?’ you shall answer, ‘Because of the news that is coming.

Every heart will melt, all hands will be weak, every spirit will faint, and every knee will turn to water. Behold, it is coming, and it will surely happen,’ declares the Lord God.”

The Sword Sharpened

8 The word of the Lord came to me again, saying,

9 “Son of man, prophesy: This is what the Lord says—

A sword! A sword! It is sharpened and polished.

10 Sharpened for slaughter, polished to flash like lightning.

Should we celebrate? The rod of My son despises every tree.

11 The sword is polished and ready to be grasped. It is sharpened and polished to be placed in the hand of the slayer.

12 Cry out and wail, son of man, for it will fall upon My people and upon all the princes of Israel. They are delivered over to the sword. Strike your thigh in despair.

13 For testing has come. And what if even the rod that despises will be no more? declares the Lord God.

14 Therefore, son of man, prophesy. Clap your hands together, and let the sword strike three times—the sword of the slain. It is the sword of great slaughter, piercing into their inner chambers.

15 I have set the sword at all their gates so that hearts may melt and many may fall. Ah! It is made to flash like lightning, polished for slaughter.

16 Sword, strike to the right! Strike to the left! Wherever your edge is directed.

17 I too will clap My hands together and satisfy My wrath. I the Lord have spoken.”

The Path of the Sword

18 The word of the Lord came to me again, saying,

19 “Son of man, mark out two roads for the sword of the king of Babylon to take. Both will come from the same land. Mark a signpost at the head of the road leading to the city.

20 Mark out one road for the sword to come to Rabbah of the Ammonites and the other to Judah, to Jerusalem the fortified city.

21 For the king of Babylon will stand at the fork in the road, where the two paths meet, to use divination. He will cast lots with arrows, consult idols, and examine a liver.

22 In his right hand is the lot for Jerusalem—to set battering rams, to call for slaughter, to shout commands, to build siege ramps, and to set up siege works.

23 But to the people of Jerusalem it will seem like a false divination, since they had sworn treaties. But he will bring their guilt to mind, and they will be captured.”

Judgment on the Wicked Prince

24 “Therefore this is what the Lord God says: Because you have brought your guilt to remembrance, exposing your sins so that your offenses are revealed in all your deeds—because you have been remembered, you will be taken in hand.

25 And you, O profane, wicked prince of Israel, whose day has come, the time of final punishment—

26 This is what the Lord God says: Take off the turban, remove the crown. Things will not remain as they are. The lowly will be exalted, and the exalted will be brought low.

27 I will overturn, overturn, overturn it! It will be no more until the one comes to whom it rightfully belongs, and I will give it to Him.”

Judgment on the Ammonites

28 “Now, son of man, prophesy and say: This is what the Lord God says concerning the Ammonites and their insults—

The sword, the sword is drawn for slaughter. It is polished to consume and flash like lightning.

29 Even though false visions and lying divinations are spoken about you, you will be laid on the necks of the wicked who are marked for slaughter, whose day has come at the time of final punishment.

30 Will I return the sword to its sheath? No! I will judge you in the place where you were created, in the land of your birth.

31 I will pour out My indignation upon you. I will breathe out the fire of My wrath against you. I will deliver you into the hands of brutal men, skilled in destruction.

32 You will be fuel for the fire. Your blood will be spilled in your land. You will be remembered no more. For I the Lord have spoken.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 21

- God’s sword is unstoppable – His judgment comes against both righteous and wicked, showing His holiness (vv. 3–5).
- Prophets must bear the burden of the message – Ezekiel groaned and wept to show the terror of God’s coming judgment (vv. 6–7, 12).
- God directs nations—even Babylon’s divination – The king of Babylon thought he chose by chance, but God directed the sword toward Jerusalem (vv. 21–23).

- Human crowns are temporary – God overturns corrupt rulers, but promises the crown to the one rightful King—the Messiah (vv. 25–27).
- Judgment is final for the unrepentant – Both Israel and her neighbors (Ammon) faced fire, wrath, and destruction for rebellion (vv. 28–32).

Ezekiel 22 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Sins of Jerusalem Exposed”

The Bloody City

1 The word of the Lord came to me, saying,

2 “Son of man, will you judge the bloody city? Show her all her abominations.

3 Say: This is what the Lord God says—You shed blood in your midst to bring about your own end, and you defile yourself with idols you have made.

4 By the blood you have shed you are guilty. By the idols you have made you are defiled. You have brought your days near, and the end of your years has come. Therefore I have made you a disgrace to the nations and a mockery to every land.

5 Those near and those far away will mock you, you infamous city, full of turmoil.”

Corruption Among the People

6 “Look, every prince of Israel uses his power in you to shed blood.

7 You have treated father and mother with contempt. You have oppressed the foreigner in your midst. You have mistreated the fatherless and the widow.

8 You have despised My holy things and have profaned My Sabbaths.

9 In you are slanderers who shed blood. In you they feast on the mountain shrines. In your midst they commit vile acts.

10 In you are those who dishonor their father’s bed. In you men violate women during their impurity.

11 One man sleeps with his neighbor’s wife, another defiles his daughter-in-law, another violates his sister—his own father’s daughter.

12 In you they take bribes to shed blood. You charge interest and make profit by extortion. You oppress your neighbors for gain, and you have forgotten Me, declares the Lord God.

13 So I will strike My hands together at the dishonest profit you have made and at the blood you have shed.

14 Will your courage endure? Will your strength remain in the days I deal with you? I the Lord have spoken, and I will do it.

15 I will scatter you among the nations and disperse you through the countries, and I will remove your uncleanness from you.

16 You will be defiled in the sight of the nations, and you will know that I am the Lord.”

Israel as Dross

17 The word of the Lord came to me, saying,

18 “Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to Me; they are all like bronze, tin, iron, and lead left in a furnace. They are worthless dross of silver.

19 Therefore this is what the Lord God says: Because you have all become dross, I will gather you into Jerusalem.

20 Just as men gather silver, bronze, iron, lead, and tin into a furnace to melt them with fire, so I will gather you in My anger and wrath, and I will melt you.

21 I will blow on you with the fire of My wrath, and you will be melted inside Jerusalem.

22 As silver is melted in a furnace, so you will be melted in My fury. Then you will know that I, the Lord, have poured out My wrath on you.”

The Corruption of Leaders

23 The word of the Lord came to me, saying,

24 “Son of man, say to the land: You are a land not cleansed or rained on in the day of My wrath.

25 Her prophets conspire together like roaring lions tearing prey. They devour lives, seize treasures, and take valuables. They make many widows in her midst.

26 Her priests violate My law and profane My holy things. They make no distinction between holy and common, or between clean and unclean. They ignore My Sabbaths, so I am profaned among them.

27 Her princes are like wolves tearing prey, shedding blood, destroying lives, and making dishonest gain.

28 Her prophets whitewash their crimes with false visions and lying divinations. They say, ‘This is what the Lord says,’ when I have not spoken.

29 The people of the land practice extortion and robbery. They oppress the poor and needy and mistreat the foreigner without justice.

30 I searched for someone among them who would build up the wall and stand in the gap before Me on behalf of the land, so I would not destroy it. But I found no one.

31 So I have poured out My wrath on them. I have consumed them with the fire of My fury. I have repaid them for their conduct, declares the Lord God.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 22

- Sin brings shame – The bloodshed, idolatry, and corruption of Jerusalem made them a mockery to all nations (vv. 2–5).
- Every level of society was guilty – Princes, priests, prophets, and the people all turned to violence, greed, and immorality (vv. 6–12, 25–29).
- God tests like fire – Israel became worthless dross, and God declared He would melt them in the furnace of judgment (vv. 17–22).

- Leaders must protect the people, not exploit them – Instead, Israel’s leaders devoured the weak for selfish gain (vv. 25–28).
- Intercessors are needed – God searched for someone to “stand in the gap,” but none was found, so judgment came (v. 30).

Ezekiel 23 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Two Sisters: Aholah and Aholibah”

The Sisters’ Unfaithfulness

1 The word of the Lord came to me, saying,

2 “Son of man, there were two women, daughters of the same mother.

3 They prostituted themselves in Egypt; in their youth they sold themselves. There their breasts were fondled and their virgin bodies violated.

4 Their names were Aholah the older, and Aholibah her sister. They became Mine and bore sons and daughters. Aholah is Samaria, and Aholibah is Jerusalem.

5 Aholah gave herself to prostitution while she belonged to Me. She lusted after her lovers—the Assyrians, her neighbors—

6 Warriors dressed in blue, governors and commanders, handsome young men, skilled horsemen.

7 She prostituted herself with them, every one of them desirable, and defiled herself with all the idols they worshiped.

8 She did not give up the immorality she learned in Egypt, where men had violated her in her youth.

9 Therefore, I delivered her into the hands of her lovers, the Assyrians she desired.

10 They stripped her naked, killed her sons and daughters, and put her to death with the sword. She became an example to all women, when judgment was carried out against her.”

Aholibah’s Greater Corruption

11 “Her sister Aholibah saw this, yet she was even more corrupt. She lusted more than her sister.

12 She too desired the Assyrians—handsome rulers dressed in splendor, horsemen riding on horses, desirable young men.

13 I saw that she was defiled, both sisters following the same path.

14 But Aholibah went further. She saw pictures of Babylonian men painted on a wall, images colored in red, 15 dressed in fine sashes and wearing beautiful turbans—nobles of Babylon, born in Chaldea.

16 As soon as she saw them, she lusted after them and sent messengers to them in Chaldea.

17 So the Babylonians came to her and defiled her with their lust. But after being polluted by them, she grew tired of them.

18 Still, she flaunted her immorality and exposed her nakedness. So My heart turned from her, just as it had turned from her sister.

19 Yet she remembered her youth in Egypt and multiplied her immorality.

20 She lusted after lovers whose flesh was like donkeys and whose desires were like horses.

21 She repeated the lewdness of her youth in Egypt, when her body was used for sin.”

Judgment on Aholibah

22 “Therefore, O Aholibah, this is what the Lord God says: I will stir up against you the very lovers you turned away from.

23 The Babylonians and all the Chaldeans—Pekod, Shoa, Koa—and all the Assyrians with them: all of them desirable young men, governors, commanders, nobles, and rulers, mounted on horses.

24 They will come against you with weapons, chariots, and a great army. They will surround you with shields and helmets. I will hand you over to them for judgment, and they will judge you according to their laws.

25 I will direct My jealousy against you, and they will deal with you in fury. They will cut off your nose and ears. What remains of you will fall by the sword. They will take away your sons and daughters, and burn the rest with fire.

26 They will strip you of your clothes and take your jewelry.

27 So I will put an end to the immorality you brought from Egypt. You will no longer look to Egypt or remember them anymore.”

28 “For this is what the Lord God says: I will hand you over to those you hate, to those from whom you turned away.

29 They will treat you with hatred, take all you worked for, and leave you naked and bare. Your immorality will be exposed, your shame revealed.

30 This is your judgment because you prostituted yourself with other nations and defiled yourself with their idols.

31 You followed your sister’s path, so I will give you her cup to drink.

32 This is what the Lord God says: You will drink your sister’s cup—deep and wide. It will bring scorn and ridicule.

33 You will be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, a cup of ruin and desolation—the cup of your sister Samaria.

34 You will drink it and drain it, break its pieces, and tear your own breasts in despair. I the Lord have spoken.”

Their Abominations

35 “Therefore this is what the Lord God says: Because you have forgotten Me and turned your back on Me, you must bear the punishment of your sin and prostitution.”

36 The Lord said to me, “Son of man, will you judge Aholah and Aholibah? Then declare to them their detestable acts.

37 They have committed adultery, blood is on their hands. With idols they have committed adultery. They even sacrificed the children they bore to Me, burning them in the fire.

38 On the same day, they defiled My temple and profaned My Sabbaths.

39 They slaughtered their children for idols and then came into My sanctuary that very same day to profane it. That is what they did in My house.

40 They also sent messengers for men from far away. When they arrived, you bathed, painted your eyes, and adorned yourself with jewelry.

41 You sat on a luxurious couch with a table before it, where you set My incense and My oil.

42 A crowd of carefree men surrounded her, and with them came drunkards from the desert. They put bracelets on their arms and crowns on their heads.

43 Then I said of her, worn out by adultery: Will they continue to commit immorality with her?

44 Yet they went to her as men go to a prostitute. So they went to Aholah and Aholibah, the shameless women.

Final Judgment

45 Righteous men will judge them with the judgment of adulteresses and murderers, for they are adulteresses and blood is on their hands.

46 This is what the Lord God says: Bring a mob against them, and hand them over to terror and plunder.

47 The mob will stone them and kill them with their swords. They will slay their sons and daughters and burn down their houses.

48 So I will put an end to wickedness in the land, and all women will be warned not to imitate your lewdness.

49 You will bear the penalty for your immorality and idolatry. Then you will know that I am the Lord God.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 23

- Spiritual unfaithfulness is like adultery – Samaria and Jerusalem are pictured as unfaithful wives running after foreign nations and idols (vv. 1–21).
- Sin grows worse if unchecked – Jerusalem (Aholibah) became even more corrupt than Samaria (Aholah), showing how rebellion deepens without repentance (vv. 11–20).
- God allows judgment through former “lovers” – The nations Israel trusted in became the very instruments of her destruction (vv. 22–29).
- Idolatry defiles worship – Israel polluted God’s temple and Sabbaths while sacrificing children to idols (vv. 37–39).
- Judgment warns others – God’s punishment on Jerusalem and Samaria serves as a warning for others not to follow their path (vv. 45–48).

Ezekiel 24 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Boiling Pot and the Prophet’s Loss”

The Boiling Pot Parable

1 In the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

2 “Son of man, write down this date, this very day. The king of Babylon has begun his siege against Jerusalem this day.

3 Tell this rebellious people a parable. Say to them: This is what the Lord God says—‘Put a pot on the fire, put it on and pour water in it.

4 Add pieces of meat, the best cuts—the thigh and the shoulder—fill it with choice bones.

5 Take the best of the flock, pile wood under it, boil the meat well, and cook the bones too.’

6 This is what the Lord God says: Woe to the bloody city, the pot corroded with filth that will not come clean! Take the pieces out one by one; no lot is cast for them.

7 For the blood she shed is still in her midst. She poured it on a bare rock, not on the ground to cover it with dust.

8 I have exposed her blood on the bare rock so that My wrath may rise and vengeance may be taken.

9 This is what the Lord God says: Woe to the bloody city! I will make the fire burn hot.

10 Pile on the wood, kindle the flames, cook the meat thoroughly, and burn up the bones.

11 Then set the empty pot on the coals until its bronze glows and its filth melts away—until its scum is consumed.

12 But the filth still remains. Her corruption will not leave. She must be thrown into the fire.

13 In your impurity you were shameless. I tried to cleanse you, but you would not be cleansed. You will not be pure until My fury has spent itself upon you.

14 I the Lord have spoken—it will happen! I will not hold back; I will not spare or relent. You will be judged according to your ways and deeds, declares the Lord God.”

The Death of Ezekiel’s Wife

15 Then the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

16 “Son of man, I am about to take away from you the delight of your eyes with a single blow. Yet you must not mourn or weep, nor let your tears flow.

17 Groan silently, but do not mourn publicly for the dead. Put on your turban, keep your sandals on, do not cover your face, and do not eat the food of mourners.”

18 So I spoke to the people in the morning, and that evening my wife died. The next morning I did as I was commanded.

19 The people asked me, “Will you not tell us what these things mean to us, why you are acting this way?”

20 I answered them, “The word of the Lord came to me, saying:

21 Tell the house of Israel: This is what the Lord God says—‘I will desecrate My sanctuary, the stronghold in which you take pride, the delight of your eyes, the treasure of your heart. The sons and daughters you left behind will fall by the sword.

22 You will do as I have done: You will not cover your faces or eat the bread of mourners.

23 You will keep your turbans on and your sandals on your feet. You will not mourn or weep, but you will waste away because of your sins and groan to one another.

24 Ezekiel will be a sign to you. You will do just as he has done. When this happens, you will know that I am the Lord God.”

A Survivor Will Tell the News

25 “And you, son of man, on the day I take from them their stronghold—the joy of their glory, the delight of their eyes, the longing of their hearts, along with their sons and daughters—

26 on that day a fugitive will come to you to report the news.

27 On that day your mouth will be opened to the one who escapes, and you will speak and no longer be silent. In this way you will be a sign to them, and they will know that I am the Lord.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 24

- God’s judgment is thorough – Like the boiling pot, Jerusalem’s sin and bloodshed are exposed and burned away under God’s fire of wrath (vv. 3–14).
- God’s discipline is unrelenting – He tried to cleanse His people, but they refused; so judgment became inevitable (v. 13–14).
- The prophet’s pain is a sign – Ezekiel’s wife, “the delight of his eyes,” was taken, showing how God would remove the temple, the delight of the people’s eyes (vv. 16–21).
- No comfort in sin’s judgment – The people would not mourn publicly, but waste away in guilt, bearing the weight of their rebellion (vv. 22–23).
- God confirms His word – Survivors of the destruction would carry news to Ezekiel, proving the Lord’s warnings were true (vv. 25–27).

Ezekiel 25 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Judgment on the Nations”

Prophecy Against Ammon

1 The word of the Lord came to me, saying,

2 “Son of man, set your face against the Ammonites and prophesy against them.

3 Say to the Ammonites: Hear the word of the Lord God! This is what the Lord says—Because you said, ‘Aha!’ when My sanctuary was profaned, when the land of Israel was laid desolate, and when the people of Judah went into exile,

4 I will give you to the people of the east as their possession. They will set up their camps among you, eat your fruit, and drink your milk.

5 I will make Rabbah a pasture for camels and the land of Ammon a resting place for flocks. Then you will know that I am the Lord.

6 For this is what the Lord God says: Because you clapped your hands, stomped your feet, and rejoiced in malice against the land of Israel,

7 I will stretch out My hand against you, give you as plunder to the nations, cut you off from among the peoples, and cause you to perish from the earth. You will be destroyed, and you will know that I am the Lord.”

Prophecy Against Moab

8 “This is what the Lord God says: Because Moab and Seir said, ‘Look! Judah is no different from all the other nations,’

9 I will expose the flank of Moab, beginning with its frontier cities—the pride of the land—Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim.

10 I will hand them over to the people of the east, just like I did with the Ammonites, so that the Ammonites will be forgotten among the nations.

11 I will execute judgment on Moab, and they will know that I am the Lord.”

Prophecy Against Edom

12 “This is what the Lord God says: Because Edom took vengeance against the house of Judah and became guilty by exacting revenge,

13 I will stretch out My hand against Edom, cut off both man and beast, and make it desolate from Teman to Dedan.

14 I will take My vengeance on Edom through the hand of My people Israel. They will carry out My anger and fury, and they will know My vengeance, declares the Lord God.”

Prophecy Against the Philistines

15 “This is what the Lord God says: Because the Philistines acted in vengeance with a spiteful heart, seeking to destroy Judah with longstanding hatred, 16 I will stretch out My hand against the Philistines, cut off the Cherethites, and destroy the rest of the seacoast people.

17 I will carry out great vengeance on them with furious rebukes. Then they will know that I am the Lord, when I take My vengeance on them.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 25

- Mocking God’s people brings judgment – Ammon celebrated Judah’s fall, but God turned their land into ruins (vv. 2–7).
- God judges pride and arrogance – Moab dismissed Judah as just another nation, but God proved His people are set apart (vv. 8–11).
- Vengeance belongs to God – Edom took revenge into their own hands, but God promised to repay them through Israel (vv. 12–14).
- Hatred leads to destruction – The Philistines’ long-standing spite invited God’s furious rebuke (vv. 15–17).
- God rules over all nations – Not just Israel, but every nation that mocks, oppresses, or exalts itself against Him will know that He is the Lord.

Ezekiel 26 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Fall of Tyre”

Tyre’s Pride Against Jerusalem

1 In the eleventh year, on the first day of the month, the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

2 “Son of man, because Tyre said against Jerusalem, ‘Aha! The gate of the nations is broken. She has turned to me, and now I will prosper since she is desolate,’

3 therefore this is what the Lord God says: Behold, O Tyre, I am against you. I will bring many nations against you, as the sea brings its waves.

4 They will destroy the walls of Tyre and tear down her towers. I will scrape away her rubble and make her bare like the top of a rock.

5 She will become a place for fishermen to spread their nets in the sea. I have spoken, declares the Lord God. She will become plunder for the nations.

6 Her surrounding towns will be slain by the sword. Then they will know that I am the Lord.”

Nebuchadnezzar Against Tyre

7 “For this is what the Lord God says: I will bring against Tyre Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, king of kings, from the north—with horses, chariots, horsemen, and a great army.

8 He will kill your daughters in the countryside with the sword. He will build siege ramps, set up siege walls, and raise his shields against you.

9 He will direct his battering rams against your walls and break down your towers with his axes.

10 The dust from his many horses will cover you. At the noise of his chariots and horsemen, your walls will shake when he enters your gates as men enter a breached city.

11 With the hoofs of his horses, he will trample all your streets. He will kill your people with the sword, and your strong pillars will fall to the ground.

12 They will plunder your wealth and loot your merchandise. They will tear down your walls and destroy your fine houses. They will throw your stones, timber, and rubble into the sea.

13 I will put an end to the sound of your songs, and the music of your harps will be heard no more.

14 I will make you like a bare rock, a place for spreading fishing nets. You will never be rebuilt. For I the Lord have spoken, declares the Lord God.”

A Lament Over Tyre

15 “This is what the Lord God says to Tyre: Will not the coastlands shake at the sound of your fall, when the wounded groan and slaughter is made in your midst?

16 Then all the princes of the sea will step down from their thrones, remove their robes, and lay aside their embroidered garments. They will clothe themselves with trembling. They will sit on the ground, shivering, astonished at you.

17 They will raise a lament for you, saying:

‘How you have perished, O city of renown, peopled by seafarers, mighty on the sea! You and your inhabitants spread your terror across the seas.

18 Now the coastlands tremble on the day of your fall. The islands of the sea are terrified at your collapse.’

Tyre Cast Down Forever

19 “This is what the Lord God says: When I make you a desolate city, like cities no longer inhabited, when I bring the deep over you and the great waters cover you,

20 then I will bring you down with those who go down to the pit, to the people of old. I will make you dwell in the earth below, in desolate places long ago laid waste, with those who go down to the pit. You will not be inhabited again, nor will you rise to the land of the living.

21 I will make you an object of terror, and you will be no more. Though you are sought for, you will never again be found, declares the Lord God.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 26

- Pride over another’s downfall is sin – Tyre rejoiced at Jerusalem’s fall, but God judged her for mocking His people (vv. 2–3).
- God humbles the strong – Tyre trusted in wealth and seafaring power, but God made her a bare rock, destroyed forever (vv. 4–14).

- Earthly kingdoms rise and fall – Nebuchadnezzar and many nations were tools in God’s hand to carry out His justice (vv. 7–12).
- Wealth and beauty cannot save – Tyre’s songs, riches, and trade could not shield her from God’s judgment (vv. 13–14).
- Only God’s kingdom endures – Human cities can vanish forever, but God’s word and kingdom remain unshakable (vv. 19–21).

Ezekiel 27 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lament for Tyre”

Tyre’s Boast of Beauty

1 The word of the Lord came to me again, saying,

2 “Son of man, take up a lamentation for Tyre.

3 Say to Tyre, who sits at the gateway of the sea, merchant of many nations: This is what the Lord God says—

O Tyre, you have said, ‘I am perfect in beauty.’

4 Your borders are in the heart of the seas. Your builders perfected your beauty.

5 They made all your ship boards from fir trees of Senir. They took cedars from Lebanon to make masts for you.

6 They made your oars from oaks of Bashan, and your deck from ivory inlaid in cypress wood from the coasts of Cyprus.

7 Fine embroidered linen from Egypt was your sail, serving as your banner. Blue and purple cloth from the coasts of Elishah covered you.”

Tyre’s Trade and Splendor

8 “Men of Sidon and Arvad were your rowers. Your own wise men, O Tyre, were your pilots.

9 The elders of Gebal and their craftsmen caulked your seams. All the ships of the sea came to trade in your marketplace.

10 Men of Persia, Lydia, and Put were in your army, men of war. They hung shields and helmets in you, giving you glory.

11 Men of Arvad with your army were on your walls all around, and men of Gammad were in your towers. They hung their shields on your walls, completing your beauty.

12 Tarshish traded with you because of your great wealth of every kind—silver, iron, tin, and lead they exchanged for your merchandise.

13 Javan, Tubal, and Meshech traded with you; they exchanged slaves and bronze vessels for your goods.

14 The people of Beth-Togarmah exchanged horses, war horses, and mules for your wares.

15 The men of Dedan traded with you, and many coastlands were your customers. They paid you with ivory tusks and ebony.

16 Syria traded with you because of your abundant goods. They gave you emeralds, purple cloth, embroidered garments, fine linen, coral, and rubies.

17 Judah and the land of Israel traded with you, selling wheat from Minnith, honey, oil, and balm.

18 Damascus traded with you because of your many goods and great wealth, offering wine of Helbon and white wool.

19 Dan and Javan supplied wrought iron, cassia, and calamus for your goods.

20 Dedan traded with you in saddle blankets for riding.

21 Arabia and all the princes of Kedar traded with you in lambs, rams, and goats.

22 The merchants of Sheba and Raamah traded with you in the finest spices, precious stones, and gold.

23 Haran, Canneh, Eden, Sheba, Asshur, and Chilmad traded with you.

24 They brought to you rich garments, blue cloths, embroidered work, chests of multicolored garments tied with cords, and cedar wood.”

Tyre's Wealth and Glory

25 “The ships of Tarshish carried your goods. You were filled with heavy cargo and made very glorious in the heart of the seas.

26 Your rowers brought you into deep waters, but the east wind broke you in the heart of the seas.

27 Your wealth, your goods, your merchandise, your sailors and pilots, your caulkers and merchants, all your men of war, and all your company—all will sink into the heart of the seas on the day of your ruin.

28 At the sound of the cry of your pilots the suburbs will shake.

29 All who handle the oar will leave their ships. The sailors and pilots of the sea will stand on the shore.

30 They will raise their voices over you and cry bitterly. They will cast dust on their heads and roll in ashes.

31 They will shave their heads for you, and put on sackcloth. They will weep for you with bitterness of heart and bitter mourning.

32 In their wailing they will lament for you, saying:
‘Who is like Tyre, destroyed in the heart of the sea?’

33 When your goods went out on the seas, you satisfied many peoples. You enriched the kings of the earth with your abundant wealth and merchandise.

34 But now you are broken by the seas, sunk in the depths of the waters. Your merchandise and all your crew have gone down with you.

35 All the inhabitants of the coastlands are appalled at you. Their kings shudder greatly; their faces are troubled.

36 The merchants among the nations hiss at you. You have become a terror, and you shall never be again.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 27

- Human pride leads to downfall – Tyre gloried in her beauty and wealth, boasting “I am perfect in beauty,” but God humbled her (vv. 3–4).
- Worldly success cannot save – Tyre’s trade was vast, enriching nations, yet her wealth could not prevent her ruin (vv. 12–24, 33–34).
- Nations and leaders mourn when wealth falls – Merchants, sailors, and kings grieved when Tyre fell, for their gain was lost with her (vv. 29–36).
- God overturns human glory – The city that seemed untouchable was broken by God’s east wind and disappeared forever (vv. 26–36).
- True security is in the Lord alone – Not in trade, armies, or beauty, but in faithfulness to God who endures forever.

Ezekiel 28 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Fall of the Prince of Tyre and the Covering Cherub”

The Pride of the Prince of Tyre

1 The word of the Lord came to me again, saying,

2 “Son of man, say to the prince of Tyre, This is what the Lord God says:

Because your heart is lifted up, and you have said, ‘I am a god; I sit in the seat of God in the heart of the seas,’ yet you are a man, not God, though you set your heart as if it were the heart of God—

3 Behold, you are wiser than Daniel; no secret can be hidden from you.

4 By your wisdom and understanding you have gained wealth for yourself, and gathered gold and silver into your treasuries.

5 By your great skill in trading you increased your riches, and your heart grew proud because of your wealth.

6 Therefore this is what the Lord God says: Because you have made your heart like the heart of God,

7 Behold, I will bring foreigners against you, the most ruthless of nations. They will draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom and defile your splendor.

8 They will bring you down to the pit, and you will die the death of those slain in the heart of the seas.

9 Will you still say, ‘I am a god,’ in the presence of those who slay you? You will be a man, not a god, in the hands of those who kill you.

10 You will die the death of the uncircumcised at the hands of foreigners. For I have spoken it, declares the Lord God.”

The Lament for the King of Tyre

11 The word of the Lord came to me again, saying,

12 “Son of man, take up a lament for the king of Tyre, and say to him: This is what the Lord God says

‘You were the seal of perfection, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.

13 You were in Eden, the garden of God. Every precious stone adorned you: sardius, topaz, diamond, beryl, onyx, jasper, sapphire, emerald, carbuncle, and gold. The workmanship of your timbrels and pipes was prepared for you on the day you were created.

14 You were the anointed cherub who covers, and I set you so. You were on the holy mountain of God; you walked in the midst of the stones of fire.

15 You were perfect in your ways from the day you were created, until iniquity was found in you.

16 By the abundance of your trading you were filled with violence, and you sinned. So I cast you as profane from the mountain of God, and I destroyed you, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire.

17 Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty. You corrupted your wisdom for the sake of your splendor. I cast you to the ground; I exposed you before kings, that they might gaze upon you.

18 You defiled your sanctuaries by your many sins and your dishonest trade. So I brought fire out from your midst; it consumed you, and I turned you to ashes on the earth in the sight of all who saw you.

19 All who knew you among the peoples are appalled at you. You have come to a terrible end and shall be no more forever.”

Judgment on Sidon

20 The word of the Lord came to me, saying,

21 “Son of man, set your face against Sidon and prophesy against her.

22 Say, This is what the Lord God says: Behold, I am against you, O Sidon, and I will display My glory in your midst. They will know that I am the Lord when I execute judgments upon you and am sanctified in you.

23 I will send pestilence upon you, and blood will fill your streets. The slain will fall within you by the sword on every side. Then you will know that I am the Lord.

24 And the house of Israel will no longer have a pricking brier or a painful thorn from all their neighbors who despise them. Then they will know that I am the Lord God.”

Promise of Israel’s Restoration

25 “This is what the Lord God says: When I gather the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, I will show Myself holy in them in the sight of the nations. Then they will live in their own land which I gave to My servant Jacob.

26 They will dwell securely there, build houses, and plant vineyards. They will live in safety when I execute judgment upon all who despise them on every side. Then they will know that I am the Lord their God.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 28

- Pride brings ruin – The prince of Tyre exalted himself as if he were God, but God humbled him (vv. 2–10).
- The fall of the covering cherub – The lament for the “king of Tyre” reveals imagery pointing beyond Tyre’s ruler to Satan’s fall from perfection to corruption (vv. 12–19).
- Sin corrupts beauty – Riches, wisdom, and splendor without humility lead to destruction (vv. 4–5, 17).
- God judges nations – Sidon also faced plague and bloodshed for resisting God (vv. 21–23).
- God promises restoration – Despite judgment, He promises to regather Israel and give them peace and security in their land (vv. 25–26).

Ezekiel 29 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Judgment on Egypt”

Prophecy Against Pharaoh

1 In the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the twelfth day of the month, the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

2 “Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him and against all Egypt.

3 Say, ‘This is what the Lord God says: Behold, I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great monster that lies in the midst of his rivers, who says, “The Nile is mine, and I made it.”

4 But I will put hooks in your jaws, and I will make the fish of your rivers stick to your scales. I will bring you up out of your rivers, with all the fish clinging to your scales.

5 I will leave you in the wilderness—you and all the fish of your rivers. You will fall on the open field; you will not be gathered or buried. I will give you as food to the beasts of the earth and the birds of the sky.

6 Then all the inhabitants of Egypt will know that I am the Lord. Because you have been like a staff of reed to the house of Israel—

7 When they grasped you with the hand, you broke and tore open their shoulders; when they leaned on you, you broke and made their backs unsteady—

8 Therefore this is what the Lord God says: I will bring a sword against you and cut off man and beast from you.

9 The land of Egypt will become a desolate wasteland. Then they will know that I am the Lord. Because you said, “The Nile is mine, and I made it,”

10 Therefore I am against you and your rivers. I will make the land of Egypt a ruin and a desolation, from Migdol to Syene, as far as the border of Cush.

11 No human foot will pass through it, nor will the foot of an animal pass through it. It will remain uninhabited for forty years.

12 I will make the land of Egypt the most desolate of lands, and her cities among ruined cities will lie desolate for forty years. I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them through the countries.”

Promise of Egypt’s Return

13 “Yet this is what the Lord God says: At the end of forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the nations where they were scattered.

14 I will restore the fortunes of Egypt and bring them back to Pathros, the land of their origin. But there they will be a lowly kingdom.

15 It will be the most lowly of kingdoms, never again lifting itself above the nations. I will make them so weak that they will never again rule over the nations.

16 Egypt will no longer be a source of confidence for Israel, but a reminder of their guilt when they turned to Egypt for help. Then they will know that I am the Lord God.”

Egypt Given to Babylon

17 In the twenty-seventh year, in the first month, on the first day of the month, the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

18 “Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made his army labor greatly against Tyre; every head was rubbed bald, and every shoulder was worn bare. Yet he and his army received no wages from Tyre for the effort they expended against it.

19 Therefore this is what the Lord God says: Behold, I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. He will carry off its wealth, seize its spoil, and take its prey. That will be the wages for his army.

20 I have given him the land of Egypt as payment for the work he did for Me, declares the Lord God.

21 On that day I will make the horn of the house of Israel sprout, and I will give you, Ezekiel, the ability to speak freely among them. Then they will know that I am the Lord.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 29

- God humbles proud rulers – Pharaoh boasted that the Nile was his creation, but God exposed his arrogance and declared judgment (vv. 3–5, 9–10).
- Egypt’s false support – Israel looked to Egypt for help, but Egypt proved unreliable, like a broken reed (vv. 6–7).

- God controls nations and history – Egypt was destined for forty years of desolation and dispersion, but afterward God promised limited restoration as a weak kingdom (vv. 12–15).
- God rewards instruments of His judgment – Babylon, though pagan, was given Egypt as wages for serving God’s purposes against Tyre (vv. 18–20).
- Hope for Israel – Even in judgment, God promised to strengthen Israel’s “horn” (symbol of power) and restore the prophet’s voice among His people (v. 21).

Ezekiel 30 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Day of the Lord Against Egypt”

The Day of the Lord Approaches

1 The word of the Lord came to me, saying,

2 “Son of man, prophesy and say: This is what the Lord God says—

Wail! ‘Alas for the day!’

3 For the day is near, yes, the day of the Lord is near. It will be a day of clouds, a time of doom for the nations.

4 A sword will come against Egypt, and anguish will be in Cush when the slain fall in Egypt. Her wealth will be carried away, and her foundations torn down.

5 Cush, Put, Lydia, all the mingled people, Chub, and the men of the covenant land will fall with them by the sword.

6 This is what the Lord says:

Those who support Egypt will fall,
and her proud strength will collapse.

From Migdol to Syene,
they will fall by the sword,
declares the Lord God.

7 Egypt will be the most desolate of lands,
and her cities among ruined cities.

8 Then they will know that I am the Lord,
when I set fire to Egypt and all her allies are crushed.”

Egypt and Her Allies Struck Down

9 “On that day messengers will go out from Me in ships to terrify Cush in its complacency. Great anguish will come upon them on the day of Egypt’s downfall. For it is coming!

10 This is what the Lord God says:

‘I will put an end to the hordes of Egypt

by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

11 He and his people,
the most ruthless of nations,
will be brought in to destroy the land.
They will draw their swords against Egypt and fill the land with the slain.

12 I will dry up the Nile, sell the land into the hand of the wicked,
and devastate the land and everything in it
by the hand of foreigners.
I the Lord have spoken.’

13 This is what the Lord God says:
‘I will destroy the idols,
and bring an end to the images in Memphis.
There will no longer be a prince in Egypt,
and I will spread fear throughout the land.

14 I will lay waste Pathros, set fire to Zoan,
and execute judgment on Thebes.

15 I will pour out My wrath on Pelusium,
the stronghold of Egypt,
and cut off the hordes of Thebes.

16 I will set fire to Egypt;
Pelusium will writhe in agony,
Thebes will be broken,
and Memphis will face daily distress.

17 The young men of Heliopolis and Bubastis will fall by the sword,
and the cities will go into captivity.

18 The day will be dark at Tahpanhes,
when I shatter the yoke of Egypt there.
Her proud strength will come to an end;
a cloud will cover her,
and her daughters will go into captivity.

19 So I will execute judgment on Egypt, and they will know that I am the Lord.’”

The Broken Arms of Pharaoh

20 In the eleventh year, in the first month, on the seventh day of the month, the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

21 “Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt. It has not been bound up for healing or wrapped with a bandage to strengthen it, so it can hold the sword.

22 Therefore this is what the Lord God says: Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt. I will break both his arms—the good arm and the broken one—and make the sword fall from his hand.

23 I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them through the countries.

24 I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon and put My sword in his hand, but I will break Pharaoh’s arms, and he will groan before him like a man fatally wounded.

25 I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, but Pharaoh’s arms will hang limp. Then they will know that I am the Lord, when I put My sword into the hand of the king of Babylon and he wields it against Egypt.

26 I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them throughout the countries. Then they will know that I am the Lord.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 30

- The Day of the Lord is global – It is not just Egypt but all nations who oppose God that face His judgment (vv. 2–5).
- False strength collapses – Egypt’s pride and alliances could not save her; God Himself tore down her foundations (vv. 6–9, 13–18).
- God uses nations as His sword – Babylon was empowered as God’s instrument to strike Egypt (vv. 10–12, 24–25).
- Leaders without God fail – Pharaoh’s “arms” (his strength and authority) were broken, showing that human power cannot stand against God (vv. 21–22).
- Judgment reveals the Lord – Over and over, God repeats: “They will know that I am the Lord” (vv. 8, 19, 26).

Ezekiel 31 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Cedar Brought Low”

Parable to Pharaoh

1 In the eleventh year, in the third month, on the first day of the month, the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

2 “Son of man, speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his multitude:

‘Whom are you like in your greatness?’

3 Behold, Assyria was like a cedar in Lebanon—with beautiful branches, a shade-giving canopy, and towering height;
its top among the thick clouds.

4 The waters made it grow,
the deep springs nourished it.
Rivers flowed around its planting place,
sending streams to all the trees of the field.

5 So it grew taller than all the other trees of the field.
Its boughs multiplied, its branches lengthened,
because of abundant waters.

6 All the birds of the sky nested in its boughs, all the beasts of the field bore their young under its branches,
and all great nations lived in its shade.

7 It was majestic in beauty, with long, spreading branches,
for its roots reached abundant waters.

8 The cedars in God's garden could not rival it,
nor could the fir trees compare with its boughs.
The plane trees could not match its branches.
No tree in the garden of God was its equal in beauty.

9 I made it beautiful with many branches;
and all the trees of Eden envied it,
those in the garden of God.”

The Fall of the Great Cedar

10 Therefore this is what the Lord God says:
“Because it towered high,
lifting its top among the clouds,
and its heart was proud of its height,

11 I delivered it into the hands of the mighty one of the nations.
He dealt with it ruthlessly.
I cast it out because of its wickedness.

12 Foreigners, the most ruthless of nations,
cut it down and left it.
Its boughs fell on the mountains,

its branches lay in the valleys,
its shade abandoned by all peoples.

13 On its fallen trunk all the birds of the sky settled, and all the beasts of the field
were among its branches.

14 This happened so that no other trees by the waters may grow proud because of their height or set their tops among the clouds, or reach such lofty stature.
For they are all destined for death,
for the grave,
to join those who go down to the pit.”

The Mourning of the Nations

15 This is what the Lord God says:
“On the day it went down to Sheol,
I brought mourning.
I covered the deep over it,
I held back its rivers,
and the abundant waters were restrained.
I clothed Lebanon in gloom because of it,
and all the trees of the field withered.

16 I made the nations tremble at the sound of its fall, when I cast it down to the grave with those who descend to the pit.
All the trees of Eden,
the choicest and best of Lebanon,
all well-watered trees,
were comforted in the depths of the earth.

17 They too went down to Sheol with it,
to those slain by the sword,
along with all who had lived in its shade
among the nations.”

Final Word Against Pharaoh

18 “To whom are you now comparable in glory and greatness among the trees of Eden?

Yet you will be brought down with the trees of Eden
to the depths of the earth.
You will lie among the uncircumcised,
with those killed by the sword.

This is Pharaoh and all his multitude,”
declares the Lord God.

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 31

- Assyria as a warning – God uses the image of a mighty cedar (Assyria) to warn Pharaoh: greatness and beauty cannot prevent downfall (vv. 2–9).
- Pride leads to destruction – The cedar grew tall, but its pride invited judgment; Pharaoh faced the same danger (vv. 10–11).
- Nations are tools in God’s hand – God delivered Assyria into “the mighty one of the nations,” showing He directs history (v. 11).
- All human glory fades – Even the trees of Eden were humbled in comparison to Assyria’s fall (vv. 14–16).
- Pharaoh’s fate is sealed – Egypt, like Assyria, would descend to the pit, humbled and powerless before the Lord (v. 18).

Ezekiel 32 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lament for Pharaoh and Egypt”

Pharaoh Compared to a Monster

1 In the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, on the first day of the month, the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

2 “Son of man, raise a lament for Pharaoh king of Egypt. Say to him:

‘You are like a young lion among the nations,
like a sea monster thrashing in the rivers.
You churned the waters with your feet,
fouling their streams.’

3 This is what the Lord God says:

‘I will spread My net over you with a company of many peoples, and they will haul you up in My net.

4 I will throw you on the land, cast you on the open field.

I will let all the birds of the sky settle on you,
and the beasts of the earth feast on you.

5 I will strew your flesh on the mountains and fill the valleys with your remains.

6 I will drench the land with your flowing blood,
up to the mountains;
the ravines will be filled with it.”

Cosmic Signs of Judgment

7 “When I extinguish you,
I will cover the heavens and darken their stars.
I will cover the sun with a cloud,
and the moon will not give its light.

8 All the shining lights of heaven
I will darken over you,
and I will bring darkness over your land,
declares the Lord God.

9 I will trouble the hearts of many peoples,
when I bring your destruction among the nations,
into lands you have not known.

10 I will make many peoples appalled at you,
and their kings will shudder in horror over you when I brandish My sword before them.
On the day of your downfall
they will tremble every moment for their own lives.”

Egypt Given to Babylon

11 “For this is what the Lord God says:
The sword of the king of Babylon will come against you.

12 By the swords of mighty warriors—
the most ruthless of nations—
I will cut down your hordes.
They will shatter Egypt’s pride, and all her multitudes will perish.

13 I will destroy all her livestock beside abundant waters.
No human foot will churn them,
no hoof of cattle will disturb them.

14 Then I will let their waters settle and make their rivers flow like oil,
declares the Lord God.

15 When I make Egypt desolate and strip the land of all that is in it,
when I strike down all who live there,
then they will know that I am the Lord.

16 This is the lament they will sing for her.
The daughters of the nations will sing it;
they will mourn for Egypt and all her hordes,
declares the Lord God.”

Egypt’s Descent to the Pit

17 In the twelfth year, on the fifteenth day of the month, the word of the Lord came to me, saying,
18 “Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt.
Bring her down, her and the daughters of mighty nations,
to the depths of the earth,
to those who go down to the pit.

19 ‘Whom do you surpass in beauty?
Go down, and lie with the uncircumcised.’

20 They will fall among those killed by the sword.
Egypt is delivered to the sword;
she is given over to the slaughter.

21 The mighty chiefs will speak of Egypt and her allies from the midst of Sheol:
‘They have come down,
they lie with the uncircumcised,
slain by the sword.’”

The Nations in the Pit

22 “Assyria is there with all her company;
their graves are all around her.

All of them were slain,
struck down by the sword.

23 Their graves are set in the depths of the pit, her company is round about her grave—
all of them slain,
all who spread terror in the land of the living.

24 Elam is there with all her multitude around her grave.
All of them are slain, fallen by the sword,
uncircumcised,
who went down to the earth's depths terrorizing the living.
Now they bear their shame
with those who go down to the pit.

25 A bed is made for her among the slain,
with all her multitudes round about her grave.
All of them are uncircumcised, slain by the sword,
though they caused terror in the land of the living.
They now bear their shame with those who go down to the pit.

26 Meshech and Tubal are there with their hordes, their graves all around them.
All of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword,
though they once spread terror in the land of the living.

27 But they will not lie with the mighty warriors who fell long ago,
who went down to Sheol with their weapons of war,
their swords placed under their heads, their shields resting on their bones—
for the terror of the mighty was once in the land of the living.

28 You too, Pharaoh,
will be broken and lie among the uncircumcised,
with those slain by the sword.

29 Edom is there with her kings and all her princes.
Despite their might, they lie with the slain,
with the uncircumcised,
with those who go down to the pit.

30 All the princes of the north are there,
and all the Sidonians.
They have gone down with the slain,
ashamed of the terror they caused by their might.
They lie uncircumcised with those killed by the sword, bearing their shame with those
who go down to the pit.”

Pharaoh’s Final End

31 Pharaoh will see them and be comforted for all his multitude—Pharaoh and all his army,
slain by the sword,
declares the Lord God.

32 “For I spread My terror in the land of the living, and he will be laid among the uncircumcised,
with those slain by the sword—
Pharaoh and all his multitude,”
declares the Lord God.

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 32

- Earthly power cannot prevent judgment – Pharaoh, likened to both lion and sea monster, is trapped and destroyed (vv. 2–6).
- Cosmic signs accompany judgment – God darkens the sun, moon, and stars to symbolize Egypt’s downfall (vv. 7–8).
- Nations fall by God’s decree – Assyria, Elam, Meshech, Tubal, Edom, and Sidon all lie in Sheol, a warning that no power escapes (vv. 22–30).
- Egypt joins the fallen – Pharaoh is not spared but shares the same fate as the proud nations before him (vv. 28, 31–32).
- God’s sovereignty is ultimate – He alone raises up and casts down kingdoms; terror in the land of the living gives way to shame in death (v. 32).

Ezekiel 33 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Watchman and the Call to Repentance”

The Watchman's Responsibility

1 The word of the Lord came to me, saying:

2 “Son of man, speak to the children of your people and say: When I bring the sword against a land, and the people choose one of their men and make him their watchman,

3 and he sees the sword coming against the land and blows the trumpet to warn the people,

4 then if anyone hears the trumpet but does not heed the warning, and the sword comes and takes their life, their blood will be on their own head.

5 They heard the sound of the trumpet but did not take warning. Their blood will be on themselves. But if they had taken warning, they would have saved their life.

6 But if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the trumpet to warn the people, and the sword comes and takes someone's life, that person is taken away in their sin, but I will hold the watchman accountable for their blood.

7 So you, son of man, I have made a watchman for the house of Israel. Whenever you hear a word from My mouth, give them warning from Me.

8 When I say to the wicked, ‘You will surely die,’ and you do not speak to dissuade them from their ways, that wicked person will die for their sin, and I will hold you accountable for their blood.

9 But if you warn the wicked to turn from their ways and they do not, they will die for their sin; but you will have saved yourself.”

God's Call to Repentance

10 “Son of man, say to the people of Israel: ‘This is what you are saying: Our offenses and sins weigh us down, and we are wasting away because of them. How then can we live?’

11 Say to them: As I live, declares the Lord God, I take no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but rather that the wicked turn from their ways and live. Turn! Turn from your evil ways! Why should you die, O house of Israel?’”

Accountability Before God

12 “Therefore, son of man, say to your people: The righteousness of the righteous will not save them in the day they disobey; and the wickedness of the wicked will not bring them down when they turn from it. Nor will the righteous be able to live by their righteousness when they sin.

13 If I say to the righteous that they will surely live, but they trust in their righteousness and then do evil, none of their righteous deeds will be remembered. They will die for the evil they have done.

14 And if I say to the wicked, ‘You will surely die,’ but they turn from their sin and do what is just and right—

15 if they return what they took in pledge, restore what they have stolen, follow the decrees that give life, and do no evil—that person will surely live; they will not die.

16 None of the sins they have committed will be remembered against them. They have done what is right and just; they will surely live.”

God’s Justice Declared

17 “Yet your people say, ‘The way of the Lord is not just.’ But it is their way that is not just.

18 If the righteous turns from their righteousness and commits sin, they will die for it.

19 If the wicked turns from their wickedness and does what is just and right, they will live by it.

20 Yet you say, ‘The way of the Lord is not just.’ But I will judge each of you according to your ways, O house of Israel.”

News of Jerusalem’s Fall

21 In the twelfth year of our exile, in the tenth month, on the fifth day, a man who had escaped from Jerusalem came to me and said, “The city has fallen!”

22 Now the hand of the Lord had been upon me the evening before the man arrived, and He opened my mouth before the man came in the morning. So my mouth was opened, and I was no longer silent.

False Confidence of the Survivors

23 Then the word of the Lord came to me:

24 “Son of man, the people living in those ruins in the land of Israel are saying, ‘Abraham was only one man, yet he inherited the land. But we are many; surely the land has been given to us as our possession.’

25 Therefore say to them: This is what the Lord God says: You eat meat with the blood still in it, you look to your idols, and you shed blood. Should you then possess the land?

26 You rely on your sword, you do detestable things, and each of you defiles his neighbor’s wife. Should you then possess the land?

27 Say this to them: This is what the Lord God says: As surely as I live, those living in the ruins will fall by the sword, those in the open country I will give to the wild beasts to be devoured, and those in strongholds and caves will die of plague.

28 I will make the land a desolate waste, and her proud strength will come to an end. The mountains of Israel will be laid waste so that no one will pass through.

29 Then they will know that I am the Lord, when I have made the land a desolate waste because of all the detestable things they have done.”

Empty Words, Hardened Hearts

30 “As for you, son of man, your people are talking about you by the walls and at the doors of the houses, saying to one another, ‘Come and hear the message that has come from the Lord.’

31 My people come to you, as they usually do, and sit before you to listen to your words. But they do not put them into practice. With their mouths they express love, but their hearts pursue unjust gain.

32 Indeed, to them you are like one who sings love songs with a beautiful voice and plays an instrument well, for they hear your words but do not put them into practice.

33 When all this comes true—and it will—then they will know that a prophet has been among them.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 33

- God’s watchmen are accountable – If they fail to warn, blood is on their hands (vv. 1–9).
- God takes no pleasure in death – He pleads for the wicked to repent and live (v. 11).
- Past deeds don’t guarantee safety – Righteousness doesn’t cover new sin, but repentance cancels past guilt (vv. 12–16).
- God’s justice is equal and fair – He judges every person by their current ways, not by excuses (vv. 17–20).
- Empty religion is exposed – Many hear God’s Word like a song but never obey; true faith is proved by action (vv. 30–33).

Ezekiel 34 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord, the True Shepherd”

Woe to the False Shepherds

1 The word of the Lord came to me, saying,

2 “Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel. Say to them: This is what the Lord God says—Woe to the shepherds of Israel who only take care of themselves! Should not shepherds feed the flock?

3 You eat the fat, you clothe yourselves with the wool, you slaughter the best of the flock—but you do not feed the sheep.

4 You have not strengthened the weak, healed the sick, bound up the injured, brought back the strays, or sought the lost. Instead, you ruled them with force and cruelty.

5 So they were scattered because there was no shepherd. They became food for all the wild animals.
6 My sheep wandered over all the mountains and on every high hill. They were scattered over the whole earth, and no one searched or looked for them.”

God Will Rescue His Sheep

7 “Therefore, shepherds, hear the word of the Lord:
8 As I live, declares the Lord God, because My flock has become prey and food for every beast, and because My shepherds did not search for them but only fed themselves and not My sheep—
9 therefore, hear the word of the Lord:
10 This is what the Lord God says—I am against the shepherds. I will hold them accountable for My flock. I will remove them from tending the flock, so that they can no longer feed themselves. I will rescue My sheep from their mouths, and they will no longer be food for them.”

The Lord Himself the Shepherd

11 “For this is what the Lord God says: Behold, I Myself will search for My sheep and look after them.
12 As a shepherd looks after his scattered flock when he is with them, so will I look after My sheep. I will rescue them from all the places where they were scattered on a day of clouds and darkness.
13 I will bring them out from the nations, gather them from the countries, and bring them into their own land. I will pasture them on the mountains of Israel, by the rivers, and in every inhabited place.
14 I will feed them in good pasture, and on the high mountains of Israel they will lie down. There they will feed in rich pasture on the mountains of Israel.
15 I Myself will tend My sheep and give them rest, declares the Lord God.
16 I will search for the lost, bring back the strays, bind up the broken, and strengthen the weak. But the fat and the strong I will destroy. I will shepherd them with justice.”

Judgment Between Sheep

17 “As for you, My flock, this is what the Lord God says: I will judge between one sheep and another, between rams and goats.
18 Is it not enough for you to feed on the good pasture? Must you trample the rest with your feet? Is it not enough to drink clear water? Must you muddy the rest with your feet?
19 Must My flock eat what you have trampled and drink what you have fouled?
20 Therefore, this is what the Lord God says: I Myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep.
21 Because you push with flank and shoulder and butt all the weak with your horns until you scatter them, 22 I will save My flock, and they will no longer be prey. I will judge between one sheep and another.”

The Coming Shepherd, David

23 “I will place over them one Shepherd, My servant David, and He will tend them. He will feed them and be their Shepherd.

24 I, the Lord, will be their God, and My servant David will be prince among them. I, the Lord, have spoken.”

Covenant of Peace and Blessing

25 “I will make a covenant of peace with them and rid the land of wild beasts so they may live securely in the wilderness and sleep in the forests.

26 I will bless them and the places around My hill. I will send down showers in season; there will be showers of blessing.

27 The trees will yield their fruit and the land will yield its crops. My people will be secure in their land. Then they will know that I am the Lord when I break the bars of their yoke and rescue them from those who enslaved them.

28 They will no longer be prey to the nations, nor will wild animals devour them. They will live in safety, and no one will make them afraid.

29 I will provide for them a land renowned for its crops, and they will no longer suffer from hunger in the land or bear the scorn of the nations.

30 Then they will know that I, the Lord their God, am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are My people, declares the Lord God.

31 You are My flock, the flock of My pasture; you are My people, and I am your God, declares the Lord God.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 34

- False shepherds are condemned – Leaders who exploit God’s people instead of caring for them will face God’s judgment (vv. 2–10).
- God Himself is the true Shepherd – He seeks, rescues, heals, and restores His scattered sheep (vv. 11–16).
- God judges within the flock – Even among His people, He separates the selfish and proud from the humble and weak (vv. 17–22).
- The promised Shepherd is David’s Son – A prophecy fulfilled in Christ, the Good Shepherd who rules in justice and love (vv. 23–24).

- God’s covenant brings peace and blessing – His people will dwell in safety, under His care, enjoying provision, rest, and His abiding presence (vv. 25–31).

Ezekiel 35 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Judgment on Mount Seir (Edom)”

Prophecy Against Mount Seir

1 The word of the Lord came to me, saying,

2 “Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir, and prophesy against it.

3 Say to it: This is what the Lord God says—Behold, O Mount Seir, I am against you. I will stretch out My hand against you and make you a desolate waste.

4 I will turn your cities into ruins, and you will become desolate. Then you will know that I am the Lord.

5 Because you have harbored perpetual hatred and gave the people of Israel over to the sword at the time of their calamity, at the time their punishment had come to an end,

6 therefore, as I live, declares the Lord God, I will give you over to blood, and blood will pursue you. Since you did not hate bloodshed, bloodshed will pursue you.

The Mountains Filled with the Slain

7 I will make Mount Seir a desolate ruin, and cut off from it all who come and go.

8 I will fill your mountains with the slain; your hills, valleys, and ravines will be covered with those killed by the sword.

9 I will make you a perpetual desolation; your cities will not be inhabited. Then you will know that I am the Lord.”

Edom’s Hatred and Arrogance

10 “Because you have said, ‘These two nations and countries will be ours, and we will take possession of them’—though the Lord was there—

11 therefore, as I live, declares the Lord God, I will deal with you according to the anger and envy you showed in your hatred of them. I will make Myself known among them when I judge you.

12 Then you will know that I, the Lord, have heard all the blasphemies you spoke against the mountains of Israel, saying, ‘They are desolate; they are given to us to devour.’

13 You boasted against Me with your mouth and multiplied your words against Me—I have heard them.”

Eternal Desolation for Edom

14 “This is what the Lord God says: While the whole earth rejoices, I will make you desolate.

15 Because you rejoiced when the inheritance of Israel became desolate, so will I deal with you. You will become desolate, O Mount Seir, and all of Edom, all of it. Then they will know that I am the Lord.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 35

- God hears the hatred of nations – Edom’s perpetual hostility toward Israel was not forgotten; their violence invited God’s judgment (vv. 5–6, 12–13).
- Blood pursues the violent – Those who love bloodshed will be overtaken by it (v. 6).
- Pride against God’s people is pride against God Himself – To boast against Israel was to blaspheme against the Lord who dwelt among them (vv. 10–11).
- Desolation follows arrogance – Edom’s rejoicing over Israel’s downfall brought about its own destruction (vv. 14–15).
- The Lord’s justice is final – Mount Seir’s desolation became a testimony that the Lord alone is God (v. 15).

Ezekiel 36 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Restoration of Israel and Renewal by the Spirit”

Prophecy to the Mountains of Israel

1 The word of the Lord came to me, saying,

2 “Son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel and say, ‘O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord.

3 This is what the Lord God says: Because the enemy has said of you, “Aha! The ancient heights are now ours in possession,”

4 therefore prophesy and say: This is what the Lord God says to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys, to the desolate ruins and the forsaken cities, which have become plunder and mockery to the nations around you—

5 surely in My blazing jealousy I speak against the nations and against all Edom, who with spite and joy of heart claimed My land as their own and made it a prey.’

6 Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel and say: This is what the Lord God says—Because you have borne the scorn of the nations,

7 therefore I have lifted My hand in oath that the nations around you will themselves bear their shame.

Israel's Land Restored

8 “But you, O mountains of Israel, you will produce branches and fruit for My people Israel, for they will soon come home.

9 For I am with you; I will look on you with favor. You will be plowed and sown,

10 and I will multiply people on you, the whole house of Israel. The cities will be inhabited and the ruins rebuilt.

11 I will multiply people and animals upon you, and they will increase and be fruitful. I will make you inhabited as in former times, and I will do better for you than at your beginnings. Then you will know that I am the Lord.

12 Yes, My people Israel will walk upon you. You will be their inheritance, and you will no longer devour them or bereave them of children, declares the Lord God.

13 Because they say, ‘You devour men and bereave your nation,’

14 you will no longer devour men or bereave your nation of children.

15 You will no longer hear the insults of the nations or bear the reproach of peoples; you will no longer cause your nation to stumble, declares the Lord God.”

Cleansing and a New Heart

16 The word of the Lord came to me again, saying,

17 “Son of man, when the house of Israel lived in their own land, they defiled it by their conduct and actions. Their ways before Me were like the uncleanness of a defiled woman.

18 So I poured out My wrath on them because of the blood they shed on the land and because they defiled it with their idols.

19 I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed through the countries; I judged them according to their conduct and deeds.

20 But wherever they went among the nations, they profaned My holy name, for it was said of them, ‘These are the Lord’s people, yet they had to leave His land.’

21 But I had concern for My holy name, which the house of Israel profaned among the nations where they had gone.

22 Therefore say to the house of Israel: This is what the Lord God says—It is not for your sake, O house of Israel, that I act, but for My holy name’s sake, which you profaned among the nations.

23 I will vindicate the holiness of My great name, and the nations will know that I am the Lord when I show Myself holy through you before their eyes, declares the Lord God.

24 For I will take you from among the nations, gather you out of all the countries, and bring you back into your own land.

25 I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you shall be clean. From all your impurities and from all your idols I will cleanse you.

26 I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you. I will remove your heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh.

27 I will put My Spirit within you and cause you to walk in My statutes, and you will keep My judgments and do them.

28 You will live in the land I gave to your fathers; you will be My people, and I will be your God.

29 I will deliver you from all your uncleanness. I will call for the grain and make it plentiful, and will not bring famine upon you.

30 I will multiply the fruit of the trees and the crops of the field, so you will no longer bear the reproach of famine among the nations.

Repentance and Restoration

31 Then you will remember your evil ways and your wicked deeds, and you will loathe yourselves for your sins and detestable practices.

32 Know this: I am not doing this for your sake, declares the Lord God. Be ashamed and confounded for your conduct, O house of Israel.

33 This is what the Lord God says: On the day I cleanse you from all your sins, I will resettle your towns, and the ruins will be rebuilt.

34 The desolate land will be cultivated instead of lying desolate in the sight of all who pass by.

35 They will say, ‘This land that was desolate has become like the garden of Eden; the ruined cities, once desolate and destroyed, are now fortified and inhabited.’

36 Then the nations that remain around you will know that I the Lord have rebuilt what was destroyed and replanted what was desolate. I the Lord have spoken, and I will do it.

Like Flocks of Worshipers

37 This is what the Lord God says: Once again I will yield to the plea of the house of Israel and do this for them: I will make their people as numerous as sheep.

38 Like the flocks for offerings, like the flocks of Jerusalem during her appointed festivals, so will the ruined cities be filled with flocks of people. Then they will know that I am the Lord.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 36

- God restores for His name’s sake – His covenant faithfulness is rooted in His holiness, not Israel’s merit (vv. 21–23, 32).
- The land will be renewed – What was barren and mocked will become fruitful again, testifying to God’s power (vv. 8–11, 33–35).
- A new heart and Spirit – God promises inner transformation, not just external blessing: a heart of flesh and the indwelling Spirit (vv. 26–27).

- Restoration brings repentance – Israel will see its past sins with shame and humility when grace is poured out (v. 31).
- God’s glory is the goal – The nations will see His holiness and know that He alone is the Lord (vv. 23, 36).

Ezekiel 37 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Valley of Dry Bones and the Covenant of Peace”

The Valley of Dry Bones

1 The hand of the Lord was upon me, and He brought me out in the Spirit of the Lord and set me in the middle of a valley. It was full of bones.

2 He led me back and forth among them, and I saw a great many bones on the surface of the valley—very dry.

3 He said to me, “Son of man, can these bones live?” I answered, “O Lord God, only You know.”

4 Then He said to me, “Prophecy over these bones and say to them, ‘Dry bones, hear the word of the Lord!’

5 This is what the Lord God says to these bones: I will put breath into you, and you will come to life.

6 I will attach tendons to you, make flesh grow upon you, cover you with skin, and put breath in you. Then you will live. Then you will know that I am the Lord.’”

7 So I prophesied as I was commanded. As I prophesied, there was a sound, a rattling, and the bones came together, bone to bone.

8 I looked, and tendons and flesh appeared on them, and skin covered them, but there was no breath in them.

9 Then He said to me, “Prophecy to the breath; prophecy, son of man, and say: This is what the Lord God says—Come, breath, from the four winds, and breathe into these slain, that they may live.”

10 So I prophesied as He commanded me, and breath entered them, and they came to life and stood up on their feet—a vast army.

11 Then He said to me, “Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. They say, ‘Our bones are dried up, our hope is gone, and we are cut off.’

12 Therefore prophecy to them and say: This is what the Lord God says—My people, I am going to open your graves and bring you up from them; I will bring you back to the land of Israel.

13 Then you, My people, will know that I am the Lord, when I open your graves and bring you up from them.

14 I will put My Spirit within you, and you will live, and I will settle you in your own land. Then you will know that I the Lord have spoken and I have done it, declares the Lord.”

The Two Sticks Become One

15 The word of the Lord came to me, saying,

16 “Son of man, take a stick of wood and write on it, ‘For Judah and the Israelites associated with him.’ Then take another stick and write on it, ‘For Joseph—the stick of Ephraim—and all the Israelites associated with him.’

17 Join them together into one stick, so that they become one in your hand.

18 When your people ask you, ‘Will you not tell us what you mean by this?’

19 say to them, ‘This is what the Lord God says: I am going to take the stick of Joseph, which is in Ephraim’s hand, and of the tribes of Israel associated with him, and join it to Judah’s stick. I will make them into one stick, and they will become one in My hand.’

20 The sticks you have written on will be in your hand before their eyes.

21 Say to them, ‘This is what the Lord God says: I will take the Israelites out of the nations where they have gone. I will gather them from all around and bring them back into their own land.

22 I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel. There will be one king over them, and they will never again be two nations or divided into two kingdoms.

23 They will no longer defile themselves with idols, detestable things, or any of their offenses. I will save them from all their sins and cleanse them. They will be My people, and I will be their God.

24 My servant David will be king over them, and they will all have one shepherd. They will follow My laws and carefully keep My decrees.

25 They will live in the land I gave to My servant Jacob, where your ancestors lived. They and their children and their children’s children will live there forever, and My servant David will be their prince forever.

26 I will make a covenant of peace with them; it will be an everlasting covenant. I will establish them and multiply them, and I will put My sanctuary among them forever.

27 My dwelling place will be with them; I will be their God, and they will be My people.

28 Then the nations will know that I the Lord make Israel holy, when My sanctuary is among them forever.’”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 37

- God can bring life from death – The dry bones symbolize hopelessness, yet God restores by His Spirit (vv. 1–10).
- The Spirit gives true life – Mere structure is not enough; only the breath of God revives His people (vv. 8–9, 14).
- Unity in God’s hand – Judah and Israel will be one again under one King, prefiguring Christ (vv. 16–22).

- David’s greater Son – The eternal Shepherd-King is none other than the Messiah, Jesus (vv. 24–25).
- God’s presence forever – His sanctuary among His people points to the ultimate fulfillment in the New Jerusalem (vv. 26–28).

Ezekiel 38 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Prophecy Against Gog of Magog”

Gog’s Invasion Prophesied

1 The word of the Lord came to me, saying,

2 “Son of man, set your face against Gog of the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal. Prophecy against him

3 and say, ‘This is what the Lord God says: Behold, I am against you, O Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal.

4 I will turn you around, put hooks in your jaws, and bring you out with your whole army—your horses, horsemen, and a great company, all fully armed, with large and small shields, all of them wielding swords.

5 Persia, Cush, and Put will be with them, all with shield and helmet;

6 Gomer and all its troops, and Beth-Togarmah from the far north with all its troops—the many nations with you.

7 Get ready; prepare yourself, you and all the armies gathered around you, and be their commander.

8 After many days you will be summoned. In the latter years you will invade a land restored from war, whose people were gathered from many nations to the mountains of Israel, which had long lain desolate. They had been brought out from the nations, and now all dwell securely.

9 You and all your troops and the many nations with you will advance like a storm; you will be like a cloud covering the land.’”

Gog’s Evil Plan

10 “This is what the Lord God says: On that day, thoughts will come into your mind, and you will devise an evil plan.

11 You will say, ‘I will invade a land of unwallled villages; I will attack a peaceful people living in safety, all of them without walls, bars, or gates.

12 I will plunder and loot and turn my hand against the resettled ruins and the people gathered from the nations, who are acquiring livestock and goods and living in the center of the land.’

13 Sheba and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish with all their young lions, will say to you, ‘Have you come to plunder? Have you assembled your hordes to loot? To carry off silver and gold, livestock and goods, and to seize great spoil?’”

The Lord’s Wrath Against Gog

14 “Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say to Gog: This is what the Lord God says—On that day, when My people Israel are living in safety, will you not take notice of it?

15 You will come from your place in the far north, you and many nations with you, all of them riding on horses, a great horde, a mighty army.

16 You will advance against My people Israel like a cloud covering the land. It will happen in the latter days. I will bring you against My land so that the nations may know Me, when I am sanctified through you before their eyes, O Gog.”

God’s Judgment on Gog

17 “This is what the Lord God says: Are you the one I spoke of long ago through My servants the prophets of Israel? In those days they prophesied for years that I would bring you against them.

18 But on that day, when Gog comes against the land of Israel, My hot anger will be aroused, declares the Lord God.

19 In My zeal and fiery wrath I declare: On that day there will be a great earthquake in the land of Israel.

20 The fish of the sea, the birds of the sky, the beasts of the field, every creature that moves along the ground, and all people on the face of the earth will tremble at My presence. The mountains will be overturned, the cliffs will collapse, and every wall will fall to the ground.

21 I will summon a sword against Gog on all My mountains, declares the Lord God. Every man’s sword will be against his brother.

22 I will execute judgment upon him with plague and bloodshed. I will pour down torrents of rain, hailstones, and burning sulfur on him, on his troops, and on the many nations with him.

23 And so I will magnify Myself and sanctify Myself, and I will make Myself known in the sight of many nations. Then they will know that I am the Lord.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 38

- God is sovereign over the nations – Even Gog’s attack is part of God’s plan to reveal His power (vv. 4, 16–17).
- Evil will rise, but God controls the outcome – Gog schemes for plunder, but God brings him to judgment (vv. 10–12).

- The nations are watching – The invasion is not just against Israel, but a demonstration of God’s glory to the whole world (vv. 16, 23).
- God defends His people – Earthquakes, confusion, pestilence, hail, fire, and brimstone show His mighty defense of Israel (vv. 19–22).
- The end goal is God’s glory – Every act of deliverance and judgment is so the nations may know that He is the Lord (vv. 23).

Ezekiel 39 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Defeat of Gog”

Gog’s Army Destroyed

1 “Son of man, prophesy against Gog and say, This is what the Lord God says: Behold, I am against you, O Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal.

2 I will turn you around and drive you on. I will bring you up from the far north and send you against the mountains of Israel.

3 Then I will strike your bow from your left hand and make your arrows drop from your right hand.

4 You and all your hordes will fall on the mountains of Israel. I will give you as food to the birds of prey of every kind and to the wild animals.

5 You will fall in the open field, for I have spoken, declares the Lord God.

6 I will send fire on Magog and on those who live securely in the coastlands, and they will know that I am the Lord.

7 So I will make My holy name known among My people Israel, and I will no longer let My holy name be profaned. Then the nations will know that I, the Lord, am the Holy One in Israel.

8 It is coming! It will surely take place, declares the Lord God. This is the day I have spoken of.”

The Burning of Weapons

9 “Then those who dwell in the towns of Israel will go out and use the weapons as fuel and burn them—shields and bucklers, bows and arrows, war clubs and spears. For seven years they will use them for fuel.

10 They will not need to gather wood from the fields or cut any from the forests, for they will make fires with the weapons. They will plunder those who plundered them and loot those who looted them, declares the Lord God.”

The Burial of Gog

11 “On that day I will give Gog a burial place in Israel, in the valley of those who travel east of the sea. It will block the path of travelers, because there they will bury Gog and all his horde. They will call it the Valley of Hamon-Gog.

12 For seven months the house of Israel will be burying them in order to cleanse the land.

13 All the people of the land will be involved in the burial, and it will bring them renown on the day I am glorified, declares the Lord God.

14 Men will be regularly employed to go through the land and bury those remaining on the ground, in order to cleanse it. At the end of the seven months they will make a careful search.

15 As they go through the land, when they see a human bone, they will set up a marker beside it until the buriers have buried it in the Valley of Hamon-Gog.

16 (There will also be a town called Hamonah.) And so they will cleanse the land.”

The Great Sacrifice of God

17 “Son of man, this is what the Lord God says: Call out to every kind of bird and to all the wild animals: ‘Assemble and come together from all around to the great sacrifice I am preparing for you on the mountains of Israel. There you will eat flesh and drink blood.

18 You will eat the flesh of mighty men and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, as if they were rams and lambs, goats and bulls—all the fattened animals of Bashan.

19 At the sacrifice I am preparing for you, you will eat fat until you are glutted and drink blood until you are drunk.

20 At My table you will be filled with horses and riders, with mighty men and all the warriors,’ declares the Lord God.”

Israel Restored

21 “I will display My glory among the nations, and all the nations will see the punishment I inflict and the hand I lay on them.

22 From that day forward the house of Israel will know that I am the Lord their God.

23 And the nations will know that the house of Israel went into exile for their iniquity, because they were unfaithful to Me. So I hid My face from them and gave them into the hands of their enemies, and they all fell by the sword.

24 I dealt with them according to their uncleanness and their offenses, and I hid My face from them.”

The Lord’s Mercy and Spirit

25 “Therefore this is what the Lord God says: I will now restore the fortunes of Jacob and have mercy on the whole house of Israel, and I will be zealous for My holy name.

26 They will forget their shame and all the unfaithfulness they showed toward Me when they lived in safety in their land with no one to make them afraid.

27 When I bring them back from the nations and gather them from the lands of their enemies, I will be sanctified through them in the sight of many nations.

28 Then they will know that I am the Lord their God, for though I sent them into exile among the nations, I will gather them to their own land, not leaving any behind.

29 I will no longer hide My face from them, for I will pour out My Spirit on the house of Israel, declares the Lord God.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 39

- God’s enemies will fall completely – Gog’s weapons and armies are destroyed on Israel’s mountains (vv. 3–5).
- The spoils of war belong to God’s people – Israel burns the enemy’s weapons for seven years, showing God’s complete reversal of power (vv. 9–10).
- God cleanses the land – The burial of Gog and his armies becomes a national act of purification and testimony (vv. 11–16).
- Judgment is also a feast for creation – Birds and beasts are summoned to feast on the slain, symbolizing the completeness of God’s judgment (vv. 17–20).
- Restoration follows wrath – God promises to restore Israel, remove their shame, and pour out His Spirit upon them forever (vv. 25–29).

Ezekiel 40 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Vision of the New Temple”

The Date and Setting of the Vision

1 In the twenty-fifth year of our captivity, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth day of the month—fourteen years after Jerusalem had been struck down—the hand of the Lord was upon me, and He brought me there.

2 In visions of God He took me into the land of Israel and set me on a very high mountain. On the south side appeared something like the structure of a city.

3 He brought me there, and I saw a man whose appearance was like bronze. He had a linen cord and a measuring reed in his hand, and he stood at the gateway.

4 The man said to me, “Son of man, look with your eyes, hear with your ears, and set your heart on everything I show you, for that is why you have been brought here. Tell the house of Israel everything you see.”

The Outer Wall and the East Gate

5 I saw a wall surrounding the temple area. The measuring reed in the man's hand was six long cubits, each cubit being a cubit and a handbreadth. He measured the wall—it was one reed thick and one reed high.

6 Then he went to the gate facing east. He went up its steps and measured the threshold of the gate—one reed deep.

7 Each side chamber was one reed long and one reed wide, and between the chambers was a space of five cubits. The threshold of the gate by the porch inside was one reed.

8 Then he measured the porch of the gate inside—it was one reed.

9 He measured the porch of the gate: eight cubits, and its posts were two cubits thick. The porch of the gate was on the inside.

10 The side chambers of the east gate were three on each side; all three were the same size, and the posts on each side measured the same.

11 He measured the width of the entrance of the gate—ten cubits; and the length of the gateway—thirteen cubits.

12 There was a barrier in front of each chamber, one cubit wide, and the chamber itself was six cubits by six cubits.

13 Then he measured the gateway from roof to roof of the chambers opposite each other—twenty-five cubits wide, door facing door.

14 He measured the posts—sixty cubits. The gateway extended around to the courtyard.

15 From the front of the entrance gate to the front of the inner porch was fifty cubits.

16 Narrow windows were set in the chambers and in their posts all around the gate; likewise for the porches. Palm tree designs were on each post.

The Outer Court

17 Then he brought me into the outer court. I saw rooms and a pavement laid all around the court; thirty rooms faced the pavement.

18 The pavement was alongside the gates, corresponding to the length of the gates—this was the lower pavement.

19 Then he measured the distance from the front of the lower gate to the front of the inner court on the outside—one hundred cubits eastward and northward.

The North and South Gates

20 He measured the north gate of the outer court—its length and width.

21 Its side chambers, its posts, and its archways had the same measurements as the first gate: fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.

22 Its windows, its archways, and its palm trees had the same measurements as the east gate. Seven steps led up to it, with its archway opposite them.

23 A gate to the inner court was opposite the north gate and opposite the east gate; he measured one hundred cubits between them.

24 He led me to the south. There was also a gate facing south, and he measured its posts and its archways according to the same dimensions.

25 There were windows all around in it and in its archways, like the other windows. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.

26 Seven steps led up to it, and its archway was in front of them. Palm trees were carved on its posts, one on each side.

27 There was a gate to the inner court facing south, and he measured one hundred cubits between them.

The Inner Court Gates

28 Then he brought me through the south gate into the inner court, and he measured the south gate—it had the same measurements.

29 Its chambers, its posts, and its archways were the same as the other gates. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.

30 Its archways all around measured twenty-five cubits long and five cubits wide.

31 Its archway faced the outer court. Palm trees were carved on its posts. The stairway had eight steps.

32 Then he brought me into the inner court through the east gate, and he measured it according to the same measurements.

33 Its chambers, posts, and archways were the same as the others. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.

34 Its archway faced the outer court. Palm trees were on its posts. The stairway had eight steps.

35 Then he brought me to the north gate, and he measured it according to the same measurements—

36 its chambers, posts, archways, and windows all around. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.

37 Its posts faced the outer court. Palm trees were on its posts. The stairway had eight steps.

Sacrificial Tables and Rooms for Priests

38 There was a chamber with its entrance by the posts of the gates, where the burnt offering was washed.

39 In the porch of the gate were two tables on each side, on which the burnt offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering were slaughtered.

40 On the outer side of the porch, as one goes up to the entrance of the north gate, were two tables; and on the other side of the porch of the gate were two tables.

41 Four tables on this side and four tables on that side—eight tables—on which they slaughtered sacrifices.

42 The four tables for the burnt offering were of hewn stone, one and a half cubits long, one and a half cubits wide, and one cubit high. On these they laid the instruments with which the burnt offerings and the sacrifices were slaughtered.

43 Double hooks, a handbreadth long, were fastened all around inside. The flesh of the offerings was placed on the tables.

44 Outside the inner gate, in the inner court, were chambers for the singers, one at the side of the north gate facing south, and the other at the side of the east gate facing north.

45 He said to me, “This chamber that faces south is for the priests who have charge of the temple.

46 And the chamber that faces north is for the priests who have charge of the altar. These are the sons of Zadok, the Levites, who come near to the Lord to minister to Him.”

The Inner Court and Porch of the Temple

47 He measured the court: one hundred cubits long and one hundred cubits wide, a square. The altar was in front of the temple.

48 Then he brought me to the porch of the temple and measured the posts of the porch: five cubits on each side. The width of the gateway was three cubits on each side.

49 The porch was twenty cubits long and eleven cubits wide. Steps led up to it, and there were pillars by the posts, one on each side.

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 40

- God’s temple is precise and holy – Every measurement shows God’s order and holiness, reminding us that His worship is not casual but intentional (vv. 5–16).
- God provides access but with boundaries – The gates emphasize both invitation and restriction, pointing to God’s holiness and man’s need for cleansing (vv. 6–31).
- Sacrifice and priesthood remain central – The rooms, tables, and duties of priests reveal the need for atonement and mediation, fulfilled perfectly in Christ (vv. 38–46).
- God dwells among His people – The temple vision points forward to the covenant promise that God’s sanctuary will be forever with His people (vv. 47–49).

Ezekiel 41 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Inner Temple and the Most Holy Place”

The Dimensions of the Temple

1 Then he brought me into the temple and measured the posts; six cubits wide on one side and six cubits wide on the other—the width of the tabernacle.

2 The doorway was ten cubits wide, and the sides of the doorway were five cubits on each side. He measured the length of the temple—forty cubits—and the width—twenty cubits.

3 Then he went inside and measured the doorposts—two cubits. The doorway was six cubits wide, and the width of the entrance was seven cubits.

4 He measured the room: twenty cubits long and twenty cubits wide. He said to me, “This is the Most Holy Place.”

Side Chambers of the Temple

5 Then he measured the wall of the temple—it was six cubits thick—and the side chambers were four cubits wide all around the temple.

6 The side chambers were in three levels, one above the other, thirty chambers on each level. They rested on supports projecting from the wall, but the temple wall itself was not used for support.

7 The side rooms widened as one went upward around the temple, for the structure became wider at each successive level. A stairway wound upward, leading from the lowest to the middle and then to the highest level.

8 I also saw that the temple had a raised platform all around; the foundations of the side chambers were six long cubits high.

9 The outer wall of the side chambers was five cubits thick, and there was an open space around the chambers inside.

10 Between the side chambers of the temple and the outer rooms was a space of twenty cubits wide all around.

11 The side chambers had entrances facing the open space—one entrance toward the north and another toward the south. The open space was five cubits wide all around.

The Western Building

12 The building facing the temple courtyard on the west side was seventy cubits wide, ninety cubits long, and its wall was five cubits thick all around.

13 Then he measured the temple: one hundred cubits long. The courtyard and the western building, including its walls, were also one hundred cubits long.

14 The width of the temple front and the courtyard on the east side was one hundred cubits.

15 He measured the length of the western building, including its galleries on both sides—one hundred cubits. The inner temple, the outer porches,

16 the doorposts, narrow windows, and the galleries around all three levels—everything from the floor to the windows (and the windows were covered)—

17 all the way above the doors, to the inner rooms and the outer walls, was measured.

Cherubim and Palm Decorations

18 The interior of the temple was decorated with carvings of cherubim and palm trees. A palm tree was between each cherub. Each cherub had two faces:

19 The face of a man toward the palm tree on one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side. The carvings extended all around the temple.

20 From the floor to the area above the doors, cherubim and palm trees were carved on the temple walls.

21 The doorposts of the temple were square, and the front of the sanctuary was like the front of the temple.

The Altar and the Doors

22 There was a wooden altar, three cubits high and two cubits long. Its corners, its base, and its sides were of wood. The man said to me, “This is the table that stands before the Lord.”

23 Both the temple and the sanctuary had double doors,

24 each door having two hinged panels—two panels for one door and two for the other.

25 Cherubim and palm trees were carved on the doors of the temple like those on the walls. A wooden canopy extended across the front of the porch.

26 There were narrow windows and palm trees on both sides of the porch and in the side chambers of the temple.

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 41

- God’s dwelling is holy and precise – Every measurement shows God’s perfect design, pointing to His order and majesty (vv. 1–11).
- The Most Holy Place reveals His presence – The inner sanctuary reminds us that God’s presence is set apart and approached only through holiness (v. 4).
- Carvings of cherubim and palm trees – The design mirrors Eden and the heavenly throne, showing restoration and God’s kingship over creation (vv. 18–20).
- The altar is the table before the Lord – Worship and fellowship with God depend on sacrifice and holiness, ultimately fulfilled in Christ (v. 22).
- God’s house is both beautiful and functional – Every door, room, and carving serves to honor God’s presence and remind His people of His holiness (vv. 23–26).

Ezekiel 42 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Priests’ Chambers and the Sacred Boundaries”

The Chambers on the North Side

1 Then he brought me out into the outer court, on the way toward the north, and he led me to the chambers opposite the open space, which faced the building toward the north.

2 The length was one hundred cubits, and the width was fifty cubits.

3 Opposite the twenty cubits which belonged to the inner court, and opposite the pavement of the outer court, was a gallery facing a gallery in three stories.

4 In front of the chambers was a walkway ten cubits wide, and inward a way of one cubit, with their doors facing north.

5 Now the upper chambers were narrower because the galleries took away more space than the lower and middle chambers of the building.

6 For they were in three stories but had no pillars like the pillars of the courts; therefore the upper level was set back more than the lowest and the middle levels.

7 The wall outside, which was parallel to the chambers toward the outer court, opposite the chambers, was fifty cubits long.

8 The chambers toward the outer court were fifty cubits long, while those facing the temple were one hundred cubits long.

9 Below these chambers was an entrance from the east, as one enters them from the outer court.

The Chambers on the South Side

10 The chambers were also located in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, opposite the separate place and opposite the building.

11 The passage in front of them was like the passage of the chambers toward the north; their length and width were the same, and their exits and entrances matched their design.

12 Likewise, there was a door at the head of the passage, the way directly in front of the wall toward the east, as one enters into them.

The Holy Use of the Chambers

13 Then he said to me, “The north chambers and the south chambers that face the separate courtyard are holy chambers where the priests who approach the Lord shall eat the most holy offerings. There they shall place the most holy things—the grain offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering—for the place is holy.

14 When the priests enter, they shall not go out of the holy chamber into the outer court without first leaving there the garments in which they minister, for they are holy. They shall put on other garments before they approach the area designated for the people.”

The Outer Measurements

15 When he had finished measuring the inner temple area, he brought me out by way of the east gate and measured it all around.

16 He measured the east side with the measuring reed—five hundred reeds, by the measuring reed all around.

17 He measured the north side—five hundred reeds, by the measuring reed all around.

18 He measured the south side—five hundred reeds, by the measuring reed.

19 He turned to the west side and measured—five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed.

20 He measured on all four sides. It had a wall all around, five hundred reeds long and five hundred reeds wide, to separate the holy from the common.

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 42

- God establishes holy order – Even the chambers and walkways of the temple are carefully measured, reminding us that God is a God of order (vv. 1–12).
- Holiness requires separation – The priests’ chambers show the importance of distinction between what is holy and what is common. God calls His people to respect and protect what is sacred (vv. 13–14).
- Boundaries safeguard worship – The outer measurements define a clear separation between the holy temple and the profane world. God’s presence demands reverence and boundaries (vv. 15–20).
- Sacred service requires sacred garments – The priests’ garments represented holiness. Likewise, we must put off the old and put on the new life in Christ when serving God (v. 14; cf. Eph. 4:24).

Ezekiel 43 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Glory of the Lord Returns”

The Return of God’s Glory

1 Afterward he brought me to the gate, the gate that faces east.

2 And behold, the glory of the God of Israel was coming from the east. His voice was like the roar of many waters, and the earth shone with His glory.

3 The vision I saw was like the vision I had seen when He came to destroy the city, and like the visions I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell on my face.

4 The glory of the Lord entered the temple by the gate facing east.

5 Then the Spirit lifted me up and brought me into the inner court; and behold, the glory of the Lord filled the house.

God's Dwelling Forever

6 While the man was standing beside me, I heard One speaking to me from within the temple.

7 And He said to me: "Son of man, this is the place of My throne and the place of the soles of My feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel forever. No more shall the house of Israel defile My holy name—neither they nor their kings—by their harlotry or by the lifeless bodies of their kings at their high places.

8 By setting their threshold beside My threshold and their doorpost beside My doorpost, with only a wall between Me and them, they defiled My holy name by the abominations they committed. Therefore I consumed them in My anger.

9 Now let them put away their harlotry and the lifeless bodies of their kings far from Me, and I will dwell in their midst forever."

The Law of the House

10 "Son of man, describe the temple to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their sins; let them measure the plan.

11 And if they are ashamed of all they have done, make known to them the design of the temple—its arrangement, its exits and entrances, its entire form, all its statutes, its laws—and write it down before them so they may keep all its design and all its ordinances, and do them.

12 This is the law of the temple: The whole territory on top of the mountain all around shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the temple."

The Altar Measurements

13 "These are the measurements of the altar in cubits (the cubit being a cubit and a handbreadth): The base shall be one cubit high and one cubit wide, with a rim of one span around its edge. This shall be its base.

14 From the base on the ground to the lower ledge shall be two cubits, and the width one cubit; from the smaller ledge to the larger ledge shall be four cubits, and the width one cubit.

15 The altar hearth shall be four cubits high, and from the altar hearth upward there shall be four horns.

16 The altar hearth shall be twelve cubits long by twelve wide, square on its four sides.

17 The ledge shall be fourteen cubits long and fourteen wide, with a border of half a cubit around it, and its base shall be one cubit. Its steps shall face east."

The Altar Consecration

18 Then He said to me: "Son of man, thus says the Lord God: These are the ordinances for the altar on the day it is built, for offering burnt offerings upon it and for sprinkling blood on it.

19 You shall give to the Levitical priests of the family of Zadok, who draw near to Me to minister to Me, a young bull for a sin offering, declares the Lord God.

20 You shall take some of its blood and put it on the four horns of the altar, on the four corners of the ledge, and on the border all around. Thus you shall cleanse it and make atonement for it.

21 You shall take the bull of the sin offering and burn it in the appointed place of the temple, outside the sanctuary.

22 On the second day you shall offer a male goat without blemish for a sin offering, and they shall cleanse the altar as they cleansed it with the bull.

23 When you have finished cleansing it, you shall offer a young bull without blemish and a ram from the flock without blemish.

24 You shall present them before the Lord, and the priests shall sprinkle salt on them and offer them up as a burnt offering to the Lord.

25 For seven days you shall provide a goat daily for a sin offering; also a young bull and a ram from the flock, without blemish, shall be provided.

26 For seven days they shall make atonement for the altar and purify it, and so consecrate it.

27 When these days are completed, from the eighth day onward the priests shall offer your burnt offerings and your peace offerings on the altar; and I will accept you, declares the Lord God.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 43

- God’s glory will return – Though His glory once departed, it will one day return to dwell with His people forever (vv. 1–5).
- Holiness is required for God’s dwelling – Israel must remove sin and idolatry to welcome God’s presence (vv. 6–9).
- The temple is a teaching tool – Its design is meant to show God’s order, laws, and holiness, leading the people to repentance (vv. 10–12).
- The altar requires cleansing – Sacrifice and consecration point to the ultimate sacrifice of Christ, who purifies the altar of our hearts (vv. 13–26).
- God’s acceptance is the goal – After consecration, God promises, “I will accept you” (v. 27)—a preview of the gospel fulfilled in Christ.

Ezekiel 44 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Holiness of the Temple and the Priesthood”

The Shut Gate for the Lord

1 Then he brought me back by way of the outer gate of the sanctuary that faces east; but it was shut.

2 The Lord said to me: “This gate shall remain shut. It shall not be opened, and no one shall enter by it, for the Lord, the God of Israel, has entered by it. Therefore it shall remain shut.

3 Only the prince may sit in it to eat bread before the Lord. He shall enter by way of the porch of the gate and shall go out the same way.”

The Glory of the Lord in the Temple

4 Then he brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the temple. And I looked, and behold, the glory of the Lord filled the house of the Lord, and I fell on my face.

5 The Lord said to me: “Son of man, pay attention, look with your eyes and hear with your ears all that I say concerning the statutes of the temple of the Lord and all its laws. Pay close attention to the entrance of the temple and all the exits of the sanctuary.”

Rebuke for Defiling the Temple

6 “Say to the rebellious house of Israel: ‘Thus says the Lord God: Enough of all your abominations!

7 In that you brought foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and flesh, into My sanctuary to profane it—My house—when you offered My food, the fat and the blood. You broke My covenant with all your abominations.

8 You have not kept charge of My holy things, but instead appointed others to keep charge in My sanctuary for you.’

9 Thus says the Lord God: ‘No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart or in flesh, shall enter My sanctuary—not even foreigners living among the people of Israel.’”

Levites Who Went Astray

10 “But the Levites who went far from Me when Israel went astray, who strayed from Me after their idols, shall bear their punishment.

11 They shall be ministers in My sanctuary, having oversight at the gates of the temple and ministering in the temple. They shall slaughter the burnt offerings and sacrifices for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister.

12 Because they ministered before their idols and led the house of Israel into sin, therefore I have sworn with uplifted hand against them, declares the Lord God, that they shall bear their iniquity.

13 They shall not come near to Me to serve as priests before Me, nor come near any of My holy things or My most holy place. They shall bear their shame for the abominations they have committed.

14 Yet I will appoint them to be in charge of the temple, for all its work and for everything to be done in it.”

The Sons of Zadok

15 “But the Levitical priests, the sons of Zadok, who kept charge of My sanctuary when the people of Israel went astray from Me, they shall come near to Me to minister before Me. They shall stand before Me to offer the fat and the blood, declares the Lord God.

16 They shall enter My sanctuary, and they shall approach My table to minister to Me, and they shall keep My charge.”

Priestly Regulations

17 “When they enter the gates of the inner court, they shall wear linen garments. No wool shall be on them while they minister at the gates or inside.

18 They shall wear linen turbans on their heads and linen undergarments on their loins. They shall not gird themselves with anything that causes sweat.

19 When they go out into the outer court to the people, they shall take off the garments in which they minister and leave them in the holy chambers. Then they shall put on other garments so they do not transfer holiness to the people with their garments.

20 They shall not shave their heads nor let their hair grow long, but they shall keep their hair trimmed.

21 No priest shall drink wine when he enters the inner court.

22 They shall not marry a widow or a divorced woman, but only a virgin of the offspring of the house of Israel, or a widow of a priest.

23 They shall teach My people the difference between the holy and the common, and show them how to distinguish between the unclean and the clean.

24 In cases of dispute, they shall stand as judges and judge according to My judgments. They shall keep My laws and statutes in all My appointed feasts, and they shall keep My Sabbaths holy.

25 They shall not defile themselves by going near a dead person, except for father, mother, son, daughter, brother, or sister who has had no husband.

26 After he is cleansed, seven days shall be counted for him.

27 And on the day he goes into the sanctuary, into the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering, declares the Lord God.”

The Inheritance of the Priests

28 “This shall be their inheritance: I am their inheritance. You shall give them no possession in Israel; I am their possession.

29 They shall eat the grain offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering; and every devoted thing in Israel shall be theirs.

30 The first of all the firstfruits of everything, and every contribution of all, from all your offerings, shall belong to the priests. You shall also give to the priest the first of your dough, that a blessing may rest on your house.

31 The priests shall not eat any bird or beast that has died naturally or been torn by wild animals.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 44

- The holiness of God’s presence requires separation – The eastern gate is shut because the Lord Himself entered through it (vv. 1–3).
- God demands pure worship – Foreigners and the uncircumcised in heart were forbidden to minister in His sanctuary (vv. 6–9).
- Sin disqualifies from higher service – The Levites who went astray could serve in minor roles but could not approach God’s altar (vv. 10–14).
- Faithfulness brings greater privilege – The sons of Zadok, who remained loyal, were given the honor of serving directly before God (vv. 15–16).
- Priests are called to holiness – Their dress, conduct, marriages, teaching, and judgments all had to reflect God’s holiness (vv. 17–27).
- God Himself is their inheritance – True priests find their portion not in land or possessions, but in the Lord alone (vv. 28–31).

Ezekiel 45 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord’s Portion, the Prince, and the Feasts”

The Holy Portion of the Land

1 “When you divide the land by lot as an inheritance, you shall set apart a holy portion for the Lord: twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand cubits wide. The whole area shall be holy within its borders.

2 Of this, there shall be an area for the sanctuary: five hundred cubits square, with a fifty-cubit open space around it.

3 In this holy allotment of land, a portion measuring twenty-five thousand by ten thousand cubits shall contain the sanctuary, the Most Holy Place.

4 This holy portion shall belong to the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary who draw near to serve the Lord. It will be for their houses as well as the sanctuary.

5 Another section, twenty-five thousand by ten thousand cubits, shall be for the Levites who serve in the temple. This shall be their possession for their chambers.

The City Portion and the Prince's Land

6 “You shall also designate as the city's possession an area five thousand cubits wide and twenty-five thousand long, alongside the holy portion. It shall belong to all Israel.

7 The prince shall have land on both sides of the holy allotment and the city's property, extending westward to the western border and eastward to the eastern border. Its length shall match the tribal portions from the west border to the east border.

8 This land shall be his possession in Israel. My princes shall no longer oppress My people, but they shall give the rest of the land to the tribes of Israel.”

Call for Justice

9 Thus says the Lord God: “Enough, O princes of Israel! Put an end to violence and oppression. Execute justice and righteousness. Stop seizing from My people, declares the Lord God.

10 You shall have honest scales, a just ephah, and a just bath.

11 The ephah and the bath shall have the same measure: a tenth of a homer. The homer shall be the standard measure.

12 The shekel shall be twenty gerahs. Twenty shekels, twenty-five shekels, and fifteen shekels shall equal one maneh.”

The Required Offerings

13 “This is the contribution you shall present: a sixth of an ephah from each homer of wheat, and a sixth of an ephah from each homer of barley.

14 The prescribed portion of oil shall be one-tenth of a bath from each cor (ten baths = one homer).

15 And one sheep out of every two hundred from the pastures of Israel shall be given for grain offerings, burnt offerings, and peace offerings—to make atonement for them, declares the Lord God.

16 All the people of the land shall give this contribution to the prince in Israel.

17 It will be the duty of the prince to provide the burnt offerings, grain offerings, and drink offerings at the festivals, new moons, and Sabbaths—in all the appointed feasts of the house of Israel. He shall provide the sin offerings, burnt offerings, grain offerings, and peace offerings to make atonement for the people of Israel.”

Cleansing the Sanctuary

18 “This is what the Lord God says: In the first month, on the first day of the month, you shall take a young bull without blemish and purify the sanctuary.

19 The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering and put it on the doorposts of the temple, on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the posts of the gate of the inner court.

20 Do the same on the seventh day of the month for anyone who sins unintentionally or through ignorance. In this way you will make atonement for the temple.”

The Festivals

21 “On the fourteenth day of the first month you shall celebrate the Passover, a feast of seven days. Unleavened bread shall be eaten.

22 On that day the prince shall provide a bull for himself and for all the people of the land as a sin offering.

23 For seven days of the feast, he shall provide seven bulls and seven rams without blemish daily as burnt offerings to the Lord, and a male goat daily as a sin offering.

24 He shall also provide a grain offering: one ephah for each bull and one ephah for each ram, together with a hin of oil for each ephah.

25 In the seventh month, on the fifteenth day of the month, during the feast, he shall provide the same sacrifices for seven days, in the same amounts as at the Passover.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 45

- God’s portion comes first – Before the land was divided among the tribes, a sacred portion was set aside for the Lord, His priests, and the sanctuary (vv. 1–5).
- Leaders must not oppress – The prince’s role was to protect and provide, not exploit (vv. 8–9).
- Justice and fairness matter to God – Honest scales, measures, and dealings reflect His righteousness (vv. 10–12).
- Everyone shares responsibility – All the people were required to contribute offerings, showing that worship and atonement involve the whole community (vv. 13–17).
- God provides cleansing and restoration – The offerings, festivals, and feasts emphasized forgiveness, reconciliation, and remembrance of God’s saving acts (vv. 18–25).
- The prince foreshadows Christ – He stands as both provider and intercessor, preparing offerings for the people, pointing to Jesus as the true King and High Priest.

Ezekiel 46 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Worship, the Prince, and Sacred Order”

The Sabbath and New Moon Worship

1 This is what the Lord God says: “The gate of the inner court that faces east shall remain shut for the six working days. But on the Sabbath day it shall be opened, and on the day of the new moon it shall be opened.

2 The prince shall enter by way of the porch of the gate from outside and stand by the gatepost while the priests prepare his burnt offerings and peace offerings. He shall worship at the threshold of the gate, then go out, and the gate shall remain open until evening.

3 The people of the land shall worship at the entrance of this gate before the Lord on the Sabbaths and on the new moons.”

The Offerings of the Prince

4 “The burnt offering that the prince shall present to the Lord on the Sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish and one ram without blemish.

5 The grain offering shall be one ephah for the ram, and the grain offering for the lambs shall be as much as he is able to give, with a hin of oil for each ephah.

6 On the day of the new moon, he shall offer a young bull without blemish, six lambs, and one ram—all without blemish.

7 With the bull and the ram he shall offer one ephah of grain each, and for the lambs as much as he can give, with a hin of oil for each ephah.

8 When the prince enters, he shall go in by way of the porch of the gate, and he shall go out by the same way.

9 But when the people of the land come before the Lord at the appointed feasts, the one who enters by the north gate shall go out by the south gate, and the one who enters by the south gate shall go out by the north gate. No one shall return by the same gate through which he entered, but each shall go out through the opposite gate.

10 The prince shall enter and leave with the people.

11 At the festivals and appointed feasts the grain offering shall be an ephah with each bull, an ephah with each ram, and for the lambs whatever he is able to provide, with a hin of oil for each ephah.

Daily Offerings

12 “When the prince offers a voluntary burnt offering or peace offerings to the Lord, the eastern gate shall be opened for him. He shall offer his burnt offering and his peace offerings just as he does on the Sabbath day. Then he shall leave, and after he has gone out, the gate shall be shut.

13 Each day you shall provide a year-old lamb without blemish as a burnt offering to the Lord. You shall offer it every morning.

14 You shall also provide a grain offering every morning: one-sixth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with one-third of a hin of oil to moisten it, as a lasting ordinance to the Lord.

15 Thus they shall offer the lamb, the grain offering, and the oil every morning as a continual burnt offering.”

Laws of Inheritance for the Prince

16 This is what the Lord God says: “If the prince gives a gift to one of his sons, it shall belong to his sons; it is their inheritance.

17 But if he gives a gift to one of his servants, it shall only belong to him until the Year of Release; then it shall return to the prince. Only his sons may keep their inheritance permanently.

18 The prince shall not take any of the people’s inheritance by force or oppression, driving them from their property. He must give his sons an inheritance from his own land, so that none of My people will be displaced from their inheritance.”

The Priests’ Sacred Places

19 Then he brought me through the entrance beside the gate to the holy chambers of the priests, facing north. There I saw a place at the west end.

20 He said to me, “This is where the priests shall boil the guilt offering and the sin offering, and where they shall bake the grain offering, so they do not carry them out into the outer court and risk sanctifying the people.”

The Corner Courts for Sacrifices

21 Then he led me out into the outer court and brought me to each of the four corners of the court. In each corner there was a smaller court.

22 In the four corners of the court were enclosed courts, forty cubits long and thirty cubits wide; all four corners were the same size.

23 Around the inside of each court was a row of stonework with places for boiling set underneath all around.

24 Then he said to me, “These are the kitchens where those who serve the temple shall boil the sacrifices of the people.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 46

- Worship has order and holiness – The Lord regulated access to the temple, ensuring reverence in approaching Him (vv. 1–3).
- Leadership must set the example – The prince worshiped alongside the people, showing that leaders are not above obedience (vv. 8–10).
- Daily devotion is essential – The continual burnt offering pointed to God’s desire for constant worship and remembrance (vv. 13–15).
- Inheritance must be just – God prohibited rulers from oppressing the people or stealing their land, protecting family inheritances (vv. 16–18).

- Holiness must be guarded – The special chambers and kitchens ensured sacred offerings were handled properly, preserving reverence (vv. 19–24).
- Christ is the greater Prince – He fulfills the role of leader, provider of offerings, and the one who ensures justice and holiness for His people.

Ezekiel 47 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The River of Life and the Borders of the Land”

The River from the Temple

1 Then the man brought me back to the entrance of the temple, and I saw water flowing out from beneath the threshold of the temple toward the east—for the temple faced east. The water was flowing down from under the south side of the altar.

2 He led me out through the north gate and around the outside to the outer east gate, and I saw water trickling from the south side.

3 As the man went eastward with a measuring line in his hand, he measured a thousand cubits and led me through the water; it reached my ankles.

4 He measured another thousand and led me through the water; it reached my knees. Again he measured a thousand and led me through; the water reached my waist.

5 He measured another thousand, and it had become a river I could not cross, for the water had risen so deep it was water to swim in—a river that could not be crossed.

6 He said to me, “Son of man, do you see this?” Then he led me back to the bank of the river.

7 When I arrived there, I saw a great number of trees on each side of the river.

The Healing Waters

8 Then he said to me, “This water flows toward the eastern region and goes down into the Arabah (the desert), and enters the Dead Sea. When it empties into the sea, the water there will become fresh.

9 Wherever the river flows, every living creature that moves will live. There will be a great multitude of fish, because this water flows there and makes the salt water fresh; so everything will live wherever the river goes.

10 Fishermen will stand along the shore from En-gedi to En-eglaim; nets will be spread there to dry. The fish will be of many kinds—like the fish of the Mediterranean Sea.

11 But the swamps and marshes will not become fresh; they will be left for salt.

12 Along both banks of the river, every kind of fruit tree will grow. Their leaves will not wither, nor will their fruit fail. Each month they will bear new fruit, because the water from the sanctuary flows to them. Their fruit will serve for food and their leaves for healing.”

The Division of the Land

13 This is what the Lord God says: “These are the boundaries of the land that you are to divide among the twelve tribes of Israel as their inheritance, with Joseph receiving two portions.

14 You shall divide it equally among them. I swore with uplifted hand to give it to your ancestors, and this land shall be your inheritance.

The Boundaries of Israel

15 “On the north side, the boundary will run from the Mediterranean Sea by the way of Hethlon to Lebo-Hamath, to Zedad, 16 Berothah and Sibraim (which lie between Damascus and Hamath), to Hazar-Hatticon, near Hauran.

17 The boundary will extend from the sea to Hazar-Enan, on the border of Damascus, with Hamath to the north. This is the northern boundary.

18 On the east side, the boundary will run between Hauran and Damascus, along the Jordan between Gilead and the land of Israel, to the eastern sea. This is the eastern boundary.

19 On the south side, it will run from Tamar to the waters of Meribah Kadesh, then along the Brook of Egypt to the Mediterranean Sea. This is the southern boundary.

20 On the west side, the boundary will be the Mediterranean Sea to a point opposite Lebo-Hamath. This is the western boundary.

21 You are to divide this land among the tribes of Israel.

Inclusion of Strangers

22 “You shall distribute it as an inheritance for yourselves and for the foreigners residing among you who have children. They shall be treated as native-born Israelites; along with you they shall be allotted an inheritance among the tribes of Israel.

23 In whatever tribe the foreigner resides, there you shall give him his inheritance,” declares the Lord God.

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 47

- God’s life-giving river – The river from the temple represents the Spirit of God bringing life, growth, and healing wherever it flows (vv. 1–12).
- Spiritual growth deepens – The water rose from ankles, to knees, to waist, to swimming depth—symbolizing how walking with God moves us deeper into His Spirit (vv. 3–5).
- Healing and fruitfulness – Trees by the river bore monthly fruit and leaves for healing, pointing to God’s eternal restoration (v. 12; compare Revelation 22:1–2).

- God fulfills His promises – The land was divided just as He swore to the fathers of Israel (vv. 13–21).
- The gospel includes the outsider – Foreigners who live among Israel receive inheritance as equals, foreshadowing the inclusion of the Gentiles in God’s covenant (vv. 22–23).
- Christ is the Living Water – Jesus fulfills this prophecy, offering the Spirit as a river of life flowing to all who believe (John 7:37–39).

Ezekiel 48 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Inheritance of the Tribes and the City of the Lord’s Presence”

The Tribal Portions – North to South

- 1 “These are the names of the tribes: Beginning at the northern border, beside the way of Hethlon to Lebo-Hamath, all the way to Hazar-Enan (the northern border of Damascus and Hamath), there will be a portion for Dan, from east to west.
 - 2 Next to Dan, from east to west, a portion for Asher.
 - 3 Next to Asher, from east to west, a portion for Naphtali.
 - 4 Next to Naphtali, from east to west, a portion for Manasseh.
 - 5 Next to Manasseh, from east to west, a portion for Ephraim.
 - 6 Next to Ephraim, from east to west, a portion for Reuben.
 - 7 Next to Reuben, from east to west, a portion for Judah.
-

The Holy Portion and the Sanctuary

- 8 Next to Judah, from east to west, will be the sacred portion you are to present as an offering to the Lord. It will be 25,000 cubits wide, with the same length as one of the tribal portions, stretching east to west. The sanctuary will be in the middle of it.
 - 9 This special holy portion will be 25,000 cubits long and 10,000 cubits wide.
 - 10 It will belong to the priests, the sons of Zadok, who remained faithful to the Lord when Israel went astray. They will have this holy land, with the temple sanctuary in its center.
 - 11 It will be theirs as a most holy portion, set apart from the Levites.
 - 12 The Levites will receive an adjoining portion—25,000 cubits long and 10,000 wide.
 - 13 They must not sell or trade any of it, for it is holy to the Lord.
-

The Portion for the City

- 15 The remaining 5,000 cubits in width, adjoining the holy portion, will belong to the city. It will be used for houses and common land, and the city will be in the center.

16 These are its measurements: 4,500 cubits on the north, 4,500 on the south, 4,500 on the east, and 4,500 on the west.

17 The city will have open land around it: 250 cubits north, south, east, and west.

18 The land on either side of the city area—10,000 cubits east and 10,000 cubits west—will be farmland for the people who live in the city.

19 People from all the tribes of Israel will work this land and provide food for the city.

20 The entire holy portion, together with the city's land, will be 25,000 by 25,000 cubits—a perfect square.

The Portion for the Prince

21 The land on both sides of the holy portion and the city's land will belong to the prince. It will stretch east to the Jordan and west to the Mediterranean, paralleling the tribal allotments. The temple sanctuary will be in its center.

22 The prince's land will lie between the portions of Judah and Benjamin.

The Remaining Tribal Portions – South

23 South of the prince's land, from east to west, will be the portion for Benjamin.

24 Next to Benjamin, from east to west, a portion for Simeon.

25 Next to Simeon, from east to west, a portion for Issachar.

26 Next to Issachar, from east to west, a portion for Zebulun.

27 Next to Zebulun, from east to west, a portion for Gad.

28 On the southern boundary, south of Gad, the border will run from Tamar to the waters of Meribah Kadesh, to the Brook of Egypt, and to the Mediterranean Sea.

29 This is the land you are to divide among the tribes of Israel as their inheritance," declares the Lord God.

The Gates of the City

30 "These are the exits of the city:

- On the north side, 4,500 cubits with three gates:
 - the Gate of Reuben
 - the Gate of Judah
 - the Gate of Levi

31 On the east side, 4,500 cubits with three gates:

- the Gate of Joseph
- the Gate of Benjamin
- the Gate of Dan

32 On the south side, 4,500 cubits with three gates:

- the Gate of Simeon
- the Gate of Issachar
- the Gate of Zebulun

33 On the west side, 4,500 cubits with three gates:

- the Gate of Gad
- the Gate of Asher
- the Gate of Naphtali

34 The city will measure 18,000 cubits all around.

35 And the name of the city from that day shall be:

“The Lord Is There.”

Key Lessons from Ezekiel 48

- God keeps His promises – The land is carefully divided among the tribes as promised to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.
- God is central – The sanctuary is placed in the middle of the holy portion, showing that worship and God’s presence are at the heart of Israel’s inheritance.
- Holiness matters – The land given to priests and Levites cannot be sold or traded because it is dedicated to the Lord.
- The prince serves, not oppresses – Unlike past rulers, the prince is given land but must lead justly and not exploit the people.
- Unity of the tribes – Every tribe receives a portion, north to south, with no divisions into kingdoms as before.
- God’s final promise – The name of the city is “The Lord Is There”—assuring His eternal presence with His people, ultimately fulfilled in Christ and the New Jerusalem (Revelation 21:3).

Introduction to the Book of Daniel

“But the people who know their God shall be strong, and carry out great exploits.” – Daniel 11:32

Title and Meaning

The name Daniel comes from the Hebrew Daniyyel, meaning “God is my judge.” This name reflects the central truth of the book: even when earthly kings judge and rule, the final authority belongs to the Lord. Daniel’s life and visions remind us that God is sovereign over history, nations, and kings, and that His kingdom will outlast all others.

Author and Date

The book is traditionally attributed to Daniel, a young Jewish exile taken to Babylon in 605 BC during the first deportation under King Nebuchadnezzar. Daniel served as a statesman and prophet through the reigns of Babylonian and Persian kings, including Nebuchadnezzar, Belshazzar, Darius, and Cyrus. Scholars generally place the writing of the book in the 6th century BC, during or shortly after the exile. The detailed historical knowledge and prophetic visions show divine inspiration and God’s control over future events.

Purpose of Daniel

The Book of Daniel was written to encourage God’s people in exile and to reveal His sovereign plan for the future. It teaches us:

- That God rules over kingdoms and history.
- That faithfulness is possible even in hostile, pagan cultures.
- That God vindicates those who remain loyal to Him.
- That history is moving toward the establishment of God’s eternal kingdom.

Daniel is both narrative (stories of faith in action) and apocalyptic prophecy (visions of the future).

Structure of Daniel

Daniel divides into two main sections:

1. Historical Narratives (Chapters 1–6)

God’s sovereignty displayed through Daniel’s life and his friends:

- Daniel and his friends in Babylon (Ch. 1)
- Nebuchadnezzar’s dream of the statue (Ch. 2)
- The fiery furnace (Ch. 3)
- Nebuchadnezzar’s humbling (Ch. 4)

- The handwriting on the wall (Ch. 5)
- Daniel in the lions' den (Ch. 6)

📖 2. Prophetic Visions (Chapters 7–12)

God's plan for nations and the end of time:

- The four beasts and God's eternal kingdom (Ch. 7)
 - The ram and the goat (Ch. 8)
 - Daniel's prayer and the prophecy of seventy weeks (Ch. 9)
 - The vision of kings and kingdoms (Ch. 10–12)
-

Major Themes

- God's Sovereignty: Kings rise and fall, but God rules over all.
 - Faithfulness in Exile: Daniel and his friends remain loyal in a foreign land.
 - God's Protection: From the fiery furnace to the lions' den, God delivers His faithful ones.
 - Prophecy and the Future: God reveals the course of history, climaxing in His eternal kingdom.
 - Hope and Endurance: Even in trials, God's people are assured of final victory.
-

Why Daniel Matters Today

Daniel speaks directly to believers living in a world often opposed to God:

- How can we stay faithful in a culture that rejects God?
- How should we trust God when powerful forces seem unstoppable?
- How do we live with courage when obedience is costly?

Daniel shows that faithfulness to God is possible even in exile and that God's kingdom will prevail. The visions point forward to Jesus Christ, the Son of Man (Daniel 7:13–14), whose dominion is everlasting.

Key Verse

“And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed...” – Daniel 2:44

This verse captures the heart of Daniel: kingdoms of men rise and fall, but God's kingdom is eternal and indestructible.

Daniel 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Daniel and His Friends in Babylon”

The Captivity in Babylon

1 In the third year of King Jehoiakim’s rule over Judah, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came to Jerusalem and surrounded it.

2 The Lord gave Jehoiakim, king of Judah, into Nebuchadnezzar’s hand, along with some of the sacred items from the Temple of God. Nebuchadnezzar carried them back to the land of Babylon and placed them in the treasure house of his gods.

Young Men Chosen for Service

3 Then the king ordered Ashpenaz, the chief of his officials, to bring some of the young men of Israel from the royal family and nobility.

4 They were to be healthy, good-looking, intelligent, and quick to learn, so they could be trained to serve in the king’s palace. They were to be taught the language and literature of the Babylonians.

5 The king assigned them a daily portion of food and wine from his own table. They were to be trained for three years, and after that, they would serve the king.

6 Among those chosen were four young men from Judah: Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah.

7 The chief official gave them Babylonian names: Daniel was called Belteshazzar, Hananiah was called Shadrach, Mishael was called Meshach, and Azariah was called Abednego.

Daniel Refuses the King’s Food

8 But Daniel resolved in his heart not to defile himself by eating the king’s food and wine. He asked the chief official for permission not to make himself unclean in this way.

9 God caused the official to show kindness and respect to Daniel.

10 But the official said, “I am afraid of my master the king. He has assigned your food and drink. If you look weaker than the other young men your age, the king would have my head.”

11 Daniel then spoke to the guard whom the chief official had placed over him, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah.

12 He said, “Please test us for ten days. Give us only vegetables to eat and water to drink.

13 Then compare our appearance with the other young men who eat the king’s food. After that, decide what you think is best.”

14 The guard agreed and tested them for ten days.

15 At the end of the ten days, Daniel and his three friends looked healthier and stronger than all the young men who ate the king’s food.

16 So the guard continued to give them vegetables instead of the food and wine assigned by the king.

God Gives Wisdom to Daniel and His Friends

17 God gave these four young men great knowledge, skill, and wisdom in all the writings and learning of Babylon. And Daniel could understand visions and dreams of every kind.

18 At the end of the three years, the king commanded that all the young men be brought before him.

19 The king talked with them, and no one impressed him more than Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. So they entered the king's service.

20 In every matter of wisdom and understanding that the king questioned them about, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters in his whole kingdom.

21 Daniel remained there until the first year of King Cyrus.

Key Lessons from Daniel 1

- God is in control of history – Even though Babylon conquered Jerusalem, it was God who allowed it for His purposes.
- Faithfulness in small things – Daniel refused to compromise by eating defiled food, showing that obedience in little things leads to greater blessing.
- God honors faithfulness – The four young men were healthier and wiser because they trusted God rather than following the crowd.
- True wisdom comes from God – Human learning has limits, but God gives His people supernatural wisdom and understanding.
- God sustains His people in exile – Even in a foreign land, under pressure to conform, Daniel and his friends thrived because they stood firm in faith.

Daniel 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Nebuchadnezzar’s Dream of the Statue”

The King’s Troubling Dream

1 In the second year of King Nebuchadnezzar’s reign, he had dreams that disturbed him deeply, and he could not sleep.

2 So the king called for his magicians, astrologers, sorcerers, and Chaldeans to tell him what he had dreamed. They came and stood before him.

3 The king said, “I have had a dream, and my spirit is troubled to know what it means.”

4 The Chaldeans answered the king in Aramaic, “O king, live forever! Tell us the dream, and we will tell you its meaning.”

The King's Harsh Command

5 The king replied, "The dream has gone from me. If you do not make known to me both the dream and its meaning, you will be cut in pieces, and your houses will be destroyed.

6 But if you reveal the dream and its meaning, you will receive gifts, rewards, and great honor. So tell me the dream and its interpretation."

7 They answered again, "Let the king tell the dream to his servants, and we will explain the meaning."

8 The king said, "I know for certain that you are stalling because you see that the dream has gone from me.

9 If you cannot tell me the dream, you will all face the same judgment. You have conspired to deceive me with false words until circumstances change. Tell me the dream, and then I will know you can also explain its meaning."

10 The Chaldeans replied, "There is not a man on earth who can do this. No king has ever asked such a thing of magicians, astrologers, or Chaldeans.

11 What the king asks is too difficult. No one can reveal it except the gods, and they do not live among men."

12 This made the king furious, and he ordered that all the wise men of Babylon be put to death.

13 The decree went out, and they began searching for Daniel and his friends to kill them.

Daniel Seeks God's Wisdom

14 Then Daniel spoke with wisdom and tact to Arioch, the captain of the guard, who had gone out to kill the wise men of Babylon.

15 Daniel asked him, "Why is the king's command so urgent?" Arioch explained the matter to Daniel.

16 So Daniel went to the king and asked for time so that he could interpret the dream.

17 Then Daniel went to his house and told Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah what had happened.

18 He urged them to pray to the God of heaven for mercy concerning this secret, so that they would not be killed along with the other wise men of Babylon.

19 During the night, the secret was revealed to Daniel in a vision. Then Daniel praised the God of heaven.

Daniel's Prayer of Praise

20 Daniel said, "Blessed be the name of God forever and ever, for wisdom and power belong to Him.

21 He changes times and seasons; He removes kings and sets up kings. He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those with understanding.

22 He reveals deep and hidden things; He knows what is in darkness, and light dwells with Him.

23 I thank and praise You, O God of my fathers, because You have given me wisdom and power. You have made known to us what we asked of You, for You have made known the king's dream."

Daniel Before the King

24 Then Daniel went to Arioch, whom the king had ordered to kill the wise men, and said, "Do not kill them. Take me to the king, and I will tell him the interpretation."

25 Arioch quickly brought Daniel before the king and said, "I have found a man among the captives of Judah who can tell the king the meaning of his dream.”

26 The king said to Daniel (called Belteshazzar), “Are you able to tell me the dream I saw and its interpretation?”

27 Daniel answered, “No wise man, astrologer, magician, or soothsayer can reveal the secret the king has asked.

28 But there is a God in heaven who reveals secrets. He has shown King Nebuchadnezzar what will happen in the future. This is your dream and the visions that passed through your mind as you lay in bed:

29 As you lay in bed, O king, your mind turned to what would happen in the future, and the Revealer of secrets has shown you what is to come.

30 This was not revealed to me because I have more wisdom than anyone else, but so that the interpretation may be made known to you and that you may understand the thoughts of your heart.”

The Dream of the Statue

31 “You, O king, saw a great statue. This statue, large and shining, stood before you, and its appearance was terrifying.

32 The head of the statue was pure gold, its chest and arms were silver, its belly and thighs were bronze, 33 its legs were iron, and its feet were partly iron and partly clay.

34 As you watched, a stone was cut out, but not by human hands. It struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay and smashed them.

35 Then the iron, clay, bronze, silver, and gold were broken to pieces at the same time and became like chaff on a threshing floor. The wind carried them away without leaving a trace. But the stone that struck the statue became a huge mountain and filled the whole earth.

36 This is the dream, and now we will tell the king its meaning.”

The Interpretation

37 “You, O king, are the king of kings. The God of heaven has given you power, strength, and glory.

38 Wherever people live, and over the beasts of the field and the birds of the air, He has made you ruler. You are the head of gold.

39 After you, another kingdom will rise, inferior to yours. Then a third kingdom, made of bronze, will rule over the whole earth.

40 Finally, a fourth kingdom, as strong as iron, will come. Just as iron crushes and smashes everything, so this kingdom will crush and break all others.

41 Just as you saw the feet and toes, partly clay and partly iron, this kingdom will be divided. It will have some of the strength of iron, but it will also be fragile like clay.

42 The toes, partly iron and partly clay, mean the kingdom will be partly strong and partly weak.

43 And just as iron does not mix with clay, so these kingdoms will try to unite through human alliances, but they will not hold together.

44 In the days of those kings, the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed. It will never be conquered, but it will crush all these kingdoms and bring them to an end. It will last forever.

45 This is what you saw: the stone cut out of the mountain without human hands that crushed the iron, bronze, clay, silver, and gold. The great God has shown the king what will happen in the future. The dream is true, and the interpretation is certain.”

The King Honors Daniel

46 Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell face down before Daniel and ordered that an offering and incense be presented to him.

47 The king said to Daniel, “Truly, your God is the God of gods, the Lord of kings, and the Revealer of secrets, since you were able to reveal this mystery.”

48 Then the king promoted Daniel and gave him many gifts. He made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon and chief over all the wise men.

49 At Daniel’s request, the king appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to help govern the province of Babylon, but Daniel remained in the king’s court.

Key Lessons from Daniel 2

- Human wisdom has limits – The magicians and astrologers could not solve the king’s problem, but God alone reveals the hidden things.
- Prayer changes outcomes – Daniel and his friends sought God in prayer, and He gave them the answer that saved lives.
- God rules history – The statue represents the rise and fall of earthly empires, but God is the One who sets up and removes kings.
- Christ is the stone – The stone not cut by human hands points to God’s eternal kingdom in Christ, which will outlast every human empire.
- God honors faithfulness – Because Daniel trusted God, he was promoted and placed in a position of great influence.

Daniel 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Fiery Furnace and the God Who Delivers”

The Golden Image

1 King Nebuchadnezzar made a gold statue ninety feet tall and nine feet wide. He set it up on the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon.

2 He then summoned the princes, governors, captains, judges, treasurers, counselors, sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces to come to the dedication of the image he had set up.

3 So they all gathered together and stood before the golden image Nebuchadnezzar had erected.

The King's Command

4 A herald loudly proclaimed, "People of every nation and language, this is the king's command:

5 When you hear the sound of the horn, flute, harp, lyre, psaltery, bagpipe, and all kinds of music, you must fall down and worship the golden image King Nebuchadnezzar has set up.

6 Whoever does not fall down and worship will immediately be thrown into a blazing furnace."

7 So as soon as the people heard the sound of the music, people of every nation and language fell down and worshiped the golden image Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

The Accusation Against the Jews

8 But some Chaldeans came forward and accused the Jews.

9 They said to King Nebuchadnezzar, "O king, live forever!

10 You have issued a decree that everyone who hears the music must fall down and worship the golden image,

11 and whoever does not will be thrown into the blazing furnace.

12 But there are some Jews you appointed over the province of Babylon—Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego—who pay no attention to you, O king. They do not serve your gods or worship the golden image you set up."

The King's Threat

13 Then Nebuchadnezzar, furious with rage, ordered Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to be brought before him.

14 He said to them, "Is it true that you do not serve my gods or worship the golden image I have set up?

15 Now, if you are ready, when you hear the music, fall down and worship the image I made. But if you do not, you will be thrown immediately into the blazing furnace. And what god can rescue you from my hand?"

The Men's Faithful Answer

16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego replied, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we do not need to defend ourselves before you in this matter.

17 If we are thrown into the blazing furnace, the God we serve is able to deliver us from it, and He will deliver us from your hand, O king.

18 But even if He does not, we want you to know that we will not serve your gods or worship the golden image you have set up."

The Furnace Heated Seven Times Hotter

19 Nebuchadnezzar was furious, and his face twisted with rage toward them. He ordered the furnace heated seven times hotter than usual.

20 He commanded his strongest soldiers to tie up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego and throw them into the blazing furnace.

21 So the men, bound in their robes, trousers, turbans, and other clothes, were thrown into the furnace.

22 The king's command was so urgent and the furnace so hot that the flames killed the soldiers who threw them in.

23 And Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, securely bound, fell into the blazing furnace.

God's Deliverance in the Fire

24 Suddenly King Nebuchadnezzar leaped to his feet in amazement and asked his counselors, "Didn't we throw three men, bound, into the fire?" They replied, "Certainly, O king."

25 He said, "Look! I see four men walking around in the fire, unbound and unharmed—and the fourth looks like the Son of God!"

26 Then Nebuchadnezzar approached the opening of the blazing furnace and shouted, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, servants of the Most High God, come out!" So they came out of the fire.

27 The princes, governors, captains, and counselors crowded around them and saw that the fire had not harmed their bodies, not a hair of their heads was singed, their robes were untouched, and there was no smell of fire on them.

Nebuchadnezzar's Decree

28 Then Nebuchadnezzar said, "Praise be to the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego! He sent His angel and rescued His servants who trusted in Him. They defied the king's command and were willing to give up their lives rather than serve or worship any god except their own God.

29 Therefore, I make this decree: Any people, nation, or language who speak against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego will be cut to pieces and their houses reduced to rubble. For there is no other god who can save in this way."

30 Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in the province of Babylon.

Key Lessons from Daniel 3

- Faith tested by fire – Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego faced death rather than compromise their faith.
- God is able—but faith stands even if He doesn't deliver – True faith trusts God's power and submits to His will.
- Christ is present in the fire – The fourth figure points to the Son of God, who walks with His people in their trials.
- God's power surpasses kings – Nebuchadnezzar recognized that no other god could deliver like the God of Israel.
- Faithful witness changes nations – Their courage and loyalty to God led to His name being honored across Babylon.

Daniel 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Nebuchadnezzar’s Humbling and Restoration”

Nebuchadnezzar’s Declaration

1 King Nebuchadnezzar sent this message to all people, nations, and languages throughout the earth:
“May you have peace in abundance!
2 It seemed good to me to declare the signs and wonders that the Most High God has done for me.
3 How great are His signs, how mighty are His wonders! His kingdom is everlasting, and His rule continues from generation to generation.”

The King’s Troubling Dream

4 “I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at ease in my palace and prospering in my home.
5 But I had a dream that made me afraid. The visions I saw while lying in bed troubled me.
6 So I issued a decree to summon all the wise men of Babylon so they could interpret the dream.
7 When the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers came, I told them the dream, but none could explain it.
8 Finally, Daniel (called Belteshazzar, after the name of my god, in whom is the Spirit of the holy God) came before me, and I told him the dream.
9 I said, ‘Belteshazzar, chief of the magicians, I know the Spirit of the holy God is in you, and no secret is too difficult for you. Tell me the meaning of my dream.’

The Dream of the Great Tree

10 ‘These were the visions I saw: I saw a great tree standing in the middle of the earth. Its height was enormous.
11 The tree grew large and strong, and its top reached to the heavens. It could be seen from the ends of the earth.
12 Its leaves were beautiful, its fruit abundant, and it provided food for all. The beasts of the field found shade under it, the birds of the sky lived in its branches, and every creature was fed by it.
13 In the visions I saw, a messenger, a holy one, came down from heaven.
14 He called out loudly: “Cut down the tree and lop off its branches, strip its leaves, and scatter its fruit. Let the animals flee from under it and the birds from its branches.
15 But leave the stump and roots, bound with iron and bronze, in the grass of the field. Let it be drenched with the dew of heaven, and let him live with the animals among the plants of the earth.
16 Let his mind be changed from that of a man to that of a beast, and let seven periods of time pass over him.
17 This decision is announced by the messengers; this decree is given by the holy ones, so that the living may know that the Most High rules over the kingdoms of men. He gives them to whomever He wills, even to the lowliest of men.”

18 This is the dream that I, King Nebuchadnezzar, had. Now, Belteshazzar, tell me what it means, for none of the wise men in my kingdom can interpret it, but you can, because the Spirit of the holy God is in you.”

Daniel Interprets the Dream

19 Then Daniel, called Belteshazzar, was stunned for a moment, and his thoughts troubled him. The king said, “Belteshazzar, do not let the dream or its meaning trouble you.”

Belteshazzar answered, “My lord, I wish the dream were about your enemies and its meaning about your adversaries!

20 The tree you saw, which grew large and strong, reaching to heaven and visible to the ends of the earth,

21 with beautiful leaves and abundant fruit, providing food for all, giving shelter to the beasts and branches for the birds—

22 that tree is you, O king. You have grown great and strong; your greatness has reached to the heavens and your dominion to the ends of the earth.

23 And as for the holy messenger who said, ‘Cut down the tree but leave the stump with its roots bound with iron and bronze, let him be drenched with the dew of heaven, and let him live with the beasts until seven times pass over him,’

24 this is the interpretation, O king: It is the decree of the Most High that has come upon you.

25 You will be driven away from people and live with the beasts of the field. You will eat grass like an ox, and you will be drenched with the dew of heaven. Seven times will pass over you until you acknowledge that the Most High rules the kingdoms of men and gives them to whomever He wills.

26 The command to leave the stump and roots means your kingdom will be restored to you when you acknowledge that Heaven rules.

27 Therefore, O king, accept my advice: Renounce your sins by doing what is right, and your wickedness by being kind to the poor. Then perhaps your prosperity will continue.”

The Fulfillment of the Dream

28 All this happened to King Nebuchadnezzar.

29 Twelve months later, as he was walking on the roof of the royal palace of Babylon,

30 he said, “Is not this the great Babylon I have built as my royal residence, by my mighty power and for the glory of my majesty?”

31 While the words were still on his lips, a voice came from heaven: “King Nebuchadnezzar, this is the decree: Your royal authority has been taken from you.

32 You will be driven away from people and live with the wild animals; you will eat grass like an ox. Seven times will pass over you until you acknowledge that the Most High rules the kingdoms of men and gives them to whomever He wills.”

33 Immediately what was spoken about Nebuchadnezzar was fulfilled. He was driven from people, ate grass like an ox, his body was drenched with the dew of heaven, his hair grew like eagles’ feathers, and his nails like birds’ claws.

Nebuchadnezzar's Restoration and Praise

34 “At the end of that time, I, Nebuchadnezzar, looked up to heaven, and my understanding returned to me. Then I praised the Most High and honored Him who lives forever. His dominion is everlasting, and His kingdom endures from generation to generation.

35 All the people of the earth are regarded as nothing. He does what He pleases with the powers of heaven and the people of the earth. No one can hold back His hand or say to Him, ‘What have You done?’

36 At the same time, my sanity was restored, and my honor and splendor returned to me for the glory of my kingdom. My advisers and nobles sought me out, and I was restored to my throne and became even greater than before.

37 Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise, exalt, and honor the King of heaven, for all His works are true and all His ways are just. And He is able to humble those who walk in pride.”

Key Lessons from Daniel 4

- God rules over earthly kingdoms – Nebuchadnezzar learned that authority comes from God, not human power.
- Pride leads to downfall – The king's boasting about Babylon brought swift judgment.
- Repentance is the way to restoration – Daniel urged the king to turn from sin, and only when Nebuchadnezzar humbled himself was he restored.
- God humbles the proud and lifts up the lowly – Even the most powerful ruler is subject to the King of heaven.
- True greatness comes from God – Nebuchadnezzar's testimony shows that God's power and mercy are greater than human glory.

Daniel 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Writing on the Wall”

Belshazzar's Feast

1 King Belshazzar gave a great banquet for a thousand of his nobles and drank wine with them.

2 While drinking, Belshazzar ordered that the gold and silver cups taken by his father Nebuchadnezzar from the temple in Jerusalem be brought in. He and his nobles, wives, and concubines drank from them.

3 So they brought the gold cups taken from the house of God in Jerusalem, and the king, his nobles, wives, and concubines drank from them.

4 As they drank wine, they praised the gods of gold, silver, bronze, iron, wood, and stone.

The Handwriting on the Wall

5 Suddenly the fingers of a human hand appeared and wrote on the plaster of the wall, near the lampstand in the royal palace. The king watched the hand as it wrote.

6 His face turned pale, and he was terrified. His legs gave way, and his knees knocked together.

7 The king called loudly for the enchanters, astrologers, and diviners. He said, “Whoever can read this writing and tell me what it means will be dressed in purple, wear a gold chain around his neck, and be made the third highest ruler in the kingdom.”

8 Then all the king’s wise men came in, but they could not read the writing or explain it to the king.

9 So King Belshazzar became even more terrified, his face grew paler, and his nobles were bewildered.

Daniel is Called

10 The queen, hearing the voices of the king and his nobles, entered the banquet hall. She said, “O king, live forever! Don’t be alarmed or look so pale.

11 There is a man in your kingdom in whom is the Spirit of the holy God. In the days of your father, he was found to have insight, intelligence, and wisdom like that of the gods. King Nebuchadnezzar made him chief of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and diviners.

12 This man Daniel (called Belteshazzar) has exceptional ability and wisdom to interpret dreams, explain riddles, and solve difficult problems. Call for him, and he will tell you what the writing means.”

13 So Daniel was brought before the king. Belshazzar said, “Are you Daniel, one of the exiles my father the king brought from Judah?

14 I have heard that the spirit of the gods is in you and that you have insight, intelligence, and wisdom.

15 The wise men and astrologers were brought before me to read this writing and tell me its meaning, but they could not.

16 But I have heard you can interpret mysteries and solve problems. If you can read this writing and tell me what it means, you will be dressed in purple, wear a gold chain around your neck, and be the third ruler in the kingdom.”

Daniel Rebukes the King

17 Daniel answered, “You may keep your gifts and give your rewards to someone else. But I will read the writing for you and tell you what it means.

18 O king, the Most High God gave your father Nebuchadnezzar sovereignty, greatness, glory, and splendor.

19 Because of the greatness He gave him, all nations and peoples of every language trembled before him. He killed whom he wished and spared whom he wished; he promoted and humbled as he wished.

20 But when his heart became arrogant and hardened with pride, he was removed from his throne and stripped of his glory.

21 He was driven away from people, lived with wild donkeys, ate grass like an ox, and his body was drenched with the dew of heaven—until he acknowledged that the Most High God rules over the kingdoms of men and gives them to whomever He wills.

22 But you, Belshazzar, his son, have not humbled yourself, though you knew all this.

23 Instead, you set yourself against the Lord of heaven. You brought in the vessels from His temple, and you and your nobles, wives, and concubines drank wine from them. You praised gods of silver, gold, bronze, iron, wood, and stone—gods that cannot see, hear, or understand. But you did not honor the God who holds your life and all your ways in His hand.

24 Therefore, He sent the hand that wrote this inscription.

The Writing and Its Meaning

25 “This is the inscription that was written: Mene, Mene, Tekel, Parsin.

26 Here is what these words mean:

- Mene: God has numbered the days of your kingdom and brought it to an end.
- 27 Tekel: You have been weighed on the scales and found wanting.
- 28 Peres: Your kingdom is divided and given to the Medes and Persians.”

The Fall of Babylon

29 Then Belshazzar gave an order, and Daniel was clothed in purple, a gold chain was placed around his neck, and he was proclaimed the third highest ruler in the kingdom.

30 That very night Belshazzar, king of the Babylonians, was killed.

31 And Darius the Mede took over the kingdom, at the age of sixty-two.

Key Lessons from Daniel 5

- God cannot be mocked – Belshazzar profaned the holy vessels of God’s temple, and judgment came swiftly.
- Past lessons ignored bring greater judgment – Belshazzar knew the story of his father Nebuchadnezzar but refused to humble himself.
- God weighs every life – “Tekel” reminds us that God examines the heart, and pride leaves us lacking.
- Earthly kingdoms end, but God’s rule stands – Babylon fell in a single night, showing that no power on earth is secure apart from God.
- Faithful witness matters – Daniel spoke truth boldly, refusing rewards, and once again honored God before kings.

Daniel 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Daniel in the Lions’ Den”

Daniel's Promotion and the Conspiracy

1 King Darius appointed 120 governors to rule throughout his kingdom.

2 Over them he set three administrators, and Daniel was one of them. The governors were accountable to them so the king would not suffer loss.

3 Daniel distinguished himself above the other administrators and governors because he had an excellent spirit. The king planned to set him over the whole kingdom.

4 At this the other administrators and governors tried to find grounds for charges against Daniel in how he handled government affairs. But they could find no corruption or fault, because he was trustworthy and neither negligent nor dishonest.

5 Finally, they said, "We will never find any charge against this Daniel unless it has to do with the law of his God."

The Decree Against Prayer

6 So the administrators and governors went together to the king and said, "King Darius, live forever! 7 All the officials of the kingdom have agreed that the king should issue a decree that anyone who prays to any god or man during the next thirty days—except to you, O king—will be thrown into the lions' den.

8 Now, O king, issue the decree and put it in writing so it cannot be changed, in accordance with the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be altered."

9 So King Darius signed the decree.

Daniel's Faithful Prayer

10 When Daniel learned that the decree had been signed, he went home to his upstairs room where the windows opened toward Jerusalem. Three times a day he got down on his knees and prayed, giving thanks to his God, just as he had always done.

11 Then the conspirators went together and found Daniel praying and asking God for help.

12 So they went to the king and said, "Did you not sign a decree that for thirty days no one may pray to any god or man except to you, O king? Otherwise, they must be thrown into the lions' den?"

The king answered, "The decree stands—in accordance with the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be changed."

13 Then they said to the king, "Daniel, who is one of the exiles from Judah, pays no attention to you or the decree. He still prays three times a day."

Daniel Cast into the Den

14 When the king heard this, he was greatly distressed. He determined to rescue Daniel and worked until sunset to save him.

15 But the men went to the king and said, "Remember, O king, that the law of the Medes and Persians says no decree or law the king issues can be changed."

16 So the king gave the order, and Daniel was brought and thrown into the lions' den. The king said to Daniel, "May your God, whom you serve continually, rescue you!"

17 A stone was brought and placed over the mouth of the den, and the king sealed it with his own signet and the signet of his nobles, so that Daniel's situation could not be changed.

18 The king returned to his palace and spent the night fasting. He refused entertainment and could not sleep.

Daniel Delivered

19 At the first light of dawn, the king hurried to the lions' den.

20 When he came near, he called in anguish, "Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you serve continually, been able to rescue you from the lions?"

21 Daniel answered, "O king, live forever!

22 My God sent His angel, and He shut the mouths of the lions. They have not hurt me, because I was found innocent in His sight. Nor have I done any wrong before you, O king."

23 The king was overjoyed and ordered Daniel lifted out of the den. No wound was found on him, because he trusted in his God.

24 At the king's command, the men who had falsely accused Daniel were brought and thrown into the lions' den, along with their wives and children. Before they reached the floor of the den, the lions overpowered them and crushed their bones.

The King Honors God

25 Then King Darius wrote to all peoples, nations, and languages throughout the earth: "May you have abundant peace!

26 I decree that in every part of my kingdom people must fear and reverence the God of Daniel. For He is the living God and endures forever; His kingdom will never be destroyed, and His rule will never end.

27 He rescues and saves; He performs signs and wonders in heaven and on earth. He has rescued Daniel from the power of the lions."

28 So Daniel prospered during the reign of Darius and the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

Key Lessons from Daniel 6

- Integrity invites opposition – Daniel's faithfulness and excellence stirred jealousy in others.
- Faith remains steady under pressure – Daniel prayed openly despite the decree, showing loyalty to God above all else.
- God protects His people – The angel shut the lions' mouths, proving God's power to deliver.
- Evil schemes backfire – Those who plotted Daniel's downfall fell into their own trap.
- God's name is glorified through trials – Even a pagan king proclaimed the greatness of the God of Israel after witnessing Daniel's deliverance.

Daniel 7 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Vision of the Four Beasts and the Son of Man”

Daniel’s Dream of Four Beasts

1 In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions while lying on his bed. He wrote down the dream and recorded the main details.

2 Daniel said: “In my vision at night I saw the four winds of heaven stirring up the great sea.

3 Four great beasts came up out of the sea, each different from the others.

4 The first was like a lion with eagle’s wings. As I watched, its wings were torn off, and it was lifted from the ground to stand on two feet like a man, and a human mind was given to it.

5 Then I saw a second beast, like a bear. It was raised up on one side, and it had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. It was told, ‘Get up and devour much flesh!’

6 After that I looked, and there before me was another beast, like a leopard. It had four wings on its back like a bird and four heads. Dominion was given to it.

7 After this, in my vision at night I saw a fourth beast—terrifying, dreadful, and very strong. It had large iron teeth. It crushed and devoured its victims and trampled underfoot whatever was left. It was different from all the beasts before it, and it had ten horns.

8 While I was thinking about the horns, another horn—a little one—came up among them. Three of the first horns were uprooted before it. This little horn had eyes like human eyes and a mouth that spoke arrogantly.”

The Ancient of Days

9 “As I looked, thrones were set in place, and the Ancient of Days took His seat. His clothing was white as snow, and the hair of His head was like pure wool. His throne was flaming with fire, and its wheels were all ablaze.

10 A river of fire flowed out from before Him. Thousands upon thousands served Him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before Him. The court was seated, and the books were opened.

11 Then I continued to watch because of the boastful words the horn was speaking. I kept looking until the beast was slain and its body destroyed and thrown into the blazing fire.

12 As for the other beasts, their power was taken away, but they were allowed to live for a period of time.”

The Son of Man

13 “In my vision at night I saw one like a Son of Man, coming with the clouds of heaven. He approached the Ancient of Days and was led into His presence.

14 He was given authority, glory, and a kingdom, so that all peoples, nations, and languages would serve Him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that will never pass away, and His kingdom is one that will never be destroyed.”

The Vision Explained

15 “I, Daniel, was troubled in spirit, and the visions disturbed me.

16 I approached one of those standing there and asked him the meaning of all this. So he explained:

17 ‘The four great beasts are four kingdoms that will rise from the earth.

18 But the saints of the Most High will receive the kingdom and will possess it forever—yes, forever and ever.’

19 Then I wanted to know the truth about the fourth beast, which was different from all the others—most terrifying, with iron teeth and bronze claws. It crushed and devoured its victims and trampled underfoot whatever was left.

20 I also wanted to know about the ten horns on its head and the other horn that came up, before which three fell—the horn that looked more imposing than the others and had eyes and a mouth that spoke boastfully.

21 As I watched, this horn was waging war against the saints and defeating them,
22 until the Ancient of Days came and pronounced judgment in favor of the saints of the Most High, and the time came when they possessed the kingdom.

23 He gave me this explanation: ‘The fourth beast is a fourth kingdom that will appear on earth. It will be different from all other kingdoms and will devour the whole earth, trampling it down and crushing it.

24 The ten horns are ten kings who will come from this kingdom. After them another king will arise, different from the earlier ones. He will subdue three kings.

25 He will speak against the Most High and oppress His saints and try to change set times and laws. The saints will be handed over to him for a time, times, and half a time.

26 But the court will sit, and his power will be taken away and completely destroyed forever.

27 Then the sovereignty, power, and greatness of all the kingdoms under heaven will be handed over to the people of the saints of the Most High. His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all rulers will worship and obey Him.’

28 This is the end of the matter. I, Daniel, was deeply troubled by my thoughts, and my face turned pale, but I kept the matter to myself.”

Key Lessons from Daniel 7

- God rules over history – The four beasts represent earthly kingdoms, but each has limits, and all are under God’s control.
- Earthly power is temporary – The mightiest kingdoms rise and fall, but God’s kingdom is everlasting.
- The Son of Man is the Messiah – Daniel foresaw Christ, who receives eternal authority from the Ancient of Days.

- God’s people may face suffering – The little horn wages war against the saints, but the Ancient of Days will vindicate them.
- The final victory belongs to God – The dominion of the arrogant horn will be destroyed, and the kingdom will be given to the saints forever.

Daniel 8 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Vision of the Ram and the Goat”

Daniel’s Vision by the Ulai River

1 In the third year of King Belshazzar’s reign, I, Daniel, had another vision, after the earlier one.

2 In my vision I found myself at the fortress of Susa, in the province of Elam. In the vision I was standing beside the Ulai River.

3 I looked up, and there before me stood a ram with two long horns. Both horns were high, but one was higher than the other, and the higher one came up last.

4 The ram charged westward, northward, and southward. No animal could stand against it, and none could rescue from its power. It did as it pleased and became very great.

5 As I was thinking about this, suddenly a goat with a prominent horn between its eyes came from the west, crossing the whole earth without touching the ground.

6 It came toward the two-horned ram I had seen standing beside the river and rushed at it with furious power.

7 I watched as the goat attacked the ram furiously, shattering its two horns. The ram was powerless to stand against it; it was thrown to the ground and trampled. No one could rescue the ram from the goat’s power.

8 The goat became very great, but at the height of its power, the large horn was broken off. In its place four prominent horns grew up toward the four winds of heaven.

The Little Horn

9 Out of one of them came another horn, which started small but grew exceedingly great toward the south, the east, and the Beautiful Land.

10 It grew until it reached the host of heaven, and it cast some of the starry host down to the earth and trampled on them.

11 It exalted itself as high as the Prince of the host; it took away the daily sacrifice, and the sanctuary was thrown down.

12 Because of rebellion, an army was given over to it to oppose the daily sacrifice. It threw truth to the ground and prospered in what it did.

13 Then I heard a holy one speaking, and another asked him, “How long will the vision be—the daily sacrifice, the rebellion that causes desolation, and the trampling of the sanctuary and the host?”

14 He said to me, “It will take 2,300 evenings and mornings; then the sanctuary will be cleansed.”

Gabriel Explains the Vision

15 While I, Daniel, was watching the vision and trying to understand it, suddenly one who looked like a man stood before me.

16 And I heard a man's voice from the Ulai calling, "Gabriel, tell this man the meaning of the vision."

17 As he came near, I was terrified and fell face down. He said to me, "Understand, son of man, that the vision concerns the time of the end."

18 While he was speaking, I fell into a deep sleep with my face to the ground. But he touched me and helped me to stand.

19 He said, "I am going to tell you what will happen in the final time of wrath, for the end will come at the appointed time.

20 The ram with two horns you saw represents the kings of Media and Persia.

21 The shaggy goat is the king of Greece, and the large horn between its eyes is the first king.

22 The four horns that replaced the broken one represent four kingdoms that will arise from that nation, but none will have the power of the first.

23 In the latter part of their reign, when sin has reached its full measure, a fierce king, skilled in intrigue, will arise.

24 His power will be mighty—but not by his own strength. He will cause astonishing destruction and succeed in whatever he does. He will destroy mighty men and the holy people.

25 He will use deceit to prosper, and in his arrogance he will destroy many who feel secure. He will rise up against the Prince of princes, but he will be destroyed—not by human power.

26 The vision of the evenings and mornings that has been given is true. But seal up the vision, for it concerns the distant future."

Daniel Overwhelmed

27 I, Daniel, was worn out and lay sick for several days. Then I got up and went about the king's business. I was appalled by the vision; it was beyond understanding.

Key Lessons from Daniel 8

- God reveals the future – Daniel's vision points to the rise and fall of empires, showing that history is in God's hands.
- Earthly power is temporary – The great horn and the four kingdoms remind us that human strength fades, but God's plan continues.
- Pride leads to destruction – The little horn exalted itself even against God, but it was broken "without human hands."
- God limits evil – Even rebellion and oppression are bound by God's appointed times.
- Hope in cleansing – The sanctuary would one day be restored, pointing to God's ultimate plan of redemption in Christ.

Daniel 9 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Daniel’s Prayer and the Seventy Weeks Prophecy”

Daniel Prays for His People

1 In the first year of Darius son of Ahasuerus, a Mede who became king over the realm of the Chaldeans,

2 I, Daniel, understood from the Scriptures, according to the word of the Lord given to Jeremiah the prophet, that the desolation of Jerusalem would last seventy years.

3 So I turned to the Lord God and pleaded with Him in prayer and fasting, in sackcloth and ashes.

4 I prayed to the Lord my God and confessed:

“O Lord, great and awesome God, who keeps His covenant of love with those who love Him and keep His commands,

5 we have sinned and done wrong. We have been wicked and rebelled; we have turned away from Your commands and laws.

6 We have not listened to Your servants the prophets, who spoke in Your name to our kings, princes, fathers, and all the people of the land.

7 Lord, You are righteous, but this day we are covered with shame—the people of Judah, Jerusalem, and all Israel, near and far, in all the countries where You have scattered us because of our unfaithfulness.

8 O Lord, we and our kings, princes, and ancestors are covered with shame because we have sinned against You.

9 But to the Lord our God belong mercy and forgiveness, even though we have rebelled against Him.

10 We have not obeyed the Lord our God or kept the laws He gave us through His servants the prophets.

11 All Israel has transgressed Your law and turned away, refusing to obey You. Therefore the curses and judgments written in the Law of Moses, the servant of God, have been poured out on us, because we sinned against You.

12 You have fulfilled the words spoken against us and against our rulers by bringing upon us great disaster. Nothing has ever been done under heaven like what has been done to Jerusalem.

13 Just as it is written in the Law of Moses, all this disaster has come upon us. Yet we have not sought the favor of the Lord our God by turning from our sins and paying attention to Your truth.

14 Therefore the Lord has kept the disaster in store for us, for the Lord our God is righteous in everything He does; yet we have not obeyed Him.

15 O Lord our God, who brought Your people out of Egypt with a mighty hand and made for Yourself a name that endures to this day, we have sinned and done wrong.

16 Lord, in keeping with all Your righteous acts, turn away Your anger and wrath from Jerusalem, Your city, Your holy hill. Our sins and the iniquities of our fathers have made Jerusalem and Your people an object of scorn to all around us.

17 Now, O our God, hear the prayers and petitions of Your servant. For Your sake, Lord, look with favor on Your desolate sanctuary.

18 Give ear, our God, and hear; open Your eyes and see the desolation of the city that bears Your name. We do not make requests because of our righteousness, but because of Your great mercy.

19 Lord, listen! Lord, forgive! Lord, hear and act! For Your sake, my God, do not delay, because Your city and Your people bear Your name.”

Gabriel Brings an Answer

20 While I was speaking and praying, confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my request before the Lord my God for His holy hill—

21 while I was still in prayer, Gabriel, the man I had seen in an earlier vision, came to me in swift flight at the time of the evening sacrifice.

22 He instructed me and said, “Daniel, I have now come to give you insight and understanding.

23 As soon as you began to pray, a word went out, and I have come to tell you, for you are greatly loved. Therefore, consider the message and understand the vision:

The Seventy Weeks Prophecy

24 “Seventy ‘weeks’ have been decreed for your people and your holy city to finish transgression, to put an end to sin, to atone for wickedness, to bring in everlasting righteousness, to seal up vision and prophecy, and to anoint the Most Holy Place.

25 Know and understand this: From the issuing of the decree to restore and rebuild Jerusalem until the Anointed One, the Prince, comes, there will be seven ‘weeks’ and sixty-two ‘weeks.’ The city will be rebuilt with streets and a trench, but in difficult times.

26 After the sixty-two ‘weeks,’ the Anointed One will be cut off and will have nothing. The people of the ruler who will come will destroy the city and the sanctuary. The end will come like a flood, and war and desolation will continue until the end.

27 He will confirm a covenant with many for one ‘week.’ In the middle of the ‘week’ he will put an end to sacrifice and offering. And at the temple he will set up an abomination that causes desolation, until the end that is decreed is poured out on him.”

Key Lessons from Daniel 9

- Prayer is grounded in Scripture – Daniel prayed after understanding God’s promise through Jeremiah.
- Confession is essential – Daniel openly confessed his sins and the sins of his people, showing humility.
- God’s mercy is greater than sin – Israel’s hope did not rest on their righteousness but on God’s compassion.

- Christ is the Anointed One – The prophecy of the seventy weeks points forward to the Messiah, His sacrifice, and the new covenant.
- God controls history – From the rebuilding of Jerusalem to the coming of Christ, everything unfolds according to God’s perfect plan.

Daniel 10 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Daniel’s Vision of a Glorious Messenger”

Daniel’s Fasting and Mourning

1 In the third year of King Cyrus of Persia, a revelation was given to Daniel (also called Belteshazzar). The message was true and concerned a great war. The understanding of the vision was clear to him.

2 At that time, I, Daniel, mourned for three full weeks.

3 I ate no rich food; no meat or wine touched my lips, and I used no lotions at all until the three weeks were over.

4 On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, I was standing beside the great river, the Tigris.

5 I looked up and saw a man dressed in linen, with a belt of fine gold from Uphaz around his waist.

6 His body was like topaz, his face like lightning, his eyes like flaming torches, his arms and legs like polished bronze, and his voice like the sound of a great multitude.

Daniel’s Weakness

7 I, Daniel, was the only one who saw the vision; the men with me did not see it, but great terror overwhelmed them, and they ran to hide.

8 So I was left alone, gazing at this great vision. My strength left me, my face turned pale, and I was helpless.

9 Then I heard him speak, and as I listened, I fell into a deep sleep, my face to the ground.

The Messenger Strengthens Daniel

10 A hand touched me and set me trembling on my hands and knees.

11 He said, “Daniel, you who are greatly loved, consider carefully the words I am about to speak to you. Stand up, for I have now been sent to you.” When he said this to me, I stood trembling.

12 Then he said, “Do not be afraid, Daniel. Since the first day you set your heart to understand and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard, and I have come in response to them.

13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia resisted me twenty-one days. Then Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, because I was detained there with the kings of Persia.

14 Now I have come to explain to you what will happen to your people in the latter days, for the vision concerns the future.”

15 While he was speaking, I bowed my face to the ground and was speechless.

16 Then one who looked like a man touched my lips, and I opened my mouth and said to the one standing before me, “My lord, I am overcome with anguish because of the vision, and I feel very weak.

17 How can I, your servant, talk with you, my lord? My strength is gone, and I can hardly breathe.”

18 Again the one who looked like a man touched me and gave me strength.

19 “Do not be afraid, you who are greatly loved,” he said. “Peace! Be strong now; be strong.”

When he spoke to me, I was strengthened and said, “Speak, my lord, since you have given me strength.”

The Heavenly Conflict

20 So he said, “Do you know why I have come to you? Soon I must return to fight against the prince of Persia, and when I go, the prince of Greece will come.

21 But first I will tell you what is written in the Book of Truth. No one supports me against these except Michael, your prince.”

Key Lessons from Daniel 10

- Prayer engages spiritual warfare – Daniel’s prayer was answered from the first day, but opposition in the unseen realm delayed the messenger.
- God’s people are deeply loved – Twice Daniel is called “greatly beloved,” reminding us of God’s tender care for His children.
- Spiritual battles are real – The conflict with the “prince of Persia” shows that behind earthly kingdoms are spiritual powers.
- Strength comes from God’s word – Daniel was weak until he was touched and strengthened by the messenger’s encouragement.
- History unfolds under God’s plan – The messenger spoke of future kingdoms, showing that God’s truth directs the course of nations.

Daniel 11 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Kings of the North and South”

Prophecy of Coming Kingdoms

1 “In the first year of Darius the Mede, I arose to support and strengthen him.

2 Now I will tell you the truth: Three more kings will arise in Persia, and then a fourth, far richer than the others. By his wealth he will stir up everyone against Greece.

3 Then a mighty king will arise, who will rule with great power and do as he pleases.

4 But at the height of his power his kingdom will be broken and divided to the four winds of heaven. It will not go to his descendants, nor will it have the same power he ruled with, for it will be uprooted and given to others.”

The Conflicts of North and South

5 “The king of the South will become strong, but one of his commanders will become even stronger and rule over a great kingdom.

6 After some years, they will form an alliance. The daughter of the king of the South will be given in marriage to the king of the North to make an agreement. But she will not retain her power, nor will he remain strong. She and her supporters will be handed over.

7 One from her family line will arise to take her place. He will attack the fortress of the king of the North and succeed.

8 He will carry off to Egypt their gods, idols, and precious gold and silver. He will rule longer than the king of the North.

9 Then the king of the South will invade the North, but he will return to his own land.

10 The sons of the king of the North will gather a great army, advancing like a flood and carrying the battle as far as his fortress.

11 The king of the South, enraged, will go out and fight the king of the North. He will raise a large army, but it will be defeated.

12 The victory will make him proud, and he will kill many thousands, but his success will not last.

13 The king of the North will raise a larger army than before and, after several years, advance with great strength and wealth.

14 At that time many will rise against the king of the South. Violent men among your own people will rebel to fulfill the vision, but they will fail.

15 The king of the North will capture fortified cities, and the forces of the South will not be able to resist.

16 He will do as he pleases, and no one will stand against him. He will establish himself in the Beautiful Land, and it will fall under his control.”

Intrigue and Betrayal

17 “He will attempt to strengthen his kingdom by giving his daughter in marriage to the king of the South, but she will not remain loyal to him.

18 Then he will turn his attention to the coastlands and capture many, but a commander will oppose him and bring his arrogance to an end.

19 Afterward he will turn back toward his own country, but he will stumble and fall and be seen no more.

20 His successor will send a tax collector to maintain the kingdom’s glory, but within a few years he will be destroyed, though not in anger or battle.

21 A contemptible man will rise to power without royal honor. He will seize the kingdom through intrigue and deception.

22 Armies will be swept away before him, including a prince of the covenant.

23 After forming alliances, he will act deceitfully and rise to power with a small force.

24 He will invade the richest provinces without warning, and he will distribute plunder, loot, and wealth among his followers—something his predecessors never did. He will plot against strongholds, but only for a time.

25 With a large army, he will stir up his strength against the king of the South, who will also muster a great army. But he will not succeed, for treachery will undermine him.

26 Those who eat with him will betray him, his army will be swept away, and many will fall in battle.

27 The two kings, bent on evil, will sit at the same table and lie to each other, but their plans will not succeed, for the end will come at the appointed time.

28 Then the king of the North will return home with great wealth, but his heart will be set against the holy covenant. He will take action against it and return to his land.”

The Abomination of Desolation

29 “At the appointed time he will invade the South again, but this time the outcome will be different.

30 Ships from the western coastlands will oppose him, and he will lose heart. Then he will turn back and vent his fury against the holy covenant. He will favor those who abandon the covenant.

31 His forces will desecrate the temple fortress, abolish the daily sacrifice, and set up the abomination that causes desolation.

32 With flattery he will corrupt those who violate the covenant, but the people who know their God will stand firm and take action.

33 The wise among the people will instruct many, though for a time they will fall by sword, flame, captivity, and plunder.

34 When they fall, they will receive little help, and many who join them will not be sincere.

35 Some of the wise will fall, so that they may be refined, purified, and made spotless until the time of the end, for it will still come at the appointed time.”

The Final King

36 “The king will do as he pleases. He will exalt himself above every god and speak blasphemies against the God of gods. He will succeed until God’s wrath is completed, for what has been determined must take place.

37 He will show no regard for the gods of his fathers, nor the one desired by women, nor any other god, but he will exalt himself above them all.

38 Instead he will honor a god of fortresses, a god unknown to his ancestors. He will honor this god with gold, silver, precious stones, and costly gifts.

39 He will attack the strongest fortresses with the help of this foreign god and greatly reward those who acknowledge him. He will make them rulers over many people and distribute land for a price.

40 At the time of the end, the king of the South will attack him, but the king of the North will storm out against him with chariots, cavalry, and a great fleet of ships. He will invade many countries and sweep through them like a flood.

41 He will also invade the Beautiful Land. Many countries will fall, but Edom, Moab, and the leaders of Ammon will escape.

42 He will extend his power over many countries; even Egypt will not escape.

43 He will gain control over the treasures of gold and silver and all the riches of Egypt, with Libyans and Cushites in submission.

44 But reports from the east and north will alarm him, and in great fury he will set out to destroy many.

45 He will pitch his royal tents between the seas at the beautiful holy mountain. Yet he will come to his end, and no one will help him.”

Key Lessons from Daniel 11

- God directs history – The detailed rise and fall of kings show God’s control over empires.
- Worldly power is unstable – Alliances, betrayals, and wars prove that human kingdoms cannot bring lasting peace.
- God’s people will be tested – The prophecy warns of persecution, deception, and the “abomination of desolation.”
- The faithful will stand firm – Those who know their God will remain strong and shine with wisdom, even in trials.
- Pride brings downfall – The final arrogant king exalts himself above every god, but his end comes suddenly by God’s decree.

Daniel 12 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Time of the End and the Resurrection”

The Time of Trouble and Deliverance

1 At that time Michael, the great prince who protects your people, will arise. There will be a time of distress such as never happened from the beginning of nations until then. But at that time your people—everyone whose name is found written in the book—will be delivered.

2 Multitudes who sleep in the dust of the earth will awake: some to everlasting life, others to shame and everlasting contempt.

3 Those who are wise will shine like the brightness of the heavens, and those who lead many to righteousness will shine like the stars forever and ever.

The Sealed Prophecy

4 But you, Daniel, roll up and seal the words of the scroll until the time of the end. Many will run to and fro, and knowledge will increase.

5 Then I, Daniel, looked, and saw two others standing, one on each side of the riverbank.

6 One of them said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, “How long will it be before these astonishing events are fulfilled?”

7 The man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, lifted his right hand and his left hand toward heaven and swore by Him who lives forever: “It will be for a time, times, and half a time. When the power of the holy people has been completely shattered, all these things will be finished.”

The End Explained

8 I heard, but I did not understand. So I asked, “My lord, what will the outcome of all this be?”

9 He replied, “Go your way, Daniel, because the words are rolled up and sealed until the time of the end.

10 Many will be purified, made spotless, and refined, but the wicked will continue to be wicked. None of the wicked will understand, but the wise will understand.

11 From the time the daily sacrifice is abolished and the abomination that causes desolation is set up, there will be 1,290 days.

12 Blessed is the one who waits for and reaches the end of the 1,335 days.

13 As for you, go your way until the end. You will rest, and then at the end of the days you will rise to receive your allotted inheritance.”

Key Lessons from Daniel 12

- God protects His people – Michael, the archangel, rises to defend God’s people during the greatest time of trouble.
- Resurrection hope – Daniel foretells both eternal life and eternal judgment, pointing clearly to the final resurrection.
- Wisdom has eternal impact – Those who lead others to righteousness will shine forever like stars.
- Prophecy is sealed for the end – Full understanding of these words is reserved for the last days, when knowledge will increase.
- Faithful endurance is blessed – Those who wait patiently through trials are promised blessing.
- Personal promise to Daniel – Even Daniel is assured of rest in death and resurrection to his inheritance at the end.

📖 Introduction to the Book of Hosea

“When the Lord first began speaking to Israel through Hosea, He said to him, ‘Go and marry a prostitute...’” – Hosea 1:2

Title and Meaning

The name Hosea (Hebrew: Hôšēa') means “salvation” or “deliverance.” It is closely related to the names Joshua and Jesus, which also carry the idea of salvation. Hosea’s name reflects the central message of his prophetic book: even in the midst of judgment for sin, God’s ultimate purpose is to save and restore His people.

Author and Date

The book is attributed to Hosea son of Beeri, one of the “minor prophets” (minor in length, not importance). Hosea ministered primarily in the northern kingdom of Israel during the eighth century BC, around the same time as Amos, Isaiah, and Micah. His prophetic career spanned the reigns of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah in Judah, and Jeroboam II in Israel (Hosea 1:1).

This places Hosea’s ministry approximately between 755–715 BC, during a time of outward prosperity under Jeroboam II but deep moral corruption, idolatry, and political instability leading up to the Assyrian conquest of Israel in 722 BC.

Purpose of Hosea

Hosea’s message combines God’s holiness in judgment with His unfailing love in redemption. The prophet’s own marriage to Gomer, an unfaithful wife, serves as a living picture of Israel’s spiritual adultery and God’s patient, pursuing love. Hosea teaches us:

- That sin is spiritual adultery against God.
 - That judgment is inevitable when people reject God’s covenant.
 - That God’s love is relentless, seeking to restore His wayward people.
 - That true salvation is found not in human alliances or idols, but in returning to the Lord.
-

Structure of Hosea

The book divides into two major parts:

1. Hosea’s Family as a Prophetic Symbol (Chapters 1–3)

- Hosea’s marriage to Gomer illustrates Israel’s unfaithfulness.
- The names of their children carry prophetic meaning: Jezreel (judgment), Lo-Ruhamah (“not loved”), and Lo-Ammi (“not my people”).
- God promises eventual restoration: “You are my people, and I am your God.”

2. Hosea’s Messages of Judgment and Restoration (Chapters 4–14)

- Ch. 4–10: Accusations against Israel for idolatry, injustice, and political corruption.
 - Ch. 11: God’s fatherly love for Israel, despite their rebellion.
 - Ch. 12–13: Rehearsal of Israel’s history of unfaithfulness and coming judgment.
 - Ch. 14: Call to repentance and promise of healing, forgiveness, and blessing.
-

Major Themes

- Spiritual Adultery: Israel’s idolatry is likened to marital unfaithfulness.
 - Judgment and Exile: Sin leads to destruction, symbolized by the fall of Samaria to Assyria.
 - God’s Covenant Love (Hesed): Despite betrayal, God’s steadfast love pursues His people.
 - Repentance and Restoration: True hope lies in returning to the Lord, who heals and forgives.
 - Christ as Fulfillment: Hosea points forward to Christ, the faithful bridegroom who redeems His unfaithful bride, the Church.
-

Why Hosea Matters Today

Hosea reminds us that God’s love is both holy and relentless. It warns against the dangers of idolatry—not just of ancient statues, but of modern substitutes for God such as wealth, power, or pleasure. It calls us to examine our hearts: Are we faithful to the Lord, or chasing other “lovers”?

Hosea also comforts us with the truth that God’s mercy is greater than our sin. No matter how far we stray, He calls us to return and promises restoration through Jesus Christ, who fulfills the covenant love of God perfectly.

Key Verse

“I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely: for mine anger is turned away from him.” –
Hosea 14:4

This verse captures the heart of Hosea: God’s judgment is real, but His love is deeper still. His desire is to heal, forgive, and restore all who turn back to Him.

Hosea 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Hosea’s Marriage and Israel’s Unfaithfulness”

Hosea's Call and Family as a Sign

1 The word of the Lord came to Hosea son of Beeri during the reigns of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and during the reign of Jeroboam son of Joash, king of Israel.

2 When the Lord first spoke through Hosea, He said, "Go and marry a woman who will be unfaithful, and have children with her. For the land is guilty of unfaithfulness, departing from the Lord."

3 So Hosea married Gomer, daughter of Diblaim. She became pregnant and gave him a son.

The Names of Hosea's Children

4 Then the Lord said to Hosea, "Name him Jezreel, because I will soon punish the house of Jehu for the massacre at Jezreel, and I will put an end to the kingdom of Israel.

5 On that day I will break Israel's bow in the Valley of Jezreel."

6 Gomer conceived again and gave birth to a daughter. Then the Lord said to Hosea, "Name her Lo-Ruhamah (Not Loved), for I will no longer show love to Israel, that I should forgive them.

7 But I will show love to Judah, and I will save them—not by bow, sword, or battle, nor by horses and horsemen, but by the Lord their God."

8 After Gomer had weaned Lo-Ruhamah, she had another son.

9 Then the Lord said, "Name him Lo-Ammi (Not My People), for you are not My people, and I am not your God."

Promise of Restoration

10 "Yet the number of the Israelites will be like the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured or counted. In the place where it was said to them, 'You are not My people,' they will be called, 'Children of the living God.'

11 The people of Judah and the people of Israel will be reunited, and they will appoint one leader. They will come up out of the land, for great will be the day of Jezreel."

Key Lessons from Hosea 1

- Sin is unfaithfulness to God – Israel's idolatry was pictured in Hosea's marriage to Gomer.
- Judgment is certain – The names of Hosea's children symbolized God's coming judgment on Israel.
- God's love remains – Even in judgment, God promised to show mercy and restoration to His people.
- Hope of unity – Judah and Israel will one day be reunited under one leader, pointing to Christ.
- Identity restored – Those once rejected will be called "Children of the living God," a promise echoed in the New Testament (Romans 9:25–26; 1 Peter 2:10).

Hosea 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Israel’s Unfaithfulness and God’s Promise of Restoration”

Israel’s Unfaithfulness Exposed

1 Say to your brothers, “My People,” and to your sisters, “Shown Mercy.”

2 “Rebuke your mother, rebuke her, for she is not my wife, and I am not her husband. Let her remove her unfaithfulness from her face and her adultery from her chest,

3 or I will strip her naked and make her like the day she was born. I will make her like a desert, turn her into parched land, and let her die of thirst.

4 I will not show love to her children, because they are children of adultery.

5 Their mother has been unfaithful; she has acted shamefully. She said, ‘I will go after my lovers, who give me food and water, wool and linen, olive oil and drink.’

6 Therefore I will block her path with thorns and wall her in so she cannot find her way.

7 She will chase after her lovers but not catch them; she will look for them but not find them. Then she will say, ‘I will go back to my first husband, for then I was better off than now.’

8 She has not acknowledged that I was the one who gave her the grain, the new wine, and the oil, who lavished on her the silver and gold—which they used for Baal.

9 Therefore I will take back my grain when it ripens, and my new wine when it is ready. I will take away my wool and my linen, which were meant to cover her nakedness.

10 Now I will expose her lewdness before the eyes of her lovers, and no one will rescue her from my hand.

11 I will stop all her celebrations: her feasts, her new moons, her Sabbaths, and all her appointed festivals.

12 I will ruin her vines and fig trees, which she said were her pay from her lovers. I will turn them into a thicket, and wild animals will devour them.

13 I will punish her for the days she burned incense to the Baals, when she put on her rings and jewelry and went after her lovers, but forgot me,” declares the Lord.

God’s Promise of Love Restored

14 “But now I will allure her; I will lead her into the wilderness and speak tenderly to her.

15 There I will give her back her vineyards and make the Valley of Achor a door of hope. There she will sing as in the days of her youth, as in the day she came up from Egypt.

16 In that day,” declares the Lord, “you will call me ‘My Husband’; you will no longer call me ‘My Master.’

17 I will remove the names of the Baals from her lips; no longer will their names be invoked.

18 In that day I will make a covenant for them with the wild animals, the birds, and the creatures that move along the ground. I will abolish bow, sword, and battle from the land, so that all may lie down in safety.

19 I will betroth you to me forever; I will betroth you in righteousness and justice, in love and compassion.

20 I will betroth you in faithfulness, and you will know the Lord.

21 In that day I will respond,” declares the Lord—

“I will respond to the skies, and they will respond to the earth;

22 and the earth will respond to the grain, the new wine, and the oil, and they will respond to Jezreel.

23 I will plant her for myself in the land; I will show love to the one I called ‘Not Loved.’ I will say to those called ‘Not My People,’ ‘You are my people’; and they will say, ‘You are my God.’”

Key Lessons from Hosea 2

- Sin is spiritual adultery – Israel’s idolatry and alliances are pictured as unfaithfulness to God.
- God disciplines in love – Judgment is meant to bring His people to repentance and back to Him.
- Restoration follows repentance – God promises to renew the covenant and restore joy.
- God’s love is faithful – He woos His people back, showing mercy, love, and compassion.
- The New Covenant hope – Hosea points to the future when God’s people will be called His beloved children, fulfilled in Christ (Romans 9:25; 1 Peter 2:10).

Hosea 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Hosea Redeems His Wife as a Picture of God’s Love”

Hosea Redeems Gomer

1 The Lord said to me, “Go again, and love a woman who is loved by another but is an adulteress. Love her as the Lord loves the people of Israel, even though they turn to other gods and love the offerings of wine.”

2 So I bought her back for fifteen pieces of silver and about a homer and a half of barley.

3 Then I told her, “You must live with me many days. You must not be unfaithful or belong to another man, and I will be faithful to you.”

Israel’s Waiting and Future Restoration

4 For the people of Israel will live many days without a king or prince, without sacrifices or sacred pillars, without the ephod or household idols.

5 Afterward, the people of Israel will return and seek the Lord their God and David their king. In the last days they will tremble before the Lord and His goodness.

Key Lessons from Hosea 3

- God's love redeems – Hosea's costly redemption of Gomer shows God's relentless love for His unfaithful people.
- Discipline leads to repentance – Israel would go through a long season without leadership or worship, preparing them to return to God.
- Christ fulfills the promise – The reference to “David their king” points to Jesus, the Son of David, who will reign over His restored people.
- Grace is greater than sin – Even deep unfaithfulness can be overcome by God's redeeming mercy.
- The latter days – Hosea points forward to the ultimate restoration under Christ's eternal kingdom.

Hosea 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God's Charge Against Israel”

The Lord's Accusation

1 Hear the word of the Lord, people of Israel. The Lord brings charges against those who live in the land: “There is no faithfulness, no love, no knowledge of God in the land.

2 There is only cursing, lying, murder, stealing, and adultery. They break all bounds, and bloodshed follows bloodshed.

3 Because of this the land mourns, and all who live in it waste away. Even the beasts of the field, the birds of the sky, and the fish of the sea are dying.

Corrupt Priests and People

4 “Let no one bring charges, let no one accuse another, for your people are like those who bring charges against a priest.

5 You stumble day and night, and the prophets stumble with you. So I will destroy your mother, Israel.

6 My people are destroyed from lack of knowledge. Because you have rejected knowledge, I also reject you as my priests. Because you have ignored the law of your God, I will also ignore your children.

7 The more they increased, the more they sinned against me. I will turn their glory into shame.

8 They feed on the sins of my people and are greedy for their wickedness.

9 And it will be: like people, like priests. I will punish both for their ways and repay them for their deeds.

10 They will eat but not be satisfied; they will commit adultery but not increase, because they have deserted the Lord.

11 Idolatry, prostitution, and wine have robbed them of understanding.

12 My people consult idols of wood, and a diviner's rod speaks to them. A spirit of prostitution leads them astray; they are unfaithful to their God.

Idolatry and Unfaithfulness

13 They sacrifice on the mountaintops and burn offerings on the hills, under oak, poplar, and terebinth trees, because the shade is pleasant. So your daughters turn to prostitution and your daughters-in-law to adultery.

14 I will not punish your daughters when they prostitute themselves, nor your daughters-in-law when they commit adultery, because the men themselves visit prostitutes and offer sacrifices with temple harlots. A people without understanding will come to ruin.

15 Though you, Israel, are unfaithful, do not let Judah become guilty. Do not go to Gilgal; do not go up to Beth Aven; and do not swear, 'As surely as the Lord lives!'

16 The Israelites are stubborn, like a stubborn cow. How then can the Lord pasture them like lambs in a meadow?

17 Ephraim is joined to idols; leave him alone!

18 Their drink is bitter; they continue in prostitution. Their rulers dearly love shameful ways.

19 A whirlwind will carry them off, and they will be disgraced because of their sacrifices."

Key Lessons from Hosea 4

- Ignorance of God is deadly – God's people perished because they rejected His truth.
- Sin spreads when leaders fail – Like people, like priests; corruption among leaders led the nation astray.
- Idolatry corrupts the heart – Trusting in idols or false sources of guidance leads to ruin.
- Unfaithfulness brings judgment – Israel's prostitution with idols and nations brought shame and destruction.
- A warning to God's people – Hosea warns Judah not to follow Israel's sins, reminding us to avoid compromise today.

Hosea 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

"God's Judgment on Priests, People, and Leaders"

Israel and Judah Rebuked

1 Hear this, you priests! Pay attention, you people of Israel! Listen, royal house! Judgment is coming against you, because you have been a trap at Mizpah and a net spread out on Tabor.

2 The rebels are knee-deep in slaughter, but I will punish them all.

3 I know all about Ephraim; Israel is not hidden from me. Ephraim, you have prostituted yourself, and Israel is defiled.

4 Their deeds do not permit them to return to their God. A spirit of prostitution is in their hearts; they do not know the Lord.

5 Israel's pride testifies against them. Israel and Ephraim will stumble in their sin; Judah will stumble with them.

6 They will go with their flocks and herds to seek the Lord, but they will not find Him; He has withdrawn from them.

7 They have been unfaithful to the Lord; they have borne illegitimate children. Now within a short time they and their fields will be consumed.

Warnings of Desolation

8 Blow the horn in Gibeah, the trumpet in Ramah! Sound the alarm at Beth Aven; watch out, Benjamin! 9 Ephraim will be laid waste on the day of punishment. Among the tribes of Israel I make known what is certain.

10 The princes of Judah are like those who move boundary stones. I will pour out my wrath on them like a flood of water.

11 Ephraim is oppressed, crushed in judgment, because he was determined to follow worthless commands.

12 Therefore I am like a moth to Ephraim, like rot to the people of Judah.

13 When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah his sores, Ephraim went to Assyria and sent help to the great king. But he cannot heal you or cure your wound.

14 For I will be like a lion to Ephraim, like a young lion to Judah. I myself will tear them to pieces and go away; I will carry them off, with no one to rescue them.

Call to Return to the Lord

15 Then I will return to my place until they admit their guilt. They will seek my face; in their distress they will earnestly seek me.

Key Lessons from Hosea 5

- God sees all sin – Israel could not hide their unfaithfulness from the Lord.
- Pride blinds the heart – Pride kept Israel from turning back to God.
- False solutions fail – Israel sought help from Assyria, but only God could heal their wounds.
- God disciplines to restore – His judgment, like a lion's attack, is meant to bring His people back to Him.

- Repentance is the only hope – When Israel confesses and seeks God’s face, He will respond with mercy.

Hosea 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Call to Return to the Lord”

The Invitation to Return

1 “Come, let us return to the Lord. He has torn us, but He will heal us; He has struck us down, but He will bind up our wounds.

2 After two days He will revive us; on the third day He will raise us up, that we may live in His presence.

3 Let us press on to know the Lord. As surely as the sun rises, He will appear. He will come to us like the rain, like the spring and autumn rains that water the earth.”

God’s Response to Superficial Love

4 “What can I do with you, Ephraim? What can I do with you, Judah? Your love is like the morning mist, like the early dew that quickly disappears.

5 That is why I sent the prophets to cut you down and struck you with the words of my mouth. My judgments flash forth like the light of dawn.

6 For I desire mercy, not sacrifice, and acknowledgment of God rather than burnt offerings.

7 But like Adam, they have broken the covenant; they were unfaithful to me there.

8 Gilead is a city of evildoers, stained with footprints of blood.

9 As marauding bands lie in wait for a man, so a company of priests murder travelers along the road; they commit shameful acts.

10 I have seen a horrible thing in Israel: Ephraim has prostituted itself; Israel is defiled.

11 And for you, Judah, a harvest of judgment is also appointed, whenever I restore the fortunes of my people.”

Key Lessons from Hosea 6

- God heals the repentant – Though He disciplines, He also promises to restore those who turn back.
- True revival is possible – God brings life where there was death, pointing forward to resurrection hope.
- Love over ritual – God desires mercy, justice, and knowledge of Him more than religious sacrifices.

- Superficial devotion fails – Israel’s short-lived loyalty was like the morning mist, soon gone.
- Leaders are accountable – Even priests were guilty of corruption and violence, bringing shame to God’s house.
- Judgment and restoration – God warns Judah of coming judgment, but also promises to restore His people.

Hosea 7 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Israel’s Corruption and False Alliances”

Hidden Sin Exposed

1 “Whenever I wanted to heal Israel, the sins of Ephraim and the crimes of Samaria were exposed. They practice deceit, thieves break in, and bands of robbers raid outside.

2 But they do not realize that I remember all their evil deeds. Their sins surround them; they are always before me.

3 They delight the king with their wickedness and the princes with their lies.

4 They are all adulterers, burning like an oven that the baker heats and then rests until the dough is leavened.

5 On the day of the king’s festival, the princes became inflamed with wine, and the king joined hands with mockers.

6 Their hearts are like an oven, smoldering through the night. In the morning it blazes like a flaming fire.

7 They are all as hot as an oven; they consume their rulers. All their kings fall, and none of them calls on me.”

Israel’s Folly Among Nations

8 “Ephraim mixes with the nations; he is like a flat cake not turned over.

9 Foreigners have sapped his strength, but he does not realize it. His hair is sprinkled with gray, but he does not notice.

10 Israel’s pride testifies against him, but despite all this he does not return to the Lord his God or seek him.

11 Ephraim is like a senseless dove, easily deceived—calling to Egypt, turning to Assyria.

12 Whenever they go, I will throw my net over them; I will bring them down like birds from the sky. I will punish them as I have warned in their assembly.”

False Repentance and Judgment

13 “Woe to them, because they have strayed from me! Destruction to them, because they have rebelled against me! I long to redeem them, but they speak lies about me.

14 They do not cry to me from their hearts but wail on their beds. They gather together for grain and new wine, but they turn away from me.

15 Though I trained them and made their arms strong, they plot evil against me.

16 They turn, but not to the Most High. They are like a faulty bow. Their leaders will fall by the sword because of their insolent words. For this they will be ridiculed in the land of Egypt.”

Key Lessons from Hosea 7

- God sees all sin – Israel tried to hide wickedness, but their sins surrounded them before God’s face.
- Corruption destroys leaders – Kings and rulers fell because of the nation’s deceit and passion for sin.
- Strength wasted on false alliances – Trusting in Egypt and Assyria drained Israel’s strength and led to ruin.
- False repentance is empty – Crying without a true heart toward God brings no healing.
- God desires loyalty, not lies – Though He longed to redeem, Israel’s rebellion kept them in judgment.
- Pride blinds the heart – Even as strength fades, pride keeps people from returning to God.

Hosea 8 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Israel Sows the Wind and Reaps the Whirlwind”

Israel’s Rebellion

1 “Put the trumpet to your lips! An enemy swoops down like an eagle against the house of the Lord because the people have broken my covenant and rebelled against my law.

2 Israel cries out to me, ‘My God, we know you!’

3 But Israel has rejected what is good; an enemy will pursue them.

4 They set up kings without my approval; they choose princes without my consent. With their silver and gold they make idols for themselves, to their own destruction.

5 Throw out your calf-idol, Samaria! My anger burns against them. How long will they be incapable of purity?

6 This calf is from Israel—a craftsman made it; it is not God. The calf of Samaria will be smashed to pieces.

The Harvest of Sin

7 “They sow the wind and reap the whirlwind. The stalk has no head; it produces no grain. If it does yield, foreigners will swallow it up.

8 Israel is swallowed up; now they are among the nations like something no one wants.

9 They have gone up to Assyria, like a wild donkey wandering alone. Ephraim has sold herself to lovers.

10 Although they have hired allies among the nations, I will now gather them up. They will begin to waste away under the burden of a mighty king.

Empty Worship and Forgetting God

11 Ephraim built many altars for sin offerings, but these have become altars for sinning.

12 I wrote for them the many things of my law, but they regarded them as something strange.

13 They offer sacrifices as gifts to me, and eat the meat, but the Lord is not pleased with them. Now he will remember their sins and punish them for their iniquity. They will return to Egypt.

14 Israel has forgotten his Maker and built palaces; Judah has fortified many cities. But I will send fire on their cities that will consume their strongholds.”

Key Lessons from Hosea 8

- Empty religion cannot save – Israel claimed to know God but lived in rebellion.
- Idolatry destroys – The golden calf of Samaria symbolized misplaced worship that led to judgment.
- Sowing and reaping – Sin never produces life; sowing the wind reaps the whirlwind of destruction.
- False alliances fail – Israel trusted Assyria and foreign powers instead of God, leading to ruin.
- God desires obedience, not ritual – Sacrifices meant nothing without faithfulness and knowledge of God.
- Forgetting God brings fire – Israel and Judah’s fortresses and wealth could not protect them from God’s judgment.

Hosea 9 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Israel’s Punishment for Unfaithfulness”

Israel’s Sin and Exile

1 Do not rejoice, Israel. Do not celebrate like other nations, for you have been unfaithful to your God. You have loved the wages of prostitution on every threshing floor.

2 But the threshing floor and the winepress will not feed you; the new wine will fail.

3 You will no longer live in the Lord's land. Ephraim will return to Egypt, and in Assyria they will eat unclean food.

4 They will no longer pour out wine offerings to the Lord; their sacrifices will not please Him. Their sacrifices will be like the bread eaten in mourning; all who eat it will be unclean. Their food will not come into the house of the Lord.

5 What will you do on the appointed festivals, on the days of the Lord's feasts?

6 Even if they escape destruction, Egypt will gather them for burial; Memphis will bury them. Weeds will overtake their silver treasures; thorns will grow in their tents.

The Prophet Rejected

7 The days of punishment have come; the days of reckoning are here. Let Israel know this: because of your great sin and hostility, the prophet is considered a fool, and the inspired man a madman.

8 The prophet, the watchman of Ephraim, is with my God, yet traps are laid for him in all his paths, and hostility fills the house of his God.

9 They have sunk deep into corruption, as in the days of Gibeah. God will remember their wickedness and punish their sins.

God's Grief over Israel

10 "When I found Israel, it was like finding grapes in the desert. When I saw your ancestors, it was like seeing the early fruit on a fig tree. But they went to Baal Peor and devoted themselves to shame; they became as vile as the things they loved.

11 Ephraim's glory will fly away like a bird—no birth, no pregnancy, no conception.

12 Even if they raise children, I will bereave them until none are left. Woe to them when I turn away from them!

13 I have seen Ephraim, like Tyre, planted in a pleasant place. But Ephraim will bring out their children for the slaughter.

14 Give them, O Lord—what will you give? Give them wombs that miscarry and breasts that are dry.

15 Because of all their wickedness in Gilgal, I hated them there. Because of their sinful deeds, I will drive them out of my house. I will love them no more; all their leaders are rebels.

16 Ephraim is blighted, their root is dried up; they can bear no fruit. Even if they give birth, I will put to death their cherished offspring.

17 My God will reject them because they have not obeyed Him; they will become wanderers among the nations."

Key Lessons from Hosea 9

- Unfaithfulness brings exile – Israel’s sin would drive them from the Lord’s land to Egypt and Assyria.
- False worship defiles – Their sacrifices, disconnected from obedience, became polluted and unacceptable to God.
- God’s grief is personal – He once delighted in Israel like early fruit, but their devotion to idols brought shame.
- Judgment touches families – Their rebellion would result in barrenness and the loss of children.
- Rejection is the consequence of disobedience – Because they would not listen, God declared they would be wanderers among the nations.

Hosea 10 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Israel the Empty Vine”

Idolatry and Judgment

1 Israel is like an empty vine, producing fruit only for himself. The more his fruit increased, the more he built altars. The richer his land became, the more he decorated his idols.

2 Their hearts are divided, and now they must face guilt. The Lord will tear down their altars and destroy their sacred pillars.

3 Then they will say, “We have no king, because we did not fear the Lord. But even if we had a king, what could he do for us?”

4 They make promises, swear falsely, and make empty covenants. So justice springs up like poisonous weeds in the furrows of the field.

The Idols of Samaria

5 The people of Samaria fear for the calf-idol of Beth Aven. Its people will mourn for it, and its idolatrous priests who rejoiced over its glory will grieve, for it has been taken from them.

6 It will be carried to Assyria as tribute for the great king. Ephraim will be disgraced, and Israel will be ashamed of its idols.

7 Samaria’s king will be destroyed, swept away like a twig on the surface of the water.

8 The high places of Aven—the centers of Israel’s sin—will be destroyed. Thorns and thistles will grow over their altars. Then they will cry to the mountains, “Cover us!” and to the hills, “Fall on us!”

God's Call to Righteousness

9 “Since the days of Gibeah, Israel, you have sinned, and there you have remained. Did not war overtake the evildoers in Gibeah?

10 When I please, I will punish them. Nations will be gathered against them to bind them for their double sin.

11 Ephraim is like a trained heifer that loves to thresh grain. I put a yoke on her fair neck; I will make Ephraim pull the plow. Judah must plow, and Jacob must break the ground.

12 Sow righteousness for yourselves, reap the fruit of steadfast love. Break up your unplowed ground, for it is time to seek the Lord, until He comes and showers righteousness on you.

13 But you have planted wickedness, reaped iniquity, and eaten the fruit of lies. Because you trusted in your own strength and in the number of your warriors,

14 turmoil will rise among your people. All your fortresses will be ruined, just as Shalman destroyed Beth Arbel on the day of battle, when mothers were dashed to pieces with their children.

15 This will happen to you, Bethel, because of your great wickedness. When the dawn comes, the king of Israel will be completely destroyed.”

Key Lessons from Hosea 10

- Fruit without faith is empty – Israel’s blessings produced pride and idolatry instead of gratitude to God.
- A divided heart leads to ruin – Israel’s half-hearted loyalty caused their altars and idols to fall.
- False security in kings and armies fails – Trust in rulers or military strength cannot replace trust in God.
- God calls for righteousness – He urges His people to sow righteousness and seek Him so that He may pour out blessing.
- Judgment is certain – Because they sowed wickedness, they reaped destruction. Their fortresses and kings could not save them.
- Foreshadowing the end – The cry to the mountains and hills anticipates final judgment, echoed in Revelation 6:16.

Hosea 11 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God’s Love for Israel”

God's Fatherly Care

1 When Israel was a child, I loved him, and out of Egypt I called my son.

2 But the more I called them, the more they went away. They sacrificed to the Baals and burned incense to idols.

3 It was I who taught Ephraim to walk, taking them by the arms; but they did not realize it was I who healed them.

4 I led them with cords of kindness, with ties of love. I lifted the yoke from their neck and bent down to feed them.

Rebellion and Judgment

5 They will not return to Egypt, but the Assyrian will be their king because they refused to return to me.

6 The sword will flash in their cities, destroy their bars of gates, and devour them because of their own plans.

7 My people are determined to turn away from me. Even though they call on the Most High, none truly honor Him.

God's Compassion

8 "How can I give you up, Ephraim? How can I hand you over, Israel? How can I make you like Admah or set you like Zeboiim? My heart recoils within me; my compassion is stirred.

9 I will not carry out my fierce anger, nor will I completely destroy Ephraim again. For I am God and not man—the Holy One among you. I will not come in wrath.

Restoration and Return

10 They will follow the Lord; He will roar like a lion. When He roars, His children will come trembling from the west.

11 They will come trembling like birds from Egypt, like doves from Assyria. I will settle them again in their homes," declares the Lord.

12 Ephraim surrounds me with lies, and Israel with deceit. But Judah still walks with God and remains faithful to the Holy One.

Key Lessons from Hosea 11

- God's love is like a parent's – He tenderly cared for Israel, teaching and feeding them, yet they strayed.

- Rebellion brings judgment – Refusing to return to God meant submission to Assyria and destruction by the sword.
- God’s compassion tempers His anger – Unlike men, God’s judgment is balanced by mercy.
- Hope of restoration – Though scattered, God promised to gather His people again and bring them home.
- Faithfulness matters – Israel was filled with lies, but Judah still clung to God, showing the blessing of loyalty.

Hosea 12 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Israel’s Deceit and God’s Call to Return”

Israel’s Empty Pursuits

1 Ephraim feeds on the wind and chases after the east wind all day long. He multiplies lies and violence. He makes a covenant with Assyria, and sends olive oil as tribute to Egypt.

2 The Lord has a charge against Judah as well. He will punish Jacob according to his ways and repay him for what he has done.

Jacob as an Example

3 In the womb Jacob grasped his brother’s heel; as a man he struggled with God.

4 He wrestled with the angel and prevailed; he wept and begged for His blessing. At Bethel he found Him, and there God spoke with us—

5 the Lord, the God of Heaven’s Armies—the Lord is His name.

6 Therefore, return to your God. Maintain love and justice, and wait on your God always.

Israel’s Deceptive Wealth

7 But Ephraim is a merchant who uses dishonest scales; he loves to cheat.

8 Ephraim boasts, “I am rich; I have become wealthy. With all my wealth they cannot find any sin in me.”

9 “I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of Egypt. I will make you live in tents again, as in the days of the appointed festival.

10 I spoke through the prophets, gave many visions, and spoke in parables through them.

11 Is there wickedness in Gilead? Surely they are worthless. In Gilgal they sacrifice bulls, but their altars are like piles of stones in a plowed field.

God's Faithfulness vs. Israel's Rebellion

12 Jacob fled to the country of Aram; Israel served for a wife, and for a wife he tended sheep.

13 By a prophet the Lord brought Israel up from Egypt, and by a prophet he was cared for.

14 But Ephraim has bitterly provoked the Lord to anger. So the Lord will leave his guilt upon him and repay him for his contempt.”

Key Lessons from Hosea 12

- Chasing the wind is fruitless – Israel pursued empty alliances and deceit instead of trusting God.
- God calls for mercy and justice – True worship is shown through love, fairness, and patient trust in Him.
- Wealth cannot cover sin – Israel boasted of riches, but God saw their corruption.
- God's history with His people matters – From Jacob to the Exodus, God showed His faithfulness, yet Israel rebelled.
- Prophets are God's messengers – Visions and parables were given to guide Israel, but they ignored them.
- Sin brings judgment – Ephraim's rebellion meant God would leave guilt upon him until judgment was fulfilled.

Hosea 13 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God's Anger Against Israel's Idolatry”

Ephraim's Decline

1 When Ephraim spoke with respect, he was exalted in Israel. But when he worshiped Baal, he brought death upon himself.

2 Now they sin more and more. They make idols from their silver—crafted by their own skill—idols in the shape of calves. To these they say, “Let those who offer sacrifices kiss the calves.”

3 Therefore they will vanish like the morning mist, like early dew that disappears, like chaff blown away from the threshing floor, like smoke escaping through a chimney.

No Savior but God

4 “I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of Egypt. You shall acknowledge no God but me, for there is no Savior besides me.

5 I cared for you in the wilderness, in the land of burning heat.

6 But when they had pasture and were filled, they became proud, and they forgot me.

God as Judge

7 So I will be like a lion to them, like a leopard lurking by the path.

8 I will meet them like a bear robbed of her cubs. I will tear open their chest and devour them there like a lion; wild beasts will tear them apart.

9 “You are destroyed, Israel, because you are against me, your helper.

10 Where is your king, that he may save you in all your cities? Where are your rulers, of whom you said, ‘Give me a king and princes’?

11 In my anger I gave you a king, and in my wrath I took him away.

Sin and Death Conquered

12 Ephraim’s guilt is stored up, his sins are kept on record.

13 Pains of childbirth will come upon him, but he is a foolish child. When the time comes, he refuses to be born.

14 I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death. O death, where are your plagues? O grave, where is your destruction? I will have no compassion.

Final Judgment

15 Even though Ephraim flourishes among his brothers, an east wind—the wind of the Lord—will blow in from the desert. His spring will dry up, and his well will fail. His treasures of every precious object will be plundered.

16 Samaria will be ruined, because she has rebelled against her God. They will fall by the sword; their infants will be dashed to pieces, and their pregnant women will be ripped open.”

Key Lessons from Hosea 13

- Idolatry leads to destruction – Israel trusted in calves made by human hands instead of the living God.
- Pride follows prosperity – When blessed with abundance, Israel forgot the Lord who provided.
- God is both Savior and Judge – He alone redeems from death, but rebellion invites His fierce judgment.
- Trusting kings and princes fails – Earthly rulers cannot save when God withdraws His blessing.
- Judgment is sure – Without repentance, Israel would face devastation, exile, and horror.

- Hope through redemption – Even here, God points to His power over death—a promise fulfilled in Christ (1 Corinthians 15:54–55).

Hosea 14 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Call to Repentance and God’s Healing Love”

Call to Return

1 O Israel, return to the Lord your God, for your sins have caused you to stumble.

2 Take words with you and return to the Lord. Say to Him: “Forgive all our sins and receive us graciously, that we may offer the fruit of our lips as sacrifices of praise.

3 Assyria cannot save us. We will not ride on war horses. We will never again say to the work of our hands, ‘You are our gods.’ For in You the fatherless find mercy.”

God’s Promise of Restoration

4 “I will heal their unfaithfulness and love them freely, for my anger has turned away from them.

5 I will be like the dew to Israel; he will blossom like a lily and send down roots like the cedars of Lebanon.

6 His branches will spread out, his beauty will be like the olive tree, and his fragrance like the cedars of Lebanon.

7 Those who dwell under his shade will return. They will flourish like grain, blossom like the vine, and be as fragrant as the wine of Lebanon.

Ephraim’s Repentance and God’s Fruitfulness

8 Ephraim will say, ‘What more have I to do with idols?’ I will hear and answer him. I am like a green tree, and your fruitfulness comes from me.”

Closing Wisdom

9 Who is wise? Let them understand these things. Who is discerning? Let them know this: the ways of the Lord are right. The righteous walk in them, but the rebellious stumble in them.

Key Lessons from Hosea 14

- Repentance requires words and humility – God calls His people to confess their sins and seek His mercy.

- Idols cannot save – Trust in nations, armies, or handmade gods fails; only the Lord gives mercy.
- God’s love heals – His forgiveness is compared to refreshing dew that revives life and beauty.
- Fruitfulness comes from God alone – Every blessing and growth comes through His presence.
- Wisdom is walking with God – The righteous live by His ways, but the wicked stumble when they reject Him.
- The book closes with hope – After judgment, God offers restoration, healing, and love to those who return to Him.

Introduction to the Book of Joel

“And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh...” – Joel 2:28

Title and Meaning

The name Joel comes from the Hebrew Yo’el, meaning “Yahweh is God.” This powerful name reflects the central theme of the book: God’s sovereignty over nature, nations, and history. Unlike some prophets whose names highlight judgment or comfort, Joel’s name is a confession of faith—an anchor in times of crisis.

Author and Date

Joel, the son of Pethuel, is identified as the author. Beyond this, little is known of his personal background. The exact date of the book is debated among scholars, ranging from the 9th century BC (possibly during the reign of Joash) to the post-exilic period (5th–4th century BC). The lack of specific historical references suggests that Joel’s message is timeless, pointing to both immediate judgment and future hope under divine inspiration.

Purpose of Joel

Joel writes to awaken God’s people to the reality of sin, judgment, and repentance, while also pointing to ultimate restoration through the Lord. His prophecy teaches:

- That disasters—whether locust plagues or invading armies—are wake-up calls to return to God.
- That the “Day of the Lord” is certain, bringing judgment for the wicked and salvation for the repentant.
- That God desires heartfelt repentance, not empty rituals.
- That God promises to pour out His Spirit on all people, pointing to the coming of Christ and the birth of the Church (fulfilled in Acts 2).

Structure of Joel

The book of Joel is short but rich, dividing into three key movements:

📖 1. The Plague of Locusts and Call to Repentance (Chapters 1–2:17)

- A devastating locust plague is described as both a natural disaster and a foreshadowing of the “Day of the Lord.”
- Joel calls priests, elders, and all people to fasting and repentance.

✂ 2. The Day of the Lord Announced (Chapter 2:18–32)

- God responds to repentance with restoration of the land.
- The promise of the outpouring of the Spirit on all flesh is given.
- The “Day of the Lord” is revealed as both judgment and deliverance.

👑 3. Judgment of Nations and Blessing for God’s People (Chapter 3)

- The nations that oppressed Israel will face judgment.
- God will dwell in Zion, bringing peace, abundance, and holiness.

Major Themes

- The Day of the Lord – A central theme in Joel, describing both immediate and future times of divine intervention.
- Repentance and Renewal – God calls His people to return with fasting, weeping, and sincerity, promising healing and restoration.
- God’s Sovereignty – Over creation, history, nations, and judgment.
- The Outpouring of the Spirit – A prophetic glimpse of Pentecost and the global spread of the gospel.
- Judgment and Hope – While judgment is real, so too is God’s mercy for those who repent.

Why Joel Matters Today

Joel’s message is as urgent now as it was then. Natural disasters, wars, and crises remind us of human frailty and the need for God. Joel calls us to:

- Take sin seriously and repent wholeheartedly.
- Recognize that only God can save, not wealth, armies, or idols.
- Live in anticipation of the “Day of the Lord,” walking in righteousness and hope.
- Embrace the promise of the Spirit poured out on all who call upon the name of the Lord.

Key Verse

“And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be delivered...” –
Joel 2:32

This verse captures Joel’s message of hope: though judgment comes, salvation is available for all who turn to the Lord.

Joel 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Warning of Locusts and a Call to Repentance”

The Devastation Announced

1 This is the word of the Lord that came to Joel son of Pethuel.

2 Hear this, you elders, and listen, all who live in the land! Has anything like this ever happened in your days, or in the days of your ancestors?

3 Tell your children about it, and let your children tell their children, and their children the next generation.

The Locust Plague

4 What the cutting locust left, the swarming locust has eaten.

What the swarming locust left, the hopping locust has eaten.

What the hopping locust left, the destroying locust has eaten.

5 Wake up, you drunkards, and weep! Cry, all you drinkers of wine, because the sweet wine is cut off from your lips.

6 A nation has invaded my land, strong and without number. Its teeth are like a lion’s teeth, its fangs like those of a lioness.

7 It has laid waste my vines and ruined my fig trees. It has stripped them bare and thrown them down; their branches are white.

A Nation in Mourning

8 Weep like a young bride dressed in mourning clothes for the husband of her youth.

9 Grain offerings and drink offerings are no longer brought to the house of the Lord. The priests, who serve the Lord, are in mourning.

10 The fields are ruined, the ground mourns; for the grain is destroyed, the new wine is dried up, and the olive oil fails.

11 Be ashamed, you farmers! Wail, you vine growers, for the wheat and the barley—because the harvest of the field is ruined.

12 The vine is dried up and the fig tree is withered. The pomegranate, the palm, and the apple tree—every tree in the field is dried up. Joy itself has withered away from the people.

A Call to Repentance

13 Put on sackcloth, you priests, and mourn. Wail, you who minister before the altar. Come, spend the night in sackcloth, you who serve my God; for the grain offering and drink offering are withheld from the house of your God.

14 Declare a holy fast, call a sacred assembly. Gather the elders and all who live in the land to the house of the Lord your God, and cry out to the Lord.

The Day of the Lord Approaches

15 Alas for that day! For the day of the Lord is near; it will come like destruction from the Almighty.

16 Has not the food been cut off before our eyes—joy and gladness from the house of our God?

17 The seeds have shriveled beneath the clods of dirt, the storehouses are in ruins, and the granaries are broken down, for the grain has dried up.

18 How the cattle groan! The herds wander helplessly because they have no pasture; even the flocks of sheep suffer.

19 To you, Lord, I call, for fire has devoured the pastures in the wilderness, and flames have burned up all the trees of the field.

20 Even the wild animals cry out to You, for the streams of water have dried up, and fire has devoured the pastures in the wilderness.

Key Lessons from Joel 1

- Pass God’s warnings to the next generation – The people were told to remember and teach their children so that future generations would not forget God’s judgment.
- God can use natural disasters to get our attention – The locust plague stripped the land bare, showing that the Lord controls nature to humble His people.
- Sin brings mourning and loss – Joy and gladness withered away when God’s people turned from Him.
- Leaders are called to lead in repentance – Priests, elders, and all the people were summoned to fast, pray, and cry out to the Lord.
- The Day of the Lord is near – Present troubles are a picture of the greater day of judgment that is coming.
- In desperate times, cry to the Lord – Even animals groaned in need, but God’s people were called to turn to Him in prayer and dependence.

Joel 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Day of the Lord and the Promise of Restoration”

The Alarm of Judgment

1 Blow the trumpet in Zion; sound the alarm on my holy mountain! Let everyone in the land tremble, for the day of the Lord is coming—it is close at hand.

2 It will be a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and deep shadows. Like the sunrise spreading across the mountains, a vast and mighty army appears—nothing like it has ever happened before, and nothing like it will ever come again through all generations.

The Invading Army

3 Ahead of them fire devours, and behind them flames burn. Before them the land looks like the garden of Eden; behind them, it is a barren desert—nothing escapes them.

4 They look like warhorses; like charging horsemen, they run.

5 They sound like chariots rumbling over mountain tops, like the crackling fire burning through dry stubble, like a mighty army lined up for battle.

6 Nations tremble before them; every face turns pale.

7 They charge like warriors, climbing walls like soldiers. They march straight ahead, never breaking rank.

8 They don't bump into each other; each stays on his path. They burst through defenses without breaking formation.

9 They rush through the city, run along the wall, climb into houses, entering windows like thieves.

10 The earth shakes before them, the heavens tremble, the sun and moon grow dark, and the stars stop shining.

11 The Lord thunders at the head of His army. His forces are beyond number, and mighty are those who obey His command. The day of the Lord is great and dreadful—who can endure it?

A Call to Return

12 “Even now,” declares the Lord, “return to Me with all your heart—with fasting, weeping, and mourning.”

13 Tear your hearts, not your clothes. Return to the Lord your God, for He is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and full of unfailing love. He relents from sending disaster.

14 Who knows? He may turn and leave behind a blessing—grain and wine to offer to the Lord your God.

15 Blow the trumpet in Zion, call a sacred fast, gather the people together.

16 Bring the community, consecrate the congregation. Gather the elders, bring the children—even the nursing babies. Let the bridegroom leave his room and the bride her chamber.

17 Let the priests, who minister before the Lord, weep between the porch and the altar. Let them pray: “Spare Your people, Lord. Do not let Your inheritance be mocked or ruled over by the nations. Why should they say among the peoples, ‘Where is their God?’”

God's Compassion and Promise

18 Then the Lord will show concern for His land and have compassion on His people.

19 The Lord will answer: “I am sending you grain, new wine, and olive oil, and you will be satisfied.

Never again will I make you a disgrace among the nations.

20 I will drive the northern army far from you, pushing it into a barren and desolate land—with its front into the eastern sea and its rear into the western sea. Its stench will rise up, its foul smell will spread, because it has done great things.”

Rejoicing in Restoration

21 Do not be afraid, land; be glad and rejoice. Surely the Lord has done great things!

22 Do not be afraid, animals of the field, for the pastures are turning green. The trees bear fruit, the fig tree and vine yield their abundance.

23 Be glad, people of Zion; rejoice in the Lord your God. For He has given you autumn rains in righteousness. He sends abundant showers—both autumn and spring rains, as before.

24 The threshing floors will be filled with grain; the vats will overflow with new wine and oil.

25 “I will repay you for the years the locusts have eaten—the swarming, hopping, destroying, and cutting locusts—My great army that I sent among you.

26 You will have plenty to eat until you are full, and you will praise the name of the Lord your God, who has worked wonders for you. My people will never again be put to shame.

27 Then you will know that I am in Israel, that I am the Lord your God, and there is no other. Never again will My people be put to shame.”

The Outpouring of God’s Spirit

28 “And after this, I will pour out My Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your old men will dream dreams, and your young men will see visions.

29 Even on My servants, both men and women, I will pour out My Spirit in those days.

30 I will show wonders in the heavens and on the earth—blood and fire and columns of smoke.

31 The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood before the great and dreadful day of the Lord comes.

32 And everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. For on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be deliverance, as the Lord has said—even among the survivors whom the Lord calls.”

Key Lessons from Joel 2

- The Day of the Lord is fearful – It is described as darkness, trembling, and judgment that no one can escape without God’s mercy.
- God calls for true repentance – He desires hearts to be broken over sin, not outward rituals or empty gestures.
- Leaders must intercede – Priests were to weep and pray for God to spare His people.
- God restores what was lost – He promises to repay the years wasted and destroyed by hardship and sin.

- Rejoicing follows repentance – When people turn back, God blesses them with abundance, peace, and joy.
- The Spirit will be poured out – God’s promise extends to all people: men and women, young and old, rich and poor.
- Salvation is for everyone who calls on the Lord – Deliverance is promised to those who seek Him with faith.

Joel 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Nations Judged and Israel Restored”

God Judges the Nations

1 “At that time, when I restore the fortunes of Judah and Jerusalem,
 2 I will gather all nations and bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat. There I will put them on trial for what they did to My people Israel—scattering them among the nations and dividing up My land.

3 They cast lots for My people, traded boys to pay for prostitutes, and sold girls for wine to drink.

4 What do you have against Me, Tyre, Sidon, and all the regions of Philistia? Are you trying to repay Me for something? If so, I will quickly repay you on your own heads.

5 For you stole My silver and gold and carried My treasures into your temples.

6 You sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks, taking them far from their homeland.

7 But I will bring them back from the places where you sold them, and I will repay you on your own heads.

8 I will hand your sons and daughters over to the people of Judah, and they will sell them to the Sabians, a nation far away. The Lord has spoken.”

The Valley of Decision

9 Proclaim this among the nations: “Prepare for war! Call out your warriors. Let all your soldiers come forward.

10 Beat your plows into swords and your pruning hooks into spears. Let even the weak say, ‘I am strong!’”

11 Come quickly, all you nations from every side, and gather there. Bring down Your mighty warriors, Lord!

12 Let the nations rise and come to the Valley of Jehoshaphat, for there I will sit to judge all the surrounding nations.

13 Swing the sickle, for the harvest is ripe. Trample the grapes, for the winepress is full and the vats overflow—their wickedness is great!

14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision! For the day of the Lord is near in the valley of decision.

15 The sun and moon will grow dark, and the stars will stop shining.

16 The Lord will roar from Zion and thunder from Jerusalem; the heavens and the earth will shake. But the Lord will be a refuge for His people, a stronghold for the children of Israel.

Israel Blessed Forever

17 “Then you will know that I, the Lord your God, dwell in Zion, My holy mountain. Jerusalem will be holy; no strangers will ever invade her again.

18 In that day the mountains will drip with sweet wine, the hills will flow with milk, and all the streams of Judah will run with water. A fountain will flow from the house of the Lord and water the valley of acacia trees.

19 But Egypt will become a wasteland and Edom a desert wilderness, because they shed innocent blood in Judah.

20 Judah will be inhabited forever, and Jerusalem through all generations.

21 I will forgive the bloodshed I have not yet forgiven, for the Lord dwells in Zion.”

Key Lessons from Joel 3

- God will hold the nations accountable – Those who mistreat His people and divide His land will face His judgment.
- Sin brings judgment on nations – Tyre, Sidon, Philistia, Egypt, and Edom faced desolation for their violence and greed.
- The Valley of Decision is serious – All nations will one day stand before God in judgment; no one escapes His justice.
- God is a refuge for His people – While the nations tremble, His people find strength and safety in Him.
- Jerusalem will be holy forever – God promises a future where His presence dwells among His people eternally.
- Restoration brings abundance – Flowing wine, milk, and water symbolize blessing, life, and joy in God’s restored kingdom.
- The Lord reigns from Zion – The book closes with God’s victory, His people’s restoration, and His eternal presence in Jerusalem.

Introduction to the Book of Amos

“Surely the Lord God will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets.” – Amos 3:7

Title and Meaning

The name Amos comes from the Hebrew ‘Amos, meaning “burden-bearer.” His name reflects his mission—carrying the heavy message of God’s judgment against sin and injustice. Amos was not a professional prophet but a shepherd and fig farmer from Tekoa in Judah. God called him to leave his humble work and proclaim His word to Israel.

Author and Date

Amos, son of a herdsman, is the author. He ministered during the reigns of Uzziah king of Judah (792–740 BC) and Jeroboam II king of Israel (793–753 BC). This was a time of prosperity, military strength, and outward religion—but also a time of deep corruption, idolatry, and social injustice. Amos likely prophesied around 760–750 BC, making him one of the earliest writing prophets, before Isaiah and Hosea.

Purpose of Amos

Amos delivers a message of judgment with a call to repentance. His purpose is clear:

- To expose Israel’s sins of idolatry, greed, and injustice.
- To declare that religious rituals without righteousness are worthless to God.
- To warn that God’s patience has limits—the “Day of the Lord” will bring judgment.
- To remind that God cares deeply about justice, righteousness, and how His people treat one another.
- To give hope that after judgment, God will restore David’s fallen kingdom and bless His people.

Structure of Amos

The book divides into three main sections:

📖 1. Oracles of Judgment (Chapters 1–2)

- God pronounces judgment not only on Israel, but also on the surrounding nations.

⚔️ 2. Messages Against Israel’s Sin (Chapters 3–6)

- Israel is condemned for oppression of the poor, immorality, and empty worship.
- Calls to repentance are ignored, and “woes” are pronounced.

🏰 3. Visions of Judgment and Restoration (Chapters 7–9)

- Amos describes visions of locusts, fire, a plumb line, a basket of ripe fruit, and the Lord standing by the altar.
- The book ends with hope: the promise of restoration and blessing through the rebuilding of David’s house.

Major Themes

- Justice and Righteousness – God requires His people to live justly, not just perform rituals.
- The Day of the Lord – A warning that judgment will fall first on Israel for her sins.
- Social Sin and Oppression – God condemns exploiting the poor, corrupt courts, and dishonest trade.
- True Worship – God rejects empty sacrifices when the heart is far from Him.
- Hope Beyond Judgment – God promises to restore His people and include the nations in His plan.

Why Amos Matters Today

Amos reminds us that:

- God cares how we treat others—justice and compassion are central to true faith.
- Prosperity can blind us to sin if it is not rooted in obedience to God.
- Worship without righteousness is hypocrisy.
- God’s word warns before judgment, but He also offers mercy to those who repent.
- Ultimately, Amos points to Christ, the Son of David, through whom God restores His people and invites all nations into His kingdom (Acts 15:15–17).

Key Verse

“But let judgment run down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream.” – Amos 5:24

This verse captures the heart of Amos’ message: God desires justice and righteousness, not empty religion.

Amos 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Judgment Against the Nations”

Introduction

1 These are the words of Amos, one of the shepherds from Tekoa. He received visions concerning Israel during the days of Uzziah king of Judah and Jeroboam son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the great earthquake.

2 Amos said: “The Lord roars from Zion and speaks from Jerusalem; the pastures of the shepherds dry up, and the top of Mount Carmel withers.”

Judgment on Damascus

3 This is what the Lord says: “For three sins of Damascus, even for four, I will not turn back My judgment. Because they crushed Gilead with sharp iron tools,

4 I will send fire on the house of Hazael that will burn up the palaces of Ben-Hadad.

5 I will break down the gates of Damascus, remove the king from the Valley of Aven, and the ruler from Beth Eden. The people of Aram will go into exile to Kir,” says the Lord.

Judgment on Gaza and the Philistines

6 This is what the Lord says: “For three sins of Gaza, even for four, I will not turn back My judgment. Because they carried entire communities into exile and sold them to Edom, 7 I will send fire on the walls of Gaza that will consume its strongholds.

8 I will cut off the ruler from Ashdod and the king from Ashkelon. I will turn My hand against Ekron, and the remnant of the Philistines will perish,” says the Sovereign Lord.

Judgment on Tyre

9 This is what the Lord says: “For three sins of Tyre, even for four, I will not turn back My judgment. Because they handed over whole communities of captives to Edom and ignored a treaty of brotherhood, 10 I will send fire on the walls of Tyre that will consume its strongholds.”

Judgment on Edom

11 This is what the Lord says: “For three sins of Edom, even for four, I will not turn back My judgment. Because he pursued his brother with the sword, showed no mercy, and was always angry, keeping his rage forever, 12 I will send fire on Teman that will consume the fortresses of Bozrah.”

Judgment on Ammon

13 This is what the Lord says: “For three sins of the Ammonites, even for four, I will not turn back My judgment. Because they ripped open pregnant women in Gilead to expand their territory, 14 I will set fire to the walls of Rabbah that will consume its strongholds amid war cries on the day of battle, amid violent winds on a stormy day.

15 Their king will go into exile, he and his officials together,” says the Lord.

Key Lessons from Amos 1

- God sees the sins of all nations – His justice is not only for Israel but also for surrounding peoples.
- Cruelty brings judgment – Damascus and Ammon were condemned for their violent treatment of others.
- Greed and betrayal are serious sins – Gaza, Tyre, and Edom were judged for selling captives and breaking covenants.
- God’s fire consumes pride and power – Strongholds, palaces, and kings could not stand against the Lord’s judgment.

- The Lord roars from Zion – His voice shakes the nations, reminding us that He rules over all the earth.

Amos 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Judgment on Moab, Judah, and Israel”

Judgment on Moab

1 This is what the Lord says: “For three sins of Moab, even for four, I will not turn back My judgment. Because he burned the bones of Edom’s king to lime,

2 I will send fire on Moab that will consume the fortresses of Kirioth. Moab will die in great tumult, amid shouting and the blast of the trumpet.

3 I will destroy their ruler and kill all their leaders with him,” says the Lord.

Judgment on Judah

4 This is what the Lord says: “For three sins of Judah, even for four, I will not turn back My judgment. Because they have rejected the law of the Lord, and have not kept His commands, and their lies have led them astray—the same lies their ancestors followed—

5 I will send fire on Judah that will consume the fortresses of Jerusalem.”

Judgment on Israel

6 This is what the Lord says: “For three sins of Israel, even for four, I will not turn back My judgment. Because they sell the innocent for silver, and the needy for a pair of sandals.

7 They trample the heads of the poor into the dust and deny justice to the humble. A man and his father sleep with the same woman, so that My holy name is dishonored.

8 They lie down beside every altar on garments taken as collateral, and they drink wine in the house of their gods—wine bought with fines they imposed.

God’s Past Mercy Ignored

9 Yet I destroyed the Amorites before them, though they were tall as cedars and strong as oaks. I destroyed their fruit above and their roots below.

10 I brought you up out of Egypt and led you forty years in the wilderness to possess the land of the Amorites.

11 I raised up prophets from among your sons and Nazirites from among your young men. Is this not true, people of Israel?” declares the Lord.

12 “But you made the Nazirites drink wine and commanded the prophets not to prophesy.

The Crushing Judgment

13 “So now I will crush you in your place, as a cart loaded with grain crushes the ground.

14 The swift will not escape, the strong will not find strength, and the warrior will not save his life.

15 The archer will not stand firm, the runner will not escape, and the horseman will not save himself.
16 Even the bravest of warriors will flee naked in that day,” declares the Lord.

Key Lessons from Amos 2

- Moab’s cruelty was judged – Disrespecting the dead showed a total lack of honor, and God held them accountable.
- Judah rejected God’s Word – They despised His law and followed lies, leading to judgment on Jerusalem itself.
- Israel’s injustice was severe – They exploited the poor, denied justice, and lived in sexual immorality and idolatry.
- God’s blessings were forgotten – He delivered them from Egypt, destroyed mighty nations before them, and gave prophets and Nazirites—but they silenced His messengers.
- When sin piles up, judgment becomes certain – Like a heavy cart crushing the ground, Israel’s sins weighed them down to destruction.
- No strength can save from God’s judgment – Speed, weapons, courage, or power cannot deliver when the Lord has spoken.

Amos 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord’s Case Against Israel”

God’s Chosen People and Their Guilt

1 Hear this word the Lord has spoken against you, people of Israel—against the whole family I brought up out of Egypt:

2 “Out of all the families of the earth, you only have I chosen. Therefore, I will punish you for all your sins.”

God’s Certain Judgment

3 Can two walk together unless they agree?

4 Does a lion roar in the forest without prey? Does a young lion growl in its den without catching something?

5 Does a bird fall into a trap without it being set? Does a trap spring up if it hasn’t caught anything?

6 When a trumpet sounds in the city, do the people not tremble? When disaster comes to a city, has not the Lord caused it?

7 Surely the Lord God does nothing without first revealing His plan to His servants the prophets.

8 The lion has roared—who will not fear? The Lord God has spoken—who can keep from prophesying?

Israel's Corruption

9 Proclaim to the strongholds of Ashdod and Egypt: "Come gather on the mountains of Samaria; see the great unrest within her and the oppression among her people."

10 "They do not know how to do what is right," declares the Lord. "They store up violence and robbery in their palaces."

Israel's Judgment Declared

11 Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord says: "An enemy will surround the land, pull down your defenses, and plunder your strongholds."

12 This is what the Lord says: "As a shepherd rescues from the lion's mouth only two legs or a piece of an ear, so will the Israelites in Samaria be snatched away—only scraps of people left from their luxurious beds and couches in Damascus."

13 Hear this and testify against the house of Jacob," declares the Lord God Almighty.

14 "On the day I punish Israel for her sins, I will also destroy the altars of Bethel. The horns of the altar will be cut off and fall to the ground.

15 I will tear down the winter house and the summer house. The houses decorated with ivory will be destroyed, and the mansions will come to an end," declares the Lord.

Key Lessons from Amos 3

- Privilege brings responsibility – Israel was chosen by God, but that meant they were held to higher accountability.
- God's actions are purposeful – Just as natural events follow cause and effect, judgment follows sin.
- Prophecy is unavoidable – When God speaks, His servants cannot remain silent.
- Injustice destroys nations – Israel's wealth was built on violence and oppression, and God promised to tear it down.
- No security without righteousness – Fortresses, luxury, and idols cannot protect from the Lord's judgment.
- God reveals His plans – He warns through His prophets before He acts, giving people the chance to repent.

Amos 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

"Israel's Refusal to Return to God"

The Oppression of the Wealthy

1 Hear this word, you women of Bashan on the mountain of Samaria—who oppress the poor, crush the needy, and say to your husbands, “Bring us drinks!”

2 The Sovereign Lord has sworn by His holiness: “The time will surely come when you will be taken away with hooks, and the last of you with fishhooks.

3 You will go out through broken walls, each straight ahead, and you will be cast out toward Harman,” declares the Lord.

Empty Religion Condemned

4 “Go to Bethel and sin! Go to Gilgal and sin even more! Bring your sacrifices every morning, your tithes every three years.

5 Burn leavened bread as a thank offering and brag about your freewill offerings—boast about them, you Israelites—for this is what you love to do,” declares the Sovereign Lord.

God’s Warnings Ignored

6 “I gave you empty stomachs in every city and lack of bread in every town, yet you did not return to Me,” declares the Lord.

7 “I also withheld rain from you three months before harvest. I caused it to rain on one city but not on another. One field received rain; another withered.

8 People staggered from town to town for water but never had enough, yet you did not return to Me,” declares the Lord.

9 “I struck your gardens and vineyards with blight and mildew. Locusts devoured your fig trees and olive trees, yet you did not return to Me,” declares the Lord.

10 “I sent plagues among you as I did in Egypt. I killed your young men with the sword, along with your captured horses. I filled your nostrils with the stench of your camps, yet you did not return to Me,” declares the Lord.

11 “I overthrew some of you as I overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah. You were like a burning stick snatched from the fire, yet you did not return to Me,” declares the Lord.

Prepare to Meet Your God

12 “Therefore this is what I will do to you, Israel, and because I will do this to you—prepare to meet your God, O Israel!”

13 For the Lord is the one who forms the mountains, creates the wind, reveals His thoughts to mankind, turns dawn to darkness, and treads on the high places of the earth—the Lord God Almighty is His name.

Key Lessons from Amos 4

- Wealth without justice is sin – The rich women of Samaria oppressed the poor while indulging in luxury.
- Religious show without repentance is worthless – Sacrifices and offerings meant nothing when their hearts were far from God.
- God’s discipline had a purpose – Famine, drought, plagues, and war were warnings meant to bring His people back, but they refused.
- Repeated rebellion leads to judgment – Five times God said, “Yet you did not return to Me.”
- God is the Creator and Judge – He who made the mountains, the wind, and the dawn also holds the power to judge His people.
- Prepare to meet your God – When people ignore His mercy and warnings, they must face His justice.

Amos 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Call to Seek the Lord”

A Lament for Israel

1 Hear this word, Israel, this lament I take up against you:

2 “The virgin Israel has fallen, never to rise again. She lies abandoned in her land, with no one to lift her up.”

3 This is what the Sovereign Lord says: “The city that marches out with a thousand will be left with only a hundred; the town that marches out with a hundred will be left with only ten.”

Seek the Lord and Live

4 This is what the Lord says to Israel: “Seek Me and live.

5 Do not seek Bethel, do not go to Gilgal, and do not journey to Beersheba. For Gilgal will surely go into exile, and Bethel will be reduced to nothing.”

6 Seek the Lord and live, or He will sweep through the house of Joseph like fire; it will devour, and no one in Bethel will quench it.

7 You twist justice into bitterness and cast righteousness to the ground.

8 Seek the One who made the stars—the Pleiades and Orion—who turns midnight into dawn and darkens day into night, who calls the waters of the sea and pours them out over the land. The Lord is His name.

9 He brings destruction on the strong so that the ruined city rises against the fortress.

Injustice in the Land

10 They hate those who speak the truth in court and despise anyone who tells the truth.

11 You oppress the poor and take their grain as taxes. Therefore, though you have built stone mansions, you will not live in them; though you have planted lush vineyards, you will not drink their wine.

12 For I know how many are your offenses and how great your sins. You oppress the innocent, take bribes, and deny justice to the poor.

13 Therefore, the prudent keep quiet in such times, for the times are evil.

A Call to Repentance

14 Seek good, not evil, so that you may live. Then the Lord God Almighty will be with you, just as you claim He is.

15 Hate evil, love good, and establish justice at the city gate. Perhaps the Lord God Almighty will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.

Mourning and Woe

16 Therefore, this is what the Lord God Almighty says: “There will be wailing in all the streets and cries of grief in every public square. Farmers will be called to mourn, and mourners will wail.

17 In every vineyard there will be weeping, for I will pass through your midst,” says the Lord.

The Day of the Lord Is Darkness

18 Woe to you who long for the day of the Lord! Why do you desire it? That day will be darkness, not light.

19 It will be as though a man fled from a lion only to meet a bear, or entered his house and rested his hand on the wall only to be bitten by a snake.

20 Will not the day of the Lord be darkness, not light—pitch-dark, without a ray of brightness?

God Rejects Empty Religion

21 “I hate, I despise your religious festivals; your assemblies are a stench to Me.

22 Even though you bring Me burnt offerings and grain offerings, I will not accept them. Though you bring choice fellowship offerings, I will have no regard for them.

23 Away with the noise of your songs! I will not listen to the music of your harps.

24 But let justice roll on like a river, and righteousness like a never-failing stream!

25 Did you bring Me sacrifices and offerings forty years in the wilderness, people of Israel?

26 You have lifted up the shrine of your king, the pedestal of your idols, the star of your god that you made for yourselves.

27 Therefore I will send you into exile beyond Damascus,” says the Lord, whose name is God Almighty.

Key Lessons from Amos 5

- Seek God, not places – Israel was warned not to rely on Bethel, Gilgal, or Beersheba but to turn directly to the Lord.
- God is the Creator and Judge – He made the stars, controls day and night, and commands the seas. He alone can save.
- True faith requires justice – Oppression of the poor, bribery, and corruption reveal hearts far from God.
- The Day of the Lord is not what sinners expect – It is not light and joy but darkness and judgment for the unrepentant.
- God rejects empty religion – Festivals, sacrifices, and songs mean nothing without justice and righteousness.
- Justice and righteousness are central to God’s will – They must flow like a river and fill the land, not be withheld.
- Idolatry leads to exile – Trusting in false gods instead of the Lord ends in captivity and loss.

Amos 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Woe to the Complacent in Zion”

Warning to the Proud and Comfortable

1 Woe to those who are at ease in Zion, and who feel secure on the mountain of Samaria—you notable leaders of the foremost nation, to whom the people of Israel come!

2 Go to Calneh and look at it; go from there to great Hamath; then go down to Gath in Philistia. Are they better off than your kingdoms? Is their land greater than yours?

3 You put off the day of disaster but bring near a reign of violence.

Luxury Without Compassion

4 You lie on beds adorned with ivory and lounge on couches. You feast on lambs from the flock and fattened calves.

5 You strum away on harps like David and invent musical instruments for yourselves.

6 You drink wine by the bowlful and use the finest lotions, but you do not grieve over the ruin of Joseph.

7 Therefore, you will be among the first to go into exile; your feasting and lounging will end.

God’s Hatred of Their Pride

8 The Sovereign Lord has sworn by Himself—the Lord God Almighty declares: “I hate the pride of Jacob and detest his fortresses; I will deliver up the city and everything in it.”

9 If ten men are left in one house, they too will die.

10 And if a relative, who is to burn the bodies, comes to carry them out of the house and asks anyone still hiding there, “Is anyone else with you?” and the answer is, “No,” he will say, “Hush! We must not mention the name of the Lord.”

The Lord’s Judgment Is Certain

11 For the Lord has given the command, and He will smash the great house into pieces and the small house into bits.

12 Do horses run on rocky crags? Does one plow the sea with oxen? Yet you have turned justice into poison and the fruit of righteousness into bitterness.

13 You who rejoice in worthless things and boast, “By our own strength we have taken horns for ourselves!”

14 For the Lord God Almighty declares: “I will raise up a nation against you, Israel, that will oppress you from Lebo Hamath in the north to the valley of the Arabah in the south.”

Key Lessons from Amos 6

- Complacency is dangerous – The leaders of Zion and Samaria felt secure but ignored the coming judgment.
- Wealth without compassion is sin – Luxurious living, fine food, music, and wine meant nothing because they did not care about the suffering of their people.
- Pride leads to downfall – God declared that He hated Jacob’s pride and palaces, promising to destroy them.
- Judgment is unavoidable – No matter how strong the houses or how numerous the people, death and destruction would come.
- Justice turned to poison – Instead of fairness and righteousness, Israel produced corruption and bitterness.
- Strength cannot save – Israel boasted in their own power, but God promised to raise up a nation to crush them from north to south.

Amos 7 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Visions of Judgment and the Opposition to Amos”

The Vision of Locusts

1 This is what the Sovereign Lord showed me: He was preparing swarms of locusts after the king’s share of the harvest had been cut, and the later crops were beginning to grow.

2 When they had stripped the land clean, I cried out, “Sovereign Lord, forgive! How can Jacob survive? He is so small!”

3 So the Lord relented. “This will not happen,” the Lord said.

The Vision of Fire

4 This is what the Sovereign Lord showed me: The Sovereign Lord was calling for judgment by fire. It dried up the great deep and devoured the land.

5 Then I cried out, “Sovereign Lord, stop! How can Jacob survive? He is so small!”

6 So the Lord relented. “This will not happen either,” the Sovereign Lord said.

The Vision of the Plumb Line

7 This is what He showed me: The Lord was standing by a wall that had been built true to plumb, with a plumb line in His hand.

8 And the Lord asked me, “What do you see, Amos?”

I replied, “A plumb line.”

Then the Lord said, “Look, I am setting a plumb line among My people Israel; I will spare them no longer.

9 The high places of Isaac will be destroyed, the sanctuaries of Israel will be ruined; and with the sword I will rise against the house of Jeroboam.”

Amaziah Opposes Amos

10 Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent a message to Jeroboam king of Israel: “Amos is raising a conspiracy against you in the very heart of Israel. The land cannot endure all his words.

11 For Amos is saying, ‘Jeroboam will die by the sword, and Israel will surely go into exile, away from their native land.’”

12 Then Amaziah said to Amos, “Get out, you seer! Go back to the land of Judah. Earn your bread there and do your prophesying there.

13 Don’t prophesy anymore at Bethel, because this is the king’s sanctuary and the royal temple.”

Amos Defends His Calling

14 Amos answered Amaziah, “I was neither a prophet nor the son of a prophet. I was a shepherd, and I also took care of sycamore fig trees.

15 But the Lord took me from tending the flock and said to me, ‘Go, prophesy to My people Israel.’

16 Now then, hear the word of the Lord. You say, ‘Do not prophesy against Israel, and stop preaching against the descendants of Isaac.’

17 Therefore this is what the Lord says: ‘Your wife will become a prostitute in the city, your sons and daughters will fall by the sword, your land will be measured and divided up, and you yourself will die in a pagan country. And Israel will surely go into exile, away from their land.’”

Key Lessons from Amos 7

- God’s mercy responds to prayer – Twice Amos interceded, and God relented, showing His compassion.

- The plumb line represents God’s standard – Israel was being measured against His perfect righteousness, and they no longer aligned.
- Prophets are called by God, not by men – Amos was a shepherd and farmer, yet God called him to speak truth.
- The proud resist God’s word – Amaziah, the priest, opposed Amos because the truth threatened power and comfort.
- Judgment is personal and national – Amaziah faced family tragedy, while Israel as a nation faced exile.
- Faithful obedience may bring opposition – Amos spoke boldly even when told to be silent, showing the cost of standing for God.

Amos 8 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Basket of Summer Fruit and a Famine of God’s Word”

The Vision of Summer Fruit

1 This is what the Sovereign Lord showed me: a basket of summer fruit.

2 He asked, “Amos, what do you see?”

I answered, “A basket of summer fruit.”

Then the Lord said to me, “The time is ripe for My people Israel; I will spare them no longer.

3 In that day, the songs in the temple will turn to wailing,” declares the Sovereign Lord. “Many, many bodies—flung everywhere! Silence!”

Oppression of the Poor

4 Hear this, you who trample on the needy and do away with the poor of the land,

5 saying, “When will the New Moon be over so that we may sell grain, and the Sabbath be ended so that we may market wheat?”—skimping on the measure, boosting the price, and cheating with dishonest scales,

6 buying the poor with silver and the needy for a pair of sandals, selling even the sweepings with the wheat.

7 The Lord has sworn by Himself, the Pride of Jacob: “I will never forget anything they have done.

8 Because of this, will not the land tremble and all who live in it mourn? The whole land will rise like the Nile; it will be stirred up and then sink like the river of Egypt.”

The Coming Day of Darkness

9 “In that day,” declares the Sovereign Lord, “I will make the sun go down at noon and darken the earth in broad daylight.

10 I will turn your religious festivals into mourning and all your singing into weeping. I will make all of you wear sackcloth and shave your heads. I will make that time like mourning for an only son and the end of it like a bitter day.”

A Famine of God's Word

11 “The days are coming,” declares the Sovereign Lord, “when I will send a famine through the land—not a famine of food or a thirst for water, but a famine of hearing the words of the Lord.

12 People will stagger from sea to sea and wander from north to east, searching for the word of the Lord, but they will not find it.

13 In that day the lovely young women and strong young men will faint because of thirst.

14 Those who swear by the sin of Samaria, who say, ‘As surely as your god lives, O Dan,’ or, ‘As surely as the god of Beersheba lives’—they will fall, never to rise again.”

Key Lessons from Amos 8

- The fruit was ripe for judgment – Just as the summer harvest signaled completion, Israel’s sins were full, and judgment could no longer be delayed.
- Exploitation of the poor angers God – Dishonest business, greed, and selling people into debt revealed Israel’s corruption.
- God remembers sin – Though people may forget, God swore He would not overlook Israel’s injustice.
- The Day of the Lord is bitter – Their joy would turn to mourning, and even nature itself would show signs of judgment.
- The worst famine is spiritual – A famine of God’s word would come, where people would desperately search for truth but not find it.
- Idolatry leads to ruin – Trusting in false gods at Dan and Beersheba would end in complete collapse.

Amos 9 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Judgment and the Promise of Restoration”

The Inescapable Judgment of God

1 I saw the Lord standing by the altar, and He said: “Strike the top of the pillars so that the thresholds shake. Bring them down on the heads of all the people; those who are left I will kill with the sword. Not one will get away; not one will escape.

2 Though they dig down to the depths, My hand will take them. Though they climb up to the heavens, I will bring them down.

3 Though they hide on the top of Mount Carmel, I will hunt them down and seize them. Though they hide from My eyes at the bottom of the sea, there I will command the serpent to bite them.

4 Though they are driven into exile by their enemies, there I will command the sword to slay them. I will keep My eyes on them for harm and not for good.”

The Power of the Lord

5 The Lord, the Lord Almighty, touches the land and it melts; all who live in it mourn. The whole land rises like the Nile and sinks like the river of Egypt.

6 He builds His upper chambers in the heavens and sets His foundation on the earth. He calls for the waters of the sea and pours them out on the face of the land. The Lord is His name.

Israel Among the Nations

7 “Are not you Israelites the same to Me as the Cushites?” declares the Lord. “Did I not bring Israel up from Egypt, the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Arameans from Kir?”

8 Surely the eyes of the Sovereign Lord are on the sinful kingdom. I will destroy it from the face of the earth. Yet I will not totally destroy the descendants of Jacob,” declares the Lord.

9 “For I will give the command, and I will shake Israel among all the nations as grain is shaken in a sieve, and not a pebble will fall to the ground.

10 All the sinners among My people who say, ‘Disaster will not overtake or meet us,’ will die by the sword.”

The Restoration of David’s House

11 “In that day I will restore David’s fallen shelter. I will repair its broken walls and restore its ruins—and rebuild it as it used to be,

12 so that they may possess the remnant of Edom and all the nations that bear My name,” declares the Lord, who will do these things.

Israel’s Final Restoration

13 “The days are coming,” declares the Lord, “when the reaper will be overtaken by the plowman and the planter by the one treading grapes. New wine will drip from the mountains and flow from all the hills.

14 I will bring My people Israel back from exile. They will rebuild ruined cities and live in them. They will plant vineyards and drink their wine; they will make gardens and eat their fruit.

15 I will plant Israel in their own land, never again to be uprooted from the land I have given them,” says the Lord your God.

Key Lessons from Amos 9

- No one can escape God’s judgment – Whether in the depths, heights, or hidden places, God’s hand reaches everywhere.
- God rules creation – He commands the seas, mountains, and land, showing His power over all the earth.
- Judgment is certain, but not total – Though the sinful kingdom would be destroyed, a remnant of Israel would remain.

- Pride blinds people to danger – Those who thought disaster would never touch them were the very ones cut down.
- God keeps His covenant with David – The fallen house of David would be restored, pointing to the Messiah’s reign.
- Restoration brings abundance – Overflowing wine, fruitful gardens, and rebuilt cities symbolize blessing and renewal.
- God plants His people securely – Israel’s final restoration ends with the promise they will never again be uprooted.

Introduction to the Book of Obadiah

“For the day of the Lord is near upon all the heathen: as thou hast done, it shall be done unto thee...” – Obadiah 1:15

Title and Meaning

The name Obadiah comes from the Hebrew ‘Obhadyah, meaning “Servant (or Worshiper) of Yahweh.” True to his name, Obadiah faithfully delivers a message of God’s justice and sovereignty. His short book—the shortest in the Old Testament—focuses on the downfall of Edom, Israel’s proud neighbor and enemy.

Author and Date

Little is known about Obadiah himself beyond his name. The prophecy is traditionally attributed to him alone. Scholars debate the date of writing, with two main views:

- 9th century BC – during the reign of Jehoram (when Edom rebelled and attacked Judah).
- 6th century BC – shortly after the Babylonian destruction of Jerusalem (586 BC), when Edom joined in Judah’s downfall.

Regardless of the exact time, Obadiah’s message remains timeless: God judges pride and treachery, and He defends His people.

Purpose of Obadiah

The book of Obadiah was written to:

- Announce God’s judgment against Edom for its violence, arrogance, and betrayal of Judah.
- Declare that the “Day of the Lord” will bring justice to all nations.
- Remind Israel that God’s kingdom will ultimately triumph over all opposition.
- Encourage God’s people to trust in His justice and ultimate deliverance.

Structure of Obadiah

Though brief, Obadiah's prophecy has a clear flow:

✕ 1. Judgment on Edom (Verses 1–14)

- Edom's pride and cruelty against Judah are exposed.
- God promises to bring them down from their lofty places.

☪ 2. The Day of the Lord and Judgment on the Nations (Verses 15–16)

- A universal principle: nations will reap what they sow.
- Judgment is not just for Edom, but for all who oppose God's people.

👑 3. Deliverance and the Kingdom of the Lord (Verses 17–21)

- Israel will be restored, and God's people will possess their inheritance.
- The book ends with hope: "And the kingdom shall be the Lord's."

Major Themes

- The Sin of Pride – Edom's arrogance and false security led to its downfall.
- Brotherhood Betrayed – Edom, descended from Esau, betrayed Judah, descended from Jacob.
- Divine Justice – God ensures that what nations and people sow, they will reap.
- The Day of the Lord – A theme that stretches beyond Edom to all nations.
- Hope of Restoration – Despite judgment, God promises deliverance and final victory for His people.

Why Obadiah Matters Today

Obadiah speaks to every generation:

- Pride goes before destruction—nations and individuals alike fall when they exalt themselves against God.
- God sees betrayal, violence, and injustice, and He will repay.
- The "Day of the Lord" is coming, reminding us to live in humility and righteousness.
- God's people may suffer for a season, but His kingdom will stand forever.
- Obadiah points forward to the ultimate King—Jesus Christ—through whom the kingdom of God will be established in fullness.

Key Verse

"But upon mount Zion shall be deliverance, and there shall be holiness; and the house of Jacob shall possess their possessions." – Obadiah 1:17

This verse captures both judgment and hope: while the proud fall, God’s people will inherit His promises and dwell securely under His rule.

Obadiah – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Vision Against Edom and the Triumph of the Lord’s Kingdom”

Judgment on Edom’s Pride

1 The vision of Obadiah. This is what the Sovereign Lord says about Edom: We have heard a report from the Lord, and an envoy has been sent among the nations saying, “Rise up, let us go against her for battle.”

2 “See, I will make you small among the nations; you will be utterly despised.

3 The pride of your heart has deceived you, you who live in the clefts of the rocks and make your home on the heights. You say to yourself, ‘Who can bring me down to the ground?’

4 Though you soar like the eagle and make your nest among the stars, from there I will bring you down,” declares the Lord.

The Coming Destruction of Esau

5 “If thieves came to you, if robbers by night—oh, what a disaster awaits you!—would they not steal only as much as they wanted? If grape pickers came to you, would they not leave a few grapes?

6 But how Esau will be ransacked, his hidden treasures pillaged!

7 All your allies will force you to the border; those at peace with you will deceive and overpower you. Those who eat your bread will trap you, but you will not notice it.

8 In that day,” declares the Lord, “will I not destroy the wise men of Edom, men of understanding from the mountains of Esau?

9 Your warriors, Teman, will be terrified, and everyone in Esau’s mountains will be cut down in the slaughter.

Edom’s Violence Against Jacob

10 Because of the violence against your brother Jacob, you will be covered with shame; you will be destroyed forever.

11 On the day you stood aloof while strangers carried off his wealth and foreigners entered his gates and cast lots for Jerusalem, you were like one of them.

12 You should not gloat over your brother in the day of his misfortune, nor rejoice over the people of Judah in the day of their destruction, nor boast so much in the day of their trouble.

13 You should not march through the gates of My people in their day of disaster, nor gloat over them in their calamity, nor seize their wealth in the day of their disaster.

14 You should not wait at the crossroads to cut down their fugitives, nor hand over their survivors in the day of their trouble.

The Day of the Lord

15 “The day of the Lord is near for all nations. As you have done, it will be done to you; your deeds will return upon your own head.

16 Just as you drank on My holy mountain, so all the nations will drink continually; they will drink and drink, and be as if they had never been.

Deliverance on Mount Zion

17 But on Mount Zion will be deliverance; it will be holy, and the people of Jacob will possess their inheritance.

18 The people of Jacob will be a fire and Joseph a flame; the people of Esau will be stubble, and they will be set on fire and consumed. There will be no survivors from Esau,” declares the Lord.

The Lord’s Kingdom Triumphs

19 People from the Negev will occupy the mountains of Esau, and people from the western foothills will possess the land of the Philistines. They will occupy the fields of Ephraim and Samaria, and Benjamin will possess Gilead.

20 This company of Israelite exiles will possess the land of the Canaanites as far as Zarephath; the exiles from Jerusalem in Sepharad will possess the towns of the Negev.

21 Deliverers will go up on Mount Zion to govern the mountains of Esau. And the kingdom will be the Lord’s.

Key Lessons from Obadiah

- Pride goes before destruction – Edom trusted in its high cliffs, allies, and wisdom, but God humbled them.
- God sees betrayal against His people – Edom stood by when Judah fell and even took part in their suffering.
- Judgment belongs to God – As nations act, so will it be repaid upon their own heads.
- The Day of the Lord is universal – All nations will face justice for their deeds.
- God provides deliverance for His people – Mount Zion becomes the place of holiness, safety, and inheritance.
- The house of Jacob will rise – Israel will be restored, and God’s kingdom will triumph forever.
- The kingdom belongs to the Lord – In the end, human pride and power fail, but God reigns eternally.

Introduction to the Book of Jonah

“But the Lord prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.” – Jonah 1:17

Title and Meaning

The name Jonah comes from the Hebrew Yonah, meaning “dove.” The title reflects the prophet himself, who, like a dove, was restless and sought to flee rather than obey. Unlike most prophetic books, Jonah focuses not on the prophet’s message, but on the prophet’s personal struggle with God’s call and mercy toward others.

Author and Date

Jonah, the son of Amittai, is the central figure of the book and is traditionally considered its author. He ministered during the reign of Jeroboam II of Israel (793–753 BC), as referenced in 2 Kings 14:25. The book likely dates to the 8th century BC, though some scholars suggest a later composition reflecting on his story. Regardless, its inspired message remains timeless.

Purpose of Jonah

The book of Jonah was written to:

- Show God’s sovereignty over creation, nations, and individuals.
- Reveal God’s compassion, even for Israel’s enemies (the people of Nineveh).
- Expose the dangers of disobedience, pride, and lack of mercy.
- Teach that repentance can turn away God’s judgment.
- Point to God’s greater plan of salvation for all nations.

Structure of Jonah

The story unfolds in four short but powerful chapters:

1. Jonah’s Flight (Chapter 1)

- Jonah flees from God’s call, a storm arises, and he is swallowed by a great fish.

2. Jonah’s Prayer (Chapter 2)

- From the belly of the fish, Jonah cries out to God, and the Lord delivers him.

3. Jonah’s Mission (Chapter 3)

- Jonah finally goes to Nineveh, preaches repentance, and the city turns to God.

4. Jonah’s Anger and God’s Mercy (Chapter 4)

- Jonah resents God’s compassion, and the Lord teaches him a lesson about mercy using a plant.

Major Themes

- God's Sovereignty – He controls nature, nations, and even Jonah's destiny.
- Repentance and Mercy – Nineveh's repentance brings forgiveness, showing God's readiness to extend grace.
- God's Universal Love – His compassion extends beyond Israel to all people.
- Prophet's Struggle – Jonah represents the hardness of heart that resists God's mercy for others.
- Foreshadowing Christ – Jonah's three days in the fish prefigure Jesus' death and resurrection (Matthew 12:40).

Why Jonah Matters Today

Jonah challenges us to:

- Obey God's call, even when it is difficult or uncomfortable.
- Remember that God's love reaches the people we may consider undeserving.
- Recognize that true repentance brings transformation and mercy.
- See Christ in Jonah's story—the greater Prophet who willingly went to the grave for our salvation and rose again.
- Live as people of grace, extending to others the same compassion God has shown us.

Key Verse

“And he prayed unto the Lord, and said, I pray thee, O Lord, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I fled before unto Tarshish: for I knew that thou art a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil.” – Jonah 4:2

This verse captures the heart of Jonah: God is merciful, slow to anger, and full of compassion—even when His people resist sharing that mercy.

Jonah 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Jonah Runs from God”

God's Call and Jonah's Flight

1 The word of the Lord came to Jonah son of Amittai:

2 “Get up and go to the great city of Nineveh. Preach against it, because its wickedness has come up before Me.”

3 But Jonah ran away from the Lord and headed for Tarshish. He went down to Joppa, found a ship bound for that port, paid the fare, and went aboard to flee from the presence of the Lord.

The Storm on the Sea

4 Then the Lord sent a violent wind on the sea, and such a storm arose that the ship threatened to break apart.

5 All the sailors were afraid, and each cried out to his own god. They threw the cargo into the sea to lighten the ship. But Jonah had gone below deck, where he lay down and fell into a deep sleep.

6 The captain went to him and said, “How can you sleep? Get up and call on your God! Maybe He will take notice of us so that we will not perish.”

Jonah Confesses His Guilt

7 The sailors said to each other, “Come, let us cast lots to find out who is responsible for this calamity.” They cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah.

8 So they asked him, “Tell us, who is responsible for bringing this trouble on us? What do you do? Where do you come from? What is your country? From what people are you?”

9 He answered, “I am a Hebrew, and I worship the Lord, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the dry land.”

10 This terrified them, and they asked, “What have you done?” They knew he was running away from the Lord, because he had already told them so.

Jonah Is Thrown Overboard

11 The sea was getting rougher and rougher. So they asked him, “What should we do to you to make the sea calm down for us?”

12 “Pick me up and throw me into the sea,” he replied, “and it will become calm. I know that it is my fault that this great storm has come upon you.”

13 Instead, the men did their best to row back to land. But they could not, for the sea grew even wilder than before.

14 Then they cried out to the Lord, “Please, Lord, do not let us die for taking this man’s life. Do not hold us guilty of shedding innocent blood, for You, Lord, have done as You pleased.”

15 Then they took Jonah and threw him overboard, and the raging sea grew calm.

16 At this the men greatly feared the Lord, and they offered a sacrifice to Him and made vows to Him.

Jonah and the Great Fish

17 Now the Lord provided a huge fish to swallow Jonah, and Jonah was inside the fish three days and three nights.

Key Lessons from Jonah 1

- You cannot run from God – Jonah fled from the Lord’s call, but God pursued him through the storm.
- Disobedience affects others – Jonah’s sin put the entire crew in danger, showing how rebellion spreads consequences.

- God uses storms to awaken us – The storm forced Jonah and the sailors to confront the reality of God’s power.
- Pagans often respond better than believers – The sailors prayed, feared God, and offered sacrifice, while Jonah tried to flee.
- Surrender brings peace – When Jonah accepted responsibility and was cast into the sea, the storm ceased.
- God prepares both judgment and mercy – The fish was not punishment but provision, preserving Jonah for God’s purpose.
- Jonah points to Christ – Just as Jonah spent three days in the belly of the fish, Jesus spent three days in the tomb before rising again.

Jonah 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Jonah’s Prayer from the Depths”

Jonah’s Cry for Help

1 From inside the fish Jonah prayed to the Lord his God.

2 He said:

“In my distress I cried out to the Lord, and He answered me. From deep in the realm of the dead I called for help, and You heard my cry.

3 You hurled me into the depths, into the heart of the seas, and the currents swirled about me; all Your waves and breakers swept over me.

4 I said, ‘I have been banished from Your sight; yet I will look again toward Your holy temple.’

Jonah’s Descent and Rescue

5 The waters closed in over me to the point of death; the deep surrounded me; seaweed was wrapped around my head.

6 To the roots of the mountains I sank down; the earth beneath barred me in forever. But You, Lord my God, brought my life up from the pit.

7 When my life was slipping away, I remembered You, Lord, and my prayer rose to You, to Your holy temple.

Jonah’s Vow of Praise

8 Those who cling to worthless idols turn away from God’s love for them.

9 But I, with shouts of grateful praise, will sacrifice to You. What I have vowed I will make good. Salvation comes from the Lord.”

God’s Deliverance

10 And the Lord commanded the fish, and it vomited Jonah onto dry land.

Key Lessons from Jonah 2

- Prayer is powerful, even from the depths – Jonah cried out from the belly of the fish, and God heard him.
- God disciplines but also rescues – Though Jonah was cast into the sea, God preserved him through the fish.
- Hope looks toward God’s presence – Even when Jonah felt banished, he lifted his eyes toward God’s temple.
- Idols cannot save – Those who cling to empty substitutes for God reject His mercy.
- Salvation belongs to the Lord – Deliverance is not earned; it comes only from God’s grace.
- God restores purpose – Jonah’s life was spared so he could fulfill the mission God had given him.

Jonah 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Nineveh Repents”

Jonah’s Renewed Mission

1 The word of the Lord came to Jonah a second time:

2 “Get up, go to the great city of Nineveh, and proclaim to it the message I give you.”

3 Jonah obeyed the word of the Lord and went to Nineveh. Now Nineveh was a very large city—it took three days to go through it.

4 Jonah began by going a day’s journey into the city, proclaiming, “Forty more days and Nineveh will be overthrown.”

Nineveh’s Response

5 The people of Nineveh believed God. They declared a fast, and all of them, from the greatest to the least, put on sackcloth.

6 When Jonah’s warning reached the king of Nineveh, he rose from his throne, took off his royal robes, covered himself with sackcloth, and sat down in the dust.

7 Then he issued a proclamation in Nineveh:

“By the decree of the king and his nobles: Do not let people or animals, herds or flocks, taste anything; do not let them eat or drink.

8 But let people and animals be covered with sackcloth. Let everyone call urgently on God. Let them give up their evil ways and their violence.

9 Who knows? God may yet relent and with compassion turn from His fierce anger so that we will not perish.”

God's Mercy

10 When God saw what they did and how they turned from their evil ways, He relented and did not bring on them the destruction He had threatened.

Key Lessons from Jonah 3

- God gives second chances – Jonah was called again, showing God's mercy in using imperfect servants.
- Obedience brings results – Jonah's short message carried God's authority, and the whole city was shaken.
- Repentance is for all – From king to commoner, even animals symbolically, all humbled themselves before God.
- True repentance includes action – The people turned from their evil and violence, not just in words but in deeds.
- God responds to repentance – His mercy spared Nineveh when they turned from sin.
- God's judgment is real but not without hope – Even the most wicked city could find forgiveness when they sought Him.

Jonah 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Jonah's Anger and God's Compassion”

Jonah's Anger

1 But Jonah was greatly displeased and became very angry.

2 He prayed to the Lord, “Isn't this what I said, Lord, when I was still in my own country? That's why I tried to flee to Tarshish. I knew that You are a gracious and merciful God, slow to anger and rich in kindness, one who relents from sending disaster.

3 Now, Lord, take my life from me, for it is better for me to die than to live.”

4 But the Lord replied, “Is it right for you to be angry?”

Jonah and the Plant

5 Jonah went out of the city and sat down east of it. There he made himself a shelter and sat in its shade, waiting to see what would happen to the city.

6 Then the Lord God provided a leafy plant that grew up over Jonah to give shade for his head and ease his discomfort. Jonah was very happy about the plant.

7 But at dawn the next day God provided a worm, which attacked the plant so that it withered.

8 When the sun rose, God sent a scorching east wind, and the sun beat down on Jonah's head so that he grew faint. He wanted to die and said, “It would be better for me to die than to live.”

God's Lesson of Compassion

9 But God said to Jonah, "Is it right for you to be angry about the plant?"

"Yes," he said, "I am so angry I wish I were dead."

10 But the Lord said, "You cared about the plant, though you did not tend it or make it grow. It came up in a night and perished in a night.

11 And should I not care about the great city of Nineveh, where there are more than 120,000 people who cannot tell their right hand from their left—and also many animals?"

Key Lessons from Jonah 4

- God's mercy can offend human pride – Jonah was angry that God forgave Nineveh, revealing his lack of compassion.
- God is slow to anger and full of kindness – His nature is merciful, and He delights in showing grace to those who repent.
- God uses life's circumstances as lessons – The plant, the worm, and the wind showed Jonah how misplaced his priorities were.
- Compassion outweighs comfort – Jonah cared more for a plant than for people; God cared for the lives of thousands.
- God's mercy extends to all creation – His compassion reached not only to humans but also to animals in Nineveh.
- The book ends with God's heart – A final question challenges us to care for the lost as much as He does.

Introduction to the Book of Micah

"But thou, Bethlehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Israel..." – Micah 5:2

Title and Meaning

The name Micah comes from the Hebrew Mīkhāyāhû, meaning "Who is like Yahweh?" The title reflects the prophet's central message: no one compares to the Lord in justice, power, or mercy (Micah 7:18). Micah's prophecy calls both Israel and Judah to account for their sins, while also pointing to God's future deliverance through the promised Messiah.

Author and Date

Micah of Moresheth (a small town southwest of Jerusalem) prophesied during the reigns of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah of Judah (about 740–686 BC). He was a contemporary of Isaiah, Hosea, and Amos. His ministry spanned a turbulent time of idolatry, corruption, Assyrian invasions, and social injustice. The book was likely compiled near the end of his prophetic career in the late 8th century BC.

Purpose of Micah

The book of Micah was written to:

- Expose the sins of both Samaria (Israel) and Jerusalem (Judah).
- Warn of God's coming judgment through foreign powers like Assyria and Babylon.
- Call God's people to repent, act justly, love mercy, and walk humbly with Him.
- Proclaim the hope of restoration and the coming reign of the Messiah.

Structure of Micah

Micah alternates between judgment and hope, with three major cycles:

⚔️ 1. Judgment on Samaria and Jerusalem (Chapters 1–3)

- God's coming judgment for idolatry, injustice, and corrupt leaders.

🏰 2. Hope and Restoration (Chapters 4–5)

- The promise of peace, the mountain of the Lord, and the prophecy of the Messiah's birth in Bethlehem.

🏛️ 3. God's Case Against Israel and Final Hope (Chapters 6–7)

- God's lawsuit against His people.
- The famous call to live justly, love mercy, and walk humbly (6:8).
- Closing with God's forgiveness and covenant faithfulness.

Major Themes

- God's Judgment – Sin brings consequences; nations and leaders will be held accountable.
- Social Justice – God condemns oppression, exploitation, and corruption.
- Messianic Hope – The ruler from Bethlehem will shepherd God's people in strength and bring peace.
- True Worship – God desires justice, mercy, and humility, not empty rituals.
- God's Faithfulness – Despite judgment, He will restore His people and remain true to His covenant.

Why Micah Matters Today

Micah speaks powerfully to every generation:

- God still hates corruption, injustice, and hypocrisy.
- God calls His people to live lives of integrity and compassion.
- Micah’s prophecy of Bethlehem points directly to Jesus Christ, fulfilled in Matthew 2:5–6.
- God’s final word is not judgment, but mercy and restoration for those who repent.
- Micah reminds us that no one is like the Lord—He forgives sin, delights in mercy, and keeps His promises forever.

Key Verse

“He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?” – Micah 6:8

This verse sums up the heart of Micah’s message: true faith is lived out in justice, mercy, and humility before God.

Micah 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord’s Judgment Against Samaria and Jerusalem”

Introduction

1 The word of the Lord that came to Micah of Moresheth during the reigns of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah—the vision he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

The Lord Comes in Judgment

2 Hear this, all you peoples; listen, earth and all who live in it, that the Sovereign Lord may bear witness against you, the Lord from His holy temple.

3 Look! The Lord is coming out of His dwelling; He comes down and treads on the heights of the earth.

4 The mountains melt beneath Him, and the valleys split apart, like wax before the fire, like water rushing down a slope.

The Reason for Judgment

5 All this is because of Jacob’s transgression, because of the sins of the people of Israel. What is Jacob’s transgression? Is it not Samaria? And what is Judah’s high place? Is it not Jerusalem?

6 “Therefore I will make Samaria a heap of rubble, a place for planting vineyards. I will pour her stones into the valley and lay bare her foundations.

7 All her idols will be broken to pieces; all her temple gifts will be burned with fire; I will destroy all her images. Since she gathered her wealth from the wages of prostitutes, as the wages of prostitutes they will again be used.”

Micah's Lament

8 Because of this I will weep and wail; I will go about barefoot and naked. I will howl like jackals and moan like owls.

9 For Samaria's wound is incurable; it has spread to Judah. It has reached the very gate of my people, even to Jerusalem itself.

The Coming Destruction Announced

10 Tell it not in Gath; weep not at all. In Beth Ophrah roll in the dust.

11 Pass by in naked shame, you who live in Shaphir. Those who live in Zaanan will not come out. Beth Ezel is in mourning; its protection is taken away from you.

12 Those who live in Maroth writhe in pain, waiting for relief, because disaster has come from the Lord, even to the gate of Jerusalem.

13 You who live in Lachish, harness fast horses to the chariot. You were the beginning of sin to Daughter Zion, for the transgressions of Israel were found in you.

14 Therefore you will give parting gifts to Moresheth Gath. The town of Akzib will prove deceptive to the kings of Israel.

15 I will bring a conqueror against you who live in Mareshah. The nobles of Israel will flee to Adullam.

16 Shave your head in mourning for the children in whom you delight; make yourself as bald as the vulture, for they will go from you into exile.

Key Lessons from Micah 1

- God comes as Judge – His arrival shakes mountains, valleys, and nations.
- Sin brings destruction – Samaria's idolatry and Judah's corruption led to judgment.
- Idols cannot save – False worship, no matter how costly, ends in ruin.
- Prophets grieve over sin – Micah mourned for the suffering of God's people as judgment drew near.
- Judgment spreads when unchecked – The sin of one city spread to others, even reaching Jerusalem.
- Disaster is certain without repentance – Cities and towns that trusted in wealth, alliances, or idols would fall.
- Exile is the cost of rebellion – The people's children would be taken away, showing the lasting impact of sin.

Micah 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Woe to the Oppressors and Hope for the Remnant”

Woe to the Wicked

1 Woe to those who plan evil and lie awake at night plotting it! At sunrise they carry it out because it is in their power to do so.

2 They covet fields and seize them, and houses, and take them. They oppress people and their homes, robbing them of their inheritance.

God's Judgment Declared

3 Therefore the Lord says: "I am planning disaster against this family. You will not be able to free your necks from it, nor walk proudly, for this will be a time of calamity.

4 In that day people will ridicule you with a bitter lament and say, 'We are utterly ruined; my people's portion is divided up. He takes it from me! He assigns our fields to traitors.'

5 Therefore you will have no one in the assembly of the Lord to divide the land by lot."

False Prophets Rebuked

6 "Do not prophesy," the people say to the prophets. "Do not speak such things; disgrace will not overtake us."

7 But the Lord replies: "You who are called the house of Jacob, is the Spirit of the Lord impatient? Are these His deeds? Do not My words bring good to those who walk uprightly?"

8 Yet lately My people have risen up like an enemy. You strip the rich robe from those who pass by without a care, like men returning from battle.

9 You drive the women of My people from their pleasant homes. You take away My blessing from their children forever.

10 Get up and go, for this is not your resting place, because it is defiled; it is ruined, beyond all remedy.

11 If a liar comes and says, 'I will prophesy to you about wine and strong drink,' he would be just the prophet for this people!"

Hope for the Remnant

12 "I will surely gather all of you, Jacob; I will surely bring together the remnant of Israel. I will put them together like sheep in a pen, like a flock in its pasture; the place will throng with people.

13 The One who breaks open the way will go up before them; they will break through the gate and go out. Their King will pass through before them, the Lord at their head."

Key Lessons from Micah 2

- Sin often begins in the heart – Wickedness is planned in secret before it is carried out in public.
- Injustice steals inheritance – Greed leads to taking land, homes, and legacies from others.
- God opposes the proud – Those who walk arrogantly will be humbled by His judgment.

- False prophets flatter instead of convict – People preferred lies about prosperity to truth about repentance.
- God’s Word brings good to the upright – His promises bless those who live faithfully.
- Oppression grieves God – Stripping people of homes and children of hope stirs His anger.
- Hope remains for the faithful remnant – God promises to gather His people and lead them like a shepherd, with the Lord Himself going before them.

Micah 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Corrupt Leaders and False Prophets Condemned”

The Corruption of Israel’s Leaders

1 Then I said, “Listen, you leaders of Jacob, you rulers of Israel. Should you not know justice?

2 You hate good and love evil. You tear the skin from My people and strip the flesh from their bones.

3 You eat the flesh of My people, flay off their skin, break their bones, and chop them up like meat for the cooking pot.”

4 Then they will cry out to the Lord, but He will not answer them. At that time He will hide His face from them because of the evil they have done.

The Corruption of False Prophets

5 This is what the Lord says: “As for the prophets who lead My people astray, they proclaim peace if they have something to eat, but if not, they declare war against those who withhold from them.

6 Therefore night will come over you, without visions, and darkness without divination. The sun will set for the prophets, and the day will go dark for them.

7 The seers will be ashamed and the diviners disgraced. They will all cover their faces because there is no answer from God.”

Micah’s True Call

8 “But as for me, I am filled with power, with the Spirit of the Lord, with justice and with might, to declare to Jacob his transgression, to Israel his sin.”

The Corruption of Priests and Rulers

9 Hear this, you leaders of Jacob, you rulers of Israel, who despise justice and distort all that is right.

10 You build Zion with blood and Jerusalem with wickedness.

11 Her leaders judge for a bribe, her priests teach for a price, and her prophets tell fortunes for money. Yet they lean on the Lord and say, “Is not the Lord among us? No disaster will come upon us.”

The Sentence of Judgment

12 Therefore, because of you, Zion will be plowed like a field, Jerusalem will become a heap of rubble, and the temple hill a mound overgrown with thickets.

Key Lessons from Micah 3

- Leaders are accountable to God – They were called to uphold justice but instead exploited the people.
- Cruelty is compared to cannibalism – The rulers treated their people as if they were food to consume.
- False prophets distort truth for gain – They preached peace for a price and threatened judgment when not paid.
- God’s silence is judgment – When prophets reject truth, God withholds His voice from them.
- True prophets speak by the Spirit – Micah stood in God’s power to declare uncomfortable but necessary truth.
- Corruption infects all levels of society – Judges, priests, and prophets alike were guilty of greed and hypocrisy.
- Sin leads to ruin – Zion, Jerusalem, and even the temple mount would be destroyed because of their leaders’ corruption.

Micah 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord’s Future Kingdom”

The Mountain of the Lord

1 In the last days the mountain of the house of the Lord will be established as the highest of the mountains; it will be exalted above the hills, and people will stream to it.

2 Many nations will come and say, “Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob. He will teach us His ways, so that we may walk in His paths.” For the law will go out from Zion, the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

3 He will judge between many peoples and settle disputes for strong nations far and wide. They will beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation will not take up sword against nation, nor will they train for war anymore.

4 Everyone will sit under their own vine and under their own fig tree, and no one will make them afraid, for the Lord Almighty has spoken.

5 All the nations may walk in the name of their gods, but we will walk in the name of the Lord our God forever and ever.

The Gathering of the Remnant

6 “In that day,” declares the Lord, “I will gather the lame; I will assemble the exiles and those I have brought to grief.

7 I will make the lame a remnant, those driven away a strong nation. The Lord will rule over them in Mount Zion from that day and forever.

8 As for you, watchtower of the flock, stronghold of Daughter Zion, the former dominion will be restored to you; kingship will come to Daughter Jerusalem.”

From Exile to Redemption

9 Why do you now cry aloud? Have you no king? Has your counselor perished, that pain seizes you like a woman in labor?

10 Writhe in agony, Daughter Zion, like a woman in labor, for now you must leave the city to camp in the open field. You will go to Babylon; there you will be rescued. There the Lord will redeem you out of the hand of your enemies.

God’s Plan Against the Nations

11 But now many nations are gathered against you. They say, “Let her be defiled, let our eyes gloat over Zion!”

12 But they do not know the thoughts of the Lord; they do not understand His plan, that He has gathered them like sheaves to the threshing floor.

13 “Rise and thresh, Daughter Zion, for I will give you horns of iron; I will give you hooves of bronze, and you will break to pieces many nations. You will dedicate their ill-gotten gains to the Lord, their wealth to the Lord of all the earth.”

Key Lessons from Micah 4

- God’s kingdom will be exalted – His mountain will rise above all, and nations will stream to Him for truth.
- Peace will replace war – Weapons will be transformed into tools of harvest, and fear will be gone.
- God cares for the broken – The lame, exiled, and afflicted will be restored as His remnant.
- God reigns forever – His kingship in Zion is eternal, unshaken by human rulers or nations.
- Exile is not the end – Though Judah would go to Babylon, redemption and deliverance were promised.
- God’s plan is hidden from His enemies – Nations may plot against Zion, but the Lord gathers them for judgment.
- Victory belongs to God’s people – Strength comes from the Lord, and the wealth of nations will be consecrated to Him.

Micah 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Ruler from Bethlehem and the Lord’s Victory”

The Coming Siege

1 Marshal your troops, Daughter of troops, for a siege is laid against us. They will strike Israel's ruler on the cheek with a rod.

The Ruler from Bethlehem

2 But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, though you are small among the clans of Judah, out of you will come for Me one who will be ruler over Israel, whose origins are from ancient times, from everlasting.

3 Therefore Israel will be abandoned until the time when she who is in labor bears a son, and the rest of his brothers return to join the people of Israel.

4 He will stand and shepherd His flock in the strength of the Lord, in the majesty of the name of the Lord His God. And they will live securely, for then His greatness will reach to the ends of the earth.

5 And He will be our peace.

Deliverance from the Assyrian

When the Assyrian invades our land and marches through our fortresses, we will raise against him seven shepherds, even eight leaders of men.

6 They will rule the land of Assyria with the sword, the land of Nimrod with drawn sword. He will deliver us from the Assyrian when he invades our land and marches across our borders.

The Remnant of Jacob

7 The remnant of Jacob will be in the midst of many peoples like dew from the Lord, like showers on the grass, which do not wait for anyone or depend on man.

8 The remnant of Jacob will be among the nations, in the midst of many peoples, like a lion among the beasts of the forest, like a young lion among flocks of sheep, which mauls and mangles as it goes, and no one can rescue.

9 Your hand will be lifted in triumph over your enemies, and all your foes will be destroyed.

The Lord Removes Idols and Brings Vengeance

10 "In that day," declares the Lord, "I will destroy your horses from among you and demolish your chariots.

11 I will destroy the cities of your land and tear down all your strongholds.

12 I will destroy witchcraft from your hand, and you will no longer have fortune-tellers.

13 I will destroy your idols and your sacred stones from among you; you will no longer bow down to the work of your hands.

14 I will uproot your Asherah poles from among you and demolish your cities.

15 I will take vengeance in anger and wrath on the nations that have not obeyed Me."

Key Lessons from Micah 5

- God chooses the humble – The great ruler, the Messiah, would come from little Bethlehem, not a powerful city.
- Christ is eternal – His origins are “from everlasting,” pointing to His divinity and eternal reign.
- The Messiah is the Shepherd-King – He feeds His flock in the strength of the Lord and brings peace and security.
- God’s remnant is His instrument – Like dew and like a lion, the remnant of Jacob will bless nations and also bring judgment.
- God removes false security – Chariots, strongholds, sorcery, and idols will all be destroyed, leaving trust only in the Lord.
- God’s vengeance is real – His wrath falls on nations that refuse to obey Him.
- Peace and judgment meet in Christ – He is both Savior and King, bringing deliverance for His people and justice against their enemies.

Micah 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord’s Case Against Israel”

The Lord’s Complaint

1 Listen to what the Lord says: “Stand up, plead my case before the mountains; let the hills hear what you have to say.

2 Hear, you mountains, the Lord’s accusation; listen, you everlasting foundations of the earth. For the Lord has a case against His people; He is lodging a charge against Israel.

3 My people, what have I done to you? How have I burdened you? Answer me.

4 I brought you up out of Egypt and redeemed you from the land of slavery. I sent Moses to lead you, also Aaron and Miriam.

5 My people, remember what Balak king of Moab plotted and what Balaam son of Beor answered. Remember your journey from Shittim to Gilgal, that you may know the righteous acts of the Lord.”

What God Really Requires

6 With what shall I come before the Lord and bow down before the exalted God? Shall I come with burnt offerings, with calves a year old?

7 Will the Lord be pleased with thousands of rams, with ten thousand rivers of olive oil? Shall I offer my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

8 He has shown you, O man, what is good. And what does the Lord require of you? To act justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God.

Judgment for Corruption

9 Listen! The Lord is calling to the city—let the wise heed the fear of His name. Hear the rod and the One who appointed it.

10 Am I still to forget your ill-gotten treasures, you wicked house, and the short measure that is accursed?

11 Shall I acquit someone with dishonest scales, with a bag of false weights?

12 Your rich people are violent; your inhabitants are liars and their tongues speak deceit.

13 Therefore, I will make you ill and destroy you because of your sins.

The Futility of Sin

14 You will eat but not be satisfied; your hunger will remain within you. You will store up but save nothing, because what you save I will give to the sword.

15 You will plant but not harvest; you will press olives but not use the oil; you will crush grapes but not drink the wine.

Following the Ways of the Wicked

16 You have kept the statutes of Omri and all the practices of Ahab's house; you follow their traditions. Therefore I will make you a ruin, and your people an object of scorn; you will bear the shame of My people.”

Key Lessons from Micah 6

- God calls creation as witness – The mountains and earth stand as eternal testimony to His justice.
- God reminds His people of redemption – He delivered them from Egypt, gave leaders, and acted righteously on their behalf.
- God desires obedience, not empty ritual – He does not want endless sacrifices but lives marked by justice, mercy, and humility.
- Injustice brings judgment – Dishonest scales, lies, and violence pollute the land and invite God's wrath.
- Sin leaves people unsatisfied – No matter how much they sow or gather, it comes to nothing apart from God.
- Following corrupt leaders leads to ruin – Israel walked in the ways of Omri and Ahab and reaped their same destruction.
- True worship is ethical and relational – To walk humbly with God is better than any outward religious show.

Micah 7 – Crawford Standard Bible

“From Corruption to Confidence in God’s Mercy”

The Corruption of Society

1 Woe is me! I feel like one searching for summer fruit after the harvest, or gleanings after the vintage, but there are no clusters left to eat. I longed for the first ripe fig, but none is found.

2 The faithful have disappeared from the land; not one upright person remains. Everyone lies in wait to shed blood; they hunt each other with nets.

3 Both hands are skilled in doing evil: the ruler demands gifts, the judge accepts bribes, the powerful dictate their desires—and together they conspire.

4 The best of them is like a thornbush; the most upright is worse than a hedge of thorns. The day God appoints for your watchmen has come; now is the time of your punishment.

The Collapse of Trust

5 Do not trust a neighbor; put no confidence in a friend. Guard the words of your lips even from the woman who lies in your arms.

6 For the son dishonors his father, the daughter rises against her mother, the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law—a man’s enemies are the members of his own household.

Confidence in the Lord

7 But as for me, I will look to the Lord; I will wait for the God of my salvation. My God will hear me.

8 Do not gloat over me, my enemy! Though I have fallen, I will rise. Though I sit in darkness, the Lord will be my light.

9 Because I have sinned against Him, I will bear the Lord’s anger, until He pleads my case and upholds my cause. He will bring me into the light; I will see His righteousness.

10 Then my enemy will see it and be covered with shame—she who said to me, “Where is the Lord your God?” My eyes will see her downfall; she will be trampled like mud in the streets.

Promise of Restoration

11 The day for rebuilding your walls will come; the day for extending your boundaries will arrive.

12 In that day people will come to you from Assyria and the cities of Egypt, from Egypt to the Euphrates, from sea to sea, and from mountain to mountain.

13 But the earth will become desolate because of its inhabitants, as a result of their deeds.

Prayer for God’s Shepherding

14 Shepherd Your people with Your staff, the flock of Your inheritance, who live alone in a forest, in the midst of Carmel. Let them feed in Bashan and Gilead as in days long ago.

15 “As in the days when you came out of Egypt, I will show them My wonders.”

The Humbling of the Nations

16 The nations will see and be ashamed, deprived of all their power. They will put their hands over their mouths and their ears will become deaf.

17 They will lick the dust like a snake, like creatures that crawl on the ground. They will come trembling out of their hiding places; they will turn in fear to the Lord our God and be afraid of You.

God's Unfailing Mercy

18 Who is a God like You, who pardons sin and forgives the transgression of the remnant of His inheritance? You do not stay angry forever but delight to show mercy.

19 You will again have compassion on us; You will tread our sins underfoot and hurl all our iniquities into the depths of the sea.

20 You will be faithful to Jacob and show love to Abraham, as You pledged on oath to our ancestors in days long ago.

Key Lessons from Micah 7

- Corruption runs deep in society – Justice is twisted, leaders are corrupt, and even families turn against one another.
- Do not place your hope in people – Friends, neighbors, and even family may fail, but God remains faithful.
- God is the light in darkness – Even when sitting in judgment, His mercy brings restoration.
- Enemies will be silenced by God's vindication – Those who mock God's people will see His justice.
- God is a faithful Shepherd – He promises to feed, guide, and restore His scattered flock.
- The nations will fear the Lord – His power will humble the proud and bring awe to the world.
- God delights in mercy – He casts sins into the sea and keeps His covenant love forever.

Introduction to the Book of Nahum

“The Lord is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that trust in him.” – Nahum 1:7

Title and Meaning

The name Nahum comes from the Hebrew Naḥûm, meaning “comfort” or “consolation.” The title reflects the book's dual message: comfort for God's people, Judah, who suffered under Assyrian oppression, and judgment for Nineveh, the cruel capital of Assyria. Nahum's prophecy assures God's people that He is just and will not let the wicked go unpunished.

Author and Date

Nahum is identified as “the Elkoshite” (Nahum 1:1), likely referring to his hometown of Elkosh, though its exact location remains uncertain. His prophetic ministry is dated to the 7th century BC, most likely between 663 BC (the fall of Thebes, mentioned in 3:8) and 612 BC (the fall of Nineveh, which his prophecy foretells). Nahum’s words came during Judah’s struggles under Assyrian dominance, bringing hope of eventual deliverance.

Purpose of Nahum

The book of Nahum was written to:

- Proclaim God’s judgment on Nineveh and the Assyrian Empire.
- Remind God’s people that He is sovereign over nations.
- Show that God’s justice will triumph over cruelty and oppression.
- Encourage Judah to trust in God’s goodness and strength.

Structure of Nahum

Nahum’s prophecy is structured like a divine courtroom and battle scene:

⚔ 1. God the Avenger and Protector (Chapter 1)

- The character of God as just, powerful, and good.
- His judgment against Nineveh and His care for those who trust Him.

🏰 2. The Siege of Nineveh (Chapter 2)

- Vivid battle imagery describing the downfall of Nineveh.

⚖ 3. The Reasons for Judgment (Chapter 3)

- A list of Nineveh’s sins: bloodshed, deceit, idolatry, and cruelty.
- The certainty of God’s judgment and the end of Assyria’s power.

Major Themes

- God’s Justice – The Lord will not let the guilty go unpunished.
- God’s Sovereignty – He rules over nations and determines their rise and fall.
- Comfort for God’s People – While the wicked are judged, God is a refuge for those who trust Him.
- The Fall of Human Pride – Assyria, once mighty, is reduced to nothing under God’s hand.

Why Nahum Matters Today

Nahum reminds us that:

- No nation, empire, or power is beyond God’s reach.
- Oppressors and evildoers will face God’s justice in His time.
- God’s people can find comfort in His goodness and strength, even in times of trouble.
- Nahum points to the greater victory of Christ, who conquers sin, death, and all evil powers.

Key Verse

“The Lord is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked: the Lord hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.” – Nahum 1:3

This verse captures both the patience and power of God: He is merciful, yet He will surely bring justice upon the wicked.

Nahum 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord’s Judgment Against Nineveh”

The Vision of Nahum

1 A prophecy concerning Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

The Character of the Lord

2 The Lord is a jealous and avenging God; the Lord takes vengeance and is filled with wrath. The Lord takes vengeance on His foes and stores up wrath for His enemies.

3 The Lord is slow to anger but great in power; He will not leave the guilty unpunished. His way is in the whirlwind and the storm, and the clouds are the dust of His feet.

4 He rebukes the sea and dries it up; He makes all the rivers run dry. Bashan and Carmel wither, and the blossoms of Lebanon fade.

5 The mountains quake before Him and the hills melt away. The earth trembles at His presence—the world and all who live in it.

6 Who can withstand His indignation? Who can endure His fierce anger? His wrath is poured out like fire; the rocks are shattered before Him.

The Lord Protects His People

7 The Lord is good, a refuge in times of trouble. He cares for those who trust in Him.

8 But with an overwhelming flood He will bring an end to Nineveh; He will pursue His enemies into the darkness.

The Lord’s Decree Against Nineveh

9 Whatever you plot against the Lord, He will bring to an end; trouble will not come a second time.

10 They will be entangled among thorns and drunk with wine; they will be consumed like dry stubble.

11 From you, Nineveh, has one come forth who plots evil against the Lord, a wicked counselor.

12 This is what the Lord says: “Although they have allies and are numerous, they will be destroyed and pass away. Although I have afflicted you, Judah, I will afflict you no more.

13 Now I will break their yoke from your neck and tear your shackles away.”

14 The Lord has given this command concerning you, Nineveh: “You will have no descendants to bear your name. I will destroy the carved images and cast idols from the temple of your gods. I will prepare your grave, for you are vile.”

Good News for Judah

15 Look, there on the mountains are the feet of one who brings good news, who proclaims peace! Celebrate your festivals, Judah, and fulfill your vows. No more will the wicked invade you; they will be completely destroyed.

Key Lessons from Nahum 1

- God is both merciful and just – He is slow to anger but will not leave the guilty unpunished.
- Creation trembles before the Lord – Mountains quake, seas dry up, and nations cannot stand against Him.
- The Lord is a refuge – He knows and protects those who trust in Him during times of trouble.
- Evil plots fail against God – Whatever Nineveh planned, God would bring to nothing.
- God delivers His people – The yoke of oppression would be broken, and Judah would be freed.
- Idolatry leads to ruin – False gods cannot save; God Himself destroys their images.
- The message of peace foreshadows Christ – Just as good news was announced to Judah, Christ brings ultimate peace to all who believe.

Nahum 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Fall of Nineveh”

The Invader Approaches

1 The destroyer comes against you, Nineveh! Guard your fortress, watch the road, brace yourselves, and strengthen your defenses.

2 For the Lord will restore the splendor of Jacob, like the splendor of Israel, though destroyers have laid them waste and ruined their vine branches.

The Battle Scene

3 The shields of the warriors are painted red, the soldiers wear scarlet. The chariots flash with flaming torches on the day they are made ready; the spears of pine are brandished.

4 The chariots storm through the streets, rushing back and forth through the squares. They flash like torches and dart about like lightning.

5 The commander calls his officers; they stumble as they march. They hurry to the city wall, and the protective shield is put in place.

6 The river gates are thrown open, and the palace collapses.

Nineveh Taken

7 It is decreed: the queen is stripped and led away. Her attendants moan like doves and beat their breasts.

8 Nineveh is like a pool whose water is draining away. “Stop! Stop!” they cry, but no one turns back.

9 Plunder the silver! Plunder the gold! The supply is endless, the wealth from all its treasures.

10 She is emptied, desolate, and ruined! Hearts melt, knees give way, bodies tremble, every face grows pale.

The End of the “Lion’s Den”

11 Where now is the lion’s den, the place where they fed their young, where the lion and lioness went, and the cubs, with no one to disturb them?

12 The lion tore enough for his cubs, killed for his lionesses, filled his lairs with prey, and his dens with the kill.

13 “I am against you,” declares the Lord Almighty. “I will burn your chariots with smoke, and the sword will devour your young lions. I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voices of your messengers will no longer be heard.”

Key Lessons from Nahum 2

- God restores His people – While Nineveh falls, the Lord restores the honor of Jacob and Israel.
- Human power cannot stop God’s judgment – Fortifications, armies, and wealth collapse before His decree.
- The proud will be plundered – The city once overflowing with riches is stripped bare and left empty.
- False security is shattered – Nineveh, once compared to a lion’s den, is left without power or protection.
- God Himself declares war on Nineveh – The Lord of hosts says, “I am against you,” a fearful declaration no power can resist.
- Judgment is total – From rulers to messengers, Nineveh’s influence and voice are silenced.

Nahum 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Woe to Nineveh, the Bloody City”

The Bloody City Condemned

1 Woe to the city of blood, full of lies, full of plunder, never without victims!
2 Listen! The crack of whips, the rumble of wheels, galloping horses and bounding chariots!
3 Horsemen charge, flashing swords and glittering spears. A great many are slain, piles of dead bodies, without end. People stumble over the corpses.

The Reason for Judgment

4 All this because of the countless acts of prostitution by the well-favored harlot, the mistress of sorceries, who enslaved nations by her prostitution and peoples by her witchcraft.
5 “I am against you,” declares the Lord of hosts. “I will lift your skirts over your face. I will show the nations your nakedness and the kingdoms your shame.
6 I will pelt you with filth, I will treat you with contempt, and make you a spectacle.
7 All who see you will flee from you and say, ‘Nineveh is in ruins—who will mourn for her?’ Where can I find anyone to comfort you?”

No Escape for Nineveh

8 Are you better than Thebes, situated on the Nile, surrounded by waters, with water for her rampart and wall?
9 Cush and Egypt were her strength without limit; Put and Libya were among her allies.
10 Yet she was taken into exile. Her children were dashed to pieces at every street corner. Lots were cast for her nobles, and all her great men were bound in chains.
11 You too will become drunk and go into hiding; you will seek refuge from the enemy.
12 All your fortresses are like fig trees with ripe fruit: when shaken, they fall into the eater’s mouth.

The Fall of the Assyrian King

13 Look! Your troops are weak as women. The gates of your land are wide open to your enemies; fire has consumed the bars of your gates.
14 Draw water for the siege! Strengthen your defenses! Work the clay, tread the mortar, repair the brickwork!
15 Yet the fire will consume you there; the sword will cut you down and devour you like locusts. Multiply yourselves like locusts, multiply like grasshoppers!
16 You have increased your merchants more than the stars of the heavens, but like locusts they strip the land and fly away.
17 Your guards are like locusts, your officials like swarms of grasshoppers that settle in the walls on a cold day—but when the sun rises, they fly away, and no one knows where.

The Final Sentence

18 King of Assyria, your shepherds slumber; your nobles lie down to rest. Your people are scattered on the mountains with no one to gather them.
19 Nothing can heal your wound; your injury is fatal. Everyone who hears the news about you claps their hands at your fall, for who has not felt your endless cruelty?

Key Lessons from Nahum 3

- God judges cruelty and corruption – Nineveh was full of lies, bloodshed, greed, and sorcery, and God brought her down.
- Evil empires fall despite strength and wealth – Even with allies, fortresses, and riches, Nineveh could not escape God’s hand.
- God humiliates the proud – He exposed Nineveh’s shame before the nations, turning her from feared to despised.
- The wages of sin are total ruin – Once powerful, Nineveh became desolate, mocked, and uncomforted.
- The oppressed rejoice at justice – Nations clapped their hands because Nineveh’s cruelty had reached them all.
- God is sovereign over history – He raises up nations and brings them down according to His justice.

Introduction to the Book of Habakkuk

“The just shall live by his faith.” – Habakkuk 2:4

Title and Meaning

The name Habakkuk comes from the Hebrew Ḥăḇḥaqqûq, which means “embrace” or “wrestler.” The name reflects the prophet’s role as one who wrestles with difficult questions about God’s justice, yet ultimately embraces faith in Him. Unlike other prophets who primarily spoke to the people, Habakkuk’s book records a dialogue between the prophet and God.

Author and Date

Habakkuk identifies himself simply as “the prophet” (Habakkuk 1:1). Little is known about his background, but his writing style shows poetic strength and deep theological reflection. His ministry likely took place in Judah during the late 7th century BC (around 612–605 BC), just before Babylon rose to power and threatened Judah. This places Habakkuk during a period of violence, injustice, and looming invasion.

Purpose of Habakkuk

The book of Habakkuk addresses the tension between God’s holiness and the presence of evil in the world. It was written to:

- Confront the problem of injustice and violence in Judah.
- Question why God allows the wicked to prosper.

- Announce God’s plan to use Babylon as an instrument of judgment.
- Affirm that ultimate hope rests in trusting God’s sovereignty.

Structure of Habakkuk

The book is structured as a conversation and a hymn:

🗨️ 1. Habakkuk’s Questions and God’s Answers (Chapters 1–2)

- Habakkuk’s first complaint: “Why does God allow violence in Judah?”
- God’s answer: “I will raise up the Babylonians.”
- Habakkuk’s second complaint: “How can You use a wicked nation to judge us?”
- God’s answer: “The just shall live by faith,” with five woes against Babylon.

🎵 2. Habakkuk’s Prayer of Faith (Chapter 3)

- A poetic prayer describing God’s past deliverance.
- A declaration of trust: “Though the fig tree shall not blossom... yet I will rejoice in the Lord.”

Major Themes

- Faith in God’s Sovereignty – God’s ways may be mysterious, but He is always just.
- The Problem of Evil – Habakkuk wrestles with why God allows injustice, but learns to trust His plan.
- The Righteous Shall Live by Faith – This principle becomes central in the New Testament (Romans 1:17; Galatians 3:11; Hebrews 10:38).
- God’s Judgment on Nations – Babylon will be judged just as they were used to judge Judah.
- Rejoicing in God Alone – Even in loss and devastation, true joy is found in the Lord.

Why Habakkuk Matters Today

Habakkuk speaks to the struggle believers face when life seems unfair:

- Why do the wicked prosper?
- Why does God seem silent in suffering?
- Can we trust Him when we don’t understand?

The answer is found in faith: trusting God’s character and sovereignty. The book ultimately points us to Jesus Christ, in whom God’s justice and mercy meet.

Key Verse

“The just shall live by his faith.” – Habakkuk 2:4

This verse is the heartbeat of Habakkuk and a foundation for New Testament teaching on salvation by faith. It calls God’s people to trust Him fully, even when circumstances seem dark.

Habakkuk 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Habakkuk’s Complaint and God’s Answer”

Habakkuk’s First Complaint

1 The prophecy that Habakkuk the prophet saw.

2 How long, Lord, must I call for help, but You do not listen? Or cry out to You, “Violence!” but You do not save?

3 Why do You make me look at injustice? Why do You tolerate wrongdoing? Destruction and violence are before me; strife and conflict abound.

4 Therefore the law is paralyzed, and justice never prevails. The wicked hem in the righteous, so that justice is perverted.

God’s First Answer

5 “Look at the nations and watch—and be utterly amazed. For I am going to do something in your days that you would not believe, even if you were told.

6 I am raising up the Babylonians, that ruthless and impetuous people, who sweep across the whole earth to seize dwellings not their own.

7 They are feared and dreaded; they are a law to themselves and promote their own honor.

8 Their horses are swifter than leopards, fiercer than wolves at dusk. Their cavalry gallops headlong; their horsemen come from afar. They fly like an eagle swooping to devour.

9 They all come intent on violence. Their hordes advance like a desert wind and gather captives like sand.

10 They mock kings and scoff at rulers. They laugh at all fortified cities; by building earthen ramps they capture them.

11 Then they sweep past like the wind and go on—guilty people, whose own strength is their god.”

Habakkuk’s Second Complaint

12 Lord, are You not from everlasting? My God, my Holy One, we will not die. Lord, You have appointed them to execute judgment; my Rock, You have ordained them to punish.

13 Your eyes are too pure to look on evil; You cannot tolerate wrongdoing. Why then do You tolerate the treacherous? Why are You silent while the wicked swallow up those more righteous than themselves?

14 You have made people like the fish of the sea, like the creatures that have no ruler.

15 The wicked pull all of them up with hooks, catch them in their nets, and gather them in their dragnets; and so they rejoice and are glad.

16 They sacrifice to their nets and burn incense to their dragnets, for by them they live in luxury and enjoy the choicest food.

17 Is he to keep on emptying his net, destroying nations without mercy?

Key Lessons from Habakkuk 1

- God's people wrestle with unanswered prayers – Habakkuk cried out for justice but saw only violence.
- God sometimes works in unexpected ways – He used the Babylonians, a wicked nation, to accomplish His judgment.
- The wicked trust in their own strength – Babylon worshiped its own power, turning tools of conquest into idols.
- God is eternal and holy – Unlike corrupt nations, He is pure and everlasting.
- Evil appears unchecked for a time – The wicked seem to prosper, but they are only instruments in God's larger plan.
- Nations that exalt themselves will fall – Just as Babylon would be judged, every empire built on pride will crumble.

Habakkuk 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Righteous Live by Faith and Woes Against the Wicked”

Waiting for God's Answer

1 I will stand at my watch and station myself on the tower. I will look to see what He will say to me and what answer I should give to His rebuke.

2 Then the Lord replied: “Write down the revelation and make it plain on tablets so that a herald may run with it.

3 For the vision is for an appointed time; it speaks of the end and will not prove false. Though it lingers, wait for it. It will certainly come and will not delay.

The Just Shall Live by Faith

4 See, the enemy is puffed up; his desires are not upright. But the righteous will live by his faith.

5 Indeed, wine betrays him; he is arrogant and restless. Like the grave, he is never satisfied. He gathers to himself all the nations and collects all the peoples as his own.

Woes Against the Oppressor

6 Will not all of them taunt him with ridicule and scorn, saying:

“Woe to him who piles up stolen goods and makes himself wealthy by extortion! How long must this go on?”

7 Will not your creditors suddenly arise? Will they not wake up and make you tremble? Then you will become their prey.

8 Because you have plundered many nations, the peoples who are left will plunder you. For you have shed human blood; you have destroyed lands and cities and everyone in them.

9 Woe to him who builds his house by unjust gain, setting his nest on high to escape the clutches of ruin!

10 You have plotted the ruin of many peoples, shaming your own house and forfeiting your life.

11 The stones of the wall will cry out, and the beams of the woodwork will echo it.

12 Woe to him who builds a city with bloodshed and establishes a town by injustice!

13 Has not the Lord Almighty determined that the people’s labor is only fuel for the fire, that the nations exhaust themselves for nothing?

14 For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord as the waters cover the sea.

15 Woe to him who gives drink to his neighbors, pouring it out till they are drunk, so that he can gaze on their nakedness!

16 You will be filled with shame instead of glory. Now it is your turn! Drink and be exposed! The cup from the Lord’s right hand is coming around to you, and disgrace will cover your glory.

17 The violence you have done to Lebanon will overwhelm you, and your destruction of animals will terrify you. For you have shed human blood; you have destroyed lands and cities and everyone in them.

The Folly of Idols

18 Of what value is an idol, carved by a craftsman? Or an image that teaches lies? For its maker trusts in his own creation; he makes idols that cannot speak.

19 Woe to him who says to wood, “Come to life!” or to lifeless stone, “Wake up!” Can it give guidance? It is covered with gold and silver, but there is no breath in it at all.

The Lord Reigns

20 But the Lord is in His holy temple; let all the earth be silent before Him.

Key Lessons from Habakkuk 2

- God’s vision is sure – His promises may seem delayed, but they will always come to pass.
- The righteous live by faith – This timeless truth is the foundation of trusting God in the midst of injustice.
- Pride leads to destruction – The arrogant oppressor, like Babylon, will be judged.
- God’s justice is universal – Those who plunder others will themselves be plundered.
- Idolatry is futile – Dumb idols of wood and stone cannot save or guide.

- God’s glory will fill the earth – His reign will cover creation like the waters cover the sea.
- Silence before God is worship – In the presence of the holy and sovereign Lord, all the earth must bow in reverence.

Habakkuk 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Prayer of Faith and Rejoicing”

Habakkuk’s Prayer

1 A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet, on Shigionoth.

2 Lord, I have heard of Your fame; I stand in awe of Your deeds, Lord. Renew them in our day, in our time make them known; in wrath, remember mercy.

The Glory of God Revealed

3 God came from Teman, the Holy One from Mount Paran. Selah. His glory covered the heavens and His praise filled the earth.

4 His splendor was like the sunrise; rays flashed from His hand, where His power was hidden.

5 Plague went before Him; pestilence followed His steps.

6 He stood and shook the earth; He looked and made the nations tremble. The ancient mountains crumbled, the age-old hills collapsed—but He marches on forever.

7 I saw the tents of Cushan in distress, the dwellings of Midian in anguish.

God’s Power in Salvation

8 Was Your wrath against the rivers, Lord? Was Your anger against the streams? Did You rage against the sea when You rode Your horses and chariots to victory?

9 You uncovered Your bow, You called for many arrows. Selah. You split the earth with rivers.

10 The mountains saw You and trembled. Torrents of water swept by; the deep roared and lifted its waves on high.

11 Sun and moon stood still in the heavens at the glint of Your flying arrows, at the lightning of Your flashing spear.

12 In wrath You marched through the earth and in anger You threshed the nations.

13 You came out to deliver Your people, to save Your anointed one. You crushed the leader of the wicked, stripping him from head to foot. Selah.

14 With his own weapons You pierced his head when his warriors stormed out to scatter us, gloating as though about to devour the helpless.

15 You trampled the sea with Your horses, churning the great waters.

Habakkuk’s Fear and Faith

16 I heard and my heart pounded, my lips quivered at the sound; decay crept into my bones, and my legs trembled. Yet I will wait patiently for the day of calamity to come on the nation invading us.

17 Though the fig tree does not bud and there are no grapes on the vines, though the olive crop fails and the fields produce no food, though there are no sheep in the pen and no cattle in the stalls, 18 yet I will rejoice in the Lord, I will be joyful in God my Savior.

19 The Sovereign Lord is my strength; He makes my feet like the feet of a deer, He enables me to tread on the heights. For the director of music. On my stringed instruments.

Key Lessons from Habakkuk 3

- Prayer is rooted in awe and humility – Habakkuk remembers God’s past works and asks Him to renew them, while pleading for mercy in wrath.
- God’s glory is overwhelming – His presence shakes mountains, rivers, seas, and nations; all creation responds to His power.
- God fights for His people – He comes not only in judgment but for the salvation of His anointed and His people.
- Faith endures despite circumstances – Even when crops fail, livestock perish, and resources vanish, faith chooses to rejoice in God.
- God is strength for the faithful – He gives stability like a deer on high places, allowing His people to walk securely in difficult terrain.
- True worship ends in praise – Habakkuk’s prayer closes with a song of faith, showing that trust in God always leads to worship.

Introduction to the Book of Zephaniah

“The great day of the Lord is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly...” – Zephaniah 1:14

Title and Meaning

The name Zephaniah comes from the Hebrew Ṣephanyāh, meaning “Yahweh has hidden” or “Yahweh protects.” His name may reflect either God’s protection of the prophet in troubled times or the hidden purposes of God revealed through prophecy. The book of Zephaniah is a strong and sobering proclamation of judgment, yet it also offers hope of restoration for those who humble themselves before the Lord.

Author and Date

Zephaniah is introduced as the great-great-grandson of Hezekiah, suggesting he may have been of royal descent (Zephaniah 1:1). He prophesied during the reign of King Josiah of Judah (640–609 BC), likely before Josiah’s reforms around 622 BC. This places Zephaniah in the late 7th century BC, just decades before Babylon’s invasion. He ministered alongside prophets such as Jeremiah and Nahum.

Purpose of Zephaniah

The book was written to warn of God’s coming judgment and to call the people to repentance. Its purpose includes:

- Declaring the certainty of the “Day of the Lord,” a time of judgment on Judah, surrounding nations, and the whole earth.
- Exposing Judah’s sins of idolatry, violence, corruption, and complacency.
- Calling God’s people to seek humility and righteousness.
- Offering hope of restoration for a purified remnant.

Structure of Zephaniah

The book is brief yet powerful, with three chapters:

⚔️ 1. Judgment Against Judah and the Nations (Chapter 1–2:3)

- Judah is condemned for idolatry and corruption.
- A call to repentance is issued: “Seek the Lord, all you humble of the land.”

🌍 2. Judgment on the Nations (Chapter 2:4–15)

- God announces judgment on Philistia, Moab, Ammon, Cush, and Assyria.

🌿 3. Restoration and Joy for the Remnant (Chapter 3)

- Jerusalem’s rebellion is exposed, but God promises to purify the peoples.
- The faithful remnant will rejoice as the Lord dwells in their midst.

Major Themes

- The Day of the Lord – A central theme, described as a day of wrath, darkness, and destruction.
- Judgment and Justice – God judges both His people and the nations for sin and pride.
- Call to Repentance – Zephaniah urges the humble to seek the Lord before judgment falls.
- Hope and Restoration – God promises to save a remnant and to be present among His people with joy and singing.

Why Zephaniah Matters Today

Zephaniah warns us not to grow complacent in sin or presume upon God’s patience. His words remind us that:

- God’s justice is universal—no nation is beyond His reach.
- The “Day of the Lord” points forward to the final judgment and the return of Christ.
- True security is found not in wealth, power, or ritual, but in seeking the Lord in humility.

- God’s ultimate goal is not destruction but restoration, culminating in His joyful presence with His people (Zephaniah 3:17).

Key Verse

“The Lord thy God in the midst of thee is mighty; he will save, he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will rest in his love, he will joy over thee with singing.” – Zephaniah 3:17

This verse reveals the tender heart of God—He is both a mighty warrior who saves and a loving Father who delights in His people.

Zephaniah 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Great Day of the Lord”

Introduction

1 The word of the Lord came to Zephaniah son of Cushi, son of Gedaliah, son of Amariah, son of Hezekiah, during the reign of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah.

God’s Judgment on All Creation

2 “I will completely sweep away everything from the face of the earth,” declares the Lord.

3 “I will sweep away people and animals; I will sweep away the birds in the sky and the fish in the sea—and the idols that cause people to stumble. When I destroy the wicked, I will cut off mankind from the face of the earth,” declares the Lord.

Judgment on Judah and Jerusalem

4 “I will stretch out My hand against Judah and against all who live in Jerusalem. I will destroy every remnant of Baal worship in this place, the names of the idolatrous priests—those who bow down to idols alongside the Lord,

5 those who bow down on rooftops to the starry host, those who swear by the Lord and also by Molech,

6 those who turn back from following the Lord, and those who never sought Him or inquired of Him.”

The Day of the Lord Approaches

7 Be silent before the Sovereign Lord, for the day of the Lord is near. The Lord has prepared a sacrifice; He has consecrated those He has invited.

8 “On the day of the Lord’s sacrifice, I will punish the officials and the king’s sons and all those who dress in foreign clothes.

9 On that day I will punish all who step over thresholds, who fill their master’s houses with violence and deceit.

10 On that day,” declares the Lord, “a cry will rise from the Fish Gate, wailing from the New Quarter, and a loud crash from the hills.

11 Wail, you who live in the market district; all your merchants will be wiped out, all who trade with silver will be destroyed.

12 At that time I will search Jerusalem with lamps and punish those who are complacent, who say to themselves, ‘The Lord will do nothing, either good or bad.’

13 Their wealth will be plundered, their houses demolished. Though they build houses, they will not live in them; though they plant vineyards, they will not drink the wine.”

The Terror of the Day of the Lord

14 The great day of the Lord is near—near and coming quickly. The cry on the day of the Lord is bitter; even the warrior shouts in despair.

15 That day will be a day of wrath, a day of distress and anguish, a day of trouble and ruin, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and blackness,

16 a day of trumpet blasts and battle cries against the fortified cities and against the high towers.

17 “I will bring such distress on all people that they will grope about like those who are blind, because they have sinned against the Lord. Their blood will be poured out like dust and their guts like dung.

18 Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to save them on the day of the Lord’s wrath. In the fire of His jealousy the whole earth will be consumed, for He will bring sudden and complete destruction on all who live on the earth.”

Key Lessons from Zephaniah 1

- God’s judgment is universal – His wrath will sweep across creation, consuming both people and the idols they worship.
- Idolatry invites destruction – Those who bow to Baal, Molech, or the stars will be cut off.
- Complacency is sin – To say “God will do nothing” is to deny His power and justice.
- Wealth cannot save – Silver and gold are powerless on the day of the Lord’s wrath.
- The day of the Lord is near – It is a day of wrath, darkness, and anguish for the wicked.
- God demands reverence – Silence before Him acknowledges His holiness and sovereignty.
- Judgment calls us to repentance – Only those who turn back to the Lord can find mercy.

Zephaniah 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Call to Repentance and Judgment on the Nations”

A Call to Humility and Repentance

1 Gather together, yes, gather yourselves, you undesired nation,

2 before the decree takes effect—before the day passes like chaff, before the Lord’s fierce anger comes upon you, before the day of the Lord’s wrath falls.

3 Seek the Lord, all you humble of the land, you who do what He commands. Seek righteousness, seek humility; perhaps you will be sheltered on the day of the Lord’s anger.

Judgment on Philistia

4 For Gaza will be abandoned and Ashkelon left in ruins. At midday Ashdod will be driven out, and Ekron will be uprooted.

5 Woe to you who live by the sea, you nation of the Cherethites! The word of the Lord is against you, Canaan, land of the Philistines. “I will destroy you, and none will be left.”

6 The seacoast will become pastures, with meadows for shepherds and pens for flocks.

7 The land will belong to the remnant of Judah; there they will find pasture. In the evening they will lie down in the houses of Ashkelon. For the Lord their God will care for them and restore their fortunes.

Judgment on Moab and Ammon

8 “I have heard the insults of Moab and the taunts of the Ammonites, who insulted My people and made threats against their land.

9 Therefore, as surely as I live,” declares the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, “Moab will become like Sodom, and Ammon like Gomorrah—a place of weeds and salt pits, a perpetual wasteland. The remnant of My people will plunder them; the survivors of My nation will inherit their land.”

10 This is what they will get for their pride, for mocking and insulting the people of the Lord Almighty.

11 The Lord will be awesome to them when He destroys all the gods of the earth. Distant nations, even those on the islands, will worship Him, each in their own land.

Judgment on Cush and Assyria

12 “You Cushites also, you will be slain by My sword.”

13 He will stretch out His hand against the north and destroy Assyria, leaving Nineveh utterly desolate, as dry as the wilderness.

14 Herds will lie down there, creatures of every kind. The desert owl and the screech owl will roost on her columns. Their calls will echo through the windows; rubble will be in the doorways; the cedar beams will be exposed.

15 This is the carefree city that once said to itself, “I am the only one. There is none beside me.” What a ruin she has become, a lair for wild animals! All who pass by her will scoff and shake their fists.

Key Lessons from Zephaniah 2

- Repentance is urgent – The nation is called to gather, humble themselves, and seek righteousness before God’s judgment arrives.
- The meek find shelter in the Lord – Those who walk humbly and seek God may be hidden in the day of His wrath.
- Pride brings destruction – Moab, Ammon, Assyria, and Nineveh fell because of their arrogance and insults against God’s people.
- God reverses fortunes – Lands of the enemy become pasture for the faithful remnant of Judah.

- False gods will be silenced – The Lord will famish the idols of the nations so that all peoples will worship Him.
- Earthly power is temporary – Even great cities like Nineveh, once proud and secure, became ruins where wild animals dwell.

Zephaniah 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Judgment and Restoration”

The Corruption of Jerusalem

1 Woe to the rebellious and defiled city, the city of oppression!

2 She listens to no voice, accepts no correction. She does not trust in the Lord, nor draw near to her God.

3 Her officials are roaring lions; her judges are like evening wolves, who leave nothing for the morning.

4 Her prophets are arrogant and treacherous; her priests profane the sanctuary and do violence to the law.

The Lord’s Righteousness and Warning

5 The Lord is righteous in her midst; He does no wrong. Every morning He brings His justice to light; He never fails. But the wicked know no shame.

6 “I have destroyed nations; their strongholds lie in ruins. I left their streets deserted, with no one passing through. Their cities are laid waste, without people, without inhabitants.

7 I said to you, ‘Surely you will fear Me and accept correction!’ Then her dwelling would not be destroyed. But instead they were eager to act corruptly in all they did.”

God’s Judgment on the Nations

8 “Therefore wait for Me,” declares the Lord, “for the day I rise up to testify. I have decided to gather the nations, to assemble the kingdoms and pour out My wrath on them—all My fierce anger. The whole world will be consumed by the fire of My jealous anger.”

The Promise of Restoration

9 “Then I will purify the lips of the peoples, so that all of them may call on the name of the Lord and serve Him shoulder to shoulder.

10 From beyond the rivers of Cush My scattered people will bring Me offerings.

11 On that day you will no longer be put to shame for all the wrongs you have done to Me, because I will remove from you your arrogant boasters. Never again will you be haughty on My holy mountain.

12 But I will leave within you the meek and humble, who trust in the name of the Lord.

13 The remnant of Israel will do no wrong; they will not speak lies or have deceitful tongues. They will eat and lie down, and no one will make them afraid.”

Rejoicing in God's Presence

14 Sing, Daughter Zion! Shout aloud, Israel! Be glad and rejoice with all your heart, Daughter Jerusalem!

15 The Lord has taken away your punishment; He has turned back your enemy. The King of Israel, the Lord, is with you; never again will you fear harm.

16 On that day they will say to Jerusalem, "Do not fear, Zion; do not let your hands grow weak.

17 The Lord your God is with you, the Mighty One who saves. He will delight in you; in His love He will calm your fears. He will rejoice over you with singing."

The Final Gathering and Restoration

18 "I will remove from you those who mourn over the loss of the appointed festivals, so you will no longer bear reproach.

19 At that time I will deal with all who oppressed you. I will rescue the lame; I will gather the exiles. I will give them praise and honor in every land where they have suffered shame.

20 At that time I will gather you. At that time I will bring you home. I will give you honor and praise among all the peoples of the earth when I restore your fortunes before your very eyes," says the Lord.

Key Lessons from Zephaniah 3

- Rebellion brings ruin – Leaders, prophets, and priests who reject God's correction bring destruction on their cities.
- God is just and faithful – He reveals His justice daily, even when the wicked ignore it.
- Judgment precedes restoration – Nations and the proud will fall before God's people are renewed.
- The humble are preserved – God spares the meek who trust in His name.
- The remnant will live in peace – A faithful remnant will be free from lies, fear, and oppression.
- God delights in His people – He rejoices over them with singing, turning fear into joy.
- Restoration is global – Scattered exiles will be gathered, honored, and restored by the Lord Himself.

Introduction to the Book of Haggai

"Consider your ways." – Haggai 1:5

Title and Meaning

The name Haggai comes from the Hebrew Haggay, meaning "festive" or "festival of Yahweh." His name may reflect the hope of restored worship and celebration after the exile. The book of Haggai is short but powerful, containing urgent calls for the people to rebuild the temple and renew their devotion to the Lord.

Author and Date

Haggai is identified as a prophet who ministered in 520 BC, during the reign of Darius I of Persia. This was about 18 years after the first group of exiles returned from Babylon under Zerubbabel (around 538 BC). The rebuilding of the temple had stalled due to opposition and discouragement. Haggai's ministry, alongside the prophet Zechariah, reignited the people's commitment to complete the temple by 516 BC.

Purpose of Haggai

The book was written to stir up the people of Judah to finish rebuilding the temple, reminding them that God's presence and blessing were tied to their obedience. Its purpose includes:

- Confronting the people's misplaced priorities—living in paneled houses while God's house lay in ruins.
- Encouraging them with God's promise of provision and presence.
- Pointing forward to the greater glory of the temple in God's redemptive plan, ultimately fulfilled in Christ.

Structure of Haggai

The book consists of four short prophetic messages delivered over just a few months in 520 BC:

1 A Call to Rebuild the Temple (1:1–15)

- The people are urged to put God first and rebuild His house.

2 A Promise of Glory (2:1–9)

- God promises that the glory of the new temple will surpass the former.

3 Blessings for Obedience (2:10–19)

- God reminds them that holiness cannot be transferred, but sin can; obedience brings blessing.

4 A Promise to Zerubbabel (2:20–23)

- God affirms Zerubbabel as His chosen servant, foreshadowing the coming Messiah.

Major Themes

- Put God First – Priorities must be centered on God and His work.
- The Temple as God's Dwelling – Rebuilding the temple symbolized God's presence with His people.
- Encouragement in Discouragement – God's promises sustain His people when they face obstacles.

- Future Glory – The “latter glory” points to Christ, in whom God’s presence dwells fully.
- God’s Sovereignty – He controls history, nations, and leaders to accomplish His plan.

Why Haggai Matters Today

The message of Haggai remains relevant:

- We are called to examine our priorities—do we build our own kingdoms while neglecting God’s?
- God’s presence with His people is more important than outward appearances.
- Christ Himself is the fulfillment of Haggai’s prophecy—the true temple where God dwells among us (John 2:19–21).
- In times of discouragement, Haggai reminds us that obedience brings blessing and God’s glory will ultimately be revealed.

Key Verse

“The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the Lord of hosts: and in this place will I give peace, saith the Lord of hosts.” – Haggai 2:9

This verse looks beyond the second temple to the coming of Christ, who brings the true glory and peace of God’s presence.

Haggai 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Call to Rebuild the House of the Lord”

The Lord’s Word to His People

1 In the second year of King Darius, on the first day of the sixth month, the word of the Lord came through Haggai the prophet to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest.

2 This is what the Lord Almighty says: “These people say, ‘The time has not yet come to rebuild the Lord’s house.’”

3 Then the word of the Lord came through Haggai the prophet:

4 “Is it a time for you yourselves to be living in your paneled houses, while this house remains in ruins?”

Consider Your Ways

5 Now this is what the Lord Almighty says: “Give careful thought to your ways.

6 You have planted much but harvested little. You eat, but you never have enough. You drink, but you are never filled. You put on clothes, but you are not warm. You earn wages, only to put them in a purse with holes in it.”

7 This is what the Lord Almighty says: “Give careful thought to your ways.

8 Go up into the mountains, bring down timber, and build My house, so that I may take pleasure in it and be honored,” says the Lord.

9 “You expected much, but see, it turned out to be little. What you brought home, I blew away. Why?” declares the Lord Almighty. “Because My house remains in ruins, while each of you is busy with your own house.

10 Therefore, because of you the heavens have withheld their dew and the earth its crops.

11 I called for a drought on the fields, the mountains, the grain, the new wine, the olive oil, and everything else the ground produces, on people, livestock, and on all the labor of your hands.”

The People’s Obedience

12 Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, Joshua son of Jehozadak the high priest, and the whole remnant of the people obeyed the voice of the Lord their God and the message of the prophet Haggai, because the Lord their God had sent him. And the people feared the Lord.

13 Then Haggai, the Lord’s messenger, gave this message of the Lord to the people: “I am with you,” declares the Lord.

14 So the Lord stirred the spirit of Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, the spirit of Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people. They came and began to work on the house of the Lord Almighty, their God, 15 on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month in the second year of King Darius.

Key Lessons from Haggai 1

- God calls us to put Him first – The people delayed building the Lord’s house while focusing on their own comfort, and it brought emptiness.
- Neglecting God leads to frustration – Despite hard work, they had little to show because God withheld blessing.
- Obedience brings God’s presence – When the people listened and feared the Lord, He promised, “I am with you.”
- God stirs hearts for His work – True revival begins when the Spirit of God moves His people to act.
- God is honored by our priorities – Building His house showed that He was first, not last, in their lives.

Haggai 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Glory of the New Temple and God’s Promise of Blessing”

Encouragement to Rebuild

1 On the twenty-first day of the seventh month, the word of the Lord came through the prophet Haggai:

2 “Speak to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, to Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people. Ask them,

3 ‘Who among you is left that saw this house in its former glory? How does it look to you now? Does it not seem like nothing compared to the former temple?’

4 But now be strong, Zerubbabel,’ declares the Lord. ‘Be strong, Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest. Be strong, all you people of the land, and work. For I am with you,’ declares the Lord Almighty.

5 ‘This is the covenant I made with you when you came out of Egypt. My Spirit remains among you. Do not fear.’”

The Promise of Greater Glory

6 This is what the Lord Almighty says: “In a little while I will once more shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land.

7 I will shake all nations, and the desire of all nations will come, and I will fill this house with glory,” says the Lord Almighty.

8 “The silver is Mine and the gold is Mine,” declares the Lord Almighty.

9 “The glory of this new house will be greater than the glory of the former one. And in this place I will grant peace,” declares the Lord Almighty.

A Lesson on Holiness and Defilement

10 On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the Lord came to the prophet Haggai:

11 “This is what the Lord Almighty says: Ask the priests about the law:

12 If someone carries holy meat in the fold of his garment, and it touches bread, stew, wine, oil, or any other food, does it make it holy?” The priests answered, “No.”

13 Then Haggai said, “If someone defiled by contact with a dead body touches any of these, does it become defiled?” The priests answered, “Yes, it becomes defiled.”

14 Then Haggai said, “So it is with this people and this nation in My sight. Whatever they do and whatever they offer there is defiled.

15 Now give careful thought from this day onward. Before one stone was laid on another in the Lord’s temple, 16 when anyone came to a heap of twenty measures, there were only ten. When anyone went to draw fifty measures of wine, there were only twenty.

17 I struck all the work of your hands with blight, mildew, and hail, yet you did not return to Me,” declares the Lord.

18 “From this twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, give careful thought to the day when the foundation of the Lord’s temple was laid. Give careful thought:

19 Is there still seed left in the barn? Until now, the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree have not borne fruit. But from this day on I will bless you.”

God's Promise to Zerubbabel

20 The word of the Lord came to Haggai a second time on the twenty-fourth day of the month:

21 “Tell Zerubbabel governor of Judah that I will shake the heavens and the earth.

22 I will overthrow royal thrones and shatter the power of foreign kingdoms. I will overthrow chariots and their drivers; horses and their riders will fall, each by the sword of his brother.

23 On that day,” declares the Lord Almighty, “I will take you, My servant Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel,” declares the Lord, “and I will make you like My signet ring, for I have chosen you,” declares the Lord Almighty.

Key Lessons from Haggai 2

- God calls for courage and work – His presence empowers His people to continue even when their efforts seem small.
- The new temple's glory is greater – God promises a future filled with glory and peace beyond the former splendor.
- Holiness is not easily transferred, but defilement is – God warns that disobedience corrupts, but obedience brings blessing.
- Past struggles were a call to return to God – Drought, blight, and loss were meant to turn the people's hearts back to Him.
- Blessing begins with obedience – The day they laid the foundation, God promised fruitfulness and provision.
- God raises leaders for His purpose – Zerubbabel was chosen as a “signet ring,” a symbol of authority, pointing to the coming Messiah.

Introduction to the Book of Zechariah

“Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of hosts.” – Zechariah 4:6

Title and Meaning

The name Zechariah comes from the Hebrew Zekharyah, meaning “The Lord remembers.” This is a fitting title, as the book emphasizes God's faithfulness to remember His covenant promises to His people, even after exile. Zechariah delivers both words of encouragement and visions of hope, pointing God's people toward ultimate restoration and the coming of the Messiah.

Author and Date

Zechariah, the son of Berechiah and grandson of Iddo (Zechariah 1:1), was both a priest and a prophet. He began prophesying in 520 BC, the same year as Haggai, during the reign of Darius I of Persia. While Haggai focused on motivating the people to rebuild the temple, Zechariah offered visions and promises that showed God's greater redemptive plan beyond the temple walls. His ministry likely extended for several years, perhaps into the late 5th century BC.

Purpose of Zechariah

The book of Zechariah was written to encourage the returned exiles to rebuild the temple and renew their covenant loyalty. Beyond that, it points forward to God's coming kingdom and the Messiah. Its purposes include:

- Encouraging the people with visions of God's protection and presence.
- Revealing that the temple pointed to a greater fulfillment in the Messiah.
- Teaching that God's Spirit, not human power, would accomplish His purposes.
- Giving prophetic glimpses of Christ's first coming in humility and His future reign in glory.

Structure of Zechariah

Zechariah is one of the most complex and prophetic books of the Old Testament, often divided into two main sections:

1. Visions and Encouragement (Chapters 1–8)

- Eight night visions (Chs. 1–6) encouraging the people with God's plans for Jerusalem.
- Exhortations to repent and live righteously (Ch. 7).
- Promises of future blessing, restoration, and God's presence (Ch. 8).

2. Prophecies of the Messiah and the End Times (Chapters 9–14)

- The coming of the humble King riding on a donkey (9:9).
- The Shepherd struck and the sheep scattered (13:7).
- The final triumph of the Lord and His reign over all the earth (Ch. 14).

Major Themes

- The Lord Remembers – God is faithful to His promises and His covenant people.
- The Power of the Spirit – God's work is accomplished not by human strength but by His Spirit.
- The Coming Messiah – Prophecies of Christ's first and second coming are woven throughout.
- Hope and Restoration – God restores His people, His city, and His temple.

- The Day of the Lord – Zechariah points forward to God’s final judgment and ultimate reign.

Why Zechariah Matters Today

Zechariah is one of the most Christ-centered books of the Old Testament, often quoted in the New Testament. It reminds us that:

- God remembers His people and His promises, even in discouraging times.
- The Messiah has come in humility (Jesus’ triumphal entry, Matthew 21:5) and will come again in glory.
- God’s kingdom will ultimately triumph, bringing peace and restoration to all who belong to Him.
- Believers today are called to live in hope, looking forward to Christ’s return.

Key Verse

“Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of hosts.” – Zechariah 4:6

This verse captures the heart of Zechariah’s message: God’s purposes are not achieved through human strength, but through His Spirit working in and through His people.

Zechariah 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“A Call to Return and Visions of Hope”

A Call to Return to the Lord

1 In the eighth month of the second year of Darius, the word of the Lord came to Zechariah son of Berechiah, the grandson of Iddo the prophet.

2 The Lord was very angry with your ancestors.

3 Therefore tell the people: “This is what the Lord Almighty says: Return to Me, and I will return to you,” declares the Lord Almighty.

4 “Do not be like your ancestors, to whom the earlier prophets proclaimed, ‘Turn from your evil ways and your evil deeds.’ But they would not listen or pay attention to Me,” declares the Lord.

5 “Where are your ancestors now? And the prophets—do they live forever?”

6 But My words and decrees, which I commanded My servants the prophets, overtook your ancestors. And they repented and said, ‘The Lord Almighty has done to us what our ways and deeds deserved, just as He determined to do.’”

The Vision of the Horses Among the Myrtle Trees

7 On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, the month of Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of the Lord came to the prophet Zechariah son of Berechiah, the grandson of Iddo.

8 During the night I had a vision, and there before me was a man riding a red horse. He was standing among the myrtle trees in a ravine. Behind him were red, brown, and white horses.

9 I asked, “My lord, what are these?”

The angel who was talking with me answered, “I will show you what they are.”

10 The man standing among the myrtle trees explained, “These are the ones the Lord has sent to go throughout the earth.”

11 And they reported to the angel of the Lord, who was standing among the myrtle trees: “We have gone throughout the earth and found the whole world at rest and in peace.”

12 Then the angel of the Lord said, “Lord Almighty, how long will You withhold mercy from Jerusalem and the towns of Judah, which You have been angry with these seventy years?”

13 So the Lord spoke kind and comforting words to the angel who talked with me.

14 Then the angel said to me, “Proclaim this message: This is what the Lord Almighty says: I am very jealous for Jerusalem and Zion,

15 and I am very angry with the nations that feel secure. I was only a little angry, but they added to the calamity.

16 Therefore this is what the Lord says: I have returned to Jerusalem with mercy, and My house will be rebuilt there. The measuring line will be stretched out over Jerusalem,” declares the Lord Almighty.

17 “Proclaim further: This is what the Lord Almighty says: My towns will again overflow with prosperity, and the Lord will again comfort Zion and choose Jerusalem.”

The Vision of the Four Horns and Four Craftsmen

18 Then I looked up, and there before me were four horns.

19 I asked the angel who was speaking to me, “What are these?”

He answered, “These are the horns that scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.”

20 Then the Lord showed me four craftsmen.

21 I asked, “What are they coming to do?”

He answered, “These are the horns that scattered Judah so that no one could raise their head. But the craftsmen have come to terrify them and throw down these horns of the nations who lifted themselves up against the land of Judah to scatter its people.”

Key Lessons from Zechariah 1

- Return to God and He will return to you – God calls His people to repentance and promises His presence to those who turn back.
- God’s Word always stands – Prophets and people pass away, but God’s decrees are fulfilled.

- God sees the whole earth – His messengers go throughout the world and report back that He rules over all.
- God is merciful to His people – Though He was angry, His compassion brings restoration and blessing.
- God’s house will be rebuilt – The temple in Jerusalem is a sign of His presence and His plan for peace.
- Enemies will be broken – The nations that oppress God’s people will be overthrown by His power.

Zechariah 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Jerusalem Without Walls and God’s Dwelling Among His People”

The Man with the Measuring Line

1 Then I looked up and saw a man with a measuring line in his hand.

2 I asked him, “Where are you going?”

He replied, “To measure Jerusalem, to see how wide and how long it is.”

3 Then the angel who was speaking with me went out, and another angel came to meet him,

4 and said, “Run and tell that young man: ‘Jerusalem will be a city without walls because of the great number of people and livestock in it.

5 For I will be a wall of fire around her,’ declares the Lord, ‘and I will be the glory within her.’”

A Call to Flee and Be Delivered

6 “Come! Come! Flee from the land of the north,” declares the Lord, “for I have scattered you to the four winds of heaven.”

7 “Come, Zion! Escape, you who live with the daughter of Babylon.”

8 For this is what the Lord Almighty says: “After the Glorious One has sent Me against the nations that have plundered you—for whoever touches you touches the apple of His eye—

9 I will surely raise My hand against them so that their slaves will plunder them. Then you will know that the Lord Almighty has sent Me.”

God’s Promise to Dwell with His People

10 “Shout and be glad, Daughter Zion. For I am coming, and I will live among you,” declares the Lord.

11 “Many nations will be joined with the Lord in that day and will become My people. I will live among you and you will know that the Lord Almighty has sent Me to you.

12 The Lord will inherit Judah as His portion in the holy land and will again choose Jerusalem.
13 Be still before the Lord, all mankind, because He has risen from His holy dwelling.”

Key Lessons from Zechariah 2

- God Himself protects His people – Jerusalem did not need physical walls; the Lord promised to be a wall of fire around them.
- God’s glory dwells within His people – His presence in the midst of Jerusalem gave them identity and strength.
- God calls His people out of bondage – Just as He called Israel out of Babylon, He calls His people today to leave sin and captivity.
- God’s people are precious to Him – Whoever harms them touches the “apple of His eye.”
- Nations will join the Lord – His plan extends beyond Israel, welcoming people from every nation to be His own.
- Silence before the Lord – When God arises to act, all the earth must stand in awe of His power and holiness.

Zechariah 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Joshua Cleansed and the Coming Branch”

Joshua Before the Angel of the Lord

1 Then the Lord showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the Lord, and Satan was standing at his right hand to accuse him.

2 The Lord said to Satan, “The Lord rebuke you, Satan! The Lord, who has chosen Jerusalem, rebuke you! Is not this man like a burning stick snatched from the fire?”

3 Now Joshua was clothed in filthy garments as he stood before the angel.

4 The angel said to those standing by, “Take off his filthy clothes.” Then he said to Joshua, “See, I have taken away your sin, and I will clothe you with fine garments.”

5 I said, “Put a clean turban on his head.” So they put a clean turban on his head and clothed him, while the angel of the Lord stood by.

God’s Charge and Promise to Joshua

6 The angel of the Lord gave this solemn command to Joshua:

7 “This is what the Lord Almighty says: If you walk in My ways and keep My charge, then you will govern My house and have charge of My courts, and I will give you a place among those standing here.”

8 “Listen, High Priest Joshua, you and your associates sitting before you, who are symbolic of things to come: I am going to bring My servant, the Branch.

9 See, the stone I have set before Joshua! There are seven eyes on that one stone, and I will engrave an inscription on it,” declares the Lord Almighty, “and I will remove the sin of this land in a single day.”

10 “In that day each of you will invite your neighbor to sit under your vine and fig tree,” declares the Lord Almighty.

Key Lessons from Zechariah 3

- Satan accuses, but God defends – Joshua stood accused, but the Lord rebuked Satan and declared His choice of Jerusalem.
- God removes sin and restores righteousness – The filthy garments represented guilt, and God replaced them with clean robes, a picture of forgiveness.
- Obedience leads to responsibility – God promised Joshua authority in His house if he walked faithfully.
- The Branch points to Christ – God’s servant, the Branch, is the promised Messiah who would bring lasting salvation.
- A day of complete forgiveness – God declared that in one day the sins of the land would be removed—fulfilled in the sacrifice of Christ.
- Peace and fellowship follow restoration – The picture of sitting under the vine and fig tree shows security, blessing, and unity under God’s rule.

Zechariah 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Golden Lampstand and God’s Spirit”

The Vision of the Golden Lampstand

1 Then the angel who talked with me came back and woke me, as one is awakened from sleep.

2 He asked me, “What do you see?”

I replied, “I see a solid gold lampstand with a bowl on top, and seven lamps on it, with seven pipes to the lamps.

3 There are also two olive trees by it, one on the right side of the bowl and the other on the left.”

4 I asked the angel who talked with me, “What are these, my lord?”

5 He answered, “Don’t you know what these are?”

And I said, “No, my lord.”

Not by Might, but by My Spirit

6 So he said to me, “This is the word of the Lord to Zerubbabel: ‘Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit,’ says the Lord Almighty.

7 What are you, mighty mountain? Before Zerubbabel you will become level ground. Then he will bring out the capstone to shouts of ‘Grace, grace to it!’”

8 Then the word of the Lord came to me, saying:

9 “The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house, and his hands will also complete it. Then you will know that the Lord Almighty has sent me to you.”

10 “Who dares despise the day of small things? These seven—the eyes of the Lord that range throughout the earth—will rejoice when they see the plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel.”

The Two Olive Trees

11 Then I asked the angel, “What are these two olive trees on the right and the left of the lampstand?”

12 And again I asked, “What are these two olive branches that pour out golden oil through two golden pipes?”

13 He replied, “Don’t you know what these are?”

I said, “No, my lord.”

14 So he said, “These are the two anointed ones who stand beside the Lord of the whole earth.”

Key Lessons from Zechariah 4

- God’s work is done by His Spirit – Success in building the temple was not through human strength but through God’s Spirit.
- Obstacles become nothing before God – Mountains of opposition are leveled when God empowers His servants.
- God finishes what He starts – Zerubbabel, who began the temple, would also complete it by the Lord’s promise.
- Do not despise small beginnings – What seems small to people is precious in God’s sight when done in faith.
- God sees all – His eyes range throughout the whole earth, watching over His people and their work.
- The anointed ones – The two olive trees symbolize God’s appointed servants, channels of His Spirit, pointing to His continual provision for His people.

Zechariah 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Flying Scroll and the Basket of Wickedness”

The Flying Scroll – Judgment on Sin

1 Then I looked up again, and I saw a flying scroll.

2 The angel asked me, “What do you see?”

I answered, “I see a flying scroll, twenty cubits long and ten cubits wide.”

3 He said to me, “This is the curse that goes out over the whole land. On one side, it condemns everyone who steals; on the other side, it condemns everyone who swears falsely.

4 The Lord Almighty declares: ‘I will send it out, and it will enter the house of the thief and of the one who swears falsely by My name. It will remain in that house and destroy it completely—its wood and stones alike.’”

The Woman in the Basket – Wickedness Removed

5 Then the angel who talked with me came forward and said, “Look up and see what is coming.”

6 I asked, “What is it?”

He replied, “It is a measuring basket (an ephah). This is the sin of the people throughout the land.”

7 Then the lead cover was lifted, and there sat a woman inside the basket.

8 He said, “This is Wickedness,” and he forced her back into the basket and pushed the lead cover over its opening.

9 Then I looked up and saw two women flying with the wind in their wings. They had wings like those of a stork, and they lifted up the basket between earth and heaven.

10 I asked the angel, “Where are they taking the basket?”

11 He replied, “To the land of Shinar, to build a house for it. When it is ready, the basket will be set there in its place.”

Key Lessons from Zechariah 5

- God’s Word brings judgment – The flying scroll represents God’s curse against sin, showing His Word exposes and condemns wrongdoing.
- Sin cannot be hidden – Theft, lies, and false oaths will bring destruction into people’s homes if not repented of.
- Wickedness is restrained by God – The woman in the basket personifies sin, showing God will contain and remove it from His people.
- God removes evil from His people – Wickedness is carried away to Shinar (Babylon), symbolizing God’s plan to separate sin from His holy city.

- Judgment is as certain as mercy – Just as God promises blessing and restoration, He also assures the removal and destruction of evil.

Zechariah 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Four Chariots and the Crown of the Branch”

The Four Chariots – God’s Spirits Sent Out

1 I looked up again and saw four chariots coming out from between two bronze mountains.

2 The first chariot had red horses, the second had black horses,

3 the third had white horses, and the fourth had dappled horses—all strong.

4 I asked the angel who was speaking with me, “What are these, my lord?”

5 He replied, “These are the four spirits of heaven, going out from standing before the Lord of all the earth.

6 The chariot with the black horses goes toward the north country, the white follow after them, and the dappled go toward the south.”

7 The strong horses went out, eager to patrol the earth. And He said, “Go, walk to and fro throughout the earth.” So they did.

8 Then the angel called out to me, “Look, those going toward the north have quieted My Spirit in the north country.”

The Crowning of Joshua – A Picture of the Branch

9 The word of the Lord came to me:

10 “Take silver and gold from the exiles Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah, who have come from Babylon. Go the same day to the house of Josiah son of Zephaniah.

11 Make a crown from the silver and gold and place it on the head of Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest.

12 Tell him, ‘This is what the Lord of Hosts says: Here is the man called The Branch. He will branch out from where He is and will build the temple of the Lord.

13 He will build the temple of the Lord, He will receive honor, and He will sit and rule on His throne. He will also be a priest on His throne, and there will be perfect harmony between the two.’

14 The crown will be kept in the temple of the Lord as a memorial to Heldai, Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Hen son of Zephaniah.

15 Those who are far away will come and help build the temple of the Lord, and you will know that the Lord of Hosts has sent me to you. This will happen if you carefully obey the voice of the Lord your God.”

Key Lessons from Zechariah 6

- God governs the nations – The four chariots symbolize the Lord’s heavenly agents carrying out His purposes across the earth.
- God’s Spirit brings peace – His justice and authority bring quiet to troubled regions.
- The Branch points to Christ – Joshua the high priest foreshadows Jesus, the true Branch, who will build the spiritual temple.
- Christ is both King and Priest – He rules on the throne and intercedes for His people, uniting authority with mercy.
- Obedience unlocks blessing – The promise of participation in God’s work depends on listening to His voice.
- God includes the nations – Those far off will join in building His temple, pointing to the gathering of the Gentiles into His kingdom.

Zechariah 7 – Crawford Standard Bible

“True Fasting and Obedience”

A Question About Fasting

1 In the fourth year of King Darius, on the fourth day of the ninth month, the month of Kislev, the word of the Lord came to Zechariah.

2 The people of Bethel sent Sherezer and Regem-Melech with their men to seek the Lord’s favor,

3 by asking the priests of the house of the Lord Almighty and the prophets: “Should we keep mourning and fasting in the fifth month, as we have done for many years?”

God’s Response to Empty Rituals

4 Then the word of the Lord Almighty came to me:

5 “Tell all the people of the land and the priests: When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh months for seventy years, was it really for Me that you fasted?

6 And when you eat and drink, are you not doing it simply for yourselves?

7 Should you not have listened to the words proclaimed by the earlier prophets when Jerusalem was prosperous and full of people, with its towns around it, and when the Negev and the western foothills were still inhabited?”

The Call for Justice and Mercy

8 Again the word of the Lord came to Zechariah:

9 “This is what the Lord Almighty says: Administer true justice. Show mercy and compassion to one another.

10 Do not oppress the widow, the fatherless, the foreigner, or the poor. Do not plot evil against one another in your hearts.”

Israel’s Hard-Hearted Rebellion

11 But they refused to pay attention. They stubbornly turned their backs and covered their ears.

12 They made their hearts as hard as stone and would not listen to the law or to the words the Lord Almighty had sent by His Spirit through the earlier prophets. So the Lord Almighty was very angry.

13 “When I called, they would not listen; so when they called, I would not listen,” says the Lord Almighty.

14 “I scattered them with a whirlwind among nations they did not know. The land they left behind was so desolate that no one traveled through it. They turned the pleasant land into a wilderness.”

Key Lessons from Zechariah 7

- Ritual without sincerity is empty – God asks whether the fasts were really for Him or just for self-pity.
- True religion is relational – Justice, mercy, and compassion toward others matter more than outward ceremonies.
- God cares for the vulnerable – The widow, orphan, foreigner, and poor are always on His heart.
- Disobedience hardens the heart – Israel’s refusal to listen brought judgment and scattering among the nations.
- God answers silence with silence – When people ignored His voice, He refused to hear theirs.
- Sin devastates the land – Rebellion doesn’t just affect people; it leaves even the land barren and broken.

Zechariah 8 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Restoration, Truth, and Peace in Jerusalem”

God’s Jealous Love for Zion

1 Again the word of the Lord Almighty came to me, saying:

2 “This is what the Lord Almighty says: I am zealous for Zion with great passion, and I am very angry on her behalf.

3 I have returned to Zion and will dwell in Jerusalem. Jerusalem will be called the City of Truth, and the mountain of the Lord Almighty will be called the Holy Mountain.”

A Vision of Peace and Prosperity

4 The Lord Almighty says: “Once again old men and women will sit in the streets of Jerusalem, each leaning on a staff because of their age.

5 The streets of the city will be filled with boys and girls playing there.

6 Though this may seem impossible to the remnant of this people in those days, is it too hard for Me?” declares the Lord Almighty.

God Will Gather His People

7 “I will save My people from the lands of the east and the west.

8 I will bring them back to live in Jerusalem. They will be My people, and I will be their God in truth and righteousness.”

Strength to Rebuild

9 The Lord Almighty says: “Take courage, you who hear these words today from the prophets who spoke when the foundation of the house of the Lord was laid, so that the temple might be rebuilt.

10 Before that time there was no work for people or animals. No one could go about their business safely because of conflict, for I had set everyone against their neighbor.

11 But now I will not treat the remnant of this people as I did before,” declares the Lord Almighty.

A Time of Blessing

12 “The seed will grow well, the vine will give its fruit, the ground will yield its crops, and the heavens will send their dew. I will give all these blessings to the remnant of this people.

13 Just as you were once a curse among the nations, O Judah and Israel, so I will save you, and you will become a blessing. Do not be afraid, but take courage.”

God’s Call to Truth and Justice

14 The Lord Almighty says: “Just as I was determined to punish you when your fathers angered Me and I did not relent, 15 so now I am determined to do good again to Jerusalem and Judah. Do not be afraid.

16 These are the things you must do: Speak the truth to one another, render true and sound judgment in your courts, 17 do not plot evil against each other, and do not love to swear falsely. For I hate all these things,” declares the Lord.

Fasts Turned into Feasts

18 The word of the Lord Almighty came to me again:

19 “The fasts of the fourth, fifth, seventh, and tenth months will become joyful and glad occasions and happy festivals for Judah. Therefore, love truth and peace.”

Nations Will Seek the Lord

20 The Lord Almighty says: “Many peoples and the inhabitants of many cities will yet come.

21 The people of one city will go to another and say, ‘Let us go at once to seek the Lord Almighty and to pray before Him.’ And they will reply, ‘I will go also.’

22 Many peoples and powerful nations will come to Jerusalem to seek the Lord Almighty and to pray before Him.”

God’s Presence with His People

23 The Lord Almighty says: “In those days ten men from every language and nation will take firm hold of one Jew by the hem of his robe and say, ‘We will go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.’”

Key Lessons from Zechariah 8

- God’s passion for His people is unstoppable – He burns with zeal to protect and restore Zion.
- Peace and joy will return – Children playing in the streets symbolize safety, life, and hope.
- God gathers from every corner – He redeems His people from east and west to dwell in His presence.
- Restoration follows obedience – The remnant is called to take courage and build God’s house.
- True faith shows in justice and mercy – Truth, fairness, and compassion matter more than ritual.
- God turns fasting into feasting – Mourning gives way to joy when His presence fills His people.
- Nations will be drawn to the Lord – The testimony of God’s people will cause many to seek Him, knowing that “God is with you.”

Zechariah 9 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Coming King and the Salvation of Zion”

Judgment on the Nations

1 The burden of the word of the Lord is upon the land of Hadrach, and Damascus is its resting place, for the eyes of all people—and of all the tribes of Israel—are toward the Lord.

2 Hamath also will share this judgment, and Tyre and Sidon, though they are very wise.

3 Tyre built herself a stronghold, heaping up silver like dust and gold like the dirt of the streets.

4 But the Lord will dispossess her and strike her power in the sea; she will be consumed by fire.

5 Ashkelon will see it and be afraid; Gaza will writhe in sorrow, and Ekron's hope will wither. The king will perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon will be left uninhabited.

6 A foreigner will occupy Ashdod, and the pride of the Philistines will be cut off.

7 I will remove the blood from their mouths and their detestable things from between their teeth. Those who remain will belong to our God and become leaders in Judah, and Ekron will be like the Jebusites.

God Protects His House

8 “I will encamp around My house to guard it against marauding forces. No oppressor will march through My people again, for now I Myself have seen it with My eyes.”

The Coming King of Peace

9 Rejoice greatly, daughter of Zion! Shout, daughter of Jerusalem! See, your King comes to you, righteous and victorious, yet humble and riding on a donkey—on a colt, the foal of a donkey.

10 I will remove the chariots from Ephraim and the warhorses from Jerusalem, and the battle bow will be broken. He will proclaim peace to the nations. His rule will extend from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.

Deliverance for Prisoners of Hope

11 As for you, because of the blood of My covenant with you, I will free your prisoners from the waterless pit.

12 Return to your stronghold, you prisoners of hope; even now I announce that I will restore twice as much to you.

13 For I will bend Judah as My bow and fill it with Ephraim. I will rouse your sons, Zion, against your sons, Greece, and wield you like a warrior's sword.

The Lord's Victory and Salvation

14 Then the Lord will appear over them; His arrow will flash like lightning. The Sovereign Lord will sound the trumpet and march in the storms of the south.

15 The Lord Almighty will shield them. They will destroy and overcome with sling stones. They will drink and roar as with wine, they will be filled like a sacrificial bowl, like the corners of the altar.

16 The Lord their God will save His people on that day as the Shepherd saves His flock. They will sparkle in His land like jewels in a crown.

17 How great is His goodness, and how great His beauty! Grain will make the young men thrive, and new wine the young women.

Key Lessons from Zechariah 9

- God brings down human pride – Wealth, fortresses, and armies cannot stand against Him.
- The Messiah is revealed – Jesus fulfilled this prophecy, coming humbly on a donkey (Matthew 21:5).
- True peace comes through God’s King – Not by war or power, but by His righteousness and salvation.
- Hope for the captives – God sets prisoners free and restores more than what was lost.
- God fights for His people – He Himself defends them with power and gives them victory.
- The beauty of the Lord blesses His people – His goodness produces abundance, joy, and strength.

Zechariah 10 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Lord Strengthens and Restores His People”

God Sends the Rain

1 Ask the Lord for rain in the season of the spring rains. The Lord makes the storm clouds and gives showers of rain to all people, so that every field produces grass.

2 The idols speak lies, the fortune-tellers see false visions, and they tell deceitful dreams. Their comfort is worthless. That is why the people wander like sheep, troubled and helpless, because they have no shepherd.

God’s Anger Against False Shepherds

3 “My anger burns against the shepherds, and I will punish the leaders. For the Lord Almighty will care for His flock, the people of Judah, and make them like His proud warhorse in battle.

4 From Judah will come the cornerstone, the tent peg, the battle bow, and every ruler.

5 Together they will be like mighty warriors who trample their enemies in the mud of the streets in battle. They will fight because the Lord is with them, and their enemies on horses will be put to shame.”

God's Restoration of Judah and Israel

6 “I will strengthen Judah and save the descendants of Joseph. I will bring them back because I have compassion on them. It will be as though I had never rejected them, for I am the Lord their God, and I will answer them.

7 The people of Ephraim will become like mighty warriors, and their hearts will rejoice as if from wine. Their children will see it and be glad; their hearts will rejoice in the Lord.

8 I will whistle for them and gather them in, for I have redeemed them. They will be as numerous as before.

9 Though I scatter them among the nations, they will remember Me in faraway places. They and their children will live and return.

God's Deliverance

10 I will bring them back from Egypt and gather them out of Assyria. I will bring them to Gilead and Lebanon, until there is no more room for them.

11 They will pass through the sea of trouble; the waves will be struck down and the depths of the Nile will dry up. The pride of Assyria will be humbled, and the power of Egypt will fall.

12 I will strengthen My people in the Lord, and they will walk in My name,” declares the Lord.

Key Lessons from Zechariah 10

- Seek God for blessing – Rain and provision come from Him, not from idols or false prophets.
- God opposes false leaders – He rebukes unfaithful shepherds and raises up true strength for His people.
- Christ is the cornerstone – From Judah comes the cornerstone, a prophecy fulfilled in Jesus (Ephesians 2:20).
- God restores with compassion – He treats His people as if they had never been rejected.
- The scattered will return – God's people, even in far nations, will remember Him and be gathered back.
- Victory over enemies – God Himself humbles the powers of Assyria and Egypt, representing all human pride.
- Strength in His name – True power and endurance come only from walking in the Lord.

Zechariah 11 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Rejected Shepherd and the Broken Covenant”

Judgment on the Land

1 Open your doors, Lebanon, so that fire may devour your cedars.

2 Wail, cypress tree, for the cedar has fallen, the mighty are ruined! Wail, oaks of Bashan, for the dense forest has been cut down.

3 Listen! The shepherds are crying because their glory is ruined. Listen! The lions are roaring because the lush thickets of the Jordan are destroyed.

The Flock Doomed for Slaughter

4 This is what the Lord my God says: “Shepherd the flock marked for slaughter.

5 Their buyers kill them and go unpunished; those who sell them say, ‘Praise the Lord, I am rich!’ Even their own shepherds have no pity on them.

6 For I will no longer have compassion on the people of this land,” declares the Lord. “I will hand everyone over to their neighbors and their king. They will devastate the land, and I will not rescue them from their power.”

The Two Staffs

7 So I shepherded the flock marked for slaughter, especially the poor and oppressed of the flock. I took two staffs and named one Favor and the other Union, and I shepherded the flock.

8 In one month I got rid of three shepherds. The flock hated me, and I grew weary of them.

9 So I said, “I will not be your shepherd. Let the dying die, the perishing perish, and let those who remain eat one another’s flesh.”

The Broken Covenant

10 Then I took my staff called Favor and broke it, revoking the covenant I had made with all the nations.

11 It was broken that day, and the poor of the flock who were watching me knew it was the word of the Lord.

12 I said to them, “If you think it best, give me my wages; but if not, keep them.” So they paid me thirty pieces of silver.

13 And the Lord said to me, “Throw it to the potter—the magnificent price at which they valued me!” So I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw them into the house of the Lord, to the potter.

14 Then I broke my second staff called Union, breaking the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

The Foolish Shepherd

15 Then the Lord said to me, “Take once more the equipment of a foolish shepherd.

16 For I am raising up a shepherd in the land who will not care for the lost, or seek the young, or heal the injured, or feed the healthy. Instead, he will eat the meat of the fat sheep and tear off their hooves. 17 Woe to the worthless shepherd who abandons the flock! May the sword strike his arm and his right eye! His arm will be completely withered, and his right eye totally blinded.”

Key Lessons from Zechariah 11

- Judgment is inevitable – The fall of Lebanon, Bashan, and Jordan shows how God’s judgment reaches every corner.
- Corrupt shepherds exploit the flock – Leaders grew rich at the expense of the weak, caring nothing for them.
- God’s covenant broken – The breaking of the staff Favor symbolizes judgment, while Union shows division between Judah and Israel.
- Christ foreshadowed – The thirty pieces of silver cast to the potter points directly to Judas’s betrayal of Jesus (Matthew 27:9–10).
- False shepherds exposed – God condemns foolish and worthless leaders who feed themselves instead of caring for the flock.
- The true Shepherd rejected – This chapter foreshadows how Israel rejected Christ, the Good Shepherd, yet through Him comes redemption for the faithful.

Zechariah 12 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Jerusalem: A Cup of Trembling and a Fountain of Grace”

God’s Power and Jerusalem’s Destiny

1 This is the prophecy of the Lord concerning Israel. The Lord—the one who stretches out the heavens, lays the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit of man within him—declares:

2 “I will make Jerusalem like a cup of trembling for all the surrounding nations. When they lay siege against Judah and Jerusalem, they themselves will stagger.

3 On that day, I will make Jerusalem an immovable stone for all the nations. Anyone who tries to lift it will injure themselves, though all the nations of the earth gather against it.”

God Strikes the Nations, Strengthens His People

4 “On that day,” declares the Lord, “I will strike every horse with panic and its rider with madness. But I will watch over Judah, while striking the horses of the nations with blindness.

5 The leaders of Judah will say in their hearts, ‘The people of Jerusalem are strong because the Lord Almighty is their God.’

6 On that day I will make the governors of Judah like a firepot in a woodpile, like a flaming torch among sheaves. They will consume all the surrounding peoples on the right and on the left, but Jerusalem will remain secure in her place.”

The Glory of David and God’s Protection

7 The Lord will save the tents of Judah first, so that the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem will not think themselves greater than Judah.

8 On that day, the Lord will defend the people of Jerusalem. The weakest among them will be like David, and the house of David will be like God, like the angel of the Lord going before them.

9 On that day I will set out to destroy all the nations that attack Jerusalem.

The Pierced One and National Mourning

10 “And I will pour out on the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem a spirit of grace and prayer. They will look on me, the one they have pierced, and they will mourn for him as one mourns for an only son. They will grieve bitterly for him, as one grieves for a firstborn.

11 On that day the mourning in Jerusalem will be as great as the mourning at Hadadrimmon in the plain of Megiddo.

12 The land will mourn, each clan by itself—with the clan of David and their wives, the clan of Nathan and their wives,

13 the clan of Levi and their wives, the clan of Shimei and their wives,

14 and all the remaining clans, each with their wives.”

Key Lessons from Zechariah 12

- Jerusalem at the center – God declares Jerusalem will be a stumbling block and cup of trembling to the nations.
- The Lord protects His people – Even the weakest among God’s people will become strong, like David.
- The pierced one foretold – This prophecy foreshadows Christ’s crucifixion (John 19:37), where Israel would “look upon Him whom they pierced.”
- Deep mourning leads to repentance – The people’s grief symbolizes recognition of sin and the need for redemption.
- God’s Spirit of grace – Restoration comes only through the Spirit poured out by the Lord, bringing prayer, repentance, and hope.

Zechariah 13 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Fountain of Cleansing and the Refining Fire”

A Fountain for Cleansing

1 On that day a fountain will be opened for the house of David and the people of Jerusalem, to cleanse them from sin and impurity.

Idols and False Prophets Removed

2 “On that day,” declares the Lord of hosts, “I will remove the names of the idols from the land, and they will never again be remembered. I will also banish the false prophets and the unclean spirit from the land.

3 If anyone still claims to prophesy, even his own father and mother who bore him will say, ‘You must die, because you speak lies in the name of the Lord.’ And they will pierce him through when he prophesies.

4 On that day, every prophet will be ashamed of their visions. They will no longer wear a prophet’s garment to deceive.

5 Instead, each will say, ‘I am not a prophet. I am a farmer; the land has been my livelihood since my youth.’

6 If someone asks him, ‘What are these wounds on your hands?’ he will answer, ‘I was wounded in the house of my friends.’”

The Struck Shepherd and Scattered Sheep

7 “Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, against the man who is close to me!” declares the Lord of hosts.

“Strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered, and I will turn my hand against the little ones.”

The Remnant Refined

8 “In all the land,” declares the Lord, “two-thirds will be cut off and perish, but one-third will be left in it.

9 I will bring this third through the fire; I will refine them like silver and test them like gold. They will call on my name, and I will answer them. I will say, ‘They are my people,’ and they will say, ‘The Lord is our God.’”

Key Lessons from Zechariah 13

- God provides cleansing – The fountain represents forgiveness and cleansing through the blood of Christ (John 19:34; 1 John 1:7).
- Idolatry and false prophecy end – God promises a day when lies and deception will be removed, pointing to His kingdom of truth.
- The Shepherd struck – This prophecy is fulfilled in Christ (Matthew 26:31), the Good Shepherd who was struck, causing His disciples to scatter.
- A refined remnant – God allows trials to purify His people, like silver and gold in fire. Suffering prepares them for holiness and eternal fellowship with Him.
- A covenant renewed – The final declaration, “They are my people” ... “The Lord is our God,” echoes the eternal covenant relationship between God and His people.

Zechariah 14 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Day of the Lord and His Eternal Reign”

The Day of the Lord Declared

1 Behold, the day of the Lord is coming, when your plunder will be divided in your midst.
2 For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem for battle. The city will be taken, the houses plundered, and the women violated. Half the city will go into captivity, but the rest of the people will not be cut off from the city.

The Lord Fights for Jerusalem

3 Then the Lord will go out and fight against those nations, just as He has in the days of battle.
4 On that day His feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, east of Jerusalem, and the Mount of Olives will split in two from east to west, forming a great valley, with half of the mountain moving north and the other half south.
5 You will flee by the valley of My mountains, for it will reach to Azal. You will flee as you fled from the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. Then the Lord my God will come, and all His holy ones with Him.

The Unique Day of the Lord

6 On that day, there will be neither bright light nor total darkness.
7 It will be a unique day—known only to the Lord—with no distinction between day and night. When evening comes, there will be light.

Living Waters and the Lord's Reign

8 On that day, living waters will flow out from Jerusalem, half toward the eastern sea and half toward the western sea, in both summer and winter.

9 The Lord will be King over all the earth. On that day there will be one Lord, and His name alone will be worshiped.

Jerusalem Restored and Secure

10 The land from Geba to Rimmon, south of Jerusalem, will become a plain. But Jerusalem will be raised up and inhabited in its place, from the Benjamin Gate to the First Gate, to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the king's winepresses.

11 It will be inhabited; never again will it be destroyed. Jerusalem will be secure.

The Plague on the Nations

12 This is the plague with which the Lord will strike all the nations that fought against Jerusalem: Their flesh will rot while they are still standing, their eyes will decay in their sockets, and their tongues will rot in their mouths.

13 On that day, panic from the Lord will cause them to seize each other by the hand, and neighbor will fight against neighbor.

14 Judah will also fight at Jerusalem. The wealth of all the surrounding nations will be gathered—gold, silver, and clothing in great abundance.

15 A plague will strike the horses, mules, camels, donkeys, and all the animals in their camps, just as it struck the people.

All Nations Worship the King

16 Then the survivors from all the nations that attacked Jerusalem will go up year after year to worship the King, the Lord of hosts, and to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles.

17 If any of the families of the earth do not go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the Lord of hosts, they will have no rain.

18 If the people of Egypt do not go up and take part, they will face the plague that the Lord inflicts on all the nations who refuse to keep the Feast of Tabernacles.

19 This will be the punishment of Egypt and of all nations that refuse to go up to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles.

Holiness to the Lord

20 On that day, the bells of the horses will bear the inscription: “Holiness to the Lord.” The cooking pots in the Lord’s house will be as holy as the sacred bowls before the altar.

21 Indeed, every pot in Jerusalem and Judah will be holy to the Lord of hosts. All who sacrifice will come and use them for cooking. And on that day, there will no longer be a Canaanite in the house of the Lord of hosts.

Key Lessons from Zechariah 14

- The Lord defends His people – Though the nations unite against Jerusalem, God Himself fights for His people and ensures their survival.
- Christ’s visible return – The Mount of Olives splitting points prophetically to the second coming of Christ (Acts 1:11–12).
- Living waters – A picture of life and healing flowing from God’s presence, fulfilled in Christ (John 7:38; Revelation 22:1).
- Universal worship – All nations will one day bow before the Lord, celebrating His rule in righteousness.
- Holiness everywhere – Even ordinary objects will be dedicated to the Lord, showing that His holiness will cover every aspect of life.

Introduction to the Book of Malachi

“For I am the Lord, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.” – Malachi 3:6

Title and Meaning

The name Malachi comes from the Hebrew Mal’ākhî, meaning “my messenger.” This is fitting, as the prophet was God’s messenger to His people, calling them to renewed faithfulness after their return from exile. Some scholars suggest Malachi might even be a title rather than a personal name, but tradition treats it as the name of the prophet. The book is the final word of prophecy in the Old Testament before the 400 years of silence leading up to John the Baptist.

Author and Date

Malachi ministered to the people of Judah likely around 430–420 BC, during the time of Nehemiah’s leadership. The temple had already been rebuilt (516 BC), but the people had grown careless in worship, unfaithful in marriage, and doubtful of God’s justice. Malachi’s words rebuked their complacency and pointed them toward the coming of the Messiah.

Purpose of Malachi

The book was written to confront spiritual apathy and to call God's people to covenant faithfulness. Its purposes include:

- Rebuking priests for corrupt worship and dishonoring sacrifices.
- Confronting the people's sins of divorce, idolatry, and injustice.
- Reminding Israel of God's unchanging love and faithfulness.
- Pointing forward to the coming of God's messenger (John the Baptist) and the Messiah (Jesus Christ).

Structure of Malachi

Malachi is arranged as a series of disputations (arguments between God and His people), where God makes a charge, the people question it, and God responds with proof:

- 1 God's Love and Israel's Doubt (1:1–5)
- 2 Corrupt Priests and Worthless Sacrifices (1:6–2:9)
- 3 Faithlessness in Marriage and Covenant (2:10–16)
- 4 Questioning God's Justice (2:17–3:6)
- 5 Robbing God in Tithes and Offerings (3:7–12)
- 6 The Coming Day of the Lord (3:13–4:6)

Major Themes

- God's Unchanging Love – Despite Israel's unfaithfulness, God remains faithful.
- True Worship Matters – God rejects half-hearted sacrifices and demands reverence.
- Faithfulness in Relationships – Covenant loyalty includes honoring marriage.
- God's Justice – He sees injustice and will act in His time.
- The Day of the Lord – Malachi points forward to judgment and ultimate restoration.
- The Coming Messenger – A prophecy of John the Baptist preparing the way for Christ.

Why Malachi Matters Today

Malachi's message speaks powerfully to believers now:

- God calls us away from spiritual apathy into wholehearted devotion.
- Worship must be sincere, not routine or careless.
- God's people are to reflect His faithfulness in their relationships and stewardship.
- Malachi bridges the Old and New Testaments, preparing the way for Jesus Christ.

Key Verse

“But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.” – Malachi 4:2

This verse points to the hope of the Messiah, who brings healing, righteousness, and joy to those who fear the Lord.

Malachi 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“God’s Love, Israel’s Failure”

God’s Love Declared

1 The burden of the word of the Lord to Israel through Malachi.

2 “I have loved you,” says the Lord. Yet you say, “How have You loved us?” Was not Esau Jacob’s brother? declares the Lord. Yet I loved Jacob,

3 but Esau I hated. I made his mountains a wasteland and left his inheritance for the jackals of the wilderness.

4 Though Edom says, “We are shattered, but we will rebuild the ruins,” this is what the Lord of hosts says: “They may build, but I will tear down. They will be called the Wicked Land, the people against whom the Lord is angry forever.”

5 You will see it with your own eyes and say, “Great is the Lord—even beyond the borders of Israel!”

Dishonoring the Lord’s Name

6 “A son honors his father, and a servant his master. If then I am a Father, where is My honor? And if I am a Master, where is My respect?” says the Lord of hosts to you, O priests, who despise My name. But you say, “How have we despised Your name?”

7 “You present defiled food upon My altar. But you say, ‘How have we defiled You?’ By saying, ‘The Lord’s table is contemptible.’

8 When you offer blind animals for sacrifice, is that not evil? And when you offer the lame or sick, is that not evil? Try offering them to your governor—would he be pleased with you? Would he accept you?” says the Lord of hosts.

Empty Worship Condemned

9 “Now plead with God to be gracious to us. But with such offerings from your hands, will He accept you?” says the Lord of hosts.

10 “Oh, that one of you would shut the temple doors, so that you would not kindle useless fires on My altar! I take no pleasure in you,” says the Lord of hosts, “and I will not accept an offering from your hands.”

11 For from the rising of the sun to its setting, My name will be great among the nations. In every place incense and pure offerings will be presented in My name, because My name will be great among the nations,” says the Lord of hosts.

Profaning the Lord’s Table

12 “But you profane it by saying, ‘The Lord’s table is defiled, and its food is contemptible.’

13 And you say, ‘What a burden!’ You sniff at it with disdain,” says the Lord of hosts. “You bring stolen, lame, or sick animals—should I accept these from your hands?” says the Lord.

14 “Cursed is the cheat who has a fine male in his flock, but vows to sacrifice it and then offers a blemished one to the Lord. For I am a great King,” says the Lord of hosts, “and My name is to be feared among the nations.”

Key Lessons from Malachi 1

- God’s love is constant – Even when Israel doubted His love, God reminded them of His covenantal choice of Jacob over Esau.
- God demands honor – As a Father and Master, He deserves reverence, not careless worship.
- True worship requires sincerity – Offering God the leftovers or blemished sacrifices reveals a heart that does not truly honor Him.
- God’s glory is worldwide – His name is not confined to Israel but will be revered among all nations.
- Worship is not about convenience – God sees through half-hearted offerings and calls for wholehearted devotion.

Malachi 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Corrupt Priests and Broken Covenants”

A Warning to the Priests

1 “And now, O priests, this commandment is for you.

2 If you will not listen, and if you will not take it to heart to give glory to My name,” says the Lord of hosts, “then I will send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings. Indeed, I have already cursed them, because you do not take it to heart.

3 Behold, I will rebuke your seed, and I will spread the refuse of your sacrifices on your faces, the very refuse of your solemn feasts, and you will be taken away with it.

4 Then you will know that I have sent this command to you, that My covenant with Levi may stand,” says the Lord of hosts.

The Covenant with Levi

5 “My covenant was with him—a covenant of life and peace. I gave them to him because he revered Me, and he stood in awe of My name.

6 True instruction was in his mouth, and no injustice was found on his lips. He walked with Me in peace and uprightness, and he turned many away from sin.

7 For the lips of a priest should preserve knowledge, and people should seek instruction from his mouth, because he is the messenger of the Lord of hosts.

8 But you have turned aside from the way. You have caused many to stumble by your teaching; you have corrupted the covenant of Levi,” says the Lord of hosts.

9 “So I have made you despised and humiliated before all the people, because you have not kept My ways, but have shown partiality in the law.”

Treachery Among God’s People

10 Do we not all have one Father? Has not one God created us? Why then do we deal treacherously with one another, profaning the covenant of our ancestors?

11 Judah has acted treacherously, and an abomination has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem. For Judah has profaned the sanctuary of the Lord, which He loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god.

12 May the Lord cut off from the tents of Jacob the man who does this—whether teacher or student—even though he brings an offering to the Lord of hosts.

Treachery in Marriage

13 And this is another thing you do: You flood the Lord’s altar with tears, weeping and groaning, because He no longer regards the offering or accepts it with favor from your hands.

14 And you ask, “Why?” It is because the Lord has been a witness between you and the wife of your youth. You have been unfaithful to her, though she is your companion and your wife by covenant.

15 Has not the Lord made them one? In body and spirit they are His. And why one? Because He was seeking godly offspring. So guard yourselves in your spirit, and do not be unfaithful to the wife of your youth.

16 “For I hate divorce,” says the Lord, the God of Israel, “and the one who covers his garment with violence,” says the Lord of hosts. So guard yourselves in your spirit, and do not be unfaithful.

Where Is the God of Justice?

17 You have wearied the Lord with your words. Yet you say, “How have we wearied Him?” By saying, “Everyone who does evil is good in the eyes of the Lord, and He is pleased with them,” or by asking, “Where is the God of justice?”

Key Lessons from Malachi 2

- God demands holiness from leaders – Priests were called to honor Him, preserve knowledge, and teach truth. Their corruption brought judgment.
- Faithfulness matters – God values loyalty in worship, covenant, and relationships. Breaking covenant with Him or with others invites His discipline.
- Marriage is sacred – God hates divorce and treachery in marriage because it distorts His covenant love.
- God sees through false worship – Tears and offerings mean nothing when hearts are unfaithful.
- Justice belongs to God – Questioning His justice or redefining evil as good wearies Him; we must trust His righteous timing.

Malachi 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Coming Messenger and the Day of Refining”

The Messenger and the Lord’s Coming

1 “Behold, I am sending My messenger, and he will prepare the way before Me. And the Lord whom you seek will suddenly come to His temple; even the Messenger of the covenant, in whom you delight—behold, He is coming,” says the Lord of hosts.

2 But who can endure the day of His coming? And who can stand when He appears? For He is like a refiner’s fire and like the launderer’s soap.

3 He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver; He will purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, so that they may present offerings to the Lord in righteousness.

4 Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the Lord as in days of old and in former years.

God’s Judgment on Sin

5 “Then I will draw near to you for judgment. I will be a swift witness against sorcerers, adulterers, perjurers, against those who defraud workers of their wages, who oppress widows and orphans, who deprive foreigners of justice, and those who do not fear Me,” says the Lord of hosts.

6 “For I, the Lord, do not change; therefore you, O children of Jacob, are not consumed.”

Return to God

7 “From the days of your fathers you have turned aside from My statutes and have not kept them. Return to Me, and I will return to you,” says the Lord of hosts. But you say, “How shall we return?”
8 “Will a man rob God? Yet you are robbing Me! But you say, ‘How have we robbed You?’ In tithes and offerings.
9 You are cursed with a curse, for you, the whole nation, are robbing Me.
10 Bring the full tithe into the storehouse, so that there may be food in My house. Test Me now in this,” says the Lord of hosts, “and see if I will not open for you the windows of heaven and pour out for you such a blessing that there will not be room enough to contain it.
11 I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, so that he will not destroy the fruits of your soil, nor shall your vine cast its fruit in the field before its time,” says the Lord of hosts.
12 “And all nations will call you blessed, for you will be a delightful land,” says the Lord of hosts.

The Book of Remembrance

13 “Your words have been harsh against Me,” says the Lord. Yet you say, “What have we spoken against You?”
14 You have said, “It is vain to serve God. What profit is it that we have kept His requirements, or that we have walked as mourners before the Lord of hosts?
15 Now we call the arrogant blessed; evildoers prosper, and those who test God escape.”
16 Then those who feared the Lord spoke with one another, and the Lord listened and heard them. A book of remembrance was written before Him for those who feared the Lord and honored His name.
17 “They shall be Mine,” says the Lord of hosts, “in the day when I make up My treasured possession. I will spare them as a man spares his own son who serves him.
18 Then once more you shall see the distinction between the righteous and the wicked, between the one who serves God and the one who does not.”

Key Lessons from Malachi 3

- God keeps His promises – The coming of the “messenger” points to John the Baptist and ultimately to Christ, the Messenger of the covenant.
- God is a refiner – His fire is not for destruction but for purification, shaping His people into holiness.
- God requires justice and mercy – True faith shows in righteousness toward others, not just ritual sacrifices.

- Tithing is worship – Giving is a way of trusting God’s provision; withholding robs Him of honor.
- God remembers the faithful – He listens to those who fear Him and records their faithfulness in His book of remembrance.
- A final separation is coming – God will reveal the difference between those who serve Him and those who do not.

Malachi 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Great Day of the Lord”

The Day of Burning

1 “For behold, the day is coming, burning like an oven, when all the proud and all who do wickedly will be stubble. The coming day shall set them ablaze,” says the Lord of hosts, “so that it will leave them neither root nor branch.”

The Righteous Vindicated

2 “But for you who fear My name, the Sun of Righteousness will rise with healing in His wings. You shall go out and leap like calves released from the stall.

3 And you will trample down the wicked; they will be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day when I act,” says the Lord of hosts.

A Call to Remember and Prepare

4 “Remember the law of My servant Moses, the statutes and ordinances that I commanded him at Horeb for all Israel.

5 Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord.

6 He will turn the hearts of the fathers to their children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers, lest I come and strike the land with a curse.”

Key Lessons from Malachi 4

- The Day of the Lord will bring judgment – For the wicked, it will be consuming fire, leaving nothing behind.

- The faithful will rejoice – Those who honor God’s name will experience renewal, healing, and victory over evil.
- God calls His people back to His Word – Remembering the law of Moses shows that God’s truth is enduring and foundational.
- Elijah’s mission foreshadows reconciliation – John the Baptist came in the “spirit and power of Elijah” (Luke 1:17) to prepare the way for Christ.
- God’s final word before the silence – The Old Testament closes with both a warning of a curse and the promise of restoration through repentance.

Introduction to the New Testament

“But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.” – John 20:31

Title and Meaning

The term New Testament comes from the Latin Novum Testamentum and the Greek Kainē Diathēkē, meaning “New Covenant.” It refers to the covenant God made through the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, fulfilling the promises of the Old Testament. While the Old Testament centers on God’s covenant with Israel through the Law, the New Testament proclaims the new covenant of grace, sealed in Christ’s blood (Luke 22:20).

Author and Date

The New Testament contains 27 books, written between c. AD 45–95 by apostles and close followers of Jesus under divine inspiration. Authors include Matthew, Mark, Luke, John, Paul, Peter, James, and Jude. Though written in different contexts—Gospels, letters, history, and prophecy—together they present one unified testimony: Jesus is the promised Messiah and Savior of the world.

Purpose of the New Testament

The New Testament reveals the fulfillment of God’s redemptive plan. Its purposes include:

- To proclaim Jesus Christ as the Son of God and Savior.
- To record the life, teachings, death, and resurrection of Jesus.
- To establish the foundation and mission of the church.
- To instruct believers in faith, doctrine, and holy living.
- To reveal the ultimate hope of Christ’s return and eternal kingdom.

Structure of the New Testament

The New Testament is organized into four main sections:

📖 1. The Gospels (Matthew–John)

Four portraits of Jesus' life, ministry, death, and resurrection.

📖 2. Acts of the Apostles (Acts)

The history of the early church and the spread of the gospel through the power of the Holy Spirit.

✉️ 3. The Epistles (Romans–Jude)

Letters written by apostles to churches and individuals, teaching doctrine, encouragement, and correction.

- Pauline Epistles: Romans through Philemon.
- General Epistles: Hebrews through Jude.

🔔 4. The Revelation (Revelation)

Prophecy given to John about Christ's ultimate victory, the final judgment, and the new heaven and new earth.

Major Themes

- Jesus Christ, the Messiah – The fulfillment of Old Testament prophecy and the center of salvation history.
- The Kingdom of God – God's reign breaking into history through Christ and His church.
- Salvation by Grace through Faith – The heart of the gospel message.
- The Holy Spirit – Empowering believers and guiding the church.
- The Church – God's new covenant people, called to live in holiness and mission.
- Hope of Christ's Return – The promise of resurrection, judgment, and eternal life.

Why the New Testament Matters Today

The New Testament is the heart of Christian faith. It:

- Proclaims the good news of salvation in Christ.
- Reveals God's grace and the power of the cross.
- Provides the foundation for Christian belief, worship, and practice.
- Offers encouragement for living faithfully in a broken world.
- Assures believers of eternal hope through Christ's return.

Key Verse

“For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.” – John 1:17

This verse captures the contrast and fulfillment: the New Covenant in Christ completes what the Old Covenant began, bringing grace, truth, and eternal life.

Introduction to the Book of Matthew

“The book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.” – Matthew 1:1

Title and Meaning

The Gospel according to Matthew is the first book of the New Testament. The title comes from its traditional author, the apostle Matthew, also called Levi, a former tax collector whom Jesus called to be His disciple (Matthew 9:9). The word Gospel means “good news,” and Matthew’s Gospel proclaims the good news that Jesus is the promised Messiah, the King of Israel, and Savior of the world.

Author and Date

Matthew, one of the twelve apostles, is widely held to be the author. Early church fathers such as Papias and Irenaeus affirmed his authorship. The Gospel was likely written between AD 60–70, though some scholars suggest an earlier or slightly later date. It was originally written in Greek, though some early traditions suggest Matthew may have also composed an early version in Hebrew or Aramaic.

Purpose of Matthew

Matthew writes to present Jesus as the long-awaited Messiah and King foretold in the Old Testament. His purpose includes:

- To show that Jesus fulfills the Messianic prophecies of the Old Testament.
- To proclaim the Kingdom of Heaven as central to Jesus’ teaching.
- To demonstrate Jesus’ authority through His miracles, parables, and resurrection.
- To provide instruction for the life and mission of the church.

Structure of Matthew

Matthew organizes his Gospel around major discourses of Jesus, woven into the narrative of His life:

1. The Birth and Early Life of Jesus (Chs. 1–2)

Genealogy, birth, visit of the Magi, and the flight to Egypt.

2. The Preparation for Ministry (Chs. 3–4)

John the Baptist, Jesus’ baptism, and His temptation.

3. The Teachings and Works of Jesus (Chs. 5–25)

Includes five major teaching sections, often seen as a parallel to the five books of Moses:

- The Sermon on the Mount (Chs. 5–7)
- The Mission Discourse (Ch. 10)
- The Parables of the Kingdom (Ch. 13)

- The Community Discourse (Ch. 18)
- The Olivet Discourse (Chs. 24–25)

† 4. The Passion, Death, and Resurrection (Chs. 26–28)

The betrayal, crucifixion, resurrection, and the Great Commission.

Major Themes

- Jesus as the Messiah-King – The fulfillment of Old Testament prophecy.
- The Kingdom of Heaven – God’s rule breaking into human history through Christ.
- Fulfillment of Scripture – Over 50 direct quotations from the Old Testament show Jesus as the promised one.
- Discipleship and Mission – Jesus calls His followers to live in righteousness and spread the gospel.
- Judgment and Hope – Warnings of judgment and the promise of eternal life through Christ.

Why Matthew Matters Today

Matthew connects the Old Testament with the New Testament, showing that Jesus is the fulfillment of God’s promises to Abraham and David. It reminds believers that Christ is both King and Savior, calling His people to live under His lordship and to proclaim His kingdom to all nations. The Great Commission (Matthew 28:19–20) continues to define the mission of the church today.

Key Verse

“Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet...” – Matthew 1:22

This verse captures Matthew’s emphasis: Jesus is the fulfillment of God’s Word and the hope of all generations.

Matthew 1 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Genealogy and Birth of Jesus Christ”

The Family Line of Jesus Christ

1 This is the record of the family line of Jesus the Messiah, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

2 Abraham was the father of Isaac. Isaac was the father of Jacob. Jacob was the father of Judah and his brothers.

3 Judah was the father of Perez and Zerah, whose mother was Tamar. Perez was the father of Hezron. Hezron was the father of Ram.

4 Ram was the father of Amminadab. Amminadab was the father of Nahshon. Nahshon was the father of Salmon.

5 Salmon was the father of Boaz, whose mother was Rahab. Boaz was the father of Obed, whose mother was Ruth. Obed was the father of Jesse.

6 Jesse was the father of King David. David was the father of Solomon, whose mother had been Uriah's wife.

7 Solomon was the father of Rehoboam. Rehoboam was the father of Abijah. Abijah was the father of Asa.

8 Asa was the father of Jehoshaphat. Jehoshaphat was the father of Joram. Joram was the father of Uzziah.

9 Uzziah was the father of Jotham. Jotham was the father of Ahaz. Ahaz was the father of Hezekiah.

10 Hezekiah was the father of Manasseh. Manasseh was the father of Amon. Amon was the father of Josiah.

11 Josiah was the father of Jeconiah and his brothers at the time of the exile to Babylon.

From the Exile to the Christ

12 After the exile to Babylon, Jeconiah was the father of Shealtiel. Shealtiel was the father of Zerubbabel.

13 Zerubbabel was the father of Abiud. Abiud was the father of Eliakim. Eliakim was the father of Azor.

14 Azor was the father of Zadok. Zadok was the father of Akim. Akim was the father of Eliud.

15 Eliud was the father of Eleazar. Eleazar was the father of Matthan. Matthan was the father of Jacob.

16 Jacob was the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary. Mary gave birth to Jesus, who is called the Messiah.

17 So there were fourteen generations from Abraham to David, fourteen from David to the exile to Babylon, and fourteen from the exile to the Messiah.

The Birth of Jesus the Messiah

18 This is how the birth of Jesus the Messiah happened: His mother Mary was engaged to Joseph, but before they came together, she was found to be pregnant through the Holy Spirit.

19 Joseph, her fiancé, was a good man and did not want to disgrace her publicly, so he decided to quietly end the engagement.

20 But while he thought about this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife. The child within her is conceived by the Holy Spirit.

21 She will give birth to a son, and you will name Him Jesus, because He will save His people from their sins."

22 All this happened to fulfill what the Lord had spoken through the prophet:

23 "Look, the virgin will conceive a child! She will give birth to a son, and they will call Him Immanuel," which means "God with us."

24 When Joseph woke up, he did as the angel of the Lord commanded and took Mary as his wife.

25 But he did not have sexual relations with her until she gave birth to her firstborn son. And Joseph named Him Jesus.

Key Lessons from Matthew 1

- Jesus is the promised Messiah – His family line proves He is both son of Abraham (fulfilling the covenant promise) and son of David (fulfilling the royal promise).
- God’s plan includes unlikely people – Women like Tamar, Rahab, Ruth, and Bathsheba are included, showing that God’s grace welcomes the outsider and the broken.
- God works through history – Generations of waiting lead to the birth of Christ at just the right time.
- The virgin birth shows divine power – Jesus was not born of man’s will but by the Holy Spirit, proving He is both fully human and fully divine.
- Immanuel, “God with us” – The greatest promise is God’s presence among His people through Christ.

Matthew 2 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Visit of the Wise Men and the Escape to Egypt”

The Wise Men Visit Jesus

1 Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea during the days of King Herod. Wise men from the east came to Jerusalem,

2 asking, “Where is the child who has been born King of the Jews? We saw His star rising in the east, and we have come to worship Him.”

3 When King Herod heard this, he was disturbed, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 He called together the chief priests and teachers of the law and asked them where the Messiah was supposed to be born.

5 They answered, “In Bethlehem of Judea. For the prophet wrote:

6 ‘But you, Bethlehem in the land of Judah, are not the least among the rulers of Judah. For out of you will come a ruler who will shepherd My people Israel.’”

7 Then Herod secretly called the wise men and carefully asked them when the star had appeared.

8 He sent them to Bethlehem, saying, “Go and search carefully for the child. When you find Him, report back to me, so that I too may go and worship Him.”

9 After hearing the king, the wise men went on their way. The star they had seen in the east went ahead of them until it stopped over the place where the child was.

10 When they saw the star, they were filled with great joy.

11 They entered the house and saw the child with Mary His mother. They bowed down and worshiped

Him. Then they opened their treasures and gave Him gifts—gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

12 But God warned them in a dream not to return to Herod, so they went back to their own country by another route.

The Escape to Egypt

13 After they left, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream. “Get up,” he said. “Take the child and His mother and flee to Egypt. Stay there until I tell you, because Herod is going to try to kill the child.”

14 That night Joseph got up, took the child and His mother, and left for Egypt.

15 They stayed there until Herod’s death. This fulfilled what the Lord had spoken through the prophet: “Out of Egypt I called My Son.”

Herod’s Cruelty

16 When Herod realized that the wise men had deceived him, he was furious. He ordered all the boys in Bethlehem and in the surrounding area who were two years old and younger to be killed. This was based on the time he had learned from the wise men.

17 Then what was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled:

18 “A voice was heard in Ramah, weeping and loud mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and she would not be comforted, because they are gone.”

The Return to Nazareth

19 After Herod died, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt.

20 The angel said, “Get up. Take the child and His mother and go back to the land of Israel, for those who wanted to kill the child are dead.”

21 So Joseph got up, took the child and His mother, and returned to Israel.

22 But when he heard that Archelaus was ruling in Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. Being warned in another dream, he went instead to the region of Galilee.

23 They settled in a town called Nazareth. This fulfilled what was spoken by the prophets: “He will be called a Nazarene.”

Key Lessons from Matthew 2

- Jesus is the true King – Even at His birth, rulers and nations were moved by His arrival. The wise men recognized Him as worthy of worship.
- God directs those who seek Him – The star guided the wise men, and dreams directed Joseph, showing God’s hand in every step.
- Evil resists God’s plan – Herod tried to destroy Jesus, but God’s protection and prophecy cannot be stopped.

- Fulfillment of prophecy – Jesus’ birth, escape, and upbringing fulfilled multiple Old Testament prophecies (Micah 5:2; Hosea 11:1; Jeremiah 31:15).
- God redeems humble beginnings – Though raised in the small town of Nazareth, Jesus fulfilled the role of Messiah and Savior of the world.

Matthew 3 – Crawford Standard Bible

“John the Baptist and the Baptism of Jesus”

John the Baptist Prepares the Way

1 In those days John the Baptist came, preaching in the wilderness of Judea.

2 He said, “Repent, because the kingdom of heaven is near!”

3 This is the one the prophet Isaiah spoke about: “A voice calling out in the wilderness, ‘Prepare the way of the Lord, make His paths straight.’”

4 John wore clothes made of camel’s hair with a leather belt around his waist. His food was locusts and wild honey.

5 People from Jerusalem, all of Judea, and the whole region around the Jordan went out to him.

6 They confessed their sins and were baptized by him in the Jordan River.

John’s Warning to the Religious Leaders

7 But when John saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to be baptized, he said, “You brood of snakes! Who warned you to escape the coming wrath?”

8 Prove your repentance by producing good fruit.

9 Don’t think you can say to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our father.’ I tell you, God can raise up children for Abraham from these very stones.

10 Even now the axe is ready to chop at the root of the trees. Every tree that does not bear good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.”

11 “I baptize you with water to show repentance, but the One coming after me is greater than I am. I am not even worthy to carry His sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire.

12 He is ready to separate the wheat from the chaff. He will gather the wheat into His barn, but the chaff He will burn up with fire that cannot be put out.”

The Baptism of Jesus

13 Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to be baptized by John.

14 But John tried to stop Him, saying, “I need to be baptized by You, and yet You come to me?”

15 Jesus replied, “Let it be this way for now. It is proper for us to do this to fulfill all righteousness.” So John agreed.

16 As soon as Jesus was baptized, He came up out of the water. Suddenly, the heavens opened, and He saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and resting on Him.

17 And a voice from heaven said, “This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.”

Key Lessons from Matthew 3

- Repentance prepares the heart – John’s message was simple and clear: turn away from sin because God’s kingdom is near.
- True repentance produces fruit – It’s not about heritage or religion, but about a changed life that shows obedience to God.
- Jesus is greater than John – John baptized with water, but Jesus brings the Holy Spirit and refining fire.
- Jesus fulfilled all righteousness – Though sinless, He was baptized to identify with humanity and set the example of obedience.
- The Trinity revealed – At Jesus’ baptism, the Son is present, the Spirit descends, and the Father speaks—showing God’s unity in three persons.

Matthew 4 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Temptation of Jesus and the Beginning of His Ministry”

The Temptation of Jesus

1 Then Jesus was led by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil.

2 After fasting for forty days and forty nights, He was very hungry.

3 The tempter came and said to Him, “If You are the Son of God, tell these stones to become bread.”

4 But Jesus replied, “It is written: ‘Man shall not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.’”

5 Then the devil took Him to the holy city, Jerusalem, and set Him on the highest point of the temple.

6 He said, “If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down. For it is written: ‘He will command His angels concerning You,’ and ‘They will lift You up in their hands, so that You will not strike Your foot against a stone.’”

7 Jesus answered, “It is also written: ‘You shall not test the Lord your God.’”

8 Again, the devil took Him to a very high mountain and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory.

9 He said, “All this I will give You if You will bow down and worship me.”

10 Jesus said to him, “Get away from Me, Satan! For it is written: ‘You shall worship the Lord your God, and serve Him only.’”

11 Then the devil left Him, and angels came and cared for Him.

Jesus Begins His Ministry

12 When Jesus heard that John had been put in prison, He returned to Galilee.

13 Leaving Nazareth, He went to live in Capernaum by the sea, in the area of Zebulun and Naphtali.

14 This fulfilled what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah:

15 “The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, along the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles—

16 the people living in darkness have seen a great light, and on those living in the land of the shadow of death, a light has dawned.”

17 From that time Jesus began to preach, saying, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is near.”

The First Disciples

18 As Jesus walked by the Sea of Galilee, He saw two brothers—Simon, called Peter, and Andrew his brother. They were throwing a net into the sea, for they were fishermen.

19 Jesus said to them, “Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of people.”

20 Immediately, they left their nets and followed Him.

21 Going farther, He saw two other brothers—James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother. They were in a boat with their father Zebedee, repairing their nets. Jesus called them, 22 and immediately they left the boat and their father and followed Him.

Jesus’ Ministry of Healing

23 Jesus went throughout all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the good news of the kingdom, and healing every disease and sickness among the people.

24 News about Him spread throughout Syria. People brought to Him all who were sick with various diseases and suffering—those troubled by evil spirits, those who were paralyzed, and those with seizures—and He healed them all.

25 Large crowds followed Him from Galilee, the Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea, and from beyond the Jordan River.

Key Lessons from Matthew 4

- God’s Word is our weapon – Jesus resisted every temptation by quoting Scripture, showing us how to fight spiritual battles.
- Do not test God – Trust Him instead of demanding proof or signs.
- Worship belongs only to God – Satan’s greatest desire is misplaced worship, but Jesus showed the way of faithfulness.
- Jesus is the Light – His coming fulfills prophecy, bringing light to people in darkness.

- The call to discipleship is immediate – Peter, Andrew, James, and John left everything to follow Jesus, showing the cost and urgency of obedience.
- The kingdom is for the broken – Jesus healed sickness, freed the oppressed, and welcomed the needy, revealing God’s compassion.

Matthew 5 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Sermon on the Mount: The Way of the Kingdom”

The Beatitudes

1 When Jesus saw the crowds, He went up on a mountain and sat down. His disciples came to Him,
2 and He began to teach them, saying:

3 “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to them.

4 Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

5 Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

7 Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.

8 Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

9 Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

10 Blessed are those who are persecuted for doing what is right, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to them.

11 Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you, and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of Me.

12 Rejoice and be glad, for your reward in heaven is great. In the same way, they persecuted the prophets before you.”

Salt and Light

13 “You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt loses its flavor, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything except to be thrown out and trampled underfoot.

14 You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hidden.

15 People do not light a lamp and put it under a basket. Instead, they put it on a stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house.

16 In the same way, let your light shine before others, so they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven.”

Christ Fulfills the Law

17 “Do not think I came to destroy the Law or the Prophets. I did not come to abolish them but to fulfill them.

18 Truly I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not even the smallest letter or stroke of a pen will disappear from the Law until everything is accomplished.

19 Anyone who breaks even the least of these commands and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever practices and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20 For I tell you, unless your righteousness is greater than that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.”

Murder and Anger

21 “You have heard that it was said long ago, ‘Do not murder, and anyone who murders will be subject to judgment.’

22 But I tell you, anyone who is angry with his brother without cause will be subject to judgment.

Whoever says to his brother, ‘Raca’ (a term of contempt), will be answerable to the council. Whoever says, ‘You fool!’ will be in danger of the fire of hell.

23 So if you are offering your gift at the altar and remember your brother has something against you,
24 leave your gift there before the altar. First go and be reconciled to your brother, then come and offer your gift.

25 Settle matters quickly with your adversary who is taking you to court. Do it while you are on the way, or your adversary may hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the officer, and you will be thrown into prison.

26 Truly I tell you, you will not get out until you have paid the last penny.”

Adultery and Lust

27 “You have heard it said, ‘Do not commit adultery.’

28 But I tell you, anyone who looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart.

29 If your right eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away. It is better to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to be thrown into hell.

30 If your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to be cast into hell.”

Divorce

31 “It has been said, ‘Anyone who divorces his wife must give her a certificate of divorce.’

32 But I tell you that anyone who divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, causes her to commit adultery. And anyone who marries a divorced woman commits adultery.”

Oaths

33 “You have also heard it said to the people long ago, ‘Do not break your oaths, but keep your vows to the Lord.’

34 But I tell you, do not swear at all—neither by heaven, for it is God’s throne;

35 nor by the earth, for it is His footstool; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King.

36 And do not swear by your own head, because you cannot make even one hair white or black.

37 Simply let your ‘Yes’ mean yes and your ‘No’ mean no. Anything more than this comes from evil.”

Love Beyond Measure

38 “You have heard it said, ‘An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth.’

39 But I tell you, do not resist an evil person. If someone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to them the other also.

40 If anyone wants to sue you and take your shirt, give them your coat as well.

41 If anyone forces you to go one mile, go with them two miles.

42 Give to the one who asks you, and do not turn away from the one who wants to borrow from you.

43 You have heard it said, ‘Love your neighbor and hate your enemy.’

44 But I tell you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you.

45 By doing this, you will be children of your Father in heaven. He causes His sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous.

46 If you love only those who love you, what reward will you get? Even tax collectors do that.

47 If you greet only your brothers, what are you doing more than others? Even unbelievers do that.

48 Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect.”

Key Lessons from Matthew 5

- Blessed are the humble – True happiness and reward come from God’s kingdom, not earthly power or wealth.
- Christ’s followers are salt and light – We preserve truth and shine God’s love in a dark world.
- Jesus fulfills the Law – He raises the standard, focusing on the heart, not just outward actions.
- Anger and lust are deadly roots – Sin begins in the heart long before it reaches actions.
- Radical faithfulness – Better to sacrifice what leads to sin than lose your soul.
- True love goes further – Forgive, give, and love even enemies, reflecting the character of God.
- The call to perfection – We are to aim for maturity and holiness, reflecting our Father’s nature.

Matthew 6 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Giving, Prayer, and Trusting God”

Giving to the Needy

1 “Be careful not to do your good deeds in front of others to be seen by them. If you do, you will have no reward from your Father in heaven.
2 When you give to the needy, don’t announce it with trumpets like the hypocrites do in the synagogues and streets so they may be honored by others. Truly I tell you, they have already received their reward.
3 But when you give, do it quietly. Don’t let your left hand know what your right hand is doing,
4 so that your giving is in secret. Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.”

Prayer

5 “When you pray, don’t be like the hypocrites who love to stand and pray in synagogues and on street corners to be seen by people. Truly I tell you, they have their reward.
6 But when you pray, go into your room, close the door, and pray to your Father who is unseen. Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.
7 When you pray, don’t babble on like the pagans, for they think they will be heard because of their many words.
8 Don’t be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask Him.”

The Lord’s Prayer

9 “Pray like this:

Our Father in heaven, holy is Your name.

10 May Your kingdom come, and Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

11 Give us today our daily bread.

12 Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us.

13 Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.”

14 “For if you forgive others when they sin against you, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.

15 But if you do not forgive others, your Father will not forgive your sins.”

Fasting

16 “When you fast, don’t look gloomy like the hypocrites who put on a sad face so people will know they are fasting. Truly I tell you, they have their reward.

17 But when you fast, put oil on your head and wash your face,

18 so that it will not be obvious to others that you are fasting, but only to your Father who is unseen. And your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.”

Treasures in Heaven

19 “Do not store up treasures on earth, where moths eat them, rust destroys them, and thieves break in and steal.

20 Instead, store up treasures in heaven, where moths and rust do not destroy, and thieves do not break in and steal.

21 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.”

The Eye as the Lamp

22 “The eye is the lamp of the body. If your eyes are healthy, your whole body will be full of light.

23 But if your eyes are unhealthy, your whole body will be full of darkness. If the light within you is darkness, how great is that darkness!”

Serving God or Money

24 “No one can serve two masters. Either you will hate one and love the other, or you will be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money.”

Do Not Worry

25 “Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life—what you will eat or drink—or about your body, what you will wear. Isn’t life more than food and the body more than clothes?

26 Look at the birds of the air. They don’t plant or harvest or store away in barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Aren’t you much more valuable than they are?

27 Can any one of you by worrying add a single hour to your life?

28 And why worry about clothes? Look at the lilies of the field, how they grow. They don’t work or spin, 29 yet I tell you that not even Solomon in all his glory was dressed like one of these.

30 If that is how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today and tomorrow thrown into the fire, will He not much more clothe you—you of little faith?

31 So don’t worry, saying, ‘What shall we eat?’ or ‘What shall we drink?’ or ‘What shall we wear?’

32 The pagans run after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows you need them.

33 But seek first His kingdom and His righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

34 Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.”

Key Lessons from Matthew 6

- Give in secret – God values humility over human praise.
- Pray sincerely – Prayer is about relationship, not performance or repetition.

- Forgiveness is required – God’s forgiveness flows through us as we forgive others.
- Fasting is personal – True fasting is before God, not for display.
- Treasure in heaven – What we value most reveals where our heart truly is.
- You can’t serve two masters – God demands full devotion; money and possessions must not rule us.
- Trust God daily – Worry accomplishes nothing; God provides for His children when they seek His kingdom first.

Matthew 7 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Judgment, Prayer, and Building on the Rock”

Do Not Judge Hypocritically

1 “Do not judge others, or you too will be judged.

2 For in the same way you judge others, you will be judged, and with the measure you use, it will be measured back to you.

3 Why do you look at the speck in your brother’s eye but pay no attention to the beam in your own eye?

4 How can you say to your brother, ‘Let me take the speck out of your eye,’ when there is a beam in your own eye?

5 You hypocrite! First take the beam out of your own eye, then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother’s eye.

6 Do not give what is holy to dogs or throw your pearls before pigs, or they will trample them underfoot and turn to tear you apart.”

Ask, Seek, Knock

7 “Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you.

8 For everyone who asks receives; the one who seeks finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened.

9 Which of you, if your son asks for bread, will give him a stone?

10 Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a snake?

11 If you, being sinful, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good things to those who ask Him!”

The Golden Rule

12 “So in everything, do to others what you would want them to do to you, for this sums up the Law and the Prophets.”

The Narrow and Wide Gates

13 “Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate and broad is the road that leads to destruction, and many enter through it.

14 But small is the gate and narrow the road that leads to life, and only a few find it.”

True and False Prophets

15 “Beware of false prophets. They come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly they are ravenous wolves.

16 You will recognize them by their fruit. Do people pick grapes from thornbushes, or figs from thistles?

17 In the same way, every good tree bears good fruit, but a bad tree bears bad fruit.

18 A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, and a bad tree cannot bear good fruit.

19 Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

20 So then, you will recognize them by their fruit.”

True and False Disciples

21 “Not everyone who says to Me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only those who do the will of My Father in heaven.

22 Many will say to Me on that day, ‘Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in Your name, and in Your name drive out demons, and in Your name do many miracles?’

23 Then I will tell them plainly, ‘I never knew you. Depart from Me, you workers of lawlessness.’”

The Wise and Foolish Builders

24 “Therefore, everyone who hears these words of Mine and puts them into practice is like a wise man who built his house on the rock.

25 The rain came down, the floods rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house; yet it did not fall, because its foundation was on the rock.

26 But everyone who hears these words of Mine and does not put them into practice is like a foolish man who built his house on sand.

27 The rain came down, the floods rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell with a great crash.”

28 When Jesus finished saying these things, the crowds were amazed at His teaching, 29 because He taught with authority, not like their teachers of the law.

Key Lessons from Matthew 7

- Judge yourself before others – Hypocrisy blinds us; humility clears our vision.

- Persistent prayer is rewarded – Ask, seek, and knock, for God is a generous Father.
- The Golden Rule – Treat others the way you want to be treated; this sums up God’s law.
- Few choose the narrow way – The path to life is hard and requires true faith and obedience.
- Fruit reveals character – True prophets and true believers are known by their actions, not just their words.
- Empty religion is dangerous – Saying “Lord, Lord” without obedience leads to rejection.
- Obedience is the foundation – Building on Jesus’ words is the only way to stand firm when storms come.

Matthew 8 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Miracles of Healing and Authority”

Jesus Heals a Leper

1 When Jesus came down from the mountain, large crowds followed Him.

2 A man with leprosy came and bowed before Him, saying, “Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean.”

3 Jesus reached out His hand, touched him, and said, “I am willing. Be clean!” Immediately, the man was healed of leprosy.

4 Jesus told him, “See that you don’t tell anyone, but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift Moses commanded as a testimony to them.”

The Faith of the Centurion

5 When Jesus entered Capernaum, a centurion came to Him, pleading,

6 “Lord, my servant is lying at home paralyzed and in terrible pain.”

7 Jesus said, “I will come and heal him.”

8 The centurion replied, “Lord, I am not worthy to have You come under my roof. Just say the word, and my servant will be healed.

9 For I myself am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I say to one, ‘Go,’ and he goes; to another, ‘Come,’ and he comes; and to my servant, ‘Do this,’ and he does it.”

10 When Jesus heard this, He was amazed and said to those following Him, “Truly I tell you, I have not found anyone in Israel with such great faith.

11 I tell you, many will come from the east and west and will sit with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven.

12 But the subjects of the kingdom will be thrown into outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

13 Then Jesus said to the centurion, “Go. It will be done just as you believed.” And the servant was healed at that very moment.

Jesus Heals Peter's Mother-in-Law

14 When Jesus entered Peter's house, He saw Peter's mother-in-law lying in bed with a fever.

15 He touched her hand, and the fever left her. She got up and began to serve them.

16 That evening, many who were demon-possessed were brought to Him. He drove out the spirits with a word and healed all who were sick.

17 This fulfilled what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah: "He took our sicknesses and carried our diseases."

The Cost of Following Jesus

18 When Jesus saw the large crowds around Him, He gave orders to cross to the other side of the lake.

19 A teacher of the law came to Him and said, "Teacher, I will follow You wherever You go."

20 Jesus replied, "Foxes have dens and birds have nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay His head."

21 Another disciple said to Him, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father."

22 But Jesus told him, "Follow Me, and let the dead bury their own dead."

Jesus Calms the Storm

23 Then He got into the boat, and His disciples followed Him.

24 Suddenly a furious storm came up on the lake, so that the waves swept over the boat. But Jesus was asleep.

25 The disciples went and woke Him, saying, "Lord, save us! We are going to drown!"

26 He replied, "Why are you afraid, you of little faith?" Then He got up and rebuked the winds and the waves, and it became completely calm.

27 The men were amazed and asked, "What kind of man is this? Even the winds and the sea obey Him!"

Jesus Heals Two Demon-Possessed Men

28 When Jesus arrived on the other side in the region of the Gadarenes, two demon-possessed men met Him, coming out of the tombs. They were so violent that no one could pass that way.

29 They shouted, "What do You want with us, Son of God? Have You come here to torture us before the appointed time?"

30 A large herd of pigs was feeding some distance away.

31 The demons begged Jesus, "If You drive us out, send us into the herd of pigs."

32 He said to them, "Go!" So they came out and went into the pigs, and the whole herd rushed down a steep bank into the sea and drowned in the water.

33 Those tending the pigs ran off, went into the town, and reported all this, including what had happened to the demon-possessed men.

34 Then the whole town went out to meet Jesus. When they saw Him, they begged Him to leave their region.

Key Lessons from Matthew 8

- Jesus has authority over disease – With a touch or a word, He heals every sickness.
- Faith pleases God – The centurion’s faith shows that trusting Jesus’ word is greater than relying on signs.
- Jesus carries our burdens – He fulfills prophecy by taking on our sicknesses and weaknesses.
- Following Jesus has a cost – True discipleship requires sacrifice and full commitment.
- Jesus rules creation – Even storms and seas obey His command.
- Jesus has power over demons – Spiritual forces fear Him and cannot resist His authority.
- Not all will welcome Him – Some, like the townspeople, would rather keep their comfort than embrace His power.

Matthew 9 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Forgiveness, Mercy, and the Lord of the Harvest”

Jesus Forgives and Heals a Paralyzed Man

- 1 Jesus got into a boat, crossed over, and came to His own town.
- 2 Some men brought to Him a paralyzed man lying on a bed. When Jesus saw their faith, He said to the man, “Take courage, son. Your sins are forgiven.”
- 3 At this, some of the teachers of the law thought to themselves, “This man is blaspheming!”
- 4 Knowing their thoughts, Jesus said, “Why do you think evil in your hearts?”
- 5 Which is easier: to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Get up and walk’?
- 6 But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins”—He said to the paralyzed man—“Get up, take your bed, and go home.”
- 7 The man got up and went home.
- 8 When the crowds saw this, they were filled with awe and praised God, who had given such authority to men.

The Calling of Matthew

- 9 As Jesus went on from there, He saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax collector’s booth. “Follow Me,” He told him. Matthew got up and followed Him.

10 While Jesus was having dinner at Matthew's house, many tax collectors and sinners came and ate with Him and His disciples.

11 When the Pharisees saw this, they asked His disciples, "Why does your Teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?"

12 On hearing this, Jesus said, "It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick.

13 Go and learn what this means: 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice.' For I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners."

Question About Fasting

14 Then John's disciples came and asked Him, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but Your disciples do not fast?"

15 Jesus answered, "How can the guests of the bridegroom mourn while He is with them? The time will come when the bridegroom will be taken away, and then they will fast.

16 No one patches an old garment with unshrunk cloth, because the patch will pull away from the garment, making the tear worse.

17 Neither do people pour new wine into old wineskins. If they do, the skins will burst, the wine will spill out, and the skins will be ruined. No, they pour new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved."

A Girl Restored and a Woman Healed

18 While Jesus was speaking, a synagogue leader came and knelt before Him, saying, "My daughter has just died. But come and lay Your hand on her, and she will live."

19 Jesus got up and went with him, and so did His disciples.

20 Just then a woman who had been subject to bleeding for twelve years came up behind Him and touched the edge of His cloak.

21 She said to herself, "If I only touch His garment, I will be healed."

22 Jesus turned, saw her, and said, "Take courage, daughter. Your faith has made you well." And the woman was healed at that very moment.

23 When Jesus entered the synagogue leader's house and saw the noisy crowd and the flute players, 24 He said, "Go away. The girl is not dead but asleep." But they laughed at Him.

25 After the crowd had been put outside, He went in, took the girl by the hand, and she got up.

26 News of this spread throughout that region.

Jesus Heals the Blind and the Mute

27 As Jesus went on from there, two blind men followed Him, calling out, "Son of David, have mercy on us!"

28 When He had gone indoors, the blind men came to Him, and He asked them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?" "Yes, Lord," they replied.

29 Then He touched their eyes and said, "According to your faith let it be done to you."

30 Their eyes were opened. Jesus warned them sternly, “See that no one knows about this.”

31 But they went out and spread the news about Him all over that region.

32 While they were leaving, a man who was mute and demon-possessed was brought to Jesus.

33 When the demon was driven out, the man who had been mute spoke. The crowd was amazed and said, “Nothing like this has ever been seen in Israel.”

34 But the Pharisees said, “It is by the prince of demons that He drives out demons.”

The Compassion of Jesus

35 Jesus went through all the towns and villages, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and healing every disease and sickness.

36 When He saw the crowds, He had compassion on them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd.

37 Then He said to His disciples, “The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few.

38 Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into His harvest field.”

Key Lessons from Matthew 9

- Jesus has authority to forgive sins – Healing the paralyzed man proves His divine power.
- Jesus calls the unlikely – Matthew the tax collector shows that God’s grace extends to the rejected.
- Mercy over sacrifice – God desires love and compassion, not empty rituals.
- Faith brings healing – Both the bleeding woman and the blind men received healing through faith.
- Jesus conquers death – Raising the girl shows His power even over the grave.
- Compassion fuels mission – Jesus saw the crowds as lost sheep, calling His followers to pray for workers in the harvest.

Matthew 10 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Mission of the Twelve”

The Twelve Apostles Sent Out

1 Jesus called His twelve disciples to Him and gave them authority to drive out unclean spirits and to heal every disease and sickness.

2 These are the names of the twelve apostles: First, Simon (who is called Peter) and Andrew his brother; James son of Zebedee and John his brother;

3 Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James son of Alphaeus and Thaddaeus;

4 Simon the Zealot and Judas Iscariot, the one who would betray Him.

5 Jesus sent out these twelve with the following instructions: “Do not go among the Gentiles or enter any town of the Samaritans.

6 Go instead to the lost sheep of Israel.

7 As you go, proclaim this message: ‘The kingdom of heaven has come near.’

8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, and drive out demons. Freely you have received; freely give.

9 Do not take gold, silver, or copper with you.

10 Do not take a traveling bag, an extra shirt, sandals, or a staff, for the worker deserves his food.

11 Whatever town or village you enter, find out who is worthy there and stay at their house until you leave.

12 As you enter the home, give it your greeting.

13 If the household is worthy, let your peace rest on it; if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you.

14 If anyone will not welcome you or listen to your words, leave that home or town and shake the dust off your feet.

15 Truly I tell you, it will be more bearable for Sodom and Gomorrah on the day of judgment than for that town.”

Persecution Will Come

16 “I am sending you out like sheep among wolves. Be wise as serpents and harmless as doves.

17 Be on your guard, for you will be handed over to councils and flogged in synagogues.

18 You will be brought before governors and kings because of Me, as a testimony to them and to the Gentiles.

19 But when they arrest you, do not worry about what to say or how to say it. At that time you will be given what to say,

20 for it will not be you speaking, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you.

21 Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child. Children will rise against parents and have them put to death.

22 You will be hated by everyone because of My name, but the one who endures to the end will be saved.

23 When you are persecuted in one place, flee to another. Truly I tell you, you will not finish going through the towns of Israel before the Son of Man comes.

The Cost of Discipleship

24 “The student is not above the teacher, nor a servant above his master.

25 It is enough for students to be like their teacher, and servants like their master. If the head of the house has been called Beelzebul, how much more the members of His household!

26 So do not be afraid of them, for there is nothing hidden that will not be revealed, and nothing concealed that will not be made known.

27 What I tell you in the dark, speak in the light; what is whispered in your ear, proclaim from the housetops.

28 Do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Instead, fear the One who can destroy both soul and body in hell.

29 Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them falls to the ground apart from your Father's care.

30 Even the very hairs of your head are all numbered.

31 So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows.

32 Whoever acknowledges Me before others, I will acknowledge before My Father in heaven.

33 But whoever denies Me before others, I will also deny before My Father in heaven.

A Dividing Sword

34 "Do not think that I came to bring peace on earth. I did not come to bring peace, but a sword.

35 For I have come to set a man against his father, a daughter against her mother, a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

36 A person's enemies will be members of their own household.

37 Anyone who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. Anyone who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me.

38 Whoever does not take up their cross and follow Me is not worthy of Me.

39 Whoever finds their life will lose it, and whoever loses their life for My sake will find it.

Rewards for Receiving God's Servants

40 "Anyone who welcomes you welcomes Me, and anyone who welcomes Me welcomes the One who sent Me.

41 Whoever welcomes a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and whoever welcomes a righteous person will receive a righteous person's reward.

42 And if anyone gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones because he is My disciple, truly I tell you, that person will not lose their reward."

Key Lessons from Matthew 10

- Jesus equips His disciples – He gives them authority to heal, deliver, and proclaim the kingdom.
- The mission is urgent – They are called to go simply, depending on God's provision.
- Persecution is certain – Following Christ means facing opposition, betrayal, and hatred.

- Endurance is required – Salvation is promised to those who remain faithful until the end.
- Fear God, not man – Human threats may harm the body, but only God rules over the soul.
- Discipleship is costly – It requires total loyalty, even above family and self.
- God rewards the smallest act of kindness – Even giving a cup of water in Christ’s name has eternal value.

Matthew 11 – Crawford Standard Bible

“John’s Question, Unrepentant Cities, and the Invitation of Jesus”

John the Baptist’s Question

1 After Jesus finished instructing His twelve disciples, He went on from there to teach and preach in the towns of Galilee.

2 When John the Baptist, who was in prison, heard about the works of Christ, he sent his disciples
3 to ask Him, “Are You the one who is to come, or should we look for another?”

4 Jesus replied, “Go back and tell John what you hear and see:

5 The blind see, the lame walk, those with leprosy are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have the good news preached to them.

6 Blessed is anyone who does not stumble because of Me.”

Jesus Honors John

7 As John’s disciples were leaving, Jesus began to speak to the crowd about John: “What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed swayed by the wind?

8 If not, what did you go out to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? No, those who wear fine clothes live in kings’ palaces.

9 Then what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet.

10 This is the one about whom it is written: ‘I will send My messenger ahead of You, who will prepare Your way before You.’

11 Truly I tell you, among those born of women there has not risen anyone greater than John the Baptist. Yet whoever is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

12 From the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of heaven has been forcefully advancing, and forceful people seize it.

13 For all the Prophets and the Law prophesied until John.

14 And if you are willing to accept it, John is the Elijah who was to come.

15 Whoever has ears, let them hear.”

This Generation's Unbelief

16 “To what can I compare this generation? They are like children sitting in the marketplace and calling to others:

17 ‘We played the flute for you, but you did not dance; we sang a dirge, but you did not mourn.’

18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, ‘He has a demon.’

19 The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, ‘Here is a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners.’ But wisdom is proved right by her deeds.”

Woes on Unrepentant Cities

20 Then Jesus began to denounce the towns where most of His miracles had been performed, because they did not repent.

21 “Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles that were performed in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

22 But I tell you, it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon on the day of judgment than for you.

23 And you, Capernaum, will you be lifted up to the heavens? No, you will go down to Hades. For if the miracles that were performed in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained to this day.

24 But I tell you, it will be more bearable for Sodom on the day of judgment than for you.”

Rest for the Weary

25 At that time Jesus prayed, “I praise You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and learned, and revealed them to little children.

26 Yes, Father, for this was Your good pleasure.

27 All things have been committed to Me by My Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal Him.

28 Come to Me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.

29 Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

30 For My yoke is easy, and My burden is light.”

Key Lessons from Matthew 11

- Faith is tested in hardship – Even John the Baptist questioned Jesus, yet Christ confirmed His mission through works of power and mercy.
- John was great, yet Christ's kingdom is greater – Spiritual inheritance in the kingdom surpasses even the highest human honor.

- This generation rejected both John and Jesus – Unbelief finds excuses whether God speaks through austerity or fellowship.
- Judgment falls on the unrepentant – Greater revelation brings greater responsibility; rejected light brings heavier judgment.
- God reveals truth to the humble – Spiritual understanding is given to the childlike, not the proud.
- Jesus offers true rest – In a world of burdens, only Christ gives peace for the soul through surrender to His gentle lordship.

Matthew 12 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Lord of the Sabbath, Power Over Demons, and True Family”

Jesus is Lord of the Sabbath

1 At that time Jesus went through the grainfields on the Sabbath. His disciples were hungry and began to pick some heads of grain and eat them.

2 When the Pharisees saw this, they said to Him, “Look, Your disciples are doing what is unlawful on the Sabbath.”

3 Jesus replied, “Haven’t you read what David did when he and his companions were hungry?

4 He entered the house of God, and they ate the consecrated bread—which was lawful only for the priests to eat.

5 Or haven’t you read in the Law that on the Sabbath the priests in the temple break the Sabbath and yet are innocent?

6 I tell you that something greater than the temple is here.

7 If you had known what these words mean, ‘I desire mercy, not sacrifice,’ you would not have condemned the innocent.

8 For the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath.”

9 Going on from there, He entered their synagogue,

10 and a man with a shriveled hand was there. Looking for a reason to accuse Jesus, they asked Him, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?”

11 He said to them, “If any of you has a sheep and it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will you not lift it out?

12 How much more valuable is a person than a sheep! Therefore it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath.”

13 Then He said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” So he stretched it out, and it was completely restored, just as sound as the other.

14 But the Pharisees went out and plotted how they might kill Jesus.

God's Servant

15 Aware of this, Jesus withdrew. Large crowds followed Him, and He healed them all.

16 He warned them not to tell others about Him.

17 This was to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah:

18 "Here is My servant whom I have chosen,

My beloved in whom My soul delights.

I will put My Spirit on Him, and He will proclaim justice to the nations.

19 He will not quarrel or cry out;

no one will hear His voice in the streets.

20 A bruised reed He will not break,

and a smoldering wick He will not snuff out,

till He brings justice to victory.

21 In His name the nations will put their hope."

A Kingdom Divided Cannot Stand

22 Then they brought Him a demon-possessed man who was blind and mute, and Jesus healed him so that he could both talk and see.

23 All the people were amazed and said, "Could this be the Son of David?"

24 But the Pharisees said, "It is only by Beelzebul, the prince of demons, that this man drives out demons."

25 Knowing their thoughts, Jesus said, "Every kingdom divided against itself will be ruined, and every city or household divided against itself will not stand.

26 If Satan drives out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then can his kingdom stand?

27 And if I drive out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your people drive them out? So then, they will be your judges.

28 But if I drive out demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has come upon you.

29 Or again, how can anyone enter a strong man's house and carry off his possessions unless he first ties up the strong man? Then he can plunder his house.

30 Whoever is not with Me is against Me, and whoever does not gather with Me scatters.

31 And so I tell you, every kind of sin and blasphemy can be forgiven, but blasphemy against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.

32 Anyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but anyone who speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the age to come."

A Tree and Its Fruit

33 "Make a tree good and its fruit will be good, or make a tree bad and its fruit will be bad, for a tree is recognized by its fruit.

34 You brood of vipers, how can you who are evil say anything good? For the mouth speaks what the heart is full of.

35 A good man brings good things out of the good stored up in him, and an evil man brings evil things out of the evil stored up in him.

36 But I tell you that everyone will have to give account on the day of judgment for every careless word they have spoken.

37 For by your words you will be acquitted, and by your words you will be condemned.”

The Sign of Jonah

38 Then some of the Pharisees and teachers of the law said to Him, “Teacher, we want to see a sign from You.”

39 He answered, “A wicked and adulterous generation asks for a sign! But none will be given except the sign of the prophet Jonah.

40 For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of a great fish, so the Son of Man will be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

41 The men of Nineveh will stand up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it; for they repented at Jonah’s preaching, and now something greater than Jonah is here.

42 The Queen of the South will rise at the judgment with this generation and condemn it; for she came from the ends of the earth to hear Solomon’s wisdom, and now something greater than Solomon is here.

The Return of an Unclean Spirit

43 “When an impure spirit comes out of a person, it goes through arid places seeking rest and does not find it.

44 Then it says, ‘I will return to the house I left.’ When it arrives, it finds the house unoccupied, swept clean, and put in order.

45 Then it goes and takes with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and live there. And the final condition of that person is worse than the first. That is how it will be with this wicked generation.”

Jesus’ True Family

46 While Jesus was still talking to the crowd, His mother and brothers stood outside, wanting to speak to Him.

47 Someone told Him, “Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to You.”

48 He replied, “Who is My mother, and who are My brothers?”

49 Pointing to His disciples, He said, “Here are My mother and My brothers.

50 For whoever does the will of My Father in heaven is My brother and sister and mother.”

Key Lessons from Matthew 12

- Jesus is Lord of the Sabbath – True rest is found in Him, not in legalistic rules.
- Mercy is greater than sacrifice – God desires compassion, not rigid ritual.
- Jesus fulfills prophecy – He is God’s chosen Servant who brings hope to the nations.
- The Spirit’s power proves God’s kingdom – Miracles confirm the arrival of God’s reign, not the work of Satan.
- Guard your words – Our speech reveals our hearts, and every word matters before God.
- The only unforgivable sin – Rejecting the Holy Spirit’s testimony of Christ leads to eternal loss.
- Christ is greater than Jonah and Solomon – He brings a greater message and greater wisdom, yet many reject Him.
- True family is spiritual – Those who do God’s will are part of His household.

Matthew 13 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Parables of the Kingdom”

The Parable of the Sower

- 1 That same day Jesus went out of the house and sat by the lake.
- 2 Large crowds gathered around Him, so He got into a boat and sat down, while the people stood on the shore.
- 3 He told them many things in parables, saying: “A farmer went out to sow seed.
- 4 As he scattered it, some fell along the path, and the birds came and ate it up.
- 5 Some fell on rocky places, where there wasn’t much soil. It sprang up quickly because the soil was shallow.
- 6 But when the sun came up, the plants were scorched, and they withered because they had no root.
- 7 Other seed fell among thorns, which grew up and choked the plants.
- 8 Still other seed fell on good soil, where it produced a crop—a hundred, sixty, or thirty times what was sown.
- 9 Whoever has ears, let them hear.”

Why Jesus Spoke in Parables

- 10 The disciples came and asked Him, “Why do You speak to the people in parables?”
- 11 He replied, “Because the knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom of heaven has been given to you, but not to them.
- 12 Whoever has will be given more, and they will have abundance. Whoever does not have, even what they have will be taken from them.

13 This is why I speak to them in parables: Though seeing, they do not see; though hearing, they do not hear or understand.

14 In them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah:
'You will be ever hearing but never understanding;
you will be ever seeing but never perceiving.

15 For this people's heart has grown hard;
they hardly hear with their ears,
and they have closed their eyes.

Otherwise they might see with their eyes,
hear with their ears,
understand with their hearts, and turn,
and I would heal them.'

16 But blessed are your eyes because they see, and your ears because they hear.

17 Truly I tell you, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it."

The Meaning of the Sower

18 "Listen then to the meaning of the parable of the sower:

19 When anyone hears the message about the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what was sown in their heart. This is the seed along the path.

20 The seed on rocky ground is the one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy.

21 But since they have no root, they last only a short time. When trouble or persecution comes because of the word, they quickly fall away.

22 The seed among the thorns is the one who hears the word, but the worries of this life and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, making it unfruitful.

23 But the seed on good soil is the one who hears the word, understands it, and produces a harvest—yielding a hundred, sixty, or thirty times what was sown."

The Parable of the Weeds

24 Jesus told them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field.

25 But while everyone was sleeping, his enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and went away.

26 When the wheat sprouted and formed heads, then the weeds also appeared.

27 The owner's servants came and said, 'Sir, didn't you sow good seed in your field? Where then did the weeds come from?'

28 He replied, 'An enemy did this.' The servants asked, 'Do you want us to go and pull them up?'

29 He answered, 'No, because while you are pulling the weeds, you may uproot the wheat with them.

30 Let both grow together until the harvest. At that time I will tell the harvesters: First collect the weeds and tie them in bundles to be burned; then gather the wheat into my barn.'"

The Mustard Seed and the Yeast

31 He told them another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed, which a man took and planted in his field.

32 Though it is the smallest of all seeds, yet when it grows, it is the largest of garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds come and perch in its branches.”

33 He told them still another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed into about sixty pounds of flour until it worked all through the dough.”

34 Jesus spoke all these things to the crowd in parables; He did not say anything to them without using a parable.

35 So was fulfilled what was spoken through the prophet: “I will open My mouth in parables, I will utter things hidden since the creation of the world.”

The Explanation of the Weeds

36 Then Jesus left the crowd and went into the house. His disciples came to Him and said, “Explain to us the parable of the weeds in the field.”

37 He answered, “The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man.

38 The field is the world, the good seed stands for the people of the kingdom. The weeds are the people of the evil one,

39 and the enemy who sows them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the age, and the harvesters are angels.

40 As the weeds are pulled up and burned in the fire, so it will be at the end of the age.

41 The Son of Man will send out His angels, and they will weed out of His kingdom everything that causes sin and all who do evil.

42 They will throw them into the blazing furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

43 Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Whoever has ears, let them hear.”

Parables of Treasure and the Net

44 “The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field. When a man found it, he hid it again, and in his joy went and sold all he had and bought that field.

45 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant looking for fine pearls.

46 When he found one pearl of great value, he went away and sold everything he had and bought it.

47 Once again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was let down into the lake and caught all kinds of fish.

48 When it was full, the fishermen pulled it up on the shore. They sat down and collected the good fish in baskets, but threw the bad away.

49 This is how it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come and separate the wicked from the righteous

50 and throw them into the blazing furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

Treasures Old and New

51 “Have you understood all these things?” Jesus asked. “Yes,” they replied.

52 He said to them, “Therefore every teacher of the law who has become a disciple of the kingdom of heaven is like the owner of a house who brings out of his storeroom new treasures as well as old.”

Jesus Rejected at Nazareth

53 When Jesus had finished these parables, He moved on from there.

54 Coming to His hometown, He began teaching the people in their synagogue, and they were amazed. They asked, “Where did this man get this wisdom and these miraculous powers?

55 Isn’t this the carpenter’s son? Isn’t His mother’s name Mary, and aren’t His brothers James, Joseph, Simon, and Judas?

56 Aren’t all His sisters with us? Where then did this man get all these things?”

57 And they took offense at Him. But Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his own town and in his own home.”

58 And He did not do many miracles there because of their lack of faith.

Key Lessons from Matthew 13

- The Word produces fruit in receptive hearts – Only those who hear and understand God’s Word bear lasting fruit.
- Good and evil grow together until judgment – God will separate the righteous from the wicked at the end of the age.
- The kingdom starts small but grows great – Like a mustard seed or yeast, God’s kingdom spreads until it transforms everything.
- The kingdom is worth everything – Treasure and pearl parables show that following Christ is worth total surrender.
- Final judgment is real – The wicked will face fire, while the righteous will shine in God’s kingdom.
- Familiarity breeds unbelief – Even Jesus’ hometown rejected Him, reminding us that faith, not background, determines blessing.

Matthew 14 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Death of John the Baptist, the Feeding of the Five Thousand, and Jesus Walks on Water”

The Death of John the Baptist

1 At that time Herod the ruler heard reports about Jesus.

2 He said to his servants, “This is John the Baptist. He has risen from the dead! That is why miraculous powers are at work in Him.”

3 For Herod had arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison because of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife.

4 For John had been saying to him, “It is not lawful for you to have her.”

5 Herod wanted to kill John but was afraid of the people, because they considered John a prophet.

6 On Herod’s birthday, the daughter of Herodias danced for the guests and pleased Herod.

7 He promised with an oath to give her whatever she asked.

8 Prompted by her mother, she said, “Give me here on a platter the head of John the Baptist.”

9 The king was distressed, but because of his oath and his guests, he ordered it to be given to her.

10 He sent and had John beheaded in the prison.

11 His head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, who carried it to her mother.

12 John’s disciples came, took his body, and buried it. Then they went and told Jesus.

Jesus Feeds the Five Thousand

13 When Jesus heard what had happened, He withdrew by boat privately to a solitary place. But the crowds heard about it and followed Him on foot from the towns.

14 When Jesus landed and saw the large crowd, He had compassion on them and healed their sick.

15 As evening approached, the disciples came to Him and said, “This is a remote place, and it’s already late. Send the crowds away so they can go to the villages and buy themselves food.”

16 Jesus replied, “They don’t need to go away. You give them something to eat.”

17 They answered, “We have only five loaves of bread and two fish.”

18 “Bring them here to Me,” He said.

19 He directed the people to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, He gave thanks and broke the loaves. Then He gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the people.

20 They all ate and were satisfied, and the disciples picked up twelve baskets full of leftovers.

21 The number of those who ate was about five thousand men, besides women and children.

Jesus Walks on the Water

22 Immediately Jesus made the disciples get into the boat and go ahead of Him to the other side, while He dismissed the crowd.

23 After He had dismissed them, He went up on a mountainside by Himself to pray. When evening came, He was there alone.

24 Meanwhile, the boat was already far from land, buffeted by the waves because the wind was against it.

25 Shortly before dawn Jesus went out to them, walking on the lake.

26 When the disciples saw Him walking on the water, they were terrified. “It’s a ghost!” they said, and cried out in fear.

27 But Jesus immediately said to them: “Take courage! It is I. Do not be afraid.”

28 “Lord, if it’s really You,” Peter replied, “tell me to come to You on the water.”

29 “Come,” He said. Then Peter got down out of the boat, walked on the water, and came toward Jesus.

30 But when he saw the wind, he was afraid and began to sink. He cried out, “Lord, save me!”

31 Immediately Jesus reached out His hand and caught him. “You of little faith,” He said, “why did you doubt?”

32 When they climbed into the boat, the wind died down.

33 Then those who were in the boat worshiped Him, saying, “Truly You are the Son of God.”

Jesus Heals the Sick at Gennesaret

34 When they crossed over, they landed at Gennesaret.

35 The men of that place recognized Jesus and sent word to all the surrounding country. People brought all their sick to Him

36 and begged Him to let the sick just touch the edge of His cloak. And all who touched Him were completely healed.

Key Lessons from Matthew 14

- Standing for truth may cost everything – John the Baptist’s boldness led to his death, showing the price of faithfulness.
- Jesus provides abundantly – With just five loaves and two fish, He fed thousands, teaching that God multiplies what we surrender to Him.
- Faith requires focus – Peter walked on water until he looked at the storm; faith falters when eyes shift from Jesus to fear.
- Jesus is the Son of God – His authority over nature and His saving power reveal His divine identity.
- Compassion moves Christ – Whether feeding the hungry or healing the sick, Jesus responds to human need with mercy.

Matthew 15 – Crawford Standard Bible

“True Purity, Great Faith, and the Feeding of Four Thousand”

What Defiles a Person

1 Then some Pharisees and teachers of the law came from Jerusalem to Jesus and asked,
2 “Why do Your disciples break the tradition of the elders? They don’t wash their hands before they eat!”

3 Jesus replied, “And why do you break the command of God for the sake of your tradition?
4 For God said, ‘Honor your father and mother,’ and, ‘Anyone who curses their father or mother must be put to death.’

5 But you say that if anyone declares what might have been used to help their father or mother is ‘devoted to God,’

6 they are not to honor their father or mother with it. In this way you nullify the word of God for the sake of your tradition.

7 You hypocrites! Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you:

8 ‘These people honor Me with their lips, but their hearts are far from Me.

9 They worship Me in vain; their teachings are merely human rules.’”

10 Jesus called the crowd to Him and said, “Listen and understand:

11 What goes into someone’s mouth does not defile them, but what comes out of their mouth, that is what defiles them.”

12 Then the disciples came to Him and asked, “Do You know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this?”

13 He replied, “Every plant that My heavenly Father has not planted will be pulled up by the roots.

14 Leave them; they are blind guides. If the blind lead the blind, both will fall into a pit.”

15 Peter said, “Explain this parable to us.”

16 “Are you still so dull?” Jesus asked them.

17 “Don’t you see that whatever enters the mouth goes into the stomach and then out of the body?

18 But the things that come out of a person’s mouth come from the heart, and these defile them.

19 For out of the heart come evil thoughts—murder, adultery, sexual immorality, theft, false testimony, slander.

20 These are what defile a person; but eating with unwashed hands does not defile them.”

The Faith of the Canaanite Woman

21 Leaving that place, Jesus withdrew to the region of Tyre and Sidon.

22 A Canaanite woman from that area came to Him, crying out, “Lord, Son of David, have mercy on me! My daughter is suffering terribly from demon-possession.”

23 Jesus did not answer a word. So His disciples came to Him and urged Him, “Send her away, for she keeps crying out after us.”

24 He answered, “I was sent only to the lost sheep of Israel.”

25 The woman came and knelt before Him. “Lord, help me!” she said.

26 He replied, “It is not right to take the children’s bread and toss it to the dogs.”

27 “Yes it is, Lord,” she said. “Even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their master’s table.”

28 Then Jesus said to her, “Woman, you have great faith! Your request is granted.” And her daughter was healed at that very hour.

Jesus Heals Many

29 Jesus left there and went along the Sea of Galilee. Then He went up on a mountainside and sat down.

30 Great crowds came to Him, bringing the lame, the blind, the crippled, the mute, and many others, and laid them at His feet; and He healed them.

31 The people were amazed when they saw the mute speaking, the crippled made well, the lame walking, and the blind seeing. And they praised the God of Israel.

Jesus Feeds Four Thousand

32 Jesus called His disciples to Him and said, “I have compassion for these people; they have already been with Me three days and have nothing to eat. I do not want to send them away hungry, or they may collapse on the way.”

33 His disciples answered, “Where could we get enough bread in this remote place to feed such a crowd?”

34 “How many loaves do you have?” Jesus asked. “Seven,” they replied, “and a few small fish.”

35 He told the crowd to sit down on the ground.

36 Then He took the seven loaves and the fish, and when He had given thanks, He broke them and gave them to the disciples, and they in turn to the people.

37 They all ate and were satisfied. Afterward the disciples picked up seven basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over.

38 The number of those who ate was four thousand men, besides women and children.

39 After Jesus had sent the crowd away, He got into the boat and went to the region of Magdala.

Key Lessons from Matthew 15

- Tradition must not override God’s Word – Human customs can never replace divine commandments.
- True purity is from the heart – What we say and do reveals whether we are clean or unclean before God.
- Faith crosses boundaries – The Canaanite woman’s persistence shows that genuine faith moves the heart of Jesus.
- Jesus welcomes the broken – The blind, lame, and hurting were healed when laid at His feet.

- Jesus provides in abundance – With a few loaves and fish, He fed four thousand, showing His compassion and provision.

Matthew 16 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Confession of Christ and the Call to the Cross”

The Demand for a Sign

1 The Pharisees and Sadducees came to test Jesus by asking Him to show them a sign from heaven.
2 He replied, “When evening comes, you say, ‘It will be fair weather, for the sky is red.’
3 And in the morning, ‘Today it will be stormy, for the sky is red and threatening.’ You know how to interpret the appearance of the sky, but you cannot interpret the signs of the times.
4 A wicked and adulterous generation looks for a sign, but none will be given except the sign of Jonah.” Then He left them and went away.

The Yeast of the Pharisees

5 When the disciples went across the lake, they forgot to bring bread.
6 Jesus said to them, “Be careful. Watch out for the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”
7 They discussed this among themselves and said, “It is because we didn’t bring any bread.”
8 Aware of their discussion, Jesus asked, “You of little faith, why are you talking among yourselves about having no bread?
9 Don’t you remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets you gathered?
10 Or the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many baskets you gathered?
11 How is it you don’t understand that I was not talking to you about bread? But be on your guard against the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”
12 Then they understood that He was telling them to guard against their doctrine, not the yeast used in bread.

Peter Declares Jesus as the Christ

13 When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi, He asked His disciples, “Who do people say the Son of Man is?”
14 They replied, “Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, Jeremiah or one of the prophets.”
15 “But what about you?” He asked. “Who do you say I am?”
16 Simon Peter answered, “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.”
17 Jesus replied, “Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah, for this was not revealed to you by flesh and blood, but by My Father in heaven.
18 And I tell you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build My church, and the gates of hell will not overcome it.

19 I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.”

20 Then He ordered His disciples not to tell anyone that He was the Christ.

Jesus Predicts His Death

21 From that time on Jesus began to explain to His disciples that He must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things at the hands of the elders, chief priests, and teachers of the law, and that He must be killed and on the third day be raised to life.

22 Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him. “Never, Lord! This shall never happen to You!”

23 But Jesus turned and said to Peter, “Get behind Me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to Me; you do not have in mind the concerns of God, but merely human concerns.”

The Call to the Cross

24 Then Jesus said to His disciples, “Whoever wants to be My disciple must deny themselves, take up their cross, and follow Me.

25 For whoever wants to save their life will lose it, but whoever loses their life for My sake will find it.

26 What good will it be for someone to gain the whole world, yet forfeit their soul? Or what can anyone give in exchange for their soul?

27 For the Son of Man is going to come in His Father’s glory with His angels, and then He will reward each person according to what they have done.

28 Truly I tell you, some who are standing here will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in His kingdom.”

Key Lessons from Matthew 16

- Signs are not the basis for faith – A wicked generation demands signs, but true faith rests in Christ Himself.
- Beware false teaching – The “yeast” of the Pharisees and Sadducees represents corrupt doctrine that spreads and corrupts.
- The confession of Christ is foundational – Peter’s declaration reveals the solid rock upon which the Church is built.
- Jesus’ mission includes suffering – The cross was central to His purpose, and no human plan could change it.
- Discipleship requires self-denial – To follow Christ means surrendering our own will, taking up the cross, and living for Him.
- Eternal perspective matters – Gaining the world is worthless if it costs the soul.

- Christ's glory is coming – His kingdom will be revealed, and each person will be repaid according to their deeds.

Matthew 17 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Transfiguration, Faith Like a Mustard Seed, and the Temple Tax”

The Transfiguration

1 Six days later, Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother and led them up a high mountain by themselves.

2 There He was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and His clothes became as white as light.

3 Suddenly, Moses and Elijah appeared and were talking with Him.

4 Peter said to Jesus, “Lord, it is good for us to be here. If You wish, I will put up three shelters—one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”

5 While Peter was still speaking, a bright cloud covered them, and a voice from the cloud said, “This is My beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased. Listen to Him!”

6 When the disciples heard this, they fell facedown to the ground, terrified.

7 But Jesus came and touched them. “Get up,” He said. “Don’t be afraid.”

8 When they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus.

9 As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus instructed them, “Don’t tell anyone what you have seen until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.”

10 The disciples asked Him, “Why then do the teachers of the law say that Elijah must come first?”

11 Jesus replied, “Indeed, Elijah is coming and will restore all things.

12 But I tell you, Elijah has already come, and they did not recognize him, but they did to him whatever they pleased. In the same way the Son of Man will suffer at their hands.”

13 Then the disciples understood that He was talking about John the Baptist.

Jesus Heals a Demon-Possessed Boy

14 When they came to the crowd, a man approached Jesus and knelt before Him.

15 “Lord, have mercy on my son,” he said. “He has seizures and suffers greatly. He often falls into the fire or into the water.

16 I brought him to Your disciples, but they could not heal him.”

17 Jesus replied, “You unbelieving and perverse generation, how long shall I stay with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring the boy here to Me.”

18 Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of the boy, and he was healed at that moment.

19 Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and asked, “Why couldn’t we drive it out?”

20 He replied, “Because you have so little faith. Truly I tell you, if you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you.

21 But this kind does not go out except by prayer and fasting.”

Jesus Predicts His Death Again

22 When they came together in Galilee, Jesus said to them, “The Son of Man is going to be delivered into the hands of men.

23 They will kill Him, and on the third day He will be raised to life.” And the disciples were filled with grief.

The Temple Tax

24 After Jesus and His disciples arrived in Capernaum, the collectors of the two-drachma temple tax came to Peter and asked, “Doesn’t your teacher pay the temple tax?”

25 “Yes, He does,” Peter replied.

When Peter came into the house, Jesus spoke first. “What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth collect duty and taxes—from their own children or from others?”

26 “From others,” Peter answered. “Then the children are exempt,” Jesus said to him.

27 “But so that we may not cause offense, go to the lake and throw out your line. Take the first fish you catch; open its mouth, and you will find a coin. Take it and give it to them for My tax and yours.”

Key Lessons from Matthew 17

- Jesus’ glory is revealed – The Transfiguration confirms Him as God’s beloved Son, greater than Moses and Elijah.
- Listen to Jesus – The Father commands us to hear Christ above all voices.
- Faith unlocks God’s power – Even faith as small as a mustard seed can move mountains.
- Some victories require prayer and fasting – Deeper battles need deeper dependence on God.
- Jesus’ death and resurrection were certain – He prepared His disciples to understand the cross and the empty tomb.
- We live humbly, not to cause offense – Jesus paid the temple tax even though He was exempt, modeling humility and peace.

Matthew 18 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Humility, Forgiveness, and the Kingdom of Heaven”

Who Is the Greatest?

1 At that time the disciples came to Jesus and asked, “Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?”

2 Jesus called a little child and placed the child among them.

3 He said, “Truly I tell you, unless you turn and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

4 Therefore, whoever humbles himself like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

5 And whoever welcomes one such child in My name welcomes Me.

6 But if anyone causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to stumble, it would be better for them to have a large millstone hung around their neck and to be drowned in the depths of the sea.

7 Woe to the world because of such offenses! Offenses must come, but woe to the one through whom they come!

8 If your hand or your foot causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life crippled or maimed than to have two hands or two feet and be thrown into eternal fire.

9 And if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life with one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell fire.

10 See that you do not look down on one of these little ones. For I tell you that their angels in heaven always see the face of My Father in heaven.

11 For the Son of Man came to save the lost.

The Parable of the Lost Sheep

12 “What do you think? If a man owns a hundred sheep and one of them wanders away, will he not leave the ninety-nine on the hills and go to look for the one that wandered off?

13 And if he finds it, truly I tell you, he is happier about that one sheep than about the ninety-nine that did not wander off.

14 In the same way your Father in heaven is not willing that any of these little ones should perish.”

Correcting a Brother or Sister

15 “If your brother sins against you, go and point out their fault, just between the two of you. If they listen to you, you have won them over.

16 But if they will not listen, take one or two others along, so that ‘every matter may be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses.’

17 If they still refuse to listen, tell it to the church; and if they refuse to listen even to the church, treat them as you would a pagan or a tax collector.

18 Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.

19 Again, truly I tell you that if two of you on earth agree about anything you ask for, it will be done for you by My Father in heaven.

20 For where two or three gather in My name, there am I with them.”

The Parable of the Unforgiving Servant

21 Then Peter came to Jesus and asked, “Lord, how many times shall I forgive my brother or sister who sins against me? Up to seven times?”

22 Jesus answered, “I tell you, not seven times, but seventy times seven.

23 Therefore, the kingdom of heaven is like a king who wanted to settle accounts with his servants.

24 As he began the settlement, a man who owed him ten thousand talents was brought to him.

25 Since he was not able to pay, the master ordered that he and his wife and his children and all that he had be sold to repay the debt.

26 The servant fell on his knees before him. ‘Be patient with me,’ he begged, ‘and I will pay back everything.’

27 The master took pity on him, canceled the debt, and let him go.

28 But that servant went out and found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred silver coins. He grabbed him and began to choke him. ‘Pay back what you owe me!’ he demanded.

29 His fellow servant fell to his knees and begged him, ‘Be patient with me, and I will pay it back.’

30 But he refused. Instead, he went off and had the man thrown into prison until he could pay the debt.

31 When the other servants saw what had happened, they were outraged and went and told their master everything that had happened.

32 Then the master called the servant in. ‘You wicked servant,’ he said, ‘I canceled all that debt of yours because you begged me to.

33 Shouldn’t you have had mercy on your fellow servant just as I had on you?’

34 In anger his master handed him over to the jailers to be tortured, until he should pay back all he owed.

35 This is how My heavenly Father will treat each of you unless you forgive your brother or sister from your heart.”

Key Lessons from Matthew 18

- Greatness comes through humility – To be great in God’s kingdom, we must become childlike in trust and humility.
- God values every soul – He seeks out the one lost sheep and rejoices when it is found.
- Sin must be dealt with – Correction should be done gently, privately, and with the goal of restoration.
- Unity in prayer has power – When believers agree together, God moves in response.
- Forgiveness is unlimited – God calls us to forgive without limit, as He has forgiven us.
- Mercy received must become mercy given – Those who experience God’s grace must extend it to others.

Matthew 19 – Crawford Standard Bible

“Marriage, Children, Riches, and Eternal Rewards”

Teaching on Marriage and Divorce

1 When Jesus had finished these teachings, He left Galilee and went into the region of Judea beyond the Jordan.

2 Large crowds followed Him, and He healed them there.

3 Some Pharisees came to test Him. They asked, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any reason?”

4 Jesus replied, “Haven’t you read that in the beginning the Creator ‘made them male and female’?”

5 And said, ‘For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh’?”

6 So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore, what God has joined together, let no one separate.”

7 They asked Him, “Why then did Moses command that a man give his wife a certificate of divorce and send her away?”

8 Jesus answered, “Moses permitted you to divorce your wives because your hearts were hard. But it was not this way from the beginning.

9 I tell you that anyone who divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another woman, commits adultery.”

10 The disciples said to Him, “If this is the situation between a husband and wife, it is better not to marry.”

11 Jesus replied, “Not everyone can accept this teaching, but only those to whom it has been given.

12 For some are eunuchs because they were born that way; others were made that way by men; and others have chosen to live like this for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. The one who can accept this should accept it.”

Jesus Blesses the Children

13 Then people brought little children to Jesus for Him to place His hands on them and pray for them. But the disciples rebuked them.

14 Jesus said, “Let the little children come to Me, and do not stop them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these.”

15 He placed His hands on them and then went on His way.

The Rich Young Man

16 A man came up to Jesus and asked, “Teacher, what good thing must I do to have eternal life?”

17 Jesus replied, “Why do you ask Me about what is good? There is only One who is good. If you want to enter life, keep the commandments.”

18 “Which ones?” he asked.

Jesus replied, ““You shall not murder, you shall not commit adultery, you shall not steal, you shall not give false testimony,

19 honor your father and mother, and love your neighbor as yourself.””

20 The young man said, “I have kept all these since I was young. What do I still lack?”

21 Jesus answered, “If you want to be perfect, go, sell your possessions and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow Me.”

22 When the young man heard this, he went away sad, because he had great wealth.

The Danger of Riches

23 Then Jesus said to His disciples, “Truly I tell you, it is hard for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of heaven.

24 Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.”

25 When the disciples heard this, they were astonished and asked, “Who then can be saved?”

26 Jesus looked at them and said, “With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.”

Eternal Rewards

27 Peter answered Him, “We have left everything to follow You! What then will there be for us?”

28 Jesus said to them, “Truly I tell you, at the renewal of all things, when the Son of Man sits on His glorious throne, you who have followed Me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

29 And everyone who has left houses, brothers, sisters, father, mother, wife, children, or lands for My name’s sake will receive a hundred times as much and will inherit eternal life.

30 But many who are first will be last, and many who are last will be first.”

Key Lessons from Matthew 19

- Marriage is God’s design – From the beginning, God created marriage as a permanent union of one man and one woman.
- Divorce is not God’s ideal – Though permitted because of human hardness, God’s will is lifelong faithfulness.
- The kingdom belongs to the humble – Children represent the childlike faith required to enter heaven.
- Eternal life is not earned by works – The rich young ruler kept commandments but lacked surrender; eternal life comes through following Christ.

- Wealth can hinder faith – Riches easily bind the heart, but with God, salvation is possible for anyone.
- God rewards sacrifice – Those who give up everything for Christ will receive eternal treasures far greater than what was lost.
- The kingdom inverts human status – The first will be last, and the last will be first.

Matthew 20 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Parable of the Vineyard, True Greatness, and Healing the Blind”

The Parable of the Workers in the Vineyard

1 “The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard.

2 He agreed to pay them a denarius for the day and sent them into his vineyard.

3 About nine in the morning he went out and saw others standing in the marketplace doing nothing.

4 He told them, ‘You also go and work in my vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right.’ So they went.

5 He went out again about noon and three in the afternoon and did the same thing.

6 About five in the afternoon he went out and found still others standing around. He asked them, ‘Why have you been standing here all day doing nothing?’

7 “Because no one has hired us,” they answered. He said to them, ‘You also go and work in my vineyard.’

8 When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, ‘Call the workers and pay them their wages, beginning with the last ones hired and going on to the first.’

9 The workers who were hired about five in the afternoon came and each received a denarius.

10 So when those came who were hired first, they expected to receive more. But each one of them also received a denarius.

11 When they received it, they began to complain against the landowner.

12 ‘These who were hired last worked only one hour,’ they said, ‘and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the work and the heat of the day.’

13 But he answered one of them, ‘Friend, I am not being unfair to you. Didn’t you agree to work for a denarius?’

14 Take your pay and go. I want to give the one who was hired last the same as I gave you.

15 Don’t I have the right to do what I want with my own money? Or are you envious because I am generous?’

16 So the last will be first, and the first will be last.”

Jesus Predicts His Death a Third Time

17 Now Jesus was going up to Jerusalem. On the way, He took the Twelve aside and said to them, 18 “We are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be delivered over to the chief priests and the teachers of the law. They will condemn Him to death 19 and will hand Him over to the Gentiles to be mocked, flogged, and crucified. On the third day He will be raised to life!”

A Mother’s Request

20 Then the mother of Zebedee’s sons came to Jesus with her sons and, kneeling down, asked a favor of Him.

21 “What is it you want?” He asked. She said, “Grant that one of these two sons of mine may sit at Your right and the other at Your left in Your kingdom.”

22 Jesus said, “You don’t know what you are asking. Can you drink the cup I am going to drink?”
“We can,” they answered.

23 Jesus said to them, “You will indeed drink from My cup, but to sit at My right or left is not for Me to grant. These places belong to those for whom they have been prepared by My Father.”

24 When the ten heard about this, they were indignant with the two brothers.

25 Jesus called them together and said, “You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their high officials exercise authority over them.

26 Not so with you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant,
27 and whoever wants to be first must be your slave—

28 just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many.”

Jesus Heals Two Blind Men

29 As Jesus and His disciples were leaving Jericho, a large crowd followed Him.

30 Two blind men were sitting by the roadside, and when they heard that Jesus was going by, they shouted, “Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!”

31 The crowd rebuked them and told them to be quiet, but they shouted all the louder, “Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!”

32 Jesus stopped and called them. “What do you want Me to do for you?” He asked.

33 “Lord,” they answered, “we want our eyes to be opened.”

34 Jesus had compassion on them and touched their eyes. Immediately they received their sight and followed Him.

Key Lessons from Matthew 20

- God's grace is generous – The parable of the vineyard shows that salvation is not earned by hours of labor but given by God's kindness.
- God's rewards are equal and fair – The last will be first and the first last, overturning human ideas of status.
- Jesus faced the cross willingly – He clearly predicted His betrayal, suffering, death, and resurrection.
- True greatness is servanthood – In God's kingdom, greatness comes not from authority but from humility and service.
- Jesus came to serve – He gave His life as a ransom to free us from sin.
- Faith cries out for mercy – The blind men's persistent plea moved Jesus, and their faith was rewarded with healing.

Matthew 21 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The King Enters Jerusalem, Authority Challenged, and Parables of Judgment”

The Triumphal Entry

1 As they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage on the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples,

2 saying, “Go to the village ahead of you, and at once you will find a donkey tied there, with her colt beside her. Untie them and bring them to Me.

3 If anyone says anything to you, tell him that the Lord needs them, and he will send them right away.”

4 This took place to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet:

5 “Say to the daughter of Zion,
‘See, your King comes to you,
gentle and riding on a donkey,
on a colt, the foal of a donkey.’”

6 The disciples went and did as Jesus had instructed them.

7 They brought the donkey and the colt, placed their cloaks on them, and Jesus sat on them.

8 A very large crowd spread their cloaks on the road, while others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road.

9 The crowds that went ahead of Him and those that followed shouted, “Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!”

10 When Jesus entered Jerusalem, the whole city was stirred and asked, “Who is this?”

11 The crowds answered, “This is Jesus, the prophet from Nazareth in Galilee.”

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

12 Jesus entered the temple and drove out all who were buying and selling there. He overturned the tables of the money changers and the benches of those selling doves.

13 He said to them, “It is written: ‘My house shall be called a house of prayer,’ but you are making it a den of thieves.”

14 The blind and the lame came to Him at the temple, and He healed them.

15 But when the chief priests and the teachers of the law saw the wonderful things He did and the children shouting in the temple courts, “Hosanna to the Son of David,” they were indignant.

16 They asked Him, “Do You hear what these children are saying?”

“Yes,” replied Jesus, “have you never read, ‘From the lips of children and infants You, Lord, have called forth praise’?”

17 And He left them and went out of the city to Bethany, where He spent the night.

The Withered Fig Tree

18 Early in the morning, as Jesus was on His way back to the city, He was hungry.

19 Seeing a fig tree by the road, He went up to it but found nothing on it except leaves. Then He said to it, “May you never bear fruit again!” Immediately the tree withered.

20 When the disciples saw this, they were amazed. “How quickly the fig tree withered!” they said.

21 Jesus replied, “Truly I tell you, if you have faith and do not doubt, not only can you do what was done to the fig tree, but you can also say to this mountain, ‘Go, throw yourself into the sea,’ and it will be done.

22 If you believe, you will receive whatever you ask for in prayer.”

The Authority of Jesus Questioned

23 Jesus entered the temple courts, and while He was teaching, the chief priests and elders of the people came to Him. “By what authority are You doing these things?” they asked. “And who gave You this authority?”

24 Jesus replied, “I will also ask you one question. If you answer Me, I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

25 John’s baptism—where did it come from? From heaven, or from men?”

They discussed it among themselves and said, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will ask, ‘Then why didn’t you believe him?’

26 But if we say, ‘From men,’ we are afraid of the people, for they all hold that John was a prophet.”

27 So they answered Jesus, “We don’t know.”

Then He said, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.”

The Parable of the Two Sons

28 “What do you think? There was a man who had two sons. He went to the first and said, ‘Son, go and work today in the vineyard.’

29 ‘I will not,’ he answered, but later he changed his mind and went.

30 Then the father went to the other son and said the same thing. He answered, ‘I will, sir,’ but he did not go.

31 Which of the two did what his father wanted?”

“The first,” they answered.

Jesus said to them, “Truly I tell you, tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God ahead of you.

32 For John came to you to show you the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and prostitutes did. And even after you saw this, you did not repent and believe him.”

The Parable of the Wicked Tenants

33 “Listen to another parable: There was a landowner who planted a vineyard. He put a wall around it, dug a winepress in it, and built a watchtower. Then he rented the vineyard to some farmers and moved to another place.

34 When the harvest time approached, he sent his servants to the tenants to collect his fruit.

35 The tenants seized his servants; they beat one, killed another, and stoned a third.

36 Then he sent other servants to them, more than the first time, and the tenants treated them the same way.

37 Last of all, he sent his son to them. ‘They will respect my son,’ he said.

38 But when the tenants saw the son, they said to each other, ‘This is the heir. Come, let’s kill him and take his inheritance.’

39 So they took him and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.

40 Therefore, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?”

41 They replied, “He will bring those wretches to a wretched end and will rent the vineyard to other tenants, who will give him his share of the crop at harvest time.”

42 Jesus said to them, “Have you never read in the Scriptures:

‘The stone the builders rejected

has become the cornerstone;

the Lord has done this,

and it is marvelous in our eyes’?

43 Therefore I tell you that the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit.

44 Anyone who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces, but anyone on whom it falls will be crushed.”

45 When the chief priests and Pharisees heard Jesus' parables, they knew He was talking about them.
46 They looked for a way to arrest Him, but they were afraid of the crowd because the people held that He was a prophet.

Key Lessons from Matthew 21

- Jesus enters as King – He fulfilled prophecy by riding humbly into Jerusalem as the promised Messiah.
- Worship belongs to Him – The crowds and even children praised Him, declaring His kingship.
- True fruit matters – The cursed fig tree represents fruitless faith; God calls for genuine fruit in our lives.
- Jesus' authority is divine – His power and mission came directly from the Father, not from men.
- Obedience proves faith – The parable of the two sons shows that actions matter more than empty words.
- Rejecting God's Son brings judgment – The parable of the tenants warns that those who reject Christ will face destruction, but God's kingdom will advance through others who believe.

Matthew 22 – Crawford Standard Bible

“The Wedding Feast, Questions of Authority, and the Greatest Commandment”

The Parable of the Wedding Feast

1 Jesus spoke to them again in parables, saying,

2 “The kingdom of heaven is like a king who prepared a wedding banquet for his son.

3 He sent his servants to those who had been invited to the banquet, but they refused to come.

4 Then he sent more servants and said, ‘Tell those who have been invited: I have prepared my dinner. My oxen and fattened cattle are butchered, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding banquet.’

5 But they paid no attention and went off—one to his field, another to his business.

6 The rest seized his servants, mistreated them, and killed them.

7 The king was furious. He sent his army and destroyed those murderers and burned their city.

